About this Plain English Version Bible

This is a translation of the Holy Bible for Indigenous Australians that grew up talking their own language, and then later they learned to talk English. We wanted to make the message of the Holy Bible clear for them, so we used the plain sort of English that they use and understand. That is why we call it the Plain English Version.

We want to thank all the Indigenous people that helped us with this translation. About the Plain English Version (PEV)

Thousands of years ago God got men to write his message for people. Those men did not write it in English. Most of them wrote it in their own language, or in a language that lots of people knew at that time.

The 1st part of the Bible is called the Old Testament, and most of it was in the Hebrew language. The writing in the Hebrew language looked like this,

הָאֵלֹהִים בָּרָא בְרֵאשִׁית

That is the Hebrew for,

First of all, a long time ago, God made everything.

The 2nd part of the Bible is called the New Testament, and it was in the Greek language. The writing in the Greek language at that time looked like this,

ΑΡΧΗ ΤΟΥ ΕΥΑΓΓΕΛΙΟΥ ΙΗΣΟΥ ΧΡΙΣΤΟΥ (Not yet translated chapter 19.)

That is the Greek for,

This story is good news. It is all about Jesus Christ, God's son. The story starts like this.

Over the years a lot of people studied those languages and found out how to understand them properly, and they wrote books about it. So we used those books to help us with this translation.

We took 2 steps when translating the PEV.

1. We tried to properly understand the message that the writers wrote.
2. Then we tried to write that same message in plain English.

We know we can't always find a word in plain English that means the same thing as a word in the writer's language, so we often used more English words to make the passage mean the right thing. We reckon it does not matter how many words we use, so long as it has the same message that the writer wrote. We explain this a lot more on page 491 to page 495 at the back of this Bible.

Pictures and maps

Everything in this book happened a long time ago, so today nobody properly knows what those people or places looked like, but we put some pictures in this book to help the people reading it get some idea about how things looked.

We also put in some maps for people to see where the different places are.

We got the pictures and maps from other people, and they said we can put them in this Bible. We have a list of all those people on page 496.

Sorry, this is only some parts of the Holy Bible

We know that all of the Holy Bible is important, because it is God's Word. It has his messages to everybody in the world. But it will take us a long time to translate all of it into plain English. It has taken us years to translate this much of the Holy Bible, and it will probably take us a lot more years to translate the rest. So we are printing this much now, so that people can read this much of it, and they can learn what God has to say to them. We don't want to make everyone wait until we translate all the rest of the Holy Bible.

There are 24 books here in this Bible. Some of them have some parts missing because we have not yet translated those parts. Wherever there is a bit missing, we put a note in brackets (like this) to explain why it is missing. For example, at the end of Matthew chapter 18, you will see this note,

You can read those stories and messages in Mark 10:1-31.)

In the New Testament there are 4 books that tell us about Jesus when he was here on the earth. They tell us about the things that he did and the important things that he said. The men that wrote those books were Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. None of those men wrote about all the things that Jesus did and said, but sometimes they wrote about the same things. This Bible has each of those books, but there are some parts of Matthew's book and Luke's book that we have not yet translated. We translated the stories in Matthew's book and Luke's book that are not in Mark's book or John's book, so this Bible has most of the stories that those 4 men wrote about Jesus and the important things he said.

Most English Bibles write the names of books in a short way. For example, they call one of the books The Acts of the Apostles, or sometimes just Acts. But a lot of those names are not very clear, so we have given them names that are more easy to understand. For example, instead of Acts we called that book The followers of Jesus did great things. Then we put in something to show the name that other Bibles have for that book. So at the start of that book, under its name, we put (*The book in the Holy Bible called Acts).

In each book we use normal letters, that stand up straight, for the bits that the writer wrote. But we have also put other words into each book, that the writer did not write. So, as much as possible, we use sloping letters, like these letters, for the words that we put in. Those words are the headings, and parts called About this book, and that sort of thing. And in some places we use those sloping letters for names, and for the meanings of names, in the bit that the writer wrote. The sloping letters are there to help people understand what they read in this book.

We hope God teaches you a lot as you read this Bible.

The first stories in the Holy Bible (Chapters 1-22 from the book in the Holy Bible called Genesis) About these stories

This book has stories from the 1st book in the Holy Bible, called Genesis. That word Genesis means start. It is the book that tells us how God started everything that is here today.

We have only translated the first 22 chapters of Genesis in this Bible. These chapters tell us what happened from the time when God started to make everything, until the time when a man called Abraham was alive. We have not yet translated the other 28 chapters. They are about Abraham's kids and grand-kids.

Genesis was in God's book that the Jewish people had before Jesus came to this earth. That book is now the first part of the Holy Bible, called the Old Testament.

Genesis is a very old book. The Jewish people say that Moses wrote it about 3,400 years ago. He was their leader at that time. But Genesis is a very important book for us today. It tells us that God made people, and everything else. And it tells us that people went wrong. But it also shows us that God will look after the people that want to be his friends and do what he says.

God made everything

<sup>1</sup> First of all, a long time ago, God made everything. He made the sky, and he made the earth. He made all the things that are everywhere. <sup>2</sup> The earth didn't have any shape. It didn't have anything. It was covered with deep water. Everything was dark. It was dark all over the water, but God's spirit moved around on the top of the water.

Day number 1

<sup>3</sup> God said, "I want light." Straight away, light was shining everywhere.* <sup>4</sup> God looked at it, and he saw that it was good. So God split up the light and the dark. <sup>5</sup> He called the light day time, and he called the dark night time.

After that all happened, there was night time and there was morning time. That was day number 1.

Day number 2

<sup>6</sup> Then God said, "I want something to split the water in half."* <sup>7</sup> So God made the sky to split the water in half. God left some of the water up high, and he left some of it on the ground, and he put the sky in the middle. <sup>8</sup> And when God made it, he called it sky.

After that all happened, there was night time and there was morning time. That was day number 2.

Day number 3

<sup>9</sup> Then God said, "I want all the water that is on the ground to come together to one place, and I want dry ground to come up." Then the water moved to the places where God wanted it, and the dry ground came up. <sup>10</sup> God called the dry ground land, and he called that water sea. God looked at the land and the sea, and he saw that everything was good.

<sup>11</sup> Then God said, "I want the land to grow all sorts of plants on the earth. I want plants with seeds, and trees with fruit that have seeds inside." And God made it happen. <sup>12</sup> So all sorts of plants grew on the land, plants with seeds, and trees with fruit that have seeds inside. God looked at all those plants, and he saw that everything was good.

<sup>13</sup> After that all happened, there was night time and there was morning time. That was day number 3.

Day number 4

<sup>14</sup> Then God said, "I want some lights in the sky. I want the lights to split up the day time from the night time. They will show the time. They will show the season, and the time of the year, and the time of day. <sup>15</sup> I will put these lights in the sky to shine on the earth." So God did that. <sup>16</sup> He made 2 big lights. He made one light brighter than the other light. That bright light shines in the day time. We call it the sun. The other light shines in the night time. We call it the moon. And God made the stars too.

<sup>17</sup> God put all those lights in the sky to shine on the earth. <sup>18</sup> One light shines during the day, and another light shines at night. Those lights split the day time from the night time. God looked at those lights, and he saw that everything was good.

<sup>19</sup> After that all happened, there was night time and there was morning time. That was day number 4.

Day number 5

<sup>20</sup> Then God said, "I want the water to be full of fish and all sorts of living things. And I want birds that fly around in the sky, above the earth.”<sup>21</sup> So God made all the different sorts of things that live and move in the sea. He made the great big sea animals and a lot of other things that live in the sea. And God made all the different sorts of birds too. God looked at all those things, and he saw that everything was good.

<sup>22</sup> God was good to them, and he said to them, “All of you living things will have lots of young ones, so that the sea will be full of fish, and lots of birds will fly around everywhere.”

<sup>23</sup> After that all happened, there was night time and there was morning time. That was day number 5.

Day number 6

<sup>24</sup> Then God said, “I want the land to be full of all different sorts of animals. I want animals that are wild, and animals that are not wild. I want lizards, and insects, and other things that crawl around on the ground.” And God made it happen just like that. <sup>25</sup> God made all the different sorts of animals, the animals that are wild and the animals that are not wild. And he made all the different sorts of lizards, and insects, and other things that crawl around on the ground. God looked at all those things, and he saw that everything was good.

<sup>26</sup> Then God said, “We are going to make people. They will be like us. They will be boss over the fish and everything that lives in the sea, and they will be boss over the birds that fly in the sky, and they will be boss over all the animals that are on the land, the animals that are wild, and the animals that are not wild, and all the lizards, and insects, and other things that crawl around on the ground. People will be boss over all of them.”*

<sup>28</sup> God was good to them, and he said to them, “You will have lots of kids, and the earth will be full of people. You people will be boss over all the earth. You will be boss over the fish in the sea, and you will be boss over the birds in the sky, and you will be boss over all the animals that live on the land.”*

<sup>29</sup> Then God said to them, “Look, I made lots of food plants for you. I made plants that have seeds in them, and trees with fruit on them too. You can eat the seeds from those plants and the fruit from those trees. That bush tucker will be your food. <sup>30</sup> And I made green plants too, for all the animals of the earth to eat, and for all the birds of the sky to eat, and for all the lizards, and insects, and other things that crawl around on the ground to eat too. Everything that breathes air can eat those green plants.”

<sup>31</sup> God looked at everything he made, and he saw that all of it was very good.

After that all happened, there was night time and there was morning time. That was day number 6.

Day number 7

<sup>1</sup> God finished making everything. He finished making the sky, and the earth, and everything that is on the earth too.

<sup>3</sup> So God made day number 7 a good and special day. He said, “I’ve finished making everything now, and I’m resting on day number 7. So day number 7 is a special day.”*

At first everything was different

<sup>4</sup> This story is about the time when God made the earth and the sky. <sup>5</sup> At first, God didn’t send any rain on the earth, and there were no people to make the ground right for the plants. So nothing was growing on the earth at that time. <sup>6</sup> Water used to come up from under the ground and wet the top of all the ground.

God made the first man

<sup>7</sup> God took some dirt, and he made a man out of it. Then God breathed into the man’s nose, and God’s breath gave him life. So that man became a living person.*

The garden in Eden

<sup>8</sup> Then God made a garden in a place called Eden. It was in the east part of the land. And God put the man in that garden.

<sup>9</sup> And God made some trees grow there in that garden. They were pretty, and they had fruit that was good to eat. And God put 2 special trees in the middle of the garden. If people eat the fruit of one of those trees, they will stay alive. And if they eat the fruit from the other tree, they will know if the things they do are good, or if they are bad.*

<sup>10</sup> A river started in Eden, and it watered the garden. Then that river flowed out and split up into 4 rivers. <sup>11</sup> The 1st river was called Pishon. It flowed around the land called Havilah. In that country there was lots of gold. <sup>12</sup> It was really good gold.

* 1:26 1 Corinthians 11:7 * 1:27 Matthew 19:4; Mark 10:6 * 1:28 Genesis 5:1-2 * 2:2 Hebrews 4:4, 10

* 2:3 Exodus 20:11 * 2:7 1 Corinthians 15:45 * 2:9 Revelation 2:7; 22:2, 14

And there were pretty stones, and a good-smelling gum that comes from a tree too.

The 4th river was called Euphrates.

<sup>15</sup> God put the man into the garden in Eden and gave him some work to do. He had to look after the garden and make sure all the plants grew strong and healthy.

The special tree

<sup>16</sup> And God told the man, "You can eat fruit from the trees in this garden. <sup>17</sup> There is only one tree that you can't eat its fruit. You can't eat the fruit from that tree that lets you know if the things you do are good, or if they are bad. I'm telling you, if you eat any fruit from that tree, you will die, for sure."

God made the first woman

<sup>18</sup> And God said, "It is not good for this man to be by himself. I'm going to make somebody else to be a mate for the man, somebody that will be good for him."

<sup>19</sup> And God made all the animals and birds out of dirt from the ground, and he brought them to the man. God wanted the man to give all the animals and birds their names. The man could say any name he wanted for each one, and those names stayed with them. <sup>20</sup> So the man gave each animal a name. He named all the wild animals, and all the animals that are not wild, and all the birds. That man's own name was Adam. (That name means man.) There were lots of animals and birds, but none of them were the right sort of mate that was good for Adam.

<sup>21</sup> So God made the man go to sleep. It was a really strong deep sleep. And while he was asleep, God took out one of his rib bones. Then God closed up the place where that rib was. <sup>22</sup> Then God used the man's rib bone and made a woman from it. After the man woke up, God took the woman over to the man. <sup>23</sup> The man looked at that woman, and he said, "This is really good. Now I have a mate. God took out a part of my body, and he made it into a mate for me. Yes, he used my rib bone to make her. God made her out of a man's body, so I'm going to call her woman."

<sup>24</sup> That's how God made a woman, he made her out of a man's body. That is the reason why a man will leave his mother and father and marry a woman. The man and his wife will join with each other, and their bodies will be like one body.*

The snake tricked the woman

<sup>1</sup> God made lots of animals, but the snake was the animal that had the most brains. He was really smart. One day, the snake went to the woman and said to her, "Did God say, 'You can't eat fruit from any of the trees in the garden'? Is that true?"*

<sup>2</sup> The woman said, "No, that's not true. We can eat fruit from those trees there in the garden. <sup>3</sup> God said that there is only one tree that we can't eat from. We can't eat any fruit that comes from one of the trees that is in the middle of the garden. God will not even let us touch that tree. He said that if we eat fruit from that tree, we will die."

<sup>4</sup> The snake said to the woman, "You will not die. <sup>5</sup> God knows what will happen if you eat fruit from that tree. He knows that if you eat fruit from that tree, you will know more things, like God himself. You will know if the things you do are good, or if they are bad."

The man and the woman did the wrong thing

<sup>6</sup> The woman looked at that tree. It was pretty, and the fruit on that tree looked really good to eat, and she reckoned that if she eats some of that fruit, she will think properly. So the woman got some of that fruit, and she ate it, and she gave some of it to her husband, and he ate that fruit too. <sup>7</sup> Straight away, the man and the woman knew more things. They knew that they were naked, and they felt shame. They wanted to make clothes to cover up their naked bodies, so they picked some big leaves from a tree and sewed the leaves together to make some clothes.

The man and the woman tried to hide from God

<sup>8</sup> Later on, in the cool part of the day, the man and the woman heard God walking in the garden. So they got behind some trees in the garden to hide from God.

<sup>10</sup> The man said, "I heard you walking in the garden and I was frightened, because I'm naked. So I hid from you."

* 2:24 Matthew 19:5; Mark 10:7-8; 1 Corinthians 6:16; Ephesians 5:31 * 3:1 Revelation 12:9; 20:2

some of that fruit from the tree that I told you not to eat from?"

<sup>12</sup> The man said, "Yes, but it was the woman that you put here with me, she gave me fruit from that tree, so I ate it."

<sup>13</sup> Then God said to the woman, "Why did you do that bad thing?"*

The woman said, "That snake tricked me. That's the reason why I ate that fruit."

God judged the snake

<sup>14</sup> Then God said, "Snake, you did the wrong thing, so I will curse you. I will not curse the other animals, but I will curse all you snakes. From now on, you are going to crawl around on your bellies. You will always be down on the ground in the dirt."

<sup>15</sup> The woman's kids will hate you, and so will all their kids, and all the people that will be born later on. People will always be your enemies. And Snake, your kids will hate the woman's kids, and so will all the snake mob that will be born later on. You snake mob will always be the people's enemies. They will hit your heads, and you will bite their feet."*

God judged the woman

<sup>16</sup> Then God said to the woman, "I'm going to give you a lot of trouble. You are going to have a lot of pain whenever you have a baby. It will hurt you a lot. But you will really want to have a husband, and your husband will be your boss."

God judged the man

<sup>17-18</sup> Then God said to the man, "I told you not to eat any fruit from one of the trees in the middle of the garden, but you listened to your wife, and you ate that fruit. So I will curse the ground and make it bad for you. It will never be easy for you to get your food from the plants in the ground any more. The ground will have lots of rubbish plants and prickles in it."*

<sup>19</sup> You will work very hard to get your food, so you will get hot, and you will sweat a lot. And later on, you will die. I made you from the dirt, and after you die, your body will turn back into dirt."

God hunted Adam and Eve out of Eden

<sup>22</sup> After that, God said, "These people are like us now. They know what things are good, and what things are bad. We have to stop them, so they will not eat fruit from the other tree in the middle of the garden, the tree that makes people stay alive. If they eat that fruit, they will live for ever."* <sup>23</sup> So God hunted them out of the garden. To get food, they had to dig the ground and grow plants. You know, God made that man out of the ground, and after they left the garden, that man had to dig that same ground.

<sup>24</sup> After God hunted them out of the garden, he made sure that they couldn't get back. He put some of his angel workers to be guards just outside the east side of the garden in Eden. Their job was to stop anybody from getting near the tree that makes people stay alive. They had long knives that were on fire, and they waved those long knives everywhere, to keep everyone away.

Cain and Abel gave things to God

<sup>1</sup> Adam and Eve slept together, like a man does with his wife, and then Eve had a baby boy. Eve said, "God has helped me make another human." So she gave him the name Cain. That name means make. <sup>2</sup> After that, they had another son, and she gave him the name Abel.

Abel grew up, and he looked after sheep and goats all the time. Cain grew up, and he became a gardener. He dug the ground and grew plants for people to eat.

<sup>3</sup> One day, Cain brought a gift to give to God. He brought some food from his garden. <sup>4</sup> And Abel brought a gift to give to God too. He gave God some of his young sheep and goats. They were the first ones born to their mothers. Abel brought the best bits of meat from those sheep and goats. And God was happy with Abel, and with his gift.* <sup>5</sup> But God was not happy with Cain, or with his gift. Then Cain got very angry. His face changed, and he looked very sad.

<sup>6</sup> God said to Cain, "Why are you angry? Why do you look sad?" <sup>7</sup> If you do the right thing, I will be happy with you. But, if you don't do the right thing, look out, you will always want to do more bad things. But you have to control yourself and stop doing bad things."

* 3:13 2 Corinthians 11:3; 1 Timothy 2:14 * 3:15 Revelation 12:17 * 3:17-18 Hebrews 6:8 * 3:22 Revelation 22:14 * 4:4 Hebrews 11:4 * 4:8 Matthew 23:35; Luke 11:51; 1 John 3:12

So Cain and Abel went out bush together. While they were there, Cain hit his brother, and killed him dead.*

<sup>9</sup> Later, God said to Cain, "Where is your brother, Abel?"

Cain said, "I don't know where my brother is. It's not my job to look after him."

<sup>10</sup> God said to Cain, "You did a really bad thing. Your brother's blood is on the ground. It's like his blood is calling out to me. It is telling me you killed him.*"

<sup>11</sup> So now I'm going to curse you. You killed your brother, and his blood is on the ground. So I will make the ground bad for you.

<sup>12</sup> If you try to grow plants in the ground, nothing will grow for you. You will go away from me. And you will walk around in lots of places, but you will not have a home."

<sup>13</sup> Cain said to God, "God, you are too hard on me. <sup>14</sup> If you make me leave this land where I grow my food, and if you make me go away from you, and if you make me walk around everywhere so I will not have a home, then somebody will find me and finish me."

<sup>15</sup> God said, "I will not let that happen. I'll tell everybody that if they kill you, then I will punish them 7 times more than I punished you." So God put a mark on Cain's head, so that everybody will know that they can't kill him.

The people born into Cain's family

<sup>16</sup> After that, Cain went away from God and went to live in a place called Nod. That country was on the east side of Eden. <sup>17</sup> Cain slept with his wife, like married people do together, and then she had a baby boy, called Enok. Cain built a town, and he also called it Enok, after his son. <sup>18</sup> Enok grew up, and he had a son, called Irad.

Irad grew up, and he had a son, called Mehujayel.

Mehujayel grew up, and he had a son, called Methushayel.

Methushayel grew up, and he had a son, called Lamek.

<sup>19</sup> Lamek grew up, and he married 2 women. One wife's name was Adah, and the other wife's name was Zillah.

<sup>20</sup> Lamek's wife Adah had a baby boy, called Jabal. Jabal grew up and he was the first person to go around with mobs of cows and bulls, just living in a tent, not a house.

<sup>21</sup> Adah had another son, called Jubal. Jubal grew up and was the first person to play musical instruments. He played a harp and a flute.

Zillah also had a daughter, called Namah.

<sup>23</sup> One day, Lamek said to his 2 wives, "Adah and Zillah, listen to me properly. A young man hit me and hurt me, so I killed him dead. <sup>24</sup> God said that if anyone killed Cain, he will punish that person 7 times more than he punished Cain. I reckon I'm more important than Cain. So if somebody kills me for killing that young man, I reckon God will punish that person 77 times more than he punished Cain."*

Adam and Eve had another son

<sup>25</sup> Adam and Eve slept together again, like a man does with his wife, and they had another son, and they gave him the name Seth. That name means gave. Eve said, "God gave me another son to take the place of Abel, our son that Cain killed."

<sup>26</sup> Seth grew up, and he had a son too, and he gave him the name Enosh. At that time people started to call God by his special name Yahweh when they showed respect to him.

The people born into Adam's family

<sup>1</sup> This is the story about Adam's family. You see, when God made people, he made them to be like himself. <sup>2</sup> And he made them men and women, and he called them human beings, and he was good to them.*

<sup>3</sup> Adam lived a long time. He was 130 years old when he had his son called Seth. He was a human being, just like Adam, his father. <sup>4</sup> After Seth was born, Adam lived for another 800 years, and he had more sons and daughters. <sup>5</sup> He died when he was 930 years old.

<sup>6</sup> Seth lived a long time too. He was 105 years old when he had a son called Enosh. <sup>7</sup> Then Seth lived for another 807 years, and he had more sons and daughters. <sup>8</sup> He died when he was 912 years old.

<sup>9</sup> Enosh lived a long time too. He was 90 years old when he had a son called Kenan. <sup>10</sup> Then Enosh lived for another 815 years, and he had more sons and daughters. <sup>11</sup> He died when he was 905 years old.

* 4:24 Matthew 18:22

* 5:2 Genesis 1:27-28; Matthew 19:4; Mark 10:6

840 years, and he had more sons and daughters. <sup>14</sup> He died when he was 910 years old.

<sup>15</sup> Mahalalel lived a long time too. He was 65 years old when he had a son called Jared. <sup>16</sup> Then Mahalalel lived for another 830 years, and he had more sons and daughters. <sup>17</sup> He died when he was 895 years old.

<sup>18</sup> Jared lived a long time too. He was 162 years old when he had a son called Enok. <sup>19</sup> Then Jared lived for another 800 years, and he had more sons and daughters. <sup>20</sup> He died when he was 962 years old.

<sup>21</sup> Enok lived a long time too. He was 65 years old when he had a son called Methuselah. <sup>22-24</sup> Then Enok lived for another 300 years after Methuselah was born, and he had more sons and daughters.

Enok was always God's friend, and he spent a lot of time with God. One day, when he was 365 years old, he wasn't here on the earth any more. Nobody could find him anywhere. You see, he didn't die, but God took him straight up to heaven.*

<sup>25</sup> Methuselah lived a long time too. He was 187 years old when he had a son called Lamek. <sup>26</sup> Then Methuselah lived for another 782 years, and he had more sons and daughters. <sup>27</sup> He died when he was 969 years old.

<sup>28</sup> Lamek lived a long time too. He was 182 years old when he had a son. <sup>29</sup> He named his son Noah. That name means help people be happy. Lamek said, "God cursed the ground, so we have to work really hard to dig the ground, but Noah will help us be happy, even though we have to work really hard." <sup>30</sup> Then Lamek lived for another 595 years, and he had more sons and daughters. <sup>31</sup> He died when he was 777 years old.

<sup>32</sup> Noah lived a long time too. After he was 500 years old, he had 3 sons. They were called Shem, and Ham, and Jafeth.

There were big, strong fighting men

<sup>1</sup> The people on the earth kept on having lots of kids, and those kids grew up and kept on having more kids, so after some time there were lots of people on the earth. And some people had very pretty daughters.

<sup>2</sup> There were some men that everyone called the Sons of God. They looked at the pretty young women, then they picked out the women they wanted, and they married them. <sup>3</sup> God looked at everything that was happening. He said, "I gave people their breath, but I will not let it stay in them for ever. They are just people. They will live for only 120 years."

<sup>4</sup> Those men that were called the Sons of God, they slept with the pretty women, like men usually sleep with their wives, and then those women had kids called Nefalim. Those Nefalim kids grew up to be big, strong fighting men. They were the great fighters in the stories from a long time ago.*

People kept on doing bad things

<sup>5</sup> God looked at the people on the earth, and he saw them doing lots of bad things. He knew the way they were thinking. They were thinking bad things all the time. God saw that the people were very bad. <sup>6</sup> So God was feeling sad. He really felt no good inside. He thought to himself, "I should not have made all these people."

<sup>7</sup> And God said, "These people keep on doing bad things, and that makes me really sad. I'm sorry that I made them. I'm sorry I made everything on the earth. I want to finish up everything. I want to kill all the people I made, and I want to kill all the animals on earth, the big animals, and the little animals, and even the animals that crawl around on the ground, and I want to kill all the birds that fly in the sky."

The story about Noah

<sup>9</sup> This is the story about Noah and his family. Noah was a good man. He didn't do anything wrong. He was God's friend, and he spent a lot of time with God.* <sup>10</sup> He had 3 sons. Their names were Shem, Ham, and Jafeth.

<sup>11-12</sup> Everyone on the earth kept on doing bad things. They were doing wrong to each other, and fighting and hurting each other. God looked down and saw all the bad things that were going on. The people were always doing things that were really bad.

<sup>13</sup> So God said to Noah, "Look, everyone is doing bad things and hurting each other. I'm going to kill everyone, and I will finish up everything on the earth."

God told Noah to build a big boat

<sup>14</sup> Then God said to Noah, "Make a really big boat for yourself. Make it out of that strong wood called cypress. Make some rooms in the boat. And get some tar, and paint the inside of the boat, and paint the outside too. That will keep the water out of the boat.

<sup>15</sup> Listen, this is how big I want you to make the boat. It has to be 140 metres long, and 23 metres wide, and 13½ metres high. <sup>16</sup> I want you to make a roof for that boat, but leave ½ a metre between the top of the walls and the roof, all around the top of the boat. And put a door in the side of the boat. And make 3 floors in the boat, one floor on the bottom and the other 2 floors upstairs.

<sup>19</sup> And you have to bring lots of animals into that boat too. Every sort of animal that is on the earth has to go into that boat, so that they will stay alive in the big flood. Get one male and one female of each sort of those animals, and take them into the boat with you. You see, you have to keep those animals alive. <sup>20</sup> And you have to do the same thing for all those different sorts of birds. Get one male and one female of all of those birds. And you have to do the same thing for all those animals that crawl around on the ground. You have to get one male and one female of all those animals too. I will get 2 of every sort of animal to come to you, so you can keep them alive.

<sup>21</sup> And you have to gather up lots of food, all the sorts of food that people eat, and all the things that animals eat too. You have to put it all in the boat, so that you will all have enough food."

<sup>22</sup> Then Noah did all of that. He did everything that God told him to do.*

God told Noah to get ready for a flood

<sup>1</sup> After that, God said to Noah, "You are the only man that lives the right way. Get your family and take them into the big boat. <sup>2</sup> You have to take every sort of animal with you into that big boat. You know the sorts of animals that are right for you to give to me? Well, get 7 males and 7 females from each of those sorts of animals. And get all the other animals too, the animals that are not right to give to me. Get one male and one female from each of those sorts of animals. They all have to go on to the big boat. <sup>3</sup> And the birds too. They have to go on to the big boat. Get 7 males and 7 females from each sort of bird. That's how you can keep those birds and animals alive, so that there will always be birds and animals on the earth.

<sup>4</sup> You see, I'm going to send a big rain. That rain will come in 7 days time. Then it will keep on raining all the time for 40 days. The flood water will come up and wash away all the things that I have made."

The flood water came

<sup>6-7</sup> Noah was 600 years old at the time that he went into the big boat to be safe from the flood. Noah, and his wife, and his 3 sons, and their wives too, they all went into the big boat. <sup>8-9</sup> And a big mob of animals came to Noah, and he took them into the boat too, just like God told him to. There were all sorts of animals. There were animals that were the right sort to give to God, and animals that were not the right sort to give to God. And there were birds and even animals that crawl around on the ground. And there were males and females of each sort of animal, and they went in 2 at a time. They all came together on that big boat, just like God wanted them to.

Noah, and his wife, and his sons, and their wives too, they all went into the big boat. The names of Noah's sons were Shem, and Ham, and Jafeth, and they each had a wife. They all went into the boat with all the animals. There were wild animals, and animals that are not wild, and animals that crawl around on the ground. And all the birds were there too. There were males and females of every bird and animal on that big boat. All of the different sorts of animals went into that big boat with Noah. They went in 2 at a time, just like God told Noah. And after the last animal went into the boat with Noah and his family, God shut the door.

Then, on that same day, the rain came out of the sky. It rained really hard all the time. It was like God opened up a big window in the sky, and rain poured down. And water came up from springs, and from everywhere under the ground too. It kept on raining all the time for 40 days. <sup>17</sup> The flood water kept on getting higher and higher for all those 40 days, and the big boat started to float on the water. <sup>18</sup> The water got deeper and deeper, but that boat was all right, it floated on top of the water, high above the ground.

<sup>19</sup> The water got so deep that it covered all the big mountains everywhere. <sup>20</sup> It covered the tops of those mountains with about 7 metres of water. <sup>21</sup> All the people and animals that lived on the earth died. Only the people and animals on that big boat didn't die. The flood water killed all the birds, and it killed all the animals, the wild animals and the animals that are not wild, and it killed all the animals that crawl around on the ground, and all the people.* <sup>22</sup> They all died, everything that breathed air and lived on the ground. <sup>23</sup> There were no people or animals left on the earth. There were no birds, and no animals that crawl around on the ground, and no other animals, and no people. God killed them all and washed them away. The only ones that stayed alive were the animals and birds on the big boat with Noah and his family.

The flood water went down

<sup>1</sup> And then God thought about Noah and the animals with him in that big boat. And he made a strong wind blow on the flood water to help it to go down. <sup>2</sup> And God stopped the water from coming up from under the ground, and he stopped the rain falling from the sky.

<sup>3</sup> The flood water went down slowly, and after 5 months it was a lot lower. <sup>4</sup> So 5 months after the start of the flood, the big boat got stuck in the mountains called the Ararat mountains. <sup>5</sup> The flood water kept going down for the next 2½ months, and then they saw the tops of the mountains, sticking up out of the water.

<sup>6</sup> Then, 40 days later, Noah opened a window in the big boat. He wanted to find out if the water went down, and if a bird could find some dry ground. <sup>7</sup> So he let a crow go out of the window. The crow didn't come back to the big boat. It just kept on flying around until the flood waters dried up.

the ground, and the pigeon couldn't find a place to stop and rest, so it went back to the big boat. Noah held out his hand for the bird, and he helped it back into the boat.

<sup>10</sup> Noah waited for 7 more days, and then he let the pigeon go out of the boat again. <sup>11</sup> This time the pigeon came back just before night time. It had a fresh leaf from an olive tree in its mouth. Then Noah knew the flood water was getting lower, and the trees were growing again. <sup>12</sup> Noah waited 7 more days, then he sent the pigeon out again. This time the pigeon didn't come back to the big boat.

The water was still going down, and on the 1st day of the new year, Noah took off some of the roof from the big boat and looked around. He could see that the ground was getting dry. <sup>14</sup> After another 2 months, the earth was dry. <sup>15</sup> Then God said to Noah, <sup>16</sup> "You can go out of the big boat now. You can all go out, you, and your wife, and your sons, and their wives too. <sup>17</sup> And bring all the animals out of the big boat. Bring out all the animals, and the birds, and the animals that crawl around on the ground. They can all come out, so they can live on the earth and have lots of young ones, so that they will go everywhere on the earth."

<sup>18-19</sup> So Noah, and his wife, and his sons, and their wives, they all came out of the big boat. And all the animals and all the birds came out of the big boat too. They came out in groups. Each sort of animal was in its family group.

Noah said thank you to God

<sup>20</sup> Then Noah piled up stones to make a special table with a flat top, and he got one of each sort of animal and bird that are the right sorts to give to God, and he killed them, and he put them on that special table, and he burned them there. He did that to give them to God, to say thank you to God.

<sup>21-22</sup> God smelled the meat cooking on that stone table, and he was happy. Then God said to himself, "People always just want to do bad things. They do that all their lives, from when they are little kids, right up until the time they die. But I will never again punish them the same way that I did this time. I will never again finish up everything that breathes air, and I will never again curse the earth. While the earth is still here, the seasons will stay the same. There will always be day and night, and every year there will be a hot time and a cold time, a wet season and a dry season. There will always be a right time to plant seeds for food, and a right time to get the food from those plants."

9

God promised not to cover the earth with water again

<sup>1</sup> God was good to Noah and his sons. God said to them, "I want you to have lots of kids, and fill the earth with people.*
<sup>2</sup> I'm making you boss over everything that lives on the ground, all the animals and all the birds, and I'm making you boss over the fish and everything in the sea too. They will be frightened of you.

<sup>3</sup> I gave you bush tucker to eat, and now I'm giving you meat to eat too. You can eat anything that moves. <sup>4</sup> But I'm telling you this about blood. Blood is important. It keeps a body alive. So don't eat any blood. You have to drain the blood out of the animal before you eat it. Don't eat any meat that still has the blood in it.*
<sup>5</sup> And I will punish anyone and anything that kills a person dead. If an animal kills somebody, it has to die. And it is the same for a person that kills another person, that murderer has to die. <sup>6</sup> You see, I made people to be like myself, so they are important. So if somebody kills another person dead, you have to kill that murderer dead.*

<sup>7</sup> But I want you mob to have lots of kids, so that there will be lots of people everywhere on the earth.*"

<sup>8</sup> Then God told Noah and his sons, <sup>9</sup> "I promise this to you and to your kids, and to all the people that will be born later on.
<sup>10</sup> And I promise this to all the animals that live on the earth too, all the birds, and all the wild animals, and all the animals that are not wild. I promise this to all of the animals that came out of the big boat with you. <sup>11</sup> I promise that there will never again be a real big flood of water that will finish up everything on the earth. There will never again be a big flood that kills all the people and animals."

God sent a rainbow to help people remember what he promised

<sup>12</sup> And God said, "I will give you something to help you remember what I promised to you, and to all of the animals living on the earth, and to your kids, and to all the people that will be born later on. <sup>13</sup> It is my rainbow, up there in the sky. I'm putting it there to help you remember what I promised to you, and to everything that lives on the earth. I promised that I will never again send a real big flood to finish up everything on the earth. <sup>14</sup> Sometimes I will send rain clouds into the sky, and there will be a rainbow in the clouds too. <sup>15</sup> Then I will remember what I promised to you, and to all the living animals. And there will never again be a flood that will kill all of the animals on the earth. <sup>16</sup> Every time I look at the rainbow in the clouds, I will remember what I promised to you, and to all the animals on the earth. I will never break that promise. It will last for ever."

<sup>17</sup> And God said to Noah, "This is very important. That rainbow will help you remember that I myself promised that for every living thing."

<sup>18-19</sup> Noah had 3 sons. Their names were Shem, and Ham, and Jafeth. They were on the boat with Noah, and after they got off the boat, they had their own sons and daughters. One of Ham's sons was called Canaan, and there were lots of other sons and daughters too. And later, all those kids had more kids, and it kept going like that. All the people in the world are from Noah's family.

<sup>20</sup> Soon after Noah came out of the big boat, he started growing a garden. He planted some grape vines, and they grew some grapes. Then he made some wine from those grapes. <sup>21</sup> Noah drank some of that wine and got drunk. He took his clothes off and went to sleep in his tent. <sup>22</sup> Ham (Canaan's father) went into the tent and saw his naked father. Ham didn't respect his father, so he went outside and told his brothers what happened. <sup>23</sup> Shem and Jafeth got a coat. They held it over their shoulders and walked backwards into the tent. They put the coat on their father to cover his naked body. They didn't turn around and look at their naked father.

<sup>24</sup> After Noah woke up, he found out what Ham, his youngest son, did to him. <sup>25</sup> Then Noah said, "I'm going to curse Canaan, Ham's son. He will have to work hard for his relatives, without pay. <sup>26</sup> God is good. I'm going to ask God to look after Shem, but Canaan will work hard for him with no pay. <sup>27</sup> I'm going to ask God to give Jafeth a big country. Jafeth and Shem will share that country, and Canaan will work hard for them with no pay.”

* 9:1 Genesis 1:28 * 9:4 Leviticus 7:26-27; 17:10-14; 19:26; Deuteronomy 12:16, 23; 15:23 * 9:6 Genesis 1:26;

Exodus 20:13 * 9:7 Genesis 1:28

The story about Noah's sons and their families

<sup>1</sup> This is the story about Noah's sons and their families. His sons were Shem, and Ham, and Jafeth, and after that big flood, they had kids too.

The tribes from Jafeth's family

<sup>2-5</sup> A long time later, the people that were born into Jafeth's family split up into different tribes and nations. Each tribe had their own language, and their own country. Jafeth's sons were Gomer, and Magog, and Madayi, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshek, and Tiras.

The tribes that were from Jafeth's son Gomer and his family were the Ashkenaz mob, and the Rifath mob, and the Togarmah mob.

The tribes that were from Jafeth's son Javan and his family were the Elishah mob, and the Tarshish mob, and the Kit mob, and the Rodan mob.

Javan's people lived near the sea.

The tribes from Ham's family

<sup>6</sup> The people that were born into Ham's family split up into different tribes too, and each tribe had their own language, and their own country. Ham's sons were Cush, and Egypt, and Put, and Canaan.

<sup>7</sup> The tribes that were from Ham's son Cush and his family were the Seba mob, and the Havilah mob, and the Sabtah mob, and the Ramah mob, and the Sabteca mob. And the tribes that were from Ramah and his family were the Sheba mob, and the Dedan mob.

<sup>10</sup> Nimrod controlled the country called Babylonia, and he was the boss over the cities called Babel, and Erech, and Akad. <sup>11</sup> After that, Nimrod got the country called Assyria, and he built the towns called Nineveh, and Rehoboth-Ir, and Calah. <sup>12</sup> Then he built a big town called Resen. It was between Nineveh and Calah.

<sup>13</sup> The tribes that were from Ham's son Egypt and his family were the Lud mob, and the Anam mob, and the Lehab mob, and the Naftuh mob, <sup>14</sup> and the Pathrus mob, and the Casluh mob, and the Caftor mob. (Later the Philistia nation were from the Caftor mob.)

<sup>20</sup> They were all the tribes and nations that were from Ham and his family. Each tribe had their own country, and their own language.

The tribes from Shem's family

<sup>23</sup> The tribes that were from Shem's son Aram and his family were the Uz mob, and the Hul mob, and the Gether mob, and the Mash mob.

<sup>24</sup> Shem's son Arfaxad had a son called Shelah, and he had a son called Eber. <sup>25</sup> Eber had 2 sons. The 1st son was called Peleg, and his young brother was called Joktan. That name Peleg means split up. He got that name because all the people split up into different tribes after he was born.

<sup>26</sup> The tribes that were from Eber's son Joktan's family were the Almodad mob, and the Shelef mob, and the Hazarmaveth mob, and the Jerah mob, <sup>27</sup> and the Hadoram mob, and the Uzal mob, and the Diklah mob, <sup>28</sup> and the Obal mob, and the Abimayel mob, and the Sheba mob, <sup>29</sup> and the Ofir mob, and the Havilah mob, and the Jobab mob. <sup>30</sup> All of those people were born into Joktan's family. Their country was in the mountains in the east, the country you see if you go from Mesha all the way to Sefar.

<sup>31</sup> They were all the tribes and nations that were from Shem's family. Each tribe had their own country, and their own language.

<sup>32</sup> That is the big list of all the families and tribes that were born into Noah's family. They split up into their own nations, and they went everywhere after the big flood.

People tried to build a tall building called Babel

<sup>1</sup> You know, at first everyone talked the same language. <sup>2</sup> And as people moved from place to place in the east, they got to some flat country in Babylonia, and they stayed there. <sup>3-4</sup> Then they said to each other, "Look, we can make bricks here. So come on, let's do that. We will bake them properly so that they are good strong bricks, and we will use them to build a city here. So come on, let's build a big tall building in that city. It will be so tall that it will go right up into the sky." You see, they had bricks and tar instead of stones and cement. And they said, "If we do that, everyone will think we are smart. Then we will not go and live all over the earth, but we will stay together right here."

God made people talk in different languages

<sup>5</sup> So the people started to build a city and a really tall building, and God came down to look at those things. <sup>6</sup> He said, "These people can all talk to each other in the same language, so they can do anything they want. If they keep on going this way, nothing will stop them from doing anything. <sup>7</sup> Come on, let's go down to these people, and we will make them talk in different languages. Then they will not understand each other, and they will be all mixed up. They will not work things out with each other, so they will not keep on building this city."

<sup>8</sup> So God made all the people talk in different languages. None of them could understand anything the other people were saying. So they stopped building their big city. <sup>9</sup> They all left that city and went to live in lots of different places, all over the world. That's how God got people to be in different tribes all over the world. And they called that city Babel. That means mixed up. They gave it that name because God mixed up their languages at that time.

Shem was 100 years old when he had a son called Arfaxad. That was 2 years after the big flood. <sup>11</sup> Shem lived for 500 years after he had Arfaxad, and he had more sons and daughters.

<sup>12</sup> Arfaxad was 35 years old when he had a son called Shelah. <sup>13</sup> Arfaxad lived for 403 years after he had Shelah, and he had more sons and daughters.*

<sup>14</sup> Shelah was 30 years old when he had a son called Eber. <sup>15</sup> Shelah lived for 403 years after he had Eber, and he had more sons and daughters.

<sup>16</sup> Eber was 34 years old when he had a son called Peleg. <sup>17</sup> Eber lived for 430 years after he had Peleg, and he had more sons and daughters.

<sup>18</sup> Peleg was 30 years old when he had a son called Reyu. <sup>19</sup> Peleg lived for 209 years after he had Reyu, and he had more sons and daughters.

<sup>20</sup> Reyu was 32 years old when he had a son called Serug. <sup>21</sup> Reyu lived for 207 years after he had Serug, and he had more sons and daughters.

<sup>22</sup> Serug was 30 years old when he had a son called Nahor. <sup>23</sup> Serug lived for 200 years after he had Nahor, and he had more sons and daughters.

<sup>24</sup> Nahor was 29 years old when he had a son called Terah. <sup>25</sup> Nahor lived for 119 years after he had Terah, and he had more sons and daughters.

<sup>26</sup> Terah had 3 sons after he was 70 years old. Their names were Abram, Nahor and Haran.

<sup>27</sup> This is the story about Terah's family. Terah had 3 sons, called Abram, and Nahor, and Haran.

Haran had a son called Lot. <sup>28-29</sup> And he also had 2 daughters called Milcah and Iscah. After that, Haran died, while his father, Terah, was still alive. He died in Ur, in Chaldia country, the place where he was born.

Nahor, Haran's brother, married Milcah. And Abram married a woman called Sarai, <sup>30</sup> but Abram and Sarai didn't have any kids. Sarai just couldn't have a baby.

<sup>31</sup> Then Terah went away from Ur, in Chaldia country, and he took some of his family with him. They were his son Abram, and Abram's wife Sarai, and his grand-son Lot. They all left Ur, and they started to go to the country called Canaan. But they stopped half-way, at a place called Haran, and they stayed there.

<sup>32</sup> Terah lived until he was 205 years old. Then he died there in Haran.

God picked Abram

<sup>1</sup> This story about Abram started when God said to him, "Abram, I want you to leave your country, your father's family and all your relatives, and go to the country that I will show you.* <sup>2</sup> And I will give you a big family, and they will become a great nation, and I will do good things for you and your family, and I will make your mob strong. Then everyone will know about you and your family, and everyone will respect you. And you and your family will do good things for other people. <sup>3</sup> If anyone does good things for you and your family, I will do good things for them. But, if anyone does bad things to you, and if they make trouble for you and your family, I will curse them and make trouble for them. I will use your family to do good things for all the families in the world."*

Abram and his family went to Canaan country

<sup>4-5</sup> Abram was 75 years old when he left the town called Haran and went to the country called Canaan. That was the country that God told him to go to. He took his wife Sarai, and his nephew Lot with him. He also took all the things and all the workers that they got in Haran, and they all went to the new country called Canaan. <sup>6</sup> Abram and everyone with him walked through that new country, and they went to a town called Shekem, and they camped there, near a big tree at a place called Moreh. The people that lived in that country were called the Canaan mob, and they didn't know God. <sup>7</sup> God showed himself to Abram there, and he said to him, "I will give this country to your son, and to all the people that will be born into his family later on." So Abram piled up stones to make a table with a flat top. It was a special place for him to burn an animal to show right respect to God.*

<sup>8</sup> Later on, Abram and his mob left Shekem, and they went south to the hill country that was on the east side of a town called Bethel, and they camped between Bethel and another town called Ayi. Bethel was to the west of his camp and Ayi was to the east. Then Abram piled up stones there to make another special table, and he burned animals on it to show respect to God. He prayed to God, and he called God by his special name Yahweh.

* 12:1 Acts 7:2-4; Hebrews 11:8      * 12:3 Galatians 3:8

<sup>9</sup> After that, Abram and his mob kept going south to the dry desert country.

Abram and his family went to Egypt

<sup>10</sup> At that time, there wasn't much food in that country. Everyone was short of food, so Abram and everyone with him went south to live in another country, called Egypt. <sup>11</sup> Just before they got to Egypt, Abram said to his wife, Sarai, "You are a really beautiful woman. <sup>12</sup> I reckon the men in Egypt will see you, and they will say, 'That beautiful woman is Abram's wife. Let's kill Abram, so that we can have her for ourselves.' Then they will kill me, but they will let you live. <sup>13</sup> So listen. You have to tell everyone that you are my sister. Then they will be good to me, and they will not kill me."*

<sup>14</sup> And that's what happened. They got to Egypt, and the people there looked at Sarai, and they saw that she was really beautiful. <sup>15</sup> Some of them worked for the big boss of Egypt, and they told him, "Sarai is really beautiful." So that big boss took her to live in his house. <sup>16</sup> That boss was very good to Abram, because he thought that Abram was Sarai's brother. He gave Abram sheep, and goats, and cows, and bulls, and donkeys, and camels, as well as men and women that had to work for Abram.

<sup>17</sup> God was not happy, because Sarai was living with the big boss of Egypt, so God made him really sick, and God made everyone that lived in his house really sick too. <sup>18-19</sup> Then that big boss found out that Sarai was already Abram's wife, and he got really wild. He sent somebody to get Abram, and he said to Abram, "You did a really bad thing to me. You tricked me. You didn't tell me that Sarai is your wife. You said, 'She is my sister,' and you let me marry her. Now, here is your wife. Take her back, and then get out of my country." <sup>20</sup> Then the big boss told his soldiers, "Get Abram, and Sarai, and everything they own, and all their workers, and send them out of Egypt. Send them away, and do it right now." So his soldiers did that. They sent Abram and his mob away from Egypt.

Abram and his nephew Lot split up

had a lot of silver and gold, and a big mob of animals.

<sup>3</sup> They were in that dry desert country for a while, then they went north from place to place until they got back to the town called Bethel. They camped in the same place that they camped at before. It was between Bethel and the town called Ayi. <sup>4</sup> That was the place where Abram built a special stone table to burn animals, to show respect to God. After Abram got back there, he prayed to God, and he called God by his special name Yahweh.

<sup>5</sup> Abram and his nephew Lot were still together. And Lot also had a big mob of sheep, and goats, and cows, and bulls. And he had a lot of tents for all his workers too. <sup>6-7</sup> But there was a problem. There were other people already living in that country. They were called the Canaan mob, and the Periz mob. And they had animals too, and all those animals needed grass and water, as well as Abram's animals, and Lot's animals too. But there wasn't enough grass and water in that place for all those animals. So Abram's work-men and Lot's work-men started to argue and fight with each other about whose animals got the grass and water. <sup>8</sup> Then Abram said to Lot, "I don't like this trouble. You and me, we are family, and I don't want trouble between us. And I don't want our work-men to argue and fight with each other. <sup>9</sup> Look, there is a lot of country here. Just look around, and you will see that there's plenty of country for both of us. So I reckon we have to split up. I want you to pick the part of the country you want, and then I will go somewhere else. If you pick the country to the east, then I will go to the country to the west, but if you pick the west country, then I will go to the east country."

<sup>10</sup> Lot looked to the east, towards a town called Zoar, in the flat country around the Jordan River. He saw that the flat country had plenty of grass and water. It looked just like God's garden, and like the country in Egypt. (That was before God burned up the towns in the flat country called Sodom and Gomorrah.)* <sup>11-12</sup> So Lot picked the flat country around the Jordan River, to the east.

Then Abram did what he promised, and he went to the country called Canaan. In that way, Lot's mob and Abram's mob went to different places, and there was no more trouble between their work-men.

Lot went to the flat country around the Jordan River. There were some towns there, and Lot camped near the town called Sodom. <sup>13</sup> The people that lived in Sodom were very bad. They were always going against God, and they did bad things all the time.

God made a promise to Abram

<sup>14</sup> Then, after Lot left, God said to Abram, "Look at all the country around you. Look to the north, and to the south, and to the east, and to the west. <sup>15</sup> I will give you all the country that you can see. Later on, you will have a son and lots of people will be born into his family, and they will own all this country, for ever.* <sup>16</sup> Look at the ground you are standing on, it has lots of little bits of dirt. Nobody can count all those little bits of dirt on the ground, and just like that, nobody will be able to count all the people that will be in your family later on. <sup>17</sup> All right, Abram, I want you to get up and walk all around the country that I'm giving you, and look at it all properly."

<sup>18</sup> So Abram went to the big trees that belonged to a man called Mamreh, near a town called Hebron, and he camped there. He piled up stones there and made another special table with a flat top, so that he could burn animals to show respect to God.

Soldiers grabbed Lot and his family and took them away

<sup>1-9</sup> This story is about the people in the flat country, and it started before Lot went to live near the town called Sodom. There were 5 tribes in that flat country at that time, and each tribe had a leader. These were the 5 tribes and their leaders,

- A tribe called Sodom, and their leader was called Bera.
- A tribe called Gomorrah, and their leader was called Birsha.
- A tribe called Admah, and their leader was Shinab.
- A tribe called the Zebo mob, and their leader was Shemeber.
- A tribe called Zoar. They are also called Bela.

There were another 4 tribes in the country to the east. These were those 4 tribes and their leaders,

- A tribe called Elam, and their leader was Kedorlayomer.
- A tribe called Babylonia, and their leader was called Amrafel.
- A tribe called Ellasar, and their leader was called Ariok.

* 13:10 Genesis 19:24      * 13:15 Acts 7:5

- A tribe called the Goy mob, and their leader was Tidal.

And Kedorlayomer was the boss over those 4 tribes in the east. Those 4 tribes sent their soldiers to fight the other 5 tribes, and the 4 tribes from the east won. So Kedorlayomer became the boss over the other 5 tribes too.

Those 5 tribes let him be their boss for 12 years. Then the next year, their leaders told Kedorlayomer that they didn't want him to be their boss any more. Kedorlayomer got really angry, and the next year, he got soldiers from the 4 tribes in the east, and they went to fight those 5 tribes.

On the way to that fight, Kedorlayomer's soldiers had other fights with some other tribes, and they won all those fights. They beat the Refa tribe at a place called Ashteroth-Karnayim, and they beat the Zuz tribe at a place called Ham, and they beat the Em tribe at a place called Shaveh-Kiriathayim, and they beat the Hor tribe in the hill country called Edom. They chased the Hor soldiers all the way to a place called El-Paran, near the desert. Then Kedorlayomer and the soldiers from the east, they all went back to a place called En-Mishpat. Another name for that place is Kadesh. Then Kedorlayomer and his mob fought the Amalek tribe and beat them, and took control of their country. Then they fought the Amor tribe in Hazazon-Tamar country, and beat them too.

While Kedorlayomer and his mob were fighting those other people, the 5 tribes that didn't want Kedorlayomer to be their boss, they went to the valley called Sidim. (Today there is salt water in that valley, and we call it the Dead Sea.) The soldiers of those 5 tribes got ready there to fight against Kedorlayomer and his 4 tribes from the east.

So when Kedorlayomer and his mob got to that Sidim valley there was a big fight.<sup>10</sup> Kedorlayomer and his mob won that fight. They beat those 5 tribes, and their soldiers all ran away. In that flat country there were lots of holes in the ground that were full of sticky black stuff, called tar. So when the soldiers from the 5 tribes ran away, some of them fell into those holes. But the rest of them ran up into the hills.

<sup>11</sup> So Kedorlayomer and his soldiers went to Sodom and Gomorrah, and they grabbed all the people that lived there. And they took everything the people owned, even their food, and then they started to go back to their own country.<sup>12</sup> At that time, Abram's nephew, Lot, lived in Sodom, so the soldiers grabbed Lot too, and his family, and all their things. Those soldiers took all of Lot's mob away with them.

Abram saved Lot and his family

<sup>13-14</sup> A man got away from Kedorlayomer and his mob, and he went and told Abram that they got Lot. At that time, Abram was living near the big trees that belonged to a man called Mamreh. Abram was a good friend of Mamreh, and also of Mamreh's 2 brothers. Their names were Eskol and Aner. Mamreh and his brothers belonged to the Amor tribe, and Abram belonged to the Hebrew tribe, but they all looked after each other.

Abram had 318 men that knew how to fight. They worked for Abram all their lives, and Abram really trusted them. So Abram got those men, and Mamreh, Eskol and Aner got their fighting men, and they all went to fight Kedorlayomer and his soldiers. They followed them, and they found them at a place to the north, called Dan.<sup>15</sup> Then, in the night time, Abram split up all the fighting men into groups, and they attacked Kedorlayomer and his soldiers. Abram and his men won that fight, and they chased those other soldiers all the way to a place called Hobah, north of Damascus town.<sup>16</sup> That's how Abram's mob saved Lot, and all the women, and the other people from the towns called Sodom and Gomorrah, and they got all their things too. Then they all started to go back south.

Abram met Melkizedek

<sup>17</sup> After Abram's mob beat Kedorlayomer and his mob, and while they were going back south on their way home, the leader of Sodom went out to meet Abram in the valley called Shaveh. Another name for that place is the valley that belongs to the leader.

<sup>18</sup> There was a town in that country called Salem, and the boss over that town was called Melkizedek. He was also a leader of God's ceremonies. He worked for God, the one that is more powerful than any other god. Well, Melkizedek also went out to meet Abram and his men, and he gave them some bread and some wine.<sup>19</sup> Then Melkizedek prayed for Abram. He said, "God, you are more powerful than any other god.

You are the one that made heaven and earth.

I'm asking you to be really good to Abram.

You are the one that helped Abram fight with his enemies and win.”
Then Abram got all the things he got after the fight, the things that used to belong to the Sodom and Gomorrah mob, and he split those things up into 10 groups. And he gave one of those groups of things to Melkizedek.*

<sup>21</sup> Then the leader of Sodom said to Abram, “I only want my people back. You can keep those other things.”

<sup>22</sup> But Abram said, “I made a strong promise to my God, the one that is more powerful than any other god, and the one that made heaven and earth. <sup>23</sup> I promised that I will not take anything that belongs to you. I will not even take a bit of string, or anything that belongs to you. You see, I don’t want you to tell everyone that you gave me a lot of things and made me rich. <sup>24</sup> No. The only thing that I will keep is the food that I ate and the food that my fighting men ate. And these men, Mamreh, and Aner, and Eskol, and their fighting men, they helped me save your people and your things too, so you can give them some of those things.”

God promised to give Abram a son

<sup>1</sup> Later on, after Abram saved Lot, Abram had a dream, and God talked to him in that dream. God said, “Abram, don’t be frightened, I will always keep you safe, so that nobody can ever hurt you, and I am going to give you lots of good things.”

<sup>2-3</sup> But Abram said, “Yes, God, you are very powerful. But look, I’ve got no son, so it doesn’t matter what you give me. You haven’t given me the one thing I really want. You haven’t given me any kids. So when I die, one of my work-men will get all my things. His name is Eliyezer. He is from Damascus.”

<sup>4</sup> Then Abram heard God talk to him again. God said, “I tell you, that work-man will not get all your things after you die. I am going to give you a son, and he will get all your things after you die.”

<sup>5</sup> Then God took Abram outside and said, “Look up at the sky and try to count all those stars. There are a lot of stars. You can’t count them all. Well, you will have a son, and later on lots of people will be born into his family, and later on they will be a real big family. And just like nobody can count the stars, nobody will be able to count all your family.”*

<sup>6</sup> And Abram believed what God said, so God was really happy with him, and told him, “You believe me, so now I’m saying you are properly good, like you never did anything wrong.”*

God did a ceremony to make Abram sure about his promises

<sup>7</sup> Then God said to Abram, “I am your God. I am the one that brought you out of your home country, from the town called Ur, in Chaldia country. And I am going to give you this country here. It will be yours. You will own all this country.”

<sup>8</sup> Abram said, “I know you are very powerful, God, but how can I be really sure that I will get all this country?”

<sup>9</sup> So God said to Abram, “Bring me a cow that hasn’t had a baby, and a female goat, and a male sheep. All those animals have to be 3 years old. And I want you to bring me 2 different sorts of pigeons too.”

<sup>10</sup> Then Abram did what God told him. He killed those animals and birds, and he cut the animals in half. He put the halves of each animal on the ground in 2 lines facing each other. But he didn’t cut the birds in half. <sup>11</sup> Then some hawks flew down and tried to eat the animals, but Abram chased them away.

<sup>12</sup> While the sun was going down, Abram went to sleep. It was a strong deep sleep. Then Abram had something like a dream. It was really dark for him, and he felt really frightened.* <sup>13-15</sup> God said to Abram, “I want you to know for sure what will happen after you get really old. You don’t have to worry about anything. You see, you will live to be a very old man, and then, when you are dying, you will feel good inside, and your family will bury you right here, in this country. But I have to tell you something. After you die, your family will leave this country and move to another country that belongs to other people. Your family will live in that country, and later on, the other people in that country will make your family like prisoners, and your family will have to work very hard for them. Those people will do really bad things to your family for 400 years. After that, I will save your family from that hard time, and I will punish those people for doing bad things to your family. Then your family will leave that country, and they will take a lot of animals and things with them. They will be really rich.* <sup>16</sup> And I will bring your family back here to this country. You see, the Amor tribe that are here in this country now, they do really bad things, and they are getting worse and worse. But I will not punish them yet. I will punish them later, after your grand-kids grow up and have grand-kids. Then I will do payback to the mob in this country for the bad things that they do. I will take their country from them, and I will give it to your family." That's what God told Abram.

* 14:20 Hebrews 7:1-10 * 15:5 Romans 4:18; Hebrews 11:12 * 15:6 Romans 4:3, 9, 22; Galatians 3:6; Hebrews 11:11; James 2:23 * 15:12 Job 4:13-14 * 15:13-15 Exodus 1:1-14; Acts 7:6

<sup>17</sup> After the sun went down and it was dark, Abram saw a bucket full of fire, with smoke coming out of it, and he saw a burning stick with it. That bucket and stick moved along between the halves of those animals that Abram killed. <sup>18-21</sup> That's how God showed Abram that he was really going to do everything that he promised. God said to him again, "I am going to give your family all this country, from the river in Egypt in the south, right up to the big river called Euphrates in the north.

These are the tribes in this country now,

- the Ken tribe,
- the Keniz tribe,
- the Kadmon tribe,
- the Heth tribe,
- the Periz tribe,
- the Refa tribe,
- the Amor tribe,
- the Canaan tribe,
- the Girgash tribe,
- the Jebus tribe.

I will take this country away from all those tribes, and I will give it to your family." God promised that to Abram.*

The story about Hagar and Ishmael

<sup>1-3</sup> Abram and Sarai lived in that Canaan country, and after they were there for 10 years, they still had no kids. Sarai had a woman from Egypt working for her, called Hagar. She was Sarai's slave. That means Sarai owned Hagar, and Hagar had to do everything that Sarai told her to do.

Sarai was sad because she had no kids, but she got an idea about how to get a baby for herself. So she said to Abram, "God has stopped me from having my own kids. But listen. I want you to sleep with Hagar, like she is your wife. You see, she belongs to me, so if she has a baby, that baby will really belong to me." So Abram did that, just like Sarai said. <sup>4</sup> He slept with Hagar like she was his wife.

Then Hagar found out that she was going to have a baby, so she started rubbishing Sarai all the time, because Sarai didn't have any kids. <sup>5</sup> So Sarai said to Abram, "I blame you for this trouble. I gave Hagar to you, and now she is going to have a baby, and she is rubbishing me all the time. I reckon God knows that I am right, and you are wrong."

<sup>6</sup> But Abram said to Sarai, "Hagar belongs to you. You are her boss, so do whatever you want with her." Then Sarai started to treat Hagar in a really bad way. So Hagar left Abram and Sarai's camp and ran away.

<sup>7</sup> Hagar started walking through the desert, along the road that went to a town called Shur, near Egypt. She sat down next to a water-hole there in the desert. God's angel messenger went to her there. <sup>8</sup> He said, "Hagar, you belong to Sarai, so why are you sitting out here in the desert? Where are you going?"

Hagar said, "I'm running away from my boss, Sarai. She is too hard on me."

<sup>9</sup> God's angel messenger said to her, "Don't do that. Go back to your boss, and do what she says." <sup>10</sup> And the angel also said, "God is going to give you a really big family. You will have a son, and later on lots of people will be born into his family, and they will be a real big family, so that nobody will be able to count all those people." <sup>11</sup> The angel said, "You are going to have a baby boy, and you will name him Ishmael, because that name means God listens. You see, God listened to you. He heard about your trouble, and he will help you. <sup>12</sup> And Ishmael, your son, he will live like a wild donkey. He will go anywhere he wants to, and he will fight against everybody, and everybody will fight against him. He will not live close to his relatives."

<sup>13</sup> Then Hagar said to herself, "I have seen the God that sees me, and he looks after me." So she gave God a name, she called him the God that sees me. <sup>14</sup> So that's why people call that water-hole the water-hole that belongs to the one that is alive and sees me. That water-hole is between a place called Kadesh and a place called Bered.

God made an agreement with Abram

<sup>1</sup> Later on, when Abram was 99 years old, God showed himself to Abram and said, "I am God. I have power over everything. I want you to live my way and always do the right thing. <sup>2</sup> If you do that, I will make an agreement with you, and I will give you a really big family. You see, you will have a son, and later on lots of people will be born into his family, and they will be a real big family."

<sup>3</sup> Abram got down on his knees and put his face near the ground, to show respect to God, and God said to him, <sup>4</sup> "I promise that I will do this for you. I will give you a big family. Lots of people will be born into your family, so that you will be the father of lots of nations. <sup>5</sup> So I am changing your name from Abram to Abraham." (That name Abram means father that people respect, and that name Abraham means father of lots of people.) And God said, "Yes, I will make you the father of lots of nations.* <sup>6</sup> I will give you a real big family later on, and they will split up into lots of nations. And some of your people will be the big bosses of those nations.

<sup>7</sup> I am making this agreement with you, and with all your family that will be born later on. This agreement will last for ever. It will never end. I promise that I will be your God, for ever.* <sup>8</sup> You see, you are now living in this country called Canaan, but it doesn't belong to you. But later on, I will give all this country to the people that will be born into your family. They will have this country for themselves for ever, and I will be their God.**

<sup>9</sup> Then God said to Abraham, "You have to agree to this. You and everyone that will be born into your family later on, you mob have to always respect me and let me be your God. <sup>10-11</sup> This is what you have to do to show that we made this agreement together. You and every man in your camp has to have the young man operation. And all the men born into your family later on will have to have it too.* <sup>12-13</sup> From now on, every baby boy in your camp has to have that young man operation 8 days after he is born. Every man in your family has to have that operation. And if you buy a man to work for you, he has to have that operation too. Every male person has to have that mark on his body. It will show that we made this agreement, you and me, and that this agreement will last for ever. <sup>14</sup> Any man that doesn't have that operation will be breaking our agreement, and I will take him away from your family."

God promised a son to Abraham and Sarah

<sup>15</sup> Then God said to Abraham, "I am changing your wife's name too. Don't call her Sarai any more. Call her Sarah." (Both of those names mean important woman.) <sup>16</sup> And God said, "I will do a good thing for her too. She will have a son, and you will be his father. Yes, I will do that good thing for her. Lots of people will be born into her son's family, and they will split up into lots of nations. And some of those people will be the big bosses of those nations."

<sup>17</sup> Abraham got down on his knees again and put his face near the ground, and he laughed. He thought, "I am nearly 100 years old, and Sarah is nearly 90. We can't have a baby. We are too old." <sup>18</sup> So then Abraham said to God, "Look, I already have a son, Ishmael. I want you to be good to him, so that he will be that son you are talking about."

<sup>19</sup> God said, "No, not Ishmael. Listen, your wife Sarah will have a baby boy. He will be your son, and you will call him Isaac." (That name Isaac means laugh.) And God said, "He will be the son I'm talking about. I will keep this agreement going with him. It will be the same for him, and for all the people that will be born into his family later on. This agreement will go on for ever.

<sup>20</sup> And you asked me to do good things for Ishmael. Well, I listened to you, and I will be good to him too. He will have a big family, and later on, 12 big bosses will be in his family. I will make his mob into a great nation. <sup>21</sup> But my agreement will not be with Ishmael. You see, about this time next year, your wife Sarah will have a baby boy. He will be your son, and you will call him Isaac, and I will make the same agreement with him that I just made with you."

<sup>23-27</sup> Then, on that same day, Abraham did a young man operation on every man and every boy in his camp. All Abraham's work-men had that operation. They were the work-men that Abraham bought, and the work-men that were born in his camp. And Abraham and his son Ishmael had that operation too. They all had that operation on the same day. Ishmael was 13 years old, and Abraham was 99 years old, when they had that young man operation.

God promised again to give Abraham and Sarah a son

<sup>6</sup> Then Abraham went quickly into the tent to tell Sarah, and he said, "Quick, get a big bag of really good flour and make some damper for our visitors."

<sup>7</sup> Then he ran to his mob of cows and picked out a really good young cow. He gave it to one of his work-men and said, "Quick, kill this young cow, and cook it for our visitors." <sup>8</sup> Then Abraham gave the men the cooked meat, and some cheese and milk. And Abraham stood near them in the shade of that tree, and he looked after them while they ate that food.

Abraham said, "She is right here, in our tent."

<sup>10</sup> You know, one of those men was God, but he made himself to be like a man when he talked to Abraham. He said, "I will come back to you at this time next year, and Sarah will have a baby boy."*

Sarah was at the doorway of the tent, and she listened to them talking. <sup>11</sup> Abraham and Sarah were both very old. She knew she was too old to have a baby, <sup>12</sup> so when she heard him say that, she laughed quietly and said to herself, "I am too old and worn out to have a baby, and my good boss, my husband, he is old too. If I had a baby, I would be really happy. But I'm too old for that now."*

now, I am too old'?" <sup>14</sup> I'm telling you, nothing is too hard for me. I am God. Just like I said, at this time next year, I will come back, and Sarah will have a baby boy."*

<sup>15</sup> Sarah was frightened, and so she lied and said, "I didn't laugh."

But God said, "That's not true. You did laugh."

God talked to Abraham about the town called Sodom

<sup>16</sup> Then the 3 men got up to leave, and Abraham went with them for a little while to say goodbye. They went to a hill where they looked down at the town called Sodom. <sup>17</sup> God said, "Maybe I will tell Abraham what I am going to do. <sup>18</sup> You know, Abraham's family will be a big and powerful nation one day, and I will use his family to do good things for all the nations in the world.* <sup>19</sup> I have picked him out so that he can teach his family to live my way and do what is good and right. Then I will keep my promise to him."

<sup>20</sup> So God said, "Abraham, I heard about all the really bad things that people do in those 2 towns down there, called Sodom and Gomorrah. A lot of people are telling me that those people are always doing bad things. <sup>21</sup> I will go down and find out if they are really doing those bad things that I heard about." That's what the man said, the one that had God in him.

<sup>23</sup> Abraham went up close to God and asked him, "Are you going to kill all the good people, as well as the bad people?" <sup>24</sup> There might be 50 good people that live the right way down there in that town. Will you still finish up that town? Or will you save that town to save those 50 good people? <sup>25</sup> I don't think you will kill 50 good people. I know that you are the judge of everybody in the world, and you always do what is right. I don't think you will kill the good people with the bad people."

<sup>26</sup> God said, "If I find 50 good people in Sodom, I will not finish up that town. I will save that town so that I can save those 50 good people."

<sup>27</sup> Then Abraham said, "Look, I know that I am just a man and you are God, but I'm being brave and I'm talking to you. I want to ask you another question. <sup>28</sup> What if you find only 45 good people in that town, will you still finish up that town?"

* 18:2 Hebrews 13:2

* 18:10 Romans 9:9

* 18:12 1 Peter 3:6

* 18:14 Luke 1:37

* 18:18 Galatians 3:8

God said, "If I find 45 good people there, I will not finish up that town."

<sup>29</sup> Then Abraham asked God again, he said, "What if you find only 40 good people there?"

God said, "If I find 40 good people there, I will not finish up that town."

<sup>30</sup> Then Abraham said, "God, please don't get angry with me, but I will say a little bit more. What if you find only 30 good people in that town?"

God said, "If I find 30 good people there, I will not finish up that town."

<sup>31</sup> Then Abraham said, "I know that I am being brave to talk to God like this, but what if you find only 20 good people in that town?"

God said, "If I find 20 good people there, I will not finish up that town."

<sup>32</sup> Then Abraham said, "God, please don't get angry with me, but I will ask one more question. What if you find only 10 good people in that town?"

God said, "If I find 10 good people there, I will not finish up that town."

The men in Sodom were really bad

<sup>1</sup> Later that day, while the sun was going down, those other 2 men walked into the town called Sodom. They were God's 2 angel messengers.

Abraham's nephew, the man that was called Lot, he was sitting near the town gate, and he saw those men come into the town. So he got up to meet them, and he got down on his knees and put his face near the ground, to show them respect. <sup>2</sup> He said, "Sirs, come and stay in my house. You can wash your feet and sleep here tonight, then you can go on your way tomorrow morning."

The men said, "No, it's all right. We will sleep outside in the park."

<sup>3</sup> But Lot kept on asking them strongly to stay with him, so they agreed, and they went with him to his house. Then Lot cooked some flat damper and other food for them, and the men ate it.

<sup>4</sup> Before they went to bed, all the men that lived in Sodom, both the young men and the old men, they came and stood around Lot's house, <sup>5</sup> and they all yelled out to Lot. They said, "Where are the 2 men that came to your house today? Bring them out here so that we can sleep with them like a man sleeps with his wife."

<sup>6</sup> Lot went out to talk to them and shut the door behind him. <sup>7</sup> He said, "My friends, please don't do that really bad thing. <sup>8</sup> Look, I've got 2 daughters. They have never been married. They have never slept with any man. Let me bring them out here for you, and you can do whatever you want to do with them. But please don't do anything bad to these men. They are staying in my house, so I have to keep them safe."*

<sup>9</sup> But the men of Sodom said to each other, "This man came from another town to live here, and he wants to tell us what to do. He can't do that." And they said to Lot, "Get out of our way, or we will do even worse things to you than we will do to those men." And they pushed hard against Lot so they could get to the door, to break it down and grab the men that were inside.

<sup>10</sup> But those 2 men were really God's angel messengers, and they quickly opened the door and pulled Lot inside with them, then they quickly shut the door. <sup>11</sup> Then they used their power to make all the men outside the house go blind, the young men as well as the old men, so that they couldn't find the door to get in.*

The angels told Lot to leave Sodom

<sup>12-13</sup> Then the 2 men said to Lot, "God heard about all the bad things that the people in this town do, so he sent us to finish it up. You and your family have to get out of this town real soon. Maybe you have sons, or more daughters, or sons-in-law, or other family here. You all have to leave this town before we finish it up."

<sup>14</sup> So Lot went and found the men that his 2 daughters were promised to. He said to them, "God is going to finish up this town, so we have to get out now. Come on, let's go." But those 2 men thought that Lot was joking, so they didn't go with him.

<sup>15</sup> Very early the next morning, the 2 angels tried to get Lot to leave Sodom quickly. They said, "Hurry up Lot. Get your wife, and your 2 daughters, and get out of this town. If you don't get out quick, you will die, like everyone else." <sup>16</sup> But Lot didn't hurry, so the angels grabbed Lot's hand, and his wife, and his 2 daughters, and they quickly pulled them out of the town. You see, God was good to Lot and wanted to save him and his family.*

save your life. Don't look back, and don't stop anywhere in the flat country, but keep going until you get to the hill country. If you don't do that, you will die, like all the people in Sodom are going to die."

<sup>18</sup> But Lot said to them, "Please sirs, no. <sup>19</sup> That's too far. You have been very good to me and saved my life, but I can't run fast enough to get to the hill country in time. If I try to do that, the trouble will come before I get there, and I will die too. <sup>20</sup> Look, there is a town over there. It's not too far for me. And it is only a little town, with only a few people. Let us go there, and then don't finish up that little town. Then we will be safe."

<sup>21</sup> The angel said, "All right, I will do that for you. I will let you go to that little town, and I will not finish it up. You will be safe there. <sup>22</sup> But go quickly, because I have to wait until you get there before I finish up Sodom."

Later, that little town was called Zoar. That name means little.

God burned up Sodom and Gomorrah

<sup>27</sup> Early in the morning, Abraham went to the hill where he talked with God before. <sup>28</sup> He looked down at Sodom and Gomorrah and all the flat country around them, and he saw a lot of smoke, like a really big bush fire.

<sup>29</sup> That's how God finished up those towns in the flat country, but he remembered everything he said to Abraham, and he saved Abraham's nephew, Lot. Yes, God took Lot out of Sodom, where Lot lived, before he finished up that town.

Lot's daughters did a bad thing

<sup>30</sup> Lot was frightened to stay in Zoar, so him and his daughters, they went and lived up in the hill country, in a big hole in the rock, called a cave.

<sup>31</sup> One day the oldest daughter said to her sister, "Our father is old, and we haven't got any kids, and there are no men around here for us to marry. <sup>32</sup> So let's get our father drunk, and then we can pretend to be his wives, and sleep with him. Then we can have babies, so that we will always have a family."

<sup>33</sup> So that night, they got their father drunk, and the oldest daughter pretended to be his wife, and she slept with him. Lot was so drunk that he didn't know what was happening.

<sup>34</sup> The next day, the oldest daughter said to her sister, "Last night I slept with our father like I was his wife. Let's get him drunk again tonight, then you go and pretend to be his wife. Then we will both have babies, and we will always have a family."

<sup>35</sup> So that night, they got their father drunk again, and the youngest daughter pretended to be his wife, and she slept with him. And again, Lot was so drunk that he didn't know what was happening.

<sup>37</sup> Lot's oldest daughter had a son, and she called him Moab. That name means from our father. His mob are called the Moab tribe, and they are still living today.

<sup>38</sup> Lot's youngest daughter also had a son, and she called him Ben-Ammi. That name means son of my relative. Ben-Ammi's mob are called the Ammon tribe, and they are still living today.

Abraham tried to trick a big boss called Abimelek

<sup>3</sup> God was not happy that Abimelek was going to marry Sarah, so one night he gave Abimelek a dream, and in that dream, God told him, "You are going to die. You took Sarah to be your wife, but she is already married to Abraham."

<sup>4</sup> Abimelek said, "But God, I haven't married Sarah yet. I have not slept with her, like a man sleeps with his wife. Me and my people, we haven't done anything wrong. Will you kill us for nothing?"

* 19:25 Matthew 10:15; 11:23-24; Luke 10:12; 17:29; 2 Peter 2:6; Jude 1:7

* 19:26 Luke 17:32

* 20:2 Genesis

<sup>5</sup> Abraham told me himself that Sarah was his sister. And she said that Abraham was her brother. I didn't know that she was already married to him. I didn't want to do anything wrong."

<sup>6</sup> God kept talking to him in that dream. He said, "Yes, I know that you didn't want to do anything wrong. You didn't know that Sarah was a married woman. That's why I did not let you touch her. I stopped you from doing a bad thing. <sup>7</sup> So now, give Sarah back to Abraham. He is my special man, and he will pray for you, so that you will not die. But I'm telling you, if you don't give her back to Abraham, I will kill you, and I will kill everyone that lives with you."

<sup>8</sup> So early in the morning, Abimelek called a meeting for all his important workers. He told them everything that God said, and they were all very frightened. <sup>9</sup> Then Abimelek sent somebody to get Abraham to come to that meeting. Abimelek said to Abraham, "Look, you have made trouble for me and my people. What did I do to you, so that you pay me back with this trouble? You have done a bad thing to us. <sup>10</sup> Why did you do that? Why did you tell us that Sarah is your sister?"

<sup>11</sup> Abraham said, "I'm sorry. I thought that nobody here respected God, so I was frightened of you mob. I reckoned that you would kill me so that you can marry Sarah. <sup>12</sup> But anyway, Sarah really is my sister. We have the same father, but different mothers." You see, in Abraham's culture, men could marry their half-sisters.

<sup>13</sup> Then Abraham said, "God told me to leave my father's country, so we moved around from place to place, and I was frightened of the people. So I told Sarah, 'Be good to me and tell everyone that you are my sister. Then I will be safe.'"

<sup>14</sup> Then Abimelek did what God told him to do. He gave Sarah back to Abraham, and he also gave him some sheep, and some goats, and some cows, and some bulls, and some workers, both men and women. <sup>15</sup> And Abimelek said to Abraham, "Friend, look around at all my country. You can live anywhere you like in this country." <sup>16</sup> Then Abimelek said to Sarah, "I'm giving Abraham, your brother, a lot of money, to pay for the trouble I gave you. I'm giving him 1,000 pieces of silver money to show your mob, and everyone else, that you did nothing wrong."

<sup>17-18</sup> Then Abraham prayed to God and asked him to make Abimelek and his mob better. You see, before, at the time when Abimelek got Sarah so that he could marry her, God made Abimelek sick and stopped all the women in Abimelek's house from having babies. But then God talked to Abimelek, and Abimelek gave Sarah back to Abraham. So then Abraham prayed to God, and God made Abimelek better, and he made Abimelek's wife better, and he made all the women that lived in Abimelek's house better too, so that they had babies again.

Abraham and Sarah had a son, Isaac

<sup>1</sup> God was good to Sarah, and he kept his promise to her, <sup>2</sup> and a baby started to grow inside her. Then that baby boy was born at the time that God said he would be born. Abraham was an old man, but Sarah had a baby boy, and Abraham was his father.* <sup>3</sup> Abraham called him Isaac. That name means laugh.

<sup>4</sup> And when Isaac was 8 days old, Abraham did the young man operation on him, just like God told him to do, to show that Isaac belonged to God.*

<sup>5</sup> Abraham was 100 years old when Isaac was born. <sup>6</sup> Sarah said, "God is giving me something to laugh about now, and everyone that hears this story will be happy with me, and they will laugh too." <sup>7</sup> She also said, "Nobody reckoned that I can ever have a kid. But look, Abraham is old now, but I had a baby boy, and Abraham is his father."

Abraham sent Hagar and Ishmael away from his camp

<sup>8</sup> When Isaac was about 3 years old, he stopped drinking Sarah's milk, and Abraham gave him a big party. <sup>9</sup> Then Sarah saw Ishmael laughing at Isaac. Ishmael was the son of Abraham and Hagar. Hagar was Sarah's worker, and she was from Egypt country. <sup>10</sup> Then Sarah said to Abraham, "When you die, my son Isaac has to get all your things. I don't want Ishmael to get anything, he is just the son of a worker woman. So you have to tell that woman and her son to get out of our camp. Send them right away from here."*

<sup>11</sup> Abraham was really upset by what Sarah said. Ishmael was his son, so Abraham reckoned it was wrong to send him away. <sup>12</sup> But God said to Abraham, "Don't worry about Ishmael or his mother.

* 21:4 Genesis 17:12; Acts 7:8

* 21:10 Galatians 4:29-30

* 21:12 Romans 9:7;

You see, the family that I promised you will come from Isaac, not from Ishmael. So listen to Sarah, and do what she says.*

<sup>13</sup> Don't worry, I will give Ishmael a big family too. Later on, his family will grow into a big nation. I will do that for him, because he is your son too."

<sup>17</sup> Ishmael was crying too, and God heard him, and he sent an angel messenger from heaven to talk to Hagar. The angel said, "Why are you upset? Don't worry. God has heard Ishmael crying, under that tree. <sup>18</sup> Go and take care of him. Listen, I will give him a big family, and they will become a great nation." <sup>19</sup> Then God showed her a water-hole. So she got up and filled her water bag, and she gave Ishmael a drink.

<sup>20-21</sup> God kept Ishmael safe as he grew up in the desert called Paran. He learned how to use a bow and arrows properly, so he became a good hunter. And later on, Hagar got a wife for him from Egypt country.

Abraham and Abimelek made strong promises to each other

<sup>22-23</sup> One day, Abimelek went to talk to Abraham. Abimelek was the big boss of the country where Abraham lived. And Ficol, the leader of Abimelek's army, went with him. Abimelek said to Abraham, "You know, you are not one of my people. You came from another place to live here in my country. But I have been good to you, and to all your people. So I want you to promise me that you will never try to trick me, or my kids, or anyone that is born into my family. I want you to promise that you will be good to them. We know that God is very good to you, and he helps you with everything you do. So I want you to make that promise to me while God is listening. I want you to tell God to punish you if you break that promise."*

<sup>24</sup> So Abraham made that promise to Abimelek. He said those words in the way that Abimelek wanted.

<sup>25</sup> But then Abraham also complained to Abimelek. He said, "I've got a problem. Some of our workers took one of my water-holes, and then they stopped my workers from getting any water there."

<sup>26</sup> Abimelek said, "I'm sorry, Abraham. I don't know who did that. I never heard about it, and you didn't tell me about it until now."

<sup>30</sup> Abraham said, "I want to give you these sheep as a special present. Take them. That's how you can show people that you agree with me, that I dug that water-hole and that I own it."

<sup>31</sup> From that time on, that place was called Beersheba. That name means water-hole where they made a promise. It was where Abraham and Abimelek made strong promises to each other.

<sup>32</sup> After they made those promises, Abimelek and Ficol went back to their home, in Philistia country. <sup>33</sup> Then Abraham showed respect to God there in Beersheba. He called God by his special name Yahweh, and he planted a special tree to remember that place. Yahweh is the true God that lives for ever.

Abraham showed that he really trusted God

<sup>1</sup> A long time later, God tested Abraham. God wanted to see if Abraham trusted him properly, and if Abraham would do anything God told him to do.

God called out, "Abraham."

And Abraham said, "Yes, God, I am listening to you."

<sup>2</sup> Then God said, "I know that you love your son, Isaac, and he is your only son, but I want you to take him to the country called Moriah, to one of the mountains that I will show you. I want you to kill Isaac for me, and burn his body on a table made of stones, to show me that you respect me."*

<sup>3</sup> Abraham listened to God, so the next morning, Abraham chopped up some wood for the fire and tied the wood on to his donkey. Then, he got Isaac and 2 of his work-men, and they all started to go to the place God told him about.

<sup>4</sup> They walked for nearly 3 days, then Abraham looked up and saw the place God told him about. It was still a long way ahead of them. <sup>5</sup> Abraham said to his work-men, "I want you to stay here with the donkey. And me and Isaac, we will go over there to show respect to God. After we do that, we will come back to you."

As they walked along, <sup>7</sup> Isaac said, "Dad." Abraham said, "Yes, son?"

And Isaac said, "We've got the wood, and the fire, but where is the sheep that we are going to burn to show respect to God?"

<sup>8</sup> Abraham said, "Son, God will give us the sheep, so that we can show him respect." And they kept on walking together.

<sup>9</sup> Then they got to the place that God told Abraham about, and Abraham piled up some stones to make a table with a flat top, and he put the wood on top of it. Then he tied Isaac's hands and feet together, and he put him on top of the wood.* <sup>10</sup> Then Abraham picked up his sharp knife, and he was just about to kill Isaac, <sup>11</sup> but God's angel messenger called out to him from heaven. He said, "Abraham, Abraham."

Abraham stopped, and he said, "Yes?"

<sup>12</sup> The angel said, "Don't kill that boy. Don't hurt him in any way. Now I know that you respect God so much that you will do anything he tells you to do. You will even kill your only son for God."

<sup>13</sup> Then Abraham looked behind him, and he saw a male sheep with its head stuck in a little tree. He quickly took Isaac off the wood and untied the ropes from him. Then Abraham grabbed that sheep, and he killed it instead of his son, and he burned it on that stone table, to show respect to God.

<sup>14</sup> And Abraham called that place, God will give you what you need. Even today, people say, "On God's mountain, he will give you what you need."

<sup>15</sup> Then God's angel messenger called out again from heaven to Abraham. <sup>16</sup> He said, "This is what God wants to tell you Abraham. He says, 'You listened to me, and you were ready to give me your only son. So now I'm making this really strong promise to you. You can know that I will keep this promise, because I am God. <sup>17</sup> I will do really good things for you. And I will give you a really big family. You see, lots of people will be born into your son's family later on, and they will become a really big mob of people. There will be lots and lots of them, just like there are lots of stars in the sky, and lots of little bits of sand at the beaches beside the sea. And when other nations get up to fight against them, your family will win, and they will take the towns from those other nations.* <sup>18</sup> And I will use your family to do good things for all the nations in the world. I will do all this because you listened to me, and you did what I told you to do.' "*

<sup>19</sup> Then Abraham and Isaac walked back to the place where Abraham's work-men were waiting with the donkey, then they all went back to their camp at Beersheba.

Abraham and all his people camped there for a long time.

(We have not yet translated the rest of Genesis, or the books called Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy, Joshua, Judges, and Ruth. Some of the stories in those books tell us these things.

- Sarah died when she was 127 years old.

- Abraham died when he was 175 years old.

- Isaac had a son called Jacob.

- Jacob had 12 sons.

- God gave Jacob another name. He called him Israel.

- God took Jacob and his family to live in Egypt.

- They lived in Egypt for about 400 years, and became the nation called Israel. The families that came from his 12 sons became the 12 tribes in the Israel nation.

- Then God got an Israel man, called Moses, to take the Israel nation out of Egypt, into desert country, and God gave Moses his law for those people.

- After that, God gave them the country called Canaan. Today we call that country Israel. Sometimes we call the Israel people the Jewish people, or just the Jews.)

Stories about the men called Samuel, Saul, and David (From the book in the Holy Bible called 1 Samuel) About these stories

These stories are about things that happened about 3,000 years ago, in the country called Israel.

Somebody wrote these stories in a big book called Samuel with lots of other stories, but it was too big, so they split it into 2 books, called 1 Samuel, and 2 Samuel. They were in God's book, that the Jewish people had before Jesus came to this earth. They are now in the 1st part of the Holy Bible, called the Old Testament.

We have not yet translated all of the stories from 1 Samuel.

The stories in this book are about 3 men called Samuel, Saul, and David.

Samuel was God's messenger to the Israel nation. God got him to pick Saul to be their big boss. At first Saul lived the right way, but later, he went wrong. So God told Samuel that he was going to make David the next big boss of the Israel nation. David was a very young man at that time. As he grew older, Saul got jealous of him and made trouble for him.

These stories are important, and we can learn a lot from them. They help us know what God is like, and how he looks after his people. And they show us the sort of person God wants.

A woman that was called Hannah asked God for a baby boy of her own

<sup>1</sup> There was a man called Elkanah. He was from Ephraim's tribe, and he lived in a town called Ramah in the hill country. His father was Jeroham, his grand-father was Elihu, and his great grand-father was Tohu. He belonged to the Zuf family. <sup>2</sup> He had 2 wives called Hannah and Penninah. Penninah had some kids, but Hannah had none.

<sup>3</sup> Every year Elkanah used to go with his family from Ramah to Shiloh. They went to Shiloh to show respect to God, the boss of everything, and to burn meat for him. At that time, God's ceremony house was in Shiloh. An old man was there called Eli. He was the leader of God's ceremonies. His 2 sons, Hofni and Finiyas, also worked in God's house. They looked after God's ceremonies too.

<sup>4</sup> When Elkanah was in Shiloh, he used to burn meat to give it to God, and he gave some of it to his family to eat. He gave meat to Penninah and her kids. <sup>5</sup> His other wife, Hannah, had no kids. You see, before this time, God stopped her from having kids. But Elkanah loved her very much, so he used to give lots of meat to her. <sup>6</sup> But Penninah used to make fun of her because she had no kids. So Hannah got upset. <sup>7</sup> Every year it was like that. Whenever they went up to God's house at Shiloh, Penninah used to make fun of Hannah until she cried. She felt so sad she couldn't eat. <sup>8</sup> Her husband used to ask her, "Why are you crying? You have to eat. Don't be sad. Don't keep on worrying that you have no sons. I love you very much anyway."

<sup>12-13</sup> She talked quietly to God for a long time. Eli saw her mouth moving, but couldn't hear anything, so he thought she was drunk. <sup>14</sup> He said, "Why did you come here drunk? Throw that wine away."

<sup>15</sup> Hannah answered, "No, old man. I'm not drunk. I haven't drunk any wine at all. I'm a sad woman. I talked to God, and I told him my story. <sup>16</sup> Please don't call me no good. I am properly sad. I want God to help me."

<sup>17</sup> Eli said, "Don't worry. Go now. We Israel mob follow a good God. He will do whatever you ask him."

<sup>19</sup> The next day, Elkanah got up and went with his family to show respect and pray to God once again. Then they went home to Ramah. Then Elkanah slept with his wife, Hannah, like married people do together.

But God didn't forget that Hannah asked for a boy. <sup>20</sup> Some time later, she really did have a little boy, and she named him

* 1:11 Numbers 6:5

Samuel. That name means God heard. She said, "I asked God for him, and he heard me, so I'll name him Samuel."

Hannah promised to give the boy Samuel to God

<sup>21</sup> A year later Elkanah went with his family to Shiloh as usual, to show respect to God, and to burn meat and give it to him. You see, long before Elkanah promised to do that, so he wanted to keep on doing it. <sup>22</sup> But his wife Hannah stayed at home. She said, "My baby is still drinking my milk. After he stops drinking my milk, I will take him to Shiloh to give him to God. Then he will stay at that place all the time."

<sup>24</sup> Some time later, when the boy was bigger, he stopped drinking her milk. Elkanah went with his family as usual to God's ceremony house at Shiloh. Hannah and her son went too. They took a big bull, a bag of flour and a big leather water bag full of wine. <sup>25</sup> Elkanah and Hannah killed the bull and burned it for God. Then they took the boy to Eli, the old man that looked after God's ceremonies. <sup>26</sup> Hannah said to him, "Old man, do you remember me? A long time ago, I stood here with you. You heard the way I cried and prayed to God. <sup>27</sup> I wanted a little boy, and God heard me. He let me have this one, just like I asked. <sup>28</sup> Now I want to give him to God. He will work for God until he gets old." After she told him that, they showed respect to God.

2

Eli's 2 sons were no good

<sup>12</sup> Eli's 2 sons both looked after God's ceremonies, but they were no good. They didn't respect God. <sup>13</sup> If somebody gave meat to God, those 2 used to take meat the wrong way from that person. You see, the Israel mob used to boil meat in a big cooking pot at God's ceremony house. One of Eli's sons used to tell a worker to get meat for him. <sup>14</sup> The worker used to come with a big fork and stick it into the cooking pot to stab some meat. Some bits of meat got stuck on the fork, and that meat was like pay for that ceremony man. Maybe the worker got lots of meat on the fork, maybe a little bit. All the Israel mob used to go to Shiloh to give meat to God. Those 2 did the same to everybody whenever they came to Shiloh. <sup>15</sup> But that was not the right way to do it. They should burn the fat in the fire first. But those 2 didn't do that. The worker used to tell the owner of the meat, "Give me meat for the 2 men that look after God's ceremonies, so they can cook it on the fire and eat it. They don't like meat that's boiled in water. Give them raw meat."

But the worker said, "No. Give it to me right now, or I will just take it from you."

<sup>17</sup> So Eli's 2 sons kept on doing things the wrong way. They didn't respect God or his word. God was angry with them.

Hannah used to go and visit Samuel

<sup>18</sup> The boy Samuel worked for God. He wore special clothes like those of a man that looked after God's ceremonies. <sup>19</sup> Every year Hannah went to Shiloh with her husband to burn meat for God, and every year she took a new coat to Samuel. <sup>20</sup> Eli used to pray to God for Elkanah and Hannah like this, "God, you gave this woman a boy, just as she asked, and she gave him back to you. So give them other kids now instead of him." Then they used to go back home. <sup>21</sup> And God was really good to Hannah. After that, she had some other kids. She had 3 boys and 2 girls.

All this time Samuel grew up in God's house, still working for him.

<sup>22</sup> Eli became a really old man. He heard that his 2 sons did wrong things to the Israel people. He also heard that they slept with the women that worked in God's house, like men sleep with their wives, but those men were not married to those women. Those women worked at the front door of the house.

<sup>23</sup> Eli said to his 2 sons, "Lots of people tell me that you do bad things. Why are you doing that? <sup>24</sup> My sons, stop it. Lots of God's people talk about you. That bad news is everywhere. <sup>25</sup> You know, if a man does wrong to another, somebody can ask God not to punish him. But if a man does wrong to God himself, nobody can ask God not to punish him."

But his sons didn't listen to him. You see, God already made up his mind to kill them. <sup>26</sup> But the boy Samuel was growing up the right way. God loved him and so did everybody else.*

God called out to Samuel

<sup>1</sup> At that time, God talked only to a few people. Only a few saw dreams from God. The boy Samuel helped Eli, and he did his work for God. <sup>2</sup> Eli was a very old man, and he couldn't see very well. Every night he used to sleep in his usual place in God's house.

One night the old man lay asleep. <sup>3</sup> Samuel was a big boy by this time, and he slept in God's house too, near the place where they kept God's special box. After the sun went down, they used to light a lamp there. One night, when it was still burning, <sup>4</sup> God called out to the boy, "Samuel."

The boy answered, "Yes? What is it?" <sup>5</sup> And he got up and ran to Eli and said, "Yes? What is it? You called out to me."

Eli answered, "No, I didn't call you. Go back and lie down." So Samuel went back and lay down.

So the boy got up again and went to Eli and said, "Yes? What is it? You called out to me."

The old man said, "No, boy, I didn't call out to you. Go back and lie down." <sup>7</sup> You see, Samuel didn't know God yet. It was the first time God talked to him like that, and he didn't know his voice.

So the boy got up, and he went to Eli again and said, "Yes? What is it? You called out to me."

Then the old man knew that it was God that called out to him, <sup>9</sup> so he said, "Go back and lie down. If somebody calls out, say like this, 'Yes, God, talk to me. I'm listening to you.'"

So Samuel went back and lay down. <sup>10</sup> God came and stood close to him, and he said the same thing again, "Samuel."

Samuel said, "Yes, God, talk to me. I'm listening to you."

<sup>11</sup> Then God said to him, "I will do something different in this place. After the Israel mob hear it, they will be shocked. <sup>12</sup> I will finish up Eli's family, as I said before. <sup>13</sup> I told Eli, 'I'm angry with you and your family, and I will finish you all. You knew that your 2 sons did wrong things, without any shame, and with no respect for my word. Everybody hates them now. But you didn't stop them at all. <sup>14</sup> Your family did wrong things lots of times, so I tell you and your family, that if you burn meat for me to try to make me happy, it will not work. I will still punish you mob.'" <sup>15</sup> Samuel heard it, and he went and lay down again.

Early the next morning he opened the door of God's house as usual. He was frightened to tell Eli the story God told him. <sup>16</sup> But the old man called out to him, "Samuel, come here."

Samuel answered, "Yes? What is it?"

<sup>17</sup> The old man asked, "What did God say to you? Tell me straight. If you don't tell me straight, God will be very angry with you."

Eli said, "Truly he is the great God. He can do whatever he wants."

<sup>19</sup> After that, Samuel grew up to become a man. And God was with him, so the words he said were really true. <sup>20</sup> All the Israel mob knew him, everybody from every place, from the north to the south. They all knew that Samuel was God's messenger. <sup>21</sup> Lots of times God came to him at that place called Shiloh. He showed himself to Samuel and told his message to him.

The Philistia mob stole God's special box

At that time, a lot of soldiers from Philistia came together to fight the Israel mob. The Israel mob camped near a place called Ebenezer. The Philistia mob camped near a place called Afek. <sup>2</sup> The 2 armies met in the middle for a big fight. The Philistia mob killed dead lots of the Israel mob. 4,000 of them died.

<sup>3</sup> After that, the Israel mob went back to their camp. The elders asked each other, "Why did God let them beat our mob? Let's go to Shiloh, to get God's special box. If we have that box with us, God will help us whenever we fight the Philistia mob."

<sup>4</sup> So they sent some men to Shiloh to get God's special box. They thought, "That box will be with us, so God will help us." Eli's 2 sons, Hofni and Finiyas, they went along too, to watch over the special box. God is the boss of everything. He sits on that box between the 2 statues of angel messengers.*

<sup>5</sup> After they brought the box to their camp, the Israel mob were so happy that they shouted out real loud. Their shouts were so loud they made the ground shake. <sup>6</sup> The Philistia mob heard it, and they asked each other, "What's happening? Why are the Israel mob shouting?"

Then they heard that the Israel mob had God's special box with them, <sup>7</sup> and they got frightened, and they said to each other, "Oh no. Their God has come to them. This is the first time this sort of thing has happened to us. Now we're in big trouble. <sup>8</sup> Nobody can save us from their powerful gods. Their gods helped them when they were in the desert. They hit the Egypt mob with all kinds of sickness and other trouble. <sup>9</sup> So we Philistia mob, we have to stay strong. We've got to beat them, so that we will be their bosses, otherwise they might become our bosses. Don't be afraid of them. Let's be real men and hit them hard."

<sup>10-11</sup> And they really did get properly strong. They attacked the Israel mob again, and they killed dead lots of Israel's soldiers. 30,000 of them died. Then the Philistia mob stole God's special box. And they killed dead Eli's 2 sons, Hofni and Finiyas. They died there too. The other Israel soldiers, they just ran away. They ran straight back home.

Eli died

<sup>12</sup> On that day a messenger ran from the fighting with the bad news. He was from Benjamin's tribe. He tore his clothes and put dirt on his head, to show he was upset about it, and he ran all the way to Shiloh.

<sup>13-15</sup> Eli was a really old man by this time. He was 98 years old, and he was blind. He sat in a chair beside the road. He worried about God's special box. He was afraid something bad might happen to it.

After the messenger arrived at that place, he went around and told the bad news, and lots of people started to cry. Eli heard it and called out to the man, "What's happening? Why is everybody crying like that?"

The old man asked, "What happened?"

<sup>17</sup> He answered, "We Israel mob ran away from the Philistia mob. They killed dead lots of our soldiers, and your 2 sons are dead too. And they even stole God's special box from us."

<sup>18</sup> Eli was still on his chair at the door. After he heard that the Philistia mob stole the special box, he fell over backwards, and he broke his neck and died. You see, he was an old man and very fat. He was boss of the Israel mob for 40 years.

God made trouble for the Philistia mob

<sup>3</sup> The next morning, the Ashdod mob got up, and they saw their statue. It lay on the ground on its belly in front of God's special box. So they stood it up again.

<sup>4</sup> The next morning, they saw it on the ground like that again. It was lying there on its belly, in front of God's special box. Its body was still good, but its head and arms were broken off. They lay in the doorway. <sup>5</sup> So Dagon's workers, and everybody else, they did not want to walk through that door any more. They jumped through the doorway every time they went inside that house, so they would not step on the place where bits of Dagon used to be. And they still do that.

<sup>6</sup> Then God made trouble for the people of Ashdod and the country around that town. He made everybody really sick, with lots of boils. <sup>7</sup> After they saw that bad sickness, they said to each other, "We're in big trouble with the God of the Israel mob. And now he hits Dagon as well. We've got to throw away that special box." <sup>8</sup> So they sent messengers to the bosses from other places of the Philistia nation to come and meet together at Ashdod. They asked them, "What will we do with this box of the God of the Israel mob?"

They answered, "Send it to another place now, to the town called Gath." So then they took the special box to Gath.

After they arrived at Ekron with the special box, lots of people from that place shouted out as they saw it, "Oh no. They have brought that special box here now. We will all die." <sup>11</sup> So they sent messengers to the bosses from other places to come and meet together at Ekron. This time they said, "Send it away. Send it back to its own country. It might finish us up and everybody else in Philistia."

Lots of people in that place died from the same sickness. That's how God made them frightened. He made big trouble for all the Philistia mob. <sup>12</sup> The other people that were still alive, they were really sick, with lots of boils. They cried out to their gods, to ask them to help.

(We have not yet translated chapter 6. It says that the Philistia mob sent God's special box back to Israel, to a place called Kiriath-Jearim.)

God rescued the Israel mob at Mizpah

<sup>1</sup> The Kiriath-Jearim mob took God's special box back to their country, to the house of a man called Abinadab. That house stood on the top of a hill. And they picked his son Eleazar to look after that box.* <sup>2</sup> God's special box stood there at that house for 20 years.

All that time the Israel mob felt sad. They thought God left them, so they kept on asking him to help them. <sup>3</sup> Then Samuel asked them, "Is it true that you mob want to turn back to God? Well, you have to do this. Throw away all those statues made of wood and stone. Throw away those statues of women called Astarti. Those things do not belong to us Israel mob. They are from another place. You mob have to show respect only to God. Turn back to him. Give yourselves only to him. If you do that, he will save you from the Philistia mob." <sup>4</sup> So the Israel mob listened to him and threw away all those things, those statues like men called Baal and those other statues like women called Astarti. And they turned back to God and showed respect only to him.

<sup>5</sup> Then Samuel told them all, "Send messengers to every place. I want all the Israel mob to meet together at that place called Mizpah. Then I will pray to God for everybody there."

<sup>6</sup> So they all met together at Mizpah. They got some water from a spring and poured it on the ground. That was their way to tell God that they felt shamed. They were sorry that they showed respect to those statues. On that day they didn't eat any food as they prayed to him. They prayed like this, "Our God, we did wrong things. We didn't follow your way." That's the way Samuel led the people to go the right way.

<sup>7</sup> After the bosses from Philistia heard that the Israel mob came together at Mizpah, they took their soldiers to that place. The Israel mob heard they were coming, and they got frightened. <sup>8</sup> So they said to Samuel, "Pray to God for us. Keep on praying, don't stop. Ask him to save us from the Philistia mob." <sup>9</sup> Then Samuel got a young sheep, and he burned all of it to give it to God. He kept on praying for the Israel mob, and God took notice of him.

<sup>10</sup> God heard Samuel's prayer. While he burned the young sheep, the Philistia mob came close, ready to attack the Israel mob. But suddenly God made a really loud noise, and it sounded like thunder. The Philistia mob got really frightened and confused, so the Israel mob easily beat them. <sup>11</sup> They chased them from Mizpah almost as far as a place called Beth-Car; and they killed lots of people dead along the way. <sup>12-13</sup> The Philistia mob ran away and went home. Then Samuel got a big stone, and stood it up half-way between 2 places, Mizpah and Shen, so that everybody will remember the things that happened. And he said, "God was helping us." So he called the stone Ebenezer. That name means stone that belongs to the one that helps us. The Philistia mob sat quiet for a long time. They didn't come back to the Israel mob's country.

So God saved them from the Philistia mob for a long time, until Samuel became an old man.

The Israel mob asked for a big boss

<sup>1-2</sup> Samuel had 2 sons. His older son was called Joel, his younger son was called Abijah. After Samuel became an old man, he picked them to be bosses for the Israel mob. They were court judges, working at the place called Beersheba. <sup>3</sup> But they were not like their father. They were greedy. They thought only about money. Bad men used to give them money in a quiet way, and then they used to let those bad men go free.

<sup>4</sup> So all the elders of Israel met together at the town called Ramah, to talk to Samuel. <sup>5</sup> They said, "You are an old man now. Your sons don't live straight like you, so they shouldn't be judges for us. You have to pick one man to be the big boss for us. In other countries they have one big boss. We want to be the same as them.”*

* 7:1 2 Samuel 6:2-4; 1 Chronicles 13:5-7 * 8:5 Deuteronomy 17:14

<sup>6</sup> Samuel wasn't happy about that, so he prayed to God. <sup>7</sup> God said to him, "Listen to them. Do what they are asking. They don't hate you. Really it's me they hate. They hate their God. They don't want me to be their boss any more. <sup>8</sup> That's the way it was a long time ago, while I led their grand-fathers back from that country called Egypt. They used to turn away from me and show respect to gods from other places. Today they still do the same thing. And now they don't want you or your family to be bosses either. <sup>9</sup> But it's good to listen to them. Let them have a big boss. But warn them carefully, 'If you have that sort of big boss, he will make it hard for you mob. He will make you do all kinds of hard things for him.' "

(We have not yet translated 8:11-18.)

<sup>19</sup> But they didn't listen to him. They said, "No. We want a big boss. <sup>20</sup> In other places there is a big boss. We want that here too. We want a big boss to lead us whenever we fight with other mobs."

<sup>21</sup> Samuel told God everything that the elders said to him. <sup>22</sup> God said, "Listen to them. Do as they ask. Give them a big boss."

So Samuel said to the elders, "All right. I'll do that. So go back home now, all of you."

9

God picked Saul to be the big boss for the Israel mob

<sup>1</sup> There was an old man called Kish. He was an important man. He was from Benjamin's tribe. His father was Abiyel. His grand-father was Zeror. His great grand-father was Becorath, and his great great grand-father was Afiah. <sup>2</sup> Kish had a son called Saul. He was a young man with a properly good-looking face, and he was a lot taller than anybody else of the Israel mob.

<sup>3</sup> Kish had some donkeys, and one day, those donkeys wandered away and got lost. Kish said to his son Saul, "Go and look for those donkeys. Take one of the working men with you."

<sup>4</sup> So they went off to look for them. First they went and looked in the hill country that belongs to the Ephraim tribe. From there they went and looked in Shalisha country. But nothing, they didn't find them. From there they went to look in the Shalim country. Still nothing. They also looked in the country that belongs to the Benjamin tribe, but they didn't find them.

<sup>5</sup> They went as far as the Zuf country. Then Saul said, "We've come a long way. Let's go back, or my father might worry about us now, instead of those donkeys."

<sup>6</sup> But his working man said, "Wait a minute. What about that old man that tells God's messages? He lives in this place. Everybody knows that he is God's man. Whenever he says that something is going to happen, later it happens. We can ask him. He might tell us the place to look for the donkeys."

<sup>14</sup> After they got to that place, they saw the old man Samuel as he came towards them. He wanted to go up the hill, to the place where they used to burn meat to give to God. <sup>15</sup> You see, God talked to him the day before that, God said to him, <sup>16</sup> "I see that the Philistia mob makes trouble for my people. They cried out to me to help them, and I am listening to them. At about this time tomorrow, I will send a young man to you. He is from Benjamin's tribe. He will rescue my people from the Philistia mob. Pour olive oil on his head to show that I pick him to be the big boss for my people, the Israel mob."

<sup>17</sup> Samuel saw Saul as he came towards him, and God said to him, "There he is. He's the one I told you about yesterday. He will be the big boss for my people." <sup>18</sup> So Samuel waited for him at the town gate.

You see, Saul hadn't met that old man before. He didn't know him, so he said to him, "They say there's an old man that sees dreams from God, and he lives in this place. Where is his house?"

<sup>19</sup> Samuel answered, "That's me. I'm the man that sees dreams. You 2 go ahead up that hill, to that place. We burn meat there to give it to God. Today you will both eat with me, and tomorrow I will tell you whatever you want to know. Then you can go back home. <sup>20</sup> Oh, and those donkeys that ran away 3 days ago, don't worry about them. Other people already found them. But think about this story now. Lots of people are saying, 'One of Kish's mob should be the big boss for us, the Israel mob.' "

<sup>25</sup> Later on, they came back from the top of the hill to Samuel's house, and Samuel took Saul up on to the flat roof, to a clear place, so they could talk to each other. It was cool up on the roof at night, so Saul and his working man slept up there.

Saul got ready, then he and Samuel started to walk to the town gate. <sup>27</sup> Samuel said to him, "Send your working man ahead. You wait here. I want to tell you the word of God." So the working man started to walk ahead.

10

<sup>1</sup> Samuel got some olive oil and poured it on Saul's head. And then he kissed him on both his cheeks to show that he was his friend, and he said, "I pour this oil to show that God picked you to be the big boss for his people."

(We have not yet translated 10:1b-4.)

<sup>5</sup> Then Samuel told Saul, "You can start going home now. Soon you will arrive at the hill near the town called Gibeah. There is an army camp for soldiers from Philistia at that place. People get together on the top of that hill to burn meat to give it to God. When you arrive, you will see a group of men who tell God's message, coming down that hill. And you will see other people in front of them, with all kinds of musical instruments. Those messengers and the musical people, they will all have special power from God, and they will tell his message. <sup>6</sup> And God's spirit will also come to you, and he will give you that power too. Then you will be a different person, and you will tell his word whenever the men that tell God's message meet together. <sup>7</sup> And after you see it happen like this, you will know that God will stay close to you. He will help you to do anything you think is right."

(We have not yet translated 10:8.)

<sup>9</sup> Saul turned around and started to leave that place, then God suddenly changed him. That day he told people God's word, just like Samuel said.

(We have not yet translated 10:10-16.)

<sup>17</sup> After that, Samuel told the Israel mob to come together at the place called Mizpah. So they met together at that place.

(We have not yet translated 10:18-23.)

<sup>24</sup> Samuel told Saul to stand up in front of them. And he said to everybody, "Look at this man. God picked him to be the big boss. There's nobody else like him."

They all shouted happily, "Yes. He will be our big boss for ever."

(We have not yet translated 10:25-27.)

Saul's soldiers rescued lots of people at Jabesh

<sup>1</sup> After that, the big boss of the mob called Ammon went to the town called Jabesh, in the Gilead country. His name was Nahash, and he came with big mobs of soldiers. They all stood in a circle around Jabesh. Nobody in the town could go outside.

Then the Jabesh mob sent a messenger to that boss. He said, "Don't kill us dead. We will let you be our boss. We will be your workers. Let's all agree about that. You promise not to kill us dead, and we will promise to be your workers."

<sup>2</sup> Nahash sent the messenger back to say, "All right. I will not kill you mob dead. I will just take out your eyes. I will take out the right eye from every one of you. That's the way I will shame you Israel mob. Whenever people from other places look at you mob, you will feel ashamed."

<sup>3</sup> The elders from that place sent the messenger back. They told him to tell Nahash, "First let us wait for 7 days. We will send messengers to every place in Israel. Maybe somebody will come to help us, maybe not. If not, we will give ourselves to you. Then you can take out our eyes."

<sup>4</sup> So the messengers went around to every place in Israel. They arrived at Saul's camp at Gibeah with the bad news. The people there heard it, and they cried out loud. <sup>5</sup> Saul was out in the garden. As he came back with 2 bulls, he heard them crying and asked, "What's happening? Why is everybody crying?" They told him the story the messengers said.

<sup>6</sup> Saul heard that message, and then the spirit of God came to him and gave him special power. He got wild with that boss from Ammon. <sup>7</sup> He killed his 2 bulls, and he cut them into bits. Then he gathered lots of messengers together, and he gave a bit of meat to each one. He sent them to every place in Israel to say, "Look at this bit of meat. Every man has to follow Saul and Samuel, to fight the Ammon mob. If any man stays behind, Saul will cut up his bulls into little bits, like this meat."

God made Saul so strong that he made everybody frightened. So all the men came together. <sup>8</sup> Saul gathered them all together at a place called Bezek. 300,000 men came from the Israel mob and 30,000 came from the Judah mob.

<sup>9</sup> Those men told the messengers from Jabesh, "Tell that Jabesh mob, 'Tomorrow morning we will hunt away that Ammon mob and then rescue you mob before the middle of the day.'"

The Jabesh mob heard that, and they were very happy. <sup>10</sup> So they sent a messenger back to the boss from Ammon, to tell him a lie, and say, "Tomorrow we will give ourselves to you. You can do whatever you like to us then."

<sup>11</sup> Before the sun came up Saul divided his fighting men into 3 groups. At daylight they ran into the Ammon mob's camp and killed lots of them dead. They kept on killing them until the middle of the day. Only a few Ammon men were left, and they ran away in all directions.

(We have not yet translated 11:12—14:52.)

Saul didn't listen to God

<sup>1</sup> One day, Samuel came to Saul and said, "Listen, Saul. God is the boss of everybody. He was the one that told me to pick you to be the big boss for his people the Israel mob. So listen to this message that he told me today.* <sup>2</sup> He said, 'A long time ago, as the grand-fathers of you Israel mob came from Egypt, the Amalek mob attacked them. They did wrong to my people. And now, I want to punish them.'

<sup>3</sup> So, Saul, I want you mob to go and kill the Amalek mob dead. Burn everything that belongs to them. Kill everything until there's nothing left. Kill the men, women, kids, babies, bulls, cows, sheep, camels, and donkeys too. Kill everything. That's the way you have to give them all to me.' "

<sup>4</sup> So Saul sent messengers to every place, to tell the soldiers to meet together at a place called Telayim. Lots of soldiers came together at that place. There were 200,000 soldiers from Israel and 10,000 from Judah. <sup>5</sup> Then Saul led them to the town where the Amalek mob lived, and they went and hid in a gully nearby.

<sup>6</sup> At that time the Ken mob lived in that country. Saul sent a messenger to them to say, "I want to finish up all the Amalek mob, so you Ken mob have to get out of the way. A long time ago, you mob helped us Israel mob, as we came from Egypt. So I can't hurt you now." So the Ken mob moved away from that place.

<sup>7</sup> Then Saul and his men chased the Amalek mob from the place called Havilah in the east to the place called Shur in the west. Shur was half-way between Israel and Egypt. <sup>8</sup> Saul's mob killed dead all the men, and the women and the kids. They finished them up properly. But they didn't kill the boss of the Amalek mob, a man called Agag. <sup>9</sup> They kept him alive. They also kept a lot of the animals alive. They took all the good sheep and goats, and all the good cows and bulls, and their young ones too. They only killed the rubbish animals dead. They didn't finish all the animals properly.

<sup>10</sup> That day God said to that old man Samuel, <sup>11</sup> "Saul didn't listen to me. He's turned away from me. Now I'm sorry that I picked him to be the big boss." Samuel heard that message, and he was very angry and upset. All night he talked to God about it.

<sup>12</sup> Early the next morning, Samuel got up and went to look for Saul. Other people told him, "Saul isn't here. He went to the place called Carmel. After he finished up the Amalek mob, he wanted everybody to think he was a great soldier, so he stood up a big stone there to remind them. Then he went to another place called Gilgal."

<sup>13</sup> Samuel went to Gilgal, and Saul said to him, "Samuel. I hope God makes you happy. I did everything he told me to do."

<sup>14</sup> But Samuel said, "Really? So how come I can hear animals crying? I can hear sheep, goats, cows and bulls."

<sup>15</sup> Saul answered, "It was the soldiers, they did that. They took the good animals that belonged to the Amalek mob. They kept them alive, to burn them for God. The other animals we finished properly."

<sup>16</sup> But Samuel said, "Stop talking, and listen carefully to me. God talked to me last night. Let me tell you about it."

Saul said, "Yes, tell me."

<sup>17</sup> Samuel said, "At first you called yourself nothing. You didn't try to be important. It was God that made you important. He picked you to be the big boss for the Israel mob. <sup>18</sup> And then he told you to kill all those bad Amalek people. He told you to finish them up properly. <sup>19</sup> So why didn't you listen to him? Why did you do something that he said was wrong? You kept the best animals, so he is angry with you."

<sup>20</sup> Saul was confused. He said, "What? Truly I listened to God. I did everything he told me to do. I killed everybody dead. But I brought their boss Agag back alive. <sup>21</sup> The soldiers only brought back the good animals. They got the best sheep, goats, cows and bulls for you to burn for God here at Gilgal."

<sup>22</sup> But Samuel answered, "God wants people to listen to his word properly and do what he says. He doesn't want us to do wrong things and then burn meat or fat to give it to him. He really likes it when we do what he says.* <sup>23</sup> You know, if somebody doesn't listen to God, that person truly does wrong. If somebody prays to bad spirits, it's just the same. If somebody is proud, God is not happy with that person. If somebody shows respect to statues made of wood and stone, that's just the same. And you didn't listen to God, so he turned away from you. You did wrong things, so God says, 'You can't be the big boss any more.'"

<sup>24</sup> Then Saul said, "I did wrong things. I didn't listen to God or to you. I was afraid of the soldiers, and I listened only to them. <sup>25</sup> Please don't be angry with me. Please forgive me. Don't leave me now. Come back with me to the people. I want to get down on my knees and show respect to God."

<sup>26</sup> But Samuel said to him, "No. I can't go back with you. You didn't listen to God, so he will not listen to you now. You did wrong things, so God has said, 'You can't be the big boss any more.'"

(We have not yet translated 15:27-31.)

<sup>32</sup> Then Samuel said to the soldiers, "Where's that Agag, the Amalek mob's boss? Bring him to me."

They brought Agag to Samuel. Agag was not afraid, and he thought, "It looks like they will not kill me dead after all."

<sup>33</sup> But Samuel said to him, "You killed people with your own long knife. Now lots of women have no children any more. Well, just like that your mother will have no children any more."

So Samuel killed Agag dead right there at Gilgal. And God watched him do it.

<sup>34</sup> Then Samuel left and went back to his place in the town called Ramah. Saul went back to his place in Gibeah. <sup>35</sup> After that, Samuel never saw Saul again. He was very sad about what Saul did. And God was sad too. He was sorry that he made Saul to be the big boss of Israel.

16

God picked David to be the big boss for the Israel mob

<sup>1</sup> After that, God said to Samuel, "Saul is not a good boss any more. I will not help him now. Why do you keep on being sad for him? Forget about him now. Get a bottle of olive oil. Go and see that old man Jesse at the place called Bethlehem. I picked one of his sons to be the new big boss of Israel."

But God said, "Take a young cow with you. Say this to the Bethlehem mob, 'I came here to burn this young cow, to give it to God.' <sup>3</sup> And tell the old man Jesse and his sons to come too. At that time, I will show you the man that I picked. You have to pour olive oil on his head. That will show that I am picking him to be the big boss of Israel."

<sup>4</sup> Samuel listened to God, and he went to Bethlehem. After he got there, the elders of the town came to meet him. They were really afraid. They were so frightened that they shook, and they asked, "Did you come with good news? Or are you angry with us?"

<sup>5</sup> Samuel answered, "No, I came happily. I came to burn this young cow with you mob, to give it to God. You have to wash and get ready. You have to be clean in God's way before we can burn this young cow." He also told Jesse and his sons to come. And he helped them to get ready.

<sup>6</sup> After they came together, Samuel saw Jesse's oldest son. His name was Eliab. Samuel thought, "I reckon this is the one God has picked to be the big boss."

<sup>7</sup> But God said to Samuel, "No, not this one. I didn't pick him. You just see that he has a strong tall body. You people look at the outside of a person, but I know what they are like inside. I know the way they think.*"

<sup>8</sup> So Samuel asked Jesse to send the next son to him. His name was Abinadab. He came, and Samuel said, "No, God hasn't picked this one."

* 15:22 Psalm 40:6-8; Isaiah 1:11-15; Hosea 6:6; Micah 6:6-8; Mark 12:33

* 16:7 Luke 16:15

Jesse answered, "Yes. There is my youngest son, David. But he is looking after the sheep out in the bush."

Samuel said, "Send somebody to get him and bring him here. We will wait for him. We can't sit down and eat the meat without him."

<sup>12</sup> So Jesse sent somebody to get David, and he brought him back. David was a good-looking young man, with a strong body and a nice face. God said to Samuel, "This is the one. Stand up now, and pour olive oil on his head. I picked him to be the next big boss."

<sup>13</sup> So Samuel got the bottle of olive oil, and he poured oil on David's head, while his older brothers were watching. God's spirit went into David in a powerful way and stayed in him from that day on. Then Samuel went back to his place at Ramah.

David worked for the big boss Saul

<sup>14</sup> Then God's spirit left Saul and did not go back to him. God sent a bad spirit that often made Saul frightened.

<sup>15</sup> His workers said to him, "Boss. We can see that God has sent a bad spirit to make you frightened. <sup>16</sup> We will go and get somebody to come here and play the guitar for you. Whenever the bad spirit makes you frightened, he will play that guitar, and you will feel better then."

<sup>19</sup> So Saul sent messengers to Jesse to say, "The big boss Saul wants you to send your son to him, that David, the one that looks after the sheep."

<sup>20</sup> So Jesse got a donkey, and he put lots of food on it. He also put some wine in leather bags on the donkey. He said to his son, "Go to the big boss's place, and take this donkey and a little goat with you."

<sup>23</sup> Lots of times God sent a bad spirit to make Saul angry. So David used to play his guitar to make him feel better. Then the bad spirit went away, and Saul felt better.

David killed the soldier Goliath dead

<sup>8</sup> Every day, Goliath used to go out into the middle and call out to the Israel mob like this, "Hey Israel mob. What are you waiting for? You call yourselves soldiers? Look at me? I'm a real soldier, from Philistia. You mob are just Saul's working men. Listen. You pick one man and send him to me, so the 2 of us can fight. <sup>9</sup> If he kills me, we mob will let you take us all to Israel, to work for you mob. But if I kill him, we will take you mob back to Philistia, to work for us. <sup>10</sup> Don't be weak. Send one man to me so the 2 of us can fight."

(We have not yet translated 17:12-14. Those verses say that 3 of David's big brothers were in that Israel soldier mob with Saul.)

<sup>15-16</sup> That happened every day. Goliath used to go out and say that in the early morning and late afternoon. He did that for 40 days.

At that time, David kept on going back from Saul's place to his father's place, to look after his father's sheep.

<sup>17</sup> One day, his father said, "Get this bag of cooked seed, and get 10 loaves of bread. Take them to your big brothers. <sup>18</sup> And take 10 big lumps of cheese too, and give them to the boss soldier. Go quickly. I'm worried about your big brothers. Bring back some news from them. Bring back something to show that they are still all right. <sup>19</sup> Go to the valley called Elah. That's the place where Saul and our mob are fighting with the Philistia mob."

<sup>20</sup> David listened to his father. Then he told another man to look after the sheep. The next morning, he put all that food on a donkey and went to the valley called Elah. After he got there, he saw the soldiers as they got ready to fight. They shouted to make themselves brave. <sup>21</sup> The Israel mob and the Philistia mob watched each other across the valley. <sup>22</sup> David gave the food to the man that was in charge of all the food, then he ran out to the soldiers and said hello to his brothers. <sup>23</sup> While they talked, that big man from Gath, Goliath, he went out into the middle as before. And he went around and shouted out loud, as he always did. And David heard him talk like that. <sup>24</sup> Every time the Israel mob saw Goliath, they got frightened and ran away from him.

<sup>25</sup> You see, they already said to each other like this, "Every day, that man comes to shame us and make fun of us. But if one of our men kills him, Saul will give him big money. He will also give him his daughter to marry. And Saul will not make his family pay tax money."

<sup>26</sup> David said to the men that stood near him, "That man gives us shame. He doesn't know God. Somebody has to shut him up. What will Saul give if somebody kills him? We can't let him make fun of the true God and his army, no way."

<sup>27</sup> They told him the same thing, "Saul will give big money to the man that kills Goliath. And he will give him his daughter to marry. And Saul will not make his family pay tax money."

<sup>28</sup> David's oldest brother, Eliab, heard them talking, and he was angry with David. He said to him, "Why did you come here? What about those few little sheep? Who is watching them today? You are doing wrong. Why do you try to make yourself big? I know what you are like. You just came here for fun, to see the fighting."

<sup>29</sup> David asked, "Why are you angry with me? What did I do wrong? I'm just asking." <sup>30</sup> And he asked another man, "What will Saul give to the man that kills Goliath?" The man told him the same thing as before.

<sup>32</sup> David said to him, "Boss. We can't be frightened of that man. I will go. I will fight with him myself."

<sup>33</sup> Saul said, "No way. You can't fight with him. You are only a young man, and he's a brave soldier. He was a soldier since he was young."

<sup>34</sup> But David said, "I look after my father's sheep and goats. A lion or a bear might grab a sheep, and drag it away to eat. <sup>35</sup> I chase it, and I hit the cheeky animal, until it lets the sheep go. If it tries to bite and scratch me, I grab it by the hair and kill it dead. <sup>36</sup> I've killed lions and bears dead. That cheeky man is shaming God's army, so I will kill him the same way. God is the only powerful one. <sup>37</sup> He has saved me from cheeky animals, and he will save me from that cheeky man too."

Saul said, "All right, you go and fight him. God will go with you."

<sup>38</sup> Saul had some iron plates there, to use in a fight. He used to put them on to cover his body. Those things were really heavy. He gave them to David to put on. He also gave him a hat made of bronze, to cover the head. <sup>39</sup> David also put on a belt and put Saul's long knife in it. It was the first time David put on heavy things like that, and he couldn't walk properly.

And he said to Saul, "I can't walk like this. I've never used this kind of thing before." So he took them off. <sup>40</sup> He got his walking stick and his thing for throwing stones, called a sling, and he went down to the creek. He picked up 5 smooth stones, and he put them in his bag. Then he walked up towards that Philistia man.

<sup>45</sup> David answered, "You think you will kill me dead. You come to me with a long knife and 2 spears. But God sent me to fight you. He is the boss of everything, and he is with me now as I go to you, and I will kill you dead. God is the only powerful one, and he is the leader of the Israel soldiers. But you made fun of him.

<sup>46</sup> So today God will help me to win. And I will kill you and cut off your head. Today you Philistia mob will all lie dead, and the birds and the wild animals will eat your bodies. Then everybody will know that the only real God is Israel's God. <sup>47</sup> All of us here will know that God looks after his people, but he doesn't have to use long knives and spears. He does it his way. God is boss of this fight. So we Israel mob will finish up all of you Philistia mob."

After the Philistia mob saw that their big soldier lay there dead on the ground, they all turned around and ran away. <sup>52</sup> The Israel mob shouted out loud and chased them. They kept on chasing them along the Sharayim road as far as those 2 places called Gath and Ekron. Lots of Philistia people lay dead along that road.

18

Saul was jealous of David

<sup>6</sup> Then the Israel mob all went back home, and women came from lots of places to meet Saul, the big boss. They danced and sang happily. Some played little drums and others played guitars.

<sup>7</sup> They sang like this as they went,* "Saul killed dead a thousand enemy soldiers. David killed dead 10,000 of them."

<sup>8</sup> Saul heard their words, and he was really angry. He thought, "They reckon David killed more enemy soldiers than me. Maybe they want to make him the boss of us Israel mob, instead of me?"

<sup>10</sup> The next day, God sent a bad spirit to Saul. It made him go really mad. He just sat there in his house and screamed. David played the guitar for him as before. Saul was holding a spear in his hand, <sup>11</sup> and he thought, "I will spear David straight through and hang him on the wall." So he threw it at him. But David quickly jumped out of the way, and the spear missed him. That happened 2 times, and he missed David each time.

(We have not yet translated 18:12-30. It tells that Saul gave his daughter to David, to be his wife. Her name was Mihal.)

19

<sup>1</sup> One day, Saul said to his son Jonathan and to his workers, "David has got to die. You have to kill him."

But Jonathan was good friends with David, <sup>2</sup> so he told David, "Look out. My father is trying to kill you. Run away and hide over there in the bush. Wait there and watch out for somebody tomorrow morning. <sup>3</sup> I will go for a walk with my father near the place you are hiding. I will talk to him about you. After he goes back, I will tell you whatever he says."

<sup>4</sup> Next morning Jonathan and his father went for a walk in the bush, and they talked about David. Jonathan said good things about David like this, "He didn't do wrong to you. He did all kinds of good things for you. He did things that helped you. You can't do wrong to him now. <sup>5</sup> He didn't worry about dying. He bravely fought that Philistia man, Goliath, and killed him dead. God used him to really help the Israel mob. You saw it too, and you were happy about it. Why do you want to kill him? He did nothing wrong."

<sup>6</sup> Saul listened to his son Jonathan, and he said, "God hears us, so I'm talking straight to you. I will not try to kill David."

<sup>7</sup> After Saul went back, Jonathan called to David to come out. He told him everything his father said. So they went back to Saul, and David started to work for him again.

<sup>8</sup> One day, the Philistia mob came again, to fight with the Israel mob. David was a boss soldier at that time, and he attacked and killed lots of Philistia men dead. The rest of them ran away frightened.

<sup>9</sup> Then David went back to Saul's place, to work for him again, and God sent a bad spirit to Saul again. David played the guitar as before. At that time, Saul was holding a spear in his hand, <sup>10</sup> and he tried to spear him straight through and hang him on the wall. But again David quickly jumped out of the way, and the spear only hit the wall. That night David ran away safely from Saul's house.

* 18:7 1 Samuel 21:11; 29:5

<sup>11</sup> Saul sent men to watch David's house that night and to kill him in the morning. But while it was still night time, David's wife, Michal, she saw them and said to David, "Run away quickly, right now. Don't wait, or in the morning they will kill you dead."* <sup>12</sup> Then she put a rope down from the window, and he climbed down it and ran away safely.

Jonathan helped his brother-in-law David

<sup>1</sup> After that, David ran away from the community called Nayoth in the town called Ramah. He went to Jonathan's place and asked him, "What have I done? What wrong thing did I do? Why does your father keep on looking for me, to kill me?"

<sup>2</sup> Jonathan answered, "No way. That is not true. He will not kill you. My father has not told me that he wants to do that. He always tells me what he is thinking. That's his way. He does not tell lies to me."

<sup>3</sup> But David said, "Listen. Let God punish me if what I said is not true. Your father knows that you and I are close friends. We are also brothers-in-law. He might think like this, 'I can't tell my son. He might get upset.' No, listen to me. God is listening, so I can't tell lies. Today I might die."

<sup>5</sup> David said, "Tomorrow, people will come together for the new moon ceremony, as they always do. Lots of people will be at your father's place to eat food together. He told me to come and eat with him there too. But for the first 2 nights I don't want to be at the food table, but I will hide in the garden. Is that all right?*

<sup>6</sup> If your father asks about me, tell him, 'David asked me, "Is it all right for me to go to my home town, Bethlehem? Every year my family comes together there, to kill animals and burn them for God.'" ' <sup>7</sup> If he says, 'All right,' you will know that he will not hurt me. But if he gets angry, you will know that he wants to kill me."

The next day, lots of people came together at Saul's place for the new moon ceremony. Saul sat down in his chair to eat. <sup>25</sup> His chair was near the wall as usual. Jonathan sat on the other side of the table. The boss soldier called Abner was also there, in the chair next to Saul. But David was not there. His chair was empty. <sup>26</sup> Saul noticed that he was not there, but he thought to himself, "Maybe something has happened to him, so he can't eat at the ceremony?" (You see, God said that if something happened to somebody first, like maybe they touched a dead body, then they can't eat at a special ceremony.) So Saul did not ask anybody about David.

<sup>28</sup> Jonathan answered, and he told a lie like this, "David kept on asking me to let him go to Bethlehem. <sup>29</sup> He said, 'Every year my family comes together there, to burn animals and give them to God. My older brother told me to come. So please, let me go to see my brothers.' He told me that, and that's why he can't be here to eat food with you."

<sup>30</sup> Saul got very angry with his son, and he yelled at him like this, "You stupid fool. I know that you listen to David and not to me. That's a shame job. You even shame your own mother. <sup>31</sup> If David is still alive, you can't be boss in Israel after me. Send some men straight away, to grab David and bring him to me. He has got to die."

<sup>32</sup> Jonathan asked his father, "Why has he got to die? What wrong thing did he do?" <sup>33</sup> But as soon as Saul heard that, he suddenly threw his spear at his son. He meant to kill him dead, but he missed. So then Jonathan knew that his father really wanted to kill David.

<sup>34</sup> Jonathan got wild and stood up and went outside. He was so upset that he did not eat anything all day. He was very sad that his father treated David so badly like that.

<sup>41</sup> David came out from behind a rock. He got down on his knees 3 times to show respect to Jonathan, his face near the ground. They kissed each other and cried for each other. But David cried more than Jonathan. <sup>42</sup> Jonathan said, "Go carefully now. God will take care of you. You and I will be friends for ever. And God hears us whenever we talk like this. He will help your mob and my mob to live quietly for ever." So David went away then, and Jonathan went back again to his home.

An old man called Ahimelek helped David

<sup>1</sup> After that, David went to a place called Nob. There was an old man there called Ahimelek. He used to look after God's ceremonies. He saw David coming with no soldiers. There were just a few work-men with him. This made Ahimelek afraid. He was so frightened that he shook. He asked David, "Why did you come here all by yourself? Where are your soldiers? What happened?"

<sup>2</sup> David told a lie. He said, "Saul sent me to do a secret job for him. I can't tell you about it. I told my soldiers to go ahead of me, and to meet me at another place." <sup>3</sup> Do you have any food? I need some. Maybe 5 loaves of bread? Or maybe some other kind of food?"

<sup>4</sup> The old man said, "I have nothing, no bread, I only have this special bread, that we make to give to God. Only men that do my kind of work can eat it. I'll let you take it, but only if your men have not slept with women, like men do with their wives."

<sup>5</sup> David said, "Yes, we always do that when we work for the big boss. Today we have a special job to do, so we have to properly follow that rule. We have not slept with any women." <sup>6</sup> So the old man gave him the special bread that was left from the day before, because the fresh bread was still on God's table.*

<sup>7</sup> On that same day a working man came to that place to show respect to God. He heard David and Ahimelek as they talked together. His name was Doeg, and he came from the country called Edom. He worked for Saul, and he looked after Saul's sheep.

<sup>8</sup> David said to the old man, "I came with nothing. The big boss told me to go quickly, so I came without my spear and my long knife. Do you have one here?"

<sup>9</sup> The old man answered, "Yes, there is that long knife that belonged to Goliath from Philistia. You killed him dead, down in the valley at Elah. That is all I have. If you like, you can take it. There it is, covered with a blanket, near the special ceremony clothes."*

David said, "That is a good knife. It is better than anyone else's knife. Give it to me."

(We have not yet translated 21:10—22:8.)

Saul told the soldiers to kill the men that look after God's ceremonies

<sup>9</sup> That man Doeg, from Edom, he went back and told Saul, "I saw David at Nob. He went to see that old man Ahimelek, Ahitub's son." <sup>10</sup> That old man prayed to God for David. He asked God what David should do. And he gave him food. He also gave him the long knife that belonged to Goliath from Philistia."*

<sup>11</sup> As soon as Saul heard it, he sent a messenger to get Ahimelek and his family to come to him. You see, at that time, Ahimelek and the men in his family used to look after God's ceremonies at Nob. After they got Saul's message, they all went to his place. <sup>12</sup> Then Saul said, "Listen to me, son of Ahitub."

And Ahimelek said, "What is it, boss?"

<sup>13</sup> Saul asked, "Why do you want to trick me? You don't think about me any more. You want to make David the big boss. You helped him with food, and you gave him a long knife. And you even prayed to God for him. David has turned against me. He's just waiting to kill me dead some time."

<sup>14</sup> The old man answered, "No way, boss. David truly works for you. He is your best worker. And he is also your son-in-law, a boss soldier. Everybody that works for you respects him very much." <sup>15</sup> I have prayed lots of times to God for him, but you did not get angry with me before. Do not blame me and my family. We know nothing about whatever is going on."

<sup>16</sup> But Saul said, "You and everybody in your family will die today." <sup>17</sup> And he told his workers, "Kill all these men dead. They listen to David and not to me. They knew that he ran away from me, but they did not tell me."

But the workers said, "No. We can't kill these men that look after God's ceremonies."

<sup>18</sup> So Saul said to Doeg, "All right. You kill those men yourself." Doeg was from Edom, a different country. He didn't care about those men, so he listened to Saul and did what he said. He got up straight away, and he killed dead 85 men that looked after God's ceremonies, men that used to wear the special ceremony clothes. <sup>19</sup> Then he went to Nob, the town where Ahimelek's family lived. They were the people who used to look after God's ceremonies. Doeg killed dead everybody there too. He killed men dead, also women, kids, babies, bulls, donkeys, and sheep. He killed everything dead.

David shamed Saul properly

<sup>1</sup> Another time Saul and his soldiers went to fight with the Philistia mob. After they came back, somebody told him this story, "David's mob are in the desert at En-Gedi." <sup>2</sup> So Saul got 3,000 of his best soldiers together from every place in Israel. And they went off to look for David and his men in the hill country, near a place called the rocks of the wild goats.

<sup>3</sup> There were yards for sheep and goats at that place, near a cave. David and his men were in that place before Saul and his men got there, and David's mob went into the cave to hide. Later on, Saul and his men came, and Saul went into the cave by himself to go to the toilet. But David and his men were already in that cave, right at the back. The cave was very big, so Saul did not see them.* <sup>4</sup> David's men said to him, "You remember that God said this, 'I will help you to beat your enemy that does wrong to you. You can do whatever you like to him.' So you can kill him dead now." David went quietly up behind Saul and cut off a little bit of his coat with his knife. Saul just sat there. He did not know what David was doing.

I'm holding a little bit of your coat. I cut it off just then, when you were in the cave, but I did not kill you. This shows that I am not trying to do any wrong to you. I can't make myself the big boss instead of you. But you keep on looking for me, to kill me. <sup>12</sup> One day, God will judge you and me. If you do wrong to me, he will punish you. But I can't kill you. No way. <sup>13</sup> You know what people often say, 'Only bad people do bad things.' I do not want to be a bad person, so I will not touch you."

<sup>16</sup> After David said that, Saul asked him, "Is that really you, my son David?" And he cried out loud. <sup>17</sup> He said to David, "You are a good man, I am not. You are good to me, but I am giving you a hard time. <sup>18</sup> And now you have just told me that you feel sorry for me. God brought us together in the cave, but still you did not kill me. <sup>19</sup> Whenever a soldier finds his enemy, he can't let him go. He never does that. But you are not like that. You are good to me. You did good to me today, so God will do good to you. <sup>20</sup> I know that one day you will be the big boss of Israel. <sup>21</sup> So promise me right now, with God listening, that you will not kill my family dead after you become the big boss. And after you become the big boss, keep on being good to them, so that my family will not finish up."

Nabal and his wife Abigail

<sup>1</sup> About that time the old man Samuel died. The Israel mob came together and cried for him. They buried him at his place in the town called Ramah.

After that, David and his men went back to the desert country called Maon. <sup>2-3</sup> There was a man there called Nabal. He belonged to Caleb's family. His farm was near the town called Carmel, in that Maon country. He had lots of money, 3,000 sheep and 1,000 goats. He was a hard man and a cheeky man. His wife was called Abigail. She was very beautiful and very clever.

One day, Nabal started to cut wool from the sheep. They always used to have a party after they finished that job. <sup>4</sup> David was in the desert country nearby, and he heard about it. <sup>5</sup> So he told 10 young men,

* 24:3 Psalm 57; 142      * 24:6 1 Samuel 26:11

"Go to Carmel and see that man Nabal. Say to him, 'Our boss David says to say hello to you. <sup>6</sup> God will look after you and your family and your animals. <sup>7</sup> I heard that you are now cutting wool from your sheep. You know, whenever we camped with your work-men that look after your sheep in the bush, we always looked after them carefully and did not steal from them. Other soldiers are thieves. But we are good to other people, and we don't think about stealing. <sup>8</sup> You can ask your workers. They will tell you the same story. It is like we are your working men too, so please be good to us. I also heard that it is party time at your place. But think about us too. Can you give us some food?'"

<sup>10</sup> Then he asked them, "Who does this man David think he is? That son of Jesse is just like other workers that run away from their bosses. <sup>11</sup> I only give bread, meat and water to my own workers. I can't just give it to some other mob. I don't know where they came from."

<sup>12</sup> So they went back to tell David what Nabal said. <sup>13</sup> Then David said to his men, "Get your long knives, you mob. We will go and fight him." They got their long knives and put them in their belts, and David got his long knife as well. He went off with 400 of his men. His 200 other men stayed behind to watch the camp.

<sup>14</sup> One of Nabal's workers heard what Nabal said to David's men, and he ran to tell Abigail, Nabal's wife. He told her, "David sent messengers from the desert country to talk to our boss. But he talked badly to them. <sup>15</sup> Truly David's mob were good to us, while we looked after the sheep. They did not steal from us. <sup>16</sup> Day and night they watched over us whenever we looked after the sheep. <sup>17</sup> This boss of ours has made trouble for us now. Something really bad might happen to us here. Can you do something about it? He's no good. I can't talk to him at all."

<sup>18</sup> Abigail did not wait. She quickly gathered all kinds of things together. She got 200 loaves of bread, and 2 leather bags that were full of wine, and 5 cooked sheep, and 5 bags of cooked seeds, and lots of fruit like bush tomato, and lots of fruit like bush figs. And she put all this food on some donkeys. <sup>19</sup> She said to her workers, "You mob go ahead. I will follow behind you." She did not say anything to her husband about it.

went along, "I looked after Nabal's men and his sheep in the desert country just for nothing. I didn't take anything that belonged to him. I was good to him, but he talked badly about me. Tonight, while it is still dark, I will kill all the men and boys at his place. If I do not do that, I will ask God to make big trouble for me." That's the way David talked.

As Abigail went along on her donkey, she went through a gap in the hills. She saw David as he came with his men. <sup>23</sup> As soon as she saw him, she quickly jumped off the donkey and got down on her knees to show respect to him, her face close to the ground. <sup>24</sup> She said, "Boss. Please wait and listen to me now. Be angry with me, not Nabal. Forget him. <sup>25</sup> Do not listen to that no good man. That name Nabal means mad one. He's always like that. You see, I was not there, at the time your workers came to our place.

<sup>26-27</sup> But now I have brought all kinds of food for you and your men to eat. So don't be angry with us now. I know for sure that it is God that stopped you here, so that you did not kill lots of people dead. And I want God to kill anybody that does wrong to you, just like I reckon he will kill Nabal one day. <sup>28</sup> So please let us go, even though my husband did wrong to you. I know that God will make you the big boss of all of us Israel mob. And later, after you die, your family will keep on being our bosses. I know that you fight against the people that God wants to fight. I hope you will keep on living straight always, for the rest of your life. <sup>29</sup> If other people chase you, to kill you, God will look after you and will keep you safe. You are his special one. He will soon finish up those other people. <sup>30</sup> After he does that, you will be boss in Israel, the way he promised before.

<sup>31</sup> So here today do not do payback to us. Do not kill us just for nothing. If you kill us, you will bring big shame on yourself. If you kill people now that are not guilty, it will be a problem for you later. But if you don't kill us, that will be good. I know that God will make you the big boss one day. At that time, please do not forget me, but be good to me." That's the story Abigail told David.

<sup>32</sup> Then David settled down and said to Abigail, "I reckon God is really great. He sent you to meet me here. <sup>33</sup> You thought carefully about it, then you came and met me here. So now I ask God to be good to you. Yes, I came to fight, but you stopped me, so I didn't kill lots of people dead. <sup>34</sup> God knows that this is true. He stopped me, or I might have killed you mob dead.

Every man and boy in this place might have died before tomorrow morning. But you came quickly to meet me and stop me.”

<sup>35</sup> And David thanked her, and he told his men to get all the food from Abigail. And he said to her, “All right. You can go home now. I have heard you, and I will do what you are asking me.”

<sup>37</sup> In the morning Nabal was sober, so Abigail told him about David. As soon as he heard he was so shocked that he had a stroke. He became just like a stone and couldn't move. <sup>38</sup> After 10 days, God hit him properly, and he died.

<sup>39-40</sup> As soon as David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, “Praise God. That old man talked badly to me. He talked very badly, so God finished him properly. God also stopped me so that I didn't do wrong.”

So David sent messengers to Carmel, and they went and said to Abigail, “David sent us. He wants you to come with us, to marry him.”

<sup>41</sup> She got down on her knees to show respect, her face close to the ground, and she said, “Yes, I will go. I am happy to work for him and his men, and I will even wash their feet too.” <sup>42</sup> She quickly got on a donkey and went off. <sup>5</sup> Working women also went with her. They all went to David's camp. And then David and Abigail got married. <sup>43-44</sup> You see, David's first wife was Saul's daughter, Michal. But Saul took her away and gave her to another man called Paltiel. His father's name was Layish, and he came from a place called Gallim. After that, David got another wife called Ahinoam. She came from a place called Jezreel. So Abigail and Ahinoam, they were both his wives.*

David shamed Saul again

Saul was at Hakilah, <sup>4</sup> he sent some men to have a look. They saw that Saul's mob really was there, so they came back and told David.

<sup>5</sup> That night David went close to Saul's camp. From his hiding place he saw Saul and the boss soldier Abner, Ner's son. They slept in the middle. The other soldiers all slept around them.

<sup>6</sup> There were 2 men with David. They were Ahimelek, the man who used to belong to the Heth mob, and Abishai, Zeruiah's son. Zeruiah was David's older sister. Her other son was Joab. David said to them, “I am going to go quietly into the middle of their camp, to where Saul is. Which of you 2 will do that with me?”

Abishai said, “I'll go with you.”

<sup>7</sup> So in the middle of the night, David and Abishai went quietly into Saul's camp. Everybody was asleep. They found Saul asleep in the middle of the camp. His spear stood there, stuck in the ground near his head. Other soldiers lay asleep nearby. One of them was Abner, the boss of Saul's soldiers. <sup>8</sup> Abishai said, “Boss. Look at this. God wants you to kill that old man. He did wrong to you. I will stab him right through with his spear. I'll only stab him one time. I'll use that spear like it is a big pin, and I'll pin him to the ground, and he will die straight away.”

<sup>9</sup> But David answered, “You can't kill him. God will punish you. He picked Saul to be our big boss. <sup>10</sup> Some time God himself will finish him up, maybe through sickness, maybe through fighting. <sup>11</sup> But not us. We can't kill him. God does not want me to kill this man that he picked. Let's just take his spear, and that billycan of water that is near his head, and we will go back.*”

<sup>12</sup> So David took the spear and the billycan, and they went away quietly. Nobody saw them. God made everybody sleep properly, so nobody woke up.

<sup>13</sup> Then they went across to the other side of the valley and stood on the top of a hill a long way away. <sup>14</sup> David called out to Abner, “Hey, Abner. Can you hear me?”

He answered, “Who's that calling out? Who's waking up the big boss?”

<sup>15</sup> David made fun of him, and he said, “Abner, what kind of man are you? You call yourself a big boss soldier, greater than all the other soldiers. But you don't look after your boss. Just now somebody went into your camp and nearly killed him dead. <sup>16</sup> You are a boss soldier for nothing. God should kill you, and your soldiers too.

* 25:43-44 2 Samuel 3:14-16 * 26:1 Psalm 54 * 26:11 1 Samuel 24:6

You mob don't look after the big boss, the one God picked. Look there. Where's the big boss's spear? Where's his billycan? I've got those 2 things here."

David answered, "Yes, boss. It's me. <sup>18</sup> Why do you always chase me? I did not do anything wrong. Why do you blame me? <sup>19</sup> Listen carefully to me. Did God tell you to hate me? If yes, then I have to burn meat to give to him, so he will change his mind. But maybe it was some other men that told you to hate me? They hunted me away from my people, so God has to punish them. They don't let me live in my country. I'm like a stranger. I have to live in another country now. The people there follow other gods. I can't live for God properly. <sup>20</sup> This place is a long way from God. I do not want to die here. I'm just nobody, not a boss man. Why do you keep on looking for me? You keep on chasing me like you are hunting for meat."

<sup>21</sup> Saul said, "I did the wrong thing. You are good to me. I can't do wrong to you again. You didn't kill me, but I truly did wrong. I was a stupid fool. You are like my son. Come back to me."

<sup>22</sup> David said, "Your spear is here. Send a man to come and get it. <sup>23</sup> Just now God brought us together, and I did not kill you. He picked you to be boss, so I will not kill you. God is good to people that listen to him. He is good to people that live straight. <sup>24</sup> That's why I want him to be good to me. I want him to keep me alive, just like I was good to you today, and did not kill you."

<sup>25</sup> Then Saul said, "Truly God will be good to you. You will do great things for him. Whatever you do will work out well."

Then David left that place, and Saul went back home.

Saul talked to Samuel's spirit

<sup>3</sup> A long time before this, Saul stopped the clever men and women from talking to the spirits of dead people, and he hunted them away from Israel. You see, that is in God's law.

When the old man Samuel died, the Israel mob all cried for him, and they buried him in his own town, called Ramah.*

soldiers together at another place called Gilboa, not far from Shunem. <sup>5</sup> As soon as he saw the Philistia mob, he was really frightened and confused. <sup>6</sup> He prayed to God, but God did not answer him. God didn't talk to Saul in dreams, and nobody came to bring him a word from God. Nothing. So he got the special stone that they used to find out what God wanted, and he threw it down, to see if it lay on its back or on its side. But still God did not show him anything.* <sup>7</sup> So Saul said to his men, "Go and look for a clever woman, one that can talk to dead people's spirits. I want her to ask Samuel for me. He might give me an answer."

They said to him, "There's one at that place called Endor."

<sup>8</sup> So Saul put on some working man's clothes to make himself look different. Then, at night, he went with 2 of his men to look for that woman. He found her and said, "Will you talk to a dead man for me? I will call the dead man's name, and you get him for me."

<sup>9</sup> But the woman said, "I can't do that. You know, Saul hunted the clever men and women away from Israel. You are making trouble for me. If I do this for you, Saul might send people to kill me dead."

<sup>10</sup> Saul answered, "God is listening, so I tell you straight. Nobody can kill you or do payback to you."

Saul said, "That old man Samuel. Get him for me."

<sup>12</sup> Then she talked to Samuel's spirit, and he came to her. As soon as she saw him, she was frightened and yelled at Saul, "You tricked me. You are Saul."

She said, "I can see a spirit coming out of the ground here."

She said, "It's an old man wearing long clothes."

Saul knew it was Samuel, and he got down on his knees and put his face near the ground to show respect to that spirit.

<sup>15</sup> Samuel said, "I was dead. Why did you wake me up? Why did you bring me back?"

Saul stood up and answered, "Things are really bad for me now. The Philistia mob will try to kill me dead. God turned away from me, and he doesn't answer me. He doesn't talk to me through a man, or a dream. Nothing. That's why I'm here now, to ask you what I have to do."

<sup>16</sup> Samuel said, "Yes, God turned away from you. He is your enemy now. Why do you ask me to help you?" <sup>17</sup> While I was alive, he told me the story about you. And I told it to you. Now it's come true. You are not the big boss of Israel any more. God has already picked David to be the big boss instead of you.* <sup>18</sup> You did not listen to God, so he did that. He was angry with the Amalek mob, so he told you to finish all of them up, and their animals too. He told you what to do, but you didn't do it.* <sup>19</sup> So now the Philistia mob will kill you and your soldiers. Tomorrow God will let them beat you mob. They will kill you and your sons dead. You will all come to sit with me, here, with all the dead people."

<sup>20</sup> You see, from early that day Saul didn't eat any food, and he ate nothing all that night too. So he was weak. And as soon as he heard Samuel's words, he got very frightened. He was so weak that he fell to the ground.

<sup>21</sup> The woman saw Saul on the ground. He was shaking, and she said, "Look. I listened to you. I was afraid you might kill me, but I did like you asked." <sup>22</sup> Now you have to listen to me. Let me give you some food to make you strong again, so you can go back home."

Then his 2 men said the same thing, "Boss, you have to eat some food." He listened to them and got up and sat on a chair.

<sup>24</sup> There was a fat young cow at that place. It belonged to the woman, and she quickly killed it. While the meat was cooking, she got some flour and cooked a flat damper. <sup>25</sup> She gave food to Saul and the other 2 men. After they ate it, they went back to their camp, while it was still dark.

(We have not yet translated chapters 29 and 30.)

Saul and his 3 sons died

<sup>1</sup> After that, the Philistia mob fought with the Israel mob. They fought on the hill called Gilboa. Lots of Israel soldiers died there, and the other soldiers got frightened and ran away. <sup>2</sup> The Philistia mob chased Saul and his sons, and they got closer and closer. Then they killed dead Saul's sons, Jonathan, Abinadab and Malkishua. <sup>3</sup> The soldiers that were close to Saul fought hard. The Philistia mob shot Saul lots of times with bows and arrows, and they hurt him very badly. <sup>4</sup> Saul talked to one of the soldiers there, the one that carried his shield for him. He said, "Get your long knife and stab me. I don't want that mob to kill me dead. They don't know God. They might make fun of me as they kill me."

The soldier was frightened and did not want to stab him. So Saul got the knife and stabbed himself in his belly and killed himself. <sup>5</sup> Then that soldier saw that his boss was dead, so he stabbed himself and died too. <sup>6</sup> That's how Saul died, and his sons, and the man that carried his shield, and his soldiers. They all died on that day.

<sup>7</sup> The people that saw what happened told this bad news to everybody along the Jezreel Valley and across the Jordan River. The Israel mob in all those places heard it, and they ran away frightened. They left their towns empty, and the Philistia mob went and lived in those towns.

<sup>8</sup> The next day, the Philistia mob went back up the hill at Gilboa to get stuff from the dead bodies. They saw the dead bodies of Saul and his 3 sons there. <sup>9</sup> They cut off Saul's head and took off his heavy iron plates. Then they sent messengers to every place in Philistia, to tell the story to the people and in the houses of their gods. <sup>10</sup> They put Saul's iron plates in one of those houses, the house of the female god called Astarti. At Beth-Shan they hung Saul's dead body on the wall that was around the town.

<sup>11</sup> The people from another place called Jabesh, in the Gilead country, they heard the bad news too. They remembered that Saul helped them before. They were very upset about the bad things the Philistia mob did to Saul. <sup>12</sup> So that night lots of brave men from Jabesh walked all night to Beth-Shan. They took down the bodies of Saul and his sons from the wall, and they carried them back to Jabesh. They burned the bodies <sup>13</sup> and buried the bones under the big tree there. For the next 7 days they ate no food. They just sat sadly together and felt sorry for Saul.*

The Story about the big boss called David (From the book in the Holy Bible called 2 Samuel) About this story

These stories are about things that happened about 3,000 years ago, in the country called Israel.

Somebody wrote these stories in a big book called Samuel with lots of other stories, but it was too big, so they split it into 2 books, called 1 Samuel, and 2 Samuel. They were in God's book, that the Jewish people had before Jesus came to this earth. They are now in the 1st part of the Holy Bible, called the Old Testament.

We have not yet translated all of the stories from 2 Samuel.

The stories in this book are mostly about God's man called David. In 1 Samuel we can read that God picked David to be the big boss of his people, but David did not become the big boss straight away. Saul was the first big boss. After he died, David became the big boss, but it was not always easy for him. He often had problems.

These stories are important, and we can learn a lot from them. They help us know what God is like and what he planned for his people. They show us that God is always with his people, and that he helps them when they have problems.

David heard the bad news about Saul

At the same time, David and his men fought the Amalek mob at another place. After they beat the Amalek mob, David and his men went back to the place called Ziklag. <sup>2</sup> Then, 2 days later, a young man arrived at David's camp. He came from the place where Saul's mob had that big fight. Along the road he tore his clothes and put dirt on his head, to show that he had bad news. Then he came to David, got down on his knees with his face close to the ground, to show respect to him.

He answered, "I ran away from that hill called Gilboa, from that big fight."

He answered, "The Philistia mob killed dead lots of our soldiers, and our other soldiers ran away. Saul and his son Jonathan died too."

(We have not yet translated 1:5-10.)

<sup>11</sup> David and his mob were really sad for Saul and Jonathan. They tore their clothes to show they were upset. <sup>12</sup> They cried until the sun went down, and they didn't eat anything. Lots of God's people died, so they were sad for them too, their countrymen, the Israel mob.

(We have not yet translated 1:13-27.)

The Judah mob made David their boss

<sup>1</sup> After that, David asked God, "What do I do now? Maybe I have to go back and stay at some place in Judah country?"

God answered, "Yes, go."

David asked, "Which place?"

God said, "To the town called Hebron."

<sup>2</sup> So David went and lived in that place. His 2 wives went with him. Their names were Ahinoam, from Jezreel, and Abigail, from Carmel. Abigail was the widow of that mad old man, Nabal.* <sup>3</sup> David's workers also went back to Judah, and they took their children with them. Some went to Hebron. Other workers went to other places close by. <sup>4</sup> Then the Judah tribe came together at Hebron to make David their boss. They poured olive oil on his head. That was their way of showing everybody that he was their boss.*

The Israel mob made Ishbosheth their boss

<sup>8</sup> At that same time Abner got up. He was Ner's son, and he used to be the boss of Saul's soldiers. He got up and went to a man called Ishbosheth. He was one of Saul's sons. Abner took him to a place called Mahanayim, <sup>9</sup> and made him boss of all the other tribes of the Israel nation. So he was boss for the Gilead mob, and for the Asher mob, and for the Jezreel mob, and for the Ephraim mob, and for the Benjamin mob.

<sup>10</sup> Ishbosheth was 40 years old at the time he became boss over those Israel tribes, and he was their boss for 2 years. But the Judah tribe made David their boss. <sup>11</sup> David was boss for 7 years and 6 months in Hebron town.

(We have not yet translated 2:12-32. It is about a fight between David's mob and the mob that wanted Saul's son to be their boss.)

3

<sup>1</sup> Saul's mob and David's mob kept on fighting each other for a long time. More and more men joined David's mob, and only a few men stayed in Saul's mob.

(We have not yet translated 3:2—4:12.)

5

David became the boss of all the tribes in Israel

<sup>1</sup> At first David was boss only for the Judah tribe. But one day all the other Israel tribes came together at Hebron and said to David, "You are family for us." <sup>2</sup> While Saul was the big boss of all of us in Israel, you were boss of all the soldiers. At that time, God told you, "One day, you will be the big boss, and you will look after my people, the Israel mob, like a shepherd looks after his sheep."

<sup>3</sup> So the elders told that story to David in Hebron. Then he said, "Yes, I agree to be the big boss of everybody. I say that while God is listening." Then the elders poured olive oil on his head to show that he was the big boss for all the Israel mob.

<sup>4</sup> David was 30 years old when they picked him to be the big boss. And he was boss for a long time, for 40 years. <sup>5</sup> You see, David was boss for the Judah tribe first. That was for 7½ years, and he lived at that place called Hebron. After that, he became the big boss for the other Israel tribes too, and he lived in the city called Jerusalem.*

7

God told David, "Your family will be bosses for ever"

<sup>1</sup> After David became the big boss, God kept his enemies away from Israel. So he sat down happily in his big house in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> There was a man called Nathan. He told God's messages to people. One day, David said to him, "Listen, I live here in this big fancy house, but God's special box still lives in a tent. I want to build a proper house for that special box."

"David, you are my working man. Listen to me. I want you to leave it. Don't build a house for me. And don't build a house for that special box. <sup>6</sup> I led the Israel mob to walk away from Egypt and to come back to this country. All that time I didn't live in a house. Today I still don't live in a house. I still go from place to place, and I still live in a tent. <sup>7</sup> I picked bosses for the Israel mob, to look after them. I didn't say to any of those bosses, 'Build me a nice house.' I never said that.

<sup>8</sup> So, listen carefully to me. At first you just looked after sheep. Then I picked you to look after my mob, the Israel nation. I picked you to be the big boss for them. <sup>9</sup> I was always close to you whenever you did all kinds of important things. I helped you to hunt away the cheeky people that came here from other places. And now I will make you really important. Everybody in every place will hear about you and remember your name, and they will say you are great. <sup>10-11</sup> For a long time I picked judges and other bosses for my people, the Israel mob. Other mobs kept on giving them trouble, and they fought with the Israel mob. But from now on, I will look after my mob here in this country. This country belongs to Israel now. They can sit down here and live quietly, and not be frightened any more. Those other mobs will leave them alone.

Listen, I am telling you this, so you will know. I will make your family important. And I will keep on making your family important. <sup>12</sup> One day you will die, and then I will pick one of your sons to be the big boss, and I will make him strong. He will be a strong boss for his people for a long time.* <sup>13</sup> Nobody can stop him from being the big boss of this country. And then his son will be the big boss, and later his son's son will be the big boss. It will be like that for ever. The big boss will always be a son from your family. Your son is the right one to build a house for me, not you. <sup>14</sup> I will be like his father, and he will be like my son. If he does wrong, I will send somebody to punish him, the way men punish people. But I will keep on looking after him, and I will keep on teaching him, just like a father does.* <sup>15</sup> You see,

* 5:5 1 Kings 2:11; 1 Chronicles 3:4; 29:27

* 7:12 Psalm 89:3-4; 132:11; John 7:42; Acts 2:30

* 7:14 Psalm

89:26-27; 2 Corinthians 6:18; Hebrews 1:5

I loved Saul at first. But after a while I didn't love him any more. So I picked you to be the big boss instead of him. But I will treat you better than Saul. I will keep on loving your son always, for as long as he will be the big boss.<sup>16</sup> Your family line will stay for ever. One of them will always be the big boss.*

That's the story God told Nathan in a dream.<sup>17</sup> Then Nathan told David everything that God said.

(We have not yet translated 7:18—10:19.)

David stole another man's wife

<sup>1</sup> At that time, long ago, the big bosses of those nations used to wait for the end of the cold weather to finish every year; then they used to get their soldiers together, and the big bosses went with their soldiers to fight with other nations. That was their way.*

One year, at that time, David told his boss soldier Joab, "Gather the soldiers from Israel together. Go again to fight with the Ammon mob." So they went, and they met up with the soldiers from Ammon, and they beat them properly. Then they went to the town called Rabbah in Ammon country and stood in a circle around it. The Rabbah people couldn't get out of their town, because the Israel soldiers blocked the gates.

But David didn't go with his soldiers to that town. He stayed home, in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> One day, in the late afternoon, David woke up from a sleep, and he went up and stood on the flat roof of his house. As he looked down at the other houses, he saw a woman. She was having a bath, and she was very pretty.

The messenger came back and told him, "She is Bathsheba, Eliam's daughter. Her husband is Uriah, who belongs to the Heth mob."

<sup>4</sup> He was an Israel soldier, and he was fighting at Rabbah. So David sent messengers to get Bathsheba and bring her to him. You see, she just finished her washing ceremony, the one that women used to do to clean themselves every month. So Bathsheba did what David told her to do. She went to him, and he slept with her, as a man does with his wife. Then she went back to her home.

<sup>5</sup> Some weeks later, that woman knew that she was going to have a baby. So she sent a message to tell David, "I'm going to have your baby."

<sup>6</sup> David heard her message, and then he sent a message to the boss soldier Joab. He was with the army, fighting at Rabbah. David told him, "Send Uriah to me." So Joab sent Uriah back to Jerusalem.

<sup>7</sup> Uriah came, and David said, "Hello, Uriah. Tell me, how's Joab? Is he all right? Are the soldiers from Israel all right? Are they fighting hard with the Ammon mob?"

Uriah answered his questions.<sup>8</sup> Then David said to him, "You can go home to your wife. Have a wash and a rest. Go back to Joab tomorrow." You see, David wanted people to think that the baby was Uriah's. As Uriah left the big house, David sent a working man with some fresh meat for Uriah and his wife to eat.<sup>9</sup> But Uriah didn't go back to sleep at his own house. He went and slept outside, where David's working men used to sleep.

David said, "Go and get him."

Uriah came, and David asked him, "Why didn't you go home and have a rest? You need a break from the fighting."

<sup>11</sup> He answered, "I can't go back to my house. There are big mobs of our soldiers still over there, fighting the Ammon mob. The big boss soldier Joab, and the other boss soldiers, and all the other soldiers from Judah and from all of Israel, they are all camped out in the dry country. God's special box is there too. I can't go back to my house. I can't go and eat meat and drink wine. I can't go back and sleep with my wife. I'm telling you straight, with God listening, I can't do that."

So Uriah stayed 2 nights in Jerusalem.<sup>13</sup> David gave him lots of food and wine to make him confused. He kept on saying, "Drink some more of this." So Uriah got properly drunk.

But still he didn't go home to his wife. He went and slept outside with the working men, like before.

<sup>14</sup> The next morning, David heard the same story. So he wrote a letter to Joab. He gave it to Uriah, and he said, "Give this letter to your boss, Joab." So Uriah took the paper with him, but he didn't know what it said.<sup>15</sup> That message said this, "Send Uriah to the really hard fighting, close to the Ammon mob. Tell the other soldiers to stand back away from him and leave him alone. Then the enemy will kill him dead.”

<sup>16</sup> You see, the Israel soldiers were still at that same place, there at Rabbah. They still stood in a circle around the town. Joab knew that the best Ammon soldiers were in one place, so he sent Uriah and some other soldiers there, to shoot arrows at them from close to the wall of the town. <sup>17</sup> But those Ammon soldiers suddenly came out from behind the wall and killed dead some Israel soldiers. And they killed Uriah dead too.

<sup>18</sup> Joab sent a messenger to tell David about the fighting at Rabbah. <sup>19</sup> He told the messenger, “After you tell the big boss all about the fighting, <sup>20</sup> he might think that those soldiers died for nothing. He might get angry. He might ask you, ‘Why did you mob go close to the wall? You knew the Ammon mob will shoot arrows at you from the wall. <sup>21</sup> Maybe you forgot that story about Abimelek, Gideon’s son. One time he fought against the people of the town called Thebez. A woman threw a big stone from the top of the wall, and it hit him, and he died. So why did you mob get so close to that wall?’ If the big boss asks you that, you can tell him this, ‘Uriah died too.’”*

<sup>25</sup> David heard it and said, “Go back and say this to Joab, ‘Don’t be upset about this. Fighting a war is like that. Some die, some stay alive. Keep going. Keep attacking the town. Knock all the houses down.’ Tell Joab that message, so he will not get upset.”

<sup>26</sup> Uriah’s wife, Bathsheba, heard the bad news that her husband was dead, and she cried for him. <sup>27</sup> She cried for him for 7 days, as that Israel mob used to do. After she finished crying for him, David sent a messenger to bring her to his house, and David married her. Later she had a little boy.

But God saw everything. He was not happy about what David did.

12

Nathan told David he did a bad thing

<sup>1</sup> God talked to Nathan, the man that told God’s message to people. God said, “Go to David and tell him this story, <sup>2</sup> men lived in the same town. One was very rich and had all kinds of things. But the other one was very poor. He had nothing.* <sup>2</sup> The rich man had big mobs of sheep, goats, cows and bulls, <sup>3</sup> but the poor man had only one little girl sheep. He paid money for it. He grew it up in his own house, just like one of his kids. It ate food from his plate and drank water from his cup. It slept on his lap like it was his own kid.

<sup>4</sup> One day, a friend of the rich man came from another place, and he stayed at the rich man’s house. The rich man wanted to cook meat for his friend, but he didn’t want to kill one of his own animals. He took the little sheep from the poor man instead, and he killed it and cooked its meat for his friend.’” That’s the story Nathan told to David.

<sup>5</sup> David heard that story and got wild with that rich man. He said to Nathan, “I’m telling you straight, and God hears us. That rich man did wrong. Somebody has to punish him. He has to die. <sup>6</sup> He had no shame, and he did not care about the poor man. He has to give that poor man 4 little sheep, to pay for the one he took.”

<sup>7</sup> Nathan said to David, “You are that rich man. This is a picture story from God, and it is about you. You took Uriah’s wife, just like that rich man took the poor man’s little sheep. You know that God picked you to be the big boss for the Israel mob. When Saul tried to kill you, God looked after you and saved you. <sup>8</sup> Then he made you the big boss, instead of Saul. God made you the big boss of all the people of Judah and all Israel. And he gave you Saul’s wives too. Maybe you think all that is not enough. All right, God can give you more. <sup>9</sup> But you didn’t take notice of God’s word. You did something that is really wrong. God says it is really bad. You took Uriah’s wife, and you killed him. Yes, you sent Uriah into the middle of the fight. You knew that the Ammon mob would kill him. So really, you murdered him to get his wife for yourself.

<sup>10</sup> This bad thing you did will make big trouble for you and your family. You turned against me and didn’t listen to me. You took Uriah’s wife for yourself. So bad things will keep on happening to your family. People will kill lots of your family dead. That will go on for ever.

* 11:21 Judges 9:53 * 12:1 Psalm 51

<sup>11</sup> And now God has another story for you. One day, he will tell a man from your own family to give you big trouble. God will take away your wives and give them to that man. And that man will sleep with them as if they are his wives. Everybody will see him do that. <sup>12</sup> You did wrong in secret, but God will make sure everybody sees that man do wrong to you.”*

<sup>13</sup> David said to Nathan, “I’m sorry. I did wrong things. I did not listen to God.”*

Nathan said, “Yes, that’s true. But he will not do payback to you. He will let it go, he will not kill you dead. <sup>14</sup> But you did something very wrong against God, so your baby boy will die.”

David’s little boy died

<sup>15</sup> After Nathan went home, God made David and Bathsheba’s baby boy really sick. <sup>16</sup> So David prayed to God and asked him strongly to make the baby better. David didn’t eat any food, and he slept all night on the hard floor. He didn’t sleep on a soft bed. <sup>17</sup> Some of his important working men came to see him. They tried to make him get up. They tried to make him eat some food. But nothing. He did not want to eat anything with them.

<sup>18</sup> After 7 days the baby died. David’s working men were afraid to tell him the bad news. They said to each other, “While the baby was alive, we tried to talk to him, but he didn’t listen to us. We can’t tell him this bad news, or he might hurt himself.”

<sup>19</sup> But David saw that his working men talked quietly to each other like that. He worked out that the baby died. So he asked them, “Is the baby dead?”

They answered, “Yes.”

<sup>20</sup> Then David got up from the floor and washed himself, and he rubbed himself with perfume. Then he put on some clean clothes. He went into God’s ceremony house and got down on his knees to show respect to God, and to pray. Then he went back to his own house and told his working men to bring him some food to eat.

<sup>21</sup> His working men were confused. They said, “What’s going on? While the baby was alive, you lay on the floor. You cried, and you ate nothing. But after he died, you got up and ate. We don’t understand. Why didn’t you cry after he died?”

<sup>22</sup> He answered, “While the baby was alive, I lay on the floor. I cried, and I ate nothing. I thought, ‘Maybe God will be sorry for me. Maybe he will make the baby better again.’ <sup>23</sup> But now he is dead. Even if I don’t eat food now, I can’t make him alive again. I know that one day I will die too, and I will go to the place where he is. But he can’t come back here to me now.”

<sup>24</sup> David talked gently to his wife, Bathsheba, to make her feel better. And he slept with her, as a man sleeps with his wife. And she had another baby boy, and David named him Solomon. God loved that little boy very much. <sup>25</sup> So he told Nathan, “Go and tell them to name him Jedidiah.” That name means God loves him very much. That is why God gave him that name.

(We have not yet translated 12:26—14:33.)

15

Absalom wanted to be the big boss instead of his father

<sup>1</sup> David had a grown up son. His name was Absalom. Some time after Solomon was born, Absalom reckoned that he had to be the big boss, instead of his father. So he got a special trailer and some horses to pull it, and he sat in that trailer and went around in it. Whenever he went in that trailer, he told 50 men to run along in front of it, so that he looked important. <sup>2</sup> And he used to get up early to go and stand at the town gate. People used to walk through that gate into Jerusalem whenever they went to see the big boss. You see, they used to go and ask David to help them sort out their problems. Absalom used to call out to them, “Hey, where are you from?” That person used to tell him the name of his tribe.

<sup>3</sup> Then Absalom used to lie to them and say, “Listen to me. You are right. That other person did wrong to you. My father is the big boss, but he is too busy to listen to everybody. He doesn’t have working men to sort out all your problems. <sup>4</sup> I should be the judge in this country. I am fair to everybody. I will treat everybody the same way. If somebody comes to me with a problem, I will sort it out for them.” That’s what Absalom used to say to the people.

<sup>7-8</sup> Absalom did that for 4 years. Then he said to his father, the big boss, "Old man, while I was living at the place called Geshur in Aram country, I said to God, 'If you will let me go to Jerusalem first, I will go to Hebron later. I will get down on my knees and show respect to you there.' God heard me say that. So is it all right for me to go to Hebron now?" But he was lying to his father.

<sup>10</sup> But he sent messengers to go secretly all around their country, to tell all the Israel mob like this, "As soon as you hear the trumpets play out loud, you mob have to call out, 'Absalom is our big boss. They have picked him to be the big boss in Hebron.'"

<sup>11-12</sup> And he told 200 men to go with him to Hebron, to kill animals there and burn them for God. But they didn't know that Absalom planned to make himself the big boss there. At the same time, he sent a messenger to an old man called Ahithofel, from a place called Giloh, to tell him to come. He was a wise man, and he used to help David.

And so Absalom tricked lots of people and made them turn away from David. More and more people started to follow Absalom.

David ran away

<sup>13</sup> After that, a messenger came to David and said, "The Israel mob are following Absalom now, they are not following you."

<sup>14</sup> David got a shock. So he talked to all his workers that were with him in Jerusalem city. He said, "Quick. We have to run away from this city, or they will catch us. If we don't hurry, Absalom's mob will attack this city and kill everybody."

<sup>32</sup> David and his mob, they went to the top of the hill called Olive Trees Hill. People used to show respect to God at that place. A man called Hushai was there to join up with David's mob. He was from the Arek mob, and he worked for David. You see, he heard about Absalom's plan to attack Jerusalem, and he was sad for his boss. He even tore his clothes and put dirt on his head, to show he was sad. <sup>33</sup> But David said to him, "Don't come with me.

You might slow me down. <sup>34</sup> I want you to do something different for me. Go back to Jerusalem and say you want to work for my son, Absalom. Lie to him and say, 'Boss. I want to work for you now. I used to work for your father, but now I want to work only for you.' If you do that, it will really help me. If that old man Ahithofel tells my son something, you can tell him a different story and confuse him."

Shimney swore at David

<sup>5</sup> David and his mob came close to a town called Bahurim. A man called Shimney came out to meet them. He was one of Saul's relatives, and his father's name was Gera. He started to swear at David and talk curses. <sup>6</sup> And he threw stones at them. David's soldiers and guards were standing with David, but Shimney kept on throwing stones at all of them. <sup>7</sup> And he cursed David like this, "You are a no good trouble maker. You are a cheeky one, a murderer. You are boss for nothing. Go away. <sup>8</sup> You killed lots of Saul's family dead, so God is making trouble for you right now. You made yourself the big boss instead of him. So God picked your son Absalom now to be the big boss instead of you. You are a murderer. Now you are in trouble yourself, and it is your own fault."

<sup>9</sup> One of David's boss soldiers was Abishai. He was the son of Zeruiah, David's sister. He said, "Boss. That man is no good. He can't swear at you like that. Let me cut off his head."

<sup>10</sup> David said to Abishai, and to Abishai's brother Joab, "Don't do it. It's got nothing to do with you 2. Maybe God himself told him, 'Go and swear at David.' If God told him to do that, nobody can stop him."

The Absalom mob arrived in Jerusalem

<sup>15</sup> On that same day, David's son, Absalom, came to Jerusalem with a lot of Israel soldiers. Ahithofel, that wise old man, he was with him too. <sup>16</sup> Then David's friend, Hushai, went to meet Absalom. He called out, "Boss Absalom, you are great. You have to be the big boss for ever." But he told a lie. He was still working for David.

<sup>18</sup> But Hushai lied again and said, "I can't follow him any more. You are the big boss now. God and the Israel mob, they have picked you to be the big boss. I belong to you. <sup>19</sup> This is the best way for me now. I will work for you, just like I worked for your father." And Absalom believed him.

<sup>21</sup> He answered, "10 of your father's wives stayed behind to look after the house. You have to sleep with them, as if you are married to them. If you do that, you will make your father ashamed, and he will hate you properly. Then everybody will know that you are the big boss in his house now. Everybody will hear that you were really brave, and that you did it in the open. Then they will follow you." <sup>22</sup> So the workers put up a tent on the flat roof of David's big house. Absalom went into the tent and slept with his father's wives one by one, just like he was married to them. And a lot of people saw him do that, and all the Israel mob heard about it.*

<sup>23</sup> So Absalom took notice of that wise man's story, just like his father used to take notice of him. They both thought that he talked straight, just like God does. So they always listened to him carefully.

17

<sup>1</sup> That wise man, Ahithofel, said to David's son Absalom, "Let me pick 12,000 soldiers. We will chase your father tonight. <sup>2</sup> Right now he's upset and tired. We will suddenly come and attack his mob, and they will get a shock. All his mob will run away. He's the only one I will kill dead. <sup>3</sup> I will gather all the other men together and bring them back here to you. They will see that their boss is dead, and then you will be their boss. We will not hurt any of them. They will all be safe."

Hushai tricked Absalom

<sup>5</sup> Then Absalom said, "All right, what about that man Hushai, from the Arek mob? Tell him to come here. We will listen to him too."

<sup>6</sup> Hushai came, and Absalom told him the things Ahithofel said. Then he asked Hushai, "So what do you think? Can we listen to his plan? Or maybe not? What do you reckon?"

knows what he is doing too. He always sleeps a long way from the soldiers, so he will stay safe. <sup>9</sup> Maybe he will go and hide in a cave in the hills. Nobody can find him there. But then he and his soldiers might suddenly come and attack your mob of soldiers. Lots of your men might die. Everybody will hear about it and think, 'Hey, look out. David's mob finished up Absalom's mob.' <sup>10</sup> Everybody knows that David and his men are brave and strong. If your other soldiers think he beat our mob, they will be afraid. Even the brave ones will be afraid.

<sup>11</sup> No, this is what I reckon. We have to gather more soldiers together from all over this country, Israel. Gather lots of them together, too many to count. You are their big boss, so you have to lead them yourself. <sup>12</sup> Your father can't hide from us. We will find him, and we will quickly go all around him, and then we will attack him. He and all his men will die. <sup>13</sup> If he is hiding in a town, all the Israel mob will break the wall and the houses of that town. We will get ropes, and we will drag their stones away. There will not even be a small stone left. We will do that until we find him."

<sup>14</sup> Absalom and the elders of Israel heard what Hushai said, and they reckoned, "Hushai from the Arek mob has a good idea. It is better than the other plan of that wise man Ahithofel." You see, God himself made them think like that. He wanted them to follow Hushai's plan, and so make big trouble for Absalom. God confused them, so they did not like Ahithofel's good plan.

David's mob beat Absalom's mob

<sup>1-2</sup> David gathered his soldiers together, and he split them into 3 big groups. He picked a boss soldier to lead each group. They were Joab, and his brother Abishai, and Ittai, a man that used to live in a town called Gath. David told each big group to split into mobs with 1,000 men in each. And he picked one boss soldier for each mob of 1,000 soldiers. Then he told each of those mobs to do it again. This time each of them split into little groups with 100 men in each. David picked a boss soldier for each group of 100 soldiers.

Then David said to everybody, "Let's go and fight Absalom's mob. I will go with you mob."

<sup>3</sup> But the soldiers said to him, "No way. You can't come with us. You are the boss man, but we are just nothing. You are the one they want to kill. If we soldiers all run away, they will not chase us. If we all die, they will not care. They will say, 'All right, leave them.' But if you die, they will be really happy. So it's good for you to stay here in this town. If the fighting gets hard for us, then you can send more soldiers to help us."

<sup>4-5</sup> David said, "All right, I will listen to what you mob say." And he called out loud to the 3 boss soldiers, so everybody could hear. He said, "Joab. Abishai. Ittai. Don't hurt that young man, Absalom. Don't forget, he's my son."

And he stood at the gate and watched the soldiers as they left that town.

<sup>6</sup> David's mob went away from the town, and they met the Israel mob in the bush at a place called Ephraim. <sup>7-8</sup> They chased each other in the bush, and they attacked each other with spears and bows and arrows. David's mob beat Absalom's mob and killed lots of them dead. But even more soldiers died from things in the bush. 20,000 men died on that day.

<sup>11</sup> Joab said, "What? You really saw him like that? Why didn't you kill him dead straight away? I will give lots of money and a boss soldier's belt to a man that does something like that."

<sup>12</sup> But the man said, "I can't do that. Yes, I might get lots of money, but I can't kill our big boss's son. No way. We all heard him tell you 3 boss soldiers, 'Keep that young man, Absalom, safe. Don't forget, he's my son.' <sup>13</sup> If I kill him, his father will hear about it straight away. He knows everything, and he will kill me dead too. And I reckon you might not help me either. You might say to him, 'It's nothing to do with me.'"

<sup>14</sup> Joab was angry, and he said, "I can't wait for you all day." And he got 3 spears and went to Absalom. He was still alive and hanging there in that tree.

Joab went and stabbed him 3 times in the chest. <sup>15</sup> 10 men went with Joab, and they finished Absalom properly.

<sup>16</sup> Straight away, Joab blew the trumpet, to tell David's mob to stop chasing the Israel mob. <sup>17</sup> They got Absalom and threw him into a deep hole in the middle of the bush. Then they covered his body with lots of stones.

At the same time, the Israel mob ran away and went back to their homes.

(We have not yet translated 18:18-31a. It tells how a messenger ran back to tell David the news.)

The messenger answered, "Those trouble makers, your enemies, I hope they all finish up, just like that young man finished up."

<sup>33</sup> David got very upset. He went inside and cried. As he went in, he called out, "Absalom. My son Absalom. I want to be dead instead of you. You were my son."

David's mob fought with the Philistia mob again

<sup>15</sup> Some time later, the Israel mob went to fight with the Philistia mob again. David also went with his soldiers, to fight along with them. But soon, he got very tired. <sup>16</sup> Then a really big Philistia man came close to David. His name was Ishbibenob. He belonged to Rafa's family. Everybody in that family was really big and strong. His spear had a sharp point. It was heavy,  $3\frac{1}{2}$  kilograms, and he had a new long knife. He reckoned he was going to kill David dead. <sup>17</sup> But one of David's boss soldiers came to save him from that big man. He attacked the big man and killed him dead. That brave man was Abishai, the son of David's sister called Zeruiah.\*

After that, David's men made a promise to him. They said, "We will never let you come with us again to fight. They might kill you dead. You are like the lamp in God's ceremony house. Nobody puts out its fire. You see, your life is like that. We don't want anybody to kill you and finish up Israel's lamp."

(We have not yet translated 21:18—24:25. It is about some of the other things that David did before he died. The last bit of this story is from another book called the 1st book of the Big Bosses. We call that book 1 Kings, and these verses are from 1 Kings 2:10-12.)

David died when he was an old man. They buried him in the city called Jerusalem, in that part of the city they call the city of David. David was the big boss of Israel for 40 years. First he was the boss in the town called Hebron for 7 years, then he was the boss in Jerusalem for 33 years. Then David's son Solomon became the big boss. He took over from his father and controlled the whole country.

23

God looks after me properly
One of David's psalms

<sup>1</sup> God looks after me properly, so that I never go short of anything that I need. You know about people that properly look after sheep all the time, called shepherds. Well, God looks after me like that. He is a good shepherd for me.

<sup>2</sup> God gives me a good place to rest, just like a shepherd finds a good place for his sheep to rest, a place where there is green grass for them to eat and clean water for them to drink. <sup>3</sup> When I get tired, God makes me feel good and strong again.

He leads me on the right track, so that people will know that he is good.

<sup>4</sup> You know, God is with me when I have trouble too. Sometimes I have a lot of trouble and I feel like I am walking in a really dark valley, and something might kill me, but even then, God is with me. I will not be frightened at that time. I know that God is stopping my enemies from hurting me, just like a shepherd uses his stick and stops wild dogs from hurting his sheep. When I remember that he does that, I feel safe.

<sup>5</sup> God does good things for me even when people are giving me trouble, and he makes my enemies watch him do those good things. It is like I am a visitor at his house, and he cooks a big dinner for me, and I sit down and eat it. And he makes my enemies watch me eat it.

It is like he fills my cup with good drink, right to the top. And it is like he shows everyone that I am his friend by putting olive oil on my head.

<sup>6</sup> I am sure that God will always love me and be good to me all of my life.

And I will always be in God's house, and I will respect him properly, for ever.

46

God will help us

One of the songs of the Korah mob, for the leader of music at God's ceremony house.

<sup>1</sup> God is strong, and he is always ready to help us when we get trouble. He is like a safe place for us to hide. Whenever we get trouble, he is the one that can help us.

<sup>2</sup> So we will never get frightened. Even if there is a big earthquake, and the mountains start to break up and fall into the sea, even then we will not be frightened.

<sup>3</sup> Even if the waves in the sea get really big and loud, and if the mountains shake, even then we will not be frightened.

<sup>4</sup> There is a river in God's city, and it makes the people there happy. That place is God's home. He is the greatest one of all.

<sup>5</sup> God lives in that city. Nothing can ever knock it down. God will stop anybody from hurting the people in that city. He will look after them all the time, right from the start of every day.

<sup>6</sup> You see, God is powerful, and he frightens the nations that don't follow him. So they go wild and don't think properly, and they get weak and useless. It's like God just yells at those people and they finish up, like ice that melts in the hot sun.

<sup>7</sup> God is the boss of everything, and he is with us and helps us.

He is the God of us Israel people, and he will stop anyone from hurting us.

<sup>8</sup> Come and look at what God does. He does things on the earth that will shock you.

<sup>9</sup> He stops wars all over the world. It's like he breaks all the things that people use to fight with, like their spears and bows, and it's like he burns all the shields with fire.

<sup>10</sup> God says, "Stop, you mob. Keep still, and think, and you will know that I am the only one that really is God.

The people in every nation will respect me.

People all over the world will respect me."

<sup>11</sup> God is the boss of everything, and he is with us and helps us.

He is the God of us Israel people, and he will stop anyone from hurting us.

121

God is the one that helps us

A song for people to sing as they walk up to God's house to show him respect

<sup>1</sup> I look up at all the hills, and I ask myself, "Who is the one that helps me?"

<sup>2</sup> Then I say, "God is the one that helps me. He is the one that made the earth and the sky."

<sup>3</sup> He will always look after you so that you don't get trouble. He is watching you all the time, to keep you safe. He never stops watching to go to sleep.

<sup>5</sup> God is the one that looks after you properly. When the sun is really hot, you know how good it is to rest under a shady tree. Well, when life gets tough for you, God will be close to you and help you, like he is a shady tree for you.

<sup>6-7</sup> Yes, God will always look after you, in the day-time and in the night-time. He will always keep you safe. He will stop anything from hurting you. Not even the hot sun or the moon will hurt you. He will not let anything finish you.

<sup>8</sup> Whenever you go anywhere, God will go with you all the way, and he will keep you safe. He will do that now, and he will keep doing that all the time, for ever.

Good words and stories
(From the book in the Holy Bible called Proverbs)

3

- <sup>5</sup> You have to trust in God properly, you have to only trust in him.
Don't trust the things you know, you don't know everything.
- <sup>6</sup> Always think about God in everything that you do.
If you do that, he will show you the right way to live.

Some important parts of the good news about Jesus that Matthew wrote (From the book in the Holy Bible called Matthew) About this book

The Holy Bible has 4 books about the things that Jesus did, and the messages he told to people when he was here on the earth, about 2,000 years ago. Those books are in the 2nd part of the Holy Bible, called the New Testament. The men that wrote them were Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. They wrote their books after Jesus went back to heaven. Most of the things in their books happened in the country we now call Israel.

In each of those 4 books we can read about some of the things that Jesus did and said. This Bible has everything that Mark and John wrote about Jesus in their books, but we have not yet translated everything that Matthew and Luke wrote. We have only translated the stories and messages that Mark and John didn't write about, but that Matthew and Luke did write about.

This book has those stories and messages that Matthew wrote. They are important for us today because they tell us about the good things that Jesus did, and they tell us God's messages that Jesus taught to people.

Matthew had another name. He was sometimes called Levi. At first, he was a tax man. He took money from the Jewish people and gave it to the Roman government. But one day, Jesus told him, "Follow me," and Matthew left his money job and followed Jesus (see Mark 2:13-14). Later, Jesus picked Matthew to be one of his 12 special workers (see Mark 3:13-19). Those 12 men went everywhere with Jesus. So Matthew saw and heard most of the things that he wrote about in this book.

The family line of Jesus

<sup>1</sup> A long time ago, God promised to send somebody to save us. Jesus is that person. These names are the fathers and grandfathers of Jesus, that lived a long time before he was born. This list shows that Jesus was from the family of David. David was the big boss over the Israel people. It also shows that David was from the family of Abraham.

Isaac was the father of Jacob.
Jacob was the father of Judah and his brothers.

Perez was the father of Hezron.

Hezron was the father of Ram.

<sup>4</sup> Ram was the father of Amminadab.

Amminadab was the father of Nahshon.

Nahshon was the father of Salmon.

Boaz was the father of Obed. His mother's name was Ruth.

Obed was the father of Jesse.

<sup>6</sup> Jesse was the father of David. He was the big boss over all that mob, the Israel nation.

So in that family there were 14 fathers from Abraham to David.

David was the father of Solomon. At first Solomon's mother was the wife of another man called Uriah.

Riaboam was the father of Abijah.

Abijah was the father of Asa.

<sup>8</sup> Asa was the father of Jehoshafat.

Jehoshafat was the father of Jehoram.

Jehoram was the father of Uzziah.

Jotham was the father of Ahaz.

Ahaz was the father of Hezekiah.

<sup>10</sup> Hezekiah was the father of Manasseh.

Manasseh was the father of Amon.

Amon was the father of Josiah.

<sup>11</sup> Josiah was the father of Jeconiah and his brothers. At that time, the soldiers from Babylon came and fought the Jewish people. The Babylon mob won, and they took the Jewish people as prisoners to their country.*

So in that family there were 14 fathers from David until the time they all had to go to Babylon.

Shiyaltiel was the father of Zerubbabel.

<sup>13</sup> Zerubbabel was the father of Abihud.

Abihud was the father of Eliakim.

Eliakim was the father of Azor.

<sup>14</sup> Azor was the father of Zadok.

Zadok was the father of Akim.

Akim was the father of Eliud.

<sup>15</sup> Eliud was the father of Eleazar.

Eleazar was the father of Matthan.

Matthan was the father of Jacob.

was the mother of Jesus. Jesus is the Christ, the man that God promised to send to save us.

<sup>17</sup> So in that family there were 14 fathers from Abraham to David, and there were 14 fathers from David until the time they all had to go to Babylon, and there were 14 fathers from that Babylon time until the time God sent Jesus to the world.

Joseph had a dream

<sup>18</sup> This is the story about how Jesus was born. He is the man that God talked about a long time ago. God promised to send him to us.*

Mary was promised to a man called Joseph, but they hadn't slept together yet, like married people do. Then the Holy Spirit made a baby grow inside Mary. <sup>19</sup> Joseph found out that Mary was going to have a baby, and he was not happy. He knew that the baby wasn't his, so he wanted to leave Mary. But he was a good man, and he didn't want to shame her. So he thought, "I will just leave her quietly, without any argument."

<sup>20</sup> While Joseph thought about that, he went to sleep and had a dream. He saw an angel messenger from God. The angel said, "Joseph, you are from the family of David. Look, you can go ahead and marry Mary. Don't be too frightened to do that. You see, her baby is from the Holy Spirit, not from another man. <sup>21</sup> She will have a baby boy, and you will name him Jesus. (That name Jesus means God saves.) You see, he will save his people, so that God will not punish them for the bad things they do."*

<sup>23</sup> "There will be a young woman that has never slept with a man, like a woman does with her husband, but she will have a baby boy.

That boy will have a special name, Immanuel. That name means God is with us."*

<sup>24</sup> Joseph woke up and did what God's angel told him to do. He married Mary. <sup>25</sup> But he did not sleep with her, like a man does with his wife, until after her son was born. And he named the baby Jesus.*

2

<sup>1</sup> Jesus was born in Bethlehem, in Judea country. At that time, the big boss over that country was called Herod.

There were some wise men in a country to the east of Judea. They always looked at the stars, and one night they saw a special star in the sky. So they went west to Jerusalem, the city in Judea country. <sup>2</sup> They asked the Jerusalem people, "Where was that baby born that is going to be the big boss over you Jewish people? You see, back in our country, we saw his special star. We saw it come up into the sky, so we came here, to show our respect for him. Where will we find him?"

<sup>3</sup> Herod was the big boss over that country, and somebody told him that these wise men were talking about another big boss. Herod got very worried. He thought this other person might fight against him and take over his job. A lot of other people in Jerusalem were worried about it too. <sup>4</sup> So Herod had a meeting with the bosses of the Jewish ceremonies and the Jewish law teachers, and he asked them, "Where will that baby be born? You know, the Christ, the man that God promised to send?"

<sup>5</sup> They said, "He will be born in Bethlehem, in Judea country. You see, a long time ago, God told one of his men to write about it. He wrote this in God's book,

but it is a very important town, because a big boss will be born there. He will really look after God's people, the Israel nation.' ".*

That's what those Jewish leaders told Herod.

<sup>7</sup> So Herod sent for those wise men to come and meet him, but he didn't tell anyone else about the meeting. He asked them, "When did you first see that star?" <sup>8</sup> So they told him when they first saw it.

Then he said to them, "Go to Bethlehem and look carefully for that boy. After you find him, come and tell me the place where he's living, so that I can go there too and show respect to him."

<sup>9-10</sup> The wise men listened to Herod, then they started to go to Bethlehem. Then they saw that same star that they saw before, and they were very happy. That star moved through the sky, and they followed it until it stopped right above the house that Joseph and Mary were living in. <sup>11</sup> The wise men went into that house. They saw Jesus with his mother Mary, and they got down on their knees, to show him respect. Then they opened their bags and gave him some presents. They gave him some gold. And they gave him some powder called frankincense, to burn to make a good smell. And they gave him some rubbing medicine called myrrh, that smells good, like perfume.

<sup>12</sup> After that, the wise men had a dream. In that dream God told them not to go back to Herod, so they went back to their own country along a different road.

The big boss tried to kill Jesus

<sup>13</sup> After those wise men went away, Joseph had a dream. He heard God's angel messenger say, "Herod will try to kill the boy, so get up and take Jesus and Mary to Egypt country, and stay there until I tell you to come back." <sup>14</sup> So Joseph got up right then, in the middle of the night, and he got Mary and Jesus, and they left to go to Egypt. <sup>15</sup> They lived in Egypt until Herod died, and then they came out of Egypt and went back to Israel country. So it happened just like God told one of his men to write in God's book, a long time ago. He wrote,

"God called his son to come out of Egypt."*

<sup>16</sup> At the time when Joseph, Mary and Jesus were going to Egypt, Herod waited for those wise men to come back, but they tricked him. They didn't come back to him. Then he got really angry. He remembered their story about when they first saw the star, so he sent his soldiers to Bethlehem, and he told them to kill all the little boys up to 2 years old. So they killed all the little boys around Bethlehem. Herod wanted to make sure that Jesus was dead.

They are the grand-daughters of Rachel.

They are crying for their babies.

Nobody can cheer them up,

<sup>19</sup> Some time later, Herod died. Then, in Egypt, Joseph had another dream. He heard God's angel messenger say, <sup>20</sup> "Get up and take Mary and Jesus back to Israel country. The people that wanted to kill him are dead now."

<sup>21</sup> So Joseph did what God's angel messenger told him. He got up, and he got Mary and Jesus, and they started to go back to Israel country. <sup>22</sup> But then somebody told him that Herod's son Arkelayus was the new big boss over the part of Israel called Judea, and Joseph was too frightened to go there.

Then he had another dream. God told him, "Go to Galilee country." <sup>23</sup> So he took his family up north to Galilee. He got to the town called Nazareth, and he stayed there. A long time before that, one of God's men wrote about this, and it is in God's book. He wrote,

"People will say that God's special man is from Nazareth."*

And that happened after Joseph took his family to live at Nazareth.

3

John the Baptiser got the people ready

<sup>1</sup> Many years later, while Jesus was still in Nazareth, John the Baptiser started his work. He went to the bush in Judea country, and he started to tell everybody his message. <sup>2</sup> He said, "Listen. God is going to show everyone how they can be in his family. So you have to stop doing bad things. You have to turn around and live God's way."*

<sup>3</sup> John was the man that Isaiah wrote about, a long time ago. Isaiah was one of God's men, and God got him to write this in God's book,

"A man will be out in the bush, and he will call out to people.

He will say, 'You mob get ready.

God is coming to this country,

so you have to get ready for him.

It is like when a big boss comes, and you have to make a good road for him.'"

<sup>5</sup> A lot of people went out to see John, and to listen to him. They went out from Jerusalem city, and from all of Judea country, and from all the country around the Jordan River. <sup>6</sup> And, after those people said they were sorry for the bad things they did, John took them through a special washing ceremony, that is, he baptised them in the Jordan River.

<sup>7</sup> Some men came to that place to watch John baptise people. Some of them were from the Pharisee mob, that were strong for the Jewish law, and some of them were from the mob called Sadducees. John saw them and said, "You mob are bad, and you are tricky. You are just like a mob of cheeky snakes. Did somebody tell you that God is really angry with you, so you want to do something to stop him from punishing you?*" 8 If you really are sorry for the bad things you did, and if you are turning around properly to live God's way, show us. If we see you doing good things, then we will know it is true. 9 But don't just say to yourselves, 'We are in Abraham's family, so we'll be all right.' Listen, God can turn these stones here into Abraham's family.* 10 So you look out. God is going to punish you. He is like a man lifting up an axe to cut the roots of a tree. You are like trees that haven't got good fruit, so men chop them down and throw them into a fire. God will punish you like that. He will throw you into a fire."*

11 John kept on talking to the people. He said, "If you say you are sorry for the bad things you did, and if you turn to God, then I will baptise you with water. But somebody is coming soon, and he is more important than me. I'm not even good enough to carry his shoes. I'm just nothing. He will put the Holy Spirit in you, that is, he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit, and with fire. 12 You know the way a farmer gets all the seeds from the plants he grows. He hits the seed heads with a stick and throws them in the air, so that the seeds fall off the plants. Then he gathers all the seeds and puts them in his shed. But he burns all the rest. It is rubbish, and he burns it in a fire. Well, God is like that farmer. He's got that stick in his hand right now. If you turn around and live God's way, he will look after you. But if you don't, he will throw you in the fire that never goes out."

John baptised Jesus

13 At that time, Jesus left his home in Galilee country, and he went south to the Jordan River. Jesus wanted John to baptise him. 14 But John didn't agree with him. He said, "No. Don't come to me. I can't baptise you. You are better than me, so really, you have to baptise me."

15 But Jesus said, "We have to do it the way God wants. So now, while you are baptising people, you can baptise me too." Then John agreed with him.

16 So John baptised Jesus. And as Jesus came up out of the water, the sky opened up, and Jesus saw the spirit of God coming down like a pigeon, and landing on him. 17 And God talked from heaven. He said,

"This is my son. I love him very much, and I'm very happy with him."*

The devil tried to trick Jesus

1 Then the Holy Spirit led Jesus into the bush, and the devil, the boss over the bad spirits, tested him there, trying to trick him.* 2 Jesus was there for 40 days, and he didn't eat anything, so he got very hungry.

3 At that time the devil came to him and said, "If you are the son of God, tell these stones to turn into loaves of bread."

4 But Jesus told him, "No. I will not do that. You know what God says. These words are in his book, 'People don't live just by eating bread, but they live by every word that God says.'"*

5 Then the devil took Jesus to God's special city, called Jerusalem, and he took him up to the top of the big ceremony house there. 6 The devil said, "If you are the son of God, jump off. You know, these words are in God's book too, 'God will tell his angel messengers to look after you, and they will hold you up with their hands, so you will not even hurt your foot on a stone.'"*

7 Jesus said, "No. I will not do that. You see, God says this too. These words are in his book, 'Don't do something stupid just to test God.'"*

8 Then the devil took Jesus up to the top of a very high mountain. From there the devil showed him all the people of the world, in all their countries, with all their great things. 9 And the devil said, "If you will get down on your knees and show respect to me, then I will give you all of this, all of these people and all of these things."

10 Jesus said to the devil, "No. I will not do that either. Satan, you go away from me now. This is what God says in his book, 'You have to show respect to God. He is the only God, so just do what he says.'"*

11 Then the devil went away, and God's angel messengers came and took care of Jesus.

Jesus started his work

<sup>12</sup> After that, Jesus heard that some soldiers grabbed John and put him in jail. So Jesus left Judea country and went back to Galilee country.* <sup>13</sup> He went to the town called Nazareth, and then he left that town and went to live in the town called Capernium. It was beside the big lake called Lake Galilee. It was in the country where the Zebulun tribe and the Naphtali tribe used to live.* <sup>14</sup> All that happened just like God says in his book. Isaiah was a man that told everyone God's words, and a long time ago, he wrote this in God's book, <sup>15</sup> "It will happen in the country that belongs to the Zebulun tribe and the Naphtali tribe.

It is beside the sea, past the Jordan River, in Galilee country, where there are a lot of people that are not Jews.

It is like they are in the dark, but they will see a big bright light. They thought they were going to die, but a light will start to shine for them.*"

<sup>17</sup> Then Jesus started to tell everybody, "Listen. God is going to show everyone how they can be in his family. So you have to stop doing bad things. You have to turn around and live God's way.*"

The first followers of Jesus

<sup>18</sup> One day, Jesus walked along next to Lake Galilee, and he saw 2 men throwing a net into the water to catch fish. That was their job. One man was called Simon. He was also called Peter. And the other man was his brother Andrew.

<sup>19</sup> Jesus said, "I want you 2 to come and follow me. I want you to stop catching fish. I'll give you another job. You will catch people for me." <sup>20</sup> And straight away, they left their nets and followed him.

A lot of people followed Jesus

<sup>23</sup> After that, Jesus went through all of Galilee country. He taught people in the Jewish meeting houses, and he told them the good news about God's family. And he made a lot of sick people better. They had all sorts of sickness.* <sup>24</sup> Then people started to tell other people about Jesus, so that people as far away as Syria country heard about the things he did, and they all started to bring lots of sick people to Jesus. And Jesus made them all better, no matter what sort of sickness they had. Some of them used to fall down and shake a lot, and some of them couldn't move their arms or legs, and some of them had bad spirits in them. But Jesus made them all better.

<sup>25</sup> A big mob of people followed him everywhere he went. These people were from Galilee country, and from the country called Ten Towns, and from Jerusalem city, and from all over Judea country, and from the country east of the Jordan River.

If you do what God wants, you will be really happy later

<sup>1</sup> Jesus saw big mobs of people coming to him. So he went up a big hill, and he sat down there to teach them. His followers, the people that wanted to learn about God, they all went close to him, to listen to him. <sup>2</sup> Then he started to teach them.

<sup>3</sup> Jesus said, "Some people know that they need God very much. All right, God will take those people into his family, and they will be really happy.

<sup>4</sup> Some people are very sad now, and they cry, but God will make them feel better, and they will be really happy.*"

<sup>5</sup> Some people know that they are weak, and they don't try to be important. But later God will give them everything in the world, and they will be really happy.

<sup>6</sup> Some people really want to live the right way, and they want other people to live the right way too. They think about that more than anything else, like they are really hungry and thirsty for it to happen. All right, God will give them what they want, and they will be really happy.

<sup>7</sup> Some people feel sorry for other people, and they don't do payback for the bad things those other people did. All right, God will do the same. He will feel sorry for those people that feel sorry for other people. He will not do payback to them for the bad things they did, and they will be really happy.

* 4:13 John 2:12    * 4:16 Isaiah 9:1-2    * 4:17 Matthew 3:2    * 4:23 Matthew 9:35; Mark 1:39    * 5:4 Isaiah 61:2    * 5:8 Psalm 24:3-4 other. God will tell those people, 'You are my own kids.' And they will be really happy.

<sup>10</sup> Some people do what is right, but some other people don't like it, and they make trouble for those good people. But God takes those good people into his family, and they will be really happy.

<sup>11</sup> And you too. Some people will not like you following me, and they will say bad things about you, and they will make trouble for you. Sometimes people will tell lies about you. But don't worry. Be really happy when they do that.* <sup>12</sup> You see, if they do these bad things to you now, God will give you lots of good things later, in heaven. So you can be really happy, no matter what they do. Remember the stories from a long time ago, about the men that told everyone God's message. Some people did bad things to those men too.**

Christians are like salt

<sup>13</sup> Jesus said, "You people that follow me are like salt for everybody on the earth. You know, salt helps food taste good and stops it from rotting. Well, if you follow me properly, you will live in a way that helps people to be good. Yes, salt is good, but if it stops tasting like salt, then it is no good any more. Nobody can use it for anything. They chuck it away, and everyone walks on it. So don't be like that sort of salt. Don't stop following me."

Christians have to be like a light for people

<sup>14</sup> And Jesus said, "You people that follow me have to live the right way and show people the way to God. It is like you are a light for everybody in the world. You know, if people build houses up on a hill, then everyone can see them clearly. You are like those houses on a hill. Everyone can see you clearly. They can know if you are good, or if you are bad.* <sup>15</sup> Nobody ever lights a candle and then puts a bowl over it. No way. They put that candle up in a high place, so that its light shines out everywhere.* <sup>16</sup> You have to be like that candle. You have to let everyone see that you are following me. They will see all the good things you do, and they will say good things about God, your father in heaven. They will say, 'God is really great.'**

The law and the messages in God's book are really important

* 5:11 1 Peter 4:14 * 5:12 2 Chronicles 36:16; Acts 7:52 * 5:14 John 8:12; 9:5 * 5:15 Mark 4:21; Luke 8:16; 11:33 * 5:16 1 Peter 2:12 * 5:18 Luke 16:17 * 5:21 Exodus 20:13; Deuteronomy 5:17

<sup>17</sup> Jesus kept on teaching them. He said, "You know the law that Moses wrote. Well, I didn't come here to take away that law. And you know all the messages that God gave to his men, the messages that they wrote in his book for us. I didn't come here to take away those messages either. But I came here to show that the law and those messages are right, and to make those things happen, just like those men wrote. <sup>18</sup> Listen. God's book is really important. Everything in it will happen. You know, the earth and sky are always here. They don't change. Well, just like that, God's word and his laws will not change, not even a little bit. They will stay the same until everything in God's book happens.* <sup>19</sup> So if you think to yourself, 'I can break just one little rule,' and if you teach other people to think like that too, then later on, in God's family in heaven, nobody will respect you. They will say, 'You are no good.' But if you don't break any of God's rules, and if you teach other people to follow them too, then later on, in God's family in heaven, everyone will respect you. And they will say, 'You are really good.' <sup>20</sup> I'm telling you this, if you don't do everything that God says, then you can't come into his family. You know that mob called Pharisees. They are really strong for our Jewish law. And you know the mob that teach our Jewish law. Well, you have to follow God's law better than all of that Pharisee mob and that law teacher mob."

Don't get angry

<sup>21</sup> Jesus said, "You know, the teachers of God's law tell you what God told the people, a long time ago. They say, 'Don't murder anybody. If you murder somebody, then you have to go to court, and the judge will punish you.*' <sup>22</sup> But now I'm telling you this. Don't even get angry with anybody. That is bad too. If you are angry with somebody, God will be your judge, and he will punish you. Or if you call somebody bad names, you will end up in God's court. And if you get really angry with somebody, and if you tell them, 'You are a stupid fool,' God will judge you for that, and he can send you into the big fire called hell."

Fix up problems with other people

<sup>23</sup> Jesus said to the people, "Suppose you go to give a gift to God, and you take it to God's ceremony house, but then you remember that somebody is upset with you about something. <sup>24</sup> You have to leave your gift there at God's house, and you have to go and find that other person straight away. You have to tell them that you are sorry, and you have to fix up that problem with them, so that you can both be friends again. After that, you can go back and give your gift to God.

<sup>25</sup> If somebody blames you and says that you have done something wrong, and if they start to take you to court about it, then you have to talk to that person straight away, and fix up that problem. Both of you have to agree about what is right. Do that even while you are going along the road to the court. If you don't do that, then that person will blame you in the court, and the judge might agree with them and tell the police to grab you and put you in jail. <sup>26</sup> And you will stay in jail until you give that other person all the money that you owe them. That's for sure."

Don't even think about doing bad things

<sup>27</sup> Jesus said, "You know, the teachers of God's law tell you this, 'Don't sleep with a woman that is not your wife, as if you are married to her.*' <sup>28</sup> But now I'm telling you this. If you look at a woman that is not your wife, and you think about sleeping with her, that is bad too. If you think about doing that, you are going wrong. Thinking about it is just as bad as doing it. <sup>29</sup> You see, if things in your life push you to go wrong, then you have to get rid of them, even if it is hard to do. Be careful about how you use your eyes. If you see something that gets you to go wrong, then stop looking. That might be hard to do, like you are pulling out your eye and throwing it away. But it is better to lose one eye here on the earth now, than to keep 2 eyes and go to the bad place called hell.* <sup>30</sup> And think about how you use your hand. If you do something with your hand that gets you to go wrong, then pull your hand away. That might be hard to do, like you are cutting off your hand and throwing it away. But it is better to lose one hand here on the earth now, than to keep 2 hands and go to hell.*"

Husbands and wives have to stay together

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus said, "And God's law says, 'If a man wants to leave his wife, then he can write a divorce letter and give it to her. Then they aren't married any more.*"

<sup>32</sup> But now I'm telling you this, husbands and wives have to stay married to each other. Only if a man's wife sleeps with another man, as if he is her husband, only then can her husband divorce her. But if a wife never does that, then her husband can't divorce her. If he divorces her, he is forcing her to marry another man and sleep with him, and that is wrong. And the man that marries her is doing wrong too.*"

Don't use God's name to get people to believe you

<sup>33</sup> Jesus said to the people, "You know, sometimes people promise something to somebody, and to get people to believe them, they say, 'by God'. That shows that they want God to punish them if they don't do it. And the law teachers tell you that God said, 'If you say, "by God", then you have to do what you promised.*"

<sup>34</sup> But now I'm telling you this. If you promise something, don't say, 'by God', to get people to believe you. And don't say, 'by heaven', when you promise something. God is the boss in heaven, so that is just like saying, 'by God'.* <sup>35</sup> And don't say, 'by the earth', when you promise something. God controls the earth too. And don't say, 'by Jerusalem', when you promise something. Jerusalem is God's special city. He is the big boss there.* <sup>36</sup> And don't say, 'by my head', when you promise something. You can't change the colour of even one hair on your head, to turn it black or turn it white. <sup>37</sup> Look, just say what is properly true. When yes is the true answer, just say, 'Yes.' And when no is the true answer, just say, 'No.' The devil, the boss over the bad spirits, he tries to get you to say more than that, but don't do it. Don't say anything more to try to get people to believe you."

<sup>38</sup> Jesus kept on talking to them. He said, "You know, the teachers of God's law tell you this, 'If somebody hits your eye and blinds it, then this is the payback, you have to hit one of that person's eyes and blind it.' And the teachers of God's law say, 'If somebody knocks out your tooth, then this is the payback, you have to knock out one of that person's teeth.' That's what they say.* <sup>39</sup> But now I'm telling you this, don't do payback at all. If somebody does

* 5:27 Exodus 20:14; Deuteronomy 5:18 * 5:29 Matthew 18:9; Mark 9:47 * 5:30 Matthew 18:8; Mark 9:43 * 5:31 Deuteronomy 24:1-4; Matthew 19:7; Mark 10:4 * 5:32 Matthew 19:9; Mark 10:11-12; Luke 16:18; 1 Corinthians 7:10-11 * 5:33 Leviticus 19:12; Numbers 30:2; Deuteronomy 23:21 * 5:34 James 5:12; Isaiah 66:1; Matthew 23:22 * 5:35 Isaiah 66:1; Psalm 48:2 * 5:38 Exodus 21:24; Leviticus 24:20; Deuteronomy 19:21 something bad to you, don't do payback to them. Somebody might hit you on one side of your face. All right, let them hit you on the other side of your face too.

<sup>41</sup> Or a soldier might tell you, 'Carry my bag for a kilometre.' All right, help him more than that. Carry it for 2 kilometres.
<sup>42</sup> Or if somebody asks you for something, give it to them. Or if they want to borrow something from you, let them have it."

You have to love everyone

<sup>43</sup> Jesus said, "You know, those teachers tell you this, 'Love your friends and hate your enemies.*' <sup>44</sup> But I'm telling you to do more than that. You have to love your enemies too. And if anyone makes trouble for you, pray to God and ask him to be good to them. <sup>45</sup> If you do that, you will be just like your father in heaven. He gets the sun to shine on everybody, bad people as well as good people. And he gets the rain to fall on everybody, good people and bad people too.

<sup>46</sup> You see, if you only love the people that love you, that is nothing. Even bad people do that. God will not give you anything for only loving people that love you. <sup>47</sup> And if you only talk to your friends, that is nothing. Everybody talks to their friends, even people that don't believe in God do that. So if you only talk to your friends, you are no better than those people.

6

Don't do things just to get people to think you are good

<sup>1</sup> Jesus kept on teaching the people. He said, "If you only do good things so that people will see you and think you are good, God will not do good to you. Instead, you have to do good things and keep them secret. Then your father in heaven will do good things for you.*"

<sup>2</sup> You know, there are some people that want everyone to think they are good, even though they are not good. So whenever they give something to help a poor person, they do it in front of the meeting house or on a busy street, so that people will see it and say that they are good. But listen, that is all those people will get. God will not give them anything good for doing that. Don't be like them. <sup>3</sup> Whenever you give something to help somebody, don't tell anyone else about it, not even your best friend. <sup>4</sup> Keep it a secret. You know, God, your father, always sees what you do in secret, and he will be properly good to you for doing that."

<sup>5</sup> Jesus said, "Don't pray like those people that want everyone to think they are good, even though they are not good. They like to stand up and pray in the meeting houses and on the busy street corners, so that lots of people can see them praying. They want to hear people say, 'That's a good person.' But listen, that is all those people will get. God will not give them anything good for doing that."*

<sup>6</sup> And Jesus said, "I'll tell you the right way to pray. Go away from other people to a place where you can be alone, like go into a little room in your house and close the door. There you can pray to God, your father. He is in that secret place. And he sees what you do. He will listen to you, and he will be properly good to you for respecting him.

<sup>7</sup> And when you pray, don't keep on talking on and on, with lots of words that don't mean anything. People that don't know God, they do that. They think that if they talk a lot, God will hear them. But they are wrong. <sup>8</sup> Don't be like them. God, your father, knows what you need already, even before you ask him.

 'God, our father, you live in heaven.

We want everyone to respect you.

<sup>10</sup> We want you to be everyone's boss.

We want everyone in the world to do what you want,

just like everyone in heaven does what you want.

<sup>12</sup> Please don't punish us for the bad things that we did, just like we don't do payback to the people that did bad things to us.

And keep us safe from the devil, the boss over the bad spirits.' "

<sup>14</sup> Then Jesus said, "If you don't do payback to other people for the bad things they do to you, God, your father in heaven, will not do payback to you for the bad things you do. <sup>15</sup> But if you do payback to

* 5:43 Leviticus 19:18

* 5:48 Leviticus 19:2; Deuteronomy 18:13

* 6:1 Matthew 23:5

* 6:5 Luke 18:10-14

other people, your father will do payback to you. He will punish you for the bad things you do.”*

Don't stop eating just to get people to think you are good

<sup>16</sup> Jesus kept on teaching the people. Some of those people used to stop eating for a while, so they can think about God and respect him. Jesus said, “Whenever you stop eating for a while, make sure you look the same as you always look. You know, there are some people that want everyone to think they are good, even though they are not good. Whenever they stop eating food to respect God, they want everyone to know what they are doing, so they let their faces get dirty, and they try to look sad. They want people to say, ‘That’s a good person.’ But listen, that is all those people will get. God will not give them anything good for doing that. Don’t be like them. <sup>17</sup> When you stop eating for God, just be normal and look the same as you always look. Wash your face and comb your hair. <sup>18</sup> Then nobody will know that you have stopped eating. But God your father knows. Nobody can see him, but he sees everything you do. He will see what you do in a secret way, and he will be properly good to you for it.”

Keep your good things in heaven

<sup>19-20</sup> Jesus said, “If you have a lot of money and other good things here in this world, don’t try to keep them all for yourself. No. But give them away to people that need them. When you do that, it’s like you give them to God, and he will keep them for you in heaven. You see, here in this world you might lose them. There are things here that might eat them, like grubs or white ants. Or your good things might go rusty. Or somebody might steal them. But nothing will eat them in heaven, and they will not go rusty in heaven, and nobody there will steal them.”
<sup>21</sup> You see, you will always think about the place where you keep your money and your good things. If they are here in this world, you will only live for the things of this world. But if you give them to God in heaven, then you will live for God.”

God can shine his light for you

<sup>22</sup> Then Jesus told them this picture story. He said, “Your eyes are like lights for your body. They show you where to go. If you always want to look at good things, then you will think about good things, and you will live God’s way. It will be like God is shining his light for you, to help you live his way. <sup>23</sup> But if you always want to look at bad things, then you will think about bad things, and you will be spiritually blind, and you will not live God’s way. It will be like you are living in the dark. And if you are spiritually blind, with no light from God, it will be really bad for you.”

You can't work for both God and money

<sup>24</sup> And Jesus told them another picture story. He said, “You can’t work for 2 bosses at the same time. If you try to do that, then you will only like one boss, and you will always work properly for him. But you will not like the other boss, and you will never work properly for him. You see, you can’t have God as your boss, and money as your boss, both at the same time.”

Trust God, and don't worry about the things you need

<sup>25</sup> Jesus said, “So I’m telling you, even though you need some things to stay alive, don’t worry about them. Don’t worry about what you will eat or drink. Don’t worry about the clothes you will wear. Your life is more important than food, and your body is more important than clothes. <sup>26</sup> Think about the birds. They don’t put seeds into the ground to grow a garden, to get their food from it. And they don’t build sheds to keep their food in. But God, your father, gives them food anyway. And you are much more special to God than birds, so you can trust him to give you the food you need.

<sup>27</sup> And don’t worry about how long you will live, or when you will die. No matter how much you worry about it, you will not live any longer, not even one day longer.

<sup>28-29</sup> And don’t worry about your clothes. Listen. You know the story about Solomon. He was a very rich man, and he lived a long time ago. He wore very pretty clothes. Well, think about the wild flowers in the bush. They don’t work hard to get clothes for themselves. But those wild flowers are more pretty than Solomon’s clothes.*

<sup>30</sup> You see, we might think the grass and the wild flowers are rubbish, and anybody might burn them up at any time. But God makes them very pretty anyway. So God will give you the clothes you need. You have to trust God properly, and he will take care of you.

<sup>31</sup> So don’t keep on asking yourself, ‘Where will I get my food? And where will I get my drink? And where will I get clothes to wear?’ <sup>32</sup> Listen, God is your father in heaven, and he knows that you need these things. People that don't know God are always worrying about those things, but you shouldn't worry about them. <sup>33</sup> Think, instead, about the things that are good for God's family, and try to do the good things that God wants you to do. Then God will give you all those other things that you need. <sup>34</sup> So don't worry about how to get what you will need tomorrow. Each day has enough problems of its own. When tomorrow comes, then you can think about those things."

Don't tell other people they are bad

<sup>3-5</sup> You shouldn't always try to tell other people they are doing bad things. First, you have to think about all the bad things that you do, and you have to stop doing those bad things. Then maybe you can help other people to stop doing bad things too. Maybe you are doing lots of bad things, and your friend is just doing one little bad thing. If you are still doing lots of bad things, you can't help them stop doing that little bad thing. It's like this. All those bad things you do are making you blind, like you have a big bit of wood in your eye. And maybe your friend is just doing one little thing wrong, like they just have a little splinter of wood in their eye. You have to take that big bit of wood out of your eye, so that you can see properly, then maybe you can help your friend get that little splinter out of their eye."

<sup>6</sup> Jesus kept on talking to them. He said, "There are some things that belong to God. Don't give those things to people that don't like God. Those people are like dogs. If you give them God's things, they will rubbish them, and then they will turn around and bite you, just like dogs. And some of God's things are really special. Don't give them to people that don't know that those things are special. They will rubbish those things. They will be just like pigs that don't know good things. They will walk on them and push them into the mud."

Keep asking God, and he will give you what you need

<sup>7</sup> Jesus kept on teaching the people. He said, "Whenever you need something, you have to keep asking God for it, and he will give it to you. Keep looking for whatever you need, and God will let you find it. Maybe something will block you, so you can't get what you need, like there is a door that is shut and you can't get through it. Well, then keep on knocking at that door, and God will open it for you. <sup>8</sup> Everyone that asks God for something will get it. Everyone that looks for something will find it. God will open the door for everyone that knocks on it."

<sup>9</sup> It's like this. If your son asks you for some bread, will you give him a stone? No way. <sup>10</sup> Or if your son asks you for a fish, will you give him a cheeky snake? No way. <sup>11</sup> You see, you might be bad, but you give good things to your kids. Well, your father in heaven is a lot better than you. He is always good, so he will always give good things to people that ask him."

This is what God's law is all about

<sup>12</sup> Jesus said, "You know the way you want other people to treat you. Well, you have to treat other people that same way. You have to live like that all the time. That is a short way of saying the message that is in God's book. It is what God's law is all about, and it is what God got his men to write about in his book. You have to always treat other people the same way that you want people to treat you."*

You have to follow the right track

<sup>13-14</sup> Then Jesus told them this picture story about how to live. He said, "It is like there are 2 tracks in life, and each track has its own gate. One gate is big and wide, but the other gate is a narrow little gate. It is hard to get through that little gate, and only a few people get through it. Listen, you have to go through that little gate. If you want to live with God for ever, you have to pick that little gate and go through it, and you have to follow its track. Its track is a narrow little track, and it is hard to walk on. But if you go that way, you will live with God for ever. The other gate is wide and easy to go through, and its track is wide and easy to walk on. A lot of people go that way. They go through that wide gate and walk along that easy track. But that track goes to the wrong place, and God will finish up those people."

Be careful of people that say they have a message from God

are some people that reckon they are telling you a message from God, but they are liars. They try to get you to think they are like sheep, like they are soft and will not give you any trouble. But really, they are like wild dingoes. They will give you trouble, like dingoes hurt sheep. If you believe their words, then you will get lots of trouble. <sup>16</sup> If you look at the things these people do, you can find out if they are talking true words, or if they are liars."

Then Jesus told a picture story. He said, "Think about the trees that give us fruit to eat. We can't get good fruit from rubbish trees. We can't get grapes from rubbish plants. <sup>17</sup> Good fruit grows on a good tree. Rubbish fruit grows on a rubbish tree. <sup>18</sup> A good tree can't make bad fruit. A bad tree can't make good fruit. <sup>19</sup> If a farmer has a tree that only makes rubbish fruit, he will cut down that tree and burn it in a fire.* <sup>20</sup> So, to find out if a person is good or bad, look at what they do. A good person does good things. And a bad person does bad things."*

God will only have the people that do what he wants

<sup>21</sup> And Jesus said, "Lots of people call me, 'My leader and my boss,' but some of them will never be in God's family. God will only have people that do what he wants them to do. God will have those people in his family, but not the other people. God is my father in heaven. <sup>22</sup> One day, God will get me to judge everybody, and some people will say to me, 'You are my leader and my boss. We used your power to tell people your messages, and to force bad spirits out of people, and to do a lot of other great things.' <sup>23</sup> Then I will tell them, 'I don't know you mob. You are bad. You don't do what God wants. So get away from me.' "*

Be wise and do what Jesus says

<sup>24</sup> Then Jesus told them 2 more picture stories. He said, "If you listen to my message, and if you do what I say, you are like a wise man that built his house on hard rock. <sup>25</sup> Then a lot of rain came and made big flood waters that flowed along really fast, and that water hit that house, and strong winds blew hard against that house. But that house didn't fall down. He built it on hard rock, so it stayed strong. You see, if you do what I say, you will be like the wise man in that picture story.

<sup>26</sup> But if you hear my message and you don't do what I say, you are like a stupid man that built his house on soft sand. <sup>27</sup> Then a lot of rain came and made big flood waters that flowed along really fast, and that water hit that house, and strong winds blew hard against that house. Then that house fell down, and it broke up into little bits. You see, if you don't do what I say, you will be like the stupid man in that picture story."

<sup>28</sup> Then Jesus finished talking to that big mob of people. They were really surprised as they listened to what he told them. <sup>29</sup> You see, they knew he told them God's word properly. He knew what he was talking about. Their law teachers never talked like that.*

(We have not yet translated 8:1-4. You can read that story in Mark 1:40-44.)

A Roman army boss trusted Jesus properly

<sup>5</sup> Jesus went to a town called Capernium. There was a Roman army boss there. He was the boss over 100 soldiers. He went to Jesus and strongly asked him for help. <sup>6</sup> He said, "Sir, my young work-man is lying in bed at home. He can't move, and he is hurting a lot."

<sup>8</sup> But the army boss said to Jesus, "Sir, I'm not good enough for you, so it will not be right for you to go into my house. But you can make him better from right here. You can tell that sickness to stop, and leave my work-man, and then he will get better straight away. <sup>9</sup> I know it will happen. You see, I know about bosses. I have a boss over me, and I'm the boss over a lot of soldiers. If I tell a soldier to go somewhere, he goes there. And if I tell one of them to come to me, he comes to me. And if I tell my work-men to do something, they do it. Well, I believe that you are a powerful boss. If you just tell that sickness to go, then my work-man will get better straight away."

<sup>10</sup> Jesus heard what that Roman army boss said, and he was very surprised. He said to the people that were following him, "Listen. This man is not one of you Israel mob, but he trusts me more than any of you Israel people."

<sup>11</sup> Then Jesus told them about something that will happen one day. He said, "Listen. You know that God picked you Israel mob to be his special people. But one day,

* 7:19 Matthew 3:10; Luke 3:9

* 7:20 Matthew 12:33

* 7:23 Psalm 6:8

* 7:29 Mark 1:22; Luke 4:32

a lot of other people will come from everywhere in the world, and they will join God's family in heaven. God will put on a big dinner there for his family, and these other people will sit down and eat it with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob. They are your grand-fathers that lived a long time ago.*<sup>12</sup> But a lot of Israel people will not eat any of it. God will grab them and chuck them out. They will be very upset and angry. They will cry a lot, and they will be so angry that they will bite their teeth together.”*

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus said to the army boss, “You can go back home now. You are trusting me to make your work-man better, so I am doing it.” And right then, at that same time, that army boss's work-man got better.

(We have not yet translated 8:14-17. You can read that story in Mark 1:29-34.)

If we follow Jesus, it might be hard for us

<sup>18</sup> At another time Jesus saw a big mob of people coming around him, so he told his followers to take him in a boat to the other side of the lake.

<sup>19</sup> After they got there, a Jewish law teacher went to Jesus and said, “Teacher, I want to be one of your followers. I will go everywhere with you.”

<sup>20</sup> Jesus said to him, “Wild dogs have places where they can sleep, and wild birds have nests they can sleep in. But I haven't got a home to lie down and sleep in, even though I'm God's special man from heaven.”

<sup>21</sup> There was another man that was already a follower of Jesus. He said to Jesus, “Sir, I will come with you. But my father has died, so let me go home to bury him. After that, I will come with you.”

<sup>22</sup> Jesus said to him, “No. You come and follow me now. You see, some people are spiritually dead, so they can bury the dead bodies of their own people. But you come and follow me.”

(We have not yet translated 8:23—9:26. You can read those stories in Mark 2:1-22; 4:35-41; 5:1-43.)

9

Jesus made 2 blind men see again

<sup>27</sup> Jesus was walking along, and 2 blind men followed him. They kept on shouting to him, “You belong to David's family, and you are the special man that God promised to send. Please, feel sorry for us, and help us.”

<sup>28</sup> Jesus went into a house, and the blind men went to him. He asked them, “Do you believe that I can make your eyes good, so you will see again?”

The men said, “Yes, sir, we believe that you can do that.”

<sup>29</sup> Then Jesus touched the men's eyes and said, “You believed in me, so you will see again.”<sup>30</sup> Then straight away, those men could see again.

Jesus told them strongly, “Don't tell anybody about this.”<sup>31</sup> But they went away and told everybody in that country that Jesus made their eyes better.

Jesus forced the bad spirit out of a man that couldn't talk

<sup>32</sup> Jesus and his followers started to walk along the road away from that place. Then some people brought a man to Jesus that had a bad spirit living inside him, so he couldn't talk.<sup>33</sup> Jesus said to that bad spirit, “Get out of this man.” Then the bad spirit went out of that man, and he started to talk.

Everybody there was very surprised. They said, “Nothing like that ever happened before in our country, called Israel.”

(We have not yet translated 9:34-36. You can read those stories and messages in Mark 1:14-15; 1:39; 3:22; 6:34.)

Jesus needs workers

<sup>37</sup> Jesus said to his followers, “Lots of people need to hear about me. They are ready to listen, but nobody is telling them. They are like a big crop of food plants on a farm that are ready for the workers to get their seeds for food. But there are only a few workers. The farmer needs a lot of workers to bring all those seeds into the shed, and in the same way I need a lot of workers to tell people about me, and bring them to God.”<sup>38</sup> So you have to ask God to send more workers out to tell everyone about me, just like the farmer has to ask for more workers for his crop.”*

(We have not yet translated 10:1-23. You can read those stories and most of those messages in Mark 3:13-19; 6:7-13; 13:9-13.)

10

Don't be frightened of people that will hurt you because you follow Jesus

* 8:11 Luke 13:29

* 8:12 Matthew 22:13; 25:30; Luke 13:28

is more important than any of the students. The students have to learn to be like their teacher. And I am your teacher, so you have to learn to be like me.*

And you know about workers and their boss. The boss is more important than any of the workers. The workers have to learn to be like their boss. And I am your boss, so you have to learn to be like me.

People will treat you the same way as they treat me. I am your leader, and they lie about me. They call me the boss over the bad spirits. And you are my followers, so they will say bad things about you too, more than they say about me.<sup>26</sup> But don't be frightened of them. You see, people might do things secretly now, but later God will let everyone know what they do. People hide things now, but later God will show them to everybody.*

<sup>27</sup> And think about the message I tell you now. Sometimes I tell you something when nobody else is here. I might even just say it quietly in your ear. But later on, I want you to tell my message to everyone in the world. If you can, get up on a high place, and shout my words out loud, for lots of people to hear.

<sup>28</sup> Don't be frightened of those people that can only kill your body. They can't kill your soul. But you have to listen to God. If you don't do what he says, you have to be frightened. He can finish up your body, and then he can also finish up your soul too, in that bad place called hell.

<sup>29</sup> Think about those little birds called sparrows. They don't cost very much. You can buy them for a few dollars. But God remembers each one of them anyway. And if one of them falls down to the ground, God knows about it.<sup>30-31</sup> Well, you are more important to God than a big mob of those birds, so don't be frightened. He knows you properly. He even knows how many hairs you have on your head. So he will only let things happen to you that will be good for you."

Follow Jesus properly

<sup>32</sup> Jesus said, "If you tell everyone that you are one of my followers, I will tell God, my father in heaven, that you are one of my followers.<sup>33</sup> But if you tell everyone that you are not one of my followers, I will tell God, my father in heaven, that I don't know you, and I will tell him that you are not one of my followers.*

<sup>34</sup> Don't think that I came into the world to get everyone to agree with each other. No. People will not agree about me, and some people will fight the people that they don't agree with. It will be like this,

<sup>35-36</sup> Maybe your own family will not want me, and they will turn against you and be your enemies.

A man will be the enemy of his father.

A daughter will be the enemy of her mother.

A woman will be the enemy of her mother-in-law.*

<sup>37</sup> You see, you have to love me more than you love your own father and mother. Then it is all right for you to be my follower. And you have to love me more than you love your own son or daughter. Then it is all right for you to be my follower. If you don't love me like that, you are not the right person to be my follower.

<sup>38</sup> If you want to follow me properly, you have to stop thinking only about yourself. You have to live like me. You have to be ready to die, yes, to die like a criminal on a cross, just like me.*<sup>39</sup> If you only want to look after your own life here on earth, you will lose it. You will not live with me for ever. But if you are ready to give up your life here, then you will find real life, and you will live with me for ever."*

(We have not yet translated 10:40-42. You can read some of those messages in Mark 8:34-35; 9:37, 41.)

11

Jesus talked about John the Baptist

<sup>1</sup> Jesus finished talking to his 12 special workers, then he went around the towns in Galilee country. He talked to people and taught them more about God.

<sup>2</sup> At that time, John the Baptist was in jail. But people told him about all the things that Jesus was doing. So John sent some of his own followers to ask Jesus some questions.<sup>3</sup> They went to Jesus and said to him, "John the Baptist has sent us to you. He wants us to ask you, 'Are you the special man that God has sent to us? Or do we have to start looking around for somebody else?'"

* 10:24-25 Matthew 9:34; 12:24; Mark 3:22; Luke 6:40; 11:15; John 13:16; 15:20 * 10:26 Mark 4:22; Luke 8:17

* 10:33 2 Timothy 2:12 * 10:35-36 Micah 7:6 * 10:38 Matthew 16:24; Mark 8:34; Luke 9:23 * 10:39

their skin is good again. Some people were deaf, but now they can hear. Some people were dead, but now they are alive again. And tell John that you heard us telling the good news to poor people.* <sup>6</sup> Maybe I'm not the sort of person you thought God would send, but just trust me anyway, and God will make you happy."

<sup>7</sup> Then the followers of John went away, and Jesus started to talk to all the people. He talked to them about John. He said, "You know, you went out into the bush to see John. What sort of man did you think you would see? You didn't go out there to see a man that is weak, like grass that goes any way the wind pushes it. <sup>8</sup> And you didn't go out there to see a man wearing pretty clothes. No, men that wear pretty clothes live in the town, in good big houses. <sup>9</sup> Did you go out there to see a man that tells people God's messages? Yes, John the Baptist told you God's message, and he did something even more important than that. <sup>10</sup> You see, a long time ago, God got one of his men to write about somebody that will get everything ready. God's man wrote about John the Baptist. We can read it in God's book. This is what it says, 'God will send a man to get everything ready for God's special person.

That man will talk about God's special person, and he will make a way for people to listen to him.' "*"

<sup>11</sup> Then Jesus said, "Listen. John the Baptist is a very important man. He is greater than any other man that ever lived. But everyone in God's family is more important than John the Baptist. <sup>12</sup> You know, John started to teach some time ago, and from that time until now, God's family has been getting bigger. There are people that really want to be friends with God, and they have been trying hard to get into his family. <sup>13</sup> You see, before John came, God told his words and his laws to his men, and they wrote them in God's book. And you know, that was a long time ago, but they wrote about the things that will happen now, at this time.* <sup>14</sup> Look. Try to believe this. They wrote about John, but they didn't use that name for him. They called him Elijah."*

<sup>15</sup> And Jesus said, "You've got ears, so you have to listen to me properly, and take notice of my words."

<sup>16</sup> Then Jesus said, "Now I'll talk about you people that are alive today and I'll tell you what you are like. You are like kids that are playing in the street. Some kids say to the other kids, <sup>17</sup> 'We played happy music for you, but you didn't dance. So we sang a sad song, but you didn't cry. No matter what we do, you say we are wrong.' <sup>18</sup> Those kids are a picture of you mob. You are just like those kids. You rubbish God's people no matter what they do. You see, John the Baptist didn't go to parties and eat lots of good food, and he didn't drink wine. But you rubbished him and said, 'He's got a bad spirit living inside him.' <sup>19</sup> But sometimes I go to parties and eat good food, and sometimes I drink wine, and even though I'm God's special man from heaven, you rubbish me too. You say, 'He eats too much, and he drinks too much. He's a friend of those bad men that get tax money from people and give it to the Roman government, and he's a friend of other bad people that don't follow the law properly.' But really, John and me, we are both wise. And you can know if somebody is wise or not. Just look at what they do, and see if they do good things or not."

(We have not yet translated 11:20-24. You can read that message in Luke 10:13-15.)

God shows things to people that know they are not smart

<sup>25</sup> At that time, Jesus prayed to God. He said, "Father, you are the biggest boss. You are the boss over everything in the sky and everything on the earth. There are some people here that reckon they are smart, and they reckon they understand everything. And there are other people that are just like little kids. They know that they are not smart. Thank you for showing what your message means to those people that are like kids. And thank you for not showing it to those people that reckon they are smart. <sup>26</sup> Yes, Father, that is how you wanted to do it."

<sup>27</sup> Then Jesus told the people, "God, my father, gave me everything, so I can teach people all about him. You see, I am God's son, and my father knows me properly. Nobody else knows me properly. And I know my father properly. I pick some people, and I show them what my father is like, but nobody else knows God properly."*

Jesus is good to his workers

<sup>28</sup> Then Jesus said to the people, "Come to me, all of you mob that are tired. You did a lot of ceremony things to get God to save you, but that is not the right way. It's like you worked hard, and you carried a lot of heavy things, and then you got too tired. Look, instead of that, just come and work for me, and I will let you rest really good.<sup>29</sup> Be my follower and work for me. Listen to the things I teach you, and you will feel good inside yourselves, like your spirit is resting. You see, I am not a big tough boss. I will be easy on you.*<sup>30</sup> I will never ask you to do things that are too hard for you."

* 11:5 Isaiah 35:5-6; 61:1 * 11:10 Malachi 3:1 * 11:13 Luke 16:16 * 11:14 Malachi 4:5; Matthew 17:10-13;

Mark 9:11-13 * 11:27 John 3:35; 1:18; 10:15

(We have not yet translated 12:1-15a. You can read those stories and messages in Mark 2:23—3:6.)

One of God's men wrote about Jesus

<sup>15</sup> Big mobs of people followed Jesus. Some of them were sick, and he made them better.<sup>16</sup> But he told them straight, "Don't go and tell other people about me."<sup>17</sup> A long time ago, God got his man called Isaiah to write about this, and it is in God's book. It happened just like Isaiah said. This is what he wrote,<sup>18</sup> "This is the man that God picked to work for himself.

God loves him, and he makes God very happy.

God will put his spirit in him, and he will tell the people in other nations that God is right and fair.

Nobody will hear him shouting in the streets.

He will not forget those people, but he will help them to get strong.

He will keep on being right and fair to everyone, until people are fair to each other too.

(We have not yet translated 12:22-37. You can read those stories and messages in Mark 3:20-30 and Luke 6:43-45.)

The Pharisee mob asked Jesus to do something powerful

<sup>38</sup> One day, some Jewish law teachers, and some of the Pharisee mob, that were strong for the Jewish law, they went to Jesus and said, "Teacher, we want to see you do something powerful. That will show us that God sent you."*

<sup>39</sup> Jesus said, "You mob that are alive today are really bad. You turned away from God. But now you want me to show you something powerful, right? No. I will not do that. The only powerful thing you will see is the same thing that God did to Jonah. He was one of God's men.*<sup>40</sup> Think about that story from a long time ago. A big fish ate Jonah, and he stayed inside that fish for 3 days. And just like that, I will stay in the ground for 3 days. I am God's special man from heaven.*

<sup>42</sup> And think about the story about the woman from Sheba. She was the big boss over that country. One day, she heard about Solomon. He was the big boss over our country. She heard that he was a very wise man, so she came here to listen to the good things he said. Well, later, on the day when God will judge everyone, that woman will get up and tell you mob here that you are stupid. You see, she came a long way from her country just to listen to Solomon. And I am more wise than Solomon, but you mob don't want to listen to me."*

Bad spirits come back

<sup>43</sup> And Jesus said, "When a bad spirit goes out of a person, it goes around in dry country looking for a new place to live. But it doesn't find a good place.<sup>44</sup> So it says to itself, 'I will go back to the place where I lived before.' Then it goes back to that person, and it finds the place is good, empty, and clean.<sup>45</sup> Then the bad spirit goes out and gets 7 other bad spirits that are worse than itself. And they all go into the person, and they live there. Then that person has more bad spirits than before, so that person is worse than before. Listen, I'm talking about you mob here today. You

Jesus told a story about some rubbish plants

<sup>24</sup> Then Jesus told the people another picture story. He said, "This story shows you something about God's family.

A farmer planted some good food seeds in his garden. <sup>25</sup> But there was a bad man that didn't like that farmer. One night, when everyone was asleep, that bad man went to the farmer's garden and planted some rubbish plant seeds in it, beside the good seeds. Then that bad man went away.

<sup>26</sup> The good seeds grew into good plants, but at the same time the rubbish plants started to grow there too. Those rubbish plants look like the good plants when they are young, but when they get big we can't eat their seeds. They are too cheeky.

<sup>27</sup> So the farmer's workers went to him and said, 'Boss, you planted good food seeds in that ground. How come a lot of rubbish plants are growing there too?'

<sup>28</sup> The farmer said, 'I reckon there is a bad man that doesn't like me, and he planted those rubbish plants.'

The workers said, 'Do you want us to go and pull up those rubbish plants?'

<sup>29</sup> The farmer said, 'No, don't do that. Those plants are all mixed together, so if you pull up the rubbish plants, then you will pull up some of the good food plants with them. <sup>30</sup> No. Just let them all grow up, the good plants and the rubbish plants together. Later, when the right time comes, I will get some men to get the good seed food. But I will talk to them before they do that job. I will tell them to cut down the rubbish plants first, and take them away, and burn them. After that, they will get all the good seed food and bring it into my shed.'

(We have not yet translated 13:31-35. You can read some of those stories and messages in Mark 4:30-32.)

Jesus told his followers what the story about the rubbish plants means

<sup>36</sup> Then Jesus went into a house, away from all the people. And his followers went to him and said, "Please tell us what that story means, that picture story about the rubbish plants and the garden."

<sup>37</sup> Jesus said to them, "I'm God's special man from heaven, and I'm like the farmer in that story. I'm like the man that planted good food seeds in a garden. <sup>38</sup> That garden is like the world. The good food seeds are like the people that belong to God. The rubbish plant seeds are like the people that belong to the devil, the boss over the bad spirits. <sup>39</sup> The bad man that planted those rubbish seeds in the garden is like the devil. The time to get all the good seed food is like the time for the end of the world. The workers that cut down the plants are like God's angel messengers.

<sup>40</sup> And in the story the workers cut down the rubbish plants and burned them in the fire. That is a picture of what will happen at the end of the world. <sup>41</sup> You see, I'm God's special man from heaven, and at the end of the world, I will send out God's angel messengers. They will get the people that belong to the devil. They will get all the people that don't belong in God's family. Those people are the ones that break God's law, and they make other people do bad things. <sup>42</sup> The angels will chuck all those bad people into a big fire. Those people will cry, and they will be so angry that they will bite their teeth together. <sup>43</sup> But at that time God will show everyone that the good people are really great. It will be like they are shiny, like the sun. And they will be in the family of God, their father."

Then Jesus said, "You've got ears, so you have to listen to me properly, and take notice of my words."

Jesus told 2 stories to show us that God's family is very good <sup>44</sup> Jesus told his followers another picture story. He said, "This story shows you more about God's family.

A man buried a lot of gold in the ground, to hide it. Some time later, another man found that gold, but he didn't own the land, so he couldn't get it for himself. So he buried it again. Then he went away, and he sold everything that he owned, to get some money. Then he bought that land. After that, he got all that gold for himself, and he was really happy. Well, if you find out how to get into God's family, it is like you find a lot of gold."

<sup>45</sup> Jesus talked some more. He said, "This is another picture story that shows you about God's family. There was a man that used to buy things, and then take them to another place and sell them again at a higher price. That was his job. One day, he was looking for beautiful pearls to buy. <sup>46</sup> He found a really good and beautiful pearl, but its price was very high. So he sold everything that he owned, to get enough money for it. Then he bought that very good pearl. Well, if you find out how to get into God's family, it is like you find a very good pearl."

Jesus told a story about a fishing net, to show more about God's family

<sup>47</sup> Then Jesus said, "This is another picture story that shows you about God's family. Some fishermen threw their fishing net into the water and caught a lot of fish in it. There were all sorts of fish in that net. <sup>48</sup> Then they dragged it up on to the land, and sat down, and sorted out the fish. They put the good fish into baskets to keep them, and they chucked the bad fish away. <sup>49-50</sup> That's what it will be like when God will finish up this world. His angel workers will come and sort everybody out. They will save good people, and they will chuck the bad people into a big fire. Those people will cry a lot, and they will be so angry that they will bite their teeth together."

Teachers in God's family use both new and old messages from God

They said, "Yes, we do."

<sup>52</sup> Then Jesus said, "Every teacher of our Jewish law that joins God's family will teach new messages from God as well as old messages. Every teacher of God's word is like a man that owns a big house. That man has a store-room in that house, where he keeps his very special things. Sometimes he brings those things out to show to his friends. He shows them new things, as well as old things."

(We have not yet translated 13:53—17:23. You can read those stories and messages in Mark 6:1—9:32.)

Jesus paid tax money for God's ceremony house

<sup>24</sup> Jesus and his followers went and stayed in the town called Capernium. There were some men that worked in God's ceremony house. Every year, all the Jewish people had to pay tax money to those men. They used that money to look after God's ceremony house. Those men went to Peter and asked him, "Is your teacher going to pay the tax money for God's ceremony house?"*

Then Peter went into the house where they were staying, to talk to Jesus about it. But Jesus talked first. He said, "Peter, think about the big bosses in this world. They take money from people, but what do you reckon? Do they take it from their own mob, or do they take it from other people?"

Then Jesus said, "All right, that means their own families don't have to pay anything. And we are God's family, so we don't have to pay money for God's house. <sup>27</sup> But we don't want to make those tax men angry. So get a fishing line, and go down to the lake, and throw in the line to catch a fish. Get the first fish that you catch, open its mouth, and you will find a gold coin inside it. Take that coin, and give it to those tax men. It will be enough money for both my tax and your tax."

(We have not yet translated 18:1-14. You can read those stories and messages in Mark 9:34-47; Luke 15:3-7; 17:1-2.)

18

What if a Christian does something wrong to you?

<sup>15</sup> Jesus told his followers, "If another one of my followers does something wrong to you, then you have to go to them and talk about it. Just the 2 of you can talk about it together, while you are alone. If they listen to you, and if they agree with you, then you can call them your friend again.*

<sup>16</sup> But if they don't want to listen to you, then take one or 2 other people with you, and go to that person. These other people will hear you talk about the wrong things that person did, and they will hear what that person says, and they will find out what is true.* <sup>17</sup> If that person will not listen to all of you, then go to the church, and tell the people in the church what happened. Let them sort it out and talk to that person. If that person doesn't want to listen to them, then you can treat them like somebody that doesn't follow me. They are like somebody that doesn't know God, or like somebody that doesn't do what God says."

<sup>18</sup> Then Jesus told his followers, "Listen. You are the people that will know what God wants. If you all agree that something here on this earth is wrong, it will be something that God in heaven already said is wrong. And if you all agree that something here on this earth is all right, it will be something that God in heaven already said is all right.*

<sup>19</sup> I'm telling you this again. If you agree together about something, even if it is only 2 of you, and then you ask my father in heaven to do that thing, then he will do it for you. <sup>20</sup> You see, if you get together to respect me, I will be right there with you, even if it is only 2 or 3 of you at that time."

The story about the work-man that was hard on another man

<sup>21</sup> Then Peter went up to Jesus and said, "Teacher, if somebody is always doing wrong things to me, how many times do I have to forget it and not do payback to that person? If I forget it 7 times, is that enough? Then if they do another wrong thing, I can do payback, right?"

<sup>23-24</sup> Then Jesus told them a story. He said, "I will tell you a picture story to show you what it's like in God's family. There was a big boss that loaned some money to his workers. After a while he wanted them to give it back. So he started to check up on them, and he got his soldiers to bring those workers to him. They brought a work-man that borrowed a real lot of money, like millions of dollars, and the boss said, 'Give me that money now.'

<sup>25</sup> The work-man said, 'No, not yet. I haven't got any money right now.' The big boss was angry. He wanted to get some money back, so he told his soldiers, 'Grab this man, and his wife, and his kids, and all his things, and sell them to another man. He will make them work for no pay.'

<sup>26</sup> Then the work-man got down on his knees in front of the big boss and said to him, 'Please, please give me more time, then I will give you back all your money.'

<sup>27</sup> Then the big boss felt sorry for his work-man, and he changed his mind, and he said, 'All right, you don't have to give that money back to me. I'll forget it. You can go free now.'

<sup>28</sup> But after that, his work-man went away, and he met another man. Before this time, that other man borrowed a little bit of money from the work-man, just 100 dollars. So the work-man grabbed that other man's neck and said, 'Give me back that money right now. It's my money.'

<sup>29</sup> That other man went down on his knees and said, 'Please, please give me more time. Then I will give you back your money.'

<sup>30</sup> But the work-man said, 'No way. I will not forget what you owe me.' And he put that man in jail, and he told the boss over the jail to keep him there until he gives back all of that money.

<sup>31</sup> Some of the other workers saw what happened, and they were not happy about it. So they went to the big boss and told him all about it. <sup>32</sup> Then the big boss got the work-man to come in, and said to him, 'You are really bad. You asked me to forget about all my money that you borrowed. It was millions of dollars. And I was good to you. I said that you didn't have to give it back to me. <sup>33</sup> So now you have to feel sorry for that other man and be good to him, just like I felt sorry for you.' <sup>34</sup> The big boss was really angry, and he told the soldiers to grab that work-man, to beat him up, and to put him in jail. He will stay there until he can give all that money back to the big boss."

<sup>35</sup> Then Jesus said, "It's like that with you too. You have to be good to all my other followers. If they do something bad to you, don't do payback to them. Just forget it. Then, in the same way, my father in heaven will not do payback to you."

(We have not yet translated chapter 19. You can read those stories and messages in Mark 10:1-31.)

Jesus told a story about work-men in a garden

<sup>1</sup> Jesus said to his followers, "This picture story is about the people that will be in God's family. There was a man that owned a garden, and he wanted some work-men to get a job finished in one day. So he went out early in the morning, to the place in the town where men waited around looking for a job. <sup>2</sup> He talked to the men there, and they agreed to work for him. He agreed to give them the right pay, the pay that men always get for a day's work. Then he sent them to work in his garden.

<sup>3</sup> At 9 o'clock in the morning he went again to that place in the town, and he saw some other men standing around doing nothing. <sup>4</sup> So he gave each of them a job too. He told them, 'Come and work in my garden today, and I will pay you the right money at the end of the day.' <sup>5</sup> So they went to work in his garden.

Then, in the middle of the day, the boss went to that place in the town again. And he found some more men there, and he did the same for them. He gave them jobs. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon, he did the same thing. He found some more men and gave them jobs too.

<sup>6</sup> Then, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, he went into town again, and he saw some more men standing around. He asked them, 'Why haven't you been working today?'

The boss said to them, 'All right, I'll give each of you a job. Go and work in my garden.'

<sup>8</sup> At the end of the day, he told his manager, 'Tell all the work-men to come here, and we will pay them their money. Tell the last work-men to come first.'* <sup>9</sup> So he paid the men that started their job at 5 o'clock, and he gave each of them a full day's pay. Then he kept on paying the other men, and he gave each man a full day's pay. <sup>10</sup> Last of all, he paid the men that started their job early in the morning. They thought they were going to get more money, but they didn't. Each of them got a full day's pay, just like the other men. <sup>11</sup> When they got their money, they complained to the boss. They said, <sup>12</sup> 'Those men only worked for one hour, and you paid them just as much money as you paid us. That's not fair. We worked all day in the hot sun.'

<sup>14</sup> Well, take your money and go home. You see, I wanted to pay these last work-men the same as you. <sup>15</sup> It's all right for me to do what I want with my own money, right? If I'm good to somebody, don't get upset with me.' "

<sup>16</sup> Then Jesus told them what that story means. He said, "One day, those people that are the last ones now, they will be the first ones. And those people that are the first ones now, they will be the last ones."*

Jesus told a story about 2 sons

<sup>28</sup> Jesus talked to the Jewish leaders. He said, "Tell me what you think about this picture story. A man had 2 sons. He went to the oldest son and said, 'Son, go and work on our farm today.'

<sup>29</sup> The oldest son said, 'No. I don't want to.' But later, he changed his mind, and he went and worked on their farm.

<sup>30</sup> The father also went to his youngest son and said the same thing to him. He said, 'Son, go and work on our farm today.'

The youngest son said, 'Yes, Dad, I will go.' But he didn't go and work on their farm."

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus asked those Jewish leaders, "Which one of that man's sons did what their father wanted?"

They said, "The oldest son did what their father wanted."

Then Jesus said, "Listen. There are people that did bad things, but they will go into God's family before you mob do. You know, there are some men that get tax money from people and give it to the Roman government. And sometimes a woman does bad things, so if men pay her money she sleeps with them, like a woman sleeps with her husband. But some of those bad people will go into God's family before you mob do. <sup>32</sup> You see, John the Baptist came and told everyone the right way to live, and you mob didn't believe him. But some of those bad people did believe him, and they stopped doing bad things. And even when you saw them do that, you still didn't change your minds. You didn't say you were sorry for the bad things you did, and you didn't turn around and follow God's way."*

(We have not yet translated 21:33—24:44. You can read most of those stories and messages in Mark chapters 12 and 13; Luke 11:37-51; 13:34-35; 14:15-24; 17:24-35.)

Jesus told a picture story about 2 work-men

<sup>45</sup> Then Jesus said to the people, "Think about a good work-man. He will always do what his boss says. He thinks about it and does it properly. So, if the boss has to go away for a while, he will pick that good work-man to be in charge of all his other workers, to look after them and give them food every day. <sup>46</sup> Later, the boss will come home. And if he sees that work-man doing everything properly, then the boss will be good to that work-man. <sup>47</sup> Yes, the boss will put him in charge of everything he owns.

Matthew 19:30; Mark 10:31; Luke 13:30 * 21:32 Luke <sup>48</sup> But now think about a bad work-man. If the boss goes away for a while, then that bad work-man will say to himself, 'My boss will be away for a long time.' <sup>49</sup> Then he will do bad things. He will hit the other workers, and he will eat too much food, and get drunk with other people that drink too much grog. <sup>50</sup> Then the boss will come home at a time when the bad work-man doesn't think he will. So the boss will catch him doing bad things. <sup>51</sup> And the boss will punish that bad work-man a lot. He will put him in a bad place with people that say they are good, but really, they do bad things. Everyone in that place will cry, and they will be so angry they will bite their teeth together."

25

There were some young women that had a special job at a wedding ceremony. When the man getting married came to the house, they had to meet him, and they had to bring him into the house. Then they were all going to eat a big dinner with that man and his new wife. That wedding was at night time, so the young women had their oil lamps with them. <sup>2-4</sup> There were 10 of these young women. And 5 of them used their brains. They took jars of extra oil with them for their lamps. But the other 5 women were stupid. They didn't take any extra oil with them.

<sup>5</sup> That man getting married didn't come for a long time, so all the young women got tired and went to sleep.

<sup>7</sup> The 10 young women woke up. Then they got up quickly, and they tried to make their lamps burn bright. <sup>8</sup> The 5 stupid women that didn't have any extra oil said to the other 5 women, 'Give us some of your oil. Our lamps are going out.'

<sup>9</sup> The other women said, 'Sorry, we can't do that. There is not enough oil for all of us. You have to go and buy some oil for yourselves.'

<sup>10</sup> So those 5 stupid women went to buy some oil. While they were away, that man came to the house to get married. The 5 other women were ready, and they went with him into the house, and somebody locked the door. Then they all started to eat the wedding dinner.

<sup>11</sup> Later, the 5 stupid women came back. They called to that man. They said, 'Sir, please open the door for us.'

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus said, "It will be like that for you too. You don't know when I will come back. You don't know the day or the time. So you have to keep on waiting for me properly. You have to be ready for me when I come."

(We have not yet translated 25:14-30. You can read a story like that story in Luke 19:11-27.)

After Jesus comes back, he will judge everybody

<sup>31</sup> Jesus said, "I am God's special man, and one day, I will come back from heaven, and all God's angel messengers will come with me. At that time, I will be really great and powerful. I will be the biggest boss, and I will sit down on the big boss's seat.* <sup>32</sup> All the people in the world, from every country, they will all come together in front of me. Then I will split all those people into 2 mobs. <sup>33</sup> I will put one mob on one side of me, and the other mob on the other side of me.

<sup>34</sup> Then I will say to the people on my right-hand side, 'Come on, you mob. My father is happy with you, so you can be in his family. A long time ago, at the time when he made the world, he made a good place for you. It is ready for you now. <sup>35</sup> You see, at one time I was hungry, and you gave me some food to eat. I was thirsty, and you gave me some water to drink. I was a stranger with nowhere to live, so you took me into your home. <sup>36</sup> In the cold weather time I didn't have enough clothes to keep me warm, so you gave me some more clothes. I was sick, and you looked after me. I was in prison, and you visited me there.'

<sup>37</sup> Then these good people will say, 'Sir, when did we ever see you hungry, and give you food? Or thirsty, and give you water to drink?' <sup>38</sup> When did we ever see you as a stranger, and take you into our homes? When did we ever see you short of clothes, and give you some more clothes? <sup>39</sup> When did we ever see you sick, or in prison, and visit you?'

were not important people, but they were mine, so every time you helped them, you helped me at the same time.'

<sup>41</sup> Then I will turn to the people on my left-hand side, and I will say to them, 'Get away from me, you mob that God will punish. Go into that big fire that burns for ever. God made that fire for all the bad spirits and for their boss, the devil. And you have to go there too. <sup>42</sup> You see, I was hungry, but you didn't give me anything to eat. I was thirsty, but you didn't give me a drink. <sup>43</sup> I was a stranger with nowhere to live, but you didn't take me into your home. I didn't have enough clothes to keep me warm, but you didn't give me any more clothes. I was sick, and in prison, but you didn't visit me.'

<sup>44</sup> Then they will say, 'But, sir, when did we ever see you with those problems and not help you? We never saw you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or short of clothes, or sick, or in prison.'

<sup>45</sup> And I will say to them, 'Listen. You didn't do anything to help my friends. They were not important people, but they were my people. Every time you said no to helping them, at that same time you were saying no to helping me.'

<sup>46</sup> Then that bad mob will go to the bad place, and God will punish them for ever. But the good mob will go to live in the good place for ever.*

(We have not yet translated 26:1—27:62a. You can read those stories and messages in Mark chapters 14 and 15, and Luke chapters 22 and 23. They are about the way people killed Jesus, and put his body in a cave, and blocked that cave with a big stone.)

27

Soldiers guarded the cave that had Jesus's body

<sup>62</sup> The bosses of the Jewish ceremonies got together with the Pharisee mob, that were strong for the Jewish law, and they went to Pilate. He was the Roman boss at that time. <sup>63</sup> They said, 'Sir, we can remember the things Jesus said while he was still alive. That man tried to get people to believe things that are not true. He said, 'I will die, and then after 2 nights, on the 3rd day, I will come alive again.*' <sup>64</sup> Maybe his followers will come and steal his body, and then tell everyone that he came alive again. If they do that, then we'll be worse off than before. So we want to stop them from doing that. We want somebody to guard the cave that has Jesus's body, and keep people away from it for 3 days."

<sup>65</sup> Pilate said, "All right. You can take a mob of soldiers to guard that cave. Do whatever you can to stop anybody from moving that stone."

<sup>66</sup> So they tied a rope around that stone and put wax on the knot, and they made Pilate's mark in that wax. Then they would know if somebody tried to move that stone. And they told the soldiers, "Guard this cave. Don't let anyone touch it."

28

Jesus came alive again

<sup>1</sup> On Sunday morning, Mary Magdalene, and another woman that was called Mary, they got up really early and went to look at the cave that had Jesus's body in it.

<sup>5</sup> Then the angel said to the women, "Don't be frightened. I know that you are looking for Jesus, the man they killed on a cross. <sup>6</sup> But he is not here. God made him alive again. Remember, Jesus told you that this was going to happen. Come over here and see the place where he was lying. <sup>7</sup> Now you have to go quickly to his followers. Tell them, 'Jesus is alive again, and he is going to Galilee country ahead of you mob. You have to go and see him there.' So go quickly now, and tell them."

<sup>8</sup> Then the women ran quickly away from that cave. They were really frightened, but they were really happy too. They got up to run to Jesus's other followers, to tell them the angel's message. <sup>9</sup> But Jesus met them half-way and called out, "Hello." They went up to Jesus and showed him strong respect. They even got down and held on to his feet. <sup>10</sup> Then Jesus said, "Don't be frightened. Go and tell my other followers to go back to Galilee country, and they will see me there."

The guards told the Jewish leaders what happened

ceremonies everything that happened at the cave. <sup>12</sup> Then the ceremony bosses called a meeting with the Jewish elders. They all agreed to give the soldiers a lot of money to get them to tell a lie. <sup>13</sup> They told the soldiers, "You have to tell everyone, 'Jesus's followers came in the night, while we were asleep, and they stole his body.'" <sup>14</sup> If anyone tells the boss, Pilate, about this, then we'll talk to him and tell him that you didn't do anything wrong, so he will not give you any trouble." <sup>15</sup> The soldiers took the money, and they told everyone that lie, like the leaders told them to say. So a lot of Jewish people heard that story, and some of them still tell that lie to other people.

Jesus's followers have to tell everyone in the world about him

<sup>16</sup> The women told Jesus's message to his 11 special workers. Then those men remembered that Jesus told them to meet him on a mountain in Galilee, so they went there.* <sup>17</sup> They saw Jesus there, and they felt really happy, and they showed him strong respect. But some of them were thinking, "Is this really Jesus? I don't know."

<sup>18</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "God, my father, has made me boss over everything now. I'm boss over everything up in heaven. And I'm boss over everything down here on the earth. <sup>19</sup> So go out to all the people in the world, and tell them about me. Teach those people to follow my way, and baptise them with water to show that they belong to the father, and the son, and the Holy Spirit. <sup>20</sup> You have to teach them to do everything that I told you to do. And remember this, I will be with you all the time. I will be with you to help you, right up until the time when this world will finish."

Mark wrote this good news about Jesus (The book in the Holy Bible called Mark) About this book

The Holy Bible has 4 books about the things that Jesus did, and the messages he told to people when he was here on the earth, about 2,000 years ago. Those books are in the 2nd part of the Holy Bible, called the New Testament. The men that wrote them were Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. They wrote their books after Jesus went back to heaven. Most of the things in their books happened in the country we now call Israel.

This book has everything that Mark wrote about Jesus. It is important for us today because it tells us about the good things that Jesus did, and the messages that he brought to us from God.

Mark was a young man when Jesus was here on the earth. He probably knew Jesus and Jesus's special workers very well. Some of the things he wrote about are things he probably saw happen, and the rest he probably heard about from Peter and other people that saw them happen. Mark wrote this book about 20 or 30 years after those things happened.

Mark was sometimes called John Mark. His mother had a house in Jerusalem city, and after Jesus went back to heaven, his followers sometimes met together in Mark's mother's house (see Acts 12:12). Some time later, Paul and Barnabas went to lots of different places to tell people about Jesus, and they took Mark with them to help them (see Acts 13:5; 15:36-39; 2 Timothy 4:11). He was a friend of Peter and a cousin of Barnabas (see Colossians 4:10).

John baptised people

<sup>1</sup> This story is good news. It is all about Jesus Christ, God's son. The story starts like this.

<sup>2-3</sup> A long time before Jesus was born, God told a man called Isaiah to write in God's book about something God was going to do for Jesus. And it happened the way Isaiah wrote. He wrote this, "God will send a man to get everything ready for him.

That man will talk about him and make a way for people to listen to him.

That man will be out in the bush, and he will call out to people, and he will say, 'You mob get ready.

God is coming to this country, so you have to get ready for him.

It is like when a big boss comes, and you have to make a good road for him.' " *

<sup>4-6</sup> Isaiah was talking about a man called John. God sent him to get things ready for Jesus, so he started to tell people God's message. He lived out in the bush and wore rough clothes made out of camel's hair, and a leather belt. He ate grasshoppers and bush honey.*

John talked to people out there in the bush. He said, "You mob have to be really sorry for the wrong way you are living. You have to turn right around and live God's way." He also told them, "If you do that, I will baptise you. That means, I will take you through a special washing ceremony. And God will not do payback for the bad things you did."

A lot of people went out into the bush to listen to John. They came from the city called Jerusalem and from other towns in that country called Judea. Some people told John that they were sorry for the wrong things they did, so he baptised them in the Jordan River.

<sup>7</sup> John told them, "A man will come to this country later. He is more important than me, and he is stronger than me. I'm not good enough to untie his shoes. I'm just nothing. <sup>8</sup> You see, I baptised you just with water, but this new man will put the Holy Spirit in you. He will baptise you with the Holy Spirit."

John baptised Jesus

<sup>9</sup> At that time, Jesus was living in a town called Nazareth, in Galilee country. Then Jesus left his home, and he walked all the way south to a place on the Jordan River. John was baptising people there. <sup>10</sup> After he got to that place, Jesus went down into the water and John baptised him. As he came up out of the water, Jesus looked up, and he saw the sky split open, and he saw the Holy Spirit. It looked just like a pigeon, and it flew down to Jesus. <sup>11</sup> And God said to Jesus, "You are my son. I love you very much, and I'm very happy with you." *

Satan tested Jesus

<sup>12</sup> Straight away, the Holy Spirit sent Jesus out into the bush. <sup>13</sup> Jesus stayed out there for 40 days. And Satan went to him and tried to trick him. Satan is the boss over all the bad spirits. He tried to make Jesus do something bad. But Jesus didn't do it. There were wild animals in that place, but angel messengers went and looked after Jesus.

Jesus went back to Galilee

<sup>14</sup> One day, that country's government boss was angry with John the Baptist, so he sent some soldiers to grab John and put him in jail. After that, Jesus went back to Galilee country, and he told everyone God's good news. <sup>15</sup> He said, "Now is the right time for God to take people into his family. You must have to take notice and turn right around and live God's way. You have to believe this good news."*

Jesus told some fishermen to leave their job and follow him

<sup>16</sup> One day, Jesus walked next to a big lake, called Lake Galilee, and he saw 2 men throwing a net into the water to catch fish. That was their job. One man was called Simon, and the other man was his young brother Andrew.

<sup>17</sup> Jesus said, "I want you 2 to come with me. I want you to stop catching fish and start catching people for me." <sup>18</sup> Straight away, Simon and Andrew dropped their nets and followed Jesus.

<sup>21</sup> Jesus and his followers went to a town called Capernium. On Saturday they went to the Jewish meeting house, and Jesus taught God's word to the people. You see, Saturday was their day to rest and show respect to God. <sup>22</sup> Jesus talked with clear and strong words, and the people listened to him, and they were really surprised. They knew that he was teaching God's words really straight. The Jewish law teachers didn't talk like that.*

<sup>26</sup> The bad spirit knocked the man down and made him shake and scream out loud as it came out of him, and then it went away.

<sup>27</sup> All the people were watching, and they were really surprised. They asked each other, "What's going on? This man is teaching us something new, and he has so much power. He tells bad spirits to get out of people, and they do what he tells them to do. They just go away."

<sup>28</sup> Then all those people went out and told everyone about Jesus. Everyone in Galilee country heard that story about him.

Jesus made a lot of sick people better

<sup>29</sup> After that, Jesus left the meeting house and went with Simon and Andrew to their house. James and John went with them. <sup>30</sup> Simon's mother-in-law was sick. She was lying in her bed, really hot and sweating a lot. They told Jesus, "She is very sick." <sup>31</sup> So he held her hand and started to lift her up. Straight away, she got better. Then she got up, and she gave them some food to eat.

<sup>32</sup> Late that afternoon, just after the sun went down, all the people from that town got all the sick people, and the people with bad spirits in them, and they brought them all to Simon's house. <sup>33</sup> A big mob of people were there outside that house. <sup>34</sup> Jesus made lots of sick people better, and he forced lots of bad spirits to go out of people. The bad spirits knew that Jesus was God's son, but Jesus wouldn't let them tell everyone. He forced those bad spirits to be quiet.

<sup>38</sup> But Jesus said to them, "Come on, let's go. I have to go to the other towns around here too, and tell everyone the good news. That's the job I came to do."

<sup>39</sup> So Jesus went all around Galilee country, talking to people in their meeting houses, and telling them God's story. And he forced bad spirits to go out of lots of people.*

A man had a bad skin sickness, but Jesus made him better

* 1:15 Matthew 3:2 * 1:22 Matthew 7:28-29 * 1:39 Matthew 4:23; 9:35

<sup>40</sup> A man walked up to Jesus. He had a really bad skin sickness. He got down on his knees in front of Jesus to show him respect, and he kept on asking Jesus to make him better. That man said, "I know that if you want to, you can make me better."

<sup>41</sup> Jesus felt really sorry for the sick man, and said, "I do want to make you better." Then Jesus touched him with his hand, and said, "You are better now." <sup>42</sup> And straight away, that man was better.

<sup>43-44</sup> Then Jesus told him strongly, "I don't want you to tell anyone about this. But I want you to go to God's ceremony house and show your skin to the leader of the Jewish ceremonies there, so that he can see that you are better. And you have to do the right ceremony that Moses gave us, to say thank you to God. When you do that ceremony, everyone will know that you are better."*

<sup>45</sup> But the man didn't do what Jesus said. He went away and told everyone, "Jesus made me better." After people heard the man's story they went to Jesus from everywhere. Lots of people went to him and stood around him. So he couldn't go into the towns any more, because there were too many people. So he had to stay out in the bush. But people still came from everywhere and found him, even in the bush.

2

Some men carried their sick friend to Jesus

<sup>1</sup> Some time later, Jesus went back to the town called Capernium. The people heard that Jesus was at a house there, <sup>2</sup> so they all went to see him. Soon the house was too full and there was a big mob outside too.

<sup>3</sup> Jesus was inside the house, teaching the people God's story. Then <sup>4</sup> men brought a crippled man to that house. He couldn't walk so they carried him on a swag. They wanted to get that man close to Jesus, so that Jesus could make him better. <sup>4</sup> But those men found a lot of people blocking the house. So they carried the sick man up on to the flat roof of the house and made a hole in it. Then they picked up the sick man on his swag and put him down through the hole into the house where Jesus was.

<sup>5</sup> Jesus saw them do that, and so he knew that they really trusted him. Then Jesus said to the crippled man, "You know all the bad things you did? I say you are not guilty of those things, and God will not punish you."

<sup>6</sup> But some of the Jewish law teachers didn't like Jesus saying that. Those law teachers were thinking, <sup>7</sup> "He can't say that. Only God can talk like that. This man is talking like he is God. He can't talk like that. He is shaming God."

<sup>8-9</sup> Straight away, Jesus knew what the Jewish law teachers were thinking, so he said to them, "You are thinking the wrong way. I might say to this man, 'You did bad things, but I say you are not guilty of them.' Or I might say to him, 'Get up, pick up your swag and go home.' I can do both of those things. <sup>10</sup> I will show you that God made me the boss over both of those things, so I can say that people are not guilty, and God will not punish them. I'm God's special man from heaven, and I have the power to say those things, and I have the power to do those things."

Then Jesus looked at the crippled man and said, <sup>11</sup> "Come on, get up, pick up your swag and go home."

<sup>12</sup> Straight away, that man got up, and he picked up his swag in front of all the people, and he walked out of the house and went home. Everybody there saw him do it, and they were really surprised. They started talking about it. They praised God, telling him that he is really good. They said, "We've never seen anything like this before."

<sup>14</sup> At that time, the Roman people were the bosses over all that country, and they got some Jewish people to take tax money from the other Jewish people and give it to the Roman government. One of those tax men was called Levi, and his father's name was Alfius. Jesus walked along, and he saw Levi and said to him, "I want you to be one of my followers. Come on, follow me." And straight away, Levi stood up and went with Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> Later that day, Jesus and his followers were eating some food at Levi's house. There were lots of people there. Some of them were men that used to get tax money from people and give it to the Roman government, and some other people there didn't live God's way. <sup>16</sup> Some of the Jewish law teachers saw Jesus eating with all those people. Those law teachers also belonged to the Pharisee mob. They were really strong for the law, so they asked Jesus's followers, "Why does Jesus eat with those people that don't live God's way?"

<sup>17</sup> Jesus heard them, and said to them, "Listen, sick people need a doctor, but healthy people don't need a doctor. I'm telling you, I'm like a doctor. You mob reckon these people do bad things, so I'm here to help them turn around and do good things. But you mob think you never do anything wrong yourselves, so I can't help you."

Jesus talked about not eating food

<sup>18</sup> The mob called Pharisees, that were strong for the Jewish law, they sometimes stopped eating food for a while to show God that they respected him. The followers of John the Baptist did the same. Some people went to Jesus and asked him, "How come your followers don't stop eating food to show God that you respect him, you know, just like the Pharisee mob and John's followers do?"

<sup>19</sup> Jesus said to them, "At a wedding ceremony everybody is happy, and they all eat food together with the man that is getting married. It's the same way for my followers. I'm still here, so they are happy and don't need to stop eating food. Not yet. <sup>20</sup> One day, my enemies will take me away, then my followers will be sad, and they will stop eating food."

<sup>21</sup> Then Jesus told them 2 picture stories about the things he was teaching, to get them to start thinking a new way. He said, "If you have an old coat with a hole in it, you can't fix that hole with a new bit of cloth. If you try to do that, and then if you wash it, the new cloth will tear away from the old cloth, and the coat will still be useless."

<sup>22</sup> And this is another story. You don't put new drink into an old cracked bottle. That drink will all leak out and you will lose it. You have to put new drink into new bottles."

Jesus talked about the Jewish rest day

<sup>23</sup> One day, on the Jewish rest day, Jesus and his followers walked through a garden that had seed food growing in it. They walked along and they got a bit hungry, so his followers grabbed some of the seeds to eat.* <sup>24</sup> Some of the Pharisee mob saw Jesus's followers doing that. That mob were strong for the Jewish law, so they got angry. They said to Jesus, "Your mob are doing the wrong thing. Our Jewish law says that today is the rest day. But your mob are getting seeds off those plants. That is work. They are breaking our law."

<sup>25-26</sup> Jesus said to them, "Remember the story about David and his men. You know, it was when Abiathar was the big boss of the Jewish ceremonies. David and his men were really hungry, and they didn't have any food. So David went into God's ceremony place and got the special bread. Only the men that look after the Jewish ceremonies can eat that bread. But David and his men ate that special bread, and so they broke our Jewish law, but God didn't punish them."*

<sup>27</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "Listen to me now. God gave us the rest day to help us, not just to give us another law to follow. <sup>28</sup> Listen, I am God's special man from heaven, and I'm boss over everything. I am even the boss of our Jewish rest day. So I'm not worried about my followers grabbing some seeds to eat."

Jesus made a man's hand better on the Jewish rest day

<sup>1</sup> Jesus went to the Jewish meeting house again on another rest day, and he saw a man with one hand that was no good. It was all dried up and useless. <sup>2</sup> Some of the Pharisee mob were there. They were strong for the Jewish law. They wanted to make trouble for Jesus, so they watched him there. They wanted to see if he was going to help the man with the dried up hand, and make it better on their Jewish rest day. If he did that, they were going to say, "He worked on the rest day, so he broke the law."

<sup>3</sup> Jesus knew they were thinking like that, and so he said to the man, "Come here and stand in front of everybody, so they can see you."

<sup>4</sup> Then Jesus said to the Pharisee mob, "What does our law say about our rest day? Is it right to do good things on our rest day, or is it right to do bad things? Can I make this man better? Or can I hurt him?" The Pharisee mob said nothing.

<sup>5</sup> Jesus looked at them. They didn't care about people, they only worried about their law, and that made Jesus really angry. And it made him really sad too. Then Jesus said to the man with the useless hand, "Hold out your hand." The man put his hand out, and straight away it was better. It wasn't dried up any more.

leaders. That other mob were good friends with the big boss called Herod. At that meeting they tried to work out a way to kill Jesus.

A big mob followed Jesus to the big lake

<sup>7</sup> Jesus and his followers went away to the big lake, called Lake Galilee, and a big mob of people followed them. <sup>8</sup> Those people came from a lot of places. They came from Galilee country, and from Judea country, and from Idjulia country, and some people came from Jerusalem city, and other people came from the country near the towns called Tyre and Sidon, and some people came from the other side of the Jordan River. All those people heard about the things that Jesus did, so they wanted to see him themselves.

<sup>9-10</sup> Jesus made lots of people better that day, and a lot more people wanted to touch him to get better too. A lot of people pushed up close to him, so he said to his followers, "Get a boat ready for me. I might need more room. If they push me too much, I will get up on that boat."*

<sup>11</sup> Some of the people had bad spirits living inside them. Every time those people saw Jesus, the bad spirits pushed them down to the ground and they shouted out, "You are God's son."

<sup>12</sup> And every time they shouted out, Jesus told them strongly to stay quiet. He said, "Don't tell anyone that I'm really God's son."

Jesus picked out 12 men to be his special workers

<sup>13</sup> One day, Jesus walked up a hill and called out to some of the people to follow him. <sup>14-15</sup> Then Jesus picked out 12 of them. He wanted them to be his special workers. Jesus told them, "You mob will walk around with me and live with me, and after that, I will send you to other places to tell people God's good news, and God will give you the power to force bad spirits out of people."

<sup>16-19</sup> These are the names of those 12 men that Jesus picked out,

- Simon. Jesus gave him another name. He called him Peter.
- James and John. They were Zebedee's sons, and they were loud men, so Jesus gave them another name. He called them Thunder men.
- Andrew
- Philip
- Bartholomew
- Matthew
- Thomas

- James. He was the son of Alfius.

- Thaddeus

- Simon. He used to be one of the mob that wanted to fight the Roman government bosses.

- Judas Iscariot. Some time later he turned against Jesus.

Jesus is stronger than Satan

<sup>20</sup> Jesus went into a house, and a big mob of people came there to see him. They were a really big mob of people, so Jesus and his followers were really busy, and they couldn't even stop and eat some food. <sup>21</sup> Somebody went and told Jesus's family about him. So his family said, "He is mad," and they went to get him. They wanted to take him home to look after him.

<sup>22</sup> Some teachers of the Jewish law that were from Jerusalem were there in that place. They said, "The boss over all the bad spirits is living inside Jesus. That bad spirit boss is called Beelzebul, and he is also called Satan. He is the one that gives Jesus the power to force bad spirits out of people."*

<sup>23</sup> Jesus knew the law teachers were rubbishing him like that, so he called out to them and said, "Come here and listen to me." Then he told them stories to teach them. He said, "Think about Satan, the boss over the bad spirits. Do you reckon he fights against his own mob of bad spirits? That doesn't make sense. <sup>24</sup> Listen to me. If a tribe splits up into 2 mobs that fight against each other, that tribe will get weak and finish up. <sup>25</sup> In the same way, people in a family, if they fight each other all the time, they will split up and will stop being a family. <sup>26</sup> So, if Satan is fighting against his own mob of bad spirits, he will get weak and will not have any power. So Satan never does that. You have got it all wrong.

<sup>27</sup> Listen to this picture story. A man wanted to take some things from a strong man's house. First he tied up that strong man. After that, he took all the strong man's things. Well, in that story Satan is like that strong man, and I'm like the man that tied him up, and now I'm taking my people away from him.

<sup>28</sup> Listen, people might do bad things, and they might say bad things against God, but later, if they are sorry for those bad things, God can say they are not guilty. <sup>29</sup> But if somebody says bad things about the Holy Spirit, they are always guilty. God will blame them and punish them for ever."*

* 3:22 Matthew 9:34; 10:25

* 3:29 Luke 12:10

<sup>30</sup> That's what Jesus said to those Jewish law teachers. You see, they reckoned that Jesus had a bad spirit in him. That is the reason why Jesus talked so straight to them.

Jesus talked about his true family

<sup>31</sup> Jesus's mother and his young brothers came to the house where Jesus was teaching, and they sent somebody in to tell him to come out and talk to them. <sup>32</sup> There was a big mob of people sitting around Jesus, listening to him at that time. The people said to him, "Your mother and your younger brothers are outside looking for you."

<sup>33-34</sup> Jesus looked around at the people sitting there and said, "Do you want to know my real family? You just have to look around. These people here are my real family. <sup>35</sup> My real family are the people that listen to God, and that do what he says. Those people are my brothers, and my sisters, and my mothers."

Jesus told a story about seeds and ground

<sup>1</sup> Jesus went down to the lake again, and he started to teach people. A big mob of people went to listen to him, so he got into a boat and sat in it. He was a little bit away from the dry ground. All the people stayed on the dry ground and listened to his words.* <sup>2</sup> He told them picture stories to teach them lots of things.

Jesus told them this story. He said, <sup>3</sup> "You mob listen to me now. A man wanted to grow some seed food in a garden. <sup>4</sup> He threw the seeds all over the garden.

Some seeds went too far and fell on the road. The road was hard, so the seeds couldn't grow there. Some birds saw those seeds lying there, so they ate them and finished them up.

<sup>5-6</sup> And some seeds went another way. They fell on ground that had too much rock in it. Those seeds grew up really fast, but they had too much rock and only a little bit of ground, so when the sun got hot, they dried up and died.

<sup>8</sup> But some of those seeds fell on really good ground, and those seeds grew properly and became seed food plants. When they were ready, they had really big mobs of new seeds on them."

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesus said, "You've got ears, so you have to listen to me properly, and take notice of my words."

Jesus told stories to teach people

<sup>10</sup> Some time later, Jesus came away from that big mob of people. Then just his 12 special workers and a few other people sat around him. They said to him, "You tell us picture stories, but we can't understand them. What are your stories all about?"

<sup>11</sup> Jesus said, "You mob follow me, so God wants you to know what my stories are all about, so I will tell you what they mean. Those stories are about how God gets people into his family. But other people don't follow me, so they only get the picture stories. I will not tell them what they mean. <sup>12</sup> You know, God got one of his men to write these words, and they are in God's book. He wrote,

'People will look with their eyes at what I do, but they will not try to understand what it means.

They will hear my words with their ears, but they will not try to understand them properly.

If they do understand me properly, then they will turn around and come back to God, and then God will not blame them for the bad things they did. But they don't want to know about that.'

And those things are happening now."*

This is what the story about seeds and ground means

<sup>13</sup> Jesus kept on talking. He said, "Why can't you understand this picture story? If you can't understand this easy story, you will not understand the other stories that I'm going to tell you.

<sup>15</sup> I said that some seeds fell on the road, and birds ate them up. Those seeds are a picture for God's word, and the birds are a picture of Satan, the boss over the bad spirits. When some people hear God's word, Satan makes them forget it, so they take no notice of its message.

<sup>16</sup> In my story there was ground with too much rock in it. That is a picture of people that listen to God's word and they are happy about it, and they start to take notice of it. <sup>17</sup> But other people see them believing that word, and those other people make trouble for them, so they stop taking notice of God's word. They soon turn their back and walk away from it.

<sup>18</sup> In my story the man threw some seeds into rubbish grass, and that grass blocked them, so they couldn't grow. This is a picture of people that hear God's word, <sup>19</sup> but after that, they let other things stop them, so they don't live properly for God. They worry too much about the things they want in this life. They start to think too much about money, and they trick themselves. They want a lot of different things all the time, and they worry too much about all those things. They just think about what they want for themselves, and that stops them listening properly to God's word, so they can't live properly for God.

<sup>20</sup> In my story, the seeds that fell on the good ground grew properly, and after those plants grew up big, they made lots of new seeds. This is a picture of people that are ready to listen to God's word, and do what he says. When they believe God's word, they grow stronger and stronger for God, and they live God's way."

<sup>21</sup> Then Jesus said, "When somebody lights a candle, they don't put it under a bowl. And they don't put that candle under their bed. No way. People put candles up high, so everyone can see clearly.* <sup>22</sup> Well, just like that, God wants people to understand the things that are true. He will not hide them away. You see, there are some things that God hasn't told anyone yet, but people will know them soon. It will be like a light will shine on them.* <sup>23</sup> You've all got ears, so you have to listen to me properly, and take notice of my words."

<sup>24-25</sup> Then Jesus said, "Make sure you listen to the right message and think about it properly. When you really take notice of a true message, God will help you understand it, and he will help you to know more and more of his word. But if you don't want to listen to that message, God will stop you from understanding the little bit you did hear."*

God's family grows like plants

<sup>26-29</sup> Jesus kept on teaching. He said, "I want you to know how God's family grows. This is another picture story. A man wanted to grow some seed food, so he threw some seeds on the ground in his garden. Then that man walked away and left the seeds there. Those seeds grew all by themselves in that ground, and that man didn't know what made those seeds grow. He just left them there for a few months, and they grew. At first the long stick part grew, and after that, the head part grew with all the seeds inside it. Then, when the seeds were ready, that man cut those plants down and picked up the seed food. God is boss for everyone, and his family will grow just like the plants in that story."*

Jesus talked more about God's family

<sup>30</sup> Jesus talked some more. He said, "Do you know what God's family is like? I will tell you another picture story to help you understand it. <sup>31</sup> God's family is like a little seed, like the seed of the plant we call mustard. Its seeds are very little. <sup>32</sup> When somebody puts one of those little seeds into the ground, it grows and grows. Later it gets really big with lots of branches. It gets bigger than all the other plants in a vegetable garden, and birds can sit down in the shade of its branches, and they can make their nests there too. Well, that is a picture of how God's family will grow."

<sup>33</sup> Jesus taught the people this way whenever they were ready to listen. <sup>34</sup> Whenever he talked to all the people, he used picture stories. But later, when Jesus was sitting down with only his followers, he told them what those stories really mean.

Jesus told the storm to stop and be quiet

<sup>35</sup> On that same day, while Jesus was teaching, the sun started to go down. He was still sitting in the boat, so he stopped teaching and told his followers to take him across the lake. <sup>36</sup> So they left all the other people behind, and his followers started to take him across the lake in their boat. Some other people got into their boats and followed them.

<sup>37</sup> A little bit later a really strong storm came. The wind got very strong, and the waves started to fill the boat with water, so it was starting to sink. <sup>38</sup> Jesus was asleep in the back of the boat with his head on a pillow. His followers were frightened, so they woke him up, and they shouted at him, "Teacher, we will all drown, and you don't care. Why don't you do something?"

<sup>39</sup> Jesus opened his eyes, then he stood up, and he talked strongly to the wind and the water. He said, "Stop. Be quiet." Straight away, the wind stopped and the water lay down flat. Everything was quiet and still.

<sup>40</sup> Then Jesus said to his followers, "Why are you so frightened? You should know by now that you can trust me."

<sup>41</sup> They said to each other, "Look. The wind and the water listen to this man, and they do what he says. He is really powerful." So they were really surprised and frightened.

Jesus forced bad spirits out of a man

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus and his followers went to the other side of the lake, to the country called Gerasene.

<sup>2-5</sup> There was a man there that had a bad spirit in him. He was mad. He camped in the cemetery there.

Before Jesus came to that place, that man walked around in the cemetery, and all over the hills there, and he yelled out and screamed all the time. He did that in the day time and also at night time. And he cut himself with stones. People couldn't tie him up, not even with chains. They tried to do that lots of times. They tied up his hands and his feet, but it was no good. He was too strong. He just broke those chains every time. Nobody was strong enough to hold him or make him sit down quiet.

When Jesus got out of the boat, <sup>6</sup> that mad man saw him from a long way off. He ran right up to Jesus. The spirit in him knew that Jesus was stronger than him, so he got down on his knees in front of Jesus.

But the spirit in him made him yell at Jesus, "Why did you come here? I know you. You are Jesus. You are the son of God. He is the big boss over everything. Promise me truly that you will not hurt me."

<sup>9</sup> Jesus asked him, "What is your name?"

He said, "Our name is Big Mob. You see, we are a mob of bad spirits inside this man. <sup>10</sup> Please don't send us away from this country."

<sup>11</sup> There were about 2,000 pigs feeding themselves on the hill nearby. <sup>12</sup> The bad spirits asked Jesus, "Can we go into that big mob of pigs over there?"

<sup>13</sup> So Jesus sent those bad spirits out of the man and let them go into the pigs. Then those pigs went mad, and they ran down the steep hill into the lake, and they drowned themselves in the water.

<sup>14</sup> The men that looked after the pigs were frightened, and they ran back to their town, and they told everyone what happened. They told that story to the people in the town, and they told it to the people that lived outside of the town too. A lot of people wanted to see what happened, <sup>15</sup> so they ran out to that place where Jesus was. They saw that man sitting down quiet and wearing clothes. He wasn't mad any more. Then those people got frightened. <sup>16</sup> The men that looked after the pigs told them the story about the man and the pigs. <sup>17</sup> Then all that mob started to ask Jesus strongly to go away from their country and leave them alone.

<sup>18</sup> Jesus listened to them, and he started to get into the boat. Then the man that used to have the bad spirits in him, asked Jesus, "Please, can I come with you?"

<sup>19</sup> Jesus said, "No, I want you to go back to your family, and to your own mob. I want you to tell everybody about the good things God did for you. Tell them that God felt sorry for you, and he was really good to you."

<sup>20</sup> Then that man went all over that country called Ten Towns, and he told everybody that story. He told them all about the good things Jesus did for him. Everybody that heard him was really surprised.

Jesus made a woman better

<sup>21</sup> Jesus and his followers got back into the boat and went to the other side of the lake. A really big mob of people were waiting for them there, beside the water.

<sup>22</sup> There was a Jewish meeting house near there. One of the bosses of that meeting house saw Jesus and went up to him, and he got down on his knees in front of Jesus, to show him respect. That man's name was Jairus. <sup>23</sup> He strongly asked Jesus to help his daughter. He said, "My little girl is really sick, and I think she will die. Please come and put your hands on her. I know that you can make her better, so that she will not die."

<sup>24</sup> Jesus listened to the man and started to go with him. The big mob of people followed them. They went up really close and pushed up against Jesus, all around him.

<sup>25</sup> While they were walking along, a sick woman was there. A long time before this, she started bleeding, and that bleeding didn't stop. <sup>26</sup> She went to every doctor, but none of them could help her. She spent all her money trying to get better, but it was no good, she only got worse. She kept on bleeding for 12 years. <sup>27-28</sup> Then somebody told her about Jesus, and she thought to herself, "If I can just touch his coat, I will get better." So she came up behind Jesus, and she touched his coat.

<sup>29</sup> And straight away, her bleeding stopped. She knew she was better.

<sup>30</sup> Jesus knew straight away that power went out from him, so he stopped walking, turned around, and asked the people, "Who touched my clothes?"

<sup>31</sup> Jesus's followers said, "There are big mobs of people here pushing up against you. Why do you ask, 'Who touched me?' Lots of people touched you."

<sup>32</sup> Jesus kept on looking around to see the person that used his power. <sup>33</sup> That woman knew that she was the person that got better, so she was very frightened, and she was shaking. She came to Jesus, and she got down on her knees in front of him, to show him respect, and she told him her story. She told him that she touched him. <sup>34</sup> Jesus said to her, "My friend, you really believed in me, so now you are better. You can go home, and you will not have any more trouble. You are not sick any more."

Jesus made a dead girl alive again

<sup>36</sup> Jesus heard the man's words, but he took no notice of them. He said to Jairus, "Don't be frightened. Just trust me." <sup>37</sup> Then Jesus told the people, "Don't come with me to this man's house." He only let a few people go with him. They were the girl's mother and father, and 3 of his special workers, Peter, James and John. They were the only people that went with him.

<sup>38</sup> They got close to the house, and Jesus heard other people inside it making a big noise. They were crying for that dead girl and shouting out loud. <sup>39</sup> Jesus went into the house, and he asked them, "Why are you making all this noise? That little girl isn't dead. She is just sleeping."

<sup>40</sup> But they just laughed at Jesus. So he told them all to get out of the house. Then Jesus said to the girl's mother and father, and to his 3 followers, "You come with me." Then they went together into the room where the girl lay.

<sup>42</sup> Straight away, that girl got up and walked around the room. Her mother and father were really surprised. Their little girl was alive again. She was 12 years old at that time.

<sup>43</sup> Jesus told them strongly, "Don't tell anyone that I made this little girl alive again." Then he said to them, "Now give her some food to eat."

6

<sup>2-3</sup> On the Jewish people's rest day, Jesus went to the Jewish meeting house, and he started to teach the people God's message. A lot of the people heard his words, and they were really shocked. They said, "How does he know so much? How come he can do powerful things? He's nobody special. We know him. He grew up here, in this town. His mother, Mary, lives here, with his brothers, James, Joses, Judas and Simon, as well as his sisters. His job here is to make things with wood." So those Nazareth people got angry, and they wouldn't take any notice of him.

<sup>4</sup> Jesus then said to them, "If God gives a man a message, lots of people know he is God's man, and they respect him. But not his own people. They lived with that man and knew him from the time he was a little boy. They don't respect him. Even his close family and relatives don't listen to him."*

<sup>5-6</sup> You see, the people of Jesus's own town didn't believe in him, and he was really shocked. He couldn't do anything really powerful there, because they didn't believe in him. He only touched a few sick people and made them better. Then he left Nazareth, and went to other towns, and taught God's word to the people there.

Jesus sent out his 12 special workers

<sup>7-11</sup> Jesus called together his 12 special workers. He told them, "You have to go to every town and tell my message to the people. Let them take care of you when you go there. Don't take a bag, or food, or money, or spare clothes with you. Just take your shoes and a walking stick. After you get to a town, if the people in that town are happy for you to stay there, just stay in one house. Don't move around to different houses. But if the people in that town don't want you to be there, and if they will not listen to you, then you have to go away from that town. As you leave it, shake the dirt off your feet. That will show those people that they will get trouble. It will be like you are telling them, 'You didn't take any notice of my message, so God will judge you and punish you.’ ”*

And Jesus told his special workers, “I’m giving you my power to force bad spirits out from people.” Then Jesus split them up into 6 teams with 2 men in each team, and he sent them out to do God’s work. <sup>12</sup> So his special workers went to other towns, and they told everyone to turn around, to change their lives, and to come back to God’s way. <sup>13</sup> Those men forced a lot of bad spirits out of people. And they put olive oil on a lot of sick people, like medicine for them, and those sick people got better.*

Herod killed John the Baptist

<sup>14-29</sup> This is the story about what happened to John, the man that baptised people. The big boss over that country was Herod, and his brother was Philip. Philip’s wife’s name was Herodias. But Herodias left Philip, and Herod married her.

John kept on telling Herod, “You are breaking God’s law. You shouldn’t have your brother’s wife.” Herodias hated John for saying that, and she wanted to kill him, but Herod sent some soldiers to grab John and keep him in jail, so Herodias couldn’t do anything to him. John was a good man, one of God’s own men, so Herod respected John, and he was a bit frightened of him too. Herod used to talk with John. He didn’t really understand John’s message, but he liked to listen to him.

Some time later, Herod had a birthday party. All the leaders of Herod’s army, and the government bosses from Galilee country, they were all there at Herod’s party.

Herodias’s daughter danced for them at that party. Herod and everybody else really liked to watch her dance. She made them really happy, so Herod made a strong promise to her. He told her, “I want to give you something really good. You can ask for anything. I will give you anything you ask for, even as much as half of this country. This is true. I’m not lying.”

That young girl went outside and asked her mother, “What will I ask for?”

Her mother said, “Go back in and ask the big boss to send a soldier to cut off John the Baptist’s head and give it to you.”

The girl ran back into the party and said to Herod, “I want you to give me John the Baptist’s head on a big plate, and I want it right now.”

When Herod heard her say that, he was really sad. But he didn’t want to break his promise. He didn’t want to feel shame in front of his friends, so he sent a soldier to cut off John’s head, and to bring it back to the girl on a big plate.

The soldier went to the jail, and he cut off John’s head, and he brought it back to the party, and he gave it to the young girl, and then she gave it to her mother.

John’s friends heard the bad news, so they came and got his body, then they took it away and buried it.

Herod was worried about Jesus

Later lots of people heard about what Jesus was doing, and they talked about him all the time. Some people said, “Jesus is really Elijah, that old man that told God’s messages a long time ago. God made him alive again.”

Some other people said, “Jesus is a man talking for God, just like those other men that told God’s messages a long time ago.”

But some people reckoned, “Jesus is really John the Baptist. God made John alive again, and God gave him power to do great things.”

Herod heard those stories, and he said, “I got my soldiers to cut John’s head off, but this man, Jesus, he has to be John the Baptist. I reckon God made him alive again.”*

Jesus fed more than 5,000 people

<sup>30</sup> Some time later, Jesus’s 12 special workers came back from telling his message to all the towns. They stood around Jesus and told him everything they did, and everything they taught the people in the towns.

<sup>31</sup> While they were talking, lots of other people kept on coming up to Jesus, and Jesus and his followers didn’t have time to eat any food. So Jesus said to his followers, “Let’s go to a quiet place out bush, so that we can rest for a while.”

<sup>32</sup> Then Jesus and his followers got into a boat and started to go across the lake, to a quiet place away from all the people. But lots of people saw them leave. <sup>33</sup> Those people were from a lot of different towns, but they knew the place that Jesus and his special workers were going to, so they ran around the side of the lake, and they got there first, before the boat.

<sup>34</sup> Then Jesus and his special workers got to that place, and they got out of the boat. Jesus looked at the mob of people waiting for him, and he felt sad for them. They didn’t have anyone looking after them. They were like a mob of sheep that had

* 6:13 James 5:14 * 6:14-29 Matthew 16:14; Mark 8:28; Luke 3:19-20; 9:19 * 6:34 Numbers 27:17; 1 Kings 22:17; 2 Chronicles 18:16; Ezekiel 34:5; Matthew 9:36

nobody to take care of them. So Jesus started to teach them lots of things.*

<sup>35</sup> At the end of the day, Jesus's followers went to him and said, "It's nearly time for the sun to go down, and we are way out here in the bush. <sup>36</sup> You have to send the people away from here so that they can find some food. They can go to a nearby farm or to a town, to buy some food to eat."

But they said, "What? We haven't got that much food. Do you want us to go and buy a lot of bread for them? That will cost thousands of dollars."

They came back to him and said, "We've got 5 loaves of bread and 2 fish."

<sup>39-40</sup> Jesus told his followers to get the people to sit on the green grass in groups, maybe about 50 people in each group, or maybe 100 people.

<sup>41</sup> Then Jesus picked up the bread and the fish, then he looked up to the sky, and he said, "Thank you God for this bread and this fish." Then Jesus broke the bread and the fish into bits, and he gave them to his followers to give to the people.

<sup>45</sup> As soon as they finished eating, Jesus told his followers, "Get into the boat and row across the lake, to the place called Bethsaida. I will follow you mob some time later."

Then he started telling all the people, "You mob can all go home now. Goodbye."

<sup>46</sup> After he said goodbye to them, Jesus went up into the hills to pray.

Jesus walked on top of water

<sup>47</sup> Then night time came, and Jesus was still alone on the land, and the boat was half-way across the lake.

<sup>48</sup> Later that night, Jesus looked out and saw that his followers were having a hard time rowing the boat. The wind was stopping them. Just before day-light, Jesus walked to them on top of the water, and it looked like he was going to keep going past them.

<sup>49-50</sup> His followers saw him walking on the water, and they thought he was a ghost. They got really frightened, and they screamed. Straight away, Jesus said to them, "It's all right. It's me, I'm Jesus. Don't be frightened."

<sup>51</sup> Then Jesus got into the boat with his followers, and straight away the wind stopped blowing. The men in the boat were surprised. <sup>52</sup> They still couldn't understand about Jesus. They saw what he did with the bread and the fish the day before, but they couldn't work it out. It was like their brains were no good.

Jesus made a lot of sick people better

<sup>53</sup> Then they got to the dry land again, in the country called Gennesaret, and they tied up the boat. <sup>54</sup> A lot of people saw Jesus getting out of the boat, and they knew who he was, <sup>55</sup> so they ran around everywhere in that country, and they put the sick people on swags, and they carried them to Jesus, to wherever people said that Jesus was. <sup>56</sup> Jesus went to little towns, and to big towns in that country. Wherever he went, the people carried their sick friends and family to the middle of the town, and they put them on the ground. Those sick people asked Jesus if they could touch his clothes, and everyone that touched his clothes got better.

Some people teach rules that don't come from God

<sup>1-4</sup> There were some Jewish law teachers, and some of the Pharisee mob, that were strong for the Jewish law, they went from Jerusalem to see Jesus and his followers. A long time before that, those mobs made up a lot of rules that are not in God's book. One of those rules that they made up was this. Before they could eat anything, they had to wash their hands in a special way, and after people came home from the shops, they had to wash that same way. There were other rules too, that those leaders made up, a long time ago. They had rules about the way to wash cups, and billycans, and cooking pots, and the chairs they sat on to eat their food. Those rules didn't come from God.

After they got there from Jerusalem, they saw that some of Jesus's followers didn't wash their hands that special way before they ate food. <sup>5</sup> So they said to Jesus, "Your followers are going wrong. They are not following the rules that our old leaders gave us a long time ago. They didn't wash their hands the right way before they started to eat their food. You have to make them follow the rules properly."

<sup>6</sup> Jesus said to them, "You mob tell everyone you are good, but really, you are not good. You know the man that was called Isaiah. He lived a long time ago, and he told God's messages. He wrote true words about you, and they are in God's book. He wrote,

"These people show respect to me with their mouths, but really, they think another way.

but, really, they rubbish me.

You see, they teach rules that men made up themselves, and they tell everybody that those rules come from God.*

<sup>8</sup> You mob are just like that. You turn your back on God's law, but you are strong on the rules that men made up."

<sup>9</sup> And Jesus kept on talking to them. He said, "You mob are tricky in the way you turn your back on God's law, and follow your own rules. <sup>10</sup> You see, God told Moses to tell everyone to look after their old people. Moses wrote this law, 'You have to respect your father and mother.'

And he also wrote,

'You have to punish anyone that rubbishes their father or mother. You have to kill that person.'

<sup>11</sup> But you mob reckon that somebody can tell their father or mother, 'I want to help you old people, but I'm sorry. I know that you need that thing, but I promised to give it to God, so I can't give it to you.'

<sup>12</sup> You reckon that if a person says that to their father or mother, they don't have to help their father or mother. <sup>13</sup> When you tell people that, you take God's word away from them, so they will just follow the rules that you made up. You do all sorts of wrong things like that all the time."

<sup>14</sup> Then Jesus called out to all the people to come and listen to him. He said, "Listen to me, everyone, and try to understand what I'm saying. <sup>15-16</sup> It's not the things you eat that make you no good. Don't worry about what goes into you, but worry about what comes out of you. It's the things that come out of you that make you no good."

<sup>17</sup> After that, Jesus stopped talking to all the people, and he went into his house to take a break. His followers went in with him, and they asked him what he meant by the words he just told the people. <sup>18-19</sup> Jesus said, "What's wrong with you? You still don't understand what I'm saying. Listen. If you eat something, it goes into your belly, then, some time later, it goes out of your body into the toilet. It doesn't go into your brain. So God will not say, 'You ate the wrong food and made yourself no good.' No, he will not say that." (Jesus said that about food, and he made it clear for us that every sort of food is all right.)

<sup>20-23</sup> Then Jesus kept on teaching his followers. He said, "People think inside their heads about bad things, and then they go wrong. They do those bad things, and that makes them no good. These are the things they might do.

- They might think about all sorts of bad things.

- They might sleep with somebody that is not their own husband or wife, and do what married people do together.

- They might steal things.

- They might murder somebody.

- They might sleep with somebody else's husband or wife, as if they are married to them.

- They might be greedy, and try to get lots of money and things.

- They might do really bad things.

- They might trick people.

- They might do the first bad thing that they think about.

- They might want to get something that other people have.

- They might rubbish people.

- They might think that they themselves are great.

- They might only think about what they want for themselves, and do really stupid things.

All those bad things come from people thinking the wrong way inside their heads, and those things make people no good."

A woman that was not Jewish trusted Jesus

<sup>24</sup> After that, Jesus left Galilee country and went north to a town called Tyre. The people that lived in Tyre were not Jewish people. Jesus and his followers stayed at somebody's house there. He didn't want other people to know that he was in that house. But a lot of people heard that he was there.

<sup>25-26</sup> There was a woman in that town that was not a Jewish woman. She was from a place called Fonisha, in Syria country. Her daughter had a bad spirit inside her, so that woman went to Jesus to get help. She got down on her knees in front of Jesus, to show him respect, and she asked him to force the bad spirit out of her daughter.

* 7:7 Isaiah 29:13 * 7:10 Exodus 20:12; 21:17; Leviticus 20:9; Deuteronomy 5:16

take their food and throw it to the dogs. Well, that is a picture of me. I belong to the Jewish nation. I have to look after my own people first, not you people that are not Jewish."

<sup>28</sup> The woman said, "Yes, teacher, you are right about that, but while the kids in that picture story are eating, they drop a few little bits of food, and the dogs under the table can eat those little bits of food. So you can still do a little thing to help me, even though I'm not Jewish."

<sup>30</sup> Then the woman went home and found her daughter lying down quietly on a bed. The bad spirit was not in her any more.

Jesus made a deaf man better

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus left Tyre and walked back through another town called Sidon. Then he went around the north of Lake Galilee to the country everyone called Ten Towns.

<sup>32</sup> Some people brought a man to Jesus. That man was deaf, and he couldn't talk properly. His friends asked Jesus strongly to put his hand on their friend and make him better.

<sup>33</sup> Jesus took the man away from all the other people there and put his fingers in the man's ears. He spat and touched the man's tongue. <sup>34</sup> Then Jesus looked up into the sky and prayed for the man. He talked in their language. He said, "Efatha." That means, Open up. <sup>35</sup> And straight away, that man could hear properly, and his tongue was better so he could talk properly.

But they didn't listen to Jesus. Jesus kept on telling them not to talk about it, but they just kept on telling other people, "Jesus made that man better."

<sup>37</sup> Everyone was really surprised, and they said to each other, "Jesus does everything properly. He does really good things for people. He makes deaf people better, so they can hear again. And people that can't talk, he makes them better too, so they can talk."

Jesus fed 4,000 men

<sup>1</sup> Jesus kept on teaching the people in that country. A big mob of people stayed there and listened to him for 3 days. And in that time, they finished up all their food. <sup>2</sup> Jesus called to his followers to come to him, and he said, "I feel really sorry for this mob. They are hungry, and they haven't got anything to eat. <sup>3</sup> I can't send them home like this. Some of them have walked a long way to get here, and if they start walking home now, they will get weak and fall down. We have to give them some food."

The men said, "7 loaves of bread."

<sup>6</sup> Then Jesus told the people to sit down on the ground. Then he picked up the 7 loaves of bread and said, "Thank you God for this bread." Then Jesus broke it into bits and gave it to his followers, and they gave it out to all the people.

<sup>7</sup> Somebody had some little fish there, and they gave them to Jesus, and he said, "Thank you God for these fish." Then Jesus also gave the fish to his followers, to give out to the people.

<sup>8</sup> They all ate and ate until they were full, and there was a lot of food that they didn't eat. Then they picked up all those left-over bits of food, and they filled up 7 baskets with it. <sup>9</sup> There were 4,000 men in that big mob. After they finished eating that food, Jesus told them to go home.

Some of the Pharisee mob asked Jesus to show everyone his power

<sup>11</sup> There were some of the Pharisee mob at that place. They were strong for the Jewish law. They heard people say that Jesus was there, so they came to talk to him. They wanted to trick him, so they started to argue with him. They said, "Hey, show us that God sent you here. Do something powerful so we can see that you have special power from God."*

<sup>12</sup> Jesus was a little bit upset. He breathed deeply and said, "You mob that are alive today always want to see something powerful, and if I don't do something powerful, you will not believe that I came from God. Listen, I will not do anything powerful for you mob here now."* <sup>13</sup> Then Jesus and his followers walked away from that Pharisee mob, and they got into a boat and went across to the other side of the lake.

<sup>14</sup> But, before they got into the boat to go across the lake, Jesus's followers forgot to buy more food. So they only had one loaf of bread with them.

<sup>15</sup> Jesus talked straight to his followers. He said, "You know how we make damper. We put some baking powder into the flour to make it swell up. Well, I'm telling you this, stay away from the baking powder that comes from the Pharisee mob, that are strong for our law, and stay away from the baking powder that comes from Herod, the big boss."*

<sup>17</sup> Jesus knew what they said to each other, and he said, "Why are you mob arguing about food? You still haven't learned about me. You don't understand me. Maybe your minds are closed. <sup>18-19</sup> You've got eyes, but you don't look. You've got ears, but you don't listen. Do you remember the time we had 5 loaves of bread, and I gave food to 5,000 men? How many baskets of left-over bits did you pick up?"*

They said, "12 baskets full."

<sup>20</sup> Then Jesus said, "Do you remember the time we had 7 loaves of bread, and I gave food to 4,000 men? How many baskets of left-over bits did you pick up?"

They said, "7 baskets full."

<sup>21</sup> Then Jesus asked them, "So how come you still don't understand about me?"

Jesus made a blind man see again

<sup>25</sup> So Jesus put his hands on the man's eyes again. Then the man carefully looked around again, and his eyes were properly better, and he saw everything clearly.

<sup>26</sup> Jesus told the man to go straight home. He said, "As you walk home, don't go into that town. Don't let anyone see that I made you better."

Peter told Jesus, "You are the special man that God promised to send"

<sup>27</sup> Then Jesus and his followers left Galilee country, and they went north to some towns in the country called Caesarea-Philippi. As they walked along the track, Jesus asked his followers, "When people talk about me, who do they reckon I really am?"

<sup>28</sup> They said, "They reckon you are one of God's men that died, but then God made you come alive again. Some people reckon you are John the Baptist. Other people reckon you are Elijah, that man that lived a long time ago. And other people reckon you are one of those other men that told God's messages a long time ago."*

<sup>29</sup> Then Jesus asked them, "Who do you reckon I really am?"

Peter said straight out, "You are the Christ, the special man that God promised to send to save us."*

<sup>30</sup> Jesus told them strongly, "Don't say that to anyone else. Don't tell anyone about me."

Jesus told his followers, "They will kill me"

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus told his followers about the bad things that were going to happen to him. He said, "I am God's special man from heaven, but our Jewish elders, and our ceremony bosses, and our law teachers, they will all reckon I'm no good. They will hurt me badly in lots of ways, and they will kill me. I will be dead for 2 nights, then on the 3rd day I will come alive again."

<sup>32</sup> Jesus talked straight to them, but Peter couldn't believe it. He took Jesus away from the others and told him not to talk like that. <sup>33</sup> Jesus turned around and looked at his other followers there, then he said strongly to Peter, "Go away from me. You are like Satan, the boss over the bad spirits. You are not thinking God's way. You are just thinking like a man."

<sup>34</sup> Then Jesus called out to all the people that were there. He called them to come up close, with his followers, and he said to them all, "If any of you wants to follow me properly, you have to stop thinking only about yourself. You have to live like me. You have to be ready to die, yes, die like

* 8:15 Luke 12:1 * 8:18-19 Jeremiah 5:21; Ezekiel 12:2; Mark 4:12 * 8:28 Mark 6:14-15; Luke 9:7-8 * 8:29

John 6:68-69 * 8:34 Matthew 10:38; Luke 14:27

a criminal on a cross, just like I will die.*

<sup>35</sup> If you only want to look after your own life here on earth, you will lose it. You will not live for ever with me. But if you are ready to give up your life here, and live my way, and tell other people the good news about me, then you will find real life, and you will live with me for ever.*

<sup>38</sup> You know that some people are really bad, and they don't take any notice of God. If you are frightened of them, so that you don't tell them about me, and you don't say that you belong to me, then later, I will not say that you belong to me. I'm God's special man from heaven, and one day my father, God, will make me really great, and I will come back here to the earth, with all God's angel messengers. But if you don't tell people now that you belong to me, then when I come back here, I will not say that you belong to me."

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus said, "Listen, some of you people will see a very special thing. God will show you that he is boss over everything, and you will see that he is really powerful. You will see that happen before you die."

3 men saw Jesus become bright and shiny

<sup>5-6</sup> Peter, James and John were very surprised and frightened, and they didn't know what to say. But Peter talked anyway. He said to Jesus, "Teacher, it is good that we are here. We can put up 3 special bush shades here, one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah."

<sup>7</sup> Then a cloud covered them all, and God talked to them from the cloud. He said,

"This is my son. I love him very much. You have to listen properly to him."* <sup>8</sup> Then Peter, James and John looked around for those 2 old men, but they couldn't see them any more. Only Jesus was there with them.

<sup>9</sup> Then they all started to come down from the hill. And as they walked along, Jesus told them really straight, "Don't tell anyone what you just saw. You have to wait until after I die. I'm God's special man, and I will die, and then I will come back alive again. After that, you can talk about what you saw."

<sup>10</sup> So Peter, James and John kept quiet about it. They didn't tell anyone, but they talked to each other about the words Jesus said, "I will die, and then I will come back alive again." They didn't know what Jesus meant.

<sup>11</sup> Then they asked Jesus about the Jewish law teachers. They said, "Those law teachers say that first of all Elijah has to come back, God's man that lived a long time ago. He has to come back, and after that, God will send his special man."*

<sup>12-13</sup> Jesus said, "Those law teachers are right. That man did come, and he told them God's message, just like Elijah did a long time ago. That man got things ready for me, but bad people killed him. And they will do the same to me, God's special man from heaven. They will turn against me and not listen to me, and they will hurt me a lot. A long time ago God got his men to write about that, and it is in God's book."

Jesus forced a bad spirit out of a boy

<sup>14</sup> They came back down the hill, and they found Jesus's other followers arguing with the Jewish law teachers. There were lots of people standing around. <sup>15</sup> That mob looked up and saw Jesus, and they were surprised, and they all ran to him, and they said hello to him.

<sup>17</sup> One of them said, "Teacher, my son has a bad spirit inside him, and it stops him from talking. <sup>18</sup> It pushes the boy down on to the ground, and his body goes stiff, and he rubs his teeth together, and spit comes out of his mouth. I asked your followers, 'Please force that bad spirit out of him.' But they can't do it."

<sup>19</sup> Jesus said, "Look, you mob, I've been here with you a long time, but still you don't trust God properly. I can't stay here

* 8:35 Matthew 10:39; Luke 17:33; John 12:25 * 9:7 Matthew 3:17; Mark 1:11; Luke 3:22; 2 Peter 1:17-18 * 9:11

Malachi 4:5; Matthew 11:14 and wait for you for ever. All right, bring the boy here to me.”

<sup>20</sup> The people brought the boy to Jesus. As soon as that bad spirit saw Jesus, it shook the boy and pushed him down, so that he wriggled around on the ground, and a lot of spit came out of his mouth.

The man said, “For a long time, from when he was a little kid. <sup>22</sup> Lots of times the bad spirit pushed him into fires and into water. That bad spirit is trying to kill him. Please feel sorry for us, and help him if you can.”

<sup>23</sup> Jesus said, “You said to me, ‘If you can.’ But you know that God is strong enough to do anything if you trust him to do it, right?”

<sup>25</sup> Jesus looked around, and he saw a big mob of people coming to watch, so he talked strongly to the bad spirit. He said, “Listen, you bad spirit. You stop people from talking and hearing. I'm telling you now, come out of this little boy, and stay out of him. You can never go back into him.”

<sup>26</sup> Then the bad spirit screamed, and it forced the boy to have another bad fit and fall down on the ground, then it went out of the boy. The boy looked like he was dead, and a lot of people said, “Poor boy, he's finished.” <sup>27</sup> But Jesus grabbed the boy's hand and helped him stand up. Then the boy's father took him home.

<sup>28</sup> After that, Jesus and his followers went into a house, and his followers asked him quietly, “Why couldn't we force the bad spirit out of that boy?”

<sup>29</sup> Jesus told them, “The only way you can force that sort of bad spirit out of somebody is to pray to God, and get him to force it out.”

Jesus said, “They will kill me, and after that, I will come alive again”

<sup>30-31</sup> Later Jesus and his followers left that place and went through Galilee country. He didn't want everyone to know where he was going, so they went along secretly and quietly, and he was teaching his followers as they walked along. He told them about what was going to happen to him. He said, “I'm God's special man from heaven, but bad men will grab me, and they will kill me. I will be dead for

2 nights, then on the 3rd day I will come alive again.” <sup>32</sup> His followers couldn't understand what he was talking about. But they felt shame, so they didn't ask him about it.

Jesus's followers argued about who was the most important

<sup>33-34</sup> While they walked along the road, Jesus's followers argued with each other about which one of them was the most important. Then, after they got to Capernium, they all went into a house, and Jesus asked them, “What were you arguing about on the road?” His followers didn't answer him. They felt too much shame.*

<sup>35</sup> Then Jesus sat down to teach them, and he called to his 12 special workers to come close to him, and he said, “If any one of you wants to be the leader, you have to think to yourself, ‘I'm not important at all.’ And you have to be a worker for everyone else.”*

<sup>36-37</sup> There was a young kid in that house, and Jesus picked him up and said, “Look at this little kid. If you follow me, and if you are friendly to little kids like this one, and if you help them, well, really you are friendly to me too. And if you are friendly to me, well, really you are friendly to my father in heaven too. He is the one that sent me here.”*

A man used Jesus's power to force bad spirits out of people

<sup>38</sup> John said to Jesus, “Teacher, we saw a man forcing bad spirits out of people, and he was using your power by saying your name. But he's not one of our mob. So we told him to stop.”

<sup>39</sup> But Jesus said, “No. Don't stop him. If somebody uses my power by saying my name to do good and powerful things for people, that person can't soon turn around and say bad things about me. <sup>40</sup> You see, if somebody is not trying to stop us, well, that person is really on our side.* <sup>41</sup> And listen, if somebody knows that you are my follower, and so they try to help you, even if they just give you a drink of water, God will be sure to pay that person with something good for that good thing they did.”*

The right way to live

<sup>42</sup> Jesus kept on teaching his followers. He said, “If a little kid trusts me, and if somebody gets that little kid to do something bad, God will properly punish that person. Suppose somebody gets a big stone and ties it to that person's neck and throws them into the sea and drowns them, that is bad for that person, but it is not as bad as the trouble God will give them for getting that little kid to go wrong.

<sup>43-44</sup> Look, if there is something that gets you to go wrong, you have to stop yourself. If you want to do something bad with your hand, you have to stop yourself from doing it. It is like you have to cut off your hand. It is better for you to live with God for ever with only one hand, than for God to send you to hell with 2 hands. That fire in hell never goes out.* <sup>45-46</sup> In the same way, if you want to do something bad with your foot, you have to stop yourself from doing it. It is like you have to cut off your foot. It is better for you to live with God for ever with only one foot, than for God to send you to hell with 2 feet. <sup>47</sup> It is the same for your eye. If you want to look with your eye at something, and if it gets you to do something bad, you have to look away. It is like you have to dig your eye out. It is better for you to be in God's family with only one eye, than for God to send you to hell with 2 eyes.* <sup>48</sup> Hell is a really bad place and people that go there will have bad pain all the time. It will be like maggots are eating them all the time, and like a fire is burning them all the time. Their pain will never stop.**

<sup>49</sup> Jesus also said to them, "God is going to let you have some trouble. He wants to test you to see if you are following him properly. You know how people shake salt on to food to make it good? Well, this trouble will be like God is shaking fire on to you, and it will make you good.

<sup>50</sup> You know that salt is good. It makes food better. But if that salt loses its salty taste, it is no good any more, and you can't fix it up. That is a picture of you mob. You have to be like good salt for people. You have to try to make their lives better, and don't fight with anyone, but live happy and quiet together.**

Don't split up married people

<sup>1</sup> Jesus left Capernium in Galilee and went south, through Judea to the country on the east side of the Jordan River. A lot of people went to him there, and he taught them God's word, the same as he always did.

<sup>2</sup> Some of the Pharisee mob also went to Jesus. They were strong for the Jewish law, and they tried to trick Jesus with a hard question. They said, "Is it all right for a man to break up his marriage, and send his wife away?"

<sup>4</sup> The Pharisee mob said, "Moses wrote a law like this, 'A man can split up from his wife. That man has to write a divorce letter to say she is not his wife any more. He has to give that letter to his wife, and then he can force her to go away.'**"

<sup>5</sup> Jesus said to them, "You people have closed ears, and you will not listen to God, so Moses had to write those words for you like that. <sup>6</sup> But God tells us in his book that he made people and everything else. His book says,

'He made them man and woman.'*

<sup>7</sup> And he tells us,

'A man will leave his mother and father and marry a woman. The man and his wife will join with each other, and their bodies will be like one body again.'

<sup>8</sup> So they are not 2 people any more. They are like just one body.* <sup>9</sup> You see, God joined them together like that, so don't let anyone split them up."

<sup>10</sup> After that, Jesus went back to the house with just his followers, and they asked him more about the things he said.

<sup>11</sup> Jesus said to them, "If a man splits up from his wife, and then if he marries another woman, he is sleeping with the wrong woman as if she is his proper wife. But she is not, and he is breaking God's law, and he is doing wrong to his proper wife. <sup>12</sup> And if a woman splits up from her husband, and then if she marries another man, she is sleeping with the wrong man as if he is her proper husband. But he is not, and she is breaking God's law, and she is doing wrong to her proper husband.**"

Jesus held kids in his arms

<sup>13</sup> Some time later, some people took their kids to Jesus. They wanted him to put his hands on them, and ask God to be good to them. But Jesus's followers got angry with those people and told them to take their kids away.

<sup>14</sup> Jesus saw his followers stopping the kids from coming to him, and he got upset. He said, "Don't stop those kids. Let them come to me. They are the sort of people

* 9:43-44 Matthew 5:30 * 9:47 Matthew 5:29 * 9:48 Isaiah 66:24 * 9:50 Matthew 5:13; Luke 14:34-35

God wants. You see, if you are like these little kids, God will let you join his family. <sup>15</sup> You know, little kids know they are weak and not important, so they trust their mothers and fathers and do what they say. Well, I'm telling you straight, you have to be like those kids. You have to trust God and let him be your boss. If you can't do that, you can't be in God's family.*

<sup>16</sup> Then Jesus held those kids in his arms, and he prayed for God to be good to them.

A rich man asked Jesus how to live for ever

<sup>17</sup> After that, Jesus started to leave that place. Then a man ran up to him and got down on his knees to show Jesus respect. The man said, "Teacher, you are a good man. Tell me, what can I do so that I will live with God for ever?"

<sup>18</sup> Jesus said, "You call me good, but think about it. Only God is properly good. <sup>19</sup> You know God's laws,

- Don't murder anyone.
- Don't sleep with a woman that is not your wife, as if you are married to her.
- Don't steal things that belong to other people.
- Don't tell lies about anybody.
- Don't trick people to get something from them.
- You always have to respect your father and your mother.*

<sup>20</sup> That man said, "Teacher, I always do all those things. I always lived like that, from when I was a boy."

<sup>21</sup> Jesus looked at him, and he loved him. And Jesus said, "There is still one more thing you have to do. Go and sell all your things to get some money, and give all that money to people that haven't got anything. After you do that, God will be really happy with you. And later, in heaven, he will give you lots of other good things. So go and do what I told you, then come with me, and follow me."

<sup>22</sup> That man heard what Jesus said, and he got really sad. He was a rich man, but Jesus told him to give all his things away. That made him very sad, and he just walked away with his eyes looking down.

<sup>23</sup> After that man left, Jesus looked around at his followers, and he said, "It's really hard for rich people to join God's family and to let him be their boss."

<sup>24-25</sup> This shocked Jesus's followers. So he told them more. He said, "It is hard for anyone to let God be their boss. Think about a big camel. Do you reckon it can go through the little hole in a needle? No, it can't. But I'm telling you, it's more easy for a big camel to get through that little hole, than for a rich person to get into God's family. Rich people find it really hard to let God be the boss over their lives."

<sup>26</sup> This shocked Jesus's followers, and they said to each other, "Is there anyone that God will save and take into his family? Maybe nobody."

<sup>29-30</sup> Jesus said, "Listen, if anyone leaves anything, so that they can tell people God's good news, they will get back more than they leave. If somebody leaves their home, or their brothers, or their sisters, or their mother, or their father, or their kids, or their land, so that they can follow me and tell people God's good news, they will get a much better life. They will get a lot more homes, a lot more brothers and sisters, a lot more mothers, a lot more kids, and a lot more land. But I have to tell you this too. If they do this work for me, they will get trouble from other people. But later they will live with God for ever.

<sup>31</sup> People that are important leaders today will find out later that they are nothing. God will make them workers for everybody. And people that are just workers today will be the important leaders later.*

Jesus told his followers, "They will kill me"

<sup>32</sup> Then Jesus and his followers walked along the road towards Jerusalem, and Jesus went ahead of his followers. Jesus's special workers were shocked because there were people in Jerusalem that wanted to make big trouble for Jesus, but he wanted to go there anyway. And his other followers were frightened too.

Then Jesus stopped walking, and he took his 12 special workers away from the other people, and he told them what was going to happen to him later. <sup>33</sup> Jesus said, "We are all going to Jerusalem, and after we get there, somebody will change sides, and he will help the other mob catch me. That other mob are the bosses of our Jewish ceremonies and our law teachers. I'm God's special man from heaven, but those Jewish leaders will grab me and take me to the Roman bosses. The Jewish leaders will say that I'm guilty, and they will tell the Romans to kill me. <sup>34</sup> Then the Romans will make fun of me, and spit on me. They will hit me with whips, and then they will kill me. I will be dead for 2 nights, then on the 3rd day I will come alive again."

James and John asked Jesus to make them important

<sup>35</sup> Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, went up to Jesus and said, "Teacher, we want you to do something good for us. Will you do what we ask you?"

<sup>37</sup> They said, "Later you will be the most important leader. Can you make us the next most important? Can you let one of us sit on one side of you, and the other one sit on the other side of you?"

<sup>38</sup> Jesus said, "You 2 don't understand what you are asking me. People will give me a really hard time. Do you reckon you can stay strong for God even when people give you a really hard time? I will have really bad pain. It's like I will have to drink really bad drink, like poison. I will even die."*

So Jesus said, "You are right. You will get the same hard time as me, and you will get bad pain like I will get. <sup>40</sup> But I can't give you what you want. God is the one that picks the people that will be the important leaders, and he picks the people that will sit beside me later on."

<sup>41</sup> Jesus's other 10 special workers heard what James and John asked for, and they got angry. <sup>42</sup> So Jesus called them all together and said, "You know what government people are like here in this world. They like to be bosses over everybody. It is like that everywhere in this world, the leaders boss everyone around, and the big bosses like to show everyone that they are strong. <sup>43-44</sup> But I don't want you to be like that. If you want to be a leader of my people, you have to really want to help them, so you have to work hard for them, and don't think about pay. And if you want to be the most important person, you have to be a worker for everyone."* <sup>45</sup> You see, all the leaders of my people have to be like that. They have to be just like me. I'm God's special man from heaven, but I didn't come here to be bossy and get people to work for me. I came here to work for other people. And I came here to die for a lot of people. I will let God punish me instead of them. He will punish me for the bad things that they did."

A blind man was sitting at the side of that road, asking people to give him money so that he could buy some food. He was called Bartimayus. His father's name was Timayus.

<sup>47</sup> Bartimayus heard that Jesus from Nazareth, was coming along the road, so he started to yell out, "Jesus, you belong to David's family, and you are the man that God promised to send to us. Please feel sorry for me, and help me."

<sup>48</sup> A lot of the people there told him to be quiet, but he kept on yelling out even louder, "You belong to David's family, and you are the man that God promised to send to us. Please feel sorry for me, and help me."

So they called out to the blind man, and they said, "Listen, Jesus is calling out for you. So you can be happy now. Get up and go to him."

<sup>50</sup> That blind man jumped up. He didn't worry about his coat. He left it behind on the ground. He just got up and walked to Jesus. <sup>51</sup> Jesus asked him, "What do you want me to do for you?"

That blind man said, "Teacher, I just want to see again."

<sup>52</sup> Jesus said to him, "You believe in me, so now you can see again. You can go home now." Straight away, Bartimayus could see again, and he joined in with the other people and followed Jesus along that road.

Jesus went into Jerusalem on a donkey

<sup>1</sup> Jesus and his followers kept going, and they got near to Jerusalem. They came to the 2 towns called Bethany and Bethfage, on the hill called Olive Trees Hill.

<sup>2</sup> Then Jesus told 2 of his followers to go to a town nearby. He said, "As soon as you get there you will see a donkey tied to a post. Nobody ever rode that young donkey yet. I want you to untie that donkey and bring it to me. <sup>3</sup> If anyone asks you why you are taking that donkey, you can say,

* 10:38 Luke 12:50 * 10:43-44 Matthew 23:11; Mark 9:35; Luke 22:25-26

'Our leader needs it for a while, but don't worry, he will send it back to you later.' "

<sup>4</sup>The 2 men went into the town, and they found the donkey near the door of a house, then they started to untie him. <sup>5</sup>Some people standing there said to them, "What are you doing? Why are you untying that young donkey?" <sup>6</sup>Jesus's followers told them what Jesus said, and then those people let them take the donkey and go.

"God, you are really great and powerful. God, we want you to look after the man you have sent. Make him strong and happy.

<sup>10</sup>God, please make this man our big boss, just like David was our big boss. David was our grand-father that lived a long time ago.

God in heaven, you are very great and powerful."*

<sup>11</sup>Then Jesus got to Jerusalem, and he went into God's ceremony house. He looked around at everything that was going on there. The sun was starting to go down, so Jesus left God's ceremony house, and he and his 12 special workers went back to Bethany.

Jesus cursed a fruit tree

<sup>12-13</sup>The next morning, Jesus and his followers started to walk from Bethany back to Jerusalem. Jesus saw a tree not far away. It was the sort of tree that gets fruit, called figs. Jesus was hungry, so he went to look for some figs on that tree, but there was nothing. It had lots of leaves, but no fruit. You see, it was not yet the right time of the year for that sort of fruit.

<sup>14</sup>His followers heard Jesus say to that tree, "Nobody will ever eat any fruit from you again."

Jesus stopped people selling things in God's ceremony house

<sup>15</sup>Then Jesus and his followers went into Jerusalem, and they went to God's ceremony house. Inside that house people were buying and selling animals and pigeons, to use in their ceremonies. And other people were taking people's Roman money and giving them Jewish money, to give to the bosses of God's ceremony house. But they did those things inside that house. They didn't respect God's house, so they were wrong. So Jesus hunted all those people out of God's ceremony house. He hunted out all the men that sold things, and the people that bought things, and those people that changed money. He knocked over their tables with their money on them, and he knocked over the chairs of the men that sold pigeons. <sup>16</sup>He wouldn't let anyone carry those things through God's ceremony house.

<sup>17</sup>Then Jesus taught everyone. He said, "Do you know what God says? These words are in his book,

'God wants his special house to be a place for people from every tribe to come and pray in.'

But you mob turned God's house into a place where criminals steal money from people."*

<sup>18</sup>The Jewish law teachers and the bosses of the Jewish ceremonies heard about what Jesus did at God's house, and they were angry. But all the other people were really happy with Jesus. Whenever he taught them, they listened to him, and they were really surprised by the things he said. So the Jewish leaders were frightened of him. They thought that maybe everyone was going to listen to Jesus and stop listening to them. So those leaders started to work out a way to kill Jesus.

The fruit tree died

<sup>20</sup>In the morning, Jesus and his followers walked past that fruit tree that he talked to the day before. They looked at it. It was dead and dry, right down to the ground. <sup>21</sup>Peter remembered the words Jesus said to it, and Peter said, "Teacher, that tree you cursed is already dead and dry."

<sup>22</sup>Jesus said, "If you trust God properly, you can do things like that too. <sup>23</sup>Listen, if you ask God to do something, and if you really trust him to do it, then he will do it for you. If you trust him properly, you can even say to a big hill, 'God will pick you up and throw you into the sea,' and God will do it."*

<sup>24</sup>So I'm telling you, if you ask God for something, and if you trust him properly,

* 11:10 Psalm 118:25-26

* 11:17 Isaiah 56:7; Jeremiah 7:11

that is, if you believe that he will give you that thing, then God will make it happen for you.

<sup>25-26</sup> And whenever you pray, first think about this. If somebody did a wrong thing to you, you have to let it go. Don't think about payback. If you let it go, then God will let go all the wrong things you have done too. He will say you are not guilty, and he will not do payback. So before you pray to God, you have to let go all the wrong things that people did to you.”*

The Jewish leaders asked Jesus a question

<sup>27</sup> Then Jesus and his followers went into Jerusalem, and they walked into the yard of God's ceremony house. As Jesus walked along, some Jewish leaders went up to him. They were some bosses of the Jewish ceremonies, and some law teachers, and some elders. <sup>28</sup> They asked Jesus straight, “Who told you to hunt all those people out of God's ceremony house? What big boss said that you can do that?”

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said to them, “You answer my question first. If you answer me, then I will tell you which big boss said that I can hunt those men out of God's ceremony house. <sup>30</sup> My question is about John the Baptiser. Who told him to do that washing ceremony for people? Did people tell John to do that, or did God tell him to do it?”

<sup>31</sup> Those Jewish leaders talked together to work out their answer. They said to each other, “If we say that God told John to do it, then we will be in trouble. He will say to us, ‘So why didn't you mob listen to him?’” <sup>32</sup> But we can't say that people told him to do it.” You see, those leaders were frightened of the people there. They knew that the people believed that John was God's man. So if those leaders said that John wasn't God's man, then the people might hit them.

<sup>33</sup> So the Jewish leaders said, “We don't know who told John to do that washing ceremony for people.”

Then Jesus said, “You did not answer me, so I will not answer you. I will not tell you which big boss said that I can do those things.”

12

The story about men that looked after a garden

<sup>1</sup> After that, Jesus told them all a picture story. He said, “A man planted some fruit trees in his garden. Then he built a strong fence around it, and he made all the things he needed to look after those trees properly. Then he got some men to look after those trees for him. They agreed to give him some of the fruit from that garden, instead of paying rent money for it. After that, the owner went away to another country.*

<sup>4</sup> Then the owner sent another work-man to the garden, but those men hit him on the head and said bad things to him. <sup>5</sup> After that, the owner sent another work-man to the garden, and this time the men killed him. Again and again the owner sent work-men to get some of his fruit, but the men in the garden killed some of them, and they beat up the others.

<sup>6</sup> The owner of the garden had one more person to send to get the fruit from the garden. The owner said to himself, ‘I will try one more time. I will send my son. I love him, and those men in the garden will respect him too.’ So he sent his son to that garden.

<sup>7</sup> But the men in the garden saw the owner's son, and they said to themselves, ‘After that old man dies this young man will get this garden for himself. Let's kill this man now so that we can get the garden for ourselves.’ <sup>8</sup> So they grabbed the young man, and they killed him and chucked his body out of the garden.”

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesus asked the people, “What do you reckon the owner of that garden will do? I'm telling you, he will go to the garden and kill all those men there. Then he will get other people to look after the garden for him.”

<sup>10</sup> Then Jesus said, “You mob can read this picture story in God's book, so think about its message. God said,

‘Some workers built a house out of big stones, but those workers thought one of those stones was rubbish, so they chucked it away.

They were wrong. That stone was properly good, and now God made it the most important stone of all.

<sup>11</sup> Yes, God did that, and we are really happy about it. We reckon he did something great.’ ”*

* 11:25-26 Matthew 6:14-15 * 12:1 Isaiah 5:1-2 * 12:11 Psalm 118:22-23 themselves, that they were the bad workers in the story. They got angry, and they wanted to grab Jesus and take him to jail. But they were frightened of the big mob of people there, so they just walked away and left him alone.

<sup>13</sup> Then the Jewish leaders sent some other men to try to trick Jesus. They sent some of the law men that were called Pharisees, and they sent some men that were good friends of Herod. Herod was the big government boss at that time. Those men tried to get Jesus to say something wrong, so they could make trouble for him.

<sup>14</sup> They said to Jesus, "Teacher, we know that you always want to do the right thing, and you always say true words. You talk to everyone the same way, people that are important and people that are not important. You always teach God's words the right way. Well, we have a question about the Roman government bosses over our country. Is it right or wrong for us Jews to pay tax money to them?"

<sup>15</sup> Jesus knew that if he said, "Don't pay that tax money," then he will be in trouble with the Roman bosses, and if he said, "Pay that tax money," then he will be in trouble with the Jewish people. They wanted to be free from the Roman bosses. So Jesus said, "Don't try to trick me. Have you got some money? I want to look at a coin."

<sup>16</sup> The men gave Jesus a coin. He looked at it and said, "Who is this on this money? Whose picture is this? And whose name is this?"

They said, "That is Caesar, the Roman government's big boss."

<sup>17</sup> Jesus said, "Well, you have to give Caesar and the Roman government whatever belongs to them, and you have to give God whatever belongs to him."

When they heard him say that they were all really surprised.

Other people asked Jesus a tricky question

<sup>18</sup> There were some Jewish people that believed that after somebody dies they will stay dead, and they will never come alive again. They were called Sadducees. They tried to trick Jesus too.* <sup>19</sup> They said to him, "Teacher, Moses wrote down God's law like this, he said, 'If a married man has no kids, and if he dies, then his brother has to marry his widow. Then they have to have kids, and everyone will call those kids that dead brother's kids.'*

<sup>20</sup> But what about this. There were 7 brothers. The oldest brother got married, but he died before his wife could have a baby. <sup>21</sup> So the next brother married that woman to follow God's law, but he died too, before they could have a baby. Then the next brother did the same, but he died too, before they could have a baby. <sup>22</sup> The same happened to all of those brothers. They all followed God's law and married the woman, but each of them died before they could have any kids. And then last of all, that woman died too.

<sup>23</sup> Well, you reckon that one day all the dead people will come alive again. So here is our question. If all those brothers and that woman come alive again, which brother will have that woman as his wife? All 7 brothers had her as their wife before they died."

<sup>24</sup> Jesus said, "You mob have a problem. You don't know God's word properly, and you don't know about God's power. <sup>25</sup> You see, after all the dead people come alive again, they will be like God's angel messengers in heaven. Those angels never marry each other. And people that come alive again will be the same. Nobody will promise a wife to anyone, and nobody will marry anyone.

<sup>26-27</sup> You mob reckon that dead people will never come alive again, but think about this story about Moses. You can read it in God's book. Moses saw a little tree on fire, and then God said to him,

'I am the God of Abraham, and I am the God of Isaac, and I am the God of Jacob.'

He didn't say, 'At one time, I used to be the God of those men.' He said that he is their God now. That means those men are alive, not dead. They are living right now, with God. You see, you mob are really wrong."*

The most important laws

<sup>28</sup> One of the Jewish law teachers listened to Jesus and thought that Jesus answered them well. Then he asked Jesus, "Which one of God's laws is the most important one?"

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said to him, "The most important law is this one,

'Listen to me, you Israel people, our God is the only God.

He is the number one boss over everybody.

<sup>30</sup> You have to love God properly, not just a little bit. You have to love God from right inside yourself.

You have to love God in the way you feel, and in the way you think.

* 12:18 Acts 23:8 * 12:19 Deuteronomy 25:5 * 12:26-27 Exodus 3:6, 15 * 12:30 Deuteronomy 6:4-5

And you have to love God in the way you do things.’*

<sup>31</sup> The 2nd most important law is this one, ‘You have to love other people just as much as you love yourself.’*

Those 2 laws are the strongest and most important laws.”

<sup>32</sup> The Jewish law teacher said, “That is a good answer, teacher. God is the number one boss over everybody. There is no other god, just him.” <sup>33</sup> We have to love God properly, not just a little bit. We have to love God from right inside ourselves. We have to love God in the way we feel, and in the way we think. And we have to love God in the way we do things. That is really important for us. It is not so important for us to do ceremonies, like we do when we burn meat to give it to God.”*

<sup>34</sup> Jesus heard the man’s words and knew this man was thinking the right way, so Jesus said, “You are right. You are nearly ready for God to take you into his family.”

After that, nobody was brave enough to ask Jesus any more questions to try to trick him.

Jesus taught people in God’s special house

<sup>35</sup> Then Jesus taught people in the yard of God’s ceremony house. He said, “You know that David lived a long time ago, and now our Jewish law teachers say that one of his grand-sons will be the special man that God promised to send, called the Christ. What do they mean by that?”

<sup>36</sup> Think about this. God’s Holy Spirit told David to write these words, and they are in God’s book. He wrote,

‘God said to my boss, “Come here and sit down beside me until I make you boss over all your enemies.”’*

<sup>37</sup> You know, David was talking about that special man that God was going to send, and David called him boss, so how can that man be David’s grand-son?”

A lot of people listened to his words, and they were really happy with him.

<sup>38</sup> Jesus kept on teaching the people. He said, “Look out for those Jewish law teachers. They think they are great. They wear real good clothes so that people will think they are important. They like people to say hello to them whenever they go shopping. <sup>39</sup> Those law teachers want everyone to respect them, so they want to have special chairs at the meeting houses, and if they go to parties, they want to have special places to sit. <sup>40</sup> But they do bad things. They trick old women that haven’t got anybody to look after them. They take everything off those women. They take their houses and all their things, and then those law teachers go to the meeting house and say long prayers, so that people will think they are good. They just pretend to live God’s way. You know, God will punish them more than he will punish the other people that do bad things.”

A poor widow gave money to God

<sup>41</sup> Then Jesus sat down near the money box at God’s ceremony house, and he watched the people put money in the box to give it to God. Some rich people put in a lot of money. <sup>42</sup> But then a poor widow woman came in, and she didn’t put much money into the money box. She just put in 2 very little coins.

<sup>43-44</sup> Jesus called his followers to him and said, “Listen, this poor woman gave more money than those rich people. You see, those rich people gave some of their money, but they still have lots more back at their homes. But that poor woman gave all the money she had. She kept nothing for herself, not even money to buy some food for herself.”

Jesus talked about the way everything will finish up

<sup>2</sup> Jesus said, “You see these lovely big buildings? One day, these buildings will not be here. Somebody will knock them all down. They will just be a big pile of rubbish.”

<sup>3</sup> Then Jesus and his followers went out of Jerusalem, and they sat down on the hill called Olive Trees Hill. They could see God’s ceremony house from there. Peter, James, John and Andrew talked quietly to Jesus. They asked him, <sup>4</sup> “When will somebody knock that building down? Will there be something to show us that it will soon happen?”

<sup>5</sup> Jesus said, “Listen, you have to be careful. Don’t let anybody trick you. <sup>6</sup> A lot of people will come and say, ‘I’m Jesus Christ, the man that God sent,’ and they will trick a lot of people. <sup>7</sup> You will hear stories about big fights, and somebody might tell you stories about big fights that will happen later. Don't let those stories frighten you. Those fights will happen, but the world will not finish up yet. <sup>8</sup> There will be a lot more fights. People from some tribes will get up and fight against people from other tribes, and people from some nations will get up and fight against people from other nations. And in lots of different places the ground will shake in earthquakes. And sometimes there will not be any food, and people will be really hungry. These bad things will happen, and after that, more big trouble will come. You know about women, when they have babies. At first a woman has some pain, then later her pain gets really bad. Well, the trouble I just told you about is like the first pain for a mother, and after that, the trouble will get really bad.

* 12:31 Leviticus 19:18 * 12:32 Deuteronomy 4:35; 6:4; Isaiah 45:21 * 12:33 1 Samuel 15:22; Psalm 40:6-8;

<sup>9</sup> You have to watch out. You see, you follow me, but some people don't like me, so they will not like you. They will grab you and take you to their leaders, and they will punish you. And people will beat you up in their meeting houses. They will take you to court, so that you will stand up in front of big leaders and big government bosses. Then you can tell everyone about me. <sup>10</sup> You see, people everywhere will hear about me. The people in every nation will hear the good news about me, and some time after that, the world will finish up.

<sup>11</sup> Yes, people will grab you to take you to court. But before you get there, don't worry about what you will say to the judge. The Holy Spirit will give you the right words to say, so just talk the way the Holy Spirit tells you to.*

<sup>12</sup> You see, there is going to be so much trouble that people will fight their own families. Some men will turn against their own brothers, and they will get people to kill them. And some fathers will do that to their own kids. And some kids will turn against their mothers and fathers and get people to kill them. <sup>13</sup> And everybody will know that you follow me, so they will hate you. But if you stay strong and don't give up, God will save you.**

that reads this story has to try hard to understand what it means.) And Jesus said, "When you see that happen, you mob that live in Judea country, you have to quickly run away to the hill country.* <sup>15</sup> If you are outside your house, don't go back into it to get anything. <sup>16</sup> Or if you are out working somewhere, don't go back to your house to get something, not even your coat. Just run away quick.* <sup>17</sup> It will be hard for women that are carrying babies inside them, and for mothers with little kids at that time. <sup>18</sup> You have to ask God to stop this trouble from coming at the time when the weather is bad and it's hard to go anywhere. <sup>19</sup> This trouble will give people really bad pain. People never had bad pain like that before, not in all the time since God made everything. And nothing that bad will ever happen again.* <sup>20</sup> You see, if God lets that trouble keep on going, everybody will die. But God has picked out some people, and he doesn't want them to die, so after a short time he will stop that trouble so that they will not die. <sup>21</sup> Don't believe people that say, 'We have found the Christ, the special man from God. Here he is.' Or if they say, 'There he is over there,' don't believe them.

<sup>22</sup> There will be a lot of people that will tell lies and try to trick you. Some people will say that they are the Christ, the special man from God. Other people will say that they are telling people God's words, and they might do all sorts of clever things. Those people will be thinking, 'Maybe we can trick the people that God picked out for himself.' But really, they can't do that. <sup>23</sup> So keep on being careful. You see, I'm telling you about it now, so that later, when it happens, you can be ready for it. <sup>24</sup> After that time of trouble, things will happen that God tells us about in his book. He says,

'The sun will go dark, and the moon will stop shining.

<sup>27</sup> Then he will send God's angel messengers out to every place in the world. They will not miss any place, anywhere. They will get all the people that belong to God.

* 13:11 Matthew 10:17-20; Luke 12:11-12 * 13:13 Matthew 10:22 * 13:14 Daniel 9:27; 11:31; 12:11 * 13:16

Luke 17:31 * 13:19 Daniel 12:1; Revelation 7:14 * 13:25 Isaiah 13:10; 34:4; Ezekiel 32:7; Joel 2:10, 31; 3:15;

Revelation 6:12-13 * 13:26 Daniel 7:13; Revelation 1:7

He picked out those people for himself. The angels will bring all those people to God.

<sup>28</sup> Think about this. Whenever you see new leaves on a bush tucker tree, you know that the weather's going to change soon. Those new leaves show you that. <sup>29</sup> It's the same with all these things that I'm telling you about now, they will show you something too. You will see these things happen, and you will know that I will come really soon. <sup>30</sup> Listen, there are some people alive now that will still be alive when these things happen. <sup>31</sup> One day, everything will finish up. The sky, and the ground, and everything, it will all finish up, but not my words. My words stay true for ever. They will never finish up."

Stay awake and keep on looking out

<sup>32</sup> Then Jesus said, "I'm telling you straight. Nobody knows the time when God will do these things. Nobody knows what day it will be, or what the time will be on the clock. God's angel messengers in heaven don't know. Even I don't know. My father in heaven is the only one that knows. <sup>33</sup> You don't know what time God will do these things, so you have to always be ready and keep on remembering everything I told you, like you have to stay awake and keep on looking out for me.

<sup>35-36</sup> Those workers didn't know what time that boss was going to come home. He might come after the sun goes down, or he might come in the middle of the night, or he might come as the birds call out in the morning, or he might come back after the sun comes up. So those workers have to be ready all the time. You are like those workers in that picture story, and I am like that boss. You don't know what time I will come back here, and you have to be ready for me all the time. So you have to keep on looking out for me, like that guard at the gate has to keep on looking out. Don't get lazy.

The Jewish leaders wanted to kill Jesus

It was 2 days before that ceremony was going to start, and the bosses of the Jewish ceremonies and the law teachers met together to work out a way to grab Jesus and kill him. But they wanted to grab him when nobody was looking. So those leaders said to each other, "Everybody likes Jesus, so we have to wait a bit. We can't grab him while there are lots of people here for the ceremony. They will get angry with us, and we will have a very big fight."*

<sup>3</sup> At the time, Jesus was at the town called Bethany. A man lived there that used to have a skin sickness, but then he got better. His name was Simon. Jesus went to Simon's house, and he was eating dinner there.

A woman came into the house with some special perfume in a pretty bottle. That perfume smelled really good and it cost a lot of money. She opened the bottle and poured the perfume on Jesus's head.* <sup>4</sup> Some of the people there said to each other, "Why did she waste that perfume?

<sup>5</sup> Why didn't she sell it and get a lot of money, and give that money to poor people?" And they said angry words to her too.

<sup>6</sup> But Jesus said to them, "Leave her alone. Don't make trouble for her. She did something really good to me. <sup>7</sup> You will always have poor people with you, and you can give them money whenever you want to. But I will not be here with you much longer."* <sup>8</sup> I will die soon, and people will bury my body. This woman poured the perfume on me to get my body ready. She did a good thing. <sup>9</sup> Listen. People will go everywhere in the world to tell people God's story, and they will remember this woman and they will tell people about her too, and about the good thing she did today."

Judas Iscariot turned against Jesus

<sup>10</sup> Judas Iscariot was one of the 12 men that Jesus picked out to be his special workers. But at this time he turned against Jesus, and he went to the bosses of the Jewish ceremonies, and he said, "I can help you catch Jesus."

<sup>11</sup> They heard him say that, and they were very happy. They promised to pay him money. So he waited for a good time to help them catch Jesus.

Jesus and his followers ate the Passover dinner

<sup>12</sup> The day came for people to kill a young sheep to cook it and eat it. That was the start of the ceremony time called Passover. They ate flat damper at that time too, and they remembered the time, long ago, when their grand-fathers were in Egypt, and God's angel messenger passed over them, and didn't kill any of them.

On that day, some of Jesus's followers went up to him, and they asked him, "Where do you want us all to eat this dinner? We can go and get it ready."

<sup>13</sup> Jesus said, "All right, you 2 go over there into Jerusalem city, and after you get there you will meet a man. He will be carrying a big jug of water. Follow him, and he will go into a house. <sup>14</sup> You talk to the boss over that house. You tell him, 'Our teacher wants you to show us the room you have for visitors. He wants to eat the Passover dinner there with his followers.' <sup>15</sup> Then that boss will take you upstairs to a big room that he's got set up and ready. You can get the dinner ready for us there."

<sup>17</sup> When the sun went down, Jesus and his special workers went to that house to eat the Passover dinner. <sup>18</sup> While they were eating, Jesus said to them, "Listen, one of you men, that is eating with me here right now, will turn against me and help the people that want to kill me."*

<sup>19</sup> His 12 special workers were sad, and each of them said to him, "Were you talking about me? No, not me. I will not do that."

<sup>20</sup> Jesus said, "It is one of you that is eating food with me right now. <sup>21</sup> I'm God's special man from heaven, and I have to die, just like God says in his book. But the man that helps my enemies to catch me will get really bad trouble from God. He will wish he was never born."

<sup>22</sup> After that, while they were still eating their dinner, Jesus picked up some damper and thanked God for it, then he broke it into bits and gave it to his special workers.

He said, "This damper is my body. Take a bit and eat it."

<sup>23</sup> Then he picked up the cup of wine and said thank you to God for it, and he gave it to them, and they passed it around, and each of them drank a little bit of wine.

<sup>24</sup> He told them, "This wine is my blood. I will die and pour out my blood for a lot of people. It's like this, God has agreed to save people, and I will die so he can do that. My blood will come out, and it is like I'm using my blood to sign God's new agreement with people, to say that they are not guilty of the bad things they did.* <sup>25</sup> Listen, I will not drink any wine again until the day that I sit down with God and all his family, and he will show everyone that he is the biggest boss. Then I will drink a new sort of wine with you."

<sup>26</sup> After Jesus said that, they all sang a song to God, and then they went out of that house to go to the hill called Olive Trees Hill.

Jesus talked straight to Peter

<sup>27</sup> They walked along the road, and Jesus talked to his followers. He said, "All you mob will run away and leave me. A long time ago, God got one of his men to write about this in his book. He wrote, 'God will knock down the man that looks after the sheep, and all his sheep will run away.*' He wrote those words about me. I will die, like he wrote about that man, and you will all run away. <sup>28</sup> But after that, God will make me alive again. Then I will go ahead of you to Galilee country, and I will wait for you there."*

<sup>29</sup> Peter said, "Maybe all the others will run away, but not me. No way."

<sup>30</sup> But Jesus said to him, "Listen to me, Peter. Tonight you will tell people that you don't know me. You will say that 3 times, and then a chook will yell out 2 times, just like it always does before the sun comes up."

<sup>31</sup> But Peter talked really strong to Jesus. He said, "No. People might try to force me to say that. They might even tell me that they will kill me, but I will never say that I don't know you."

All the other followers said the same thing.

Jesus prayed in the place called Gethsemane

<sup>32</sup> Jesus and his followers got to the place called Gethsemane. He said to them, "I want you to sit here and wait for me. I'm going to pray to God."

* 14:18 Psalm 41:9      * 14:24 Exodus 24:8; Jeremiah 31:31-34      * 14:27 Zechariah 13:7      * 14:28 Matthew 28:16

<sup>33</sup> He asked Peter, James and John to go with him, and they walked away from the others. <sup>34</sup> Then he said to them, "I feel really sad right now. I feel so sad, it's like I'm dying. Stay here and keep on looking out for trouble."

<sup>35</sup> Then Jesus walked away from them a little bit and lay down on the ground. <sup>36</sup> He said to God, "Father, you can do anything. You can take this trouble away from me. It's too hard for me. But you do what you want to do, not what I want."

<sup>37</sup> Jesus went back to his 3 followers and found them asleep. He said to Peter, "Wake up, Simon. Can't you stay awake with me for just one hour?" <sup>38</sup> Stay awake and pray to God so that nothing will get you to go wrong. I know that you want to do the right thing, but your body is weak and wants to sleep."

<sup>39</sup> Jesus left them again, and he prayed again. He kept on asking God the same thing. <sup>40</sup> Jesus's 3 followers were very tired, and they just couldn't stay awake. Then Jesus came back to them again, and they were asleep again. After they woke up, they felt shame, and they didn't know what to say to him.

<sup>41</sup> Jesus went away and prayed to God again. Then he came back to his 3 followers and said, "Are you still resting? You can't sleep any more now. Look. I'm God's special man from heaven, but those bad men will soon come and get me. <sup>42</sup> So get up, we have to go now. See, here is the man that is helping them catch me."

A mob of men grabbed Jesus

<sup>43</sup> Just before that time, the bosses of the Jewish ceremonies and the law teachers, and the Jewish elders, they told a big mob of men to go with Judas to grab Jesus. Those men all had long knives and fighting sticks. Judas was one of Jesus's 12 special workers, but he changed sides, and he took that mob of men to Gethsemane to grab Jesus. They got there while Jesus was talking to his followers. <sup>44-45</sup> Judas walked up to Jesus and said, "Hello teacher," and kissed him on the cheek. He did that to show those men which man they had to grab. <sup>46</sup> So they grabbed Jesus.

<sup>48</sup> Jesus said to the mob, "Why have you got all these long knives and fighting sticks? I'm not a criminal. No way. <sup>49</sup> I was always in God's ceremony house, and I taught the people there every day, but you didn't grab me then. But a long time ago, God said that you will grab me. It is in his book. So you will grab me now."*

<sup>51</sup> There was a young man there that followed along a little bit behind Jesus. He was just wearing a sheet wrapped around him. <sup>52</sup> That mob of men tried to grab him, but they only grabbed the sheet. He wriggled out of it and ran away naked.

They took Jesus to court

<sup>53-54</sup> That mob took Jesus to court at the house of the big boss of the Jewish ceremonies. All the bosses of the Jewish ceremonies, and the elders, and the law teachers, they all went to that court too.

That house had a yard with a wall around it. Peter followed a little bit behind the mob, and he followed that mob into the yard of that house, and he sat down with them near their fire.

<sup>55</sup> All the Jewish leaders there tried to get somebody to say, "We saw Jesus do bad things," so that they could kill him, but nobody told a strong story against him. <sup>56</sup> Lots of people stood up and told lies about Jesus, but they didn't agree with each other. Their stories were all mixed up.

<sup>60</sup> The big boss of the Jewish ceremonies stood up in the meeting and said to Jesus, "All those people said that you did bad things. You heard them. What do you say?" <sup>61</sup> But Jesus didn't answer him. He just kept his mouth shut.

Then that boss said, "All right, tell us this. Are you the Christ, that special man that God promised to send to save us? Are you the son of God?"

<sup>62</sup> Jesus said, "Yes, I am. I'm God's special man from heaven. And one day, you mob will all see me sitting there in heaven on the right-hand side of God, the powerful one. And you will also see me come back here in the clouds."*

* 14:49 Luke 19:47; 21:37 * 14:58 John 2:19 * 14:62 Psalm 110:1; Daniel 7:13

<sup>63-64</sup> Then that big boss of the Jewish ceremonies got so angry that he tore his clothes and said to the Jewish leaders, "Did you hear that? This man said that he is the same as God. We don't need anyone to say anything more. We heard it ourselves. So what do you reckon, did he break our law?"

They all said, "He did. He broke our law. He's got to die."* <sup>65</sup> Some of the people in that meeting spat on Jesus. They tied a rag across his eyes so that he couldn't see, then they hit him with their hands and said, "Hey. You reckon that God gives you power to know things, so tell us, who hit you?" Then the guards grabbed Jesus and hit him.

Peter said, "I don't know Jesus"

<sup>66-67</sup> All this time, Peter sat next to the fire in the yard of the big boss of the Jewish ceremonies. One of the girls that worked in that house came along and saw Peter there. She looked at him and said, "I think you were with Jesus, the man from Nazareth."

A little bit later those people there at that gate said to Peter, "You talk like the Galilee people talk, and Jesus is from Galilee, so you have to be one of his followers."

<sup>71</sup> Peter got really wild, and he said, "I'm telling you, I don't know that man. I don't know what you are talking about. God knows that this is true, or if not, he can kill me."

<sup>72</sup> Straight away, that chook yelled out again. Then Peter remembered the words Jesus said to him before, "Tonight you will tell people that you don't know me. You will say that 3 times, and then a chook will yell out 2 times." When Peter remembered these words, he was very sad, and he cried a lot.

The men of the Jewish Leaders Council took Jesus to the judge

<sup>1</sup> Early in the morning, the men of the Jewish Leaders Council talked with each other about what they will do with Jesus. That council mob were the bosses of the Jewish ceremonies, and the law teachers, and the elders. They tied Jesus's hands together, and they took him over to the big government boss. His name was Pilate. They asked him to judge Jesus. <sup>2</sup> So Pilate asked Jesus, "Are you the big boss over the Jewish nation?"

Jesus said, "Those are your words."

<sup>3</sup> The bosses of the Jewish ceremonies blamed Jesus, and they told Pilate he did a lot of bad things, but Jesus didn't say anything. <sup>4</sup> Then Pilate said to him, "They are saying lots of bad things about you. Why don't you say something for yourself?"

<sup>7-8</sup> At this Passover time, some of the Jerusalem people came to Pilate and asked him to let a prisoner go free, like he always did. They came up to Pilate while Jesus was still there. At the same time, there was a murderer in jail there. His name was Barabbas. Before that time, Barabbas and his mob fought against the government and killed some of the government people, so the soldiers grabbed him and put him in jail.

<sup>9-11</sup> Pilate knew that the bosses of the Jewish ceremonies were jealous of Jesus, and that was the only reason why they brought him to Pilate. They wanted Pilate to kill him. So when those Jerusalem people asked Pilate to let a prisoner go free, Pilate said, "All right, how about I let Jesus go? You reckon he says that he is your big boss. What do you reckon, will I let him go?"

But the ceremony bosses got all those people to be angry with Jesus, and those people told Pilate, "No. Not him. We want you to let Barabbas go free."

<sup>12</sup> Pilate said, "So what do you want me to do with this man that you Jewish people call your big boss?"

But they didn't listen. They yelled even louder, "Kill him. Nail him to a cross."

<sup>15</sup> Pilate didn't want that mob to get wild, so he did what they wanted. He let Barabbas go out of jail, and he told his Roman soldiers to hit Jesus a lot with whips. After they finished whipping him, Pilate told them to nail Jesus to a cross and leave him to die.

The soldiers made fun of Jesus

<sup>16</sup> The soldiers took Jesus outside into the yard of the big house where Pilate lived. They called out to the rest of the soldiers there to come out into that yard. <sup>17</sup> They put a purple coat on Jesus. Then they made some prickly branches into a headband that looked like a crown, like a big boss wears, and they put it on Jesus's head. <sup>18</sup> And they made fun of him. They got down on their knees in front of Jesus and said, "Hey, you reckon that you are great. And you reckon that you are the big boss over the Jewish people. But you are not." <sup>19</sup> And they kept on hitting him on the head with a stick, and they spat on him.

<sup>20</sup> When they finished making fun of him, they took off the long purple coat and put his own clothes back on him. Then they took him out to another place to kill him.

<sup>21</sup> There was a man walking past them on the road at that time. He was coming into the city from the bush. His name was Simon, and he was from the country called Cyrene. (He was the father of our friends Alexander and Rufus.) The soldiers forced Simon to carry the cross for Jesus.* <sup>22</sup> Then they got to the place called Golgotha in their language. That name means Skull Place.

<sup>23</sup> Then the soldiers tried to give Jesus some wine to drink. That wine had some medicine called myrrh mixed in it. But Jesus wouldn't drink it.

<sup>24-26</sup> Then the soldiers nailed Jesus's hands and feet to the cross. Then they stood it up, and they left him to die like that. And they made a sign and put it above his head, to say why they killed him. It said, "The big boss over the Jews." It was 9 o'clock in the morning when they nailed Jesus to that cross. After that, the soldiers gambled with each other to get his clothes.*

<sup>27-28</sup> The soldiers also nailed 2 criminals to crosses next to Jesus. One criminal was on his left-hand side, and the other criminal was on his right-hand side. <sup>29</sup> Some other people walked past Jesus and rubbished him too. They stood there and shook their heads to shame him, and they said, "You reckon you can knock down God's ceremony house, and then build it again in 3 days, do you?*" <sup>30</sup> All right, if you are so smart, save yourself. Get off the cross and come down."

<sup>31</sup> The bosses of the Jewish ceremonies and the law teachers joined in and laughed at Jesus. They said to each other, "He saved other people, but he can't save himself. <sup>32</sup> He thinks he is the Christ, the special man that God promised to send to save us. He reckons he is the big boss over us Israel nation. No way. We will not believe him unless we see him come down off that cross."

The men on the other crosses joined in too and rubbished Jesus.

Jesus died

<sup>33</sup> In the middle of the day, at about 12 o'clock, all of the country got dark, like it was night time. It stayed dark for about 3 hours, until 3 o'clock in the afternoon. <sup>34</sup> Then Jesus yelled out in his language. He said, "Eloy, Eloy, lama sabakthani?" That means, *My God, my God, why did you go away and leave me all by myself?**

<sup>37</sup> Jesus yelled out again, and then he died.

<sup>39</sup> And at the cross, the boss over those Roman soldiers stood near Jesus, and he saw the way Jesus died. Then that boss soldier said, "I reckon this man really was the son of God."

<sup>40-41</sup> There were some women there at the cross too. Before this time, those women went everywhere with Jesus in Galilee country. They looked after him there, and after that, they came with him to Jerusalem. While Jesus was dying, they stood looking from a long way off. They were Mary Magdalene, and Salomi, and the other Mary that was the mother of young James and Joses, and some other women with them.*

Joseph buried Jesus

<sup>42</sup> That day that Jesus died was the day when the Jewish people got everything ready for their rest day. That rest day was going to start when it got dark. <sup>43</sup> There was a man there that was called Joseph, and he was from a place called Arimathia. Everyone said that he was a good man, and he was one of the Jewish Leaders Council men too. He was waiting for the time when God will get all his family together and show everyone that he is the biggest boss. So when it was nearly night time, before that rest day started, he went to Pilate. He was a little bit frightened, but he went to Pilate anyway, and he asked him, "Can I get Jesus's body to take care of it our way?"

<sup>44-45</sup> Pilate was shocked. He said, "Is that man dead already?"

He sent somebody to get the boss over the soldiers, and he asked that boss soldier, "Is it true? Is that man properly dead now?"

That boss soldier told Pilate, "Yes, it is true."

Then Pilate told Joseph, "All right, you can take Jesus's body."

<sup>46</sup> So Joseph bought a good sheet, and he took Jesus's body down from the cross and wrapped it in that sheet. Then he took Jesus's body and put it in a cave to bury it. That cave was a special place to put dead bodies. It was a big hole, like a little room that somebody cut in the rock. Then Joseph rolled a big flat stone in front of that cave to block it.

God made Jesus alive again

<sup>1</sup> The next day was Saturday. It was their rest day. When the sun went down, that rest day was finished. Then some women went and bought some perfume to put on Jesus's body, so they could bury him the right way. They were Mary Magdalene, and Salomi, and Mary the mother of James. <sup>2</sup> Early on Sunday morning, when the sun was just starting to come up, they went to that cave to find Jesus's body. <sup>3</sup> As they walked along, they said to each other, "Who will roll away that big stone to open up the cave for us? It's way too big for us."

<sup>4</sup> But when the women got there they looked up and saw that the big stone was not blocking the cave any more. Somebody already came before them and rolled that big stone away.

<sup>5</sup> Then they walked into the cave, and they saw a young man sitting there on the right-hand side, wearing really white clothes. They got a big surprise. <sup>6</sup> He said to them, "Don't be frightened. You are looking for the body of Jesus, the man from Nazareth that they killed on a cross. God made him alive again. He isn't here. Look, see this place just here. They put his body here, but it isn't here now." <sup>7</sup> And he said to them, "Go back to his followers and tell them, 'You mob have to go back to Galilee country. Jesus will go there ahead of you, and when you go back there you will see him. You remember, he told you about that some time ago.' Make sure you tell that message to Peter and the other followers."*

<sup>8</sup> The women didn't know what to think. They were so frightened they were shaking. They came out of that cave and ran away. Those women were too frightened to talk to anybody. They just ran away.

Nobody knows for sure the words that Mark wrote at the end of this story about Jesus. We don't have the book that he wrote, we only have copies of it. Some of those copies end here, and some copies have the next bit from verse 9 to verse 20. Maybe somebody else wrote this ending to Mark's book.

Jesus sent his followers to tell everyone about him

<sup>9</sup> Early on Sunday morning, before those women went to the cave, Jesus came alive again. He let Mary Magdalene see him first. (Some time before this, Jesus forced 7 bad spirits out of her.) <sup>10</sup> After Mary saw Jesus, she went to his friends, the people that used to walk around with him. When she got there, they were all very sad and crying. <sup>11</sup> Mary told them, "Jesus is alive again. I have just seen him." But they didn't believe her.

<sup>12</sup> A little while after that, 2 of Jesus's other followers were walking from Jerusalem to another place out in the bush. Jesus came to them, and he let them see him, but he made himself look like a different man, so they didn't know it was him. <sup>13</sup> Then, after they found out it really was him, they turned around and quickly went back to Jerusalem, and they told Jesus's other followers that they saw Jesus. But those other followers didn't believe them.

<sup>14</sup> After that, Jesus's 11 special workers were eating food together, and Jesus came to them, and he let them see him alive. He said to them, "Why didn't you listen to those people that said they saw me? What they said was true, but you didn't believe them."

<sup>15</sup> After that, Jesus said to his followers, "You have to go out to everywhere in the world and tell everybody the good news about me. <sup>16</sup> Some people will believe your message. You have to take them through that special washing ceremony, called baptism, and God will save them. But God will not save people that don't believe that message. He will blame them and say they are guilty. <sup>17</sup> And the people that believe in me will do great things with the power that I will give them, to show everyone that they are God's people. They will force bad spirits out of people. And they will talk in different languages that they never learned. <sup>18</sup> And if they pick up a cheeku snake, it will not hurt them. And if they drink poison, it will not hurt them. And they will put their hands on sick people, and those sick people will get better."

<sup>19</sup> After Jesus finished telling his followers all those things, God took him up to heaven. And Jesus sat down at the right-hand side of God, the place where only a really important person can sit.

<sup>20</sup> After that, his followers went everywhere and told people the good news about Jesus. And our leader, Jesus himself, worked with them. He gave them power to do great things so that everyone knew that he was with them, and that their message about him was true.

Some important parts of the good news about Jesus that Luke wrote (From the book in the Holy Bible called Luke) About this book

The Holy Bible has 4 books about the things that Jesus did, and the messages he told to people when he was here on the earth, about 2,000 years ago. Those books are in the 2nd part of the Holy Bible, called the New Testament. The men that wrote them were Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. They wrote their books after Jesus went back to heaven. Most of the things in their books happened in the country we now call Israel.

In each of those 4 books we can read about some of the things that Jesus did and said. This Bible has everything that Mark and John wrote about Jesus in their books, but we have not yet translated everything that Matthew and Luke wrote. We have only translated the stories and messages that Mark and John didn't write about, but that Matthew and Luke did write about.

This book has those stories and messages that Luke wrote. They are important for us today because they tell us about the good things that Jesus did, and they tell us God's messages that Jesus taught to people.

Luke was a doctor, and later he became a good friend of Paul and some of Jesus's other followers. Maybe some of the things he wrote about are things he saw happen, but if not, Paul and other followers of Jesus told him about them.

Luke wrote another book that is in the Holy Bible, called Acts. In this Bible we call it The followers of Jesus did great things.

A lot of great things happened here, and the people that saw those things happen told everyone what they saw, and a lot of people wrote down those stories that they heard. After that, I read those stories, and I talked to the people that saw those things, and I checked up on everything they said, right from the start. So now I am carefully sorting out those stories, and I am writing them in this book for you. <sup>4</sup> You already heard some of this, but I want you to know the right story, and I want you to be sure about it.

An angel messenger told an old man and his wife that they were going to have a baby

<sup>5</sup> When Herod was the big boss over Judea country, there was a man there that was called Zekariah. He was one of the men that looked after the Jewish ceremonies. There were different groups that did the Jewish ceremonies for the people at different times. He was in the group called the Abijah mob. His wife belonged to a family of Jewish ceremony people too. Her name was Elizabeth.*

<sup>6</sup> Those 2 people, Zekariah and Elizabeth, they were very good people. They did everything in God's law, and God liked the way they lived. <sup>7</sup> They got very old, but they didn't have any kids. You see, Elizabeth just couldn't have a baby.

<sup>15</sup> God will say that this kid is important, so you have to make sure he never drinks any sort of wine or grog at all. You see, the Holy Spirit will come into this kid before he gets born, while he is still inside his mother.*

<sup>16</sup> And then, after he grows up, he will get lots of you Israel people to turn away from bad things and turn back to God.

<sup>17</sup> Remember Elijah, God's man that lived a long time ago. He had God's spirit in him, and he did powerful things. Well, in the same way, your son John will have God's spirit in him, and he will do powerful things. He will get people ready for God. John will get people to turn around and live the right way. He will get the men that are fathers to love their kids properly. And he will get people to listen properly to the sensible words of good people. Even those people that don't listen to God now, he will get them to listen to good people."*

<sup>18</sup> Zekariah said to the angel, "But that's hard for me to believe. I am an old man, and my wife is old too. We are too old now to have a baby. How can I be sure that your message is true?"

<sup>19</sup> The angel said, "Look, I am Gabriel. I am always close to God, and I do special jobs for him. And he sent me to tell you this good message."* <sup>20</sup> And everything I said will happen at the right time. But you didn't believe me, so now God will shut you up. You will not be able to talk until this kid gets born."

<sup>21</sup> While they were talking in that room, the people outside were waiting for Zekariah. They were thinking, "Why is he staying a long time in that room?"

<sup>22</sup> Then Zekariah came out, and he tried to talk to them, but he couldn't say anything. He had to make signs with his hands, and at last they understood that he saw something powerful in that room.

<sup>23</sup> Then Zekariah finished his days of work in God's ceremony house, and he went home.

<sup>24</sup> Soon after that, his wife, Elizabeth, found out she was going to have a baby. She stayed inside her house for 5 months. <sup>25</sup> She said, "Wow. God is properly good to me. He will let me have a baby, and nobody will rubbish me any more."

The story about the mother of Jesus

<sup>26</sup> That baby kept on growing inside Elizabeth. After about 6 months, God sent Gabriel, that same angel messenger, to Galilee country, to a town called Nazareth. <sup>27</sup> He went there to a young girl that was not married. Her name was Mary. Before that time, Mary didn't ever sleep with any man, like a woman does with her husband. She was promised to a man that was called Joseph. He belonged to the family of David, the man that was the big boss a long time ago.*

<sup>30</sup> Gabriel said, "Don't be frightened, Mary. God is really happy with you. <sup>31</sup> Listen. You will soon have a baby boy, and you will call him Jesus."* <sup>32-33</sup> God will make him the biggest boss over you

Israel people, like David, his grand-father that lived a long time ago. He will be very important, and he will be the biggest boss for ever. He will never stop being the biggest boss over the Israel people. And people will call him the son of God."*

<sup>35</sup> Gabriel said, "The Holy Spirit will come to you, and God's power will come over you and give you a baby. Your baby will be really special, and people will say he is God's son. <sup>36</sup> And you know your cousin Elizabeth? Everyone reckoned she is too old to have a baby, but now she is carrying a baby inside her. She has been carrying that baby for the last 6 months, and soon she will have a son. <sup>37</sup> You see, God can do anything. Nothing is too hard for him."*

Mary visited Elizabeth

<sup>39</sup> Soon after that, Mary got ready, and she went south quickly to a town in the hilly part of the country called Judea. <sup>40</sup> Zekariah and Elizabeth lived in that town. Mary went to their house, and she went in and said to Elizabeth, "Hello cousin."

<sup>41</sup> As soon as Elizabeth heard Mary say those words, she felt her baby jump inside her. And the Holy Spirit came into her, <sup>42</sup> and she talked really loud. She said to Mary, "God is really good to you, and he is making you happy. He is being more good to you than to any other woman. And he is being really good to your baby too. <sup>43</sup> I'm not important, but you are the mother of my leader, the man from God. It is really good of you to visit me. <sup>44</sup> You see, as soon as I heard you say 'hello,' my baby inside me was so happy he jumped. <sup>45</sup> Yes, you believed that God will do everything he told you, and so God makes you very happy."

Mary sang this song

<sup>46</sup> Mary said,*
"God is really good and really great, and I want to tell everybody about him.

and now everyone will say that God was good to me.*

<sup>49</sup> Yes, he is the really strong one, and he did great things for me.

God is properly good, better than anyone else.

<sup>50</sup> He is always good to all the people that respect him. He was good to people that respected him before, and he is good to people that respect him now, and he will be good to people that respect him later on.

Some people reckon they are smart and strong, but God makes them nothing. They are like soldiers that get frightened of the enemy and run away.

But he gets people that are not important, and he makes them bosses.*

<sup>53</sup> And he gives hungry people good food, and they eat until they are full.

But he doesn't give anything to the rich people. They go away with nothing.

<sup>55</sup> just like he promised to Abraham, and our other grand-fathers that lived a long time ago.

He said that he will look after us for ever.*

<sup>56</sup> Mary stayed with Elizabeth for about 3 months, then she went back to her own home.

John the Baptiser was born

<sup>57</sup> Then the time came for Elizabeth to have her baby, and she had a son. <sup>58</sup> All her family, and the people that lived near her, they all heard that she had a baby, and they knew that God felt sorry for Elizabeth, and that he was very good to her. Elizabeth was happy, and they were all happy too.

<sup>59</sup> When the baby was 8 days old, all those people went to Zekariah and Elizabeth's place. The baby boy had to have a young man operation on that day, and they used to give a baby his name at that time. The people wanted to call him Zekariah, the same name that his father had.* <sup>60</sup> But Elizabeth said, "No. His name is John."

<sup>61</sup> They said, "What? Nobody in your family has that name." <sup>62</sup> So they made signs with their hands to his father, to ask him what name he wanted to give to the boy.

<sup>63</sup> Zekariah got them to give him something to write on, and he wrote, "His name is John." Everyone was shocked. <sup>64</sup> Then, straight away, Zekariah started to talk again, and he told everyone that God is very great.

<sup>65</sup> The people there never saw God do things like that before. They were really surprised. They told other people about everything that happened, and soon a lot of people in the hilly part of Judea country were talking about it. <sup>66</sup> Everyone that heard the news thought about it, and they said, "After this kid grows up, what will he be?" They knew God was powerfully looking after that boy.

Zekariah sang this song

<sup>67</sup> At that time, when Zekariah started talking again, the Holy Spirit came into him, and he told everyone a message from God. He said,

He came now to save us, his people.

You know about David, the big boss that worked for God a long time ago.

Well, this person is in David's family.

and from everyone that hates us.

<sup>72</sup> He did that because he felt sorry for our grand-fathers that lived a long time ago, and wanted to be good to them, and do everything that he promised.

<sup>74</sup> He promised to save us from our enemies, so we can work for him without being frightened.

<sup>75</sup> We can live God's way and work for him in the right way, and we can do that all our lives."

<sup>76</sup> Then Zekariah talked to his baby boy. He said,

"This word is for you, my son.

Everyone will know that you tell people messages from God.

You will get things ready for God.*

* 1:52 Job 5:11; 12:19

* 1:55 Genesis 17:7

* 1:59 Leviticus 12:3

* 1:76 Malachi 3:1

<sup>77</sup> You will teach his people how God can say they are not guilty of the bad things they did, and then God will save them.

<sup>78</sup> You see, our God feels sorry for us, so he will do that for us.

It will be like the sun coming up, bringing light from God.

Some people are like they are in the dark. They think they will die soon.

But that light will shine on everybody.

It will show us how to live in a happy and quiet way.*

<sup>80</sup> After that, baby John grew up to be a man, and God made his spirit strong. He went and lived out in the bush for years, until he started to tell the Israel people God's messages.

Mary had a baby boy

<sup>1-3</sup> About the time that John was born, the biggest boss over all those countries was called Augustus. He sent a message to everyone in every country. He said, "The government bosses in every town have to write down everyone's name on a big list, and make them pay tax money." So everyone had to go back to their home town and put their names on the list there. (At that time a man called Quirinius was the government boss over Syria country.)

<sup>6-7</sup> At Bethlehem they couldn't find any room to stay in, so they had to sleep in the place where the animals ate their food. Then the time came for Mary to have her baby. She had her baby right there, and she wrapped him up in bits of cloth, just like mothers always did. And she put him down to sleep in an animal's feed box.

<sup>8</sup> Not far away, on that same night, some men were out in the grass lands looking after their sheep. <sup>9</sup> Suddenly, an angel messenger from God stood there with them, and bright light from God was shining all around them, and they were very frightened. <sup>10</sup> But the angel said, "Don't be frightened. I've got really good news for you, and good news for everyone in the world too. <sup>11-12</sup> Today a young woman had a baby boy over there in Bethlehem, in the place where David grew up. Go there, and you will find him. He is wrapped up in cloth, and lying in an animal's feed box. Then you will know that this message is true. He is the one that is going to save you people. He is the Christ, the man that God promised to send to you, to be your leader."

<sup>14</sup> "God, you are really great there in heaven.

And here on the earth, your people are quiet and happy.

You are really good to your people."

<sup>15</sup> Then the angels went back to heaven, and the men said to each other, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this baby that God just told us about." <sup>16</sup> Then they went quickly, and they found Mary and Joseph, with the baby boy in an animal's feed box, just like the angel said.

<sup>17</sup> After those men saw the baby, they talked to people about him, and they told them the message that God's angel gave them. <sup>18</sup> Everyone was surprised when they heard what those men said. <sup>19</sup> And Mary remembered their words, and she thought about them a lot. <sup>20</sup> As those men walked back to their sheep, they talked about how everything happened, just like God's angel said. They said to God, "You are really great." And they told everybody that God is great.

They named the baby Jesus

<sup>21</sup> You know, the law of Moses said that they had to do a young man operation on all baby boys as soon as they were 8 days old. So Mary's baby had that operation, and they gave him his name, Jesus, at that time. That's the name that God's angel messenger told Mary to call him, before she started to carry that baby inside her.*

Simeon and Anna met Jesus

<sup>22-24</sup> The Jewish law is like this, a woman's first baby boy belongs to God. And after a baby boy is born, the mother can't go into God's ceremony house or do any of their ceremonies for the next 40 days. It is like she is not clean. Then, after 40 days, she has to go to God's ceremony house in Jerusalem. She has to get a leader of the Jewish ceremonies there to kill 2

pigeons and burn them, and let the smoke go up to God. This will make her clean again for Jewish ceremonies. So Joseph and Mary went to Jerusalem at the right time to follow that law. They took baby Jesus with them.*

<sup>25</sup> There was an old man in Jerusalem at that time. His name was Simeon. He was a good man that lived God's way, and he was waiting for God to make the Israel people happy again. And the Holy Spirit used to tell him things. <sup>26</sup> Before that time, the Holy Spirit told him, "You will stay alive until you see the special man that God will send to save his people. He is called the Christ." <sup>27</sup> Then on the day that Joseph and Mary took Jesus into God's ceremony house, the Holy Spirit told Simeon to go there too, so he was there when Joseph and Mary brought Jesus in. <sup>28</sup> And Simeon took Jesus from them, and held him in his arms, and he thanked God, and said,

<sup>30-31</sup> because now I can see the one that you promised to send.

People in every tribe will see him, and he will save them.

<sup>32</sup> He will shine like a light for people that are not Jews, showing them new things about you, God. And he will get everyone to respect your people, the Israel nation.*

<sup>33</sup> Joseph and Mary heard the things Simeon said about Jesus, and they were surprised.

<sup>34</sup> Then Simeon asked God to be good to them, and he said to Mary, "This kid is going to ruin a lot of people in Israel, but he will help a lot of others. He will point people to God, but they will not understand, and they will argue against him. <sup>35</sup> When they do that, they will show everyone what they really think. And Mary, later you will be really sad. It will hurt, like somebody is stabbing you with a big knife."

<sup>36-38</sup> While Joseph and Mary were talking to Simeon, a very old woman came along. Her name was Anna. She saw Jesus, and she thanked God for him. Some of the people there were waiting for God to send somebody to help the Jewish people. Anna told them about Jesus, that he is that special person.

Anna's father was Fanuel, and he belonged to the tribe called Asher. She was 84 years old. A long time before this, Anna was a young woman and she got married.

But then after 7 years her husband died. After that, she stayed in God's ceremony house all the time, telling the people God's words. She prayed all the time, in the day time and at night, and often she didn't eat any food because she was praying.

<sup>39</sup> After that, Joseph and Mary finished doing everything that their law said they had to do. Then they went back home, to Nazareth, in Galilee country.* <sup>40</sup> And the baby started to grow big and strong, and he got wise too. And God was good to him.

When Jesus was a boy, he visited God's ceremony house

<sup>41</sup> The Jewish people have a ceremony every year called Passover. Every year Joseph and Mary went to Jerusalem for that ceremony.* <sup>42</sup> When Jesus was 12 years old, they went to Jerusalem, like they always did, and they took Jesus with them.

<sup>43-44</sup> After that ceremony finished, they started to go north, back to their home in Nazareth. They were with a lot of other people going north, and they thought Jesus was somewhere in that mob. They thought, "He will come to us when we stop to camp tonight." But Jesus didn't come to them when they stopped to camp. You see, he was still back in Jerusalem. Mary and Joseph looked for him among their relatives and all that mob that was camping on that road, <sup>45</sup> but they didn't find him. So they went back to Jerusalem and looked for him there.

<sup>46</sup> They looked for him for 3 days, then they found him in God's ceremony house. He was sitting with the teachers there. He was listening to what they were saying, and he was asking them questions. <sup>47</sup> The people there listened to Jesus too, and they were very surprised at the things he said. He understood lots of things, and he knew the answers to all of their questions.

<sup>48</sup> His mother and father were shocked, and Mary said, "My son, why did you do this to us? Your father and me, we have been worried about you. We have been looking everywhere for you, for 3 days."

<sup>49</sup> Jesus said, "Why did you look everywhere for me? I had to be in my father's special house. You should know that." <sup>50</sup> But they didn't understand what he meant by those words.

<sup>51</sup> Then Jesus went with them back to Nazareth, and he always did what his mother and father told him to do. And his mother always remembered all those things that happened, and she always thought about them.

* 2:22-24 Exodus 13:2, 12, 15; Leviticus 12:6-8 * 2:32 Isaiah 42:6; 49:6; 52:10 * 2:39 Matthew 2:23 * 2:41 Exodus 12:1-27; Deuteronomy 16:1-8

(We have not yet translated 3:1—4:13. You can read those stories and messages in Mark 1:1-34, 40-45; 2:1—3:6; 3:13-19; Matthew 3:1—5:12; 5:38-48; 7:1-5, 12, 17-20, 24-27; 8:5-13. They are about some things that happened before Jesus started going around telling people God's good news.)

4

Jesus talked to the people in his home town, called Nazareth

<sup>14</sup> The Holy Spirit made Jesus very powerful, and he went back to Galilee country. The people that saw him kept on telling other people about him, and those people told more people, so that soon everyone there heard the news about him. <sup>15</sup> He went to the Jewish meeting houses every week, and he taught everyone about God. And they were all really happy with him.

<sup>16</sup> Then Jesus went to his own town, called Nazareth. That was the town he grew up in. He went to the Jewish meeting house there on Saturday, like he always did, and he stood up to read to the people from God's book. <sup>17</sup> A helper there gave him the part that Isaiah wrote. Isaiah was a man that told everyone God's messages, a long time ago. Jesus opened the book to the right place, and he read these words.

He picked me to tell good news to poor people.

He sent me to tell prisoners, 'You will go free.'

And he sent me to tell blind people, 'You will see.'

And he sent me to people that are in big trouble, to take their trouble away.

<sup>19</sup> He sent me to tell everybody, 'This is the time now for God to be good to you.' **

<sup>20</sup> Then Jesus closed the book, gave it back to the helper there, and sat down. Everybody kept looking straight at Jesus. <sup>21</sup> And then he started to teach them. He said, "You just heard me read that message that Isaiah wrote, a long time ago. Well, those things are happening right now, today, while you are listening to me."

<sup>25-26</sup> Think about these 2 stories in God's book. Remember the story about God's man, Elijah, that lived a long time ago. Our people, the Israel nation, did bad things at that time, so God punished them. He stopped the rain. No rain fell for 3½ years, and no food plants grew in the gardens, so everybody was short of food, and they were very hungry. But God looked after Elijah, and sent him to another place called Zarefath, in Sidon country. God got a widow there to look after Elijah, and God gave that widow enough food for herself, and her son, and Elijah too. Listen, there were a lot of widows in Israel at that time, but God did not save a widow that belonged to Israel, he saved a widow that belonged to Sidon country, not one of us Israel people.*

<sup>27</sup> And remember the story about Elisha, another one of God's men that lived a long time ago. At that time, there was a man called Nayman, that belonged to Syria country. He had a bad skin sickness. But Elisha used God's power to make him better. Listen, there were a lot of people in Israel that had a bad skin sickness at that time, but God made a Syrian man better, not one of us Israel people.**

<sup>28</sup> Those people in the meeting house heard Jesus say those things. They got really angry because they thought they were better than people from other places. <sup>29</sup> They got up and forced him out of the town. That town is on a big hill, and that mob chased Jesus up that hill. They were going to throw him off the top of the cliff there, to kill him. <sup>30</sup> But Jesus turned around, and he just went through the middle of that mob and went away.

The things people do show what sort of people they are

<sup>43</sup> Jesus was talking to his followers, and he told them a picture story. He said, "Think about different sorts of trees that give us fruit to eat. Good trees don't give us rubbish fruit. And rubbish trees don't give us good fruit. <sup>44</sup> Whenever we look at the fruit of a tree, we know what sort of tree it comes from. Think about it. We don't get bananas or grapes from a rubbish prickly plant. <sup>45</sup> And it's like that with people too. Good people think about good things, so they do good things. But bad people think about bad things, so they do bad things, and they say bad things. You see, the things people say, show what they think about."

7

Jesus made a dead man become alive again

<sup>14</sup> Then he walked over to the stretcher and touched it, and the men that were carrying it stopped. Jesus said, "Young man, listen to me. Get up." <sup>15</sup> Then the dead man sat up and started to talk. And Jesus told him to go back to his mother.

<sup>16</sup> Everyone that saw that was frightened. They said, "God is really great and powerful. God sent this man to us, to tell us his word and show us his power. God has come to help his people." <sup>17</sup> Then they went and told lots of other people what they saw. So people in the towns near there, and people everywhere in Judea country, they heard that story.

(We have not yet translated 7:18-35. You can read those stories and messages in Matthew 11:1-19.)

A woman poured special oil on Jesus

<sup>36</sup> There was a man that was called Simon, and he was one of the Pharisee mob, that were strong for the Jewish law. He asked Jesus to eat dinner with him. So Jesus went to his house and sat down at the table with him and some other people. <sup>37</sup> There was a woman in that town that used to do bad things. She heard that Jesus was eating dinner with that man, so she got a pretty jar of oil that had perfume in it and took it to his house. It smelled really good, and it cost a lot of money. <sup>38</sup> Then she went inside and was just behind Jesus, near his feet. She was crying, and her tears fell on his feet. Then she dried his feet with her hair, and she kissed them, then she poured all that special oil on to his feet.*

<sup>39</sup> Simon, the Pharisee man, he saw her do that, and he said to himself, "I knew it. This man is not one of God's men. He is letting a bad woman touch him. I reckon he doesn't know she did a lot of bad things, so I reckon he doesn't have God's power."

Simon said, "All right, teacher, tell me."

<sup>41</sup> Then Jesus told him a picture story. He said, "There was a rich man that used to lend money to people. One man borrowed $500 from him, and another man borrowed $50. <sup>42</sup> But both of those men lost all their money. They couldn't pay that money back to the rich man. But the rich man was good to both of them and told them, 'Don't worry, I'll let it go. You don't have to pay me back that money.'

Well, Simon, what do you reckon? Which one of those men will love that rich man the most?"

<sup>43</sup> Simon said, "I reckon it is the man that owed him the most money and didn't have to pay it back."

Jesus said, "You are right."

<sup>44</sup> Then he turned towards the woman and said, "Simon, look at this woman. When I came into your house, you didn't give me water to wash my feet, but she washed my feet with her tears, and dried them with her hair. <sup>45</sup> You didn't kiss me on the cheek to make me feel good, but this woman keeps on kissing my feet. <sup>46</sup> You didn't put any olive oil on my head, like people do for their friends, but she put oil on my feet that has perfume in it, and it cost a lot of money. <sup>47</sup> Listen, I know she did a lot of bad things, but I'm telling you, I will say that she is not guilty of all those bad things. I will let it all go, and God will not punish her. That is the reason why she loves me a lot. But if somebody only did a few bad things, and I let it go, they will only love me a little bit."

<sup>48</sup> Then Jesus said to the woman, "You did bad things, but I am letting it go, and I will say that you are not guilty."

<sup>49</sup> The other people there said to each other, "Who does this man think he is? He reckons he can say that somebody is not guilty, and then God will not punish them for the bad things they did."

<sup>50</sup> But Jesus said to the woman, "You trusted me, so you will not get trouble for the bad things you did. Don't worry, you can go away happy and quiet now."

The women that helped Jesus

<sup>1</sup> After that, Jesus went around to a lot of different towns. In each town he told the people God's good news. He said, "God wants to have you in his family." He took his 12 special workers with him.

<sup>2-3</sup> There were some women too, that went around with them. They used their own money to buy the things that Jesus and his special workers needed. Before that time, some of those women were sick, but Jesus made them better. And some of them had bad spirits in them, but Jesus forced those bad spirits out of them. One of those women was Mary Magdalene. Jesus forced 7 bad spirits out of her. Another one was Joanna, the wife of Chuza. Chuza was the boss over all the people that worked in the house of the big boss, that was called Herod. Another one of those women was Susanna. And there were lots of other women that went around with Jesus and his followers.*

A town in Samaria country didn't want Jesus

<sup>51</sup> The time was soon coming for Jesus to go back to heaven, so he started to go to Jerusalem city. He wasn't going to let anything stop him. <sup>52</sup> So he walked along the road, and soon he was getting close to a town in Samaria country, so he sent some messengers ahead of him to ask the people there for a place to stay that night.

<sup>53</sup> But the people in that town said, "No. He is going to Jerusalem. We don't like that Jerusalem mob, so he is not our friend. He can't stay here tonight."

<sup>54</sup> James and John, 2 of Jesus's special workers, heard what they said, then those 2 men said to Jesus, "Can we ask God to send fire down from the sky and kill all those people? Do you want us to do that?*"

We have to follow Jesus, even if it is hard for us

<sup>57</sup> As they walked along the road, a man said to Jesus, "I want to be one of your followers. I will go everywhere with you."

<sup>58</sup> Jesus said to him, "All right, but your life will not be easy. You see, wild dogs have places where they go to sleep, and birds have nests to rest in. But I haven't got a home to lie down and sleep in, even though I'm God's special man from heaven. So if you follow me, you too might not have a home."

That man said, "All right, I will come with you. But my father has died, so let me go home to bury him. After that, I will come with you."

<sup>60</sup> Jesus said to him, "Some people don't want me. It is like they are dead to me. So those people can bury the dead bodies of their own people. But you have to go and tell people that God wants them in his family."

<sup>61</sup> Another man said to Jesus, "Yes, sir, I will follow you, but first I want to go back home and say goodbye to all my family."*

<sup>62</sup> Jesus said, "Don't think about going back. I'll use the picture of a man that is driving something. He has to look at what is ahead of him, not look back at what is behind him. Well, it is the same for you. You have to look at me, and think about me. If you think about the people and the things that you left behind, it is like you are looking back, and you are not the right person to join God's family."

The people in some towns didn't want Jesus

<sup>13</sup> Jesus talked to the people that lived in some towns. He said, "You mob that live in Korazin and Bethsayida, you will be really sorry. You know, I did a lot of powerful things there in your towns, but you didn't listen to me, and you keep on doing bad things. Think about those towns called Tyre and Sidon. A long time ago their people did bad things. At that time, I didn't go to them and do powerful things for them, like I did for you. They didn't get to listen to me, so they couldn't turn around and stop doing bad things. If they got to listen to me, they would be very sorry for the bad things they did, and they would turn to God real quick. But that didn't happen.* <sup>14</sup> You know, one day God will judge everybody, and he will punish those people for the bad things they did, but he will punish you mob a lot more than he will punish that mob. You mob heard my words, but you didn't take any notice, and you didn't turn to God.

<sup>15</sup> And it's the same for you mob that live in Capernium. You reckon you are good, so you reckon God will take you up into heaven. But you are wrong. He knows you are no good, and he will chuck you down into the bad place called hell."*

(We have not yet translated 10:16-24. You can read some of those stories and messages in Matthew 11:25-27.)

God's most important laws

<sup>25</sup> One day, a Jewish law man went to Jesus. He wanted to test Jesus, to see if he can answer a hard question. So he asked Jesus, "Teacher, what can I do so that I will live with God for ever?"*

<sup>26</sup> Jesus said, "You know God's laws, and you read them all the time. What do you reckon they say?"

<sup>27</sup> The man said, "One law says this, 'You have to love God properly, not just a little bit.

You have to love God from right inside yourself.

You have to love God in the way you feel, and in the way you think.

And you have to love God in the way you do things.'

And another law says this,

'You have to love the people around you just as much as you love yourself.' "*

<sup>28</sup> Jesus said, "You are right. Do what those laws say, and you will live with God for ever."*

<sup>29</sup> But the man wanted to show that he asked an important question, so he said, "What does it mean by the people around me? Who are they?"

The story about the good man that was from Samaria country

<sup>30</sup> Jesus answered that question by telling this picture story. He said, "A Jewish man was going down the road from Jerusalem city to the town called Jericho. About half-way along that road some bad men grabbed him. They beat him up, and they took everything he had, even his clothes, and then they ran away. They left him lying there, half dead.

<sup>31</sup> After that, a leader of the Jewish ceremonies was walking down that road. He saw that man lying there, but he didn't do anything to help him. He went over to the other side of the road to go past him, and he kept going down the road.

<sup>32</sup> After that, a man that helped in the Jewish ceremonies went along that road. He looked at the man lying there, then he went to the other side of the road and went past him, and he kept going down the road.

<sup>33</sup> Then a man from Samaria country went along that road. He was riding on a donkey. You know, Samaria people and Jewish people don't like each other, but when that Samaria man saw that Jewish man lying there, he felt sorry for him. <sup>34</sup> He went to that man and helped him. He treated the places where he was bleeding. He put wine and oil on them, and bandaged them, to help them get better. Then he lifted him up and put him on his donkey and took him to a hotel, and they both stayed there that night.*

<sup>35</sup> The next day, he paid a lot of money to the hotel boss, and said, 'This is for you to keep this man here and look after him until he gets better. If it costs more than this, I'll pay you the rest next time I come here.' "

<sup>36</sup> Then Jesus said to the law man, "There were 3 people that saw that man on the road. Which one of them treated that man like he was one of the people around them?"

* 10:13 Isaiah 23:1-18; Ezekiel 26:1—28:26; Joel 3:4-8; Amos 1:9-10; Zechariah 9:2-4 * 10:15 Isaiah 14:13-15

 * 10:34 2 Chronicles 28:15

<sup>37</sup> The law man said, "I reckon it was the person that felt sorry for that man and helped him."

Jesus said, "You are right. So you always have to do that same sort of thing for other people."

Jesus visited Martha and Mary

<sup>38</sup> Jesus and his followers kept going along the road to Jerusalem, and they went into a town. A woman called Martha lived in that town, and she asked him to come to her house, so they went with her. <sup>39</sup> Then her sister, Mary, sat down near Jesus. He was teaching the people about God, and Mary just sat there listening to everything he said.* <sup>40</sup> Martha was busy getting a big dinner ready, and she got upset because Mary wasn't helping her. So she said to Jesus, "Sir, my sister isn't helping me with the work. She has left me to do it by myself. Do you think that is all right? Tell her to get up and help me."

<sup>41</sup> Jesus said, "Martha, Martha, you worry about a lot of things. <sup>42</sup> But only one thing is really important, and Mary is doing that. She is listening to me, and nobody can stop her."

(We have not yet translated 11:1-4. You can read that story and that message in Matthew 6:9-13.)

Keep asking God, don't give up

<sup>5-6</sup> Jesus told his followers a picture story, to teach them how to pray. He said, "Think about this. A man is going on a long trip, and at night he comes to the house where his cousin lives, so he visits him to stay the night with him. But his cousin hasn't got any food to give him. So his cousin goes out in the middle of the night to his friend's house, and he knocks on the door and he calls out, 'My friend, can you give me some food? You see, my cousin has just come, and I haven't got any food to give him. Can you give me some bread?'

<sup>7</sup> But his friend says, 'Don't humbug me now. I'm in bed, and my kids are in bed with me. I already locked the door. I can't get up and give you anything.'

<sup>8</sup> But if that man keeps on knocking and asking for bread, after a while his friend will get up and give him everything he asks for. He will not do it because they are friends. He will do it because that man keeps on asking him.

<sup>9</sup> So I'm telling you this. Keep asking God for what you need, and he will give it to you. Keep looking for what you need, and God will help you find it. Or if something is stopping you, like there is a door that is shut and you can't get in, keep on knocking at that door, and God will open it for you. <sup>10</sup> You see, everyone that asks God for something will get it. Everyone that looks for something will find it. God will open the door for everyone that knocks on it.

<sup>11</sup> Some of you are fathers. If your kid asks you for a fish to eat, will you give him a cheeky snake instead? No, of course not. <sup>12</sup> Or if your kid asks you for an egg, will you give him a cheeky scorpion instead? No, of course not. <sup>13</sup> You see, you might be bad, but you always give good things to your kids. Well, your father in heaven is a lot better than you, so you can be sure that he will always give you good things. He will send the Holy Spirit to everyone that asks him."

(We have not yet translated 11:14-36. You can read about that teaching in Mark 3:20-27; 8:12; Matthew 5:15; 6:22-23; 12:41-45.)

Jesus told the Pharisee mob and law men that they were wrong

<sup>37</sup> Jesus was talking to the people, and a man that belonged to the Pharisee mob asked him to come to his place for dinner. The Pharisee mob were very strong for the Jewish law. <sup>38</sup> They made a rule, that whenever anyone wanted to eat some food, they first had to wash their hands. But Jesus didn't follow that rule. He didn't wash his hands. The Pharisee man was shocked.

<sup>39</sup> So Jesus said to him, "You Pharisee mob are like somebody that cleans the outside of cups and plates, but doesn't clean the inside. You see, you only do good things if people can see you, like you are good on the outside. But you are really dirty on the inside. Yes, inside yourselves you are greedy, and you are always thinking in your heads about doing very bad things. <sup>40</sup> Look, you are really stupid. You forget that God made the inside of you as well as the outside. He can see everything that is inside your heads. <sup>41</sup> The right way is like this. You have to think in your heads about poor people, and you have to feel sorry for them, and you have to give them the things they need. Then God will say that you are clean, on the inside as well as on the outside.

out of every 10 parts. You do that for everything you get, even the little plants that grow in your garden. But you don't do the important things that God wants everyone to do. So God will make trouble for you Pharisee mob. You see, you have to be fair to other people, and you have to love God. Those are the important things that you have to do, and you have to do the other things too.*

<sup>43</sup> Yes, God will make trouble for you Pharisee mob. You try to get people to think you are important. Whenever you go to a meeting house, you want the good seats that are for important people. And whenever you walk around the shopping places, you want people to respect you and say hello to you in a good way. <sup>44</sup> But God will make trouble for you mob. You are like ground that has dead bodies in it that people don't know about. People walk on that ground, and they think it is good. You are like that ground. You get people to think you are good, and they don't know that you are bad on the inside."

<sup>46</sup> Jesus said, "That's right, you mob are just as bad, and God will make trouble for you law men too. You make a lot of hard rules, and you make people follow all those rules. You are too hard on people. It is like you are making them carry lots of heavy things, and you don't help them at all. You don't even move one of your fingers to help them.

<sup>47</sup> Yes, God will make trouble for you law teacher mob. A long time ago, your grand-fathers killed the men that told everyone God's messages, and they buried them. And now, you mob put pretty little stone buildings there to remember the place where they buried them. <sup>48</sup> When you do that, you show that you agree with the bad things your grand-fathers did. They killed those good men, and now you make those buildings for them.

<sup>49</sup> Listen, God is wise, and he said, 'I will pick men to tell everyone my messages, and I will pick men to be my special workers, and I will send them to the people. But you will kill some of them, and you will hurt some of them.'

<sup>50</sup> Yes, you people that are alive today will hurt and kill God's people. And it has been like that for a long time. Your grand-fathers have been killing God's men ever since the world first started. And you agree with those bad things that they did too, so God will punish you too, for all those bad things that they did. <sup>51</sup> Abel was the first one of God's men to die. And Zekariah was the last one to die. They killed him at God's ceremony house, near the place where they kill animals and burn them, to give them to God. Yes, they killed those men, but God will punish you people that are alive today too.*

<sup>52</sup> Listen, God will make trouble for you law men, because you don't do the right thing. You know how to help people understand more about God, but you never do it. You yourselves don't want to know God, and you stop everybody else, so they can't know him either."

<sup>53-54</sup> Then Jesus got up to go to another place, but the Jewish law teacher mob and the Pharisee mob started to get really angry with him, and they argued against him a lot. They tried to make him say something bad, so they could blame him. So they asked him a lot of hard questions. But he didn't say anything bad.

(We have not yet translated 12:1-12. You can read those messages in Matthew 10:26-33; Mark 3:28-29; 13:11.)

12

The story about a man that was rich, but he was stupid

<sup>13</sup> A man in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, my brother is cheating me. Our father died, and he left his things for my brother and me. But my brother took all those things, and he is keeping them for himself. Please tell my brother to be fair to me and give me my part of our father's things."

<sup>14</sup> Jesus said, "It's not my job to say which one of you is right and which one is wrong, or what part of your father's things each of you can have."

<sup>15</sup> Then he said to the people, "Think carefully about this. Don't be greedy. Don't try to get more things than you need. You can't get real life from the things you own, even if you are rich."

<sup>16</sup> Then Jesus told them a picture story. He said, "A rich man had a big garden. He planted lots of seeds there, and they grew into very big plants, and then those plants grew lots of seed food on them. <sup>17</sup> The man looked at it all and said to himself, 'My sheds are not big enough for all this seed food. Where will I put it all?' <sup>18</sup> He thought about it, and then he said, 'I know what to do. I will pull down my little sheds and build big sheds, and I will keep it all in those big sheds. And I will keep all my other things in those big sheds too. <sup>19</sup> Then I will say, "Ah. I've got lots of stuff now. I've got enough in those sheds to last me for a long time. I don't have to do any work. I can just sit down and eat, and drink, and be happy."

<sup>20</sup> But God said to him, "You are stupid. You are going to die tonight. Then what will happen to all this stuff in your sheds? Who will get it? Not you."

<sup>21</sup> That is a picture story to tell you people this. If you keep money and things just for yourself, and if you don't use them the way God wants you to, you are stupid."

(We have not yet translated 12:22-53. You can read those stories and messages in Matthew 6:19-21, 25-34; 10:34-36; 24:45-51.)

We can work out what God is doing

<sup>54</sup> Then Jesus said to all the people, "Sometimes you look at the sky, and you see big clouds coming together, and you say, 'Here comes some rain.' And you are right. <sup>55</sup> And sometimes the north wind blows, and you say, 'Today will be really hot.' And again, you are right. <sup>56</sup> But really, you are fools. Yes, you know how to look at the earth and the sky, and work out what the weather is doing. But you don't know how to look at the things that are happening right now, and work out what God is doing."

(We have not yet translated 12:57-59. You can read that message in Matthew 5:25-26.)

If you don't turn to God, you will die

<sup>1</sup> About that time, some men from Galilee country were killing some animals to give them to God, but then Pilate, the big boss, went with his soldiers and killed those men. Then some people went and told Jesus what happened. <sup>2</sup> Jesus said, "Do you reckon those men that died did more bad things than all the other men from Galilee? Is that why God let Pilate kill them?" <sup>3</sup> No. That is not right. Listen, all of you mob do bad things. You have to stop doing bad things and turn to God. If you don't turn to God, you will die, just like those men died.

<sup>4</sup> And you know about the high building in Jerusalem city, at the place called Siloam. It fell down on top of 18 people and killed them. Do you think those people did more bad things than the other people in Jerusalem, and that is the reason why God let them die like that? <sup>5</sup> No. That is not right. Listen, all of you mob do bad things. You have to stop doing bad things and turn to God. If you don't turn to God, you will die, just like those people died."

The story about a fruit tree that didn't have any fruit on it

<sup>6</sup> Then Jesus told them this picture story to show them that they have to turn to God soon. He said, "A man had a garden with grape vines growing in it. There was a fruit tree there too, called a fig tree. That man used to go to that garden, to see if there was any fruit on that tree, but he never found any fruit. <sup>7</sup> So he talked to his workman that looked after the garden. He said, 'Look, this tree is no good. I came here looking for fruit on this tree. I did that for the last 3 years, but I never found any fruit. So chop it down and get rid of it. We can't let it go on like this. It is using up the ground and giving back nothing to us.'

<sup>8</sup> But his workman said, 'Wait, boss. Leave it for one more year, and I will look after it properly. I'll dig around it and put some fertilizer stuff on it to help it grow. <sup>9</sup> And maybe next year it will get fruit on it. If it doesn't get any fruit next year, then we can chop it down.'

Jesus made a sick woman better on the Jewish rest day

<sup>10</sup> One Saturday, Jesus was teaching people in a Jewish meeting house. Their Jewish law said that nobody can work on a Saturday. It was their rest day.

<sup>11</sup> There was a woman there with a bad spirit inside her. A long time before that, the bad spirit went into that woman and made her back crooked. That bad spirit lived in her for 18 years, and all that time her back was bent over. She couldn't stand up straight.

<sup>12</sup> Jesus saw her in that meeting house, and he called out to her to come to him. And he said to her, "Friend, you are better now. You are free from that sickness." <sup>13</sup> Then he put his hands on her, and she stood up straight, right then. And she told everybody that God is really good.

<sup>14</sup> But the boss of that meeting house got angry, because Jesus made a sick woman better on their rest day. So he told the people, "Listen, you mob. There are 6 days for work each week, so come on any one of those days and get him to make you better.

But Saturday is our rest day. Don't come on a Saturday.”*

<sup>15</sup> Jesus said to him, “You and your mob are wrong. You say one thing, but you do something different. You work for yourselves on our rest day, right? You know, you keep cows and donkeys tied up in your yards, and every day you untie them and take them out to a water-hole, to let them drink. You do that on our rest day too. <sup>16</sup> Now look at this woman here. She belongs to Abraham's family. But 18 years ago, Satan, the boss over the bad spirits, he made her back crooked. It's like he has kept her tied up with this problem for 18 years. So why can't I untie her, even on our rest day?”

<sup>17</sup> When Jesus said those words, the bosses of that meeting house felt shame, but all the people were happy, because Jesus was doing a lot of really good things there.

(We have not yet translated 13:18-30. You can read those stories and messages in Mark 4:30-32; Matthew 7:13-14, 21-23.)

Jesus felt sorry for the Jerusalem people

<sup>31</sup> At that time, some of the Pharisee mob, that were strong for the Jewish law, they went to Jesus and said, “Herod, that big boss, he wants to kill you, so you have to run away. Get right away from here.”

<sup>32</sup> Jesus said, “Herod is a bad man, and he is tricky, like a wild dog. Tell him that I'm forcing bad spirits out of people, and I'm making sick people better, and I'll keep on doing these things for a bit longer. Then I'll finish my work. <sup>33</sup> But I have to keep going now, and I'll keep going for a bit longer, until I get to Jerusalem city. I will not die before I get there. You see, the Jerusalem mob are the worst. They kill the people that tell God's messages.”

<sup>34</sup> Then Jesus gave a message for the people that lived in Jerusalem city. He said, “You Jerusalem mob. You never listen to the men that tell you God's messages, but instead you kill them. Yes, you throw big stones at them to kill them. Listen, I wanted to look after you mob, just like a chook looks after her young chicks and covers them with her wings, so that nothing can hurt them. I often wanted to look after you like that, but you never let me. <sup>35</sup> So now God is leaving you. He will not look after you, or your city, or his ceremony house there. You mob will not see me again until the day comes when you will say, ‘God, we want you to look after this man you sent. Make him strong and happy.’ ”*

14

Jesus made a man better on the Jewish rest day

<sup>1-2</sup> One day, a man asked Jesus to come to his house to have dinner with him, and with some of his friends. He was a leader of the Pharisee mob, that were strong for the Jewish law. That day was a Saturday, and the Jewish law says that Saturday is their rest day. Nobody can work on the rest day.

There was a sick man there at that Pharisee man's house. His arms and legs were swollen. That Pharisee mob and the Jewish law men there, they watched Jesus to see if he was going to make that sick man better.

<sup>4</sup> They didn't want to answer him, so they said nothing. Then Jesus touched the sick man and made him better, and then Jesus said that he can go home.

<sup>5</sup> And Jesus talked to the Pharisee mob and the law men. He said, “Sometimes you work on our rest day, right? If you ever have to do something straight away, like if your little kid falls into a deep hole on our rest day, you get up quick and pull your kid out. Or if your cow falls into a hole, you pull it out, even on our rest day. You do that, right? So it's all right to do a good thing on our rest day. Is that right?”* <sup>6</sup> That mob didn't answer Jesus. They couldn't say that he was wrong.

Don't try to make yourself important

<sup>7</sup> There were a lot of people at that dinner, and they all wanted to sit in the seats up near the boss. That's the place where the important people sit. Jesus watched them, and he told them, <sup>8</sup> “You are not doing the right thing. You see, if somebody asks you to come to a big dinner, don't go quickly to the best seat and sit down there. Maybe later on, somebody more important than you will come, <sup>9</sup> and the boss will tell you, ‘Get up and give this person that good seat.’ Then you will feel shame, and you will have to find yourself an empty seat, and it will be down at the other end of the table, at the place for people that are not important. <sup>10</sup> Instead of that, when you come to the dinner, go and sit at the place for people that are not important. Then later, the boss will see you there, and he will say,

* 13:35 Psalm 118:26; Jeremiah 22:5 * 14:5 Matthew 12:11

'My friend, you can have a better seat than that.' And he will take you to a good seat, and everybody there will see him do that, and they will respect you.*

<sup>11</sup> You see, if you try to make yourself important, God will make you like nothing. But if you make yourself like nothing, God will make you important.**

<sup>12</sup> Then Jesus talked to the boss of that house. He said, "Whenever you put on a dinner for other people to come and eat with you, don't ask your family, or your friends, or the rich people that live near you, to come and eat that food. If you ask those people to come, later they will ask you to come and eat some food with them. That will be the only pay you get for giving them food. <sup>13</sup> Instead of that, ask poor people to come and eat with you. Maybe they are crippled, or blind, or they can't walk, so they can't get jobs to get some money, so they are too poor to put on a dinner for you. <sup>14</sup> There's no way they can pay you for that food. But God will make you really happy on the day when he will make everyone alive again. At that time, he will pay you properly for that good thing you did for those poor people."

<sup>15</sup> One of the men sitting there heard the words that Jesus said, and that man said, "It will be really good to be at the dinner that God will put on for all his family."

<sup>18</sup> But each one told him they couldn't come to that dinner. One of them said, 'I have bought a garden, so I have to go and look at it. Please tell your boss I'm sorry, but I can't come to his dinner.'

<sup>19</sup> The next man said, 'I have just bought 10 cows, and I have to see if they work well together. Please tell your boss I'm sorry, but I can't come to his dinner.'

<sup>20</sup> Another man said, 'I just got married, so I can't come to that dinner.'

<sup>21</sup> The work-man went back to his boss and told him their stories. Then his boss was very angry. He said to his work-man, 'Go quickly now to every street in this town, and get the poor people, and bring them here to eat this dinner. Bring the people that are crippled, and the people that are blind, and the people that can't walk.'

<sup>22</sup> So the work-man went out and got those people. Then he told his boss, 'Those people are here now, but there are still some empty seats at the table.'

<sup>23</sup> So the boss said, 'Go out to the roads in the bush. Look for people that are out there. Tell them all to come here, so that my house will be full. They can eat this good food. <sup>24</sup> But those other people that I asked before, and they said they couldn't come, I'm telling you this, none of them will eat any of this good food.'

(We have not yet translated 14:25-27. You can read those messages in Matthew 10:37; Mark 8:34.)

Before you follow Jesus, you have to think about it

<sup>28</sup> Jesus said to the people, "If you want to follow me, first you have to think about it. Your life will be hard, so ask yourself, 'Can I really do it?' You know, it's the same as when you want to build a big high building. At first you have to think about how much it will cost, and you have to find out if you have enough money to do that job, and to finish it. <sup>29</sup> If you don't do that, you might start that job, then you might run out of money, and never finish that building. Then other people will laugh at you <sup>30</sup> and say, 'You stupid fool. You started to build that thing, but you couldn't finish it. Now it is no good for anything, so you wasted your money.'"

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus told them another picture story. He said, "If a country's big boss has to get his army to fight the army of another country, at first he thinks about it, to see if he will win. If the other army has a lot more soldiers, he might say, 'No. My army is too little. We can't win.' <sup>32</sup> Then he will send a message real quick to that other army's big boss. He will say to him, 'Let's not fight each other. Let's talk about the problem and sort it out, without fighting.'"

<sup>33</sup> Then Jesus said, "It is the same for you. If you want to be one of my followers, you have to think about it. You see, your life will be hard. You will have to leave everything you own, and then you can follow me."

(We have not yet translated 14:34-35. You can read those messages in Mark 9:50; Matthew 5:13.)

The story about the sheep that got lost

<sup>1</sup> There were some people that everyone reckoned did really bad things. Some of them used to get tax money from the people and give it to the Roman government. Everyone reckoned those tax men were bad men. Lots of those bad people often went up to Jesus and listened to him. <sup>2</sup> That upset the Jewish law teachers and the Pharisee mob, the men that were strong for the Jewish law, so they complained about Jesus. They said, "He is a friend of bad people. He even eats food with them."*

<sup>3</sup> So Jesus told the people this picture story. He said, <sup>4</sup> "Suppose there is a man that has 100 sheep, but one of them wanders away and gets lost. What do you think that man will do? He will leave all the other sheep and go out into the bush and look for the one that got lost. He will keep on looking for it until he finds it. <sup>5</sup> Then, after he finds it, he will pick it up and carry it back home on his shoulders. He will be really happy. <sup>6</sup> After he gets home, he will call out to his family, and to his friends. He will say, 'Look, I've found my lost sheep. We can all be happy together now.' <sup>7</sup> Well, just like that, whenever somebody turns back to God, everyone in heaven is really happy too. Whenever one bad person stops doing bad things, and lives God's way, everyone in heaven is really happy. They are even more happy about that person, than they are about the big mob of other people that never went wrong."

The story about the coin that got lost

<sup>8</sup> Jesus told them another picture story. He said, "Suppose a woman has 10 coins, but then she loses one of them in her house. What do you think she will do? She will get a torch and look carefully everywhere in that house. She will even sweep all the floors, and she will keep on looking for her money until she finds it. <sup>9</sup> Then, after she finds it, she will be happy, and she will call out to her family, and to her friends. She will say, 'Look, I've found my lost coin. We can all be happy together now.' <sup>10</sup> Well, just like that, whenever somebody turns back to God, God's angel messengers in heaven are really happy too. Whenever one bad person stops doing bad things, and lives God's way, God's angel messengers in heaven are really happy."

The story about the young man that got lost

<sup>11</sup> Then Jesus told the people another picture story. He said, "There was a man that had 2 sons. <sup>12</sup> One day, his youngest son said to him, 'Dad, I want you to give me my part of all the things you own. I can't wait until after you die to get it. No, I want it all now.' So his father split up everything he had and gave one part to his youngest son, and he kept the other part for his oldest son.

<sup>13</sup> A few days later, that youngest son sold all those things that his father gave him, then he took the money and went away to another country, far away. In that country he soon spent all that money. He just wasted it on all sorts of things that made him feel good. <sup>14</sup> After a while, he had no money left. At that time, they got short of food in that country, and soon that young man had nothing to eat. <sup>15</sup> So he got a job with a man in that place. He had to look after that man's pigs. <sup>16</sup> That young man was so hungry he wanted to eat the rubbish food that the pigs ate, but nobody gave him anything to eat.

<sup>20</sup> So he got up and started to go back to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him coming along the road. His father felt really sorry for him. He ran to his son and hugged him and kissed him.

<sup>21</sup> Then his son said, 'Dad, I'm sorry, I went wrong. I did the wrong thing to God, and I did the wrong thing to you. So now I'm not good enough for you to call me your son.'

<sup>22</sup> But his father said to his workers there, 'Go and get some really good clothes and put them on him. And be quick. And get him a ring for his finger, and get some shoes for his feet. <sup>23</sup> And get a fat young cow, and kill it, and cook the meat, so we can all have a big party. <sup>24</sup> You see, my son got himself lost, but now I have found him. I thought he was gone for ever, like he was dead, but now he came back to me, and it is like he came alive again.'

So those workers did what he told them to do, and they had a big party.

<sup>25</sup> While all that was happening, the oldest son was working out in the garden, and he didn't know what was going on. Then later, he knocked off work, and he started walking home. He got near to the house, and then he heard a lot of music, and he heard people dancing and having a good time. <sup>26</sup> So he asked one of the workmen, 'What's going on?'

<sup>27</sup> The work-man said, 'Your brother just came back home, and your dad is having a party for him. We just killed a young cow and cooked its meat. Your brother is alive and well, so your dad is really happy.'

<sup>28</sup> Then the oldest son got angry, and he said, 'I'm not happy. I'm not going into the house to join in that party. No way.'

So his father came out and said, 'Don't be angry. Come on in, and have a good time with us.' And the father kept on asking him to come in.

<sup>29</sup> But the oldest son said, 'No. It's not fair. Look, I worked for you for years and years, and I always did everything you told me to do. But you never gave me a party. You didn't even give me a young goat for me to kill and cook its meat, and have a good time with my friends. <sup>30</sup> But this other son of yours, he took your money away, and he wasted it. He even paid women to sleep with him, like a woman does with her husband. And then he came back here, and now you are good to him. You even killed a young cow and gave him a party. That's not right.'

<sup>31</sup> His father said, 'Listen, you are my son. You have always stayed with me, and now you own everything that I have. After I die, you will get all of it. <sup>32</sup> But your brother got himself lost, and now I have found him. I thought he was gone for ever, like he was dead, but he came back to me, and now it is like he came alive again. So we have to have a party and be happy together.' "

The story about the manager that cheated

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus told his followers another picture story. He said, "There was a rich man that had a big business, and he had another man working in his office. That other man was his manager. He looked after the rich man's money.

Somebody told the rich man, 'Look, your manager is wasting your money.' <sup>2</sup> So that boss said to his manager, 'They tell me you are not doing your job properly. So I'm going to sack you, and you will not have a job any more. Now write down everything you have done with my money, and after that, you have to go.'

<sup>3</sup> The manager thought to himself, 'Soon I will not have a job. What will I do to get money for my food? I'm not strong enough to do hard work, like digging the ground. And if I ask people for money all the time, I will feel shame. <sup>4</sup> What can I do? I know what to do. I will do something to get people to like me, so that after I lose my job, they will look after me, and they will let me live in their homes.'

<sup>5</sup> There were some people that borrowed things from that rich man, and they didn't give anything back to him yet. So the manager called those people into the office. He asked one man, 'What did you borrow from my boss?'

The manager said, 'We can change that. Here is the paper that has the numbers on it. I'll let you change it right now. Make it 50 drums of oil.'

That man said, 'I borrowed 100 bags of flour.'

The manager said, 'We can change that. Here is the paper that has the numbers on it. I'll let you change it right now. Make it 80 bags of flour.'

<sup>8</sup> That manager was cheating his boss, but his boss thought, 'This man is a liar and a cheat, but he is smart too. He has done something that will help him get his food later.' "

Then Jesus said, "You know, the people that don't care about God, but only care about the things in this world, they are smart with the things of this world. God's people are not so smart with the things of this world.

<sup>9</sup> This is what you can learn from that story. Use your money now to help people that need money, and then later, after you die, and you haven't got any money, God will say, 'Good on you. Come and live with me for ever.' "

Jesus talked about money

<sup>10</sup> Then Jesus said, "If people can trust you with little things, they can trust you with big things too. If you cheat with little things, you will cheat with big things too.

<sup>11</sup> So if you cheat when you handle money and other things of this world, God will not trust you to look after his very special things. <sup>12</sup> And if you don't look after other people's things properly, God will not give you things for yourself.

<sup>13</sup> You see, you can't work for 2 bosses at the same time. If you try to do that, you will like one boss and work properly for him, and you will not like the other boss, and you will not work properly for him. You see, you can't have God as your boss, and money as your boss, both at the same time.”*

God knows more than people know, and his word is strong

<sup>14</sup> Some of the Pharisee mob were there. They were strong for the Jewish law. And they loved money a lot too, so when they heard Jesus teach those things, they laughed at him. <sup>15</sup> Then Jesus told them, “You mob want everyone to think you are good, but God knows what you are really like, and he knows what you think inside your heads. You see, there are things that people reckon are important, but God thinks those things are rubbish.

<sup>16</sup> You know, God gave Moses the law for people to follow, and he sent his other men to tell people God's messages. And God's people had to follow those words, from the time of Moses until the time that John the Baptist came. Then John told people about the new way. And I'm telling people about that new way too. I'm telling them how to join God's family too, and now lots of people are trying hard to get into God's family. <sup>17</sup> But the laws from Moses will not go away. You know, the sky and the earth will stay here for a long time, and while they stay here, God's words will stay here too. God will not change any little bit of them.”*

Don't split up your marriage

<sup>18</sup> Then Jesus said, “Some of those words from God are about people that want to break up their marriage. It is wrong. If a man divorces his wife and marries another woman, he is sleeping with the wrong woman. She is not his proper wife. And if another man marries the divorced woman, that man is sleeping with the wrong woman too.”*

The story about a rich man and a poor man

<sup>19</sup> Jesus told them another picture story. He said, “There was a rich man that always wore really good clothes, and he always had plenty of good food to eat. <sup>20</sup> And there was a very poor man. His name was Lazarus. He had a lot of sores on his body, and he was hungry, but he had nothing to eat. So he used to lie down at the gate of the rich man's house. <sup>21</sup> He wanted to get some of the rubbish food that the rich man chucked away. But that rich man didn't give him anything. And that poor man couldn't stop the dogs there from licking his sores.

<sup>22</sup> Then one day, the poor man died, and God sent his angel messengers to get him and take him to be with Abraham, our grand-father that died a long time ago.

Then later the rich man died, and his family buried his body. <sup>23</sup> He went to a place where dead people go. A big fire there was hurting him a lot. Then he looked up, and he saw Abraham, a long way off, and he saw Lazarus there with Abraham. <sup>24</sup> So he yelled out loud. He said, ‘Grand-father Abraham, this fire is hurting me a lot. Feel sorry for me, and send Lazarus to bring some water to me, and put his finger in it and then put it on my tongue, to cool it a little bit.’

<sup>25</sup> But Abraham said, ‘Son, remember that when you were alive on the earth, you had everything that you wanted, and Lazarus had nothing. So now he is here, and we are making him feel good, but you are there in that fire. <sup>26</sup> And anyway, he can't go to you. There is a really big gully in between this place and that place where you are. Nobody can cross over from here to that place, and nobody can come from that place to here.’

<sup>27</sup> Then the rich man said, ‘Then how about this, Grand-father Abraham. Send Lazarus back to the earth, to my family. <sup>28</sup> I've got 5 brothers there. Get Lazarus to tell them about this bad place, so they will stop doing bad things. If they turn around and live God's way, they will not end up in this bad place.’

<sup>29</sup> But Abraham said, ‘God told his message to Moses, and to his other men too. They wrote God's word in his book. Your brothers can read that book at any time, and if they do what God says, they will not end up in that bad place.’

<sup>30</sup> The rich man said, ‘But Grand-father Abraham, my brothers don't take any notice of God's book. But if a dead man will come alive again and talk to them, they will take notice of him. Then they will stop doing bad things, and turn around, and do good things.’

<sup>31</sup> But Abraham said, ‘Look, if they take no notice of Moses, and if they take no notice of the things that God's men wrote in his book, they will not take any notice of anyone, not even a dead person that comes alive again.’”

17

Jesus talked about people that go wrong

<sup>1</sup> Jesus said to his followers, “You know, there will always be somebody that will try to make you go wrong and do bad things, but God will punish the person that does that. <sup>2</sup> If anyone gets a little kid to do something bad, God will properly punish that person. Suppose somebody gets a big stone and ties it to that person’s neck and throws them into the sea and drowns them, that will be bad for them, but not as bad as the trouble God will give them for getting that little kid to go wrong. <sup>3</sup> So be careful.”

Jesus talked to his followers. He said, “If one of my followers does something bad to you, tell them that it is wrong. If they change their way and say they are sorry, then let it go. Don’t think about any payback.* <sup>4</sup> Maybe they do that a lot, like 7 times in one day, and then each time they turn around and say, ‘I’m sorry.’ If they do that, you have to let it go every time.”

Jesus talked about how to trust him and work for God

<sup>6</sup> Jesus said, “You know that plant called mustard? It has very little seeds, but they grow into a big plant. Well, like that, if you trust me properly, even if it is just a little bit, you will get stronger and trust me more. Then you will do powerful things, like if you say to a tree, ‘Get up and throw yourself into the sea,’ then that tree will do what you tell it to do.”

<sup>7</sup> And Jesus said to his followers, “You know about bosses and their workers. Maybe a work-man digs the ground to plant seeds one day, or maybe he looks after sheep. When the sun starts to go down, the work-man comes back to the house of his boss. That boss doesn’t say, ‘Sit down with me, and we will have dinner together.’ <sup>8</sup> No. The boss says, ‘Get my dinner ready for me. Then put on clean clothes and bring me my dinner. Then, after I finish eating, you can get yourself some food to eat.’ <sup>9</sup> That boss never says thank you to his work-man. You see, his work-man just did what the boss told him to do. He didn’t do anything more. <sup>10</sup> Well, it is the same with you. You are God’s workers. When you do what God tells you to do, just say to yourselves, ‘We are not special people. We are just workers, and we only did what our boss told us to do.’”

Jesus made 10 men better

<sup>11</sup> After that, Jesus kept going along the road to the city called Jerusalem, and he went from Galilee country into Samaria country. <sup>12</sup> He got to a town, and he started to go into it, but 10 men met him there. They all had a bad skin sickness, so they didn’t come close to Jesus, but they stood a little bit away from him and shouted to him. <sup>13</sup> They said, “Jesus, sir, please feel sorry for us, and help us.”

<sup>14</sup> Jesus looked at them and said, “All right. Go to the leaders of our Jewish ceremonies and let them look at your skin.” So they started to go to those ceremony leaders, and while they were walking along, they all got better. Their skin was good again.*

<sup>15</sup> One of them looked at his skin and saw that it was good again, so he turned around and came back to Jesus. He kept talking really loud, saying, “God is really good and really great.” <sup>16</sup> And he got down on his knees in front of Jesus, to show him respect. And he said to Jesus, “Thank you, sir.” That man was not Jewish, like the 9 other men, and like Jesus and his followers, but he was from the Samaria nation.

<sup>17</sup> Jesus asked the man, “I made 10 men better, right? Where are the other 9 men? <sup>18</sup> None of the Jewish men came back to say thank you to God. Only you came back, and you are not Jewish, you belong to another nation.” <sup>19</sup> Then Jesus said to the man, “You can stand up now and go home. You believed in me, so now you are better.”

God is getting people into his family

<sup>20</sup> At one time, some of the Pharisee mob, that were strong for the Jewish law, they asked Jesus, “When will God come and bring his people together, and be their boss here on earth?”

Jesus said, “You will not see anything different when God starts to bring his people together and be their boss. People can’t see it happen. <sup>21</sup> Nobody will say, ‘Look everyone, God is the boss here,’ or, ‘Look over there, and you will see that God is the boss there.’ No, it is not like that. You see, God is already getting people into his family, and he is their boss right now. His family is right here among you mob.”

Jesus talked about the time when he will come back

heaven, and the time will come when you will really want to see me come back, but you will not see me at that time. <sup>23</sup> People will say to you, 'Look, there he is, over there,' or they might say, 'Here he is, over here.' But don't take any notice of them. Don't try to find me. <sup>24</sup> You see, I am God's special man from heaven, and when I come back, I will be like lightning. You know how it flashes really bright, and everyone can see it. Well, I will be like that. Everyone will see me. <sup>25</sup> But first, before that happens, the people that are alive today will reckon they don't want me to be their boss, and they will hurt me a lot. <sup>26-27</sup> Think about the story about Noah, the good man that lived a long time ago. He made a big boat. While he was doing that, the bad people there kept on living the way they always lived. They had parties, with plenty to eat and drink, and they promised wives to each other, and they got married. They kept on living like that right up until the time Noah and his family got into that big boat. Then a big flood of water came and finished up all those bad people. You see, I am God's special man from heaven, and when I come back here, the people will be living the way they always live, just like they were when that big flood of water came.*

<sup>28-29</sup> And remember the story about Lot, the good man that lived in a town called Sodom. A lot of bad people lived there. Those people were living the way they always lived. They had parties, with plenty to eat and drink, and they bought things and sold things, and they planted seeds in their gardens, and they built houses for themselves. They kept on living like that right up until the day that Lot and his family ran out of that town. Then God sent fire and burning stones down from the sky, and it burned up all of those bad people, and finished them up.* <sup>30</sup> You know, before I come back from heaven, the people will be just like that. They will be living the same way as they always live.

Yes, I am God's special man from heaven, and one day, I will show myself to everybody. <sup>31</sup> On that day, it will be like this. It will be hard for you. You will have to run away. If you are outside your house, don't go in and pack up your things to take with you. No. Just run away. If you are out in the bush, don't go back to your house to get anything. No. Just run away.*

<sup>32</sup> Think again about that story about Lot and his family. Remember what his wife did. While they were running away, she stopped and looked back at that town, like she wanted to go back. But she died right there.* <sup>33</sup> You see, it's like this. If you only want to look after your own life here on earth, you will lose it. You will not live with me for ever. But if you are ready to give up your life here, then you will find real life, and you will live with me for ever.*

<sup>34</sup> Listen, I'll tell you more about the time when I will come back. God will take his people away from the other people. It will be like this. There will be 2 people asleep in one bed. God will take one of them and leave the other one. <sup>35-36</sup> There will be 2 women working together getting food ready to cook. God will take one of them and leave the other one."

Jesus said, "You know what people say, 'If you see a lot of crows in one place, you know that there is a dead body there at that place.' Well, like that, when you see all those things happening, those things that I told you about, you will know that the world will soon finish up."*

The story about the woman that kept on asking for a fair go

<sup>2</sup> He said, "There was a judge in a city, and he was a hard man. He didn't respect God, and he didn't care about people, either. <sup>3</sup> A woman lived in that city. Her husband was dead, and she had nobody to look after her. Then a bad man tricked that woman and took her money. So she went to the judge and said, 'Your honour, that man tricked me. Please give me a fair go. Make him give me back my money.'

<sup>4-5</sup> The judge didn't answer her. He took no notice of her, and he wouldn't listen to her. But she kept on asking him, and for a while he kept on taking no notice of her. But after a while he said to himself, 'This woman is driving me mad. Even though I don't respect God, and I don't care about people, I will make sure she gets a fair go. I will give her what she wants. If I don't

* 17:26-27 Genesis 6:5-8; 7:6-24 * 17:28-29 Genesis 18:20—19:25 * 17:31 Matthew 24:17-18; Mark 13:15-16

* 17:32 Genesis 19:26 * 17:33 Matthew 10:39; 16:25; Mark 8:35; Luke 9:24; John 12:25 * 17:37 Matthew 24:28

do that, she will keep on asking me, and I'm getting sick of it.'"

<sup>6</sup> Then Jesus said, "That judge was a bad man, but think about what he said to himself. That woman kept on asking him, and in the end, he did the right thing. <sup>7</sup> Well, God is a lot better than that judge, and God picked you to be in his family. So if you keep on calling out to him for help all the time, what do you think he will do? Will he wait a while before he does anything? <sup>8</sup> No. I'm telling you this for sure. God will listen to you, and he will help you quickly. He will make sure you get a fair go."

Then Jesus said, "But when I, God's special man, come back again from heaven to this earth, will I find people trusting me, or not? Maybe only a few people will be trusting me at that time."

The story about 2 men that prayed to God in 2 different ways

<sup>9</sup> Some people there thought that they were really good, and they rubbished everyone else. They reckoned, "We are so good that God will always say we are all right."

So Jesus told them this picture story. He said, <sup>10</sup> "I will tell you about 2 men that went to God's ceremony house to pray to him. One of them was a Pharisee man, so he was strong for the law. The other one was a man that got tax money from people and gave it to the Roman government. You know, nobody likes those tax men."

<sup>11</sup> The Pharisee man stood in a place where everyone could see him, and he didn't say he was sorry for anything. He just talked about himself. He said, "Thank you, God, that I am different from everyone else. You see, God, I don't cheat anyone, and I don't do anything bad. I don't sleep with anyone that is not my wife. I'm not a bad man, like that man over there. He takes tax money from people to give it to the government. <sup>12</sup> But I am good. On 2 days every week I don't eat any food to show that I respect you. And whenever I get some money, I give you some of it, like $1 out of every $10. I do all those things, so you have to say I am all right."

<sup>13</sup> But the tax man was sorry for the bad things he did. He felt shame, so he did not stand close to the other people. He looked down at the ground, and he hit himself on his chest. He said, "I'm sorry, God. I know I did bad things. Please feel sorry for me and don't punish me."

<sup>14</sup> Jesus said, "I'm telling you now, God listened to that bad man because he was sorry for the bad things he did, so God says that he is all right, and he will not punish that man. But God doesn't say that about the other man that already reckoned he was good."

You see, if you try to make yourself important, God will make you like nothing. But if you make yourself like nothing, God will make you important."*

Zakias met Jesus

<sup>1</sup> Jesus went to a town called Jericho. He went into that town and started to go through it. <sup>2</sup> A very rich man lived there. His name was Zakias. His job was to get tax money from the people and give it to the government, and he was the boss over some other tax men too. Sometimes tax men cheated people and kept some money for themselves, so nobody liked them.

<sup>3</sup> Zakias wanted to see Jesus, but he was a short man, and there were a lot of people around Jesus, and they got in his way and blocked him, so he couldn't see Jesus. <sup>4</sup> So he ran up the road ahead of Jesus and climbed up into a tree, and he saw Jesus from up high in that tree.

<sup>5</sup> When Jesus got to that tree, he looked up and saw Zakias, and he said to him, "Zakias. Come down here. And hurry. I want to go and stay at your house today."

<sup>6</sup> Then Zakias was very happy, and he came down quickly, and he took Jesus to his house. <sup>7</sup> But when the other people saw this, they were angry with Jesus. They said, "Look. He has gone to stay with a bad man. He shouldn't do that."

<sup>8</sup> But later, at his house, Zakias stood up and said to Jesus, "Listen, sir, this is what I am going to do now. I am going to split up all the things I own into 2 heaps, and I will give one heap away to poor people. And as well as that, I'm going to give money back to those people that I cheated. I am going to give them back 4 times as much as I took from them."

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesus told everybody there, "Listen. Today, right now, God saved this man, and everybody at his place too. You see, this man is one of God's people now, just like Abraham, because he believes in me just like Abraham believed in God. <sup>10</sup> I am God's special man from heaven, and

* 18:14 Matthew 23:12; Luke 14:11

I came to earth to look for people that went wrong and got lost, so that I can save them."

<sup>11</sup> The people there kept on listening to Jesus, and he kept on teaching them. You see, those people reckoned that when Jesus got to Jerusalem, God was going to make him the biggest boss in the world. And Jesus was close to Jerusalem, so they reckoned that soon God was going to make him that biggest boss. So Jesus told them this picture story to help them understand what was really going to happen.

<sup>12</sup> He said, "There was an important man in a country, and one day, he got a message from the biggest boss over all those countries. That biggest boss wanted that man to come and see him, so that he could make him the new boss over his own country. <sup>13</sup> But before that man went away, he got 10 of his work-men to come and talk to him. He gave each work-man $1,000 to look after for him. He told them it was not their own money, but they had to use that money to get more money for him. Then that man went away to meet with that biggest boss.

<sup>14</sup> But some of the people in that man's country hated him, so they sent a messenger to tell the biggest boss that they didn't want that man to become their boss.

<sup>15</sup> But the biggest boss didn't listen to them. He made that man the new boss over the country where that man lived.

Some time later, that man went back to his home. Then he got his work-men to come to him, and he asked each one of them about the money that he left with them. He wanted to know how much more money they got for him.

<sup>16</sup> The first work-man said, 'I used your money to get a lot more money for you. I now have 10 times as much as you left with me.'

<sup>17</sup> His boss said, 'Good. You did well. You are a good work-man. I only left a little bit of my money with you, but you used it the way I wanted you to. So now I will give you a really good job. I will make you the boss over 10 cities in this country.'

<sup>18</sup> The next work-man said, 'I used your money to get a lot more money for you. I now have 5 times as much as you left with me.'

<sup>19</sup> His boss said, 'Good. You did well too. So now I will give you a good job. I will make you the boss over 5 cities in this country.'

<sup>22</sup> His boss got angry and yelled at him, 'You are a bad work-man. Just now you reckoned that I am a hard man, and you reckoned that I grab things that don't belong to me. That is not true. But if you reckon that I am a hard man, I will be a hard judge for you. <sup>23</sup> Listen, you didn't even put my money in the bank. The bank keeps money for me, and when they give it back to me, they give me a bit more money with it.'

<sup>26</sup> Their boss said, 'Yes, that's right. You see, if I give people something, and they use it well, then I will give them more. But if they don't do anything with it, I will take away from them that little bit they have.'

<sup>27</sup> Then the boss talked about his enemies. He said, 'Grab my enemies, you know, those people that hated me and didn't want me to become their boss. Bring those people to me, and kill them, right here in front of me.' "

(We have not yet translated 19:28—22:34. You can read most of those stories and messages in Mark 11:1—14:31. Some of them are about the time that Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a donkey, and the other things that happened at that time. And they say that he started to eat a special dinner, called the Passover, with his followers. While they were eating that dinner, Jesus talked to them. This next story here is some of what Jesus said at that time.)

Jesus told his followers to do something different

<sup>35</sup> Jesus said to his followers, "Remember that time I told you to go to other towns and tell people God's story, and I told you not to take a bag, or money, or extra shoes? Did you go short of anything at that time, or did you get everything you needed anyway?"

They said, "We didn't go short of anything."*

<sup>36</sup> Then Jesus said, "But it is different now. Listen, you are going to get a lot of trouble. So if you have a bag, take it with you. And if you have some money, take it with you. And you will need a long knife to fight with too, so if you haven't got one, sell your coat to get some money and buy one.

<sup>37</sup> You see, something is going to happen now that is in God's book. A long time ago, God got one of his men to write this,

'The people reckoned God's man was bad, and they treated him the same way they treat bad criminals.'

Listen, I'm telling you, they are going to do that now. They are going to do it to me."*

Jesus said, "We don't need to talk about that any more."

(We have not yet translated 22:39—23:4. You can read those stories and messages in Mark 14:32—15:5. They are about what happened after Jesus and his followers finished eating that Passover dinner. They are about how Jesus's enemies grabbed him and took him to court. The name of the judge was Pilate.)

23

Pilate sent Jesus to the big boss called Herod

<sup>5</sup> The Jewish leaders kept on blaming Jesus. They told Pilate, "He gets people everywhere to go wild. He started to do that in Galilee country, then in Judea country, and now he is doing it here in Jerusalem."

The big boss over Galilee was called Herod, and he was visiting Jerusalem right at that time. So Pilate sent Jesus to him, to let Herod be his judge.

<sup>8</sup> Herod was very happy to see Jesus. You see, a long time before that day, Herod heard about Jesus, so he always wanted to meet him. He wanted to see Jesus do something powerful. <sup>9</sup> So Herod asked him a lot of questions, but Jesus didn't answer any of them. <sup>10</sup> The bosses of the Jewish ceremonies and the Jewish law teachers, they stood there all that time, shouting out and blaming Jesus. <sup>11</sup> Then Herod and his soldiers started laughing at Jesus and rubbing him. They put a pretty coat on him, the sort that a big boss wears. Then they sent him back to Pilate.

<sup>12</sup> You know, before that day Herod and Pilate didn't like each other, but on that day they became friends.

(We have not yet translated 23:13-26. You can read those stories in Mark 15:6-15, 21. They say that Pilate told his soldiers to nail Jesus to a cross to kill him, and those soldiers started to take Jesus to the place to do that.)

Jesus told the Jerusalem women that something bad will happen

<sup>27</sup> A big mob of people followed Jesus. There were a lot of women among them. They were really sad. They were crying really loud, and they were hitting themselves. <sup>28</sup> So Jesus turned around and said to them, "You women that live here in Jerusalem, don't cry for me, but cry for yourselves, and for your kids. <sup>29</sup> Listen, soon bad things will happen to everybody. The time will come when people will say, 'Those women that can't have babies, and those women that don't have to feed babies, they are the lucky ones.' <sup>30</sup> Things will be so bad that people will want to die, so they will ask the mountains to fall on top of them and kill them. And they will ask the hills to bury them."*

<sup>31</sup> You see, I didn't do anything wrong and people are hurting me. But you mob do bad things, so people will hurt you a lot more."

(We have not yet translated 23:32-38. You can read those stories and messages in Mark 15:21-32. They are about how soldiers nailed Jesus and 2 criminals to crosses.)

One criminal believed in Jesus

<sup>39</sup> One of the criminals hanging on a cross beside Jesus was rubbing him, and said, "You reckon you are the Christ, the special man that God promised to send to save us. All right, if you are God's man, then save yourself, and save us too. But I reckon you can't do it."

<sup>40</sup> But the other criminal hanging on a cross said, "Don't talk like that. Have a bit of respect for God. Listen, they are killing the 3 of us together. <sup>41</sup> They are killing you and me because we did really bad things, but this man, Jesus, he didn't do anything wrong."

<sup>42</sup> Then that criminal talked to Jesus. He said, "Jesus, you are going to get God's people together into one family, and you will be their leader. When you do that, don't forget me. I want to be there with you too."

* 22:35 Matthew 10:9-10; Mark 6:8-9; Luke 9:3; 10:4

* 22:37 Isaiah 53:12 * 23:30 Hosea 10:8; Revelation 6:16

<sup>43</sup> Jesus said, "All right. Listen, you will be with me today, in God's good place called Paradise. That's for sure."

(We have not yet translated 23:44—24:12. You can read those stories and messages in Mark 15:33—16:20. They are about how Jesus died, and then people buried him, but after that, he came alive again.)

24

2 of Jesus's followers walked to a place called Emayus

<sup>13</sup> Later, on that same day, 2 of Jesus's followers walked from Jerusalem city to a town called Emayus. It was about 11 kilometres away. <sup>14</sup> As they walked along the road, they talked about everything that happened. <sup>15-16</sup> Then suddenly Jesus came and joined up with them, but they didn't know it was Jesus. God stopped them from seeing who he was. Jesus walked along with them and listened to what they said to each other. <sup>17</sup> Then he asked them, "What is this thing you are talking about so much, as you walk along the road?"

When they heard him ask that, they were shocked, and they both stopped walking and stood still. They looked very sad. <sup>18</sup> One of them was Cliopas. He said, "I reckon you are the only visitor to Jerusalem that hasn't heard about the things that happened here in the last few days."

They said, "The things that happened to Jesus, the man from Nazareth. God gave him the power to tell his messages, and to teach people his words, and to do powerful things. All the people reckoned he was great. <sup>20</sup> But our bosses, and the bosses of our ceremonies, they grabbed him and gave him to the Roman soldiers, and told them to kill him. So those soldiers nailed him to a cross, and he died. Then some men put his body in a big hole in the rock, called a cave. <sup>21</sup> But, you know, we were hoping he will save us Israel people, but he can't do that now. And all of that happened 2 days ago, and now it is the 3rd day since he died. <sup>22</sup> And today, some of our women gave us a shock. They got up early this morning and went to that cave, <sup>23</sup> but his body was not there. And they came back and told us that they saw some of God's angel messengers there, and those angels said that he is alive. <sup>24</sup> Then some of our men went to that cave, and they saw that everything was just like the women said. His body was not in the cave."

<sup>25</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "You 2 are a bit stupid. You don't properly believe the messages that God's men told us a long time ago. <sup>26</sup> You see, they told us about the Christ, the special man that God promised to send to save his people. They said that he will get this sort of trouble, and he will die, but then God will show everyone that he is really great."

<sup>27</sup> Then Jesus told them what God said about him in his book. He made it very clear to them. He started with the words that Moses wrote, and he also talked about the words that God's other men wrote, and he told them what those words mean.

<sup>28</sup> They kept walking along as Jesus talked to them, and they got to Emayus, the place where those 2 men were going to stay. Jesus was starting to keep going on that road, <sup>29</sup> but those 2 men said, "You can't keep going to another place. It's too late. The sun is going down. Please stay here with us tonight." So he went with them to their house.

<sup>30</sup> The 3 of them sat down to eat at the table, and Jesus picked up some bread and said thank you to God for it, and then he broke it into bits and gave it to them.

<sup>31</sup> Then suddenly, God let them see that it was Jesus talking to them. Then, as soon as they knew who he was, they couldn't see him any more. He was not there any more. He was gone. <sup>32</sup> They said to each other, "Wow. That's the reason why we felt really happy inside this afternoon. We felt really excited when he talked to us on the road, and he made God's book really clear for us."

<sup>33</sup> Then they got up straight away, and they went back to Jerusalem. They went to see Jesus's 11 special workers. There were other followers of Jesus at that place too. <sup>34</sup> They were all talking together and saying, "Yes, Jesus really is alive again. He showed himself to Peter."

<sup>35</sup> Then the 2 men that came back from Emayus told the other followers their story. They told them what happened on the road, and that they suddenly saw that it was Jesus while he was breaking the bread.

<sup>36</sup> While they were still telling their story, suddenly Jesus was standing right there in the middle of the group. He said to them, "Hello. I want you to feel happy and quiet inside yourselves."

<sup>37</sup> They were all shocked and frightened. They thought they were looking at a spirit. <sup>38</sup> But Jesus said to them, "Why are you frightened? Why do you think, 'This can't be Jesus'? Look, it is me. <sup>39</sup> Look at my hands and my feet. See the holes made by the nails. Touch me, to make sure that I'm not a spirit. Spirits haven't got bodies with bones in them, like I have." <sup>40</sup> After he said that, he showed them his hands and his feet. <sup>41</sup> They were so surprised that they could hardly believe it really was Jesus, but they were really happy too.

Then Jesus asked them, "Have you got anything here for me to eat?" <sup>42</sup> So they gave him a bit of cooked fish. <sup>43</sup> And he ate it there in front of them.

<sup>44</sup> Then he said to them, "Remember the words that I told you while I was still with you. I told you that everything that God says about me in his book had to happen. You can read about those things in the words that Moses wrote, and in the words that God's other men wrote, and in the songs that are in God's book." <sup>45</sup> Then he helped them to understand the words that are in God's book, like he opened their brains, so they could think properly. <sup>46</sup> And he said to them, "God says this in his book,

'The Christ, the special man that God will send, will get a lot of trouble, and he will die. He will be dead for 2 nights, then on the 3rd day, he will come alive again.'

That message, in God's book, is about me. <sup>47</sup> And God says you have to tell everyone about me. Tell them that they have to turn away from the bad things they do and turn to God, so that he will say they are not guilty of the bad things they did. You have to start telling people that message here in Jerusalem, and then go on to other countries, until you tell it to the people in every country. <sup>48</sup> You see, you mob saw everything that happened, and you heard what I taught people, so now you have to tell it to everybody. <sup>49</sup> But listen. My father promised to give you his Holy Spirit from heaven, so wait here in this city until I send him to you. Then you will have God's power."*

Jesus went up to heaven

<sup>50</sup> Then Jesus took his followers just outside the city, to the town called Bethany. When they got there, he lifted up his hands and asked God to be good to them, and to make them strong. <sup>51</sup> While he was still talking, God lifted him up and took him away from them, up into heaven. <sup>52</sup> Then his followers showed strong respect for Jesus. They were very happy, and they went back to Jerusalem. <sup>53</sup> Every day, they went to God's ceremony house, and they said, "Thank you God. You are really good."

John wrote this good news about Jesus (The book in the Holy Bible called John) About this book

The Holy Bible has 4 books about the things that Jesus did, and the messages he told to people when he was here on the earth, about 2,000 years ago. Those books are in the 2nd part of the Holy Bible, called the New Testament. The men that wrote them were Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. They wrote their books after Jesus went back to heaven. Most of the things in their books happened in the country we now call Israel.

We have translated everything that John wrote in his book about Jesus. It is important for us today because it tells us about the things Jesus did, and the messages that he brought us from God.

John was the young brother of James. Their father's name was Zebedee. They were fishermen on a lake called Lake Galilee, and it was also called Lake Tiberias. One day, Jesus walked along beside that lake, and he called to James and John, and he told them to follow him (see Mark 1:19-20).

Later, Jesus picked 12 men to be his special workers, and 2 of them were James and John (see Mark 3:13-19). Those 12 men went everywhere with Jesus for the next 3 years. So John saw and heard most of the things that he wrote about in this book.

John wrote this book about 50 years after those things happened. That was a long time after Matthew, Mark and Luke wrote their books about Jesus.

The one called the Word gave life to everything

<sup>1</sup> This is the story about somebody called the Word. Before God made anything, the Word was with God, and he was just the same as God. You see, the Word was God. <sup>2</sup> Yes, the Word was with God before anything happened. <sup>3</sup> God used the Word to make everything. God and the Word worked together, and they made everything, everywhere. <sup>4</sup> The Word had the power to give life to everything, and he showed people what is true about God. You see, the Word was a light for everyone. <sup>5</sup> That light shines out into the darkness and makes everything clear, and the darkness can't put it out.

John the Baptist told people about God's special man

<sup>6</sup> One day, God sent a man called John to talk to people.* <sup>7</sup> His job was to tell everyone about the person that is that light, so everyone could hear his message and believe it. <sup>8-9</sup> John was not that real light, but he came to tell people about that light. The real light was coming into the world. That light was going to shine in the darkness so that everyone could see God.

The one called the Word became a human being <sup>10</sup> The one called the Word came to the world. You know, God used that one called the Word to make everything in the world, but people in the world didn't know who he was. <sup>11</sup> He came to his own countrymen, but most of them didn't want him. <sup>12</sup> But some people did want him. They believed in him, so God said they can join his family, and be his own kids. <sup>13</sup> Yes, those people are in God's family, but they were not born into it the way kids are born into human families. And they did not come from what a human mother or father wanted. God himself gave them new life and made them his kids.

<sup>14</sup> You see, the Word became a human being. He came and lived in a body, with us here on the earth. We saw that he was really powerful, just like God. Then we knew that he was God's only special son, and he showed us what his father is like. He was a really good man, and everything he said was true.

<sup>15</sup> But before we saw the Word, this is what John told everybody about him. He said, "I am telling you about a man that will come later. He is a lot greater than I am. You see, he was alive even before I was born."

<sup>16</sup> That man is really good. And when he came, he was really good to us. He is like that. He is good to us all the time, even when we do nothing good for him. <sup>17</sup> You know, God gave Moses the law a long time ago, so that our people could live God's way, but Jesus Christ gave us God's true message. He showed us that God loves us, even though we did nothing good for him. <sup>18</sup> Nobody has ever seen God. But the special man, the one that is God, he is always with his father. He is the one that showed us what God is like.

John the Baptist answered questions about himself

* 1:6 Matthew 3:1; Mark 1:4; Luke 3:1-2

<sup>19</sup> The Jewish leaders in Jerusalem city sent some of the bosses of their ceremonies, and other men that helped in the Jewish ceremonies, to ask John some questions. They said to him, "Who are you?"

<sup>20</sup> John told them straight. He said, "I am not the Christ, the special man that God promised to send to save his people."

<sup>21</sup> Those men from Jerusalem asked him again, "Who are you then? Are you Elijah, the man that told God's message a long time ago?"

John said, "No, I am not Elijah."

Again, the men asked, "What about the messenger that God promised, a long time ago. He promised to send a special man, like Moses, to tell his message. Are you that man?"

And again, John said, "No, I am not that man."

<sup>22</sup> Then the men asked him, "Well, who are you? And why are you here? We have to tell our leaders."

<sup>23</sup> John talked to them with the words that Isaiah wrote, a long time ago. Isaiah told people God's words, and they are in God's book. John said,

"I am a man that is out in the bush, calling out to people. I'm saying, 'You mob get ready. Later on, God will come to this country.

It is like when a big boss comes, you have to make a good road for him.' " *

<sup>24-25</sup> Some of those men from Jerusalem were from the Pharisee mob, that were strong for the law. They said to John, "You say that you are not the special man that God promised to send, called the Christ. And you say that you are not Elijah, or the messenger that God promised. So why do you baptise people? Why do you take them through that special washing ceremony?"

<sup>26-27</sup> John said to them, "I baptise people with water. But I am telling you, there is somebody coming after me that you don't know yet. He is the most important one. I am not good enough to untie his shoes."

<sup>28</sup> That all happened at a place called Bethany, on the east side of the Jordan River. John was baptising people there.

John the Baptist told people about Jesus

<sup>29</sup> The next day, John saw Jesus coming to him. John said to the people there, "Look at that man. He is the special one that God sent. You know how people kill a young sheep to pay for the bad things they did. Well, God sent this man to die, like those young sheep. He is going to let people kill him, to pay for all the bad things that everybody in the world does.

<sup>30</sup> He is the man I told you about. I said, 'He is a lot greater than I am. You see, he was always alive, even before I was born.' <sup>31-34</sup> At first I didn't know that this was the special man that God promised to send. You see, God sent me to you Israel people to baptise you with water and get you ready, so that God can show that man to you.

I didn't know which man was the right one, but God told me this, 'You will see the Holy Spirit coming down on to one man, and the spirit will stay on that man. Then you will know that he is the special man that I sent. He is the one that will put the Holy Spirit into people, that is, he will baptise them with the Holy Spirit.'

And I saw it happen like God said. I saw the Holy Spirit come down from heaven. It looked like a pigeon. It came down and sat on him. So I'm telling you, this man is God's son."

Some men started to follow Jesus

<sup>35</sup> The next day, John was standing near the Jordan River again. <sup>36</sup> He saw Jesus walking by, and John said to 2 of his followers, "Look at that man. He is the special one that God sent to die for us. You know that God told people to kill young sheep, to pay for the wrong things they did. Well, this man will die for us, just like those young sheep died for people." <sup>37</sup> John's 2 followers heard him say that about Jesus, so they left John and followed Jesus.

<sup>38</sup> Jesus turned around and saw them, and he asked them, "What are you looking for? Why are you following me?"

The men said, "Rabbi, where is your camp?" (In their language, that word Rabbi means Teacher.)

<sup>39</sup> Jesus said, "Come and see." So the men followed Jesus to his camp, and they stayed with him that day. It was about 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

<sup>40-41</sup> Andrew was one of the 2 men that left John and followed Jesus. Andrew went quickly and found his brother, Simon, and said to him, "We have found the Messiah." (In their language that word Messiah means Christ. Both of those words mean the special man that God promised to send.) <sup>42</sup> So Andrew took Simon to meet Jesus.

Jesus looked at Simon and said, "You are Simon and your father's name is John. I will call you Kefas." (In their language, that word Kefas means stone, and Peter is another name that means stone, so we usually call him Peter.)

Jesus told Philip and Nathaniel to follow him

<sup>43</sup> The next day, Jesus wanted to go north, to Galilee country. But first he found a man called Philip and said to him, "Follow me."

<sup>45</sup> Philip went to his friend Nathaniel and said to him, "We have found the special man that Moses wrote about in our Jewish law books. And God's other messengers talked about this man too. His name is Jesus. He is from the town called Nazareth, and he is the son of Joseph."

<sup>46</sup> Nathaniel didn't believe the words he heard, and he said, "No, Nazareth is a rubbish place. Nothing good ever comes from there."

But Philip said, "Come and meet him."

<sup>47</sup> Jesus saw Nathaniel coming to meet him. Jesus said to the other people there, "Here is a proper Israel man. He doesn't try to trick anyone."

<sup>48</sup> Nathaniel asked Jesus, "How do you know me?"

Jesus said, "I knew you even before Philip found you. I saw you while you were under that fruit tree."

<sup>49</sup> Nathaniel said, "Teacher. You are the one we have been waiting for. You are the son of God, and you will be the big boss for all of us Israel people."

<sup>50</sup> Jesus asked him, "Do you believe in me because I said that I saw you under a fruit tree? Well, later on, you will see me do even greater things." <sup>51</sup> Then Jesus said to everyone there, "Listen, I am telling you straight, one day you will see heaven open up, and you will see God's angel messengers going up into heaven, and you will see them coming down on to me. I am God's special man from heaven."*

Jesus changed water into wine at a wedding party

<sup>1-2</sup> Later on, after 2 days, Jesus went to a wedding party, where a man and a woman got married. It was in a town called Cana, in Galilee country. And Jesus's mother and his followers went with him. <sup>3</sup> There was always weak wine to drink at a wedding party, but they used up all that wine. So Jesus's mother said to him, "They have run out of wine. Can you help them?"

<sup>4</sup> Jesus said to her, "Why are you asking me to do that? It is not the right time yet for me to show everyone who I am."

<sup>6</sup> In that place there were 6 stone pots for water. The Jewish people used those pots for their washing ceremonies. Each pot held about 100 litres of water.

<sup>7</sup> Jesus said to the workers, "See those pots. Go and fill them up with water." So they filled them right up to the top with water.

<sup>8</sup> Then Jesus told them, "Now put some of it in a cup, and give it to the boss of the party." So they did what Jesus said.

<sup>9</sup> The boss man drank some of it, but it was not water, it was very good wine. He didn't know where that wine came from, but the workers knew.

Then the boss of the party talked to the man getting married. <sup>10</sup> The boss man said, "At wedding parties, the family usually gives people the best wine first. Then, after they get a bit drunk, the family gives them cheap wine. But you are different. You are giving out the best wine now, at the end of the party."

<sup>11</sup> This was the first powerful thing Jesus did. He did it in Cana, in Galilee country. He did it to show that his power came from God, and his followers believed in him. They believed that he came from God.

Jesus stopped people selling things in God's ceremony house

<sup>13</sup> Later on, it was nearly time for the Jewish ceremony called Passover, so Jesus and his followers went to Jerusalem city for that ceremony.*

<sup>14</sup> God's ceremony house was in Jerusalem, and people had to kill animals there and burn them to show respect to God, and they had to pay tax money to the men that look after God's house. Jesus went into the yard of God's ceremony house, and he found men there selling cows, and bulls, and sheep, and pigeons. And there were men there that changed the money of other countries into Jewish money so that people could pay that tax. You see, those men that sold things and changed money, they did that to get some money for themselves.

* 2:13 Exodus 12:1-27

<sup>15</sup> Jesus saw them doing that. So he made a whip out of some rope and used it to hunt those men and animals out of the yard. He went to the men that changed the money and pushed their tables over. All their money went everywhere on the ground. <sup>16</sup> And Jesus went to the men that sold pigeons, and he shouted, "Get those birds out of here. This is my father's house. Stop turning it into a shop." <sup>17</sup> Jesus's followers saw him do that, and they remembered that a long time ago God told one of his men to write this in God's book, "I really love God's house. I love it so much that I will do anything to look after it."

Then they knew that God's man wrote that about Jesus.*

<sup>18</sup> But the Jewish leaders got angry. They said to Jesus, "Hey, you can't do that. If you think you can, then do something powerful, to show us that God told you to hunt those men out of God's ceremony house."

<sup>19</sup> Jesus said to them, "If you knock down this house of God, I will build it again in 3 days."*

<sup>20</sup> The Jewish leaders said, "What? It took a lot of people 46 years to build this ceremony house. Do you think you can build it again in 3 days?"

<sup>21</sup> But Jesus wasn't talking about God's ceremony house. He was talking about his own body. <sup>22</sup> Later on, Jesus died, and he was dead for 2 nights, then on the 3rd day he came alive again. Then his followers remembered those words that Jesus said. And they believed his words and the messages in God's book about him.

Jesus knows what people are like

<sup>23</sup> While Jesus was in Jerusalem for the Passover ceremony, the people there saw him do powerful things, and lots of them believed in him. <sup>24-25</sup> But Jesus knew everything about all people. He didn't need anyone to tell him what people are like. And he knew that those people only believed in him after they saw him do powerful things, and that they might stop believing in him soon. So Jesus didn't trust them.

Nicodemus talked with Jesus

<sup>1-2</sup> One night, a man went to talk to Jesus. His name was Nicodemus. He was a leader of the Jewish people, and he was one of the mob called Pharisees, that were strong for the Jewish law. He said to Jesus,

"Teacher, we've been watching you do powerful things, so now we know that God has sent you to teach us. Only somebody with God's power can do those things."

<sup>3</sup> Jesus said to him, "Listen, I am telling you straight, people have to get born again, and then they can be in God's family."

<sup>5</sup> Jesus said, "Listen, I am telling you straight, if anyone wants to be in God's family, they have to get born again God's way. God has to make them clean, and he has to put his spirit in them. <sup>6</sup> You see, everybody is born from a human mother, that's how our bodies get life. But if people get born again from God's Holy Spirit, then the Holy Spirit gives new life to their spirits too.

<sup>7</sup> I said, 'You have to get born again.' Don't get shocked by that. <sup>8</sup> You know that the wind goes wherever it wants to go. You hear the sound it makes, but you don't know where it came from, and you don't know where it's going. Just like that, we don't know how God's spirit makes people get born again."

<sup>10</sup> Jesus said, "I am shocked. You are an important teacher here in Israel, and you don't understand what I'm saying.

<sup>11</sup> Listen, I am telling you straight, I talk about the things I know, and about the things I have seen, but you don't take any notice of what I tell you. <sup>12</sup> I told you about things that happen here on earth, and you don't believe me. So if I tell you about things that happen in heaven, I reckon you will still not believe me.

<sup>13</sup> I am the only person here that has been in heaven. I am the special man from God. I came down from heaven. So you have to believe what I say.

<sup>14</sup> Think about the story about our grand-fathers that lived a long time ago. They walked through the desert, and they started to complain to God, so he sent snakes to bite them and kill them. Then God told Moses to make a metal snake and put it up on a pole. Then, whenever a snake bit somebody, if that person looked at that metal snake up on the pole, they didn't die. Well, I am God's special man from heaven. Just like Moses lifted up that metal snake on a pole, people will lift me up on a cross,* <sup>15</sup> so that if anyone believes in me, then they will live with God for ever.”

* 2:19 Matthew 26:61; 27:40; Mark 14:58; 15:29

* 3:14 Numbers 21:9

<sup>16</sup> You see, God loved all of the people in the world. He loved everyone so much that he sent them his only son, his special son. God sent him to die instead of them, so that if anyone trusts him, God will not finish them up, but they will live with him for ever.

<sup>18</sup> If anyone believes in God's son, then God will not say they are guilty. But if anyone does not believe in him, God has already said they are guilty. You see, they do not believe in God's only son, his special son. <sup>19</sup> So God will judge them. You see, the light has come into the world, but people don't want the light. They love the darkness too much. They love doing bad things in the dark, and they want to keep on doing them. <sup>20</sup> If anyone does bad things, they hate the light. They will not come into the light. They know that if they come into the light, then everyone will see the bad things they are doing. <sup>21</sup> But anyone that lives the right way, comes into the light, so that everyone can see them living God's way.

<sup>22</sup> After that, Jesus went with his followers to Judea country, and he spent some time with them there. People went to Jesus there, and his followers baptised them.

<sup>23</sup> At that time some people kept going to John too, and he baptised them. John was at a place called Aynon, near the place called Salim. There was a lot of water there. <sup>24</sup> John was free at that time, but later the soldiers grabbed him and put him in jail.*

<sup>25</sup> At that time, the Jewish people had laws about making themselves clean for their ceremonies, and some of John's followers argued with a Jewish leader about the right way to get clean. <sup>26</sup> Then they went to John and said, "Teacher, remember that man you talked about, the man that was with you on the other side of the Jordan River. Lots of people are going to him, and he is baptising them."

<sup>27</sup> John said, "A person can only get what God gives them. Some people come to me, and some people go to Jesus, but don't worry. Don't be jealous. <sup>28</sup> Jesus is the special man that God sent to the world.

Remember, I told you, 'I am not the Christ, the special man that God promised to send to save his people. But God sent me to get people ready, so that they will listen to that special man.' You heard me say that.*

<sup>29</sup> Listen to this picture story about wedding parties. The man that marries the woman is the important man. The man's good friend waits for him, and the friend is really happy when the man comes. Well, in the same way, I am like the good friend of Jesus. He came, so I am really happy. And people are going to him, and I am happy about that too. <sup>30</sup> He has to get more and more important. But I am not important, and later I will be like nothing.

<sup>31</sup> Yes, Jesus is the most important one, he is the man that came from heaven. But we belong to the earth, so we can only talk about things we see and hear on earth. But Jesus came from heaven, so he knows about everything. <sup>32</sup> He talks about the things he saw and heard in heaven. But nobody believes him. <sup>33</sup> But if anyone does believe what he says, they clearly show that God's words are true.

<sup>34</sup> You see, Jesus only says God's words. God sent him and gave him the full power of his Holy Spirit. <sup>35</sup> God, the father, loves his son very much and gave him power over everything.* <sup>36</sup> Anyone that believes in God's son will live with him for ever. But anyone that does not do what God's son says, will not live with God, and God will be angry with that person for ever."

4

Jesus left Judea country and went to Galilee country

<sup>1-3</sup> More and more people were following Jesus, and his special workers were baptising all those people. Jesus himself didn't baptise anybody, just his special workers did that. Then Jesus's enemies, the Pharisee mob, they heard that Jesus had more followers than John had, so they started to watch Jesus. Jesus heard that they were watching him, so he left Judea country, and he went north to Galilee country.

Jesus talked to a woman from the country called Samaria

<sup>4</sup> On their way to Galilee country, Jesus and his followers had to go through the country called Samaria. <sup>5-8</sup> They walked a long way, then they got to a water-hole. A long time ago, their grand-father, Jacob, dug that water-hole. It was near the land that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.* There was a little town called Sikar near that water-hole, so Jesus's followers went into the town to buy some food. But Jesus was tired, so he sat down next to that water-hole and waited there.

* 3:24 Matthew 14:3; Mark 6:17; Luke 3:19-20 * 3:28 John 1:20 * 3:35 Matthew 11:27; Luke 10:22 * 4:5-8 Genesis 33:19; Joshua 24:32

In the middle of the day, a woman came from the town and got some water from that water-hole. Jesus said to her, "Can you give me a drink?"

<sup>10</sup> Jesus said to her, "I asked you for a drink of water, but really, you should ask me for a drink. You don't know who I am, and you don't know about the good thing that God can give you. If you ask me, I will give you the fresh water that makes people live."

<sup>11</sup> The woman said, "Sir, this water-hole is really deep, and you haven't got a bucket. How are you going to get that fresh water?" <sup>12</sup> Jacob, our grand-father that lived a long time ago, he dug this water-hole for himself, and for his sons, and for all their animals. They all drank this water. Do you think you are greater than Jacob?"

<sup>13</sup> Jesus said to her, "Everyone that drinks water from this water-hole will get thirsty again. <sup>14</sup> But if anyone drinks the water that I give them, they will never get thirsty again. That water will keep coming up inside them, like a spring of fresh water, and it will make them live for ever."

Jesus said to her, "That's right. You haven't got a husband now. <sup>18</sup> You have had 5 different husbands, and the man you live with now is only your boyfriend. You are not married to him. Yes, it's true, you haven't got a husband."

<sup>19</sup> The woman said, "Sir, you know all about me. I reckon you are one of those men that get messages from God. <sup>20</sup> So tell me who is right, you Jewish people or us Samaria people? My people have always shown respect to God by doing ceremonies on this mountain. But you Jews say that we have to go to Jerusalem to do those ceremonies and show respect to God. Who is right?"

<sup>21</sup> Jesus said to her, "Believe me, a time is coming when it will not matter if you show respect to God, the father, here on this mountain, or in Jerusalem, or anywhere else. <sup>22</sup> You see, you people try to show respect to God, but you don't really know him. We Jewish people show respect to God, and we know more about him. And God said that he will use a Jewish person to save everybody. <sup>23</sup> Yes, a time is coming when the people that belong to God will show respect to him properly. And that time is happening now. They will know the true story about God, and they will respect him with their spirits. They are the sort of people that my father is looking for, to show him respect. <sup>24</sup> You see, God is a spirit, and the people that really respect him have to know the true story about him, and they have to respect him with their spirits."

<sup>25</sup> The woman said to Jesus, "I know that a special man is coming. He is the man that God promised to send. He is the one called the Messiah, or the Christ. After he comes, he will tell us everything we need to know."

<sup>26</sup> Jesus said to her, "I am that man. Yes, that's me, the man you are talking to."

Jesus's followers came back

<sup>27</sup> Then at that time, Jesus's followers came back from the town. They saw Jesus and the woman, and they got a shock. He was talking to a woman. They wanted to ask her, "What do you want?" And they wanted to ask Jesus, "Why are you talking to that woman?" But they didn't say anything.

<sup>28</sup> The woman left her bucket next to the water-hole and went back into the town, and she said to the people there, <sup>29</sup> "Come and see a man that told me everything I ever did. Maybe he is the Christ, the special man that God promised to send, the one that we have been waiting for." <sup>30</sup> The people heard what she said, and they left the town to go and see Jesus.

<sup>31</sup> While the woman was in the town talking to the people there, Jesus's followers said to him, "Teacher, you have to eat something."

<sup>32</sup> But Jesus said to them, "I have food to eat that you don't know about."

<sup>33</sup> So his followers said to each other, "Did somebody give him food while we were away?"

* 4:9 Ezra 4:1-5; Nehemiah 4:1-2

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said, "Nobody gave me any food. I do everything my father wants me to do, and that keeps me going. It is like food for me. My father sent me here to do his work, and I want to finish it.

<sup>35</sup> Listen. I will tell you this picture story about food plants. You can plant seeds, but then you have to wait about 4 months for them to grow before you can get the food from them. That's how it is with food plants. But you will not have to wait for people to be ready. A lot of people are ready right now to hear the good news and join God's family. So there is already work for you to do. You don't have to wait, like you wait for food plants to grow. <sup>36</sup> Think again about food plants. A worker plants the seeds, and then after they grow up to be big plants, another worker gathers the food from them. And the owner pays both the worker that plants the seeds and the worker that gathers the food. This is a picture of God's workers. One of them tells people God's message, and later on, another worker will help those people to believe that message, so that God will take those people into his family and they will live with him for ever. Both of those workers will be really happy when they see people in God's family, just like both of the workers in the picture story got paid for their work.

<sup>37</sup> Sometimes people say, 'One worker plants the seeds and another worker gathers the food.' That is true. <sup>38</sup> And just like that, some of God's other workers have shared God's story with people, and now I'm sending you to help those people join God's family. Somebody else told them about God, and now you will see them join God's family."

<sup>39</sup> The people in the town heard the woman say, "He told me everything I ever did," and a lot of them believed in Jesus. <sup>40</sup> And so they came from the town to see Jesus, and they asked him to stay with them for a while. So he stayed there for 2 days. <sup>41</sup> He talked to them and told them his message, and even more people believed in him.

<sup>42</sup> The town people said to the woman, "We heard what you said about this man, and we believed you. But now we listened to him ourselves, and we know for sure that he is the man that God sent into the world to save people."

<sup>43</sup> Jesus stayed with the people there for 2 days. Then Jesus and his followers left Samaria and went north to Galilee country.

Jesus made a government boss's son better

<sup>44-45</sup> Galilee is the country where Jesus grew up. Before Jesus went there, he said to his followers, "If God picks a man to tell his messages, the people of that man's own home town don't respect him." But the Galilee people were in Jerusalem at the Passover time, and they saw Jesus do lots of powerful things there, so they were very happy to see him come to Galilee.*

<sup>46</sup> Jesus and his followers went again to Cana, the town in Galilee where he changed water into wine. In another town in Galilee, called Capernium, there was a very important man that worked for the government. But his son was very sick. <sup>47</sup> This man heard that Jesus came from Judea country to Galilee, so he went to see Jesus, and he asked him to come and make his son better. The boy was so sick that he was nearly dead.

<sup>48</sup> Jesus said to him, "If I just talk to you people, you don't believe me. You only believe me if you see me do something powerful."

<sup>49</sup> The man said, "Sir, please come to my house quickly before my son dies."

The man believed Jesus's words, so he left to go home. <sup>51</sup> The next day, as he got close to his house, his workers met him and told him, "Your son is better."

They said, "The sickness left him yesterday, at about one o'clock in the afternoon."

<sup>53</sup> The man worked out that it was at that same time that Jesus said, "Your son will get better." So the man, and his family, and everyone that lived in his house, they all believed in Jesus.

<sup>54</sup> That was the 2nd time that Jesus went from Judea to Galilee and then did a powerful thing.

5

A man couldn't walk, but Jesus made him better

<sup>2</sup> There was a gate into the city called the Sheep Gate, and there was a pool of water near that gate. The name of the pool was Bethesda. It had 5 shade shelters around it,

* 4:44-45 Matthew 13:57; Mark 6:4; Luke 4:24; John 2:23

<sup>3</sup> and a lot of sick people lay there. Some of those people were blind, and some of them were crippled, and some couldn't move at all.

<sup>4</sup> You see, those sick people wanted to get better, and they believed that sometimes one of God's angel messengers came down and stirred the water in that pool. And they believed that after that, the first person to get into the water got better from any sickness they had.

<sup>5</sup> Jesus came to that pool, and there was a man lying there that couldn't walk. He was crippled like that for 38 years. <sup>6</sup> Jesus saw the man lying there, and he knew that the man was crippled for a very long time. So Jesus asked him, "Do you want to get better?"

This happened on the Jewish rest day. <sup>10</sup> So the Jewish leaders said to the man that got better, "Hey, you can't carry your swag on our rest day. You are breaking the law."*

<sup>11</sup> The man said, "But the man that made me better told me to. He said, 'Pick up your swag, and walk.' So I did."

<sup>12</sup> The Jewish leaders asked him, "Who is this man that said, 'Pick up your swag, and walk?'" <sup>13</sup> But the man didn't know who made him better. There were a lot of people in that place, and Jesus had already left.

<sup>14</sup> Later on, Jesus found the man at God's ceremony house, and he said to him, "Look, you are better now. So stop doing things that God says are wrong, or something worse might happen to you."

<sup>15</sup> Then the man went and told the Jewish leaders that it was Jesus that made him better. <sup>16</sup> The leaders were angry with Jesus for making people better on the Jewish rest day, so they started to make trouble for him.

<sup>17</sup> Jesus said to them, "God, my father, is always working, and I am always working too."

<sup>18</sup> That made the Jewish leaders more angry, and they tried to find a way to kill him. They said to themselves, "This man breaks God's law and works on our rest day. And he calls God his father too. That means he is saying that he is the same as God. He has to die."

<sup>19</sup> Jesus knew what they were saying, so he said to them, "Listen, I am telling you straight, God is my father, and I am his son. I can only do what my father does. I can't do anything on my own. I do the same things that I see my father do. Whatever he does, I do the same. <sup>20</sup> Listen, my father loves me. I am his son, and he shows me everything that he is doing. And my father will show me even more powerful things to do. You will see them, and you will be surprised. <sup>21</sup> You see, my father can make dead people alive again. And I am like my father, I can give life to anyone I want to.

<sup>22</sup> My father does not judge anyone. I am his son, and he told me to be the judge of everyone. <sup>23</sup> My father did that so that everyone will respect me, just like they respect him. If you don't respect me, you are not respecting my father. He is the one that sent me to you.

<sup>24</sup> Listen, I am telling you straight, God is the one that sent me. If anyone listens to what I say and trusts God, they will live with him for ever. He will say they are not guilty, and he will not punish them. You see, they were going to die, and they were going to stay dead for ever. But now it is different for them. They will live with God for ever.

<sup>25</sup> Listen, there are people that are spiritually dead, but I am God's son, and I am telling you straight, a time is coming when they will hear my voice, and if they listen to me, they will come alive spiritually. And that time is happening now. <sup>26</sup> You see, my father has the power to make people come alive. And he has given that same power to me.

<sup>27</sup> I am God's special man from heaven, and God told me to be the judge. <sup>28</sup> Why are you shocked? A time is coming when all the dead people will hear my voice. <sup>29</sup> They will hear me, then they will come alive again. The people that have done good things and lived the way God wants them to, those people will live with him for ever. But God will punish the other people, the people that went against him and did bad things.*

<sup>30</sup> You see, I can't do anything on my own. My father sent me to the world, and he tells me the way to judge. I only want to judge the way he wants me to, not my own way. And his way is the right way, so I only judge the right way.

<sup>31</sup> Think about this. If I am the only one that tells you who I am, you don't have to believe me. <sup>32</sup> But there is somebody else that talks about me. He is God, and I know that the things he says about me are true.

<sup>33</sup> Remember that you sent some men to ask John about me. Well, everything that he told them was true.* <sup>34</sup> I don't really need a human being to talk about me. But I'm telling you that the things John said about me are true. You see, I want you to believe them. Then God will save you.

<sup>35</sup> John told you about me. He was like a bright light shining in the darkness, and for a while, you were happy with the things he said.

<sup>36</sup> You see, John told you that God sent me, but the things that I do show even more clearly that God sent me. And I have to finish the job he sent me to do.

<sup>37</sup> Yes, God is my father, and he sent me. And he told people about me. But you have never seen him or heard his voice.* <sup>38</sup> You see, God sent me to you, but you don't believe me. This shows that you don't really want to hear God's message.

<sup>39</sup> I know that you read God's book all the time, and you think that if you do that you will find out how to live with God for ever. I want you to know that those words in God's book, they tell you all about me. <sup>40</sup> And if people come to me, then they can live with God for ever. But you don't want to come to me.

<sup>41</sup> I don't need people to say good things about me. <sup>42</sup> But, I know all about you. I know that you don't really love God. <sup>43</sup> My father sent me to tell you his words, but you do not listen to me. But whenever other people come and tell you their own words, you always listen to them. <sup>44</sup> And you like other people saying good things about you, but you don't try to live God's way so that he will say good things about you. He is the only God, but you just care what people think about you, not what God thinks about you. That is the reason why you don't believe in me.

<sup>45</sup> I will not stand in front of God and tell him about the wrong things you did. Moses will do that. You hope Moses will say, 'You followed the law that God told me to write, so you will be all right.' But he will not say that. <sup>46</sup> You see, Moses wrote about me. So if you really believe the things that Moses wrote, you will believe in me. <sup>47</sup> But no, you don't really believe the things that Moses wrote, so you don't believe what I say."

Jesus fed a big mob of people

<sup>1</sup> Jesus and his special workers left Jerusalem city, and they went north to Galilee country. They got into a boat and went across the lake that some people call Lake Galilee. Other people call it Lake Tiberias. <sup>2-4</sup> (It was nearly time for the big Jewish ceremony called Passover.) Jesus and his special workers got to the other side of the lake, then Jesus climbed up a hill and his special workers went with him, and they sat down. Before that time, a lot of people saw Jesus make sick people better, so they followed him up that hill.

<sup>5-6</sup> Jesus looked around and saw the big mob of people walking towards him. He knew what he was going to do, but he wanted to test Philip, one of his special workers. So he said, "Philip, where can we get food for all these people?"

<sup>7</sup> Philip said, "We haven't got much money. If we want to buy enough bread to give all these people just a little bit each, we need thousands of dollars."

<sup>8</sup> One of Jesus's followers was Andrew. He was Peter's brother. He said to Jesus, <sup>9</sup> "There is a young boy here with 5 little loaves of bread and 2 fish. But we need a lot more than that to feed all these people."

<sup>10</sup> There was a lot of grass there, so Jesus said, "Tell the people to sit down." So they all sat down on the grass. There were about 5,000 men in that big mob of people.

<sup>11</sup> Jesus picked up the bread. He prayed and said, "Thank you God for this food." Then he gave the bread to his followers, and they gave it out to all the people. Jesus did the same thing with the fish too. And everyone ate as much as they wanted.

<sup>14</sup> You see, Jesus fed thousands of people with just a little bit of food. And the people saw Jesus do that really powerful thing, and they said, "He has to be the messenger that God promised to send. A long time ago, God promised to send a special man like Moses, and now he has come." <sup>15</sup> Jesus knew that they wanted to force him to be their big boss, and the big boss for the whole Israel nation. He didn't want them to do that, so he left them, and he went up the hill by himself.

* 5:33 John 1:19-27; 3:27-30

* 5:37 Matthew 3:17; Mark 1:11; Luke 3:22

<sup>16-17</sup> After that, the sun went down and it got dark, but Jesus didn't come back down the hill, so his followers said to each other, "Let's go across to the other side of the lake, to the town called Capernium." So they went down to the water, and they got into their boat. Then they started to go across that big lake. <sup>18</sup> As they rowed their boat, the wind got very strong, and the waves got really big.

<sup>19</sup> They rowed their boat in the dark for about 5 kilometres, then they saw Jesus walking on top of the water. He was walking towards them, and they were really frightened. <sup>20</sup> But he called out to them, "Don't be frightened. It's me, I'm Jesus."

<sup>21</sup> As soon as they heard Jesus say that, they stopped being frightened, and they helped him get into the boat. Then straight away, the boat got to the place that they wanted to go to.

<sup>22</sup> Earlier on that day, the people saw Jesus's followers get into a boat and go away without him. They knew that there were no other boats for Jesus to go in, so they thought that Jesus was still there. <sup>23-24</sup> The next day, some of those people were still there. They looked around for Jesus, but they couldn't find him or any of his followers. Some other boats from a town called Tiberias came to the place where Jesus thanked God for the food and fed all the people, so the people got into those boats and went over to Capernium, to look for Jesus there.

Jesus is like bread that gets people to live for ever

<sup>25</sup> They found Jesus on the other side of the lake, and they asked him, "Teacher, when did you get here?"

<sup>26</sup> Jesus said to them, "Listen carefully. I know why you mob are looking for me. You mob saw me do powerful things, but you didn't understand them. You don't want to know who I am. You just want more food, like you had yesterday. <sup>27</sup> Listen, that food, like you ate yesterday, it doesn't last long. So don't work for food like that. You have to work for food that gets you to live with God for ever. I am God's special man from heaven, and I can give you that special food. And God, my father, told me to do that."

<sup>28</sup> The people asked Jesus, "What is the work that God wants us to do, so that we can live for ever?"

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said, "This is the work that God wants you to do, he wants you to believe in the man he sent to the world."

<sup>30-31</sup> So the people said to him, "Then do something powerful, so that we can see it and believe what you say. A long time ago, Moses gave food from heaven to our grand-fathers. Remember that story. When they walked through the desert country, Moses gave them food called manna. We can read these words in God's book,

'He gave people bread that came from heaven.*"

So what will you do for us?"

<sup>32</sup> Then Jesus said, "Listen, this is the true story about that bread from heaven. Moses didn't give your people that bread from heaven. God gave it to them. And now God gives you the proper bread from heaven. <sup>33</sup> The proper bread from heaven is the man that God has sent to the world. He gives life to people, so that they will live with God for ever."

<sup>35</sup> Jesus said to them, "I am the bread that gives life to people, so that they will live with God for ever. If anyone comes to me and believes in me, they will get everything they have been looking for. It's like their spirit will never be hungry and never be thirsty again. <sup>36</sup> But you mob don't believe in me. Like I already said, you saw the things I did, but you still don't believe in me. <sup>37</sup> You see, my father gives me some people. They will all come to me, and I will look after them. I will never send them away.

<sup>38</sup> I didn't come down from heaven just to do my own ideas. I came here to do everything my father sent me to do.

<sup>39</sup> Listen, this is what my father really wants me to do, he wants me to look after all the people that he gives me. I can't lose any of them. You know, the world will finish up one day, and on that day my father wants me to make all those people alive again. <sup>40</sup> Everyone that takes notice of me and believes in me will live with God for ever. That's what God, my father, wants. On the day when the world will finish up, I will make them alive again."

<sup>41</sup> The Jewish leaders heard Jesus say, "I am the bread that came down from heaven." And they got angry, and they complained about him. <sup>42</sup> They said to each other, "We know this man Jesus. He is Joseph's son. We know his mother and father. Why does he say, 'I came down from heaven?' That can't be right."

<sup>43</sup> Jesus said to them, "Stop complaining to each other about me. <sup>44</sup> Listen. God is my father, and he is the one that sent me here. He brings people to me, and they are the only people that can come to me. They are the people that I will make alive again on the day when the world will finish up. <sup>45</sup> A long time ago, God told one of his men to write about this, and it is in God's book. He wrote,

'God is the one that will teach all of them.' And that's how it happens. The people that listen to God and learn from him, those people will come to me.* <sup>46</sup> I am the only one that has seen my father. Nobody else has ever seen him. But I saw him there in heaven, and after that, I came here."

<sup>47</sup> Jesus kept on talking to them. He said, "Listen, I am telling you straight, if anyone believes in me, they will live with God for ever. <sup>48</sup> I am like bread that makes people live for ever. <sup>49</sup> A long time ago, your grand-fathers were in the desert, and they ate the bread called manna, that came down from heaven. That bread kept them alive for years, but in the end they all died, like everyone dies. <sup>50</sup> But now there is a special bread that came down from heaven, and if anyone eats it, they will live with God for ever. <sup>51</sup> Yes, I am the bread from heaven that gives life. Anyone that believes in me will live for ever, it's like they are eating special bread that makes people live with God for ever. My body will be that special bread. I will give my body so that people can eat it and live for ever."

<sup>52</sup> The Jewish leaders heard what he said, and they started to argue with each other about what Jesus meant. They said, "He reckons he will give people his body to eat. What does he mean? We can't eat his body."

<sup>53</sup> Jesus talked to them in picture language. He said, "Listen, this message is true. I am the special man from heaven. You have to come to me and believe in me. It's like I am special bread, and you have to eat my body, and you have to drink my blood. If you don't do that, you can't live with God for ever. <sup>54</sup> But if anybody eats my body, and drinks my blood, I will make them alive again on that day when the world will finish up, and they will live with God for ever."

<sup>55</sup> You see, my body is like the best food, and my blood is like the best drink. <sup>56</sup> If anybody believes in me, they will join up with me, and I will join up with them. It's like they eat my body and drink my blood. I will live in them, and we will stay joined together. <sup>57</sup> You see, my father sent me here. He is the one that gives life, and he gives me life. Well, just like that, I give life to people that believe in me. It is like I am special bread, and they are eating me. <sup>58</sup> Yes, I am the bread that came down from heaven. Anyone that eats this bread will live with God for ever. I am not like the bread that your grand-fathers ate a long time ago in the desert. They ate that bread, but later they died. But anyone that eats this bread will live with God for ever."

<sup>59</sup> Jesus said all those things while he taught in the Jewish meeting house in Capernium.

Some of Jesus's followers didn't like what he said

<sup>60</sup> Jesus's followers heard him teaching those things and a lot of them said, "This message is too hard. We can't believe it."

<sup>61</sup> Jesus knew they were not happy with his message, so he said, "Are you angry with me? Do my words shock you? <sup>62</sup> Then what will you think if you see me going up, back to the place I came from? I am the special man that came down from heaven. <sup>63</sup> It is God's spirit that makes people alive. People can't do that by themselves. And those words that I said to you now, they are from God's spirit, and if people believe those words, they will live with God for ever. <sup>64</sup> But I know that some of you don't believe the words I said."

Jesus always knew that there were some people that didn't believe in him, and he knew who they were. He also knew about the man that was going to turn against him and help his enemies catch him. <sup>65</sup> So Jesus said to them, "Some of you don't believe me. That is the reason why I told you before that my father gets some people to come and believe in me. And they are the only people that can come to me."

<sup>67</sup> Then Jesus asked his 12 special workers, "Do you want to stop following me too?"

<sup>68</sup> Peter said, "No, sir. Who would we go to? Your words will make us live with God for ever. Nobody else has a message like that. <sup>69</sup> We believe your message, and we know that you are God's special man."*

<sup>70</sup> Jesus said, "Yes, but listen, I picked all of you 12 men, but one of you is working against me, like a bad spirit." <sup>71</sup> Jesus was talking about Judas Iscariot. He was one of Jesus's 12 special workers. But Jesus knew that later on Judas was going to turn against him. Jesus knew that Judas was going to help Jesus's enemies catch him.

Jesus's brothers didn't believe in him

<sup>1</sup> Some time later, Jesus went around from place to place in Galilee country. He knew that the Jewish leaders in Judea country wanted to kill him, so he didn't want to go south to Judea.

<sup>3-5</sup> Jesus's brothers didn't believe that he was the special man that God sent, so they gave him a hard time. They said to him, "You want people to think you are great, right? Well, show everyone what you can do. Don't hide what you are doing. You have to leave Galilee and come south to Jerusalem city, in Judea, so you can show your followers more of those powerful things you do."

<sup>6</sup> Jesus said, "It's not yet the right time for me to go to Jerusalem. But you can go any time. <sup>7</sup> The people of this world don't hate you. But they hate me. I keep on telling them that the things they do are really bad. That is the reason why they hate me. <sup>8</sup> You can go to the ceremony, but I'm not going now. It's not yet the right time for me to go to Jerusalem." <sup>9</sup> After Jesus said that, he stayed behind in Galilee. <sup>10</sup> But his brothers went south to the ceremony in Jerusalem.

Jesus went to Jerusalem and taught people there

Then, later on, Jesus went to that Tents Ceremony in Jerusalem too. But he didn't tell anyone he was going, and he didn't let anyone see him on the road.

<sup>11</sup> At the Tents Ceremony, the Jewish leaders looked for him. They kept on asking the people there, "Where is that man?"

<sup>12-13</sup> The people were all frightened of the Jewish leaders, so they didn't talk loudly about Jesus. But they talked quietly to each other, and they talked about him a lot. Some people said, "He is a good man."

But other people said, "No. He is just tricking the people."

<sup>14</sup> Half-way through the Tents Ceremony, Jesus went to God's ceremony house in Jerusalem, and he started to teach the people there. <sup>15</sup> The Jewish leaders got a shock, and said to each other, "How does this man know so much? He has never been to any of our schools."

<sup>16</sup> Jesus told them, "God sent me to you, and he told me to teach these things. They are his words, not mine. <sup>17</sup> If anyone really wants to live God's way, they will know that those words came from God, and that I did not make them up. <sup>18</sup> Think about this. If somebody wants to make themselves look important, they make up their own stories. But sometimes a boss sends a work-man to give people a message. If that work-man wants people to respect his boss and know that his boss is important, then that work-man doesn't make up his own story or tell lies. He only tells the true message that he heard. Then the people that listen to him respect the boss that sent him.

<sup>19</sup> Listen, Moses gave you God's law, but you mob don't follow God's law. You see, you are trying to kill me."

<sup>21-24</sup> Jesus said to them, "You saw me do one thing, and now you think I have a bad spirit. You shouldn't look quickly at something and then make up your mind about it. You have to look at it properly and think about it the right way. I made a man better on our Jewish rest day, so you are angry with me. But you mob do young man operations on baby boys on our rest day. Moses told you to do it 8 days after the baby is born. (But it wasn't really Moses that gave you that law. It was from our grand-fathers that lived a long time before Moses.) Anyway, if a boy is 8 days old on our rest day, you do that young man operation on that day, even though it is our rest day. So why are you angry with me for making a person better on our rest day?"

People talked with each other about Jesus

<sup>25</sup> Some of the people in Jerusalem at that time said, "This is the man that our leaders were trying to kill. <sup>26</sup> But he is teaching out in the open, and they are not trying to stop him. They are not saying anything against him. Maybe he is the Christ, the special man that God promised to send to save us, and our leaders know that he is. <sup>27</sup> But no, that can't be right. Think about it. Nobody will know where the Christ will come from, but we know the town that this man comes from, so he can't be the Christ."

<sup>28</sup> Jesus was still teaching in God's ceremony house, and he knew what those people were saying. So he said out loud, "You think you know me, and you think you know where I come from. But you don't really know me. Listen. It was not my idea to come here. God is the one that sent me here. He really is the one that sent me. You don't know him. <sup>29</sup> But I do know him. You see, God sent me here. I came from him, so I know him."

<sup>30</sup> Some of the people wanted to grab Jesus straight away, and take him to court, so the judge might say he has to die. But it wasn't the right time yet for Jesus to die, so God stopped them, and they didn't touch him.

<sup>31</sup> There were also a lot of people that listened to Jesus and believed in him, and they said, "This man does a lot of powerful things. Nobody will ever do more powerful things than him. So he has to be the Christ, the special man that God promised to send to save us."

<sup>32</sup> The Pharisee mob, that were strong for the Jewish law, and the bosses of the Jewish ceremonies, they heard what the people were saying, so they told some of their work-men to go and grab Jesus. But after the work-men got there, they listened to him too. <sup>33</sup> Jesus kept on teaching the people. He said, "I will only be with you for a little bit longer. Then I will go back to the one that sent me here. <sup>34</sup> You will look for me, but you will not find me. And you can't come to the place that I am going to."

<sup>35</sup> The Jewish leaders asked each other, "Where will he go so that we can't find him? Will he go and live with our Jewish countrymen in the country called Greece? Maybe he will start to teach Greek people his story. <sup>36</sup> Just now he said, 'You will look for me, but you will not find me.' And he said, 'You can't come to the place that I am going to.' What did he mean?"

Jesus talked about the Holy Spirit

<sup>37</sup> The last day of the Tents Ceremony was the most important day. Jesus stood up on that day and shouted, "Anyone that is thirsty can come to me and drink." <sup>38</sup> A long time ago, God told his men to write these words, and they are in God's book. He wrote, 'A river of water will flow out from inside a person. That water will make people really live.'

And it will happen like that to anyone that believes in me."*

<sup>39</sup> Jesus said "a river of water," but he was really talking about the Holy Spirit. You see, the Holy Spirit was not there yet. He came after Jesus went back to heaven. That is when God gave the Holy Spirit to everyone that believed in Jesus.

The people there argued about who Jesus is

<sup>40</sup> Some of the people in the crowd heard his words and said, "This is God's messenger. He is the one that Moses said will come and tell us God's message."

<sup>41</sup> Other people said, "We think he is the Christ, the special man that God promised to send to save us. He is the one we have been waiting for."

But other people said, "No. He can't be. He comes from Galilee country. But the Christ will not be a Galilee man. <sup>42</sup> God's book says that he will be from David's family, and that he will be born in the town called Bethlehem, where David lived, in Judea country."*

<sup>43</sup> Then the people there argued with each other about Jesus. Some people said, "He is the special man that God promised to send."

But other people said, "No he isn't. You're wrong." <sup>44</sup> Some people wanted to grab Jesus and put him in jail, but nobody did.

The work-men of the Jewish leaders did not want to grab Jesus

<sup>45</sup> Earlier, the bosses of the Jewish ceremonies and the Pharisee mob sent some of their work-men to grab Jesus and bring him to them. But those work-men listened to Jesus, and then they came back without him. The leaders asked them, "Why didn't you bring him to us?"

<sup>46</sup> They said, "That man said really good words. We haven't heard anyone talk like that before. We couldn't grab him."

<sup>47</sup> The Pharisee mob said, "What? Has he tricked you too? <sup>48</sup> Think about it. Have any of the Jewish leaders believed in him? No. Or have any of us Pharisee mob believed in him? No. <sup>49</sup> Those people that believe in him, they are just a mob of stupid people. They don't know God's law. God will punish them."

* 7:37 Leviticus 23:36

* 7:38 Isaiah 58:11; Ezekiel 47:1; Zechariah 14:8

* 7:42 2 Samuel 7:12; Micah 5:2

<sup>50</sup> One of that Pharisee mob was Nicodemus. Before this time, he was the man that talked to Jesus one night. Nicodemus said to the others,* <sup>51</sup> "God's law says that we can't say a man is guilty until we listen to him and find out more about what he's been doing."*

<sup>52</sup> The others got angry and said, "Why are you talking like that? You are not from Galilee country, so you don't have to be friendly with that Galilee man. Go and have a look at God's book. It doesn't say anything about God getting a man from Galilee to tell his message."

(We are not really sure that John wrote the words in the next story. Maybe another person wrote them, and later on, they put them into John's book.)

The Jewish law teachers and the Pharisee mob caught a woman sleeping with a man that was not her husband

<sup>2</sup> Early in the morning, he went back to God's ceremony house in Jerusalem. All the people there went to him, so he sat down and started to teach them.

<sup>3-6</sup> Some Jewish law teachers, and some of the Pharisee mob, that were strong for the Jewish law, they brought a woman to Jesus, and they told him that she did something really bad. She slept with a man that was not her husband, and she did with him what married people do together. Those men wanted to trick Jesus. They wanted Jesus to say something bad about their law so that they could take Jesus to court and get the judge to punish him. So they made the woman stand in front of everyone, and they asked Jesus a trick question. They said, "Teacher, we caught this woman sleeping with a man that is not her husband, and they were doing what married people do together. In our law, Moses said that we have to throw big stones at her to kill her dead. But what do you reckon we have to do to her?"

But Jesus didn't answer them. He got down and wrote on the ground with his finger.

<sup>7</sup> Those men kept on asking the same question. So Jesus stood up and said to them, "Have any of you never done anything wrong? That man can go first. He can throw the first stone at her." <sup>8</sup> Then Jesus got down again and wrote on the ground.

<sup>9</sup> Those men heard his words, and then the oldest man turned around and walked away. Then the next oldest man went away too, and the other men followed one by one. Soon they were all gone, and the woman was the only one standing in front of Jesus.

<sup>10</sup> Jesus stood up and said to the woman, "Where are the men that blamed you? Did any of them say they have to punish you?"

Jesus said, "And I will not say that anyone has to punish you either. Go home, and, from now on, stop doing bad things."

Jesus is a light for everybody

<sup>12</sup> Jesus talked to the people again. He said, "I am like a light for all the people in the world. Anyone that follows me will not live the wrong way, as if they are in the dark, but I will show them how to live the right way, like a light shows people the way, and they will live with God for ever."*

<sup>13</sup> But the Pharisee mob, that were strong for the Jewish law, they said to Jesus, "You are the only one that is telling this story about yourself. Nobody else is telling the same story, so we can't agree with you. What you say is not true."*

<sup>14</sup> Jesus said, "Even if I do tell this story about myself, my story is true. You see, you don't know where I came from, and you don't know where I am going. But I do know where I came from, and I know where I am going." <sup>15</sup> You judge people the way human beings judge people. I am not judging anyone now, <sup>16</sup> but if I do judge somebody, I judge them the right way. You see, I don't judge by myself. My father sent me here, and we judge people together.

<sup>17</sup> In your Jewish law, it says that if 2 people tell the same story, then that shows that their story is true.* <sup>18</sup> All right, I am one person, and my father is the other one. He is the one that sent me to the world. We both tell you the same story about me. And you reckon you follow your law, so you have to believe me."

Jesus said, "You don't know me, and you don't know my father. If somebody knows me, they will know my father too."

<sup>20</sup> Jesus said all this while he was teaching in God's ceremony house, near the money box. The people used to put money into that box to give it to God. The Pharisee mob wanted to grab him and kill him, but it was not the right time yet for him to die, so God stopped them, and nobody touched him.

* 7:50 John 3:1-2 * 7:51 Deuteronomy 1:16 * 8:12 Matthew 5:14; John 9:5 * 8:13 John 5:31 * 8:17 Deuteronomy 19:15

Jesus told the Jewish leaders, "You can't come with me"

<sup>21</sup> Jesus talked to them again. He said, "I am going away. You will look for me, but you will not find me. You can't go to the place that I am going to. And after you die, you will still be guilty of all the bad things you did, so God will punish you."

<sup>22</sup> The Jewish leaders didn't understand what he said. They asked each other, "Why did he say that we can't go to the place where he is going? Is he going to kill himself?"

<sup>23</sup> So Jesus said, "You are from this world, and you belong down here. But I don't belong to this world. I came from heaven, and I belong up there. <sup>24</sup> Listen, I am the special man that God sent. But you don't believe that, so after you die, God will punish you for all the bad things you did. I told you that already."

Jesus said, "I told you who I am, right from the start. <sup>26</sup> I can say a lot about you, and I can even judge you. But I will not do that now. You see, right now I am telling people what I heard from the one that sent me to the world. And you can trust his words. They are true."

<sup>28</sup> So he said, "I am the special man from heaven, and after you put me on a cross and lift me up, you will know who I am. And you will understand that I am not working alone. I only say what my father taught me. <sup>29</sup> He is the one that sent me, and he is with me. He doesn't leave me, because I always do things that make him happy."

<sup>30</sup> A big mob of people were listening to Jesus at that time, and a lot of them believed in him.

<sup>31</sup> Jesus talked to the Jewish people that believed in him. He said, "If you keep on following me, and if you do the things I teach you, then you will be my proper followers, <sup>32</sup> and you will know the true message. And if you listen to that true message, you will be free."

<sup>33</sup> The Jewish leaders said to Jesus, "We belong to Abraham's family, so we are God's special people. We never had to work for somebody for no pay, like a slave. You know, slaves are workers that belong to their boss. They always have to do what their boss tells them to do, and their boss never pays them. But we are not like that. We belong to Abraham's family, so we are already free. You can't tell us that we will be free."*

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said, "Listen, this is the true story. You go against God and do bad things, and everyone that does bad things is like a slave. You can't stop doing those bad things, so they are your boss.

<sup>35</sup> You know, slaves don't belong to their boss's family for ever. But the boss's son belongs to the family for ever. <sup>36</sup> And the boss's son can let slaves go free. If he does that, they are not slaves any more. Well, God is the biggest boss, and I am his son. And I can make you properly free, so that you can stop doing bad things.

<sup>37</sup> I know that you all reckon you belong to Abraham's family. But you don't like my message, so you want to kill me. <sup>38</sup> I am only telling you the things I saw, and the things I heard, while I was with my father. But you listen to your father, and you do anything he wants you to do."

Jesus said, "You reckon you are in Abraham's family, but you are not. Everyone that is really in Abraham's family does good things like Abraham did. <sup>40</sup> I am telling you the true message I heard from God, and you are trying to kill me. You are nothing like Abraham. He never did bad things like that. <sup>41</sup> Listen, you are doing the things that your father does."

But they said, "God is our father. He is the only father we have, and we are his proper kids."

<sup>42</sup> Jesus said to them, "No. God is not your father. You see, God sent me here. It wasn't my idea to come here, God sent me. But you don't love me. So I know that God is not your father. <sup>43</sup> Why don't you understand what I am saying? It is because you don't want to do what I say. That is the reason why you don't listen to me.

<sup>44</sup> So, really, your father is the devil, the boss over the bad spirits, and you do anything he wants you to do. He was always a murderer and a liar, and nothing he says is true. Whenever he tells lies, he is just doing what he likes to do. All lies come from him. It is like he is the father of all lies. <sup>45</sup> But I am different. I tell you what is true. But you love lies, so you don't believe me.

<sup>46</sup> None of you can show that I did anything wrong. You see, everything I tell you is true. So why don't you believe me? <sup>47</sup> The people in God's family listen properly to his words. But you are not in his family, so you don't listen to him."

<sup>49</sup> Jesus said, "No. I haven't got a bad spirit in me. I respect my father, but you don't respect me. <sup>50</sup> I'm not trying to get people to say that I am great. But there is somebody else that wants people to say that I am great, and he judges what people say too. Yes, God will show everyone that what I say is right. <sup>51</sup> Listen, I am telling you straight, if anyone does what I say, they will never finish up."

<sup>52</sup> Then the Jewish leaders said, "Now we know for sure that you have a bad spirit in you. Think about all of our grand-fathers that lived a long time ago. They all died. Our father Abraham died, and so did all the men that told people God's messages. But you say, 'If anyone does what I say, they will never finish up.' You are wrong. <sup>53</sup> Are you better than our grand-father Abraham? He died. And all the men that told people God's messages, they all died too. So, who do you think you are?"

<sup>54</sup> Jesus said, "If I tell people that I am great, my words mean nothing. But my father is the one that tells people that I am great. And you reckon that he is your God. <sup>55</sup> You mob don't know God, but I know him. That's right. I'm not a liar, like you, I'm telling the true story. I know him, and I do what he says. <sup>56</sup> Think about your father, Abraham. He knew I was going to come into the world, and after he saw it happen, he was really happy."

<sup>57</sup> The Jewish leaders said, "Stop. You are not even 50 years old. You can't say that you saw Abraham."

<sup>58</sup> Jesus said, "Listen to this, it's true. I was alive before Abraham was born. You see, I am always alive."

<sup>59</sup> The Jewish leaders didn't like Jesus saying that he is always alive. That's the same as saying he is God. So they picked up stones to throw at him. But Jesus hid from them, and then he left God's ceremony house, and he went away.

Jesus made a blind man's eyes better

<sup>1</sup> As Jesus walked along with his followers, they saw a blind man that was blind all his life, from the time he was born. <sup>2</sup> Jesus's followers asked him, "Teacher, why did God make this man blind from the time he was born? Did he do something bad, or did his parents?"

<sup>3</sup> Jesus said, "No. This man didn't do anything bad to make him blind, and his parents didn't do anything bad to make him blind either. He is blind so that everyone can see God's great power. You see, I am going to make him better. <sup>4-5</sup> We have to keep on doing God's work while we can. He is the one that sent me here and gave me this special work to do. You see, my work shows God's great power, so I am like a light for all the people in the world. I have to do God's work while I am here. It is like I am working in daylight. But I will not always be here to do the work that God gave me. Then it will be like night time, and nobody can work at night time."*

<sup>6</sup> After he said that, Jesus spat on the ground and made some mud. Then he put the mud on the blind man's eyes. <sup>7</sup> Then Jesus said to him, "Go and wash your eyes in the pool called Siloam." (That word Siloam means sent.)

So the man went and washed his eyes, and he could see. He came back, <sup>8</sup> and some of the people that lived near him, and the people that used to see him asking for money, they were there. And they asked each other, "Is he the man that sat next to the road and asked for money all the time?"

But other people said, "No, he's another man. He just looks like the blind man."

But the man kept on saying, "I am the man that was blind."

<sup>11</sup> He said, "The man that people call Jesus, he made mud and put it on my eyes. Then he told me to go and wash my eyes in the pool called Siloam. So I did what he said, and straight away I could see."

And he said, "I don't know."

* 9:4-5 Matthew 5:14; John 8:12

The Pharisee mob argued with the man that used to be blind

<sup>13</sup> The people took the man that was born blind to the Pharisee mob, that were strong for the Jewish law.

<sup>14</sup> That day was the Jewish rest day, so nobody was allowed to work on that day, but Jesus made mud on that day, and he put it on the blind man's eyes, to make them better.

He said, "A man put mud on my eyes, and told me to go and wash them. So I did that, and straight away I could see."

<sup>16</sup> Some of that Pharisee mob said, "That man did not come from God. He does not respect God's law about the rest day."

But some of them said, "But he does powerful things. A bad man can't do things like that. So we reckon God sent him here." And so that Pharisee mob did not agree with each other about Jesus.

<sup>17</sup> Then they asked the man, "What do you say about the man that made your eyes better?"

The man said, "I think God sent him here to tell people God's messages."

<sup>18</sup> But the Jewish leaders did not believe that the man was really born blind, and that now he can see, so they sent somebody to get his parents.

<sup>20-23</sup> Before this time, the Jewish leaders agreed to punish anyone that followed Jesus. They said, "If anybody says that Jesus is the Christ, the special man that God promised to send, we will not let them come to our meeting houses and pray to God with us." So the man's parents were frightened, and they said, "We know he is our son, and we know that he was born blind. But we don't know how his eyes are better, or who made them better. You can ask him. He is old enough to talk for himself. He is not a little boy."

<sup>24</sup> Then the Jewish leaders called the man that was born blind, and they got him to come to them again. They said to him, "We know that the man that made you see goes against God, and he does bad things. So now, show respect to God and tell us straight, what do you say about this man?"

<sup>25</sup> The man said, "I don't know anything about this man. I don't know if he goes against God and does wrong things. All I know is this, I was blind, but now I can see."

<sup>26</sup> So the Jewish leaders said, "What did he do to you? How did he make you see?"

<sup>27</sup> The man said, "I told you already, but you didn't listen to me. Why do you want to hear my story again? Do you want to be his followers too?"

<sup>28</sup> The Jewish leaders got angry with the man and said, "You are his follower, not us. We follow Moses. <sup>29</sup> We know that Moses talked with God, but we don't think this man comes from God. We don't know where he comes from."

<sup>30</sup> The man said, "How can that be? He just made my eyes better. How come you don't know where he comes from?"

<sup>31</sup> Everyone knows that God does not listen to people that go against him and do bad things. But he does listen to people that give him the right respect and do what he says. <sup>32</sup> From the time God made everything, nobody has ever heard of anything like this happening to a person that was born blind. Nobody ever made them see. <sup>33</sup> I reckon God sent this man. If he didn't, this man couldn't do anything like this."

<sup>34</sup> The Jewish leaders got really angry and said, "Don't try to teach us. You were born blind, so we know that you always went against God and did bad things. You can't teach us anything. Get out of this meeting house, and don't come back."

The man that used to be blind believed in Jesus

<sup>35</sup> Jesus heard that the Jewish leaders told that man to get out of the meeting house. So he went and found the man, and Jesus asked him, "Do you believe in the special man that God sent from heaven?"

<sup>36</sup> The man said, "Sir, tell me who he is, so that I can believe in him."

<sup>39</sup> Then Jesus said, "I came to the world to judge people, and to split them into 2 mobs. One mob know that they don't understand the true things about God. It's like they are blind. But they let me help them understand those things, like I make them see. The other mob think they understand all about God. It's like they think they can already see, so they don't let me help them. But they don't really understand, so it's like they stay blind."

<sup>40</sup> Some of the Pharisee mob there heard him say that, and they got angry, and they said, "Are you saying that we are that blind mob?"

<sup>41</sup> Jesus said, "If you knew you were blind, you would let me help you, and then God would say that you are not guilty for the bad things you did. But you say you can see, and you don't let me help you, so you are still guilty."

10

The good shepherd

<sup>1-4</sup> Jesus talked some more and said, "Listen to this picture story about a mob of sheep and some men. This picture story's message is true.

One of the men in this story owns some sheep, and he looks after them properly. He is called their shepherd. He keeps those sheep in a yard with a big fence. And there is a man that looks after the gate of that yard. Whenever the shepherd goes there, that man always lets him in the gate. Then the shepherd calls each sheep's name, and they know that he is their shepherd, so they come to him. Then he takes all his sheep out of the yard to a place with grass for them to eat. Wherever he walks, they follow him, because they know his voice and they trust him.

But another man in this story doesn't own the sheep. He wants to steal them, so he doesn't go into the yard through the gate, but he climbs over the fence. <sup>5</sup> If the sheep hear that man's voice they run away. They don't know his voice, so they don't trust him. They never follow somebody they don't know."

<sup>6</sup> The people listening to Jesus didn't understand this story, <sup>7</sup> so he said, "I will tell you something else. Listen to this, it's true. I am like a gate in a sheep yard. <sup>8-11</sup> You know, the gate is the way for the sheep to go into the yard. Well, I am the way for people to come to God. If anybody comes to me, they will come into God's family, and he will save them. And you know that sheep have to use the gate to go out and get grass to eat. Well just like that, people have to come to me to get whatever they need to live for God.

And remember the shepherd in that picture story. Well, I am like that good shepherd that looks after his sheep properly. Some other men came before me, and they reckoned they were like shepherds, but they were liars. They were bad men, and my people didn't listen to them, just like sheep only listen to their shepherd. Those bad people only want to steal the sheep, and kill them, and finish them up. But I am not like that. I came here to give people real life, so they can live with God for ever. You know, a good shepherd looks after his sheep properly, even if he has to die for them. Well, I am like that, I am ready to die to save my people.

<sup>12-13</sup> You know, there are also workers that don't own the sheep. The owner pays them to look after the sheep. But they don't really care about the sheep. If they see a wild dog coming, they get frightened, and they leave the sheep there and run away. Then the wild dog chases the sheep to grab them and eat them, and the sheep run away. <sup>14-15</sup> But I am not like those workers. I am like a good shepherd. I am ready to die to save my people. I know all my people, and all my people know me, just like I know God my father, and he knows me.*

<sup>16</sup> And not all of my people are from the same mob. They are not all Jewish people. I have other people too, and I have to bring them all together, like one mob of sheep. They will hear my voice, and they will come to me. Yes, I will bring all my people together into one mob, and I will look after them all, like a good shepherd looks after his sheep.

<sup>17</sup> I am going to die to save my people, and then I will come back to life again. That is the reason why my father loves me.

<sup>18</sup> You see, nobody is forcing me to die, but I'm going to die for my people because I want to do it. My father gives me the power to do it, and he also gives me the power to come back to life again. And he told me to do both of those things."

<sup>21</sup> But some of them said, "No, he hasn't got a bad spirit. A man with a bad spirit doesn't tell this sort of message, and a bad spirit can't make blind people see again."

The Jewish leaders argued with Jesus

<sup>22</sup> At that time there was a ceremony in Jerusalem. You see, every year, in the cold weather time, the Jewish people had a ceremony to remember when their grandfathers got God's ceremony house back from their enemies. <sup>23</sup> So Jesus went to God's ceremony house and walked in the part called Solomon's veranda.

<sup>24</sup> Some of the Jewish leaders stood around Jesus and said, "Don't keep us waiting. Tell us straight. Are you the Christ, the special man that God promised to send to save us?"

<sup>25</sup> Jesus said, "I have already told you who I am, but you don't believe me. My father sent me to do powerful things. Those powerful things show who I am. <sup>26</sup> You mob don't believe me, because you are not my sheep. <sup>27</sup> I know the people that are my sheep. They listen to my voice, and they believe what I say, and they follow me. <sup>28</sup> I will give them new life, so they will live with me for ever, and they will never finish up. Yes, I will hold them properly, so nobody can ever grab them and steal them from me. <sup>29</sup> My father gave them to me, and he is more powerful than anyone, so nobody can grab them and steal them from my father. <sup>30</sup> My father and me, we are joined together, like we are one."

* 10:14-15 Matthew 11:27; Luke 10:22

<sup>31</sup> Again, the Jewish leaders didn't like what Jesus said, so they picked up stones to kill him.

<sup>32</sup> Jesus said, "Why do you want to kill me? You have seen me do a lot of good things, and they show you that my father sent me. Do you really want to kill me for doing those good things?"

<sup>33</sup> The Jewish leaders said, "We don't want to kill you for doing good things. But you are saying things against God. That is the reason why we have to kill you. You are just a man, but you say that you are God."*

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said to them, "You have God's book, and you can read these words there, 'God said that you are gods.'"* <sup>35</sup> You see, God gave some people his message, and then he called them gods. And remember, nobody can change anything that God says in his book. <sup>36</sup> So if I say I am God's son, I am not saying anything bad against God. I am the one God picked out, and he sent me to this world to do his works. <sup>37-38</sup> God is my father, and I do his works. You have seen me do those powerful things, so why don't you believe me? All right, think about those things you saw me do. They can help you understand who I am. They show that my father is joined to me, so that it's like he's in me. And they show that I am joined to him, so that it's like I am in him."

<sup>39</sup> Again the Jewish leaders tried to grab Jesus and put him in jail, but he got away from them.

<sup>40</sup> Then Jesus left Jerusalem and went across the Jordan River to the place where John used to baptise people, and Jesus stayed there for a while.* <sup>41</sup> Lots of people went to him there. They said to each other, "John never did powerful things, but everything that John said about this man is true."<sup>42</sup> And so a lot of those people believed in Jesus.

Jesus's friend Lazarus died

<sup>1-2</sup> Jesus had a friend called Lazarus, and he lived in a little town in Judea country called Bethany. He lived there with his sisters, Mary and Martha. (Mary was the woman that, later on, rubbed Jesus's feet with special perfume and wiped them with her hair.*)

One day, Lazarus got very sick,<sup>3</sup> so Mary and Martha sent a message to Jesus. They said, "Your good friend Lazarus is very sick."

<sup>4</sup> When Jesus got the message, he said, "Yes, Lazarus is very sick, but that sickness will not finish him up. He is sick so that people will see that God is really powerful, and they will respect God. And they will see that God's son is powerful too, and they will also respect him."

<sup>5</sup> Jesus was really good friends with Mary, Martha and Lazarus,<sup>6</sup> but after he got the message he stayed in the town where he was for another 2 days. <sup>7</sup> Then Jesus said to his special workers, "Let's go back to Judea country."

<sup>8</sup> But his followers said, "What? Teacher, are you going to go back? When we were there a little while ago, the people there wanted to throw stones at you and kill you."

<sup>9</sup> Jesus said, "You know, there is day-light every day until the sun goes down. The sun is the light for the world. It lets people see where they are walking, so they will not fall down. <sup>10</sup> It's only at night time that people do not have that light. Then they can't see where they are walking, and they will fall down." When Jesus said that, he was telling them that, just as people can walk until the end of the day, he had to keep on working until the end of his life, and it wasn't time yet for him to die.

<sup>11</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "Our friend Lazarus is asleep. I am going to wake him up."

<sup>13</sup> Jesus was really saying that Lazarus was dead, but his followers didn't understand that. <sup>14</sup> So then Jesus told them straight, "Lazarus is dead. <sup>15</sup> But I am happy that I wasn't there before he died. Because now you will see what I am going to do, and you will believe in me properly. Come on. We will go to him now."

* 10:33 Leviticus 24:16

* 10:34 Psalm 82:6

* 11:1-2 Luke 10:38-39; John 12:3

<sup>16</sup> Thomas said to Jesus's other followers, "All right, let's all go, and we will die with Jesus." (Thomas's other name was the Twin.)

Jesus went to Lazarus's town

<sup>17</sup> Then Jesus and his followers went to Bethany. As they were getting near to Bethany, somebody told him that Lazarus died 4 days ago, and his family put his body in a cave, and they put a big stone there to block that cave.

<sup>18</sup> Bethany was about 3 kilometres from Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup> Mary and Martha were really sad, so a lot of people from Jerusalem came and sat down with them, to be sad with them and help them feel better.

<sup>20</sup> Martha heard that Jesus was coming and that he was getting close, so she went out to meet him, but Mary stayed in the house. <sup>21</sup> Martha said, "Sir, you were not here to stop my brother from dying. <sup>22</sup> But we know that God listens to you, and even now, I know that you can ask God for anything and he will give it to you."

<sup>24</sup> Martha said, "Yes, I know he will come back to life, on the day when the world will finish up, when everyone will be alive again."

<sup>25-26</sup> Jesus said, "Martha, I am the one that makes dead people come alive again, and I am the one that gives people real life. If people believe in me, I will make them come alive again after they die, then they will live for ever and never die again. Do you believe that?"

<sup>27</sup> Martha said, "Yes, sir, I believe that you are the Christ, the special man that God promised to send. You are God's son, and you came to us people in the world."

<sup>32</sup> But Mary didn't go to the cave, she went to see Jesus. She got down on her knees in front of him, to show him respect, and she said, "Sir, you were not here to stop my brother from dying."

and sad for them. <sup>34</sup> He asked them, "Where did you put his body?"

And they said, "Sir, come and we'll show you."

<sup>37</sup> But other people there said, "He made a blind man see. Why didn't he stop this man from dying?"

Jesus made Lazarus alive again

<sup>38</sup> Again Jesus felt upset and sad. He went and stood in front of the cave. <sup>39</sup> He said, "Move that big stone away, so that it doesn't block the cave any more."

But Martha, Lazarus's sister, said, "No, sir. Don't get them to move that stone. He has been dead for 4 days, so the body will smell really bad."

<sup>40</sup> Jesus said to her, "I told you before that if you believe in me, you will see God's great power."

<sup>41</sup> So the people moved the stone away from the cave. Then Jesus looked up to God, and said, "Father, thank you for listening to me. <sup>42</sup> I know that you always listen to me, but I say these words out loud, so that these people will believe that you sent me here."

<sup>43</sup> Then Jesus called out in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out of the cave." <sup>44</sup> And Lazarus came out. There were still long bits of cloth around Lazarus's arms and legs, and some cloth over his face. You see, people used to tie long bits of cloth around dead bodies to cover them up.

Jesus said to the people there, "Take that cloth off him, so he can walk around."

The Jewish leaders wanted to kill Jesus

<sup>45</sup> A lot of people were with Mary and Martha that day, and they saw what happened. A lot of them believed in Jesus. <sup>46</sup> But some of them went to the Pharisee mob and told them what Jesus did. That Pharisee mob were strong for the Jewish law, so they didn't like Jesus.

<sup>47</sup> The bosses of the Jewish ceremonies, and the Pharisee mob, they called a Jewish Leaders Council meeting. They talked about Jesus at that meeting, and said, "This man is doing a lot of powerful things. What can we do to stop him? <sup>48</sup> We have to do something. If we don't stop him, all the people might believe in him, and they might make a lot of trouble. Then the Roman soldiers might come and smash God's ceremony house here, and finish up our nation."

<sup>49</sup> The big boss of the Jewish ceremonies that year was Cayafas. He said, "You mob don't know anything. <sup>50</sup> Listen. You have to understand this. It is a lot better for you if this man dies, so that the Romans will not come and kill all of our people. Yes, Jesus has to die instead of the people."

<sup>51</sup> Cayafas didn't think up those words by himself. He told them, "Jesus has to die instead of the people," but those were really God's words that he said. You see, he was the big boss of the Jewish ceremonies at that time, so God used him to say that Jesus was going to die for the Jewish nation. <sup>52</sup> And he was also going to die for all God's people, everywhere. He died to join all of God's people everywhere into one mob.

<sup>53</sup> From that day, the Jewish leaders talked to each other, saying, "How are we going to kill Jesus?" <sup>54</sup> Jesus knew what they were thinking, so he stopped going to places where there were a lot of people. He left that country and went to a town called Ephraim, that was near the desert, and Jesus and his special workers stayed there.

<sup>55</sup> It was nearly the time for the Jewish people to have their ceremony called Passover, to remember that a long time ago God got their grand-fathers out of Egypt. A lot of Jewish people from everywhere went to Jerusalem to get ready for that ceremony, and they washed themselves in a special way.

<sup>56-57</sup> The Jewish ceremony bosses and the Pharisee mob told everyone at that ceremony to look for Jesus. They said, "If you see Jesus, you have to tell us, so that we can grab him."

So a lot of people looked for Jesus at God's ceremony house. They asked each other, "What do you reckon? Do you think Jesus will come to this Passover ceremony?"

Mary washed Jesus's feet

<sup>1</sup> Jesus went to Bethany again 6 days before the Jewish Passover ceremony started. Bethany was the town where he made Lazarus come alive again. <sup>2</sup> After Jesus got to that town, the people there put on a special dinner for him. Lazarus and some other people sat at the table with Jesus, and Lazarus's sister, Martha, gave them the food.

<sup>3</sup> Then Mary came into the room with a big bottle of special perfume, that cost a lot of money. It was made from a plant called nard. Mary put that perfume all over Jesus's feet, then she wiped his feet with her hair. The sweet smell of the perfume went right through the house.*

<sup>4</sup> Judas Iscariot was there with Jesus's other followers. (He was the one that turned against Jesus later.) He said, <sup>5</sup> "Why did she waste that perfume? Why didn't she let us sell it? We can get more money than a man gets for working for a whole year, and then we can give that money to poor people." <sup>6</sup> But, you know, Judas didn't really feel sorry for poor people. He was the one that looked after the money bag, and sometimes he stole some of that money for himself.

<sup>7</sup> Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She kept this oil to pour on my feet, like she knows that I am going to die soon. She is getting my body ready for people to bury me. <sup>8</sup> You will always have poor people with you, but you will not always have me with you."*

The Jewish leaders wanted to kill Jesus and Lazarus

<sup>9</sup> The people in that country heard that Jesus was in Bethany, and a big mob went to see him. They wanted to see Lazarus too, the man that Jesus made alive again. <sup>10-11</sup> And when they heard about how Jesus made him alive again, a lot of people believed in Jesus. And they stopped following the bosses of the Jewish ceremonies. Those bosses didn't like that, so they started to work out a way to kill Jesus, and to kill Lazarus too.

Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a donkey

<sup>12</sup> The next day, Jesus left Bethany and went to Jerusalem. A big mob of people were there for the Jewish Passover ceremony, and they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> So they cut some branches off palm trees, and they went out to meet him. They shouted, "God, you are really great and powerful. God, we want you to look after this man you sent. Make him strong and happy.

God, make the true leader of Israel strong and happy."*

<sup>14-15</sup> Jesus found a young donkey and sat on it, to ride it into Jerusalem. You know, a long time ago, God got one of his men to write about that. He wrote this in God's book,

"People from Jerusalem, don't be frightened.

Your leader will come to you, sitting on a young donkey."*

* 12:3 Luke 7:37-38 * 12:8 Deuteronomy 15:11 * 12:13 Psalm 118:25-26 * 12:14-15 Zechariah 9:9

And it happened just like that man wrote. <sup>16</sup> Jesus's followers didn't understand what was happening. But, later on, after he went back to heaven, they remembered the words that God's man wrote, and they understood that those words are about Jesus, and that it happened that day, while Jesus rode on that young donkey.

<sup>17</sup> Before that day, there were a lot of people that kept on telling everyone, "We heard Jesus call to Lazarus and tell him to come out of the cave. We saw Jesus make him alive again." <sup>18</sup> Then the people that heard that story wanted to see Jesus too, so a big mob went out to meet him that day when he was on the young donkey.

<sup>19</sup> The Pharisee mob were there too. They didn't want Jesus because they were strong for the Jewish law. They said to each other, "Look, we still haven't stopped this man. Everyone is starting to follow him."

Jesus told his followers that he was going to die

<sup>20</sup> There were some Greek people in the mob there at Jerusalem. They came to show respect to God at the Passover ceremony. <sup>21</sup> Those Greek people went to see Philip, one of Jesus's special workers. (He was from a town called Bethsaida, in Galilee country.) They said to Philip, "Sir, we want to meet Jesus." <sup>22</sup> Philip went and told Andrew, and then they went together and told Jesus.

<sup>23</sup> Jesus said to them, "It is nearly time for God to show everyone that his special man from heaven is really powerful. <sup>24</sup> Listen carefully to this picture story. A wheat seed has to fall into the ground and die, so that it can make a big mob of new seeds. If it never dies, and if it never gets buried, it will never make new seeds. You see, I will die like the seed in that picture story. <sup>25</sup> And it is the same for everybody. If a person loves their life a lot and only cares about their life here in this world, they will not live for ever. But if they don't worry about their life here in this world, they will live with God for ever.* <sup>26</sup> If anyone wants to work for me, they have to follow me. Wherever I go, my workers will go. And if anyone works for me, my father will say they are good.

<sup>27</sup> It is nearly time now for my trouble to start. I am very sad and worried. I don't know what to say to my father. I might say, 'Father, save me. I don't want to go through the trouble that is coming to me.'

But I can't say that. No. I came to the world to have this trouble."

<sup>28</sup> Then Jesus said, "Father, show people that you are really great."

Straight away, God talked from heaven. He said, "I already showed them that I am great, and I will show them again."

<sup>29</sup> Some of the people standing there thought they heard thunder, but other people there said, "No. An angel messenger talked to him."

<sup>31-33</sup> Then Jesus told them how he was going to die. He said, "Soon my enemies are going to lift me up to die on a cross, and then I will call everyone to come to me. And when I die, God will judge everyone in the world. And you know, the boss over the bad spirits is the boss over this world too, but when I die, God will stop his power so he can't be the boss over the world any more."

<sup>34</sup> But the people in the crowd said, "God's book says that the Christ, the special man that God promised to send to save us, he will live for ever. But you say that they will lift up the man from heaven and put him on a cross to die. Are you talking about the same man? Who is this man from heaven?*"

<sup>35</sup> Jesus said, "I am like a light shining for you. You see, I am telling you the true message. But I will only be here with you a little bit longer. So while I am here, you have to listen to my message and believe it. It's like the light is shining and people have to walk about while there is light, because people that walk in the dark don't know where they are going. So if you don't listen properly to my message while I am here, then you will not know the right way to live, and it will be like you are always in the dark. <sup>36</sup> You have to listen to my message while I am still here, and you have to believe it, so that you will be my followers. Then it will be like you are living in the light that I'm shining for you."

After Jesus said those things, he left that place and stayed away from those people, so they didn't know where he was.

Some people still didn't believe in Jesus

<sup>37</sup> A lot of people saw Jesus do lots of powerful things, but they still did not believe in him. <sup>38</sup> So it happened the way God told Isaiah to write it, a long time ago. And it is in God's book. He wrote these words,

"Only a few believed your message, God,

* 12:25 Matthew 10:39; 16:25; Mark 8:35; Luke 9:24; 17:33

* 12:34 Psalm 110:4; Isaiah 9:7; Ezekiel 37:25; Daniel and only a few people took notice of the powerful things you do.”*

<sup>39</sup> And Isaiah told us why only a few people believed God’s message. <sup>40</sup> He also wrote this in God’s book, “God stopped the people from understanding his message. It’s like he made their eyes blind, and like he made their minds dead.

You know, if they understand God’s message properly, they will turn back to God, and he will help them. But they don’t want to do that.”*

<sup>41</sup> Isaiah wrote those things about Jesus, because a long time ago, God showed Isaiah that his special man is really powerful.

<sup>42</sup> But lots of people did believe in Jesus. Even some of the Jewish leaders believed in him. But those leaders didn’t tell anybody about it. You see, Jesus’s enemies, the Pharisee mob, they said, “If anyone believes in Jesus, we will not let them come to our meeting houses and pray to God with us.” So those leaders that believed in him stayed quiet. <sup>43</sup> They just wanted people to say good things about them. They didn’t worry about what God will say about them.

<sup>44</sup> One day, Jesus shouted out, “Anyone that believes in me, is really believing in God. He is the one that sent me here. <sup>45</sup> And anyone that looks at me, can see God too. <sup>46</sup> I came to the world to tell people the true message, so that they can know the true message and believe in me. It’s like people were in the dark, but I came to be a light for them. <sup>47</sup> If somebody hears my words and doesn’t take any notice of them, I do not judge that person. I didn’t come to judge the people of the world, I came to save them. <sup>48</sup> But this will happen to the people that don’t believe in me and don’t take notice of my words. On the day when the world will finish up, they will stand in front of the judge, and the words that I said will make them guilty. You see, they didn’t believe my words, so they will stay guilty for ever. <sup>49</sup> You see, the words I said to you are not just mine. The father told me what to say, and he sent me here to tell you his message. <sup>50</sup> I know that his words have the power to get people to live with him for ever, so I tell you the words that he told me.”

down to eat together. Jesus knew that it was nearly time for him to leave this world and go back to his father. While he was in the world, he always showed his followers that he loved them. And he kept on loving them right to the end of his time on earth.

Before this time, the devil, the boss over the bad spirits, gave one of Jesus’s followers the idea of turning against Jesus. That follower’s name was Judas. He was the son of a man called Simon Iscariot.

Jesus and his followers were sitting at the table, <sup>3</sup> and Jesus knew that God gave him power over everything so that he can do anything. And he knew that he came from God and that he was going back to God again soon. <sup>4</sup> Then he stood up from the table, took off his coat, and tied a towel around himself. <sup>5</sup> Then he put some water in a bowl, and he started to wash the feet of his followers and dry them with the towel.

Jesus said, “If I don’t wash you, you will not be in my family.”

<sup>10</sup> Jesus said, “After you have a bath, all of your body is clean. You might walk around and get your feet dirty again, so then you just have to wash your feet. Most of you mob are like that, you are clean, but one of you is not clean.” <sup>11</sup> You see, Jesus knew that Judas was going to turn against him, so he said, “One of you is not clean.”

<sup>12</sup> After Jesus finished washing everyone’s feet, he put on his coat and sat down again. Then he said, “Do you understand why I washed your feet? <sup>13</sup> You all call me your teacher, and your leader, and you are right. I am both of those things for you. <sup>14</sup> Yes, I am your teacher and leader. I am not your worker, but I washed your feet anyway. In the same way, you have to wash each other’s feet.* <sup>15</sup> I washed your feet to show you how you have to treat each other.

<sup>16</sup> Listen to this, it’s true. A worker is not more important than their boss, and the person that takes a message is not more important than the person that sent them. Like that, you are not more important than me.* <sup>17</sup> And I just showed you how to treat each other. So if you do that, God will make you happy. <sup>18</sup> But I know that one of you will not do it. So I am not talking about all of you. You see, I picked all of you to be my followers, but I knew that one of you will turn against me. A long time ago, God got one of his men to write about this, and it is in God's book. He wrote, 'A man ate with me, but then he turned against me.'

And now that will happen, just like that man wrote.* <sup>19</sup> I am telling you about this now, so that after it happens you will understand that I am the special man that God sent.

<sup>20</sup> Listen to this, it's true. I am going to send you out to be my messengers. And anyone that is happy with my messengers and listens to them, that person is really listening to me and is happy with me. And anyone that is happy with me and listens to me, that person is really listening to my father and is happy with him, because he is the one that sent me here.*

Jesus's followers asked him who will turn against him

<sup>21</sup> After Jesus said that, he was really upset, and he said, "Listen, I'm telling you straight, one of you will turn against me and help my enemies to catch me."

<sup>23</sup> There was one follower that Jesus liked a lot, and he was sitting next to Jesus.

<sup>24</sup> Peter moved his hand to make a sign to that follower, to get him to ask Jesus, "Who are you talking about?"

<sup>25</sup> That follower leaned over closer to Jesus and asked, "Sir, who are you talking about?"

<sup>26</sup> Jesus said, "I will put a bit of damper into the sauce, and then I will give it to the man that will turn against me." Then Jesus put the damper into the sauce and gave it to Judas, the man whose father was called Simon Iscariot.

<sup>27</sup> Judas took the damper, and straight away Satan, the boss over the bad spirits, went into him. Then Jesus said to him, "Go and do what you are going to do. And do it quickly."

<sup>28</sup> None of Jesus's followers understood why he said that to Judas. <sup>29</sup> Some of them thought that Jesus told Judas to go and buy more food for the ceremony, because he looked after the money bag. And some of them thought that Jesus told him to go and give money to poor people.

<sup>30</sup> As soon as Judas took the damper, he left them and went out into the night.

Jesus told Peter that he will say he doesn't know Jesus

<sup>31</sup> After Judas left, Jesus said, "You know that I am God's special man from heaven. Well, now is the time for God to show everyone that I am really great and powerful. People will see me like that, and they will see that God is really great and powerful.

<sup>32</sup> And when they see me really great, like that, they will know that God did it, and they will say that he is really great. God is going to do that now.

<sup>33</sup> My friends, to me you are like my own little kids, but I will not be with you much longer. You can't come with me to the place I am going. You will look for me, but you will not find me. I said that to the Jewish leaders, and now I'm telling you the same thing.*

<sup>34</sup> Listen, you have to love each other, just as much as I loved you. This is a new thing I'm telling you, and you have to do it.* <sup>35</sup> People will see you loving each other, and they will know that you are my followers."

Jesus said to him, "You can't follow me yet to the place where I am going. But you will follow me later."

<sup>37</sup> Peter asked, "But, sir, why can't I follow you now? I am ready to die for you."

<sup>38</sup> Jesus said, "Are you really ready to die for me, Peter? Listen, I'm telling you straight, tonight you will tell people that you don't know me. You will say that 3 times before a chook yells out tomorrow morning, just like it always does before the sun comes up."

14

Only Jesus can take us to God

<sup>1</sup> Jesus said to his followers, "Don't let anything upset you. You believe in God, and you have to believe in me too. <sup>2</sup> Listen, I am going home to my father, and I am going to get a place ready for each one of you to come to. It's like my father has a big house with a lot of room in it, and I will get a place ready for each of you. That's what I told you before, and it is true. <sup>3</sup> And after everything is ready, I will come back and get you. Then you will live with me for ever. <sup>4</sup> And you know the track to the place where I am going."

* 13:18 Psalm 41:9 * 13:20 Matthew 10:40; Mark 9:37; Luke 9:48; 10:16 * 13:33 John 7:34 * 13:34 John 15:12, 17; 1 John 3:23; 2 John 5

<sup>5</sup> Then Thomas said, "But, sir, we don't know where you are going, so we can't know the track. We don't know how to get to that place."

<sup>6</sup> Jesus said, "I am like that track for you. I can take you to my father. And I am the one that says what is true about God. And I am the one that can give people life so that they live with God for ever. I am the only one that can take people to God. <sup>7</sup> If you know me properly, you know my father too. So you do know my father now, and it's like you have seen him too."

<sup>9</sup> Jesus said, "Look, Philip, I have been with you for a long time now, so you know me, right? Anyone that looks at me, can see my father. So you have seen the father. So you don't have to ask me to show you the father. <sup>10</sup> Do you believe that I am joined to the father, so that it's like I am in him? And do you believe that the father is joined to me, so that it's like he is in me? I don't just say whatever I want to say. The father told me what to say. You see, it's like he lives inside me and uses me to do his work. <sup>11</sup> Believe me when I say that I am joined to the father, so that it's like I am in him. And the father is joined to me, so that it's like he is in me. If you don't believe what I'm saying, look at the powerful things I do. Those things will get you to believe me."

<sup>12</sup> Listen to this, it's true. I am going back to my father. So if anyone believes in me, they will do the same powerful things that I do. Yes, and they will do even greater things than I do. <sup>13</sup> You know the things that I say are good. So if you ask me to do that sort of thing, then I will do whatever you ask. I will do that to show you that my father is really great and powerful. <sup>14</sup> Yes, if you ask for anything like that, I will do it for you."

Jesus promised to send the Holy Spirit

<sup>15</sup> Jesus kept on talking to them. He said, "If you love me, you will do everything I told you to do. <sup>16</sup> And I will ask my father to send you another helper. He will come to you and stay with you for ever. <sup>17</sup> He is the Holy Spirit, and what he teaches is always true. The people that belong to this world are not in God's family. They don't understand the Holy Spirit. They don't know him. So they don't want him to come to them. But you know him. He is here with you now, and later on, he will live inside you. <sup>18</sup> I'm going back to my father, but I will not leave you all alone, like kids without a mother or father. No.

I will come back to you. <sup>19</sup> The people that belong to this world will not see me any more, but you will see me again soon. Yes, I will be alive, so you will live too. <sup>20</sup> Then you will know that I am joined to my father, so that it's like I am in him. And you will know that each one of you is joined to me in the same way, so that it's like you are in me. And I am joined to you, so that it's like I am in you. <sup>21</sup> The people that love me are the people that listen to me and do what I tell them to do. And my father will love anyone that loves me. Yes, and I will love them too, and I will show them what I am really like."

<sup>22</sup> Then one of Jesus's followers talked to Jesus. His name was Judas, but he was not Judas Iscariot. He said, "Sir, why are you now saying that you will not show everyone in the world what you are like? Why are you saying that you will only show us?"

<sup>23</sup> Jesus said, "If anyone loves me, they will do whatever I tell them. And my father will love them, and we will come and live with them. <sup>24</sup> But if somebody doesn't love me, they don't do what I tell them. And these things that I tell you are not my own words, but they come from my father, the one that sent me here."

<sup>25</sup> You see, I am telling you these things now, while I am still with you. <sup>26</sup> Later the father will send the Holy Spirit to help you. He will be your teacher in my place. He will help you remember all the things I told you, and he will teach you everything you need to know.

<sup>27</sup> When I go away, I will give you the power to always feel happy and quiet inside yourselves. You see, I have that power, and I will give you that power too. The people in the world can't give you that power, but I can. So don't let anything upset you, and don't let anything frighten you."

<sup>28</sup> Like I told you before, I am going away, but I will come back to you again. You see, I am going back to my father, and my father is much greater than I am. So if you really love me, you will be happy for me to go to my father. <sup>29</sup> I'm telling you all about this now, so that after it happens, you will trust me. <sup>30</sup> All right, I will not tell you much more, because the boss over the bad spirits is getting close now. He is the boss over this world, but he is not my boss, so he can't tell me what to do. <sup>31</sup> No, I do what my father tells me to do. I do that so that the people of this world can know that I love my father."

Then Jesus said to his followers, "Come on, get up, and let's leave this place."

15

Jesus said, "I am like a good grape vine, growing in a garden. And God, my father, is like the gardener. <sup>2</sup> And people are like the branches of that grape vine. There are some people that don't live God's way. They are like branches on the vine that don't grow any fruit. They are no good, so the gardener cuts them off. But some people do live God's way. They are like branches on the vine that do grow fruit. My father keeps on working on those people, to get them to live God's way even better. He is like the gardener that cleans up the good branches and trims them back a little bit, so that they will grow more fruit.

<sup>3</sup> You are like those good branches. You believed my words, so you are already clean.

<sup>4</sup> And, you know, a branch has to stay joined to the main trunk of the vine, so it can grow fruit. A broken branch lying on the ground can't grow any fruit. The trunk and the branch have to stay joined together. Well, just like that, you have to stay joined to me, and I will stay joined to you. If you don't stay joined to me, you can't live God's way.

<sup>5</sup> So I tell you, I am like the main trunk of the grape vine, and you are like the branches. If you stay joined to me, I will stay joined to you, and you will keep on doing what God wants you to do. You see, if any branches don't stay joined to the trunk of the vine, they can't grow any fruit. Just like that, if you are not joined to me, you can't do anything for God.

<sup>6</sup> Some people might not stay joined to me. They will be like branches that the gardener cuts off and throws away. They lie on the ground and dry up, and later on, he will pick them up and throw them into a fire, and it will burn them up. <sup>7</sup> But, if you stay joined to me, and keep on doing what I taught you, you can ask me for anything, and I will do it. <sup>8</sup> And when you live God's way, other people will see the good things that you do, and they will know that you are my followers, so they will respect my father. You will be like a branch that grows a lot of fruit.

<sup>9</sup> I loved you just as much as my father loves me. So listen, you have to stay joined to me, and I will keep on loving you. <sup>10</sup> I always do what my father wants me to do, and he keeps on loving me. In the same way, if you keep on doing what I told you to do, I will keep on loving you. <sup>11</sup> I told you all these things now, so that you can be properly happy. Yes, you can be as happy as me.

<sup>12</sup> Yes, and I am telling you this, you have to love each other, just like I loved you.*

<sup>13</sup> If somebody is ready to die to save their friends, that shows that they really love their friends a lot. <sup>14</sup> Well, if you do what I tell you to do, you are my friends. I love my friends a lot, and I am ready to die to save you. <sup>15</sup> I'm not calling you my workers any more, but I'm calling you my friends. Workers don't know what their boss is doing, but I told you everything that my father told me. So now you know what I am doing.

<sup>16</sup> You didn't pick me, but I picked you. And I am sending you out to do my work. I want you to be like branches that grow the sort of fruit that stays good for ever. Then you can ask God for anything that I say is good, and he will give it to you. <sup>17</sup> Listen, I'm telling you again what you have to do, you have to love each other."

The world's people hate Jesus's followers

<sup>18</sup> Jesus kept on talking to his followers. He said, "Listen. When the people of this world hate you, just remember that they hated me first. <sup>19</sup> The people that belong to this world don't live God's way. And they only love other people that belong to this world. But you are not like them, so they don't love you. You see, I picked you out from the people of this world, and now you are different, so they hate you.

<sup>20</sup> Remember that I told you before, 'A worker is not more important than their boss.' Well, I am your boss, and you are my workers. And people made a lot of trouble for me, so people will make a lot of trouble for you. But some people listened properly to me, so some people will listen properly to you too.*

<sup>21</sup> You are my followers, that's the reason why some people will make trouble for you. You see, they don't know God. He is the one that sent me here.

<sup>22</sup> I came and talked to them, but they didn't listen to me. So they are going against God, and he will say they are guilty. And they can't argue with him. They can't say they didn't hear my message. <sup>23</sup> You see, if anyone hates me, they hate my father too. <sup>24</sup> And that mob saw me do powerful things, but they took no notice of me, so they are guilty of going against God. I did those powerful things that nobody else ever did, and they saw what I did, but they still hate me, and they hate my father too. So they are really guilty.

* 15:12 John 13:34; 15:17; 1 John 3:23; 2 John 5

<sup>25</sup> A long time ago, God told one of his men to write about this, and they have it in God's book. He wrote, 'I didn't do anything bad to them, but they hated me anyway.*'

And that mob are doing that to me now.

<sup>26</sup> Listen, I am going back to my father, and then I will send you a helper. He is the Holy Spirit. He will come to you from the father, and everything he says is always true. He will tell you all about me. <sup>27</sup> And you mob will talk about me too. You were with me from the time I started teaching, so you have to tell everyone about me."

16

<sup>1</sup> Jesus kept on talking to his followers. He said, "I told you all this so that you will keep on trusting me. <sup>2</sup> After I go away, the Jewish leaders will not let you into their meeting houses to pray to God with them. And a time is coming when people will kill you, and they will think that God wants them to do that. <sup>3</sup> They will do those bad things, because they never knew me, or my father. <sup>4</sup> I am telling you this now, so that when those bad things happen, you will remember that I told you about them. You didn't need to know about them before, because I was with you. But now I am going away, so I have to tell you about them."

This is what the Holy Spirit does

<sup>5</sup> Jesus told his followers, "I am going to leave you and go back to my father. He is the one that sent me here. And none of you asked me, 'Where are you going?' <sup>6</sup> I know my words made you very sad. <sup>7</sup> But listen, this is the true story. After I leave you and go to my father, I will send the Holy Spirit to you, and he will help you. You see, if I don't go, the Holy Spirit will not come to you. But I will go away, and it will be good for you, because the Holy Spirit will come to you.

<sup>8</sup> After he comes, he will show people in the world that they go against God and do bad things. And he will show people that they don't live the right way. And he will show people that one day God will judge everyone.

<sup>9</sup> You see, the people that belong to this world don't believe in me, so they are going against God.

<sup>10</sup> And I am going back to the father, and you will not see me any more. I will not be here, so the Holy Spirit will show people the right way to live.

<sup>11</sup> And the Holy Spirit will show people that God will judge everyone. You see, God already judged the devil. He is the boss over the bad spirits, and he is the boss over this world too, but God said that he is guilty.

<sup>12</sup> I have a lot more to tell you, but it's too much for you right now. <sup>13</sup> After the Holy Spirit comes, he will tell you what is true. He will teach you everything that is true about God. He will not say his own words, but only the words he heard from God. He will also tell you about things that will happen later on. <sup>14</sup> He will tell you the message that I give him. When he does that, he will show you that I am great and good. <sup>15</sup> You see, everything my father has is mine too. So my father's true message is my message too. That is the reason why I said that I will give my message to the Holy Spirit, and he will tell it to you."

Jesus's followers were going to be sad for a while

<sup>16</sup> Jesus said to his followers, "I will go away soon, and you will not see me. But then after a little while, you will see me again."

<sup>17-18</sup> Some of his followers didn't understand what Jesus was saying. They asked each other, "Why did he say, 'Soon, you will not see me. But then after a little while, you will see me again'? And why did he say, 'I am going back to the father'? What does he mean?"

<sup>19</sup> Jesus knew they wanted to ask him what he was talking about, so he said to them, "Are you asking each other what I mean by saying, 'Soon, you will not see me. But then after a little while, you will see me again'? <sup>20</sup> Listen to this, it's true. Soon the people of this world will be happy about what is happening to me. But you will be very sad, and you will cry. Yes, you will be sad for a while, but later on, you will be really happy.

<sup>21</sup> You know, while a baby is being born, the mother has a lot of pain. But when she holds her new baby, she forgets about that pain, because she's so happy that a new baby was born into the world. <sup>22</sup> And just like that, you are really sad now, and it feels like pain to you, but later I will come back and see you again, and you will be really happy, and nobody can stop you from being happy.

<sup>23</sup> At that time, you will not need to ask me for anything. Listen, I'm telling you straight, you can ask the father for anything that I say is good, and he will give it to you. <sup>24</sup> You haven't asked God for that sort of thing before, so ask him, and you will get whatever you ask for. Then you will be really happy."

Stay happy

<sup>25</sup> Then Jesus said, "I have been telling you stories that are pictures, to teach you things. But the time is coming when I will not use picture stories. I will tell you clearly about my father. <sup>26</sup> Then you will ask the father for things that I say are good. I will not have to ask my father for you. You can ask him yourself. <sup>27</sup> You see, he loves you too. He loves you because you love me, and because you believe that I came from him. <sup>28</sup> Yes, I came from my father, and I came into the world. But now I am going to leave the world and go back to my father."

<sup>29</sup> Jesus's followers said to him, "Now you are telling us clearly. You are not telling us picture stories. <sup>30</sup> Now we understand that you know everything. We don't need to ask you anything, because you already know what we want to know. So we believe that you came from God."

<sup>31</sup> Jesus said, "You reckon you believe now, <sup>32</sup> but listen, very soon, all of you will run away and hide in your own homes. Yes, you will leave me alone, but I will not really be alone, because my father is with me.

<sup>33</sup> I told you all these things now, so that you can always feel happy and quiet inside yourselves. You are going to get trouble in this world, and you are going to feel sad. But don't be frightened. I am stronger than the world. I finished up the power of this world. So be strong and brave."

Jesus asked God to look after his followers

<sup>1</sup> After Jesus finished telling them all those things, he looked up to heaven and said, "Father, the time has come for me to finish the job you sent me to do. I want you to show people that I am really great and powerful, so that people will look at me, and they will see that you are really great and powerful too, and then they will respect both you and me.

<sup>2</sup> You gave me power over everyone, so that I can give life to the people you gave me, so they will live with you for ever.

<sup>3</sup> Yes, if people know you, and if they know that you are the only real God, and if they know me, and if they know that I am the Christ that you sent to them, those people will live with us for ever.

<sup>4</sup> I did everything that you sent me here to do, and when people saw me do that, they saw that you are great and powerful. <sup>5</sup> And now, Father, when I come back to you, show people that I am great and powerful, just like I was when I was with you, before we made the world together. <sup>6</sup> You gave me some people from the world, and I showed them what you are like. They were your people, but you gave them to me. I taught them your word, and they did what you said. <sup>7</sup> Now they know that everything that I said came from you. <sup>8</sup> I told them the message that you told me, and they believed it. Now they know for sure that you sent me to the world.

<sup>9</sup> Father, I am just asking you to look after the people you gave me. I am not talking about the people that belong to this world. <sup>10</sup> All my people are your people, and all your people are mine. And they show other people that I am great and powerful. <sup>11</sup> Very soon I will leave this world and come back to you. But my people will still be in this world, so, Father in heaven, I ask you to look after them. You can use your power to do that, the same power that you gave me. Join them together, and make them one mob, just like you and me are joined together, like we are one.

<sup>12</sup> While I was here on earth, I took care of them. I used the power you gave me to look after them, and I didn't lose any of them. The only one I lost was the one that has to die, just like your man wrote in your book, a long time ago.*

<sup>13</sup> Father, I am coming to you soon, but I am saying these things now, while I am still here in the world, so that my followers can be properly happy inside themselves, just like I am. <sup>14</sup> I told them your message, and they listened to me, and they believed me. They don't belong here in this world, just like I don't belong here. So the people that belong to this world hate them.

<sup>15</sup> I am not asking you to take my followers away from the people that belong to this world. I am asking you to keep them safe from the devil, the boss over the bad spirits. <sup>16</sup> They don't belong in this world, just like I don't belong in this world.

<sup>17</sup> Make them your own special people, that only listen to your true message. Your word is that true message. <sup>18</sup> You sent me into the world to tell people your message, and just like that, I am sending them into the world to tell people your message. <sup>19</sup> And I am giving myself to you to do your work. I will do that to help my followers, so that they will give themselves to you to do your work, and only listen to your true message.”

* 17:12 Psalm 41:9; 109:6-8; John 13:18

Jesus prayed for the people that will believe later on <sup>20</sup> Jesus kept on talking to God. He said, “I am not asking that you only help these followers here with me now. Later they will tell other people about me, and some of those people will believe in me. So I am asking you to help those other people too. <sup>21</sup> Join them all together, Father, and make them one mob, just like you and me are joined together. It’s like you are in me, and I am in you. I want you to join them to us in the same way, so it’s like they are in us. Then people in the world can believe that you sent me to the world.

<sup>22</sup> You made me special, and in the same way I made them special, so that you can join them together and make them one mob, just like you and me are joined together, like we are one. <sup>23</sup> I want to be joined to them, so it’s like I am in them, just like you are joined to me, so it’s like you are in me. Then they will be one mob, joined together properly. Then the people that belong to this world will know that you sent me to the world. And they will also know that you love my followers just as much as you love me.

<sup>24</sup> Father, you gave me these people, and I want them to be with me. I want them to see that you gave me the same great power that you have. You loved me and gave me that power before we made the world. <sup>25</sup> Father, you always do what is right. But the people that belong to this world don’t know you. But I know you, and my followers know that you sent me to the world. <sup>26</sup> I showed my followers what you are like, and I will keep on showing them, so that they will love each other, just like you love me. And I will be joined to them, so it’s like I am in them.”

The soldiers grabbed Jesus

<sup>1</sup> After Jesus talked to his father, he and his special workers left the house. They went across the creek called Kidron, and they went to a garden. <sup>2</sup> Judas wasn’t with them because, before this time, he turned against Jesus, and that night he went to the Jewish leaders to help them grab him. He knew that Jesus and his special workers went to that garden lots of times. <sup>3</sup> So Judas went to that garden with some soldiers to show them where Jesus was. He got those soldiers from the bosses of the Jewish ceremonies and the Pharisee mob. And there were some Roman soldiers with him too. They had fire sticks, and spears, and long knives with them.

<sup>4</sup> Jesus knew everything that was going to happen to him, but he went to meet them anyway. Then Jesus said to that mob, “Who are you looking for?”

<sup>5-6</sup> They said, “We are looking for Jesus, the man from Nazareth.”

Jesus said, “I am Jesus.” As soon as Jesus said that, all the soldiers moved backwards and fell down to the ground. And Judas, the man that turned against Jesus, was there with them.

<sup>7</sup> Again, Jesus asked them, “Who are you looking for?”

And they said, “Jesus, the man from Nazareth.”

<sup>8</sup> And Jesus said to them, “I already told you that I am Jesus. I am the man you are looking for, so let these other men here go free.”

<sup>9</sup> So the soldiers didn’t grab any of Jesus’s followers. You know, before that time, Jesus said to God, “I didn’t lose any of the people that you gave me.” And it happened just like Jesus said.

<sup>10</sup> Then Peter got his long knife, and he hit one of those men with it, and he cut off that man’s ear. That man’s name was Malkus, and he worked for the big boss of the Jewish ceremonies.

<sup>11</sup> But Jesus said to Peter, “Put that knife away. My father sent me here to go through this hard time. I can’t say to him, ‘No, I will not do it.’”*

They took Jesus to the bosses of the Jewish ceremonies

<sup>12</sup> Then that mob of soldiers grabbed Jesus and tied his hands together. They were the soldiers of the Jewish leaders, and the Roman soldiers and their leader.

<sup>13</sup> At first, they took Jesus to Annas. He was a boss of the Jewish ceremonies. His son-in-law, Cayafas, was the big boss of the Jewish ceremonies that year. <sup>14</sup> (Before that time, Cayafas told the Jewish Leaders Council that it is a lot better for this man to die, instead of the people.*)

Peter said that he was not Jesus’s follower

* 18:14 John 11:49-50

<sup>15-16</sup> When the soldiers took Jesus there, Peter and another follower of Jesus followed along behind them. Then they all got to the house that belonged to Annas. He was a boss of the Jewish ceremonies. That other follower went into the yard of that house with the rest of the mob. You see, that other follower knew that ceremony boss, so the girl that looked after the gate let him go in, but Peter had to wait outside. Then that other follower went back to the gate, and he talked to the girl, so she let Peter go in too. <sup>17</sup> Then that girl said to Peter, "Wait, are you also a follower of that man Jesus?"

Peter said, "No, I am not."

<sup>18</sup> It was a cold night, and the soldiers and workers stood around a fire to keep warm. So Peter went and stood with them.

Annas asked Jesus a lot of questions

<sup>19</sup> Inside the house, the boss of the Jewish ceremonies asked Jesus a lot of questions about his followers, and about the things he taught people.

<sup>20</sup> Jesus said, "I always talked to people in places where everybody can hear me. I talked in our meeting houses, and in God's ceremony house in Jerusalem, the places where all of us Jewish people meet. I didn't keep my message secret. <sup>21</sup> So why are you asking me all these questions? You should ask the people that listened to me. They know the things I said."

<sup>22</sup> Then one of the soldiers hit Jesus and said, "You can't talk to the boss of our ceremonies like that."

<sup>23</sup> Jesus said, "Tell me if I said something wrong. But if I told the true story, why did you hit me?"

<sup>24</sup> Then Annas sent him to Cayafas, the big boss of the Jewish ceremonies. Jesus still had his hands tied up.

Peter kept on saying that he was not Jesus's follower

<sup>25</sup> Outside, in the yard, Peter stood next to the fire to keep warm. And somebody said to him, "Are you one of Jesus's followers too?"

Peter said, "No, I am not."

<sup>26</sup> One of the other people near the fire was a work-man for the big boss of the Jewish ceremonies, and he was a relative of the man whose ear Peter cut off. He looked at Peter and said, "Hey, you are one of Jesus's followers. I saw you in the garden with him, right?"

<sup>27</sup> Again, Peter said, "No, that wasn't me. I am not his follower." Then straight away, a chook yelled out.

They took Jesus to Pilate, the Roman boss

<sup>28</sup> It was early in the morning, and they took Jesus from Cayafas's house to the house of the government boss in Jerusalem. His name was Pilate.

It was the time of the Passover ceremony, so the Jewish leaders wouldn't go into that house. You see, in their Jewish culture, if they went into a house that belonged to somebody that wasn't Jewish, it was like they became dirty, and then they couldn't eat the Passover food. <sup>29</sup> So the Jewish leaders stayed outside, and Pilate went out to talk to them. He said, "Why did you bring this man here? What bad thing did he do?"

<sup>30</sup> The Jewish leaders said, "He did really bad things. That's the reason why we brought him to you."

<sup>31</sup> Pilate said to them, "Take him away and judge him by your own laws."

The Jewish leaders said, "Your Roman laws will not let us kill anyone to punish them." <sup>32</sup> You see, they had to say that because Jesus said that he was going to die on a cross, and that's how the Romans punished people.*

<sup>33</sup> Pilate went back into his house, and he called Jesus to come to him. Then he asked Jesus, "Are you the big boss over the Jewish nation?"

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said, "Did you think of that question yourself, or did somebody else tell you about me?"

<sup>35</sup> Pilate said, "I am not a Jew, so I don't know anything about you mob. But your own people, and the bosses of your ceremonies, they brought you here. What did you do?"

<sup>36</sup> Jesus said, "I am a big boss, but I am not the big boss over a nation here in this world. That is the reason why my followers didn't fight to stop the Jewish leaders from grabbing me."

<sup>37</sup> Then Pilate said, "So it is true that you are a big boss?"

Jesus said, "Yes, you said that I am a big boss, and you are right. And I was born into this world so that I can tell everyone God's true message. If anyone really wants to know the true message, they take notice of the things I say."

<sup>38</sup> Pilate said, "Do you think you know the true message? Nobody knows that."

Then Pilate went outside again, to talk to the Jewish leaders. He said, "I asked this man a lot of questions, and I don't think he did anything wrong. <sup>39</sup> You know, every year at your Passover time, I let one prisoner go free for you Jewish people. Do you want me to let this man, your big boss, go free?"

<sup>40</sup> All the Jewish leaders shouted back, "No, not him. Let Barabbas go free." Barabbas was a man that was in jail because he used to fight against the Romans.

Pilate tried to let Jesus go free

<sup>1</sup> Pilate told the soldiers to take Jesus away and hit him a lot with whips. <sup>2</sup> The soldiers also made some prickly branches into a headband that looked like a crown, like a big boss wears. And they put it on his head. They also put a long purple coat on him, the sort of coat that a big boss wears, <sup>3</sup> and they walked around him and made fun of him. They kept on saying, "Hey, you reckon that you are great. And you reckon that you are the big boss over the Jewish people. But you are not." And they kept on hitting him.

<sup>4</sup> After that, Pilate went out of his house and said to the Jewish leaders, "Look, I'm bringing Jesus out to you now, and I say he is not guilty. He has done nothing wrong." <sup>5</sup> Then the soldiers brought Jesus out. He was wearing the prickly headband and the long purple coat. And Pilate said, "Look, here he is."

<sup>6</sup> The bosses of the Jewish ceremonies and their soldiers saw Jesus, and they shouted, "Kill him. Kill him. Nail him to a cross and let him die there."

But Pilate said, "No. You take him and kill him on a cross yourselves. I reckon he is not guilty."

<sup>7</sup> The Jewish leaders said, "But this man said that he is God's son. Our law says that if somebody says that, they have to die."

<sup>8</sup> Pilate heard them say that, and he was even more frightened. <sup>9</sup> He went back inside and asked Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus didn't answer him.

<sup>10</sup> Pilate asked Jesus, "Why don't you answer me? I have the power to let you go free, and I have the power to kill you."

<sup>11</sup> Jesus said, "Yes, but you only have power over me because God gave it to you. So the man that sent me here is more guilty than you are."

<sup>12</sup> After Pilate heard this, he tried again to let Jesus go free, but the Jewish leaders shouted, "But he is trying to be our big boss. And anyone that tries to be the big boss over a nation is going against Caesar, the big boss in Rome. So if you let this man go free, you are not Caesar's friend."

<sup>13</sup> When they said that, Pilate went into his house and got Jesus, and he took him to the place outside called the Stone Floor. (In the Jewish language it was called Gabbatha.) And Pilate sat down there on the judge's seat. <sup>14</sup> It was the time of the Passover ceremony, and it was the day when Jewish people got ready for their rest day, and it was about the middle of the day. Then Pilate said to the Jewish leaders, "Look, here is your big boss."

Pilate asked, "Do you really want me to kill your big boss?"

The bosses of the Jewish ceremonies shouted back, "He is not our big boss. Caesar is our only big boss." <sup>16</sup> Then Pilate did what they wanted, and he told the soldiers to take Jesus away and nail him to a cross to kill him.

They put Jesus on a cross to kill him

<sup>17</sup> Then the soldiers got a big wooden cross, and they forced Jesus to carry it out of the city to a place called Skull Place. In the Jewish language, the name of that place is Golgotha. <sup>18</sup> Then the soldiers nailed Jesus's hands and feet to the cross, and they stood the cross up so that Jesus was high up off the ground. And they also did that to 2 other men. They put one of them on each side of Jesus.

<sup>19</sup> Pilate told one of his men to write some words on a flat bit of wood, to say why they were killing Jesus, and to nail it to the cross. He told that man to write, "Jesus, from Nazareth, the big boss over the Jews." <sup>20</sup> Pilate wanted everyone there to understand it, so he told that man to write it in the languages of the Jewish people, the Roman people, and the Greek people. And those crosses were near the Jewish city called Jerusalem, so a lot of Jewish people read that sign.

<sup>21</sup> The bosses of the Jewish ceremonies told Pilate to change the sign. They said, "Don't write, 'The big boss over the Jews.' You have to write, 'This man said that he is the big boss over the Jews.'"

<sup>22</sup> But Pilate said, "No, I will not change what I wrote."

<sup>23</sup> After the soldiers nailed Jesus to the cross, they split up his clothes into 4 parts, and each soldier got one part. There was also a long shirt that didn't have any joins in it, <sup>24</sup> and they said, "If we cut this up into bits, then it will be no good any more." So they didn't cut it up, but they gambled for it. A long time ago, one of God's men wrote about this, and it is in God's book. He wrote,

"They split my clothes up among each other, and they gambled for my shirt."

When the soldiers did that, it happened just like that man wrote in God's book.*

<sup>25</sup> There were 4 women standing near Jesus's cross. They were his mother, and her sister, and Mary Magdalene, and another Mary that was the wife of Clopas.

<sup>26</sup> Jesus saw his mother standing there, and also the follower that he liked a lot. So he said to his mother, "Look at that man near you. He is your son now." <sup>27</sup> And he said to his follower, "Look at that woman near you. She is your mother now." So that follower took Jesus's mother back to his house, and from that time he looked after her, like she was his own mother.

Jesus died

<sup>28-29</sup> After that, Jesus knew that he finished everything that his father asked him to do. Then he said, "I'm thirsty." So one of the soldiers got a long stick, and he tied a sponge to it. He put it into a pot of sour wine, and then he lifted it up to Jesus's mouth, for him to drink. When that happened, they did what God's men wrote in God's book a long time ago.*

<sup>30</sup> Jesus tasted the sour wine, then he said, "I've finished my work here on earth." Then he put his head down, and he let his spirit go, and he died.

<sup>31</sup> All this happened on the day before the Jewish people's rest day. And it was going to be a really special rest day, because it was the time of the Passover ceremony. The Jewish leaders didn't want the bodies to be on those crosses on their rest day, and in their culture a new day started when the sun went down. It was already afternoon, so they asked Pilate to get the soldiers to break the legs of the men on the crosses, so those men can die more quickly, and then they can take their bodies down before the sun went down.

<sup>32</sup> Pilate agreed, and he told the soldiers to break the men's legs. They broke the legs of the men on each side of Jesus.

<sup>33</sup> Then they came to Jesus, and they saw that he was already dead, so they didn't break his legs. <sup>34</sup> But one of the soldiers poked a spear into Jesus's side, to make sure that he was dead, and straight away blood and water came out. <sup>35</sup> There was a man there that saw all this happen, and he told everyone about it. He knows what really happened, and what he says is true.

He tells everyone about it so that you can believe in Jesus too.

<sup>36-37</sup> And, you know, a long time ago, one of God's men wrote in God's book about what those soldiers were going to do to Jesus. He wrote,

"They will not break any of his bones."*

And another one of God's men wrote, "They will look at the man they stabbed with a spear."*

And those things happened when Jesus died.

They put Jesus's body into a cave

<sup>38</sup> There was a man there that was called Joseph. He was from a place called Arimathia. He believed in Jesus, but he didn't want the Jewish leaders to give him any trouble, so he didn't tell anyone about it. When Jesus died, Joseph went to see Pilate and asked him, "Can I get Jesus's body to take care of it our way?"

Pilate said, "All right." So Joseph went and got Jesus's body.

<sup>39</sup> Nicodemus was with Joseph too. He was the man that visited Jesus one night a long time before.* He got about 30 kilograms of special cream to put on Jesus's body. It was made from plants called myrrh and aloe, and it smelled really good. <sup>40</sup> Together Joseph and Nicodemus put that cream all over Jesus's body, then they wrapped it in long bits of cloth. That's how the Jews buried their dead people.

<sup>41</sup> There was a garden near the place where Jesus died, and in that garden there was a special cave to put dead bodies. It was a big hole, like a little room that somebody cut in the rock. It was a new cave, so there were no bodies in it yet.

<sup>42</sup> Joseph and Nicodemus put Jesus's body in that cave, and they blocked that cave with a big stone. You see, the sun was starting to go down, and soon the Jewish rest day was going to start, so they had to be quick, and that cave was close to the place where Jesus died.

Jesus came alive again

<sup>1</sup> After the Jewish rest day finished, Mary Magdalene went to the cave where the men put Jesus's body. It was early on Sunday morning, and it was still dark. She got a shock when she saw the cave. It was open. The stone didn't block that cave any more. <sup>2</sup> So she ran to Peter, and the follower that Jesus liked a lot, to tell them what she saw in the cave. She told them, "Somebody took our leader's body out of the cave, and we don't know where they put him."

* 19:24 Psalm 22:18      * 19:28-29 Psalm 22:15; 69:21

<sup>3-4</sup> So Peter and the other follower ran to the cave. The other follower ran faster than Peter, and he got there first. <sup>5</sup> He bent down and looked into the cave, but he didn't go inside. He only saw the long bits of cloth that Joseph and Nicodemus put around Jesus's body.

<sup>6</sup> Then Peter got there, and he went inside the cave, and he also saw the bits of cloth. <sup>7</sup> The cloth that covered Jesus's head was folded up in a place by itself. <sup>8</sup> Then the other follower, that got to the cave first, he went inside too, and he saw the bits of cloth there, but no body, and so he believed that Jesus was alive again. <sup>9</sup> You see, a long time ago, God's men wrote about this in God's book. They said that Jesus had to come alive again. But those 2 followers of Jesus didn't understand it yet. <sup>10</sup> So they came out of the cave, and they went back to their homes.

Jesus talked to Mary Magdalene

<sup>11</sup> But Mary stood outside the cave, and she was crying. Then she bent down and looked into it, <sup>12</sup> and she saw 2 angel messengers with white clothes sitting at the place where Jesus's body used to be. One angel sat in the place where the head used to be, and the other angel sat at the other end.

<sup>13</sup> They asked her, "Woman, why are you crying?"

Mary said, "Somebody took my leader's body away, and I don't know where they put it." <sup>14</sup> After she said that, she turned around and saw a man standing behind her. It was Jesus, but she didn't know it was him.

<sup>15</sup> Jesus asked her, "Woman, why are you crying? Who are you looking for?"

Mary thought he was the gardener, so she asked him, "Sir, did you take his body away? If you did, please show me where you put it, so that I can get it and take care of it."

Mary turned around, and straight away she knew that he was Jesus, and she said in her language, "Rabboni." (That word means teacher.)

<sup>17</sup> Jesus said, "Don't hold on to me. I haven't gone up to my father yet. I want you to go to my followers and tell them that I am going back up to my father, and he is the father of all of you too. He is my God, and he is your God too."

<sup>18</sup> Then Mary went to Jesus's followers and told them, "I saw our leader Jesus." Then she told them everything he said.

Jesus showed himself to his followers

<sup>19</sup> It was Sunday, and that night Jesus's followers were inside a house. They were frightened. They didn't know what the Jewish leaders might do to them, so they locked the doors. Suddenly Jesus came and stood in the middle of the group. He said, "Hello. I want you to feel happy and quiet inside yourselves." <sup>20</sup> Then he showed them the holes in his hands and his side. His followers saw that he really was their leader Jesus, and they were very happy.

<sup>21</sup> Jesus said to them, "I want you to feel happy and quiet inside yourselves. And, you know, my father sent me here to the world to give people his message. Well, just like that, I'm sending you out to the people in the world, to give them that same message."

<sup>22</sup> Then Jesus breathed on them and said, "Take the Holy Spirit that I'm giving to you." <sup>23</sup> When you tell people my message, some people will listen properly, and God will say that they are not guilty for the bad things they did, and he will not do payback to them. So you can also say that they are not guilty. But some people will not listen to that message, and then God will say that they are guilty of the bad things they did. So you can also say that they are guilty.*

Jesus showed himself to Thomas

<sup>24</sup> Thomas, whose other name was the Twin, was one of Jesus's special workers, but he wasn't there at that time when Jesus came to them.

But Thomas didn't believe them. He said, "I will never believe that Jesus is alive, unless I see the nail holes in his hands, so I can put my finger in them, and unless I can put my hand into the hole in his side."

<sup>26</sup> One week later, Thomas and Jesus's other followers were inside a house, and again they locked all the doors. But Jesus came and stood in the middle of them. He said, "Hello. I want you to feel happy and quiet inside yourselves." <sup>27</sup> Then he said, "Thomas, look at the holes in my hands, and put your finger in them. And put your hand into the hole in my side. Believe that I am alive. Stop saying that you can't believe it."

* 20:23 Matthew 16:19; 18:18

<sup>28</sup> Straight away, Thomas believed that Jesus was alive, and he said, "You are my leader, and you are my God."

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said to him, "Now you believe that I am alive, because you can see me. Listen. There are people that will not see me, but they will believe in me, and God will make them really happy."

John wrote this book so that we can believe in Jesus

<sup>30</sup> You know, Jesus did a lot of other powerful things, and his followers saw him do them, but I didn't write about all of those things in this book. <sup>31</sup> But I wrote about some of the things he did so that you can believe that Jesus is the Christ, the special man that God promised to send to save us, and so that you can believe that he is God's son. And if you believe in him, you will live with God for ever.

Jesus's followers saw him at the lake

And they said, "We'll come with you." So they went down to the water with their net, and they went out on a boat to catch some fish. They worked all night, but they didn't catch anything.*

<sup>4</sup> Early in the morning, just before the sun came up, they saw a man standing on the land. It was Jesus, but they didn't know that it was him.

<sup>5</sup> He called out to them, "Friends, have you got any fish?"

They said, "No. Nothing."

<sup>6</sup> Jesus said, "Throw your net over the other side of the boat, the right-hand side. You will get fish there."

So they did what he said. They threw their net over the right-hand side of the boat, and it caught lots of fish. They tried to pull the net back into the boat, but they couldn't do it, because all the fish in it made it too heavy.* <sup>7</sup> Then the follower that Jesus liked a lot, said to Peter, "That man on the land is our leader Jesus."

As soon as Peter heard that the man was Jesus, he put his coat back on. (You see, he took it off before, so that he could work better.) Then he jumped into the water to go to Jesus. <sup>8</sup> The boat wasn't far from the land, only about 100 metres, so the other followers stayed in the boat, and took it to the land. They dragged the net full of fish behind them. <sup>9</sup> After they got out of the boat, they saw a fire with fish cooking in the coals. And there was bread too.

<sup>10</sup> Jesus said to them, "Bring some of those fish that you just caught."

<sup>12</sup> Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast."

They all knew that he was their leader Jesus, but none of them were brave enough to ask, "Are you really Jesus?"

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus picked up some bread and gave it to them to eat. And he gave them some fish too.

<sup>14</sup> This was the 3rd time, after Jesus came alive again, that he showed himself to his followers.

Jesus told Peter to look after his people

<sup>15</sup> After they finished eating, Jesus talked to Peter, whose other name was Simon. He said, "Simon, son of John, do you love me, more than these other followers love me?"

Peter said, "Yes, sir, you know that I love you."

Jesus said, "All right, you have to take care of my people properly, just like a shepherd takes his young sheep to good grass for them to eat."

<sup>16</sup> Then Jesus asked him again, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?"

Peter said, "Yes, sir, you know that I love you."

Jesus said, "All right, you have to take care of my people properly, just like a shepherd looks after his sheep."

<sup>17</sup> After that, Jesus asked him again, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?"

Then Peter got a bit upset because Jesus asked him 3 times, "Do you love me?" So Peter said, "Sir, you know everything, and you know that I love you."

Jesus said, "All right, you have to look after my people properly, just like a shepherd takes his sheep to good grass for them to eat. <sup>18</sup> Listen Peter, I'm telling you straight. When you were a young man, you tied your own rope belt around you, and you went wherever you wanted to go. But after you get old, you will hold out your hands, and somebody else will tie a rope around you, and he will take you to a place where you don't want to go." <sup>19</sup> Jesus said that to tell Peter how Peter will die, and when Peter dies like that, he will show that God is really great.

Then Jesus told Peter, "Keep on following me."

<sup>22</sup> Jesus said, "Don't worry about him. Maybe I want him to stay alive until I come back again, but you don't have to worry about that. You just follow me." <sup>23</sup> When Jesus's followers heard what Jesus said, they thought that he said that this man was not going to die. But Jesus didn't say that he wouldn't die. He said, "Maybe I want him to stay alive until I come back again, but you don't have to worry about that."

The last words of this book

<sup>24</sup> That follower, the one Jesus was talking about, he is the one that wrote this book. He saw all those things happen, and we know that he wrote the true story about Jesus.

<sup>25</sup> Jesus did a lot of other things too, but I can't put them all in this book. You know, if somebody tried to write about all those things, the world is not big enough to hold all the books that they would make.

The followers of Jesus did great things (The book in the Holy Bible called Acts) About this book

Luke wrote this book. He was a doctor. This is the 2nd book he wrote. His 1st book is about the things that Jesus did when he was here on the earth. We have translated some of that book, see Some important parts of the good news about Jesus that Luke wrote. This 2nd book is about the things that Jesus's followers did after Jesus went back to heaven. Luke wrote both of these books for a man called Thiofilus, but we can learn a lot from them too.

Luke was a friend of Paul, one of Jesus's special workers, and he went with Paul to a lot of countries and helped him as he told people the good news about Jesus.

Some of the things that Luke wrote about in this book, are things he saw happen, and the rest are things that Paul and Jesus's other followers told him about.

Luke wrote this book about 2,000 years ago, about 30 years after Jesus went back to heaven. It is now part of the Holy Bible, and it is important for us today. It tells us about how the first Christians lived for Jesus, and how they started the first churches in the towns where they lived. And it tells us how God's Holy Spirit worked in them, and how they told everyone about Jesus, so that a lot more people believed in him. We can learn a lot today from this book that Luke wrote a long time ago.

<sup>1</sup> I'm writing to you again, my friend Thiofilus. I wrote to you before, about all the things that Jesus did, and the things that he taught people.* <sup>2</sup> He kept on doing those things, and the Holy Spirit helped him tell his special workers the things they had to do. After that, God took Jesus up to heaven.

<sup>3</sup> You see, before God took Jesus up to heaven, when he was on the earth, people killed him. Then he came alive again, and his followers saw him a lot of times in the next 40 days. Jesus showed them that he really was alive, so they are really sure that it is true. And he told them a lot of things about God's family.

<sup>4</sup> One day, Jesus was eating some food with his followers in Jerusalem city, and he said to them, "Don't leave Jerusalem yet. I already told you that my father promised to give you the Holy Spirit. Well, wait here until God does that.* <sup>5</sup> Remember John the Baptist. He baptised people with water. That means, he took them through a special washing ceremony. But in a few days time, God will baptise you with the Holy Spirit. That means, he will put his spirit in you."*

God took Jesus up into heaven

<sup>6</sup> You know, at that time, the Roman government people were the bosses over all the people there. So when Jesus's followers met together with him, they asked him, "Sir, are you going to fight the Romans at this time, and beat them, and give us back our own country, with our own boss for us Israel people?"

<sup>7</sup> Jesus said to them, "My father controls everything. He knows the time that things will happen. You don't need to know the time. <sup>8</sup> But the Holy Spirit will come to you, and he will give you power, and then you will tell people about me in Jerusalem, and all over Judea country, and in Samaria country, and you will go to people everywhere in the world, and you will tell them about me."*

<sup>9-10</sup> After Jesus told them that, God lifted him up to heaven. His followers were looking at him as he was going up. Then a cloud came in front of Jesus, and his followers couldn't see him any more. They kept on looking up into the sky, and suddenly 2 men wearing white clothes stood next to them.* <sup>11</sup> They said, "You men from Galilee, why are you standing here looking up into the sky? God took Jesus up into heaven, but he will come back again one day. You saw him go up into heaven just now, and he will come back in the same way that you saw him go."

They found a man to take the place of Judas

Then Jesus's followers left that place, and they walked about a kilometre back to Jerusalem, <sup>13</sup> and then they went upstairs to the room where they were living.

These are the names of Jesus's 11 special workers,

- Peter
- John

* 1:1 Luke 1:1-4    * 1:4 Luke 24:49    * 1:5 Matthew 3:11; Mark 1:8; Luke 3:16; John 1:33    * 1:8 Matthew 28:19; Mark 16:15; Luke 24:47-48    * 1:9-10 Mark 16:19; Luke 24:50-51

- James
- Andrew
- Philip
- Thomas
- Bartholomew
- Matthew
- James. His father's name was Alfius.
- Simon. He used to be one of the mob that wanted to fight the Roman government bosses.
- Judas. His father's name was James.*

<sup>14</sup> All those men met every day to pray together. Jesus's brothers and some women met with them too. One of those women was Mary, the mother of Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> After a few days, the people that believed in Jesus had a meeting. There were about 120 people at that meeting. Peter stood up and talked to them. <sup>16-17</sup> He said, "Listen, friends, a long time ago the Holy Spirit told David about Judas, the son of Iscariot, and David wrote that story in God's book. Now it has happened. You know, Judas used to be with us, and he worked with us. He was one of Jesus's special workers. But the Jewish leaders paid Judas to take a mob of bad men to catch Jesus. <sup>18</sup> After that, the Jewish leaders used that same money to buy some farm land. And Judas died in that place. His belly split open, and all his guts fell out. <sup>19</sup> Everybody that lived in Jerusalem heard about that, so they called that place Akeldama in their language. That means the farm land of blood."*

<sup>20</sup> Peter kept on talking. He said, "God also told David to write about Judas in the part of God's book called Psalms. He wrote, 'Empty out his house, God, and don't let anybody else live in it.'

And he also wrote,

'Let somebody else have his job.' **

<sup>21-22</sup> And Peter said, "So now we have to pick somebody else to have Judas's job and be one of Jesus's 12 special workers. He will help us tell people the true story, that Jesus is alive. Yes, Jesus died, but then God made him alive again. The man that we pick has to be one of the men that went around with our leader Jesus. He has to be somebody that was with us from the time that John baptised Jesus, right up to the time that God took Jesus up into heaven."*

<sup>23</sup> So they all talked together, and they found 2 men that were with them all that time. One man was Joseph Barsabbas. He also had another name, Justus. The other man was called Matthias. <sup>24-25</sup> Then Jesus's special workers prayed. They said, "Judas left his job, and went his own way, and now he is dead. He went to that bad place. And God, you know everyone properly, and you know the way they think. Please show us the man that you want to take Judas's place, and to do his job, and to be a special worker of Jesus."

<sup>26</sup> So they put the names of those 2 men into a jar, and one man shook it. Then one of them closed his eyes and took one of those names out of the jar. That name was Matthias. So Matthias joined Jesus's 11 special workers, to work with them.

The Holy Spirit came

<sup>2</sup> Suddenly there was a noise that came from the sky, like a strong wind blowing. Everyone in the house heard that noise.

<sup>3</sup> Then they saw something like flames of fire that spread out and touched each person there. <sup>4</sup> The Holy Spirit went into all of them, and they all started to talk in different languages. The Holy Spirit gave them power to talk in those languages.

<sup>5</sup> There were some Jewish people from a lot of different countries that were staying in Jerusalem at that time. Those people really respected God. <sup>6</sup> They heard the noise, and they crowded around that house. They heard Jesus's followers talking in the languages of all their different countries, and they were really surprised. <sup>7</sup> They said, "These men are from Galilee, <sup>8</sup> so how come we can hear them talking in our own languages? <sup>9-11</sup> Some of us were born Jews, and some of us became Jews later. We are from a lot of different countries, and we can hear them talking in the languages of those countries. Some of us are from Parthia, and some from Media, and some from Elam, and some from Mesopotamia, and some from Judea, and some from Capadoshia, and some from Pontus, and some from Asia, and some from Frigia, and some from Pamflia, and some from Egypt, and some from places in Libya near Cyrene, and some of us are from Crete, and some of us are from Arabia, and some of us are visiting from Rome. But all of us can hear these people talking in our own languages. They are talking about the wonderful things that God does."

* 1:13 Matthew 10:2-4; Mark 3:16-19; Luke 6:14-16

* 1:21-22 Matthew 3:16; Mark 1:9; 16:19; Luke 3:21; 24:51

* 1:19 Matthew 27:3-8

* 1:20 Psalm 69:25; 109:8

* 2:1 Leviticus 23:15-21; Deuteronomy 16:9-11

<sup>12</sup> Those people were shocked, and they didn't understand. They asked each other, "What does this mean?"

<sup>13</sup> But some other people laughed and made fun of Jesus's followers. They said, "That mob are just drunk. They drank too much wine."

Peter talked to the people at Jerusalem

<sup>14</sup> Then Peter got up to talk to those people, and Jesus's 11 other special workers got up too. Peter said in a loud voice, "All you Jewish mob, and all you people that live in Jerusalem, listen to me properly now, and I'll tell you the true story. <sup>15</sup> You reckon we are drunk, but no, we are not drunk. It is only 9 o'clock in the morning, too early to get drunk.

<sup>16</sup> But I'll tell you what's happening. You know, a long time ago, God told his man, Joel, to write about what is happening here now, and it is in God's book. Joel wrote, <sup>17</sup> 'God said, "In the last days, before I judge everybody,

I will give my Holy Spirit to all sorts of people.

I will give my spirit to your sons, and to your daughters, and they will tell other people the things that I tell them to say.

Your young men will see the special things that I will show them, and your old men will dream about the special things I want them to know.

<sup>18</sup> I will even give my Holy Spirit to all my workers, men and women, and they will tell other people the things that I tell them to say.

<sup>19-21</sup> And I will do powerful things in the sky that will shock everyone.

The sun will turn dark, and the moon will turn red like blood.

And I will do powerful things on the earth too.

People will fight each other, and there will be fire and big smoke."

Then God's really great and special day will come, and he will judge everybody.

But God will save everybody that calls to him for help and asks him to save them.'

Joel wrote that in God's book."*

<sup>22-23</sup> Peter kept on talking. He said, "All you mob, listen, and I'll tell you about Jesus, the man from Nazareth. He was a very special man. God helped him to do great and powerful things, to show you that he is really special. You mob saw Jesus doing those things right here in front of your eyes. But you grabbed him, and you gave him to bad men that don't know God, and they killed him on a cross. But you see, God already knew that was going to happen. God planned those things a long time ago.* <sup>24</sup> Yes, those bad men killed Jesus. They hurt him a lot, so that he died. But God didn't let him stay dead. God made him alive again. Nobody could make Jesus stay dead.*

<sup>25-28</sup> A long time ago, God told his man, David, to write about Jesus, and it is in God's book. David wrote,

'God, I know that you are always right here with me.

You are close by my side and you look after me, so nobody can frighten me.

So I am very happy, and I tell everyone that you are good.

I know that you will not leave my dead body in a grave.

You will not let the body of your special person rot away.

You showed me the right way to live, so that I can keep on living.

You are right here with me, and you make me very happy.'

David wrote that in God's book."*

<sup>29</sup> Peter kept on talking. He said, "My friends, I can tell you, for sure, that our grand-father, David, was not talking about himself. You see, he died, and people buried him. His grave is still here, and we can see it today. So we know he didn't come alive again. <sup>30</sup> But David was one of God's men, and he wrote God's messages for people. And God promised David that one day, some time later, a man from David's own family will become the big boss over his people.* <sup>31</sup> You see, God told David something that will happen later, so David wrote that message for us. That message was about the Christ, the special man that God was going to send, and it tells us that God was going to make him alive again. It tells us that God was not going to leave him in the grave, or let his body rot away. <sup>32</sup> And now, all of us mob here can tell you, that message is all about Jesus. He died, but then God made him alive again, and we all saw him alive again. <sup>33</sup> Then God took him up into heaven. He is there now, sitting right next to God, on God's right-hand side, the place where the most important person sits. And God gave Jesus the Holy Spirit, and today Jesus gave us the Holy Spirit, just like God promised.

* 2:19-21 Joel 2:28-32    * 2:22-23 Matthew 27:35; Mark 15:24; Luke 23:33; John 19:18    * 2:24 Matthew 28:5-6; Mark 16:6; Luke 24:5    * 2:25-28 Psalm 16:8-11    * 2:30 2 Samuel 7:12-13; Psalm 132:11

That's the reason why you are seeing and hearing us talk in lots of languages today.

<sup>34</sup> You see, David didn't go up into heaven, but Jesus did, so we know David didn't write those words about himself, but he wrote them about Jesus. And David wrote some more words about Jesus too. He wrote,

'God told my leader,

"Sit with me, on my right-hand side, <sup>35</sup> and sit there until I beat all your enemies, and then you can put your feet on them to show that you are their boss." * That's in God's book too."

<sup>36</sup> Then Peter said, "So all of you Israel mob have to be sure about this. You know, you got the soldiers to nail Jesus to a cross and kill him. But God made him alive again, and God made him our boss. Yes, he is the Christ, the special man that God promised to send to save us."

<sup>37</sup> All the people heard the things that Peter said, and they felt a lot of shame. So they said to Peter, and to Jesus's other special workers, "Friends, what can we do?"

<sup>38-39</sup> Peter told them, "You have to turn around and follow Jesus. Then let us baptise you, to show that you turned away from the wrong things you are doing, and now you follow Jesus Christ. Then God will not do payback to you for those bad things. And he will give you the Holy Spirit to live in you, just like he promised. You see, God promised to give the Holy Spirit to everyone that he picks to be his own people. That promise is for you, and for your kids, and even for people in other countries a long way away."

<sup>40</sup> And Peter told them a lot more things to be careful about. He kept on telling them, "Let God save you, so that he will not punish you along with all the people that do bad things and don't want Jesus."

<sup>41</sup> Then a lot of people believed the things that Peter said. So Jesus's special workers baptised them. They baptised about 3,000 people that day, and those people joined Jesus's other followers. <sup>42</sup> They all kept on meeting together, and they listened to everything Jesus's special workers taught them. They were like a big family. They ate food together and remembered that Jesus died for them, and they prayed together to God.

Jesus's followers shared everything together

all the people really respected God. <sup>44</sup> The people that believed in Jesus met together, and they shared everything they owned with each other. * <sup>45</sup> Some of them sold the things they owned, and then they gave that money to other people that needed it. <sup>46</sup> They all met together every day in the yard of God's ceremony house. And they met together in each other's houses too, to eat food and remember that Jesus died for them. They were all very happy and good to each other. <sup>47</sup> They praised God, and they told other people that he is really good. All the people in Jerusalem thought those people that believed in Jesus were good people. And God saved more people every day, and they joined in with the other people that believed in Jesus.

3

A man couldn't walk, but Peter got Jesus to make him better

<sup>1-3</sup> There was a man that couldn't walk. He was crippled all his life. Every day, somebody brought him to sit near one of the gates at God's ceremony house. Everyone called that gate the beautiful gate. As people went in through that gate, the crippled man asked them for money.

One day, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, Peter and John went to pray at God's ceremony house. They were going in through that Beautiful Gate, and that crippled man saw them and asked them for money. <sup>4</sup> Peter and John looked straight at that man, and Peter said, "Look at us."

<sup>5</sup> So the man looked at them. He thought, "I reckon these 2 men will give me some money."

<sup>6</sup> But Peter said, "I haven't got any money. But I have got something really good for you. Jesus Christ, the man from Nazareth, has the power to make you better, so I'm talking to you with his power, and I tell you, get up and walk."

<sup>7</sup> Then Peter held the man's right hand and helped him to stand up. Straight away the man's feet and ankles got strong. <sup>8</sup> He jumped up and started to walk around, and he went with Peter and John into the yard of the ceremony house. That man was walking, and jumping around, and he was telling everyone that God is really great and really good.

<sup>9</sup> All the people that were there saw him walking, and they heard him saying that God is really great. <sup>10</sup> They knew he was the man that used to sit near the Beautiful Gate and ask them for money, and they were really surprised. They thought, "How did this happen to him?" <sup>11</sup> All the people there were really surprised, and they ran to Peter and John. They were at a place in God's ceremony house called Solomon's veranda. And the man kept holding on to Peter and John.

Peter told the people about Jesus

<sup>12</sup> Peter saw all those people and said to them, "All you Israel people, why are you surprised like this? Why are you looking at us? Do you think that we are really powerful, and that we made this man walk? Do you think that we are so good that we can do that? No. We are not. <sup>13-14</sup> God made this man better, so that everyone will know that Jesus is really great. But you mob grabbed Jesus and gave him to the soldiers, for them to kill him. Pilate, the judge, wanted to let Jesus go free, but all you mob kept on shouting, 'No, don't let Jesus go. You have to kill him. You have to let another man go free instead, even though the other man is a murderer.' Jesus was a properly good man that lived God's way, but you said that he was not good.

But Jesus worked for God, and after they killed him, God made him come alive again, and God made him really powerful. This is the same God that our grand-fathers respected a long time ago. They were Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob.* <sup>15</sup> Yes, you killed Jesus, the one that gives life to people. But God made him alive again. And both of us saw him with our own eyes, he was really alive again.

<sup>16</sup> Now you are looking at this man here, and you know he used to be crippled. But we believed that Jesus can make him better, so Jesus did make him better. You mob saw that with your own eyes."

<sup>17</sup> Peter kept on talking to them. He said, "My friends, I know that you and your leaders didn't understand about Jesus. You mob didn't know that he was the special man that God sent to us. <sup>18</sup> But a long time ago, God told his men to tell people about Jesus, and those men wrote those messages in God's book. They all said that God was going to send his special man, the man that is called the Christ, and they said that people were going to hurt him and kill him. And now God has made all that happen.

<sup>19</sup> So listen. You mob have to change the way you live, and you have to turn back to God, so that he will not blame you or do payback to you for the bad things you did.

<sup>20-21</sup> Then God will make your spirits happy and strong. You see, God picked Jesus and sent him to you. He is the Christ, God's special man. Jesus will stay in heaven until the right time comes for God to make everything new and right again. Then God will send Jesus to you again.

God told everyone about that a long time ago, and he got his men to write about it in his book. <sup>22</sup> One of those men was Moses. He wrote,

'God picked me to tell you his messages, and just like that he will pick one of your people later on. That man will be God's special man, and he will tell you God's messages. You have to listen properly to everything he tells you. <sup>23</sup> If anyone will not listen to him, that person will not belong to God's people, and that person will die.*'

<sup>24</sup> Samuel was another of God's men a long time ago. He also told people that all these things were going to happen. And all God's other men that came later, they told people the same story. <sup>25</sup> God promised all these things to our grand-fathers that lived a long time ago, and he promised them to you too. A long time ago, God said to our grand-father Abraham,

'I will use your family to do good things for all the nations in the world.*'

<sup>26</sup> So, you see, first of all, God made Jesus alive again. After that, he sent him to do good things for you. Yes, God sent Jesus to help you Israel mob turn around and stop doing bad things, and live the right way."

Soldiers grabbed Peter and John

<sup>1</sup> Peter and John were still talking to the people there, then some Jewish boss men came to them. Those bosses were the men that look after the Jewish ceremonies, and the boss over the soldiers that looked after God's ceremony house, and some men called Sadducees, that didn't believe that anyone will ever come alive again. They all came to Peter and John. <sup>2</sup> They heard Peter and John teaching the people and saying that God will make people alive, just like he made Jesus alive. And those boss men were really angry, <sup>3</sup> so they grabbed Peter and John. Those boss men wanted to take them to court, but it was already late in the afternoon, so the soldiers locked up Peter and John in jail, to wait until the next day.

* 3:13-14 Exodus 3:6, 15; Matthew 27:15-23; Mark 15:6-14; Luke 23:13-23; John 19:12-15

* 3:23 Leviticus 23:29;

Deuteronomy 18:15, 18-19 * 3:25 Genesis 22:18; 26:4

<sup>4</sup> Some people already heard Peter and John's message, and a lot of them believed it, so they started to follow Jesus. More and more people started to follow Jesus. There were about 5,000 men following him at that time.

<sup>5</sup> The next day, all the Jewish leaders met together in Jerusalem city to judge Peter and John in court. They were the Jewish bosses, and the elders, and the men that taught the Jewish law. <sup>6</sup> The big boss of all the Jewish ceremonies was there. His name was Annas. And 3 men of his family were there. Their names were Cayafas, and John, and Alexander. And there were some other people from his family there too.

<sup>7</sup> Those Jewish leaders got Peter and John to stand there in the middle of them, and they said, "This man couldn't walk. He was crippled. What power did you use to make this man better? And who told you to do that?"

<sup>8</sup> The Holy Spirit was in Peter, and he told Peter what to say. Peter said, "Listen, all you elders and bosses of our people. <sup>9</sup> You are asking us now about the good thing we did for this crippled man. You are asking us about how we made him better. <sup>10</sup> Well, we used the power of Jesus Christ to make this man better. And we want you, and all our Israel countrymen, to know about Jesus, the man from Nazareth. You nailed him to a cross and killed him, but God made him alive again.

<sup>12</sup> But Jesus is the only one that can save people. God didn't send anyone else to save us. Jesus is the only one in the world that has power to save people."

<sup>13</sup> The leaders knew that Peter and John were ordinary men that never went to Jewish school to learn about God's book, but Peter and John were not frightened to talk back to them. So those leaders were shocked. Then they remembered that Peter and John were Jesus's friends and often listened to him. <sup>14</sup> Those leaders saw the man that used to be crippled. He stood right there next to Peter and John.

So those leaders couldn't say anything bad about Peter and John.

<sup>15</sup> So they told Peter and John to go out of the court, and then they talked to each other. <sup>16</sup> They said, "It's hard for us to punish those 2 men. Everyone in Jerusalem knows that they did that powerful thing, that they made that crippled man better. We can't say that it isn't true. <sup>17</sup> But we have to stop people talking about it. So we will tell those 2 men not to talk to anyone about Jesus again. And we will tell them that if they do talk about Jesus, then we will make trouble for them."

<sup>18</sup> So those leaders called Peter and John back to the court. They told them, "Don't talk to any other people about Jesus. Don't teach anyone about him, or we'll give you big trouble."

<sup>19</sup> But Peter and John said to those leaders, "Do you think that God wants us to listen to you? Or do you think that he wants us to listen to him, and do the things that he says? What do you reckon? We know he wants us to do whatever he says, <sup>20</sup> and we can't stop now. We have to talk about the things that we have seen and heard."

<sup>21-22</sup> The leaders couldn't think of any way to punish Peter and John. They knew that all the people were saying that God made that man better. That man was already more than 40 years old, so all the people were saying that God is really great and really good for making him better. So again those bosses told Peter and John, "Don't talk about Jesus any more, or we'll give you big trouble." Then they let them go free.

The Christians prayed together

<sup>23</sup> Peter and John left that court and went back to the other people that believed in Jesus. They told them everything that the bosses of the Jewish ceremonies and the other Jewish leaders said. <sup>24</sup> The other followers listened to Peter and John, and then they all prayed to God together. They said to him, "God, you are the boss over everything. You made the sky, and the earth, and the sea, and everything in them.* <sup>25</sup> The Holy Spirit talked to your man, David, our grand-father that lived a long time ago, and the Holy Spirit told him to write this in God's book. David wrote, "The people from different countries are really angry, and they are talking about doing something stupid, something that will not work.

* 4:11 Psalm 118:22 * 4:24 Exodus 20:11; Nehemiah 9:6; Psalm 146:6

26 Their bosses and leaders are getting ready to fight. They want to get together to fight against God, and they want to fight against the man that God picked to be his special person.*

27-28 And now that has happened, just like David wrote. Herod and Pontius Pilate are both bosses from different countries. They, and some of their countrymen, they all met together in this city. And they met with Jewish people too. They all tried to work out a way to get rid of Jesus. He was your worker, the special one that you sent to us. You, God, are the one with power, and you knew everything they were going to do, and you let them do it.*
29 And now, God, you heard the bad things they reckon they will do to us. We are your workers. Please help us to not be frightened, and help us to keep on telling everyone about Jesus. 30 Show everyone your great power. Make sick people better. Let us do powerful things with the power of Jesus, your special man that works for you. Then everyone will know that we are telling them the true story."

31 After they finished praying God shook the house that they were meeting in, and the Holy Spirit went into them all and filled them. They kept on telling everyone God's message about Jesus, and they weren't frightened of anyone.

The Christians shared all their things

32 All those people that believed in Jesus agreed with each other and felt the same way about things. They shared everything they owned with each other. They never said, "Those things are mine, you can't have them." No, they reckoned everything belonged to everyone.* 33 At the same time, Jesus's special workers talked in a powerful way and told everyone, "Our leader Jesus is alive again." And God was good to his followers, and he gave them everything they needed.

34-35 All those Christians had everything they needed. Nobody was poor or hungry. You see, sometimes Christians that owned farm land or houses sold them, and got some money, and then they gave it to Jesus's special workers, and those special workers gave that money to anyone that needed it.

36 One of the Christians that sold their land was Joseph. Jesus's special workers called him Barnabas. That name means helper. He was from the island called Cyprus, and he belonged to the Levi tribe. 37 Barnabas sold his farm land, then he gave the money to Jesus's special workers, for them to share it with the other Christians.

A man and his wife tried to trick the Holy Spirit

1 There was a man called Ananias, and his wife was called Safira. They sold some land too, 2 but they kept some of the money for themselves. Ananias only gave some of it to Peter and to Jesus's other special workers, for them to share it with the other Christians. Ananias lied to them. He said, "This is all the money we got for our land." His wife knew what he was doing, and she agreed to it.

3 Then Peter said to him, "Ananias, why did you listen to Satan, the boss over the bad spirits? Why did you let him be your boss? He even got you to lie to the Holy Spirit. You kept some of that money for yourself, the money you got for that land. 4 Look, that land was yours, and you didn't have to sell it. But you sold it, and you got some money. Then you could do anything you liked with that money. You didn't have to bring it to us. So why did you think you could trick us, and tell us that this little bit of money was all you got for that land? You lied to us. But you didn't only lie to people, you lied to God too."

5-6 As soon as Ananias heard Peter say that, he fell down and died. Then the young men there got up and wrapped up his body in cloth, then they took it out of the house and buried it. Later on, a lot of people heard about what happened, and they were frightened.

7 The wife of Ananias came into that house about 3 hours later, but she didn't know that her husband was dead. 8 Peter asked her, "Can you tell me, is this all the money that you and Ananias got for that land?"

She said, "Yes, that's all the money."

9 So Peter said to her, "Why did you and your husband agree with each other to try to trick the Holy Spirit? Listen. Your husband is dead, and the men that buried him are near the door right now, and they will carry you out too."

10 Right then, Safira fell down and died in front of Peter. Then the young men came in, and they saw her dead, so they took her out and buried her next to her husband.

* 4:26 Psalm 2:1-2

* 4:27-28 Matthew 27:1-2; Mark 15:1; Luke 23:1, 7-11; John 18:28-29

* 4:32 Acts 2:44-45

<sup>11</sup> Then all the Christians were really frightened. And all the other people that heard about those things were really frightened too.

Jesus's followers got Jesus to make a lot of people better

<sup>12</sup> Jesus's special workers kept on doing powerful things to show everyone that God is powerful. And all the Christians kept on meeting together in God's ceremony house, in the part called Solomon's veranda. <sup>13</sup> The people in that city thought the Christians were really good people, but most people were too frightened to join them. <sup>14</sup> But some people kept on listening, and then a lot of men and women started believing in Jesus, so they joined up with the Christians. <sup>15</sup> A lot of people saw Jesus's special workers do powerful things, so they brought sick people and put them on swags on the roads. They thought, "Even if Peter doesn't touch them, maybe his shadow will touch them as he walks past them, and that will make them better." <sup>16</sup> Big mobs of people came to Jerusalem city from the towns near there, and they brought their sick people, and the people that had bad spirits in them too. And Jesus's special workers made all of them better.

An angel messenger opened the jail doors

<sup>17</sup> There were some people that didn't believe that anyone will ever come alive again. They were called Sadducees. The big boss of the Jewish ceremonies was a Sadducee. He and all the other Sadducees were really jealous of Jesus's special workers. <sup>18</sup> So those Sadducees got some soldiers to grab Jesus's special workers, and lock them up in the jail. <sup>19</sup> But that night, God sent an angel messenger to Jesus's special workers, and he opened the jail doors and let them out. <sup>20</sup> That angel said to them, "Go and stand in God's ceremony house, and tell all the people there everything about this new life that Jesus gives."

<sup>21</sup> So those men listened to that angel, and they went to God's ceremony house very early in the morning, and they started teaching the people there.

At the same time, the big boss of the Jewish ceremonies and his friends, they called together all the men of the Jewish Leaders Council, for a meeting. Then they sent the soldiers to the jail to get Jesus's special workers. <sup>22</sup> Those soldiers went to the jail, but they couldn't find those men there. So they went back to the meeting, and they said, <sup>23</sup> "We got to the jail, and the guards were standing there, near the locked doors. We opened the doors and went inside, but we couldn't find anyone in there."

<sup>24</sup> The boss over the soldiers that guarded God's ceremony house heard the soldiers say that, and so did the bosses of the Jewish ceremonies, but they didn't understand. They thought, "How did those men get out? What will happen next?"

<sup>25</sup> Then somebody came and said to them, "Listen, those men that you put in the jail are in the yard of God's ceremony house. They are standing there teaching the people." <sup>26</sup> So the boss over those soldiers went there with his men, and they got Jesus's special workers. But they were not hard on them. They didn't force them to come, they just asked them to come quietly. The soldiers didn't want to hurt them. They were frightened, because they thought the people there might get angry and throw stones to try to kill them.

<sup>27</sup> The soldiers brought Jesus's special workers to the Jewish Leaders Council, to talk to them. Then the big boss of the Jewish ceremonies got angry with them and said, <sup>28</sup> "We told you not to teach people about Jesus. But you didn't listen to us. You told everyone in Jerusalem about him. You want people to think that we killed him. You are blaming us."*

<sup>29</sup> Peter stood there with Jesus's other special workers, and he said, "We've got to listen to God and do whatever he says, and not listen to people. <sup>30</sup> You got men to kill Jesus by nailing him to a cross. But God made him alive again. We Jewish people respect God, and so did our grand-fathers that lived a long time ago. That same God made Jesus alive again. <sup>31</sup> And he gave Jesus the best place in heaven, right next to God himself, on his right-hand side, the place where the most important person sits. And God made Jesus our leader, the one that can save us. God did that so that all the Israel people can turn back to him, and they can stop doing bad things, and then he will not punish them. <sup>32</sup> We saw everything that Jesus did, so we tell everyone all about it. And God gave his Holy Spirit to the people that follow Jesus, and that Holy Spirit does powerful things, to show everyone that what we say is true."

<sup>33</sup> The Jewish council men heard Peter talking like that, and they were really angry. They wanted to kill Jesus's special workers. <sup>34</sup> But one of them stood up in the meeting. His name was Gamaliyel. He was one of the Pharisee mob, that were strong for the Jewish law. All the people knew that he was a good man, and they respected him. Gamaliyel told the soldiers, "Take Jesus's followers outside for a while."

<sup>35</sup> Then he said to the council men, "Listen, you Israel mob. We have to think carefully now. You want to kill those men, but listen to this. <sup>36</sup> A while ago there was a man called Thoodas. He wanted to fight the Roman government. He told everyone that he was great, and about 400 men listened to him and followed him to fight the Romans. But he died in that fight, and his followers all ran away. So in the end nothing happened. <sup>37</sup> After that, at the time when the Romans were counting our people, there was another man, called Judas. He was from Galilee country. He led a mob of men to fight the Romans, but the Romans killed him too, and chased all his followers away.

<sup>38</sup> So I'm telling you now, don't kill these followers of Jesus. Let them go. You see, if it was men that told them to do these things, and to tell people about Jesus, nothing will happen. <sup>39</sup> But if God told them to do these things, you can't stop them. If you try to stop them, you might find yourselves fighting against God."

The Jewish council men listened to Gamaliyel, and they agreed with him. <sup>40</sup> They called Jesus's special workers back to the meeting, and they told the soldiers to hit them with whips. Then the council men told them, "Don't ever teach people about Jesus again." Then the council men let them go.

<sup>41</sup> So Jesus's special workers left that meeting, and they were very happy. They knew that God reckoned they were good enough to feel pain for Jesus, and to be shamed for following him, so they were happy, even though the soldiers hit them.

<sup>42</sup> And Jesus's followers kept on telling people the good news about him. They never stopped. Every day, they kept on teaching people in the yard of God's ceremony house, and they also went to different people's houses to teach them. They said, "Jesus is the Christ, the special man that God promised to send to save people."

6

The Christians picked 7 men to be church workers

<sup>1</sup> At that time, a lot of people believed in Jesus and started to follow him. Some of them talked in the Greek language, and some of them talked in the Jewish language, called Hebrew. The Christians that talked Greek complained about the Christians that talked Hebrew. They said that the people that looked after the widows didn't give enough food or money to the widows that talked Greek.

<sup>2</sup> So Jesus's 12 special workers called all the other Christians to a meeting. They said, "We 12 men have been giving out the money and food, but now that job is too big for us. We haven't got the time to do that job and then teach people God's word properly. We have to keep on teaching people God's word, so somebody else has to give out the money and food. <sup>3</sup> So, friends, you pick 7 of your own men to do that job. They can give the money and food to the widows. You have to pick men that other people say are good men. They have to be men that God's Holy Spirit controls properly, and they have to be men that always think properly. We will let those men take over that work. They will give money and food to the widows, <sup>4</sup> while we will keep on praying and teaching God's word."

<sup>5</sup> All the Christians agreed with those 12 men. So they picked Stephen. He was a man that really trusted God, and that God's Holy Spirit controlled properly. And they picked Philip, and Procorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas. Nicolas was from a city called Antioch. He was not born a Jew, but he turned to God and started to follow the Jewish ceremonies, and after that, he believed in Jesus. <sup>6</sup> They brought those 7 men to Jesus's 12 special workers, and those 12 men prayed for God to help those 7 men, and they put their hands on their heads to show that they were giving those 7 men that job.

<sup>7</sup> At that time, the Christians kept on telling God's word to more people, and a lot more people in Jerusalem believed in Jesus. Even a big mob of the men that looked after the Jewish ceremonies believed in Jesus.

The Jewish leaders grabbed Stephen

<sup>8</sup> God helped Stephen to be good to everybody, and he gave Stephen the power to do great things, to show people that God was great. <sup>9</sup> But some Jewish men started arguing with him. Those Jewish men were from Cyrene, Alexandria, Cilicia and Asia. They used to meet together at a Jewish meeting house called the meeting house of the free men. <sup>10</sup> But God's Holy Spirit helped Stephen to think properly and gave him the right words to say. His words were so strong that those men couldn't win any argument. <sup>11</sup> So they talked to some other men in secret and paid them money to tell lies about Stephen. Then those other men said, "We heard Stephen say really bad things about Moses, and about God."

<sup>12</sup> They told those lies to their elders and law teachers, and to a lot of other people at God's ceremony house. Then all those leaders got angry, and they went out and grabbed Stephen, and they took him to the mob called the Jewish Leaders Council, for them to judge him. <sup>13</sup> Those men from that meeting house of the free men got those liars to stand up and say, "Stephen keeps on talking against this ceremony house. And he keeps on talking against our Jewish law. <sup>14</sup> You know, we heard him say that Jesus from Nazareth will knock down this house. He says that Jesus will change the way we live and stop us doing the things that Moses told us to do."

7

Stephen told the Jewish leaders a long story

<sup>1</sup> The big boss of the Jewish ceremonies said to Stephen, "These men are saying bad things about you. We think that they are telling the true story about you, but what do you say?"

<sup>2-4</sup> Then Stephen said, "Listen to me, my countrymen and my leaders. Think about the story about our grand-fathers that lived a long time ago. Our great God came to our grand-father Abraham, while he was still living in Mesopotamia country, where the Chaldia mob lived. God said to him, 'Leave your country and your family. Go to the country that I will show you.' Abraham listened to God, and he left that country, and he went to live in Haran country. He lived there until his father died. Then God brought him here, to this country that you live in now.*

<sup>5</sup> But God didn't give any of this country to Abraham. He didn't even give him a little bit of it. But God promised him that later on the people born into his family would own all of this land. At that time,

Abraham didn't even have any kids.* <sup>6</sup> But God told him, 'You will have grand-kids, and more grand-kids after them. Your family will go to a country that belongs to other people, to live there. Those people will treat your family really bad and make them work hard for no pay. They will do that for 400 years.* <sup>7</sup> But after that, I will do payback to those other people, for treating your grand-kids really bad like that. Then your grand-kids will come out from that country, and they will show respect to me here in this place.'*

<sup>8</sup> Then God promised to look after Abraham, and Abraham agreed to follow him. God told Abraham that his mob had to do a young man operation on all their boys, to show that they agreed with God. After that, Abraham had a son called Isaac, and 8 days later Abraham did a young man operation on him. After that, Isaac grew up and had a son called Jacob, and he did that operation on him too. And Jacob did the same for his 12 sons, and those 12 men became our grand-fathers that lived a long time ago.*

<sup>9</sup> Joseph was one of those 12 men. His brothers were jealous of him, and they sold him to some people that took him to Egypt. He had to work there for no pay. But God was with Joseph and looked after him there in Egypt.* <sup>10</sup> Joseph got a lot of trouble there, but God saved him from all that trouble. God helped Joseph to think properly about everything. God showed Egypt's big boss that Joseph was really good. So the big boss made Joseph the boss over all the people in Egypt, and he made Joseph the boss over his big house too.*

<sup>11</sup> After a long time, there was a dry time for all those countries. There was no rain, so no food grew in Egypt. And there was no food in Canaan, the country that our grand-fathers were living in. They had no food, and they were very hungry.*

<sup>12</sup> Then Jacob heard that there was food in Egypt. So he sent his sons to Egypt to get food. Those men were our grand-fathers that lived a long time ago. When they got to Egypt, they met Joseph, but he looked so different that they didn't know him. Then they bought some food and took it home.

<sup>13</sup> After that, Jacob sent them to Egypt again to get more food, and this time Joseph told them, 'I am your brother.' And Egypt's big boss heard that Joseph had

* 7:2-4 Genesis 11:31; 12:1, 4 * 7:5 Genesis 12:7; 13:15; 15:18; 17:8; 48:4 * 7:6 Genesis 15:13-14 * 7:7 Exodus 3:12 * 7:8 Genesis 17:10-14; 21:2-4; 25:26; 29:31; 35:18 * 7:9 Genesis 37:11, 28; 39:2, 21 * 7:10 Genesis 41:39-41 * 7:11 Genesis 42:1-2 * 7:13 Genesis 45:1, 16 some brothers.* <sup>14</sup> Then Joseph sent his brothers to get his father Jacob, and all his family, to come and live in Egypt. So all 75 of them went to Egypt.* <sup>15</sup> That's how Jacob and his family went to Egypt, and they lived there until they died.* <sup>16</sup> Later, their grand-kids took their bodies back to the place called Shekem, and they buried them in a cave. A long time before that, Jacob's grand-father Abraham bought that cave from Hamor's family. He paid the full price for that cave.**

Stephen talked about Moses

<sup>17</sup> Stephen kept on talking to the men of the Jewish Leaders Council. He said, "Remember, a long time before that, God told Abraham, 'I will give you a big family, and they will become a great nation.' And God also said, 'Your family will move to another country, but after 400 years I will bring your family back and give them this country.' So Abraham's family lived in Egypt, and they had lots of kids and grand-kids, and those families grew into a big mob of people. Then it was almost time for God to bring them back to this country.* <sup>18</sup> Then, a new man became Egypt's big boss. That new big boss didn't know anything about Joseph.* <sup>19</sup> He tricked our family, and he was very hard on them. He made our mob throw their baby boys into the river to kill them.* <sup>20</sup> Moses was born while that man was the big boss. Moses was a very good little baby, and his mother and father looked after him in their house for 3 months.* <sup>21</sup> After that, they had to leave Moses out at the river, but the big boss's daughter came along and found him, and she took him home and called him her own son.* <sup>22</sup> So Moses grew up in the big boss's family, and the teachers in Egypt taught him a lot of their wise things. Moses became an important man. He talked well, and he did everything properly.

<sup>23</sup> Moses kept on living in the big boss's family until he was 40 years old. Then one day, he went to visit his own people. They were our grand-fathers, the Israel mob.* <sup>24</sup> While he was there, he saw an Egypt man beating up an Israel man. Moses wanted to help that Israel man, so he killed that Egypt man. <sup>25</sup> Moses reckoned, 'Now my people will understand about me, and they will know that God will use me to save them.' But they didn't understand that.

<sup>26</sup> The next day, Moses saw 2 of his own men fighting, and he tried to get them to stop fighting. He said, 'You 2 men, you are both family. Why do you hit each other?' <sup>27</sup> But the man that started the fight pushed Moses away. He said, 'Nobody said that you can be our boss or our judge.' <sup>28</sup> Are you going to kill me like you killed that Egypt man yesterday?' <sup>29</sup> Moses heard that man's words, and he got frightened. He thought, 'Everyone knows that I killed that man. Now I will get big trouble.' So he ran away from Egypt and went to live in the country called Midian. He didn't belong to that country, but he got married there and had 2 sons.*

<sup>30</sup> Moses stayed in Midian country for 40 years. Then one day, he was in the desert place near the big hill called Sinai, and God sent one of his angel messengers to him there. It happened like this. Moses saw a little tree that was burning with flames of fire.* <sup>31</sup> It kept on burning all the time, but it didn't finish up that little tree. Moses was surprised. He thought, 'How come that fire doesn't finish up that tree?' So he went closer to have a good look at it. Then he heard God talk to him from that fire. God said, <sup>32</sup> 'I am the God of your grand-fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. I am their God.'

Moses was so frightened that he started shaking. He was too frightened to look at that little tree any more. <sup>33</sup> Then God said to him, 'Moses, take off your shoes. The ground you are standing on is my special ground.' <sup>34</sup> Listen, I saw those bosses in Egypt, they were hitting my people. I heard my people crying and groaning, and now I'm going to save them. So now, Moses, you go back to Egypt. I'm sending you back there to save them.' "

<sup>35</sup> Stephen kept on talking to that mob of Jewish leaders. He said, "You see, God's people didn't listen to Moses before. They said, 'Nobody said that you can be our boss or our judge.' But later, God sent Moses back to save them, and to be their boss. And God sent his angel messenger to help Moses, the same angel that made that little tree keep on burning with fire.* <sup>36</sup> Moses helped God's people leave Egypt. He did powerful things in Egypt, so that the big boss there let them go. So God's people all followed Moses out of Egypt, and

* 7:14 Genesis 45:9-10, 17-18; 46:27 * 7:15 Genesis 46:1-7; 49:33 * 7:16 Genesis 23:3-16; 33:19; 50:7-13; Joshua 24:32 * 7:17 Genesis 12:2; 15:13-15 * 7:18 Exodus 1:7-8 * 7:19 Exodus 1:10-11, 22 * 7:20 Exodus 2:2

when they got to the water called the Red Sea, he did another powerful thing to let the people walk across to the other side. And later, he did more powerful things for them, while they walked around in the desert for 40 years.*

<sup>37</sup> That same man, Moses, said to the people of Israel,

'God will get one of your own people, and send him to tell you his message. He will be like me.*'

<sup>38</sup> All our grand-fathers were with Moses in the desert country. And God sent an angel messenger to Moses, at the big hill called Sinai, to tell him the good message that helps people live with God. And then Moses told our grand-fathers that same message.*

<sup>39</sup> But our grand-fathers didn't listen to Moses. They didn't want him to be their leader. So when Moses went back up that hill, they said that they just wanted to go back to Egypt. <sup>40</sup> They told Aaron, 'Make us statues of gods, and we will get them to show us the way back to Egypt. We followed that Moses out from Egypt, but now he is not here. What happened to him? We don't know.*' <sup>41</sup> So then they made a statue that looked like a young cow. They brought some animals, and they killed them and burned them to give them to that statue. And they had a big party to show respect to the statue they made.*

<sup>42</sup> So God turned away from our grand-fathers. He left them, and they showed respect to the sun and the moon, and the stars too.

Some time later God told one of his men to write about that, and now it is in God's book. He wrote,

'You people of Israel, you were in the desert for 40 years, and at that time, did you bring animals to kill and give to me? No, they were not for me.

<sup>43</sup> You only respected the god called Molek, and the star god called Refan. You made statues of them, and you carried things around with you to help you show respect to them.

So listen, I will send you all away from your country, I will send you a really long way away, even past the city called Babylon.' ***

Stephen talked about God's ceremony house

<sup>44</sup> Stephen kept on talking to the Jewish Leaders Council. He said, "A long time ago, God talked to Moses, and he showed Moses a picture of his special tent, and God told Moses how to make it. Our grand-fathers carried God's special tent with them through the desert. That tent showed everyone that they had God's law.*"

<sup>45</sup> Some years later, Moses died, and then Joshua was their leader. He and our grand-fathers came into this country, and they fought against the people that lived here. God made those people run away, and our grand-fathers got this country. And they brought that tent with them into this country, and they kept it here for a long time. It was still here when David became their big boss.*

<sup>46</sup> God was good to David. And David wanted to build a ceremony house, instead of that tent, for the God of us Israel people. So David asked God to let him build that house.* <sup>47</sup> But God stopped David, and instead it was Solomon, David's son, that built God's ceremony house.* <sup>48</sup> But, you know, our great God does not live in houses that people build. You see, God told one of his men to write about that, and it is in God's book. He wrote, <sup>49-50</sup> 'God says, "I fill up all of heaven. It is like my big seat.

And the whole earth is just like something for me to rest my feet on.

So what sort of house will you people build for me?

You can't build a place big enough for me to live in.

You see, I made everything." '***

Stephen talked strong to the Jewish Leaders Council men

<sup>51</sup> Then Stephen talked to them straight. He said, "You mob are just like your grand-fathers that lived a long time ago. You don't take any notice of God. You don't listen to him, and you don't do anything he says. You don't do anything the Holy Spirit tells you to do.*" <sup>52</sup> God sent men to your grand-fathers a long time ago to tell them his messages, but they beat up God's men. God got some messengers to say that he will send his really good man to us, but they even killed those messengers from God. Then that really good man came to us. He was Jesus. But you mob told the people to kill him. You were the ones that murdered him. <sup>53</sup> You see, God sent his angel messengers to your grand-fathers to give you God's law, but you didn't listen, and you didn't do anything it says."

They killed Stephen with stones

<sup>54</sup> The men of the Jewish Leaders Council heard Stephen say that, and they got really angry. They were so angry that they were rubbing their teeth together. <sup>55</sup> But the Holy Spirit controlled Stephen. He looked up into the sky, and he saw God there, shining very bright, and he saw Jesus standing at God's right-hand side. <sup>56</sup> Stephen said to everyone, "Look, I can see into heaven. Its door is open, and I can see God's special man there in heaven. He is standing at God's right-hand side."

<sup>57</sup> When the Jewish council men heard that, they covered their ears so they couldn't hear Stephen, and they yelled out really loud, and they jumped up quick and grabbed him. <sup>58</sup> Then they dragged Stephen outside the city and started throwing big stones at him to kill him. And the men that told lies about Stephen took off their coats and gave them to a young man to look after. The name of that young man was Saul.

<sup>59</sup> Those men kept on hitting Stephen with big stones. Then he called out, "Jesus, my leader, let my spirit come to be with you now." <sup>60</sup> Then he went down on to his knees, and he shouted, "Jesus, don't blame these men for doing this bad thing." And after he said that, he died.

8

<sup>1-3</sup> And Saul agreed with that Jewish council mob. He reckoned it was all right for them to kill Stephen.

After that, some good men got Stephen's body and buried it, and they cried a lot for him.

Saul made trouble for the Christians

But Saul and his friends started making a lot of trouble for the Christians in Jerusalem. They went into the houses of Christians and dragged out the men and women, and locked them up in jail. Saul and his men were trying to finish up the Christian people. So a lot of those Christians ran away from Jerusalem to Judea country, and to Samaria country. But Jesus's 12 special workers stayed in Jerusalem.*

Philip went to Samaria

and in all those places they told people the good news about Jesus. <sup>5</sup> One of them was Philip. He went to a town in Samaria country and told everyone, "Jesus is the Christ, the special man that God promised to send." <sup>6</sup> God gave Philip a lot of power. A lot of people saw him do powerful things, and they listened to him, and they thought carefully about his message. <sup>7</sup> You see, a lot of people had bad spirits in them, and Philip used God's power to force those bad spirits out of them. Those bad spirits screamed as they left those people. And Philip also used God's power to make a lot of crippled people better, and other people that couldn't walk because their legs were too weak, Philip made them better too. <sup>8</sup> So the people in that town were very happy.

<sup>9</sup> A man that used to do magic lived in that town in Samaria. His name was Simon. He did that magic for a long time before Philip went there. Everyone there was surprised by the things he did. He used to say, "I am a great man." <sup>10</sup> All the people talked about him and said, "This man is really great. He has God's power." Important people said that, as well as other people.

<sup>11</sup> Simon did that magic for a long time, and the people there were always surprised by the things he did, so they listened to him. <sup>12</sup> But then Philip went to that town and told the people the good news about Jesus, and about God's family, and he told them that God sent Jesus Christ to save people. A lot of men and women listened to Philip and believed in Jesus, and then Philip baptised them. <sup>13</sup> Simon believed in Jesus too, so Philip baptised him. After that, Simon followed Philip everywhere, and he watched him doing powerful things. Simon was very surprised by those powerful things that Philip did.

<sup>14-17</sup> But at that time, the Holy Spirit didn't go into any of those Samaria people. Philip only baptised the people to show they belonged to Jesus. Then Jesus's special workers in Jerusalem heard that the people in Samaria believed God's word, so they sent Peter and John to Samaria. After they got there, they put their hands on the people that believed in Jesus, and prayed for them. Then the Holy Spirit came into those people.

<sup>18-19</sup> Simon watched Peter and John. He saw them put their hands on people, and then the Holy Spirit went into those people. So Simon said to Peter, "Let me have that power too, so that if I put my hands on people, the Holy Spirit will go into them. If you give me that power, I will pay you money."

<sup>20-21</sup> But Peter said to him, "You think you can buy God's power with money, but you are wrong. No way. Only God can give people that power. And God can see that you are not thinking the right way, so he will not give you that power, and he will not let you work with us. Look out. God can finish you up, and finish up your money too. <sup>22</sup> Stop thinking in that really bad way. Turn around and think God's way. Pray to him and ask him not to punish you for thinking like that. <sup>23</sup> I can see that you are jealous, and that you want to do bad things, and that those bad things are controlling you."

<sup>24</sup> Then Simon said to Peter, "Pray to God for me so that he will not punish me, and those bad things you said will not happen to me."

<sup>25</sup> After that, Peter and John talked to the people there, and they told them more of the message about Jesus. Then they left that town to go back to Jerusalem. They went through a lot of little towns along that road in Samaria country, and they told the good news about Jesus to the people in those towns.

Philip talked to a man from Ethiopia

<sup>26</sup> While Philip was in Samaria, one of God's angel messengers came to him and said, "Get up, and go south along the desert road, you know, the road that goes from Jerusalem to the town called Gaza." <sup>27</sup> So Philip got up, and he started to go along that road, and he saw a man from Ethiopia country sitting in a trailer, and horses were pulling the trailer along that road. He was the sort of man that couldn't have any kids. He worked for an important woman called Candace. She was the big boss over Ethiopia. That man was one of her important workers. He looked after all her money. But he had a break from that work and went to Jerusalem to show respect to God, and then he started to go back home along that road. <sup>28</sup> Philip saw him sitting in his trailer, and he was reading God's book. He was reading the part that Isaiah wrote a long time ago. Isaiah was one of God's men that told people God's messages.

<sup>29</sup> Then the Holy Spirit said to Philip, "Catch up with that trailer and walk along beside it."

<sup>30</sup> So Philip ran up close to the trailer, and when he was beside it, he heard that man reading from the words that Isaiah wrote in God's book. Philip asked him,

"Can you understand that book you are reading?"

<sup>31</sup> The Ethiopian man said, "No, I can't understand it. I need somebody to help me." Then he asked Philip to climb up into the trailer and sit beside him. <sup>32</sup> He was reading these words in God's book, "Some people took him away to kill him, just like men take a sheep away to kill it, but he was quiet and didn't say anything. You know that a sheep is quiet, and it doesn't make a noise while men cut off all its wool, well, he was quiet, just like that.

<sup>33</sup> Men shamed him, and they didn't give him a proper trial in court.

Then they killed him, so now he can't have any kids."*

<sup>34</sup> And the Ethiopian man said to Philip, "Who was Isaiah talking about? Was he talking about himself or somebody else?"

<sup>35</sup> Then Philip told him that Isaiah was talking about Jesus. And he kept on talking, and he told that Ethiopian man the good news about Jesus.

<sup>36-37</sup> They kept going along the road, and they came to some water. The Ethiopian man said, "Look, there is some water. I want you to baptise me now." <sup>38</sup> Then he told the man that was controlling the horses to stop. And the Ethiopian man and Philip went down into the water, and Philip baptised the Ethiopian man.

<sup>39</sup> After they came up out of the water, the Holy Spirit quickly took Philip away. The Ethiopian man never saw him again, but he was really happy, and he kept going on his way home.

<sup>40</sup> But the Holy Spirit put Philip in a town called Azotus. Philip went around telling people the good news about Jesus. He walked north, and he told the good news about Jesus to the people in all the towns along the way, until he got to the town called Caesarea, and he stayed there.

Saul kept on making trouble for Christians

<sup>1-2</sup> At that time, Saul was still making trouble for Jesus's followers. He was telling them, "I'm going to hurt you and kill you." He went to the big boss of the Jewish ceremonies and said, "I want to go to the city called Damascus and grab the followers of Jesus there. Will you write letters for me to take to the people in the Jewish meeting houses there? Tell them that you want me to grab anyone that belongs to that mob called the Jesus Way mob. I will grab those men and women, and tie them up, and I will bring them back to Jerusalem for you to punish them." So that big boss wrote letters like that, and he gave them to Saul to take to Damascus.

* 8:33 Isaiah 53:7-8

Saul met Jesus

<sup>3</sup> Then Saul got some men, and they went along the road to Damascus. As they got close to that city, suddenly a bright light from heaven shined down on Saul, and it shined all around him. <sup>4</sup> He fell down on to the ground, and he heard a voice saying to him, "Saul. Saul. Why are you making trouble for me and hurting me?"

<sup>5</sup> Saul asked, "Who are you, boss?"

And that voice said, "I am Jesus. You are making trouble for me and hurting me. <sup>6</sup> But get up and go into the city. Somebody there will tell you what to do."

<sup>7</sup> The men that were with Saul were shocked. They heard that voice, but they couldn't see anyone. They just stood there, they were so shocked that they couldn't say anything. <sup>8</sup> Saul got up from the ground and opened his eyes, but he couldn't see anything. He was blind. So the other men held his hand and took him into Damascus. <sup>9</sup> He was blind for 3 days, and he didn't eat anything or drink anything in those 3 days.

<sup>10</sup> There was a man called Ananias that lived in Damascus. He believed in Jesus. Ananias had something like a dream, but he was still awake. He heard Jesus say to him, "Ananias."

And Ananias said, "Yes, sir, I'm here."

<sup>11</sup> And Jesus said to him, "I want you to get up and go to Straight Street. Go to the house that Judas lives in, and find a man there from the town called Tarsus. His name is Saul, and he is praying to me right now. <sup>12</sup> He had something like a dream, and he saw you, Ananias. And he saw you come and put your hands on him, to make him see again."

<sup>13</sup> But Ananias said, "But sir, people have told me about that man Saul. He's a properly cheeky man. He hurt your people in Jerusalem, and he did a lot of bad things to them. <sup>14</sup> And the bosses of the Jewish ceremonies told him that he can grab all the people here that say they follow you, Jesus, and he can take them to jail. He came here now to do just that."

<sup>15</sup> But Jesus said to Ananias, "Don't worry. Go to him anyway. You see, I picked that man to do my work. He will tell a lot of people about me. He will tell Jewish people about me. And he will tell people that are not Jews about me, even their biggest bosses too. <sup>16</sup> I will show him that some people will not like him talking about me, so they will give him big trouble and hurt him."

<sup>17</sup> So Ananias got up and went to the house that Judas lived in. He went inside, and he put his hands on Saul, and he said, "Saul, my friend, you saw Jesus on the road as you were coming here. Well, he has sent me so that you can see again, and the Holy Spirit will come into you and fill you." <sup>18</sup> Then some things fell down from Saul's eyes. They were like fish scales, or like finger nails. After that, Saul could see again. He got up, and the Christians there baptised him. <sup>19</sup> Then he ate some food, and he got strong again. Saul stayed in Damascus for a few days with the people that followed Jesus.

Saul told the people in Damascus about Jesus

<sup>20</sup> As soon as Saul was strong again, he started talking to the Jewish people in their meeting houses. He told them, "Jesus is God's son."

<sup>21</sup> All the Jews that heard him were really shocked. They said, "Wow, this man has really changed. He's the man that really hurt the people in Jerusalem that followed Jesus. And he came here to grab the people here that say they follow Jesus. He was going to tie them up with chains and take them back to the bosses of our ceremonies in Jerusalem."

<sup>22</sup> But Saul told those people about Jesus. The Jewish people in Damascus argued with him, but he showed them that Jesus really is the man that God promised to send to save us, the man that is called the Christ. Saul got better and better at showing them he was right, and they couldn't show that he was wrong. And they didn't like it.

<sup>23-24</sup> After that, some of those Jewish people talked with each other about killing Saul. There was a big wall around that city, and it had some gates in it. Every day and every night, they watched those gates. They thought they might see Saul going out of the city, and then they can catch him and kill him.

But somebody told Saul about them. <sup>25</sup> So the Christians there helped Saul get away. They got a big basket, and they took Saul to that big wall in the night. They went up to a window, high up in that wall. Then they tied ropes to the basket and put Saul in it, and then they put it through that window, and they let it go down to the ground outside the wall. Then Saul got out of the basket and ran away.*

<sup>26</sup> After that, Saul went to Jerusalem, and he tried to join the people there that followed Jesus. But they were frightened of him. They didn't believe that he followed Jesus too. So they kept away from him. They didn't want to let him join them.

<sup>27</sup> But Barnabas, one of Jesus's followers there, he listened to Saul and believed his story. So he took Saul to Jesus's special workers, and he told them Saul's story. He said, "On the way to Damascus, Saul saw our leader, Jesus, and Jesus talked to him. After that, Saul told the people in Damascus about Jesus. He wasn't frightened of them."<sup>28</sup> Those church leaders in Jerusalem believed Barnabas, so Saul stayed there with them, and he went around Jerusalem with them. He talked to everyone about Jesus and wasn't frightened of anyone.

<sup>29</sup> There were some Jewish people in Jerusalem that talked the Greek language. Saul told them to believe in Jesus, but they argued with him. Then they got angry and tried to kill him. <sup>30</sup> The Christians heard about this, so they took Saul to the town called Caesarea and put him on a ship, and they sent him back to his home town, called Tarsus.

<sup>31</sup> Then, at last, everything settled down and was quiet for the Christians in the churches in Judea country, and in Galilee country, and in Samaria country, and they got stronger for Jesus. The Holy Spirit helped them to be strong, and they respected Jesus properly. And more people joined them and believed in Jesus.

Peter got Jesus to make a crippled man better

<sup>32</sup> After that, Peter went around visiting God's people that lived in Judea country, and he went to the town called Lydda. <sup>33</sup> He met a man there called Anias. About 8 years before that time, Anias got crippled. He couldn't walk, so he always lay on his swag. <sup>34</sup> Peter said to him, "Anias, Jesus Christ makes you better. Get up and roll up your swag." Right then Anias got better, and he stood up. <sup>35</sup> When the people in Lydda saw him, a lot of those people changed their ways and believed in Jesus. Lydda was in the country called Sharon, and the people there saw him, and a lot of them changed their ways and believed in Jesus too.

Peter got God to make a woman alive again

<sup>36</sup> There was a Christian woman that lived in a town called Joppa. Her name was Tabitha. Her name in the Greek language was Dorcas. She always did good things and helped poor people. <sup>37</sup> But she got sick and died. The other Christians there washed her body, and they put it in a room upstairs in her house. <sup>38</sup> Joppa was near Lydda, and the Christians in Joppa heard that Peter was in Lydda. So they sent 2 men to Lydda, and those men asked Peter, "Please come to Joppa with us right now."

<sup>39</sup> So Peter went with those 2 men. After he got there, the Christians took him to her house, and then they went upstairs. The widows stood there with Peter, and they cried, and they showed him the shirts and other clothes that Dorcas made for them while she was still alive.

<sup>40</sup> Peter told everyone to go outside. Then he got down on his knees, to show respect to God, and he prayed. Then he turned and looked at the body, and said, "Tabitha, get up." She opened her eyes, and she saw Peter, then she sat up. <sup>41</sup> Peter held out his hand for her and helped her to stand up. Then he called out to the widows and to all God's people there, and he told them to come. Then he showed them that Tabitha was alive. <sup>42</sup> Those people that saw her alive, they started telling other people about it, and soon everybody in Joppa heard that story, and a lot of people believed in our leader Jesus.

10

An angel messenger came to a Roman soldier

<sup>1</sup> There was a soldier that lived in the town called Caesarea. His name was Cornelius. He was the boss over a mob of soldiers in the Roman army that were called the Italian Mob. <sup>2</sup> He and his family respected God, and they always tried to do things that made God happy. Cornelius gave a lot of money and things to poor people, and he prayed to God every day.

<sup>3</sup> One afternoon, at 3 o'clock, he was praying, and he had something like a dream, but he was not asleep, he was awake. He saw an angel messenger from God come to him and call his name, "Cornelius."

<sup>4</sup> Cornelius looked at the angel and was frightened of him. He asked him, "What do you want, boss?"

The angel said, "Cornelius, God heard you pray and saw you give money and things to poor people. It is like you gave that money and those things to God, so God is thinking about you. <sup>5</sup> So send some men to Joppa to find a man called Peter. <sup>6</sup> He is staying with a leather worker called Simon. His house is near the sea. Tell your men to get Peter and bring him back to you."

<sup>7</sup> The angel finished talking with Cornelius and went away. Then Cornelius called 2 of the men that worked in his house, and one of the soldiers that looked after him. That soldier respected God too. <sup>8</sup> Cornelius told them everything that happened, and then he told them to go to Joppa and get Peter.

Peter had something like a dream while he was still awake

<sup>9</sup> The next day, in the middle of the day, those men were walking along and getting near to Joppa. At that same time, Peter went up on to the flat roof of the house to pray. <sup>10</sup> He started feeling hungry and he wanted something to eat, but he waited and prayed while the people in the house were getting some food ready. Then Peter had something like a dream, but he was still awake. <sup>11-12</sup> He saw the sky open up, then he saw something like a big sheet. Somebody was holding on to the 4 corners of that sheet, and there were things in the middle of it. It was coming down from the sky to the ground. There were all sorts of animals in it, and lizards, and snakes, and birds. Their Jewish law said, "Don't eat those sorts of animals, they are no good." <sup>13</sup> Then a voice said to Peter, "Get up, Peter. Kill some of those animals and eat them."

<sup>14</sup> But Peter said, "No, boss. I can't do that. Our Jewish law says we can't eat those sorts of animals. They are no good, so I never eat any of them."

<sup>15</sup> Then the voice said to Peter, "If God says that something is good, don't say it is no good."

<sup>16</sup> That happened 3 times. Each time that voice told Peter to eat one of those animals, and each time Peter said, "No," and each time the voice said, "If God says that something is good, don't say it is no good." Then that sheet went back up into the sky.

<sup>17</sup> Peter sat there and thought, "What does this mean? What is God telling me?"

While Peter was still trying to understand it, those 3 men from Cornelius walked into that town. They asked people, "Where does Simon live, the leather worker man?" And the people told them how to get there. Then they went to that house and stood outside the gate, <sup>18</sup> and they asked, "Is Peter here?"

<sup>19</sup> At that same time, Peter was thinking about what he just saw, and the Holy Spirit said to him, "Listen, 3 men are down at the gate. They are looking for you. <sup>20</sup> So get up and go down to them. You see, I sent them to you, so just go with them. Don't worry."

<sup>21</sup> Peter went down and said to the men, "I'm the man you are looking for. Why did you come here?"

<sup>22</sup> They said, "Cornelius sent us. He is a boss in the Roman army. He is a good man, and he respects God. All the Jewish people say he is a good man too. God sent one of his angel messengers to Cornelius and told him to ask you to come to his house and talk to him."

<sup>23</sup> So Peter said that he will go with them the next day, and he asked them to come in and stay there that night.

Peter went to the Roman soldier's house

The next morning, Peter got up and went with those men. Some of the Joppa Christians went with him too. It was a long way, so they had to camp one night along the road. <sup>24</sup> The next day, Cornelius called all his relatives and his close friends to come to his house in Caesarea to wait there for Peter. And Peter and his mob got there at about 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

<sup>25</sup> Peter started to go into the house, and Cornelius met him and got down on to his knees in front of Peter, to show him respect. <sup>26</sup> But Peter lifted him up and said, "Stand up. I'm only a man, like you."

<sup>27</sup> Peter kept on talking with Cornelius, then they went into the house, and Peter saw a lot of people there. <sup>28</sup> He said to them, "You know, you Roman people are not Jews, and the Jewish law teachers reckon that people that aren't Jews are no good, so a Jewish man shouldn't go into their house. But God showed me that I can't say that anyone is no good. He showed me that it is all right for me to visit you. <sup>29</sup> Then these men came and asked me to come here, so I didn't argue with them, and I came here with them. Now, please tell me, why did you ask me to come here?"

<sup>30</sup> Cornelius said, "4 days ago I was praying in my house at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Suddenly I saw a man wearing bright shining clothes standing in front of me. <sup>31</sup> And he said to me, 'Cornelius, God heard you pray, and he knows that you give money and things to poor people. <sup>32</sup> So send some men to Joppa, and tell them to get Peter and bring him back here. He is staying with Simon, a leather worker.

His house is near the sea.’ <sup>33</sup> So right away I sent those men to bring you here. Thank you for coming. We are all here, and we know that God is with us. We are ready to hear everything that he told you to say to us.”

Peter told the Romans about Jesus

<sup>34</sup> Then Peter started telling those Roman people his message. He said, “Now I really understand that God treats everyone the same.* <sup>35</sup> If anyone respects God, and if they do the right thing, God will let them come to him, and he will listen to them. It doesn’t matter if they are Jews, like us mob, or if they belong to a different nation, like you Roman mob.

<sup>36</sup> This is the message that God sent to the Israel people. Jesus Christ can make all of us friends with God. You see, Jesus is the number one boss over everybody. <sup>37</sup> Listen, you know the things that happened, first in Galilee country, and then in Judea country. At first John the Baptist told the people to turn to God. <sup>38</sup> Then God gave Jesus the Holy Spirit, and he gave him power to do his special work. Jesus was from a town called Nazareth, and he went everywhere doing good things. Some people were sick, and the devil, the boss over the bad spirits, was giving them big trouble. But Jesus made them all better. You see, God was with him.

<sup>39</sup> And I was one of Jesus’s special workers. We went around with him, and we saw all the good things that he did. We saw all those things he did in Jerusalem city, and in all the rest of the Jewish people’s country. But then his enemies killed him. They nailed him to a cross. <sup>40</sup> But after 2 days, when it was the 3rd day, God made him alive again, and God let people see him alive. <sup>41</sup> Not everybody saw him alive, but we saw him. We even ate and drank with him. And God picked us to tell other people about him. <sup>42</sup> Jesus told us to tell them that one day he will be the judge of everybody. It will be like God will take everybody into a big court, and Jesus will be the judge. He will judge everybody that is alive, and he will judge everybody that is dead too.

<sup>43</sup> But listen, a long time ago, God sent his men to tell people his messages, and they all talked about Jesus. They said that if anyone believes in him, God will say that they are not guilty of the bad things they did.”

The Holy Spirit went into people that were not Jews

<sup>44</sup> While Peter was still talking, the Holy Spirit came down and went into all the Roman people that were listening to him. <sup>45</sup> The Christians that went there with Peter, they were Jews, and they were surprised to see God give his Holy Spirit freely to people that were not Jews. <sup>46</sup> You see, they heard that mob talk in different languages and say that God is great, so they knew that God gave them his spirit.

Then Peter said, <sup>47</sup> “God gave the Holy Spirit to these people too, just like he gave the Holy Spirit to us. Now nobody can stop us from baptising them in water.” <sup>48</sup> So he told the other Christians to baptise them, to show that those Roman people follow Jesus, the man that God sent to save people.

Then those Roman people asked Peter to stay with them for a few more days.

Peter told the Jewish Christians what God taught him

<sup>1</sup> Jesus’s other special workers, and the other Christians in Judea, they heard about Peter’s visit to Caesarea. They heard that some people in Caesarea, that were not Jews, believed God’s word. <sup>2</sup> After Peter got back to Jerusalem, some of the Jewish Christians argued with him. They reckoned he broke their law. <sup>3</sup> They said, “You went into the house of people that are not Jews, and you even ate food with them.”

<sup>4</sup> Then Peter told them all the things that happened. <sup>5</sup> He said, “I was in the town called Joppa, and I was praying, and I had something like a dream, but I was still awake. I saw something like a big sheet with things in it. Somebody was holding on to the 4 corners, and they let it come down from the sky to me. <sup>6</sup> I looked inside it, and I saw all sorts of animals, and lizards, and snakes, and birds. <sup>7</sup> Then I heard a voice say to me, ‘Get up Peter. Kill some of those animals and eat them.’ <sup>8</sup> But I said, ‘No, boss. I will not. Our law says we can’t eat that sort of animal. They are no good, so I never eat any of them.’

<sup>9</sup> Then I heard that voice from the sky again. It said, ‘If God says that something is good, don’t say it is no good.’ <sup>10</sup> That happened 3 times, and then that sheet and everything in it went back up into the sky.

<sup>11</sup> Just then 3 men came to the house I was staying in. They came from Caesarea. <sup>12</sup> The Holy Spirit told me, ‘Don’t worry, just go with those men.’ So I went with them, and these 6 other men here, they went with me too. We got there, and we went into a Roman man's house. <sup>13-14</sup> That man told us that he saw an angel in his house, a few days ago. The angel said to him, 'Peter has a message for you, so send somebody to Joppa to get him. He will tell you how God can save you, and your family, and everyone else in your house too.'

<sup>15</sup> I started talking to those people, and then the Holy Spirit came into them, just like he came into us that first time. <sup>16</sup> And I remembered that our leader Jesus said, 'John baptised people with water, but God will baptise you with the Holy Spirit.'* <sup>17</sup> You know, we believed in our leader Jesus Christ, and God gave us the Holy Spirit. And now those people that are not Jews, they believe in Jesus too, and God gave them the Holy Spirit too, just like he gave him to us. So, you see, I couldn't try to stop God. No way."

<sup>18</sup> The Jewish Christians heard Peter say that, and they stopped arguing with him. They started to thank God and say he is really good. They said, "Now we understand it. God will let anyone come to him, even people that are not Jews, and after they turn away from doing bad things, and they come to him, then he will give them new life that never stops. God is so good."

The Christian people in Antioch got strong

<sup>19</sup> At the time when some men killed Stephen, those men wanted to kill the rest of the Christians too. So a lot of Christians ran away from Jerusalem, and they went a long way, even to other countries. They told people in those places the message about Jesus, but they only told it to their own countrymen, the Jews. Some of those Christians went to Fonisha country, and some of them went to the island called Cyprus, and some of them went to the city called Antioch.* <sup>20</sup> But some of them, men that belonged to Cyprus and men that belonged to the town called Cyrene, they went to Antioch too, and they didn't just talk to Jews, they talked to people that are not Jews too. They told them the good news about our leader Jesus. <sup>21</sup> God helped them tell people his message, and a lot of people that were not Jews believed in Jesus and followed him.

and he saw everything that was happening. Then he knew that God was very good to the people there, so he was very happy. He told those new Christians, "Stay strong for Jesus and keep on following him all the time." <sup>24</sup> Barnabas was a good man. He let the Holy Spirit control him, and he really trusted God. He got lots more people there to follow Jesus.

<sup>25</sup> After that, Barnabas left Antioch, and he went to the town called Tarsus to look for Saul. <sup>26</sup> He found Saul there, and he took him back to Antioch. They both stayed there for a year, and they met with the Christians in the church there, and they kept on teaching them. A lot of people in Antioch followed Jesus, and that was the place where people first used the name Christians for the people that followed Jesus Christ.

The Antioch Christians helped the Judea Christians

<sup>27</sup> At that time, some Christian men left Jerusalem and went to Antioch. They had the power to tell God's messages. <sup>28</sup> One of those men was Agabus. He stood up in a meeting, and the Holy Spirit told him a message to tell everybody. He said, "There is going to be a very hard time for all the people everywhere. There will be no food to eat anywhere." (And that really happened later, when Claudius was the biggest Roman boss.)* <sup>29-30</sup> The Christians in Antioch heard Agabus tell that message, and they remembered the Christians in Judea. They knew that the Judea Christians were poor, so they would have a very hard time if there is not much food. The Antioch Christians wanted to help them, so they all put money into a bag. Each of them gave as much money as they could. Then they gave it to Barnabas and Saul, and those 2 men, took it to the Christian leaders in Jerusalem, in Judea country.

<sup>1</sup> In Jerusalem, at that time, the big boss was called Herod. He told his soldiers to grab some of the Christians. <sup>2</sup> One of them was James. He and his young brother, John, were both special workers of Jesus. Herod told his soldiers to kill James with a big knife.

<sup>3</sup> The Jewish leaders told Herod that this made them very happy, so he told his soldiers to grab Peter too. It was the time for the Jewish people to have their ceremony where they ate flat damper. <sup>4</sup> So Herod thought, "I will wait until the end of that ceremony, then I will judge Peter and kill him." So they put Peter in jail, and Herod told 4 little mobs of soldiers to guard Peter there. Those little mobs had 4 soldiers each, and they took turns to guard Peter.*

* 11:16 Acts 1:5 * 11:19 Acts 8:1-4 * 11:28 Acts 21:10

<sup>5</sup> Peter stayed there in jail, and the other Christians prayed for him a lot.

Peter walked out of the jail

<sup>6</sup> That Jewish ceremony was almost finished, and Herod was going to judge Peter the next day. That night, Peter was asleep in that jail. There was one soldier on each side of him, and they tied each of his hands with chains to those soldiers. And 2 other soldiers stood at the gate of the jail.

<sup>7</sup> Suddenly, there was a bright light in that little room in the jail, and one of God's angel messengers came and stood in front of Peter. That angel touched his side to wake him up, and said, "Quick. Get up." And the chains fell off Peter's hands.

<sup>8</sup> Then the angel told him, "Get dressed and put on your shoes." So Peter did that. Then the angel said, "Now put on your coat and follow me."

<sup>9</sup> So Peter put on his coat and followed the angel, and they just walked out of that little room in the jail. Peter was not sure that all these things were true. He thought, "Maybe I'm dreaming. Maybe this is not really happening to me."

<sup>10</sup> Peter and the angel walked past the 1st mob of soldiers in that jail, then they walked past the 2nd mob of soldiers. After that, they came to the big iron gate in the outside wall of the jail. That gate just opened by itself in front of them, and they walked out of the jail into the city street. They walked together along that street, and then suddenly the angel left Peter and went away.

<sup>11</sup> Then Peter woke up properly. He said to himself, "Now I know that this is true. I'm not dreaming. God did send one of his angels to save me. That big boss Herod, and the Jewish leaders, they wanted to hurt me, but God saved me from them." <sup>12</sup> After Peter thought that, he went to Mary's house. She was the mother of John Mark. A lot of Christians were there in her house, and they were praying for Peter.

<sup>13</sup> Peter knocked on the door of that house, and a worker went to the door. She was a girl called Rhoda. <sup>14</sup> She heard his voice, and she knew it was Peter, so she was very happy. She was so happy that she forgot to open the door. She just ran back into the house and told all the people, "Peter is here, standing outside the door."

<sup>15</sup> Those people said, "You are mad." But she kept on telling them that Peter really was there. Then they said, "It can't be him. It has to be the angel that looks after him."

<sup>16</sup> But Peter kept on knocking on that door. After a little while they stopped arguing, and they opened the door, and they saw him, and they were really surprised.

<sup>17</sup> Peter held up his hand to get them to be quiet, then he told them the story about how God got him out of that jail. Then he said, "Tell this story to the other Christians, and make sure you tell it to James too." Then he left them and went to another place.

<sup>18</sup> After the sun came up, the soldiers in the jail saw that Peter wasn't there, and they were really upset and worried. They were all saying things like, "What happened to Peter? Who let him get away?" <sup>19</sup> Then Herod told them all to look everywhere to find him. But they didn't find him. So Herod judged the soldiers that were guarding Peter. He asked them some questions, then he told the other soldiers to kill them.

After that, Herod left Judea country and went to stay for a while in the town called Caesarea.

Herod, the big boss, died

<sup>20-21</sup> At that time, Herod was very angry with the people that lived in the towns called Tyre and Sidon. That made a problem for those people. You see, Herod was the boss over Galilee country, and those people got all their food from Galilee, and they didn't want Herod to stop them from getting that food. So some of them went to Herod's house to talk to him about this problem. At Herod's house, Blastus was one of his important workers. So those men talked to Blastus, and they said, "Please help us, we want to talk with Herod. We want to stop all this trouble." So Blastus got Herod to agree to talk to those people, then he told them the day that Herod was going to talk to them.

On that day, Herod put on his special clothes, and he sat in his special seat, to show everyone that he is the big boss over that country. And then he talked to all those people. <sup>22</sup> They all wanted to make him happy so they shouted, "This is not a man talking. He is a god."

<sup>23</sup> Herod liked their talk. He didn't tell them that he is only a man, and that God is the great and powerful one. So then one of God's angels punished Herod. That angel put worms inside of Herod's body, and they ate his guts, and he died.

* 12:4 Exodus 12:1-27

<sup>24</sup> At that time the Christians kept on telling everybody about Jesus, so a big mob of people heard that message, and a lot of them believed in Jesus.

The Holy Spirit picked Barnabas and Saul for a special job

13

<sup>3</sup> So those men kept on praying and not eating any food for a bit longer. Then they put their hands on Barnabas and Saul, and they prayed for them and told them, "You can go now and do God's work."

Barnabas and Saul went to Cyprus Island

<sup>4</sup> The Holy Spirit told Barnabas and Saul the places they had to go to. So they went to the town called Selushia, and then they got on a ship and sailed to the island called Cyprus. <sup>5</sup> They took John Mark with them to help them in their work. They got off the ship at a town called Salamis, on Cyprus Island, and they went to the Jewish meeting houses in that town, and they told the people God's message about Jesus.

<sup>6-9</sup> Then Barnabas, and Saul, and John Mark went over to the other side of the island, to the town called Pafos. (Saul had another name. They called him Paul.) The Roman boss over that island lived in Pafos. His name was Sergius Paulus. He was a man that could think properly, and he wanted to hear God's message, so he sent men to bring Barnabas and Saul to him. There was a Jewish man there that worked for Sergius Paulus. His Jewish name was Bar-Jesus, and his Greek name was Elimas. He was a magic man, and he used to reckon that he was telling people God's messages, but he was lying.

Elimas tried to stop Barnabas and Paul from telling God's message to Sergius Paulus. He kept on telling his Roman boss, "Don't listen to them."

But the Holy Spirit was with Paul and gave him power. He looked straight at Elimas <sup>10</sup> and said, "You are just like the devil, the boss over the bad spirits. You tell a lot of lies, and you do a lot of bad things. You try to stop everything that is good, and you try to change God's true story, and you lie about him. You are trying to trick people. You have to stop doing that. <sup>11</sup> God will punish you now. He will make you blind, and you will not see the sunlight for a while." Suddenly Elimas felt himself going blind, and he walked around asking somebody to hold his hand and take him to the place he wanted to go to.

<sup>12</sup> The Roman boss saw all that happen, and he heard everything Paul said about our leader Jesus. He thought, "Wow. This message is really good." So he believed in Jesus.

Paul and Barnabas went to another place called Antioch

<sup>14</sup> Paul and Barnabas went on from Perga to another town called Antioch, in the country called Pisidia. Then on Saturday, the day the Jews get together to show respect to God, Paul and Barnabas went into the Jewish meeting house, and they sat down with the men there. <sup>15</sup> Some of the leaders in that meeting read from God's book. They read words from the law that Moses wrote, and they read other words that God's men wrote a long time ago. Then the leaders said to Paul and Barnabas, "Friends, if you have something to say that will help the people here, go ahead and say it."

Paul told the Antioch people the message about Jesus

<sup>16</sup> So Paul stood up and lifted up his hand to get the people to be quiet and listen to him. Then he said, "All you Jewish men and all you other people that respect God, listen to me. <sup>17</sup> A long time ago, the God of us Jewish people picked our grandfathers to be his own people. They went to the country called Egypt to live, and while they were there, God made them strong, and they had a lot of kids. So they became a really big mob of people. Then God used his great power to take them out of that country.* <sup>18</sup> Then they were in the desert country for 40 years. Sometimes they didn't listen to God, but he looked after them anyway.* <sup>19</sup> Then they got to the country called Canaan, and God helped them fight against 7 different tribes, and they won. They killed all their enemies, and God gave that country to his own people to keep.*

<sup>20</sup> It was about 450 years from the time they went to Egypt, to the time they got that country. Then God picked leaders for them, so they always had a leader to look after them. After lots of other leaders, God picked Samuel to be their leader. He was a man that told God's messages to the people.* <sup>21</sup> Samuel was their leader, but the people wanted a big boss that would always tell them what to do. So God gave them Saul. He was the son of Kish. Saul belonged to the Benjamin tribe, and he was the big boss over the Israel people for 40 years.*

<sup>22</sup> Then God stopped Saul from being their big boss, and God picked David, and he made David the big boss over the Israel people. And God said this, 'Look at this man, David, the son of Jesse. He is a man that makes me happy. He will do everything that I want him to do.*' <sup>23</sup> And God promised that a man from David's family will come to save us Israel people. And now that man has come. His name is Jesus.

<sup>24</sup> But before Jesus came, John the Baptist came and talked to us Israel people. He said, 'Stop doing bad things. Turn around. Turn back to God, and then I will baptise you.*' <sup>25</sup> And John said, 'Who do you reckon I am? Do you think I'm that special man that God promised to send to save his people? No way. He will come later. I am nothing. I'm not good enough to touch his feet or untie his shoes.' That's what John told everyone when he was finishing his work.*

<sup>26</sup> Listen, friends. Some of you are Jews that belong to our grand-father Abraham's family, and some of you are not Jews but you respect our God. All of you have to listen to this message that God sent to us. It is about how God wants to save us. <sup>27</sup> A long time ago, the men that told God's messages to people wrote those words in his book. They said that God will send a special man, but people will kill him. And people read those words from God's book in their meetings every Saturday, but they don't understand them. The people in Jerusalem and their leaders didn't know that Jesus was that special man, and they said, 'We have to kill him.' <sup>28</sup> So, even though he didn't do anything wrong, they asked Pilate, the Roman judge, to kill him anyway.* <sup>29</sup> That's how Jesus died, just like those men wrote in God's book.

And after they killed Jesus, they took him down from the cross and put him into a grave.* <sup>30</sup> But then God made Jesus alive again, <sup>31</sup> and Jesus's followers saw him a lot of times. They were the mob that were in Galilee country with him, and they came to Jerusalem with him. And now those people are telling everyone about Jesus.*

<sup>32</sup> And we are telling you the same good news about Jesus. You see, a long time ago, God promised our grand-fathers that he will do something good for them, <sup>33</sup> and God did it for us, their grand-kids. He made Jesus alive again. You see, we can read it in God's book, in the part called Psalm number 2. God said, 'You are my son. Now people will know that I am your father.*'

<sup>34</sup> You see, God made Jesus alive, so Jesus will never rot in the grave. We know that is right because we can read that God told his son,

'I made special promises to David, and I'm making those same promises to you.*'

<sup>35</sup> And in another psalm in God's book, David said to God, 'You will not let your special person rot in the grave.*'

<sup>36</sup> But David was not saying that he was that special person. You see, at that time, David did God's work, and then he died, and people buried him next to his grand-fathers. His body rotted in that grave.

<sup>37</sup> But Jesus's body didn't rot in a grave. God made him alive again. So those words in God's book were not about David. They were about Jesus.

<sup>38-39</sup> You see, my friends, I'm telling you this message. Jesus died for us, so if we believe in him, God will say we are not guilty of the bad things we did. Jesus will make us right and good. The law that Moses gave us can't do that, it can't make us right and good. <sup>40</sup> A long time ago, God told some of his men to write about that, and it is in God's book. And now you people be careful. Don't be like the people that those men wrote about in God's book. One of them wrote, <sup>41</sup> 'Listen all of you people that make fun of God, he will do something that you will not believe,

even if somebody tells you about it.
You will be really shocked, but you will not believe it, and then you will die.'*

Don't let that happen to you. You have to believe the things God does." That's the message that Paul told the people in that meeting in Antioch.

<sup>42-43</sup> Then the meeting finished, and Paul and Barnabas started to go out of that meeting house. Some of the people said to them, "Can you come back next Saturday and tell us more about those things?" And a lot of Jews and other people that respected God followed Paul and Barnabas. Paul and Barnabas talked with them and told them to keep on trusting God, and to keep on letting him help them.

<sup>44</sup> The next Saturday, nearly all the people in that town came together to hear God's message about Jesus. <sup>45</sup> But the Jewish leaders saw those big mobs of people, and they got really jealous. They started saying bad things to the people about Paul, and they told them, "Paul is telling lies. His message about Jesus is not true."

<sup>46</sup> Paul and Barnabas were not frightened of them. They said, "God sent us to tell his message to you Jews first. But you didn't listen to it, and that shows us that you don't want to live with God for ever. So now we will tell God's message to people that are not Jews. <sup>47</sup> You see, God told us to do this. It's in God's book. He said,

'I gave you this job, to be like a light for the people that are not Jews.
You will tell people everywhere in the world that I can save them.'<sup>**</sup>

<sup>48</sup> Those people that were not Jews heard those words, and they were very happy. They said, "Thank you God for this message. It is really good." And a lot of people there believed in Jesus. You see, a long time before that, God picked those people to live with him for ever. <sup>49</sup> And those people told God's message about Jesus to other people, and a lot of people all over that country heard God's message.

<sup>50</sup> But the Jewish leaders made trouble for Paul and Barnabas. There were some important women in that town that were not Jews, but they respected God. And there were some important men there too. The Jewish leaders told them bad things about Paul and Barnabas, so those important people made big trouble for Paul and Barnabas. They made so much trouble that Paul and Barnabas had to leave that town. <sup>51</sup> As they left, they shook the dirt off their feet to show those Jewish people that they were wrong. Then Paul and Barnabas went to the town called Iconium.* <sup>52</sup> But the people there in Antioch that believed in Jesus were very happy, and they kept on letting the Holy Spirit control them.

14

Paul and Barnabas told people about Jesus, in Iconium and Listra

<sup>1-4</sup> The same thing happened in the town called Iconium. Paul and Barnabas went to the Jewish meeting house, and they talked strongly about Jesus to the people there. They told them that God is very good to people. And a big mob of people believed in Jesus. Some of them were Jews, and some of them were not Jews. But there were other Jewish people that didn't believe in Jesus, and they talked to the other people that were not Jews, and they got them to hate the Christians. So the people of Iconium split up into 2 mobs. One mob reckoned that Paul and Barnabas were right, but the other mob reckoned those Jewish people were right. Paul and Barnabas stayed in Iconium a long time, and they kept on telling people about Jesus, and they were not frightened of anyone. And God helped Paul and Barnabas do powerful things, to show that they were telling the true story about Jesus.

<sup>5</sup> Then some of those people that didn't believe in Jesus, and their leaders, they made a plan to hurt Paul and Barnabas, and to kill them with stones. Some of that mob were Jews, and some of them were not Jews. <sup>6</sup> But somebody told Paul and Barnabas that those people wanted to kill them, so Paul and Barnabas ran away to the country called Lyconia. They went to the towns called Listra and Derbi, and to the country around those towns, <sup>7</sup> and they told people there the good news about Jesus.

* 13:41 Habakkuk 1:5 * 13:47 Isaiah 42:6; 49:6 * 13:51 Matthew 10:14; Mark 6:11; Luke 9:5; 10:11

In Listra Paul got Jesus to make a crippled man better

<sup>8</sup> In Listra there was a man that was crippled. He was born crippled. He never walked in his life. <sup>9</sup> As Paul was talking to the people there, that crippled man was sitting there listening to him. Paul looked straight at him, and when he saw that man's face, he knew that the man believed that Jesus can make him better. <sup>10</sup> So Paul said real loud, "Stand up on your feet." And the man jumped up and started to walk around.

<sup>12</sup> And those people reckoned Barnabas was their boss god called Zeus, and they reckoned Paul was their messenger god called Hermes, because Paul did all the talking. <sup>13</sup> There was a house for Zeus just outside the town, and there was a man there that looked after the ceremonies for Zeus. That man and all the people got some bulls and some flowers, and they took them to the gates of the town. They wanted to show respect to Paul and Barnabas, just like they always showed respect to their gods. They were going to kill those bulls for them, and they were going to give them the flowers too.

<sup>14</sup> But somebody told Paul and Barnabas what those people wanted to do, and then Paul and Barnabas tore their clothes to show them they were upset, and they ran into the crowd of people, and they shouted, <sup>15</sup> "What are you doing? Why are you doing this? Don't do it. We are just men, like you. We are telling you good news, and we are saying that you have to stop showing respect to things that are not the true God. You have to turn around and follow the God that is alive. He made the sky, and the earth, and the sea, and everything in them.* <sup>16</sup> He let the people in every country go their own way, up until now, <sup>17</sup> but he still shows them that he is the only real God. He always did good things for them, and he does good things for you too. He gives you rain, and he makes your food grow, so that you can be happy." <sup>18</sup> Paul and Barnabas kept on talking to the people like that. The people still wanted to kill the bulls for them, but in the end, they listened to Paul and Barnabas, and they didn't kill those bulls.

People threw big stones at Paul

<sup>19</sup> After that, some Jewish people came to that place from the towns called Antioch and Iconium, and they talked to the Listra people, and they made them get angry with Paul. Then those Jewish people threw big stones at Paul. They hit him with those stones until they thought he was dead. Then they dragged him outside the town and left him there. <sup>20</sup> Then the Christians stood around Paul. They thought he was dead too, but then he got up, and he went back into the town.

Paul and Barnabas told the Derbi people about Jesus

The next day, Paul and Barnabas left that place and went to the town called Derbi. <sup>21</sup> Paul and Barnabas told the people there the good news about Jesus, and a lot of people believed in him.

Paul and Barnabas helped the new churches in each town

After that, Paul and Barnabas went back to Listra, and Iconium, and Antioch in Pisidia country. <sup>22</sup> In each of those towns they talked to the Christians and said, "Keep on believing in Jesus, and don't turn away from him. Some people will keep on making big trouble for all of us Christians, but don't worry, Jesus is with us. We are in God's family now."

<sup>23</sup> Then, in each town, Paul and Barnabas picked leaders for the Christians in the church there. After that, they stopped eating for a while, and they prayed for those leaders. They prayed, "Jesus, our leader, these men believe in you now, so we ask you to look after them all the time."

<sup>24</sup> Then Paul and Barnabas left that place, and they went through Pisidia country, and they came to the country called Pamfilia. <sup>25</sup> In a town called Perga, they talked to the people about Jesus. Then they went to the town called Attalia, near the sea.

Paul and Barnabas went back to Antioch

<sup>26</sup> Paul and Barnabas got on a ship at Attalia, and they went back to Antioch, in Syria country. Antioch was the city where they started from, some time before. It was those Antioch Christians that asked God to look after Paul and Barnabas and be good to them, and then they sent them out to tell people about Jesus. That is the reason why Paul and Barnabas went back to Antioch after they finished that work.

<sup>27</sup> Paul and Barnabas got all the Christians in Antioch to come together, and they told them all about the things God helped them do. They said, "We told the people that are not Jews about Jesus, and God let them believe in him."<sup>28</sup> And Paul and Barnabas stayed there a long time, with the Christians at Antioch.

15

The church leaders had a meeting in Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> At that time, some men came to Antioch from Judea country, and they started to teach the Christian men, "If you don't have the young man operation that Moses wrote about, God will not save you. That operation is in our law."* <sup>2</sup> Paul and Barnabas heard those men saying that, and they didn't agree with them. They argued with them and told them they were wrong. The Christians at Antioch thought about that problem, then they told Paul and Barnabas to go with some other men to Jerusalem, to talk about it with Jesus's special workers and the other church leaders there.

<sup>3</sup> So Paul and Barnabas did what the Christians at Antioch said. They left Antioch to go to Jerusalem, and on their way, they went through Fonisha country and Samaria country, and they talked to the Christians in those places and told them everything that God did in the other countries. They said, "A lot of people that are not Jews believe in Jesus now." The Christians in Fonisha and Samaria were very happy to hear that news.

<sup>4</sup> After that, Paul and the men with him got to Jerusalem, and the Christians there were happy to see them. Jesus's special workers, and all the church leaders there, told them, "We are happy you came." Then Paul and Barnabas, and the other men with them, told the Christians in Jerusalem everything that God helped them do.

<sup>5</sup> But some of those Christians in Jerusalem were from the Pharisee mob, that were strong for the Jewish law. They stood up and said, "Those men that are not Jews, they might be Christians, but they have to have that young man operation too, just like Moses said. We have to tell them to do all the things in the law of Moses."

<sup>6</sup> Then Jesus's special workers, and all the church leaders, met together to talk about that problem. <sup>7</sup> They talked about it for a long time, and then Peter stood up and said to them, "My friends, you know that God picked me, and I was the first person to go to the people that are not Jews to tell them the good news about Jesus. God did that so that they could hear about Jesus and believe in him."* <sup>8</sup> God always knows what people are thinking, and when those people that are not Jews believed in Jesus, God gave them the Holy Spirit to show them that he wants them in his family too. You see, at first he gave the Holy Spirit to us, then he gave the Holy Spirit to those people that are not Jews.* <sup>9</sup> He did the same thing for them that he did for us. They believed in him, and he made them clean from the wrong things they did. <sup>10</sup> So, why are you telling those Christians that are not Jews to do something that is too hard for them? You are making God angry. You know that we can't keep all of the law of Moses. It is too hard for us, and it was too hard for our grand-fathers too. <sup>11</sup> But our leader, Jesus, is good to us Jewish people, and he is also good to people that are not Jews. He saves everybody that believes in him. That law doesn't save anybody. Jesus saves us because he is good to us."

<sup>12</sup> Then everyone stopped talking and listened to Barnabas and Paul. They told everyone that God gave them power to do great things for the people that are not Jews. God did that to show those people that the story about Jesus is true.

<sup>13</sup> They finished talking, then James stood up and said, "My friends, listen to me. <sup>14</sup> Peter just told us the story about how God showed himself to people that are not Jews, and that he picked some of them to be his own people. <sup>15</sup> Peter's story agrees with what God told his men to write, a long time ago, and their words are in God's book. One of them wrote, <sup>16</sup> 'God said,

"I will come back later,

and I will fix up David's family again.

David's family are like a tent that broke and fell down.

But I will fix them up and make them strong again.

<sup>17-18</sup> And some people from other countries will ask me for help.

They are my people too.

I am God. I promised to do that a long time ago, so I will do it."*

That's all in God's book."

<sup>19</sup> And James kept on talking. He said, "I think we shouldn't make it hard for people that are not Jews, when they turn to God. <sup>20</sup> We have to write them a letter,

* 15:1 Leviticus 12:3

* 15:7 Acts 10:1-43

* 15:8 Acts 2:4; 10:44

* 15:17-18 Amos 9:11-12

to tell them not to worry about getting that young man operation. But we'll tell them to follow just these rules,

- If somebody reckons that a statue is a god, and if they give food to that statue to show respect to it, don't eat any of that food.
- And don't sleep with somebody that you are not married to, as if they are your wife or husband.
- And if somebody holds an animal's neck really tight to kill it, don't eat its meat.
- And don't eat the blood of animals.*

<sup>21</sup> You see, every Saturday the Jewish people read the law of Moses out loud in their meeting houses, and this happens in all the towns where those people live. They have been doing that for a long time, and people that are not Jews have already heard those rules."

The church leaders wrote to the Christians that are not Jews

<sup>22</sup> Then Jesus's special workers, the church leaders, and all the Christians in Jerusalem picked 2 of their leaders to go with Paul and Barnabas, and take this news to the Christians in the city called Antioch, in Syria country. One man was Judas Barsabbas, and the other man was Silas. <sup>23</sup> So the church leaders wrote a letter for them to take with them. They wrote,

"This letter is from Jesus's special workers, and from the other church leaders in Jerusalem. We are writing to you Christian people that are not Jews, that live in Antioch, and in the rest of Syria country, and in Cilicia country. You are like brothers and sisters to us.

<sup>24</sup> Listen, we heard that some men from here went to you and told you things that worried you and upset you. But those things are not true. We didn't send those men. <sup>25</sup> So we met together and picked some messengers, and we are sending them with our good friends Barnabas and Paul. <sup>26</sup> You know, Barnabas and Paul work for our leader Jesus Christ, and people tried to kill them for doing that. <sup>27</sup> We are sending Judas and Silas with them, and they will tell you the same things that we are writing in this letter.

<sup>28</sup> The Holy Spirit told us that you don't need to get that young man operation. And that's what we think too. So we are telling you to just follow these rules,

- <sup>29</sup> If somebody reckons that a statue is a god, and if they give food to that statue to show respect to it, don't eat any of that food.
  - And don't eat the blood of animals.
  - And if somebody holds an animal's neck really tight to kill it, don't eat its meat.
  - And don't sleep with somebody that you are not married to, as if they are your wife or husband.
- Make sure you don't do those things, and you will be all right.
That's our message to you now.
Goodbye."

<sup>30</sup> Then Judas and Silas went with Paul and Barnabas to Antioch. They called all the Christians there to come to a meeting, then they gave them the letter. <sup>31</sup> Those Christians read that letter, and they were very happy. <sup>32</sup> Judas and Silas were men that told God's messages to people, and they talked a lot to those Christians. They helped them to be happy and to believe strongly in Jesus. <sup>33</sup> After that, Judas and Silas left Antioch to go back to the church in Jerusalem. The Antioch Christians said to them, "We pray you will have a safe and happy trip."

<sup>34-35</sup> But Paul and Barnabas stayed there in Antioch, and they kept on teaching the people the message from God about Jesus. And a lot of other Christians helped them do that too.

Paul and Barnabas stopped working with each other

<sup>36</sup> Some time later, Paul said to Barnabas, "You know all those towns we went to before, where we told the people the message about Jesus, well, let's go back and find out if the Christians are all right."

<sup>38</sup> But Paul didn't think that was a good idea. He said, "John Mark went with us before, but he didn't stay with us. In Pamfilia country he left us and went home."*

<sup>39</sup> Paul and Barnabas didn't agree with each other about John Mark, and they had a big argument. They got very upset with each other, so they each went a different way. Barnabas and John Mark got on a ship and went to the island called Cyprus. <sup>40-41</sup> Paul picked Silas to go with him. The Antioch Christians asked God to look after Paul and Silas, then those 2 men left there and went through Syria and Cilicia countries. Paul talked to the Christians in every place, and he helped them be strong for Jesus.

* 15:20 Exodus 34:15-17; Leviticus 17:10-16; 18:6-23

* 15:38 Acts 13:13

16

Paul, Silas and Timothy told people about Jesus in lots of towns

<sup>1</sup> Then Paul and Silas went to the town called Derbi, and then to the town called Listra. A Christian man called Timothy lived in Listra. Timothy's mother was a Jew, and she believed in Jesus too, but Timothy's father was a Greek. <sup>2</sup> All the Christians there in Listra said that Timothy was a good man, and all the Christians in the town nearby, called Iconium, they said that too. <sup>3</sup> But the Jewish people in those places knew that Timothy's father was Greek, and they knew that the Greek people don't do a young man operation on their boys, like the Jewish people do. Paul wanted Timothy to go around with him to a lot of places, and he wanted the Jewish mob in every place to be happy with Timothy, so he got them to do a young man operation on Timothy.

<sup>4</sup> Then Paul, Silas and Timothy went through that country, and in every town they told the Christians about the things that the leaders in Jerusalem talked about, and they told them all to do everything that those leaders said in their letter. <sup>5</sup> So the people in the churches in those places, they trusted Jesus more strongly, and every day more people joined them and trusted in Jesus too.

Paul had something like a dream and saw a man from Macedonia country

<sup>6</sup> Paul and his friends wanted to tell the message about Jesus to the people in the country called Asia, but the Holy Spirit told them, "No, don't go there." So they went through the countries called Frigia and Galatia. <sup>7</sup> Then they got to the country called Misia, and they tried to go on into the next country, called Bithinia. But again the Holy Spirit said, "No, don't go there." <sup>8</sup> So they went past Misia and got to the town called Troas.

<sup>9</sup> They stayed in Troas, and that night, Paul had something like a dream, but he was not asleep, he was still awake. He saw a man from Macedonia country. That man was standing there, and he was saying to Paul, "Come over to Macedonia and help us."

<sup>10</sup> I, Luke, joined with Paul and Silas there at Troas. After Paul saw that Macedonian man, we knew that God wanted us to tell the good news to the people in Macedonia, and we got ready to go there.

A woman called Lydia believed in Jesus

<sup>11</sup> We got on a ship and went straight to the town called Samothrace, and the next day we got to the town called Niapolis.

<sup>12</sup> We left the ship there, and we went by road to the town called Philippi, and we stayed there for a few days. Philippi was the main town in that part of Macedonia, and a lot of Roman people lived there.

<sup>13</sup> On the next Saturday, we went outside the town to a place near the river. We thought we might see some Jewish people meeting there to pray. Some women were there, and we sat down and talked with them. <sup>14</sup> One woman was from the town called Thiatira, and her name was Lydia. Her job was to sell purple cloth. She was a woman that respected God. Jesus helped her to listen carefully to the things Paul talked about, and she believed in Jesus. <sup>15</sup> Then we baptised Lydia and her family. After that, Lydia asked us to come and stay at her house. She said, "You mob know that I really believe in our leader Jesus now, so please come and stay at my house." She kept on asking us until we agreed, so we stayed at her house.

Paul got Jesus to force a bad spirit out of a young woman

<sup>16</sup> On another day, we started to go to a place where people meet together and pray to God. There was a young woman on that road that had a bad spirit in her. That spirit showed her things that were going to happen to people later on. Some men made this young woman work for them with no pay. People used to pay a lot of money to her bosses, and then she told those people things that will happen to them later.

<sup>17</sup> That young woman saw Paul and the rest of us going on that road, and she followed us, and she kept on shouting, "These men serve the God that is the greatest of all gods. They can tell you what to do so that God will save you and not punish you."

<sup>18</sup> She kept on doing that for a lot of days. In the end Paul got angry. He turned around to the young woman and said to that bad spirit, "My boss, Jesus Christ, says, 'Get out of her.'" Then the bad spirit came out of that young woman.

<sup>19</sup> Her bosses saw this happen, and they thought, "This is bad for us. Now she can't tell anybody what will happen to them, and she will not get us any more money." And her bosses were angry with Paul and Silas. They grabbed Paul and Silas and dragged them to the Roman judges in the middle of that town.

<sup>20</sup> Her bosses said to the judges, "These men are making a lot of trouble for everyone in our town. They are Jews, <sup>21</sup> and they are telling people to do things that our Roman law says are wrong."

<sup>22</sup> A lot of other people there joined that woman's bosses and started blaming Paul and Silas. Then the judges told their soldiers, "Rip the shirts off Paul and Silas, and hit them with sticks."

<sup>23</sup> So the soldiers hit Paul and Silas really hard with sticks, and then they put them in the jail. They told the boss over that jail, "Make sure Paul and Silas don't get away."

<sup>24</sup> So the jail boss put them in a little room that was right in the middle of that jail. He made them sit down on the ground, and then he locked their ankles between 2 big bits of wood, so that Paul and Silas couldn't move their legs.

Paul told the jail boss that God can save him

<sup>25</sup> Later, in the middle of the night, Paul and Silas were praying out loud to God and saying that he is really good, and they were singing songs to God. The other prisoners were listening to them. <sup>26</sup> Suddenly there was a very big earthquake. It shook the jail, and even the cement underneath it, and all the doors of the jail swung open, and all the chains fell off the arms and legs of all the prisoners.

<sup>27</sup> The jail boss woke up and saw that the doors of the jail were open, and he thought, "All those prisoners ran away. I'm in big trouble now." So he got his big knife, and he was going to kill himself.

<sup>28</sup> But Paul saw the jail boss and shouted to him, "Don't hurt yourself. We are all here."

<sup>29</sup> The jail boss told somebody to bring some lights, then he ran into the jail and got down in front of Paul and Silas, to show them respect. He was so frightened that he was shaking. <sup>30</sup> Then he took Paul and Silas out of the jail, and he asked them, "Sirs, what can I do so that God will save me?"

<sup>31</sup> They said, "Believe in Jesus, our leader, and God will save you. And he will do the same for your family too."

<sup>32</sup> Then Paul and Silas told the jail boss and his family all about Jesus, and they all believed in Jesus. <sup>33</sup> Then, while it was still night time, the jail boss washed the sores on their backs, and Paul and Silas baptised the jail boss and his family. <sup>34</sup> Then the jail boss took Paul and Silas into his house, and he gave them some food to eat. And the jail boss and his family were all really happy because they believed in God.

<sup>35</sup> The next morning, the judges said to some policemen, "Go and tell the jail boss, 'You can let those 2 prisoners go now.'" Then the policemen went to the jail boss and told him that message.

<sup>36</sup> So the jail boss told Paul, "The judges have sent a message telling me to let you and Silas go free. So you can go quietly out of the jail now."

<sup>37</sup> But Paul said to the policemen, "No. Yesterday those judges didn't take us to court to find out if we did anything wrong, or not. They just told men to hit us in front of the crowd. Then they put us in jail. But that is against the Roman law, because we are Romans. You see, even though we are Jews, we are Romans too. Our names are on the list of all the Roman people. So those judges broke the Roman law yesterday. And now they want to send us away while nobody is looking. No way. Those judges have to come to us and tell us that they are sorry, and they have to take us out of this jail themselves."

<sup>38</sup> So the policemen went and told the judges everything Paul said. As soon as those judges heard that Paul and Silas were not just Jews, but they were Romans too, they got frightened. Those judges knew they broke the Roman law. <sup>39</sup> So the judges came and talked easy to Paul and Silas. They said, "We are sorry about what happened yesterday." Then they took Paul and Silas out of that jail, and they kept on asking Paul and Silas to leave that town soon.

17

Paul told people in Thessalonica about Jesus

<sup>1</sup> Paul and Silas went through the towns called Amfipolis and Apollonia, and they got to a town called Thessalonica. There was a Jewish meeting house there, <sup>2-3</sup> so Paul went to that meeting house on the next Saturday to tell the people about Jesus. He used to do that in all the towns and cities that he went to. Paul went to that meeting house in Thessalonica each Saturday for 3 weeks, and he read some parts of God's book and talked about them to the people there. They were the parts where God's men wrote about the special man that God promised to send, called the Christ. They wrote that people will hurt God's special man, and kill him, but then God will make him alive again. And Paul said, "Jesus is that special man that God sent to save us. People killed him, but God made him alive again."

<sup>4</sup> A lot of people there believed that message about Jesus, and they joined Paul and Silas. Some of those people were Jews, and some of them were not Jews but they respected God, and a lot of them were important women.

Some Jewish people made trouble for Paul and Silas

<sup>5</sup> But some of the Jewish people there were jealous of Paul. So they went to the middle of the town and found some trouble makers, and they lied to those trouble makers and told them that Paul and Silas were bad people. Then that mob of trouble makers started shouting and saying bad things about Paul and Silas. Some of them went into the house that belonged to a Christian man. His name was Jason. They were looking for Paul and Silas, to drag them outside, so that the mob could beat them up. <sup>6</sup> They couldn't find Paul and Silas in that house, so they grabbed Jason, and some of the other Christians there, and they dragged them to the town bosses. They shouted, "Those 2 men, Paul and Silas, they make trouble everywhere, and now they have come to our town to make trouble here too." <sup>7</sup> And they said, "All this Christian mob are against everything that our big boss in Rome tells us to do. They reckon Jesus is really the biggest boss. And this man here, Jason, he is letting them stay at his house."

<sup>8</sup> The town bosses, and all the people there, they heard that story, and they got angry. <sup>9</sup> The town bosses forced Jason and the other Christians to pay some money, and they told them, "You can only get your money back if Paul and Silas don't make any more trouble." Then the bosses let Jason and those other Christians go.

Paul told people in Beria about Jesus

<sup>10</sup> Then, that same night, the Thessalonica Christians sent Paul and Silas out of their town, to another town called Beria. As soon as Paul and Silas got to that town, they went to the Jewish meeting house to talk to the people there. <sup>11</sup> The Jewish people that lived in Beria listened to the message about Jesus, and they wanted to hear more, and they thought about it carefully. They were not like the Jews in Thessalonica. The Beria people read God's book every day to find out if Paul's message was true. <sup>12</sup> So a lot of those Jewish people believed in Jesus, and some of the important women and men that were not Jews believed in Jesus too.

Jewish people from Thessalonica made trouble for Paul <sup>13</sup> But the Jewish people in Thessalonica heard that Paul was in Beria telling people God's message about Jesus, so they went to Beria and made trouble for Paul. And they got a lot of other people to make trouble too. <sup>14</sup> So some of the Christian men in Beria took Paul out of that town, but Silas and Timothy stayed in Beria. Those Christian men took Paul down to the sea, and they went on a ship to the city called Athens. <sup>15</sup> Then Paul said to the men that took him to Athens, "As soon as you get back to Beria, tell Silas and Timothy to come to me here. Tell them to hurry and come here as soon as they can." Then those men left Paul in Athens and went back to Beria.

Paul was upset by all the statues in Athens

<sup>16</sup> Paul was in Athens waiting for Silas and Timothy to come, and he walked around in that city. He saw a lot of statues everywhere, and he saw that people thought they were gods. They respected them and prayed to them. That upset Paul a lot. <sup>17</sup> So he went to the Jewish meeting house a lot, and he talked with the people there about Jesus. Some of those people were Jews, and some of them were Greeks that believed in God. And every day Paul went to the place in the middle of the city, where there were a lot of people, and he talked about Jesus to the people that he met there.

Paul talked to the Athens people about Jesus

<sup>18</sup> Some of that Athens mob always thought about the best way to live, and they always talked to other people about it. Some of them were called Epicurians, and some of them were called Stoics. They talked to Paul, and he told them about Jesus. Paul said that Jesus died, and that God made him alive again. Some of that mob said, "This man is just talking rubbish." Others said, "We think he is talking about gods from other countries."

<sup>19</sup> So they took Paul to a meeting of the city council, and they asked him, "What are you telling everyone? Tell us what this new message is all about. <sup>20</sup> We are surprised when we hear some of the things you say, and we want to understand what you mean." <sup>21</sup> You see, the Athens people, and the people from other places that lived there, they liked to talk about new ideas all the time, and they liked to hear anything new that other people told them.

Paul told the Athens council about the God that they didn't know

<sup>22</sup> Then Paul stood up and talked to the council mob at Athens. He said, "I can see that you Athens mob think a lot about gods. <sup>23</sup> I walked around this city, and I saw a lot of statues that you set up, to show respect to a lot of gods. And I saw a stone table that you set up, and you wrote on it, 'This is for that god that we don't know.' Look, you don't know that God, but you show respect to him anyway. Listen, I do know him, so now I want to tell you all about him. I'll tell you about that God that you don't know.

<sup>24</sup> He is the God that made all the world, and he made everything in the world. He is the boss over everybody everywhere. He is boss up in the sky, and he is boss down here on the ground. So nobody can build a house big enough for him to live in.* <sup>25</sup> And he doesn't need us to do anything for him. You see, he is the one that makes us alive, and he gives us our breath, and he gives us everything we need.*

<sup>26</sup> At first he just made one man, then later he made all of us from that man. All of us in every tribe everywhere were born into that man's family. And God gave each tribe their own country, and he planned where they will live and how long they will live there.

<sup>27</sup> He did that so that we can look for him, and maybe we can find him. But really, he is not very far away from any of us. <sup>28</sup> That old story is true that says, 'He is with us all the time. He is the one that makes us alive, so that we can walk about and do things.' And even one of your own Athens people wrote something about him. He wrote, 'We are his kids.'

<sup>29</sup> So, if it is true that we are God's kids, we shouldn't just dream up something and then make a statue like that from gold or silver or stone, and say, 'My god looks like this.' No way. Nobody can make any sort of statue that is anything like God.

<sup>30</sup> You see, at first people didn't know about God, but at that time he didn't worry about it. Now it is different. Now he says to all of us, that we have to turn around and stop doing bad things. <sup>31</sup> And if we don't stop doing bad things, he will give us big trouble. He is going to have a big court, and all of us will have to stand in front of the judge. He has already set the date for that. It will be a fair court, and he has picked one man to be the judge. That man died, but God made him alive again. God did that to show everybody that he picked that man to be the big judge."

Some council people believed in Jesus

<sup>32</sup> The council men heard Paul say that a man died and then came alive again, and some of those council men laughed at Paul. Some others said, "You can tell us more about this later, at some other time." <sup>33</sup> So Paul left that council meeting. <sup>34</sup> But some of the others believed what Paul said, and they believed in Jesus. One of them was a council man called Dionisius. And another one was an important woman called Damaris. And there were some other people that believed in Jesus too.

18

Paul went to the city called Corinth

<sup>1</sup> After that, Paul left Athens, and he went to a city called Corinth. <sup>2</sup> In Corinth, he met a Jewish man and his wife. His name was Aquila, and her name was Priscilla. Aquila was born in a country called Pontus, but he used to live in a city called Rome. Before this time, the big boss in Rome, called Claudius, told all the Jewish people to get out of Rome. So Aquila and Priscilla left Rome and went to live in Corinth.

<sup>3</sup> Aquila and Priscilla made tents. That was their work. And Paul made tents too, so he stayed with them in Corinth, and they worked together.

<sup>4</sup> Every Saturday the Jews in Corinth met together in the Jewish meeting house there. Paul met with them there too. He talked a lot with those Jewish people, and he talked to the Greek people there too. He tried to get them to believe in Jesus.

<sup>5</sup> Then Silas and Timothy came to Corinth from Macedonia country, and after that, Paul spent all of his time telling God's good news to the Jewish people. He told them, "Jesus is the Christ, the man that God promised to send to save us." <sup>6</sup> But those Jewish people wouldn't listen to Paul, and they said bad things about him. So Paul shook the dirt from his clothes, to show them that they were wrong, and he said to them, "I told you God's good news, but you didn't listen. So you can't blame me for anything that happens to you now. You can only blame yourselves. From now on, I will go and tell God's word to the people that are not Jews."

* 17:24 1 Kings 8:27; Acts 7:48

<sup>7</sup> So Paul stopped going to the Jewish meeting house, and he moved to live with a man that was not a Jew, but he respected God. His name was Titius Justus, and he lived in the house next door to the Jewish meeting house. <sup>8</sup> Another man, Crispus, was the boss of the Jewish meeting house. Crispus and everyone in his family believed in Jesus. And a lot of other people in Corinth heard Paul talk about Jesus, and they believed in him too. So the other Christians baptised them all in water.

<sup>9</sup> One night, Paul had something like a dream, and our leader Jesus said to him, "Don't be frightened, but keep on telling the people in this city about me. Don't stop talking about me. <sup>10</sup> I am with you, and nobody will attack you. Nobody will hurt you. You see, I've got a lot of people in this city." <sup>11</sup> So Paul kept on teaching God's word to people in Corinth. He stayed there and did that for one and a half years.

A Roman boss didn't judge Paul

<sup>12</sup> Later on, a new man became the Roman boss over Corinth, and of the country around it, called Akaya. That new boss's name was Gallio. The Jewish leaders got together, and they grabbed Paul, and they took him to the judge's seat in the court house of that new boss. They blamed Paul, <sup>13</sup> and they told that boss, "This man is teaching people wrong. He is telling them to break our Jewish law. He is telling them the wrong way to show respect to God."

<sup>14-15</sup> Then Paul got up to talk, but Gallio said, "Wait." And he said to the Jewish leaders, "I will not listen to you mob. You are only arguing about words, and names, and your own Jewish laws. I will not judge those Jewish things. You mob look after that yourselves. This man didn't do anything bad, and he didn't break our Roman law, so I will not listen to you." <sup>16</sup> Then Gallio sent those Jewish leaders away from the judge's seat.

<sup>17</sup> There were people watching that court, and they grabbed the leader of a Jewish meeting house. His name was Sosthenes. They beat him up right there in front of the judge's seat. Gallio saw them hitting him, but he didn't do anything to stop them.

Priscilla and Aquila went to Ephesus with Paul

<sup>18</sup> Paul kept on living in Corinth for some time, then he said goodbye to the Christians there, and he went to the town called Centria, and Priscilla and Aquila went with him. After they got to Centria, Paul cut all the hair off his head. You see, at some time before this, Paul made a strong promise to God, and then at this time, he did what he promised to do. And in Jewish culture, after people finish doing what they promise to God, they cut off their hair.* After that, Paul got on a ship to go to Syria country, and Priscilla and Aquila went with him.

<sup>19-21</sup> That ship stopped half-way, at a town called Ephesus. They got off that ship there, and Paul went into the Jewish meeting house in Ephesus, and he talked to the Jewish people there. They asked him to stay there longer, but he said, "No, sorry, I've got to say goodbye and keep going. But if God wants me to come back here one day, I will come back." Then he got on a ship to go to Syria country, and he sailed away from Ephesus. But Priscilla and Aquila stayed there.

Paul went to Jerusalem, then to other places

<sup>22</sup> Paul stayed on that ship until he got to the town called Caesarea. Then he left the ship, and he kept going by road to Jerusalem city, and he said hello to the Christians there. Then he went north to Antioch, a city in Syria country.

<sup>23</sup> Paul spent some time with the Christians in Antioch, then he left and went again to Galatia and Frigia countries. He taught the Christians in those places more about Jesus, to make them strong for him.

Priscilla and Aquila told Apollos more about Jesus

<sup>24-26</sup> At that time, there was a Jewish man living in a town called Alexandria. His name was Apollos. Somebody there taught him some things about Jesus. He could talk really good, and he knew God's book properly, and he liked to teach people about Jesus. He taught them the things he knew, but he didn't know the whole story about Jesus. He only knew the message John the Baptist taught to people.

Apollos went to Ephesus, and he went to the Jewish meeting house there, and he talked strongly to everyone, and he told them all the things that he knew about Jesus. Priscilla and Aquila heard him talk, and they said to him, "Come with us, and we will tell you more about Jesus." So he went with them, and they told him the rest of the story about Jesus, and they told him how God saves people.

* 18:18 Numbers 6:18

Apollos helped the Christians in Akaya country

<sup>27</sup> Later on, Apollos told the other Christians in Ephesus, "I want to go to Akaya country."

They said, "That's good. You go there." And they wrote a letter to the Christians in Akaya, and told them, "Be friendly to Apollos." So Apollos went to the city called Corinth in Akaya country.

Before that time, God was good to some of the Corinth people, and he helped them believe in Jesus. After Apollos got to Corinth, he really helped those new Christians there. <sup>28</sup> But some of the Jewish leaders didn't believe in Jesus, so Apollos argued strongly with them all the time. And he talked to everyone, showing them that God's book tells us about the man that God promised to send to save us, the man that is called the Christ. And he showed them that Jesus is that man.

19

Paul helped some men follow Jesus

<sup>1</sup> At that time, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul was visiting places in Frigia country and Galatia country. Then Paul left those places and went through Asia country, then he went on to the town called Ephesus. He met some men there that reckoned they were Christians. <sup>2</sup> Paul asked them, "Did the Holy Spirit come into you when you believed God's message?"

They said, "No, he didn't. We don't know anything about the Holy Spirit. We've never heard of him."

<sup>3</sup> So Paul asked them, "Who baptised you, and why did they do it?"

They said, "We got John the Baptist to baptise us, to show we were sorry for doing bad things."

<sup>4</sup> Paul said, "John baptised people that turned away from doing bad things. But he also told people to believe in the man that was coming after him. That man is Jesus."*

<sup>5</sup> Those men heard that story about Jesus, and they believed in him too. Then the Christians baptised them to show that those men were following Jesus, their leader. <sup>6</sup> Then Paul put his hands on their heads, and the Holy Spirit came into each one of them. The Holy Spirit gave them the power to talk in different languages. And the Holy Spirit gave them messages, and they told everyone those messages. <sup>7</sup> There were about 12 men in that mob.

People in Asia country heard about Jesus

<sup>8</sup> For the next 3 months, Paul went to the meetings that the Jewish people had in their meeting house in Ephesus, and he talked strongly to the people there. He tried to get them to understand how God takes people into his family. <sup>9</sup> Some of those people believed that message about Jesus. But some of them didn't believe it, and they didn't want to keep on hearing it, so they stood up in front of everybody and said bad things about the Christian people. (Another name for the Christians was the Jesus Way mob.)

So Paul left the Jewish meeting house, and he took the Christians with him. They didn't go to the Jewish meeting house any more, but they had their meetings in a meeting house called Tiranus Hall. Paul was there every day, and he talked with people there about Jesus. <sup>10</sup> He kept on doing that for 2 years, so people from all over that country called Asia heard God's message about Jesus. Both Jewish people and Greek people heard that message about Jesus.

God gave Paul a lot of power

<sup>11</sup> And God gave Paul the power to do great things that nobody else can do. <sup>12</sup> He made sick people better, even if they couldn't come to him. Their friends got things that he touched, like handkerchiefs or aprons, and they took them and put them on those sick people. Then those sick people got better, and bad spirits came out of them.

Some men that were not Christians tried to use Jesus's power

<sup>13-14</sup> There were also some Jewish people there that were not Christians, and they went around to a lot of places, and in each place they tried to get bad spirits to come out of people. There were 7 men that were doing that. They were sons of Sceva, a boss of the Jewish ceremonies. They went into a house and said to a man that had a bad spirit, "I'm using the power of Jesus, the man that Paul talks about, and I'm telling you to come out of this man."

<sup>15</sup> But that bad spirit didn't come out. He said to those men, "I know Jesus, and I know Paul, but I don't know you mob." <sup>16</sup> Then the man that had the bad spirit jumped on those 7 men, and he knocked all of them down, and he tore their clothes off, and he beat them up. They all ran out of the house to get away from him.

* 19:4 Matthew 3:11; Mark 1:4, 7-8; Luke 3:4, 16; John 1:26-27

<sup>17</sup> All the people that lived in Ephesus heard that story about those 7 men. Jewish people heard that story, and Greek people heard it too, and they all got really frightened, and they really respected Jesus, and they said good things about him.

Christians burned their books about bad magic <sup>18-19</sup> At that time, some of the Christians in Ephesus were still doing bad things, and some of them used to sing people and curse people. They had a lot of books that showed them how to do that bad magic. Those Christians heard about those 7 men, and then they said that they were sorry for the bad things that they were doing, and they gathered up all of those books about magic, and they burned them. Everybody saw them burn those books. Those books about magic cost a lot of money. They reckoned all of those books together cost about 5 million dollars. <sup>20</sup> That's how the message about Jesus got very powerful, and a lot of people heard that message.

Some work-men got money from people that respected a woman god

<sup>21</sup> After those things happened, Paul wanted to visit the Christians in Macedonia country and Akaya country again, and then he wanted to go on to Jerusalem after that. And he said, "After I go to Jerusalem, I have to go to Rome too." <sup>22</sup> Timothy and Erastus were his helpers at that time. Paul sent them ahead of him to Macedonia country, but Paul stayed a little while longer in Ephesus, in Asia country.

<sup>23</sup> Soon after that, some of the people in Ephesus tried to make a lot of trouble for the Christians, the Jesus Way mob. <sup>24</sup> There was a man there that used silver to make little models of the special house of a woman god called Artemis. That man's name was Demetrius. And there were other men there that made those little house models too. They sold them to people that respected Artemis, and they got a lot of money from that business.

Demetrius got a lot of people to go wild

<sup>25</sup> Demetrius had a meeting with his work-men and the other men that made things for that god called Artemis. Demetrius said to them, "Men, you know that we make these things and we sell them for a lot of money. <sup>26</sup> But that man, Paul, he talks to big mobs of people, and he says, 'Don't buy those things. Those statues that people say are gods, they are not gods at all. It was people that made them, so don't show respect to them.' Lots of people here in Ephesus listened to him, and now even the people from other towns in this Asia country agree with him, and they don't want to buy the things we make. <sup>27</sup> If people keep on listening to Paul, we'll soon go broke. And not only that, but people will reckon they don't have to come to the special house of Artemis to show respect to her. People all over our Asia country and everywhere show respect to our great woman god Artemis, but soon people might not think that Artemis is great at all."

<sup>28</sup> All the men there heard Demetrius say that, and then they were very angry with Paul. They started to shout, "Artemis is very great. She is the god of us Ephesus mob."

<sup>29</sup> A lot of the other people in the town heard them shouting, and they went and joined those men and started shouting too. They got angry with Paul, and they grabbed the 2 men from Macedonia that used to go around with Paul. Their names were Guyus and Aristarkus. They dragged those 2 men to the sports oval of that town. <sup>30</sup> Paul wanted to go there too, to talk to the people, but the other Christians wouldn't let him do that. <sup>31</sup> There were some government officials of that country that were friends with Paul. They heard that those people went wild, so they sent him a message to tell him strongly, "Don't go to that sports oval. That mob are too wild. They might kill you."

The wild mob kept on shouting for 2 hours

<sup>32</sup> That big mob of people were a bit mixed up. Some of them shouted one thing, and some of them shouted something else. But most of them didn't even know what the meeting was about. <sup>33</sup> One of the Jewish men there was called Alexander. Some people there pushed him to the front so that he could talk to the crowd of people. So Alexander held up his hand, to get the mob to be quiet.

<sup>34</sup> But some of that mob knew that Alexander was a Jew, and that the Jews didn't show respect to Artemis, so they shouted, "Artemis is very great. She is the god of us Ephesus mob." And that mob kept on shouting like that for about 2 hours.

An important government leader got the mob to settle down

<sup>35</sup> Then an important government leader in that town got the mob to stop shouting, and he said to them, "Listen, Ephesus people, everyone knows that we Ephesus people look after the special house for Artemis, the great woman god. And everyone knows that we look after the statue of her that fell down from the sky. <sup>36</sup> Nobody can say that those things are not true. So you have to be quiet now. Don't do anything that will make trouble for us. <sup>37</sup> Why did you bring these 2 men here? They didn't do anything bad. They didn't go into the special houses for our gods and take things from there. And they didn't say anything bad about our woman god. <sup>38</sup> If Demetrius and his mates want to blame anyone about anything bad, they have to do it the right way. They have to go to the judges in the courts. If anybody wants to blame somebody else, those judges are ready to listen. That's their job. <sup>39</sup> Or if anybody wants to complain about something else, there are other government bosses that can meet together and think about that problem. <sup>40</sup> You see, you mob now are not a proper meeting, and if the big Roman bosses hear about all this trouble, they might say that we Ephesus people are trying to start a fight against the Roman government. If they ask me about all this trouble, I will not know what to tell them."

Paul went to the countries called Macedonia and Greece

<sup>1</sup> Everyone in the mob went home, then Paul asked all the Christians to meet with him. He said to them, "I'm going to Macedonia country now. You have to always keep on believing in Jesus, and always be strong for him. I'm going now. Goodbye."

Then Paul left and went to Macedonia country. <sup>2</sup> He visited all the Christians in the towns and cities in Macedonia, and he told them a lot of things to help them be strong for Jesus.

Then he kept going and went to Akaya country. Another name for that country is Greece. <sup>3</sup> Paul stayed in Greece for 3 months. Then he got ready to go back to Syria on a ship. But he heard that some Jewish men were going to try to kill him, so he changed his mind and didn't go on that ship. Instead, he went by road through Macedonia country again. <sup>4-5</sup> Paul had some friends that were going with him, but at that time they didn't go with him by road. They got on that ship and went to the town called Troas and waited for Paul there. Those men were,

- Sopater. He grew up in the town called Beria, and his father's name was Pirus.
  - Aristarkus and Secundus, 2 men from Thessalonica.
  - Guyus, from Derbi.
  - Timothy, from Galatia country.
  - Tikicus and Trofimus, 2 men from Asia country.
- Those men waited for Paul in Troas.

Luke, the man writing this story, went with Paul to Troas

<sup>6</sup> I went with Paul by road to the town called Philippi, and we stayed there. Then the time came for the Jewish people to have their flat damper ceremony, and after that, we got on a ship and sailed for 5 days. Then we got to the town called Troas, and we met the other men that were waiting for us there. We stayed in Troas for 7 days.

<sup>7</sup> On the Sunday, the Christians at Troas got together after the sun went down, to eat food together to remember that Jesus died for them. And we met together with them. Paul started talking to the Christians, and he kept on talking for a long time, right up until the middle of the night. You see, he was going to leave Troas the next day. <sup>8</sup> We were meeting in an upstairs room. It was 3 floors high. There were a lot of oil lamps burning in that room, and the smoke made some people get sleepy. <sup>9</sup> There was a young man sitting there at an open window. His name was Yutikus. Paul kept on talking for a long time, and Yutikus got very sleepy. Then he went properly to sleep, and he fell out of that window, all the way down 3 floors, to the ground. Some people went down to pick him up, but he was dead. <sup>10</sup> Paul went down too, and he lay down and put his arms around the young man, and he pressed himself against him. Then he said, "Don't worry, he is alive." And that was true. That young man came alive again.

<sup>11</sup> Then Paul and the other people there went back upstairs again, and we all ate food together to remember that Jesus died for us. Then Paul talked with the Christians until the sun started to come up. Then he left them and went to the ship. <sup>12</sup> Then everyone went home, and they took the young man home too. He was alive again, so everyone was happy.

Paul left Troas and went to Miletus

<sup>13</sup> Then we went back to the ship, but Paul didn't get on the ship with us. He wanted to go by road to the town called Assos. The rest of us got on the ship and sailed to Assos. <sup>14</sup> We met Paul there, and he got on the ship with us, then we all sailed to the town called Mitilini. <sup>15</sup> The next day, we kept going, and we sailed to a place near Kios Island. And the next day, we sailed past Ephesus to Samos Island. The next day, we left Samos Island and sailed to the town called Miletus, and we stopped there. <sup>16</sup> You see, Paul was in a hurry to go to Jerusalem, so he didn't want to stop at Ephesus and stay with the people there in Asia. It was nearly time for the Jewish ceremony called Pentecost, and Paul wanted to get to Jerusalem by Pentecost time.

Paul talked to the Christian leaders of Ephesus

<sup>17</sup> So after the ship arrived at Miletus, Paul sent a message to Ephesus to get the church leaders to come and talk with him at the ship.

<sup>18</sup> After they got there, Paul talked to them. He said, "Each one of you knows the good way that I lived, all the time that I was here with you in Asia country, from the first day that I was here until the day that I left. <sup>19</sup> You know the way I worked for our leader Jesus. I didn't try to make myself important, and sometimes I cried when people went wrong. And you know that some of the Jewish people here tried to hurt me. <sup>20</sup> And you know that I told you all of God's message, everything that will help you. I didn't keep anything secret. I taught you God's message in places where everyone heard me, and I taught you in your homes too. <sup>21</sup> I talked to everyone. I talked to Jewish people and to people that are not Jews. I told all of them, 'You have to turn to God and stop doing bad things, and believe in our leader Jesus.' "

Paul told some Christians, "You will not see me again"

<sup>22</sup> Paul kept on talking to them. He said, "And now I want to tell you this. God's spirit clearly showed me that I have to go to Jerusalem, so I'm going there. I don't know what will happen to me at Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup> But I do know that in each town I went to, up until now, the Holy Spirit told me that the people in Jerusalem will hurt me and put me in prison. <sup>24</sup> But I will keep going to Jerusalem anyway. I want to finish the work that our leader Jesus told me to do. I have to tell people the good news, that God is good to us, and that he saves us. I really don't care about myself, I don't even care if they kill me, so long as I can tell them that good news.

<sup>25</sup> In the past I told you all how to join God's family, and I taught you about Jesus, but I can't do that any more. I know that none of you will see me again. <sup>26</sup> So I want you all to understand that if any of you don't end up in God's family, you can't blame me. <sup>27</sup> I told you all everything that God wants to do for you. <sup>28</sup> Now you leaders have to make sure you keep on following Jesus properly, and you have to help God's people to follow him properly too. The Holy Spirit picked you to be their leaders, so look after them properly. Remember, God bought his people with the blood of his own son.

<sup>29-30</sup> I know that after I go away from here, other people will come to you, and they will teach you lies. They will try to trick all of God's people. They will be like cheeky dingoes that kill sheep. Even in your own group of Christians, some men will get up and say things to trick other Christians. They will change the true story and tell it wrong, so they can get people to follow them. <sup>31</sup> So watch out. Make sure each one of you keeps on believing the true story about Jesus. Remember, I was here with you for 3 years, and in all that time, I always told you not to believe a different message. And when I thought that you were going wrong, I even cried about you."

Paul asked God to look after the Christian leaders

<sup>32</sup> Paul kept on talking. He said, "Now I'm asking God to keep you safe, and to keep you believing the true message that God is very good to you and will save you. If you keep on believing that message, you will grow strong for God, and you will know that you are in God's family, and God will give you the good life that he is keeping for his own people.

<sup>33-34</sup> Listen, you mob know me. You saw the way that I lived when I was with you. I showed you the right way for a Christian to live. I never wanted to get anyone's money or good clothes. I always worked to get the money that I needed, and to get money for my friends too. <sup>35</sup> I did everything in a way that showed you that we all have to work hard to get enough money, not just for ourselves, but to give some to people that are short of the things they need. We have to remember that our leader, Jesus, said, 'If people give things to you, that can make you a bit happy. But if you give things to other people, you will be properly happy.' "

The leaders said goodbye to Paul, and they were very sad

<sup>36</sup> Paul finished talking, then he got down on his knees with all of those Christian leaders, to show respect to God, and he prayed with them. <sup>37</sup> They all cried a lot, and they hugged Paul and kissed him.

<sup>38</sup> You see, they heard Paul say that they wouldn't see him again, and that made them very sad.

Then they all went with him to the ship.

21

Luke, the man writing this story, went with Paul to Tyre

<sup>1</sup> We were very sad, but we had to say goodbye to the Christian leaders of Ephesus. Then Paul and the rest of us got on the ship, and we sailed to the island called Cos. The next day, we sailed to the island called Rhodes. And then, the next day, we sailed to the town called Patara, and we stopped there. <sup>2</sup> That ship wasn't going to Fonisha country, so we got off it and got on another ship. <sup>3</sup> We sailed on that ship until we could see the island called Cyprus, and we went past it, on its south side, and we kept sailing until we got to Syria country. Then the ship stopped at a town called Tyre, and they started to unload it there.

Christians told Paul not to go to Jerusalem, but he kept going anyway

<sup>4</sup> While the ship was at Tyre for the workers to unload it, we got off it, and we found the Christians there, and we stayed with them for 7 days. God's Holy Spirit told those Christians to tell Paul, "Don't go to Jerusalem." So they told him that, but Paul wanted to keep going to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> The ship workers finished unloading the ship, and then it was time for it to leave, so we went back to the sea shore to get on the ship. All the Christian men, and their wives and kids, they all went with us to the sea shore. We all got down on our knees there on the sand, to show respect to God, and we prayed. <sup>6</sup> After that, we said goodbye to those other Christians, then we got on the ship, and the others went back to their homes.

Paul left Tyre and went to Caesarea

<sup>7</sup> We left Tyre on that ship, and we sailed to a town called Tolemayis. There were Christians in that town too, so we went and said hello to them, and we stayed with them that night. <sup>8</sup> The next day, we got back on the ship, and we left Tolemayis and sailed to the town called Caesarea. We left the ship there and went to Philip's place, and we stayed with him. He was a man that was always telling other people how to become followers of Jesus. (A few years before this, the Christians in Jerusalem picked 7 men to take care of the Christian widows, and Philip was one of those men.* <sup>9</sup> He had 4 daughters that were not married. Each of them had power from the Holy Spirit to tell God's special messages to people.)

The Christians couldn't stop Paul going to Jerusalem

<sup>10</sup> A few days later, a Christian man came there from Judea country. His name was Agabus. He had power from the Holy Spirit to tell God's special messages to people.* <sup>11</sup> He came to us, and he took off Paul's belt. Then he tied his own feet and hands together with it and said, "The Holy Spirit says this, 'See the man that owns this belt. The Jewish leaders in Jerusalem will tie him up, just like this, and they will give him as a prisoner to the people that are not Jews.'"

<sup>12</sup> The rest of us heard him say that, then we all talked really strongly to Paul. We said, "Please don't go to Jerusalem."

<sup>13</sup> But Paul said, "Stop crying and trying to make me change my mind. Stop telling me not to go to Jerusalem. I work for our leader Jesus, so I'm ready for people to put me in prison in Jerusalem, and I'm even ready for them to kill me."

<sup>14</sup> Then we knew that Paul wouldn't listen to us, so we stopped trying to tell him not to go to Jerusalem. We just said, "All right. We want our leader, Jesus, to do whatever he wants to do."

Paul went on to Jerusalem

<sup>15</sup> After a few days we got ready and left Caesarea, and we went to Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup> Some of the Christians from Caesarea went with us too. They took us to stay in the house of Mason. He was a man from Cyprus Island. He was a Christian for a long time. He became a Christian when people were first starting to hear the message about Jesus.

<sup>17</sup> After we arrived in Jerusalem the Christians there were happy to see us and say hello to us.

Paul agreed to do a Jewish ceremony

<sup>18</sup> The next day, we went with Paul to talk to James, one of the Christian leaders. All of the other Christian leaders in Jerusalem were there too. <sup>19</sup> Paul said hello to them, and then he told them about all of the things that God helped him do in the countries of the people that are not Jews. <sup>20</sup> After they heard his story, James and the other leaders said to God, "Thank you God. You are great."

* 21:8 Acts 6:5; 8:5 * 21:10 Acts 11:28

Then they said to Paul, "Listen, brother, there are thousands of Jewish people here that believe in Jesus, and they are very careful to do everything in the law that Moses gave us. <sup>21</sup> But we have heard people say that you tell the Jewish Christians in those other countries to stop following our law. Those people reckon you tell Jewish people not to do a young man operation on their sons, and they reckon you tell Jewish people to stop doing other things from our culture. Look, we know their story isn't true, <sup>22</sup> but some of the other Jewish people here believe that story about you. And those people will hear that you came here, and they might be angry with you. So you need to do something to show everyone that the story they heard about you is not true.

<sup>23</sup> So listen. Do this to show everyone that story is not true. You see, there are 4 men among us that have promised something to God, so they have to buy things to do a ceremony to make themselves clean. <sup>24</sup> So you join those men, and go with them to God's ceremony house, and do that ceremony with them, and pay for the things they buy. Then they can shave their heads. That's our culture, to show that they have done everything they promised to do. And the people will see you do all that with those men at God's ceremony house, and they will know that the things people told them about you are not true, and they will know that you do everything in our Jewish law and culture.* <sup>25</sup> We leaders know that the Christians that are not Jews don't have to do everything in our Jewish law, and we wrote them a letter about it. But we told them,

- If somebody reckons that a statue is a god, and if they give food to that statue to show respect to it, don't eat any of that food.
- And don't eat the blood of animals.
- And if somebody holds an animal's neck really tight to kill it, don't eat meat from that animal.
- And don't sleep with somebody that you are not married to, as if they are your wife or husband.

That's what we wrote in our letter.*

<sup>26</sup> Paul listened to everything they said, and he agreed to do that ceremony with those 4 men. The next day, he got them together, and they started to do the ceremony to make themselves clean. After that, Paul went to God's ceremony house, and he told the leader of the Jewish ceremonies the date they will finish that ceremony and give animals to God for each of them, the way they do in Jewish culture.

Some Jews grabbed Paul

<sup>27-29</sup> Paul and the other 4 men had to do that ceremony for 7 days to make themselves clean. Just before it finished, Paul walked along the road with a man that was not a Jew. His name was Trofimus. Some Jewish people from Asia country saw them together, and they thought that Paul took Trofimus into God's ceremony house, and that was against their Jewish law. The next day, Paul went back to God's ceremony house, and those Asia Jews saw him there. They called out to the other Jews there. They shouted, "You Jewish men, come and help us punish this man. This is the man that teaches people everywhere to rubbish us Jewish people, and our law, and he tells them not to respect this ceremony house. He even brought a man that is not a Jew into it, so now it is not clean any more." Then all those Jewish people got angry with Paul, and they grabbed him.*

<sup>30</sup> A lot of people everywhere in that city heard that there was trouble in God's ceremony house, and they ran there. They all grabbed Paul and dragged him outside. Then straight away, the guards shut the gates of God's ceremony house.

Roman soldiers stopped the mob from killing Paul <sup>31</sup> That mob started hitting Paul, trying to kill him. Somebody went to the big Roman boss and said, "The people in Jerusalem are going wild." <sup>32</sup> So he quickly got a big mob of soldiers, and some boss soldiers, and they all ran to the mob that was hitting Paul. The mob saw the Roman soldiers and their big boss, so they stopped hitting Paul.

The soldiers took Paul to their big house

<sup>33</sup> Then the big boss told his soldiers to grab Paul and tie him up with 2 chains. Then he asked that mob, "Who is this man, and what did he do?"

<sup>34</sup> Some of the people there started shouting one thing, and some of them started shouting something else, and they kept on shouting really loud. There was too much noise, and the big boss soldier couldn't understand them. So he told the soldiers, "Take him into your big house."

<sup>35</sup> Then the soldiers took Paul away, and a lot of people followed them. Those people were trying to hit Paul all the time. The soldiers got to the steps of their big house, and the boss told them to carry Paul up the steps into their house. <sup>36</sup> The mob kept on shouting, "Kill him. Kill him."

* 21:24 Numbers 6:13-21 * 21:25 Acts 15:29 * 21:27-29 Acts 20:4

<sup>37</sup> The soldiers started to take him into their house, but Paul talked to the boss in the Greek language. He said, "Can I talk to you?"

The boss said, "Can you talk Greek?" <sup>38</sup> I reckon you are that man from Egypt country, that fights against us Romans. You got lots of other men to join you, and you took 4,000 of those men to the desert to get ready to fight us. We call you mob the Murderers, because you are always killing people. Am I right? You are that man from Egypt, right?"

<sup>39</sup> Paul said, "I'm not that man. I am a Jew from Tarsus, and Tarsus is an important town in Cilicia country. Please, can I talk to these people?"

<sup>40</sup> The boss said, "All right. You can talk to them."

So Paul stood on the steps and held up his hand to get everyone to be quiet, and after they all stopped shouting, Paul talked to them in their own language, called Hebrew.

22

Paul told the mob his story

<sup>1</sup> Paul said, "You mob are Jewish, and I am Jewish. I respect you like you are my family. Please listen to me now while I tell you that I haven't done anything wrong."

<sup>2</sup> All those people heard Paul talking to them in their own Hebrew language, so they settled down and became quiet, and they listened to him.

Then Paul said to them, <sup>3</sup> "I am a Jew, just like you. I was born in Tarsus, in Cilicia country, but I grew up here in Jerusalem. I was a young man here, and I learned all our laws. You know Gamaliel. You know he is a really good teacher, right? Well, he taught me all the laws that Moses gave to our grand-fathers. And I wanted to always do everything God says, so I never broke any of those laws. I'm sure that all you mob properly follow those laws too.* <sup>4</sup> And I used to hurt anyone that followed Jesus, all those people that belonged to the Jesus Way mob. Whenever I found them, I grabbed them and put them in jail. I did that to men and women. I wanted to kill those people.*"

<sup>5</sup> The big boss of our Jewish ceremonies knows that, and so do the other men that belong to our Jewish Leaders Council. They gave me letters to take to our Jewish countrymen in Damascus. Those letters said that it was all right for me to grab the Christians there, and tie them up, and bring them to Jerusalem, for our leaders here to punish them.

So I got some other men to join me, and we were going along the road to Damascus. <sup>6</sup> In the middle of the day, we were getting close to Damascus, and suddenly a bright light from the sky shined all around me. <sup>7</sup> The light was so bright that I fell down to the ground. Then I heard the voice of somebody talking to me from the sky. He said, 'Saul. Saul. Why are you making trouble for me and hurting me?'

<sup>8</sup> I asked him, 'Who are you, boss?'

He said, 'I am Jesus, from Nazareth. You are making trouble for me and hurting me.'

<sup>9</sup> The men that were with me saw that very bright light, and they heard that voice, but they didn't understand the words that the voice said to me. <sup>10</sup> Then I said, 'What do you want me to do, boss?'

He said, 'Get up and go into Damascus. A man there will tell you everything that I picked you to do.' <sup>11</sup> That light was so bright it made me blind. I couldn't see, so the men with me held my hand and took me into Damascus. <sup>12</sup> A Jewish man lived in that town. He respected God, and he properly followed our Jewish laws. His name was Ananias. All the Jewish people living in Damascus said that he was a good man. <sup>13</sup> He came to me and stood beside me, and he said to me, 'My friend Saul, look up. You will see again now.' So I looked up, and straight away, I could see again. And I saw him standing there beside me. <sup>14</sup> Then he said, 'The God that we respect, and that our grand-fathers respected, he picked you, and he will show you everything he wants you to do. You will see the man that is properly good, and you will hear him talking to you. <sup>15</sup> He wants you to tell everyone that you saw him, and that you heard him talk to you. <sup>16</sup> So now, don't wait. Stand up, and I will baptise you. Pray to our leader, Jesus, and ask him to wash you properly inside, so God will not punish you for all the bad things you did.' That's what Ananias said to me."

Paul said that he had to go to people that are not Jews

<sup>17</sup> Paul kept on talking to that mob. He said, "After that, I went back to Jerusalem. One day, I went to God's ceremony house. While I was praying there, I had something like a dream. <sup>18</sup> I saw my leader, Jesus, and he was talking to me. He said, 'Don't stay here. Leave Jerusalem now. The people here will not believe anything you tell them about me.'

<sup>19</sup> I said to him, 'But, sir, they know me. They know that I went to a lot of our meeting houses looking for people that believed in you, and I beat them up, and I put them in jail. <sup>20</sup> The people here know about Stephen too. He told people about you, and they killed him. And I stood there watching them kill him, and I agreed with them. I even looked after the coats of the men that were killing him. The Jerusalem people know all that, so I reckon they will believe my story.*

<sup>21</sup> But our leader, Jesus, said to me, 'No, don't stay here. Leave Jerusalem. You see, I'm sending you a long way from here. I'm sending you to people that are not Jews.' "

<sup>22</sup> The mob listened quietly to Paul until he said that. You see, they didn't like the people that were not Jews, so when they heard him talk about those people, that mob got very angry. They started shouting, "Kill him. Don't let this sort of man stay alive on this earth."

Paul told the soldiers he was a Roman, so they didn't whip him

<sup>23</sup> The mob kept on shouting, "Kill him." And they took off their coats, and they threw dirt into the air, to show that they were very angry.

<sup>24</sup> So the big boss soldier told his soldiers, "Take Paul into your big house and hit him with a whip so he will tell us why that mob are shouting at him."

The soldiers took Paul into their house, <sup>25</sup> then they stretched out his arms and tied them so that they could whip his back. But Paul talked to the boss soldier that was standing there. He said, "Wait. I'm a Jew, but I'm a Roman too. My name is on the list of all the Roman people. But you didn't take me to court, and no judge said that I'm guilty, so if you whip me, you will be breaking the Roman law."

<sup>26</sup> That boss soldier heard what Paul said, then he went to the big boss soldier and told him about Paul. He said, "This man is not just a Jew, he is a Roman too. Do you really want us to whip him?"

<sup>27</sup> The big boss soldier was shocked. He went to Paul and said, "Tell me, are you really a Roman?"

Paul said, "Yes, I am."

<sup>28</sup> Then the big boss soldier said, "I'm a Roman too. I paid a lot of money to get the men in a Roman office to write my name on the list of all the Roman people, to make me a Roman."

Paul said, "I've been a Roman all my life. They wrote my name in that book as soon as I was born."

<sup>29</sup> Those soldiers that were going to whip Paul, they heard him say that he was a Roman, so they left him. The big boss soldier was frightened too. He remembered that he told the soldiers to tie Paul's arms and whip him, and it was against the law for him to do that to a Roman.

The big boss soldier took Paul to the Jewish Leaders Council

<sup>30</sup> The big boss over the soldiers still wanted to know why the Jewish leaders were blaming Paul, so the next day he talked to the bosses of the Jewish ceremonies, and to the other Jewish Leaders Council men. He told them to have a meeting. Then he took Paul to that meeting, and he took off his chains, and he told Paul to stand up in front of them, to listen to what they say, and to tell his story to answer them.

23

A Jewish boss got angry with Paul

<sup>1-2</sup> One of the men at the Jewish Leaders Council meeting was the big boss of the Jewish ceremonies. His name was Ananias. Paul stood up in front of Ananias and all the men at the Jewish Leaders Council meeting, and he looked straight at them, and said, "My brothers, I have respected our God all my life, and I have always done whatever I reckoned was right."

As soon as Paul said that, Ananias told the men that were near Paul to hit him on the mouth.

<sup>3</sup> Then Paul said to Ananias, "God will punish you for that. You reckon that you are a good man, but you are not a good man. You sit there to judge me using our law, but you don't follow that law yourself. Nobody showed you that I did anything wrong, but you told these men to hit me."*

<sup>4</sup> The men that were standing near Paul said, "You are saying something bad to God's man, the big boss of our Jewish ceremonies. You can't do that."

<sup>5</sup> Paul said, "I'm sorry, friends. I didn't know that he is the big boss of our Jewish ceremonies. I know that Moses wrote in our Jewish law, 'Don't say bad things about your people's big boss.' ">*

* 22:20 Acts 7:58 * 23:3 Matthew 23:27-28 * 23:5 Exodus 22:28

The soldiers took Paul away from the Jewish Leaders Council

<sup>6-8</sup> Some of the Jewish Leaders Council were men that belonged to the Sadducee mob, and others belonged to the Pharisee mob. The Sadducee mob believed that after people die, they will never become alive again. And they believed that there are no spirits, not even God's angel messengers. But the Pharisee mob believed that all of those things are true, and they were strong for the Jewish law. Paul worked out that some of those council men were from the Sadducee mob, and some of them were from the Pharisee mob, so he shouted out loud to them. He said, "My friends, I'm a Pharisee man, like my father was. I believe that after people die, one day God will make them alive again. That's the reason why I'm here in this court."*

As soon as Paul said that, the Pharisee mob and Sadducee mob started to argue with each other. <sup>9</sup> The council split up into 2 mobs and started shouting at each other. Some of the teachers of the Jewish law were from the Pharisee mob. They stood up and said, "We reckon this man hasn't done anything wrong. Maybe an angel or some other spirit talked to him. That's all right."

<sup>10</sup> Then those 2 mobs argued with each other and got really wild, and the big boss soldier thought, "They are going to tear Paul to bits." So he told his soldiers, "Go and save Paul from those council men, and take him back to your big house." So the soldiers did that.

Jesus told Paul that he will go to Rome

<sup>11</sup> That night, Paul saw Jesus come and stand near him, and Jesus said to him, "Be brave, Paul. You told people here in Jerusalem about me, and you have to tell people in Rome about me too."

Some men said, "We will kill Paul"

<sup>12</sup> The next morning, some of those Jewish men met together secretly and thought about a way to kill Paul. Then they promised God, "We will not eat or drink anything until we kill Paul. If we break this promise and don't kill Paul, then, God, you can kill us." <sup>13</sup> There were more than 40 men in that mob.

<sup>14</sup> They went to the Jewish ceremony bosses and the Jewish elders and told them, "We promised God that we will not eat or drink anything until we kill Paul. <sup>15</sup> So we want you to go to the big boss soldier and say to him, "The Jewish Leaders Council wants to ask Paul some more questions. Can you bring him to our meeting house?" But we will hide beside the road, and when they bring Paul along that road, we will jump up and kill him."

A young man talked to the boss soldier

<sup>16</sup> But the son of Paul's sister heard what those Jews were going to do, so he went into the big house of the soldiers and told Paul about it. <sup>17</sup> Then Paul called out to one of the boss soldiers and said, "Please take this young man to your big boss. He has some news to tell him."

<sup>18</sup> So that soldier took him to his big boss and said, "That prisoner, Paul, asked me to take this young man to you. He has some news to tell you."

<sup>19</sup> The big boss soldier held the young man's hand and took him away from the other people, and then he asked him, "What is the news you have for me?"

<sup>20</sup> The young man said, "The Jewish leaders will ask you to take Paul to their council place tomorrow. They will tell you they want to ask him some more questions. But that is not true. <sup>21</sup> Don't do what they will ask you to do. There are more than 40 men that will hide beside that road and wait for Paul to come along, so they can grab him and kill him. They even promised God that they will not eat or drink anything until they kill Paul. They are ready right now. They are just waiting for you to agree to do what they want."

<sup>22</sup> The big boss soldier said to the young man, "You can go home now, but don't tell anyone that you told me this news."

A lot of soldiers took Paul to a safe place

<sup>23-24</sup> Then the big boss soldier got 2 other boss soldiers and told them, "You have to take Paul north to Caesarea town tonight. Take him to Felix, the government boss of this country. And you have to keep him safe. So get 200 soldiers ready to go with you. And get ready 70 soldiers that ride horses, to go there with you too. And get ready 200 soldiers that use spears, and they can go with you too. And get horses for Paul too. All of you have to be ready to leave at 9 o'clock tonight."

<sup>25</sup> Then that big boss soldier wrote a letter for them to take with them to that government boss. He wrote,

I am Claudius Lisisias. I'm writing to you, Felix. You are the government boss over this country, and I respect you. I hope you are good and happy.

<sup>27</sup> I'm sending this man, Paul, to you. Some Jews grabbed him, and they were going to kill him, but somebody told me that he is a Roman, so I got my soldiers, and we saved him. <sup>28</sup> Then I wanted to know about the bad thing those Jews blamed him for, so I took him to their Leaders Council. <sup>29</sup> I found out that they only blamed him for things in their Jewish law. He has not broken any of our Roman laws, so it is not right for us to kill him or put him in jail.

* 23:6-8 Matthew 22:23; Mark 12:18; Luke 20:27; Acts 26:5; Philipians 3:5

<sup>30</sup> And right now somebody told me that some Jews are planning secretly to kill Paul, so I'm sending him to you. I reckon you can judge him properly there. And I told the Jews that want to blame him, 'Go and do that in the court at Caesarea.'

That is the letter that the big boss soldier wrote to Felix.

<sup>31</sup> So the soldiers did everything that their big boss told them to do. They got Paul and took him with them. That night, they stayed at a town called Antipatris.

<sup>32</sup> The next day, the soldiers that didn't ride horses went back to their big house in Jerusalem, and the soldiers on horses kept going with Paul. <sup>33</sup> After they got to Caesarea on their horses, they took Paul to Felix, the government boss, and they gave Felix the letter.

<sup>34</sup> Felix read the letter, and then he asked Paul, "What country are you from?"

Paul said, "I'm from Cilicia country."

<sup>35</sup> Then Felix said, "The people that are blaming you will come here, and I will listen to them, and I will listen to you too, and then I will say if you are guilty or not." And he told the soldiers, "Put Paul in the jail in the big house called Herod's House."

24

The Jewish leaders blamed Paul in Felix's court

<sup>1</sup> Then, 5 days later, the Jewish leaders from Jerusalem came to Caesarea. One of them was Ananias, the big boss of the Jewish ceremonies, and another one was Tertullus, a lawyer. And there were some Jewish elders in that mob too.

They went to the court house of Felix, the government boss, and they told him that Paul did bad things. <sup>2-3</sup> So Felix told a soldier, "Bring Paul into this court house."

Then Tertullus started to blame Paul. He said to Felix, "You have been our government boss for a long time, and you have been a good boss for us. You have made a lot of things good in this country, and we have been happy all the time, with no trouble. So we just want to thank you for everything that you do for us all the time. <sup>4</sup> But now, I don't want to take up too much of your time, so I'm asking you to listen to me for a little while. <sup>5</sup> You see, this man is a trouble maker. He makes trouble everywhere he goes. He gets the Jewish people angry everywhere, and they go wild. He is the leader of the Nazarene mob. <sup>6-7</sup> He even tried to do things in God's ceremony house that are against our law. So we grabbed him. <sup>8</sup> If you ask him questions, you will find out for yourself that everything we are telling you is true."

<sup>9</sup> The other Jewish leaders blamed Paul too, and they reckoned that everything Tertullus said was true.

Paul said that the Jewish leaders were wrong

<sup>10</sup> Then Felix, the government boss, let Paul know that it was his turn to talk.

So Paul said, "I know that you have been a judge in this country for a long time, so I'm happy to tell you the true story.

<sup>11</sup> You can check on my story, and you will find out that it was just 12 days ago that I went to Jerusalem to show respect to God. You know, 12 days is not enough time for me to make a lot of trouble. <sup>12</sup> This mob didn't see me do anything wrong. I wasn't arguing with anyone, and I wasn't making people angry or wild. I didn't do those things at God's ceremony house, or in a Jewish meeting house, or anywhere in Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> They can't show you that the things they say are true.

<sup>14</sup> But I can tell you this, I do show respect to the God that our Jewish people respect, the God that our grand-fathers respected a long time ago. It is true that I'm with the mob called the Jesus Way mob. The Jewish leaders say that we are wrong, but that is not true. And I believe everything in God's book. I keep our law, and I believe everything that God got his men to write in his book. <sup>15</sup> You know, these Jewish leaders here believe that one day God will make all the dead people come alive again, both the people that were good and the people that were bad. And I believe that too. <sup>16</sup> So I always try to do whatever God wants, and I always try to do whatever other people want too. You see, I want to feel good about everything I do.

<sup>17</sup> Let me tell you what happened. A few years ago I went to some other countries, and then a few days ago I got back to Jerusalem. I brought some money with me to give to poor people there, and I wanted to show respect to God by giving things to him at his ceremony house.* <sup>18</sup> And I did the ceremony to make myself clean. Some Jewish people saw me there at God's ceremony house. But I was by myself. There was no mob of people with me, and I was not getting anyone to go wild. <sup>19</sup> It was some other Jews from Asia country that made the people go wild. If those Asia Jews really thought I did something wrong, why didn't they come here to blame me in front of you? I reckon they know their story isn't true. <sup>20</sup> And this mob here, they had me in their Jewish court in Jerusalem. But can they tell you that they found me guilty of something? No. I told them my story, and they didn't say that I was guilty of anything. <sup>21</sup> But there is one thing that I said in that court that made them angry. I shouted, 'You are judging me today because I believe that God will make all the dead people become alive again.' That's all."*

Felix stopped the court to wait for the big boss soldier to come

<sup>22</sup> Then Felix stopped the court. You see, he already knew a lot about the Christian people, the Jesus Way mob. Felix said to the people in the court, "Lisias will come here later. He is the big boss over the soldiers in Jerusalem. And after I listen to his story I will say if Paul is guilty or not."

<sup>23</sup> Then he told the boss soldier, "Take Paul back to the jail and make sure that he stays there, but don't tie him up. And let his friends come to visit him, to look after him."

Felix wanted Paul to give him money to let him go free

<sup>24</sup> A few days later, Felix came back with his wife. She was a Jewish woman. Her name was Drusilla. Felix told a soldier to bring Paul to them, and they listened to him talk. Paul told them, "We have to believe in Jesus. He is the Christ, the special man that God sent to save us." <sup>25</sup> And Paul told them about the way God wants people to live. He said that God wants us to do what is right, and that he wants us to control ourselves. And Paul told them that God will judge everybody one day.

Felix heard Paul talking about those things, and he got frightened. He said, "Stop, Paul, that's enough for today. You can go back to the jail now. Maybe I will have time to listen to you another day, and then I will get you to come and talk to me again."

<sup>26</sup> Felix hoped that Paul might give him some money to let him get out of jail, so he often sent somebody to get Paul, and he talked with him. But Paul didn't give Felix any money, so Felix didn't let him go.

<sup>27</sup> Felix kept Paul in jail there for 2 years. Then the time came for them to change the boss over that country, and another big boss came to take over from Felix. The name of the new boss was Porcius Festus. Felix wanted to keep the Jewish leaders happy, so he didn't let Paul go out of jail. Paul was still in jail there when Festus took over.

25

Festus said that he will judge Paul in Caesarea

<sup>1</sup> Festus started to be the new government boss over that country, then 3 days later, he left Caesarea and went to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> The bosses of the Jewish ceremonies and the other Jewish leaders talked to him there in Jerusalem. They blamed Paul and reckoned he did bad things. <sup>3</sup> Then they asked Festus, "Can you tell your soldiers to bring Paul to Jerusalem right now, and judge him here?" You see, they were going to secretly hide near the road and wait for Paul to come along, then jump up and kill him.

<sup>4</sup> But Festus said, "Paul is in Caesarea, and my soldiers are guarding him there. I'll be going back to Caesarea in a few days, <sup>5</sup> so you pick some of your leaders to come with me. They can blame Paul in my court there."

Paul asked for Caesar, the biggest boss, to judge him

<sup>6</sup> About 8 or 10 days later, the Jewish leaders went with Festus back to Caesarea, and the next day, Festus sat on the judge's seat in the court house there. He told his soldiers, "Bring Paul in now."

<sup>7</sup> They brought Paul into that room, then the Jewish leaders from Jerusalem stood up and blamed him. They told Festus, "Paul did a lot of bad things." But they couldn't show him that their story was true.

<sup>8</sup> Then Paul talked to everyone there and said that he was not guilty. He said, "I haven't done anything wrong. I didn't break the Jewish law, and I didn't break the rules about God's ceremony house, and I didn't break the Roman laws."

<sup>9</sup> But Festus wanted the Jewish leaders to be happy, so he asked Paul, "How about this? I can send you to Jerusalem, and I can judge you there. Will that be all right?"

* 24:21 Acts 23:6

<sup>10</sup> Paul said, "No, I don't want to go to Jerusalem. Look, the biggest Roman boss is Caesar, and he made you the judge here, so this is the right place for you to judge me. You know I didn't do anything wrong to the Jewish people. <sup>11</sup> If I did something bad so that your law says you have to kill me, I will let you kill me. But I didn't do anything bad like that. So nobody can give me to this mob and let them kill me. No. Instead of that, I want you to send me to Caesar, the biggest Roman boss. Then he can judge me in his big city, Rome."

<sup>12</sup> Festus had some special men that always helped him work out what to do, so he talked with them. Then he said to Paul, "All right. You want me to send you to Caesar, and I will do that. I'll send you to Caesar, and he can judge you there in Rome."

Festus told Agrippa about Paul

<sup>13</sup> After a few days, another country's big boss came to Caesarea. His name was Agrippa. And his young sister came with him. Her name was Bernice. They came to say hello to Festus, and to say, "We are happy because you are the new government boss over this country."

<sup>14</sup> While they were there at Caesarea, Festus told Agrippa about Paul. He said, "I want to tell you about a prisoner here. Felix left him in jail here, and I'm not sure what to do with him. <sup>15</sup> You see, I went to Jerusalem, and the Jewish ceremony bosses and elders there, they told me that this man did a lot of bad things. They asked me to say he is guilty, and to tell my soldiers to kill him.

<sup>16</sup> But I told them, 'That's not how we Romans judge people. If somebody blames another person, we don't say that person is guilty until after we get them in front of a judge with the people that are blaming them. And we let that person say why they reckon they are not guilty.'

<sup>17</sup> So those Jewish leaders came here to Caesarea with me. I didn't waste any time. The next day, I sat down on the judge's seat, and I told some soldiers to bring Paul in. <sup>18</sup> The Jewish leaders stood up and blamed him, but they didn't blame him for anything really bad, like I thought they would. <sup>19</sup> They only talked about things that some Jews believe, but that other Jews don't believe. They argued about a dead man that Paul says is alive. His name is Jesus.

<sup>20</sup> I didn't know how to find out the true story, and I didn't know how to judge Paul, so I said to him, 'How about this? I can send you to Jerusalem, and I can judge you there. Will that be all right?'

<sup>21</sup> But Paul said, 'No, I don't want to go to Jerusalem. I want Caesar to judge me, that biggest boss in Rome.' So I told my soldiers to guard Paul here, until I can send him to Caesar."

<sup>22</sup> Then Agrippa said to Festus, "I want to hear that man myself."

Festus said, "All right, I'll let you hear him tomorrow."

Festus wanted Agrippa to help him write a letter about Paul <sup>23</sup> The next day, Agrippa and his young sister Bernice came into the big room that had the judge's seat. There was a lot of ceremony for them as they came in. Some boss soldiers came with them, and the leaders of Caesarea came with them too.

Then Festus told his soldiers, "Bring Paul in here now." So they brought him in.

<sup>24</sup> Then Festus said, "Big Boss Agrippa, and all of you that are here now, look at this man. A lot of Jews in Jerusalem, and the Jews here in Caesarea too, they want me to say that this man is guilty. They shouted at me. They said, 'You have to kill him now.'

<sup>25</sup> So I asked them, 'What did he do?' And I found out that he didn't do anything bad, so we can't kill him. But then he asked me to send him to Rome, for our biggest boss to judge him, so I will send him to Rome. <sup>26</sup> But I can't think of anything to write about him, I don't know any bad things he did to tell our big boss about. So I brought him here. I want you all to hear him tell his story, and I especially want you, Agrippa, to hear him. Then we can ask him some questions, and maybe I will find out something to write about him. <sup>27</sup> You see, I reckon it's not right to send a prisoner to Rome without telling our biggest boss what people are blaming that prisoner for."

26

Paul talked to the big bosses

<sup>1</sup> Then Agrippa said to Paul, "All right, you can talk to us now and tell us your story."

So Paul waved his hand to thank Agrippa, and he started to tell them why he was not guilty. He said, <sup>2-3</sup> "Big Boss Agrippa, I reckon I'm lucky. You know all about the culture of us Jews, and you know the things we argue about, and today you are hearing me talk. I reckon you will understand me. You see, the Jewish leaders are blaming me for a lot of things. So I ask you, please wait and listen to me now."

Paul said that he used to be a Pharisee man

<sup>4</sup> Then Paul said, "A lot of Jewish people know the way I lived from the time I was a young man. They know the way I lived in my home country, and also in Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> They know that I joined the Pharisee mob, and I kept our law properly, like all the Pharisee mob do. Those Jews that are blaming me, they know this, and they can tell you this about me if they want to.*"

<sup>6-7</sup> You see, boss, a long time ago, God promised our grand-fathers that he will do something real good for us Jews. And I reckon God does everything that he says he will do. All of us Jews, in all of our 12 tribes, we are all waiting for God to do the good thing that he promised, and we show respect to him all the time. We all reckon he will do it. But now those Jewish leaders are blaming me for believing that God is doing it. <sup>8</sup> You see, God can make dead people alive again. So why can't any of you people here believe that?"

Paul said that he used to hurt Christians

<sup>9</sup> Paul kept on talking. He said, "You know, at one time I thought I had to stop people from following Jesus, the man from Nazareth. I did a lot of things to try to stop them. <sup>10</sup> I started in Jerusalem. I put a lot of Christians in jail. The bosses of the Jewish ceremonies told me to do that. And if they judged any of those Christians and said, 'Kill them,' I agreed with them, and I said that too. <sup>11</sup> I often punished the Christians that were in the Jewish meeting houses. I tried to get them to say bad things about Jesus.

I was so angry with Jesus's followers that I even went to other towns to get them."*

Paul said that he met Jesus

<sup>12</sup> Paul kept on telling his story. He said, "The bosses of the Jewish ceremonies in Jerusalem said that I can go to Damascus to grab the Christians there, so I started to go to Damascus to look for the Christians. <sup>13</sup> And I'll tell you what happened next, boss. In the middle of the day, while I was going along the road, I saw a bright light in the sky. It was even brighter than the sun. It shined all around me, and all around the men that were with me. <sup>14</sup> We all fell down on to the ground. Then I heard the voice of somebody talk to me in the Hebrew language. He said, 'Saul, Saul, why are you making trouble for me and hurting me? You are hurting yourself too, you know.'

<sup>15</sup> Then I asked, 'Who are you, boss?'

And he said to me, 'I am Jesus. You are making trouble for me and hurting me. Whenever you hurt my followers, you are hurting me too. <sup>16</sup> But stop doing that, and get up, and stand on your feet. Listen, I came to you like this to pick you to be my worker. I want you to tell everyone everywhere about the things you have seen, and tell them about the things that I will show you later. <sup>17</sup> Your own Jewish people will give you trouble, and people that are not Jews will give you trouble too. But I will look after you. You see, I will send you to other countries, to people that are not Jews, <sup>18</sup> and you will tell them the true message about me. It will be like you will open their eyes so that they can see things properly. They will come to God. Then Satan, the big boss over the bad spirits, he will not control them with his power any more. It is like they are always in the dark now, but they will come into the light. They will believe in me, and they will stop believing lies. And then God will say they are not guilty of the bad things they did, and they will be God's people.' Jesus said that to me."

Paul said that he did everything Jesus told him to do

<sup>19</sup> Paul kept on talking to them. He said, "It happened like that, Big Boss Agrippa. Jesus talked to me from heaven, and I did everything he told me to do. <sup>20</sup> I told a lot of people to stop doing bad things and turn to God, and to start doing good things to show that they are following God now. At first I told that message to the Jews in Damascus, then I told it to the Jews in Jerusalem, and I told it to the Jews in Judea country. After that, I told it to people that are not Jews."*

Paul's message is the same as the message in God's book

<sup>21</sup> And Paul said, "I told everyone this message, but some of the Jewish people didn't like it, so they grabbed me, and they tried to kill me. They did that in God's ceremony house.

<sup>22</sup> But God helped me. You see, God helps me all the time, and he is still helping me now. So I'm standing here now, and I'm telling you mob that Jesus is the special man that God promised to send to us, the man that is called the Christ. I'm telling this message to you big bosses, and I'm telling it to all you other people too. This message is already in God's book. I'm only saying things that Moses wrote about a long time ago. God's other men wrote about these things too. <sup>23</sup> They said that people will hurt God's special man, and kill him, but then God will make him alive again. They said that he will be the first person to come alive again after being dead, and that's how he will show everyone that God can save them. He will be like a light for everyone, for both Jewish people, and for people that are not Jews."*

* 26:5 Acts 23:6; Philippians 3:5

* 26:11 Acts 8:3; 22:4-5

* 26:20 Acts 9:20, 28-29

Paul wanted them all to become Christians

<sup>24</sup> While Paul was talking, Festus suddenly shouted, "Paul, you are mad. You have been reading and learning too much, and it made you go mad."

<sup>25</sup> But Paul said, "No, Festus, sir, I'm not mad. I'm talking in a true and sensible way. <sup>26</sup> The other big boss here knows about these things, so I can talk to him, and I know he will understand. You see, people everywhere have heard about Jesus."

<sup>27</sup> Then Paul said, "Boss Agrippa, do you believe the message God's men wrote in his book? Yes, I reckon you do believe it."

<sup>28</sup> Then Agrippa said to Paul, "You have just been talking to me for a little while. You can't get me to become a Christian so quick."

<sup>29</sup> Paul said, "It doesn't matter if it is quick, or if it takes a long time. I'm asking God that you, and everyone here that is listening to me, will become just like I am now. I want you to become Christians. But I don't want anyone to put you in jail for being a Christian, like they did to me."

Agrippa said that Paul has to go to Rome

<sup>30</sup> Then those 2 big bosses stood up, and Bernice, and all the others there, they all got up too, <sup>31</sup> and they all went out of that big room. While they were going out, they said to each other, "This man didn't do anything bad. We don't have to kill him, or even keep him in jail."

<sup>32</sup> Then Agrippa said to Festus, "But you can't let him go free, because he asked you to send him to Rome, so that our biggest boss can judge him there. So you have to send him to Caesar."

27

The Romans started to take Paul to Caesar, their biggest boss

<sup>1</sup> Later on, Festus, the government boss over that country, reckoned it was time for Paul to go to Rome, in Italy country. So he took Paul and some other prisoners to Julius. Julius was the boss over a mob of soldiers that were called the Augustus Mob. Festus told him, "Take all these prisoners to Rome." And they let me, Luke, go with them.

<sup>2</sup> So we got on a ship that came from a town called Adramitium. It was going to sail to some of the towns along the coast of Asia country. Another one of Paul's friends came with us too. His name was Aristarkus. His home town was Thessalonica, in Macedonia country. We all started sailing on that ship, and <sup>3</sup> the next day, we stopped at the town called Sidon. Julius was good to Paul, and he let him go and see his friends there, so they could give him anything he needed. Then Paul came back to the ship.

<sup>4</sup> After that, the ship left Sidon, but the wind was blowing against us, so the ship went along the north side of Cyprus Island, to get away from the wind. <sup>5</sup> Then we crossed over the sea close to the coast of Cilicia country and Pamfilia country, and we got to a town called Myra, in Lisia country. Then we got off the ship there and looked for another ship to take us to Rome, in Italy country.

<sup>6</sup> In Myra, people told Julius, "There is another ship here that came from the town called Alexandria, and it is going to sail to Italy country." So Julius took us to that other ship, and we got on it, and we left Myra.

<sup>7</sup> We sailed slowly for a few days, and then we went close to the coast of Asia country, near a town called Kenidus. After that, the wind got very strong. It didn't let the ship sail straight ahead towards the west, so we sailed towards the south. We sailed along the south side of Crete Island to get away from the wind. We went past Cape Salmone. <sup>8</sup> The wind was still strong, so the ship couldn't sail properly, and we went slowly along the coast of Crete Island until we got to a place called Fair Havens Harbour, near a town called Lasia.

Paul told the ship's men to wait, but they kept going

<sup>9</sup> It took us a long time to get to Fair Havens Harbour. It was already October, and the bad weather was coming soon. If we kept going, we might get big trouble from storms. So Paul talked to the men that looked after the ship. He said, <sup>10</sup> "Listen, men, I reckon that if we keep going, we will get big trouble. I reckon a storm will wreck this ship, and you will lose everything in it, and we might drown too."

<sup>11</sup> But the boss soldier didn't listen to Paul. He listened to the boss of the ship men and the owner of the ship. <sup>12</sup> That place, Fair Havens Harbour, was not a good place to stay in the cold weather time, so most of the men on the ship reckoned we had to leave there and go on a bit further, to a town called Phoenix, and stay there for the cold weather time. The harbour at Phoenix was all right. It was open to the sea in the west, but the strong winds didn't blow from the west in the cold weather time.

* 26:23 Isaiah 42:6; 49:6; 1 Corinthians 15:20

<sup>13</sup> We waited at Fair Havens Harbour until the strong wind stopped. Then a little wind started to blow from the south, and the ship men thought that they could sail the ship to Phoenix, so they lifted the anchor, and sailed west along the southern shore of Crete Island. <sup>14</sup> But after a little while, the wind changed, and a big strong wind blew across the island from the north side, and it pushed the ship to the south, away from the land. (That wind was called the Northeaster.) <sup>15</sup> The ship men couldn't steer the ship the right way. The wind kept on blowing it the wrong way. So they just let the wind take the ship anywhere. <sup>16</sup> The ship was towing a little boat behind it. The sea was very rough, so we wanted to put that little boat up on the deck of the ship, so that it would not get full of water. But the wind was too strong for us to do that. Then we went beside a little island called Cauda. That island blocked the wind, so it wasn't as strong, and we lifted the little boat up out of the water and tied it on to the deck of the ship. There was still a lot of wind, so it was really hard work for us, but we did it.

<sup>17</sup> After that, the ship men tied ropes around the middle of the ship to make it stronger, so the big waves would not break it. The wind was pushing the ship very fast, and the ship men reckoned we might hit the sand-bars near Libya country, and get stuck there, so they got a big bag on a rope, and they threw it out behind the ship and let it drag in the water. This made the ship slow down a bit, but the wind kept on blowing it along. <sup>18</sup> The strong wind and the big waves kept on throwing the ship about. It was very rough. The next day, the ship men wanted to make the ship lighter, so they started to throw away the things that the ship was carrying. <sup>19</sup> On the 3rd day of the storm, the ship men even threw away a lot of the ship's own things, like its sails, and poles.

<sup>20</sup> The wind kept on blowing really hard, and the sky was full of dark clouds all day and all night. We couldn't see the sun or the stars for a long time, so we didn't know where we were. And the wind and the waves kept on throwing us about, and after some time we thought we were going to drown in the sea.

Paul told everybody on the ship that they will not drown

<sup>21</sup> None of us on the ship wanted to eat any food. We didn't eat anything for a long time. Then one day, Paul stood up in front of us and said, "Listen, men, you didn't listen to me in Crete. I told you not to sail out of that little harbour, but you did. So now you are in trouble, and you lost all the things this ship was carrying. <sup>22</sup> But listen. Don't be frightened. I'm telling you that none of us will die. But the wind and the waves will wreck this ship. <sup>23</sup> You see, I work for God, and last night he sent one of his angel messengers to me. He came and stood beside me, <sup>24</sup> and he said, 'Paul, don't be frightened. You have to go and stand in front of Caesar, the big boss in Rome. And God will be good to all the other men that are with you on this ship too. None of them will die.'

<sup>25</sup> Listen friends, don't be frightened. I believe that God will help us, just like that angel told me. <sup>26</sup> But the ship will crash on to an island, and we will all go on to the land there."

Paul stopped the ship men from leaving the ship

<sup>27</sup> We were in that storm for 2 weeks. The wind was still blowing the ship across the water called the Adriatic Sea. Then, in the middle of the night, the ship men thought the ship was getting close to land. <sup>28</sup> So they got a rope with a stone on the end of it and dropped it into the water to find out how deep it was. That stone went down 37 metres into the water, so they knew the water was 37 metres deep. We went a little further, and then they threw the stone out again. This time it only went down 28 metres, so they knew the water was not as deep there. <sup>29</sup> That's how they knew for sure that the ship was getting close to land. Then they got frightened. They thought the ship might smash on to some rocks, so they threw down 4 anchors on ropes from the back of the ship, to stop the ship. They really wanted day-light to come, so they could see the land.

<sup>30</sup> The ship men wanted to leave the ship and get in the little boat, so they lied to everyone. They said, "We are going to drop some anchors from the front of the ship." Then they started to put the little boat down into the sea.

<sup>31</sup> But Paul said to the boss soldier, and to the other soldiers, "If these ship men don't stay on the ship, you will all drown." <sup>32</sup> So the soldiers cut the ropes of the little boat and let it fall down into the water, and the waves took it away.

Paul got them all to eat some food to stay alive

<sup>33</sup> Just before day-light came, Paul tried to get everyone to eat some food. He said, "For the past 14 days you were too worried, and you didn't eat anything. <sup>34</sup> So now I'm telling you, you've got to eat some food, so you will get stronger and stay alive. I know that none of you will drown."

<sup>35</sup> After he said that, while everyone was looking at him, Paul picked up some bread and thanked God for it. Then he broke a bit off and started to eat it. <sup>36</sup> Then the rest of us felt better, so we all ate some food. <sup>37</sup> There were 276 of us on that ship altogether.

<sup>38</sup> Everyone ate as much as they wanted, then they threw all the bags of food out of the ship into the sea, and that made the ship a bit lighter.

The ship started to break up

<sup>39</sup> Then the day-light came, and we saw the land. The ship men didn't know that place, but they could see a bay with a beach, and they reckoned, "Maybe we can steer the ship on to that beach." <sup>40</sup> So they cut the anchor ropes and let the anchors stay in the sea, and at the same time, they untied the rudders, so they could steer the ship again. Then they put up the sail at the front of the ship, and then the wind started to blow the ship towards the land. <sup>41</sup> But half-way there, it hit a sand-bar, not far from the beach. The front of the ship got stuck there, and it didn't go any further. Then the big waves kept on hitting the back of the ship, and they started to break it up.

The boss soldier saved Paul

<sup>42</sup> The soldiers said to their boss, "Let's kill all the prisoners so they can't swim to the beach and run away."

<sup>43</sup> But their boss wanted to save Paul, so he said, "No."

Then he told everybody, "If you can swim, jump into the water now, and swim to the land. You mob go first." <sup>44</sup> After they did that, the other people that couldn't swim grabbed things that float, like bits of broken wood from the back of the ship, and they held on to those things in the water until the waves washed them to the beach. So we all got to that land. None of us drowned.

28

A cheeky snake bit Paul

<sup>1</sup> After we got to the land all right, we found out that it was an island called Malta. <sup>2</sup> The people that lived there were good to us. It was raining, and it was cold, so those people lit a fire and told us, "Come and get warm at this fire."

<sup>3</sup> Paul walked around and picked up some sticks and put them on the fire. But a cheeky snake jumped out from those sticks to get away from the fire, and it bit Paul's hand and just hung on there. <sup>4</sup> The people saw it hanging from Paul's hand, and they knew that it was a cheeky snake, so they said to each other, "I reckon that prisoner murdered somebody. He was lucky in the sea, and he didn't drown, but the god that punishes people will not let him stay alive. That snake will kill him dead."

<sup>5</sup> But Paul just shook the snake until it fell off into the fire, and nothing happened to him. <sup>6</sup> The people watched Paul. They thought, "His body will swell up, or he will fall down dead." But after they waited a long time, they saw that he was still all right. Nothing bad happened to him. So then they changed their minds and said, "This man is a god."

Paul got Jesus to make a lot of people better on Malta Island

<sup>7</sup> The Roman boss over that island was called Publius. He owned some gardens near that beach. He was good to us. He told us to come and stay at his house, so we stayed there for 3 days, and he took care of us.

<sup>8</sup> At that time, Publius's father was very sick. He was just lying on his bed all the time. He was hot with fever, and he had diarrhoea. So Paul went to see him. Then Paul put his hands on him, and he prayed for him, and Publius's father got better.

<sup>9</sup> After Paul did that, all the other sick people on the island came to him, and God made them better too. <sup>10</sup> Then the people there did a lot of things to show us that they thought we were great. And when the time came for us to get ready to sail away on another ship, those people gave us food and other things that we needed.

We all sailed to Putioli, then we kept going by road

<sup>11</sup> There was another ship there that had statues of the twin gods called Castor and Pollux on the front of it. That ship came from the town called Alexandria before the bad weather started, and it stayed on Malta Island until the bad weather was finished. We stayed on Malta Island in that bad weather time too, for about 3 months. Then that ship got ready to go on to Italy country, so we all got on that ship to go to Rome, in Italy country.

<sup>12</sup> We sailed away from Malta Island, and we got to an island called Sicily, and we stopped at a town called Siracuse. We stayed there for 3 days. <sup>13</sup> Then we kept going on that ship, and we got to a town called Regium, in Italy country. The next day, the wind was blowing from behind us and pushing us fast, and the day after that, we got to the town called Putioli. Then we got off there, and we left that ship. <sup>14</sup> We met some Christians in Putioli, and they asked us to stay with them, so we stayed there for a week. Then we left Putioli and started to go along the road to Rome.

Christians came from Rome to meet Paul

<sup>15</sup> Some Christians that lived in Rome heard that we were coming, so they came out from Rome to meet us half-way. Some of them met us at the place called Appius, and some of them met us at the place called the 3 pubs. Paul saw those people, and he felt really good and happy, and he thanked God for them.

<sup>16</sup> Then we all got to Rome. The Roman boss that was in charge of the prisoners there let Paul live in a house by himself, but there was always a soldier there to guard him.

Paul talked to the Jewish leaders in Rome

<sup>17</sup> Paul was in Rome for 3 days, then he sent a message to the Jewish leaders to come and talk with him. So they came, and Paul said to them, "My brothers, I didn't do anything bad to our people, and I didn't say anything bad about our Jewish culture. But our leaders in Jerusalem grabbed me, and they were going to kill me. Then the Roman soldiers came and got me, and they made me their prisoner." <sup>18</sup> The Roman bosses asked me questions in their court, and then they listened to what I said, and they didn't find any reason to kill me. They reckoned that I didn't do anything bad, so they wanted to let me go. <sup>19</sup> But the Jewish leaders didn't agree, so I had to ask those bosses to send me to Caesar, the big boss in Rome, for him to judge me.

But I don't want to blame my own Jewish people about anything.* <sup>20</sup> So I asked you to come here now. I want to meet you, and I want to tell you my story. You see, I believe in the man that we are all waiting for. He is the man that God promised to send to us Israel people. But our leaders of Israel didn't agree with me, and that is the reason why I'm a prisoner now, tied up with this chain." That is what Paul told the Jewish leaders in Rome.

<sup>21</sup> Then they said, "We didn't get any letters about you from our Jewish friends in Judea country. And some people came here from Judea, but none of them said anything bad about you." <sup>22</sup> But we know that people in a lot of places don't agree with the Christians, so we want to hear what you have to say."

<sup>23</sup> Then they talked together and agreed to come back on another day to hear Paul.

Paul said, "People that are not Jews will believe God's message"

When that day came, a lot of Jews came to Paul's house. He started talking with them in the morning, and he kept going all day, until the sun went down. He told them about how God wants to bring people into his family, and he tried to get them to understand that Jesus is the man that God sent to save people. He showed them what God's book says. He talked to them about the words that Moses wrote in God's book, and also the words that God's other men wrote in his book. He showed them that God's men all told messages about Jesus.

<sup>24</sup> Some of them believed Paul's words, but some of them didn't agree with him. <sup>25</sup> So they started to argue with each other, and then they got up to go home. Then Paul told the people that didn't believe his message, "The Holy Spirit said a true word to your grand-fathers, a long time ago. He told God's man, Isaiah, to write this, and it is in God's book. He wrote, <sup>26-27</sup> 'Go to the Jewish people and say, "You keep on hearing God's words with your ears, but you don't understand them properly. It's like your ears are going deaf. You keep on looking with your eyes, and you see God doing things, but you don't understand what you see. It's like you closed your eyes. Your problem is that you don't want to know God's message.

If you do understand God's message properly, you will turn around and come back to him, and then God will not say you are guilty for the bad things you did.

But you mob don't want to come back to God." *

That's what Isaiah wrote."

<sup>28-29</sup> Paul kept on talking to them. He said, "You Jewish people have to understand this. God sent his message to you, but you didn't listen to it. So he is sending that message to the people that are not Jews, and they will listen to it, and believe it." That is what Paul told the Jewish people in Rome that did not believe his message.

* 28:19 Acts 25:11 * 28:26-27 Isaiah 6:9-10

<sup>30</sup> For the next 2 years Paul was a prisoner in Rome, but he was not in jail. They let him stay in the house that he rented. A lot of people came to him, and he was happy to see them and to talk with them. <sup>31</sup> He taught them how God takes people into his family, and he taught them all about our leader Jesus Christ. He wasn't frightened of anyone, and nobody tried to stop him talking to people.

Some important parts of the letter that Paul wrote to the Christians at Rome (From the book in the Holy Bible called Romans) About this letter

Paul wrote this letter about 2,000 years ago, about 20 years after Jesus went back to heaven, and it is now in the Holy Bible.

Paul wrote this letter to the Christians that were living in the city called Rome, in the country called Italy, where Italian people come from. At that time Rome was a very important city.

Some of the Christians in Rome were Jews. That means that they belonged to the same nation as Jesus, and Paul, and most of the other people in the Holy Bible. But some other Christians in Rome were not Jews.

A long time before Paul wrote this letter, God gave a special law to the Jews. He didn't give that law to other people, that were not Jews. But some Christian Jews in Rome thought that God would not save anyone that didn't follow that law. So Paul wrote this letter to tell them that God will save anyone that believes in Jesus. The law is important, but it isn't the way for God to save people.

We have translated the parts of this letter that are important for people that are not Jews, like Indigenous Australians and most of the other people in Australia. We have not yet translated the parts of this book that are mainly talking to Jewish people.

This book has a lot of good messages for everyone, about how God saves people, and about how the Holy Spirit helps them. So it is very important for us today.

<sup>1</sup> I am Paul, and this letter is from me. I work for Jesus Christ, and God picked me to be Jesus's special worker, to go and tell people the good news that he will save them. <sup>2</sup> A long time ago, God promised to do that. He got some of his men to tell people about it, and they wrote about it in God's book. <sup>3-4</sup> That good news is about our leader Jesus Christ. He was born into David's family. David was the big boss of the Jewish nation a long time ago. Jesus was born as a human being into David's family, but really, Jesus is God's own son. God showed us in a powerful way that Jesus is his son. He did it like this. People killed Jesus, but God used his Holy Spirit to make him alive again.

<sup>5</sup> And you know, God is very good to me. He picked me to be Jesus's special worker. He told me to go to people that are not Jews to tell them about Jesus, and get them to believe in him and do whatever he says.

<sup>6</sup> And God wanted you to believe in him and to do what he says too. God picked you, so now you belong to Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup> I'm sending this letter to all you people that belong to God, and that live in the city called Rome. God picked you to follow him, and to be his people.

I'm asking God our father, and Jesus Christ our leader, to be good to you, and to make you feel happy and quiet inside yourselves.

<sup>8</sup> The first thing I want to do is to say thank you to my God. I can talk to God and say thank you because Jesus Christ made us God's friends. I thank God for all of you Christian mob there. You really believe in Jesus now, and people everywhere in the world are talking about how you really trust in Jesus. <sup>9</sup> I pray to God all the time, and I ask him to help you. That's true. God knows it's true. I work hard for God, I tell everyone the good news about his son. <sup>10</sup> Whenever I pray to him, I ask him that, if he agrees, he will let me come and see you soon. <sup>11</sup> I have been waiting for a long time. I really want to see you. I want to help you get more power from God to make you strong. <sup>12</sup> Then I will see how much you trust God and you will see how much I trust God, and that will make all of us happy. <sup>13</sup> You know, friends, I tried to come and see you lots of times, but God stopped me every time. I want to come and work there with you and get more people to follow Jesus, just like I do at other places.* <sup>14</sup> I've got to tell God's word to all sorts of people. I have to tell it to people that have my culture, and to people that have other cultures. I have to tell it to people that can think good and to people that can't think good. I have to tell everybody God's word. <sup>15</sup> So I want to come to Rome and tell God's good news to all you mob there too.

<sup>16</sup> I don't feel any shame about God's good news. It is a really good story because it has God's power in it. Whenever people believe this good news, God saves them. It is the same for everybody, for Jewish people and for people that are not Jews.*

<sup>17</sup> God's good news is this. God saves people that trust him, and he makes them properly good. God says this in his book,

* 1:13 Acts 19:21 * 1:16 Mark 8:38 * 1:17 Habakkuk 2:4

"If you trust God, he will say you are good, and you will really live."*

If we do bad things, it makes God angry

<sup>18</sup> God in heaven gets very angry with people that do bad things. He gets angry whenever they do things against him, and whenever they do bad things to other people. They go against God, but that's not all, they try to stop other people hearing the true story about God. And that makes God very angry.

<sup>19</sup> God clearly shows everybody enough for us to understand the true story about him. Everybody knows about him. <sup>20</sup> Even though we can't see God, we can know about him. If we look at the things he has made, we can know about him, that he is really great and really strong. Ever since he made the world, we can look at everything that he made, and we can know about him from those things. So nobody can say that they don't know about God. <sup>21</sup> The trouble was this. Even though people could work that out about God, they really didn't want to know him. They didn't want to say to him, "Thank you, you really are the true God." They couldn't think properly about him. They could only think in stupid ways. They didn't understand anything.* <sup>22</sup> They told everybody that they could think really good, but they were fools. <sup>23</sup> They didn't respect the wonderful God that never dies, but instead they made models of things that do die. They made things that look like people, or birds, or animals, or snakes, or those sorts of things, and they respected those things. They didn't respect God.*

<sup>24</sup> So God let them go their own way, and they did whatever they felt like doing. They did whatever their dirty minds thought about, so they did bad things with each other's bodies. <sup>25</sup> They didn't want the true story about God. They wanted to believe a lie, and they respected the things that God made instead of respecting God himself. You know, God is really great, and everyone has to tell him, "You are really good." And they have to keep on doing it for ever. Yes, that's right, but people didn't respect God like that.

<sup>26</sup> So, after people turned away from God, he let them do whatever dirty things they thought about. Even women didn't want to sleep with men any more, like wives do with their husbands, but instead they did things with each other that were not normal. <sup>27</sup> And men too did the same sort of thing. They didn't want to sleep with women any more, they wanted to sleep with other men, as if they were women. They did bad things with each other, and that gave them real problems. And those problems were the right thing for them.

<sup>28</sup> You see, they didn't like to even think about God, so he let them think about lots of bad things, and they did all sorts of wrong things. <sup>29</sup> They are very bad, and they are greedy, they want lots of money and things. And they are really horrible. They want to take things that belong to other people. They murder people, they argue, they cheat other people, and they do mean things to people. They gossip, <sup>30</sup> they say bad things about other people, they are cheeky, and they hate God. They think that they themselves are never wrong. They think they are great, and that is what they tell everybody. They always think up new ways to do something bad, and they never respect their parents. <sup>31</sup> They are stupid, they don't do what they say they will do, they don't love anybody, and they never feel sorry for anybody. <sup>32</sup> A long time ago, God said, "Anyone that does these sorts of things has to die." That is true, and those people know that God said that, but they don't take any notice of him. They keep on doing those bad things, and worse still, they push other people to do them.

2

God is the really good judge

<sup>1</sup> And you do those same bad things too. You might try to blame other people, but you are just as bad as them, so if you try to blame them, you really blame yourself.*

<sup>2</sup> And, you know, God will judge people that do bad things, and he knows the true story, so he will judge them the right way.

<sup>3</sup> So if you do the same bad things as the people you blame, God will punish you too.

<sup>4</sup> Think about this. God is very good to you, he doesn't easily get angry with you, and he doesn't punish you straight away for the bad things you do. You know that God is good like that, right? He is good to you. He tries to get you to come back to him and stop doing bad things.

<sup>5</sup> If you don't turn around and come back to God, you just make things worse for yourself. One day, he will get really angry with you. On that day he will judge everybody properly and fairly. <sup>6</sup> God will give each of us the right pay for whatever we have done.* <sup>7</sup> Some people keep on

* 1:21 Ephesians 4:17-18

* 1:23 Deuteronomy 4:16-18

* 2:1 Matthew 7:1; Luke 6:37

* 2:6 Psalm 62:12;

doing good things, and later on God will be good to them. They want to make God happy, so they listen to him, and they do the good things he tells them to do. Later on, he will give them life that never ends. They will live with him forever.<sup>8</sup> But he will get really angry with selfish people that don't want to know the true story but just want to do bad things.<sup>9-11</sup> And God will not treat one sort of people any better than all the others. It will be the same for Jewish people and for people that are not Jewish. God will punish everyone that does bad things, he will punish Jewish people that do bad things and people that are not Jewish that do bad things. They will all get very big trouble. But God will do good to everyone that does good things, Jewish people and people that are not Jewish. God will make them great. They will feel happy and quiet inside themselves, and everybody will respect them.*

<sup>12</sup> God gave the law to the Jewish people, so they know that law, and if they do bad things, God will punish them the way that law says. And the same too for people that are not Jewish, if they do bad things, he will punish them.<sup>13</sup> It doesn't matter if you know that law or not, if you do good things, God will tell you, "You are all right."<sup>14</sup> There are people that aren't Jewish, but sometimes they do good things just like the law says. They don't have that law, but they know in their minds what is right and what is wrong.<sup>15</sup> They show that God wrote his law inside them. They feel bad whenever they do something that is wrong, but sometimes they do something that is right, and it makes them feel good.<sup>16</sup> God sees everything that everybody does and everything that everybody thinks. Nobody can hide anything from him. One day, God will get Jesus Christ to judge everybody about these things. That is the message that I tell everybody.

(The next part, 2:17—3:8, mainly talks to Jewish people, so we have not translated it yet.)

3

Nobody is really good

<sup>9</sup> So what about those of us that are Jewish people? Will God be more good to us than to other people? No way. Both Jewish people and other people do bad things, just like I already said.<sup>10</sup> It is like God says in his book, "Nobody is really good, not even one person, <sup>11</sup> nobody understands about God, nobody even tries to get to know him.

not even one of them does good things.*

<sup>13</sup> They say things that make big trouble for other people, whenever they talk, they tell lies and trick people.

Their words hurt people, their mouths are just as bad as cheeky snakes.*

<sup>16</sup> Wherever they go, they hurt people and make them really sad.

<sup>18</sup> They don't respect God or take any notice of him."*

<sup>19-20</sup> You know, it's like this. God gave his law to the Jewish people for them to follow. And God is the judge of everybody in the whole world. And nobody has kept all of that law, so nobody can argue with him. Nobody can tell God, "I have kept all those laws, so I'm all right. You can't punish me." We can't say that, because we all broke that law at some time.*

So why is the law there? It is there just to let us know that we always go wrong. That's what it is there for.

If we believe in Jesus, God says we are all right

<sup>21-22</sup> But now it is different. God showed us a different way. And if we follow his way, he will be happy with us and say that we are all right. His way is not about that law, it is about us trusting Jesus Christ. God tells us about this in his book. God says that if we trust in Jesus, he will save us. It doesn't matter who we are. God treats everybody the same.*<sup>23</sup> We all went the wrong way, and we did bad things. Nobody is properly good, like God wants us to be.<sup>24</sup> But Jesus Christ died for us. He took the payback for those bad things that we did. So now God is really good to us, and he says that we are all right now, and he will not blame us any more. And we don't have to pay anything.<sup>25</sup> God sent Jesus to die for us, so that, if we believe

* 2:9-11 Deuteronomy 10:17 * 3:12 Psalm 14:1-3; 53:1-3 * 3:13 Psalm 5:9; 140:3 * 3:14 Psalm 10:7

* 3:17 Isaiah 59:7-8 * 3:18 Psalm 36:1 * 3:19-20 Psalm 143:2; Galatians 2:16 * 3:21-22 Galatians 2:16

that Jesus died for us, God isn't angry with us any more. Jesus let people kill him, and his blood came out, so now, if we trust him, God says we are all right. That shows that God was right and fair in the past, at those times when he didn't punish people for the bad things they did. <sup>26</sup> And it shows that he is fair at this time now, when he tells everyone that believes in Jesus that they are all right now.

<sup>27</sup> So none of us can talk up big about anything that we ever did. The only thing that matters is this, we believe in Jesus. <sup>28</sup> It is like this. We believe in Jesus, so God tells us, "You are all right now." But if we only think about that law and try to do the things it says, God will not tell us that we are all right.

<sup>29</sup> So now, what do you reckon? Is God just the God of the Jewish people, or is he the God of other people that are not Jews too? Of course he is God of both. He is God for the people that are not Jewish as well as for the Jews. <sup>30</sup> There is only one God. He makes Jewish people all right if they believe in Jesus, and he makes other people all right if they believe in Jesus too.*

<sup>31</sup> So what do you reckon about God's law? We believe in Jesus now, so do we have to forget everything God said in his law? No way. If we believe in Jesus, we agree that the law is from God.

(The next part, 4:1-12, mainly talks to Jewish people, so we have not translated it yet.)

Abraham believed God

<sup>13</sup> Remember that story about Abraham, that old man that lived a long time ago. God promised him that one day the people born into his family would be great people everywhere in the world. And Abraham believed that word that God promised him. Abraham didn't have the law at that time. He just believed God, and then God said that Abraham was good, and God promised to look after his family.* <sup>14</sup> So don't think that God only promises good things to people that follow the law of Moses. Nobody can follow that law properly, so if God only promised good things to people that follow the law, nobody would get those good things. And if God only promised good things to people that follow the law, it wouldn't matter if people trust

God or not. But really, God is not like that. He promises good things to people that trust him.*

<sup>15</sup> People try to follow that law, but they can't do it, and whenever they break that law, God gets angry with them and punishes them. So all the law does is give us trouble. (The only way people will not break the law is if there is no law to break.)

<sup>16</sup> So it is important that we trust God, just like Abraham trusted God. It doesn't matter if we are Jewish or not Jewish. If we believe God, like Abraham did, we belong to his family, like he is our grand-father.* <sup>17</sup> God promised that a long time ago, and it is in his book. God told Abraham, "I will make you the father of lots of nations." Abraham believed that God can do that. You know, God can do anything. He can even make dead people alive again, and he can make new things out of nothing.*

<sup>18</sup> Everyone reckoned that Abraham was too old to have any kids, but he believed that God was going to make him the father of lots of nations. God promised Abraham that later on lots of people were going to be born into his family and they were going to be a real big mob.* <sup>19</sup> Abraham kept on believing God, and he waited for God to do that, just like he promised. Abraham knew that his body was old. It was so old it was nearly dead. He was about 100 years old. And Sarah, his wife, she was also too old to have a baby. But Abraham kept on believing anyway.* <sup>20</sup> He didn't start thinking, "Maybe God will not keep his promise after all." No, he kept on believing, and that made him strong, so that he could tell everyone that God is good. <sup>21</sup> He just thought, "I know that God will do whatever he promised."

<sup>22</sup> So God said to Abraham, "Now I'm saying you are properly good, like you never did anything wrong"*

<sup>23</sup> That's in God's book. God told his men to write it there, but they didn't write it just for Abraham. <sup>24</sup> They wrote it for us too, so we can be sure about this. If we really trust God, he will also tell us, "You are properly good." You know, our leader Jesus died, but after that God made him alive again. <sup>25</sup> It was us who did bad things, but God let people kill Jesus instead of us. He took the payback for those bad things we did. Then God made him alive again, so now God tells us, "You are all right."*

5

God makes us his friends

<sup>1-2</sup> So we believe in Jesus now, and God says we are all right, and he will not punish us. God is really good to us. Jesus Christ, our leader, did all that for us. Now we can be happy and think about how good it will be for us later, when we will be with God. God will show us how great he is, and he will make us great too. <sup>3</sup> We can be happy now too, even if things go wrong for us and we get trouble. We know that God lets us get trouble to make us strong, so that we will learn how to keep on believing, even if we have problems. <sup>4</sup> And after we learn to keep on believing, then we will become better people. And after we become better people, we can think about the time that will come, the time when everything will be good for us. <sup>5</sup> And we can be sure that God will be good to us then, because he already gave us the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is in us, so we know that God loves us.

<sup>6</sup> Jesus Christ died for us while we were still really weak. At that time, we didn't care about God at all. But Jesus came, just at the right time, and he died instead of us. <sup>7</sup> You know, people don't usually agree to die instead of somebody else, not even instead of a good person. Maybe there is somebody that would die to save a really good person. <sup>8</sup> But Jesus Christ died for us while we were still really bad people. That shows that God really loves us very much.

<sup>9</sup> And that's not all. Jesus Christ bled and died instead of us, so now God tells us, "You are all right," and he will not be angry with us when he judges everyone. <sup>10</sup> It is like this. We were God's enemies, then his son Jesus died for us, so now we are God's friends. And that's not all. Now that we are God's friends, Jesus lives in us and saves us. <sup>11</sup> So we are really happy now, because Jesus saved us and made us good friends with God.

Jesus Christ is different from Adam

<sup>12</sup> Think about the story about Adam. God told him, "If you eat any fruit from that tree, you will die." Then Adam did the wrong thing, he ate that fruit, so he died. And it's the same for everybody now. We are all from Adam. We are all in his family, and we all do wrong things, so we all die.* <sup>13-14</sup> You see, before God gave Moses the law, it was like this, everybody did wrong things, so they died. They didn't have the law to show that what they did was wrong, but they all died. So that shows us that they all did wrong things. Yes, all the people from Adam did wrong things, even though they didn't break a rule, like Adam did.

At first Adam came, and Jesus came later. I will talk about them both now.

<sup>15</sup> Jesus Christ did something very different from the wrong thing Adam did. Adam did a bad thing, so lots of people have to die. But Jesus Christ did a good thing, so that God can give lots of people new life. Yes, God is very good to us, even though we are not good. So, you see, Jesus does a better thing for us than Adam did. <sup>16</sup> That new life that God gives us is a lot different from the trouble we got from Adam. Adam did one bad thing, and God said that he was guilty. And he died. So now we all do bad things, and we get trouble. But we get something really good from Jesus. Even though we did bad things, God says we are all right. <sup>17</sup> That one man, Adam, he did something bad, so now lots of people die. But that other man, Jesus Christ, he did something good, so now lots of people will live with God for ever. God is really good to them now, and he makes them good too. Yes, Jesus did a much better thing for us than Adam did.

<sup>18</sup> Adam went wrong, and after that, everybody did bad things. So God had to punish everybody. But then Jesus did something really good, so after that, God will not punish us, but he will let us live with him for ever. <sup>19</sup> That one man, Adam, did something wrong. He did something God told him not to do, so now lots of people do wrong things. But that other man, Jesus, he did something good. He did everything God told him to do, so now he will make lots of people good.

<sup>20</sup> You see, the law came and showed people that they did wrong things. But that didn't stop them. They still did wrong things. Yes, people kept on doing more bad things, but at the same time God kept on being good to people, more and more. <sup>21</sup> It was like this. We couldn't stop ourselves doing bad things, so we all had to die. But now, nothing will stop our leader, Jesus Christ, from being really good to us. He did a really good thing for us, so now God says that we are good too, and we will live with him for ever.

6

Christians can't keep on doing bad things

<sup>1</sup> God was really good to us even though we did bad things. So what do you reckon? Maybe we should keep on doing bad things, so that people can see how good God is. <sup>2-4</sup> No way. Just think about that baptism ceremony. Church leaders baptised us to show that we joined up with Jesus Christ. And you know that Jesus died, and they buried him, but God, our really great father, made him alive again. And we joined up to him, so we can't think about doing bad things any more. It is like we died to those bad things. And it is like God makes us alive again to do good things. That baptism ceremony was to show that we died to bad things and got buried, just like Jesus Christ died and got buried, but God gave us new life too, just like Jesus came back to life. If we live in a new way like that, we will not go wrong any more. So if we start to think about doing something bad, we have to remember that we are dead to doing bad things, and so we can't do it. We have to live in a new way like that all the time.*

* 5:12 Genesis 3:6

<sup>5</sup> We joined up with Jesus Christ and it is like we die, just like he died, and then it is like we come back to life, just like he came back to life. <sup>6</sup> We know that they nailed Jesus Christ to that cross, and it was like they nailed a part of us there too, that old part of us that makes us do wrong things all the time. It got nailed to that cross with Jesus, and it is dead. So now it doesn't have any power over us. It can't make us do bad things. <sup>7</sup> You know, if something is dead, it can't do anything. Well, that bad old part of us is dead now, so it can't make us do bad things any more.

<sup>8</sup> It is like we died, just like Jesus Christ died, and now we know that we will also live again with him. <sup>9</sup> He came back to life after he died, so we are sure that he can never die again. Nothing can kill him ever again. <sup>10</sup> He died once and took the payback for the bad things that people do, but God made him alive again, and now he lives and works for God. <sup>11</sup> Well, we have to think about ourselves in that same way. We joined up with Jesus Christ, so now, if we start to think that we want to do something bad, we have to remember this, that bad part of us died, just like Jesus died, so we can't do anything bad. We have to think about living God's way, so we live and work for him, just like Jesus Christ does.

<sup>12-14</sup> So don't just think about the law that comes from Moses. It talks about the bad things people do. If you just think about that, you will want to do those same bad things yourself. Then that law will be your boss, and your bodies will make you want to do bad things too. Don't be like that. Don't let any part of your body be your boss. Don't do whatever it wants. Instead, you have to give your bodies to God and let him use you to do good things. You have to think about him all the time, and remember that he is very good to you, and that he made you alive again in a new way. If you think like that, you will not want to do anything bad. God is really good to you. That law is not your boss any more.

Do whatever God wants

<sup>15</sup> But maybe you think like this, "We can do whatever bad things we want to do, because that law is not our boss any more and God will be good to us anyway." No way. Don't think like that. <sup>16</sup> You know that if you always do whatever another person wants, you make that person your boss. So if you do bad things all the time, you make those bad things your boss, and in the end you will die. But if you do whatever God wants all the time, you make him your boss, and in the end he will say that you are really good. <sup>17</sup> Actually, you used to do bad things all the time, but now you have made God your boss, and you really want to do whatever he wants. I thank God for that. <sup>18</sup> You are free now. You don't have to do those bad things any more. You have got a new good boss now, and you have to do good things all the time. <sup>19</sup> I'm trying to say this in a way that you will really understand. In the past you used your body for wrong things. It was like those bad things were your boss, so you kept on doing more bad things. But now you have to use your bodies for good things. You work for God, and he gets you to do good things so that you will be his special people.

<sup>20</sup> In those days you worked for the wrong boss. You made those bad things your boss. So you did bad things, and you never wanted to do good things. <sup>21</sup> And what did you get after you did bad things? You got shame, that's all. And you know that people that do those bad things have to die. <sup>22</sup> So now you can't think about doing bad things any more, but instead, you have to only think about working for God. Then you will do good things, and then you will be God's special people and you will live with him for ever. <sup>23</sup> That's how it is. If we do bad things, we will get our pay for doing those things. We will die. That's all the pay we will get. But if we join up to our leader, Jesus Christ, God will give us properly good life. We will live with him for ever.

* 6:2-4 Colossians 2:12

7

The Jewish law

<sup>1</sup> I am talking now to my own countrymen, you Jewish people. You know the law that God gave to Moses. That law is for people to follow only while they are alive. It is not there for them after they die. <sup>2-3</sup> I'll talk about one part of the law to show you what I mean. That law says that a woman is only allowed to marry one man. If a married woman sleeps with a man that is not her husband, as if he is her husband, she breaks that law, and she is guilty. But if her husband dies, then she can marry another man and sleep with him, and she will not be breaking any law.

<sup>4</sup> You know that Jesus died for us. His body was dead on the cross. And, my friends, you believe in Jesus, so it is like you died too. So that old law is not for you any more. You belong to Jesus now. He came alive again, and it's like you have a new life now too. God gave you that life so that you can do a lot of good things for him.

<sup>5</sup> You know, we all have a bad part in us that wants us to do bad things. And at first, when we didn't believe in Jesus, that bad part in us was our boss. And when that law told us not to do bad things, that bad part in us made us think about those bad things and want to do them, and so we did them anyway. So we had to die. <sup>6</sup> But now we believe in Jesus, we don't have to live that old way any more. It's like we died to that old way, so we don't have to follow that old law any more. We have the Holy Spirit in us now, and he helps us to do what God wants us to do. So we live that new way now.

That law shows us that we go wrong

<sup>7</sup> Some people might reckon that the old law is no good because it made us go wrong, but that's not true. The law is good. You see, God gave people the law to clearly show them what is right and what is wrong. For example, a part of that law says, "If something belongs to somebody else, don't think about getting it for yourself." Now think about this. If somebody doesn't know that law, they don't know that it is wrong to want to get other people's things.* <sup>8</sup> And, you know, we all have a bad part in us that wants to do bad things, so when that bad part in us hears the law, it makes us want to do that same wrong thing that the law talks about. But if we don't hear that law, that bad part in us can't get us to go wrong like that. <sup>9</sup> And you know, some people didn't know that law at first, but after they heard it, that bad part in them made them want to do those bad things. <sup>10</sup> So then they had to die. You see, it's like this. That law's job is to show us how to live, but we don't do everything it says, so the law tells us that we have to die. <sup>11</sup> That bad part of us uses that law to trick us, so that we do bad things. And then we have to die.* <sup>12</sup> But that law itself is really good. It tells us to do things that God says are right and good.

<sup>13</sup> So, does that good law kill people? No way. It's like this. That law shows us the things that God said are wrong, and that law says that we have to die if we do those wrong things. So that law shows us that it is really bad to go wrong, and to do bad things against God.

A fight goes on inside us

<sup>14</sup> The problem is not the law, it is us. We know this. That law came from God, so there is nothing wrong with that law. But there is something wrong with us. We keep on going wrong. There is a bad part inside us that makes itself our boss, and we do whatever that boss tells us to do. <sup>15</sup> We don't understand it. We want to do good things. But we can't do those good things that we want to do. Instead, we do the things that we hate.* <sup>16</sup> We don't want to do those bad things. We know that they are wrong. So that shows that, really, we agree with the law and we reckon the law is good. <sup>17</sup> So really, it's not us that does those bad things. It's that bad part of us that is inside us.

<sup>18</sup> We know that we can't do anything good by ourselves. We want to do the right thing, but we can't. <sup>19</sup> We keep on trying to do good things, but we can't. No, we keep on doing the bad things we don't want to do. <sup>20</sup> That proves it. It's not us that does those bad things. It's that bad part inside us that does those bad things.

<sup>21</sup> This is what happens. It is like another law. Every time we try to do something good, that bad part of us wants to take control and make us go wrong.

<sup>22</sup> Really, we ourselves, we want to live the right way, <sup>23</sup> but there is a big fight going on inside us. That bad part of us makes its own law. It makes us think the wrong way. It makes us its prisoners so that we can't do the things we really want to do. <sup>24</sup> We feel really sorry for ourselves.

* 7:7 Exodus 20:17; Deuteronomy 5:21 * 7:11 Genesis 3:13 * 7:15 Galatians 5:17

How can we get free from this bad boss in our bodies that will make us die? Who can make us free?

<sup>25</sup> Thank God, Jesus Christ can make us free. He is the answer. God made a way for us to be free. Jesus will be our new leader, and he is stronger than that old boss inside us.

This is what I have been saying up until now. We ourselves, we really want to do things that are right, but we have a bad part in us that is our boss, and it makes us do things that are wrong.

God's spirit lives in us

<sup>1</sup> The important thing that I want to say now is this. If we belong to Jesus Christ, God will never say we are guilty. <sup>2</sup> His spirit is in us, and he gives us new life, and he makes us strong so that we can say no to that bad part of us that tries to make us go wrong. That is the new way that we live, because we belong to Jesus, and it makes us free from the old way of doing bad things and ending up dead.

<sup>3</sup> You see, the law that came from Moses couldn't help us. We were too weak. If we thought about some bad thing that we wanted to do, then we couldn't help ourselves, we just did it. That law just made us think about those bad things, and then we wanted to do them. But God set us free from all that. He sent his own son to us. Jesus had the same sort of body that we had people have. Then God punished him instead of us. Jesus died instead of us. <sup>4</sup> If we listen to his spirit in us, and if we do whatever he says, we will not listen any more to that old part of us that tells us to do bad things. We will do good things, like the things in his law.

<sup>5</sup> Some people just think about themselves, so they only do whatever makes them feel good. They let that bad part inside them be their boss, and they do whatever it tells them to do. But other people think about God and his spirit, and they do whatever the Holy Spirit tells them to do. <sup>6</sup> If we let that bad part inside us be our boss, and if we only do whatever makes us feel good, we will die. But if we do the things the Holy Spirit tells us, and if we let him control us, we will live happy and quiet inside ourselves. <sup>7-8</sup> That bad part inside us fights against God, so if we do whatever it says, we don't do the things that God wants us to do. If we are like that, we can never follow God's laws.

If we live like that, we can never make God happy.

<sup>9</sup> But I know that you aren't like that any more. You haven't let that bad part of you be your boss, but you have joined up with the Holy Spirit, and now he lives inside you. That's right. If people don't have the spirit of Jesus Christ in them, they don't belong to him. <sup>10</sup> But Jesus Christ does live inside you. Yes, you did bad things, so your bodies will die, but God says that you are all right now, so his spirit makes you alive. <sup>11</sup> Remember that Jesus died, but God made him alive again. And God will do that for you too. Your bodies will die, but after that, God will make them alive again. His spirit will do that. He lives inside you.*

<sup>12</sup> So, my friends, you don't have to do bad things any more. You don't have to do whatever that bad part of you tells you to do. <sup>13</sup> If you keep on doing those bad things, you will die. But if God's spirit is in you, he can help you block that bad part of you, like you kill it, and then you will not do those bad things, and you will live with God for ever. <sup>14</sup> It is like this. God's kids are those people that listen to his spirit and follow him.

<sup>15</sup> God didn't give you his Holy Spirit to make you frightened of him. No, he gave you his spirit to make you his kids. You are not like a prisoner that has to work for a cheeky boss, and that boss makes him frightened all the time. No way. You have God's spirit in you, so you can talk to God and say, "Dad, you are my own good father."*

<sup>16</sup> And his spirit in us talks to our own spirits, and he tells us, "That is right, you really are God's kids." <sup>17</sup> We joined up with Jesus Christ, God's son, so we are part of God's family now, and we will get some of the good things that God gives to his son. But people gave Jesus a lot of trouble, and they will give us a lot of trouble too, because we belong to him. Yes, we will get trouble, and we will get good things too.

God will make everything really good later

<sup>18</sup> But don't worry about the trouble we get now. Later God will make everything so good for us that we will not even think about the trouble we get now. <sup>19</sup> It is like this, everything in the world is waiting for that time when God will set everything right and show everyone who his kids really are. <sup>20</sup> Think about Adam and Eve. They went wrong, and after that, God let everything in the world get messed up. It was people that went wrong, not the other things in the world, but everything else went wrong anyway, from the things that the people did.* <sup>21</sup> So now everything in the world is waiting for God to fix things up, so that nothing will go bad and rot away like it does now. And one day, God will fix it all, and at the same time he will show everyone that we are his family. <sup>22</sup> We know that everything in the world now just dies and rots away. Everything has got that problem. Think about a woman. At the time she has a baby, she gets trouble and has a lot of pain. Well, that is a picture of the way everything in the world is now. There is a lot of trouble and a lot of pain. <sup>23</sup> And we get trouble too. We are Christians, and we have the Holy Spirit in us, but we still get trouble. God gave us that Holy Spirit to show us a little bit of the good that will come later. But right now, we get pain and problems too. So we just wait for God to fix everything up and to really make us his family. Then he will give us new bodies, just like he promised us.* <sup>24-25</sup> We are really sure that he will save us and fix everything up for us even though he hasn't done it yet. We know he will do it one day, so we just have to keep on waiting for it.

<sup>26</sup> And we can be sure too that the Holy Spirit will always help us. We know that we are weak, and we don't understand very much, so sometimes we don't know what to pray for. But the Holy Spirit prays with us and talks to our father for us. He even groans with words that nobody can properly say. <sup>27</sup> And our father understands the Holy Spirit. God already knows everything that everybody thinks and the way everybody feels, so the Holy Spirit always prays for God's people and asks for the things that God already wants. <sup>28</sup> And we know too that God picked us out to be his people, to love him and to do whatever he wants, so he makes everything work out good for us. <sup>29</sup> A long time ago, God knew about each of us, and he knew which of us will believe in him, so he planned to make us like his son. He sent Jesus to us. He is God's son, and he is like the older brother to all of us. <sup>30</sup> So, after he picked us out, he called to us to come to him, and after we came to him, he said that we are all right now, and he will make us really great too.

<sup>31</sup> So as we think about all of this, what do we learn? It is this. We are on God's side. He is with us, so it doesn't matter who is against us, they can't win against God. <sup>32</sup> He really did a lot for us. He sent his own son to die instead of us. And that's not all. He will give us everything else that we need too. <sup>33</sup> God himself is the one that says, "You are good," so nobody can blame us and tell God, "They are no good." <sup>34</sup> God picked us out to be his own people, so nobody can tell him to punish us. You see, Jesus Christ died for us, and God made him come back to life, and now he sits up there with God in heaven and asks God to help us. He will not turn around and tell God to punish us. No way.

We can win every time

<sup>35</sup> But sometimes things go wrong for us, and sometimes we get trouble. Does that mean that Jesus Christ has stopped loving us? No way. He will keep on loving us. Some people don't want us to follow Jesus, so maybe they will hit us, and maybe they will be hard on us. Then can we think that Jesus has stopped loving us? No way. Or if we get too cold from not enough clothes, or if we go hungry, or if people hurt us or kill us, then does that mean that Jesus has stopped loving us? No way. Nothing will ever stop him from loving us. <sup>36</sup> It is like God says in his book,

"Some people find out that we belong to God, and they kill us.

They reckon we are weak like sheep and they can kill us whenever they want to."*

<sup>37</sup> Don't worry about any of these things. We win every time. Jesus loves us all the time, so he helps us get through it all, and we win in the end.

<sup>38-39</sup> I'm really sure that nothing at all can make God stop loving us. Even if they kill us, it doesn't matter; God still loves us. Those good spirits, the angels, they will not stop him. And those bad spirits, they can't make him stop loving us. Things that happen now will not stop him, and things that will happen later will not stop him either. No strong spirit anywhere can stop him from loving us. Nothing anywhere. Nothing way up in the sky, nothing way down in the sea, nothing anywhere can stop him loving us. You see, God showed us that he loves us. He sent Jesus Christ, our leader, to die for us.

God will save everybody that trusts him

<sup>5</sup> It's like this. A long time ago, Moses wrote that people will be all right if they follow all of God's law. He wrote, "If anybody always does everything in God's law, they will live."* <sup>6</sup> But God's book also tells us that if we trust God, he will say that we are all right, even though we don't always do everything in God's law. So don't think that somebody has to go up to heaven, to bring Jesus Christ down to the earth. <sup>7</sup> And don't think that somebody has to go down to the place where the dead people are, to get Jesus Christ and make him alive again.

<sup>8</sup> This is what God says in his book, "You already have God's message. You know that message, so you can think about it, and you can talk about it."* That message is the same message that we tell everybody. We say, "You have to trust Jesus."<sup>9</sup> Yes, you have to really believe that God made Jesus alive again after he died, and you have to tell people that you belong to Jesus. If you believe like that, and if you talk like that, God will save you. <sup>10</sup> If you really believe God, and if you tell everybody that you believe in him, then he says that you are all right, and he saves you.

<sup>11</sup> God says this about Jesus in his book, "Everybody that trusts him will always know that they are going the right way, and God will save them."* <sup>12</sup> That message is for everyone, Jewish people and people that are not Jewish. We are all the same, we have the same God, and he is good to everyone that asks him for help.

<sup>13</sup> And God says this in his book too, "God will save everybody that calls out to him for help and asks him to save them."*

<sup>14</sup> But what about people that don't believe in God? They can't call out to him, right? And what about people that have never even heard about Jesus? They can't believe in him, right? Somebody has to tell them about him, and then they can believe in him. <sup>15</sup> And somebody has to send those messengers to go and tell the people about Jesus. God says this in his book too, "It is really good to see God's messengers come and bring his good news."*

<sup>16</sup> But some people don't want to hear God's message. A long time ago, Isaiah, one of God's men, wrote this in God's book, "Hardly anybody believes the message we tell them, God."*

<sup>17</sup> But, you see, people have to hear that good message about Jesus Christ before they can believe in him.

(The next part, 10:18—11:36, mainly talks to Jewish people, so we have not translated it yet.)

Live the way that makes God happy

<sup>1</sup> My Christian friends, God is so very good to us. So I really want you to use your bodies to live for him. A long time ago, God told his people to give him animals to show him respect. They did it like this. They used to kill the animals and burn them up. But now it is different. Now you have to use your bodies to live for him and do good things, it's like you are giving your own bodies to God while you are still alive. If you do that, you will make God happy. That is the proper thing to do to show that you follow God. <sup>2</sup> Don't be like most of the people in the world that like to do bad things. You have to be different from them. You have to let God change the way you think, so that you will become new people. Then you will be able to find out the things that God wants you to do, and you will know what is good, and the things that really make God happy.

<sup>3</sup> God wants me to tell you this, and he helps me to say it. Don't think that you are better than you really are, but think properly about yourself. God himself makes it possible for you to believe in him, so think about how much you trust him. That is the important thing. <sup>4</sup> I will tell you a picture story. Christians are like a body. You know that we each have a body, but that body has a lot of different parts. Each part of our body has its own job to do. But the parts all belong to that one body, so they all belong to each other.* <sup>5</sup> Well, that is a picture of us, God's people. We all belong to Jesus Christ, and it is just like each of us is a part of his body. Each of us has our own job to do. We all belong to Jesus, so we all belong to each other.

<sup>6</sup> God is good to us and gives each of us the power to do something properly. So if God gave you the power to tell his message to people, well you have to do that whenever you believe he has a message for you to tell.* <sup>7</sup> Or maybe God gave you the power to help other people, well you have to do that. Or if God gave you the power to teach other people, well he wants you to do that. <sup>8</sup> Or maybe God gave you the power to cheer people up, well that is your job. Or maybe he gave you the power to share your money and things with other people, well he wants you to share them with people that need them. Or maybe God gave you the power to be a leader, well you have to try to lead people properly. Or if God gave you the power to feel sorry for people that have troubles, and the power to be good to them, well that is his job for you, so be happy while you do it.

<sup>9</sup> Don't just pretend to love other people. You have to love them properly. That means you have to hate everything that is bad for them and love everything that is good for them. <sup>10</sup> You have to love each other like brothers and sisters that belong to the same family. You have to respect other Christians more than you respect yourself. <sup>11</sup> Don't get lazy as you work for God, but work hard and be really happy about it.

<sup>12</sup> We know that everything will be really good after God fixes everything up, so think about that and you will be really happy. But if people give you trouble now, don't give up, but stay strong for God. And keep on talking to God about everything. <sup>13</sup> If any of God's people need anything, you have to give them whatever you can. If they are visiting your town, and they need somewhere to stay, let them stay at your place.

<sup>17</sup> If people do some bad things to you, don't do payback to them. You have to do good things, so that people will know that you are good. <sup>18</sup> Try not to argue with anybody, and try not to fight with anybody.

<sup>19</sup> Listen, my good friends, if somebody does something bad to you, don't do something bad to them. Don't do payback to them. No, just wait for God. He will get angry with them, and he will do payback to them one day. We can read this in God's book,

"God says, 'It is my job to do payback to people for the bad things they do. I will punish them, so don't try to do it yourself.' "*

<sup>20</sup> Instead of you doing payback to them, you have to do like God says in another place in his book. He says,

"If your enemies are hungry, give them food to eat. If they are thirsty, give them something to drink. Then they will be sorry and feel shame for the bad things they did to you."*

<sup>21</sup> So don't do payback to anybody. Don't do bad things to them. If you do that payback, it is like you let that bad part of you win. But instead, you have to be good to everybody. That's how you properly win against bad things.

Respect the government

<sup>1</sup> Now I will talk about the government bosses. Remember that God put them there and gave them their jobs as bosses, so you have to do what they say. They make laws for everybody, and they make sure we all follow those laws. <sup>2</sup> So if you don't do the things that their law says, you're going against the people that God put there. And he will get those bosses to punish you. <sup>3</sup> People that do whatever is right don't have to worry about those bosses. But people that do things that are wrong will get frightened of them. So if you do things that are right, the bosses will say that you are good. <sup>4</sup> Those government bosses really work for God, and their job is to make things good for you. But if you do things that are wrong, look out, you can be frightened of them. They will get you and punish you. God gave them that job to punish everybody that does bad things, and he helps them do it. <sup>5</sup> So you have to do what they say, so that they don't punish you. And you know that it is the right thing to do, so you will not feel bad about it.

<sup>6</sup> You have to pay tax money to the government too, for the same reason. Those government bosses work for God, and they need that money to do their job.* <sup>7</sup> So you have to give everybody whatever you owe to them. You have to pay taxes and pay the bills the government bosses send you. And you still have to respect those bosses.

* 12:14 Matthew 5:44; Luke 6:28      * 12:16 Proverbs 3:7      * 12:19 Deuteronomy 32:35      * 12:20 Proverbs

25:21-22      * 13:6 Matthew 22:21; Mark 12:17; Luke 20:25

Love people

<sup>8</sup> If ever you borrow anything from anybody, you have to give it back, so that you don't owe anything to anybody. But you always owe each other this one thing, you have to love each other. If you love other people, you keep God's law. <sup>9</sup> God's law says, "Love other people just as much as you love yourself." You know there are lots of other laws too, like, "Don't sleep with somebody that you are not married to, as if they are your wife or husband," and, "Don't murder anybody," and, "Don't steal anything," and, "If something belongs to somebody else, don't think about getting it for yourself." But if you really love other people, you will not do any of those wrong things anyway. So that law that says to love people, it says what all the other laws say when you listen to them all together.* <sup>10</sup> If you really love people, you will never do bad things to them, so you will be doing what God's law says you have to do.

Wake up, Jesus will come back soon

<sup>11-12</sup> And here is another thing to think about. You know that Jesus will come back soon and save us from the bad things that are going on. There is not much time left. It is closer now than it was at the time when we first believed in him. It's like it's night time now, but Jesus will come back soon, so it is like the day-light will come soon. It's like it's time for us to wake up from sleep. We have to stop doing the bad things that people do in the dark. Instead, we have to do the good things that people do in the light. <sup>13</sup> We have to do things that are right and good and honest, like the things people do in the day-light. We can't go to wild grog parties, and we can't get drunk. We can't sleep with anyone that is not our own wife or husband, as if we are married to them. We can't do wrong things with our bodies. We can't get into fights and arguments. We can't be jealous of other people. <sup>14</sup> But instead, you have to be like our leader, Jesus Christ, so that whenever other people look at you, it will be like they see him. And whenever that bad part inside you makes you want to do something bad, take no notice of it. Just don't think about doing that bad thing.

14

Don't argue with other Christians

<sup>1</sup> There are some Christians that are not sure if it is right or wrong for them to do some things. But don't worry, let people like that be in your church, and don't argue with them about whatever they think they have to do. <sup>2</sup> It's like this, some people believe that God will let them eat all sorts of food, but other people are not so sure, so they only eat vegetables. <sup>3</sup> People that eat all sorts of food can't think that they are better than the others. And people that only eat vegetables can't tell the other people that they are wrong. God is happy with both sorts of people, people that only eat vegetables and people that eat everything. <sup>4</sup> So you can't tell anybody else that they are wrong. God is their boss, not you. Only God can say, "You are right," or, "You are wrong." And he can help them to keep on doing good.

<sup>5</sup> Here is another thing. Some people think like this, "Some days are special for God, and the other days are not." Other people think, "Each day is the same as every other day." Each of us has to make up our own mind about it. <sup>6</sup> People that make one day special, they do that to give respect to God on that day. And people that eat all sorts of food, they do that to give respect to God. They say thank you to God for that food. And in the same way, people that don't eat some sorts of food, they do that to give respect to God. They say thank you to God too. <sup>7-8</sup> None of us is our own boss. We belong to God, and he is our good boss all the time. He is our good boss while we are alive, and he is our good boss after we die. <sup>9</sup> Remember that Jesus died and then came alive again. So now he is the good boss over people that are alive and also the boss over people that are dead.

<sup>10</sup> So then it is God, not you, that can tell other Christians that they are wrong. You can't think that you are better than any other Christian. No. We've all got to stand in front of God one day. Then God will tell each of us the things that we did right and the things that we did wrong.* <sup>11</sup> We can read this in God's book,

"God says that this will happen, for sure. Everybody will get down on their knees in front of him to give him respect. And everybody will say that God is really good. They will say that he is the only great God."*

<sup>12</sup> That means that one day every one of us will have to face God and tell him all about everything that we ever did.

Don't make other Christians go wrong

<sup>13</sup> So we have to stop being like judges. We have to stop telling each other, "You are wrong." Instead of that, we have to make sure that we help other Christians, and make sure we don't do anything that makes them go wrong. <sup>14</sup> I know for sure that our leader, Jesus, said that it's all right to eat any sort of food. But somebody might believe that it is wrong to eat some sort of food. Then it is wrong for that person to eat it, but not for anybody else. <sup>15-16</sup> Sometimes you might know that something is all right, so you think you will eat it. But if you know that another Christian will get upset when you eat it, then don't eat it. Leave it. If you love other Christians, you will not do things that hurt them. Remember, Jesus Christ died for those people, so don't eat that food. You know that it is all right to eat it, but leave it anyway. Then nobody will blame you.

* 13:9 Exodus 20:13-15, 17; Deuteronomy 5:17-19, 21; Leviticus 19:18
Isaiah 45:23

* 14:10 2 Corinthians 5:10 * 14:11

<sup>17-18</sup> We belong to God. He doesn't give us rules about the things that we can't eat or drink, but he wants us to have his spirit in us so that we will do the things that are right, and we will always feel good and quiet inside ourselves, and we will always be happy. If we live like that as we work for Jesus Christ, then we make God happy. And other people are happy with us too.

<sup>19</sup> So we have to do everything we can to help each other. We have to try to agree with each other and to help each other get strong. <sup>20</sup> God is bringing people into his family, but if you eat something that upsets another Christian, so that they go away, you will mess up God's work. So don't do that. You know that there is nothing wrong with the food itself, but it is wrong for you to make another person stop believing. <sup>21</sup> So if another Christian will get upset and go wrong because you eat meat or drink wine, then don't eat any meat, and don't drink any wine. <sup>22</sup> If you believe it is all right for you to do it, then just keep quiet about it. You know it is all right, and God knows it is all right, but don't show it off in front of other people. Make up your mind about the right thing to do, and do it. Then you will be happy. <sup>23</sup> But if anyone is not sure if it is right or wrong for them to eat something, then they can't eat it. If they don't believe that it is all right to eat, and if they eat it anyway, then God will say that they do wrong. If we don't believe that something is all right, then it is wrong for us to do it.

15

Strong Christians have to help weak Christians

<sup>1</sup> Some of us are strong and trust God about these things, but other Christians are weak and worry about them a lot. We strong Christians have to be easy on those weak Christians, and help them get strong. We have to think about the problems they have with these things. We can't just do whatever makes us happy. <sup>2</sup> No, we have to do whatever the other Christians think is right, to help them get strong and trust God more. <sup>3</sup> Remember what Jesus Christ did for all of us. He didn't just do things that made himself happy. No. He let those cheeky people say bad things about him, like God's book says, "People said bad things about you, God, and they said those same bad things about me."*

<sup>4</sup> You know, a long time ago, God got his men to write lots of things like that in his book. He did that to teach us mob that are here today about God. As we think about those things that they wrote, God cheers us up and helps us keep going for him, and we know for sure that God will do everything he promised to do for us. <sup>5-6</sup> I want God, the father of our leader, Jesus Christ, to do that for you. He is the one that can cheer people up, and he keeps them going. I'm asking him to help you follow Jesus Christ properly so that you all live happy together like one family. Then you will all thank him and say that he is really good.

<sup>7</sup> So you have to be good to other Christians, and let them join you, just like Jesus Christ was good to you, and he let you join God's family. Then people will say that God is really good. <sup>8</sup> Remember this. Jesus Christ came here and worked for his own nation, the Jewish people. A long time ago, God promised some things to their elders, and later, Jesus came to show them that God will do what he promised. <sup>9</sup> And Jesus came for the people that are not Jews too, to show them that God feels sorry for them, and that God is good to them, so that they will thank God and tell everybody, "God is really good." God got his men to write about this, and their words are in God's book. One of them wrote,

"All right God, I will tell all the people that are not Jews about you, and I will sing to you and say, 'You are really great.'"*

* 15:3 Psalm 69:9 * 15:9 2 Samuel 22:50; Psalm 18:49

* 15:10 Deuteronomy 32:43 * 15:11 Psalm 117:1

"All you mob that are not Jews can say,
'God is really great,'

And all the people everywhere can say,
'God is really good.'<sup>12</sup> *

<sup>12</sup> And Isaiah, another one of God's men, wrote,

"A Jewish man from David's family will become the leader of every nation, even the people that are not Jews, and they will be sure that he will save them."<sup>13</sup> *

<sup>13</sup> You see, you can be sure that God can save you. So now I ask him to help you trust him properly, and to make you really happy, and feel good and quiet inside yourselves. Then the Holy Spirit will use his power to help you be really sure that God will do everything that he said he will do.

Paul's job

<sup>14-15</sup> My Christian friends, I'm sure that you already know about the things that I wrote in this letter. Before I started to write this letter, I remembered that you are good people and that you know a lot, and you even teach each other about the things I wrote about. But I got brave and started to write to you anyway, to get you to think a bit more about some of those things. God is good to me,<sup>16</sup> and he picked me out to be a worker for Jesus Christ. My job is to tell the good news about Jesus to people that are not Jews. After I tell them that good news, God's spirit works in them to make them good and right, and God is really happy with them. It is like I give them to God, like a really good gift.

<sup>17</sup> So I like to tell everybody about the things that Jesus Christ has helped me do in my work for God. <sup>18-19</sup> But I will not talk about anything else. I just want to talk about whatever Jesus Christ did. He used me, but he is the one that did it. He got me to tell his true message to people that don't know God, and his Holy Spirit got me to do powerful things too. After they heard my message and saw the things I did, they turned around and believed God. I started to tell people in Jerusalem the good message about Jesus Christ, and I kept on telling people that message everywhere I went, right out to Illyricum. <sup>20</sup> I always want to tell that good story to people that have never heard about Jesus Christ. I don't want to go to places where somebody else already told them about Jesus, and just tell them a bit more. No, I want to go and tell people that haven't heard about Jesus.
<sup>21</sup> It is like God's book says,

"There are people that have never heard about God.

Nobody ever told them anything about him.

But they will hear the message about him.

And they will understand it."<sup>21</sup> *

(The next part, 15:22-29, says things for just some of the people at Rome at that time, so we have not translated it yet.)

Paul asked the Roman Christians to pray for him

<sup>30</sup> My Christian friends, I really want you to pray to God with me. You believe in our leader, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit gets us to love each other, so please pray for me. <sup>31</sup> I will go to Judea soon, so ask God to save me from the mob there that don't believe in Jesus. And ask God that his people in Jerusalem will be happy with the way I will help them. <sup>32</sup> Then, if God wants me to, I will come to you mob in Rome. I know I will be really happy to meet you, and I will have a good rest with you there.
<sup>33</sup> And now I ask God to be with all you mob. He can make us live happy together.
Yes, that's right.

(The next part, 16:1-16, says things for just some of the people at Rome at that

16

Be careful, some people will tell you the wrong story

<sup>17</sup> Listen, my Christian friends, I'm telling you straight, you've got to be really careful about people that make you split up and argue with each other. Remember that you heard the true message about Jesus Christ, and you learned to follow his way, but there are some people that want you to leave that way and go another way.
They tell you a different story, and they get you to argue with each other. So don't listen to them. Keep away from them.
<sup>18</sup> They don't work for our leader, Jesus Christ, but they just work for themselves.
They try to trick people. They talk really nicely to people and say good things about them. They do that to get whatever they want for themselves. They trick people that don't think about it properly. <sup>19</sup> But don't let them trick you. Everyone knows that you do what God wants, so I'm happy about you. But I also want to tell you to be careful. I want you to understand the things that are good, and don't even think about doing the things that are bad.

* 15:12 Isaiah 11:10

* 15:21 Isaiah 52:15

<sup>20</sup> You know, Satan, the boss over the bad spirits, he tries to get you to go wrong. But God is stronger than Satan. God is the one that makes us happy and quiet inside ourselves. And he will beat Satan, so that Satan can't do anything to you any more.

I ask our leader, Jesus, to be really good to you.

(The next part, 16:21-24, says things for just some of the people at Rome at that time, so we have not translated it yet.)

Everybody has to tell God that he is good

<sup>25-27</sup> God is really great and powerful, so everybody has to tell him that he is good. He can make you strong. This is his message. It is the good news about Jesus Christ. A long time ago, God planned to get both the Jewish people, and the people that are not Jews, to believe in him. But at first he kept it a secret, and he just got the Jewish people to follow him. After that, he got his men to write about it ahead of time, and their words are in his book. Now his message about Jesus is for every nation. It is not just for the Jewish people, but everybody everywhere can trust him, and they can listen to him and do what he wants. God is the only one that can think good enough to make it all work out like that. So everybody has to tell God and Jesus Christ, "You are great." They have always got to do that for ever.

From Paul

The 1st letter that Paul wrote to the Christians at Corinth

(The book in the Holy Bible called 1 Corinthians)

About this letter

Paul wrote this letter about 2,000 years ago, about 20 years after Jesus went back to heaven. It is now in the Holy Bible.

Paul wrote this letter to the Christians that were living in the city called Corinth, in the country we now call Greece, where Greek people come from. A big earthquake knocked that city down more than 160 years ago, so the Greek people built a new town about 3 kilometres away and called it Corinth. That town is still there today.

At the time when Paul wrote this letter, Corinth had 2 harbours for ships, and those ships brought a lot of things to Corinth. A lot of people bought things and sold those things there, to get money for themselves. There were also a lot of people there that did bad things to get money.

Paul went to Corinth to tell the people there about Jesus, and he stayed there teaching them for about a year and a half (see Acts 18:1-18). Some of the Corinth people believed Paul's message and became Christians.

Then Paul went to other places. But the Christians at Corinth started to have some problems. So they wrote a letter to Paul and asked him some questions. Then Paul wrote this letter to answer those questions, and to tell them the right way for Christians to live.

This letter has a lot of good messages for Christians today. Paul wrote it to help the Christians in Corinth live the right way, and it can help us work out the right way to live too.

<sup>1</sup> I am Paul, and this letter is from me. God wanted me to go and tell people about Jesus Christ, so he picked me to be his special worker. And Sosthenes is here with me. He is our Christian friend, and he is helping me write this letter.

<sup>2</sup> I'm sending this letter to you Christians there in Corinth city. God picked you to be his own special people, and he joined you to Jesus Christ. You are in God's family now, along with everyone that says to Jesus, "You are my leader." He is their leader, and he is our leader too.*

<sup>3</sup> I'm asking God our father, and Jesus Christ our leader, to be good to you, and to make you feel happy and quiet inside yourselves.

<sup>4</sup> I always thank God for you mob. You belong to Jesus Christ now, and God is really good to you.

<sup>5</sup> Yes, Jesus Christ gave you everything you need. He lets you know a lot of things, and he gives you the power to tell God's message to people. <sup>6</sup> That shows that the message we told you about Jesus Christ is true. <sup>7</sup> You really want our leader, Jesus Christ, to come back from heaven, and while you are waiting for him, you have all the spiritual power that he gives us to do his work. <sup>8</sup> God will keep you believing properly in our leader Jesus Christ, and you will stay strong for him until the day when he will come back from heaven. At that time, nobody will be able to blame you or say that you did anything wrong. <sup>9</sup> God picked you to be friends of his son, our leader Jesus Christ. And you can trust God, he will keep you strong for Jesus.

Don't split up to follow different Christian leaders

<sup>10</sup> My Christian friends, our leader Jesus Christ wants me to say this to you. All you Christians have to agree with each other and stay together. Don't split up. Please think the same way as each other, and agree together about the right way to follow Jesus.

<sup>11</sup> You see, my friends, some of Chloe's mob told me what is going on there in Corinth. They reckon that you are arguing too much with each other and you are splitting into different groups. <sup>12</sup> They reckon some of you say, "Paul is our leader," and others say, "That other man, Apollos, he is our leader," and others say, "No, not them. Our leader is Peter," and others say, "Jesus Christ is our leader."*

<sup>13</sup> Listen, that's not right. Don't split up into groups like that. If you do that, it's like you are splitting up Jesus Christ. Stop and think about it. Did I, Paul, die for you on a cross? No way. And when Christian leaders baptised you, when they took you through that special washing ceremony, did they baptise you to show that you belonged to me, Paul? No way. <sup>14-15</sup> I thank God that I only baptised a few of you, so none of you can say, "Paul baptised me, so he is my leader." I only baptised Crispus and Gaius.* <sup>16</sup> And I just remembered, I

* 1:2 Acts 18:1    * 1:12 Acts 18:24    * 1:14-15 Acts 18:8; 19:29; Romans 16:23    * 1:16 1 Corinthians 16:15 baptised Stefanos and his family too. But I can't remember baptising anyone else.*

 17 You see, Jesus Christ didn't send me to baptise people. He sent me to tell the good news to people, that Jesus died for them. That message is powerful. God didn't send me to say smart words to people. That sort of talk is useless. People might just think about my smart words, and not listen to God, and so they will not hear God's powerful good news.

God shows his power in the message about Jesus

18 We tell everybody the message that Jesus died on a cross to save them. Some people hear that message and think it is stupid. Those people's spirits are finishing up, and they are lost. But other people hear that message and think it is good. You are like that mob, and so are we. We know that message is from God. It tells us that he is using his power to save us. 19 It is like God says in his book,

"People might think they are smart, and they might reckon they know everything, but God shows them that they are not wise, and he will stop them from doing what they are thinking about."* 20 So what does that tell us about the smart people in this world? And what about those people that reckon they properly know the Jewish law? And what about those people that can talk really good, so that they win arguments? None of them get to know God. They leave God out. They don't think about him, and in the end God shows us that they are all stupid.* 21 You see, God is properly wise. He knows that most people in this world want to be smart and think up their own ideas about God. But he blocks them, so they will never get to know him that way. Instead, God is happy to save everybody that believes his message. And we tell you that message, even though other people think we are stupid.

22 You see, the Jewish people want to see God do something powerful, and then they reckon they will believe him. And other people that are not Jews, they just want to hear about smart ideas. 23 But we are not like those people. We tell people about Jesus Christ, and we tell them that he died for them on the cross. The Jewish people can't understand that. It isn't what they want, so they don't believe it. And the other people that are not Jews, they reckon it is stupid, so they don't believe it. 24 But we are different. God has picked us to save us. Some of us are Jews and some of us are not Jews, but when we listen to that message about Jesus Christ it is a powerful message for us. We believe it and God saves us. And we know that God is really wise because he sent Jesus to save us. 25 People might reckon that is a stupid thing for God to do, but God's way is better than the best idea any person ever had. And people might reckon that God is weak, they might reckon that he just let his son die. But they are wrong. God did that to show us that he is stronger than anyone else.

26 My Christian friends, remember what you were like before God picked you. Most of you were not the smart sort of people. Most of you were not powerful people. Most of you didn't belong to important families. 27 You see, people in this world reckon you are stupid, but God picked you anyway. He did that to show that those smart people are wrong, and they have to feel shame. Yes, God picked the weak people in this world to show that the powerful people are useless, so they have to feel shame. 28 And God picked people from this world that are not great, and people that are like nothing, so that in the end, those other people that reckon they are great, they will become like nothing. 29 God does that so that nobody can ever get up in front of God and say, "I'm really good. I'm better than other people."

30 But as for you, God joined you to Jesus Christ. You and us together, Jesus helps us to be wise, like God. And Jesus makes us to be God's friends, so that he will tell us we are all right. And Jesus makes us God's own special people too. Jesus died to pay for us and set us free from everything that is wrong. 31 So we have to talk the way God tells us to. He says this in his book, "If you want to talk about great things, don't talk about yourself, but talk about God, and tell everyone about the great things that he does."*

Paul only said the words that the Holy Spirit gave him

1 My Christian friends, remember when I first came to you and told you God's message. I didn't use smart words, like a man that thinks he knows everything. 2 No. I only told you about Jesus Christ, and that he died on the cross for us. I didn't talk about other things. <sup>3</sup> I felt weak and frightened while I was with you. I was so frightened I was shaking.* <sup>4</sup> I didn't think up smart ideas or use smart words to get you to believe my message. No. I trusted God's spirit to use his power to show everyone that my message is true. <sup>5</sup> I did that so that you will not trust in a smart person, but you will trust in the power of God.

* 1:19 Isaiah 29:14 * 1:20 Job 12:17; Isaiah 19:12; 33:18; 44:25 * 1:31 Jeremiah 9:24

<sup>6</sup> You see, whenever I am with people that trust in Jesus, and are strong for him, that's when I can talk about things that are wise and good. I don't mean smart ideas that people in this world think up, like how the bosses in this world plan things. Those bosses will finish up anyway. <sup>7</sup> No, the wise and good things that we talk about are the things that belong to God. He planned those things a long time ago, before he made the world, but he didn't tell anybody about them until now. <sup>8</sup> None of the bosses in this world understood those things. So they killed Jesus. They nailed our very great and good leader to a cross. <sup>9</sup> But, you know, God says this in his book,

"God got good things ready for the people that love him.

Those things are better than anything anybody else can ever think up.

Nobody ever saw or heard anything as good as the things that God got ready for us."*

<sup>10</sup> But God's spirit shows these things to us. His spirit understands everything, even those things that God has not yet told anybody. <sup>11</sup> You see, nobody knows what another person is thinking. Only that person's own spirit knows, nobody else. Well, it is like that with God too. Only God's spirit knows what God is thinking. <sup>12</sup> And remember this, God didn't get us to think the way the people of this world think. No. God gave us his spirit, and his spirit helps us, so we can understand all the good things God gave us. <sup>13</sup> Those are the things that we tell you about. We don't use words that smart people taught us, but we use the words that God's spirit teaches us. And we tell God's message to people that have God's spirit living inside them, and we help them understand it.

<sup>14</sup> You see, if God's spirit is not living inside people, they can't believe any message from God. They can't understand what God wants to teach them. They think it is all stupid. You see, the Holy Spirit is the only one that can help people understand the things of God. <sup>15</sup> People that have God's spirit can think about all these things and understand them. But people that haven't got God's spirit can never understand the people that have got his spirit. <sup>16</sup> God says this in his book,

"Nobody can know what God is thinking. Nobody can try to tell him the right way to think."*

But the Holy Spirit is in us, so we can think the same way that Jesus Christ thinks.

Don't argue with each other

<sup>1</sup> Now listen, my Christian friends, when I was there with you, you started to believe in Jesus, but you didn't understand a lot about him, and you didn't let the Holy Spirit control you. You still let your old human spirits control you. You were just like babies that don't understand things. <sup>2</sup> You know, babies can't eat hard food. They can only drink milk. Well, that is a picture of you mob. I couldn't teach you hard things. You couldn't understand them. And even now you are not ready to listen to me.*

<sup>3</sup> Even though you are Christians you still don't live like Christians. You still let your old human spirits control you. You want things that other people have. And you argue with each other. That shows that you are letting your human spirits control you, not the Holy Spirit. You are still like people that don't know God. <sup>4</sup> You see, some of you say, "Paul is our leader," and others say, "No, not Paul, Apollos is our leader." And you argue with each other. You are just like the people of the world, not God's people.*

Paul and Apollos worked together for God

<sup>5-8</sup> Just think about Apollos and me, Paul. We are not important bosses. We are only workers for God. God gave each of us our jobs, and we helped you believe in Jesus Christ.

I'll use picture talk now. Think about a garden. One worker plants seeds, and another worker puts water on the young plants to help them grow properly. But it is God that makes the seeds grow up to be big plants. The worker that plants the seeds is not important, and the worker that gives water to the plants is not important. The important one is God. He makes the plants grow. Well, that picture story about a garden is a picture of you mob. God is making you grow like he makes those plants grow. And Apollos and me, we work in God's team, just like those workers in that garden. I started telling you about Jesus, and Apollos taught you more about him. We both want you to have life, but we can't give you new life. God is the one that gives you new life. We are just his workers, and you know, God will pay each of us for our work.* <sup>9</sup> We are like 2 men that work for God in his garden, and you are like God's garden.

* 2:3 Acts 18:9 * 2:9 Isaiah 64:4 * 2:16 Isaiah 40:13 * 3:2 Hebrews 5:12-13 * 3:4 1 Corinthians 1:12

Christians are like God's house

And I'll use another picture story. This picture story shows that you are like God's house that he is building for himself. <sup>10-11</sup> This is the picture story. One builder starts to build a house. First, he puts cement down on the ground for the building to stand on. That cement is called the foundation. Then other builders build the house on that cement foundation. This story is a picture of you getting into God's family. God was good to me and gave me the power to work for him. I told you about Jesus, and it is like I put down a good foundation for you at that time. And now other Christian workers are teaching you more about Jesus. They are like the builders that build on that foundation. They have to do it properly. Jesus is the only strong foundation. Nobody can put down any other foundation for God's family.

<sup>12</sup> I'll tell you more of this picture story about the builders. Good builders build with really good things like gold, or silver, or jewels. But other builders don't work properly, they don't care, they only use wood, or grass, or leaves. If a fire comes, the parts of the house that are made of wood, or grass, or leaves, those parts will burn up. But the parts that are made of gold, or silver, or jewels, those parts will stay good. So you can know which builders did a good job. Christian workers are like those builders in the picture story. Some Christian workers do a good job and tell God's word properly, and some don't do a good job. <sup>13</sup> One day, Jesus Christ will come back, and then God will show which workers did a good job, like the fire in the picture story shows if part of the house is good or not. <sup>14</sup> If they did a good job, it will stay good a long time, like the good parts in the picture story. And if they did a good job, God will pay those good workers. <sup>15</sup> But if it is no good, it will finish up, like the rubbish parts in the picture story.

And if it is no good, God will not pay those workers, but he will still save them.

<sup>16</sup> You know that God's spirit lives in you Christian people. You are like a special house that God lives in.* <sup>17</sup> Yes, you mob are God's special people, like his special house here on earth. So if somebody makes a Christian mob split up, it is like they break up God's house, and God will punish that person properly.

<sup>18</sup> Some of you mob think you are really smart, but you are thinking wrong, like the people of this world that don't know God. So stop tricking yourselves. Instead, you have to think God's way. Other people might think you are fools, but really, you will be wise. <sup>19</sup> The people of this world think they are very smart, but God knows they are fools. We can read this in God's book,

"People reckon they are smart, but God uses their own smart ideas like a trap, and he catches them."*

<sup>20</sup> And we can read this in another place in God's book,

"Smart people think up great ideas, but God knows those ideas are useless."*

<sup>21</sup> So don't think that any human person is the important leader. You see, Jesus is your leader, and God gives you everything you need. <sup>22</sup> Yes, he gives you his workers to help you. He gave you me, and he gave you Apollos, and he gave you Peter. We are all here to help you. God uses everything to help you. If you live, or if you die, God will make it good for you. He will use things that happen now to help you, and he will use things that will happen later, to help you. <sup>23</sup> You see, you belong to Jesus Christ, and Jesus Christ belongs to God. And God is the most important one.

Respect those people that work for Jesus

<sup>1</sup> So when you think about me and Apollos, remember that we are just workers for Jesus Christ. You see, at first God didn't tell anyone his message, but now he wants Apollos and me to tell that message to people. That is the special job that God gave us. <sup>2</sup> And, you know, if a boss gives his worker an important job, the worker has to be careful to do it properly.

<sup>3</sup> And when you mob think about me, maybe you think I'm doing a good job, or maybe not. Well, I don't care what you think. I don't care what anybody thinks about me. It doesn't even matter what I think about myself. <sup>4</sup> I reckon

* 3:5-8 Acts 18:4-11, 24-28 * 3:16 1 Corinthians 6:19; 2 Corinthians 6:16 * 3:19 Job 5:13 * 3:20 Psalm 94:11

I haven't done anything wrong, but that doesn't make me right. You see, God is my judge, and I only care about what he thinks about me.

<sup>5</sup> So I'm telling you, don't judge people before the right time comes. You have to wait until our leader Jesus comes back again from heaven. He knows every secret. He will show everyone the secret things that people think about doing. And at that time God will praise each of his good workers, and he will say good things about them.

<sup>6</sup> My Christian friends, I've been talking about Apollos and me, to help you to understand the things we teach you. You know that wise people say this, "Don't do anything more than what is in God's book." We want to help you learn what that means. You see, nobody can say that one person is better than another person. <sup>7</sup> You yourselves are no better than other people. God gave you everything that you have. So you can't reckon that you are really smart, and that you got it for yourselves.

<sup>8</sup> You think you know everything, and you think you don't need to learn anything more, but you are wrong. You think that you are spiritually rich, but you are not. You think you have a lot of power, like you think you are big bosses, and you think that we haven't got any power, but you are wrong again. You know, it would be good if you had God's power so that you can be big bosses for him, and Apollos and me can be bosses with you, but that is not the way it is. <sup>9</sup> No, I reckon it is like this. Even though we are Jesus's special workers, God lets us look weak. You know how soldiers take prisoners out to kill them in a place where everybody can watch them die. Well, I reckon it is like that with us. God lets us look weak, like those prisoners, so that everyone on the earth, and in heaven too, can look at us. <sup>10</sup> They see that we work for Jesus Christ, and lots of people think we are fools. But you mob reckon you are different from us. You reckon you are really smart because you know Jesus Christ. Yes, everyone thinks we are weak, but you reckon you are strong. You reckon everyone has to respect you, but you don't care if they respect us or not. <sup>11</sup> You see, the bad people of this world were always hard on us special workers, and they are still hard on us right up to now. We go hungry, and thirsty, and our clothes are old rags. We haven't got anywhere to live. <sup>12</sup> We have to work hard all the time to get money for food. Some people swear at us and ask bad spirits to hurt us, but we just ask God to be good to them. If people are hard on us, we just put up with it.* <sup>13</sup> If people say bad things about us, we answer with good words. But people keep on treating us like we are the world's worst rubbish.

<sup>14</sup> I'm telling you all this to help you see that what you are doing is wrong. I'm not trying to shame you. You see, I love you like you are my own kids, and I want you to live the right way. <sup>15</sup> I'm like a father to you. I was the first person to tell you the good news about Jesus Christ, and he gave your spirits new life, so I'm your spiritual father on this earth. And even if you have lots of other people teaching you about God, I was the first person to tell you about him, so I'm the only one that is like your father in Christian things. <sup>16</sup> So I'm asking you to live the way I live, and to do the same sorts of things that I do.*

<sup>17</sup> That is the reason why I sent Timothy to you. He will help you do that. He is like a son to me, and I love him very much. He always keeps on working properly for Jesus. He will help you remember the way I live for Jesus Christ. He will teach you the same things that I teach in every church everywhere.

<sup>18</sup> You see, some of you reckon you are really great, and you say, "Paul is frightened to come back here." <sup>19</sup> But you are wrong. I want to go back and visit you. So if our leader Jesus wants me to, I will do that soon. And then I will find out if you really have God's power, or if you are just talking. <sup>20</sup> You see, if people are really in God's family, they have God's power, and they will live God's way. They don't just talk and keep on living the bad way.

<sup>21</sup> So think about this. Will you keep on doing bad things, or will you stop? I am coming to you, and if I find you still doing bad things, I will punish you. Is that what you want? But if you stop doing bad things, I will love you, and I will be easy on you.

5

Don't have a bad person in your church family

<sup>1</sup> Now listen. I have to talk straight to you about this. Some people have told me there is something bad going on in your church family. One of you has his father's wife as his girlfriend, and he is sleeping with her as if they are married. Look,

* 4:12 Acts 18:3 * 4:16 1 Corinthians 11:1; Philippians 3:17 * 5:1 Deuteronomy 22:30 even people that don't know God don't do that.* <sup>2</sup> But you mob don't seem to care, and instead, you think you are great. But listen, you really have to feel shame and be sad, not happy. That man is doing a very bad thing, so you can't let him stay in your church family.

<sup>3</sup> Listen, I'm not there with you mob, but I think about you mob a lot, and I'm thinking about that man that is doing that very bad thing, so I'm telling you what you have to do. <sup>4</sup> I know that you will meet together as followers of our leader Jesus, and I will be thinking about you and praying for you. It will be like I will be there with you, and the powerful spirit of Jesus will be there with you too. <sup>5</sup> Then, at that meeting, you have to ask God to let Satan hurt that man. Satan is the boss over the bad spirits. Satan will hurt that man's body, and then God can save that man's spirit, when our leader Jesus comes back.

<sup>6</sup> So stop telling everyone that you are properly good. It's not true. Let me tell you a picture story about baking powder. We put a little bit of baking powder into the flour when we make damper. And that little bit of baking powder goes into all the flour in the bowl and makes all the dough swell up.* <sup>7</sup> That is a picture of that one person in your mob that does bad things. He is like that baking powder in the picture story. He will get all of you mob to go wrong, like that baking powder made all the dough swell up. So get rid of that bad person. Then you will be straight and clean, like new clean dough that hasn't got any baking powder in it. And really, you are clean like that. Remember, Jesus Christ died for us to clean us from the wrong things we did, so we are like that clean dough. Jesus is like the young sheep that the Jews kill and eat at their ceremony called Passover. Well, just like that young sheep dies, Jesus died for us. And think about this. Before that ceremony, they have to get rid of all that stuff that makes damper swell up, and then they eat flat damper.* <sup>8</sup> That is a picture of us church people. Just like the Jews have to get rid of all that stuff that makes damper swell up, we have to get rid of everything that is bad, and we have to stop doing bad things. Instead, we have to be good and honest and true.*

<sup>9</sup> I wrote you a letter before, and I told you, "Don't be good friends with bad people. There are some people that sleep with somebody that is not their own wife or husband, as if they are married to them. Keep away from those people." <sup>10</sup> But I did not mean that you have to keep away from the people of this world that don't know God. Some of them sleep with somebody that is not their own wife or husband. Some of them are greedy, like they want a lot of things and money. Some of them trick other people to get their money, and some of them respect bad spirits and make them their gods. If you try to keep away from all those bad people, you will have to leave this world, and you can't do that.

<sup>11</sup> No. This is what I meant. Don't be good friends with people that reckon they are Christians, but they do bad things all the time. If they sleep with somebody that is not their own wife or husband, as if they are married to them, then don't be good friends with those people. Or if they are greedy, don't be good friends with them. If they respect bad spirits, and if they make those spirits their gods, don't be good friends with them. If they yell and swear at other people, don't be good friends with them. If they always get drunk, don't be good friends with them. If they trick other people to get their money, don't be good friends with them. Don't even eat food with a Christian that does things like that. <sup>12-13</sup> You see, I can't be the judge of people that are not Christians. God will judge those people, and he will punish those people that do bad things. But if a Christian in your church group does bad things, you have to work out how to punish them. You have to do what God says in his book,

"Get rid of bad people from your group."*

Don't go to the law courts to sort out trouble between Christians

<sup>1</sup> There is something else I have to talk to you about. If one of you Christians has a problem with another Christian, why do you go to the court house to sort it out? That is not right. Those court house people are not God's people. No. You have to get Christians to sort it out. Remember, we Christians are God's special people <sup>2</sup> and one day God will get us Christians to be the judges of all the other people in the world. So, if you are going to be a judge of other people one day, why can't you sort out your own little problems now? <sup>3</sup> You know, one day we Christians will even be judges of God's angel messengers. So we have to know how to sort out our problems here on the earth.

<sup>4</sup> Sometimes you don't agree with each other about some little thing, and then you go to other people, and you get them to be your judges. <sup>5</sup> I talk like this so that you will feel shame. I reckon there has to be somebody there in your church that is wise enough to help you sort out these problems between yourselves. <sup>6</sup> But no, you don't do it that way. Instead, one of you Christians goes to the court house people to argue against another Christian. You stand up in front of judges that don't believe in Jesus Christ, and you get them to sort it out. That's not the right way to settle your problems.

<sup>7</sup> You see, when you go to the court house to argue about these things you are letting the bad spirits win. Look, if people do bad things to you, just let them do those things and don't worry about it. That's the better way. Even if they rob you, don't worry. <sup>8</sup> But instead of that, you mob are doing those bad things yourselves. That is wrong. You even do bad things to other Christians, and you even rob other Christians.

<sup>9</sup> Listen. You know what will happen to bad people, right? They will not be in God's family. They will never get the good things that God will give to his people. Don't let anyone trick you about this. I'll tell you now about the sort of people that will not be in God's family. People that sleep with somebody that's not their wife or husband, as if they are married. Those people will not be in God's family. Or 2 men that sleep together as if one of them is a woman, they will not be in God's family. And people that respect other spirits more than they respect God, <sup>10</sup> and people that steal things, and greedy people that want a lot of money and things, they will not be in God's family. And people that always get drunk, and people that yell at other people and swear at them, and people that trick other people to get their money, none of those people will be in God's family.

<sup>11</sup> And I know that some of you used to be bad people like that before. You did that sort of bad thing, but now you believe in Jesus Christ and let him be your boss. And God's spirit came into you and washed you inside, and he made you God's own special people, so that God says you are all right now.

Use your bodies to show everyone that God is really great <sup>12</sup> Some of you say, "I'm free from the Jewish law now, so I can do anything I want to." Yes, but not everything will be good for you.

You see, I can say that too. I can say, "I'm free from the Jewish law, so I can do anything I want to." But I don't want to do bad things. And if I think about doing bad things, I will start doing bad things, and I will not be able to stop myself. But I don't want that.*

<sup>13</sup> Some of you say, "God made our bellies for food, and he made food to fill our bellies." So you think that you can do what you want with your bodies, and it doesn't matter. You think you can sleep with somebody that is not your wife or husband, as if you are married to them. But you are wrong. Don't forget that, in the end, God will finish up your bellies, and he will finish up the food too. You see, God made your bodies for you to live his way. You can't sleep with anyone you want to. You have to use your bodies the way God wants you to use them. <sup>14</sup> You see, our bodies are important to God. Our leader, Jesus died, but then God made him alive again. And God will use his power to make our bodies alive again too. <sup>15-16</sup> Think about this. God says this in his book,

"The man and his wife will join with each other, and their bodies will be like one body."*

So, if a man pays a woman money to let him sleep with her, he joins his own body to her body and becomes like one body with her. And you know, your bodies are parts of Jesus Christ's body. So don't let part of Jesus's body join up to the body of a bad woman. No way. <sup>17</sup> But, you know, if you join on to our leader, Jesus, you join your spirit to his spirit, and the 2 of you become like one spirit.

<sup>18</sup> So never sleep with anyone that is not your own wife or husband and do what married people do together. Get away from that sort of bad thing. You see, other bad things that you do are outside of your own body. But if you sleep with a person you are not married to, you hurt your own body. <sup>19</sup> And you know, God gave you his spirit and he lives in you. Your body is the home of the Holy Spirit. You don't belong to yourself any more, but you belong to God.* <sup>20</sup> Remember this, God bought you. He paid a lot for you. So you have to use your body to live for him, to show everyone that God is really great and good.

<sup>1</sup> You wrote a letter to me and asked me some questions, and now I will answer one of those questions. You asked me, "Is it good for a man to stay single and never marry a woman?" My answer is, "Yes, but only if he can stay single without going wrong." <sup>2</sup> You see, a lot of people can't do that. They try to stay single, but then they go wrong, and they end up sleeping with somebody, as if they are married to each other. So, I reckon, every man has to have his own wife and only ever sleep with her, and every woman has to have her own husband and only ever sleep with him.

<sup>3</sup> If a wife needs her husband to sleep with her and do what married people do together, he has to agree to it, to make her happy. And if a husband needs his wife to sleep with him and do what married people do together, she has to agree to it, to make him happy. <sup>4</sup> You see, the wife's body does not only belong to her, it also belongs to her husband. In the same way, the husband's body doesn't only belong to him, it also belongs to his wife.

<sup>5</sup> So, if your husband or wife wants to sleep with you, to do what married people do together, you can't say, "No." But both of you can agree to wait for a while without sleeping together, so you can use the time to pray. Then, soon after that, you have to sleep together again. If you don't, Satan might trick you. He knows you can't control yourselves very well. If you go too long without sleeping together, then he will try to get one of you to sleep with somebody else. <sup>6</sup> I'm not saying that you have to stop sleeping together. I'm saying that if you both agree to stop for a while, so you can pray more, that's all right. <sup>7</sup> You know, I reckon it is good for everyone to stay single, like me. But God helps people in different ways. He helps some people be a good husband or wife, and he helps other people stay single without going wrong.

<sup>8</sup> Now I will talk to you people that are not married. Maybe your wife or husband has died, or maybe you never married anyone. This is what I reckon. Stay single, like me. <sup>9</sup> But you have to control yourself properly. If that is too hard for you, then marry somebody. If you are always wanting to sleep with somebody and do what married people do together, don't try to stay single.

<sup>10</sup> Now I will talk to you Christians that are married, and your partner is another Christian. Don't get divorced. This rule comes from our leader, Jesus, not just from me. A wife can't leave her husband. <sup>11</sup> But if she does leave him, she has to stay single. Or she can go back to her husband. And it is the same for a husband. He can't leave his wife.*

<sup>12</sup> Now I will talk to you people that are married, but your partner is not a Christian. This is not a rule that comes from our leader, Jesus, but this is what I reckon. If a Christian man has a wife, and if she doesn't believe in Jesus, but she agrees to stay with him, that man can't split up the marriage, he can't divorce her. <sup>13</sup> If a Christian woman has a husband, and if he doesn't believe in Jesus, but he agrees to stay with her, that woman can't split up the marriage, she can't divorce him. <sup>14</sup> You see, if a woman believes in Jesus, but her husband doesn't, God says it's good for them to stay married. And in the same way, if a man believes in Jesus, but his wife doesn't, God says it's good for them to stay married. And I'll tell you about their kids too. If their mother or father believes in Jesus, God reckons those kids are special. They are not just like the kids of people who don't believe in him.

<sup>15</sup> So if you have a husband or wife that isn't Christian, and they want to leave you, then you can let them go. Christians don't have to try to make their partners stay with them if their partners are not Christians. God wants us to be quiet and happy. He doesn't want us to be arguing and fighting with each other. But if your husband or wife isn't Christian, but they agree to stay with you, then don't leave them. <sup>16</sup> Listen, Christian wife, maybe you can help your husband turn around and let God save him. And listen, Christian husband, maybe you can help your wife turn around and let God save her.

Stay the same as you were when you first believed

<sup>17</sup> You know, I've been talking to you about marriage, and I said that married people have to stay married. Well, our leader Jesus gives us all different lives. Some people are married, some people are not married. Some men have had a young man operation, some men haven't. Some people are workers with no pay, some people are free. But this is the rule that I tell Christians in all the churches, everywhere I go. I tell them, "You don't have to try to change those things. You can just stay the same as you were when God picked you to be in his family.”<sup>18</sup> It’s like this. Some of you were born Jews, so your Jewish family did a young man operation on you. After that, God picked you to be in his family. All right, don’t try to get another operation to change it back again. And some of you are not born Jews, but God has picked you to be in his family. All right, don’t try to be Jewish now. Don’t get a young man operation.<sup>19</sup> It doesn’t matter if you get that Jewish operation, or not. This is what’s important, you have to do what God tells us all to do.

* 7:11 Matthew 5:32; 19:9; Mark 10:11-12; Luke 16:18

<sup>20</sup> You see, God picked each of you to be in his family, so don’t try to change everything. Stay the same as you were at that time when God picked you.<sup>21</sup> Sometimes bosses own their workers. Those workers belong to their bosses and their bosses control them. They have to do what their bosses say, and they don’t get any pay. If God picked you while you were a worker like that, don’t worry. Don’t try to run away and get free. (But if your boss says you can go free, then do that.)<sup>22</sup> Some of you are that sort of worker. Your boss owns you and controls you. But think about this. God picked you to join up with Jesus, and you are in his family, so now you are properly free. You are free from the bad things you used to do. They don’t control you any more.

In the same way, some of you are free people, nobody owns you. But think about this. God picked you, and you are in Jesus’s family, so now Jesus owns you and you work all the time for him.<sup>23</sup> You see, God bought you and he paid a lot for you. So don’t let anyone else control you and get you to go wrong.<sup>24</sup> You see, my Christian friends, I’m telling you that each one of you has to live for God, and stay the same as you were when God picked you.

<sup>25</sup> I’m going to talk now about young people that are not married, and I will try to answer your question. Our leader Jesus didn’t tell me what to say about this, but I will tell you what I think. God is good to me and he helps me think properly, so I reckon you can believe me. This is what I think.<sup>26</sup> People everywhere are making trouble for God’s people these days, so I reckon it is best for you to stay the way you are.<sup>27</sup> This is what I reckon, if you are married, don’t try to leave your partner. But if you are not married, don’t look for a partner.<sup>28</sup> The bad people in this world will make a lot of trouble for God’s people, and married people will find it hard to live with that trouble. I want to save you from getting too much trouble, so I’m telling you to stay single. But if you do marry somebody, you are not doing wrong.

<sup>29-31</sup> My Christian friends, listen to what I’m saying. There is not much time left before Jesus will come back, and he will change this world. So don’t just think about the things of this world. That is the reason why I’m telling you married men that after Jesus comes back, it will not matter if people are married or single. And I’m telling you people that are sad, don’t worry, the trouble that makes you sad will go away when Jesus comes back. And I’m telling you people that are happy, the things that make you happy will go away when Jesus comes back. And I’m telling you people that buy things for yourselves, you will not own those things after Jesus comes back. You see, we do those things in this world now, but soon, when Jesus comes back, all those things will finish up. So don’t just live for those things now.

<sup>32</sup> You see, I don’t want you to be worried about the things in this world. A single man thinks a lot about Jesus, and he only wants to make Jesus happy.<sup>33</sup> But a married man wants to make his wife happy too, so he also thinks a lot about the things in this world.<sup>34</sup> So he has a lot to think about. He doesn’t just think about God, but he thinks about his family too. And it is like that for women too. A single woman thinks a lot about God, and she wants both her body and her spirit to belong to him. But a married woman wants to make her husband happy too, so she also thinks a lot about the things in this world.<sup>35</sup> I’m saying this to help you. I’m not making rules for you, but I want you to listen properly to God, and think about him, and work properly for him. Don’t let anything get in your way and stop you from doing that.

<sup>36</sup> Maybe a young woman was promised to a man, but those 2 think it is better to work for God, and they agree not to get married yet. And maybe that woman is getting older now, and soon she will not be a good age to marry, so that man thinks that it is best for him to marry her now. That’s all right. He has to do what he thinks is good. It’s all right for them to get married. He will not be doing anything wrong.

<sup>37</sup> But maybe another young woman was promised to a man, and those 2 agreed to work for God and not to get married, but this man still wants to stay single, and he can control himself. Well, he can stay single if he wants to. If he doesn’t get married, that is good.<sup>38</sup> This is what I reckon. The man that marries his promise does something good. But the man that stays single does something better.

<sup>39</sup> And now I will tell you about widows. A married woman has to stay with her husband while he is alive. She can't leave him and go away and marry another man. But if her husband dies, then she can marry again. But a Christian widow has to marry a Christian man. <sup>40</sup> But I reckon she will be more happy if she stays single, and I think God's spirit is telling me what to say to you.

8

Some people give food to statues that they think are gods

<sup>1</sup> I will answer your next question now, about those statues that some people make, and they think those statues are gods. They give food to those statues, and they reckon the statues give that food power. Then those people eat that food, or they sell it to other people. And you Christians asked me, "Can we eat that food that they gave to those statues?" That's what you asked me.

Well, before I answer your question, I want you to remember this. All of us know something, but if we think we know more than other people, we start thinking wrong, like we reckon we are really smart. No, we can't try to be smart. Instead, we have to love people. If we love other people, it helps them to get strong. <sup>2</sup> So if you reckon you know all about everything, you don't really know much at all. You still have to learn a lot more. <sup>3</sup> But if you love God, then God really knows you, like you are his good friend.

<sup>4</sup> All right, now I will answer your question about the food that people give to those statues that they think are gods. We Christians know that a statue is not really a god at all. We know that there is only the one God. <sup>5</sup> But some people, that are not Christians, they respect lots of spirits. They respect spirits in the sky, and spirits on the earth. And they think those spirits are gods, and they let those spirits be their bosses. And people make statues that they think look like those spirits, and they think those statues get power from those spirits. <sup>6</sup> But we Christians know that those statues are nothing at all. We know there is only one God. He is our father. He made everything, and we want to do whatever he wants, as long as we live. And there is only one true boss. He is Jesus Christ. He worked with God, and together they made everything. And Jesus gives us Christians real life.

<sup>7</sup> But some Christians don't understand all that. They showed respect to those statues for a long time before they became Christians, and then they believed in Jesus, but they still think those statues have power. They can't work out what is true and what is not true. They know that it is wrong to respect those statues, so they don't eat any of the food that people give to those statues. They think that if they do eat that food, then they are doing something wrong, and it makes them feel bad, like they are not clean. <sup>8</sup> But really, it doesn't matter if we eat that food or not. If we eat it, we will not get anything special, and if we don't eat it, we will not miss out on anything. You see, no food can help us be close friends with God.

<sup>9</sup> But you have to be very careful. Even though you are free to eat anything, you have to think about those Christians that can't work out what is true and what is not true. You don't want to make them go wrong. <sup>10</sup> It's like this. Some of you Christians know it's all right to eat food in that place where people show respect to those statues. But if you go and eat that food, another Christian might see you there. If that other Christian doesn't know what to think about that food, they might think that you are showing respect to that statue when you eat that food, so that Christian will think it's all right to show respect to that statue. And then that Christian will show respect to that statue, and that is wrong. <sup>11</sup> So you will wreck that other Christian that is not so sure about these things. You see, you yourself know that food has no power, but if then you eat it, and that makes another Christian go wrong, you are doing wrong because you wreck that other Christian. And Jesus Christ died for that person. <sup>12</sup> You see, if other Christians are not sure what is right or wrong, and if they see what you do, and if that gets them to do something wrong, you are really bad. If you hurt them like that, you are really hurting Jesus Christ. Don't do that.

<sup>13</sup> So, you see, this is what I think. I reckon every other Christian is like a brother or a sister to me, so I will not eat anything that gets them to go wrong. If something that I want to eat might get another Christian to do something wrong, I will not eat it. Never.

9

Paul talked about himself as an example

<sup>1</sup> Some of you mob might ask me if it is all right for me to write to you and tell you all these things. Yes, it is all right. You see, God picked me to be Jesus's special worker, so I'm free to tell you these things. I have seen Jesus, our leader, with my own eyes. I work for him, and I told you mob about him, and now you belong to him. <sup>2</sup> Maybe other people reckon I'm not Jesus's special worker, but you know that I am. You see, you believed what I told you, and now you are Christians. That shows that Jesus sent me to you.

<sup>3</sup> Some people think that maybe Jesus didn't send me, and they ask me a lot of questions, so I tell them about the way I work for Jesus. <sup>4</sup> I work like this. I never ask people for food or drink. You know, it's all right for me to ask for it. It can be my pay, for the work I did when I told them about Jesus. But I never ask for it. If I need anything, I buy it for myself.

<sup>5</sup> And it is all right for me to have a Christian wife and take her everywhere with me, but I don't do that. Jesus's other special workers, and his brothers, and Peter, they all have wives, and they take their wives with them when they go to other places. But not me. <sup>6</sup> And I think that it's only Barnabas and me that work hard to get our own money to pay for the things we need. I don't think the others do that.

<sup>7</sup> You know, everyone that works gets some sort of pay for their work. You know about soldiers. They don't have to buy their own food or their gear. And you know about gardeners. They work, and they always eat some of the food they grow. And it is the same for people that look after cows. They work, and they can drink some of the milk they get. You see, it's right for people to work and then get something for it. So, if my work is to tell you about Jesus, it's right for you to give me something for my work. But I never ask you to give me anything.

<sup>8</sup> And I'm not just saying what people reckon. God says the same thing in his laws. <sup>9</sup> You see, a long time ago, God gave Moses this law,

"If you get an animal to work for you, you have to let that animal eat something while it works."*

That is the law. And listen, God wasn't just thinking about animals when he gave Moses that law. <sup>10</sup> He was thinking about us people too. People have to get food, just like animals do.

Listen to this picture story about the gardeners that grow food. One man digs up the ground and puts seeds in the ground. Then those seeds grow into food plants, and after that, another man gets the food from those plants and puts it in a shed. Those 2 men both worked hard, so they both get some of that food. <sup>11</sup> That garden is a picture of all of you Christians, and those gardeners are like the people that told you God's good news. You see, we worked hard when we told you God's good news. We gave you what your spirits needed. So now it is only fair for you to give us the things that our bodies need. But we never ask you to give us anything.*

<sup>12</sup> Other people ask you to give them things, and that's all right for them, so it has to be all right for us too. But we never ask you to give us anything. You see, if we ask for things when we tell people the good news about Jesus Christ, some of them will not listen to that good news. But we want everybody to listen to our message about Jesus, so we never ask anybody for anything. We reckon it's better to go short of things.

<sup>13</sup> You know about the Jewish people that work all the time in God's ceremony house. They cook the meat that other people bring to give to God. They also get some of that meat for themselves, and that's good. You see, they get something for their work.*

<sup>14</sup> And just like that, our leader Jesus said that his workers have to get something too. He said that the people that hear the good news and get new life, they have to give something to the people that told them that good news, so that Jesus's workers get the food and other things that they need.*

<sup>15</sup> Well, I am the one that told you the good news, but I haven't asked you for anything. And even now, while I write to you, I'm not asking you for anything. I reckon it is better for me to die than to ask you for something. Now I can tell people that I gave you that good news, and I didn't ask for anything. You got it for nothing, and that makes me happy.

<sup>16</sup> You see, God told me to tell the good news to everyone, so I've got to do it. If I don't tell people that good news, God will give me big trouble. So I can't say, "I'm really good. I tell people that good news." No. I can't do that. <sup>17</sup> But suppose I got this job just because I wanted it, then I will want some pay for it. But no, it wasn't like that. I'm just doing what God told me to do. <sup>18</sup> And I'm very happy when I can give everyone that good news for nothing. That is like my pay. You see, it is all right for me

* 9:9 Deuteronomy 25:4; 1 Timothy 5:18

* 9:11 Romans 15:27

* 9:13 Deuteronomy 18:1

* 9:14 Matthew to ask them for those things. I know that. But I don't do it.

<sup>19</sup> You know, I'm a free man and nobody can force me to work for them. But I work for everyone without pay, so that a lot of people will listen to me and believe in Jesus Christ. <sup>20-21</sup> I do it like this. If I'm with my own people, the Jews, I live like a Jew, so the Jews will listen to me and believe in Jesus. I follow the Jewish law like they do. I know that the Jewish law is not really for me any more, but I want the Jewish people to believe in Jesus. (I don't forget God's law. I always follow the law that Jesus Christ gave us.)

Or if I'm with people that don't know the Jewish law, so they never worry about it, I live like they do. I don't worry about that law either. I live like they do, so they will listen to me and believe in Jesus. <sup>22</sup> Or if I'm with weak people, I become weak too, so they will listen to me. I go to all sorts of people and live like they live. I do everything I can to get them to listen to me, so some of them will believe in Jesus, and God will save them. <sup>23</sup> I do all these things so that I can help more people hear the good news about Jesus Christ, so that I can be happy, together with all the people that believe in Jesus.

<sup>24</sup> Now think about the people that run in a race. They all run, but only one of them wins that race and gets the prize. Well, we have to be like those people that run in a race. We have to try hard to win. That is, we have to try hard to do whatever God wants, so that in the end God will give us new life. That will be like our prize. <sup>25</sup> Those people that run in races, they control themselves and train their bodies so they can win a prize, even though that prize will only be good for a little while. But it is better for us. We control ourselves properly so that we will win a prize that will be good for ever. God will give us new life, so that we will live for ever.

<sup>26</sup> So, you see, I'm like a good runner that runs in a straight line to the end of the race. And I'm like a fighter that hits and doesn't miss. <sup>27</sup> I control my body, and I make it do what is right. I want God to give me that good prize. I don't want God to say to me, "You went wrong. You didn't do what you told other people to do. So you don't get new life."

God doesn't want you to do anything bad

<sup>1</sup> My Christian friends, remember the story about my mob, the Israel people. A long time ago, they all followed Moses and walked out into the hot dry country. And God put a big cloud above them, and that cloud showed them where to go. Then they came to the Red Sea, and God pushed the water back so that they all walked through the Red Sea on dry ground.* <sup>2</sup> It was like God baptised everyone that followed Moses, at first in the cloud, and then in the sea. <sup>3</sup> They all ate the food that God gave them,* <sup>4</sup> and they all drank the water that God gave them. He used his power to put a special rock there for them, and water came from that rock, and they drank it. And that rock followed them all the time in that dry country. That special rock was really Jesus Christ. He went along with them.* <sup>5</sup> That's how God helped the people. But later most of them went wrong, and he was not happy with them. So he killed them, and their bodies lay everywhere in that dry country.* <sup>6</sup> All those things happened to the Israel people to show us that God is not happy with people that do bad things. Those things happened so that we will not want to do bad things, like they did.* <sup>7</sup> Don't do what some of them did. They showed respect to statues that they thought were gods. God says this in his book,
"The people sat down to eat and to drink, to show respect to those statues.

Then they stood up to play.*"
<sup>8</sup> And some of them slept with a person that was not their own wife or husband, and they did what married people do together. So God killed 23,000 of them in one day. This story tells us that we can only sleep with our own wife or husband, not with anybody else.* <sup>9</sup> And some of them tried to test God. They tried to see how far wrong they could go before he punished them. And he did punish them. Cheeky snakes came and killed them. This story tells us that we can't try to test Jesus Christ.* <sup>10</sup> And some of them complained about God and said that he was not fair, and one of God's angel messengers came and killed them. This story tells us that we can't complain about God and say he is not fair.*

* 10:4 Exodus 17:6; Numbers 20:11 * 10:5 Numbers
* 10:8 Numbers 25:1-18 * 10:9 Numbers 21:5-6

<sup>11</sup> All those things happened to that mob a long time ago, and God got his men to write it all in his book, to show us that those things are wrong. We have to think about those stories and learn from them. You see, we're living in the end time now, and soon Jesus will come back. <sup>12</sup> So be careful. If you think you are standing strong for Jesus, look out. You might fall down and go wrong. <sup>13</sup> Sometimes you will want to do bad things and you will find it hard to stop yourself, but remember that other people find it hard to stop themselves from doing bad things too. And remember this, God wants to help you. He will show you a way to stop yourself from going wrong, and he will help you to go the right way.

You can't respect Jesus and respect bad spirits too

<sup>14</sup> Listen, my friends, I'm telling you this. Keep away from those statues that people think are gods. Don't respect them at all. <sup>15</sup> I know that you people can think properly, so you yourselves work out what is right.

<sup>16</sup> Think about when we get together to remember what Jesus did for us. We all drink from that cup, and we remember that Jesus Christ died for us, and his blood came out, and we thank God for him. That joins us together with him and with each other. And when we break up the flat damper and eat it, we all remember that Jesus Christ's body got broken for us. And that also joins us together with him and with each other.* <sup>17</sup> You see, we are a lot of people, but all of us eat from one damper, so all of us are like one body when we eat from that same damper.

<sup>18</sup> Think about the Israel people. They give animals to God and cook their meat on a special table. They show respect to God as they eat that meat, and that joins them together with God and with each other.*

<sup>19</sup> You see, this is what I'm saying. Those statues that people think are gods, they are really nothing. And if people give food to those statues, that food doesn't get any power at all. <sup>20</sup> Really, those people are showing respect to bad spirits, not God, and they are joining themselves to bad spirits. Don't do that. I don't want you to join up with bad spirits.*

<sup>21</sup> You can't go 2 ways at the same time. You can't drink from the cup of our leader, Jesus, and then drink from the cup of bad spirits. You can't eat the damper from the table of Jesus, and then eat food from the table of bad spirits. <sup>22</sup> If you do, you will make God jealous, and he will get angry with you. And he is a lot stronger than you.*

Don't do anything that might give other people problems

<sup>23</sup> Some of you might say this, "We are free from that Jewish law. We can do anything we like. We can eat that food that they give to those statues, and it will not hurt us." All right, but I'm telling you, "No. Not everything is good for us Christians to do." And you might reckon, "We are free, so we can do anything." But I'm telling you, "No. Not everything helps us be better Christians.*" <sup>24</sup> Don't just think about yourself, and what is good for you, but think about what is good for other people.

<sup>25</sup> So, all right, this is what you can do. You can buy food from anyone that sells it, but don't ask them if they first gave it to one of those statues. And don't ask yourself, "Is it all right for me to eat this food, or not?" <sup>26</sup> You see, God's book says, "The earth, and everything in it, belongs to God.*"

Yes, all food is from God, so it is all right for us to eat that food.

<sup>27</sup> Maybe there are some people there that don't believe in Jesus, and they ask you to eat dinner with them. If you say, "Yes," and you go to their place, then you can eat whatever food they give to you there. Don't ask yourself, "Is this food all right or not?" Don't think about it. Don't ask them any questions about that food.

<sup>28</sup> But then, if somebody there says to you, "They gave this food to those statues that they think are gods," then stop. Don't eat that food. Think about the person that told you about it. That person might not know if it is all right to eat that food or not, and you don't want to give that person a problem. <sup>29</sup> It will not matter to you. You know it is all right to eat that food. But that other person doesn't know, and he might think you are doing wrong.

Maybe you ask me, "Why can another person say what I can do and what I can't do?" <sup>30</sup> I thank God for my food. So, if I eat that food, nobody can blame me when I eat it."

<sup>31</sup> Don't think like that. You have to think like this, that we have to live in a way that shows everyone that God is great and God is good. So whatever you do, even when

* 10:16 Matthew 26:26-28; Mark 14:22-24; Luke 22:19-20

* 10:22 Deuteronomy 32:21

* 10:23 1 Corinthians 6:12

* 10:18 Leviticus 7:6

* 10:20 Deuteronomy 32:17

* 10:26 Psalm 24:1

you eat and drink, do it the way God wants.<sup>32</sup> Don't do anything that might give other people problems. Don't make problems for Jewish people, or for people that are not Jewish. And don't make problems for God's people.<sup>33</sup> Be like me. I always try to do what makes everyone happy. I try to help other people. I don't just do things to help myself. You see, I want God to save those other people.

11

<sup>1</sup> So you have to try to live the way I live, and do the same sorts of things that I do, just like I try to live the way that Jesus Christ lived.*

Men and women in Christian meetings

<sup>2</sup> There is another thing I want to talk to you about now. I know that you always remember me, and you do the things I taught you. That makes me very happy.<sup>3</sup> But I also want you to know this. Jesus Christ is the leader of every man, like he is the head one. And men are the leaders of women, like they are the head ones. And God is the head one of Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup> So think about that when you meet together, and think about what other people might reckon when they see what you do. If a man prays, or if he tells a message from God in your meeting, he can't cover his head. If he covers his head, other people will reckon that he isn't following his leader, and that will shame his leader, Jesus.<sup>5</sup> But for women it is different. If a woman prays in your meeting, or if she tells a message from God, that woman has to cover her head. If she doesn't cover her head, other people will reckon she isn't following her leader, her husband, and that will shame him. You know, if somebody cuts off all the hair from a woman's head, that will shame her. And like that, if a woman doesn't cover her head in your meetings, she shames her husband.<sup>6</sup> If she will not cover her head, maybe she has to cut off all her hair, right? No. If she does that, then she will shame herself. She can't do that. And she can't shame her husband either. So she has to cover her head in your meetings.

<sup>7</sup> You see, God made the man like himself, to show everyone that God is great and good. So a man can't cover his head. He has to show that he respects God. And a man looks after his wife, and she shows how good her husband is, so she has to cover her head to show that she respects him.*<sup>8</sup> Remember that God made the man first, then he made the woman. He took a part of that first man to make the first woman. God didn't take a part of that first woman to make the man.<sup>9</sup> And God didn't make the first man to help the woman, but he made the first woman to help the man.*<sup>10</sup> So a woman has to cover her head to show that she respects her husband as her leader. And, you know, God's angel messengers can see everything we do.

<sup>11</sup> You see, we all belong to our leader Jesus. And in his family the women need the men, and the men need the women.<sup>12</sup> It's like this, God made the first woman by taking a part of the first man, but after that, every man was born from a woman. But really, everything comes from God.

<sup>13</sup> So if a woman in your meeting doesn't cover her head when she prays to God, do you reckon that's all right? You work it out for yourselves.<sup>14</sup> It is usually like this. If a man has long hair, people will rubbish him.<sup>15</sup> But if a woman has long hair, it is beautiful, and people will say she looks good. God gave her long hair to cover her.

<sup>16</sup> I know some people might want to argue with me about all of this, but I'm telling you that we always do it that way. It is our custom. All of God's churches do it that way when they meet together.

The food we eat to remember that Jesus died for us

<sup>17</sup> There is something else now that I have to talk to you about. I'm not happy about what happens at your meetings. They are not good, they are bad.<sup>18</sup> You see, some people told me what happens at your church meetings. They say that there are different groups among you, and each group argues with the other groups when you meet together. And I believe that some of that is true.<sup>19</sup> Look, I know some of you will split up into groups, but when you do, you have to let God show you who is right.

<sup>20</sup> And when you meet together, you reckon you eat food together to remember that Jesus died for us. But you don't really do that. You don't even share your food with each other at that dinner, so you are not respecting Jesus.<sup>21</sup> You bring your own food and drink, but nobody shares their food with anybody else. And none of you waits for anyone else. So some of you go hungry, while others get drunk.<sup>22</sup> Listen. Each of you have your own home where you can eat and drink. But there are poor people that haven't got any food at your meetings, and if you don't share your food with them, you shame them. That is

* 11:1 1 Corinthians 4:16; Philippians 3:17

* 11:7 Genesis 1:26-27

* 11:9 Genesis 2:18-23

bad. You are rubbishing God's people, his church. I'm not happy with you when you do that. I can't say anything good about you.

<sup>23</sup> Listen. Our leader Jesus gave me this message, and I taught it to you. It is this.

One night our leader, Jesus, had dinner with his special workers, and on that same night, one of those followers turned against him and went to help Jesus's enemies grab him. At that dinner, Jesus picked up some flat damper <sup>24</sup> and thanked God for it. Then he broke it into bits and said, "This damper is my body. You see, I will let bad people break my body. I will do that for you. So whenever you eat this special meal, remember what I did for you."

<sup>25</sup> And Jesus did something like that at the end of the dinner too. He picked up a cup of wine and said, "Drink from this cup. God has agreed to save people, and I will die so he can do that. My blood will come out, and it is like I'm using my blood to sign God's new agreement with people, to say that they are not guilty of the bad things they did. So every time you have this special dinner and drink from this cup, remember that my blood came out, and that I died for you."* That's what Jesus said that night.

<sup>26</sup> You see, every time you eat that damper and drink from that cup you are saying that Jesus died for you. And you will keep on doing that until he comes back again.

<sup>27</sup> You see, you want to remember that Jesus died for you, so you eat that damper and you drink from that cup together. But if you do it in a bad way that doesn't respect Jesus, you are guilty. You are just as guilty as those people that hurt Jesus's body and made his blood come out.

<sup>28</sup> So, when you eat this meal together, first of all, you each have to think very carefully about yourselves, and the way you live your lives. Then, after you do that, you can eat that damper and you can drink from that cup. <sup>29</sup> You see, if you don't respect the body of Jesus when you eat that damper and drink from that cup, you are doing wrong, and God will judge you and punish you. <sup>30</sup> That is the reason why a lot of you are weak and sick now, and some of your mob have died. <sup>31</sup> But if we think carefully about ourselves and how we live, and if we are sorry for the wrong things we did, God will not punish us. <sup>32</sup> But if God does punish us, he does it to teach us to do good things. So later, when God judges everyone in the world and punishes all the bad people, he will not punish us too.

<sup>33</sup> So, my Christian friends, this is what I'm telling you. Whenever you meet together to eat, to remember that Jesus died for you, you have to wait for each other to be ready. <sup>34</sup> And don't come to that meeting hungry. If you are hungry, eat something at home before you come to the meeting, so when you meet together, you will not do something wrong, and God will not punish you.

That's all I want to say about this matter right now. There are some other things that I want to talk to you about, but I will wait until I come and visit you, and then we can sort them out.

12

God's spirit gives Christians special power

<sup>1</sup> My Christian friends, you know that the Holy Spirit gives special power to Christians. I want to tell you more about that, so that you will understand it properly. <sup>2</sup> Remember this. Before you knew God, you listened to other people that didn't know God, and you did what they did. You used to respect those statues that you thought were gods, but you know, they are just dumb statues, they can't say anything.

<sup>3</sup> Now listen, I want you to understand this. If God's spirit is inside somebody, they can never say, "Jesus, get away from me." And the only people that can really say, "Jesus is my leader," are the people that have God's spirit inside them.

<sup>4</sup> You know, the Holy Spirit gives us special powers to do things. We call those powers the gifts that he gives us. There are different sorts of gifts, but they all come from the same Holy Spirit.* <sup>5</sup> We work for God in a lot of different ways, but all of us work for Jesus. <sup>6</sup> Different people can do different things, but it is the same God that gives each person the power to work for him.

<sup>7</sup> It's like this. The Holy Spirit works in each one of us. He gives us these gifts so we can help each other. <sup>8</sup> The Holy Spirit gives one person the power to say a wise message for somebody, and he gives another person the power to know something special. <sup>9</sup> The same Holy Spirit gives another person the power to believe God strongly for something. And he gives another person the power to make sick people better. <sup>10</sup> The same Holy Spirit gives another person the power to do great things. And he gives another person the power to tell messages straight from God. The same Holy Spirit gives another person the power to know if something comes from God's spirit, or if it comes from bad spirits. He gives another person the power to talk in special languages, and he gives another person the power to say what those special language words mean. <sup>11</sup> It is the same Holy Spirit that does all those things. He gives gifts to each person, just the way he wants to.

* 11:25 Exodus 24:6-8; Jeremiah 31:31-34

* 12:4 Romans 12:6-8

One body has a lot of parts

<sup>12</sup> You know, a body has a lot of parts. All those different parts make only one body. And it is like that with Jesus Christ too. We Christians are like his body.* <sup>13</sup> Some of us are Jews, and the rest of us are not Jews. Some of us are free, and some of us are like prisoners that have to work for no pay. But no matter what we are, God put his spirit into all of us, that is, he baptised us in his spirit. He did that to join us together into one body. Now we all have that same Holy Spirit in us.

<sup>14</sup> And you know that a body doesn't have just one part. It has a lot of different parts. <sup>15</sup> Suppose a foot thinks to itself, "I'm not a hand, so I don't belong to this body." That doesn't change anything, it is still a part of the body. <sup>16</sup> Or suppose an ear thinks to itself, "I'm not an eye, so I don't belong to this body." But no matter what it thinks, it is still a part of the body. <sup>17</sup> Suppose the whole body was an eye, it wouldn't hear anything. Or suppose the whole body was an ear, it wouldn't smell anything. <sup>18-19</sup> Suppose each part of the body was the same, it wouldn't really be a body. But, you see, God put all the different parts in the body just like he wanted them. In the same way, God put different Christians together to become the church. <sup>20</sup> Yes, a body has a lot of parts, but they make only one body. <sup>21</sup> And a body needs every part. Its eye can't reckon, "I don't need that hand." And its head can't reckon, "I don't need those feet." <sup>22</sup> A body needs every part, even the parts that we think are weak. In the same way, the church needs every sort of Christian.

<sup>23</sup> There are some parts of our bodies that we think are not very nice, and we don't want anyone to see them, so we carefully look after those parts and cover them up. <sup>24</sup> But we don't need to cover the beautiful parts of our bodies. God has joined all those parts together to make one body. We might think some parts are not important, but God has made them really important. <sup>25</sup> So all the parts of our bodies live quietly together and help each other. <sup>26</sup> If one part of a body hurts, every other part hurts with it. Or if one part of a body is feeling good, every other part is happy with it.

<sup>27</sup> You see, you are all like Jesus Christ's body. Each of you Christians is a part of his body. <sup>28</sup> And God gives people different jobs in his church, and he gives them the power to do those jobs.

- 1st, there are Jesus's special workers, that God sends to other places to tell people his good news.
- 2nd, there are those other people that God uses to tell his messages.
- 3rd, there are those people that can teach other people.
- After that, there are those people that have the power to do great things.
- Then there are those people that have the power to make sick people better.
- And there are those people that can help other people.
- And there are those people that can lead other people.
- And there are those people that can talk in special languages.*

<sup>29</sup> Did God send all of you out to other places to be Jesus's special workers? No, he didn't. Did he give all of you the power to tell his messages? No. Did he give all of you the power to be teachers? No. Did he give all of you the power to do great things? No, he didn't. <sup>30</sup> And he didn't give all of you the power to make sick people better. He didn't give all of you the power to talk in special languages, and he didn't give all of you the power to say what those special language words mean. <sup>31</sup> You see, God gives different powers to different people. So you have to really want the best powers from God.

It is very important to love God and other people

But there is another really good way, so now I will tell you about that way. It is the best way.

13

<sup>1</sup> You see, we can have power from God, but if we don't love people, we are nothing. Suppose we talk in the languages of other people and even talk in the languages of angels, but if we don't love people, all of that is useless. We will only be making a noise, like somebody banging a drum or hitting a bell. <sup>2</sup> Suppose we tell people God's messages, and suppose

* 12:12 Romans 12:4-5 * 12:28 Ephesians 4:11

we know God's secrets and understand all about everything, and suppose we trust God so strongly that we can get him to move mountains, but if we don't love other people, we are nothing.* <sup>3</sup> Suppose we give everything that we have to poor people, and suppose we stay strong for Jesus, even if somebody burns our bodies so that we die, but if we don't love people, all of that is useless.

<sup>4</sup> If we love people, we will be good to them, and we will not get angry with people that give us trouble. If we love people, we will not be jealous of them. If we love people, we will not reckon we are better than they are, and we will not think we are really good when we are not good.

<sup>5</sup> If we love people, we will not be rude to them or shame them. If we love people, we will think about what they want, not just what we want for ourselves. If we love people, we will not get angry with them quickly, and we will not keep on remembering the bad things they did to us.

<sup>6</sup> If we love people, we will not be happy if they do things that are wrong, but we will be happy if they do things that are right and true. <sup>7</sup> If we love people properly, we will keep on loving them, no matter what happens. If we love people, we will keep on believing good things about them, and we will keep on hoping good things for them, and even if we are getting trouble, we will not give up.

<sup>8</sup> You know, I talked to you already about the special power that God gives to his people, and now I'm telling you that one day we will stop using that special power. But we can't stop loving people. If you love somebody properly, you will always love them. But the time will come when God will not need to give us special power any more. When that time comes, God will not tell people his special messages, and God will not get people to talk in special languages, and God will not let people know special things.

<sup>9</sup> You see, now we only know a little bit, and the special messages that we get from God only tell us a little bit. <sup>10</sup> Right now we only have a little bit of what God wants to give to us. But the time will come when he will let us understand everything properly. Then we will not worry about the little bits any more.

<sup>11</sup> I'll use a picture story about myself to show you what I mean. When I was a little kid I talked like a little kid, and I thought about things the way a little kid thinks about things. I only understood what a little kid can understand. But then I grew up, and now I'm a man, and I've stopped thinking like a little kid. <sup>12</sup> This is what that story means. Now we only understand a little bit. It is like we are looking at things in a dark mirror now. But the time will come when everything will be clear to us, like we are looking straight at them, not in a mirror. Right now we only know a little bit, but at that time we will know everything properly, just like God knows us properly.

<sup>13</sup> So I'm saying there are 3 important things for us to keep on doing.

- We have to keep on believing in God.
- We have to keep on knowing for sure that God will be good to us.
- We have to keep on loving God and people.

We have to keep on doing those 3 things, and the most important one is this,

- We have to keep on loving God and people.

14

Tell God's messages in a language that people know

<sup>1</sup> So always love other people. That is most important. And ask God's spirit to give you special powers too. Ask him for the power to tell special messages from God. That is more important than the power to talk in a special language.

<sup>2</sup> If somebody talks in a special language, they are only talking to God, not talking to people. Nobody can understand them. The Holy Spirit is getting them to talk about secret things, but nobody can understand what they are saying. <sup>3</sup> But if somebody tells messages from God, they are talking to other people, and helping them to understand things better and get strong. Those messages from God help people and make them happy, even if they have trouble. <sup>4</sup> You see, a person that talks in a special language helps only themselves. But a person that tells messages from God helps all the people in the church to get strong. <sup>5</sup> I'm happy if you all talk in special languages, but I'm more happy if you all tell people messages from God. The person that can tell God's messages is greater than the person that talks in special languages. But if somebody tells everyone what those words mean, then it is all right. They will help the church get strong.

<sup>6</sup> My Christian friends, if I come and talk to you in a special language that you don't understand, that will not help you. But if God shows me something, and if I tell you about it, that will help you. Or if he lets me know something new, and if I tell you about it, that will help you too. Or if he gives me a message for you, and if I come and tell you, or if I teach you something, that will help you too.<sup>7</sup> Think about things that make sounds, like guitars. If we don't play them the right way, nobody will think it is proper music.<sup>8</sup> And think about soldiers. Their leader gets one man to blow a trumpet to tell the other soldiers what to do, but if he doesn't blow it properly, they will not know what to do.<sup>9</sup> Well, it is like that for you. You have to talk clearly and say words that people can understand. If they can't understand your words, you will be talking to nobody.<sup>10</sup> You know, there are a lot of different languages in this world, and all of them make sense to the people that know those languages.<sup>11</sup> But if somebody talks to me in a language that I don't know, I will not understand them. I will be like a stranger to them, and they will be like a stranger to me.<sup>12</sup> And it is the same for you too. I know that you really want God's spirit to give you special powers, so ask God to give you the powers that will help the church people be strong.

<sup>13</sup> So in your meetings, if anyone talks in a special language, they have to ask God to show them what those words mean so they can tell everybody the message.<sup>14</sup> You see, it is like this. If I pray in a special language, I'm not using my mind. I'm not thinking about my words while I pray. Only my spirit is praying.<sup>15</sup> So what will I do? Sometimes I will pray with my spirit, and sometimes I will pray with my mind. And sometimes I will sing with my spirit, and sometimes I will sing with my mind.<sup>16</sup> You see, if you only thank God with your spirit, in a special language, other people in the meeting can't understand what you are saying, so they can't agree with you and say, "That's right."<sup>17</sup> You might be thanking God, but your words don't help anyone else.

<sup>18</sup> I thank God that I talk in special languages more than any of you.<sup>19</sup> But if I talk in a church meeting, I want to tell people more about God, and I want them to understand my words. So, I reckon, if I say 5 words that they can understand, that is better than if I say 10,000 words in a special language that they can't understand.

<sup>20</sup> My Christian friends, don't be like little kids in the way you think. You know, little kids don't know much about anything. They don't understand really bad things. So whenever you think about bad things, be like little kids. But whenever you think about anything else, be grown up people. Think properly and understand things properly.<sup>21</sup> You know, God got one of his men to write this in his book, "God will get people from other tribes to talk to this mob. They will talk to them in strange languages.

But even if God gets strangers to talk to this mob, they will not listen to him."*

That is what God said.

<sup>22-24</sup> It is like this. If you talk in special languages, God will use that talk, but not the way you think. He will use it to show you that it is useless to do that when you are all together in a church meeting. Suppose some strangers come into that meeting, people that don't know very much, and don't believe in God. They will hear you all talking in those strange languages, and they will say, "You mob are all mad." But if you tell God's special messages, God will use that to show you that it is right to do that in your church meetings. Suppose some strangers come into the meeting, and they hear you telling messages from God. They will listen to what you say, and they will understand it. Then they will know that they are not God's friends, and they will know that they have to turn around and stop doing bad things.<sup>25</sup> Those messages from God will show them every secret thing that they think about, and they will get down on the ground and show respect to God. And they will say, "It's true, God is really here with you mob."

Have good church meetings

<sup>26</sup> So, my friends, this is how to have proper church meetings. Whenever you church people meet together, each one of you can have something to help the other people there. One of you might have a song that all of you can sing to God. Another person might have something that they can teach you. Somebody else might want to tell you about something that God has shown them. Another person might talk in a special language, and then somebody else can tell everybody what those words in that special language mean. Do all those things to help each other be strong Christians.

<sup>27</sup> Only let 2 or 3 people talk in special languages in your meetings, and they have to take turns. Only let one person talk at a time, and then, each time, somebody has to tell everybody what those words in that special language mean. <sup>28</sup> But if there is nobody there that can do that, then don't let anybody talk in special languages. They have to be quiet. They can't talk out loud in a special language, but they can talk to themselves and to God.

<sup>29</sup> And if the Holy Spirit has given some of you the power to tell messages from God, well, 2 or 3 of you can tell those messages. And the other people there have to think carefully about each message and check it, to make sure each message is really from God. <sup>30</sup> And if one person is telling a message, and while they are talking somebody else gets a message from God, that first person has to stop talking, so that the next person can tell their new message from God. <sup>31</sup> Each of you can tell a message from God, but you have to wait for each other so that only one person talks at a time. Then everyone will learn something, and you will all feel strong for God. <sup>32</sup> You see, if you have power from the Holy Spirit to tell God's messages, you can control your own spirit, and you will wait for the right time to talk. <sup>33</sup> God wants you to respect each other and listen to each other. He doesn't want your meetings to be mixed up and noisy.

And now I'll talk to you about another matter. This is what it's like for God's people in all the other churches. <sup>34</sup> The women have to be quiet in the church meetings. They have to do what the leaders say. That's what the law says. <sup>35</sup> If a woman wants to ask about something, she can wait and ask her husband at home. If women talk in a church meeting, they shame the church.

<sup>36</sup> Maybe you think I'm wrong, but remember this, you don't know everything in God's word. It didn't start with you, and you are not the only people that ever heard it.

<sup>37</sup> Somebody might reckon that the Holy Spirit gave them the power to tell God's messages, and that they listen to the Holy Spirit all the time. All right, but they have to understand that this letter I'm writing comes from our leader himself, and his people have to do what he says. <sup>38</sup> So if that person will not take any notice of this letter, then you mob can't believe their messages. Don't take any notice of anything they say.

<sup>39</sup> So, my Christian friends, this is what I'm telling you about your meetings. If you want to tell messages from God, that is good. And don't stop people from talking in special languages. <sup>40</sup> Do everything properly. Do everything the right way.

Jesus Christ died, then he came alive again

<sup>1</sup> My Christian friends, I want you to remember the good news that I taught you. You listened to that message and believed it, and you still strongly believe it. <sup>2</sup> And if you keep on believing that good news, God will save you. If you don't keep on believing it, I reckon you didn't believe it properly in the first place.

<sup>3</sup> You know, God told me that message, and then I taught it to you. And, you know, a long time ago, God got his men to write about some of those things, and they are in God's book. Now I'll tell you the important part of that message again. Everybody did bad things. We are all bad, but Jesus Christ died instead of us. That message is in God's book.* <sup>4</sup> People buried Jesus. Then after 2 nights, on the 3rd day, God made him alive again. That message is in God's book too.* <sup>5</sup> After that, Jesus showed himself to Peter. Then later he showed himself to all of his 12 special workers.* <sup>6</sup> After that, he showed himself to more than 500 of his followers at the same time. Most of those 500 people are still alive, but some of them have died. <sup>7</sup> Then he showed himself to James, and later he showed himself to all of his special workers.

<sup>8</sup> All those people saw Jesus. But I was different from Jesus's other special workers. He didn't show himself to me until some time later.*

<sup>9</sup> But before I ever saw Jesus, he sent out his other special workers. They were the first people to go out and tell his message, so they are all more important than me. You see, I used to make a lot of trouble for God's own people, so I'm not really good enough for anyone to call me one of Jesus's special workers.* <sup>10</sup> But God was very good to me. He changed me and made me the way I am now. And so more people heard the good news about Jesus. You see, I've worked harder than any of his other special workers. But it wasn't really me that did that work. No. It was God that gave me the power to do his work, so he is the one that did it. <sup>11</sup> So it doesn't really matter who told you God's message. Maybe it was me, or maybe it was one of his other special workers. We all tell people the same good news about Jesus

* 15:3 Isaiah 53:5-12 * 15:4 Psalm 16:8-10; Matthew 12:40; Acts 2:24-32 * 15:5 Matthew 28:16-17; Mark 16:14;

Luke 24:34, 36; John 20:19 * 15:8 Acts 9:3-6 * 15:9 Acts 8:3

Christ, and that is the good news that you believed. That is the important thing.

God will make dead people come alive again

<sup>12</sup> This is our message. Jesus Christ died, and then God made him alive again. But some of you reckon that God never makes dead people alive again. But you are wrong. <sup>13</sup> You see, if you reckon that God never makes dead people alive again, you are also saying that God didn't make Jesus Christ alive again. <sup>14</sup> And if you reckon that God didn't make Jesus Christ alive again, you are saying that our message is useless, and that you believed something that was wrong. <sup>15</sup> If that's what you reckon, you are saying that we lied to you about God when we told you that he made Jesus Christ alive again. But you are not right. <sup>16</sup> You see, if you reckon that God never makes dead people alive again, you are saying that he didn't make Jesus Christ alive again. <sup>17</sup> And if God didn't make Jesus Christ alive again, like you reckon, then you believed in Jesus for nothing, and it means that you are still guilty of the bad things you did. <sup>18</sup> And if you reckon that God never makes dead people alive again, you are saying that the Christians that died are now lost and gone for ever. <sup>19</sup> You reckon that we can only be sure that Jesus Christ will look after us here in this life. But we Christians get trouble in this life, and other people in the world are more happy than us. So if God will not make us alive again after we die, they can feel sorry for us. But that is not true.

<sup>20</sup> Listen, this is the true story. Jesus Christ died, and God made him alive again. Jesus was the first person to die and then come back to life again, and to live for ever.

<sup>21-22</sup> You see, it's like this. God said that everyone that does bad things has to die. Remember the first man, called Adam. He did something bad, so he died. And we are all from Adam, so we are all in his family, and we all do bad things too, so we all have to die. But then another man came, and he only did good things. That man is Jesus Christ. So now, after people die, God can make them alive again. You see, everyone that believes in Jesus Christ is in Jesus's family now, so God will make them alive again. <sup>23</sup> But we each have to wait for our turn. The first one was Jesus Christ. He died, and then God made him alive again. He is the first one to live again. After he comes back, all his people will live again too. <sup>24</sup> Then Jesus will finish up all the bad spirits. Some of them are bosses, and some of them have power. He will take away their power, and he will finish them all up. Then the end will come, and Jesus will give everything to God, the father, and God will be the biggest boss for everybody.

<sup>25</sup> You see, Jesus Christ will keep on being the big boss, until he wins against his enemies, and God makes all those enemies do what Jesus says.* <sup>26</sup> In the end he will stop us from dying. He will keep everything alive, and nobody will die any more. <sup>27</sup> God's book says this,

"God will win, and he will make everything do what he says."*

Those words tell us that God is the one that will make everything do what Jesus says. You see, Jesus will not be the boss over God, but he will be the boss over everything else. <sup>28</sup> When God makes everything do what Jesus Christ says, then Jesus, God's son, will have God as his boss. Then God will control everything everywhere. He will be the one and only biggest boss.

<sup>29</sup> You know, sometimes a Christian dies before anyone baptised them, so sometimes you mob try to help them, and you baptise another Christian instead of them. But think about it, if dead people will never live again, that is a useless thing for you to do.

<sup>30</sup> And think about me and the other people that work with me. We tell everyone God's message, and some people get angry with us and they want to kill us. <sup>31</sup> Every day, I worry that somebody might kill me. My Christian friends, I'm very happy that you are trusting our leader Jesus Christ, so I'm telling you this. <sup>32</sup> At that town called Ephesus, I got trouble for telling people about Jesus. Some men there tried to kill me, and I had to fight back. I was like a man fighting wild animals. But, if God will not make me alive again after I die, it means I got all that trouble for nothing. Some of you reckon that dead people will never live again. If that is true, then we can be like the people that say this,

"We are going to die tomorrow, so today we will have fun.

We will eat and drink as much as we like, and we will not worry about tomorrow."*

That is what they say, but it is not true.

<sup>33</sup> Listen, don't let anyone trick you with that sort of talk. Remember that wise people say this, "Don't have friends that do bad things, or they will get you to do bad things too.”

* 15:25 Psalm 110:1 * 15:27 Psalm 8:6 * 15:32 Isaiah 22:13

<sup>34</sup> So start thinking properly, and do what is right. Stop doing bad things. I think that some of you don't really know God. I'm saying this to make you feel shame.

We will get new bodies

<sup>35</sup> Somebody might hear me say that dead people will come alive again, and they might ask me, “How can that happen? What sort of bodies will they have?”

<sup>36</sup> That's a stupid question. You know, all sorts of things die and then they get new bodies. Think about seeds and plants. If you plant a seed in the ground, that seed dies. But that is not the end. A new plant grows up. That seed comes alive again and grows up into a new plant. <sup>37</sup> The thing you put into the ground was just a seed (maybe a wheat seed, or whatever). You don't put the body of the plant in the ground, but just the seed. <sup>38</sup> Then God makes it grow up and become a new plant, with its own sort of body. God gives every sort of seed its own sort of body.

<sup>39</sup> Every sort of thing that is alive has a different sort of body from every other sort of thing. People have one sort of body. Animals have a different sort of body. Birds have another sort of body, and fish have another sort of body. <sup>40</sup> And other things have different sorts of bodies too. There are bodies in the sky, and there are bodies here on the earth. They are all beautiful in their own way. The bodies in the sky are beautiful in a different way from the bodies on the earth. <sup>41</sup> The sun is bright and beautiful. And the moon is beautiful too, in a different way from the sun. The stars are bright and beautiful too, but they are different again, and some stars are brighter than other stars.

<sup>42</sup> Well, it will be like that for us when God makes us alive again. The bodies we have now will die. But after God makes us alive again, our new bodies will never die. <sup>43</sup> The bodies we have now are weak and not very good. But after God makes us alive again, our new bodies will be beautiful and strong. <sup>44</sup> The bodies we have when we die are normal bodies. But after God makes us alive again, we will have new bodies, and they will be spiritual bodies. You see, there are normal bodies, and there are spiritual bodies. <sup>45</sup> This is what God says in his book, “The 1st man, Adam, became a living person.”*

But we can think of Jesus, that he is the last Adam. You see, he is the spirit that makes people alive. <sup>46</sup> It is like this. Right now, each of us has a normal body. They are the bodies we got at first. But later we will each get a new spiritual body. <sup>47</sup> And think about Adam. He was the 1st man, and he came from the ground. But Jesus, the 2nd man, came from heaven. <sup>48</sup> Everyone on earth has a body like the man that came from the ground. But the people that belong to heaven will have a body like the man that came from heaven. <sup>49</sup> You see, the bodies that we have now are like Adam's body. He was the 1st man, and God made him out of the ground. But our spiritual bodies will be different. They will be like Jesus's body. He is the man that came from heaven.

<sup>50</sup> My Christian friends, this is what I'm telling you. We can't go to God and live for ever in his family in our normal bodies. They are made of meat, blood, bones, skin, and all that. These bodies that we have now have to die. They can't go on for ever.

<sup>51</sup> Listen, I'm telling you something new. God didn't tell other people this message before, but it is important. He will change all of us. Some of us will still be alive at that time, but maybe some of us will be dead. It doesn't matter, God will change all of us. <sup>52</sup> It will happen like this. We will hear the sound of somebody blowing the last trumpet, then straight away God will change us. It will be quick, as quick as you can blink your eyes. You see, as soon as that trumpet makes its sound, God will make his dead people alive again. At that time, he will give us new bodies that will never die. God will change all of us, those of us that are alive and those of us that are dead at that time.* <sup>53</sup> You see, the bodies we have now will die, but they will get new life. God will change our normal bodies into bodies that can never die.

<sup>54-56</sup> You know, whenever we do bad things, we break God's law, and God's law says we have to die for doing those bad things. There is a power that gets us to go wrong and die like that. It is like a cheeky scorpion that stings us and kills us. But God will change our bodies into bodies that will never die, and at that same time God will finish up that power that makes us go wrong. You know, a long time ago, one of God's men wrote about this, and it is in God's book. He wrote, “God will finish up that power that makes everything die.”*

* 15:45 Genesis 2:7 * 15:52 1 Thessalonians 4:15-17

* 15:54-56 Isaiah 25:8 * 15:54-56 Hosea 13:14

"It will be gone. It will not sting us any more, and people will not die any more."*
And it will happen just like those men wrote.

<sup>57</sup> You see, our leader Jesus Christ has won the fight. So with Jesus we win too. And we say, "Thank you God."

<sup>58</sup> So always remember those things, my Christian friends. I love you, and I want you to stay strong for God. Don't let anything take you away from him. Keep on working hard for our leader Jesus. Remember, he will help you, so that everything you do with him will be good. It will not be useless.

The money for God's people in Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> All right, now I want to talk to you about something else. I will answer the question you asked me about the money that you want to give to God's people in Jerusalem. You know, I talked to the people in the churches in Galatia country, and I told them how to give money to God's people in Jerusalem, and I want you to do it the same way.* <sup>2</sup> Do it like this. On the 1st day of every week, each of you can pick out some of the money that you got that week, and keep it in a separate place. I will come to you soon, and you will have that money ready for me. You will not have to quickly look around and try to find it when I get there. <sup>3</sup> And you can pick a few of your men to take that money to Jerusalem and give it to God's people there. But wait for me to get to you at Corinth. Then I will write some letters to tell the Jerusalem mob that each of those men is a good man. They can take those letters with them. <sup>4</sup> And I might go with them too. If I think it is the right thing for me to do, I will go with them.

Paul made a plan

<sup>5</sup> But before I get to Corinth, I have to go through Macedonia country, and after that, I will visit you.* <sup>6</sup> Maybe I will stay with you for a while. I might even stay until the end of the cold weather time, and then you can give me the things I will need for my trip to the next place. <sup>7</sup> You see, I want to stay here in Ephesus for a little while, and then I can come to you. And when I come, I don't want to stay a short time and then go to another place, but I want to stay with you for some time. I hope that our leader, Jesus, agrees with this plan, so that I can stay with you for a little longer time. <sup>8</sup> But right now I will stay here until that day called Pentecost comes.* <sup>9</sup> You see, God is helping me do great and powerful things for him here. But there are a lot of people here that are trying to stop me.*

Paul talked about Timothy and Apollos

<sup>10</sup> I want to talk to you now about Timothy. He is doing God's work, the same as me. So if he comes to visit you, make him feel good with you there. Don't let anyone make trouble for him,* <sup>11</sup> and don't let anyone rubbish him. And when he gets up to come here to me, you mob help him and give him what he needs for his trip. I'm waiting for him here, and I'm waiting for the other Christians that are coming with him.

<sup>12</sup> And now I want to tell you about our friend Apollos. When those other Christians went to visit you, I really wanted Apollos to go with them and visit you too. I kept on telling him to go, but he reckoned that it was not the right time. He will visit you later, when he can.

The good way to live

<sup>13</sup> Now I want to tell you this. You have to always be ready for anything. It's like you have to stay awake and keep on watching what is going on. Never stop believing in God. Always be brave, and be strong in your spirits. <sup>14</sup> And keep on loving God and other people all the time, and do things to help them.

Paul talked about Stefanos

<sup>15</sup> You know about Stefanos and his family. They were the first people in Akaya country to believe in Jesus. And they help God's people all the time. So, my Christian friends, I strongly ask you this.* <sup>16</sup> I want you to agree with them and do what they want. And do the same for anyone that works hard for God, like they do.

<sup>17</sup> I was very happy when Stefanos, Fortunatus and Akayacus came to me here. You see, you mob were too far away, and you couldn't help me, but instead, they came and helped me. <sup>18</sup> They made my spirit happy, just like they made your spirits happy. Let them know, and let anyone like them know, that you are happy with them for the good things they do.

The last things Paul wrote in this letter

* 16:1 Romans 15:25-26    * 16:5 Acts 19:21    * 16:8 Leviticus 23:15-21; Deuteronomy 16:9-11    * 16:9 Acts 19:8-10    * 16:10 1 Corinthians 4:17    * 16:15 1 Corinthians 1:16

<sup>19</sup> The people in the churches here in Asia country say hello to you. And so do Aquila, and his wife Priscilla, and the Christians that meet in their house. They know that you belong to Jesus, and they love you, and they say hello to you.*

<sup>20</sup> All the Christians here say hello to you. And you too, whenever you meet other Christians, show them that you know they are special, and that you are happy to see them.

<sup>21</sup> Look, I'm now writing this part of this letter with my own hand, so that you can know for sure that it is me, Paul, sending this letter to you.

<sup>22</sup> And I want to say this to anyone that doesn't love our leader, Jesus, "God will punish you."

And I'm telling Jesus, "Please come back soon."

<sup>23</sup> I'm asking our leader, Jesus, to be good to all of you.

<sup>24</sup> I love all of you that belong to Jesus Christ.

From Paul

The letter that Paul wrote to the Christians at Galatia (The book in the Holy Bible called Galatians) About this letter

Paul wrote this letter about 2,000 years ago, about 20 years after Jesus went back to heaven, and it is now in the Holy Bible.

Paul wrote this letter to the Christians that were living in Galatia country. At that time Galatia was a part of the country that is now called Turkey.

God sent Paul to lots of countries to tell people about Jesus, and one of them was Galatia (see Acts 16:6). A lot of the Galatia people believed in Jesus and became Christians. Most of those new Christians were not Jews. (You see, Jesus belonged to the Jewish nation, so he was a Jew, and so were Peter, and Paul, and a lot of the other Christians at that time.)

After Paul left Galatia, some Jewish people went there and told the new Christians, "You can't be a friend of God unless you become like us Jews. You men have to let somebody do a young man operation on you, and you all have to follow the Jewish law."

The new Christians listened to those Jews and started to go wrong. Paul heard about it and it upset him, so he wrote this letter to get them to go the right way.

This letter has some very important messages for us today. It shows us that we need to trust Jesus and let the Holy Spirit control us, and not listen to anyone that says we have to go a different way.

<sup>1</sup> I am Paul, and this letter is from me. I'm sending this letter to you Christians in the churches in Galatia country.

I am Jesus's special worker, but it wasn't a man that gave me the power to be Jesus's special worker. It wasn't any mob of people. It was Jesus Christ, and God our father. They sent me out to tell everybody about Jesus. You see, God is really powerful. People killed Jesus, but God made him alive again.

<sup>2</sup> Your Christian friends that are with me here, they all say hello to you.

<sup>3</sup> I'm asking God our father, and Jesus Christ our leader, to be good to you, and to make you feel happy and quiet inside yourselves. <sup>4</sup> You know, we all did bad things, but Jesus took the payback for all of us. He died instead of us, so now he can save us from this bad world that we live in. That is what God, our father, wanted him to do. <sup>5</sup> So everyone has to say that God is very good and very great. We have to keep on saying it all the time, for ever. Yes, that's right.

Don't listen to the wrong story

<sup>6-7</sup> But now listen, you mob. You are giving me a big shock. A little while ago I told you the true story about God, but now you are already listening to other people, and they are turning you away from God. You are forgetting the good news we told you, and now you are listening to a different story that other people are telling you. They say it is good news, but it is not. We told you the proper good news about Jesus Christ. He loves you, and he is very good to you, and God used him to bring you into his family. But that other mob are trying to change this story into another story, and they call it good news. But really, there is only one good news story. They are just messing you up. <sup>8</sup> Listen, don't let anybody teach you a different story that is not the proper good news that we taught you. I pray that God will punish anyone that teaches a different message, no matter who it is, even if it is us, or an angel messenger from the sky. <sup>9</sup> I will say it again. If anyone teaches a story that is different from the story that we told you, the story that you believed, I want God to properly punish that person.

<sup>10</sup> I'm not trying to make people happy with me, I'm trying to make God happy with me. I work for Jesus Christ now, so it doesn't matter to me if some people aren't happy when I talk straight like this.

Paul's message came from Jesus Christ, not from people

<sup>11-12</sup> You see, my Christian friends, I want you to understand this. Jesus Christ himself told me that good news. No man or woman made up that message. It came from Jesus himself, and after Jesus told me that message, I told it to you.

<sup>13</sup> It was like this. You have heard what I was like before. At that time, I didn't believe in Jesus. I was a Jew, and I believed everything that the Jews believe. And you know about the things that I did at that time. I made a lot of trouble for the Christian people. I tried hard to stop them from following Jesus.*

<sup>14</sup> You see, our Jewish grand-fathers told us the way we Jewish people had to live, and I tried hard to live that way. I was becoming a better Jew than most of my mates, the other Jews that were the same age as me.* <sup>15</sup> But God was good to me, and he picked me to be his worker even before I was born. <sup>16</sup> God wanted me to go and tell the message about Jesus to the people that are not Jews. So he showed Jesus to me, and he told me all about him. Then I believed in Jesus. God told me that message, so I didn't ask anybody else about it.* <sup>17</sup> I didn't go to Jerusalem to talk to the men that were Jesus's special workers before I was. Instead of that, I went straight away to the country called Arabia. Then later I went back to the city called Damascus.

<sup>18</sup> Then, 3 years later, I went south to Jerusalem to meet Peter. I stayed there with him for only 15 days.* <sup>19</sup> I didn't see any of Jesus Christ's other special workers, except James, the brother of Jesus. <sup>20</sup> What I'm writing to you now is true. And God knows that it is true.

<sup>21</sup> Later I went north to the countries called Syria and Cilicia. <sup>22</sup> But back in Judea country the Christians there didn't know me. <sup>23</sup> They only heard people say, "The man that tried to stop us believing in Jesus Christ, the man that gave us bad trouble and hurt us, that man has changed, and now he is telling everyone to believe in Jesus Christ." <sup>24</sup> Those Christians heard that I changed, and they were happy, and they thanked God and said that he is really great.

The church leaders in Jerusalem agreed with Paul

<sup>1-2</sup> Then, 14 years later, God told me to go to Jerusalem again. This time I went with Barnabas, and I took Titus with me too. We had a little meeting there, with just the important church people, and I told them all about the message that I teach to the people that are not Jews. I wanted to see if they agreed with what I was doing. I didn't want anyone to mess up my work.*

<sup>3-4</sup> You see, Titus was there with me, and he is a Greek man, not a Jew. But there were some Jewish men that came secretly into the church in Jerusalem. They reckoned they believed in Jesus, but they didn't really trust him properly. They only came into the church to see what we were doing. And they reckoned that Titus had to follow the Jewish law and have a young man operation. But, you see, if we belong to Jesus Christ, we are free from that law. But those men wanted to force us to keep that law. <sup>5</sup> But we didn't listen to them, not even a little bit. We knew they were wrong. So we didn't tell Titus to have that young man operation. You see, we only want to teach the true message about Jesus, and we want you mob to keep on believing that true message.

<sup>6</sup> The Christians in Jerusalem reckon their leaders are important, but it doesn't matter to me if they are important, or not. God treats everybody the same way.* Anyway, those leaders agreed that I was already teaching the true message about Jesus, and that I wasn't leaving anything out. <sup>7</sup> No, they understood that God gave me a special job, just like he gave Peter a special job. God told me to tell the good news about Jesus to the people that are not Jews. And he told Peter to tell that same good news to the Jewish people. <sup>8</sup> God gave Peter the power to be his messenger to the Jews. And God gave me the power to be his messenger to the people that are not Jews.

<sup>9</sup> The 3 very important leaders in Jerusalem were James, Peter and John. They heard how much God helped Barnabas and me in our work, and they understood that God gave me this special job. Then they were happy with us, and they shook hands with us to show that they are our friends. They agreed that we had to go to people that are not Jews, and they themselves had to go to the Jewish people. <sup>10</sup> The only other thing that they asked us to do was to help the poor Christians. And that was what I myself really wanted to do.

Paul told Peter, "You are wrong"

<sup>11</sup> You know, Peter came to the city called Antioch to visit us Christians there. At that time, I had to straighten him out. I stood up in front of everybody, and I said, "Peter, you are wrong."

<sup>12-13</sup> You see, it was like this. Peter is a Jewish man, and at first he was friends with the Christians at Antioch that were not Jews. He even broke the Jewish rules and ate food with them. But then James sent some other Jewish men to Antioch, and after they got there, Peter changed. Those new men reckoned that every Christian has to become a Jew, and Peter was frightened of them. He went back to following the Jewish rules and stopped eating food with those people that were not Jews. All the other Jewish Christians at Antioch were frightened too, and they did the same as Peter, even though they

* 1:16 Acts 9:3-6; 22:6-10; 26:13-18

* 1:18 Acts 9:26-30

* 2:1-2 Acts 11:30; 15:2

* 2:6 Deuteronomy 10:17

knew it was wrong. And Barnabas did that too. He stopped eating food with people that are not Jews.

<sup>14</sup> I knew that they were not properly following God's true message, so I talked straight to Peter in front of everyone. I said, "Listen, Peter, you are wrong. You are a Jew, but you have been living here like you are not a Jew. So you can't turn around now and agree with this new mob. You can't try to force these people that are not Jews to follow the same rules as us Jews."

God will only say you are all right if you trust Jesus

<sup>15</sup> You see, Peter and me, we are Jews, and our Jewish people taught us God's law. We Jews are not like you people that are not Jews. Nobody taught you mob God's law. <sup>16</sup> And we know that if people just try to follow that law, they can't do it properly, so God will not say they are all right. He will only do that for people that trust Jesus Christ. And we trusted Jesus Christ, so now God will say we are all right. You see, if we believe in Jesus, God will say we are all right, and he will not punish us. If we only think about following the law, we will never do it properly, so he will never say we are all right. Nobody can get God to say they are all right by just following the law.*

<sup>17</sup> Yes, we trusted Jesus Christ, and now God says we are all right. But some people might reckon, "You left God's law, so now God will say you are guilty. Jesus got you to do something bad." But they are not right. <sup>18</sup> You see, it is like this. I used to try to follow that law to get God to say that I'm all right, but then I found out that I just have to believe in Jesus. So now I can't go back and think that law will make me all right. If I do that, then I really will be guilty.

Jesus lives in his people

<sup>19-20</sup> You see, I used to try to follow that law, so that law controlled me. I tried to do everything in that law, but I couldn't do it, so the law said that I had to die. But then I stopped thinking about that law, and I turned around to follow Jesus, and now he controls me, and God makes me properly alive. And you know that Jesus died on a cross. Well, I believe in Jesus, so it is like I died there too. But Jesus is alive now, so I'm alive now too. You see, Jesus lives inside me, right here in my body. And he gets me to do the things that God wants me to do. He is God's son. He loved me, and he gave up his life and died for me. <sup>21</sup> Yes, God is really good to us, and he really did a lot for us. I will never change my mind about that. You see, we can't become good people by following the law. If we could do that, it would mean that Jesus died for nothing. But, of course, he didn't.

3

God gives us his spirit when we believe in Jesus

<sup>1</sup> Listen, you mob in Galatia, I told you clearly why Jesus Christ died. It is like I painted a picture of him on the cross for you all to see. But now you are forgetting him. You are so silly, it's like somebody tricked you. <sup>2</sup> Think about God's spirit. When did he come into you? Was it when you were trying to follow the law? No, it was when you believed the good news about Jesus. <sup>3</sup> You started your Christian life with the power of God's spirit, and now you are trying to keep it going with just your own power. That is really stupid. <sup>4</sup> You believed the good news about Jesus, so then you went through a lot of trouble. Was that all for nothing? I hope it was not for nothing. <sup>5</sup> Look, God gives you his spirit and he does great things among you with his power. You see, he doesn't think, "They are following the law, so I will do powerful things for them." But he thinks, "They believe the message about Jesus, so I will do powerful things for them."

We have to believe God, like Abraham did

<sup>6</sup> Do you know the story about Abraham? It was the same for him. God's book says, "Abram believed what God said, so God was really happy with him, and told him, 'You believe me, so now I'm saying you are properly good, like you never did anything wrong.'"*

<sup>7</sup> And from that you can understand that Abraham's real family are the people that believe God, like Abraham did.* <sup>8</sup> And, you know, God's book says what will happen. It says that if anyone believes God, God will say they are all right. God will even say that to people that are not Jews. God told Abraham, "I will use your family to do good things for all the nations."* <sup>9</sup> So God will be good to everyone that believes him, just like he was good to Abraham when Abraham believed God.

<sup>10</sup> You see, God will make trouble for those people that reckon they are all right

* 2:16 Psalm 143:2; Romans 3:20, 22    * 3:6 Genesis 15:6; Romans 4:3    * 3:7 Romans 4:16    * 3:8 Genesis 12:3; 18:18

by just following the law. They think that, in the end, God will agree that they are all right. But they are wrong. God says this in his book,

“You have to keep on doing everything in the law book, or God will punish you.”*

11 And we all know that nobody can follow that law properly, so nobody is good enough for God to say they are all right. But God says this in his book,

“If you trust God, he will say you are all right, and you will live.”*

12 But if somebody reckons they will live just by following the law, they are not trusting God. God also says this in his book,

“A person that does everything in the law will live.”*

13 But if we try to follow that law, we will not be able to do it properly, and in the end God will punish us. But we don't have to follow that law. You see, God already punished Jesus Christ instead of us. When Jesus died, he paid for us, and he made us free from that trouble that comes from the law. God also says this in his book,

“If people hang somebody from wood to kill them, that person gets trouble from God.”

And that is what they did, they nailed Jesus Christ to that wooden cross, and he got that trouble from God. Jesus Christ died like that to pay for all of us. He bought us for God.* 14 So now the people that are not Jews can get the good things from God that he said he will give to Abraham's family. And if we believe in Jesus Christ, God will give us his spirit, just like he promised.

Nothing can change what God promised

15 My Christian friends, you already know what 2 people do when they agree about something, so I will use that as a picture. They write it on paper, and both of them sign it, that makes those words very strong. Nobody can say, “Forget it.” Nobody can change it at all. 16 Well, in the same way, nobody can change what God promised to Abraham, and to Abraham's son, and to all the people in his family. You know, we can read this story in God's book. God doesn't say that he promised things to Abraham's sons, like it is talking about a lot of people. No, he is talking about only one man. He says Abraham's son. You see, God promised those things to just one man, and that man is Jesus Christ.* 17 It's like this. At first God and Abraham agreed together, and God promised something to Abraham. Then the law came 430 years later. But that law can't stop what God promised in his agreement with Abraham.* 18 You see, God promised to do something good for Abraham before that law came. God gives people good things because he promised those things, not because those people follow that law. And it is like that for us too. God is doing something good for us now, because he promised to be good to us.*

The Jewish people had God's law until Jesus Christ came 19 But maybe somebody is asking, “Why did God give his law to his people?” This is the answer. His people kept on doing bad things, so God gave them his law. And he wanted them to follow that law until Abraham's special grand-son came. This was the grand-son that God was talking about a long time ago when he promised good to Abraham. You see, God gave his law like this. He used his angel messengers to tell it to Moses. He was a man that stood in the middle, between God and the people, to help those people listen to God. 20 And you know that a man that stands in the middle has to listen to both sides and help sort things out. But when God talked to Abraham, he didn't need anyone to stand in the middle. God himself promised good things to Abraham.

21 But somebody might say, “God did something wrong. He gave a law that goes against what he promised.” That's not right. No way. You see, if a law can give us real life, God would give us that law, and we would follow it and become good people. But no law can do that. 22 God says in his book that everyone does bad things. They can't stop doing those bad things. But if we listen to what God promises us, and if we believe in Jesus Christ, he will save us.

23-25 But before Jesus Christ came, the law was like a boss, and like a school teacher for us Jewish people. It controlled us, and it looked after us. God wanted it to be like that, until Jesus came. We waited for God to send him, so that we can trust him. And then Jesus came, and now we trust him, and God says we are all right. So now we don't need that law to be a boss or a school teacher for us any more.

People that trust Jesus are God's kids

* 3:10 Deuteronomy 27:26 * 3:11 Habakkuk 2:4 * 3:12 Leviticus 18:5 * 3:13 Deuteronomy 21:23 * 3:16 Genesis 12:7 * 3:17 Exodus 12:40 * 3:18 Romans 4:14

<sup>26</sup> It's like this now. You all believe in Jesus Christ, so you are joined to him, and you are all God's kids. <sup>27</sup> You know, when the church leaders baptised you, they took you through that special washing ceremony to show that you are joined to Jesus Christ, and now it is like you are wearing new clothes. It is like you are wearing Jesus Christ himself. <sup>28</sup> You are all joined to Jesus Christ, so you are all joined to each other. You are not different from each other any more. It doesn't matter if you are a Jew or not. It doesn't matter if you are a man or a woman. It doesn't matter if somebody keeps you like a prisoner, or if you are free. None of that matters. You are all joined to Jesus Christ, so you are all the same as each other. <sup>29</sup> You belong to Jesus Christ, so you are in Abraham's family, and you will get everything that God promised to Abraham.*

4

<sup>1</sup> I will tell you a picture story. There was an old man with a young son, and that old man was sick and going to die. He knew that after he dies that little kid will get everything he owns, but the kid will not know how to look after it. So the old man got some people to be the bosses, and they agreed to look after his things until the boy grows up. He told them how old the boy has to be before he can take over and control those things. After they agreed to that, the old man died. Then that kid owned everything that his father left, but that kid couldn't do anything with it. He was no different from his father's workers. <sup>2</sup> He had to do what his teachers and the other bosses told him to do, until he grew up. He had to wait for the right time to come, the time that his father told them before he died. <sup>3</sup> Now I'll tell you what that picture story is all about. We were like that little kid. We had bosses too. The bad spirits that are the bosses over this world, they were our bosses. <sup>4</sup> And just like that little kid, we had to wait for the right time to come. Then, when the right time came, God sent his own son from heaven to the earth. He was born from a normal woman into the Jewish nation, and he did what the Jewish law said. <sup>5</sup> And then he took the payback for all of us, the payback for the bad things we did, and he set us free. So God took us into his family to be his proper kids, and we don't have to follow that law any more. <sup>6</sup> And when we became God's kids, he sent his son's spirit to live right inside us. His spirit in us gets us to call out to God, "My Dad, you are my father."* <sup>7</sup> So those bad spirits are not your bosses any more, but you are one of God's kids, and you will get everything that God gives to his kids.

Don't let the bad spirits be your bosses

<sup>8</sup> At first you didn't know God. Those other bad spirits were your bosses. Those spirits are not gods at all, but you couldn't get free from them. <sup>9</sup> But then you heard about Jesus, and now you do know God, or really, God knows you. So don't turn back now to those weak and useless spirits that are the bosses over this world. Don't let them be your bosses again. <sup>10</sup> You think you make God happy if you follow the Jewish ceremonies for special days, or months, or times, or years. But you are wrong. <sup>11</sup> I'm worried about you. I worked really hard to help you, and now I think, "Maybe I wasted my time." <sup>12</sup> Look, my Christian friends, I ask you to free yourselves from that law, just like I did. You see, I used to think I had to follow that law, but now I'm free, just like you.

People in Galatia believed the wrong story, and that hurt Paul

Remember the first time I came to you mob in Galatia. You didn't do anything wrong to me at that time, <sup>13</sup> even though I was sick. And I told you the good news about Jesus. <sup>14</sup> Yes, I had a problem in my body, and it made me look bad to you. But you didn't turn your back to me or say bad things to me. No, instead of that you were good to me, and you said, "Thank you for coming here." You were really happy with me, like I was one of God's angel messengers, or like I was Jesus Christ himself.

<sup>15</sup> But now you are not happy with me any more. What went wrong? Back then you loved me so much that you did everything for me, no matter how hard it was for you. <sup>16</sup> But now something is wrong. I'm telling you what is true, and you don't like it. It looks like you turned around, and now you are calling me your enemy.

<sup>17</sup> Some people want you to follow the Jewish law, and they are trying hard to get you to join them. But that will not be good for you. They just want to pull you away from me. They want you to listen only to them, nobody else. <sup>18</sup> They don't teach you good things, so don't listen to them. But there are other people that teach you good things, and it is good to listen to them. Yes, it is good to listen to those good teachers all the time, not just when I'm there with you. <sup>19</sup> Listen, I got you to believe in Jesus, so you are like my own kids to me. But now you are hurting me a lot. You know, when a woman has a baby, that baby gives her a lot of pain. Well, just like that, you are giving me a lot of pain. And I will keep on feeling this pain until you properly change to be like Jesus Christ. <sup>20</sup> You see, I really worry about you. I wish I could go there and be with you now, to talk with you the right way, and help you.

* 3:29 Romans 4:13

* 4:6 Romans 8:15-17

An old story means something new

<sup>21</sup> Listen, you mob that want to follow the Jewish law, you don't really know what that law says. <sup>22</sup> You see, God says in his book that Abraham had 2 sons. The mother of one son was Hagar. She was a worker. She was like a prisoner, and she had to work all the time for Sarah, Abraham's wife, and she got no pay. But Sarah was the mother of the other son. She was always a free woman.*

<sup>23</sup> The 1st son was born after Abraham and Sarah talked about it, and then Abraham and the worker got together, and after that she had a son. But it was not God's idea. That 1st son came from the woman that was like a prisoner. But the 2nd son came after God promised to give Sarah a son. That 2nd son came from the free woman.

<sup>24</sup> That old story teaches us something else too. Those 2 women are like pictures of the 2 agreements that God made with his people. Hagar is like the agreement that God made on the big hill called Sinai, where he gave the Jews their law. That agreement makes people like prisoners. They are not free. They have to work all the time to follow that law. <sup>25</sup> Hagar is a picture of the big hill called Sinai in Arabia country, and she is like the city here on earth called Jerusalem, where people have to follow that Jewish law. That city and its people are like prisoners that have to work all the time. They are not free.

<sup>26</sup> But there is another city called Jerusalem up in heaven. That city's people are free. And we belong to that city, so we are free. <sup>27</sup> There will be a lot of people with us in that city. You see, this is what God says in his book,

"Be happy, you woman that hasn't got any kids.
You didn't have to feel all that pain from having a kid.

You can be really happy, and you can shout out loud.

You used to be sad and lonely, but now you will have a lot more kids than the woman that has a husband."*

<sup>28</sup> You see, my Christian friends, you are like Sarah's son. His name was Isaac. God promised to give that son to Abraham and Sarah. Well, just like that, God promises to make you his kids too. <sup>29</sup> And think a bit more about that story. Remember Ishmael, the 1st son. He was born because of things people did by themselves. But Isaac, the 2nd son, he was born by the power of the Holy Spirit. And you know, at that time, long ago, Ishmael gave Isaac a lot of trouble. And it is like that now too. The people that reckon we have to follow the law, they give the free people a lot of trouble.* <sup>30</sup> But God's book says this about Hagar and Ishmael,

"Chuck out the working woman and her son. That working woman's son will never get what God promised to the free woman's son."*

<sup>31</sup> So I'm telling you, my friends, we are like the free woman's kids. We are not like kids of the woman that had to work all the time like a prisoner.

5

Keep trusting Jesus Christ and stay free

<sup>1</sup> Listen, Jesus Christ has set us free, and we are properly free. So be strong and stay free. Don't let anyone make you follow that law again. If you do, it's like they make you a prisoner again, because they say you have to do everything that law says.

<sup>2</sup> Listen. This is me, Paul, writing this, and I'm telling you straight. If you try to be friends with God by having a young man operation, then you are not trusting Jesus Christ, so he will not help you at all. <sup>3</sup> I'm telling you again. If you let somebody do that operation on you, to make you like a Jewish man, then you have to do everything else that is in the Jewish law. <sup>4</sup> And if you are following the Jewish law to get God to say that you are all right, that shows that you turned away from Jesus Christ, and that you forgot that he is the one that gets God to be good to you. <sup>5</sup> But listen, we trust Jesus to make us properly good, and the Holy Spirit tells us for sure that Jesus will do that. So we are waiting for him to do it, and we know he will. <sup>6</sup> You see, if people belong to Jesus Christ, it doesn't matter if they have

* 4:22 Genesis 16:15; 21:2

* 4:27 Isaiah 54:1

* 4:29 Genesis 21:9

* 4:30 Genesis 21:10

a young man operation or not. The only thing that matters is that they trust Jesus, and if they do that, they will love God, and they will love other people.

<sup>7</sup> You mob were following Jesus really good, like you were running in a race and were nearly winning it. But then somebody got in your way, so now you are not winning. Somebody stopped you from believing the true story, and you stopped living the right way. <sup>8</sup> That wrong message did not come from God. No, God is the one that picked you to be his people.

<sup>9</sup> I'll use a picture story about cooking damper. If you put a little bit of baking powder into a big lot of flour, it will make it all swell up. Well just like that, somebody told a few of you the wrong message, and now a lot of you are going wrong.* <sup>10</sup> But I'm trusting God to help you. I reckon you will stop following that wrong way and you will follow my words. And, as for that man that is getting you all mixed up, I don't know who he is, but I know that God will punish him.

<sup>11</sup> Listen, my Christian friends, some people reckon that I still tell people to have a young man operation, but that's not right. I teach people that Jesus Christ died on the cross to save them. And those Jews that don't like Jesus, they are always giving me a lot of trouble. That shows you that I don't tell anyone to have a young man operation. If I did tell them to do that, then that Jewish mob wouldn't get angry and give me trouble.

<sup>12</sup> Do you know what I think about those people that are getting you all mixed up? I wish they will cut their own bodies, not yours.

You are free, so love each other

<sup>13</sup> You see, my Christian friends, God picked you to be people that are free from the Jewish law. But you have to be free in the right way. You can't just do anything you like, anything that makes you feel good. Instead of that, you have to love each other and do things to help each other. <sup>14</sup> Just think about that Jewish law. You will follow all of it if you do this, "Love other people just like you love yourself."* <sup>15</sup> Don't be like wild animals. They fight each other and eat each other all the time. If you don't love each other, you are just like them. So be careful. If you fight each other, you might properly finish each other.

Let God's spirit show you the right way to live

<sup>16</sup> So this is what I'm telling you, let God's spirit control your lives, and you will not do any of those bad things that make you feel good. <sup>17</sup> You see, it is like this. We all have a bad part in us that makes us want to do bad things, to make us feel good. And we also have God's spirit in us, and he makes us want to do good things. Those 2 are both in you, and they both want to control you, so they are fighting each other inside you all the time. Whenever you listen to God's spirit and try to do good things, that bad part in you tries to stop you, so you don't do what you really want to do.* <sup>18</sup> But if you let God's spirit control you, you will do good things, and you will not need to have the Jewish law as your boss.

<sup>19</sup> You see, everybody knows about the bad things that people do to make themselves feel good. They sleep with people that are not their own wives or husbands, and they do what married people do together. They think about dirty things, and then they do those bad things. They don't try to control their bad thoughts. <sup>20</sup> They respect the spirits that are not God. They try to get bad spirits to hurt other people. They hate other people, and they fight other people. They want to be like some other person, and if they can't be, they hate that other person. They get very angry. They want to be more important than everybody else. They will not agree with other people, so they split off into separate groups. <sup>21</sup> They want things that belong to other people. They get drunk. They have wild parties and do all sorts of bad things. Listen, I'm telling you again what I told you before. People that keep on doing those bad things will never be in God's family. They will never get the good things that God will give to the people in his family.

<sup>22</sup> But if God's spirit controls people, he gets them to do good things. You know that a good fruit tree always gets good fruit on it. Well, like that, a person with God's spirit does good things. If you let God's spirit lead you, he will get you to love God and to love other people. And you will be happy. And you will feel good and quiet inside yourself so that you will not fight with other people. God's spirit inside you will help you be good to people and not get angry, even if they give you trouble. And he will get you to be friendly to other people, and he will get you to do good things. He will make you the sort of person that other people can trust. <sup>23</sup> He will stop you from thinking you are too important, and he will help you to control yourself. And there is no law to stop anybody doing any of those good things.

* 5:9 1 Corinthians 5:6 * 5:14 Leviticus 19:18 * 5:17 Romans 7:15-23

<sup>24</sup> You see, sometimes doing bad things makes people feel good. But people that belong to Jesus Christ stop doing those bad things. That bad part inside them might make them feel like doing those bad things, but they don't take any notice of it any more. It is like they nailed it to a cross and killed it.

<sup>25</sup> So you and me, we have to live like that too. We live with God's spirit in us now, so we have to do what God's spirit tells us to do. We have to let him control us. <sup>26</sup> We can't reckon we are better than anyone else. We can't do things that make other people angry, so that we start fighting each other. And we can't wish we are like somebody else, and then hate that other person.

Be good to each other

<sup>1</sup> My Christian friends, if you catch one of your own mob doing something bad, the rest of you that listen properly to God's spirit, you have to get that person to stop. Make sure you talk to that person in a good and easy way. Remember, Satan tries to get you to do bad things too, so be careful.

<sup>2</sup> You have to do this to help each other be strong. You have to help other Christians that have problems. If you do that, you will be doing what Jesus Christ told you to do.

<sup>3</sup> Don't think that you are too important to help other Christians. If you are not very important, but you reckon you are really important, then you are just tricking yourself. <sup>4</sup> Each one of you has to think about the things that you do, and see if those things are good, or not good. And if they are good, then you can be happy and feel good about yourself. Don't look at other people and think, "Am I better than them?" <sup>5</sup> Each of you have to live your own life the right way. If you go wrong, you can't blame anyone else.

<sup>6</sup> By the way, remember this too. If somebody teaches you God's word, you have to share your money, and food, and other good things with that teacher.

<sup>7</sup> Listen, you've got to understand this properly. Nobody can ever trick God, so don't ever think you can do that. I'll tell you a picture story about seeds. A gardener plants different sorts of seeds in his garden, then later he gets the food from the plants that grow from those seeds. Whatever sort of seed he plants, that's the sort of food he gets. <sup>8</sup> Well, it is like that with us people. Some people do good things, like a gardener that plants the seeds of good plants. And some people do bad things, like a gardener that plants rubbish seeds. Some people only think about what will make them feel good, so they do bad things. Later God will pay them with something bad. They will die. But other people listen to God's spirit and do good things. Later God will do something good for them. God's spirit will let them live with him for ever.

<sup>9</sup> So we have to keep going the right way. Don't get tired of doing good things, and later, God will give you lots of good things. <sup>10</sup> You see, every time we can do something good for somebody, we have to do it. If that person believes in Jesus, they belong to the same family as us, so we really have to do good things for them.

Jesus is the great one

<sup>11</sup> Look. I am writing these words with my own hand. See how big my writing is. This message is very important. <sup>12</sup> Some Jewish Christians are trying to force you to have that young man operation. They want the other Jews to think that you follow the Jewish law. You see, those other Jews will make trouble for anyone that believes that Jesus died on the cross to save them, and the Jewish Christians don't want to get that trouble. <sup>13</sup> But, you know, even the Jews don't follow the Jewish law properly themselves. Those Jewish Christians only want you to get that operation, and be like Jews, so they can tell everybody that they got you to be Jewish. They want to use your bodies like that, to get the other Jews to say they are good.

<sup>14</sup> But I never want to say anything to get other people to say I am good. The only good one for me is Jesus Christ. He died for me on the cross. And when I think about him, the things of this world mean nothing to me, and I am nothing to this world.

God changed each of you into a new person

<sup>15</sup> You see, it doesn't matter if somebody did a young man operation on you, or not. The most important thing is this. God changed you into a new person. <sup>16</sup> So I'm asking God to be good to all the people that say that the young man operation doesn't matter. I'm asking God to make them happy and quiet inside themselves. I'm asking this for all the people that God picked to be his own, like he picked the Israel people a long time ago.

<sup>17</sup> I hope nobody gives me any more trouble after this. I've got scars on my body from stones and whips, and these scars show everyone that I belong to Jesus.

<sup>18</sup> My Christian friends, I pray that our leader, Jesus Christ, will be very good to you, and that he will be with you and help you spiritually.

From Paul

The letter that Paul wrote to the Christians at Ephesus

(The book in the Holy Bible called Ephesians)

About this letter

Paul wrote this letter about 2,000 years ago, about 30 years after Jesus went back to heaven, and it is now part of the Holy Bible.

God sent Paul to lots of countries and lots of towns to tell people about Jesus. One of those towns was Ephesus (see Acts 18:19—20:1). It was a big town in the country that is now called Turkey. About 200 years later the enemies of Ephesus broke it down, and today there are just stones and rubbish at that place in Turkey.

At the time when Paul wrote this letter, the people called the Romans were the bosses over lots of nations. The Roman bosses didn't like Paul telling people about Jesus, so they grabbed him and put him in jail. Paul wrote this letter while he was in that jail, in Rome.

In this letter, Paul wrote about how God planned great things for us Christians. He wrote about how Jesus joins all of us together into his family, no matter what nation we belong to, so that we can be strong for God and live the way he wants us to live.

Paul wrote this letter a long time ago, but it still has good messages for us today. So we have to take notice today of those messages that Paul wrote to the Christians at Ephesus.

<sup>1</sup> I am Paul, and this letter is from me. God got me to be one of Jesus Christ's special workers. I'm sending this letter to all God's people there at Ephesus, all you people that follow Jesus Christ properly.*

<sup>2</sup> I'm asking God our father, and Jesus Christ our leader, to be good to you, and to make you feel happy and quiet inside yourselves.

God gives us a lot

<sup>3</sup> God is the father of our leader Jesus Christ. God joined us to Jesus, and he gave us every good thing that our spirits need. So we have to thank him a lot.

<sup>4</sup> A long time ago, before God made the world, he picked us to be his people, and he joined us to Jesus Christ, so that now God can say we are good, like we never did anything wrong. He loved us, <sup>5</sup> so he got Jesus to bring us into his family, and now we can be God's own kids. God did that because it is what he really wanted to do. <sup>6</sup> So we thank him a lot for that. God loves his son, Jesus, very much, and after we are joined to his son, God is really good to us too. <sup>7</sup> You know, we were prisoners of the devil, the boss over the bad spirits. But Jesus died for us, and his blood came out for us. Jesus paid for us with his own blood, and he set us free from the devil. So now God will not punish us for all the bad things we did. Yes, God is very good to us.* <sup>8</sup> He does all that for us, and he also makes us wise and helps us to think properly. <sup>9</sup> God planned it all a long time ago, and nobody knew about it. But now he let us know about it. He told us that he is using Jesus to do the things he planned, things that make him happy. <sup>10</sup> And at the right time he will finish doing the things he planned. He will bring everything together, the things in heaven, and the things on the earth. God will bring them all together, and Jesus Christ will be the leader and boss over everything.

<sup>11</sup> God always does everything that he plans. And a long time ago, he picked us, and planned to join us to Jesus Christ and make us his people. <sup>12</sup> At first he picked the Jewish people. They were the first to trust Jesus Christ, and to wait for him to save them. God wanted the Jews to be the first people to praise him, and to say that he is really great. <sup>13</sup> Now it is your turn. You people that are not Jews, you heard that good news that God saves you, and you believed in Jesus Christ. And God gave you his Holy Spirit, just like he promised. His spirit in you is like his sign on you, to show everyone that you belong to him. <sup>14</sup> And now God promises us that one day we will be properly free from doing wrong things. He gives us the Holy Spirit now. It is the first good thing that he gives us, and it shows us that he will give us other good things, for sure. So we really thank God, and we say that he is really great.

Jesus is the leader of the church

<sup>15</sup> Some people told me about you, that you keep on trusting our leader Jesus, and they also told me that you love God's people. They told me those things, <sup>16</sup> so now I never stop thanking God for you, and I always remember to pray for you. <sup>17</sup> I pray to our very great father, the God of our leader Jesus Christ. I pray that his spirit will help you to think properly and show you more about God, so that you will know him better. <sup>18</sup> God promised very great things to his people, and now he has them ready for you. I pray that he will show them to you clearly, like he will switch on a light in your minds, so you can know and be sure about these good things. <sup>19</sup> I pray that you will know that God is stronger and more powerful than anyone, and that he will use his power to do good things for all of us that trust him.

* 1:1 Acts 18:19-21; 19:1

* 1:7 Colossians 1:14

God is very powerful. <sup>20</sup> You see, people killed Jesus Christ, but God used his power to make him alive again, and to take him up into heaven. That shows that God is really powerful. Then God put Jesus in the most important place in heaven. He is sitting right next to God, on his right-hand side.* <sup>21</sup> Jesus is now the biggest boss. He is bigger than all the other bosses everywhere, and he is bigger than all the spirits everywhere. He is the big boss over everyone in this world now, and he's the big boss over everyone in the world that will come later. Not one of them is stronger than Jesus. Only Jesus has God's power. <sup>22</sup> God made Jesus the boss over everyone. It's like everything is under Jesus's feet. And God made Jesus the leader of his people. Those people are his church.* <sup>23</sup> Jesus lives in God's people, like we are his body, and Jesus is our head. He comes into his people and fills them up. He is the boss over everything, everywhere.*

God is really good to us

<sup>1</sup> You know, in the past you mob did lots of bad things. You couldn't be friends with God. It was like your spirits were dead.* <sup>2</sup> You didn't do what God wants, but instead, you always did bad things, just like the other people in this world do. You used to do the things the devil wants. He is the boss over those strong bad spirits that are in the air. That devil is working now inside everyone that will not do what God wants. <sup>3</sup> And it wasn't only you mob that were bad. We were all bad. We were like those other people in this world. We did whatever we wanted to do. We did whatever made us feel good. We did whatever our own bodies and minds told us to do. And that made God angry with us, just like he is angry with everyone else.

<sup>4-5</sup> But God didn't punish us. He felt very sorry for us. He loved us, even though we were doing bad things. It is like our spirits were dead. But he was very good to us, and he saved us. He loved us so much that he made our spirits alive, just like he made Jesus Christ alive. <sup>6</sup> And God joined us to Jesus, and God lifted us up to sit with Jesus Christ in heaven. <sup>7</sup> God did those things to show everyone that he is very good to us. He showed those things to people in the past, and he shows them to us now, and he will keep on showing them to everyone for ever. He is showing everyone that he is better than anyone else. He is really good to everyone that belongs to Jesus Christ. <sup>8</sup> God is really good to you. You believed in Jesus, and God saved you. You didn't do anything good, and you didn't pay God anything, but he saved you anyway. <sup>9</sup> You can't do things to save yourself. Even if you do a lot of good things, you can't save yourself. No way. It is God that saves you. Nobody can say, "I'm really good, that is the reason why God saved me." Nobody can talk like that. No way. <sup>10</sup> God is the one that made us what we are, and he wants us to do good things. He already has those good things ready for us to do. He turned us into new people, and he joined us to Jesus Christ, so now we can do those good things.

Jesus Christ brings us all together, Jews and other people

<sup>11-12</sup> Think about what you were at first. You were not Jews, so you didn't belong to the special mob called Israel. And at that time you were not friends with Jesus Christ. You didn't know that God promised to send him to save us. And before, when God promised to look after the Israel mob if they agreed to keep his law, he didn't promise that to you. You didn't know anything about those things. You were living without God, and there was nothing good for you in this world. You didn't know anything about the young man operation that God told the Jewish people to do on all their boys. That's the reason why the Jewish people rubbish you. But don't worry about that. They are only talking about the operation that people do to their bodies. They are not talking about the job that God does inside us. <sup>13</sup> But now it is different for you. At first you were far away from God, but then you believed in Jesus. You believed that he died, and that his blood came out for you. Then God joined you to Jesus Christ, and he brought you really close to himself.

<sup>14</sup> You see, you mob that are not Jews, you were enemies with us Jewish mob at first. There was something that made us enemies with each other. It was like a wall standing between us. But Jesus broke down that wall, and he brought us together, and he made us become one new group. He has made us friends with each other now. <sup>15-16</sup> You know, Jesus let people kill his body, and he died for all of us. When he did that, he made all those Jewish laws useless, along with all their rules. Jesus Christ died on the cross for everybody. He died for the Jewish people, and he died for the people that are not Jews. When he died, he stopped the Jews from being enemies with other people, and he brought both mobs to God, to be God's friends. He brought them together into one new group.*

<sup>17</sup> Jesus came and told people God's message. He said that everyone can be friends with God, and they can be friends with each other. He said that you mob that are not Jews, can be friends with God. You mob were far away from God at that time. And he also said that us Jewish mob can be friends with God. We were more close to God at that time.* <sup>18</sup> So now the Holy Spirit helps us all to come close to God our father, because Jesus Christ died for all of us. It is the same Holy Spirit that helps us both. He helps Jews, and he helps people that are not Jews.

<sup>19</sup> So now, you mob that are not Jews, you are not strangers any more. You don't belong to a different nation any more, but you belong to God's nation, and you are in God's mob now. <sup>20-22</sup> I will use a house as a picture story. It is like God used Jesus and all his people to build a special house for himself. He used Jesus Christ to start building that house. He is the most important one. Then God used Jesus's special workers, and the other people that told God's messages. They are like the cement slab that the house sits on. Now God is using you mob, with us Jewish mob, to make the rest of the house. It is like God's people are the bricks and the wood. You mob are not Jews, but you are still part of that house. God's spirit carefully joins us together, to make that house bigger all the time, and God lives in his special house. That picture of a house shows us that God is living in us all the time.

3

God picked Paul to help the people that are not Jews

<sup>1</sup> You mob know about me, Paul, that I am in jail now. You see, I told you mob the message about Jesus. But the bosses didn't like me talking about Jesus to people that are not Jews. So they put me in jail.

<sup>2</sup> And you know that God was very good to me, and he picked me to tell you his message. <sup>3</sup> You see, a long time ago, God planned to save people that are not Jews, as well as Jewish people. At that time he didn't tell everybody about it, but later he told it to me. Remember, I already wrote to you about this. <sup>4</sup> When you read those words, you will understand that I know what God planned about Christ. <sup>5</sup> God didn't tell that message to the people that lived before me. But now, God picked Jesus's special workers and other people that tell his messages, and God's spirit told them his plan.* <sup>6</sup> And this is what God planned. He will be good to everyone that believes the good news about Jesus. It doesn't matter if they are Jews, or not Jews. If they believe in Jesus, God will save them. Both will get what God promised. They both belong to the same mob now. They both belong to God, just like arms and legs belong to the same body.

<sup>7</sup> God was really good to me. He used his power to help me to be strong. Then he gave me this special job. I have to tell people this good news about Jesus. <sup>8</sup> I'm not important. All of God's people are more important than me. But God was good to me, and he gave me this special job. He sent me to tell the people that are not Jews about the really great things that Jesus Christ can give them. These things are so great that nobody can understand them properly. <sup>9</sup> And God sent me to help everyone to understand the message about his plan. A long time ago, when God made everything, he didn't tell anyone that message. He kept it secret at that time. <sup>10</sup> But now God wants everyone to hear that message. He wants to use his church people to show all the spirit bosses, everywhere, that God is really wise, and that he understands all about everything. <sup>11</sup> God always planned to save people, and he sent our leader, Jesus Christ, to do it.

<sup>12</sup> We trust in Jesus, and we are joined to him, so we can come to God, and we can be sure that he will listen to us. We don't have to be frightened of him. <sup>13</sup> So when some people make trouble for me, don't let that worry you. I tell you God's word, and they don't like it, so they make trouble for me. But don't worry. I want you to be strong.

* 2:15-16 Colossians 1:20

* 2:17 Isaiah 57:19

* 3:5 Colossians 1:26-27

You can always feel happy whenever they make trouble for me.

Paul asked God to help the Christians be strong

<sup>14</sup> When I think about all these things that our father does, I get down on my knees and pray to him. <sup>15</sup> He made everything in the world, and everything in heaven, and he put every family here too. <sup>16</sup> He is very great, and he can work powerfully in you, so I pray that he will do that. I pray that his spirit will make your spirits strong, inside yourselves. <sup>17</sup> I pray that you will trust Jesus Christ properly, so that he will live inside you. I pray that you will always love God properly, and that you will always love other people too, so that you will always keep standing strong for him, like the roots of a tree always keep it standing up strong. <sup>18-19</sup> I pray for you, and for all God's people. I pray that you will know, in a powerful way, that Jesus Christ loves us very much. He loves us so much that nobody can properly know all about it. But I want you to understand that he loves everybody very much, so that you will become like him in every way, and you will live the good way he wants you to live.

<sup>20-21</sup> We have to thank God now. His power works in us, and he does really great things. He can do a lot more than we can ask him for. He can even do more than we can think about. And we are God's people. We are his church. So we always have to praise God and show everyone that he is very great and good. We have to show them what Jesus Christ does, and that he is really great. And we have to keep on doing it for ever and ever. Yes, that's right.

4

God's people have to be friends with each other

<sup>1</sup> So now, even though I'm in jail because I follow Jesus, I'm asking you strongly to live the right way. You see, God picked you to be his own people, so you have to live his way. <sup>2</sup> Don't think that you are more important than other people. You have to be good to other people, you have to listen to them and try to understand them. Don't get angry with each other, but you have to love each other all the time.* <sup>3</sup> Try hard to let God's spirit keep you together as friends, without any trouble between you.

<sup>4</sup> All of God's people are like parts of one body, with the one Holy Spirit living in all of us. God picked us to be his own people, so we are all sure of this one thing, that he will do everything that he promised to us. <sup>5</sup> We all have only one leader, Jesus. There is only one true message that we all believe, the good news about Jesus. We all went through that one ceremony called baptism, to show that we follow Jesus. <sup>6</sup> And there is only one God. He is the father of all of us. He is the biggest boss over everything, and he lives inside all of us to get all of us to do what he wants.

<sup>7</sup> You see, Jesus Christ has been good to us. He has given each one of us the spiritual power to do something properly. They are spiritual gifts that he gives us, and he himself picks the person to get each gift. <sup>8</sup> A long time ago, God got one of his men to write this in his book, "He went up to the highest place, and he made lots of prisoners follow him. And he gave gifts to people."*

<sup>9</sup> That man wrote, "He went up." But think about it. He couldn't go up unless he first came down. You see, at first Jesus Christ came down to the low parts of the earth, and after that he went back up. <sup>10</sup> It was the same man, Jesus, that came down here, and then went up high, right up above all the sky. So now he can be everywhere.

<sup>11-12</sup> And Jesus Christ gives these special gifts to his people, so that they can help other people in the church. These gifts are the powers he gives to Christians. He gave some of his people the power to be his special workers, and he sent them out to other people to tell them his good news. And he gave other Christians the power to tell God's messages to people. And he gave some of them the power to help other people to believe in Jesus. And he gave some Christians the power to be pastors, to look after Christians and teach them God's way. God gave all these powers to his people to get them ready, so that they can work together for him. God works like that, so that his people get stronger, and so that more people join his family. We are like the body of Jesus Christ here on earth, and he wants that body to get bigger and stronger. <sup>13</sup> God will keep on using the people with this spiritual power until we all join in together, and we all work together properly. We all believe in God's son, so we all have to work together, and we all have to get to know Jesus better. Then we, God's people, will become like Jesus Christ himself. We will become what God wants us to be.

<sup>14</sup> So then liars will not trick us, like they trick little kids. Lots of tricky people will try to teach us new messages that sound good, but are wrong. But we will not be like little kids. We will not believe their lies. Instead, we will be strong, and we will not stop believing the true message.<sup>15</sup> We will love people, and at the same time we will tell them the true message. Then we will get stronger for Jesus Christ and become more like him. It's like we are his body, and he is the head.<sup>16</sup> He holds the whole body together. He's like the strings in a body that join every part together. Each of us is a different part of his body, and if every one of us does our job properly, and if we love each other, the whole body will grow, and it will get stronger.*

You have to turn around and live the right way

<sup>17</sup> I'm telling you this message that our leader, Jesus, wants me to tell you, so you have to take notice of it. Don't live any more like the people that don't know God. They can't think straight.<sup>18</sup> They can't understand anything properly. It is like their minds are in darkness. They don't want to know God, and they are a long way away from him. He doesn't give them new life. They do bad things, but they never feel sorry about it.<sup>19</sup> They don't know what is right, or what is wrong, any more. They only want to do all sorts of bad things, and dirty things, and they really want to keep on doing those wrong things.

<sup>20</sup> But when you learned about Jesus Christ, you didn't learn to live in a bad way like that.<sup>21</sup> I'm sure that you heard the good story about Jesus, and you learned the true things that Jesus taught to people.<sup>22</sup> You learned that we all have a bad part inside us that gets us to only think about what we want for ourselves, and it gets us to go wrong, and it gets us to do bad things. And you learned that now we have to turn around and stop doing those things. So don't take any notice of that old bad part inside you. Don't think about those bad things any more,*<sup>23</sup> but let the Holy Spirit show you how to think in a new way.<sup>24</sup> You have to live a new way now. You have to live for God. He makes you into a new person, to be like himself, so you have to properly do what is right, and do what is good, like he does.*

<sup>25</sup> You know, we all belong to Jesus, like each one of us is a part of his body. So don't lie to each other. Only say the things that are true.*<sup>26</sup> And if you get angry, don't do anything wrong. Don't stay angry all day, but quickly stop being angry.*<sup>27</sup> Don't make it easy for the devil, the boss over the bad spirits, to get you to go wrong.

<sup>28</sup> Anyone that steals things from other people has to stop doing that. Instead, they have to do honest work to get things for themselves, and they have to give things to other people that need them.<sup>29</sup> And don't swear, or say any bad talk. Only say good things that will help people, and say things that they need to hear. When you do that, your words will be good for the people that hear you.

<sup>30</sup> Don't make the Holy Spirit sad. Remember, he is in you. God gave him to you so that you can be really sure that you belong to God, and that one day God will set you free from everything bad.<sup>31</sup> So don't get upset with people, and don't think about them in a bad way. Don't get angry with anyone. Don't argue or fight with people. Don't yell at anyone, or say bad things about them. Don't do anything bad to anyone.<sup>32</sup> Instead, be good to each other, and try to understand how other people feel. If somebody does wrong to you, don't do payback to them, but let it go. Be good to each other, just like God is good to you. He doesn't do payback to you. You belong to Jesus Christ now, so God doesn't punish you for those bad things you did.*

5

You are God's kids, so you have to live the right way

<sup>1</sup> You are God's kids, and he loves you, so try to be like God. He is good all the time.<sup>2</sup> Always love other people, just like Jesus Christ loves us. He loved us so much that he took our payback, and he died instead of us. You know how people used to kill animals and burn them, to give them to God, for the good smell to make him happy.* Well, just like those animals, Jesus died. When Jesus died, he gave himself to God. Jesus did that because he loved you. So you have to love other people too.

<sup>3</sup> So don't sleep with somebody that is not your own wife or husband, as if you are married to them. And don't be greedy, wanting lots of money and things. You are God's own people, so don't even think about doing bad things like that. That's not the way for God's people to live.<sup>4</sup> And don't talk in a dirty way or tell dirty jokes, and don't say stupid things. It's not right for God's people to talk like that. Instead,

* 4:16 Colossians 2:19

* 4:22 Colossians 3:9

* 4:24 Genesis 1:26; Colossians 3:10

* 4:25 Zechariah 8:16

* 4:26 Psalm 4:4

* 4:32 Colossians 3:13

* 5:2 Exodus 29:18

when you talk, you have to thank God a lot. <sup>5</sup> Listen, this is true. If you do those bad and dirty things, you will never get the good things that God gives to his people. It's like this, if you think in a dirty way, you can't be in God's family, you can't be with Jesus Christ. And if you sleep with somebody that is not your wife or husband, as if you are married to them, you can't be in God's family. And if you are greedy, wanting lots of money and things, you can't be in God's family. You see, greedy people really respect money and things more than they respect God.

<sup>6</sup> Don't believe anyone that says you can do those bad things. Don't let them trick you. Don't believe their lies. God will get really angry with people that do those bad things, and he will punish those people that will not listen to him or do what he says. <sup>7</sup> So don't join in with people that tell you to do bad things. Don't do what those people do.

<sup>8</sup> You see, you used to be like that before. You didn't know what was right, like you were living in the dark. But then you came to our leader, Jesus, and now you are in the light. So live like people that belong to the light. <sup>9</sup> You know, if people have God's light in them, they live in a way that is good, right, and true. <sup>10</sup> So find out what makes God happy, and do that. <sup>11</sup> People that belong to the darkness do wrong things. Don't ever join in with them. Don't do those things that are wrong and useless, but instead, tell everybody that those things are wrong. <sup>12</sup> Those people do bad things when nobody can see them. Those things are so bad that if we talk about them, we feel shame. <sup>13</sup> But whenever light shines on something, everyone can see it. <sup>14</sup> The light shows us what something really is. So some people say this,

"Stop doing bad things.

It's like you are asleep, so wake up now.

It's like you are dead, so come alive again now.

Then Jesus will show you the right way to live, it's like he will shine light on you."

<sup>15</sup> So you have to be very careful to live the right way. You have to understand what is right and good. Don't live like stupid people. <sup>16</sup> Do good things every time you can, because lots of people do lots of bad things these days.* <sup>17</sup> Don't be fools. But instead, understand what God wants. <sup>18</sup> Don't get drunk. If you drink too much grog, you will go wild, and you will do stupid things. Don't do that, but instead, keep on letting the Holy Spirit come into you and fill you up. <sup>19</sup> Use God's songs to talk to each other. You know, you can sing hymns and songs that the Holy Spirit gives you. Sing and make music to God from inside yourselves.* <sup>20</sup> Remember our leader, Jesus Christ, and always thank God, our father, for everything.

Respect each other properly

<sup>21</sup> Each of you has to think about what other Christians want, and agree with them, because you really respect Jesus Christ.

Wives

<sup>22</sup> You women that are wives, you have to think about what your husbands want, and agree with them, just like God's people always have to agree with what our leader, Jesus, wants.* <sup>23</sup> You see it is like this. Each body has a head that controls it. Well, we are God's people, his church, and we are like a body, and Jesus is like our head. He is the one that saved us. In the same way, husbands are like the head of their wives. <sup>24</sup> Yes, wives always have to think about what their husbands want and agree with them, just like God's people always have to agree with what Jesus Christ wants.

Husbands

<sup>25</sup> Yes, and you men that are husbands, you have to do your part too. You have to always love your wives properly, just like Jesus Christ loves the people in his church properly. Jesus let people kill him so that he could save us.* <sup>26</sup> He washed us properly clean, not just with water in the baptism ceremony, but with his word too. <sup>27</sup> So now we can be properly good, and he can bring us to himself, with nothing wrong with us at all.

<sup>28</sup> Well, husbands have to love their wives properly, just like Jesus loves us. You know that everyone loves his own body and looks after it properly. Well, in the same way, husbands have to love their wives and look after them, just as much as they love their own bodies. A man that loves his wife, loves himself. <sup>29</sup> No man ever hates his own body. No, instead he gives it food and takes care of it. Jesus Christ does that too. He takes care of his people, the church. <sup>30</sup> We all belong to Jesus, like we are parts of his own body.

* 5:16 Colossians 4:5 * 5:19 Colossians 3:16-17 * 5:22 Colossians 3:18; 1 Peter 3:1 * 5:25 Colossians 3:19; 1 Peter 3:7

“A man will leave his mother and father and marry a woman. The man and his wife will join with each other, and their bodies will be like one body.”*

<sup>32</sup> Those words tell us important things, and they are a picture of something else too. They show us how Jesus Christ and his church are joined together, like one. <sup>33</sup> So I say this to you married people. Every one of you husbands has to love your own wife as much as you love yourself. And every wife has to respect her husband.

Kids

<sup>1</sup> Now I’m talking to you kids. You belong to our leader, Jesus, so you have to do what your father and mother tell you to do. That is the right way to live. <sup>2-3</sup> You see, God made this law, “Always respect your father and your mother. If you do that, you will be happy, and you will live for a long time on the earth.” That was the first time God made a law and promised something with it.*

Fathers

<sup>4</sup> Now I’m talking to you fathers. Don’t make your kids angry. But instead, as they are growing up, you have to teach them the way God wants them to live, and show them how to live the right way.

Workers

<sup>5</sup> Now I’m talking to you workers, you people that have to work for other people all the time. Your bosses are only people, but that doesn’t matter; you have to respect them properly, and do whatever they tell you. Work hard for them, like you are working for Jesus Christ. <sup>6</sup> Do what they say, and try to make them happy. Don’t only do it when they can see you, but also when they can’t see you. Work happily in your job, like you are working for Jesus Christ, and then you will be doing what God wants. <sup>7</sup> Your bosses are only people, but try to work properly for them, like you are working for Jesus, not working for people. <sup>8</sup> Remember this, if you do good things, Jesus, our leader, will pay you with something good later. He will do that, no matter if you work for nothing, like a prisoner, or if you are free.

Bosses

<sup>9</sup> Now I’m talking to bosses. You have to do the same, you have to be good to your workers. Don’t say anything to frighten them, like saying you are going to punish them. Remember that God in heaven is your boss, and he is the boss over your workers too. And he treats everyone the same, no matter if you are a boss or a worker.*

Be like strong soldiers for God

<sup>10</sup> The last thing that I want to say to you is this. You are joined to our leader, Jesus, and he is very strong, so you have to use his strong power to fight against the devil, the boss over the bad spirits. <sup>11</sup> You know that a soldier puts on special gear to stop the enemy from hurting him. Well, you have to do that with the special gear that God gives us. Then you will keep strong against the devil, and you will not let him trick you. He tries all sorts of clever ways to fight against us. <sup>12</sup> You see, we are not fighting against people, but we are fighting against a big mob of bad spirits. We are fighting against the bad spirit bosses that we can’t see in this bad world. And we are fighting against the powerful bad spirits that live above the earth too. <sup>13</sup> So you have to use all the special gear that God gives you, so that you can stand up to those bad spirits whenever they come at you, and they will not win. And at the end of the fight, you will still be standing strong.

<sup>14</sup> So put on that special gear from God, so you can stand up against the devil. This is what that gear is.

- You know that a soldier wears a belt, to hold his clothes on tight, so he can move quickly in a fight. Well, just like that, you take notice of what is true, so you can fight better against the devil.
- And a soldier wears an iron plate, to stop the enemy from hitting his chest. Well, you have to always do what is right, and that will be like an iron plate for you, to stop the devil from hitting you.*
- <sup>15</sup> And a soldier wears special shoes, so that he can always be ready to fight. Well, you have to remember the good news about Jesus, that he makes us God’s friends. Then you will be ready to fight the devil.*
- <sup>16</sup> You know that a soldier always has a shield, to stop the spears that the enemy throws at him. In the same way, you have to always trust God. Whenever you do that, it is like you are holding up a shield that stops the things that the devil throws at you. They are like burning spears, but if you trust God, he will stop them and put them out.

* 5:31 Genesis 2:24 * 6:2-3 Exodus 20:12; Deuteronomy 5:16 * 6:9 Deuteronomy 10:17 * 6:14 Isaiah 11:5; 59:17 * 6:15 Isaiah 52:7

- <sup>17</sup> And a soldier wears an iron hat, that stops the enemy from hurting his head. Well, you remember that God has saved you. That will be like an iron hat for you, to keep you safe.
- And you know the long knife a soldier has, called a sword? He uses it to fight back against his enemy. Well, in the same way, you can use God's word to fight back against the devil, and the Holy Spirit will help you.*

<sup>18</sup> And always pray in the way that God's spirit leads you. Pray about every problem, and pray in all sorts of ways, and ask God for whatever you need. So always keep on praying for all God's people.

<sup>19</sup> And pray for me too. Ask God to give me the right words to say every time I start to tell people the good news about Jesus. Pray that I will not be too frightened to tell them that message properly. God kept it secret for a long time, <sup>20</sup> but now he has sent me to tell this good story to everybody. The bosses here didn't like me telling that story, so they put me in jail. I want you to ask God to make me brave, so that I keep on telling his good story.

The end of Paul's letter

<sup>21-22</sup> Now I'm sending Tikhicus to you to tell you about me and about what I'm doing these days. He is my Christian friend that I love, and he is a good worker for God. He will tell you all the news about me, and the news about the other people that are here with me. And I also want him to help you feel strong and brave.*

<sup>23</sup> You mob are my Christian friends. You believe in God, our father, and you believe in our leader Jesus Christ. So I'm asking them to be really good to you, and to help you to be happy and quiet inside yourselves. And I'm asking God to help you to love him, and to love other people, and to help you to keep on trusting Jesus.

<sup>24</sup> I want God to be very good to everyone that never stops loving our leader, Jesus Christ.

The letter that Paul wrote to the Christians at Philippi
(The book in the Holy Bible called Philippians)
About this letter

Paul wrote this letter about 2,000 years ago, about 30 years after Jesus went back to heaven, and it is now in the Holy Bible.

God sent Paul to lots of towns to tell people about Jesus, and one of them was Philippi (see Acts 16:11-40). It was in the country that we now call Greece, but at that time they called it Macedonia. About 1,400 years ago an earthquake broke Philippi down, and today there are just stones and rubbish at that place in Greece.

At the time when Paul wrote this letter, the people called the Romans were the bosses over lots of nations. The Roman bosses didn't like Paul telling people about Jesus, so they grabbed him and put him in jail. Paul wrote this letter while he was in that jail, in Rome. His friend Timothy helped him write it.

In this letter, Paul said some very important things to help those Christians get really close to God. And we can learn a lot today from what Paul wrote to the Christians at Philippi, a long time ago.

<sup>1</sup> I am Paul, and this letter is from me, and it is from Timothy too, because he is helping me write it. We work all the time for Jesus Christ. We are sending this letter to all God's special people at Philippi, you people that belong to Jesus Christ. We are writing to you Christian leaders, and to you church helpers, and to all you Christians.*

<sup>2</sup> We are asking God our father, and Jesus Christ our leader, to be good to you, and to make you feel happy and quiet inside yourselves.

The Christians at Philippi helped Paul tell people about Jesus

<sup>3</sup> Every time I think about you mob, I thank God for you. <sup>4</sup> And every time I pray for you, I'm really happy. <sup>5</sup> You believed the message about Jesus right from the first day that you heard it, and you helped me tell it to other people. Yes, you helped me with my work. And you are still doing it. <sup>6</sup> I know that God is working inside you. He has already started doing a good thing in you, and he will keep on working in you until he has properly finished it. That will be when Jesus Christ comes back again. I'm really sure that God will finish doing this good thing inside you. <sup>7</sup> You see, I love you mob very much, so it is all right for me to think about you like that. You are my friends and God is good to you, just like he is good to me. So you help me every time God lets me tell people the good news about Jesus. Right now I'm tied up in jail, and sometimes they take me to court, and I tell them the message about Jesus, and I show them that it is true. And you help me do that. <sup>8</sup> Yes, I love you, just like Jesus Christ loves you, and I want to be with you again. God himself knows that is true.

Paul asked God to help the Christians at Philippi

<sup>9</sup> So I pray like this for you. I ask God to help you to love each other more and more, and to know God better. I ask God to help you to understand spiritual things better. <sup>10-11</sup> Then you will know the right way to live, and you will do a lot of good things. And I ask Jesus Christ to help you so that you will always do good things, and never do bad things. Jesus is going to come back again, and I want you to be living in that good way. You will show people that God is good, and they will say that he is really great.

Paul was in jail, but he told more people about Jesus

<sup>12</sup> My Christian friends, I want to tell you about myself. You know that bad things happened to me, and now I'm in jail. But don't worry, it is good that I am in jail. Now I can tell more people about Jesus. <sup>13</sup> So now everybody here knows that I belong to Jesus Christ, and that is the reason why I'm in jail. All the guards, and soldiers, and everyone else that works in the big boss's house here, they all know that is the reason why I'm in jail.* <sup>14</sup> And the Christians here heard that I'm in jail. Then most of them trusted in our leader Jesus more strongly and got brave, and they are not frightened to tell other people God's message.

<sup>15-17</sup> There are Christians here that think in a good way and they want to help me, so they tell people about Jesus. They love me, and they know that God let people put me in jail so that I can tell a lot more people the message about Jesus and show them that this message is true.

But there are other Christians that are a bit jealous of me, and they think they can give me trouble while I'm in jail. They want other Christians to think that they are more important than me. So they tell people about Jesus Christ, and they hope they will get a lot of people to say they are great. They are thinking the wrong way. They only think about themselves.

* 1:1 Acts 16:12      * 1:13 Acts 28:30

<sup>18</sup> But it doesn't matter. Both mobs are telling people about Jesus Christ. That is the most important thing. Maybe some of them are thinking the wrong way. But the others are thinking the right way. And all of them are telling people about Jesus Christ, so I'm very happy about it.

Which is better, to be with Jesus or to stay alive in this world?

Yes, and I will stay very happy. <sup>19</sup> You mob are praying for me and the spirit of Jesus Christ is helping me, so I'm sure that God will get me out of this jail. <sup>20</sup> I want to be brave and stay strong for Jesus Christ, just like I always am. Then I will not feel shame. Maybe they will kill me, or maybe they will let me stay alive. It doesn't matter. I want to stay strong for Jesus Christ and show everyone how great he is, no matter what.

<sup>21</sup> You see, while I'm alive, I want to let people know that Jesus Christ is really great. That is what I live for. But if they kill me, that is even better for me. <sup>22</sup> Maybe they will not kill me, and I will keep on living in this body. Then I will keep on working for Jesus, and I will help more people know him properly. I don't really know what will be best, for me to live, or for me to die. <sup>23</sup> I want to do both. I want to leave this body and go to be with Jesus Christ. That will be a lot better for me. <sup>24</sup> But at the same time, you mob need me, so I want to keep on living in this body so I can help you. <sup>25</sup> When I think about it, I'm sure that God will let me stay alive here, so I can keep on helping all of you. Then you will trust God more, and you will be more happy. <sup>26</sup> Yes, I reckon I will come and visit you again and you will be happy to see me. You will tell everyone, "This is awesome. Jesus Christ is really good and really powerful. He got Paul out of jail and brought him here to help us." You will talk like that to everyone.

Stay strong for Jesus

<sup>27</sup> Listen, you heard the good news about Jesus Christ, and you trusted him, so keep on living the way he wants you to live, no matter what happens. Maybe I will come and visit you again, but maybe not. Maybe I will only hear what people tell me about you. Anyway, I want to find out that you are staying strong for Jesus, and that God's spirit is joining you all together, so that you are all agreeing with each other and working together to tell people about Jesus. <sup>28</sup> Some people will try to stop you living for Jesus. Don't be frightened of those people. Stay strong for Jesus. Then you will show those people that, in the end, God will finish them, but he will save you. Yes, God will make that happen. <sup>29</sup> You see, God lets you believe in Jesus Christ. But not only that, sometimes people make trouble for you because you believe in Jesus. God lets that happen too. <sup>30</sup> Those bad people are making trouble for you, just like they made trouble for me when I was there in your town. And bad people are still making trouble for me.*

2

Work together with each other

<sup>1</sup> Listen. You know that you belong to Jesus Christ, and he helps you to be strong and brave. You know that he loves you, so you are happy. You know that God's spirit is in you, and you share your lives with him. You know how to feel sorry for each other, and how to help each other. You know all that, right? <sup>2</sup> So now make me properly happy. I want you all to love each other properly, and I want you all to agree with each other, and work together, and think the same way about what is right. <sup>3-4</sup> Each of you has to think about what is good for the others. Don't only think about what is good for yourself. Don't think that you are better than other people, but think that they are better than you. And don't do things only to get people to say you are good. And don't try to be a boss over other people.

Be like Jesus, and think like he did

<sup>5</sup> You have to think the same way that Jesus Christ thought.

<sup>6</sup> He was the same as God.

He was just as important as God.

But he didn't reckon that he had to keep on being important, like God is.

<sup>7</sup> Instead, he left all that, and he made himself like a nobody.

He was born into this world and looked like other human beings.

He was a man living here.

And he worked hard to help people.

<sup>8</sup> And then he made himself even less important.

He did everything that God wanted him to do, he even died.

* 1:30 Acts 16:19-40

He let people nail him to a cross and kill him.

<sup>9</sup> So then God made him alive again and lifted him up to the most important place in heaven.

And God made him more powerful than everyone else.

<sup>10</sup> One day, everyone will hear the name of Jesus, and they will get down on their knees and show him respect.

All the people and spirits will show respect to Jesus. Everything in heaven, and everything on the earth, and everything under the earth, they will all show respect to Jesus.

<sup>11</sup> And every one of them will say out loud, "Jesus Christ is the boss."

That will happen to show that God our father is very great and good.*

God gives you the power to do good things

<sup>12</sup> So, my good friends, you always have to do what God wants. I know that you did that when I was with you, and I reckon you still do it now that I'm not with you any more. So you have to work hard and keep on trying to do what God wants. You see, God saved you, so give him proper respect and try to live his way. You have to be too frightened to do any bad thing that will make him angry. <sup>13</sup> God is the one that is working inside you. He helps you think the right way, so that you want to do the good things that make him happy, and he gives you the power to do those good things.

<sup>14</sup> And while you do those things, don't get angry or argue about them. <sup>15</sup> Then you will be properly good, so that nobody can blame you for anything. You are God's kids living among really bad people that always go wrong. So you have to live in a way that is properly good. Then everyone will see that you are properly good. You will be like bright stars in a dark sky.*

<sup>16</sup> And you have to keep on believing the message about Jesus that gives us real life. Then when Jesus Christ comes back, I will be very happy, and I will know that I didn't waste my time when I worked among you.

<sup>17</sup> Yes, I'm happy about you. And even if they kill me, I will still be happy. I know that you believe in Jesus and you work for him, and when you do that, you are giving yourselves to God. And if they are going to kill me, I will be giving my body to God too. So we can all be happy about it together.

<sup>18</sup> Yes, you can be happy too. Even if they are going to kill me, you can be happy with me.

Paul wanted Timothy to find out about the mob at Philippi

<sup>19</sup> Now I will tell you what I want to do. Timothy is here with me, and I want to send him to you soon. So if that is what our leader Jesus wants, I will send him to you. After that, he will come back and tell me all about you, and that will make me happy. <sup>20</sup> Timothy is different from the other people here. He really cares about you and about how you are going. <sup>21</sup> The others think about the things they want, not the things that Jesus Christ wants. <sup>22</sup> But you know Timothy. Everyone can see that he is a good man. He works with me just like a son works with his father. Together we tell people the good news about Jesus. <sup>23</sup> So I will send him to you. But first I will wait and see what they are going to do to me, then I will send him to you, <sup>24</sup> even though I'm sure that God will let me visit you soon too.

Epafroditus wanted to go back to Philippi

<sup>25</sup> Right now I'm sending Epafroditus back to you. You sent him to me a while ago when I needed help. He came here and looked after me. He has been a good Christian friend to me here. We work together. We are both like soldiers fighting for God. But now I reckon I have to send him back to you. <sup>26</sup> He really wants to see you all again. And you know, after he came here, he got sick, and then somebody told you about it. So now he worries about you. He doesn't want you to be sad and feel sorry for him. So he really wants to go back and see you all again. <sup>27</sup> Yes, he was very sick a while ago, and he nearly died. But God felt sorry for him, and for me too. God was good to him and made him better. And when God did that, he was good to me too. You know, I am already sad about some things, and if Epafroditus died, that would make me really sad. But he didn't die. <sup>28</sup> So now I really want to send him to you, and when you see him again you will be happy, and I will not worry about you any more. <sup>29-30</sup> Epafroditus belongs to our leader, Jesus, just like you do. You couldn't come and help me a while ago, so he came instead of you. And then he nearly died. But he didn't worry. He knew he was working for Jesus Christ while he was helping me, and he was ready to die for Jesus. You have to really respect people like Epafroditus. So when he comes back to you, be happy and say, "Good to see you again. You are our good Christian friend."

* 2:11 Isaiah 45:23

* 2:15 Deuteronomy 32:5

3

Some people teach things that are not true

<sup>1</sup> And now, my Christian friends, before I finish this letter, I want to tell you this. Be happy all the time. Remember that you belong to our leader Jesus. Yes, I told you all these things before, and I am telling you again. I don't get tired of telling you, and this message will stop you from going the wrong way.

<sup>2-3</sup> Look out. There are some men that want to teach you the wrong things and get you to go the wrong way. They are like dogs. They go the wrong way. They only want to cut men's bodies. They say that you don't belong to God unless you do what the Jewish law says and have a young man operation. They are wrong. We have God's spirit in us, and he helps us respect God the right way. We know what Jesus Christ did for us, and we trust him. We know that ceremonies that people do will not save us, so we don't trust them. So really, we are the ones that belong to God. Those people that only follow that Jewish law don't belong to him.

Know Jesus properly, this is most important

<sup>4</sup> Look at me. I'm more Jewish than they are, and I trusted that Jewish law more than them, but it didn't save me. <sup>5</sup> I was born into the Israel nation, and I belong to the Benjamin tribe. They did that young man operation on me when I was 8 days old, just like the Jewish law says. When I grew up, I joined the Pharisee mob, that are really strong for the Jewish law. I'm properly Jewish.* <sup>6</sup> I really wanted to make God happy, but I followed the Jewish way, and I made a lot of trouble for Christians. And I was strong for the Jewish laws. Nobody could say that I broke any of them.* <sup>7</sup> I used to think that if I lived like that, God will like me. But then I found out the true message about Jesus, and I knew that I was wrong. Those things didn't help at all. Now that I know Jesus Christ properly, I reckon all those things are useless. <sup>8</sup> Yes, they are useless. But I know Jesus Christ. That is the only important thing. He is my leader, and he is really special to me now. I have left every other way, and I only follow him now. I reckon all those other things are rubbish, and I have chucked them away, so that I can join up with Jesus Christ, <sup>9</sup> and belong to him properly. I have stopped trying to follow that Jewish law to get God to say that I'm all right. Instead of that, I trust in Jesus Christ, and that is the reason why God will say that I'm all right. God makes us right because we believe in Jesus. <sup>10</sup> And I really want to know Jesus Christ properly. And I want God's power to be in my life, the same power he used to make Jesus alive again. And I even want to share the pain that Jesus got. I will even let his enemies kill me, like they killed him. <sup>11</sup> Then later, God will make me alive again, one way or another.

Try hard to be like Jesus

<sup>12</sup> I'm not saying that I have already done all that. I'm not saying that I'm properly good now. But, you see, Jesus Christ picked me to be one of his people, so I'm trying hard to be the sort of person that he wants me to be. <sup>13</sup> Friends, I don't reckon I'm all that good yet, but I keep on looking ahead. I'm like a man running in a race. I forget what I did in the past, and I think about what God wants me to do later. <sup>14</sup> I keep trying to be like Jesus, so that God will take me up to properly join up with Jesus. That will be my prize.

<sup>15</sup> And all of us have to think like that. That will show that we are spiritually strong now and live properly for Jesus. But if you think differently about anything, God will help you, and he will show you the right way. <sup>16</sup> We started to learn about the way God wants us to live, so we have to keep on living his way and keep on doing the things he taught us to do. That is the most important thing for all of us to do.

Live the right way, like Paul did

<sup>17</sup> My Christian friends, you know how I live, so you all have to try to live the same way. And look around at each other, and see the way you all live. Look at those people that live the same way as I live, and you do the same.* <sup>18</sup> You see, there are a lot of people that don't live the right way. I have often told you this before, and now I'm telling you the same thing again. When I think about it, I get so sad that I cry. There are people that reckon they are Christians, but they are really enemies of Jesus Christ. They live in a way that shows they are against the good things that Jesus died for on the cross. <sup>19</sup> They don't listen to God. They listen to their own bodies, and they do bad things so that their bodies feel good. They do those bad things, but they don't feel shame. Instead, they think they are smart. They only think about the things that belong to this world. And in the end God will finish them up for ever.

* 3:5 Acts 23:6; 26:5; Romans 11:1 * 3:6 Acts 8:3; 22:4; 26:9-11 * 3:17 1 Corinthians 4:16; 11:1

<sup>20</sup> But we belong to heaven. That is our real home. And we are waiting for our leader, Jesus Christ, to come back from heaven. He is the one that saves us, and we really want him to come back. <sup>21</sup> He will change these weak bodies that we have now, and he will make them into new bodies. They will be like the wonderful body that he has now. Jesus can do that because he is really powerful. He is so powerful that he can be the boss over everything.

4

<sup>1</sup> So think about all that, my Christian friends, and keep on following our leader Jesus. And keep on trusting him properly. I love you very much, and I really want to see you again. You make me very happy, and it is like you are the prize that I get for winning a race.

Don't argue with each other

<sup>2</sup> Now I just want to talk to Yuwodia and Sintiki. I ask you 2 women very strongly to stop arguing with each other, and to try to think the same way as each other. Remember, you both belong to our leader Jesus. <sup>3</sup> And now I'm talking to my other good friend there. Listen, my friend, you worked hard with me, and you always tried to follow Jesus properly. Now I want you to help those 2 women to be friends with each other. They both worked hard to tell people the good news about Jesus. They worked with me and Clement and some other Christians. God wrote the names of all those Christians in his special book called the book of life, where he writes the name of every person that will live with him for ever.

Jesus can make you happy and quiet inside

<sup>4</sup> Now I'm talking to all of you Christians. You belong to our leader, Jesus, so always be happy. This is important, so I'm saying it again, "Be happy."<sup>5</sup> Always be easy with people, and be nice to them, so that everyone will see how good you are. Remember that our leader, Jesus, will come back soon. <sup>6</sup> Don't worry about anything, but pray to God and ask him for everything you need. And always thank God for what he has already done. <sup>7</sup> Then God will get you to feel happy and quiet inside yourselves. You belong to Jesus Christ, and he will do that to look after your minds, so that you will think properly. Nobody knows how God does it, but he can do it.

Think about good things

<sup>8</sup> And one more thing, my Christian friends. Keep thinking about the things that are true, and the things that people should respect. Keep thinking about the things that are right, and good, and lovely. Think about things that everyone reckons are really good. Think about the things that we can thank God for. <sup>9</sup> And remember, when I was with you, I taught you the right things to do. You agreed with me about those things. And you know the things that I said, and the things that I did when I was with you. Well, keep on doing all those things. Then God will be with you, and he will get you to feel happy and quiet inside yourselves.

The Christians at Philippi wanted to help Paul, and that made him happy

<sup>10</sup> Now I will tell you how things are going with me here. I'm really happy, thanks to our leader Jesus. I know that you were worried about me here in jail, and you wanted to send something to help me, but at first you couldn't do it. Then later, you found a way to send me something, and that made me happy. It shows that you are still thinking about me.

<sup>11</sup> I'm not saying this because I need anything. I have learned to be happy, no matter what happens to me. <sup>12</sup> I know what it is like to need things, and I know what it is like to have a lot of things. I have learned this secret, to be happy all the time no matter what happens. Sometimes I can eat plenty of food, and sometimes I go hungry. But it doesn't matter, I can be happy anyway. Sometimes I have everything I need, and sometimes I haven't got anything. But it doesn't matter, I can be happy anyway. <sup>13</sup> You see, Jesus Christ makes me strong, so I can do all these things. <sup>14</sup> And you have been very good to me. I have been getting trouble, but you remembered me, and you helped me a lot.

The Christians at Philippi do good things, so God is happy with them

<sup>15</sup> Remember the time when I first came to tell you the good news about Jesus. Then I left your country, called Macedonia, and I went to tell other people this story. You know, you were the only Christian church that gave me something to help me do that.* <sup>16</sup> And when I was in the town called Thessalonica, I needed money, you mob kept on sending me money and things, to help me.*

* 4:15 2 Corinthians 11:9 * 4:16 Acts 17:1

<sup>17</sup> I'm not telling you this to get you to send me more things. But I want you to keep on doing good things like that, so that God will be happy about you. He will add those good things to the list of all the good things you have done, and one day, he will pay you for it all.

Give to God, and he will give you everything you need

<sup>18</sup> But right now I have everything I need, and even more than I need. You are so good to me. You gave lots of money and things to Epafroditus to bring to me. But you didn't only give them to me. You gave them to God. They are the right sort of gift, a really nice one, so he is very happy.*

<sup>19</sup> You know, God looks after me, and he will look after you too. You belong to Jesus Christ, and God will give you everything you need. He is really rich and powerful. So he can give you everything you need.

<sup>20</sup> He is our God and our father. Everybody has to always say that he is very great, for ever and ever. That's right.

The end of Paul's letter

<sup>21</sup> Say hello to all God's people there that belong to Jesus Christ. The Christians that are with me here say hello to you. <sup>22</sup> All of God's people say hello to you. There are some Christians here that live in the house that belongs to the really big government boss, and they say a special hello to you.

<sup>23</sup> I pray that our leader, Jesus Christ, will keep on being really good to all of you.

From Paul

The letter that Paul wrote to the Christians at Colossae

(The book in the Holy Bible called Colossians)

About this letter

Paul wrote this letter about 2,000 years ago, about 30 years after Jesus went back to heaven, and it is now in the Holy Bible.

God sent Paul to lots of countries and lots of towns to tell people about Jesus. Epafras heard Paul's message, and he believed in Jesus. Then Epafras went to the town called Colossae, to tell the people there about Jesus. Colossae was in the country that is now called Turkey. About 1,100 years later some enemy soldiers broke Colossae down, and today there are just stones and rubbish at that place in Turkey.

At the time when Paul wrote this letter, the Roman people were the bosses over lots of nations. The Roman bosses didn't like Paul telling people about Jesus, so they grabbed him and put him in jail. Epafras visited him there in jail and told him about the Christians at Colossae. He also told Paul that some people were teaching them lies. So Paul wrote this letter to the Christians at Colossae, to tell them the true message so that they would not believe those lying teachers. He was still in jail when he wrote this letter.

This letter has good messages for us today. We have to take notice of those messages that Paul wrote to the Christians at Colossae.

<sup>1</sup> I'm Paul, and this letter is from me. And Timothy is helping me write it too. God made me Jesus Christ's special worker.

<sup>2</sup> We are writing this letter to God's people that live at Colossae. You joined up with Jesus Christ, and you keep on trusting him, so you are like brothers and sisters to us.

We are asking God our father to be good to you, and to make you feel happy and quiet inside yourselves.

People at Colossae believed the good news about Jesus

<sup>3-5</sup> People tell us good things about you, so now, every time we pray for you, we always say thank you to God for you. He is the father of our leader Jesus Christ. You heard the true message about Jesus, and you believed it. Now you are really sure that God will give you the good things that he promised. You know that he is keeping them safe for you in heaven. So you keep on believing in Jesus Christ, and you keep on loving all God's people. That is what people tell us about you.

<sup>6</sup> And other people everywhere are hearing that same true message that you heard about Jesus. And they are believing in Jesus and doing good things too.

<sup>7</sup> Epafras told you the message about Jesus. He works for Jesus Christ, just like we do, and we love him very much. You see, we couldn't go and tell you the message about Jesus, but he went instead of us. He is a good man. You can always believe what he tells you.*

<sup>8</sup> After that, Epafras came back here, and he told us about you. He said that the Holy Spirit now helps you to love everybody.

Paul prayed for the new Christians

<sup>9</sup> Yes, Epafras told us about you, and so now we pray for you all the time. We ask God to help you to know what he wants you to do. And we pray that he will help you to understand spiritual things properly, and think about them properly. <sup>10</sup> Then you will live the way that our leader, Jesus, wants you to live, and you will do lots of good things that will make him happy. And you will know God better and better all the time.

<sup>11</sup> And we ask God to use his great power to make you strong, so that you will stay strong for him and you will not give up. And if people give you trouble, we pray that you will not worry or get upset. And we ask him to make you happy all the time. <sup>12</sup> And we want you to always say thank you to God, our father. He brought you into his family so that you will get the good things that he promised to give to his people. Then you will live with him in his good place.

God's son died to set us free

<sup>13-14</sup> You know, the boss over the bad spirits always used to push us to do bad things. It's like we were in a bad place, where he is the boss. But God sent his son, Jesus, to get us out of that place. He took the payback for us, so that now God will not punish us. He set us free from that bad boss, and now we belong to the family of God's son. God loves his son Jesus very much.*

<sup>15-16</sup> Nobody can see God. But God's son, Jesus, is just like God, and he showed people what God is like. You see, Jesus was there with God a long time ago, and he worked with God to make everything. They made all the things in heaven, and all the things on the earth. They made the things we can see, and the things we can't see. They made all the spirits, even the spirit bosses that we can't see. God worked with his son to make everything, so that now everything has to respect God's son. Jesus is God's son, and he is the boss over everything. <sup>17</sup> He was there at first, before anything else, and now he holds everything together, everything everywhere, and he keeps it all working properly.

<sup>18</sup> Jesus is the leader of all God's people, and God's people are the church. It's like God's people are a body, and Jesus is their head. He is the church's leader. He was the first one to ever die and then come back to life and keep on living. So he is really great. He is greater than anyone else, and greater than anything else, anywhere.*

<sup>19</sup> At the time when God's son became a man, God lived in him properly. God was happy to live in him. <sup>20</sup> God used him to get everything to come back to himself. God's son bled and died on the cross, so that now everything can stop being God's enemies, and become God's friends again. Some of those things are in heaven, and some of them are on the earth, but Jesus died on the cross, so that they can all come back to God.*

God is a friend of people that trust Jesus

<sup>21</sup> And I'm talking about you too. At first you were not God's friends. You were his enemies. You always thought in a bad way, and then you did bad things. <sup>22</sup> But God sent Jesus Christ to live as a man, in a human body, and then he let people kill Jesus's body. When Jesus died, he took the payback for the bad things you did, so you can be friends with God. It's like he washed you of those bad things, so you are properly good and clean inside. So at the time when God will judge everyone, he will see that you are clean and he will not blame you, he will say that you are not guilty.

<sup>23</sup> If you stay strong, God will do that for you. You have to always remember the good news that you heard about Jesus, so that you keep on trusting him and know that he will save you. You see, God got his workers to tell people everywhere that Jesus died to save us. It is really good news. And I, Paul, am one of God's workers now. My job is to tell people that good news.

Paul helped God's people no matter what trouble he got <sup>24</sup> Yes, I tell people the message about Jesus. Some people don't like it, and they give me trouble. But that doesn't matter, that message helps people that believe it. You believe it, so it helps you. So I am happy, and I keep on telling it. You know that Jesus Christ got a lot of trouble. In the same way, I get a lot of trouble. But I want to keep on helping his people. They are the church. They are like the body of Jesus Christ. <sup>25</sup> And God gets me to work for his people, so I do this to help you. My job is to tell you God's word, and help you understand it properly.

<sup>26</sup> At first, God didn't let anyone know what he planned to do. He kept that plan a secret for a really long time. But now he is showing it to his people. <sup>27</sup> God wants his people to know that plan. He planned to use Jesus to save people that are not Jews, as well as people that are Jews. And now he is doing that, so it is really great for people that are not Jews. Yes, Jesus Christ lives in you, and he lives in everybody that trusts him, so you can be sure that later on God will make you great.

<sup>28</sup> So we tell everyone about Jesus Christ. We teach them to follow Jesus and do what he says. You see, God helped us to understand those things properly, and we want everyone to join up with Jesus Christ, and to become really good Christians. And God will see that they are really good. <sup>29</sup> So I work really hard to do that. It is hard work, but Jesus Christ gives me his power, and he makes me strong.

2

Paul worked hard for Christian people

<sup>1</sup> I want you to know that I work very hard for you Christians at Colossae, and also for the Christians at that other town near you called Laodicea. And I work hard for lots of other Christians that have never met me. <sup>2</sup> I'm working like this to help you be strong, so that all of you will be joined together by loving each other. You see, I want you to know and properly understand God's plan to use Jesus Christ to save people. Then you will be really sure about it, and that will make you really happy. <sup>3</sup> You see, Jesus knows everything, and he understands everything. He is the only one that can get us to think properly, so that we understand what is true. That is really good for us. <sup>4</sup> I'm telling you these things so that you will not listen to people that teach lies. They might talk in a way that sounds good, but they are liars.

* 1:18 Ephesians 1:22-23

* 1:20 Ephesians 2:16

<sup>5</sup> You know, I'm not there with you right now, that is, my body is not there. But I think about you a lot. And I'm happy about you. You all work together as a group, and you all keep on trusting Jesus Christ properly.

We have to keep on living Jesus's way

<sup>6</sup> You believe in Jesus Christ now, and you let him be your boss. That's good. Keep living his way. <sup>7</sup> Keep on believing that message about Jesus Christ, and keep on getting to know him better all the time. Keep on strongly believing the things that we taught you. And always thank God very much for everything.

Don't believe any message about God that did not come from Jesus Christ

<sup>8</sup> Some people might try to make you believe some ideas about God that are wrong. Those ideas didn't come from Jesus Christ, but they came from bad spirits, and from the people of this world. People taught those ideas to their kids, and to their grand-kids. But those ideas are not true. They might sound good, but they are tricky lies. Be careful. Don't believe them.

<sup>9</sup> Listen. God himself lives in Jesus Christ. Jesus has a body and God lives in that body, so that Jesus is properly God. <sup>10</sup> And you are joined to Jesus Christ, so God is in you too. He gives you everything that you need to live the right way. And Jesus is the winner over all the other spirit bosses.

<sup>11</sup> You know that the Jewish people do a young man operation on their baby boys. Well, when you joined on to Jesus, God did something like that to you. He didn't cut away a part of your body, but it was like he did an operation on your spirit. He cut away a bad part from your spirit. That was the bad part that made you want to do bad things. <sup>12</sup> You know, after you became a Christian, the church leaders baptised you. You went into the water, then you came up out of it. In that ceremony, it's like you did what Jesus did. He died, and it's like that bad part of your spirit died. And God made him alive again, and he came up out of the grave. And now you believe that God has strong power, and your spirit is joined to Jesus, so God's power makes your spirit alive too, just like he made Jesus alive again.*

God finished up the power of all the bad spirits

<sup>13-14</sup> You did bad things before. Your spirits still had that bad part that made you go wrong. It is like your spirits were dead. I will use picture talk to show you what I mean. Whenever you did bad things, it is like somebody wrote it down on paper so they could blame you later. But God let them blame Jesus instead of you, and then God chucked that paper away. It is like he nailed that paper to the cross when he let people nail Jesus there. And then God made your spirits alive again, just like he made Jesus alive again. Now he doesn't blame you for the bad things you did.*

<sup>15</sup> God did that, and he finished up the power of all the bad spirit mob. He was even stronger than the most powerful spirit bosses. He finished up their power when Jesus died on the cross. He shamed them, and he showed everyone that he is the winner over all those bad spirits.

You don't have to follow laws that people make up

<sup>16</sup> You know, some people make up laws, and they reckon that if you want to make God happy, you have to follow those laws. But remember what I just said. God is already happy with you. So don't listen to anyone that says you are wrong if you don't follow their laws. Don't take any notice of them. They might have laws about things you can't eat or drink. Or they might have laws about some ceremonies on special days, or laws about the time of a new moon, or laws about a special day for rest.

<sup>17</sup> God gave the Jewish people laws about those things, but they are not for us now. It is like this, and I'm using picture talk again now. Sometimes you see a shadow moving along, and you know that somebody is coming. Well, God gave them those laws, but those laws are just like a shadow. They are not the real person. The real person is Jesus Christ. And now he has come to us, so we don't need to look at that shadow any more. That is, we don't need to follow those laws any more.

<sup>18</sup> There are some people that tell lies and say, "God has shown us special things." Those people think up their own ideas, and that makes them feel smart. But they tell you that they are not smart, and then they tell you to show respect to God's angel messengers, as if those angels are God. But they are trying to trick you. Don't take any notice of those people, and don't believe those lies. <sup>19</sup> They are trying to have a church without Jesus.

* 2:12 Romans 6:4

* 2:13-14 Ephesians 2:1-5

You see, God set the church up like this. Jesus is the head, and his people are his body. Jesus holds his people together just like a body has joints and ligament strings that hold it together. And God makes the church grow, just like he makes bodies grow.*

<sup>20</sup> Remember that you are joined to Jesus Christ. It is like you died with him when he died. You don't belong to this world any more, so you don't have to follow the laws that the people of this world make up about God. <sup>21</sup> They have laws like, "Don't use that thing," and, "Don't eat that," and, "Don't touch that thing." <sup>22</sup> Those laws just come from people, not from God, so you don't have to take any notice of them. Those laws are just about things that wear out when people use them.

<sup>23</sup> Those laws might sound like they are good, but they are useless. They get people to do things that hurt their bodies, and then they think they are good, and they think it makes God happy. But even when people try to follow those laws, they still can't stop themselves from going wrong. Their bodies still make them want to do bad things, and then they do those bad things. So those laws are useless.

3

Think about heaven, and live God's way

<sup>1-3</sup> You see, you have new life now from Jesus Christ. He is up in heaven now, sitting with God, at God's right-hand side.* He is a powerful boss there with God. Remember that Jesus died, then God made him alive again, and God lifted him up from the grave. Well, you believe in Jesus now, so you have to be better than you used to be. It is like you died with him, and then God made you alive again, and now you live for Jesus. He is in heaven now, so you always have to think about doing good things that belong to heaven. Don't think about doing bad things that belong to this earth. You are joined to Jesus Christ now, and he is joined to God. The people of this world can't see that yet, <sup>4</sup> but when Jesus comes back, everyone will see him, and they will see that he is great. And they will see you too, and you will be great too.

Do what is right, don't do what is wrong

<sup>5</sup> So now you have to stop doing bad things. If that bad part inside you wants you to do something bad, don't do it. It's like you have to kill that old bad part inside you. Don't listen to it. Don't sleep with anyone that is not your wife or your husband, as if you are married to them. And don't think bad, dirty thoughts. Don't think about doing bad things. Don't be greedy, wanting lots of money and things. Greedy people respect money and things more than they respect God. <sup>6</sup> You know, some people will not do what God says, and he will be angry with those people, and he will punish them.

<sup>7</sup> At one time, you lived the wrong way, and you did bad things like that. <sup>8</sup> But now, don't do these bad things any more. Don't get angry easily. Don't go around angry and yelling at people. Don't hate people or think about giving them trouble. Don't talk in a bad way about people, or tell lies about them. Don't talk in a dirty way. <sup>9</sup> Don't lie to each other. You see, you believed in Jesus, and you stopped living that old way. You stopped doing bad things.* <sup>10</sup> You are now living a new way. God made you a new person, and he is helping you to know him properly. He is the one that made you, and now he is making you more like himself.* <sup>11</sup> You are a new person now. It doesn't matter if you are a Jew or not, or if they did a young man operation on you or not. It doesn't matter if you are from another country, or even if you are from a wild tribe. It doesn't matter if you are a prisoner, or a free person. This is what matters, Jesus Christ lives inside all of his people. He is really great.

Live God's way

<sup>12</sup> You see, God loves you. He picked you to be his own special people. So you have to live a new way for him. You have to be good to other people. You have to feel sorry for people that have trouble and try to help them. Don't think that you are more important than other people. You have to be easy on other people, and don't get angry with them, even if they give you trouble.* <sup>13</sup> Don't get upset with each other. If somebody does something bad to you, don't do payback to them. Remember that God doesn't do payback to you, for the bad things that you do. So don't do payback to other people.* <sup>14</sup> And you really have to love each other properly. When you love each other, it is like you properly join yourselves to each other. <sup>15</sup> Jesus Christ wants you to all live together in a quiet way, so let him make you feel happy and quiet inside yourselves, so that you think the right way. That's how you can let him control you.

* 2:19 Ephesians 4:16 * 3:1-3 Psalm 110:1 * 3:9 Ephesians 4:22 * 3:10 Genesis 1:26; Ephesians 4:24

* 3:12 Ephesians 4:2 * 3:13 Ephesians 4:32

And think about the good things that God does for you, and always say thank you to him for them.

<sup>16</sup> And always think about the message that came from Jesus Christ, so that you follow it all the time. Talk to each other about Jesus's message, and help each other to follow it properly. Think about it the right way. If anyone starts to get it wrong, straighten each other out. Remember that God is really good to you, and always be ready to thank him by singing to him with hymns and songs that the Holy Spirit gives you.* <sup>17</sup> Do everything the way our leader, Jesus, wants you to do it, and talk the way he wants you to talk. And always thank God, our father, for the good things that Jesus does for us.

Treat each other the right way

Husbands and wives

<sup>18</sup> You women that are wives, you have to think about what your husbands want, and agree with them. That is the right way to follow our leader Jesus.*

<sup>19</sup> Yes, and you men that are husbands, you have to do your part too. You have to love your wives properly, and don't ever be hard on them.*

Kids and parents

<sup>20</sup> And now I am talking to you kids. You always have to do whatever your mothers and fathers want. Our leader, Jesus, is happy when you do that.*

<sup>21</sup> And now I am talking to you fathers. Don't be hard on your kids. Don't make them get angry with you, or they might stop trying to be good.*

Workers and bosses

<sup>22</sup> And now I am talking to you people that have to work all the time for other people, like you are their prisoners. Make sure you always do whatever your bosses want. And don't only work hard when they can see you, to make them think you are good. But also work hard when they can't see you. Remember our leader, Jesus, can see you all the time, so respect him, and respect your bosses as you do your job. <sup>23</sup> Work as if you are working for our leader, Jesus, not for a normal human being. So work hard, and be happy about it. <sup>24</sup> Yes, you are working for our leader, Jesus Christ, and remember that later on he will pay you properly, just like he promised us.* <sup>25</sup> But if you do what is wrong, God will do payback to you for the wrong things you do. God judges each person the same way, no matter who that person is.*

4

<sup>1</sup> And now I am talking to you bosses that own your workers, like they are your prisoners. You have to give your workers a fair go. You have to look after them properly and give them what is right for them. Remember, you have a boss too. He is God, in heaven.*

Pray to God all the time

<sup>2</sup> Now I'm talking to all of you. Keep on praying to God, and keep on asking him to help you. Keep your minds properly awake while you pray. Don't give up easily. And also thank God for the good things he does for you. <sup>3</sup> And pray for us too. Ask God to make a way for us to tell more people about Jesus Christ. We want to clearly tell them the message about God's plan to use Jesus to save them. You know, I told that message to some people, and they didn't like it, so they put me in jail. <sup>4</sup> But I still have to tell more people about Jesus. So I want you to ask God to help me make this message clear to them.

Help other people to believe in Jesus

<sup>5</sup> And you too, whenever you are with people that don't believe in Jesus, if you can tell them about him, you have to do it. Be sensible in how you live with those people.* <sup>6</sup> And talk to them in a good way, to get them interested in your message. And be ready to answer their questions.

The end of Paul's letter

<sup>7-8</sup> All right, I'm not going to write much more in this letter. I will give it to Tikhicus to take to you. He is a Christian friend that we love. He works for our leader, Jesus, just like I do, and he always works really well. When he gets to you mob there, he will tell you all the news about us. And he will help you to feel brave, and to trust Jesus more.* <sup>9</sup> And I'm sending Onesimus with him. You know Onesimus. He is one of your mob, and he is another strong Christian friend that we love. Those 2 men will tell you all about everything that is going on here.*

<sup>10</sup> Do you remember Aristarkus? He is here with me in jail. He says hello to you.

* 3:16 Ephesians 5:19-20    * 3:18 Ephesians 5:22; 1 Peter 3:1    * 3:19 Ephesians 5:25; 1 Peter 3:7    * 3:20 Ephesians 6:1    * 3:21 Ephesians 6:4    * 3:24 Ephesians 6:5-8    * 3:25 Deuteronomy 10:17; Ephesians 6:9
* 4:1 Ephesians 6:9    * 4:5 Ephesians 5:16    * 4:7-8 Acts 20:4; Ephesians 6:21-22; 2 Timothy 4:12    * 4:9 Philemon 1:10-12

And Mark too, he says hello to you. He is a cousin of Barnabas. And like I told you before, if he comes to visit you, tell him, "Good to see you, Mark."* <sup>11</sup> And there is another man here that says hello to you. His name is Jesus, but we call him Justus. He says hello to you too. Those men are the only Jews that are working with me here. They are helping me get more people to come into God's family, and they make this job much more easy for me.

<sup>12</sup> And Epafras is another one of your mob that is here with me. He says hello to you too. He works for Jesus too, and he is always praying strongly for you. He prays that you will keep on trusting God, and that you will properly know everything that God wants you to do.* <sup>13</sup> I can tell you truly that he works very hard for you, and for the Christians that live in the towns called Laodicea and Hirapolis.

<sup>14</sup> Our good friend Luke, the doctor, says hello to you too, and so does Demas.*

<sup>15</sup> And I want you to say hello from me to all the Christians at Laodicea. And say hello from me to Nimfa, and to the Christians that meet in her house.

<sup>16</sup> After you mob at Colossae read this letter, send it to the church people at Laodicea, so that they can read it too. And I sent another letter to that Laodicea mob a little while ago, so after they have read it, make sure you get it from them and read it too.

<sup>17</sup> Now here is a special message from me to Arkipus. Tell him, "Our leader, Jesus, gave you a job, so keep on doing it, until you finish it properly."*

Paul signed this letter

<sup>18</sup> This is me, Paul, writing these words now with my own hand. I got somebody else to write all the words up to here, but I want you to be sure that this letter is really from me, so from here on it is me writing it. I'm saying hello to you mob there at Colossae.

Remember that I am in jail here, and pray for me.

I'm asking God to be very good to you.

The 1st letter that Paul wrote to the Christians at Thessalonica
(The book in the Holy Bible called 1 Thessalonians)
About this letter

Paul wrote this letter about 2,000 years ago, about 20 years after Jesus went back to heaven, and it is now in the Holy Bible.

God sent Paul to lots of countries and lots of towns to tell people about Jesus. One of those towns was Thessalonica (see Acts 17:1-9). It was a big town in the country called Greece, where the Greek people come from, and it is still there today. Sometimes people now call that town Salonica.

When Paul went to Thessalonica some people believed in Jesus and became Christians, but others didn't like what he was saying, and they made trouble for him. So he could not stay there very long. Soon after that he sent his friend Timothy back to Thessalonica to find out how those new Christians were going, and to help them be strong for Jesus. After Timothy came back and told him how they were going, Paul wrote them this letter. Paul's 2 friends, Silas and Timothy, they helped him write this letter. This was the 1st letter that Paul wrote to them. He wrote them another letter about 6 months later.

In this letter Paul wrote about the time when Jesus will come back from heaven, and he said other important things too. So today we have to take notice of what Paul wrote to the Christians at Thessalonica.

<sup>1</sup> I am Paul, and this letter is from me. Silas and Timothy are here with me, and they are helping me write this letter.

We are sending this letter to you Christians that are in God's church, in the town called Thessalonica. You belong to God our father and to Jesus Christ our leader.

We are asking God and Jesus to be good to you, and to make you feel happy and quiet inside yourselves.*

People at Thessalonica properly believed in Jesus

<sup>2</sup> We pray for you mob all the time, and we always thank God for you. <sup>3</sup> Whenever we talk about you to God, our father, we remember the good things that you do. You properly believe in Jesus Christ, and you love him very much, so you do those good things. And you love other people too, so you work hard to help them. You are really sure that our leader, Jesus Christ, will come back for you, so you keep on following him, no matter what other people do to you.

<sup>4</sup> Christian friends, we know that God loves you, and he picked you to be his own people. <sup>5</sup> Remember the time when we told you the good news about Jesus. We told you the message with our words, but the Holy Spirit made us sure that we were telling the true story, and he gave us his power to show you that God was with us. And remember the sort of people we were at the time when we were with you there. We showed you the good way to live. <sup>6</sup> So you changed the way you live, and you lived the same way that we lived, like the way that Jesus, our leader, lived. You believed the message about Jesus, and the Holy Spirit made you really happy. Other people gave you a lot of trouble, but you were happy anyway.* <sup>7</sup> You showed all the other Christians there in Macedonia country the right way to live. And you did that too for the Christians in the country to the south of you, called Akaya.

<sup>8-9</sup> And now people in lots of places have heard about Jesus. You see, other people told them about you. They told them that you listened to us when we came to your town, and that you turned away from the gods that are not real, and that now you only work for the true God, the one that is properly alive. And it's not only the people in Macedonia and Akaya that have heard that story. Everywhere we go we find people that tell us about you, so we know that story has gone around to lots of places. We don't have to tell anyone about you. They have already heard the story. <sup>10</sup> And they say that you are waiting for God's son to come back from heaven. His son is Jesus. Jesus died, but God made him alive again. And you know, God will judge everybody one day. Everybody has done bad things, and that makes God angry. But Jesus will save his people, so God will not be angry with you, and he will not be angry with us.

Paul asked the Christians at Thessalonica to remember the time he visited them

<sup>1</sup> Christian friends, you know that it was good that we went to your town and told you God's message. It wasn't a waste of our time, because you believed that message. <sup>2</sup> And you know that before we came to you, we told God's message to the people in Philippi. Some of those Philippi people got really cheeky to us, and they beat us up. After that, we came to your town, and God made us brave, so we told God's message to you too. We didn't get frightened of the cheeky people that tried to stop us.* <sup>3</sup> You see, we only told you true things. We told you the good news so that you can believe God's message. We were not trying to trick you. We were not trying to get you to believe things that are not true. <sup>4</sup> No way. You see, it was God that sent us. He knew us, and he trusted us to tell people his message. So we only say what he wants us to say. We don't try to make people happy. We only try to make God happy. <sup>5</sup> And when we talked to you, we didn't say nice things about you, so that you will like us. We didn't make a secret plan to get you to give us things. God knows that. <sup>6</sup> And we didn't try to get anyone to say good things about us. We didn't want you or anyone else to do that.

<sup>7</sup> God made us Jesus's special workers, and he sent us to you. But we didn't say, "We are Jesus's special workers, so we are your bosses, and you have to do what we say." No, we didn't talk like that. We were like little kids with you. We talked easy to you. We were good to you, like a mother taking care of her kids. <sup>8</sup> We loved you so much that we told you the good news about Jesus. And more than that, we were ready to do anything to help you.

<sup>9</sup> Christian friends, remember what we did when we were there with you. We worked to get money, and while we did that, we told you the good news from God. We worked a lot to get enough money to look after ourselves. We didn't only work in the day time, but we worked at night time too. So you didn't have to give us anything. <sup>10</sup> While we were with you mob, we only did things that made God happy. We did things that are good and right. You know that, and God knows it too. <sup>11</sup> And you know that we treated each one of you the same way a father treats his own kids. <sup>12</sup> We taught you, and we helped you to be brave and strong. And we told you very strongly to do things that make God happy. You see, God is the one that picked you to be in his own family, and you will be really great with him.

People at Thessalonica believed God's message

<sup>13</sup> And we always thank God for the way you listened to us. We told you God's message, and you knew that it wasn't only a message from people. You believed that we told you words from God, and that it was God's message. And you were right. It is God's word. And now that you believe that word, it helps you grow strong for him.

<sup>14</sup> And, Christian friends, your countrymen gave you a lot of trouble after you believed in Jesus. You know, the same thing happened to the Christians in the churches in Judea country. They believed in Jesus, and their Jewish countrymen gave them a lot of trouble too.* <sup>15</sup> That Jewish mob didn't want to believe God, and they made trouble for Jesus. You see, a long time ago, it was the Jewish mob that killed the men that told God's messages, and it was the Jewish mob that killed our leader Jesus too. And it was the same for us. Wherever we told people about Jesus, the Jewish mob chased us out of those places. They make God angry. They work against everyone.* <sup>16</sup> They try to stop us telling everyone that God can save people that are not Jewish. That Jewish mob did a lot of bad things in the past, and they are also doing those bad things now, so they make God angry, and he is going to punish them.

Paul wanted to go back and visit the Thessalonica people

<sup>17</sup> Look, Christian friends, we never wanted to leave you mob, but we had to. But it was only for a little while, and we kept on thinking about you, and we really wanted to go back to you. <sup>18</sup> I, Paul, tried to go back lots of times, but Satan, the boss over the bad spirits, he stopped me every time. <sup>19-20</sup> Listen. One day our leader, Jesus, will come back, and he will ask us about the things we did. Then we will tell him about how we got you mob to trust him. And you will be there with us on that day, so we will be really happy. We are like athletes that run in a race and win the prize, because after Jesus comes back, he will tell us that we did a good job with you, and that will be like a prize for us.

3

Paul sent Timothy to the Christians at Thessalonica

<sup>1-2</sup> But back at the time just after we left you, we worried about you for a while. We didn't know if you kept on trusting Jesus or not. We tried to go back to find out about you, but we couldn't do it. And we couldn't wait to get some news about you. So we reckoned, "We'll send Timothy by himself, and we'll stay here in this city called Athens and wait for him to come back." Timothy is like our brother. He works with us for God, telling people the good news about Jesus Christ.

We sent Timothy to you so that he could help you to be strong and to trust Jesus better. <sup>3</sup> We knew that people would give you trouble, and we didn't want any of you to stop following Jesus. You yourselves know that you get trouble for following Jesus. <sup>4</sup> This is what we told you when we were still with you, we said, "Some people will give you trouble." And soon that happened, just like we said.

<sup>5</sup> And I really worried about you. I thought, "You Christians in Thessalonica are very new Christians. Maybe the boss over the bad spirits gave you too much trouble. Maybe he tricked you, so that you don't trust Jesus any more. Maybe we worked for nothing there in Thessalonica." That's what I was thinking, but I didn't really know the true story. And when I couldn't wait any longer, I had to send Timothy to find out the true story about you.

Timothy came back with good news

<sup>6</sup> And now Timothy has just come back to us, and he brought us good news about you. He told us that you still believe in Jesus Christ, and you still love God, and you still love other people. He said that every time you remember us, it makes you happy, and you want to see us again, just as much as we want to see you again. That is the story Timothy told us.* <sup>7</sup> We heard that news about you, our Christian friends, and we were very happy. After we heard it, we got braver and stronger for God. It doesn't matter to us if people give us trouble and hit us. You still trust Jesus, so we are happy. <sup>8</sup> We heard that you strongly believe in our leader, Jesus, and now we feel properly alive again. <sup>9</sup> You make us so happy that we pray to God and thank him for you. We can't thank him enough. <sup>10</sup> We are always praying to God, both in the day time and at night time, and we are strongly asking him to let us visit you again. There are still some things we need to tell you about Jesus so that you can trust him even more.

Paul wanted God to help the Christians at Thessalonica

<sup>11</sup> Yes, we want God, our father, and Jesus, our leader, to help us come to you. <sup>12</sup> And we want Jesus to get you to love each other and to love other people, even more than you do now. We want you to love people just as much as we love you. <sup>13</sup> We want Jesus to make you properly good and clean inside. You see, one day Jesus, our leader, will come back, and all his people will be with him. And then we will all meet God our father, and God will see that we are properly good and clean inside, so he will be happy with us, and he will not have to blame us for doing anything wrong.

4

God wants Christians to live the right way

<sup>1</sup> There is one more thing we want to tell you, our Christian friends. You know, we taught you about the right way to live, to make God happy. And you have been living that way. That's good. But we want you to live like that even more. <sup>2</sup> You know the things that we told you to do. Our leader, Jesus, got us to tell you those things.

<sup>3</sup> This is what God wants. He wants you to be properly good and to keep away from everything that is wrong. If somebody is not your own wife or husband, don't sleep with them as if you are married to them.

<sup>4</sup> Every one of you has to learn how to control your own body in a way that is clean and good. <sup>5</sup> Don't be like people that don't know God. They just want to sleep with anybody and do the wrong thing with them. That is what they want to do, and they are always thinking about it. They don't try to stop themselves. Don't be like that. <sup>6</sup> None of you men can ever sleep with a woman that is not your own wife. If you do that, you are doing a bad thing to her husband. He is the only person that can sleep with her, so don't cheat him out of that. Don't do that bad thing to another Christian, or to anyone else. God is the one that will punish you if you do that. We told you about that when we were with you, and we mean it. <sup>7</sup> God picked us to be his people, but he didn't pick us to be people that do bad and dirty things, like sleeping with somebody else's wife or husband. He picked us to be people that keep away from everything that is bad. <sup>8</sup> That rule doesn't come from people, it comes from God. So anyone that doesn't listen to that rule, is not listening to God. And remember, God is the one that gives you his Holy Spirit, and his spirit is really good.

<sup>9</sup> I don't need to write to you about how you have to love other Christians. God himself taught you to love each other. <sup>10</sup> Yes, you love all the Christians in every place in your country, called Macedonia. But we ask you strongly, friends, to love each other more and more.

<sup>11</sup> Try to live the way we told you to when we were with you. Try to live in a quiet way, and don't make any trouble for anyone. Don't mess up the things that other people are doing, or try to boss them around. And don't be lazy, but work to get enough money to buy whatever you need. <sup>12</sup> Then you will not have to ask other people for things. If you live like that, the people that don't know God will see that you are good, and they will respect you.

Christians will go up to meet Jesus while he is coming back

<sup>13</sup> Christian friends, we are going to tell you now about people that have already died. We don't want you to be sad when you think about them. Other people, that don't believe in Jesus, they don't know what will happen to them after they die. So when their friends die, they get really sad. But if our Christian friends die, we don't have to be really sad like those other people. Listen, we want you to understand this properly. <sup>14</sup> You see, we believe that Jesus died, and after that, God made him alive again. So we also believe that when Jesus comes back to this earth, all the Christians that already died will come back with him. Jesus will bring them all back with him. <sup>15</sup> You see, this is the message that Jesus, our leader, told us, and we tell this same message to you. Those of us that are still alive when Jesus comes back, we will not go and meet him before the Christians that already died. <sup>16</sup> It will happen like this. Our leader, Jesus himself, will come down from heaven, and while he is coming, everyone will hear him call out, and they will hear the voice of the boss angel, and they will hear the sound of God's trumpet. Then, first of all, those people that belonged to Jesus Christ and already died, they will come back to life. <sup>17</sup> After that, God will get those of us Christians that are still alive at that time, and he will take us up into the clouds with the Christians that already died, and we will all meet Jesus, our leader, way up in the air. And so, after that, we will be with Jesus all the time, for ever.* <sup>18</sup> So think about this message, and talk to each other about it, and help each other to stay strong, so that you are not sad when your Christian friends die.

Christians have to be ready for Jesus to come back <sup>1</sup> And now, Christian friends, think about the time when Jesus will come back. We don't need to write to you about times and dates. <sup>2</sup> You already know about that day when our leader, Jesus, will come back. You know it will come suddenly, and people will get a big shock. They will not be ready for it, like nobody is ready for a robber to come in the night to steal things.* <sup>3</sup> You know, people will be saying, "We are safe. There's no trouble here." But then that big trouble will come really quickly, and they will not be ready for it. God will use that big trouble to punish them. It will be like what happens when a woman has a baby, she suddenly gets pain, and then her baby starts to come, and nobody can stop it. That big trouble will be just like that. It will come to people suddenly, and they will not get away from it.

<sup>4</sup> But, Christian friends, you aren't like other people that don't listen to what God says. It is like they are living in the dark all the time. When that trouble day comes, you will not get a shock, like people do when a robber comes to steal their things at night. <sup>5</sup> You listen to what God says. It's like you belong to the light, and you belong to the day time. You aren't people that belong to the night time or the dark. <sup>6</sup> So don't be like other people that aren't ready for Jesus to come back, like they are asleep. Instead, you have to think properly about what is happening, like people that are awake. <sup>7</sup> You know, night time is the time when people go to sleep, or maybe they get drunk, so they can't think properly. <sup>8</sup> But we belong to the day time, so we have to think properly. We have to keep on loving God and trusting him to save us. When we do that, it will make us strong for God, like when soldiers put on special clothes made out of iron, to stop the enemy from hurting them.*

<sup>9-10</sup> You see, God picked us to save us, not to get angry with us. Our leader, Jesus Christ, died for us, so now God can save us and give us new life. After Jesus comes back, we will live with him for ever. Maybe we will die before he comes, or maybe we will still be alive. It will not matter, because God will give us all new life, and we will all live with Jesus for ever. <sup>11</sup> So then, tell those things to each other, and help each other to become stronger for God, not sad and weak. And yes, I know that you are doing that already.

Some things to do and some things not to do

<sup>12</sup> Now, Christian friends, here are a few more things we really want you to do.

- Respect the people among you that work hard for God. They lead you, his people, and teach you how to live the right way. <sup>13</sup> They work for God, so respect them, and love them a lot.
- And don't argue with each other.
- <sup>14</sup> And the next thing, friends, tell lazy people that they have to work.
- And if somebody is frightened, talk to them in a way that helps them to be brave.
- And help anybody that is weak.
- And don't get angry with anyone, keep on trying to help them.
- <sup>15</sup> If somebody does something bad to you, don't try to do payback to them, but always try to be good to each other and to everyone else too.

<sup>16</sup> And we want you to do these things too.

- Always be happy.
- <sup>17</sup> Be ready to pray to God at any time.
- <sup>18</sup> Always thank God, no matter what happens to you.

You see, you belong to Jesus Christ, so God wants you to do those things. <sup>19</sup> And we want you to do some more things too.

- Don't stop God's spirit working in you.
- <sup>20</sup> Don't rubbish God's messages, <sup>21</sup> but listen carefully when anyone tells you a message from God. Think carefully about everything they say, and find out if it really comes from God. Then, if it is right, be careful to remember it and to do those good things. <sup>22</sup> But if it is wrong, or if it tells you to do a bad thing, don't do it. Keep away from every sort of bad thing, and don't listen to messages that don't come from God.

The end of this letter

<sup>23</sup> God is the one that helps people to be happy and quiet inside themselves. I want that for you, and I'm asking God himself to clean you properly inside, so that you will be his special people. I want God to help you be properly good in every way, with your body, and your spirit, and also that part inside you that thinks and that gives you your feelings. Yes, God can clean you and help you be properly good, so that at the time when our leader, Jesus Christ, comes back, God will not blame you for doing anything wrong. <sup>24</sup> Yes, God will make you properly clean inside. He picked you to be his people, and he always does what he promised to do.

<sup>25</sup> And now, my Christian friends, I'm asking you to pray for us. <sup>26</sup> And whenever you meet other Christians, show them that you know they are special, and that you are happy to see them.

<sup>27</sup> Now listen. I want you to promise me that you will read this letter to all the Christians there. And our leader, Jesus, will be listening to you promise that.

<sup>28</sup> And now I ask our leader, Jesus Christ, to be with you and to be very good to you.

From Paul

The 2nd letter that Paul wrote to the Christians at Thessalonica (The book in the Holy Bible called 2 Thessalonians) About this letter

Paul wrote this letter about 2,000 years ago, about 20 years after Jesus went back to heaven, and it is now in the Holy Bible.

After Jesus went back to heaven, God sent Paul to lots of countries and lots of towns to tell people about Jesus. One of those towns was Thessalonica (see Acts 17:1-9). It was a big town in the country called Greece, where the Greek people come from, and it is still there today. Sometimes people now call that town Salonica.

Paul wrote his 1st letter to the Christians at Thessalonica soon after he left there. Then about 6 months later, Paul heard that there were people making trouble for those new Christians at Thessalonica and telling them that Jesus already came back from heaven. So Paul wrote this 2nd letter to them, to tell them the true story about what will happen on the earth before Jesus comes back.

Paul said a lot of important things in this letter, so today we have to take notice of what he wrote to the Christians at Thessalonica.

<sup>1</sup> I am Paul, and this letter is from me. Silas and Timothy are here with me, and they are helping me write this letter.

We are sending this letter to you Christians that are in God's church, in the town called Thessalonica. You belong to God our father and to Jesus Christ our leader.*

<sup>2</sup> We are asking God our father, and Jesus Christ our leader, to be good to you, and to make you feel happy and quiet inside yourselves.

Paul thanked God for the Christians at Thessalonica

<sup>3</sup> Christian friends, we know that you are learning to trust God more and more, and you are loving each other more and more. So we have to thank God for you all the time. <sup>4</sup> And whenever we visit God's people in the churches in other places, we tell them all about you. We tell them that you keep on believing in Jesus, no matter how much trouble people give you, and no matter how much they hurt you.

Jesus will come back, and God will judge people properly

<sup>5</sup> You keep on believing in Jesus, and that shows us that God always judges people the right way. It is right for you to be in God's family, because you keep on believing in Jesus, no matter how much trouble people give you. <sup>6</sup> God is a good and fair judge, and in the end, he will do payback to those people. He will give them trouble, just like they gave you trouble. <sup>7</sup> And he will let you rest and be happy, without any trouble.

He will do that for you, and for us too, when Jesus, our leader, comes back. Everyone will see him come from heaven with a big mob of his strong angel messengers, <sup>8</sup> and with a lot of fire. They will punish all those people that don't want to know God. Those people don't listen to the good story about Jesus, and they don't do what he says. <sup>9</sup> God will go on punishing them for ever. He will properly ruin them. He will shut them out so they can never come near our leader Jesus. They will never see how really great and powerful he is.*

<sup>10</sup> All that will happen on the day when Jesus will come back to the earth. His own people will show what great things he has done for them, and they will really respect him. And you are his people, so you will be there when he comes back. You believed what we told you about Jesus, so you will be in that mob of his people.

God can work powerfully in Christians

<sup>11</sup> So we always pray for you. God picked you to be his own people, and he wants his mob to be good people, so we ask God to keep making you better people. You believe in Jesus, and you want to do good things, so we pray that God will work powerfully in you, and we pray that he will give you the power to do all those good things that you want to do. <sup>12</sup> We ask God to do that, so that people will see how he works in you, and then they will really respect our leader, Jesus, and they will say good things about him. And we want you to be so good that Jesus will be happy with you too. We are asking those 2, God and our leader Jesus Christ, to be really good to you.

2

Don't listen to people that reckon Jesus came back already <sup>1</sup> Now we want to tell you a bit more about how our leader, Jesus Christ, will come back to the earth, and the time when he will bring us all together to be with him. Christian friends, we are telling you this.*

* 1:1 Acts 17:1 * 1:9 Isaiah 2:10 * 2:1 1 Thessalonians 4:15-17

<sup>2</sup> Don't listen to people that reckon his time has already come, and Jesus has already come back. They are wrong. We don't want you to get upset easily or frightened by those people. They might lie and say that they heard one of God's men say that, or that somebody wrote it in a report, or they might even reckon that we wrote it in a letter.
<sup>3</sup> Don't listen to them. Don't let anyone trick you like that.

A really bad man will come before Jesus comes back

You see, it will be like this. There are some things that will happen first, and after that, Jesus will come back. A lot of people will turn against God, and then a really bad man will show himself to everyone. He will never do anything that God wants. He will be the sort of man that God wants to properly finish up.
<sup>4</sup> He will reckon that he is better than God. He will fight against God, and against everything else that people think is a god. He will fight against everything that people respect in a spiritual way. He will even go into God's ceremony house and sit down there, and tell everyone that he is God.*

Something is holding back that bad man

<sup>5</sup> Do you remember me talking about that when I was with you there in your town?
<sup>6</sup> You already know something about this man. You know that he wants to start doing his bad things now, but somebody is holding him back. But at the right time, God will let everyone see that bad man.
<sup>7</sup> You know, there is a secret power already working in the world. It is trying to get people to go against God and to break his laws. But somebody is fighting against that power and stopping it from doing that, and he will keep stopping it until God takes him away.
<sup>8</sup> Then that really bad man will come with that power, and he will show himself to everyone. That bad man never does anything that God wants. But then later, Jesus our leader will come and kill him. Jesus will just talk, and his words will kill that man. Jesus will finish him up when he comes with power.*

That really bad man will trick people

<sup>9</sup> You see, when that bad man will come, Satan, the boss over the bad spirits, will give some of his power to that bad man. So that bad man will come, and he will do really clever things with Satan's power.

Those things will give people a big shock. They will think that he has good power, and they will believe him, but they will be wrong.*
<sup>10</sup> He will trick those people. They will think, "He is doing powerful things, so he is right," but he will really be doing very bad things with Satan's power. You know, there are some people that don't like the true message about Jesus. They don't believe it. Those people will not let God save them. They are the people that this really bad man will trick. So in the end, God will finish up those people.

<sup>11</sup> You see, they will not believe the true message, so God will let somebody properly trick them, and they will believe that bad man's lies.
<sup>12</sup> They are people that like to do bad things, and they will not believe the true message about Jesus. So God will judge them, and he will say they are guilty.

Keep on properly trusting Jesus

<sup>13-14</sup> But, Christian friends, we thank God that you are not in that mob. Right from the start, God picked you to be the ones that he will save. And he put his Holy Spirit into you, to save you. We told you the true message about Jesus, and you believed it. It is like God called to you, at that time, to come and join his mob. And now God's spirit works in you all the time to change you into God's special people. And God will make you great, like our leader Jesus Christ.

<sup>15</sup> So then, Christian friends, you have to keep strong and keep on properly trusting Jesus. Keep on believing the things that we taught you. You see, Jesus taught us those things, and later we taught them to you. We told you those things when we were there with you, and after that, we wrote letters to you to tell you more. Now keep on believing those things.

<sup>16</sup> And we pray to our leader Jesus Christ himself, and we also pray to God our father. God loves us, and he is very good to us. He helps us to be strong, and to be brave, for ever. He tells us that we are his people, for sure.
<sup>17</sup> So we ask him to help you to be strong, and brave too, so that you keep on doing good things, and keep on saying good things.

3

Paul asked the Christians at Thessalonica to pray for him

<sup>1</sup> And, Christian friends, there is one more thing we want to ask you to do. Please pray for us. Ask God to help us tell a lot more people about Jesus. We want them to hear that message soon, and we want them to believe it, just like you did.

* 2:4 Ezekiel 28:2; Daniel 11:36 * 2:8 Isaiah 11:4 * 2:9 Matthew 24:24

<sup>2</sup> You know, there are some people that never believe the good news about Jesus, and some very bad people that want to give us trouble. Ask God to keep us safe from them.

Jesus will keep you safe

<sup>3</sup> But Jesus, our leader, is always good to us, and he always does what he promised to do. He will help you to keep on trusting him strongly. He will keep you safe from that really bad one, the boss over the bad spirits, so that he can't touch you. <sup>4</sup> You see, God helps us know for sure about you. We reckon that you are doing the things that we told you to do, and we reckon that you will keep on doing them.

<sup>5</sup> We want Jesus Christ, our leader, to help you understand more about God, and to understand that he really loves you. And we want him to help you to keep going strong, just like Jesus Christ kept going strong when he was here on the earth.

Don't be lazy

<sup>6-7</sup> Listen, Christian friends, Jesus Christ, our leader, wants us to tell you this. If anyone says they are a Christian, but they sit down and never want to do any work, you have to keep away from that person. Remember when we were with you. Think about what we were like. We didn't sit around doing nothing. And we told you, "Don't be lazy." We want you to live the way we lived when we were with you.

<sup>8</sup> We worked very hard, not only in the day time, but at night time too, so that we could get enough money to look after ourselves. We always paid for the food you gave us. You didn't have to find extra money to look after us.

No work, no food

<sup>9</sup> You know, God says that if somebody tells people the good news about Jesus, it is all right for that person to ask for the things they need. But we didn't do that. We didn't ask you for anything. You see, we wanted to show you the right way for a Christian to live. <sup>10</sup> Remember what we told you about people that don't want to work. We told you not to give them food. We said, "If they will not do any work, don't give them any food."

Get a job so you can buy your own food

<sup>11</sup> You see, somebody told us that there are some lazy people there with you that never want to do any work. They just go around talking about people in a bad way and messing up other people's lives. <sup>12</sup> So we write this to those lazy people. Our leader, Jesus Christ, wants us to strongly tell them this. They have to change the way they live. They have to settle down and get a job, so that they can buy their own food to eat.

<sup>13</sup> But to you other Christian friends we say this, keep on doing good things all the time, and always be happy to do them.

Try to straighten out those people that go wrong

<sup>14</sup> We are writing this letter to tell you the right way to live. If some people will not do what we say in this letter, tell everyone about them, and don't be their close friends. Then they will feel shame.

<sup>15</sup> But don't be their enemies. Instead, talk to them like they are your brothers or sisters, and try to straighten them out.

The end of the letter

<sup>16</sup> We will finish this letter now. You know, our leader, Jesus, he is the one that can make people feel quiet and happy inside themselves. Well, we pray that he will do that for you all the time, and that he will be with you all the time.

Paul signed this letter

<sup>17</sup> This is me, Paul, writing this bit now. I'm saying hello to you, and I am writing it with my own hand, so everyone can be sure that this letter is really from me. I do this at the end of all my letters. <sup>18</sup> I pray that Jesus Christ, our leader, will keep on being really good to all of you.

From Paul

The 1st letter that Paul wrote to Timothy (The book in the Holy Bible called 1 Timothy) About this letter

Paul wrote this letter to Timothy about 2,000 years ago, about 30 years after Jesus went back to heaven, and it is now in the Holy Bible.

God sent Paul to lots of countries to tell people about Jesus. Timothy was a young man in one of those countries. He heard what Paul said, and he believed in Jesus. After that, he went with Paul and helped him do his work (see Acts 16:1-3). At a town called Ephesus, Paul told Timothy to stay there and look after the church, while Paul went to other places. So Timothy was the pastor of the church in Ephesus.

At that time, the Roman people were the bosses over a lot of other nations. They didn't like Paul telling people about Jesus, so they grabbed him and put him in jail. Paul wrote this letter while he was in jail in the big city called Rome.

This is the 1st letter that Paul wrote to Timothy, and it has important messages for us Christians today, especially for ministers and pastors. It can help church leaders work out how to properly look after the people in their churches.

I am Paul, and this letter is from me. God picked me to be Jesus Christ's special worker. Those 2, God and Jesus, they told me to do this work. God is the one that will save us, and we can be sure that Jesus will always look after us. They gave me this job, to tell everybody this message about them.

Timothy, I told you about Jesus, and you really believed in him, so now I love you like you are my own son. I pray to God our father, and to Jesus Christ our leader, that they will show you that they love you. I am asking them to be good to you, and to make you feel happy and quiet inside yourself.*

Some people teach the wrong message

<sup>3-4</sup> Remember when we were in Ephesus, and I left that town to go to Macedonia country. At that time, I told you to stay there in Ephesus. There were some people there that were teaching the wrong message, and I wanted you to stay there and straighten them out. Those people think a lot about old time stories that are not true, and they think about the lists of names of people in their families, and then they use those stories and lists of names to teach lies to people. Anybody that listens to them just gets into useless arguments. People shouldn't do that, but instead they have to learn about God, and the way he works. They have to learn to believe in God and to do whatever he wants. So I want you to tell those lying teachers to stop teaching those lies.

<sup>5</sup> You see, you have to teach people to do what is right, and to believe in God properly, and to never do bad things. Then they will properly love each other all the time. We want people to follow the things that we teach, so that they live that way. <sup>6</sup> But those lying teachers don't do that. They go all wrong. They just talk about useless things all the time. <sup>7</sup> They reckon they teach the law that God gave to Moses, and they want everybody to respect them. They talk strongly, like they know all about that law, and they think they are always right. But really, they are all mixed up. They don't understand that law properly, and they don't know what they are talking about.

<sup>8</sup> We all know that the law that God gave to Moses is good, so long as people teach it the right way. <sup>9</sup> We have to remember that God gave that law to punish the people that do bad things, not the people that do good things. That law is there to stop bad people, and cheeky people, and people that forget about God and everything that belongs to God. It is there to stop people that want to kill their own father or mother, and people that want to murder other people. <sup>10</sup> That law is there to stop those people that just want to sleep with anybody, and do with them what married people do together. It is there to stop men that want to sleep with other men, as if they are women. It is there to stop people that grab other people to make them prisoners and force them to work for no pay. It is there to stop those people that trick other people by lying to them. That law is there to stop all those sorts of bad things that people do if they don't listen to God's word. <sup>11</sup> They do all sorts of bad things. But if we think about that good story about Jesus, we know all those things are wrong. And I go and tell that good story about Jesus to everybody. That's my job. Our wonderful God gave me this job.

Jesus picked Paul to be an example

* 1:1-2 Acts 16:1

<sup>12</sup> I really want to thank our leader Jesus Christ. He makes me strong enough to do this job. He thought I will do this work properly, so he picked me out to do it for him, and I thank him for that. <sup>13-14</sup> I used to be really cheeky to Jesus Christ before I ever believed in him. I used to say bad things about Jesus, and I used to make trouble for anybody that believed in Jesus. I didn't know the true story about Jesus at that time, so I didn't believe in him. But God felt sorry for me, and he was really good to me. He let me turn around and join up with Jesus Christ, and now Jesus helps me to trust God, and he helps me to love everybody.*

<sup>15</sup> You sometimes hear people say this, "Jesus Christ came into this world to save bad people, to make them into better people." That is very true, and everybody has to believe it. And it tells the story about me too. I was really bad. I was worse than anybody else. <sup>16</sup> But Jesus wanted to show everybody that he will wait for people, and he will save anyone that believes in him, even really bad people. So he picked me to be an example. I was really bad, but he felt sorry for me, and he waited for me to believe in him. So now everybody can know that Jesus is waiting, and he wants everybody to believe in him, no matter if they are really bad. If they believe in him, he will save them, and they will live with him for ever.

<sup>17</sup> That shows that God is really great. He is the biggest boss, and he lives for ever, even though nobody can see him. He is the only one that is God. Everybody has to really praise him and say he is great, and they have to do that for ever and ever. That's right.

<sup>18</sup> Timothy, you are like a son to me, so I'm telling you to do these things. Remember that the Holy Spirit told the Christians there a message about you, some time ago. Well, you have to think about that message, so that you can stand up against things that are wrong, like a soldier that stands up and fights against an enemy. <sup>19</sup> You have to keep on believing God's word and keep on doing the right thing, so that you will never feel bad about the things you do. Some people heard about God, but they didn't try to go the right way, and now they don't believe in God any more. <sup>20</sup> Those 2 men, Hymenayus and Alexander, they are like that. So I asked God to let Satan punish those 2 men. Satan is the boss over the bad spirits, and I asked God to let him punish those 2 men so that they will learn not to tell lies about God.

Church meetings

<sup>1</sup> I'm writing now about your church meetings. The first thing I want to tell you is that you have to pray for all sorts of people. Ask God to help people that have problems. Tell him all about them, and ask him to help them. Always thank God too, for everything that he does for people. <sup>2</sup> Pray for the bosses over your nation, both the big bosses and those other bosses that work for them. Ask God to help them run the nation the right way, so that we can live happy and quiet lives, and so that we can respect God properly, and live his way. <sup>3</sup> If we pray for everybody like that, we make God happy. He is the one that saves us, <sup>4</sup> and he wants to save everybody. He wants everybody to know the true message about Jesus.

<sup>5</sup> You see, there is only one God, and there is only one man that can stand between God and us people, to bring us back to God and ask him not to punish us. That man is Jesus Christ. <sup>6</sup> He let people kill him. When he died, he took the payback for everybody, so that now God can save anybody. He died like that at just the right time to show everybody that God really wants to save them. <sup>7</sup> And God has picked me to be Jesus's special worker, to go and tell people his word. What I'm saying now is really true. I'm not lying. He picked me to go to those people that are not Jewish, and to tell them that God will save them too.*

Men that pray

<sup>8</sup> So in your meetings at every place, I want this sort of men to pray, men that always want to make God happy. I don't want them to be angry, or argue with others.

Women in church meetings

<sup>9</sup> And in your meetings, I want the women to dress properly and sensibly. They can't dress in a way that makes men look at them. They can't think about the fancy clothes they will wear, or their fancy hairdo, or the jewels that they want to wear, like gold or pearls. Those things are not important.* <sup>10</sup> This is more important. They have to do good things for other people, so that everyone will see that they are women that really know God.

* 1:13-14 Acts 8:3; 9:4-5 * 2:7 2 Timothy 1:11 * 2:9 1 Peter 3:3

<sup>11</sup> Women have to listen to the teacher in a meeting, and not argue with the teacher.

<sup>12</sup> I don't let women teach men or be men's bosses in spiritual things. They just have to be quiet. <sup>13</sup> You see, God made people a long time ago, and he made the man first. His name was Adam. After that, he made the woman. Her name was Eve.* <sup>14</sup> And then that snake came to trick them, but he didn't trick Adam. He tricked Eve, and she went wrong first.* <sup>15</sup> But God will save women from big trouble. He worked it out for them to become mothers, and that makes them important. So if they keep on believing in him, and loving people, and if they really respect God, and if they keep on being sensible, God will save them.

The leaders of God's people

<sup>1</sup> I'm writing about church leaders now. You sometimes hear people say, "If anybody wants to be the person that leads God's people, that's a very important job that they want to do." And that's right. So you have to be very careful about the person you pick to be a leader. <sup>2</sup> A church leader has to be this sort of man,

- He has to be a really good man, so that nobody can ever say that he does bad things.
- He can only have one wife, and he can't sleep with any other woman, like a husband sleeps with his wife.
- He has to have good sense and do things properly.
- He can't be the sort of man that lets himself go and then does wild things.
- He has to be friendly to other people, even if he doesn't know them.
- He has to be good at teaching people.
- <sup>3</sup> He can't be a drunken man, or a man that gets into fights.
- He has to be a quiet man that is not hard on people.
- He can't be a man that loves money.
- <sup>4-5</sup> He has to look after his own family properly, then you will know that he can look after God's people too. If his kids respect him, and if they do whatever he tells them to do, that shows that he is the right sort of man.
- <sup>6</sup> He has to be a man that has been a Christian for a long time, not a new Christian. A new Christian might start to think he is smart, and God might have to throw him out, like he threw the devil out after the devil thought he was smart. That devil is now the boss over the bad spirits.

- <sup>7</sup> He has to be a man that everybody says is a good man. Even people that are not Christians have to say that he is good. If they know that he is a good man, they will respect him. The devil always tries to make Christian leaders go wrong so that he can shame them. It is like the devil has a trap and tries to catch them in it, but he can't catch a man that is always good.

The people that help the leaders

<sup>8</sup> It is the same too for the people that are helpers in the church.

- They have to be really good honest people.
- They can't be people that get drunk.
- They can't be greedy, wanting lots of money and things.
- <sup>9</sup> They have to really believe the things that God has shown us. And they have to always do the right thing, so that they will not feel bad about what they do.
- <sup>10</sup> You need to try them out before you make them church helpers, so first give them some little jobs to do, and if they do them properly, and if nobody complains about them, then you can make them helpers in the church.
- <sup>11</sup> Their wives have to be like them, good women that nobody complains about.
- Their wives can't be the sort of women that say bad things about other people.
- Their wives can't be the sort of women that let themselves go and then do wild things.
- Their wives have to be honest about everything.
- <sup>12</sup> A church helper can only have one wife, and he can't sleep with any other woman, like a man sleeps with his wife.
- He has to be the sort of man that looks after his wife and kids properly, as well as all the people that live in his house.

<sup>13</sup> If church helpers do their job properly, everybody will say that they are good people, and God will be happy with them too. Then they will not be too frightened to tell anybody that they believe in Jesus Christ.

God's true word

<sup>14</sup> I want to come and see you soon, but I'm writing this letter to you now <sup>15</sup> so that you will know the way we have to do things in the church. You know, we are God's family, and his family is his church. God is always alive, and the people in his church always have to keep on teaching his true word. You know how a house is held up by the big posts that are set in concrete. Well, we people in God's church, we are like those posts. We are holding up God's true word, so we have to teach it properly.

* 2:13 Genesis 2:7, 21-22      * 2:14 Genesis 3:1-6

<sup>16</sup> God shows us something about Jesus that is really true, and nobody can argue with it. He shows us that Jesus is really great,

He came in a man's body for people to see, but the Holy Spirit showed us that he was really from God.

And God's angel messengers saw him too. The people that believed in him told other people everywhere about him.

They even went to other countries to tell people about him, and people all over the world believed in him.

And God took him up into heaven.

4

Some people teach lies

<sup>1</sup> The Holy Spirit tells us clearly about things that will happen in the last days of this world. He says that some people will stop believing the true word from God. Instead, they will believe lies that come from bad spirits. Those bad spirits will trick them, and they will believe those lies.

<sup>2</sup> And some of them will teach those lies to other people. They tell everybody they are good people, but really, they are bad. And they never feel bad about the bad things they do.

<sup>3-5</sup> They tell people, "You can't marry anyone. It is wrong." And they tell people, "There are some sorts of food you can't eat. You just have to leave it alone."

Those things that they say are not true. God tells us in his book that he made everything good. That means that he made all food good. We believe that word and know it is true, so we don't have to leave any sort of food alone. Instead, we can just thank him for it and eat it. God's word says that all food is good, so we pray to him and thank him for it, and then it is all right for us to eat it.

You have to be a good worker for Jesus

<sup>6</sup> So teach those things to all the Christians. If you do that, you will be a good worker for Jesus Christ. You believe God's word and follow the things it says, and when you do that, you feed your spirit with God's word to make yourself strong.

<sup>7</sup> Don't take any notice of those silly stories that are not true, stories that lie about God.

But instead, train yourself to respect God and take notice of him. <sup>8-9</sup> You sometimes hear people say, "If we train our bodies, we will get fit so that we can play sport and live better lives, and that is good for us now. But if we train our spirits to respect God and take notice of him, we will not only live better lives now, but we will live a lot better in the life that will come after we die, just like God promised us. That is a lot better for us." Well, those words are true, and everybody has to follow that message. <sup>10</sup> We know it is true, so we work hard for God, and we are sure that he will give us a better life after we die. We are sure about God. He is alive, and he wants to save everybody, and he really will save all the people that believe in him.

<sup>11</sup> So teach everybody these things, and tell them that they have to follow these words. <sup>12</sup> If some people think you are too young to be their leader, don't worry. You live the right way yourself, and that will show them that you are a good leader. Then they will see the way a Christian has to live. So talk in the right way, and talk about the right things. And do everything the right way. And love people. And believe strongly in Jesus. And always do what is right. Then everyone will see that you live right, and they will not think you are too young. <sup>13</sup> So keep going until I get there. Make sure you read God's book in your meetings. Teach them that true message, and tell them how to do what it says.

<sup>14</sup> Always remember that God gave you special power at the time when the church leaders laid their hands on you and prayed for you. The Holy Spirit gave them a special word about you at that time. So keep on using the power that God gave you.

<sup>15</sup> Think hard about these things that I am telling you, and always do them, so that everybody will see that you are getting better all the time. <sup>16</sup> Be careful to live properly, and to teach the right things. You have to keep on doing those things, so that God will save both you and the people that listen to you.

5

Treat church people with respect

<sup>1</sup> If ever people in the church there go wrong, and if you have to straighten them out, be careful to respect them while you do it. If you talk to an old man, don't talk to him in an angry way, but talk easy to him, like he is your father. If it is a young man, talk to him like he is your brother. <sup>2</sup> Or if it is an old woman, talk to her like she is your mother. Or if it is a young woman, respect her and talk to her like she is your sister.

Look after widows that haven't got anybody to help them

<sup>3</sup> If there are any widows in the church that haven't got any family to look after them, then the church has to look after them. <sup>4</sup> But if a widow has family, that is, if she has some kids or grand-kids that are old enough to look after her, then they have to do that. It is not the church's job. Those younger people have to remember that they were kids once, and the woman that looked after them at that time is now a widow, so now it is their job to look after her. If we do that, God is happy with us.

<sup>5</sup> But some widows are all alone and haven't got any family to look after them. Some of those widows trust God to take care of them. They keep on praying and asking God for whatever they need. <sup>6</sup> But other widows don't think about God. They only want to have fun. They might think they are alive, but really, their spirits are dead.

<sup>7-8</sup> If people don't take care of their own family or their own relatives, they are not doing the thing that Jesus wants us to do. They are worse than the people that say they don't believe in Jesus at all. Tell everybody in the church this message so that other people will not try to blame them.

<sup>9</sup> So you can make up a list. Write down the names of all the widows that the church has to help. But only put a widow on the list if she is over 60 years old, and only if she always stayed with her husband and never went off with another man. <sup>10</sup> She has to be the sort of woman that everybody respects because she always did good things for people. She has to be a woman that brought her kids up properly. She has to be a woman that always gave strangers food and a place to sleep. She has to be a woman that did all sorts of things to help God's people. She has to be a woman that always helped people in trouble and was always ready to do good things.

<sup>11</sup> But if a widow is still a young woman, she still really wants to have a husband, so later she will want to stop doing things for Jesus, and she will want to marry somebody. So don't write her name on that list. <sup>12</sup> You know, when she asked the church to help her, she promised to work for the church, so if she stops working for the church, it means that she is breaking that promise, and God might punish her for that. <sup>13</sup> Even if she doesn't marry again, she still might get lazy. Instead of doing good things, she might just go around to people's houses and talk to them about other people, and she might talk about things that she shouldn't talk about.

<sup>14</sup> So I'm saying this to young widows. Don't try to get on to the church's list, but instead, go ahead and marry somebody, and have kids, and look after your family. If you do that, our enemy will not have any reason to say bad things about us. <sup>15</sup> You see, some young widows already went away from God, and now they follow Satan, the boss over the bad spirits.

<sup>16</sup> And, you know, some widows have relatives that can look after them. If a Christian woman has a relative that is a widow, she has to do that for her. She can't ask the church to do it. Then the church can look after those other widows that haven't got any family. They are the widows that really need help.

Church leaders are important

<sup>17</sup> Everybody has to respect those people that lead the church properly, and the church has to pay them properly, especially the people that work hard to teach God's word to other people. <sup>18</sup> God says this in his book,

"If you get an animal to work for you, you have to let that animal eat something while it works."*

And he also says,

"It is right for workers to get their pay."* Well, it is like that too with the church leaders. They work for the church, so the church has to pay them properly.

<sup>19</sup> And you know, church leaders can go wrong too. But if somebody blames a church leader for something, don't believe them unless there are 2 or 3 people that tell the same story about that leader. Then you have to find out if that story is true.* <sup>20</sup> If that leader really did do something bad, then you have to shame him. You have to talk to him to try to straighten him out, and do it in front of everybody in the church. Then everyone will take notice and be too frightened to do bad things themselves. <sup>21</sup> And as you do that, you have to treat everybody the same way. You know, God sees everything I'm writing here, and so does Jesus Christ, and so do God's angel messengers. They know everything that I am telling you now. I'm saying that you can't treat your family and friends any better than anybody else.

* 5:18 Deuteronomy 25:4

* 5:18 Leviticus 19:13; Deuteronomy 24:15; Matthew 10:10; Luke 10:7

* 5:19

<sup>22</sup> If ever you need to pick somebody to be a church leader, pick somebody that has been a Christian for a long time, not somebody that is a new Christian. It is like this. If the person you pick starts to go wrong, everyone will blame you as well as blaming that person. So pick somebody that you know is really good, so that you don't get yourself mixed up with something that is wrong.

<sup>23</sup> By the way, I know that you are often sick in the belly, so you have to mix a little bit of wine into the water you drink. Don't just drink water on its own.

<sup>24-25</sup> If you need to pick a new leader, remember this. There are some people that do bad things out in the open so that we soon hear about them, and we all know that they are no good before we even meet them. But there are also other people that hide the bad things they do so that nobody can see them, and it takes some time before we find out that they are bad people. In the same way, some people do good things out in the open so that everybody sees them, while other people hide the good things they do so that nobody can see them. But it doesn't matter. Sooner or later everybody will find out about them, and everybody will know that they are good people.

Workers and bosses

<sup>1</sup> I'm writing now about Christians that have to work all the time for somebody else. They have to really respect their bosses. If they don't, people that are not Christians will rubbish God and say that he gets us to teach things that are wrong.

<sup>2</sup> If a worker's boss is a Christian, that worker can't think like this, "My boss is my Christian brother so I can be lazy." No, that boss believes in Jesus, and that boss loves Jesus too, so the worker has to work harder for that boss.

You have to teach people those things, and tell them to live that way.

Some people teach the wrong things

<sup>3</sup> Some people teach things that are wrong. They teach things that are different from the good things that our leader, Jesus Christ, taught. He taught things that help people live in a way that makes God happy. <sup>4</sup> But the people that teach something different are wrong. Those people don't really understand anything. They just want everyone to think they are important. They want to make trouble and get people to have arguments about words. If people start to argue, then they start to get jealous of each other. They think bad things, and they say bad things about each other. <sup>5</sup> Then they keep on arguing with each other. You see, they listened to those wrong teachers and those teachers tricked them. Those wrong teachers made them think the wrong way, so they don't really know the true message. They think that if they follow God's way they will get a lot of money, but they are wrong.

Don't be greedy for money

<sup>6-8</sup> It is like this. At the time we were born, we didn't bring any money with us into this life. And when we die, we can't take any money with us. So while we live in this life, if we have enough food and clothes, we can be really happy. So now, if you follow God's way, and if you don't try to get a lot of money for yourself, you will be very happy, and you will get a lot out of life. <sup>9</sup> But people that try to get lots of money, they let the devil trick them. The devil is the boss over the bad spirits. He gets those people to want things so much that they will do anything to get them. That's how they fall into the devil's trap. They do silly things, and bad things too. The devil really wrecks them. <sup>10</sup> If you love money a lot, you will do all sorts of bad things to get it. Some people went wrong like that. They wanted a lot of money, so they stopped believing in Jesus, and they got themselves into lots of trouble, and now they are really sad.

Live the right way

<sup>11</sup> But Timothy, you belong to God. So you've got to keep away from all those bad things that I just told you about. Instead, you've got to try to do the right thing all the time, and try to do things that make God happy, and try to trust him more, and try to love people better, and try to keep going when things are tough, and try to be easy on other people, not hard on them. Those are the things you have to try to do all the time. <sup>12</sup> It's like we are in a big fight against the devil and all his bad spirit mob. He wants us to go wrong and stop believing in Jesus. But Jesus gives us really good life that goes on for ever, so we have to keep on trusting Jesus for that life, and then we will win the fight against that bad spirit mob. Remember the time that you first believed in Jesus, and you told a lot of people about it. That was the time he called you to follow him, and to get that life that goes on for ever. So now keep on believing in Jesus, and keep on following him so that you keep on living that good life for ever.

Paul wanted Timothy to do everything in this letter

<sup>13-14</sup> You know about God. He makes things live. And you know about Jesus. People took him to Pontius Pilate, and he told that boss the true story about himself.* Well, God is watching us now, and Jesus is listening to us. So I want you to promise me this one thing with both of them listening to you. I want you to promise me that you will do everything that I'm telling you to do in this letter. Promise me that you will do it all properly, so that nobody can say you did it wrong. And keep on doing it until we see Jesus Christ come back again.

<sup>15</sup> God will bring Jesus back at the right time. God is the only really big boss. He is the really big boss over everybody. He is the really big boss over all other big bosses. He is the biggest boss over every other boss. <sup>16</sup> He is the only one that never dies, but he goes on and on for ever. He lives in light that is so bright that nobody can go near him. Nobody ever saw him, and nobody can see him now. We have to really respect him all the time, and we have to remember that he is really powerful. Yes, that's right.

<sup>17</sup> There are some people that have a lot of money and a lot of things. You have to tell them that they can't think that they are smart just because they are rich. They still have to pray to God, and they have to trust him for everything they really need. They can't trust their money. But they have to trust God. He gives us everything we need to be happy. So we have to trust him, not trust money. <sup>18</sup> So tell them to use their money to do good things for other people. Tell them to be ready to give it to people that need it. <sup>19</sup> If they do that, they will really be giving it to God, and he will keep it for them for later on, after they die. In that way, they will get a good start in their new life. That is the really good life.

<sup>20</sup> All right, Timothy, God gave you his good message, so you have to look after it properly. Make sure nobody changes it around. There are some people that talk a lot in a stupid way, and they say bad things about God. Don't listen to them. They might reckon they know all about it, and they might say that you are wrong, but really, they are the ones that are wrong. <sup>21</sup> Some people followed them, and now those people have stopped believing in Jesus.

That's all for now. I'm asking God to be really good to all you mob there.

From Paul

* 6:13-14 John 18:37

The 2nd letter that Paul wrote to Timothy
(The book in the Holy Bible called 2 Timothy)
About this letter

Paul wrote this letter to Timothy about 2,000 years ago, more than 30 years after Jesus went back to heaven, and it is now in the Holy Bible.

God sent Paul to lots of countries to tell people about Jesus. Timothy heard what Paul said, and he believed in Jesus. After that, he went with Paul and helped him do his work (see Acts 16:1-3). At a town called Ephesus, Paul told Timothy to stay and be the pastor of the church there.

At that time, the Roman people were the bosses over lots of nations. They didn't like Paul telling people about Jesus, so they grabbed him, and they put him in jail, in Rome. Paul wrote this 2nd letter to Timothy from jail. Paul knew that the Roman bosses were going to kill him, and he wanted to see Timothy again before he died.

Paul wrote this 2nd letter to Timothy a few years after he wrote the 1st letter to Timothy.

This letter has important messages for us Christians today, especially for ministers and pastors. It can help church leaders work out how to properly look after the people in their churches.

1-2 Dear Timothy,

I am Paul, and this letter is from me. God picked me out to be Jesus Christ's special worker. He gave me this job, to tell other people that they can believe in Jesus, and then they will live with God for ever. God promises to do that for us.

Timothy, I love you like you are my own son. I pray to God our father, and to Jesus Christ our leader, that they will show you that they love you. I am asking them to be good to you, and to make you feel happy and quiet inside yourself.

Keep using the power God gave you

<sup>3</sup> I thank God for you, Timothy, and I pray for you all the time, in the day time and also at night. I work for God, and I really want to work properly for him so that I always feel good about it. (My father wanted to work for God properly too, and so did my grand-father, and my family that lived a long time ago.) <sup>4</sup> I remember that you cried the last time we left each other, so now I really want to see you again so that I will be happy. <sup>5</sup> I also remember that you really believe in Jesus. First your grand-mother Lois believed in him, then your mother Eunice believed in him. And I know that you believe in Jesus now too, just like they do.*

<sup>6</sup> Remember the time that I laid my hands on you and prayed for you. God's spirit gave you special power at that time. Well, now I want you to remember that, and you have to keep on using that power in your work for God. If you have not used it for a while, you need to start using it again. <sup>7</sup> God's spirit in us doesn't make us frightened, but he helps us be strong so that we do great things, and he helps us love people, and he helps us control ourselves.

<sup>8</sup> You have to tell people about our leader Jesus. Don't feel shame about that. And don't feel shame about me because I'm in jail. I'm here because I told people about Jesus. But don't worry. Just go ahead anyway and tell people about our leader Jesus. And then maybe some people might make trouble for you, just like they made trouble for me. But God will make you strong, and you will not worry about that trouble. <sup>9</sup> It is God that saved us, and he picked us to be his own specially good people. We didn't do anything to get him to like us, but he was good to us anyway. He sent Jesus Christ to come and save us. God planned all that a long time ago, even before time started, <sup>10</sup> and now he makes it clear for us all to see. Jesus came to save people, so that if they believe the good news about him, they will not stay dead after they die, but they will live for ever.

<sup>11</sup> And God gave me this job, to tell everyone that good story, and to teach everyone that Jesus can save them.* <sup>12</sup> So I tell everyone about him. Those people that don't like Jesus, they make trouble for me. But I know God, and I believe in him, so I don't feel shame when I get that trouble. I know that he will look after me right up until the day when Jesus will come back.

<sup>13-14</sup> Whenever you teach people, you have to make sure that you tell them the same true message that I told you before. Don't let anyone get you to change it into a wrong message. That message is something really special, and you really have to look after it properly. The Holy Spirit lives in us, and he will help you look after it properly. So you have to make sure you keep on believing in Jesus Christ, and keep on loving people just like he does.

* 1:5 Acts 16:1      * 1:11 1 Timothy 2:7

You are joined to him now, so you can do that.

<sup>15</sup> You probably know about the people that came here from Asia. They all left me now. Even Figelus and Hermogenes left me. It is like they don't want to know me any more. <sup>16-18</sup> But Onesiforus wasn't like that. He came here to Rome and looked everywhere for me. And when he found me here in jail, he didn't feel shame. He often came and cheered me up. So I pray that Jesus, our leader, will be really good to his family. And you already know about that time that he was over there in Ephesus with me, and he helped me in lots of ways. One day our leader will judge everyone, and I pray that he will be good to Onesiforus and his family on that day.

Good workers for Jesus Christ

<sup>1</sup> So Timothy, you are like my own son now. I want you to be strong. And if you always stay joined up to Jesus Christ, you can do that. You see, he is always good to you, and he will help you.

<sup>2</sup> You heard me tell those true things about Jesus to lots of people, so you have to teach those things to more people. Pick good people that everyone respects, then teach them those things, so that they can go to other people and teach them those same things.

<sup>3</sup> Remember that you belong to Jesus Christ. You are like his soldier. If soldiers get hurt, they don't stop fighting. They just forget their pain and keep going. Well, you have to be like that now. If people see that you belong to Jesus, and then they hurt you, you just have to forget it and keep going, just like a good soldier, and like other good Christians.

<sup>4</sup> And you know that soldiers don't get other jobs while they are in the army. They just work for their army captain and try to make him happy. Well, just like that, Jesus is your captain, so you have to just do the things that Jesus wants you to do, and don't get mixed up with anything that he doesn't want.

<sup>5</sup> And you are also like a sportsman. You know that sportsmen have to follow the rules of their game. If they don't, they can't win. Well, just like that, you have to follow the rules that God set down, so that in the end God will tell you that you won.

<sup>6</sup> And I will use another picture story, about a gardener. He works hard, and then he is the first person to eat the food he grows in the garden. Well, like that gardener, if you work hard for God, he will quickly pay you.

<sup>7</sup> Now think about those things that I just told you, and Jesus, our leader, will help you to properly understand them all.

<sup>8</sup> So if people make trouble for you, just remember that they made trouble for Jesus Christ. He was born into the family of David, the man that was the big boss a long time ago. But people gave Jesus a lot of trouble, and they killed him. But then God made him alive again. That is the good news that I always tell people about Jesus. <sup>9</sup> But some of them don't like me telling everybody that message, so they make trouble for me. They even treat me like a criminal. They tied me up and put me here in this jail. But nobody can tie up God's word or keep it in jail. Anyone out there now can still go around and tell people God's message. <sup>10</sup> So I reckon it's all right for me to stay here in jail so that other people will hear that message and believe in Jesus. They are the people that God picked out. He will save them and make them great, and they will live happy with him for ever. <sup>11</sup> Listen to these things that you sometimes hear Christians say. They are very true. They say,

"If we follow Jesus and stop doing bad things, it is like we die with him, and so we don't do anything bad any more, and then later we will live with him.

<sup>12</sup> If we follow him and people give us trouble, and if we keep on following him and don't let that trouble stop us, then we will become important leaders with him.

Or if we say that we don't know him, then later, he will say that he doesn't know us.*

<sup>13</sup> But if we break our promise to him, that is different. He is not like us. He can never break his promise to us. He will always do what is right. That's the sort of person he is."

The sort of worker God likes

<sup>14</sup> So talk to your mob there, and don't let them forget about those things. Tell them not to argue with anyone about words. Let them know that God is listening as you tell them that. If they argue like that, nobody wins, and anyone that listens to those arguments gets all messed up in the end.

<sup>15</sup> Try your best to be the sort of teacher that God likes. He likes teachers that teach the true message, and that help people understand it properly. That's how you have to work for God. <sup>16</sup> Stay away from people that teach useless stories that give God no respect, because if somebody talks like that, they just push people away from God. <sup>17</sup> Their message is like a bad sore on a man that will not heal, and in the end it kills him. Those 2 men, Hymenayus and Filetus, they are bad teachers like that. <sup>18</sup> They say that God already raised up the dead people and made them alive again. But their message is wrong. Some people listened to them, and now these people don't believe in Jesus any more.

* 2:12 Matthew 10:33; Luke 12:9

<sup>19</sup> But God gave us the true word that can't ever change. It is like a solid slab of concrete that builders put a house on. And it is like they wrote some words in that concrete. It is like they wrote this, "God knows those people that belong to him,"

And like they also wrote,

"If anyone says that they belong to God, they have to stop doing bad things."

So God's people have to live that way.*

<sup>20</sup> Let me use another picture story. In a big house there are lots of things that people use all the time. Some of those things are really special, like gold bowls and silver spoons, and people use those things for good clean jobs. But for dirty jobs, they use pots made from the ground, or from wood. <sup>21</sup> Well, it is like that too with people that belong to God. If you stop doing bad things, you are like gold things or silver things, and God will use you for the good jobs. You will live in a clean way, and you will be ready for God to use you any way he wants to.

<sup>22</sup> Lots of young people just follow their own feelings, and then they do bad things. But you have to keep away from anything like that. Keep away from anything that will push you into doing something bad. Instead of that, you have to try to do good things, and always trust God, and love people, and don't fight anyone. Some people live like that. They pray to God, and they only want to do good things. Well, make those people your good friends, and you live like that too.

<sup>23</sup> But you can't argue about stupid things that are not important. If you argue like that, you might get into a fight. <sup>24</sup> And anyone that works for God can't get into fights, but they have to be good to everybody. So don't get angry with people that give you trouble. You have to teach people in a good way. <sup>25-26</sup> If somebody doesn't agree with the true message, you have to straighten them out, but do it quietly, in an easy way. You know, the devil, the boss over the bad spirits, he tries to trick people. It is like he sets a trap for them. He catches people in his trap, then he makes them do whatever he wants them to do. But if you teach people properly, they can wake up, then God will help them turn around, and he will get them to think straight, and they will understand that true message, and God will get them out of the devil's trap.

Bad people in the last days

<sup>1</sup> You have to understand this. In the last days of this world, things will be tough for people. <sup>2</sup> Most people will only love themselves, and they will love money. They will think that they are smart, and they will tell everyone they are smart. They will say bad things about other people. They will never do what their parents tell them to do. They will never thank anyone for anything. They will not respect things that belong to God. <sup>3</sup> They will be hard and cruel. They will remember the wrong things that other people do, and they will do payback to them. They will get wild easily, and they will never control themselves. They will always hate everything that is good. <sup>4</sup> They will turn against their friends. They will do stupid things that will make problems for other people, but they will not care. They will think they are really good, but they are not. They will not love God, but instead they will only love to have fun. <sup>5</sup> They will reckon they respect God, but they will reckon that he hasn't got any power. So I'm telling you, keep right away from those people.

<sup>6-7</sup> They are the sort of people that trick some women that are stupid. They find women that always do anything they feel like doing, women that really went wrong, women that know that they did lots of bad things. That sort of woman is always ready to listen to a teacher that has a new idea, but they can never understand the true message. Those bad men get those women to let them into their homes, then they trick them with their talk, until the women really believe them. <sup>8-9</sup> Those men have sick and dirty minds, and they don't really believe in God. Think about the story from a long time ago, that story about Jannes and Jambres. They stood up against Moses and argued with him. In the end God killed those 2 men, and everyone saw that they were fools, and that they were wrong. Well, those tricky men are just like those 2 men that lived a long time ago. Those tricky men stand up and argue against anyone that tells the true message, but in the end everyone will know that they are fools, and that they are wrong.*

<sup>10</sup> But Timothy, you are very different from them. You believe the message I always teach, and you know the good way I always live. You know that I don't get angry when I get trouble, and I keep on loving people. You know that I believe really strongly in Jesus, and you agree with me about the things I live for. <sup>11</sup> You know that bad people in some towns gave me a lot of trouble. They did that at Antioch, and at Iconium, and at Listra.

You know that they hurt me a lot at those places. But Jesus, our leader, saved me from them, and they didn't kill me.*

People that make trouble

<sup>12</sup> And it is always like that. If you belong to Jesus Christ and want to live God's way, bad people will always make trouble for you. <sup>13</sup> And those bad liars will get worse and worse. They will go on tricking people, and just like that, other people will trick them too.

<sup>14</sup> But as for you, we taught you lots of things about God, and now you really believe those things. And you know us. We only teach the true message, so you know that those things we taught you are true. So keep on believing and following our message. <sup>15</sup> And remember that a long time ago you were a kid, and your mother taught you things from God's book, and that gave you enough sense to believe in Jesus Christ. Now you believe in him, and he saves you. <sup>16</sup> Everything in God's book comes from God himself. It was God that sent the message to people to write down, and God uses it now to teach us his true word, and he uses it to get us to understand the things that are wrong with our lives, and he uses it to fix us up, and he uses it to teach us to do the things that are right.* <sup>17</sup> That's how God properly trains his workers. He uses the words in his book to teach them, so they can do all those good things that he wants them to do.

4

Keep on telling people God's word

<sup>1</sup> You know, Jesus Christ will come back, and he will judge everyone. He will judge everyone that is alive at that time, and everyone that is already dead. So listen to what I'm telling you now. God and Jesus Christ are also listening to what I'm saying. It is this. <sup>2</sup> You've got to tell people God's word. You have to be ready to tell it at any time, no matter if it seems to be the right time or not. Teach it carefully to people, and be ready to wait for them to understand it. If they are going wrong, show them the right way to live, and help them to live that way. If they are going the right way, say good words to them to help them to keep going strong.

<sup>3</sup> You see, people are getting less interested in true stories. One day, they will not listen to good people that teach the true message, but instead they will listen to somebody that says strange things. And they will find teachers that will just say whatever people want to hear. <sup>4</sup> Those people will stop listening to the true story, and instead they will listen to stories that are all lies. <sup>5</sup> Don't be like those people. You have to control yourself all the time, no matter what happens to you. If they get tough on you, don't get upset, just keep going. You have to keep on telling people the good news about Jesus, and you have to finish all the work that he gave you to do.

<sup>6</sup> As for me, the time has come for me to leave my life here on earth, so I will die some time soon. I will give my life to God. <sup>7</sup> I did my job properly, and I finished all the work God gave me to do. I always told the true message about Jesus. I'm like a man that runs a long race and keeps going hard right up to the finish line. <sup>8</sup> I followed Jesus all the way, and very soon he will give me a prize, like a sportsman gets a medal after he wins. Jesus will make me properly good, that will be my prize. Jesus, our leader, is a fair judge, and he has got that prize ready to give me on the day that he comes back. And not just to me. He will give that prize to everybody that wants him to come back again, he will make them all properly good.

Paul wanted Timothy to come to him

<sup>9</sup> Timothy, please come and see me as soon as you can. <sup>10-12</sup> Almost all my friends went away to somewhere else. Demas just likes the things of this life, so he left me and went to Thessalonica. Crescens went to Galatia country, and Titus went to Dalmatia country. And I told Tikhicus to go to Ephesus. Only Luke is here with me now. If Mark was here, he could help me

* 3:8-9 Exodus 7:11    * 3:11 Acts 13:14—14:20    * 3:16 2 Peter 1:20-21    * 4:10-12 Acts 20:4; Galatians 2:3; Ephesians 6:21-22; Colossians 4:7-8, 14; 2 Corinthians 8:23; Titus 1:4; Philemon 1:24 a lot in my work, so get him and bring him with you.* <sup>13</sup> You will probably go through Troas as you come to me here. When I was in Troas, I left a coat there with Carpus. So I want you to get that coat and bring it with you. And bring my books too. I especially want those leather books.*

<sup>14</sup> Remember that man called Alexander, that makes things out of metal. He gave me a lot of trouble, and he really hurt me. But I will leave it to our leader, Jesus, to punish him for that.* <sup>15</sup> You look out for him too. He doesn't like the message we tell people about God, and he will try to do anything to stop us.

<sup>16</sup> And here, in this city, when they took me to court that first time, and I tried to tell the judge my story, nobody else said anything to back me up. They all left me. I hope God will not punish them for that. <sup>17</sup> But God stood there beside me, and he made me strong, so that I could tell his message properly to everybody in that court. Those people there were not Jews, so maybe that was the first time they heard about God. In the end the judge didn't sentence me to death, so they didn't give me to the lions to eat. <sup>18</sup> And God will always look after me, no matter what bad things people do to try to hurt me, and he will take me up into heaven to be with him in his family. Everybody has to praise him and say that he is great, for ever and ever. Yes, that's right.

The last words Paul wrote

<sup>19</sup> Now I want you to say hello from me to Aquila and Priscilla. And say hello also to Onesiforus and everyone at his place.*

<sup>20</sup> And I'll tell you about 2 of the men that were with me. Erastus is not with me now, he stayed in Corinth. And Trofimus was with me at Miletus, but he got sick, so I had to leave him there until he gets better.*

All the Christians here say hello to you, especially Yubulus, Pudens, Linus and Claudia.

<sup>22</sup> That's all. I pray that our leader, Jesus, will be with your spirit, and that he will be really good to you.

From Paul

The letter that Paul wrote to Titus (The book in the Holy Bible called Titus)

About this letter

Paul wrote this letter to Titus about 2,000 years ago, about 30 years after Jesus went back to heaven, and it is now in the Holy Bible.

God sent Paul to lots of countries to tell people about Jesus. Titus was a young man that went with Paul to the island called Crete, near the country called Greece. Then Paul got ready to go to another place, but he asked Titus to stay at Crete to help the new Christians there.

In this letter Paul told Titus things that helped him be a good Christian leader. This letter has important messages for us Christians today, especially for ministers and pastors. It can help church leaders work out how to properly look after the people in their churches.

I am Paul, and this letter is from me. I work for God, and I am one of Jesus Christ's special workers. God sent me to teach people about Jesus Christ, and to help his people believe in him more. And he sent me to help people understand his message better. Then they will know what they have to do to make God happy.

<sup>2</sup> A long time ago, before God made anything, he promised that his people will live with him for ever. And God doesn't lie. His promise is still true, and it stops his people from worrying about what will happen after they die. <sup>3</sup> At first, people didn't know what God promised, but now he says that it is the right time for them to hear his message, and he helps them understand it. God gave me that message, and he told me to tell it to other people. God is the one that saves us.

<sup>4</sup> Titus, you and me, we both believe the same things about God, so you are like my own son. I am asking God our father, and Jesus Christ, to be good to you, and to make you feel happy and quiet inside yourself. You know, Jesus saves us.*

Pick good people to be church leaders

<sup>5</sup> Titus, remember when I was with the Christians on that island called Crete, some things there were not right. So I asked you to stay there and try to fix those things. I also told you to pick good leaders to look after the Christians in all the towns on Crete.

<sup>6</sup> Now I want to tell you what church leaders have to be like.* They have to be really good people, so that nobody can say anything bad about them. A church leader can only have one wife, and he can't sleep with any other woman, like a husband sleeps with his wife. His kids have to believe in God, and they have to do the right things and not get into trouble. His kids have to do what he says.

<sup>7</sup> Church leaders are in charge of God's work on earth, so they have to be really good people, and then nobody will say anything bad about them. Whenever you pick people to be church leaders,

- Don't pick people that think they are better than everyone else.
- Don't pick people that get angry too easily.
- Don't pick people that drink a lot of grog.
- Don't pick people that get into fights.
- Don't pick greedy people, that want lots of money and things.

<sup>8</sup> Church leaders have to be like this,

- They have to let visitors stay in their houses.
- They have to really want to do good things.
- They have to control themselves.
- They have to be sensible.
- They have to do what is right.
- They have to do things that make God happy.
- They have to be strong for Jesus.

<sup>9</sup> And they have to keep on believing God's message about Jesus, the message that we told you. That will help a leader teach true and right things to the people. And then that will help the people to believe in Jesus more strongly. Some people say, "That message isn't true." But it is true, and a good leader can show those people that they are wrong.

Stop people from teaching wrong things

<sup>10</sup> You see, there are lots of people that don't do what God says. They talk about a lot of things that don't matter. They also try to trick people. They want people to believe what they say. They are the people that say that we Christians have to follow all the Jewish laws to get God to save us. <sup>11</sup> Those people teach things that are wrong. They trick whole families. And they only do that to get money from people. So you have to stop them.

* 1:4 2 Corinthians 8:23; Galatians 2:3; 2 Timothy 4:10

* 1:6 1 Timothy 3:2-7

<sup>12</sup> Remember what one of Crete's own teachers said, a long time ago. He said, "People from Crete are always lying. They are bad, like cheeky animals. They are lazy, and they eat too much food."

<sup>13</sup> The things that teacher said are still true. You have to talk straight to those bad teachers and tell them that they are doing the wrong thing, so that they will properly believe the true message about Jesus. <sup>14</sup> They have to stop believing in the old stories that people made up. And they have to stop listening to rules from the Jewish people and rules from people that have stopped going God's way. Those rules are just people's rules. They are not God's rules.

<sup>15</sup> You know, if people just want to follow God's way, they don't have to worry about people's rules. They are clean inside, so everything is all right for them. But nothing is all right for people that don't want to follow God's way. They can only think in a bad way. They don't know what is right and what is wrong. <sup>16</sup> Those bad people say that they know God, but they do the bad things that God hates. So those people show that they don't really know God. They shame themselves. They don't do what God says. They can't do anything good.

Teach Christians to do the right thing

<sup>1</sup> But Titus, you have to teach people the properly good things, so they will live the right way.

<sup>2</sup> You have to teach the older men to control themselves. They have to do good things so that people will respect them. They have to keep on believing in Jesus strongly. They have to love other people. And, if they get trouble, they have to never give up following Jesus.

<sup>3</sup> You also have to teach the older women to do the things that make God happy. Tell them not to say bad things about people, and not to drink a lot of grog, but they have to teach people good things. <sup>4</sup> Then the old women can teach the young women to love their husbands and their kids, <sup>5</sup> and to control themselves, and to only sleep with their own husbands, and not to do what married people do together with anybody else. And they can teach them to work hard at home, and to do good things, and to think about what their husbands want and agree with them. So people will see the things that the young women do, and they will not be able to say anything bad about God's message.

<sup>6</sup> You also have to teach the young men to control themselves. <sup>7</sup> You too, you have to always do good things. Then the young men will see you, and they will do good things too. You always have to teach the true message, and remember, your job is important. <sup>8</sup> The message you teach has to be right, so that nobody can rubbish it. Then your enemies can't say anything bad about you. Anyone that says bad things about you will shame themselves.

<sup>9</sup> And now I want to talk about workers and their bosses. Workers have to do what their bosses say. They have to make their bosses happy. Tell them, "Don't talk back to your boss, <sup>10</sup> and nobody can steal from your boss, but show your boss that they can always trust you." Then people will say that those workers are good. And people will respect that message from God about Jesus, and they will want to know more about him.

We are God's own people, so we have to do things that make God happy

<sup>11</sup> It's like this. God has shown us that he is very good to us. He made a way to save everybody. <sup>12</sup> He teaches us to say no to the bad things of this world. He tells us not to live a wild life. He tells us to control ourselves. He tells us to do good things that make him happy. <sup>13</sup> He tells us to do these things now, while we wait for Jesus Christ to come back. He is our God, and he is the one that saves us. He will come back, and he will show everybody in the world that he is really great. Then we will be very happy.

<sup>14</sup> Jesus died to save us from all the bad things of this world. He did that to change us into his own special people, like he properly cleaned us inside, and now we don't want to do anything bad, but we only want to do good things.*

<sup>15</sup> So you have to teach these things to all the Christians there, and teach them in a strong way. Tell the Christians to keep going strong for Jesus. And if they do anything wrong, tell them to stop it. Make sure they take notice of you.

Christians have to live properly

<sup>1</sup> Tell the Christians there to remember what we taught them, that they have to follow the government's rules. They have to follow the rules of all the government bosses, and they always have to be ready to do good things. <sup>2</sup> And tell them not to say bad things about other people. They have to be happy with each other, and not fight or argue. They have to go easy on other people.

* 2:14 Psalm 130:8; Exodus 19:5; Deuteronomy 4:20; 7:6; 14:2; 1 Peter 2:9

<sup>3</sup> You know, we were like that before we believed in Jesus. We did silly things too. We didn't do what God told us to do. People tricked us, and we believed things that were not true. And we wanted to do all sorts of bad things. We couldn't stop ourselves. If anybody had a lot of things, we wanted those things for ourselves, and we were angry with those people. We hated people, and people hated us.

<sup>4</sup> But then God did something to help us. He showed us how much he loves us. <sup>5</sup> God saved us, but he didn't save us because we did good things. No. He saved us because he felt really sorry for us. Then his Holy Spirit washed us so that we are really clean inside, and he made us like we got born again as new people. <sup>6</sup> You see, God sent Jesus Christ to die for us and save us, and then he properly filled us with his Holy Spirit. <sup>7</sup> God was very good to us, and he did all that for us. So now we are his friends, we are in his family, and we are sure that we will live with him for ever. So we can be very happy.

<sup>8</sup> That is all very true. I want you to teach those things strongly. I want you to be sure that people understand those things. Then the people that believe God's message will think more about doing good things. And those good things will help everyone.

<sup>9</sup> But make sure you don't argue with people about silly things. You know, some people argue about family groups from a long time ago. They argue about all sorts of old rules. Don't do that. It's a waste of time. It doesn't get you anywhere.

<sup>10</sup> Some people teach things that are different from God's true message. They get Christians to fight with each other, so you have to tell those people to stop. You might even have to tell them 2 times. And if they don't stop after you tell them 2 times, then leave them and don't have anything more to do with them. <sup>11</sup> Those people don't believe God's true message. They know that the things they do are wrong, but they keep on doing them anyway. They will not change.

Paul wanted to see Titus again

<sup>12</sup> And now, Titus, I want to tell you about some people that are with me here. Artemas and Tikicus are here now, and I will send one of them to help you. After he gets there, please try to come and meet me at Nicopolis town. I will stay there in the next cold weather time.*

<sup>13</sup> And you know Zenas, the lawyer, and his mate, Apollos. Those 2 men will be leaving your place soon to go on a trip. Please help them as much as you can. Make sure they have everything they need for their trip.* <sup>14</sup> And teach our people to do good things like that all the time. They have to help anybody that really needs things. When they do that, they will be doing something good with their lives.

<sup>15</sup> All right, I'm going to finish my letter here. Everybody here with me says hello to you, and please say hello to the people there that love us and that believe God's true message.

I pray that God will be very good to you.

The letter that Paul wrote to Philemon (The book in the Holy Bible called Philemon)

About this letter

Paul wrote this letter to Philemon about 2,000 years ago, more than 20 years after Jesus went back to heaven, and it is now in the Holy Bible.

After Jesus went back to heaven, God sent Paul to lots of countries to tell people about Jesus. Philemon was in one of those countries. He heard what Paul said, and he believed in Jesus. After that, Paul went to other places to tell more people about Jesus.

At that time, the Roman people were the bosses over all the countries where Paul went. They didn't like Paul telling people about Jesus, so they grabbed him and put him in jail. Paul wrote this letter while he was in jail.

In those days there were some people that had to work for no pay. They were like prisoners, but they were not in jail. They lived with the boss they worked for, and they were not allowed to go away from them. They were called slaves. You see, if somebody borrowed money, and if they didn't pay it back, they had to be a slave of the person they borrowed that money from. Or if the Roman soldiers caught some of their enemies, they might force them to be slaves.

Onesimus was a slave of Philemon, but one day Onesimus left him and ran away. After that, Onesimus heard Paul talk about Jesus, and he believed in Jesus. Then Paul told him, "You have to go back to your boss, Philemon." Philemon was a Christian too. So Paul wrote this letter for Onesimus to take with him, to give to Philemon.

Paul wrote this letter to Philemon, but we can learn from what Paul said to him.

Dear Philemon,

<sup>1</sup> I am Paul, and this letter is from me. I work for Jesus Christ. The bosses didn't like me doing that, so they put me in jail. Our friend Timothy is here too. He is helping me write this letter.

We are writing to you, Philemon. You work for Jesus, just like we do, and you are our good friend. <sup>2</sup> And we are also writing this to our friend Afia, and to our friend Arkipus. He is like a soldier for Jesus, just like me and Timothy. And we are also writing this to all you Christians there in the church that meets at Philemon's place.*

<sup>3</sup> I am asking God our father, and Jesus Christ our leader, to be good to you, and to make you feel happy and quiet inside yourselves.

Paul thanked God for Philemon

<sup>4-5</sup> People tell me good things about you, Philemon. They say that you believe in our leader, Jesus, and you love all God's people, so whenever I pray for you, I always thank God for you. <sup>6</sup> I ask God to help you know more about all the good things that Jesus Christ gives us after we join with him, and I ask God to help you tell other people about him, and tell them what you believe. That is what I pray for you. <sup>7</sup> I know, my friend, that you have been good to God's people. You have helped them, and you have made them happy. I know that you love Jesus and you love all God's people. That makes me very happy, and it makes me want to keep on working for God.

Paul asked Philemon to help Onesimus

<sup>8</sup> So I'm asking you to do something for me. You know, Jesus Christ says that I can talk strong to you, like a boss, and I can tell you straight what you've got to do, but I will not talk to you like that. I'm not telling you to do it, I'm asking you to do it. <sup>9</sup> You see, I love you a lot.

You know me, Paul, and you know that I'm an old man. I work for Jesus Christ, so the bosses here put me in jail. <sup>10</sup> And I'm asking you to do something for this man here. He is like my own kid. I told him about Jesus while I was here in prison, and now he believes in Jesus. I'm talking about Onesimus.* <sup>11</sup> You see, he used to work for you some time ago, but he didn't help you. But now he can help both of us, you and me.

<sup>12</sup> I love Onesimus so much that he is like a part of me. But I'm sending him back to you. <sup>13</sup> You see, I told the people here the good news about Jesus, and the bosses didn't like me doing that, so they put me in jail. And I know that you can't come here to help me, so I want to keep Onesimus here, to help me instead of you helping me. <sup>14</sup> But first I have to ask you about it. I don't want to do anything unless you agree. I don't want to force you to do anything. It's better if you, yourself, want to do it.

<sup>15</sup> Maybe God let Onesimus leave you for a short time so that now you can have him back for ever. <sup>16</sup> You can have him back again now, but not just as a work-man that you don't have to pay. Now he can be something much better than your work-man. He can be like your brother, and you can love him. I love Onesimus very much, but you will love him even more than I do. You see, he is your work-man, but you will like him more than a boss likes his workmen, because he is also your brother. You and he both belong to our leader, Jesus, so he is your brother, and you will love him a lot.

<sup>17</sup> Remember that I'm your friend, and we do things together. If you reckon I'm your friend, be happy to see Onesimus when he comes back to you, and be good to him, just like you are happy to see me, and you are good to me whenever I visit you.

<sup>18</sup> If Onesimus did something wrong to you while he worked for you, I will fix it up for you. If he has to pay you some money, I will pay that money for him. <sup>19</sup> This is me, Paul, writing this with my own hand so you can be sure I mean it, I will pay that money back to you. But remember you already got a lot from me. I told you about Jesus, and he gave you real life.

<sup>20</sup> Yes, my friend, you and me, we both belong to our leader, Jesus Christ, so I really want you to help me. Then I will feel really happy. <sup>21</sup> Yes, I'm sure that you will always do what I ask you, so I'm writing to you like this. And I know that you will do even more than I ask you.

The end of Paul's letter

<sup>22</sup> Now I will tell you a bit about myself. I know that you mob are praying for me at this time, so I reckon they will soon let me go out of this jail. Then I will come and visit you again. So get a place ready for me to live in while I stay with you.

<sup>23</sup> Do you remember Epafra? He belongs to Jesus Christ, so they put him in jail here with me. He says hello to you.*

<sup>24</sup> And remember Mark, Aristarkus, Demas and Luke. They work with me here, and they say hello to you too.*

<sup>25</sup> I ask our leader, Jesus Christ, to be very good to you, and to be with your spirit too.

The letter that James wrote (The book in the Holy Bible called James)

About this letter

James wrote this letter about 2,000 years ago, about 20 years after Jesus went back to heaven, and now it is in the Holy Bible.

James was a young brother of Jesus, and after Jesus went back to heaven, James became a leader in the church in Jerusalem (see Mark 6:2-3; Acts 12:17; 15:13; 21:18; 1 Corinthians 15:7; Galatians 1:19; 2:9, 12-13).

James wrote this letter to the Christians in other churches to tell them how to be good Christians and live properly for Jesus.

These messages are very important for us today, just like they were for the Christians at that time.

<sup>1</sup> I am James. I work for God and for our leader Jesus Christ. I am writing this letter to all God's people that live in lots of places everywhere in the world. I hope you are all good and happy.*

If you get trouble

<sup>2</sup> Listen, my Christian friends, you might get a lot of trouble sometimes. You might get different sorts of trouble. But don't get upset about it. No, you can be happy about it, <sup>3</sup> because it will make you strong for God. You see, if you get trouble, and if you keep on trusting God, then you will become really strong for God, and you will stay strong, even if more trouble comes.

<sup>4</sup> Then, after you learn to do that properly, you will be really strong. You will not miss out on any of those things that make you a good Christian.

Ask God to help you do the right thing

<sup>5</sup> So if you want to properly understand what is the right thing to do, and if you want to learn how to be strong when you get trouble, just ask God to help you. He will not be angry with you. He is happy when you ask him for help like that, and he will help you and make you think properly. He will make you think the right way so that you will do the right thing. <sup>6</sup> But whenever you ask him, you have to believe that he will answer you. Don't think, "Maybe he will not listen to me." No, don't think like that. Anybody that thinks like that can't stay strong. They are like a bit of dry grass. The wind just blows it around and it goes anywhere. <sup>7-8</sup> If you are like that, it is like you are thinking 2 ways at the same time, and you will not be sure about anything. If you are like that, you can't think that God will help you at all.

Poor people and rich people

<sup>9</sup> If Christians haven't got much money, or if people don't think they are important, they can be happy, because God thinks they are important. <sup>10</sup> But the Christians that are rich can be happy too, because they know that they are not important. They know that they need God, and that he will save them. You see, money can't make people happy, and it can't stop people from dying. People are like flowers that grow in the bush. <sup>11</sup> At first they look good, but later the sun gets hot and those little flowers die, and they don't look good any more. That is a picture of people. Rich people might keep working to get more money, but they will still die, and then they will not have that money any more.*

Keep on believing

<sup>12</sup> If God lets people test you, to see if you trust him properly, don't give up trusting him. After God sees that you keep on trusting him, he will give you new life, so that you will live with him for ever. He promised to do that for everybody that loves him.

What makes us do wrong things?

<sup>13</sup> Whenever you feel like you want to do something that is wrong, don't blame God and say that he is pushing you to do something wrong. No way. God never pushes anybody to do wrong things, and nobody can trick God to make him do something wrong. <sup>14-15</sup> We do it to ourselves. Whenever we think about things we want for ourselves, and we don't think about things God wants us to do, we just trick ourselves. Then we go ahead and do wrong things. You know, if we keep on doing those bad things, we will die.

God is good to us

<sup>16</sup> Don't let anybody trick you, my Christian friends. <sup>17</sup> Everything that is really good comes from God in heaven. He made the sun, and the moon, and the stars, up there in the sky that give us light. You know, they move around, and they make shadows that move and change around. But God does not change, like those things. He never changes at all, not even a little bit. He always gives us good things.*

* 1:11 Matthew 13:55; Mark 6:3; Acts 15:13; Galatians 1:19

* 1:11 Isaiah 40:6-7

* 1:17 1 Samuel 15:29

<sup>18</sup> He wanted us to be in his own family, so he sent his true word to us. And when we believed that word it was like we were born all over again. That's how he made us his really special people.

Listen to God and do everything he says

<sup>19</sup> Listen, my Christian friends, you have to be ready to listen to other people, and you have to stop and think before you say anything yourself. Stop and think before you get angry. <sup>20</sup> If you are angry, you can't do the good things that God wants you to do. <sup>21</sup> So you have to stop doing all those things that are dirty and wrong. You have to listen properly to the word from God, that he put right inside you, and you have to do what it says. Don't think that you are so good that you don't need God's word. No. You have to do what it says, then that word will save you.

<sup>22</sup> And don't just listen to that word from God, but you have to do everything it says too. If you don't do the things it says, you will just trick yourself. <sup>23-24</sup> Don't be like a man that looks at his face in a mirror, but then he just walks away, and he forgets about it. He doesn't do anything to make himself look any better. Well, if you hear God's word, but you don't do the things it says, you are just like that man, because you forget that word, and you don't do anything to make yourself any better. <sup>25</sup> Don't be like that. You have to listen to God's word and keep on thinking about it. Don't forget it, but do everything it says. That word will make you free, so that you will do everything God wants. And God will make you really happy whenever you do the things he wants you to do.

<sup>26</sup> You might go to church and think you are really good, but if you can't stop yourself from saying bad things, you are really just tricking yourself, and going to church for nothing. <sup>27</sup> And God also wants you to look after people that need help. He wants you to look after people that haven't got any money to buy food, like kids that haven't got a mother or a father, or women whose husbands have died. If you do that sort of thing, God will be happy with you. But God will not be happy with you if you just look after yourself, like the people that belong to this world do.

and you believe in him. So you have to be good to everybody. You have to treat everybody the same way. <sup>2</sup> Suppose one man comes to your meeting wearing really pretty clothes and gold rings on his fingers, and another poor man comes wearing old rubbish clothes. <sup>3-4</sup> Maybe you look at the man with pretty clothes and think to yourself, "He has got a lot of money." So you are good to him, and you say to him, "Here is a really good seat for you." But you are hard on the poor man, and you say to him, "You can stand over there," or you say, "You can sit on the ground." If you are like that, you make yourself like a bad judge, and that is wrong. Don't think that way about people. You have to be good to everybody, people that have money, and people that don't have money.

<sup>5</sup> Listen to me, my good Christian friends. God picks out poor people, and he helps them to trust him properly. He promises to give them a good place in his family. He promises that to everybody that loves him. In the end those poor people will be really rich. <sup>6</sup> So, if you rubbish poor people, you are wrong. Think about this. Who is hard on you? What people take you to court? Do poor people do that, or rich people? Rich people do it. <sup>7</sup> And they talk against Jesus Christ. You belong to Jesus Christ, but they rubbish him.

<sup>8</sup> You know, there is a really important law in God's book. It says, "Love other people, just like you love yourself."

If you do that, you are doing the right thing.* <sup>9</sup> But if you are good to some people but hard on other people, you are doing the wrong thing. You are not following that law. <sup>10</sup> Now think about God's laws. If you don't follow all of God's laws, you are guilty. Suppose one man does everything in those laws except that he breaks one law, that man is guilty. Suppose another man breaks all those laws, he is guilty too. They are both guilty. <sup>11</sup> It is like this. One of God's laws is,

"Don't sleep with anyone that is not your wife or your husband, as if you are married to them."

And another law is,

"Don't kill anybody."

Suppose you didn't sleep with the wrong person, but you did kill somebody, you are guilty anyway, because you didn't follow all of God's laws.*

<sup>12</sup> God will judge us, and he will use the law that tells us to love other people. So

* 2:8 Leviticus 19:18

* 2:11 Exodus 20:13-14; Deuteronomy 5:17-18

before you say anything, and before you do anything, you have to think about that law from God. That is the law that makes us free so that we can do whatever is right. <sup>13</sup> Later on, God will judge you. And if you don't feel sorry for other people now, then God will not feel sorry for you. But if you feel sorry for them now, and if you are good to them, God will feel sorry for you later on, when he judges you, and he will be good to you. You see, people that are sorry for other people don't have to worry about God judging them.

Believe in Jesus and do the right things too

<sup>14</sup> My Christian friends, it is no good for you to say that you believe in Jesus Christ if you don't do the things that he wants you to do. If you reckon you believe, but you don't do the things he wants, you can't think that God will save you. <sup>15</sup> If there is another Christian that is hungry and needs food, and is cold and needs some clothes, <sup>16</sup> you can't just talk to them and not give them anything. You can't just say, "Don't worry. I hope you get something to eat, and I hope you get some clothes to wear." You see, if you don't do anything to help them, you don't do any good at all. <sup>17</sup> So if you reckon that you believe in Jesus Christ, but you don't do the good things that he wants you to do, I reckon your talk isn't true. It is useless. It will get you nowhere.

<sup>18</sup> Maybe you reckon, "Some people can believe in Jesus, and other people can do the good things that Jesus says to do." I answer you like this, "If you don't do the things that Jesus says, you can't show me that you believe in him. But whenever I do the good things he tells me to do, I show you that I do believe in him." <sup>19</sup> You believe that there is only one God. That's good, but even the bad spirits believe that. They believe that there is only one God, and if they think about him, they get really frightened of him. They get so frightened that they shake.

<sup>20-23</sup> If you don't do the things that Jesus says, it is no good to say that you believe in him. If you don't know much, and if you want to argue with me, just think about the story of Abraham, our grand-father that lived a long time ago. God told Abraham to give him his son Isaac. To do that, Abraham had to kill Isaac, and burn his body on a table made of stones. Abraham believed that somehow God would make it end up all right, so he started to do that hard thing that God said. He was going to kill Isaac. But just then, God told him to stop. You see, God says this in his book, "Abraham believed what God said, so God was really happy with him, and told him, 'You believe me, so now I'm saying you are properly good, like you never did anything wrong.'"* And that is how it happened.

In another place it says that Abraham not only believed God, but he also did that hard thing God told him to do, so Abraham was a friend of God. <sup>24</sup> We can learn from that story about Abraham. If people believe God so much that they do whatever he says, like Abraham did, then God will say they are all right. But he will not say that to people that don't do what he says, even if they reckon they believe in God.

<sup>25</sup> And think about that story about Rahab. She was a bad woman that used to sleep with any man that paid her money, like he was her husband. But one day, Israel's enemies were looking for 2 men from Israel, and those 2 men asked Rahab to help them. So she hid them in her house until their enemies went past, and then she told them which way to run to get away. She helped those 2 men, so God was happy with her. Later on, a lot of Israel soldiers attacked that town, but God saved Rahab, and they didn't kill her.*

<sup>26</sup> It is like this. If a person's body doesn't breathe, it is no good. That person is dead. In the same way, if you say you believe in Jesus, but you don't do the things God wants you to do, you are no good as a Christian. It is like you are dead.

3

Teachers need to be careful and teach properly

<sup>1-2</sup> My Christian friends, don't all of you try to be teachers of God's word. Only the right people can do that. You see, God will judge us all, and if you teach people something that is wrong, God might punish you a lot. It is like this, all of us make mistakes, and we get trouble from those mistakes. But if we teach people, and if we make a mistake so that we teach them something that is wrong, we will get really big trouble from that. It is hard for us to control our tongues so that we say everything properly. If you can control your tongue, you are properly good, and you can control all of your body.

<sup>3</sup> Think about the people that ride horses. They put a little bit of iron in the horse's mouth, and they tie ropes to it, then they use that bit of iron to turn the whole horse around, and they steer it wherever they want it to go. <sup>4</sup> And think about ships. They are like that too. A ship is very big, but its driver can use the little rudder at the back to steer it around. Even if strong winds want to blow it one way, that driver can steer it another way using that little rudder. <sup>5</sup> Well, those are pictures of our tongues. Our tongues are only little, like that bit of iron and that little rudder. Yes, our tongues are little, but if we use them to talk up big and tell people that we are really good, they will do a lot of damage.

* 2:20-23 Genesis 15:6; 2 Chronicles 20:7; Isaiah 41:8

* 2:25 Joshua 2:1-21; Hebrews 11:31

Think about fire. A very little spark can start a fire, and then it can burn up a lot of bush. <sup>6</sup> In the same way each of us has a little tongue, and it is like a little spark of fire inside us. It can say really bad things, and tell lies, and then that can make the rest of our bodies bad. Our tongues can make everything in our lives go wrong, like a spark of fire can make a big bush fire. The devil, the boss over the bad spirits from hell, he makes us say those bad things. It is like he uses our tongues to start that fire, and it grows like a bush fire, and it gets us into a lot of trouble. <sup>7</sup> People can control all sorts of wild animals, and birds, and snakes, and fish. They can make them quiet and train them to do whatever their boss wants them to do. <sup>8</sup> But nobody can control their own tongue properly. It is always saying bad things and hurting people, like it has poison in it, just like a cheeky snake.

<sup>9</sup> Sometimes we use our tongue to tell God that he is our good father, and sometimes we use it to swear at people. But remember, God made people to be like himself.* <sup>10</sup> Both good things and bad things come out of our mouths. But, my Christian friends, that's not right. <sup>11-12</sup> Do you ever find fresh water and salt water coming from the same water-hole? No, it is never like that. And you never find 2 sorts of fruit on one tree. So our mouths shouldn't say 2 sorts of things. We shouldn't say good things and bad things with the same mouth.

Think God's way, not the devil's way

<sup>13</sup> Do you reckon that you can think properly, and do you reckon that you know if something is right or wrong? If you do, you have to show everybody that you think properly by quietly doing good things for other people. If you do those good things, and if you don't tell anybody about it, you are thinking properly. <sup>14-15</sup> But if you only think about things that are good for yourself, and if you are jealous of other people, and if you hate other people, you are not thinking God's way. That's the devil's way. He is the boss over the bad spirits. You can't hide the way you think by telling lies about it, and by saying that you are really good. <sup>16</sup> You see, sometimes people get jealous of each other, and sometimes they only do things to make themselves happy, and they don't think about anyone else. Whenever that happens, those people start fighting each other, and they get into all sorts of trouble.

<sup>17</sup> But whenever we think God's way, we are like this,

- We keep away from doing anything bad.
- We want to make other people happy, and we want to help them to be friends with each other.
- We are easy on other people, not hard.
- We listen to people and let them get a fair go.
- We feel sorry for people that have problems, and we do everything we can to help them.
- We are fair to everybody. We don't treat some people good and other people like they are rubbish.
- We don't pretend that we are better than we really are.

<sup>18</sup> Whenever somebody teaches people to live the right way, like that, those other people stop fighting each other, and they start to be good to each other.

Let God be your boss, not the devil

<sup>1</sup> Why do you always fight and argue with each other? I'll tell you why. It is because you only think about things that you want for yourself, to make yourself happy, and you don't care about anyone else. So you fight everyone else to get the things you want. <sup>2</sup> You think you really want something a lot, and if you can't get it, you argue and fight for it. You try to work out ways to trick people, or maybe even kill people, just to get something you want. But you don't ask God for it, and that's why you don't get it. <sup>3</sup> And even if you do ask God for something, he doesn't listen to you. He knows that you are just thinking about yourself. He knows you just want to make yourself happy, and you don't care about anybody else, so he doesn't give you that thing you want.

<sup>4</sup> If you are like that, it shows that you left God. You stopped following him and joined the other people in the world that hate God. They are God's enemies. So if you join up with people like that, you make yourself God's enemy. You ran away from God. You are just like a woman that leaves her husband and runs away with another man.

* 3:9 Genesis 1:26

<sup>5</sup> God says something important about this in his book. He says that he put his Holy Spirit in us, and he says that if we leave him and follow some other way, his spirit gets really upset. <sup>6</sup> And remember that God is really good to us. His book says this too,

"God is against people that think they are great, but he is good to people that know they are not great."*

<sup>7</sup> So listen to God, and follow him, and do what he says. Fight back against the devil, the boss over the bad spirits. Whenever he tries to get you to go wrong, just tell him to be quiet, and don't listen to him. Then he will leave you, and he will run away from you. <sup>8</sup> But when you trust God, you go close to him, and when you do that, he will come close to you, and he will help you. So you have to stop doing bad things. Don't even think about doing bad things. Don't think that maybe you will go the right way, or maybe the wrong way. No, forget the wrong way, and just go the right way. <sup>9</sup> Stop laughing about the bad things you did. Cry about them instead. You went wrong, so be sad, not happy. <sup>10</sup> Tell God that you are sorry. Tell him that you know that you are weak, and that you are not important. If you do that, he will tell you that you are important, and he will make you strong.

Don't make yourself the judge of other people

<sup>11</sup> My Christian friends, don't say bad things about each other or rubbish each other. If you rubbish other people, it is like you reckon you are their judge. But God's law says that you have to love other people, so if you rubbish them, you are really saying that you think God's law is wrong. But you are not a judge, so you can't say that God's law is wrong. Your job is to do whatever God's law says. <sup>12</sup> God made his law, and he is the only judge. He is the only one that can blame anybody. He can save somebody, or he can kill somebody. But you can't do that. You are not God, so you can't make yourself a judge and rubbish other people.

Don't talk up big about something you want to do

<sup>13</sup> Listen. Some of you talk like this, you say, "Tomorrow we will go to that town over there, and we will buy things for a little bit of money, and then we will sell them for a lot of money. We will keep on doing that for a year. That's how we will get plenty of money to keep for ourselves." <sup>14</sup> You talk like that. You say, "Tomorrow," but you don't know what will happen tomorrow. Will you still be alive tomorrow? You know, your life is like a puff of smoke, it doesn't last long. You are alive today, but maybe tomorrow you will die.*

<sup>15-16</sup> So don't talk up big about something you will do tomorrow, but instead you have to talk like this, "If God wants us to, we will keep on living, and we will go and do that thing." It is wrong to forget God and talk up big about something before you do it.

<sup>17</sup> You see, if you know the right thing to do, but you don't do it, it is just the same for you as if you did something wrong.

5

God will punish people that cheat to make themselves rich

<sup>1</sup> Now I'm talking to rich people that cheated people to get money for themselves. You mob listen to me. You are going to get big trouble, so you can start to cry right now, and you can be really sad. <sup>2-3</sup> All your money and clothes, and those things you got for yourself, they will all become useless. They will rot away. Or they will rust away. Or white ants will eat them. God will see that rusty rotten mess, and he will say that you are too greedy, and he will punish you with big trouble. It will be like a fire burning up your body. You thought you could keep all that stuff for a long time, but you will not have it for very long.* <sup>4</sup> You cheated to get that money. You got men to work on your farm, and they cut down the food crop that grew there, and they brought all that food to you. But you didn't pay them for that work. You sent them away with no pay. Then they cried about it, and our God heard them. He is very strong, and he can see that you cheated them. God can see their money. It is still in your pocket. So God will make big trouble for you.*

<sup>5-6</sup> While you lived here on this earth, you killed good people that couldn't fight back. You lied and said they were guilty,

* 4:6 Proverbs 3:34

* 4:14 Proverbs 27:1

* 5:2-3 Matthew 6:19

* 5:4 Deuteronomy 24:14-15

and then you killed them. While you were doing that, you got everything you wanted, and you had plenty to eat. You are fat now, but look out. God will kill you. Think about a farmer and his cow. He feeds that cow a lot of grass and makes it fat, then he kills it to get some meat. Well, that is a picture of you. You are fat now, but God will kill you.

Christians, don't give up

<sup>7-8</sup> Now I'm talking to you Christian people. You have to wait for our leader, Jesus, to come back, so don't give up. Think about farmers. They plant their food crops, and then they just wait for the rain to come and make the plants grow, so that in the end, the farmers will get lots of food from those plants. Well, you have to wait, just like they do. Don't give up. Our leader, Jesus, will come back soon.

<sup>9</sup> My Christian friends, don't complain about each other, or God will judge you and say that you are wrong. He is the big judge, and he is coming soon. He is nearly here already.

<sup>10</sup> My Christian friends, remember the stories from a long time ago. Think about the people that told God's messages to people. They kept going, even if people didn't believe them, and if people gave them a lot of trouble. <sup>11</sup> They didn't give up, so now we respect them, and we say they were good people. Remember the story about Job. He was a good man, but he got a lot of trouble. But he kept on following God, and in the end, God made everything good for him. So we know that God always feels sorry for his people when they get trouble, and he will be very good to them.*

<sup>12</sup> And there is another thing that I want to say, my friends, and it is very important. Whenever you promise something, don't say, "God is the boss over heaven and earth, and if I don't do what I promise, he will punish me." Don't say anything like that. You see, if you say that, and then don't do what you promised, then God will say that you are guilty. So just tell the true story. Say yes when that is true, or no when that is true, and don't say anything more.*

This is how to pray

<sup>13</sup> Have any of you got trouble? You have to keep on praying about it. Or are any of you happy? You can sing to God to say thank you to him and to tell everybody that God is really good. <sup>14</sup> Are any of you sick?

You have to ask the leaders of the church to come to you and pray for you. They can ask for Jesus's power to make you better, and they can put some olive oil on you while they pray.* <sup>15</sup> Whenever somebody prays and really trusts God to make a sick person better, God will do what they are asking him to do. Jesus, our leader, will make that sick person good again. And if they got sick because they did something wrong, God will not punish them any more for doing that bad thing.

<sup>16</sup> So whenever you go wrong and do bad things, don't try to say that you are still good. No. Tell each other the true story about the bad things that you did. Then you can pray for each other, so that God can make you good again. Whenever a good person prays to God about something, then God uses his power and does whatever that good person asks for. <sup>17</sup> Think about the story about Elijah. He was just a person, like us, but he prayed and asked God to stop the rain, and God did that. It didn't rain at all for the next 3½ years.* <sup>18</sup> Then Elijah asked God to send rain again, and God did that. A lot of rain came down, and then the food plants started to grow again.*

<sup>19-20</sup> Listen, my Christian friends, suppose a Christian starts to forget about God's true words, and that person goes the wrong way. And suppose somebody else talks to them and gets them to come back to the right way. Then God will go easy on the person that went the wrong way. He will not punish them for all the bad things they did, and he will not finish them up for ever. You see, the person that gets them to come back does a lot of good. So that is the sort of thing you have to do.*

The 1st letter that Peter wrote (The book in the Holy Bible called 1 Peter) About this letter

Peter was one of Jesus's 12 special workers. He went everywhere with Jesus and knew him well.

Peter wrote 2 letters that are now in the Holy Bible. This is the 1st letter. He wrote it about 2,000 years ago, about 30 years after Jesus went back to heaven. He sent it to Christians that lived in lots of different places.

At that time there were people that kept on making trouble for Christians. Some people were hurting the Christians, and some were even killing them. Lots of Christians were very frightened and sad.

Peter wanted those Christians to be brave, not frightened. So he wrote this letter to help them be strong and happy. He didn't want them to stop following Jesus. He got them to remember that God is great and always takes good care of his people.

Peter didn't want those Christians to listen to anyone that was teaching things that were wrong. Peter knew that Jesus will come back again, and he wanted those Christians to be ready for him.

These words that Peter wrote to them have very important messages for all of us Christians.

<sup>1</sup> I am Peter, and this letter is from me. I am one of Jesus Christ's special workers.

I'm sending this letter to you people that God picked to be in his family. I'm sending it to you Christians in a lot of different places, called Pontus, and Galatia, and Capadoshia, and Asia, and Bithinia. You had to leave your homes, and now you live in those places.

<sup>2</sup> A long time ago, God, our father, knew you, and he picked you to be in his family. His spirit picked you out from other people to make you his special people. You listened to Jesus's words, and you did whatever he said. Jesus died and his blood came out, and it is like God put that blood of Jesus on you to make you clean.

I'm asking God to be properly good to you, and to make you feel really happy and quiet inside yourselves.

God keeps good things for us

<sup>3</sup> God is very good to us. We went wrong, but he feels sorry for us, and he is good to us. Now he puts new life in us, like we get born all over again. Jesus died, but God brought him back to life. From that we know that God will save us too. So let us thank God, the father of our leader, Jesus, and say that he is really good. <sup>4</sup> We are his family, so he will give us a lot of good things. He has them all ready in heaven for us, so now we just wait for those things. God looks after them all there for us in heaven. They will never rot or get dirty there, and nobody can ever mess them up. <sup>5</sup> God has a lot of power, and he looks after us, all of us that trust him. He will look after us until the last day. Then he will show everyone that he saved us.

<sup>6</sup> So think about all that, and you will get really happy. You might get different sorts of trouble now, and you might be sad for a little while, but think about the things that will happen later, and you will be really happy. In the end God will save you from those troubles.

<sup>7</sup> You know about gold. It is very special. People put that gold into a fire to make it really clean. The fire makes it better, it burns away all the rubbish that isn't real gold. But even gold will not last for ever. It belongs to this world. Now think about the troubles that come to us. They make us better because they show that we really trust God. If we keep on trusting him, God will say, "You are very special to me. You are much more special to me than gold." So keep on trusting God, and after Jesus comes again, God will talk to you like that, and he will make you important.

<sup>8-9</sup> You never saw Jesus, but you love him. You can't see him now, but you trust him. You are trusting God, and he is saving you, so you are really happy. You are so happy you can't properly say how happy you are.

<sup>10-11</sup> A long time ago, the men that brought God's messages told people about God. They said that he is good, and that he saves us. At that time, they wanted to find out more about God saving people, so they carefully tried to find out more about the man that God promised to send to save people, called the Christ. The spirit of Jesus Christ was in them and showed them that at first the Christ was going get big trouble, and he was going to die. But after that, God would make him really important. So they wanted to know who the Christ was and when he was going to come. <sup>12</sup> His spirit told them that the message wasn't for themselves, but it was for you. That all happened a long time ago, and now God's people have told you that good message about Jesus. The Holy Spirit from heaven gave them power to talk to you.

This is all very wonderful. Even God's angels in heaven don't know all about the things that God does to save people, and they want to find out more.

Stay away from things that are bad

<sup>13</sup> So you have to think about it more clearly and be careful about everything you do. Keep waiting for Jesus to come, and get ready for him. God will show him to everybody, and he will be very good to you at that time.

<sup>14</sup> In the past, you didn't know that God was good. So at that time you did all the bad things you wanted to do. But now you are God's kids. So you have to stop doing those bad things, <sup>15</sup> and you have to be properly good and right, just like God. He picked you for himself. So you have to be good, just like him.

<sup>16</sup> You see, God's book says this, "God is properly good, and he keeps away from everything that is bad, so you have to be like that too, you have to be properly good, and you have to keep away from everything that is bad."*

<sup>17</sup> You know that God is our father, and you pray to him. He looks at everything we do, and he treats us in a fair way. So you have to properly respect God now. You don't belong to this world, you are only living here for a little while, but later you will live with God.

<sup>18</sup> Your grand-parents and elders tried to teach you the way to live, but they didn't teach you God's way. That old way was useless, and you weren't free. But God has saved you from that wrong way. He paid a lot to set you free from that old way. Sometimes people pay money to get somebody out of prison and let them go free. But money doesn't last for ever.

<sup>19</sup> So God didn't pay money to set you free. He did more than that. I'll tell you the price he paid for you. You know the old Jewish ceremonies. You know that they pick a young sheep that has nothing wrong with it, and they kill it to give it to God. Well, that is a picture of Jesus. There was nothing wrong with him, and he never did anything wrong. But people killed him. He bled and died for you. That is the price God paid to set you free, and it is better than money, it lasts for ever. You see, you belong to God now.

<sup>20-21</sup> A long time ago, before God made the world, he picked Jesus to set you free. Then, later, Jesus came into the world. And now you know about him. You know that he died for you, and so you believe in God too. After Jesus died, God made him alive again, and God made him very great and gave him a lot of power. Now you can trust God and wait for everything he promised you.

<sup>22</sup> You listened to the true message from God, and you did everything he said in that message. Then God cleaned up your lives and you stopped doing bad things. So now you love each other. Well, keep on loving each other very much. <sup>23</sup> God gave you new life. It's not like the life you got from your mother and father. That life will end. But when you listened properly to God's message, he gave you new life, like you got born again. Your new life will not end, because God's word will never finish up. It lives for ever. <sup>24</sup> God says this in his book, "All people are like grass with pretty flowers, they are beautiful for some time, but then they die.

<sup>25</sup> But God's word will never die, it will last for ever."*

And that is the message about Jesus that God's people told you.

2

God's word makes you grow

<sup>1</sup> So clean up your lives and stop doing bad things. Don't tell lies, but tell the straight and true story. Don't say you are good if you are not. Stop being jealous of other people, don't hate them because they have something that you don't have. And don't rubbish another person. <sup>2</sup> Instead, you have to keep learning more of God's word. Think about little babies. They always want milk. It makes them grow and get strong. Well, they are a picture of you Christians. You have to keep wanting more of God's word, and it will make you believe more strongly, and then God will save you. <sup>3</sup> You already know that Jesus Christ is really good to you, so you have to live his way.*

We are joined to Jesus

<sup>4</sup> I will tell you a picture story about how people build a house out of stone. At first they put one good stone in its place. That stone is the important one. They join all the other stones together on to this important stone. Well, that is a picture of Jesus Christ and us. He is like that most important stone. Other people didn't want him, but God picked him to be the most important one. So come to Jesus, and join up with him. <sup>5</sup> Just like stones join together

* 1:16 Leviticus 11:44-45; 19:2    * 1:25 Isaiah 40:6-8

* 2:3 Psalm 34:8

to make a house, you join up with Jesus to make a special house for God, so he will live with you. And Jesus will help you do good things and make God happy, just like the men that look after God's ceremonies gave him good things to show him respect and make him happy. <sup>6</sup> You see, God says this in his book,

"Look, I picked out a person that is very special to me.

He is like that most important stone.

And I put him among my people in my special city called Jerusalem.

And if you trust him, you will always know that you are going the right way, and he will save you."

That's what God said.*

<sup>7</sup> And you mob do that. You trust Jesus. You know that he is important. But people that don't trust him don't know that he is important. God says this about them in his book,

"Some work-men built a house out of stones, but the work-men thought one of the stones was rubbish, so they chucked it away.

They were wrong. That stone was properly good, and now God made it the most important stone of all."*

<sup>8</sup> God says this about Jesus too, in his book, "He will be like a stone that people trip over, so that they fall down and hurt themselves."*

You see, people that don't trust in Jesus, they go wrong and stop following God. It's like they fall down and hurt themselves. They go wrong because they don't listen to God's word, and they don't do what it says. You know, God planned all that trouble for them a long time ago.

<sup>9</sup> But you are the people God picked out for himself. Together you work for him, like the men that looked after his ceremonies. You are his own family. God called you away from doing bad things, so you can do good things. It is like you used to live in the dark so that nobody could see you do bad things there, but now he called you away from that to live in his good light. So let's tell everyone that God is really great and really good.* <sup>10</sup> At one time you were not God's family, but now, you are his family. At one time you didn't understand that God is very good, but now you know that he is. He felt sorry for you, and he was very good to you. He saved you.*

Keep on doing whatever is right and good

<sup>11</sup> My friends, you belong to God. You don't belong to this world. Right now you are like strangers here in this world. So I'm telling you this really strongly. Sometimes you will really want to do something bad, like the people that belong to this world do, but you have to be strong and leave it. You will think, "I really want to do that bad thing," but then you will think, "My spirit is telling me that it is the wrong thing to do." So you've got to leave it. <sup>12</sup> You live in the same place with people that don't follow Jesus. So you have to make up your mind to always do things that are good. Sometimes people might tell lies and blame you and say you have done wrong. But if you always keep on doing whatever is right, they will see that you do good things. Later, after God comes to judge everybody, they will remember the good things you did, and they will respect him.

Do what government leaders say

<sup>13</sup> Our leader, Jesus, wants you to listen to your community leaders and government leaders, and do what they say. You have to do that for the biggest government boss, <sup>14</sup> and do it too for the other bosses, like police and judges. The biggest boss gave them those jobs, to punish anyone that does wrong. They also know about the people that do the right things, and they tell everybody that those people are good.

<sup>15</sup> God wants you to live the right way, and if you do that, nobody will have anything bad to say against you. Those people that want to blame you for no reason or tell lies about you, they will not be able to say anything.

<sup>16</sup> You know that you are free from that old Jewish law, but that doesn't mean that you can do things that are wrong. You belong to God, and you work for him, so you have to do whatever is right. <sup>17</sup> You have to respect everyone. And love other Christians a lot. And thank God and respect him for being good and great. And respect the big government boss too.

Be like Jesus

<sup>18-19</sup> Some of you are workers that belong to your bosses. Maybe your boss is good to you, or maybe your boss is hard on you. It doesn't matter. You have to listen carefully to your boss anyway and do what your boss tells you. Sometimes you don't do anything wrong, but your boss makes

* 2:6 Isaiah 28:16 * 2:7 Psalm 118:22 * 2:8 Isaiah 8:14 * 2:9 Exodus 19:5-6; Isaiah 43:20-21; Deuteronomy 4:20; 7:6; 14:2; Titus 2:14; Isaiah 9:2 * 2:10 Hosea 2:23 trouble for you or hits you because you are following Jesus. You have to respect your boss anyway and take it quietly. Don't try to do payback to your boss. Then God will be pleased with you, and he will say that you are good. <sup>20</sup> But if you do something wrong and your boss hits you, and if you take it quietly, that is just the way it goes. Everyone knows you did something wrong, so nobody will say that you are good for taking it quietly. But sometimes somebody might punish you for doing something good. You have to be like Jesus and take it quietly. If you do that, then God will say that you are good. <sup>21</sup> Jesus Christ did nothing wrong, but people hurt him and killed him. And God wants you to be like Jesus, and to live the same way that he lived.

<sup>22</sup> God says this in his book,
"He never did anything bad,

he never lied or tried to trick anyone."*

<sup>23</sup> People rubbished him, but he didn't rubbish them back. They hit him with whips, but he didn't talk to them in a bad way. No, he trusted God. God is the one that judges fairly.* <sup>24</sup> Jesus never did anything bad, but he died instead of us there on the cross. He took the payback for the bad things that we did. He died so that we can stop doing bad things, so that instead, we will do the right things. Jesus let them hurt him so that God can make us clean on the inside. It's like we are sick, but God can make us better.* <sup>25</sup> Before that, you were going the wrong way and getting lost like sheep. But now you have come to Jesus, and he looks after you and shows you the right way to live, just like a man looks after his sheep.*

3

This is about wives and husbands

<sup>1</sup> Now I'm talking to you women that are married. You have to think about what your husbands want and agree with them. Some husbands don't do what God's word says, but if they see you living right, they will want to come to God. You don't have to say a word, you just have to live right. <sup>2</sup> They will see that you are really good and that you listen properly to God.

<sup>3-4</sup> You women will be really beautiful if you live in a quiet way, and don't try to be important. If you are beautiful inside like that, you will stay beautiful for ever, even after you get old. But if you just do things like colour your hair and do it up, or if you have gold rings and necklaces, or if you have pretty clothes, you might think you are beautiful, but those things don't last for ever. So be quiet inside yourselves, and don't try to be important. God really wants you to be beautiful that way.* <sup>5</sup> A long time ago, the women that really trusted God were like that. They thought about what their husbands wanted and agreed with them. <sup>6</sup> Remember Sarah, a woman that lived a long time ago. She listened to her husband, Abraham, and she did what he wanted. She called him, "My good boss." So always do what is right, and don't be frightened of anyone. Then you will be like grand-daughters of Sarah.*

<sup>7</sup> And you men that are married, you have to do your part too. You have to respect your wives and take good care of them. Their bodies aren't strong like yours. But all of you are God's people, so God gave them life, just the same as he gave you life. So remember that, and be good to them and respect them. Then God will hear your prayers.

If people make trouble for you

<sup>8</sup> Now all of you listen to this too. Remember that you are all in the same family, so you have to think the same way about what is right. And you have to care for each other properly. Don't think you are great. Try to understand how other people are feeling and be good to them. <sup>9</sup> If somebody rubbishes you, don't rubbish them back. If somebody does wrong to you, don't do payback to them. Instead of that, you have to ask God to be good to them. God picked you to be in his family and to live like that. And if you are good to people like that, God will be good to you too. <sup>10</sup> God says this in his book,
"If you want to live well and be happy, don't talk badly about other people, and don't lie to them.

<sup>11</sup> Turn away from doing bad, and do good.

Don't make trouble.

Try very hard to live happily with other people.

<sup>12</sup> God looks after people that live the right way, and he listens carefully to what they ask him.

But God fights against those people that are doing wrong."*

<sup>13</sup> So if you want to do good, nobody will want to punish you. <sup>14</sup> But sometimes, even if you do what's right, some people

* 3:3-4 1 Timothy 2:9

* 3:6 Genesis 18:12

* 3:12 Psalm 34:12-16

will make trouble for you. If that happens, don't be frightened of them and don't worry about anything they might do to you, because God will be very good to you.*

<sup>15</sup> Always remember that Jesus Christ is the really important one. He is your good leader, so listen to him. People might say to you, "Tell us, why are you sure that God will do good things for you?" So you always have to be ready to help them understand why you are sure. <sup>16</sup> Tell them clearly, and respect them as you talk to them. Make sure you always live the right way, so you don't feel shame. Some people rubbish Christians, but if they see you doing the right things, they will feel shame about themselves.

<sup>17</sup> If you do something wrong, and then people give you trouble, that's fair enough. But it is much better to do good things, even if people give you trouble for doing those good things. <sup>18</sup> All of us have done wrong things, so we should die, but Jesus Christ died instead of us. He took the payback for the bad things we did. He never did anything wrong himself, but he died instead of us, so that we can go to God and become his family. Jesus died just once, but God remembers it for ever. People killed Jesus, but God's spirit made him alive again.

<sup>19</sup> Then Jesus went to the place where the spirits of dead people wait, like they are in jail, and he talked to them there. <sup>20</sup> They were the people that lived a long time ago, at the same time that Noah lived, but they didn't listen to God, and they didn't do anything God told them to do. They took no notice of him. But God wanted them to turn back to him, and he waited while Noah built that big boat. Only 8 people got into that boat. Then God sent a very big rain. Water covered everything, and everyone drowned. God saved only those 8 people that were in the boat.*

<sup>21</sup> That water is a picture of the baptism ceremony. Like the time our Christian leaders put us under the water to baptise us. They didn't do that to wash the dirt off the outside of us. No. It's like that water washed the shame from inside us. When we asked those leaders to baptise us, we asked God to make us clean on the inside, so that we will not feel shame any more. So God saves us and gives us new life. Yes, we can have new life because, after Jesus died, he came back to life again. <sup>22</sup> Jesus is now in heaven with God in the most important place, at God's right-hand side. All the angels, and all the bad spirits, and all the bosses everywhere, they haven't got as much power as Jesus. No. He is the strongest one anywhere. He has more power than all of them.

Live like God wants

<sup>1</sup> Remember that Jesus Christ got trouble while he lived on earth. Well, you will get trouble too, so get ready for it and don't get upset about it. If you get trouble because you belong to Jesus, that shows that you want to live God's way and don't do bad things any more. <sup>2</sup> It shows that you want to do the things that God wants. So whenever you want to do something bad, you have to turn away from it and live God's way.

<sup>3</sup> In the past you did lots of wrong things. You lived like people that didn't know God. You just did whatever bad things you wanted to do. You slept with people that you were not married to, and you did with them what a husband and wife do together. You got drunk. You went to wild parties. You showed respect for statues that people made. That was really bad. But you don't do those bad things now. <sup>4</sup> Some of your friends keep on doing lots of bad things, and they don't care about it. But you say, "No," and you don't do those bad things with them. So they are surprised, and they rubbish you. <sup>5</sup> But they will have to face God. He is ready to be their judge. He will judge everyone, people that are still living and people that are dead. He will ask them about the bad things they did, and they will have to answer him. <sup>6</sup> That is the reason why we told the good news about Jesus to people that are dead now. We told them the good news, then later their bodies died, like all people have to die because they did bad things. But we wanted them to trust in Jesus, so that at the time when God judges everyone, he will make them alive again, and they will live with him for ever.

Do good things for each other

<sup>7</sup> You know, God will finish up everything soon. So now you have to think clearly, and be careful about everything you do, so that you can talk to God properly when you pray. <sup>8</sup> And this is the most important thing you've got to do, you've got to keep on loving each other very much. Even if somebody does something bad to you, you have to love

* 3:14 Matthew 5:10; Isaiah 8:12-13 * 3:20 Genesis 6:1—7:24 * 4:8 Proverbs 10:12 them, and be good to them anyway, and don't do payback to them.* <sup>9</sup> If there are other Christians that need food or a place to stay, then share your home with them and don't complain to anyone about it.

<sup>10</sup> God has given each one of you different ways to do good for each other. He has given you the power to do them, so you have to do them properly. <sup>11</sup> If you can tell stories to people, then tell them God's story, and tell it clearly. If you can help other people, then let God make you strong so you can help them properly. Do everything properly so that when people see it, they might say that God is really great. If they know that you follow Jesus, they might thank God for sending Jesus to us. Jesus has really great power now, and he will have that power for ever. That's true.

We all get troubles

<sup>12</sup> My friends, you are following Jesus, and from that you are getting trouble. Don't be surprised about it. God lets you get that trouble to show that you really trust Jesus. <sup>13</sup> You are getting trouble just like Jesus got trouble, so be happy. Don't be sad. Then on the day that Jesus comes back and shows everyone that he is really great, you will be very happy. <sup>14</sup> Maybe people are making fun of you because you follow Jesus. But don't worry, it shows that God is happy with you, and that God's spirit is with you. His spirit is great and has a lot of power.

<sup>15</sup> You know that people that do wrong things get trouble. Don't be like them. Don't kill another person. Don't steal things. Don't make trouble for other people. Don't do wrong things like that.

<sup>16</sup> But if people give you trouble because you follow Jesus, don't feel shame. No. Just thank God that you belong to Jesus.

<sup>17</sup> It is time now for God to start judging everybody. He will be good to some people, and he will give trouble to other people. He will judge his own people first. They might get some trouble now, but it will not last for ever. But later, he will judge the people that didn't want to listen to his good story. He will be really hard on them, he will give them lots of trouble.

<sup>18</sup> God says this in his book, "People that live right will get some troubles, but God will save them.

But what about those people that do bad things and never listen to God?

God will not save them.

He will punish them."*

<sup>19</sup> So if God lets you Christians get trouble, keep on trusting him, and keep on doing whatever is right. He made you, and he promised to save you, and he does everything that he promises to do, so you can trust him to do that.

5

This is a message for Christian leaders

<sup>1</sup> Now I'm talking to you Christian leaders. I am a leader too, and I was with Jesus Christ, and I saw him get trouble. I saw people blame him by telling lies, and I saw them kill him. But, later, he will show everyone that he is great, and I will be there too, and I will be happy there with him.

<sup>2</sup> You church leaders have to look after God's people. God gave you the job to look after them, so you have to do it properly, like a man with sheep looks after them properly. God wants you leaders to be happy while you do that job. Don't just do it because you think you have to, or because you want money. Do it because you want to help God's people.* <sup>3</sup> Don't be bossy. Instead, show them how to follow Jesus. You have to follow Jesus properly, so they will see the way you follow him, and they will follow him properly too.

<sup>4</sup> Then, later, Jesus will come back, and he will be happy with your work, and he will make you great, for ever. He is the leader of all of us, and he looks after us properly.

This is a message for young people

<sup>5</sup> Listen, you young people, it is like this. You have to listen carefully to your Christian leaders. Don't think you are great or more important than other people. Think about what God says in his book. He says, "God is against people that think they are great, but he is good to people that know they are not great."*

This is a message for everyone

<sup>6</sup> God is great and powerful, so remember that you are not important at all. Wait for him, and at the right time, he will get everybody to respect you.* <sup>7</sup> God loves you, and he is looking after you, so tell him about everything that makes you sad, or angry, or worried, and trust him to look after you properly.

<sup>8</sup> You have to think clearly and watch out for your enemy, the devil. He is the boss over all the bad spirits, and he is going around looking for people to trick. He is like a wild animal that is going around and looking for somebody to kill and eat. <sup>9</sup> Don't listen to him, but fight back against him. Trust Jesus properly, and keep on trusting him. Remember, you are not alone. All over the world your Christian friends are getting trouble, just like you are. They follow Jesus, so bad people give them trouble too.

* 4:18 Proverbs 11:31 * 5:2 John 21:15-17 * 5:5 Proverbs 3:34 * 5:6 Matthew 23:12; Luke 14:11; 18:14

<sup>10</sup> But trouble doesn't last for ever. After you have trouble for a short time, God will be good to you. He will make everything right for you and make you properly strong for him. He picked you to join you up with Jesus Christ. He did that so that, in the end, you will be very great with Jesus for ever. <sup>11</sup> God is very powerful now, and he will keep on being very powerful for ever. That's true.

About this letter

<sup>12</sup> This is just a short letter to you. Silas helped me write it. He is our good Christian friend, and he follows Jesus properly. I want you to be happy and strong, so I'm writing this letter to you. And I want you to remember that God is very good, so keep on thinking about how good he is. Then you will keep on trusting him.*

Hello from other Christians

<sup>13</sup> The people in the church here, in this city that we sometimes call Babylon, they say hello to you. God has made them his family, just like you. And do you remember Mark? He is here with me, and he is like a son to me. He says hello to you too.*

<sup>14</sup> Whenever you meet together, show that you are happy to see each other, because you love each other.

I ask God to make all you Christians happy and quiet inside yourselves.

From Peter

The 2nd letter that Peter wrote (The book in the Holy Bible called 2 Peter) About this letter

Peter was one of Jesus's 12 special workers. He went everywhere with Jesus and knew him well.

Peter wrote 2 letters that are now in the Holy Bible. This is the 2nd letter. He wrote it about 2,000 years ago, about 30 years after Jesus went back to heaven.

In this letter Peter told Christians how to become strong for Jesus. And he told them about people that reckon they were saying God's words, but they were lying. And he wrote about what it will be like in the last days of this world, before God finishes it up.

These words that Peter wrote have very important messages for all of us Christians.

<sup>1</sup> I am Peter, and this letter is from me. My other name is Simon. I work for Jesus Christ. I am one of his special workers.

You people believe in Jesus Christ, just like I do, so I'm writing this letter to you. Jesus helps us trust him, and that is really special for us. Jesus Christ is God, and he saves us. He is always right, and he is always fair.

<sup>2</sup> You already know God, and our leader Jesus, so I pray that you will know them better every day. And I'm asking God to be properly good to you, and to make you really happy and quiet inside yourselves.

God helps us live the right way

<sup>3</sup> You know, God is really powerful. He is very great, and very good too. He picked us out to be his own people, so we can get to know him properly. And he gives us everything we need to live the right way.

<sup>4</sup> And he promised us some very important things, and they are very special to us. He promised that we can think the way he thinks, so that we become really good people. He says that we can get away from bad things. We are not like the people that belong to this world. They want to do bad things, then they go and do those bad things, and they become bad people. But God says that we can get away from all that.

<sup>5</sup> So think about what I am saying, and you will know that you have to be as good as you can. You believe in Christ, and you have to keep trying to live his way all the time. This is what you have to do,

- you always have to try to do what is right, and you have to try to know God better,
- <sup>6-7</sup> and you have to learn to control yourselves too,
- and you have to learn to keep going strong, no matter what happens,
- and you have to be good to each other too, so that you will make God happy,
- and you have to love other Christians like they are your own brothers and sisters, and you have to love everybody else too.

<sup>8</sup> If you keep on living like that more and more, you will get to know our leader, Jesus Christ, better and better. And you will be a good worker that does a good job for him every time. <sup>9</sup> But if you don't live like that, it shows that you don't understand God's message properly. You are like blind people that can't see anything properly. It's like you forget about what God did for you. You used to do wrong things before, but God made you free from all that, and he made you clean inside yourselves. So don't forget that. Don't do wrong things again.

<sup>10</sup> My Christian friends, try hard to do all those good things. God picked you to be his own people, and whenever you do those good things, you show everybody that you really are God's people. If you do those things, you will never turn away from God. <sup>11</sup> Then God will be very happy with you, and he will make sure you live with him for ever. You will be in Jesus Christ's family. He is our leader, and he saves us.

Don't forget this message

<sup>12</sup> I will keep on telling you about these things, even though you already know them, and you know that they are true. I will keep on telling you about them anyway. <sup>13</sup> I reckon it's good for me to remind you about these things, and I will keep on doing it while I'm still alive in this body, so that you will keep on thinking about these things and you will not forget them.

<sup>14</sup> Our leader, Jesus Christ, told me that soon I will die. He will take me out of this body. <sup>15</sup> But while I'm still alive in this body, I will do everything I can to keep on telling you these things, so that after I die, you will always remember them.

Peter saw that Jesus Christ is really great

<sup>16</sup> Remember the story we told you about our leader, Jesus Christ. That was the true story. We didn't make up smart stories to tell you. We told you that Jesus is powerful, and that he will come back here to this earth again. We saw for ourselves that Jesus is very great, and we told you everything we saw. <sup>17-18</sup> It happened like this. Me and 2 other followers of Jesus, we went with him up on to a special mountain, and God the father, he showed us that Jesus is very great and powerful. God told us this, he said, "This is my son. I love him very much, and I'm very happy with him." Yes, we ourselves heard the voice of our great God. He talked to us from heaven, and he told us that message.*

The messages in God's book are true

<sup>19</sup> So now we can be really sure about the messages that are in God's book. We can be sure that they are true. A long time ago, God told his men to write those words in his book. You have to think carefully about those messages. They can help us understand the true story about God, like a light helps us see things in the night. Those messages will keep on helping you until Jesus comes back and he helps you know God properly. Then it will be like Jesus is a really bright light that shows us everything clearly, like the really bright star that shines in the morning, and then the sun comes up. <sup>20</sup> You see, those men that wrote those words a long time ago, they didn't think up their own stories. <sup>21</sup> No. They didn't write down their own ideas. The Holy Spirit worked inside them and told them God's messages. Those words came from God, and they wrote them down in his book.*

2

Look out, some people teach lies

<sup>1</sup> In God's book we read about his people a long time ago. Sometimes some liars started to teach God's people things that were wrong. They reckoned they were saying God's words, but they were lying. And the same sort of thing will happen now. There will be people among you that will teach things that are wrong. If you listen to them, you will go wrong, and it will be bad for you. Those people will even turn against Jesus. He is our leader, and he died to save them. And one day soon, God will punish them for that wrong thing they do. <sup>2</sup> Those liars will teach people to do bad things, and a lot of people will listen to them and do those bad and dirty things. And if people that are not Christians see that, they will rubbish God and his true way.

<sup>3</sup> Those lying teachers only want your money. So they will tell you tricky lies to get you to give them money. A long time ago, God said that he will punish them, and he is ready to do that. One day, he will properly finish up those liars.

God saves people that live his way

<sup>4</sup> Think about these stories from a long time ago. At one time, some of God's angel messengers did the wrong thing. They didn't do what God told them to do, so God punished them. He threw them down into the dark hole called hell. He is keeping them there now, and later he will judge them.

<sup>5</sup> At another time, the people in the world did lots of bad things and didn't live God's way. There was only one man that lived the right way. His name was Noah. He tried to tell all the other people to live God's way too, but they didn't listen to him. So God sent a big flood of water and drowned all those bad people. But he kept Noah safe, and he kept the 7 other people in his family safe too.*

<sup>6-8</sup> Then later, the people in the towns called Sodom and Gomorrah did really bad things. But there was one man there that lived the right way. His name was Lot. He saw all the bad things that they did, and he got really upset. Every day, he heard them, and he saw them do really bad and dirty things, and he got really upset. He was so sad that he felt sick. Then God judged those bad people in those towns, and he properly punished them. He burned up those towns, and he burned up all the people in them. They were just piles of ashes after that. But God saved Lot. God didn't burn him up. You see, God did that to show everybody that he will punish bad people that will not listen to him.*

<sup>9</sup> Those stories show us that God knows how to save his people. They are the people that listen properly to him and live his way, and he saves them from trouble. But when the day comes for him to judge everyone, he will punish people that don't live the right way. <sup>10</sup> Yes, God will really punish people that do dirty things. They think about wrong ways to get their bodies to feel good, then they do those bad things. They reckon they don't have to listen to any boss, not even God. So God will properly punish those bad people, even more than he will punish other bad people.

Lying teachers are like animals

* 1:17-18 Matthew 17:1-5; Mark 9:2-7; Luke 9:28-35
Genesis 19:24

* 1:21 2 Timothy 3:16 * 2:5 Genesis 6:1—7:24 * 2:6-8

Those lying teachers think they are better than everyone else, and they think they can do anything they want to. They even rubbish strong spirits. <sup>11</sup> Not even God's angel messengers do that. Angels are much stronger than the other spirits, but whenever angels stand in front of God, they don't talk against those other spirits or tell God to punish them.

<sup>12</sup> But those lying teachers are like animals that don't think at all, like the animals that people catch and kill. Those teachers rubbish things they don't understand, and they will end up dead, just like those stupid animals. <sup>13</sup> They do a lot of things that hurt other people, so God will hurt them. He will do payback to them. They think it's fun to do any bad thing that they want to do, even in the day-light. And whenever you Christians have dinner together, they join in with you, and they laugh about their lies and the bad things they do. Now think about a white shirt. If it just has a few dirty spots on it, people say that the whole shirt is dirty. Well, you good people are like that white shirt, and those people are like the dirty spots on it. There are only a few of them, but they do bad things, and they shame all of you. <sup>14</sup> They are always looking for a woman to sleep with, like a man sleeps with his wife. They do bad things, and they keep looking for more bad things to do. If somebody doesn't strongly trust Christ, those people will trick that person and get them to go wrong. They are really greedy, wanting lots of money and things. They are the sort of people that God says he will properly punish. <sup>15-16</sup> They left the right way and went the wrong way. They stopped doing good things, and now they do bad things. Remember the story about Balaam, the son of Beyor. He loved money so much that he did bad things to get it. Then God made a donkey talk to him with a man's voice. It told him he was going wrong, and it stopped him from being even more stupid. Those people are just like Balaam. They are stupid, and they go the wrong way, just like Balaam did.*

God will punish lying teachers

<sup>17</sup> Those lying teachers are useless. You know that a dry water-hole is useless, and so is a cloud that doesn't bring any rain. The wind just blows it away. That mob are just like that, they are useless too. God has got a place for those liars. It is a really dark, sad place, and he is going to put them in it and keep them there. <sup>18-19</sup> That mob teach with words that sound good, but they are useless. They say we are free now, so we can do anything we like. They say that it is all right to do bad things. That is what they teach, but it is wrong.

You know, there are some people that used to go wrong, but then they turned around and started to go right. But now those liars are tricking them and getting them to go wrong again. Those liars tell them that they can do any bad things they like, to get their bodies to feel good. Those liars promise to free people, but they themselves are not free. They can't stop themselves from doing bad and dirty things. It's like this. If somebody can't stop themselves from doing something, that thing is their boss and they have to work for it. So it's like those bad things are their boss. They are not free.

<sup>20</sup> Jesus Christ is our leader, and he is the one that saves us. At one time, those liars knew Jesus, and he helped them get away from the dirty things that the people in this world do. But now they are leaving him, and they are getting mixed up again with those bad things. Those bad things are now their boss, and they are worse off now than before. <sup>21</sup> God will punish everyone that goes the wrong way. He will even punish people that never knew the right way. But these people knew the right way, and then they turned back and went the wrong way, so God will punish them more than those others.

<sup>22</sup> People sometimes say these true words, "A dog gets sick and vomits up its food, but then it comes back and eats that same food again." And people also say, "You can wash the mud off a pig, but then it goes back and rolls on the muddy ground again." Those words tell us about those lying teachers. Those teachers are just like that dog and that pig, they turned back to the bad things again.*

God will judge everybody one day

<sup>1</sup> My friends, this is now my 2nd letter that I'm writing to you. Both of these letters are to help you remember things. I want you to think properly about these things. <sup>2</sup> I want you to remember the words from God that his men wrote a long time ago, and the words from Jesus that his special workers told you. They told you the things that God wants you to do. Jesus is our leader, and he saves us.

* 2:15-16 Numbers 22:4-35 * 2:22 Proverbs 26:11

<sup>3</sup> And this is very important, so I want you to understand it. These days are the last days of this world, and now some people will come and laugh at you, and they will say that you are stupid. Those people always do any bad thing they feel like doing. They laugh at God's true story.*

<sup>4</sup> They will say, "Jesus promised to come back, but where is he? He didn't come back. He said that powerful things will happen to this world, and he said that he will come back, and that God will finish up the world. But nothing has happened. Some of our Christian leaders have already died, but none of those things have happened. Everything just keeps going the same, just like from the time God made everything."

<sup>5</sup> Those people know the true story, but they don't want to remember it. They forget that God does lots of powerful things in this world. They forget that a long time ago, God only said words to make the sky and the earth. God said one word to make the sky, and then he said another word to make the land, and to lift that land up out of the water.* <sup>6</sup> Then later, God used a big flood of water to finish up everybody in the world at that time.* <sup>7</sup> And now God is saying his word again in the same way. He is telling the sky and the earth that he will judge them, and he will burn them with fire, and finish them up. That will be the day when God will judge everybody, and he will finish up all the bad people.

<sup>8</sup> But, my friends, don't forget this one thing about God. He can use time in a different way. God can make one day be like 1,000 years, and he can make 1,000 years be like one day.* <sup>9</sup> God is not slow to do the things that he promised to do. Some people think that he is being slow, but no, he is quietly waiting for you people. He doesn't want anyone to die for ever. He wants everyone to turn around. He wants them to stop doing bad things and turn to him. <sup>10</sup> But one day our leader, Jesus, will come back, and everybody will get a shock. You know how people get a shock if a robber comes while they are asleep and steals their things? Listen, Jesus Christ will come back suddenly, and people will get a big shock like that. The sky will go away with a very loud noise, and it will not be there any more. Fire will burn up everything in it. And God will finish up all the earth and everything on it.*

<sup>11</sup> Think about it. God will finish up everything like that. Then think about yourselves. You've got to be really good people. You have to live God's way, to make him happy. <sup>12</sup> You want Jesus to come back soon, so while you are waiting for that day, make sure you live that good way, so that he will come soon. Then, on that day, God will finish up everything. He will burn up the sky, and everything in it will melt away in that fire. <sup>13</sup> But don't worry. God promised to make a new sky and new earth for us. Everyone in that new place will be good. They will always live the right way and do good things. Yes, we are waiting for God to do that.*

<sup>14</sup> So now, my friends, while you are waiting for that to happen, try hard to always do good things, so that God will not blame you for doing wrong things. And don't get angry with anyone and don't fight, then when God looks at you, he will not see any trouble between you and anyone else. <sup>15</sup> Think about this. Jesus, our leader, is waiting. He wants to save people, so he is waiting for them. He is giving them time to turn back to him. But later, he will come back.

You know our Christian friend Paul. Well, God helped him to understand about these things, <sup>16</sup> and he writes about them in all his letters. Some things in his letters are hard to understand. Some people don't know much about God, and they are not sure about the things they believe. They talk about Paul's letters the wrong way. They turn Paul's words around so that they say something that is wrong. And they do that with other words in God's book too. When they do that, they make things bad for themselves, and in the end God will punish them.

<sup>17</sup> But, my friends, you know these things already. So be very careful. Don't believe the lies that those bad people say. Don't let them lead you away from God. If you listen to them, you might stop being sure about the true things. <sup>18</sup> Don't do that. You have to believe that our leader, Jesus Christ, will be good to you, and you have to believe it more and more. He is the one that saves us. You have to know him better and better all the time.

Everyone has to say that Jesus Christ is very great and good. Everyone has to always say that, now and for ever. That's right.

The letter that Jude wrote (The book in the Holy Bible called Jude) About this letter

Jude wrote this letter about 2,000 years ago, about 30 years after Jesus went back to heaven, and now it is in the Holy Bible.

At that time, the name Jude and the name Judas were 2 ways of saying the same name. The man that wrote this letter was probably Jesus's young brother Judas (see Mark 6:2-3), but he might have been one of Jesus's special workers called Judas (see John 14:22; Acts 1:13).

Jude wrote this letter to tell the Christians about some people that reckoned they were saying God's words, but they were lying. Jude told the Christians to be very careful of them, and to keep on living God's way.

These words that Jude wrote have very important messages for all of us Christians.

<sup>1</sup> This letter is from me, Jude. I work for Jesus Christ. And I'm a brother of James. I'm writing this letter to you people that God loves. God is your father. He picked you to be his people. He helps you stay strong for Jesus, until he comes back.*

<sup>2</sup> God is very good to you, and I pray that he will keep on being good to you more and more. I pray that he will keep on feeling sorry for you, and will help you be really happy and quiet inside yourselves. And I pray that he will keep on loving you very much.

Lying teachers try to trick people

<sup>3</sup> You are my very good friends. I really want to tell you about how God has saved us all, but instead I reckon I have to write about something else. You see, we are God's own people, and he gave us a true message that he will not change. You have to try really hard to keep God's true message safe. You can't let anyone stop you doing what that message says.

<sup>4</sup> I talk like this because there are some bad people that secretly came into your group. That mob don't want to do the things that God wants. Instead, they do all the bad things that they want to do. They reckon it is all right to do those bad things. They say, "God is good to us, so he lets us do these bad things." Whenever they say that, they are really trying to change God's true message. And they are turning away from Jesus, our only true boss. But God says in his book that he will punish those bad people.

Old stories from God's book show us that God punishes bad people

<sup>5</sup> I want you to remember what I told you before. Remember that God brought the people of Israel out from the country called Egypt. God saved those people then. But later, some of the people didn't believe in him, and he killed them.*

<sup>6</sup> And think about the stories about the angels, God's spirit messengers. Some of them didn't want to do what God told them. They took power that God didn't give them. They left their proper place in heaven. So God tied them up for ever and put them in a dark place. God will keep them there until the great day. Then God will judge everyone on that day.

<sup>7</sup> Also, don't forget the story about the towns called Sodom and Gomorrah, and the other towns around there. The people that lived there did bad things, like those bad angels. They always wanted to sleep with somebody, like husbands sleep with their wives, so they did that with people they were not married to, and they did it in all sorts of ways that were dirty and wrong. God is punishing those people now. He put them into the fire that doesn't stop burning. That shows us how much he will punish people that do bad things like that.*

<sup>8</sup> Those lying teachers are doing the same bad things. They say that God showed them things in their dreams, so they do bad things with their bodies. They rubbish God and don't respect his power. And they say bad things about God's beautiful angels.

<sup>9</sup> Michael is one of those angels. He is very powerful. But he didn't say bad things about the devil, the boss over the bad spirits. A long time ago, Michael argued with the devil about which one of them can get Moses's body. But Michael didn't think that he was so important that he could say bad words to the devil. Instead, he said to the devil, "God will tell you that you are wrong."*

<sup>10</sup> But that liar mob say bad words about anything they don't understand. They are like animals that can't think properly. They just think about what makes their bodies feel good, and so they do bad things.

* 1:1 Matthew 13:55; Mark 6:3      * 1:5 Exodus 12:51; Numbers 14:29-30      * 1:7 Genesis 19:1-24      * 1:9 Deuteronomy 34:6; Daniel 10:13, 21; 12:1; Zechariah 3:2; Revelation 12:7

And those things will wreck them. <sup>11</sup> Very bad things will happen to that mob of lying teachers.

Do you know the stories about Cain, Balaam, and Korah? Cain killed his brother, Abel. Balaam really wanted money and did bad things to get it. And Korah turned against God. God punished those men, Cain, Balaam, and Korah. Now that liar mob are doing the same wrong things, and God will punish them too.*

The lying teachers can wreck you

<sup>12</sup> You Christians love God, and you love each other, so you sometimes have dinner together. Those lying teachers come to those dinners. But they only come to eat and drink. They don't respect God, and they don't care about people. They only think about themselves. They are really dangerous. You know about rocks in the sea. You know that boats have to keep away from them, or they will wreck the boats. That mob are like those rocks to you. Keep away from them, or they will wreck you. They are useless. They are like clouds that don't have any rain. Those clouds are useless, and the wind just moves them along. Those lying teachers never do anything good. They are like trees that don't have fruit, even when it is the right time for fruit. Those trees are properly useless, so people pull them out of the ground. <sup>13</sup> And those lying teachers are like a storm in the sea. The water washes around, and a lot of rubbish comes up to the top of the sea. That rubbish is like a picture of all the bad, dirty things that mob does. And those lying teachers are like stars that moved away from their proper place in the sky. Those lying teachers don't do the things God wants them to do. So God made a dark, black place for them, and he will put them there, and they will stay there for ever.

<sup>14</sup> Remember the man called Enok. He lived a long time ago, not long after the first man, Adam. He said, "God will come with thousands and thousands of his own good angels, <sup>15</sup> and he will be the judge of everybody. God will punish all the bad people that don't respect him. They did bad things against God, so God will punish them. They said rubbish things about God, so God will punish them." He said those things about those lying teachers a long time ago.*

They are always saying that other people have done things wrong. But they do all the bad things they want to do. They say very good things about themselves and tell everybody they are important. But they only say good things about other people when they want to get something from them.

Things that Christians have to do

<sup>17</sup> But, my friends, you have to remember what Jesus Christ's special workers said. They talked about what will happen later. <sup>18</sup> They said, "In the last times, some people will laugh at God, and they will laugh at Christians. They will only think about the bad things they want for themselves, and they will do whatever bad things they want to do."* <sup>19</sup> That liar mob don't have God's spirit inside them. They trick you and get you to argue with each other. They break you up into different groups. They let all the things that belong to this world control their lives, and they do whatever they want to do.

<sup>20</sup> But, my friends, I know that you believe the message that comes from God himself. And you have to do everything that you can do to believe it more and more strongly. You have to help each other to believe this message. And you have to let God's spirit show you how to pray. <sup>21</sup> Always remember that God loves you, and live for him while you wait for our leader Jesus Christ to come back. He feels very sorry for you, and he is good to you, so he will let you live with him for ever.

Help people trust God

<sup>22</sup> Some people aren't sure if God's message is true. You have to feel sorry for those people and be good to them. You have to try to help them. <sup>23</sup> And some people are turning away from God and doing bad things. If they turn away and don't come back to God, he will punish them in the fire. So you have to try to stop those people from turning away from God. Then you will save them, like you will pull them out of that fire. Some of them do a lot of bad things, and they get a lot of trouble. You have to feel sorry for those people and try to help them. But be careful. Stay away from the bad things that they do. Those bad things are like dirt on their clothes. So be careful to keep away from them, just like you are careful not to touch dirty clothes.

God is great and powerful

* 1:11 Genesis 4:3-8; Numbers 22:1-35; 16:1-35

* 1:15 Genesis 5:18, 21-24

* 1:18 2 Peter 3:3

<sup>24</sup> All right, I'll finish my letter now. God can keep you safe so that you don't go the wrong way. He can make you good and clean inside yourself, so that there aren't any bad parts in you. Yes, one day, he will make you properly good, so that he can bring you close to himself. You will come near to the beautiful light that shines from him. He is very great and good, and you will stand with him. And you will be very, very happy.

<sup>25</sup> He is the only God. He gets our leader, Jesus Christ, to save us. So everyone has to always thank him and remember how great he is. He has all power. Everyone has to do whatever he says. He always had that power. He had it right from the start of time. And he will have all that power for ever. That is true.

From Jude

About this translation

This booklet uses the Plain English Version (PEV) of the Scriptures, an English translation of the Bible designed for Indigenous Australians whose first language is an Indigenous language. Its purpose is to convey the meaning of the original Scripture in English that is easy to understand and natural for them. We have, as much as possible, limited its grammar, semantic and rhetorical features to those common in Aboriginal languages, and its vocabulary to the English that is most widely used.

We have applied the principles of meaning-based translation, wherein we have sought to convey the same meaning that the original authors conveyed to the original readers. That means not just considering individual words, but also the message of the whole passage.

The following are some of the more common modifications that have been made:

- Where the grammar of the original has used the passive voice, we have used the active voice, since the grammars of most indigenous Australian languages do not have passive voice.
- Where the original text has used an abstract noun to express a concept that is fundamentally an action or a quality, we have usually used a verb or adjective to translate that concept, since abstract nouns are comparatively rare in Australian languages.
- Where the grammar of the original has used long and complicated sentences, we have conformed to the grammars of Australian languages by using shorter sentences, making other adjustments as necessary to retain the meaning carried by the grammar of the original.
- Where the original text has implicit or background information that would not be obvious to our target audience, we have made that information explicit.
- Where the original text has used a word or phrase, the literal translation of which would not be understood by our target audience, we have used an explanatory rendering to convey the same meaning, whether or not it involved more words.
- Where the original text has used figurative language that would be taken as literal by our target audience, we have stated the meaning of the figure rather than its literal form.

- Where the original text is not in chronological or logical order, we have usually adjusted the order of information.

At any one place in our translation we may have used a combination of the above.

The Christmas Story

The story about the mother of Jesus

Luke 1:26b-35, 37-38

<sup>26</sup> God sent Gabriel, one of his angel messengers, to Galilee country, to a town called Nazareth. <sup>27</sup> He went there to a young girl that was not married. Her name was Mary. Before that time, Mary didn't ever sleep with any man, like a woman does with her husband. She was promised to a man that was called Joseph. He belonged to the family of David, the man that was the big boss a long time ago.*

<sup>28</sup> Gabriel came to Mary and said, "Hello, Mary. God loves you and is good to you. He is here with you now, and he will do something good for you."

<sup>31</sup> Listen. You will soon have a baby boy, and you will call him Jesus.* <sup>32-33</sup> God will make him the biggest boss over you Israel people, like David, his grand-father that lived a long time ago. He will be very important, and he will be the biggest boss for ever. He will never stop being the biggest boss over the Israel people. And people will call him the son of God.*

<sup>35</sup> Gabriel said, "The Holy Spirit will come to you, and God's power will come over you and give you a baby. Your baby will be really special, and people will say he is God's son. <sup>37</sup> God can do anything. Nothing is too hard for him.*"

<sup>38</sup> Mary said, "All right, I will do whatever God wants. I want everything to happen just like you said."

Joseph had a dream

Matthew 1:18b-25a

<sup>18</sup> Mary was promised to a man called Joseph, but they hadn't slept together yet, like married people do. Then the Holy Spirit made a baby grow inside Mary. <sup>19</sup> Joseph found out that Mary was going to have a baby, and he was not happy. He knew that the baby wasn't his, so he wanted to leave Mary. But he was a good man, and he didn't want to shame her. So he thought, "I will just leave her quietly, without any argument."

<sup>20</sup> While Joseph thought about that, he went to sleep and had a dream. He saw an angel messenger from God. The angel said, "Joseph, you are from the family of David. Look, you can go ahead and marry Mary. Don't be too frightened to do that. You see, her baby is from the Holy Spirit, not from another man. <sup>21</sup> She will have a baby boy, and you will name him Jesus. (That name Jesus means God saves.) You see, he will save his people, so that God will not punish them for the bad things they do.*"

<sup>22</sup> That all happened just like God told one of his men to write in God's book, a long time ago. He wrote, <sup>23</sup> "There will be a young woman that has never slept with a man, like a woman does with her husband, but she will have a baby boy.

That boy will have a special name, Immanuel. That name means God is with us.*"

<sup>24</sup> Joseph woke up and did what God's angel told him to do. He married Mary.

<sup>25</sup> But he did not sleep with her, like a man does with his wife, until after her son was born.

3

Mary had a baby boy

Luke 2:1-7

<sup>1-3</sup> About the time that John was born, the biggest boss over all those countries was called Augustus. He sent a message to everyone in every country. He said, "The government bosses in every town have to write down everyone's name on a big list, and make them pay tax money." So everyone had to go back to their home town and put their names on the list there. (At that time a man called Quirinius was the government boss over Syria country.)

<sup>4</sup> Joseph belonged to the family of David, the man that was Israel's big boss a long time ago. David grew up in the town called Bethlehem, in Judea country, but Joseph lived in a town called Nazareth, in Galilee country. So Joseph had to go south to Bethlehem, to put his name on the right list. <sup>5</sup> Joseph took Mary with him. She was his promised wife, and she was carrying a baby inside her at that time.

<sup>6-7</sup> At Bethlehem they couldn't find any room to stay in, so they had to sleep in the place where the animals ate their food. Then the time came for Mary to have her

* 1:27 Matthew 1:18 * 1:31 Matthew 1:21 * 1:32-33 2 Samuel 7:12-13, 16; Isaiah 9:7 * 1:37 Genesis 18:14

* 2:21 Luke 1:31 * 2:23 Isaiah 7:14; 8:8, 10

baby. She had her baby right there, and she wrapped him up in bits of cloth, just like mothers always did. And she put him down to sleep in an animal's feed box.

Men that looked after sheep saw baby Jesus

Luke 2:8-20

<sup>8</sup> Not far away, on that same night, some men were out in the grass lands looking after their sheep. <sup>9</sup> Suddenly, an angel messenger from God stood there with them, and bright light from God was shining all around them, and they were very frightened. <sup>10</sup> But the angel said, "Don't be frightened. I've got really good news for you, and good news for everyone in the world too. <sup>11-12</sup> Today a young woman had a baby boy over there in Bethlehem, in the place where David grew up. Go there, and you will find him. He is wrapped up in cloth, and lying in an animal's feed box. Then you will know that this message is true. He is the one that is going to save you people. He is the Christ, the man that God promised to send to you, to be your leader."

<sup>13</sup> Then suddenly a big mob of other angel messengers came from heaven, and they all praised God. They said, <sup>14</sup> "God, you are really great there in heaven, and here on the earth, your people are quiet and happy.

You are really good to your people."

<sup>15</sup> Then the angels went back to heaven, and the men said to each other, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this baby that God just told us about." <sup>16</sup> Then they went quickly, and they found Mary and Joseph, with the baby boy in an animal's feed box, just like the angel said.

<sup>17</sup> After those men saw the baby, they talked to people about him, and they told them the message that God's angel gave them. <sup>18</sup> Everyone was surprised when they heard what those men said. <sup>19</sup> And Mary remembered their words, and she thought about them a lot. <sup>20</sup> As those men walked back to their sheep, they talked about how everything happened, just like God's angel said. They said to God, "You are really great." And they told everybody that God is great.

They named the baby Jesus

Luke 2:21

<sup>21</sup> You know, the law of Moses said that they had to do a young man operation on all baby boys as soon as they were 8 days old. So Mary's baby had that operation, and they gave him his name, Jesus, at that time. That's the name that God's angel messenger told Mary to call him, before she started to carry that baby inside her.*

Simeon and Anna met Jesus

Luke 2:22-38

<sup>22-24</sup> The Jewish law is like this, a woman's first baby boy belongs to God. And after a baby boy is born, the mother can't go into God's ceremony house or do any of their ceremonies for the next 40 days. It is like she is not clean. Then, after 40 days, she has to go to God's ceremony house in Jerusalem. She has to get a leader of the Jewish ceremonies there to kill 2 pigeons and burn them, and let the smoke go up to God. This will make her clean again for Jewish ceremonies. So Joseph and Mary went to Jerusalem at the right time to follow that law. They took baby Jesus with them.*

<sup>25</sup> There was an old man in Jerusalem at that time. His name was Simeon. He was a good man that lived God's way, and he was waiting for God to make the Israel people happy again. And the Holy Spirit used to tell him things. <sup>26</sup> Before that time, the Holy Spirit told him, "You will stay alive until you see the special man that God will send to save his people. He is called the Christ." <sup>27</sup> Then on the day that Joseph and Mary took Jesus into God's ceremony house, the Holy Spirit told Simeon to go there too, so he was there when Joseph and Mary brought Jesus in. <sup>28</sup> And Simeon took Jesus from them, and held him in his arms, and he thanked God, and said,

<sup>30-31</sup> because now I can see the one that you promised to send.

People in every tribe will see him, and he will save them.

<sup>32</sup> He will shine like a light for people that are not Jews, showing them new things about you, God. And he will get everyone to respect your people, the Israel nation."*

<sup>33</sup> Joseph and Mary heard the things Simeon said about Jesus, and they were surprised.

<sup>34</sup> Then Simeon asked God to be good to them, and he said to Mary, "This kid is going to ruin a lot of people in Israel, but he will help a lot of others. He will point people to God, but they will not understand, and they will argue against him. <sup>35</sup> When they do that, they will show

* 3:21 Leviticus 12:3; Luke 1:31

* 3:22-24 Exodus 13:2, 12, 15; Leviticus 12:6-8

* 3:32 Isaiah 42:6; 49:6; 52:10

everyone what they really think. And Mary, later you will be really sad. It will hurt, like somebody is stabbing you with a big knife.”

<sup>36-38</sup> While Joseph and Mary were talking to Simeon, a very old woman came along. Her name was Anna. She saw Jesus, and she thanked God for him. Some of the people there were waiting for God to send somebody to help the Jewish people. Anna told them about Jesus, that he is that special person.

Anna's father was Fanuel, and he belonged to the tribe called Asher. She was 84 years old. A long time before this, Anna was a young woman and she got married. But then after 7 years her husband died. After that, she stayed in God's ceremony house all the time, telling the people God's words. She prayed all the time, in the day time and at night, and often she didn't eat any food because she was praying.

4

*Some wise men came to Jesus
Matthew 2:1-12*

<sup>1</sup> Jesus was born in Bethlehem, in Judea country. At that time, the big boss over that country was called Herod.

There were some wise men in a country to the east of Judea. They always looked at the stars, and one night they saw a special star in the sky. So they went west to Jerusalem, the city in Judea country. <sup>2</sup> They asked the Jerusalem people, “Where was that baby born that is going to be the big boss over you Jewish people? You see, back in our country, we saw his special star. We saw it come up into the sky, so we came here, to show our respect for him. Where will we find him?”

<sup>3</sup> Herod was the big boss over that country, and somebody told him that these wise men were talking about another big boss. Herod got very worried. He thought this other person might fight against him and take over his job. A lot of other people in Jerusalem were worried about it too. <sup>4</sup> So Herod had a meeting with the bosses of the Jewish ceremonies and the Jewish law teachers, and he asked them, “Where will that baby be born? You know, the Christ, the man that God promised to send?”

<sup>5</sup> They said, “He will be born in Bethlehem, in Judea country. You see, a long time ago, God told one of his men to write about it. He wrote this in God's book, but it is a very important town, because a big boss will be born there. He will really look after God's people, the Israel nation.’”*

That's what those Jewish leaders told Herod.

<sup>7</sup> So Herod sent for those wise men to come and meet him, but he didn't tell anyone else about the meeting. He asked them, “When did you first see that star?”
<sup>8</sup> So they told him when they first saw it.

Then he said to them, “Go to Bethlehem and look carefully for that boy. After you find him, come and tell me the place where he's living, so that I can go there too and show respect to him.”

<sup>9-10</sup> The wise men listened to Herod, then they started to go to Bethlehem. Then they saw that same star that they saw before, and they were very happy. That star moved through the sky, and they followed it until it stopped right above the house that Joseph and Mary were living in. <sup>11</sup> The wise men went into that house. They saw Jesus with his mother Mary, and they got down on their knees, to show him respect. Then they opened their bags and gave him some presents. They gave him some gold. And they gave him some powder called frankincense, to burn to make a good smell. And they gave him some rubbing medicine called myrrh, that smells good, like perfume.

<sup>12</sup> After that, the wise men had a dream. In that dream God told them not to go back to Herod, so they went back to their own country along a different road.

*The big boss tried to kill Jesus
Matthew 2:13-23*

<sup>13</sup> After those wise men went away, Joseph had a dream. He heard God's angel messenger say, “Herod will try to kill the boy, so get up and take Jesus and Mary to Egypt country, and stay there until I tell you to come back.” <sup>14</sup> So Joseph got up right then, in the middle of the night, and he got Mary and Jesus, and they left to go to Egypt. <sup>15</sup> They lived in Egypt until Herod died, and then they came out of Egypt and went back to Israel country. So it happened just like God told one of his men to write in God's book, a long time ago. He wrote,

“God called his son to come out of Egypt.”*

<sup>16</sup> At the time when Joseph, Mary and Jesus were going to Egypt, Herod waited for those wise men to come back, but they tricked him. They didn't come back to him. Then he got really angry. He remembered their story about when they first saw the star, so he sent his soldiers to Bethlehem, and he told them to kill all the little boys up to 2 years old. So they killed all the little boys around Bethlehem. Herod wanted to make sure that Jesus was dead.

* 4:6 Micah 5:2 * 4:15 Hosea 11:1

<sup>17</sup> That all happened the way God's man, Jeremiah, wrote in God's book, a long time ago. This is what he wrote, <sup>18</sup> "In the town called Ramah, a lot of women are really sad, and they are crying out loud.

They are the grand-daughters of Rachel.

They are crying for their babies.

Nobody can cheer them up,

because their babies are dead."*

<sup>19</sup> Some time later, Herod died. Then, in Egypt, Joseph had another dream. He heard God's angel messenger say, <sup>20</sup> "Get up and take Mary and Jesus back to Israel country. The people that wanted to kill him are dead now."

<sup>21</sup> So Joseph did what God's angel messenger told him. He got up, and he got Mary and Jesus, and they started to go back to Israel country. <sup>22</sup> But then somebody told him that Herod's son Arkelayus was the new big boss over the part of Israel called Judea, and Joseph was too frightened to go there.

Then he had another dream. God told him, "Go to Galilee country." <sup>23</sup> So he took his family up north to Galilee. He got to the town called Nazareth, and he stayed there. A long time before that, one of God's men wrote about this, and it is in God's book. He wrote,

"People will say that God's special man is from Nazareth."*

And that happened after Joseph took his family to live at Nazareth.

Jesus at Nazareth

Luke 2:52

<sup>52</sup> Jesus grew up to be a man, and as he got bigger, he became very wise too. God was really happy with him, and so was everyone that knew him.*

How to become one of God's family

This is a Bible study book to help people learn about God and what he wants for us. It will help you think about why it's good to be in God's family, and it will tell you how to join God's family.

Bible Study 1 What will God do for everybody?

After Jesus died and came back to life again, his followers told lots of people about him. One of his followers was Paul. Paul went around to a lot of places, and one day he went to a town called Athens to talk to the people there. Those people at Athens thought that there are lots of gods. Whenever people talked about that place they said, "There are lots of gods in Athens. There are even more gods than people in Athens."

Those Athens people did not know that there is only one true God. They did not know that he made everything - the sky and the ground too. Today lots of people are like that Athens mob. They do not know the one true God. They are lost, just like the Athens mob.

This Bible Study shows us what God will do for us and for everybody.

God's Word - Acts 17:22-31

<sup>22</sup> Then Paul stood up and talked to the council mob at Athens. He said, "I can see that you Athens mob think a lot about gods. <sup>23</sup> I walked around this city, and I saw a lot of statues that you set up, to show respect to a lot of gods. And I saw a stone table that you set up, and you wrote on it, 'This is for that god that we don't know.' Look, you don't know that God, but you show respect to him anyway. Listen, I do know him, so now I want to tell you all about him. I'll tell you about that God that you don't know.

<sup>24</sup> He is the God that made all the world, and he made everything in the world. He is the boss over everybody everywhere. He is boss up in the sky, and he is boss down here on the ground. So nobody can build a house big enough for him to live in. <sup>25</sup> And he doesn't need us to do anything for him. You see, he is the one that makes us alive, and he gives us our breath, and he gives us everything we need.

<sup>26</sup> At first he just made one man, then later he made all of us from that man. All of us in every tribe everywhere were born into that man's family. And God gave each tribe their own country, and he planned where they will live and how long they will live there.

<sup>27</sup> He did that so that we can look for him, and maybe we can find him. But really, he is not very far away from any of us. <sup>28</sup> That old story is true that says, 'He is with us all the time. He is the one that makes us alive, so that we can walk about and do things.' And even one of your own Athens people wrote something about him. He wrote, 'We are his kids.'

<sup>29</sup> So, if it is true that we are God's kids, we shouldn't just dream up something and then make a statue like that from gold or silver or stone, and say, 'My god looks like this.' No way. Nobody can make any sort of statue that is anything like God.

<sup>30</sup> You see, at first people didn't know about God, but at that time he didn't worry about it. Now it is different. Now he says to all of us, that we have to turn around and stop doing bad things. <sup>31</sup> And if we don't stop doing bad things, he will give us big trouble. He is going to have a big court, and all of us will have to stand in front of the judge. He has already set the date for that. It will be a fair court, and he has picked one man to be the judge. That man died, but God made him alive again. God did that to show everybody that he picked that man to be the big judge."

Think about these questions then write the answers.

1. Paul saw that the people of Athens thought a lot about something. What was it? (See verse 22)
2. The Athens people set up a stone table for one god. Who was that stone table for? (See verse 23)
3. Who did Paul want to tell them about? (See verse 23)
4. Look at verse 24 - what did God make?
5. We all belong to different tribes. Where did we all come from? (See verse 26)
6. We all belong to different tribes. How did God set things up for us? (See verse 26)

7. God gave each tribe their own country to live in and he planned how long they will live there. Why did he do that? What does he want us to do? (See verse 27)

8. Is God far away from us or is he close to us? (See verses 27 and 28)

9. Who makes us alive so that we can do things? (See verse 28)

10. Look at verse 29. What does it tell us that we shouldn't do?

11. Look at verse 30. What does God say people have to do?

12. God says to turn around and stop doing bad things. Who is he talking to? (See verse 30)

13. What will happen to people that don't stop doing bad and that don't turn to God? (See verse 31)

14. Who is the man that is going to judge all of us people? (See verse 31)

15. Look at verse 31 and also look at 2 Peter 3:9, which says:

"God is not slow to do the things that he promised to do. Some people think that he is being slow, but no, he is quietly waiting for you people. He doesn't want anyone to die for ever. He wants everyone to turn around. He wants them to stop doing bad things and turn to him."

Does God want us to die and stay dead for ever because we have done bad things?

16. Do you want to stop doing bad things and turn to God? If you do, why do you want to do that? Or if you don't want to stop doing bad things and turn to God, why don't you? Write here which way you want to go, and say why you want to go that way.

17. Think about the whole story to answer this question: What does God want all of us to do?

Bible Study 2

Jesus can save us, even if we are really bad

God loves us. Even though we all did bad things and we are really no good, he can save us anyway. And he can make us really live properly.

That is the message in the story about Zakias. He was a government boss, and his job was to get tax money from people and give it to the government. He often cheated people and took their money and kept it for himself. So people did not like him. But Jesus visited Zakias at his house.

And why did Jesus visit him? Because Jesus wanted to be his friend. You see, Jesus wants to be everybody's friend, so he came to save people. You know, we went wrong, and we do bad things, and we got lost, but Jesus can save us.

God's Word - Luke 19:1-10

<sup>1</sup> Jesus went to a town called Jericho. He went into that town and started to go through it. <sup>2</sup> A very rich man lived there. His name was Zakias. His job was to get tax money from the people and give it to the government, and he was the boss over some other tax men too. Sometimes tax men cheated people and kept some money for themselves, so nobody liked them.

<sup>3</sup> Zakias wanted to see Jesus, but he was a short man, and there were a lot of people around Jesus, and they got in his way and blocked him, so he couldn't see Jesus. <sup>4</sup> So he ran up the road ahead of Jesus and climbed up into a tree, and he saw Jesus from up high in that tree.

<sup>5</sup> When Jesus got to that tree, he looked up and saw Zakias, and he said to him, "Zakias. Come down here. And hurry. I want to go and stay at your house today."

<sup>6</sup> Then Zakias was very happy, and he came down quickly, and he took Jesus to his house. <sup>7</sup> But when the other people saw this, they were angry with Jesus. They said, "Look. He has gone to stay with a bad man. He shouldn't do that."

<sup>8</sup> But later, at his house, Zakias stood up and said to Jesus, "Listen, sir, this is what I am going to do now. I am going to split up all the things I own into 2 heaps, and I will give one heap away to poor people. And as well as that, I'm going to give money back to those people that I cheated. I am going to give them back 4 times as much as I took from them."

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesus told everybody there, "Listen. Today, right now, God saved this man, and everybody at his place too. You see, this man is one of God’s people now, just like Abraham, because he believes in me just like Abraham believed in God. <sup>10</sup> I am God’s special man from heaven, and I came to earth to look for people that went wrong and got lost, so that I can save them.”

Think about these questions then write the answers.

- 1. Who was Zakias? (See verse 2)
- 2. What did Zakias want to do? (See verse 3)
- 3. What stopped Zakias so that he could not see Jesus? (See verse 3)
- 4. What sort of things stop people from coming to Jesus today?
- 5. Think about this: Why did Zakias want to see Jesus? What do you reckon?
- 6. What did Zakias do so that he could see Jesus? (See verse 4)
- 7. When Jesus saw Zakias, what did Jesus say to him? (See verse 5)
—
- 8. In the story Jesus wanted to be friends with Zakias, so he told Zakias that he wanted to go to his house. You know, Jesus wants to be friends with you and me too. Do you want Jesus to be your friend? Or maybe not?
- 9. When Zakias heard that Jesus wanted to go to his house, what did Zakias do? (See verse 6)
- 10. The other people saw Jesus go with Zakias to his house. Why did the people get angry with Jesus? (See verse 7)
- 11. Some people said that Zakias was a bad man, but you know, Jesus loved Zakias anyway. That shows us that Jesus loves all people, even if they are bad. But what about you and me? Are we bad people too?
- 12. Zakias showed everyone that he wanted to turn around, and stop doing bad things, and start living the right way. What did he do to show that? (See verse 8)
- 13. Jesus said, “God saved this man, and everybody at his place too.” Why did Jesus say that? (See verse 9)
- 14. What did Jesus come to this earth to do? (See verse 10)
—
- 15. Do you want God to save you so that you get real life?
- 16. Think about everything Zakias did in that story. Zakias used to do bad things, but when Jesus talked to him, what did Zakias do? We all do bad things, so what does Jesus want us to do? (See verses 6, 8, 9)

Bible Study 3
A young man got lost but he came back to his father

Whenever people find out that they need God, God is happy and he loves them. No matter how bad they are at first, if they turn around, and they stop doing bad things and they come back to God, he is happy to have them back. He will say that they are not guilty of those bad things they did.

If you come to God like that, then you belong to his family and it is like you come home. But if you stay away from God then you are lost. So turn around and come back to God now!

God’s Word – Luke 15:11-24

<sup>11</sup> Then Jesus told the people another picture story. He said, “There was a man that had 2 sons. <sup>12</sup> One day, his youngest son said to him, ‘Dad, I want you to give me my part of all the things you own. I can’t wait until after you die to get it. No, I want it all now.’ So his father split up everything he had and gave one part to his youngest son, and he kept the other part for his oldest son.

<sup>13</sup> A few days later, that youngest son sold all those things that his father gave him, then he took the money and went away to another country, far away. In that country he soon spent all that money. He just wasted it on all sorts of things that made him feel good. <sup>14</sup> After a while, he had no money left. At that time, they got short of food in that country, and soon that young man had nothing to eat. <sup>15</sup> So he got a job with a man in that place. He had to look after that man's pigs. <sup>16</sup> That young man was so hungry he wanted to eat the rubbish food that the pigs ate, but nobody gave him anything to eat.

<sup>17</sup> At last he started to think properly. He thought, 'Those men that work for my dad in his garden back home, they always get enough food to eat. But I am getting so hungry that I reckon I will die in this place.

<sup>18</sup> So I will get up now and go back home to my dad, and I will say to him, "Dad, I'm sorry, I went wrong. I did the wrong thing to God, and I did the wrong thing to you.

<sup>19</sup> So now I'm not good enough for you to call me your son, so just let me have a job in your garden. I will work for you, and you can just call me your work-man." '

<sup>20</sup> So he got up and started to go back to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him coming along the road. His father felt really sorry for him. He ran to his son and hugged him and kissed him.

<sup>21</sup> Then his son said, 'Dad, I'm sorry, I went wrong. I did the wrong thing to God, and I did the wrong thing to you. So now I'm not good enough for you to call me your son.'

<sup>22</sup> But his father said to his workers there, 'Go and get some really good clothes and put them on him. And be quick. And get him a ring for his finger, and get some shoes for his feet. <sup>23</sup> And get a fat young cow, and kill it, and cook the meat, so we can all have a big party. <sup>24</sup> You see, my son got himself lost, but now I have found him. I thought he was gone for ever, like he was dead, but now he came back to me, and it is like he came alive again.'

So those workers did what he told them to do, and they had a big party."

Think about these questions then write the answers.

1. In that story, the youngest son asked his father to give him some of the things his father owned. Then what did his father do? (See verse 12)

2. That young man got those things. Then what did he do? (See verse 13)

3. Suppose you did something like that to your father, how would he feel about you?

4. That young man went to another country, and after that everyone in that country got short of food. Then what did that young man do? (See verse 15)

5. After that young man got a job, did he have a good time working there, or not? (See verse 16)

6. Then who did that young man think about? (See verse 17)

7. Then what did that young man do? (See verses 18, 19 and 20)

8. Suppose you are the father in that story:

- a. Do you want your youngest son to come back home, or not?

- b. Why do you feel that way about him?

9. How did that father feel about his son? (See verse 20)

10. At first that young man thought he was smart, but later he knew he was wrong. After that, how did he think about himself? (See verse 21)

11. His father said, "I thought he was gone for ever, like he was dead, but now he came back to me, and it is like he came alive again." (See verse 24) What did his father mean?

12. That story about that father is a picture story about God. He is our Father in heaven. But maybe sometimes people don't want to come to God. They think God does not want them. Do you sometimes think like that?

- 13. If you want to come back to God, what do you have to do? (See verse 21)
- 14. Think about this picture story. What does it tell us about God? How does God feel about people that go away from him and get themselves lost?

that the wind goes wherever it wants to go. You hear the sound it makes, but you don't know where it came from, and you don't know where it's going. Just like that, we don't know how God's spirit makes people get born again."

<sup>9</sup> Nicodemus said, "What? How can somebody get born again from God's spirit?"

<sup>10</sup> Jesus said, "I am shocked. You are an important teacher here in Israel, and you don't understand what I'm saying."

<sup>16</sup> You see, God loved all of the people in the world. He loved everyone so much that he sent them his only son, his special son. God sent him to die instead of them, so that if anyone trusts him, God will not finish them up, but they will live with him for ever.

<sup>17</sup> You see, God sent his son into the world so that he can save the people of the world. He didn't send him to judge people and do payback to them.

<sup>18</sup> If anyone believes in God's son, then God will not say they are guilty. But if anyone does not believe in him, God has already said they are guilty. You see, they do not believe in God's only son, his special son.

Bible Study 4
God can make us like new people

There was a group of Jewish people called Pharisees. They were very strong about God's old law for Jewish people. They also made up a lot of their own laws and they were very strong about them too. That Pharisee mob did not like Jesus, and they tried to stop him all the time.

Nicodemus was one of that Pharisee mob, but he was different. He wanted to listen to Jesus. But he knew that if he went and talked to Jesus, then his Pharisee mob would get angry with him. So Nicodemus went to Jesus at night so that Pharisee mob didn't see him. He listened to what Jesus said, then he knew he could turn his life around and become like a new person.

God's Word - John 3:1-10, 16-18

<sup>1-2</sup> One night, a man went to talk to Jesus. His name was Nicodemus. He was a leader of the Jewish people, and he was one of the mob called Pharisees, that were strong for the Jewish law. He said to Jesus, "Teacher, we've been watching you do powerful things, so now we know that God has sent you to teach us. Only somebody with God's power can do those things."

<sup>3</sup> Jesus said to him, "Listen, I am telling you straight, people have to get born again, and then they can be in God's family."

<sup>4</sup> Nicodemus said, "How can a big man like me get back into his mother's body and get born again?"

<sup>5</sup> Jesus said, "Listen, I am telling you straight, if anyone wants to be in God's family, they have to get born again God's way. God has to make them clean, and he has to put his spirit in them. <sup>6</sup> You see, everybody is born from a human mother, that's how our bodies get life. But if people get born again from God's Holy Spirit, then the Holy Spirit gives new life to their spirits too.

<sup>7</sup> I said, 'You have to get born again.' Don't get shocked by that. <sup>8</sup> You know

Think about these questions then write the answers.

- 1. Who was Nicodemus? (See verse 1)
- 2. You know, the Pharisee mob did not like Jesus. So why do you reckon Nicodemus came to Jesus at night time and not in the day time?
- 3. What did Nicodemus say to Jesus? (See verses 1 and 2)
- 4. Jesus said, "People have to get born again, and then they can be in God's family." What did Nicodemus think that Jesus was talking about? (See verses 3 and 4)

- 7. After Nicodemus said that he didn't understand Jesus's message, what did Jesus say? (See verse 10)
- 8. Why did God send his son and let him die for us? (See verse 16)
- 9. God sent his son for us. Now, if we trust him, what will happen to us? (See verse 16)
—
- 10. Look at verse 18:
  - a. God will not say we are guilty, if we do what?
  - b. Who does God say is guilty?
- 11. Would you like to believe in Jesus and get born again?
- 12. God says that he gives people new life. Why is this the most important thing for us to think about? What do you reckon?
- 13. Read these 2 verses then answer the questions below:

Ephesians 5:25b-26: Jesus Christ loves the people in his church properly. Jesus let people kill him so that he could save us. He washed us properly clean, not just with water in the baptism ceremony, but with his word too.

1 Peter 1:23: God gave you new life. It's not like the life you got from your mother and father. That life will end. But when you listened properly to God's message, he gave you new life, like you got born again. Your new life will not end, because God's word will never finish up. It lives for ever.

- a. What does God use to give people new life?
- b. What does it mean for somebody to "get born again"?

Bible Study 5

We can drink the water that makes us really live

At the time when Jesus was here on earth, he belonged to the Jewish people. And there were other people living in that country called the Samaria people. These 2 mobs did not like each other.

Even though they both believed in God they were a bit different in some ways. The Samaria mob had their special site on a mountain called Gerizim, and they showed respect to God there. The Jewish mob had their special site at the city called Jerusalem, and they showed respect to God there.

But in this story, Jesus talked about a new way to show respect to God.

God's Word - John 4:4-30, 39-42

<sup>4</sup> On their way to Galilee country, Jesus and his followers had to go through the country called Samaria. <sup>5-8</sup> They walked a long way, then they got to a water-hole. A long time ago, their grand-father, Jacob, dug that water-hole. It was near the land that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. There was a little town called Sikar near that water-hole, so Jesus's followers went into the town to buy some food. But Jesus was tired, so he sat down next to that water-hole and waited there.

In the middle of the day, a woman came from the town and got some water from that water-hole. Jesus said to her, "Can you give me a drink?"

<sup>9</sup> The woman said, "What? You are a Jew, and I belong to Samaria. So why do you ask me for a drink of water?" You see, the Jews were not friends with the Samaria people.

<sup>10</sup> Jesus said to her, "I asked you for a drink of water, but really, you should ask me for a drink. You don't know who I am, and you don't know about the good thing that God can give you. If you ask me, I will give you the fresh water that makes people live."

<sup>11</sup> The woman said, "Sir, this water-hole is really deep, and you haven't got a bucket. How are you going to get that fresh water?" <sup>12</sup> Jacob, our grand-father that lived a long time ago, he dug this water-hole for himself, and for his sons, and for all their animals. They all drank this water. Do you think you are greater than Jacob?"

<sup>13</sup> Jesus said to her, "Everyone that drinks water from this water-hole will get thirsty again. <sup>14</sup> But if anyone drinks the water that I give them, they will never get thirsty again. That water will keep coming up inside them, like a spring of fresh water, and it will make them live for ever."

<sup>15</sup> The woman said, "Sir, give me that water. I don't want to get thirsty. I don't want to have to come here all the time to get water."

<sup>16</sup> Jesus said, "Well, go and get your husband and bring him here."

Jesus said to her, "That's right. You haven't got a husband now. <sup>18</sup> You have had 5 different husbands, and the man you live with now is only your boyfriend. You are not married to him. Yes, it's true, you haven't got a husband."

<sup>19</sup> The woman said, "Sir, you know all about me. I reckon you are one of those men that get messages from God. <sup>20</sup> So tell me who is right, you Jewish people or us Samaria people? My people have always shown respect to God by doing ceremonies on this mountain. But you Jews say that we have to go to Jerusalem to do those ceremonies and show respect to God. Who is right?"

<sup>21</sup> Jesus said to her, "Believe me, a time is coming when it will not matter if you show respect to God, the father, here on this mountain, or in Jerusalem, or anywhere else. <sup>22</sup> You see, you people try to show respect to God, but you don't really know him. We Jewish people show respect to God, and we know more about him. And God said that he will use a Jewish person to save everybody. <sup>23</sup> Yes, a time is coming when the people that belong to God will show respect to him properly. And that time is happening now. They will know the true story about God, and they will respect him with their spirits. They are the sort of people that my father is looking for, to show him respect. <sup>24</sup> You see, God is a spirit, and the people that really respect him have to know the true story about him, and they have to respect him with their spirits."

<sup>25</sup> The woman said to Jesus, "I know that a special man is coming. He is the man that God promised to send. He is the one called the Messiah, or the Christ. After he comes, he will tell us everything we need to know."

<sup>26</sup> Jesus said to her, "I am that man. Yes, that's me, the man you are talking to."

<sup>27</sup> Then, at that time, Jesus's followers came back from the town. They saw Jesus and the woman, and they got a shock. He was talking to a woman. They wanted to ask her, "What do you want?" And they wanted to ask Jesus, "Why are you talking to that woman?" But they didn't say anything.

<sup>28</sup> The woman left her bucket next to the water-hole and went back into the town, and she said to the people there, <sup>29</sup> "Come and see a man that told me everything I ever did. Maybe he is the Christ, the special man that God promised to send, the one that we have been waiting for." <sup>30</sup> The people heard what she said, and they left the town to go and see Jesus.

<sup>39</sup> The people in the town heard the woman say, "He told me everything I ever did," and a lot of them believed in Jesus. <sup>40</sup> And so they came from the town to see Jesus, and they asked him to stay with them for a while. So he stayed there for 2 days. <sup>41</sup> He talked to them and told them his message, and even more people believed in him.

<sup>42</sup> The town people said to the woman, "We heard what you said about this man, and we believed you. But now we listened to him ourselves, and we know for sure that he is the man that God sent into the world to save people."

<sup>43</sup> Jesus stayed with the people there for 2 days. Then Jesus and his followers left Samaria and went north to Galilee country.

Think about these questions then write the answers.

1. In this story, while Jesus sat near a water-hole, what country was he in? (See verse 4)
2. While Jesus sat there, who came up to that water-hole? (See verses 5, 6, 7 and 8)
3. What did Jesus ask her for? (See verses 5, 6, 7 and 8)
4. Did the Jewish people like the Samaria people? (See verse 9)
5. What do you reckon? Why did Jesus talk to that Samaria woman? (See verse 10)
6. Jesus told that woman about the water that makes people live for ever. What kind of water did she think he was talking about? (See verse 11)

7. Who did the woman say dug that water-hole? (See verse 12)
8. But Jesus told her about the water that he can give, and that it makes people live for ever. If somebody drinks that water that Jesus gives, what will that water be like inside that person? (See verses 13 and 14)
9. The woman asked Jesus to give her some of that water that makes people live for ever. But Jesus told her that first she had to do something. What did she have to do? (See verses 15 and 16)
10. What did Jesus know about that woman and her real problem? (See verses 17 and 18)
11. How did that woman think that Jesus knew all about her? (See verse 19)
12. That woman was all mixed up about the way to show respect to God.
- Where did the Samaria mob have a special site? Where did they go to show respect to God? (See verse 20)
  - And where did the Jewish mob say the special site was? Where did they go to show respect to God? (See verse 20)
13. Maybe that woman tried to show respect to God, but she didn't really know him. What was the name of the mob that knew more about God? (See verse 22)
14. What is God like, and how does he want people to show respect to him? (See verses 23 and 24)
15. Read these 2 verses then answer the 2 questions after you read them.

John 14:6: Jesus said, "I am like the track for you. I can take you to my father. And I am the one that says what is true about God. And I am the one that can give people life so that they live with God for ever. I am the only one that can take people to God."

John 17:17: Jesus prayed to God. He said,

"Make my followers your own special people, that only listen to your true message. Your word is that true message."

- Who says what is true about God?
  - Whose word is the true message?
16. Who is the one that people call 'Messiah' or 'Christ'? (See verses 25 and 26)
17. What do you reckon? Why did Jesus's followers get a shock after they came back and found Jesus talking to that woman that belonged to the Samaria mob? (See verse 27, and also verse 9)
18. Jesus talked with that woman, then what did she do? (See verses 28 and 29)
19. After she told her countrymen about Jesus, then what did they do? (See verses 39, 40, 41 and 42)

This next question is for the whole of study 5.

20. Think about Jesus Christ and what he did in that story.
- Do you want to know God properly and show respect to him properly?
  - Do you want God to save you so that you can live with God for ever?
  - Do you believe that Jesus is the man that God sent into the world to save people?

These next questions are for the whole of these studies so far, studies 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5.

In these Bible Studies we started at Bible Study 1, and now we are finishing Bible Study 5. Maybe God already helped you learn more about him.

21. What new things did you learn from these studies?
22. After you listened to God's word, did he help you trust in him and live his way?

Bible Study 6

God wants to save us so that we will live the right way, and later on we will live with him for ever

God loves us and if we believe in him, he will save us. It is not about whether we do ceremony. And it is not about whether we do good things. No, God does not look at those things. It is about his son, Jesus Christ. If we believe in Jesus, God will save us.

If you want God to save you, then you have to tell him truly that you are not good and that you did bad things. And then you have to turn around and follow Jesus and stop doing bad things. And you have to believe that Jesus Christ died instead of you, and that he came back to life again, so he is alive now.

If you do that, then the Holy Spirit will come into you and live in you. That means you will have the spirit of Jesus living in you, and he will give you the power to live the right way, power to win against the devil and to do good things and not do bad things.

One day Jesus will come back to earth again, and then all the dead people that believed in Jesus, they will come back to life, and they will get new bodies. And all the people that believe in Jesus and are still alive, they will get new bodies too. And we will all live with Jesus and God for ever. Maybe you will die before Jesus comes back, it doesn't matter, you will still live with him for ever.

So now read what God's Word says in these little bits from the Holy Bible and think about them. Then write your answers to each question.

Part A

How can we live for ever?

1. Read these verses from the Holy Bible, then answer the questions.

Proverbs 27:1: Don't say that you are really good and that you will do great things tomorrow. What will happen tomorrow? You do not know. So you can't talk that way.

Hebrews 4:7b: A long time ago God's messenger David said this, "Today, if you hear God talking, don't pretend you can't hear him. You have to listen to him."

When do we have to turn to God and ask him to save us? Can we wait until tomorrow, or do we have to do it today?

2. Read these verses from the Holy Bible, then answer the question.

Ephesians 2:8-9: God is really good to you. You believed in Jesus, and God saved you. You didn't do anything good, and you didn't pay God anything, but he saved you anyway. You can't do things to save yourself. Even if you do a lot of good things, you can't save yourself. No way. It is God that saves you. Nobody can say, "I'm really good, that is the reason why God saved me." Nobody can talk like that. No way.

Titus 3:5: God saved us, but he didn't save us because we did good things. No. He saved us because he felt really sorry for us. Then his Holy Spirit washed us so that we are really clean inside, and he made us like we got born again as new people.

Can you save yourself by doing good things and trying to live the right way?

3. Read this verse from the Holy Bible, then answer the question.

Proverbs 28:13: If you try to trick everyone so that they do not know the bad things you did, that will not work and you will not have a good life. But if you tell God that you did wrong, and if you stop doing bad things, then he will feel sorry for you and he will be good to you.

If we want God to be good to us there are 2 things that we have to do. What are they?

1. _____

2. _____

4. Read this verse from the Holy Bible, then answer the question.

1 John 1:9: If we tell God that we did wrong things, he will not punish us. He is good, and we can trust him. He will clear away all the wrong things that we did. It is like he will wash us and make us clean inside from all the bad things that we did.

Whenever we go wrong, if we tell God that we did bad things and we are sorry, he will do 2 things for us.

What are they?

1. _____

2. _____

5. Read these verses from the Holy Bible, then answer the questions.

Romans 10:9-10: Yes, you have to really believe that God made Jesus alive again after he died, and you have to tell people that you belong to Jesus. If you believe like that, and if you talk like that, God will save you. If you really believe God, and if you tell everybody that you believe in him, then he says that you are all right, and he saves you.

If you want God to save you, what do you have to believe?

And if you want God to save you, what do you have to tell people?

6. Read this verse from the Holy Bible, then answer the questions.

Think about this picture of Jesus:
Revelation 3:20: Jesus said, "Listen! It is like I am standing just outside the door right now, and I am knocking on it, and I am calling out to you. If you hear me and open the door for me, then I will come inside and we will eat dinner together."

It's like Jesus is standing outside a door and he is knocking and calling out to you. He promised that he will do something if you open that door. What will he do? What do you think that means?

7. Read these verses from the Holy Bible, then answer the question.

John 1:12-13: Some people did want Jesus. They believed in him, so God said they can join his family, and be his own kids. Yes, those people are in God's family, but they were not born into it the way kids are born into human families. And they did not come from what a human mother or father wanted. God himself gave them new life and made them his kids.

If you believe in Jesus, what will you become?

8. Read these verses from the Holy Bible, then answer the questions.

1 John 5:11-13: God tells us that he makes us properly alive so that we will live for ever. You see, if people are joined to God's son, then God makes them properly alive, and they will live for ever. But if people are not joined to God's Son, then they will not live for ever. I am writing this for you mob that believe in the son of God, so that you will know that you will live for ever.

Can we know that we will live for ever?

Who will live for ever?

Part B
God will give us power to always stay strong for him

1. Read these verses from the Holy Bible, then answer the question.

Paul wrote this.

Galatians 2:20: I turned around to follow Jesus, and now he controls me, and God makes me properly alive. And you know that Jesus died on a cross. Well, I believe in Jesus, so it is like I died there too. But Jesus is alive now, so I'm alive now too. You see, Jesus lives inside me, right here in my body. And he gets me to do the things that God wants me to do. He is God's son. He loved me, and he gave up his life and died for me.

Ephesians 3:16-17a: God is very great, and he can work powerfully in you, so I pray that he will do that. I pray that his Spirit will make your spirits strong, inside yourselves. I pray that you will trust Jesus Christ properly, so that he will live inside you.

After you believe in Jesus Christ, who will live inside you?

2. Read this verse from the Holy Bible, then answer the question.

1 John 4:4: Listen, my friends, you belong to God, and God's Spirit is in you, so you didn't listen to those people that tell lies about Jesus. They tried to trick you, but you won against them. They belong to the world and they listen to the devil, the boss over the bad spirits. But you belong to God and you listen to him. God's Spirit is in you mob, and God's Spirit is a lot stronger than that bad spirit boss that those people follow.

Sometimes people in this world tell God's people lies about Jesus. Who gives God's kids the power to live God’s way and not listen to those people?

3. Read these verses from the Holy Bible, then answer the question.

1 John 5:4-5: It is like we got born again as God’s kids. And if the people in this world push us to do wrong, it is like we are having a big fight with them. But if we really believe that Jesus is God’s son, he makes us strong enough to win that fight. So nobody in this world can make us do things that are wrong, because we believe in Jesus and he makes us strong.

Sometimes people in this world push us to do wrong. What sort of person can stay strong and not do wrong things?

4. Read this verse from the Holy Bible, then answer the question.

Revelation 12:11: Our Christian brothers and sisters won their fight against the devil. You know, Jesus bled and died on the cross for them, and that gave them the power to win against the devil. And they told everybody that true story about Jesus. That’s how they won their fight against the devil. And they kept on following Jesus, even though people might kill them. They did not think “I want to stay alive, so I will stop following Jesus”.

People can win against the devil. There are 3 things that help people do that. What are those 3 things?

- 1. —
- 2. —
- 3. —

5. Read these verses from the Holy Bible, then answer the questions.

Matthew 10:32-33: Jesus said, “If you tell everyone that you are one of my followers, I will tell God, my father in heaven, that you are one of my followers. But if you tell everyone that you are not one of my followers, I will tell God, my father in heaven, that I don’t know you, and I will tell him that you are not one of my followers.”

If you tell everyone that you follow Jesus, then what will Jesus tell God about you?

But if you tell everyone that you don’t follow Jesus, then what will Jesus tell God about you?

6. Read this verse from the Holy Bible, then answer the question.

God showed John what will happen after Jesus comes back, and he said,

Revelation 21:7: “If you win the fight against the devil, and don’t listen to him, I will give you lots of good things, and I will be your God, and you will be my own kid.”

After Jesus comes back, God will give some people lots of good things and he will say they are his own kids. Who will God do that for? What kind of people will they be?

A Little Book about the Bible

A book to help people learn from the Holy Bible, using the Plain English Version

About this book

I wrote this Little Book about the Bible to help people know more about the Holy Bible.

I used plain English in this little book, the same as we used in the Holy Bible, Plain English Version (PEV). Anybody can use this little book, but I wrote it mostly for Indigenous Australians that grew up talking their own language, and then later they learned to talk English. I wrote this little book to help people understand the Bible better.

We can learn a lot of things from the Holy Bible. This little book just talks about some of those things. It tells you what the Bible says about those things. The words that are in this sort of print are from the Holy Bible, PEV.

This little book also tells you where to look in the Bible to find out more. So you can use this little book for Bible studies.

I want to thank all the people that helped me write this little book. Some of them were Aboriginal Australians and some were white-fellas.

So what now? Page 75

Part 1 Why is the Holy Bible important?

Everyone should read or listen to the Bible because it is a very important book.

It is God's word. That means that it has God's message to us people. It tells us the things that God wants us to know about himself, and about spirits, and things that last for ever. If we read it or listen to it, and if we take notice of it, God can take us into his family.

If we have a Bible with us, will it help us?

What if we get a Bible and leave it on the shelf all the time, and we never read it. Is that all right? Will it help us? Or if we put it under the pillow of a sick person, will it help that person get better?

Well, it is good to remember that God's word is powerful, but we have to read the Bible. Then it can help us. Or we can listen to somebody else read it. The message in the Bible is powerful, but that message has to get into our heads before we can know that power. If you believe the Bible's message, and if you do what it says, God will take you into his family. That is the good way the Bible helps us.

This is what the Bible says in the book that has the name The letter that James wrote, in chapter 1 at verse 18, God wanted us to be in his own family, so he sent his true word to us. And when we believed that word it was like we were born all over again. That's how he made us his really special people.

What if we get a Bible and read it, or listen to somebody else read it, but then we just forget it and take no notice of it, is that all right? No. That is not all right. It is very important that we take notice of the message in the Bible, so that it can change us and make us better people.

This is what the Bible says in the book called The letter that James wrote, in chapter 1 at verses 21 and 25,

You have to listen properly to the word from God, that he put right inside you, and you have to do what it says. Don't think that you are so good that you don't need God's word. No. You have to do what it says, then that word will save you. ... You have to listen to God's word and keep on thinking about it. Don't forget it, but do everything it says. That word will make you free, so that you will do everything God wants. And God will make you really happy whenever you do the things he wants you to do.

So you see, everybody needs to do the things in the Bible that God tells us to do.

Where is God's power in the Bible?

Is God's power in the book with a cover, that has pages made out of paper and ink? Do they have God's power? No. God's power is in the message in the Bible. If we take notice of that message, and believe it, and if we do what it tells us to do, God will take us into his family and use his power to change us into his good people, to live with him for ever. It is good to read or listen to a part of the Bible for a little while every day, and think about it. Ask God to teach you what he wants you to learn from it. He will do that, and you will learn more and become strong for him.

We wrote this little book to help you use the Holy Bible, and to understand its message better. You can learn more about God's word if you think about these verses.

* In The 2nd letter that Paul wrote to Timothy, at chapter 3, in verses 16 and 17 it says,

Everything in God's book comes from God himself. It was God that sent the message to people to write down, and God uses it now to teach us his true word, and he uses it to get us to understand the things that are wrong with our lives, and he uses it to fix us up, and he uses it to teach us to do the things that are right. That's how God properly trains his workers. He uses the words in his book to teach them, so they can do all those good things that he wants them to do.

* And this is in the book that has the name Some important parts of the good news about Jesus that Matthew wrote, at chapter 4, in verses 3 and 4,

At that time the devil came to Jesus and said, "If you are the son of God, tell these stones to turn into loaves of bread." But Jesus told him, "No. I will not do that. You know what God says. These words are in his book, 'People don't live just by eating bread, but they live by every word that God says.' "

You can also think about what the Bible says in John wrote this good news about Jesus, in chapter 15, at verse 3, and in Mark wrote this good news about Jesus, at chapter 4, in verses 2 to 9, and in verses 14 to 20, and in The 2nd letter that Paul wrote to Timothy, in chapter 2, at verse 9.

We have to understand the message of the Holy Bible.

Whenever we read or listen to a version of the Bible, we have to understand the words and language, so that we can understand the message. Do you talk an Aboriginal language? Or do you talk a language from the Torres Strait? If you have a translation in your own language, or another language you can understand, that is the best Bible for you.

But maybe you haven't got a Bible in your own language. Well, you can try reading the Holy Bible, Plain English Version (PEV). It uses easy English words, and it says things in the way that Aboriginal languages say things, so it is easy to understand.

We haven't translated all of the Holy Bible into plain English yet, but you can get most of the New Testament and some of the Old Testament in PEV.

In this little book we are copying the PEV words every time we want to tell you the words that the Bible has. And sometimes we explain something about the PEV. We hope this little book will help you understand the Bible better, and help you live by it.

How to get the PEV.

Printed books

You can get Plain English Version (PEV) books with parts of the Holy Bible from the Bible League. You can call them on 1800 800 937 or go to the store on their website bl.org.au

On your phone

If you have an android smartphone you can download the PEV app. Click on the "Play Store" app, then search for "Plain English Version Bible", click on it, and click on "Install". You can read and listen to the PEV on that app.

The PEV is also available in the Australian Bibles app on both iPhones and androids. That app has the Holy Bible in lots of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander languages. You can pick "English" to read or listen to the PEV.

And the PEV is in the YouVersion Bible app on both iPhones and androids too.

You can use the QR codes on the next page to get some of those apps.

On your computer

You can read and listen to the PEV on a computer too. Go to the Aboriginal Bibles website aboriginalbibles.org.au/english-plain

These are some QR codes that let you get the PEV on to your smartphone or computer.

Part 2 How did we get the Holy Bible?

The Holy Bible is not like any other book.

The Bible is not just one book, it is a group of books. It has 66 books all together.

God got a lot of people to write those books. They wrote them thousands of years ago.

The message in those books was really important for people thousands of years ago, and that message is still really important for us today. God's word lasts for ever. That means it is always true.

The Bible has this in The 1st letter that Peter wrote, at chapter 1, in verse 25, God's word will never die, it will last for ever.

The Holy Bible has 2 main parts – the Old Testament and the New Testament.

The Old Testament has the oldest stories of the Bible. It has books that people wrote before Jesus was born.

The New Testament has the books that people wrote after Jesus was born.

The Old Testament is like this.

It has 39 books, and they are the oldest stories in the Bible.

- * The first 17 books in the Bible are about the things that happened a long time ago. They start from the time God made everything, and they have stories about things that happened over the next years, really over the next thousands of years, almost until the time that Jesus was born. If you look at the printed PEV, in the first pages it shows the time when things in the Bible happened.
- * The next 5 books in the Bible are songs and some things that wise men wrote about God.
- * The next 17 books in the Bible are the last ones in the Old Testament. They have the messages that God got his men to tell people. Some of those messages are about things that will happen at some time in the future. God's men wrote those messages down so we can read them. Each one of these books has the name of the man that wrote it. Sometimes we call them the prophets. Malachi was the last man to write a book in the Old Testament, and he wrote it about 400 years before Jesus was born.

The New Testament is like this.

It has 27 books, and they are about Jesus and his followers.

- * The first 4 books in the New Testament are about Jesus and the things he did here on the earth, and about the way he died and then he came back to life again, and then he went up to heaven. Sometimes we call those books the gospels. That word gospel means good news. Each of these books has the name of the man that wrote it.
- * Then there is a book that is about the things that Jesus's followers did after Jesus went back to heaven.
- * The next 21 books in the New Testament are letters that Jesus's followers wrote to churches and to other Christians.
- * The last book in the New Testament, and in the Bible, is called Revelation. It is about things that God showed to one of Jesus's followers. Some of those things will happen in the future.

About 2,000 years ago, Jesus went up to heaven, and, soon after that, God's men wrote those New Testament books.

The message in the Bible comes from God

God got people to write the books in the Holy Bible a long time ago, but its message is still important for us today. Its words and message came from God. The Holy Spirit got God's men to write those books.

This is in The 2nd letter that Peter wrote, at chapter 1, in verses 19 to 21,

So now we can be really sure about the messages that are in God's book. We can be sure that they are true. A long time ago, God told his men to write those words in his book. You have to think carefully about those messages. They can help us understand the true story about God, like a light helps us see things in the night. Those messages will keep on helping you until Jesus comes back and he helps you know God properly. Then it will be like Jesus is a really bright light that shows us everything clearly, like the really bright star that shines in the morning, and then the sun comes up. You see, those men that wrote those words a long time ago, they didn't think up their own stories. No. They didn't write down their own ideas. The Holy Spirit worked inside them and told them God's messages. Those words came from God, and they wrote them down in his book.

Real people wrote the Bible's books.

God got real people to write the books of the Bible, and they wrote them for real people at that time. The letters in the Bible are to real people, like to the people in a church, or to other Christians.

Whenever we think about something that is in the Bible, we also have to think about the way things were at the time God's man wrote those words.

For example, one of Jesus's workers was called Paul, and he wrote a letter to the Christians at Corinth. We call that letter The 1st letter that Paul wrote to the Christians at Corinth. In chapter 11, in verses 3 to 16, Paul told the Corinthians that in a church meeting, the women have to cover their heads and the men can not cover their heads. You see, in their culture at Corinth at that time, a married woman had to wear something covering her head in a meeting, to show that she respected her husband. If a woman did not wear something covering her head, it was like she was saying that she did not want her husband. That would shame her husband. That is why Paul told the women to cover their heads.

But that is not in our culture today. We don't think like that about a woman covering her head. A man does not feel shame if his wife does not cover her head in a meeting. So that message that Paul wrote for the Christians in Corinth was about something that was right for the people of that time, but not for the people today.

The Holy Spirit will help us understand the Bible

You know, God's Holy Spirit will help us understand his word whenever we think about it. Look at the book called John wrote this good news about Jesus, at chapter 16. In verse 13 Jesus said this,

After the Holy Spirit comes, he will tell you what is true. He will teach you everything that is true about God. He will not say his own words, but only the words he heard from God.

So every time we read or listen to the Bible, we need to ask the Holy Spirit to help us understand it. Then we need to ask ourselves these questions, and think about the answers,

- * What is it saying?
- * What did that mean to the people of that time?
- * What does it mean to us today?
- * What do we have to do about it?

Part 3 Why does the Holy Bible have chapters and verses?

Chapter numbers and verse numbers help us find the words or stories in the Bible that we want to read or talk about. Each of the books in the Bible is split up into chapters, and each chapter has a number. And each chapter in the Bible is split up into verses, and each verse has a number.

And you know, some Bibles are big books and some Bibles are little books, so their page numbers are different from each other. And some Bibles are in different languages, so their page numbers are different too. But Bibles all have the same chapter numbers and verse numbers for the same stories.

So we can look at the chapter numbers and verse numbers to find a story or message in the Bible, no matter which Bible we look at or what page it is on. So, if we want to find a story or a message, we just need the chapter number and the verse number and then we can find it easily.

God's men that wrote the books of the Bible, they did not put the chapter and verse numbers there. Other men put them in a long time afterwards. It was a church man that split up each of the Bible books into chapters, and he gave them numbers. And some time after that another church man split up every chapter into verses, and he gave them numbers.

How to use chapter numbers and verse numbers.

Whenever we want to tell somebody where to find something in the Bible, we can tell them the book name, the chapter number and the verse number. We call that the reference.

We have a short way to write a reference. It is like this. If we want somebody to go to the book called John wrote this good news about Jesus, and look at chapter 3 at verse 16, well, we write it like this, John 3:16

We just write John for the name of the book, and then we write the chapter number, then we have this mark : and then the verse number.

If we want to look at more than one verse, like if we want to read from the start of verse 16 to the end of verse 21, we write it like this, John 3:16-21. That means go to the book called John wrote this good news about Jesus and find chapter 3, then read from verse 16 to the end of verse 21.

If we want to look at the whole chapter, we just don't write any verse numbers, like this, John 3. That means, go to the book called John wrote this good news about Jesus and read all of chapter 3, from verse 1 to the end of the chapter.

If there is more than one chapter, we write it like this, John 17-19. That means, go to the book called John wrote this good news about Jesus, start at the beginning of chapter 17, at verse 1, and read all the way to the end of chapter 19.

This is what it looks like in the Holy Bible Plain English Version when you start reading John chapter 17,

Here are some examples of references to find some messages and stories in the Holy Bible.

- * Romans 3:23 has the message that tells us that we all went wrong.
- * 1 Samuel 17 has the story about the boy called David fighting a big enemy soldier and killing him dead.
- * Mark 4:35-41 is the story about Jesus stopping a storm.
- * Acts 27:1-28:10 is the story about Paul in a ship that sank in a storm.

Part 4 What does the Holy Bible tell us about God and people?

These are some of the important things the Holy Bible tells us.

1. God made everything.

The Bible tells us that God is the one that made everything. He made all the people, and all the animals, and all the spirits.

The Bible has this in Genesis 1:1, First of all, a long time ago, God made everything. He made the sky, and he made the earth. He made all the things that are everywhere.

And Jesus worked with God to make everything. This is in Colossians 1:15-16, Jesus was there with God a long time ago, and he worked with God to make everything. They made all the things in heaven, and all the things on the earth. They made the things we can see, and the things we can't see. They made all the spirits, even the spirit bosses that we can't see. God worked with his son to make everything, so that now everything has to respect God's son. Jesus is God's son, and he is the boss over everything.

You can learn more about this by reading or listening to all of Genesis 1.

2. God made people.

The Bible tells us that God is the one that made all of us people. We read this in Genesis 1:26-27, Then God said, "We are going to make people. They will be like us. ..." So God made people to be like himself.

People have spirits as well as bodies. Sometimes we call our spirits our souls. In Matthew 10:28 Jesus said, Don't be frightened of those people that can only kill your body. They can't kill your soul. But you have to listen to God. If you don't do what he says, you have to be frightened. He can finish up your body, and then he can also finish up your soul too, in that bad place called hell.

3. God made us people to be his friends and to live with him for ever.

The Bible tells us that God does not want people, after they die, to go away from him for ever. He wants them to live with him in his family. This is in 2 Peter 3:9, God doesn't want anyone to die for ever. He wants everyone to turn around. He wants them to stop doing bad things and turn to him.

And this is in Luke 8:1,

Jesus went around to a lot of different towns. In each town he told the people God's good news. He said, "God wants to have you in his family."

Those verses show us that God always wants people to be his friends and, after they die, he wants them to live with him in his family.

4. The Bible tells us that there is a problem. The first man and woman both went wrong.

They knew they went wrong, and they knew they could not be close friends of God any more.

We can read about them in Genesis 3:8, The man and the woman heard God walking in the garden. So they got behind some trees in the garden to hide from God.

That same problem is still with us today. In Romans 5:12 the Bible says, Think about the story about Adam. God told him, "If you eat any fruit from that tree, you will die." Then Adam did the wrong thing, he ate that fruit, so he died. And it's the same for everybody now.

You see, we all go wrong and we do bad things. And God is properly good, so he can not have us with him because we do bad things. He can only have good people in his family.

5. God made a way to change us so that he can take anybody into his family.

The Bible tells us that God sent his special son, called Jesus, to be a man, and to live here with us people. Jesus did that, but he didn't do bad things like we do. Then Jesus took the blame for all us people, for all the bad things we did. Jesus let people kill him by nailing him to a wooden cross. That is the way he died for us. So now, if we trust Jesus and live for God, he will take us into his family, and after our bodies die, we will live with God for ever.

This is in John 3:16, You see, God loved all of the people in the world. He loved everyone so much that he sent them his only son, his special son. God sent him to die instead of them, so that if anyone trusts him, God will not finish them up, but they will live with him for ever.

And this is in Colossians 1:13-14,

You know, the boss over the bad spirits, he always used to push us to do bad things. ... But God sent his son, Jesus. ... He took the payback for us, so that now God will not punish us. He set us free from that bad boss, and now we belong to the family of God's son.

And this is in Romans 5:8, Jesus Christ died for us while we were still really bad people. That shows that God really loves us very much.

6. We need to stop doing wrong things, we need to trust Jesus, and to start living God's way.

The Bible says we need to believe in Jesus and turn around, we need to stop going the wrong way and we need to turn to God.

(Some English Bibles use the word repent, but a lot of people don't really know what that word means. It is a translation of the Greek word that means turn around, and in the Bible it usually means turn around in the way we live. So in the PEV we have translated it turn around, or in words like that.)

In Mark 1:15 Jesus said, Now is the right time for God to take people into his family. You mob have to take notice and turn right around and live God's way. You have to believe this good news.

But if we don't stop doing bad things, and if we don't turn to Jesus, God will give us trouble. This is in Acts 17:30-31,

Now God says to all of us, that we have to turn around and stop doing bad things. And if we don't stop doing bad things, he will give us big trouble. He is going to have a big court, and all of us will have to stand in front of the judge. He has already set the date for that. It will be a fair court, and he has picked one man to be the judge. That man died, but God made him alive again. God did that to show everybody that he picked that man to be the big judge.

And this is in 2 Timothy 4:1, You know, Jesus Christ will come back, and he will judge everyone. He will judge everyone that is alive at that time, and everyone that is already dead.

And this is in Romans 6:23,

If we do bad things, we will get our pay for doing those things. We will die. That's all the pay we will get. But if we join up to our leader, Jesus Christ, we will not die. God will give us properly good life. We will live with him for ever.

And this is in John 3:18, If anyone believes in God's son, then God will not say they are guilty. But if anyone does not believe in him, God has already said they are guilty. You see, they do not believe in God's only son, his special son.

7. If we trust Jesus, the Holy Spirit will come into us and change us.

The Bible tells us this is in John 3:5-6, Jesus said, "Listen, I am telling you straight, if anyone wants to be in God's family, they have to get born again God's way. God has to make them clean, and he has to put his spirit in them. You see, ... if people get born again from God's Holy Spirit, then the Holy Spirit gives new life to their spirits too."

And this is in Ephesians 4:30, God gave the Holy Spirit to you so that you can be really sure that you belong to God.

And this is in Romans 8:1-2, If we belong to Jesus Christ, God will never say we are guilty. His spirit is in us, and he gives us new life, and he makes us strong so that we can say no to that bad part of us that tries to make us go wrong. That is the new way that we live, because we belong to Jesus, and it makes us free from the old way of doing bad things and ending up dead.

When Jesus was talking to his followers just before he died, he told them this. It is in John 14:26,

"The father will send the Holy Spirit to help you. He will be your teacher, in my place. He will help you remember all the things I told you, and he will teach you everything you need to know."

The Holy Spirit will control us if we let him.

This is in Galatians 5:22-23, If God's spirit controls people, he gets them to do good things. You know that a good fruit tree always gets good fruit on it. Well, like that, a person with God's spirit does good things. If you let his spirit lead you, he will get you to love God and to love other people. And you will be happy. And you will feel good and quiet inside yourself so that you will not fight with other people. God's spirit inside you will help you be good to people and not get angry, even if they give you trouble. And he will get you to be friendly to other people, and he will get you to do good things. He will make you the sort of person that other people can trust. He will stop you from thinking you are too important, and he will help you to control yourself.

You can learn more from a lot of other places in the Bible that tell us about the Holy Spirit. Some of them are Acts 2:32-40, Titus 3:5, Galatians 4:6, 5:25-26, Romans 8:3-17 and Acts 1:8.

8. One day Jesus will come back for us.

The Bible tells us that one day Jesus will come back to earth again, and then all the dead people that believed in Jesus, they will come back to life, and they will get new bodies. And all the people that believe in Jesus and are still alive, they will get new bodies too. Those bodies will never die, and we will all live with Jesus, and with God, for ever.

This is in 1 Thessalonians 4:13-17, Christian friends, we are going to tell you now about people that have already died. We don't want you to be sad when you think about them. ... You see, we believe that Jesus died, and after that, God made him alive again. So we also believe that when Jesus comes back to this earth, all the Christians that already died will come back with him. ... It will happen like this. Our leader, Jesus himself, will come down from heaven, and while he is coming, everyone will hear him call out, and they will hear the voice of the boss angel, and they will hear the sound of God's trumpet. Then, first of all, those people that belonged to Jesus Christ and already died, they will come back to life. After that, God will get those of us Christians that are still alive at that time, and he will take us up into the clouds with the Christians that already died, and we will all meet Jesus, our leader, way up in the air. And so, after that, we will be with Jesus all the time, for ever.

Part 5 What have we got to do with the message of the Holy Bible?

1. We have to properly believe that the Bible is God's word.

We have to believe that the Bible has God's message to us people.

* We have to believe that God's word is true.

In John 17:17, as Jesus was talking to God, he said this,
Your word is that true message.

And in John 14:10 Jesus told the people, I don't just say whatever I want to say. The father told me what to say.

And in John 14:6 Jesus said,
I am the one that says what is true about God.

* We have to believe that God's word lasts for ever.

This is in 1 Peter 1:25,
God's word will never die, it will last for ever. And that is the message about Jesus that God's people told you.

* We have to believe that God's word shows us how to live the right way.

Jesus said this in John 8:31-32,
If you keep on following me, and if you do the things I teach you, then you will be my proper followers, and you will know the true message.

2. We have to believe what the Bible says about people, and that means me and you.

This is what it says in Romans 3:10,
Nobody is really good, not even one person.

And this is in Romans 3:23,
We all went the wrong way, and we did bad things. Nobody is properly good, like God wants us to be.

And this is in Galatians 3:22,
God says in his book that everyone does bad things. They can't stop doing those bad things.

3. We have to do what the Bible says.
That means, we have to do what God says, and what Jesus says.

These are 3 important things we have to do.

a. We have to believe that Jesus died for us, and we have to trust him to save us.

This is in Romans 3:22-25, God says that if we trust in Jesus, he will save us. It doesn't matter who we are. God treats everybody the same. We all went the wrong way, and we did bad things. Nobody is properly good, like God wants us to be. But Jesus Christ died for us. He took the payback for those bad things that we did. So now God is really good to us, and he says that we are all right now, and he will not blame us any more. And we don't have to pay anything. God sent Jesus to die for us, so that, if we believe that Jesus died for us, God is not angry with us any more. Jesus let people kill him, and his blood came out, so now, if we trust him, God says we are all right.

And this is in John 3:16, God loved everyone so much that he sent them his only son, his special son. God sent him to die instead of them, so that if anyone trusts him, God will not finish them up, but they will live with him for ever.

b. We have to turn away from doing wrong things and turn to God.

Both John the Baptist and Jesus told people to turn right around and turn to God.

In Mark 1:4 John the Baptist said this, You mob have to be really sorry for the wrong way you are living. You have to turn right around and live God's way.

And in Mark 1:15 Jesus said this, Now is the right time for God to take people into his family. You mob have to take notice and turn right around and live God's way. You have to believe this good news.

Jesus's special followers told people the same message. In Acts 3:19-21 Peter said, Listen. You mob have to change the way you live, and you have to turn back to God, so that he will not blame you or do payback to you for the bad things you did. Then God will make your spirits happy and strong.

In Acts 17:30-31 Paul told the people, Now God says to all of us, that we have to turn around and stop doing bad things. And if we don't stop doing bad things, he will give us big trouble.

You can learn more about this from Luke 13:3 and 15:7, Matthew 4:17, Acts 3:19-21, 1 Peter 3:9-12 and Matthew 7:24-27.

c. We have to let people know that we follow Jesus.

This is in Romans 10:9, You have to really believe that God made Jesus alive again after he died, and you have to tell people that you belong to Jesus. If you believe like that, and if you talk like that, God will save you.

And this is in Matthew 10:32-33, Jesus said, "If you tell everyone that you are one of my followers, I will tell God, my father in heaven, that you are one of my followers. But if you tell everyone that you are not one of my followers, I will tell God, my father in heaven, that I don't know you, and I will tell him that you are not one of my followers."

4. We have to let the Holy Spirit control us.

The Holy Spirit will change us and make us new, like we get born again as new people. God does that to take us into his family.

In Acts 2:38-39 Peter talked to people that were sorry for the bad things they did. He said, You have to turn around and follow Jesus. ... Then God will ... give you the Holy Spirit to live in you.

And this is in John 3:6, If people get born again from God's Holy Spirit, then the Holy Spirit gives new life to their spirits too.

The Bible says this about people that believe in Jesus, in John 1:12-13, God said they can join his family, and be his own kids. Yes, those people are in God's family, but they were not born into it the way kids are born into human families. And they did not come from what a human mother or father wanted. God himself gave them new life and made them his kids.

If we let the Holy Spirit control us, he will help us live the right way. This is in Galatians 5:16-18,

So this is what I'm telling you, let God's spirit control your lives, and you will not do any of those bad things that make you feel good. You see, it is like this. We all have a bad part in us that makes us want to do bad things, to make us feel good. And we also have God's spirit in us, and he makes us want to do good things. Those 2 are both in you, and they both want to control you, so they are fighting each other inside you all the time. Whenever you listen to God's spirit and try to do good things, that bad part in you tries to stop you, so you don't do what you really want to do. But if you let God's spirit control you, you will do good things.

You can learn more about the Holy Spirit by reading or listening to John 3:3-8, 6:63, 14:15-19, 15:26, 16:5-15 and Galatians 5:24-26.

5. We have to talk about God's word and teach it to other people.

This is what the Bible tells us.

* God wants us to talk with each other about his word.

This is in Colossians 3:16, And always think about the message that came from Jesus Christ, so that you follow it all the time. Talk to each other about Jesus's message, and help each other to follow it properly. Think about it the right way. If anyone starts to get it wrong, straighten each other out.

* God wants us to tell everybody his word.

Just before Jesus went back to heaven, he told his followers this. It is in Mark 16:15,

You have to go out to everywhere in the world and tell everybody the good news about me.

And Jesus said this to his followers in Acts 1:8,

The Holy Spirit will come to you, and he will give you power, and then you will tell people about me ... and you will go to people everywhere in the world, and you will tell them about me.

This is in 1 Peter 3:15-16, People might say to you, "Tell us, why are you sure that God will do good things for you?" So you always have to be ready to help them understand why you are sure. Tell them clearly, and respect them as you talk to them.

This is in Romans 10:13-14, God says this in his book too, "God will save everybody that calls out to him for help and asks him to save them." But what about people that don't believe in God? They can't call out to him, right? And what about people that have never even heard about Jesus? They can't believe in him, right? Somebody has to tell them about him, and then they can believe in him.

You can read more about this in Matthew 28:16-20 and Romans 1:15.

Part 6 What does the Holy Bible say about grog and drugs?

1. What does the Bible say about grog?

Grog, and wine, and those kinds of drinks, have a poison called alcohol in them. Alcohol stops our brains from working properly. That is what happens if we get drunk.

So the Bible tells us not to get drunk.

This is in Ephesians 5:18, Don't get drunk. If you drink too much grog, you will go wild, and you will do stupid things. Don't do that, but instead, keep on letting the Holy Spirit come into you and fill you up.

And this is in 1 Corinthians 6:9-10, I'll tell you now about the sort of people that will not be in God's family ... people that always get drunk.

In 1 Timothy 3:3 the Bible says that a church leader can not be a drunken man, and in 1 Timothy 3:8 it says the same thing about helpers in the church.

All those verses in the Bible say that it is bad to get drunk. But they don't say it is bad to drink just a little bit of wine, not enough to start making you drunk.

So it's all right to drink just a little bit. Even Jesus drank a little bit of wine.

In Matthew 11:19 Jesus said, Sometimes I go to parties and eat good food, and sometimes I drink wine.

In Mark 14:23-25 the Bible says,

Then Jesus picked up the cup of wine and said thank you to God for it, and he gave it to his followers, and they passed it around, and each of them drank a little bit of wine.

And you know, at that time, 2,000 years ago, the wine was not as cheeky as it is today. People only learned how to make wine more cheeky about 150 years ago. That was a long time after God's men wrote the Holy Bible. In their time it was not so cheeky, so they had to drink more of it to get drunk.

At that time, 2,000 years ago, houses did not have clean water in pipes and taps, and they did not have flush toilets, so the water that people drank often had bad germs in it, and that made them sick. But alcohol will kill germs, so if people mixed some wine into the water before they drank it, they would not get sick. A little bit of wine in the water would not make them drunk. So, in 1 Timothy 5:23 Paul told Timothy, By the way, I know that you are often sick in the stomach, so you have to mix a little bit of wine into the water you drink.

We have to think about these things that the Bible says about grog, and then we can know that if we drink a little bit of grog, it is not wrong. But if we get drunk, that is very wrong.

A lot of Christians know that if they taste a little bit of grog they will want to drink more, and if they drink more, they can not control themselves and they will get drunk. So they don't drink any grog or wine at all. They've got good sense. It is better to not drink any grog at all than to lose control of yourself and get drunk.

You know, churches have a ceremony called communion, and in that ceremony the Christians drink a little bit of wine and eat a little bit of bread to remember that Jesus died for us. Some churches don't use cheeky wine for that ceremony, they just use grape juice that is not cheeky. They do that so that people don't have to drink any cheeky wine.

In Romans 14, and in 1 Corinthians 8, the Bible teaches us to think about other people too. Maybe if we drink a little bit of wine or grog, other people will think we are not following God. Or maybe if we drink a little bit of wine or grog, other people that don't know the Bible properly will see us and think it's all right to drink as much as they feel like drinking, and maybe they will get drunk. Then it is better not to drink any wine or grog in front of those people. God says it's all right to drink a little bit of wine or grog, but we don't want to make other people go wrong.

You can learn more about this from 1 Corinthians 5:11-13 and 1 Timothy 3:1-13.

2. What does the Bible say about drugs?

There are other things that hurt our bodies or stop our brains from working properly. They are called drugs. They are things like tobacco, ganja, speed, ice, and petrol.

God's men wrote the books in the Bible a long time ago. At that time there was no tobacco, no ganja, no speed, no ice, no petrol. And there was none of those other things we call drugs that hurt us or stop our brains from working properly. They only had drinks with alcohol in them, like grog. But we can read what the Bible says about grog, and when we think about it, we can work out what God thinks about drugs. We can work out that God does not want us to use anything that will hurt our bodies or stop our brains from working properly. So he wants us to think the same way about drugs as we do about grog. He does not want us to use drugs, just like he does not want us to get drunk.

Part 7 What does the Holy Bible say about people getting married, and about people having sex with each other?

When the Bible talks about people getting married, it is not just talking about the white-fella way, where they have a wedding ceremony. It is talking about Indigenous people's way too. It is talking about any man and woman that live together as partners and have sex together. Maybe they had a white-fella wedding ceremony, but maybe they didn't. It does not matter. The Bible says they are joined to each other, so they are married. That is the way God made them, right from the start.

This is in Genesis 2:23-24,

The man looked at that woman, and he said, "This is really good. Now I have a mate." ... They will join with each other, and their bodies will be like one body.

1. The Bible says that husbands and wives have to love and respect each other.

God wants husbands to love their wives and be good to them, and he wants wives to respect their husbands and be good to them.

This is in Ephesians 5:33,
Every one of you husbands has to love your own wife as much as you love yourself. And every wife has to respect her husband.

And this is in Ephesians 5:22 and 25,
You women that are wives, you have to think about what your husbands want, and agree with them, just like God's people always have to agree with what our leader, Jesus, wants. ... Yes, and you men that are husbands, you have to do your part too. You have to always love your wives properly, just like Jesus Christ loves the people in his church properly.

2. The Bible says that only a man and his wife can have sex together.

That's the way God made us. You see, right from the start, God made people so that they could have sex with each other, but only as husband and wife.

In Mark 10:6-7 Jesus told the people these words,
God tells us in his book that he made people and everything else. His book says, "He made them man and woman." And he tells us, "A man will leave his mother and father and marry a woman. The man and his wife will join with each other, and their bodies will be like one body again."

Those words came from Genesis 1:27 and 2:24.

That is the way God wants us to live. He wants husbands to always love their wives and be good to them, and he wants wives to always respect their husbands and be good to them. If a husband and wife look after each other in that way they will be more happy together. In 1 Corinthians 7:3-5 Paul says,

If a wife needs her husband to sleep with her and do what married people do together, he has to agree to it, to make her happy. And if a husband needs his wife to sleep with him and do what married people do together, she has to agree to it, to make him happy. You see, the wife's body does not only belong to her; it also belongs to her husband. In the same way, the husband's body doesn't only belong to him, it also belongs to his wife. So, if your husband or wife wants to sleep with you, to do what married people do together, you can't say, "No."

3. The Bible says single people shouldn't have sex with anyone

Paul wrote this to the single Christians in Corinth in 1 Corinthians 7:8-9,
Now I will talk to you people that are not married. Maybe your wife or husband has died, or maybe you never married anyone. This is what I reckon. Stay single, like me. But you have to control yourself properly. If that is too hard for you, then marry somebody. If you are always wanting to sleep with somebody and do what married people do together, don't try to stay single.

4. The Bible says it is wrong to have sex with somebody that's not your husband or wife.

In Mark 10:19 Jesus said,
You know God's laws. ... Don't sleep with a woman that is not your wife, as if you are married to her.

God says that he can not have you in his family if you are having sex with somebody that you are not married to. This is in 1 Corinthians 6:9,

Don't let anyone trick you about this. I'll tell you now about the sort of people that will not be in God's family. People that sleep with somebody that's not their wife or husband, as if they are married. Those people will not be in God's family.

The Bible says we should not even think about having sex with somebody we are not married to.

Jesus said this in Matthew 5:27-28,
You know, the teachers of God's law tell you this, "Don't sleep with a woman that is not your wife, as if you are married to her." But now I'm telling you this. If you look at a woman that is not your wife, and you think about sleeping with her, that is bad too. If you think about doing that, you are going wrong. Thinking about it is just as bad as doing it.

You can learn more about this from 1 Thessalonians 4:2-8, and 1 Corinthians 10:8-11 and 5:11.

5. The Bible says that divorce is not good.

God wants husbands and wives to live together in a happy way. They can not look around and think somebody else might be better, and then get a divorce, and go to that other person. In Mark 10:11-12 Jesus said,

If a man splits up from his wife, and then if he marries another woman, he is sleeping with the wrong woman as if she is his proper wife. But she is not, and he is breaking God's law, and he is doing wrong to his proper wife. And if a woman splits up from her husband, and then if she marries another man, she is sleeping with the wrong man as if he is her proper husband. But he is not, and she is breaking God's law, and she is doing wrong to her proper husband.

What if one partner cheats on the other partner and sleeps with somebody else? Do they have to stay together if that happens? Well, when Jesus said that people can not get divorced, he said it is different if one person has been cheating on the other. If one of them did that, then the other one can divorce that one. Jesus said this in Matthew 5:32,

I'm telling you this, husbands and wives have to stay married to each other. Only if a man's wife sleeps with another man, as if he is her husband, only then can her husband divorce her. But if a wife never does that, then her husband can't divorce her. If he divorces her, he is forcing her to marry another man and sleep with him, and that is wrong. And the man that marries her is doing wrong too.

But what if your partner does not believe in Jesus? Do you have to stay together? Well, read what the Bible says in 1 Corinthians 7:15-16,

So if you have a husband or wife that is not Christian, and they want to leave you, then you can let them go. Christians don't have to try to make their partners stay with them if their partners are not Christians. God wants us to be quiet and happy. He doesn't want us to be arguing and fighting with each other. But if your husband or wife is not Christian, but they agree to stay with you, then don't leave them. Listen, Christian wife, maybe you can help your husband turn around and let God save him. And listen, Christian husband, maybe you can help your wife turn around and let God save her.

Sometimes a man does not live the right way, but he hits his wife and treats her in a bad way, and sometimes he treats his kids in a bad way too. That sort of man is not living God's way. Those words from 1 Corinthians let us know that sometimes it is all right for a woman to get away from that sort of man, and to take her kids with her.

You can learn more about this from Mark 10:2-12, and 1 Corinthians 7:10-17, and then 1 Corinthians 13. Think about what those words tell us about the way married people have to treat each other.

6. God made our bodies for good things, so we have to keep them away from bad things.

The Bible has this in 1 Corinthians 6:13-20,

God made your bodies for you to live his way. You can't sleep with anyone you want to. You have to use your bodies the way God wants you to use them. You see, our bodies are important to God. Our leader, Jesus died, but then God made him alive again. And God will use his power to make our bodies alive again too. Think about this. God says this in his book, "The man and his wife will join with each other, and their bodies will be like one body." So, if a man pays a woman money to let him sleep with her, he joins his own body to her body and becomes like one body with her. And you know, your bodies are parts of Jesus Christ's body. So don't let part of Jesus's body join up to the body of a bad woman. No way. But, you know, if you join on to our leader, Jesus, you join your spirit to his spirit, and the 2 of you become like one spirit. So never sleep with anyone that is not your own wife or husband and do what married people do together. Get away from that sort of bad thing. You see, other bad things that you do are outside of your own body. But if you sleep with a person you are not married to, you hurt your own body. And you know, God gave you his spirit, and he lives in you. Your body is the home of the Holy Spirit. You don't belong to yourself any more, but you belong to God. Remember this, God bought you. He paid a lot for you. So you have to use your body to live for him, to show everyone that God is really great and good.

And this is in Ephesians 5:3-5,

So don't sleep with somebody that is not your own wife or husband, as if you are married to them. ... You are God's own people, so don't even think about doing bad things like that. That's not the way for God's people to live. And don't talk in a dirty way or tell dirty jokes, and don't say stupid things. It's not right for God's people to talk like that. Instead, when you talk, you have to thank God a lot. Listen, this is true. If you do those bad and dirty things, you will never get the good things that God gives to his people. It's like this, if you think in a dirty way, you can't be in God's family, you can't be with Jesus Christ. And if you sleep with somebody that is not your wife or husband, as if you are married to them, you can't be in God's family.

7. How can we stop ourselves from having sex the wrong way?

We have to stop thinking about doing bad things. This is in Colossians 3:5,

You have to stop doing bad things. If that bad part inside you wants you to do something bad, don't do it. It's like you have to kill that old bad part inside you. Don't listen to it. Don't sleep with anyone that is not your wife or your husband, as if you are married to them. And don't think bad, dirty thoughts. Don't think about doing bad things.

And we have to control the way we think. This is in Philippians 4:8,

Keep thinking about the things that are true, and the things that people should respect. Keep thinking about the things that are right, and good, and lovely. Think about things that everyone reckons are really good. Think about the things that we can thank God for.

And we have to let the Holy Spirit control us. This is in Galatians 5:19 and 22, Everybody knows about the bad things that people do to make themselves feel good. They sleep with people that are not their own wives or husbands, and they do what married people do together. They think about dirty things, and then they do those bad things. They don't try to control their bad thoughts. ... But if God's spirit controls people, he gets them to do good things.

You can also read or listen to Mark 7:20-23 and Ephesians 5:7.

Part 8 What does the Holy Bible say about people fighting?

1. Does the Bible say we can fight with other people?

The Bible tells us to live quietly with everyone, with no fighting.

This is in Mark 9:50,
You have to try to make people's lives better, and don't fight with anyone, but live happy and quiet together.

You can also read Matthew 5:23-26.

The Bible tells us not to do payback.

Sometimes other people do something bad to us, or they do something bad to somebody in our family, so we get angry. Is it all right for us to get up and fight that other mob? No. The Bible tells us that if we get angry, we can not stay angry. We have to control ourselves and not hurt anybody. We can not do payback to anyone.

This is in Colossians 3:12-14,
Don't get angry with other people, even if they give you trouble. Don't get upset with each other. If somebody does something bad to you, don't do payback to them. Remember that God doesn't do payback to you, for the bad things that you do. So don't do payback to other people. And you really have to love each other properly.

And this is in Ephesians 4:26-27,
If you get angry, don't do anything wrong. Don't stay angry all day, but quickly stop being angry. Don't make it easy for the devil, the boss over the bad spirits, to get you to go wrong.

We have to let the Holy Spirit control us.

The Bible tells that if we let the Holy Spirit lead us, he will help us, so that we will not get angry, but we will love other people.

This is in Galatians 5:22,
If you let God's spirit lead you, he will get you to love God and to love other people. And you will be happy. And you will feel good and quiet inside yourself so that you will not fight with other people. God's spirit inside you will help you be good to people and not get angry, even if they give you trouble. And he will get you to be friendly to other people.

The Bible tells us to love our enemies.

Yes, God wants us to love our enemies and pray for them. Jesus said this in Matthew 5:44,
You have to love your enemies too. And if anyone makes trouble for you, pray to God and ask him to be good to them.

And this is in Romans 12:20,
If your enemies are hungry, give them food to eat. If they are thirsty, give them something to drink. Then they will be sorry and feel shame for the bad things they did to you.

Those verses tell us that it is wrong for people to get angry and fight each other. That means if another person, or another family, or another tribe, if they want to fight you or your family, God wants you to control yourself and not get angry, and not fight them. And we know that if we let God's spirit control us, he will help us.

You can learn more about this from Matthew 5:9, 2 Timothy 2:22-24 and 1 Peter 3:11-12.

2. Sometimes people fight because they are jealous, and they want somebody else's partner.

The Bible says this in James 3:14-16,
But if you only think about things that are good for yourself, and if you are jealous of other people, and if you hate other people, you are not thinking God's way. That's the devil's way. ... You see, sometimes people get jealous of each other, and sometimes they only do things to make themselves happy, and they don't think about anyone else. Whenever that happens, those people start fighting each other, and they get into all sorts of trouble.

And this is in James 4:2-3,
You think you really want something a lot, and if you can't get it, you argue and fight for it. You try to work out ways to trick people, or maybe even kill people, just to get something you want. You don't ask God for it, and that's why you don't get it. And even if you do ask God for something, he doesn't listen to you. He knows that you are just thinking about yourself. He knows you just want to make yourself happy, and you don't care about anybody else, so he doesn't give you that thing you want.

And in Matthew 5:28-29 Jesus said,
If you look at a woman that is not your wife, and you think about sleeping with her, that is bad too. If you think about doing that, you are going wrong. Thinking about it is just as bad as doing it. You see, if things in your life push you to go wrong, then you have to get rid of them, even if it is hard to do.

Jesus said that to men, but it is just as true for women.

So if we feel jealous we have to control ourselves and think about other people, not just think about what we want for ourselves. If we do not do that, we get into big trouble.

Remember that the Bible has this in Galatians 5:22-24,

If God's spirit controls people, he gets them to do good things. ... he will help you to control yourself. And there is no law to stop anybody doing any of those good things. You see, sometimes doing bad things makes people feel good. But people that belong to Jesus Christ stop doing those bad things. That bad part inside them might make them feel like doing those bad things, but they don't take any notice of it any more.

3. What does the Bible say about husbands and wives fighting each other?

\ The Bible tells husbands to love their wives and be good to them.*

This is in Ephesians 5:28-29 and 33,
Husbands have to love their wives properly, just like Jesus loves us. You know that everyone loves his own body and looks after it properly. Well, in the same way, husbands have to love their wives and look after them, just as much as they love their own bodies. A man that loves his wife, loves himself. No man ever hates his own body. No, instead he gives it food and takes care of it. ... So. ... every one of you husbands has to love your own wife as much as you love yourself.

And this is in Colossians 3:19,
You men ... have to love your wives properly, and don't ever be hard on them.

And this is in 1 Peter 3:7,
You men ... have to respect your wives and take good care of them. Their bodies aren't strong like yours. But all of you are God's people, so God gave them life, just the same as he gave you life. So remember that, and be good to them and respect them. Then God will hear your prayers.

\ The Bible tells wives to respect their husbands.*

This is in Ephesians 5:22 and 33,
You women that are wives, you have to think about what your husbands want, and agree with them, just like God's people always have to agree with what our leader, Jesus, wants. ... So ... every wife has to respect her husband.

And this is in Colossians 3:18,
You women that are wives, you have to think about what your husbands want, and agree with them. That is the right way to follow our leader Jesus.

Those verses tell us that it is wrong for husbands and wives to fight each other.

And remember that if we let God's spirit control us, he will help us so that we don't fight with our husband or wife. Remember this message in Galatians 5:22,

If you let God's spirit lead you, he will get you to love God and to love other people. And you will be happy. And you will feel good and quiet inside yourself so that you will not fight with other people. God's spirit inside you will help you be good to people and not get angry, even if they give you trouble.

Part 9 What does the Holy Bible say about gambling?

Gambling is doing things to try to get a lot of money, like playing cards for money, or playing the pokies, or betting on race horses, or buying tickets in Keno or Lotto. Why do people do it? Sometimes it is because they love money and they are greedy, so they gamble to get more money for themselves.

1. It is wrong to love money.

The Bible tells us not to love money. So if you gamble because you love money, you are doing something that God says is wrong.

This is in 1 Timothy 6:9-10,
People that try to get lots of money, they let the devil trick them. The devil is the boss over the bad spirits. He gets those people to want things so much that they will do anything to get them. That's how they fall into the devil's trap. They do silly things, and bad things too. The devil really wrecks them. If you love money a lot, you will do all sorts of bad things to get it.

And this is in Matthew 6:24,
Jesus told them another picture story. He said, "You can't work for 2 bosses at the same time. If you try to do that, then you will only like one boss, and you will always work properly for him. But you will not like the other boss, and you will never work properly for him. You see, you can't have God as your boss, and money as your boss, both at the same time."

Those verses tell us that it is wrong to love money and it is wrong to let money be our boss. So if you gamble because you love money, you are doing something that God says is wrong.

2. It is wrong to be greedy.

The Bible tells us not to be greedy. If you play cards or gamble because you are greedy and you want more than you have, you are doing what God says is wrong.

This is in Colossians 3:5-6,
Don't be greedy, wanting lots of money and things. Greedy people respect money and things more than they respect God. You know, some people will not do what God says, and he will be angry with those people, and he will punish them.

And this is in Luke 12:15,

Jesus said to the people, "Think carefully about this. Don't be greedy. Don't try to get more things than you need. You can't get real life from the things you own, even if you are rich."

You can learn more about this from 1 Corinthians 5:11, Titus 1:7, Luke 12:15, Ephesians 5:3, Philippians 4:11-13, 1 Timothy 3:3 and 8.

All those verses tell us that it is wrong to be greedy, and that we can be happy with what we've got. So if you gamble because you love money, that is wrong.

3. We have to work to get money to take care of our family.

The Bible tells us that we have to work to get enough money for the things we need, and to take care of our family.

This is in 1 Timothy 5:8, If people don't take care of their own family or their own relatives, they are not doing the thing that Jesus wants us to do.

And this is in 1 Thessalonians 4:11-12, And don't be lazy, but work to get enough money to buy whatever you need. Then you will not have to ask other people for things. If you live like that, the people that don't know God will see that you are good, and they will respect you.

In Acts 20 Paul talked to the Christian leaders at Ephesus. He said this in Acts 20:33-35,

You saw the way that I lived when I was with you. I showed you the right way for a Christian to live. I never wanted to get anyone's money or good clothes. I always worked to get the money that I needed, and to get money for my friends too. I did everything in a way that showed you that we all have to work hard to get enough money, not just for ourselves, but to give some to people that are short of the things they need. We have to remember that our leader, Jesus, said, "If people give things to you, that can make you a bit happy. But if you give things to other people, you will be properly happy."

You can also read or listen to 2 Thessalonians 3:6-13.

Part 10 What does the Holy Bible

say about teaching kids to live the right way?

The Bible says a lot about teaching kids, but we have not yet translated most of those places into PEV. There are a lot of places in the Old Testament book called Proverbs where it says that we have to teach kids what is right, and to train them to live the right way, and it says to punish them if they go the wrong way. If we punish them, they might cry, but the Bible says that if we do that, the kids will end up thanking us for it. When you think about it, if we don't do that, they might go the wrong way, and make their lives no good, or maybe end up in jail.

Do we love our kids?

We have not yet translated the New Testament book called Hebrews into PEV, but in Hebrews 12:5-9 it tells us that God really loves us, so he treats us like we are his kids and he trains us to go the right way, and he punishes us if we go the wrong way. He does that so we will live the right way, and we will live in his family forever. And it says that we have to teach our kids to live the right way too.

Whose job is it to teach kids to live God's way?

\ Is it their father's job?*

In the culture of the people in the Bible it was the job of the kid's father to teach the kid to live God's way. So in the places in the Bible that talk about this, it usually talks to the fathers, like in Ephesians 6:4, Now I'm talking to you fathers. Don't make your kids angry. But instead, as they are growing up, you have to teach them the way God wants them to live, and show them how to live the right way.

In white-fella culture it is the father's job, but the mother helps him with it, so it is the mother's job too.

\ Is it their uncle's job? (That is, their mother's brother.)*

In the culture of a lot of Aboriginal people it is the job of the kid's uncle to teach the kids about their traditional law and train them to live the right way.

But a lot of people now have to live in two worlds. They live in their traditional world, and they live in the white-fella world. So Aboriginal people have to decide whose job it is to teach their kids to live God's way. White-fellas can not tell Aboriginal people to do it the white-fella way. Aboriginal people themselves have to work out the way God wants them to do it.

The important thing is that somebody teaches the kids to live the right way. If nobody does that, then we will get trouble, because the kids will go the wrong way and hurt people.

The Holy Spirit will help us do it right.

We can ask the Holy Spirit to show us how to teach our kids properly. Jesus said this in John 14:26,

The father will send the Holy Spirit to help you. He will be your teacher, in my place. ... and he will teach you everything you need to know.

And he said this in John 16:13, After the Holy Spirit comes, he will tell you what is true.

Part 11 What does the Holy Bible say about spirits?

1. God is a spirit and we have to respect him.

This is in John 4:24,

You see, God is a spirit, and the people that really respect him have to know the true story about him, and they have to respect him with their spirits.

We also call God's spirit the Holy Spirit.

\ We have to respect God because he made everything.*

God made everything. He made us, and everything else. So we have to respect him properly.

These are the first words in the Bible, in Genesis 1:1,

First of all, a long time ago, God made everything. He made the sky, and he made the earth. He made all the things that are everywhere.

You can learn more about this in Genesis 1-3.

\ We have to respect Jesus because he worked with God to make everything.*

The Bible has this in 1 Corinthians 8:6, Jesus Christ worked with God, and together they made everything.

\ God and Jesus made spirits as well as people and things.*

The Bible has this in Colossians 1:15-16, Jesus was there with God ... They made all the things in heaven, and all the things on the earth. They made the things we can see, and the things we can't see. They made all the spirits, even the spirit bosses that we can't see. God worked with his son to make everything, so that now everything has to respect God's son. Jesus is God's son, and he is the boss over everything.

This tells us that we only have to show special respect to God, and to his son, Jesus. We don't have to show that special respect to any spirits that they made.

2. There are good spirits in the world.

The good spirits are usually called angels. That name comes from the Greek word for messenger, so the PEV often has angel messengers. They are God's messengers and workers that he sends to tell people his special messages, and to do special things for God. These are some of the places in the Bible where we can read about God's angel messengers.

This is in Luke 1:26-28,

God sent Gabriel, [his] angel messenger, to Galilee country, to a town called Nazareth. He went there to a young girl that was not married. Her name was Mary. ... Gabriel came to Mary and said, "Hello, Mary. God loves you and is good to you. He is here with you now, and he will do something good for you."

And we can read about the time some bosses put Jesus's special workers in jail, and God sent an angel to free them. This is in Acts 5:19-20,

But that night, God sent an angel messenger to Jesus's special workers, and he opened the jail doors and let them out. That angel said to them, "Go and stand in God's ceremony house, and tell all the people there everything about this new life that Jesus gives."

You can read that whole story in Acts 5:12-42.

And there are many other places in the Bible that tell us about God's angel messengers and the things they did. Some of those places are Matthew 1:20-21, 4:11, 28:2-4, Luke 1:11-20, 2:8-16, and Acts 8:26, 10:3-8, 12:6-11, 27:23-24.

3. There are bad spirits in the world.

In other English versions of the Bible the bad spirits are sometimes called devils, or sometimes called demons, or sometimes called evil spirits, or sometimes called unclean spirits. The PEV just uses bad spirits. Their boss is called the devil, or Satan, or Beelzebul.

In Ephesians 2:2 Paul wrote this about the devil,
The devil is the boss over those strong bad spirits that are in the air.

\ The devil tries to get people to go wrong and do bad things.*

This is in 1 Peter 5:8,
You have to think clearly and watch out for your enemy, the devil. He is the boss over all the bad spirits, and he is going around looking for people to trick.

And this is in 2 Timothy 2:26,
You know, the devil, the boss over the bad spirits, he tries to trick people. It is like he sets a trap for them. He catches people in his trap, then he makes them do whatever he wants them to do.

And there are other places in the Bible that show us that the devil tricks people and gets them to do bad things. Some of those places are Ephesians 2:2 and 1 Timothy 4:1, and in John 13:1-2 and 27, Acts 5:3, John 8:44, Mark 4:15, and Luke 13:16. You can think about those verses and learn more from them.

4. That bad spirit mob are enemies of God.

And if we follow Jesus and live his way, the bad spirits are our enemies too. We are at war with them.

In Ephesians 6:12-18 Paul wrote this,
You see, we are not fighting against people, but we are fighting against a big mob of bad spirits. We are fighting against the bad spirit bosses that we can't see in this bad world. And we are fighting against the powerful bad spirits that live above the earth too. So you have to use all the special gear that God gives you, so that you can stand up to those bad spirits whenever they come at you, and they will not win. And at the end of the fight, you will still be standing strong. So put on that special gear from God, so you can stand up against the devil. This is what that gear is.

- You know that a soldier wears a belt, to hold his clothes on tight, so he can move quickly in a fight. Well, just like that, you take notice of what is true, so you can fight better against the devil.

- And a soldier wears an iron plate, to stop the enemy from hitting his chest. Well, you have to always do what is right, and that will be like an iron plate for you, to stop the devil from hitting you.
- And a soldier wears special shoes, so that he can always be ready to fight. Well, you have to remember the good news about Jesus, that he makes us God's friends. Then you will be ready to fight the devil.
- You know that a soldier always has a shield, to stop the spears that the enemy throws at him. In the same way, you have to always trust God. Whenever you do that, it is like you are holding up a shield that stops the things that the devil throws at you. They are like burning spears, but if you trust God, he will stop them and put them out.
- And a soldier wears an iron hat, that stops the enemy from hurting his head. Well, you remember that God has saved you. That will be like an iron hat for you, to keep you safe.
- And you know the long knife a soldier has, called a sword? He uses it to fight back against his enemy. Well, in the same way, you can use God's word to fight back against the devil, and the Holy Spirit will help you.

And always pray in the way that God's spirit leads you. Pray about every problem, and pray in all sorts of ways, and ask God for whatever you need.

If we stay strong for Jesus, we will win in the end. This is in Romans 8:31,
We are on God's side. He is with us, so it doesn't matter who is against us, they can't win against God.

And this is in Romans 8:38-39,
I'm really sure that nothing at all can make God stop loving us. ... Those bad spirits, they can't make him stop loving us.

You can learn more about the devil and those bad spirits in John 16:11 and Mark 3:23-26.

5. God and Jesus are more powerful than the devil and his bad spirit mob.

This is in 1 Peter 3:22,
All the angels, and all the bad spirits, and all the bosses everywhere, they haven't got as much power as Jesus. No. He is the strongest one anywhere. He has more power than all of them.

And this is in Ephesians 1:19-22, God is stronger and more powerful than anyone, and ... he will use his power to do good things for all of us that trust him.

God is very powerful. You see, people killed Jesus Christ, but God used his power to make him alive again, and to take him up into heaven. That shows that God is really powerful. Then God put Jesus in the most important place in heaven. He is sitting right next to God, on his right-hand side. Jesus is now the biggest boss. He is bigger than all the other bosses everywhere, and he is bigger than all the spirits everywhere. He is the big boss over everyone in this world now, and he's the big boss over everyone in the world that will come later. Not one of them is stronger than Jesus. Only Jesus has God's power. God made Jesus the boss over everyone. It's like everything is under Jesus's feet.

6. God and Jesus can stop bad spirits so that they can not make us go wrong, and he can stop them so that they can not hurt us.

This is in Romans 16:20,

You know, Satan, the boss over the bad spirits, he tries to get you to go wrong. But God is stronger than Satan. God is the one that makes us happy and quiet inside ourselves. And he will beat Satan, so that Satan can't do anything to you any more.

And this is in Colossians 1:13-14,

You know, the boss over the bad spirits always used to push us to do bad things. It's like we were in a bad place, where he is the boss. But God sent his son, Jesus, to get us out of that place. He took the payback for us, so that now God will not punish us. He set us free from that bad boss, and now we belong to the family of God's son.

This is in James 4:7,

So listen to God, and follow him, and do what he says. Fight back against the devil, the boss over the bad spirits. Whenever he tries to get you to go wrong, just tell him to be quiet, and don't listen to him. Then he will leave you, and he will run away from you.

This is in 2 Thessalonians 3:3,

Jesus, our leader, is always good to us, and he always does what he promised to do. He will help you to keep on trusting him strongly. He will keep you safe from that really bad one, the boss over the bad spirits, so that he can't touch you.

Those verses show us that Jesus can stop bad spirits from hurting us, and we can fight back against the devil. So if anyone tells us that we have to show respect to a bad spirit, or that they will sing us and hurt us, we just have to trust Jesus and say "No. My God will look after me." Then Jesus will stop all those bad spirits and keep them away from us.

There is more in the Bible about the way that God and Jesus have power over bad spirits. You can learn more from John 12:31-33, Ephesians 6:10-18, Philippians 2:9-11, Colossians 2:10, Romans 8:38-39, and Mark 5:1-20.

Sometimes people get frightened when a baby or a little kid cries. Some people think that a bad spirit will hear that kid and will come and hurt them. That message is not in the Bible, so I reckon it comes from the devil. Do not believe it. Just remember that Jesus will stop bad spirits from hurting us.

7. One day Jesus will finish up all that bad spirit mob.

This is in 1 Corinthians 15:23-24,

After Jesus comes back, all his people will live again too. Then Jesus will finish up all the bad spirits. Some of them are bosses, and some of them have power. He will take away their power, and he will finish them all up. Then the end will come.

You can also read Matthew 25:41 and Jude 1:6.

8. We can not show respect to bad spirits.

We have to show respect to God but we can not show respect to bad spirits, or to anything that has a bad spirit in it. This is in Galatians 4:3, 8-9,

The bad spirits that are the bosses over this world, they were our bosses. ... At first you didn't know God. Those other bad spirits were your bosses. Those spirits are not gods at all, but you couldn't get free from them. But then you heard about Jesus, and now you do know God, or really, God knows you. So don't turn back now to those weak and useless spirits that are the bosses over this world. Don't let them be your bosses again.

At the time when God's men wrote the Holy Bible, people used to make statues and show respect to them. This is in 1 Corinthians 8:4-6,

We know that there is only the one God. But some people that are not Christians, they respect lots of spirits. They respect spirits in the sky, and spirits on the earth. And they think those spirits are gods, and they let those spirits be their bosses. And people make statues that they think look like those spirits, and they think those statues get power from those spirits. But we Christians know that those statues are nothing at all. We know there is only one God. He is our father. He made everything, and we want to do whatever he wants, as long as we live. And there is only one true boss. He is Jesus Christ. He worked with God, and together they made everything. And Jesus gives us Christians real life.

And this is in 1 Corinthians 10:19-22, You see, this is what I'm saying. Those statues that people think are gods, they are really nothing. ... Really, those people are showing respect to bad spirits, not God, and they are joining themselves to bad spirits. Don't do that. I don't want you to join up with bad spirits. You can't go 2 ways at the same time. You can't drink from the cup of our leader, Jesus, and then drink from the cup of bad spirits. You can't eat the damper from the table of Jesus, and then eat food from the table of bad spirits. If you do, you will make God jealous, and he will get angry with you.

Part 12 What does the Holy Bible say about things in our culture?

1. We all have our own culture.

All nations of people have their own culture, and they are different from each other. Some of the things in our cultures are about spirits, and other things in our cultures are about the way we live with our families, and about how we get our food, and about our language, and those sorts of things. And some ceremonies in our culture might be for giving respect to a spirit, and some ceremonies might be for other things.

2. How can we know if something in our culture is good or bad?

a. We have to think about what the Bible says, and take notice of it.

We know that the Bible is God's word. This is in 2 Timothy 3:16,

Everything in God's book comes from God himself. It was God that sent the message to people to write down, and God uses it now to teach us his true word, and he uses it to get us to understand the things that are wrong with our lives, and to straighten us out, and he uses it to teach us to do the things that are right.

So we always have to take notice of the Bible, and we have to do what God wants us to do. We can not do anything that God says is wrong.

We can think about the laws and ceremonies in our culture, and we have to think about what the Bible says too. If we think about a law, we have to ask ourselves, "Is this law right? Or is it wrong? Is this the way God wants us to live?" If we think about a ceremony, we have to ask ourselves, "Does this ceremony show respect to a bad spirit, or does it show respect to God? Or is it just a fun thing that is all right?"

There can be things that are wrong in any culture. There are a lot of things in white-fella culture that are wrong. For example, white-fella culture and laws say it's all right for two people that haven't got partners to have sex with each other if they want to. But the Bible says we can only have sex with our partner; that is, the person we are married to in the Aboriginal way, or married to in the white-fella way. (See part 7.) So that bit of white-fella culture is wrong.

God wants Christian white-fellas to keep away from everything in their culture that is wrong, even if their family and friends don't agree with them leaving those things, and even if their family and friends make trouble for them.

And it is the same for Christian Indigenous people. God wants them to keep away from everything in their culture that is wrong, even if their family and friends don't agree with them leaving those things, and even if their family and friends make trouble for them.

b. We have to think about how to love God and people.

Remember what Jesus told us in Mark 12:29-39,

The most important law is this one. ...

"You have to love God properly, not just a little bit. You have to love God from right inside yourself. You have to love God in the way you feel, and in the way you think. And you have to love God in the way you do things."

The 2nd most important law is this one,

"You have to love other people just as much as you love yourself."

Those 2 laws are the strongest and most important laws.

We have to follow those 2 important laws, even if we go against our culture to do them.

c. We have to ask God to help us.

We need God's help to work out what is right and what is wrong in our culture. This is in James 1:5,

So if you want to properly understand what is the right thing to do, and if you want to learn how to be strong when you get trouble, just ask God to help you. He will not be angry with you. He is happy when you ask him for help like that, and he will help you, and make you think properly. He will make you think the right way so that you will do the right thing.

d. The Holy Spirit will help us.

Remember what Jesus said to his followers, in John 16:13, After the Holy Spirit comes, he will tell you what is true.

And remember this, in Ephesians 6:17, You can use God's word to fight back against the devil, and the Holy Spirit will help you.

e. If people give you trouble, stay strong for God.

Maybe we will think about what God says, and we will work out that something in our culture is wrong, so after that we will not do it. Then maybe people will make trouble for us. But we will be happy anyway, because we know that we will be doing what God wants. Jesus said this is in Matthew 5:10,

Some people do what is right, but some other people don't like it, and they make trouble for those good people. But God takes those good people into his family, and they will be really happy.

And this is in 1 Peter 4:16,

If people give you trouble because you follow Jesus, don't feel shame. No. Just thank God that you belong to Jesus.

And this is in Romans 12:12,

If people give you trouble now, don't worry. But stay strong for God. And keep on talking to God about everything.

3. What about Dreamings in Aboriginal culture?

Are Dreamings good spirits from God, or are they bad spirits from the devil's mob that are tricking people? Or are they not spirits at all, but maybe they are things in stories to show Aboriginal people that they are properly Aboriginal? Or what are Dreamings? The white-fellas can not really say. It is up to Aboriginal Christians to find out what is right in their culture, just like white-fella Christians have to find out what is right in white-fella culture.

This is in Acts 17:26-28,

And God gave each tribe their own country, and he planned where they will live and how long they will live there. He did that so that we can look for him, and maybe we can find him. But really, he is not very far away from any of us. That old story is true that says, "He is with us all the time. He is the one that makes us alive, so that we can walk about and do things."

That was in the message Paul gave to some people that made statues and showed respect to them. Then Paul told them this, in Acts 17:29-31,

We shouldn't just dream up something and then make a statue like that from gold or silver or stone, and say, "My god looks like this." No way. Nobody can make any sort of statue that is anything like God. You see, at first people didn't know about God, but at that time he didn't worry about it. Now it is different. Now he says to all of us, that we have to turn around and stop doing bad things.

From those words we know that, even though God didn't try to straighten out people in the past, it is different now. He now wants everyone to live his way.

The Bible has this in Colossians 2:8, Some people might try to make you believe some ideas about God that are wrong. Those ideas didn't come from Jesus Christ, but they came from bad spirits, and from the people of this world. People taught those ideas to their kids, and to their grand-kids. But those ideas are not true. They might sound good, but they are tricky lies. Be careful. Don't believe them.

And this is in 1 Thessalonians 5:20-22, Don't rubbish God's messages, but listen carefully when anyone tells you a message from God. Think carefully about everything they say, and find out if it really comes from God. Then, if it is right, be careful to remember it and to do those good things. But if it is wrong, or if it tells you to do a bad thing, don't do it. Keep away from every sort of bad thing, and don't listen to messages that don't come from God.

And this is in Acts 4:12, Jesus is the only one that can save people. God didn't send anyone else to save us. Jesus is the only one in the world that has power to save people.

You can also read Matthew 7:13-20, and John 1:1-30.

So what now?

After you have read this little book you have to think about the words from the Holy Bible that are in it. They tell us that God made everything. He made people, and he wants them to be in his family. But the Bible tells us that we have to trust Jesus, and we have to live the good way he wants us to live.

And God made spirits too. There are bad spirits in the world, and their boss is Satan. He is the one that tries to make us go wrong. But the Bible also tells us that Jesus is more powerful than Satan and all that bad spirit mob, and one day he will finish them up. Jesus can stop those bad spirits from hurting us. So we have to show respect only to God and to Jesus. If there is anything in our culture that gets us to show respect to bad spirits, we can not follow that part of our culture. We have to leave it.

God gives us that message from the Holy Bible.

More information about this translation

Purpose and translation philosophy

The Plain English Version (PEV) is an English translation of the Bible designed for Indigenous Australians whose first language is an Indigenous language. Its purpose is to convey the meaning of the original Scripture in English that is easy to understand and natural for them. We have, as much as possible, limited its grammar, semantic and rhetorical features to those common in Aboriginal languages, and its vocabulary to the English that is most widely used.

We have applied the principles of meaning-based translation, wherein we have sought to convey the same meaning that the original authors conveyed to the original readers. That means not just considering individual words, but also the message of the whole passage.

To comprehend our philosophy, imagine the author of a passage to be an Indigenous man in Arnhem Land writing to Indigenous people in Central Australia. How would he word the same message to them? We have aimed to word the PEV the same way.

The wording of the PEV was decided in consultation with many Indigenous people whose first language is an Aboriginal language, and our exegesis was checked by accredited consultants who gave approval for publication only after it was adjusted to their satisfaction.

Main differences between the PEV and Standard English versions

Linguistic features: below is a list of modifications made to conform as much as possible to the linguistic features of most Aboriginal languages.

- Minimised passive voice, substituting active voice with the actor indicated, even when this was not done in the original text. E.g. Acts 16:30 NIV 'what must I do to be saved?'; PEV 'what can I do so that God will save me?'
- Minimised abstract nouns by using verbs and adjectives instead. E.g. 1 Pet 1:3 NIV 'a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead'; PEV 'Jesus died, but God brought him back to life. From that we know that God will save us too.' There are however a few abstract nouns that are found in many Aboriginal languages, including words for life and trouble, so we don't avoid using them in the PEV.

- Minimised past perfect tense (also called pluperfect) which English uses to switch back in time. Aboriginal languages have no equivalent for this. We have indicated the time switch-back in words. E.g. 1 Sam 1:5 NIV 'the LORD had closed her womb'; PEV 'You see, before this time, God stopped her from having kids.'
- Avoided the use of gerunds. E.g. 1 Tim 4:13 NIV 'devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture'; PEV 'Make sure you read God's book in your meetings.'

On the sentence level:

- Minimised use of subordinate clauses. E.g. Phil 2:5-7 NIV 'In your relationships with one another, have the same mindset as Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage; rather, he made himself nothing by taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness'; PEV 'You have to think the same way that Jesus Christ thought. He was the same as God. He was just as important as God. But he didn't reckon that he had to keep on being important, like God is. Instead, he left all that, and he made himself like a nobody. He was born into this world, and looked like other human beings. He was a man living here. And he worked hard to help people.'

On the discourse level:

- Events usually re-arranged into chronological order, for example, the original of Mark 6:14-29 begins with people discussing the supernatural power behind Jesus' miracles, then it back-tracks several times to explain why Herod had killed John the Baptist. The PEV re-arranges the whole passage, starting with 'This is the story about what happened to John, the man that baptised people. The big boss over that country was Herod, and his brother was Philip. Philip's wife's name was Herodias...' From there it states the events in chronological order, ending with '...some people reckoned, "Jesus is really John the Baptist. God made him alive again, and God gave him power to do great things." Herod heard those stories, and he said, "I got my soldiers to cut John's head off, but this man, Jesus, he has to be John the Baptist. I reckon God made him alive again.” ’

- Logical sequence sometimes rearranged. Since many Australian languages favour the word order of reason-result rather than result-reason we have followed that order in our translation wherever feasible. E.g. Rom 1:19 NIV ‘what may be known about God is plain to them, because God has made it plain to them’; PEV ‘God clearly shows everybody enough for us to understand the true story about him. Everybody knows about him.’
- Transitional wording supplied where the original suddenly shifts topic or focus. E.g. 2 Tim 4 at the junction of v.15 and v.16, NIV ‘15 You too should be on your guard against him, because he strongly opposed our message. 16 At my first defense, no one came to my support, but everyone deserted me’; PEV (transitional wording italicised) ‘15 You look out for him too. He doesn’t like the message we tell people about God, and he will try to do anything to stop us. 16 And here, in this city, when they took me to court that first time, and I tried to tell the judge my story, nobody else said anything to back me up. They all left me.’
- The words now and then only used as time orienting adverbs. They are commonly used in standard English as discourse level conjunctions, but some of our audience find them confusing when used as conjunctions. E.g. Rom 3:19 NIV ‘Now we know that ...’; PEV ‘You know, it’s like this.’

Semantic and rhetorical features:

below are some semantic and rhetorical features modified to be understandable and natural for speakers of Aboriginal languages.

- Implicit and background information made explicit in cases where it would have been known by the original audience, but not by some of our target audience, and is necessary for correct understanding of the passage. E.g. Mark 14:27-28 NIV ‘ “You will all fall away,” Jesus told them, “for it is written: ‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’ But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you into Galilee.” ’; PEV ‘Jesus...said, “All you mob will run away and leave me. A long time ago, God got one of his men to write about this in his book. He wrote, ‘God will knock down the man that looks after the sheep and all his sheep will run away.’ He wrote those words about me. I will die, like he wrote about that man, and you will all run away. But after that, God will make me alive again. Then I will go ahead of you to Galilee country, and I will wait for you there.” ’

- Figurative speech can add ‘punch’ to an expression, but when translated literally it is often obscure, and sometimes seriously misunderstood by people whose first language does not have the same figures. So in this translation, the actual meaning of a figure is conveyed, and the picture words are included only if they are helpful. Below are three of the more common types of figurative speech.
  - Metaphors. E.g. 2 Tim 4:7 NIV ‘I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith’; PEV ‘I did my job properly, and I finished all the work God gave me to do. I always told the true message about Jesus. I’m like a man that runs a long race and keeps going hard right up to the finish line.’ Note that the literal ‘fight’ is not included. A misunderstanding of such a figure could lead to serious consequences. The apostle Paul often uses the Greek sarx, (literally ‘meat/flesh/body’), as a metaphor meaning ‘sinful human nature’. We usually render this as ‘that old part of us that makes us do wrong’, or something similar. E.g. Rom 7:5 NIV ‘For when we were in the realm of the flesh...’; PEV ‘You know, we all have a bad part in us that wants us to do bad things. And at first, when we didn’t believe in Jesus...’
  - Personification. E.g. Rom 5:21 NIV ‘sin reigned in death’; PEV ‘It was like this. We couldn’t stop ourselves doing bad things, so we all had to die.’
  - Rhetorical questions have either been turned into statements that convey the same underlying meaning, or answered explicitly. E.g. Rom 10:15 NIV ‘And how can anyone preach unless they are sent?’; PEV ‘somebody has to send those messengers to go and tell the people about Jesus.’ Or Matt 7:9 NIV ‘Which of you, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone?’; PEV ‘If your son asks you for some bread, will you give him a stone? No way.’
- General instruction given in third person changed to second person, this being more common in Aboriginal languages. E.g. Mark 4:9 NIV ‘Whoever has ears to hear, let them hear.’ PEV

'You've got ears, so you have to listen to me properly, and take notice of my words.'

- Indirect speech often replaced by direct quotation. E.g. Mark 8:7 NIV 'he gave thanks for them'; PEV 'he said, "Thank you God for these fish."'

Vocabulary: modified to conform to what is commonly understood by the target audience.

- Avoided words that are not widely known by the audience. Often a more widely known synonym is used. E.g. instead of 'speak', it has 'say', 'talk' or 'tell'. Sometimes a descriptive phrase is used. E.g. instead of 'obey', it has 'do what someone says'.
- Adjusted the spelling of unfamiliar names to make them easier for the audience to sound out. E.g. instead of 'Enoch', it has 'Enok'.
- In cases where the original has masculine gender but is addressing both genders, gender-neutral language is used. E.g. Rom 15:30 ESV 'I appeal to you, brothers...'; PEV 'My Christian friends, I really want you...'
- Where the original has weights, measures, and currency used at the time and place of its writing, the equivalent in denominations known to our audience is used. E.g. Mark 6:37 ESV 'Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii worth'; PEV 'That will cost thousands of dollars.'
- Standard English uses the words who, when, where, what, why and how both to ask questions and to introduce descriptions. However poorer readers are confused when they are used in the latter way, so we have minimised that use. E.g. Gen 14:13 NIV 'A man who had escaped came and reported this to Abram'; PEV 'A man got away...and he went and told Abram.'
- Below is a list of biblical terms, and how they have been rendered.

Plain English rendering of biblical terms

Below is a table of frequently occurring biblical terms in Standard English showing how we have usually translated them in plain English. There is some variation to these renderings throughout the text, each case being adapted to fit its context, so a range of plain English renderings is sometimes given below, and sometimes a combination of them is used in the text.

Note:

Some Greek words, and the English words commonly used as their equivalents, have a primary meaning but are also used in a way that has nothing in common with that primary meaning. We have translated such words to convey the overall meaning of the text where they are used. There are too many to include here, but a few of the more prominent ones are mentioned below:

in is primarily a locative but is also used to indicate relationship or connection.

We have handled some of the common cases thus:

in Christ: joined to Jesus, belonging to Jesus in the name of: with someone's power, (believe) in someone, (sent) by someone, (teach) about someone, (speak) someone's message, (baptise) to show they follow someone, to show they belong to someone do something in love: love (as a verb)

now has the primary meaning of 'at this time' but it is also used as a discourse level conjunction, and is treated as such in our translation of those cases.

then has the primary meaning of 'next in sequence', but it is also used as a discourse level conjunction, and is treated as such in our translation of those cases.
