

GENESIS

¹ In the beginning God made the heaven and the earth.

² But the earth was unsightly and unfurnished, and darkness was over the deep, and the Spirit of God moved over the water.

³ And God said, Let there be light, and there was light.

⁴ And God saw the light that it was good, and God divided between the light ^{*}and the darkness.

⁵ And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night, and there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

⁶ And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the water, and let it be a division between water and water, and it was so.

⁸ And God called the firmament Heaven, and God saw that it was good, and there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

⁹ And God said, Let the water which is under the heaven be collected into one [†] place, and let the dry land appear, and it was so. And the water which was under the heaven was collected into its places, [‡] and the dry land appeared.

¹⁰ And God called the dry land Earth, and the [§] gatherings of the waters he called Seas, and God saw that it was good.

¹¹ And God said, Let the earth bring forth the herb of grass ^{} bearing seed according to its kind ^{††} and according to its likeness, and the fruit tree bearing fruit whose seed is in it, according to its kind on the earth, and it was so.

¹² And the earth brought forth the herb of grass bearing seed according to its kind and according to its likeness, and the fruit tree bearing fruit whose seed is in it, according to its kind on the earth, and God saw that it was good.

¹³ And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.

¹⁴ And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven ^{‡‡} to give light upon the earth, to divide between day and night, and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and for years.

¹⁵ And let them be for light in the firmament of the heaven, so as to shine upon the earth, and it was so.

¹⁶ And God made the two great lights, the greater light for regulating the day and the lesser light for regulating the night, the stars also.

¹⁸ and to regulate day and night, and to divide between the light and the darkness. And God saw that it was good.

¹⁹ And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

²¹ And God made great  whales, and ††† every living reptile, which the waters brought forth according to their kinds, and every creature that flies with wings according to its kind, and God saw that they were good.

²³ And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day.

²⁴ And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living ††† creature according to its kind, quadrupeds and reptiles and wild beasts of the earth according to their kind, and it was so.

²⁵ And God made the wild beasts of the earth according to their kind, and cattle according to their kind, and all the reptiles of the earth according to their kind, and God saw that they were good.

²⁶ And God said, Let us make man according to our image and likeness, and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the flying creatures of heaven, and over the cattle and all the earth, and over all the reptiles that creep on the earth.

²⁷ And God made man, according to the image of God ☆ he made him, male and female he made them.

²⁸ And God blessed them, saying, Increase and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it, and have dominion over the fish of the seas and flying creatures of heaven, and all the cattle and all the earth, and all the reptiles that creep on the earth.

²⁹ And God said, Behold I have given to you every seed-bearing herb sowing seed which is upon all the earth, and every tree which has in itself the fruit of seed that is sown, to you it shall be for food.

¹ And the heavens and the earth were finished, and the whole * world of them.

² ☆ And God finished on the sixth day his works which he made, and he ceased on the seventh day from all his works which he made.

⁹ And God made to spring up also out of the earth every tree beautiful § to the eye and good for food, and the tree of life in the midst of the garden, and the tree of learning  the knowledge of good and evil.

¹⁰ And a river proceeds out of Eden to water the garden, thence it divides itself into four heads.

¹² And the gold of that land is good, there also is carbuncle and emerald.

¹⁸ And the Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be alone, let us make for him a help §§ suitable to him.

¹⁹ And God formed yet farther out of the earth all the wild beasts of the field, and all the birds of the sky, and he brought them to Adam, to see what he would call them, and whatever Adam called any living creature,  that was the name of it.

up the flesh instead thereof.

¹ And the two were naked, both Adam and his wife, and were not ashamed. Now the serpent was the most crafty of all the brutes on the earth, which the Lord God made, and the serpent said to the woman, Therefore has God said, Eat not of every tree of the garden?

² And the woman said to the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden,

⁴ And the serpent said to the woman, * You [^] shall not surely die.

⁶ And the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes to look upon and beautiful to contemplate, and having taken of its fruit she ate, and she gave to her husband also with her, and they ate.

⁹ And the Lord God called Adam and said to him, Adam, where are you?

¹⁰ And he said to him, I heard † your voice as you walked in the garden, and I feared because I ‡ was naked and I hid myself.

¹¹ And God said to him, Who told you that you were naked, unless you have eaten of the tree concerning which I charged you of it alone not to eat?

¹² And Adam said, The woman whom you gave to be with me—she gave me of the tree and I ate.

¹³ And the Lord God said to the woman, Why have you done this? And the woman said, The serpent deceived me and I ate.

¹⁴ And the Lord God said to the serpent, Because you have done this you are cursed above all cattle and all the brutes of the earth, on your breast and belly you shall go, and you shall eat earth all the days of your life.

¹⁶ And to the woman he said, I will greatly multiply your pains and your groanings; in pain you shall bring forth children, and your submission †† shall be to your husband, and he shall rule over you.

¹⁷ And to Adam he said, Because you have listened to the voice of your wife, and eaten of the tree concerning which I charged you of it only not to eat—of that you have eaten, cursed is the ground in your labors, in pain shall you eat of it all the days of your life.

¹⁸ Thorns and thistles shall it bring forth to you, and you shall eat the herb of the field.

¹⁹ In the sweat of your face shall you eat your bread until you return to the earth out of which you were taken, for earth you are and to earth you shall return.

²¹ And the Lord God made for Adam and his wife garments of skin, and clothed them.

22 And §§ God said, Behold, Adam is become as one of us, to know good and evil, and now lest at any time he stretch forth his hand, and take of the tree of life and eat, and so he shall live forever—

23 So the Lord God sent him forth out of the garden of Delight to cultivate the ground out of which he was taken.

24 And he cast out Adam and caused him to dwell over against the garden of Delight, and stationed the cherubs and the fiery sword that turns about to keep the way of the tree of life.

1 And Adam knew Eve his wife, and she conceived and brought forth Cain and said, I have gained a man through God.

2 And she again bore his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

3 And it was so * after some time that Cain brought of the fruits of the earth a sacrifice to the Lord.

4 And Abel † also brought of the first born of his sheep and of his fatlings, and God looked upon Abel and his gifts,

5 but Cain and his sacrifices he regarded not, and Cain was exceedingly sorrowful and his countenance fell.

6 And the Lord God said to Cain, Why are you become very sorrowful and why is your countenance fallen?

§§ 3:22 Alex. + the Lord. * 4:3 Gr. after days. † 4:4 Gr. he also.

⁷ Have you not sinned if you have brought it rightly, but not rightly divided it? be still, to you shall be his submission, and you shall rule over him.

⁸ And Cain said to Abel his brother, Let us go out into the plain; and it came to pass that when they were in the plain Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and killed him.

⁹ And the Lord God said to Cain, Where is Abel your brother? and he said, I know not, am I my brother's keeper?

¹² When you till the earth, then it shall not continue to give its strength to you: you shall be groaning and trembling on the earth.

¹⁴ If you cast me out this day from the face of the earth, ‡ and I shall be hidden from your presence, and I shall be groaning and trembling upon the earth, then it will be that any one that finds me shall kill me.

¹⁵ And the Lord God said to him, Not so, any one that slays Cain shall § suffer sevenfold vengeance; and the Lord God set a mark upon Cain that no one that found him might kill him.

‡ 4:14 Or, then shall I be. § 4:15 Gr. pay seven penalties.

²⁰ And Ada bore Jobel; he was the father of those that dwell in tents, feeding cattle.

²³ And Lamech said to his wives, Ada and Sella, Hear my voice, you [^] wives of Lamech, consider my words, because I have slain a man to my ^{§§} sorrow and a youth to my ^{} grief.

²⁴ Because vengeance has been exacted seven times on Cain's behalf, on Lamech's it shall be seventy times seven.

²⁵ And Adam knew Eve his wife, and she conceived and bore a son, and called his name Seth, saying, For God has raised up to me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain killed.

¹³ And Cainan lived after his begetting Maleleel, seven hundred and forty years, and he begot sons and daughters.

¹⁶ And Maleleel lived after his begetting Jared, seven hundred and thirty years, and he begot sons and daughters.

¹⁹ and Jared lived after his begetting Enoch, eight hundred years, and he begot sons and daughters.

²¹ And Enoch lived one hundred and sixty and five years, and became the father of Mathusala.

²³ And all the days of Enoch were three hundred and sixty and five years.

²⁶ And Mathusala lived after his begetting Lamech § eight hundred and two years, and begot sons and daughters.

²⁸ And Lamech lived one hundred and eighty and eight years, and begot a son.

²⁹ And he called his name Noe, saying, This one will cause us to cease from our works, and from the toils of our hands, and from the earth, which the Lord God has cursed.

³⁰ And Lamech lived after his begetting Noe, five hundred and sixty and five years, and begot sons and daughters.

¹ And Noe was five hundred years old, and he begot three sons, Sem, * Cham, and Japheth. And it came to pass when men began to be numerous upon the earth, and daughters were born to them, because they are flesh, but their days shall be one hundred and twenty years.

² that the † sons of God having seen the daughters of men that they were beautiful, took to themselves wives of all whom they chose.

⁴ Now the giants were upon the earth in those days; and after that when the sons of God were wont to go in to the daughters of men, they bore children to them, those were the giants of old, the men of renown.

⁶ then God laid it to heart that he had made man upon the earth, and he pondered it deeply.

⁷ And God said, I will blot out man whom I have made from the face of the earth, even man with cattle, and reptiles with flying creatures of the sky, for I am † grieved that I have made them.

⁸ But Noe found grace before the Lord God.

¹⁰ And Noe begot three sons, Sem, § Cham, Japheth.

¹² And the Lord God saw the earth, and it was corrupted; because all flesh had corrupted its way upon the earth.

¹³ And the Lord God said to Noe,  A period of all men is come before me; because the earth has been filled with iniquity by them, and, behold, I destroy them and the earth.

¹⁹ And of all cattle and of all reptiles and of all wild beasts, even of all flesh, you shall bring by  pairs of all, into the ark, that you may feed them with yourself: male and female they shall be.

²⁰ Of all winged birds after their kind, and of all cattle after their kind, and of all reptiles creeping upon the earth after their kind, pairs of all shall come in to you, male and female to be fed with you.

¹ And the Lord God said to Noe, Enter you and all your * family into the ark, for you have I seen righteous before me in this generation.

² And of the clean cattle take in to you sevens, male and female, and of the unclean cattle pairs male and female.

⁴ For yet seven days having passed I bring rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights, and I will blot out every offspring which I have made from the face of all the earth.

⁵ And Noe did all things whatever the Lord God commanded him.

* 7:1 Gr. house.

⁹ pairs went in to Noe into the ark, male and female, as God commanded Noe.

¹⁰ And it came to pass after the seven days that the water of the flood came upon the earth.

¹¹ In the six hundredth year of the life of Noe, in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, on this day all the fountains of the abyss were broken up, and the † flood-gates of heaven were opened.

¹² And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

¹⁶ And they that entered went in male and female of all flesh, as God commanded Noe, and the Lord God shut the ark outside of him.

¹⁸ And the water prevailed and abounded exceedingly upon the earth, and the ark was borne upon the water.

¹⁹ And the water prevailed exceedingly upon the earth, and covered all the high mountains which were under heaven.

²⁰ Fifteen cubits upwards was the water raised, and it covered all the high mountains.

²¹ And there died all flesh that moved upon the earth, of flying creatures and cattle, and of wild beasts, and every reptile moving upon the earth, and every man.

²² And all things which have the breath of life, and whatever was on the dry land, died.

²⁴ And the water was raised over the earth one hundred and fifty days.

¹ And God remembered Noe, and all the wild beasts, and all the cattle, and all the birds, and all the reptiles that creep, as many as were with him in the ark, and God brought a wind upon the earth, and the water stayed.

² And the fountains of the deep were closed up, and the flood-gates of heaven, and the rain from heaven was withheld.

⁴ And the water continued to decrease until the tenth month.

⁵ And in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the heads of the mountains were seen.

⁸ And he sent ‡ a dove after it to see if the water had ceased from off the earth.

¹⁰ And having waited yet seven other days, he again sent forth the dove from the ark.

¹³ And it came to pass in the six hundred and first year of the life of Noe, in the first month, on the first day of the month, the water subsided from off the earth, and Noe opened the covering of the ark which he had made, and he saw that the water had subsided from the face of the earth.

¹⁴ And in the second month the earth was dried, on the twenty-seventh day of the month.

¹⁵ And the Lord God spoke to Noe, saying,

¹⁶ Come out from the ark, you and your wife and your sons, and your sons' wives with you.

¹⁷ And all the wild beasts as many as are with you, and all flesh both of birds and beasts, and every reptile moving upon the earth, bring forth with you: and increase you ^ and multiply upon the earth.

¹⁸ And Noe came forth, and his wife and his sons, and his sons' wives with him.

²¹ And the Lord God smelled a smell of sweetness, and the Lord God having considered, said, I will not any more curse the earth, because of the works of men, because the imagination of man is intently bent upon evil things from his youth, I will not therefore any more strike all living flesh as I have done.

¹ And God blessed Noe and his sons, and said to them, Increase and multiply, and fill the earth and have dominion over it.

² And the dread and the fear of you shall be upon all the wild beasts of the earth, on all the birds of the sky, and on all things moving upon the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea, I have placed them under your * power.

⁴ But flesh with blood of life you ^ shall not eat.

⁶ He that sheds man's blood, instead of that blood shall his own be shed, for in the image of God I made man.

⁷ But do you ^ increase and multiply, and fill the earth, and have dominion over it.

⁸ And God spoke to Noe, and to his sons with him, saying,

⁹ And behold I establish my covenant with you, and with your seed after you,

¹¹ And I will establish my covenant with you and all flesh shall not any more die by the water of the flood, and there shall no more be a flood of water to destroy all the earth.

¹² And the Lord God said to Noe, This is the sign of the covenant which I set between me and you, and between every living creature which is with you for perpetual generations.

¹³ I set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a sign of covenant between me and the earth.

¹⁵ And I will remember my covenant, which is between me and you, and between every living soul in all flesh, and there shall no longer be water for a deluge, so as to blot out all flesh.

¹⁶ And my bow shall be in the cloud, and I will look to remember the everlasting covenant between me and the earth, and between every living soul in all flesh, which is upon the earth.

¹⁷ And God said to Noe, This is the sign of the covenant, which I have made between me § and all flesh, which is upon the earth.

¹⁸ Now the sons of Noe which came out of the ark, were Sem, Cham, Japheth. And Cham was father of Chanaan.

¹⁹ These three are the sons of Noe, of these were men scattered over all the earth.

²⁰ And Noe began to be a husbandman, and he planted a vineyard.

²¹ And he drank of the wine, and was drunk, and was naked in his house.

§ 9:17 Gr. and between.

²⁵ And he said, Cursed be the servant Chanaan, a slave shall he be to his brethren.

²⁸ And Noe lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years.

¹ Now these are the generations of the sons of Noe, Sem, Cham, Japheth; and sons were born to them after the flood.

² The sons of Japheth, Gamer, and Magog, and Madoi, and Jovan, and Elisa, and Thobel, and Mosoch, and Thiras.

³ And the sons of Gamer, Aschanaz, and Riphath, and Thorgama.

⁴ And the sons of Jovan, Elisa, and Tharseis, Cetians, Rhodians.

⁶ And the sons of Cham, Chus, and Mesrain, Phud, and Chanaan.

⁷ And the sons of Chus, Saba, and Evila, and Sabatha, and Rhegma, and Sabathaca. And the sons of Rhegma, Saba, and Dadan.

⁸ And Chus begot Nebrod: he began to be a giant upon the earth.

¹⁰ And the beginning of his kingdom was Babylon, and Orech, and Archad, and Chalanne, in the land of Senaar.

¹² and Dase between Ninevi and Chalach: this is the great city.

¹³ And Mesrain begot the Ludiim, and the Nephthalim, and the Enemetiim, and the Labiim, ¹⁴ and the Patrosoniim, and the Chasmoniim (whence came forth Phylistiim) and the Gaphthoriim.

¹⁵ And Chanaan begot Sidon his firstborn, and the Chettite,

¹⁶ and the Jebusite, and the Amorite, and the Girgashite,

¹⁷ and the Evite, and the Arukite, and the Asennite,

¹⁸ and the Aradian, and the Samarean, and the Amathite; and after this the tribes of the Chananites were dispersed.

²⁰ There were the sons of Cham in their tribes according to their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.

²⁴ And Arphaxad begot Cainan, and Cainan begot Sala. And Sala begot Heber.

²⁵ And to Heber were born two sons, the name of the one, Phaleg, because in his days the earth was divided, and the name of his brother Jektan.

²⁶ And Jektan begot Elmodad, and Saleth, and Sarmoth, and Jarach,

²⁷ and Odorrha, and Aibel, and Decla,

²⁸ Eval, and Abimael, and Saba,

²⁹ and Uphir, and Evila, and Jobab, all these were the sons of Jektan.

³¹ These were the sons of Sem in their tribes, according to their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.

¹ And all the earth was one lip, and there was one language to all.

³ And a man said to his neighbor, Come, let us make bricks and bake them with fire. And the brick was to them for stone, and their mortar was bitumen.

⁴ And they said, Come, let us build to ourselves a city and tower, whose top shall be to heaven, and let us make to ourselves a name, before we are scattered abroad upon the face of all the earth.

⁵ And the Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which the sons of men built.

⁸ And the Lord scattered them thence over the face of all the earth, and they left off building the city and the tower.

⁹ On this account its name was called Confusion, because there the Lord confounded the languages of all the earth, and thence the Lord scattered them upon the face of all the earth.

¹⁰ And these are the generations of Sem: and Sem was one hundred years old when he begot Arphaxad, the second year after the flood.

¹² And Arphaxad lived one hundred and thirty-five years, and begot Cainan.

¹³ And Arphaxad lived after he had begotten

Cainan, * four hundred years, and begot sons and daughters, and died. And Cainan lived one hundred and thirty years and begot Sala; and Canaan lived after he had begotten Sala, three hundred and thirty years, and begot sons and daughters, and died.

¹⁴ And Sala lived one hundred and thirty years, and begot Heber.

¹⁵ And Sala lived after he had begotten Heber, three hundred and thirty years, and begot sons and daughters, and died.

¹⁶ And Heber lived one hundred and thirty-four years, and begot Phaleg.

¹⁸ And Phaleg lived one hundred and thirty years, and begot Ragau.

²⁰ And Ragau lived one hundred thirty and two years, and begot Seruch.

²² And Seruch lived one hundred and thirty years, and begot Nachor.

26 And Tharrha lived seventy years, and begot Abram, and Nachor, and Arrhan.

27 And these are the generations of Tharrha. Tharrha begot Abram and Nachor, and Arrhan; and Arrhan begot Lot.

28 And Arrhan died in the presence of Tharrha his father, in the land in which he was born, in the country of the Chaldees.

29 And Abram and Nachor took to themselves wives, the name of the wife of Abram was Sara,  and the name of the wife of Nachor, Malcha, daughter of Arrhan, and he was the father of Malcha, the father of Jescha.

30 And Sara was barren, and did not bear children.

31 And Tharrha took Abram his son, and Lot the son Arrhan, the son of his son, and Sara his daughter-in-law, the wife of Abram his son, and led them forth out of the land of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Chanaan, and they came as far as Charrhan, and he lived there.

32 And all the days of Tharrha in the land of Charrhan were two hundred and five years, and Tharrha died in Charrhan.

¹ And the Lord said to Abram, Go forth out of your land and out of your kindred, and out of the house of your father, and come into the land which I will show you.

² And I will make you a great nation, and I will bless you and magnify your name, and you shall be blessed.

³ And I will bless those that bless you, and curse those that curse you, and in you shall all the tribes of the earth be blessed.

⁶ And Abram traversed the land lengthwise as far as the place Sychem, to the high oak, and the Chananites then inhabited the land.

⁷ And the Lord appeared to Abram, and said to him, I will give this land to your seed. And Abram built an altar there to the Lord who appeared to him.

⁸ And he departed thence to the mountain eastward of Baethel, and there he pitched his tent in Baethel near the sea, and Aggai toward the east, and there he built an altar to the Lord, and called on the name of the Lord.

⁹ And Abram departed and went and encamped in the wilderness.

¹⁰ And there was a famine in the land, and Abram went down to Egypt to sojourn there, because the famine prevailed in the land.

¹¹ And it came to pass when Abram drew near to enter into Egypt, Abram said to Sara his wife, I know that you are a fair woman.

¹³ Say, therefore, I am his sister, that it may be well with me on account of you, and my soul shall live because of you.

¹⁵ that the princes of Pharaoh saw her, and praised her to Pharaoh and brought her into the house of Pharaoh.

¹⁶ And they treated Abram well on her account, and he had sheep, and calves, and asses, and menservants, and women-servants, and mules, and camels.

¹⁷ And God afflicted Pharaoh with great and severe afflictions, and his house, because of Sara, Abram's wife.

¹⁸ And Pharaoh having called Abram, said, What is this you have done to me, that you did not tell me that she was your wife?

¹⁹ Therefore did you say, She is my sister? and I took her for a wife to myself; and now, behold, your wife is before you, take her and go quickly away.

¹⁰ And Lot having lifted up his eyes, observed all the country round about Jordan, that it was all watered, before God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrha, as the garden of the Lord, and as the land of Egypt, until you come to Zogora.

¹² And Lot lived in a city of the neighbouring people, and pitched his tent in Sodom.

¹³ But the men of Sodom were evil, and exceedingly sinful before God.

¹⁴ And God said to Abram after Lot was separated from him, Look up with your eyes, and behold from the place where you now are northward and southward, and eastward and seaward;

¹⁵ for all the land which you see, I will give it to you and to your seed for ever.

¹⁶ And I will make your seed like the § dust of the earth; if any one is able to number the dust of the earth, then shall your seed be numbered.

¹¹ And they took all the cavalry of Sodom and Gomorrha, and all their provisions, and departed.

¹ And Sara the wife of Abram bore him no children; and she had an Egyptian maid, whose name was Agar.

² And Sara said to Abram, Behold, the Lord has restrained me from bearing, go therefore in to my maid, that I may get children for myself through her. And Abram listened to the voice of Sara.

⁴ And he went in to Agar, and she conceived, and saw that she was with child, and her mistress was dishonored before her.

⁷ And an angel of the Lord found her by the fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to Sur.

⁸ And the angel of the Lord said to her, Agar, Sara's maid, whence come you, and wither go you? and she said, I am fleeing from the face of my mistress Sara.

⁹ And the angel of the Lord said to her, Return to your mistress, and submit yourself under her hands.

¹⁰ And the angel of the Lord said to her, I will surely multiply your seed, and it shall not be numbered for multitude.

¹² He shall be a wild man, his hands against all, and the hands of all against him, and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren.

¹³ And she called the name of the Lord God who spoke to her, You are God who sees me; for she said, For I have openly seen him that appeared to me.

²³ And Abraam took Ismael his son, and all his home-born servants, and all those bought with money, and every male of the men in the house of Abraam, and he circumcised their foreskins in the time of that day, according as God spoke to him.

²⁵ And Ismael his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

²⁶ And at the period of that day, Abraam was circumcised, and Ismael his son, ²⁷ and all the men of his house, both those born in the house, and those bought with money of foreign nations.

⁶ And Abraam hastened to the tent to Sarrha, and said to her, Hasten, and knead three measures of fine flour, and make cakes.

⁷ And Abraam ran to the kine, and took a young calf, tender and good, and gave it to his servant, and he hastened to dress it.

⁸ And he took butter and milk, and the calf which he had dressed; and he set them before them, and they did eat, and he stood by them under the tree.

⁹ And he said to him, Where is Sarrha your wife? And he answered and said, Behold! in the tent.

¹¹ And Abraam and Sarrha were old, advanced in days, and the custom of women ceased with Sarrha.

¹² And Sarrha laughed in herself, saying, * The thing has not as yet happened to me, even until now, and my lord is old.

¹³ And the Lord said to Abraam, Why is it that Sarrha has laughed in herself, saying, Shall I then indeed bear? but I am grown old.

¹⁴ Shall anything be impossible with the Lord? At this time I will return to you seasonably, and Sarrha shall have a son.

☆ 18:10 Rom 9:9 * 18:12 Gr. The difference turns on the word Heb. pleasure. Gr until now.

¹⁵ But Sarrha denied, saying, I did not laugh, for she was afraid. And he said to her, Nay, but you did laugh.

¹⁶ And the men having risen up from thence looked towards Sodom and Gomorrha. And Abraam went with them, attending them on their journey.

¹⁷ And the Lord said, Shall I hide from Abraam my servant what things I intend to do?

¹⁸ But Abraam shall become a great and populous nation, and in him shall all the nations of the earth be blest.

¹⁹ For I know that he will order his sons, and his house after him, and they will keep the ways of the Lord, to do justice and judgment, that the Lord may bring upon Abraam all things whatever he has spoken to him.

²⁰ And the Lord said, The cry of Sodom and Gomorrha has been increased towards me, and their sins are very great.

²¹ I will therefore go down and see, if they completely † correspond with the cry which comes to me, and if not, that I may know.

²³ And Abraam drew near and said, Wouldest you destroy the righteous with the wicked, and shall the righteous be as the wicked?

²⁶ And the Lord said, If there should be in Sodom fifty righteous in the city, I will spare the whole city, and the whole place for their sakes.

²⁷ And Abraam answered and said, Now I have begun to speak to my Lord, and I am earth and ashes.

²⁸ But if the fifty righteous should be diminished to forty-five, will you destroy the whole city because of the five lacking? And he said, I will not destroy it, if I should find there forty-five.

²⁹ And he continued to speak to him still, and said, But if there should be found there forty? And he said, I will not destroy it for the forty's sake.

³⁰ And he said, Will there be anything against me, Lord, if I shall speak? but if there be found there thirty? And he said, I will not destroy it for the thirty's sake.

³¹ And he said, Since I am able to speak to the Lord, what if there should be found there twenty? And he said, I will not destroy it, if I should find there twenty.

³² And he said, Will there be anything against me, Lord, if I speak yet once? but if there should be found there ten? And he said, I will not destroy it for the ten's sake.

³³ And the Lord departed, when he left off

speaking to Abraam, and Abraam returned to his place.

² Behold! my lords, turn aside to the house of your servant, and rest from your journey, and wash your feet, and having risen early in the morning you ^ shall depart on your journey. And they said, Nay, but we will lodge in the street.

⁵ And they called out Lot, and said to him, Where are the men that went in to you this night? bring them out to us that we may be with them.

⁷ and said to them, By no means, brethren, do not act villainously.

⁸ But I have two daughters, who have not known a man. I will bring them out to you, and do you ^ use them as it may please you, only do not injury to these men, to avoid which they came under the shelter of my * roof.

⁹ And they said to him, Stand back there, you came in to sojourn, was it also to judge? Now then we would harm you more than them. And they pressed hard on the man, even Lot, and they drew near to break the door.

¹² And the men said to Lot, Have you here sons-in-law, or sons or daughters, or if you have any other friend in the city, bring them out of this place.

¹³ † For we are going to destroy this place; for their cry has been raised up before the Lord, and the Lord has sent us to destroy ‡ it.

¹⁴ And Lot went out, and spoke to his sons-in-law who had married his daughters, and said, Rise up, and depart out of this place, for the Lord is about to destroy the city; but he seemed to be speaking absurdly before his sons-in-law.

¹⁵ But when it was morning, the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise and take your wife, and your two daughters whom you have, and go forth; lest you also be destroyed with the iniquities of the city.

* 19:8 Lit. beams. † 19:13 See Note, Lam 3:21. ‡ 19:13 αὐτήν. Scil. πόλιν.

¹⁷ And it came to pass when they brought them out, that they said, Save your own life by all means; look not round to that which is behind, nor stay in all the country round about, escape to the mountain, lest perhaps you be overtaken together with them.

¹⁸ And Lot said to them, I pray, Lord,

¹⁹ since your servant has found mercy before you, and you have magnified your righteousness, in what you do towards me that my soul may live, —but I shall not be able to escape to the mountain, lest perhaps the calamity overtake me and I die.

²⁰ Behold this city is near for me to escape there, which is a small one, and there shall I be preserved, is it not little? and my soul shall live because of you.

²¹ And he said to him, Behold, I have had respect to § you also about this thing, that I should not overthrow the city about which you have spoken.

²² Hasten therefore to escape there, for I shall not be able to do anything until you are come there; therefore he called the name of that city, Segor.

²³ The sun was risen upon the earth, when Lot entered into Segor.

§ 19:21 Gr. your countenance.

²⁴ And the Lord rained on Sodom and Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the Lord out of heaven.

²⁵ And he overthrew these cities, and all the country round about, and all that lived in the cities, and the plants springing out of the ground.

²⁶ And his wife looked back, and she became a pillar of salt.

²⁹ And it came to pass that when God destroyed all the cities of the region round about, God remembered Abraam, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when the Lord overthrew those cities in which Lot lived.

³⁰ And Lot went up out of Segor, and lived in the mountain, he and his two daughters with him, for he feared to dwell in Segor; and he lived in a cave, he and his two daughters with him.

³³ So they made their father drink wine in that night, and the elder went in and lay with her father that night, and he knew not when he slept and when he rose up.

³⁴ And it came to pass on the morrow, that the elder said to the younger, Behold, I slept yesternight with our father, let us make him drink wine in this night also, and do you go in and sleep with him, and let us raise up seed of our father.

³⁵ So they made their father drink wine in that night also, and the younger went in and slept with her father, and he knew not when he slept, nor when he arose.

³⁶ And the two daughters of Lot conceived by their father.

³⁷ And the elder bore a son and called his name Moab, saying, He is of my father. This is the father of the Moabites to this present day.

³⁸ And the younger also bore a son, and called his name Amman, saying, The son of my family. This is the father of the Ammanites to this present day.

² And Abraam said concerning Sarrha his wife, She is my sister, for he feared to say, She is my wife, lest at any time the men of the city should kill him for her sake. So Abimelech king of Gerara sent and took Sarrha.

³ And God came to Abimelech by night in sleep, and said, Behold, you die for the woman, whom you have taken, whereas she has lived with a husband.

⁵ Said he not to me, She is my sister, and said she not to me, He is my brother? with a pure heart and in the righteousness of my hands have I done this.

⁶ And God said to him in sleep, Yes, I knew that you did this with a pure heart, and I spared you, so that you should not sin against me, therefore I suffered you not to touch her.

⁹ And Abimelech called Abraam and said to him, What is this that you have done to us? Have we sinned against you, that you have brought upon me and upon my kingdom a great sin? You have done to me a deed, which no one ought to do.

¹⁰ And Abimelech said to Abraam, What have you seen in me that you have done this?

¹¹ And Abraam said, Why I said, Surely there is not the worship of God in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife.

¹² For truly she is my sister by my father, but not by my mother, and she became my wife.

¹³ And it came to pass when God brought me forth out of the house of my father, that I said to her, This righteousness you shall perform to me, in every place into which we may enter, say of me, He is my brother.

¹⁵ And Abimelech said to Abraam, Behold, my land is before you, dwell wherever it may please you.

¹⁶ And to Sarrha he said, Behold, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver, those shall be to you for the price of your countenance, and to all the women with you, and speak the truth in all things.

¹⁷ And Abraam prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his women servants, and they bore children.

¹⁸ Because the Lord had fast closed from without every womb in the house of Abimelech, because of Sarrha Abraam's wife.

¹ And the Lord visited Sarrha, as he said, and the Lord did to Sarrha, as he spoke.

² And she conceived and bore to Abraam a son in old age, at the set time according as the Lord spoke to him.

³ And Abraam called the name of his son that was born to him, whom Sarrha bore to him, Isaac.

* 20:14 Gr. didrachma.

⁴ And Abraam circumcised Isaac on the eighth day, as God commanded him.

⁵ And Abraam was one hundred years old when Isaac his son was born to him.

⁶ And Sarrha said, The Lord has made laughter for me, for whoever shall hear shall rejoice with me.

⁷ And she said, Who shall say to Abraam that Sarrha suckles a child? for I have born a child in my old age.

⁸ And the child grew and was weaned, and Abraam made a great feast the day that his son Isaac was weaned.

⁹ And Sarrha having seen the son of Agar the Egyptian who was born to Abraam, sporting with Isaac her son, ¹⁰ then she said to Abraam, ☆ Cast out this bondwoman and her son, for the son of this bondwoman shall not inherit with my son Isaac.

¹¹ But the * word appeared very hard before Abraam concerning his son.

¹³ And moreover I will make the son of this bondwoman a great nation, because he is your seed.

¹⁴ And Abraam rose up in the morning and took loaves and a skin of water, and gave them to Agar, and he put the child on her shoulder,

☆ 21:10 Gal 4:30

* 21:11 Gr. Gr. saying, or matter.

and sent her away, and she having departed wandered in the wilderness † near the well of the oath.

¹⁵ And the water failed out of the skin, and she cast the child under a fir tree.

¹⁶ And she departed and sat down opposite him at a distance, as it were a bow-shot, for she said, Surely I can't see the death of my child: and she sat opposite him, and the child cried aloud and wept.

¹⁷ And God heard the voice of the child from the place where he was, and an angel of God called Agar out of heaven, and said to her, What is it, Agar? fear not, for God has heard the voice of the child from the place where he is.

²¹ And he lived in the wilderness, and his mother took him a wife out of Pharan of Egypt.

²² And it came to pass at that time that Abimelech spoke, and Ochozath § his friend, and Phichol the chief captain of his host, to Abraam, saying, God is with you in all things, whatever you may do.

²³ Now therefore swear to me by God that you will not injure me, nor my seed, nor my name, but according to the righteousness which I have performed with you you shall deal with me, and with the land in which you have sojourned.

† 21:14 Or, near Beersheba. ‡ 21:19 Or, Gr. living. § 21:22 Not in the Heb. friend of bridegroom, or attendant at marriage.

²⁴ And Abraam said, I will swear.

²⁵ And Abraam reproved Abimelech because of the wells of water, which the servants of Abimelech took away.

²⁶ And Abimelech said to him, I know not who has done this thing to you, neither did you tell it me, neither heard I it but only today.

²⁸ And Abraam set seven ewe-lambs by themselves.

²⁹ And Abimelech said to Abraam, What are these seven ewe-lambs which you have set alone?

³⁰ And Abraam said, You shall receive the seven ewe-lambs of me, that they may be for me as a witness, that I dug this well.

³¹ Therefore he named the name of that place, The Well of the Oath, for there they both swore.

¹ And it came to pass after these things that God tempted Abraam, and said to him, Abraam, Abraam; and he said, Behold! I am here.

² And he said, Take your son, the beloved one, whom you have loved—Isaac, and go into the high land, and offer him there for a whole burnt offering on one of the mountains which I will tell you of.

³ And Abraam rose up in the morning and saddled his ass, and he took with him two servants, and Isaac his son, and having split wood for a whole burnt offering, he arose and departed, and came to the place of which God spoke to him,

⁴ on the third day; and Abraam having * lifted up his eyes, saw the place afar off.

⁵ And Abraam said to his servants, Sit you ^ here with the ass, and I and the lad will proceed thus far, and having worshipped we will return to you.

⁶ And Abraam took the wood of the whole burnt offering, and laid it on Isaac his son, and he took into his hands both the fire and the † knife, and the two went together.

⁷ And Isaac said to Abraam his father, Father. And he said, What is it, son? And he said, Behold the fire and the wood, where is the sheep for a whole burnt offering?

⁸ And Abraam said, God will provide himself a sheep for a whole burnt offering, my son. And both having gone together,

* 22:4 Lit. look up with. † 22:6 μάχαιραν, a short dagger used both for defence and sacrifice, etc.

⁹ came to the place which God spoke of to him; and there Abraam built the altar, and laid the wood on it, and having bound the feet of Isaac his son together, he laid him on the altar upon the wood.

¹⁰ And Abraam stretched forth his hand to take the knife to kill his son.

¹¹ And an angel of the Lord called him out of heaven, and said, Abraam, Abraam. And he said, Behold, I am here.

¹² And he said, Lay not your hand upon the child, neither do anything to him, for now I know that you fear God, and for my sake you have not spared your beloved son.

¹⁵ And an angel of the Lord called Abraam the second time out of heaven, saying, I have sworn by myself, says the Lord, because you have done this thing, and on my account have not spared your beloved son,

¹⁷ And ☆ in your seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because you have listened to my voice.

¹⁸ And Abraam returned to his servants, and they arose and went together to the well of the oath; and Abraam lived at the well of the oath.

²⁰ Uz the firstborn, and Baux his brother, and Camuel the father of the Syrians, and Chazad, and

²¹ Azav and Phaldes, and Jeldaph, and Bathuel, and Bathuel begot Rebecca;

²² these are eight sons, which Melcha bore to Nachor the brother of Abraam.

² And Sarrha died in the city of Arboc, which is in the valley, this is Chebron in the land of Chanaan; and Abraam came to lament for Sarrha and to mourn.

³ And Abraam stood up from before his dead; and Abraam spoke to the sons of Chet, saying,

⁴ I am a sojourner and a stranger among you, give me therefore possession of a burying-place among you, and I will bury my dead away from me.

☆ 22:17 Acts 3:25 § 22:19 Men, understood.

⁵ And the sons of Chet answered to Abraam, saying, Not so, Sir,

⁶ but hear us; you are in the midst of us a king from God; bury your dead in our choice sepulchres, for not one of us will by any means withhold his sepulchre from you, so that you should not bury your dead there.

⁷ And Abraam rose up and did obeisance to the people of the land, to the sons of Chet.

⁸ And Abraam spoke to them, saying, If you ^ have it in your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight, listen to me, and speak for me to Ephron the son Saar.

⁹ And let him give me the double cave which he has, which is in a part of his field, let him give it me for the money it is worth for possession of a burying-place among you.

¹¹ * Attend to me, my lord, and hear me, I give to you the field and the cave which is in it; I have given it you before all my country men; bury your dead.

¹² And Abraam did obeisance before the people of the land.

¹³ And he said in the ears of Ephron before the people of the land, Since you are on my side, hear me; take the price of the field from me, and I will bury my dead there.

* 23:11 Gr. be with me.

¹⁴ But Ephron answered Abraam, saying,

¹⁷ And the field of Ephron, which was in Double Cave, which is opposite Mambre, the field and the cave, which was in it, and every tree which was in the field, and whatever is in its borders round about, were made sure in its borders round about, were made sure

¹⁹ After this Abraam buried Sarrha his wife in the Double Cave of the field, which is opposite Mambre, this is Chebron in the land of Chanaan.

¹ And Abraam was old, advanced in days, and the Lord blessed Abraam in all things.

² And Abraam said to his servant the elder of his house, who had rule over all his possessions, Put your hand under my thigh,

³ and I will adjure you by the Lord the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that you take not a wife for my son Isaac from the daughters of the Chananites, with whom I dwell, in the midst of them.

⁴ But you shall go instead to my country, where I was born, and to my tribe, and you shall take from thence a wife for my son Isaac.

⁵ And the servant said to him, Shall I carry back your son to the land whence you came forth, * if haply the woman should not be willing to return with me to this land?

⁶ And Abraam said to him, Take heed to yourself that you carry not my son back there.

⁷ The Lord the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, who took me out of my father's house, and out of the land whence I sprang, who spoke to me, and who swore to me, saying, I will give this land to you and to your seed, he shall send his angel before you, and you shall take a wife to my son from thence.

⁸ And if the woman should not be willing to come with you into this land, you shall be clear from my oath, only carry not my son there again.

⁹ And the servant put his hand under the thigh of his master Abraam, and swore to him concerning this matter.

* 24:5 See the use of μή ποτε in a somewhat similar case, 2 Tim 2:25.

¹¹ And he † rested his camels without the city by the well of water towards evening, when damsels go forth to draw water.

¹³ Behold! I stand by the well of water, and the daughters of them that inhabit the city come forth to draw water.

¹⁴ And it shall be, the virgin to whoever I shall say, Incline your water-pot, that I may drink, and she shall say, Drink you, and I will give your camels drink, until they shall have done drinking—even this one you have prepared for your servant Isaac, and hereby shall I know that you have dealt mercifully with my master Abraam.

¹⁵ And it came to pass before he had done speaking in his mind, that behold, Rebecca the daughter of Bathuel, the son of Melcha, the wife of Nachor, and the same ‡ the brother of Abraam, came forth, having a water-pot on her shoulders.

¹⁶ And the virgin was very beautiful in appearance, she was a virgin, a man had not known her; and she went down to the well, and filled her water-pot, and came up.

¹⁸ and she said, Drink, Sir; and she hasted, and let down the pitcher upon her arm, and gave him to drink, till he ceased drinking.

† 24:11 Heb. caused to kneel down. Gr. caused to sleep.

‡ 24:15 i.e. Nachor.

¹⁹ And she said, I will also draw water for your camels, till they shall all have drunk.

²⁰ And she hasted, and emptied the water-pot into the trough, and ran to the well to draw again, and drew water for all the camels.

²³ And he asked her, and said, Whose daughter are you? Tell me if there is room for us to lodge with your father.

²⁴ And she said to him, I am the daughter of Bathuel the son of Melcha, whom she bore to Nachor.

²⁵ And she said to him, We have both straw and much provender, and a place for resting.

²⁶ And the man being well pleased, worshipped the Lord,

²⁷ and said, Blessed be the Lord the God of my master Abraam, who has not suffered his righteousness to fail, nor his truth from my master, and the Lord has brought me prosperously to the house of the brother of my lord.

²⁸ And the damsel ran and reported to the house of her mother according to these words.

²⁹ And Rebecca had a brother whose name was Laban; and Laban ran out to meet the man, to the well.

³⁰ And it came to pass when he saw the earrings and the bracelets on the hands of his sister, and when he heard the words of Rebecca his sister, saying, Thus the man spoke to me, that he went to the man, as he stood by the camels at the well.

³¹ And he said to him, Come in hither, you blessed of the Lord, why stand you without, whereas I have prepared the house and a place for the camels?

³² And the man entered into the house, and unloaded the camels, and gave the camels straw and provender, and water to wash his feet, and the feet of the men that were with him.

³³ And he set before them loaves to eat; but he said, I will not eat, until I have § told my errand. And he said, Speak on.

³⁴ And he said, I am a servant of Abraam;

³⁸ But you shall go to the house of my father, and to my tribe, and you shall take thence a wife for my son.

§ 24:33 Gr. spoken my words.

³⁹ And I said to my master, Haply the woman will not go with me.

⁴⁰ And he said to me, The Lord God to whom I have been acceptable in his presence, himself shall send out his angel with you, and shall prosper your journey, and you shall take a wife for my son of my tribe, and of the house of my father.

⁴¹ Then shall you be clear from my curse, for whenever you shall have come to my tribe, and they shall not give her to you, then shall you be clear from my oath.

⁴² And having come this day to the well, I said, Lord God of my master Abraam, if you prosper my journey on which I am now going,

⁴³ behold, I stand by the well of water, and the daughters of the men of the city come forth to draw water, and it shall be that the damsel to whom I shall say, Give me a little water to drink out of your pitcher,

⁴⁴ and she shall say to me, Both drink you, and I will draw water for your camels, this shall be the wife whom the Lord has prepared for his own servant Isaac; and hereby shall I know that you have wrought mercy with my master Abraam.

⁴⁵ And it came to pass before I had done speaking in my mind, straightway Rebecca came forth, having her pitcher on her shoulders; and she went down to the well, and drew water; and I said to her, Give me to drink.

⁴⁶ And she hasted and let down her pitcher on her arm  from her head, and said, Drink you, and I will give your camels drink; and I drank, and she gave the camels drink.

⁴⁷ And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter are you? tell me; and she said, I am daughter of Bathuel the son of Nachor, whom Melcha bore to him; and I put on her the ear-rings, and the bracelets on her hands.

⁴⁸ And being well-pleased I worshipped the Lord, and I blessed the Lord the God of my master Abraam, who has prospered me in a true way, so that I should take the daughter of my master's brother for his son.

⁵⁰ And Laban and Bathuel answered and said, This matter has come forth from the Lord, we shall not be able to answer you bad or good.

⁵¹ Behold, Rebecca is before you, take her and †† go away, and let her be wife to the son of your master, as the Lord has said.

⁵² And it came to pass when the servant of Abraam heard these words, he bowed himself to the Lord down to the earth.

⁵⁴ And both he and the men with him ate and drank and went to sleep. And he arose in the morning and said, Send me away, that I may go to my master.

⁵⁵ And her brethren and her mother said, Let the virgin remain with us about ten days, and after that she shall depart.

⁵⁶ But he said to them, Hinder me not, for the Lord has prospered my journey for me; send me away, that I may depart to my master.

⁵⁷ And they said, Let us call the damsel, and enquire at her mouth.

⁵⁸ And they called Rebecca, and said to her, Will you go with this man? and she said, I will go.

⁵⁹ So they sent forth Rebecca their sister, and her goods, and the servant of Abraam, and his attendants.

⁶¹ And Rebecca rose up and her maidens, and they mounted the camels and went with the man; and the servant having taken up Rebecca, departed.

⁶⁴ And Rebecca lifted up her eyes, and saw Isaac; and she alighted briskly from the camel, ⁶⁵ and said to the servant, Who is that man that walks in the plain to meet us? And the servant said, This is my master; and she took her veil and covered herself.

⁶⁶ And the servant told Isaac all ^{‡‡} that he had done.

² And she bore to him Zombran, and Jezan, and Madal, and Madiam, and Jesboc, and Soie.

⁵ But Abraam gave all his possessions to Isaac his son.

⁷ And these were the years of the days of the life of Abraam as many as he lived, one hundred and seventy-five years.

⁸ And Abraam failing died in a good old age, an old man and full of days, and was added to his people.

⁹ And Isaac and Ismael his sons buried him in the double cave, in the field of Ephron the son of Saar the Chettite, which is over against Mambre:

¹⁰ even the field and the cave which Abraam bought of the sons of Chet; there they buried Abraam and Sarrha his wife.

¹¹ And it came to pass after Abraam was dead, that God blessed Isaac his son, and Isaac lived by the well of the vision.

¹² And these are the generations of Ismael the son of Abraam, whom Agar the Egyptian the handmaid of Sarrha bore to Abraam.

¹⁴ and Masma, and Duma, and Masse,

¹⁵ and Choddan, and Thaeman, and Jetur, and Naphes, and Kedma.

¹⁶ These are the sons of Ismael, and these are their names in their tents and in their dwellings, twelve princes according to their nations.

¹⁷ And these are the years of the life of Ismael, one hundred and thirty-seven years; and he failed and died, and was added to his * fathers.

¹⁹ And these are the generations of Isaac the son of Abraam.

²⁰ Abraam begot Isaac. And Isaac was forty years old when he took as wife Rebecca, daughter of Bathuel the Syrian, out of Syrian Mesopotamia, sister of Laban the Syrian.

Lord heard him, and his wife Rebecca conceived in her womb.

²² And the babes leaped within her; and she said, If it will be so with me, why is this to me? And she went to enquire of the Lord.

²³ And the Lord said to her, There are two nations in your womb, and two peoples shall be separated from your belly, and one people shall excel the other, and the † elder shall serve the younger.

²⁵ And the first came out red, hairy all over like a skin; and she called his name Esau.

²⁸ And Isaac loved Esau, because his venison was his food, but Rebecca loved Jacob.

²⁹ And Jacob cooked pottage, and Esau came from the plain, fainting.

³⁰ And Esau said to Jacob, Let me taste of that red pottage, because I am fainting; therefore his name was called Edom.

³¹ And Jacob said to Esau, Sell me this day your birthright.

³² And Esau said, Behold, I am going to die, and for what good does this birthright belong to me?

† 25:23 Gr. the greater shall serve the less. Rom 9:12.

³³ And Jacob said to him, Swear to me this day; and he swore to him; and Esau sold his birthright to Jacob.

³⁴ And Jacob gave bread to Esau, and pottage of lentiles; and he ate and drank, and he arose and departed; so Esau slighted his birthright.

² And the Lord appeared to him and said, Go not down to Egypt, but dwell in the land, which I shall tell you of.

³ And sojourn in this land; and I will be with you, and bless you, for I will give to you and to your seed all this land; and I will establish my oath which I swore to your father Abraam.

⁴ And I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven; and I will give to your seed all this land, and all the nations of the earth shall be blest in your seed.

⁶ And Isaac lived in Gerara.

⁷ And the men of the place questioned him concerning Rebecca his wife, and he said, She is my sister, for he feared to say, She is my wife, lest at any time the men of the place should kill him because of Rebecca, because she was * fair.

⁹ And Abimelech called Isaac, and said to him, Is she then your wife? why have you said, She is my sister? And Isaac said to him, I did so, for I said, Lest at any time I die on her account.

¹⁰ And Abimelech said to him, Why have you done this to us? one of my kindred † within a little had lain with your wife, and you would have brought a sin of ignorance upon us.

¹¹ And Abimelech charged all his people, saying Every man that touches this man and his wife shall be liable to death.

¹³ And the man was exalted, and advancing he increased, till he became very great.

¹⁵ And all the wells which the servants of his father had dug in the time of his father, the Philistines stopped them, and filled them with earth.

¹⁶ And Abimelech said to Isaac, Depart from us, for you are become much mightier than we.

* 26:7 Gr. fair of countenance. † 26:10 q.d. had almost.

¹⁷ And Isaac departed thence, and rested in the valley of Gerara, and lived there.

¹⁹ And the servants of Isaac dug in the valley of Gerara, and they found there a well of living water.

²⁰ And the shepherds of Gerara strove with the shepherds of Isaac, saying that the water was theirs; and they called the name of the well, Injury, for they injured him.

²¹ And having departed thence he dug another well, and they strove also for that; and he named the name of it, Enmity.

²² And he departed thence and dug another well; and they did not strive about that; and he named the name of it, Room, saying, Because now the Lord has made room for us, and has increased us upon the earth.

²³ And he went up thence to the well of the oath.

²⁴ And the Lord appeared to him in that night, and said, I am the God of Abraam your father; fear not, for I am with you, and I will bless you, and multiply your seed for the sake of Abraam your father.

²⁵ And he built there an altar, and called on the name of the Lord, and there he pitched his tent, and there the servants of Isaac dug a well in the valley of Gerara.

²⁶ And Abimelech came to him from Gerara, and so did Ochozath his ‡ friend, and Phichol the commander-in-chief of his army.

²⁷ And Isaac said to them, Therefore have you ^ come to me? whereas you ^ hated me, and sent me away from you.

²⁸ And they said, We have surely seen that the Lord was with you, and we said, Let there be an oath between us and you, and we will make a covenant with you,

²⁹ that you shall do no wrong by us, as we have not abhorred you, and according as we have treated you well, and have sent you forth peaceably; and now you are blessed of the Lord.

³⁰ And he made a feast for them, and they ate and drank.

³² And it came to pass in that day, that the servants of Isaac came and told him of the well which they had dug; and they said, We have not found water.

³³ And he called it, Oath: therefore he called the name of that city, the Well of Oath, until this day.

¹ And it came to pass after Isaac was old, that his eyes were dimmed so that he could not see; and he called Esau, his elder son, and said to him, My son; and he said, Behold, I am here.

² And he said, Behold, I am grown old, and know not the day of my death.

³ Now then take the weapons, both your quiver and your bow, and go into the plain, and get me venison,

⁴ and make me meats, as I like them, and bring them to me that I may eat, that my soul may bless you, before I die.

⁵ And Rebecca heard Isaac speaking to Esau his son; and Esau went to the plain to procure venison for his father.

⁶ And Rebecca said to Jacob her younger son, Behold, I heard your father speaking to Esau your brother, saying,

⁷ Bring me venison, and prepare me meats, that I may eat and bless you before the Lord before I die.

⁸ Now then, my son, listen to me, as I command you.

⁹ And go to the cattle and take for me thence two kids, tender and good, and I will make them meats for your father, as he likes.

¹⁰ And you shall bring them in to your father, and he shall eat, that your father may bless you before he dies.

¹¹ And Jacob said to his mother Rebecca, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I a smooth man.

¹² Peradventure my father may feel me, and I shall be before him as one ill-intentioned, and I shall bring upon me a curse, and not a blessing.

¹⁴ So he went and took and brought them to his mother; and his mother made meats, as his father liked them.

¹⁶ And she put on his arms the skins of the kids, and on the bare parts of his neck.

¹⁷ And she gave the meats, and the loaves which she had prepared, into the hands of Jacob her son.

¹⁸ And he brought them to his father, and said, Father; and he said, Behold I am here; who are you, son?

¹⁹ And Jacob said to his father, I, Esau your firstborn, have done as you told me; rise, sit, and eat of my venison, that your soul may bless me.

²⁰ And Isaac said to his son, What is this which you have quickly found? And he said, That which the Lord your God presented before me.

²¹ And Isaac said to Jacob, Draw near to me, and I will feel you, son, if you are my son Esau or not.

²² And Jacob drew near to his father Isaac, and he felt him, and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.

²³ And he knew him not, for his hands were as the hands of his brother Esau, hairy; and he blessed him,

²⁴ and he said, Are you my son Esau? and he said, I am.

²⁵ And he said, Bring hither, and I will eat of your venison, son, that my soul may bless you; and he brought it near to him, and he ate, and he brought him wine, and he drank.

²⁶ And Isaac his father said to him, Draw near to me, and kiss me, son.

²⁷ And he drew near and kissed him, and smelled the smell of his garments, and blessed him, and said, Behold, the smell of my son is as the smell of an abundant field, which the Lord has blessed.

²⁹ And let nations serve you, and princes bow down to you, and be you lord of your brother, and the sons of your father shall do you reverence; accursed is he that curses you, and blessed is he that blesses you.

³¹ And he also had made meats and brought them to his father; and he said to his father, Let my father arise and eat of his son's venison, that your soul may bless me.

³² And Isaac his father said to him, Who are you? And he said, I am your firstborn son Esau.

³³ And Isaac was amazed with very great amazement, and said, Who then is it that has procured venison for me and brought it to me? and I have eaten of all before you came, and I have blessed him, and he shall be blessed.

³⁴ And it came to pass when Esau heard the words of his father Isaac, he cried out with a great and very bitter cry, and said, Bless, I pray you, me also, father.

³⁵ And he said to him, Your brother has come with subtlety, and taken your blessing.

³⁶ And he said, Rightly was his name called Jacob, for behold! this second time has he supplanted me; he has both taken my birthright, and now he has taken my blessing; and Esau said to his father, Have you not left a blessing for me, father?

³⁷ And Isaac answered and said to Esau, If I have made him your lord, and have made all his brethren his servants, and have strengthened him with corn and wine, what then shall I do for you, son?

³⁸ And Esau said to his father, Have you only one blessing, father? Bless, I pray you, me also, father. And * Isaac being troubled, Esau cried aloud and wept.

³⁹ And Isaac his father answered and said to him, Behold, your dwelling shall be of the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above.

⁴⁰ And you shall live by your sword, and shall serve your brother; and there shall be a time when you shall break and loosen his yoke from off your neck.

* 27:38 Heb. — Isaac being troubled.

⁴¹ And Esau was angry with Jacob because of the blessing, with which his father blessed him; and Esau said in his mind, Let the days of my father's mourning draw near, that I may kill my brother Jacob.

⁴² And the words of Esau her elder son were reported to Rebecca, and she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said to him, Behold, Esau your brother threatens you to kill you.

⁴⁴ And dwell with him certain days, until your brother's anger

⁴⁵ and rage depart from you, and he forget what you have done to him; and I will send and fetch you thence, lest at any time I should be bereaved of you both in one day.

⁴⁶ And Rebecca said to Isaac, I am weary of my life, because of the daughters of the sons of Chet; if Jacob shall take a wife of the daughters of this land, therefore should I live?

¹ And Isaac having called for Jacob, blessed him, and charged him, saying, You shall not take a wife of the daughters of the Chananites.

² Rise and depart quickly into Mesopotamia, to the house of Bathuel the father of your mother, and take to yourself thence a wife of the daughters of Laban your mother's brother.

³ And may my God bless you, and increase you, and multiply you, and you shall become gatherings of nations.

⁴ And may he give you the blessing of my father Abraam, even to you and to your seed after you, to inherit the land of your sojourning, which God gave to Abraam.

⁶ And Esau saw that Isaac blessed Jacob, and sent him away to Mesopotamia of Syria as he blessed him, to take to himself a wife thence, and that he charged him, saying, You shall not take a wife of the daughters of the Chananites;

⁷ and that Jacob listened to his father and his mother, and went to Mesopotamia of Syria.

⁸ And Esau also having seen that the daughters of Chanaan were evil before his father Isaac,

¹⁰ And Jacob went forth from the well of the oath, and departed into Charrhan.

13 And the Lord * stood upon it, and said, I am the God of your father Abraam, and the God of Isaac; fear not, the land on which you lie, to you will I give it, and to your seed.

14 And your seed shall be as the sand of the earth; and it shall spread abroad to the sea, and the south, and the north, and to the east; and in you and in your seed shall all the tribes of the earth be blessed.

15 And behold I am with you to preserve you continually in all the way wherein you shall go; and I will bring you back to this land; for I will not desert you, until I have done all that I have said to you.

16 And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and said, The Lord is in this place, and I knew it not.

17 And he was afraid, and said, How fearful is this place! this is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

18 And Jacob rose up in the morning, and took the stone † he had laid there by his head, and he set it up as a pillar, and poured oil on the top of it.

19 And he called the name of that place, the House of God; and the name of the city before was Ulam-luz.

20 And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If the Lord God will be with me, and guard me throughout on this journey, on which I am going, and give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on,

21 and bring me back in safety to the house of my father, then shall the Lord be for a God to me.

² And he looks, and behold! a well in the plain; and there were there three flocks of sheep resting at it, for out of that well they watered the flocks, but there was a great stone at the mouth of the well.

⁴ And Jacob said to them, Brethren, whence are you ^? and they said, We are of Charrhan.

⁵ And he said to them, Know you ^ Laban, the son of Nachor? and they said, We do know him.

⁶ And he said to them, Is he well? And they said, He is well. And behold Rachel his daughter came with the sheep.

⁷ And Jacob said, it is yet high day, it is not yet time that the flocks be gathered together; water you ^ the flocks, and depart and feed them.

⁸ And they said, We shall not be able, until all the shepherds be gathered together, and they shall roll away the stone from the mouth of the well, then we will water the flocks.

* 29:1 Gr. having lifted up his feet, went, etc.

⁹ While he was yet speaking to them, behold, Rachel the daughter of Laban came with her father's sheep, for she fed the sheep of her father.

¹¹ And Jacob kissed Rachel, and cried with a loud voice and wept.

¹² And he told Rachel that he was the near relative of her father, and the son of Rebecca; and she ran and reported to her father according to these words.

¹⁴ And Laban said to him, You are of my bones and of my flesh; and he was with him a † full month.

¹⁵ And Laban said to Jacob, Surely you shall not serve me for nothing, because you are my brother; tell me what your reward is to be.

¹⁶ Now Laban had two daughters, the name of the elder was Lea, and the name of the younger, Rachel.

¹⁷ And the eyes of Lea were weak. But Rachel was beautiful in appearance, and exceedingly fair in countenance.

¹⁸ And Jacob loved Rachel, and said, I will serve you seven years for your younger daughter Rachel.

¹⁹ And Laban said to him, It is better that I should give her to you, than that I should give her to another man; dwell with me.

²⁰ And Jacob served for Rachel seven years, and they were before him as a few days, by reason of his loving her.

²¹ And Jacob said to Laban, Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in to her.

²² And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a marriage-feast.

²⁴ And Laban gave to his daughter Lea, Zelpha his handmaid, as a handmaid for her.

²⁵ And it was morning, and behold it was Lea; and Jacob said to Laban, What is this that you have done to me? did I not serve you for Rachel? and therefore have you deceived me?

²⁶ And Laban answered, It is not done thus in our country, to give the younger before the elder.

²⁷ Fulfil then her sevens, and I will give to you her also in return for your labor, which you labor with me, yet seven other years.

²⁹ And Laban gave to his daughter his handmaid Balla, for a handmaid to her.

³⁰ And he went in to Rachel; and he loved Rachel more than Lea; and he served him seven other years.

³¹ And when the Lord God saw that Lea was hated, he opened her womb; but Rachel was barren.

³² And Lea conceived and bore a son to Jacob; and she called his name, Ruben; saying, Because the Lord has looked on my humiliation, and has given me a son, now then my husband will love me.

³³ And she conceived again, and bore a second son to Jacob; and she said, Because the Lord has heard that I am hated, he has given to me this one also; and she called his name, Simeon.

³⁴ And she conceived yet again, and bore a son, and said, In the present time my husband will be with me, for I have born him three sons; therefore she called his name, Levi.

³⁵ And having conceived yet again, she bore a son, and said, Now yet again this time will I give thanks to the Lord; therefore she called his name, Juda; and ceased bearing.

¹ And Rachel having perceived that she bore Jacob no children, was jealous of her sister; and said to Jacob, Give me children; and if not, I shall die.

² And Jacob was angry with Rachel, and said to her, Am I in the place of God, who has deprived you of the fruit of the womb?

³ And Rachel said to Jacob, Behold my hand-maid Balla, go in to her, and she shall bear upon my knees, and I also shall have children by her.

⁵ And Balla, Rachel's maid, conceived, and bore Jacob a son.

⁶ And Rachel said, God has given judgment for me, and listened to my voice, and has given me a son; therefore she called his name, Dan.

⁷ And Balla, Rachel's maid, conceived yet again, and bore a second son to Jacob.

⁸ And Rachel said, God has helped me, and I contended with my sister and prevailed; and she called his name, Nephthalim.

¹⁰ And Zelpha the maid of Lea conceived, and bore Jacob a son.

¹¹ And Lea said, It is happily: and she called his name, Gad.

¹² And Zelpha the maid of Lea conceived yet again, and bore Jacob a second son.

¹³ And Lea said, I am blessed, for the women will pronounce me blessed; and she called his name, Aser.

¹⁵ And Lea said, Is it not enough for you that you have taken my husband, will you also take my son's mandrakes? And Rachel said, Not so: let him lie with you tonight for your son's mandrakes.

¹⁶ And Jacob came in out of the field at even; and Lea went forth to meet him, and said, You shall come in to me this day, for I have hired you for my son's mandrakes; and he lay with her that night.

¹⁷ And God listened to Lea, and she conceived, and bore Jacob a fifth son.

¹⁸ And Lea said, God has given me my reward, because I gave my maid to my husband; and she called his name Issachar, which is, Reward.

¹⁹ And Lea conceived again, and bore Jacob a sixth son.

²⁰ And Lea said, God has given me a good gift in this time; my husband will choose me, for I have born him six sons: and she called his name, Zabulon.

²¹ And after this she bore a daughter; and she called her name, Dina.

²² And God remembered Rachel, and God listened to her, and he opened her womb.

²³ And she conceived, and bore Jacob a son; and Rachel said, God has taken away my reproach.

²⁴ And she called his name Joseph, saying, Let God add to me another son.

²⁵ And it came to pass when Rachel had born Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, Send me away, that I may go to my place and to my land.

²⁶ Restore my wives and my children, for whom I have served you, that I may depart, for you know the service wherewith I have served you.

²⁷ And Laban said to him, If I have found grace in your sight, * I would augur well, for the Lord has blessed me at your coming in.

²⁸ Appoint † me your wages, and I will give them.

³⁰ For it was little you had before my time, and it is increased to a multitude, and the Lord God has blessed you ‡ since my coming; now then, when shall I set up also my own house?

³¹ And Laban said to him, What shall I give you? and Jacob said to him, You shall not give me anything; if you will do this thing for me, I will again tend your flocks and keep them.

³³ And my righteousness shall § answer for me on the morrow, for it is my reward before you: whatever shall not be spotted and speckled among the goats, and grey among the rams, shall be stolen with me.

³⁴ And Laban said to him, Let it be according to your word.

* 30:27 Stay you, perhaps understood. Heb. I have argued that, etc. † 30:28 Lit. your wages to or with me. ‡ 30:30 So A.V. but Gr. and Heb. literally, at my foot. § 30:33 Listen to or obey me.

³⁵ And he separated in that day the spotted and speckled he-goats, and all the spotted and speckled she-goats, and all that was grey among the rams, and every one that was white among them, and he gave them into the hand of his sons.

³⁷ And Jacob took to himself green rods of storax tree and walnut and plane tree; and Jacob peeled in them white stripes; and as ^{††} he drew off the green, the white stripe which he had made appeared alternate on the rods.

³⁹ So the cattle conceived at the rods, and the cattle brought forth young speckled, and streaked and spotted with ash-colored spots.

troughs, that they might conceive by the rods. ‡‡

¹ And Jacob heard the words of the sons of Laban, saying, Jacob has taken all that was our father's, and of our father's property has he gotten all this glory.

² And Jacob saw the countenance of Laban, and behold it was not toward him as * before.

³ And the Lord said to Jacob, Return to the land of your father, and to your family, and I will be with you.

⁴ And Jacob sent and called Lea and Rachel to the plain where the flocks were.

⁵ And he said to them, I see the face of your father, that it is not toward me as before, but the God of my father was with me.

⁶ And you ^ too know that with all my might I have served your father.

‡‡ 30:41 The meaning of the Hebrew seems to be, when the cattle were weak from any cause. The LXX. by assigning the yeening time as the cause, have obscured the passage. Of course Jacob would not put them in then. * 31:2 Gr. yesterday and the day before. Hebraism.

⁷ But your father deceived me, and changed my wages for the ten lambs, yet God gave him not power to hurt me.

⁹ So God has taken away all the cattle of your father, and given them to me.

¹⁰ And it came to pass when the cattle conceived and were with young, that I saw with my eyes in sleep, and behold the he-goats and the rams leaping on the sheep and the she-goats, speckled and variegated and spotted with ash-colored spots.

¹¹ And the angel of God said to me † in a dream, Jacob; and I said, What is it?

¹² And he said, Look up with your eyes, and behold the he-goats and the rams leaping on the sheep and the she-goats, speckled and variegated and spotted with ash-colored spots; for I have seen all things that Laban does to you.

¹³ I am God that appeared to you in the place of God where you anointed a pillar to me, and vowed to me there a vow; now then arise and depart out of this land, depart into the land of your nativity, and I will be with you.

¹⁴ And Rachel and Lea answered and said to him, Have we yet a part or inheritance in the house of our father?

¹⁵ Are we not considered strangers by him? for

he has sold us, and quite devoured our money.

¹⁶ All the wealth and the glory which God has taken from our father, it shall be our's and our children's; now then do whatever God has said to you.

¹⁷ And Jacob arose and took his wives and his children up on the camels;

¹⁹ And Laban went to shear his sheep; and Rachel stole her father's images.

²⁰ And Jacob hid the matter from Laban the Syrian, so as not to tell him that he ran away.

²¹ And he departed himself and all that belonged to him, and passed over the river, and went into the mountain Galaad.

²³ And having taken his brethren with him, he pursued after him seven days' journey, and overtook him on Mount Galaad.

²⁴ And God came to Laban the Syrian in sleep by night, and said to him, Take heed to yourself that you speak not at any time to Jacob evil things.

²⁵ And Laban overtook Jacob; and Jacob pitched his tent in the mountain; and Laban stationed his brothers in the mount Galaad.

²⁶ And Laban said to Jacob, What have you done? therefore did you run away secretly, and pillage me, and lead away my daughters as captives taken with the sword?

²⁷ Whereas if you had told me, I would have sent you away with mirth, and with songs, and timbrels, and harp.

²⁸ And I was not counted worthy to embrace my children and my daughters; now then you have wrought foolishly.

³⁰ Now then go on your way, for you have earnestly desired to depart to the house of your father; therefore have you stolen my gods?

³¹ And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was afraid; for I said, Lest at any time you should take away your daughters from me, and all my possessions.

³² And Jacob said, With whoever you shall find your gods, he shall not live in the presence of our brethren; take notice of what I have of your property, and take it; and he observed nothing with him, but Jacob knew not that his wife Rachel had stolen them.

³³ And Laban went in and searched in the house of Lea, and found them not; and he went out of the house of Lea, and searched in the house of Jacob, and in the house of the two maidservants, and found them not; and he went also into the house of Rachel.

³⁴ And Rachel took the idols, and cast them among the camel's packs, and sat upon them.

³⁵ And she said to her father, Be not indignant,

Sir; I can't rise up before you, for it is with me according to the manner of women. Laban searched in all the house, and found not the images.

³⁶ And Jacob was angry, and strove with Laban; and Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my injustice, and what my sin, that you have pursued after me, ³⁷ and that you have searched all the furniture of my house? what have you found of all the furniture of your house? set it here between your relations and my relations, and let them decide between us two.

⁴¹ These twenty years have I been in your house; I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years among your sheep, and you did falsely rate my wages for ten lambs.

⁴² Unless I had the God of my father Abraam, and the fear of Isaac, now you would have sent me away empty; God saw my humiliation, and the labor of my hands, and rebuked you yesterday.

⁴³ And Laban answered and said to Jacob, The daughters are my daughters, and the sons my sons, and the cattle are my cattle, and all things which you see are mine, and the property of my daughters; what shall I do to them today, or their children which they bore?

⁴⁴ Now then come, let me make a covenant, both I and you, and it shall be for a witness between me and you; and he said to him, Behold, there is no one with us; behold, God is witness between me and you.

⁴⁵ And Jacob having taken a stone, set it up for a pillar.

⁴⁶ And Jacob said to his brethren, Gather stones; and they gathered stones and made a heap, and ate there upon the heap; and Laban said to him, This heap witnesses between me and you today.

⁴⁷ And Laban called it, the Heap of Testimony; and Jacob called it, the Witness Heap.

⁴⁸ And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and the pillar, which I have set between me and you; this heap witnesses, and this pillar witnesses; therefore its name was called, the Heap witnesses.

⁴⁹ And the vision of which he said—Let God look to it between me and you, because we are about to depart from each other, —

⁵⁰ If you shall humble my daughters, if you should take wives in addition to my daughters, see, there is no one with us looking on. God is witness between me and you.

⁵¹ And Laban said to Jacob, Behold, this heap, and this pillar are a witness.

⁵² For if I should not cross over to you, neither should you cross over to me, for mischief beyond this heap and this pillar.

⁵³ The God of Abraam and the God of Nachor judge between us; and Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac.

⁵⁴ And he offered a sacrifice in the mountain, and called his brethren, and they ate and drank, and slept in the mountain.

¹ And Jacob departed for his journey; and having looked up, he saw the * host of God encamped; and the angels of God met him.

² And Jacob said, when he saw them, This is the Camp of God; and he called the name of that place, Encampments.

³ And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother to the land of Seir, to the country of Edom.

⁴ And he charged them, saying, Thus shall you ^ say to my lord Esau: Thus says your servant Jacob; I have sojourned with Laban and tarried until now.

⁵ And there were born to me oxen, and asses, and sheep, and menservants and women-servants; and I sent to tell my lord Esau, that your servant might find grace in your sight.

* 32:1 Gr. camp

⁶ And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to your brother Esau, and behold! he comes to meet you, and four hundred men with him.

⁷ And Jacob was greatly terrified, and was perplexed; and he divided the people that was with him, and the cows, and the camels, and the sheep, into two camps.

⁸ And Jacob said, If Esau should come to one camp, and strike it, the other camp shall be in safety.

⁹ And Jacob said, God of my father Abraam, and God of my father Isaac, O Lord, you are he that said to me, Depart quickly to the land of your birth, and I will do you good.

¹⁰ Let there be to me a sufficiency of all the justice and all the truth which you have wrought with your servant; for with this my staff I passed over this Jordan, and now I am become two camps.

¹¹ Deliver me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau, for I am afraid of him, lest haply he should come and strike me, and the mother upon the children.

¹² But you said, I will do you good, and will make your seed as the sand of the sea, which shall not be numbered for multitude.

¹³ And he slept there that night, and took of the gifts which he carried with him, and sent out to Esau his brother,

¹⁴ two hundred she-goats, twenty he-goats, two hundred sheep, twenty rams,

¹⁵ milch camels, and their foals, thirty, forty kine, ten bulls, twenty asses, and ten colts.

¹⁶ And he gave them to his servants each drove apart; and he said to his servants, Go on before me, and put a space between drove and drove.

¹⁷ And he charged the first, saying, If Esau my brother meet you, and he ask you, saying, Whose are you? and whither would you go, and whose are these possessions advancing before you?

¹⁸ You shall say, Your servant Jacob's; he has sent gifts to my lord Esau, and behold! he is behind us.

¹⁹ And he charged the first and the second and the third, and all that went before him after these flocks, saying, Thus shall you ^ speak to Esau when you ^ find him;

²⁰ and you ^ shall say, Behold your servant Jacob comes after us. For he said, I will propitiate his countenance with the gifts going before his presence, and afterwards I will behold his face, for perhaps he will accept † me.

²¹ So the presents went on before him, but he himself lodged that night in the camp.

²⁴ And Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him till the morning.

²⁵ And he saw that he prevailed not against him; and he touched the broad part of his thigh, and the broad part of Jacob's thigh was benumbed in his wrestling with him.

²⁶ And he said to him, Let me go, for the day has dawned; but he said, I will not let you go, except you bless me.

²⁸ And he said to him, Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel shall be your name; for you have prevailed with God, and shall be mighty with men.

²⁹ And Jacob asked and said, Tell me your name; and he said, Therefore do you ask after my name? and he blessed him there.

³⁰ And Jacob called the name of that place, the Face of God; for, said he, I have seen God face to face, and my life was preserved.

³¹ And the sun rose upon him, when he passed the Face of God; and he halted upon his thigh.

¹ And Jacob * lifted up his eyes, and saw, and behold! Esau his brother coming, and four hundred men with him; and Jacob divided the children to Lea and to Rachel, and the two handmaidens.

* 33:1 Gr. looked up with.

² And he put the two handmaidens and their children with the first, and Lea and her children behind, and Rachel and Joseph last.

³ But he advanced himself before them, and did reverence to the ground seven times, until he drew near to his brother.

⁵ And Esau looked up and saw the women and the children, and said, What are these to you? And he said, The children with which God has mercifully blessed your servant.

⁶ And the maidservants and their children drew near and did reverence.

⁷ And Lea and her children drew near and did reverence; and after this drew near Rachel and Joseph, and did reverence.

⁸ And he said, What are these things to you, all these companies that I have met? And he said, That your servant might find grace in your sight, my lord.

⁹ And Esau said, I have much, my brother; keep your own.

¹⁰ And Jacob said, If I have found grace in your sight, receive the gifts through my hands; therefore have I seen your face, as if any one should see the face of God, and you shall be well-pleased with me.

¹¹ Receive my blessings, which I have brought you, because God has had mercy on me, and I have all things; and he constrained him, and he took them.

¹² And he said, Let us depart, and proceed right

¹³ And he said to him, My lord knows, that the children are very tender, and the flocks and the herds with me are with young; if then I shall drive them hard one day, all the cattle will die.

¹⁵ And Esau said, I will leave with you some of the people who are with me. And he said, Why so? it is enough that I have found favor before you, my lord.

¹⁶ And Esau returned on that day on his journey to Seir.

¹⁷ And Jacob departs to his tents; and he made for himself there habitations, and for his cattle he made booths; therefore he called the name of that place, Booths.

¹⁹ And he bought the portion of the field, where he pitched his tent, of Emmor the father of Sychem, for one hundred lambs.

²⁰ And he set up there an altar, and called on the God of Israel.

† 33:14 Gr. foot. ‡ 33:18 Or, pitched his tent. Alex. παρενέβαλε, for which probably παρενέλαβε is a mere mistake. So Bos and P. Junius thought.

¹ And Dina, the daughter of Lea, whom she bore to Jacob, went forth to observe the daughters of the inhabitants.

² And Sychem the son of Emmor the * Evite, the ruler of the land, saw her, and took her and lay with her, and humbled her.

⁴ Sychem spoke to Emmor his father, saying, Take for me this damsel to wife.

⁶ And Emmor the father of Sychem went forth to Jacob, to speak to him.

⁷ And the sons of Jacob came from the plain; and when they heard, the men were deeply pained, and it was very grievous to them, because the man wrought folly in Israel, having lain with the daughter of Jacob, and so it ‡ must not be.

⁸ And Emmor spoke to them, saying, Sychem my son has chosen in his heart your daughter; give her therefore to him for a wife, ⁹ and intermarry with us. Give us your daughters, and take our daughters for your sons.

* 34:2 Alex. the chorrhæan. † 34:3 Lit. spoke according to the heart of the damsel — to her. A literal version of the Hebrew.

‡ 34:7 Lit. shall not be.

¹⁰ And dwell in the midst of us; and, behold, the land is spacious before you, dwell in it, and trade, and get possessions in it.

¹¹ And Sychem said to her father and to her brothers, I would find grace before you, and we will give whatever you[^] shall name.

¹⁶ And we will give our daughters to you, and we will take of your daughters for wives to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will be as one race.

¹⁷ But if you[^] will not listen to us to be circumcised, we will take our daughter and depart.

¹⁸ And the words pleased Emmor, and Sychem the son of Emmor.

in his father's house.

²⁰ And Emmor and Sychem his son came to the gate of their city, and spoke to the men of their city, saying,

²¹ These men are peaceful, let them dwell with us upon the land, and let them trade in it, and behold the land is extensive before them; we will take their daughters to us for wives, and we will give them our daughters.

²⁵ And it came to pass on the third day, when they were in pain, the two sons of Jacob, Symeon and Levi, Dina's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city securely, and killed every male.

²⁶ And they killed Emmor and Sychem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dina out of the house of Sychem, and went forth.

²⁷ But the sons of Jacob came upon the †† wounded, and ravaged the city wherein they had defiled Dina their sister.

 34:23 Gr. quadrupeds.

†† 34:27 Or, slain, which seems frequently the sense in LXX.

²⁸ And their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses they took, and all things whatever were in the city, and whatever were in the plain.

²⁹ And they took captive all the persons of them, and all their store, and their wives, and plundered both whatever things there were in the city, and whatever things there were in the houses.

³⁰ And Jacob said to Symeon and Levi, You ^ have made me hateful so that I should be evil to all the inhabitants of the land, both among the Chananites and the Pherezites, and I am few in number; they will gather themselves against me and cut me in pieces, and I shall be utterly destroyed, and my house.

¹ And God said to Jacob, Arise, go up to the place, Baethel, and dwell there; and make there an altar to the God that appeared to you, when you fled from the face of Esau your brother.

² And Jacob said to his house, and to all that were with him, Remove the strange gods that are with you from the midst of you, and purify yourselves, and change your clothes.

³ And let us rise and go up to Baethel, and let us there make an altar to God who listened to me in the day of calamity, who was with me, and preserved me throughout in the journey, by which I went.

⁴ And they gave to Jacob the strange gods, which were in their hands, and the ear-rings which were in their ears, and Jacob hid them under the turpentine tree which is in Secima, and * destroyed them to this day.

⁵ So Israel departed from Secima, and the fear of God was upon the cities round about them, and they did not pursue after the children of Israel.

⁶ And Jacob came to Luza, which is in the land of Chanaan, which is Baethel, he and all the people that were with him.

⁷ And he built there an altar, and called the name of the place Baethel; for there God appeared to him, when he fled from the face of his brother Esau.

⁸ And Deborra, Rebecca's nurse, died, and was buried below Baethel under the oak; and Jacob called its name, The Oak of Mourning.

⁹ And God appeared to Jacob once more in Luza, when he came out of Mesopotamia of Syria, and God blessed him.

¹⁰ And God said to him, Your name shall not be called Jacob, but Israel shall be your name; and he called his name Israel.

¹¹ And God said to him, I am your God; increase and multiply; for nations and gatherings of nations shall be of you, and kings shall come out of your loins.

¹² And the land which I gave to Abraam and Isaac, I have given it to you; and it shall come to pass that I will give this land also to your seed after you.

¹³ And God went up from him from the place

¹⁴ And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where God spoke with him, even a pillar of stone; and offered a libation upon it, and poured oil upon it.

¹⁵ And Jacob called the name of the place in which God spoke with him, Baethel.

¹⁶ † [And Jacob removed from Baethel, and pitched his tent beyond the tower of Gader,] and it came to pass when he drew near to Chabratha, to enter into Ephratha, Rachel travailed; and in her travail she was in hard labor.

¹⁷ And it came to pass in her hard labor, that the midwife said to her, Be of good courage, for you shall also have this son.

¹⁸ And it came to pass in her giving up the ghost (for she was dying), that she called his name, The son of my pain; but his father called his name Benjamin.

¹⁹ So Rachel died, and was buried in the way of the course of Ephratha, this is Bethleem.

²⁰ And Jacob set up a pillar on her tomb; this is the pillar on the tomb of Rachel, until this day.

²¹ And it came to pass when Israel lived in that land, that Ruben went and lay with Balla, the concubine of his father Jacob; and Israel heard, and the thing appeared grievous before him.

²³ The sons of Lea, the firstborn of Jacob; Ruben, Symeon, Levi, Judas, Issachar, Zabulon.

† 35:16 Note. — The words between brackets form the 21st verse of this chapter in the Hebrew.

²⁴ And the sons of Rachel; Joseph and Benjamin.

²⁵ And the sons of Balla, the handmaid of Rachel; Dan and Nephthalim.

²⁶ And the sons of Zelpha, the handmaid of Lea; Gad and Aser. These are the sons of Jacob, which were born to him in Mesopotamia of Syria.

²⁸ And the days of Isaac which he lived were one hundred and eighty years.

² And Esau took to himself wives of the daughters of the Chananites; Ada, the daughter of Aelom the Chettite; and Olibema, daughter of Ana the son of Sebegon, the Evite;

³ and Basemath, daughter of Ismael, sister of Nabaioth.

⁴ And Ada bore to him Eliphas; and Basemath bore Raguel.

⁵ And Olibema bore Jeus, and Jeglom, and Core; these are the sons of Esau, which were born to him in the land of Chanaan.

⁶ And Esau took his wives, and his sons, and his daughters, and all the persons of his house, and all his possessions, and all his cattle, and all that he had got, and all things whatever he had acquired in the land of Chanaan; and Esau went forth from the land of Chanaan, from the face of his brother Jacob.

⁸ And Esau lived in mount Seir; Esau, he is Edom.

⁹ And these are the generations of Esau, the father of Edom in the mount Seir.

¹⁰ And these are the names of the sons of Esau. Eliphas, the son of Ada, the wife of Esau; and Raguel, the son of Basemath, wife of Esau.

¹¹ And the sons of Eliphas were Thaeman, Omar, Sophar, Gothom, and Kenez.

¹² And Thamna was a concubine of Eliphaz, the son of Esau; and she bore Amalec to Eliphas. These are the sons of Ada, the wife of Esau.

¹³ And these are the sons of Raguel; Nachoth, Zare, Some, and Moze. These were the sons of Basemath, wife of Esau.

¹⁶ chief Core, chief Gothom, chief Amalec. These are the chiefs of Eliphas, in the land of Edom; these are the sons of Ada.

¹⁷ And these are the sons of Raguel, the son of Esau; chief Nachoth, chief Zare, chief Some, chief Moze. These are the chiefs of Raguel, in the land of Edom; these are the sons of Basemath, wife of Esau.

¹⁸ And these are the sons of Olibema, wife of Esau; chief Jeus, chief Jeglom, chief Core. These are the chiefs of Olibema, daughter of Ana, wife of Esau.

¹⁹ These are the sons of Esau, and these are the chiefs; these are the sons of Edom.

²⁰ And these are the sons of Seir, the Chorrhite, who inhabited the land; Lotan, Sobal, Sebegon, Ana, ²¹ and Deson, and Asar, and Rison. These are the chiefs of the Chorrhite, the son of Seir, in the land of Edom.

²² And the sons of Lotan were Chorrhi and Haeman; and the sister of Lotan, Thamna.

²³ And these are the sons of Sobal; Golan, and Manachath, and Gaebel, and Sophar, and Omar.

²⁵ And these are the sons of Ana; Deson—and Olibema was daughter of Ana.

²⁶ And these are the sons of Deson; Amada, and Asban, and Ithran, and Charrhan.

²⁷ And these are the sons of Asar; Balaam, and Zucam, and Jucam.

²⁸ And these are the sons of Rison; Hos, and Aran.

³⁰ chief Deson, chief Asar, chief Rison. These are the chiefs of Chorri, in their principalities in the land of Edom.

³¹ these are the kings which reigned in Edom, before a king reigned in Israel.

³² And Balac, son of Beor, reigned in Edom; and the name of his city was Dennaba.

³³ And Balac died; and Jobab, son of Zara, from Bosorrha reigned in his stead.

³⁴ And Jobab died; and Asom, from the land of the Thaemanites, reigned in his stead.

³⁶ And Adad died; and Samada of Massecca reigned in his stead.

³⁷ Samada died; and Saul of Rhooboth by the river reigned in his stead.

³⁸ And Saul died; and Ballenon the son of Achobor reigned in his stead.

⁴¹ chief Olibema, chief Helas, chief Phinon,

⁴² chief Kenez, chief Thaeman, chief Mazar,

⁴³ chief Magediel, chief Zaphoin. These are the chiefs of Edom in their dwelling-places in the land of their possession; this is Esau, the father of Edom.

⁴⁴ And Jacob lived in the land where his father sojourned, in the land of Chanaan.

¹⁻² And these are the generations of Jacob. And Joseph was seventeen years old, feeding the sheep of his father with his brethren, being young; with the sons of Balla, and with the sons of Zelpha, the wives of his father; * and Joseph brought to Israel their father their evil reproach.

³ And Jacob loved Joseph more than all his sons, because he was to him the son of old age; and he made for him a coat of many colors.

⁵ And Joseph dreamed a dream, and reported it to his brethren.

⁶ And he said to them, Hear this dream which I have dreamed.

⁷ I thought you ^ were binding sheaves in the middle of the field, and my sheaf stood up and was erected, and your sheaves turned round, and did obeisance to my sheaf.

⁸ And his brethren said to him, Shall you indeed reign over us, or shall you indeed be lord over us? And they hated him still more for his dreams and for his words.

⁹ And he † dreamed another dream, and related it to his father, and to his brethren, and said,

* 37:1-2 Or, according to some copies, they brought an evil report of Joseph, etc. † 37:9 Gr. saw.

Behold, I have dreamed another dream: as it were the sun, and the moon, and the eleven stars did me reverence.

¹⁰ And his father rebuked him, and said to him, What is this dream which you have dreamed? shall indeed both I and your mother and your brethren come and bow before you to the earth?

¹¹ And his brethren envied him; but his father observed the saying.

¹² And his brethren went to feed the sheep of their father to Sychem.

¹³ And Israel said to Joseph, Do not your brethren feed their flock in Sychem? Come, I will send you to them; and he said to him, Behold, I am here.

¹⁴ And Israel said to him, Go and see if your brethren and the sheep are well, and bring me word; and he sent him out of the valley of Chebron, and he came to Sychem.

¹⁵ And a man found him wandering in the field; and the man asked him, saying, What seek you?

¹⁶ And he said, I am seeking my brethren; tell me where they feed their flocks.

¹⁷ And the man said to him, They have departed hence, for I heard them saying, Let us go to Dothaim; and Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in Dothaim.

¹⁸ And they spied him from a distance before he drew near to them, and they wickedly took counsel to kill him.

¹⁹ And each said to his brother, Behold, that dreamer comes.

²⁰ Now then come, let us kill him, and cast him into one of the pits; and we will say, An evil wild beast has devoured him; and we shall see what his dreams will be.

²¹ And Ruben having heard it, rescued him out of their hands, and said, Let us not ‡ kill him.

²⁴ And they took him and cast him into the pit; and the pit was empty, it had not water.

²⁵ And they sat down to eat bread; and having lifted up their eyes they saw, and behold, Ismaelitish travellers came from Galaad, and their camels were heavily loaded with spices, and resin, and § myrrh; and they went to bring them to Egypt.

²⁶ And Judas said to his brethren, What profit is it if we kill our brother, and conceal his blood?

²⁸ And the men, the merchants of Madian, went by, and they drew and lifted Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ismaelites for twenty pieces of gold; and they brought Joseph down into Egypt.

‡ 37:21 Gr. strike him to the life. § 37:25 Gr. stacte.

³⁰ And he returned to his brethren and said, The boy is not; and I, whither am I yet to go?

³¹ And having taken the coat of Joseph, they killed a kid of the goats, and stained the coat with the blood.

³² And they sent the coat of many colors; and they brought it to their father, and said, This have we found; know if it be your son's coat or no. And he recognized it, and said, It is my son's coat, an evil wild beast has devoured him; a wild beast has carried off Joseph.

³³ And Jacob tore his clothes, and put sackcloth on his loins, and mourned for his son many days.

³⁴ And all his sons and his daughters gathered themselves together, and came to comfort him; but he would not be comforted, saying, I will go down to my son mourning to Hades; and his father wept for him.

³⁵ And the Madianites sold Joseph into Egypt; to Petephres, the eunuch of Pharaoh, captain of the guard.

¹ And it came to pass at that time that Judas went down from his brethren, and came as far as to a certain man of Odollam, whose name was Iras.

² And Judas saw there the daughter of a Chananitish man, whose name was Sava; and he took her; and went in to her.

³ And she conceived and bore a son, and called his name, Er.

⁴ And she conceived and bore a son again; and called his name, Aunan.

⁵ And she again bore a son; and called his name, Selom: and she was in Chasbi when she bore them.

⁶ And Judas took a wife for Er his firstborn, whose name was Tamar.

⁷ And Er, the firstborn of Judas, was wicked before the Lord; and God killed him.

⁸ And Judas said to Aunan, Go in to your brother's wife, and marry her as her brother-in-law, and raise up seed to your brother.

⁹ And Aunan, knowing that the seed should not be his—it came to pass when he went in to his brother's wife, that he spilled it upon the ground, so that he should not give seed to his brother's wife.

¹⁰ And his doing this appeared evil before God; and he killed him also.

¹¹ And Judas said to Tamar, his daughter-in-law, Sit you a widow in the house of your father-in-law, until Selom my son be grown; for he said, lest he also die as his brethren; and Tamar departed, and sat in the house of her father.

¹² And the days were fulfilled, and Sava the wife of Judas died; and Judas, being comforted, went to them that sheared his sheep, himself and Iras his Shepherd the Odollamite, to Thamna.

¹³ And it was told Tamar his daughter-in-law, saying, Behold, your father-in-law goes up to Thamna, to shear his sheep.

¹⁴ And having taken off the garments of her widowhood from her, she put on a veil, and ornamented her face, and sat by the gates of Aenan, which is in the way to Thamna, for she saw that Selom was grown; but he gave her not to him for a wife.

¹⁵ And when Judas saw her, he thought her to be a harlot; for she covered her face, and he knew her not.

¹⁶ And he went out of his way to her, and said to her, Let me come in to you; for he knew not that she was his daughter-in-law; and she said, What will you give me if you should come in to me?

¹⁷ And he said, I will send you a kid of the goats from my flock; and she said, Well, if you will give me an earnest, until you send it.

¹⁸ And he said, What is the earnest that I shall give you? and she said, Your ring, and your bracelet, and the staff in your hand; and he gave them to her, and went in to her, and she conceived by him.

¹⁹ And she arose and departed, and took her veil from off her, and put on the garments of her widowhood.

²⁰ And Judas sent the kid of the goats by the hand of his shepherd the Odollamite, to receive the pledge from the woman; and he found her not.

²¹ And he asked the men of the place, Where is the harlot who was in Aenan by the wayside? and they said, There was no harlot here.

²² And he returned to Judas, and said, I have not found her; and the men of the place say, There is no harlot here.

²³ And Judas said, Let her have them, but let us not be ridiculed; I sent this kid, but you have not found her.

²⁴ And it came to pass after three months, that it was told Judas, saying, Tamar your daughter-in-law has grievously played the harlot, and behold she is with child by whoredom; and Judas said, Bring her out, and let her be burnt.

²⁵ And as they were bringing her, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, I am with child by the man whose these things are; and she said, See whose is this ring and bracelet and staff.

²⁶ And Judas knew them, and said, Tamar is cleared rather than I, forasmuch as I gave her not to Selom my son: and he knew her not again.

²⁷ And it came to pass when she was in labor, that she also had twins in her womb.

²⁹ And when he drew back his hand, then immediately came forth his brother; and she said, Why has the barrier been cut through because of you? and she called his name, Phares.

¹ And Joseph was brought down to Egypt; and Petephres the eunuch of Pharaoh, the* captain of

* 39:1 Gr. chief cook. The same Hebrew word signifies a cook, who was also a butcher; and a guardsman, who was also an executioner.

the guard, an Egyptian, bought him of the hands of the Ismaelites, who brought him down there.

² And the Lord was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man; and he was in the house with his lord the Egyptian.

³ And his master knew that the Lord was with him, and the Lord prospers in his hands whatever he happens to do.

⁴ And Joseph found grace in the presence of his lord, and was well-pleasing to him; and he set him over his house, and all that he had he gave into the hand of Joseph.

⁵ And it came to pass after that he was set over his house, and over all that he had, that the Lord blessed the house of the Egyptian for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the Lord was on all his possessions in the house, and in his field.

⁶ And he committed all that he had into the hands of Joseph; and he knew not of anything that belonged to him, save the bread which he himself ate. And Joseph was handsome in form, and exceedingly beautiful in countenance.

⁸ But he would not; but said to his master's wife, If because of me my master knows nothing in his house, and has given into my hands all things that belong to him:

⁹ and in this house there is nothing above me, nor has anything been kept back from me, but you, because you are his wife—how then shall I do this wicked thing, and sin against God?

¹⁰ And when she talked with Joseph day by day, and he listened not to her to sleep with her, so as to be with her,

¹¹ † it came to pass on a certain day, that Joseph went into the house to do his business, and there was no one of the household within.

¹² And she caught hold of him by his clothes, and said, Lie with me; and having left his clothes in her hands, he fled, and went forth.

¹³ And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his clothes in her hands, and fled, and gone forth,

¹⁴ that she called those that were in the house, and spoke to them, saying, See, he has brought in to us a Hebrew servant to mock us—he came in to me, saying, Lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice.

¹⁵ And when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, having left his clothes with me, he fled, and went forth out.

¹⁶ So she leaves the clothes by her, until the master came to his house.

¹⁷ And she spoke to him according to these words, saying, The Hebrew servant, whom you brought in to us, came in to me to mock me, and said to me, I will lie with you.

¹⁸ And when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, having left his clothes with me, he fled and departed forth.

¹⁹ And it came to pass, when his master heard all the words of his wife, that she spoke to him, saying, Thus did your servant to me, that he was

²⁰ And his master took Joseph, and cast him into the prison, into the place where the king's prisoners are kept, there in the prison.

²¹ And the Lord was with Joseph, and poured down mercy upon him; and he gave him favor in the sight of the chief keeper of the prison.

²² And the chief keeper of the prison gave the prison into the hand of Joseph, and all the prisoners ‡ as many as were in the prison; and all things whatever they do there, he did them.

² And Pharaoh was angry with his two eunuchs, with his chief cupbearer, and with his chief baker.

³ And he put them in ward, into the prison, into the place whereinto Joseph had been led.

⁴ And the chief keeper of the prison committed them to Joseph, and he stood by them; and they were some days in the prison.

‡ 39:22 Lit. men led away to prison or punishment.

⁵ And they both * had a dream in one night; and the vision of the dream of the chief cup-bearer and chief baker, who belonged to the king of Egypt, who were in the prison, was this.

⁷ And he asked the eunuchs of Pharaoh who were with him in the prison with his master, saying, Why is it that your countenances are sad today?

⁸ And they said to him, We have seen a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said to them, Is not the interpretation of them through god? tell them than to me.

⁹ And the chief cupbearer related his dream to Joseph, and said, In my † dream a vine was before me.

¹⁰ And in the vine were three stems; and it budding shot forth blossoms; the clusters of grapes were ripe.

¹¹ And the cup of Pharaoh was in my hand; and I took the bunch of grapes, and squeezed it into the cup, and gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.

¹² And Joseph said to him, This is the interpretation of it. The three stems are three days.

¹³ Yet three days and Pharaoh shall remember your office, and he shall restore you to your place of chief cupbearer, and you shall give the cup of Pharaoh into his hand, according to your former high place, as you were wont to be cupbearer.

¹⁴ But remember me of yourself, when it shall be well with you, and you shall deal mercifully with me, and you shall make mention of me to Pharaoh, and you shall bring me forth out of this dungeon.

¹⁶ And the chief baker saw that he interpreted aright; and he said to Joseph, I also saw a dream, and I thought I took up on my head three baskets of mealy food.

¹⁷ And in the upper basket there was the work of the baker of every kind which Pharaoh eats; and the fowls of the air ate them out of the basket that was on my head.

¹⁸ And Joseph answered and said to him, This is the interpretation of it; The three baskets are three days.

²⁰ And it came to pass on the third day that it was Pharaoh's birth-day, and he made a banquet for all his servants, and he remembered the office of the cupbearer and the office of the baker in the midst of his servants.

²¹ And he restored the chief cupbearer to his office, and he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.

¹ And it came to pass after two * full years that Pharaoh had a dream. He thought he stood upon the bank of the river.

² And behold, there came up as it were out of the river seven cows, fair in appearance, and choice of flesh, and they fed on the sedge. †

⁴ And the seven ill-favoured and lean cows devoured the seven well-favoured and choice-fleshed cows; and Pharaoh awoke.

⁸ And it was morning, and his soul was troubled; and he sent and called all the interpreters of Egypt, and all her wise men; and Pharaoh related to them his dream, and there was no one to ‡ interpret it to Pharaoh.

⁹ And the chief cupbearer spoke to Pharaoh, saying, I this day remember my fault:

¹⁰ Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and put us in prison in the house of the captain of the

¹¹ And we § had a dream both in one night, I and he; we saw, each according to his dream.

¹² And there was there with us a young man, a Hebrew servant of the captain of the guard; and we related to him our dreams, and he interpreted them to us.

¹³ And it came to pass, as he interpreted them to us, so also it happened, both that I was restored to my office, and that he was hanged.

¹⁵ And Pharaoh said to Joseph, I have seen a vision, and there is no one to interpret it; but I have heard  say concerning you that you did hear dreams and interpret them.

¹⁶ And Joseph answered Pharaoh and said, Without God an answer of safety shall not be given to Pharaoh.

¹⁷ And Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, In my dream I thought I stood by the bank of the river;

¹⁸ and there came up as it were out of the river, seven cows well-favoured and choice-fleshed, and they fed on the sedge.

²⁰ And the seven ill-favoured and thin cows ate up the seven first good and choice cows.

²² and saw again in my sleep, and as it were seven ears came up on one stem, full and good.

²³ And other seven ears, thin and blasted with the wind, sprang up close to them.

²⁴ And the seven thin and blasted ears devoured the seven fine and full ears: so I spoke to the interpreters, and there was no one to explain it to me.

²⁷ And the seven thin kine that came up after them are seven years; and the seven thin and blasted ears are seven years; there shall be seven years of famine.

²⁸ And as for the word which I have told Pharaoh, whatever God intends to do, he has shown to Pharaoh:

²⁹ behold, for seven years there is coming great plenty in all the land of Egypt.

†† 41:21 Gr. they were.

³¹ And the plenty shall not be known in the land by reason of the famine that shall be after this, for it shall be very grievous.

³³ Now then, look out a wise and prudent man, and set him over the land of Egypt.

³⁷ And the word was pleasing in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of all his servants.

³⁸ And Pharaoh said to all his servants, Shall we find such a man as this, who has the Spirit of God in him?

³⁹ And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Since God has showed you all these things, there is not a wiser or more prudent man than you.

⁴⁰ You shall be over my house, and all my people shall be obedient to your ‡‡ word; only in the throne will I excel you.

‡‡ 41:40 Gr. mouth.

⁴¹ And Pharaο said to Joseph, Behold, I set you this day over all the land of Egypt.

⁴³ And he mounted him on the second of his chariots, and a herald made proclamation before him; and he set him over all the land of Egypt.

⁴⁵ And Pharaο called the name of Joseph, Psonthomphanech; and he gave him Aseneth, the daughter of Petephres, priest of Heliopolis, to wife.

⁴⁶ And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaο, king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaο, and went through all the land of Egypt.

⁴⁷ And the land produced, in the seven years of plenty, whole handfuls of corn.

⁴⁹ And Joseph gathered very much corn as the sand of the sea, until it could not be numbered, for there was no number of it.

⁵⁰ And to Joseph were born two sons, before the seven years of famine came, which Aseneth, the daughter of Petephres, priest of Heliopolis,

⁵¹ And Joseph called the name of the firstborn, Manasse; for God, said he, has made me forget all my toils, and all §§ my father's house.

⁵² And he called the name of the second, Ephraim; for God, said he, has increased me in the land of my humiliation.

⁵³ And the seven years of plenty passed away, which were in the land of Egypt.

⁵⁴ And the seven years of famine began to come, as Joseph said; and there was a famine in all the land; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

⁵⁵ And all the land of Egypt was hungry; and the people cried to Pharaoh for bread. And Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, Go to Joseph, and do whatever he shall tell you.

⁵⁶ And the famine was on the face of all the earth; and Joseph opened all the granaries, and sold to all the Egyptians.

⁵⁷ And all countries came to Egypt to buy of Joseph, for the famine prevailed in all the earth.

¹ And Jacob having seen that there was a sale of corn in Egypt, said to his sons, Why are you [^]indolent?

² Behold, I have heard that there is corn in Egypt; go down there, and buy for us a little food, that we may live, and not die.

³ And the ten brethren of Joseph went down to buy corn out of Egypt.

§§ 41:51 Gr. things belong to my father.

⁴ But Jacob sent not Benjamin, the brother of Joseph, with his brethren; for he said, Lest, haply, disease befall him.

⁵ And the sons of Israel came to buy with those that came, for the famine was in the land of Chanaan.

⁶ And Joseph was ruler of the land; he sold to all the people of the land. And the brethren of Joseph, having come, did reverence to him, bowing with the face to the ground.

⁷ And when Joseph saw his brethren, he knew them, and estranged himself from them, and spoke hard words to them; and said to them, Whence are you ^ come? And they said, Out of the land of Chanaan, to buy food.

⁸ And Joseph knew his brethren, but they knew not him.

⁹ And Joseph remembered his dream, which he saw; and he said to them, You ^ are spies; to observe the marks of the land are you ^ come.

¹⁰ But they said, Nay, Sir, we your servants are come to buy food;

¹¹ we are all sons of one man; we are peaceful, your servants are not spies.

¹² And he said to them, Nay, but you ^ are come to observe the marks of the land.

¹³ And they said, We your servants are twelve brethren, in the land of Chanaan; and, behold, the youngest is with our father today, but the other one is not.

¹⁴ And Joseph said to them, This is it that I spoke to you, saying, you ^ are spies;

¹⁵ herein shall you ^ be manifested; by the health of Pharaoh, you ^ shall not depart hence, unless your younger brother come here.

¹⁶ Send one of you, and take your brother; and go you ^ to prison, till your words be clear, whether you ^ speak the truth or not; but, if not, by the health of Pharaoh, verily you ^ are spies.

¹⁷ And he put them in prison three days.

¹⁸ And he said to them on the third day, This do, and you ^ shall live, for I fear God.

¹⁹ If you ^ be peaceful, let one of your brethren be detained in prison; but go you ^, and carry back the * corn you ^ have purchased.

²⁰ And bring your younger brother to me, and your words shall be believed; but, if not, you ^ shall die. And they did so.

²¹ And each said to his brother, Yes, indeed, for we are in fault concerning our brother, when we disregarded the anguish of his soul, when he implored us, and we listened not to him; and therefore has this affliction come upon us.

²² And Ruben answered them, saying, Did I not speak to you, saying, Hurt not the boy, and you ^ heard me not? and, behold, his blood is required.

²³ But they knew not that Joseph † understood them; for there was an interpreter between them.

²⁴ And Joseph turned away from them, and wept; and again he came to them, and spoke to them; and he took Symeon from them, and bound him before their eyes.

* 42:19 Gr. the purchase of your gift of corn. † 42:23 Gr. heard them.

²⁸ And he said to his brethren, My money has been restored to me, and behold this is in my sack. And their heart was wonder-struck, and they were troubled, saying one to another, What is this that God has done to us?

²⁹ And they came to their father, Jacob, into the land of Chanaan, and reported to him all that had happened to them, saying,

³⁰ The man, the lord of the land, spoke harsh words to us, and put us in prison as spies of the land.

³¹ And we said to him, We are men of peace, we are not spies.

³² We are twelve brethren, sons of our father; one is not, and the youngest is with his father today in the land of Chanaan.

³³ And the man, the lord of the land, said to us, Herein shall I know that you ^ are peaceful; leave one brother here with me, and having taken the corn you ^ have purchased for your family, depart.

³⁴ And bring to me your younger brother; then I shall know that you ^ are not spies, but that you ^ are men of peace: and I will restore you your brother, and you ^ shall trade in the land.

³⁵ And it came to pass as they were emptying their sacks, there was each man's bundle of money in his sack; and they and their father saw their bundles of money, and they were afraid.

³⁶ And their father Jacob said to them, You ^ have bereaved me. Joseph is not, Symeon is not, and will you ^ take Benjamin? all these things have come upon me.

³⁷ And Ruben spoke to his father, saying, Slay my two sons, if I bring him not to you; give him into my hand, and I will bring him back to you.

² And it came to pass, when they had finished eating the corn which they had brought out of Egypt, that their father said to them, Go again; buy us a little food.

³ And Judas spoke to him, saying, The man, the lord of the country, positively testified to us, saying, You ^ shall not see my face, unless your younger brother be with you.

⁴ If, then, you send our brother with us, we will go down, and buy you food;

⁵ but if you send not our brother with us, we will not go: for the man spoke to us, saying, You ^ shall not see my face, unless your younger brother be with you.

⁶ And Israel said, Why did you ^ harm me, inasmuch as you ^ told the man that you ^ had a brother?

⁷ And they said, The man closely questioned us about our family also, saying, Does your father yet live, and have you ^ a brother? and we answered him according to this question: did we know that he would say to us, Bring your brother?

⁸ And Judas said to his father Israel, Send the boy with me, and we will arise and go, that we may live and not die, both we and you, and our store.

⁹ And I engage for him; at my hand do you require him; if I bring him not to you, and place him before you, I shall be guilty toward you for ever.

¹⁰ For if we had not tarried, we should now have returned twice.

¹¹ And Israel, their father, said to them, If it be so, do this; take of the fruits of the earth in your vessels, and carry down to the man presents of gum and honey, and frankincense, and stacte, and turpentine, and walnuts.

¹² And take double money in your hands, and the money that was returned in your sacks, carry back with you, lest perhaps it is a mistake.

* 43:13 Gr. one.

¹⁴ And my God give you favor in the sight of the man, and send away your other brother, and Benjamin, for I accordingly as I have been bereaved, am bereaved.

¹⁵ And the men having taken these presents, and the double money, took in their hands also Benjamin; and they rose up and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.

¹⁶ And Joseph saw them and his brother Benjamin, born of the same mother; and he said to the steward of his household, Bring the men into the house, and kill beasts and make ready, for the men are to eat bread with me at noon.

¹⁷ And the man did as Joseph said; and he brought the men into the house of Joseph.

¹⁸ And the men, when they perceived that they were brought into the house of Joseph, said, We are brought in because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first; even in order to inform against us, and lay it to our charge; to take us for servants, and our asses.

¹⁹ And having approached the man who was over the house of Joseph, they spoke to him in the porch of the house,

²⁰ saying, We pray you, Sir; we came down at first to buy food.

²² And we have brought other money with us to buy food; we know not who put the money into our sacks.

23 And he said to them, God deal mercifully with you; be not afraid; your God, and the God of your fathers, has given you treasures in your sacks, and † I have enough of your good money. And he brought Symeon out to them.

24 And he brought water to wash their feet; and gave provender to their asses.

25 And they prepared their gifts, until Joseph came at noon, for they heard that he was going to dine there.

26 And Joseph entered into the house, and they brought him the gifts which they had in their hands, into the house; and they did him reverence with their face to the ground.

27 And he asked them, How are you ^? and he said to them, Is your father, the old man of whom you ^ spoke, well? Does he yet live?

28 And they said, Your servant our father is well; he is yet alive. And he said, Blessed be that man by God; —and they bowed, and did him reverence.

29 And Joseph ‡ lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, born of the same mother; and he said, Is this your younger brother, whom you ^ spoke of bringing to me? and he said, God have mercy on you, my son.

30 And Joseph was troubled, for his bowels yearned over his brother, and he sought to weep; and he went into his chamber, and wept there.

31 And he washed his face and came out, and † 43:23 q.d. I am satisfied with the money you have given me, both as to quality and quantity. ‡ 43:29 Gr. having looked up with, etc.

refrained himself, and said, Set on bread.

³² And they set on bread for him alone, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians feasting with him by themselves, for the Egyptians could not eat bread with the Hebrews, for it is an abomination to the Egyptians.

¹ And Joseph charged the steward of his house, saying, Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put the money of each in the mouth of his sack.

² And put my silver cup into the sack of the youngest, and the price of his corn. And it was done according to the word of Joseph, as he said.

³ The morning dawned, and the men were sent away, they and their asses.

⁴ And when they had gone out of the city, and were not far off, then Joseph said to his steward, Arise, and pursue after the men; and you shall overtake them, and say to them, Why have you ^ returned evil for good?

§ 43:33 Gr. were amazed.  43:34 Gr. was magnified beyond the portions of all five times in comparison of theirs.

⁵ Why have you ^ stolen my silver cup? is it not this * out of which my lord drinks? and he divines augury with it; you ^ have accomplished evil in that which you ^ have done.

⁶ And he found them, and spoke to them according to these words.

⁷ And they said to him, Why does our lord speak according to these words? far be it from your servants to do according to this word.

⁹ With whoever of your servants you shall find the cup, let him die; and, moreover, we will be servants to our lord.

¹⁰ And he said, Now then it shall be as you ^ say; with whoever the cup shall be found, he shall be my servant, and you ^ shall be clear.

¹³ And they tore their garments, and laid each man his sack on his ass, and returned to the city.

¹⁴ And Judas and his brethren came in to Joseph, while he was yet there, and fell on the ground before him.

¹⁵ And Joseph said to them, What is this thing that you ^ have done? know you ^ not that a man such as I can surely divine?

¹⁶ And Judas said, What shall we answer to our lord, or what shall we say, or wherein should we be justified? † whereas God has revealed the unrighteousness of your servants; behold, we are slaves to our lord, both we and he with whom the cup has been found.

¹⁷ And Joseph said, Far be it from me to do this thing; the man with whom the cup has been found, he shall be my servant; but do you[^] go up with safety to your father.

¹⁸ And Judas drew near him, and said, I pray, Sir, let your servant speak a word before you, and be not angry with your servant, for you are next to Pharaoh.

¹⁹ Sir, you asked your servants, saying, Have you[^] a father or a brother?

²⁰ And we said to my lord, We have a father, an old man, and he has a son of his old age, a young one, and his brother is dead, and he alone has been left behind to his mother, and his father loves him.

²¹ And you said to your servants, Bring him down to me, and I will take care of him.

²² And we said to my lord, The child will not be able to leave his father; but if he should leave his father, he will die.

²³ But you said to your servants, Except your younger brother come down with you, you[^] shall not see my face again.

²⁴ And it came to pass, when we went up to your servant our father, we reported to him the words of our lord.

²⁵ And our father said, Go again, and buy us a little food.

²⁶ And we said, We shall not be able to go down; but if our younger brother go down with us, we will go down; for we shall not be able to see the man's face, our younger brother not being with us.

²⁷ And your servant our father said to us, You ^ know that my wife bore me two sons;

²⁸ and one is departed from me; and you ^ said that he was devoured of wild beasts, and I have not seen him until now.

²⁹ If then you ^ take this one also from my presence, and an affliction happen to him by the way, then shall you ^ bring down my old age with sorrow to ‡ the grave.

³² For your servant has received the boy in charge from his father, saying, If I bring him not to you, and place him before you, I shall be guilty towards my father for ever.

³³ Now then I will remain a servant with you instead of the lad, a domestic of my lord; but let the lad go up with his brethren.

‡ 44:29 Gr. Hades. § 44:31 Gr. Hades.

³⁴ For how shall I go up to my father, the lad not being with us? lest I behold the evils which will befall my father.

45

¹ And Joseph could not refrain himself when all were standing by him, but said, Dismiss all from me; and no one stood near Joseph, when he made himself known to his brethren.

² And he uttered his voice with weeping; and all the Egyptians heard, and it was reported to the house of Pharaoh.

³ And Joseph said to his brethren, I am Joseph; does my father yet live? And his brethren could not answer him, for they were troubled.

⁴ And Joseph said to his brethren, Draw near to me; and they drew near; and he said, I am your brother Joseph, whom you ^ sold into Egypt.

⁵ Now then be not grieved, and let it not seem hard to you that you ^ sold me hither, for God sent me before you for life.

⁶ For this second year there is famine on the earth, and there are yet five years remaining, in which there is to be neither plowing, nor mowing.

⁷ For God sent me before you, that there might be left to you a remnant upon the earth, even to nourish a great remnant of you.

⁸ Now then you ^ did not send me hither, but God; and he has made me as a father of Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and ruler of all the land of Egypt.

⁹ Hasten, therefore, and go up to my father, and say to him, These things says your son Joseph; God has made me lord of all the land of Egypt; come down therefore to me, and wait not.

¹⁰ And you shall dwell in the land of Gesem of Arabia; and you shall be near me, you and your sons, and your sons' sons, your sheep and your oxen, and whatever things are your.

¹¹ And I will nourish you there: for the famine is yet for five years; lest you be consumed, and your sons, and all your possessions.

¹² Behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaks to you.

¹³ Report, therefore, to my father all my glory in Egypt, and all things that you ^ have seen, and make haste and bring down my father hither.

¹⁴ And he fell on his brother Benjamin's neck, and wept on him; and Benjamin wept on his neck.

¹⁵ And he kissed all his brethren, and wept on them; and after these things his brethren spoke to him.

¹⁶ And the report was carried into the house of Pharaο, saying, Joseph's brethren are come; and Pharaο was glad, and his household.

¹⁷ And Pharaο said to Joseph, Say to your brethren, Do this; fill your wagons, and depart into the land of Chanaan.

¹⁸ And take up your father, and your possessions, and come to me; and I will give you of all the goods of Egypt, and you ^ shall eat the marrow of the land.

¹⁹ And do you charge them thus; that they should take for them wagons out of the land of Egypt, for your little ones, and for your wives; and take up your father, and come.

²¹ And the children of Israel did so; and Joseph gave to them wagons, according to the words spoken by king Pharaoh; and he gave them provision for the journey.

²² And he gave to them all two sets of raiment apiece; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of gold, and five changes of raiment.

²⁴ And he sent away his brethren, and they went; and he said to them, Be not angry by the way.

²⁵ And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Chanaan, to Jacob their father.

²⁶ And they reported to him, saying, Your son Joseph is living, and he is ruler over all the land of Egypt; and Jacob was * amazed, for he did not believe them.

²⁷ But they spoke to him all the words uttered by Joseph, whatever he said to them; and having seen the chariots which Joseph sent to take him up, the spirit of Jacob their father revived.

²⁸ And Israel said, It is a great thing for me if

* 45:26 Gr. amazed in mind.

Joseph my son is yet alive. I will go and see him before I die.

¹ And Israel departed, he and all that he had, and came to the well of the oath; and he offered sacrifice to the God of his father Isaac.

² And God spoke to Israel in a night vision, saying, Jacob, Jacob; and he said, What is it?

³ And he says to him, I am the God of your fathers; fear not to go down into Egypt, for I will make you there a great nation.

⁴ And I will go down with you into Egypt, and I will bring you up at the end; and Joseph shall put his hands on your eyes.

⁷ The sons, and the sons of his sons with him; his daughters, and the daughters of his daughters; and he brought all his seed into Egypt.

⁹ And the sons of Ruben; Enoch, and Phallus, Asron, and Charmi.

¹⁰ and the sons of Symeon; Jemuel, and Jamin, and Aod, and Achin, and Saar, and Saul, the son of a Chananitish woman.

¹¹ And the sons of Levi; Gerson, Cath, and Merari.

¹² And the sons of Judas; Er, and Aunan, and Selom, and Phares, and Zara: and Er and Aunan died in the land of Chanaan.

¹³ And the sons of Phares were Esron, and Jemuel. And the sons of Issachar; Thola, and Phua, and Asum, and Sambran.

¹⁴ And the sons of Zabulun, Sered, and Allon, and Achoel.

¹⁶ And the sons of Gad; Saphon, and Angis, and Sannis, and Thasoban, and Aedis, and Aroedis, and Areelis.

¹⁷ And the sons of Aser; Jemna, Jessua, and Jeul, and Baria, and Sara their sister. And the sons of Baria; Chobor, and Melchiil.

¹⁸ These are the sons of Zelpha, which Laban gave to his daughter Lea, who bore these to Jacob, sixteen souls.

¹⁹ And the sons of Rachel, the wife of Jacob; Joseph, and Benjamin.

²⁰ And there were sons born to Joseph in the land of Egypt, whom Aseneth, the daughter of Petephres, priest of Heliopolis, bore to him, even Manasses and Ephraim. And there were sons born to Manasses, which the Syrian concubine bore to him, even Machir. And Machir begot Galaad. And the sons of Ephraim, the brother of Manasses; Sutalaam, and Taam. And the sons of Sutalaam; Edom.

²¹ and the sons of Benjamin; Bala, and Bochor, and Asbel. And the sons of Bala were Gera, and Noeman, and Anchis, and Ros, and Mamphim. And Gera begot Arad.

²³ And the sons of Dan; Asom.

²⁴ And the sons of Nephthalim; Asiel, and Goni, and Issaar, and Sollem.

²⁵ These are the sons of Balla, whom Laban gave to his daughter Rachel, who bore these to Jacob; all the souls, seven.

²⁶ And all the souls that came with Jacob into Egypt, who came out of his * loins, besides the wives of the sons of Jacob, even all the souls were sixty-six.

²⁷ And the sons of Joseph, who were born to him in the land of Egypt, were nine souls; all the souls of the house of Jacob who came with Joseph into Egypt, were seventy-five souls.

²⁸ And he sent Judas before him to Joseph, to meet him to the city of † Heroes, into the land of Ramesses.

²⁹ And Joseph having ‡ made ready his chariots, went up to meet Israel his father, at the city of Heroes; and having appeared to him, fell on his neck, and wept with § abundant weeping.

³⁰ And Israel said to Joseph, After this I will gladly die, since I have seen your face, for you are yet living.

³¹ And Joseph said to his brethren, I will go up and tell Pharaoh, and will say to him, My brethren, and my father's house, who were in the land of Chanaan, are come to me.

³² And the men are shepherds; for they have been feeders of cattle, and they have brought with them their cattle, and their kine, and all their property.

³³ If then Pharaoh call you, and say to you, What is your occupation?

³⁴ You ^ shall say, We your servants are herdsmen from our youth until now, both we and our fathers: that you ^ may dwell in the land of Gesem of Arabia, for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians.

² And he took of his brethren five men, and set them before Pharaoh.

³ And Pharaoh said to the brethren of Joseph, What is your occupation? and they said to Pharaoh, Your servants are shepherds, both we and our father.

⁴ And they said to Pharaoh, We are come to sojourn in the land, for there is no pasture for the flocks of your servants, for the famine has prevailed in the land of Chanaan; now then, * we will dwell in the land of Gesem. And Pharaο said to Joseph, Let them dwell in the land of Gesem; and if you know that there are among them able men, make them overseers of my cattle. So Jacob and his sons came into Egypt, to Joseph; and Pharaο, king of Egypt, heard of it.

⁵ And Pharaο spoke to Joseph, saying, Your father, and your brethren, are come to you.

⁶ Behold, the land of Egypt is before you; settle your father and your brethren in the best land.

⁷ And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaο; and Jacob blessed Pharaο.

⁸ And Pharaο said to Jacob, How many are the years of the days of your life?

⁹ And Jacob said to Pharaο, The days of the years of my life, wherein I sojourn, are one hundred and thirty years; few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, they have not attained to the days of the life of my fathers, in which days they sojourned.

¹⁰ And Jacob blessed Pharaο, and departed from him.

¹¹ And Joseph settled his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best land, in the land of Ramesses, as Pharaο commanded.

¹² And Joseph gave provision to his father, and his brethren, and to all the house of his father, corn for each person.

¹³ And there was no corn in all the land, for the famine prevailed greatly; and the land of Egypt, and the land of Chanaan, fainted for the famine.

* 47:4 Or, let us dwell. See 1 Tim 6:8.

¹⁴ And Joseph gathered all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and the land of Chanaan, in return for the corn which they bought, and he distributed corn to them; and Joseph brought all the money into the house of Pharaο.

¹⁵ And all the money failed out of the land of Egypt, and out of the land of Chanaan; and all the Egyptians came to Joseph, saying, Give us bread, and why do we die in your presence? for our money is spent.

¹⁶ And Joseph said to them, Bring your cattle, and I will give you bread for your cattle, if your money is spent.

¹⁷ And they brought their cattle to Joseph; and Joseph gave them bread in return for their horses, and for their sheep, and for their oxen, and for their asses; and Joseph maintained them with bread for all their cattle in that year.

¹⁸ And that year passed, and they came to him in the second year, and said to him, Must we then be consumed from before our lord? for if our money has failed, and our possessions, and our cattle, brought to you our lord, and there has not been left to us before our lord more than our own bodies and our land, we are indeed destitute.

¹⁹ In order, then, that we die not before you, and the land be made desolate, buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants to Pharaο: give seed that we may sow, and live and not die, so our land shall not be made desolate.

²¹ And he brought the people into bondage to him, for servants, from one extremity of Egypt to the other,

²² except only the land of the priests; Joseph bought not this, for Pharaoh gave a portion in the way of gift to the priests; and they ate their portion which Pharaoh gave them; therefore they sold not their land.

²³ And Joseph said to all the Egyptians, Behold, I have bought you and your land this day for Pharaoh; take seed for you, and sow the land.

²⁴ And there shall be the fruits of it; and you shall give the fifth part to Pharaoh, and the four remaining parts shall be for yourselves, for seed for the earth, and for food for you, and all that are in your houses.

²⁵ And they said, You have saved us; we have found favor before our lord, and we will be servants to Pharaoh.

²⁷ And Israel lived in Egypt, in the land of Gesem, and they gained an inheritance upon it; and they increased and multiplied very greatly.

²⁸ And Jacob survived seventeen years in the land of Egypt; and Jacob's days of the years of his life were one hundred and forty-seven years.

²⁹ and the days of Israel drew near for him to die: and he called his son Joseph, and said to him, If I have found favor before you, put your hand under my thigh, and you shall execute mercy and truth toward me, so as not to bury me in Egypt.

³⁰ But I will sleep with my fathers, and you shall carry me up out of Egypt, and bury me in their sepulchre. And he said, I will do according to your word.

³¹ And he said, Swear to me; and he swore to him. And Israel did reverence, leaning on the top of his staff.

¹ And it came to pass after these things, that it was reported to Joseph, Behold, your father is ill; and, having taken his two sons, Manasse and Ephraim, he came to Jacob.

² And it was reported to Jacob, saying, Behold, your son Joseph comes to you; and Israel having strengthened himself, sat upon the bed.

³ And Jacob said to Joseph, My God appeared to me in Luza, in the land of Chanaan, and blessed me,

⁴ and said to me, Behold, I will increase you, and multiply you, and will make of you multitudes of nations; and I will give this land to you, and to your seed after you, for an everlasting possession.

⁵ Now then your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt, before I came to you into Egypt, are mine; Ephraim and Manasse, as Ruben and Symeon they shall be mine.

⁷ And as for me, when I came out of Mesopotamia of Syria, Rachel, your mother, died in the land of Chanaan, as I drew near to the horse-course of Chabratha of the land of Chanaan, so as to come to Ephratha; and I buried her in the road of the course; this is Bethlehem.

⁸ And when Israel saw the sons of Joseph, he said, Who are these to you?

⁹ And Joseph said to his father, They are my sons, whom God gave me here; and Jacob said, Bring me them, that I may bless them.

¹⁰ Now the eyes of Israel were dim through age, and he could not see; and he brought them near to him, and he kissed them, and embraced them.

¹¹ And Israel said to Joseph, Behold, I have not been deprived of seeing your face, and behold! God has showed me your seed also.

¹⁵ And he blessed them and said, The God in whose sight my fathers were well pleasing, even

Abraam and Isaac, the God who continues to feed me from my youth until this day;

¹⁶ the angel who delivers me from all evils, bless these boys, and my name shall be called upon them, and the name of my fathers, Abraam and Isaac; and let them be increased to a great multitude on the earth.

¹⁹ And he would not, but said, I know it, son, I know it; he also shall be a people, and he shall be exalted, but his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations.

²⁰ And he blessed them in that day, saying, In you shall Israel be blessed, saying, God make you as Ephraim and Manasse; and he set Ephraim before Manasse.

²¹ And Israel said to Joseph, Behold, I die; and God shall be with you, and restore you to the land of your fathers.

²² And I give to you Sicima, a select portion above your brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Amorites with my sword and bow.

¹ And Jacob called his sons, and said to them,

² Assemble yourselves, that I may tell you what shall happen to you in the last days. Gather yourselves together, and hear me, sons of Jacob; hear Israel, hear your father.

³ Ruben, you * are my firstborn, you my strength, and the first of my children, hard to be endured, hard and self-willed.

⁴ You were insolent like water, burst not forth with violence, for you went up to the bed of your father; then you defiled the couch, whereupon you went up.

⁵ Symeon and Levi, brethren, accomplished the injustice of their cutting off.

⁷ Cursed be their wrath, for it was willful, and their anger, for it was † cruel: I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel.

⁸ Juda, your brethren have praised you, and your hands shall be on the back of your enemies; your father's sons shall do you reverence.

¹⁸ waiting for the salvation of the Lord.

²¹ Nephthalim is a spreading stem, bestowing beauty on its fruit.

²³ Against whom men taking evil counsel reproached him, and the archers pressed hard upon him.

²⁴ But their bow and arrows were mightily consumed, and the sinews of their arms were slackened by the hand of the mighty one of Jacob; thence is he that strengthened Israel from the God of your father;

²⁵ and my God helped you, and he blessed you with the blessing of heaven from above, and the blessing of the earth possessing all things, because of the blessing of the breasts and of the womb,

²⁶ the blessings of your father and your mother—it has prevailed above the blessing of the lasting mountains, and beyond the blessings of the everlasting hills; they shall be upon the head of Joseph, and upon the head of the brothers of whom he took the lead.

²⁷ Benjamin, as a ravening wolf, shall eat still in the morning, and at evening he gives food.

²⁸ All these are the twelve sons of Jacob; and their father spoke these words to them, and he blessed them; he blessed each of them according to his blessing.

²⁹ And he said to them, I am added to my people; you^ shall bury me with my fathers in the cave, which is in the field of Ephron the Chettite, ³⁰ in the double cave which is opposite Mam-bre, in the land of Chanaan, the cave which Abraam bought of Ephron the Chettite, for a possession of a sepulchre.

³¹ There they buried Abraam and Sarrha his wife; there they buried Isaac, and Rebecca his wife; there they buried Lea;

³² in the portion of the field, and of the cave that was in it, purchased of the sons of Chet.

¹ And Joseph fell upon his father's face, and wept on him, and kissed him.

² And Joseph commanded his servants the embalmers to embalm his father; and the embalmers embalmed Israel.

³ And they fulfilled forty days for him, for so are the days of embalming numbered; and Egypt mourned for him seventy days.

⁴ And when the days of mourning were past, Joseph spoke to the princes of Pharaoh, saying, If I have found favor in your sight, speak concerning me in the ears of Pharaoh, saying,

⁵ My father adjured me, saying, In the sepulchre which I dug for myself in the land of Chanaan, there you shall bury me; now then I will go up and bury my father, and return again.

⁶ And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Go up, bury your father, as he constrained you to swear.

⁷ So Joseph went up to bury his father; and all the servants of Pharaoh went up with him, and the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt.

⁹ And there went up with him also chariots and horsemen; and there was a very great company.

¹¹ And the inhabitants of the land of Chanaan saw the mourning at the floor of Atad, and said, This is a great mourning to the Egyptians; therefore he called its name, The mourning of Egypt, which is beyond Jordan.

¹² And thus his sons did to him.

¹⁴ And Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brethren, and those that had gone up with him to bury his father.

¹⁵ And when the brethren of Joseph saw that their father was dead, they said, Let us take heed, lest at any time Joseph remember evil against us, and recompense to us all the evils which we have done against him.

¹⁶ And they came to Joseph, and said, Your father adjured us before his death, saying,

¹⁷ Thus say you ^ to Joseph, Forgive them their injustice and their sin, forasmuch as they have done you evil; and now * pardon the injustice of the servants of the God of your father. And Joseph wept while they spoke to him.

* 50:17 Gr. accept.

¹⁸ And they came to him and said, We, these persons, are your servants.

¹⁹ And Joseph said to them, Fear not, for I am God's.

²⁰ You ^ took counsel against me for evil, but God took counsel for me for good, that the matter might be as it is today, and much people might be fed.

²¹ And he said to them, Fear not, I will maintain you, and your families: and he comforted them, and spoke kindly to them.

²² And Joseph lived in Egypt, he and his brethren, and all the family of his father; and Joseph lived one hundred and ten years.

²³ And Joseph saw the children of Ephraim to the third generation; and the sons of Machir the son of Manasse were borne on the † sides of Joseph.

²⁴ And Joseph spoke to his brethren, saying, I die, and God will surely visit you, and will bring you out of this land to the land concerning which God swore to our fathers, Abraam, Isaac, and Jacob.

LXX2012: Septuagint in English 2012

This is a translation of the Old Testament and Apocrypha/Deuterocanon from Hebrew to Greek to 19th Century British English, with some updates of spelling and word usage to contemporary American English. The original English translation was done by Sir Lancelot Charles Lee Brenton and published by Samuel Bagster & Sons, Ltd., in London in 1851. It has entered the Public Domain due to the passage of sufficient time. In the process of scanning and typing the text, the original poetry and prose formatting, as well as peripheral material like introductions and notes, have been omitted.

This edition of the Septuagint has some language updates. Brenton's word order and punctuation has been mostly retained, meaning that quotation marks are not used, and sentences within quotes may not start with capital letters, as was standard usage in 1851. Names transliterated from Greek to those transliterated from Hebrew in the common English Bibles often differ. These language updates are dedicated to the Public Domain by the author of those edits, Michael Paul Johnson. Therefore this edition may be freely copied, published, etc.
