

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS.

¹ Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the knowledge of the truth which is according to godliness,

² in hope of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, promised before times eternal;

³ but in his own seasons manifested his word in the message, wherewith I was intrusted according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

⁴ to Titus, my true child after a common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Saviour.

⁵ For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that were wanting, and appoint elders in every city, as I gave thee charge;

⁶ if any man is blameless, the husband of one wife, having children that believe, who are not accused of riot or unruly.

⁷ For the bishop must be blameless, as God's steward; not selfwilled, not soon angry, no brawler, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre;

⁸ but given to hospitality, a lover of good, sober-minded, just, holy, temperate;

⁹ holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able both to exhort in the sound doctrine, and to convict the gainsayers.

¹⁰ For there are many unruly men, vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision,

¹¹ whose mouths must be stopped; men who overthrow whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

¹² One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said, Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, idle gluttons.

¹³ This testimony is true. For which cause reprove them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith,

¹⁴ not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men who turn away from the truth.

¹⁵ To the pure all things are pure: but to them that are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure; but both their mind and their conscience are defiled.

¹⁶ They profess that they know God; but by their works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

¹ But speak thou the things which befit the sound doctrine:

² that aged men be temperate, grave, sober-minded, sound in faith, in love, in patience:

³ that aged women likewise be reverent in demeanour, not slanderers nor enslaved to much wine, teachers of that which is good;

⁴ that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children,

⁵ to be soberminded, chaste, workers at home, kind, being in subjection to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed:

⁶ the younger men likewise exhort to be sober-minded:

⁷ in all things shewing thyself an ensample of good works; in thy doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity,

⁸ sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of us.

⁹ Exhort servants to be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing to them in all things; not gainsaying;

¹⁰ not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

¹¹ For the grace of God hath appeared, bringing salvation to all men,

¹² instructing us, to the intent that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly and righteously and godly in this present world;

¹³ looking for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ;

¹⁴ who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a people for his own possession, zealous of good works.

¹⁵ These things speak and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

¹ Put them in mind to be in subjection to rulers, to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready unto

every good work,

² to speak evil of no man, not to be contentious, to be gentle, shewing all meekness toward all men.

³ For we also were aforetime foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, hating one another.

⁴ But when the kindness of God our Saviour, and his love toward man, appeared,

⁵ not by works done in righteousness, which we did ourselves, but according to his mercy he saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost,

⁶ which he poured out upon us richly, through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

⁷ that, being justified by his grace, we might be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

⁸ Faithful is the saying, and concerning these things I will that thou affirm confidently, to the end that they which have believed God may be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men:

⁹ but shun foolish questionings, and genealogies, and strifes, and fightings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

¹⁰ A man that is heretical after a first and second admonition refuse;

¹¹ knowing that such a one is perverted, and sinneth, being self-condemned.

¹² When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or Ty-chicus, give diligence to come unto me to Nicopolis: for there I have determined to winter.

¹³ Set forward Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

¹⁴ And let our people also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful.

¹⁵ All that are with me salute thee. Salute them that love us in faith. Grace be with you all.
