

KINGS I (1 Samuel)

¹ There was a man of Armathaim Sipha, of mount Ephraim, and his name was Helkana, a son of Jeremeel the son of Elias the son of Thoke, in Nasib Ephraim.

² And he had two wives; the name of the one was Anna, and the name of the second Phennana. And Phennana had children, but Anna had no child.

⁴ And the day came, and Helkana sacrificed, and gave portions to his wife Phennana and her children.

⁶ For the Lord gave her no child in her affliction, and according to the despondency of her affliction; and she was dispirited on this account, that the Lord shut up her womb so as not to give her a child.

* 1:3 Gr. from days to days. † 1:5 Gr. one portion.

⁷ So she did year by year, in going up to the house of the Lord; and she was dispirited, and wept, and did not eat.

⁸ And Helkana her husband said to her, Anna: and she said to him, Here am I, my lord: and he said to her, What ails you that you weep? and why do you not eat? and why does your heart strike you? am I not better to you than ten children?

¹⁰ And she was very much grieved in spirit, and prayed to the Lord, and wept abundantly.

¹¹ And she vowed a vow to the Lord, saying, O Lord God of Sabaoth, if you wilst indeed look upon the humiliation of your handmaid, and remember me, and give to your handmaid a § boy, then will I indeed dedicate him to you till the day of his death; and he shall drink no wine nor strong drink, and no  razor shall come upon his head.

¹² And it came to pass, while she was long praying before the Lord, that Heli the priest marked her mouth.

¹³ And she was speaking in her heart, and her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: and Heli accounted her a drunken woman.

¹⁴ And the servant of Heli said to her, How long will you be drunken? take away your wine from you, and go out from the presence of the Lord.

† 1:9 Gr: lintels. § 1:11 Gr: seed of men.  1:11 Gr: iron.

15 And Anna answered and said, Nay, my lord, I live †† in a hard day, and I have not drunk wine or strong drink, and I pour out my soul before the Lord.

16 ‡‡ Count not your handmaid for a pestilent woman, for by reason of the abundance of my importunity I have continued my prayer until now.

17 And Heli answered and said to her, Go in peace: the God of Israel give you all your petition, which you have asked of him.

18 And she said, Your handmaid has found favour in your eyes: and the woman went her way, and entered into her lodging, and ate and drank with her husband, and her countenance was no more sad.

19 And they rise early in the morning, and worship the Lord, and they go their way: and Helkana went into his house at Armathaim, and knew his wife Anna; and the Lord remembered her, and she conceived.

20 And it came to pass §§ when the time was come, that she brought forth a son, and called his name Samuel, and said, Because I asked him of the Lord God of Sabaoth.

21 And the man Helkana and all his house went up to offer in Selom the yearly sacrifice, and his vows, and all the tithes of his land.

22 But Anna did not go up with him, for she said to her husband, I will not go up until the child goes up, when I have weaned him, and he shall be presented before the Lord, and he shall abide there continually.

²³ And Helkana her husband said to her, Do that which is good in your eyes, abide still until you shall have weaned him; but may the Lord establish that which comes out of your mouth: and the woman tarried, and suckled her son until she had weaned him.

²⁴ And she went up with him to Selom with a calf  of three years old, and loaves, and an ephah of fine flour, and a bottle of wine: and she entered into the house of the Lord in Selom, and the child with them.

²⁵ And they brought him before the Lord; and his father killed his offering which he offered from year to year to the Lord; and he brought near the child, and killed the calf; and Anna the mother of the child brought him to Heli.

²⁶ And she said, I pray you, my lord, as your soul lives, I am the woman that stood in your presence with you while praying to the Lord.

²⁷ For this child I prayed; and the Lord has given me my request that I asked of him.

²⁸ And I lend him to the Lord all his days that he lives, a loan to the Lord: and she said,

¹ My heart is established in the Lord, my horn is exalted in my God; my mouth is enlarged over my enemies, I have rejoiced in your salvation.

² For there is none holy as the Lord, and there is none righteous as our God; there is none holy besides you.

 1:24 Or, in its third year.

⁴ The bow of the mighty has waxed feeble, and the weak have girded themselves with strength.

⁶ The Lord kills and makes alive; he brings down to the grave, and brings up.

⁷ The Lord makes poor, and makes rich; he brings low, and lifts up.

⁹ granting his petition to him that prays; and he blesses the years of the righteous, for by strength can't man prevail.

¹⁰ The Lord will weaken his adversary; the Lord is holy. Let not the wise man boast in his wisdom, nor let the mighty man boast in his strength, and let not the rich man boast in his wealth; but let him that boasts boast in this, to understand and know the Lord, * and to execute judgement and justice in the midst of the earth. The Lord has gone up to the heavens, and has thundered: he will judge the extremities of the earth, and he gives strength to our kings, and will exalt the horn

* 2:10 Perhaps 'and the Lord executes,' etc. Comp. Jer. 9:24 of his Christ. And she left him there before the Lord, ¹¹ and departed to Armathaim: and the child ministered in the presence of the Lord before Heli the priest.

¹² And the sons of Heli the priest were evil sons, not knowing the Lord.

¹⁵ And before the fat was burnt for a sweet savour, the servant of the priest would come, and say to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest, and I will by no means take of you sodden flesh out of the cauldron.

¹⁶ And if the man that sacrificed said, First let the fat be burnt, as it is fit, and take for yourself of all things which your soul desires: then he would say, Nay, for you shall give it me now; and if not I will take it by force.

¹⁷ So the sin of the young men was very great before the Lord, for they set at nothing the offering of the Lord.

¹⁸ And Samuel ministered before the Lord, a child girded with a linen ephod.

¹⁹ And his mother made him a little doublet, and brought it to him from † year to year, in her going up in company with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

²⁰ And Heli blessed Helcana and his wife, saying The Lord recompense to you seed of this woman, in return for the loan which you have lent to the Lord: and the man returned to his place.

²¹ And the Lord visited Anna, and she bore yet three sons, and two daughters. And the child Samuel grew before the Lord.

²² And Heli was very old, and he heard what his sons did to the children of Israel.

²³ And he said to them, Why do you [^] according to this thing, which I hear from the mouth of all the people of the Lord?

²⁴ Nay my sons, for the report which I hear is not good; do not so, for ‡ the reports which I hear are not good, so that the people do not serve God.

²⁵ If a man should at all sin against another, then shall they pray for him to the Lord; but if a man sin against the Lord, who shall entreat for him? But they listened not to the voice of their father, because the Lord would by all means destroy them.

²⁶ And the child Samuel advanced, and § was in favour with God and with men.

²⁷ And a man of God came to Heli, and said, Thus says the Lord, I plainly revealed myself to the house of your father, when they were servants in Egypt to the house of Pharaoh.

† 2:19 Lit. days to days. ‡ 2:24 Or; the reports which I hear of the people not serving, etc. Comp. 1 Ch. 13. 4 § 2:26 Gr. was good.

28 And I chose the house of your father out of all the tribes of Israel to minister to me in the priest's office, to go up to my altar, and to burn incense, and to wear an ephod. And I gave to the house of your father all the offerings by fire of the children of Israel for food.

29 And therefore have you looked upon my incense-offering and my meat-offering with a shameless eye, and have honoured your sons above me, so that they should bless themselves with the first fruits of every sacrifice of Israel before me?

30 Therefore thus says the Lord God of Israel, I said, Your house and the house of your father shall pass before me for ever: but now the Lord says, That be far from me; for I will only honour them that honour me, and he that sets me at nothing shall be despised.

31 Behold, the days come when I will destroy your seed and the seed of your father's house.

32 And you shall not have an old man in my house for ever.

33 And if I do not destroy a man of your from my altar, it shall be that his eyes may fail and his soul may perish; and every one that remains in your house shall fall by the sword of men.

34 And this which shall come upon your two sons Ophni and Phinees shall be a sign to you; in one day they shall both die.

35 And I will raise up to myself a faithful priest, who shall do all that is in my heart and in my soul; and I will build him a sure house, and he shall walk before my Christ for ever.

³⁶ And it shall come to pass that he that survives in your house, shall come to do obeisance before him for a little piece of silver,  saying, †† Put me into one of your priest's offices to eat bread.

² And it came to pass at that time that Heli was sleeping in his place; and his eyes began to fail, and could not see.

³ And the lamp of God was burning before it was trimmed, and Samuel slept in the temple, where was the ark of God.

⁴ And the Lord called, Samuel, Samuel; and he said, Behold, here am I.

⁵ And he ran to Heli, and said, Here am I, for you did call me: and he said, I did not call you; return, go to sleep; and he returned and went to sleep.

⁶ And the Lord † called again, Samuel, Samuel: and he went to Heli the second time, and said, Behold here am I, for you did call me: and he said, I called you not; return, go to sleep.

⁷ And it was before Samuel knew the Lord, and before the word of the Lord was revealed to him.

⁸ And the Lord called Samuel again for the third time: and he arose and went to Heli, and said, Behold, I am here, for you did call me: and Heli perceived that the Lord had called the child.

 2:36 Alex.+ 'and for a piece of bread.' †† 2:36 Gr. cast.

* 3:1 Lit. distinguishing. † 3:6 Gr. added and called.

⁹ And he said, Return, child, go to sleep; and it shall come to pass if he shall call you, that you shall say, Speak for your servant hears: and Samuel went and lay down in his place.

¹⁰ And the Lord came, and stood, and called him as † before: and Samuel said, Speak, for your servant hears.

¹² In that day I will raise up against Heli all things that I have said against his house; I will begin, and I will make an end.

¹³ And I have told him that I will be avenged on his house perpetually for the iniquities of his sons, because his sons spoke evil against God, and he did not admonish them.

¹⁶ And Heli said to Samuel, Samuel, my son; and he said, Behold, here am I.

¹⁷ And he said, What was the word that was spoken to you? I pray you hide it not from me: may God do these things to you, and  more also, if you hide from me any thing of all the words that were spoken to you in your ears.

† 3:10 Gr. once and once.

 3:17 Gr. add these things.

¹⁸ And Samuel reported all the words, and hid them not from him. And Heli said, He is the Lord, he shall do that which is good in his sight.

¹⁹ And Samuel grew, and the Lord was with him, and there did not fall one of his words to the ground.

²⁰ And all Israel knew from Dan even to Bersabee, that Samuel was faithful as a prophet to the Lord.

²¹ And the Lord manifested himself again in Selom, for the Lord revealed himself to Samuel; and Samuel was accredited to all Israel as a prophet to the Lord from one end of the land to the other: and Heli was very old, and his sons kept advancing in wickedness, and their way was evil before the Lord.

² And the Philistines prepare to fight with Israel, and † the battle was turned against them; and the men of Israel fell before the Philistines, and there were struck in the battle in the field four thousand men.

³ And the people came to the camp, and the elders of Israel said, Why has the Lord caused us to fall this day before the Philistines? let us take the ark of our God out of Selom, and let it proceed from the midst of us, and it shall save us from the hand of our enemies.

⁴ And the people sent to Selom, and they take thence the ark of the Lord who dwells between the cherubs: and both the sons of Heli, Ophni and Phinees, were with the ark.

⁵ And it came to pass when the ark of the Lord entered into the camp, that all Israel cried out with a loud voice, and the earth resounded.

⁶ And the Philistines heard the cry, and the Philistines said, What is this great cry in the camp of the Hebrews: and they understood that the ark of the Lord was come into the camp.

⁷ And the Philistines feared, and said, These are the Gods that are come to them into the camp.

⁹ Strengthen yourselves and behave yourselves like men, O you[^] Philistines, that you[^] may not serve the Hebrews as they have served us, but be you[^] men and fight with them.

¹⁰ And they fought with them; and ‡ the men of Israel fall, and they fled every man to his tent; and there was a very great slaughter; and there fell of Israel thirty thousand § fighting men.

¹¹ And the ark of God was taken, and both the sons of Heli, Ophni, and Phinees, died.

¹² And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the battle, and he came to Selom on that day: and his clothes were torn, and earth was upon his head.

‡ 4:10 Gr: the man. § 4:10 Gr: ranks.

¹³ And he came, an behold, Heli was upon the seat by the gate looking along the way, for his heart was greatly alarmed for the ark of God: and the man entered into the city to bring tidings; and the city cried out.

¹⁴ And Heli heard the sound of the cry, and said, What is the voice of this cry? and the men hasted and went in, and reported to Heli.

¹⁵ Now Heli was  ninety years old, and his eyes †† were fixed, and he saw not.

¹⁶ And Heli said to them that stood round about him, What is the voice of this sound? And the man hasted and advanced to Heli, and said to him, I am he that is come out of the camp, and I have fled from the battle today: and Heli said, What is the even, my son?

¹⁷ And they young man answered and said, The men of Israel fled from the face of the Philistines, and there was a great slaughter amongst the people, and both your sons are dead, and the ark of God is taken.

¹⁸ And it came to pass, when he mentioned the ark of God, that he fell from the seat backward near the gate, and his back was broken, and he died, for he was an old man and heavy: and he judged Israel twenty years.

¹⁹ And his daughter-in-law the wife of Phinees was with child, about to bring forth; and she heard the tidings, that the ark of God was taken, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead; and she wept and was delivered, for her pains came upon her.

²⁰ And in her time she was at the point of death; and the women that stood by her, said to her, Fear not, for you have born a son: but she answered not, and her heart did not regard it.

²² And they said, The glory of Israel is departed, forasmuch as the ark of the Lord is taken.

¹ And the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it from Abenezzer to Azotus.

² And the Philistines took the ark of the Lord, and brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon.

³ And the people of Azotus rose early, and entered into the house of Dagon; and looked, and behold, Dagon had fallen on his face before the ark of the Lord: and they lifted up Dagon, and set him in his place. And the hand of the Lord was heavy upon the Azotians, and he plagued them, and he struck them in their secret parts, Azotus and her coasts.

⁶ And the hand of the Lord was heavy upon Azotus, and he brought evil upon them, and it burst out upon them into the ships, and mice sprang up in the midst of their country, and there was a * great and indiscriminate mortality in the city.

⁷ And the men of Azotus saw that it was so, and they said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us, for his hand is † heavy upon us and upon Dagon our god.

⁸ And they send and gather the lords of the Philistines to them, and say, What shall we do to the ark of the God of Israel? and the Gittites say, Let the ark of God come over to us; and the ark of the God of Israel came to Geth.

¹⁰ And they send away the ark of God to Ascalon; and it came to pass when the ark of God went into Ascalon, that the men of Ascalon cried out, saying, Why have you^ brought back the ark of the God of Israel to us, to kill us and our people?

¹¹ And they send and gather the lords of the

* 5:6 Gr. great confusion of death. † 5:7 Gr. hard.

Philistines, and they said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it lodge in its place; and let it not kill us and our people.

¹ And the ark was seven months in the country of the Philistines, and their land brought forth swarms of mice.

² And the Philistines call their priests, and their prophets, and their enchanter, saying, What shall we do to the ark of the Lord? teach us wherewith we shall send it away to its place.

³ And they said, If you[^] send away the ark of the covenant of the Lord God of Israel, do not on any account send it away empty, but by all means render to it an offering for the plague; and then shall you[^] be healed, and an atonement shall be made for you: should not his hand be thus stayed from off you?

⁴ And they say, What is the offering for the plague which we shall return to it? and they said,

⁵ According to the number of the lords of the Philistines, five golden tumours, for the plague was on you, and on your rulers, and on the people; and golden mice, the likeness of the mice that destroy your land: and you[^] shall give glory to the Lord, that he may lighten his hand from off

you, and from off your gods, and from off your land.

⁶ And you[^] * harden your hearts, as Egypt and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? was it not so when he mocked them, that they let † the people go, and they departed?

⁷ And now take wood and make a new wagon, and take two cows, that have calved for the first time, without their calves; and do you[^] yoke the cows to the wagon, and lead away the calves from behind them home.

⁸ And you[^] shall take the ark and put it on the wagon; and you[^] shall restore to it the golden articles for the trespass-offering in a ‡ coffer by the side of it: and you[^] shall let it go, and sent it away, and you[^] shall depart.

⁹ And you[^] shall see, if it shall go the way of its coasts along by Baethsamys, he has brought upon us this great affliction; and if not, then shall we know that his hand has not touched us, but this is a chance which has happened to us.

¹⁰ And the Philistines did so; and they took two cows that had calved for the first time, and yoked them to the wagon, and shut up their calves at home.

¹¹ And they set the ark of the Lord, and the coffer, and the golden mice, on the wagon.

¹² And the cows went straight on the way to the way of Baethsamys, they went along one track; and laboured, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left, and the lords of the Philistines went after it as far as the coasts of Baethsamys.

* 6:6 Gr. make heavy. † 6:6 Gr. them. ‡ 6:8 in the Alex. ἀργός is substituted for βεροεχθάν.

¹³ And the men of Baethsamys were reaping the wheat harvest in the valley; and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the ark of the Lord, and rejoiced to meet it.

¹⁴ And the wagon entered into the field of Osee, which was in Baethsamys, and they set there by it a great stone; and they split the wood of the wagon, and offered up the cows for a whole burnt offering to the Lord.

¹⁵ And the Levites brought up the ark of the Lord, and the coffer with it, and the golden articles upon it, and placed them on the great stone, and the men of Baethsamys offered whole burnt offerings and meat offerings on that day to the Lord.

¹⁶ And the five lords of the Philistines saw, and returned to Ascalon in that day.

¹⁸ And the golden mice according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines, belonging to the five lords, from the fenced city to the village of the Pherezite, and to the great stone, on which they placed the ark of the covenant of the Lord, that was in the field of Osee the Baethsamysite.

¹⁹ And the sons of Jechonias were not pleased with the men of Baethsamys, because they saw the ark of the Lord; and the Lord struck amongst them seventy men, and fifty thousand men: and the people mourned, because the Lord had inflicted on the people, a very great plague.

²⁰ And the men of Baethsamys said, Who shall be able to pass before this holy Lord God? and to whom shall the ark of the Lord go up from us?

²¹ And they send messengers to the inhabitants of Cariathiarim, saying, The Philistines have brought back the ark of the Lord, go down and take it home to yourselves.

¹ And the men of Cariathiarim come, and bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord: and they bring it into the house of Aminadab in the hill; and they sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the covenant of the Lord.

² And it came to pass from the time that the ark was in Cariathiarim, the days were multiplied, and the time was twenty years; and all the house of Israel looked after the Lord.

³ And Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel, saying, If you [^]do with all your heart return to the Lord, take away the strange gods from the midst of you, and the groves, and prepare your hearts to serve the Lord, and serve him only; and he shall deliver you from the hand of the Philistines.

⁴ And the children of Israel took away Baalim and the groves of Astaroth, and served the Lord only.

⁵ And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Massephath, and I will pray for you to the Lord.

⁶ And they were gathered together to Massephath, and they drew water, and poured it out upon the earth before the Lord. And they fasted on that day, and said, We have sinned before the Lord. And Samuel judged the children of Israel in Massephath.

⁷ And the Philistines heard that all the children of Israel were gathered together to Massephath: and the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel: and the children of Israel heard, and they feared before the Philistines.

⁸ And the children of Israel said to Samuel, Cease not to cry to the Lord your God for us, and he shall save us out of the hand of the Philistines.

⁹ And Samuel took a sucking lamb, and offered it up as a whole burnt offering with all the people to the Lord: and Samuel cried to the Lord for Israel, and the Lord heard him.

¹⁰ And Samuel was offering the whole burnt offering; and the Philistines drew near to war against Israel; and the Lord thundered with a mighty sound in that day upon the Philistines, and they were confounded and overthrown before Israel.

¹¹ And the men of Israel went forth out of Massephath, and pursued the Philistines, and struck them to the parts under Baethchor.

¹² And Samuel took a stone, and set it up between Massephath and the old city; and he called the name of it Abenezzer, stone of the helper; and he said, Hitherto has the Lord helped us.

¹³ So the Lord humbled the Philistines, and they did not anymore come into the border of Israel; and the hand of the Lord was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

¹⁴ And the cities which the Philistines took from the children of Israel were restored; and they restored them to Israel from * Ascalon to Azob; and they took the coast of Israel out of the hand of the Philistines; and there was peace between Israel and the Amorite.

¹⁵ And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.

¹⁶ And he went year by year, and went round Baethel, and Galgala, and Massephath; and he judged Israel in all these consecrated places.

¹⁷ And his return was to Armathaim, because there was his house; and there he judged Israel, and built there an altar to the Lord.

¹ And it came to pass when Samuel was old, that he made his sons judges over Israel.

² And these are the names of his sons; Joel the firstborn, and the name of the second Abia, judges in Bersabee.

³ And his sons did not walk in his way; and they turned aside after gain, and took gifts, and perverted judgements.

⁴ And the men of Israel gather themselves together, and come to Armathaim to Samuel,

⁶ And the thing was evil in the eyes of Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us: and Samuel prayed to the Lord.

⁷ And the Lord said to Samuel, Hear the voice of the people, in whatever they shall say to you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me from reigning over them.

⁸ According to all their doings which they have done to me, from the day that I brought them out of Egypt until this day, even as they have deserted me, and served other gods, so they do also to you.

⁹ And now listen to their voice; only you shall solemnly testify to them, and you shall * describe to them the † manner of the king who shall reign over them.

¹⁰ And Samuel spoke every word of the Lord to the people who asked of him a king.

¹¹ And he said, This shall be the ‡ manner of the king that shall rule over you: he shall take your sons, and put them in his chariots, and amongst his horsemen, and running before his chariots, ¹² and his manner shall be to make them to himself captains of hundreds and captains of thousands; and to reap his harvest, and gather his vintage, and prepare his instruments of war, and the implements of his chariots.

¹³ And he will take your daughters to be perfumers, and cooks, and bakers.

and will take the tenth of them for his works.

¹⁷ And he will tithe your flocks; and you[^] shall be his servants.

¹⁸ And you[^] shall cry out in that day because of your king whom you[^] have chosen to yourselves, and the Lord shall not hear you in those days, because you[^] have chosen to yourselves a king.

¹⁹ But the people would not listen to Samuel; and they said to him, Nay, but there shall be a king over us.

²⁰ An we also will be like all the nations; and our king shall judge us, and shall go out before us, and fight our § battles.

²¹ And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and spoke them in the ears of the Lord.

²² And the Lord said to Samuel, Listen to their voice, and appoint them a king. And Samuel said to the men of Israel, Let each man depart to his city.

¹ And there was a man of the sons of Benjamin, and his name was Kis, the son of Abiel, the son of Jared, the son of Bachir, the son of Aphec, the son of a Benjamite, a man of might.

² And this man had a son, and his name was Saul, of great stature, a goodly man; and there was not amongst the sons of Israel a goodlier than he, high above all the * people † from his shoulders and upward.

one of the young men, and arise you[^], and go seek the asses.

⁴ And they went through mount Ephraim, and they went through the land of Selcha, and found them not: and they passed through the land of Segalim, and they were not there: and they passed through the land of Jamin, and found them not.

⁵ And when they came to Siph, then Saul said to his young man that was with him, Come and let us return, lest my father leave the asses, and take care for us.

⁶ And the young man said to him, Behold now, there is a man of God in this city, and the man is of high repute; all that he shall speak will surely come to pass: now then let us go, that he may tell us our way on which we have set out.

⁷ And Saul said to his young man that was with him, Behold, then, we will go; but what shall we bring the man of God? for the loaves are spent out of our vessels, and we have nothing more with us that belongs to us to bring to the man of God.

⁸ And the young man answered Saul again, and said, Behold, there is found in my hand a fourth part of a shekel of silver; and you shall give it to the man of God, and he shall tell us our way.

⁹ Now before time in Israel every one in going to enquire of God said, Come and let us go to the seer; for the people beforetime called the prophet, the seer.

¹⁰ And Saul said to his servant, Well said, come and let us go: and they went to the city where the man of God was.

11 As they went up the ascent to the city, they find virgins who had come out to draw water, and they say to them, Is the seer here?

12 And the virgins answered them, and they say to them, He is: behold, he is before you: now he is coming to the city, because of the day, for today there is a sacrifice for the people in Bama.

13 As soon as you[^] shall enter into the city, so shall you[^] find him in the city, before he goes up to Bama to eat; for the people will not eat until he comes in, for he blesses the sacrifice, and afterwards the guests eat; now then go up, for you[^] shall find him because of the ‡ holiday.

14 And they go up to the city; and as they were entering into the midst of the city, behold, Samuel came out to meet them, to go up to Bama.

15 And the Lord uncovered the ear of Samuel § one day before Saul came to him, saying,

16 At this time to-morrow I will send to you a man out of the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him to be ruler over my people Israel, and he shall save my people out of the hand of the Philistines; for I have looked upon the humiliation of my people, for their cry is come to me.

17 And Samuel looked upon Saul, and the Lord answered him, Behold the man of whom I spoke to you, this one shall rule over my people.

18 And Saul  drew near to Samuel into the midst of the city, and said, Tell me now †† which is the house of the seer?

‡ 9:13 Gr. day. § 9:15 Or, the day before.  9:18 Lit. brought near. †† 9:18 Gr. of what kind?

19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am he: go up before me to Bama, and eat with me today, and I will send you away in the morning, and I will tell you all that is in your heart.

20 And concerning your asses that have been lost now these three days, care not for them, for they are found. And to whom does the excellency of Israel belong? does it not to you and to your father's house?

21 And Saul answered and said, Am not I the son of a Benjamite, the least tribe of the people of Israel? and of the least family of the whole tribe of Benjamin? and why have you spoken to me according to this word?

22 And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them to the inn, and set them there a place amongst the chief of those that were called, about seventy men.

23 And Samuel said to the cook, Give me the portion which I gave you, which I told you to set by you.

24 Now the cook had boiled the shoulder, and he set it before Saul; and Samuel said to Saul, Behold that which is left: set before you, and eat; for it is set you for a testimony in preference to the others; †† take of it: and Saul ate with Samuel on that day.

25 And he went down from Bama into the city; and they prepared a lodging for Saul on the roof, and he lay down.

26 And it came to pass when the morning §§ dawned, that Samuel called Saul on the roof, saying, Rise up, and I will dismiss you. And Saul arose, and he and Samuel went out.

²⁷ As they went down to a part of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Speak to the young man, and let him pass on before us; and do you stand as today, and listen to the word of God.

¹ And Samuel took a vial of oil, and poured it on his head, and kissed him, and said to him, Has not the Lord anointed you for a ruler over his people, over Israel? and you shall rule amongst the people of the Lord, and you shall save them out of the hand of their enemies; and this shall be the sign to you that the Lord has anointed you for a ruler over his inheritance.

² As soon as you shall have departed this day from me, you shall find two men by the * burial-place of Rachel on the mount of Benjamin, exulting greatly; and they shall say to you, The asses are found which you[^] went to seek; and, behold, your father has given up the matter of the asses, and he is anxious for you, saying, What shall I do for my son?

³ And you shall depart thence, and shall go beyond that as far as the oak of Thabor, and you shall find there three men going up to God to Baethel, one bearing three kids, and another bearing three vessels of bread, and another bearing a bottle of wine.

* 10:2 Gr. burial places.

⁴ And they shall ask you how you do, and shall give you two presents of bread, and you shall receive them of their hand.

⁵ And afterward you shall go to the hill of God, where is the encampment of the Philistines; there is Nasib the Philistine: and it shall come to pass when you[^] shall have entered into the city, that you shall meet a band of prophets coming down from the Bama; and before them will be lutes, and a drum, and a pipe, and a harp, and they † shall prophesy.

⁶ And the Spirit of the Lord shall ‡ come upon you, and you shall prophesy with them, and shall be turned into another man.

⁷ And it shall come to pass when these signs shall come upon you, —then do you whatever your hand shall find, because God is with you.

⁸ And you shall go down in front of Galgal, and behold, I come down to you to offer a whole burnt offering and peace-offerings: seven days shall you wait until I shall come to you, and I will make known to you what you shall do.

⁹ And it came to pass when he § turned his back to depart from Samuel, God  gave him another heart; and all these signs came to pass in that day.

¹⁰ And he comes thence to the hill, and behold a band of prophets opposite to him; and the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied in the midst of them.

and saw, and behold, he was in the midst of the prophets: and the people said every one to his neighbour, What is this that has happened to the son of Kis? is Saul also amongst the prophets?

¹² And one of them answered and said, And who is his father? and therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul also amongst the prophets?

¹³ And he ceased prophesying, and comes to the hill.

¹⁴ And his kinsman said to him and to his servant, Whither went you[^]? and they said, To seek the asses; and we saw that they were lost, and we went in to Samuel.

¹⁵ And his kinsman said to Saul, Tell me, I pray you, What did Samuel say to you?

¹⁶ And Saul said to his kinsman, he verily told me that the asses were found. But the matter of the kingdom he told him not.

¹⁷ And Samuel summoned all the people before the Lord to Massephath.

¹⁸ And he said to the children of Israel, Thus has the Lord God of Israel spoken, saying, I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt, and I rescued you out of the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and out of all the kingdoms that afflicted you.

¹⁹ And you[^] have this day rejected God, who is himself your Deliverer out of all your evils and afflictions; and you[^] said, Nay, but you shall set a king over us: and now stand before the Lord according to your tribes, and according to your families.

²⁰ And Samuel brought near all the tribes of Israel, and the tribe of Benjamin is taken by lot.

21 And he brings near the tribe of Benjamin by families, and the family of Mattari is taken by lot: and they bring near the family of Mattari, man by man, and Saul the son of Kis is taken; and he sought him, but he was not found.

22 And Samuel asked yet again of the Lord, †† Will the man come here? and the Lord said, Behold, he is hid amongst the stuff.

23 And he ran and took him thence, and he set him in the midst of the people; and he was higher than all the people by his shoulders and upwards.

24 And Samuel said to all the people, Have you^ seen whom the Lord has chosen to himself, that there is none like to him amongst you all? And all the people took notice, and said, Let the king live!

25 And Samuel told the people the manner of the king, and wrote it in a book, and set it before the Lord: and Samuel sent away all the people, and each went to his place.

26 And Saul departed to his house to Gabaa; and there went with Saul mighty men whose hearts God had touched.

27 But evil men said, Who is this man that shall save us? and they despised him, and brought him no gifts.

² Naas the Ammanite said to them, On these terms will I make a covenant with you, that I should * put out all your right eyes, and I will lay a reproach upon Israel.

³ And the men of Jabis say to him, Allow us seven days, and we will send messengers into all the coasts of Israel: if there should be no one to deliver us, we will come out to you.

⁴ And the messengers came to Gabaa to Saul, and they speak the words into the ears of the people; and all the people lifted up their voice, and wept.

⁵ And, behold, Saul came after the early morning out of the field: and Saul said, Why does the people weep? and they tell him the words of the men of Jabis.

⁶ And the Spirit of the Lord came upon Saul when he heard these words, and his anger was greatly kindled against them.

⁷ And he took two cows, and cut them in pieces, and sent them into all the coasts of Israel by the hand of messengers, saying, Whoso comes not forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall they do to his oxen: and a transport from the Lord came upon the people of Israel, and they † came out to battle as one man.

¹¹ And it came to pass ‡ on the morrow, that Saul § divided the people into three companies, and they go into the midst of the camp in the morning watch, and they struck the children of Ammon until the day was hot; at it came to pass that those who were left were scattered, and there were not left amongst them two together.

¹² And the people said to Samuel, Who has said that Saul shall not reign over us? Give up the men, and we will put them to death.

¹³ And Saul said, No man shall die this day, for today the Lord has wrought deliverance in Israel.

¹⁴ And Samuel spoke to the people, saying, Let us go to Galgala, and there renew the kingdom.

¹⁵ And all the people went to Galgala, and Samuel anointed Saul there to be king before the Lord in Galgala, and there he offered meat-offerings and peace-offerings before the Lord: and Samuel and all Israel rejoiced exceedingly.

19 And all the people said to Samuel, Pray for your servants to the Lord your God, and let us not die; for we have added to all our sins this iniquity, in asking for us a king.

1-2 And Saul chooses for himself three thousand men of the men of Israel: and there were with Saul two thousand who were in Machmas, and in mount Baethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gabaa of Benjamin: and he sent the rest of the people every man to his tent.

3 And Jonathan struck Nasib the Philistine that lived in the hill; and the Philistines hear of it, and Saul sounds the trumpet through all the land, saying, * The servants have despised us.

4 And all Israel heard say, Saul has struck Nasib the Philistine; now Israel had been put to shame before the Philistines; and the children of Israel went up after Saul in Galgala.

5 And the Philistines gather together to war with Israel; and then come up against Israel thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand by the seashore for multitude: and they come up, and encamp in Machmas, opposite Baethoron southward.

6 And the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait so that they could not draw † near, and the people hid themselves in caves, and sheepfolds, and rocks, and ditches, and pits.

7 And they that went over went over Jordan to the land of Gad and Galaad: and Saul was yet in Galgala, and all the people ‡ followed after him in amazement.

Samuel came not to Galgala, and his people were dispersed from him.

⁹ And Saul said, Bring hither victims, that I may offer whole burnt offerings and peace-offerings: and he offered the whole burnt offering.

¹⁰ And it came to pass when he had finished offering the whole burnt offering, that Samuel arrived, and Saul went out to meet him, and to bless him.

¹¹ And Samuel said, What have you done? and Saul said, Because I saw how the people were scattered from me, and you were not present as you purposed according to the set time of the days, and the Philistines were gathered to Machmas.

¹² Then I said, Now will the Philistines come down to me to Galgala, and I have not sought the face of the Lord: so I forced myself and offered the whole burnt offering.

¹³ And Samuel said to Saul, You have done foolishly; for you have not kept my command, which the Lord commanded you, as now the Lord would have confirmed your kingdom over Israel for ever.

¹⁴ But now your kingdom shall not stand to you, and the Lord shall seek for himself a man after his own heart; and the Lord shall appoint him to be a ruler over his people, because you have not kept all that the Lord commanded you.

¹⁵ And Samuel arose, and departed from Galgala, and the remnant of the people went after Saul to meet him after the men of war, when they had come out of Galgala to Gabaa of Benjamin.

And Saul numbered the people that were found with him, about six hundred men.

¹⁶ And Saul and Jonathan his son, and the people that were found with them, halted in Gabaa, of Benjamin; and they wept: and the Philistines had encamped in Machmas.

¹⁷ And men came forth to destroy out of the land of the Philistines in three companies; one company turning by the way of Gophera towards the land of Sogal, ¹⁸ and another company turning the way of Baethoron, and another company turning by the way of Gabae that turns aside to Gai of Sabim.

§ 14:38 Gr. corners. See Zech. 10:4.

39 For as the Lord lives who has saved Israel,  if answer should be against my son Jonathan, he shall surely die. And there was no one that answered out of all the people.

40 And he said to all the men of Israel, You [^] shall be under subjection, and I an Jonathan my son will be †† under subjection: and the people said to Saul, Do that which is good in your sight.

41 And Saul said, O Lord God of Israel, why have you not answered your servant this day? is the iniquity in me, or in Jonathan my son? Lord God of Israel, give †† clear manifestations; and if the lot should declare this, give, I pray you, to your people of Israel, give, I pray, holiness. And Jonathan and Saul are taken, and the people escaped.

42 And Saul said, Cast lots between me and my son Jonathan: whoever the Lord shall cause to be taken by lot, let him die: and the people said to Saul, This thing is not to be done: and Saul prevailed against the people, and they cast lots between him and Jonathan his son, and Jonathan is taken by lot.

43 And Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what you have done: and Jonathan told him, and said, I did indeed taste a little honey, with the end of my staff that was in my hand, and, behold! I am to die.

44 And Saul said to him, God do so to me, and more also, you shall surely die today.

⁴⁵ And the people said to Saul, Shall he that has wrought this great salvation in Israel be put to death this day? As the Lord lives, there shall not fall to the ground one of the hairs of his head; for the people of God have wrought successfully this day. And the people prayed for Jonathan in that day, and he died not.

⁴⁶ And Saul went up from following the Philistines; and the Philistines departed to their place.

⁴⁸ And he wrought valiantly, and struck Amalec, and rescued Israel out of the hand of them that trampled on him.

⁴⁹ And the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Jessiu, and Melchisa: and these were the names of his two daughters, the name of the firstborn Merob, and the name of the second Melchol.

⁵⁰ And the name of his wife was Achinoom, the daughter of Achimaa: and the name of his captain of the host was Abenner, the son of Ner, son of a kinsman of Saul.

⁵¹ And Kis was the father of Saul, and Ner, the father of Abenezer, was son of Jamin, son of Abiel.

⁵² And the war was vehement against the Philistines all the days of Saul; and when Saul saw any mighty man, and any valiant man, then he took them to himself.

15

¹ And Samuel said to Saul, The Lord sent me to anoint you king over Israel: and now hear the voice of the Lord.

² Thus said the Lord of hosts, Now will I take vengeance for what Amalec did to Israel, when he met him in the way as he came up out of Egypt.

³ And now go, and you shall strike Amalec and * Hierim and all that belongs to him, and you shall not save anything of him alive, but you shall utterly destroy him: and you shall devote him and all his to destruction, and you shall spare nothing belonging to him; and you shall kill both man and woman, and infant and suckling, and calf and sheep, and camel and ass.

⁴ And Saul summoned the people, and he † numbered them in Galgala, four hundred thousand ‡ regular troops, and Juda thirty thousand regular troops.

⁵ And Saul came to the cities of Amalec, and laid wait in the § valley.

⁶ And Saul said to the Kinite, Go, and depart out of the midst of the Amalekites, lest I put you with them; for you dealt mercifully with the children of Israel when they went up out of Egypt. So the Kinite departed from the midst of Amalec.

7 And Saul struck Amalec from Evilat to Sur fronting Egypt.

8 And he took Agag the king of Amalec alive, and he killed all the people and  Hierim with the edge of the sword.

9 And Saul and all the people saved Agag alive, and the †† best of the flocks, and of the herds, and of the fruits, of the vineyards, and of all the good things; and they would not destroy them: but every worthless and refuse †† thing they destroyed.

10 And the word of the Lord came to Samuel, saying,

11 I have §§ repented that I have made Saul to be king: for he has turned back from following me, and has not kept my word. And Samuel was grieved, and cried to the Lord all night.

12 And Samuel rose early and went to meet Israel in the morning, and it was told  Saul, ††† saying, Samuel has come to Carmel, and he has ††† raised up help for himself: and he turned his chariot, and came down to Galgala to Saul; and, behold, he was offering up a whole burnt offering to the Lord, the chief of the spoils which he brought out of Amalec.

13 And Samuel came to Saul: and Saul said to him, Blessed are you §§§ of the Lord: I have * performed all that the Lord said.

14 And Samuel said, What then is the † bleating of this flock in my ears, and the sound of the oxen which I hear?

15 And Saul said, I have brought them out of Amalec, that which the people preserved, even the best of the sheep, and of the cattle, that it might be sacrificed to the Lord your God, and the rest have I utterly destroyed.

16 And Samuel said to Saul, Stay, and I will tell you what the Lord has said to me this night: and he said to him, Say on.

17 And Samuel said to Saul, Are you not little in his eyes, though a leader of ‡ one of the tribes of Israel? and yet the Lord anointed you to be king over Israel.

18 And the Lord sent you on a journey, and said to you, Go, and utterly destroy: you shall kill the sinners against me, even the Amalekites; and you shall war against them until you have consumed them.

19 And why did not you listen to the voice of the Lord, but did haste to fasten upon the spoils, and did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord?

20 And Saul said to Samuel, Because I listened to the voice of the people: yet I went the way by which the Lord sent me, and I brought Agag the king of Amalec, and I destroyed Amalec.

21 But the people took of the spoils the best flocks and herds out of that which was destroyed, to sacrifice before the Lord our God in Galgal.

²³ For sin is as divination; idols bring on pain and grief. Because you have rejected the word of the Lord, the Lord also shall reject you from being king over Israel.

²⁴ And Saul said to Samuel, I have sinned, in that I have transgressed the word of the Lord and your direction; for I feared the people, and I listened to their voice.

²⁵ And now remove, I pray you, my sin, and turn back with me, and I will worship the Lord your God.

²⁶ And Samuel said to Saul, I will not turn back with you, for you have rejected the word of the Lord, and the Lord will reject you from being king over Israel.

²⁷ And Samuel turned his face to depart, and Saul caught hold of the skirt of his § garment, and tore it.

²⁸ And Samuel said to him, The Lord has torn your kingdom from Israel out of your hand this day, and will give it to your neighbour who is better than you.

²⁹ And  Israel shall be divided to two: and God will not turn nor repent, for he is not as a man to repent.

³¹ So Samuel turned back after Saul, and he worshipped the Lord.

³² And Samuel said, Bring me Agag the king of Amalec: and Agag came to him trembling; and Agag said ††Is death thus bitter?

³³ And Samuel said to Agag, As your sword has bereaved women of their children, so shall your mother be made childless amongst women: and Samuel killed Agag before the Lord in Galgal.

³⁴ And Samuel departed to Armathaim, and Saul went up to his house at Gabaa.

³⁵ And Samuel did not see Saul again till the day of his death, for Samuel mourned after Saul, and the Lord repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

¹ And the Lord said to Samuel, How long do you mourn for Saul, whereas I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? Fill your horn with oil, and come, I will send you to Jessae, to Bethlehem; for I have seen amongst his sons a king for me.

² And Samuel said, How can I go? whereas Saul will hear of it, and kill me: and the Lord said, Take a heifer in your hand and you shall say, I am come to sacrifice to the Lord.

³ And you shall call Jessae to the sacrifice, and I will make known to you what you shall do; and you shall anoint him whom I shall mention to you.

⁴ And Samuel did all that the Lord told him; and he came to Bethlehem: and the elders of the city were amazed at meeting him, and said, * Do you come peaceably, you Seer?

⁵ And he said, † Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice to the Lord. Sanctify yourselves, and rejoice with me this day: and he sanctified Jessae and his sons, and he called them to the sacrifice.

⁶ And it came to pass when they came in, that he saw Eliab, and said, Surely the Lord's anointed is before him.

⁷ But the Lord said to Samuel, Look not on his ‡ appearance, nor on his stature, for I have rejected him; for God § sees not as man looks; for man looks at the outward appearance, but God looks at the heart.

⁸ And Jessae called Aminadab, and he passed before Samuel: and he said, Neither has God chosen this one.

² And Saul and the men of Israel gather together, and they encamp in the valley, and set the battle in array against the Philistines.

³ And the Philistines stand on the mountain on one side, and Israel stands on the mountain on the other side, and the valley was between them.

⁴ And there went forth a mighty man out of the army of the Philistines, Goliath, by name, out of Geth, his height was four cubits and a span.

⁵ And he had a helmet upon his head, and he wore a breastplate of chain armour; and the weight of his breastplate was five thousand shekels of brass and iron.

³ And I will go forth, and stand near my father in the field where you shall be, and I will speak concerning you to my father; and I will see what his answer may be, and I will tell you.

⁴ And Jonathan spoke favourably concerning David to Saul his father, and said to him, Let not the king sin against your servant David, for he has not sinned against you, and his deeds are very good.

⁵ And he put his life in his hand, and struck the Philistine, and the Lord wrought a great deliverance; and all Israel saw, and rejoined: why then do you sin against innocent blood, to kill David without a cause?

⁶ And Saul listened to the voice of Jonathan; and Saul swore, saying, As the Lord lives, † he shall not die.

⁷ And Jonathan called David, and told him all these words; and Jonathan brought David in to Saul, and he was before him as in former times.

⁸ And ‡ there was again war against Saul; and David did valiantly, and fought against the Philistines, and struck them with a very great slaughter, and they fled from before him.

⁹ And an evil spirit § from God was upon Saul, and he was  resting in his house, and a spear was in his hand, and David was playing on the harp with his hands.

¹⁰ And Saul sought †† to strike David with the spear; and David withdrew suddenly from the presence of Saul; and he drove the spear into the wall; and David retreated and escaped.

¹¹ And it came to pass in that night, that Saul sent messengers to the house of David to watch him, in order to kill him in the morning; and Melchol ‡‡ David's wife told him, saying, Unless you save your life this night, to-morrow you shall be slain.

¹² So Melchol lets David down by the window, and he departed, and fled, and escaped.

¹³ And Melchol took §§ images, and laid them on the bed, and she put the  liver of a goat by his head, and covered them with clothes.

¹⁴ And Saul sent messengers to take David; and they say that he is sick.

¹⁵ And he sends to David, saying, Bring him to me on the bed, that I may kill him.

¹⁶ And the messengers come, and, behold, the images were on the bed, and the goat's liver at his head.

¹⁷ And Saul said to Melchol, Why have you thus deceived me, and suffered my enemy to depart, and he has escaped? and Melchol said to Saul, He said, let me go, and if not, I will kill you.

¹⁸ So David fled, and escaped, and comes to Samuel to Armathaim, and tells him all that Saul had done to him: and Samuel and David went, and lived in Navath in Rama.

¹⁹ And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, David is in Navath in Rama.

²⁰ And Saul sent messengers to take David, and they saw the assembly of the prophets, and Samuel stood as appointed over them; and the Spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul, and they prophesy.

²¹ And it was told Saul, and he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied: and Saul sent again a third set of messengers, and they also prophesied.

²² And Saul was very angry, and went himself also to Armathaim, and he comes as far as the well of the threshing floor that is in Sephi; and he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And they said, Behold, in Navath in Rama.

²³ And he went thence to Navath in Rama: and there came the Spirit of God upon him also, and he went on prophesying till he came to Navath in Rama.

²⁴ And he took off his clothes, and prophesied before them; and lay down naked all that day and all that night: therefore they said, Is Saul also amongst the prophets?

¹ And David fled from Navath in Rama, and comes into the presence of Jonathan; and he said, What have I done, and what is my fault, and wherein have I sinned before your father, that he seeks my life?

² And Jonathan said to him, Far be it from you: you shall not die: behold, my father will not do any thing great or small * without discovering it to me; and why should my father hide this matter from me? This thing is not so.

³ And David answered Jonathan, and said, Your father knows surely that I have found grace in your sight, and he said, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he refuse his consent: but as the Lord lives and your soul lives, as I said, the space is filled up between me and death.

⁴ And Jonathan said to David, What does your soul desire, and what shall I do for you.

⁵ And David said to Jonathan, Behold, tomorrow is the new moon, and I shall not on any account sit down to eat, but you shall let me go, and I will hide in the plain till the evening.

⁶ And if your father do in anyway † enquire for me, then shall you say, David earnestly asked leave of me to run to Bethleem his city, for there is there, a ‡ yearly sacrifice for all the family.

⁷ If he shall say thus, Well, — § all is safe for your servant: but if he shall answer harshly to you, know that evil is determined by him.

⁸ And you shall deal mercifully with your servant; for you have brought your servant into a covenant of the Lord with yourself: and if there is iniquity in your servant, kill me yourself; but why do you thus bring me to your father?

⁹ And Jonathan said, That be far from you: for if I surely know that evil is determined by my father to come upon you, although it should not be against your cities, I will tell you.

¹⁰ And David said to Jonathan, Who can tell me if your father should answer roughly?

¹¹ And Jonathan said to David, Go, and abide in the field. And they went out both into the field.

¹² And Jonathan said to David, the Lord God of Israel knows that I will sound my father as I have an opportunity,  three several times, and, behold, if good should be determined concerning David, and I do not send to you to the field, ¹³ God do so to Jonathan and more also: as I shall also report the evil to you, and make it known to you, and I will let you go; and you shall depart in peace, and the Lord shall be with you, as he was with my father.

¹⁴ And if indeed †† I continue to live, then shall you deal mercifully with me; and if I indeed die,

¹⁵ you shall not withdraw your mercy from my house for ever: and †† if you do not, when the Lord cuts off the enemies of David each from the face of the earth, ¹⁶ should it happen that the name of Jonathan be revealed by the house of David, then let the Lord seek out the enemies of David.

¹⁷ And Jonathan swore yet again to David, because he loved the soul of him that loved him.

¹⁸ And Jonathan said, To-morrow is the new ²⁰ And I will shoot ††† three arrows, aiming them at ††† a mark.

²¹ And behold, I will send a lad, saying, Go find me the arrow.

²² If I should expressly say to the lad, The arrow is here, and on this side of you, take it; then come, for it is well with you, and there is no reason for fear; as the Lord lives: but if I should say thus to the young man, The arrow is on that side of you, and beyond; go, for the Lord has sent you away.

²³ And as for the word which you and I have spoken, behold, the Lord is witness between me and you for ever.

²⁴ So David hides himself in the field, and the new §§§ month arrives, and the king comes to the table to eat.

²⁵ And he sat upon his seat as * in former times, even on his seat by the wall, and he went before Jonathan; and Abenner sat on one side of Saul, and the place of David was empty.

27 And it came to pass on the morrow, on the second day of the month, that the place of David was empty; and Saul said to Jonathan his son, Why has not the son of Jessae attended both yesterday and today at the table?

28 And Jonathan answered Saul, and said to him, David asked leave of me to go as far as Bethleem his city;

29 and he said, Let me go, I pray you, for we have a family sacrifice in the city, and my brethren have † sent for me; and now, if I have found grace in your eyes, I will even go over and see my brethren: therefore he is not present at the table of the king.

30 And Saul was exceedingly angry with Jonathan, and said to him, You son of ‡ traitorous damsels! for do I not know that you are an accomplice with the son of Jessae to your shame, and to the shame of your mother's nakedness?

31 For § so long as the son of Jessae lives upon the earth, your kingdom shall not be established: now then send and take the young man, for he  shall surely die.

32 And Jonathan answered Saul, Why †† is he to die? What has he done?

great anger, and did not eat bread on the second day of the month, for he grieved bitterly for David, because his father determined on mischief against him.

³⁵ And morning came, and Jonathan went out to the field, as he appointed to do for a signal to David, and a little boy was with him.

³⁶ And he said to the boy, Run, find me the arrows which I shoot: and the boy ran, and Jonathan shot an arrow, and sent it beyond him.

³⁷ And the boy came to the place where the arrow was which Jonathan shot; and Jonathan cried out after the lad, and said, The arrow is on that side of you and beyond you.

³⁸ And Jonathan cried out after his boy, saying, Make all speed, and stay not. And Jonathan's boy gathered up the arrows, and brought the arrows to his master.

³⁹ And the boy knew nothing, only Jonathan and David knew.

⁴⁰ And Jonathan gave his weapons to his boy, and said to his boy, Go, enter into the city.

⁴¹ And when the lad went in, then David arose from the †† south, and fell upon his face, and did obeisance to him three times, and they kissed each other, and wept for each other, for a great while.

⁴² And Jonathan said to David, Go in peace, and as we have both sworn in the name of the Lord, saying, The Lord shall be witness between me and you, and between my seed and your seed for ever—even so let it be. And David arose and departed, and Jonathan went into the city.

¹ And David comes to Nomba to Abimelech the priest: and Abimelech was amazed at meeting him, and said to him, Why are you alone, and nobody with you?

² And David said to the priest, The king gave me a command today, and said to me, Let no one know the matter on which I send you, and concerning which I have charged you: and I have charged my servants to be in the place that is called, * The faithfulness of God, † Phellani Maemoni.

³ And now if there are under your hand five loaves, give into my hand what is ready.

⁴ And the priest answered David, and said, There are no common loaves under my hand, for I have none but holy loaves: if the young men have been kept at least from women, then they shall eat them.

⁵ And David answered the priest, and said to him, Yes, we have been kept from women for three days: when I came forth for the journey all the young men were purified; but this expedition is unclean, therefore it shall be sanctified this day because of my weapons.

⁶ So Abimelech the priest gave him the show bread; for there were no loaves there, but only the presence loaves which had been removed from the presence of the Lord, in order that hot bread

⁷ And there was there on that day one of Saul's servants ‡ detained before the Lord, and his name was Doec the Syrian, tending the mules of Saul.

⁸ And David said to Abimelech, See if there is here under your hand spear or sword, for I have not § brought in my hand my sword or my weapons, for the word of the king was urgent.

⁹ And the priest said, Behold the sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you struck in the valley of Ela; and it is wrapped in a  cloth: if you will take it, take it for yourself, for there is no other except it here. And David said, Behold, there is none like it; give it me.

¹⁰ And he gave it him; and David arose, and fled in that day from he presence of Saul: and David came to Anchus king of Geth.

¹¹ And the servants of Anchus said to him, Is not this David the king of the land? Did not the dancing women begin the song to him, saying, Saul has struck his thousand, and David his ten thousands?

¹² And David †† laid up the words in his heart, and was greatly afraid of Anchus king of Geth.

¹ And David departed thence, and escaped; and he comes to the cave of Odollam, and his brethren hear, and the house of his father, and they go down to him there.

² And there gathered to him every one that was in distress, and every one that was in debt, and every one that was troubled in mind; and he was a leader over them, and there were with him about four hundred men.

³ And David departed thence to Massephath of Moab, and said to the king of Moab, Let, I pray you, my father and my mother be with you, until I know what God will do to me.

⁴ And he persuaded * the King of Moab, and they dwell with him continually, while David was in the hold.

⁵ And Gad the prophet said to David, Dwell not in the hold: go, and you shall enter the land of Juda. So David went, and came and lived in the city of Saric.

⁹ And Doec the Syrian who was over the mules of Saul ‡ answered and said, I saw the son of Jessae as he came to Nomba to Abimelech son of Achitob the priest.

¹⁰ And the priest enquired of God for him, and gave him provision, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.

¹¹ And the king sent to call Abimelech son of Achitob and all his father's sons, the priests that were in Nomba; and they all came to the king.

¹² And Saul said, Hear now, you son of Achitob. And he said, Behold! I am here, speak, my lord.

¹³ And Saul said to him, Why have you and the son of Jessae conspired against me, that you should give him bread and a sword, and should enquire of God for him, to raise him up against me as an enemy, as he is this day?

¹⁴ And he answered the king, and said, And ¹⁵ Have I begun today to enquire of God for him? By no means: let not the king bring a charge against his servant, and against the whole of my father's house; for your servant knew not in all these matters anything great or small.

¹⁶ And king Saul said, You shall surely die, Abimelech, you, and all your father's house.

¹⁷ And the king said to the footmen that attended on him, Draw near and kill the priests of the Lord, because their hand is with David, and because they knew that he § fled, and they did not inform me. But the servants of the king would not lift their hands to fall upon the priest of the Lord.

¹⁸ And the king said to Doec, Turn you, and fall upon the priests: and Doec the Syrian turned, and killed the priests of the Lord in that day, three hundred and five men, all wearing  an ephod.

¹⁹ And he struck Nomba the city of the priest with the edge of the sword, both man, and woman, infant and suckling, and calf, and ox, and sheep.

²¹ And Abiathar told David that Saul had slain all the priests of the Lord.

¹ And it was told David, saying, behold, the Philistines war in Keila, and they rob, they trample on the threshing-floors.

² And David enquired of the Lord, saying, Shall I go and strike these Philistines? And the Lord said, Go, and you shall strike these Philistines, and shall save Keila.

³ And the men of David said to him, Behold, we are afraid here in Judea; and how shall it be if we go to Keila? Shall we go after the spoils of the Philistines?

⁴ And David enquired yet again of the Lord; and the Lord answered him, and said to him, Arise and go down to Keila, for I will deliver the Philistines into your hands.

⁵ So David and his men with him went to Keila, and fought with the Philistines; and they fled from before him, and he carried off their cattle, and struck them with a great slaughter, and David rescued the inhabitants of Keila.

⁶ And it came to pass when Abiathar the son of Achimelech fled to David, that he went down with David to Keila, having an ephod in his hand.

†† 22:22 Gr: souls or lives.

⁷ And it was told Saul that David was come to Keila: and Saul said, God has sold him into my hands, for he is shut up, having entered into a city that has gates and bars.

⁸ And Saul charged all the people to go down to war to Keila, to besiege David and his men.

⁹ And David knew that Saul * spoke openly of mischief against him: and David said to Abiathar the priest, Bring the ephod of the Lord.

¹⁰ And David said, Lord God of Israel, your servant has indeed heard, that Saul seeks to come against Keila to destroy the city on my account.

¹¹ Will the place † be shut up? And now will Saul come down, as your ‡ servant has heard? Lord God of Israel, tell your servant.

¹² And the Lord said, It will be shut up.

¹³ And David arose, and the men with him, in number about four hundred, and they went forth from Keila, and went wherever they could go: and it was told Saul that David had escaped from Keila, and he forbore to come.

¹⁴ And he lived in Maserem in the wilderness, in the narrow passes; and lived in the wilderness in mount Ziph, in the dry country. And Saul sought him continually, but the Lord delivered him not into his hands.

¹⁵ And David perceived that Saul went forth to seek David; and David was in the dry mountain in the § New Ziph.

¹⁶ And Jonathan son of Saul rose, and went to David to Caene, and strengthened his hands in the Lord.

¹⁷ And he said to him, Fear not, for the hand of Saul my father shall not find you; and you shall be king over Israel, and I shall be second to you; and Saul my father knows it.

¹⁸ So they both made a covenant before the Lord; and David lived in Caene, and Jonathan went to his home.

¹⁹ And the Ziphites came up out of the dry country to Saul to the hill, saying, Behold, is not David hidden with us in Messara, in the narrows in Caene in the hill of Echela, which is on the right of Jessaemon?

²⁰ And now according to all the king's desire to come down, let him come down to us; they have shut him up into the hands of the king.

²¹ And Saul said to them, Blessed be you[^] of the Lord, for you[^] have been grieved on my account.

²² Go, I pray you, and make preparations yet, and notice his place where his foot shall be, quickly, in that place which you[^] spoke of, lest by any means he should deal craftily.

²³ Take notice, then, and learn, and I will go with you; and it shall come to pass that if he is in the land, I will search him out amongst all the thousands of Juda.

²⁴ And the Ziphites arose, and went before Saul: and David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, westward, to the right of Jessaemon.

²⁵ And Saul and his men went to seek him: and they brought word to David, and he went down to the rock that was in the wilderness of Maon:

and Saul heard, and followed after David to the wilderness of Maon.

²⁶ And Saul and his men go on one side of the mountain, and David and his men are on the other side of the mountain: and David was hiding himself to escape from Saul: and Saul and his men encamped against David and his men, in order to take them.

²⁷ And there came a messenger to Saul, saying, Haste you, and come here, for the Philistines have invaded the land.

²⁸ So Saul returned from following after David, and went to meet the Philistines: therefore that place was called The divided Rock.

¹ And David rose up from thence, and lived in the narrow passes of Engaddi.

² And it came to pass when Saul returned from pursuing after the Philistines, that it was reported to him, saying, David is in the wilderness of Engaddi.

³ And he took with him three thousand men, chosen out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men in front of Saddaeem.

⁴ And he came to the flocks of sheep that were by the way, and there was a cave there; and Saul went in to make preparation, and David and his men were sitting in the inner part of the cave.

⁵ And the men of David said to him, Behold, this is the day of which the Lord spoke to you, that he would deliver your enemy into your hands; and you shall do to him as it is good in your sight.

So David arose and * cut off the skirt of Saul's garment secretly.

⁶ And it came to pass after this that David's heart struck him, because he had cut off the skirt of his garment.

⁷ And David said to his men, The Lord forbid it me, that I should do this thing to my lord the anointed of the Lord, to lift my hand against him; for he is the anointed of the Lord.

⁸ So David persuaded his men by his words, and did not suffer them to arise and kill Saul: and Saul arose and went his way.

⁹ And David rose up and went after him out of the cave: and David cried after Saul, saying, My lord, O king! and Saul looked behind him, and David † bowed with his face to the ground, and did obeisance to him.

¹⁰ And David said to Saul, Why do you listen to the words of the people, saying, Behold, David seeks your life?

¹¹ Behold, your eyes have seen this day how that the Lord has delivered you this day into my hands in the cave; and I would not kill you, but spared you, and said, I will not lift up my hand against my lord, for he is the Lord's anointed.

¹² And behold, the skirt of your mantle is in my hand, I cut off the skirt, and did not kill you: know then and see today, there is no evil in my hand, nor impiety, nor rebellion; and I have not sinned against you, yet you ‡ lay snares for my soul to take it.

* 24:5 Gr. took away. † 24:9 Gr. stooped. ‡ 24:12 Gr. bindest my soul.

13 The Lord judge between me and you, and the Lord requite you on yourself: but my hand shall not be upon you.

14 As the old proverb § says, Transgression will proceed from the wicked ones: but my hand shall not be upon you.

15 And now after whom do you come forth, O king of Israel? After whom do you pursue? After a dead dog, and after a flea?

16 The Lord be judge and umpire between me and you, the Lord look upon and judge my cause, and rescue me out of your hand.

17 And it came to pass when David had finished speaking these words to Saul, that Saul said, Is this your voice, Son David? And Saul lifted up his voice, and wept.

18 And Saul said to David, You are more righteous than I, for you have recompensed me good, but I have recompensed you evil.

19 And you have told me today what good you have done me, how the Lord shut me up into your hands today, and you did not kill me.

20 And if any one should find his enemy in distress, and should send him forth in a good way, then the Lord will reward him good, as you have done this day.

21 And now, behold, I know that you shall surely reign, and the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand.

22 Now then swear to me by the Lord, that you will not destroy my seed after me, that you will

³ And the man's name was Nabal, and his wife's name was Abigaia: and his wife was of good understanding and very beautiful in person: but the man was harsh, and evil in his doings, and the man was churlish.

13 And David said to his men, Gird on every man his sword. ††† And they went up after David, about four hundred men: and two hundred abode with the stuff.

the wife of Nabal, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our lord; but he turned away from them.

¹⁷ And now do you consider, and see what you will do; for mischief is determined against our lord and against his house; and he is a vile character, and one can't speak to him.

¹⁸ And Abigail hasted, and took two hundred loaves, and two vessels of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five ephahs of fine flour, and one homer of dried grapes, and two hundred cakes of figs, and put them upon asses.

¹⁹ And she said to her servants, Go on before me, and behold I come after you: but she told not her husband.

²⁰ And it came to pass when she had mounted her ass and was going down by the covert of the mountain, behold, David and his men came down to meet her, and she met them.

²¹ And David said, Perhaps I have kept all his possessions in the wilderness that he should wrong me, and we did not order the taking anything of all his goods; yet he has rewarded me evil for good.

²² So God do to David and more also, if I leave one male of all that belong to Nabal until the morning.

²³ And Abigaia saw David, and she hasted and alighted from her ass; and she fell before David on her face, and did obeisance to him, bowing to the ground

²⁴ §§§ even to his feet, and said, On me, my lord, be my wrong: let, I pray you, your servant speak in your ears, and hear you the words of your servant.

²⁵ Let not my lord, I pray you, take to heart this pestilent man, * for according to his name, so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him: but I your handmaid saw not the servants of my lord whom you did send.

²⁶ And now, my lord, as the Lord lives, and your soul lives, as the Lord has kept you from coming against innocent blood, and † from executing vengeance for yourself, now therefore let your enemies, and those that seek evil against my lord, become as Nabal.

²⁷ And now accept this ‡ token of goodwill, which your servant has brought to my lord, and you shall give it to the servants that wait on my lord.

²⁸ Remove, I pray you, the trespass of your servant; for the Lord will surely make for my lord a sure house, for the Lord fights the battles of my lord, and there shall no evil be ever found in you.

be bound up in the bundle of life with the Lord God, and you shall whirl the life of your enemies as in the midst of a sling.

³⁰ And it shall be when the Lord shall have wrought for my lord all the good things he has spoken concerning you, and shall appoint you to be ruler over Israel;

³¹ then this shall not be an abomination and offence to my lord, to have shed innocent blood without cause, and for my lord to have avenged himself: and so may the Lord do good to my lord, and you shall remember your handmaid to do her good.

³² And David said to Abigaia, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, who sent you this very day to meet me:

³³ and blessed be your conduct, and blessed be you, who have hindered me this very day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging myself.

³⁴ But surely as the Lord God of Israel lives, who hindered me this day from doing you harm, if you had not hastened and come to meet me, then I said, There shall surely not be left to Nabal till the morning one male.

³⁵ And David took of her hand all that she brought to him, and said to her, Go in peace to your house: see, I have listened to your voice, and accepted your § petition.

³⁶ And Abigaia came to Nabal: and, behold, he had a banquet in this house, as the banquet of a king, and the heart of Nabal was merry  within him, and he was very drunken: and she told him nothing great or small till the morning light.

³⁷ And it came to pass in the morning, when Nabal recovered from his wine, his wife told him these words; and his heart died within him, and he became as a stone.

³⁸ And †† it came to pass after about ten days, that the Lord struck Nabal, and he died.

³⁹ And David heard it †† and said, Blessed be the Lord, who has judged the cause of my reproach at the hand of Nabal, and has delivered his servant §§ from the power of evil; and the Lord has returned the mischief of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent and spoke concerning Abigaia, to take her to himself for a wife.

⁴⁰ So the servants of David came to Abigaia to Carmel, and spoke to her, saying, David has sent us to you, to take you to himself for a wife.

⁴¹ And she arose, and did reverence with her face to the earth, and said, Behold, your servant is for an handmaid to wash the feet of your servants.

⁴² And Abigaia arose, and mounted her ass, and five damsels followed her: and she went after the servants of David, and became his wife.

⁴³ And David took Achinaam out of Jezrael, and they were both his wives.

¹ And the Ziphites come out of the dry country to Saul to the hill, saying, Behold, David hides himself with us in the hill Echela, opposite Jessemon.

² And Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, and with him went three thousand men chosen out of Israel, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.

³ And Saul encamped in the hill of Echela in front of Jessemon, by the way, and David lived in the wilderness: and David saw that Saul * came after him into the wilderness.

⁴ And David sent spies, and ascertained that Saul was come prepared out of Keila.

⁵ And David arose secretly, and goes into the place where Saul was sleeping, and there was Abenner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul was sleeping in a chariot, and the people had encamped along round about him.

⁶ And David answered and spoke to Abimelech the Chettite, and to Abessa the son Saruia the brother of Joab, saying, Who will go in with me to Saul into the camp? And Abessa said, I will go in with you.

⁷ So David and Abessa go in amongst the people by night: and behold, Saul was fast asleep in the chariot, and his spear was stuck in the ground near his head, and Abenner and his people slept round about him.

⁸ And Abessa said to David, The Lord has this day shut up your enemy into your hands, and now

* 26:3 Gr. comes.

I will † strike him to the earth with the spear to the ground once for all, and I will not strike him again.

⁹ And David said to Abessa, Do not lay him low, for who shall lift up his hand against the anointed of the Lord, and be guiltless?

¹⁰ And David said, As the Lord lives, if the Lord strike him not, or his day come and he die, or he go down to battle and be added to his fathers, do not so.

¹¹ The Lord forbid it me that I should lift up my hand against the anointed of the Lord: and now take, I pray you, the spear from his bolster, and the pitcher of water, and let us return ‡ home.

¹² So David took the spear, and the pitcher of water from his bolster, and they went home: and there was no one that saw, and no one that knew, and there was no one that awoke, all being asleep, for a stupor from the Lord had fallen upon them.

¹³ So David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of a hill afar off, and there was a good distance between them.

¹⁴ And David called to the people, and spoke to Abenner, saying, Will you not answer, Abenner? and Abenner answered and said, Who are you that call? §

¹⁵ And David said to Abenner, Are not you a man? and who is like you in Israel? Why then do you not guard your lord the king? for one out of the people went in to destroy your lord the king.

16 And this thing is not good which you have done. As the Lord lives, you[^] are  worthy of death, you[^] who guard your lord the king, the anointed of the Lord: and now behold, I pray you, the spear of the king, and the cruse of water: where are the articles that should be at his head?

17 And Saul recognised the voice of David, and said, Is this your voice, son David? and David said, I am your servant, my lord, O king.

18 And he said, Why does my lord thus pursue after his servant? for in what have I sinned? and what unrighteousness has been found in me?

19 And now let my lord the king hear the word of his servant. If God stirs you up against me, let your offering be acceptable: but if the sons of men, they are cursed before the Lord, for they have cast me out this day so that I should not be established in the inheritance of the Lord, saying, Go, serve other Gods.

20 And now let not my blood fall to the ground before †† the Lord, for the king of Israel has come forth to seek your life, as the night hawk pursues its prey in the mountains.

21 And Saul said, I have sinned: turn, son David, for I will not hurt you, because my life was precious in your eyes; and today I have been foolish and have erred exceedingly.

22 And David answered and said, Behold, the spear of the king: let one of the servants come over and take it.

23 And the Lord shall recompense each ac-ording to his righteousness and his truth, since the Lord delivered you this day into my hands, and I would not lift my hand against the Lord's anointed.

²⁴ And, behold, as your life has been †† precious this very day in my eyes, so let my life be §§ precious before the Lord, and may he protect me, and  deliver me out of all affliction.

²⁵ And Saul said to David, Blessed be you, my son; and you shall surely do valiantly, and surely prevail. And David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

¹ And David said in his heart, Now shall I be one day delivered for death into the hands of Saul; and there is no good thing for me unless I should escape into the land of the Philistines, and Saul should cease from seeking me * through every coast of Israel: so I shall escape out of his hand.

² So David arose, and the six hundred men that were with him, and he went to Anchus, son Ammach, king of Geth.

³ And David lived with Anchus, he and his men, each with his family; and David and both his wives, Achinaam, the Jezraelitess, and Abigaia the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

⁴ And it was told Saul that David had fled to Geth; and he no longer sought after him.

⁵ And David said to Anchus, If now your servant has found grace in your eyes, let them give me, I pray you, a place in one of the cities in the country, and I will dwell there: for why does your servant dwell with you in a † royal city?

⁶ And he gave him Sekelac in that day: therefore Sekelac came into possession of the king of Judea to this day.

⁷ And the number of the days that David lived in the country of the Philistines was four months.

⁸ And David and his men went up, and made an attack on all the Gesirites and on the Amalekites: and behold, the land was inhabited, (even the land ‡ from Gelampsur) by those who come from the fortified cities even to the land of Egypt.

⁹ And he struck the land, and saved neither man nor woman alive; and they took flocks, and herds, and asses, and camels, and raiment; and they returned and came to Anchus.

¹⁰ And Anchus said to David, On whom have you[^] made an attack today? And David said to Anchus, On the south of Judea, and on the south of Jesmega, and on the south of the Kenezite.

¹¹ And I have not saved man or woman alive to bring them to Geth, saying, Lest they carry a report to Geth against us, saying, These things David does. And this was his manner all the days that David lived in the country of the Philistines.

¹² So David had the full confidence of Anchus, § who said, He is thoroughly disgraced amongst his people in Israel and he shall be my servant for ever.

¹ And it came to pass in those days that the Philistines gathered themselves together with their armies to go out to fight with Israel; and Anchus said to David, * Know surely, that you shall go forth to battle with me, you, and your men.

² And David said to Anchus, Thus now you shall know what your servant will do. And Anchus said to David, So will I make you captain of my body-guard continually.

³ And Samuel died, and all Israel lamented for him, and they bury him in his city, in Armathaim. And Saul had removed those who had in them divining spirits, and the wizards, out of the land.

⁴ And the Philistines assemble themselves, and come and encamp in Sonam: and Saul gathers all the men of Israel, and they encamp in Gelbue.

⁵ And Saul saw the camp of the Philistines, and he was alarmed, and his heart was greatly dismayed.

⁶ And Saul enquired of the Lord; and the Lord answered him not by dreams, nor by manifestations, nor by prophets.

⁷ Then Saul said to his servants, Seek for me a woman who has in her a divining spirit, and I will go to her, and enquire of her: and his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman who has in her a divining spirit at Aendor.

⁸ And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he goes, and two men with him, and they come to the woman by night; and he said to her, Divine to me, I pray you, by the divining spirit within you, and bring up to me him whom I shall name to you.

* 28:1 Gr. you shall know surely.

⁹ And the woman said to him, Behold now, you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off † those who had in them divining spirits, and the wizards from the land, and why do you spread a snare for my life to destroy it?

¹⁰ And Saul swore to her, and said, As the Lord lives, ‡ no injury shall come upon you on this account.

¹¹ And the woman said, Whom shall I bring up to you? and he said, Bring up to me Samuel.

¹² And the woman saw Samuel, and cried out with a loud voice: and the woman said to Saul, Why have you deceived me? for you are Saul.

¹³ And the king said to her, Fear not; tell me whom you have seen. And the woman said to him, I saw gods ascending out of the earth.

¹⁴ And he said to her, What did you perceive? and she said to him, An upright man ascending out of the earth, and he was clothed with a mantle. And Saul knew that this was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the earth, and did obeisance to him.

¹⁵ And Samuel said, Why have you troubled me, that I should come up? And Saul said, I am greatly distressed, and the Philistines war against me, and God has departed from me, and no longer § hearkens to me either by the hand of the prophets or by dreams: and now I have called you to tell me what I shall do.

18 because you did not listen to the voice of the Lord, and did not execute his fierce anger upon Amalec, therefore the Lord has done this thing to you this day.

19 And the Lord shall deliver Israel with you into the hands of the Philistines, and to-morrow you and your sons with you shall fall, and the Lord shall deliver the army of Israel into the hands of the Philistines.

20 And Saul †† instantly fell at his full length upon the earth, and was greatly afraid because of the words of Samuel; and there was no longer any strength in him, for he had ‡‡ eaten no bread all that day, and all that night.

of bread, and eat, and you shall be strengthened, for you will be going on your way.

²³ But he would not eat; so his servants and the woman constrained him, and he listened to their voice, and rose up from the earth, and sat upon a bench.

²⁴ And the woman had a fat heifer in the house; and she hastened and killed it; and she took meal and kneaded it, and baked unleavened cakes.

²⁵ And she brought the meat before Saul, and before his servants; and they ate, and rose up, and departed that night.

29

¹ And the Philistines gather all their armies to Aphec, and Israel encamped in Aendor, which is in Jezrael.

² And the lords of the Philistines went on * by hundreds and thousands, and David and his men went on in the rear with Anchus.

³ And the lords of the Philistines said, Who are these † that pass by? And Anchus said to the captains of the Philistines, Is not this David the servant of Saul king of Israel? He has been with us ‡ some time, even this second year, and I have not found any fault in him from the day that he attached himself to me even until this day.

to the war, and let him not be a § traitor in the camp: and wherewith will he be reconciled to his master? Will it not be with the heads of those men?

⁵ Is not this David whom they  celebrated in dances, saying, Saul has struck his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

⁶ And Anchus called David, and said to him, As the Lord lives, you are right and approved in my eyes, and so is your going out and your coming in with me in the army, and I have not found any evil to charge against you from the day that you came to me until this day: but you are not approved in the eyes of the lords.

⁷ Now then return and go in peace, thus you shall not do evil in the sight of the lords of the Philistines.

⁸ And David said to Anchus, What have I done to you? and what have you found in your servant from the first day that I was before you even until this day, that I should not come †† and war against the enemies of the lord my king?

⁹ And Anchus answered David, I know that you are good in my eyes, ‡‡ but the lords of the Philistines say, He shall not come with us to the war.

you are good in my sight: and rise early for your journey §§ when it is light, and depart.

¹¹ So David arose early, he and his men, to depart and guard the land of the Philistines: and the Philistines went up to Jezrael to battle.

¹ And it came to pass when David and his men had entered Sekelac on the third day, that Amalec had made an incursion upon the south, and upon Sekelac, and struck Sekelac, and burnt it with fire.

² And as to the women and all things that were in it, great and small, they killed neither man nor woman, but carried them captives, and went on their way.

³ And David and his men came into the city, and, behold, it was burnt with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters were carried captive.

⁴ And David and his men lifted up their voice, and wept till there was no longer any power within them to weep.

⁵ And both the wives of David were carried captive, Achinaam, the Jezraelitess, and Abigaia the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

⁶ And David was greatly distressed, because the people spoke of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, each for his sons and his daughters: but David strengthened himself in the Lord his God.

§§ 29:10 Gr. and let there be light upon you.

8 And David enquired of the Lord, saying, Shall I pursue after this † troop? shall I overtake them? and he said to him, Pursue, for you shall surely overtake them, and you shall surely rescue the captives.

9 So David went, he and the six hundred men with him, an they come as far as the brook Bosor, and the superfluous ones stopped.

10 And he pursued them with four hundred men; and there remained behind two hundred men, who tarried on the other side of the brook Bosor.

11 And they find an Egyptian in the field, and they take him, and bring him to David; and they ‡ gave him bread and he ate, and they caused him to drink water.

12 And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and he ate, and his spirit was § restored in him; for he had not eaten bread, and had not drunk water three days and three nights.

13 And David said to him, Whose are you? and whence are you? and the young man the Egyptian said, I am the servant of an Amalekite; and my master left me, because I was taken ill three days ago.

15 And David said to him, Will you bring me down to this troop? And he said, Swear now to me by God, that you will not kill me, and that you will not deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring you down upon this troop.

16 So he brought him down there, and behold, they were scattered abroad upon the surface of the whole land, eating and drinking, and feasting by reason of all the great spoils which they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Juda.

17 And David came upon them, and struck them from the morning till the evening, and on the next day; and not one of them escaped, except four hundred young men, who were mounted on camels, and fled.

18 And David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken, and he rescued both his wives.

19 And  nothing was lacking to them of great or small, either of the spoils, or the sons and daughters, or anything that they had taken of theirs; and David recovered all.

20 And he took all the flocks, and the herds, and led them away before the spoils: and it was said of these spoils, These are the spoils of David.

21 And David comes to the two hundred men who were left behind that they should not follow after David, and he had caused them to remain †† by the brook of Bosor; and they came forth to meet David, and to meet his people with him: and David drew near to the people, and they asked him how he did.

²² Then every ill-disposed and bad man of the soldiers who had gone with David, answered and said, Because they did not pursue together with us, we will not give them of the spoils which we have recovered, only let each one lead away with him his wife and his children, and let them return.

²³ And David said, You shall not do so, after the Lord has delivered the enemy to us, and guarded us, and the Lord has delivered into our hands the troop that came against us.

²⁴ And who will listen to these your words? for they are not inferior to us; for according to the portion of him that went down to the battle, so shall be the portion of him that abides with the baggage; they shall share alike.

²⁵ And it came to pass from that day forward, that it became an ordinance and a custom in Israel until this day.

²⁶ And David came to Sekelac, and sent of the spoils to the elders of Juda, and to his friends, saying, Behold some of the spoils of the enemies of the Lord;

¹ And the Philistines fought with Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and they fall down wounded in the mountain in Gelbue.

² And the Philistines press closely on Saul and his sons, and the Philistines strike Jonathan, and Aminadab, and Melchisa son of Saul.

³ And the battle prevails against Saul, and the shooters with arrows, even the archers find him, and he was wounded * under the ribs.

⁴ And Saul said to his armour-bearer, Draw your sword and pierce me through with it; lest these uncircumcised come and pierce me through, and mock me. But his armour-bearer would not, for he feared greatly: so Saul took his sword and fell upon it.

⁵ And his armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, and he fell also himself upon his sword, and died with him.

⁶ So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armour-bearer, in that day together.

⁷ And the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley, and those beyond Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead; and they leave their cities and flee: and the Philistines come and dwell in them.

LXX2012: Septuagint in English 2012, British/International English Edition

This is a translation of the Old Testament and Apocrypha/Deuterocanon from Hebrew to Greek to 19th Century British English, with some updates of spelling and word usage to contemporary British/International English. The original English translation was done by Sir Lancelot Charles Lee Brenton and published by Samuel Bagster & Sons, Ltd., in London in 1851. It has entered the Public Domain due to the passage of sufficient time. In the process of scanning and typing the text, the original poetry and prose formatting, as well as peripheral material like introductions and notes, have been omitted.

This edition of the Septuagint has some language updates. Brenton's word order and punctuation has been mostly retained, meaning that quotation marks are not used, and sentences within quotes may not start with capital letters, as was standard usage in 1851. Names transliterated from Greek to those transliterated from Hebrew in the common English Bibles often differ. These language updates are dedicated to the Public Domain by the author of those edits, Michael Paul Johnson. Therefore this edition may be freely copied, published, etc.

Before considering making changes to the text of this work, I recommend that you consult with God, because this is really His Book.

If you find errors in the text, please report them so that we can correct them.

Donations to help with the expenses of operating this web site and thus help others have free access to the Word of God may be made to us, but are not required. Please see <http://MLJohnson.org/partner/> for more about that.
