They finished building according to the command of the God of Israel and the decrees of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, kings of Persia. <sup>15</sup> And this temple was completed on the third day of the month of Adar,§ in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

Dedication of the Temple

<sup>16</sup> Then the people of Israel—the priests, the Levites, and the rest of the exiles—celebrated the dedication of the house of God with joy.

<sup>17</sup> For the dedication of the house of God they offered a hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and a sin offering for all Israel of twelve male goats, one for each tribe of Israel.

<sup>18</sup> They also appointed the priests by their divisions and the Levites by their groups to the service of God in Jerusalem, according to what is written in the Book of Moses.

The Returned Exiles Keep the Passover

And the Levites slaughtered the Passover lamb for all the exiles, for their priestly brothers, and for themselves. <sup>21</sup> The Israelites who had returned from exile ate it, together with all who had separated themselves from the uncleanness of the peoples * of the land to seek the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>22</sup> For seven days they kept the Feast of Unleavened Bread † with joy, because the LORD had made them joyful and turned the heart of the king of Assyria toward them to strengthen their hands in the work on the house of the God of Israel.

Ezra Arrives in Jerusalem

The king had granted Ezra all his requests, for the hand of the LORD his God was upon him. <sup>7</sup> So in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes, he went up to Jerusalem with some of the Israelites, including priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, and temple servants.†

<sup>8</sup> Ezra arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month of the seventh year of the king. <sup>9</sup> He had begun the journey from Babylon on the first day of the first month, and he arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month, for the gracious hand of his God was upon him. <sup>10</sup> For Ezra had set his heart to study the Law of the LORD, to practice it, and to teach its statutes and ordinances in Israel.

Artaxerxes' Letter for Ezra

To Ezra the priest, the scribe of the Law of the God of heaven:

Greetings.§

<sup>13</sup> I hereby decree that any volunteers among the Israelites in my kingdom, including the priests and Levites, may go up with you to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> You are sent by the king and his seven counselors to evaluate Judah and Jerusalem according to the Law of your God, which is in your hand.

<sup>15</sup> Moreover, you are to take with you the silver and gold that the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem, <sup>16</sup> together with all the silver and gold you may find in all the province of Babylon, as well as the freewill offerings of the people and priests to the house of their God in Jerusalem. <sup>17</sup> With this money, therefore, you are to buy as many bulls, rams, and lambs as needed, together with their grain offerings and drink offerings, and offer them on the altar at the house of your God in Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup> You and your brothers may do whatever seems best with the rest of the silver and gold, according to the will of your God.

<sup>19</sup> You must deliver to the God of Jerusalem all the articles given to you for the service of the house of your God. <sup>20</sup> And if anything else is needed for the house of your God that you may have occasion to supply, you may pay for it from the royal treasury.

<sup>25</sup> And you, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God which you possess, are to appoint magistrates and judges to judge all the people west of the Euphrates—all who know the laws of your God. And you are to teach these laws to anyone who does not know them. <sup>26</sup> If anyone does not keep the law of your God and the law of the king, let

<sup>27</sup> Blessed be the LORD, the God of our fathers, who has put into the heart of the king to so honor the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, <sup>28</sup> and who has shown me favor before the king, his counselors, and all his powerful officials.

And because the hand of the LORD my God was upon me, I took courage and gathered the leaders of Israel to return with me.

The Exiles Who Returned with Ezra

from the descendants of Ithamar, Daniel;

from the descendants of David, Hattush <sup>3</sup> of the descendants of Shecaniah;

from the descendants of Parosh, Zechariah, and with him were registered 150 men;

<sup>13</sup> from the later ‡ descendants of Adonikam, these were their names: Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them 60 men;

Ezra Sends for the Levites

<sup>15</sup> Now I assembled these exiles at the canal that flows to Ahava, and we camped there three days. And when I searched among the people and priests, I found no Levites there.

<sup>16</sup> Then I summoned the leaders: Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan,* Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, as well as the teachers Joiarib and Elnathan. <sup>17</sup> And I sent them to Iddo, the leader at Casiphia, with a message for him and his kinsmen, the

<sup>18</sup> And since the gracious hand of our God was upon us, they brought us Sherebiah—a man of insight from the descendants of Mahli son of Levi, the son of Israel—along with his sons and brothers, 18 men; <sup>19</sup> also Hashabiah, together with Jeshaiiah, from the descendants of Merari, and his brothers and their sons, 20 men. <sup>20</sup> They also brought 220 of the temple servants, all designated by name. David and the officials had appointed them to assist the Levites.

Fasting for Protection

<sup>21</sup> And there by the Ahava Canal I proclaimed a fast, so that we might humble ourselves before our God and ask Him for a safe journey for us and our children, with all our possessions. <sup>22</sup> For I was ashamed to ask the king for an escort of soldiers and horsemen to protect us from our enemies on the road, since we had told him, “The hand of our God is gracious to all who seek Him, but His great anger is against all who forsake Him.”

<sup>23</sup> So we fasted and petitioned our God about this, and He granted our request.

<sup>24</sup> Then I set apart twelve of the leading priests, together with Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers, <sup>25</sup> and I weighed out to them the contribution of silver and gold and the articles that the king, his counselors, his leaders, and all the Israelites there had offered for the house of our God.

<sup>28</sup> Then I told them, “You are holy to the LORD, and these articles are holy. The silver and gold are a freewill offering to the LORD, the God of your fathers. <sup>29</sup> Guard them carefully until you weigh them out in the chambers of the house of the LORD in Jerusalem before the leading priests, Levites, and heads of the Israelite families.”

<sup>30</sup> So the priests and Levites took charge of the silver and gold and sacred articles that had been weighed out to be taken to the house of our God in Jerusalem.

<sup>31</sup> On the twelfth day of the first month we set out from the Ahava Canal to go to Jerusalem, and the hand of our God was upon us to protect us from the hands of the enemies and bandits along the way.

Arrival in Jerusalem

<sup>32</sup> So we arrived at Jerusalem and rested there for three days.

<sup>33</sup> On the fourth day, in the house of our God, we weighed out the silver and gold and sacred articles into the hand of Meremoth son of Uriah, the priest. Eleazar son of Phinehas was with him, along with the Levites Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binnui. <sup>34</sup> Everything was verified by number and weight, and the total weight was recorded at that time.

<sup>35</sup> Then the exiles who had returned from captivity sacrificed burnt offerings to the God of Israel: 12 bulls for all Israel, 96 rams, 77 lambs, and a sin offering of 12 male goats. All this was a burnt offering to the LORD.

<sup>36</sup> They also delivered the king’s edicts to the royal satraps ‡ and governors of the region west of the Euphrates,§ who proceeded to assist the people and the house of God.

Intermarriage with Neighboring Peoples

<sup>1</sup> After these things had been accomplished, the leaders approached me and said, “The people of Israel, including the priests and Levites, have not kept themselves separate from the surrounding peoples whose abominations are like those of the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Amorites. <sup>2</sup> Indeed, the Israelites have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and their sons, so that the holy seed has been mixed with the people of the land. And the leaders and officials have taken the lead in this unfaithfulness!”

<sup>3</sup> When I heard this report, I tore my tunic and cloak, pulled out some hair from my head and beard, and sat down in horror.

<sup>4</sup> Then everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel gathered around me because of the unfaithfulness of the exiles, while I sat there in horror until the evening offering.

Ezra’s Prayer of Confession

“O my God, I am ashamed and embarrassed to lift up my face to You, my God, because our iniquities are higher than our heads, and our guilt has reached the heavens. <sup>7</sup> From the days of our fathers to this day, our guilt has been great. Because of our iniquities, we and our kings and priests have been delivered into the hands of the kings of the earth and put to the sword and captivity, to pillage and humiliation, as we are this day.

<sup>8</sup> But now, for a brief moment, grace has come from the LORD our God to preserve for us a remnant and to give us a stake * in His holy place. Even in our bondage, our God has given us new life and light to our eyes. <sup>9</sup> Though we are slaves, our God has not forsaken us in our bondage, but He has extended to us grace in the sight of the kings of Persia, giving us new life to rebuild the house of our God and repair its ruins, and giving us a wall of protection in Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> And now, our God, what can we say after this? For we have forsaken the commandments <sup>11</sup> that You gave through Your servants the prophets, saying: “The land that you are entering to possess is a land polluted by the impurity of its peoples and the abominations with which they have filled it from end to end. <sup>12</sup> Now, therefore, do not give your daughters in marriage to their sons or take their daughters for your sons. Never seek their peace or prosperity, so that you may be strong and may eat the good things of the land, leaving it as an inheritance to your sons forever.”

<sup>13</sup> After all that has come upon us because of our evil deeds and our great guilt (though You, our God, have punished us less than our iniquities deserve and have given us such a remnant as this), <sup>14</sup> shall we again break Your commandments and intermarry with the peoples who commit these abominations? Would You not become so angry with us as to wipe us out, leaving no remnant or survivor?

10

Shecaniah’s Encouragement

---

* 9:8 Or nail or foothold

<sup>2</sup> Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel, an Elamite, said to Ezra: “We have been unfaithful to our God by marrying foreign women from the people of the land, yet in spite of this, there is hope for Israel. <sup>3</sup> So now let us make a covenant before our God to send away all the foreign wives and their children, according to the counsel of my lord and of those who tremble at the command of our God. Let it be done according to the Law. <sup>4</sup> Get up, for this matter is your responsibility, and we will support you. Be strong and take action!”

<sup>5</sup> So Ezra got up and made the leading priests, Levites, and all Israel take an oath to do what had been said. And they took the oath.

The People’s Confession of Sin

<sup>6</sup> Then Ezra withdrew from before the house of God and walked to the chamber of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. And while he stayed * there, he ate no food and drank no water, because he was mourning over the unfaithfulness of the exiles.

<sup>9</sup> So within the three days, all the men of Judah and Benjamin assembled in Jerusalem, and on the twentieth day of the ninth month, all the people sat in the square at the house of God, trembling regarding this matter and because of the heavy rain.

<sup>10</sup> Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, “You have been unfaithful by marrying foreign women, adding to the guilt of Israel. <sup>11</sup> Now, therefore, make a confession to the LORD, the God of your fathers, and do His will. Separate yourselves from the people of the land and from your foreign wives.”

<sup>12</sup> And the whole assembly responded in a loud voice: “Truly we must do as you say! <sup>13</sup> But there are many people here, and it is the rainy season. We are not able to stay out in the open. Nor is this the work of one or two days, for we have transgressed greatly in this matter. <sup>14</sup> Let our leaders represent the whole assembly. Then let everyone in our towns who has married a foreign woman come at an appointed time, together with the elders and judges of each town, until the fierce anger of our God in this matter is turned away from us.”

<sup>16</sup> So the exiles did as proposed. Ezra the priest selected men who were family heads, each of them identified by name, to represent their families. On the first day of the tenth month they launched the investigation, <sup>17</sup> and by the first day of the first month they had dealt with all the men who had married foreign women.

Those Guilty of Intermarriage

Nehemiah

Nehemiah's Prayer (Deuteronomy 30:1-10)

In the month of Chislev,* in the twentieth year, while I was in the citadel of Susa, <sup>2</sup> Hanani, one of my brothers, arrived with men from Judah. So I questioned them about the remnant of the Jews who had survived the exile, and also about Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> And they told me, "The remnant who survived the exile are there in the province, in great trouble and disgrace. The wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates are burned with fire."

<sup>4</sup> When I heard these words, I sat down and wept. I mourned for days, fasting and praying before the God of heaven.

<sup>5</sup> Then I said:

"O LORD, God of heaven, the great and awesome God who keeps His covenant of loving devotion † with those who love Him and keep His commandments, <sup>6</sup> let Your eyes be open and Your ears attentive to hear the prayer that I, Your servant, now pray before You day and night for Your servants, the Israelites.

I confess the sins that we Israelites have committed against You. Both I and my father's house have sinned. <sup>7</sup> We have behaved corruptly against You and have not kept the commandments, statutes, and ordinances that You gave Your servant Moses.

<sup>8</sup> Remember, I pray, the word that You commanded Your servant Moses when You said, 'If you are unfaithful, I will scatter you among the nations, <sup>9</sup> but if you return to Me and keep and practice My commandments, then even if your exiles have been banished to the farthest horizon,‡ I will gather them from there and bring them to the place I have chosen as a dwelling for My Name.'§

<sup>10</sup> They are Your servants and Your people. You redeemed them by Your great power and mighty hand. <sup>11</sup> O Lord, may Your ear be attentive to my prayer and to the prayers of Your servants * who delight to revere Your name. Give Your servant success this day, I pray, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man."

(At that time I was the cupbearer to the king.)

Nehemiah Sent to Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> Now in the month of Nisan,* in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was set before him, I took the wine and gave it to the king. I had never been sad in his presence, <sup>2</sup> so the king said to me, "Why is your face sad, though you are not ill? This could only be sadness of the heart."

I was overwhelmed with fear <sup>3</sup> and replied to the king, “May the king live forever! Why should I not be sad when the city where my fathers are buried lies in ruins, and its gates have been destroyed by fire?”

So I prayed to the God of heaven <sup>5</sup> and answered the king, “If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor in your sight, I ask that you send me to Judah, to the city where my fathers are buried, so that I may rebuild it.”

<sup>6</sup> Then the king, with the queen seated beside him, asked me, “How long will your journey take, and when will you return?” So it pleased the king to send me, and I set a time.

<sup>7</sup> I also said to him, “If it pleases the king, may letters be given to me for the governors west of the Euphrates,† so that they will grant me safe passage until I reach Judah. <sup>8</sup> And may I have a letter to Asaph, keeper of the king’s forest, so that he will give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel to the temple, for the city wall, and for the house I will occupy.”

And because the gracious hand of my God was upon me, the king granted my requests.

<sup>9</sup> Then I went to the governors west of the Euphrates and gave them the king’s letters. The king had also sent army officers and cavalry with me.

<sup>10</sup> But when Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard about this, they were deeply disturbed that someone had come to seek the well-being of the Israelites.

Nehemiah Inspects the Walls

<sup>11</sup> After I had arrived in Jerusalem and had been there three days, <sup>12</sup> I set out at night with a few men. I did not tell anyone what my God had laid on my heart to do for Jerusalem. The only animal with me was the one on which I was riding.

<sup>14</sup> Then I went on to the Fountain Gate and the King’s Pool, but there was no room for the animal under me to get through; <sup>15</sup> so I went up the valley by night and inspected the wall. Then I headed back and reentered through the Valley Gate.

<sup>16</sup> The officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing, for I had not yet told the Jews or priests or nobles or officials or any other workers. <sup>17</sup> Then I said to them, “You see the trouble we are in. Jerusalem lies in ruins, and its gates have been burned down. Come, let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem, so that we will no longer be a disgrace.”

<sup>18</sup> I also told them about the gracious hand of my God upon me, and what the king had said to me.

“Let us start rebuilding,” they replied, and they set their hands to this good work.

<sup>19</sup> But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard about this, they mocked us and ridiculed us, saying, “What is this you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?”

<sup>20</sup> So I answered them and said, “The God of heaven is the One who will grant us success. We, His servants, will start rebuilding, but you have no portion, right, or claim in Jerusalem.”

<sup>3</sup> The Fish Gate was rebuilt by the sons of Hassenaah. They laid its beams and installed its doors, bolts, and bars. <sup>4</sup> Next to them, Meremoth son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, made repairs. Next to him, Meshullam son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabel, made repairs; and next to him, Zadok son of Baana made repairs as well. <sup>5</sup> Next to him, the Tekoites made repairs, but their nobles did not put their shoulders to the work under their supervisors.*

<sup>6</sup> The Jeshanah Gate † was repaired by Joiada son of Paseah and Meshullam son of Besodeiah. They laid its beams and installed its doors, bolts, and bars. <sup>7</sup> Next to them, repairs were made by Melatiah the Gibeonite, Jadon the Meronothite, and the men of Gibeon and Mizpah, who were under the authority of the governor of the region west of the Euphrates.‡ <sup>8</sup> Next to them, Uzziel son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs, and next to him, Hananiah son of the perfumer made repairs. They fortified Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

The Work Ridiculed

<sup>1</sup> Now when Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he was furious and filled with indignation. He ridiculed the Jews <sup>2</sup> before his associates and the army of Samaria, saying, "What are these feeble Jews doing? Can they restore the wall by themselves? * Will they offer sacrifices? Will they complete it in a day? Can they bring these burnt stones back to life from the mounds of rubble?"

<sup>3</sup> Then Tobiah the Ammonite, who was beside him, said, "If even a fox were to climb up on what they are building, it would break down their wall of stones!"

<sup>4</sup> Hear us, O God, for we are despised. Turn their scorn back upon their own heads, and let them be taken as plunder to a land of captivity. <sup>5</sup> Do not cover up their iniquity or let their sin be blotted out from Your sight, for they have provoked the builders. †

<sup>6</sup> So we rebuilt the wall until all of it was joined together up to half its height, for the people had a mind to work.

<sup>7</sup> When Sanballat and Tobiah, together with the Arabs, Ammonites, and Ashdodites, heard that the repair to the walls of Jerusalem was progressing and that the gaps were being closed, they were furious, <sup>8</sup> and all of them conspired to come and fight against Jerusalem and create a hindrance.

Discouragement Overcome

<sup>9</sup> So we prayed to our God and posted a guard against them day and night.

<sup>10</sup> Meanwhile, the people of Judah said: ‡

"The strength of the laborer fails, and there is so much rubble that we will never be able to rebuild the wall."

<sup>11</sup> And our enemies said, "Before they know or see a thing, we will come into their midst, kill them, and put an end to the work."

§ 3:26 Hebrew the Nethinim; also in verse 31 * 4:2 Or Will they commit themselves to God? † 4:5 Or have provoked You to anger before the builders ‡ 4:10 Or Meanwhile, Judah said

<sup>14</sup> After I had made an inspection, I stood up and said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people, "Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your homes."

<sup>15</sup> When our enemies heard that we were aware of their scheme and that God had frustrated it, each of us returned to his own work on the wall. <sup>16</sup> And from that day on, half of my servants did the work while the other half held spears, shields, bows, and armor.

The officers stationed themselves behind all the people of Judah <sup>17</sup> who were rebuilding the wall. The laborers who carried materials worked with one hand and held a weapon with the other. <sup>18</sup> And each of the builders worked with his sword strapped at his side. But the trumpeter stayed beside me.

<sup>19</sup> Then I said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people: "The work is great and extensive, and we are spread out far from one another along the wall. <sup>20</sup> Wherever you hear the sound of the horn, rally to us there. Our God will fight for us!"

<sup>23</sup> So neither I nor my brothers nor my servants nor the guards with me changed out of our clothes; each carried his weapon, even to go for water. §

Nehemiah Defends the Oppressed

<sup>1</sup> About that time there was a great outcry from the people and their wives against their fellow Jews.

<sup>2</sup> Some were saying, "We and our sons and daughters are numerous. We must get grain in order to eat and stay alive."

<sup>4</sup> Still others were saying, "We have borrowed money to pay the king's tax on our fields and vineyards. <sup>5</sup> We and our children are just like our countrymen and their children, yet we are subjecting our sons and daughters to slavery. Some of our daughters are already enslaved, but we are powerless to redeem them because our fields and vineyards belong to others."

<sup>6</sup> When I heard their outcry and these complaints, I became extremely angry, <sup>7</sup> and after serious thought I rebuked the nobles and officials, saying, "You are exacting usury from your own brothers!"

So I called a large assembly against them <sup>8</sup> and said, "We have done our best to buy back our Jewish brothers who were sold to foreigners, but now you are selling your own brothers, that they may be sold back to us!"

But they remained silent, for they could find nothing to say.

<sup>9</sup> So I continued, “What you are doing is not right. Shouldn’t you walk in the fear of our God to avoid the reproach of our foreign enemies? <sup>10</sup> I, as well as my brothers and my servants, have been lending the people money and grain. Please, let us stop this usury. <sup>11</sup> Please restore to them immediately their fields, vineyards, olive groves, and houses, along with the percentage of the money, grain, new wine, and oil that you have been assessing them.”

So I summoned the priests and required of the nobles and officials an oath that they would do what they had promised. <sup>13</sup> I also shook out the folds of my robe and said, “May God likewise shake out of His house and possession every man who does not keep this promise. May such a man be shaken out and have nothing!”

The whole assembly said, “Amen,” and they praised the LORD. And the people did as they had promised.

Nehemiah’s Generosity

<sup>14</sup> Furthermore, from the day King Artaxerxes appointed me to be their governor in the land of Judah, from his twentieth year until his thirty-second year (twelve years total), neither I nor my brothers ate the food allotted to the governor.

<sup>15</sup> The governors before me had heavily burdened the people, taking from them bread and wine plus forty shekels of silver.* Their servants also oppressed the people, but I did not do this because of my fear of God. <sup>16</sup> Instead, I devoted myself to the construction of the wall, and all my servants were gathered there for the work; we did not acquire any land.

<sup>17</sup> There were 150 Jews and officials at my table, besides the guests from the surrounding nations. <sup>18</sup> Each day one ox, six choice sheep, and some fowl were prepared for me, and once every ten days an abundance of all kinds of wine was provided. But I did not demand the food allotted to the governor, because the burden on the people was so heavy.

Sanballat’s Conspiracy

But they were planning to harm me.

<sup>3</sup> So I sent messengers to them, saying, “I am doing a great work and cannot come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it to go down to you?”

<sup>5</sup> The fifth time, Sanballat sent me this same message by his young servant, who had in his hand an unsealed letter <sup>6</sup> that read:

“It is reported among the nations—and Geshem ‡ agrees—that you and the Jews are plotting to revolt, and this is why you are building the wall. According to these reports, you are to become their king, <sup>7</sup> and you have even appointed prophets in Jerusalem to proclaim on your behalf: 'There is a king in Judah.' Soon these rumors will reach the ears of the king. So come, let us confer together."

* 5:15 40 shekels is approximately 1 pound or 453.6 grams of silver. * 6:2 Or in Kephirim † 6:2 Or in the valley ‡ 6:6 Hebrew Gashmu, a variant of Geshem; see verse 1.

<sup>8</sup> Then I sent him this reply: "There is nothing to these rumors you are spreading; you are inventing them in your own mind."

<sup>9</sup> For they were all trying to frighten us, saying, "Their hands will be weakened in the work, and it will never be finished."

But now, my God,§ strengthen my hands.

<sup>10</sup> Later, I went to the house of Shemaiah son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who was confined to his house. He said:

"Let us meet at the house of God inside the temple.
Let us shut the temple doors
because they are coming to kill you—by night they are coming to kill you!"

<sup>11</sup> But I replied, "Should a man like me run away? Should one like me go into the temple to save his own life? I will not go!"

<sup>12</sup> I realized that God had not sent him, but that he had uttered this prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. <sup>13</sup> He had been hired to intimidate me so that I would sin by doing as he suggested, so they could give me a bad name in order to discredit me.

<sup>14</sup> O my God, remember Tobiah and Sanballat for what they have done, and also Noadiah the prophetess and the other prophets who tried to intimidate me.

Completion of the Wall

<sup>15</sup> So the wall was completed in fifty-two days, on the twenty-fifth of Elul.* <sup>16</sup> When all our enemies heard about this, all the surrounding nations were afraid and disheartened, for they realized that this task had been accomplished by our God.

<sup>17</sup> Also in those days, the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and Tobiah's letters came back to them. <sup>18</sup> For many in Judah were bound by oath to him, since he was a son-in-law of Shecaniah son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berechiah.

<sup>19</sup> Moreover, these nobles kept reporting to me Tobiah's good deeds, and they relayed my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to intimidate me.

7

Securing the City

<sup>2</sup> Then I put my brother Hanani in charge of Jerusalem, along with Hananiah the commander of the fortress, because he was a faithful man who feared God more than most. <sup>3</sup> And I told them, "Do not open the gates of Jerusalem until the sun is hot. While the guards are on duty, keep the doors shut and securely fastened. And appoint the residents of Jerusalem as guards, some at their posts and some at their own homes."

<sup>4</sup> Now the city was large and spacious, but there were few people in it, and the houses had not yet been rebuilt. <sup>5</sup> Then my God put it into my heart to assemble the nobles, the officials, and the people to be enrolled by genealogy. I found the genealogical register of those who had first returned, and I found the following written in it:

<sup>6</sup> These are the people of the province who came up from the captivity of the exiles carried away to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar its king. They returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his own town, <sup>7</sup> accompanied by Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah.*

Ezra Reads the Law
(Deuteronomy 31:9-13)

<sup>1</sup> At that time all the people gathered together in the square before the Water Gate, and they asked Ezra the scribe to bring out the Book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded for Israel.

<sup>2</sup> On the first day of the seventh month, Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly of men and women and all who could listen and understand. <sup>3</sup> So Ezra read it aloud from daybreak until noon as he faced the square before the Water Gate, in front of the men and women and those who could understand.

And all the people listened attentively to the Book of the Law.

<sup>5</sup> Ezra opened the book in full view of all the people, since he was standing above them all, and as he opened it, all the people stood up. <sup>6</sup> Then Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God, and with their hands uplifted, all the people said, "Amen, Amen!" Then they bowed down and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

<sup>7</sup> The Levites—Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, and Pelaiah—instructed the people in the Law as they stood in their places. <sup>8</sup> So they read from the Book of the Law of God, explaining it * and giving insight, so that the people could understand what was being read.

<sup>9</sup> Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who were instructing the people said to all of them, "This day is holy to the LORD your God. Do not mourn or weep."

For all the people were weeping as they heard the words of the Law.

<sup>10</sup> Then Nehemiah told them, "Go and eat what is rich, drink what is sweet, and send out portions to those who have nothing prepared, since today is holy to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of the LORD is your strength."

<sup>12</sup> Then all the people began to eat and drink, to send out portions, and to rejoice greatly, because they understood the words that had been made known to them.

(Leviticus 23:33-44; Zechariah 14:16-21)

<sup>13</sup> On the second day of the month, the heads of all the families, along with the priests and Levites, gathered around Ezra the scribe to study the words of the Law. <sup>14</sup> And they found written in the Law, which the LORD had commanded through Moses, that the Israelites were to dwell in booths † during the feast of the seventh month.

<sup>15</sup> So they proclaimed this message and spread it throughout their towns and in Jerusalem, saying, "Go out to the hill country and bring back branches of olive, wild olive,‡ myrtle, palm, and other leafy trees, to make booths, as it is written."§

exile made booths and lived in them. From the days of Joshua * son of Nun until that day, the Israelites had not celebrated like this. And there was great rejoicing.

<sup>18</sup> Day after day, from the first day to the last, Ezra read from the Book of the Law of God. The Israelites kept the feast for seven days, and on the eighth day they held an assembly, according to the ordinance.

The People Confess Their Sins

<sup>3</sup> While they stood in their places, they read from the Book of the Law of the LORD their God for a quarter of the day, and they spent another quarter of the day in confession and worship of the LORD their God.

<sup>4</sup> And the Levites—Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani—stood on the raised platform and cried out in a loud voice to the LORD their God. <sup>5</sup> Then the Levites—Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah—said, “Stand up and bless the LORD your God from everlasting to everlasting:

Blessed be Your glorious name, and may it be exalted above all blessing and praise.

<sup>6</sup> You alone are the LORD.
You created the heavens,
the highest heavens with all their host,
the earth and all that is on it,
the seas and all that is in them.
You give life to all things,
and the host of heaven worships You.

<sup>7</sup> You are the LORD,
the God who chose Abram, who brought him out of Ur of the Chaldeans and gave him the name Abraham.

<sup>8</sup> You found his heart faithful before You,
and made a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites and Hittites, of the Amorites and Perizzites, of the Jebusites and Girgashites—to give it to his descendants.
You have kept Your promise, because You are righteous.

<sup>9</sup> You saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt;
You heard their cry at the Red Sea.*

<sup>10</sup> You performed signs and wonders against Pharaoh, all his officials, and all the people of his land, for You knew they had acted with arrogance against our fathers.
You made a name for Yourself that endures to this day.

and they crossed through it on dry ground.
You hurled their pursuers into the depths

* 8:17 Hebrew Jeshua, a variant of Joshua * 9:9 Or the Sea of Reeds like a stone into raging waters.

12 You led them with a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night, to light for them the way in which they should travel.

13 You came down on Mount Sinai and spoke with them from heaven.
You gave them just ordinances, true laws,
and good statutes and commandments.

14 You revealed to them Your holy Sabbath and gave them commandments and statutes and laws through Your servant Moses.

15 In their hunger You gave them bread from heaven;
in their thirst You brought them water from the rock.
You told them to go in and possess the land which You had sworn to give them.

16 But they and our fathers became arrogant and stiff-necked and did not obey Your commandments.

17 They refused to listen and failed to remember the wonders You performed among them.
They stiffened their necks and appointed a leader to return them to their bondage in Egypt.† But You are a forgiving God, gracious and compassionate,
slow to anger and rich in loving devotion,
and You did not forsake them.

18 Even when they cast for themselves an image of a calf and said,
'This is your God who brought you up out of Egypt,'
and when they committed terrible blasphemies,

19 You in Your great compassion did not forsake them in the wilderness.
By day the pillar of cloud never turned away from guiding them on their path;
and by the night the pillar of fire illuminated the way they should go.

20 You gave Your good Spirit to instruct them.
You did not withhold Your manna from their mouths,
and You gave them water for their thirst.

21 For forty years You sustained them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing.
Their clothes did not wear out and their feet did not swell.

22 You gave them kingdoms and peoples and allotted to them every corner of the land.
So they took the land of Sihon ‡ king of Heshbon and of Og king of Bashan.

23 You multiplied their descendants like the stars of heaven and brought them to the land
You had told their fathers to enter and possess.

24 So their descendants went in and possessed the land;
You subdued before them the Canaanites dwelling in the land.
You delivered into their hands the kings and peoples of the land, to do with them as they wished.

- 25 They captured fortified cities and fertile land and took houses full of all goods, wells already dug,
vineyards, olive groves, and fruit trees in abundance.
So they ate and were filled;
they grew fat and delighted in Your great goodness.
- 26 But they were disobedient and rebelled against You;
they flung Your law behind their backs.
They killed Your prophets,
who had admonished them to return to You.
They committed terrible blasphemies.
- 27 So You delivered them into the hands of enemies who oppressed them, and in their time of distress they cried out to You.
From heaven You heard them,
and in Your great compassion You gave them deliverers who saved them from the hands of their enemies.
- 28 But as soon as they had rest,
they again did evil in Your sight.
So You abandoned them to the hands of their enemies,
who had dominion over them.
When they cried out to You again,
You heard from heaven,
and You delivered them many times in Your compassion.
- 29 You admonished them to turn back to Your law,
but they were arrogant and disobeyed Your commandments.
They sinned against Your ordinances,
by which a man will live if he practices them.
They stubbornly shrugged their shoulders;
they stiffened their necks and would not obey.
- 30 You were patient with them for many years,
and Your Spirit admonished them through Your prophets.
Yet they would not listen,
so You gave them into the hands of the neighboring peoples. §
- 31 But in Your great compassion,
You did not put an end to them;
nor did You forsake them,
for You are a gracious and compassionate God.
- 32 So now, our God, the great and mighty and awesome God who keeps His gracious covenant, do not view lightly all the hardship that has come upon us,
and upon our kings and leaders,
our priests and prophets,
our ancestors and all Your people,
from the days of the kings of Assyria until today.
- 33 You are just in all that has befallen us,
because You have acted faithfully,
while we have acted wickedly.
- 34 Our kings and leaders and priests and fathers did not obey Your law or listen to Your commandments and warnings that You gave them.
- 35 For even while they were in their kingdom, with the abundant goodness that You had given them,

---

§ 9:30 Literally into the hands of the peoples of the lands and in the spacious and fertile land that You had set before them, they would not serve You or turn from their wicked ways.

<sup>36</sup> So here we are today as slaves in the land You gave our fathers to enjoy its fruit and goodness—here we are as slaves!

You have set over us because of our sins.
And they rule over our bodies and our livestock as they please.
We are in great distress.

<sup>38</sup> In view of all this, we make a binding agreement, putting it in writing and sealing it with the names of * our leaders, Levites, and priests.”

The Vows of the Covenant

28 “The rest of the people—the priests, Levites, gatekeepers, singers, temple servants,† and all who had separated themselves from the people of the land to obey the Law of God—along with their wives and all their sons and daughters who are able to understand,<sup>29</sup> hereby join with their noble brothers and commit themselves with a sworn oath to follow the Law of God given through His servant Moses and to carefully obey all the commandments, ordinances, and statutes of the LORD our Lord.

30 We will not give our daughters in marriage to the people of the land, and we will not take their daughters for our sons.

31 When the people of the land bring merchandise or any kind of grain to sell on the Sabbath day, we will not buy from them on a Sabbath or holy day. Every seventh year we will let the fields lie fallow, and will cancel every debt.

32 We also place ourselves under the obligation to contribute a third of a shekel ‡ yearly for the service of the house of our God: <sup>33</sup> for the showbread, for the regular grain offerings and burnt offerings, for the Sabbath offerings, for the New Moons and appointed feasts, for the holy offerings, for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the duties of the house of our God.

34 We have cast lots among the priests, Levites, and people for the donation of wood by our families at the appointed times each year. They are to bring it to the house of our God to burn on the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the Law.

35 We will also bring the firstfruits of our land and of every fruit tree to the house of the LORD year by year. <sup>36</sup> And we will bring the firstborn of our sons and our livestock, as it is written in the Law, and will bring the firstborn of our herds and flocks to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God.

37 Moreover, we will bring to the priests at the storerooms of the house of our God the firstfruits of our dough, of our grain offerings, of the fruit of all our trees, and of our new wine and oil. A tenth of our produce belongs to the Levites, so that they shall receive tithes in all the towns where we labor. <sup>38</sup> A priest of Aaron’s line is to accompany the Levites when they collect the tenth, and the Levites are to bring a tenth of these tithes to the storerooms of the treasury in the house of our God. <sup>39</sup> For the Israelites and the Levites are to bring the contributions of grain, new wine, and oil to the storerooms where the articles of the sanctuary are kept and where the ministering priests, the gatekeepers, and the singers stay.

Thus we will not neglect the house of our God.”

Jerusalem's New Settlers

<sup>1</sup> Now the leaders of the people settled in Jerusalem, and the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of ten to live in the holy city of Jerusalem, while the remaining nine * were to dwell in their own towns. <sup>2</sup> And the people blessed all the men who volunteered to live in Jerusalem.

From the descendants of Judah:

Athaiah son of Uzziyah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, a descendant of Perez; <sup>5</sup> and Maaseiah son of Baruch, the son of Col-hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiyah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, a descendant of Shelah.‡ <sup>6</sup> The descendants of Perez who settled in Jerusalem totaled 468 men of valor.

Sallu son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiyah; <sup>8</sup> and his followers Gabbai and Sallai—928 men. <sup>9</sup> Joel son of Zichri was the officer over them, and Judah son of Hassenuah was over the Second District of the city.§

Jedaiah son of Joiarib;* Jachin; <sup>11</sup> Seraiah son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the chief official of the house of God; <sup>12</sup> and their associates who did the work at the temple—822 men;

Adaiyah son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah; <sup>13</sup> and his associates, the leaders of families—242 men;

Amashai son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer; <sup>14</sup> and his associates †—128 mighty men of valor. Zabdiel son of Haggedolim was their overseer.

Shemaiah son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni; <sup>16</sup> Shabbethai and Jozabad, two leaders of the Levites, who supervised the work outside the house of God; <sup>17</sup> Mattaniah son of Mica, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, who led in thanksgiving and prayer; Bakbukiah, second among his associates; and Abda son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun. <sup>18</sup> The Levites in the holy city totaled 284.

* 11:1 Hebrew nine hands    † 11:3 Hebrew Nethinim; also in verse 21    ‡ 11:5 Or of the Shilonite    § 11:9 Or was over the Second Quarter of the city, a newer section of Jerusalem; or was second in command of the city

Akkub, Talmon, and their associates, who kept watch at the gates—172 men.

12

The Priests and Levites Who Returned

<sup>1</sup> Now these are the priests and Levites who went up with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and with Jeshua:

Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

Joiakim was the father of Eliashib,
 Eliashib was the father of Joiada,
<sup>11</sup> Joiada was the father of Jonathan,‡ and Jonathan was the father of Jaddua.

<sup>12</sup> In the days of Joiakim, these were the heads of the priestly families:

of the family of Seraiah, Meraiah;
 of Jeremiah, Hananiah; <sup>13</sup> of Ezra, Meshullam;
 of Amariah, Jehohanan;
<sup>14</sup> of Malluchi,§ Jonathan;
 of Shebaniah,* Joseph;
 of Meraioth,† Helkai; <sup>16</sup> of Iddo, Zechariah;
 of Ginnethon, Meshullam;
<sup>17</sup> of Abijah, Zichri;
 of Miniamin and of Moadiah,‡ Piltai; <sup>18</sup> of Bilgah, Shammua;
 of Shemaiah, Jonathan; <sup>19</sup> of Joiarib, Mattenai;
 of Jedaiah, Uzzi;
<sup>20</sup> of Sallai,§ Kallai;
 of Amok, Eber;
 and of Jedaiah, Nethanel.

stood across from them to give praise and thanksgiving as one section alternated with the other, as prescribed by David the man of God.

The Dedication of the Wall

<sup>43</sup> On that day they offered great sacrifices, rejoicing because God had given them great joy. The women and children also rejoiced, so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard from afar.

Provisions for Temple Worship

<sup>44</sup> And on that same day men were appointed over the rooms that housed the supplies, contributions, firstfruits, and tithes. The portions specified by the Law for the priests and Levites were gathered into these storerooms from the fields of the villages, because Judah rejoiced over the priests and Levites who were serving.

<sup>47</sup> So in the days of Zerubbabel and Nehemiah, all Israel contributed the daily portions for the singers and gatekeepers. They also set aside daily portions for the Levites, and the Levites set aside daily portions for the descendants of Aaron.

Foreigners Excluded

<sup>1</sup> At that time the Book of Moses was read aloud in the hearing of the people, and in it they found the passage stating that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever enter the assembly of God,* <sup>2</sup> because they had not met the Israelites with food and water, but had hired Balaam to call down a curse against them (although our God had turned the curse into a blessing).

The Temple Cleansed

<sup>4</sup> Now before this, Eliashib the priest, a relative of Tobiah, had been put in charge of the storerooms of the house of our God <sup>5</sup> and had prepared for Tobiah a large room where they had previously stored the grain offerings, the frankincense, the temple articles, and the tithes of grain, new wine, and oil prescribed for the Levites, singers, and gatekeepers, along with the contributions for the priests.

<sup>6</sup> While all this was happening, I was not in Jerusalem, because I had returned to Artaxerxes king of Babylon † in the thirty-second year of his reign. Some time later I obtained leave from the king <sup>7</sup> to return to Jerusalem. Then I discovered the evil that Eliashib had done on behalf of Tobiah by providing him a room in the courts of the house of God.

<sup>8</sup> And I was greatly displeased and threw all of Tobiah's household goods out of the room. <sup>9</sup> Then I ordered that the rooms be purified, and I had the articles of the house of God restored to them, along with the grain offerings and frankincense.

Tithes Restored

<sup>10</sup> I also learned that because the portions for the Levites had not been given to them, all the Levites and singers responsible for performing the service had gone back to their own fields. <sup>11</sup> So I rebuked the officials and asked, "Why has the house of God been neglected?"

Then I gathered the Levites and singers together and stationed them at their posts, <sup>12</sup> and all Judah brought a tenth of the grain, new wine, and oil into the storerooms. <sup>13</sup> I appointed as treasurers over the storerooms Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah of the Levites, with Hanan son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah, to assist them, because they were considered trustworthy. They were responsible for distributing the supplies to their fellow Levites.

<sup>14</sup> Remember me for this, O my God, and do not blot out my deeds of loving devotion for the house of my God and for its services.

The Sabbath Restored (Jeremiah 17:19-27)

<sup>15</sup> In those days I saw people in Judah treading winepresses on the Sabbath and bringing in grain and loading it on donkeys, along with wine, grapes, and figs. All kinds of goods were being brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. So I warned them against selling food on that day. <sup>16</sup> Additionally, men of Tyre who lived there were importing fish and all kinds of merchandise and selling them on the Sabbath to the people of Judah in Jerusalem.

<sup>17</sup> Then I rebuked the nobles of Judah and asked, "What is this evil you are doing—profaning the Sabbath day? <sup>18</sup> Did not your forefathers do the same things, so that our God brought all this disaster on us and on this city? And now you are rekindling His wrath against Israel by profaning the Sabbath!"

<sup>19</sup> When the evening shadows began to fall on the gates of Jerusalem, just before the Sabbath, I ordered that the gates be shut and not opened until after the Sabbath. I posted some of my servants at the gates so that no load could enter on the Sabbath day.

<sup>20</sup> Once or twice, the merchants and those who sell all kinds of goods camped outside Jerusalem, <sup>21</sup> but I warned them, “Why are you camping in front of the wall? If you do it again, I will lay hands on you.” From that time on, they did not return on the Sabbath. <sup>22</sup> Then I instructed the Levites to purify themselves and guard the gates in order to keep the Sabbath day holy.

Remember me for this as well, O my God, and show me mercy according to Your abundant loving devotion.

Intermarriage Forbidden
(Ezra 9:1-4)

Then I made them take an oath before God and said, “You must not give your daughters in marriage to their sons or take their daughters as wives for your sons or for yourselves! <sup>26</sup> Did not King Solomon of Israel sin in matters like this? There was not a king like him among many nations, and he was loved by his God, who made him king over all Israel—yet foreign women drew him into sin. <sup>27</sup> Must we now hear that you too are doing all this terrible evil and acting unfaithfully against our God by marrying foreign women?”

<sup>28</sup> Even one of the sons of Jehoiada son of Eliashib the high priest had become a son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite. Therefore I drove him away from me.

<sup>29</sup> Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and of the Levites.

<sup>30</sup> Thus I purified the priests and Levites from everything foreign, and I assigned specific duties to each of the priests and Levites. <sup>31</sup> I also arranged for contributions of wood at the appointed times, and for the firstfruits.

Remember me, O my God, with favor.

Xerxes' Royal Feast

<sup>3</sup> In the third year of his reign, Xerxes held a feast for all his officials and servants. The military leaders of Persia and Media were there, along with the nobles and princes of the provinces. <sup>4</sup> And for a full 180 days he displayed the glorious riches of his kingdom and the magnificent splendor of his greatness.

<sup>7</sup> Beverages were served in an array of goblets of gold, each with a different design, and the royal wine flowed freely, according to the king's bounty. <sup>8</sup> By order of the king, no limit was placed on the drinking, and every official of his household was to serve each man whatever he desired.

Queen Vashti's Refusal

<sup>10</sup> On the seventh day, when the king's heart was merry with wine, he ordered the seven eunuchs who served him—Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carkas—<sup>11</sup> to bring Queen Vashti before him, wearing her royal crown, to display her beauty to the people and officials. For she was beautiful to behold.

Queen Vashti Deposed

<sup>13</sup> Then the king consulted the wise men who knew the times, for it was customary for him to confer with the experts in law and justice. <sup>14</sup> His closest advisors were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media who had personal access to the king and ranked highest in the kingdom.

<sup>18</sup> This very day the noble women of Persia and Media who have heard about the queen's conduct will say the same thing to all the king's officials, resulting in much contempt and wrath.

<sup>19</sup> So if it pleases the king, let him issue a royal decree, and let it be recorded in the laws of Persia and Media so that it cannot be repealed, that Vashti shall never again enter the presence of King Xerxes, and that her royal position shall be given to a woman better than she. <sup>20</sup> The edict the king issues will be heard throughout his vast kingdom—and so all women, from the least to the greatest, will honor their husbands.”

<sup>21</sup> The king and his princes were pleased with this counsel; so the king did as Memucan had advised. <sup>22</sup> He sent letters to all the provinces of the kingdom, to each province in its own script and to each people in their own language, proclaiming § that every man should be master of his own household.

Seeking Vashti's Successor

<sup>1</sup> Some time later, when the anger of King Xerxes had subsided, he remembered Vashti and what she had done, and what had been decreed against her.

This suggestion pleased the king, and he acted accordingly.

Esther Finds Favor

<sup>5</sup> Now there was at the citadel of Susa a Jewish man from the tribe of Benjamin named Mordecai son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish. <sup>6</sup> He had been carried into exile from Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon among those taken captive with Jeconiah * king of Judah.

<sup>7</sup> And Mordecai had brought up Hadassah (that is, Esther), the daughter of his uncle, because she did not have a father or mother. The young woman was lovely in form and appearance, and when her father and mother had died, Mordecai had taken her in as his own daughter.

<sup>12</sup> In the twelve months before her turn to go to King Xerxes, the harem regulation required each young woman to receive beauty treatments with oil of myrrh for six months, and then with perfumes and cosmetics for another six months. <sup>13</sup> When the young woman would go to the king, she was given whatever she requested to take with her from the harem to the king's palace. <sup>14</sup> She would go there in the evening, and in the morning she would return to a second harem † under the care of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch in charge of the concubines. She would not return to the king unless he delighted in her and summoned her by name.

<sup>15</sup> Now Esther was the daughter of Abihail, the uncle from whom Mordecai had adopted her as his own daughter. And when it was her turn to go to the king, she did not ask for anything except what Hegai, the king's trusted official in charge of the harem, had advised. And Esther found favor in the eyes of everyone who saw her.

<sup>16</sup> She was taken to King Xerxes in the royal palace in the tenth month, the month of Tebeth,‡ in the seventh year of his reign.

Esther Becomes Queen

<sup>17</sup> And the king loved Esther more than all the other women, and she found grace and favor in his sight more than all of the other virgins. So he placed the royal crown upon her head and made her queen in place of Vashti.

<sup>18</sup> Then the king held a great banquet, Esther's banquet, for all his officials and servants. He proclaimed a tax holiday in the provinces and gave gifts worthy of the king's bounty.

<sup>23</sup> After the report had been investigated and verified, both officials were hanged on the gallows. And all this was recorded in the Book of the Chronicles† in the presence of the king.

3

<sup>4</sup> Day after day they warned him, but he would not comply. So they reported it to Haman to see whether Mordecai's behavior would be tolerated, since he had told them he was a Jew.

<sup>5</sup> When Haman saw that Mordecai would not bow down or pay him homage, he was filled with rage. <sup>6</sup> And when he learned the identity of Mordecai's people, he scorned the notion of* laying hands on Mordecai alone. Instead, he sought to destroy all of Mordecai's people, the Jews, throughout the kingdom of Xerxes.

‡ 2:16 Tebeth is the tenth month of the Hebrew lunar calendar, usually occurring within the months of December and January. § 2:19 Or Mordecai had become a palace official * 2:21 Bigthan is a variant of Bighthana; see Esther 6:2. † 2:23 Or the Book of the Annals or the Book of the Historical Events * 3:6 Hebrew he disdained in his eyes † 3:7 Nisan is the first month of the Hebrew lunar calendar, usually occurring within the months of March and April. ‡ 3:7 LXX were cast before Haman—a day and month—and the lot fell on the fourteenth of the month of Adar; Hebrew were cast before Haman a day and month—the twelfth, Adar; the month of Adar (also in verse 13) is the twelfth month of the Hebrew lunar calendar, usually occurring within the months of February and March.

<sup>8</sup> Then Haman informed King Xerxes, “There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the peoples of every province of your kingdom. Their laws are different from everyone else’s, and they do not obey the king’s laws. So it is not in the king’s best interest to tolerate them. <sup>9</sup> If it pleases the king, let a decree be issued to destroy them, and I will deposit ten thousand talents of silver § into the royal treasury to pay those who carry it out.”

<sup>12</sup> On the thirteenth day of the first month, the royal scribes were summoned and the order was written exactly as Haman commanded the royal satraps, the governors of each province, and the officials of each people, in the script of each province and the language of every people. It was written in the name of King Xerxes and sealed with the royal signet ring.

<sup>14</sup> A copy of the text of the edict was to be issued in every province and published to all the people, so that they would be ready on that day. <sup>15</sup> The couriers left, spurred on by the king’s command, and the edict was issued in the citadel of Susa. Then the king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Susa was in confusion.

Mordecai Appeals to Esther

<sup>1</sup> When Mordecai learned of all that had happened, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the middle of the city, wailing loudly and bitterly. <sup>2</sup> But he went only as far as the king’s gate, because the law prohibited anyone wearing sackcloth from entering that gate.

<sup>3</sup> In every province to which the king’s command and edict came, there was great mourning among the Jews. They fasted, wept, and lamented, and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

<sup>10</sup> Then Esther spoke to Hathach and instructed him to tell Mordecai, <sup>11</sup> “All the royal officials and the people of the king’s provinces know that one law applies to every man or woman who approaches the king in the inner court without being summoned—that he be put to death. Only if the king extends the gold scepter may that person live. But I have not been summoned to appear before the king for the past thirty days.”

<sup>12</sup> When Esther's words were relayed to Mordecai, <sup>13</sup> he sent back to her this reply: "Do not imagine that because you are in the king's palace you alone will escape the fate of all the Jews. <sup>14</sup> For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance for the Jews will arise from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. And who knows if perhaps you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

<sup>15</sup> Then Esther sent this reply to Mordecai: <sup>16</sup> "Go and assemble all the Jews who can be found in Susa, and fast for me. Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day, and I and my maidens will fast as you do. After that, I will go to the king, even though it is against the law. And if I perish, I perish!*"

Esther Approaches the King

So the king and Haman went to the banquet that Esther had prepared. <sup>6</sup> And as they drank their wine, the king said to Esther, "What is your petition? It will be given to you. What is your request? Even up to half the kingdom, it will be fulfilled."

<sup>7</sup> Esther replied, "This is my petition and my request: <sup>8</sup> If I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and fulfill my request, may the king and Haman come tomorrow to the banquet I will prepare for them. Then I will answer the king's question."

Haman's Plot against Mordecai

<sup>9</sup> That day Haman went out full of joy and glad of heart. At the king's gate, however, he saw Mordecai, who did not rise or tremble in fear at his presence. And Haman was filled with rage toward Mordecai.

<sup>10</sup> Nevertheless, Haman restrained himself and went home. And calling for his friends and his wife Zeresh, <sup>11</sup> Haman recounted to them his glorious wealth, his many sons, and all the ways the king had honored and promoted him over the other officials and servants.

<sup>12</sup> "What is more," Haman added, "Queen Esther invited no one but me to join the king at the banquet she prepared, and I am invited back tomorrow along with the king. <sup>13</sup> Yet none of this satisfies me as long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate."

<sup>14</sup> His wife Zeresh and all his friends told him, "Have them build a gallows fifty cubits high,* and ask the king in the morning to have Mordecai hanged on it. Then go to the banquet with the king and enjoy yourself."

* 4:16 Or if I am destroyed, then I will be destroyed!

* 5:14 50 cubits is approximately 75 feet or 22.9 meters high.

The advice pleased Haman, and he had the gallows constructed.

Mordecai Is Honored

<sup>1</sup> That night sleep escaped the king; so he ordered the Book of Records, the Chronicles,* to be brought in and read to him. <sup>2</sup> And there it was found recorded that Mordecai had exposed Bigthana † and Teresh, two of the eunuchs who guarded the king's entrance, when they had conspired to assassinate King Xerxes.

"Nothing has been done for him," replied the king's attendants.

Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the palace to ask the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows he had prepared for him. <sup>5</sup> So the king's attendants answered him, "Haman is there, standing in the court."

"Bring him in," ordered the king.

Now Haman thought to himself, "Whom would the king be delighted to honor more than me?"

<sup>13</sup> Haman told his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had happened. His advisers and his wife Zeresh said to him, "Since Mordecai, before whom your downfall has begun, is Jewish, you will not prevail against him—for surely you will fall before him."

Esther Pleads for Her People

* 6:1 Or the Book of Memorials, the Annals or the Book of Records of Historical Events † 6:2 Bigthana is a variant of Bigthan; see Esther 2:21.

It will be given to you. What is your request? Even up to half the kingdom, it will be fulfilled.”

<sup>3</sup> Queen Esther replied, “If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it pleases the king, grant me my life as my petition, and the lives of my people as my request.

And Haman stood in terror before the king and queen.

The Hanging of Haman

<sup>7</sup> In his fury, the king arose from drinking his wine and went to the palace garden, while Haman stayed behind to beg Queen Esther for his life, for he realized that the king was planning a terrible fate for him.

<sup>8</sup> Just as the king returned from the palace garden to the banquet hall, Haman was falling on the couch where Esther was reclining. The king exclaimed, “Would he actually assault the queen while I am in the palace?”

As soon as the words had left the king’s mouth, they covered Haman’s face.

<sup>9</sup> Then Harbonah, one of the eunuchs attending the king, said: “There is a gallows fifty cubits high † at Haman’s house. He had it built for Mordecai, who gave the report that saved the king.”

<sup>10</sup> So they hanged Haman on the gallows he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the fury of the king subsided.

Esther Appeals for the Jews

<sup>3</sup> And once again, Esther addressed the king. She fell at his feet weeping and begged him to revoke the evil scheme of Haman the Agagite, which he had devised against the Jews.

<sup>5</sup> “If it pleases the king,” she said, “and if I have found favor in his sight, and the matter seems proper to the king, and I am pleasing in his sight, may an order be written to revoke the letters that the scheming Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, wrote to destroy the Jews in all the king’s provinces. <sup>6</sup> For how could I bear to see the disaster that would befall my people? How could I bear to see the destruction of my kindred?”

The Decree of Xerxes

* 7:5 Hebrew whose heart has filled him to do † 7:9 50 cubits is approximately 75 feet or 22.9 meters high.

<sup>7</sup> So King Xerxes said to Esther the Queen and Mordecai the Jew, “Behold, I have given Haman’s estate to Esther, and he was hanged on the gallows because he attacked the Jews. <sup>8</sup> Now you may write in the king’s name as you please regarding the Jews, and seal it with the royal signet ring. For a decree that is written in the name of the king and sealed with the royal signet ring cannot be revoked.”

<sup>11</sup> By these letters the king permitted the Jews in each and every city the right to assemble and defend themselves, to destroy, kill, and annihilate all the forces of any people or province hostile to them, including women and children, and to plunder their possessions. <sup>12</sup> The single day appointed throughout all the provinces of King Xerxes was the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar.‡

<sup>16</sup> For the Jews it was a time of light and gladness, of joy and honor. <sup>17</sup> In every province and every city, wherever the king’s edict and decree reached, there was joy and gladness among the Jews, with feasting and celebrating. And many of the people of the land themselves became Jews, because the fear of the Jews had fallen upon them.

The Jews Destroy Their Enemies

<sup>1</sup> On the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar,* the king’s command and edict were to be executed. On this day the enemies of the Jews had hoped to overpower them, but their plan was overturned and the Jews overpowered those who hated them. <sup>2</sup> In each of the provinces of King Xerxes, the Jews assembled in their cities to attack those who sought to harm them. No man could withstand them, because the fear of them had fallen upon all peoples.

<sup>3</sup> And all the officials of the provinces, the satraps, the governors, and the king’s administrators helped the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai had fallen upon them.

of Haman son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, but they did not lay a hand on the plunder.

Haman's Sons Hanged

<sup>11</sup> On that day the number of those killed in the citadel of Susa was reported to the king, <sup>12</sup> who said to Queen Esther, "In the citadel of Susa the Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men, including Haman's ten sons. What have they done in the rest of the royal provinces? Now what is your petition? It will be given to you. And what further do you request? It will be fulfilled."

<sup>14</sup> So the king commanded that this be done. An edict was issued in Susa, and they hanged the ten sons of Haman. <sup>15</sup> On the fourteenth day of the month of Adar, the Jews in Susa came together again and put to death three hundred men there, but they did not lay a hand on the plunder.

<sup>16</sup> The rest of the Jews in the royal provinces also assembled to defend themselves and rid themselves of their enemies. They killed 75,000 who hated them, but they did not lay a hand on the plunder. <sup>17</sup> This was done on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar, and on the fourteenth day they rested, making it a day of feasting and joy.

The Feast of Purim Instituted

<sup>18</sup> The Jews in Susa, however, had assembled on the thirteenth and the fourteenth days of the month. So they rested on the fifteenth day, making it a day of feasting and joy. <sup>19</sup> This is why the rural Jews, who live in the villages, observe the fourteenth day of the month of Adar as a day of joy and feasting. It is a holiday for sending gifts to one another.

<sup>23</sup> So the Jews agreed to continue the custom they had started, as Mordecai had written to them. <sup>24</sup> For Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them and had cast the Pur (that is, the lot) to crush and destroy them. <sup>25</sup> But when it came before the king, he commanded by letter that the wicked scheme which Haman had devised against the Jews should come back upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

Because of all the instructions in this letter, and because of all they had seen and experienced, <sup>27</sup> the Jews bound themselves to establish the custom that they and their descendants and all who join them should not fail to celebrate these two days at the appointed time each and every year, according to their regulation. <sup>28</sup> These days should be remembered and celebrated by every generation, family, province, and city, so that these days of Purim should not fail to be observed among the Jews, nor should the memory of them fade from their descendants.

Tribute to Xerxes and Mordecai

<sup>2</sup> And all of Mordecai's powerful and magnificent accomplishments, together with the full account of the greatness to which the king had raised him, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Media and Persia? <sup>3</sup> For Mordecai the Jew was second only to King Xerxes, preeminent among the Jews and highly favored by his many kinsmen, seeking the good of his people and speaking peace to all his countrymen.

Job

Job's Character and Wealth (James 5:7-12)

<sup>1</sup> There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job. And this man was blameless and upright, fearing God and shunning evil. <sup>2</sup> He had seven sons and three daughters, <sup>3</sup> and he owned 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 500 yoke of oxen, 500 female donkeys, and a very large number of servants. Job was the greatest man of all the people of the East.

<sup>5</sup> And when the days of feasting were over, Job would send for his children to purify them, rising early in the morning to offer burnt offerings for all of them. For Job thought, "Perhaps my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts." This was Job's regular practice.

Satan's First Attack

<sup>6</sup> One day the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan * also came with them.

<sup>7</sup> "Where have you come from?" said the LORD to Satan.

"From roaming through the earth," he replied, "and walking back and forth in it."

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered My servant Job? For there is no one on earth like him, a man who is blameless and upright, who fears God and shuns evil."

<sup>9</sup> Satan answered the LORD, "Does Job fear God for nothing? <sup>10</sup> Have You not placed a hedge on every side around him and his household and all that he owns? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land. <sup>11</sup> But stretch out Your hand and strike all that he has, and he will surely curse You to Your face."

<sup>12</sup> "Very well," said the LORD to Satan. "Everything he has is in your hands, but you must not lay a hand on the man himself."

Then Satan went out from the presence of the LORD.

Job Loses His Children and Possessions

<sup>13</sup> One day, while Job's sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house, <sup>14</sup> a messenger came and reported to Job: "While the oxen were plowing and the donkeys were grazing nearby, <sup>15</sup> the Sabeans swooped down and took them away. They put the servants to the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

<sup>16</sup> While he was still speaking, another messenger came and reported: "The fire of God fell from heaven. It burned and consumed the sheep and the servants, and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

<sup>17</sup> While he was still speaking, another messenger came and reported: "The Chaldeans formed three bands, raided the camels, and took them away. They put the servants to the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

<sup>18</sup> While he was still speaking, another messenger came and reported: "Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house, <sup>19</sup> when suddenly a mighty wind swept in from the desert and struck the four corners of the house. It collapsed on the young people and they are dead, and I alone have escaped to tell you!”

<sup>20</sup> Then Job stood up, tore his robe, and shaved his head. He fell to the ground and worshiped, <sup>21</sup> saying:

“Naked I came from my mother’s womb, and naked I will return.
The LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away.
Blessed be the name of the LORD.”

2

Job Loses His Health

<sup>1</sup> On another day the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan * also came with them to present himself before Him.

<sup>2</sup> “Where have you come from?” said the LORD to Satan.

<sup>7</sup> So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD and infected Job with terrible boils from the soles of his feet to the crown of his head. <sup>8</sup> And Job took a piece of broken pottery to scrape himself as he sat among the ashes.

<sup>9</sup> Then Job’s wife said to him, “Do you still retain your integrity? Curse † God and die!”

<sup>10</sup> “You speak as a foolish woman speaks,” he told her. “Should we accept from God only good and not adversity?”

In all this, Job did not sin in what he said.

Job’s Three Friends

<sup>11</sup> Now when Job’s three friends—Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite—heard about all this adversity that had come upon him, each of them came from his home, and they met together to go and sympathize with Job and comfort him.

<sup>12</sup> When they lifted up their eyes from afar, they could barely recognize Job. They began to weep aloud, and each man tore his robe and threw dust in the air over his head.

<sup>13</sup> Then they sat on the ground with him for seven days and seven nights, but no one spoke a word to him because they saw how intense his suffering was.

Job Laments His Birth

* 2:1 That is, the Accuser or the Adversary; here and throughout Job 2 † 2:9 Or Bless

- <sup>3</sup> “May the day of my birth perish,
and the night it was said,
‘A boy is conceived.’
- <sup>4</sup> If only that day had turned to darkness!
May God above disregard it;
may no light shine upon it.
- <sup>5</sup> May darkness and gloom reclaim it,
and a cloud settle over it;
may the blackness of the day overwhelm it.
- <sup>6</sup> If only darkness had taken that night away!
May it not appear among the days of the year;
may it never be entered in any of the months.
- <sup>7</sup> Behold, may that night be barren;
may no joyful voice come into it.
- <sup>8</sup> May it be cursed by those who curse the day *—
those prepared to rouse Leviathan.
- <sup>9</sup> May its morning stars grow dark;
may it wait in vain for daylight;
may it not see the breaking of dawn.
- <sup>10</sup> For that night did not shut the doors of the womb to hide the sorrow from my eyes.
- <sup>11</sup> Why did I not perish at birth;
why did I not die as I came from the womb?
- <sup>12</sup> Why were there knees to receive me,
and breasts that I should be nursed?
- <sup>13</sup> For now I would be lying down in peace;
I would be asleep and at rest
- <sup>14</sup> with kings and counselors of the earth, who built for themselves cities now in ruins,
- <sup>15</sup> or with princes who had gold,
who filled their houses with silver.
- <sup>16</sup> Or why was I not hidden like a stillborn child, like an infant who never sees daylight?
- <sup>17</sup> There the wicked cease from raging,
and there the weary find rest.
- <sup>18</sup> The captives enjoy their ease;
they do not hear the voice of the oppressor.
- <sup>19</sup> Both small and great are there,
and the slave is freed from his master.
- <sup>20</sup> Why is light given to the miserable, and life to the bitter of soul,
- <sup>21</sup> who long for death that does not come,
and search for it like hidden treasure,
- <sup>22</sup> who rejoice and greatly exult
when they can find the grave?
- <sup>23</sup> Why is life given to a man whose way is hidden, whom God has hedged in?
- <sup>24</sup> I sigh when food is put before me,
and my groans pour out like water.
- <sup>25</sup> For the thing I feared has overtaken me,
and what I dreaded has befallen me.
- <sup>26</sup> I am not at ease or quiet;
I have no rest, for trouble has come.”

Eliphaz: The Innocent Prosper

- 1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:
- 2 "If one ventures a word with you, will you be wearied?
Yet who can keep from speaking?"
- 3 Surely you have instructed many,
and have strengthened their feeble hands.
- 4 Your words have steadied those who stumbled;
you have braced the knees that were buckling.
- 5 But now trouble has come upon you, and you are weary.
It strikes you, and you are dismayed.
- 6 Is your reverence not your confidence, and the uprightness of your ways your hope?
- 7 Consider now, I plead:
- Who, being innocent, has ever perished?
Or where have the upright been destroyed?
- 8 As I have observed, those who plow iniquity and those who sow trouble reap the same.
- 9 By the breath of God they perish,
and by the blast of His anger they are consumed.
- 10 The lion may roar, and the fierce lion may growl, yet the teeth of the young lions are broken.
- 11 The old lion perishes for lack of prey,
and the cubs of the lioness are scattered.
- 12 Now a word came to me secretly;
my ears caught a whisper of it.
- 13 In disquieting visions in the night,
when deep sleep falls on men, 14 fear and trembling came over me and made all my bones shudder.
- 15 Then a spirit * glided past my face,
and the hair on my body bristled.
- 16 It stood still,
but I could not discern its appearance;
a form loomed before my eyes,
and I heard a whispering voice:
- 17 'Can a mortal be more righteous than God,
or a man more pure than his Maker?
- 18 If God puts no trust in His servants, and He charges His angels with error, 19 how much more those who dwell in houses of clay, whose foundations are in the dust,
who can be crushed like a moth!
- 20 They are smashed to pieces from dawn to dusk;
unnoticed, they perish forever.
- 21 Are not their tent cords pulled up,
so that they die without wisdom?'

Eliphaz Continues: God Blesses those Who Seek Him

- 1 "Call out if you please, but who will answer?
To which of the holy ones will you turn?"
- 2 For resentment kills a fool,

* 4:15 Or a wind

- and envy slays the simple.
<sup>3</sup> I have seen a fool taking root,
 but suddenly his house was cursed.
 crushed in court without a defender.
<sup>5</sup> The hungry consume his harvest,
 taking it even from the thorns,
 and the thirsty pant after his wealth.*
<sup>6</sup> For distress does not spring from the dust, and trouble does not sprout from the ground.
<sup>7</sup> Yet man is born to trouble as surely as sparks fly upward.
- <sup>8</sup> However, if I were you, I would appeal to God and lay my cause before Him—<sup>9</sup> the One who does great and unsearchable things, wonders without number.
<sup>10</sup> He gives rain to the earth and sends water upon the fields.
<sup>11</sup> He sets the lowly on high,
 so that mourners are lifted to safety.
<sup>12</sup> He thwarts the schemes of the crafty, so that their hands find no success.
<sup>13</sup> He catches the wise in their craftiness,† and sweeps away the plans of the cunning.
<sup>14</sup> They encounter darkness by day
 and grope at noon as in the night.
<sup>15</sup> He saves the needy from the sword in their mouth and from the clutches of the powerful.
<sup>16</sup> So the poor have hope,
 and injustice shuts its mouth.
- <sup>17</sup> Blessed indeed is the man whom God corrects;
 so do not despise the discipline of the Almighty.‡
<sup>18</sup> For He wounds, but He also binds;
 He strikes, but His hands also heal.
<sup>19</sup> He will rescue you from six calamities;
 no harm will touch you in seven.
<sup>20</sup> In famine He will redeem you from death, and in battle from the stroke of the sword.
<sup>21</sup> You will be hidden from the scourge of the tongue, and will not fear havoc when it comes.
<sup>22</sup> You will laugh at destruction and famine, and need not fear the beasts of the earth.
<sup>23</sup> For you will have a covenant with the stones of the field, and the wild animals will be at peace with you.
<sup>24</sup> You will know that your tent is secure,
 and find nothing amiss when inspecting your home.
<sup>25</sup> You will know that your offspring will be many,
 your descendants like the grass of the earth.
<sup>26</sup> You will come to the grave in full vigor, like a sheaf of grain gathered in season.
- <sup>27</sup> Indeed, we have investigated, and it is true!
 So hear it and know for yourself.”

Job Replies: My Complaint Is Just

* 5:5 Or and a snare snatches his wealth † 5:13 Cited in 1 Corinthians 3:19 ‡ 5:17 Hebrew Shaddai; here and throughout Job

1 Then Job replied:

- 2 "If only my grief could be weighed and placed with my calamity on the scales.
3 For then it would outweigh the sand of the seas—
no wonder my words have been rash.
4 For the arrows of the Almighty have pierced me;
my spirit drinks in their poison;
the terrors of God are arrayed against me.
5 Does a wild donkey bray over fresh grass, or an ox low over its fodder?
6 Is tasteless food eaten without salt,
or is there flavor in the white of an egg *?
7 My soul refuses to touch them;
they are loathsome food to me.
8 If only my request were granted and God would fulfill my hope:
9 that God would be willing to crush me,
to unleash His hand and cut me off!
10 It still brings me comfort, and joy through unrelenting pain, that I have not denied the words of the Holy One.
11 What strength do I have, that I should still hope?
What is my future, that I should be patient?
12 Is my strength like that of stone, or my flesh made of bronze?
13 Is there any help within me
now that success is driven from me?
14 A despairing man should have the kindness of his friend, even if he forsakes the fear of the Almighty.
15 But my brothers are as faithless as wadis,
as seasonal streams that overflow, 16 darkened because of the ice and the inflow of melting snow, 17 but ceasing in the dry season and vanishing from their channels in the heat.
18 Caravans turn aside from their routes;
they go into the wasteland and perish.
19 The caravans of Tema look for water;
the travelers of Sheba hope to find it.
20 They are confounded because they had hoped;
their arrival brings disappointment.
21 For now you are of no help;
you see terror, and you are afraid.
22 Have I ever said, 'Give me something;
offer me a bribe from your wealth;
23 deliver me from the hand of the enemy;
redeem me from the grasp of the ruthless'?
- 24 Teach me, and I will be silent.
Help me understand how I have erred.
25 How painful are honest words!
But what does your argument prove?
26 Do you intend to correct my words,
and treat as wind my cry of despair?
27 You would even cast lots for an orphan

* 6:6 Or in the sap of the mallow plant and barter away your friend.

- 28 But now, please look at me.
 Would I lie to your face?
 29 Reconsider; do not be unjust.
 Reconsider, for my righteousness is at stake.
 30 Is there iniquity on my tongue?
 Can my mouth not discern malice?

Job Continues: Life Seems Futile

- 1 "Is not man consigned to labor on earth?
 Are not his days like those of a hired hand?
 2 Like a slave he longs for shade;
 like a hireling he waits for his wages.
 3 So I am allotted months of futility, and nights of misery are appointed me.
 4 When I lie down I think:
 'When will I get up?'
 But the night drags on,
 and I toss and turn until dawn.
 5 My flesh is clothed with worms and encrusted with dirt;
 my skin is cracked and festering.
 6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle;
 they come to an end without hope.
 7 Remember that my life is but a breath.
 My eyes will never again see happiness.
 8 The eye that beholds me will no longer see me.
 You will look for me, but I will be no more.
 9 As a cloud vanishes and is gone,
 so he who goes down to Sheol does not come back up.
 10 He never returns to his house;
 his place remembers him no more.
 11 Therefore I will not restrain my mouth;
 I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;
 I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
 12 Am I the sea, or the monster of the deep,
 that You must keep me under guard?
 13 When I think my bed will comfort me and my couch will ease my complaint, 14 then You frighten me with dreams and terrify me with visions, 15 so that I would prefer strangling and death
 over my life in this body.
 16 I loathe my life! I would not live forever.
 Leave me alone, for my days are but a breath.
 17 What is man that You should exalt him,
 that You should set Your heart upon him, 18 that You attend to him every morning,
 and test him every moment?
 19 Will You never look away from me, or leave me alone to swallow my spittle?
 20 If I have sinned, what have I done to You,
 O watcher of mankind?
 Why have You made me Your target,

so that I am a burden to You *?
 21 Why do You not pardon my transgression and take away my iniquity?
 For soon I will lie down in the dust;
 You will seek me, but I will be no more.”

Bildad: Job Should Repent

1 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:
 2 “How long will you go on saying such things?
 The words of your mouth are a blustering wind.
 3 Does God pervert justice?
 Does the Almighty pervert what is right?
 4 When your children sinned against Him,
 He gave them over to their rebellion.
 5 But if you would earnestly seek God and ask the Almighty for mercy, 6 if you are pure and upright, even now He will rouse Himself on your behalf and restore your righteous estate.
 7 Though your beginnings were modest,
 your latter days will flourish.
 8 Please inquire of past generations and consider the discoveries of their fathers.
 9 For we were born yesterday and know nothing;
 our days on earth are but a shadow.
 10 Will they not teach you and tell you,
 and speak from their understanding?
 11 Does papyrus grow where there is no marsh?
 Do reeds flourish without water?
 12 While the shoots are still uncut,
 they dry up quicker than grass.
 13 Such is the destiny of all who forget God;
 so the hope of the godless will perish.
 14 His confidence is fragile;
 his security is in a spider’s web.
 15 He leans on his web, but it gives way;
 he holds fast, but it does not endure.
 16 He is a well-watered plant in the sunshine, spreading its shoots over the garden.
 17 His roots wrap around the rock heap;
 he looks for a home among the stones.
 18 If he is uprooted from his place,
 it will disown him, saying, ‘I never saw you.’
 19 Surely this is the joy of his way;
 yet others will spring from the dust.
 20 Behold, God does not reject the blameless, nor will He strengthen the hand of evildoers.
 21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter,
 and your lips with a shout of joy.
 22 Your enemies will be clothed in shame,
 and the tent of the wicked will be no more.”

Job: How Can I Contend with God?

* 7:20 LXX; Hebrew to myself

1 Then Job answered:

- 2 "Yes, I know that it is so,
but how can a mortal be righteous before God?
3 If one wished to contend with God,*
he could not answer Him one time out of a thousand.
4 God is wise in heart and mighty in strength.
Who has resisted Him and prospered?
5 He moves mountains without their knowledge and overturns them in His anger.
6 He shakes the earth from its place,
so that its foundations tremble.
7 He commands the sun not to shine;†
He seals off the stars.
8 He alone stretches out the heavens and treads on the waves of the sea.
9 He is the Maker of the Bear and Orion, of the Pleiades and the constellations of the south.
10 He does great things beyond searching out,
and wonders without number.
11 Were He to pass by me, I would not see Him;
were He to move, I would not recognize Him.
12 If He takes away,‡ who can stop Him?
Who dares to ask Him, 'What are You doing?'
13 God does not restrain His anger;
the helpers of Rahab cower beneath Him.
14 How then can I answer Him or choose my arguments against Him?
15 For even if I were right, I could not answer.
I could only beg my Judge for mercy.
16 If I summoned Him and He answered me,
I do not believe He would listen to my voice.
17 For He would crush me with a tempest and multiply my wounds without cause.
18 He does not let me catch my breath,
but overwhelms me with bitterness.
19 If it is a matter of strength,
He is indeed mighty!
If it is a matter of justice,
who can summon Him §?
20 Even if I were righteous, my mouth would condemn me;
if I were blameless, it would declare me guilty.*
21 Though I am blameless, I have no concern for myself;
I despise my own life.
22 It is all the same, and so I say,
'He destroys both the blameless and the wicked.'
23 When the scourge brings sudden death,
He mocks the despair of the innocent.
24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked;
He blindfolds its judges.
If it is not He, then who is it?
25 My days are swifter than a runner;
they flee without seeing good.
26 They sweep by like boats of papyrus,
like an eagle swooping down on its prey.
27 If I were to say, 'I will forget my complaint

* 9:3 Or If God wished to contend with someone † 9:7 Or rise ‡ 9:12 Or snatches someone in death § 9:19
See LXX; Hebrew me * 9:20 Or He would declare me guilty and change my expression and smile,<sup>7</sup> 28 I would still dread all my sufferings;

 I know that You will not acquit me.
 29 Since I am already found guilty,
 why should I labor in vain?
 30 If I should wash myself with snow † and cleanse my hands with lye, 31 then You would plunge me into the pit,
 and even my own clothes would despise me.
 32 For He is not a man like me, that I can answer Him,
 that we can take each other to court.
 33 Nor is there a mediator between us,
 to lay his hand upon us both.
 34 Let Him remove His rod from me, so that His terror will no longer frighten me.
 35 Then I would speak without fear of Him.
 But as it is, I am on my own.

Job's Plea to God

1 "I loathe my own life;
 I will express my complaint and speak in the bitterness of my soul.
 2 I will say to God:
 Do not condemn me!
 Let me know why You prosecute me.
 3 Does it please You to oppress me, to reject the work of Your hands and favor the schemes of the wicked?
 4 Do You have eyes of flesh?
 Do You see as man sees?
 5 Are Your days like those of a mortal, or Your years like those of a man,
 6 that You should seek my iniquity and search out my sin—
 7 though You know that I am not guilty, and there is no deliverance from Your hand?
 8 Your hands shaped me and altogether formed me.
 Would You now turn and destroy me?
 9 Please remember that You molded me like clay.
 Would You now return me to dust?
 10 Did You not pour me out like milk,
 and curdle me like cheese?
 11 You clothed me with skin and flesh,
 and knit me together with bones and sinews.
 12 You have granted me life and loving devotion,* and Your care has preserved my spirit.
 13 Yet You concealed these things in Your heart, and I know that this was in Your mind:
 14 If I sinned, You would take note,
 and would not acquit me of my iniquity.
 15 If I am guilty, woe to me!
 And even if I am righteous, I cannot lift my head.
 I am full of shame

† 9:30 Or soap * 10:12 Forms of the Hebrew chesed are translated here and in most cases throughout the Scriptures as loving devotion; the range of meaning includes love, goodness, kindness, faithfulness, and mercy, as well as loyalty to a covenant.

and aware of my affliction.
 16 Should I hold my head high,
     You would hunt me like a lion,
     and again display Your power against me.
 17 You produce new witnesses against me and multiply Your anger toward me.
 Hardships assault me
     in wave after wave.
 18 Why then did You bring me from the womb?
     Oh, that I had died, and no eye had seen me!
 19 If only I had never come to be,
     but had been carried from the womb to the grave.
 20 Are my days not few?
     Withdraw from me, that I may have a little comfort, 21 before I go—never to return—
     to a land of darkness and gloom, 22 to a land of utter darkness,
     of deep shadow and disorder, where even the light is like darkness.”

Zophar Rebukes Job

1 Then Zophar the Naamathite replied:
 2 “Should this stream of words go unanswered and such a speaker be vindicated?
 3 Should your babbling put others to silence?
     Will you scoff without rebuke?
 4 You have said, ‘My doctrine is sound, and I am pure in Your sight.’
 5 But if only God would speak and open His lips against you, 6 and disclose to you the secrets of wisdom,
     for true wisdom has two sides.
 Know then that God exacts from you less than your iniquity deserves.
 7 Can you fathom the deep things of God or discover the limits of the Almighty?
 8 They are higher than the heavens—what can you do?
     They are deeper than Sheol—what can you know?
 9 Their measure is longer than the earth and wider than the sea.
 10 If He comes along to imprison you,
     or convenes a court, who can stop Him?
 11 Surely He knows the deceit of men.
     If He sees iniquity, does He not take note?
 12 But a witless man can no more become wise than the colt of a wild donkey can be born a man!*

13 As for you, if you direct your heart and lift up your hands to Him, 14 if you put away the iniquity in your hand,
     and allow no injustice to dwell in your tents, 15 then indeed you will lift up your face without shame;
     you will stand firm and unafraid.
 16 For you will forget your misery,

* 11:12 Or can be born tame recalling it only as waters gone by.

- 17 Your life will be brighter than noonday;
its darkness will be like the morning.
18 You will be secure, because there is hope,
and you will look around and lie down in safety.
19 You will lie down without fear,
and many will court your favor.
20 But the eyes of the wicked will fail,
and escape will elude them;
they will hope for their last breath.”

Job Presents His Case

- 1 Then Job answered:
2 “Truly then you are the people with whom wisdom itself will die!
3 But I also have a mind;
I am not inferior to you.
Who does not know such things as these?
4 I am a laughingstock to my friends,
though I called on God, and He answered.
The righteous and upright man is a laughingstock.
5 The one at ease scorns misfortune as the fate of those whose feet are slipping.
6 The tents of robbers are safe, and those who provoke God are secure—those who carry their god in their hands.*
7 But ask the animals, and they will instruct you;
ask the birds of the air, and they will tell you.
8 Or speak to the earth, and it will teach you;
let the fish of the sea inform you.
9 Which of all these does not know that the hand of the LORD has done this?
10 The life of every living thing is in His hand,
as well as the breath of all mankind.
11 Does not the ear test words
as the tongue tastes its food?
12 Wisdom is found with the elderly, and understanding comes with long life.
13 Wisdom and strength belong to God; counsel and understanding are His.
14 What He tears down cannot be rebuilt;
the man He imprisons cannot be released.
15 If He holds back the waters, they dry up,
and if He releases them, they overwhelm the land.
16 True wisdom and power belong to Him.
The deceived and the deceiver are His.
17 He leads counselors away barefoot and makes fools of judges.
18 He loosens the bonds placed by kings and fastens a belt around their waists.
19 He leads priests away barefoot and overthrows the established.
20 He deprives the trusted of speech

* 12:6 Or though God keeps them in His power

- and takes away the discernment of elders.
 21 He pours out contempt on nobles and disarms the mighty.
 22 He reveals the deep things of darkness and brings deep shadows into light.
 23 He makes nations great and destroys them;
 He enlarges nations, then disperses them.
 24 He deprives the earth's leaders of reason and makes them wander in a trackless wasteland.
 25 They grope in the darkness without light;
 He makes them stagger like drunkards.

Job Prepares His Case

- 1 "Indeed, my eyes have seen all this;
 my ears have heard and understood.
 2 What you know, I also know;
 I am not inferior to you.
 3 Yet I desire to speak to the Almighty and argue my case before God.
 4 You, however, smear with lies;
 you are all worthless physicians.
 5 If only you would remain silent;
 for that would be your wisdom!
- 6 Hear now my argument,
 and listen to the plea of my lips.
 7 Will you speak wickedly on God's behalf or speak deceitfully for Him?
 8 Would you show Him partiality or argue in His defense?
 9 Would it be well when He examined you?
 Could you deceive Him like a man?
 10 Surely He would rebuke you if you secretly showed partiality.
 11 Would His majesty not terrify you?
 Would the dread of Him not fall upon you?
 12 Your maxims are proverbs of ashes;
 your defenses are defenses of clay.
- 13 Be silent, and I will speak.
 Then let come to me what may.
 14 Why do I put myself at risk * and take my life in my own hands?
 15 Though He slay me, I will hope in Him. †
 I will still defend my ways to His face.
 16 Moreover, this will be my salvation,
 for no godless man can appear before Him.
 17 Listen carefully to my words;
 let my declaration ring in your ears.
 18 Behold, now that I have prepared my case,
 I know that I will be vindicated.
 19 Can anyone indict me?
 If so, I will be silent and die.
- 20 Only grant these two things to me,
 so that I need not hide from You:
 21 Withdraw Your hand from me,

* 13:14 Literally Why do I take my flesh in my teeth † 13:15 Or I have no other hope

- and do not let Your terror frighten me.
 22 Then call me, and I will answer, or let me speak, and You can reply.
 23 How many are my iniquities and sins?
     Reveal to me my transgression and sin.
 24 Why do You hide Your face and consider me as Your enemy?
 25 Would You frighten a windblown leaf?
     Would You chase after dry chaff?
 26 For You record bitter accusations against me and bequeath to me the iniquities of my youth.
 27 You put my feet in the stocks and stand watch over all my paths;
 You set a limit
     for the soles of my feet.
 28 So man wastes away like something rotten,
     like a moth-eaten garment.

Job Laments the Finality of Death

- 1 "Man, who is born of woman, is short of days and full of trouble.
 2 Like a flower, he comes forth, then withers away;
     like a fleeting shadow, he does not endure.
 3 Do You open Your eyes to one like this?
     Will You bring him into judgment before You?
 4 Who can bring out clean from unclean?
     No one!
 5 Since his days are determined and the number of his months is with You, and since You have set limits that he cannot exceed,
 6 look away from him and let him rest,
     so he can enjoy his day as a hired hand.
 7 For there is hope for a tree:
     If it is cut down, it will sprout again,
     and its tender shoots will not fail.
 8 If its roots grow old in the ground and its stump dies in the soil, 9 at the scent of water it will bud and put forth twigs like a sapling.
 10 But a man dies and is laid low;
     he breathes his last, and where is he?
 11 As water disappears from the sea and a river becomes parched and dry, 12 so a man lies down
     and does not rise.
 Until the heavens are no more,
     he will not be awakened or roused from sleep.
 13 If only You would hide me in Sheol and conceal me until Your anger has passed!
 If only You would appoint a time for me
     and then remember me!
 14 When a man dies, will he live again?
     All the days of my hard service I will wait, until my renewal * comes.

* 14:14 Or my change or my relief

- 15 You will call, and I will answer;
 You will desire the work of Your hands.
- 16 For then You would count my steps,
 but would not keep track of my sin.
- 17 My transgression would be sealed in a bag,
 and You would cover over my iniquity.
- 18 But as a mountain erodes and crumbles and a rock is dislodged from its place, 19 as water wears away the stones and torrents wash away the soil, so You destroy a man's hope.
- 20 You forever overpower him, and he passes on;
 You change his countenance and send him away.
- 21 If his sons receive honor, he does not know it;
 if they are brought low, he is unaware.
- 22 He feels only the pain of his own body and mourns only for himself."

Eliphaz: Job Does Not Fear God

- 1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:
- 2 "Does a wise man answer with empty counsel or fill his belly with the hot east wind?
 3 Should he argue with useless words or speeches that serve no purpose?
 4 But you even undermine the fear of God and hinder meditation before Him.
 5 For your iniquity instructs your mouth,
 and you choose the language of the crafty.
 6 Your own mouth, not mine, condemns you;
 your own lips testify against you.
- 7 Were you the first man ever born?
 Were you brought forth before the hills?
 8 Do you listen in on the council of God or limit wisdom to yourself?
 9 What do you know that we do not?
 What do you understand that is not clear to us?
 10 Both the gray-haired and the aged are on our side—men much older than your father.
 11 Are the consolations of God not enough for you, even words spoken gently to you?
 12 Why has your heart carried you away, and why do your eyes flash,* 13 as you turn your spirit against God and pour such words from your mouth?
- 14 What is man, that he should be pure,
 or one born of woman, that he should be righteous?
 15 If God puts no trust in His holy ones,
 if even the heavens are not pure in His eyes, 16 how much less man, who is vile and corrupt, who drinks injustice like water?
 17 Listen to me and I will inform you.
 I will describe what I have seen, 18 what was declared by wise men and was not concealed from their fathers,

* 15:12 Or blink

- 19 to whom alone the land was given when no foreigner passed among them.
- 20 A wicked man writhes in pain all his days;
only a few years are reserved for the ruthless.
- 21 Sounds of terror fill his ears;
in his prosperity the destroyer attacks him.
- 22 He despairs of his return from darkness;
he is marked for the sword.
- 23 He wanders about as food for vultures;
he knows the day of darkness is at hand.
- 24 Distress and anguish terrify him, overwhelming him like a king poised to attack.
- 25 For he has stretched out his hand against God and has vaunted himself against the Almighty, 26 rushing headlong at Him with a thick, studded shield.
- 27 Though his face is covered with fat and his waistline bulges with flesh, 28 he will dwell in ruined cities,
in abandoned houses destined to become rubble.
- 29 He will no longer be rich; his wealth will not endure.
His possessions will not overspread the land.
- 30 He will not escape from the darkness;
the flame will wither his shoots,
and the breath of God's mouth will carry him away.
- 31 Let him not deceive himself with trust in emptiness, for emptiness will be his reward.
- 32 It will be paid in full before his time,
and his branch will not flourish.
- 33 He will be like a vine stripped of its unripe grapes, like an olive tree that sheds its blossoms.
- 34 For the company of the godless will be barren,
and fire will consume the tents of bribery.
- 35 They conceive trouble and give birth to evil;
their womb is pregnant with deceit."

Job Decries His Comforters

- 1 Then Job answered:
- 2 "I have heard many things like these;
miserable comforters are you all.
- 3 Is there no end to your long-winded speeches?
What provokes you to continue testifying?
- 4 I could also speak like you
if you were in my place;
I could heap up words against you and shake my head at you.
- 5 But I would encourage you with my mouth,
and the consolation of my lips would bring relief.
- 6 Even if I speak, my pain is not relieved,
and if I hold back, how will it go away?
- 7 Surely He has now exhausted me;
You have devastated all my family.
- 8 You have bound me, and it has become a witness;
my frailty rises up and testifies against me.

- 9 His anger has torn me and opposed me;
 He gnashes His teeth at me.
 My adversary pierces me with His eyes.
- 10 They open their mouths against me and strike my cheeks with contempt;
 they join together against me.
- 11 God has delivered me to unjust men;
 He has thrown me to the clutches of the wicked.
- 12 I was at ease, but He shattered me;
 He seized me by the neck and crushed me.
 He has set me up as His target;
 13 His archers surround me.
 He pierces my kidneys without mercy and spills my gall on the ground.
- 14 He breaks me with wound upon wound;
 He rushes me like a mighty warrior.
- 15 I have sewn sackcloth over my skin;
 I have buried my horn in the dust.
- 16 My face is red with weeping,
 and deep shadows ring my eyes;
- 17 yet my hands are free of violence and my prayer is pure.
- 18 O earth, do not cover my blood;
 may my cry for help never be laid to rest.
- 19 Even now my witness is in heaven,
 and my advocate is on high.
- 20 My friends are my scoffers
 as my eyes pour out tears to God.
- 21 Oh, that a man might plead with God
 as he pleads with his neighbor!
- 22 For when only a few years are past
 I will go the way of no return.

17

Job Prepares for Death

- 1 "My spirit is broken; my days are extinguished;
 the grave awaits me.
- 2 Surely mockers surround me,
 and my eyes must gaze at their rebellion.
- 3 Give me, I pray, the pledge You demand.
 Who else will be my guarantor?
- 4 You have closed their minds to understanding;
 therefore You will not exalt them.
- 5 If a man denounces his friends for a price,
 the eyes of his children will fail.
- 6 He has made me a byword among the people,
 a man in whose face they spit.
- 7 My eyes have grown dim with grief,
 and my whole body is but a shadow.
- 8 The upright are appalled at this,
 and the innocent are stirred against the godless.
- 9 Yet a righteous one holds to his way,
 and the one with clean hands grows stronger.
- 10 But come back and try again, all of you.
 For I will not find a wise man among you.

- 11 My days have passed; my plans are broken off—
even the desires of my heart.
12 They have turned night into day, making light seem near in the face of darkness.
13 If I look for Sheol as my home,
if I spread out my bed in darkness,
14 and say to corruption, 'You are my father,' and to the worm, 'My mother,' or 'My sister,' 15 where then is my hope?
Who can see any hope for me?
16 Will it go down to the gates of Sheol?
Will we go down together into the dust?"

Bildad: God Punishes the Wicked

- 1 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:
2 "How long until you end these speeches?
Show some sense, and then we can talk.
3 Why are we regarded as cattle,
as stupid in your sight?
4 You who tear yourself in anger—should the earth be forsaken on your account, or the rocks be moved from their place?
5 Indeed, the lamp of the wicked is extinguished;
the flame of his fire does not glow.
6 The light in his tent grows dark,
and the lamp beside him goes out.
7 His vigorous stride is shortened, and his own schemes trip him up.
8 For his own feet lead him into a net,
and he wanders into its mesh.
9 A trap seizes his heel;
a snare grips him.
10 A noose is hidden in the ground, and a trap lies in his path.
11 Terrors frighten him on every side and harass his every step.
12 His strength is depleted, and calamity is ready at his side.
13 It devours patches of his skin;
the firstborn of death devours his limbs.
14 He is torn from the shelter of his tent and is marched off to the king of terrors.
15 Fire resides in his tent;
burning sulfur rains down on his dwelling.
16 The roots beneath him dry up,
and the branches above him wither away.
17 The memory of him perishes from the earth, and he has no name in the land.
18 He is driven from light into darkness and is chased from the inhabited world.
19 He has no offspring or posterity among his people,
no survivor where he once lived.
20 Those in the west are appalled at his fate,
while those in the east tremble in horror.
21 Surely such is the dwelling of the wicked and the place of one who does not know God."

19

Job: My Redeemer Lives

- 1 Then Job answered:
- 2 "How long will you torment me and crush me with your words?
- 3 Ten times now you have reproached me;
you shamelessly mistreat me.
- 4 Even if I have truly gone astray,
my error concerns me alone.
- 5 If indeed you would exalt yourselves above me
and use my disgrace against me,
- 6 then understand that it is God who has wronged me and drawn His net around me.
- 7 Though I cry out, 'Violence!' I get no response;
though I call for help, there is no justice.
- 8 He has blocked my way so I cannot pass;
He has veiled my paths with darkness.
- 9 He has stripped me of my honor and removed the crown from my head.
- 10 He tears me down on every side until I am gone;
He uproots my hope like a tree.
- 11 His anger burns against me,
and He counts me among His enemies.
- 12 His troops advance together;
they construct a ramp against me
and encamp around my tent.
- 13 He has removed my brothers from me;
my acquaintances have abandoned me.
- 14 My kinsmen have failed me,
and my friends have forgotten me.
- 15 My guests and maidservants count me as a stranger;
I am a foreigner in their sight.
- 16 I call for my servant, but he does not answer;
though I implore him with my own mouth.
- 17 My breath is repulsive to my wife, and I am loathsome to my own family.
- 18 Even little boys scorn me;
when I appear, they deride me.
- 19 All my best friends despise me,
and those I love have turned against me.
- 20 My skin and flesh cling to my bones;
I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.
- 21 Have pity on me, my friends, have pity,
for the hand of God has struck me.
- 22 Why do you persecute me as God does?
Will you never get enough of my flesh?
- 23 I wish that my words were recorded and inscribed in a book, 24 by an iron stylus on lead, or chiseled in stone forever.
- 25 But I know that my Redeemer * lives, and in the end He will stand upon the earth.†
- 26 Even after my skin has been destroyed, yet in my flesh ‡ I will see God.

* 19:25 Or Vindicator † 19:25 Or on my grave ‡ 19:26 Or without my flesh

27 I will see Him for myself;
 my eyes will behold Him, and not as a stranger.
 How my heart yearns § within me!

28 If you say, 'Let us persecute him, since the root of the matter lies with him,*' 29 then you should fear the sword yourselves, because wrath brings punishment by the sword,
 so that you may know there is a judgment."

Zophar: Destruction Awaits the Wicked

1 Then Zophar the Naamathite replied:
 2 "So my anxious thoughts compel me to answer,
 because of the turmoil within me.
 3 I have heard a rebuke that insults me,
 and my understanding prompts a reply.
 4 Do you not know that from antiquity,
 since man was placed on the earth,
 5 the triumph of the wicked has been brief and the joy of the godless momentary?
 6 Though his arrogance reaches the heavens,
 and his head touches the clouds, 7 he will perish forever, like his own dung;
 those who had seen him will ask, 'Where is he?'
 8 He will fly away like a dream, never to be found;
 he will be chased away like a vision in the night.
 9 The eye that saw him will see him no more,
 and his place will no longer behold him.
 10 His sons will seek the favor of the poor,
 for his own hands must return his wealth.
 11 The youthful vigor that fills his bones will lie down with him in the dust.
 12 Though evil is sweet in his mouth and he conceals it under his tongue, 13 though he cannot bear to let it go and keeps it in his mouth, 14 yet in his stomach his food sours into the venom of cobras within him.
 15 He swallows wealth but vomits it out;
 God will force it from his stomach.
 16 He will suck the poison of cobras;
 the fangs of a viper will kill him.
 17 He will not enjoy the streams,
 the rivers flowing with honey and cream.
 18 He must return the fruit of his labor without consuming it;
 he cannot enjoy the profits of his trading.
 19 For he has oppressed and forsaken the poor;
 he has seized houses he did not build.
 20 Because his appetite is never satisfied,
 he cannot escape with his treasure.
 21 Nothing is left for him to consume;
 thus his prosperity will not endure.
 22 In the midst of his plenty, he will be distressed;

§ 19:27 Hebrew my kidneys yearn * 19:28 Many Hebrew manuscripts, LXX, and Vulgate; most Hebrew manuscripts with me

- the full force of misery will come upon him.
 23 When he has filled his stomach,
     God will vent His fury upon him,
     raining it down on him as he eats.
 24 Though he flees from an iron weapon,
     a bronze-tipped arrow will pierce him.
 25 It is drawn out of his back, the gleaming point from his liver.*
     Terrors come over him.
 26 Total darkness is reserved for his treasures.
     A fire unfanned will consume him and devour what is left in his tent.
 27 The heavens will expose his iniquity,
     and the earth will rise up against him.
 28 The possessions of his house will be removed,
     flowing away on the day of God's wrath.
 29 This is the wicked man's portion from God,
     the inheritance God has appointed him."

Job: God Will Punish the Wicked

- 1 Then Job answered:
 2 "Listen carefully to my words;
     let this be your consolation to me.
 3 Bear with me while I speak;
     then, after I have spoken, you may go on mocking.
 4 Is my complaint against a man?
     Then why should I not be impatient?
 5 Look at me and be appalled;
     put your hand over your mouth.
 6 When I remember, terror takes hold,
     and my body trembles in horror.
 7 Why do the wicked live on,
     growing old and increasing in power?
 8 Their descendants are established around them,
     and their offspring before their eyes.
 9 Their homes are safe from fear;
     no rod of punishment from God is upon them.
 10 Their bulls breed without fail;
     their cows bear calves and do not miscarry.
 11 They send forth their little ones like a flock;
     their children skip about, 12 singing to the tambourine and lyre and making merry at the sound of the flute.
 13 They spend their days in prosperity and go down to Sheol in peace.*
 14 Yet they say to God: 'Leave us alone!
     For we have no desire to know Your ways.
 15 Who is the Almighty, that we should serve Him,
     and what would we gain if we pray to Him?'
 16 Still, their prosperity is not in their own hands,
     so I stay far from the counsel of the wicked.
 17 How often is the lamp of the wicked put out?
     Does disaster come upon them?
     Does God, in His anger, apportion destruction?

* 20:25 Literally from his gall      * 21:13 Or in an instant

- 18 Are they like straw before the wind, like chaff swept away by a storm?
- 19 It is said that God lays up one's punishment for his children.
Let God repay the man himself, so he will know it.
- 20 Let his eyes see his own destruction;
let him drink for himself the wrath of the Almighty.
- 21 For what does he care about his household after him,
when the number of his months has run out?
- 22 Can anyone teach knowledge to God,
since He judges those on high?
- 23 One man dies full of vigor, completely secure and at ease.
- 24 His body is well nourished,†
and his bones are rich with marrow.
- 25 Yet another man dies in the bitterness of his soul, having never tasted prosperity.
- 26 But together they lie down in the dust,
and worms cover them both.
- 27 Behold, I know your thoughts full well,
the schemes by which you would wrong me.
- 28 For you say, 'Where now is the nobleman's house,
and where are the tents in which the wicked dwell?'
- 29 Have you never asked those who travel the roads?
Do you not accept their reports?
- 30 Indeed, the evil man is spared from the day of calamity, delivered from the day of wrath.
- 31 Who denounces his behavior to his face?
Who repays him for what he has done?
- 32 He is carried to the grave,
and watch is kept over his tomb.
- 33 The clods of the valley are sweet to him;
everyone follows behind him,
and those before him are without number.
- 34 So how can you comfort me with empty words?
For your answers remain full of falsehood."

Eliphaz: Can a Man Be of Use to God?

- 1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:
- 2 "Can a man be of use to God?
Can even a wise man benefit Him?
- 3 Does it delight the Almighty that you are righteous?
Does He profit if your ways are blameless?
- 4 Is it for your reverence that He rebukes you and enters into judgment against you?
- 5 Is not your wickedness great?
Are not your iniquities endless?
- 6 For you needlessly demanded security from your brothers and deprived the naked of their clothing.
- 7 You gave no water to the weary and withheld food from the famished, 8 while the land belonged to a mighty man,
and a man of honor lived on it.
- 9 You sent widows away empty-handed,

† 21:24 Literally His pails are full of milk

- and the strength of the fatherless was crushed.
 10 Therefore snares surround you,
 and sudden peril terrifies you;
 11 it is so dark you cannot see,
 and a flood of water covers you.
- 12 Is not God as high as the heavens?
 Look at the highest stars, how lofty they are!
 13 Yet you say: 'What does God know?
 Does He judge through thick darkness?
 14 Thick clouds veil Him so He does not see us as He traverses the vault of heaven.*
- 15 Will you stay on the ancient path that wicked men have trod?
 16 They were snatched away before their time,
 and their foundations were swept away by a flood.
 17 They said to God, 'Depart from us.
 What can the Almighty do to us?'
 18 But it was He who filled their houses with good things;
 so I stay far from the counsel of the wicked.
 19 The righteous see it and are glad;
 the innocent mock them:
 20 'Surely our foes are destroyed, and fire has consumed their excess.'
- 21 Reconcile now and be at peace with Him;
 thereby good will come to you.
 22 Receive instruction from His mouth, and lay up His words in your heart.
 23 If you return to the Almighty, you will be restored.
 If you remove injustice from your tents 24 and consign your gold to the dust and the gold of Ophir to the stones of the ravines, 25 then the Almighty will be your gold and the finest silver for you.
 26 Surely then you will delight in the Almighty and lift up your face to God.
 27 You will pray to Him, and He will hear you,
 and you will fulfill your vows.
 28 Your decisions will be carried out,
 and light will shine on your ways.
 29 When men are brought low and you say, 'Lift them up!'
 then He will save the lowly.
 30 He will deliver even one who is not innocent, rescuing him through the cleanness of your hands."

Job Longs for God

- 1 Then Job answered:
 2 "Even today my complaint is bitter.
 His hand is heavy despite my groaning.
 3 If only I knew where to find Him,
 so that I could go to His seat.
 4 I would plead my case before Him and fill my mouth with arguments.
 5 I would learn how He would answer, and consider what He would say.

* 22:14 Or heaven's horizon or the circle of the sky

- 6 Would He contend with me in His great power?
No, He would certainly take note of me.
- 7 Then an upright man could reason with Him,
and I would be delivered forever from my Judge.
- 8 If I go east, He is not there,
and if I go west, I cannot find Him.
- 9 When He is at work in the north, I cannot behold Him;
when He turns to the south, I cannot see Him.
- 10 Yet He knows the way I have taken;
when He has tested me, I will come forth as gold.
- 11 My feet have followed in His tracks;
I have kept His way without turning aside.
- 12 I have not departed from the command of His lips;
I have treasured the words of His mouth
more than my daily bread.
- 13 But He is unchangeable, and who can oppose Him?
He does what He desires.
- 14 For He carries out His decree against me,
and He has many such plans.
- 15 Therefore I am terrified in His presence;
when I consider this, I fear Him.
- 16 God has made my heart faint;
the Almighty has terrified me.
- 17 Yet I am not silenced by the darkness,
by the thick darkness that covers my face.

24

Job: Judgment for the Wicked

- 1 "Why does the Almighty not reserve times for judgment?
Why may those who know Him never see His days?"
- 2 Men move boundary stones;
they pasture stolen flocks.
- 3 They drive away the donkey of the fatherless and take the widow's ox in pledge.
- 4 They push the needy off the road and force all the poor of the land into hiding.
- 5 Indeed, like wild donkeys in the desert,
the poor go to work foraging for food;
the wasteland is food for their children.
- 6 They gather fodder in the fields and glean the vineyards of the wicked.
- 7 Without clothing, they spend the night naked;
they have no covering against the cold.
- 8 Drenched by mountain rains,
they huddle against the rocks for want of shelter.
- 9 The fatherless infant is snatched from the breast;
the nursing child of the poor is seized for a debt.
- 10 Without clothing, they wander about naked.
They carry the sheaves, but still go hungry.
- 11 They crush olives within their walls;
they tread the winepresses, but go thirsty.
- 12 From the city, men groan,
and the souls of the wounded cry out,
yet God charges no one with wrongdoing.
- 13 Then there are those who rebel against the light,
not knowing its ways or staying on its paths.

- 14 When daylight is gone, the murderer rises to kill the poor and needy;
in the night he is like a thief.
- 15 The eye of the adulterer watches for twilight.
Thinking, 'No eye will see me,' he covers his face.
- 16 In the dark they dig through houses;
by day they shut themselves in,
never to experience the light.
- 17 For to them, deep darkness is their morning;
surely they are friends with the terrors of darkness!
- 18 They are but foam on the surface of the water;
their portion of the land is cursed,
so that no one turns toward their vineyards.
- 19 As drought and heat consume the melting snow,
so Sheol steals those who have sinned.
- 20 The womb forgets them;
the worm feeds on them;
they are remembered no more.
So injustice is like a broken tree.
- 21 They prey on the barren and childless,
and show no kindness to the widow.
- 22 Yet by His power, God drags away the mighty;
though rising up, they have no assurance of life.
- 23 He gives them a sense of security,
but His eyes are on their ways.
- 24 They are exalted for a moment,
then they are gone;
they are brought low and gathered up like all others;
they are cut off like heads of grain.
- 25 If this is not so, then who can prove me a liar and reduce my words to nothing?"

25

Bildad: Man Cannot Be Righteous

- 1 Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:
- 2 "Dominion and awe belong to God;
He establishes harmony in the heights of heaven.
- 3 Can His troops be numbered?
On whom does His light not rise?
- 4 How then can a man be just before God?
How can one born of woman be pure?
- 5 If even the moon does not shine,
and the stars are not pure in His sight, 6 how much less man, who is but a maggot,
and the son of man, who is but a worm!"

Job: Who Can Understand God's Majesty?

- 1 Then Job answered:
- 2 "How you have helped the powerless and saved the arm that is feeble!
- 3 How you have counseled the unwise and provided fully sound insight!
- 4 To whom have you uttered these words?
And whose spirit spoke through you?

- 5 The dead tremble—
     those beneath the waters and those who dwell in them.
 6 Sheol is naked before God,
     and Abaddon * has no covering.
 7 He stretches out the north over empty space;
     He hangs the earth upon nothing.
 8 He wraps up the waters in His clouds, yet the clouds do not burst under their own weight.
 9 He covers the face of the full moon,† spreading over it His cloud.
 10 He has inscribed a horizon on the face of the waters at the boundary between light and darkness.
 11 The foundations of heaven quake, astounded at His rebuke.
 12 By His power He stirred ‡ the sea;
     by His understanding He shattered Rahab.
 13 By His breath the skies were cleared;
     His hand pierced the fleeing serpent.§
 14 Indeed, these are but the fringes of His ways;
     how faint is the whisper we hear of Him!
 Who then can understand the thunder of His power?"

Job Affirms His Integrity

- 1 Job continued his discourse:
 2 "As surely as God lives, who has deprived me of justice—
     the Almighty, who has embittered my soul—3 as long as my breath is still within me and the breath of God remains in my nostrils, 4 my lips will not speak wickedness,
     and my tongue will not utter deceit.
 5 I will never say that you are right;
     I will maintain my integrity until I die.
 6 I will cling to my righteousness and never let go.
     As long as I live, my conscience will not accuse me.

The Wicked Man's Portion

- 7 May my enemy be like the wicked and my opponent like the unjust.
 8 For what is the hope of the godless when he is cut off, when God takes away his life?
 9 Will God hear his cry
     when distress comes upon him?
 10 Will he delight in the Almighty?
     Will he call upon God at all times?
 11 I will instruct you in the power of God.
     I will not conceal the ways of the Almighty.
 12 Surely all of you have seen it for yourselves.
     Why then do you keep up this empty talk?
 13 This is the wicked man's portion from God—
     the heritage the ruthless receive from the Almighty.
 14 Though his sons are many, they are destined for the sword;
     and his offspring will never have enough food.
 15 His survivors will be buried by the plague,

* 26:6 Abaddon means Destruction. † 26:9 Or of His throne ‡ 26:12 Or stilled § 26:13 Hebrew nachash; translated in most cases as snake

- and their widows will not weep for them.
 16 Though he heaps up silver like dust and piles up a wardrobe like clay, 17 what he lays up, the righteous will wear,
 and his silver will be divided by the innocent.
 18 The house he built is like a moth's cocoon,
 like a hut set up by a watchman.
 19 He lies down wealthy, but will do so no more;
 when he opens his eyes, all is gone.
 20 Terrors overtake him like a flood;
 a tempest sweeps him away in the night.
 21 The east wind carries him away, and he is gone;
 it sweeps him out of his place.
 22 It hurls itself against him without mercy
 as he flees headlong from its power.
 23 It claps its hands at him and hisses him out of his place.

Where Can Wisdom Be Found?

- 1 "Surely there is a mine for silver and a place where gold is refined.
 2 Iron is taken from the earth, and copper is smelted from ore.
 3 Man puts an end to the darkness;
 he probes the farthest recesses for ore in deepest darkness.
 4 Far from human habitation he cuts a shaft in places forgotten by the foot of man.
 Far from men he dangles and sways.
 5 Food may come from the earth,
 but from below it is transformed as by fire.
 6 Its rocks are the source of sapphires, containing flecks of gold.
 7 No bird of prey knows that path;
 no falcon's eye has seen it.
 8 Proud beasts have never trodden it;
 no lion has ever prowled over it.
 9 The miner strikes the flint;
 he overturns mountains at their base.
 10 He hews out channels in the rocks,
 and his eyes spot every treasure.
 11 He stops up * the sources of the streams to bring what is hidden to light.
 12 But where can wisdom be found,
 and where does understanding dwell?
 13 No man can know its value,
 nor is it found in the land of the living.
 14 The ocean depths say, 'It is not in me,' while the sea declares, 'It is not with me.'
 15 It cannot be bought with gold, nor can its price be weighed out in silver.
 16 It cannot be valued in the gold of Ophir,
 in precious onyx or sapphire.
 17 Neither gold nor crystal can compare to it, nor jewels of fine gold be exchanged for it.
 18 Coral and quartz are unworthy of mention;
 the price of wisdom is beyond rubies.

* 28:11 Hebrew; LXX and Vulgate He searches

- 19 Topaz from Cush † cannot compare to it, nor can it be valued in pure gold.
- 20 From where then does wisdom come,
and where does understanding dwell?
- 21 It is hidden from the eyes of every living thing and concealed from the birds of the air.
- 22 Abaddon ‡ and Death say,
'We have heard a rumor about it.'
- 23 But God understands its way,
and He knows its place.
- 24 For He looks to the ends of the earth and sees everything under the heavens.
- 25 When God fixed the weight of the wind and measured out the waters,
- 26 when He set a limit for the rain and a path for the thunderbolt,
- 27 then He looked at wisdom and appraised it;
He established it and searched it out.
- 28 And He said to man, 'Behold,
the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom,
and to turn away from evil is understanding.' "

29

Job's Former Blessings

- 1 And Job continued his discourse:
- 2 "How I long for the months gone by,
for the days when God watched over me,
3 when His lamp shone above my head,
and by His light I walked through the darkness, 4 when I was in my prime,*
when the friendship of God rested on my tent, 5 when the Almighty was still with me and my children were around me, 6 when my steps were bathed in cream and the rock poured out for me streams of oil!
- 7 When I went out to the city gate and took my seat in the public square, 8 the young men saw me and withdrew,
and the old men rose to their feet.
9 The princes refrained from speaking and covered their mouths with their hands.
10 The voices of the nobles were hushed,
and their tongues stuck to the roofs of their mouths.
11 For those who heard me called me blessed,
and those who saw me commended me, 12 because I rescued the poor who cried out and the fatherless who had no helper.
13 The dying man blessed me,
and I made the widow's heart sing for joy.
14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me;
justice was my robe and my turban.
15 I served as eyes to the blind and as feet to the lame.
16 I was a father to the needy,
and I took up the case of the stranger.

† 28:19 That is, the upper Nile region    ‡ 28:22 Abaddon means Destruction.

- 17 I shattered the fangs of the unjust and multiply my days as the sand.

- 19 My roots will spread out to the waters,
and the dew will rest nightly on my branches.
- 20 My glory is ever new within me,
and my bow is renewed in my hand.'
- 21 Men listened to me with expectation, waiting silently for my counsel.
- 22 After my words, they spoke no more;
my speech settled on them like dew.
- 23 They waited for me as for rain and drank in my words like spring showers.
- 24 If I smiled at them, they did not believe it;
the light of my countenance was precious.
- 25 I chose their course and presided as chief.
So I dwelt as a king among his troops,
as a comforter of the mourners.

Job's Honor Turned to Contempt

- 1 "But now they mock me,
men younger than I am,
whose fathers I would have refused to entrust with my sheep dogs.
- 2 What use to me was the strength of their hands,
since their vigor had left them?
- 3 Gaunt from poverty and hunger,
they gnawed the dry land,
and the desolate wasteland by night.
- 4 They plucked mallow among the shrubs, and the roots of the broom tree were their food.*
- 5 They were banished from among men,
shouted down like thieves,
6 so that they lived on the slopes of the wadis,
among the rocks and in holes in the ground.
- 7 They cried out among the shrubs and huddled beneath the nettles.
- 8 A senseless and nameless brood,
they were driven off the land.
- 9 And now they mock me in song;
I have become a byword among them.
- 10 They abhor me and keep far from me;
they do not hesitate to spit in my face.
- 11 Because God has unstrung my bow and afflicted me,
they have cast off restraint † in my presence.
- 12 The rabble arises at my right;
they lay snares for my feet and build siege ramps against me.

- 14 They advance as through a wide breach;

Job's Prosperity Becomes Calamity

- 15 Terrors are turned loose against me;
they drive away my dignity as by the wind,
and my prosperity has passed like a cloud.
- 16 And now my soul is poured out within me;
days of affliction grip me.
- 17 Night pierces my bones,
and my gnawing pains never rest.
- 18 With great force He grasps my garment;§
He seizes me by the collar of my tunic.
- 19 He throws me into the mud,
and I have become like dust and ashes.
- 20 I cry out to You for help, but You do not answer;
when I stand up, You merely look at me.
- 21 You have ruthlessly turned on me;
You oppose me with Your strong hand.
- 22 You snatch me up into the wind and drive me before it;
You toss me about * in the storm.
- 23 Yes, I know that You will bring me down to death,
to the place appointed for all the living.
- 24 Yet no one stretches out his hand to a ruined man
when he cries for help in his distress.
- 25 Have I not wept for those in trouble?
Has my soul not grieved for the needy?
- 26 But when I hoped for good, evil came;
when I looked for light, darkness fell.
- 27 I am churning within and cannot rest;
days of affliction confront me.
- 28 I go about blackened, but not by the sun.
I stand up in the assembly and cry for help.
- 29 I have become a brother of jackals,†
a companion of ostriches.‡
- 30 My skin grows black and peels, and my bones burn with fever.
- 31 My harp is tuned to mourning and my flute to the sound of weeping.

31Job's Final Appeal*

- 1 "I have made a covenant with my eyes.
How then could I gaze with desire at a virgin?
- 2 For what is the allotment of God from above, or the heritage from the Almighty on high?
- 3 Does not disaster come to the unjust and calamity to the workers of iniquity?
- 4 Does He not see my ways and count my every step?
- 5 If I have walked in falsehood or my foot has rushed to deceit,
- 6 let God weigh me with honest scales,
that He may know my integrity.
- 7 If my steps have turned from the path,

§ 30:18 LXX; Hebrew He becomes like a garment to me or my garment is disfigured * 30:22 Or You dissolve me

† 30:29 Or serpents or dragons ‡ 30:29 Literally of daughters of an ostrich or of daughters of an owl

- if my heart has followed my eyes, or if impurity has stuck to my hands,
 8 then may another eat what I have sown,
 and may my crops be uprooted.
- 9 If my heart has been enticed by my neighbor's wife,
 or I have lurked at his door,
 10 then may my own wife grind grain for another,
 and may other men sleep with her.
- 11 For that would be a heinous crime, an iniquity to be judged.
- 12 For it is a fire that burns down to Abaddon,*
 it would root out my entire harvest.
- 13 If I have rejected the cause of my manservant or maidservant when they made a complaint against me, 14 what will I do when God rises to judge?
 How will I answer when called to account?
- 15 Did not He who made me in the womb also make them?
 Did not the same One form us in the womb?
- 16 If I have denied the desires of the poor or allowed the widow's eyes to fail, 17 if I have eaten my morsel alone,
 not sharing it with the fatherless—18 though from my youth I reared him as would a father, and from my mother's womb I guided the widow—19 if I have seen one perish for lack of clothing, or a needy man without a cloak, 20 if his heart has not blessed me †
 for warming him with the fleece of my sheep, 21 if I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless because I saw that I had support in the gate, 22 then may my arm fall from my shoulder and be torn from its socket.
- 23 For calamity from God terrifies me,
 and His splendor I cannot overpower.
- 24 If I have put my trust in gold or called pure gold my security, 25 if I have rejoiced in my great wealth because my hand had gained so much, 26 if I have beheld the sun ‡ in its radiance or the moon moving in splendor, 27 so that my heart was secretly enticed and my hand threw a kiss from my mouth, 28 this would also be an iniquity to be judged, for I would have denied God on high.
- 29 If I have rejoiced in my enemy's ruin, or exulted when evil befell him—30 I have not allowed my mouth to sin by asking for his life with a curse—31 if the men of my house have not said,
 'Who is there who has not had his fill?'— 32 but no stranger had to lodge on the street, for my door has been open to the traveler—33 if I have covered my transgressions like Adam § by hiding my guilt in my heart,

* 31:12 Abaddon means Destruction. † 31:20 Hebrew if his loins have not blessed me ‡ 31:26 Hebrew the light § 31:33 Or like men

<sup>34</sup> because I greatly feared the crowds and the contempt of the clans terrified me, so that I kept silent and would not go outside—

<sup>35</sup> (Oh, that I had one to hear me!
Here is my signature.
Let the Almighty answer me;
let my accuser compose an indictment.
<sup>36</sup> Surely I would carry it on my shoulder and wear it like a crown.
<sup>37</sup> I would give account of all my steps;
I would approach Him like a prince.)—

<sup>38</sup> if my land cries out against me and its furrows weep together, <sup>39</sup> if I have devoured its produce without payment or broken the spirit of its tenants, <sup>40</sup> then let briars grow instead of wheat and stinkweed instead of barley.”

Thus conclude the words of Job.

Elihu Rebukes Job's Friends

<sup>1</sup> So these three men stopped answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

<sup>2</sup> This kindled the anger of Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite, of the family of Ram. He burned with anger against Job for justifying himself rather than God,<sup>3</sup> and he burned with anger against Job's three friends because they had failed to refute Job, and yet had condemned him.

<sup>4</sup> Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job because the others were older than he. <sup>5</sup> But when he saw that the three men had no further reply, his anger was kindled. <sup>6</sup> So Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite declared:

“I am young in years,
while you are old;
that is why I was timid and afraid to tell you what I know.
<sup>7</sup> I thought that age should speak,
and many years should teach wisdom.
<sup>8</sup> But there is a spirit * in a man,
the breath of the Almighty,
that gives him understanding.
<sup>9</sup> It is not only the old † who are wise, or the elderly who understand justice.
<sup>10</sup> Therefore I say, ‘Listen to me;
I too will declare what I know.’

I listened to your reasoning;
as you searched for words,
<sup>12</sup> I paid you full attention.
But no one proved Job wrong;
not one of you rebutted his arguments.
<sup>13</sup> So do not claim, ‘We have found wisdom;
let God, not man, refute him.’
<sup>14</sup> But Job has not directed his words against me,

* 32:8 Or the Spirit; also in verse 18 † 32:9 Or many or great and I will not answer him with your arguments.

- 15 Job's friends are dismayed, with no more to say;
words have escaped them.
16 Must I wait, now that they are silent,
now that they stand and no longer reply?
17 I too will answer;
yes, I will declare what I know.
18 For I am full of words,
and my spirit within me compels me.
19 Behold, my belly is like unvented wine;
it is about to burst like a new wineskin.
20 I must speak and find relief;
I must open my lips and respond.
21 I will be partial to no one,
nor will I flatter any man.
22 For I do not know how to flatter, or my Maker would remove me in an instant.

Elihu Rebukes Job

- 1 "But now, O Job, hear my speech, and listen to all my words.
2 Behold, I will open my mouth;
my address is on the tip of my tongue.
3 My words are from an upright heart,
and my lips speak sincerely what I know.
4 The Spirit of God has made me,
and the breath of the Almighty gives me life.
5 Refute me if you can;
prepare your case and confront me.
6 I am just like you before God;
I was also formed from clay.
7 Surely no fear of me should terrify you;
nor will my hand be heavy upon you.
8 Surely you have spoken in my hearing,
and I have heard these very words:
9 'I am pure, without transgression;
I am clean, with no iniquity in me.
10 Yet God finds occasions against me;
He counts me as His enemy.
11 He puts my feet in the stocks;
He watches over all my paths.'
12 Behold, you are not right in this matter.
I will answer you, for God is greater than man.
13 Why do you complain to Him that He answers nothing a man asks? * 14 For God speaks in one way and in another, yet no one notices.
15 In a dream,
in a vision in the night, when deep sleep falls upon men
as they slumber on their beds, 16 He opens their ears and terrifies them with warnings 17 to turn a man from wrongdoing and keep him from pride,

* 33:13 Or that He answers for none of His actions

- 18 to preserve his soul from the Pit and his life from perishing by the sword.
- 19 A man is also chastened on his bed with pain and constant distress in his bones, 20 so that he detests his bread,
and his soul loathes his favorite food.
21 His flesh wastes away from sight,
and his hidden bones protrude.
22 He draws near to the Pit,
and his life to the messengers of death.
- 23 Yet if there is a messenger on his side,
one mediator in a thousand,
to tell a man what is right for him, 24 to be gracious to him and say,
'Spare him from going down to the Pit;
I have found his ransom,' 25 then his flesh is refreshed like a child's;
he returns to the days of his youth.
26 He prays to God and finds favor;
he sees God's face and shouts for joy,
and God restores His righteousness to that man.
- 27 Then he sings before † men
with these words:
'I have sinned and perverted what was right;
yet I did not get what I deserved.
28 He redeemed my soul from going down to the Pit, and I will live to see the light.'
- 29 Behold, all these things God does to a man,
two or even three times, 30 to bring back his soul from the Pit,
that he may be enlightened with the light of life.
31 Pay attention, Job, and listen to me;
be silent, and I will speak.
32 But if you have something to say, answer me;
speak up, for I would like to vindicate you.
33 But if not, then listen to me;
be quiet, and I will teach you wisdom."

34

Elihu Confirms God's Justice

- 1 Then Elihu continued:
- 2 "Hear my words, O wise men;
give ear to me, O men of learning.
3 For the ear tests words
as the mouth tastes food.
4 Let us choose for ourselves what is right;
let us learn together what is good.
5 For Job has declared, 'I am righteous, yet God has deprived me of justice.
6 Would I lie about my case?
My wound is incurable,
though I am without transgression.'
7 What man is like Job, who drinks up derision like water?

† 33:27 Or Then he looks upon

- 8 He keeps company with evildoers and walks with wicked men.
- 9 For he has said, 'It profits a man nothing that he should delight in God.'
- 10 Therefore listen to me,
O men of understanding.
Far be it from God to do wrong,
and from the Almighty to act unjustly.
- 11 For according to a man's deeds He repays him;
according to a man's ways He brings consequences.
- 12 Indeed, it is true that God does not act wickedly, and the Almighty does not pervert justice.
- 13 Who gave Him charge over the earth?
Who appointed Him over the whole world?
- 14 If He were to set His heart to it and withdraw His Spirit and breath, 15 all flesh would perish together and mankind would return to the dust.
- 16 If you have understanding, hear this;
listen to my words.
- 17 Could one who hates justice govern?
Will you condemn the just and mighty One,
18 who says to kings, 'You are worthless!'
and to nobles, 'You are wicked,' 19 who is not partial to princes and does not favor rich over poor?
For they are all the work of His hands.
- 20 They die in an instant,
in the middle of the night.
The people convulse and pass away;
the mighty are removed without human hand.
- 21 For His eyes are on the ways of a man,
and He sees his every step.
- 22 There is no darkness or deep shadow where the workers of iniquity can hide.
- 23 For God need not examine a man further or have him approach for judgment.
- 24 He shatters the mighty without inquiry and sets up others in their place.
- 25 Therefore, He recognizes their deeds;
He overthrows them in the night and they are crushed.
- 26 He strikes them for their wickedness
in full view, 27 because they turned aside from Him and had no regard for any of His ways.
- 28 They caused the cry of the poor to come before Him, and He heard the outcry of the afflicted.
- 29 But when He remains silent, who can condemn Him?
When He hides His face, who can see Him?
Yet He watches over both man and nation, 30 that godless men should not rule or lay snares for the people.
- 31 Suppose someone says to God,
'I have endured my punishment; I will offend no more.
32 Teach me what I cannot see;
if I have done wrong, I will not do it again.'
- 33 Should God repay you on your own terms when you have disavowed His?

You must choose, not I;
 so tell me what you know.
 34 Men of understanding will declare to me,
 and the wise men who hear me will say:
 35 'Job speaks without knowledge;
 his words lack insight.'
 36 If only Job were tried to the utmost for answering like a wicked man.
 37 For he adds rebellion to his sin;
 he claps his hands among us and multiplies his words against God."

35

Elihu Recalls God's Justice

1 And Elihu went on to say:
 2 "Do you think this is just?
 You say, 'I am more righteous than God.'*
 3 For you ask, 'What does it profit me, and what benefit do I gain apart from sin?'
 4 I will reply to you and to your friends as well.
 5 Look to the heavens and see;
 gaze at the clouds high above you.
 6 If you sin, what do you accomplish against Him?
 If you multiply your transgressions, what do you do to Him?
 7 If you are righteous, what do you give Him,
 or what does He receive from your hand?
 8 Your wickedness affects only a man like yourself, and your righteousness only a son of man.
 9 Men cry out under great oppression;
 they plead for relief from the arm of the mighty.
 10 But no one asks, 'Where is God my Maker, who gives us songs in the night, 11 who teaches us more than the beasts of the earth and makes us wiser than the birds of the air?'
 12 There they cry out, but He does not answer, because of the pride of evil men.
 13 Surely God does not listen to empty pleas, and the Almighty does not take note of it.
 14 How much less, then, when you say that you do not see Him, that your case is before Him and you must wait for Him, 15 and further, that in His anger He has not punished or taken much notice of folly!
 16 So Job opens his mouth in vain and multiplies words without knowledge."

36

Elihu Describes God's Power

1 And Elihu continued:
 2 "Bear with me a little longer, and I will show you that there is more to be said on God's behalf.
 3 I get my knowledge from afar,
 and I will ascribe justice to my Maker.
 4 For truly my words are free of falsehood;
 one perfect in knowledge is with you.

* 35:2 Or 'I am righteous before God.'

- 5 Indeed, God is mighty, but He despises no one;
 He is mighty in strength of understanding.
- 6 He does not keep the wicked alive,
 but He grants justice to the afflicted.
- 7 He does not take His eyes off the righteous,
 but He enthrones them with kings and exalts them forever.
- 8 And if men are bound with chains, caught in cords of affliction,
- 9 then He tells them their deeds and how arrogantly they have transgressed.
- 10 He opens their ears to correction and commands that they turn from iniquity.
- 11 If they obey and serve Him, then they end their days in prosperity and their years in happiness.
- 12 But if they do not obey, then they perish by the sword *
 and die without knowledge.
- 13 The godless in heart harbor resentment;
 even when He binds them, they do not cry for help.
- 14 They die in their youth,
 among the male shrine prostitutes.
- 15 God rescues the afflicted by their affliction † and opens their ears in oppression.
- 16 Indeed, He drew you from the jaws of distress to a spacious and broad place,
 to a table full of richness.
- 17 But now you are laden with the judgment due the wicked;
 judgment and justice have seized you.
- 18 Be careful that no one lures you with riches;
 do not let a large bribe lead you astray.
- 19 Can your wealth ‡ or all your mighty effort
 keep you from distress?
- 20 Do not long for the night,
 when people vanish from their homes.
- 21 Be careful not to turn to iniquity,
 for this you have preferred to affliction.
- 22 Behold, God is exalted in His power.
 Who is a teacher like Him?
- 23 Who has appointed His way for Him,
 or told Him, 'You have done wrong'?
- 24 Remember to magnify His work, which men have praised in song.
- 25 All mankind has seen it;
 men behold it from afar.
- 26 Indeed, God is great—beyond our knowledge;
 the number of His years is unsearchable.
- 27 For He draws up drops of water which distill the rain from the mist,
- 28 which the clouds pour out and shower abundantly on mankind.
- 29 Furthermore, who can understand how the clouds spread out,
 how the thunder roars from His pavilion?
- 30 See how He scatters His lightning around Him and covers the depths of the sea.

* 36:12 Or they will cross the river of death † 36:15 Or in their affliction ‡ 36:19 Or your cry for help

- 31 For by these He judges § the nations and provides food in abundance.
32 He fills His hands with lightning and commands it to strike its mark.
33 The thunder declares His presence;
even the cattle regard the rising storm.

37

Elihu Proclaims God's Majesty

- 1 "At this my heart also pounds and leaps from its place.
2 Listen closely to the thunder of His voice and the rumbling that comes from His mouth.
3 He unleashes His lightning beneath the whole sky and sends it to the ends of the earth.
4 Then there comes a roaring sound;
He thunders with His majestic voice.
He does not restrain the lightning
when His voice resounds.
5 God thunders wondrously with His voice;
He does great things we cannot comprehend.
6 For He says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth,' and to the gentle rain, 'Pour out a mighty downpour.'
7 He seals up the hand of every man,
so that all men may know His work.
8 The wild animals enter their lairs;
they settle down in their dens.
9 The tempest comes from its chamber,
and the cold from the driving north winds.
10 By the breath of God the ice is formed and the watery expanses are frozen.
11 He loads the clouds with moisture;
He scatters His lightning through them.
12 They swirl about,
whirling at His direction, accomplishing all that He commands over the face of all the earth.
13 Whether for punishment or for His land,
He accomplishes this in His loving devotion.
14 Listen to this, O Job;
stand still and consider the wonders of God.
15 Do you know how God dispatches the clouds or makes the lightning flash?
16 Do you understand how the clouds float,
those wonders of Him who is perfect in knowledge?
17 You whose clothes get hot when the land lies hushed under the south wind, 18 can you, like Him, spread out the skies to reflect the heat like a mirror of bronze?
19 Teach us what we should say to Him;
we cannot draw up our case when our faces are in darkness.
20 Should He be told that I want to speak?
Would a man ask to be swallowed up*?
21 Now no one can gaze at the sun when it is bright in the skies
after the wind has swept them clean.

§ 36:31 Or governs or nourishes * 37:20 Or speak without being swallowed up

- 22 Out of the north He comes in golden splendor;
 awesome majesty surrounds Him.
 23 The Almighty is beyond our reach;
 He is exalted in power!
 In His justice and great righteousness
 He does not oppress.
 24 Therefore, men fear Him,
 for He is not partial to the wise in heart."

The LORD Challenges Job

- 1 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind and said:
- 2 "Who is this who obscures My counsel by words without knowledge?*"

3 Now brace yourself † like a man;
 I will question you, and you shall inform Me.‡

4 Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth?
 Tell Me, if you have understanding.

5 Who fixed its measurements? Surely you know!
 Or who stretched a measuring line across it?

6 On what were its foundations set, or who laid its cornerstone,§

7 while the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

8 Who enclosed the sea behind doors
 when it burst forth from the womb,

9 when I made the clouds its garment and thick darkness its blanket,

10 when I fixed its boundaries and set in place its bars and doors,

11 and I declared: 'You may come this far, but no farther;
 here your proud waves must stop'?
- 12 In your days, have you commanded the morning or assigned the dawn its place,

13 that it might spread to the ends of the earth and shake the wicked out of it?

14 The earth takes shape like clay under a seal;
 its hills stand out like the folds of a garment.

15 Light is withheld from the wicked, and their upraised arm is broken.

16 Have you journeyed to the vents of the sea or walked in the trenches of the deep?

17 Have the gates of death been revealed to you?
 Have you seen the gates of the shadow of death?

18 Have you surveyed the extent of the earth?
 Tell Me, if you know all this.
- 19 Where is the way to the home of light?
 Do you know where darkness resides,

20 so you can lead it back to its border?
 Do you know the paths to its home?

21 Surely you know, for you were already born!
 And the number of your days is great!

* 38:2 Cited in Job 42:3 † 38:3 Hebrew gird up your loins ‡ 38:3 Cited in Job 42:4 § 38:6 Or who set its core in place

- 22 Have you entered the storehouses of snow or observed the storehouses of hail, 23 which I hold in reserve for times of trouble,
for the day of war and battle?
24 In which direction is the lightning dispersed, or the east wind scattered over the earth?
- 25 Who cuts a channel for the flood or clears a path for the thunderbolt, 26 to bring rain on a barren land, on a desert where no man lives, 27 to satisfy the parched wasteland and make it sprout with tender grass?
28 Does the rain have a father?
Who has begotten the drops of dew?
29 From whose womb does the ice emerge?
Who gives birth to the frost from heaven, 30 when the waters become hard as stone and the surface of the deep is frozen?
- 31 Can you bind the chains of the Pleiades or loosen the belt of Orion?
32 Can you bring forth the constellations in their seasons *
or lead out the Bear † and her cubs?
33 Do you know the laws of the heavens?
Can you set their dominion over the earth?
34 Can you command the clouds
so that a flood of water covers you?
35 Can you send the lightning bolts on their way?
Do they report to you, 'Here we are'?
- 36 Who has put wisdom in the heart ‡ or given understanding to the mind?
37 Who has the wisdom to count the clouds?
Or who can tilt the water jars of the heavens 38 when the dust hardens into a mass and the clods of earth stick together?
- 39 Can you hunt the prey for a lioness or satisfy the hunger of young lions 40 when they crouch in their dens and lie in wait in the thicket?
41 Who provides food for the raven when its young cry out to God
as they wander about for lack of food?

39

The LORD Speaks of His Creation

- 1 "Do you know when mountain goats give birth?
Have you watched the doe bear her fawn?
2 Can you count the months they are pregnant?
Do you know the time they give birth?
3 They crouch down and bring forth their young;
they deliver their newborn.
4 Their young ones thrive and grow up in the open field;
they leave and do not return.
5 Who set the wild donkey free?

* 38:32 Or bring forth Mazzaroth in its season † 38:32 Or Leo or Arcturus ‡ 38:36 Or Who has given the ibis wisdom, that is, wisdom about the flooding of the Nile

- Who released the swift donkey from the harness?
 6 I made the wilderness his home and the salt flats his dwelling.
 7 He scorns the tumult of the city and never hears the shouts of a driver.
 8 He roams the mountains for pasture, searching for any green thing.
- 9 Will the wild ox consent to serve you?
 Will he stay by your manger at night?
 10 Can you hold him to the furrow with a harness?
 Will he plow the valleys behind you?
 11 Can you rely on his great strength?
 Will you leave your hard work to him?
 12 Can you trust him to bring in your grain and gather it to your threshing floor?
- 13 The wings of the ostrich flap joyfully,
 but cannot match the pinions * and feathers of the stork.
 14 For she leaves her eggs on the ground and lets them warm in the sand.
 15 She forgets that a foot may crush them, or a wild animal may trample them.
 16 She treats her young harshly, as if not her own,
 with no concern that her labor was in vain.
 17 For God has deprived her of wisdom;
 He has not endowed her with understanding.
 18 Yet when she proudly spreads her wings,
 she laughs at the horse and its rider.
- 19 Do you give strength to the horse or adorn his neck with a mane?
 20 Do you make him leap like a locust, striking terror with his proud snorting?
 21 He paws in the valley and rejoices in his strength;
 he charges into battle.
 22 He laughs at fear, frightened of nothing;
 he does not turn back from the sword.
 23 A quiver rattles at his side, along with a flashing spear and lance.† 24 Trembling with excitement, he devours the distance;
 he cannot stand still when the ram's horn sounds.
 25 At the blast of the horn, he snorts with fervor.‡
 He catches the scent of battle from afar—
 the shouts of captains and the cry of war.
- 26 Does the hawk take flight by your understanding and spread his wings toward the south?
 27 Does the eagle soar at your command and make his nest on high?
 28 He dwells on a cliff and lodges there;
 his stronghold is on a rocky crag.
 29 From there he spies out food;
 his eyes see it from afar.
 30 His young ones feast on blood; and where the slain are, there he is."

Job Humbles Himself before the LORD

* 39:13 Pinions are the outer parts of a bird's wings, including the flight feathers. † 39:23 Or javelin ‡ 39:25 Or he snorts, 'Aha!'

1 And the LORD said to Job:

2 “Will the faultfinder contend with the Almighty?
Let him who argues with God give an answer.”

3 Then Job answered the LORD:

4 “Behold, I am insignificant. How can I reply to You?

I place my hand over my mouth.

5 I have spoken once, but I have no answer—twice, but I have nothing to add.”

The LORD Challenges Job Again

6 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind and said:

7 “Now brace yourself * like a man;
I will question you, and you shall inform Me.†

8 Would you really annul My justice?
Would you condemn Me to justify yourself?

9 Do you have an arm like God’s?

Can you thunder with a voice like His?

10 Then adorn yourself with majesty and splendor, and clothe yourself with honor and glory.

11 Unleash the fury of your wrath;
look on every proud man and bring him low.

12 Look on every proud man and humble him;
trample the wicked where they stand.

13 Bury them together in the dust;
imprison them in the grave.‡

14 Then I will confess to you that your own right hand can save you.

15 Look at Behemoth, which I made along with you.
He feeds on grass like an ox.

16 See the strength of his loins and the power in the muscles of his belly.

17 His tail sways like a cedar;
the sinews of his thighs are tightly knit.

18 His bones are tubes of bronze;
his limbs are rods of iron.

19 He is the foremost of God’s works;§
only his Maker can draw the sword against him.

20 The hills yield him their produce, while all the beasts of the field play nearby.

21 He lies under the lotus plants,*
hidden among the reeds of the marsh.

22 The lotus plants conceal him in their shade;
the willows † of the brook surround him.

23 Though the river rages, Behemoth is unafraid;
he remains secure, though the Jordan surges to his mouth.

24 Can anyone capture him as he looks on,
or pierce his nose with a snare?

The LORD’s Power Shown in Leviathan

1 “Can you pull in Leviathan with a hook

* 40:7 Hebrew gird up your loins † 40:7 Cited in Job 42:4 ‡ 40:13 Or in the hidden place § 40:19 Hebrew ways * 40:21 Or bramble bushes; also in verse 22 † 40:22 Or poplars

- or tie down his tongue with a rope?
 2 Can you put a cord through his nose or pierce his jaw with a hook?
 3 Will he beg you for mercy or speak to you softly?
 4 Will he make a covenant with you to take him as a slave for life?
 5 Can you pet him like a bird or put him on a leash for your maidens?
 6 Will traders barter for him or divide him among the merchants?
 7 Can you fill his hide with harpoons or his head with fishing spears?
 8 If you lay a hand on him,
 you will remember the battle and never repeat it!
- 9 Surely hope of overcoming him is false.
 Is not the sight of him overwhelming?
 10 No one is so fierce as to rouse Leviathan.
 Then who is able to stand against Me?
 11 Who has given to Me that I should repay him?*
- 12 I cannot keep silent about his limbs,
 his power and graceful form.
 13 Who can strip off his outer coat?
 Who can approach him with a bridle?† 14 Who can open his jaws, ringed by his fearsome teeth?
 15 His rows of scales are his pride, tightly sealed together.
 16 One scale is so near to another that no air can pass between them.
 17 They are joined to one another;
 they clasp and cannot be separated.
- 18 His snorting flashes with light,
 and his eyes are like the rays of dawn.
 19 Firebrands stream from his mouth;
 fiery sparks shoot forth!
 20 Smoke billows from his nostrils
 as from a boiling pot over burning reeds.
 21 His breath sets coals ablaze,
 and flames pour from his mouth.
 22 Strength resides in his neck,
 and dismay leaps before him.
 23 The folds of his flesh are tightly joined;
 they are firm and immovable.
 24 His chest is as hard as a rock,
 as hard as a lower millstone!
- 25 When Leviathan rises up, the mighty are terrified;
 they withdraw before his thrashing.
 26 The sword that reaches him has no effect,
 nor does the spear or dart or arrow.
 27 He regards iron as straw and bronze as rotten wood.
 28 No arrow can make him flee;
 slingstones become like chaff to him.
 29 A club is regarded as straw,

* 41:11 Cited in Romans 11:35 † 41:13 Or Who can come within his double mail?

and he laughs at the sound of the lance.‡ <sup>30</sup> His undersides are jagged potsherds, spreading out the mud like a threshing sledge.
<sup>31</sup> He makes the depths seethe like a cauldron;
 he makes the sea like a jar of ointment.
<sup>32</sup> He leaves a glistening wake behind him;
 one would think the deep had white hair!
<sup>33</sup> Nothing on earth is his equal—
 a creature devoid of fear!
<sup>34</sup> He looks down on all the haughty;
 he is king over all the proud.”

Job Submits Himself to the LORD

<sup>1</sup> Then Job replied to the LORD:
<sup>2</sup> “I know that You can do all things and that no plan of Yours can be thwarted.
<sup>3</sup> You asked, ‘Who is this who conceals My counsel without knowledge?’* Surely I spoke of things I did not understand, things too wonderful for me to know.
<sup>4</sup> You said, ‘Listen now, and I will speak.
 I will question you, and you shall inform Me.’†
<sup>5</sup> My ears had heard of You, but now my eyes have seen You.
<sup>6</sup> Therefore I retract my words, and I repent in dust and ashes.”

The LORD Rebukes Job’s Friends

<sup>7</sup> After the LORD had spoken these words to Job, He said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “My wrath is kindled against you and your two friends. For you have not spoken about Me accurately, as My servant Job has. <sup>8</sup> So now, take seven bulls and seven rams, go to My servant Job, and sacrifice a burnt offering for yourselves. Then My servant Job will pray for you, for I will accept his prayer and not deal with you according to your folly. For you have not spoken accurately about Me, as My servant Job has.”

<sup>9</sup> So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as the LORD had told them; and the LORD accepted Job’s request.

The LORD Blesses Job

<sup>10</sup> After Job had prayed for his friends, the LORD restored his prosperity and doubled his former possessions. <sup>11</sup> All his brothers and sisters and prior acquaintances came and dined with him in his house. They consoled him and comforted him over all the adversity that the LORD had brought upon him. And each one gave him a piece of silver ‡ and a gold ring.

<sup>12</sup> So the LORD blessed Job’s latter days more than his first. He owned 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 1,000 yoke of oxen, and 1,000 female donkeys. <sup>13</sup> And he also had seven sons and three daughters. <sup>14</sup> He named his first daughter Jemimah, his second Keziah, and his third Keren-happuch. <sup>15</sup> No women as beautiful as Job’s daughters could be found in all the land, and their father granted them an inheritance among their brothers.

‡ 41:29 Or javelin * 42:3 Job 38:2 † 42:4 Job 38:3 and Job 40:7 ‡ 42:11 Hebrew a kesitah; the value or weight of the kesitah is no longer known.

Psalm BOOK I

1

Psalms 1–41

The Two Paths

(Matthew 5:3–12; Luke 6:20–23)

- <sup>1</sup> Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, or set foot on the path of sinners, or sit in the seat of mockers.
<sup>2</sup> But his delight is in the Law of the LORD, and on His law he meditates day and night.
<sup>3</sup> He is like a tree planted by streams of water, yielding its fruit in season,
 whose leaf does not wither,
 and who prospers in all he does.
<sup>4</sup> Not so the wicked!
 For they are like chaff driven off by the wind.
<sup>5</sup> Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.
<sup>6</sup> For the LORD guards the path of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

2

The Triumphant Messiah

(Acts 4:23–31)

- <sup>1</sup> Why do the nations rage *
 and the peoples plot in vain?
<sup>2</sup> The kings of the earth take their stand
 and the rulers gather together, against the LORD
 and against His Anointed One:† <sup>3</sup> “Let us break Their chains and cast away Their cords.”
<sup>4</sup> The One enthroned in heaven laughs;
 the Lord taunts them.
<sup>5</sup> Then He rebukes them in His anger, and terrifies them in His fury:
<sup>6</sup> “I have installed My King on Zion, upon My holy mountain.”
<sup>7</sup> I will proclaim the decree spoken to Me by the LORD:
 “You are My Son;
 today I have become Your Father.‡
<sup>8</sup> Ask Me, and I will make the nations Your inheritance, the ends of the earth Your possession.
<sup>9</sup> You will break them § with an iron scepter;
 You will shatter them like pottery.*”

* 2:1 Or noisily assemble; see Revelation 11:18. † 2:2 Cited in Acts 4:25–26 ‡ 2:7 Literally today I have begotten

You; cited in Acts 13:33, Hebrews 1:5, and Hebrews 5:5 § 2:9 LXX You will rule them or You will shepherd them

* 2:9 Cited in Revelation 2:27; see also Revelation 12:5 and Revelation 19:15.

- 10 Therefore be wise, O kings;
     be admonished, O judges of the earth.
 11 Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.
 12 Kiss the Son, lest He be angry and you perish in your rebellion, when His wrath ignites in an instant.

Blessed are all who take refuge in Him.

Deliver Me, O LORD!
(2 Samuel 15:13–29)

A Psalm of David, when he fled from his son Absalom.

- 1 O LORD, how my foes have increased!
     How many rise up against me!
 2 Many say of me,
     “God will not deliver him.”
 3 But You, O LORD, are a shield around me, my glory, and the One who lifts my head.
 4 To the LORD I cry aloud, and He answers me from His holy mountain.
 5 I lie down and sleep;
     I wake again, for the LORD sustains me.
 6 I will not fear the myriads set against me on every side.
 7 Arise, O LORD!
     Save me, O my God!
 Strike all my enemies on the jaw;
     break the teeth of the wicked.
 8 Salvation belongs to the LORD;
     may Your blessing be on Your people.

Answer Me When I Call!

For the choirmaster. With stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

- 1 Answer me when I call,
     O God of my righteousness!
 You have relieved my distress;
     show me grace and hear my prayer.
 2 How long, O men, will my honor be maligned?
     How long will you love vanity and seek after lies *?
 3 Know that the LORD has set apart the godly for Himself;

 4 Be angry, yet do not sin;†

 5 Offer the sacrifices of the righteous and trust in the LORD.

- <sup>6</sup> Many ask, "Who can show us the good?"
 Shine the light of Your face upon us, O LORD.

Give Ear to My Words

For the choirmaster, to be accompanied by flutes. A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Give ear to my words, O LORD;
 consider my groaning.
<sup>2</sup> Attend to the sound of my cry,
 my King and my God,
 for to You I pray.
<sup>3</sup> In the morning, O LORD, You hear my voice;
 at daybreak I lay my plea before You and wait in expectation.
<sup>4</sup> For You are not a God who delights in wickedness;
 no evil can dwell with You.
 You hate all workers of iniquity.
<sup>6</sup> You destroy those who tell lies;
 the LORD abhors the man of bloodshed and deceit.
<sup>7</sup> But I will enter Your house by the abundance of Your loving devotion;*
 in reverence I will bow down toward Your holy temple.
<sup>8</sup> Lead me, O LORD, in Your righteousness because of my enemies;
 make straight Your way before me.
<sup>9</sup> For not a word they speak can be trusted; destruction lies within them.
 Their throats are open graves;
 their tongues practice deceit.†
<sup>10</sup> Declare them guilty, O God;
 let them fall by their own devices.
 Drive them out for their many transgressions,
 for they have rebelled against You.
<sup>11</sup> But let all who take refuge in You rejoice;
 let them ever shout for joy.
 May You shelter them,
 that those who love Your name may rejoice in You.
<sup>12</sup> For surely You, O LORD, bless the righteous;
 You surround them with the shield of Your favor.

* 5:7 Forms of the Hebrew chesed are translated here and in most cases throughout the Scriptures as loving devotion; the range of meaning includes love, goodness, kindness, faithfulness, and mercy, as well as loyalty to a covenant.

† 5:9 Or flattery; cited in Romans 3:13

Do Not Rebuke Me in Your Anger
(Psalm 38:1-22)

For the choirmaster. With stringed instruments, according to Sheminith.* A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD, do not rebuke me in Your anger or discipline me in Your wrath.
<sup>2</sup> Be merciful to me, O LORD, for I am frail;
heal me, O LORD, for my bones are in agony.
<sup>3</sup> My soul is deeply distressed.
How long, O LORD, how long?
<sup>4</sup> Turn, O LORD, and deliver my soul;
save me because of Your loving devotion.
<sup>5</sup> For there is no mention of You in death;
who can praise You from Sheol?
<sup>6</sup> I am weary from groaning;
all night I flood my bed with weeping and drench my couch with tears.
<sup>7</sup> My eyes fail from grief;
they grow dim because of all my foes.
<sup>8</sup> Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity, for the LORD has heard my weeping.
<sup>9</sup> The LORD has heard my cry for mercy;
the LORD accepts my prayer.
<sup>10</sup> All my enemies will be ashamed and dismayed;
they will turn back in sudden disgrace.

7

I Take Refuge in You

A Shiggaion* of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning the words of Cush, a Benjamite.

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD my God, I take refuge in You;
save me and deliver me from all my pursuers, <sup>2</sup> or they will shred my soul like a lion and tear me to pieces with no one to rescue me.
<sup>3</sup> O LORD my God, if I have done this,
if injustice is on my hands,
<sup>4</sup> if I have rewarded my ally † with evil,
if I have plundered my foe without cause, <sup>5</sup> then may my enemy pursue me and overtake me;
may he trample me to the ground and leave my honor in the dust.
<sup>6</sup> Arise, O LORD, in Your anger;
rise up against the fury of my enemies.
Awake, my God, and ordain judgment.
<sup>7</sup> Let the assembled peoples gather around You;
take Your seat over them on high.
<sup>8</sup> The LORD judges the peoples;

 who saves the upright in heart.
- <sup>11</sup> God is a righteous judge and a God who feels indignation each day.
- <sup>12</sup> If one does not repent,
 God will sharpen His sword;
 He has bent and strung His bow.
- <sup>13</sup> He has prepared His deadly weapons;
 He ordains His arrows with fire.
- <sup>14</sup> Behold, the wicked man travails with evil;
 he conceives trouble and births falsehood.

How Majestic Is Your Name!

For the choirmaster. According to Gittith. * A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is Your name in all the earth!
- You have set Your glory above the heavens.
- <sup>2</sup> From the mouths of children and infants
 You have ordained praise † on account of Your adversaries, to silence the enemy and avenger.
- <sup>3</sup> When I behold Your heavens,
 the work of Your fingers,
 the moon and the stars,
 which You have set in place—
- <sup>4</sup> what is man that You are mindful of him,
 or the son of man that You care for him?
- <sup>5</sup> You made him a little lower than the angels;‡
 You crowned him with glory and honor.
- <sup>6</sup> You made him ruler of the works of Your hands;
 You have placed everything under his feet:§
- <sup>7</sup> all sheep and oxen,
 and even the beasts of the field, <sup>8</sup> the birds of the air and the fish of the sea,
 all that swim the paths of the seas.

I Will Give Thanks to the LORD

For the choirmaster. To the tune of "The Death of the Son." A Psalm of David.*

- 1 I will give thanks to the LORD with all my heart;
I will recount all Your wonders.
- 2 I will be glad and rejoice in You;
I will sing praise to Your name, O Most High.
- 3 When my enemies retreat,
they stumble and perish before You.
- 4 For You have upheld my just cause;
You sit on Your throne judging righteously.
- 5 You have rebuked the nations;
You have destroyed the wicked;
You have erased their name forever and ever.
- 6 The enemy has come to eternal ruin,
and You have uprooted their cities;
the very memory of them has vanished.
- 7 But the LORD abides forever;
He has established His throne for judgment.
- 8 He judges the world with justice;
He governs the people with equity.
- 9 The LORD is a refuge for the oppressed,
a stronghold in times of trouble.
- 10 Those who know Your name trust in You, for You, O LORD, have not forsaken those who seek You.
- 11 Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in Zion;
proclaim His deeds among the nations.
- 12 For the Avenger of bloodshed remembers;
He does not ignore the cry of the afflicted.
- 13 Be merciful to me, O LORD;
see how my enemies afflict me!
Lift me up from the gates of death,
14 that I may declare all Your praises—that within the gates of Daughter Zion
I may rejoice in Your salvation.
- 15 The nations have fallen into a pit of their making;
their feet are caught in the net they have hidden.
- 16 The LORD is known by the justice He brings;
the wicked are ensnared by the work of their hands.
- 17 The wicked will return to Sheol—
all the nations who forget God.
- 18 For the needy will not always be forgotten;
nor the hope of the oppressed forever dashed.
- 19 Rise up, O LORD, do not let man prevail;
let the nations be judged in Your presence.
- 20 Lay terror upon them, O LORD;
let the nations know they are but men.

10

The Perils of the Pilgrim

- <sup>1</sup> Why, O LORD, do You stand far off?
Why do You hide in times of trouble?
- <sup>2</sup> In pride the wicked pursue the needy;
let them be caught in the schemes they devise.
- <sup>3</sup> For the wicked man boasts in the cravings of his heart;
he blesses the greedy and reviles the LORD.
- <sup>4</sup> In his pride the wicked man does not seek Him;
in all his schemes there is no God.
- <sup>5</sup> He is secure in his ways at all times;
Your lofty judgments are far from him;
he sneers at all his foes.
- <sup>6</sup> He says to himself, "I will not be moved;
from age to age I am free of distress."
- <sup>7</sup> His mouth is full of cursing, deceit,* and violence;
trouble and malice are under his tongue.
- <sup>8</sup> He lies in wait near the villages;
in ambush he slays the innocent;
his eyes watch in stealth for the helpless.
- <sup>9</sup> He lies in wait like a lion in a thicket;
he lurks to seize the oppressed;
he catches the lowly in his net.
- <sup>10</sup> They are crushed and beaten down;†
the hapless fall prey to his strength.
- <sup>11</sup> He says to himself, "God has forgotten;
He hides His face and never sees."
- <sup>12</sup> Arise, O LORD! Lift up Your hand, O God!
Do not forget the helpless.
- <sup>13</sup> Why has the wicked man renounced God?
He says to himself, "You will never call me to account."
- <sup>14</sup> But You have regarded trouble and grief;
You see to repay it by Your hand.
The victim entrusts himself to You;
You are the helper of the fatherless.
- <sup>15</sup> Break the arm of the wicked and evildoer;
call him to account for his wickedness until none is left to be found.
- <sup>16</sup> The LORD is King forever and ever;
the nations perish from His land.
- <sup>17</sup> You have heard, O LORD, the desire of the humble;
You will strengthen their hearts.
You will incline Your ear, <sup>18</sup> to vindicate the fatherless and oppressed, that the men of the earth
may strike terror no more.

In the LORD I Take Refuge
(Habakkuk 1:12-17)

For the choirmaster. Of David.

- <sup>1</sup> In the LORD I take refuge.

* 10:7 LXX bitterness; cited in Romans 3:14 † 10:10 Or He crouches and lies low

How then can you say to me:

“Flee like a bird to your mountain!

<sup>2</sup> For behold, the wicked bend their bows.

They set their arrow on the string to shoot from the shadows at the upright in heart.

<sup>3</sup> If the foundations are destroyed,
what can the righteous do?”

the LORD is on His heavenly throne.

His eyes are watching closely;
they examine the sons of men.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD tests the righteous and the wicked;
His soul hates the lover of violence.

<sup>6</sup> On the wicked He will rain down fiery coals and sulfur;
a scorching wind will be their portion.

<sup>7</sup> For the LORD is righteous; He loves justice.
The upright will see His face.

12

The Godly Are No More

For the choirmaster. According to Sheminith.* A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> Help, O LORD, for the godly are no more;
the faithful have vanished from among men.

they speak with flattering lips and a double heart.

<sup>3</sup> May the LORD cut off all flattering lips and every boastful tongue.

We own our lips—who can be our master?”

<sup>5</sup> “For the cause of the oppressed
and for the groaning of the needy,

I will now arise,” says the LORD.
“I will bring safety to him who yearns.”

<sup>6</sup> The words of the LORD are flawless, like silver refined in a furnace,
like gold purified sevenfold.†

<sup>7</sup> You, O LORD, will keep us;
You will forever guard us from this generation.

<sup>8</sup> The wicked wander freely, and vileness is exalted among men.

How Long, O LORD?

For the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> How long, O LORD?

There is no one who does good.
- <sup>2</sup> The LORD looks down from heaven
upon the sons of men
to see if any understand,
if any seek God.
- <sup>3</sup> All have turned away,
they have together become corrupt;†
there is no one who does good,
not even one.‡
- <sup>4</sup> Will the workers of iniquity never learn?
They devour my people like bread;
they refuse to call upon the LORD.
- <sup>5</sup> There they are, overwhelmed with dread,
for God is in the company of the righteous.
- <sup>6</sup> You sinners frustrate the plans of the oppressed, yet the LORD is their shelter.
- <sup>7</sup> Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come from Zion!
When the LORD restores His captive people,
let Jacob rejoice, let Israel be glad!

Who May Dwell on Your Holy Mountain?

A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD, who may abide in Your tent?
Who may dwell on Your holy mountain?
- <sup>2</sup> He who walks with integrity and practices righteousness, who speaks the truth from his heart,
- <sup>3</sup> who has no slander on his tongue,
who does no harm to his neighbor,
who casts no scorn on his friend,

* 14:1 The Hebrew words rendered fool throughout the Psalms denote one who is morally deficient. † 14:3 LXX worthless ‡ 14:3 Cited in Romans 3:10-12

4 who despises the vile but honors those who fear the LORD, who does not revise a costly oath,
 5 who lends his money without interest and refuses a bribe against the innocent.

He who does these things will never be shaken.

The Presence of the LORD
 (Acts 2:14–36)

A Miktam * of David.

1 Preserve me, O God,
 for in You I take refuge.

2 I said to the LORD, “You are my Lord;
 apart from You I have no good thing.”

3 As for the saints in the land,
 they are the excellence
 in whom all my delight resides.

4 Sorrows will multiply to those who chase other gods.

I will not pour out their libations of blood, or speak their names with my lips.

5 The LORD is my chosen portion and my cup;
 You have made my lot secure.

6 The lines of my boundary have fallen in pleasant places;
 surely my inheritance is delightful.

7 I will bless the LORD who counsels me;
 even at night my conscience instructs me.†

8 I have set ‡ the LORD always before me.
 Because He is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.

9 Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices;
 my body also will dwell securely.§

10 For You will not abandon my soul to Sheol, nor will You let Your Holy One see decay.*

11 You have made known to me the path of life;
 You will fill me with joy in Your presence,†
 with eternal pleasures at Your right hand.

17

Hear My Righteous Plea

A prayer of David.

1 Hear, O LORD, my righteous plea;
 listen to my cry.

Give ear to my prayer—
 it comes from lips free of deceit.

2 May my vindication come from Your presence;
 may Your eyes see what is right.

3 You have tried my heart;

* 16: Miktam is probably a musical or liturgical term; used for Psalm 16 and Psalms 56–60. † 16:7 Or my heart instructs me; Hebrew my kidneys instruct me ‡ 16:8 LXX I foresaw § 16:9 LXX will dwell in hope * 16:10 Cited in Acts 13:35 † 16:11 Cited in Acts 2:25–28

- You have visited me in the night.
 You have tested me and found no evil;
 I have resolved not to sin with my mouth.
- <sup>4</sup> As for the deeds of men—
 by the word of Your lips
 I have avoided the ways of the violent.
- <sup>5</sup> My steps have held to Your paths;
 my feet have not slipped.
- <sup>6</sup> I call on You, O God,
 for You will answer me.
 Incline Your ear to me;
 hear my words.
- <sup>7</sup> Show the wonders of Your loving devotion,
 You who save by Your right hand
 those who seek refuge from their foes.
- <sup>8</sup> Keep me as the apple of * Your eye;
 hide me in the shadow of Your wings
- <sup>9</sup> from the wicked who assail me, from my mortal enemies who surround me.
- <sup>10</sup> They have closed their callous hearts;
 their mouths speak with arrogance.
- <sup>11</sup> They have tracked us down, and now surround us;
 their eyes are set to cast us to the ground,
- <sup>12</sup> like a lion greedy for prey,
 like a young lion lurking in ambush.
- <sup>13</sup> Arise, O LORD, confront them!
 Bring them to their knees;
 deliver me from the wicked by Your sword, <sup>14</sup> from such men, O LORD, by Your hand—from men of the world whose portion is in this life.
 May You fill the bellies of Your treasured ones † and satisfy their sons, so they leave their abundance to their children.
- <sup>15</sup> As for me, I will behold Your face in righteousness;
 when I awake, I will be satisfied in Your presence.

The LORD Is My Rock
(2 Samuel 22:1-51)

For the choirmaster. Of David the servant of the LORD, who sang this song to the LORD on the day the LORD had delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. He said:

- <sup>1</sup> I love You, O LORD, my strength.
- <sup>2</sup> The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer.
 My God is my rock, in whom I take refuge,
 my shield, and the horn of my salvation,
 my stronghold.
- <sup>3</sup> I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised;
 so shall I be saved from my enemies.
- <sup>4</sup> The cords of death encompassed me;
 the torrents of chaos overwhelmed me.

* 17:8 Literally as the pupil, the daughter of † 17:14 Or May what You have stored up for the wicked fill their bellies

- 5 The cords of Sheol entangled me;
the snares of death confronted me.
- 6 In my distress I called upon the LORD;
I cried to my God for help.
From His temple He heard my voice,
and my cry for His help reached His ears.
- 7 Then the earth shook and quaked, and the foundations of the mountains trembled;
they were shaken because He burned with anger.
- 8 Smoke rose from His nostrils, and consuming fire came from His mouth;
glowing coals blazed forth.
- 9 He parted the heavens and came down with dark clouds beneath His feet.
- 10 He mounted a cherub and flew;
He soared on the wings of the wind.
- 11 He made darkness His hiding place,
and storm clouds a canopy around Him.
- 12 From the brightness of His presence His clouds advanced—hailstones and coals of fire.*
- 13 The LORD thundered from heaven;
the voice of the Most High resounded—
hailstones and coals of fire.†
- 14 He shot His arrows and scattered the foes;
He hurled lightning and routed them.
- 15 The channels of the sea appeared,
and the foundations of the world were exposed,
at Your rebuke, O LORD,
at the blast of the breath of Your nostrils.
- 16 He reached down from on high and took hold of me;
He drew me out of deep waters.
- 17 He rescued me from my powerful enemy,
from foes too mighty for me.
- 18 They confronted me in my day of calamity,
but the LORD was my support.
- 19 He brought me out into the open;
He rescued me because He delighted in me.
- 20 The LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness;
He has repaid me according to the cleanness of my hands.
- 21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD and have not wickedly departed from my God.
- 22 For all His ordinances are before me;
I have not disregarded His statutes.
- 23 And I have been blameless before Him and kept myself from iniquity.
- 24 So the LORD has repaid me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in His sight.
- 25 To the faithful You show Yourself faithful, to the blameless You show Yourself blameless;
- 26 to the pure You show Yourself pure,
but to the crooked You show Yourself shrewd.
- 27 For You save an afflicted people,
but You humble those with haughty eyes.

* 18:12 Or bolts of lightning; also in verse 13 † 18:13 Most Hebrew manuscripts; some Hebrew manuscripts and LXX do not include—hailstones and coals of fire; see 2 Samuel 22:14.

- 28 For You, O LORD, light my lamp;
my God lights up my darkness.
- 29 For in You I can charge an army, and with my God I can scale a wall.
- 30 As for God, His way is perfect;
the word of the LORD is flawless.
He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.
- 31 For who is God besides the LORD?
And who is the Rock except our God?
- 32 It is God who arms me with strength and makes my way clear.
- 33 He makes my feet like those of a deer and stations me upon the heights.
- 34 He trains my hands for battle;
my arms can bend a bow of bronze.
- 35 You have given me Your shield of salvation;
Your right hand upholds me,
and Your gentleness exalts me.‡
- 36 You broaden the path beneath me
so that my ankles do not give way.
- 37 I pursued my enemies and overtook them;
I did not turn back until they were consumed.
- 38 I crushed them so they could not rise;
they have fallen under my feet.
- 39 You have armed me with strength for battle;
You have subdued my foes beneath me.
- 40 You have made my enemies retreat before me;
I put an end to those who hated me.
- 41 They cried for help, but there was no one to save them—to the LORD, but He did not answer.
- 42 I ground them as dust in the face of the wind;
I trampled them § like mud in the streets.
- 43 You have delivered me from the strife of the people;
You have made me the head of nations;
a people I had not known shall serve me.
- 44 When they hear me, they obey me;
foreigners cower before me.
- 45 Foreigners lose heart and come trembling from their strongholds.
- 46 The LORD lives, and blessed be my Rock!
And may the God of my salvation be exalted—
- 47 the God who avenges me and subdues nations beneath me, 48 who delivers me from my enemies.
- You exalt me above my foes;
You rescue me from violent men.
- 49 Therefore I will praise You, O LORD, among the nations;
I will sing praises to Your name.*
- 50 Great salvation He brings to His king.
He shows loving devotion to His anointed, to David and his descendants forever.

‡ 18:35 Or and Your help exalts me or and You stoop down to make me great § 18:42 Some Hebrew manuscripts, LXX, and Syriac (see also 2 Samuel 22:43); MT I poured them out * 18:49 Cited in Romans 15:9

The Heavens Declare the Glory of God

For the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> The heavens declare the glory of God;
the skies proclaim the work of His hands.
<sup>2</sup> Day after day they pour forth speech;
night after night they reveal knowledge.
<sup>3</sup> Without speech or language, without a sound to be heard,* <sup>4</sup> their voice † has gone out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world.‡

In the heavens He has pitched a tent for the sun.
<sup>5</sup> Like a bridegroom emerging from his chamber,
like a champion rejoicing to run his course, <sup>6</sup> it rises at one end of the heavens and runs its circuit to the other;
nothing is deprived of its warmth.

- <sup>7</sup> The Law of the LORD is perfect, reviving the soul;
the testimony of the LORD is trustworthy, making wise the simple.
<sup>8</sup> The precepts of the LORD are right, bringing joy to the heart;
the commandments of the LORD are radiant, giving light to the eyes.
<sup>9</sup> The fear of the LORD is pure, enduring forever;
the judgments of the LORD are true,
being altogether righteous.
<sup>10</sup> They are more precious than gold,
than much pure gold;
they are sweeter than honey,
than honey from the comb.
<sup>11</sup> By them indeed Your servant is warned;
in keeping them is great reward.

- <sup>12</sup> Who can discern his own errors?
Cleanse me from my hidden faults.
<sup>13</sup> Keep Your servant also from willful sins;
may they not rule over me.
Then I will be blameless and cleansed of great transgression.
<sup>14</sup> May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart
be pleasing in Your sight,
O LORD, my Rock and my Redeemer.

The Day of Trouble

For the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> May the LORD answer you in the day of trouble;

* 19:3 Or There is no speech or language where their voice is not heard † 19:4 LXX, Syriac, and Vulgate; Hebrew their measuring line ‡ 19:4 Cited in Romans 10:18

- may the name of the God of Jacob protect you.
<sup>2</sup> May He send you help from the sanctuary and sustain you from Zion.
<sup>3</sup> May He remember all your gifts and look favorably on your burnt offerings.
<sup>4</sup> May He give you the desires of your heart and make all your plans succeed.
<sup>5</sup> May we shout for joy at your victory and raise a banner in the name of our God.
 May the LORD grant all your petitions.
<sup>6</sup> Now I know that the LORD saves His anointed;
 He answers him from His holy heaven with the saving power of His right hand.
<sup>7</sup> Some trust in chariots and others in horses, but we trust in the name of the LORD our God.
<sup>8</sup> They collapse and fall,
 but we rise up and stand firm.
<sup>9</sup> O LORD, save * the king.
 Answer us on the day we call.

After the Battle
(Proverbs 21:1-31)

For the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD, the king rejoices in Your strength.
 How greatly he exults in Your salvation!
<sup>2</sup> You have granted his heart's desire and have not withheld the request of his lips.
<sup>3</sup> For You welcomed him with rich blessings;
 You placed on his head a crown of pure gold.
<sup>4</sup> He asked You for life, and You granted it—length of days, forever and ever.
<sup>5</sup> Great is his glory in Your salvation;
 You bestow on him splendor and majesty.
<sup>6</sup> For You grant him blessings forever;
 You cheer him with joy in Your presence.
<sup>7</sup> For the king trusts in the LORD;
 through the loving devotion of the Most High,
 he will not be shaken.
<sup>8</sup> Your hand will apprehend all Your enemies;
 Your right hand will seize those who hate You.
<sup>9</sup> You will place them in a fiery furnace at the time of Your appearing.
 In His wrath the LORD will engulf them,
 and the fire will consume them.
<sup>10</sup> You will wipe their descendants from the earth, and their offspring from the sons of men.
<sup>11</sup> Though they intend You harm,
 the schemes they devise will not prevail.
<sup>12</sup> For You will put them to flight when Your bow is trained upon them.

The Psalm of the Cross

(Matthew 27:32–56; Mark 15:21–41; Luke 23:26–43; John 19:16–30)

For the choirmaster. To the tune of “The Doe of the Dawn.” A Psalm of David.

1 My God, my God,
why have You forsaken me?*

Why are You so far from saving me, so far from my words of groaning?

2 I cry out by day, O my God,
but You do not answer,
and by night,
but I have no rest.

3 Yet You are holy,
enthroned on the praises of Israel.

4 In You our fathers trusted;
they trusted and You delivered them.

5 They cried out to You and were set free;
they trusted in You and were not disappointed.

6 But I am a worm and not a man,
scorned by men and despised by the people.

7 All who see me mock me;
they sneer and shake their heads:

8 “He trusts in the LORD,
let the LORD deliver him;
let the LORD rescue him,
since He delights in him.”†

9 Yet You brought me forth from the womb;
You made me secure at my mother’s breast.

10 From birth I was cast upon You;
from my mother’s womb You have been my God.

11 Be not far from me, for trouble is near
and there is no one to help.

12 Many bulls surround me;
strong bulls of Bashan encircle me.

13 They open their jaws against me like lions that roar and maul.

14 I am poured out like water,
and all my bones are disjointed.
My heart is like wax;
it melts away within me.

15 My strength ‡ is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth.
You lay me in the dust of death.

16 For dogs surround me;
a band of evil men encircles me;
they have pierced my hands and feet.§

17 I can count all my bones;

* 22:1 Cited in Matthew 27:46 and Mark 15:34 † 22:8 Cited in Matthew 27:43 ‡ 22:15 MT; or My mouth, a possible reading of the original Hebrew text § 22:16 DSS, LXX, Vulgate, and Syriac; most MT like a lion at my hands and feet

- they stare and gloat over me.
 18 They divide my garments among them and cast lots for my clothing.*
- 19 But You, O LORD, be not far off;
 O my Strength, come quickly to help me.
 20 Deliver my soul from the sword,
 my precious life from the power of wild dogs.
 21 Save me from the mouth of the lion;
 at the horns of the wild oxen You have answered me!
- 22 I will proclaim Your name to my brothers;
 I will praise You in the assembly.†
- 23 You who fear the LORD, praise Him!
 All descendants of Jacob, honor Him!
 All offspring of Israel, revere Him!
- 24 For He has not despised or detested the torment of the afflicted.
 He has not hidden His face from him,
 but has attended to his cry for help.
- 25 My praise for You resounds in the great assembly;
 I will fulfill my vows before those who fear You.
 26 The poor will eat and be satisfied;
 those who seek the LORD will praise Him.
 May your hearts live forever!
- 27 All the ends of the earth
 will remember and turn to the LORD.
 All the families of the nations will bow down before Him.
- 28 For dominion belongs to the LORD and He rules over the nations.
 29 All the rich of the earth will feast and worship;
 all who go down to the dust will kneel before Him—
 even those unable to preserve their lives.
 30 Posterity will serve Him;
 they will declare the Lord to a new generation.
 31 They will come and proclaim His righteousness to a people yet unborn—
 all that He has done.

The LORD Is My Shepherd
(Ezekiel 34:11-24; John 10:1-21)

A Psalm of David.

- 1 The LORD is my shepherd;*
 I shall not want.
 2 He makes me lie down in green pastures;
 He leads me beside quiet waters.
 3 He restores my soul;
 He guides me in the paths of righteousness
 for the sake of His name.
 4 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,†
 I will fear no evil,
 for You are with me;
 Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

 and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

The Earth Is the LORD's

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> The earth is the LORD's, and the fullness thereof,* the world and all who dwell therein.
<sup>2</sup> For He has founded it upon the seas and established it upon the waters.

<sup>5</sup> He will receive blessing from the LORD and vindication from the God of his salvation.
<sup>6</sup> Such is the generation of those who seek Him, who seek Your face, O God of Jacob.‡

 Be lifted up, O ancient doors,

 The LORD strong and mighty,
 the LORD mighty in battle.

To You I Lift Up My Soul

Of David.*

<sup>1</sup> To You, O LORD, I lift up my soul;
<sup>2</sup> in You, my God, I trust.
 Do not let me be put to shame;
 do not let my enemies exult over me.
<sup>3</sup> Surely none who wait for You will be put to shame;

- for You are the God of my salvation;

- 6 Remember, O LORD, Your compassion and loving devotion, for they are from age to age.
- 7 Remember not the sins of my youth,
nor my rebellious acts;
remember me according to Your loving devotion, because of Your goodness, O LORD.
- 8 Good and upright is the LORD;
therefore He shows sinners the way.
- 9 He guides the humble in what is right and teaches them His way.
- 10 All the LORD's ways are loving and faithful to those who keep His covenant and His decrees.
- 11 For the sake of Your name, O LORD, forgive my iniquity, for it is great.
- 12 Who is the man who fears the LORD?
He will instruct him in the path chosen for him.
- 13 His soul will dwell in prosperity,

- 14 The LORD confides in those who fear Him,

for I take refuge in You.
- 21 May integrity and uprightness preserve me, because I wait for You.†
- 22 Redeem Israel, O God,

Vindicate Me, O LORD

Of David.

1 Vindicate me, O LORD!

For I have walked with integrity;
I have trusted in the LORD without wavering.

2 Test me, O LORD, and try me;
examine my heart * and mind.

3 For Your loving devotion is before my eyes, and I have walked in Your truth.

4 I do not sit with deceitful men,

† 25:21 Or because my hope is in You; LXX because I wait for You, O Lord

* 26:2 Hebrew my kidneys

nor keep company with hypocrites.
<sup>5</sup> I hate the mob of evildoers, and refuse to sit with the wicked.
<sup>6</sup> I wash my hands in innocence that I may go about Your altar, O LORD, <sup>7</sup> to raise my voice in thanksgiving and declare all Your wonderful works.
<sup>8</sup> O LORD, I love the house where You dwell, the place where Your glory resides.
<sup>9</sup> Do not take my soul away with sinners, or my life with men of bloodshed, <sup>10</sup> in whose hands are wicked schemes, whose right hands are full of bribes.
<sup>11</sup> But I will walk with integrity;
 redeem me and be merciful to me.
<sup>12</sup> My feet stand on level ground;
 in the congregations I will bless the LORD.

The LORD Is My Salvation

Of David.

<sup>1</sup> The LORD is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear?
 The LORD is the stronghold of my life—
 whom shall I dread?
<sup>2</sup> When the wicked came upon me to devour my flesh, my enemies and foes stumbled and fell.
<sup>3</sup> Though an army encamps around me,
 my heart will not fear;
 though a war breaks out against me,
 I will keep my trust.
<sup>4</sup> One thing I have asked of the LORD;
 this is what I desire:
 to dwell in the house of the LORD
 all the days of my life, to gaze on the beauty of the LORD and seek Him in His temple.
<sup>5</sup> For in the day of trouble
 He will hide me in His shelter;
 He will conceal me under the cover of His tent;
 He will set me high upon a rock.
<sup>6</sup> Then my head will be held high above my enemies around me.
 At His tabernacle I will offer sacrifices with shouts of joy;
 I will sing and make music to the LORD.
<sup>7</sup> Hear, O LORD, my voice when I call;
 be merciful and answer me.
<sup>8</sup> My heart said, "Seek His face."
 Your face, O LORD, I will seek.
<sup>9</sup> Hide not Your face from me, nor turn away Your servant in anger.
 You have been my helper;
 do not leave me or forsake me,
 O God of my salvation.
<sup>10</sup> Though my father and mother forsake me,
 the LORD will receive me.

- 11 Teach me Your way, O LORD,
and lead me on a level path,
because of my oppressors.
- 12 Do not hand me over to the will of my foes,
for false witnesses rise up against me,
breathing out violence.
- 13 Still I am certain to see the goodness of the LORD
in the land of the living.
- 14 Wait patiently for the LORD;
be strong and courageous.

Wait patiently for the LORD!

The LORD Is My Strength

Of David.

- 1 To You, O LORD, I call;
be not deaf to me, O my Rock.
For if You remain silent,
I will be like those descending to the Pit.
- 2 Hear my cry for mercy
when I call to You for help, when I lift up my hands toward Your holy sanctuary.*
- 3 Do not drag me away with the wicked,
and with the workers of iniquity, who speak peace to their neighbors
while malice is in their hearts.
- 4 Repay them according to their deeds and for their works of evil.
Repay them for what their hands have done;
bring back on them what they deserve.
- 5 Since they show no regard for the works of the LORD or what His hands have done,
He will tear them down
and never rebuild them.
- 6 Blessed be the LORD,
for He has heard my cry for mercy.
- 7 The LORD is my strength and my shield;
my heart trusts in Him, and I am helped.
Therefore my heart rejoices,
and I give thanks to Him with my song.
- 8 The LORD is the strength of His people,
a stronghold of salvation for His anointed.
- 9 Save Your people and bless Your inheritance;
shepherd them and carry them forever.

Ascribe Glory to the LORD

A Psalm of David.

- 1 Ascribe to the LORD, O heavenly beings,*

* 28:2 Or Your innermost sanctuary or Your Most Holy Place    * 29:1 Or sons of God or sons of might ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.

worship the LORD in the splendor of His holiness.†

<sup>3</sup> The voice of the LORD is over the waters;
the God of glory thunders;
the LORD is heard over many waters.

<sup>4</sup> The voice of the LORD is powerful;
the voice of the LORD is majestic.

<sup>5</sup> The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars;
the LORD shatters the cedars of Lebanon.

and Sirion ‡ like a young wild ox.

<sup>7</sup> The voice of the LORD strikes with flames of fire.

<sup>8</sup> The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness;
the LORD shakes the Wilderness of Kadesh.

<sup>9</sup> The voice of the LORD twists the oaks § and strips the forests bare.
And in His temple all cry, "Glory!"

<sup>10</sup> The LORD sits enthroned over the flood;
the LORD is enthroned as King forever.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD gives His people strength;
the LORD blesses His people with peace.

You Turned My Mourning into Dancing

A Psalm. A song for the dedication of the temple. Of David.

<sup>1</sup> I will exalt You, O LORD, for You have lifted me up and have not allowed my foes to rejoice over me.

<sup>2</sup> O LORD my God, I cried to You for help, and You healed me.

<sup>3</sup> O LORD, You pulled me up from Sheol;
You spared me from descending into the Pit.

<sup>4</sup> Sing to the LORD, O you His saints, and praise His holy name.*

<sup>5</sup> For His anger is fleeting, but His favor lasts a lifetime.

Weeping may stay the night,
but joy comes in the morning.

<sup>6</sup> In prosperity I said,
"I will never be shaken."

<sup>7</sup> O LORD, You favored me;
You made my mountain stand strong.

When You hid Your face,
I was dismayed.

<sup>8</sup> To You, O LORD, I called,
and I begged my Lord for mercy:

<sup>9</sup> "What gain is there in my bloodshed,† in my descent to the Pit?‡

† 29:2 Or in holy attire ‡ 29:6 That is, Mount Hermon and praise the memorial of His holiness; see Exodus 3:15.

§ 29:9 Or LORD makes the deer to calve * 30:4 Or † 30:9 Or in my destruction ‡ 30:9 Or to corruption

Will the dust praise You?

Will it proclaim Your faithfulness?

<sup>10</sup> Hear me, O LORD, and have mercy;
O LORD, be my helper.”

<sup>11</sup> You turned my mourning into dancing;

You peeled off my sackcloth and clothed me with joy,

<sup>12</sup> that my heart may sing Your praises and not be silent.
O LORD my God, I will give thanks forever.

Into Your Hands I Commit My Spirit
(Luke 23:44–49)

For the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> In You, O LORD, I have taken refuge;
let me never be put to shame;
save me by Your righteousness.

<sup>2</sup> Incline Your ear to me;
come quickly to my rescue.

Be my rock of refuge,
the stronghold of my deliverance.

<sup>3</sup> For You are my rock and my fortress;
lead me and guide me for the sake of Your name.

<sup>4</sup> You free me from the net laid out for me,
for You are my refuge.

<sup>5</sup> Into Your hands I commit my spirit;*
You have redeemed me, O LORD, God of truth.

<sup>6</sup> I hate † those who cling to worthless idols, but in the LORD I trust.

<sup>7</sup> I will be glad and rejoice in Your loving devotion, for You have seen my affliction;
You have known the anguish of my soul.

<sup>8</sup> You have not delivered me to the enemy;
You have set my feet in the open.

<sup>9</sup> Be merciful to me, O LORD,
for I am in distress;
my eyes fail from sorrow,
my soul and body as well.

<sup>10</sup> For my life is consumed with grief and my years with groaning;
my iniquity has drained my strength,
and my bones are wasting away.

<sup>11</sup> Among all my enemies I am a disgrace, and among my neighbors even more.

I am dreaded by my friends—
they flee when they see me on the street.

<sup>12</sup> I am forgotten like a dead man, out of mind.
I am like a broken vessel.

<sup>13</sup> For I hear the slander of many;
there is terror on every side.

They conspire against me
and plot to take my life.

<sup>14</sup> But I trust in You, O LORD;
I say, “You are my God.”

* 31:5 Cited in Luke 23:46 † 31:6 MT; one Hebrew manuscript, LXX, and Syriac You hate

- 15 My times are in Your hands;
 deliver me from my enemies
 and from those who pursue me.
- 16 Make Your face shine on Your servant;
 save me by Your loving devotion.
- 17 O LORD, let me not be ashamed, for I have called on You.
 Let the wicked be put to shame;
 let them lie silent in Sheol.
- 18 May lying lips be silenced—lips that speak with arrogance against the righteous, full of pride and contempt.
- 19 How great is Your goodness which You have laid up for those who fear You, which You have bestowed before the sons of men on those who take refuge in You!
- 20 You hide them in the secret place of Your presence from the schemes of men.
 You conceal them in Your shelter from accusing tongues.
- 21 Blessed be the LORD,
 for He has shown me His loving devotion in a city under siege.
- 22 In my alarm I said,
 "I am cut off from Your sight!"
 But You heard my plea for mercy
 when I called to You for help.
- 23 Love the LORD, all His saints.
 The LORD preserves the faithful,
 but fully repays the arrogant.
- 24 Be strong and courageous,
 all you who hope in the LORD.

The Joy of Forgiveness
(Romans 4:1-12)

Of David. A Maskil.*

- 1 Blessed is he whose transgressions are forgiven,
 whose sins are covered.†
- 2 Blessed is the man whose iniquity the LORD does not count against him,‡ in whose spirit there is no deceit.
- 3 When I kept silent, my bones became brittle from my groaning all day long.
- 4 For day and night
 Your hand was heavy upon me;
 my strength was drained §
 as in the summer heat.
- 5 Then I acknowledged my sin to You

Selah

* 32: Maskil is probably a musical or liturgical term; used for Psalms 32, 42, 44-45, 52-55, 74, 78, 88-89, and 142.

† 32:1 LXX Blessed is he whose lawless acts are forgiven, whose sins are covered; cited in Romans 4:7 ‡ 32:2 LXX Blessed is the man whose sin the LORD does not count against him; cited in Romans 4:8 § 32:4 Or my vitality was turned and did not hide my iniquity.

I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD,"
and You forgave the guilt of my sin.

Selah

<sup>6</sup> Therefore let all the godly pray to You while You may be found.

Surely when great waters rise,
they will not come near.

<sup>7</sup> You are my hiding place.

You protect me from trouble;
You surround me with songs of deliverance.

Selah

<sup>8</sup> I will instruct you and teach you the way you should go;
I will give you counsel and watch over you.

<sup>9</sup> Do not be like the horse or mule, which have no understanding;
they must be controlled with bit and bridle
to make them come to you.

<sup>10</sup> Many are the sorrows of the wicked, but loving devotion surrounds him who trusts in the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> Be glad in the LORD and rejoice, O righteous ones;
shout for joy, all you upright in heart.

33

Praise to the Creator
(Psalm 148:1-14)

<sup>1</sup> Rejoice in the LORD, O righteous ones;
it is fitting for the upright to praise Him.

<sup>2</sup> Praise the LORD with the harp;
make music to Him with ten strings.

<sup>3</sup> Sing to Him a new song;
play skillfully with a shout of joy.

<sup>4</sup> For the word of the LORD is upright, and all His work is trustworthy.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD loves righteousness and justice;
the earth is full of His loving devotion.

<sup>6</sup> By the word of the LORD the heavens were made,
and all the stars by the breath of His mouth.

<sup>7</sup> He piles up the waters of the sea;
He puts the depths into storehouses.

<sup>8</sup> Let all the earth fear the LORD;
let all the people of the world revere Him.

<sup>9</sup> For He spoke, and it came to be;
He commanded, and it stood firm.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD frustrates the plans of the nations;
He thwarts the devices of the peoples.

<sup>11</sup> The counsel of the LORD stands forever,
the purposes of His heart to all generations.

<sup>12</sup> Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD,
the people He has chosen as His inheritance!

<sup>13</sup> The LORD looks down from heaven;
He sees all the sons of men.

<sup>14</sup> From His dwelling place He gazes on all who inhabit the earth.

<sup>15</sup> He shapes the hearts of each;
He considers all their works.

- 16 No king is saved by his vast army;
no warrior is delivered by his great strength.
- 17 A horse is a vain hope for salvation;
even its great strength cannot save.
- 18 Surely the eyes of the LORD are on those who fear Him, on those whose hope is in His loving devotion
- 19 to deliver them from death and keep them alive in famine.
- 20 Our soul waits for the LORD;
He is our help and our shield.
- 21 For our hearts rejoice in Him,
since we trust in His holy name.
- 22 May Your loving devotion rest on us, O LORD,
as we put our hope in You.

Taste and See That the LORD Is Good
(1 Samuel 21:8-15)

Of David, when he pretended to be insane before Abimelech,* so that the king drove him away.†

- 1 I will bless the LORD at all times;
His praise will always be on my lips.
- 2 My soul boasts in the LORD;
let the oppressed hear and rejoice.
- 3 Magnify the LORD with me;
let us exalt His name together.
- 4 I sought the LORD, and He answered me;
He delivered me from all my fears.
- 5 Those who look to Him are radiant with joy;
their faces shall never be ashamed.
- 6 This poor man called out, and the LORD heard him;
He saved him from all his troubles.
- 7 The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear Him,
and he delivers them.
- 8 Taste and see that the LORD is good;
blessed is the man who takes refuge in Him!
- 9 Fear the LORD, you His saints, for those who fear Him lack nothing.
- 10 Young lions go lacking and hungry,
but those who seek the LORD lack no good thing.
- 11 Come, children, listen to me;
I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
- 12 Who is the man who delights in life,
who desires to see good days?
- 13 Keep your tongue from evil and your lips from deceitful speech.
- 14 Turn away from evil and do good;
seek peace and pursue it.
- 15 The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous, and His ears are inclined to their cry.‡
- 16 But the face of the LORD is against those who do evil,§

* 34: Abimelech is another name for Achish; see 1 Samuel 21-29 and 1 Kings 2:39. † 34: This psalm is an acrostic poem, each verse beginning with the successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet. ‡ 34:15 LXX to their

to wipe out all memory of them from the earth.

- 17 The righteous cry out, and the LORD hears;
He delivers them from all their troubles.
18 The LORD is near to the brokenhearted;
He saves the contrite in spirit.
19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous,
but the LORD delivers him from them all.
20 He protects all his bones; not one of them will be broken.*
21 Evil will slay the wicked, and the haters of the righteous will be condemned.
22 The LORD redeems His servants, and none who take refuge in Him will be condemned.

35

Contend with My Opponents, O LORD

Of David.

- 1 Contend with my opponents, O LORD;
fight against those who fight against me.
2 Take up Your shield and buckler;
arise and come to my aid.
3 Draw the spear and javelin * against my pursuers;
say to my soul: "I am your salvation."
4 May those who seek my life
be disgraced and put to shame;
may those who plan to harm me
be driven back and confounded.
5 May they be like chaff in the wind,
as the angel of the LORD drives them away.
6 May their path be dark and slick,
as the angel of the LORD pursues.
7 For without cause they laid their net for me;
without reason they dug a pit for my soul.
8 May ruin befall them by surprise;
may the net they hid ensnare them;
may they fall into the hazard they created.
9 Then my soul will rejoice in the LORD and exult in His salvation.
10 All my bones will exclaim,
"Who is like You, O LORD,
who delivers the afflicted from the aggressor,
the poor and needy from the robber?"
11 Hostile witnesses come forward;
they make charges I know nothing about.
12 They repay me evil for good,
to the bereavement of my soul.
13 Yet when they were ill,
I put on sackcloth;
I humbled myself with fasting,
but my prayers returned unanswered.†
14 I paced about

* 34:20 Cited in John 19:36 * 35:3 Or and close the way † 35:13 Literally returned to my bosom as for my friend or brother;

 I was bowed down with grief,
 like one mourning for his mother.
 15 But when I stumbled, they assembled in glee;
 they gathered together against me.
 Assailants I did not know slandered me without ceasing.
 16 Like godless jesters at a feast,‡
 they gnashed their teeth at me.
 17 How long, O Lord, will You look on?
 Rescue my soul from their ravages,
 my precious life from these lions.
 18 Then I will give You thanks in the great assembly;
 I will praise You among many people.
 19 Let not my enemies gloat over me without cause, nor those who hate me without reason wink in malice.§ 20 For they do not speak peace, but they devise deceitful schemes against those who live quietly in the land.
 21 They gape at me and say,
 "Aha, aha! Our eyes have seen!"
 22 O LORD, You have seen it; be not silent.
 O Lord, be not far from me.
 23 Awake and rise to my defense,
 to my cause, my God and my Lord!
 24 Vindicate me by Your righteousness, O LORD my God, and do not let them gloat over me.
 25 Let them not say in their hearts,
 "Aha, just what we wanted!"
 Let them not say,
 "We have swallowed him up!"
 26 May those who gloat in my distress be ashamed and confounded;
 may those who exalt themselves over me
 be clothed in shame and reproach.
 27 May those who favor my vindication shout for joy and gladness;
 may they always say, "Exalted be the LORD who delights in His servant's well-being." 28 Then my tongue will proclaim Your righteousness and Your praises all day long.

The Transgression of the Wicked

For the choirmaster. A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD.

1 An oracle is in my heart regarding the transgression of the wicked man:
 There is no fear of God
 before his eyes.*
 2 For his eyes are too full of conceit to detect or hate his own sin.
 3 The words of his mouth are wicked and deceitful;
 he has ceased to be wise and well-doing.

‡ 35:16 Or Like a godless circle of mockers, § 35:19 See John 15:25. * 36:1 Cited in Romans 3:18

- 4 Even on his bed he plots wickedness;
he sets himself on a path that is not good;
he fails to reject evil.
- 5 Your loving devotion, O LORD, reaches to the heavens,
Your faithfulness to the clouds.
- 6 Your righteousness is like the highest mountains;
Your judgments are like the deepest sea.
O LORD, You preserve man and beast.
- 7 How precious is Your loving devotion, O God, that the children of men take refuge in the shadow of Your wings!
- 8 They feast on the abundance of Your house,
and You give them drink from Your river of delights.
- 9 For with You is the fountain of life;
in Your light we see light.
- 10 Extend Your loving devotion to those who know You, and Your righteousness to the upright in heart.
- 11 Let not the foot of the proud come against me,
nor the hand of the wicked drive me away.
- 12 There the evildoers lie fallen, thrown down and unable to rise.

37

Delight Yourself in the LORD
(1 Kings 2:1-9)

- Of David.*
- 1 Do not fret over those who do evil;
do not envy those who do wrong.
- 2 For they wither quickly like grass and wilt like tender plants.
- 3 Trust in the LORD and do good;
dwell in the land and cultivate faithfulness.
- 4 Delight yourself in the LORD,
and He will give you the desires of your heart.
- 5 Commit your way to the LORD;
trust in Him, and He will do it.
- 6 He will bring forth your righteousness like the dawn,
your justice like the noonday sun.
- 7 Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for Him;
do not fret when men prosper in their ways,
when they carry out wicked schemes.
- 8 Refrain from anger and abandon wrath;
do not fret—it can only bring harm.
- 9 For the evildoers will be cut off, but those who hope in the LORD will inherit the land.
- 10 Yet a little while, and the wicked will be no more;
though you look for them, they will not be found.
- 11 But the meek will inherit the land † and delight in abundant prosperity.
- 12 The wicked scheme against the righteous

* 37: This psalm is an acrostic poem, each stanza beginning with the successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet.

† 37:11 Or the earth; see Matthew 5:5.

- and gnash their teeth at them, 13 but the Lord laughs,
seeing that their day is coming.
- 14 The wicked have drawn the sword and bent the bow
to bring down the poor and needy, to slay those whose ways are upright.
- 15 But their swords will pierce their own hearts,
and their bows will be broken.
- 16 Better is the little of the righteous than the abundance of many who are wicked.
- 17 For the arms of the wicked will be broken,
but the LORD upholds the righteous.
- 18 The LORD knows the days of the blameless, and their inheritance will last forever.
- 19 In the time of evil they will not be ashamed, and in the days of famine they will be satisfied.
- 20 But the wicked and enemies of the LORD will perish like the glory of the fields.
They will vanish;
like smoke they will fade away.
- 21 The wicked borrow and do not repay,
but the righteous are gracious and giving.
- 22 Surely those He blesses will inherit the land,
but the cursed will be destroyed.
- 23 The steps of a man are ordered by the LORD who takes delight in his journey.
- 24 Though he falls, he will not be overwhelmed, for the LORD is holding his hand.‡
- 25 I once was young and now am old, yet never have I seen the righteous abandoned or their children begging for bread.
- 26 They are ever generous and quick to lend,
and their children are a blessing.
- 27 Turn away from evil and do good,
so that you will abide forever.
- 28 For the LORD loves justice and will not forsake His saints.
They are preserved forever,
but the offspring of the wicked will be cut off.
- 29 The righteous will inherit the land and dwell in it forever.
- 30 The mouth of the righteous man utters wisdom,
and his tongue speaks justice.
- 31 The law of his God is in his heart;
his steps do not falter.
- 32 Though the wicked lie in wait for the righteous, and seek to slay them,
33 the LORD will not leave them in their power or let them be condemned under judgment.

---

‡ 37:24 Or upholds him with His hand

- 34 Wait for the LORD and keep His way,
and He will raise you up to inherit the land.
When the wicked are cut off,
you will see it.
- 35 I have seen a wicked, ruthless man flourishing like a well-rooted native tree, 36 yet he passed away and was no more;
though I searched, he could not be found.
- 37 Consider the blameless and observe the upright, for posterity awaits the man of peace. § 38 But the transgressors will all be destroyed;
the future of the wicked will be cut off.
- 39 The salvation of the righteous is from the LORD;
He is their stronghold in time of trouble.
40 The LORD helps and delivers them;
He rescues and saves them from the wicked,
because they take refuge in Him.

38

Do Not Rebuke Me in Your Anger
(Psalm 6:1-10)

A Psalm of David, for remembrance.

- 1 O LORD, do not rebuke me in Your anger
or discipline me in Your wrath.
2 For Your arrows have pierced me deeply,
and Your hand has pressed down on me.
- 3 There is no soundness in my body
because of Your anger;
there is no rest in my bones
because of my sin.
- 4 For my iniquities have overwhelmed me;
they are a burden too heavy to bear.
- 5 My wounds are foul and festering because of my sinful folly.
- 6 I am bent and brought low;
all day long I go about mourning.
- 7 For my loins are full of burning pain,
and no soundness remains in my body.
- 8 I am numb and badly crushed;
I groan in anguish of heart.
- 9 O Lord, my every desire is before You;
my groaning is not hidden from You.
- 10 My heart pounds, my strength fails,
and even the light of my eyes has faded.
- 11 My beloved and friends shun my disease, and my kinsmen stand at a distance.
- 12 Those who seek my life lay snares;
those who wish me harm speak destruction, plotting deceit all day long.
- 13 But like a deaf man, I do not hear;
and like a mute man, I do not open my mouth.
- 14 I am like a man who cannot hear,

§ 37:37 Or for there is a future for the man of peace whose mouth offers no reply.

15 I wait for You, O LORD;

You will answer, O Lord my God.

16 For I said, "Let them not gloat over me—those who taunt me when my foot slips."

17 For I am ready to fall, and my pain is ever with me.

18 Yes, I confess my iniquity;
I am troubled by my sin.

19 Many are my enemies without cause,* and many hate me without reason.†

20 Those who repay my good with evil attack me for pursuing the good.

21 Do not forsake me, O LORD;
be not far from me, O my God.

22 Come quickly to help me,
O Lord my Savior.

I Will Watch My Ways

For the choirmaster. For Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

1 I said, "I will watch my ways
so that I will not sin with my tongue;
I will guard my mouth with a muzzle
as long as the wicked are present."

2 I was speechless and still;
I remained silent, even from speaking good,
and my sorrow was stirred.

3 My heart grew hot within me;
as I mused, the fire burned.

Then I spoke with my tongue:

4 "Show me, O LORD, my end and the measure of my days.
Let me know how fleeting my life is.

5 You, indeed, have made my days as handbreadths, and my lifetime as nothing before You.
Truly each man at his best exists as but a breath.

Selah

6 Surely every man goes about like a phantom;
surely he bustles in vain;
he heaps up riches
not knowing who will haul them away.

7 And now, O Lord, for what do I wait?
My hope is in You.

8 Deliver me from all my transgressions;
do not make me the reproach of fools.

9 I have become mute;
I do not open my mouth
because of what You have done.

10 Remove Your scourge from me;
I am perishing by the force of Your hand.

11 You discipline and correct a man for his iniquity,

I Waited Patiently for the LORD
(Psalm 70:1-5; Hebrews 10:1-18)

For the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> I waited patiently for the LORD;
He inclined to me and heard my cry.
<sup>2</sup> He lifted me up from the pit of despair, out of the miry clay;
He set my feet upon a rock,
and made my footsteps firm.
<sup>3</sup> He put a new song in my mouth,
a hymn of praise to our God.
Many will see and fear and put their trust in the LORD.
<sup>4</sup> Blessed is the man who has made the LORD his trust, who has not turned to the proud,
nor to those who lapse into falsehood.*
<sup>5</sup> Many, O LORD my God, are the wonders You have done,
and the plans You have for us—
none can compare to You—if I proclaim and declare them,
they are more than I can count.
<sup>6</sup> Sacrifice and offering You did not desire, but my ears You have opened.†
Burnt offerings and sin offerings
You did not require.
<sup>7</sup> Then I said, "Here I am, I have come—it is written about me in the scroll:
<sup>8</sup> I delight to do Your will, O my God;‡
Your law is within my heart."
<sup>9</sup> I proclaim righteousness in the great assembly;
behold, I do not seal my lips,
as You, O LORD, do know.
<sup>10</sup> I have not covered up Your righteousness in my heart;
I have declared Your faithfulness and salvation;
I have not concealed Your loving devotion and faithfulness from the great assembly.
<sup>11</sup> O LORD, do not withhold Your mercy from me;
Your loving devotion and faithfulness will always guard me.

* 40:4 Or who turn aside to false gods or who run after lies † 40:6 Hebrew; some LXX manuscripts but a body

12 For evils without number surround me;
 my sins have overtaken me, so that I cannot see.
 They are more than the hairs of my head,
 and my heart has failed within me.

13 Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me;
 hurry, O LORD, to help me.

14 May those who seek my life
 be ashamed and confounded;
 may those who wish me harm be repelled and humiliated.

15 May those who say to me, "Aha, aha!"
 be appalled at their own shame.

16 May all who seek You rejoice and be glad in You;
 may those who love Your salvation always say, "The LORD be magnified!"

17 But I am poor and needy;
 may the Lord think of me.
 You are my helper and deliverer;
 O my God, do not delay.

Victory over Betrayal
(John 13:18-30)

For the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

1 Blessed is the one who cares for the poor;
 the LORD will deliver him in the day of trouble.

2 The LORD will protect and preserve him;
 He will bless him in the land and refuse to surrender him
 to the will of his foes.

3 The LORD will sustain him on his bed of illness and restore him from his bed of sickness.

4 I said, "O LORD, be gracious to me;
 heal me, for I have sinned against You."

5 My enemies say with malice:
 "When will he die and be forgotten?"

6 My visitor speaks falsehood;
 he gathers slander in his heart;
 he goes out and spreads it abroad.

7 All who hate me whisper against me;
 they imagine the worst for me:

8 "A vile disease has been poured into him;
 he will never get up from where he lies!"

9 Even my close friend whom I trusted, the one who shared my bread,
 has lifted up his heel against me.*

10 But You, O LORD, be gracious to me and raise me up, that I may repay them.

11 By this I know that You delight in me,
 for my enemy does not triumph over me.

12 In my integrity You uphold me and set me in Your presence forever.

Psalms 42–72

As the Deer Pants for the Water

For the choirmaster. A Maskil of the sons of Korah.*

- <sup>1</sup> As the deer pants for streams of water, so my soul longs after You, O God.
- <sup>2</sup> My soul thirsts for God, the living God.
When shall I come and appear in God's presence?†
- <sup>3</sup> My tears have been my food
both day and night,
while men ask me all day long,
"Where is your God?"
- <sup>4</sup> These things come to mind as I pour out my soul:
how I walked with the multitude, leading the procession to the house of God with shouts of joy and praise.
- <sup>5</sup> Why are you downcast, O my soul?
Why the unease within me?
Put your hope in God, for I will yet praise Him
for the salvation of His presence.
- <sup>6</sup> O my God, my soul despairs within me.
Therefore I remember You from the land of Jordan and the peaks of Hermon—even from Mount Mizar.
- <sup>7</sup> Deep calls to deep in the roar of Your waterfalls;
all Your breakers and waves have rolled over me.
- <sup>8</sup> The LORD decrees His loving devotion by day, and at night His song is with me as a prayer to the God of my life.
- <sup>9</sup> I say to God my Rock,
"Why have You forgotten me?
Why must I walk in sorrow
because of the enemy's oppression?"
- <sup>10</sup> Like the crushing of my bones,
my enemies taunt me,
while they say to me all day long,
"Where is your God?"
- <sup>11</sup> Why are you downcast, O my soul?
Why the unease within me?
Put your hope in God, for I will yet praise Him,
my Savior and my God.

Send Out Your Light

* 42: In many Hebrew manuscripts Psalms 42 and 43 constitute one psalm. Maskil is probably a musical or liturgical term; used for Psalms 32, 42, 44–45, 52–55, 74, 78, 88–89, and 142. † 42:2 Or and see the face of God?

<sup>1</sup> Vindicate me, O God, and plead my case against an ungodly nation;
deliver me from deceitful and unjust men.

<sup>2</sup> For You are the God of my refuge.
Why have You rejected me?

Why must I walk in sorrow
because of the enemy's oppression?

<sup>3</sup> Send out Your light and Your truth;
let them lead me.

Let them bring me to Your holy mountain, and to the place where You dwell.

<sup>4</sup> Then I will go to the altar of God,
to God, my greatest joy.

I will praise You with the harp,
O God, my God.

<sup>5</sup> Why are you downcast, O my soul?
Why the unease within me?

Put your hope in God, for I will yet praise Him,
my Savior and my God.

Redeem Us, O God
(Romans 8:35-39)

For the choirmaster: A Maskil * of the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup> We have heard with our ears, O God;
our fathers have told us
the work You did in their days, in the days of old.

<sup>2</sup> With Your hand You drove out the nations and planted our fathers there;
You crushed the peoples and cast them out.

<sup>3</sup> For it was not by their sword that they took the land;
their arm did not bring them victory.
It was by Your right hand,
Your arm, and the light of Your face,
because You favored them.

<sup>4</sup> You are my King, O God, who ordains victories for Jacob.

<sup>5</sup> Through You we repel our foes;
through Your name we trample our enemies.

<sup>6</sup> For I do not trust in my bow, nor does my sword save me.†

<sup>7</sup> For You save us from our enemies;
You put those who hate us to shame.

<sup>8</sup> In God we have boasted all day long,
and Your name we will praise forever.

Selah

<sup>9</sup> But You have rejected and humbled us;
You no longer go forth with our armies.

<sup>10</sup> You have made us retreat from the foe, and those who hate us have plundered us.

<sup>11</sup> You have given us up as sheep to be devoured;
You have scattered us among the nations.

* 44: Maskil is probably a musical or liturgical term; used for Psalms 32, 42, 44-45, 52-55, 74, 78, 88-89, and 142.

† 44:6 Or give me victory; similarly in verse 7

- 12 You sell Your people for nothing;
no profit do You gain from their sale.
- 13 You have made us a reproach to our neighbors,
a mockery and derision to those around us.
- 14 You have made us a byword among the nations,
a laughingstock ‡ among the peoples.
- 15 All day long my disgrace is before me,
and shame has covered my face,
- 16 at the voice of the scorner and reviler,
because of the enemy, bent on revenge.
- 17 All this has come upon us, though we have not forgotten You or betrayed Your covenant.
- 18 Our hearts have not turned back;
our steps have not strayed from Your path.
- 19 But You have crushed us in the lair of jackals;§
You have covered us with deepest darkness.
- 20 If we had forgotten the name of our God or spread out our hands to a foreign god, 21 would not God have discovered,
since He knows the secrets of the heart?
22 Yet for Your sake we face death all day long;
we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.*
- 23 Wake up, O Lord! Why are You sleeping?
Arise! Do not reject us forever.
- 24 Why do You hide Your face and forget our affliction and oppression?
25 For our soul has sunk to the dust;
our bodies cling to the earth.
- 26 Rise up; be our help!
Redeem us on account of Your loving devotion.

- 2 You are the most handsome of men;

- 4 In your splendor ride forth in victory

God Is Our Refuge and Strength
 (2 Kings 18:13-16; 2 Chronicles 32:1-8)

For the choirmaster. Of the sons of Korah. According to Alamoth.* A song.

- 1 God is our refuge and strength,
 an ever-present help in times of trouble.
 2 Therefore we will not fear, though the earth is transformed and the mountains are toppled into the depths of the seas, 3 though their waters roar and foam and the mountains quake in the surge. Selah
- 4 There is a river whose streams delight the city of God, the earth melts when He lifts His voice.

Clap Your Hands, All You Peoples

For the choirmaster. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup> Clap your hands, all you peoples;
shout unto God with a voice of triumph.

<sup>2</sup> How awesome is the LORD Most High,
the great King over all the earth!

<sup>3</sup> He subdues nations beneath us,
and peoples under our feet.

<sup>4</sup> He chooses our inheritance for us,
the pride of Jacob, whom He loves.

Selah

<sup>5</sup> God has ascended amid shouts of joy, the LORD with the sound of the horn.

sing praises to our King, sing praises!

<sup>7</sup> For God is King of all the earth;
sing profound praises to Him.*

<sup>8</sup> God reigns over the nations;
God is seated on His holy throne.

Broken Bondage

A song. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup> Great is the LORD,

the joy of all the earth,
like the peaks of Zaphon * is Mount Zion,
the city of the great King.

<sup>3</sup> God is in her citadels;
He has shown Himself to be a fortress.

<sup>4</sup> For behold, the kings assembled;
they all advanced together.

<sup>5</sup> They saw and were astounded;

† 46:9 Or chariots * 47:7 Or sing a Maskil of praise or sing praises with understanding * 48:2 Or in the far north; the most sacred mountain of the Canaanites was Zaphon

<sup>8</sup> As we have heard, so we have seen

<sup>9</sup> Within Your temple, O God,

The Evanescence of Wealth
(Ecclesiastes 5:8-20)

For the choirmaster. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup> Hear this, all you peoples;
listen, all inhabitants of the world,

<sup>2</sup> both low and high,
rich and poor alike.

<sup>3</sup> My mouth will impart wisdom, and the meditation of my heart will bring understanding.

<sup>4</sup> I will incline my ear to a proverb;
I will express my riddle with the harp:

<sup>5</sup> Why should I fear in times of trouble, when wicked usurpers surround me?

<sup>6</sup> They trust in their wealth and boast in their great riches.

<sup>7</sup> No man can possibly redeem his brother * or pay his ransom to God.

<sup>8</sup> For the redemption of his soul is costly, and never can payment suffice,

<sup>9</sup> that he should live on forever and not see decay.

<sup>10</sup> For it is clear that wise men die, and the foolish and the senseless both perish and leave their wealth to others.

<sup>11</sup> Their graves † are their eternal homes—
their dwellings for endless generations—

Or redeem another    † 49:11 LXX, Syriac, and Aramaic Targum; Hebrew Their inward thoughts

 12 But a man, despite his wealth, cannot endure;
 he is like the beasts that perish.

13 This is the fate of the self-confident † and their followers who endorse their sayings.

Selah

14 Like sheep they are destined for Sheol.

 The upright will rule them in the morning,
 and their form will decay in Sheol,
 far from their lofty abode.

15 But God will redeem my life from Sheol, for He will surely take me to Himself.

Selah

16 Do not be amazed when a man grows rich, when the splendor of his house increases.
 17 For when he dies, he will carry nothing away;
 his abundance will not follow him down.
 18 Though in his lifetime he blesses his soul—
 and men praise you when you prosper—19 he will join the generation of his fathers, who will never see the light of day.
 20 A man who has riches without understanding is like the beasts that perish.

The Mighty One Calls

A Psalm of Asaph.

1 The Mighty One, God the LORD, speaks and summons the earth
 from where the sun rises to where it sets.
 2 From Zion, perfect in beauty,
 God shines forth.
 3 Our God approaches and will not be silent!
 Consuming fire precedes Him,
 and a tempest rages around Him.
 4 He summons the heavens above,
 and the earth, that He may judge His people:
 5 "Gather to Me My saints, who made a covenant with Me by sacrifice."
 6 And the heavens proclaim His righteousness, for God Himself is Judge.*

Selah

7 "Hear, O My people, and I will speak,
 O Israel, and I will testify against you:
 I am God, your God.
 8 I do not rebuke you for your sacrifices,
 and your burnt offerings are ever before Me.
 9 I have no need for a bull from your stall or goats from your pens,
 10 for every beast of the forest is Mine—
 the cattle on a thousand hills.
 11 I know every bird in the mountains, and the creatures of the field are Mine.
 12 If I were hungry, I would not tell you,
 for the world is Mine, and the fullness thereof.
 13 Do I eat the flesh of bulls,

† 49:13 Or the way of the foolish * 50:6 Or He is a God of justice

- or drink the blood of goats?
 14 Sacrifice a thank offering to God, and fulfill your vows to the Most High.
 15 Call upon Me in the day of trouble;
 I will deliver you, and you will honor Me.”
 16 To the wicked, however, God says,
 “What right have you to recite My statutes and to bear My covenant on your lips?
 17 For you hate My instruction and cast My words behind you.
 18 When you see a thief, you befriend him,
 and throw in your lot with adulterers.
 19 You unleash your mouth for evil and unharness your tongue for deceit.
 20 You sit and malign your brother;
 you slander your own mother’s son.
 21 You have done these things, and I kept silent;
 you thought I was † just like you.
 But now I rebuke you and accuse you to your face.‡
 22 Now consider this, you who forget God, lest I tear you to pieces,
 with no one to rescue you:
 23 He who sacrifices a thank offering honors Me,
 and to him who rights his way,
 I will show the salvation of God.”

Create in Me a Clean Heart, O God
 (2 Samuel 12:1–12)

For the choirmaster. A Psalm of David. When Nathan the prophet came to him after his adultery with Bathsheba.

- 1 Have mercy on me,* O God,
 according to Your loving devotion;
 according to Your great compassion,
 blot out my transgressions.
 2 Wash me clean of my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.
 3 For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.
 4 Against You, You only, have I sinned and done what is evil in Your sight,
 so that You may be proved right when You speak and blameless when You judge.†
 5 Surely I was brought forth in iniquity;
 I was sinful when my mother conceived me.
 6 Surely You desire truth in the inmost being;
 You teach me wisdom in the inmost place.
 7 Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean;
 wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
 8 Let me hear joy and gladness;
 let the bones You have crushed rejoice.
 9 Hide Your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquities.

† 50:21 Or you thought the ‘I AM’ was ‡ 50:21 Literally and I set it in order before your eyes

* 51:1 Or Be gracious to me † 51:4 LXX and victorious when You judge; cited in Romans 3:4

- 10 Create in me a clean heart, O God,
and renew a right spirit within me.
- 11 Cast me not away from Your presence;
take not Your Holy Spirit from me.
- 12 Restore to me the joy of Your salvation, and sustain me with a willing spirit.
- 13 Then I will teach transgressors Your ways, and sinners will return to You.
- 14 Deliver me from bloodguilt, O God,
the God of my salvation,
and my tongue will sing of Your righteousness.
- 15 O Lord, open my lips,
and my mouth will declare Your praise.
- 16 For You do not delight in sacrifice, or I would bring it;
You take no pleasure in burnt offerings.
- 17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit;
a broken and a contrite heart,
O God, You will not despise.
- 18 In Your good pleasure, cause Zion to prosper;
build up the walls of Jerusalem.
- 19 Then You will delight in righteous sacrifices,
in whole burnt offerings;
then bulls will be offered on Your altar.

Why Do You Boast of Evil?
(1 Samuel 22:6-23)

For the choirmaster. A Maskil* of David. After Doeg the Edomite went to Saul and told him, "David has gone to the house of Ahimelech."

- 1 Why do you boast of evil, O mighty man?
The loving devotion of God endures all day long.
- 2 Your tongue devises destruction
like a sharpened razor,
O worker of deceit.
- 3 You love evil more than good,
falsehood more than speaking truth.
- 4 You love every word that devours,
O deceitful tongue.
- 5 Surely God will bring you down to everlasting ruin;
He will snatch you up and tear you away from your tent;
He will uproot you from the land of the living.
- 6 The righteous will see and fear;
they will mock the evildoer, saying,
- 7 "Look at the man who did not make God his refuge, but trusted in the abundance of his wealth and strengthened himself by destruction."
- 8 But I am like an olive tree flourishing in the house of God;
I trust in the loving devotion of God
forever and ever.
- 9 I will praise You forever,
because You have done it.

for it is good—
in the presence of Your saints.

The Fool Says There Is No God
(Psalm 14:1-7; Isaiah 59:1-17; Romans 3:9-20)

For the choirmaster. According to Mahalath.* A Maskil † of David.

<sup>1</sup> The fool says in his heart,
“There is no God.”

They are corrupt; their ways are vile.
There is no one who does good.

<sup>2</sup> God looks down from heaven
upon the sons of men
to see if any understand,
if any seek God.

<sup>3</sup> All have turned away,
they have together become corrupt;‡
there is no one who does good,
not even one.§

<sup>4</sup> Will the workers of iniquity never learn?

They devour my people like bread;
they refuse to call upon God.

<sup>5</sup> There they are, overwhelmed with dread,
where there was nothing to fear.
For God has scattered the bones of those who besieged you.
You put them to shame,
for God has despised them.

<sup>6</sup> Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come from Zion!

When God restores His captive people,*
let Jacob rejoice, let Israel be glad!

54

Save Me by Your Name
(1 Samuel 23:7-29)

For the choirmaster. With stringed instruments. A Maskil* of David. When the Ziphites went to Saul and said, “Is David not hiding among us?”

<sup>1</sup> Save me, O God, by Your name, and vindicate me by Your might!

<sup>2</sup> Hear my prayer, O God;
listen to the words of my mouth.

<sup>3</sup> For strangers rise up against me, and ruthless men seek my life—
men with no regard for God.

Selah

* 53: Mahalath is probably a musical or liturgical term; see also Psalm 88:1. † 53: Maskil is probably a musical or liturgical term; used for Psalms 32, 42, 44-45, 52-55, 74, 78, 88-89, and 142. ‡ 53:3 LXX worthless § 53:3 Cited in Romans 3:10-12 * 53:6 Or the fortunes of His people * 54: Maskil is probably a musical or liturgical term; used for Psalms 32, 42, 44-45, 52-55, 74, 78, 88-89, and 142.

- <sup>4</sup> Surely God is my helper;
 the Lord is the sustainer of my soul.
<sup>5</sup> He will reward my enemies with evil.
 In Your faithfulness, destroy them.
<sup>6</sup> Freely I will sacrifice to You;
 I will praise Your name, O LORD, for it is good.
<sup>7</sup> For He has delivered me from every trouble, and my eyes have stared down my foes.

Cast Your Burden upon the LORD
(2 Samuel 17:15–29)

For the choirmaster. With stringed instruments. A Maskil * of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Listen to my prayer, O God,
 and do not ignore my plea.
<sup>2</sup> Attend to me and answer me.
 I am restless in my complaint, and distraught <sup>3</sup> at the voice of the enemy,
 at the pressure of the wicked.
 For they release disaster upon me
 and revile me in their anger.
<sup>4</sup> My heart murmurs within me,
 and the terrors of death assail me.
<sup>5</sup> Fear and trembling grip me,
 and horror has overwhelmed me.
<sup>6</sup> I said, "Oh, that I had wings like a dove!
 I would fly away and find rest.
<sup>7</sup> How far away I would flee!
 In the wilderness I would remain.
<sup>8</sup> I would hurry to my shelter, far from this raging tempest." <sup>9</sup> O Lord, confuse and confound their speech, for I see violence and strife in the city.
<sup>10</sup> Day and night they encircle the walls, while malice and trouble lie within.
<sup>11</sup> Destruction is within;
 oppression and deceit never leave the streets.
<sup>12</sup> For it is not an enemy who insults me;
 that I could endure.
 It is not a foe who rises against me;
 from him I could hide.
<sup>13</sup> But it is you, a man like myself,
 my companion and close friend.
<sup>14</sup> We shared sweet fellowship together;
 we walked with the crowd into the house of God.
<sup>15</sup> Let death seize them by surprise;
 let them go down to Sheol alive,
 for evil is with them in their homes.
<sup>16</sup> But I call to God, and the LORD saves me.
<sup>17</sup> Morning, noon, and night, I cry out in distress, and He hears my voice.

Selah

* 55: Maskil is probably a musical or liturgical term; used for Psalms 32, 42, 44–45, 52–55, 74, 78, 88–89, and 142.

18 He redeems my soul in peace from the battle waged against me, even though many oppose me.
 19 God will hear and humiliate them—
 the One enthroned for the ages—

because they do not change and they have no fear of God.

20 My companion attacks his friends;
 he violates his covenant.
 21 His speech is smooth as butter,
 but war is in his heart.
 His words are softer than oil,
 yet they are swords unsheathed.

22 Cast your burden upon the LORD
 and He will sustain you;
 He will never let the righteous be shaken.
 23 But You, O God, will bring them down to the Pit of destruction;
 men of bloodshed and deceit
 will not live out half their days.

But I will trust in You.

Be Merciful to Me, O God
 (1 Samuel 21:8-15)

For the choirmaster. To the tune of "A Dove on Distant Oaks." A Miktam * of David, when the Philistines seized him in Gath.

1 Be merciful to me, O God,
 for men are hounding me;
 all day they press their attack.
 2 My enemies pursue me all day long,
 for many proudly assail me.
 3 When I am afraid,
 I put my trust in You.
 4 In God, whose word I praise—
 in God I trust.
 I will not be afraid.
 What can man do to me?
 5 All day long they twist my words;
 all their thoughts are on my demise.
 6 They conspire, they lurk, they watch my steps
 while they wait to take my life.
 7 In spite of such sin, will they escape?†
 In Your anger, O God, cast down the nations.
 8 You have taken account of my wanderings.‡
 Put my tears in Your bottle—are they not in Your book?
 9 Then my enemies will retreat on the day I cry for help.

* 56: Miktam is probably a musical or liturgical term; used for Psalms 16 and 56-60. † 56:7 Or do not let them escape; MT does not include do not. ‡ 56:8 Or sorrows

Selah

By this I will know that God is on my side.

- <sup>10</sup> In God, whose word I praise,
in the LORD, whose word I praise, <sup>11</sup> in God I trust; I will not be afraid.
What can man do to me?
- <sup>12</sup> Your vows are upon me, O God;
I will render thank offerings to You.
<sup>13</sup> For You have delivered my soul from death, and my feet from stumbling, that I may walk before God
in the light of life.

In You My Soul Takes Refuge
(1 Samuel 22:1-5; Psalm 108:1-13; Psalm 142:1-7)

For the choirmaster. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A Miktam * of David, when he fled from Saul into the cave.

- <sup>1</sup> Have mercy on me, O God, have mercy, for in You my soul takes refuge.
In the shadow of Your wings I will take shelter until the danger has passed.
<sup>2</sup> I cry out to God Most High,† to God who fulfills His purpose for me.
<sup>3</sup> He reaches down from heaven and saves me;
He rebukes those who trample me.

whose tongues are sharp swords.

- <sup>6</sup> They spread a net for my feet;

God Judges the Earth

For the choirmaster. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A Miktam * of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Do you indeed speak justly, O rulers?
Do you judge uprightly, O sons of men?
- <sup>2</sup> No, in your hearts you devise injustice;
with your hands you mete out violence on the earth.
- <sup>3</sup> The wicked are estranged from the womb;
the liars go astray from birth.
- <sup>4</sup> Their venom is like the venom of a snake,
like a cobra that shuts its ears,
- <sup>5</sup> refusing to hear the tune of the charmer who skillfully weaves his spell.
- <sup>6</sup> O God, shatter their teeth in their mouths;
O LORD, tear out the fangs of the lions.
- <sup>7</sup> May they vanish like water that runs off;
when they draw the bow,
may their arrows be blunted.†
- <sup>8</sup> Like a slug that dissolves in its slime, like a woman's stillborn child,
may they never see the sun.
- <sup>9</sup> Before your pots can feel the burning thorns—
whether green or dry—
He will sweep them away.
- <sup>10</sup> The righteous will rejoice
when they see they are avenged;
they will wash their feet
in the blood of the wicked.
- <sup>11</sup> Then men will say,
"There is surely a reward for the righteous!
There is surely a God who judges the earth!"

59

Deliver Me from My Enemies
(1 Samuel 19:1-24)

For the choirmaster. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A Miktam * of David, when Saul sent men to watch David's house in order to kill him.

- <sup>1</sup> Deliver me from my enemies, O my God;
protect me from those who rise against me.
- <sup>2</sup> Deliver me from workers of iniquity, and save me from men of bloodshed.
- <sup>3</sup> See how they lie in wait for me.
Fierce men conspire against me for no transgression or sin of my own, O LORD.
- <sup>4</sup> For no fault of my own,
they move swiftly to attack me.
Arise to help me, and take notice.
- <sup>5</sup> O LORD God of Hosts, the God of Israel, rouse Yourself to punish all the nations;
show no mercy to the wicked traitors.

* 58: Miktam is probably a musical or liturgical term; used for Psalms 16 and 56-60. † 58:7 Or when they are trodden down, may they wither like grass * 59: Miktam is probably a musical or liturgical term; used for Psalms 16 and 56-60.

Selah

- 6 They return in the evening, snarling like dogs
and prowling around the city.
7 See what they spew from their mouths—sharp words from their lips:
“For who can hear us?”
8 But You, O LORD, laugh at them;
You scoff at all the nations.
9 I will keep watch for You, O my strength, because You, O God, are my fortress.
10 My God of loving devotion will come to meet me;
God will let me stare down my foes.

- 11 Do not kill them,
or my people will forget.
Scatter them by Your power,
and bring them down,
O Lord, our shield.
12 By the sins of their mouths and the words of their lips,
let them be trapped in their pride,
in the curses and lies they utter.
13 Consume them in wrath;
consume them till they are no more,
so it may be known to the ends of the earth that God rules over Jacob.

Selah

- 14 They return in the evening, snarling like dogs
and prowling around the city.
15 They scavenge for food,
and growl if they are not satisfied.
16 But I will sing of Your strength and proclaim Your loving devotion in the morning.
For You are my fortress,
my refuge in times of trouble.
17 To You, O my strength, I sing praises, for You, O God, are my fortress,
my God of loving devotion.

Victory with God
(2 Samuel 8:1-14; 1 Chronicles 18:1-13; Psalm 108:1-13)

For the choirmaster. To the tune of “The Lily of the Covenant.” A Miktam * of David for instruction. When he fought Aram-naharaim † and Aram-zobah,‡ and Joab returned and struck down 12,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

- 1 You have rejected us, O God;
You have broken us;
You have been angry;
restore us!
2 You have shaken the land and torn it open.
Heal its fractures,
for it is quaking.

* 60: Miktam is probably a musical or liturgical term; used for Psalms 16 and 56-60. † 60: That is, Mesopotamia; Aram-naharaim means Aram of the two rivers, likely the region between the Euphrates and Balih Rivers in northwestern Mesopotamia. ‡ 60: That is, the land northeast of Damascus

we are staggered from the wine You made us drink.

<sup>4</sup> You have raised a banner for those who fear You, that they may flee the bow.§

<sup>5</sup> Respond and save us with Your right hand, that Your beloved may be delivered.

Selah

<sup>6</sup> God has spoken from His sanctuary:*

“I will triumph!

I will parcel out Shechem
and apportion the Valley of Succoth.

<sup>7</sup> Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine;
Ephraim is My helmet, Judah is My scepter.

<sup>8</sup> Moab is My washbasin;
upon Edom I toss My sandal;
over Philistia I shout in triumph.”

<sup>9</sup> Who will bring me to the fortified city?
Who will lead me to Edom?

<sup>10</sup> Have You not rejected us, O God?
Will You no longer march out, O God, with our armies?

<sup>11</sup> Give us aid against the enemy,
for the help of man is worthless.

<sup>12</sup> With God we will perform with valor,
and He will trample our enemies.

You Have Heard My Vows

For the choirmaster. With stringed instruments. Of David.

<sup>1</sup> Hear my cry, O God;
attend to my prayer.

<sup>2</sup> From the ends of the earth I call out to You whenever my heart is faint.

Lead me to the rock
that is higher than I.

<sup>3</sup> For You have been my refuge,
a tower of strength against the enemy.

<sup>4</sup> Let me dwell in Your tent forever and take refuge in the shelter of Your wings.

Selah

<sup>5</sup> For You have heard my vows, O God;
You have given me the inheritance reserved for those who fear Your name.

<sup>6</sup> Increase the days of the king's life;
may his years span many generations.

<sup>7</sup> May he sit enthroned in God's presence forever;
appoint Your loving devotion and Your faithfulness to guard him.

<sup>8</sup> Then I will ever sing praise to Your name and fulfill my vows day by day.

Waiting on God

§ 60:4 Or that it may be displayed because of truth      * 60:6 Or in His holiness

For the choirmaster. According to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

my salvation comes from Him.

<sup>2</sup> He alone is my rock and my salvation.
He is my fortress;
I will never be shaken.

<sup>3</sup> How long will you threaten a man?
Will all of you throw him down like a leaning wall or a tottering fence?

<sup>4</sup> They fully intend to cast him down from his lofty perch;
they delight in lies;
with their mouths they bless,
but inwardly they curse.

Selah

<sup>5</sup> Rest in God alone, O my soul, for my hope comes from Him.

<sup>6</sup> He alone is my rock and my salvation;
He is my fortress; I will not be shaken.

<sup>7</sup> My salvation and my honor rest on God, my strong rock;
my refuge is in God.

<sup>8</sup> Trust in Him at all times, O people;
pour out your hearts before Him.
God is our refuge.

Selah

<sup>9</sup> Lowborn men are but a vapor, the exalted but a lie.
Weighed on the scale, they go up;
together they are but a vapor.

<sup>10</sup> Place no trust in extortion, or false hope in stolen goods.
If your riches increase,
do not set your heart upon them.

<sup>11</sup> God has spoken once;
I have heard this twice:
that power belongs to God,
<sup>12</sup> and loving devotion to You, O Lord.
For You will repay each man
according to his deeds.*

Thirsting for God
(2 Samuel 15:30-37)

A Psalm of David, when he was in the Wilderness of Judah.

<sup>1</sup> O God, You are my God.
Earnestly I seek You;
my soul thirsts for You.
My body yearns for You in a dry and weary land without water.

<sup>2</sup> So I have seen You in the sanctuary and beheld Your power and glory.

<sup>3</sup> Because Your loving devotion is better than life, my lips will glorify You.

<sup>4</sup> So I will bless You as long as I live;

* 62:12 Cited in Romans 2:6

in Your name I will lift my hands.

- <sup>5</sup> My soul is satisfied as with the richest of foods;
with joyful lips my mouth will praise You.
- <sup>6</sup> When I remember You on my bed,
I think of You through the watches of the night.
- <sup>7</sup> For You are my help;
I will sing for joy in the shadow of Your wings.
- <sup>8</sup> My soul clings to You;
Your right hand upholds me.
- <sup>9</sup> But those who seek my life to destroy it will go into the depths of the earth.
- <sup>10</sup> They will fall to the power of the sword;
they will become a portion for foxes.
- <sup>11</sup> But the king will rejoice in God;
all who swear by Him will exult,
for the mouths of liars will be shut.

64

The Hurtful Tongue
(James 3:1-12)

For the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Hear, O God, my voice of complaint;
preserve my life from dread of the enemy.
- <sup>2</sup> Hide me from the scheming of the wicked,
from the mob of workers of iniquity, <sup>3</sup> who sharpen their tongues like swords and aim their bitter words like arrows, <sup>4</sup> ambushing the innocent in seclusion, shooting suddenly, without fear.
- <sup>5</sup> They hold fast to their evil purpose;
they speak of hiding their snares.
“Who will see them?” they say.
- <sup>6</sup> They devise injustice and say,
“We have perfected a secret plan.”
For the inner man and the heart are mysterious.
- <sup>7</sup> But God will shoot them with arrows;
suddenly they will be wounded.
- <sup>8</sup> They will be made to stumble, their own tongues turned against them.
All who see will shake their heads.
- <sup>9</sup> Then all mankind will fear and proclaim the work of God;
so they will ponder what He has done.
- <sup>10</sup> Let the righteous rejoice in the LORD and take refuge in Him;
let all the upright in heart exult.

65

Praise Awaits God in Zion

For the choirmaster. A Psalm of David. A song.

- <sup>1</sup> Praise awaits You, O God, in Zion;
to You our vows will be fulfilled.
- <sup>2</sup> O You who listen to prayer,

all people will come to You.
<sup>3</sup> When iniquities prevail against me,
 You atone for our transgressions.
<sup>4</sup> Blessed is the one You choose and bring near to dwell in Your courts!
 We are filled with the goodness of Your house,
 the holiness of Your temple.
<sup>5</sup> With awesome deeds of righteousness You answer us, O God of our salvation,
 the hope of all the ends of the earth and of the farthest seas.
<sup>6</sup> You formed the mountains by Your power, having girded Yourself with might.
<sup>7</sup> You stilled the roaring of the seas,
 the pounding of their waves,
 and the tumult of the nations.
<sup>8</sup> Those who live far away fear Your wonders;
 You make the dawn and sunset shout for joy.*
<sup>9</sup> You attend to the earth and water it;†
 with abundance You enrich it.
 The streams of God are full of water,
 for You prepare our grain
 by providing for the earth.‡
<sup>10</sup> You soak its furrows and level its ridges;
 You soften it with showers and bless its growth.
<sup>11</sup> You crown the year with Your bounty, and Your paths overflow with plenty.
<sup>12</sup> The pastures of the wilderness overflow;
 the hills are robed with joy.
<sup>13</sup> The pastures are clothed with flocks,
 and the valleys are decked with grain.
 They shout in triumph;
 indeed, they sing.

Make a Joyful Noise
(Psalm 100:1-5)

For the choirmaster. A song. A Psalm.

<sup>1</sup> Make a joyful noise to God,
 all the earth!
<sup>2</sup> Sing the glory of His name;
 make His praise glorious.
<sup>3</sup> Say to God, "How awesome are Your deeds!
 So great is Your power that Your enemies cower before You.
<sup>4</sup> All the earth bows down to You;
 they sing praise to You;
 they sing praise to Your name."
<sup>5</sup> Come and see the works of God;
 how awesome are His deeds toward mankind.
<sup>6</sup> He turned the sea into dry land;
 they passed through the waters on foot;
 there we rejoiced in Him.
<sup>7</sup> He rules forever by His power;

Selah

* 65:8 Or where morning dawns and evening fades You call forth songs of joy. † 65:9 Or and make it overflow

‡ 65:9 Or to provide the people with grain, for so You have ordained it

His eyes watch the nations.
Do not let the rebellious exalt themselves.

Selah

<sup>8</sup> Bless our God, O peoples;
let the sound of His praise be heard.

<sup>9</sup> He preserves our lives and keeps our feet from slipping.

<sup>10</sup> For You, O God, have tested us;
You have refined us like silver.

<sup>11</sup> You led us into the net;
You laid burdens on our backs.

<sup>12</sup> You let men ride over our heads;
we went through fire and water,
but You brought us into abundance.

<sup>13</sup> I will enter Your house with burnt offerings;
I will fulfill my vows to You—

<sup>14</sup> the vows that my lips promised and my mouth spoke in my distress.

<sup>15</sup> I will offer You fatlings as burnt offerings, with the fragrant smoke of rams;
I will offer bulls and goats.

Selah

<sup>16</sup> Come and listen, all you who fear God, and I will declare what He has done for me.

<sup>17</sup> I cried out to Him with my mouth and praised Him with my tongue.*

<sup>18</sup> If I had cherished iniquity in my heart, the Lord would not have listened.

<sup>19</sup> But God has surely heard;
He has attended to the sound of my prayer.

<sup>20</sup> Blessed be God, who has not rejected my prayer or withheld from me His loving devotion!

May God Cause His Face to Shine upon Us

For the choirmaster. With stringed instruments. A Psalm. A song.

<sup>1</sup> May God be gracious to us and bless us, and cause His face to shine upon us,

Selah

<sup>2</sup> that Your ways may be known on earth,
Your salvation among all nations.

<sup>3</sup> Let the peoples praise You, O God;
let all the peoples praise You.

<sup>4</sup> Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for You judge the peoples justly and lead the nations of the earth.

Selah

<sup>5</sup> Let the peoples praise You, O God;
let all the peoples praise You.

<sup>6</sup> The earth has yielded its harvest;
God, our God, blesses us.

<sup>7</sup> God blesses us, that all the ends of the earth shall fear Him.

* 66:17 Or and His praise was on my tongue

God's Enemies Are Scattered

For the choirmaster. A Psalm of David. A song.

- 1 God arises. His enemies are scattered, and those who hate Him flee His presence.
- 2 As smoke is blown away,
You will drive them out;
as wax melts before the fire,
the wicked will perish in the presence of God.
- 3 But the righteous will be glad and rejoice before God;
they will celebrate with joy.
- 4 Sing to God!
Sing praises to His name.
Exalt Him who rides on the clouds *—
His name is the LORD—and rejoice before Him.
- 5 A father of the fatherless,
and a defender of the widows,
is God in His holy habitation.
- 6 God settles the lonely in families;
He leads the prisoners out to prosperity,
but the rebellious dwell in a sun-scorched land.
- 7 O God, when You went out before Your people,
when You marched through the wasteland,
- 8 the earth shook and the heavens poured down rain before God, the One on Sinai, before God, the God of Israel.
- 9 You sent abundant rain, O God;
You refreshed Your weary inheritance.
- 10 Your flock settled therein;
O God, from Your bounty You provided for the poor.
- 11 The Lord gives the command;
a great company of women proclaim it:
- 12 "Kings and their armies flee in haste;
she who waits at home divides the plunder.
- 13 Though you lie down among the sheepfolds,
the wings of the dove are covered with silver,
and her feathers with shimmering gold."

The Waters Are up to My Neck

For the choirmaster. To the tune of "Lilies." Of David.

§ 68:18 Cited in Ephesians 4:8 * 68:28 LXX and Syriac; most Hebrew manuscripts Your God has summoned your power † 68:31 That is, the upper Nile region

- 1 Save me, O God,
    for the waters are up to my neck.
 2 I have sunk into the miry depths,
    where there is no footing;
 I have drifted into deep waters,
    where the flood engulfs me.
 3 I am weary from my crying;
    my throat is parched.
 My eyes fail,
    looking for my God.
 4 Those who hate me without cause outnumber the hairs of my head;
 many are those who would destroy me—
    my enemies for no reason.*
 Though I did not steal,
    I must repay.
 5 You know my folly, O God,
    and my guilt is not hidden from You.
 6 May those who hope in You not be ashamed through me,
    O Lord GOD of Hosts;
 may those who seek You not be dishonored through me,
    O God of Israel.
 7 For I have endured scorn for Your sake,
    and shame has covered my face.
 8 I have become a stranger to my brothers and a foreigner to my mother's sons, 9 because zeal for Your house has consumed me,† and the insults of those who insult You have fallen on me.‡ 10 I wept and fasted,
    but it brought me reproach.
 11 I made sackcloth my clothing,
    and I was sport to them.
 12 Those who sit at the gate mock me,
    and I am the song of drunkards.
 13 But my prayer to You, O LORD, is for a time of favor.
 In Your abundant loving devotion, O God, answer me with Your sure salvation.
 14 Rescue me from the mire and do not let me sink;
 deliver me from my foes
    and out of the deep waters.
 15 Do not let the floods engulf me or the depths swallow me up;
    let not the Pit close its mouth over me.
 16 Answer me, O LORD,
    for Your loving devotion is good;
    turn to me in keeping with Your great compassion.
 17 Hide not Your face from Your servant,
    for I am in distress.
    Answer me quickly!
 18 Draw near to my soul and redeem me;
    ransom me because of my foes.
 19 You know my reproach, my shame and disgrace.
    All my adversaries are before You.
 20 Insults have broken my heart, and I am in despair.

 21 They poisoned my food with gall

 22 May their table become a snare;
 may it be a retribution and a trap.§
 23 May their eyes be darkened so they cannot see,
 and their backs be bent forever.*
 24 Pour out Your wrath upon them, and let Your burning anger overtake them.
 25 May their place be deserted;
 let there be no one to dwell in their tents.† 26 For they persecute the one You struck and recount the pain of those You wounded.
 27 Add iniquity to their iniquity;
 let them not share in Your righteousness.
 28 May they be blotted out of the Book of Life and not listed with the righteous.
 29 But I am in pain and distress;
 let Your salvation protect me, O God.
 30 I will praise God's name in song and exalt Him with thanksgiving.
 31 And this will please the LORD more than an ox,
 more than a bull with horns and hooves.
 32 The humble will see and rejoice.
 You who seek God, let your hearts be revived!
 33 For the LORD listens to the needy and does not despise His captive people.
 34 Let heaven and earth praise Him,
 the seas and everything that moves in them.
 35 For God will save Zion and rebuild the cities of Judah, that they may dwell there and possess it.
 36 The descendants of His servants will inherit it, and those who love His name will settle in it.

Be My Rock of Refuge

<sup>1</sup> In You, O LORD, I have taken refuge;
let me never be put to shame.
<sup>2</sup> In Your justice, rescue and deliver me;
incline Your ear and save me.
<sup>3</sup> Be my rock of refuge, where I can always go.
Give the command to save me,
for You are my rock and my fortress.
<sup>4</sup> Deliver me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked, from the grasp of the unjust and ruthless.

<sup>5</sup> For You are my hope, O Lord GOD, my confidence from my youth.
<sup>6</sup> I have leaned on You since birth;
You pulled me from my mother's womb.
My praise is always for You.
<sup>7</sup> I have become a portent to many,
but You are my strong refuge.
<sup>8</sup> My mouth is filled with Your praise and with Your splendor all day long.

<sup>9</sup> Do not discard me in my old age;
do not forsake me when my strength fails.
<sup>10</sup> For my enemies speak against me,
and those who lie in wait for my life conspire, <sup>11</sup> saying, "God has forsaken him;
pursue him and seize him,
for there is no one to rescue him."

<sup>12</sup> Be not far from me, O God.
Hurry, O my God, to help me.
<sup>13</sup> May the accusers of my soul be ashamed and consumed;
may those who seek my harm
be covered with scorn and disgrace.

<sup>14</sup> But I will always hope and will praise You more and more.
<sup>15</sup> My mouth will declare Your righteousness and Your salvation all day long, though I cannot know their full measure.
<sup>16</sup> I will enter in the strength of the Lord GOD;
I will proclaim Your righteousness—Yours alone.

<sup>17</sup> O God, You have taught me from my youth, and to this day I proclaim Your marvelous deeds.
<sup>18</sup> Even when I am old and gray,
do not forsake me, O God,
until I proclaim Your power to the next generation,
Your might to all who are to come.
<sup>19</sup> Your righteousness reaches to the heavens, O God,
You who have done great things.
Who, O God, is like You?

- 20 Though You have shown me many troubles and misfortunes,
 You will revive me once again.
 Even from the depths of the earth
 You will bring me back up.
- 21 You will increase my honor and comfort me once again.
- 22 So I will praise You with the harp for Your faithfulness, O my God;
 I will sing praise to You with the lyre,
 O Holy One of Israel.
- 23 When I sing praise to You my lips will shout for joy,
 along with my soul,
 which You have redeemed.
- 24 My tongue will indeed proclaim Your righteousness all day long,
 for those who seek my harm are disgraced and confounded.

- 11 May all kings bow down to him
 and all nations serve him.
- 12 For he will deliver the needy who cry out and the afflicted who have no helper.
- 13 He will take pity on the poor and needy and save the lives of the oppressed.
- 14 He will redeem them from oppression and violence,
 for their blood is precious in his sight.

- 16 May there be an abundance of grain in the land;
 may it sway atop the hills.
 May its fruit trees flourish like the forests of Lebanon,
 and its people like the grass of the field.
- 17 May his name endure forever;
 may his name continue‡ as long as the sun shines.
 In him may all nations be blessed;
 may they call him blessed.
- 18 Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel, who alone does marvelous deeds.

 may all the earth be filled with His glory.

Amen and amen.

Psalms 73–89

Surely God Is Good to Israel

A Psalm of Asaph.

- 1 Surely God is good to Israel,
 to those who are pure in heart.
- 2 But as for me, my feet had almost stumbled;
 my steps had nearly slipped.
- 3 For I envied the arrogant
 when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
- 4 They have no struggle in their death;
 their bodies are well-fed.
- 5 They are free of the burdens others carry;
 they are not afflicted like other men.
- 6 Therefore pride is their necklace;
 a garment of violence covers them.
- 7 From their prosperity proceeds iniquity;*
 the imaginations of their hearts run wild.
- 8 They mock and speak with malice;
 with arrogance they threaten oppression.
- 9 They set their mouths against the heavens,
 and their tongues strut across the earth.
- 10 So their people † return to this place and drink up waters in abundance.
- 11 The wicked say, "How can God know?
 Does the Most High have knowledge?"
- 12 Behold, these are the wicked—always carefree as they increase their wealth.
- 13 Surely in vain I have kept my heart pure;
 in innocence I have washed my hands.
- 14 For I am afflicted all day long

‡ 72:17 Or increase * 73:7 Literally Their eye bulges with fatness; Syriac From their callous heart proceeds iniquity † 73:10 Or His people and punished every morning.

 15 If I had said, "I will speak this way,"
 then I would have betrayed Your children.
 16 When I tried to understand all this,
 it was troublesome in my sight 17 until I entered God's sanctuary;
 then I discerned their end.
 18 Surely You set them on slick ground;
 You cast them down into ruin.
 19 How suddenly they are laid waste, completely swept away by terrors!
 20 Like one waking from a dream,
 so You, O Lord, awaken and despise their form.
 21 When my heart was grieved and I was pierced within,
 22 I was senseless and ignorant;
 I was a brute beast before You.
 23 Yet I am always with You;
 You hold my right hand.
 24 You guide me with Your counsel, and later receive me in glory.
 25 Whom have I in heaven but You?
 And on earth I desire no one besides You.
 26 My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength ‡ of my heart and my portion forever.
 27 Those far from You will surely perish;
 You destroy all who are unfaithful to You.
 28 But as for me, it is good to draw near to God.
 I have made the Lord GOD my refuge, that I may proclaim all Your works.

Why Have You Rejected Us Forever?
 (Psalm 79:1-13; Jeremiah 52:1-11)

A Maskil * of Asaph.

1 Why have You rejected us forever, O God?
 Why does Your anger smolder against the sheep of Your pasture?
 2 Remember Your congregation, which You purchased long ago and redeemed as the tribe of Your inheritance—
 Mount Zion where You dwell.
 3 Turn Your steps to the everlasting ruins, to everything in the sanctuary the enemy has destroyed.
 4 Your foes have roared within Your meeting place;
 they have unfurled their banners as signs,
 5 like men wielding axes in a thicket of trees
 6 and smashing all the carvings with hatchets and picks.
 7 They have burned Your sanctuary to the ground;
 they have defiled the dwelling place of Your Name.

‡ 73:26 Hebrew rock      * 74: Maskil is probably a musical or liturgical term; used for Psalms 32, 42, 44-45, 52-55, 74, 78, 88-89, and 142.

- 8 They said in their hearts,
 "We will crush them completely."
 They burned down every place where God met us in the land.
- 9 There are no signs for us to see.
 There is no longer any prophet.
 And none of us knows how long this will last.
- 10 How long, O God, will the enemy taunt You?
 Will the foe revile Your name forever?
- 11 Why do You withdraw Your strong right hand?
 Stretch it out to destroy them!†
- 12 Yet God is my King from ancient times, working salvation on the earth.
- 13 You divided the sea by Your strength;
 You smashed the heads of the dragons of the sea;
- 14 You crushed the heads of Leviathan;
 You fed him to the creatures of the desert.
- 15 You broke open the fountain and the flood;
 You dried up the ever-flowing rivers.
- 16 The day is Yours, and also the night;
 You established the moon ‡ and the sun.
- 17 You set all the boundaries of the earth;
 You made the summer and winter.
- 18 Remember how the enemy has mocked You, O LORD,
 how a foolish people has spurned Your name.
- 19 Do not deliver the soul of Your dove to beasts;
 do not forget the lives of Your afflicted forever.
- 20 Consider Your covenant, for haunts of violence fill the dark places of the land.
- 21 Do not let the oppressed retreat in shame;
 may the poor and needy praise Your name.
- 22 Rise up, O God; defend Your cause!
 Remember how the fool mocks You all day long.
- 23 Do not disregard the clamor of Your adversaries, the uproar of Your enemies that ascends continually.

God's Righteous Judgment (Romans 2:1-16)

For the choirmaster: To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A Psalm of Asaph. A song.

- 1 We give thanks to You, O God;
 we give thanks, for Your Name is near.
 The people declare Your wondrous works.
- 2 "When I choose a time,
 I will judge fairly.
- 3 When the earth and all its dwellers quake,
 it is I who bear up its pillars.

 full of foaming wine mixed with spices.

God's Name Is Great in Israel

For the choirmaster. With stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph. A song.

- 1 God is known in Judah;
 His name is great in Israel.
 2 His tent is in Salem,*
 His dwelling place in Zion.
 3 There He shattered the flaming arrows,
 the shield and sword and weapons of war.
- 4 You are resplendent with light, more majestic than mountains filled with game.
 5 The valiant lie plundered; they sleep their last sleep.
 No men of might could lift a hand.
 6 At Your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both horse and rider lie stunned.
- 7 You alone are to be feared.
 When You are angry, who can stand before You?
 8 From heaven You pronounced judgment, and the earth feared and was still 9 when God rose up to judge, to save all the lowly of the earth.
- 10 Even the wrath of man shall praise You;
 with the survivors of wrath You will clothe Yourself.†
- 11 Make and fulfill your vows to the LORD your God;
 let all the neighboring lands bring tribute to Him who is to be feared.
 12 He breaks the spirits of princes;
 He is feared by the kings of the earth.

In the Day of Trouble I Sought the LORD

For the choirmaster. According to Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph.

- 1 I cried out to God;
 I cried aloud to God to hear me.

* 75:9 Or proclaim it * 76:2 That is, Jerusalem † 76:10 Or Surely Your wrath against men brings You praise, and the survivors of Your wrath will be restrained.

2 In the day of trouble I sought the Lord;
 through the night my outstretched hands did not grow weary;
 my soul refused to be comforted.
 3 I remembered You, O God, and I groaned;
 I mused and my spirit grew faint.

Selah

4 You have kept my eyes from closing;
 I am too troubled to speak.
 5 I considered the days of old,
 the years long in the past.
 6 At night I remembered my song;
 in my heart I mused, and my spirit pondered:

7 "Will the Lord spurn us forever and never show His favor again?
 8 Is His loving devotion gone forever?
 Has His promise failed for all time?
 9 Has God forgotten to be gracious?
 Has His anger shut off His compassion?"

Selah

10 So I said, "I am grieved that the right hand of the Most High has changed."*

11 I will remember the works of the LORD;
 yes, I will remember Your wonders of old.
 12 I will reflect on all You have done and ponder Your mighty deeds.
 13 Your way, O God, is holy.
 What god is so great as our God?
 14 You are the God who works wonders;
 You display Your strength among the peoples.
 15 With power You redeemed Your people,
 the sons of Jacob and Joseph.

Selah

16 The waters saw You, O God;
 the waters saw You and swirled;
 even the depths were shaken.
 17 The clouds poured down water;
 the skies resounded with thunder;
 Your arrows flashed back and forth.
 18 Your thunder resounded in the whirlwind;
 the lightning lit up the world;
 the earth trembled and quaked.
 19 Your path led through the sea,
 Your way through the mighty waters,
 but Your footprints were not to be found.† 20 You led Your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

I Will Open My Mouth in Parables
 (Matthew 13:34-35)

A Maskil * of Asaph.

1 Give ear, O my people, to my instruction;
 listen to the words of my mouth.

* 77:10 Or "To this I will appeal: to the years of the right hand of the Most High." † 77:19 Or were unknown

* 78: Maskil is probably a musical or liturgical term; used for Psalms 32, 42, 44-45, 52-55, 74, 78, 88-89, and 142.

2 I will open my mouth in parables;
I will utter things hidden from the beginning,†
3 that we have heard and known and our fathers have relayed to us.
4 We will not hide them from their children,
but will declare to the next generation
the praises of the LORD and His might,
and the wonders He has performed.

5 For He established a testimony in Jacob and appointed a law in Israel, which He commanded our fathers to teach to their children, 6 that the coming generation would know them—even children yet to be born—to arise and tell their own children 7 that they should put their confidence in God, not forgetting His works,
but keeping His commandments.
8 Then they will not be like their fathers,
a stubborn and rebellious generation, whose heart was not loyal,
whose spirit was not faithful to God.

9 The archers of Ephraim turned back on the day of battle.
10 They failed to keep God's covenant and refused to live by His law.
11 They forgot what He had done,
the wonders He had shown them.
12 He worked wonders before their fathers
in the land of Egypt, in the region of Zoan.
13 He split the sea and brought them through;
He set the waters upright like a wall.
14 He led them with a cloud by day and with a light of fire all night.
15 He split the rocks in the wilderness and gave them drink as abundant as the seas.
16 He brought streams from the stone and made water flow down like rivers.

17 But they continued to sin against Him, rebellious in the desert against the Most High.
18 They willfully tested God
by demanding the food they craved.
19 They spoke against God, saying,
"Can God really prepare a table in the wilderness?"
20 When He struck the rock, water gushed out and torrents raged.
But can He also give bread or supply His people with meat?"

21 Therefore the LORD heard and was filled with wrath;
so a fire was kindled against Jacob,
and His anger flared against Israel, 22 because they did not believe God or rely on His salvation.

23 Yet He commanded the clouds above

† 78:2 Or from ancient times; see also LXX; cited in Matthew 13:35

- and opened the doors of the heavens.
 24 He rained down manna for them to eat;
 He gave them grain from heaven.‡
 25 Man ate the bread of angels;
 He sent them food in abundance.
 26 He stirred the east wind from the heavens and drove the south wind by His might.
 27 He rained meat on them like dust,
 and winged birds like the sand of the sea.
 28 He felled them in the midst of their camp,
 all around their dwellings.
 29 So they ate and were well filled,
 for He gave them what they craved.
 30 Yet before they had filled their desire,
 with the food still in their mouths, 31 God's anger flared against them, and He put to death their strongest and subdued the young men of Israel.
 32 In spite of all this, they kept on sinning;
 despite His wonderful works, they did not believe.
 33 So He ended their days in futility,§ and their years in sudden terror.
 34 When He slew them, they would seek Him;
 they repented and searched for God.
 35 And they remembered that God was their Rock, that God Most High * was their Redeemer.
 36 But they deceived Him with their mouths,
 and lied to Him with their tongues.
 37 Their hearts were disloyal to Him,
 and they were unfaithful to His covenant.
 38 And yet He was compassionate;
 He forgave their iniquity and did not destroy them.
 He often restrained His anger and did not unleash His full wrath.
 39 He remembered that they were but flesh,
 a passing breeze that does not return.
 40 How often they disobeyed Him in the wilderness and grieved Him in the desert!
 41 Again and again they tested God and provoked the Holy One of Israel.
 42 They did not remember His power †—
 the day He redeemed them from the adversary, 43 when He performed His signs in Egypt and His wonders in the fields of Zoan.
 44 He turned their rivers to blood,
 and from their streams they could not drink.
 45 He sent swarms of flies that devoured them,
 and frogs that devastated them.
 46 He gave their crops to the grasshopper, the fruit of their labor to the locust.
 47 He killed their vines with hailstones and their sycamore-figs with sleet.‡
 48 He abandoned their cattle to the hail

‡ 78:24 Cited in John 6:31    § 78:33 Or in vapor    * 78:35 Hebrew El-Elyon    † 78:42 Or His hand    ‡ 78:47
 Or frost or driving rain and their livestock to bolts of lightning.

<sup>49</sup> He unleashed His fury against them, wrath, indignation, and calamity—
a band of destroying angels.

<sup>50</sup> He cleared a path for His anger;
He did not spare them from death
but delivered their lives to the plague.

<sup>51</sup> He struck all the firstborn of Egypt,
the virility in the tents of Ham.

<sup>52</sup> He led out His people like sheep and guided them like a flock in the wilderness.

<sup>53</sup> He led them safely, so they did not fear, but the sea engulfed their enemies.

<sup>54</sup> He brought them to His holy land, to the mountain His right hand had acquired.

<sup>55</sup> He drove out nations before them and apportioned their inheritance;
He settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.

<sup>56</sup> But they tested and disobeyed God Most High, for they did not keep His decrees.

<sup>57</sup> They turned back and were faithless like their fathers, twisted like a faulty bow.

<sup>58</sup> They enraged Him with their high places and provoked His jealousy with their idols.

<sup>59</sup> On hearing it, God was furious and rejected Israel completely.

<sup>60</sup> He abandoned the tabernacle of Shiloh,
the tent He had pitched among men.

<sup>61</sup> He delivered His strength to captivity, and His splendor to the hand of the adversary.

<sup>62</sup> He surrendered His people to the sword because He was enraged by His heritage.

and their maidens were left without wedding songs.

but their widows could not lament.

<sup>65</sup> Then the Lord awoke as from sleep,
like a mighty warrior overcome by wine.

He put them to everlasting shame.

<sup>67</sup> He rejected the tent of Joseph and refused the tribe of Ephraim.

<sup>68</sup> But He chose the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion, which He loved.

<sup>69</sup> He built His sanctuary like the heights,
like the earth He has established forever.

<sup>70</sup> He chose David His servant
and took him from the sheepfolds;

<sup>71</sup> from tending the ewes He brought him to be shepherd of His people Jacob, of Israel His inheritance.

<sup>72</sup> So David shepherded them with integrity of heart and guided them with skillful hands.

A Prayer for Deliverance
(Psalm 74:1–23; Jeremiah 52:1–11)

A Psalm of Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup> The nations, O God, have invaded Your inheritance;
 they have defiled Your holy temple and reduced Jerusalem to rubble.
- <sup>2</sup> They have given the corpses of Your servants as food to the birds of the air, the flesh of Your saints to the beasts of the earth.
- <sup>3</sup> They have poured out their blood like water
 all around Jerusalem,
 and there is no one to bury the dead.
- <sup>4</sup> We have become a reproach to our neighbors,
 a scorn and derision to those around us.
- <sup>5</sup> How long, O LORD?
 Will You be angry forever?
 Will Your jealousy burn like fire?
- <sup>6</sup> Pour out Your wrath on the nations
 that do not acknowledge You,
 on the kingdoms
 that refuse to call on Your name,
- <sup>7</sup> for they have devoured Jacob and devastated his homeland.
- <sup>8</sup> Do not hold past sins against us;
 let Your compassion come quickly,
 for we are brought low.
- <sup>9</sup> Help us, O God of our salvation,
 for the glory of Your name;
 deliver us and atone for our sins,
 for the sake of Your name.
- <sup>10</sup> Why should the nations ask,
 "Where is their God?"
 Before our eyes, make known among the nations
 Your vengeance for the bloodshed of Your servants.
- <sup>11</sup> May the groans of the captives reach You;
 by the strength of Your arm preserve those condemned to death.
- <sup>12</sup> Pay back into the laps of our neighbors
 sevenfold the reproach they hurled at You, O Lord.
- <sup>13</sup> Then we Your people, the sheep of Your pasture, will thank You forever;
 from generation to generation
 we will declare Your praise.

Hear Us, O Shepherd of Israel

For the choirmaster. To the tune of "The Lilies of the Covenant." A Psalm of Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup> Hear us, O Shepherd of Israel, who leads Joseph like a flock;
 You who sit enthroned between the cherubim, shine forth <sup>2</sup> before Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh.
 Rally Your mighty power
 and come to save us.
- <sup>3</sup> Restore us, O God,

and cause Your face to shine upon us,
that we may be saved.

- 4 O LORD God of Hosts,
how long will Your anger smolder against the prayers of Your people?
- 5 You fed them with the bread of tears and made them drink the full measure of their tears.
- 6 You make us contend with our neighbors;
our enemies mock us.
- 7 Restore us, O God of Hosts,
and cause Your face to shine upon us,
that we may be saved.
- 8 You uprooted a vine from Egypt;
You drove out the nations and transplanted it.
- 9 You cleared the ground for it,
and it took root and filled the land.
- 10 The mountains were covered by its shade,
and the mighty cedars with its branches.
- 11 It sent out its branches to the Sea,* and its shoots toward the River.†
- 12 Why have You broken down its walls,
so that all who pass by pick its fruit?
- 13 The boar from the forest ravages it,
and the creatures of the field feed upon it.
- 14 Return, O God of Hosts, we pray!
Look down from heaven and see!
Attend to this vine—
15 the root Your right hand has planted, the son You have raised up for Yourself.
- 16 Your vine has been cut down and burned;
they perish at the rebuke of Your countenance.
- 17 Let Your hand be upon the man at Your right hand, on the son of man You have raised up for Yourself.
- 18 Then we will not turn away from You;
revive us, and we will call on Your name.
- 19 Restore us, O LORD God of Hosts; cause Your face to shine upon us,
that we may be saved.

Sing for Joy to God Our Strength

For the choirmaster. According to Gittith.* Of Asaph.

- 1 Sing for joy to God our strength;
make a joyful noise to the God of Jacob.
- 2 Lift up a song, strike the tambourine, play the sweet-sounding harp and lyre.
- 3 Sound the ram's horn at the New Moon,
and at the full moon on the day of our Feast.
- 4 For this is a statute for Israel,
an ordinance of the God of Jacob.
- 5 He ordained it as a testimony for Joseph †
when he went out over the land of Egypt,

* 80:11 That is, the Mediterranean Sea, also called the Great Sea † 80:11 That is, the Euphrates * 81: Gittith where I heard an unfamiliar language:

- <sup>6</sup> "I relieved his shoulder of the burden;
his hands were freed from the basket.
<sup>7</sup> You called out in distress, and I rescued you;
I answered you from the cloud of thunder;
I tested you at the waters of Meribah.‡

Selah

- <sup>8</sup> Hear, O My people, and I will warn you:
O Israel, if only you would listen to Me!
<sup>9</sup> There must be no strange god among you,
nor shall you bow to a foreign god.
<sup>10</sup> I am the LORD your God, who brought you up out of Egypt.
Open wide your mouth,
and I will fill it.

- <sup>11</sup> But My people would not listen to Me, and Israel would not obey Me.
<sup>12</sup> So I gave them up to their stubborn hearts to follow their own devices.
<sup>13</sup> If only My people would listen to Me, if Israel would follow My ways, <sup>14</sup> how soon I would subdue their enemies and turn My hand against their foes!
<sup>15</sup> Those who hate the LORD would feign obedience, and their doom would last forever.
<sup>16</sup> But I would feed you the finest wheat;
with honey from the rock I would satisfy you."

God Presides in the Divine Assembly

A Psalm of Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup> God presides in the divine assembly;
He renders judgment among the gods:
<sup>2</sup> "How long will you judge unjustly * and show partiality to the wicked?
<sup>3</sup> Defend the cause of the weak and fatherless;
uphold the rights of the afflicted and oppressed.
<sup>4</sup> Rescue the weak and needy;
save them from the hand of the wicked.
<sup>5</sup> They do not know or understand;
they wander in the darkness;
all the foundations of the earth are shaken.
<sup>6</sup> I have said, 'You are gods;
you are all sons of the Most High.'† <sup>7</sup> But like mortals you will die, and like rulers you will fall."
<sup>8</sup> Arise, O God, judge the earth,
for all the nations are Your inheritance.

Cited in John 10:34

* 82:2 Or How long will you defend the unjust

† 82:6

A song. A Psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> O God, be not silent; be not speechless;* be not still, O God.
<sup>2</sup> See how Your enemies rage,
 how Your foes have reared their heads.
<sup>3</sup> With cunning they scheme against Your people and conspire against those You cherish, <sup>4</sup> saying, "Come, let us erase them as a nation;
 may the name of Israel be remembered no more."

<sup>5</sup> For with one mind they plot together, they form an alliance against You—<sup>6</sup> the tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, of Moab and the Hagrites, <sup>7</sup> of Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek, of Philistia with the people of Tyre.
<sup>8</sup> Even Assyria has joined them, lending strength to the sons of Lot.

Selah

<sup>9</sup> Do to them as You did to Midian, as to Sisera and Jabin at the River Kishon, <sup>10</sup> who perished at Endor and became like dung on the ground.
<sup>11</sup> Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb, and all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna, <sup>12</sup> who said, "Let us possess for ourselves
 the pastures of God."

<sup>13</sup> Make them like tumbleweed, O my God, like chaff before the wind.
<sup>14</sup> As fire consumes a forest,
 as a flame sets the mountains ablaze, <sup>15</sup> so pursue them with Your tempest, and terrify them with Your storm.
<sup>16</sup> Cover their faces with shame,
 that they may seek Your name, O LORD.

<sup>17</sup> May they be ever ashamed and terrified;
 may they perish in disgrace.
<sup>18</sup> May they know that You alone, whose name is the LORD,
 are Most High over all the earth.

*Better Is One Day in Your Courts
 (John 1:14–18)*

For the choirmaster. According to Gittith.* A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup> How lovely is Your dwelling place,
 O LORD of Hosts!
<sup>2</sup> My soul longs, even faints, for the courts of the LORD;
 my heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.

 O LORD of Hosts, my King and my God.
 4 How blessed are those who dwell in Your house!
 They are ever praising You.

Selah

5 Blessed are those whose strength is in You, whose hearts are set on pilgrimage.
 6 As they pass through the Valley of Baca,† they make it a place of springs;
 even the autumn rain covers it with pools.‡ 7 They go from strength to strength, until each appears before God in Zion.

8 O LORD God of Hosts, hear my prayer;
 give ear, O God of Jacob.

Selah

9 Take notice of our shield, O God, and look with favor on the face of Your anointed.
 10 For better is one day in Your courts than a thousand elsewhere.
 I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of the wicked.
 11 For the LORD God is a sun and a shield;
 the LORD gives grace and glory;
 He withholds no good thing
 from those who walk with integrity.

12 O LORD of Hosts,
 how blessed is the man who trusts in You!

You Showed Favor to Your Land

For the choirmaster. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

1 You showed favor to Your land, O LORD;
 You restored Jacob from captivity.*
 2 You forgave the iniquity of Your people;
 You covered all their sin.
 3 You withheld all Your fury;
 You turned from Your burning anger.
 4 Restore us, O God of our salvation, and put away Your displeasure toward us.
 5 Will You be angry with us forever?
 Will You draw out Your anger to all generations?
 6 Will You not revive us again,
 that Your people may rejoice in You?
 7 Show us Your loving devotion, O LORD, and grant us Your salvation.

Selah

8 I will listen to what God the LORD will say;
 for He will surely speak peace to His people and His saints;
 He will not let them return to folly.
 9 Surely His salvation is near to those who fear Him, that His glory may dwell in our land.
 10 Loving devotion and faithfulness have joined together;
 righteousness and peace have kissed.

13 Righteousness will go before Him to prepare the way for His steps.

Tried but Trusting

A prayer of David.

- 1 Incline Your ear, O LORD, and answer me,
for I am poor and needy.
2 Preserve my soul, for I am godly.
You are my God; save Your servant who trusts in You.
3 Be merciful to me, O Lord,
for I call to You all day long.
4 Bring joy to Your servant,
for to You, O Lord, I lift up my soul.
5 For You, O Lord, are kind and forgiving, rich in loving devotion to all who call on You.
6 Hear my prayer, O LORD,
and attend to my plea for mercy.
7 In the day of my distress I call on You,
because You answer me.
8 O Lord, there is none like You among the gods, nor any works like Yours.
9 All the nations You have made will come and bow before You, O Lord, and they will glorify Your name.
10 For You are great and perform wonders;
You alone are God.
11 Teach me Your way, O LORD,
that I may walk in Your truth.
Give me an undivided heart,
that I may fear Your name.
12 I will praise You, O Lord my God, with all my heart;
I will glorify Your name forever.
13 For great is Your loving devotion to me;
You have delivered me from the depths of Sheol.
14 The arrogant rise against me, O God;
a band of ruthless men seeks my life,
with no regard for You.
15 But You, O Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in loving devotion and faithfulness.
16 Turn to me and have mercy;
grant Your strength to Your servant;
save the son of Your maidservant.
17 Show me a sign of Your goodness, that my enemies may see and be ashamed;
for You, O LORD, have helped me and comforted me.

The LORD Loves the Gates of Zion

A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A song.

- <sup>1</sup> He has founded His city on the holy mountains.*
- <sup>2</sup> The LORD loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.
- <sup>3</sup> Glorious things are ascribed to you,
O city of God.

among those who know Me—
along with Philistia, Tyre, and Cush ‡— when I say, "This one was born in Zion.' "
- <sup>5</sup> And it will be said of Zion:
"This one and that one were born in her,
and the Most High Himself will establish her."
- <sup>6</sup> The LORD will record in the register of the peoples:
"This one was born in Zion."
- <sup>7</sup> Singers and pipers will proclaim,
"All my springs of joy are in You."

I Cry Out before You

A song. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. For the choirmaster. According to Mahalath Leannoth.* A Maskil † of Heman the Ezrahite.

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD, the God of my salvation, day and night I cry out before You.
- <sup>2</sup> May my prayer come before You;
incline Your ear to my cry.
- <sup>3</sup> For my soul is full of troubles,
and my life draws near to Sheol.
- <sup>4</sup> I am counted among those descending to the Pit.
I am like a man without strength.
- <sup>5</sup> I am forsaken among the dead,
like the slain who lie in the grave,
whom You remember no more,
who are cut off from Your care.
- <sup>6</sup> You have laid me in the lowest Pit,
in the darkest of the depths.
- <sup>7</sup> Your wrath weighs heavily upon me;
all Your waves have submerged me.
- <sup>8</sup> You have removed my friends from me;
You have made me repulsive to them;
I am confined and cannot escape.
- <sup>9</sup> My eyes grow dim with grief.
I call to You daily, O LORD;
I spread out my hands to You.
- <sup>10</sup> Do You work wonders for the dead?
Do departed spirits rise up to praise You?

Selah

- 11 Can Your loving devotion be proclaimed in the grave,
Your faithfulness in Abaddon †?
- 12 Will Your wonders be known in the darkness, or Your righteousness in the land of oblivion?
- 13 But to You, O LORD, I cry for help;
in the morning my prayer comes before You.
- 14 Why, O LORD, do You reject me?
Why do You hide Your face from me?
- 15 From my youth I was afflicted and near death.
I have borne Your terrors; I am in despair.
- 16 Your wrath has swept over me;
Your terrors have destroyed me.
- 17 All day long they engulf me like water;
they enclose me on every side.
- 18 You have removed my beloved and my friend;
darkness is my closest companion.

I Will Sing of His Love Forever

A Maskil * of Ethan the Ezrahite.

- 1 I will sing of the loving devotion of the LORD forever;
with my mouth I will proclaim Your faithfulness to all generations.
- 2 For I have said, "Loving devotion is built up forever;
in the heavens You establish Your faithfulness."
- 3 You said, "I have made a covenant with My chosen one,
I have sworn to David My servant:
4 'I will establish your offspring forever and build up your throne for all generations.' "
- 5 The heavens praise Your wonders, O LORD—
Your faithfulness as well—in the assembly of the holy ones.
- 6 For who in the skies can compare with the LORD?
Who among the heavenly beings † is like the LORD?
- 7 In the council of the holy ones, God is greatly feared, and awesome above all who surround Him.
- 8 O LORD God of Hosts, who is like You?
O mighty LORD, Your faithfulness surrounds You.
- 9 You rule the raging sea;
when its waves mount up, You still them.
- 10 You crushed Rahab like a carcass;
You scattered Your enemies with Your mighty arm.
- 11 The heavens are Yours, and also the earth.
The earth and its fullness You founded.
- 12 North and south You created;
Tabor and Hermon shout for joy at Your name.
- 13 Mighty is Your arm; strong is Your hand.
Your right hand is exalted.
- 14 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne;
loving devotion and faithfulness go before You.

- 24 My faithfulness and loving devotion will be with him, and through My name his horn will be exalted.

- 38 Now, however, You have spurned and rejected him;
    You are enraged by Your anointed one.
- 39 You have renounced the covenant with Your servant and sullied his crown in the dust.

42 You have exalted the right hand of his foes;
 You have made all his enemies rejoice.
 43 You have bent the edge of his sword and have not sustained him in battle.
 44 You have ended his splendor and cast his throne to the ground.
 45 You have cut short the days of his youth;
 You have covered him with shame.

46 How long, O LORD?
 Will You hide Yourself forever?
 Will Your wrath keep burning like fire?
 47 Remember the briefness of my lifespan!
 For what futility You have created all men!
 48 What man can live and never see death?
 Can he deliver his soul from the power of Sheol?

49 Where, O Lord, is Your loving devotion of old, which You faithfully swore to David?
 50 Remember, O Lord, the reproach of Your servants, which I bear in my heart from so many people—51 how Your enemies have taunted, O LORD, and have mocked every step of Your anointed one!

52 Blessed be the LORD forever!

Amen and amen.

Psalms 90-106

From Everlasting to Everlasting

A prayer of Moses the man of God.

1 Lord, You have been our dwelling place through all generations.
 2 Before the mountains were born or You brought forth the earth and the world,
 from everlasting to everlasting
 You are God.

3 You return man to dust, saying, "Return, O sons of mortals."
 4 For in Your sight a thousand years are but a day that passes,*
 or a watch of the night.
 5 You whisk them away in their sleep;
 they are like the new grass of the morning—6 in the morning it springs up new,
 but by evening it fades and withers.

7 For we are consumed by Your anger and terrified by Your wrath.
 8 You have set our iniquities before You,
 our secret sins in the light of Your presence.
 9 For all our days decline in Your fury;
 we finish our years with a sigh.
 10 The length of our days is seventy years—or eighty if we are strong—yet their pride is but labor and sorrow,

* 90:4 See 2 Peter 3:8.

for they quickly pass, and we fly away.

- 11 Who knows the power of Your anger?
Your wrath matches the fear You are due.
- 12 So teach us to number our days,
that we may present a heart of wisdom.
- 13 Return, O LORD! How long will it be?
Have compassion on Your servants.
- 14 Satisfy us in the morning with Your loving devotion, that we may sing for joy and be glad all our days.
- 15 Make us glad for as many days as You have afflicted us,
for as many years as we have seen evil.
- 16 May Your work be shown to Your servants, and Your splendor to their children.
- 17 May the favor † of the Lord our God rest upon us; establish for us the work of our hands—
yes, establish the work of our hands!

You Are My Refuge and My Fortress

- 1 He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty.*
- 2 I will say to the LORD, "You are my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."
- 3 Surely He will deliver you from the snare of the fowler, and from the deadly plague.
- 4 He will cover you with His feathers;
under His wings you will find refuge;
His faithfulness is a shield and rampart.
- 5 You will not fear the terror of the night,
nor the arrow that flies by day,
6 nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness,
nor the calamity that destroys at noon.
- 7 Though a thousand may fall at your side,
and ten thousand at your right hand,
no harm will come near you.
- 8 You will only see it with your eyes and witness the punishment of the wicked.
- 9 Because you have made the LORD your dwelling—my refuge, the Most High—
- 10 no evil will befall you,
no plague will approach your tent.
- 11 For He will command His angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.
- 12 They will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.†
- 13 You will tread on the lion and cobra;
you will trample the young lion and serpent.
- 14 "Because he loves Me, I will deliver him;
because he knows My name, I will protect him.
- 15 When he calls out to Me,
I will answer him;
I will be with him in trouble.

† 90:17 Or beauty * 91:1 Hebrew Shaddai † 91:12 Cited in Matthew 4:6 and Luke 4:10-11

I will deliver him and honor him.
 16 With long life I will satisfy him and show him My salvation.”

How Great Are Your Works!

A Psalm. A song for the Sabbath day.

1 It is good to praise the LORD, and to sing praises to Your name, O Most High,
 2 to proclaim Your loving devotion in the morning and Your faithfulness at night
 3 with the ten-stringed harp and the melody of the lyre.
 4 For You, O LORD, have made me glad by Your deeds;
 I sing for joy at the works of Your hands.
 5 How great are Your works, O LORD,
 how deep are Your thoughts!
 6 A senseless man does not know,
 and a fool does not understand, 7 that though the wicked sprout like grass,
 and all evildoers flourish,
 they will be forever destroyed.
 8 But You, O LORD, are exalted forever!
 9 For surely Your enemies, O LORD, surely Your enemies will perish;
 all evildoers will be scattered.
 10 But You have exalted my horn like that of a wild ox;
 with fine oil I have been anointed.
 11 My eyes see the downfall of my enemies;
 my ears hear the wailing of my wicked foes.*
 12 The righteous will flourish like a palm tree, and grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
 13 Planted in the house of the LORD,
 they will flourish in the courts of our God.
 14 In old age they will still bear fruit;
 healthy and green they will remain, 15 to proclaim, “The LORD is upright; He is my Rock, and in Him there is no unrighteousness.”

93

The LORD Reigns! (Psalm 99:1-9)

1 The LORD reigns! He is robed in majesty;
 the LORD has clothed and armed Himself with strength.
 The world indeed is firmly established;
 it cannot be moved.
 2 Your throne was established long ago;
 You are from all eternity.
 3 The floodwaters have risen, O LORD;
 the rivers have raised their voice;
 the seas lift up their pounding waves.
 4 Above the roar of many waters—

* 92:11 Or my ears hear evildoers when they rise against me

the mighty breakers of the sea—
the LORD on high is majestic.

- <sup>5</sup> Your testimonies are fully confirmed;
holiness adorns Your house, O LORD,
for all the days to come.

94

The LORD Will Not Forget His People

- <sup>1</sup> O LORD, God of vengeance,
O God of vengeance, shine forth.
<sup>2</sup> Rise up, O Judge of the earth; render a reward to the proud.
<sup>3</sup> How long will the wicked, O LORD, how long will the wicked exult?

<sup>4</sup> They pour out arrogant words;
all workers of iniquity boast.
<sup>5</sup> They crush Your people, O LORD;
they oppress Your heritage.
<sup>6</sup> They kill the widow and the foreigner;
they murder the fatherless.
<sup>7</sup> They say, "The LORD does not see;
the God of Jacob pays no heed."

<sup>8</sup> Take notice, O senseless among the people!
O fools, when will you be wise?
<sup>9</sup> He who affixed the ear, can He not hear?
He who formed the eye, can He not see?
<sup>10</sup> He who admonishes the nations, does He not discipline?
He who teaches man, does He lack knowledge?
<sup>11</sup> The LORD knows the thoughts of man, that they are futile.*

<sup>12</sup> Blessed is the man You discipline, O LORD, and teach from Your law, <sup>13</sup> to grant him relief from days of trouble, until a pit is dug for the wicked.
<sup>14</sup> For the LORD will not forsake His people;
He will never abandon His heritage.
<sup>15</sup> Surely judgment will again be righteous, and all the upright in heart will follow it.

<sup>16</sup> Who will rise up for me against the wicked?
Who will stand for me against the workers of iniquity?
<sup>17</sup> Unless the LORD had been my helper,
I would soon have dwelt in the abode of silence.
<sup>18</sup> If I say, "My foot is slipping,"
Your loving devotion, O LORD, supports me.
<sup>19</sup> When anxiety overwhelms me,
Your consolation delights my soul.

<sup>20</sup> Can a corrupt throne be Your ally—
one devising mischief by decree?
<sup>21</sup> They band together against the righteous and condemn the innocent to death.†
<sup>22</sup> But the LORD has been my stronghold, and my God is my rock of refuge.
<sup>23</sup> He will bring upon them their own iniquity

* 94:11 Cited in 1 Corinthians 3:20 † 94:21 Or condemn innocent blood and destroy them for their wickedness.

The LORD our God will destroy them.

95

Do Not Harden Your Hearts
(Hebrews 3:7-11)

- <sup>1</sup> Come, let us sing for joy to the LORD;
let us shout to the Rock of our salvation!
- <sup>2</sup> Let us enter His presence with thanksgiving;
let us make a joyful noise to Him in song.
- <sup>3</sup> For the LORD is a great God,
a great King above all gods.
- <sup>4</sup> In His hand are the depths of the earth,
and the mountain peaks belong to Him.
- <sup>5</sup> The sea is His, for He made it,
and His hands formed the dry land.
- <sup>6</sup> O come, let us worship and bow down;
let us kneel before the LORD our Maker.
- <sup>7</sup> For He is our God,
and we are the people of His pasture,
the sheep under His care.
- Today, if you hear His voice,
<sup>8</sup> do not harden your hearts
as you did at Meribah,* in the day at Massah in the wilderness,† <sup>9</sup> where your fathers tested and tried Me, though they had seen My work.
- <sup>10</sup> For forty years I was angry with that generation, and I said, "They are a people whose hearts go astray,‡ and they have not known My ways."
<sup>11</sup> So I swore on oath in My anger, "They shall never enter My rest."§

96

Sing to the LORD, All the Earth
(1 Chronicles 16:23-36)

- <sup>1</sup> Sing to the LORD a new song;
sing to the LORD, all the earth.
- <sup>2</sup> Sing to the LORD, bless His name;
proclaim His salvation day after day.
- <sup>3</sup> Declare His glory among the nations,
His wonderful deeds among all peoples.
- <sup>4</sup> For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised;
He is to be feared above all gods.
- <sup>5</sup> For all the gods of the nations are idols,
but it is the LORD who made the heavens.
- <sup>6</sup> Splendor and majesty are before Him;
strength and beauty fill His sanctuary.
- <sup>7</sup> Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the nations,
ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.

* 95:8 LXX as you did in the rebellion; Meribah means quarreling; see Exodus 17:7; cited in Hebrews 3:15 and Hebrews 4:7. † 95:8 LXX in the day of testing in the wilderness; Massah means testing; see Exodus 17:7. ‡ 95:10 LXX They always go astray in the heart § 95:11 Cited in Hebrews 3:7-11, Hebrews 4:3, and Hebrews 4:5

- <sup>8</sup> Ascribe to the LORD the glory due His name;
bring an offering and enter His courts.
- <sup>9</sup> Worship the LORD in the splendor of His holiness;
tremble before Him, all the earth.
- <sup>10</sup> Declare among the nations: "The LORD reigns!"
The world is firmly established; it cannot be moved;
He will judge the peoples with equity.
- <sup>11</sup> Let the heavens be glad and the earth rejoice;
let the sea resound,
and all that fills it.
- <sup>12</sup> Let the fields exult,
and all that is in them.
- Then all the trees of the forest will sing for joy <sup>13</sup> before the LORD, for He is coming—
He is coming to judge the earth.
He will judge the world in righteousness and the peoples in His faithfulness.

97

Let the Earth Rejoice

- <sup>1</sup> The LORD reigns, let the earth rejoice;
let the distant shores be glad.
- <sup>2</sup> Clouds and darkness surround Him;
righteousness and justice are His throne's foundation.
- <sup>3</sup> Fire goes before Him and consumes His foes on every side.
- <sup>4</sup> His lightning illuminates the world;
the earth sees and trembles.
- <sup>5</sup> The mountains melt like wax at the presence of the LORD,
before the Lord of all the earth.
- <sup>6</sup> The heavens proclaim His righteousness;
all the peoples see His glory.
- <sup>7</sup> All worshipers of images are put to shame—
those who boast in idols.
Worship Him, all you gods!
- <sup>8</sup> Zion hears and rejoices, and the towns of Judah exult because of Your judgments, O LORD.
- <sup>9</sup> For You, O LORD, are Most High over all the earth;
You are exalted far above all gods.
- <sup>10</sup> Hate evil, O you who love the LORD!
He preserves the souls of His saints;
He delivers them from the hand of the wicked.
- <sup>11</sup> Light shines * on the righteous, gladness on the upright in heart.
- <sup>12</sup> Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous ones,
and praise His holy name.

Sing to the LORD a New Song
(Psalm 149:1-9; Isaiah 42:10-17)

A Psalm.

- <sup>1</sup> Sing to the LORD a new song,
for He has done wonders;
His right hand and holy arm have gained Him the victory.
- <sup>2</sup> The LORD has proclaimed His salvation and revealed His righteousness to the nations.
- <sup>3</sup> He has remembered His love and faithfulness
to the house of Israel;
all the ends of the earth
have seen the salvation of our God.
- <sup>4</sup> Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth;
break forth—let your cry ring out, and sing praises!
- <sup>5</sup> Sing praises to the LORD with the lyre, in melodious song with the harp.
- <sup>6</sup> With trumpets and the blast of the ram's horn shout for joy before the LORD, the King.
- <sup>7</sup> Let the sea resound, and all that fills it,
the world, and all who dwell in it.
- <sup>8</sup> Let the rivers clap their hands,
let the mountains sing together for joy
- <sup>9</sup> before the LORD, for He comes to judge the earth.
He will judge the world with righteousness and the peoples with equity.

99

The LORD Reigns!
(Psalm 93:1-5)

- <sup>1</sup> The LORD reigns;
let the nations tremble!
He is enthroned above the cherubim;
let the earth quake!
- <sup>2</sup> Great is the LORD in Zion;
He is exalted above all the peoples.
- <sup>3</sup> Let them praise Your great and awesome name—
He is holy!*
- <sup>4</sup> The mighty King loves justice.†
You have established equity;
You have exercised justice and righteousness in Jacob.
- <sup>5</sup> Exalt the LORD our God,
and worship at His footstool;
He is holy!
- <sup>6</sup> Moses and Aaron were among His priests;
Samuel was among those who called on His name.
They called to the LORD and He answered.
- <sup>7</sup> He spoke to them from the pillar of cloud;
they kept His decrees and the statutes He gave them.

* 99:3 Or it is holy! † 99:4 Or The might of the King loves justice.

<sup>8</sup> O LORD our God, You answered them.
You were a forgiving God to them,
yet an avenger of their misdeeds.

<sup>9</sup> Exalt the LORD our God and worship at His holy mountain, for the LORD our God is holy.

100

Make a Joyful Noise
(Psalm 66:1-20)

A Psalm of thanksgiving.

<sup>1</sup> Make a joyful noise to the LORD,
all the earth.

<sup>2</sup> Serve the LORD with gladness;
come into His presence with joyful songs.

<sup>3</sup> Know that the LORD is God.
It is He who made us, and we are His;*
we are His people, and the sheep of His pasture.

<sup>4</sup> Enter His gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise;
give thanks to Him and bless His name.

<sup>5</sup> For the LORD is good,
and His loving devotion endures forever;
His faithfulness continues to all generations.

101

I Will Set No Worthless Thing before My Eyes

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> I will sing of Your loving devotion and justice;
to You, O LORD, I will sing praises.

<sup>2</sup> I will ponder the way that is blameless—when will You come to me?

I will walk in my house with integrity of heart.

<sup>3</sup> I will set no worthless thing before my eyes.

I hate the work of those who fall away;
it shall not cling to me.

<sup>4</sup> A perverse heart shall depart from me;
I will know nothing of evil.

<sup>5</sup> Whoever slanders his neighbor in secret,
I will put to silence;
the one with haughty eyes and a proud heart,
I will not endure.

<sup>6</sup> My eyes favor the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me;
he who walks in the way of integrity shall minister to me.

<sup>7</sup> No one who practices deceit shall dwell in my house;
no one who tells lies

---

* 100:3 Or and not we ourselves shall stand in my presence.

<sup>8</sup> Every morning I will remove all the wicked of the land, that I may cut off every evildoer from the city of the LORD.

102

The Prayer of the Afflicted

A prayer of one who is afflicted, when he grows faint and pours out his lament before the LORD.

<sup>1</sup> Hear my prayer, O LORD;

let my cry for help come before You.

<sup>2</sup> Do not hide Your face from me in my day of distress.

Incline Your ear to me;

answer me quickly when I call.

<sup>3</sup> For my days vanish like smoke, and my bones burn like glowing embers.

<sup>4</sup> My heart is afflicted, and withered like grass;

I even forget to eat my bread.

<sup>5</sup> Through my loud groaning

my flesh clings to my bones.

<sup>6</sup> I am like a desert owl, like an owl among the ruins.

<sup>7</sup> I lie awake;

I am like a lone bird on a housetop.

<sup>8</sup> All day long my enemies taunt me;

they ridicule me and curse me.

<sup>9</sup> For I have eaten ashes like bread and mixed my drink with tears

<sup>10</sup> because of Your indignation and wrath,

for You have picked me up and cast me aside.

<sup>11</sup> My days are like lengthening shadows, and I wither away like grass.

<sup>12</sup> But You, O LORD, sit enthroned forever;

Your renown endures to all generations.

<sup>13</sup> You will rise up and have compassion on Zion, for it is time to show her favor—

the appointed time has come.

<sup>14</sup> For Your servants delight in her stones and take pity on her dust.

<sup>15</sup> So the nations will fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth will fear Your glory.

<sup>16</sup> For the LORD will rebuild Zion;

He has appeared in His glory.

<sup>17</sup> He will turn toward the prayer of the destitute;

He will not despise their prayer.

<sup>18</sup> Let this be written for the generation to come,

so that a people not yet created may praise the LORD.

<sup>19</sup> For He looked down from the heights of His sanctuary;

the LORD gazed out from heaven to earth

<sup>20</sup> to hear a prisoner's groaning, to release those condemned to death,

<sup>21</sup> that they may proclaim the name of the LORD in Zion and praise Him in Jerusalem,

<sup>22</sup> when peoples and kingdoms assemble to serve the LORD.

- 23 He has broken my strength on the way;
He has cut short my days.
- 24 I say: "O my God, do not take me in the midst of my days!
Your years go on through all generations.
- 25 In the beginning You laid the foundations of the earth,
and the heavens are the work of Your hands.
- 26 They will perish, but You remain;
they will all wear out like a garment.
Like clothing You will change them,
and they will be passed on.
- 27 But You remain the same,
and Your years will never end.*
- 28 The children of Your servants will dwell securely, and their descendants will be established before You."

103

Bless the LORD, O My Soul

Of David.

- 1 Bless the LORD, O my soul;
all that is within me, bless His holy name.
- 2 Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and do not forget all His kind deeds—
- 3 He who forgives all your iniquities and heals all your diseases,
- 4 who redeems your life from the Pit and crowns you with loving devotion and compassion,
- 5 who satisfies you with good things,
so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.
- 6 The LORD executes righteousness and justice for all the oppressed.
- 7 He made known His ways to Moses,
His deeds to the people of Israel.
- 8 The LORD is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in loving devotion.
- 9 He will not always accuse us,
nor harbor His anger forever.
- 10 He has not dealt with us according to our sins or repaid us according to our iniquities.
- 11 For as high as the heavens are above the earth,
so great is His loving devotion for those who fear Him.
- 12 As far as the east is from the west,
so far has He removed our transgressions from us.
- 13 As a father has compassion on his children,
so the LORD has compassion on those who fear Him.
- 14 For He knows our frame;
He is mindful that we are dust.
- 15 As for man, his days are like grass—
he blooms like a flower of the field;
- 16 when the wind passes over, it vanishes,
and its place remembers it no more.
- 17 But from everlasting to everlasting the loving devotion of the LORD extends to those who fear Him,
and His righteousness to their children's children—
18 to those who keep His covenant

* 102:27 Cited in Hebrews 1:10-12

and remember to obey His precepts.

19 The LORD has established His throne in heaven, and His kingdom rules over all.

20 Bless the LORD, all His angels mighty in strength who carry out His word,
who hearken to the voice of His command.

21 Bless the LORD, all His hosts, you servants who do His will.

22 Bless the LORD, all His works in all places of His dominion.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!

104

How Many Are Your Works, O LORD!

1 Bless the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD my God, You are very great;
You are clothed with splendor and majesty.

2 He wraps Himself in light as with a garment;
He stretches out the heavens like a tent,

3 laying the beams of His chambers in the waters above, making the clouds His chariot,

walking on the wings of the wind.

4 He makes the winds His messengers, flames of fire His servants.*

5 He set the earth on its foundations, never to be moved.

6 You covered it with the deep like a garment;
the waters stood above the mountains.

7 At Your rebuke the waters fled;
at the sound of Your thunder they hurried away—

8 the mountains rose and the valleys sank to the place You assigned for them—

9 You set a boundary they cannot cross, that they may never again cover the earth.

10 He sends forth springs in the valleys;
they flow between the mountains.

11 They give drink to every beast of the field;
the wild donkeys quench their thirst.

12 The birds of the air nest beside the springs;
they sing among the branches.

13 He waters the mountains from His chambers;
the earth is satisfied by the fruit of His works.

14 He makes the grass grow for the livestock and provides crops for man to cultivate, bringing forth food from the earth:

15 wine that gladdens the heart of man,
oil that makes his face to shine,
and bread that sustains his heart.

16 The trees of the LORD have their fill,
the cedars of Lebanon that He planted,

17 where the birds build their nests;

* 104:4 LXX He makes His angels winds, His servants flames of fire. Cited in Hebrews 1:7

- the stork makes her home in the cypresses,† 18 The high mountains are for the wild goats,
 the cliffs a refuge for the rock badgers.‡
- 19 He made the moon to mark the seasons;
 the sun knows when to set.
 20 You bring darkness, and it becomes night,
 when all the beasts of the forest prowl.
 21 The young lions roar for their prey and seek their food from God.
 22 The sun rises, and they withdraw;
 they lie down in their dens.
 23 Man goes forth to his work and to his labor until evening.
- 24 How many are Your works, O LORD!
 In wisdom You have made them all;
 the earth is full of Your creatures.
 25 Here is the sea, vast and wide, teeming with creatures beyond number,
 living things both great and small.
 26 There the ships pass,
 and Leviathan, which You formed to frolic there.
- 27 All creatures look to You to give them their food in due season.
 28 When You give it to them,
 they gather it up;
 when You open Your hand,
 they are satisfied with good things.
 29 When You hide Your face,
 they are terrified;
 when You take away their breath,
 they die and return to dust.
 30 When You send Your Spirit,§ they are created,
 and You renew
 the face of the earth.
- 31 May the glory of the LORD endure forever;
 may the LORD rejoice in His works.
 32 He looks on the earth,
 and it trembles;
 He touches the mountains,
 and they smolder.
 33 I will sing to the LORD all my life;
 I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.
 34 May my meditation be pleasing to Him,
 for I rejoice in the LORD.
 35 May sinners vanish from the earth and the wicked be no more.

Bless the LORD, O my soul.

Tell of His Wonders
(1 Chronicles 16:7-22)

† 104:17 Or pines or junipers or firs    ‡ 104:18 Or the coney or the hyraxes    § 104:30 Or breath    * 104:35
 Or Hallelu YAH, meaning Praise the LORD

- 1 Give thanks to the LORD, call upon His name;
   make known His deeds among the nations.
 2 Sing to Him, sing praises to Him;
   tell of all His wonders.
 3 Glory in His holy name;
   let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.
 4 Seek out the LORD and His strength; seek His face always.
 5 Remember the wonders He has done,
   His marvels, and the judgments He has pronounced,
 6 O offspring of His servant Abraham,
   O sons of Jacob, His chosen ones.
 7 He is the LORD our God;
   His judgments carry throughout the earth.
 8 He remembers His covenant forever,
   the word He ordained for a thousand generations—9 the covenant He made with Abraham, and the oath He swore to Isaac.
 10 He confirmed it to Jacob as a decree,
   to Israel as an everlasting covenant:
 11 “I will give you the land of Canaan as the portion of your inheritance.” 12 When they were few in number,
   few indeed, and strangers in the land, 13 they wandered from nation to nation,
   from one kingdom to another.
 14 He let no man oppress them;
   He rebuked kings on their behalf:
 15 “Do not touch My anointed ones!
   Do no harm to My prophets!”
 16 He called down famine on the land and cut off all their supplies* of food.
 17 He sent a man before them—
   Joseph, sold as a slave.
 18 They bruised his feet with shackles and placed his neck in irons, 19 until his prediction came true and the word of the LORD proved him right.
 20 The king sent and released him;
   the ruler of peoples set him free.
 21 He made him master of his household,
   ruler over all his substance, 22 to instruct † his princes as he pleased and teach his elders wisdom.
 23 Then Israel entered Egypt;
   Jacob dwelt in the land of Ham.
 24 And the LORD made His people very fruitful, more numerous than their foes,
 25 whose hearts He turned to hate His people, to conspire against His servants.
 26 He sent Moses His servant, and Aaron, whom He had chosen.
 27 They performed His miraculous signs among them,
   and wonders in the land of Ham.
 28 He sent darkness, and it became dark—yet they defied His words.‡

* 105:16 Hebrew staff † 105:22 LXX and Syriac; MT to bind ‡ 105:28 LXX and Syriac; Hebrew for had they not defied His words?

- 29 He turned their waters to blood and caused their fish to die.
- 30 Their land teemed with frogs,
even in their royal chambers.
- 31 He spoke, and insects swarmed—gnats throughout their country.
- 32 He gave them hail for rain,
with lightning throughout their land.
- 33 He struck their vines and fig trees and shattered the trees of their country.
- 34 He spoke, and the locusts came—young locusts without number.
- 35 They devoured every plant in their land and consumed the produce of their soil.
- 36 Then He struck all the firstborn in their land,
the firstfruits of all their vigor.
- 37 He brought Israel out with silver and gold, and none among His tribes stumbled.
- 38 Egypt was glad when they departed,
for the dread of Israel had fallen on them.
- 39 He spread a cloud as a covering and a fire to light up the night.
- 40 They asked, and He brought quail and satisfied them with the bread of heaven.
- 41 He opened a rock, and water gushed out;
it flowed like a river in the desert.
- 42 For He remembered His holy promise to Abraham His servant.
- 43 He brought forth His people with rejoicing,
His chosen with shouts of joy.
- 44 He gave them the lands of the nations,
that they might inherit the fruit of others' labor,
- 45 that they might keep His statutes and obey His laws.

Give Thanks to the LORD, for He Is Good

1 Hallelujah!*

Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good;
His loving devotion endures forever.

2 Who can describe the mighty acts of the LORD or fully proclaim His praise?

3 Blessed are those who uphold justice, who practice righteousness at all times.

4 Remember me, O LORD, in Your favor to Your people;
visit me with Your salvation,

5 that I may see the prosperity of Your chosen ones, and rejoice in the gladness of Your nation,
and give glory with Your inheritance.

6 We have sinned like our fathers;
we have done wrong and acted wickedly.

7 Our fathers in Egypt did not grasp Your wonders

§ 105:45 Or Hallelu YAH, meaning Praise the LORD      * 106:1 Or Hallelu YAH, meaning Praise the LORD; also in verse 48 or remember Your abundant kindness;

 but they rebelled by the sea,
 there at the Red Sea.† 8 Yet He saved them for the sake of His name, to make His power known.
 9 He rebuked the Red Sea, and it dried up;
 He led them through the depths as through a desert.
 10 He saved them from the hand that hated them;
 He redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.
 11 The waters covered their foes;
 not one of them remained.
 12 Then they believed His promises and sang His praise.
 13 Yet they soon forgot His works and failed to wait for His counsel.
 14 They craved intensely in the wilderness and tested God in the desert.
 15 So He granted their request,
 but sent a wasting disease upon them.
 16 In the camp they envied Moses,
 as well as Aaron, the holy one of the LORD.
 17 The earth opened up and swallowed Dathan;
 it covered the assembly of Abiram.
 18 Then fire blazed through their company;
 flames consumed the wicked.
 19 At Horeb ‡ they made a calf and worshiped a molten image.
 20 They exchanged their Glory §
 for the image of a grass-eating ox.
 21 They forgot God their Savior, who did great things in Egypt,
 22 wondrous works in the land of Ham,
 and awesome deeds by the Red Sea.
 23 So He said He would destroy them—had not Moses His chosen one stood before Him in the breach to divert His wrath from destroying them.
 24 They despised the pleasant land;
 they did not believe His promise.
 25 They grumbled in their tents and did not listen to the voice of the LORD.
 26 So He raised His hand and swore to cast them down in the wilderness, 27 to disperse * their offspring among the nations and scatter them throughout the lands.
 28 They yoked themselves to Baal of Peor and ate sacrifices offered to lifeless gods.
 29 So they provoked the LORD to anger with their deeds, and a plague broke out among them.
 30 But Phinehas stood and intervened, and the plague was restrained.
 31 It was credited to him as righteousness for endless generations to come.

† 106:7 Or the Sea of Reeds; also in verses 9 and 22    ‡ 106:19 That is, Mount Sinai, or possibly a mountain in the range containing Mount Sinai    § 106:20 Or their glorious God    * 106:27 Or cast down or cause to fall

- 32 At the waters of Meribah † they angered the LORD, and trouble came to Moses because of them.
- 33 For they rebelled against His Spirit,‡ and Moses spoke rashly with his lips.
- 34 They did not destroy the peoples as the LORD had commanded them, 35 but they mingled with the nations and adopted their customs.
- 36 They worshiped their idols,
which became a snare to them.
- 37 They sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons.
- 38 They shed innocent blood—
the blood of their sons and daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan,
and the land was polluted with blood.
- 39 They defiled themselves by their actions and prostituted themselves by their deeds.
- 40 So the anger of the LORD burned against His people, and He abhorred His own inheritance.
- 41 He delivered them into the hand of the nations,
and those who hated them ruled over them.
- 42 Their enemies oppressed them,
and subdued them under their hand.
- 43 Many times He rescued them,
but they were bent on rebellion and sank down in their iniquity.
- 44 Nevertheless He heard their cry;
He took note of their distress.
- 45 And He remembered His covenant with them,
and relented by the abundance of His loving devotion.
- 46 He made them objects of compassion to all who held them captive.
- 47 Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from the nations,
that we may give thanks to Your holy name,
that we may glory in Your praise.
- 48 Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel,
from everlasting to everlasting.

Let all the people say, "Amen!"

Hallelujah!

107

Psalms 107–150

Thanksgiving for Deliverance

(Matthew 8:23–27; Mark 4:35–41; Luke 8:22–25)

- 1 Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good;
His loving devotion endures forever.
- 2 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so,
whom He has redeemed from the hand of the enemy
- 3 and gathered from the lands,

† 106:32 Meribah means quarreling; see Exodus 17:7. ‡ 106:33 Or they provoked His Spirit from east and west, from north and south.*

- 4 Some wandered in desert wastelands, finding no path to a city in which to dwell.
- 5 They were hungry and thirsty;
their soul fainted within them.
- 6 Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
and He delivered them from their distress.
- 7 He led them on a straight path to reach a city where they could live.
- 8 Let them give thanks to the LORD for His loving devotion
and His wonders to the sons of men.
- 9 For He satisfies the thirsty and fills the hungry with good things.
- 10 Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of death, prisoners in affliction and chains,
- 11 because they rebelled against the words of God and despised the counsel of the Most High.
- 12 He humbled their hearts with hard labor;
they stumbled, and there was no one to help.
- 13 Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
and He saved them from their distress.
- 14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death and broke away their chains.
- 15 Let them give thanks to the LORD for His loving devotion
and His wonders to the sons of men.
- 16 For He has broken down the gates of bronze and cut through the bars of iron.
- 17 Fools, in their rebellious ways,
and through their iniquities, suffered affliction.
- 18 They loathed all food
and drew near to the gates of death.
- 19 Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
and He saved them from their distress.
- 20 He sent forth His word and healed them;
He rescued them from the Pit.
- 21 Let them give thanks to the LORD for His loving devotion
and His wonders to the sons of men.
- 22 Let them offer sacrifices of thanksgiving and declare His works with rejoicing.
- 23 Others went out to sea in ships, conducting trade on the mighty waters.
- 24 They saw the works of the LORD,
and His wonders in the deep.
- 25 For He spoke and raised a tempest that lifted the waves of the sea.
- 26 They mounted up to the heavens, then sunk to the depths;
their courage melted in their anguish.
- 27 They reeled and staggered like drunkards, and all their skill was useless.†
- 28 Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
and He brought them out of their distress.
- 29 He calmed the storm to a whisper,
and the waves of the sea ‡ were hushed.
- 30 They rejoiced in the silence,
and He guided them to the harbor they desired.

* 107:3 Hebrew north and the sea † 107:27 Or and all their wisdom was swallowed up or and they were at their wits' end ‡ 107:29 DSS; MT their waves

- 31 Let them give thanks to the LORD for His loving devotion
and His wonders to the sons of men.
- 32 Let them exalt Him in the assembly of the people and praise Him in the council of the elders.
- 33 He turns rivers into deserts, springs of water into thirsty ground, 34 and fruitful land into fields of salt,
because of the wickedness of its dwellers.
- 35 He turns a desert into pools of water and a dry land into flowing springs.
- 36 He causes the hungry to settle there,
that they may establish a city in which to dwell.
- 37 They sow fields and plant vineyards that yield a fruitful harvest.
- 38 He blesses them, and they multiply greatly;
He does not let their herds diminish.
- 39 When they are decreased and humbled by oppression, evil, and sorrow, 40 He pours out contempt on the nobles
and makes them wander in a trackless wasteland.
- 41 But He lifts the needy from affliction and increases their families like flocks.
- 42 The upright see and rejoice,
and all iniquity shuts its mouth.
- 43 Let him who is wise pay heed to these things and consider the loving devotion of the LORD.

Israel's Kingdom Blessing
(Psalm 57:1-11; Psalm 60:1-12)

A song. A Psalm of David.

- 1 My heart is steadfast, O God;
I will sing and make music with all my being.*
- 2 Awake, O harp and lyre!
I will awaken the dawn.
- 3 I will praise You, O LORD, among the nations;
I will sing Your praises among the peoples.
- 4 For Your loving devotion extends beyond the heavens, and Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
- 5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
may Your glory cover all the earth.
- 6 Respond and save us with Your right hand,
that Your beloved may be delivered.
- 7 God has spoken from His sanctuary:†
"I will triumph!
I will parcel out Shechem
and apportion the Valley of Succoth.
- 8 Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine;
Ephraim is My helmet, Judah is My scepter.
- 9 Moab is My washbasin;
upon Edom I toss My sandal;
over Philistia I shout in triumph."
- 10 Who will bring me to the fortified city?

* 108:1 Or with my glory † 108:7 Or in His holiness

- Who will lead me to Edom?
 11 Have You not rejected us, O God?
 Will You no longer march out, O God, with our armies?
 12 Give us aid against the enemy,
 for the help of man is worthless.
 13 With God we will perform with valor,
 and He will trample our enemies.

The Song of the Slandered

For the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

- 1 O God of my praise,
 be not silent.
 2 For wicked and deceitful mouths open against me;
 they speak against me with lying tongues.
 3 They surround me with hateful words and attack me without cause.
 4 In return for my love they accuse me,
 but I am a man of prayer.
 5 They repay me evil for good,
 and hatred for my love.
 6 Set over him a wicked man;
 let an accuser stand at his right hand.
 7 When he is tried, let him be found guilty,
 and may his prayer be regarded as sin.
 8 May his days be few;
 may another take his position.*
 9 May his children be fatherless and his wife a widow.
 10 May his children wander as beggars, seeking sustenance † far from their ruined homes.
 11 May the creditor seize all he owns,
 and strangers plunder the fruits of his labor.
 12 May there be no one to extend kindness to him,
 and no one to favor his fatherless children.
 13 May his descendants be cut off;
 may their name be blotted out from the next generation.
 14 May the iniquity of his fathers be remembered before the LORD, and the sin of his mother never be blotted out.
 15 May their sins always remain before the LORD, that He may cut off their memory from the earth.
 16 For he never thought to show kindness, but pursued the poor and needy and brokenhearted,
 even to their death.
 17 The cursing that he loved,
 may it fall on him;
 the blessing in which he refused to delight,
 may it be far from him.
 18 The cursing that he wore like a coat, may it soak into his body like water,
 and into his bones like oil.
 19 May it be like a robe wrapped about him,
 like a belt tied forever around him.
 20 May this be the LORD's reward to my accusers, to those who speak evil against me.

* 109:8 Cited in Acts 1:20 † 109:10 Hebrew; LXX may they be driven

- 21 But You, O GOD, the Lord, deal kindly with me for the sake of Your name;
deliver me by the goodness of Your loving devotion.
- 22 For I am poor and needy;
my heart is wounded within me.
- 23 I am fading away like a lengthening shadow;
I am shaken off like a locust.
- 24 My knees are weak from fasting,
and my body grows lean and gaunt.
- 25 I am an object of scorn to my accusers;
when they see me, they shake their heads.
- 26 Help me, O LORD my God;
save me according to Your loving devotion.
- 27 Let them know that this is Your hand, that You, O LORD, have done it.
- 28 Though they curse, You will bless.
When they rise up, they will be put to shame,
but Your servant will rejoice.
- 29 May my accusers be clothed with disgrace;
may they wear their shame like a robe.
- 30 With my mouth I will thank the LORD profusely;
I will praise Him in the presence of many.
- 31 For He stands at the right hand of the needy one,
to save him from the condemners of his soul.

God's Faithful Messiah
(Genesis 14:17-24; Hebrews 5:1-10)

A Psalm of David.

- 1 The LORD said to my Lord:
"Sit at My right hand
until I make Your enemies
a footstool for Your feet."*
- 2 The LORD extends Your mighty scepter from Zion:
"Rule in the midst of Your enemies."
- 3 Your people shall be willing on Your day of battle.
Arrayed in holy splendor, from the womb of the dawn,
to You belongs the dew of Your youth.
- 4 The LORD has sworn and will not change His mind:
"You are a priest forever
in the order of Melchizedek."†
- 5 The Lord is at Your right hand;
He will crush kings in the day of His wrath.
- 6 He will judge the nations, heaping up the dead;
He will crush the leaders far and wide.
- 7 He will drink from the brook by the road;
therefore He will lift up His head.

1 Hallelujah!*

I will give thanks to the LORD with all my heart

2 Great are the works of the LORD;
they are pondered by all who delight in them.

3 Splendid and majestic is His work;
His righteousness endures forever.

4 He has caused His wonders to be remembered;
the LORD is gracious and compassionate.

5 He provides food for those who fear Him;
He remembers His covenant forever.

6 He has shown His people the power of His works by giving them the inheritance of the nations.

7 The works of His hands are truth and justice;
all His precepts are trustworthy.

8 They are upheld forever and ever, enacted in truth and uprightness.

9 He has sent redemption to His people;
He has ordained His covenant forever;
holy and awesome is His name.

10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom;
all who follow His precepts gain rich understanding.

His praise endures forever!

The Blessed Fear of the LORD
(Psalm 128:1–6)

1 Hallelujah!*

Blessed is the man who fears the LORD, who greatly delights in His commandments.

2 His descendants will be mighty in the land;
the generation of the upright will be blessed.

3 Wealth and riches are in his house,
and his righteousness endures forever.

4 Light dawns in the darkness for the upright—for the gracious, compassionate, and righteous.

5 It is well with the man who is generous and lends freely, whose affairs are guided by justice.

6 Surely he will never be shaken;
the righteous man will be remembered forever.

7 He does not fear bad news;
his heart is steadfast, trusting in the LORD.

8 His heart is assured; he does not fear, until he looks in triumph on his foes.

9 He has scattered abroad his gifts to the poor;
his righteousness endures forever;†
his horn will be lifted high in honor.

10 The wicked man will see and be grieved;
he will gnash his teeth and waste away;

The LORD Exalts the Humble
(1 Samuel 1:1-8)

<sup>1</sup> Hallelujah!*

Give praise, O servants of the LORD;
praise the name of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup> Blessed be the name of the LORD

<sup>3</sup> From where the sun rises to where it sets, the name of the LORD is praised.

<sup>4</sup> The LORD is exalted over all the nations,
His glory above the heavens.

<sup>5</sup> Who is like the LORD our God,
the One enthroned on high?

<sup>6</sup> He humbles Himself to behold
the heavens and the earth.

<sup>7</sup> He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the needy from the dump

A Psalm of Exodus

<sup>1</sup> When Israel departed from Egypt,
the house of Jacob from a people of foreign tongue,

and Israel His dominion.

<sup>3</sup> The sea observed and fled;
the Jordan turned back;

<sup>4</sup> the mountains skipped like rams,
the hills like lambs.

<sup>5</sup> Why was it, O sea, that you fled,
O Jordan, that you turned back,

<sup>6</sup> O mountains, that you skipped like rams,
O hills, like lambs?

<sup>7</sup> Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord,
at the presence of the God of Jacob,

<sup>8</sup> who turned the rock into a pool,
the flint into a fountain of water!

To Your Name Be the Glory
(Psalm 135:1-21)

<sup>1</sup> Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to Your name be the glory,
because of Your loving devotion,

* 113:1 Or Hallelu YAH, meaning Praise the LORD; also in verse 9

because of Your faithfulness.

<sup>2</sup> Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God?"

<sup>3</sup> Our God is in heaven;
He does as He pleases.

<sup>4</sup> Their idols are silver and gold,
made by the hands of men.

<sup>5</sup> They have mouths, but cannot speak;
they have eyes, but cannot see;

<sup>6</sup> they have ears, but cannot hear;
they have noses, but cannot smell;

<sup>7</sup> they have hands, but cannot feel;
they have feet, but cannot walk;
they cannot even clear their throats.*

<sup>8</sup> Those who make them become like them,
as do all who trust in them.

<sup>9</sup> O Israel,† trust in the LORD!
He is their help and shield.

<sup>10</sup> O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD!
He is their help and shield.

<sup>11</sup> You who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD!
He is their help and shield.

<sup>12</sup> The LORD is mindful of us;
He will bless us.

He will bless the house of Israel;
He will bless the house of Aaron;

<sup>13</sup> He will bless those who fear the LORD—
small and great alike.

<sup>14</sup> May the LORD give you increase, both you and your children.

<sup>15</sup> May you be blessed by the LORD,
the Maker of heaven and earth.

<sup>16</sup> The highest heavens belong to the LORD,
but the earth He has given to mankind.

<sup>17</sup> It is not the dead who praise the LORD, nor any who descend into silence.

<sup>18</sup> But it is we who will bless the LORD,
both now and forevermore.

Hallelujah!‡

The LORD Has Heard My Voice

<sup>1</sup> I love the LORD, for He has heard my voice—my appeal for mercy.

<sup>2</sup> Because He has inclined His ear to me,
I will call on Him as long as I live.

<sup>3</sup> The ropes of death entangled me;
the anguish of Sheol overcame me;
I was confronted by trouble and sorrow.

- <sup>6</sup> The LORD preserves the simplehearted;
I was helpless, and He saved me.
- <sup>7</sup> Return to your rest, O my soul,
for the LORD has been good to you.

my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling.
- <sup>9</sup> I will walk before the LORD
in the land of the living.
- <sup>10</sup> I believed, therefore I said,*
"I am greatly afflicted."
- <sup>11</sup> In my alarm I said,
"All men are liars!"
- <sup>12</sup> How can I repay the LORD for all His goodness to me?
- <sup>13</sup> I will lift the cup of salvation
and call on the name of the LORD.
- <sup>14</sup> I will fulfill my vows to the LORD
in the presence of all His people.
- <sup>15</sup> Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of His saints.
- <sup>16</sup> Truly, O LORD, I am Your servant;
I am Your servant, the son of Your maidservant;
You have broken my bonds.
- <sup>17</sup> I will offer to You a sacrifice of thanksgiving
and call on the name of the LORD.
- <sup>18</sup> I will fulfill my vows to the LORD
in the presence of all His people,
- <sup>19</sup> in the courts of the LORD's house,
in your midst, O Jerusalem.

Hallelujah!†

- the cursed who stray from Your commandments.
 22 Remove my scorn and contempt,

 24 Your testimonies are indeed my delight;
 they are my counselors.

DALETH

- 25 My soul cleaves to the dust;
 revive me according to Your word.
 26 I recounted my ways, and You answered me;

 27 Make clear to me the way of Your precepts;
 then I will meditate on Your wonders.
 28 My soul melts with sorrow;
 strengthen me according to Your word.
 29 Remove me from the path of deceit and graciously grant me Your law.
 30 I have chosen the way of truth;
 I have set Your ordinances before me.

 let me not be put to shame.
 32 I run in the path of Your commandments, for You will enlarge my heart.

HE

- 33 Teach me, O LORD, the way of Your statutes, and I will keep them to the end.† 34 Give me understanding that I may obey Your law,
 and follow it with all my heart.
 35 Direct me in the path of Your commandments, for there I find delight.
 36 Turn my heart to Your testimonies and not to covetous gain.
 37 Turn my eyes away from worthless things; revive me with Your word.‡
 38 Establish Your word to Your servant,

 40 How I long for Your precepts!
 Revive me in Your righteousness.

WAW

- 41 May Your loving devotion come to me, O LORD,
 Your salvation, according to Your promise.

 for I hope in Your judgments.
 44 I will always obey Your law,
 forever and ever.
 45 And I will walk in freedom,
 for I have sought Your precepts.
 46 I will speak of Your testimonies before kings, and I will not be ashamed.

† 119:33 Or keep them as my reward    ‡ 119:37 Two MT manuscripts and DSS; most MT manuscripts in Your way

ZAYIN

- 49 Remember Your word to Your servant, upon which You have given me hope.
50 This is my comfort in affliction, that Your promise has given me life.
51 The arrogant utterly deride me,
but I do not turn from Your law.
52 I remember Your judgments of old, O LORD, and in them I find comfort.
53 Rage has taken hold of me because of the wicked who reject Your law.
54 Your statutes are songs to me in the house of my pilgrimage.
55 In the night, O LORD, I remember Your name, that I may keep Your law.
56 This is my practice,
for I obey Your precepts.

HETH

- 57 The LORD is my portion;
I have promised to keep Your words.
58 I have sought Your face with all my heart;
be gracious to me according to Your promise.
59 I considered my ways and turned my steps to Your testimonies.
60 I hurried without hesitating to keep Your commandments.
61 Though the ropes of the wicked bind me,
I do not forget Your law.
62 At midnight I rise to give You thanks for Your righteous judgments.
63 I am a friend to all who fear You,
and to those who keep Your precepts.
64 The earth is filled with Your loving devotion, O LORD;
teach me Your statutes.

TETH

- 65 You are good to Your servant, O LORD,
according to Your word.
66 Teach me good judgment and knowledge,
for I believe in Your commandments.
67 Before I was afflicted, I went astray;
but now I keep Your word.
68 You are good, and You do what is good;
teach me Your statutes.
69 Though the arrogant have smeared me with lies,
I keep Your precepts with all my heart.
70 Their hearts are hard § and callous,
but I delight in Your law.
71 It was good for me to be afflicted, that I might learn Your statutes.
72 The law from Your mouth is more precious to me than thousands of pieces of gold and silver.

I ask, "When will You comfort me?"
- 83 Though I am like a wineskin dried up by smoke, I do not forget Your statutes.
- 84 How many days must Your servant wait?*
- When will You execute judgment on my persecutors?
- 85 The arrogant have dug pits for me in violation of Your law.
- 86 All Your commandments are faithful;
I am persecuted without cause—help me!
- 87 They almost wiped me from the earth,
but I have not forsaken Your precepts.

that I may obey the testimony of Your mouth.

You established the earth, and it endures.

for by them You have revived me.
- 94 I am Yours; save me,
for I have sought Your precepts.
- 95 The wicked wait to destroy me,

- 96 I have seen a limit to all perfection,
but Your commandment is without limit.

MEM

- 97 Oh, how I love Your law!

* 119:84 Or How many are the days of Your servant? † 119:91 Or They stand this day according to Your ordinances

- All day long it is my meditation.
 98 Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies,
     for they are always with me.
 99 I have more insight than all my teachers,
     for Your testimonies are my meditation.
 100 I discern more than the elders,
     for I obey Your precepts.
 101 I have kept my feet from every evil path,
     that I may keep Your word.
 102 I have not departed from Your ordinances, for You Yourself have taught me.
 103 How sweet are Your words to my taste—sweeter than honey in my mouth!
 104 I gain understanding from Your precepts;
     therefore I hate every false way.

NUN

- 105 Your word is a lamp to my feet
     and a light to my path.
 106 I have sworn and confirmed that I will keep Your righteous judgments.
 107 I am severely afflicted, O LORD; revive me through Your word.
 108 Accept the freewill offerings of my mouth, O LORD, and teach me Your judgments.
 109 I constantly take my life in my hands,
     yet I do not forget Your law.
 110 The wicked have set a snare for me,
     but I have not strayed from Your precepts.
 111 Your testimonies are my heritage forever,
     for they are the joy of my heart.
 112 I have inclined my heart to perform Your statutes, even to the very end.

SAMEKH

- 113 The double-minded I despise,
     but Your law I love.
 114 You are my hiding place and my shield;
     I put my hope in Your word.
 115 Depart from me, you evildoers, that I may obey the commandments of my God.
 116 Sustain me as You promised, that I may live;
     let me not be ashamed of my hope.
 117 Uphold me, and I will be saved, that I may always regard Your statutes.
 118 You reject all who stray from Your statutes, for their deceitfulness is in vain.
 119 All the wicked on earth You discard like dross;
     therefore I love Your testimonies.
 120 My flesh trembles in awe of You;
     I stand in fear of Your judgments.

AYIN

- 121 I have done what is just and right;
     do not leave me to my oppressors.
 122 Ensure Your servant's well-being;
     do not let the arrogant oppress me.
 123 My eyes fail, looking for Your salvation, and for Your righteous promise.

- 124 Deal with Your servant according to Your loving devotion, and teach me Your statutes.
125 I am Your servant; give me understanding, that I may know Your testimonies.
126 It is time for the LORD to act,
for they have broken Your law.
127 Therefore I love Your commandments more than gold, even the purest gold.
128 Therefore I admire all Your precepts and hate every false way.

PE

- 129 Wonderful are Your testimonies;
therefore I obey them.
130 The unfolding of Your words gives light;
it informs the simple.
131 I open my mouth and pant, longing for Your commandments.
132 Turn to me and show me mercy,
as You do to those who love Your name.
133 Order my steps in Your word;
let no sin rule over me.
134 Redeem me from the oppression of man,
that I may keep Your precepts.
135 Make Your face shine upon Your servant,
and teach me Your statutes.
136 My eyes shed streams of tears because Your law is not obeyed.

TZADE

- 137 Righteous are You, O LORD,
and upright are Your judgments.
138 The testimonies You have laid down are righteous and altogether faithful.
139 My zeal has consumed me because my foes forget Your words.
140 Your promise is completely pure;
therefore Your servant loves it.
141 I am lowly and despised,
but I do not forget Your precepts.
142 Your righteousness is everlasting and Your law is true.
143 Trouble and distress have found me,
but Your commandments are my delight.
144 Your testimonies are righteous forever.
Give me understanding, that I may live.

KOPH

- 145 I call with all my heart; answer me, O LORD!
I will obey Your statutes.
146 I call to You; save me,
that I may keep Your testimonies.
147 I rise before dawn and cry for help;
in Your word I have put my hope.
148 My eyes anticipate the watches of night,
that I may meditate on Your word.
149 Hear my voice, O LORD, according to Your loving devotion; give me life according to Your justice.
150 Those who follow after wickedness draw near;

- they are far from Your law.
 151 You are near, O LORD, and all Your commandments are true.
 152 Long ago I learned from Your testimonies that You have established them forever.

RESH

- 153 Look upon my affliction and rescue me,
 for I have not forgotten Your law.
 154 Defend my cause and redeem me;
 revive me according to Your word.
 155 Salvation is far from the wicked
 because they do not seek Your statutes.
 156 Great are Your mercies, O LORD; revive me according to Your ordinances.
 157 Though my persecutors and foes are many,
 I have not turned from Your testimonies.
 158 I look on the faithless with loathing because they do not keep Your word.
 159 Consider how I love Your precepts, O LORD; give me life according to Your loving devotion.
 160 The entirety of Your word is truth, and all Your righteous judgments endure forever.

SIN and SHIN

- 161 Rulers persecute me without cause,
 but my heart fears only Your word.
 162 I rejoice in Your promise like one who finds great spoil.
 163 I hate and abhor falsehood,
 but Your law I love.
 164 Seven times a day I praise You
 for Your righteous judgments.
 165 Abundant peace belongs to those who love Your instruction;
 nothing can make them stumble.
 166 I wait for Your salvation, O LORD, and I carry out Your commandments.
 167 I obey Your testimonies and love them greatly.
 168 I obey Your precepts and Your testimonies, for all my ways are before You.

TAW

- 169 May my cry come before You, O LORD;
 give me understanding according to Your word.
 170 May my plea come before You;
 rescue me according to Your promise.
 171 My lips pour forth praise,
 for You teach me Your statutes.
 172 My tongue sings of Your word,
 for all Your commandments are righteous.
 173 May Your hand be ready to help me,
 for I have chosen Your precepts.
 174 I long for Your salvation, O LORD, and Your law is my delight.
 175 Let me live to praise You;
 may Your judgments sustain me.
 176 I have strayed like a lost sheep;
 seek Your servant, for I have not forgotten Your commandments.

In My Distress I Cried to the LORD

A song of ascents.

- <sup>1</sup> In my distress I cried to the LORD,
and He answered me.
<sup>2</sup> Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips and a deceitful tongue.
<sup>3</sup> What will He do to you,
and what will be added to you,
O deceitful tongue?
<sup>4</sup> Sharp arrows will come from the warrior, with burning coals of the broom tree!
<sup>5</sup> Woe to me that I dwell in Meshech, that I live among the tents of Kedar!
<sup>6</sup> Too long have I dwelt among those who hate peace.
<sup>7</sup> I am in favor of peace;
but when I speak, they want war.

121

I Lift Up My Eyes to the Hills

A song of ascents.

- <sup>1</sup> I lift up my eyes to the hills.
From where does my help come?
<sup>2</sup> My help comes from the LORD,
the Maker of heaven and earth.
<sup>3</sup> He will not allow your foot to slip;
your Protector will not slumber.
<sup>4</sup> Behold, the Protector of Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.
<sup>5</sup> The LORD is your keeper;
the LORD is the shade on your right hand.
<sup>6</sup> The sun will not strike you by day, nor the moon by night.
<sup>7</sup> The LORD will guard you from all evil;
He will preserve your soul.
<sup>8</sup> The LORD will watch over your coming and going,
both now and forevermore.

Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem

A song of ascents. Of David.

- <sup>1</sup> I was glad when they said to me,
"Let us go to the house of the LORD."
<sup>2</sup> Our feet are standing in your gates, O Jerusalem.
<sup>3</sup> Jerusalem is built up as a city united together, <sup>4</sup> where the tribes go up,

the tribes of the LORD,
 as a testimony for Israel,
 to give thanks to the name of the LORD.
<sup>5</sup> For there the thrones of judgment stand, the thrones of the house of David.

<sup>6</sup> Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
 "May those who love you prosper.*
<sup>7</sup> May there be peace within your walls, and prosperity † inside your fortresses."
<sup>8</sup> For the sake of my brothers and friends,
 I will say, "Peace be within you."
<sup>9</sup> For the sake of the house of the LORD our God,
 I will seek your prosperity.

I Lift Up My Eyes to You

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup> I lift up my eyes to You,
 the One enthroned in heaven.
<sup>2</sup> As the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maidservant look to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes are on the LORD our God until He shows us mercy.
<sup>3</sup> Have mercy on us, O LORD, have mercy, for we have endured much contempt.
<sup>4</sup> We have endured much scorn from the arrogant, much contempt from the proud.

124

Our Help Is in the Name of the LORD

A song of ascents. Of David.

<sup>1</sup> If the LORD had not been on our side—
 let Israel now declare—<sup>2</sup> if the LORD had not been on our side
 when men attacked us, <sup>3</sup> when their anger flared against us,
 then they would have swallowed us alive, <sup>4</sup> then the floods would have engulfed us,
 then the torrent would have overwhelmed us, <sup>5</sup> then the raging waters would have swept us away.
<sup>6</sup> Blessed be the LORD, who has not given us as prey to their teeth.
<sup>7</sup> We have escaped like a bird from the snare of the fowler;
 the net is torn, and we have slipped away.
<sup>8</sup> Our help is in the name of the LORD,
 the Maker of heaven and earth.

125

The LORD Surrounds His People

* 122:6 Or be secure † 122:7 Or security

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup> Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion.

It cannot be moved; it abides forever.

<sup>2</sup> As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the LORD surrounds His people,
both now and forevermore.

<sup>3</sup> For the scepter of the wicked will not rest upon the land allotted to the righteous, so that the righteous will not put forth their hands to injustice.

<sup>4</sup> Do good, O LORD, to those who are good,
and to the upright in heart.

<sup>5</sup> But those who turn to crooked ways
the LORD will banish with the evildoers.

Peace be upon Israel.

Zion's Captives Restored

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup> When the LORD restored the captives of Zion,* we were like dreamers.†

our tongues with shouts of joy.

Then it was said among the nations,
"The LORD has done great things for them."

<sup>3</sup> The LORD has done great things for us;
we are filled with joy.

<sup>4</sup> Restore our captives,‡ O LORD,
like streams in the Negev.

<sup>5</sup> Those who sow in tears will reap with shouts of joy.

<sup>6</sup> He who goes out weeping, bearing a trail of seed,
will surely return with shouts of joy,
carrying sheaves of grain.

Children Are a Heritage from the LORD

A song of ascents. Of Solomon.

<sup>1</sup> Unless the LORD builds the house, its builders labor in vain;
unless the LORD protects the city,
its watchmen stand guard in vain.

<sup>2</sup> In vain you rise early and stay up late,
toiling for bread to eat—
for He gives sleep to His beloved.

<sup>3</sup> Children are indeed a heritage from the LORD,
and the fruit of the womb is His reward.

- <sup>4</sup> Like arrows in the hand of a warrior, so are children born in one's youth.
<sup>5</sup> Blessed is the man whose quiver is full of them.
He will not be put to shame
when he confronts the enemies at the gate.

128

The Blessed Fear of the LORD
(Psalm 112:1–10)

A song of ascents.

- <sup>1</sup> Blessed are all who fear the LORD, who walk in His ways!
<sup>2</sup> For when you eat the fruit of your labor, blessings and prosperity will be yours.
<sup>3</sup> Your wife will be like a fruitful vine flourishing within your house, your sons like olive shoots sitting around your table.
<sup>4</sup> In this way indeed shall blessing come to the man who fears the LORD.
<sup>5</sup> May the LORD bless you from Zion, that you may see the prosperity of Jerusalem
all the days of your life, <sup>6</sup> that you may see your children's children.

Peace be upon Israel!

129

The Cords of the Wicked

A song of ascents.

- <sup>1</sup> Many a time they have persecuted me from my youth—
let Israel now declare—<sup>2</sup> many a time they have persecuted me from my youth, but they have not prevailed against me.
<sup>3</sup> The plowmen plowed over my back;
they made their furrows long.
<sup>4</sup> The LORD is righteous;
He has cut me from the cords of the wicked.
<sup>5</sup> May all who hate Zion be turned back in shame.
<sup>6</sup> May they be like grass on the rooftops, which withers before it can grow, <sup>7</sup> unable to fill the hands of the reaper,
or the arms of the binder of sheaves.
<sup>8</sup> May none who pass by say to them,
"The blessing of the LORD be on you;
we bless you in the name of the LORD."

Out of the Depths

A song of ascents.

- 1 Out of the depths
I cry to You, O LORD!
- 2 O Lord, hear my voice;
let Your ears be attentive to my plea for mercy.
- 3 If You, O LORD, kept track of iniquities, then who, O Lord, could stand?
- 4 But with You there is forgiveness,
so that You may be feared.
- 5 I wait for the LORD; my soul does wait,
and in His word I put my hope.
- 6 My soul waits for the Lord
more than watchmen wait for the morning—
more than watchmen wait for the morning.
- 7 O Israel, put your hope in the LORD,
for with the LORD is loving devotion, and with Him is redemption in abundance.
- 8 And He will redeem Israel from all iniquity.

I Have Stilled My Soul

A song of ascents. Of David.

- 1 My heart is not proud, O LORD,
my eyes are not haughty.
I do not aspire to great things or matters too lofty for me.
- 2 Surely I have stilled and quieted my soul;
like a weaned child with his mother,
like a weaned child is my soul within me.
- 3 O Israel, put your hope in the LORD,
both now and forevermore.

The LORD Has Chosen Zion

A song of ascents.

- 1 O LORD, remember on behalf of David all the hardships he endured,
- 2 how he swore an oath to the LORD,
and vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob:
- 3 "I will not enter my house or get into my bed,
- 4 I will not give sleep to my eyes
or slumber to my eyelids,
- 5 until I find a place for the LORD,
a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob.*"
- 6 We heard that the ark was in Ephrathah;†
we found it in the fields of Jaar.
- 7 Let us go to His dwelling place;
let us worship at His footstool.
- 8 Arise, O LORD, to Your resting place,
You and the ark of Your strength.

* 132:5 LXX for the God of Jacob; see Acts 7:46. † 132:6 Literally Behold, we heard of it in Ephrathah

- 9 May Your priests be clothed with righteousness, and Your saints shout for joy.
 10 For the sake of Your servant David,
 do not reject Your anointed one.
 11 The LORD swore an oath to David,
 a promise He will not revoke:
 "One of your descendants
 I will place on your throne.‡
 12 If your sons keep My covenant and the testimony I will teach them, then their sons will also sit on your throne
 forever and ever."
 13 For the LORD has chosen Zion;
 He has desired it for His home:
 14 "This is My resting place forever and ever;
 here I will dwell, for I have desired this home.
 15 I will bless her with abundant provisions;
 I will satisfy her poor with bread.
 16 I will clothe her priests with salvation,
 and her saints will sing out in joy.
 17 There I will make a horn for David;
 I have prepared a lamp for My anointed one.
 18 I will clothe his enemies with shame, but the crown upon him will gleam."

133

How Pleasant to Live in Harmony!
 (1 Corinthians 1:10-17; Ephesians 4:1-16)

A song of ascents. Of David.

- 1 Behold, how good and pleasant it is when brothers live together in harmony!
 2 It is like fine oil on the head, running down on the beard, running down Aaron's beard
 over the collar of his robes.
 3 It is like the dew of Hermon falling on the mountains of Zion.
 For there the LORD has bestowed the blessing of life forevermore.

134

Bless the LORD, All You Servants

A song of ascents.

- 1 Come, bless the LORD,
 all you servants of the LORD who serve by night
 in the house of the LORD!
 2 Lift up your hands to the sanctuary and bless the LORD!
 3 May the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth, bless you from Zion.

‡ 132:11 Literally "From the fruit of your body I will set (one) on your throne. Cited in Acts 2:30

*Give Praise, O Servants of the LORD
(Psalm 115:1-18)*

<sup>1</sup> Hallelujah!*

Praise the name of the LORD.

Give praise, O servants of the LORD,

<sup>2</sup> who stand in the house of the LORD,
in the courts of the house of our God.

<sup>3</sup> Hallelujah, for the LORD is good;
sing praises to His name, for it is lovely.

<sup>4</sup> For the LORD has chosen Jacob as His own,
Israel as His treasured possession.

<sup>5</sup> For I know that the LORD is great;
our Lord is above all gods.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD does all that pleases Him
in the heavens and on the earth,
in the seas and in all their depths.

<sup>7</sup> He causes the clouds to rise
from the ends of the earth.

He generates the lightning with the rain
and brings forth the wind from His storehouses.

<sup>8</sup> He struck down the firstborn of Egypt, of both man and beast.

<sup>9</sup> He sent signs and wonders into your midst, O Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants.

<sup>10</sup> He struck down many nations and slaughtered mighty kings:

<sup>11</sup> Sihon king of the Amorites, Og king of Bashan,
and all the kings of Canaan.

<sup>12</sup> He gave their land as an inheritance, as a heritage to His people Israel.

<sup>13</sup> Your name, O LORD, endures forever,
Your renown, O LORD, through all generations.

<sup>14</sup> For the LORD will vindicate His people † and will have compassion on His servants.

<sup>15</sup> The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
made by the hands of men.

<sup>16</sup> They have mouths, but cannot speak;
they have eyes, but cannot see;

<sup>17</sup> they have ears, but cannot hear;
nor is there breath in their mouths.

<sup>18</sup> Those who make them become like them,
as do all who trust in them.

<sup>19</sup> O house of Israel, bless the LORD;
O house of Aaron, bless the LORD;

<sup>20</sup> O house of Levi, bless the LORD;
you who fear the LORD, bless the LORD!

<sup>21</sup> Blessed be the LORD from Zion—
He who dwells in Jerusalem.

Hallelujah!

*By the Rivers of Babylon
(Ezekiel 1:1-3)*

- <sup>1</sup> By the rivers of Babylon we sat and wept
when we remembered Zion.
- <sup>2</sup> There on the willows*
we hung our harps,
- <sup>3</sup> for there our captors requested a song;
our tormentors demanded songs of joy:
- “Sing us a song of Zion.”
- <sup>4</sup> How can we sing a song of the LORD in a foreign land?
- <sup>5</sup> If I forget you, O Jerusalem, may my right hand cease to function.
- <sup>6</sup> May my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth
if I do not remember you,
if I do not exalt Jerusalem
as my greatest joy!
- <sup>7</sup> Remember, O LORD,
the sons of Edom on the day Jerusalem fell:
“Destroy it,” they said,
“tear it down to its foundations!”
- <sup>8</sup> O Daughter of Babylon, doomed to destruction,
blessed is he who repays you
as you have done to us.
- <sup>9</sup> Blessed is he who seizes your infants and dashes them against the rocks.

A Thankful Heart

Of David.

- <sup>1</sup> I give You thanks with all my heart;
before the gods I sing Your praises.
- <sup>2</sup> I bow down toward Your holy temple

You emboldened me and strengthened my soul.*
- <sup>4</sup> All the kings of the earth will give You thanks, O LORD, when they hear the words of Your mouth.
- <sup>5</sup> They will sing of the ways of the LORD, for the glory of the LORD is great.
- <sup>6</sup> Though the LORD is on high,

You Have Searched Me and Known Me

For the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

1 O LORD, You have searched me and known me.
 2 You know when I sit and when I rise;
 You understand my thoughts from afar.
 3 You search out my path and my lying down;
 You are aware of all my ways.
 4 Even before a word is on my tongue,
 You know all about it, O LORD.
 5 You hem me in behind and before;
 You have laid Your hand upon me.
 6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain.
 7 Where can I go to escape Your Spirit?
 Where can I flee from Your presence?
 8 If I ascend to the heavens, You are there;
 if I make my bed in Sheol, You are there.
 9 If I rise on the wings of the dawn,
 if I settle by the farthest sea,
 10 even there Your hand will guide me;
 Your right hand will hold me fast.
 11 If I say, "Surely the darkness will hide me,
 and the light become night around me"— 12 even the darkness is not dark to You, but the night shines like the day,
 for darkness is as light to You.
 13 For You formed my inmost being;*
 You knit me together in my mother's womb.
 14 I praise You,
 for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.
 Marvelous are Your works,
 and I know this very well.
 15 My frame was not hidden from You when I was made in secret,
 when I was woven together
 in the depths of the earth.
 16 Your eyes saw my unformed body;
 all my days were written in Your book and ordained for me
 before one of them came to be.
 17 How precious to me are Your thoughts,† O God, how vast is their sum!
 18 If I were to count them, they would outnumber the grains of sand;
 and when I awake,

* 139:13 Hebrew my kidneys † 139:17 Or How amazing are Your thoughts concerning me

I am still with You.

- 19 O God, that You would slay the wicked—away from me, you bloodthirsty men—20 who speak of You deceitfully;
Your enemies take Your name in vain.‡
21 Do I not hate those who hate You, O LORD, and detest those who rise against You?
22 I hate them with perfect hatred;
I count them as my enemies.
23 Search me, O God, and know my heart;
test me and know my concerns.
24 See if there is any offensive way in me;
lead me in the way everlasting.

Rescue Me from Evil Men

For the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

- 1 Rescue me, O LORD, from evil men.
Protect me from men of violence,
2 who devise evil in their hearts and stir up war all day long.
3 They sharpen their tongues like snakes;
the venom of vipers is on their lips.*
4 Guard me, O LORD,
from the hands of the wicked.
Keep me safe from men of violence who scheme to make me stumble.
5 The proud hide a snare for me;
the cords of their net are spread along the path,
and lures are set out for me.
6 I say to the LORD, "You are my God."
Hear, O LORD, my cry for help.
7 O GOD the Lord, the strength of my salvation,
You shield my head in the day of battle.
8 Grant not, O LORD, the desires of the wicked;
do not promote their evil plans,
lest they be exalted.
9 May the heads of those who surround me be covered in the trouble their lips have caused.
10 May burning coals fall on them;
may they be thrown into the fire,
into the miry pits, never to rise again.
11 May no slanderer be established in the land;
may calamity hunt down the man of violence.
12 I know that the LORD upholds justice for the poor and defends the cause of the needy.
13 Surely the righteous will praise Your name;
the upright will dwell in Your presence.

Come Quickly to Me
(Psalm 70:1-5)

A Psalm of David.

- <sup>1</sup> I call upon You, O LORD; come quickly to me.
Hear my voice when I call to You.
- <sup>2</sup> May my prayer be set before You like incense, my uplifted hands like the evening offering.
- <sup>3</sup> Set a guard, O LORD, over my mouth;
keep watch at the door of my lips.
- <sup>4</sup> Do not let my heart be drawn to any evil thing or take part in works of wickedness with men who do iniquity;
let me not feast on their delicacies.
- <sup>5</sup> Let the righteous man strike me;
let his rebuke be an act of loving devotion.
It is oil for my head; let me not refuse it.
For my prayer is ever against the deeds of the wicked.
- <sup>6</sup> When their rulers are thrown down from the cliffs,
the people will listen to my words,
for they are pleasant.
- <sup>7</sup> As when one plows and breaks up the soil, so our bones have been scattered at the mouth of Sheol.
- <sup>8</sup> But my eyes are fixed on You,
O GOD the Lord.
In You I seek refuge;
do not leave my soul defenseless.*
- <sup>9</sup> Keep me from the snares they have laid for me,
and from the lures of evildoers.

while I pass by in safety.

A Maskil * of David, when he was in the cave. A prayer.

- <sup>1</sup> I cry aloud to the LORD;
I lift my voice to the LORD for mercy.
- <sup>2</sup> I pour out my complaint before Him;
I reveal my trouble to Him.
- <sup>3</sup> Although my spirit grows faint within me,
You know my way.
Along the path I travel
they have hidden a snare for me.
- <sup>4</sup> Look to my right and see;
no one attends to me.
There is no refuge for me;
no one cares for my soul.
- <sup>5</sup> I cry to You, O LORD: "You are my refuge,

* 141:8 Or do not pour out my life or do not give me over to death * 142: Maskil is probably a musical or liturgical term; used for Psalms 32, 42, 44-45, 52-55, 74, 78, 88-89, and 142.

<sup>6</sup> Listen to my cry,
for I am brought quite low.
Rescue me from my pursuers,
for they are too strong for me.

that I may praise Your name.
The righteous will gather around me because of Your goodness to me.

I Stretch Out My Hands to You

A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, hear my prayer.
In Your faithfulness, give ear to my plea;
in Your righteousness, answer me.
<sup>2</sup> Do not bring Your servant into judgment, for no one alive is righteous before You.
<sup>3</sup> For the enemy has pursued my soul, crushing my life to the ground,
making me dwell in darkness
like those long since dead.
<sup>4</sup> My spirit grows faint within me;
my heart is dismayed inside me.
<sup>5</sup> I remember the days of old;
I meditate on all Your works;
I consider the work of Your hands.
<sup>6</sup> I stretch out my hands to You;
my soul thirsts for You like a parched land.
<sup>7</sup> Answer me quickly, O LORD;
my spirit fails.
Do not hide Your face from me,
or I will be like those who descend to the Pit.
<sup>8</sup> Let me hear Your loving devotion in the morning, for I have put my trust in You.
Teach me the way I should walk,
for to You I lift up my soul.
<sup>9</sup> Deliver me from my enemies, O LORD;
I flee to You for refuge.*
<sup>10</sup> Teach me to do Your will,
for You are my God.
May Your good Spirit lead me
on level ground.
<sup>11</sup> For the sake of Your name, O LORD, revive me.
In Your righteousness,
bring my soul out of trouble.
<sup>12</sup> And in Your loving devotion, cut off my enemies.
Destroy all who afflict me,
for I am Your servant.

Blessed Be the LORD, My Rock

Of David.

- <sup>1</sup> Blessed be the LORD, my Rock,
who trains my hands for war,

- <sup>2</sup> He is my steadfast love and my fortress,
my stronghold and my deliverer.

- <sup>5</sup> Part Your heavens, O LORD, and come down;
touch the mountains, that they may smoke.
- <sup>6</sup> Flash forth Your lightning and scatter them;
shoot Your arrows and rout them.
- <sup>7</sup> Reach down from on high;
set me free and rescue me
from the deep waters,
from the grasp of foreigners,
- <sup>8</sup> whose mouths speak falsehood,
whose right hands are deceitful.
- <sup>9</sup> I will sing to You a new song, O God;
on a harp of ten strings I will make music to You—
- <sup>10</sup> to Him who gives victory to kings, who frees His servant David from the deadly sword.
- <sup>11</sup> Set me free and rescue me
from the grasp of foreigners,
whose mouths speak falsehood,
whose right hands are deceitful.
- <sup>12</sup> Then our sons will be like plants nurtured in their youth,
our daughters like corner pillars carved to adorn a palace.
- <sup>13</sup> Our storehouses will be full,
supplying all manner of produce;
our flocks will bring forth thousands,
tens of thousands in our fields.
- <sup>14</sup> Our oxen will bear great loads.†
There will be no breach in the walls,
no going into captivity,

Praise the LORD, O My Soul

1 Hallelujah!*

Praise the LORD, O my soul.

2 I will praise the LORD all my life;
I will sing praises to my God while I have my being.

† 145:13 The final two lines are supplied by one MT manuscript, LXX, Syriac, and DSS.
meaning Praise the LORD; also in verse 10

* 146:1 Or Hallelu YAH,

- <sup>3</sup> Put not your trust in princes,
in mortal man, who cannot save.
<sup>4</sup> When his spirit departs, he returns to the ground;
on that very day his plans perish.
- <sup>5</sup> Blessed is he whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the LORD his God, <sup>6</sup> the Maker of heaven and earth,
the sea, and everything in them.
He remains faithful forever.
<sup>7</sup> He executes justice for the oppressed and gives food to the hungry.
The LORD sets the prisoners free, <sup>8</sup> the LORD opens the eyes of the blind,
the LORD lifts those who are weighed down,
the LORD loves the righteous.
<sup>9</sup> The LORD protects foreigners;
He sustains the fatherless and the widow,
but the ways of the wicked He frustrates.
- <sup>10</sup> The LORD reigns forever,
your God, O Zion, for all generations.

Hallelujah!

It Is Good to Sing Praises

- <sup>1</sup> Hallelujah!*
- How good it is to sing praises to our God,
how pleasant and lovely to praise Him!
- <sup>2</sup> The LORD builds up Jerusalem;
He gathers the exiles of Israel.
<sup>3</sup> He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.
<sup>4</sup> He determines the number of the stars;
He calls them each by name.
<sup>5</sup> Great is our Lord, and mighty in power;
His understanding has no limit.
<sup>6</sup> The LORD sustains the humble, but casts the wicked to the ground.
- <sup>7</sup> Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving;
make music on the harp to our God, <sup>8</sup> who covers the sky with clouds, who prepares rain for the earth,
who makes grass to grow on the hills.
<sup>9</sup> He provides food for the animals, and for the young ravens when they call.
- <sup>10</sup> He does not delight in the strength of the horse;
He takes no pleasure in the legpower of the man.
<sup>11</sup> The LORD is pleased with those who fear Him, who hope in His loving devotion.
- <sup>12</sup> Exalt the LORD, O Jerusalem;
praise your God, O Zion!
<sup>13</sup> For He strengthens the bars of your gates

* 147:1 Or Hallelu YAH, meaning Praise the LORD; also in verse 20 and blesses the children within you.

14 He makes peace at your borders;
He fills you with the finest wheat.

15 He sends forth His command to the earth;
His word runs swiftly.

16 He spreads the snow like wool;
He scatters the frost like ashes;

17 He casts forth His hail like pebbles.†
Who can withstand His icy blast?

18 He sends forth His word and melts them;
He unleashes His winds, and the waters flow.

19 He declares His word to Jacob,
His statutes and judgments to Israel.

20 He has done this for no other nation;
they do not know His judgments.‡

Hallelujah!

Praise the LORD from the Heavens
(Psalm 33:1-22)

1 Hallelujah!*

Praise the LORD from the heavens;
praise Him in the highest places.†

2 Praise Him, all His angels;
praise Him, all His heavenly hosts.

3 Praise Him, O sun and moon;
praise Him, all you shining stars.

4 Praise Him, O highest heavens, and you waters above the skies.

5 Let them praise the name of the LORD,
for He gave the command and they were created.

6 He established them forever and ever;
He issued a decree that will never pass away.

7 Praise the LORD from the earth,
all great sea creatures and ocean depths,

8 lightning and hail, snow and clouds, powerful wind fulfilling His word,

9 mountains and all hills,
fruit trees and all cedars,

10 wild animals and all cattle,
crawling creatures and flying birds,

11 kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all rulers of the earth,

12 young men and maidens,
old and young together.

13 Let them praise the name of the LORD,
for His name alone is exalted;
His splendor is above the earth and the heavens.

14 He has raised up a horn for His people,
the praise of all His saints,
of Israel, a people near to Him.

† 147:17 Or like crumbs or like morsels ‡ 147:20 MT; DSS and LXX He has not made known to them His judgments

*Sing to the LORD a New Song
(Psalm 98:1–9; Isaiah 42:10–17)*

Sing to the LORD a new song—

His praise in the assembly of the godly.

<sup>2</sup> Let Israel rejoice in their Maker;
let the children of Zion rejoice in their King.

<sup>3</sup> Let them praise His name with dancing, and make music to Him with tambourine and harp.

<sup>4</sup> For the LORD takes pleasure in His people;
He adorns the afflicted with salvation.

<sup>5</sup> Let the saints exult in glory;
let them shout for joy upon their beds.

<sup>6</sup> May the high praises of God be in their mouths,
and a double-edged sword in their hands,

<sup>7</sup> to inflict vengeance on the nations and punishment on the peoples,

<sup>8</sup> to bind their kings with chains and their nobles with shackles of iron,

<sup>9</sup> to execute the judgment written against them.
This honor is for all His saints.

Hallelujah!

Let Everything That Has Breath Praise the LORD

Praise God in His sanctuary.

praise Him for His excellent greatness.

<sup>3</sup> Praise Him with the sound of the horn;
praise Him with the harp and lyre.

Proverbs

The Beginning of Knowledge (Proverbs 9:1-12)

- 1 These are the proverbs of Solomon son of David,
king of Israel,
2 for gaining wisdom and discipline,
for comprehending words of insight,
3 and for receiving instruction in wise living and in righteousness, justice, and equity.
4 To impart prudence to the simple * and knowledge and discretion to the young, 5 let the wise listen and gain instruction,
and the discerning acquire wise counsel 6 by understanding the proverbs and parables, the sayings and riddles of the wise.
7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge, but fools † despise wisdom and discipline.

The Enticement of Sin

- 8 Listen, my son, to your father's instruction, and do not forsake the teaching of your mother.
9 For they are a garland of grace on your head and a pendant around your neck.
10 My son, if sinners entice you,
do not yield to them.
11 If they say, "Come along, let us lie in wait for blood, let us ambush the innocent without cause, 12 let us swallow them alive like Sheol,
and whole like those descending into the Pit.
13 We will find all manner of precious goods;
we will fill our houses with plunder.
14 Throw in your lot with us;
let us all share one purse"— 15 my son, do not walk the road with them or set foot upon their path.
16 For their feet run to evil,
and they are swift to shed blood.
17 How futile it is to spread the net
where any bird can see it!
18 But they lie in wait for their own blood;
they ambush their own lives.
19 Such is the fate of all who are greedy, whose unjust gain takes the lives of its possessors.

Wisdom Calls Aloud

- 20 Wisdom calls out in the street,
she lifts her voice in the square;
21 in the main concourse ‡ she cries aloud,
at the city gates she makes her speech:
22 "How long, O simple ones, will you love your simple ways?"

* 1:4 The Hebrew word rendered simple in Proverbs refers to one who is naive, without moral direction, or inclined to evil. † 1:7 The Hebrew words rendered as fool in Proverbs denote one who is morally deficient. ‡ 1:21 Or from the top of the wall

- How long will scoffers delight in their scorn and fools hate knowledge?
- 23 If you had repented at my rebuke,
then surely I would have poured out my spirit on you;
I would have made my words known to you.
- 24 Because you refused my call,
and no one took my outstretched hand, 25 because you neglected all my counsel,
and wanted none of my correction,
26 in turn I will mock your calamity;
I will sneer when terror strikes you,
27 when your dread comes like a storm,
and your destruction like a whirlwind,
when distress and anguish overwhelm you.
- 28 Then they will call on me, but I will not answer;
they will earnestly seek me, but will not find me.
- 29 For they hated knowledge and chose not to fear the LORD.
- 30 They accepted none of my counsel;
they despised all my reproof.
- 31 So they will eat the fruit of their own way,
and be filled with their own devices.
- 32 For the waywardness of the simple will slay them,
and the complacency of fools will destroy them.
- 33 But whoever listens to me will dwell in safety, secure from the fear of evil."

2

The Benefits of Wisdom

- 1 My son, if you accept my words and hide my commandments within you, 2 if you incline your ear to wisdom and direct your heart to understanding, 3 if you truly call out to insight and lift your voice to understanding, 4 if you seek it like silver and search it out like hidden treasure, 5 then you will discern the fear of the LORD and discover the knowledge of God.
- 6 For the LORD gives wisdom;
from His mouth come knowledge and understanding.
- 7 He stores up sound wisdom for the upright;
He is a shield to those who walk with integrity,
8 to guard the paths of justice and protect the way of His saints.
- 9 Then you will discern righteousness and justice and equity—every good path.
- 10 For wisdom will enter your heart, and knowledge will delight your soul.
- 11 Discretion will watch over you,
and understanding will guard you, 12 to deliver you from the way of evil,
from the man who speaks perversity, 13 from those who leave the straight paths to walk in the ways of darkness, 14 from those who enjoy doing evil and rejoice in the twistedness of evil, 15 whose paths are crooked and whose ways are devious.

- 16 It will rescue you from the forbidden woman,*
 from the stranger † with seductive words 17 who abandons the partner of her youth and forgets the covenant of her God.
 18 For her house sinks down to death, and her tracks to the departed spirits.‡
 19 None who go to her return or negotiate the paths of life.
 20 So you will follow in the ways of the good,
 and keep to the paths of the righteous.
 21 For the upright will inhabit the land,
 and the blameless will remain in it;
 22 but the wicked will be cut off from the land, and the unfaithful will be uprooted.

Trust in the LORD with All Your Heart

- 1 My son, do not forget my teaching,
 but let your heart keep my commandments;
 2 for they will add length to your days,
 years and peace to your life.
 3 Never let loving devotion * or faithfulness leave you;
 bind them around your neck,
 write them on the tablet of your heart.
 4 Then you will find favor and high regard in the sight of God and man.
 5 Trust in the LORD with all your heart,
 and lean not on your own understanding;
 6 in all your ways acknowledge Him,
 and He will make your paths straight.
 7 Be not wise in your own eyes;
 fear the LORD and turn away from evil.
 8 This will bring healing to your body † and refreshment ‡ to your bones.
 9 Honor the LORD with your wealth and with the firstfruits of all your harvest; 10 then your barns will be filled with plenty,
 and your vats will overflow with new wine.
 11 My son, do not reject the discipline of the LORD, and do not loathe His rebuke;§ 12 for the LORD disciplines the one He loves, as does a father the son in whom he delights.*

The Blessings of Wisdom

- 13 Blessed is the man who finds wisdom,
 the man who acquires understanding, 14 for she is more profitable than silver,
 and her gain is better than fine gold.

* 2:16 Or wayward wife † 2:16 Or adulteress ‡ 2:18 Hebrew to the Rephaim * 3:3 Forms of the Hebrew chesed are translated here and in most cases throughout the Scriptures as loving devotion; the range of meaning includes love, goodness, kindness, faithfulness, and mercy, as well as loyalty to a covenant. † 3:8 Hebrew navel ‡ 3:8 Or medicine § 3:11 LXX and do not lose heart when He rebukes; cited in Hebrews 12:5 * 3:12 LXX and He flogs every son He receives; cited in Hebrews 12:6

- 15 She is more precious than rubies; nothing you desire compares with her.
- 16 Long life is in her right hand;
in her left hand are riches and honor.
- 17 All her ways are pleasant, and all her paths are peaceful.
- 18 She is a tree of life to those who embrace her,
and those who lay hold of her are blessed.
- 19 The LORD founded the earth by wisdom and established the heavens by understanding.
- 20 By His knowledge the watery depths were broken open,
and the clouds dripped with dew.
- 21 My son, do not lose sight of this:
Preserve sound judgment and discernment.
- 22 They will be life to your soul and adornment to your neck.
- 23 Then you will go on your way in safety,
and your foot will not stumble.
- 24 When you lie down, you will not be afraid;
when you rest, your sleep will be sweet.
- 25 Do not fear sudden danger or the ruin that overtakes the wicked,
- 26 for the LORD will be your confidence and will keep your foot from the snare.
- 27 Do not withhold good from the deserving † when it is within your power to act.
- 28 Do not tell your neighbor, “Come back tomorrow and I will provide”— when you already have the means.
- 29 Do not devise evil against your neighbor,
for he trustfully dwells beside you.
- 30 Do not accuse a man without cause,
when he has done you no harm.
- 31 Do not envy a violent man or choose any of his ways;
- 32 for the LORD detests the perverse,
but He is a friend to the upright.
- 33 The curse of the LORD is on the house of the wicked, but He blesses the home of the righteous.
- 34 He mocks the mockers,
but gives grace to the humble.‡
- 35 The wise will inherit honor, but fools are held up to shame.

A Father's Instruction

- 1 Listen, my sons, to a father's instruction;
pay attention and gain understanding.
- 2 For I give you sound teaching;
do not abandon my directive.
- 3 When I was a son to my father, tender and the only child of my mother,
- 4 he taught me and said,
“Let your heart lay hold of my words;

† 3:27 Or from its owners    ‡ 3:34 LXX The Lord opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble; cited in James 4:6 and 1 Peter 5:5

- keep my commands and you will live.
 5 Get wisdom, get understanding;
 do not forget my words or turn from them.
 6 Do not forsake wisdom, and she will preserve you;
 love her, and she will guard you.
 7 Wisdom is supreme; so acquire wisdom.
 And whatever you may acquire,* gain understanding.
 8 Prize her, and she will exalt you;
 if you embrace her, she will honor you.
 9 She will set a garland of grace on your head;
 she will present you with a crown of beauty.”
 10 Listen, my son, and receive my words, and the years of your life will be many.
 11 I will guide you in the way of wisdom;
 I will lead you on straight paths.
 12 When you walk, your steps will not be impeded;
 when you run, you will not stumble.
 13 Hold on to instruction; do not let go.
 Guard it, for it is your life.
 14 Do not set foot on the path of the wicked or walk in the way of evildoers.
 15 Avoid it; do not travel on it.
 Turn from it and pass on by.
 16 For they cannot sleep
 unless they do evil;
 they are deprived of slumber until they make someone fall.
 17 For they eat the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.
 18 The path of the righteous is like the first gleam of dawn, shining brighter and brighter until midday.
 19 But the way of the wicked is like the darkest gloom;
 they do not know what makes them stumble.
 20 My son, pay attention to my words;
 incline your ear to my sayings.
 21 Do not lose sight of them;
 keep them within your heart.
 22 For they are life to those who find them,
 and health to the whole body.
 23 Guard your heart with all diligence, for from it flow springs of life.
 24 Put away deception from your mouth;
 keep your lips from perverse speech.
 25 Let your eyes look forward;
 fix your gaze straight ahead.
 26 Make a level path for your feet,† and all your ways will be sure.
 27 Do not swerve to the right or to the left;
 turn your feet away from evil.

5

Avoiding Immorality
(Leviticus 20:10-21; 1 Corinthians 5:1-8)

- 1 My son, pay attention to my wisdom;
 incline your ear to my insight,
 2 that you may maintain discretion

* 4:7 Or And whatever else you acquire † 4:26 Or Ponder the path for your feet; LXX Make straight paths for your feet; cited in Hebrews 12:13

- and your lips may preserve knowledge.
<sup>3</sup> Though the lips of the forbidden woman * drip honey and her speech † is smoother than oil, <sup>4</sup> in the end she is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a double-edged sword.
<sup>5</sup> Her feet go down to death;
 her steps lead straight to Sheol.‡
<sup>6</sup> She does not consider the path of life;
 she does not know that her ways are unstable.
- <sup>7</sup> So now, my sons, listen to me,
 and do not turn aside from the words of my mouth.
<sup>8</sup> Keep your path far from her;
 do not go near the door of her house, <sup>9</sup> lest you concede your vigor to others, and your years to one who is cruel;
<sup>10</sup> lest strangers feast on your wealth, and your labors enrich the house of a foreigner.
<sup>11</sup> At the end of your life you will groan when your flesh and your body are spent, <sup>12</sup> and you will say, "How I hated discipline, and my heart despised reproof!
<sup>13</sup> I did not listen to the voice of my teachers or incline my ear to my mentors.
<sup>14</sup> I am on the brink of utter ruin in the midst of the whole assembly."
- <sup>15</sup> Drink water from your own cistern, and running water from your own well.
<sup>16</sup> Why should your springs flow in the streets, your streams of water in the public squares?
<sup>17</sup> Let them be yours alone, never to be shared with strangers.
<sup>18</sup> May your fountain be blessed,
 and may you rejoice in the wife of your youth:
<sup>19</sup> A loving doe, a graceful fawn—may her breasts satisfy you always;
 may you be captivated § by her love forever.
<sup>20</sup> Why be captivated, my son, by an adulteress, or embrace the bosom of a stranger? *
<sup>21</sup> For a man's ways are before the eyes of the LORD, and the LORD examines † all his paths.
<sup>22</sup> The iniquities of a wicked man entrap him;
 the cords of his sin entangle him.
<sup>23</sup> He dies for lack of discipline, led astray by his own great folly.

6

Warnings against Foolishness

- <sup>1</sup> My son, if you have put up security for your neighbor, if you have struck hands in pledge with a stranger, <sup>2</sup> if you have been trapped by the words of your lips, ensnared by the words of your mouth, <sup>3</sup> then do this, my son, to free yourself,
 for you have fallen into your neighbor's hands:
 Go, humble yourself,*

* 5:3 Or the adulteress † 5:3 Or her palate ‡ 5:5 Or lay hold of Sheol § 5:19 Or be led astray; also in verse 20 * 5:20 Or a foreign woman or another man's wife † 5:21 Or ponders or makes level * 6:3 Or hasten and press your plea with your neighbor.

<sup>4</sup> Allow no sleep to your eyes or slumber to your eyelids.

<sup>5</sup> Free yourself, like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter;† like a bird from the snare of the fowler.

<sup>6</sup> Walk in the manner of the ant, O slacker;
observe its ways and become wise.

<sup>7</sup> Without a commander,
without an overseer or ruler,

<sup>8</sup> it prepares its provisions in summer;
it gathers its food at harvest.

<sup>9</sup> How long will you lie there, O slacker?
When will you get up from your sleep?

<sup>10</sup> A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to rest,

<sup>11</sup> and poverty will come upon you like a robber,
and need like a bandit.

<sup>12</sup> A worthless person, a wicked man, walks with a perverse mouth,

<sup>13</sup> winking his eyes, speaking with his feet, and pointing with his fingers.

<sup>14</sup> With deceit in his heart he devises evil;
he continually sows discord.

<sup>15</sup> Therefore calamity will come upon him suddenly;
in an instant he will be shattered beyond recovery.

<sup>16</sup> There are six things that the LORD hates, seven that are detestable to Him:

<sup>17</sup> haughty eyes,

a lying tongue,

hands that shed innocent blood,

<sup>18</sup> a heart that devises wicked schemes, feet that run swiftly to evil,

<sup>19</sup> a false witness who gives false testimony, and one who stirs up discord among brothers.

Warnings against Adultery

<sup>20</sup> My son, keep your father's commandment, and do not forsake your mother's teaching.

<sup>21</sup> Bind them always upon your heart;
tie them around your neck.

<sup>22</sup> When you walk, they will guide you;
when you lie down, they will watch over you;
when you awake, they will speak to you.

<sup>23</sup> For this commandment is a lamp, this teaching is a light, and the reproofs of discipline are the way to life,

<sup>24</sup> to keep you from the evil woman, from the smooth tongue of the adulteress.‡

<sup>25</sup> Do not lust in your heart for her beauty or let her captivate you with her eyes.§

† 6:5 Hebrew does not include of the hunter. ‡ 6:24 Or the stranger § 6:25 Or eyelids or eyelashes * 6:26
Literally a crust of bread

- and the adulteress preys upon your very life.
 27 Can a man embrace fire and his clothes not be burned?
 28 Can a man walk on hot coals without scorching his feet?
 29 So is he who sleeps with another man's wife;
 no one who touches her will go unpunished.
 30 Men do not despise the thief
 if he steals to satisfy his hunger.
 31 Yet if caught, he must pay sevenfold;
 he must give up all the wealth of his house.
 32 He who commits adultery lacks judgment;
 whoever does so destroys himself.
 33 Wounds and dishonor will befall him,
 and his reproach will never be wiped away.
 34 For jealousy enrages a husband, and he will show no mercy in the day of vengeance.
 35 He will not be appeased by any ransom, or persuaded by lavish gifts.

Warnings about the Adulteress

- 1 My son, keep my words and treasure my commandments within you.
 2 Keep my commandments and live;
 guard my teachings as the apple * of your eye.
 3 Tie them to your fingers;
 write them on the tablet of your heart.
 4 Say to wisdom, "You are my sister,"
 and call understanding your kinsman, 5 that they may keep you from the adulteress,
 from the stranger with seductive words.
 6 For at the window of my house
 I looked through the lattice.
 7 I saw among the simple,
 I noticed among the youths,
 a young man lacking judgment,
 8 crossing the street near her corner,
 strolling down the road to her house, 9 at twilight, as the day was fading into the dark of the night.
 10 Then a woman came out to meet him,
 with the attire of a harlot and cunning of heart.
 11 She is loud and defiant;
 her feet do not remain at home.
 12 Now in the street, now in the squares,
 she lurks at every corner.
 13 She seizes him and kisses him;
 she brazenly says to him:
 14 "I have made my peace offerings;
 today I have paid my vows.
 15 So I came out to meet you;
 I sought you, and I have found you.
 16 I have decked my bed with coverings, with colored linen from Egypt.

* 7:2 Literally the pupil

- 17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, with aloes, and with cinnamon.
- 18 Come, let us take our fill of love till morning.
Let us delight in loving caresses!
- 19 For my husband is not at home;
he has gone on a long journey.
- 20 He took with him a bag of money

The Excellence of Wisdom

- 1 Does not wisdom call out,
and understanding raise her voice?
- 2 On the heights overlooking the road,
at the crossroads she takes her stand.
- 3 Beside the gates to the city,
at the entrances she cries out:
- 4 “To you, O men, I call out,
and my cry is to the sons of men.
- 5 O simple ones, learn to be shrewd;
O fools, gain understanding.*
- 6 Listen, for I speak of noble things,
and the opening of my lips will reveal right.
- 7 For my mouth will speak the truth,
and wickedness is detestable to my lips.
- 8 All the words of my mouth are righteous;
none are crooked or perverse.
- 9 They are all plain to the discerning,
and upright to those who find knowledge.
- 10 Receive my instruction instead of silver,
and knowledge rather than pure gold.
- 11 For wisdom is more precious than rubies, and nothing you desire compares with her.
- 12 I, wisdom, dwell together with prudence,
and I find knowledge and discretion.
- 13 To fear the LORD is to hate evil;
I hate arrogant pride, evil conduct, and perverse speech.

- 17 I love those who love me,

- 18 With me are riches and honor,

- 19 My fruit is better than gold, pure gold,

- 33 Listen to instruction and be wise;
do not ignore it.
- 34 Blessed is the man who listens to me,
watching daily at my doors,
waiting at the posts of my doorway.
- 35 For whoever finds me finds life and obtains the favor of the LORD.
- 36 But he who fails to find me harms himself;
all who hate me love death.”

The Way of Wisdom (Proverbs 1:1–7)

- 1 Wisdom has built her house;

† 8:16 Some Hebrew manuscripts and LXX who govern the earth beginning of His way    ‡ 8:22 Or The LORD possessed me at the beginning of His way    § 8:30 Or filled with His delight

- she has carved out * her seven pillars.
 2 She has prepared her meat and mixed her wine;
 she has also set her table.
 3 She has sent out her maidservants;
 she calls out from the heights of the city.
 4 "Whoever is simple, let him turn in here!"
 she says to him who lacks judgment.
 5 "Come, eat my bread and drink the wine I have mixed.
 6 Leave your folly behind, and you will live;
 walk in the way of understanding."
 7 He who corrects a mocker brings shame on himself;
 he who rebukes a wicked man taints himself.
 8 Do not rebuke a mocker, or he will hate you;
 rebuke a wise man, and he will love you.
 9 Instruct a wise man, and he will be wiser still;
 teach a righteous man, and he will increase his learning.
 10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom,
 and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
 11 For through wisdom † your days will be multiplied, and years will be added to your life.
 12 If you are wise, you are wise to your own advantage;
 but if you scoff, you alone will bear the consequences.

The Way of Folly

- 13 The woman named Folly is loud;
 she is naive and knows nothing.
 14 She sits at the door of her house,
 on a seat in the heights of the city, 15 calling out to those who pass by,
 who make their paths straight.
 16 "Whoever is simple, let him turn in here!"
 she says to him who lacks judgment.
 17 "Stolen water is sweet, and bread eaten in secret is tasty!"
 18 But they do not know that the dead ‡ are there, that her guests are in the depths of Sheol.

* 16:20 Or Whoever speaks prudently will find what is good

- 22 Understanding is a fountain of life to its possessor, but the discipline of fools is folly.
- 23 The heart of the wise man instructs his mouth and adds persuasiveness to his lips.
- 24 Pleasant words are a honeycomb,
sweet to the soul and healing to the bones.
- 25 There is a way that seems right to a man,
but its end is the way of death.
- 26 A worker's appetite works for him because his hunger drives him onward.
- 27 A worthless man digs up evil,
and his speech † is like a scorching fire.
- 28 A perverse man spreads dissension,
and a gossip divides close friends.
- 29 A violent man entices his neighbor and leads him down a path that is not good.
- 30 He who winks his eye devises perversity;
he who purses his lips is bent on evil.
- 31 Gray hair is a crown of glory;
it is attained along the path of righteousness.
- 32 He who is slow to anger is better than a warrior, and he who controls his temper is greater than one who captures a city.
- 33 The lot is cast into the lap,
but its every decision is from the LORD.

Better a Dry Morsel in Quietness

- 1 Better a dry morsel in quietness than a house full of feasting * with strife.
- 2 A wise servant will rule over a disgraceful son and share his inheritance as one of the brothers.
- 3 A crucible for silver and a furnace for gold,
but the LORD is the tester of hearts.
- 4 A wicked man listens to evil lips;
a liar gives ear to a destructive tongue.
- 5 He who mocks the poor insults their Maker;
whoever gloats over calamity will not go unpunished.
- 6 Grandchildren are the crown of the aged,
and the glory of a son is his father.
- 7 Eloquent words are unfit for a fool;
how much worse are lying lips to a ruler!
- 8 A bribe is a charm to its giver;

† 16:27 Or and what is on his lips * 17:1 Or sacrifices wherever he turns, he succeeds.

- <sup>9</sup> Whoever conceals an offense promotes love,
but he who brings it up separates friends.
- <sup>10</sup> A rebuke cuts into a man of discernment deeper than a hundred lashes cut into a fool.
- <sup>11</sup> An evil man seeks only rebellion;
a cruel messenger will be sent against him.
- <sup>12</sup> It is better to meet a bear robbed of her cubs than a fool in his folly.
- <sup>13</sup> If anyone returns evil for good,
evil will never leave his house.
- <sup>14</sup> To start a quarrel is to release a flood;
so abandon the dispute before it breaks out.
- <sup>15</sup> Acquitting the guilty and condemning the righteous—both are detestable to the LORD.
- <sup>16</sup> Why should the fool have money in his hand with no intention of buying wisdom?
- <sup>17</sup> A friend loves at all times,
and a brother is born for adversity.
- <sup>18</sup> A man lacking judgment strikes hands in pledge and puts up security for his neighbor.
- <sup>19</sup> He who loves transgression loves strife;
he who builds his gate high invites destruction.
- <sup>20</sup> The one with a perverse heart finds no good,
and he whose tongue is deceitful falls into trouble.
- <sup>21</sup> A man fathers a fool to his own grief;
the father of a fool has no joy.
- <sup>22</sup> A joyful heart is good medicine,
but a broken spirit dries up the bones.
- <sup>23</sup> A wicked man takes a covert bribe † to subvert the course of justice.
- <sup>24</sup> Wisdom is the focus of the discerning,
but the eyes of a fool wander to the ends of the earth.
- <sup>25</sup> A foolish son brings grief to his father and bitterness to her who bore him.
- <sup>26</sup> It is surely not good to punish the innocent or to flog a noble for his honesty.
- <sup>27</sup> A man of knowledge restrains his words, and a man of understanding maintains a calm spirit.
- <sup>28</sup> Even a fool is considered wise if he keeps silent, and discerning when he holds his tongue.

18The Selfishness of the Unfriendly*

- <sup>1</sup> He who isolates himself pursues selfish desires;
he rebels against all sound judgment.
- <sup>2</sup> A fool does not delight in understanding, but only in airing his opinions.
- <sup>3</sup> With a wicked man comes contempt as well,
and shame is accompanied by disgrace.
- <sup>4</sup> The words of a man's mouth are deep waters;
the fountain of wisdom is a bubbling brook.
- <sup>5</sup> Showing partiality * to the wicked is not good,
nor is depriving the innocent of justice.
- <sup>6</sup> A fool's lips bring him strife,
and his mouth invites a beating.
- <sup>7</sup> A fool's mouth is his ruin,
and his lips are a snare to his soul.
- <sup>8</sup> The words of a gossip are like choice morsels that go down into the inmost being.
- <sup>9</sup> Whoever is slothful in his work is brother to him who destroys.
- <sup>10</sup> The name of the LORD is a strong tower;
the righteous run to it † and are safe.
- <sup>11</sup> A rich man's wealth is his fortified city;
it is like a high wall in his imagination.
- <sup>12</sup> Before his downfall a man's heart is proud,
but humility comes before honor.
- <sup>13</sup> He who answers a matter before he hears it—this is folly and disgrace to him.
- <sup>14</sup> The spirit of a man can endure his sickness, but who can survive a broken spirit?
- <sup>15</sup> The heart of the discerning acquires knowledge, and the ear of the wise seeks it out.
- <sup>16</sup> A man's gift opens doors for him,
and brings him before great men.
- <sup>17</sup> The first to state his case seems right until another comes and cross-examines him.
- <sup>18</sup> Casting the lot ends quarrels and separates strong opponents.
- <sup>19</sup> An offended brother is harder to win than a fortified city,
and disputes are like the bars of a castle.
- <sup>20</sup> From the fruit of his mouth a man's belly is filled;

* 18:5 Hebrew Lifting the face † 18:10 Or to Him with the harvest from his lips he is satisfied.

- <sup>21</sup> Life and death are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruit.
- <sup>22</sup> He who finds a wife finds a good thing and obtains favor from the LORD.
- <sup>23</sup> The poor man pleads for mercy,
but the rich man answers harshly.
- <sup>24</sup> A man of many companions may come to ruin, but there is a friend who stays closer than a brother.

19

The Man of Integrity

- <sup>1</sup> Better a poor man who walks with integrity than a fool whose lips are perverse.
- <sup>2</sup> Even zeal is no good without knowledge, and he who hurries his footsteps misses the mark.
- <sup>3</sup> A man's own folly subverts his way, yet his heart rages against the LORD.
- <sup>4</sup> Wealth attracts many friends,
but a poor man is deserted by his friend.
- <sup>5</sup> A false witness will not go unpunished,
and one who utters lies will not escape.
- <sup>6</sup> Many seek the favor of the prince,
and everyone is a friend of the gift giver.
- <sup>7</sup> All the brothers of a poor man hate him—
how much more do his friends avoid him!
He may pursue them with pleading,
but they are nowhere to be found.
- <sup>8</sup> He who acquires wisdom loves himself;
one who safeguards understanding will find success.
- <sup>9</sup> A false witness will not go unpunished,
and one who pours out lies will perish.
- <sup>10</sup> Luxury is unseemly for a fool—
how much worse for a slave to rule over princes!
- <sup>11</sup> A man's insight gives him patience, and his virtue is to overlook an offense.
- <sup>12</sup> A king's rage is like the roar of a lion, but his favor is like dew on the grass.
- <sup>13</sup> A foolish son is his father's ruin,
and a quarrelsome wife is like a constant dripping.
- <sup>14</sup> Houses and wealth are inherited from fathers,
but a prudent wife is from the LORD.
- <sup>15</sup> Laziness brings on deep sleep, and an idle soul will suffer hunger.

- 16 He who keeps a commandment preserves his soul,
but he who is careless in his ways will die.
- 17 Kindness to the poor is a loan to the LORD,
and He will repay the lender.
- 18 Discipline your son, for in that there is hope;
do not be party to his death.
- 19 A man of great anger must pay the penalty;
if you rescue him, you will have to do so again.
- 20 Listen to counsel and accept discipline,
that you may be wise the rest of your days.
- 21 Many plans are in a man's heart,
but the purpose of the LORD will prevail.
- 22 The desire of a man is loving devotion;
better to be poor than a liar.
- 23 The fear of the LORD leads to life,
that one may rest content, without visitation from harm.
- 24 The slacker buries his hand in the dish;
he will not even bring it back to his mouth.
- 25 Strike a mocker, and the simple will beware;
rebuke the discerning man, and he will gain knowledge.
- 26 He who assaults his father or evicts his mother is a son who brings shame and disgrace.
- 27 If you cease to hear instruction, my son,
you will stray from the words of knowledge.
- 28 A corrupt witness mocks justice, and a wicked mouth swallows iniquity.
- 29 Judgments are prepared for mockers, and beatings for the backs of fools.

20

Wine Is a Mocker

- 1 Wine is a mocker, strong drink is a brawler, and whoever is led astray by them is not wise.
- 2 The terror of a king is like the roar of a lion;
whoever provokes him forfeits his own life.*
- 3 It is honorable for a man to resolve a dispute,
but any fool will quarrel.
- 4 The slacker does not plow in season;
at harvest time he looks, but nothing is there.
- 5 The intentions of a man's heart are deep waters,
but a man of understanding draws them out.
- 6 Many a man proclaims his loving devotion,

* 20:2 Literally sins against his own soul

but who can find a trustworthy man?

<sup>7</sup> The righteous man walks with integrity;
blessed are his children after him.

<sup>8</sup> A king who sits on a throne to judge
sifts out all evil with his eyes.

<sup>9</sup> Who can say, "I have kept my heart pure;
I am cleansed from my sin"?

<sup>10</sup> Differing weights and unequal measures †—
both are detestable to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> Even a young man is known by his actions—
whether his conduct is pure and upright.

<sup>12</sup> Ears that hear and eyes that see—the LORD has made them both.

<sup>13</sup> Do not love sleep, or you will grow poor;
open your eyes, and you will have plenty of food.

<sup>14</sup> "Worthless, worthless!" says the buyer,
but on the way out, he gloats.

<sup>15</sup> There is an abundance of gold and rubies, but lips of knowledge are a rare treasure.

<sup>16</sup> Take the garment of the one who posts security for a stranger; get collateral if it is for a foreigner.‡

but later his mouth is full of gravel.

<sup>18</sup> Set plans by consultation, and wage war under sound guidance.

<sup>19</sup> He who reveals secrets is a constant gossip;
avoid the one who babbles § with his lips.

<sup>20</sup> Whoever curses his father or mother,
his lamp will be extinguished in deepest darkness.

<sup>21</sup> An inheritance gained quickly will not be blessed in the end.

<sup>22</sup> Do not say, "I will avenge this evil!"
Wait on the LORD, and He will save you.

<sup>23</sup> Unequal weights are detestable to the LORD, and dishonest scales are no good.

<sup>24</sup> A man's steps are from the LORD,
so how can anyone understand his own way?

<sup>25</sup> It is a trap for a man to dedicate something rashly, only later to reconsider his vows.

<sup>26</sup> A wise king separates out the wicked and drives the threshing wheel over them.

- 27 The spirit * of a man is the lamp of the LORD, searching out his inmost being.
- 28 Loving devotion and faithfulness preserve a king;
by these he maintains his throne.
- 29 The glory of young men is their strength, and gray hair is the splendor of the old.
- 30 Lashes and wounds scour evil,
and beatings cleanse the inmost parts.

21

The King's Heart (Psalm 21:1-13)

- 1 The king's heart is a waterway in the hand of the LORD;
He directs it where He pleases.
- 2 All a man's ways seem right to him,
but the LORD weighs the heart.
- 3 To do righteousness and justice is more desirable to the LORD than sacrifice.
- 4 Haughty eyes and a proud heart—
the guides of the wicked—are sin.
- 5 The plans of the diligent bring plenty,
as surely as haste leads to poverty.
- 6 Making a fortune by a lying tongue is a vanishing mist, a deadly pursuit.
- 7 The violence of the wicked will sweep them away because they refuse to do what is just.
- 8 The way of a guilty man is crooked,
but the conduct of the innocent is upright.
- 9 Better to live on a corner of the roof
than to share a house with a quarrelsome wife.
- 10 The soul of the wicked man craves evil;
his neighbor finds no favor in his eyes.
- 11 When a mocker is punished, the simple gain wisdom;
and when a wise man is instructed, he acquires knowledge.
- 12 The Righteous One * considers the house of the wicked and brings the wicked to ruin.
- 13 Whoever shuts his ears to the cry of the poor,
he too shall cry out and receive no answer.
- 14 A gift in secret soothes anger,
and a covert bribe † pacifies great wrath.
- 15 Justice executed is a joy to the righteous,
but a terror to the workers of iniquity.

* 20:27 Or breath or speech * 21:12 Or The righteous one † 21:14 Hebrew a bribe in the bosom

- 16 The man who strays from the path of understanding will rest in the assembly of the dead.
- 17 He who loves pleasure will become poor;
the one who loves wine and oil will never be rich.
- 18 The wicked become a ransom for the righteous, and the faithless for the upright.
- 19 Better to live in the desert than with a contentious and ill-tempered wife.
- 20 Precious treasures and oil are in the dwelling of the wise,
but a foolish man consumes them.
- 21 He who pursues righteousness and loving devotion finds life, righteousness, and honor.
- 22 A wise man scales the city of the mighty and pulls down the stronghold in which they trust.
- 23 He who guards his mouth and tongue keeps his soul from distress.
- 24 Mocker is the name of the proud and arrogant man—
of him who acts with excessive pride.
- 25 The craving of the slacker kills him because his hands refuse to work.
- 26 All day long he covets more,
but the righteous give without restraint.
- 27 The sacrifice of the wicked is detestable—
how much more so when brought with ill intent!
- 28 A lying witness will perish,
but the man who listens to truth will speak forever.
- 29 A wicked man hardens his face,‡
but the upright man makes his way sure.
- 30 There is no wisdom, no understanding, no counsel that can prevail against the LORD.
- 31 A horse is prepared for the day of battle, but victory is of the LORD.

22

A Good Name

- 1 A good name is more desirable than great riches;
favor is better than silver and gold.
- 2 The rich and the poor have this in common:
The LORD is Maker of them all.
- 3 The prudent see danger and take cover,
but the simple keep going and suffer the consequences.
- 4 The rewards of humility and the fear of the LORD are wealth and honor and life.

- <sup>5</sup> Thorns and snares lie on the path of the perverse;
he who guards his soul stays far from them.
- <sup>6</sup> Train up a child in the way he should go,
and when he is old he will not depart from it.
- <sup>7</sup> The rich rule over the poor, and the borrower is slave to the lender.
- <sup>8</sup> He who sows injustice will reap disaster, and the rod of his fury will be destroyed.*
- <sup>9</sup> A generous man † will be blessed,
for he shares his bread with the poor.
- <sup>10</sup> Drive out the mocker, and conflict will depart;
even quarreling and insults will cease.
- <sup>11</sup> He who loves a pure heart and gracious lips will have the king for a friend.
- <sup>12</sup> The LORD's eyes keep watch over knowledge,
but He frustrates the words of the faithless.
- <sup>13</sup> The slacker says, "There is a lion outside!
I will be slain in the streets!"
- <sup>14</sup> The mouth of an adulteress is a deep pit;
he who is under the wrath of the LORD will fall into it.
- <sup>15</sup> Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child,
but the rod of discipline drives it far from him.
- <sup>16</sup> Oppressing the poor to enrich oneself or giving gifts to the rich will surely lead to poverty.
Thirty Sayings of the Wise
Saying 1
- <sup>17</sup> Incline your ear and hear the words of the wise—
apply your mind to my knowledge—<sup>18</sup> for it is pleasing when you keep them within you and they are constantly on your lips.
<sup>19</sup> So that your trust may be in the LORD,
I instruct you today—yes, you.
<sup>20</sup> Have I not written for you thirty sayings ‡ about counsel and knowledge, <sup>21</sup> to show you true and reliable words, that you may soundly answer those who sent you?
- <sup>22</sup> Do not rob a poor man because he is poor,
and do not crush the afflicted at the gate, <sup>23</sup> for the LORD will take up their case and will plunder those who rob them.
- <sup>24</sup> Do not make friends with an angry man,

* 22:8 LXX includes God blesses a cheerful and generous man, but foolish works will come to an end; see also 2 Corinthians 9:7. † 22:9 Literally He whose eye is good ‡ 22:20 Or written for you excellent sayings or written for you three times and do not associate with a hot-tempered man, 25 or you may learn his ways and entangle yourself in a snare.

Saying 4

26 Do not be one who gives pledges, who puts up security for debts.
 27 If you have nothing with which to pay,
 why should your bed be taken from under you?

Saying 5

28 Do not move an ancient boundary stone which your fathers have placed.

Saying 6

29 Do you see a man skilled in his work?
 He will be stationed in the presence of kings;
 he will not stand before obscure men.

23

True Riches

(1 Timothy 6:17-19; James 5:1-6)

Saying 7

1 When you sit down to dine with a ruler, consider carefully what is set before you,*
 2 and put a knife to your throat
 if you possess a great appetite.
 3 Do not crave his delicacies, for that food is deceptive.

Saying 8

4 Do not wear yourself out to get rich;
 be wise enough to restrain yourself.
 5 When you glance at wealth, it disappears, for it makes wings for itself and flies like an eagle to the sky.

Saying 9

6 Do not eat the bread of a stingy man,†
 and do not crave his delicacies;
 7 for he is keeping track, inwardly counting the cost.‡
 "Eat and drink," he says to you,
 but his heart is not with you.
 8 You will vomit up what little you have eaten and waste your pleasant words.

Saying 10

9 Do not speak to a fool,
 for he will despise the wisdom of your words.

Saying 11

10 Do not move an ancient boundary stone
 or encroach on the fields of the fatherless,

* 23:1 Or who is before you † 23:6 Literally of him whose eye is evil ‡ 23:7 Or for as he calculates in his soul, so is he

11 for their Redeemer is strong;
He will take up their case against you.

Saying 12

12 Apply your heart to instruction and your ears to words of knowledge.

Saying 13

13 Do not withhold discipline from a child;
although you strike him with a rod, he will not die.

14 Strike him with a rod,
and you will deliver his soul from Sheol.

Saying 14

15 My son, if your heart is wise,
my own heart will indeed rejoice.

16 My inmost being § will rejoice when your lips speak what is right.

Saying 15

17 Do not let your heart envy sinners, but always continue in the fear of the LORD.

18 For surely there is a future,
and your hope will not be cut off.

Saying 16

19 Listen, my son, and be wise, and guide your heart on the right course.

20 Do not join those who drink too much wine or gorge themselves on meat.

21 For the drunkard and the glutton will come to poverty, and drowsiness will clothe them in rags.

Saying 17

22 Listen to your father who gave you life,
and do not despise your mother when she is old.

23 Invest in truth and never sell it—in wisdom and instruction and understanding.

24 The father of a righteous man will greatly rejoice, and he who fathers a wise son will delight in him.

25 May your father and mother be glad,
and may she who gave you birth rejoice!

Saying 18

26 My son, give me your heart, and let your eyes delight in my ways.

27 For a prostitute is a deep pit,
and an adulteress* is a narrow well.

28 Like a robber she lies in wait and multiplies the faithless among men.

Saying 19

29 Who has woe? Who has sorrow?
Who has contentions? Who has complaints?

Who has needless wounds? Who has bloodshot eyes?

30 Those who linger over wine,

---

§ 23:16 Hebrew My kidneys * 23:27 Or a foreign woman or a wayward wife who go to taste mixed drinks.

<sup>31</sup> Do not gaze at wine while it is red,
when it sparkles in the cup and goes down smoothly.

<sup>32</sup> In the end it bites like a snake and stings like a viper.

<sup>33</sup> Your eyes will see strange things, and your mind will utter perversities.

<sup>34</sup> You will be like one sleeping on the high seas or lying on the top of a mast:

<sup>35</sup> "They struck me, but I feel no pain!
They beat me, but I did not know it!

When can I wake up to search for another drink?"

24

Do Not Envy

<sup>1</sup> Do not envy wicked men or desire their company;
<sup>2</sup> for their hearts devise violence,
and their lips declare trouble.

<sup>3</sup> By wisdom a house is built and by understanding it is established; <sup>4</sup> through knowledge its rooms are filled with every precious and beautiful treasure.

<sup>5</sup> A wise man is strong,*
and a man of knowledge enhances his strength.
<sup>6</sup> Only with sound guidance should you wage war,
and victory lies in a multitude of counselors.

<sup>7</sup> Wisdom is too high for a fool;
he does not open his mouth in the meeting place.

<sup>8</sup> He who plots evil will be called a schemer.
<sup>9</sup> A foolish scheme is sin,
and a mocker is detestable to men.

Saying 25

<sup>10</sup> If you faint in the day of distress, how small is your strength!
<sup>11</sup> Rescue those being led away to death, and restrain those stumbling toward the slaughter.
<sup>12</sup> If you say, "Behold, we did not know about this,"
does not He who weighs hearts consider it?
Does not the One who guards your life know?
Will He not repay a man according to his deeds?

Saying 26

---

* 24:5 LXX The wise are mightier than the strong

- 13 Eat honey, my son, for it is good,
and the honeycomb is sweet to your taste.
14 Know therefore that wisdom is sweet to your soul.
If you find it, there is a future for you,
and your hope will never be cut off.

Saying 27

- 15 Do not lie in wait, O wicked man, near the dwelling of the righteous;
do not destroy his resting place.
16 For though a righteous man may fall seven times, he still gets up;
but the wicked stumble in bad times.

Saying 28

- 17 Do not gloat when your enemy falls,
and do not let your heart rejoice when he stumbles, 18 or the LORD will see and disapprove, and turn His wrath away from him.

Saying 29

- 19 Do not fret over evildoers,
and do not be envious of the wicked.
20 For the evil man has no future;
the lamp of the wicked will be extinguished.

Saying 30

- 21 My son, fear the LORD and the king, and do not associate with the rebellious.
22 For they will bring sudden destruction.
Who knows what ruin they can bring?

Further Sayings of the Wise

- 23 These also are sayings of the wise:
To show partiality in judgment is not good.
24 Whoever tells the guilty, "You are innocent"— peoples will curse him, and nations will denounce him; 25 but it will go well with those who convict the guilty, and rich blessing will come upon them.
26 An honest answer given is like a kiss on the lips.
27 Complete your outdoor work and prepare your field;
after that, you may build your house.
28 Do not testify against your neighbor without cause,
and do not deceive with your lips.
29 Do not say, "I will do to him as he has done to me;
I will repay the man according to his work."
30 I went past the field of a slacker
and by the vineyard of a man lacking judgment.
31 Thorns had grown up everywhere, thistles had covered the ground,
and the stone wall was broken down.
32 I observed and took it to heart;
I looked and received instruction:
33 A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to rest,
34 and poverty will come upon you like a robber,

and need like a bandit.

More Proverbs of Solomon

<sup>1</sup> These are additional proverbs of Solomon, which were copied by the men of Hezekiah king of Judah:

<sup>2</sup> It is the glory of God to conceal a matter and the glory of kings to search it out.

<sup>3</sup> As the heavens are high and the earth is deep,
so the hearts of kings cannot be searched.

<sup>4</sup> Remove the dross from the silver, and a vessel for a silversmith will come forth.

<sup>5</sup> Remove the wicked from the king's presence, and his throne will be established in righteousness.

<sup>6</sup> Do not exalt yourself in the presence of the king, and do not stand in the place of great men;

<sup>7</sup> for it is better that he says to you, "Come up here!"
than that you should be demoted in the presence of the prince.

Even what * you have seen with your own eyes, <sup>8</sup> do not bring hastily to court.

Otherwise, what will you do in the end
when your neighbor puts you to shame?

<sup>9</sup> Argue your case with your neighbor without betraying another's confidence,

<sup>10</sup> lest the one who hears may disgrace you,
and your infamy never go away.

<sup>11</sup> A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver.

<sup>12</sup> Like an earring of gold or an ornament of fine gold is a wise man's rebuke to a listening ear.

<sup>13</sup> Like the cold of snow in the time of harvest is a trustworthy messenger to those who send him;
he refreshes the soul of his masters.

<sup>14</sup> Like clouds and wind without rain is the man who boasts of gifts never given.

<sup>15</sup> Through patience a ruler can be persuaded,
and a gentle tongue can break a bone.

lest you have too much and vomit it up.

<sup>17</sup> Seldom set foot in your neighbor's house, lest he grow weary and hate you.

<sup>18</sup> Like a club or sword or sharp arrow is a man who bears false witness against his neighbor.

<sup>19</sup> Like a broken tooth or a foot out of joint is confidence in a faithless man in time of trouble.

<sup>20</sup> Like one who removes a garment on a cold day

---

* 25:7 Or Even the one or vinegar poured on a wound † is one who sings songs to a heavy heart.

- 21 If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat, and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink.
- 22 For in so doing, you will heap burning coals on his head,‡ and the LORD will reward you.
- 23 As the north wind brings forth rain,
so a backbiting tongue brings angry looks.
- 24 Better to live on a corner of the roof
than to share a house with a quarrelsome wife.
- 25 Like cold water to a weary soul is good news from a distant land.
- 26 Like a muddied spring or a polluted well is a righteous man who gives way to the wicked.
- 27 It is not good to eat too much honey or to search out one's own glory.
- 28 Like a city whose walls are broken down is a man who does not control his temper.

Similitudes and Instructions

- 1 Like snow in summer and rain at harvest, honor does not befit a fool.
- 2 Like a fluttering sparrow or darting swallow,
an undeserved curse does not come to rest.
- 3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey,
and a rod for the backs of fools!
- 4 Do not answer a fool according to his folly, or you yourself will be like him.
- 5 Answer a fool according to his folly,
lest he become wise in his own eyes.
- 6 Like cutting off one's own feet or drinking violence is the sending of a message by the hand of a fool.
- 7 Like lame legs hanging limp
is a proverb in the mouth of a fool.
- 8 Like binding a stone into a sling is the giving of honor to a fool.
- 9 Like a thorn that falls into the hand of a drunkard
is a proverb in the mouth of a fool.
- 10 Like an archer who wounds at random is he who hires a fool or passerby.
- 11 As a dog returns to its vomit,*
so a fool repeats his folly.
- 12 Do you see a man who is wise in his own eyes?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.
- 13 The slacker says, "A lion is in the road!
A fierce lion roams the public square!"
- 14 As a door turns on its hinges,
so the slacker turns on his bed.
- 15 The slacker buries his hand in the dish;

† 25:20 Or on soda ‡ 25:22 LXX; Hebrew For you will heap burning coals on his head; cited in Romans 12:20

* 26:11 Cited in 2 Peter 2:22

- it wearies him to bring it back to his mouth.
- 16 The slacker is wiser in his own eyes than seven men who answer discreetly.
- 17 Like one who grabs a dog by the ears is a passerby who meddles in a quarrel not his own.
- 18 Like a madman shooting firebrands and deadly arrows,
19 so is the man who deceives his neighbor and says, "I was only joking!"
- 20 Without wood, a fire goes out;
without gossip, a conflict ceases.
- 21 Like charcoal for embers and wood for fire,
so is a quarrelsome man for kindling strife.
- 22 The words of a gossip are like choice morsels
that go down into the inmost being.
- 23 Like glaze covering an earthen vessel are burning † lips and a wicked heart. 24 A hateful man disguises himself with his speech,
but he lays up deceit in his heart.
- 25 When he speaks graciously, do not believe him,
for seven abominations fill his heart.
- 26 Though his hatred is concealed by deception,
his wickedness will be exposed in the assembly.
- 27 He who digs a pit will fall into it,
and he who rolls a stone will have it roll back on him.
- 28 A lying tongue hates those it crushes,
and a flattering mouth causes ruin.

Do Not Boast about Tomorrow (James 4:13-17)

- 1 Do not boast about tomorrow,
for you do not know what a day may bring.
- 2 Let another praise you, and not your own mouth—
a stranger, and not your own lips.
- 3 A stone is heavy and sand is a burden,
but aggravation from a fool outweighs them both.
- 4 Wrath is cruel and anger is like a flood,
but who can withstand jealousy?
- 5 Better an open rebuke than love that is concealed.
- 6 The wounds of a friend are faithful,
but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.
- 7 The soul that is full loathes honey,
but to a hungry soul, any bitter thing is sweet.
- 8 Like a bird that strays from its nest is a man who wanders from his home.
- 9 Oil and incense bring joy to the heart, and the sweetness of a friend is counsel to the soul.

† 26:23 Hebrew; LXX smooth

- 10 Do not forsake your friend or your father's friend, and do not go to your brother's house in the day of your calamity;
better a neighbor nearby
than a brother far away.
- 11 Be wise, my son, and bring joy to my heart,
so that I can answer him who taunts me.
- 12 The prudent see danger and take cover;
but the simple keep going and pay the penalty.
- 13 Take the garment of him who posts security for a stranger;
get collateral if it is for a foreigner.*
- 14 If one blesses his neighbor with a loud voice early in the morning, it will be counted to him as a curse.
- 15 A constant dripping on a rainy day
and a contentious woman are alike—16 restraining her is like holding back the wind or grasping oil with one's right hand.
- 17 As iron sharpens iron,
so one man sharpens another.†
- 18 Whoever tends a fig tree will eat its fruit, and he who looks after his master will be honored.
- 19 As water reflects the face,
so the heart reflects the true man.
- 20 Sheol and Abaddon ‡ are never satisfied;
so the eyes of man are never satisfied.
- 21 A crucible for silver and a furnace for gold,
but a man is tested by the praise accorded him.
- 22 Though you grind a fool like grain with mortar and a pestle, yet his folly will not depart from him.
- 23 Be sure to know the state of your flocks,
and pay close attention to your herds;
24 for riches are not forever,
nor does a crown endure to every generation.
- 25 When hay is removed and new growth appears and the grain from the hills is gathered, 26 the lambs will provide you with clothing,
and the goats with the price of a field.
- 27 You will have plenty of goats' milk to feed you—food for your household and nourishment for your maidservants.

The Boldness of the Righteous

- 1 The wicked flee when no one pursues, but the righteous are as bold as a lion.
- 2 A land in rebellion has many rulers,

* 27:13 Or a wayward woman † 27:17 Hebrew sharpens the face of another or sharpens the countenance of a friend ‡ 27:20 Or Death and Destruction but a man of understanding and knowledge maintains order.

- <sup>3</sup> A destitute leader who oppresses the poor is like a driving rain that leaves no food.
- <sup>4</sup> Those who forsake the law praise the wicked,
but those who keep the law resist them.
- <sup>5</sup> Evil men do not understand justice, but those who seek the LORD comprehend fully.
- <sup>6</sup> Better a poor man who walks with integrity than a rich man whose ways are perverse.
- <sup>7</sup> A discerning son keeps the law,
but a companion of gluttons disgraces his father.
- <sup>8</sup> He who increases his wealth by interest and usury lays it up for one who is kind to the poor.
- <sup>9</sup> Whoever turns his ear away from hearing the law, even his prayer is detestable.
- <sup>10</sup> He who leads the upright along the path of evil will fall into his own pit, but the blameless will inherit what is good.
- <sup>11</sup> A rich man is wise in his own eyes,
but a poor man with discernment sees through him.
- <sup>12</sup> When the righteous triumph, there is great glory,
but when the wicked rise, men hide themselves.
- <sup>13</sup> He who conceals his sins will not prosper, but whoever confesses and renounces them will find mercy.
- <sup>14</sup> Blessed is the man who is always reverent,* but he who hardens his heart falls into trouble.
- <sup>15</sup> Like a roaring lion or a charging bear is a wicked ruler over a helpless people.
- <sup>16</sup> A leader who lacks judgment is also a great oppressor, but he who hates dishonest profit will prolong his days.
- <sup>17</sup> A man burdened by bloodguilt will flee into the Pit;†
let no one support him.
- <sup>18</sup> He who walks with integrity will be kept safe, but whoever is perverse in his ways will suddenly fall.
- <sup>19</sup> The one who works his land will have plenty of food, but whoever chases fantasies will have his fill of poverty.
- <sup>20</sup> A faithful man will abound with blessings,
but one eager to be rich will not go unpunished.
- <sup>21</sup> To show partiality is not good,
yet a man will do wrong for a piece of bread.
- <sup>22</sup> A stingy man ‡ hastens after wealth

* 28:14 Or always fears the LORD; Hebrew does not include the LORD. † 28:17 Or will be a fugitive until death

‡ 28:22 Hebrew A man whose eye is evil and does not know that poverty awaits him.

- 23 He who rebukes a man will later find more favor than one who flatters with his tongue.
- 24 He who robs his father or mother, saying, "It is not wrong," is a companion to the man who destroys.
- 25 A greedy man stirs up strife,
but he who trusts in the LORD will prosper.
- 26 He who trusts in himself is a fool,
but one who walks in wisdom will be safe.
- 27 Whoever gives to the poor will not be in need,
but he who hides his eyes will receive many curses.
- 28 When the wicked come to power, people hide themselves;
but when they perish, the righteous flourish.

29

The Flourishing of the Righteous

- 1 A man who remains stiff-necked after much reproof will suddenly be shattered beyond recovery.
- 2 When the righteous flourish, the people rejoice,
but when the wicked rule, the people groan.
- 3 A man who loves wisdom brings joy to his father,
but a companion of prostitutes squanders his wealth.
- 4 By justice a king brings stability to the land,
but a man who exacts tribute * demolishes it.
- 5 A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.
- 6 An evil man is caught by his own sin, but a righteous one sings and rejoices.
- 7 The righteous consider the cause of the poor,
but the wicked have no regard for such concerns.
- 8 Mockers inflame a city,
but the wise turn away anger.
- 9 If a wise man goes to court with a fool,
there will be raving and laughing with no resolution.
- 10 Men of bloodshed hate a blameless man,
but the upright care for his life.†
- 11 A fool vents all his anger,
but a wise man holds it back.
- 12 If a ruler listens to lies,
all his officials will be wicked.
- 13 The poor man and the oppressor have this in common:
The LORD gives light to the eyes of both.

* 29:4 Or who taxes heavily or who takes bribes † 29:10 Or but the upright seek his soul

- 14 A king who judges the poor with fairness—his throne will be established forever.
- 15 A rod of correction imparts wisdom,
but a child left to himself disgraces his mother.
- 16 When the wicked thrive, rebellion increases;
but the righteous will see their downfall.
- 17 Discipline your son, and he will give you rest;
he will bring delight to your soul.
- 18 Where there is no vision, the people cast off restraint;
but blessed is he who keeps the Law.
- 19 A servant cannot be corrected by words alone;
though he understands, he will not respond.
- 20 Do you see a man who speaks in haste?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.
- 21 A servant pampered from his youth will bring grief in the end.
- 22 An angry man stirs up dissension,
and a hot-tempered man abounds in transgression.
- 23 A man's pride will bring him low,
but a humble spirit will obtain honor.
- 24 A partner to a thief hates his own soul;
he receives the oath, but does not testify.
- 25 The fear of man is a snare,
but whoever trusts in the LORD is set securely on high.
- 26 Many seek the ruler's favor,
but a man receives justice from the LORD.
- 27 An unjust man is detestable to the righteous, and one whose way is upright is detestable to the wicked.

The Words of Agur

<sup>1</sup> These are the words of Agur son of Jakeh—the burden that this man declared to Ithiel:

"I am weary, O God,
and worn out.*

<sup>2</sup> Surely I am the most ignorant of men, and I lack the understanding of a man.

<sup>3</sup> I have not learned wisdom, and I have no knowledge of the Holy One.

<sup>4</sup> Who has ascended to heaven and come down?

Who has gathered the wind in His hands?

Who has bound up the waters in His cloak?

Who has established all the ends of the earth?

What is His name, and what is the name of His Son—surely you know!

* 30:1 Or declared to Ithiel: "I am weary, O God, but I can prevail. (revocalizations); Hebrew declared to Ithiel—to Ithiel and Ucal:

He is a shield to those who take refuge in Him.

lest He rebuke you and prove you a liar.

<sup>7</sup> Two things I ask of You—do not refuse me before I die:

<sup>8</sup> Keep falsehood and deceitful words far from me.

Give me neither poverty nor riches;

feed me with the bread that is my portion.

<sup>9</sup> Otherwise, I may have too much and deny You, saying, 'Who is the LORD?'

Or I may become poor and steal, profaning the name of my God.

<sup>10</sup> Do not slander a servant to his master, or he will curse you, and you will bear the guilt.

<sup>11</sup> There is a generation of those who curse their fathers and do not bless their mothers.

<sup>12</sup> There is a generation of those who are pure in their own eyes and yet unwashed of their filth.

<sup>13</sup> There is a generation—how haughty are their eyes and pretentious are their glances—

<sup>14</sup> there is a generation whose teeth are swords and whose jaws are knives, devouring the oppressed from the earth and the needy from among men.

<sup>15</sup> The leech has two daughters:

Give and Give.

There are three things that are never satisfied, four that never say, 'Enough!':

<sup>16</sup> Sheol,

the barren womb,

land never satisfied with water,

and fire that never says, 'Enough!'

<sup>17</sup> As for the eye that mocks a father and scorns obedience to a mother, may the ravens of the valley pluck it out and young vultures devour it.

<sup>18</sup> There are three things too wonderful for me, four that I cannot understand:

<sup>19</sup> the way of an eagle in the sky, the way of a snake on a rock,

the way of a ship at sea,

and the way of a man with a maiden.

<sup>20</sup> This is the way of an adulteress:

She eats and wipes her mouth and says, 'I have done nothing wrong.'

<sup>21</sup> Under three things the earth trembles, under four it cannot bear up:

<sup>22</sup> a servant who becomes king,

- a fool who is filled with food, 23 an unloved woman who marries,
 and a maidservant who supplants her mistress.
- 24 Four things on earth are small, yet they are exceedingly wise:
 25 The ants are creatures of little strength, yet they store up their food in the summer;
 26 the rock badgers † are creatures of little power, yet they make their homes in the rocks;
 27 the locusts have no king, yet they all advance in formation;
 28 and the lizard can be caught in one's hands, yet it is found in the palaces of kings.
- 29 There are three things that are stately in their stride, and four that are impressive in their walk:
 30 a lion, mighty among beasts, refusing to retreat before anything; 31 a strutting rooster;
 a he-goat;
 and a king with his army around him.‡
- 32 If you have foolishly exalted yourself or if you have plotted evil,
 put your hand over your mouth.
- 33 For as the churning of milk yields butter,
 and the twisting of the nose draws blood,
 so the stirring of anger brings forth strife.”

The Sayings for King Lemuel

- 1 These are the words of King Lemuel—the burden that his mother taught him:
- 2 What shall I say,* O my son?
 What, O son of my womb?
 What, O son of my vows?
- 3 Do not spend your strength on women or your vigor on those who ruin kings.
- 4 It is not for kings, O Lemuel,
 it is not for kings to drink wine,
 or for rulers to crave strong drink,
 5 lest they drink and forget what is decreed, depriving all the oppressed of justice.
- 6 Give strong drink to one who is perishing,
 and wine to the bitter in soul.
- 7 Let him drink and forget his poverty,
 and remember his misery no more.
- 8 Open your mouth for those with no voice,
 for the cause of all the dispossessed.
- 9 Open your mouth, judge righteously, and defend the cause of the poor and needy.

† 30:26 Or the coney or the hyraxes    ‡ 30:31 Or a king against whom there is no rising up    * 31:2 Or What or What are you doing

The Virtues of a Noble Woman

- 10 A wife † of noble character, who can find?
She is far more precious than rubies.
- 11 The heart of her husband trusts in her,
and he lacks nothing of value.
- 12 She brings him good and not harm
all the days of her life.
- 13 She selects wool and flax and works with eager hands.
- 14 She is like the merchant ships, bringing her food from afar.
- 15 She rises while it is still night to provide food for her household and portions for her maidservants.
- 16 She appraises a field and buys it;
from her earnings she plants a vineyard.
- 17 She girds herself ‡ with strength and shows that her arms are strong.
- 18 She sees that her gain is good,
and her lamp is not extinguished at night.
- 19 She stretches out her hands to the distaff and grasps the spindle with her fingers.
- 20 She opens her arms to the poor and reaches out her hands to the needy.
- 21 When it snows, she has no fear for her household, for they are all clothed in scarlet.§
- 22 She makes coverings for her bed;
her clothing is fine linen and purple.
- 23 Her husband is known at the city gate,
where he sits among the elders of the land.
- 24 She makes linen garments and sells them;
she delivers sashes to the merchants.
- 25 Strength and honor are her clothing, and she can laugh at the days to come.
- 26 She opens her mouth with wisdom,
and faithful instruction is on her tongue.
- 27 She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.
- 28 Her children rise up and call her blessed;
her husband praises her as well:
- 29 "Many daughters have done noble things, but you surpass them all!"
- 30 Charm is deceptive and beauty is fleeting,
but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.
- 31 Give her the fruit of her hands, and let her works praise her at the gates.

† 31:10 Verses 10–31 are an acrostic poem, each verse beginning with the successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet.

Ecclesiastes

Everything Is Futile

<sup>2</sup> "Futility † of futilities," says the Teacher,
"futility of futilities!
Everything is futile!"

<sup>3</sup> What does a man gain from all his labor, at which he toils under the sun?

<sup>4</sup> Generations come and generations go,
but the earth remains forever.

<sup>5</sup> The sun rises and the sun sets;
it hurries back to where it rises.

<sup>6</sup> The wind blows southward,
then turns northward;
round and round it swirls,
ever returning on its course.

<sup>7</sup> All the rivers flow into the sea, yet the sea is never full;
to the place from which the streams come,
there again they flow.

<sup>8</sup> All things are wearisome, more than one can describe;
the eye is not satisfied with seeing,
nor the ear content with hearing.

<sup>9</sup> What has been will be again,
and what has been done will be done again;
there is nothing new under the sun.

<sup>10</sup> Is there a case where one can say,
"Look, this is new"?

It has already existed
in the ages before us.

<sup>11</sup> There is no remembrance of those who came before,
and those yet to come will not be remembered by those who follow after.

With Wisdom Comes Sorrow

<sup>12</sup> I, the Teacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> And I set my mind to seek and explore by wisdom all that is done under heaven. What a heavy burden God has laid upon the sons of men to occupy them!

<sup>14</sup> I have seen all the things that are done under the sun, and have found them all to be futile, a pursuit of the wind.

<sup>15</sup> What is crooked cannot be straightened, and what is lacking cannot be counted.

<sup>16</sup> I said to myself, "Behold, I have grown and increased in wisdom beyond all those before me who were over Jerusalem, and my mind has observed a wealth of wisdom and knowledge."

* 1:1 Or the Convener or the Preacher or the leader of the assembly; Hebrew Qoheleth is rendered as the Teacher throughout Ecclesiastes. † 1:2 Literally vapor or breath; the Hebrew words translated in Ecclesiastes as forms of futile or fleeting can also be translated as vanity or meaningless.

<sup>17</sup> So I set my mind to know wisdom and madness and folly; I learned that this, too, is a pursuit of the wind.

and as knowledge grows, grief increases.

2

The Futility of Pleasure

<sup>1</sup> I said to myself, "Come now, I will test you with pleasure; enjoy what is good!"

But it proved to be futile.

<sup>2</sup> I said of laughter, "It is folly," and of pleasure, "What does it accomplish?"

<sup>3</sup> I sought to cheer my body with wine and to embrace folly—my mind still guiding me with wisdom—until I could see what was worthwhile for men to do under heaven during the few days of their lives.

<sup>4</sup> I expanded my pursuits. I built houses and planted vineyards for myself. <sup>5</sup> I made gardens and parks for myself, where I planted all kinds of fruit trees. <sup>6</sup> I built reservoirs to water my groves of flourishing trees.

<sup>7</sup> I acquired menservants and maidservants, and servants were born in my house. I also owned more herds and flocks than anyone in Jerusalem before me, <sup>8</sup> and I accumulated for myself silver and gold and the treasure of kings and provinces. I gathered to myself male and female singers, and the delights of the sons of men—many concubines.

<sup>9</sup> So I became great and surpassed all in Jerusalem who had preceded me; and my wisdom remained with me. <sup>10</sup> Anything my eyes desired, I did not deny myself. I refused my heart no pleasure. For my heart took delight in all my work, and this was the reward for all my labor.

<sup>11</sup> Yet when I considered all the works that my hands had accomplished and what I had toiled to achieve, I found everything to be futile, a pursuit of the wind; there was nothing to be gained under the sun.

The Wise and the Foolish

<sup>12</sup> Then I turned to consider wisdom and madness and folly; for what more can the king's successor do than what has already been accomplished? <sup>13</sup> And I saw that wisdom exceeds folly, just as light exceeds darkness:

<sup>14</sup> The wise man has eyes in his head,
but the fool walks in darkness.

Yet I also came to realize that one fate overcomes them both. <sup>15</sup> So I said to myself, "The fate of the fool will also befall me. What then have I gained by being wise?"

And I said to myself that this too is futile.

<sup>16</sup> For there is no lasting remembrance of the wise, just as with the fool, seeing that both will be forgotten in the days to come. Alas, the wise man will die just like the fool! <sup>17</sup> So I hated life, because the work that is done under the sun was grievous to me. For everything is futile and a pursuit of the wind.

The Futility of Work

<sup>18</sup> I hated all for which I had toiled under the sun, because I must leave it to the man who comes after me. <sup>19</sup> And who knows whether that man will be wise or foolish? Yet he will take over all the labor at which I have worked skillfully under the sun. This too is futile.

<sup>20</sup> So my heart began to despair over all the labor that I had done under the sun. <sup>21</sup> When there is a man who has labored with wisdom, knowledge, and skill, and he must give his portion to a man who has not worked for it, this too is futile and a great evil. <sup>22</sup> For what does a man get for all the toil and striving with which he labors under the sun? <sup>23</sup> Indeed, all his days are filled with grief, and his task is sorrowful; even at night, his mind does not rest. This too is futile.

To Everything There Is a Season

<sup>1</sup> To everything there is a season,
and a time for every purpose under heaven:
<sup>2</sup> a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot, <sup>3</sup> a time to kill and a time to heal,
a time to break down and a time to build, <sup>4</sup> a time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance, <sup>5</sup> a time to cast away stones and a time to gather stones together, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing, <sup>6</sup> a time to search and a time to count as lost,
a time to keep and a time to discard, <sup>7</sup> a time to tear and a time to mend,
a time to be silent and a time to speak, <sup>8</sup> a time to love and a time to hate,
a time for war and a time for peace.

God's Works Remain Forever

<sup>9</sup> What does the worker gain from his toil? <sup>10</sup> I have seen the burden that God has laid upon the sons of men to occupy them. <sup>11</sup> He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in the hearts of men, yet they cannot fathom the work that God has done from beginning to end.

<sup>12</sup> I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice and do good while they live, <sup>13</sup> and also that every man should eat and drink and find satisfaction in all his labor—this is the gift of God. <sup>14</sup> I know that everything God does endures forever; nothing can be added to it or taken from it. God does it so that they should fear Him. <sup>15</sup> What exists has already been, and what will be has already been, for God will call to account what has passed.

From Dust to Dust

<sup>16</sup> Furthermore, I saw under the sun that in the place of judgment there is wickedness, and in the place of righteousness there is wickedness. <sup>17</sup> I said in my heart, "God will judge the righteous and the wicked, since there is a time for every activity and every deed."

<sup>18</sup> I said to myself, "As for the sons of men, God tests them so that they may see for themselves that they are but beasts." <sup>19</sup> For the fates of both men and beasts are the same: As one dies, so dies the other—they all have the same breath.* Man has no advantage over the animals, since everything is futile. <sup>20</sup> All go to one place; all come from dust, and all return to dust.

* 2:25 Some Hebrew manuscripts, LXX, Syriac; most Hebrew manuscripts apart from me or more than I 3:19
Or spirit

<sup>21</sup> Who knows if the spirit of man rises upward and the spirit of the animal descends into the earth? <sup>22</sup> I have seen that there is nothing better for a man than to enjoy his work, because that is his lot. For who can bring him to see what will come after him?

The Evil of Oppression

<sup>1</sup> Again I looked, and I considered all the oppression taking place under the sun. I saw the tears of the oppressed, and they had no comforter; the power lay in the hands of their oppressors, and there was no comforter. <sup>2</sup> So I admired the dead, who had already died, above the living, who are still alive. <sup>3</sup> But better than both is he who has not yet existed, who has not seen the evil that is done under the sun.

<sup>5</sup> The fool folds his hands and consumes his own flesh.

<sup>6</sup> Better one handful with tranquility than two handfuls with toil and pursuit of the wind.

<sup>7</sup> Again, I saw futility under the sun. <sup>8</sup> There is a man all alone, without even a son or brother. And though there is no end to his labor, his eyes are still not content with his wealth: "For whom do I toil and bereave my soul of enjoyment?" This too is futile—a miserable task.

<sup>9</sup> Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their labor. <sup>10</sup> For if one falls down, his companion can lift him up; but pity the one who falls without another to help him up! <sup>11</sup> Again, if two lie down together, they will keep warm; but how can one keep warm alone? <sup>12</sup> And though one may be overpowered, two can resist. Moreover, a cord of three strands is not quickly broken.

The Futility of Power

<sup>13</sup> Better is a poor but wise youth than an old but foolish king who no longer knows how to take a warning. <sup>14</sup> For the youth has come from the prison to the kingship, though he was born poor in his own kingdom.

<sup>15</sup> I saw that all who lived and walked under the sun followed this second one, the youth who succeeded the king. <sup>16</sup> There is no limit to all the people who were before them. Yet the successor will not be celebrated by those who come even later. This too is futile and a pursuit of the wind.

Approaching God with Awe

<sup>1</sup> Guard your steps when you go to the house of God. Draw near to listen rather than to offer the sacrifice of fools, who do not know that they do wrong. <sup>2</sup> Do not be quick to speak, and do not be hasty in your heart to utter a word before God. After all, God is in heaven and you are on earth. So let your words be few.

<sup>3</sup> As a dream comes through many cares,
so the speech of a fool comes with many words.

<sup>4</sup> When you make a vow to God, do not delay in fulfilling it, because He takes no pleasure in fools. Fulfill your vow. <sup>5</sup> It is better not to vow than to make a vow and not fulfill it.

<sup>6</sup> Do not let your mouth cause your flesh to sin, and do not tell the messenger * that your vow was a mistake. Why should God be angry with your words and destroy the work of your hands? <sup>7</sup> For as many dreams bring futility, so do many words. Therefore, fear God.

The Futility of Wealth
(Psalm 49:1–20)

<sup>8</sup> If you see the oppression of the poor and the denial of justice and righteousness in the province, do not be astonished at the matter; for one official is watched by a superior, and others higher still are over them. <sup>9</sup> The produce of the earth is taken by all; the king himself profits from the fields.

<sup>10</sup> He who loves money is never satisfied by money, and he who loves wealth is never satisfied by income. This too is futile. <sup>11</sup> When good things increase, so do those who consume them; what then is the profit to the owner, except to behold them with his eyes?

<sup>12</sup> The sleep of the worker is sweet, whether he eats little or much, but the abundance of the rich man permits him no sleep.

<sup>13</sup> There is a grievous evil I have seen under the sun: wealth hoarded to the harm of its owner, <sup>14</sup> or wealth lost in a failed venture, so when that man has a son there is nothing to pass on.

<sup>15</sup> As a man came from his mother's womb, so he will depart again, naked as he arrived. He takes nothing for his labor to carry in his hands. <sup>16</sup> This too is a grievous evil: Exactly as a man is born, so he will depart. What does he gain as he toils for the wind? <sup>17</sup> Moreover, all his days he eats in darkness, with much sorrow, sickness, and anger.

<sup>18</sup> Here is what I have seen to be good and fitting: to eat and drink, and to find satisfaction in all the labor one does under the sun during the few days of life that God has given him—for this is his lot.

<sup>19</sup> Furthermore, God has given riches and wealth to every man, and He has enabled him to enjoy them, to accept his lot, and to rejoice in his labor. This is a gift from God. <sup>20</sup> For a man seldom considers the days of his life, because God keeps him occupied with the joy of his heart.

6

The Futility of Life

<sup>1</sup> There is another evil I have seen under the sun, and it weighs heavily upon mankind: <sup>2</sup> God gives a man riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing his heart desires; but God does not allow him to enjoy them. Instead, a stranger will enjoy them. This is futile and a grievous affliction.

<sup>3</sup> A man may father a hundred children and live for many years; yet no matter how long he lives, if he is unsatisfied with his prosperity and does not even receive a proper burial, I say that a stillborn child is better off than he. <sup>4</sup> For a stillborn child enters in futility and departs in darkness, and his name is shrouded in obscurity. <sup>5</sup> The child, though neither seeing the sun nor knowing anything, has more rest than that man, <sup>6</sup> even if he lives a thousand years twice over but fails to enjoy his prosperity. Do not all go to the same place?

<sup>8</sup> What advantage, then, has the wise man over the fool? What gain comes to the poor man who knows how to conduct himself before others? <sup>9</sup> Better what the eye can see than the wandering of desire. This too is futile and a pursuit of the wind.

<sup>10</sup> Whatever exists was named long ago, and what happens to a man is foreknown; but he cannot contend with one stronger than he. <sup>11</sup> For the more words, the more futility—and how does that profit anyone? <sup>12</sup> For who knows what is good for a man during the few days in which he passes through his fleeting life like a shadow? Who can tell a man what will come after him under the sun?

The Value of Wisdom

- <sup>1</sup> A good name is better than fine perfume, and one's day of death is better than his day of birth.
- <sup>2</sup> It is better to enter a house of mourning
than a house of feasting,
since death is the end of every man,
and the living should take this to heart.
- <sup>3</sup> Sorrow is better than laughter,
for a sad countenance is good for the heart.
- <sup>4</sup> The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in the house of pleasure.
- <sup>5</sup> It is better to heed a wise man's rebuke than to listen to the song of fools.
- <sup>6</sup> For like the crackling of thorns under the pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This too is futile.
- <sup>7</sup> Surely extortion turns a wise man into a fool,
and a bribe corrupts the heart.
- <sup>8</sup> The end of a matter is better than the beginning,
and a patient spirit is better than a proud one.
- <sup>9</sup> Do not be quickly provoked in your spirit, for anger settles in the lap of a fool.*
- <sup>10</sup> Do not say, "Why were the old days better than these?"
For it is unwise of you to ask about this.
- <sup>11</sup> Wisdom, like an inheritance, is good,
and it benefits those who see the sun.
- <sup>12</sup> For wisdom, like money, is a shelter, and the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of its owner.
- <sup>13</sup> Consider the work of God:
Who can straighten what He has bent?
- <sup>14</sup> In the day of prosperity, be joyful,
but in the day of adversity, consider this:
God has made one of these along with the other,
so that a man cannot discover anything that will come after him.

The Limits of Human Wisdom

- <sup>15</sup> In my futile life I have seen both of these:

A righteous man perishing in his righteousness,
and a wicked man living long in his wickedness.
- <sup>16</sup> Do not be overly righteous, and do not make yourself too wise. Why should you destroy yourself? <sup>17</sup> Do not be excessively wicked, and do not be a fool. Why should you die before your time? <sup>18</sup> It is good to grasp the one and not let the other slip from your hand. For he who fears God will follow both warnings.†
- <sup>19</sup> Wisdom makes the wise man

* 7:9 Hebrew in the bosom of fools † 7:18 Or will avoid all extremes stronger than ten rulers in a city.

<sup>20</sup> Surely there is no righteous man on earth who does good and never sins.

<sup>21</sup> Do not pay attention to every word that is spoken, or you may hear your servant cursing you. <sup>22</sup> For you know in your heart that many times you yourself have cursed others.

<sup>25</sup> I directed my mind to understand, to explore, to search out wisdom and explanations, and to understand the stupidity of wickedness and the folly of madness. <sup>26</sup> And I find more bitter than death the woman who is a snare, whose heart is a net, and whose hands are chains. The man who pleases God escapes her, but the sinner is ensnared.

<sup>27</sup> "Behold," says the Teacher, "I have discovered this by adding one thing to another to find an explanation. <sup>28</sup> While my soul was still searching but not finding, among a thousand I have found one upright man, but among all these I have not found one such woman. <sup>29</sup> Only this have I found: I have discovered that God made men upright, but they have sought out many schemes."

8

Obey the King

<sup>2</sup> Keep the king's command, I say, because of your oath before God. <sup>3</sup> Do not hasten to leave his presence, and do not persist in a bad cause, for he will do whatever he pleases. <sup>4</sup> For the king's word is supreme, and who can say to him, "What are you doing?"

<sup>5</sup> Whoever keeps his command will come to no harm, and a wise heart knows the right time and procedure. <sup>6</sup> For there is a right time and procedure to every purpose, though a man's misery weighs heavily upon him. <sup>7</sup> Since no one knows what will happen, who can tell him what is to come?

<sup>8</sup> As no man has power over the wind to contain it, so no one has authority over his day of death. As no one can be discharged in wartime, so wickedness will not release those who practice it. <sup>9</sup> All this I have seen, applying my mind to every deed that is done under the sun; there is a time when one man lords it over another to his own detriment.

Fear God (Isaiah 8:11-15)

<sup>10</sup> Then too, I saw the burial of the wicked who used to go in and out of the holy place, and they were praised * in the city where they had done so. This too is futile. <sup>11</sup> When the sentence for a crime is not speedily executed, the hearts of men become fully set on doing evil.

<sup>12</sup> Although a sinner does evil a hundred times and still lives long, yet I also know that it will go well with those who fear God, who are reverent in His presence. <sup>13</sup> Yet because the wicked do not fear God, it will not go well with them, and their days will not lengthen like a shadow.

God's Ways Are Mysterious

<sup>14</sup> There is a futility that is done on the earth: There are righteous men who get what the actions of the wicked deserve, and there are wicked men who get what the actions of the righteous deserve. I say that this too is futile.

* 8:10 Some Hebrew manuscripts, LXX, and Vulgate; most Hebrew manuscripts were soon forgotten

<sup>15</sup> So I commended the enjoyment of life, because there is nothing better for a man under the sun than to eat and drink and be merry. For this joy will accompany him in his labor during the days of his life that God gives him under the sun.

<sup>16</sup> When I applied my mind to know wisdom and to observe the task that one performs on the earth—though his eyes do not see sleep in the day or even in the night— <sup>17</sup> I saw every work of God, and that a man is unable to comprehend the work that is done under the sun. Despite his efforts to search it out, he cannot find its meaning; even if the wise man claims to know, he is unable to comprehend.

9

Death Comes to Good and Bad

<sup>1</sup> So I took all this to heart and concluded that the righteous and the wise, as well as their deeds, are in God's hands. Man does not know what lies ahead, whether love or hate.

<sup>2</sup> It is the same for all: There is a common fate for the righteous and the wicked, for the good and the bad,* for the clean and the unclean, for the one who sacrifices and the one who does not. As it is for the good, so it is for the sinner; as it is for the one who makes a vow, so it is for the one who refuses to take a vow.

<sup>3</sup> This is an evil in everything that is done under the sun: There is one fate for everyone. Furthermore, the hearts of men are full of evil and madness while they are alive, and afterward they join the dead.

<sup>4</sup> There is hope, however, for anyone who is among the living; for even a live dog is better than a dead lion. <sup>5</sup> For the living know that they will die, but the dead know nothing. They have no further reward, because the memory of them is forgotten. <sup>6</sup> Their love, their hate, and their envy have already vanished, and they will never again have a share in all that is done under the sun.

Enjoy Your Portion in This Life

<sup>7</sup> Go, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a cheerful heart, for God has already approved your works:

<sup>8</sup> Let your garments always be white,
and never spare the oil for your head.

<sup>9</sup> Enjoy life with your beloved wife all the days of the fleeting † life that God has given you under the sun—all your fleeting days. For this is your portion in life and in your labor under the sun. <sup>10</sup> Whatever you find to do with your hands, do it with all your might, for in Sheol, where you are going, there is no work or planning or knowledge or wisdom.

<sup>11</sup> I saw something else under the sun: The race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong; neither is the bread to the wise, nor the wealth to the intelligent, nor the favor to the skillful. For time and chance happen to all. <sup>12</sup> For surely no man knows his time: Like fish caught in a cruel net or birds trapped in a snare, so men are ensnared in an evil time that suddenly falls upon them.

Wisdom Is Better than Strength

<sup>13</sup> I have also seen this wisdom under the sun, and it was great to me: <sup>14</sup> There was a small city with few men. A mighty king came against it, surrounded it, and built large siege ramps against it.

<sup>15</sup> Now a poor wise man was found in the city, and he saved the city by his wisdom. Yet no one remembered that poor man. <sup>16</sup> And I said, "Wisdom is better than strength, but the wisdom of the poor man is despised, and his words are not heeded."

* 9:2 LXX, Syriac, and Vulgate; Hebrew does not include and the bad. † 9:9 Or futile; twice in this verse

<sup>17</sup> The calm words of the wise are heeded over the shouts of a ruler among fools.

<sup>18</sup> Wisdom is better than weapons of war,
but one sinner destroys much good.

10

Wisdom and Folly

<sup>1</sup> As dead flies bring a stench to the perfumer's oil, so a little folly outweighs wisdom and honor.

<sup>2</sup> A wise man's heart inclines to the right,
but the heart of a fool to the left.

<sup>3</sup> Even as the fool walks along the road, his sense is lacking, and he shows everyone that he is a fool.

<sup>4</sup> If the ruler's temper flares against you, do not abandon your post, for calmness lays great offenses to rest.

<sup>5</sup> There is an evil I have seen under the sun—
an error that proceeds from the ruler:

<sup>6</sup> Folly is appointed to great heights,
but the rich sit in lowly positions.

<sup>7</sup> I have seen slaves on horseback,
while princes go on foot like slaves.

<sup>8</sup> He who digs a pit may fall into it, and he who breaches a wall may be bitten by a snake.

<sup>9</sup> The one who quarries stones may be injured by them, and he who splits logs endangers himself.

<sup>10</sup> If the axe is dull and the blade unsharpened, more strength must be exerted,
but skill produces success.

<sup>11</sup> If the snake bites before it is charmed, there is no profit for the charmer.

<sup>12</sup> The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious,
but the lips of a fool consume him.

<sup>13</sup> The beginning of his talk is folly,
and the end of his speech is evil madness.

<sup>14</sup> Yet the fool multiplies words.
No one knows what is coming,
and who can tell him what will come after him?

<sup>15</sup> The toil of a fool wearies him, for he does not know the way to the city.

<sup>16</sup> Woe to you, O land whose king is a youth,* and whose princes feast in the morning.

<sup>17</sup> Blessed are you, O land whose king is a son of nobles, and whose princes feast at the proper time—
for strength and not for drunkenness.

<sup>18</sup> Through laziness the roof caves in,
and in the hands of the idle, the house leaks.

<sup>19</sup> A feast is prepared for laughter, and wine makes life merry, but money is the answer for everything.

<sup>20</sup> Do not curse the king even in your thoughts, or curse the rich even in your bedroom,
for a bird of the air may carry your words,
and a winged creature may report your speech.

* 10:16 Or a servant

11Cast Your Bread upon the Waters*

- <sup>1</sup> Cast your bread upon the waters, for after many days you will find it again.
- <sup>2</sup> Divide your portion among seven, or even eight,
for you do not know what disaster may befall the land.
- <sup>3</sup> If the clouds are full,
they will pour out rain upon the earth;
whether a tree falls to the south or to the north,
in the place where it falls, there it will lie.
- <sup>4</sup> He who watches the wind will fail to sow,
and he who observes the clouds will fail to reap.
- <sup>5</sup> As you do not know the path of the wind,
or how the bones are formed * in a mother's womb,
so you cannot understand the work of God,
the Maker of all things.
- <sup>6</sup> Sow your seed in the morning,
and do not rest your hands in the evening,
for you do not know which will succeed,
whether this or that, or if both will equally prosper.

Enjoy Your Years

- <sup>7</sup> Light is sweet,
and it pleases the eyes to see the sun.
- <sup>8</sup> So if a man lives many years,
let him rejoice in them all.
But let him remember the days of darkness,
for they will be many.
Everything to come is futile.
- <sup>9</sup> Rejoice, O young man, while you are young,
and let your heart be glad in the days of your youth.
Walk in the ways of your heart and in the sight of your eyes, but know that for all these things
God will bring you to judgment.
- <sup>10</sup> So banish sorrow from your heart,
and cast off pain from your body,
for youth and vigor are fleeting.†

12Remember Your Creator*

- <sup>1</sup> Remember your Creator in the days of your youth, before the days of adversity come and the years approach of which you will say,
"I find no pleasure in them,"
- <sup>2</sup> before the light of the sun, moon, and stars is darkened, and the clouds return after the rain,
- <sup>3</sup> on the day the keepers of the house tremble and the strong men stoop, when those grinding cease because they are few and those watching through windows see dimly,
- <sup>4</sup> when the doors to the street are shut and the sound of the mill fades away, when one rises at the sound of a bird

* 11:5 Or As you do not know the way the spirit comes to the bones † 11:10 Or futile and all the daughters of song grow faint, <sup>5</sup> when men fear the heights and dangers of the road,

 when the almond tree blossoms,
 the grasshopper loses its spring,
 and the caper berry shrivels—for then man goes to his eternal home and mourners walk the streets.

<sup>6</sup> Remember Him before the silver cord is snapped and the golden bowl is crushed, before the pitcher is shattered at the spring and the wheel is broken at the well, <sup>7</sup> before the dust returns to the ground from which it came and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

 "Everything is futile!"

The Whole Duty of Man

<sup>9</sup> Not only was the Teacher wise, but he also taught the people knowledge; he pondered, searched out, and arranged many proverbs. <sup>10</sup> The Teacher searched to find delightful sayings and to record accurate words of truth.*

<sup>11</sup> The words of the wise are like goads, and the anthologies of the masters are like firmly embedded nails driven by a single Shepherd.† <sup>12</sup> And by these, my son, be further warned: There is no end to the making of many books, and much study wearies the body.

<sup>13</sup> When all has been heard, the conclusion of the matter is this: Fear God and keep His commandments, because this is the whole duty of man. <sup>14</sup> For God will bring every deed into judgment, along with every hidden thing, whether good or evil.

Song

The Bride Confesses Her Love
(Ephesians 5:22-33; 1 Peter 3:1-7)

The Bride

<sup>2</sup> Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth!
For your love is more delightful than wine.

<sup>3</sup> The fragrance of your perfume is pleasing;
your name is like perfume poured out.
No wonder the maidens adore you.

<sup>4</sup> Take me away with you—let us hurry!
May the king bring me to his chambers.

The Friends

We will rejoice and delight in you;
we will praise your love more than wine.

The Bride

It is only right that they adore you.

<sup>5</sup> I am dark, yet lovely, O daughters of Jerusalem, like the tents of Kedar, like the curtains of Solomon.

<sup>6</sup> Do not stare because I am dark,
for the sun has gazed upon me.
My mother's sons were angry with me;
they made me a keeper of the vineyards,
but my own vineyard I have neglected.

<sup>7</sup> Tell me, O one I love,
where do you pasture your sheep?
Where do you rest them at midday?

Why should I be like a veiled woman beside the flocks of your companions?

The Friends

<sup>8</sup> If you do not know, O fairest of women, follow the tracks of the flock,
and graze your young goats
near the tents of the shepherds.

The Bridegroom

<sup>9</sup> I compare you, my darling, to a mare among Pharaoh's chariots.

<sup>10</sup> Your cheeks are beautiful with ornaments, your neck with strings of jewels.

The Friends

<sup>11</sup> We will make you ornaments of gold, studded with beads of silver.

- 12 While the king was at his table,
my perfume spread its fragrance.
13 My beloved is to me a sachet of myrrh resting between my breasts.
14 My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms in the vineyards of En-gedi.

The Bridegroom

- 15 How beautiful you are, my darling!
Oh, how very beautiful!
Your eyes are like doves.

The Bride

- 16 How handsome you are, my beloved!
Oh, how delightful!
The soft grass is our bed.

The Bridegroom

- 17 The beams of our house are cedars;
our rafters are fragrant firs.

The Bridegroom

- 2 Like a lily among the thorns is my darling among the maidens.

The Bride

- 3 Like an apple tree among the trees of the forest is my beloved among the young men.
I delight to sit in his shade,
and his fruit is sweet to my taste.

- 4 He has brought me to the house of wine,† and his banner over me is love.

- 5 Sustain me with raisins;
refresh me with apples,
for I am faint with love.

- 6 His left hand is under my head,

- 7 O daughters of Jerusalem, I adjure you
by the gazelles and does of the field:
Do not arouse or awaken love
until the time is right.

- 8 Listen! My beloved approaches.

Look! Here he comes,
leaping across the mountains,
bounding over the hills.

- 9 My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag.
Look, he stands behind our wall,

* 2:1 Sharon Plain is a region in the coastal plain of Israel † 2:4 That is, the banquet hall gazing through the windows, peering through the lattice.

- <sup>10</sup> My beloved calls to me,
"Arise, my darling.
Come away with me, my beautiful one.
<sup>11</sup> For now the winter is past;
the rain is over and gone.
<sup>12</sup> The flowers have appeared in the countryside;
the season of singing ‡ has come,
and the cooing of turtledoves is heard in our land.
<sup>13</sup> The fig tree ripens its figs;
the blossoming vines spread their fragrance.
Arise, come away, my darling;
come away with me, my beautiful one."

The Bridegroom

- <sup>14</sup> O my dove in the clefts of the rock,
in the crevices of the cliff,
let me see your face,
let me hear your voice;
for your voice is sweet,
and your countenance is lovely.

The Friends

- <sup>15</sup> Catch for us the foxes—the little foxes that ruin the vineyards—for our vineyards are in bloom.

The Bride

- <sup>16</sup> My beloved is mine and I am his;
he pastures his flock among the lilies.
<sup>17</sup> Before the day breaks and shadows flee,

and be like a gazelle
or a young stag on the mountains of Bether. §

The Bride's Dream

- <sup>1</sup> On my bed at night
I sought the one I love;
I sought him,
but did not find him.
<sup>2</sup> I will arise now and go about the city,
through the streets and squares.
I will seek the one I love.
So I sought him but did not find him.
<sup>3</sup> I encountered the watchmen on their rounds of the city:
"Have you seen the one I love?"
<sup>4</sup> I had just passed them when I found the one I love.
I held him and would not let go until I had brought him to my mother's house, to the chamber of the one who conceived me.
<sup>5</sup> O daughters of Jerusalem, I adjure you
by the gazelles and does of the field:

‡ 2:12 Or pruning    § 2:17 Or the rugged mountains

Do not arouse or awaken love
until the time is right.

Solomon Arrives on His Wedding Day

<sup>6</sup> Who is this coming up from the wilderness
like a column of smoke, scented with myrrh and frankincense from all the spices of the merchant?

escorted by sixty of the mightiest men of Israel.

<sup>8</sup> All are skilled with the sword, experienced in warfare.
Each has his sword at his side prepared for the terror of the night.

<sup>9</sup> King Solomon has made his carriage out of the timber of Lebanon.

<sup>10</sup> He has made its posts of silver, its base of gold, its seat of purple fabric.
Its interior is inlaid with love
by the daughters of Jerusalem.

<sup>11</sup> Come out, O daughters of Zion,
and gaze at King Solomon, wearing the crown his mother bestowed on the day of his wedding—
the day of his heart's rejoicing.

Solomon Admires His Bride

The Bridegroom

<sup>1</sup> How beautiful you are, my darling—how very beautiful!

Your eyes are like doves
behind your veil.

Your hair is like a flock of goats streaming down Mount Gilead.

<sup>2</sup> Your teeth are like a flock of newly shorn sheep coming up from the washing;
each has its twin,
and not one of them is lost.

<sup>3</sup> Your lips are like a scarlet ribbon,
and your mouth is lovely.

Your brow behind your veil is like a slice of pomegranate.

<sup>4</sup> Your neck is like the tower of David,
built with rows of stones;
on it hang a thousand shields,
all of them shields of warriors.

<sup>5</sup> Your breasts are like two fawns,
twins of a gazelle grazing among the lilies.

<sup>6</sup> Before the day breaks and the shadows flee,
I will make my way
to the mountain of myrrh
and to the hill of frankincense.

<sup>7</sup> You are altogether beautiful, my darling;
in you there is no flaw.

* 3:7 That is, the couch on which servants carry a king

- 8 Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, come with me from Lebanon!
 Descend * from the peak of Amana,
 from the summits of Senir and Hermon,
 from the dens of the lions,
 from the mountains of the leopards.
- 9 You have captured my heart,
 my sister, my bride;
 you have stolen my heart with one glance of your eyes,
 with one jewel of your neck.
- 10 How delightful is your love,
 my sister, my bride!
 Your love is much better than wine,
 and the fragrance of your perfume than all spices.
- 11 Your lips, my bride,
 drip sweetness like the honeycomb;
 honey and milk are under your tongue,
 and the fragrance of your garments is like the aroma of Lebanon.
- 12 My sister, my bride, you are a garden locked up,
 a spring enclosed, a fountain sealed.
- 13 Your branches are an orchard of pomegranates with the choicest of fruits, with henna and nard, 14 with nard and saffron, with calamus and cinnamon, with every kind of frankincense tree,
 with myrrh and aloes,
 with all the finest spices.
- 15 You are a garden spring,
 a well of fresh water † flowing down from Lebanon.

The Bride

- 16 Awake, O north wind, and come, O south wind.
 Breathe on my garden
 and spread the fragrance of its spices.
 Let my beloved come into his garden and taste its choicest fruits.

The Bride and Her Beloved

The Bridegroom

- 1 I have come to my garden, my sister, my bride;
 I have gathered my myrrh with my spice.
 I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey;
 I have drunk my wine with my milk.

The Friends

- Eat, O friends, and drink;
 drink freely, O beloved.

The Bride

- 2 I sleep, but my heart is awake.
 A sound! My beloved is knocking:
 "Open to me, my sister, my darling,
 my dove, my flawless one.

* 4:8 Or Look down † 4:15 Or flowing water or living water

My head is drenched with dew,
my hair with the dampness of the night.”

<sup>3</sup> I have taken off my robe—must I put it back on?

I have washed my feet—
must I soil them again?

<sup>4</sup> My beloved put his hand to the latch;
my heart pounded for him.

<sup>5</sup> I rose up to open for my beloved.
My hands dripped with myrrh,
my fingers with flowing myrrh
on the handles of the bolt.

<sup>6</sup> I opened for my beloved,
but he had turned and gone.
My heart sank at his departure.
I sought him, but did not find him.
I called, but he did not answer.

<sup>7</sup> I encountered the watchmen on their rounds of the city.

They beat me and bruised me;
they took away my cloak,
those guardians of the walls.

<sup>8</sup> O daughters of Jerusalem, I adjure you,
if you find my beloved,
tell him I am sick with love.

The Friends

<sup>9</sup> How is your beloved better than others,
O most beautiful among women?
How is your beloved better than another,
that you charge us so?

The Bride

<sup>10</sup> My beloved is dazzling and ruddy, outstanding among ten thousand.

<sup>11</sup> His head is purest gold;
his hair is wavy and black as a raven.

<sup>12</sup> His eyes are like doves beside the streams of water, bathed in milk
and mounted like jewels.

<sup>13</sup> His cheeks are like beds of spice, towers of perfume.

His lips are like lilies,
dripping with flowing myrrh.

<sup>14</sup> His arms are rods of gold set with beryl.

His body is an ivory panel bedecked with sapphires.

<sup>15</sup> His legs are pillars of marble set on bases of pure gold.

His appearance is like Lebanon, as majestic as the cedars.

he is altogether lovely.
This is my beloved, and this is my friend,

The Bridegroom

- <sup>4</sup> You are as beautiful, my darling, as Tirzah,
 as lovely as Jerusalem,
 as majestic as troops with banners.
<sup>5</sup> Turn your eyes away from me,
 for they have overcome me.
 Your hair is like a flock of goats

<sup>1</sup> How beautiful are your sandaled feet,
O daughter of the prince!
The curves of your thighs are like jewels,
the handiwork of a master.
<sup>2</sup> Your navel is a rounded goblet;
it never lacks blended wine.
Your waist is a mound of wheat encircled by the lilies.
<sup>3</sup> Your breasts are like two fawns,
twins of a gazelle.
<sup>4</sup> Your neck is like a tower made of ivory;
your eyes are like the pools of Heshbon

your nose is like the tower of Lebanon,

<sup>5</sup> Your head crowns you like Mount Carmel,
the hair of your head like purple threads;
the king is captured in your tresses.

<sup>6</sup> How fair and pleasant you are,
O love, with your delights!
<sup>7</sup> Your stature is like a palm tree;
your breasts are clusters of fruit.
<sup>8</sup> I said, "I will climb the palm tree;
I will take hold of its fruit."
May your breasts be like clusters of the vine,
the fragrance of your breath like apples,
<sup>9</sup> and your mouth * like the finest wine.

<sup>12</sup> Let us go early to the vineyards to see if the vine has budded, if the blossom has opened,
if the pomegranates are in bloom—
there I will give you my love.

<sup>13</sup> The mandrakes send forth a fragrance,

new as well as old,
that I have treasured up for you, my beloved.

Longing for Her Beloved

- <sup>1</sup> O that you were to me like a brother who nursed at my mother's breasts!
 If I found you outdoors, I would kiss you,
 and no one would despise me.
- <sup>2</sup> I would lead you and bring you to the house of my mother who taught me.
 I would give you spiced wine to drink,
 the nectar of my pomegranates.
- <sup>3</sup> His left hand is under my head,
 and his right arm embraces me.
- <sup>4</sup> O daughters of Jerusalem, I adjure you:
 Do not arouse or awaken love
 until the time is right.

The Friends

- <sup>5</sup> Who is this coming up from the wilderness, leaning on her beloved?

The Bride

I roused you under the apple tree;
 there your mother conceived you;
 there she travailed and brought you forth.

- <sup>6</sup> Set me as a seal over your heart,
 as a seal upon your arm.
 For love is as strong as death,
 its jealousy * as unrelenting as Sheol.
 Its sparks are fiery flames,
 the fiercest blaze of all.
- <sup>7</sup> Mighty waters cannot quench love;
 rivers cannot sweep it away.
 If a man were to give all the wealth of his house for love, his offer would be utterly scorned.

The Friends

- <sup>8</sup> We have a little sister, and her breasts are not yet grown.
 What shall we do for our sister on the day she is spoken for?
- <sup>9</sup> If she is a wall,
 we will build a tower of silver upon her.
 If she is a door,
 we will enclose her with panels of cedar.

The Bride

- <sup>10</sup> I am a wall, and my breasts are like towers.
 So I have become in his eyes like one who brings peace.
- <sup>11</sup> Solomon had a vineyard in Baal-hamon.
 He leased it to the tenants.
 For its fruit, each was to bring a thousand shekels of silver.†
- <sup>12</sup> But my own vineyard is mine to give;

* 8:6 Or passion † 8:11 Hebrew a thousand of silver; that is, approximately 25.1 pounds or 11.4 kilograms of silver the thousand shekels are for you, O Solomon, and two hundred are for those who tend its fruit.

The Bridegroom

<sup>13</sup> You who dwell in the gardens, my companions are listening for your voice.
Let me hear it!

The Bride

<sup>14</sup> Come away, my beloved,
and be like a gazelle
or a young stag
on the mountains of spices.

Isaiah

Judah's Rebellion (2 Chronicles 28:5-15)

for the LORD has spoken:

"I have raised children and brought them up,
but they have rebelled against Me.

<sup>3</sup> The ox knows its owner,
and the donkey its master's manger,
but Israel does not know;
My people do not understand."

<sup>4</sup> Alas, O sinful nation,
a people laden with iniquity,
a brood of evildoers,
children of depravity!
They have forsaken the LORD;
they have despised the Holy One of Israel and turned their backs on Him.

<sup>5</sup> Why do you want more beatings?
Why do you keep rebelling?

Your head has a massive wound,
and your whole heart is afflicted.

<sup>6</sup> From the sole of your foot to the top of your head, there is no soundness—
only wounds and welts and festering sores neither cleansed nor bandaged nor soothed with oil.

<sup>7</sup> Your land is desolate;
your cities are burned with fire.
Foreigners devour your fields before you—
a desolation demolished by strangers.

<sup>8</sup> And the Daughter of Zion is abandoned like a shelter in a vineyard, like a shack in a cucumber field,
like a city besieged.

<sup>9</sup> Unless the LORD of Hosts had left us a few survivors,*
we would have become like Sodom,
we would have resembled Gomorrah.†

Meaningless Offerings

<sup>10</sup> Hear the word of the LORD,
you rulers of Sodom;
listen to the instruction of our God,
you people of Gomorrah!

<sup>11</sup> "What good to Me is your multitude of sacrifices?"
says the LORD.

"I am full from the burnt offerings of rams

* 1:9 LXX had left us descendants † 1:9 Cited in Romans 9:29 and the fat of well-fed cattle;

I take no delight in the blood of bulls and lambs and goats.

<sup>12</sup> When you come to appear before Me, who has required this of you—
this trampling of My courts?

<sup>13</sup> Bring your worthless offerings no more;
your incense is detestable to Me—
your New Moons, Sabbaths, and convocations.

I cannot endure iniquity
in a solemn assembly.

<sup>14</sup> I hate your New Moons and your appointed feasts.

They have become a burden to Me;
I am weary of bearing them.

<sup>15</sup> When you spread out your hands in prayer,
I will hide My eyes from you;
even though you multiply your prayers,
I will not listen.
Your hands are covered with blood.

<sup>16</sup> Wash and cleanse yourselves.
Remove your evil deeds from My sight.
Stop doing evil!

<sup>17</sup> Learn to do right; seek justice and correct the oppressor.‡ Defend the fatherless and plead the case of the widow.”

<sup>18</sup> “Come now, let us reason together,”
says the LORD.

“Though your sins are like scarlet,
they will be as white as snow;
though they are as red as crimson,
they will become like wool.

<sup>19</sup> If you are willing and obedient,
you will eat the best of the land.

<sup>20</sup> But if you resist and rebel,
you will be devoured by the sword.”

For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

The Corruption of Zion

<sup>21</sup> See how the faithful city has become a harlot!
She once was full of justice;
righteousness resided within her,
but now only murderers!

<sup>22</sup> Your silver has become dross;
your fine wine is diluted with water.

<sup>23</sup> Your rulers are rebels, friends of thieves.

They all love bribes
and chasing after rewards.

They do not defend the fatherless,
and the plea of the widow never comes before them.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore the Lord GOD of Hosts, the Mighty One of Israel, declares:

‡ 1:17 Or and encourage the oppressed

“Ah, I will be relieved of My foes and avenge Myself on My enemies.
 25 I will turn My hand against you;
 I will thoroughly purge your dross;
 I will remove all your impurities.
 26 I will restore your judges as at first,
 and your counselors as at the beginning.
 After that you will be called the City of Righteousness,
 the Faithful City.”

27 Zion will be redeemed with justice, her repentant ones with righteousness.
 28 But rebels and sinners will together be shattered, and those who forsake the LORD will perish.
 29 Surely you will be ashamed of the sacred oaks in which you have delighted;
 you will be embarrassed by the gardens that you have chosen.
 30 For you will become like an oak whose leaves are withered, like a garden without water.
 31 The strong man will become tinder and his work will be a spark;
 both will burn together,
 with no one to quench the flames.

The Mountain of the House of the LORD (Micah 4:1-5)

1 This is the message that was revealed to Isaiah son of Amoz concerning Judah and Jerusalem:

2 In the last days the mountain of the house of the LORD will be established as the chief of the mountains;
 it will be raised above the hills,
 and all nations will stream to it.

3 And many peoples will come and say:

“Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
 to the house of the God of Jacob.
 He will teach us His ways
 so that we may walk in His paths.”

For the law will go forth from Zion,
 and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

4 Then He will judge between the nations and arbitrate for many peoples.
 They will beat their swords into plowshares
 and their spears into pruning hooks.
 Nation will no longer take up the sword against nation,
 nor train anymore for war.

The Day of Reckoning

5 Come, O house of Jacob, let us walk in the light of the LORD.
 6 For You have abandoned Your people,
 the house of Jacob,
 because they are filled with influences from the east;

they are soothsayers like the Philistines;
they strike hands with the children of foreigners.

<sup>7</sup> Their land is full of silver and gold, with no limit to their treasures;
their land is full of horses,
with no limit to their chariots.

<sup>8</sup> Their land is full of idols;
they bow down to the work of their hands,
to what their fingers have made.

<sup>9</sup> So mankind is brought low, and man is humbled—
do not forgive them!

<sup>10</sup> Go into the rocks and hide in the dust
from the terror of the LORD and the splendor of His majesty.

<sup>11</sup> The proud look of man will be humbled, and the loftiness of men brought low;
the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.

<sup>12</sup> For the Day of the LORD of Hosts will come against all the proud and lofty, against all that is exalted—
it will be humbled—

<sup>13</sup> against all the cedars of Lebanon, lofty and lifted up, against all the oaks of Bashan,

<sup>14</sup> against all the tall mountains, against all the high hills,

<sup>15</sup> against every high tower, against every fortified wall,

<sup>16</sup> against every ship of Tarshish,*
and against every stately vessel.

<sup>17</sup> So the pride of man will be brought low,
and the loftiness of men will be humbled;
the LORD alone will be exalted in that day,
<sup>18</sup> and the idols will vanish completely.

<sup>19</sup> Men will flee to caves in the rocks and holes in the ground,
away from the terror of the LORD
and from the splendor of His majesty,
when He rises to shake the earth.

<sup>20</sup> In that day men will cast away to the moles and bats their idols of silver and gold—
the idols they made to worship.

<sup>21</sup> They will flee to caverns in the rocks and crevices in the cliffs,
away from the terror of the LORD
and from the splendor of His majesty,
when He rises to shake the earth.

<sup>22</sup> Put no more trust in man,
who has only the breath in his nostrils.
Of what account is he?

Judgment on Jerusalem and Judah

- <sup>1</sup> For behold, the Lord GOD of Hosts is about to remove from Jerusalem and Judah
both supply * and support:
the whole supply of food and water, <sup>2</sup> the mighty man and the warrior,
the judge and the prophet,
the soothsayer and the elder,
<sup>3</sup> the commander of fifty and the dignitary,
the counselor, the cunning magician, and the clever enchanter.
- <sup>4</sup> "I will make mere lads their leaders, and children will rule over them."
- <sup>5</sup> The people will oppress one another, man against man, neighbor against neighbor;
the young will rise up against the old,
and the base against the honorable.
- <sup>6</sup> A man will seize his brother within his father's house:
"You have a cloak—you be our leader!
Take charge of this heap of rubble."
- <sup>7</sup> On that day he will cry aloud:
"I am not a healer.†
I have no food or clothing in my house.
Do not make me leader of the people!"
- <sup>8</sup> For Jerusalem has stumbled and Judah has fallen because they spoke and acted against the LORD, defying His glorious presence.‡
- <sup>9</sup> The expression on their faces testifies against them, and like Sodom they flaunt their sin;
they do not conceal it.
Woe to them,
for they have brought disaster upon themselves.
- <sup>10</sup> Tell the righteous it will be well with them, for they will enjoy the fruit of their labor.
- <sup>11</sup> Woe to the wicked; disaster is upon them!
For they will be repaid with what their hands have done.
- <sup>12</sup> Youths oppress My people,
and women rule over them.
- O My people, your guides mislead you;
they turn you from your paths.
- <sup>13</sup> The LORD arises to contend;
He stands to judge the people.
- <sup>14</sup> The LORD brings this charge against the elders and leaders of His people:
"You have devoured the vineyard;
the plunder of the poor is in your houses.
- <sup>15</sup> Why do you crush My people and grind the faces of the poor?"

declares the Lord GOD of Hosts.

* 3:1 Hebrew staff † 3:7 Or binder of wounds ‡ 3:8 Hebrew defying the eyes of His glory

A Warning to the Daughters of Zion

<sup>16</sup> The LORD also says:

“Because the daughters of Zion are haughty—walking with heads held high and wanton eyes,
 prancing and skipping as they go,
 jingling the bracelets on their ankles—<sup>17</sup> the Lord will bring sores on the heads of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will make their foreheads bare. §”

<sup>18</sup> In that day the Lord will take away their finery:
 their anklets and headbands and crescents;
<sup>19</sup> their pendants, bracelets, and veils;
<sup>20</sup> their headdresses, ankle chains, and sashes;
 their perfume bottles and charms;
<sup>21</sup> their signet rings and nose rings;
<sup>22</sup> their festive robes, capes, cloaks, and purses;
<sup>23</sup> and their mirrors, linen garments, tiaras, and shawls.

 there will be a stench;
 instead of a belt, a rope;
 instead of styled hair, baldness;
 instead of fine clothing, sackcloth;
 instead of beauty, shame.*

<sup>25</sup> Your men will fall by the sword, and your warriors in battle.
<sup>26</sup> And the gates of Zion will lament and mourn; destitute, she will sit on the ground.

4A Remnant in Zion*

<sup>1</sup> In that day seven women will take hold of one man and say, “We will eat our own bread and provide our own clothes.
 Just let us be called by your name.
 Take away our disgrace!”

<sup>2</sup> On that day the Branch of the LORD will be beautiful and glorious,
 and the fruit of the land
 will be the pride and glory of Israel’s survivors.

<sup>3</sup> Whoever remains in Zion and whoever is left in Jerusalem will be called holy—all in Jerusalem who are recorded among the living—<sup>4</sup> when the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion and cleansed the bloodstains from the heart of Jerusalem by a spirit of judgment and a spirit of fire.

<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD will create over all of Mount Zion and over her assemblies
 a cloud of smoke by day

§ 3:17 Or will uncover their secret parts * 3:24 DSS; MT branding and a glowing flame of fire by night.

 For over all the glory
   there will be a canopy,

   from the heat by day,
 and a refuge and hiding place
   from the storm and the rain.

The Song of the Vineyard (Luke 13:6-9)

1 I will sing for my beloved a song of his vineyard:

My beloved had a vineyard
   on a very fertile hill.
 2 He dug it up and cleared the stones and planted the finest vines.
 He built a watchtower in the middle and dug out a winepress as well.

He waited for the vineyard to yield good grapes,
   but the fruit it produced was sour!

3 "And now, O dwellers of Jerusalem and men of Judah,
 I exhort you to judge
   between Me and My vineyard.
 4 What more could I have done for My vineyard than I already did for it?
 Why, when I expected sweet grapes,
   did it bring forth sour fruit?

5 Now I will tell you what I am about to do to My vineyard:

I will take away its hedge,
   and it will be consumed;
 I will tear down its wall,
   and it will be trampled.
 6 I will make it a wasteland, neither pruned nor cultivated,
   and thorns and briars will grow up.
 I will command the clouds that rain shall not fall on it."

7 For the vineyard of the LORD of Hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah
   are the plant of His delight.
 He looked for justice,
   but saw bloodshed;
 for righteousness,
   but heard a cry of distress.

Woes to the Wicked

8 Woe to you who add house to house and join field to field until no place is left and you live alone in the land.

9 I heard the LORD of Hosts declare:

“Surely many houses will become desolate, great mansions left unoccupied.

<sup>10</sup> For ten acres of vineyard will yield but a bath of wine,* and a homer of seed
only an ephah of grain.†”

<sup>11</sup> Woe to those who rise early in the morning in pursuit of strong drink, who linger into the evening,
to be inflamed by wine.

<sup>12</sup> At their feasts are the lyre and harp, tambourines and flutes and wine.
They disregard the actions of the LORD and fail to see the work of His hands.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore My people will go into exile for their lack of understanding;
their dignitaries are starving and their masses are parched with thirst.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore Sheol enlarges its throat and opens wide its enormous jaws, and down go Zion’s nobles and masses,
her revelers and carousers!

<sup>15</sup> So mankind will be brought low, and each man humbled;
the arrogant will lower their eyes.

<sup>16</sup> But the LORD of Hosts will be exalted by His justice, and the holy God will show Himself holy in righteousness.

<sup>17</sup> Lambs will graze as in their own pastures, and strangers ‡ will feed in the ruins of the wealthy.

<sup>18</sup> Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of deceit and pull sin along with cart ropes,

<sup>19</sup> to those who say, “Let Him hurry and hasten His work so that we may see it!

Let the plan of the Holy One of Israel come so that we may know it!”

<sup>20</sup> Woe to those who call evil good and good evil,

who turn darkness to light
and light to darkness, who replace bitter with sweet and sweet with bitter.

<sup>21</sup> Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes and clever in their own sight.

<sup>22</sup> Woe to those who are heroes in drinking wine and champions in mixing beer,

<sup>23</sup> who acquit the guilty for a bribe and deprive the innocent of justice.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore, as a tongue of fire consumes the straw, and as dry grass shrivels in the flame,
so their roots will decay
and their blossoms will blow away like dust;

* 5:10 Literally ten yoke of vineyard will yield a bath; that is, the area ten yoke of oxen can plow in a day will yield approximately 5.8 gallons or 22 liters of wine. † 5:10 Literally and a homer of seed will yield an ephah; that is, a homer of seed (approximately 6.24 bushels or 220 liters) will yield a tenth of its weight in grain. ‡ 5:17 LXX lambs for they have rejected the instruction of the LORD of Hosts and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>25</sup> Therefore the anger of the LORD burns against His people;
His hand is raised against them to strike them down.

The mountains quake,
and the corpses lay like refuse in the streets.

Despite all this, His anger is not turned away;
His hand is still upraised.

<sup>26</sup> He lifts a banner for the distant nations and whistles for those at the ends of the earth.
Behold—how speedily and swiftly they come!

<sup>27</sup> None of them grows weary or stumbles;
no one slumbers or sleeps.

No belt is loose
and no sandal strap is broken.

<sup>28</sup> Their arrows are sharpened,
and all their bows are strung.
The hooves of their horses are like flint;
their chariot wheels are like a whirlwind.

<sup>29</sup> Their roaring is like that of a lion;
they roar like young lions.

They growl and seize their prey;
they carry it away from deliverance.

<sup>30</sup> In that day they will roar over it, like the roaring of the sea.

If one looks over the land,
he will see darkness and distress;
even the light will be obscured by clouds.

Isaiah's Commission

(Matthew 13:10-17; Mark 4:10-12; Acts 28:16-31)

<sup>1</sup> In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a throne, high and exalted; and the train of His robe * filled the temple. <sup>2</sup> Above Him stood seraphim, each having six wings: With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they were flying. <sup>3</sup> And they were calling out to one another:

“Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of Hosts;
all the earth is full of His glory.”

<sup>4</sup> At the sound of their voices the doorposts and thresholds shook, and the temple was filled with smoke.

<sup>5</sup> Then I said:

“Woe is me,
for I am ruined,
because I am a man of unclean lips dwelling among a people of unclean lips;
for my eyes have seen the King,
the LORD of Hosts.”

<sup>6</sup> Then one of the seraphim flew to me, and in his hand was a glowing coal that he had taken with tongs from the altar. <sup>7</sup> And with it he touched my mouth and said:

“Now that this has touched your lips, your iniquity is removed

---

* 6:1 Or the hem of His robe and your sin is atoned for.”

<sup>8</sup> Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying:

“Whom shall I send?
Who will go for Us?”

And I said:

“Here am I. Send me!”

<sup>9</sup> And He replied:

“Go and tell this people,
‘Be ever hearing, but never understanding;
be ever seeing, but never perceiving.’†

<sup>10</sup> Make the hearts of this people calloused;
deafen their ears and close their eyes.

Otherwise they might see with their eyes,
hear with their ears,
understand with their hearts,
and turn and be healed.‡”

<sup>11</sup> Then I asked:

“How long, O Lord?”

And He replied:

“Until the cities lie ruined and without inhabitant, until the houses are left unoccupied and the land is desolate and ravaged, <sup>12</sup> until the LORD has driven men far away and the land is utterly forsaken.

<sup>13</sup> And though a tenth remains in the land,
it will be burned again.

As the terebinth and oak leave stumps when felled,
so the holy seed will be a stump in the land.”

A Message to Ahaz

<sup>1</sup> Now in the days that Ahaz son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, was king of Judah, Rezin king of Aram * marched up to wage war against Jerusalem. He was accompanied by Pekah son of Remaliah the king of Israel, but he could not overpower the city.

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD said to Isaiah, “Go out with your son Shear-jashub ‡ to meet Ahaz at the end of the aqueduct that feeds the upper pool, on the road to the Launderer’s Field, <sup>4</sup> and say to him: Calm down and be quiet. Do not be afraid or disheartened over these two smoldering stubs of firewood—over the fierce anger of Rezin and Aram and of the son of Remaliah. <sup>5</sup> For Aram, along with Ephraim and the son of Remaliah, has plotted

‘It will not arise;

it will not happen.

<sup>8</sup> For the head of Aram is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin.

Within sixty-five years

Ephraim will be shattered as a people.

<sup>9</sup> The head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is the son of Remaliah.

If you do not stand firm in your faith, then you will not stand at all.’ ”

The Sign of Immanuel

(Matthew 1:18-25)

<sup>10</sup> Again the LORD spoke to Ahaz, saying, <sup>11</sup> “Ask for a sign from the LORD your God, whether from the depths of Sheol or the heights of heaven.”

<sup>12</sup> But Ahaz replied, “I will not ask; I will not test the LORD.”

<sup>13</sup> Then Isaiah said, “Hear now, O house of David! Is it not enough to try the patience of men? Will you try the patience of my God as well? <sup>14</sup> Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign: Behold, the virgin * will be with child and will give birth to a son, and will call Him Immanuel.† <sup>15</sup> By the time He knows enough to reject evil and choose good, He will be eating curds and honey. <sup>16</sup> For before the boy knows enough to reject evil and choose good, the land of the two kings you dread will be laid waste.

Judgment to Come

(Micah 1:1-7)

<sup>17</sup> The LORD will bring on you and on your people and on the house of your father a time unlike any since the day Ephraim separated from Judah—He will bring the king of Assyria.”

<sup>18</sup> On that day the LORD will whistle to the flies at the farthest streams of the Nile and to the bees in the land of Assyria.

<sup>19</sup> And they will all come and settle in the steep ravines and clefts of the rocks, in all the thornbushes and watering holes.

<sup>20</sup> On that day the Lord will use a razor hired from beyond the Euphrates ‡—the king of Assyria—to shave your head and the hair of your legs, and to remove your beard as well. <sup>21</sup> On that day a man will raise a young cow and two sheep, <sup>22</sup> and from the abundance of milk they give, he will eat curds; for all who remain in the land will eat curds and honey.

<sup>23</sup> And on that day, in every place that had a thousand vines worth a thousand shekels of silver,§ only briers and thorns will be found. <sup>24</sup> Men will go there with bow and arrow, for the land will be covered with briers and thorns. <sup>25</sup> For fear of the briers and thorns, you will no longer traverse the hills once tilled by the hoe; they will become places for oxen to graze and sheep to trample.

<sup>3</sup> And I had relations with the prophetess, and she conceived and gave birth to a son. The LORD said to me, "Name him Maher-shalal-hash-baz. <sup>4</sup> For before the boy knows how to cry 'Father' or 'Mother,' the wealth of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria will be carried off by the king of Assyria."

<sup>5</sup> And the LORD spoke to me further:

the gently flowing waters of Shiloah and rejoiced in Rezin
and the son of Remaliah,

the mighty floodwaters of the Euphrates ‡—
the king of Assyria and all his pomp.

It will overflow its channels state a proposal, but it will not happen.

A Call to Fear God
(Ecclesiastes 8:10-13)

<sup>11</sup> For this is what the LORD has spoken to me with a strong hand, instructing me not to walk in the way of this people:

<sup>12</sup> "Do not call conspiracy everything these people regard as conspiracy.

Do not fear what they fear;‡
do not live in dread.§

<sup>13</sup> The LORD of Hosts is the One you shall regard as holy.

Only He should be feared;
only He should be dreaded.

<sup>14</sup> And He will be a sanctuary—but to both houses of Israel a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense,* to the dwellers of Jerusalem a trap and a snare.

they will fall and be broken;
they will be ensnared and captured."

I will put my trust in Him.†

<sup>18</sup> Here am I, and the children the LORD has given me ‡ as signs and symbols in Israel from the LORD of Hosts, who dwells on Mount Zion.

Darkness and Light

<sup>19</sup> When men tell you to consult the spirits of the dead and the spiritists who whisper and mutter, shouldn't a people consult their God instead? Why consult the dead on behalf of the living? <sup>20</sup> To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, they have no light of dawn.

<sup>21</sup> They will roam the land, dejected and hungry. When they are famished, they will become enraged; and looking upward, they will curse their king and their God. <sup>22</sup> Then they will look to the earth and see only distress and darkness and the gloom of anguish. And they will be driven into utter darkness.

9

Unto Us a Child Is Born

(Matthew 4:12-17; Mark 1:14-15; Luke 4:14-15)

<sup>1</sup> Nevertheless, there will be no more gloom for those in distress. In the past He humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the future He will honor the Way of the Sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations:

<sup>2</sup> The people walking in darkness
have seen a great light;
on those living in the land of the shadow of death,
a light has dawned.*

<sup>3</sup> You have enlarged the nation and increased its joy.
The people rejoice before You
as they rejoice at harvest time,
as men rejoice in dividing the plunder.

<sup>4</sup> For as in the day of Midian
You have shattered the yoke of their burden,
the bar across their shoulders,
and the rod of their oppressor.

<sup>5</sup> For every trampling boot of battle and every garment rolled in blood will be burned as fuel for the fire.

<sup>6</sup> For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given,
and the government will be upon His shoulders.

And He will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

<sup>7</sup> Of the increase of His government and peace
there will be no end.

He will reign on the throne of David and over his kingdom, to establish and sustain it with justice and righteousness from that time and forevermore.

The zeal of the LORD of Hosts will accomplish this.

Judgment against Israel's Pride

<sup>8</sup> The Lord has sent a message against Jacob, and it has fallen upon Israel.

<sup>9</sup> All the people will know it—
Ephraim † and the dwellers of Samaria.
With pride and arrogance of heart
they will say:

<sup>10</sup> "The bricks have fallen,
but we will rebuild with finished stone;
the sycamores have been felled,
but we will replace them with cedars."

<sup>11</sup> The LORD has raised up the foes of Rezin against him and joined his enemies together.

<sup>12</sup> Aram ‡ from the east and Philistia from the west have devoured Israel with open mouths.

Despite all this, His anger is not turned away;
His hand is still upraised.

Judgment against Israel's Hypocrisy

<sup>13</sup> But the people did not return to Him who struck them;
they did not seek the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>14</sup> So the LORD will cut off Israel's head and tail, both palm branch and reed in a single day.

<sup>15</sup> The head is the elder and honorable man, and the tail is the prophet who teaches lies.

<sup>16</sup> For those who guide this people mislead them, and those they mislead are swallowed up.

He has no compassion on their fatherless and widows.

For every one of them is godless and wicked,
and every mouth speaks folly.

Despite all this, His anger is not turned away;
His hand is still upraised.

Judgment against Israel's Unrepentance

<sup>18</sup> For wickedness burns like a fire that consumes the thorns and briars and kindles the forest thickets which roll upward in billows of smoke.

<sup>19</sup> By the wrath of the LORD of Hosts the land is scorched,
and the people are fuel for the fire.
No man even spares his brother.

<sup>20</sup> They carve out what is on the right,
but they are still hungry;
they eat what is on the left,
but they are still not satisfied.

Each one devours the flesh of his own offspring. §

<sup>21</sup> Manasseh devours Ephraim, and Ephraim Manasseh;
together they turn against Judah.

† 9:9 That is, the northern kingdom of Israel    ‡ 9:12 That is, Syria    § 9:20 Literally of his own arm

Despite all this, His anger is not turned away;
His hand is still upraised.

10

Woe to Tyrants

<sup>1</sup> Woe to those who enact unjust statutes and issue oppressive decrees, <sup>2</sup> to deprive the poor of fair treatment and withhold justice from the oppressed of My people, to make widows their prey
and orphans their plunder.

<sup>3</sup> What will you do on the day of reckoning when devastation comes from afar?

To whom will you flee for help?

Where will you leave your wealth?

<sup>4</sup> Nothing will remain but to crouch among the captives or fall among the slain.

Despite all this, His anger is not turned away;
His hand is still upraised.

Judgment on Assyria

<sup>5</sup> Woe to Assyria, the rod of My anger;
the staff in their hands is My wrath.

<sup>6</sup> I will send him against a godless nation;
I will dispatch him against a people destined for My rage,
to take spoils and seize plunder,
and to trample them down like clay in the streets.

<sup>7</sup> But this is not his intention;
this is not his plan.

For it is in his heart to destroy and cut off many nations.

<sup>8</sup> "Are not all my commanders kings?" he says.

Is not Hamath like Arpad?

Is not Samaria like Damascus?

<sup>10</sup> As my hand seized the idolatrous kingdoms whose images surpassed those of Jerusalem and Samaria,

<sup>11</sup> and as I have done to Samaria and its idols, will I not also do to Jerusalem and her idols?"

<sup>12</sup> So when the Lord has completed all His work against Mount Zion and Jerusalem, He will say, "I will punish the king of Assyria for the fruit of his arrogant heart and the proud look in his eyes. <sup>13</sup> For he says:

'By the strength of my hand I have done this,
and by my wisdom, for I am clever.

I have removed the boundaries of nations and plundered their treasures;

like a mighty one I subdued their rulers.

<sup>14</sup> My hand reached as into a nest to seize the wealth of the nations.

Like one gathering abandoned eggs,

I gathered all the earth.

No wing fluttered,
no beak opened or chirped.' "

<sup>15</sup> Does an axe raise itself above the one who swings it?

Does a saw boast over him who saws with it?
It would be like a rod waving the one who lifts it,
or a staff lifting him who is not wood!

16 Therefore the Lord GOD of Hosts will send a wasting disease among Assyria's stout warriors, and under his pomp will be kindled a fire like a burning flame.

17 And the Light of Israel will become a fire, and its Holy One a flame.

In a single day it will burn and devour
Assyria's thorns and thistles.

18 The splendor of its forests and orchards,
both soul and body,

it will completely destroy,
as a sickness consumes a man.

19 The remaining trees of its forests will be so few that a child could count them.

A Remnant Shall Return

20 On that day the remnant of Israel and the survivors of the house of Jacob will no longer depend on him who struck them,

but they will truly rely on the LORD,
the Holy One of Israel.

21 A remnant will return *—a remnant of Jacob—to the Mighty God.

22 Though your people, O Israel, be like the sand of the sea, only a remnant will return.†

Destruction has been decreed, overflowing with righteousness.

23 For the Lord GOD of Hosts will carry out the destruction decreed upon the whole land.‡

24 Therefore this is what the Lord GOD of Hosts says:

“O My people who dwell in Zion,
do not fear Assyria,
who strikes you with a rod and lifts his staff against you as the Egyptians did.

25 For in just a little while My fury against you will subside, and My anger will turn to their destruction.”

26 And the LORD of Hosts will brandish a whip against them, as when He struck Midian at the rock of Oreb.

He will raise His staff over the sea,
as He did in Egypt.

27 On that day the burden will be lifted from your shoulders, and the yoke from your neck.

The yoke will be broken because your neck will be too large.§

- He will not judge by what His eyes see,
and He will not decide by what His ears hear,
- 4 but with righteousness He will judge the poor, and with equity He will decide for the lowly of the earth.
He will strike the earth with the rod of His mouth and slay the wicked with the breath of His lips.
- 5 Righteousness will be the belt around His hips, and faithfulness the sash around His waist.
- 6 The wolf will live with the lamb,
and the leopard will lie down with the goat;
the calf and young lion and fatling will be together,*
and a little child will lead them.
- 7 The cow will graze with the bear,
their young will lie down together,
and the lion will eat straw like the ox.
- 8 The infant will play by the cobra's den,
and the toddler will reach into the viper's nest.
- 9 They will neither harm nor destroy
on all My holy mountain, for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the LORD
as the sea is full of water.

* 11:6 Hebrew; LXX the young calf and bull and lion will feed together

<sup>10</sup> On that day the Root of Jesse will stand as a banner for the peoples. The nations will seek Him,† and His place of rest will be glorious. <sup>11</sup> On that day the Lord will extend His hand a second time to recover the remnant of His people from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush,‡ from Elam, from Shinar,§ from Hamath, and from the islands * of the sea.

<sup>12</sup> He will raise a banner for the nations and gather the exiles of Israel;
He will collect the scattered of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

<sup>13</sup> Then the jealousy of Ephraim † will depart, and the adversaries ‡ of Judah will be cut off.
Ephraim will no longer envy Judah, nor will Judah harass Ephraim.

<sup>14</sup> They will swoop down on the slopes of the Philistines to the west;
together they will plunder the sons of the east.
They will lay their hands on Edom and Moab,
and the Ammonites will be subject to them.

<sup>15</sup> The LORD will devote to destruction §
the gulf * of the Sea of Egypt;
with a scorching wind He will sweep His hand over the Euphrates.†
He will split it into seven streams for men to cross with dry sandals.

<sup>16</sup> There will be a highway for the remnant of His people who remain from Assyria, as there was for Israel
when they came up from the land of Egypt.

Joyful Thanksgiving

<sup>1</sup> In that day you will say:

“O LORD, I will praise You.
Although You were angry with me,
Your anger has turned away,
and You have comforted me.

<sup>2</sup> Surely God is my salvation;
I will trust and not be afraid.
For the LORD GOD is my strength and my song,
and He also has become my salvation.”

<sup>3</sup> With joy you will draw water from the springs of salvation, <sup>4</sup> and on that day you will say:

“Give praise to the LORD;
proclaim His name!
Make His works known among the peoples;
declare that His name is exalted.
<sup>5</sup> Sing to the LORD, for He has done glorious things.
Let this be known in all the earth.
<sup>6</sup> Cry out and sing, O citizen of Zion,
for great among you is the Holy One of Israel.”

The Burden against Babylon

1 This is the burden against Babylon that Isaiah son of Amoz received:

2 Raise a banner on a barren hilltop;
call aloud to them.

Wave your hand,
that they may enter the gates of the nobles.

3 I have commanded My sanctified ones;
I have even summoned My warriors to execute My wrath
and exult in My triumph.

4 Listen, a tumult on the mountains, like that of a great multitude!
Listen, an uproar among the kingdoms,
like nations gathered together!
The LORD of Hosts is mobilizing an army for war.

5 They are coming from faraway lands, from the ends of the heavens—
the LORD and the weapons of His wrath—to destroy the whole country.

6 Wail, for the Day of the LORD is near;
it will come as destruction from the Almighty.*

7 Therefore all hands will fall limp, and every man's heart will melt.

8 Terror, pain, and anguish will seize them;
they will writhe like a woman in labor.
They will look at one another,
their faces flushed with fear.

9 Behold, the Day of the LORD is coming—cruel, with fury and burning anger—to make the earth a desolation and to destroy the sinners within it.

10 For the stars of heaven and their constellations will not give their light.

The rising sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not give its light.

11 I will punish the world for its evil and the wicked for their iniquity.
I will end the haughtiness of the arrogant and lay low the pride of the ruthless.

12 I will make man scarcer than pure gold,
and mankind rarer than the gold of Ophir.

13 Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken from its place at the wrath of the LORD of Hosts on the day of His burning anger.

14 Like a hunted gazelle,
like a sheep without a shepherd,
each will return to his own people,
each will flee to his native land.

15 Whoever is caught will be stabbed, and whoever is captured will die by the sword.

16 Their infants will be dashed to pieces

* 13:6 Hebrew Shaddai

before their eyes,
 their houses will be looted,
 and their wives will be ravished.
<sup>17</sup> Behold, I will stir up against them the Medes, who have no regard for silver and no desire for gold.
<sup>18</sup> Their bows will dash young men to pieces;
 they will have no mercy on the fruit of the womb;
 they will not look with pity on the children.
<sup>19</sup> And Babylon, the jewel of the kingdoms, the glory of the pride of the Chaldeans, will be overthrown by God
 like Sodom and Gomorrah.
<sup>20</sup> She will never be inhabited or settled from generation to generation;
 no nomad will pitch his tent there,
 no shepherd will rest his flock there.
<sup>21</sup> But desert creatures will lie down there,
 and howling creatures will fill her houses.
 Ostriches † will dwell there,
 and wild goats will leap about.
<sup>22</sup> Hyenas will howl in her fortresses and jackals ‡ in her luxurious palaces.
 Babylon's time is at hand,
 and her days will not be prolonged.

14

Restoration for Israel

<sup>1</sup> For the LORD will have compassion on Jacob; once again He will choose Israel and settle them in their own land. The foreigner will join them and unite with the house of Jacob. <sup>2</sup> The nations will escort Israel and bring it to its homeland.

Then the house of Israel will possess the nations as menservants and maidservants in the LORD's land. They will make captives of their captors and rule over their oppressors.

The Fall of the King of Babylon

<sup>3</sup> On the day that the LORD gives you rest from your pain and torment, and from the hard labor into which you were forced, <sup>4</sup> you will sing this song of contempt against the king of Babylon:

How the oppressor has ceased,
 and how his fury * has ended!
<sup>5</sup> The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of the rulers.
<sup>6</sup> It struck the peoples in anger with unceasing blows;
 it subdued the nations in rage with relentless persecution.
<sup>7</sup> All the earth is at peace and at rest;
 they break out in song.
<sup>8</sup> Even the cypresses † and cedars of Lebanon exult over you:
 "Since you have been laid low,
 no woodcutter comes against us."

† 13:21 Literally Daughters of an ostrich or Daughters of an owl ‡ 13:22 Or serpents or dragons * 14:4 DSS, LXX, and Syriac; MT the golden city † 14:8 Or pines or junipers or firs to meet you upon your arrival.

 It stirs the spirits of the dead to greet you—
 all the rulers of the earth.
 It makes all the kings of the nations rise from their thrones.
 10 They will all respond to you, saying,
 “You too have become weak, as we are;
 you have become like us!”
 11 Your pomp has been brought down to Sheol, along with the music of your harps.
 Maggots are your bed
 and worms your blanket.
 12 How you have fallen from heaven,
 O day star,‡ son of the dawn!
 You have been cut down to the ground,
 O destroyer of nations.
 13 You said in your heart:
 “I will ascend to the heavens;
 I will raise my throne
 above the stars of God.
 I will sit on the mount of assembly,
 in the far reaches of the north.§ 14 I will ascend above the tops of the clouds;
 I will make myself like the Most High.”
 15 But you will be brought down to Sheol, to the lowest depths of the Pit.
 16 Those who see you will stare;
 they will ponder your fate:
 “Is this the man who shook the earth and made the kingdoms tremble, 17 who turned the world into a desert and destroyed its cities, who refused to let the captives return to their homes?”
 18 All the kings of the nations lie in state, each in his own tomb.*
 19 But you are cast out of your grave like a rejected branch, covered by those slain with the sword,
 and dumped into a rocky pit
 like a carcass trampled underfoot.
 20 You will not join them in burial, since you have destroyed your land and slaughtered your own people.
 The offspring of the wicked will never again be mentioned.
 21 Prepare a place to slaughter his sons for the iniquities of their forefathers.
 They will never rise up to possess a land or cover the earth with their cities.
 22 “I will rise up against them,”
 declares the LORD of Hosts.
 “I will cut off from Babylon her name and her remnant,
 her offspring and her posterity,”

declares the LORD.

‡ 14:12 Or morning star or shining one or Lucifer of Zaphon * 14:18 Hebrew house

§ 14:13 Or in the remote parts of Zaphon or on the heights

23 "I will make her a place for owls and for swamplands;
I will sweep her away with the broom of destruction,"
declares the LORD of Hosts.

God's Purpose against Assyria

24 The LORD of Hosts has sworn:

"Surely, as I have planned, so will it be;
as I have purposed, so will it stand.
25 I will break Assyria in My land;
I will trample him on My mountain.
His yoke will be taken off My people,
and his burden removed from their shoulders."

26 This is the plan devised for the whole earth, and this is the hand stretched out over all the nations.

27 The LORD of Hosts has purposed, and who can thwart Him?

His hand is outstretched,
so who can turn it back?

Philistia Will Be Destroyed

28 In the year that King Ahaz died, this burden was received:

29 Do not rejoice, all you Philistines, that the rod that struck you is broken.
For a viper will spring from the root of the snake,
and a flying serpent from its egg.
30 Then the firstborn of the poor will find pasture,
and the needy will lie down in safety,
but I will kill your root by famine,
and your remnant will be slain.

31 Wail, O gate! Cry out, O city!
Melt away, all you Philistines!
For a cloud of smoke comes from the north,
and there are no stragglers in its ranks.

32 What answer will be given to the envoys of that nation?
"The LORD has founded Zion, where His afflicted people will find refuge."

*The Burden against Moab
(Jeremiah 48:1-47)*

<sup>1</sup> This is the burden against Moab:

Ar in Moab is ruined,
destroyed in a night!
Kir in Moab is devastated,
destroyed in a night!

<sup>2</sup> Dibon goes up to its temple to weep at its high places.
Moab wails over Nebo,
as well as over Medeba.

Every head is shaved,
every beard is cut off.

- <sup>3</sup> In its streets they wear sackcloth;
on the rooftops and in the public squares they all wail, falling down weeping.
- <sup>4</sup> Heshbon and Elealeh cry out;
their voices are heard as far as Jahaz.
Therefore the soldiers of Moab cry out;
their souls tremble within.
- <sup>5</sup> My heart cries out over Moab;
her fugitives flee as far as Zoar,
as far as Eglath-shelishiyah.*
With weeping they ascend the slope of Luhith;
they lament their destruction on the road to Horonaim.
- <sup>6</sup> The waters of Nimrim are dried up,
and the grass is withered;
the vegetation is gone,
and the greenery is no more.
- <sup>7</sup> So they carry their wealth and belongings over the Brook of the Willows.†
- <sup>8</sup> For their outcry echoes to the border of Moab.
Their wailing reaches Eglaim;
it is heard in Beer-elim.
- <sup>9</sup> The waters of Dimon ‡ are full of blood, but I will bring more upon Dimon—a lion upon the fugitives of Moab and upon the remnant of the land.

16

Moab's Destruction (Zephaniah 2:8–11)

- <sup>1</sup> Send the tribute lambs to the ruler of the land, from Sela in the desert
to the mount of Daughter Zion.
- <sup>2</sup> Like fluttering birds pushed out of the nest, so are the daughters of Moab
at the fords of the Arnon:
- <sup>3</sup> "Give us counsel;
render a decision.
Shelter us at noonday
with shade as dark as night.
Hide the refugees;
do not betray the one who flees.
- <sup>4</sup> Let my fugitives stay with you;
be a refuge for Moab from the destroyer."

When the oppressor has gone, destruction has ceased, and the oppressors have vanished from the land,

- <sup>5</sup> in loving devotion * a throne will be established in the tent of David.
A judge seeking justice and hastening righteousness will sit on it in faithfulness.

* 15:5 Or Zoar, like a heifer three years of age. † 15:7 Or Poplars ‡ 15:9 MT, twice in this verse; DSS and Vulgate Dibon; Dimon, a wordplay on Dibon (see verse 2), sounds like the Hebrew for blood. * 16:5 Forms of the Hebrew chesed are translated here and in most cases throughout the Scriptures as loving devotion; the range of meaning includes love, goodness, kindness, faithfulness, and mercy, as well as loyalty to a covenant.

6 We have heard of Moab's pomposity,
 his exceeding pride and conceit,
 his overflowing arrogance.
 But his boasting is empty.
 7 Therefore let Moab wail;
 let them wail together for Moab.
 Moan for the raisin cakes of Kir-hareseth,
 you who are utterly stricken.
 8 For the fields of Heshbon have withered, along with the grapevines of Sibmah.
 The rulers of the nations have trampled its choicest vines, which had reached as far as Jazer and spread toward the desert.
 Their shoots had spread out and passed over the sea.†

9 So I weep with Jazer
 for the vines of Sibmah;
 I drench Heshbon and Elealeh with my tears.
 Triumphant shouts have fallen silent over your summer fruit and your harvest.
 10 Joy and gladness are removed from the orchard;
 no one sings or shouts in the vineyards.
 No one tramples the grapes in the winepresses;
 I have put an end to the cheering.
 11 Therefore my heart laments for Moab like a harp, my inmost being for Kir-heres.‡ 12 When Moab appears on the high place, when he wearies himself and enters his sanctuary to pray,
 it will do him no good.

13 This is the message that the LORD spoke earlier concerning Moab. 14 And now the LORD says, "In three years, as a hired worker counts the years, Moab's splendor will become an object of contempt, with all her many people. And those who are left will be few and feeble."

17

The Burden against Damascus (Jeremiah 49:23-27)

1 This is the burden against Damascus:

"Behold, Damascus is no longer a city;
 it has become a heap of ruins.
 2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken;
 they will be left to the flocks, which will lie down with no one to fear.
 3 The fortress will disappear from Ephraim,* and the sovereignty from Damascus.
 The remnant of Aram will be like the splendor of the Israelites,"

declares the LORD of Hosts.

4 "In that day the splendor of Jacob will fade,
 and the fat of his body will waste away,
 5 as the reaper gathers the standing grain
 and harvests the ears with his arm,

† 16:8 Or and had gone as far as the sea; that is, probably the Dead Sea ‡ 16:11 Kir-heres is a variant of Kir-hareseth; see verse 7. * 17:3 Or The fortified city will disappear from Ephraim, that is, from the northern kingdom of Israel

as one glean heads of grain in the Valley of Rephaim.
 6 Yet gleanings will remain, like an olive tree that has been beaten—
 two or three berries atop the tree, four or five on its fruitful branches," declares the LORD, the God of Israel.

7 In that day men will look to their Maker and turn their eyes to the Holy One of Israel.

8 They will not look to the altars they have fashioned with their hands or to the Asherahs and incense altars
 they have made with their fingers.

9 In that day their strong cities will be like forsaken thickets and summits, abandoned to the Israelites and to utter desolation.

10 For you have forgotten the God of your salvation and failed to remember the Rock of your refuge.

Therefore, though you cultivate delightful plots and set out cuttings from exotic vines—

11 though on the day you plant
 you make them grow,
 and on that morning
 you help your seed sprout—
 yet the harvest will vanish on the day of disease and incurable pain.

12 Alas, the tumult of many peoples;
 they rage like the roaring seas and clamoring nations;
 they rumble like the crashing of mighty waters.

13 The nations rage like the rush of many waters.
 He rebukes them, and they flee far away, driven before the wind like chaff on the hills,
 like tumbleweeds before a gale.

14 In the evening, there is sudden terror!
 Before morning, they are no more!
 This is the portion of those who loot us and the lot of those who plunder us.

18

A Message to Cush

1 Woe to the land of whirring wings,* along the rivers of Cush,†

2 which sends couriers by sea,
 in papyrus vessels on the waters.

Go, swift messengers,
 to a people tall and smooth-skinned,
 to a people widely feared,
 to a powerful nation of strange speech,
 whose land is divided by rivers.

3 All you people of the world and dwellers of the earth,
 when a banner is raised on the mountains,
 you will see it;
 when a ram's horn sounds,

* 18:1 Or of many locusts † 18:1 That is, the upper Nile region you will hear it.

<sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD has told me:

“I will quietly look on from My dwelling place, like shimmering heat in the sunshine,
like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.”

<sup>5</sup> For before the harvest, when the blossom is gone and the flower becomes a ripening grape,
He will cut off the shoots with a pruning knife and remove and discard the branches.

<sup>6</sup> They will all be left to the mountain birds of prey,
and to the beasts of the land.

The birds will feed on them in summer,
and all the wild animals in winter.

<sup>7</sup> At that time gifts will be brought to the LORD of Hosts—from a people tall and smooth-skinned, from a people widely feared,
from a powerful nation of strange speech,
whose land is divided by rivers—

to Mount Zion, the place of the Name of the LORD of Hosts.

19

The Burden against Egypt

<sup>1</sup> This is the burden against Egypt:

Behold, the LORD rides on a swift cloud;

He is coming to Egypt.

The idols of Egypt will tremble before Him,
and the hearts of the Egyptians will melt within them.

<sup>2</sup> “So I will incite Egyptian against Egyptian;
brother will fight against brother, neighbor against neighbor, city against city, and kingdom against kingdom.

<sup>3</sup> Then the spirit of the Egyptians will be emptied out from among them, and I will frustrate their plans,
so that they will resort to idols and spirits of the dead,
to mediums and spiritists.

<sup>4</sup> I will deliver the Egyptians into the hands of harsh masters, and a fierce king will rule over them,”

declares the Lord GOD of Hosts.

<sup>5</sup> The waters of the Nile will dry up, and the riverbed will be parched and empty.

<sup>6</sup> The canals will stink;
the streams of Egypt will trickle and dry up;
the reeds and rushes will wither.

<sup>7</sup> The bulrushes by the Nile,
by the mouth of the river,
and all the fields sown along the Nile,
will wither, blow away, and be no more.

<sup>8</sup> Then the fishermen will mourn,
all who cast a hook into the Nile will lament,
and those who spread nets on the waters will pine away.

<sup>9</sup> The workers in flax will be dismayed, and the weavers of fine linen will turn pale.

<sup>10</sup> The workers in cloth * will be dejected,

---

* 19:10 Or Its pillars and all the hired workers will be sick at heart.

- 11 The princes of Zoan are mere fools;
Pharaoh's wise counselors give senseless advice.
How can you say to Pharaoh,
"I am one of the wise,
a son of eastern kings"?
- 12 Where are your wise men now?
Let them tell you and reveal what the LORD of Hosts has planned against Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan have become fools;
the princes of Memphis † are deceived.

The cornerstones of her tribes have led Egypt astray.

14 The LORD has poured into her a spirit of confusion.

Egypt has been led astray in all she does,
as a drunkard staggers through his own vomit.

15 There is nothing Egypt can do—head or tail, palm or reed.

A Blessing upon the Earth

16 In that day the Egyptians will be like women. They will tremble with fear beneath the uplifted hand of the LORD of Hosts, when He brandishes it against them. 17 The land of Judah will bring terror to Egypt; whenever Judah is mentioned, Egypt will tremble over what the LORD of Hosts has planned against it.

18 In that day five cities in the land of Egypt will speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to the LORD of Hosts. One of them will be called the City of the Sun.‡

19 In that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the center of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the LORD near her border. 20 It will be a sign and a witness to the LORD of Hosts in the land of Egypt. When they cry out to the LORD because of their oppressors, He will send them a savior and defender to rescue them. 21 The LORD will make Himself known to Egypt, and on that day Egypt will acknowledge the LORD. They will worship with sacrifices and offerings; they will make vows to the LORD and fulfill them.

22 And the LORD will strike Egypt with a plague; He will strike them but heal them. They will turn to the LORD, and He will hear their prayers and heal them.

23 In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria. The Assyrians will go to Egypt, and the Egyptians to Assyria. The Egyptians and Assyrians will worship together.

24 In that day Israel will join a three-party alliance with Egypt and Assyria—a blessing upon the earth. 25 The LORD of Hosts will bless them, saying, "Blessed be Egypt My people, Assyria My handiwork, and Israel My inheritance."

20

A Sign against Egypt and Cush

1 Before the year that the chief commander, sent by Sargon king of Assyria, came to Ashdod and attacked and captured it, 2 the LORD had already spoken through Isaiah son of Amoz, saying, "Go, remove the sackcloth from your waist and the sandals from your feet."

And Isaiah did so, walking around naked and barefoot.

† 19:13 LXX; Hebrew Noph ‡ 19:18 Some MT manuscripts, DSS, and Vulgate; most MT manuscripts City of Destruction

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD said, “Just as My servant Isaiah has gone naked and barefoot for three years as a sign and omen against Egypt and Cush,* <sup>4</sup> so the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Cush, young and old alike, naked and barefoot, with bared buttocks—to Egypt’s shame.

<sup>5</sup> Those who made Cush their hope and Egypt their boast will be dismayed and ashamed.

<sup>6</sup> And on that day the dwellers of this coastland will say, ‘See what has happened to our source of hope, those to whom we fled for help and deliverance from the king of Assyria! How then can we escape?’ ”

21

Babylon Is Fallen (Revelation 18:1-8)

Like whirlwinds sweeping through the Negev, an invader comes from the desert,
from a land of terror.

<sup>2</sup> A dire vision is declared to me:

“The traitor still betrays, and the destroyer still destroys.

Go up, O Elam! Lay siege, O Media!
I will put an end to all her groaning.”

<sup>3</sup> Therefore my body is filled with anguish.

Pain grips me, like the pains of a woman in labor.

I am bewildered to hear,
I am dismayed to see.

<sup>4</sup> My heart falters;
fear makes me tremble.

The twilight of my desire has turned to horror.

<sup>5</sup> They prepare a table, they lay out a carpet, they eat, they drink!

Rise up, O princes, oil the shields!

<sup>6</sup> For this is what the Lord says to me:

“Go, post a lookout
and have him report what he sees.

<sup>7</sup> When he sees chariots with teams of horsemen, riders on donkeys, riders on camels,
he must be alert, fully alert.”

<sup>8</sup> Then the lookout * shouted:

“Day after day, my lord,
I stand on the watchtower;
night after night
I stay at my post.

<sup>9</sup> Look, here come the riders, horsemen in pairs.”

And one answered, saying:

“Fallen, fallen is Babylon!†
All the images of her gods lie shattered on the ground!”

Revelation 14:8 and Revelation 18:2.

<sup>10</sup> O my people, crushed on the threshing floor,
I tell you what I have heard from the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel.

The Burden against Edom
(Isaiah 34:5-17)

<sup>11</sup> This is the burden against Dumah:‡

One calls to me from Seir,§ “Watchman, what is left of the night?

“Morning has come, but also the night.
If you would inquire, then inquire.
Come back yet again.”

The Burden against Arabia

<sup>13</sup> This is the burden against Arabia:

In the thickets of Arabia you must lodge,
O caravans of Dedanites.

<sup>14</sup> Bring water for the thirsty,
O dwellers of Tema;
meet the refugees with food.

<sup>15</sup> For they flee from the sword—the sword that is drawn—from the bow that is bent, and from the stress of battle.

<sup>16</sup> For this is what the Lord says to me: “Within one year, as a hired worker would count it, all the glory of Kedar will be gone. <sup>17</sup> The remaining archers, the warriors of Kedar, will be few.”

For the LORD, the God of Israel, has spoken.

22

The Valley of Vision

<sup>1</sup> This is the burden against the Valley of Vision:

What ails you now,
that you have all gone up to the rooftops,

<sup>2</sup> O city of commotion,
O town of revelry?

Your slain did not die by the sword,
nor were they killed in battle.

<sup>3</sup> All your rulers have fled together, captured without a bow.
All your fugitives were captured together,
having fled to a distant place.

<sup>4</sup> Therefore I said,
“Turn away from me, let me weep bitterly!
Do not try to console me
over the destruction of the daughter of my people.”

‡ 21:11 Dumah is a wordplay on Edom, meaning silence. § 21:11 Seir is another name for Edom.

of tumult and trampling and confusion in the Valley of Vision—of breaking down the walls and crying to the mountains.

<sup>6</sup> Elam takes up a quiver, with chariots and horsemen, and Kir uncovers the shield.

<sup>7</sup> Your choicest valleys are full of chariots, and horsemen are posted at the gates.

<sup>8</sup> He has uncovered
the defenses of Judah.

On that day you looked to the weapons in the House of the Forest. <sup>9</sup> You saw that there were many breaches in the walls of the City of David. You collected water from the lower pool. <sup>10</sup> You counted the houses of Jerusalem and tore them down to strengthen the wall. <sup>11</sup> You built a reservoir between the walls for the waters of the ancient pool, but you did not look to the One who made it, or consider Him who planned it long ago.

<sup>12</sup> On that day the Lord GOD of Hosts called for weeping and wailing, for shaven heads
and the wearing of sackcloth.

<sup>13</sup> But look, there is joy and gladness, butchering of cattle and slaughtering of sheep,
eating of meat and drinking of wine:

“Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!”*

<sup>14</sup> The LORD of Hosts has revealed in my hearing:

“Until your dying day, this sin of yours will never be atoned for,”

says the Lord GOD of Hosts.

A Message for Shebna

<sup>15</sup> This is what the Lord GOD of Hosts says: “Go, say to Shebna, the steward in charge of the palace: <sup>16</sup> What are you doing here, and who authorized you to carve out a tomb for yourself here—to chisel your tomb in the height and cut your resting place in the rock?

<sup>17</sup> Look, O mighty man! The LORD is about to shake you violently. He will take hold of you, <sup>18</sup> roll you into a ball, and sling you into a wide land. There you will die, and there your glorious chariots will remain—a disgrace to the house of your master. <sup>19</sup> I will remove you from office, and you will be ousted from your position.

<sup>20</sup> On that day I will summon My servant, Eliakim son of Hilkiah. <sup>21</sup> I will clothe him with your robe and tie your sash around him. I will put your authority in his hand, and he will be a father to the dwellers of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. <sup>22</sup> I will place on his shoulder the key to the house of David. What he opens no one can shut, and what he shuts no one can open.† <sup>23</sup> I will drive him like a peg into a firm place, and he will be a throne of glory for the house of his father.

<sup>24</sup> So they will hang on him the whole burden of his father’s house: the descendants and the offshoots—all the lesser vessels, from bowls to every kind of jar.

<sup>25</sup> In that day, declares the LORD of Hosts, the peg driven into a firm place will give way; it will be sheared off and fall, and the load upon it will be cut down.”

Indeed, the LORD has spoken.

The Burden against Tyre (Ezekiel 26:1–21)

* 22:13 Cited in 1 Corinthians 15:32 † 22:22 See Revelation 3:7.

1 This is the burden against Tyre:

Wail, O ships of Tarshish,*
for Tyre is laid waste, without house or harbor.

Word has reached them
from the land of Cyprus.†

2 Be silent, O dwellers of the coastland, you merchants of Sidon,
whose traders have crossed the sea.‡

3 On the great waters came the grain of Shihor;
the harvest of the Nile was the revenue of Tyre;
she was the merchant of the nations.

4 Be ashamed, O Sidon, the stronghold of the sea,
for the sea has spoken:
“I have not been in labor or given birth.

I have not raised young men or brought up young women.”

5 When the report reaches Egypt, they will writhe in agony over the news of Tyre.

6 Cross over to Tarshish;
wail, O inhabitants of the coastland!

7 Is this your jubilant city, whose origin is from antiquity, whose feet have taken her
to settle far away?

8 Who planned this against Tyre,
the bestower of crowns,
whose traders are princes,
whose merchants are renowned on the earth?

9 The LORD of Hosts planned it, to defile all its glorious beauty,
to disgrace all the renowned of the earth.

10 Cultivate § your land like the Nile, O Daughter of Tarshish;
there is no longer a harbor.

11 The LORD has stretched out His hand over the sea;
He has made kingdoms tremble.

He has given a command that the strongholds of Canaan be destroyed.

12 He said, “You shall rejoice no more,
O oppressed Virgin Daughter of Sidon.

Get up and cross over to Cyprus—
even there you will find no rest.”

13 Look at the land of the Chaldeans* — a people now of no account.

The Assyrians destined it for the desert creatures;
they set up their siege towers and stripped its palaces.
They brought it to ruin.

14 Wail, O ships of Tarshish,
for your harbor has been destroyed!

* 23:1 Or Wail, O fleet of trading ships; also in verse 14 † 23:1 Hebrew Kittim; also in verse 12 ‡ 23:2 DSS and LXX; MT whom the seafarers have enriched § 23:10 DSS and some LXX manuscripts; MT Overflow * 23:13 That is, the Babylonians

<sup>15</sup> At that time Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years—the span of a king's life. But at the end of seventy years, it will happen to Tyre as in the song of the harlot:

<sup>16</sup> “Take up your harp,
 stroll through the city,
 O forgotten harlot.
 Make sweet melody,
 sing many a song,
 so you will be remembered.”

<sup>17</sup> And at the end of seventy years, the LORD will restore Tyre. Then she will return to hire as a prostitute and sell herself to all the kingdoms on the face of the earth. <sup>18</sup> Yet her profits and wages will be set apart to the LORD; they will not be stored or saved, for her profit will go to those who live before the LORD, for abundant food and fine clothing.

24

God's Judgment on the Earth

<sup>1</sup> Behold, the LORD lays waste the earth and leaves it in ruins.
 He will twist its surface and scatter its inhabitants—<sup>2</sup> people and priest alike, servant and master, maid and mistress, buyer and seller,
 lender and borrower, creditor and debtor.
<sup>3</sup> The earth will be utterly laid waste and thoroughly plundered.

For the LORD has spoken this word.

<sup>4</sup> The earth mourns and withers;
 the world languishes and fades;
 the exalted of the earth waste away.
<sup>5</sup> The earth is defiled by its people;
 they have transgressed the laws;
 they have overstepped the decrees and broken the everlasting covenant.
<sup>6</sup> Therefore a curse has consumed the earth, and its inhabitants must bear the guilt;
 the earth's dwellers have been burned,
 and only a few survive.
<sup>7</sup> The new wine dries up, the vine withers.
 All the merrymakers now groan.
<sup>8</sup> The joyful tambourines have ceased;
 the noise of revelers has stopped;
 the joyful harp is silent.
<sup>9</sup> They no longer sing and drink wine;
 strong drink is bitter to those who consume it.
<sup>10</sup> The city of chaos is shattered;
 every house is closed to entry.
<sup>11</sup> In the streets they cry out for wine.
 All joy turns to gloom;
 rejoicing is exiled from the land.
<sup>12</sup> The city is left in ruins;
 its gate is reduced to rubble.
<sup>13</sup> So will it be on the earth and among the nations,
 like a harvested olive tree,
 like a gleaner after a grape harvest.
<sup>14</sup> They raise their voices, they shout for joy;

- from the west * they proclaim the majesty of the LORD.
 15 Therefore glorify the LORD in the east.
 Extol the name of the LORD, the God of Israel in the islands † of the sea.
 16 From the ends of the earth we hear singing:
 "Glory to the Righteous One."

But I said, "I am wasting away! I am wasting away!
 Woe is me."

- The treacherous betray;
 the treacherous deal in treachery.
 17 Terror and pit and snare await you,
 O dweller of the earth.
 18 Whoever flees the sound of panic will fall into the pit,
 and whoever climbs from the pit
 will be caught in the snare.

For the windows of heaven are open,
 and the foundations of the earth are shaken.

- 19 The earth is utterly broken apart,
 the earth is split open,
 the earth is shaken violently.
 20 The earth staggers like a drunkard and sways like a shack.
 Earth's rebellion weighs it down,
 and it falls, never to rise again.

- 21 In that day the LORD will punish the host of heaven above and the kings of the earth below.
 22 They will be gathered together like prisoners in a pit.
 They will be confined to a dungeon and punished after many days.
 23 The moon will be confounded and the sun will be ashamed;
 for the LORD of Hosts will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and before His elders with great glory.

25

Praise to the Victorious God
(Jeremiah 51:15-19)

- 1 O LORD, You are my God!
 I will exalt You;
 I will praise Your name.
 For You have worked wonders—plans formed long ago—
 in perfect faithfulness.
 2 Indeed, You have made the city a heap of rubble,
 the fortified town a ruin.
 The fortress of strangers is a city no more;
 it will never be rebuilt.
 3 Therefore, a strong people will honor You.
 The cities of ruthless nations will revere You.
 4 For You have been a refuge for the poor,

* 24:14 Or from the sea † 24:15 Or coastlands

a stronghold for the needy in distress,
 a refuge from the storm,
 a shade from the heat.
 For the breath of the ruthless is like rain against a wall, <sup>5</sup> like heat in a dry land.
 You subdue the uproar of foreigners.
 As the shade of a cloud cools the heat,
 so the song of the ruthless is silenced.

<sup>6</sup> On this mountain the LORD of Hosts will prepare a banquet for all the peoples, a feast of aged wine, of choice meat,
 of finely aged wine.

<sup>7</sup> On this mountain He will swallow up the shroud that enfolds all peoples,
 the sheet that covers all nations;

<sup>8</sup> He will swallow up death forever.*
 The Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from every face † and remove the disgrace of His people from the whole earth.

For the LORD has spoken.

<sup>9</sup> And in that day it will be said, "Surely this is our God;
 we have waited for Him, and He has saved us.
 This is the LORD for whom we have waited.
 Let us rejoice and be glad in His salvation."

<sup>10</sup> For the hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain.
 But Moab will be trampled in his place
 as straw is trodden into the dung pile.
<sup>11</sup> He will spread out his hands within it,
 as a swimmer spreads his arms to swim.

His pride will be brought low,
 despite ‡ the skill of his hands.

<sup>12</sup> The high-walled fortress will be brought down, cast to the ground, into the dust.

26

A Song of Salvation

<sup>1</sup> In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

We have a strong city;
 salvation is established as its walls and ramparts.

<sup>2</sup> Open the gates so a righteous nation may enter—one that remains faithful.

<sup>3</sup> You will keep in perfect peace the steadfast of mind, because he trusts in You.

<sup>4</sup> Trust in the LORD forever, because GOD the LORD is the Rock eternal.

<sup>5</sup> For He has humbled those who dwell on high;
 He lays the lofty city low.

He brings it down to the ground;
 He casts it into the dust.

<sup>6</sup> Feet trample it down—
 the feet of the oppressed, the steps of the poor.

* 25:8 Or He will swallow up death in victory; cited in 1 Corinthians 15:54
 † 25:8 Cited in Revelation 7:17 and Revelation 21:4
 ‡ 25:11 Or along with

- 7 The path of the righteous is level;
You clear a straight path for the upright.
- 8 Yes, we wait for You, O LORD;
we walk in the path of Your judgments.
Your name and renown
are the desire of our souls.
- 9 My soul longs for You in the night;
indeed, my spirit seeks You at dawn.*
For when Your judgments come upon the earth,
the people of the world learn righteousness.
- 10 Though grace is shown to the wicked man,
he does not learn righteousness.
In the land of righteousness he acts unjustly and fails to see the majesty of the LORD.
- 11 O LORD, Your hand is upraised,
but they do not see it.
They will see Your zeal for Your people and be put to shame.
The fire set for Your enemies will consume them!
- 12 O LORD, You will establish peace for us.
For all that we have accomplished,
You have done for us.
- 13 O LORD our God, other lords besides You have had dominion, but Your name alone do we confess.
- 14 The dead will not live;
the departed spirits will not rise.
Therefore You have punished and destroyed them;
You have wiped out all memory of them.
- 15 You have enlarged the nation, O LORD;
You have enlarged the nation.
You have gained glory for Yourself;
You have extended all the borders of the land.
- 16 O LORD, they sought You in their distress;
when You disciplined them, they poured out a quiet prayer.
- 17 As a woman with child about to give birth
writhes and cries out in pain,
so were we in Your presence, O LORD.
- 18 We were with child; we writhed in pain;
but we gave birth to wind.
We have given no salvation to the earth,
nor brought any life into the world.
- 19 Your dead will live; their bodies will rise.
Awake and sing, you who dwell in the dust!
For your dew is like the dew of the morning,
and the earth will bring forth her dead.
- 20 Go, my people, enter your rooms and shut your doors behind you.
Hide yourselves a little while until the wrath has passed.
- 21 For behold, the LORD is coming out of His dwelling to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity.
The earth will reveal her bloodshed and will no longer conceal her slain.

---

* 26:9 Or my spirit within me seeks You.

27

The LORD's Vineyard
(John 15:1-8)

<sup>1</sup> In that day the LORD will take His sharp, great, and mighty sword, and bring judgment on Leviathan the fleeing serpent *—Leviathan the coiling serpent—and He will slay the dragon of the sea. <sup>2</sup> In that day:

“Sing about a fruitful vineyard.

<sup>3</sup> I, the LORD, am its keeper;

I water it continually.

I guard it night and day
so no one can disturb it;

<sup>4</sup> I am not angry.

If only thorns and briers confronted Me,

I would march and trample them,

I would burn them to the ground.

<sup>5</sup> Or let them lay claim to My protection;

let them make peace with Me—

yes, let them make peace with Me.”

<sup>6</sup> In the days to come, Jacob will take root.

Israel will bud and blossom and fill the whole world with fruit.

<sup>7</sup> Has the LORD struck Israel as He struck her oppressors?

Was she killed like those who slayed her?

<sup>8</sup> By warfare and exile † You contended with her and removed her with a fierce wind,

as on the day the east wind blows.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore Jacob's guilt will be atoned for,

and the full fruit of the removal of his sin will be this:‡

When he makes all the altar stones like crushed bits of chalk, no Asherah poles or incense altars will remain standing.

<sup>10</sup> For the fortified city lies deserted—

a homestead abandoned, a wilderness forsaken.

There the calves graze, and there they lie down;

they strip its branches bare.

<sup>11</sup> When its limbs are dry,

they are broken off.

Women come and use them for kindling;

for this is a people without understanding.

Therefore their Maker has no compassion on them, and their Creator shows them no favor.

<sup>12</sup> In that day the LORD will thresh from the flowing Euphrates § to the Wadi of Egypt, and you, O Israelites, will be gathered one by one. <sup>13</sup> And in that day a great ram's horn will sound, and those who were perishing in Assyria will come forth with those who were exiles in Egypt. And they will worship the LORD on the holy mountain in Jerusalem.

28

The Captivity of Ephraim

* 27:1 Hebrew nachash; translated in most cases as snake; twice in this verse † 27:8 Or By driving her away into exile or Measure by measure, by exile ‡ 27:9 LXX Therefore the guilt of Jacob will be taken away, and this is his blessing when I take away his sin; cited in Romans 11:27 § 27:12 Hebrew River

- <sup>1</sup> Woe to the majestic crown of Ephraim's * drunkards, to the fading flower of his glorious splendor,
set on the summit above the fertile valley,
the pride of those overcome by wine.
- <sup>2</sup> Behold, the Lord has one who is strong and mighty.
Like a hailstorm or destructive tempest,
like a driving rain or flooding downpour,
he will smash that crown to the ground.
- <sup>3</sup> The majestic crown of Ephraim's drunkards will be trampled underfoot.
- <sup>4</sup> The fading flower of his beautiful splendor,
set on the summit above the fertile valley,
will be like a ripe fig before the summer harvest:
Whoever sees it will take it in his hand and swallow it.
- <sup>5</sup> On that day the LORD of Hosts will be a crown of glory,
a diadem of splendor to the remnant of His people,
- <sup>6</sup> a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment, and a strength to those who repel the onslaught at the gate.
- <sup>7</sup> These also stagger from wine and stumble from strong drink:
Priests and prophets reel from strong drink
and are befuddled by wine.
They stumble because of strong drink, muddled in their visions and stumbling in their judgments.
- <sup>8</sup> For all their tables are covered with vomit;
there is not a place without filth.
- <sup>9</sup> Whom is He trying to teach?
To whom is He explaining His message?
To infants just weaned from milk?
To babies removed from the breast?
- <sup>10</sup> For they hear:†
"Order on order, order on order;
line on line, line on line;‡
a little here, a little there."
- <sup>11</sup> Indeed, with mocking lips and foreign tongues,
He will speak to this people § <sup>12</sup> to whom He has said:
"This is the place of rest, let the weary rest;
this is the place of repose."

But they would not listen.

- <sup>13</sup> Then the word of the LORD to them will become:
"Order on order, order on order;
line on line, line on line;
a little here, a little there,"
so that they will go stumbling backward and will be injured, ensnared, and captured.
- A Cornerstone in Zion*
(1 Corinthians 3:10-15; Ephesians 2:19-22; 1 Peter 2:1-8)

- <sup>14</sup> Therefore hear the word of the LORD, O scoffers who rule this people in Jerusalem.
- <sup>15</sup> For you said, "We have made a covenant with death;

* 28:1 That is, the northern kingdom of Israel; also in verse 3 † 28:10 Or For He says; or For it is; literally For ‡ 28:10 Or Do this, do that, a rule for this, a rule for that; Hebrew sav lasav sav lasav kav lakav kav lakav (possibly meaningless sounds to demonstrate an inability to understand); also in verse 13 § 28:11 Cited in 1 Corinthians 14:21

we have fashioned an agreement with Sheol.
 When the overwhelming scourge passes through it will not touch us, because we have made lies our refuge and falsehood * our hiding place.”

16 So this is what the Lord GOD says:

“See, I lay a stone in Zion,
 a tested stone,
 a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation;
 the one who believes will never be shaken.†

17 I will make justice the measuring line and righteousness the level.

Hail will sweep away your refuge of lies,
 and water will flood your hiding place.

18 Your covenant with death will be dissolved, and your agreement with Sheol will not stand.

When the overwhelming scourge passes through,
 you will be trampled by it.

19 As often as it passes through,
 it will carry you away;
 it will sweep through morning after morning,
 by day and by night.”

The understanding of this message will bring sheer terror.

20 Indeed, the bed is too short to stretch out on,
 and the blanket too small to wrap around you.

21 For the LORD will rise up as at Mount Perazim.
 He will rouse Himself as in the Valley of Gibeon, to do His work, His strange work,
 and to perform His task, His disturbing task.

22 So now, do not mock,
 or your shackles will become heavier.
 Indeed, I have heard from the Lord GOD of Hosts a decree of destruction against the whole land.

Listen and Hear

23 Listen and hear my voice.
 Pay attention and hear what I say.
 24 Does the plowman plow for planting every day?
 Does he continuously loosen and harrow the soil?
 25 When he has leveled its surface,
 does he not sow caraway and scatter cumin?
 He plants wheat in rows and barley in plots,
 and rye within its border.

26 For his God instructs and teaches him properly.
 27 Surely caraway is not threshed with a sledge, and the wheel of a cart is not rolled over the cumin.
 But caraway is beaten out with a stick,
 and cumin with a rod.
 28 Grain for bread must be ground,
 but it is not endlessly threshed.
 Though the wheels of the cart roll over it,
 the horses do not crush it.

* 28:15 Or false gods † 28:16 LXX will never be put to shame; cited in Romans 9:33, Romans 10:11, and 1 Peter 2:6

29 This also comes from the LORD of Hosts, who is wonderful in counsel and excellent in wisdom.

29

*Woe to David's City
 (Luke 19:41–44)*

1 Woe to you, O Ariel,*
 the city of Ariel where David camped!
 Year upon year
 let your festivals recur.
 2 And I will constrain Ariel, and there will be mourning and lamentation;
 she will be like an altar hearth † before Me.
 3 I will camp in a circle around you;
 I will besiege you with towers and set up siege works against you.
 4 You will be brought low,
 you will speak from the ground,
 and out of the dust
 your words will be muffled.
 Your voice will be like a spirit from the ground;
 your speech will whisper out of the dust.
 5 But your many foes will be like fine dust,
 the multitude of the ruthless like blowing chaff.
 Then suddenly, in an instant,
 6 you will be visited by the LORD of Hosts with thunder and earthquake and loud noise, with windstorm and tempest and consuming flame of fire.
 7 All the many nations going out to battle against Ariel—even all who war against her, laying siege and attacking her—
 will be like a dream,
 like a vision in the night,
 8 as when a hungry man dreams he is eating,
 then awakens still hungry;
 as when a thirsty man dreams he is drinking,
 then awakens faint and parched.
 So will it be for all the many nations who go to battle against Mount Zion.
 9 Stop and be astonished;
 blind yourselves and be sightless;
 be drunk, but not with wine;
 stagger, but not from strong drink.
 10 For the LORD has poured out on you a spirit of deep sleep.
 He has shut your eyes, O prophets;
 He has covered your heads, O seers.

11 And the entire vision will be to you like the words sealed in a scroll. If it is handed to someone to read, he will say, "I cannot, because it is sealed." 12 Or if the scroll is handed to one unable to read, he will say, "I cannot read."

13 Therefore the Lord said:

* 29:1 Or Altar Hearth or Lion of God; probably a nickname for Jerusalem; twice in this verse, twice in verse 2, and once in verse 7 † 29:2 Or like Ariel; see the footnote for verse 1.

“These people draw near to Me with their mouths and honor Me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from Me.

Their worship of Me is but rules taught by men.‡

14 Therefore I will again confound these people with wonder upon wonder.

The wisdom of the wise will vanish, and the intelligence of the intelligent will be hidden.§”

15 Woe to those who dig deep to hide their plans from the LORD.

In darkness they do their works and say,
“Who sees us, and who will know?”

16 You have turned things upside down,
as if the potter were regarded as clay.

Shall what is formed say to him who formed it,
“He did not make me”?*

Can the pottery say of the potter,
“He has no understanding”?

Sanctification for the Godly

17 In a very short time, will not Lebanon become an orchard,
and the orchard seem like a forest?

18 On that day the deaf will hear the words of the scroll, and out of the deep darkness the eyes of the blind will see.

19 The humble will increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

20 For the ruthless will vanish,
the mockers will disappear,
and all who look for evil
will be cut down—

21 those who indict a man with a word, who ensnare the mediator at the gate,
and who with false charges deprive the innocent of justice.

22 Therefore the LORD who redeemed Abraham says of the house of Jacob:

“No longer will Jacob be ashamed and no more will his face grow pale.

23 For when he sees his children around him,
the work of My hands,
they will honor My name,
they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob,
and they will stand in awe of the God of Israel.

24 Then the wayward in spirit will come to understanding, and those who grumble will accept instruction.”

The Worthless Treaty with Egypt

1 “Woe to the rebellious children,”
declares the LORD,
“to those who carry out a plan that is not Mine,

‡ 29:13 Hebrew; LXX They worship Me in vain; they teach as doctrine the precepts of men. Cited in Matthew 15:8-9 and Mark 7:6-7 § 29:14 Hebrew; LXX I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will hide the intelligence of the intelligent. Cited in 1 Corinthians 1:19 * 29:16 Cited in Romans 9:20

- who form an alliance, but against My will, heaping up sin upon sin.
- <sup>2</sup> They set out to go down to Egypt
without asking My advice, to seek shelter under Pharaoh's protection and take refuge in Egypt's shade.
- <sup>3</sup> But Pharaoh's protection will become your shame,
and the refuge of Egypt's shade your disgrace.
- <sup>4</sup> For though their princes are at Zoan and their envoys have arrived in Hanes, <sup>5</sup> everyone will be put to shame because of a people useless to them.
They cannot be of help;
they are good for nothing but shame and reproach."
- <sup>6</sup> This is the burden against the beasts of the Negev:
Through a land of hardship and distress,
of lioness and lion,
of viper and flying serpent,
they carry their wealth on the backs of donkeys and their treasures on the humps of camels, to a people of no profit to them.
- <sup>7</sup> Egypt's help is futile and empty;
therefore I have called her Rahab Who Sits Still.*
- <sup>8</sup> Go now, write it on a tablet in their presence and inscribe it on a scroll;
it will be for the days to come,
a witness forever and ever.
- <sup>9</sup> These are rebellious people, deceitful children, children unwilling to obey the LORD's instruction.
- <sup>10</sup> They say to the seers,
"Stop seeing visions!"
and to the prophets,
"Do not prophesy to us the truth!
Speak to us pleasant words;
prophesy illusions.
- <sup>11</sup> Get out of the way; turn off the road.
Rid us of the Holy One of Israel!"
- <sup>12</sup> Therefore this is what the Holy One of Israel says:
"Because you have rejected this message,
trusting in oppression and relying on deceit, <sup>13</sup> this iniquity of yours is like a breach about to fail,
a bulge in a high wall, whose collapse will come suddenly—
in an instant!
<sup>14</sup> It will break in pieces like a potter's jar, shattered so that no fragment can be found.
Not a shard will be found in the dust large enough to scoop the coals from a hearth or to skim the water from a cistern."
- <sup>15</sup> For the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel, has said:
"By repentance and rest
you would be saved;

---

* 30:7 Hebrew Rahab-hem-shebeth your strength would lie in quiet confidence—but you were not willing.”

<sup>16</sup> “No,” you say, “we will flee on horses.”

Therefore you will flee!

“We will ride swift horses,” but your pursuers will be faster.

<sup>17</sup> A thousand will flee at the threat of one;

at the threat of five you will all flee, until you are left alone like a pole on a mountaintop,

like a banner on a hill.

God Will Be Gracious

<sup>18</sup> Therefore the LORD longs to be gracious to you;

therefore He rises to show you compassion, for the LORD is a just God.

Blessed are all who wait for Him.

<sup>19</sup> O people in Zion who dwell in Jerusalem, you will weep no more. He will surely be gracious when you cry for help; when He hears, He will answer you. <sup>20</sup> The Lord will give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, but your Teacher will no longer hide Himself—with your own eyes you will see Him.

<sup>21</sup> And whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear this command behind you: “This is the way. Walk in it.” <sup>22</sup> So you will desecrate your silver-plated idols and your gold-plated images. You will throw them away like menstrual cloths, saying to them, “Be gone!”

<sup>23</sup> Then He will send rain for the seed that you have sown in the ground, and the food that comes from your land will be rich and plentiful. On that day your cattle will graze in open pastures. <sup>24</sup> The oxen and donkeys that work the ground will eat salted fodder, winnowed with shovel and pitchfork.

<sup>25</sup> And from every high mountain and every raised hill, streams of water will flow in the day of great slaughter, when the towers fall. <sup>26</sup> The light of the moon will be as bright as the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times brighter—like the light of seven days—on the day that the LORD binds up the brokenness of His people and heals the wounds He has inflicted.

with burning anger and dense smoke.

His lips are full of fury,

and His tongue is like a consuming fire.

<sup>28</sup> His breath is like a rushing torrent that rises to the neck.

He comes to sift the nations in a sieve of destruction;

He bridles the jaws of the peoples to lead them astray.

<sup>29</sup> You will sing

as on the night of a holy festival, and your heart will rejoice like one who walks to the music of a flute, going up to the mountain of the LORD,

to the Rock of Israel.

<sup>30</sup> And the LORD will cause His majestic voice to be heard and His mighty arm to be revealed, striking in angry wrath with a flame of consuming fire,

and with cloudburst, storm, and hailstones.

<sup>31</sup> For Assyria will be shattered at the voice of the LORD;

He will strike them with His scepter.

32 And with every stroke of the rod of punishment † that the LORD brings down on them,
 the tambourines and lyres will sound
 as He battles with weapons brandished.
 33 For Topheth has long been prepared;
 it has been made ready for the king.
 Its funeral pyre is deep and wide,
 with plenty of fire and wood.
 The breath of the LORD, like a torrent of burning sulfur, sets it ablaze.

Woe to Those Who Rely on Egypt

1 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help, who rely on horses,
 who trust in their abundance of chariots
 and in their multitude of horsemen.
 They do not look to the Holy One of Israel;
 they do not seek the LORD.
 2 Yet He too is wise and brings disaster;
 He does not call back His words.
 He will rise up against the house of the wicked and against the allies of evildoers.
 3 But the Egyptians are men, not God;
 their horses are flesh, not spirit.
 When the LORD stretches out His hand,
 the helper will stumble,
 and the one he helps will fall;
 both will perish together.
 4 For this is what the LORD has said to me:
 “Like a lion roaring or a young lion over its prey—and though a band of shepherds is called out against it, it is not terrified by their shouting or subdued by their clamor—
 so the LORD of Hosts will come down to do battle on Mount Zion and its heights.
 5 Like birds hovering overhead,
 so the LORD of Hosts will protect Jerusalem.
 He will shield it and deliver it;
 He will pass over it and preserve it.”
 6 Return to the One against whom you have so blatantly rebelled, O children of Israel.
 7 For on that day, every one of you will reject the idols of silver and gold that your own hands have sinfully made.
 8 “Then Assyria will fall, but not by the sword of man;
 a sword will devour them,
 but not one made by mortals.
 They will flee before the sword,
 and their young men will be put to forced labor.
 9 Their rock will pass away for fear, and their princes will panic at the sight of the battle standard,” declares the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

A Righteous King

- 1 Behold, a king will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule with justice.
- 2 Each will be like a shelter from the wind,
a refuge from the storm,
like streams of water in a dry land,
like the shadow of a great rock in an arid land.
- 3 Then the eyes of those who see will no longer be closed,
and the ears of those who hear will listen.
- 4 The mind of the rash will know and understand,
and the stammering tongue will speak clearly and fluently.
- 5 No longer will a fool be called noble,
nor a scoundrel be respected.
- 6 For a fool speaks foolishness;
his mind plots iniquity.
He practices ungodliness and speaks falsely about the LORD;
he leaves the hungry empty and deprives the thirsty of drink.
- 7 The weapons of the scoundrel are destructive;
he hatches plots to destroy the poor with lies,
even when the plea of the needy is just.
- 8 But a noble man makes honorable plans;
he stands up for worthy causes.

The Women of Jerusalem

- 9 Stand up, you complacent women;
listen to me.
Give ear to my word,
you overconfident daughters.
- 10 In a little more than a year you will tremble,
O secure ones.
For the grape harvest will fail and the fruit harvest will not arrive.
- 11 Shudder, you ladies of leisure;
tremble, you daughters of complacency.
Strip yourselves bare and put sackcloth around your waists.
- 12 Beat your breasts for the pleasant fields,
for the fruitful vines, 13 and for the land of my people, overgrown with thorns and briars—even for every house of merriment in this city of revelry.
- 14 For the palace will be forsaken,
the busy city abandoned.
The hill * and the watchtower will become caves forever—
the delight of wild donkeys and a pasture for flocks—15 until the Spirit is poured out upon us from on high.

- Then the desert will be an orchard, and the orchard will seem like a forest.
- 16 Then justice will inhabit the wilderness,

---

* 32:14 Hebrew the Ophel

- and righteousness will dwell in the fertile field.
 17 The work of righteousness will be peace;
 the service of righteousness will be quiet confidence forever.
- 18 Then my people will dwell in a peaceful place,
 in safe and secure places of rest.
- 19 But hail will level the forest, and the city will sink to the depths.
- 20 Blessed are those who sow beside abundant waters,
 who let the ox and donkey range freely.

The LORD Is Exalted

- 1 Woe to you, O destroyer never destroyed,
 O traitor never betrayed!
 When you have finished destroying,
 you will be destroyed.
 When you have finished betraying,
 you will be betrayed.
- 2 O LORD, be gracious to us!
 We wait for You.
 Be our strength every morning and our salvation in time of trouble.
- 3 The peoples flee the thunder of Your voice;
 the nations scatter when You rise.
- 4 Your spoil, O nations, * is gathered as by locusts;
 like a swarm of locusts men sweep over it.
- 5 The LORD is exalted, for He dwells on high;
 He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness.
- 6 He will be the sure foundation for your times,
 a storehouse of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge.
 The fear of the LORD is Zion's treasure.
- 7 Behold, their valiant ones cry aloud in the streets;
 the envoys of peace weep bitterly.
- 8 The highways are deserted;
 travel has ceased.
 The treaty † has been broken,
 the witnesses ‡ are despised,
 and human life is disregarded.
- 9 The land mourns and languishes;
 Lebanon is ashamed and decayed.
 Sharon is like a desert;
 Bashan and Carmel shake off their leaves.
- 10 "Now I will arise," says the LORD.
 "Now I will lift Myself up. Now I will be exalted.
- 11 You conceive chaff; you give birth to stubble.
 Your breath is a fire that will consume you.
- 12 The peoples will be burned to ashes,
 like thorns cut down and set ablaze.
- 13 You who are far off, hear what I have done;
 you who are near, acknowledge My might."
- 14 The sinners in Zion are afraid;

* 33:4 O nations is added for clarity. † 33:8 Forms of the Hebrew berit are translated in most passages as covenant. ‡ 33:8 DSS; MT the cities

- trembling grips the ungodly:
 “Who of us can dwell with a consuming fire?
 Who of us can dwell with everlasting flames?”
- <sup>15</sup> He who walks righteously and speaks with sincerity, who refuses gain from extortion,
 whose hand never takes a bribe,
 who stops his ears against murderous plots and shuts his eyes tightly against evil—
- <sup>16</sup> he will dwell on the heights;
 the mountain fortress will be his refuge;
 his food will be provided and his water assured.
- <sup>17</sup> Your eyes will see the King in His beauty and behold a land that stretches afar.
- <sup>18</sup> Your mind will ponder the former terror:
 “Where is he who tallies? Where is he who weighs?
 Where is he who counts the towers?”
- <sup>19</sup> You will no longer see the insolent,
 a people whose speech is unintelligible, who stammer in a language you cannot understand.
- <sup>20</sup> Look upon Zion,
 the city of our appointed feasts.
 Your eyes will see Jerusalem,
 a peaceful pasture, a tent that does not wander;
 its tent pegs will not be pulled up,
 nor will any of its cords be broken.
- <sup>21</sup> But there the Majestic One, our LORD, will be for us a place of rivers and wide canals,
 where no galley with oars will row,
 and no majestic vessel will pass.
- <sup>22</sup> For the LORD is our Judge,
 the LORD is our lawgiver,
 the LORD is our King,
 It is He who will save us.
- <sup>23</sup> Your ropes are slack;
 they cannot secure the mast or spread the sail.
 Then an abundance of spoils will be divided,
 and even the lame will carry off plunder.
- <sup>24</sup> And no resident of Zion will say, “I am sick.”
 The people who dwell there will be forgiven of iniquity.

Judgment on the Nations

- <sup>1</sup> Come near, O nations, to listen;
 pay attention, O peoples.
 Let the earth hear, and all that fills it,
 the world and all that springs from it.
- <sup>2</sup> The LORD is angry with all the nations and furious with all their armies.
 He will devote them to destruction,*
 He will give them over to slaughter.
- <sup>3</sup> Their slain will be left unburied,

* 34:2 Forms of the Hebrew cherem refer to the giving over of things or persons, either by destroying them or by giving them as an offering; also in verse 5.

and the stench of their corpses will rise;
 the mountains will flow with their blood.
 4 All the stars of heaven will be dissolved.
 The skies will be rolled up like a scroll,
 and all their stars will fall like withered leaves from the vine, like foliage from the fig tree.

Judgment on Edom
(Isaiah 21:11–12)

5 When My sword has drunk its fill in the heavens, then it will come down upon Edom,
 upon the people I have devoted to destruction.
 6 The sword of the LORD is bathed in blood.
 It drips with fat—
 with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams.
 For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah,
 a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
 7 And the wild oxen will fall with them,
 the young bulls with the strong ones.
 Their land will be drenched with blood,
 and their soil will be soaked with fat.
 8 For the LORD has a day of vengeance, a year of recompense for the cause of Zion.† 9 Edom's streams will be turned to tar, and her soil to sulfur;
 her land will become a blazing pitch.
 10 It will not be quenched—day or night.
 Its smoke will ascend forever.
 From generation to generation it will lie desolate;
 no one will ever again pass through it.
 11 The desert owl and screech owl will possess it, and the great owl and raven will dwell in it.‡

The LORD will stretch out over Edom
 a measuring line of chaos and a plumb line of destruction.
 12 No nobles will be left to proclaim a king,
 and all her princes will come to nothing.
 13 Her towers will be overgrown with thorns,
 her fortresses with thistles and briars.
 She will become a haunt for jackals,§ an abode for ostriches.*
 14 The desert creatures will meet with hyenas, and one wild goat will call to another.
 There the night creature † will settle and find her place of repose.
 15 There the owl will make her nest;
 she will lay and hatch her eggs and gather her brood under her shadow.
 Even there the birds of prey will gather,
 each with its mate.

16 Search and read the scroll of the LORD:

Not one of these will go missing,

† 34:8 Or of recompense for (Edom's) hostility against Zion. ‡ 34:11 The precise identification of these birds is uncertain. § 34:13 Or serpents or dragons * 34:13 Literally for daughters of an ostrich or for daughters of an owl † 34:14 Hebrew Lilith not one will lack her mate, because He has ordered it by His mouth,

 and He will gather them by His Spirit.
<sup>17</sup> He has allotted their portion;
 His hand has distributed it by measure.
 They will possess it forever;
 they will dwell in it from generation to generation.

35

The Glory of Zion

<sup>1</sup> The wilderness and the land will be glad;
 the desert will rejoice and blossom like a rose.
<sup>2</sup> It will bloom profusely and rejoice with joy and singing.
 The glory of Lebanon will be given to it,
 the splendor of Carmel and Sharon.
 They will see the glory of the LORD,
 the splendor of our God.
<sup>3</sup> Strengthen the limp hands and steady the feeble knees!*
<sup>4</sup> Say to those with anxious hearts:
 "Be strong, do not fear!
 Behold, your God will come with vengeance.
 With divine retribution He will come to save you."
<sup>5</sup> Then the eyes of the blind will be opened and the ears of the deaf unstopped.
<sup>6</sup> Then the lame will leap like a deer and the mute tongue will shout for joy.
 For waters will gush forth in the wilderness,
 and streams in the desert.
<sup>7</sup> The parched ground will become a pool,
 the thirsty land springs of water.
 In the haunt where jackals † once lay,
 there will be grass and reeds and papyrus.
<sup>8</sup> And there will be a highway called the Way of Holiness.
 The unclean will not travel it—only those who walk in the Way—and fools will not stray onto it.
<sup>9</sup> No lion will be there,
 and no vicious beast will go up on it.
 Such will not be found there,
 but the redeemed will walk upon it.
<sup>10</sup> So the redeemed of the LORD will return and enter Zion with singing,
 crowned with everlasting joy.
 Gladness and joy will overtake them,
 and sorrow and sighing will flee.

Sennacherib Threatens Jerusalem (2 Kings 18:13-37; 2 Chronicles 32:1-8)

* 35:3 Cited in Hebrews 12:12 † 35:7 Or serpents or dragons

<sup>3</sup> Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah the palace administrator, Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph the recorder, went out to him.

<sup>4</sup> The Rabshakeh said to them, "Tell Hezekiah that this is what the great king, the king of Assyria, says: What is the basis of this confidence of yours? <sup>5</sup> You claim to have † a strategy and strength for war, but these are empty words. In whom are you now trusting, that you have rebelled against me?

<sup>6</sup> Look now, you are trusting in Egypt, that splintered reed of a staff that will pierce the hand of anyone who leans on it. Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him. <sup>7</sup> But if you say to me, 'We trust in the LORD our God,' is He not the One whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, saying to Judah and Jerusalem, 'You must worship before this altar'?

<sup>8</sup> Now, therefore, make a bargain with my master, the king of Assyria. I will give you two thousand horses—if you can put riders on them! <sup>9</sup> For how can you repel a single officer among the least of my master's servants when you depend on Egypt for chariots and horsemen? <sup>10</sup> So now, was it apart from the LORD that I have come up against this land to destroy it? The LORD Himself said to me, 'Go up against this land and destroy it.' "

<sup>11</sup> Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, since we understand it. Do not speak to us in Hebrew ‡ in the hearing of the people on the wall."

<sup>12</sup> But the Rabshakeh replied, "Has my master sent me to speak these words only to you and your master, and not to the men sitting on the wall, who are destined with you to eat their own dung and drink their own urine?"

<sup>13</sup> Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out loudly in Hebrew: "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria! <sup>14</sup> This is what the king says: Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he cannot deliver you. <sup>15</sup> Do not let Hezekiah persuade you to trust in the LORD when he says, 'The LORD will surely deliver us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'

<sup>16</sup> Do not listen to Hezekiah, for this is what the king of Assyria says: Make peace with me § and come out to me. Then every one of you will eat from his own vine and his own fig tree, and drink water from his own cistern, <sup>17</sup> until I come and take you away to a land like your own—a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

<sup>18</sup> Do not let Hezekiah mislead you when he says, 'The LORD will deliver us.' Has the god of any nation ever delivered his land from the hand of the king of Assyria? <sup>19</sup> Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they delivered Samaria from my hand? <sup>20</sup> Who among all the gods of these lands has delivered his land from my hand? How then can the LORD deliver Jerusalem from my hand?"

<sup>22</sup> Then Hilkiah's son Eliakim the palace administrator, Shebna the scribe, and Asaph's son Joah the recorder came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and they relayed to him the words of the Rabshakeh.

* 36:2 Hebrew Rabshakeh is the title of a high-ranking Assyrian military officer; here and throughout chapters 36 and 37, as well as 2 Kings 18 and 19 † 36:5 Literally You speak; see DSS and 2 Kings 18:20; MT I speak. ‡ 36:11 Or in the dialect of Judah; also in verse 13 § 36:16 Or Make a blessing with me

Isaiah's Message of Deliverance
(2 Kings 19:1-7)

<sup>5</sup> So the servants of King Hezekiah went to Isaiah, <sup>6</sup> who replied, "Tell your master that this is what the LORD says: 'Do not be afraid of the words you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me. <sup>7</sup> Behold, I will put a spirit in him so that he will hear a rumor and return to his own land, where I will cause him to fall by the sword.' "

Sennacherib's Blasphemous Letter
(2 Kings 19:8-13)

<sup>9</sup> Now Sennacherib had been warned about Tirhakah king of Cush:* "He has set out to fight against you."

On hearing this, Sennacherib sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, <sup>10</sup> "Give this message to Hezekiah king of Judah:

'Do not let your God, in whom you trust, deceive you by saying that Jerusalem will not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. <sup>11</sup> Surely you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the other countries, devoting them to destruction.† Will you then be spared? <sup>12</sup> Did the gods of the nations destroyed by my fathers rescue those nations—the gods of Gozan, Haran, and Rezep, and of the people of Eden in Telassar? <sup>13</sup> Where are the kings of Hamath, Arpad, Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah?' "

Hezekiah's Prayer
(2 Kings 19:14-19)

<sup>14</sup> So Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers, read it, and went up to the house of the LORD and spread it out before the LORD. <sup>15</sup> And Hezekiah prayed to the LORD:

<sup>16</sup> "O LORD of Hosts, God of Israel, enthroned above the cherubim, You alone are God over all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth. <sup>17</sup> Incline Your ear, O LORD, and hear; open Your eyes, O LORD, and see. Listen to all the words that Sennacherib has sent to defy the living God.

<sup>18</sup> Truly, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all these countries and their lands. <sup>19</sup> They have cast their gods into the fire and destroyed them, for they were not gods, but only wood and stone—the work of human hands.

<sup>20</sup> And now, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You alone, O LORD, are God.‡"

Sennacherib's Fall Prophesied
(2 Kings 19:20-34)

* 37:9 That is, the upper Nile region † 37:11 Forms of the Hebrew cherem refer to the giving over of things or persons, either by destroying them or by giving them as an offering. ‡ 37:20 DSS (see also 2 Kings 19:19); MT You alone are the LORD

21 Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent a message to Hezekiah: "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Because you have prayed to Me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria, 22 this is the word that the LORD has spoken against him:

'The Virgin Daughter of Zion despises you and mocks you;
the Daughter of Jerusalem shakes her head behind you.
23 Whom have you taunted and blasphemed?
Against whom have you raised your voice and lifted your eyes in pride?
Against the Holy One of Israel!

24 Through your servants you have taunted the Lord,
and you have said:
"With my many chariots
I have ascended to the heights of the mountains, to the remote peaks of Lebanon.
I have cut down its tallest cedars,
the finest of its cypresses.§
I have reached its farthest heights,
the densest of its forests.
25 I have dug wells
and drunk foreign * waters.
With the soles of my feet
I have dried up all the streams of Egypt."

26 Have you not heard?
Long ago I ordained it;
in days of old I planned it.
Now I have brought it to pass,
that you should crush fortified cities into piles of rubble.
27 Therefore their inhabitants, devoid of power,
are dismayed and ashamed.
They are like plants in the field,
tender green shoots,
grass on the rooftops,
scorched † before it is grown.

28 But I know your sitting down, your going out and coming in,
and your raging against Me.
29 Because your rage and arrogance against Me have reached My ears,
I will put My hook in your nose
and My bit in your mouth;
I will send you back
the way you came.'

30 And this will be a sign to you, O Hezekiah:

This year you will eat
what grows on its own,
and in the second year
what springs from the same.
But in the third year you will sow and reap;

§ 37:24 Or pines or junipers or firs * 37:25 DSS (see also 2 Kings 19:24); MT does not include foreign. † 37:27 DSS, some MT manuscripts, and some LXX manuscripts (see also 2 Kings 19:26); most MT manuscripts on the rooftops and terraced fields you will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

<sup>31</sup> And the surviving remnant of the house of Judah will again take root below and bear fruit above.

<sup>32</sup> For a remnant will go forth from Jerusalem, and survivors from Mount Zion.

The zeal of the LORD of Hosts will accomplish this.

<sup>33</sup> So this is what the LORD says about the king of Assyria:

‘He will not enter this city or shoot an arrow into it.
He will not come before it with a shield or build up a siege ramp against it.

<sup>34</sup> He will go back the way he came,
and he will not enter this city,’

declares the LORD.

<sup>35</sup> ‘I will defend this city and save it for My own sake
and for the sake of My servant David.’ ”

Jerusalem Delivered from the Assyrians
(2 Kings 19:35-37; 2 Chronicles 32:20-23)

<sup>36</sup> Then the angel of the LORD went out and struck down 185,000 men in the camp of the Assyrians. When the people got up ‡ the next morning, there were all the dead bodies!

<sup>37</sup> So Sennacherib king of Assyria broke camp and withdrew. He returned to Nineveh and stayed there. <sup>38</sup> One day, while he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer put him to the sword and escaped to the land of Ararat. And his son Esar-haddon reigned in his place.

Hezekiah's Illness and Recovery
(2 Kings 20:1-11; 2 Chronicles 32:24-31)

<sup>1</sup> In those days Hezekiah became mortally ill. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz came to him and said, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Put your house in order, for you are about to die; you will not recover.’ ”

<sup>2</sup> Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, <sup>3</sup> saying, “Please, O LORD, remember how I have walked before You faithfully and with wholehearted devotion; I have done what was good in Your sight.” And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

<sup>4</sup> And the word of the LORD came to Isaiah, saying, <sup>5</sup> “Go and tell Hezekiah that this is what the LORD, the God of your father David, says: ‘I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears. Behold, I will add fifteen years to your life. <sup>6</sup> And I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria. I will defend this city.* <sup>7</sup> This will be a sign to you from the LORD that He will do what He has promised: <sup>8</sup> I will make the sun’s shadow that falls on the stairway of Ahaz go back ten steps.’ ”

So the sunlight went back the ten steps it had descended.

Hezekiah's Song of Thanksgiving

<sup>9</sup> This is a writing by Hezekiah king of Judah after his illness and recovery:

‡ 37:36 Hebrew When they got up * 38:6 MT and LXX; DSS includes for My sake and for the sake of My servant David; see 2 Kings 20:6. † 38:10 Or In the quiet or In the middle

- I must go through the gates of Sheol and be deprived of the remainder of my years.”
- 11 I said, “I will never again see the LORD,
even the LORD, in the land of the living;
I will no longer look on mankind with those who dwell in this world.
- 12 My dwelling has been picked up and removed from me like a shepherd’s tent.
I have rolled up my life like a weaver;
He cuts me off from the loom;
from day until night You make an end of me.
- 13 I composed myself † until the morning.
Like a lion He breaks all my bones;
from day until night You make an end of me.
- 14 I chirp like a swallow or crane;
I moan like a dove.
My eyes grow weak as I look upward.
O Lord, I am oppressed; be my security.”
- 15 What can I say?
He has spoken to me, and He Himself has done this.
I will walk slowly all my years because of the anguish of my soul.
- 16 O Lord, by such things men live,
and in all of them my spirit finds life.
You have restored me to health and have let me live.
- 17 Surely for my own welfare
I had such great anguish;
but Your love has delivered me from the pit of oblivion, for You have cast all my sins behind Your back.
- 18 For Sheol cannot thank You;
Death cannot praise You.
Those who descend to the Pit cannot hope for Your faithfulness.
- 19 The living, only the living, can thank You,
as I do today;
fathers will tell their children about Your faithfulness.
- 20 The LORD will save me;
we will play songs on stringed instruments
all the days of our lives
in the house of the LORD.
- 21 Now Isaiah had said, “Prepare a lump of pressed figs and apply it to the boil, and he will recover.”
- 22 And Hezekiah had asked, “What will be the sign that I will go up to the house of the LORD?”

Hezekiah Shows His Treasures (2 Kings 20:12-19)

1 At that time Merodach-baladan son of Baladan king of Babylon sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, for he had heard about Hezekiah’s illness and recovery. 2 And Hezekiah welcomed the envoys gladly and showed them what was in his treasure house—the silver, the gold, the spices, and the precious oil, as well as his entire armory—all that was found in his storehouses. There was nothing in his palace or in all his dominion that Hezekiah did not show them.

† 38:13 Or I cried out; see Targum Yonatan.

<sup>3</sup> Then the prophet Isaiah went to King Hezekiah and asked, "Where did those men come from, and what did they say to you?"

"They came to me from a distant land," Hezekiah replied, "from Babylon."

"They have seen everything in my palace," answered Hezekiah. "There is nothing among my treasures that I did not show them."

<sup>5</sup> Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD of Hosts: <sup>6</sup> The time will surely come when everything in your palace and all that your fathers have stored up until this day will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says the LORD. <sup>7</sup> And some of your descendants, your own flesh and blood, will be taken away to be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon."

<sup>8</sup> But Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of the LORD that you have spoken is good." For he thought, "At least there will be peace and security in my lifetime."

Prepare the Way for the LORD

(Matthew 3:1-12; Mark 1:1-8; Luke 3:1-20; John 1:19-28)

says your God.

<sup>2</sup> "Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and proclaim to her that her forced labor has been completed;
her iniquity has been pardoned.

For she has received from the hand of the LORD
double for all her sins."

<sup>3</sup> A voice of one calling:

"Prepare the way for the LORD in the wilderness;*
make a straight highway for our God in the desert.†

<sup>4</sup> Every valley shall be lifted up,
and every mountain and hill made low;
the uneven ground will become smooth,
and the rugged land a plain.‡

<sup>5</sup> And the glory of the LORD will be revealed, and all humanity together will see it.§

For the mouth of the LORD has spoken."

The Enduring Word

(1 Peter 1:22-25)

And I asked, "What should I cry out?"

"All flesh is like grass,
and all its glory like the flowers of the field.

<sup>7</sup> The grass withers and the flowers fall when the breath of the LORD blows on them;
indeed, the people are grass.

<sup>8</sup> The grass withers and the flowers fall, but the word of our God stands forever."*

Here Is Your God!
(Romans 11:33–36)

- <sup>9</sup> Go up on a high mountain,
 O Zion, herald of good news.
 Raise your voice loudly,
 O Jerusalem, herald of good news.
 Lift it up,†
 do not be afraid!
 Say to the cities of Judah,
 "Here is your God!"
- <sup>10</sup> Behold, the Lord GOD comes with might,
 and His arm establishes His rule.
 His reward is with Him,
 and His recompense accompanies Him.
- <sup>11</sup> He tends His flock like a shepherd;
 He gathers the lambs in His arms and carries them close to His heart.
 He gently leads the nursing ewes.
- <sup>12</sup> Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, or marked off the heavens with the span of his hand?
 Who has held the dust of the earth in a basket, or weighed the mountains on a scale and the hills with a balance?
- <sup>13</sup> Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD,‡ or informed Him as His counselor?§
- <sup>14</sup> Whom did He consult to enlighten Him, and who taught Him the paths of justice?
 Who imparted knowledge to Him and showed Him the way of understanding?
- <sup>15</sup> Surely the nations are like a drop in a bucket;
 they are considered a speck of dust on the scales;
 He lifts up the islands * like fine dust.
- <sup>16</sup> Lebanon is not sufficient for fuel,
 nor its animals enough for a burnt offering.
- <sup>17</sup> All the nations are as nothing before Him;
 He regards them as nothingness and emptiness.
- <sup>18</sup> To whom will you liken God?
 To what image will you compare Him?
- <sup>19</sup> To an idol that a craftsman casts and a metalworker overlays with gold and fits with silver chains?
- <sup>20</sup> To one bereft of an offering who chooses wood that will not rot, who seeks a skilled craftsman to set up an idol that will not topple?
- <sup>21</sup> Do you not know?
 Have you not heard?
 Has it not been declared to you from the beginning?
 Have you not understood since the foundation of the earth?
- <sup>22</sup> He sits enthroned above the circle of the earth;
 its dwellers are like grasshoppers.
 He stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in.

- 23 He brings the princes to nothing and makes the rulers † of the earth meaningless.
- 24 No sooner are they planted, no sooner are they sown,
no sooner have their stems taken root in the ground,
than He blows on them and they wither,
and a whirlwind sweeps them away like stubble.
- 25 “To whom will you liken Me, or who is My equal?” asks the Holy One.
- 26 Lift up your eyes on high:
Who created all these?
He leads forth the starry host by number;
He calls each one by name.
Because of His great power and mighty strength, not one of them is missing.
- 27 Why do you say, O Jacob,
and why do you assert, O Israel,
“My way is hidden from the LORD,
and my claim is ignored by my God”?
- 28 Do you not know?
Have you not heard?
The LORD is the everlasting God,
the Creator of the ends of the earth.
He will not grow tired or weary;
His understanding is beyond searching out.
- 29 He gives power to the faint and increases the strength of the weak.
- 30 Even youths grow tired and weary,
and young men stumble and fall.
- 31 But those who wait upon the LORD will renew their strength;
they will mount up with wings like eagles;
they will run and not grow weary,
they will walk and not faint.

God's Help to Israel

- 1 “Be silent before Me, O islands,* and let the peoples renew their strength.
Let them come forward and testify;
let us together draw near for judgment.
- 2 Who has aroused one from the east and called him to his feet in righteousness †?
He hands nations over to him
and subdues kings before him.
He turns them to dust with his sword,
to windblown chaff with his bow.
- 3 He pursues them, going on safely, hardly touching the path with his feet.
- 4 Who has performed this and carried it out, calling forth the generations from the beginning?
I, the LORD—the first and the last—
I am He.”
- 5 The islands see and fear;
the ends of the earth tremble.
They approach and come forward.
- 6 Each one helps the other

 7 The craftsman encourages the goldsmith, and he who wields the hammer

 He nails it down so it will not be toppled.
- 8 "But you, O Israel, My servant,
 Jacob, whom I have chosen, descendant of Abraham My friend—9 I brought you from the ends of the earth and called you from its farthest corners.
 I said, 'You are My servant.'
 I have chosen and not rejected you.
- 10 Do not fear, for I am with you;
 do not be afraid, for I am your God.
 I will strengthen you; I will surely help you;
 I will uphold you with My right hand of righteousness.
- 11 Behold, all who rage against you will be ashamed and disgraced;
 those who contend with you will be reduced to nothing and will perish.
- 12 You will seek them but will not find them.
 Those who wage war against you will come to nothing.
- 13 For I am the LORD your God, who takes hold of your right hand and tells you: Do not fear,
 I will help you.
- 14 Do not fear, O worm of Jacob,
 O few men of Israel.
 I will help you," declares the LORD.
 "Your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.
- 15 Behold, I will make you into a threshing sledge,
 new and sharp, with many teeth.
 You will thresh the mountains and crush them,
 and reduce the hills to chaff.
- 16 You will winnow them, and a wind will carry them away;
 a gale will scatter them.
 But you will rejoice in the LORD;
 you will glory in the Holy One of Israel.
- 17 The poor and needy seek water, but there is none;
 their tongues are parched with thirst.
 I, the LORD, will answer them;
 I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.
- 18 I will open rivers on the barren heights, and fountains in the middle of the valleys.
 I will turn the desert into a pool of water,
 and the dry land into flowing springs.
- 19 I will plant cedars in the wilderness,
 acacias, myrtles, and olive trees.
 I will set cypresses † in the desert,

 that the hand of the LORD has done this and the Holy One of Israel has created it."

(Matthew 12:15-21)

- 1 "Here is My Servant, whom I uphold,
 My Chosen One, in whom My soul delights.
 I will put My Spirit on Him,
 and He will bring justice to the nations.
- 2 He will not cry out or raise His voice,

 who spread out the earth and its offspring,

§ 41:27 Or Formerly I said to Zion: * 42:4 Or bruised † 42:4 Or In His teaching the coastlands will put their hope; LXX In His name the nations will put their hope; cited in Matthew 12:18-21 and I will take hold of your hand.

I will keep you and appoint you to bring prisoners out of the dungeon

<sup>8</sup> I am the LORD;

I will not yield My glory to another or My praise to idols.
<sup>9</sup> Behold, the former things have happened,

I proclaim them to you.”

A New Song of Praise
(Psalm 98:1-9; Psalm 149:1-9)

<sup>10</sup> Sing to the LORD a new song—
His praise from the ends of the earth—you who go down to the sea, and all that is in it,
you islands,‡ and all who dwell in them.
<sup>11</sup> Let the desert and its cities raise their voices;
let the villages of Kedar cry aloud.
Let the people of Sela sing for joy;
let them cry out from the mountaintops.
<sup>12</sup> Let them give glory to the LORD and declare His praise in the islands.
<sup>13</sup> The LORD goes forth like a mighty one;
He stirs up His zeal like a warrior.
He shouts; yes, He roars
in triumph over His enemies:

<sup>14</sup> “I have kept silent from ages past;
I have remained quiet and restrained.
But now I will groan like a woman in labor;
I will at once gasp and pant.
<sup>15</sup> I will lay waste the mountains and hills and dry up all their vegetation.
I will turn the rivers into dry land §
and drain the marshes.
<sup>16</sup> I will lead the blind by a way they did not know;
I will guide them on unfamiliar paths.
I will turn darkness into light before them
and rough places into level ground.
These things I will do for them,
and I will not forsake them.
<sup>17</sup> But those who trust in idols and say to molten images, ‘You are our gods!’
will be turned back in utter shame.

Israel Is Deaf and Blind

‡ 42:10 Or coastlands; also in verse 12    § 42:15 Or coastlands or islands

18 Listen, you deaf ones;
     look, you blind ones, that you may see!
 19 Who is blind but My servant,
     or deaf like the messenger I am sending?
 Who is blind like My covenant partner, or blind like the servant of the LORD?
 20 Though seeing many things, you do not keep watch.
     Though your ears are open, you do not hear."
 21 The LORD was pleased, for the sake of His righteousness, to magnify His law and make it glorious.
 22 But this is a people plundered and looted,
     all trapped in caves or imprisoned in dungeons.
 They have become plunder with no one to rescue them,
     and loot with no one to say, "Send them back!"
 23 Who among you will pay attention to this?
     Who will listen and obey hereafter?
 24 Who gave Jacob up for spoil, and Israel to the plunderers?
 Was it not the LORD,
     against whom we have sinned?
 They were unwilling to walk in His ways,
     and they would not obey His law.
 25 So He poured out on them His furious anger and the fierceness of battle.
 It enveloped them in flames,
     but they did not understand;
 it consumed them,
     but they did not take it to heart.

Israel's Only Savior

1 Now this is what the LORD says—
     He who created you, O Jacob, and He who formed you, O Israel:
 "Do not fear, for I have redeemed you;
     I have called you by your name; you are Mine!
 2 When you pass through the waters,
     I will be with you;
 and when you go through the rivers,
     they will not overwhelm you.
 When you walk through the fire,
     you will not be scorched;
     the flames will not set you ablaze.
 3 For I am the LORD your God,
     the Holy One of Israel, your Savior;
 I give Egypt for your ransom,
     Cush * and Seba in your place.
 4 Because you are precious and honored in My sight,
     and because I love you,
 I will give men in exchange for you and nations in place of your life.
 5 Do not be afraid, for I am with you;
     I will bring your offspring from the east and gather you from the west.
 6 I will say to the north, 'Give them up!'

* 43:3 That is, the upper Nile region and to the south, 'Do not hold them back!'

 Bring My sons from afar,
 and My daughters from the ends of the earth—7 everyone called by My name and created for My glory, whom I have indeed formed and made."

8 Bring out a people who have eyes but are blind, and who have ears but are deaf.

9 All the nations gather together and the peoples assemble.

Who among them can declare this,
 and proclaim to us the former things?

Let them present their witnesses to vindicate them,
 so that others may hear and say, "It is true."

10 "You are My witnesses," declares the LORD,
 "and My servant whom I have chosen,
 so that you may consider and believe Me and understand that I am He.

Before Me no god was formed, and after Me none will come.

11 I, yes I, am the LORD, and there is no Savior but Me.

12 I alone decreed and saved and proclaimed—
 I, and not some foreign god among you.
 So you are My witnesses," declares the LORD,
 "that I am God.

13 Even from eternity I am He,
 and none can deliver out of My hand.
 When I act, who can reverse it?"

A Way in the Wilderness

14 Thus says the LORD your Redeemer,
 the Holy One of Israel:

"For your sake, I will send to Babylon and bring them all as fugitives, even the Chaldeans,†

in the ships in which they rejoice.

15 I am the LORD, your Holy One,
 the Creator of Israel, and your King."

16 Thus says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea and a path through the surging waters,

17 who brings out the chariots and horses,
 the armies and warriors together;

to lie down, never to rise again;
 to be extinguished, snuffed out like a wick:

18 "Do not call to mind the former things;
 pay no attention to the things of old.

19 Behold, I am about to do something new;
 even now it is coming. Do you not see it?

Indeed, I will make a way in the wilderness
 and streams in the desert.

20 The beasts of the field will honor Me,
 the jackals ‡ and the ostriches,§

because I provide water in the wilderness and rivers in the desert,

† 43:14 That is, the Babylonians    ‡ 43:20 Or serpents or dragons    § 43:20 Literally and daughters of an ostrich or and daughters of an owl to give drink to My chosen people.

<sup>21</sup> The people I formed for Myself will declare My praise.

Israel's Unfaithfulness
(Judges 2:10-15; Jeremiah 2:23-37)

<sup>22</sup> But you have not called on Me, O Jacob, because you have grown weary of Me, O Israel.
<sup>23</sup> You have not brought Me sheep for burnt offerings, nor honored Me with your sacrifices.
I have not burdened you with offerings,
nor wearied you with frankincense.
<sup>24</sup> You have not bought Me sweet cane with your silver, nor satisfied Me with the fat of your sacrifices.
But you have burdened Me with your sins;
you have wearied Me with your iniquities.

<sup>25</sup> I, yes I, am He who blots out your transgressions for My own sake and remembers your sins no more.
<sup>26</sup> Remind Me, let us argue the matter together.
State your case, so that you may be vindicated.
<sup>27</sup> Your first father sinned,
and your spokesmen rebelled against Me.
<sup>28</sup> So I will disgrace the princes of your sanctuary, and I will devote Jacob to destruction * and Israel to reproach."

The LORD Has Chosen Israel

<sup>1</sup> But now listen, O Jacob My servant,
Israel, whom I have chosen.
<sup>2</sup> This is the word of the LORD, your Maker, who formed you from the womb and who will help you:
"Do not be afraid, O Jacob My servant,
Jeshurun,* whom I have chosen.
<sup>3</sup> For I will pour water on the thirsty land,
and currents on the dry ground.
I will pour out My Spirit on your descendants, and My blessing on your offspring.
<sup>4</sup> They will sprout among the grass like willows † by flowing streams.
<sup>5</sup> One will say, 'I belong to the LORD,' another will call himself by the name of Jacob, and still another will write on his hand, 'The LORD's,'
and will take the name of Israel."

the King and Redeemer of Israel, the LORD of Hosts:

"I am the first and I am the last,
and there is no God but Me.

<sup>7</sup> Who then is like Me?

Let him say so!

Let him declare his case before Me,
since I established an ancient people.

* 43:28 Forms of the Hebrew cherem refer to the giving over of things or persons to the LORD, either by destroying them or by giving them as an offering. * 44:2 Jeshurun means the upright one, a term of endearment for Israel.

† 44:4 Or poplars

Let him foretell the things to come,
and what is to take place.

<sup>8</sup> Do not tremble or fear.

Have I not told you and declared it long ago?

You are My witnesses!

Is there any God but Me?

There is no other Rock;

I know not one."

<sup>9</sup> All makers of idols are nothing, and the things they treasure are worthless.

Their witnesses fail to see or comprehend,
so they are put to shame.

<sup>10</sup> Who fashions a god or casts an idol which profits him nothing?

<sup>11</sup> Behold, all his companions will be put to shame, for the craftsmen themselves are only human.

Let them all assemble and take their stand;
they will all be brought to terror and shame.

<sup>12</sup> The blacksmith takes a tool and labors over the coals;
he fashions an idol with hammers and forges it with his strong arms.

Yet he grows hungry and loses his strength;
he fails to drink water and grows faint.

<sup>13</sup> The woodworker extends a measuring line;
he marks it out with a stylus;

he shapes it with chisels and outlines it with a compass.

He fashions it in the likeness of man,
like man in all his glory,
that it may dwell in a shrine.

<sup>14</sup> He cuts down cedars or retrieves a cypress ‡ or oak.

He lets it grow strong among the trees of the forest.
He plants a laurel, and the rain makes it grow.

<sup>15</sup> It serves as fuel for man.

He takes some of it to warm himself, and he kindles a fire

and bakes his bread;
he even fashions it into a god and worships it;
he makes an idol and bows down to it.

<sup>16</sup> He burns half of it in the fire, and he roasts meat on that half.

He eats the roast and is satisfied.
Indeed, he warms himself and says,
"Ah! I am warm; I see the fire."

<sup>17</sup> From the rest he makes a god, his graven image.
He bows down to it and worships;

he prays to it and says,
"Save me, for you are my god."

<sup>18</sup> They do not comprehend or discern, for He has shut their eyes so they cannot see and closed their minds so they cannot understand.

<sup>19</sup> And no one considers in his heart,
no one has the knowledge or insight to say,
"I burned half of it in the fire,
and I baked bread on its coals;
I roasted meat and I ate.

‡ 44:14 Or pine or juniper or fir

Shall I make something detestable with the rest of it?
Shall I bow down to a block of wood?"

<sup>20</sup> He feeds on ashes.

His deluded heart has led him astray,
and he cannot deliver himself or say,
"Is not this thing in my right hand a lie?"

Jerusalem to Be Restored

for you are My servant, O Israel.

I have made you, and you are My servant;
O Israel, I will never forget you.

<sup>22</sup> I have blotted out your transgressions like a cloud, and your sins like a mist.

Return to Me, for I have redeemed you.

<sup>23</sup> Sing for joy, O heavens, for the LORD has done this;
shout aloud, O depths of the earth.

Break forth in song, O mountains,
you forests and all your trees.

For the LORD has redeemed Jacob,
and revealed His glory in Israel.

<sup>24</sup> Thus says the LORD,
your Redeemer who formed you from the womb:

"I am the LORD,
who has made all things,
who alone stretched out the heavens,
who by Myself spread out the earth,

<sup>25</sup> who foils the signs of false prophets and makes fools of diviners, who confounds the wise

and turns their knowledge into nonsense,

<sup>26</sup> who confirms the message of His servant and fulfills the counsel of His messengers,

who says of Jerusalem,
'She will be inhabited,'

and of the cities of Judah,
'They will be rebuilt, and I will restore their ruins,'

<sup>27</sup> who says to the depths of the sea,
'Be dry, and I will dry up your currents,'

<sup>28</sup> who says of Cyrus,
'My shepherd will fulfill all that I desire,'

who says of Jerusalem,
'She will be rebuilt,'

and of the temple,
'Let its foundation be laid.' "

45

God Calls Cyrus

(2 Chronicles 36:22-23; Ezra 1:1-4)

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD says to Cyrus His anointed, whose right hand I have grasped to subdue nations before him,

to disarm kings,

to open the doors before him,
so that the gates will not be shut:

<sup>2</sup> "I will go before you and level the mountains;*

I will break down the gates of bronze
and cut through the bars of iron.

<sup>3</sup> I will give you the treasures of darkness and the riches hidden in secret places,
so that you may know that I am the LORD,
the God of Israel, who calls you by name.

<sup>4</sup> For the sake of Jacob My servant and Israel My chosen one,
I call you by name;
I have given you a title of honor,
though you have not known Me.

<sup>5</sup> I am the LORD, and there is no other;
there is no God but Me.
I will equip you for battle,
though you have not known Me,

<sup>6</sup> so that all may know,
from where the sun rises to where it sets,
that there is none but Me;
I am the LORD, and there is no other.

<sup>7</sup> I form the light and create the darkness;
I bring prosperity and create calamity.
I, the LORD, do all these things.

<sup>8</sup> Drip down, O heavens, from above,
and let the skies pour down righteousness.
Let the earth open up that salvation may sprout and righteousness spring up with it;
I, the LORD, have created it.

<sup>9</sup> Woe to him who quarrels with his Maker—
one clay pot among many.
Does the clay ask the potter,
'What are you making?'†
Does your work say,
'He has no hands'?

<sup>10</sup> Woe to him who says to his father,
'What have you begotten?'
or to his mother,
'What have you brought forth?' "

<sup>11</sup> Thus says the LORD,
the Holy One of Israel, and its Maker:

"How dare you question Me about My sons,
or instruct Me in the work of My hands?

<sup>12</sup> It is I who made the earth and created man upon it.
It was My hands that stretched out the heavens, and I ordained all their host.

<sup>13</sup> I will raise up Cyrus in righteousness, and I will make all his ways straight.
He will rebuild My city
and set My exiles free,
but not for payment or reward,
says the LORD of Hosts."

<sup>14</sup> This is what the LORD says:

* 45:2 DSS and LXX; MT level the terrain † 45:9 Cited in Romans 9:20

“The products of Egypt and the merchandise of Cush,‡ along with the Sabeans, men of stature, will come over to you
 and will be yours;
 they will trudge behind you;
 they will come over in chains and bow down to you.
 They will confess to you:
 ‘God is indeed with you, and there is no other;
 there is no other God.’ ”

15 Truly You are a God who hides Himself,
 O God of Israel, the Savior.
 16 They will all be put to shame and humiliated;
 the makers of idols will depart together in disgrace.
 17 But Israel will be saved by the LORD with an everlasting salvation;
 you will not be put to shame or humiliated,
 to ages everlasting.
 18 For thus says the LORD,
 who created the heavens—He is God;
 He formed the earth and fashioned it;
 He established it;
 He did not create it to be empty,
 but formed it to be inhabited:

“I am the LORD,
 and there is no other.
 19 I have not spoken in secret,
 from a place in a land of darkness.
 I did not say to the descendants of Jacob,
 ‘Seek Me in a wasteland.’
 I, the LORD, speak the truth;
 I say what is right.

20 Come, gather together, and draw near,
 you fugitives from the nations.
 Ignorant are those who carry idols of wood and pray to a god that cannot save.
 21 Speak up and present your case—
 yes, let them take counsel together.
 Who foretold this long ago?
 Who announced it from ancient times?
 Was it not I, the LORD?
 There is no other God but Me,
 a righteous God and Savior;
 there is none but Me.

22 Turn to Me and be saved,
 all the ends of the earth;
 for I am God,
 and there is no other.
 23 By Myself I have sworn;
 truth has gone out from My mouth, a word that will not be revoked:
 Every knee will bow before Me,
 every tongue will swear allegiance.§
 24 Surely they will say of Me,
 ‘In the LORD alone are righteousness and strength.’ ”

‡ 45:14 That is, the upper Nile region    § 45:23 Literally every tongue will swear; LXX every tongue will swear by God; cited in Romans 14:11

All who rage against Him will come to Him and be put to shame.
 25 In the LORD all descendants of Israel will be justified and will exult.

Babylon's Idols

1 Bel crouches; Nebo cowers.
 Their idols weigh down beasts and cattle.
 The images you carry are burdensome,
 a load to the weary animal.
 2 The gods cower; they crouch together, unable to relieve the burden;
 but they themselves go into captivity.
 3 "Listen to Me, O house of Jacob,
 all the remnant of the house of Israel,
 who have been sustained from the womb,
 carried along since birth.
 4 Even to your old age, I will be the same,
 and I will bear you up when you turn gray.
 I have made you, and I will carry you;
 I will sustain you and deliver you.
 5 To whom will you liken Me or count Me equal?
 To whom will you compare Me, that we should be alike?
 6 They pour out their bags of gold and weigh out silver on scales;
 they hire a goldsmith to fashion it into a god,
 so they can bow down and worship.
 7 They lift it to their shoulder and carry it along;
 they set it in its place, and there it stands,
 not budging from that spot.
 They cry out to it, but it does not answer;
 it saves no one from his troubles.
 8 Remember this and be brave;
 take it to heart, you transgressors!
 9 Remember what happened long ago,
 for I am God, and there is no other;
 I am God, and there is none like Me.
 10 I declare the end from the beginning, and ancient times from what is still to come.
 I say, 'My purpose will stand,
 and all My good pleasure I will accomplish.'
 11 I summon a bird of prey from the east,
 a man for My purpose from a far-off land.
 Truly I have spoken,
 and truly I will bring it to pass.
 I have planned it,
 and I will surely do it.
 12 Listen to Me, you stubborn people, far removed from righteousness:
 13 I am bringing My righteousness near;
 it is not far away, and My salvation will not be delayed.
 I will grant salvation to Zion and adorn Israel with My splendor.

The Humiliation of Babylon

- 1 "Go down and sit in the dust,
 O Virgin Daughter of Babylon.
 Sit on the ground without a throne,
 O Daughter of Chaldea!*"

For you will no longer be called tender or delicate.
- 2 Take millstones and grind flour;
 remove your veil;
 strip off your skirt, bare your thigh,
 and wade through the streams.
- 3 Your nakedness will be uncovered and your shame will be exposed.
 I will take vengeance;
 I will spare no one."
- 4 Our Redeemer—the LORD of Hosts is His name—is the Holy One of Israel.
- 5 "Sit in silence and go into darkness,
 O Daughter of Chaldea.
 For you will no longer be called
 the queen of kingdoms.
- 6 I was angry with My people;
 I profaned My heritage,
 and I placed them under your control.
 You showed them no mercy;
 even on the elderly you laid a most heavy yoke.
- 7 You said, 'I will be queen forever.'
 You did not take these things to heart or consider their outcome.
- 8 So now hear this,
 O lover of luxury who sits securely,
 who says to herself,
 'I am, and there is none besides me.
 I will never be a widow or know the loss of children.'
- 9 These two things will overtake you in a moment,
 in a single day:
 loss of children, and widowhood.
 They will come upon you in full measure, in spite of your many sorceries and the potency of your spells.
- 10 You were secure in your wickedness;
 you said, 'No one sees me.'
 Your wisdom and knowledge led you astray;
 you told yourself, 'I am, and there is none besides me.'
- 11 But disaster will come upon you;
 you will not know how to charm it away.
 A calamity will befall you that you will be unable to ward off.
 Devastation will happen to you suddenly and unexpectedly.
- 12 So take your stand with your spells and with your many sorceries, with which you have wearied yourself

---

* 47:1 That is, Babylon; also in verse 5

from your youth.
 Perhaps you will succeed;
     perhaps you will inspire terror!
<sup>13</sup> You are wearied by your many counselors;
     let them come forward now and save you—your astrologers who observe the stars, who monthly predict your fate.
<sup>14</sup> Surely they are like stubble;
     the fire will burn them up.
 They cannot deliver themselves from the power of the flame.
 There will be no coals to warm them or fire to sit beside.
<sup>15</sup> This is what they are to you—those with whom you have labored and traded from youth—each one strays in his own direction;
     not one of them can save you.

48

Israel's Stubbornness

<sup>1</sup> "Listen to this, O house of Jacob,
     you who are called by the name of Israel,
 who have descended from the line of Judah,
     who swear by the name of the LORD, who invoke the God of Israel—
     but not in truth or righteousness—<sup>2</sup> who indeed call yourselves after the holy city and lean on the God of Israel;
     the LORD of Hosts is His name.
<sup>3</sup> I foretold the former things long ago;
     they came out of My mouth and I proclaimed them.
     Suddenly I acted, and they came to pass.
<sup>4</sup> For I knew that you are stubborn;
     your neck is iron and your forehead is bronze.
<sup>5</sup> Therefore I declared it to you long ago;
     I announced it before it came to pass,
 so that you could not claim, 'My idol has done this;
     my carved image and molten god has ordained it.'
<sup>6</sup> You have heard these things; look at them all.
     Will you not acknowledge them?

 From now on I will tell you of new things,
     hidden things unknown to you.
<sup>7</sup> They are created now, and not long ago;
     you have not heard of them before today.
 So you cannot claim,
     'I already knew them!'
<sup>8</sup> You have never heard; you have never understood;
     for a long time your ears have not been open.
 For I knew how deceitful you are;
     you have been called a rebel from birth.

<sup>9</sup> For the sake of My name I will delay My wrath;
     for the sake of My praise I will restrain it,
     so that you will not be cut off.
<sup>10</sup> See, I have refined you, but not as silver;
     I have tested you in the furnace of affliction.
<sup>11</sup> For My own sake, My very own sake, I will act;
     for how can I let Myself be defamed?

I will not yield My glory to another.

Deliverance Promised to Israel

<sup>12</sup> Listen to Me, O Jacob, and Israel, whom I have called:

I am He; I am the first,
and I am the last.

<sup>13</sup> Surely My own hand founded the earth, and My right hand spread out the heavens;

when I summon them,
they stand up together.

<sup>14</sup> Come together, all of you, and listen:
Which of the idols has foretold these things?

The LORD's chosen ally will carry out His desire against Babylon, and His arm will be against the Chaldeans.*

<sup>15</sup> I, even I, have spoken;
yes, I have called him.

I have brought him,
and he will succeed in his mission.

<sup>16</sup> Come near to Me and listen to this:

From the beginning I have not spoken in secret;
from the time it happened, I was there."

And now the Lord GOD has sent me, accompanied by His Spirit.

<sup>17</sup> Thus says the LORD your Redeemer,
the Holy One of Israel:

"I am the LORD your God,
who teaches you for your benefit,
who directs you in the way you should go.

<sup>18</sup> If only you had paid attention to My commandments, your peace would have been like a river,
and your righteousness like waves of the sea.

<sup>19</sup> Your descendants would have been as countless as the sand, and your offspring as numerous as its grains;†

their name would never be cut off or eliminated from My presence."

<sup>20</sup> Leave Babylon!

Flee from the Chaldeans!
Declare it with a shout of joy,
proclaim it,

let it go out to the ends of the earth, saying,
"The LORD has redeemed His servant Jacob!"

<sup>21</sup> They did not thirst when He led them through the deserts;
He made water flow for them from the rock;
He split the rock, and water gushed out.

<sup>22</sup> "There is no peace," says the LORD,
"for the wicked."

The Servant and Light to the Gentiles
(Acts 13:42-52)

* 48:14 That is, the Babylonians; also in verse 20 † 48:19 Literally like the sand, and your offspring like its grains

pay attention, O distant peoples:

The LORD called Me from the womb;
from the body of My mother He named Me.

<sup>2</sup> He made My mouth like a sharp sword;
He hid Me in the shadow of His hand.

He made Me like a polished arrow;
He hid Me in His quiver.

<sup>3</sup> He said to Me, "You are My Servant, Israel, in whom I will display My glory."

<sup>4</sup> But I said, "I have labored in vain,
I have spent My strength in futility and vanity;
yet My vindication is with the LORD,
and My reward is with My God."

<sup>5</sup> And now says the LORD, who formed Me from the womb to be His Servant,
to bring Jacob back to Him,
that Israel might be gathered to Him—for I am honored in the sight of the LORD, and My God is My strength—

<sup>6</sup> He says: "It is not enough for You to be My Servant, to raise up the tribes of Jacob,
and to restore the protected ones of Israel.
I will also make You a light for the nations, to bring My salvation to the ends of the earth."†

<sup>7</sup> Thus says the LORD,
the Redeemer and Holy One of Israel, to Him who was despised and abhorred by the nation,
to the Servant of rulers:

"Kings will see You and rise,
and princes will bow down,
because of the LORD, who is faithful,
the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen You."

<sup>8</sup> This is what the LORD says:

"In the time of favor I will answer You, and in the day of salvation I will help You;‡
I will keep You and appoint You to be a covenant for the people,
to restore the land,
to apportion its desolate inheritances,

<sup>9</sup> to say to the prisoners, 'Come out,'
and to those in darkness, 'Show yourselves.'
They will feed along the pathways, and find pasture on every barren hill.

<sup>10</sup> They will not hunger or thirst, nor will scorching heat or sun beat down on them.§
For He who has compassion on them will guide them and lead them beside springs of water.

<sup>11</sup> I will turn all My mountains into roads, and My highways will be raised up.

<sup>12</sup> Behold, they will come from far away, from the north and from the west,*

* 49:1 Or coastlands † 49:6 Cited in Acts 13:47 ‡ 49:8 LXX In the time of favor I heard You, and in the day of salvation I helped You; cited in 2 Corinthians 6:2 § 49:10 Cited in Revelation 7:16 * 49:12 Or from the sea

13 Shout for joy, O heavens; rejoice, O earth;
break forth in song, O mountains!
For the LORD has comforted His people,
and He will have compassion on His afflicted ones.

14 But Zion said, "The LORD has forsaken me;
the Lord has forgotten me!"

15 "Can a woman forget her nursing child, or lack compassion for the son of her womb?
Even if she could forget,
I will not forget you!

16 Behold, I have inscribed you on the palms of My hands;
your walls are ever before Me.

17 Your builders ‡ hasten back;
your destroyers and wreckers depart from you.

18 Lift up your eyes and look around.
They all gather together; they come to you.

As surely as I live," declares the LORD,
"you will wear them all as jewelry and put them on like a bride.

19 For your ruined and desolate places and your ravaged land
will now indeed be too small for your people,
and those who devoured you will be far away.

20 Yet the children of your bereavement will say in your hearing,
'This place is too small for us;
make room for us to live here.'

21 Then you will say in your heart,
'Who has begotten these for me?

I was bereaved and barren;
I was exiled and rejected.
So who has reared them?

Look, I was left all alone,
so where did they come from?' "

22 This is what the Lord GOD says:

"Behold, I will lift up My hand to the nations,
and raise My banner to the peoples.

They will bring your sons in their arms § and carry your daughters on their shoulders.

23 Kings will be your foster fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers.

They will bow to you facedown and lick the dust at your feet.

Then you will know that I am the LORD;
those who hope in Me will never be put to shame."

24 Can the plunder be snatched from the mighty, or the captives of a tyrant * be delivered?

Israel's Sin

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD says:

"Where is your mother's certificate of divorce with which I sent her away?
 Or to which of My creditors
 did I sell you?
 Look, you were sold for your iniquities,
 and for your transgressions your mother was sent away.
<sup>2</sup> Why was no one there when I arrived?
 Why did no one answer when I called?
 Is My hand too short to redeem you?
 Or do I lack the strength to deliver you?
 Behold, My rebuke dries up the sea;
 I turn the rivers into a desert;
 the fish rot for lack of water and die of thirst.
<sup>3</sup> I clothe the heavens in black and make sackcloth their covering."

The Servant's Obedience

(Matthew 27:27-31; Mark 15:16-20; Luke 22:63-65; John 19:1-15)

<sup>4</sup> The Lord GOD has given Me the tongue of discipleship, to sustain the weary with a word.
 He awakens Me morning by morning;
 He awakens My ear to listen as a disciple.
<sup>5</sup> The Lord GOD has opened My ears, and I have not been rebellious,
 nor have I turned back.
<sup>6</sup> I offered My back to those who struck Me, and My cheeks to those who tore out My beard.
 I did not hide My face from scorn and spittle.
<sup>7</sup> Because the Lord GOD helps Me,
 I have not been disgraced;
 therefore I have set My face like flint,
 and I know that I will not be put to shame.
<sup>8</sup> The One who vindicates Me is near:
 Who will dare to contend with Me?
 Let us confront each other!
 Who has a case against Me?
 Let him approach Me!
<sup>9</sup> Surely the Lord GOD helps Me.
 Who is there to condemn Me?
 See, they will all wear out like a garment;
 the moths will devour them.
<sup>10</sup> Who among you fears the LORD and obeys the voice of His Servant?
 Who among you walks in darkness and has no light?

 Let him trust in the name of the LORD;
 let him lean on his God.
 11 Behold, all you who kindle a fire, who array yourselves with firebrands, walk in the light of your fire
 and of the firebrands you have lit!
 This is what you will receive from My hand:
 You will lie down in a place of torment.

Salvation for Zion

1 "Listen to Me, you who pursue righteousness, you who seek the LORD:
 Look to the rock from which you were cut,
 and to the quarry from which you were hewn.
 2 Look to Abraham your father,
 and to Sarah who gave you birth.
 When I called him, he was but one;
 then I blessed him and multiplied him.
 3 For the LORD will comfort Zion and will look with compassion on all her ruins;
 He will make her wilderness like Eden and her desert like the garden of the LORD.
 Joy and gladness will be found in her,
 thanksgiving and melodious song.
 4 Pay attention to Me, My people, and listen to Me, My nation;
 for a law will go out from Me,
 and My justice will become a light to the nations;
 I will bring it about quickly.
 5 My righteousness draws near,
 My salvation is on the way,
 and My arms will bring justice to the nations.
 The islands * will look for Me and wait in hope for My arm.
 6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens,
 and look at the earth below;
 for the heavens will vanish like smoke,
 the earth will wear out like a garment,
 and its people will die like gnats.
 But My salvation will last forever,
 and My righteousness will never fail.
 7 Listen to Me, you who know what is right,
 you people with My law in your hearts:
 Do not fear the scorn of men;
 do not be broken by their insults.
 8 For the moth will devour them like a garment, and the worm will eat them like wool.
 But My righteousness will last forever,
 My salvation through all generations."
 9 Awake, awake,
 put on strength, O arm of the LORD.
 Wake up as in days past,
 as in generations of old.

* 51:5 Or coastlands

- Was it not You who cut Rahab to pieces,
 who pierced through the dragon?
 10 Was it not You who dried up the sea,
 the waters of the great deep,
 who made a road in the depths of the sea
 for the redeemed to cross over?
 11 So the redeemed of the LORD will return
 and enter Zion with singing,
 crowned with everlasting joy.
 Gladness and joy will overtake them,
 and sorrow and sighing will flee.
- 12 "I, even I, am He who comforts you.
 Why should you be afraid of mortal man,
 of a son of man who withers like grass?
 13 But you have forgotten the LORD, your Maker, who stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth.
 You live in terror all day long because of the fury of the oppressor who is bent on destruction.
 But where is the fury of the oppressor?
 14 The captive will soon be freed;
 he will not die in the dungeon,
 and his bread will not be lacking.
 15 For I am the LORD your God who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar—
 the LORD of Hosts is His name.
 16 I have put My words in your mouth, and covered you with the shadow of My hand,
 to establish † the heavens, to found the earth, and to say to Zion, 'You are My people.' "

God's Fury Removed

- 17 Awake, awake!
 Rise up, O Jerusalem,
 you who have drunk from the hand of the LORD
 the cup of His fury;
 you who have drained the goblet to the dregs—
 the cup that makes men stagger.
 18 Among all the sons she bore,
 there is no one to guide her;
 among all the sons she brought up,
 there is no one to take her hand.
 19 These pairs have befallen you:
 devastation and destruction,
 famine and sword.
 Who will grieve for you?
 Who can comfort you?‡
 20 Your sons have fainted;
 they lie at the head of every street,
 like an antelope in a net.
 They are full of the wrath of the LORD,
 the rebuke of your God.
- 21 Therefore now hear this, you afflicted one,
 drunken, but not with wine.
 22 Thus says your Lord, the LORD,
 even your God, who defends His people:

† 51:16 Or to plant ‡ 51:19 DSS, LXX, Syriac, and Vulgate; MT How can I comfort you?

“See, I have removed from your hand
the cup of staggering.
From that goblet, the cup of My fury,
you will never drink again.
<sup>23</sup> I will place it in the hands of your tormentors, who told you: ‘Lie down, so we can walk over you,’
so that you made your back like the ground,
like a street to be traversed.”

Deliverance for Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> Awake, awake, clothe yourself with strength, O Zion!
Put on your garments of splendor,
O Jerusalem, holy city!
For the uncircumcised and unclean will no longer enter you.
<sup>2</sup> Shake off your dust!
Rise up and sit on your throne, O Jerusalem.
Remove the chains from your neck,
O captive Daughter of Zion.
<sup>3</sup> For this is what the LORD says:
“You were sold for nothing,
and without money you will be redeemed.”
<sup>4</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD says:
“<sup>4</sup> At first My people went down to Egypt to live, then Assyria oppressed them without cause.
<sup>5</sup> And now what have I here?
declares the LORD.
For My people have been taken without cause;
those who rule them taunt,*
declares the LORD,
and My name is blasphemed continually all day long.† <sup>6</sup> Therefore My people will know My name;
therefore they will know on that day
that I am He who speaks.
Here I am!”
<sup>7</sup> How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of those who bring good news,‡ who proclaim peace, who bring good tidings, who proclaim salvation,
who say to Zion, “Your God reigns!”
<sup>8</sup> Listen! Your watchmen lift up their voices, together they shout for joy.
For every eye will see
when the LORD returns to Zion.
<sup>9</sup> Break forth in joy, sing together,
O ruins of Jerusalem,
for the LORD has comforted His people;
He has redeemed Jerusalem.
<sup>10</sup> The LORD has bared His holy arm
in the sight of all the nations;

* 52:5 DSS and Vulgate; MT wail † 52:5 LXX—on account of you My name is blasphemed continually among the Gentiles; cited in Romans 2:24 ‡ 52:7 Cited in Romans 10:15 all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God.

<sup>11</sup> Depart, depart, go out from there!
Touch no unclean thing;§
come out from it, purify yourselves, you who carry the vessels of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> For you will not leave in a hurry
nor flee in haste,
for the LORD goes before you,
and the God of Israel is your rear guard.

The Servant Exalted
(Philippians 2:5-11)

<sup>13</sup> Behold, My Servant will prosper;*
He will be raised and lifted up and highly exalted.
<sup>14</sup> Just as many were appalled at Him †—
His appearance was disfigured beyond that of any man, and His form was marred beyond human likeness—<sup>15</sup> so He will sprinkle ‡ many nations.
Kings will shut their mouths because of Him.
For they will see what they have not been told,
and they will understand what they have not heard.§

The Suffering Servant
(Acts 8:26-40; 1 Peter 2:21-25)

<sup>1</sup> Who has believed our message?
And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?*

<sup>2</sup> He grew up before Him like a tender shoot, and like a root out of dry ground.
He had no stately form or majesty to attract us,
no beauty that we should desire Him.

<sup>3</sup> He was despised and rejected by men,
a man of sorrows, acquainted with grief.
Like one from whom men hide their faces,
He was despised, and we esteemed Him not.

<sup>4</sup> Surely He took on our infirmities and carried our sorrows;†
yet we considered Him stricken by God, struck down and afflicted.

<sup>5</sup> But He was pierced for our transgressions,
He was crushed for our iniquities;
the punishment that brought us peace was upon Him,
and by His stripes we are healed.‡

<sup>6</sup> We all like sheep have gone astray,§ each one has turned to his own way;
and the LORD has laid upon Him
the iniquity of us all.

<sup>7</sup> He was oppressed and afflicted, yet He did not open His mouth.
He was led like a lamb to the slaughter,

§ 52:11 Cited in 2 Corinthians 6:17 * 52:13 Or will act wisely † 52:14 Syriac; Hebrew at You ‡ 52:15 Or startle § 52:15 LXX For those who were not told will see, and those who have not heard will understand. and as a sheep before her shearers is silent, so He did not open His mouth.

<sup>8</sup> By oppression and judgment He was taken away, and who can recount His descendants?

For He was cut off from the land of the living;*
He was stricken for the transgression of My people.

A Grave Assigned

(Matthew 27:57-61; Mark 15:42-47; Luke 23:50-56; John 19:38-42)

<sup>9</sup> He was assigned a grave with the wicked, and with a rich man in His death,
although He had done no violence,
nor was any deceit in His mouth.†

<sup>10</sup> Yet it was the LORD's will to crush Him and to cause Him to suffer;
and when His soul is made a guilt offering,‡
He will see His offspring, He will prolong His days, and the good pleasure of the LORD will prosper in His hand.

He will see the light of life § and be satisfied.
By His knowledge My righteous Servant will justify many,
and He will bear their iniquities.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore I will allot Him a portion with the great,* and He will divide the spoils with the strong,† because He has poured out His life unto death, and He was numbered with the transgressors.‡

Yet He bore the sin of many and made intercession for the transgressors.

Future Blessings for Zion

<sup>1</sup> "Shout for joy, O barren woman,
who bears no children;
break forth in song and cry aloud,
you who have never travailed;
because more are the children of the desolate woman
than of her who has a husband,"*

says the LORD.

<sup>2</sup> "Enlarge the site of your tent, stretch out the curtains of your dwellings,
do not hold back.

Lengthen your ropes
and drive your stakes in deep.†

<sup>3</sup> For you will spread out to the right and left;
your descendants will dispossess the nations and inhabit the desolate cities.

<sup>4</sup> Do not be afraid, for you will not be put to shame;
do not be intimidated, for you will not be humiliated.
For you will forget the shame of your youth and will remember no more the reproach of your widowhood.

says your God.

<sup>7</sup> "For a brief moment I forsook you,
but with great compassion I will bring you back.

<sup>8</sup> In a surge of anger
I hid My face from you for a moment, but with everlasting kindness I will have compassion on you,"
says the LORD your Redeemer.

<sup>9</sup> "For to Me this is like the days of Noah,‡
when I swore that the waters of Noah would never again cover the earth.

So I have sworn that I will not be angry with you or rebuke you.

<sup>10</sup> Though the mountains may be removed and the hills may be shaken,
My loving devotion will not depart from you,
and My covenant of peace will not be broken,"
says the LORD, who has compassion on you.

<sup>11</sup> "O afflicted city, lashed by storms, without solace,
surely I will set your stones in antimony and lay your foundations with sapphires.§

<sup>12</sup> I will make your pinnacles of rubies, your gates of sparkling jewels,
and all your walls of precious stones.

<sup>13</sup> Then all your sons will be taught by the LORD,* and great will be their prosperity.

<sup>14</sup> In righteousness you will be established, far from oppression,
for you will have no fear.
Terror will be far removed,
for it will not come near you.

<sup>15</sup> If anyone attacks you, it is not from Me;
whoever assails you will fall before you.

<sup>16</sup> Behold, I have created the craftsman who fans the coals into flame and forges a weapon fit for its task;
and I have created the destroyer to wreak havoc.

<sup>17</sup> No weapon formed against you shall prosper,
and you will refute every tongue that accuses you.
This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD,
and their vindication is from Me,"

declares the LORD.

Invitation to the Needy

<sup>1</sup> "Come, all you who are thirsty, come to the waters;
and you without money,

come, buy, and eat!
 Come, buy wine and milk without money and without cost!
<sup>2</sup> Why spend money on that which is not bread, and your labor on that which does not satisfy?
 Listen carefully to Me, and eat what is good,
 and your soul will delight in the richest of foods.
<sup>3</sup> Incline your ear and come to Me;
 listen, so that your soul may live.
 I will make with you an everlasting covenant—
 My loving devotion promised to David.*
<sup>4</sup> Behold, I have made him a witness to the nations, a leader and commander of the peoples.
<sup>5</sup> Surely you will summon a nation you do not know, and nations who do not know you will run to you.
 For the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, has bestowed glory on you.”
<sup>6</sup> Seek the LORD while He may be found;
 call on Him while He is near.
<sup>7</sup> Let the wicked man forsake his own way and the unrighteous man his own thoughts;
 let him return to the LORD,
 that He may have compassion,
 and to our God,
 for He will freely pardon.
<sup>8</sup> “For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways,” <sup>9</sup> “For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so My ways are higher than your ways and My thoughts than your thoughts.
<sup>10</sup> For just as rain and snow fall from heaven and do not return without watering the earth, making it bud and sprout,
 and providing seed to sow and food to eat, <sup>11</sup> so My word that proceeds from My mouth will not return to Me empty,
 but it will accomplish what I please,
 and it will prosper where I send it.
<sup>12</sup> You will indeed go out with joy and be led forth in peace;
 the mountains and hills will burst into song before you,
 and all the trees of the field will clap their hands.
<sup>13</sup> Instead of the thornbush, a cypress † will grow, and instead of the brier, a myrtle will spring up;
 they will make a name for the LORD,
 an everlasting sign, never to be destroyed.”

declares the LORD.

Salvation for Foreigners

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“Maintain justice and do what is right, for My salvation is coming soon,
 and My righteousness will be revealed.

* 55:3 Cited in Acts 13:34 † 55:13 Or pine or juniper or fir

<sup>2</sup> Blessed is the man who does this,
and the son of man who holds it fast, who keeps the Sabbath without profaning it and keeps his hand from doing any evil."

<sup>3</sup> Let no foreigner who has joined himself to the LORD say,
"The LORD will utterly exclude me from His people."
And let the eunuch not say,
"I am but a dry tree."

<sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD says:

"To the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths, who choose what pleases Me and hold fast to My covenant—<sup>5</sup> I will give them, in My house and within My walls, a memorial and a name
better than that of sons and daughters.
I will give them an everlasting name that will not be cut off.

<sup>6</sup> And the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD to minister to Him,
to love the name of the LORD,
and to be His servants—

all who keep the Sabbath without profaning it and who hold fast to My covenant—<sup>7</sup> I will bring them to My holy mountain and make them joyful in My house of prayer.
Their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be accepted on My altar, for My house will be called a house of prayer *
for all the nations."

<sup>8</sup> Thus declares the Lord GOD, who gathers the dispersed of Israel:

"I will gather to them still others besides those already gathered."

Israel's Sinful Leaders

<sup>9</sup> Come, all you beasts of the field;
eat greedily, all you beasts of the forest.

<sup>10</sup> Israel's watchmen are blind,
they are all oblivious;
they are all mute dogs,
they cannot bark;
they are dreamers lying around,
loving to slumber.

<sup>11</sup> Like ravenous dogs,
they are never satisfied.
They are shepherds with no discernment;
they all turn to their own way,
each one seeking his own gain:

<sup>12</sup> "Come, let me get the wine,
let us imbibe the strong drink,
and tomorrow will be like today,
only far better!"

The Blessed Death of the Righteous

<sup>1</sup> The righteous perish, and no one takes it to heart;
devout men are swept away, while no one considers that the righteous are guided from the presence of evil.

<sup>2</sup> Those who walk uprightly enter into peace;
they find rest, lying down in death.

God Condemns Idolatry

<sup>3</sup> "But come here, you sons of a sorceress, you offspring of adulterers and prostitutes!

<sup>4</sup> Whom are you mocking?
At whom do you snarl and stick out your tongue?
Are you not children of transgression,
offspring of deceit,

<sup>5</sup> who burn with lust among the oaks,
under every luxuriant tree,
who slaughter your children in the valleys,
under the clefts of the rocks?

<sup>6</sup> Your portion is among the smooth stones of the valley;
indeed, they are your lot.

Even to them you have poured out a drink offering and offered a grain offering.
Should I relent because of these?

<sup>7</sup> On a high and lofty hill you have made your bed, and there you went up to offer sacrifices.

<sup>8</sup> Behind the door and doorpost you have set up your memorial.
Forsaking Me, you uncovered your bed;
you climbed up and opened it wide.
And you have made a pact with those whose bed you have loved;
you have gazed upon their nakedness.

<sup>9</sup> You went to Molech * with oil and multiplied your perfumes.
You have sent your envoys † a great distance;
you have descended even to Sheol itself.

<sup>10</sup> You are wearied by your many journeys, but you did not say, "There is no hope!"
You found renewal of your strength;
therefore you did not grow weak.

<sup>11</sup> Whom have you dreaded and feared, so that you lied and failed to remember Me or take this to heart?
Is it not because I have long been silent that you do not fear Me?

<sup>12</sup> I will expose your righteousness and your works, and they will not profit you.

<sup>13</sup> When you cry out, let your companies of idols deliver you!
Yet the wind will carry off all of them,
a breath will take them away.
But he who seeks refuge in Me will inherit the land

* 57:9 Or to the king † 57:9 Or idols and possess My holy mountain.”

Healing for the Repentant

14 And it will be said,

“Build it up, build it up, prepare the way,
take every obstacle out of the way of My people.”

15 For thus says the One who is high and lifted up, who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy:

“I dwell in a high and holy place,
and with the oppressed and humble in spirit,
to restore the spirit of the lowly and revive the heart of the contrite.

16 For I will not accuse you forever, nor will I always be angry;
for then the spirit of man would grow weak before Me,
with the breath of those I have made.

17 I was enraged by his sinful greed,
so I struck him and hid My face in anger;
yet he kept turning back to the desires of his heart.

18 I have seen his ways,
but I will heal him;

I will guide him and restore comfort
to him and his mourners, 19 bringing praise to their lips.

Peace, peace to those far and near,” says the LORD,
“and I will heal them.”

20 But the wicked are like the storm-tossed sea, for it cannot be still,
and its waves churn up mire and muck.

21 “There is no peace,” says my God,
“for the wicked.”

58

True Fasts and Sabbaths

1 “Cry aloud, do not hold back!
Raise your voice like a ram’s horn.
Declare to My people their transgression and to the house of Jacob their sins.

2 For day after day they seek Me and delight to know My ways, like a nation that does what is right and does not forsake the justice of their God.
They ask Me for righteous judgments;
they delight in the nearness of God.”

3 “Why have we fasted,
and You have not seen?
Why have we humbled ourselves,
and You have not noticed?”

“Behold, on the day of your fast, you do as you please, and you oppress all your workers.

4 You fast with contention and strife to strike viciously with your fist.

 You cannot fast as you do today and have your voice be heard on high.

<sup>5</sup> Is this the fast I have chosen:
 a day for a man to deny himself,
 to bow his head like a reed,
 and to spread out sackcloth and ashes?
 Will you call this a fast and a day acceptable to the LORD?

<sup>6</sup> Isn't this the fast that I have chosen:
 to break the chains of wickedness,
 to untie the cords of the yoke, to set the oppressed free
 and tear off every yoke?

<sup>7</sup> Isn't it to share your bread with the hungry, to bring the poor and homeless into your home,
 to clothe the naked when you see him,
 and not to turn away
 from your own flesh and blood?

<sup>8</sup> Then your light will break forth like the dawn,
 and your healing will come quickly.
 Your righteousness will go before you,
 and the glory of the LORD will be your rear guard.

<sup>9</sup> Then you will call, and the LORD will answer;
 you will cry out, and He will say, 'Here I am.'

If you remove the yoke from your midst,
 the pointing of the finger and malicious talk,

<sup>10</sup> and if you give yourself to the hungry and satisfy the afflicted soul,
 then your light will go forth in the darkness,
 and your night will be like noonday.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD will always guide you;
 He will satisfy you in a sun-scorched land and strengthen your frame.

You will be like a well-watered garden,
 like a spring whose waters never fail.

<sup>12</sup> Your people will rebuild the ancient ruins;
 you will restore the age-old foundations;
 you will be called Repairer of the Breach,
 Restorer of the Streets of Dwelling.

<sup>13</sup> If you turn your foot from breaking the Sabbath, from doing as you please on My holy day,
 if you call the Sabbath a delight,
 and the LORD's holy day honorable,
 if you honor it by not going your own way or seeking your own pleasure or speaking idle words,

<sup>14</sup> then you will delight yourself in the LORD, and I will make you ride on the heights of the land and feed you with the heritage of your father Jacob."

For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

Sin Separates Us from God

(Psalm 14:1-7; Psalm 53:1-6; Romans 3:9-20)

<sup>1</sup> Surely the arm of the LORD is not too short to save, nor His ear too dull to hear.

<sup>2</sup> But your iniquities have built barriers between you and your God,

and your sins have hidden His face from you,
so that He does not hear.

<sup>3</sup> For your hands are stained with blood, and your fingers with iniquity;
your lips have spoken lies,
and your tongue mutters injustice.

<sup>4</sup> No one calls for justice;
no one pleads his case honestly.
They rely on empty pleas; they tell lies;
they conceive mischief and give birth to iniquity.

<sup>5</sup> They hatch the eggs of vipers and weave a spider's web.
Whoever eats their eggs will die;
crack one open, and a viper is hatched.

<sup>6</sup> Their cobwebs cannot be made into clothing, and they cannot cover themselves with their works.
Their deeds are sinful deeds,
and acts of violence are in their hands.

<sup>7</sup> Their feet run to evil;
they are swift to shed innocent blood.
Their thoughts are sinful thoughts;
ruin and destruction * lie in their wake.

<sup>8</sup> The way of peace they have not known,† and there is no justice in their tracks.
They have turned them into crooked paths;
no one who treads on them will know peace.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore justice is far from us,
and righteousness does not reach us.
We hope for light, but there is darkness;
for brightness, but we walk in gloom.

<sup>10</sup> Like the blind, we feel our way along the wall, groping like those without eyes.
We stumble at midday as in the twilight;
among the vigorous we are like the dead.

<sup>11</sup> We all growl like bears and moan like doves.
We hope for justice, but find none,
for salvation, but it is far from us.

<sup>12</sup> For our transgressions are multiplied before You,
and our sins testify against us.
Our transgressions are indeed with us,
and we know our iniquities:

<sup>13</sup> rebelling and denying the LORD,
turning away from our God,
speaking oppression and revolt,
conceiving and uttering lies from the heart.

<sup>14</sup> So justice is turned away,
and righteousness stands at a distance.
For truth has stumbled in the public square,
and honesty cannot enter.

<sup>15</sup> Truth is missing,
and whoever turns from evil becomes prey.

The LORD looked and was displeased ‡ that there was no justice.

* 59:7 LXX misery † 59:8 Cited in Romans 3:15-17 ‡ 59:15 Hebrew and it was evil in His eyes

16 He saw that there was no man;
He was amazed that there was no one to intercede.
So His own arm brought salvation,
and His own righteousness sustained Him.

17 He put on righteousness like a breastplate, and the helmet of salvation on His head;
He put on garments of vengeance and wrapped Himself in a cloak of zeal.

The Covenant of the Redeemer

18 So He will repay according to their deeds:
fury to His enemies,
retribution to His foes,
and recompense to the islands. §

19 So shall they fear the name of the LORD
where the sun sets,
and His glory where it rises.

For He will come like a raging flood, driven by the breath of the LORD. *

20 "The Redeemer will come to Zion, to those in Jacob who turn from transgression, †"

declares the LORD.

21 "As for Me, this is My covenant with them, ‡ says the LORD. "My Spirit will not depart from you, § and My words that I have put in your mouth will not depart from your mouth or from the mouths of your children and grandchildren, from now on and forevermore," says the LORD.

Future Glory for Zion

1 Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD rises upon you.

2 For behold, darkness covers the earth, and thick darkness is over the peoples;
but the LORD will rise upon you,
and His glory will appear over you.

3 Nations will come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn.

4 Lift up your eyes and look around:
They all gather and come to you;
your sons will come from afar,
and your daughters will be carried on the arm.

5 Then you will look and be radiant, and your heart will tremble and swell with joy, because the riches of the sea will be brought to you,
and the wealth of the nations will come to you.

6 Caravans of camels will cover your land,
young camels of Midian and Ephah, and all from Sheba will come,
bearing gold and frankincense and proclaiming the praises of the LORD.

7 All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered to you;
the rams of Nebaioth will serve you and go up on My altar with acceptance;

§ 59:18 Or coastlands * 59:19 Or When the enemy comes like a raging flood, the Spirit of the LORD will drive him back † 59:20 LXX to remove godlessness from Jacob; cited in Romans 11:26 ‡ 59:21 Cited in Romans 11:27

§ 59:21 Literally My Spirit, who is upon you,

I will adorn My glorious house.

<sup>8</sup> Who are these who fly like clouds, like doves to their shelters?

<sup>9</sup> Surely the islands * will wait for Me,
with the ships of Tarshish † in the lead,
to bring your children from afar,
with their silver and gold,
to the honor of the LORD your God,
the Holy One of Israel,
for He has glorified you.

<sup>10</sup> Foreigners will rebuild your walls, and their kings will serve you.
Although I struck you in anger,
yet in favor I will show you mercy.

<sup>11</sup> Your gates will always stand open;
they will never be shut, day or night,
so that the wealth of the nations may be brought into you,
with their kings being led in procession.

<sup>12</sup> For the nation or kingdom that will not serve you will perish; it will be utterly destroyed.

<sup>13</sup> The glory of Lebanon will come to you—its cypress,‡ elm, and boxwood together—to adorn the place of My sanctuary, and I will glorify the place of My feet.

<sup>14</sup> The sons of your oppressors will come and bow down to you;
all who reviled you will fall facedown at your feet and call you the City of the LORD, Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> Whereas you have been forsaken and despised, with no one passing through,
I will make you an everlasting pride,
a joy from age to age.

<sup>16</sup> You will drink the milk of nations and nurse at the breasts of royalty;
you will know that I, the LORD, am your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

<sup>17</sup> Instead of bronze I will bring you gold;
I will bring silver in place of iron,
bronze instead of wood,
and iron instead of stones.

I will appoint peace as your governor and righteousness as your ruler.

<sup>18</sup> No longer will violence be heard in your land, nor ruin or destruction within your borders.
But you will name your walls Salvation and your gates Praise.

<sup>19</sup> No longer will the sun be your light by day, nor the brightness of the moon shine on your night;§
for the LORD will be your everlasting light, and your God will be your splendor.*

<sup>20</sup> Your sun will no longer set,

* 60:9 Or coastlands † 60:9 Or a fleet of trading ships ‡ 60:13 Or pine or juniper or fir § 60:19 DSS, LXX, and Targum Yonaton; MT shine on you * 60:19 Or your beauty and your moon will not wane;

for the LORD will be your everlasting light,
and the days of your sorrow will cease.

<sup>21</sup> Then all your people will be righteous;
they will possess the land forever;
they are the branch of My planting,
the work of My hands,
so that I may be glorified.

<sup>22</sup> The least of you will become a thousand,
and the smallest a mighty nation.

I am the LORD;
in its time I will accomplish it quickly.

61

The Year of the LORD's Favor
(Luke 4:16-30)

<sup>1</sup> The Spirit of the Lord GOD is on Me, because the LORD has anointed Me
to preach good news to the poor.
He has sent Me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives and freedom to the prisoners,* <sup>2</sup> to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor † and the day of our God's vengeance, to comfort all who mourn,
<sup>3</sup> to console the mourners in Zion—
to give them a crown of beauty for ashes,
the oil of joy for mourning,
and a garment of praise for a spirit of despair.
So they will be called oaks of righteousness,
the planting of the LORD, that He may be glorified.

<sup>4</sup> They will rebuild the ancient ruins;
they will restore the places long devastated;
they will renew the ruined cities,
the desolations of many generations.
<sup>5</sup> Strangers will stand and feed your flocks, and foreigners will be your plowmen and vinedressers.
<sup>6</sup> But you will be called the priests of the LORD;
they will speak of you as ministers of our God;
you will feed on the wealth of nations,
and you will boast in their riches.
<sup>7</sup> Instead of shame, My people will have a double portion, and instead of humiliation, they will rejoice in their share;
and so they will inherit a double portion in their land,
and everlasting joy will be theirs.

<sup>8</sup> For I, the LORD, love justice;
I hate robbery and iniquity;
in My faithfulness I will give them their recompense and make an everlasting covenant with them.
<sup>9</sup> Their descendants will be known among the nations,
and their offspring among the peoples.
All who see them will acknowledge that they are a people the LORD has blessed.

<sup>10</sup> I will rejoice greatly in the LORD,

* 61:1 Hebrew; LXX to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind; cited in Luke 4:18 † 61:2
Or to proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD; cited in Luke 4:19

my soul will exult in my God;
 for He has clothed me with garments of salvation and wrapped me in a robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom wears a priestly headdress,
 as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.
<sup>11</sup> For as the earth brings forth its growth, and as a garden enables seed to spring up,
 so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations.

62

Zion's Salvation and New Name

<sup>1</sup> For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not keep still,
 until her righteousness shines like a bright light,
 her salvation like a blazing torch.
<sup>2</sup> Nations will see your righteousness,
 and all kings your glory.
 You will be called by a new name that the mouth of the LORD will bestow.
<sup>3</sup> You will be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD,
 a royal diadem in the palm of your God.
<sup>4</sup> No longer will you be called Forsaken,* nor your land named Desolate;† but you will be called Hephzibah,‡ and your land Beulah;§ for the LORD will take delight in you, and your land will be His bride.
<sup>5</sup> For as a young man marries a young woman,
 so your sons will marry you;
 and as a bridegroom rejoices over his bride,
 so your God will rejoice over you.
<sup>6</sup> On your walls, O Jerusalem, I have posted watchmen;
 they will never be silent day or night.
 You who call on the LORD shall take no rest for yourselves, <sup>7</sup> nor give Him any rest until He establishes Jerusalem and makes her the praise of the earth.
<sup>8</sup> The LORD has sworn by His right hand and by His mighty arm:
 "Never again will I give your grain to your enemies for food, nor will foreigners drink the new wine
 for which you have toiled.
<sup>9</sup> For those who harvest grain will eat it and praise the LORD, and those who gather grapes will drink the wine in My holy courts."
<sup>10</sup> Go out, go out through the gates;
 prepare the way for the people!
 Build it up, build up the highway;
 clear away the stones;
 raise a banner for the nations!

11 Behold, the LORD has proclaimed
to the ends of the earth, “Say to Daughter Zion:
See, your Savior comes!
Look, His reward is with Him, and His recompense goes before Him.”

12 And they will be called the Holy People,
the Redeemed of The LORD;
and you will be called Sought Out,
A City Not Forsaken.

63

God's Vengeance on the Nations

1 Who is this coming from Edom, from Bozrah with crimson-stained garments?
Who is this robed in splendor,
marching in the greatness of His strength?

“It is I, proclaiming vindication,* mighty to save.”

2 Why are Your clothes red,
and Your garments like one who treads the winepress?

3 “I have trodden the winepress alone,
and no one from the nations was with Me.

I trampled them in My anger and trod them down in My fury;
their blood spattered My garments,
and all My clothes were stained.

4 For the day of vengeance was in My heart, and the year of My redemption had come.

5 I looked, but there was no one to help;
I was appalled that no one assisted.

So My arm brought Me salvation, and My own wrath upheld Me.

6 I trampled the nations in My anger;
in My wrath I made them drunk and poured out their blood on the ground.”

God's Mercies Recalled

7 I will make known the LORD's loving devotion and His praiseworthy acts, because of all that the LORD has done for us—
the many good things for the house of Israel
according to His great compassion and loving devotion.

8 For He said, “They are surely My people, sons who will not be disloyal.”
So He became their Savior.

9 In all their distress, He too was afflicted, and the Angel of His Presence † saved them.

In His love and compassion He redeemed them;
He lifted them up and carried them
all the days of old.

10 But they rebelled

* 63:1 Or It is I, speaking in righteousness, † 63:9 Or angel of His presence and grieved His Holy Spirit.

 So He turned and became their enemy,
 and He Himself fought against them.

11 Then His people remembered the days of old,
 the days of Moses.
 Where is He who brought them through the sea with the shepherds of His flock?
 Where is the One who set
 His Holy Spirit among them,
 12 who sent His glorious arm to lead them by the right hand of Moses, who divided the waters before them
 to gain for Himself everlasting renown, 13 who led them through the depths like a horse in the wilderness,
 so that they did not stumble?
 14 Like cattle going down to the valley,
 the Spirit of the LORD gave them rest.
 You led Your people this way to make for Yourself a glorious name.

A Prayer for Mercy
(Jeremiah 14:19-22)

15 Look down from heaven and see,
 from Your holy and glorious habitation.
 Where are Your zeal and might?
 Your yearning and compassion for me are restrained.
 16 Yet You are our Father, though Abraham does not know us and Israel does not acknowledge us.
 You, O LORD, are our Father;
 our Redeemer from Everlasting is Your name.
 17 Why, O LORD, do You make us stray from Your ways and harden our hearts from fearing You?
 Return, for the sake of Your servants,
 the tribes of Your heritage.
 18 For a short while Your people possessed Your holy place, but our enemies have trampled Your sanctuary.
 19 We have become like those You never ruled, like those not called by Your name.

64

A Prayer for God's Power

1 If only You would rend the heavens and come down, so that mountains would quake at Your presence, 2 as fire kindles the brushwood and causes the water to boil, to make Your name known to Your enemies,
 so that the nations will tremble at Your presence!
 3 When You did awesome works that we did not expect,
 You came down, and the mountains trembled at Your presence.
 4 From ancient times no one has heard,
 no ear has perceived,
 no eye has seen any God besides You,
 who acts on behalf of those who wait for Him.*

* 64:4 Cited in 1 Corinthians 2:9

5 You welcome those who gladly do right, who remember Your ways.
 Surely You were angry, for we sinned.
 How can we be saved if we remain in our sins?
 6 Each of us has become like something unclean, and all our righteous acts are like filthy rags;†
 we all wither like a leaf,
 and our iniquities carry us away like the wind.
 7 No one calls on Your name or strives to take hold of You.
 For You have hidden Your face from us and delivered us into the hand ‡ of our iniquity.
 8 But now, O LORD, You are our Father;
 we are the clay, and You are the potter;
 we are all the work of Your hand.
 9 Do not be angry, O LORD, beyond measure;
 do not remember our iniquity forever.
 Oh, look upon us, we pray;
 we are all Your people!
 10 Your holy cities have become a wilderness.
 Zion has become a wasteland and Jerusalem a desolation.
 11 Our holy and beautiful temple, where our fathers praised You,
 has been burned with fire,
 and all that was dear to us lies in ruins.
 12 After all this, O LORD, will You restrain Yourself?
 Will You keep silent and afflict us beyond measure?

65

Judgments and Promises (Romans 10:1–21)

1 "I revealed Myself to those who did not ask for Me;
 I was found by those who did not seek Me.*
 To a nation that did not call My name,
 I said, 'Here I am! Here I am!'
 2 All day long I have held out My hands to an obstinate people † who walk in the wrong path,
 who follow their own imaginations,
 3 to a people who continually provoke Me to My face, sacrificing in the gardens and burning incense on altars of brick, 4 sitting among the graves, spending nights in secret places,
 eating the meat of pigs
 and polluted broth from their bowls.
 5 They say, 'Keep to yourself;
 do not come near me, for I am holier than you!'
 Such people are smoke in My nostrils,
 a fire that burns all day long.
 6 Behold, it is written before Me:
 I will not keep silent, but I will repay;
 I will pay it back into their laps,
 7 both for your iniquities

† 64:6 Or like a stained menstrual garment    ‡ 64:7 LXX, Syriac, and Targum Yonaton; MT have made us melt in the hand    * 65:1 Cited in Romans 10:20    † 65:2 LXX to a disobedient and obstinate people; cited in Romans 10:21 and for those of your fathers,”

says the LORD.

“Because they burned incense on the mountains and scorned Me on the hills,
I will measure into their laps full payment for their former deeds.”

<sup>8</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“As the new wine is found in a cluster of grapes, and men say, ‘Do not destroy it, for it contains a blessing,’ so I will act on behalf of My servants;
I will not destroy them all.

<sup>9</sup> And I will bring forth descendants from Jacob, and heirs from Judah;
My elect will possess My mountains,‡
and My servants will dwell there.

<sup>10</sup> Sharon will become a pasture for flocks, and the Valley of Achor a resting place for herds,
for My people who seek Me.

<sup>11</sup> But you who forsake the LORD, who forget My holy mountain, who set a table for Fortune § and fill bowls of mixed wine for Destiny,*

<sup>12</sup> I will destine you for the sword, and you will all kneel down to be slaughtered,
because I called and you did not answer,
I spoke and you did not listen;
you did evil in My sight
and chose that in which I did not delight.”

<sup>13</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says:

“My servants will eat,
but you will go hungry;
My servants will drink,
but you will go thirsty;
My servants will rejoice,
but you will be put to shame.
<sup>14</sup> My servants will shout for joy with a glad heart, but you will cry out with a heavy heart and wail with a broken spirit.

<sup>15</sup> You will leave behind your name
as a curse for My chosen ones, and the Lord GOD will slay you;
but to His servants He will give another name.

<sup>16</sup> Whoever invokes a blessing in the land will do so by the God of truth, and whoever takes an oath in the land will swear by the God of truth.
For the former troubles will be forgotten and hidden from My sight.

A New Heaven and a New Earth
(Revelation 21:1-8)

<sup>17</sup> For behold, I will create

‡ 65:9 Or and heirs to My mountains out of Judah; My elect will possess them § 65:11 Hebrew Gad, the Babylonian god of fortune * 65:11 Hebrew Meni, the Babylonian god of fate new heavens and a new earth.†

 The former things will not be remembered, nor will they come to mind.
 18 But be glad and rejoice forever in what I create;
 for I will create Jerusalem to be a joy and its people to be a delight.
 19 I will rejoice in Jerusalem and take delight in My people.
 The sounds of weeping and crying will no longer be heard in her.
 20 No longer will a nursing infant live but a few days,
 or an old man fail to live out his years.
 For the youth will die at a hundred years,
 and he who fails to reach a hundred will be considered accursed.
 21 They will build houses and dwell in them;
 they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
 22 No longer will they build houses for others to inhabit, nor plant for others to eat.
 For as is the lifetime of a tree,
 so will be the days of My people, and My chosen ones will fully enjoy
 the work of their hands.
 23 They will not labor in vain or bear children doomed to disaster;
 for they will be a people blessed by the LORD—
 they and their descendants with them.
 24 Even before they call, I will answer,
 and while they are still speaking, I will hear.
 25 The wolf and the lamb will feed together,
 and the lion will eat straw like the ox,
 but the food of the serpent ‡ will be dust.
 They will neither harm nor destroy
 on all My holy mountain,"

says the LORD.

66

Heaven Is My Throne

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD says:

"Heaven is My throne,
 and earth is My footstool.
 What kind of house will you build for Me?
 Or where will My place of repose be?"

 And so they came into being,"

declares the LORD.

"This is the one I will esteem:
 he who is humble and contrite in spirit,
 who trembles at My word.

 whoever sacrifices a lamb is like one who breaks a dog's neck;

† 65:17 LXX a new heaven and a new earth; see also Isaiah 66:22 and Revelation 21:1. ‡ 65:25 Hebrew nachash;
 translated in most cases as snake * 66:2 Cited in Acts 7:49-50 whoever presents a grain offering is like one who offers pig's blood;

 whoever offers frankincense is like one who blesses an idol.
 Indeed, they have chosen their own ways and delighted in their abominations.

<sup>4</sup> So I will choose their punishment and I will bring terror upon them, because I called and no one answered,
 I spoke and no one listened.
 But they did evil in My sight
 and chose that in which I did not delight."

<sup>5</sup> You who tremble at His word,
 hear the word of the LORD:

"Your brothers who hate you and exclude you because of My name have said, 'Let the LORD be glorified that we may see your joy!'
 But they will be put to shame."

<sup>6</sup> Hear the uproar from the city;
 listen to the voice from the temple!
 It is the voice of the LORD,
 repaying His enemies what they deserve!

Rejoice with Jerusalem

<sup>7</sup> "Before she was in labor, she gave birth;
 before she was in pain, she delivered a boy.

<sup>8</sup> Who has heard of such as this?
 Who has seen such things?
 Can a country be born in a day or a nation be delivered in an instant?

Yet as soon as Zion was in labor,
 she gave birth to her children.

<sup>9</sup> Shall I bring a baby to the point of birth and not deliver it?"
 says the LORD.

"Or will I who deliver close the womb?"
 says your God.

<sup>10</sup> Be glad for Jerusalem and rejoice over her, all who love her.

Rejoice greatly with her,
 all who mourn over her,

<sup>11</sup> so that you may nurse and be satisfied at her comforting breasts;
 you may drink deeply and delight yourselves
 in her glorious abundance.

<sup>12</sup> For this is what the LORD says:

"I will extend peace to her like a river,
 and the wealth of nations like a flowing stream;
 you will nurse and be carried on her arm,
 and bounced upon her knees.

<sup>13</sup> As a mother comforts her son,
 so will I comfort you,
 and you will be consoled over Jerusalem."

<sup>14</sup> When you see, you will rejoice, and you will flourish like grass;
 then the hand of the LORD will be revealed to His servants,
 but His wrath will be shown to His enemies.

Final Judgments against the Wicked

15 For behold, the LORD will come with fire—

His chariots are like a whirlwind—to execute His anger with fury and His rebuke with flames of fire.

16 For by fire and by His sword,
the LORD will execute judgment on all flesh,
and many will be slain by the LORD.

17 “Those who consecrate and purify themselves to enter the groves—to follow one in the center of those who eat the flesh of swine and vermin and rats—will perish together,” declares the LORD.

18 “And I, knowing their deeds and thoughts, am coming † to gather all nations and tongues, and they will come and see My glory.

19 I will establish a sign among them, and I will send survivors from among them to the nations—to Tarshish, Put, and the archers of Lud; to Tubal, Javan, and the islands ‡ far away who have not heard of My fame or seen My glory.

So they will proclaim My glory among the nations. 20 And they will bring all your brothers from all the nations as a gift to the LORD on horses and chariots and wagons, on mules and camels, to My holy mountain Jerusalem,” says the LORD, “just as the Israelites bring an offering in a clean vessel to the house of the LORD.”

21 “And I will select some of them as priests and Levites,” says the LORD.

22 “For just as the new heavens and the new earth,§ which I will make, will endure before Me,”

declares the LORD,

“so your descendants and your name will endure.

23 From one New Moon to another and from one Sabbath to another, all mankind will come to worship before Me,”
says the LORD.

24 “As they go forth, they will see the corpses of the men who have rebelled against Me;
for their worm will never die,
their fire will never be quenched,* and they will be a horror to all mankind.”

Jeremiah

The Call of Jeremiah

<sup>2</sup> The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah in the thirteenth year of the reign of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah, <sup>3</sup> and through the days of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, until the fifth month of the eleventh year of Zedekiah son of Josiah king of Judah, when the people of Jerusalem went into exile.

<sup>4</sup> The word of the LORD came to me, saying:

<sup>5</sup> “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I set you apart and appointed you as a prophet to the nations.”

<sup>6</sup> “Ah, Lord GOD,” I said, “I surely do not know how to speak, for I am only a child!”

<sup>7</sup> But the LORD told me:

“Do not say,
‘I am only a child.’
For to everyone I send you,
you must go,
and all that I command you,
you must speak.

<sup>8</sup> Do not be afraid of them,
for I am with you to deliver you,”

declares the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD reached out His hand, touched my mouth, and said to me:

“Behold, I have put My words in your mouth.

<sup>10</sup> See, I have appointed you today over nations and kingdoms to uproot and tear down,
to destroy and overthrow,
to build and plant.”

<sup>11</sup> And the word of the LORD came to me, asking, “Jeremiah, what do you see?”

“I see a branch of an almond tree,” I replied.

<sup>12</sup> “You have observed correctly,” said the LORD, “for I am watching * over My word to accomplish it.”

<sup>13</sup> Again the word of the LORD came to me, asking, “What do you see?”

“I see a boiling pot,” I replied, “and it is tilting toward us from the north.”

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD said to me, “Disaster from the north will be poured out on all who live in the land. <sup>15</sup> For I am about to summon all the clans and kingdoms of the north,” declares the LORD.

“Their kings will come and set up their thrones

* 1:12 The Hebrew for watching sounds like the Hebrew for almond tree.

at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem.
 They will attack all her surrounding walls and all the other cities of Judah.
<sup>16</sup> I will pronounce My judgments against them for all their wickedness, because they have forsaken Me to burn incense to other gods and to worship the works of their own hands.

<sup>17</sup> Get yourself ready.† Stand up and tell them everything that I command you. Do not be intimidated by them, or I will terrify you before them. <sup>18</sup> Now behold, this day I have made you like a fortified city, an iron pillar, and bronze walls against the whole land—against the kings of Judah, its officials, its priests, and the people of the land. <sup>19</sup> They will fight against you but will never overcome you, since I am with you to deliver you,” declares the LORD.

Israel Has Forsaken God

<sup>1</sup> Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> “Go and proclaim in the hearing of Jerusalem that this is what the LORD says:

‘I remember the devotion of your youth,
 your love as a bride,
 how you followed Me in the wilderness,
 in a land not sown.

<sup>3</sup> Israel was holy to the LORD,
 the firstfruits of His harvest.
 All who devoured her found themselves guilty;
 disaster came upon them,’ ”
 declares the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all you families of the house of Israel. <sup>5</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“What fault did your fathers find in Me that they strayed so far from Me,
 and followed worthless idols,
 and became worthless themselves?
<sup>6</sup> They did not ask, ‘Where is the LORD who brought us up from the land of Egypt, who led us through the wilderness,
 through a land of deserts and pits,
 a land of drought and darkness,
 a land where no one travels and no one lives?’

<sup>7</sup> I brought you into a fertile land to eat its fruit and bounty,
 but you came and defiled My land,
 and made My inheritance detestable.

<sup>8</sup> The priests did not ask,
 ‘Where is the LORD?’
 The experts in the law no longer knew Me,
 and the leaders rebelled against Me.
 The prophets prophesied by Baal
 and followed useless idols.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, I will contend with you again,
 declares the LORD,
 and I will bring a case

against your children's children.

- 10 Cross over to the coasts of Cyprus * and take a look;
send to Kedar and consider carefully;
see if there has ever been anything like this:
11 Has a nation ever changed its gods,
though they are no gods at all?
Yet My people have exchanged their Glory † for useless idols.
12 Be stunned by this, O heavens;
be shocked and utterly appalled,"

declares the LORD.

- 13 "For My people have committed two evils:

They have forsaken Me,
the fountain of living water,
and they have dug their own cisterns—broken cisterns that cannot hold water.

The Consequence of Israel's Sin

- 14 Is Israel a slave?
Was he born into slavery?
Why then has he become prey?
15 The young lions have roared at him;
they have growled with a loud voice.
They have laid waste his land;
his cities lie in ruins, without inhabitant.
16 The men of Memphis ‡ and Tahpanhes have shaved the crown of your head.
17 Have you not brought this on yourself by forsaking the LORD your God
when He led you in the way?
18 Now what will you gain on your way to Egypt to drink the waters of the Nile §?
What will you gain on your way to Assyria to drink the waters of the Euphrates *?
19 Your own evil will discipline you;
your own apostasies will reprimand you.
Consider and realize how evil and bitter it is for you to forsake the LORD your God and to have no fear of Me,"

declares the Lord GOD of Hosts.

- 20 "For long ago you broke your yoke and tore off your chains, saying, 'I will not serve!'
Indeed, on every high hill and under every green tree
you lay down as a prostitute.
21 I had planted you like a choice vine from the very best seed.
How could you turn yourself before Me into a rotten, wild vine?
22 Although you wash with lye and use an abundance of soap,
the stain of your guilt is still before Me,"

Israel's Unfaithfulness
(Judges 2:10-15; Isaiah 43:22-28)

23 "How can you say, 'I am not defiled;
I have not run after the Baals'?
Look at your behavior in the valley;
acknowledge what you have done.
You are a swift young she-camel
galloping here and there, 24 a wild donkey at home in the wilderness,
sniffing the wind in the heat of her desire.
Who can restrain her passion?
All who seek her need not weary themselves;
in mating season they will find her.
25 You should have kept your feet from going bare and your throat from being thirsty.
But you said, 'It is hopeless!
For I love foreign gods,
and I must go after them.'

26 As the thief is ashamed when he is caught, so the house of Israel is disgraced.
They, their kings, their officials, their priests, and their prophets 27 say to a tree, 'You are my father,' and to a stone, 'You gave me birth.'
For they have turned their backs to Me
and not their faces,
yet in the time of trouble they beg,
'Rise up and save us!'
28 But where are the gods you made for yourselves?
Let them rise up in your time of trouble and save you if they can;
for your gods are as numerous as your cities, O Judah.

29 Why do you bring a case against Me?
You have all rebelled against Me,"

declares the LORD.

30 "I have struck your sons in vain;
they accepted no discipline.
Your own sword has devoured your prophets like a voracious lion."

31 You people of this generation, consider the word of the LORD:

"Have I been a wilderness to Israel or a land of dense darkness?
Why do My people say,
'We are free to roam;
we will come to You no more'?"

32 Does a maiden forget her jewelry or a bride her wedding sash?
Yet My people have forgotten Me
for days without number.

33 How skillfully you pursue love!
Even the most immoral of women could learn from your ways.

34 Moreover, your skirts are stained with the blood of the innocent poor, though you did not find them breaking in.

But in spite of all these things
<sup>35</sup> you say, 'I am innocent.
 Surely His anger will turn from me.'
 Behold, I will judge you, because you say, 'I have not sinned.'

<sup>36</sup> How unstable you are,
 constantly changing your ways!
 You will be disappointed by Egypt
 just as you were by Assyria.
<sup>37</sup> Moreover, you will leave that place with your hands on your head, for the LORD has rejected those you trust;
 you will not prosper by their help."

3

The Wages of the Harlot

<sup>1</sup> "If a man divorces his wife and she leaves him to marry another, can he ever return to her?
 Would not such a land be completely defiled?
 But you have played the harlot with many lovers—
 and you would return to Me?"

declares the LORD.

<sup>2</sup> "Lift up your eyes to the barren heights and see.
 Is there any place where you have not been violated?
 You sat beside the highways waiting for your lovers,
 like a nomad in the desert.
 You have defiled the land
 with your prostitution and wickedness.
<sup>3</sup> Therefore the showers have been withheld, and no spring rains have fallen.
 Yet you have the brazen look of a prostitute;
 you refuse to be ashamed.

<sup>4</sup> Have you not just called to Me,
 'My Father, You are my friend from youth.
<sup>5</sup> Will He be angry forever?
 Will He be indignant to the end?'
 This you have spoken,
 but you keep doing all the evil you can."

Judah Follows Israel's Example

<sup>6</sup> Now in the days of King Josiah, the LORD said to me, "Have you seen what faithless Israel has done? She has gone up on every high hill and under every green tree to prostitute herself there. <sup>7</sup> I thought that after she had done all these things, she would return to Me. But she did not return, and her unfaithful sister Judah saw it.

<sup>8</sup> She saw * that because faithless Israel had committed adultery, I gave her a certificate of divorce and sent her away. Yet that unfaithful sister Judah had no fear and prostituted herself as well. <sup>9</sup> Indifferent to her own infidelity, Israel had defiled the land and committed adultery with stones and trees. <sup>10</sup> Yet in spite of all this, her unfaithful sister Judah did not return to Me with all her heart, but only in pretense," declares the LORD.

A Call to Repentance (Hosea 14:1-3; Zechariah 1:1-6)

* 3:8 DSS, one LXX manuscript, and Syriac; MT I saw

<sup>11</sup> And the LORD said to me, "Faithless Israel has shown herself more righteous than unfaithful Judah. <sup>12</sup> Go, proclaim this message toward the north:

'Return, O faithless Israel,' declares the LORD.

'I will no longer look on you with anger,
for I am merciful,' declares the LORD.

'I will not be angry forever.

<sup>13</sup> Only acknowledge your guilt,
that you have rebelled against the LORD your God.

You have scattered your favors to foreign gods
under every green tree and have not obeyed My voice,' "

declares the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> "Return, O faithless children," declares the LORD, "for I am your master, and I will take you—one from a city and two from a family—and bring you to Zion. <sup>15</sup> Then I will give you shepherds after My own heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding."

<sup>16</sup> "In those days, when you multiply and increase in the land," declares the LORD, "they will no longer discuss the ark of the covenant of the LORD. It will never come to mind, and no one will remember it or miss it, nor will another one be made.

<sup>17</sup> At that time Jerusalem will be called The Throne of the LORD, and all the nations will be gathered in Jerusalem to honor the name of the LORD. They will no longer follow the stubbornness of their evil hearts. <sup>18</sup> In those days the house of Judah will walk with the house of Israel, and they will come together from the land of the north to the land that I gave to your fathers as an inheritance.

<sup>19</sup> Then I said, 'How I long to make you My sons and give you a desirable land, the most beautiful inheritance of all the nations!'

I thought you would call Me 'Father' and never turn away from following Me.

<sup>20</sup> But as a woman may betray her husband, so you have betrayed Me, O house of Israel,"

declares the LORD.

<sup>21</sup> A voice is heard on the barren heights,
the children of Israel weeping and begging for mercy, because they have perverted their ways and forgotten the LORD their God.

<sup>22</sup> "Return, O faithless children, and I will heal your faithlessness."

"Here we are. We come to You, for You are the LORD our God.

<sup>23</sup> Surely deception comes from the hills, and commotion from the mountains.

Surely the salvation of Israel is in the LORD our God.

<sup>24</sup> From our youth, that shameful god has consumed what our fathers have worked for—their flocks and herds, their sons and daughters.

<sup>25</sup> Let us lie down in our shame;
let our disgrace cover us.

We have sinned against the LORD our God,
both we and our fathers;

from our youth even to this day we have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God."

4

A Plea to Return

- 1 "If you will return, O Israel, return to Me," declares the LORD.
"If you will remove your detestable idols from My sight
and no longer waver,
2 and if you can swear, 'As surely as the LORD lives,'
in truth, in justice, and in righteousness,
then the nations will be blessed by Him,
and in Him they will glory."
3 For this is what the LORD says to the men of Judah and Jerusalem:

- "Break up your unplowed ground,
and do not sow among the thorns.
4 Circumcise yourselves to the LORD,
and remove the foreskins of your hearts,
O men of Judah and people of Jerusalem.
Otherwise, My wrath will break out like fire
and burn with no one to extinguish it, because of your evil deeds."

Disaster from the North

- 5 Announce in Judah, proclaim in Jerusalem, and say:
"Blow the ram's horn throughout the land.
Cry aloud and say,
'Assemble yourselves and let us flee to the fortified cities.'
6 Raise a signal flag toward Zion.
Seek refuge! Do not delay!
For I am bringing disaster from the north,
and terrible destruction.
7 A lion has gone up from his thicket,
and a destroyer of nations has set out.
He has left his lair
to lay waste your land.
Your cities will be reduced to ruins and lie uninhabited.
8 So put on sackcloth,
mourn and wail,
for the fierce anger of the LORD has not turned away from us."
9 "In that day," declares the LORD,
"the king and officials will lose their courage.
The priests will tremble in fear,
and the prophets will be astounded."

10 Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD, how completely You have deceived this people and Jerusalem by saying, 'You will have peace,' while a sword is at our throats."

11 At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, "A searing wind from the barren heights in the desert blows toward the daughter of My people, but not to winnow or to sift; 12 a wind too strong for that comes from Me. Now I also pronounce judgments against them."

- 13 Behold, he advances like the clouds, his chariots like the whirlwind.
His horses are swifter than eagles.
Woe to us, for we are ruined!

14 Wash the evil from your heart, O Jerusalem,
 so that you may be saved.
 How long will you harbor
 wicked thoughts within you?
 15 For a voice resounds from Dan, proclaiming disaster from the hills of Ephraim.
 16 Warn the nations now!
 Proclaim to Jerusalem:
 "A besieging army comes from a distant land;
 they raise their voices against the cities of Judah.
 17 They surround her like men guarding a field, because she has rebelled against Me," declares the LORD.
 18 "Your ways and deeds have brought this upon you.
 This is your punishment; how bitter it is,
 because it pierces to the heart!"

Lamentation for Judah

19 My anguish, my anguish! I writhe in pain!
 Oh, the pain in my chest!
 My heart pounds within me;
 I cannot be silent.
 For I have heard the sound of the horn,
 the alarm of battle.
 20 Disaster after disaster is proclaimed,
 for the whole land is laid waste.
 My tents are destroyed in an instant,
 my curtains in a moment.
 21 How long must I see the signal flag and hear the sound of the horn?
 22 "For My people are fools;
 they have not known Me.
 They are foolish children,
 without understanding.
 They are skilled in doing evil,
 but they know not how to do good."
 23 I looked at the earth, and it was formless and void;
 I looked to the heavens,
 and they had no light.
 24 I looked at the mountains, and behold, they were quaking;
 all the hills were swaying.
 25 I looked, and no man was left;
 all the birds of the air had fled.
 26 I looked, and the fruitful land was a desert.
 All its cities were torn down before the LORD,
 before His fierce anger.
 27 For this is what the LORD says:
 "The whole land will be desolate,
 but I will not finish its destruction.
 28 Therefore the earth will mourn and the heavens above will grow dark.
 I have spoken, I have planned, and I will not relent or turn back."
 29 Every city flees

at the sound of the horseman and archer.
 They enter the thickets and climb among the rocks.
 Every city is abandoned;
 no inhabitant is left.

<sup>30</sup> And you, O devastated one, what will you do, though you dress yourself in scarlet,
 though you adorn yourself with gold jewelry,
 though you enlarge your eyes with paint?
 You adorn yourself in vain; your lovers despise you;
 they want to take your life.

 a cry of anguish like one bearing her first child—
 the cry of the Daughter of Zion gasping for breath, stretching out her hands to say,
 “Woe is me,
 for my soul faints before the murderers!”

No One Is Just

<sup>1</sup> “Go up and down the streets of Jerusalem.
 Look now and take note; search her squares.
 If you can find a single person,
 anyone who acts justly,
 anyone who seeks the truth,
 then I will forgive the city.

<sup>2</sup> Although they say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives,’ they are swearing falsely.”

<sup>3</sup> O LORD, do not Your eyes look for truth?
 You struck them, but they felt no pain.
 You finished them off,
 but they refused to accept discipline.
 They have made their faces harder than stone and refused to repent.

<sup>4</sup> Then I said, “They are only the poor;
 they have played the fool,
 for they do not know the way of the LORD,
 the justice of their God.

<sup>5</sup> I will go to the powerful and speak to them.
 Surely they know the way of the LORD,
 the justice of their God.”

But they too, with one accord, had broken the yoke and torn off the chains.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore a lion from the forest will strike them down, a wolf from the desert will ravage them.
 A leopard will lie in wait near their cities,
 and everyone who ventures out will be torn to pieces.
 For their rebellious acts are many,
 and their unfaithful deeds are numerous.

<sup>7</sup> “Why should I forgive you?
 Your children have forsaken Me and sworn by gods that are not gods.
 I satisfied their needs, yet they committed adultery and assembled at the houses of prostitutes.

<sup>8</sup> They are well-fed, lusty stallions, each neighing after his neighbor's wife.

<sup>9</sup> Should I not punish them for these things?"
declares the LORD.

"Should I not avenge Myself
on such a nation as this?

<sup>10</sup> Go up through her vineyards and ravage them, but do not finish them off.

Strip off her branches,
for they do not belong to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have been utterly unfaithful to Me,"

declares the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> They have lied about the LORD and said:

"He will not do anything; harm will not come to us;
we will not see sword or famine.

<sup>13</sup> The prophets are but wind,
for the word is not in them.
So let their own predictions befall them.*"

Judgment Proclaimed

<sup>14</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD God of Hosts says:

"Because you have spoken this word,
I will make My words a fire in your mouth and this people the wood it consumes.

<sup>15</sup> Behold, I am bringing a distant nation against you, O house of Israel," declares the LORD.

"It is an established nation,
an ancient nation,

a nation whose language you do not know and whose speech you do not understand.

<sup>16</sup> Their quivers are like open graves;
they are all mighty men.

<sup>17</sup> They will devour your harvest and food;
they will consume your sons and daughters;

they will eat up your flocks and herds;
they will feed on your vines and fig trees.

With the sword they will destroy the fortified cities in which you trust."

<sup>18</sup> "Yet even in those days," declares the LORD, "I will not make a full end of you. <sup>19</sup> And when the people ask, 'For what offense has the LORD our God done all these things to us?' You are to tell them, 'Just as you have forsaken Me and served foreign gods in your land, so will you serve foreigners in a land that is not your own.'"

O foolish and senseless people,
who have eyes but do not see,
who have ears but do not hear.

<sup>22</sup> Do you not fear Me?"
declares the LORD.

"Do you not tremble before Me,
the One who set the sand as the boundary for the sea,
an enduring barrier it cannot cross?

The waves surge, but they cannot prevail.
They roar but cannot cross it.

* <sup>5:13</sup> Literally let this befall them.

- 23 But these people have stubborn and rebellious hearts.
They have turned aside and gone away.
- 24 They have not said in their hearts,
'Let us fear the LORD our God,
who gives the rains, both autumn and spring, in season,
who keeps for us the appointed weeks of harvest.'
- 25 Your iniquities have diverted these from you;
your sins have deprived you of My bounty.
- 26 For among My people are wicked men;
they watch like fowlers lying in wait;
they set a trap to catch men.
- 27 Like cages full of birds,
so their houses are full of deceit.
Therefore they have become powerful and rich.
- 28 They have grown fat and sleek,
and have excelled in the deeds of the wicked.
They have not taken up the cause of the fatherless,
that they might prosper;
nor have they defended
the rights of the needy.
- 29 Should I not punish them for these things?"
declares the LORD.
"Should I not avenge Myself
on such a nation as this?"
- 30 A horrible and shocking thing has happened in the land.
- 31 The prophets prophesy falsely,
and the priests rule by their own authority.
My people love it so,
but what will you do in the end?

Jerusalem's Final Warning

- 1 "Run for cover, O sons of Benjamin;
flee from Jerusalem!
Sound the ram's horn in Tekoa;
send up a signal over Beth-haccherem, for disaster looms from the north,
even great destruction.
- 2 Though she is beautiful and delicate,
I will destroy the Daughter of Zion.*
- 3 Shepherds and their flocks
will come against her;
they will pitch their tents all around her,
each tending his own portion:
- 4 'Prepare for battle against her;
rise up, let us attack at noon.
Woe to us, for the daylight is fading;
the evening shadows grow long.
- 5 Rise up, let us attack by night and destroy her fortresses!' "
- 6 For this is what the LORD of Hosts says:
"Cut down the trees and raise a siege ramp against Jerusalem.

* 6:2 Or To a lovely and delicate woman I have likened the Daughter of Zion

This city must be punished;
there is nothing but oppression in her midst.

<sup>7</sup> As a well gushes its water,
so she pours out her evil.

Violence and destruction resound in her;
sickness and wounds are ever before Me.

<sup>8</sup> Be forewarned, O Jerusalem, or I will turn away from you;
I will make you a desolation,
a land without inhabitant."

<sup>9</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts says:

"Glean the remnant of Israel
as thoroughly as a vine.
Pass your hand once more like a grape gatherer
over the branches."

<sup>10</sup> To whom can I give this warning?

Who will listen to me?

Look, their ears are closed,†
so they cannot hear.

See, the word of the LORD has become offensive to them;
they find no pleasure in it.

I am tired of holding it back.

"Pour it out on the children in the street,
and on the young men gathered together.
For both husband and wife will be captured,
the old and the very old alike.

<sup>12</sup> Their houses will be turned over to others, their fields and wives as well,
for I will stretch out My hand against the inhabitants of the land,"

declares the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> "For from the least of them to the greatest,
all are greedy for gain;
from prophet to priest,
all practice deceit.

<sup>14</sup> They dress the wound of My people with very little care,
saying, 'Peace, peace,'
when there is no peace at all.

<sup>15</sup> Are they ashamed of the abomination they have committed?
No, they have no shame at all;
they do not even know how to blush.

So they will fall among the fallen;
when I punish them, they will collapse,"

says the LORD.

<sup>16</sup> This is what the LORD says:

"Stand at the crossroads and look.

Ask for the ancient paths: 'Where is the good way?'
Then walk in it, and you will find rest for your souls.

But they said, 'We will not walk in it!'

<sup>17</sup> I appointed watchmen over you and said,
'Listen for the sound of the ram's horn.'
But they answered, 'We will not listen!'

and learn, O congregations, what will happen to them.
 19 Hear, O earth! I am bringing disaster on this people, the fruit of their own schemes,
 because they have paid no attention to My word and have rejected My instruction.
 20 What use to Me is frankincense from Sheba or sweet cane from a distant land?
 Your burnt offerings are not acceptable;
 your sacrifices do not please Me.”

21 Therefore this is what the LORD says:

“I will lay stumbling blocks before this people;
 fathers and sons alike will be staggered;
 friends and neighbors will perish.”

An Invasion from the North

22 This is what the LORD says:

“Behold, an army is coming from the land of the north;
 a great nation is stirred up
 from the ends of the earth.
 23 They grasp the bow and spear;‡
 they are cruel and merciless.
 Their voice roars like the sea,
 and they ride upon horses,
 lined up like men in formation against you, O Daughter of Zion.”

24 We have heard the report;
 our hands hang limp.
 Anguish has gripped us,
 pain like that of a woman in labor.

25 Do not go out to the fields;
 do not walk the road.
 For the enemy has a sword;
 terror is on every side.

26 O daughter of my people,
 dress yourselves in sackcloth and roll in ashes.
 Mourn with bitter wailing,
 as you would for an only son,
 for suddenly the destroyer will come upon us.

27 “I have appointed you to examine My people like ore,§ so you may know and try their ways.

28 All are hardened rebels, walking around as slanderers.
 They are bronze and iron;
 all of them are corrupt.

29 The bellows blow fiercely, blasting away the lead with fire.
 The refining proceeds in vain,
 for the wicked are not purged.

30 They are called rejected silver,
 because the LORD has rejected them.”

Jeremiah's Message at the Temple Gate

<sup>1</sup> This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Stand in the gate of the house of the LORD and proclaim this message: Hear the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah who enter through these gates to worship the LORD. <sup>3</sup> Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Correct your ways and deeds, and I will let you live in this place. <sup>4</sup> Do not trust in deceptive words, chanting:

'This is the temple of the LORD,
the temple of the LORD,
the temple of the LORD.'

<sup>5</sup> For if you really correct your ways and deeds, if you act justly toward one another, <sup>6</sup> if you no longer oppress the foreigner and the fatherless and the widow, and if you no longer shed innocent blood in this place or follow other gods to your own harm, <sup>7</sup> then I will let you live in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers forever and ever.

<sup>8</sup> But look, you keep trusting in deceptive words to no avail. <sup>9</sup> Will you steal and murder, commit adultery and perjury, burn incense to Baal, and follow other gods that you have not known, <sup>10</sup> and then come and stand before Me in this house, which bears My Name, and say, 'We are delivered, so we can continue with all these abominations?' <sup>11</sup> Has this house, which bears My Name, become a den of robbers * in your sight? Yes, I too have seen it, declares the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> But go now to the place in Shiloh where I first made a dwelling for My Name, and see what I did to it because of the wickedness of My people Israel. <sup>13</sup> And now, because you have done all these things, declares the LORD, and because I have spoken to you again and again † but you would not listen, and I have called to you but you would not answer, <sup>14</sup> therefore what I did to Shiloh I will now do to the house that bears My Name, the house in which you trust, the place that I gave to you and your fathers. <sup>15</sup> And I will cast you out of My presence, just as I have cast out all your brothers, all the descendants of Ephraim.

Judah's Idolatry Persists

<sup>16</sup> As for you, do not pray for these people, do not offer a plea or petition on their behalf, and do not beg Me, for I will not listen to you. <sup>17</sup> Do you not see what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>18</sup> The sons gather wood, the fathers light the fire, and the women knead the dough to make cakes for the Queen of Heaven; they pour out drink offerings to other gods to provoke Me to anger. <sup>19</sup> But am I the One they are provoking? declares the LORD. Is it not themselves they spite, to their own shame?

<sup>20</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Behold, My anger and My fury will be poured out on this place, on man and beast, on the trees of the field and the produce of the land, and it will burn and not be extinguished.

<sup>24</sup> Yet they did not listen or incline their ear, but they followed the stubborn inclinations of their own evil hearts. They went backward and not forward. <sup>25</sup> From the day your fathers came out of the land of Egypt until this day, I have sent you all My servants the prophets again and again.‡ 26 Yet they would not listen to Me or incline their ear, but they stiffened their necks and did more evil than their fathers.

* 7:11 Cited in Matthew 21:13, Mark 11:17, and Luke 19:46 † 7:13 Literally I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking,

27 When you tell them all these things, they will not listen to you. When you call to them, they will not answer. 28 Therefore you must say to them, "This is the nation that would not listen to the voice of the LORD their God and would not receive correction. Truth has perished; it has disappeared from their lips. 29 Cut off your hair and throw it away. Raise up a lamentation on the barren heights, for the LORD has rejected and forsaken the generation of His wrath."

The Valley of Slaughter

30 For the people of Judah have done evil in My sight, declares the LORD. They have set up their abominations in the house that bears My Name, and so have defiled it. 31 They have built the high places of Topheth in the Valley of Hinnom so they could burn their sons and daughters in the fire—something I never commanded, nor did it even enter My mind.

32 So behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when this place will no longer be called Topheth and the Valley of Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter. For they will bury the dead in Topheth until there is no more room. 33 The corpses of this people will become food for the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth, and there will be no one to scare them away.

34 I will remove from the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem the sounds of joy and gladness and the voices of the bride and bridegroom, for the land will become a wasteland."

8

Judah's Sin and Punishment

1 "At that time," declares the LORD, "the bones of the kings of Judah, the bones of the officials, the bones of the priests, the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the people of Jerusalem will be removed from their graves. 2 They will be exposed to the sun and moon, and to all the host of heaven which they have loved, served, followed, consulted, and worshiped. Their bones will not be gathered up or buried, but will become like dung lying on the ground. 3 And wherever I have banished them, the remnant of this evil family will choose death over life," declares the LORD of Hosts.

4 So you are to tell them this is what the LORD says:

"Do men fall and not get up again?
Does one turn away and not return?
5 Why then have these people turned away?
Why does Jerusalem always turn away?
They cling to deceit;
they refuse to return.
6 I have listened and heard;
they do not speak what is right.
No one repents of his wickedness, asking, "What have I done?"
Everyone has pursued his own course like a horse charging into battle.
7 Even the stork in the sky knows her appointed seasons.
The turtledove, the swift, and the thrush *
keep their time of migration, but My people do not know the requirements of the LORD.

‡ 7:25 Literally I have sent you all My servants the prophets daily, rising up early and sending (them). * 8:7 The precise identification of some of these birds is uncertain.

8 How can you say, 'We are wise, and the Law of the LORD is with us,' when in fact the lying pen of the scribes has produced a deception?
9 The wise will be put to shame;
they will be dismayed and trapped.
Since they have rejected the word of the LORD,
what wisdom do they really have?

10 Therefore I will give their wives to other men and their fields to new owners.
For from the least of them to the greatest,
all are greedy for gain;
from prophet to priest,
all practice deceit.

11 They dress the wound of the daughter of My people
with very little care,
saying, 'Peace, peace,'
when there is no peace at all.

12 Are they ashamed of the abomination they have committed?
No, they have no shame at all;
they do not even know how to blush.
So they will fall among the fallen;
when I punish them, they will collapse,
says the LORD.

13 I will take away their harvest,
declares the LORD.
There will be no grapes on the vine,
nor figs on the tree,
and even the leaf will wither.
Whatever I have given them will be lost to them."

The People Respond

14 Why are we just sitting here?
Gather together, let us flee to the fortified cities and perish there,
for the LORD our God has doomed us.
He has given us poisoned water to drink,
because we have sinned against the LORD.

15 We hoped for peace,
but no good has come,
for a time of healing,
but there was only terror.

16 The snorting of enemy horses is heard from Dan.
At the sound of the neighing of mighty steeds,
the whole land quakes.
They come to devour the land and everything in it,
the city and all who dwell in it.

17 "For behold, I will send snakes among you, vipers that cannot be charmed,
and they will bite you,"

declares the LORD.

Jeremiah Weeps for His People

18 My sorrow is beyond healing;†
my heart is faint within me.

† 8:18 Or O my Comforter in sorrow,

19 Listen to the cry of the daughter of my people from a land far away:

“Is the LORD no longer in Zion?
Is her King no longer there?”

“Why have they provoked Me to anger with their carved images, with their worthless foreign idols?”

20 “The harvest has passed, the summer has ended, but we have not been saved.”

21 For the brokenness of the daughter of my people I am crushed.
I mourn; horror has gripped me.

22 Is there no balm in Gilead?
Is no physician there?

Why then has the health of the daughter of my people not been restored?

9

A Lament over Zion

1 Oh, that my head were a spring of water, and my eyes a fountain of tears!

I would weep day and night
over the slain daughter of my people.

2 If only I had a traveler’s lodge in the wilderness,
I would abandon my people and depart from them,
for they are all adulterers,
a crowd of faithless people.

3 “They bend their tongues like bows;
lies prevail over truth in the land.
For they proceed from evil to evil,
and they do not take Me into account,”

declares the LORD.

4 “Let everyone guard against his neighbor;
do not trust any brother,
for every brother deals craftily,
and every friend spreads slander.

5 Each one betrays his friend;
no one tells the truth.

They have taught their tongues to lie;
they wear themselves out committing iniquity.

6 You dwell * in the midst of deception;
in their deceit they refuse to know Me,”

declares the LORD.

7 Therefore this is what the LORD of Hosts says:

“Behold, I will refine them and test them, for what else can I do
because of † the daughter of My people?”

8 Their tongues are deadly arrows;
they speak deception.

With his mouth a man speaks peace to his neighbor,
but in his heart he sets a trap for him.

9 Should I not punish them for these things?
declares the LORD.

* 9:6 That is, Jeremiah dwells (the Hebrew is singular) † 9:7 LXX because of the wickedness of

Should I not avenge Myself
on such a nation as this?"

<sup>10</sup> I will take up a weeping and wailing for the mountains, a dirge over the wilderness pasture, for they have been scorched so no one passes through,
and the lowing of cattle is not heard.

Both the birds of the air and the beasts have fled;
they have gone away.

<sup>11</sup> "And I will make Jerusalem a heap of rubble, a haunt for jackals;‡
and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant."

<sup>12</sup> Who is the man wise enough to understand this? To whom has the mouth of the LORD spoken, that he may explain it? Why is the land destroyed and scorched like a desert, so no one can pass through it?

<sup>13</sup> And the LORD answered, "It is because they have forsaken My law, which I set before them; they have not walked in it or obeyed My voice. <sup>14</sup> Instead, they have followed the stubbornness of their hearts and gone after the Baals, as their fathers taught them."

<sup>15</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: "Behold, I will feed this people wormwood and give them poisoned water to drink. <sup>16</sup> I will scatter them among the nations that neither they nor their fathers have known, and I will send a sword after them until I have finished them off."

<sup>17</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts says:

"Take note, and summon the wailing women;
send for the most skillful among them.

<sup>18</sup> Let them come quickly and take up a lament over us,
that our eyes may overflow with tears,
and our eyelids may gush with water.

<sup>19</sup> For the sound of wailing is heard from Zion:

'How devastated we are!
How great is our shame!

For we have abandoned the land because our dwellings have been torn down.' "

<sup>20</sup> Now, O women, hear the word of the LORD.
Open your ears to the word of His mouth.

Teach your daughters to wail,
and one another to lament.

<sup>21</sup> For death has climbed in through our windows;
it has entered our fortresses to cut off the children from the streets,
the young men from the town squares.

<sup>22</sup> Declare that this is what the LORD says:

"The corpses of men will fall like dung upon the open field,
like newly cut grain behind the reaper,
with no one to gather it."

<sup>23</sup> This is what the LORD says:

---

‡ 9:11 Or serpents or dragons

“Let not the wise man boast in his wisdom, nor the strong man in his strength,
 nor the wealthy man in his riches.
 24 But let him who boasts boast in this,
 that he understands and knows Me, that I am the LORD,§ who exercises loving devotion,* justice and righteousness on the earth—for I delight in these things,”

declares the LORD.

25 “Behold, the days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I will punish all who are circumcised yet uncircumcised: <sup>26</sup> Egypt, Judah, Edom, Ammon, Moab, and all the inhabitants of the desert who clip the hair of their temples. For all these nations are uncircumcised, and the whole house of Israel is uncircumcised in heart.”

10

The Sovereignty of God

<sup>1</sup> Hear the word that the LORD speaks to you, O house of Israel. <sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“Do not learn the ways of the nations or be terrified by the signs in the heavens, though the nations themselves are terrified by them.

<sup>3</sup> For the customs of the peoples are worthless;
 they cut down a tree from the forest;
 it is shaped with a chisel
 by the hands of a craftsman.

<sup>4</sup> They adorn it with silver and gold and fasten it with hammer and nails, so that it will not totter.

<sup>5</sup> Like scarecrows in a cucumber patch, their idols cannot speak.
 They must be carried
 because they cannot walk.
 Do not fear them, for they can do no harm, and neither can they do any good.”

<sup>6</sup> There is none like You, O LORD.
 You are great, and Your name is mighty in power.

<sup>7</sup> Who would not fear You, O King of nations?
 This is Your due.
 For among all the wise men of the nations,
 and in all their kingdoms,
 there is none like You.

<sup>8</sup> But they are altogether senseless and foolish, instructed by worthless idols made of wood!

<sup>9</sup> Hammered silver is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz—
 the work of a craftsman
 from the hands of a goldsmith.
 Their clothes are blue and purple,
 all fashioned by skilled workers.

<sup>10</sup> But the LORD is the true God;
 He is the living God and eternal King.

§ 9:24 Cited in 1 Corinthians 1:31 and 2 Corinthians 10:17 * 9:24 Forms of the Hebrew chesed are translated here and in most cases throughout the Scriptures as loving devotion; the range of meaning includes love, goodness, kindness, faithfulness, and mercy, as well as loyalty to a covenant.

The earth quakes at His wrath, and the nations cannot endure His indignation.

<sup>11</sup> Thus you are to tell them: “These gods, who have made neither the heavens nor the earth, will perish from this earth and from under these heavens.”*

<sup>12</sup> The LORD made the earth by His power;
He established the world by His wisdom
and stretched out the heavens by His understanding.

<sup>13</sup> When He thunders,
the waters in the heavens roar;
He causes the clouds to rise
from the ends of the earth.
He generates the lightning with the rain
and brings forth the wind from His storehouses.

<sup>14</sup> Every man is senseless and devoid of knowledge;
every goldsmith is put to shame by his idols.
For his molten images are a fraud,
and there is no breath in them.

<sup>15</sup> They are worthless, a work to be mocked.
In the time of their punishment they will perish.

<sup>16</sup> The Portion of Jacob is not like these,
for He is the Maker of all things,
and Israel is the tribe of His inheritance—
the LORD of Hosts is His name.

The Coming Captivity of Judah

<sup>17</sup> Gather up your belongings from this land, you who live under siege. <sup>18</sup> For this is what the LORD says:

“Behold, at this time I will sling out the inhabitants of the land and bring distress upon them so that they may be captured.”

<sup>19</sup> Woe to me because of my brokenness;
my wound is grievous!
But I said, “This is truly my sickness, and I must bear it.”

<sup>20</sup> My tent is destroyed, and all its ropes are snapped.
My sons have departed from me
and are no more.

I have no one left to pitch my tent or set up my curtains.

<sup>21</sup> For the shepherds have become senseless;
they do not seek the LORD.
Therefore they have not prospered,
and all their flock is scattered.

<sup>22</sup> Listen! The sound of a report is coming—
a great commotion from the land to the north.
The cities of Judah will be made a desolation,
a haunt for jackals.†

<sup>23</sup> I know, O LORD, that a man’s way is not his own;
no one who walks directs his own steps.

* 10:11 The original text of this verse is in Aramaic. † 10:22 Or serpents or dragons

but only with justice—not in Your anger,
or You will bring me to nothing.

<sup>25</sup> Pour out Your wrath on the nations
that do not acknowledge You,
and on the families
that do not call on Your name.
For they have devoured Jacob;
they have consumed him and finished him off;
they have devastated his homeland.

11

The Broken Covenant

<sup>1</sup> This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: <sup>2</sup> “Listen to the words of this covenant and tell them to the men of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> You must tell them that this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Cursed is the man who does not obey the words of this covenant, <sup>4</sup> which I commanded your forefathers when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the iron furnace, saying, ‘Obey Me, and do everything I command you, and you will be My people, and I will be your God.’ <sup>5</sup> This was in order to establish the oath I swore to your forefathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is to this day.”

<sup>6</sup> Then the LORD said to me, “Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying: Hear the words of this covenant and carry them out. <sup>7</sup> For from the time I brought your fathers out of the land of Egypt until today, I strongly warned them again and again,* saying, ‘Obey My voice.’ <sup>8</sup> Yet they would not obey or incline their ears, but each one followed the stubbornness of his evil heart. So I brought on them all the curses of this covenant I had commanded them to follow but they did not keep.”

<sup>9</sup> And the LORD told me, “There is a conspiracy among the men of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup> They have returned to the sins of their forefathers who refused to obey My words. They have followed other gods to serve them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken the covenant I made with their fathers.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says: ‘I am about to bring upon them a disaster that they cannot escape. They will cry out to Me, but I will not listen to them. <sup>12</sup> Then the cities of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem will go and cry out to the gods to which they have been burning incense, but these gods certainly will not save them in their time of disaster. <sup>13</sup> Your gods are indeed as numerous as your cities, O Judah; the altars of shame you have set up—the altars to burn incense to Baal—are as many as the streets of Jerusalem.’

<sup>14</sup> As for you, do not pray for these people. Do not raise up a cry or a prayer on their behalf, for I will not be listening when they call out to Me in their time of disaster.

<sup>15</sup> What right has My beloved in My house, having carried out so many evil schemes?
Can consecrated meat avert your doom,
so that you can rejoice?

<sup>16</sup> The LORD once called you a flourishing olive tree, beautiful with well-formed fruit.
But with a mighty roar He will set it on fire,
and its branches will be consumed.

* 11:7 Literally I earnestly warned them, rising up early and warning (them),

17 The LORD of Hosts, who planted you, has decreed disaster against you on account of the evil that the house of Israel and the house of Judah have brought upon themselves, provoking Me to anger by burning incense to Baal.”

*A Plot against Jeremiah
(Jeremiah 18:18-23)*

18 And the LORD informed me, so I knew.
Then You showed me their deeds.
19 For I was like a gentle lamb led to slaughter;
I did not know that they had plotted against me:
“Let us destroy the tree with its fruit;
let us cut him off from the land of the living,
that his name may be remembered no more.”

20 O LORD of Hosts, who judges righteously, who examines the heart † and mind,
let me see Your vengeance upon them,
for to You I have committed my cause.

21 Therefore this is what the LORD says concerning the people of Anathoth who are seeking your life and saying, “You must not prophesy in the name of the LORD, or you will die by our hand.” 22 So this is what the LORD of Hosts says: “I will punish them. Their young men will die by the sword, their sons and daughters by famine. 23 There will be no remnant, for I will bring disaster on the people of Anathoth in the year of their punishment.”

12

The Prosperity of the Wicked

1 Righteous are You, O LORD,
when I plead before You.
Yet about Your judgments
I wish to contend with You:

Why does the way of the wicked prosper?
Why do all the faithless live at ease?

2 You planted them, and they have taken root.
They have grown and produced fruit.
You are ever on their lips,
but far from their hearts.*

3 But You know me, O LORD;
You see me and test my heart toward You.
Drag away the wicked like sheep to the slaughter and set them apart for the day of carnage.

4 How long will the land mourn and the grass of every field be withered?
Because of the evil of its residents,
the animals and birds have been swept away,
for the people have said,
“He cannot see what our end will be.”

God's Answer to Jeremiah

5 “If you have raced with men on foot and they have worn you out,
how can you compete with horses?
If you stumble in a peaceful land,
how will you do in the thickets of the Jordan?
6 Even your brothers—
your own father's household—

† 11:20 Hebrew the kidneys * 12:2 Hebrew their kidneys

even they have betrayed you;
 even they have cried aloud against you.
 Do not trust them,
 though they speak well of you.

<sup>7</sup> I have forsaken My house;
 I have abandoned My inheritance.

I have given the love of My life into the hands of her enemies.

<sup>8</sup> My inheritance has become to Me like a lion in the forest.

She has roared against Me;
 therefore I hate her.

<sup>9</sup> Is not My inheritance to Me like a speckled bird of prey with other birds of prey † circling against her?

Go, gather all the beasts of the field;
 bring them to devour her.

<sup>10</sup> Many shepherds have destroyed My vineyard;
 they have trampled My plot of ground.

They have turned My pleasant field into a desolate wasteland.

<sup>11</sup> They have made it a desolation;
 desolate before Me, it mourns.

All the land is laid waste,
 but no man takes it to heart.

<sup>12</sup> Over all the barren heights in the wilderness the destroyers have come,
 for the sword of the LORD devours from one end of the earth to the other.
 No flesh has peace.

<sup>13</sup> They have sown wheat but harvested thorns.
 They have exhausted themselves to no avail.

Bear the shame of your harvest
 because of the fierce anger of the LORD.”

*A Message for Israel's Neighbors
 (Amos 1:1–15)*

<sup>14</sup> This is what the LORD says: “As for all My evil neighbors who attack the inheritance that I bequeathed to My people Israel, I am about to uproot them from their land, and I will uproot the house of Judah from among them. <sup>15</sup> But after I have uprooted them, I will once again have compassion on them and return each one to his inheritance and to his land.

<sup>16</sup> And if they will diligently learn the ways of My people and swear by My name, saying, ‘As surely as the LORD lives’—just as they once taught My people to swear by Baal—then they will be established among My people. <sup>17</sup> But if they will not obey, then I will uproot that nation; I will uproot it and destroy it, declares the LORD.”

The Linen Loincloth

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD said to me: “Go and buy yourself a linen loincloth and put it around your waist, but do not let it touch water.”

<sup>2</sup> So I bought a loincloth as the LORD had instructed me, and I put it around my waist.

† 12:9 Or like a speckled hyena with birds of prey

<sup>3</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me a second time: <sup>4</sup> “Take the loincloth that you bought and are wearing, and go at once to Perath * and hide it there in a crevice of the rocks.”

<sup>5</sup> So I went and hid it at Perath, as the LORD had commanded me.

<sup>6</sup> Many days later the LORD said to me, “Arise, go to Perath, and get the loincloth that I commanded you to hide there.” <sup>7</sup> So I went to Perath and dug up the loincloth, and I took it from the place where I had hidden it. But now it was ruined—of no use at all.

<sup>8</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me: <sup>9</sup> “This is what the LORD says: In the same way I will ruin the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup> These evil people, who refuse to listen to My words, who follow the stubbornness of their own hearts, and who go after other gods to serve and worship them, they will be like this loincloth—of no use at all.

<sup>11</sup> For just as a loincloth clings to a man’s waist, so I have made the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah cling to Me, declares the LORD, so that they might be My people for My renown and praise and glory. But they did not listen.

The Wineskins

<sup>12</sup> Therefore you are to tell them that this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘Every wineskin shall be filled with wine.’

And when they reply, ‘Don’t we surely know that every wineskin should be filled with wine?’ <sup>13</sup> then you are to tell them that this is what the LORD says: ‘I am going to fill with drunkenness all who live in this land—the kings who sit on David’s throne, the priests, the prophets, and all the people of Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> I will smash them against one another, fathers and sons alike, declares the LORD. I will allow no mercy or pity or compassion to keep Me from destroying them.’ ”

Captivity Threatened

<sup>15</sup> Listen and give heed. Do not be arrogant,
for the LORD has spoken.

<sup>16</sup> Give glory to the LORD your God before He brings darkness, before your feet stumble
on the dusky mountains.

You wait for light,
but He turns it into deep gloom and thick darkness.

<sup>17</sup> But if you do not listen,
I will weep in secret because of your pride.

My eyes will overflow with tears,
because the LORD’s flock has been taken captive.

<sup>18</sup> Say to the king and to the queen mother:
“Take a lowly seat,
for your glorious crowns have fallen from your heads.”

<sup>19</sup> The cities of the Negev have been shut tight, and no one can open them.

All Judah has been carried into exile, wholly taken captive.

<sup>20</sup> Lift up your eyes and see those coming from the north.

Where is the flock entrusted to you,
the sheep that were your pride?

<sup>21</sup> What will you say when He sets over you

 Will not pangs of anguish grip you,
 as they do a woman in labor?

 "Why has this happened to me?"

 that your skirts have been stripped off and your body has been exposed.†

 or the leopard his spots?

 driven by the desert wind.

 "because you have forgotten Me and trusted in falsehood.

 that your shame may be seen.
 27 Your adulteries and lustful neighings, your shameless prostitution
 on the hills and in the fields—
 I have seen your detestable acts.
 Woe to you, O Jerusalem!
 How long will you remain unclean?"

declares the LORD,

Drought, Famine, Sword, and Plague

1 This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought:

2 "Judah mourns
 and her gates languish.
 Her people wail for the land,
 and a cry goes up from Jerusalem.
 3 The nobles send their servants for water;
 they go to the cisterns, but find no water;
 their jars return empty.
 They are ashamed and humiliated;
 they cover their heads.
 4 The ground is cracked
 because no rain has fallen on the land.
 The farmers are ashamed;
 they cover their heads.
 5 Even the doe in the field deserts her newborn fawn because there is no grass.
 6 Wild donkeys stand on barren heights;
 they pant for air like jackals;*
 their eyes fail for lack of pasture."
 7 Although our iniquities testify against us, O LORD, act for the sake of Your name.
 Indeed, our rebellions are many;
 we have sinned against You.
 8 O Hope of Israel,
 its Savior in times of distress,

† 13:22 Literally and your heels have suffered violence    ‡ 13:23 Hebrew that Cushite; that is, probably a person from the upper Nile region    * 14:6 Or serpents or dragons why are You like a stranger in the land, like a traveler who stays but a night?

 9 Why are You like a man taken by surprise, like a warrior powerless to save?
 Yet You are among us, O LORD,
 and we are called by Your name.

Do not forsake us!

10 This is what the LORD says about this people:

“Truly they love to wander;
 they have not restrained their feet.
 So the LORD does not accept them;
 He will now remember their guilt and call their sins to account.”

11 Then the LORD said to me, “Do not pray for the well-being of this people. 12 Although they may fast, I will not listen to their cry; although they may offer burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them. Instead, I will finish them off by sword and famine and plague.”

13 “Ah, Lord GOD!” I replied, “Look, the prophets are telling them, ‘You will not see the sword or suffer famine, but I will give you lasting peace in this place.’ ”

14 “The prophets are prophesying lies in My name,” replied the LORD. “I did not send them or appoint them or speak to them. They are prophesying to you a false vision, a worthless divination, the futility and delusion of their own minds.

15 Therefore this is what the LORD says about the prophets who prophesy in My name: I did not send them, yet they say, ‘No sword or famine will touch this land.’

By sword and famine these very prophets will meet their end! 16 And the people to whom they prophesy will be thrown into the streets of Jerusalem because of famine and sword. There will be no one to bury them or their wives, their sons or their daughters. I will pour out their own evil upon them.

17 You are to speak this word to them:

‘My eyes overflow with tears;
 day and night they do not cease,
 for the virgin daughter of my people has been shattered by a crushing blow,
 a severely grievous wound.

18 If I go out to the country,
 I see those slain by the sword;
 if I enter the city,
 I see those ravaged by famine!
 For both prophet and priest travel to a land they do not know.’ ”

A Prayer for Mercy
(Isaiah 63:15-19)

19 Have You rejected Judah completely?

Do You despise Zion?
 Why have You stricken us
 so that we are beyond healing?
 We hoped for peace,
 but no good has come,
 and for the time of healing,
 but there was only terror.

20 We acknowledge our wickedness, O LORD,

the guilt of our fathers;
indeed, we have sinned against You.

<sup>21</sup> For the sake of Your name do not despise us;
do not disgrace Your glorious throne.
Remember Your covenant with us;
do not break it.

<sup>22</sup> Can the worthless idols of the nations bring rain?
Do the skies alone send showers?
Is this not by You, O LORD our God?
So we put our hope in You,
for You have done all these things.

15

Judgment to Continue

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to me: "Even if Moses and Samuel should stand before Me, My heart would not go out to this people. Send them from My presence, and let them go.
<sup>2</sup> If they ask you, 'Where shall we go?' you are to tell them that this is what the LORD says:

'Those destined for death, to death;
those destined for the sword, to the sword;*
those destined for famine, to famine;
and those destined for captivity, to captivity.'

<sup>3</sup> I will appoint over them four kinds of destroyers, declares the LORD: the sword to kill, the dogs to drag away, and the birds of the air and beasts of the earth to devour and destroy. <sup>4</sup> I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth because of what Manasseh son of Hezekiah king of Judah did in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> Who will have pity on you, O Jerusalem?
Who will mourn for you?

Who will turn aside
to ask about your welfare?

<sup>6</sup> You have forsaken Me, declares the LORD.
You have turned your back.

So I will stretch out My hand against you and I will destroy you;
I am weary of showing compassion.

<sup>7</sup> I will scatter them with a winnowing fork at the gates of the land.

I will bereave and destroy My people who have not turned from their ways.

<sup>8</sup> I will make their widows more numerous than the sand of the sea.

I will bring a destroyer at noon against the mothers of young men.

I will suddenly bring upon them anguish and dismay.

<sup>9</sup> The mother of seven will grow faint;
she will breathe her last breath.
Her sun will set while it is still day;
she will be disgraced and humiliated.

And the rest I will put to the sword in the presence of their enemies,"

declares the LORD.

Jeremiah's Woe

* 15:2 See Revelation 13:10.

10 Woe to me, my mother,
 that you have borne me,
 a man of strife and conflict
 in all the land.
 I have neither lent nor borrowed,
 yet everyone curses me.

11 The LORD said:

“Surely I will deliver you for a good purpose;
 surely I will intercede with your enemy
 in your time of trouble, in your time of distress.

12 Can anyone smash iron—iron from the north—or bronze?

13 Your wealth and your treasures
 I will give up as plunder, without charge for all your sins
 within all your borders.

14 Then I will enslave you to your enemies in a land † you do not know, for My anger will kindle a fire that will burn against you.”

15 You understand, O LORD;
 remember me and attend to me.
 Avenge me against my persecutors.
 In Your patience, do not take me away.
 Know that I endure reproach for Your honor.

16 Your words were found, and I ate them.
 Your words became my joy
 and my heart’s delight.

For I bear Your name,
 O LORD God of Hosts.

17 I never sat with the band of revelers, nor did I celebrate with them.
 Because Your hand was on me, I sat alone,
 for You have filled me with indignation.

18 Why is my pain unending, and my wound incurable,
 refusing to be healed?
 You have indeed become like a mirage to me—
 water that is not there.

The LORD’s Promise

19 Therefore this is what the LORD says:

“If you return, I will restore you;
 you will stand in My presence.
 And if you speak words that are noble instead of worthless,
 you will be My spokesman.
 It is they who must turn to you,
 but you must not turn to them.

20 Then I will make you a wall to this people,
 a fortified wall of bronze;
 they will fight against you
 but will not overcome you,
 for I am with you to save and deliver you,
 declares the LORD.

† 15:14 Some Hebrew manuscripts, LXX, and Syriac (see also Jeremiah 17:4); most Hebrew manuscripts Then I will cause your enemies to bring you into a land

<sup>21</sup> I will deliver you from the hand of the wicked and redeem you from the grasp of the ruthless.”

16

Disaster Predicted

<sup>1</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> “You must not marry or have sons or daughters in this place.”

<sup>3</sup> For this is what the LORD says concerning the sons and daughters born in this place, and the mothers who bore them, and the fathers who fathered them in this land: <sup>4</sup> “They will die from deadly diseases. They will not be mourned or buried, but will lie like dung on the ground. They will be finished off by sword and famine, and their corpses will become food for the birds of the air and beasts of the earth.”

<sup>5</sup> Indeed, this is what the LORD says: “Do not enter a house where there is a funeral meal. Do not go to mourn or show sympathy, for I have removed from this people My peace, My loving devotion, and My compassion,” declares the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> “Both great and small will die in this land. They will not be buried or mourned, nor will anyone cut himself or shave his head for them. <sup>7</sup> No food will be offered to comfort those who mourn the dead; not even a cup of consolation will be given for the loss of a father or mother.

<sup>8</sup> You must not enter a house where there is feasting and sit down with them to eat and drink. <sup>9</sup> For this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: I am going to remove from this place, before your very eyes and in your days, the sounds of joy and gladness, the voices of the bride and bridegroom.

<sup>10</sup> When you tell these people all these things, they will ask you, ‘Why has the LORD pronounced all this great disaster against us? What is our guilt? What is the sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?’

<sup>11</sup> Then you are to answer them: ‘It is because your fathers have forsaken Me, declares the LORD, and followed other gods, and served and worshiped them. They abandoned Me and did not keep My instruction. <sup>12</sup> And you have done more evil than your fathers. See how each of you follows the stubbornness of his evil heart instead of obeying Me. <sup>13</sup> So I will cast you out of this land into a land that neither you nor your fathers have known. There you will serve other gods day and night, for I will show you no favor.’

God Will Restore Israel

<sup>14</sup> Yet behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when they will no longer say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of the land of Egypt.’

<sup>15</sup> Instead they will say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of the land of the north and all the other lands to which He had banished them.’ For I will return them to their land that I gave to their forefathers.

<sup>16</sup> But for now I will send for many fishermen, declares the LORD, and they will catch them. After that I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them down on every mountain and hill, even from the clefts of the rocks.

<sup>17</sup> For My eyes are on all their ways. They are not hidden from My face, and their guilt is not concealed from My eyes. <sup>18</sup> And I will first repay them double their iniquity and their sin, because they have defiled My land with the carcasses of their detestable idols, and they have filled My inheritance with their abominations.”

<sup>19</sup> O LORD, my strength and my fortress, my refuge in the day of distress,
the nations will come to You from the ends of the earth, and they will say, “Our fathers inherited nothing but lies,
worthless idols of no benefit at all.

20 Can man make gods for himself?
Such are not gods!"

21 "Therefore behold, I will inform them, and this time I will make them know
My power and My might;
then they will know that My name is the LORD.

The Sin and Punishment of Judah

1 "The sin of Judah is written with an iron stylus, engraved with a diamond point on the tablets of their hearts and on the horns of their altars.
2 Even their children remember their altars and Asherah poles by the green trees and on the high hills.
3 O My mountain in the countryside,
I will give over your wealth and all your treasures as plunder, because of the sin of your high places,
within all your borders.
4 And you yourself will relinquish
the inheritance that I gave you.
I will enslave you to your enemies in a land that you do not know,
for you have kindled My anger;
it will burn forever."

5 This is what the LORD says:

"Cursed is the man who trusts in mankind, who makes the flesh his strength * and turns his heart from the LORD.
6 He will be like a shrub in the desert;
he will not see when prosperity comes.
He will dwell in the parched places of the desert,
in a salt land where no one lives.

7 But blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, whose confidence is in Him.

8 He is like a tree planted by the waters that sends out its roots toward the stream.
It does not fear when the heat comes,
and its leaves are always green.
It does not worry in a year of drought,
nor does it cease to produce fruit.

9 The heart is deceitful above all things and beyond cure.

Who can understand it?

10 I, the LORD, search the heart;
I examine the mind †
to reward a man according to his way,
by what his deeds deserve.

11 Like a partridge hatching eggs it did not lay is the man who makes a fortune unjustly.
In the middle of his days his riches will desert him,
and in the end he will be the fool."

Jeremiah's Prayer for Deliverance

- 12 A glorious throne, exalted from the beginning, is the place of our sanctuary.
- 13 O LORD, the hope of Israel,
all who abandon You will be put to shame.
All who turn away will be written in the dust,
for they have abandoned the LORD,
the fountain of living water.
- 14 Heal me, O LORD, and I will be healed;
save me, and I will be saved,
for You are my praise.
- 15 Behold, they keep saying to me,
"Where is the word of the LORD?
Let it come now!"
- 16 But I have not run away from being Your shepherd;
I have not desired the day of despair.
You know that the utterance of my lips was spoken in Your presence.
- 17 Do not become a terror to me;
You are my refuge in the day of disaster.
- 18 Let my persecutors be put to shame,
but do not let me be put to shame.
Let them be terrified,
but do not let me be terrified.
Bring upon them the day of disaster and shatter them with double destruction.

*Restoring the Sabbath
(Nehemiah 13:15-22)*

19 This is what the LORD said to me: "Go and stand at the gate of the people, through which the kings of Judah go in and out; and stand at all the other gates of Jerusalem.

20 Say to them, 'Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, all people of Judah and Jerusalem who enter through these gates. 21 This is what the LORD says: Take heed for yourselves; do not carry a load or bring it through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. 22 You must not carry a load out of your houses or do any work on the Sabbath day, but you must keep the Sabbath day holy, just as I commanded your forefathers. 23 Yet they would not listen or incline their ear; but they stiffened their necks and would not listen or receive My discipline.

24 If, however, you listen carefully to Me, says the LORD, and bring no load through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, and keep the Sabbath day holy, and do no work on it, 25 then kings and princes will enter through the gates of this city. They will sit on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses with their officials, along with the men of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem, and this city will be inhabited forever. 26 And people will come from the cities of Judah and the places around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin, and from the foothills,‡ the hill country, and the Negev, bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, grain offerings and frankincense, and thank offerings to the house of the LORD.

27 But if you do not listen to Me to keep the Sabbath day holy by not carrying a load while entering the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will kindle an unquenchable fire in its gates to consume the citadels of Jerusalem.' "

18The Potter and the Clay*

‡ 17:26 Hebrew Shephelah or lowlands; that is, the western foothills of Judea

<sup>1</sup> This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: <sup>2</sup> “Go down at once to the potter’s house, and there I will reveal My message to you.”

<sup>3</sup> So I went down to the potter’s house and saw him working at the wheel. <sup>4</sup> But the vessel that he was shaping from the clay became flawed in his hand; so he formed it into another vessel, as it seemed best for him to do.

<sup>5</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>6</sup> “O house of Israel, declares the LORD, can I not treat you as this potter treats his clay? Just like clay in the potter’s hand, so are you in My hand, O house of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> At any time I might announce that a nation or kingdom will be uprooted, torn down, and destroyed. <sup>8</sup> But if that nation I warned turns from its evil, then I will relent of the disaster I had planned to bring.

<sup>9</sup> And if at another time I announce that I will build up and establish a nation or kingdom, <sup>10</sup> and if it does evil in My sight and does not listen to My voice, then I will relent of the good I had intended for it.

<sup>11</sup> Now therefore, tell the men of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem that this is what the LORD says: ‘Behold, I am planning a disaster for you and devising a plan against you. Turn now, each of you, from your evil ways, and correct your ways and deeds.’

<sup>12</sup> But they will reply, ‘It is hopeless. We will follow our own plans, and each of us will act according to the stubbornness of his evil heart.’ ”

<sup>13</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says:

“Inquire among the nations:

Who has ever heard things like these?

Virgin Israel has done a most terrible thing.

<sup>14</sup> Does the snow of Lebanon ever leave its rocky slopes?

Or do its cool waters flowing from a distance ever run dry?

<sup>15</sup> Yet My people have forgotten Me.

They burn incense to worthless idols that make them stumble in their ways, leaving the ancient roads to walk on rutted bypaths

instead of on the highway.

<sup>16</sup> They have made their land a desolation, a perpetual object of scorn;

all who pass by will be appalled
and shake their heads.

<sup>17</sup> I will scatter them before the enemy
like the east wind.

I will show them My back and not My face in the day of their calamity.”

*Another Plot against Jeremiah
(Jeremiah 11:18–23)*

<sup>18</sup> Then some said, “Come, let us make plans against Jeremiah, for the law will never be lost to the priest, nor counsel to the wise, nor an oracle to the prophet. Come, let us denounce him and pay no heed to any of his words.”

<sup>19</sup> Attend to me, O LORD.

Hear what my accusers are saying!

<sup>20</sup> Should good be repaid with evil?

Yet they have dug a pit for me.

Remember how I stood before You to speak good on their behalf, to turn Your wrath from them.

- <sup>21</sup> Therefore, hand their children over to famine;
pour out the power of the sword upon them.
Let their wives become childless and widowed;
let their husbands be slain by disease,
their young men struck down by the sword in battle.
- <sup>22</sup> Let a cry be heard from their houses
when You suddenly bring raiders against them, for they have dug a pit to capture me
and have hidden snares for my feet.
- <sup>23</sup> But You, O LORD, know all their deadly plots against me.
Do not wipe out their guilt or blot out their sin from Your sight.
Let them be overthrown before You;
deal with them in the time of Your anger.

The Broken Jar

Proclaim there the words I speak to you, <sup>3</sup> saying, ‘Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah and residents of Jerusalem. This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: I am going to bring such disaster on this place that the ears of all who hear of it will ring, <sup>4</sup> because they have abandoned Me and made this a foreign place. They have burned incense in this place to other gods that neither they nor their fathers nor the kings of Judah have ever known. They have filled this place with the blood of the innocent. <sup>5</sup> They have built high places to Baal on which to burn their children in the fire as offerings to Baal—something I never commanded or mentioned, nor did it even enter My mind.

<sup>6</sup> So behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when this place will no longer be called Topheth or the Valley of Ben-hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter. <sup>7</sup> And in this place I will ruin * the plans of Judah and Jerusalem. I will make them fall by the sword before their enemies, by the hands of those who seek their lives, and I will give their carcasses as food to the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth.

<sup>8</sup> I will make this city a desolation and an object of scorn.† All who pass by will be appalled and will scoff at all her wounds. <sup>9</sup> I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and daughters, and they will eat one another’s flesh in the siege and distress inflicted on them by their enemies who seek their lives.’

<sup>10</sup> Then you are to shatter the jar in the presence of the men who accompany you, <sup>11</sup> and you are to proclaim to them that this is what the LORD of Hosts says: I will shatter this nation and this city, like one shatters a potter’s jar that can never again be repaired. They will bury the dead in Topheth until there is no more room to bury them.

<sup>12</sup> This is what I will do to this place and to its residents, declares the LORD. I will make this city like Topheth. <sup>13</sup> The houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah will be defiled like that place, Topheth—all the houses on whose rooftops they burned incense to all the host of heaven and poured out drink offerings to other gods.”

<sup>14</sup> Then Jeremiah returned from Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy, and he stood in the courtyard of the house of the LORD and proclaimed to all the people, <sup>15</sup> “This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: ‘Behold, I am about to bring

Pashhur Persecutes Jeremiah

<sup>1</sup> When Pashhur the priest, the son of Immer and the chief official in the house of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things, <sup>2</sup> he had Jeremiah the prophet beaten and put in the stocks at the Upper Gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> The next day, when Pashhur released Jeremiah from the stocks, Jeremiah said to him, "The LORD does not call you Pashhur, but Magor-missabib.* <sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD says: 'I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends. They will fall by the sword of their enemies before your very eyes. And I will hand Judah over to the king of Babylon, and he will carry them away to Babylon and put them to the sword. <sup>5</sup> I will give away all the wealth of this city—all its products and valuables, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah—to their enemies. They will plunder them, seize them, and carry them off to Babylon. <sup>6</sup> And you, Pashhur, and all who live in your house, will go into captivity. You will go to Babylon, and there you will die and be buried—you and all your friends to whom you have prophesied these lies.' "

Jeremiah's Complaint

<sup>7</sup> You have deceived me, O LORD, and I was deceived.

You have overcome me and prevailed.

I am a laughingstock all day long;
everyone mocks me.

<sup>8</sup> For whenever I speak, I cry out;

I proclaim violence and destruction.

For the word of the LORD has become to me
a reproach and derision all day long.

<sup>9</sup> If I say, "I will not mention Him or speak any more in His name,"

His message becomes a fire burning in my heart, shut up in my bones,
and I become weary of holding it in,
and I cannot prevail.

<sup>10</sup> For I have heard the whispering of many:

"Terror is on every side!
Report him; let us report him!"

All my trusted friends
watch for my fall:

"Perhaps he will be deceived
so that we may prevail against him and take our vengeance upon him."

<sup>11</sup> But the LORD is with me like a fearsome warrior.

Therefore, my persecutors will stumble and will not prevail.

Since they have not succeeded, they will be utterly put to shame,
with an everlasting disgrace that will never be forgotten.

<sup>12</sup> O LORD of Hosts, who examines the righteous, who sees the heart † and mind,

let me see Your vengeance upon them,
for to You I have committed my cause.

<sup>13</sup> Sing to the LORD!

Praise the LORD!

For He rescues the life of the needy from the hands of evildoers.

- 14 Cursed be the day I was born!
 May the day my mother bore me never be blessed.
 15 Cursed be the man who brought my father the news, saying, "A son is born to you,"
 bringing him great joy.
 16 May that man be like the cities that the LORD overthrew without compassion.
 May he hear an outcry in the morning
 and a battle cry at noon, 17 because he did not kill me in the womb
 so that my mother might have been my grave, and her womb forever enlarged.
 18 Why did I come out of the womb to see only trouble and sorrow,
 and to end my days in shame?

Jerusalem Will Fall to Babylon

1 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD when King Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur son of Malchijah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah. They said,
 2 "Please inquire of the LORD on our behalf, since Nebuchadnezzar * king of Babylon is waging war against us. Perhaps the LORD will perform for us something like all His past wonders, so that Nebuchadnezzar will withdraw from us."

3 But Jeremiah answered, "You are to tell Zedekiah that 4 this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'I will turn against you the weapons of war in your hands, with which you are fighting the king of Babylon and the Chaldeans † who besiege you outside the wall, and I will assemble their forces in the center of this city. 5 And I Myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and a mighty arm, with anger, fury, and great wrath. 6 I will strike down the residents of this city, both man and beast. They will die in a terrible plague.'

7 'After that,' declares the LORD, 'I will hand over Zedekiah king of Judah, his officers, and the people in this city who survive the plague and sword and famine, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and to their enemies who seek their lives. He will put them to the sword; he will not spare them or show pity or compassion.'

8 Furthermore, you are to tell this people that this is what the LORD says: 'Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death. 9 Whoever stays in this city will die by sword and famine and plague, but whoever goes out and surrenders to the Chaldeans who besiege you will live; he will retain his life like a spoil of war. 10 For I have set My face against this city to bring disaster and not good,' declares the LORD. It will be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, who will destroy it with fire.'

A Message to the House of David

11 Moreover, tell the house of the king of Judah to hear the word of the LORD. 12 O house of David, this is what the LORD says:

'Administer justice every morning, and rescue the victim of robbery
 from the hand of his oppressor, or My wrath will go forth like fire
 and burn with no one to extinguish it because of their evil deeds.'

* 21:2 Hebrew Nebuchadrezzar, a variant of Nebuchadnezzar (king of Babylon), which occurs frequently in Jeremiah. The latter spelling is used throughout Jeremiah for consistency. † 21:4 That is, the Babylonians; also in verse 9

atop the rocky plateau—
declares the LORD—

you who say, “Who can come against us?
Who can enter our dwellings?”

<sup>14</sup> I will punish you as your deeds deserve,
declares the LORD.

I will kindle a fire in your forest that will consume everything around you.’ ”

22

A Warning to Judah’s Kings

<sup>4</sup> For if you will indeed carry out these commands, then kings who sit on David’s throne will enter through the gates of this palace riding on chariots and horses—they and their officials and their people. <sup>5</sup> But if you do not obey these words, then I swear by Myself, declares the LORD, that this house will become a pile of rubble.’ ”

A Warning about the Palace

<sup>6</sup> For this is what the LORD says concerning the house of the king of Judah:

“You are like Gilead to Me, like the summit of Lebanon;
but I will surely turn you into a desert,
like cities that are uninhabited.

<sup>7</sup> I will appoint destroyers against you,
each man with his weapons,
and they will cut down the choicest of your cedars and throw them into the fire.

<sup>8</sup> And many nations will pass by this city and ask one another, ‘Why has the LORD done such a thing to this great city?’

<sup>9</sup> Then people will reply, ‘Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God and have worshiped and served other gods.’ ”

A Warning about Shallum

<sup>10</sup> Do not weep for the dead king;
do not mourn his loss.
Weep bitterly for the one who is exiled, for he will never return
to see his native land.

<sup>11</sup> For this is what the LORD says concerning Shallum * son of Josiah, king of Judah, who succeeded his father Josiah but has gone forth from this place: “He will never return, <sup>12</sup> but he will die in the place to which he was exiled; he will never see this land again.”

A Warning about Jehoiakim

<sup>13</sup> “Woe to him who builds his palace by unrighteousness, and his upper rooms without justice,
who makes his countrymen serve without pay,
and fails to pay their wages,

---

* 22:11 Shallum was also called Jehoahaz.

14 who says, 'I will build myself a great palace, with spacious upper rooms.'
So he cuts windows in it, panels it with cedar,
and paints it with vermilion.

15 Does it make you a king to excel † in cedar?
Did not your father have food and drink?
He administered justice and righteousness,
and so it went well with him.

16 He took up the cause of the poor and needy,
and so it went well with him.
Is this not what it means to know Me?"
declares the LORD.

17 "But your eyes and heart are set on nothing except your own dishonest gain,
on shedding innocent blood,
on practicing extortion and oppression."

18 Therefore this is what the LORD says concerning Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah:

"They will not mourn for him:
'Alas, my brother! Alas, my sister!'

They will not mourn for him:
'Alas, my master! Alas, his splendor!'

19 He will be buried like a donkey, dragged away and thrown outside the gates of Jerusalem.

20 Go up to Lebanon and cry out;
raise your voice in Bashan;
cry out from Abarim,
for all your lovers have been crushed.

21 I warned you when you were secure.
You said, 'I will not listen.'

This has been your way from youth, that you have not obeyed My voice.

22 The wind will drive away all your shepherds, and your lovers will go into captivity.

Then you will be ashamed and humiliated because of all your wickedness.

23 O inhabitant of Lebanon,‡ nestled in the cedars,

how you will groan when pangs of anguish come upon you, agony like a woman in labor."

A Warning to Coniah

24 "As surely as I live," declares the LORD, "even if you, Coniah § son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, were a signet ring on My right hand, I would pull you off. 25 In fact, I will hand you over to those you dread, who want to take your life—to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and to the Chaldeans.* 26 I will hurl you and the mother who gave you birth into another land, where neither of you were born—and there you both will die. 27 You will never return to the land for which you long."

28 Is this man Coniah a despised and shattered pot, a jar that no one wants?

Why are he and his descendants hurled out and cast into a land they do not know?

29 O land, land, land,

† 22:15 Or because you enclose yourself ‡ 22:23 That is, the palace in Jerusalem; see 1 Kings 7:2. § 22:24 Coniah is a variant of Jehoiachin; also in verse 28. * 22:25 That is, the Babylonians

hear the word of the LORD!

<sup>30</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“Enroll this man as childless,
a man who will not prosper in his lifetime.
None of his descendants will prosper to sit on the throne of David or to rule again in Judah.”

23

David's Righteous Branch

<sup>2</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says about the shepherds who tend My people: “You have scattered My flock and driven them away, and have not attended to them. Behold, I will attend to you for the evil of your deeds, declares the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> Then I Myself will gather the remnant of My flock from all the lands to which I have banished them, and I will return them to their pasture, where they will be fruitful and multiply. <sup>4</sup> I will raise up shepherds over them who will tend them, and they will no longer be afraid or dismayed, nor will any go missing, declares the LORD.

declares the LORD,
when I will raise up for David *
a righteous Branch, and He will reign wisely as King and will administer justice and righteousness in the land.

<sup>6</sup> In His days Judah will be saved, and Israel will dwell securely.
And this is His name by which He will be called:
The LORD Our Righteousness.†

<sup>7</sup> So behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when they will no longer say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of the land of Egypt.’ <sup>8</sup> Instead they will say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who brought and led the descendants of the house of Israel up out of the land of the north and all the other lands to which He had banished them.’ Then they will dwell once more in their own land.”

Lying Prophets

<sup>9</sup> As for the prophets:

My heart is broken within me,
and all my bones tremble.
I have become like a drunkard,
like a man overcome by wine,
because of the LORD,
because of His holy words.

<sup>10</sup> For the land is full of adulterers—
because of the curse, the land mourns and the pastures of the wilderness have dried up—their course is evil
and their power is misused.

<sup>11</sup> “For both prophet and priest are ungodly;
even in My house I have found their wickedness,”

declares the LORD.

* 23:5 Or up for David's line † 23:6 Hebrew YHWH Tsidqenu

12 "Therefore their path will become slick;
they will be driven away into the darkness and fall into it.
For I will bring disaster upon them in the year of their punishment,"

declares the LORD.

13 "Among the prophets of Samaria
I saw an offensive thing:
They prophesied by Baal
and led My people Israel astray.

14 And among the prophets of Jerusalem
I have seen a horrible thing:
They commit adultery
and walk in lies.
They strengthen the hands of evildoers,
so that no one turns his back on wickedness.
They are all like Sodom to Me;
the people of Jerusalem are like Gomorrah."

15 Therefore this is what the LORD of Hosts says concerning the prophets:

"I will feed them wormwood and give them poisoned water to drink, for from the prophets of Jerusalem
ungodliness has spread throughout the land."

16 This is what the LORD of Hosts says:

"Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you.
They are filling you with false hopes.
They speak visions from their own minds,
not from the mouth of the LORD.

17 They keep saying to those who despise Me,
'The LORD says that you will have peace,' and to everyone who walks in the stubbornness of his own heart,
'No harm will come to you.'

18 But which of them has stood in the council of the LORD to see and hear His word?

Who has given heed to His word and obeyed it?

19 Behold, the storm of the LORD
has gone out with fury,
a whirlwind swirling down
upon the heads of the wicked.

20 The anger of the LORD will not turn back until He has fully accomplished the purposes of His heart.
In the days to come
you will understand this clearly.

21 I did not send these prophets,
yet they have run with their message;
I did not speak to them,
yet they have prophesied.

22 But if they had stood in My council, they would have proclaimed My words to My people and turned them back from their evil ways and deeds."

23 "Am I only a God nearby," declares the LORD, "and not a God far away?"

24 "Can a man hide in secret places where I cannot see him?" declares the LORD.

“Do I not fill the heavens and the earth?” declares the LORD.

<sup>25</sup> “I have heard the sayings of the prophets who prophesy lies in My name: ‘I had a dream! I had a dream!’ <sup>26</sup> How long will this continue in the hearts of these prophets who prophesy falsehood, these prophets of the delusion of their own minds? <sup>27</sup> They suppose the dreams that they tell one another will make My people forget My name, just as their fathers forgot My name through the worship of Baal.

<sup>28</sup> Let the prophet who has a dream retell it, but let him who has My word speak it truthfully. For what is straw compared to grain?” declares the LORD. <sup>29</sup> “Is not My word like fire,” declares the LORD, “and like a hammer that smashes a rock?”

<sup>30</sup> “Therefore behold,” declares the LORD, “I am against the prophets who steal from one another words they attribute to Me.”

<sup>31</sup> “Yes,” declares the LORD, “I am against the prophets who wag their own tongues and proclaim, ‘The LORD declares it.’”

<sup>32</sup> “Indeed,” declares the LORD, “I am against those who prophesy false dreams and retell them to lead My people astray with their reckless lies. It was not I who sent them or commanded them, and they are of no benefit at all to these people,” declares the LORD.

False Prophecies

<sup>33</sup> “Now when this people or a prophet or priest asks you, ‘What is the burden of the LORD?’ you are to say to them, ‘What burden? I will forsake you, declares the LORD.’

<sup>34</sup> As for the prophet or priest or anyone who claims, ‘This is the burden of the LORD,’ I will punish that man and his household.

<sup>35</sup> This is what each man is to say to his friend and to his brother: ‘What has the LORD answered?’ or ‘What has the LORD spoken?’ <sup>36</sup> But refer no more to the burden of the LORD, for each man’s word becomes the burden, so that you pervert the words of the living God, the LORD of Hosts, our God.

<sup>37</sup> Thus you are to say to the prophet: ‘What has the LORD answered you?’ and ‘What has the LORD spoken?’

<sup>38</sup> But if you claim, ‘This is the burden of the LORD,’ then this is what the LORD says: Because you have said, ‘This is the burden of the LORD,’ and I specifically told you not to make this claim, <sup>39</sup> therefore I will surely forget you and will cast you out of My presence, both you and the city that I gave to you and your fathers. <sup>40</sup> And I will bring upon you everlasting shame and perpetual humiliation that will never be forgotten.”

The Good and Bad Figs

<sup>1</sup> After Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away Jeconiah * son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, as well as the officials of Judah and the craftsmen and metalsmiths from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon,† the LORD showed me two baskets of figs placed in front of the temple of the LORD. <sup>2</sup> One basket had very good figs, like those that ripen early, but the other basket contained very poor figs, so bad they could not be eaten.

“Figs!” I replied. “The good figs are very good, but the bad figs are very bad, so bad they cannot be eaten.”

* 24:1 Jeconiah is a variant of Jehoiachin; see 2 Kings 24:12. † 24:1 Or metalsmiths, and had brought them from Jerusalem to Babylon

<sup>8</sup> But like the bad figs, so bad they cannot be eaten,’ says the LORD, ‘so will I deal with Zedekiah king of Judah, his officials, and the remnant of Jerusalem—those remaining in this land and those living in the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup> I will make them a horror and an offense to all the kingdoms of the earth, a disgrace and an object of scorn, ridicule, and cursing wherever I have banished them. <sup>10</sup> And I will send against them sword and famine and plague, until they have perished from the land that I gave to them and their fathers.’ ”

25

Seventy Years of Captivity

<sup>1</sup> This is the word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, which was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. <sup>2</sup> So the prophet Jeremiah spoke to all the people of Judah and all the residents of Jerusalem as follows:

<sup>3</sup> “From the thirteenth year of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah until this very day—twenty-three years—the word of the LORD has come to me, and I have spoken to you again and again,* but you have not listened. <sup>4</sup> And the LORD has sent all His servants the prophets to you again and again,† but you have not listened or inclined your ear to hear.

<sup>5</sup> The prophets told you, ‘Turn now, each of you, from your evil ways and deeds, and you can dwell in the land that the LORD has given to you and your fathers forever and ever. <sup>6</sup> Do not follow other gods to serve and worship them, and do not provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands. Then I will do you no harm.’

<sup>7</sup> ‘But to your own harm, you have not listened to Me,’ declares the LORD, ‘so you have provoked Me to anger with the works of your hands.’

<sup>8</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD of Hosts says: ‘Because you have not obeyed My words, <sup>9</sup> behold, I will summon all the families of the north, declares the LORD, and I will send for My servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, whom I will bring against this land, against its residents, and against all the surrounding nations. So I will devote them to destruction ‡ and make them an object of horror and contempt, an everlasting desolation.

<sup>10</sup> Moreover, I will banish from them the sounds of joy and gladness, the voices of the bride and bridegroom, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the lamp. <sup>11</sup> And this whole land will become a desolate wasteland, and these nations will serve the king of Babylon for seventy years.

<sup>12</sup> But when seventy years are complete, I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation, the land of the Chaldeans,§ for their guilt, declares the LORD, and I will make it an everlasting desolation.

<sup>13</sup> I will bring upon that land all the words I have pronounced against it, all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. <sup>14</sup> For many nations and great kings will enslave them, and I will repay them according to their deeds and according to the work of their hands.’ ”

‡ 24:5 That is, the Babylonians      * 25:3 Literally I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking,      † 25:4 Literally to you, rising up early and sending (them),      ‡ 25:9 Forms of the Hebrew cherem refer to the giving over of things or persons, either by destroying them or by giving them as an offering.      § 25:12 That is, the Babylonians

The Cup of God's Wrath

<sup>15</sup> This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, said to me: "Take from My hand this cup of the wine of wrath, and make all the nations to whom I send you drink from it. <sup>16</sup> And they will drink and stagger and go out of their minds, because of the sword that I will send among them."

<sup>17</sup> So I took the cup from the LORD's hand and made all the nations drink from it, each one to whom the LORD had sent me, <sup>18</sup> to make them a ruin, an object of horror and contempt and cursing, as they are to this day—Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, its kings and officials; <sup>19</sup> Pharaoh king of Egypt, his officials, his leaders, and all his people; <sup>20</sup> all the mixed tribes; all the kings of Uz; all the kings of the Philistines: Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod; <sup>21</sup> Edom, Moab, and the Ammonites; <sup>22</sup> all the kings of Tyre and Sidon; the kings of the coastlands across the sea; <sup>23</sup> Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all who cut the corners of their hair; <sup>24</sup> all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mixed tribes who dwell in the desert; <sup>25</sup> all the kings of Zimri, Elam, and Media; <sup>26</sup> all the kings of the north, both near and far, one after another—all the kingdoms on the face of the earth. And after all of them, the king of Sheshach * will drink it too.

<sup>27</sup> "Then you are to tell them that this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Drink, get drunk, and vomit. Fall down and never get up again, because of the sword I will send among you.'

<sup>28</sup> If they refuse to take the cup from your hand and drink it, you are to tell them that this is what the LORD of Hosts says: 'You most certainly must drink it! <sup>29</sup> For behold, I am beginning to bring disaster on the city that bears My Name, so how could you possibly go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, for I am calling down a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, declares the LORD of Hosts.'

<sup>30</sup> So you are to prophesy all these words against them and say to them:

'The LORD will roar from on high;
He will raise His voice from His holy habitation.
He will roar loudly over His pasture;
like those who tread the grapes,
He will call out with a shout against all the inhabitants of the earth.

<sup>31</sup> The tumult will resound to the ends of the earth because the LORD brings a charge against the nations.
He brings judgment on all mankind and puts the wicked to the sword,' "

declares the LORD.

<sup>32</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts says:

"Behold! Disaster is spreading from nation to nation;
a mighty storm is rising
from the ends of the earth."

<sup>33</sup> Those slain by the LORD on that day will be spread from one end of the earth to the other. They will not be mourned, gathered, or buried. They will be like dung lying on the ground.

<sup>34</sup> Wail, you shepherds, and cry out;
roll in the dust, you leaders of the flock.
For the days of your slaughter have come;
you will fall and be shattered like fine pottery.† <sup>35</sup> Flight will evade the shepherds, and escape will elude the leaders of the flock.

* 25:26 Sheshach is a code name for Babylon. † 25:34 Hebrew; LXX you will fall like the best of the rams

<sup>36</sup> Hear the cry of the shepherds, the wailing of the leaders of the flock,
 for the LORD is destroying their pasture.
<sup>37</sup> The peaceful meadows have been silenced because of the LORD's burning anger.
<sup>38</sup> He has left His den like a lion, for their land has been made a desolation
 by the sword † of the oppressor, and because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

A Warning to the Cities of Judah

<sup>4</sup> And you are to tell them that this is what the LORD says: 'If you do not listen to Me and walk in My law, which I have set before you, <sup>5</sup> and if you do not listen to the words of My servants the prophets, whom I have sent you again and again * even though you did not listen, <sup>6</sup> then I will make this house like Shiloh, and I will make this city an object of cursing among all the nations of the earth.' "

Jeremiah Threatened with Death

<sup>7</sup> Now the priests and prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD, <sup>8</sup> and as soon as he had finished telling all the people everything the LORD had commanded him to say, the priests and prophets and all the people seized him, shouting, "You must surely die! <sup>9</sup> How dare you prophesy in the name of the LORD that this house will become like Shiloh and this city will be desolate and deserted!"

And all the people assembled against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> When the officials of Judah heard these things, they went up from the king's palace to the house of the LORD and sat there at the entrance of the New Gate.

<sup>11</sup> Then the priests and prophets said to the officials and all the people, "This man is worthy of death, for he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your own ears!"

<sup>12</sup> But Jeremiah said to all the officials and all the people, "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard. <sup>13</sup> So now, correct your ways and deeds, and obey the voice of the LORD your God, so that He might relent of the disaster He has pronounced against you. <sup>14</sup> As for me, here I am in your hands; do to me what you think is good and right. <sup>15</sup> But know for certain that if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood upon yourselves, upon this city, and upon its residents; for truly the LORD has sent me to speak all these words in your hearing."

Jeremiah Spared from Death

<sup>16</sup> Then the officials and all the people told the priests and prophets, "This man is not worthy of death, for he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God!"

<sup>17</sup> Some of the elders of the land stood up and said to the whole assembly of the people, <sup>18</sup> "Micah the Moreshite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah and told all the people of Judah that this is what the LORD of Hosts says:

† 25:38 Some Hebrew manuscripts and LXX (see also Jeremiah 46:16 and Jeremiah 50:16); most Hebrew manuscripts anger * 26:5 Literally I have sent you, rising up early and sending (them),

'Zion will be plowed like a field,
Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble,
and the temple mount a wooded ridge.'†

<sup>19</sup> Did Hezekiah king of Judah or anyone else in Judah put him to death? Did Hezekiah not fear the LORD and seek His favor, and did not the LORD relent of the disaster He had pronounced against them? But we are about to bring great harm on ourselves!"

The Prophet Uriah

<sup>20</sup> Now there was another man prophesying in the name of the LORD, Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath-jearim. He prophesied against this city and against this land the same things that Jeremiah did.‡ <sup>21</sup> King Jehoiakim and all his mighty men and officials heard his words, and the king sought to put him to death. But when Uriah found out about it, he fled in fear and went to Egypt.

<sup>22</sup> Then King Jehoiakim sent men to Egypt: Elnathan son of Achbor along with some other men. <sup>23</sup> They brought Uriah out of Egypt and took him to King Jehoiakim, who had him put to the sword and his body thrown into the burial place of the common people.

<sup>24</sup> Nevertheless, Ahikam son of Shaphan supported Jeremiah, so he was not handed over to the people to be put to death.

The Yoke of Nebuchadnezzar

"Make for yourself a yoke out of leather straps and put it on your neck. <sup>3</sup> Send word to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre, and Sidon through the envoys who have come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah. <sup>4</sup> Give them a message from the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, to relay to their masters:

<sup>5</sup> By My great power and outstretched arm, I made the earth and the men and beasts on the face of it, and I give it to whom I please. <sup>6</sup> So now I have placed all these lands under the authority of My servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. I have even made the beasts of the field subject to him. <sup>7</sup> All nations will serve him and his son and grandson, until the time of his own land comes; then many nations and great kings will enslave him.

<sup>8</sup> As for the nation or kingdom that does not serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and does not place its neck under his yoke, I will punish that nation by sword and famine and plague, declares the LORD, until I have destroyed it by his hand.

<sup>9</sup> But as for you, do not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your interpreters of dreams, your mediums, or your sorcerers who declare, 'You will not serve the king of Babylon.'<sup>10</sup> For they prophesy to you a lie that will serve to remove you from your land; I will banish you and you will perish. <sup>11</sup> But the nation that will put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will leave in its own land, to cultivate it and reside in it, declares the LORD."

<sup>12</sup> And to Zedekiah king of Judah I spoke the same message: "Put your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon; serve him and his people, and live! <sup>13</sup> Why should you and your people die by sword and famine and plague, as the LORD has decreed against any nation that does not serve the king of Babylon?"

14 Do not listen to the words of the prophets who say, 'You must not serve the king of Babylon,' for they are prophesying to you a lie. 15 For I have not sent them, declares the LORD, and yet they are prophesying falsely in My name; therefore I will banish you, and you will perish—you and the prophets who prophesy to you."

16 Then I said to the priests and to all this people, "This is what the LORD says: Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, 'Look, very soon now the articles from the house of the LORD will be brought back from Babylon.' They are prophesying to you a lie. 17 Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon and live! Why should this city become a ruin?"

18 If they are indeed prophets and the word of the LORD is with them, let them now plead with the LORD of Hosts that the articles remaining in the house of the LORD, in the palace of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem, not be taken to Babylon.

19 For this is what the LORD of Hosts says about the pillars, the sea, the bases, and the rest of the articles that remain in this city, 20 which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take when he carried Jeconiah † son of Jehoiakim king of Judah into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon, along with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem. 21 Yes, this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says about the articles that remain in the house of the LORD, in the palace of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem: 22 'They will be carried to Babylon and will remain there until the day I attend to them again,' declares the LORD. "Then I will bring them back and restore them to this place.' "

Hananiah's False Prophecy

1 In the fifth month of that same year, the fourth year, near the beginning of the reign of King Zedekiah of Judah, the prophet Hananiah son of Azzur, who was from Gibeon, said to me in the house of the LORD in the presence of the priests and all the people: 2 "This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. 3 Within two years I will restore to this place all the articles of the house of the LORD that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon removed from here and carried to Babylon. 4 And I will restore to this place Jeconiah * son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, along with all the exiles from Judah who went to Babylon,' declares the LORD, 'for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.' "

5 Then the prophet Jeremiah replied to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the LORD. 6 "Amen!" Jeremiah said. "May the LORD do so! May the LORD fulfill the words you have prophesied, and may He restore the articles of His house and all the exiles back to this place from Babylon.

7 Nevertheless, listen now to this message I am speaking in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people. 8 The prophets of old who preceded you and me prophesied war, disaster, and plague against many lands and great kingdoms. 9 As for the prophet who prophesies peace, only if the word of the prophet comes true will the prophet be recognized as one the LORD has truly sent."

10 Then the prophet Hananiah took the yoke off the neck of Jeremiah the prophet and broke it. 11 And in the presence of all the people Hananiah proclaimed, "This is what the LORD says: 'In this way, within two years I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon off the neck of all the nations.' "

At this, Jeremiah the prophet went on his way. 12 But shortly after Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke off his neck, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: 13 "Go and tell Hananiah that this is what the LORD says: 'You have broken a yoke of wood, but in its place you have fashioned a yoke of iron.'

† 27:20 Jeconiah is a variant of Jehoiachin; see 2 Kings 24:12.

* 28:4 Jeconiah is a variant of Jehoiachin; see 2 Kings 24:12.

<sup>14</sup> For this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations to make them serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and they will serve him. I have even given him control of the beasts of the field.' "

<sup>15</sup> Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah, "Listen, Hananiah! The LORD did not send you, but you have persuaded this people to trust in a lie. <sup>16</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says: 'I am about to remove you from the face of the earth. You will die this year because you have preached rebellion against the LORD.' "

Jeremiah's Letter to the Exiles

<sup>1</sup> This is the text of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the surviving elders among the exiles and to the priests, the prophets, and all the others Nebuchadnezzar had carried into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. <sup>2</sup> (This was after King Jeconiah,* the queen mother, the court officials, the officials of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the metalsmiths had been exiled from Jerusalem.) <sup>3</sup> The letter was entrusted to Elash son of Shaphan and Gemariah son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to King Nebuchadnezzar in Babylon. It stated:

<sup>4</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says to all the exiles who were carried away from Jerusalem to Babylon: <sup>5</sup> "Build houses and settle down. Plant gardens and eat their produce. <sup>6</sup> Take wives and have sons and daughters. Take wives for your sons and give your daughters in marriage, so that they too may have sons and daughters. Multiply there; do not decrease. <sup>7</sup> Seek the prosperity of the city to which I have sent you as exiles. Pray to the LORD on its behalf, for if it prospers, you too will prosper."

<sup>8</sup> For this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: "Do not be deceived by the prophets and diviners among you, and do not listen to the dreams you elicit from them. <sup>9</sup> For they are falsely prophesying to you in My name; I have not sent them, declares the LORD."†

<sup>10</sup> For this is what the LORD says: "When Babylon's seventy years are complete, I will attend to you and confirm My promise to restore you to this place. <sup>11</sup> For I know the plans I have for you, declares the LORD, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, to give you a future and a hope. <sup>12</sup> Then you will call upon Me and come and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. <sup>13</sup> You will seek Me and find Me when you search for Me with all your heart. <sup>14</sup> I will be found by you, declares the LORD, and I will restore you from captivity‡ and gather you from all the nations and places to which I have banished you, declares the LORD. I will restore you to the place from which I sent you into exile."

"I will send against them sword and famine and plague, and I will make them like rotten figs, so bad they cannot be eaten. <sup>18</sup> I will pursue them with sword and famine and plague. I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth—a curse, a desolation, and an object of scorn and reproach among all the nations to which I banish them. <sup>19</sup> I will do this because they have not listened to My words, declares the LORD, which I sent to them again and again § through My servants the prophets. And neither have you exiles listened, declares the LORD."

* 29:2 Jeconiah is a variant of Jehoiachin; see 2 Kings 24:12. † 29:9 Some translators close the written portion of this letter later in the chapter. ‡ 29:14 Or restore your fortunes § 29:19 Literally I sent to them, rising up early and sending (to them)

<sup>20</sup> So hear the word of the LORD, all you exiles I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon. <sup>21</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says about Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, who are prophesying to you lies in My name: "I will deliver them to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will kill them before your very eyes. <sup>22</sup> Because of them, all the exiles of Judah who are in Babylon will use this curse: 'May the LORD make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire!' <sup>23</sup> For they have committed an outrage in Israel by committing adultery with the wives of their neighbors and speaking lies in My name, which I did not command them to do. I am He who knows, and I am a witness, declares the LORD."

The Message to Shemaiah

<sup>24</sup> You are to tell Shemaiah the Nehelamite that <sup>25</sup> this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: "In your own name you have sent out letters to all the people of Jerusalem, to the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, and to all the priests. You said to Zephaniah:*

<sup>26</sup> "The LORD has appointed you priest in place of Jehoiada, to be the chief officer in the house of the LORD, responsible for any madman who acts like a prophet—you must put him in stocks and neck irons. <sup>27</sup> So now, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, who poses as a prophet among you? <sup>28</sup> For he has sent to us in Babylon, claiming: Since the exile will be lengthy, build houses and settle down; plant gardens and eat their produce.' "

<sup>30</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>31</sup> "Send a message telling all the exiles what the LORD says concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite. Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you—though I did not send him—and has made you trust in a lie, <sup>32</sup> this is what the LORD says: 'I will surely punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his descendants. He will have no one left among this people, nor will he see the good that I will bring to My people, declares the LORD, for he has preached rebellion against the LORD.' "

*The Restoration of Israel and Judah
(Ezekiel 28:25-26)*

<sup>1</sup> This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: <sup>2</sup> "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Write in a book all the words that I have spoken to you. <sup>3</sup> For behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will restore from captivity * My people Israel and Judah, declares the LORD. I will restore them to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they will possess it.' "

<sup>4</sup> These are the words that the LORD spoke concerning Israel and Judah. <sup>5</sup> Yes, this is what the LORD says:

"A cry of panic is heard—a cry of terror, not of peace.

<sup>6</sup> Ask now, and see:

Can a male give birth?

Why then do I see every man with his hands on his stomach like a woman in labor and every face turned pale?

<sup>7</sup> How awful that day will be!

None will be like it!

It is the time of Jacob's distress,
but he will be saved out of it.

<sup>8</sup> On that day,

* 29:25 Hebrew You said; the addressee Zephaniah is added for clarity.

* 30:3 Or restore the fortunes of

declares the LORD of Hosts,
 I will break the yoke off their necks
 and tear off their bonds,
 and no longer will strangers enslave them.
 9 Instead, they will serve the LORD their God and David their king, whom I will raise up for them.

10 As for you, O Jacob My servant, do not be afraid,
 declares the LORD,
 and do not be dismayed,
 O Israel.
 For I will surely save you out of a distant place,
 your descendants from the land of their captivity!
 Jacob will return to quiet and ease,
 with no one to make him afraid.

11 For I am with you to save you,
 declares the LORD.
 Though I will completely destroy all the nations to which I have scattered you,
 I will not completely destroy you.
 Yet I will discipline you justly,
 and will by no means leave you unpunished.”

12 For this is what the LORD says:

“Your injury is incurable;
 your wound is grievous.
 13 There is no one to plead your cause,
 no remedy for your sores,
 no recovery for you.
 14 All your lovers have forgotten you;
 they no longer seek you,
 for I have struck you as an enemy would,
 with the discipline of someone cruel,
 because of your great iniquity
 and your numerous sins.

15 Why do you cry out over your wound?
 Your pain has no cure!
 Because of your great iniquity
 and your numerous sins
 I have done these things to you.

16 Nevertheless, all who devour you will be devoured, and all your adversaries—every one of them—
 will go off into exile.
 Those who plundered you will be plundered,
 and all who raided you will be raided.
 17 But I will restore your health and heal your wounds,
 declares the LORD,
 because they call you an outcast,
 Zion, for whom no one cares.”

18 This is what the LORD says:

“I will restore the fortunes of † Jacob’s tents and have compassion on his dwellings.
 And the city will be rebuilt on her own ruins,
 and the palace will stand in its rightful place.
 19 Thanksgiving will proceed from them,
 a sound of celebration.

---

† 30:18 Or restore from captivity

I will multiply them, and they will not be decreased;
 I will honor them, and they will not be belittled.
 20 Their children will be as in days of old,
 and their congregation will be established before Me;
 and I will punish all their oppressors.
 21 Their leader will be one of their own,
 and their ruler will arise from their midst.
 And I will bring him near, and he will approach Me, for who would dare on his own to approach Me?"

declares the LORD.

22 "And you will be My people, and I will be your God."

23 Behold, the storm of the LORD
 has gone out with fury,
 a whirlwind swirling down
 upon the heads of the wicked.

24 The fierce anger of the LORD will not turn back
 until He has fully accomplished the purposes of His heart.
 In the days to come
 you will understand this.

Mourning Turned to Joy (Matthew 2:16-18)

1 "At that time," declares the LORD, "I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they will be My people."

2 This is what the LORD says:

"The people who survived the sword found favor in the wilderness
 when Israel went to find rest."

3 The LORD appeared to us in the past, saying:*

"I have loved you with an everlasting love;
 therefore I have drawn you with loving devotion.

4 Again I will build you, and you will be rebuilt,
 O Virgin Israel.

Again you will take up your tambourines and go out in joyful dancing.

5 Again you will plant vineyards on the hills of Samaria;
 the farmers will plant and enjoy the fruit.

6 For there will be a day when watchmen will call out on the hills of Ephraim,

'Arise, let us go up to Zion,
 to the LORD our God!' "

7 For this is what the LORD says:

"Sing with joy for Jacob;
 shout for the foremost of the nations!

Make your praises heard, and say,
 'O LORD, save Your people,
 the remnant of Israel!'

8 Behold, I will bring them from the land of the north and gather them from the farthest parts of the earth,

* 31:3 Or The LORD appeared to him from afar, saying including the blind and the lame, expectant mothers and women in labor.

 They will return as a great assembly!

<sup>9</sup> They will come with weeping,
 and by their supplication I will lead them;
 I will make them walk beside streams of waters,
 on a level path where they will not stumble.
 For I am Israel's Father, and Ephraim is My firstborn."

<sup>10</sup> Hear, O nations, the word of the LORD, and proclaim it in distant coastlands:

"The One who scattered Israel will gather them and keep them as a shepherd keeps his flock.

<sup>11</sup> For the LORD has ransomed Jacob and redeemed him from the hand that had overpowered him.

<sup>12</sup> They will come and shout for joy on the heights of Zion;
 they will be radiant over the bounty of the LORD—

the grain, new wine, and oil,
 and the young of the flocks and herds.
 Their life will be like a well-watered garden,
 and never again will they languish.

<sup>13</sup> Then the maidens will rejoice with dancing, young men and old as well.
 I will turn their mourning into joy,
 and give them comfort and joy for their sorrow.

<sup>14</sup> I will fill the souls of the priests abundantly, and will fill My people with My goodness,"

declares the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> This is what the LORD says:

"A voice is heard in Ramah,
 mourning and great weeping,
 Rachel weeping for her children,
 and refusing to be comforted,
 because they are no more."†

<sup>16</sup> This is what the LORD says:

"Keep your voice from weeping and your eyes from tears,
 for the reward for your work will come,
 declares the LORD.

Then your children will return from the land of the enemy.

<sup>17</sup> So there is hope for your future,
 declares the LORD,
 and your children will return to their own land.

<sup>18</sup> I have surely heard Ephraim's ‡ moaning:

'You disciplined me severely,
 like an untrained calf.
 Restore me, that I may return,
 for You are the LORD my God.

<sup>19</sup> After I returned, I repented;

† 31:15 Cited in Matthew 2:18    ‡ 31:18 That is, the northern kingdom of Israel; also in verse 20 and after I was instructed, I struck my thigh in grief.

I was ashamed and humiliated because I bore the disgrace of my youth.'

<sup>20</sup> Is not Ephraim a precious son to Me, a delightful child?
Though I often speak against him,
I still remember him.
Therefore My heart yearns for him;§
I have great compassion for him,"

declares the LORD.

<sup>21</sup> "Set up the roadmarks, establish the signposts.
Keep the highway in mind,
the road you have traveled.
Return, O Virgin Israel, return to these cities of yours.

<sup>22</sup> How long will you wander,
O faithless daughter?
For the LORD has created a new thing in the land—
a woman will shelter * a man."

<sup>23</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: "When I restore them from captivity,† they will once again speak this word in the land of Judah and in its cities: 'May the LORD bless you, O righteous dwelling place, O holy mountain.' <sup>24</sup> And Judah and all its cities will dwell together in the land, the farmers and those who move with the flocks, <sup>25</sup> for I will refresh the weary soul and replenish all who are weak."

The New Covenant
(Hebrews 8:6–13)

<sup>26</sup> At this I awoke and looked around. My sleep had been most pleasant to me.

<sup>27</sup> "The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and of beast. <sup>28</sup> Just as I watched over them to uproot and tear down, to demolish, destroy, and bring disaster, so I will watch over them to build and to plant," declares the LORD.

<sup>29</sup> "In those days, it will no longer be said:

'The fathers have eaten sour grapes,
and the teeth of the children are set on edge.'

<sup>30</sup> Instead, each will die for his own iniquity. If anyone eats the sour grapes, his own teeth will be set on edge.

<sup>31</sup> Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD,
when I will make a new covenant
with the house of Israel
and with the house of Judah.

<sup>32</sup> It will not be like the covenant
I made with their fathers
when I took them by the hand
to lead them out of the land of Egypt—
a covenant they broke,
though I was a husband to them,‡"

declares the LORD.

<sup>33</sup> "But this is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel
after those days, declares the LORD.

§ 31:20 Hebrew My bowels yearn for him * 31:22 Or will surround or will return to † 31:23 Or restore their fortunes ‡ 31:32 Hebrew; LXX for they did not abide in My covenant, and I disregarded them; see also Syriac.

I will put My law in their minds and inscribe it on their hearts.
 And I will be their God,
 and they will be My people.
<sup>34</sup> No longer will each man teach his neighbor or his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,'
 because they will all know Me,
 from the least of them to the greatest, declares the LORD.
 For I will forgive their iniquities and will remember their sins no more."§

<sup>35</sup> Thus says the LORD, who gives the sun for light by day, who sets in order the moon and stars for light by night, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar—the LORD of Hosts is His name:

<sup>36</sup> "Only if this fixed order departed from My presence,
 declares the LORD,
 would Israel's descendants ever cease to be a nation before Me."

<sup>37</sup> This is what the LORD says:

"Only if the heavens above could be measured and the foundations of the earth below searched out would I reject all of Israel's descendants because of all they have done,"

declares the LORD.

<sup>38</sup> "The days are coming,"* declares the LORD, "when this city will be rebuilt for Me, from the tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. <sup>39</sup> The measuring line will once again stretch out straight to the hill of Gareb and then turn toward Goah. <sup>40</sup> The whole valley of the dead bodies and ashes, and all the fields as far as the Kidron Valley, to the corner of the Horse Gate to the east, will be holy to the LORD. It will never again be uprooted or demolished."

Jeremiah Buys Hanamel's Field

<sup>1</sup> This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>2</sup> At that time the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was imprisoned in the courtyard of the guard, which was in the palace of the king of Judah.

<sup>3</sup> For Zedekiah king of Judah had imprisoned him, saying: "Why are you prophesying like this? You claim that the LORD says, 'Behold, I am about to deliver this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will capture it. <sup>4</sup> Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape from the hands of the Chaldeans,* but he will surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and will speak with him face to face and see him eye to eye. <sup>5</sup> He will take Zedekiah to Babylon, where he will stay until I attend to him, declares the LORD. If you fight against the Chaldeans, you will not succeed.' "

<sup>6</sup> Jeremiah replied, "The word of the LORD came to me, saying: <sup>7</sup> Behold! Hanamel, the son of your uncle Shallum, is coming to you to say, 'Buy for yourself my field in Anathoth, for you have the right of redemption to buy it.' <sup>8</sup> Then, as the LORD had said, my cousin Hanamel came to me in the courtyard of the guard and urged me, 'Please buy my field in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, for you own the right of inheritance and redemption. Buy it for yourself.' "

Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

§ 31:34 Cited in Hebrews 8:8-12 and Hebrews 10:16-17 * 31:38 Literally Behold, the days; alternate MT reading Behold, the days are coming * 32:4 That is, the Babylonians; also in verses 5, 24, 25, 28, 29, and 43

Jeremiah Prays for Understanding

<sup>16</sup> After I had given the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD: <sup>17</sup> “Oh, Lord GOD! You have made the heavens and the earth by Your great power and outstretched arm. Nothing is too difficult for You!

<sup>20</sup> You performed signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, and You do so to this very day, both in Israel and among all mankind. And You have made a name for Yourself, as is the case to this day.

<sup>21</sup> You brought Your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand and an outstretched arm, and with great terror. <sup>22</sup> You gave them this land that You had sworn to give their fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.

<sup>23</sup> They came in and possessed it, but they did not obey Your voice or walk in Your law. They failed to perform all that You commanded them to do, and so You have brought upon them all this disaster. <sup>24</sup> See how the siege ramps are mounted against the city to capture it. And by sword and famine and plague, the city has been given into the hands of the Chaldeans who are fighting against it. What You have spoken has happened, as You now see!

<sup>25</sup> Yet You, O Lord GOD, have said to me, ‘Buy for yourself the field with silver and call in witnesses, even though the city has been delivered into the hands of the Chaldeans!’ ”

The LORD Answers Jeremiah

<sup>26</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>27</sup> “Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh. Is anything too difficult for Me?

<sup>28</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says: Behold, I am about to deliver this city into the hands of the Chaldeans and of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who will capture it. <sup>29</sup> And the Chaldeans who are fighting against this city will come in, set it on fire, and burn it, along with the houses of those who provoked Me to anger by burning incense to Baal on their rooftops and by pouring out drink offerings to other gods.

<sup>30</sup> For the children of Israel and of Judah have done nothing but evil in My sight from their youth; indeed, they have done nothing but provoke Me to anger by the work of their hands, declares the LORD.

<sup>31</sup> For this city has aroused My wrath and fury from the day it was built until now. Therefore I will remove it from My presence <sup>32</sup> because of all the evil the children of Israel and of Judah have done to provoke Me to anger—they, their kings, their officials, their priests and prophets, the men of Judah, and the residents of Jerusalem. <sup>33</sup> They have turned their backs to Me and not their faces. Though I taught them again and again,§ they would not listen or respond to discipline.

<sup>34</sup> They have placed their abominations in the house that bears My Name, and so have defiled it. <sup>35</sup> They have built the high places of Baal in the Valley of Hinnom to make their sons and daughters pass through the fire to Molech—something I never commanded them, nor had it ever entered My mind, that they should commit such an abomination and cause Judah to sin.

*A Promise of Restoration

<sup>36</sup> Now therefore, about this city of which you say, ‘It will be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by sword and famine and plague,’ this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: <sup>37</sup> I will surely gather My people from all the lands to which I have banished them in My furious anger and great wrath, and I will return them to this place and make them dwell in safety. <sup>38</sup> They will be My people, and I will be their God.* <sup>39</sup> I will give them one heart and one way, so that they will always fear Me for their own good and for the good of their children after them.

<sup>40</sup> I will make an everlasting covenant with them: I will never turn away from doing good to them, and I will put My fear in their hearts, so that they will never turn away from Me. <sup>41</sup> Yes, I will rejoice in doing them good, and I will faithfully plant them in this land with all My heart and with all My soul.

<sup>42</sup> For this is what the LORD says: Just as I have brought all this great disaster on this people, so I will bring on them all the good I have promised them. <sup>43</sup> And fields will be bought in this land about which you are saying, ‘It is a desolation, without man or beast; it has been delivered into the hands of the Chaldeans.’ <sup>44</sup> Fields will be purchased with silver, and deeds will be signed, sealed, and witnessed in the land of Benjamin, in the areas surrounding Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah—the cities of the hill country, the foothills,† and the Negev—because I will restore them from captivity,‡ declares the LORD.”

The Excellence of the Restored Nation

<sup>1</sup> While Jeremiah was still confined in the courtyard of the guard, the word of the LORD came to him a second time: <sup>2</sup> “Thus says the LORD who made the earth,* the LORD who formed it and established it, the LORD is His name: <sup>3</sup> Call to Me, and I will answer and show you great and unsearchable things you do not know.

<sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says about the houses of this city and the palaces of the kings of Judah that have been torn down for defense against the siege ramps and the sword: <sup>5</sup> The Chaldeans are coming to fight † and to fill those places with the corpses of the men I will strike down in My anger and in My wrath. I have hidden My face from this city because of all its wickedness.

<sup>6</sup> Nevertheless, I will bring to it health and healing, and I will heal its people and reveal to them the abundance of peace and truth. <sup>7</sup> I will restore Judah and Israel from captivity‡ and will rebuild them as in former times. <sup>8</sup> And I will cleanse them from all the iniquity they have committed against Me, and will forgive all their sins of rebellion against Me.

<sup>9</sup> So this city will bring Me renown, joy, praise, and glory before all the nations of the earth, who will hear of all the good I do for it. They will tremble in awe because of all the goodness and prosperity that I will provide for it.

§ 32:33 Literally I taught them, rising up early and teaching. * 32:38 Cited in 2 Corinthians 6:16 † 32:44 Hebrew Shephelah or lowlands; that is, the western foothills of Judea ‡ 32:44 Or restore their fortunes * 33:2 LXX; Hebrew who made it † 33:5 Or They are coming to fight the Chaldeans; that is, the Babylonians ‡ 33:7 Or restore the fortunes of Judah and Israel

<sup>10</sup> This is what the LORD says: In this place you say is a wasteland without man or beast, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem that are deserted—inhabited by neither man nor beast—there will be heard again <sup>11</sup> the sounds of joy and gladness, the voices of the bride and bridegroom, and the voices of those bringing thank offerings into the house of the LORD, saying:

‘Give thanks to the LORD of Hosts, for the LORD is good;
His loving devotion endures forever.’

For I will restore the land from captivity § as in former times, says the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts says: In this desolate place, without man or beast, and in all its cities, there will once more be pastures for shepherds to rest their flocks. <sup>13</sup> In the cities of the hill country, the foothills,* and the Negev, in the land of Benjamin and the cities surrounding Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, the flocks will again pass under the hands of the one who counts them, says the LORD.

The Covenant with David

<sup>14</sup> Behold, the days are coming,
declares the LORD,
when I will fulfill the gracious promise that I have spoken
to the house of Israel
and the house of Judah.

<sup>15</sup> In those days and at that time
I will cause to sprout for David a righteous Branch, and He will administer justice and righteousness in the land.

<sup>16</sup> In those days Judah will be saved, and Jerusalem will dwell securely, and this is the name by which it will be called:
The LORD Our Righteousness.†

<sup>17</sup> For this is what the LORD says: David will never lack a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel, <sup>18</sup> nor will the priests who are Levites ever fail to have a man before Me to offer burnt offerings, to burn grain offerings, and to present sacrifices.”

<sup>19</sup> And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>20</sup> “This is what the LORD says: If you can break My covenant with the day and My covenant with the night, so that day and night cease to occupy their appointed time, <sup>21</sup> then My covenant may also be broken with David My servant and with My ministers the Levites who are priests, so that David will not have a son to reign on his throne. <sup>22</sup> As the hosts of heaven cannot be counted and as the sand on the seashore cannot be measured, so too will I multiply the descendants of My servant David and the Levites who minister before Me.”

<sup>23</sup> Moreover, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>24</sup> “Have you not noticed what these people are saying: ‘The LORD has rejected the two families He had chosen’? So they despise My people and no longer regard them as a nation. <sup>25</sup> This is what the LORD says: If I have not established My covenant with the day and the night and the fixed order of heaven and earth, <sup>26</sup> then I would also reject the descendants of Jacob and of My servant David, so as not to take from his descendants rulers over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will restore them from captivity ‡ and will have compassion on them.”

A Prophecy against Zedekiah

§ 33:11 Or restore the fortunes of the land of Judea    † 33:16 Hebrew YHWH Tsidqenu    * 33:13 Hebrew Shephelah or lowlands; that is, the western foothills    ‡ 33:26 Or restore their fortunes

<sup>1</sup> This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, all his army, all the earthly kingdoms under his control, and all the other nations were fighting against Jerusalem and all its surrounding cities. <sup>2</sup> The LORD, the God of Israel, told Jeremiah to go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah and tell him that this is what the LORD says: “Behold, I am about to deliver this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it down. <sup>3</sup> And you yourself will not escape his grasp, but will surely be captured and delivered into his hand. You will see the king of Babylon eye to eye and speak with him face to face; and you will go to Babylon.

<sup>4</sup> Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah. This is what the LORD says concerning you: You will not die by the sword; <sup>5</sup> you will die in peace. As spices were burned for your fathers, the former kings who preceded you, so people will burn spices for you and lament, ‘Alas, O master!’ For I Myself have spoken this word, declares the LORD.”

<sup>6</sup> In Jerusalem, then, Jeremiah the prophet relayed all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah <sup>7</sup> as the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and the remaining cities of Judah—against Lachish and Azekah. For these were the only fortified cities remaining in Judah.

Freedom for Hebrew Slaves

<sup>8</sup> After King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem to proclaim liberty, the word came to Jeremiah from the LORD <sup>9</sup> that each man should free his Hebrew slaves, both male and female, and no one should hold his fellow Jew in bondage. <sup>10</sup> So all the officials and all the people who entered into this covenant agreed that they would free their menservants and maidservants and no longer hold them in bondage. They obeyed and released them, <sup>11</sup> but later they changed their minds and took back the menservants and maidservants they had freed, and they forced them to become slaves again.

<sup>12</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, <sup>13</sup> “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I made a covenant with your forefathers when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, saying: <sup>14</sup> Every seventh year, each of you must free his Hebrew brother who has sold himself to you. He may serve you six years, but then you must let him go free. But your fathers did not listen or incline their ear.

<sup>15</sup> Recently you repented and did what pleased Me; each of you proclaimed freedom for his neighbor. You made a covenant before Me in the house that bears My Name. <sup>16</sup> But now you have changed your minds and profaned My name. Each of you has taken back the menservants and maidservants whom you had set at liberty to go wherever they wanted, and you have again forced them to be your slaves.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says: You have not obeyed Me; you have not proclaimed freedom, each man for his brother and for his neighbor. So now I proclaim freedom for you, declares the LORD—freedom to fall by sword, by plague, and by famine! I will make you a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth.

<sup>18</sup> And those who have transgressed My covenant and have not fulfilled the terms of the covenant they made before Me, I will treat like the calf they cut in two in order to pass between its pieces. <sup>19</sup> The officials of Judah and Jerusalem, the court officials, the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the pieces of the calf, <sup>20</sup> I will deliver into the hands of their enemies who seek their lives. Their corpses will become food for the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth. <sup>21</sup> And I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah and his officials into the hands of their enemies who seek their lives, to the army of the king of Babylon that had withdrawn from you.

<sup>22</sup> Behold, I am going to give the command, declares the LORD, and I will bring them back to this city. They will fight against it, capture it, and burn it down. And I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.”

35

The Obedience of the Rechabites

<sup>1</sup> This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah: <sup>2</sup> “Go to the house of the Rechabites, speak to them, and bring them to one of the chambers of the house of the LORD to offer them a drink of wine.”

<sup>3</sup> So I took Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brothers and all his sons—the entire house of the Rechabites— <sup>4</sup> and I brought them into the house of the LORD, to a chamber occupied by the sons of Hanan son of Igdaliah, a man of God. This room was near the chamber of the officials, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah son of Shallum the doorkeeper.

<sup>5</sup> Then I set pitchers full of wine and some cups before the men of the house of the Rechabites, and I said to them, “Drink some wine.”

<sup>6</sup> “We do not drink wine,” they replied, “for our forefather Jonadab * son of Rechab commanded us, ‘Neither you nor your descendants are ever to drink wine. <sup>7</sup> Nor are you ever to build a house or sow seed or plant a vineyard. Those things are not for you. Instead, you must live in tents all your lives, so that you may live a long time in the land where you wander.’

<sup>8</sup> And we have obeyed the voice of our forefather Jonadab son of Rechab in all he commanded us. So we have not drunk wine all our lives—neither we nor our wives nor our sons and daughters. <sup>9</sup> Nor have we built houses in which to live, and we have not owned any vineyards or fields or crops. <sup>10</sup> But we have lived in tents and have obeyed and done exactly as our forefather Jonadab commanded us.

<sup>11</sup> So when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched into the land, we said: ‘Come, let us go into Jerusalem to escape the armies of the Chaldeans † and the Arameans.’ So we have remained in Jerusalem.”

Judah Rebuked

<sup>12</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>13</sup> “This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: Go and tell the men of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem: ‘Will you not accept discipline and obey My words?’ declares the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> The words of Jonadab son of Rechab have been carried out. He commanded his sons not to drink wine, and they have not drunk it to this very day because they have obeyed the command of their forefather. But I have spoken to you again and again,‡ and you have not obeyed Me!

<sup>15</sup> Again and again I have sent you § all My servants the prophets, proclaiming: ‘Turn now, each of you, from your wicked ways, and correct your actions. Do not go after other gods to serve them. Live in the land that I have given to you and your fathers.’ But you have not inclined your ear or listened to Me. <sup>16</sup> Yes, the sons of Jonadab son of Rechab carried out the command their forefather gave them, but these people have not listened to Me.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: ‘Behold, I will bring to Judah and to all the residents of Jerusalem all the disaster I have pronounced against them, because I have spoken to them but they have not obeyed, and I have called to them but they have not answered.’ ”

<sup>18</sup> Then Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites: “This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: ‘Because you have obeyed the command of your forefather Jonadab and have kept all his commandments and have done all that he charged you

Jeremiah's Scroll Read in the Temple

<sup>1</sup> In the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD: <sup>2</sup> "Take a scroll and write on it all the words I have spoken to you concerning Israel, Judah, and all the nations, from the day I first spoke to you during the reign of Josiah until today. <sup>3</sup> Perhaps when the people of Judah hear about all the calamity I plan to bring upon them, each of them will turn from his wicked way. Then I will forgive their iniquity and their sin."

<sup>5</sup> Then Jeremiah commanded Baruch, "I am restricted; I cannot enter the house of the LORD; <sup>6</sup> so you are to go to the house of the LORD on a day of fasting, and in the hearing of the people you are to read the words of the LORD from the scroll you have written at my dictation. Read them in the hearing of all the people of Judah who are coming from their cities.

<sup>8</sup> So Baruch son of Neriah did everything that Jeremiah the prophet had commanded him. In the house of the LORD he read the words of the LORD from the scroll.

<sup>9</sup> Now in the ninth month of the fifth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, a fast before the LORD was proclaimed to all the people of Jerusalem and all who had come there from the cities of Judah. <sup>10</sup> From the chamber of Gemariah son of Shaphan the scribe, which was in the upper courtyard at the opening of the New Gate of the house of the LORD, Baruch read from the scroll the words of Jeremiah in the hearing of all the people.

Jeremiah's Scroll Read in the Palace

<sup>11</sup> When Micaiah son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the LORD from the scroll, <sup>12</sup> he went down to the scribe's chamber in the king's palace, where all the officials were sitting: Elishama the scribe, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Achbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the other officials. <sup>13</sup> And Micaiah reported to them all the words he had heard Baruch read from the scroll in the hearing of the people.

<sup>14</sup> Then all the officials sent word to Baruch through Jehudi son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, saying, "Bring the scroll that you read in the hearing of the people, and come here."

So Baruch son of Neriah took the scroll and went to them.

<sup>15</sup> "Please sit down," they said, "and read it in our hearing."

So Baruch read it in their hearing.

<sup>16</sup> When they had heard all these words, they turned to one another in fear and said to Baruch, "Surely we must report all these words to the king."

<sup>17</sup> "Tell us now," they asked Baruch, "how did you write all these words? Was it at Jeremiah's dictation?"

<sup>18</sup> "It was at his dictation," Baruch replied. "He recited all these words to me and I wrote them in ink on the scroll."

19 Then the officials said to Baruch, "You and Jeremiah must hide yourselves and tell no one where you are."

Jehoiakim Burns the Scroll

20 So the officials went to the king in the courtyard. And having stored the scroll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, they reported everything to the king.

21 Then the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll, and he took it from the chamber of Elishama the scribe. And Jehudi read it in the hearing of the king and all the officials who were standing beside him.

22 Since it was the ninth month, the king was sitting in his winter quarters with a fire burning before him. 23 And as soon as Jehudi had read three or four columns, Jehoiakim would cut them off with a scribe's knife and throw them into the firepot, until the entire scroll had been consumed by the fire.

24 Yet in hearing all these words, the king and his servants did not become frightened or tear their garments. 25 Even though Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah urged the king not to burn the scroll, he would not listen to them. 26 Instead, the king commanded Jerahmeel, a son of the king, as well as Seraiah son of Azriel and Shelemiah son of Abdeel, to seize Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet. But the LORD had hidden them.

Jeremiah Rewrites the Scroll

27 After the king had burned the scroll containing the words that Baruch had written at Jeremiah's dictation, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: 28 "Take another scroll and rewrite on it the very words that were on the original scroll, which Jehoiakim king of Judah has burned.

29 You are to proclaim concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah that this is what the LORD says: You have burned the scroll and said, 'Why have you written on it that the king of Babylon would surely come and destroy this land and deprive it of man and beast?'

30 Therefore this is what the LORD says about Jehoiakim king of Judah: He will have no one to sit on David's throne, and his body will be thrown out and exposed to heat by day and frost by night. 31 I will punish him and his descendants and servants for their iniquity. I will bring on them, on the residents of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah, all the calamity about which I warned them but they did not listen."

32 Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to the scribe Baruch son of Neriah, and at Jeremiah's dictation he wrote on it all the words of the scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire. And many similar words were added to them.

37

Jeremiah Warns Zedekiah

1 Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made Zedekiah son of Josiah the king of Judah, and he reigned in place of Coniah* son of Jehoiakim. 2 But he and his officers and the people of the land refused to obey the words that the LORD had spoken through Jeremiah the prophet.

3 Yet King Zedekiah sent Jehucal † son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah the priest, the son of Maaseiah, to Jeremiah the prophet with the message, "Please pray to the LORD our God for us!"

4 Now Jeremiah was free to come and go among the people, for they had not yet put him in prison. 5 Pharaoh's army had left Egypt, and when the Chaldeans ‡ who were besieging Jerusalem heard the report, they withdrew from Jerusalem.

* 37:1 Coniah is a variant of Jehoiachin. † 37:3 Jehucal is a variant of Juca; see Jeremiah 38:1. ‡ 37:5 That is, the Babylonians; also in verses 8, 9, 13, and 14

<sup>6</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet: <sup>7</sup> “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says that you are to tell the king of Judah, who sent you to Me: Behold, Pharaoh’s army, which has marched out to help you, will go back to its own land of Egypt. <sup>8</sup> Then the Chaldeans will return and fight against this city. They will capture it and burn it down.

<sup>9</sup> This is what the LORD says: Do not deceive yourselves by saying, ‘The Chaldeans will go away for good,’ for they will not! <sup>10</sup> Indeed, if you were to strike down the entire army of the Chaldeans that is fighting against you, and only wounded men remained in their tents, they would still get up and burn this city down.”

Jeremiah Imprisoned

<sup>11</sup> When the Chaldean army withdrew from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh’s army, <sup>12</sup> Jeremiah started to leave Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin to claim his portion there § among the people. <sup>13</sup> But when he reached the Gate of Benjamin, the captain of the guard, whose name was Irijah son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah, seized him and said, “You are deserting to the Chaldeans!”

But Irijah would not listen to him; instead, he arrested Jeremiah and took him to the officials.

<sup>15</sup> The officials were angry with Jeremiah, and they beat him and placed him in jail in the house of Jonathan the scribe, for it had been made into a prison.

<sup>16</sup> So Jeremiah went into a cell in the dungeon and remained there a long time.

<sup>17</sup> Later, King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah and received him in his palace, where he asked him privately, “Is there a word from the LORD?”

“There is,” Jeremiah replied. “You will be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.”

<sup>18</sup> Then Jeremiah asked King Zedekiah, “How have I sinned against you or your servants or these people, that you have put me in prison? <sup>19</sup> Where are your prophets who prophesied to you, claiming, ‘The king of Babylon will not come against you or this land’? <sup>20</sup> But now please listen, O my lord the king. May my petition come before you. Do not send me back to the house of Jonathan the scribe, or I will die there.”

<sup>21</sup> So King Zedekiah gave orders for Jeremiah to be placed in the courtyard of the guard and given a loaf of bread daily from the street of the bakers, until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.

Jeremiah Cast into the Cistern

<sup>4</sup> Then the officials said to the king, “This man ought to die, for he is discouraging the warriors who remain in this city, as well as all the people, by speaking such words to them; this man is not seeking the well-being of these people, but their ruin.”

<sup>6</sup> So they took Jeremiah and dropped him into the cistern of Malchiah, the king's son, which was in the courtyard of the guard. They lowered Jeremiah with ropes into the cistern, which had no water but only mud, and Jeremiah sank down into the mud. <sup>7</sup> Now Ebed-melech the Cushite,‡ a court official § in the royal palace, heard that Jeremiah had been put into the cistern. While the king was sitting at the Gate of Benjamin, <sup>8</sup> Ebed-melech went out from the king's palace and said to the king, <sup>9</sup> "My lord the king, these men have acted wickedly in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet. They have dropped him into the cistern, where he will starve to death, for there is no more bread in the city."

<sup>12</sup> Ebed-melech the Cushite cried out to Jeremiah, "Put these worn-out rags and clothes under your arms to pad the ropes." Jeremiah did so, <sup>13</sup> and they pulled him up with the ropes and lifted him out of the cistern. And Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.

<sup>14</sup> Then King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah the prophet and received him at the third entrance to the house of the LORD. "I am going to ask you something," said the king to Jeremiah. "Do not hide anything from me."

<sup>15</sup> "If I tell you," Jeremiah replied, "you will surely put me to death. And even if I give you advice, you will not listen to me."

<sup>16</sup> But King Zedekiah swore secretly to Jeremiah, "As surely as the LORD lives, who has given us this life, I will not kill you, nor will I deliver you into the hands of these men who are seeking your life."

<sup>17</sup> Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "This is what the LORD God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'If you indeed surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, then you will live, this city will not be burned down, and you and your household will survive. <sup>18</sup> But if you do not surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, then this city will be delivered into the hands of the Chaldeans. They will burn it down, and you yourself will not escape their grasp.'"

<sup>19</sup> But King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Jews who have deserted to the Chaldeans, for the Chaldeans may deliver me into their hands to abuse me."

<sup>20</sup> "They will not hand you over," Jeremiah replied. "Obey the voice of the LORD in what I am telling you, that it may go well with you and you may live. <sup>21</sup> But if you refuse to surrender, this is the word that the LORD has shown me: <sup>22</sup> All the women who remain in the palace of the king of Judah will be brought out to the officials of the king of Babylon, and those women will say:

'They misled you and overcame you—those trusted friends of yours.
Your feet sank into the mire,
and they deserted you.'

<sup>23</sup> All your wives and children will be brought out to the Chaldeans. And you yourself will not escape their grasp, for you will be seized by the king of Babylon, and this city will be burned down."

<sup>24</sup> Then Zedekiah warned Jeremiah, "Do not let anyone know about this conversation, or you will die. <sup>25</sup> If the officials hear that I have spoken with you, and they come and demand of you, "Tell us what you said to the king and what he said to you; do not hide it from us, or we will kill you,' <sup>26</sup> then tell them, 'I was presenting to the king my petition that he not return me to the house of Jonathan to die there.' "

<sup>27</sup> When all the officials came to Jeremiah and questioned him, he relayed to them the exact words the king had commanded him to say. So they said no more to him, for no one had overheard the conversation. <sup>28</sup> And Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard until the day Jerusalem was captured.

The Fall of Jerusalem

(2 Kings 25:1-12; 2 Chronicles 36:15-21)

<sup>3</sup> Then all the officials of the king of Babylon entered and sat in the Middle Gate: Nergal-sharezer of Samgar, Nebo-sarsekim * the Rabsaris,† Nergal-sharezer the Rabmag,‡ and all the rest of the officials of the king of Babylon.

<sup>4</sup> When Zedekiah king of Judah and all the soldiers saw them, they fled. They left the city at night by way of the king's garden, through the gate between the two walls, and they went out along the route to the Arabah.§ <sup>5</sup> But the army of the Chaldeans * pursued them and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. They seized him and brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced judgment on him.

<sup>6</sup> There at Riblah the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and he also killed all the nobles of Judah. <sup>7</sup> Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes and bound him with bronze chains to take him to Babylon.

<sup>8</sup> The Chaldeans set fire to the palace of the king and to the houses of the people, and they broke down the walls of Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup> Then Nebuzaradan captain of the guard carried away to Babylon the remnant of the people who had remained in the city, along with the deserters who had defected to him. <sup>10</sup> But Nebuzaradan left behind in the land of Judah some of the poor people who had no property, and at that time he gave them vineyards and fields.

Jeremiah Delivered

<sup>11</sup> Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had given orders about Jeremiah through Nebuzaradan captain of the guard, saying, <sup>12</sup> "Take him, look after him, and do not let any harm come to him; do for him whatever he says."

<sup>13</sup> So Nebuzaradan captain of the guard, Nebushazban † the Rabsaris, Nergal-sharezer the Rabmag, and all the captains of the king of Babylon <sup>14</sup> had Jeremiah brought from the courtyard of the guard, and they turned him over to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, to take him home. So Jeremiah remained among his own people.

<sup>15</sup> And while Jeremiah had been confined in the courtyard of the guard, the word of the LORD had come to him: <sup>16</sup> "Go and tell Ebed-melech the Cushite that this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'I am about to fulfill My words against this city for harm and not for good, and on that day they will be fulfilled before your eyes. <sup>17</sup> But I will deliver you on that day, declares the LORD, and you will not be delivered into the hands of the men whom you fear. <sup>18</sup> For I will surely rescue you so that you do not fall

Jeremiah Remains in Judah

<sup>1</sup> This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan captain of the guard had released him at Ramah, having found him bound in chains among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah who were being exiled to Babylon.

<sup>2</sup> The captain of the guard found Jeremiah and said to him, “The LORD your God decreed this disaster on this place, <sup>3</sup> and now the LORD has fulfilled it; He has done just as He said. Because you people have sinned against the LORD and have not obeyed His voice, this thing has happened to you. <sup>4</sup> But now, behold, I am freeing you today from the chains that were on your wrists. If it pleases you to come with me to Babylon, then come, and I will take care of you. But if it seems wrong to you to come with me to Babylon, go no farther. Look, the whole land is before you. Wherever it seems good and right to you, go there.”

<sup>5</sup> But before Jeremiah turned to go, Nebuzaradan added, “Return to Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed over the cities of Judah, and stay with him among the people, or go anywhere else that seems right.” Then the captain of the guard gave him a ration and a gift and released him.

<sup>6</sup> So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah and stayed with him among the people who were left in the land.

Gedaliah Governs in Judah (2 Kings 25:22–24)

<sup>7</sup> When all the commanders and men of the armies in the field heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam over the land and that he had put him in charge of the men, women, and children who were the poorest of the land and had not been exiled to Babylon, <sup>8</sup> they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah—Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah * son of the Maacathite—they and their men.

<sup>9</sup> Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, swore an oath to them and their men, assuring them, “Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldeans.† Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you. <sup>10</sup> As for me, I will stay in Mizpah to represent you before the Chaldeans who come to us. As for you, gather wine grapes, summer fruit, and oil, place them in your storage jars, and live in the cities you have taken.”

<sup>11</sup> When all the Jews in Moab, Ammon, Edom, and all the other lands heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant in Judah and had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, over them, <sup>12</sup> they all returned from all the places to which they had been banished and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah. And they gathered an abundance of wine grapes and summer fruit.

The Plot against Gedaliah

<sup>13</sup> Meanwhile, Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the armies in the field came to Gedaliah at Mizpah <sup>14</sup> and said to him, “Are you aware that Baalis king of the Ammonites has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to take your life?”

But Gedaliah son of Ahikam did not believe them.

<sup>15</sup> Then Johanan son of Kareah spoke privately to Gedaliah at Mizpah. “Let me go and kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah,” he said. “No one will know it. Why should he take your life and scatter all the people of Judah who have gathered to you, so that the remnant of Judah would perish?"

<sup>16</sup> But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, "Do not do such a thing! What you are saying about Ishmael is a lie."

41

The Murder of Gedaliah (2 Kings 25:25-26)

When Ishmael encountered the men, he said, "Come to Gedaliah son of Ahikam." <sup>7</sup> And when they came into the city, Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the men with him slaughtered them and threw them into a cistern.

<sup>8</sup> But ten of the men among them said to Ishmael, "Do not kill us, for we have hidden treasure in the field—wheat, barley, oil, and honey!" So he refrained from killing them with the others.

<sup>9</sup> Now the cistern into which Ishmael had thrown all the bodies of the men he had struck down along with Gedaliah was a large one that King Asa had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel. Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled it with the slain.

<sup>10</sup> Then Ishmael took captive all the remnant of the people of Mizpah—the daughters of the king along with all the others who remained in Mizpah—over whom Nebuzaradan captain of the guard had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Ishmael son of Nethaniah took them captive and set off to cross over to the Ammonites.

Johanan Rescues the Captives

<sup>11</sup> When Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the armies with him heard of all the crimes that Ishmael son of Nethaniah had committed, <sup>12</sup> they took all their men and went to fight Ishmael son of Nethaniah. And they found him near the great pool in Gibeon.

<sup>13</sup> When all the people with Ishmael saw Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the army with him, they rejoiced, <sup>14</sup> and all the people whom Ishmael had taken captive at Mizpah turned and went over to Johanan son of Kareah. <sup>15</sup> But Ishmael son of Nethaniah and eight of his men escaped from Johanan and went to the Ammonites.

<sup>16</sup> Then Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the armies with him took the whole remnant of the people from Mizpah whom he had recovered from Ishmael son of Nethaniah after Ishmael had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam: the soldiers, women, children, and court officials † he had brought back from Gibeon. <sup>17</sup> And they went and stayed in Geruth Chimham, near Bethlehem, in order to proceed into Egypt <sup>18</sup> to escape the Chaldeans.‡ For they were afraid of the Chaldeans because Ishmael son of Nethaniah had struck down Gedaliah son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had appointed over the land.

A Warning against Going to Egypt

<sup>1</sup> Then all the commanders of the forces, along with Johanan son of Kareah, Jezeiah * son of Hoshaiiah, and all the people from the least to the greatest, approached <sup>2</sup> Jeremiah the prophet and said, "May our petition come before you; pray to the LORD your God on behalf of this entire remnant. For few of us remain of the many, as you can see with your own eyes. <sup>3</sup> Pray that the LORD your God will tell us the way we should walk and the thing we should do."

<sup>4</sup> "I have heard you," replied Jeremiah the prophet. "I will surely pray to the LORD your God as you request, and I will tell you everything that the LORD answers; I will not withhold a word from you."

<sup>5</sup> Then they said to Jeremiah, "May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us if we do not act upon every word that the LORD your God sends you to tell us. <sup>6</sup> Whether it is pleasant or unpleasant, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God to whom we are sending you, so that it may go well with us, for we will obey the voice of the LORD our God!"

<sup>7</sup> After ten days the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, <sup>8</sup> and he summoned Johanan son of Kareah, all the commanders of the forces who were with him, and all the people from the least to the greatest.

<sup>9</sup> Jeremiah told them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your petition: <sup>10</sup> 'If you will indeed stay in this land, then I will build you up and not tear you down; I will plant you and not uproot you, for I will relent of the disaster I have brought upon you.'

<sup>11</sup> Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, whom you now fear; do not be afraid of him, declares the LORD, for I am with you to save you and deliver you from him. <sup>12</sup> And I will show you compassion, and he will have compassion on you and restore you to your own land.'

<sup>13</sup> But if you say, 'We will not stay in this land,' and you thus disobey the voice of the LORD your God, <sup>14</sup> and if you say, 'No, but we will go to the land of Egypt and live there, where we will not see war or hear the sound of the ram's horn or hunger for bread,' <sup>15</sup> then hear the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah! This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'If you are determined to go to Egypt and reside there, <sup>16</sup> then the sword you fear will overtake you there, and the famine you dread will follow on your heels into Egypt, and you will die there. <sup>17</sup> So all who resolve to go to Egypt to reside there will die by sword and famine and plague. Not one of them will survive or escape the disaster I will bring upon them.'

<sup>18</sup> For this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: 'Just as My anger and wrath were poured out on the residents of Jerusalem, so will My wrath be poured out on you if you go to Egypt. You will become an object of cursing and horror, of vilification and disgrace, and you will never see this place again.'

<sup>19</sup> The LORD has told you, O remnant of Judah, 'Do not go to Egypt.' Know for sure that I have warned you today! <sup>20</sup> For you have deceived yourselves by sending me to the LORD your God, saying, 'Pray to the LORD our God on our behalf, and as for all that the LORD our God says, tell it to us and we will do it.'

<sup>21</sup> For I have told you today, but you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God in all He has sent me to tell you. <sup>22</sup> Now therefore, know for sure that by sword and famine and plague you will die in the place where you desire to go to reside."

43

Jeremiah Taken to Egypt

* 42:1 Hebrew; LXX Azariah; see Jeremiah 43:2.

<sup>1</sup> When Jeremiah had finished telling all the people all the words of the LORD their God—everything that the LORD had sent him to say—<sup>2</sup> Azariah son of Hoshaiiah, Johanan son of Kareah, and all the arrogant men said to Jeremiah, “You are lying! The LORD our God has not sent you to say, ‘You must not go to Egypt to reside there.’”<sup>3</sup> Rather, Baruch son of Neriah is inciting you against us to deliver us into the hands of the Chaldeans,* so that they may put us to death or exile us to Babylon!”

<sup>4</sup> So Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces disobeyed the command of the LORD to stay in the land of Judah. <sup>5</sup> Instead, Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces took the whole remnant of Judah, those who had returned to the land of Judah from all the nations to which they had been scattered, <sup>6</sup> the men, the women, the children, the king’s daughters, and everyone whom Nebuzaradan captain of the guard had allowed to remain with Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, as well as Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch son of Neriah.

<sup>7</sup> So they entered the land of Egypt because they did not obey the voice of the LORD, and they went as far as Tahpanhes.

<sup>10</sup> Then tell them that this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: ‘I will send for My servant Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and I will set his throne over these stones that I have embedded, and he will spread his royal pavilion over them. <sup>11</sup> He will come and strike down the land of Egypt, bringing death to those destined for death, captivity to those destined for captivity, and the sword to those destined for the sword.

<sup>12</sup> I will kindle a fire in the temples of the gods of Egypt, and Nebuchadnezzar will burn those temples and take their gods as captives.† So he will wrap himself with the land of Egypt as a shepherd wraps himself in his garment, and he will depart from there unscathed. <sup>13</sup> He will demolish the sacred pillars of the temple of the sun in the land of Egypt,‡ and he will burn down the temples of the gods of Egypt.’ ”

44

Judgment on the Jews in Egypt

<sup>1</sup> This is the word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews living in the land of Egypt *—in Migdol, Tahpanhes, and Memphis †—and in the land of Pathros:‡ <sup>2</sup> “This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: You have seen all the disaster that I brought against Jerusalem and all the cities of Judah; and behold, they lie today in ruins and desolation <sup>3</sup> because of the evil they have done.

They provoked Me to anger by continuing to burn incense and to serve other gods that neither they nor you nor your fathers ever knew. <sup>4</sup> Yet I sent you all My servants the prophets again and again,§ saying: ‘Do not do this detestable thing that I hate.’

<sup>5</sup> But they did not listen or incline their ears; they did not turn from their wickedness or stop burning incense to other gods. <sup>6</sup> Therefore My wrath and anger poured out and burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, so that they have become the desolate ruin they are today.

<sup>7</sup> So now, this is what the LORD God of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: Why are you doing such great harm to yourselves by cutting off from Judah man and woman, child and infant, leaving yourselves without a remnant? <sup>8</sup> Why are you provoking Me to anger by the work of your hands by burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you have gone to reside?

As a result, you will be cut off and will become an object of cursing and reproach among all the nations of the earth. <sup>9</sup> Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers and of the kings of Judah and their wives, as well as the wickedness that you and your wives committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>10</sup> To this day they have not humbled themselves or shown reverence, nor have they followed My instruction or the statutes that I set before you and your fathers.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: I will set My face to bring disaster and to cut off all Judah. <sup>12</sup> And I will take away the remnant of Judah who have resolved to go to the land of Egypt to reside there; they will meet their end. They will all fall by the sword or be consumed by famine. From the least to the greatest, they will die by sword or famine; and they will become an object of cursing and horror, of vilification and reproach.

<sup>13</sup> I will punish those who live in the land of Egypt, just as I punished Jerusalem, by sword and famine and plague, <sup>14</sup> so that none of the remnant of Judah who have gone to reside in Egypt will escape or survive to return to the land of Judah, where they long to return and live; for none will return except a few fugitives.”

The Stubbornness of the People

<sup>15</sup> Then all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods, and all the women standing by—a great assembly—along with all the people living in the land of Egypt and in Pathros,* said to Jeremiah, <sup>16</sup> “As for the word you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we will not listen to you! <sup>17</sup> Instead, we will do everything we vowed to do: We will burn incense to the Queen of Heaven and offer drink offerings to her; just as we, our fathers, our kings, and our officials did in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem.

At that time we had plenty of food and good things, and we saw no disaster. <sup>18</sup> But from the time we stopped burning incense to the Queen of Heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked everything and have been perishing by sword and famine.”

<sup>19</sup> “Moreover,” said the women, “when we burned incense to the Queen of Heaven and poured out drink offerings to her, was it without our husbands’ knowledge that we made sacrificial cakes in her image and poured out drink offerings to her?”

Calamity for the Jews

<sup>20</sup> Then Jeremiah said to all the people, both men and women, who were answering him, <sup>21</sup> “As for the incense you burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem—you, your fathers, your kings, your officials, and the people of the land—did the LORD not remember and bring this to mind? <sup>22</sup> So the LORD could no longer endure the evil deeds and detestable acts you committed, and your land became a desolation, a horror, and an object of cursing, without inhabitant, as it is this day. <sup>23</sup> Because you burned incense and sinned against the LORD, and did not obey the voice of the LORD or walk in His instruction, His statutes, and His testimonies, this disaster has befallen you, as you see today.”

<sup>24</sup> Then Jeremiah said to all the people, including all the women, “Hear the word of the LORD, all those of Judah who are in the land of Egypt. <sup>25</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: As for you and your wives, you have spoken with your mouths and fulfilled with your hands your words: ‘We will surely perform our vows that we have made to burn incense to the Queen of Heaven and to pour out drink offerings to her.’ Go ahead, then, do what you have promised! Keep your vows!

<sup>26</sup> Nevertheless, hear the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah living in Egypt: Behold, I have sworn by My great name, says the LORD, that never again will any man of Judah living in the land of Egypt invoke My name or say, 'As surely as the Lord GOD lives.'

* 44:15 That is, in Lower and Upper Egypt; possibly in the land of Egypt at Pathros

<sup>27</sup> I am watching over them for harm and not for good, and every man of Judah who is in the land of Egypt will meet his end by sword or famine, until they are finished off.

<sup>28</sup> Those who escape the sword will return from Egypt to Judah, few in number, and the whole remnant of Judah who went to dwell in the land of Egypt will know whose word will stand, Mine or theirs!

<sup>29</sup> This will be a sign to you that I will punish you in this place, declares the LORD, so that you may know that My threats of harm against you will surely stand. <sup>30</sup> This is what the LORD says: Behold, I will deliver Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hands of his enemies who seek his life, just as I delivered Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the enemy who was seeking his life."

Jeremiah's Message to Baruch

<sup>1</sup> This is the word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch son of Neriah when he wrote these words on a scroll at the dictation of Jeremiah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah:

<sup>2</sup> "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to you, Baruch: <sup>3</sup> You have said, 'Woe is me because the LORD has added sorrow to my pain! I am worn out with groaning and have found no rest.' "

<sup>4</sup> Thus Jeremiah was to say to Baruch:* "This is what the LORD says: Throughout the land I will demolish what I have built and uproot what I have planted. <sup>5</sup> But as for you, do you seek great things for yourself? Stop seeking! For I will bring disaster on every living creature, declares the LORD, but wherever you go, I will grant your life as a spoil of war."

Judgment on Egypt

<sup>1</sup> This is the word of the LORD about the nations—the word that came to Jeremiah the prophet <sup>2</sup> concerning Egypt and the army of Pharaoh Neco king of Egypt, which was defeated at Carchemish on the Euphrates River by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah:

<sup>3</sup> "Deploy your shields, small and large;
advance for battle!

<sup>4</sup> Harness the horses; mount the steeds;
take your positions with helmets on!

Polish your spears;
put on armor!

<sup>5</sup> Why am I seeing this?

They are terrified,
they are retreating;
their warriors are defeated,
they flee in haste without looking back;
terror is on every side!"

declares the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> "The swift cannot flee, and the warrior cannot escape!
In the north by the River Euphrates
they stumble and fall.

* 45:4 Literally Thus you shall say to him:

- 8 Egypt rises like the Nile,

- 12 The nations have heard of your shame,
and your outcry fills the earth,
because warrior stumbles over warrior and both of them have fallen together."
- 13 This is the word that the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet about the coming of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to strike the land of Egypt:
- 14 "Announce it in Egypt, and proclaim it in Migdol;
proclaim it in Memphis † and Tahpanhes:
'Take your positions and prepare yourself,
for the sword devours those around you.'
- 15 Why have your warriors been laid low?
They cannot stand, for the LORD has thrust them down.
- 16 They continue to stumble;
indeed, they have fallen over one another.
They say, 'Get up! Let us return to our people and to the land of our birth, away from the sword of the oppressor.'
- 17 There they will cry out:
'Pharaoh king of Egypt was all noise;
he has let the appointed time pass him by.'
- 18 As surely as I live, declares the King,
whose name is the LORD of Hosts,
there will come one who is like Tabor among the mountains and like Carmel by the sea.
- 19 Pack your bags for exile,
O daughter dwelling in Egypt!
For Memphis will be laid waste, destroyed and uninhabited.
- 20 Egypt is a beautiful heifer,
but a gadfly from the north is coming against her.
- 21 Even the mercenaries among her are like fattened calves.
They too will turn back;

* 46:9 That is, the upper Nile region † 46:14 LXX; Hebrew Noph; also in verse 19 together they will flee, they will not stand their ground, for the day of calamity is coming upon them—

the time of their punishment.

<sup>22</sup> Egypt will hiss like a fleeing serpent,‡ for the enemy will advance in force; with axes they will come against her like woodsmen cutting down trees.

<sup>23</sup> They will chop down her forest, declares the LORD, dense though it may be,
for they are more numerous than locusts;
they cannot be counted.

<sup>24</sup> The Daughter of Egypt will be put to shame;
she will be delivered into the hands of the people of the north.”

<sup>25</sup> The LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: “Behold, I am about to punish Amon god of Thebes,§ along with Pharaoh, Egypt with her gods and kings, and those who trust in Pharaoh. <sup>26</sup> I will deliver them into the hands of those who seek their lives—of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and his officers. But after this, Egypt will be inhabited as in days of old, declares the LORD.

<sup>27</sup> But you, O Jacob My servant, do not be afraid, and do not be dismayed, O Israel.
For I will surely save you out of a distant place,
your descendants from the land of their captivity!
Jacob will return to quiet and ease,
with no one to make him afraid.

<sup>28</sup> And you, My servant Jacob, do not be afraid, declares the LORD, for I am with you.
Though I will completely destroy all the nations to which I have banished you,
I will not completely destroy you.
Yet I will discipline you justly,
and will by no means leave you unpunished.”

Judgment on the Philistines (Zephaniah 2:4-7)

<sup>1</sup> This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet about the Philistines before Pharaoh struck down Gaza. <sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“See how the waters are rising from the north and becoming an overflowing torrent.
They will overflow the land and its fullness,
the cities and their inhabitants.
The people will cry out,
and all who dwell in the land will wail <sup>3</sup> at the sound of the galloping hooves of stallions, the rumbling of chariots,
and the clatter of their wheels.
The fathers will not turn back for their sons;
their hands will hang limp.

<sup>4</sup> For the day has come to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon
every remaining ally.
Indeed, the LORD is about to destroy the Philistines, the remnant from the coasts of Caphtor.*

‡ 46:22 Hebrew nachash; translated in most cases as snake
Crete

§ 46:25 Hebrew Amon of No

* 47:4 That is,

5 The people of Gaza will shave their heads in mourning;
 Ashkelon will be silenced.
 O remnant of their valley,†
 how long will you gash yourself?

6 'Alas, O sword of the LORD,
 how long until you rest?
 Return to your sheath;
 cease and be still!'

7 How can it rest
 when the LORD has commanded it?
 He has appointed it against Ashkelon and the shore of its coastland."

Judgment on Moab (Isaiah 15:1-9)

1 Concerning Moab, this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says:

"Woe to Nebo,
 for it will be devastated.
 Kiriathaim will be captured and disgraced;
 the fortress will be shattered and dismantled.
 2 There is no longer praise for Moab;
 in Heshbon * they devise evil against her:
 'Come, let us cut her off from nationhood.'

You too, O people of Madmen,† will be silenced;
 the sword will pursue you.
 3 A voice cries out from Horonaim:
 'Devastation and great destruction!'
 4 Moab will be shattered;
 her little ones will cry out.‡

5 For on the ascent to Luhith
 they weep bitterly as they go, and on the descent to Horonaim cries of distress resound
 over the destruction:
 6 'Flee! Run for your lives!
 Become like a juniper in the desert.§

7 Because you trust in your works and treasures, you too will be captured, and Chemosh will go into exile with his priests and officials.
 8 The destroyer will move against every city,
 and not one town will escape.
 The valley will also be ruined,
 and the high plain will be destroyed,
 as the LORD has said.

9 Put salt on Moab, for she will be laid waste;*
 her cities will become desolate,

† 47:5 That is, the Mediterranean coast or plain      * 48:2 The Hebrew for Heshbon sounds like the Hebrew for plot.      † 48:2 The name of the Moabite town Madmen sounds like the Hebrew for silenced.      ‡ 48:4 Hebrew; LXX her cries are heard as far away as Zoar      § 48:6 Or like a wild donkey or like Aroer      * 48:9 Or Give wings to Moab, for she would fly away with no one to dwell in them.

<sup>10</sup> Cursed is the one who is remiss in doing the work of the LORD, and cursed is he who withholds his sword from bloodshed.

<sup>11</sup> Moab has been at ease from youth, settled like wine on its dregs;
he has not been poured from vessel to vessel or gone into exile.

So his flavor has remained the same,
and his aroma is unchanged.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore behold, the days are coming,
declares the LORD,
when I will send to him wanderers,
who will pour him out.

They will empty his vessels and shatter his jars.

<sup>13</sup> Then Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh, just as the house of Israel was ashamed
when they trusted in Bethel.

<sup>14</sup> How can you say, 'We are warriors, mighty men ready for battle'?

<sup>15</sup> Moab has been destroyed and its towns have been invaded;

the best of its young men have gone down in the slaughter,
declares the King,

whose name is the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>16</sup> Moab's calamity is at hand,
and his affliction is rushing swiftly.

<sup>17</sup> Mourn for him, all you who surround him, everyone who knows his name;
tell how the mighty scepter is shattered—
the glorious staff!

<sup>18</sup> Come down from your glory; sit on parched ground,
O daughter dwelling in Dibon,

for the destroyer of Moab has come against you;
he has destroyed your fortresses.

<sup>19</sup> Stand by the road and watch,
O dweller of Aroer!

Ask the man fleeing or the woman escaping,
'What has happened?'

<sup>20</sup> Moab is put to shame, for it has been shattered.
Wail and cry out!

Declare by the Arnon that Moab is destroyed.

<sup>21</sup> Judgment has come upon the high plain—upon Holon, Jahzah,† and Mephaath,

those far and near.

<sup>25</sup> The horn of Moab has been cut off, and his arm is broken,"

<sup>26</sup> "Make him drunk,

declares the LORD.

† 48:21 Jahzah is a variant of Jahaz; see verse 34.

because he has magnified himself against the LORD;
 so Moab will wallow in his own vomit,
 and he will also become a laughingstock.
 27 Was not Israel your object of ridicule?
 Was he ever found among thieves?
 For whenever you speak of him
 you shake your head.

28 Abandon the towns and settle among the rocks,
 O dwellers of Moab!

Be like a dove

that nests at the mouth of a cave.

29 We have heard of Moab's pomposity,
 his exceeding pride and conceit,
 his proud arrogance and haughtiness of heart.

30 I know his insolence,"

declares the LORD,

"but it is futile.

His boasting is as empty as his deeds.

31 Therefore I will wail for Moab;
 I will cry out for all of Moab;
 I will moan for the men of Kir-heres.‡

32 I will weep for you, O vine of Sibmah, more than I weep for Jazer.

Your tendrils have extended to the sea;§
 they reach even to Jazer.*

The destroyer has descended on your summer fruit and grape harvest.

33 Joy and gladness are removed from the orchard and from the fields of Moab.

I have stopped the flow of wine from the presses;
 no one treads them with shouts of joy;
 their shouts are not for joy.

34 There is a cry from Heshbon to Elealeh;
 they raise their voices to Jahaz,
 from Zoar to Horonaim and Eglath-shelishiyah;
 for even the waters of Nimrim have dried up.

35 In Moab, declares the LORD,
 I will bring an end to those who make offerings on the high places and burn incense to their gods.

36 Therefore My heart laments like a flute for Moab;
 it laments like a flute for the men of Kir-heres,
 because the wealth they acquired has perished.

37 For every head is shaved and every beard is clipped;
 on every hand is a gash,
 and around every waist is sackcloth.

38 On all the rooftops of Moab and in the public squares,
 everyone is mourning;
 for I have shattered Moab like an unwanted jar,"

declares the LORD.

39 "How shattered it is! How they wail!
 How Moab has turned his back in shame!

‡ 48:31 Kir-heres is a variant of Kir-hareseth; also in verse 36; see Isaiah 16:7. § 48:32 Probably the Dead Sea

* 48:32 Two Hebrew manuscripts and LXX; most Hebrew manuscripts to the Sea of Jazer

Moab has become an object of ridicule and horror to all those around him.”

40 For this is what the LORD says:

“Behold, an eagle swoops down and spreads his wings against Moab.

41 Kirioth has been taken,
and the strongholds seized.

In that day the heart of Moab’s warriors will be like the heart of a woman in labor.

42 Moab will be destroyed as a nation because he vaunted himself against the LORD.

43 Terror and pit and snare await you, O dweller of Moab,”

declares the LORD.

44 “Whoever flees the panic
will fall into the pit,
and whoever climbs from the pit
will be caught in the snare.

For I will bring upon Moab
the year of their punishment,”

declares the LORD.

45 “Those who flee will stand helpless in Heshbon’s shadow, because fire has gone forth from Heshbon and a flame from within Sihon.

It devours the foreheads of Moab and the skulls of the sons of tumult.

46 Woe to you, O Moab!

The people of Chemosh have perished;
for your sons have been taken into exile and your daughters have gone into captivity.

47 Yet in the latter days I will restore Moab from captivity,†”

declares the LORD.

Here ends the judgment on Moab.

49

Judgment on the Ammonites

1 Concerning the Ammonites, this is what the LORD says:

“Has Israel no sons?

Is he without heir?

Why then has Milcom * taken possession of Gad?

Why have his people settled in their cities?

2 Therefore, behold, the days are coming,

declares the LORD,

when I will sound the battle cry against Rabbah of the Ammonites.

It will become a heap of ruins,
and its villages will be burned.

Then Israel will drive out their dispossessors,
says the LORD.

3 Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai has been destroyed;
cry out, O daughters of Rabbah!

Put on sackcloth and mourn;
run back and forth within your walls,
for Milcom will go into exile

† 48:47 Or restore the fortunes of Moab      * 49:1 Or their king; Milcom is a variant of Molech; also in verse 3; see Leviticus 18:21 and 1 Kings 11:7.

- together with his priests and officials.
 4 Why do you boast of your valleys—your valleys so fruitful,†
 O faithless daughter?
 You trust in your riches and say,
 ‘Who can come against me?’
- 5 Behold, I am about to bring terror upon you,
 declares the Lord GOD of Hosts,
 from all those around you.
 You will each be driven headlong, with no one to regather the fugitives.
- 6 Yet afterward I will restore the Ammonites from captivity,‡
 declares the LORD.

Judgment on Edom
(Obadiah 1:1-14)

- 7 Concerning Edom, this is what the LORD of Hosts says:

“Is there no longer wisdom in Teman?
 Has counsel perished from the prudent?
 Has their wisdom decayed?

- 8 Turn and run!
 Lie low, O dwellers of Dedan, for I will bring disaster on Esau
 at the time I punish him.

9 If grape gatherers came to you,
 would they not leave some gleanings?
 Were thieves to come in the night,
 would they not steal only what they wanted?

- 10 But I will strip Esau bare;
 I will uncover his hiding places,
 and he will be unable to conceal himself.
 His descendants will be destroyed along with his relatives and neighbors, and he will be no more.

- 11 Abandon your orphans; I will preserve their lives.
 Let your widows trust in Me.”

12 For this is what the LORD says: “If those who do not deserve to drink the cup must drink it, can you possibly remain unpunished? You will not go unpunished, for you must drink it too. <sup>13</sup> For by Myself I have sworn, declares the LORD, that Bozrah will become a desolation, a disgrace, a ruin, and a curse, and all her cities will be in ruins forever.”

- 14 I have heard a message from the LORD;
 an envoy has been sent to the nations:
 “Assemble yourselves to march against her!
 Rise up for battle!”

15 “For behold, I will make you small among nations, despised among men.

- 16 The terror you cause and the pride of your heart have deceived you,

O dwellers in the clefts of the rocks,§
 O occupiers of the mountain summit.
 Though you elevate your nest like the eagle,
 even from there I will bring you down,”

† 49:4 Or your valleys flowing    ‡ 49:6 Or restore the fortunes of the Ammonites    § 49:16 Or of Sela

declares the LORD.

17 “Edom will become an object of horror.
All who pass by will be appalled
and will scoff at all her wounds.

18 As Sodom and Gomorrah were overthrown along with their neighbors,”

says the LORD,

“no one will dwell there;
no man will abide there.

19 Behold, one will come up like a lion
from the thickets of the Jordan to the watered pasture.

For in an instant I will chase Edom from her land.

Who is the chosen one I will appoint for this?

For who is like Me, and who can challenge Me?
What shepherd can stand against Me?”

20 Therefore hear the plans that the LORD has drawn up against Edom and the strategies He has devised against the people of Teman:

Surely the little ones of the flock will be dragged away;
certainly their pasture will be made desolate because of them.*

21 At the sound of their fall the earth will quake; their cry will resound to the Red Sea.†

22 Look! An eagle will soar and swoop down, spreading its wings over Bozrah.

In that day the hearts of Edom’s mighty men will be like the heart of a woman in labor.

Judgment on Damascus
(Isaiah 17:1-14)

23 Concerning Damascus:

“Hamath and Arpad are put to shame,
for they have heard a bad report;
they are agitated like the sea;‡
their anxiety cannot be calmed.

24 Damascus has become feeble;
she has turned to flee.

Panic has gripped her;
anguish and pain have seized her
like a woman in labor.

25 How is the city of praise not forsaken,
the town that brings Me joy?

26 For her young men will fall in the streets,
and all her warriors will be silenced in that day,”

declares the LORD of Hosts.

27 “I will set fire to the walls of Damascus;
it will consume the fortresses of Ben-hadad.”

Judgment on Kedar and Hazor

28 Concerning Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon defeated, this is what the LORD says:

“Rise up, advance against Kedar, and destroy the people of the east!

29 They will take their tents and flocks, their tent curtains and all their goods.

* 49:20 Or their pasture will be appalled at their fate † 49:21 Or the Sea of Reeds ‡ 49:23 Hebrew on the sea or by the sea

They will take their camels for themselves.

They will shout to them: "Terror is on every side!"

<sup>30</sup> Run! Escape quickly!

Lie low, O residents of Hazor,"

declares the LORD,

"for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has drawn up a plan against you;

he has devised a strategy against you.

<sup>31</sup> Rise up, advance against a nation at ease,
one that dwells securely,"

declares the LORD.

"They have no gates or bars;

they live alone.

<sup>32</sup> Their camels will become plunder,
and their large herds will be spoil.

I will scatter to the wind in every direction

those who shave their temples;

I will bring calamity on them from all sides,"

declares the LORD.

<sup>33</sup> "Hazor will become a haunt for jackals,§ a desolation forever.

No one will dwell there;

no man will abide there."

Judgment on Elam

<sup>34</sup> This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah. <sup>35</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts says:

"Behold, I will shatter Elam's bow,
the mainstay of their might.

<sup>36</sup> I will bring the four winds against Elam from the four corners of the heavens, and I will scatter them to all these winds.

There will not be a nation
to which Elam's exiles will not go.

<sup>37</sup> So I will shatter Elam before their foes, before those who seek their lives.

I will bring disaster upon them,
even My fierce anger,"

declares the LORD.

"I will send out the sword after them until I finish them off.

<sup>38</sup> I will set My throne in Elam, and destroy its king and officials,"

declares the LORD.

<sup>39</sup> "Yet in the last days,

I will restore Elam from captivity,*"

declares the LORD.

A Prophecy against Babylon

§ 49:33 Or serpents or dragons      * 49:39 Or restore the fortunes of Elam

<sup>1</sup>This is the word that the LORD spoke through Jeremiah the prophet concerning Babylon and the land of the Chaldeans:*

<sup>2</sup>“Announce and declare to the nations;
 lift up a banner and proclaim it;
 hold nothing back when you say, ‘Babylon is captured;
 Bel is put to shame;
 Marduk is shattered,
 her images are disgraced,
 her idols are broken in pieces.’

<sup>3</sup>For a nation from the north will come against her;
 it will make her land a desolation.
 No one will live in it;
 both man and beast will flee.”

Hope for Israel and Judah

<sup>4</sup>“In those days and at that time,
 declares the LORD,
 the children of Israel and the children of Judah will come together, weeping as they come,
 and will seek the LORD their God.

<sup>5</sup>They will ask the way to Zion and turn their faces toward it.
 They will come and join themselves to the LORD in an everlasting covenant that will never be forgotten.

<sup>6</sup>My people are lost sheep;
 their shepherds have led them astray,
 causing them to roam the mountains.
 They have wandered from mountain to hill;
 they have forgotten their resting place.

<sup>7</sup>All who found them devoured them,
 and their enemies said,
 ‘We are not guilty,
 for they have sinned against the LORD, their true pasture, the LORD, the hope of their fathers.’

 depart from the land of the Chaldeans;
 be like the he-goats that lead the flock.

<sup>9</sup>For behold, I stir up and bring against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the land of the north.
 They will line up against her;
 from the north she will be captured.
 Their arrows will be like skilled warriors who do not return empty-handed.

<sup>10</sup>Chaldea † will be plundered;
 all who plunder her will have their fill,”

declares the LORD.

Babylon’s Fall Is Certain

<sup>11</sup>“Because you rejoice, because you sing in triumph—
 you who plunder My inheritance—because you frolic like a heifer treading grain and neigh like stallions,

* 50:1 That is, the Babylonians; also in verses 8, 25, 35, and 45 † 50:10 Or Babylonia

12 your mother will be greatly ashamed;
 she who bore you will be disgraced.
 Behold, she will be the least of the nations,
 a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

13 Because of the wrath of the LORD,
 she will not be inhabited;
 she will become completely desolate.
 All who pass through Babylon will be horrified and will hiss at all her wounds.

14 Line up in formation around Babylon, all you who draw the bow!

Shoot at her! Spare no arrows!
 For she has sinned against the LORD.

15 Raise a war cry against her on every side!
 She has thrown up her hands in surrender;
 her towers have fallen;
 her walls are torn down.

Since this is the vengeance of the LORD, take out your vengeance upon her;
 as she has done,
 do the same to her.

16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and the one who wields the sickle at harvest time.

In the face of the oppressor's sword,
 each will turn to his own people,
 each will flee to his own land.

Redemption for God's People

17 Israel is a scattered flock, chased away by lions.
 The first to devour him
 was the king of Assyria;
 the last to crush his bones was Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon."

18 Therefore this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says:

"I will punish the king of Babylon and his land
 as I punished the king of Assyria.

19 I will return Israel to his pasture, and he will graze on Carmel and Bashan;
 his soul will be satisfied
 on the hills of Ephraim and Gilead.

20 In those days and at that time,
 declares the LORD,
 a search will be made for Israel's guilt,
 but there will be none,
 and for Judah's sins,
 but they will not be found;
 for I will forgive
 the remnant I preserve.

The Destruction of Babylon

21 Go up against the land of Merathaim, and against the residents of Pekod.

Kill them † and devote them to destruction.‡
Do all that I have commanded you,”

declares the LORD.

22 “The noise of battle is in the land—
the noise of great destruction.

23 How the hammer of the whole earth lies broken and shattered!

What a horror Babylon has become
among the nations!

24 I laid a snare for you, O Babylon, and you were caught before you knew it.
You were found and captured because you challenged the LORD.

25 The LORD has opened His armory and brought out His weapons of wrath, for this is the work of the Lord GOD of Hosts
in the land of the Chaldeans.

26 Come against her from the farthest border.
Break open her granaries;
pile her up like mounds of grain.
Devote her to destruction;
leave her no survivors.

27 Kill all her young bulls;
let them go down to the slaughter.
Woe to them, for their day has come—
the time of their punishment.

28 Listen to the fugitives and refugees from the land of Babylon, declaring in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God,
the vengeance for His temple.

29 Summon the archers against Babylon,
all who string the bow.
Encamp all around her;
let no one escape.

Repay her according to her deeds;
do to her as she has done.

For she has defied the LORD,
the Holy One of Israel.

30 Therefore, her young men will fall in the streets,
and all her warriors will be silenced in that day,”

declares the LORD.

31 “Behold, I am against you, O arrogant one,”
declares the Lord GOD of Hosts,
“for your day has come,
the time when I will punish you.

32 The arrogant one will stumble and fall with no one to pick him up.
And I will kindle a fire in his cities to consume all those around him.”

33 This is what the LORD of Hosts says:

“The sons of Israel are oppressed, and the sons of Judah as well.
All their captors hold them fast,

† 50:21 LXX Avenge, O sword, § 50:21 Forms of the Hebrew cherem refer to the giving over of things or persons to the LORD, either by destroying them or by giving them as an offering; also in verse 26.

refusing to release them.

<sup>34</sup> Their Redeemer is strong;
the LORD of Hosts is His name.
He will fervently plead their case
so that He may bring rest to the earth,
but turmoil to those who live in Babylon.

<sup>35</sup> A sword is against the Chaldeans,
declares the LORD,
against those who live in Babylon,
and against her officials and wise men.

<sup>36</sup> A sword is against her false prophets,
and they will become fools.

A sword is against her warriors,
and they will be filled with terror.

<sup>37</sup> A sword is against her horses and chariots and against all the foreigners in her midst, and they will become like women.

A sword is against her treasuries,
and they will be plundered.

<sup>38</sup> A drought is upon her waters,
and they will be dried up.

For it is a land of graven images, and the people go mad over idols.*

<sup>39</sup> So the desert creatures and hyenas will live there and ostriches † will dwell there.

It will never again be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation.

<sup>40</sup> As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah along with their neighbors,"

declares the LORD,

"no one will dwell there;
no man will abide there.

<sup>41</sup> Behold, an army is coming from the north;
a great nation and many kings are stirred up
from the ends of the earth.

<sup>42</sup> They grasp the bow and spear;‡
they are cruel and merciless.

Their voice roars like the sea,
and they ride upon horses,
lined up like men in formation
against you, O Daughter of Babylon.

<sup>43</sup> The king of Babylon has heard the report, and his hands hang limp.

Anguish has gripped him,
pain like that of a woman in labor.

<sup>44</sup> Behold, one will come up like a lion
from the thickets of the Jordan to the watered pasture.

For in an instant I will chase Babylon from her land.

Who is the chosen one I will appoint for this?

For who is like Me, and who can challenge Me?
What shepherd can stand against Me?"

<sup>45</sup> Therefore hear the plans that the LORD has drawn up against Babylon
and the strategies He has devised against the land of the Chaldeans:

* 50:38 Or go mad with fear † 50:39 Literally daughters of an ostrich or daughters of an owl ‡ 50:42 Or javelin

Surely the little ones of the flock will be dragged away;
 certainly their pasture will be made desolate because of them.
 46 At the sound of Babylon's capture the earth will quake;
 a cry will be heard among the nations.

Judgment on Babylon

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD says:

"Behold, I will stir up against Babylon and against the people of Leb-kamai *
 the spirit of a destroyer.

<sup>2</sup> I will send strangers to Babylon to winnow her and empty her land; for they will come against her from every side
 in her day of disaster.

<sup>3</sup> Do not let the archer bend his bow or put on his armor.
 Do not spare her young men;
 devote all her army to destruction!†

<sup>4</sup> And they will fall slain in the land of the Chaldeans,‡ and pierced through in her streets.

<sup>5</sup> For Israel and Judah have not been abandoned by their God, the LORD of Hosts, though their land is full of guilt before the Holy One of Israel."

<sup>6</sup> Flee from Babylon! Escape with your lives!
 Do not be destroyed in her punishment.
 For this is the time of the LORD's vengeance;
 He will pay her what she deserves.

<sup>7</sup> Babylon was a gold cup in the hand of the LORD, making the whole earth drunk.
 The nations drank her wine;
 therefore the nations have gone mad.

<sup>8</sup> Suddenly Babylon has fallen and been shattered.
 Wail for her; get her balm for her pain;
 perhaps she can be healed.

<sup>9</sup> "We tried to heal Babylon, but she could not be healed.
 Abandon her!
 Let each of us go to his own land,
 for her judgment extends to the sky and reaches to the clouds."

<sup>10</sup> "The LORD has brought forth our vindication; come, let us tell in Zion
 what the LORD our God has accomplished."

<sup>11</sup> Sharpen the arrows!
 Fill the quivers!§
 The LORD has aroused the spirit of the kings of the Medes,

* 51:1 Leb-kamai is a code name for Chaldea, that is, Babylonia. † 51:3 Forms of the Hebrew cherem refer to the giving over of things or persons to the LORD, either by destroying them or by giving them as an offering. ‡ 51:4 That is, the Babylonians; also in verse 54 § 51:11 LXX and some translations of the Hebrew; literally Fill the hand with the shields! or Take up the shields!

because His plan is aimed at Babylon to destroy her;
for it is the vengeance of the LORD—
vengeance for His temple.

12 Raise a banner against the walls of Babylon;
post the guard;
station the watchmen;
prepare the ambush.

For the LORD has both devised and accomplished
what He spoke against the people of Babylon.

13 You who dwell by many waters, rich in treasures,
your end has come;
the thread of your life is cut.

14 The LORD of Hosts has sworn by Himself:

“Surely I will fill you up with men as with locusts, and they will shout in triumph over you.”

Praise to the God of Jacob
(Isaiah 25:1–12)

15 The LORD made the earth by His power;
He established the world by His wisdom
and stretched out the heavens by His understanding.

16 When He thunders,
the waters in the heavens roar;
He causes the clouds to rise
from the ends of the earth.
He generates the lightning with the rain
and brings forth the wind from His storehouses.

17 Every man is senseless and devoid of knowledge;
every goldsmith is put to shame by his idols.

For his molten images are a fraud,
and there is no breath in them.

18 They are worthless, a work to be mocked.
In the time of their punishment they will perish.

19 The Portion of Jacob is not like these,
for He is the Maker of all things,
and of the tribe of His inheritance—
the LORD of Hosts is His name.

Babylon's Punishment

20 “You are My war club,
My weapon for battle.

With you I shatter nations;
with you I bring kingdoms to ruin.

21 With you I shatter the horse and rider;
with you I shatter the chariot and driver.

22 With you I shatter man and woman;
with you I shatter the old man and the youth;
with you I shatter the young man and the maiden.

23 With you I shatter the shepherd and his flock;
with you I shatter the farmer and his oxen;
with you I shatter the governors and officials.

24 Before your very eyes I will repay Babylon and all the dwellers of Chaldea *

* 51:24 That is, Babylonia; also in verse 35 for all the evil they have done in Zion,”

declares the LORD.

25 “Behold, I am against you,
O destroying mountain,
you who devastate the whole earth,
declares the LORD.

I will stretch out My hand against you;
I will roll you over the cliffs and turn you into a charred mountain.

26 No one shall retrieve from you a cornerstone or a foundation stone,
because you will become desolate forever,”

declares the LORD.

27 “Raise a banner in the land!
Blow the ram’s horn among the nations!
Prepare the nations against her.
Summon the kingdoms against her—Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz.

Appoint a captain against her;
bring up horses like swarming locusts.

28 Prepare the nations for battle against her—
the kings of the Medes,
their governors and all their officials,
and all the lands they rule.

29 The earth quakes and writhes because the LORD’s intentions against Babylon stand:
to make the land of Babylon a desolation,
without inhabitant.

30 The warriors of Babylon have stopped fighting;
they sit in their strongholds.
Their strength is exhausted;
they have become like women.

Babylon’s homes have been set ablaze,
the bars of her gates are broken.

31 One courier races to meet another, and messenger follows messenger,
to announce to the king of Babylon that his city has been captured from end to end.

32 The fords have been seized,
the marshes set on fire,
and the soldiers are terrified.”

33 For this is what the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says:

“The Daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor at the time it is trampled.

In just a little while her harvest time will come.”

34 “Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has devoured me;
he has crushed me.

He has set me aside like an empty vessel;
he has swallowed me like a monster;
he filled his belly with my delicacies and vomited me out.†

35 May the violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon,” says the dweller of Zion.

† 51:34 Or expelled me

“May my blood be on the dwellers of Chaldea,” says Jerusalem.

<sup>36</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says:

“Behold, I will plead your case and take vengeance on your behalf;
I will dry up her sea
and make her springs run dry.

<sup>37</sup> Babylon will become a heap of rubble,
a haunt for jackals,‡
an object of horror and scorn,
without inhabitant.

<sup>38</sup> They will roar together like young lions;
they will growl like lion cubs.

<sup>39</sup> While they are flushed with heat,
I will serve them a feast,
and I will make them drunk
so that they may revel;
then they will fall asleep forever and never wake up,
declares the LORD.

<sup>40</sup> I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with male goats.

The praise of all the earth has been seized.
What a horror Babylon has become
among the nations!

<sup>42</sup> The sea has come up over Babylon;
she is covered in turbulent waves.

<sup>43</sup> Her cities have become a desolation,
a dry and arid land,
a land where no one lives,
where no son of man passes through.

<sup>44</sup> I will punish Bel in Babylon.
I will make him spew out what he swallowed.
The nations will no longer stream to him;
even the wall of Babylon will fall.

Save your lives, each of you,
from the fierce anger of the LORD.

<sup>46</sup> Do not let your heart grow faint, and do not be afraid
when the rumor is heard in the land;
for a rumor will come one year—
and then another the next year—
of violence in the land and of ruler against ruler.

<sup>47</sup> Therefore, behold, the days are coming when I will punish the idols of Babylon.
Her entire land will suffer shame,
and all her slain will lie fallen within her.

<sup>48</sup> Then heaven and earth and all that is in them will shout for joy over Babylon because the destroyers from the north will come against her,”

declares the LORD.

on account of the slain of Israel,
 just as the slain of all the earth have fallen because of Babylon.
 50 You who have escaped the sword,
 depart and do not linger!
 Remember the LORD from far away,
 and let Jerusalem come to mind.”

51 “We are ashamed because we have heard reproach; disgrace has covered our faces, because foreigners have entered the holy places of the LORD’s house.”

52 “Therefore, behold, the days are coming,”
 declares the LORD,
 “when I will punish her idols,
 and throughout her land the wounded will groan.

53 Even if Babylon ascends to the heavens and fortifies her lofty stronghold, the destroyers I send will come against her,”
 declares the LORD.

54 “The sound of a cry comes from Babylon,
 the sound of great destruction
 from the land of the Chaldeans!
 55 For the LORD will destroy Babylon;
 He will silence her mighty voice.
 The waves will roar like great waters;
 the tumult of their voices will resound.

56 For a destroyer is coming against her—against Babylon.
 Her warriors will be captured,
 and their bows will be broken,
 for the LORD is a God of retribution;
 He will repay in full.

57 I will make her princes and wise men drunk,
 along with her governors, officials, and warriors.
 Then they will fall asleep forever and not wake up,”
 declares the King,
 whose name is the LORD of Hosts.

58 This is what the LORD of Hosts says:

“Babylon’s thick walls will be leveled,
 and her high gates consumed by fire.
 So the labor of the people will be for nothing;
 the nations will exhaust themselves to fuel the flames.”

Jeremiah’s Message to Seraiah

59 This is the message that Jeremiah the prophet gave to the quartermaster Seraiah son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went to Babylon with King Zedekiah of Judah in the fourth year of Zedekiah’s reign. <sup>60</sup> Jeremiah had written on a single scroll about all the disaster that would come upon Babylon—all these words that had been written concerning Babylon.

<sup>61</sup> And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, “When you get to Babylon, see that you read all these words aloud, <sup>62</sup> and say, ‘O LORD, You have promised to cut off this place so that no one will remain—neither man nor beast. Indeed, it will be desolate forever.’”

<sup>63</sup> When you finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and cast it into the Euphrates.
<sup>64</sup> Then you are to say, 'In the same way Babylon will sink and never rise again, because of the disaster I will bring upon her. And her people will grow weary.' "

Here end the words of Jeremiah.

The Fall of Jerusalem Recounted

(Psalm 74:1–23; Psalm 79:1–13; 2 Kings 24:18–20; 2 Chronicles 36:11–14)

<sup>2</sup> And Zedekiah did evil in the sight of the LORD, just as Jehoiakim had done. <sup>3</sup> For because of the anger of the LORD, all this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until He finally banished them from His presence.

And Zedekiah also rebelled against the king of Babylon.

<sup>4</sup> So in the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his entire army. They encamped outside the city and built a siege wall all around it. <sup>5</sup> And the city was kept under siege until King Zedekiah's eleventh year.

<sup>6</sup> By the ninth day of the fourth month, the famine in the city was so severe that the people of the land had no food. <sup>7</sup> Then the city was breached; and though the Chaldeans * had surrounded the city, all the men of war fled the city by night by way of the gate between the two walls near the king's garden.

They headed toward the Arabah,† <sup>8</sup> but the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho, and all his army was separated from him.

<sup>9</sup> The Chaldeans seized the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced judgment on Zedekiah.

<sup>10</sup> There at Riblah the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and he also killed all the officials of Judah. <sup>11</sup> Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes, bound him with bronze shackles, and took him to Babylon, where he kept him in custody until his dying day.

The Temple Destroyed

(2 Kings 25:8–17)

<sup>12</sup> On the tenth day of the fifth month, in the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar's reign over Babylon, Nebuzaradan captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, entered Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> He burned down the house of the LORD, the royal palace, and all the houses of Jerusalem—every significant building. <sup>14</sup> And the whole army of the Chaldeans under the captain of the guard broke down all the walls around Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup> Then Nebuzaradan captain of the guard carried into exile some of the poorest people and those who remained in the city, along with the deserters who had defected to the king of Babylon and the rest of the craftsmen. <sup>16</sup> But Nebuzaradan captain of the guard left behind some of the poorest of the land to tend the vineyards and fields.

* 52:7 That is, the Babylonians; similarly in verses 8, 9, 14, and 17 † 52:7 Or the Jordan Valley

<sup>20</sup> As for the two pillars, the Sea, the twelve bronze bulls under it, and the movable stands that King Solomon had made for the house of the LORD, the weight of the bronze from all these articles was beyond measure. <sup>21</sup> Each pillar was eighteen cubits tall and twelve cubits in circumference;‡ each was hollow, four fingers thick.§ <sup>22</sup> The bronze capital atop one pillar was five cubits high,* with a network of bronze pomegranates all around. The second pillar, with its pomegranates, was similar. <sup>23</sup> Each capital had ninety-six pomegranates on the sides, and a total of a hundred pomegranates were above the surrounding network.

Captives Carried to Babylon
(2 Kings 25:18-21)

<sup>24</sup> The captain of the guard also took away Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the priest of second rank, and the three doorkeepers. <sup>25</sup> Of those still in the city, he took a court official who had been appointed over the men of war, as well as seven trusted royal advisers. He also took the scribe of the captain of the army, who had enlisted the people of the land, and sixty men who were found in the city.

<sup>26</sup> Nebuzaradan captain of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. <sup>27</sup> There at Riblah in the land of Hamath, the king of Babylon struck them down and put them to death. So Judah was taken into exile, away from its own land.

in the seventh year, 3,023 Jews;

<sup>30</sup> in Nebuchadnezzar's twenty-third year, Nebuzaradan captain of the guard carried away 745 Jews.

So in all, 4,600 people were taken away.

Jehoiachin Released from Prison
(2 Kings 25:27-30)

‡ 52:21 Each pillar was approximately 27 feet high and 18 feet in circumference (8.2 meters high and 5.5 meters in circumference). § 52:21 4 fingers is approximately 2.9 inches or 7.4 centimeters. * 52:22 5 cubits is approximately 7.5 feet or 2.3 meters. † 52:31 Literally he lifted up the head of

Lamentations

How Lonely Lies the City!
(2 Kings 24:10-17)

<sup>1</sup> How * lonely lies the city, once so full of people!
She who was great among the nations has become a widow.
The princess of the provinces has become a slave.

<sup>2</sup> She weeps aloud in the night, with tears upon her cheeks.
Among all her lovers
    there is no one to comfort her.
All her friends have betrayed her;
    they have become her enemies.

<sup>3</sup> Judah has gone into exile under affliction and harsh slavery;
she dwells among the nations
    but finds no place to rest.
All her pursuers have overtaken her in the midst of her distress.

<sup>4</sup> The roads to Zion mourn,
    because no one comes to her appointed feasts.
All her gates are deserted;
    her priests groan,
her maidens grieve,
    and she herself is bitter with anguish.

<sup>5</sup> Her foes have become her masters;
    her enemies are at ease.
For the LORD has brought her grief because of her many transgressions.
Her children have gone away
    as captives before the enemy.

<sup>6</sup> All the splendor has departed from the Daughter of Zion.
Her princes are like deer
    that find no pasture;
they lack the strength to flee
    in the face of the hunter.

<sup>7</sup> In the days of her affliction and wandering Jerusalem remembers all the treasures that were hers in days of old.
When her people fell into enemy hands
    she received no help.
Her enemies looked upon her,
    laughing at her downfall.

<sup>8</sup> Jerusalem has sinned greatly;
    therefore she has become an object of scorn.
All who honored her now despise her,

---

* 1:1 This chapter is an acrostic poem, each verse beginning with the successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet.

for they have seen her nakedness;†
she herself groans and turns away.

9 Her uncleanness stains her skirts;
she did not consider her end.
Her downfall was astounding;
there was no one to comfort her.
Look, O LORD, on my affliction, for the enemy has triumphed!

10 The adversary has seized all her treasures.
For she has seen the nations enter her sanctuary—
those You had forbidden to enter Your assembly.

11 All her people groan
as they search for bread.
They have traded their treasures for food
to keep themselves alive.
Look, O LORD, and consider,
for I have become despised.

12 Is this nothing to you, all you who pass by?
Look around and see!
Is there any sorrow like mine,
which was inflicted on me,
which the LORD made me suffer
on the day of His fierce anger?

13 He sent fire from on high,
and it overpowered my bones.
He spread a net for my feet
and turned me back.
He made me desolate,
faint all the day long.

14 My transgressions are bound into a yoke,‡ knit together by His hand;
they are draped over my neck,
and the Lord has broken my strength.
He has delivered me into the hands of those I cannot withstand.

15 The Lord has rejected
all the mighty men in my midst;
He has summoned an army against me §
to crush my young warriors.
Like grapes in a winepress,
the Lord has trampled the Virgin Daughter of Judah.

16 For these things I weep;
my eyes flow with tears.
For there is no one nearby to comfort me,
no one to revive my soul.
My children are destitute
because the enemy has prevailed.

17 Zion stretches out her hands,

† 1:8 Or her shame    ‡ 1:14 Most Hebrew manuscripts; other Hebrew manuscripts and LXX He kept watch over my sins    § 1:15 Or has set a time for me but there is no one to comfort her.

 The LORD has decreed against Jacob that his neighbors become his foes.
 Jerusalem has become an unclean thing among them.

<sup>18</sup> The LORD is righteous,
 for I have rebelled against His command.
 Listen, all you people;
 look upon my suffering.
 My young men and maidens
 have gone into captivity.

<sup>19</sup> I called out to my lovers,
 but they have betrayed me.
 My priests and elders perished in the city while they searched for food
 to keep themselves alive.

<sup>20</sup> See, O LORD, how distressed I am!
 I am churning within;
 my heart is pounding within me,
 for I have been most rebellious.
 Outside, the sword bereaves;
 inside, there is death.

<sup>21</sup> People have heard my groaning,
 but there is no one to comfort me.
 All my enemies have heard of my trouble;
 they are glad that You have caused it.
 May You bring the day You have announced,
 so that they may become like me.

<sup>22</sup> Let all their wickedness come before You,
 and deal with them
 as You have dealt with me
 because of all my transgressions.
 For my groans are many,
 and my heart is faint.

God's Anger over Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> How * the Lord has covered the Daughter of Zion with the cloud of His anger!
 He has cast the glory of Israel from heaven to earth.
 He has abandoned His footstool
 in the day of His anger.

<sup>2</sup> Without pity the Lord has swallowed up all the dwellings of Jacob.
 In His wrath He has demolished
 the fortified cities of the Daughter of Judah.
 He brought to the ground and defiled her kingdom and its princes.

<sup>3</sup> In fierce anger He has cut off

every horn † of Israel and withdrawn His right hand
at the approach of the enemy.
He has burned in Jacob like a flaming fire that consumes everything around it.

<sup>4</sup> He has bent His bow like an enemy;
His right hand is positioned.
Like a foe He has killed
all who were pleasing to the eye;
He has poured out His wrath like fire on the tent of the Daughter of Zion.

<sup>5</sup> The Lord is like an enemy;
He has swallowed up Israel.
He has swallowed up all her palaces and destroyed her strongholds.
He has multiplied mourning and lamentation for the Daughter of Judah.

<sup>6</sup> He has laid waste His tabernacle like a garden booth;
He has destroyed His place of meeting.
The LORD has made Zion forget her appointed feasts and Sabbaths.
In His fierce anger
He has despised both king and priest.

<sup>7</sup> The Lord has rejected His altar;
He has abandoned His sanctuary;
He has delivered the walls of her palaces into the hand of the enemy.
They have raised a shout in the house of the LORD
as on the day of an appointed feast.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD determined to destroy the wall of the Daughter of Zion.
He stretched out a measuring line and did not withdraw His hand from destroying.
He made the ramparts and walls lament;
together they waste away.

<sup>9</sup> Her gates have sunk into the ground;
He has destroyed and shattered their bars.
Her king and her princes are exiled among the nations,
the law is no more,
and even her prophets find no vision from the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> The elders of the Daughter of Zion sit on the ground in silence.
They have thrown dust on their heads and put on sackcloth.
The young women of Jerusalem have bowed their heads to the ground.

<sup>11</sup> My eyes fail from weeping;
I am churning within.
My heart is poured out in grief
over the destruction of the daughter of my people, because children and infants faint
in the streets of the city.

---

† 2:3 Or all the strength

- 12 They cry out to their mothers:
 "Where is the grain and wine?"
 as they faint like the wounded
 in the streets of the city,
 as their lives fade away
 in the arms of their mothers.
- 13 What can I say for you?
 To what can I compare you,
 O Daughter of Jerusalem?
 To what can I liken you,
 that I may console you,
 O Virgin Daughter of Zion?
 For your wound is as deep as the sea.
 Who can ever heal you?
- 14 The visions of your prophets were empty and deceptive;
 they did not expose your guilt to ward off your captivity.
 The burdens they envisioned for you were empty and misleading.
- 15 All who pass by clap their hands at you in scorn.
 They hiss and shake their heads
 at the Daughter of Jerusalem:
 "Is this the city that was called the perfection of beauty,
 the joy of all the earth?"
- 16 All your enemies
 open their mouths against you.
 They hiss and gnash their teeth,
 saying, "We have swallowed her up.
 This is the day for which we have waited.
 We have lived to see it!"
- 17 The LORD has done what He planned;
 He has accomplished His decree,
 which He ordained in days of old;
 He has overthrown you without pity.
 He has let the enemy gloat over you and exalted the horn ‡ of your foes.
- 18 The hearts of the people cry out to the Lord.§
 O wall of the Daughter of Zion, let your tears run down like a river day and night.
 Give yourself no relief,
 and your eyes no rest.
- 19 Arise, cry out in the night
 from the first watch of the night.*
 Pour out your heart like water in the presence of the Lord.
 Lift up your hands to Him for the lives of your children who are fainting from hunger

on the corner of every street.

<sup>20</sup> Look, O LORD, and consider:
Whom have You ever treated like this?
Should women eat their offspring,
the infants they have nurtured?
Should priests and prophets be killed in the sanctuary of the Lord?

<sup>21</sup> Both young and old lie together in the dust of the streets.
My young men and maidens
have fallen by the sword.
You have slain them in the day of Your anger;
You have slaughtered them without compassion.

<sup>22</sup> You summoned my attackers on every side,
as for the day of an appointed feast.
In the day of the LORD's anger no one escaped or survived;
my enemy has destroyed
those I nurtured and reared.

The Prophet's Afflictions

<sup>1</sup> I * am the man who has seen affliction under the rod of God's wrath.
<sup>2</sup> He has driven me away and made me walk in darkness instead of light.
<sup>3</sup> Indeed, He keeps turning His hand against me all day long.
<sup>4</sup> He has worn away my flesh and skin;
He has shattered my bones.
<sup>5</sup> He has besieged me and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.
<sup>6</sup> He has made me dwell in darkness like those dead for ages.
<sup>7</sup> He has walled me in so I cannot escape;
He has weighed me down with chains.
<sup>8</sup> Even when I cry out and plead for help,
He shuts out my prayer.
<sup>9</sup> He has barred my ways with cut stones;
He has made my paths crooked.
<sup>10</sup> He is a bear lying in wait,
a lion hiding in ambush.
<sup>11</sup> He forced me off my path and tore me to pieces;
He left me without help.
<sup>12</sup> He bent His bow and set me as the target for His arrow.
<sup>13</sup> He pierced my kidneys with His arrows.
<sup>14</sup> I am a laughingstock to all my people;
they mock me in song all day long.
<sup>15</sup> He has filled me with bitterness;
He has intoxicated me with wormwood.

* 3:1 This chapter is an acrostic poem, each 3-verse stanza beginning with the successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet.

- 16 He has ground my teeth with gravel and trampled me in the dust.
17 My soul has been deprived of peace;
I have forgotten what prosperity is.
18 So I say, "My strength has perished, along with my hope from the LORD."

The Prophet's Hope

- 19 Remember my affliction and wandering, the wormwood and the gall.
20 Surely my soul remembers and is humbled within me.
21 Yet I call this to mind,
and therefore I have hope:
22 Because of the loving devotion † of the LORD we are not consumed, for His mercies never fail.
23 They are new every morning;
great is Your faithfulness!
24 "The LORD is my portion," says my soul,
"therefore I will hope in Him."
25 The LORD is good to those who wait for Him, to the soul who seeks Him.
26 It is good to wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD.
27 It is good for a man to bear the yoke
while he is still young.
28 Let him sit alone in silence,
for God has disciplined him.
29 Let him bury his face in the dust—
perhaps there is still hope.
30 Let him offer his cheek to the one who would strike him;
let him be filled with reproach.
31 For the Lord will not cast us off forever.
32 Even if He causes grief, He will show compassion
according to His abundant loving devotion.
33 For He does not willingly afflict or grieve the sons of men.
34 To crush underfoot
all the prisoners of the land, 35 to deny a man justice before the Most High, 36 to subvert a man in his lawsuit—
of these the Lord does not approve.

God's Justice

- 37 Who has spoken and it came to pass,
unless the Lord has ordained it?
38 Do not both adversity and good come from the mouth of the Most High?
39 Why should any mortal man complain, in view of his sins?

---

† 3:22 Forms of the Hebrew chesed are translated here and in most cases throughout the Scriptures as loving devotion; the range of meaning includes love, goodness, kindness, faithfulness, and mercy, as well as loyalty to a covenant.

- 40 Let us examine and test our ways, and turn back to the LORD.
- 41 Let us lift up our hearts and hands to God in heaven:
- 42 "We have sinned and rebelled;
You have not forgiven."
- 43 You have covered Yourself in anger and pursued us;
You have killed without pity.
- 44 You have covered Yourself with a cloud that no prayer can pass through.
- 45 You have made us scum and refuse
among the nations.
- 46 All our enemies
open their mouths against us.
- 47 Panic and pitfall have come upon us—
devastation and destruction.
- 48 Streams of tears flow from my eyes
over the destruction of the daughter of my people.
- 49 My eyes overflow unceasingly,
without relief,
- 50 until the LORD
looks down from heaven and sees.
- 51 My eyes bring grief to my soul because of all the daughters of my city.
- 52 Without cause my enemies hunted me like a bird.
- 53 They dropped me alive into a pit and cast stones upon me.
- 54 The waters flowed over my head,
and I thought I was going to die.
- 55 I called on Your name, O LORD, out of the depths of the Pit.
- 56 You heard my plea:
"Do not ignore my cry for relief."
- 57 You drew near when I called on You;
You said, "Do not be afraid."
- 58 You defend my cause, O Lord;
You redeem my life.
- 59 You have seen, O LORD, the wrong done to me;
vindicate my cause!
- 60 You have seen all their malice,
all their plots against me.
- 61 O LORD, You have heard their insults,
all their plots against me—
- 62 the slander and murmuring of my assailants
against me all day long.
- 63 When they sit and when they rise,
see how they mock me in song.
- 64 You will pay them back what they deserve, O LORD,
according to the work of their hands.
- 65 Put a veil of anguish over their hearts;
may Your curse be upon them!
- 66 You will pursue them in anger and exterminate them from under Your heavens, O LORD.

The Distress of Zion

- <sup>1</sup> How * the gold has become tarnished, the pure gold has become dull!
The gems of the temple lie scattered on every street corner.
- <sup>2</sup> How the precious sons of Zion, once worth their weight in pure gold,
are now esteemed as jars of clay,
the work of a potter's hands!
- <sup>3</sup> Even jackals † offer their breasts to nurse their young,
but the daughter of my people has become cruel,
like an ostrich in the wilderness.
- <sup>4</sup> The nursing infant's tongue clings in thirst to the roof of his mouth.
Little children beg for bread,
but no one gives them any.
- <sup>5</sup> Those who once ate delicacies are destitute in the streets;
those brought up in crimson huddle in ash heaps.
- <sup>6</sup> The punishment ‡ of the daughter of my people is greater than that of Sodom, which was overthrown in an instant without a hand turned to help her.
- <sup>7</sup> Her dignitaries were brighter than snow,
whiter than milk;
their bodies were more ruddy than rubies,
their appearance § like sapphires.*
- <sup>8</sup> But now their appearance is blacker than soot;
they are not recognized in the streets.
Their skin has shriveled on their bones;
it has become as dry as a stick.
- <sup>9</sup> Those slain by the sword are better off than those who die of hunger, who waste away, pierced with pain
because the fields lack produce.
- <sup>10</sup> The hands of compassionate women have cooked their own children, who became their food
in the destruction of the daughter of my people.
- <sup>11</sup> The LORD has exhausted His wrath;
He has poured out His fierce anger;
He has kindled a fire in Zion,
and it has consumed her foundations.

† 4:3 Or serpents or dragons    ‡ 4:6 Or iniquity    § 4:7 Or their polishing or their hair    * 4:7 Hebrew lapis lazuli

12 The kings of the earth did not believe, nor any people of the world,
that an enemy or a foe
could enter the gates of Jerusalem.

13 But this was for the sins of her prophets and the guilt of her priests, who shed the blood of the righteous
in her midst.

14 They wandered blind in the streets, defiled by this blood,
so that no one dared
to touch their garments.

15 "Go away! Unclean!"
men shouted at them.
"Away, away! Do not touch us!"
So they fled and wandered.
Among the nations it was said,
"They can stay here no longer."

16 The presence of the LORD has scattered them;
He regards them no more.
The priests are shown no honor;
the elders find no favor.

17 All the while our eyes were failing as we looked in vain for help.
We watched from our towers
for a nation that could not save us.

18 They stalked our every step,
so that we could not walk in our streets.
Our end drew near, our time ran out,
for our end had come!

19 Those who chased us were swifter than the eagles in the sky;
they pursued us over the mountains and ambushed us in the wilderness.

20 The LORD's anointed, the breath of our life, was captured in their pits.
We had said of him,
"Under his shadow we will live among the nations."

21 So rejoice and be glad, O Daughter of Edom, you who dwell in the land of Uz.
Yet the cup will pass to you as well;
you will get drunk and expose yourself.

22 O Daughter of Zion, your punishment is complete;
He will not prolong your exile.†
But He will punish your iniquity, O Daughter of Edom;
He will expose your sins.

A Prayer for Restoration

1 Remember, O LORD, what has happened to us.

† 4:22 Or He will not exile you again

- Look and see our disgrace!
2 Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers,
our houses to foreigners.
3 We have become fatherless orphans;
our mothers are widows.
4 We must buy the water we drink;
our wood comes at a price.
5 We are closely pursued;
we are weary and find no rest.
- 6 We submitted to Egypt and Assyria to get enough bread.
7 Our fathers sinned and are no more,
but we bear their punishment.
8 Slaves rule over us;
there is no one to deliver us from their hands.
9 We get our bread at the risk of our lives because of the sword in the wilderness.
10 Our skin is as hot as an oven with fever from our hunger.
- 11 Women have been ravished in Zion, virgins in the cities of Judah.
12 Princes have been hung up by their hands;
elders receive no respect.
13 Young men toil at millstones;
boys stagger under loads of wood.
14 The elders have left the city gate;
the young men have stopped their music.
15 Joy has left our hearts;
our dancing has turned to mourning.
16 The crown has fallen from our head.
Woe to us, for we have sinned!
- 17 Because of this, our hearts are faint;
because of these, our eyes grow dim—18 because of Mount Zion, which lies desolate, patrolled by foxes.
- 19 You, O LORD, reign forever;
Your throne endures from generation to generation.
20 Why have You forgotten us forever?
Why have You forsaken us for so long?
21 Restore us to Yourself, O LORD, so we may return;
renew our days as of old,
22 unless You have utterly rejected us and remain angry with us beyond measure.

Ezekiel

Ezekiel's Vision by the River Kebar (Psalm 137:1-9)

<sup>1</sup> In the thirtieth year, on the fifth day of the fourth month, while I was among the exiles by the River Kebar, the heavens opened and I saw visions of God.*

<sup>2</sup> On the fifth day of the month—it was the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoiachin—<sup>3</sup> the word of the LORD came directly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans † by the River Kebar. And there the LORD's hand was upon him.

The Four Living Creatures

<sup>4</sup> I looked and saw a whirlwind coming from the north, a great cloud with fire flashing back and forth and brilliant light all around it. In the center of the fire was a gleam like amber; ‡ <sup>5</sup> and within it was the form of four living creatures.

And this was their appearance: They had a human form, <sup>6</sup> but each had four faces and four wings. <sup>7</sup> Their legs were straight, and the soles of their feet were like the hooves of a calf, gleaming like polished bronze.

<sup>8</sup> Under their wings on their four sides they had human hands. All four living creatures had faces and wings, <sup>9</sup> and their wings were touching one another. They did not turn as they moved; each one went straight ahead.

Their wings were spread upward; each had two wings touching the wings of the creature on either side, and two wings covering its body. <sup>12</sup> Each creature went straight ahead. Wherever the spirit would go, they would go, without turning as they moved.

<sup>13</sup> In the midst of the living creatures was the appearance of glowing coals of fire, or of torches. Fire moved back and forth between the living creatures; it was bright, and lightning flashed out of it. <sup>14</sup> The creatures were darting back and forth as quickly as flashes of lightning.

The Four Wheels

<sup>15</sup> When I looked at the living creatures, I saw a wheel on the ground beside each creature with its four faces. <sup>16</sup> The workmanship of the wheels looked like the gleam of beryl, and all four had the same likeness. Their workmanship looked like a wheel within a wheel. <sup>17</sup> As they moved, they went in any of the four directions, without pivoting as they moved. <sup>18</sup> Their rims were high and awesome, and all four rims were full of eyes all around. <sup>19</sup> So as the living creatures moved, the wheels moved beside them, and when the creatures rose from the ground, the wheels also rose.

<sup>20</sup> Wherever the spirit would go, they would go, and the wheels would rise alongside them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels. <sup>21</sup> When the creatures moved, the wheels moved; when the creatures stood still, the wheels stood still; and when the creatures rose from the ground, the wheels rose alongside them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

The Divine Glory

---

* 1:1 Or from God † 1:3 That is, the Babylonians ‡ 1:4 Or The center of the fire looked like glowing metal; similarly in verse 27

When they stood still, they lowered their wings. <sup>25</sup> And there came a voice from above the expanse over their heads as they stood still with their wings lowered.

<sup>28</sup> The appearance of the brilliant light all around Him was like that of a rainbow in a cloud on a rainy day. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell facedown and heard a voice speaking.

Ezekiel's Call

<sup>1</sup> "Son of man,*" He said to me, "stand up on your feet and I will speak to you." <sup>2</sup> And as He spoke to me, the Spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I heard Him speaking to me.

<sup>3</sup> "Son of man," He said to me, "I am sending you to the Israelites, to a rebellious nation that has rebelled against Me. To this very day they and their fathers have rebelled against Me. <sup>4</sup> They are obstinate and stubborn children. I am sending you to them, and you are to say to them, 'This is what the Lord GOD says.'

<sup>5</sup> And whether they listen or refuse to listen—for they are a rebellious house—they will know that a prophet has been among them.

<sup>6</sup> But you, son of man, do not be afraid of them or their words. Do not be afraid, though briars and thorns surround you, and you dwell among scorpions. Do not be afraid of their words or dismayed by their presence, though they are a rebellious house. <sup>7</sup> But speak My words to them, whether they listen or refuse to listen, for they are rebellious.

<sup>8</sup> And you, son of man, listen to what I tell you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth and eat what I give you."

<sup>9</sup> Then I looked and saw a hand reaching out to me, and in it was a scroll, <sup>10</sup> which He unrolled before me. And written on the front and back of it were words of lamentation, mourning, and woe.

3

Ezekiel Eats the Scroll (Revelation 10:1-11)

<sup>1</sup> "Son of man," He said to me, "eat what you find here. Eat this scroll, then go and speak to the house of Israel."

<sup>2</sup> So I opened my mouth, and He fed me the scroll.

<sup>3</sup> "Son of man," He said to me, "eat and fill your stomach with this scroll I am giving you."

So I ate, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth.

§ 1:24 Hebrew Shaddai * 2:1 Or Son of Adam; here and throughout Ezekiel

<sup>4</sup> Then He said to me, “Son of man, go now to the house of Israel and speak My words to them. <sup>5</sup> For you are not being sent to a people of unfamiliar speech or difficult language, but to the house of Israel— <sup>6</sup> not to the many peoples of unfamiliar speech and difficult language whose words you cannot understand. Surely if I had sent you to them, they would have listened to you.

<sup>7</sup> But the house of Israel will be unwilling to listen to you, since they are unwilling to listen to Me. For the whole house of Israel is hard-headed and hard-hearted.

<sup>8</sup> Behold, I will make your face as hard as their faces, and your forehead as hard as their foreheads. <sup>9</sup> I will make your forehead like a diamond, harder than flint. Do not be afraid of them or dismayed at their presence, even though they are a rebellious house.”

<sup>10</sup> “Son of man,” He added, “listen carefully to all the words I speak to you, and take them to heart. <sup>11</sup> Go to your people, the exiles; speak to them and tell them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says,’ whether they listen or refuse to listen.”

<sup>14</sup> So the Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness and in the anger of my spirit, with the strong hand of the LORD upon me. <sup>15</sup> I came to the exiles at Tel-abib who dwelt by the River Kebar. And for seven days I sat where they sat and remained there among them, overwhelmed.

A Watchman for Israel

<sup>16</sup> At the end of seven days the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>17</sup> “Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel. Whenever you hear a word from My mouth, give them a warning from Me.

<sup>18</sup> If I say to the wicked man, ‘You will surely die,’ but you do not warn him or speak out to warn him from his wicked way to save his life, that wicked man will die in his iniquity,‡ and I will hold you responsible for his blood. <sup>19</sup> But if you warn a wicked man and he does not turn from his wickedness and his wicked way, he will die in his iniquity, but you will have saved yourself.

<sup>20</sup> Now if a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and I put a stumbling block before him, he will die. If you did not warn him, he will die in his sin,§ and the righteous acts he did will not be remembered. And I will hold you responsible for his blood. <sup>21</sup> But if you warn the righteous man not to sin, and he does not sin, he will indeed live because he heeded your warning, and you will have saved yourself.”

<sup>22</sup> And there the hand of the LORD was upon me, and He said to me, “Get up, go out to the plain, and there I will speak with you.”

<sup>23</sup> So I got up and went out to the plain, and behold, the glory of the LORD was present there, like the glory I had seen by the River Kebar, and I fell facedown.

<sup>24</sup> Then the Spirit entered me and set me on my feet. He spoke with me and said, “Go, shut yourself inside your house. <sup>25</sup> And you, son of man, they will tie with ropes, and you will be bound so that you cannot go out among the people. <sup>26</sup> I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, and you will be silent and unable to rebuke them, though they are a rebellious house.

<sup>27</sup> But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you are to tell them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says.’ Whoever listens, let him listen; and whoever refuses, let him refuse, for they are a rebellious house.

* 3:12 Or the wind; also in verse 14    † 3:12 Or sound behind me as the glory of the LORD rose from its place!

‡ 3:18 Or for his iniquity; also in verse 19    § 3:20 Or for his sin

A Sign of Jerusalem's Siege

<sup>4</sup> Then lie down on your left side and place the iniquity of the house of Israel upon yourself. You are to bear their iniquity for the number of days you lie on your side. <sup>5</sup> For I have assigned to you 390 days, according to the number of years of their iniquity. So you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> When you have completed these days, lie down again, but on your right side, and bear the iniquity of the house of Judah. I have assigned to you 40 days, a day for each year. <sup>7</sup> You must turn your face toward the siege of Jerusalem with your arm bared, and prophesy against it.

<sup>8</sup> Now behold, I will tie you up with ropes so you cannot turn from side to side until you have finished the days of your siege.

The Defiled Bread

<sup>9</sup> But take wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt; put them in a single container and make them into bread for yourself. This is what you are to eat during the 390 days you lie on your side. <sup>10</sup> You are to weigh out twenty shekels of food * to eat each day, and you are to eat it at set times.

<sup>11</sup> You are also to measure out a sixth of a hin of water † to drink, and you are to drink it at set times. <sup>12</sup> And you shall eat the food as you would a barley cake, after you bake it over dried human excrement in the sight of the people.”

<sup>14</sup> “Ah, Lord GOD,” I said, “I have never defiled myself.‡ From my youth until now I have not eaten anything found dead or mauled by wild beasts. No unclean meat has ever entered my mouth.”

<sup>15</sup> “Look,” He replied, “I will let you use cow dung instead of human excrement, and you may bake your bread over that.”

<sup>16</sup> Then He told me, “Son of man, I am going to cut off the supply § of food in Jerusalem. They will anxiously eat bread rationed by weight, and in despair they will drink water by measure. <sup>17</sup> So they will lack food and water; they will be appalled at the sight of one another wasting away in their iniquity.

The Razor of Judgment

<sup>1</sup> “As for you, son of man, take a sharp sword, use it as a barber’s razor, and shave your head and beard. Then take a set of scales and divide the hair. <sup>2</sup> When the days of the siege have ended, you are to burn up a third of the hair inside the city; you are also to take a third and slash it with the sword all around the city; and you are to scatter a third to the wind. For I will unleash a sword behind them.

* 4:10 20 shekels is approximately 8 ounces or 228 grams of food. † 4:11 A sixth of a hin is approximately 0.65 quarts or 0.61 liters of water. ‡ 4:14 Hebrew “Ah, Lord GOD,” I said, “Behold, my soul has never been made unclean. § 4:16 Hebrew staff

<sup>3</sup> But you are to take a few strands of hair and secure them in the folds of your garment.

<sup>4</sup> Again, take a few of these, throw them into the fire, and burn them. From there a fire will spread to the whole house of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: ‘This is Jerusalem, which I have set in the center of the nations, with countries all around her. <sup>6</sup> But she has rebelled against My ordinances more wickedly than the nations, and against My statutes worse than the countries around her. For her people have rejected My ordinances and have not walked in My statutes.’

<sup>7</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘You have been more insubordinate than the nations around you; you have not walked in My statutes or kept My ordinances, nor have you even conformed * to the ordinances of the nations around you.’

<sup>8</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Behold, I Myself am against you, Jerusalem, and I will execute judgments among you in the sight of the nations. <sup>9</sup> Because of all your abominations, I will do to you what I have never done before and will never do again. <sup>10</sup> As a result, fathers among you will eat their sons, and sons will eat their fathers. I will execute judgments against you and scatter all your remnant to every wind.’

Famine, Sword, and Dispersion

<sup>11</sup> Therefore as surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, because you have defiled My sanctuary with all your detestable idols and abominations, I Myself will withdraw My favor; I will not look upon you with pity, nor will I spare you.

<sup>12</sup> A third of your people will die by plague or be consumed by famine within you, a third will fall by the sword outside your walls, and a third I will scatter to every wind and unleash a sword behind them.

<sup>13</sup> And when My anger is spent and I have vented My wrath against them, I will be appeased. And when I have spent My wrath on them, they will know that I, the LORD, in My zeal have spoken.

<sup>14</sup> I will make you a ruin and a disgrace among the nations around you, in the sight of all who pass by. <sup>15</sup> So you will be † a reproach and a taunt, a warning and a horror to the nations around you, when I execute judgments against you in anger, wrath, and raging fury. I, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>16</sup> When I shower you‡ with the deadly arrows of famine and destruction that I will send to destroy you, I will intensify the famine against you and cut off your supply § of food. <sup>17</sup> I will send famine and wild beasts against you, and they will leave you childless. Plague and bloodshed will sweep through you, and I will bring a sword against you. I, the LORD, have spoken.”

Judgment against Idolatry

(Deuteronomy 4:15-31; Deuteronomy 12:29-32)

<sup>3</sup> You are to say: ‘O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD! This is what the Lord GOD says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys: I am about to bring a sword against you, and I will destroy your high places. <sup>4</sup> Your altars will be demolished and your incense altars will be smashed; and I will cast down your slain before your idols. <sup>5</sup> I will lay the corpses of the Israelites before their idols and scatter your bones around your altars.

* 5:7 Some Hebrew manuscripts and Syriac My ordinances; you have even conformed † 5:15 DSS, LXX, Syriac, and Vulgate; MT So it will be ‡ 5:16 Hebrew them § 5:16 Hebrew staff

<sup>6</sup> Wherever you live, the cities will be laid waste and the high places will be demolished, so that your altars will be laid waste and desecrated, your idols smashed and obliterated, your incense altars cut down, and your works blotted out. <sup>7</sup> The slain will fall among you, and you will know that I am the LORD.

A Remnant to Be Blessed

<sup>8</sup> Yet I will leave a remnant, for some of you will escape the sword when you are scattered among the nations and throughout the lands.

<sup>9</sup> Then in the nations to which they have been carried captive, your survivors will remember Me—how I have been grieved by their adulterous hearts that turned away from Me, and by their eyes that lusted after idols. So they will loathe themselves for the evil they have done and for all their abominations. <sup>10</sup> And they will know that I am the LORD; I did not declare in vain that I would bring this calamity upon them.

<sup>11</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: Clap your hands, stomp your feet, and cry out “Alas!” because of all the wicked abominations of the house of Israel, who will fall by sword and famine and plague. <sup>12</sup> He who is far off will die by the plague, he who is near will fall by the sword, and he who remains will die by famine. So I will vent My fury upon them.

<sup>13</sup> Then you will know that I am the LORD, when their slain lie among their idols around their altars, on every high hill, on all the mountaintops, and under every green tree and leafy oak—the places where they offered fragrant incense to all their idols. <sup>14</sup> I will stretch out My hand against them, and wherever they live I will make the land a desolate waste, from the wilderness to Diblah.* Then they will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

The Hour of Doom

<sup>1</sup> And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> “O son of man, this is what the Lord GOD says to the land of Israel:

‘The end! The end has come upon the four corners of the land.

<sup>3</sup> The end is now upon you,
and I will unleash My anger against you.
I will judge you according to your ways
and repay you for all your abominations.

<sup>4</sup> I will not look on you with pity,
nor will I spare you,
but I will punish you for your ways
and for the abominations among you.

Then you will know that I am the LORD.’

<sup>5</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says:

‘Disaster! An unprecedented disaster* — behold, it is coming!

<sup>6</sup> The end has come!
The end has come!
It has roused itself against you.
Behold, it has come!

<sup>7</sup> Doom has come to you,
O inhabitants of the land.
The time has come;
the day is near;

* 6:14 Most Hebrew manuscripts; Vulgate and a few Hebrew manuscripts Riblah * 7:5 Or A unique disaster, as in most Hebrew manuscripts; some Hebrew manuscripts and Syriac Disaster after disaster

there is panic on the mountains
instead of shouts of joy.

<sup>8</sup> Very soon I will pour out My wrath upon you and vent My anger against you;
I will judge you according to your ways
and repay you for all your abominations.

<sup>9</sup> I will not look on you with pity,
nor will I spare you,
but I will punish you for your ways
and for the abominations among you.
Then you will know that it is I, the LORD,
who strikes the blow.

<sup>10</sup> Behold, the day is here!
It has come!

Doom has gone out,
the rod has budded,
arrogance has bloomed.

<sup>11</sup> Their violence has grown into a rod to punish their wickedness.†

None of them will remain:
none of their multitude,
none of their wealth,
and nothing of value.

<sup>12</sup> The time has come;
the day has arrived.
Let the buyer not rejoice
and the seller not mourn,
for wrath is upon the whole multitude.

<sup>13</sup> The seller will surely not recover what he sold while both remain alive.

For the vision concerning the whole multitude will not be revoked,
and because of their iniquity,
not one of them will preserve his life.

The Desolation of Israel

<sup>14</sup> They have blown the trumpet and made everything ready,
but no one goes to war,
for My wrath is upon the whole multitude.

<sup>15</sup> The sword is outside;
plague and famine are within.
Those in the country will die by the sword, and those in the city will be devoured
by famine and plague.

<sup>16</sup> The survivors will escape and live in the mountains, moaning like doves of the valley,
each for his own iniquity.

<sup>17</sup> Every hand will go limp, and every knee will turn to water.

<sup>18</sup> They will put on sackcloth, and terror will overwhelm them.
Shame will cover all their faces,
and all their heads will be shaved.

† 7:11 Literally The violence has grown into a rod of wickedness

19 They will throw their silver into the streets, and their gold will seem unclean.
Their silver and gold cannot save them in the day of the wrath of the LORD.

They cannot satisfy their appetites or fill their stomachs with wealth, for it became the stumbling block that brought their iniquity.

20 His beautiful ornaments they transformed into pride and used them to fashion their vile images and detestable idols.
Therefore I will make these into something unclean for them.

21 And I will hand these things over as plunder to foreigners and loot to the wicked of the earth, who will defile them.

22 I will turn My face away from them,
and they will defile My treasured place.
Violent men will enter it,
and they will defile it.

23 Forge the chain,
for the land is full of crimes of bloodshed,
and the city is full of violence.

24 So I will bring the most wicked of nations to take possession of their houses.
I will end the pride of the mighty,
and their holy places will be profaned.

25 Anguish is coming!
They will seek peace, but find none.

26 Disaster upon disaster will come,
and rumor after rumor.
Then they will seek a vision from a prophet,
but instruction from the priests will perish,
as will counsel from the elders.

27 The king will mourn,
the prince will be clothed with despair;
and the hands of the people of the land will tremble.
I will deal with them according to their conduct,
and I will judge them by their own standards.

Then they will know that I am the LORD.' "

The Vision of Idolatry in the Temple

1 In the sixth year, on the fifth day of the sixth month, I was sitting in my house, and the elders of Judah were sitting before me; and there the hand of the Lord GOD fell upon me.

2 Then I looked and saw a figure like that of a man. From His waist down His appearance was like fire, and from His waist up He was as bright as the gleam of amber.* <sup>3</sup> He stretched out what looked like a hand and took me by the hair of my head. Then the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven and carried me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the north gate of the inner court, where the idol that provokes jealousy was seated.

* 8:2 Or as glowing metal

<sup>4</sup> And there I saw the glory of the God of Israel, like the vision I had seen in the plain.
<sup>5</sup> "Son of man," He said to me, "now lift up your eyes to the north."

So I lifted up my eyes to the north, and in the entrance north of the Altar Gate † I saw this idol of jealousy.

<sup>6</sup> "Son of man," He said to me, "do you see what they are doing—the great abominations that the house of Israel is committing—to drive Me far from My sanctuary? Yet you will see even greater abominations."

<sup>7</sup> Then He brought me to the entrance to the court, and I looked and saw a hole in the wall.

<sup>8</sup> "Son of man," He told me, "dig through the wall."

So I dug through the wall and discovered a doorway.

<sup>9</sup> Then He said to me, "Go in and see the wicked abominations they are committing here."

<sup>10</sup> So I went in and looked, and engraved all around the wall was every kind of crawling creature and detestable beast, along with all the idols of the house of Israel. <sup>11</sup> Before them stood seventy elders of the house of Israel, with Jaazaniah son of Shaphan standing among them. Each had a censer in his hand, and a fragrant cloud of incense was rising.

<sup>12</sup> "Son of man," He said to me, "do you see what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the darkness, each at the shrine of his own idol? For they are saying, 'The LORD does not see us; the LORD has forsaken the land.' "

<sup>13</sup> Again, He told me, "You will see them committing even greater abominations."

<sup>14</sup> Then He brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the house of the LORD, and I saw women sitting there, weeping for Tammuz.‡

<sup>15</sup> "Son of man," He said to me, "do you see this? Yet you will see even greater abominations than these."

<sup>16</sup> So He brought me to the inner court of the house of the LORD, and there at the entrance to the temple of the LORD, between the portico and the altar, were about twenty-five men with their backs to the temple of the LORD and their faces toward the east; and they were bowing to the east in worship of the sun.

<sup>17</sup> "Son of man," He said to me, "do you see this? Is it not enough for the house of Judah to commit the abominations they are practicing here, that they must also fill the land with violence and continually provoke Me to anger? Look, they are even putting the branch to their nose! <sup>18</sup> Therefore I will respond with wrath. I will not look on them with pity, nor will I spare them. Although they shout loudly in My ears, I will not listen to them."

Execution of the Idolaters

<sup>1</sup> Then I heard Him call out in a loud voice, saying, "Draw near, O executioners of the city, each with a weapon of destruction in hand."

<sup>2</sup> And I saw six men coming from the direction of the Upper Gate, which faces north, each with a weapon of slaughter in his hand. With them was another man clothed in linen who had a writing kit at his side. And they came in and stood beside the bronze altar.

† 8:5 Or gate of the altar    ‡ 8:14 Tammuz, meaning Sprout of Life, was a Sumerian god of fertility.

<sup>3</sup> Then the glory of the God of Israel rose from above the cherubim, where it had been, and moved to the threshold of the temple. And He called to the man clothed in linen who had the writing kit at his side. <sup>4</sup> "Go throughout the city of Jerusalem," said the LORD, "and put a mark on the foreheads of the men sighing and groaning over all the abominations committed there."

<sup>5</sup> And as I listened, He said to the others, "Follow him through the city and start killing; do not show pity or spare anyone!" <sup>6</sup> Slaughter the old men, the young men and maidens, the women and children; but do not go near anyone who has the mark. Now begin at My sanctuary."

So they began with the elders who were before the temple.

<sup>7</sup> Then He told them, "Defile the temple and fill the courts with the slain. Go forth!"

So they went out and began killing throughout the city.

<sup>8</sup> While they were killing, I was left alone. And I fell facedown and cried out, "Oh, Lord GOD, when You pour out Your wrath on Jerusalem, will You destroy the entire remnant of Israel?"

<sup>9</sup> He replied, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great. The land is full of bloodshed, and the city is full of perversity. For they say, 'The LORD has forsaken the land; the LORD does not see.'<sup>10</sup> But as for Me, I will not look on them with pity, nor will I spare them. I will bring their deeds down upon their own heads."

10

God's Glory Exits the Temple

<sup>3</sup> Now when the man went in, the cherubim were standing on the south side of the temple, and a cloud filled the inner court. <sup>4</sup> Then the glory of the LORD rose from above the cherubim and stood over the threshold of the temple. The temple was filled with the cloud, and the court was filled with the brightness of the glory of the LORD. <sup>5</sup> The sound of the wings of the cherubim could be heard as far as the outer court, like the voice of God Almighty * when He speaks.

<sup>6</sup> When the LORD commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, "Take fire from within the wheelwork, from among the cherubim," the man went in and stood beside a wheel. <sup>7</sup> Then one of the cherubim reached out his hand and took some of the fire that was among them. And he put it into the hands of the man clothed in linen, who received it and went out. <sup>8</sup> (The cherubim appeared to have the form of human hands under their wings.)

<sup>12</sup> Their entire bodies, including their backs, hands, and wings, were full of eyes all around, as were their four wheels. <sup>13</sup> I heard the wheels being called "the whirling wheels."

* 10:5 Hebrew El-Shaddai

<sup>14</sup> Each of the cherubim had four faces: the first face was that of a cherub, the second that of a man, the third that of a lion, and the fourth that of an eagle.

<sup>15</sup> Then the cherubim rose upward. These were the living creatures I had seen by the River Kebar. <sup>16</sup> When the cherubim moved, the wheels moved beside them, and even when they spread their wings to rise from the ground, the wheels did not veer away from their side. <sup>17</sup> When the cherubim stood still, the wheels also stood still, and when they ascended, the wheels ascended with them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

<sup>18</sup> Then the glory of the LORD moved away from the threshold of the temple and stood above the cherubim. <sup>19</sup> As I watched, the cherubim lifted their wings and rose up from the ground, with the wheels beside them as they went. And they stopped at the entrance of the east gate of the house of the LORD, with the glory of the God of Israel above them.

<sup>20</sup> These were the living creatures I had seen beneath the God of Israel by the River Kebar, and I knew that they were cherubim. <sup>21</sup> Each had four faces and four wings, with what looked like human hands under their wings. <sup>22</sup> Their faces looked like the faces I had seen by the River Kebar. Each creature went straight ahead.

Evil in High Places

<sup>1</sup> Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the gate of the house of the LORD that faces east. And there at the entrance of the gate were twenty-five men. Among them I saw Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, who were leaders of the people. <sup>2</sup> And the LORD said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who plot evil and give wicked counsel in this city. <sup>3</sup> They are saying, 'Is not the time near to build houses? The city is the cooking pot,* and we are the meat.' <sup>4</sup> Therefore prophesy against them; prophesy, O son of man!"

<sup>5</sup> And the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me and told me to declare that this is what the LORD says: "That is what you are thinking, O house of Israel; and I know the thoughts that arise in your minds. <sup>6</sup> You have multiplied those you killed in this city and filled its streets with the dead.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: The slain you have laid within this city are the meat, and the city is the pot; but I will remove you from it. <sup>8</sup> You fear the sword, so I will bring the sword against you, declares the Lord GOD. <sup>9</sup> I will bring you out of the city and deliver you into the hands of foreigners, and I will execute judgments against you. <sup>10</sup> You will fall by the sword, and I will judge you even to the borders of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> The city will not be a pot for you, nor will you be the meat within it. I will judge you even to the borders of Israel. <sup>12</sup> Then you will know that I am the LORD. For you have neither followed My statutes nor practiced My ordinances, but you have conformed to the ordinances of the nations around you."

A Promise of Restoration (Jeremiah 32:36-44)

<sup>13</sup> Now as I was prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died. Then I fell facedown and cried out in a loud voice, "Oh, Lord GOD, will You bring the remnant of Israel to a complete end?"

<sup>14</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>15</sup> "Son of man, your brothers—your relatives, your fellow exiles, and the whole house of Israel—are those of whom the people of Jerusalem have said, 'They are far away from the LORD; this land has been given to us as a possession.'

* 11:3 Or cauldron

<sup>16</sup> Therefore declare that this is what the Lord GOD says: 'Although I sent them far away among the nations and scattered them among the countries, yet for a little while I have been a sanctuary for them in the countries to which they have gone.'

<sup>17</sup> Therefore declare that this is what the Lord GOD says: 'I will gather you from the peoples and assemble you from the countries to which you have been scattered, and I will give back to you the land of Israel.'

<sup>18</sup> When they return to it, they will remove all its detestable things and all its abominations. <sup>19</sup> And I will give them singleness of heart and put a new spirit within them; I will remove their heart of stone and give them a heart of flesh, <sup>20</sup> so that they may follow My statutes, keep My ordinances, and practice them. Then they will be My people, and I will be their God.

<sup>21</sup> But as for those whose hearts pursue detestable things and abominations, I will bring their conduct down upon their own heads, declares the Lord GOD."

God's Glory Leaves Jerusalem

<sup>22</sup> Then the cherubim, with the wheels beside them, spread their wings, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them. <sup>23</sup> And the glory of the LORD rose up from within the city and stood over the mountain east of the city.

<sup>24</sup> And the Spirit lifted me up and carried me back to Chaldea,† to the exiles in the vision given by the Spirit of God. After the vision had gone up from me, <sup>25</sup> I told the exiles everything the LORD had shown me.

12

Signs of the Coming Captivity

<sup>1</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, you are living in a rebellious house. They have eyes to see but do not see, and ears to hear but do not hear, for they are a rebellious house.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore, son of man, pack your bags for exile. In broad daylight, set out from your place and go to another as they watch. Perhaps they will understand, though they are a rebellious house. <sup>4</sup> Bring out your baggage for exile by day, as they watch. Then in the evening, as they watch, go out like those who go into exile.

<sup>5</sup> As they watch, dig through the wall and carry your belongings out through it. <sup>6</sup> And as they watch, lift your bags to your shoulder and take them out at dusk; cover your face so that you cannot see the land. For I have made you a sign to the house of Israel."

<sup>7</sup> So I did as I was commanded. I brought out my bags for exile by day, and in the evening I dug through the wall by hand. I took my belongings out at dusk, carrying them on my shoulder as they watched.

<sup>8</sup> And in the morning the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>9</sup> "Son of man, hasn't the rebellious house of Israel asked you, 'What are you doing?' <sup>10</sup> Tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says: 'This burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel who are there.'

<sup>11</sup> You are to say, 'I am a sign to you.' Just as it happened here,* so will it be done to them; they will go into exile as captives. <sup>12</sup> And at dusk the prince among them will lift his bags to his shoulder and go out. They will dig through the wall to bring him out. He will cover his face so he cannot see the land. <sup>13</sup> But I will spread My net over him, and he will be caught in My snare. I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans; yet he will not see it, and there he will die.

† 11:24 Or Babylonia * 12:11 Literally 'I am a sign to you.' Just as I have done; some translators close the quotation at the end of the verse.

<sup>14</sup> And I will scatter to every wind all the attendants around him and all his troops, and I will draw a sword to chase after them. <sup>15</sup> And they will know that I am the LORD, when I disperse them among the nations and scatter them throughout the countries.

<sup>16</sup> But I will spare a few of them from sword and famine and plague, so that in the nations to which they go, they can recount all their abominations. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

<sup>17</sup> Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>18</sup> "Son of man, eat your bread with trembling, and drink your water with quivering and anxiety. <sup>19</sup> Then tell the people of the land that this is what the Lord GOD says about those living in Jerusalem and in the land of Israel: 'They will eat their bread with anxiety and drink their water in dread, for their land will be stripped of everything in it because of the violence of all who dwell in it. <sup>20</sup> The inhabited cities will be laid waste, and the land will become desolate. Then you will know that I am the LORD.' "

The Presumptuous Proverb

<sup>21</sup> Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>22</sup> "Son of man, what is this proverb that you have in the land of Israel:

'The days go by,
and every vision fails?'

<sup>23</sup> Therefore tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says: 'I will put an end to this proverb, and in Israel they will no longer recite it.'

But say to them: 'The days are at hand when every vision will be fulfilled. <sup>24</sup> For there will be no more false visions or flattering divinations within the house of Israel, <sup>25</sup> because I, the LORD, will speak whatever word I speak, and it will be fulfilled without delay. For in your days, O rebellious house, I will speak a message and bring it to pass, declares the Lord GOD.' "

<sup>26</sup> Furthermore, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>27</sup> "Son of man, take note that the house of Israel is saying, 'The vision that he sees is for many years from now; he prophesies about the distant future.'

<sup>28</sup> Therefore tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says: 'None of My words will be delayed any longer. The message I speak will be fulfilled, declares the Lord GOD.' "

13

*Reproof of False Prophets
(Micah 2:6-11)*

<sup>1</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who are now prophesying. Tell those who prophesy out of their own imagination: Hear the word of the LORD! <sup>3</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: Woe to the foolish prophets who follow their own spirit, yet have seen nothing. <sup>4</sup> Your prophets, O Israel, are like foxes among the ruins. <sup>5</sup> You did not go up to the gaps or restore the wall around the house of Israel so that it would stand in the battle on the Day of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> They see false visions and speak lying divinations. They claim, 'Thus declares the LORD,' when the LORD did not send them; yet they wait for the fulfillment of their message.

<sup>7</sup> Haven't you seen a false vision and spoken a lying divination when you proclaim, 'Thus declares the LORD,' even though I have not spoken?

<sup>8</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Because you have uttered vain words and seen false visions, I am against you, declares the Lord GOD. <sup>9</sup> My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and speak lying divinations. They will not belong to the council of My people or be recorded in the register of the house of Israel, nor will they enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord GOD.

<sup>10</sup> Because they have led My people astray, saying, 'Peace,' when there is no peace, and whitewashing any flimsy wall that is built, <sup>11</sup> tell those whitewashing the wall that it will fall. Rain will come in torrents, I will send hailstones plunging down, and a windstorm will burst forth. <sup>12</sup> Surely when the wall has fallen, you will not be asked, 'Where is the whitewash with which you covered it?'

<sup>13</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: In My wrath I will release a windstorm, and in My anger torrents of rain and hail will fall with destructive fury. <sup>14</sup> I will tear down the wall you whitewashed and level it to the ground, so that its foundation is exposed. The city will fall, and you will be destroyed within it. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> And after I have vented My wrath against the wall and against those who whitewashed it, I will say to you: 'The wall is gone, and so are those who whitewashed it— <sup>16</sup> those prophets of Israel who prophesied to Jerusalem and saw a vision of peace for her when there was no peace, declares the Lord GOD.'

Reproof of False Prophetesses

<sup>17</sup> Now, O son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who prophesy out of their own imagination. Prophecy against them <sup>18</sup> and tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says: Woe to the women who sew magic charms on their wrists and make veils for the heads of people of every height, in order to ensnare their souls. Will you ensnare the souls of My people but preserve your own? <sup>19</sup> You have profaned Me among My people for handfuls of barley and scraps of bread. By lying to My people who would listen, you have killed those who should not have died and spared those who should not have lived.

<sup>20</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: See, I am against the magic charms with which you ensnare souls like birds, and I will tear them from your arms. So I will free the souls you have ensnared like birds. <sup>21</sup> I will also tear off your veils and deliver My people from your hands, so that they will no longer be prey in your hands. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>22</sup> Because you have disheartened the righteous with your lies, even though I have caused them no grief, and because you have encouraged the wicked not to turn from their evil ways to save their lives, <sup>23</sup> therefore you will no longer see false visions or practice divination. I will deliver My people from your hands. Then you will know that I am the LORD."

Idolatrous Elders Condemned (Romans 14:13–23; 1 Corinthians 8:1–13)

<sup>1</sup> Then some of the elders of Israel came and sat down before me. <sup>2</sup> And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>3</sup> "Son of man, these men have set up idols in their hearts and put wicked stumbling blocks before their faces. Should I consult with them in any way?

<sup>4</sup> Therefore speak to them and tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says: 'When any Israelite sets up idols in his heart and puts a wicked stumbling block before his face, and then comes to the prophet, I the LORD will answer him according to his great idolatry, <sup>5</sup> so that I may take hold of the hearts of the people of Israel. For because of their idols, they are all estranged from Me.'

<sup>9</sup> But if the prophet is enticed to speak a message, then it was I the LORD who enticed him, and I will stretch out My hand against him and destroy him from among My people Israel. <sup>10</sup> They will bear their punishment—the punishment of the inquirer will be the same as that of the prophet— <sup>11</sup> in order that the house of Israel may no longer stray from Me and no longer defile themselves with all their transgressions. Then they will be My people and I will be their God, declares the Lord GOD.’ ”

Four Dire Judgments

<sup>12</sup> And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>13</sup> “Son of man, if a land sins against Me by acting unfaithfully, and I stretch out My hand against it to cut off its supply * of food, to send famine upon it, and to cut off from it both man and beast, <sup>14</sup> then even if these three men—Noah, Daniel, and Job—were in it, their righteousness could deliver only themselves, declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>15</sup> Or if I send wild beasts through the land to leave it childless and desolate, with no man passing through it for fear of the beasts, <sup>16</sup> then as surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, even if these three men were in it, they could not deliver their own sons or daughters. They alone would be delivered, but the land would be desolate.

<sup>17</sup> Or if I bring a sword against that land and say, ‘Let a sword pass through it,’ so that I cut off from it both man and beast, <sup>18</sup> then as surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, even if these three men were in it, they could not deliver their own sons or daughters. They alone would be delivered.

<sup>19</sup> Or if I send a plague into that land and pour out My wrath upon it through bloodshed, cutting off from it both man and beast, <sup>20</sup> then as surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, they could not deliver their own sons or daughters. Their righteousness could deliver only themselves.

<sup>21</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘How much worse will it be when I send against Jerusalem My four dire judgments—sword, famine, wild beasts, and plague—in order to cut off from it both man and beast?

<sup>22</sup> Yet, behold, some survivors will be left in it—sons and daughters who will be brought out. They will come out to you, and when you see their conduct and actions, you will be comforted regarding the disaster I have brought upon Jerusalem—all that I have brought upon it. <sup>23</sup> They will bring you consolation when you see their conduct and actions, and you will know that it was not without cause that I have done all these things within it,’ declares the Lord GOD.”

15

Jerusalem the Useless Vine

<sup>1</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, how does the wood of the vine surpass any other branch among the trees in the forest? <sup>3</sup> Can wood be taken from it to make something useful? Or can one make from it a peg on which to hang utensils?

<sup>4</sup> No, it is cast into the fire for fuel. The fire devours both ends, and the middle is charred. Can it be useful for anything? <sup>5</sup> Even when it was whole, it could not be made useful. How much less can it ever be useful when the fire has consumed it and charred it!

<sup>6</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Like the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give up the people of Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup> And I will set My face against them. Though they may have escaped the fire, yet another fire will consume them. And when I set My face against them, you will know that I am the LORD.

16Jerusalem's Unfaithfulness*

<sup>1</sup> Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, confront Jerusalem with her abominations <sup>3</sup> and tell her that this is what the Lord GOD says to Jerusalem: Your origin and your birth were in the land of the Canaanites. Your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite. <sup>4</sup> On the day of your birth your cord was not cut, nor were you washed with water for cleansing. You were not rubbed with salt or wrapped in cloths. <sup>5</sup> No one cared enough for you to do even one of these things out of compassion for you. Instead, you were thrown out into the open field, because you were despised on the day of your birth.

<sup>6</sup> Then I passed by and saw you wallowing in your blood, and as you lay there in your blood I said to you, 'Live!' There I said to you, 'Live!' <sup>7</sup> I made you thrive like a plant of the field. You grew up and matured and became very beautiful. Your breasts were formed and your hair grew, but you were naked and bare.

<sup>8</sup> Then I passed by and saw you, and you were indeed old enough for love. So I spread My cloak over you and covered your nakedness. I pledged Myself to you, entered into a covenant with you, and you became Mine, declares the Lord GOD. <sup>9</sup> Then I bathed you with water, rinsed off your blood, and anointed you with oil. <sup>10</sup> I clothed you in embroidered cloth and gave you sandals of fine leather. I wrapped you in fine linen and covered you with silk. <sup>11</sup> I adorned you with jewelry, and I put bracelets on your wrists and a chain around your neck. <sup>12</sup> I put a ring in your nose, earrings on your ears, and a beautiful crown upon your head.

<sup>13</sup> So you were adorned with gold and silver, and your clothing was made of fine linen, silk, and embroidered cloth. You ate fine flour, honey, and oil. You became very beautiful and rose to be queen. <sup>14</sup> Your fame spread among the nations on account of your beauty, for it was perfect in the splendor I bestowed on you, declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>15</sup> But because of your fame, you trusted in your beauty and played the harlot. You lavished your favors on everyone who passed by, and your beauty was theirs for the asking. <sup>16</sup> You took some of your garments and made colorful high places for yourself, and on them you prostituted yourself. Such things should not have happened; never should they have occurred!

<sup>17</sup> You also took the fine jewelry of gold and silver I had given you, and you made male idols with which to prostitute yourself. <sup>18</sup> You took your embroidered garments to cover them, and you set My oil and incense before them. <sup>19</sup> And you set before them as a pleasing aroma the food I had given you—the fine flour, oil, and honey that I had fed you. That is what happened, declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>20</sup> You even took the sons and daughters you bore to Me and sacrificed them as food to idols. Was your prostitution not enough? <sup>21</sup> You slaughtered My children and delivered them up through the fire to idols.

<sup>22</sup> And in all your abominations and acts of prostitution, you did not remember the days of your youth when you were naked and bare, wallowing in your own blood.

<sup>23</sup> Woe! Woe to you, declares the Lord GOD. And in addition to all your other wickedness, <sup>24</sup> you built yourself a mound and made yourself a lofty shrine in every public square. <sup>25</sup> At the head of every street you built your lofty shrines and degraded your beauty. With increasing promiscuity, you spread your legs to all who passed by. <sup>26</sup> You prostituted yourself with your lustful neighbors, the Egyptians, and increased your promiscuity to provoke Me to anger.

<sup>27</sup> Therefore I stretched out My hand against you and reduced your portion. I gave you over to the desire of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who were ashamed of your lewd conduct. <sup>28</sup> Then you prostituted yourself with the Assyrians, because you were not yet satisfied. Even after that, you were still not satisfied. <sup>29</sup> So you extended your promiscuity to Chaldea,* the land of merchants—but even with this you were not satisfied!

<sup>30</sup> How weak-willed is your heart,† declares the Lord GOD, while you do all these things, the acts of a shameless prostitute! <sup>31</sup> But when you built your mounds at the head of every street and made your lofty shrines in every public square, you were not even like a prostitute, because you scorned payment.

<sup>32</sup> You adulterous wife! You receive strangers instead of your own husband! <sup>33</sup> Men give gifts to all their prostitutes, but you gave gifts to all your lovers. You bribed them to come to you from everywhere for your illicit favors. <sup>34</sup> So your prostitution is the opposite of that of other women: No one solicited your favors, and you paid a fee instead of receiving one; so you are the very opposite!

Judgment on Jerusalem

<sup>35</sup> Therefore, O prostitute, hear the word of the LORD! <sup>36</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: Because you poured out your wealth and exposed your nakedness in your promiscuity with your lovers and with all your detestable idols, and because of the blood of your children which you gave to them, <sup>37</sup> therefore I will surely gather all the lovers with whom you found pleasure, all those you loved and all those you hated. I will gather them against you from all around and expose you before them, and they will see you completely naked. <sup>38</sup> And I will sentence you to the punishment of women who commit adultery and those who shed blood; so I will bring upon you the wrath of your bloodshed and jealousy.

<sup>39</sup> Then I will deliver you into the hands of your lovers, and they will level your mounds and tear down your lofty shrines. They will strip off your clothes, take your fine jewelry, and leave you naked and bare. <sup>40</sup> They will bring a mob against you, who will stone you and cut you to pieces with their swords. <sup>41</sup> Then they will burn down your houses and execute judgment against you in the sight of many women.

I will put an end to your prostitution, and you will never again pay your lovers. <sup>42</sup> So I will lay to rest My wrath against you, and My jealousy will turn away from you. Then I will be calm and no longer angry.

<sup>43</sup> Because you did not remember the days of your youth, but enraged Me with all these things, I will surely bring your deeds down upon your own head, declares the Lord GOD. Have you not committed this lewdness on top of all your other abominations?

<sup>44</sup> Behold, all who speak in proverbs will quote this proverb about you:

‘Like mother, like daughter.’

<sup>48</sup> As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, your sister Sodom and her daughters never did as you and your daughters have done. <sup>49</sup> Now this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: She and her daughters were arrogant, overfed, and complacent; they did not help the poor and needy. <sup>50</sup> Thus they were haughty and committed abominations before Me. Therefore I removed them, as you have seen.‡

<sup>51</sup> Furthermore, Samaria did not commit half the sins you did. You have multiplied your abominations beyond theirs, and all the abominations you have committed have made your sisters appear righteous. <sup>52</sup> So now you must bear your disgrace, since you have brought justification for your sisters. For they appear more righteous than you, because your sins were more vile than theirs. So you too must bear your shame and disgrace, since you have made your sisters appear righteous.

* 16:29 Or Babylonia † 16:30 Or How feverish is your heart, ‡ 16:50 A few Hebrew manuscripts and LXX; MT as I have seen

<sup>53</sup> But I will restore Sodom and her daughters from captivity,§ as well as Samaria and her daughters. And I will restore you along with them. <sup>54</sup> So you will bear your disgrace and be ashamed of all you did to comfort them.

The Covenant Remembered

<sup>59</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD says: I will deal with you according to your deeds, since you have despised the oath by breaking the covenant. <sup>60</sup> But I will remember the covenant I made with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you. <sup>61</sup> Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed when you receive your older and younger sisters. I will give them to you as daughters, but not because of My covenant with you.

<sup>62</sup> So I will establish My covenant with you, and you will know that I am the LORD, <sup>63</sup> so that when I make atonement for all you have done, you will remember and be ashamed and never again open your mouth because of your disgrace, declares the Lord GOD.”

*The Parable of Two Eagles and a Vine
(Matthew 13:24-30)*

<sup>1</sup> Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, pose a riddle; speak a parable to the house of Israel <sup>3</sup> and tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says:

‘A great eagle with great wings and long pinions,* full of feathers of many colors, came to Lebanon

and took away the top of the cedar.

<sup>4</sup> He plucked off its topmost shoot, carried it to the land of merchants,
and planted it in a city of traders.

<sup>5</sup> He took some of the seed of the land and planted it in fertile soil;†

he placed it by abundant waters and set it out like a willow.

<sup>6</sup> It sprouted and became a spreading vine, low in height, with branches turned toward him;
yet its roots remained where it stood.

So it became a vine and yielded branches and sent out shoots.

<sup>7</sup> But there was another great eagle with great wings and many feathers.

And behold, this vine bent its roots toward him.

It stretched out its branches to him from its planting bed,
so that he might water it.

<sup>8</sup> It had been planted in good soil

§ 16:53 Or restore the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters * 16:57 Many Hebrew manuscripts and Syriac; most Hebrew manuscripts, LXX, and Vulgate Aram * 17:3 Pinions are the outer parts of a bird’s wings, including the flight feathers. † 17:5 Hebrew in a field of seed

by abundant waters in order to yield branches and bear fruit and become a splendid vine.'

<sup>9</sup> So you are to tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says:

'Will it flourish?
Will it not be uprooted and stripped of its fruit
so that it shrivels?
All its foliage will wither!
It will not take a strong arm or many people to pull it up by its roots.

<sup>10</sup> Even if it is transplanted,
will it flourish?
Will it not completely wither when the east wind strikes?
It will wither on the bed where it sprouted.' "

The Parable Explained

<sup>11</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>12</sup> "Now say to this rebellious house: 'Do you not know what these things mean?'

Tell them, 'Behold, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, carried off its king and officials, and brought them back with him to Babylon. <sup>13</sup> He took a member of the royal family † and made a covenant with him, putting him under oath. Then he carried away the leading men of the land, <sup>14</sup> so that the kingdom would be brought low, unable to lift itself up, surviving only by keeping his covenant.

<sup>15</sup> But this king rebelled against Babylon by sending his envoys to Egypt to ask for horses and a large army. Will he flourish? Will the one who does such things escape? Can he break a covenant and yet escape?'

<sup>16</sup> 'As surely as I live,' declares the Lord GOD, 'he will die in Babylon, in the land of the king who enthroned him, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke. <sup>17</sup> Pharaoh with his mighty army and vast horde will not help him in battle, when ramps are built and siege walls constructed to destroy many lives. <sup>18</sup> He despised the oath by breaking the covenant. Seeing that he gave his hand in pledge yet did all these things, he will not escape!'

<sup>19</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: 'As surely as I live, I will bring down upon his head My oath that he despised and My covenant that he broke. <sup>20</sup> I will spread My net over him and catch him in My snare. I will bring him to Babylon and execute judgment upon him there for the treason he committed against Me. <sup>21</sup> All his choice troops § will fall by the sword, and those who survive will be scattered to every wind. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken.'

<sup>22</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says:

'I will take a shoot from the lofty top of the cedar,
and I will set it out.
I will pluck a tender sprig from its topmost shoots, and I will plant it on a high and lofty mountain.
<sup>23</sup> I will plant it on the mountain heights of Israel so that it will bear branches;
it will yield fruit
and become a majestic cedar.
Birds of every kind will nest under it,
taking shelter in the shade of its branches.

<sup>24</sup> Then all the trees of the field will know that I am the LORD.

† 17:13 Hebrew the royal seed § 17:21 Many Hebrew manuscripts; MT All his fleeing troops and I have done it.' "

The Soul Who Sins Will Die

<sup>1</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> "What do you people mean by quoting this proverb about the land of Israel:

"The fathers have eaten sour grapes,
 and the teeth of the children are set on edge?"

<sup>3</sup> As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, you will no longer quote this proverb in Israel. <sup>4</sup> Behold, every soul belongs to Me; both father and son are Mine. The soul who sins is the one who will die.

 or look to the idols of the house of Israel.
 He does not defile his neighbor's wife
 or approach a woman during her period.

<sup>7</sup> He does not oppress another, but restores the pledge to the debtor.
 He does not commit robbery,
 but gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with clothing.

<sup>8</sup> He does not engage in usury or take excess interest,
 but he withholds his hand from iniquity and executes true justice between men.

<sup>9</sup> He follows My statutes and faithfully keeps My ordinances.
 That man is righteous;
 surely he will live,

declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>10</sup> Now suppose that man has a violent son, who sheds blood or does any of these things, <sup>11</sup> though the father has done none of them:

Indeed, the son eats at the mountain and defiles his neighbor's wife.

<sup>12</sup> He oppresses the poor and needy;
 he commits robbery
 and does not restore a pledge.

He lifts his eyes to idols;
 he commits abominations.

<sup>13</sup> He engages in usury and takes excess interest.

Will this son live? He will not! Since he has committed all these abominations, he will surely die; his blood will be on his own head.

<sup>14</sup> Now suppose this son has a son who sees all the sins his father has committed, considers them, and does not do likewise:

 or look to the idols of the house of Israel.

He does not defile his neighbor's wife.
 16 He does not oppress another,
 or retain a pledge, or commit robbery.
 He gives his bread to the hungry
 and covers the naked with clothing.
 17 He withholds his hand from harming the poor *
 and takes no interest or usury.
 He keeps My ordinances and follows My statutes.

Such a man will not die for his father's iniquity. He will surely live.

18 As for his father, he will die for his own iniquity, because he practiced extortion, robbed his brother, and did what was wrong among his people.

19 Yet you may ask, 'Why shouldn't the son bear the iniquity of his father?'

Since the son has done what is just and right, carefully observing all My statutes, he will surely live.

20 The soul who sins is the one who will die. A son will not bear the iniquity of his father, and a father will not bear the iniquity of his son. The righteousness of the righteous man will fall upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked man will fall upon him.

21 But if the wicked man turns from all the sins he has committed, keeps all My statutes, and does what is just and right, he will surely live; he will not die. 22 None of the transgressions he has committed will be held against him. Because of the righteousness he has practiced, he will live. 23 Do I take any pleasure in the death of the wicked? declares the Lord GOD. Wouldn't I prefer that he turn from his ways and live?

24 But if a righteous man turns from his righteousness and practices iniquity, committing the same abominations as the wicked, will he live? None of the righteous acts he did will be remembered. Because of the unfaithfulness and sin he has committed, he will die.

25 Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not just.'

Hear now, O house of Israel: Is it My way that is unjust? Is it not your ways that are unjust?

26 If a righteous man turns from his righteousness and practices iniquity, he will die for this. He will die because of the iniquity he has committed.

27 But if a wicked man turns from the wickedness he has committed and does what is just and right, he will save his life. 28 Because he considered and turned from all the transgressions he had committed, he will surely live; he will not die.

29 Yet the house of Israel says, 'The way of the Lord is not just.'

Are My ways unjust, O house of Israel? Is it not your ways that are unjust?

30 Therefore, O house of Israel, I will judge you, each according to his ways, declares the Lord GOD. Repent and turn from all your transgressions, so that your iniquity will not become your downfall. 31 Cast away from yourselves all the transgressions you have committed, and fashion for yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. Why should you die, O house of Israel?

32 For I take no pleasure in anyone's death, declares the Lord GOD. So repent and live!

A Lament for the Princes of Israel

* 18:17 Hebrew; LXX He withholds his hand from iniquity

1 "As for you, take up a lament for the princes of Israel <sup>2</sup> and say:

'What was your mother?

A lioness among the lions!
She lay down among the young lions;
she reared her cubs.

<sup>3</sup> She brought up one of her cubs,
and he became a young lion.
After learning to tear his prey,
he devoured men.

<sup>4</sup> When the nations heard of him,
he was trapped in their pit.
With hooks they led him away to the land of Egypt.

<sup>5</sup> When she saw that she had waited in vain,
that her hope was lost,
she took another of her cubs
and made him a young lion.

<sup>6</sup> He prowled among the lions,
and became a young lion.
After learning to tear his prey,
he devoured men.

<sup>7</sup> He broke down their strongholds * and devastated their cities.
The land and everything in it shuddered at the sound of his roaring.

<sup>8</sup> Then the nations set out against him from the provinces on every side.
They spread their net over him;
he was trapped in their pit.

<sup>9</sup> With hooks they caged him and brought him to the king of Babylon.
They brought him into captivity
so that his roar was heard no longer on the mountains of Israel.

<sup>10</sup> Your mother was like a vine in your vineyard,† planted by the water;
it was fruitful and full of branches
because of the abundant waters.

<sup>11</sup> It had strong branches, fit for a ruler's scepter.
It towered high above the thick branches, conspicuous for its height and for its dense foliage.

<sup>12</sup> But it was uprooted in fury,
cast down to the ground,
and the east wind dried up its fruit.
Its strong branches were stripped off and they withered;
the fire consumed them.

<sup>13</sup> Now it is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land.

<sup>14</sup> Fire has gone out from its main branch and devoured its fruit;
on it no strong branch remains fit for a ruler's scepter.'

Israel's Rebellion in Egypt

<sup>1</sup> In the seventh year, on the tenth day of the fifth month, some of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and they sat down before me.

<sup>2</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>3</sup> “Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says: Have you come to inquire of Me? As surely as I live, I will not be consulted by you, declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>4</sup> Will you judge them, will you judge them, son of man? Confront them with the abominations of their fathers <sup>5</sup> and tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says: On the day I chose Israel, I swore an oath to the descendants of the house of Jacob and made Myself known to them in the land of Egypt. With an uplifted hand I said to them, ‘I am the LORD your God.’

<sup>6</sup> On that day I swore to bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the glory of all lands. <sup>7</sup> And I said to them: ‘Each of you must throw away the abominations before his eyes, and you must not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.’

<sup>8</sup> But they rebelled against Me and refused to listen. None of them cast away the abominations before their eyes, and they did not forsake the idols of Egypt. So I resolved to pour out My wrath upon them and vent My anger against them in the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup> But I acted for the sake of My name, that it should not be profaned in the eyes of the nations among whom they were living, in whose sight I had revealed Myself to Israel by bringing them out of the land of Egypt.

Israel's Rebellion in the Wilderness

<sup>10</sup> So I brought them out of the land of Egypt and led them into the wilderness. <sup>11</sup> And I gave them My statutes and made known to them My ordinances—for the man who does these things will live by them.* <sup>12</sup> I also gave them My Sabbaths as a sign between us, so that they would know that I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

<sup>13</sup> Yet the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness. They did not follow My statutes and they rejected My ordinances—though the man who does these things will live by them—and they utterly profaned My Sabbaths. Then I resolved to pour out My wrath upon them and put an end to them in the wilderness. <sup>14</sup> But I acted for the sake of My name, so that it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out.

<sup>15</sup> Moreover, with an uplifted hand I swore to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land that I had given them—a land flowing with milk and honey, the glory of all lands— <sup>16</sup> because they kept rejecting My ordinances, refusing to walk in My statutes, and profaning My Sabbaths; for their hearts continually went after their idols. <sup>17</sup> Yet I looked on them with pity and did not destroy them or bring them to an end in the wilderness.

<sup>18</sup> In the wilderness I said to their children: ‘Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers or keep their ordinances or defile yourselves with their idols. <sup>19</sup> I am the LORD your God; walk in My statutes, keep My ordinances, and practice them. <sup>20</sup> Keep My Sabbaths holy, that they may be a sign between us, so that you may know that I am the LORD your God.’

<sup>21</sup> But the children rebelled against Me. They did not walk in My statutes or carefully observe My ordinances—though the man who does these things will live by them—and they profaned My Sabbaths. So I resolved to pour out My wrath upon them and vent My anger against them in the wilderness. <sup>22</sup> But I withheld My hand and acted for the sake of My name, so that it would not be profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out.

<sup>23</sup> However, with an uplifted hand I swore to them in the wilderness that I would scatter them among the nations and disperse them throughout the lands. <sup>24</sup> For they did not practice My ordinances, but they rejected My statutes and profaned My Sabbaths, fixing their eyes on the idols of their fathers.

<sup>25</sup> I also gave them over to statutes that were not good and ordinances by which they could not live. <sup>26</sup> And I pronounced them unclean through their gifts—the sacrifice of every firstborn in the fire—so that I might devastate them, in order that they would know that I am the LORD.

Israel's Rebellion in the Land

<sup>27</sup> Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says: In this way also your fathers blasphemed Me by their unfaithfulness against Me. <sup>28</sup> When I brought them into the land that I swore to give them and they saw any high hill or leafy tree, there they offered their sacrifices, presented offerings that provoked Me, sent up their fragrant incense, and poured out their drink offerings. <sup>29</sup> So I asked them: 'What is this high place to which you go?'

<sup>30</sup> Therefore tell the house of Israel that this is what the Lord GOD says: Will you defile yourselves the way your fathers did, prostituting yourselves with their abominations? <sup>31</sup> When you offer your gifts, sacrificing your sons in the fire,‡ you continue to defile yourselves with all your idols to this day. So should I be consulted by you, O house of Israel? As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, I will not be consulted by you!

<sup>32</sup> When you say, 'Let us be like the nations, like the peoples of the lands, serving wood and stone,' what you have in mind will never come to pass.

Judgment and Restoration

<sup>33</sup> As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, with a strong hand, an outstretched arm, and outpoured wrath I will rule over you. <sup>34</sup> With a strong hand, an outstretched arm, and outpoured wrath I will bring you out from the peoples and gather you § from the lands to which you have been scattered. <sup>35</sup> And I will bring you into the wilderness of the nations, where I will enter into judgment with you face to face.

<sup>36</sup> Just as I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt,* so I will enter into judgment with you, declares the Lord GOD. <sup>37</sup> I will make you pass under the rod and will bring you into the bond of the covenant. <sup>38</sup> And I will purge you of those who rebel and transgress against Me. I will bring them out of the land in which they dwell, but they will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>39</sup> And as for you, O house of Israel, this is what the Lord GOD says: Go and serve your idols, every one of you. But afterward, you will surely listen to Me, and you will no longer defile My holy name with your gifts and idols.

<sup>40</sup> For on My holy mountain, the high mountain of Israel, declares the Lord GOD, there the whole house of Israel, all of them, will serve Me in the land. There I will accept them and will require your offerings and choice gifts, along with all your holy sacrifices.

<sup>41</sup> When I bring you from the peoples and gather you from the lands to which you have been scattered, I will accept you as a pleasing aroma. And I will show My holiness through you in the sight of the nations. <sup>42</sup> Then you will know that I am the LORD, when I bring you into the land of Israel, the land that I swore to give your fathers.

† 20:29 Bamah means high place. ‡ 20:31 Literally making your sons pass through the fire § 20:34 LXX receive you; see also 2 Corinthians 6:17. * 20:36 Or in the wilderness after bringing them out of Egypt

<sup>43</sup> There you will remember your ways and all the deeds with which you have defiled yourselves, and you will loathe yourselves for all the evils you have done. <sup>44</sup> Then you will know, O house of Israel, that I am the LORD, when I have dealt with you for the sake of My name and not according to your wicked ways and corrupt acts, declares the Lord GOD.”

A Prophecy against the South

<sup>45</sup> Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>46</sup> “Son of man, set your face toward the south,† preach against it, and prophesy against the forest of the Negev. <sup>47</sup> Say to the forest of the Negev: Hear the word of the LORD! This is what the Lord GOD says: I am about to ignite in you a fire, and it will devour all your trees, both green and dry. The blazing flame will not be quenched, and by it every face from south to north will be scorched. <sup>48</sup> Then all people will see that I, the LORD, have kindled it; it will not be quenched.”

<sup>49</sup> Then I said, “Ah, Lord GOD, they are saying of me, ‘Is he not just telling parables?’ ”

21

God's Sword of Judgment

<sup>1</sup> And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, set your face against Jerusalem and preach against the sanctuaries. Prophesy against the land of Israel <sup>3</sup> and tell her that this is what the LORD says: ‘I am against you, and I will draw My sword from its sheath and cut off from you both the righteous and the wicked. <sup>4</sup> Because I will cut off both the righteous and the wicked, My sword will be unsheathed against everyone from south to north. <sup>5</sup> Then all flesh will know that I, the LORD, have taken My sword from its sheath, not to return it again.’

<sup>6</sup> But you, son of man, groan! Groan before their eyes with a broken heart and bitter grief. <sup>7</sup> And when they ask, ‘Why are you groaning?’ you are to say, ‘Because of the news that is coming. Every heart will melt, and every hand will go limp. Every spirit will faint, and every knee will turn to water.’ Yes, it is coming and it will surely happen, declares the Lord GOD.”

<sup>8</sup> Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>9</sup> “Son of man, prophesy and tell them that this is what the Lord says:

‘A sword, a sword,
sharpened and polished—
<sup>10</sup> it is sharpened for the slaughter, polished to flash like lightning!
Should we rejoice in the scepter of My son?
The sword despises every such stick.
<sup>11</sup> The sword is appointed to be polished,
to be grasped in the hand.
It is sharpened and polished,
to be placed in the hand of the slayer.

<sup>12</sup> Cry out and wail,
O son of man,
for the sword is wielded against My people;
it is against all the princes of Israel!
They are tossed to the sword with My people;
therefore strike your thigh.*
<sup>13</sup> Surely testing will come!
And what if even the scepter,
which the sword despises,
does not continue?’

declares the Lord GOD.

† 20:46 Hebrew toward Teman * 21:12 Or beat your breast

14 'So then, son of man,
 prophesy and strike your hands together.
 Let the sword strike two times,
 even three.
 It is a sword that slays,
 a sword of great slaughter
 closing in on every side!

15 So that their hearts may melt and many may stumble,
 I have appointed at all their gates
 a sword for slaughter.
 Yes, it is ready to flash like lightning;
 it is drawn for slaughter.

16 Slash to the right;
 set your blade to the left—wherever your blade is directed.

17 I too will strike My hands together, and I will satisfy My wrath.'

I, the LORD, have spoken."

18 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>19</sup> "Now you, son of man, mark out two roads for the sword of the king of Babylon to take, both starting from the same land. And make a signpost where the road branches off to each city. <sup>20</sup> Mark out one road for the sword to come against Rabbah of the Ammonites, and another against Judah into fortified Jerusalem.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: 'Because you have drawn attention to your guilt, exposing your transgressions, so that your sins are revealed in all your deeds—because you have come to remembrance—you shall be taken in hand.

 the day has come for your final punishment.'

<sup>26</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says:

'Remove the turban,
 and take off the crown.
 Things will not remain as they are:
 Exalt the lowly and bring low the exalted.

<sup>27</sup> A ruin, a ruin,
 I will make it a ruin!
 And it will not be restored
 until the arrival of Him to whom it belongs, to whom I have assigned the right of judgment.†'

<sup>28</sup> Now prophesy, son of man, and declare that this is what the Lord GOD says concerning the Ammonites and their contempt:

'A sword! A sword

† 21:27 Or of Him to whom it rightfully belongs, to whom I have given it.

is drawn for slaughter,
 polished to consume,
 to flash like lightning—
 29 while they offer false visions for you and lying divinations about you—to be placed on the necks of the wicked who are slain, whose day has come,
 the time of their final punishment.

30 Return the sword to its sheath!

In the place where you were created,
 in the land of your origin,
 I will judge you.

31 I will pour out My anger upon you;
 I will breathe the fire of My fury against you;
 I will hand you over to brutal men,
 skilled in destruction.

32 You will be fuel for the fire.
 Your blood will stain your own land.

You will not be remembered, for I, the LORD, have spoken.' "

The Sins of Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> "As for you, son of man, will you judge her? Will you pass judgment on the city of bloodshed? Then confront her with all her abominations <sup>3</sup> and tell her that this is what the Lord GOD says: 'O city who brings her own doom by shedding blood within her walls and making idols to defile herself, <sup>4</sup> you are guilty of the blood you have shed, and you are defiled by the idols you have made. You have brought your days to a close and have come to the end of your years. Therefore I have made you a reproach to the nations and a mockery to all the lands. <sup>5</sup> Those near and far will mock you, O infamous city, full of turmoil.

<sup>6</sup> See how every prince of Israel within you has used his power to shed blood. <sup>7</sup> Father and mother are treated with contempt. Within your walls the foreign resident is exploited, the fatherless and the widow are oppressed.

<sup>8</sup> You have despised My holy things and profaned My Sabbaths. <sup>9</sup> Among you are slanderous men bent on bloodshed; within you are those who eat on the mountain shrines and commit acts of indecency.

<sup>12</sup> In you they take bribes to shed blood. You engage in usury, take excess interest, and extort your neighbors. But Me you have forgotten, declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>13</sup> Now look, I strike My hands together against your unjust gain and against the blood you have shed in your midst. <sup>14</sup> Will your courage endure or your hands be strong in the day I deal with you? I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will act. <sup>15</sup> I will disperse you among the nations and scatter you throughout the lands; I will purge your uncleanness. <sup>16</sup> And when you have defiled yourself * in the eyes of the nations, then you will know that I am the LORD.' "

The Refining Furnace

* 22:16 Or And when I have allotted you your inheritance

17 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 18 “Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to Me. All of them are copper, tin, iron, and lead inside the furnace; they are but the dross of silver.

19 Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Because all of you have become dross, behold, I will gather you into Jerusalem. 20 Just as one gathers silver, copper, iron, lead, and tin into the furnace to melt with a fiery blast, so I will gather you in My anger and wrath, leave you there, and melt you.

21 Yes, I will gather you together and blow on you with the fire of My wrath, and you will be melted within the city. 22 As silver is melted in a furnace, so you will be melted within the city. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have poured out My wrath upon you.’ ”

Israel’s Wicked Leaders

23 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 24 “Son of man, say to her, ‘In the day of indignation, you are a land that has not been cleansed, upon which no rain has fallen.’

25 The conspiracy of the princes † in her midst is like a roaring lion tearing its prey. They devour the people, seize the treasures and precious things, and multiply the widows within her.

26 Her priests do violence to My law and profane My holy things. They make no distinction between the holy and the common, and they fail to distinguish between the clean and the unclean. They disregard My Sabbaths, so that I am profaned among them.

27 Her officials within her are like wolves tearing their prey, shedding blood, and destroying lives for dishonest gain.

28 Her prophets whitewash these deeds by false visions and lying divinations, saying, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says,’ when the LORD has not spoken.

29 The people of the land have practiced extortion and committed robbery. They have oppressed the poor and needy and have exploited the foreign resident without justice.

30 I searched for a man among them to repair the wall and stand in the gap before Me on behalf of the land, so that I should not destroy it. But I found no one. 31 So I have poured out My indignation upon them and consumed them with the fire of My fury. I have brought their ways down upon their own heads, declares the Lord GOD.”

The Two Adulterous Sisters

1 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2 “Son of man, there were two women, daughters of the same mother; 3 and they played in Egypt, prostituting themselves from their youth. Their breasts were fondled there, and their virgin bosoms caressed. 4 The older was named Oholah,* and her sister was named Oholibah.† They became Mine and gave birth to sons and daughters. As for their identities, Oholah is Samaria, and Oholibah is Jerusalem.

5 Oholah prostituted herself while she was still Mine. She lusted after her lovers, the Assyrians—warriors 6 clothed in blue, governors and commanders, all desirable young men, horsemen mounted on steeds. 7 She offered sexual favors to all the elite of Assyria. She defiled herself with all the idols of those for whom she lusted.

8 She did not give up the prostitution she began in Egypt, when men slept with her in her youth, caressed her virgin bosom, and poured out their lust upon her. 9 Therefore I delivered her into the hands of her lovers, the Assyrians for whom she lusted. <sup>10</sup> They exposed her nakedness, seized her sons and daughters, and put her to the sword. Thus she became a byword among women, and they executed judgment against her.

† 22:25 LXX; Hebrew prophets * 23:4 Oholah means her own tent or she worships at a tent shrine, a metaphor for Samaria as an adulteress with Assyria. † 23:4 Oholibah means the tent is in her or she is a tent shrine, a metaphor for Jerusalem as an adulterous wife.

<sup>22</sup> Therefore, Oholibah, this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘I will incite your lovers against you, those from whom you turned away in disgust. And I will bring them against you from every side— <sup>23</sup> the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, the men of Pekod, Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them—all desirable young men, governors and commanders, officers and men of renown, mounted on horses.

<sup>24</sup> They will come against you with a host of peoples,* with weapons, chariots, and wagons. They will array themselves against you on every side with buckler and shield and helmet. I will delegate judgment to them, and they will punish you according to their own standards. <sup>25</sup> And I will set My jealous rage against you, and they will deal with you in fury. They will cut off your noses and ears, and your survivors will fall by the sword. They will seize your sons and daughters, and your remnant will be consumed by fire. <sup>26</sup> They will strip off your clothes and take your fine jewelry. <sup>27</sup> So I will put an end to your indecency and prostitution, which began in the land of Egypt, and you will not lift your eyes to them or remember Egypt anymore.’

<sup>28</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Surely I will deliver you into the hands of those you hate, from whom you turned away in disgust. <sup>29</sup> They will treat you with hatred, take all for which you have worked, and leave you naked and bare, so that the shame of your prostitution will be exposed. Your indecency and promiscuity <sup>30</sup> have brought these things upon you, because you have prostituted yourself with the nations and defiled yourself with their idols. <sup>31</sup> Because you have followed the path of your sister, I will put her cup into your hand.’

‘You will drink your sister’s cup,
a cup deep and wide.
It will bring scorn and derision,
for it holds so much.

<sup>33</sup> You will be filled with drunkenness and grief, with a cup of devastation and desolation,
the cup of your sister Samaria.

you will dash it to pieces, and tear your breasts.
For I have spoken,'

declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>35</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: 'Because you have forgotten Me and have cast Me behind your back, you must bear the consequences of your indecency and prostitution.' "

Judgment on Both Sisters

<sup>36</sup> Then the LORD said to me: "Son of man, will you pass judgment against Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare to them their abominations. <sup>37</sup> For they have committed adultery, and blood is on their hands. They have committed adultery with their idols. They have even sacrificed their children, whom they bore to Me, in the fire † as food for their idols.

<sup>38</sup> They have also done this to Me: On that very same day, they defiled My sanctuary and profaned My Sabbaths. <sup>39</sup> On the very day they slaughtered their children for their idols, they entered My sanctuary to profane it. Yes, they did this inside My house.

<sup>40</sup> Furthermore, you sisters sent ‡ messengers for men who came from afar; and behold, when they arrived, you bathed for them, painted your eyes, and adorned yourself with jewelry. <sup>41</sup> You sat on a couch of luxury with a table spread before it, on which you had set My incense and My oil, <sup>42</sup> accompanied by the sound of a carefree crowd. Drunkards § were brought in from the desert along with men from the rabble, who put bracelets on your wrists and beautiful crowns on your head.

<sup>44</sup> And they slept with her as with a prostitute; they slept with Oholah and Oholibah, those lewd women. <sup>45</sup> But righteous men will sentence them to the punishment of those who commit adultery and bloodshed, because they are adulteresses with blood on their hands.

<sup>46</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: 'Bring a mob against them and consign them to terror and plunder. <sup>47</sup> The mob will stone them and cut them down with their swords. They will kill their sons and daughters and burn down their houses. <sup>48</sup> So I will put an end to indecency in the land, and all the women will be admonished not to imitate your behavior. <sup>49</sup> They will repay you for your indecency, and you will bear the consequences of your sins of idolatry. Then you will know that I am the Lord GOD.' "

The Parable of the Cooking Pot

<sup>1</sup> In the ninth year, on the tenth day of the tenth month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, write down today's date, for on this very day the king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> Now speak a parable to this rebellious house and tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says:

'Put the pot on the fire;
put it on and pour in the water.
<sup>4</sup> Put in the pieces of meat, every good piece—
thigh and shoulder—
fill it with choice bones.
<sup>5</sup> Take the choicest of the flock and pile the fuel beneath it.
Bring it to a boil

† 23:37 Literally passed their children, whom they bore to Me, through the fire ‡ 23:40 Hebrew they sent

§ 23:42 Or Sabceans

and cook the bones in it.’

<sup>6</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says:

‘Woe to the city of bloodshed,
to the pot now rusted,
whose rust will not come off!

Empty it piece by piece;
cast no lots for its contents.*

<sup>7</sup> For the blood she shed is still within her;
she poured it out on the bare rock;
she did not pour it on the ground to cover it with dust.

<sup>8</sup> In order to stir up wrath and take vengeance,
I have placed her blood on the bare rock,
so that it would not be covered.’

<sup>9</sup> Yes, this is what the Lord GOD says:

‘Woe to the city of bloodshed!
I, too, will pile the kindling high.

<sup>10</sup> Pile on the logs and kindle the fire;
cook the meat well
and mix in the spices;
let the bones be burned.

<sup>11</sup> Set the empty pot on its coals until it becomes hot and its copper glows.
Then its impurity will melt within;
its rust will be consumed.

<sup>12</sup> It has frustrated every effort;
its thick rust has not been removed,
even by the fire.

<sup>13</sup> Because of the indecency of your uncleanness
I tried to cleanse you,
but you would not be purified
from your filthiness.

You will not be pure again until My wrath against you has subsided.

<sup>14</sup> I, the LORD, have spoken;
the time is coming, and I will act.

I will not refrain or show pity,
nor will I relent.

I will judge you
according to your ways and deeds,’

declares the Lord GOD.”

Ezekiel's Wife Dies

<sup>15</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>16</sup> “Son of man, behold, I am about to take away the desire of your eyes with a fatal blow. But you must not mourn or weep or let your tears flow. <sup>17</sup> Groan quietly; do not mourn for the dead. Put on your turban and strap your sandals on your feet; do not cover your lips or eat the bread of mourners.”

<sup>18</sup> So I spoke to the people in the morning, and in the evening my wife died. And the next morning I did as I had been commanded.

<sup>19</sup> Then the people asked me, “Won’t you tell us what these things you are doing mean to us?”

* 24:6 Or let no lot fall upon it

20 So I answered them, “The word of the LORD came to me, saying: <sup>21</sup> Tell the house of Israel that this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘I am about to desecrate My sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and the delight of your soul. And the sons and daughters you left behind will fall by the sword.’

22 Then you will do as I have done: You will not cover your lips or eat the bread of mourners. <sup>23</sup> Your turbans will remain on your heads and your sandals on your feet. You will not mourn or weep, but you will waste away because of your sins, and you will groan among yourselves.

24 ‘Thus Ezekiel will be a sign for you; you will do everything that he has done. When this happens, you will know that I am the Lord GOD.’

25 And you, son of man, know that on the day I take away their stronghold, their pride and joy—the desire of their eyes which uplifted their souls—and their sons and daughters as well, <sup>26</sup> on that day a fugitive will come and tell you the news. <sup>27</sup> On that day your mouth will be opened to him who has escaped; you will speak and no longer be mute. So you will be a sign to them, and they will know that I am the LORD.”

A Prophecy against Ammon

<sup>1</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, set your face against the Ammonites and prophesy against them. <sup>3</sup> Tell the Ammonites to hear the word of the Lord GOD, for this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Because you exclaimed, “Aha!” when My sanctuary was profaned, when the land of Israel was laid waste, and when the house of Judah went into exile, <sup>4</sup> therefore I will indeed give you as a possession to the people of the East. They will set up their camps and pitch their tents among you. They will eat your fruit and drink your milk. <sup>5</sup> I will make Rabbah a pasture for camels, and Ammon * a resting place for sheep. Then you will know that I am the LORD.’

<sup>6</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Because you clapped your hands and stomped your feet and rejoiced over the land of Israel with a heart full of contempt, <sup>7</sup> therefore I will indeed stretch out My hand against you and give you as plunder to the nations. I will cut you off from the peoples and exterminate you from the countries. I will destroy you, and you will know that I am the LORD.’

A Prophecy against Moab

<sup>8</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Because Moab and Seir † said, “Look, the house of Judah is like all the other nations,” <sup>9</sup> therefore I will indeed expose the flank of Moab beginning with its frontier cities—Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim—the glory of the land. <sup>10</sup> I will give it along with the Ammonites as a possession to the people of the East, so that the Ammonites will no longer be remembered among the nations. <sup>11</sup> So I will execute judgments on Moab, and they will know that I am the LORD.’

A Prophecy against Edom

<sup>12</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Because Edom acted vengefully against the house of Judah, and in so doing incurred grievous guilt, <sup>13</sup> therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I will stretch out My hand against Edom and cut off from it both man and beast. I will make it a wasteland, and from Teman to Dedan they will fall by the sword. <sup>14</sup> I will take My vengeance on Edom by the hand of My people Israel, and they will deal with Edom according to My anger and wrath. Then they will know My vengeance, declares the Lord GOD.’

A Prophecy against the Philistines

<sup>15</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Because the Philistines acted in vengeance, taking vengeance with malice of soul to destroy Judah with ancient hostility, <sup>16</sup> therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Behold, I will stretch out My hand against the Philistines, and * 25:5 Hebrew and the Ammonites † 25:8 LXX does not include and Seir.

I will cut off the Cherethites and destroy the remnant along the coast. <sup>17</sup> I will execute great vengeance against them with furious reproof. Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I lay My vengeance upon them.' "

A Prophecy against Tyre (Isaiah 23:1-18)

<sup>1</sup> In the eleventh month of the twelfth year,* on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, because Tyre has said of Jerusalem, 'Aha! The gate to the nations is broken; it has swung open to me; now that she lies in ruins I will be filled,' <sup>3</sup> therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: 'Behold, O Tyre, I am against you, and I will raise up many nations against you, as the sea brings up its waves. <sup>4</sup> They will destroy the walls of Tyre and demolish her towers. I will scrape the soil from her and make her a bare rock. <sup>5</sup> She will become a place to spread nets in the sea, for I have spoken, declares the Lord GOD. She will become plunder for the nations, <sup>6</sup> and the villages on her mainland will be slain by the sword. Then they will know that I am the LORD.'

When he enters your gates as an army entering a breached city, your walls will shake from the noise of cavalry, wagons, and chariots. <sup>11</sup> The hooves of his horses will trample all your streets. He will slaughter your people with the sword, and your mighty pillars will fall to the ground. <sup>12</sup> They will plunder your wealth and pillage your merchandise. They will demolish your walls, tear down your beautiful homes, and throw your stones and timber and soil into the water.

<sup>13</sup> So I will silence the sound of your songs, and the music of your lyres will no longer be heard. <sup>14</sup> I will make you a bare rock, and you will become a place to spread the fishing nets. You will never be rebuilt, for I, the LORD, have spoken, declares the Lord GOD.'

<sup>16</sup> All the princes of the sea will descend from their thrones, remove their robes, and strip off their embroidered garments. Clothed with terror, they will sit on the ground, trembling every moment, appalled over you. <sup>17</sup> Then they will lament for you, saying,

"How you have perished, O city of renown inhabited by seafaring men—
she who was powerful on the sea, along with her people, who imposed terror on all peoples!‡

<sup>18</sup> Now the coastlands tremble
on the day of your downfall;
the islands in the sea
are dismayed by your demise." "

<sup>19</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD says: 'When I make you a desolate city like other deserted cities, and when I raise up the deep against you so that the mighty waters cover you, <sup>20</sup> then I will bring you down with those who descend to the Pit, to the people of antiquity. I will make you dwell in the earth below like the ancient ruins, with those who descend to the Pit, so that you will no longer be inhabited or set in splendor § in the land of the living. <sup>21</sup> I will make you an object of horror; and you will be no more. You will be sought, but will never be found,' declares the Lord GOD."

A Lament for Tyre

<sup>1</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Now you, son of man, take up a lament for Tyre. <sup>3</sup> Tell Tyre, who dwells at the gateway to the sea, merchant of the peoples on many coasts, that this is what the Lord GOD says:

You have said, O Tyre,

'I am perfect in beauty.'

<sup>4</sup> Your borders are in the heart of the seas;
your builders perfected your beauty.

<sup>5</sup> They constructed all your planking with cypress * from Senir.†

They took a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.

<sup>6</sup> Of oaks from Bashan
they made your oars;
of wood from the coasts of Cyprus ‡
they made your deck, inlaid with ivory.

<sup>7</sup> Of embroidered fine linen from Egypt
they made your sail, which served as your banner.

Of blue and purple from the coasts of Elishah they made your awning.

<sup>8</sup> The men of Sidon and Arvad were your oarsmen.

Your men of skill, O Tyre, were there as your captains.

<sup>9</sup> The elders of Gebal were aboard as shipwrights, repairing your leaks.

All the ships of the sea and their sailors came alongside to barter for your merchandise.

<sup>10</sup> Men of Persia, Lydia, and Put served as warriors in your army.

They hung their shields and helmets on your walls;
they gave you splendor.

<sup>11</sup> Men of Arvad and Helech manned your walls all around, and the men of Gammad
were in your towers.

They hung their shields around your walls;
they perfected your beauty.

<sup>12</sup> Tarshish was your merchant because of your great wealth of goods; they exchanged silver, iron, tin, and lead for your wares.

<sup>13</sup> Javan,§ Tubal, and Meshech were your merchants. They exchanged slaves and bronze utensils for your merchandise.

- 17 Judah and the land of Israel traded with you; they exchanged wheat from Minnith, cakes and honey, oil and balm for your merchandise.
- 18 Because of your many products and your great wealth of goods, Damascus traded with you wine from Helbon, wool from Zahar, <sup>19</sup> and casks of wine from Izal for your wares.‡ Wrought iron, cassia, and sweet cane § were exchanged for your merchandise.*
- 20 Dedan was your merchant in saddlecloths for riding.
- 21 Arabia and all the princes of Kedar were your customers, trading in lambs, rams, and goats.
- 22 The merchants of Sheba and Raamah traded with you; for your wares they exchanged gold, the finest of all spices, and precious stones.
- 23 Haran, Canneh, and Eden traded with you, and so did the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad. <sup>24</sup> In your marketplace they traded with you fine garments of blue, embroidered work, and multicolored rugs with cords tightly twisted and knotted.

- 27 Your wealth, wares, and merchandise, your sailors, captains, and shipwrights,
your merchants and all the warriors within you,
with all the other people on board, will sink into the heart of the sea
on the day of your downfall.
- 28 The countryside will shake when your sailors cry out.
- 29 All who handle the oars will abandon their ships.
The sailors and all the captains of the sea will stand on the shore.
- 30 They will raise their voices for you and cry out bitterly.
They will throw dust on their heads and roll in ashes.
- 31 They will shave their heads for you

 You enriched the kings of the earth with your abundant wealth and merchandise.

 in the depths of the waters;
 your merchandise and the people among you have gone down with you.
 35 All the people of the coastlands are appalled over you.
 Their kings shudder with fear;
 their faces are contorted.

 hiss at you;
 you have come to a horrible end

A Prophecy against the Ruler of Tyre

<sup>1</sup> And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, tell the ruler of Tyre that this is what the Lord GOD says:

Your heart is proud,
 and you have said,
 'I am a god;
 I sit in the seat of gods
 in the heart of the sea.'
 Yet you are a man and not a god, though you have regarded your heart
 as that of a god.

<sup>3</sup> Behold, you are wiser than Daniel;
 no secret is hidden from you!
<sup>4</sup> By your wisdom and understanding you have gained your wealth and amassed gold and silver for your treasures.
<sup>5</sup> By your great skill in trading you have increased your wealth, but your heart has grown proud because of it.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says:

Because you regard your heart
 as the heart of a god, <sup>7</sup> behold, I will bring foreigners against you,
 the most ruthless of nations.
 They will draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom and will defile your splendor.
<sup>8</sup> They will bring you down to the Pit, and you will die a violent death
 in the heart of the seas.

<sup>9</sup> Will you still say, 'I am a god,'
 in the presence of those who slay you?

You will be only a man, not a god,
 in the hands of those who wound you.
 10 You will die the death of the uncircumcised at the hands of foreigners.

For I have spoken,

declares the Lord GOD.”

A Lament for the King of Tyre

11 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 12 “Son of man, take up a lament for the king of Tyre and tell him that this is what the Lord GOD says:

‘You were the seal of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.

13 You were in Eden,
 the garden of God.

Every kind of precious stone adorned you: *
 ruby, topaz, and diamond,
 beryl, onyx, and jasper,
 sapphire, † turquoise, and emerald.

Your mountings and settings were crafted in gold, prepared on the day of your creation.

14 You were anointed as a guardian cherub,
 for I had ordained you.

You were on the holy mountain of God;
 you walked among the fiery stones.

15 From the day you were created you were blameless in your ways—until wickedness was found in you.

16 By the vastness of your trade,
 you were filled with violence, and you sinned.

So I drove you in disgrace
 from the mountain of God, and I banished you, O guardian cherub,
 from among the fiery stones.

17 Your heart grew proud of your beauty;
 you corrupted your wisdom because of your splendor;
 so I cast you to the earth;
 I made you a spectacle before kings.

18 By the multitude of your iniquities and the dishonesty of your trading you have profaned your sanctuaries.

So I made fire come from within you,
 and it consumed you.

I reduced you to ashes on the ground in the eyes of all who saw you.

19 All the nations who know you
 are appalled over you.
 You have come to a horrible end
 and will be no more.’ ”

A Prophecy against Sidon

20 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 21 “Son of man, set your face against Sidon and prophesy against her. 22 And you are to declare that this is what the Lord GOD says:

* 28:13 The precise identification of some of these gemstones is uncertain. † 28:13 Or lapis lazuli

'Behold, I am against you, O Sidon, and I will be glorified within you.
 They will know that I am the LORD when I execute judgments against her and demonstrate My holiness through her.
<sup>23</sup> I will send a plague against her and shed blood in her streets;
 the slain will fall within her,
 while the sword is against her on every side.

Then they will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>24</sup> For the people of Israel will no longer face a pricking brier or a painful thorn from all around them who treat them with contempt. Then they will know that I am the Lord GOD.'

*The Restoration of Israel
 (Jeremiah 30:1-17)*

<sup>25</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: 'When I gather the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they have been scattered, I will show Myself holy among them in the sight of the nations.

Then they will dwell in their own land, which I have given to My servant Jacob. <sup>26</sup> And there they will dwell securely, build houses, and plant vineyards. They will dwell securely when I execute judgments against all those around them who treat them with contempt. Then they will know that I am the LORD their God.' "

A Prophecy against Pharaoh

<sup>1</sup> In the tenth year, on the twelfth day of the tenth month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt and prophesy against him and against all Egypt. <sup>3</sup> Speak to him and tell him that this is what the Lord GOD says:

Behold, I am against you,
 O Pharaoh king of Egypt,
 O great monster who lies
 among his rivers,
 who says, 'The Nile is mine;
 I made it myself.'

<sup>4</sup> But I will put hooks in your jaws and cause the fish of your streams to cling to your scales.
 I will haul you up out of your rivers,
 and all the fish of your streams will cling to your scales.

<sup>5</sup> I will leave you in the desert,
 you and all the fish of your streams.
 You will fall on the open field and will not be taken away or gathered for burial.

I have given you as food to the beasts of the earth and the birds of the air.

<sup>6</sup> Then all the people of Egypt will know that I am the LORD.

For you were only a staff of reeds
 to the house of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> When Israel took hold of you with their hands, you splintered, tearing all their shoulders;
 when they leaned on you,
 you broke, and their backs were wrenched.*

The Desolation of Egypt

<sup>8</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I will bring a sword against you and cut off from you man and beast. <sup>9</sup> The land of Egypt will become a desolate wasteland. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

Because you said, 'The Nile is mine; I made it,' <sup>10</sup> therefore I am against you and against your rivers. I will turn the land of Egypt into a ruin, a desolate wasteland from Migdol to Syene, and as far as the border of Cush.† <sup>11</sup> No foot of man or beast will pass through, and it will be uninhabited for forty years.

<sup>12</sup> I will make the land of Egypt a desolation among desolate lands, and her cities will lie desolate for forty years among the ruined cities. And I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them throughout the countries.

<sup>13</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD says: At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the nations to which they were scattered. <sup>14</sup> I will restore Egypt from captivity ‡ and bring them back to the land of Pathros, the land of their origin. There they will be a lowly kingdom.

<sup>15</sup> Egypt will be the lowliest of kingdoms and will never again exalt itself above the nations. For I will diminish Egypt so that it will never again rule over the nations. <sup>16</sup> Egypt will never again be an object of trust for the house of Israel, but will remind them of their iniquity in turning to the Egyptians. Then they will know that I am the Lord GOD."

Egypt the Reward of Nebuchadnezzar

<sup>17</sup> In the twenty-seventh year, on the first day of the first month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>18</sup> "Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army to labor strenuously against Tyre. Every head was made bald and every shoulder made raw. But he and his army received no wages from Tyre for the labor they expended on it.

<sup>19</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who will carry off its wealth, seize its spoil, and remove its plunder. This will be the wages for his army. <sup>20</sup> I have given him the land of Egypt as the reward for his labor, because it was done for Me, declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>21</sup> In that day I will cause a horn to sprout for the house of Israel, and I will open your mouth to speak among them. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

A Lament for Egypt

<sup>1</sup> Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, prophesy and declare that this is what the Lord GOD says:

when I set fire to Egypt and all her helpers are shattered.

9 On that day messengers will go out from Me in ships to frighten Cush out of complacency. Anguish will come upon them on the day of Egypt's doom.* For it is indeed coming.

10 This is what the Lord GOD says:

I will put an end to the hordes of Egypt
by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

11 He and his people with him,
the most ruthless of the nations,
will be brought in to destroy the land.

They will draw their swords against Egypt and fill the land with the slain.

12 I will make the streams dry up and sell the land to the wicked.

upon the land and everything in it.

and her proud strength comes to an end.
A cloud will cover her,
and her daughters will go into captivity.
<sup>19</sup> So I will execute judgment on Egypt, and they will know that I am the LORD.”

Pharaoh's Power Broken

<sup>20</sup> In the eleventh year, on the seventh day of the first month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>21</sup> “Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt. See, it has not been bound up for healing, or splinted for strength to hold the sword.

<sup>22</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt. I will break his arms, both the strong one and the one already broken, and will make the sword fall from his hand. <sup>23</sup> I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them throughout the lands.

<sup>24</sup> I will strengthen the arms of Babylon's king and place My sword in his hand, but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, who will groan before him like a mortally wounded man. <sup>25</sup> I will strengthen the arms of Babylon's king, but Pharaoh's arms will fall limp.

Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I place My sword in the hand of Babylon's king, and he wields it against the land of Egypt. <sup>26</sup> I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them throughout the lands. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

31

Egypt Will Fall like Assyria

<sup>1</sup> In the eleventh year, on the first day of the third month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his multitude:

- ‘Who can be compared to your greatness?
<sup>3</sup> Look at Assyria, a cedar in Lebanon, with beautiful branches that shaded the forest.
It towered on high;
its top was among the clouds.
<sup>4</sup> The waters made it grow;
the deep springs made it tall, directing their streams all around its base and sending their channels to all the trees of the field.
<sup>5</sup> Therefore it towered higher than all the trees of the field.
Its branches multiplied, and its boughs grew long as it spread them out
because of the abundant waters.
<sup>6</sup> All the birds of the air nested in its branches,
and all the beasts of the field

* 30:17 That is, Heliopolis and Bubastis, as in LXX; Hebrew Aven and Pi-beseth gave birth beneath its boughs;

all the great nations lived in its shade.

<sup>7</sup> It was beautiful in its greatness,
in the length of its limbs,
for its roots extended to abundant waters.

<sup>8</sup> The cedars in the garden of God could not rival it;
the cypresses * could not compare with its branches,
nor the plane trees † match its boughs.
No tree in the garden of God could compare with its beauty.

<sup>9</sup> I made it beautiful with its many branches, the envy of all the trees of Eden, which were in the garden of God.'

<sup>10</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: 'Since it became great ‡ in height and set its top among the clouds,§ and it grew proud on account of its height, <sup>11</sup> I delivered it into the hand of the ruler of the nations, for him to deal with it according to its wickedness. I have banished it.

<sup>12</sup> Foreigners, the most ruthless of the nations, cut it down and left it. Its branches have fallen on the mountains and in every valley; its boughs lay broken in all the earth's ravines. And all the peoples of the earth left its shade and abandoned it.

<sup>13</sup> All the birds of the air nested on its fallen trunk, and all the beasts of the field lived among its boughs. <sup>14</sup> This happened so that no other trees by the waters would become great in height and set their tops among the clouds, and no other well-watered trees would reach them in height. For they have all been consigned to death, to the depths of the earth, among the mortals who descend to the Pit.'

<sup>15</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: 'On the day it was brought down to Sheol, I caused mourning. I covered the deep because of it; I held back its rivers; its abundant waters were restrained. I made Lebanon mourn for it, and all the trees of the field fainted because of it. <sup>16</sup> I made the nations quake at the sound of its downfall, when I cast it down to Sheol with those who descend to the Pit.

Then all the trees of Eden, the choicest and best of Lebanon, all the well-watered trees, were consoled in the earth below. <sup>17</sup> They too descended with it to Sheol, to those slain by the sword. As its allies they had lived in its shade among the nations.

<sup>18</sup> Who then is like you in glory and greatness among the trees of Eden? You also will be brought down to the depths of the earth to be with the trees of Eden. You will lie among the uncircumcised, with those slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, declares the Lord GOD.' " and hurl you into the open field.

I will cause all the birds of the air
to settle upon you,
and all the beasts of the earth to eat their fill of you.

Egypt Cast into the Pit

17 In the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month,‡ the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 18 “Son of man, wail for the multitudes of Egypt, and consign her and the daughters of the mighty nations to the depths of the earth with those who descend to the Pit:

19 Whom do you surpass in beauty?

Go down and be placed with the uncircumcised!

20 They will fall among those slain by the sword.

The sword is appointed!

Let them drag her away along with all her multitudes.

21 Mighty chiefs will speak from the midst of Sheol about Egypt and her allies:

‘They have come down and lie with the uncircumcised, with those slain by the sword.’

22 Assyria is there with her whole company;
her graves are all around her.

All of them are slain,
fallen by the sword.

23 Her graves are set in the depths of the Pit,
and her company is all around her grave.

All of them are slain,
fallen by the sword—

those who once spread terror
in the land of the living.

24 Elam is there
with all her multitudes around her grave.

All of them are slain,
fallen by the sword—

those who went down uncircumcised to the earth below,

who once spread their terror
in the land of the living.

They bear their disgrace
with those who descend to the Pit.

with her graves all around her.

All of them are uncircumcised,
slain by the sword,
although their terror was once spread
in the land of the living.

They bear their disgrace
with those who descend to the Pit.
They are placed among the slain.

with all their multitudes,
with their graves all around them.

All of them are uncircumcised,
slain by the sword,
because they spread their terror

Ezekiel the Watchman for Israel

<sup>1</sup> Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, speak to your people and tell them: ‘Suppose I bring the sword against a land, and the people of that land choose a man from among them, appointing him as their watchman, <sup>3</sup> and he sees the sword coming against that land and blows the ram’s horn to warn the people.

<sup>4</sup> Then if anyone hears the sound of the horn but fails to heed the warning, and the sword comes and takes him away, his blood will be on his own head. <sup>5</sup> Since he heard the sound of the horn but failed to heed the warning, his blood will be on his own head. If he had heeded the warning, he would have saved his life.

<sup>6</sup> But if the watchman sees the sword coming and fails to blow the horn to warn the people, and the sword comes and takes away a life, then that one will be taken away in his iniquity, but I will hold the watchman accountable for his blood.’

* 32:27 Likely reading of the original Hebrew text; MT

<sup>7</sup> As for you, O son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel; so hear the word from My mouth and give them the warning from Me. <sup>8</sup> If I say to the wicked, 'O wicked man, you will surely die,' but you do not speak out to dissuade him from his way, then that wicked man will die in his iniquity, yet I will hold you accountable for his blood. <sup>9</sup> But if you warn the wicked man to turn from his way, and he does not turn from it, he will die in his iniquity, but you will have saved your life.*

The Message of the Watchman

<sup>10</sup> Now as for you, son of man, tell the house of Israel that this is what they have said: 'Our transgressions and our sins are heavy upon us, and we are wasting away because of them! How can we live?'

<sup>11</sup> Say to them: 'As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that the wicked should turn from their ways and live. Turn! Turn from your evil ways! For why should you die, O house of Israel?'

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, son of man, say to your people: 'The righteousness of the righteous man will not deliver him in the day of his transgression; neither will the wickedness of the wicked man cause him to stumble on the day he turns from his wickedness. Nor will the righteous man be able to survive by his righteousness on the day he sins.'

<sup>13</sup> If I tell the righteous man that he will surely live, but he then trusts in his righteousness and commits iniquity, then none of his righteous works will be remembered; he will die because of the iniquity he has committed.

<sup>14</sup> But if I tell the wicked man, 'You will surely die,' and he turns from his sin and does what is just and right— <sup>15</sup> if he restores a pledge, makes restitution for what he has stolen, and walks in the statutes of life without practicing iniquity—then he will surely live; he will not die. <sup>16</sup> None of the sins he has committed will be held against him. He has done what is just and right; he will surely live.

<sup>17</sup> Yet your people say, 'The way of the Lord is not just.' But it is their way that is not just. <sup>18</sup> If a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he will die for it. <sup>19</sup> But if a wicked man turns from his wickedness and does what is just and right, he will live because of this.

<sup>20</sup> Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is not just.' But I will judge each of you according to his ways, O house of Israel."

Word of Jerusalem's Fall

<sup>21</sup> In the twelfth year of our exile, on the fifth day of the tenth month, a fugitive from Jerusalem came to me and reported, "The city has been taken!"

<sup>22</sup> Now the evening before the fugitive arrived, the hand of the LORD was upon me, and He opened my mouth before the man came to me in the morning. So my mouth was opened and I was no longer mute.

<sup>23</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>24</sup> "Son of man, those living in the ruins in the land of Israel are saying, 'Abraham was only one man, yet he possessed the land. But we are many; surely the land has been given to us as a possession.'

<sup>25</sup> Therefore tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says: 'You eat meat with the blood in it, lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood. Should you then possess the land?' <sup>26</sup> You have relied on your swords, you have committed detestable acts, and each of you has defiled his neighbor's wife. Should you then possess the land?'

<sup>27</sup> Tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says: 'As surely as I live, those in the ruins will fall by the sword, those in the open field I will give to be devoured by wild animals, and those in the strongholds and caves will die by plague. <sup>28</sup> I will make the land a desolate waste, and the pride of her strength will come to an end. The mountains of

* 33:9 See Acts 20:25–26

Israel will become desolate, so that no one will pass through. <sup>29</sup> Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a desolate waste because of all the abominations they have committed.'

<sup>30</sup> As for you, son of man, your people are talking about you near the city walls and in the doorways of their houses. One speaks to another, each saying to his brother, 'Come and hear the message that has come from the LORD!'

<sup>31</sup> So My people come to you as usual, sit before you, and hear your words; but they do not put them into practice. Although they express love with their mouths, their hearts pursue dishonest gain. <sup>32</sup> Indeed, you are to them like a singer of love songs with a beautiful voice, who skillfully plays an instrument. They hear your words but do not put them into practice. <sup>33</sup> So when it comes to pass—and surely it will come—then they will know that a prophet has been among them."

A Prophecy against Israel's Shepherds

<sup>4</sup> You have not strengthened the weak, healed the sick, bound up the injured, brought back the strays, or searched for the lost. Instead, you have ruled them with violence and cruelty. <sup>5</sup> They were scattered for lack of a shepherd, and when they were scattered they became food for all the wild beasts. <sup>6</sup> My flock went astray on all the mountains and every high hill. They were scattered over the face of all the earth, with no one to search for them or seek them out.'

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: <sup>8</sup> 'As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, because My flock lacks a shepherd and has become prey and food for every wild beast, and because My shepherds did not search for My flock but fed themselves instead, <sup>9</sup> therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD!'

<sup>10</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: 'Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will demand from them My flock and remove them from tending the flock, so that they can no longer feed themselves. For I will deliver My flock from their mouths, and it will no longer be food for them.'

The Good Shepherd (Psalm 23:1-6; John 10:1-21)

<sup>11</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD says: 'Behold, I Myself will search for My flock and seek them out. <sup>12</sup> As a shepherd looks for his scattered sheep when he is among the flock, so I will look for My flock.

I will rescue them from all the places to which they were scattered on a day of clouds and darkness. <sup>13</sup> I will bring them out from the peoples, gather them from the countries, and bring them into their own land. I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, in the ravines, and in all the settlements of the land. <sup>14</sup> I will feed them in good pasture, and the lofty mountains of Israel will be their grazing land. There they will lie down in a good grazing land; they will feed in rich pasture on the mountains of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> I will tend My flock and make them lie down, declares the Lord GOD. <sup>16</sup> I will seek the lost, bring back the strays, bind up the broken, and strengthen the weak; but the sleek and strong I will destroy. I will shepherd them with justice.'

<sup>17</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says to you, My flock: 'I will judge between one sheep and another, between the rams and the goats. <sup>18</sup> Is it not enough for you to feed on the good pasture? Must you also trample the rest of the pasture with your feet? Is it not enough for you to drink the clear waters? Must you also muddy the rest with your feet? <sup>19</sup> Why must My flock feed on what your feet have trampled, and drink what your feet have muddied?

<sup>20</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says to them: ‘Behold, I Myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. <sup>21</sup> Since you shove with flank and shoulder, butting all the weak ones with your horns until you have scattered them abroad, <sup>22</sup> I will save My flock, and they will no longer be prey. I will judge between one sheep and another. <sup>23</sup> I will appoint over them one shepherd, My servant David, and he will feed them. He will feed them and be their shepherd. <sup>24</sup> I, the LORD, will be their God, and My servant David will be a prince among them. I, the LORD, have spoken.

The Covenant of Peace

<sup>25</sup> I will make with them a covenant of peace and rid the land of wild animals, so that they may dwell securely in the wilderness and sleep in the forest. <sup>26</sup> I will make them and the places around My hill a blessing. I will send down showers in season—showers of blessing. <sup>27</sup> The trees of the field will give their fruit, and the land will yield its produce; My flock will be secure in their land. Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bars of their yoke and delivered them from the hands that enslaved them.

<sup>28</sup> They will no longer be prey for the nations, and the beasts of the earth will not consume them. They will dwell securely, and no one will frighten them.

<sup>29</sup> And I will raise up for them a garden of renown, and they will no longer be victims of famine in the land or bear the scorn of the nations. <sup>30</sup> Then they will know that I, the LORD their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are My people,’ declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>31</sup> ‘You are My flock, the sheep of My pasture, My people, and I am your God,’ declares the Lord GOD.”

A Prophecy against Mount Seir

<sup>1</sup> Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir and prophesy against it, <sup>3</sup> and declare that this is what the Lord GOD says:

Behold, I am against you,
O Mount Seir.
I will stretch out My hand against you
and make you a desolate waste.
<sup>4</sup> I will turn your cities into ruins,
and you will become a desolation.

Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> Because you harbored an ancient hatred and delivered the Israelites over to the sword in the time of their disaster at the final stage of their punishment, <sup>6</sup> therefore as surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, I will give you over to bloodshed and it will pursue you. Since you did not hate bloodshed, it will pursue you.

<sup>7</sup> I will make Mount Seir a desolate waste and will cut off from it those who come and go. <sup>8</sup> I will fill its mountains with the slain; those killed by the sword will fall on your hills, in your valleys, and in all your ravines. <sup>9</sup> I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities will not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> Because you have said, “These two nations and countries will be ours, and we will possess them,” even though the LORD was there, <sup>11</sup> therefore as surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, I will treat you according to the anger and jealousy you showed in your hatred against them, and I will make Myself known among them when I judge you.

<sup>12</sup> Then you will know that I, the LORD, have heard every contemptuous word you uttered against the mountains of Israel when you said, 'They are desolate; they are given to us to devour!' <sup>13</sup> You boasted against Me with your mouth and multiplied your words against Me. I heard it Myself!

<sup>14</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: While the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. <sup>15</sup> As you rejoiced when the inheritance of the house of Israel became desolate, so will I do to you. You will become a desolation, O Mount Seir, and so will all of Edom. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

A Prophecy to the Mountains of Israel

<sup>1</sup> "And you, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel and say: O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD. <sup>2</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: Because the enemy has said of you, 'Aha! The ancient heights have become our possession,' <sup>3</sup> therefore prophesy and declare that this is what the Lord GOD says: Because they have made you desolate and have trampled you on every side, so that you became a possession of the rest of the nations and were taken up in slander by the lips of their talkers, <sup>4</sup> therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD.

This is what the Lord GOD says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys, to the desolate ruins and abandoned cities, which have become a spoil and a mockery to the rest of the nations around you. <sup>5</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Surely in My burning zeal I have spoken against the rest of the nations, and against all Edom, who took My land as their own possession with wholehearted joy and utter contempt, so that its pastureland became plunder.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, prophesy concerning the land of Israel and tell the mountains and hills, the ravines and valleys, that this is what the Lord GOD says: Behold, I have spoken in My burning zeal because you have endured the reproach of the nations.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: I have sworn with an uplifted hand that surely the nations around you will endure reproach of their own. <sup>8</sup> But you, O mountains of Israel, will produce branches and bear fruit for My people Israel, for they will soon come home.

<sup>9</sup> For behold, I am on your side; I will turn toward you, and you will be tilled and sown. <sup>10</sup> I will multiply the people upon you—the house of Israel in its entirety. The cities will be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt. <sup>11</sup> I will fill you with people and animals, and they will multiply and be fruitful. I will make you as inhabited as you once were, and I will make you prosper more than before. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> Yes, I will cause My people Israel to walk upon you; they will possess you, and you will be their inheritance, and you will no longer deprive them of their children.

<sup>13</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD says: Because people say to you, 'You devour men and deprive your nation of its children,' <sup>14</sup> therefore you will no longer devour men or deprive your nation of its children, declares the Lord GOD. <sup>15</sup> I will no longer allow the taunts of the nations to be heard against you, and you will no longer endure the reproach of the peoples or cause your nation to stumble, declares the Lord GOD."

A New Heart and a New Spirit (Romans 8:9-11; Galatians 5:16-26)

<sup>16</sup> Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>17</sup> "Son of man, when the people of Israel lived in their land, they defiled it by their own ways and deeds. Their behavior before Me was like the uncleanness of a woman's impurity. <sup>18</sup> So I poured out My wrath upon them because of the blood they had shed on the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols.

<sup>19</sup> I dispersed them among the nations, and they were scattered throughout the lands. I judged them according to their ways and deeds. <sup>20</sup> And wherever they went among the nations, they profaned My holy name, because it was said of them, ‘These are the people of the LORD, yet they had to leave His land.’ <sup>21</sup> But I had concern for My holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations to which they had gone.

<sup>22</sup> Therefore tell the house of Israel that this is what the Lord GOD says: It is not for your sake that I will act, O house of Israel, but for My holy name, which you profaned among the nations to which you went. <sup>23</sup> I will show the holiness of My great name, which has been profaned among the nations—the name you have profaned among them. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD, declares the Lord GOD, when I show My holiness in you before their eyes.

<sup>24</sup> For I will take you from among the nations and gather you out of all the countries, and I will bring you back into your own land. <sup>25</sup> I will also sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean. I will cleanse you from all your impurities and all your idols. <sup>26</sup> I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; I will remove your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. <sup>27</sup> And I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes and to carefully observe My ordinances.

<sup>28</sup> Then you will live in the land that I gave your forefathers; you will be My people, and I will be your God. <sup>29</sup> I will save you from all your uncleanness. I will summon the grain and make it plentiful, and I will not bring famine upon you. <sup>30</sup> I will also make the fruit of the trees and the crops of the field plentiful, so that you will no longer bear reproach among the nations on account of famine.

<sup>31</sup> Then you will remember your evil ways and wicked deeds, and you will loathe yourselves for your iniquities and abominations. <sup>32</sup> It is not for your sake that I will act, declares the Lord GOD—let it be known to you. Be ashamed and disgraced for your ways, O house of Israel!

<sup>33</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: On the day I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be resettled and the ruins to be rebuilt. <sup>34</sup> The desolate land will be cultivated instead of lying desolate in the sight of all who pass through. <sup>35</sup> Then they will say, ‘This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden. The cities that were once ruined, desolate, and destroyed are now fortified and inhabited.’

<sup>36</sup> Then the nations around you that remain will know that I, the LORD, have rebuilt what was destroyed, and I have replanted what was desolate. I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do it.

<sup>37</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: Once again I will hear the plea of the house of Israel and do for them this: I will multiply their people like a flock. <sup>38</sup> Like the numerous flocks for sacrifices at Jerusalem during her appointed feasts, so the ruined cities will be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

The Valley of Dry Bones

<sup>1</sup> The hand of the LORD was upon me, and He brought me out by His Spirit and set me down in the middle of the valley, and it was full of bones. <sup>2</sup> He led me all around among them, and I saw a great many bones on the floor of the valley, and indeed, they were very dry.

<sup>3</sup> Then He asked me, “Son of man, can these bones come to life?”

“O Lord GOD,” I replied, “only You know.”

<sup>4</sup> And He said to me, “Prophesy concerning these bones and tell them, ‘Dry bones, hear the word of the LORD!’ <sup>5</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says to these bones: I will cause breath * to enter you, and you will come to life. <sup>6</sup> I will attach tendons to you and make flesh grow upon you and cover you with skin. I will put breath within you so that you will come to life. Then you will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

<sup>7</sup> So I prophesied as I had been commanded. And as I prophesied, there was suddenly a noise, a rattling, and the bones came together, bone to bone. <sup>8</sup> As I looked on, tendons appeared on them, flesh grew, and skin covered them; but there was no breath in them.

<sup>9</sup> Then He said to me, “Prophecy to the breath; prophecy, son of man, and tell the breath that this is what the Lord GOD says: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe into these slain, so that they may live!”

<sup>10</sup> So I prophesied as He had commanded me, and the breath entered them, and they came to life and stood on their feet—a vast army.

<sup>11</sup> Then He said to me, “Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Look, they are saying, ‘Our bones are dried up, and our hope has perished; we are cut off.’

<sup>12</sup> Therefore prophecy and tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘O My people, I will open your graves and bring you up from them, and I will bring you back to the land of Israel. <sup>13</sup> Then you, My people, will know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves and bring you up from them. <sup>14</sup> I will put My Spirit in you and you will live, and I will settle you in your own land. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do it, declares the LORD.’ ”

One Nation with One King

<sup>15</sup> Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>16</sup> “And you, son of man, take a single stick † and write on it: ‘Belonging to Judah and to the Israelites associated with him.’ Then take another stick and write on it: ‘Belonging to Joseph—the stick of Ephraim—and to all the house of Israel associated with him.’ <sup>17</sup> Then join them together into one stick, so that they become one in your hand.

<sup>18</sup> When your people ask you, ‘Won’t you explain to us what you mean by these?’ <sup>19</sup> you are to tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel associated with him, and I will put them together with the stick of Judah. I will make them into a single stick, and they will become one in My hand.’

<sup>20</sup> When the sticks on which you write are in your hand and in full view of the people, <sup>21</sup> you are to tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘I will take the Israelites out of the nations to which they have gone, and I will gather them from all around and bring them into their own land. <sup>22</sup> I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel, and one king will rule over all of them. Then they will no longer be two nations and will never again be divided into two kingdoms.

<sup>23</sup> They will no longer defile themselves with their idols or detestable images, or with any of their transgressions. I will save them from all their apostasies by which they sinned,‡ and I will cleanse them. Then they will be My people, and I will be their God. <sup>24</sup> My servant David will be king over them, and there will be one shepherd for all of them. They will follow My ordinances and keep and observe My statutes.

<sup>25</sup> They will live in the land that I gave to My servant Jacob, where your fathers lived. They will live there forever with their children and grandchildren, and My servant David will be their prince forever. <sup>26</sup> And I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be an everlasting covenant. I will establish them and multiply them, and I will set My sanctuary among them forever. <sup>27</sup> My dwelling place § will be with them; I will be their God, and they will be My people.* <sup>28</sup> Then the nations will know that I the LORD sanctify Israel, when My sanctuary is among them forever.’ ”

A Prophecy against Gog

<sup>7</sup> Get ready; prepare yourself, you and all your company gathered around you; you will be their guard. <sup>8</sup> After a long time you will be summoned. In the latter years you will enter a land that has recovered from war, whose people were gathered from many nations to the mountains of Israel, which had long been desolate. They had been brought out from the nations, and all now dwell securely. <sup>9</sup> You and all your troops, and many peoples with you will go up, advancing like a thunderstorm; you will be like a cloud covering the land.

<sup>10</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: On that day, thoughts will arise in your mind, and you will devise an evil plan. <sup>11</sup> You will say, ‘I will go up against a land of unwalled villages; I will come against a tranquil people who dwell securely, all of them living without walls or bars or gates— <sup>12</sup> in order to seize the spoil and carry off the plunder, to turn a hand against the desolate places now inhabited and against a people gathered from the nations, who have acquired livestock and possessions and who live at the center of the land.’

<sup>13</sup> Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish with all its villages § will ask, ‘Have you come to capture the plunder? Have you assembled your hordes to carry away loot, to make off with silver and gold, to take cattle and goods, to seize great spoil?’

<sup>14</sup> Therefore prophesy, son of man, and tell Gog that this is what the Lord GOD says: On that day when My people Israel are dwelling securely, will you not take notice of this?* <sup>15</sup> And you will come from your place out of the far north—you and many peoples with you, all riding horses—a mighty horde, a huge army. <sup>16</sup> You will advance against My people Israel like a cloud covering the land. It will happen in the latter days, O Gog, that I will bring you against My land, so that the nations may know Me when I show Myself holy in you before their eyes.

<sup>17</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: Are you the one of whom I have spoken in former days through My servants, the prophets of Israel, who in those times prophesied for years that I would bring you against them? <sup>18</sup> Now on that day when Gog comes against the land of Israel, declares the Lord GOD, My wrath will flare up.

<sup>19</sup> In My zeal and fiery rage I proclaim that on that day there will be a great earthquake in the land of Israel. <sup>20</sup> The fish of the sea, the birds of the air, the beasts of the field, every creature that crawls upon the ground, and all mankind on the face of the earth will tremble at My presence. The mountains will be thrown down, the cliffs will collapse, and every wall will fall to the ground.

<sup>21</sup> And I will summon a sword against Gog on all My mountains, declares the Lord GOD, and every man’s sword will be against his brother. <sup>22</sup> I will execute judgment upon him with plague and bloodshed. I will pour out torrents of rain, hailstones, fire, and sulfur on him and on his troops and on the many nations with him. <sup>23</sup> I will magnify and sanctify Myself, and will reveal Myself in the sight of many nations. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

The Slaughter of Gog's Armies

<sup>1</sup> "As for you, O son of man, prophesy against Gog and declare that this is what the Lord GOD says: Behold, I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. <sup>2</sup> I will turn you around, drive you along, bring you up from the far north, and send you against the mountains of Israel. <sup>3</sup> Then I will strike the bow from your left hand and dash down the arrows from your right hand.

<sup>4</sup> On the mountains of Israel you will fall—you and all your troops and the nations with you. I will give you as food to every kind of ravenous bird and wild beast. <sup>5</sup> You will fall in the open field, for I have spoken, declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>6</sup> I will send fire on Magog and on those who dwell securely in the coastlands, and they will know that I am the LORD. <sup>7</sup> So I will make My holy name known among My people Israel and will no longer allow it to be profaned. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel. <sup>8</sup> Yes, it is coming, and it will surely happen, declares the Lord GOD. This is the day of which I have spoken.

<sup>9</sup> Then those who dwell in the cities of Israel will go out, kindle fires, and burn up the weapons—the bucklers and shields, the bows and arrows, the clubs and spears. For seven years they will use them for fuel. <sup>10</sup> They will not gather wood from the countryside or cut it from the forests, for they will use the weapons for fuel. They will loot those who looted them and plunder those who plundered them, declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>11</sup> And on that day I will give Gog a burial place in Israel, the Valley of the Travelers, east of the Sea.† It will block those who travel through, because Gog and all his hordes will be buried there. So it will be called the Valley of Hamon-gog.‡ <sup>12</sup> For seven months the house of Israel will be burying them in order to cleanse the land. <sup>13</sup> All the people of the land will bury them, and it will bring them renown on the day I display My glory,§ declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>14</sup> And men will be employed to continually pass through the land to cleanse it by burying the invaders who remain on the ground. At the end of the seven months they will begin their search. <sup>15</sup> As they pass through the land, anyone who sees a human bone will set up a pillar next to it, until the gravediggers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon-gog. <sup>16</sup> (Even the city will be named Hamonah.*) And so they will cleanse the land.

<sup>17</sup> And as for you, son of man, this is what the Lord GOD says: Call out to every kind of bird and to every beast of the field: 'Assemble and come together from all around to the sacrificial feast that I am preparing for you, a great feast on the mountains of Israel. There you will eat flesh and drink blood. <sup>18</sup> You will eat the flesh of the mighty and drink the blood of the princes of the earth as though they were rams, lambs, goats, and bulls—all the fattened animals of Bashan. <sup>19</sup> At the sacrifice I am preparing, you will eat fat until you are gorged and drink blood until you are drunk. <sup>20</sup> And at My table you will eat your fill of horses and riders, of mighty men and warriors of every kind,' declares the Lord GOD.

Israel to Be Restored

<sup>21</sup> I will display My glory among the nations, and all the nations will see the judgment that I execute and the hand that I lay upon them. <sup>22</sup> From that day forward the house of Israel will know that I am the LORD their God. <sup>23</sup> And the nations will know that the house of Israel went into exile for their iniquity, because they were unfaithful to Me. So I hid My face from them and delivered them into the hands of their enemies, so that they all fell by the sword. <sup>24</sup> I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and transgressions, and I hid My face from them.

* 39:1 Or Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal † 39:11 That is, the Dead Sea ‡ 39:11 Hamon-gog means multitude of Gog. § 39:13 Or and the day I display My glory will be a day of renown * 39:16 Hamonah means multitude or horde.

<sup>25</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says: Now I will restore Jacob from captivity † and will have compassion on the whole house of Israel, and I will be jealous for My holy name. <sup>26</sup> They will forget ‡ their disgrace and all the treachery they committed against Me, when they dwell securely in their land, with no one to frighten them. <sup>27</sup> When I bring them back from the peoples and gather them out of the lands of their enemies, I will show My holiness in them in the sight of many nations. <sup>28</sup> Then they will know that I am the LORD their God, when I regather them to their own land, not leaving any of them behind after their exile among the nations. <sup>29</sup> And I will no longer hide My face from them, for I will pour out My Spirit on the house of Israel, declares the Lord GOD.”

The Man with a Measuring Rod (Zechariah 2:1-5)

<sup>1</sup> In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month—in the fourteenth year after Jerusalem had been struck down—on that very day the hand of the LORD was upon me, and He took me there. <sup>2</sup> In visions of God He took me to the land of Israel and set me on a very high mountain, on whose southern slope was a structure that resembled a city.

<sup>3</sup> So He took me there, and I saw a man whose appearance was like bronze. He was standing in the gateway with a linen cord and a measuring rod in his hand. <sup>4</sup> “Son of man,” he said to me, “look with your eyes, hear with your ears, and pay attention to everything I am going to show you, for that is why you have been brought here. Report to the house of Israel everything you see.”

The East Gate

<sup>5</sup> And I saw a wall surrounding the temple area. Now the length of the measuring rod in the man’s hand was six long cubits * (each measuring a cubit and a handbreadth), and he measured the wall to be one rod thick and one rod high.

<sup>6</sup> Then he came to the gate facing east and climbed its steps. He measured the threshold of the gate to be one rod deep. † <sup>7</sup> Each gate chamber was one rod long and one rod wide, and there were five cubits ‡ between the gate chambers. The inner threshold of the gate by the portico facing inward was one rod deep. <sup>8</sup> Then he measured the portico of the gateway inside; § <sup>9</sup> it was eight cubits deep, * and its jambs were two cubits thick. † And the portico of the gateway faced the temple.

<sup>10</sup> There were three gate chambers on each side of the east gate, each with the same measurements, and the gateposts on either side also had the same measurements. <sup>11</sup> And he measured the width of the gateway entrance to be ten cubits, ‡ and its length was thirteen cubits. §

† 39:25 Or restore the fortunes of Jacob ‡ 39:26 A few Hebrew manuscripts; MT They will bear * 40:5 6 long cubits, the length of the reed used for measuring, is approximately 10.5 feet or 3.2 meters; similarly in verses 6, 7, and 12. <sup>14</sup> Next he measured the gateposts to be sixty cubits high.† The gateway extended around to the gatepost of the courtyard. <sup>15</sup> And the distance from the entrance of the gateway to the far end of its inner portico was fifty cubits.‡

The Outer Court

<sup>17</sup> Then he brought me into the outer court, and there were chambers and a pavement laid out all around the court. Thirty chambers faced the pavement, <sup>18</sup> which flanked the gateways and corresponded to the length of the gates; this was the lower pavement.

<sup>19</sup> Then he measured the distance from the front of the lower gateway to the outside of the inner court; it was a hundred cubits * on the east side as well as on the north.

The North Gate

<sup>20</sup> He also measured the length and width of the gateway of the outer court facing north. <sup>21</sup> Its three gate chambers on each side, its side pillars, and its portico all had the same measurements as the first gate: fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. <sup>22</sup> Its windows, portico, and palm trees had the same measurements as those of the gate facing east. Seven steps led up to it, with its portico opposite them.

<sup>23</sup> There was a gate to the inner court facing the north gate, just as there was on the east. He measured the distance from gateway to gateway to be a hundred cubits.

The South Gate

<sup>24</sup> Then he led me to the south side, and I saw a gateway facing south. He measured its side pillars and portico, and they had the same measurements as the others. <sup>25</sup> Both the gateway and its portico had windows all around, like the other windows. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. <sup>26</sup> Seven steps led up to it, and its portico was opposite them; it had palm trees on its side pillars, one on each side.

<sup>27</sup> The inner court also had a gate facing south, and he measured the distance from gateway to gateway toward the south to be a hundred cubits.

The Gates of the Inner Court

<sup>28</sup> Next he brought me into the inner court through the south gate, and he measured the south gate; it had the same measurements as the others. <sup>29</sup> Its gate chambers, side pillars, and portico had the same measurements as the others. Both the gateway and its portico had windows all around; it was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. <sup>30</sup> (The porticoes around the inner court were twenty-five cubits long and five cubits deep.†) <sup>31</sup> Its portico faced the outer court, and its side pillars were decorated with palm trees. Eight steps led up to it.

<sup>32</sup> And he brought me to the inner court on the east side, and he measured the gateway; it had the same measurements as the others. <sup>33</sup> Its gate chambers, side pillars, and portico had the same measurements as the others. Both the gateway and its portico had windows all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. <sup>34</sup> Its portico faced the outer court, and its side pillars were decorated with palm trees on each side. Eight steps led up to it.

<sup>35</sup> Then he brought me to the north gate and measured it. It had the same measurements as the others, <sup>36</sup> as did its gate chambers, side pillars, and portico. It also had windows all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. <sup>37</sup> Its portico † faced the outer court, and its side pillars were decorated with palm trees on each side. Eight steps led up to it.

Eight Tables for Sacrifices

<sup>38</sup> There was a chamber with a doorway by the portico § in each of the inner gateways. There the burnt offering was to be washed. <sup>39</sup> Inside the portico of the gateway were two tables on each side, on which the burnt offerings, sin offerings, and guilt offerings were to be slaughtered.

<sup>40</sup> Outside, as one goes up to the entrance of the north gateway, there were two tables on one side and two more tables on the other side of the gate's portico. <sup>41</sup> So there were four tables inside the gateway and four outside—eight tables in all—on which the sacrifices were to be slaughtered.

<sup>42</sup> There were also four tables of dressed stone for the burnt offering, each a cubit and a half long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit high.* On these were placed the utensils used to slaughter the burnt offerings and the other sacrifices.

<sup>43</sup> The double-pronged hooks,† each a handbreadth long,‡ were fastened all around the inside of the room, and the flesh of the offering was to be placed on the tables.

Chambers for Ministry

<sup>44</sup> Outside the inner gate, within the inner court, were two chambers,§ one beside the north gate and facing south, and another beside the south gate * and facing north.

<sup>45</sup> Then the man said to me: “The chamber that faces south is for the priests who keep charge of the temple, <sup>46</sup> and the chamber that faces north is for the priests who keep charge of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok, the only Levites who may approach the LORD to minister before Him.”

The Inner Court

<sup>47</sup> Next he measured the court. It was square, a hundred cubits long and a hundred cubits wide. And the altar was in front of the temple.

<sup>48</sup> Then he brought me to the portico of the temple and measured the side pillars of the portico to be five cubits on each side. The width of the gateway was fourteen cubits and its sidewalls were three cubits on either side.† <sup>49</sup> The portico was twenty cubits wide ‡ and twelve cubits deep,§ and ten steps led up to it.* There were columns by the side pillars, one on each side.

sides of the entrance were five cubits § on each side. He also measured the length of the outer sanctuary to be forty cubits, and the width to be twenty cubits.*

<sup>3</sup> And he went into the inner sanctuary and measured the side pillars at the entrance to be two cubits wide.† The entrance was six cubits wide, and the walls on each side were seven cubits wide.‡ <sup>4</sup> Then he measured the room adjacent to the inner sanctuary § to be twenty cubits long and twenty cubits wide.* And he said to me, “This is the Most Holy Place.†”

Outside the Temple

<sup>5</sup> Next he measured the wall of the temple to be six cubits thick, and the width of each side room around the temple was four cubits.‡ <sup>6</sup> The side rooms were arranged one above another in three levels of thirty rooms each. There were ledges all around the wall of the temple to serve as supports for the side rooms, so that the supports would not be fastened into the wall of the temple itself. <sup>7</sup> The side rooms surrounding the temple widened at each successive level, because the structure surrounding the temple ascended by stages corresponding to the narrowing of the temple wall as it rose upward. And so a stairway went up from the lowest story to the highest, through the middle one.

<sup>8</sup> I saw that the temple had a raised base all around it, forming the foundation of the side rooms. It was the full length of a rod, six long cubits. <sup>9</sup> The outer wall of the side rooms was five cubits thick, and the open area between the side rooms of the temple <sup>10</sup> and the outer chambers was twenty cubits wide all around the temple. <sup>11</sup> The side rooms opened into this area, with one entrance on the north and another on the south. The open area was five cubits wide all around.

<sup>13</sup> Then he measured the temple to be a hundred cubits long,† and the temple courtyard and the building with its walls were also a hundred cubits long. <sup>14</sup> The width of the temple courtyard on the east, including the front of the temple, was a hundred cubits.

The Interior Structures

<sup>15</sup> Next he measured the length of the building facing the temple courtyard at the rear of the temple, including its galleries on each side; it was a hundred cubits. The outer sanctuary, the inner sanctuary, and the porticoes facing the court, <sup>16</sup> as well as the thresholds and the beveled windows and the galleries all around with their three levels opposite the threshold, were overlaid with wood on all sides. They were paneled from the ground to the windows, and the windows were covered.

<sup>22</sup> There was an altar of wood three cubits high and two cubits square.‡ Its corners, base, and sides were of wood. And the man told me, “This is the table that is before the LORD.”

<sup>23</sup> Both the outer sanctuary and the inner sanctuary had double doors, <sup>24</sup> and each door had two swinging panels. There were two panels for one door and two for the other. <sup>25</sup> Cherubim and palm trees like those on the walls were carved on the doors of the outer sanctuary, and there was a wooden canopy outside, on the front of the portico. <sup>26</sup> There were beveled windows and palm trees on the sidewalls of the portico. The side rooms of the temple also had canopies.

Chambers for the Priests

<sup>5</sup> Now the upper chambers were smaller because the galleries took more space from the chambers on the lower and middle floors of the building. <sup>6</sup> For they were arranged in three stories, and unlike the courts, they had no pillars. So the upper chambers were set back further than the lower and middle floors. <sup>7</sup> An outer wall in front of the chambers was fifty cubits long and ran parallel to the chambers and the outer court. <sup>8</sup> For the chambers on the outer court were fifty cubits long, while those facing the temple were a hundred cubits long. <sup>9</sup> And below these chambers was the entrance on the east side as one enters them from the outer court.

<sup>13</sup> Then the man said to me, “The north and south chambers facing the temple courtyard are the holy chambers where the priests who approach the LORD will eat the most holy offerings. There they will place the most holy offerings—the grain offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings—for the place is holy. <sup>14</sup> Once the priests have entered the holy area, they must not go out into the outer court until they have left behind the garments in which they minister, for these are holy. They are to put on other clothes before they approach the places that are for the people.”

The Outer Measurements

<sup>15</sup> Now when the man had finished measuring the interior of the temple area, he led me out by the gate that faced east, and he measured the area all around:

‡ 41:22 Or long; the altar was approximately 5.25 feet high and 3.5 feet square (1.6 meters high and 1.1 meters square) * 42:2 The building was approximately 175 feet long and 87.5 feet wide (53.3 meters long and 26.7 meters wide). † 42:3 20 (long) cubits is approximately 35 feet or 10.7 meters. ‡ 42:4 LXX. The walkway was approximately 17.5 feet wide and 175 feet long (5.3 meters wide and 53.3 meters long). Hebrew ten cubits wide and a cubit long. § 42:10 LXX; Hebrew east side * 42:16 See LXX; five hundred cubits from verse 17 LXX and implied in verses 16, 18, 19, and 20 is approximately 875 feet or 266.7 meters in length. Hebrew five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about, that is approximately 5,250 feet or 1,600 meters; similarly in verses 17, 18, 19, and 20.

<sup>19</sup> And he came around and measured the west side to be five hundred cubits long.

<sup>20</sup> So he measured the area on all four sides. It had a wall all around, five hundred cubits long and five hundred cubits wide, to separate the holy from the common.

The Glory of the LORD Returns to the Temple

<sup>1</sup> Then the man brought me back to the gate that faces east, <sup>2</sup> and I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east. His voice was like the roar of many waters, and the earth shone with His glory.

<sup>6</sup> While the man was standing beside me, I heard someone speaking to me from inside the temple, <sup>7</sup> and He said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of My throne and the place for the soles of My feet, where I will dwell among the Israelites forever. The house of Israel will never again defile My holy name—neither they nor their kings—by their prostitution and by the funeral offerings † for their kings at their deaths.‡ <sup>8</sup> When they placed their threshold next to My threshold and their doorposts beside My doorposts, with only a wall between Me and them, they defiled My holy name by the abominations they committed. Therefore I have consumed them in My anger. <sup>9</sup> Now let them remove far from Me their prostitution and the funeral offerings for their kings, and I will dwell among them forever.

<sup>10</sup> As for you, son of man, describe the temple to the people of Israel, so that they may be ashamed of their iniquities. Let them measure the plan, <sup>11</sup> and if they are ashamed § of all they have done, then make known to them the design of the temple—its arrangement and its exits and entrances—its whole design along with all its statutes, forms, and laws. Write it down in their sight, so that they may keep its complete design and all its statutes and may carry them out.

<sup>12</sup> This is the law of the temple: All its surrounding territory on top of the mountain will be most holy. Yes, this is the law of the temple.

The Altar of Sacrifice

And this is the height of the altar: <sup>14</sup> The space from the gutter on the ground to the lower ledge shall be two cubits, and the ledge one cubit wide.‡ The space from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge shall be four cubits, and the ledge one cubit wide.§

<sup>22</sup> On the second day you are to present an unblemished male goat as a sin offering, and the altar is to be cleansed as it was with the bull. <sup>23</sup> When you have finished the purification, you are to present a young, unblemished bull and an unblemished ram from the flock. <sup>24</sup> You must present them before the LORD; the priests are to sprinkle salt on them and sacrifice them as a burnt offering to the LORD.

<sup>25</sup> For seven days you are to provide a male goat daily for a sin offering; you are also to provide a young bull and a ram from the flock, both unblemished. <sup>26</sup> For seven days the priests are to make atonement for the altar and cleanse it; so they shall consecrate it. § <sup>27</sup> At the end of these days, from the eighth day on, the priests are to present your burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar. Then I will accept you, declares the Lord GOD.’ ”

The East Gate Assigned to the Prince

<sup>1</sup> The man then brought me back to the outer gate of the sanctuary that faced east, but it was shut. <sup>2</sup> And the LORD said to me, “This gate is to remain shut. It shall not be opened, and no man shall enter through it, because the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered through it. Therefore it will remain shut. <sup>3</sup> Only the prince himself may sit inside the gateway to eat in the presence of the LORD. He must enter by way of the portico of the gateway and go out the same way.”

<sup>4</sup> Then the man brought me to the front of the temple by way of the north gate. I looked and saw the glory of the LORD filling His temple, and I fell facedown. <sup>5</sup> The LORD said to me: “Son of man, pay attention; look carefully with your eyes and listen closely with your ears to everything I tell you concerning all the statutes and laws of the house of the LORD. Take careful note of the entrance to the temple, along with all the exits of the sanctuary.

Reproof of the Levites

<sup>6</sup> Tell the rebellious house of Israel that this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘I have had enough of all your abominations, O house of Israel. <sup>7</sup> In addition to all your other abominations, you brought in foreigners uncircumcised in both heart and flesh to occupy My sanctuary; you defiled My temple when you offered My food—the fat and the blood; you broke My covenant. <sup>8</sup> And you have not kept charge of My holy things, but have appointed others to keep charge of My sanctuary for you.’

<sup>9</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: No foreigner uncircumcised in heart and flesh may enter My sanctuary—not even a foreigner who lives among the Israelites.

<sup>10</sup> Surely the Levites who wandered away from Me when Israel went astray, and who wandered away from Me after their idols, will bear the consequences of their iniquity. <sup>11</sup> Yet they shall be ministers in My sanctuary, having charge of the gates of the temple and ministering there. They shall slaughter the burnt offerings and other sacrifices for the people and stand before them to minister to them.

<sup>12</sup> Because they ministered before their idols and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Israel, therefore I swore with an uplifted hand concerning them that they would bear the consequences of their iniquity, declares the Lord GOD. <sup>13</sup> They must not approach Me to serve Me as priests or come near any of My holy things or the most holy things. They will bear the shame of the abominations they have committed. <sup>14</sup> Yet I will appoint them to keep charge of all the work for the temple and everything to be done in it.

The Duties of the Priests

<sup>15</sup> But the Levitical priests, who are descended from Zadok and who kept charge of My sanctuary when the Israelites went astray from Me, are to approach Me to minister before Me. They will stand before Me to offer Me fat and blood, declares the Lord GOD. <sup>16</sup> They alone shall enter My sanctuary and draw near to My table to minister before Me. They will keep My charge.

<sup>19</sup> When they go out to the outer court, to the people, they are to take off the garments in which they have ministered, leave them in the holy chambers, and dress in other clothes so that they do not transmit holiness to the people with their garments.

<sup>24</sup> In any dispute, they shall officiate as judges and judge according to My ordinances. They must keep My laws and statutes regarding all My appointed feasts, and they must keep My Sabbaths holy.

<sup>25</sup> A priest must not defile himself by going near a dead person. However, for a father, a mother, a son, a daughter, a brother, or an unmarried sister, he may do so, <sup>26</sup> and after he is cleansed, he must count off seven days for himself. <sup>27</sup> And on the day he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he must present his sin offering, declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>28</sup> In regard to their inheritance, I am their inheritance. You are to give them no possession in Israel, for I am their possession.

<sup>29</sup> They shall eat the grain offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings. Everything in Israel devoted to the LORD will belong to them. <sup>30</sup> The best of all the firstfruits and of every contribution from all your offerings will belong to the priests. You are to give your first batch of dough to the priest, so that a blessing may rest upon your homes. <sup>31</sup> The priests may not eat any bird or animal found dead or torn by wild beasts.

<sup>1</sup> “When you divide the land by lot as an inheritance, you are to set aside a portion for the LORD, a holy portion of the land 25,000 cubits long and 20,000 cubits wide.* This entire tract of land will be holy.

<sup>3</sup> From this holy portion, you are to measure off a length of 25,000 cubits and a width of 10,000 cubits,§ and in it will be the sanctuary, the Most Holy Place.* <sup>4</sup> It will be a holy portion of the land to be used by the priests who minister in the sanctuary, who draw near to minister before the LORD. It will be a place for their houses, as well as a holy area for the sanctuary.

<sup>5</sup> An adjacent area 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide shall belong to the Levites who minister in the temple; it will be their possession for towns in which to live.†

<sup>6</sup> As the property of the city, you are to set aside an area 5,000 cubits wide and 25,000 cubits long,‡ adjacent to the holy district. It will belong to the whole house of Israel.

The Prince's Portion

<sup>7</sup> Now the prince will have the area bordering each side of the area formed by the holy district and the property of the city, extending westward from the western side and eastward from the eastern side, running lengthwise from the western boundary to the eastern boundary and parallel to one of the tribal portions. <sup>8</sup> This land will be his possession in Israel.

And My princes will no longer oppress My people, but will give the rest of the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes. <sup>9</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Enough, O princes of Israel! Cease your violence and oppression, and do what is just and right. Stop dispossessing My people, declares the Lord GOD.’

Honest Scales

(Deuteronomy 25:13-16; Proverbs 11:1-3)

<sup>11</sup> The ephah and the bath shall be the same quantity so that the bath will contain a tenth of a homer, and the ephah a tenth of a homer; the homer will be the standard measure for both.†

Offerings and Feasts

<sup>13</sup> This is the contribution you are to offer: a sixth of an ephah from each homer of wheat, and a sixth of an ephah from each homer of barley.* <sup>14</sup> The prescribed portion

These are for the grain offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings, to make atonement for the people, declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>16</sup> All the people of the land must participate in this contribution for the prince in Israel.
<sup>17</sup> And it shall be the prince's part to provide the burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings for the feasts, New Moons, and Sabbaths—for all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel. He will provide the sin offerings,‡ grain offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings to make atonement for the house of Israel.

<sup>18</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: 'On the first day of the first month you are to take a young bull without blemish and purify the sanctuary.<sup>19</sup> And the priest is to take some of the blood from the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the temple, on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the gateposts of the inner court.<sup>20</sup> You must do the same thing on the seventh day of the month for anyone who strays unintentionally or in ignorance. In this way you will make atonement for the temple.

<sup>21</sup> On the fourteenth day of the first month you are to observe the Passover, a feast of seven days, during which unleavened bread shall be eaten.<sup>22</sup> On that day the prince shall provide a bull as a sin offering for himself and for all the people of the land.
<sup>23</sup> Each day during the seven days of the feast, he shall provide seven bulls and seven rams without blemish as a burnt offering to the LORD, along with a male goat for a sin offering.<sup>24</sup> He shall also provide as a grain offering an ephah for each bull and an ephah for each ram, along with a hin of olive oil for each ephah of grain.§<sup>25</sup> During the seven days of the feast that begins on the fifteenth day of the seventh month,* he is to make the same provision for sin offerings, burnt offerings, grain offerings, and oil.'

The Prince's Offerings

<sup>1</sup> "This is what the Lord GOD says: 'The gate of the inner court that faces east must be kept shut during the six days of work, but on the Sabbath day and on the day of the New Moon it shall be opened.<sup>2</sup> The prince is to enter from the outside through the portico of the gateway and stand by the gatepost, while the priests sacrifice his burnt offerings and peace offerings. He is to bow in worship at the threshold of the gate and then depart, but the gate must not be shut until evening.<sup>3</sup> On the Sabbaths and New Moons the people of the land are also to bow in worship before the LORD at the entrance to that gateway.

<sup>4</sup> The burnt offering that the prince presents to the LORD on the Sabbath day shall be six unblemished male lambs and an unblemished ram.<sup>5</sup> The grain offering with the ram shall be one ephah,* and the grain offering with the lambs shall be as much as he is able, along with a hin of oil per ephah.<sup>6</sup> On the day of the New Moon he shall offer a young, unblemished bull, six lambs, and a ram without blemish.<sup>7</sup> He is to provide a grain offering of an ephah with the bull, an ephah with the ram, and as much as he is able with the lambs, along with a hin of oil per ephah.<sup>8</sup> When the prince enters, he shall go in through the portico of the gateway, and he shall go out the same way.

<sup>9</sup> When the people of the land come before the LORD at the appointed feasts, whoever enters by the north gate to worship must go out by the south gate, and whoever enters by the south gate must go out by the north gate. No one is to return through the gate by which he entered, but each must go out by the opposite gate.

<sup>10</sup> When the people enter, the prince shall go in with them, and when they leave, he shall leave. <sup>11</sup> At the festivals and appointed feasts, the grain offering shall be an ephah with a bull, an ephah with a ram, and as much as one is able to give with the lambs, along with a hin of oil per ephah.

<sup>12</sup> When the prince makes a freewill offering to the LORD, whether a burnt offering or a peace offering, the gate facing east must be opened for him. He is to offer his burnt offering or peace offering just as he does on the Sabbath day. Then he shall go out, and the gate must be closed after he goes out.

<sup>13</sup> And you shall provide an unblemished year-old lamb as a daily burnt offering to the LORD; you are to offer it every morning. <sup>14</sup> You are also to provide with it every morning a grain offering of a sixth of an ephah † with a third of a hin of oil ‡ to moisten the fine flour—a grain offering to the LORD. This is a permanent statute. <sup>15</sup> Thus they shall provide the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil every morning as a regular burnt offering.’

<sup>16</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says: ‘If the prince gives a gift to any of his sons as an inheritance, it will belong to his descendants. It will become their property by inheritance. <sup>17</sup> But if he gives a gift from his inheritance to one of his servants, it will belong to that servant until the year of freedom; then it will revert to the prince. His inheritance belongs only to his sons; it shall be theirs.

<sup>18</sup> The prince must not take any of the inheritance of the people by evicting them from their property. He is to provide an inheritance for his sons from his own property, so that none of My people will be displaced from his property.’ ”

The Courts for Boiling and Baking

<sup>19</sup> Then the man brought me through the entrance at the side of the gate into the holy chambers facing north, which belonged to the priests, and he showed me a place there at the far western end <sup>20</sup> and said to me, “This is the place where the priests shall boil the guilt offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the grain offering, so that they do not bring them into the outer court and transmit holiness to the people.”

<sup>21</sup> Then he brought me into the outer court and led me around to its four corners, and I saw a separate court in each of its corners. <sup>22</sup> In the four corners of the outer court there were enclosed courts, each forty cubits long and thirty cubits wide.§ Each of the four corner areas had the same dimensions. <sup>23</sup> Around the inside of each of the four courts was a row of masonry with ovens built at the base of the walls on all sides.

<sup>24</sup> And he said to me, “These are the kitchens where those who minister at the temple will cook the sacrifices offered by the people.”

47

Waters from under the Temple

<sup>1</sup> Then the man brought me back to the entrance of the temple, and I saw water flowing from under the threshold of the temple toward the east (for the temple faced east). The water was coming down from under the south side of the temple, south of the altar.

<sup>2</sup> Next he brought me out through the north gate and led me around the outside to the outer gate facing east, and there I saw the water trickling out from the south side.

† 46:14 A sixth of an ephah is approximately 3.3 dry quarts or 3.7 liters (probably about 4.2 pounds or 1.9 kilograms of flour). ‡ 46:14 Or a third of a hin of olive oil; that is, approximately 1.3 quarts or 1.2 liters § 46:22 The enclosed courts were approximately 70 feet long and 52.5 feet wide (21.3 meters long and 16 meters wide). * 47:3 1,000 (long) cubits is approximately 1,750 feet or 533.4 meters.

4 Then he measured off a thousand cubits and led me through knee-deep water.

Again he measured a thousand cubits and led me through waist-deep water.

5 Once again he measured off a thousand cubits, but now it was a river that I could not cross, because the water had risen and was deep enough for swimming—a river that could not be crossed on foot.

6 “Son of man, do you see this?” he asked. Then he led me back to the bank of the river.

7 When I arrived, I saw a great number of trees along both banks of the river. 8 And he said to me, “This water flows out to the eastern region and goes down into the Arabah. When it empties into the Sea,† the water there becomes fresh.‡ 9 Wherever the river flows, there will be swarms of living creatures and a great number of fish, because it flows there and makes the waters fresh; so wherever the river flows, everything will flourish.

10 Fishermen will stand by the shore; from En-gedi to En-eglaim they will spread their nets to catch fish of many kinds, like the fish of the Great Sea.§

11 But the swamps and marshes will not become fresh; they will be left for salt.

12 Along both banks of the river, fruit trees of all kinds will grow. Their leaves will not wither, and their fruit will not fail. Each month they will bear fruit, because the water from the sanctuary flows to them. Their fruit will be used for food and their leaves for healing.”

The Borders of the Land

13 This is what the Lord GOD says: “These are the boundaries by which you are to divide the land as an inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel; Joseph shall receive two portions.* 14 You are to divide it equally among them. Because I swore with an uplifted hand to give it to your forefathers, this land will fall to you as an inheritance.

15 This shall be the boundary of the land:

On the north side it will extend from the Great Sea by way of Hethlon through Lebo-hamath to Zedad, 16 Berothah, and Sibraim † (which is on the border between Damascus and Hamath), as far as Hazer-hatticon, which is on the border of Hauran. 17 So the border will run from the Sea to Hazar-enan, along the northern border of Damascus, with the territory of Hamath to the north. This will be the northern boundary.

18 On the east side the border will run between Hauran and Damascus, along the Jordan between Gilead and the land of Israel, to the Eastern Sea and as far as Tamar.‡ This will be the eastern boundary.

19 On the south side it will run from Tamar to the waters of Meribath-kadesh, and along the Brook of Egypt § to the Great Sea. This will be the southern boundary.

20 And on the west side, the Great Sea will be the boundary up to a point opposite Lebo-hamath. This will be the western boundary.

21 You are to divide this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel. 22 You shall allot it as an inheritance for yourselves and for the foreigners who dwell among you and who have children. You are to treat them as native-born Israelites; along with

48

The Portions for the Tribes

At the northern frontier, Dan will have one portion bordering the road of Hethlon to Lebo-hamath and running on to Hazar-enan on the border of Damascus with Hamath to the north, and extending from the east side to the west side.

<sup>7</sup> Judah will have one portion bordering the territory of Reuben from east to west.

The Portions for the Priests and Levites

<sup>8</sup> Bordering the territory of Judah, from east to west, will be the portion you are to set apart. It will be 25,000 cubits wide,* and the length of a tribal portion from east to west. In the center will be the sanctuary.

<sup>10</sup> This will be the holy portion for the priests. It will be 25,000 cubits long on the north side, 10,000 cubits wide on the west side, 10,000 cubits wide on the east side, and 25,000 cubits long on the south side. In the center will be the sanctuary of the LORD. <sup>11</sup> It will be for the consecrated priests, the descendants of Zadok, who kept My charge and did not go astray as the Levites did when the Israelites went astray. <sup>12</sup> It will be a special portion for them set apart from the land, a most holy portion ‡ adjacent to the territory of the Levites.

<sup>13</sup> Bordering the territory of the priests, the Levites shall have an area 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide. The whole length will be 25,000 cubits, and the width 10,000 cubits. <sup>14</sup> They must not sell or exchange any of it, and they must not transfer this best part of the land, for it is holy to the LORD.

The Common Portion

<sup>15</sup> The remaining area, 5,000 cubits § wide and 25,000 cubits long, will be for common use by the city, for houses, and for pastureland. The city will be in the center of it <sup>16</sup> and will have these measurements: 4,500 cubits* on the north side, 4,500 cubits on the south side, 4,500 cubits on the east side, and 4,500 cubits on the west side.

* 48:8 25,000 (long) cubits is approximately 8.3 miles or 13.3 kilometers; also in verses 9, 10, 13, 15, 20, and 21.

† 48:9 10,000 (long) cubits is approximately 3.3 miles or 5.3 kilometers; also in verses 10, 13, and 18. ‡ 48:12 Or a Most Holy Place § 48:15 5,000 (long) cubits is approximately 1.7 miles or 2.7 kilometers. * 48:16 4,500 (long) cubits is approximately 1.5 miles or 2.4 kilometers; also in verses 30, 32, 33, and 34. † 48:17 250 (long) cubits is approximately 437.5 feet or 133.4 meters.

<sup>18</sup> The remainder of the length bordering the holy portion and running adjacent to it will be 10,000 cubits on the east side and 10,000 cubits on the west side. Its produce will supply food for the workers of the city. <sup>19</sup> The workers of the city who cultivate it will come from all the tribes of Israel.

<sup>20</sup> The entire portion will be a square, 25,000 cubits by 25,000 cubits. You are to set apart the holy portion, along with the city property.

The Portion for the Prince

<sup>21</sup> The remaining area on both sides of the holy portion and of the property of the city will belong to the prince. He will own the land adjacent to the tribal portions, extending eastward from the 25,000 cubits of the holy district toward the eastern border, and westward from the 25,000 cubits to the western border. And in the center of them will be the holy portion and the sanctuary of the temple.

<sup>22</sup> So the Levitical property and the city property will lie in the center of the area belonging to the prince—the area between the borders of Judah and Benjamin.

<sup>23</sup> As for the rest of the tribes:

Benjamin will have one portion extending from the east side to the west side.

<sup>24</sup> Simeon will have one portion bordering the territory of Benjamin from east to west.

<sup>25</sup> Issachar will have one portion bordering the territory of Simeon from east to west.

Daniel

Daniel Removed to Babylon

<sup>1</sup> In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. <sup>2</sup> And the Lord delivered into his hand Jehoiakim king of Judah, along with some of the articles from the house of God. He carried these off to the land of Shinar,* to the house of his god, where he put them in the treasury of his god.

<sup>3</sup> Then the king ordered Ashpenaz, the chief of his court officials, to bring in some Israelites from the royal family † and the nobility— <sup>4</sup> young men without blemish, handsome, gifted in all wisdom, knowledgeable, quick to understand, and qualified to serve in the king’s palace—and to teach them the language and literature of the Chaldeans.‡

<sup>5</sup> The king assigned them daily provisions of the royal food and wine. They were to be trained for three years, after which they were to enter the king’s service.

<sup>6</sup> Among these young men were some from Judah: Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. <sup>7</sup> The chief official gave them new names: To Daniel he gave the name Belteshazzar; to Hananiah, Shadrach; to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abednego.

Daniel’s Faithfulness

<sup>8</sup> But Daniel made up his mind that he would not defile himself with the king’s food or wine. So he asked the chief official for permission not to defile himself.

<sup>9</sup> Now God had granted Daniel favor and compassion from the chief official, <sup>10</sup> but he said to Daniel, “I fear my lord the king, who has assigned your food and drink. For why should he see your faces looking thinner than those of the other young men your age? You would endanger my head before the king!”

<sup>14</sup> So he consented to this and tested them for ten days. <sup>15</sup> And at the end of ten days, they looked healthier and better nourished than all the young men who were eating the king’s food. <sup>16</sup> So the steward continued to withhold their choice food and the wine they were to drink, and he gave them vegetables instead.

Daniel’s Wisdom

<sup>17</sup> To these four young men God gave knowledge and understanding in every kind of literature and wisdom. And Daniel had insight into all kinds of visions and dreams.

<sup>18</sup> Now at the end of the time specified by the king, the chief official presented them to Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>19</sup> And the king spoke with them, and among all the young men he found no one equal to Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. So they entered the king’s service.

<sup>20</sup> In every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king consulted them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters in his entire kingdom. <sup>21</sup> And Daniel remained there until the first year of King Cyrus.

Nebuchadnezzar's Troubling Dream

<sup>1</sup> In the second year of his reign, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams that troubled his spirit, and sleep escaped him. <sup>2</sup> So the king gave orders to summon the magicians, enchanters, sorcerers, and astrologers * to explain his dreams. When they came and stood before the king, <sup>3</sup> he said to them, "I have had a dream, and my spirit is anxious to understand it."

<sup>4</sup> Then the astrologers answered the king in Aramaic,† "O king, may you live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will give the interpretation."

<sup>5</sup> The king replied to the astrologers, "My word is final: If you do not tell me the dream and its interpretation, you will be cut into pieces and your houses will be reduced to rubble. <sup>6</sup> But if you tell me the dream and its interpretation, you will receive from me gifts and rewards and great honor: So tell me the dream and its interpretation."

<sup>8</sup> The king replied, "I know for sure that you are stalling for time, because you see that my word is final. <sup>9</sup> If you do not tell me the dream, there is only one decree for you. You have conspired to speak before me false and fraudulent words, hoping the situation will change. Therefore tell me the dream, and I will know that you can give me its interpretation."

<sup>12</sup> This response made the king so furious with anger that he gave orders to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. <sup>13</sup> So the decree went out that the wise men were to be executed, and men went to look for Daniel and his friends to execute them.

The Dream Revealed to Daniel

<sup>14</sup> When Arioch, the commander of the king's guard, had gone out to execute the wise men of Babylon, Daniel replied with discretion and tact. <sup>15</sup> "Why is the decree from the king so harsh?" he asked.

At this time Arioch explained the situation to Daniel. <sup>16</sup> So Daniel went in and asked the king to give him some time, so that he could give him the interpretation.

<sup>17</sup> Then Daniel returned to his house and explained the matter to his friends Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, <sup>18</sup> urging them to plead for mercy from the God of heaven concerning this mystery, so that Daniel and his friends would not be killed with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

<sup>19</sup> During the night, the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision, and he blessed the God of heaven <sup>20</sup> and declared:

"Blessed be the name of God forever and ever,
for wisdom and power belong to Him.

<sup>21</sup> He changes the times and seasons;
He removes kings and establishes them.

He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to the discerning.

<sup>22</sup> He reveals the deep and hidden things;
He knows what lies in darkness,

* 2:2 Or Chaldeans; also in verses 4, 5, and 10 † 2:4 The original text from this point of Daniel 2:4 through Daniel 7:28 is in Aramaic.

and light dwells with Him.
 23 To You, O God of my fathers,
 I give thanks and praise,
 because You have given me wisdom and power.
 And now You have made known to me
 what we have requested, for You have made known to us
 the dream of the king.”

Daniel Interprets the Dream

24 Therefore Daniel went to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon, and said to him, “Do not execute the wise men of Babylon! Bring me before the king, and I will give him the interpretation.”

25 Arioch hastily brought Daniel before the king and said to him, “I have found a man among the exiles from Judah who will tell the king the interpretation.”

26 The king responded to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, “Are you able to tell me what I saw in the dream, as well as its interpretation?”

27 Daniel answered the king, “No wise man, enchanter, medium, or magician can explain to the king the mystery of which he inquires. 28 But there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries, and He has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen in the latter days. Your dream and the visions that came into your mind as you lay on your bed were these:

29 As you lay on your bed, O king, your thoughts turned to the future, and the Revealer of Mysteries made known to you what will happen. 30 And to me this mystery has been revealed, not because I have more wisdom than any man alive, but in order that the interpretation might be made known to the king, and that you may understand the thoughts of your mind.

31 As you, O king, were watching, a great statue ‡ appeared. A great and dazzling statue stood before you, and its form was awesome. 32 The head of the statue was pure gold, its chest and arms were silver, its belly and thighs were bronze, 33 its legs were iron, and its feet were part iron and part clay.

34 As you watched, a stone was cut out, § but not by human hands. It struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay, and crushed them. 35 Then the iron, clay, bronze, silver, and gold were shattered and became like chaff on the threshing floor in summer. The wind carried them away, and not a trace of them could be found. But the stone that had struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

36 This was the dream; now we will tell the king its interpretation.

37 You, O king, are the king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given sovereignty, power, strength, and glory. 38 Wherever the sons of men or beasts of the field or birds of the air dwell, He has given them into your hand and has made you ruler over them all. You are that head of gold.

39 But after you, there will arise another kingdom, inferior to yours.

Next, a third kingdom, one of bronze, will rule the whole earth.

40 Finally, there will be a fourth kingdom as strong as iron; for iron shatters and crushes all things, and like iron that crushes all things, it will shatter and crush all the others.

41 And just as you saw that the feet and toes were made partly of fired clay and partly of iron, so this will be a divided kingdom, yet some of the strength of iron will be in it—just as you saw the iron mixed with clay. 42 And as the toes of the feet were partly iron and partly clay, so this kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle. <sup>43</sup> As you saw the iron mixed with clay, so the peoples * will mix with one another, but will not hold together any more than iron mixes with clay.

<sup>44</sup> In the days of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will it be left to another people. It will shatter all these kingdoms and bring them to an end, but will itself stand forever. <sup>45</sup> And just as you saw a stone being cut out of the mountain without human hands, and it shattered the iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold, so the great God has told the king what will happen in the future.

The dream is true, and its interpretation is trustworthy.”

Nebuchadnezzar Promotes Daniel

<sup>46</sup> At this, King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, paid homage to Daniel, and ordered that an offering of incense be presented to him. <sup>47</sup> The king said to Daniel, “Your God is truly the God of gods and Lord of kings, the Revealer of Mysteries, since you were able to reveal this mystery.”

<sup>48</sup> Then the king promoted Daniel and gave him many generous gifts. He made him ruler over the entire province of Babylon and chief administrator over all the wise men of Babylon. <sup>49</sup> And at Daniel’s request, the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to manage the province of Babylon, while Daniel remained in the king’s court.

Nebuchadnezzar’s Golden Statue

<sup>1</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar made a golden statue * sixty cubits high and six cubits wide,† and he set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon. <sup>2</sup> Then King Nebuchadnezzar sent word to assemble the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the other officials of the provinces to attend the dedication of the statue he had set up.

<sup>3</sup> So the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the rulers of the provinces assembled for the dedication of the statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up, and they stood before it.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, as soon as all the people heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, and all kinds of music, the people of every nation and language would fall down and worship the golden statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego Accused

<sup>8</sup> At this time some astrologers § came forward and maliciously accused the Jews, <sup>9</sup> saying to King Nebuchadnezzar, “O king, may you live forever! <sup>10</sup> You, O king, have issued a decree that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes, and all kinds of music must fall down and worship the golden statue, <sup>11</sup> and that whoever does not fall down and worship will be thrown into the blazing fiery furnace. <sup>12</sup> But there are some Jews you have appointed to manage the province of Babylon—Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego—who have ignored you, O king, and have refused to serve your gods or worship the golden statue you have set up.”

* 2:43 Aramaic the seed of men * 3:1 Or image; here and throughout Daniel 3 † 3:1 The statue was approximately 90 feet high and 9 feet wide (27.4 meters high and 2.7 meters wide). ‡ 3:5 The precise identification of some musical instruments in this chapter is uncertain. § 3:8 Or Chaldeans

13 Then Nebuchadnezzar, furious with rage, summoned Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. So these men were brought before the king, <sup>14</sup> and Nebuchadnezzar said to them, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, is it true that you do not serve my gods or worship the golden statue I have set up? <sup>15</sup> Now, if you are ready, as soon as you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes, and all kinds of music, you must fall down and worship the statue I have made. But if you refuse to worship, you will be thrown at once into the blazing fiery furnace. Then what god will be able to deliver you from my hands?"

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego replied to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. <sup>17</sup> If the God whom we serve exists, then He is able * to deliver us from the blazing fiery furnace and from your hand, O king. <sup>18</sup> But even if He does not, let it be known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the golden statue you have set up."

The Fiery Furnace

19 At this, Nebuchadnezzar was filled with rage, and the expression on his face changed toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He gave orders to heat the furnace seven times hotter than usual, <sup>20</sup> and he commanded some mighty men of valor in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and throw them into the blazing fiery furnace.

21 So they were tied up, wearing robes, trousers, turbans, and other clothes, and they were thrown into the blazing fiery furnace.

22 The king's command was so urgent and the furnace so hot that the fiery flames killed the men who carried up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. <sup>23</sup> And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, firmly bound, fell into the blazing fiery furnace.

24 Suddenly King Nebuchadnezzar jumped up in amazement and asked his advisers, "Did we not throw three men, firmly bound, into the fire?"

"Certainly, O king," they replied.

25 "Look!" he exclaimed. "I see four men, unbound and unharmed, walking around in the fire—and the fourth looks like a son of the gods!"

26 Then Nebuchadnezzar approached the door of the blazing fiery furnace and called out, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come out!"

So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the fire, <sup>27</sup> and when the satraps, prefects, governors, and royal advisers had gathered around, they saw that the fire had no effect on the bodies of these men. Not a hair of their heads was singed, their robes were unaffected, and there was no smell of fire on them.

28 Nebuchadnezzar declared, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent His angel ‡ and delivered His servants who trusted in Him. They violated the king's command and risked their lives rather than serve or worship any god except their own God. <sup>29</sup> Therefore I decree that the people of any nation or language who say anything offensive against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego will be cut into pieces and their houses reduced to rubble. For there is no other god who can deliver in this way."

30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream of a Great Tree

<sup>4</sup> I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at ease in my house and flourishing in my palace. <sup>5</sup> I had a dream, and it frightened me; while in my bed, the images and visions in my mind alarmed me. <sup>6</sup> So I issued a decree that all the wise men of Babylon be brought before me to interpret the dream for me. <sup>7</sup> When the magicians, enchanters, astrologers,* and diviners came in, I told them the dream, and they could not interpret it for me.

<sup>8</sup> But at last, into my presence came Daniel (whose name is Belteshazzar after the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods). And I told him the dream: <sup>9</sup> "O Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you and that no mystery baffles you. So explain to me the visions I saw in my dream, and their interpretation. <sup>10</sup> In these visions of my mind as I was lying in bed, I saw this come to pass:

There was a tree in the midst of the land,
and its height was great.

<sup>11</sup> The tree grew large and strong;
its top reached the sky,
and it was visible

to the ends of the earth.

<sup>12</sup> Its leaves were beautiful,
its fruit was abundant,
and upon it was food for all.

Under it the beasts of the field found shelter,
in its branches the birds of the air nested,
and from it every creature was fed.

<sup>13</sup> As I lay on my bed, I also saw in the visions of my mind a watcher,† a holy one, coming down from heaven. <sup>14</sup> He called out in a loud voice:

'Cut down the tree and chop off its branches;
strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit.

Let the beasts flee from under it,
and the birds from its branches.

<sup>15</sup> But leave the stump with its roots in the ground,
and a band of iron and bronze around it,
in the tender grass of the field.

Let him be drenched with the dew of heaven and graze with the beasts on the grass of the earth.

<sup>16</sup> Let his mind be changed from that of a man, and let him be given the mind of a beast till seven times pass him by.

<sup>17</sup> This decision is the decree of the watchers, the verdict declared by the holy ones,
so that the living will know that the Most High rules over the kingdom of mankind and gives it to whom He wishes, setting over it the lowliest of men.'

* 4:7 Or Chaldeans † 4:13 Or an angelic watcher or a messenger; also in verses 17 and 23

<sup>18</sup> This is the dream that I, King Nebuchadnezzar, saw. Now, Belteshazzar, tell me the interpretation, because none of the wise men of my kingdom can interpret it for me. But you are able, because the spirit of the holy gods is in you.”

Daniel Interprets the Second Dream

<sup>19</sup> For a time, Daniel, who was also known as Belteshazzar, was perplexed, and his thoughts alarmed him.

So the king said, “Belteshazzar, do not let the dream or its interpretation alarm you.”

“My lord,” replied Belteshazzar, “may the dream apply to those who hate you, and its interpretation to your enemies!

<sup>20</sup> The tree you saw that grew large and strong, whose top reached the sky and was visible to all the earth, <sup>21</sup> whose foliage was beautiful and whose fruit was abundant, providing food for all, under which the beasts of the field lived, and in whose branches the birds of the air nested— <sup>22</sup> you, O king, are that tree! For you have become great and strong; your greatness has grown to reach the sky, and your dominion extends to the ends of the earth.

‘Cut down the tree and destroy it,
but leave the stump with its roots in the ground,
and a band of iron and bronze around it,
in the tender grass of the field.

Let him be drenched with the dew of heaven,
and graze with the beasts of the field
till seven times pass him by.’

<sup>25</sup> You will be driven away from mankind, and your dwelling will be with the beasts of the field. You will feed on grass like an ox and be drenched with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass you by, until you acknowledge that the Most High rules over the kingdom of mankind and gives it to whom He wishes.

<sup>26</sup> As for the command to leave the stump of the tree with its roots, your kingdom will be restored to you as soon as you acknowledge that Heaven rules. <sup>27</sup> Therefore, may my advice be pleasing to you, O king. Break away from your sins by doing what is right, and from your iniquities by showing mercy to the oppressed. Perhaps there will be an extension of your prosperity.”

The Second Dream Fulfilled

<sup>28</sup> All this happened to King Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>29</sup> Twelve months later, as he was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon, <sup>30</sup> the king exclaimed, “Is this not Babylon the Great, which I myself have built by the might of my power as a royal residence and for the glory of my majesty?”

<sup>31</sup> While the words were still in the king’s mouth, a voice came from heaven: “It is decreed to you, King Nebuchadnezzar, that the kingdom has departed from you. <sup>32</sup> You will be driven away from mankind to live with the beasts of the field, and you will feed on grass like an ox. And seven times will pass you by, until you acknowledge that the Most High rules over the kingdom of mankind and gives it to whom He wishes.”

<sup>33</sup> At that moment the sentence against Nebuchadnezzar was fulfilled. He was driven away from mankind. He ate grass like an ox, and his body was drenched with the dew of heaven, until his hair grew like the feathers of an eagle and his nails like the claws of a bird.

Nebuchadnezzar Restored

<sup>34</sup> But at the end of those days I, Nebuchadnezzar, looked up to heaven, and my sanity was restored to me. Then I praised the Most High, and I honored and glorified Him who lives forever:

“For His dominion is an everlasting dominion, and His kingdom endures from generation to generation.

<sup>35</sup> All the peoples of the earth are counted as nothing, and He does as He pleases with the army of heaven and the peoples of the earth.

There is no one who can restrain His hand or say to Him, ‘What have You done?’ ”

<sup>36</sup> At the same time my sanity was restored, my honor and splendor returned to me for the glory of my kingdom. My advisers and nobles sought me out, and I was restored to my throne, and surpassing greatness was added to me. <sup>37</sup> Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and exalt and glorify the King of heaven, for all His works are true and all His ways are just. And He is able to humble those who walk in pride.

5Belshazzar’s Feast*

<sup>3</sup> Thus they brought in the gold vessels that had been taken from the temple, the house of God in Jerusalem, and the king drank from them, along with his nobles, his wives, and his concubines. <sup>4</sup> As they drank the wine, they praised their gods of gold and silver, bronze and iron, wood and stone.

The Handwriting on the Wall

<sup>5</sup> At that moment the fingers of a human hand appeared and wrote on the plaster of the wall, near the lampstand in the royal palace. As the king watched the hand that was writing, <sup>6</sup> his face grew pale and his thoughts so alarmed him that his hips gave way and his knees knocked together.

<sup>7</sup> The king called out for the enchanters, astrologers,‡ and diviners to be brought in, and he said to these wise men of Babylon, “Whoever reads this inscription and tells me its interpretation will be clothed in purple and have a gold chain placed around his neck, and he will be made the third highest ruler in the kingdom.”

<sup>8</sup> So all the king’s wise men came in, but they could not read the inscription or interpret it for him. <sup>9</sup> Then King Belshazzar became even more terrified, his face grew even more pale, and his nobles were bewildered.

<sup>10</sup> Hearing the outcry of the king and his nobles, the queen § entered the banquet hall. “O king, may you live forever!” she said. “Do not let your thoughts terrify you, or your face grow pale. <sup>11</sup> There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods in him. In the days of your father he was found to have insight, intelligence, and wisdom like that of the gods.

Your father, King Nebuchadnezzar, appointed him chief of the magicians, enchanters, astrologers, and diviners. Your own father, the king, <sup>12</sup> did this because Daniel, the one he named Belteshazzar, was found to have an extraordinary spirit, as well as knowledge, understanding, and the ability to interpret dreams, explain riddles, and solve difficult problems. Summon Daniel, therefore, and he will give you the interpretation.”

Daniel Interprets the Handwriting

<sup>13</sup> So Daniel was brought before the king, who asked him, “Are you Daniel, one of the exiles my father the king brought from Judah? <sup>14</sup> I have heard that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that you have insight, intelligence, and extraordinary wisdom.

<sup>15</sup> Now the wise men and enchanters were brought before me to read this inscription and interpret it for me, but they could not give its interpretation. <sup>16</sup> But I have heard about you, that you are able to give interpretations and solve difficult problems. Therefore, if you can read this inscription and give me its interpretation, you will be clothed in purple and have a gold chain placed around your neck, and you will be made the third highest ruler in the kingdom.”

<sup>17</sup> In response, Daniel said to the king, “You may keep your gifts for yourself and give your rewards to someone else. Nevertheless, I will read the inscription for the king and interpret it for him. <sup>18</sup> As for you, O king, the Most High God gave your father Nebuchadnezzar sovereignty and greatness, glory and honor. <sup>19</sup> Because of the greatness that He bestowed on him, the people of every nation and language trembled in fear before him. He killed whom he wished and kept alive whom he wished; he exalted whom he wished and humbled whom he wished.

<sup>20</sup> But when his heart became arrogant and his spirit was hardened with pride, he was deposed from his royal throne, and his glory was taken from him. <sup>21</sup> He was driven away from mankind, and his mind was like that of a beast. He lived with the wild donkeys and ate grass like an ox, and his body was drenched with the dew of heaven until he acknowledged that the Most High God rules over the kingdom of mankind, setting over it whom He wishes.

<sup>22</sup> But you his son,* O Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, even though you knew all this. <sup>23</sup> Instead, you have exalted yourself against the Lord of heaven. The vessels from His house were brought to you, and as you drank wine from them with your nobles, wives, and concubines, you praised your gods of silver and gold, bronze and iron, wood and stone, which cannot see or hear or understand. But you have failed to glorify the God who holds in His hand your very breath and all your ways. <sup>24</sup> Therefore He sent the hand that wrote the inscription.

MENE, MENE, TEKEL, PARSIN.

MENE † means that God has numbered the days of your reign and brought it to an end.

<sup>27</sup> TEKEL ‡ means that you have been weighed on the scales and found deficient.

<sup>28</sup> PERES § means that your kingdom has been divided and given over to the Medes and Persians.”

<sup>29</sup> Then Belshazzar gave the command, and they clothed Daniel in purple, placed a gold chain around his neck, and proclaimed him the third highest ruler in the kingdom.

* 5:22 Or descendant or successor or grandson † 5:26 Mene sounds like the Aramaic for numbered. ‡ 5:27 Tekel sounds like the Aramaic for weighed. § 5:28 Peres (the singular of Parsin) sounds like the Aramaic for divided and for Persia.

The Plot against Daniel

<sup>1</sup> Now it pleased Darius to appoint 120 satraps to rule throughout the kingdom, <sup>2</sup> and over them three administrators, including Daniel, to whom these satraps were accountable so that the king would not suffer loss. <sup>3</sup> Soon, by his extraordinary spirit, Daniel distinguished himself among the administrators and satraps. So the king planned to set him over the whole kingdom.

<sup>4</sup> Thus the administrators and satraps sought a charge against Daniel concerning the kingdom, but they could find no charge or corruption, because he was trustworthy, and no negligence or corruption was found in him. <sup>5</sup> Finally these men said, "We will never find any charge against this Daniel, unless we find something against him concerning the law of his God."

<sup>6</sup> So the administrators and satraps went together to the king and said, "O King Darius, may you live forever! <sup>7</sup> All the royal administrators, prefects, satraps, advisers, and governors have agreed that the king should establish an ordinance and enforce a decree that for thirty days anyone who petitions any god or man except you, O king, will be thrown into the den of lions. <sup>8</sup> Therefore, O king, establish the decree and sign the document so that it cannot be changed—in accordance with the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed."

Daniel in the Lions' Den

<sup>10</sup> Now when Daniel learned that the document had been signed, he went into his house, where the windows of his upper room opened toward Jerusalem, and three times a day he got down on his knees, prayed, and gave thanks to his God, just as he had done before. <sup>11</sup> Then these men went as a group and found Daniel petitioning and imploring his God. <sup>12</sup> So they approached the king and asked about his royal decree: "Did you not sign a decree that for thirty days any man who petitions any god or man except you, O king, will be thrown into the den of lions?"

The king replied, "According to the law of the Medes and Persians the order stands, and it cannot be repealed."

<sup>13</sup> Then they told the king, "Daniel, one of the exiles from Judah, shows no regard for you, O king, or for the decree that you have signed. He still makes his petition three times a day."

<sup>14</sup> As soon as the king heard this, he was deeply distressed and set his mind on delivering Daniel, and he labored until sundown to rescue him.

<sup>15</sup> Then the men approached the king together and said to him, "Remember, O king, that by the law of the Medes and Persians no decree or ordinance established by the king can be changed."

<sup>16</sup> So the king gave the order, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the den of lions.

The king said to Daniel, "May your God, whom you serve continually, deliver you!"

<sup>17</sup> A stone was brought and placed over the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the rings of his nobles, so that nothing concerning Daniel could be changed.

* 5:30 That is, the Babylonians

<sup>18</sup> Then the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting. No entertainment was brought before him, and sleep fled from him.

<sup>19</sup> At the first light of dawn, the king got up and hurried to the den of lions. <sup>20</sup> When he reached the den, he cried out in a voice of anguish, "O Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to deliver you from the lions?"

<sup>21</sup> Then Daniel replied, "O king, may you live forever! <sup>22</sup> My God sent His angel and shut the mouths of the lions. They have not hurt me, for I was found innocent in His sight, and I have done no wrong against you, O king."

<sup>23</sup> The king was overjoyed and gave orders to lift Daniel out of the den, and when Daniel was lifted out of the den, no wounds whatsoever were found on him, because he had trusted in his God.

<sup>24</sup> At the command of the king, the men who had falsely accused Daniel were brought and thrown into the den of lions—they and their children and wives. And before they had reached the bottom of the den, the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.

Darius Honors God

<sup>25</sup> Then King Darius wrote to the people of every nation and language throughout the land: "May your prosperity abound. <sup>26</sup> I hereby decree that in every part of my kingdom, men are to tremble in fear before the God of Daniel:

For He is the living God,
and He endures forever;
His kingdom will never be destroyed,
and His dominion will never end.
<sup>27</sup> He delivers and rescues;
He performs signs and wonders
in the heavens and on the earth,
for He has rescued Daniel from the power of the lions."

<sup>28</sup> So Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus * the Persian.

Daniel's Vision of the Four Beasts (Revelation 13:1-10)

<sup>1</sup> In the first year of the reign of Belshazzar over Babylon, Daniel had a dream, and visions passed through his mind as he lay on his bed. He wrote down the dream, and this is the summary of his account.

<sup>2</sup> Daniel declared: "In my vision in the night I looked, and suddenly the four winds of heaven were churning up the great sea.* <sup>3</sup> Then four great beasts came up out of the sea, each one different from the others:

<sup>4</sup> The first beast was like a lion, and it had the wings of an eagle. I watched until its wings were torn off and it was lifted up from the ground and made to stand on two feet like a man, and given the mind of a man.

<sup>5</sup> Suddenly another beast appeared, which looked like a bear. It was raised up on one of its sides, and it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. So it was told, 'Get up and gorge yourself on flesh!'

* 6:28 Or prospered during the reign of Darius, that is, the reign of Cyrus
the Mediterranean Sea

* 7:2 Perhaps the Great Sea, that is,

<sup>6</sup> Next, as I watched, another beast appeared. It was like a leopard, and on its back it had four wings like those of a bird. The beast also had four heads, and it was given authority to rule.

<sup>7</sup> After this, as I watched in my vision in the night, suddenly a fourth beast appeared, and it was terrifying—dreadful and extremely strong—with large iron teeth. It devoured and crushed; then it trampled underfoot whatever was left. It was different from all the beasts before it, and it had ten horns. <sup>8</sup> While I was contemplating the horns, suddenly another horn, a little one, came up among them, and three of the first horns were uprooted before it. This horn had eyes like those of a man and a mouth that spoke words of arrogance.

thrones were set in place,
and the Ancient of Days took His seat.
His clothing was white as snow,
and the hair of His head was like pure wool.

His throne was flaming with fire,
and its wheels were all ablaze.

<sup>10</sup> A river of fire was flowing, coming out from His presence.

Thousands upon thousands attended Him,
and myriads upon myriads stood before Him.

The court was convened,
and the books were opened.

<sup>11</sup> Then I kept watching because of the arrogant words the horn was speaking. As I continued to watch, the beast was slain, and its body was destroyed and thrown into the blazing fire. <sup>12</sup> As for the rest of the beasts, their dominion was removed, but they were granted an extension of life for a season and a time.

Daniel's Vision of the Son of Man

<sup>13</sup> In my vision in the night I continued to watch, and I saw One like the Son of Man † coming with the clouds of heaven.‡

He approached the Ancient of Days and was led into His presence.

<sup>14</sup> And He was given dominion, glory, and kingship,
that the people of every nation and language should serve Him.

His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and His kingdom is one that will never be destroyed.

Daniel's Visions Interpreted

<sup>15</sup> I, Daniel, was grieved in my spirit, and the visions in my mind alarmed me. <sup>16</sup> I approached one of those who were standing there, and I asked him the true meaning of all this.

So he told me the interpretation of these things: <sup>17</sup> 'These four great beasts are four kings who will arise from the earth. <sup>18</sup> But the saints of the Most High will receive the kingdom and possess it forever—yes, forever and ever.'

<sup>19</sup> Then I wanted to know the true meaning of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others—extremely terrifying—devouring and crushing with iron teeth and bronze claws, then trampling underfoot whatever was left. <sup>20</sup> I also wanted to know about the ten horns on its head and the other horn that came up, before which three of them fell—the horn whose appearance was more imposing than the others, with eyes and with a mouth that spoke words of arrogance. <sup>21</sup> As I watched, this horn was waging war against the saints and prevailing against them, <sup>22</sup> until the Ancient of Days arrived and pronounced judgment in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came for them to possess the kingdom.

<sup>23</sup> This is what he said: “The fourth beast is a fourth kingdom that will appear on the earth, different from all the other kingdoms, and it will devour the whole earth, trample it down, and crush it. <sup>24</sup> And the ten horns are ten kings who will rise from this kingdom. After them another king, different from the earlier ones, will rise and subdue three kings. <sup>25</sup> He will speak out against the Most High and oppress the saints of the Most High, intending to change the appointed times and laws; and the saints will be given into his hand for a time, and times, and half a time.

<sup>26</sup> But the court will convene, and his dominion will be taken away and completely destroyed forever. <sup>27</sup> Then the sovereignty, dominion, and greatness of the kingdoms under all of heaven will be given to the people, the saints of the Most High. His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all rulers will serve and obey Him.’

<sup>28</sup> Thus ends the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts troubled me greatly, and my face turned pale. But I kept the matter to myself.”

Daniel's Vision of the Ram and the Goat

<sup>1</sup> In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar, a vision appeared to me, Daniel, subsequent to the one that had appeared to me earlier. <sup>2</sup> And in the vision I saw myself in the citadel of Susa, in the province of Elam. I saw in the vision that I was beside the Ulai Canal.

<sup>3</sup> Then I lifted up my eyes and saw a ram with two horns standing beside the canal. The horns were long, but one was longer than the other, and the longer one grew up later. <sup>4</sup> I saw the ram charging toward the west and the north and the south. No animal could stand against him, and there was no deliverance from his power. He did as he pleased and became great.

<sup>5</sup> As I was contemplating all this, suddenly a goat with a prominent horn between his eyes came out of the west, crossing the surface of the entire earth without touching the ground. <sup>6</sup> He came toward the two-horned ram I had seen standing beside the canal and rushed at him with furious power. <sup>7</sup> I saw him approach the ram in a rage against him, and he struck the ram and shattered his two horns. The ram was powerless to stand against him, and the goat threw him to the ground and trampled him, and no one could deliver the ram from his power.

<sup>9</sup> From one of these horns a little horn emerged and grew extensively toward the south and the east and toward the Beautiful Land. <sup>10</sup> It grew as high as the host of heaven, and it cast down some of the host and some of the stars to the earth, and trampled them. <sup>11</sup> It magnified itself, even to the Prince of the host; it removed His daily sacrifice and overthrew the place of His sanctuary. <sup>12</sup> And in the rebellion,* the host and the daily sacrifice were given over to the horn, and it flung truth to the ground and prospered in whatever it did.

* 8:12 Or on account of transgression

<sup>13</sup> Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one said to him, "How long until the fulfillment of the vision of the daily sacrifice, the rebellion that causes desolation, and the surrender of the sanctuary and of the host to be trampled?"

<sup>14</sup> He said to me, "It will take 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be properly restored."

Gabriel Interprets Daniel's Vision

<sup>15</sup> While I, Daniel, was watching the vision and trying to understand it, there stood before me one having the appearance of a man. <sup>16</sup> And I heard the voice of a man calling from between the banks of the Ulai: "Gabriel, explain the vision to this man."

<sup>17</sup> As he came near to where I stood, I was terrified and fell facedown.

"Son of man," he said to me, "understand that the vision concerns the time of the end."

<sup>18</sup> While he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep, with my face to the ground.

Then he touched me, helped me to my feet, <sup>19</sup> and said, "Behold, I will make known to you what will happen in the latter time of wrath, because it concerns the appointed time of the end.

<sup>23</sup> In the latter part of their reign, when the rebellion has reached its full measure, an insolent king, skilled in intrigue, will come to the throne. <sup>24</sup> His power will be great, but it will not be his own. He will cause terrible destruction and succeed in whatever he does. He will destroy the mighty men along with the holy people. <sup>25</sup> Through his craft and by his hand, he will cause deceit to prosper, and in his own mind he will make himself great. In a time of peace he will destroy many, and he will even stand against the Prince of princes. Yet he will be broken off, but not by human hands.

<sup>26</sup> The vision of the evenings and the mornings that has been spoken is true. Now you must seal up the vision, for it concerns the distant future."

<sup>27</sup> I, Daniel, was exhausted and lay ill for days. Then I got up and went about the king's business. I was confounded by the vision; it was beyond understanding.

Daniel's Prayer for His People

<sup>4</sup> And I prayed to the LORD my God and confessed, "O, Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps His covenant of loving devotion § to those who love Him and keep His commandments, <sup>5</sup> we have sinned and done wrong. We have acted wickedly and rebelled. We have turned away from Your commandments and ordinances. <sup>6</sup> We have not listened to Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings, leaders, and fathers, and to all the people of the land.

<sup>7</sup> To You, O Lord, belongs righteousness, but this day we are covered with shame—the men of Judah, the people of Jerusalem, and all Israel near and far, in all the countries to which You have driven us because of our unfaithfulness to You. <sup>8</sup> O LORD, we are covered with shame—our kings, our leaders, and our fathers—because we have sinned against You.

<sup>9</sup> To the Lord our God belong compassion and forgiveness, even though we have rebelled against Him <sup>10</sup> and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God to walk in His laws, which He set before us through His servants the prophets.

<sup>11</sup> All Israel has transgressed Your law and turned away, refusing to obey Your voice; so the oath and the curse written in the Law of Moses the servant of God has been poured out on us, because we have sinned against You. <sup>12</sup> You have carried out the words spoken against us and against our rulers by bringing upon us a great disaster. For under all of heaven, nothing has ever been done like what has been done to Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> Just as it is written in the Law of Moses, all this disaster has come upon us, yet we have not sought the favor of the LORD our God by turning from our iniquities and giving attention to Your truth. <sup>14</sup> Therefore the LORD has kept the calamity in store and brought it upon us. For the LORD our God is righteous in all He does; yet we have not obeyed His voice.

<sup>15</sup> Now, O Lord our God, who brought Your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and who made for Yourself a name renowned to this day, we have sinned; we have acted wickedly. <sup>16</sup> O Lord, in keeping with all Your righteous acts, I pray that Your anger and wrath may turn away from Your city Jerusalem, Your holy mountain; for because of our sins and the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and Your people are a reproach to all around us.

<sup>17</sup> So now, our God, hear the prayers and petitions of Your servant. For Your sake, O Lord, cause Your face to shine upon Your desolate sanctuary. <sup>18</sup> Incline Your ear, O my God, and hear; open Your eyes and see the desolation of the city that bears Your name. For we are not presenting our petitions before You because of our righteous acts, but because of Your great compassion.

<sup>19</sup> O Lord, listen! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, hear and act! For Your sake, O my God, do not delay, because Your city and Your people bear Your name.”

Gabriel's Prophecy of the Seventy Weeks

<sup>20</sup> While I was speaking, praying, confessing my sin and that of my people Israel, and presenting my petition before the LORD my God concerning His holy mountain— <sup>21</sup> while I was still praying, Gabriel, the man I had seen in the earlier vision, came to me in swift flight about the time of the evening sacrifice. <sup>22</sup> He instructed me and spoke with me, saying: “O Daniel, I have come now to give you insight and understanding. <sup>23</sup> At the beginning of your petitions, an answer went out, and I have come to tell you, for you are highly precious. So consider the message and understand the vision:

<sup>24</sup> Seventy weeks * are decreed for your people and your holy city to stop their transgression, to put an end to sin, to make atonement for iniquity, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy Place.†

<sup>25</sup> Know and understand this: From the issuance of the decree to restore and rebuild Jerusalem, until the Messiah,‡ the Prince, there will be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks. It will be rebuilt with streets and a trench, but in times of distress.

<sup>26</sup> Then after the sixty-two weeks § the Messiah will be cut off and will have nothing.

Then the people of the prince who is to come will destroy the city and the sanctuary. The end will come like a flood, and until the end there will be war; desolations have

Daniel's Vision by the Tigris

<sup>1</sup> In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia, a message was revealed to Daniel, who was called Belteshazzar. The message was true, and it concerned a great conflict.* And the understanding of the message was given to him in a vision.

<sup>2</sup> In those days I, Daniel, was mourning for three full weeks. <sup>3</sup> I ate no rich food, no meat or wine entered my mouth, and I did not anoint myself with oil until the three weeks were completed.

<sup>4</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was standing on the bank of the great river, the Tigris, <sup>5</sup> I lifted up my eyes, and behold, there was a certain man dressed in linen, with a belt of fine gold from Uphaz around his waist. <sup>6</sup> His body was like beryl, his face like the brilliance of lightning, his eyes like flaming torches, his arms and legs like the gleam of polished bronze, and his voice like the sound of a multitude.

<sup>7</sup> Only I, Daniel, saw the vision; the men with me did not see it, but a great terror fell upon them, and they ran and hid themselves.

<sup>8</sup> So I was left alone, gazing at this great vision. No strength remained in me; my face grew deathly pale, and I was powerless. <sup>9</sup> I heard the sound of his words, and as I listened, I fell into a deep sleep, with my face to the ground.

<sup>10</sup> Suddenly, a hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees. <sup>11</sup> He said to me, "Daniel, you are a man who is highly precious. Consider carefully the words that I am about to say to you. Stand up, for I have now been sent to you."

And when he had said this to me, I stood up trembling.

<sup>12</sup> "Do not be afraid, Daniel," he said, "for from the first day that you purposed to understand and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come in response to them. <sup>13</sup> However, the prince of the kingdom of Persia opposed me for twenty-one days. Then Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I had been left there with the kings of Persia. <sup>14</sup> Now I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the latter days, for the vision concerns those days."

<sup>15</sup> While he was speaking these words to me, I set my face toward the ground and became speechless. <sup>16</sup> And suddenly one with the likeness of a man † touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and said to the one standing before me, "My lord, because of the vision, I am overcome with anguish, and I have no strength. <sup>17</sup> How can I, your servant, speak with you, my lord? Now I have no strength, nor is any breath left in me."

<sup>18</sup> Again the one with the likeness of a man touched me and strengthened me. <sup>19</sup> "Do not be afraid, you who are highly precious," he said. "Peace be with you! Be strong now; be very strong!"

As he spoke with me, I was strengthened and said, "Speak, my lord, for you have strengthened me."

Yet no one has the courage to support me against these, except Michael your prince.

Kings of the South and North

<sup>1</sup> “And I, in the first year of Darius the Mede, stood up to strengthen and protect him.

<sup>2</sup> Now then, I will tell you the truth: Three more kings will arise in Persia, and then a fourth, who will be far richer than all the others. By the power of his wealth, he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece.*

<sup>3</sup> Then a mighty king will arise, who will rule with great authority and do as he pleases. <sup>4</sup> But as soon as he is established, his kingdom will be broken up and parceled out toward the four winds of heaven. It will not go to his descendants, nor will it have the authority with which he ruled, because his kingdom will be uprooted and given to others.

<sup>6</sup> After some years they will form an alliance, and the daughter of the king of the South will go to the king of the North to seal the agreement. But his daughter will not retain her position of power, nor will his strength † endure. At that time she will be given up, along with her royal escort and her father ‡ and the one who supported her.

<sup>7</sup> But one from her family line § will rise up in his place, come against the army of the king of the North, and enter his fortress, fighting and prevailing. <sup>8</sup> He will take even their gods captive to Egypt, with their metal images and their precious vessels of silver and gold. For some years he will stay away from the king of the North, <sup>9</sup> who will invade the realm of the king of the South and then return to his own land.

<sup>12</sup> When the army is carried off, the king of the South will be proud in heart and will cast down tens of thousands, but he will not triumph. <sup>13</sup> For the king of the North will raise another army, larger than the first, and after some years* he will advance with a great army and many supplies.

<sup>14</sup> In those times many will rise up against the king of the South. Violent ones among your own people will exalt themselves in fulfillment of the vision, but they will fail.

<sup>15</sup> Then the king of the North will come, build up a siege ramp, and capture a fortified city. The forces of the South will not stand; even their best troops will not be able to resist. <sup>16</sup> The invader will do as he pleases, and no one will stand against him. He will establish himself in the Beautiful Land, with destruction in his hand. <sup>17</sup> He will resolve to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and will reach an agreement with the king of the South. He will give him a daughter in marriage in order to overthrow the kingdom, but his plan will not succeed or help him.†

<sup>18</sup> Then he will turn his face to the coastlands and capture many of them. But a commander will put an end to his reproach and will turn it back upon him. <sup>19</sup> After this, he will turn back toward the fortresses of his own land, but he will stumble and fall and be no more.

<sup>21</sup> In his place a despicable person will arise; royal honors will not be given to him, but he will come in a time of peace and seize the kingdom by intrigue. <sup>22</sup> Then a flood of forces will be swept away before him and destroyed, along with a prince of the covenant.

<sup>23</sup> After an alliance is made with him, he will act deceitfully; for he will rise to power with only a few people. <sup>24</sup> In a time of peace, he will invade the richest provinces and do what his fathers and forefathers never did. He will lavish plunder, loot, and wealth on his followers, and he will plot against the strongholds—but only for a time.

<sup>25</sup> And with a large army he will stir up his power and his courage against the king of the South, who will mobilize a very large and powerful army but will not withstand the plots devised against him. <sup>26</sup> Those who eat from his provisions will seek to destroy him; his army will be swept away, and many will fall slain.

<sup>29</sup> At the appointed time he will invade the South again, but this time will not be like the first. <sup>30</sup> Ships of Kittim † will come against him, and he will lose heart. Then he will turn back and rage against the holy covenant and do damage. So he will return and show favor to those who forsake the holy covenant. <sup>31</sup> His forces will rise up and desecrate the temple fortress. They will abolish the daily sacrifice and set up the abomination of desolation.

<sup>32</sup> With flattery he will corrupt those who violate the covenant, but the people who know their God will firmly resist him. <sup>33</sup> Those with insight will instruct many, though for a time they will fall by sword or flame, or be captured or plundered.

<sup>34</sup> Now when they fall, they will be granted a little help, but many will join them insincerely. <sup>35</sup> Some of the wise will fall, so that they may be refined, purified, and made spotless until the time of the end, for it will still come at the appointed time.

The King Who Exalts Himself

<sup>36</sup> Then the king will do as he pleases and will exalt and magnify himself above every god, and he will speak monstrous things against the God of gods. He will be successful until the time of wrath is completed, for what has been decreed must be accomplished.

<sup>37</sup> He will show no regard for the gods of his fathers, nor for the one desired by women, nor for any other god, because he will magnify himself above them all.

<sup>38</sup> And in their place, he will honor a god of fortresses—a god his fathers did not know—with gold, silver, precious stones, and riches. <sup>39</sup> He will attack the strongest fortresses with the help of a foreign god and will greatly honor those who acknowledge him, making them rulers over many and distributing the land for a price. §

<sup>40</sup> At the time of the end, the king of the South will engage him in battle,* but the king of the North will storm out against him with chariots, horsemen, and many ships, invading many countries and sweeping through them like a flood. <sup>41</sup> He will also invade the Beautiful Land, and many countries will fall. But these will be delivered from his hand: Edom, Moab, and the leaders of the Ammonites.

<sup>42</sup> He will extend his power over many countries, and not even the land of Egypt will escape. <sup>43</sup> He will gain control of the treasures of gold and silver and over all the riches of Egypt, and the Libyans and Cushites † will also submit to him.

‡ 11:30 Or western coastlands or Mediterranean islands § 11:39 Or for a reward * 11:40 Hebrew will thrust at him † 11:43 That is, people from the upper Nile region

<sup>44</sup> But news from the east and the north will alarm him, and he will go out with great fury to destroy many and devote them to destruction.‡ <sup>45</sup> He will pitch his royal tents between the sea and the beautiful holy mountain, but he will meet his end with no one to help him.

The End Times (Revelation 1:1–3)

<sup>1</sup> “At that time Michael, the great prince who stands watch over your people, will rise up. There will be a time of distress, the likes of which will not have occurred from the beginning of nations until that time. But at that time your people—everyone whose name is found written in the book—will be delivered.

<sup>2</sup> And many who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake, some to everlasting life, but others to shame and everlasting contempt.* <sup>3</sup> Then the wise will shine like the brightness of the heavens,† and those who lead many to righteousness will shine like the stars forever and ever.‡

<sup>4</sup> But you, Daniel, shut up these words and seal the book until the time of the end. Many will roam to and fro, and knowledge will increase.”

<sup>5</sup> Then I, Daniel, looked and saw two others standing there, one on this bank of the river and one on the opposite bank. <sup>6</sup> One of them said to the man dressed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, “How long until the fulfillment of these wonders?”

<sup>8</sup> I heard, but I did not understand. So I asked, “My lord, what will be the outcome of these things?”

<sup>9</sup> “Go on your way, Daniel,” he replied, “for the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end. <sup>10</sup> Many will be purified, made spotless, and refined, but the wicked will continue to act wickedly. None of the wicked will understand, but the wise will understand.

<sup>11</sup> And from the time the daily sacrifice is abolished and the abomination of desolation set up, there will be 1,290 days. <sup>12</sup> Blessed is he who waits and reaches the end of the 1,335 days.

<sup>13</sup> But as for you, go on your way until the end. You will rest, and will arise to your inheritance at the end of the days.”

Hosea

Hosea's Wife and Children

<sup>1</sup> This is the word of the LORD that came to Hosea son of Beeri in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and of Jeroboam son of Jehoash,* king of Israel.

<sup>2</sup> When the LORD first spoke through Hosea, He told him, "Go, take a prostitute as your wife and have children of adultery, because this land is flagrantly prostituting itself by departing from the LORD."

<sup>3</sup> So Hosea went and married Gomer daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD said to Hosea, "Name him Jezreel,† for soon I will bring the bloodshed of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and I will put an end to the kingdom of Israel. <sup>5</sup> And on that day I will break the bow of Israel in the Valley of Jezreel."

<sup>6</sup> Gomer again conceived and gave birth to a daughter, and the LORD said to Hosea, "Name her Lo-ruhamah,‡ for I will no longer have compassion on the house of Israel, that I should ever forgive them. <sup>7</sup> Yet I will have compassion on the house of Judah, and I will save them—not by bow or sword or war, not by horses and cavalry, but by the LORD their God."

<sup>8</sup> After she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, Gomer conceived and gave birth to a son. <sup>9</sup> And the LORD said, "Name him Lo-ammi,§ for you are not My people, and I am not your God.*"

<sup>10</sup> Yet the number of the Israelites will be like the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured or counted. And it will happen that in the very place where it was said to them, 'You are not My people,' they will be called 'sons of the living God.'† <sup>11</sup> Then the people of Judah and of Israel will be gathered together, and they will appoint for themselves one leader, and will go up out of the land. For great will be the day of Jezreel.

2

Israel's Adultery Rebuked

<sup>1</sup> "Say of your brothers, 'My people,'*
and of your sisters, 'My loved one.'†

rebuke her,
for she is not My wife,
and I am not her husband.

Let her remove the adultery from her face and the unfaithfulness from between her breasts.

<sup>3</sup> Otherwise, I will strip her naked and expose her like the day of her birth.
I will make her like a desert and turn her into a parched land,
and I will let her die of thirst.

<sup>4</sup> I will have no compassion on her children, because they are the children of adultery.

* 1:1 Hebrew Joash, a variant of Jehoash    † 1:4 Jezreel means God sows; also in verse 11.    ‡ 1:6 Lo-ruhamah means she has not received mercy.    § 1:9 Lo-ammi means not My people.    * 1:9 Hebrew I am not yours

† 1:10 Cited in Romans 9:26    * 2:1 Hebrew Ammi    † 2:1 Or Mercy is shown; Hebrew Ruhamah, which means she has received mercy

<sup>5</sup> For their mother has played the harlot and has conceived them in disgrace.
For she thought,
‘I will go after my lovers,
who give me bread and water,
wool and linen, oil and drink.’

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, behold,
I will hedge up her path ‡ with thorns;
I will enclose her with a wall,
so she cannot find her way.

<sup>7</sup> She will pursue her lovers but not catch them;
she will seek them but not find them.

Then she will say,
‘I will return to my first husband,
for then I was better off than now.’

<sup>8</sup> For she does not acknowledge that it was I who gave her grain,
new wine, and oil,
who lavished on her silver and gold—which they crafted for Baal.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore I will take back My grain in its time and My new wine in its season;
I will take away My wool and linen,
which were given to cover her nakedness.

<sup>10</sup> And then I will expose her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and no one will deliver her out of My hands.

<sup>11</sup> I will put an end to all her exultation:
her feasts, New Moons, and Sabbaths—
all her appointed feasts.

<sup>12</sup> I will destroy her vines and fig trees, which she thinks are the wages paid by her lovers.
So I will make them into a thicket,
and the beasts of the field will devour them.

<sup>13</sup> I will punish her for the days of the Baals when she burned incense to them, when she decked herself with rings and jewelry,
and went after her lovers.

But Me she forgot,”

declares the LORD.

God's Mercy to Israel

<sup>14</sup> “Therefore, behold, I will allure her and lead her to the wilderness, and speak to her tenderly.

<sup>15</sup> There I will give back her vineyards and make the Valley of Achor § into a gateway of hope.

There she will respond as she did in the days of her youth,
as in the day she came up out of Egypt.

<sup>16</sup> In that day,”
declares the LORD,
“you will call Me ‘my Husband,’* and no longer call Me ‘my Master.’†

‡ 2:6 Hebrew your path    § 2:15 Achor means trouble.    * 2:16 Hebrew my Ishi    † 2:16 Hebrew my Baal

no longer will their names be invoked.

<sup>18</sup> On that day I will make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field and the birds of the air and the creatures that crawl on the ground.

And I will abolish bow and sword and weapons of war in the land, and will make them lie down in safety.

<sup>19</sup> So I will betroth you to Me forever;
I will betroth you in righteousness and justice,
in loving devotion † and compassion.

<sup>20</sup> And I will betroth you in faithfulness, and you will know the LORD.”

<sup>21</sup> “On that day I will respond—”
declares the LORD—

“I will respond to the heavens, and they will respond to the earth.

<sup>22</sup> And the earth will respond to the grain,
to the new wine and oil,
and they will respond to Jezreel. §

<sup>23</sup> And I will sow her as My own in the land, and I will have compassion on ‘No Compassion.’*
I will say to those called ‘Not My People,’ †

‘You are My people,’ ‡
and they will say,
‘You are my God.’ ”

3

Hosea Redeems His Wife (Zechariah 2:6-13)

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to me, “Go show love to your wife again, though she is loved by another * and is an adulteress. Love her as the LORD loves the Israelites, though they turn to other gods and offer raisin cakes to idols. †”

<sup>2</sup> So I bought her for fifteen shekels of silver ‡ and a homer and a lethech of barley. §

<sup>3</sup> Then I said to her, “You must live with me for many days; you must not be promiscuous or belong to another; and I will do the same for you.”

<sup>4</sup> For the Israelites must live many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred pillar, and without ephod or idol. <sup>5</sup> Afterward, the people of Israel will return and seek the LORD their God and David their king. They will come trembling to the LORD and to His goodness in the last days.

4

God's Case against His People

<sup>1</sup> Hear the word of the LORD,
O children of Israel,
for the LORD has a case

‡ 2:19 Forms of the Hebrew chesed are translated here and in most cases throughout the Scriptures as loving devotion; the range of meaning includes love, goodness, kindness, faithfulness, and mercy, as well as loyalty to a covenant. § 2:22 Jezreel means God sows. * 2:23 Hebrew Lo-ruhamah; LXX I will love her who was not loved

† 2:23 Hebrew Lo-ammi ‡ 2:23 Cited in Romans 9:25 and 1 Peter 2:10 * 3:1 Or Go show love to a woman who is loved by another † 3:1 Literally and love raisin cakes ‡ 3:2 15 shekels is approximately 6 ounces or 171 grams of silver. § 3:2 Or a homer and a half of barley; that is, a total of approximately 9.36 bushels or 330 liters (probably about 436 pounds or 198 kilograms of barley); LXX a homer of barley and a wineskin full of wine against the people of the land:

“There is no truth, no loving devotion,
and no knowledge of God in the land!

<sup>2</sup> Cursing and lying, murder and stealing,
and adultery are rampant;
one act of bloodshed follows another.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore the land mourns, and all who dwell in it will waste away
with the beasts of the field and the birds of the air;
even the fish of the sea disappear.

<sup>4</sup> But let no man contend;
let no man offer reproof;
for your people are like those who contend with a priest.*

<sup>5</sup> You will stumble by day, and the prophet will stumble with you by night;
so I will destroy your mother—

<sup>6</sup> My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.
Because you have rejected knowledge,
I will also reject you as My priests.
Since you have forgotten the law of your God,
I will also forget your children.

<sup>7</sup> The more they multiplied, the more they sinned against Me;
they exchanged their Glory †
for a thing of disgrace.

<sup>8</sup> They feed on the sins ‡ of My people and set their hearts on iniquity.

<sup>9</sup> And it shall be like people, like priest.
I will punish both of them for their ways and repay them for their deeds.

<sup>10</sup> They will eat but not be satisfied;
they will be promiscuous but not multiply.
For they have stopped obeying the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> Promiscuity, wine, and new wine take away understanding.

<sup>12</sup> My people consult their wooden idols,
and their divining rods inform them.
For a spirit of prostitution leads them astray and they have played the harlot against their God.

<sup>13</sup> They sacrifice on the mountaintops and burn offerings on the hills, under oak, poplar, and terebinth,
because their shade is pleasant.
And so your daughters turn to prostitution and your daughters-in-law to adultery.

<sup>14</sup> I will not punish your daughters when they prostitute themselves, nor your daughters-in-law
when they commit adultery.
For the men themselves go off with prostitutes and offer sacrifices with shrine prostitutes.

* 4:4 Or for My case is against you, O priests † 4:7 Or they exchanged their glorious God (Syriac); MT I will exchange their glory ‡ 4:8 Or the sin offerings

So a people without understanding will come to ruin.

<sup>15</sup> Though you prostitute yourself, O Israel, may Judah avoid such guilt!

Do not journey to Gilgal, do not go up to Beth-aven,§
and do not swear on oath,
'As surely as the LORD lives!'

<sup>16</sup> For Israel is as obstinate as a stubborn heifer.
Can the LORD now shepherd them like lambs in an open meadow?

<sup>17</sup> Ephraim * is joined to idols;
leave him alone!

<sup>18</sup> When their liquor is gone,
they turn to prostitution;
their rulers † dearly love disgrace.

<sup>19</sup> The whirlwind has wrapped them ‡ in its wings, and their sacrifices will bring them shame.

5

Judgment on Israel and Judah

<sup>1</sup> "Hear this, O priests!

Take heed, O house of Israel!
Give ear, O royal house!

For this judgment is against you because you have been a snare at Mizpah, a net spread out on Tabor.

<sup>2</sup> The rebels are deep in slaughter;
but I will chastise them all.

<sup>3</sup> I know all about Ephraim,*
and Israel is not hidden from Me.

For now, O Ephraim,
you have turned to prostitution;
Israel is defiled.

<sup>4</sup> Their deeds do not permit them to return to their God,
for a spirit of prostitution is within them,
and they do not know the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> Israel's arrogance testifies against them;
Israel and Ephraim stumble in their iniquity;
even Judah stumbles with them.

<sup>6</sup> They go with their flocks and herds to seek the LORD,

but they do not find Him;
He has withdrawn Himself from them.

<sup>7</sup> They have been unfaithful to the LORD;
for they have borne illegitimate children.

Now the New Moon † will devour them along with their land.

<sup>8</sup> Blow the ram's horn in Gibeah,
the trumpet in Ramah;

---

§ 4:15 Beth-aven means house of wickedness. This is a derogatory term for Bethel, which means house of God; see 1 Kings 12:28-29. * 4:17 That is, the northern kingdom of Israel † 4:18 Hebrew her shields ‡ 4:19 Hebrew has wrapped her * 5:3 That is, the northern kingdom of Israel; also in verses 5, 9, 11, 12, 13, and 14 † 5:7 Or their New Moon feast or the coming month raise the battle cry in Beth-aven:‡

Lead on, O Benjamin!

<sup>9</sup> Ephraim will be laid waste on the day of rebuke.

Among the tribes of Israel

I proclaim what is certain.

<sup>10</sup> The princes of Judah are like those who move boundary stones;§

I will pour out My fury upon them like water.

<sup>11</sup> Ephraim is oppressed, crushed in judgment, for he is determined to follow worthless idols.*

<sup>12</sup> So I am like a moth to Ephraim, and like decay to the house of Judah.

<sup>13</sup> When Ephraim saw his sickness and Judah his wound,

then Ephraim turned to Assyria and sent to the great king.†

But he cannot cure you or heal your wound.

<sup>14</sup> For I am like a lion to Ephraim and like a young lion to the house of Judah.

I, even I, will tear them to pieces and then go away.

I will carry them off

where no one can rescue them.

<sup>15</sup> Then I will return to My place until they admit their guilt and seek My face;

in their affliction they will earnestly seek Me.”

6

The Unrepentance of Israel and Judah

<sup>1</sup> Come, let us return to the LORD.

For He has torn us to pieces,

but He will heal us;

He has wounded us,

but He will bind up our wounds.

<sup>2</sup> After two days He will revive us;

on the third day He will raise us up,

that we may live in His presence.

<sup>3</sup> So let us know—

let us press on to know the LORD.

As surely as the sun rises,

He will appear;

He will come to us like the rain,

like the spring showers that water the earth.

<sup>4</sup> What shall I do with you, O Ephraim *?

What shall I do with you, O Judah?

For your loyalty is like a morning mist,

like the early dew that vanishes.

<sup>5</sup> Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets;

I have slain them by the words of My mouth, and My judgments go forth like lightning.

‡ 5:8 Beth-aven means house of wickedness. This is a derogatory term for Bethel, which means house of God; see 1 Kings 12:28–29. § 5:10 See Proverbs 22:28 and Proverbs 23:10. * 5:11 Or to follow human precepts † 5:13

Or to King Jareb * 6:4 That is, the northern kingdom of Israel; also in verse 10

6 For I desire mercy, not sacrifice,† and the knowledge of God
rather than burnt offerings.

7 But they, like Adam, have transgressed ‡ the covenant;
there they were unfaithful to Me.

8 Gilead is a city of evildoers, tracked with footprints of blood.

9 Like raiders who lie in ambush,
so does a band of priests;
they murder on the way to Shechem;
surely they have committed atrocities.

10 In the house of Israel
I have seen a horrible thing:
Ephraim practices prostitution there,
and Israel is defiled.

11 Also for you, O Judah, a harvest is appointed,
when I restore
My people from captivity.§

7

Ephraim's Iniquity

1 When I heal Israel,
the iniquity of Ephraim * will be exposed,
as well as the crimes of Samaria.

For they practice deceit and thieves break in;
bandits raid in the streets.

2 But they fail to consider in their hearts that I remember all their evil.

Now their deeds are all around them;
they are before My face.

3 They delight the king with their evil,
and the princes with their lies.

4 They are all adulterers, like an oven heated by a baker who needs not stoke the fire from the kneading to the rising of the dough.

5 The princes are inflamed with wine on the day of our king;

so he joins hands
with those who mock him.

6 For they prepare their heart like an oven
while they lie in wait;
all night their anger smolders;†
in the morning it blazes like a flaming fire.

7 All of them are hot as an oven,
and they devour their rulers.

All their kings fall;
not one of them calls upon Me.

8 Ephraim mixes with the nations;
Ephraim is an unturned cake.

9 Foreigners consume his strength,
but he does not notice.

† 6:6 Cited in Matthew 9:13 and Matthew 12:7    ‡ 6:7 Or As at Adam, they have transgressed    § 6:11 Or restore the fortunes of My people    * 7:1 That is, the northern kingdom of Israel; also in verses 8 and 11    † 7:6 Literally their baker sleeps

Even his hair is streaked with gray, but he does not know.

<sup>10</sup> Israel's arrogance testifies against them,
yet they do not return to the LORD their God;
despite all this, they do not seek Him.

<sup>11</sup> So Ephraim has become like a silly, senseless dove—calling out to Egypt, then turning to Assyria.

<sup>12</sup> As they go, I will spread My net over them;
I will bring them down like birds of the air.
I will chastise them
when I hear them flocking together.‡

<sup>13</sup> Woe to them, for they have strayed from Me!
Destruction to them, for they have rebelled against Me!
Though I would redeem them,
they speak lies against Me.

<sup>14</sup> They do not cry out to Me from their hearts when they wail upon their beds.

They slash themselves § for grain and new wine,
but turn away from Me.

<sup>15</sup> Although I trained and strengthened their arms, they plot evil against Me.

<sup>16</sup> They turn, but not to the Most High;
they are like a faulty bow.

Their leaders will fall by the sword for the cursing of their tongue;
for this they will be ridiculed
in the land of Egypt.

8

Israel Will Reap the Whirlwind

<sup>1</sup> Put the ram's horn to your lips!
An eagle looms over the house of the LORD, because the people have transgressed My covenant and rebelled against My law.

<sup>2</sup> Israel cries out to Me,
"O our God, we know You!"

<sup>3</sup> But Israel has rejected good;
an enemy will pursue him.

<sup>4</sup> They set up kings, but not by Me.
They make princes, but without My approval.
With their silver and gold they make themselves idols,
to their own destruction.

<sup>5</sup> He has rejected your calf,* O Samaria.
My anger burns against them.

How long will they be incapable of innocence?

<sup>6</sup> For this thing is from Israel—a craftsman made it, and it is not God.
It will be broken to pieces, that calf of Samaria.

<sup>7</sup> For they sow the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind.
There is no standing grain;

‡ 7:12 Or I will chastise them according to what was reported against them in the assembly.
§ 7:14 Or I will chastise them according to what was reported against them in the assembly.
* 8:5 Or calf idol; see 1 Kings 12:29.

§ 7:14 Some Hebrew
* 8:5 Or calf idol; see what sprouts fails to yield flour.

 Even if it should produce,
 the foreigners would swallow it up.
<sup>8</sup> Israel is swallowed up!
 Now they are among the nations
 like a worthless vessel.
<sup>9</sup> For they have gone up to Assyria like a wild donkey on its own.
 Ephraim † has hired lovers.
<sup>10</sup> Though they hire allies among the nations,
 I will now round them up,
 and they will begin to diminish
 under the oppression of the king of princes.
<sup>11</sup> Though Ephraim multiplied the altars for sin, they became his altars for sinning.
<sup>12</sup> Though I wrote for them the great things of My law, they regarded them as something strange.
<sup>13</sup> Though they offer sacrifices as gifts to Me, and though they eat the meat,
 the LORD does not accept them.
 Now He will remember their iniquity and punish their sins:
 They will return to Egypt.
<sup>14</sup> Israel has forgotten his Maker and built palaces;
 Judah has multiplied its fortified cities.
 But I will send fire upon their cities,
 and it will consume their citadels.

9

Israel's Punishment

<sup>1</sup> Do not rejoice, O Israel, with exultation like the nations,
 for you have played the harlot against your God;
 you have made love for hire on every threshing floor.
<sup>2</sup> The threshing floor and winepress will not feed them, and the new wine will fail them.
<sup>3</sup> They will not remain in the land of the LORD;
 Ephraim * will return to Egypt and eat unclean food in Assyria.
<sup>4</sup> They will not pour out wine offerings to the LORD, and their sacrifices will not please Him,
 but will be to them like the bread of mourners;
 all who eat will be defiled.
 For their bread will be for themselves;
 it will not enter the house of the LORD.
<sup>5</sup> What will you do on the appointed day,
 on the day of the LORD's feast?
<sup>6</sup> For even if they flee destruction, Egypt will gather them
 and Memphis will bury them.
 Their precious silver will be taken over by thistles,
 and thorns will overrun their tents.
<sup>7</sup> The days of punishment have come;
 the days of retribution have arrived—
 let Israel know it.

† 8:9 That is, the northern kingdom of Israel; also in verse 11 similarly in verses 8, 11, 13, and 16

* 9:3 That is, the northern kingdom of Israel;

The prophet is called a fool,
 and the inspired man insane,
 because of the greatness of your iniquity and hostility.

<sup>8</sup> The prophet is Ephraim's watchman, along with my God,†
 yet the snare of the fowler lies on all his paths.
 Hostility is in the house of his God!

<sup>9</sup> They have deeply corrupted themselves
 as in the days of Gibeah;
 He will remember their guilt;
 He will punish their sins.

<sup>10</sup> I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness.
 I saw your fathers as the firstfruits of the fig tree in its first season.
 But they went to Baal-peor,
 and consecrated themselves to Shame;
 so they became as detestable
 as the thing they loved.

<sup>11</sup> Ephraim's glory will fly away like a bird, with no birth, no pregnancy, and no conception.

<sup>12</sup> Even if they raise their children,
 I will bereave them of each one.
 Yes, woe be to them
 when I turn away from them!

<sup>13</sup> I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, planted in a meadow.
 But Ephraim will bring out his children for slaughter.

<sup>14</sup> Give them, O LORD—what will You give?
 Give them wombs that miscarry and breasts that dry up!

<sup>15</sup> All their evil appears at Gilgal,
 for there I hated them.
 I will drive them from My house for the wickedness of their deeds.
 I will no longer love them;
 all their leaders are rebellious.

<sup>16</sup> Ephraim is struck down;
 their root is withered;
 they cannot bear fruit.
 Even if they bear children,
 I will slay the darlings of their wombs.

<sup>17</sup> My God will reject them because they have not obeyed Him;
 and they shall be wanderers
 among the nations.

Retribution for Israel's Sin

<sup>1</sup> Israel was a luxuriant vine, yielding fruit for himself.
 The more his fruit increased,
 the more he increased the altars.
 The better his land produced,
 the better he made the sacred pillars.

† 9:8 Or The prophet is the watchman over Ephraim, the people of my God

2 Their hearts are devious;
    now they must bear their guilt.
 The LORD will break down their altars and demolish their sacred pillars.

3 Surely now they will say,
    "We have no king,
 for we do not revere the LORD.
    What can a king do for us?"

4 They speak mere words;
    with false oaths they make covenants.
 So judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of a field.

5 The people of Samaria will fear for the calf of Beth-aven.*
 Indeed, its people will mourn with its idolatrous priests—those who rejoiced in its glory—
    for it has been taken from them into exile.

6 Yes, it will be carried to Assyria as tribute to the great king.†
 Ephraim ‡ will be seized with shame;
    Israel will be ashamed of its wooden idols.§

7 Samaria will be carried off with her king like a twig on the surface of the water.

8 The high places of Aven * will be destroyed—
    it is the sin of Israel;
    thorns and thistles will overgrow their altars.
 Then they will say to the mountains, "Cover us!"
    and to the hills, "Fall on us!"†

9 Since the days of Gibeah you have sinned, O Israel, and there you have remained.
 Did not the battle in Gibeah overtake the sons of iniquity?‡

10 I will chasten them when I please; nations will be gathered against them
 to put them in bondage for their double transgression.

11 Ephraim is a well-trained heifer that loves to thresh;
    but I will place a yoke on her fair neck.
 I will harness Ephraim, Judah will plow,
    and Jacob will break the hard ground.

12 Sow for yourselves righteousness and reap the fruit of loving devotion;
    break up your unplowed ground.
 For it is time to seek the LORD until He comes and sends righteousness upon you like rain.

13 You have plowed wickedness and reaped injustice;
    you have eaten the fruit of lies.
 Because you have trusted in your own way
    and in the multitude of your mighty men,

* 10:5 Beth-aven means house of wickedness. This is a derogatory term for Bethel, which means house of God; see 1 Kings 12:28-29. † 10:6 Or to King Jareb ‡ 10:6 That is, the northern kingdom of Israel; also in verse 11 § 10:6 Or of its own counsel * 10:8 Or of wickedness; Aven is a reference to Beth-aven (a derogatory term for Bethel); see verse 5. † 10:8 Cited in Luke 23:30; see also Revelation 6:16. ‡ 10:9 Or Did not the battle overtake the sons of iniquity in Gibeah?

14 the roar of battle will rise against your people, so that all your fortresses will be demolished as Shalman devastated Beth-arbel in the day of battle, when mothers were dashed to pieces
 along with their children.
 15 Thus it will be done to you, O Bethel, because of your great wickedness.
 When the day dawns,
 the king of Israel will be utterly cut off.

Out of Egypt I Called My Son
 (Matthew 2:13-15)

1 When Israel was a child, I loved him, and out of Egypt I called My son.*
 2 But the more I called Israel, the farther they departed from Me.†
 They sacrificed to the Baals and burned incense to carved images.
 3 It was I who taught Ephraim ‡ to walk, taking them in My arms,
 but they never realized that it was I who healed them.
 4 I led them with cords of kindness,
 with ropes of love;
 I lifted the yoke from their necks and bent down to feed them.
 5 Will they not return to the land of Egypt and be ruled by Assyria because they refused to repent?
 6 A sword will flash through their cities;
 it will destroy the bars of their gates and consume them in their own plans.
 7 My people are bent on turning from Me.
 Though they call to the Most High,
 He will by no means exalt them.

God's Love for Israel

8 How could I give you up, O Ephraim?
 How could I surrender you, O Israel?
 How could I make you like Admah?
 How could I treat you like Zeboiim?
 My heart is turned within Me;
 My compassion is stirred!
 9 I will not execute the full fury of My anger;
 I will not turn back to destroy Ephraim.
 For I am God and not man—
 the Holy One among you—and I will not come in wrath.
 10 They will walk after the LORD;
 He will roar like a lion.
 When He roars,
 His children will come trembling from the west.
 11 They will come trembling like birds from Egypt and like doves from the land of Assyria.
 Then I will settle them in their homes,

* 11:1 Cited in Matthew 2:15 † 11:2 LXX; Hebrew The more they called them, the more they went from them.

declares the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> Ephraim surrounds Me with lies,
the house of Israel with deceit;
but Judah still walks with God and is faithful to the Holy One. §

12

A Reproof of Ephraim, Judah, and Jacob

<sup>1</sup> Ephraim * chases the wind and pursues the east wind all day long;
he multiplies lies and violence;
he makes a covenant with Assyria and sends olive oil to Egypt.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD also brings a charge against Judah.
He will punish Jacob † according to his ways and repay him according to his deeds.

<sup>3</sup> In the womb he grasped his brother's heel,
and in his vigor he wrestled with God.

<sup>4</sup> Yes, he struggled with the angel ‡ and prevailed;
he wept and sought His favor;
he found Him at Bethel and spoke with Him there §—

<sup>5</sup> the LORD is the God of Hosts—
the LORD is His name of renown.

<sup>6</sup> But you must return to your God, maintaining love and justice,
and always waiting on your God.

<sup>7</sup> A merchant loves to defraud with dishonest scales in his hands.

<sup>8</sup> And Ephraim boasts: "How rich I have become!
I have found wealth for myself.

In all my labors, they can find in me
no iniquity that is sinful."

<sup>9</sup> But I am the LORD your God
ever since the land of Egypt.

I will again make you dwell in tents,
as in the days of the appointed feast.

<sup>10</sup> I spoke through the prophets and multiplied their visions;
I gave parables through the prophets.

<sup>11</sup> Is there iniquity in Gilead?
They will surely come to nothing.

Do they sacrifice bulls in Gilgal?
Indeed, their altars will be heaps of stones in the furrows of the field.

<sup>12</sup> Jacob fled to the land of Aram * and Israel worked for a wife—
for a wife he tended sheep.

<sup>13</sup> But by a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was preserved.

§ 11:12 Or and Judah is unruly against God, the faithful Holy One * 12:1 That is, the northern kingdom of Israel;

and repay him for his contempt.

13

God's Anger against Israel

1 When Ephraim * spoke, there was trembling;
he was exalted in Israel.
But he incurred guilt through Baal,
and he died.

2 Now they sin more and more and make for themselves cast images, idols skillfully made from their silver,
all of them the work of craftsmen.
People say of them,

"They offer human sacrifice and kiss the calves!"†

3 Therefore they will be like the morning mist,
like the early dew that vanishes,
like chaff blown from a threshing floor,
like smoke through an open window.

4 Yet I am the LORD your God
ever since the land of Egypt;
you know no God but Me,
for there is no Savior besides Me.

5 I knew you in the wilderness,
in the land of drought.

6 When they had pasture,
they became satisfied;
when they were satisfied,
their hearts became proud,
and as a result they forgot Me.

7 So like a lion I will pounce on them;
like a leopard I will lurk by the path.

8 Like a bear robbed of her cubs I will attack them,
and I will tear open their chests.
There I will devour them like a lion,
like a wild beast would tear them apart.

Death and Resurrection (1 Corinthians 15:50-58)

9 You are destroyed, O Israel, because you are against Me—
against your helper.

10 Where is your king now ‡ to save you in all your cities, and the rulers to whom you said,
"Give me a king and princes"?

11 So in My anger I gave you a king, and in My wrath I took him away.

12 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is stored up.

13 Labor pains come upon him,

* 13:1 That is, the northern kingdom of Israel; also in verse 12 † 13:2 Or "The men who sacrifice kiss the calves!"
See 1 Kings 19:18. ‡ 13:10 Or Shall I be your King now but he is an unwise son.

When the time arrives,
he fails to present himself at the opening of the womb.

<sup>14</sup> I will ransom them from the power of Sheol;
I will redeem them from Death.§
Where, O Death, are your plagues?
Where, O Sheol, is your sting?*

Compassion is hidden from My eyes.

Judgment on Samaria

<sup>15</sup> Although he flourishes among his brothers, an east wind will come—a wind from the LORD
rising up from the desert.
His fountain will fail,
and his spring will run dry.
The wind will plunder his treasury of every precious article.

<sup>16</sup> Samaria will bear her guilt
because she has rebelled against her God.
They will fall by the sword;
their little ones will be dashed to pieces,
and their pregnant women ripped open.

14

A Call to Repentance
(Jeremiah 3:11-25; Zechariah 1:1-6)

<sup>1</sup> Return, O Israel, to the LORD your God, for you have stumbled by your iniquity.

<sup>2</sup> Bring your confessions and return to the LORD.
Say to Him: "Take away all our iniquity and receive us graciously, that we may present
the fruit of our lips.*"

<sup>3</sup> Assyria will not save us, nor will we ride on horses.
We will never again say, 'Our gods!'
to the work of our own hands.

For in You the fatherless find compassion."

A Promise of God's Blessing

<sup>4</sup> I will heal their apostasy;
I will freely love them,
for My anger has turned away from them.
<sup>5</sup> I will be like the dew to Israel;
he will blossom like the lily and take root like the cedars of Lebanon.
<sup>6</sup> His shoots will sprout,
and his splendor will be like the olive tree,
his fragrance like the cedars of Lebanon.

§ 13:14 Or Shall I ransom them from the power of Sheol? Shall I redeem them from Death? * 13:14 LXX Where, O Death, is your penalty? Where, O Hades, is your sting? Cited in 1 Corinthians 15:55 * 14:2 LXX and Syriac; Hebrew that we may present our lips as sacrificial bulls they will grow grain and blossom like the vine.

His renown will be like the wine of Lebanon.

anymore with idols?
It is I who answer and watch over him.
I am like a flourishing cypress;‡
your fruit comes from Me.

<sup>9</sup> Whoever is wise, let him understand these things;
whoever is discerning, let him know them.
For the ways of the LORD are right, and the righteous walk in them
but the rebellious stumble in them.

Joel

The Invasion of Locusts

<sup>1</sup> This is the word of the LORD that came to Joel son of Pethuel:

<sup>2</sup> Hear this, O elders;
and give ear, all who dwell in the land.
Has anything like this ever happened in your days or in the days of your fathers?

<sup>3</sup> Tell it to your children;
let your children tell it to their children,
and their children to the next generation.

<sup>4</sup> What the devouring locust has left,
the swarming locust has eaten;
what the swarming locust has left,
the young locust has eaten;
and what the young locust has left,
the destroying locust has eaten.*

<sup>5</sup> Wake up, you drunkards, and weep;
wail, all you drinkers of wine,
because of the sweet wine,
for it has been cut off from your mouth.

<sup>6</sup> For a nation has invaded My land, powerful and without number;
its teeth are the teeth of a lion,
and its fangs are the fangs of a lioness.

<sup>7</sup> It has laid waste My grapevine and splintered My fig tree.
It has stripped off the bark and thrown it away;
the branches have turned white.

A Call to Mourning

<sup>8</sup> Wail like a virgin dressed in sackcloth, grieving for the husband of her youth.

<sup>9</sup> Grain and drink offerings have been cut off from the house of the LORD;
the priests are in mourning,
those who minister before the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> The field is ruined;
the land mourns.
For the grain is destroyed,
the new wine is dried up, and the oil fails.

<sup>11</sup> Be dismayed, O farmers,
wail, O vinedressers,
over the wheat and barley,
because the harvest of the field has perished.

<sup>12</sup> The grapevine is dried up,
and the fig tree is withered;
the pomegranate, palm, and apple—
all the trees of the orchard—are withered.
Surely the joy of mankind has dried up.

A Call to Repentance

(Amos 5:4-15; Zephaniah 2:1-3; Luke 13:1-5)

* 1:4 The precise identification of the four kinds of locusts mentioned here is uncertain.

wail, O ministers of the altar.
 Come, spend the night in sackcloth,
 O ministers of my God,
 because the grain and drink offerings are withheld from the house of your God.

14 Consecrate a fast;
 proclaim a solemn assembly!
 Gather the elders and all the residents of the land to the house of the LORD your God, and cry out to the LORD.

15 Alas for the day!
 For the Day of the LORD is near,
 and it will come
 as destruction from the Almighty.†

16 Has not the food been cut off before our very eyes—
 joy and gladness

from the house of our God?
 17 The seeds lie shriveled beneath the clods;
 the storehouses are in ruins;
 the granaries are broken down,
 for the grain has withered away.

18 How the cattle groan!
 The herds wander in confusion
 because they have no pasture.
 Even the flocks of sheep are suffering.

19 To You, O LORD, I call,
 for fire has consumed the open pastures and flames have scorched all the trees of the field.

20 Even the beasts of the field pant for You,
 for the streams of water have dried up,
 and fire has consumed the open pastures.

The Army of Locusts (Amos 7:1–9)

1 Blow the ram's horn in Zion;
 sound the alarm on My holy mountain!
 Let all who dwell in the land tremble, for the Day of the LORD is coming;
 indeed, it is near—

2 a day of darkness and gloom,
 a day of clouds and blackness.
 Like the dawn overspreading the mountains
 a great and strong army appears,
 such as never was of old,
 nor will ever be in ages to come.

3 Before them a fire devours, and behind them a flame scorches.
 The land before them is like the Garden of Eden, but behind them, it is like a desert wasteland—
 surely nothing will escape them.

4 Their appearance is like that of horses, and they gallop like swift steeds.*

5 With a sound like that of chariots

† 1:15 Hebrew Shaddai * 2:4 Or like charioteers or like cavalry they bound over the mountaintops, like the crackling of fire consuming stubble,

like a mighty army deployed for battle.

<sup>6</sup> Nations writhe in horror before them;
every face turns pale.

<sup>7</sup> They charge like mighty men;
they scale the walls like men of war.

Each one marches in formation,
not swerving from the course.

<sup>8</sup> They do not jostle one another;
each proceeds in his path.

They burst through the defenses,
never breaking ranks.

<sup>9</sup> They storm the city;
they run along the wall;
they climb into houses,
entering through windows like thieves.

<sup>10</sup> Before them the earth quakes;
the heavens tremble.
The sun and moon grow dark,
and the stars lose their brightness.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD raises His voice in the presence of His army.
Indeed, His camp is very large,
for mighty are those who obey His command.
For the Day of the LORD is great and very dreadful.
Who can endure it?

Return with All Your Heart

<sup>12</sup> “Yet even now,”
declares the LORD,
“return to Me with all your heart,
with fasting, weeping, and mourning.”

<sup>13</sup> So rend your hearts and not your garments, and return to the LORD your God.
For He is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger, abounding in loving devotion.†
And He relents from sending disaster.

<sup>14</sup> Who knows? He may turn and relent and leave a blessing behind Him—grain and drink offerings for the LORD your God.

<sup>15</sup> Blow the ram’s horn in Zion,
consecrate a fast,
proclaim a sacred assembly.

<sup>16</sup> Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the aged, gather the children,
even those nursing at the breast.
Let the bridegroom leave his room,
and the bride her chamber.

<sup>17</sup> Let the priests who minister before the LORD weep between the portico and the altar, saying, “Spare Your people, O LORD,
and do not make Your heritage a reproach,

† 2:13 Forms of the Hebrew chesed are translated here and in most cases throughout the Scriptures as loving devotion; the range of meaning includes love, goodness, kindness, faithfulness, and mercy, as well as loyalty to a covenant.

an object of scorn among the nations.
 Why should they say among the peoples,
 'Where is their God?' "

Restoration Promised

<sup>18</sup> Then the LORD became jealous for His land, and He spared His people.

<sup>19</sup> And the LORD answered His people:

"Behold, I will send you grain, new wine, and oil,
 and by them you will be satisfied.
 I will never again make you a reproach among the nations.

<sup>20</sup> The northern army I will drive away from you, banishing it to a barren and desolate land, its front ranks into the Eastern Sea,‡ and its rear guard into the Western Sea.§
 And its stench will rise;
 its foul odor will ascend.

For He has done great things.

<sup>21</sup> Do not be afraid, O land;
 rejoice and be glad,
 for the LORD has done great things.

<sup>22</sup> Do not be afraid, O beasts of the field, for the open pastures have turned green,
 the trees bear their fruit,
 and the fig tree and vine yield their best.*

<sup>23</sup> Be glad, O children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God, for He has given you the autumn rains
 for your vindication.

He sends you showers,
 both autumn and spring rains, as before.

<sup>24</sup> The threshing floors will be full of grain, and the vats will overflow with new wine and oil.

<sup>25</sup> I will repay you for the years eaten by locusts—the swarming locust, the young locust, the destroying locust, and the devouring locust †—
 My great army that I sent against you.

<sup>26</sup> You will have plenty to eat, until you are satisfied.
 You will praise the name of the LORD your God,
 who has worked wonders for you.

My people will never again
 be put to shame.

<sup>27</sup> Then you will know that I am present in Israel and that I am the LORD your God,
 and there is no other.

My people will never again
 be put to shame.

I Will Pour Out My Spirit

28 And afterward, I will pour out My Spirit on all people.

 your old men will dream dreams,
 your young men will see visions.
 29 Even on My menservants and maidservants,
 I will pour out My Spirit in those days.
 30 I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns ‡ of smoke.
 31 The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood
 before the coming of the great and awesome § Day of the LORD.
 32 And everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved; *
 for on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem
 there will be deliverance, as the LORD has promised, among the remnant called by the LORD.

The LORD Judges the Nations

1 “Yes, in those days and at that time, when I restore Judah and Jerusalem from captivity,* 2 I will gather all the nations and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat.†
 There I will enter into judgment against them concerning My people, My inheritance, Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations
 as they divided up My land.
 3 They cast lots for My people;
 they bartered a boy for a prostitute and sold a girl for wine to drink.
 4 Now what do you have against Me, O Tyre, Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia? Are you rendering against Me a recompense? If you retaliate against Me, I will swiftly and speedily return your recompense upon your heads. <sup>5</sup> For you took My silver and gold and carried off My finest treasures to your temples. ‡ <sup>6</sup> You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks, § to send them far from their homeland.
 7 Behold, I will rouse them from the places to which you sold them; I will return your recompense upon your heads. <sup>8</sup> I will sell your sons and daughters into the hands of the people of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabeans—to a distant nation.”

Indeed, the LORD has spoken.

9 Proclaim this among the nations:

“Prepare for war;
 rouse the mighty men;
 let all the men of war
 advance and attack!
 10 Beat your plowshares into swords and your pruning hooks into spears.
 Let the weak say, ‘I am strong!’
 11 Come quickly, all you surrounding nations, and gather yourselves.
 Bring down Your mighty ones,
 O LORD.

and advance to the Valley of Jehoshaphat, for there I will sit down to judge all the nations on every side.

13 Swing the sickle, for the harvest is ripe.*
Come, trample the grapes, for the winepress is full;
the wine vats overflow
because their wickedness is great.

14 Multitudes, multitudes
in the valley of decision!
For the Day of the LORD is near
in the valley of decision.

15 The sun and moon will grow dark,
and the stars will no longer shine.

16 The LORD will roar from Zion and raise His voice from Jerusalem;
heaven and earth will tremble.
But the LORD will be a refuge for His people,
a stronghold for the people of Israel.

Blessings for God's People

17 Then you will know that I am the LORD your God, who dwells in Zion, My holy mountain.
Jerusalem will be holy,
never again to be overrun by foreigners.

18 And in that day the mountains will drip with sweet wine, and the hills will flow with milk.
All the streams of Judah will run with water, and a spring will flow from the house of the LORD to water the Valley of Acacias.†

19 Egypt will become desolate, and Edom a desert wasteland,
because of the violence done to the people of Judah,
in whose land they shed innocent blood.

20 But Judah will be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.

21 For I will avenge their blood, which I have not yet avenged.‡”

For the LORD dwells in Zion.

Amos

Judgment on Israel's Neighbors (Jeremiah 12:14-17)

“The LORD roars from Zion and raises His voice from Jerusalem;
the pastures of the shepherds mourn,
and the summit of Carmel withers.”

<sup>3</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“For three transgressions of Damascus, even four,
I will not revoke My judgment, § because they threshed Gilead with sledges of iron.

<sup>4</sup> So I will send fire upon the house of Hazael to consume the citadels of Ben-hadad.

<sup>5</sup> I will break down the gates of Damascus;
I will cut off the ruler * of the Valley of Aven † and the one who wields the scepter in Beth-eden.
The people of Aram will be exiled to Kir,”

says the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“For three transgressions of Gaza, even four,
I will not revoke My judgment,
because they exiled a whole population, delivering them up to Edom.

<sup>7</sup> So I will send fire upon the walls of Gaza,
to consume its citadels.

<sup>8</sup> I will cut off the ruler of Ashdod and the one who wields the scepter in Ashkelon.
I will turn My hand against Ekron, and the remnant of the Philistines will perish,” says the Lord GOD.

<sup>9</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“For three transgressions of Tyre, even four,
I will not revoke My judgment,
because they delivered up a whole congregation of exiles to Edom and broke a covenant of brotherhood.

<sup>10</sup> So I will send fire upon the walls of Tyre

<sup>11</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“For three transgressions of Edom, even four,
I will not revoke My judgment,
because he pursued his brother with the sword

and stifled all compassion;
 his anger raged continually,
 and his fury flamed incessantly.
 12 So I will send fire upon Teman to consume the citadels of Bozrah.”

13 This is what the LORD says:

“For three transgressions of the Ammonites, even four,
 I will not revoke My judgment,
 because they ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead
 in order to enlarge their territory.

14 So I will kindle a fire in the walls of Rabbah
 to consume its citadels
 amid war cries on the day of battle and a violent wind on the day of tempest.

15 Their king will go into exile †—
 he and his princes together,”

says the LORD.

Judgment on Moab, Judah, and Israel

1 This is what the LORD says:

“For three transgressions of Moab, even four,
 I will not revoke My judgment,*
 because he burned to lime
 the bones of Edom’s king.

2 So I will send fire against Moab to consume the citadels of Kerioth.
 Moab will die in tumult,
 amid war cries and the sound of the ram’s horn.

3 I will cut off the ruler of Moab and kill all the officials with him,”

says the LORD.

4 This is what the LORD says:

“For three transgressions of Judah, even four,
 I will not revoke My judgment,
 because they reject the Law of the LORD and fail to keep His statutes;
 they are led astray by the lies in which their fathers walked.

5 So I will send fire upon Judah to consume the citadels of Jerusalem.”

6 This is what the LORD says:

“For three transgressions of Israel, even four,
 I will not revoke My judgment,
 because they sell the righteous for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals.

7 They trample on the heads of the poor as on the dust of the earth;
 they push the needy out of their way.

and so profane My holy name.
 8 They lie down beside every altar on garments taken in pledge.
 And in the house of their God,†
 they drink wine obtained through fines.‡

9 Yet it was I who destroyed
 the Amorite before them,
 though his height was like that of the cedars,
 and he was as strong as the oaks.
 Yet I destroyed his fruit above and his roots below.
 10 And I brought you up from the land of Egypt and led you forty years in the wilderness, that you might take possession of the land of the Amorite.
 11 I raised up prophets from your sons and Nazirites from your young men.
 Is this not true,
 O children of Israel?"

declares the LORD.

12 "But you made the Nazirites drink wine and commanded the prophets not to prophesy.
 13 Behold, I am about to crush you in your place as with a cart full of grain.
 14 Escape will fail the swift,
 the strong will not prevail by his strength,
 and the mighty will not save his life.
 15 The archer will not stand his ground,
 the fleet of foot will not escape,
 and the horseman will not save his life.
 16 Even the bravest of mighty men will flee naked on that day,"

declares the LORD.

Witnesses against Israel

1 Hear this word that the LORD has spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family that I brought up out of the land of Egypt:

2 "Only you have I known * from all the families of the earth;
 therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities."

3 Can two walk together without agreeing where to go?†

4 Does a lion roar in the forest
 when he has no prey?
 Does a young lion growl in his den
 if he has caught nothing?

5 Does a bird land in a snare
 where no bait has been set?
 Does a trap spring from the ground
 when it has nothing to catch?

6 If a ram's horn sounds in a city,
 do the people not tremble?
 If calamity comes to a city,

† 2:8 Or of their gods    ‡ 2:8 Or they drink the wine of those who have been fined
 Or without an appointment to meet

* 3:2 Or chosen    † 3:3

has not the LORD caused it?

<sup>7</sup> Surely the Lord GOD does nothing without revealing His plan to His servants the prophets.

<sup>8</sup> The lion has roared—who will not fear?
The Lord GOD has spoken—
who will not prophesy?

<sup>9</sup> Proclaim to the citadels of Ashdod and to the citadels of Egypt: “Assemble on the mountains of Samaria;
see the great unrest in the city and the acts of oppression in her midst.”

<sup>10</sup> “For they know not how to do right,”
declares the LORD.
“They store up violence and destruction in their citadels.”

<sup>11</sup> Therefore this is what the Lord GOD says:

“An enemy ‡ will surround the land;
he will pull down your strongholds and plunder your citadels.”

<sup>12</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“As the shepherd snatches from the mouth of the lion
two legs or a piece of an ear, so the Israelites dwelling in Samaria will be rescued having just the corner of a bed or the cushion of a couch.§

<sup>13</sup> Hear and testify against the house of Jacob, declares the Lord GOD, the God of Hosts.

<sup>14</sup> On the day I punish Israel for their transgressions, I will visit destruction on the altars of Bethel;
the horns of the altar will be cut off,
and they will fall to the ground.

<sup>15</sup> I will tear down the winter house along with the summer house;
the houses of ivory will also perish,
and the great houses will come to an end,”

declares the LORD.

Punishment Brings No Repentance

<sup>1</sup> Hear this word, you cows of Bashan on Mount Samaria, you women who oppress the poor and crush the needy,
who say to your husbands,
“Bring us more to drink.”

<sup>2</sup> The Lord GOD has sworn by His holiness:

“Behold, the days are coming
when you will be taken away with hooks,

‡ 3:11 Or An adversary    § 3:12 Or so will the Israelites be snatched away, those who sit in Samaria on the edge of their beds and in Damascus on their couches and your posterity with fishhooks.

<sup>3</sup> You will go out through broken walls, each one straight ahead of her,
and you will be cast out toward Harmon,*”

declares the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> “Go to Bethel and transgress;
rebel even more at Gilgal!
Bring your sacrifices every morning,
your tithes every three days.†

<sup>5</sup> Offer leavened bread as a thank offering,
and loudly proclaim your freewill offerings.
For that is what you children of Israel love to do,”

declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>6</sup> “I beset all your cities with cleanness of teeth ‡ and all your towns with lack of bread, yet you did not return to Me,”

declares the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> “I also withheld the rain from you when the harvest was three months away.

I sent rain on one city
but withheld it from another.
One field received rain;
another without rain withered.

<sup>8</sup> People staggered from city to city for water to drink,
but they were not satisfied;
yet you did not return to Me,”

declares the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> “I struck you with blight and mildew in your growing gardens and vineyards;
the locust devoured your fig and olive trees,
yet you did not return to Me,”

declares the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> “I sent plagues among you like those of Egypt;
I killed your young men with the sword,
along with your captured horses.
I filled your nostrils with the stench of your camp,
yet you did not return to Me,”

declares the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> “Some of you I overthrew as I overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you were like a firebrand § snatched from a blaze,
yet you did not return to Me,”

declares the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> “Therefore, that is what I will do to you, O Israel,
and since I will do this to you,
prepare to meet your God, O Israel!

<sup>13</sup> For behold, He who forms the mountains, who creates the wind and reveals His thoughts to man, who turns the dawn to darkness and strides on the heights of the earth—
the LORD, the God of Hosts, is His name.”

A Lamentation against Israel

* 4:3 That is, possibly Mount Hermon † 4:4 Or years ‡ 4:6 That is, with empty stomachs § 4:11 That is, a burning stick

<sup>2</sup> “Fallen is Virgin Israel, never to rise again.
She lies abandoned on her land,
with no one to raise her up.”

<sup>3</sup> This is what the Lord GOD says:

“The city that marches out a thousand strong will only see a hundred return, and the one that marches out a hundred strong will have but ten left in the house of Israel.”

A Call to Repentance
(Joel 1:13-20; Zephaniah 2:1-3; Luke 13:1-5)

<sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD says to the house of Israel:

“Seek Me and live!

<sup>5</sup> Do not seek Bethel or go to Gilgal;
do not journey to Beersheba,
for Gilgal will surely go into exile,
and Bethel will come to nothing.*

<sup>6</sup> Seek the LORD and live, or He will sweep like fire through the house of Joseph;
it will devour everything,
with no one at Bethel to extinguish it.

<sup>7</sup> There are those who turn justice into wormwood and cast righteousness to the ground.

<sup>8</sup> He who made the Pleiades and Orion, who turns darkness into dawn
and darkens day into night, who summons the waters of the sea
and pours them over the face of the earth—
the LORD is His name—

<sup>9</sup> He flashes destruction on the strong,
so that fury comes upon the stronghold.

<sup>10</sup> There are those who hate the one who reproves in the gate and despise him who speaks with integrity.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, because you trample on the poor and exact from him a tax of grain, you will never live
in the stone houses you have built;
you will never drink the wine
from the lush vineyards you have planted.

<sup>12</sup> For I know that your transgressions are many and your sins are numerous.

You oppress the righteous by taking bribes;
you deprive the poor of justice in the gate.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore, the prudent keep silent in such times, for the days are evil.

<sup>14</sup> Seek good, not evil,
so that you may live.
And the LORD, the God of Hosts,

* <sup>5:5</sup> Hebrew to Aven, a reference to Beth-aven, a derogatory term for Bethel; see Hosea 4:15.

will be with you, as you have claimed.

<sup>15</sup> Hate evil and love good;

establish justice in the gate.

Perhaps the LORD, the God of Hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.”

Woe to Rebellious Israel

(Acts 7:39–43)

<sup>16</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of Hosts, the Lord, says:

“There will be wailing in all the public squares and cries of ‘Alas! Alas!’ in all the streets.

The farmer will be summoned to mourn, and the mourners to wail.

<sup>17</sup> There will be wailing in all the vineyards, for I will pass through your midst,”

says the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> Woe to you who long for the Day of the LORD!

What will the Day of the LORD be for you?

It will be darkness and not light.

<sup>19</sup> It will be like a man who flees from a lion, only to encounter a bear, or who enters his house and rests his hand against the wall,

only to be bitten by a snake.

<sup>20</sup> Will not the Day of the LORD be darkness and not light, even gloom with no brightness in it?

<sup>21</sup> “I hate, I despise your feasts!

I cannot stand the stench of your solemn assemblies.

<sup>22</sup> Even though you offer Me burnt offerings and grain offerings,

I will not accept them;

for your peace offerings of fattened cattle

I will have no regard.

I will not listen to the music of your harps.

<sup>24</sup> But let justice roll on like a river, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.

<sup>25</sup> Did you bring Me sacrifices and offerings

forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?

<sup>26</sup> You have taken along Sakkuth your king and Kaiwan your star god,†

the idols you made for yourselves.

<sup>27</sup> Therefore I will send you into exile beyond Damascus,”‡ says the LORD, whose name is the God of Hosts.

6

Woe to Those at Ease in Zion

(Luke 6:24–26)

<sup>1</sup> Woe to those at ease in Zion and those secure on Mount Samaria,

the distinguished ones of the foremost nation,

to whom the house of Israel comes.

<sup>2</sup> Cross over to Calneh and see;

go from there to the great Hamath;

then go down to Gath of the Philistines.

Are you better than these kingdoms?

† 5:26 LXX You have taken along the tabernacle of Molech and the star of your god Rephan 7:42–43 ‡ 5:27 Cited in Acts

Is their territory larger than yours?

- <sup>3</sup> You dismiss the day of calamity and bring near a reign of violence.
<sup>4</sup> You lie on beds inlaid with ivory,
and lounge upon your couches.
You dine on lambs from the flock and calves from the stall.
<sup>5</sup> You improvise songs on the harp like David and invent your own musical instruments.
<sup>6</sup> You drink wine by the bowlful and anoint yourselves with the finest oils, but you fail to grieve
over the ruin of Joseph.
<sup>7</sup> Therefore, you will now go into exile
as the first of the captives, and your feasting and lounging will come to an end.

The Pride of Israel

<sup>8</sup> The Lord GOD has sworn by Himself—the LORD, the God of Hosts, has declared:

“I abhor Jacob’s pride and detest his citadels,
so I will deliver up the city and everything in it.”

<sup>9</sup> And if there are ten men left in one house, they too will die. <sup>10</sup> And when the relative who is to burn the bodies * picks them up to remove them from the house, he will call to one inside, “Is anyone else with you?”

“None,” that person will answer.

“Silence,” the relative will retort, “for the name of the LORD must not be invoked.”

<sup>11</sup> For the LORD gives a command:

“The great house will be smashed to pieces, and the small house to rubble.”

- <sup>12</sup> “Do horses gallop on the cliffs?
Does one plow the sea † with oxen?
But you have turned justice into poison and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood—<sup>13</sup> you who rejoice in Lo-debar ‡ and say,
‘Did we not take Karnaim § by our own strength?’
<sup>14</sup> For behold, I will raise up a nation against you, O house of Israel,” declares the LORD, the God of Hosts,

“and they will oppress you from Lebo-hamath to the Brook of the Arabah.”

The Locusts, Fire, and Plumb Line
(Joel 2:1-11)

eaten every green plant in the land, I said, "Lord GOD, please forgive! How will Jacob survive, since he is so small?"

<sup>3</sup> So the LORD relented from this plan. "It will not happen," He said.

<sup>4</sup> This is what the Lord GOD showed me: The Lord GOD was calling for judgment by fire. It consumed the great deep and devoured the land. <sup>5</sup> Then I said, "Lord GOD, please stop! How will Jacob survive, since he is so small?"

<sup>6</sup> So the LORD relented from this plan. "It will not happen either," said the Lord GOD.

<sup>7</sup> This is what He showed me: Behold, the Lord was standing by a wall true to plumb, with a plumb line in His hand. <sup>8</sup> "Amos, what do you see?" asked the LORD.

"A plumb line," I replied.

"Behold," said the Lord, "I am setting a plumb line among My people Israel; I will no longer spare them:

<sup>9</sup> The high places of Isaac will be deserted, and the sanctuaries of Israel will be laid waste;
and I will rise up against the house of Jeroboam with My sword."

Amaziah Accuses Amos

<sup>10</sup> Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent word to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land cannot bear all his words, <sup>11</sup> for this is what Amos has said:

'Jeroboam will die by the sword,
and Israel will surely go into exile,
away from their homeland.' "

<sup>12</sup> And Amaziah said to Amos, "Go away, you seer! Flee to the land of Judah; earn your bread there and do your prophesying there. <sup>13</sup> But never prophesy at Bethel again, because it is the sanctuary of the king and the temple of the kingdom."

<sup>14</sup> "I was not † a prophet," Amos replied, "nor was I the son ‡ of a prophet; rather, I was a herdsman and a tender of sycamore-fig trees. <sup>15</sup> But the LORD took me from following the flock and said to me, 'Go, prophesy to My people Israel.'

<sup>16</sup> Now, therefore, hear the word of the LORD. You say:

'Do not prophesy against Israel;
do not preach against the house of Isaac.'

<sup>17</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says:

'Your wife will become a prostitute in the city,
and your sons and daughters will fall by the sword.
Your land will be divided by a measuring line,
and you yourself will die on pagan § soil.
And Israel will surely go into exile,
away from their homeland.' "

The Basket of Summer Fruit

† 7:14 Or I am not    ‡ 7:14 Or nor am I the son    § 7:17 Hebrew unclean    * 8:1 Or ripe fruit; also in verse 2

“A basket of summer fruit,” I replied.

So the LORD said to me, “The end has come for My people Israel; I will no longer spare them.”

<sup>3</sup> “In that day,” declares the Lord GOD, “the songs † of the temple ‡ will turn to wailing. Many will be the corpses, strewn in silence everywhere!”

<sup>4</sup> Hear this, you who trample the needy, who do away with the poor of the land,

<sup>5</sup> asking, “When will the New Moon be over,
that we may sell grain?

When will the Sabbath end,
that we may market wheat?

Let us reduce the ephah and increase the shekel;§ let us cheat with dishonest scales.

<sup>6</sup> Let us buy the poor with silver
and the needy for a pair of sandals, selling even the chaff with the wheat!”

<sup>7</sup> The LORD has sworn by the Pride of Jacob:

“I will never forget any of their deeds.

<sup>8</sup> Will not the land quake for this,
and all its dwellers mourn?

All of it will swell like the Nile;
it will surge and then subside
like the Nile in Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> And in that day,
declares the Lord GOD,

I will make the sun go down at noon,
and I will darken the earth in the daytime.

<sup>10</sup> I will turn your feasts into mourning and all your songs into lamentation.

I will cause everyone to wear sackcloth and every head to be shaved.

I will make it like a time of mourning for an only son,
and its outcome like a bitter day.

<sup>11</sup> Behold, the days are coming,
declares the Lord GOD,
when I will send a famine on the land—
not a famine of bread or a thirst for water, but a famine of hearing the words of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> People will stagger from sea to sea and roam from north to east, seeking the word of the LORD,
but they will not find it.

<sup>13</sup> In that day the lovely young women—
the young men as well—will faint from thirst.

<sup>14</sup> Those who swear by the guilt of Samaria

The Destruction of Israel

1 I saw the Lord standing beside the altar, and He said:

“Strike the tops of the pillars
 so that the thresholds shake.
 Topple them on the heads of all the people,
 and I will kill the rest with the sword.
 None of those who flee will get away;
 none of the fugitives will escape.

2 Though they dig down to Sheol, from there My hand will take them;
 and though they climb up to heaven,
 from there I will pull them down.

3 Though they hide themselves atop Carmel,
 there I will track them and seize them;
 and though they hide from Me at the bottom of the sea,
 there I will command the serpent * to bite them.

4 Though they are driven by their enemies into captivity, there I will command the sword to slay them.
 I will fix My eyes upon them for harm and not for good.”

5 The Lord GOD of Hosts,
 He who touches the earth and it melts,
 and all its dwellers mourn—
 all the land rises like the Nile, then sinks like the river of Egypt—

6 He builds His upper rooms in the heavens and founds His vault upon the earth.
 He summons the waters of the sea
 and pours them over the face of the earth.
 The LORD is His name.

7 “Are you not like the Cushites † to Me, O children of Israel?”

declares the LORD.

“Did I not bring Israel up from the land of Egypt, the Philistines from Caphtor;‡
 and the Arameans from Kir?”

8 Surely the eyes of the Lord GOD are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from the face of the earth.
 Yet I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob,”

declares the LORD.

9 “For surely I will give the command, and I will shake the house of Israel among all the nations
 as grain is sifted in a sieve;
 but not a pebble will reach the ground.

10 All the sinners among My people will die by the sword—
 all those who say,
 ‘Disaster will never draw near or confront us.’ ”

A Promise of Restoration
 (Acts 15:5-21)

* 9:3 Hebrew nachash; translated in most cases as snake † 9:7 That is, people from the upper Nile region ‡ 9:7 That is, Crete

11 "In that day I will restore the fallen tent of David.
 I will repair its gaps, restore its ruins,
 and rebuild it as in the days of old, 12 that they may possess the remnant of Edom and all the nations that bear My name,"§ declares the LORD, who will do this.

13 "Behold, the days are coming,"
 declares the LORD,
 "when the plowman will overtake the reaper
 and the treader of grapes, the sower of seed.
 The mountains will drip with sweet wine,
 with which all the hills will flow.
 14 I will restore My people Israel from captivity;* they will rebuild and inhabit the ruined cities.
 They will plant vineyards and drink their wine;
 they will make gardens and eat their fruit.
 15 I will firmly plant them in their own land, never again to be uprooted from the land that I have given them," says the LORD your God.

Obadiah

The Destruction of Edom (Jeremiah 49:7-22)

<sup>1</sup> This is the vision of Obadiah:

This is what the Lord GOD says about Edom—

We have heard a message from the LORD;
an envoy has been sent among the nations to say, "Rise up,
and let us go to battle against her!"—

<sup>2</sup> "Behold, I will make you small among the nations;
you will be deeply despised.

<sup>3</sup> The pride of your heart has deceived you, O dwellers in the clefts of the rocks *
whose habitation is the heights,

who say in your heart,
'Who can bring me down to the ground?'

<sup>4</sup> Though you soar like the eagle and make your nest among the stars,
even from there I will bring you down,"

declares the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> "If thieves came to you, if robbers by night—
oh, how you will be ruined—
would they not steal only what they wanted?

If grape gatherers came to you,
would they not leave some gleanings?

<sup>6</sup> But how Esau will be pillaged, his hidden treasures sought out!

<sup>7</sup> All the men allied with you will drive you to the border;
the men at peace with you will deceive and overpower you.

Those who eat your bread † will set a trap for you without your awareness of it.

<sup>8</sup> In that day, declares the LORD, will I not destroy the wise men of Edom and the men of understanding in the mountains of Esau?

<sup>9</sup> Then your mighty men, O Teman, will be terrified,
so that everyone in the mountains of Esau will be cut down in the slaughter.

<sup>10</sup> Because of the violence against your brother Jacob, you will be covered with shame and cut off forever.

<sup>11</sup> On the day you stood aloof
while strangers carried off his wealth and foreigners entered his gate and cast lots for Jerusalem,
you were just like one of them.

<sup>12</sup> But you should not gloat in that day,

* 1:3 Or in the retreats of Sela † 1:7 Hebrew does not include Those who eat.

your brother's day of misfortune, nor rejoice over the people of Judah in the day of their destruction, nor boast proudly †
 in the day of their distress.
 13 You should not enter the gate of My people
 in the day of their disaster, nor gloat over their affliction
 in the day of their disaster, nor loot their wealth
 in the day of their disaster.
 14 Nor should you stand at the crossroads to cut off their fugitives, nor deliver up their survivors
 in the day of their distress.

The Deliverance of Israel

15 For the Day of the LORD is near
 for all the nations.
 As you have done, it will be done to you;
 your recompense will return upon your own head.
 16 For as you drank on My holy mountain,
 so all the nations will drink continually.
 They will drink and gulp it down;
 they will be as if they had never existed.
 17 But on Mount Zion there will be deliverance, and it will be holy,
 and the house of Jacob will reclaim their possession.
 18 Then the house of Jacob will be a blazing fire, and the house of Joseph a burning flame;
 but the house of Esau will be stubble—
 Jacob will set it ablaze and consume it.
 Therefore no survivor will remain from the house of Esau."

For the LORD has spoken.

19 Those from the Negev will possess the mountains of Esau;
 those from the foothills § will possess the land of the Philistines.
 They will occupy the fields of Ephraim and Samaria, and Benjamin will possess Gilead.
 20 And the exiles of this host of the Israelites will possess the land of the Canaanites as far as Zarephath;
 and the exiles from Jerusalem who are in Sepharad will possess the cities of the Negev.
 21 The deliverers will ascend * Mount Zion to rule over the mountains of Esau.

And the kingdom will belong to the LORD.

† 1:12 Hebrew nor enlarge your mouth § 1:19 Hebrew Shephelah or lowlands; that is, the western foothills of

Jonah

Jonah Flees from the LORD (Nahum 1:1-15)

<sup>3</sup> Jonah, however, got up to flee to Tarshish, away from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa and found a ship bound for Tarshish. So he paid the fare and went aboard to sail for Tarshish, away from the presence of the LORD.

The Great Storm (Acts 27:13-26)

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD hurled a great wind upon the sea, and such a violent storm arose that the ship was in danger of breaking apart. <sup>5</sup> The sailors were afraid, and each cried out to his own god. And they threw the ship’s cargo into the sea to lighten the load. But Jonah had gone down to the lowest part of the vessel, where he lay down and fell into a deep sleep.

<sup>6</sup> The captain approached him and said, “How can you sleep? Get up and call upon your God. Perhaps this God will consider us, so that we may not perish.”

<sup>7</sup> “Come!” said the sailors to one another. “Let us cast lots to find out who is responsible for this calamity that is upon us.”

So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah.

<sup>8</sup> “Tell us now,” they demanded, “who is to blame for this calamity that is upon us? What is your occupation, and where have you come from? What is your country, and who are your people?”

<sup>9</sup> “I am a Hebrew,” replied Jonah. “I worship the LORD, the God of the heavens, who made the sea and the dry land.”

<sup>10</sup> Then the men were even more afraid and said to him, “What have you done?” The men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

Jonah Cast into the Sea

<sup>11</sup> Now the sea was growing worse and worse, so they said to Jonah, “What must we do to you to calm this sea for us?”

<sup>12</sup> “Pick me up,” he answered, “and cast me into the sea, so it may quiet down for you. For I know that I am to blame for this violent storm that has come upon you.”

<sup>13</sup> Nevertheless, the men rowed hard * to get back to dry land, but they could not, for the sea was raging against them more and more.

<sup>14</sup> So they cried out to the LORD: “Please, O LORD, do not let us perish on account of this man’s life! Do not charge us with innocent blood! For You, O LORD, have done as You pleased.”

<sup>15</sup> At this, they picked up Jonah and cast him into the sea, and the raging sea grew calm.

<sup>16</sup> Then the men feared the LORD greatly, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows to Him.

---

* 1:13 Hebrew the men dug in <sup>17</sup> Now the LORD had appointed a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah spent three days and three nights in the belly of the fish.

2

Jonah's Prayer

<sup>1</sup> From inside the fish, Jonah prayed to the LORD his God, <sup>2</sup> saying:

"In my distress I called to the LORD,
and He answered me.

From the belly of Sheol I called for help,
and You heard my voice.

<sup>3</sup> For You cast me into the deep,
into the heart of the seas,
and the current swirled about me;
all Your breakers and waves swept over me.

<sup>4</sup> At this, I said,
'I have been banished from Your sight;
yet I will look once more toward Your holy temple.'

<sup>5</sup> The waters engulfed me to take my life;
the watery depths closed around me;
the seaweed wrapped around my head.

<sup>6</sup> To the roots of the mountains I descended;
the earth beneath me barred me in forever!
But You raised my life from the pit,
O LORD my God!

<sup>7</sup> As my life was fading away,
I remembered the LORD.
My prayer went up to You,
to Your holy temple.

<sup>8</sup> Those who cling to worthless idols forsake His loving devotion.*

<sup>9</sup> But I, with the voice of thanksgiving, will sacrifice to You.
I will fulfill what I have vowed.
Salvation is from the LORD!"

<sup>10</sup> And the LORD commanded the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry land.

3

The Ninevites Repent (Matthew 12:38-42; Luke 11:29-32)

<sup>3</sup> This time Jonah got up and went to Nineveh, in accordance with the word of the LORD.

Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city,* requiring a three-day journey.† <sup>4</sup> On the first day of his journey, Jonah set out into the city and proclaimed, "Forty more days and Nineveh will be overturned!"

* 2:8 Forms of the Hebrew chesed are translated here and in most cases throughout the Scriptures as loving devotion; the range of meaning includes love, goodness, kindness, faithfulness, and mercy, as well as loyalty to a covenant.

* 3:3 Or was a great city to God † 3:3 Literally great city, a three-day journey

<sup>5</sup> And the Ninevites believed God. They proclaimed a fast and dressed in sackcloth, from the greatest of them to the least.

<sup>6</sup> When word reached the king of Nineveh, he got up from his throne, took off his royal robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

“By the decree of the king and his nobles:

Let no man or beast, herd or flock, taste anything at all. They must not eat or drink. <sup>8</sup> Furthermore, let both man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and have everyone call out earnestly to God. Let each one turn from his evil ways and from the violence in his hands. <sup>9</sup> Who knows? God may turn and relent; He may turn from His fierce anger, so that we will not perish.”

<sup>10</sup> When God saw their actions—that they had turned from their evil ways—He relented from the disaster He had threatened to bring upon them.

Jonah's Anger at the LORD's Compassion

<sup>1</sup> Jonah, however, was greatly displeased, and he became angry.* <sup>2</sup> So he prayed to the LORD, saying, “O LORD, is this not what I said while I was still in my own country? This is why I was so quick to flee toward Tarshish. I knew that You are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger, abounding in loving devotion—One who relents from sending disaster. <sup>3</sup> And now, O LORD, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live.”

<sup>5</sup> Then Jonah left the city and sat down east of it, where he made himself a shelter and sat in its shade to see what would happen to the city. <sup>6</sup> So the LORD God appointed a vine,† and it grew up to provide shade over Jonah's head to ease his discomfort, and Jonah was greatly pleased with the plant.

<sup>7</sup> When dawn came the next day, God appointed a worm that attacked the plant so that it withered.

<sup>8</sup> As the sun was rising, God appointed a scorching east wind, and the sun beat down on Jonah's head so that he grew faint and wished to die, saying, “It is better for me to die than to live.”

<sup>9</sup> Then God asked Jonah, “Have you any right to be angry about the plant?”

“I do,” he replied. “I am angry enough to die!”

<sup>10</sup> But the LORD said, “You cared about the plant, which you neither tended nor made grow. It sprang up in a night and perished in a night. <sup>11</sup> So should I not care about the great city of Nineveh, which has more than 120,000 people who cannot tell their right hand from their left, and many cattle as well?”

* 4:1 Or It was exceedingly evil to Jonah, and he became angry    † 4:6 Hebrew qiqayon; that is, possibly the castor oil plant; also in verses 7, 9, and 10

Micah

Judgment to Come (Isaiah 7:17-25)

<sup>1</sup> This is the word of the LORD that came to Micah the Moreshite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah—what he saw regarding Samaria and Jerusalem:

<sup>2</sup> Hear, O peoples, all of you;
listen, O earth, and everyone in it!
May the Lord GOD bear witness against you,
the Lord from His holy temple.

<sup>3</sup> For behold, the LORD comes forth from His dwelling place;
He will come down and tread
on the high places of the earth.

<sup>4</sup> The mountains will melt beneath Him, and the valleys will split apart,
like wax before the fire,
like water rushing down a slope.

<sup>5</sup> All this is for the transgression of Jacob and the sins of the house of Israel.
What is the transgression of Jacob?
Is it not Samaria?
And what is the high place of Judah?
Is it not Jerusalem?

<sup>6</sup> Therefore I will make Samaria a heap of rubble in the open field, a planting area for a vineyard.
I will pour her stones into the valley and expose her foundations.

<sup>7</sup> All her carved images will be smashed to pieces;
all her wages will be burned in the fire,
and I will destroy all her idols.
Since she collected the wages of a prostitute,
they will be used again on a prostitute.

Weeping and Mourning

<sup>8</sup> Because of this I will lament and wail;
I will walk barefoot and naked.
I will howl like a jackal* and mourn like an ostrich.†

<sup>9</sup> For her wound is incurable;
it has reached even Judah;
it has approached the gate of my people,
as far as Jerusalem itself.

<sup>10</sup> Do not tell it in Gath;‡ do not weep at all.
Roll in the dust in Beth-leaphrah.§

O dwellers of Shaphir.*
The dwellers of Zaanān† will not come out.

Beth-ezel † is in mourning;

its support is taken from you.

<sup>12</sup> For the dwellers of Maroth § pined for good, but calamity came down from the LORD,
even to the gate of Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> Harness your chariot horses,

O dweller of Lachish.*

You were the beginning of sin to the Daughter of Zion, for the transgressions of Israel were found in you.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, send farewell gifts † to Moresheth-gath;‡
the houses of Achzib § will prove deceptive to the kings of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> I will again bring a conqueror against you,

O dweller of Mareshah.*

The glory of Israel will come to Adullam.

<sup>16</sup> Shave yourselves bald and cut off your hair in mourning for your precious children;
make yourselves as bald as an eagle,
for they will go from you into exile.

2

Woe to Oppressors

<sup>1</sup> Woe to those who devise iniquity and plot evil on their beds!

At morning's light they accomplish it because the power is in their hands.

<sup>2</sup> They covet fields and seize them;
they take away houses.

They deprive a man of his home,
a fellow man of his inheritance.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says:

"I am planning against this nation a disaster from which you cannot free your necks.
Then you will not walk so proudly,
for it will be a time of calamity.

<sup>4</sup> In that day they will take up a proverb against you and taunt you with this bitter lamentation:

'We are utterly ruined!

He has changed the portion of my people.

How He has removed it from me!

He has allotted our fields to traitors.' "

<sup>5</sup> Therefore, you will have no one in the assembly of the LORD to divide the land by lot.

Reproof of False Prophets (Ezekiel 13:1-16)

<sup>6</sup> "Do not preach," they preach.

"Do not preach these things;
disgrace will not overtake us."

<sup>7</sup> Should it be said, O house of Jacob,
"Is the Spirit of the LORD impatient?"

‡ 1:11 Beth-ezel means adjoining house. § 1:12 Maroth sounds like the Hebrew for bitter. * 1:13 Lachish sounds like the Hebrew term for team of horses. † 1:14 Or give dowry ‡ 1:14 Moresheth sounds like the Hebrew for gift or dowry. § 1:14 Achzib means deception. * 1:15 Mareshah sounds like the Hebrew for conqueror.

Are these the things He does?"

Do not My words bring good to him who walks uprightly?
8 But of late My people have risen up like an enemy:
You strip off the splendid robe
from unsuspecting passersby like men returning from battle.
9 You drive the women of My people from their pleasant homes.
You take away My blessing from their children forever.

10 Arise and depart,
for this is not your place of rest,
because its defilement brings destruction—
a grievous destruction!
11 If a man of wind were to come and say falsely,
"I will preach to you of wine and strong drink,"*
he would be just the preacher for this people!

The Remnant of Israel
(Micah 5:7-15)

12 I will surely gather all of you, O Jacob;
I will collect the remnant of Israel.
I will bring them together like sheep in a pen, like a flock in the midst of its pasture—
a noisy throng.
13 One who breaks open the way
will go up before them;
they will break through the gate,
and go out by it.
Their King will pass through before them,
the LORD as their leader.

3

Rulers and Prophets Condemned

1 Then I said:
"Hear now, O leaders of Jacob,
you rulers of the house of Israel.
Should you not know justice?
2 You hate good and love evil.
You tear the skin from my people and strip the flesh from their bones.
3 You eat the flesh of my people after stripping off their skin and breaking their bones.
You chop them up like flesh for the cooking pot,
like meat in a cauldron."
4 Then they will cry out to the LORD,
but He will not answer them.
At that time He will hide His face from them because of the evil they have done.
5 This is what the LORD says:

* 2:11 Or "I will prophesy to you for wine and strong drink"

"As for the prophets who lead My people astray, who proclaim peace
 while they chew with their teeth, but declare war against one who puts nothing in their mouths:
 6 Therefore night will come over you without visions, and darkness without divination.
 The sun will set on these prophets,
 and the daylight will turn black over them.
 7 Then the seers will be ashamed and the diviners will be disgraced.
 They will all cover their mouths
 because there is no answer from God."
 8 As for me, however, I am filled with power by the Spirit of the LORD,
 with justice and courage, to declare to Jacob his transgression and to Israel his sin.

9 Now hear this, O leaders of the house of Jacob and rulers of the house of Israel, who despise justice
 and pervert all that is right, 10 who build Zion with bloodshed and Jerusalem with iniquity.
 11 Her leaders judge for a bribe,
 her priests teach for a price,
 and her prophets practice divination for money.
 Yet they lean upon the LORD, saying,
 "Is not the LORD among us?
 No disaster can come upon us."
 12 Therefore, because of you,
 Zion will be plowed like a field,
 Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble,
 and the temple mount a wooded ridge.

4

The Mountain of the House of the LORD (Isaiah 2:1-4)

1 In the last days the mountain of the house of the LORD
 will be established as the chief of the mountains;
 it will be raised above the hills,
 and the peoples will stream to it.
 2 And many nations will come and say:
 "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
 to the house of the God of Jacob.
 He will teach us His ways,
 so that we may walk in His paths."
 For the law will go forth from Zion
 and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
 3 Then He will judge between many peoples and arbitrate for strong nations far and wide.
 Then they will beat their swords into plowshares
 and their spears into pruning hooks.
 Nation will no longer take up the sword against nation,
 nor will they train anymore for war.

4 And each man will sit under his own vine and under his own fig tree, with no one to frighten him.

For the mouth of the LORD of Hosts has spoken.

5 Though each of the peoples may walk in the name of his god, yet we will walk in the name of the LORD our God
forever and ever.

The Restoration of Zion
(Zechariah 8:1-23)

6 "On that day," declares the LORD,

"I will gather the lame;

I will assemble the outcast,
even those whom I have afflicted.

7 And I will make the lame into a remnant,
and the outcast into a strong nation.

Then the LORD will rule over them in Mount Zion from that day and forever.

8 And you, O watchtower of the flock,
O stronghold * of the Daughter of Zion—
the former dominion will be restored to you;
sovereignty will come to the Daughter of Jerusalem."

9 Why do you now cry aloud?

Is there no king among you?

Has your counselor perished
so that anguish grips you like a woman in labor?

10 Writhe in agony, O Daughter of Zion,
like a woman in labor:

For now you will leave the city and camp in the open fields.

You will go to Babylon;
there you will be rescued;
there the LORD will redeem you from the hand of your enemies!

11 But now many nations have assembled against you, saying, "Let her be defiled,
and let us feast our eyes on Zion."

12 But they do not know the thoughts of the LORD or understand His plan,
for He has gathered them
like sheaves to the threshing floor.

13 Rise and thresh, O Daughter of Zion, for I will give you horns of iron and hooves of bronze to break to pieces many peoples.
Then you will devote † their gain to the LORD,
their wealth to the Lord of all the earth.

A Ruler from Bethlehem
(Matthew 2:1-12)

1 Now, O daughter of troops, mobilize your troops;
for a siege is laid against us!

* 4:8 Or hill; Hebrew And you, Migdal-eder, the Ophel † 4:13 Or devote to destruction

With a rod they will strike the cheek of the judge of Israel.

<sup>2</sup> But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, who are small among the clans * of Judah,
out of you will come forth for Me
One to be ruler over Israel †—
One whose origins are of old,
from the days of eternity.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore Israel will be abandoned until she who is in labor has given birth; then the rest of His brothers will return to the children of Israel.

<sup>4</sup> He will stand and shepherd His flock in the strength of the LORD, in the majestic name of the LORD His God.
And they will dwell securely, for then His greatness will extend
to the ends of the earth.

<sup>5</sup> And He will be our peace ‡ when Assyria invades our land
and tramples our citadels.
We will raise against it seven shepherds,
even eight leaders of men.

<sup>6</sup> And they will rule the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod with the blade drawn.
So He will deliver us
when Assyria invades our land
and marches into our borders.

The Remnant of Jacob
(Micah 2:12-13)

<sup>7</sup> Then the remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples
like dew from the LORD,
like showers on the grass,
which do not wait for man or linger for mankind.

<sup>8</sup> Then the remnant of Jacob will be among the nations,
in the midst of many peoples,
like a lion among the beasts of the forest,
like a young lion among flocks of sheep, which tramples and tears as it passes through,
with no one to rescue them.

<sup>9</sup> Your hand will be lifted over your foes,
and all your enemies will be cut off.

<sup>10</sup> "In that day,"
declares the LORD,
"I will remove your horses from among you
and wreck your chariots.

<sup>11</sup> I will remove the cities of your land and tear down all your strongholds.

<sup>12</sup> I will cut the sorceries from your hand, and you will have no fortune-tellers.

<sup>13</sup> I will also cut off the carved images and sacred pillars from among you, so that you will no longer bow down to the work of your own hands.

* 5:2 Or thousands † 5:2 Cited in Matthew 2:6 ‡ 5:5 Or their peace

- 14 I will root out the Asherah poles from your midst and demolish your cities.
15 I will take vengeance in anger and wrath upon the nations that have not obeyed Me.”

The Case against Israel

1 Hear now what the LORD says:

“Arise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice.

2 Hear, O mountains, the LORD’s indictment, you enduring foundations of the earth.
For the LORD has a case against His people,
and He will argue it against Israel:

3 ‘My people, what have I done to you?
Testify against Me how I have wearied you!

4 For I brought you up from the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of slavery.

I sent Moses before you,
as well as Aaron and Miriam.

5 My people, remember what Balak king of Moab counseled and what Balaam son of Beor answered.

Remember your journey from Shittim * to Gilgal, so that you may acknowledge the righteousness of the LORD.’ ”

6 With what shall I come before the LORD
when I bow before the God on high?
Should I come to Him with burnt offerings, with year-old calves?

7 Would the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousand rivers of oil?

Shall I present my firstborn for my transgression,
the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

8 He has shown you, O man, what is good.
And what does the LORD require of you but to act justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?

The Punishment of Israel

9 The voice of the LORD calls out to the city
(and it is sound wisdom to fear Your name):

“Heed the rod and the One who ordained it.

10 Can I forget any longer,
O house of the wicked,
the treasures of wickedness
and the short ephah, which is accursed?

11 Can I excuse dishonest scales or bags of false weights?

12 For the wealthy of the city are full of violence, and its residents speak lies;
their tongues are deceitful in their mouths.

13 Therefore I am striking you severely, to ruin you because of your sins.

* 6:5 Or Acacia Grove

14 You will eat but not be satisfied, and your hunger will remain with you.
 What you acquire, you will not preserve;
 and what you save, I will give to the sword.
 15 You will sow but not reap;
 you will press olives but not anoint yourselves with oil;
 you will tread grapes but not drink the wine.
 16 You have kept the statutes of Omri and all the practices of Ahab's house;
 you have followed their counsel.
 Therefore I will make you a desolation,
 and your inhabitants an object of contempt;
 you will bear the scorn of the nations.†

Israel's Great Misery
 (Matthew 10:34-39; Luke 12:49-53)

<sup>1</sup> Woe is me!

For I am like one gathering summer fruit at the gleaning of the vineyard;
 there is no cluster to eat,
 no early fig that I crave.
<sup>2</sup> The godly man has perished from the earth;
 there is no one upright among men.
 They all lie in wait for blood;
 they hunt one another with a net.
<sup>3</sup> Both hands are skilled at evil;
 the prince and the judge demand a bribe.
 When the powerful utters his evil desire,
 they all conspire together.
<sup>4</sup> The best of them is like a brier;
 the most upright is sharper than a hedge of thorns.
 The day for your watchmen has come,
 the day of your visitation.*
 Now is the time of their confusion.
<sup>5</sup> Do not rely on a friend;
 do not trust in a companion.
 Seal the doors of your mouth from her who lies in your arms.† <sup>6</sup> For a son dishonors his father, a daughter rises against her mother,
 and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.
 A man's enemies are the members of his own household.‡

Israel's Confession and Comfort

<sup>7</sup> But as for me, I will look to the LORD;
 I will wait for the God of my salvation.
 My God will hear me.

<sup>8</sup> Do not gloat over me, my enemy!
 Though I have fallen, I will arise;
 though I sit in darkness,
 the LORD will be my light.

<sup>9</sup> Because I have sinned against Him,
 I must endure the rage of the LORD,

† 6:16 LXX; Hebrew scorn of My people * 7:4 Or your punishment † 7:5 Hebrew in your bosom ‡ 7:6
 Cited in Matthew 10:35-36; see also Luke 12:53.

until He argues my case
 and executes justice for me.
 He will bring me into the light;
 I will see His righteousness.
 10 Then my enemy will see and will be covered with shame—
 she who said to me,
 “Where is the LORD your God?”
 My eyes will see her;
 at that time she will be trampled like mud in the streets.
 11 The day for rebuilding your walls will come—
 the day for extending your boundary.
 12 On that day they will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, even from Egypt to the Euphrates,§
 from sea to sea and mountain to mountain.
 13 Then the earth will become desolate because of its inhabitants,
 as the fruit of their deeds.

God's Compassion on Israel

14 Shepherd with Your staff Your people, the flock of Your inheritance.
 They live alone in a woodland, surrounded by pastures.*
 Let them graze in Bashan and Gilead,
 as in the days of old.
 15 As in the days when you came out of Egypt,
 I will show My wonders.
 16 Nations will see and be ashamed, deprived of all their might.
 They will put their hands over their mouths,
 and their ears will become deaf.
 17 They will lick the dust like a snake,
 like reptiles slithering on the ground.
 They will crawl from their holes in the presence of the LORD our God;
 they will tremble in fear of You.
 18 Who is a God like You,
 who pardons iniquity and passes over the transgression of the remnant of His inheritance—who does not retain His anger forever, because He delights in loving devotion?† 19 He will again have compassion on us;
 He will vanquish our iniquities.
 You will cast out all our sins
 into the depths of the sea.
 20 You will show faithfulness to Jacob and loving devotion to Abraham, as You swore to our fathers from the days of old.

§ 7:12 Hebrew the River    * 7:14 Or in a woodland, in the midst of Carmel    † 7:18 Forms of the Hebrew chesed are translated here and in most cases throughout the Scriptures as loving devotion; the range of meaning includes love, goodness, kindness, faithfulness, and mercy, as well as loyalty to a covenant.

Nahum

The Burden against Nineveh (Jonah 1:1-3)

<sup>2</sup> The LORD is a jealous and avenging God;
the LORD is avenging and full of wrath.

The LORD takes vengeance on His foes and reserves wrath for His enemies.

<sup>3</sup> The LORD is slow to anger and great in power;

the LORD will by no means leave the guilty unpunished.

His path is in the whirlwind and storm,
and clouds are the dust beneath His feet.

<sup>4</sup> He rebukes the sea and dries it up;
He makes all the rivers run dry.

Bashan and Carmel wither,
and the flower of Lebanon wilts.

<sup>5</sup> The mountains quake before Him,
and the hills melt away;

the earth trembles at His presence—
the world and all its dwellers.

<sup>6</sup> Who can withstand His indignation?
Who can endure His burning anger?

His wrath is poured out like fire;
even rocks are shattered before Him.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD is good,
a stronghold in the day of distress;
He cares for those who trust in Him.

<sup>8</sup> But with an overwhelming flood He will make an end of Nineveh * and pursue His enemies into darkness.

<sup>9</sup> Whatever you plot against the LORD,
He will bring to an end.

Affliction will not rise up
a second time.

<sup>10</sup> For they will be entangled as with thorns and consumed like the drink of a drunkard—like stubble that is fully dry.

<sup>11</sup> From you, O Nineveh, comes forth a plotter of evil against the LORD,
a counselor of wickedness.

<sup>12</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“Though they are allied and numerous,
yet they will be cut down and pass away.
Though I have afflicted you, O Judah,
I will afflict you no longer.

<sup>13</sup> For I will now break their yoke from your neck and tear away your shackles.”

<sup>14</sup> The LORD has issued a command concerning you, O Nineveh:

---

* 1:8 Literally of her place

“There will be no descendants to carry on your name.
I will cut off the carved image and cast idol from the house of your gods;
I will prepare your grave,
for you are contemptible.”

<sup>15</sup> Look to the mountains—
the feet of one who brings good news, who proclaims peace!
Celebrate your feasts, O Judah;
fulfill your vows.
For the wicked will never again march through you;
they will be utterly cut off.

2

The Overthrow of Nineveh

<sup>1</sup> One who scatters advances against you, O Nineveh.
Guard the fortress!
Watch the road!
Brace yourselves! *
Summon all your strength!

<sup>2</sup> For the LORD will restore the splendor of Jacob like the splendor of Israel, though destroyers have laid them waste and ruined the branches of their vine.

<sup>3</sup> The shields of his mighty men are red;
the valiant warriors are dressed in scarlet.
The fittings of the chariots flash like fire on the day they are prepared, and the spears of cypress
have been brandished. †

<sup>4</sup> The chariots dash through the streets;
they rush around the plazas,
appearing like torches,
darting about like lightning.

<sup>5</sup> He summons his nobles;
they stumble as they advance.
They race to its wall;
the protective shield is set in place.

<sup>6</sup> The river gates are thrown open and the palace collapses.

<sup>7</sup> It is decreed that the city be exiled and carried away;
her maidservants moan like doves,
and beat upon their breasts.

<sup>8</sup> Nineveh has been like a pool of water throughout her days,
but now it is draining away.

“Stop! Stop!” they cry, but no one turns back.

Plunder the gold!”
There is no end to the treasure,

* 2:1 Hebrew Strengthen your loins! † 2:3 Hebrew; alternately, the spears may be of pine or juniper or fir; LXX and Syriac they are prepared, and the horsemen rush to and fro.

an abundance of every precious thing.

Yes, she is desolate and laid waste!

Hearts melt, knees knock,

bodies tremble, and every face grows pale!

<sup>11</sup> Where is the lions' lair or the feeding ground of the young lions,

where the lion and lioness prowled with their cubs,

with nothing to frighten them away?

<sup>12</sup> The lion mauled enough for its cubs and strangled prey for the lioness.

It filled its dens with the kill,

and its lairs with mauled prey.

<sup>13</sup> "Behold, I am against you,"

declares the LORD of Hosts.

"I will send your chariots up in smoke,

and the sword will devour your young lions.

I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voices of your messengers will no longer be heard."

3

Judgment on Nineveh

<sup>1</sup> Woe to the city of blood,

full of lies,

full of plunder,

never without prey.

<sup>2</sup> The crack of the whip,

the rumble of the wheel,

galloping horse

and bounding chariot!

<sup>3</sup> Charging horseman,

flashing sword,

shining spear;

heaps of slain,

mounds of corpses,

dead bodies without end—

they stumble over their dead—

<sup>4</sup> because of the many harlotries of the harlot, the seductive mistress of sorcery, who betrays nations by her prostitution and clans by her witchcraft.

<sup>5</sup> "Behold, I am against you,"

declares the LORD of Hosts.

"I will lift your skirts over your face.

I will show your nakedness to the nations and your shame to the kingdoms.

<sup>6</sup> I will pelt you with filth and treat you with contempt;

I will make a spectacle of you.

<sup>7</sup> Then all who see you will recoil from you and say,

'Nineveh is devastated;

who will grieve for her?'

Where can I find

comforters for you?"

- 8 Are you better than Thebes,* stationed by the Nile with water around her, whose rampart was the sea,
 whose wall was the water?
- 9 Cush † and Egypt were her boundless strength;
 Put and Libya were her allies.
- 10 Yet she became an exile;
 she went into captivity.
 Her infants were dashed to pieces at the head of every street.
 They cast lots for her dignitaries,
 and all her nobles were bound in chains.
- 11 You too will become drunk;
 you will go into hiding
 and seek refuge from the enemy.
- 12 All your fortresses are fig trees
 with the first ripe figs;
 when shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater!
- 13 Look at your troops—
 they are like your women!
 The gates of your land
 are wide open to your enemies;
 fire consumes their bars.
- 14 Draw your water for the siege;
 strengthen your fortresses.
 Work the clay and tread the mortar;
 repair the brick kiln!
- 15 There the fire will devour you;
 the sword will cut you down and consume you like a young locust.
 Make yourself many like the young locust;
 make yourself many like the swarming locust!
- 16 You have multiplied your merchants more than the stars of the sky.
 The young locust strips the land and flies away.
- 17 Your guards ‡ are like the swarming locust, and your scribes § like clouds of locusts that settle on the walls on a cold day.
 When the sun rises, they fly away,
 and no one knows where.
- 18 O king of Assyria, your shepherds slumber;
 your officers sleep.
 Your people are scattered on the mountains with no one to gather them.
- 19 There is no healing for your injury;
 your wound is severe.
 All who hear the news of you applaud your downfall, for who has not experienced your constant cruelty?

Habakkuk

Habakkuk's First Complaint

<sup>1</sup> This is the burden that Habakkuk the prophet received in a vision:

<sup>2</sup> How long, O LORD, must I call for help but You do not hear, or cry out to You, "Violence!"
but You do not save?

<sup>3</sup> Why do You make me see iniquity?
Why do You tolerate wrongdoing?
Destruction and violence are before me.
Strife is ongoing, and conflict abounds.

<sup>4</sup> Therefore the law is paralyzed, and justice never goes forth.
For the wicked hem in the righteous,
so that justice is perverted.

The LORD's Answer

<sup>5</sup> "Look at the nations and observe—be utterly astounded!*"
For I am doing a work in your days
that you would never believe even if someone told you.†

<sup>6</sup> For behold, I am raising up the Chaldeans ‡— that ruthless and impetuous nation which marches through the breadth of the earth to seize dwellings not their own.

<sup>7</sup> They are dreaded and feared;
from themselves they derive justice and sovereignty.

<sup>8</sup> Their horses are swifter than leopards, fiercer than wolves of the night.
Their horsemen charge ahead,
and their cavalry comes from afar.
They fly like a vulture,
swooping down to devour.

<sup>9</sup> All of them come bent on violence;
their hordes advance like the east wind;
they gather prisoners like sand.

<sup>10</sup> They scoff at kings and make rulers an object of scorn.
They laugh at every fortress and build up siege ramps to seize it.

<sup>11</sup> Then they sweep by like the wind and pass on through.
They are guilty;
their own strength is their god."

Habakkuk's Second Complaint (Psalm 11:1-7)

<sup>12</sup> Are You not from everlasting,
O LORD, my God, my Holy One?
We will not die.
O LORD, You have appointed them
to execute judgment;
O Rock, You have established them

* 1:5 LXX Look, you scoffers, wonder and perish! † 1:5 Cited in Acts 13:41 ‡ 1:6 That is, the Babylonians for correction.

- <sup>13</sup> Your eyes are too pure to look upon evil,
and You cannot tolerate wrongdoing.
So why do You tolerate the faithless?
Why are You silent
while the wicked swallow up those more righteous than themselves?
- <sup>14</sup> You have made men like the fish of the sea,
like creeping things that have no ruler.
- <sup>15</sup> The foe pulls all of them up § with a hook;
he catches them in his dragnet,
and gathers them in his fishing net;
so he rejoices gladly.
- <sup>16</sup> Therefore he sacrifices to his dragnet and burns incense to his fishing net, for by these things his portion is sumptuous and his food is rich.
- <sup>17</sup> Will he, therefore, empty his net and continue to slay nations without mercy?

2

The LORD Answers Again

- <sup>1</sup> I will stand at my guard post and station myself on the ramparts.
I will watch to see what He will say to me,
and how I should answer when corrected.
- <sup>2</sup> Then the LORD answered me:
- “Write down this vision and clearly inscribe it on tablets, so that a herald may run with it.
- <sup>3</sup> For the vision awaits an appointed time;
it testifies of the end and does not lie.
Though it lingers, wait for it,
since it will surely come and will not delay.*
- <sup>4</sup> Look at the proud one; his soul is not upright †— but the righteous will live by faith ‡—
- <sup>5</sup> and wealth § indeed betrays him.
He is an arrogant man never at rest.
He enlarges his appetite like Sheol,
and like Death, he is never satisfied.
He gathers all the nations to himself and collects all the peoples as his own.

Woe to the Chaldeans

- <sup>6</sup> Will not all of these take up a taunt against him, speaking with mockery and derision:
- ‘Woe to him who amasses what is not his and makes himself rich with many loans!
How long will this go on?’
- <sup>7</sup> Will not your creditors suddenly arise and those who disturb you awaken?
Then you will become their prey.
- <sup>8</sup> Because you have plundered many nations,

§ 1:15 Literally He pulls all of them up * 2:3 Or Though He lingers, wait for Him, since He will surely come and will not delay; see also LXX; cited in Hebrews 10:37. † 2:4 LXX If he should draw back, My soul has no pleasure in him ‡ 2:4 Or faithfulness; cited in Romans 1:17, Galatians 3:11, and Hebrews 10:38 § 2:5 DSS; MT wine

the remnant of the people will plunder you—because of your bloodshed against man and your violence against the land, the city,
and all their dwellers.

<sup>9</sup> Woe to him who builds his house by unjust gain,

to place his nest on high
and escape the hand of disaster!

<sup>10</sup> You have plotted shame for your house by cutting off many peoples and forfeiting your life.*

<sup>11</sup> For the stones will cry out from the wall,
and the rafters will echo it from the woodwork.

<sup>12</sup> Woe to him who builds a city with bloodshed and establishes a town by iniquity!

<sup>13</sup> Is it not indeed from the LORD of Hosts that the labor of the people only feeds the fire, and the nations weary themselves in vain?

<sup>14</sup> For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.

<sup>15</sup> Woe to him who gives drink to his neighbors, pouring it from the wineskin until they are drunk,
in order to gaze at their nakedness!

<sup>16</sup> You will be filled with shame instead of glory.
You too must drink
and expose your uncircumcision!†

The cup in the LORD's right hand will come around to you,
and utter disgrace will cover your glory.

<sup>17</sup> For your violence against Lebanon will overwhelm you, and the destruction of animals will terrify you,
because of your bloodshed against men
and your violence against the land, the city,
and all their dwellers.

<sup>18</sup> What use is an idol, that a craftsman should carve it—
or an image,
a teacher of lies?

For its maker trusts in his own creation;
he makes idols that cannot speak.

<sup>19</sup> Woe to him who says to wood, 'Awake!'
or to silent stone, 'Arise!'
Can it give guidance?

Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, yet there is no breath in it at all."

<sup>20</sup> But the LORD is in His holy temple; let all the earth be silent before Him.

3

Habakkuk's Prayer

* 2:10 Literally sinning against your soul † 2:16 DSS, LXX, and Syriac and stagger * 3:1 Shigionoth is probably a musical term indicating the setting for the prayer.

<sup>2</sup> O LORD, I have heard the report of You;
 I stand in awe, O LORD, of Your deeds.
 Revive them in these years;
 make them known in these years.
 In Your wrath, remember mercy!

<sup>3</sup> God came from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran.

Selah †

His glory covered the heavens, and His praise filled the earth.

<sup>4</sup> His radiance was like the sunlight;
 rays flashed from His hand,
 where His power is hidden.

<sup>5</sup> Plague went before Him,
 and fever followed in His steps.

<sup>6</sup> He stood and measured the earth;
 He looked and startled the nations;
 the ancient mountains crumbled;
 the perpetual hills collapsed.
 His ways are everlasting.

<sup>7</sup> I saw the tents of Cushan in distress;
 the curtains of Midian were trembling.

<sup>8</sup> Were You angry at the rivers, O LORD?
 Was Your wrath against the streams?

Did You rage against the sea
 when You rode on Your horses,
 on Your chariots of salvation?

<sup>9</sup> You brandished Your bow;
 You called for many arrows.

Selah

You split the earth with rivers.

 torrents of water swept by.

The deep roared with its voice and lifted its hands on high.

 in their places

at the flash of Your flying arrows,
 at the brightness of Your shining spear.

<sup>12</sup> You marched across the earth with fury;
 You threshed the nations in wrath.

<sup>13</sup> You went forth for the salvation of Your people, to save Your anointed.

You crushed the head of the house of the wicked and stripped him from head to toe.

Selah

 when his warriors stormed out to scatter us, gloating as though ready

<sup>15</sup> You trampled the sea with Your horses, churning the great waters.

<sup>16</sup> I heard and trembled within;
 my lips quivered at the sound.

Decay entered my bones;
 I trembled where I stood.

Yet I must wait patiently for the day of distress

though the olive crop fails and the fields produce no food, though the sheep are cut off from the fold

<sup>18</sup> yet I will exult in the LORD;
I will rejoice in the God of my salvation!

Zephaniah

Zephaniah Prophecies Judgment on Judah (Matthew 13:36–43)

<sup>1</sup> This is the word of the LORD that came to Zephaniah son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah son of Amon king of Judah:

<sup>2</sup> “I will completely sweep away everything from the face of the earth,”

declares the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> “I will sweep away man and beast;
I will sweep away the birds of the air,
and the fish of the sea,
and the idols with their wicked worshipers.*
I will cut off mankind from the face of the earth,”

declares the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> “I will stretch out My hand against Judah and against all who dwell in Jerusalem.
I will cut off from this place every remnant of Baal,
the names of the idolatrous and pagan priests—

<sup>5</sup> those who bow on the rooftops to worship the host of heaven, those who bow down and swear by the LORD
but also swear by Milcom,†

<sup>6</sup> and those who turn back from following the LORD, neither seeking the LORD
nor inquiring of Him.”

The Day of the LORD (Malachi 4:1–6; 1 Thessalonians 5:1–11; 2 Peter 3:8–13)

<sup>7</sup> Be silent in the presence of the Lord GOD,
for the Day of the LORD is near.
Indeed, the LORD has prepared a sacrifice;
He has consecrated His guests.

<sup>8</sup> “On the Day of the LORD’s sacrifice
I will punish the princes,
the sons of the king,
and all who are dressed in foreign apparel.

<sup>9</sup> On that day I will punish all who leap over the threshold,‡ who fill the house of their master § with violence and deceit.

<sup>10</sup> On that day,” declares the LORD,
“a cry will go up from the Fish Gate, a wail from the Second District,*
and a loud crashing from the hills.

<sup>11</sup> Wail, O dwellers of the Hollow,† for all your merchants ‡ will be silenced;
all who weigh out silver will be cut off.

<sup>12</sup> And at that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps and punish the men settled in complacency,§ who say to themselves,
 'The LORD will do nothing, either good or bad.'
<sup>13</sup> Their wealth will be plundered and their houses laid waste.
 They will build houses but not inhabit them,
 and plant vineyards but never drink their wine.

<sup>14</sup> The great Day of the LORD is near—near and coming quickly.
 Listen, the Day of the LORD!
 Then the cry of the mighty will be bitter.
<sup>15</sup> That day will be a day of wrath,
 a day of trouble and distress,
 a day of destruction and desolation,
 a day of darkness and gloom,
 a day of clouds and blackness,
<sup>16</sup> a day of horn blast and battle cry against the fortified cities,
 and against the high corner towers.
<sup>17</sup> I will bring such distress on mankind that they will walk like the blind, because they have sinned against the LORD.
 Their blood will be poured out like dust
 and their flesh like dung.
<sup>18</sup> Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them on the Day of the LORD's wrath.
 The whole earth will be consumed
 by the fire of His jealousy."

For indeed, He will make a sudden end of all who dwell on the earth.*

 a place of weeds and salt pits,
 a perpetual wasteland.
 The remnant of My people will plunder them;
 the remainder of My nation will dispossess them."

Haggai

A Call to Rebuild the Temple (Ezra 5:1-5)

<sup>1</sup> In the second year of the reign of Darius, on the first day of the sixth month, the word of the LORD came through Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, * the high priest, stating <sup>2</sup> that this is what the LORD of Hosts says:

“These people say, ‘The time has not yet come to rebuild the house of the LORD.’ ”

<sup>3</sup> Then the word of the LORD came through Haggai the prophet, saying:

<sup>4</sup> “Is it a time for you yourselves to live in your paneled houses, while this house lies in ruins?”

<sup>5</sup> Now this is what the LORD of Hosts says:

“Consider carefully your ways.

<sup>6</sup> You have planted much but harvested little. You eat but never have enough. You drink but never have your fill. You put on clothes but never get warm. You earn wages to put into a bag pierced through.”

<sup>7</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts says:

“Consider carefully your ways.

<sup>8</sup> Go up into the hills, bring down lumber, and build the house, so that I may take pleasure in it and be glorified, says the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> You expected much, but behold, it amounted to little. And what you brought home, I blew away. Why? declares the LORD of Hosts. Because My house still lies in ruins, while each of you is busy with his own house.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore, on account of you the heavens have withheld their dew and the earth has withheld its crops.

<sup>11</sup> I have summoned a drought on the fields and on the mountains, on the grain, new wine, and oil, and on whatever the ground yields, on man and beast, and on all the labor of your hands.”

The People Obey

---

* 11 Jehozadak is a variant of Jozadak; also in verses 12 and 14; see Ezra 3:2.

<sup>12</sup> Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, as well as all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God and the words of the prophet Haggai, because the LORD their God had sent him. So the people feared the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> Haggai, the messenger of the LORD, delivered the message of the LORD to the people:

“I am with you,”
declares the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> So the LORD stirred the spirit of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, as well as the spirit of all the remnant of the people. And they came and began the work on the house of the LORD of Hosts, their God, <sup>15</sup> on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of King Darius.

The Coming Glory of God's House

<sup>4</sup> But now be strong, O Zerubbabel,
declares the LORD.
Be strong, O Joshua son of Jehozadak,
the high priest.
And be strong, all you people of the land,
declares the LORD.

Work! For I am with you,
declares the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>5</sup> This is the promise I made to you when you came out of Egypt.
And My Spirit remains among you;
do not be afraid.”

<sup>6</sup> For this is what the LORD of Hosts says:

“Once more, in a little while,
I will shake the heavens and the earth,†
the sea and the dry land.

<sup>7</sup> I will shake all the nations, and they will come with all their treasures,
and I will fill this house with glory,
says the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>8</sup> The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine,
declares the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>9</sup> The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,
says the LORD of Hosts.

And in this place I will provide peace,
declares the LORD of Hosts.”

Blessings for a Defiled People

<sup>10</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Haggai the prophet, saying, <sup>11</sup> “This is what the LORD of Hosts says: ‘Ask the priests for a ruling. <sup>12</sup> If a man carries consecrated meat in the fold of his garment, and it touches bread, stew, wine, oil, or any other food, does that item become holy?"

"No," replied the priests.

<sup>13</sup> So Haggai asked, "If one who is defiled by contact with a corpse touches any of these, does it become defiled?"

"Yes, it becomes defiled," the priests answered.

<sup>14</sup> Then Haggai replied, "So it is with this people and this nation before Me, declares the LORD, and so it is with every work of their hands; whatever they offer there is defiled.

<sup>18</sup> Consider carefully from this day forward—from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, the day the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid—consider carefully: <sup>19</sup> Is there still seed in the barn? The vine, the fig, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not yet yielded fruit. But from this day on, I will bless you."

Zerubbabel the LORD's Signet Ring

<sup>20</sup> For the second time that day, the twenty-fourth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to Haggai, saying, <sup>21</sup> "Tell Zerubbabel governor of Judah that I am about to shake the heavens and the earth:

<sup>22</sup> I will overturn royal thrones and destroy the power of the kingdoms of the nations.
I will overturn chariots and their riders;
horses and their riders will fall,
each by the sword of his brother.

<sup>23</sup> On that day,
declares the LORD of Hosts,
I will take you, My servant,
Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel,
declares the LORD,
and I will make you like My signet ring,
for I have chosen you,
declares the LORD of Hosts."

Zechariah

A Call to Repentance (Jeremiah 3:11-25; Hosea 14:1-3)

<sup>1</sup> In the eighth month of the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, saying:

<sup>2</sup> “The LORD was very angry with your fathers. <sup>3</sup> So tell the people that this is what the LORD of Hosts says: ‘Return to Me, declares the LORD of Hosts, and I will return to you, says the LORD of Hosts.’

<sup>4</sup> Do not be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets proclaimed that this is what the LORD of Hosts says: ‘Turn now from your evil ways and deeds.’

But they did not listen or pay attention to Me, declares the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> Where are your fathers now? And the prophets, do they live forever? <sup>6</sup> But did not My words and My statutes, which I commanded My servants the prophets, overtake your fathers? They repented and said, ‘Just as the LORD of Hosts purposed to do to us according to our ways and deeds, so He has done to us.’ ”

The Vision of the Horses

<sup>7</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, the month of Shebat,* in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo.

<sup>8</sup> I looked out into the night and saw a man riding on a red horse. He was standing among the myrtle trees in the hollow, and behind him were red, sorrel, and white horses.

<sup>9</sup> “What are these, my lord?” I asked.

And the angel who was speaking with me replied, “I will show you what they are.”

<sup>10</sup> Then the man standing among the myrtle trees explained, “They are the ones the LORD has sent to patrol the earth.”

<sup>11</sup> And the riders answered the angel of the LORD who was standing among the myrtle trees, “We have patrolled the earth, and behold, all the earth is at rest and tranquil.”

<sup>12</sup> Then the angel of the LORD said, “How long, O LORD of Hosts, will You withhold mercy from Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, with which You have been angry these seventy years?”

<sup>13</sup> So the LORD spoke kind and comforting words to the angel who was speaking with me.

<sup>14</sup> Then the angel who was speaking with me said, “Proclaim this word: This is what the LORD of Hosts says: ‘I am very jealous for Jerusalem and Zion,<sup>15</sup> but I am fiercely angry with the nations that are at ease. For I was a little angry, but they have added to the calamity.†’

<sup>16</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says: ‘I will return to Jerusalem with mercy, and there My house will be rebuilt, declares the LORD of Hosts, and a measuring line will be stretched out over Jerusalem.’

<sup>17</sup> Proclaim further that this is what the LORD of Hosts says: ‘My cities will again overflow with prosperity; the LORD will again comfort Zion and choose Jerusalem.’ ”

The Vision of the Horns and the Craftsmen

<sup>18</sup> Then I looked up and saw four horns. <sup>19</sup> So I asked the angel who was speaking with me, “What are these?”

And he told me, “These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.”

<sup>20</sup> Then the LORD showed me four craftsmen.

And He replied, “These are the horns that scattered Judah so that no one could raise his head; but the craftsmen have come to terrify them and throw down these horns of the nations that have lifted up their horns against the land of Judah to scatter it.”

The Vision of the Measuring Line
(Ezekiel 40:1–4)

<sup>1</sup> Then I lifted up my eyes and saw a man with a measuring line in his hand.

<sup>3</sup> Then the angel who was speaking with me went out, and another angel came out to meet him <sup>4</sup> and said to him, “Run and tell that young man: ‘Jerusalem will be a city without walls because of the multitude of men and livestock within it. <sup>5</sup> For I will be a wall of fire around it, declares the LORD, and I will be the glory within it.’ ”

The Redemption of Zion
(Hosea 3:1–5)

<sup>8</sup> For this is what the LORD of Hosts says: “After His Glory has sent Me * against the nations that have plundered you—for whoever touches you touches the apple † of His eye— <sup>9</sup> I will surely wave My hand over them, so that they will become plunder for their own servants. Then you will know that the LORD of Hosts has sent Me.”

<sup>10</sup> “Shout for joy and be glad, O Daughter of Zion, for I am coming to dwell among you,” declares the LORD. <sup>11</sup> “On that day many nations will join themselves to the LORD, and they will become My people. I will dwell among you, and you will know that the LORD of Hosts has sent Me to you. <sup>12</sup> And the LORD will take possession of Judah as His portion in the Holy Land, and He will once again choose Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> Be silent before the LORD, all people, for He has roused Himself from His holy dwelling.”

3

The Vision of Joshua the High Priest

* 2:8 Or After the Glorious One has sent Me or After He has honored Me and sent Me † 2:8 Or the pupil * 3:1 Or Angel; also in verses 3, 4, 5, and 6; corresponding pronouns may also be capitalized. † 3:1 That is, the Accuser or the Adversary; also in verse 2

<sup>3</sup> Now Joshua was dressed in filthy garments as he stood before the angel. <sup>4</sup> So the angel said to those standing before him, "Take off his filthy clothes!"

Then he said to Joshua, "See, I have removed your iniquity, and I will clothe you with splendid robes."

<sup>5</sup> Then I said, "Let them put a clean turban on his head." So a clean turban was placed on his head, and they clothed him, as the angel of the LORD stood by.

<sup>6</sup> Then the angel of the LORD gave this charge to Joshua: <sup>7</sup> "This is what the LORD of Hosts says: 'If you walk in My ways and keep My instructions, then you will govern My house and will also have charge of My courts; and I will give you a place among these who are standing here.'

<sup>8</sup> Hear now, O high priest Joshua, you and your companions seated before you, who are indeed a sign. For behold, I am going to bring My servant, the Branch. <sup>9</sup> See the stone I have set before Joshua; on that one stone are seven eyes.§ Behold, I will engrave on it an inscription, declares the LORD of Hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of this land in a single day. <sup>10</sup> On that day, declares the LORD of Hosts, you will each invite your neighbor to sit under your own vine and fig tree.' "

The Vision of the Lampstand and Olive Trees

<sup>1</sup> Then the angel who was speaking with me returned and woke me, as a man is awakened from his sleep.

"I see a solid gold lampstand," I replied, "with a bowl at the top and seven lamps on it, with seven spouts to the lamps. <sup>3</sup> There are also two olive trees beside it, one on the right side of the bowl and the other on its left."

<sup>4</sup> "What are these, my lord?" I asked the angel who was speaking with me.

<sup>5</sup> "Do you not know what they are?" replied the angel.

"No, my lord," I answered.

<sup>6</sup> So he said to me, "This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit, says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>7</sup> What are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become a plain. Then he will bring forth the capstone accompanied by shouts of 'Grace, grace to it!'"

<sup>8</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>9</sup> "The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house, and his hands will complete it. Then you will know that the LORD of Hosts has sent me to you. <sup>10</sup> For who has despised the day of small things? But these seven eyes * of the LORD, which scan the whole earth, will rejoice when they see the plumb line † in the hand of Zerubbabel."

The Vision of the Flying Scroll

<sup>1</sup> Again I lifted up my eyes and saw before me a flying scroll.

“I see a flying scroll,” I replied, “twenty cubits long and ten cubits wide.*”

<sup>3</sup> Then he told me, “This is the curse that is going out over the face of all the land, for according to one side of the scroll, every thief will be removed; and according to the other side, every perjurer will be removed. <sup>4</sup> I will send it out, declares the LORD of Hosts, and it will enter the house of the thief and the house of him who swears falsely by My name. It will remain inside his house and destroy it, down to its timbers and stones.”

The Vision of the Woman in a Basket

<sup>5</sup> Then the angel who was speaking with me came forward and told me, “Now lift up your eyes and see what is approaching.”

And he replied, “A measuring basket † is going forth.” Then he continued, “This is their iniquity ‡ in all the land.”

<sup>7</sup> And behold, the cover of lead was raised, and there was a woman sitting inside the basket.

<sup>8</sup> “This is Wickedness,” he said. And he shoved her down into the basket, pushing down the lead cover over its opening.

<sup>9</sup> Then I lifted up my eyes and saw two women approaching, with the wind in their wings. Their wings were like those of a stork, and they lifted up the basket between heaven and earth.

<sup>10</sup> “Where are they taking the basket?” I asked the angel who was speaking with me.

<sup>11</sup> “To build a house for it in the land of Shinar;§” he told me. “And when it is ready, the basket will be set there on its pedestal.”

The Vision of the Four Chariots

<sup>4</sup> So I inquired of the angel who was speaking with me, “What are these, my lord?”

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD summoned me and said, “Behold, those going to the land of the north have given rest to My Spirit in the land of the north.”

The Crown and the Temple

<sup>9</sup> The word of the LORD also came to me, saying, <sup>10</sup> “Take an offering from the exiles— from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, who have arrived from Babylon—and go that same day to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah. <sup>11</sup> Take silver and gold, make an ornate crown, and set it on the head of the high priest, Joshua son of Jehozadak.‡

<sup>12</sup> And you are to tell him that this is what the LORD of Hosts says: ‘Here is a man whose name is the Branch, and He will branch out from His place and build the temple of the LORD. <sup>13</sup> Yes, He will build the temple of the LORD; He will be clothed in splendor and will sit on His throne and rule. And He will be a priest on His throne,§ and there will be peaceful counsel between the two.’

<sup>14</sup> The crown will reside in the temple of the LORD as a memorial to Helem,* Tobijah, Jedaiah, and the gracious † son of Zephaniah. <sup>15</sup> Even those far away will come and build the temple of the LORD, and you will know that the LORD of Hosts has sent Me to you. This will happen if you diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.”

A Call to Justice and Mercy

<sup>4</sup> Then the word of the LORD of Hosts came to me, saying, <sup>5</sup> “Ask all the people of the land and the priests, ‘When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months for these seventy years, was it really for Me that you fasted?’ <sup>6</sup> And when you were eating and drinking, were you not doing so simply for yourselves? <sup>7</sup> Are these not the words that the LORD proclaimed through the earlier prophets, when Jerusalem and its surrounding towns were populous and prosperous, and the Negev and the foothills ‡ were inhabited?’ ”

<sup>11</sup> But they refused to pay attention and turned a stubborn shoulder; they stopped up their ears from hearing.* <sup>12</sup> They made their hearts like flint and would not listen to the law or to the words that the LORD of Hosts had sent by His Spirit through the earlier prophets. Therefore great anger came from the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>13</sup> And just as I had called and they would not listen, so when they called I would not listen, says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>14</sup> But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations that they had not known, and the land was left desolate behind them so that no one could come or go. Thus they turned the pleasant land into a desolation.”

The Restoration of Jerusalem (Micah 4:6-13)

<sup>3</sup> This is what the LORD says: “I will return to Zion and dwell in Jerusalem. Then Jerusalem will be called the City of Truth, and the mountain of the LORD of Hosts will be called the Holy Mountain.”

<sup>4</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts says: “Old men and old women will again sit along the streets of Jerusalem, each with a staff in hand because of great age. <sup>5</sup> And the streets of the city will be filled with boys and girls playing there.”

<sup>6</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts says: “If this is impossible * in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be impossible in My eyes?” declares the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>7</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts says: “I will save My people from the land of the east and from the land of the west. <sup>8</sup> I will bring them back to dwell in Jerusalem, where they will be My people, and I will be their faithful and righteous God.”

<sup>12</sup> “For the seed will be prosperous, the vine will yield its fruit, the ground will yield its produce, and the skies will give their dew. To the remnant of this people I will give all these things as an inheritance. <sup>13</sup> As you have been a curse among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you, and you will be a blessing. Do not be afraid; let your hands be strong.”

<sup>14</sup> For this is what the LORD of Hosts says: “Just as I resolved to bring disaster upon you when your fathers provoked Me to anger, and I did not relent,” says the LORD of Hosts, <sup>15</sup> “so now I have resolved to do good again to Jerusalem and Judah. Do not be afraid. <sup>16</sup> These are the things you must do: Speak truth to one another, render true and sound judgments in your gates, <sup>17</sup> do not plot evil in your hearts against your neighbor, and do not love to swear falsely, for I hate all these things,” declares the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> Then the word of the LORD of Hosts came to me, saying, <sup>19</sup> “This is what the LORD of Hosts says: The fasts of the fourth, the fifth, the seventh, and the tenth months will become times of joy and gladness, cheerful feasts for the house of Judah. Therefore you are to love both truth and peace.”

<sup>20</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts says: “Peoples will yet come—the residents of many cities— <sup>21</sup> and the residents of one city will go to another, saying: ‘Let us go at once to plead before the LORD and to seek the LORD of Hosts. I myself am going.’ <sup>22</sup> And many peoples and strong nations will come to seek the LORD of Hosts in Jerusalem and to plead before the LORD.”

* 8:6 Or marvelous; twice in this verse

<sup>23</sup> This is what the LORD of Hosts says: "In those days ten men from the nations of every tongue will tightly grasp the robe of a Jew, saying, 'Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.'"

The Burden against Israel's Enemies

<sup>1</sup> This is the burden of the word of the LORD against the land of Hadrach and Damascus its resting place—for the eyes of men and of all the tribes of Israel are upon the LORD *—

<sup>2</sup> and also against Hamath, which borders it,
as well as Tyre and Sidon,
though they are very shrewd.

<sup>3</sup> Tyre has built herself a fortress;
she has heaped up silver like dust,
and gold like the dirt of the streets.

<sup>4</sup> Behold, the Lord will impoverish her and cast her wealth into the sea,†
and she will be consumed by fire.

<sup>5</sup> Ashkelon will see and fear;
Gaza will writhe in agony,
as will Ekron,
for her hope will wither.
There will cease to be a king in Gaza,
and Ashkelon will be uninhabited.

<sup>6</sup> A mixed race will occupy Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

<sup>7</sup> I will remove the blood from their mouths and the abominations from between their teeth.
Then they too will become a remnant for our God;
they will become like a clan ‡ in Judah,
and Ekron will be like the Jebusites.

<sup>8</sup> But I will camp around My house because of an army, because of those who march to and fro,
and never again will an oppressor overrun My people,
for now I keep watch with My own eyes.

Zion's Coming King

(Matthew 21:1-11; Mark 11:1-11; Luke 19:28-40; John 12:12-19)

<sup>9</sup> Rejoice greatly, O Daughter of Zion!
Shout in triumph, O Daughter of Jerusalem!
See, your King comes to you,

righteous and victorious,§ humble and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.*

<sup>10</sup> And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim † and the horse from Jerusalem, and the bow of war will be broken.

Then He will proclaim peace to the nations.
His dominion will extend from sea to sea,
and from the Euphrates ‡

* 9:1 Or for the eye of the LORD is on all men and all the tribes of Israel † 9:4 Or strike down her power on the sea ‡ 9:7 Or like a leader § 9:9 Or righteous and endowed with salvation * 9:9 Cited in Matthew 21:5 and John 12:15 † 9:10 That is, the northern kingdom of Israel ‡ 9:10 Hebrew the River

to the ends of the earth.

<sup>11</sup> As for you, because of the blood of My covenant,
I will release your prisoners from the waterless pit.

<sup>12</sup> Return to your stronghold,
O prisoners of hope;
even today I declare that I will restore to you double.

<sup>13</sup> For I will bend Judah as My bow and fit it with Ephraim.

I will rouse your sons, O Zion, against the sons of Greece.§

I will make you like the sword of a mighty man.

The LORD Will Save His People

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD will appear over them, and His arrow will go forth like lightning.

The Lord GOD will sound the ram's horn and advance in the whirlwinds of the south.

<sup>15</sup> The LORD of Hosts will shield them.
They will destroy and conquer with slingstones;
they will drink and roar as with wine.

And they will be filled like sprinkling bowls,
drenched like the corners of the altar.

<sup>16</sup> On that day the LORD their God will save them as the flock of His people;

for like jewels in a crown
they will sparkle over His land.

<sup>17</sup> How lovely they will be,
and how beautiful!

Grain will make the young men flourish,
and new wine, the young women.

10

Judah and Israel Will Be Restored

<sup>1</sup> Ask the LORD for rain in springtime;
the LORD makes the storm clouds, and He will give everyone showers of rain and crops in the field.

<sup>2</sup> For idols speak deceit and diviners see illusions;
they tell false dreams and offer empty comfort.

Therefore the people wander like sheep,
oppressed for lack of a shepherd.

<sup>3</sup> "My anger burns against the shepherds, and I will punish the leaders.*
For the LORD of Hosts attends to His flock, the house of Judah;
He will make them
like His royal steed in battle.

<sup>4</sup> The cornerstone will come from Judah,
the tent peg from him,
as well as the battle bow and every ruler together.

§ 9:13 Hebrew the sons of Javan * 10:3 Or these male goats

<sup>5</sup> They will be like mighty men in battle, trampling the enemy in the mire of the streets.
They will fight because the LORD is with them,
and they will put the horsemen to shame.

<sup>6</sup> I will strengthen the house of Judah and save the house of Joseph.
I will restore them because I have compassion on them,
and they will be as though I had not rejected them.
For I am the LORD their God,
and I will answer them.

<sup>7</sup> Ephraim will be like a mighty man,
and their hearts will be glad as with wine.
Their children will see it and be joyful;
their hearts will rejoice in the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> I will whistle for them to gather,
for I have redeemed them;
and they will be as numerous as they once were.

<sup>9</sup> Though I sow them among the nations, they will remember Me in distant lands;
they and their children will live and return.

<sup>10</sup> I will bring them back from Egypt and gather them from Assyria.
I will bring them to Gilead and Lebanon until no more room is found for them.

<sup>11</sup> They will pass through the sea of distress and strike the waves of the sea;
all the depths of the Nile will dry up.
The pride of Assyria will be brought down,
and the scepter of Egypt will depart.

<sup>12</sup> I will strengthen them in the LORD, and in His name they will walk,"

declares the LORD.

11

The Doomed Flock

<sup>1</sup> Open your doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may consume your cedars!

<sup>2</sup> Wail, O cypress,* for the cedar has fallen;
the majestic trees are ruined!

Wail, O oaks of Bashan,
for the dense forest has been cut down!

<sup>3</sup> Listen to the wailing of the shepherds, for their glory is in ruins.

Listen to the roaring of the young lions,
for the thickets of the Jordan are destroyed.

<sup>4</sup> This is what the LORD my God says: "Pasture the flock marked for slaughter, <sup>5</sup> whose buyers slaughter them without remorse. Those who sell them say, 'Blessed be the LORD, for I am rich!' Even their own shepherds have no compassion on them.

<sup>6</sup> For I will no longer have compassion on the people of the land, declares the LORD, but behold, I will cause each man to fall into the hands of his neighbor and his king, who will devastate the land, and I will not deliver it from their hands."

* 11:2 Or pine or juniper or fir

<sup>7</sup> So I pastured the flock marked for slaughter, especially the afflicted of the flock. Then I took for myself two staffs, calling one Favor and the other Union, and I pastured the flock. <sup>8</sup> And in one month I dismissed three shepherds.

My soul grew impatient with the flock, and their souls also detested me. <sup>9</sup> Then I said, "I will no longer shepherd you. Let the dying die, and the perishing perish; and let those who remain devour one another's flesh."

Thirty Pieces of Silver
(Matthew 27:3-10)

<sup>10</sup> Next I took my staff called Favor and cut it in two,† revoking the covenant I had made with all the nations. <sup>11</sup> It was revoked on that day, and so the afflicted of the flock who were watching me knew that it was the word of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> Then I told them, "If it seems right to you, give me my wages; but if not, keep them." So they weighed out my wages, thirty pieces of silver.

<sup>13</sup> And the LORD said to me, "Throw it to the potter"—this magnificent price at which they valued me. So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them to the potter in the house of the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> Then I cut in two my second staff called Union, breaking the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

<sup>15</sup> And the LORD said to me: "Take up once more the equipment of a foolish shepherd. <sup>16</sup> For behold, I will raise up a shepherd in the land who will neither care for the lost, nor seek the young, nor heal the broken, nor sustain the healthy, but he will devour the flesh of the choice sheep and tear off their hooves.

<sup>17</sup> Woe to the worthless shepherd, who deserts the flock!
May a sword strike his arm
and his right eye!
May his arm be completely withered and his right eye utterly blinded!"

12

The Coming Deliverance of Jerusalem

Thus declares the LORD, who stretches out the heavens and lays the foundation of the earth, who forms the spirit of man within him:

<sup>2</sup> "Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of drunkenness to all the surrounding peoples. Judah will be besieged, as well as Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> On that day, when all the nations of the earth gather against her, I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples; all who would heave it away will be severely injured.

<sup>4</sup> On that day, declares the LORD, I will strike every horse with panic, and every rider with madness. I will keep a watchful eye on the house of Judah, but I will strike with blindness all the horses of the nations.

<sup>5</sup> Then the leaders of Judah will say in their hearts: 'The people of Jerusalem are my strength, for the LORD of Hosts is their God.'

<sup>6</sup> On that day I will make the clans of Judah like a firepot in a woodpile, like a flaming torch among the sheaves; they will consume all the peoples around them on the right and on the left, while the people of Jerusalem remain secure there.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD will save the tents of Judah first, so that the glory of the house of David and of the people of Jerusalem may not be greater than that of Judah. <sup>8</sup> On that day the LORD will defend the people of Jerusalem, so that the weakest among them will be like David, and the house of David will be like God, like the angel * of the LORD going before them.

<sup>9</sup> So on that day I will set out to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

Mourning the One They Pierced
(John 19:31-37)

<sup>10</sup> Then I will pour out on the house of David and on the people of Jerusalem a spirit † of grace and prayer, and they will look on Me,‡ the One they have pierced.§ They will mourn for Him as one mourns for an only child, and grieve bitterly for Him as one grieves for a firstborn son.

<sup>11</sup> On that day the wailing in Jerusalem will be as great as the wailing of Hadad-rimmon in the plain of Megiddo. <sup>12</sup> The land will mourn, each clan on its own: the clan of the house of David and their wives, the clan of the house of Nathan and their wives, <sup>13</sup> the clan of the house of Levi and their wives, the clan of Shimei and their wives, <sup>14</sup> and all the remaining clans and their wives.

13

An End to Idolatry

<sup>1</sup> "On that day a fountain will be opened to the house of David and the people of Jerusalem, to cleanse them from sin and impurity. <sup>2</sup> And on that day, declares the LORD of Hosts, I will erase the names of the idols from the land, and they will no longer be remembered. I will also remove the prophets and the spirit of impurity * from the land.

<sup>3</sup> And if anyone still prophesies, his father and mother who bore him will say to him, 'You shall not remain alive, because you have spoken falsely in the name of the LORD.' When he prophesies, his father and mother who bore him will pierce him through.

<sup>4</sup> And on that day every prophet who prophesies will be ashamed of his vision, and he will not put on a hairy cloak in order to deceive. <sup>5</sup> He will say, 'I am not a prophet; I work the land, for I was purchased as a servant in my youth.'† <sup>6</sup> If someone asks him, 'What are these wounds on your chest ‡?' he will answer, 'These are the wounds I received in the house of my friends.'

The Shepherd Struck, the Sheep Scattered
(Matthew 26:31-35; Mark 14:27-31)

<sup>7</sup> Awake, O sword, against My Shepherd, against the man who is My Companion,
declares the LORD of Hosts.
Strike the Shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered,§
and I will turn My hand against the little ones.

<sup>8</sup> And in all the land,
declares the LORD,
two-thirds will be cut off and perish,
but a third will be left in it.

<sup>9</sup> This third I will bring through the fire;
I will refine them like silver and test them like gold.
They will call on My name,
and I will answer them.

* 12:8 Or Angel    † 12:10 Or the Spirit    ‡ 12:10 Or to Me    § 12:10 Cited in John 19:37    * 13:2 Or the unclean spirit    † 13:5 Or I am a farmer, for the land has been my livelihood since my youth.    ‡ 13:6 Literally between your hands    § 13:7 Cited in Matthew 26:31 and Mark 14:27

I will say, 'They are My people,' and they will say, 'The LORD is our God.' "

14

The Destroyers of Jerusalem Destroyed

<sup>1</sup> Behold, a day of the LORD is coming when your plunder will be divided in your presence. <sup>2</sup> For I will gather all the nations for battle against Jerusalem, and the city will be captured, the houses looted, and the women ravished. Half of the city will go into exile, but the rest of the people will not be removed from the city.

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD will go out to fight against those nations, as He fights in the day of battle. <sup>4</sup> On that day His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, east of Jerusalem, and the Mount of Olives will be split in two from east to west, forming a great valley, with half the mountain moving to the north and half to the south. <sup>5</sup> You will flee by My mountain valley, for it will extend to Azal. You will flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come, and all the holy ones with Him.*

<sup>6</sup> On that day there will be no light, no cold or frost. <sup>7</sup> It will be a day known only to the LORD, without day or night; but when evening comes, there will be light.

<sup>8</sup> And on that day living water will flow out from Jerusalem, half of it toward the Eastern Sea † and the other half toward the Western Sea,‡ in summer and winter alike. <sup>9</sup> On that day the LORD will become King over all the earth—the LORD alone, and His name alone.

<sup>10</sup> All the land from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem will be turned into a plain, but Jerusalem will be raised up and will remain in her place, from the Benjamin Gate to the site of the First Gate to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the royal winepresses. <sup>11</sup> People will live there, and never again will there be an utter destruction. So Jerusalem will dwell securely.

<sup>13</sup> On that day a great panic from the LORD will come upon them, so that each will seize the hand of another; and the hand of one will rise against the other. <sup>14</sup> Judah will also fight at Jerusalem, and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be collected—gold, silver, and apparel in great abundance. <sup>15</sup> And a similar plague will strike the horses and mules, camels and donkeys, and all the animals in those camps.

All Nations Will Worship the King
(Leviticus 23:33–44; Nehemiah 8:13–18)

<sup>16</sup> Then all the survivors from the nations that came against Jerusalem will go up year after year to worship the King, the LORD of Hosts, and to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles. § <sup>17</sup> And should any of the families of the earth not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of Hosts, then the rain will not fall on them. <sup>18</sup> And if the people of Egypt will not go up and enter in, then the rain will not fall on them; this will be the plague with which the LORD strikes the nations who do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles. <sup>19</sup> This will be the punishment of Egypt and of all the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles.

<sup>20</sup> On that day, HOLY TO THE LORD * will be inscribed on the bells of the horses, and the cooking pots in the house of the LORD will be like the sprinkling bowls before the altar. <sup>21</sup> Indeed, every pot in Jerusalem and Judah will be holy to the LORD of Hosts, and all

Malachi

The LORD's Love for Israel
(Genesis 25:19–28; Romans 9:6–29)

<sup>2</sup> "I have loved you," says the LORD.

But you ask, "How have You loved us?"

"Was not Esau Jacob's brother?" declares the LORD. "Yet Jacob I have loved, <sup>3</sup> but Esau I have hated,† and I have made his mountains a wasteland and left his inheritance to the desert jackals.‡"

<sup>4</sup> Though Edom may say, "We have been devastated, but we will rebuild the ruins," this is what the LORD of Hosts says: "They may build, but I will demolish. They will be called the Land of Wickedness, and a people with whom the LORD is indignant forever. <sup>5</sup> You will see this with your own eyes, and you yourselves will say, 'The LORD is great—even beyond the borders of Israel.'"

The Polluted Offerings

<sup>6</sup> "A son honors his father, and a servant his master. But if I am a father, where is My honor? And if I am a master, where is your fear of Me?" says the LORD of Hosts to you priests who despise My name.

"But you ask, 'How have we despised Your name?'

But you ask, 'How have we defiled You §?'

By saying that the table of the LORD is contemptible.

<sup>8</sup> When you offer blind animals for sacrifice, is it not wrong? And when you present the lame and sick ones, is it not wrong? Try offering them to your governor! Would he be pleased with you or show you favor?" asks the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>9</sup> "But ask now for God's favor. Will He be gracious? Since this has come from your hands, will He show you favor?" asks the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>10</sup> "Oh, that one of you would shut the temple doors, so that you would no longer kindle useless fires on My altar! I take no pleasure in you," says the LORD of Hosts, "and I will accept no offering from your hands.

<sup>11</sup> For My name will be great among the nations, from where the sun rises to where it sets. In every place, incense and pure offerings will be presented in My name, because My name will be great among the nations," says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>12</sup> "But you profane it when you say, 'The table of the Lord is defiled, and as for its fruit, its food is contemptible.'

<sup>13</sup> You also say: 'Oh, what a nuisance!' And you turn up your nose at it," says the LORD of Hosts.

"You bring offerings that are stolen, lame, or sick! Should I accept these from your hands?" asks the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> "But cursed is the deceiver who has an acceptable male in his flock and vows to give it, but sacrifices a defective animal to the Lord. For I am a great King," says the LORD of Hosts, "and My name is to be feared among the nations.

A Warning to the Priests

<sup>2</sup> If you do not listen, and if you do not take it to heart to honor My name,” says the LORD of Hosts, “I will send a curse among you, and I will curse your blessings. Yes, I have already begun to curse them, because you are not taking it to heart.

<sup>3</sup> Behold, I will rebuke your descendants,* and I will spread dung on your faces, the waste from your feasts, and you will be carried off with it.

<sup>4</sup> Then you will know that I have sent you this commandment so that My covenant with Levi may continue,” says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>5</sup> “My covenant with him was one of life and peace, which I gave to him; it called for reverence, and he revered Me and stood in awe of My name.

<sup>6</sup> True instruction was in his mouth, and nothing false was found on his lips. He walked with Me in peace and uprightness, and he turned many from iniquity. <sup>7</sup> For the lips of a priest should preserve knowledge, and people should seek instruction from his mouth, because he is the messenger of the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>8</sup> But you have departed from the way, and your instruction has caused many to stumble. You have violated the covenant of Levi,” says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>9</sup> “So I in turn have made you despised and humiliated before all the people, because you have not kept My ways, but have shown partiality in matters of the law.”

Judah’s Unfaithfulness

<sup>10</sup> Do we not all have one Father? Did not one God create us? Why then do we break faith with one another so as to profane the covenant of our fathers?

<sup>11</sup> Judah has broken faith; an abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem. For Judah has profaned the LORD’s beloved sanctuary by marrying the daughter of a foreign god. <sup>12</sup> As for the man who does this, may the LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob everyone who is awake and aware—even if he brings an offering to the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>13</sup> And this is another thing you do: You cover the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping and groaning, because He no longer regards your offerings or receives them gladly from your hands.

<sup>14</sup> Yet you ask, “Why?”

It is because the LORD has been a witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have broken faith, though she is your companion and your wife by covenant.

<sup>15</sup> Has not the LORD made them one, having a portion of the Spirit? And why one? Because He seeks godly offspring. So guard yourselves in your spirit and do not break faith with the wife of your youth.

<sup>16</sup> “For I hate divorce,” says the LORD, the God of Israel. “He who divorces his wife covers his garment with violence,”† says the LORD of Hosts. So guard yourselves in your spirit and do not break faith.

<sup>17</sup> You have wearied the LORD with your words; yet you ask, “How have we wearied Him?”

By saying, “All who do evil are good in the sight of the LORD, and in them He delights,” or, “Where is the God of justice?”

I Will Send My Messenger
(Matthew 11:7-19; Luke 7:24-35)

<sup>1</sup> “Behold, I will send My messenger, who will prepare the way before Me.* Then the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to His temple—the Messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight—see, He is coming,” says the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>2</sup> But who can endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He will be like a refiner’s fire, like a launderer’s soap.

<sup>3</sup> And He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; He will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver. Then they will present offerings to the LORD in righteousness.

<sup>4</sup> Then the offerings of Judah and Jerusalem will please the LORD, as in days of old and years gone by.

<sup>5</sup> “Then I will draw near to you for judgment. And I will be a swift witness against sorcerers and adulterers and perjurers, against oppressors of the widowed and fatherless, and against those who defraud laborers of their wages and deny justice to the foreigner but do not fear Me,” says the LORD of Hosts.

Robbing God

<sup>6</sup> “Because I, the LORD, do not change, you descendants of Jacob have not been destroyed. <sup>7</sup> Yet from the days of your fathers, you have turned away from My statutes and have not kept them. Return to Me, and I will return to you,” says the LORD of Hosts.

“But you ask, ‘How can we return?’

<sup>8</sup> Will a man rob God? Yet you are robbing Me!

But you ask, ‘How do we rob You?’

In tithes and offerings. <sup>9</sup> You are cursed with a curse, yet you—the whole nation—are still robbing Me. <sup>10</sup> Bring the full tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house. Test Me in this,” says the LORD of Hosts. “See if I will not open the windows of heaven and pour out for you blessing without measure.† <sup>11</sup> I will rebuke the devourer‡ for you, so that it will not destroy the fruits of your land, and the vine in your field will not fail to produce fruit,” says the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>12</sup> “Then all the nations will call you blessed, for you will be a land of delight,” says the LORD of Hosts.

The Book of Remembrance

<sup>13</sup> “Your words against Me have been harsh,” says the LORD. “Yet you ask, ‘What have we spoken against You?’

<sup>14</sup> You have said, ‘It is futile to serve God. What have we gained by keeping His requirements and walking mournfully before the LORD of Hosts? <sup>15</sup> So now we call the arrogant blessed. Not only do evildoers prosper; they even test God and escape.’ ”

<sup>16</sup> At that time those who feared the LORD spoke with one another, and the LORD listened and heard them. So a scroll of remembrance was written before Him regarding those who feared the LORD and honored His name.

<sup>17</sup> “They will be Mine,” says the LORD of Hosts, “on the day when I prepare My treasured possession. And I will spare them as a man spares his own son who serves him. <sup>18</sup> So you will again distinguish between the righteous and the wicked, between those who serve God and those who do not.”

The Day of the LORD(Zephaniah 1:7-18; 1 Thessalonians 5:1-11; 2 Peter 3:8-13)

<sup>1</sup> “For behold, the day is coming, burning like a furnace, when all the arrogant and every evildoer will be stubble; the day is coming when I will set them ablaze,” says the LORD of Hosts. “Not a root or branch will be left to them.”

<sup>2</sup> “But for you who fear My name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings,* and you will go out and leap like calves from the stall. <sup>3</sup> Then you will trample the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day I am preparing,” says the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>5</sup> Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and awesome ‡ Day of the LORD. <sup>6</sup> And he will turn the hearts of the fathers to their children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers.§ Otherwise, I will come and strike the land with a curse.”

The Genealogy of Jesus (Ruth 4:18-22; Luke 3:23-38)

Isaac the father of Jacob,
and Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers.

<sup>3</sup> Judah was the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar, Perez the father of Hezron, and Hezron the father of Ram.*

<sup>4</sup> Ram was the father of Amminadab, Amminadab the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon the father of Salmon.

<sup>5</sup> Salmon was the father of Boaz by Rahab, Boaz the father of Obed by Ruth,
Obed the father of Jesse,
<sup>6</sup> and Jesse the father of David the king.

Next:

David was the father of Solomon by Uriah's wife, <sup>7</sup> Solomon the father of Rehoboam, Rehoboam the father of Abijah, and Abijah the father of Asa.†

<sup>8</sup> Asa was the father of Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat the father of Joram, and Joram the father of Uzziah.

<sup>9</sup> Uzziah was the father of Jotham, Jotham the father of Ahaz, and Ahaz the father of Hezekiah.

<sup>10</sup> Hezekiah was the father of Manasseh, Manasseh the father of Amon,‡ Amon the father of Josiah, <sup>11</sup> and Josiah the father of Jeconiah and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babylon.

<sup>12</sup> After the exile to Babylon:

Jeconiah was the father of Shealtiel,
Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel, <sup>13</sup> Zerubbabel the father of Abiud, Abiud the father of Eliakim,
and Eliakim the father of Azor.

<sup>14</sup> Azor was the father of Zadok, Zadok the father of Achim, and Achim the father of Eliud.

* 1:3 Greek Aram, a variant of Ram; also in verse 4; see 1 Chronicles 2:9-10. † 1:7 Greek Asaph, a variant of Asa; also in verse 8; see 1 Chronicles 3:10. ‡ 1:10 Greek Amōs, a variant spelling of Amon; twice in this verse; see 1 Chronicles 3:14.

<sup>15</sup> Eliud was the father of Eleazar, Eleazar the father of Matthan,
 Matthan the father of Jacob, <sup>16</sup> and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary,
 of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

<sup>17</sup> In all, then, there were fourteen generations from Abraham to David, fourteen from David to the exile to Babylon, and fourteen from the exile to the Christ.

The Birth of Jesus
 (Isaiah 7:10-16; Luke 2:1-7)

<sup>18</sup> This is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about: His mother Mary was pledged in marriage to Joseph, but before they came together, she was found to be with child through the Holy Spirit. <sup>19</sup> Because Joseph her husband was a righteous man and was unwilling to disgrace her publicly, he resolved to divorce her quietly.

<sup>20</sup> But after he had pondered these things, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to embrace Mary as your wife, for the One conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. <sup>21</sup> She will give birth to a Son, and you are to give Him the name Jesus,§ because He will save His people from their sins."

<sup>23</sup> "Behold, the virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and they will call Him Immanuel"*
 (which means, "God with us"†).

<sup>24</sup> When Joseph woke up, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him, and embraced Mary as his wife. <sup>25</sup> But he had no union with her ‡ until she gave birth to a Son. And he gave Him the name Jesus.

The Pilgrimage of the Magi
 (Micah 5:1-6)

<sup>1</sup> After Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, during the time of King Herod, Magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, <sup>2</sup> asking, "Where is the One who has been born King of the Jews? We saw His star in the east* and have come to worship Him."

<sup>3</sup> When King Herod heard this, he was disturbed, and all Jerusalem with him. <sup>4</sup> And when he had assembled all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he asked them where the Christ was to be born.

<sup>5</sup> "In Bethlehem in Judea," they replied, "for this is what the prophet has written:

<sup>6</sup> 'But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah, for out of you will come a ruler who will be the shepherd of My people Israel.'††"

<sup>7</sup> Then Herod called the Magi secretly and learned from them the exact time the star had appeared. <sup>8</sup> And sending them to Bethlehem, he said: "Go and search carefully for the Child, and when you find Him, report to me, so that I too may go and worship Him."

<sup>9</sup> After they had heard the king, they went on their way, and the star they had seen in the east went ahead of them until it stood over the place where the Child was. <sup>10</sup> When they saw the star, they rejoiced with great delight. <sup>11</sup> On coming to the house, they saw the Child with His mother Mary, and they fell down and worshiped Him. Then they opened their treasures and presented Him with gifts of gold and frankincense and myrrh.

<sup>12</sup> And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they withdrew to their country by another route.

The Flight to Egypt
(Hosea 11:1-7)

<sup>13</sup> When the Magi had gone, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream. "Get up!" he said. "Take the Child and His mother and flee to Egypt. Stay there until I tell you, for Herod is going to search for the Child to kill Him."

<sup>14</sup> So he got up, took the Child and His mother by night, and withdrew to Egypt, <sup>15</sup> where he stayed until the death of Herod. This fulfilled what the Lord had spoken through the prophet: "Out of Egypt I called My Son."‡

Weeping and Great Mourning
(Jeremiah 31:1-25)

<sup>16</sup> When Herod saw that he had been outwitted by the Magi, he was filled with rage. Sending orders, he put to death all the boys in Bethlehem and its vicinity who were two years old and under, according to the time he had learned from the Magi. <sup>17</sup> Then what was spoken through the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled:

<sup>18</sup> "A voice is heard in Ramah,
weeping and great mourning,
Rachel weeping for her children,
and refusing to be comforted,
because they are no more."§

The Return to Nazareth
(Luke 2:39-40)

<sup>19</sup> After Herod died, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt. <sup>20</sup> "Get up!" he said. "Take the Child and His mother and go to the land of Israel, for those seeking the Child's life are now dead."

<sup>21</sup> So Joseph got up, took the Child and His mother, and went to the land of Israel. <sup>22</sup> But when he learned that Archelaus was reigning in Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And having been warned in a dream, he withdrew to the district of Galilee, <sup>23</sup> and he went and lived in a town called Nazareth. So was fulfilled what was spoken through the prophets: "He will be called a Nazarene."

3

The Mission of John the Baptist
(Isaiah 40:1-5; Mark 1:1-8; Luke 3:1-20; John 1:19-28)

<sup>1</sup> In those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea <sup>2</sup> and saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near." <sup>3</sup> This is he who was spoken of through the prophet Isaiah:

"A voice of one calling in the wilderness,
'Prepare the way for the Lord,
make straight paths for Him.'"*

<sup>7</sup> But when John saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his place of baptism, he said to them, "You brood of vipers, who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? <sup>8</sup> Produce fruit, then, in keeping with repentance. <sup>9</sup> And do not presume to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I tell you that out of these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. <sup>10</sup> The axe lies ready at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.

<sup>11</sup> I baptize you with water † for repentance, but after me will come One more powerful than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.‡ <sup>12</sup> His winnowing fork is in His hand to clear His threshing floor and to gather His wheat into the barn; but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

The Baptism of Jesus

(Mark 1:9-11; Luke 3:21-22; John 1:29-34)

<sup>13</sup> At that time Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptized by John. <sup>14</sup> But John tried to prevent Him, saying, "I need to be baptized by You, and do You come to me?"

<sup>15</sup> "Let it be so now," Jesus replied. "It is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness in this way." Then John permitted Him.

<sup>16</sup> As soon as Jesus was baptized, He went up out of the water. Suddenly the heavens were opened,§ and He saw * the Spirit of God descending like a dove and resting on Him. <sup>17</sup> And a voice from heaven said, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased!"

4

The Temptation of Jesus

(Mark 1:12-13; Luke 4:1-13)

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. <sup>2</sup> After fasting forty days and forty nights, He was hungry.

<sup>3</sup> The tempter came to Him and said, "If You are the Son of God, tell these stones to become bread."

<sup>4</sup> But Jesus answered, "It is written:

'Man shall not live on bread alone,
but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.*"

<sup>5</sup> Then the devil took Him to the holy city and set Him on the pinnacle of the temple.

<sup>6</sup> "If You are the Son of God," he said, "throw Yourself down. For it is written:

'He will command His angels concerning You,
and they will lift You up in their hands,
so that You will not strike Your foot against a stone.†"

<sup>7</sup> Jesus replied, "It is also written: 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.‡"

<sup>8</sup> Again, the devil took Him to a very high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. <sup>9</sup> "All this I will give You," he said, "if You will fall down and worship me."

<sup>10</sup> "Away from Me, Satan!" Jesus declared. "For it is written: 'Worship the Lord your God and serve Him only.‡"

Jesus Begins His Ministry

(Isaiah 9:1-7; Mark 1:14-15; Luke 4:14-15)

12 When Jesus heard that John had been imprisoned, He withdrew to Galilee. <sup>13</sup> Leaving Nazareth, He went and lived in Capernaum, which is by the sea in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, <sup>14</sup> to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

<sup>15</sup> “Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali,
the Way of the Sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles—
<sup>16</sup> the people living in darkness
have seen a great light;
on those living in the land of the shadow of death,
a light has dawned.”*

<sup>17</sup> From that time on Jesus began to preach, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near.”

The First Disciples

<sup>18</sup> As Jesus was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, He saw two brothers, Simon called Peter and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. <sup>19</sup> “Come, follow Me,” Jesus said, “and I will make you fishers of men.” <sup>20</sup> And at once they left their nets and followed Him.

<sup>21</sup> Going on from there, He saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John. They were in a boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets. Jesus called them, <sup>22</sup> and immediately they left the boat and their father and followed Him.

Jesus Heals the Multitudes

(Mark 3:7-12; Luke 6:17-19)

<sup>23</sup> Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness among the people. <sup>24</sup> News about Him spread all over Syria, and people brought to Him all who were ill with various diseases, those suffering acute pain, the demon-possessed, those having seizures, and the paralyzed—and He healed them.

5

The Sermon on the Mount

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus saw the crowds, He went up on the mountain and sat down. His disciples came to Him, <sup>2</sup> and He began to teach them, saying:

The Beatitudes

(Psalm 1:1-6; Luke 6:20-23)

<sup>3</sup> “Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
<sup>4</sup> Blessed are those who mourn,
for they will be comforted.
<sup>5</sup> Blessed are the meek,

- 9 Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called sons of God.
- 10 Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you, and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of Me. 12 Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven; for in the same way they persecuted the prophets before you.

Salt and Light
(Mark 9:49–50; Luke 14:34–35; Philippians 2:12–18)

13 You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its savor, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled by men.

14 You are the light of the world. A city on a hill † cannot be hidden. 15 Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a basket. Instead, they set it on a stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. 16 In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.

The Fulfillment of the Law

17 Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets. I have not come to abolish them, but to fulfill them. 18 For I tell you truly, until heaven and earth pass away, not a single jot, not a stroke of a pen, will disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished.

19 So then, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do likewise will be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever practices and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. 20 For I tell you that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Anger and Reconciliation
(Luke 12:57–59)

21 You have heard that it was said to the ancients, ‘Do not murder’‡ and ‘Anyone who murders will be subject to judgment.’ 22 But I tell you that anyone who is angry with his brother § will be subject to judgment. Again, anyone who says to his brother, ‘Raca,’* will be subject to the Sanhedrin.† But anyone who says, ‘You fool!’ will be subject to the fire of hell.‡

23 So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, 24 leave your gift there before the altar. First go and be reconciled to your brother; then come and offer your gift.

25 Reconcile quickly with your adversary, while you are still on the way to court. Otherwise, he may hand you over to the judge, and the judge may hand you over to the officer, and you may be thrown into prison. 26 Truly I tell you, you will not get out until you have paid the last penny.§

It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell.† <sup>30</sup> And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to depart into hell.

Divorce

(Deuteronomy 24:1-5; Luke 16:18)

<sup>31</sup> It has also been said, 'Whoever divorces his wife must give her a certificate of divorce.'‡ <sup>32</sup> But I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, brings adultery upon her.§ And he who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

Oaths and Vows

(Numbers 30:1-16)

<sup>33</sup> Again, you have heard that it was said to the ancients, 'Do not break your oath, but fulfill your vows to the Lord.'* <sup>34</sup> But I tell you not to swear at all: either by heaven, for it is God's throne; <sup>35</sup> or by the earth, for it is His footstool; or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. <sup>36</sup> Nor should you swear by your head, for you cannot make a single hair white or black. <sup>37</sup> Simply let your 'Yes' be 'Yes,' and your 'No,' 'No.' Anything more comes from the evil one.†

Love Your Enemies

<sup>38</sup> You have heard that it was said, 'Eye for eye and tooth for tooth.'‡ <sup>39</sup> But I tell you not to resist an evil person. If someone slaps you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also; <sup>40</sup> if someone wants to sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well; <sup>41</sup> and if someone forces you to go one mile,§ go with him two miles.* <sup>42</sup> Give to the one who asks you, and do not turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you.

<sup>43</sup> You have heard that it was said, 'Love your neighbor'† and 'Hate your enemy.'‡ <sup>44</sup> But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you,‡ <sup>45</sup> that you may be sons of your Father in heaven. He causes His sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous. <sup>46</sup> If you love those who love you, what reward will you get? Do not even tax collectors do the same? <sup>47</sup> And if you greet only your brothers, what are you doing more than others? Do not even Gentiles do the same?

<sup>1</sup> "Be careful not to perform your righteous acts* before men to be seen by them. If you do, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven.

<sup>2</sup> So when you give to the needy, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be honored by men. Truly I tell you, they already have their full reward. <sup>3</sup> But when you give to the needy, do not let your left

The Lord's Prayer
(Luke 11:1-4)

<sup>5</sup> And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites. For they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by men. Truly I tell you, they already have their full reward. <sup>6</sup> But when you pray, go into your inner room, shut your door, and pray to your Father, who is unseen. And your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

<sup>7</sup> And when you pray, do not babble on like pagans, for they think that by their many words they will be heard. <sup>8</sup> Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask Him.

<sup>9</sup> So then, this is how you should pray:

'Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be Your name.
<sup>10</sup> Your kingdom come,

<sup>12</sup> And forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.
<sup>13</sup> And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.†'

<sup>14</sup> For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.
<sup>15</sup> But if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive yours.

Proper Fasting

<sup>16</sup> When you fast, do not be somber like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces to show men they are fasting. Truly I tell you, they already have their full reward. <sup>17</sup> But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, <sup>18</sup> so that your fasting will not be obvious to men, but only to your Father, who is unseen. And your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

Treasures in Heaven
(Luke 12:32-34)

<sup>19</sup> Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust ‡ destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. <sup>20</sup> But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. <sup>21</sup> For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

The Lamp of the Body
(Luke 11:33-36)

<sup>22</sup> The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eyes are good,§ your whole body will be full of light. <sup>23</sup> But if your eyes are bad,* your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light within you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

<sup>24</sup> No one can serve two masters: Either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.

Do Not Worry
(Luke 12:22-31)

† 6:13 Or from evil; BYZ and TR include For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
‡ 6:19 Or worm; also in verse 20 § 6:22 Literally If your eye is sound; see Proverbs 22:9 * 6:23 Literally if your eye is evil; see Proverbs 23:6 and Proverbs 28:22

<sup>25</sup> Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothes? <sup>26</sup> Look at the birds of the air: They do not sow or reap or gather into barns—and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they? <sup>27</sup> Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life?†

<sup>28</sup> And why do you worry about clothes? Consider how the lilies of the field grow: They do not labor or spin. <sup>29</sup> Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his glory was adorned like one of these. <sup>30</sup> If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, will He not much more clothe you, O you of little faith?

<sup>34</sup> Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Today has enough trouble of its own.

Judging Others

(Luke 6:37–42; Romans 14:1–12)

<sup>1</sup> “Do not judge, or you will be judged. <sup>2</sup> For with the same judgment you pronounce, you will be judged; and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.

<sup>3</sup> Why do you look at the speck in your brother’s eye, but fail to notice the beam in your own eye? <sup>4</sup> How can you say to your brother, ‘Let me take the speck out of your eye,’ while there is still a beam in your own eye? <sup>5</sup> You hypocrite! First take the beam out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother’s eye.

<sup>6</sup> Do not give dogs what is holy; do not throw your pearls before swine. If you do, they may trample them under their feet, and then turn and tear you to pieces.

Ask, Seek, Knock

<sup>7</sup> Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you. <sup>8</sup> For everyone who asks receives; he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks, the door will be opened.

<sup>9</sup> Which of you, if his son asks for bread, will give him a stone? <sup>10</sup> Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake? <sup>11</sup> So if you who are evil know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask Him!

<sup>12</sup> In everything, then, do to others as you would have them do to you. For this is the essence of the Law and the Prophets.

The Narrow Gate
(Luke 13:22–30)

<sup>13</sup> Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. <sup>14</sup> But small is the gate and narrow the way that leads to life, and only a few find it.

A Tree and Its Fruit

† 6:27 Or a single cubit to his height; a cubit was approximately 18 inches or 45 centimeters. ‡ 6:33 SBL, WH, and NE seek first His kingdom; see also Luke 12:31.

<sup>21</sup> Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of My Father in heaven. <sup>22</sup> Many will say to Me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your name, and in Your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?'

<sup>23</sup> Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you workers of lawlessness!'

The House on the Rock
(Luke 6:46-49)

<sup>24</sup> Therefore everyone who hears these words of Mine and acts on them is like a wise man who built his house on the rock. <sup>25</sup> The rain fell, the torrents raged, and the winds blew and beat against that house; yet it did not fall, because its foundation was on the rock.

<sup>26</sup> But everyone who hears these words of Mine and does not act on them is like a foolish man who built his house on sand. <sup>27</sup> The rain fell, the torrents raged, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell—and great was its collapse!"

The Authority of Jesus

<sup>28</sup> When Jesus had finished saying these things, the crowds were astonished at His teaching, <sup>29</sup> because He taught as one who had authority, and not as their scribes.

8

The Leper's Prayer
(Leviticus 14:1-32; Mark 1:40-45; Luke 5:12-16)

<sup>3</sup> Jesus reached out His hand and touched the man. "I am willing," He said. "Be clean!" And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

<sup>4</sup> Then Jesus instructed him, "See that you don't tell anyone. But go, show yourself to the priest and offer the gift prescribed by Moses, as a testimony to them."†

The Faith of the Centurion
(Luke 7:1-10; John 4:43-54)

<sup>7</sup> "I will go and heal him," Jesus replied.

<sup>8</sup> The centurion answered, "Lord, I am not worthy to have You come under my roof. But just say the word, and my servant will be healed. <sup>9</sup> For I myself am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I tell one to go, and he goes; and another to come, and he comes. I tell my servant to do something, and he does it."

<sup>10</sup> When Jesus heard this, He marveled and said to those following Him, "Truly I tell you, I have not found anyone in Israel with such great faith. <sup>11</sup> I say to you that many will come from the east and the west to share the banquet with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. <sup>12</sup> But the sons of the kingdom will be thrown into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus said to the centurion, “Go! As you have believed, so will it be done for you.” And his servant was healed at that very hour.

Jesus Heals at Peter’s House
(Mark 1:29–34; Luke 4:38–41)

<sup>14</sup> When Jesus arrived at Peter’s house, He saw Peter’s mother-in-law sick in bed with a fever. <sup>15</sup> So He touched her hand, and the fever left her, and she got up and began to serve them.

<sup>16</sup> When evening came, many who were demon-possessed were brought to Jesus, and He drove out the spirits with a word and healed all the sick. <sup>17</sup> This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

“He took on our infirmities and carried our diseases.”§

The Cost of Discipleship
(Luke 9:57–62; Luke 14:25–33; John 6:59–66)

<sup>18</sup> When Jesus saw a large crowd around Him, He gave orders to cross to the other side of the sea.* <sup>19</sup> And one of the scribes came to Him and said, “Teacher, I will follow You wherever You go.”

Jesus Calms the Storm
(Psalm 107:1–43; Mark 4:35–41; Luke 8:22–25)

<sup>23</sup> When He got into the boat, His disciples followed Him. <sup>24</sup> Suddenly a violent storm came up on the sea, so that the boat was engulfed by the waves; but Jesus was sleeping. <sup>25</sup> The disciples went and woke Him, saying, “Lord, save us! We are perishing!”

<sup>26</sup> “You of little faith,” Jesus replied, “why are you so afraid?” Then He got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and it was perfectly calm.

<sup>27</sup> The men were amazed and asked, “What kind of man is this? Even the winds and the sea obey Him!”

The Demons and the Pigs
(Mark 5:1–20; Luke 8:26–39)

<sup>28</sup> When Jesus arrived on the other side in the region of the Gadarenes,† He was met by two demon-possessed men coming from the tombs. They were so violent that no one could pass that way.

<sup>29</sup> “What do You want with us, Son of God?” they shouted. “Have You come here to torture us before the appointed time?”

§ 8:17 Isaiah 53:4 * 8:18 That is, the Sea of Galilee; Greek to the other side † 8:28 BYZ, TR, and GOC Gergesenes; other manuscripts Gerasenes

<sup>32</sup> “Go!” He told them. So they came out and went into the pigs, and the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea and died in the waters.

<sup>33</sup> Those tending the pigs ran off into the town and reported all this, including the account of the demon-possessed men. <sup>34</sup> Then the whole town went out to meet Jesus. And when they saw Him, they begged Him to leave their region.

Jesus Heals a Paralytic (Mark 2:1-12; Luke 5:17-26)

<sup>4</sup> But Jesus knew † what they were thinking and said, “Why do you harbor evil in your hearts? <sup>5</sup> Which is easier: to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk?’ <sup>6</sup> But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins...” Then He said to the paralytic, “Get up, pick up your mat, and go home.” <sup>7</sup> And the man got up and went home.

<sup>8</sup> When the crowds saw this, they were filled with awe and glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

Jesus Calls Matthew (Mark 2:13-17; Luke 5:27-32)

<sup>9</sup> As Jesus went on from there, He saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax booth. “Follow Me,” He told him, and Matthew got up and followed Him.

<sup>10</sup> Later, as Jesus was dining at Matthew’s house, many tax collectors and sinners came and ate with Him and His disciples. <sup>11</sup> When the Pharisees saw this, they asked His disciples, “Why does your Teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

<sup>12</sup> On hearing this, Jesus said, “It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. <sup>13</sup> But go and learn what this means: ‘I desire mercy, not sacrifice.’‡ For I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners.§”

Questions about Fasting (Mark 2:18-20; Luke 5:33-35)

<sup>14</sup> At that time John’s disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Why is it that we and the Pharisees fast so often,* but Your disciples do not fast?”

<sup>15</sup> Jesus replied, “How can the guests of the bridegroom mourn while He is with them? But the time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them; then they will fast.

The Patches and the Wineskins (Mark 2:21-22; Luke 5:36-39)

<sup>17</sup> Neither do men pour new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the skins will burst, the wine will spill, and the wineskins will be ruined. Instead, they pour new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved.”

* 9:2 Literally And behold, they brought † 9:4 NA, BYZ, and TR saw ‡ 9:13 Hosea 6:6 § 9:13 BYZ and TR but sinners, to repentance; see Luke 5:32. * 9:14 NE and WH do not include so often.

The Healing Touch of Jesus
(Mark 5:21–43; Luke 8:40–56)

<sup>18</sup> While Jesus was saying these things, a synagogue leader came and knelt before Him. “My daughter has just died,” he said. “But come and place Your hand on her, and she will live.”

<sup>19</sup> So Jesus got up and went with him, along with His disciples. <sup>20</sup> Suddenly a woman who had suffered from bleeding for twelve years came up behind Him and touched the fringe of His cloak. <sup>21</sup> She said to herself, “If only I touch His cloak, I will be healed.”

<sup>22</sup> Jesus turned and saw her. “Take courage, daughter,” He said, “your faith has healed you.” And the woman was cured from that very hour.

<sup>23</sup> When Jesus entered the house of the synagogue leader, He saw the flute players and the noisy crowd. <sup>24</sup> “Go away,” He told them. “The girl is not dead, but asleep.” And they laughed at Him.

<sup>25</sup> After the crowd had been put outside, Jesus went in and took the girl by the hand, and she got up. <sup>26</sup> And the news about this spread throughout that region.

Jesus Heals the Blind and Mute
(Mark 7:31–37)

<sup>27</sup> As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed Him, crying out, “Have mercy on us, Son of David!”

<sup>28</sup> After Jesus had entered the house, the blind men came to Him. “Do you believe that I am able to do this?” He asked.

“Yes, Lord,” they answered.

<sup>29</sup> Then He touched their eyes and said, “According to your faith will it be done to you.”

<sup>30</sup> And their eyes were opened. Jesus warned them sternly, “See that no one finds out about this!” <sup>31</sup> But they went out and spread the news about Him throughout the land.

<sup>32</sup> As they were leaving, a demon-possessed man who was mute was brought to Jesus. <sup>33</sup> And when the demon had been driven out, the man began to speak. The crowds were amazed and said, “Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel!”

The Lord of the Harvest
(Luke 10:1–12)

<sup>35</sup> Jesus went through all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness. <sup>36</sup> When He saw the crowds, He was moved with compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

<sup>37</sup> Then He said to His disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. <sup>38</sup> Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into His harvest.”

10

The Twelve Apostles
(Mark 3:13–19; Luke 6:12–16)

<sup>1</sup> And calling His twelve disciples to Him, Jesus gave them authority over unclean spirits, so that they could drive them out and heal every disease and sickness.

and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; <sup>4</sup> Simon the Zealot,* and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed Jesus.†

The Ministry of the Twelve
(Mark 6:7-13; Luke 9:1-6)

<sup>9</sup> Do not carry any gold or silver or copper in your belts. <sup>10</sup> Take no bag for the road, or second tunic, or sandals, or staff; for the worker is worthy of his provisions.

<sup>11</sup> Whatever town or village you enter, find out who is worthy there and stay at his house § until you move on. <sup>12</sup> As you enter the home, greet its occupants.* <sup>13</sup> If the home is worthy, let your peace rest on it; but if it is not, let your peace return to you. <sup>14</sup> And if anyone will not welcome you or heed your words, shake the dust off your feet when you leave that home or town. <sup>15</sup> Truly I tell you, it will be more bearable for Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that town.

Sheep among Wolves
(2 Timothy 1:3-12)

<sup>16</sup> Behold, I am sending you out like sheep among wolves; therefore be as shrewd as snakes and as innocent as doves. <sup>17</sup> But beware of men; for they will hand you over to their councils and flog you in their synagogues. <sup>18</sup> On My account, you will be brought before governors and kings as witnesses to them and to the Gentiles. <sup>19</sup> But when they hand you over, do not worry about how to respond or what to say. In that hour you will be given what to say. <sup>20</sup> For it will not be you speaking, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.

<sup>21</sup> Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; children will rise against their parents and have them put to death. <sup>22</sup> You will be hated by everyone because of My name, but the one who perseveres to the end will be saved.

<sup>23</sup> When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next. Truly I tell you, you will not reach all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

<sup>24</sup> A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master. <sup>25</sup> It is enough for a disciple to be like his teacher, and a servant like his master. If the head of the house has been called Beelzebul,† how much more the members of his household!

(Luke 12:4-7)

<sup>26</sup> So do not be afraid of them. For there is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, and nothing hidden that will not be made known. <sup>27</sup> What I tell you in the dark, speak in the daylight; what is whispered in your ear, proclaim from the housetops.

<sup>28</sup> Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Instead, fear the One who can destroy both soul and body in hell.‡

<sup>29</sup> Are not two sparrows sold for a penny?§ Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from the will of your Father. <sup>30</sup> And even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. <sup>31</sup> So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.

Confessing Christ
(Luke 12:8-12)

* 10:4 Greek Simon the Cananean † 10:4 Literally the one also having betrayed Him ‡ 10:8 A leper was one afflicted with a skin disease. See Leviticus 13. § 10:11 Literally stay there * 10:12 Literally greet it † 10:25 WH Beelzeboul; Vulgate Beelzebub ‡ 10:28 Greek Gehenna § 10:29 Greek an assarion; that is, a Roman copper coin worth about 1/16 of a denarius

<sup>32</sup> Therefore everyone who confesses Me before men, I will also confess him before My Father in heaven. <sup>33</sup> But whoever denies Me before men, I will also deny him before My Father in heaven.

Not Peace but a Sword
(Micah 7:1-6; Luke 12:49-53)

<sup>34</sup> Do not assume that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. <sup>35</sup> For I have come to turn

‘a man against his father, a daughter against her mother,
a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

<sup>36</sup> A man’s enemies will be the members of his own household.*

<sup>37</sup> Anyone who loves his father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me; anyone who loves his son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me; <sup>38</sup> and anyone who does not take up his cross and follow Me is not worthy of Me. <sup>39</sup> Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for My sake will find it.

The Reward of Service
(2 Kings 4:8-17)

11

John’s Inquiry
(Luke 7:18-23)

<sup>1</sup> After Jesus had finished instructing His twelve disciples, He went on from there to teach and preach in their cities.*

<sup>2</sup> Meanwhile John heard in prison about the works of Christ, and he sent his disciples †
<sup>3</sup> to ask Him, “Are You the One who was to come, or should we look for someone else?”

<sup>4</sup> Jesus replied, “Go back and report to John what you hear and see: <sup>5</sup> The blind receive sight, the lame walk, the lepers ‡ are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is preached to the poor. <sup>6</sup> Blessed is the one who does not fall away on account of Me.§”

Jesus Testifies about John
(Malachi 3:1-5; Luke 7:24-35)

<sup>7</sup> As John’s disciples were leaving, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swaying in the wind? <sup>8</sup> Otherwise, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? Look, those who wear fine clothing are found in kings’ palaces. <sup>9</sup> What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. <sup>10</sup> This is the one about whom it is written:

‘Behold, I will send My messenger ahead of You, who will prepare Your way before You.’*

<sup>11</sup> Truly I tell you, among those born of women there has risen no one greater than John the Baptist. Yet even the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. <sup>12</sup> From the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven has been subject to violence,† and the violent lay claim to it. <sup>13</sup> For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John. <sup>14</sup> And if you are willing to accept it, he is the Elijah who was to come.‡

<sup>16</sup> To what can I compare this generation? They are like children sitting in the marketplaces and calling out to others:

<sup>17</sup> ‘We played the flute for you,
and you did not dance;
we sang a dirge,
and you did not mourn.’

<sup>18</sup> For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, ‘He has a demon!’ <sup>19</sup> The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, ‘Look at this glutton and drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ But wisdom is vindicated by her actions.”

Woe to the Unrepentant
(Luke 10:13-16)

<sup>20</sup> Then Jesus began to denounce the cities in which most of His miracles had been performed, because they did not repent. <sup>21</sup> “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>22</sup> But I tell you, it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you.

<sup>23</sup> And you, Capernaum, will you be lifted up to heaven? No, you will be brought down to Hades! For if the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Sodom, it would have remained to this day. <sup>24</sup> But I tell you that it will be more bearable for Sodom on the day of judgment than for you.”

Rest for the Weary
(Luke 10:21-24)

<sup>25</sup> At that time Jesus declared, “I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. <sup>26</sup> Yes, Father, for this was well-pleasing in Your sight.

<sup>27</sup> All things have been entrusted to Me by My Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him.

<sup>28</sup> Come to Me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. <sup>29</sup> Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. <sup>30</sup> For My yoke is easy and My burden is light.”

12

The Lord of the Sabbath
(1 Samuel 21:1-7; Mark 2:23-28; Luke 6:1-5)

<sup>1</sup> At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry and began to pick the heads of grain and eat them. <sup>2</sup> When the Pharisees saw this, they said to Him, “Look, Your disciples are doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath.”

<sup>3</sup> Jesus replied, “Have you not read what David did when he and his companions were hungry? <sup>4</sup> He entered the house of God, and he and his companions ate the consecrated bread,* which was not lawful for them to eat, but only for the priests.

<sup>5</sup> Or haven't you read in the Law that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple break the Sabbath and yet are innocent? <sup>6</sup> But I tell you that something greater than the temple is here.

<sup>7</sup> If only you had known the meaning of 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice,'† you would not have condemned the innocent. <sup>8</sup> For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath
(Mark 3:1-6; Luke 6:6-11)

<sup>9</sup> Moving on from there, Jesus entered their synagogue, <sup>10</sup> and a man with a withered hand was there. In order to accuse Jesus, they asked Him, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"

<sup>11</sup> He replied, "If one of you has a sheep and it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will he not take hold of it and lift it out? <sup>12</sup> How much more valuable is a man than a sheep! Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath."

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." So he stretched it out, and it was restored to full use, just like the other. <sup>14</sup> But the Pharisees went out and plotted how they might kill Jesus.

God's Chosen Servant
(Isaiah 42:1-9)

<sup>15</sup> Aware of this, Jesus withdrew from that place. Large crowds followed Him, and He healed them all, <sup>16</sup> warning them not to make Him known. <sup>17</sup> This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

<sup>18</sup> "Here is My Servant,
whom I have chosen,
My beloved,
in whom My soul delights.
I will put My Spirit on Him,
and He will proclaim justice to the nations.

<sup>19</sup> He will not quarrel or cry out;
no one will hear His voice in the streets.

<sup>20</sup> A bruised reed He will not break, and a smoldering wick He will not extinguish,
till He leads justice to victory.

<sup>21</sup> In His name the nations will put their hope."‡

A House Divided
(Mark 3:20-27; Luke 11:14-23)

<sup>22</sup> Then a demon-possessed man who was blind and mute was brought to Jesus, and He healed the man so that he could speak and see. <sup>23</sup> The crowds were astounded and asked, "Could this be the Son of David?"

<sup>25</sup> Knowing their thoughts, Jesus said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself will be laid waste, and every city or household divided against itself will not stand. <sup>26</sup> If Satan drives out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then can his kingdom stand? <sup>27</sup> And if I drive out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons drive them out? So then, they will be your judges. <sup>28</sup> But if I drive out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.

<sup>29</sup> Or again, how can anyone enter a strong man's house and steal his possessions, unless he first ties up the strong man? Then he can plunder his house.

<sup>30</sup> He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters.

The Unpardonable Sin
(Mark 3:28-30)

<sup>31</sup> Therefore I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven. <sup>32</sup> Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the one to come.

Good and Bad Fruit
(Luke 6:43-45)

<sup>33</sup> Make a tree good and its fruit will be good, or make a tree bad and its fruit will be bad; for a tree is known by its fruit. <sup>34</sup> You brood of vipers, how can you who are evil say anything good? For out of the overflow of the heart, the mouth speaks. <sup>35</sup> The good man brings good things out of his good store of treasure, and the evil man brings evil things out of his evil store of treasure. <sup>36</sup> But I tell you that men will give an account on the day of judgment for every careless word they have spoken. <sup>37</sup> For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned."

The Sign of Jonah
(Jonah 3:1-10; Luke 11:29-32)

<sup>38</sup> Then some of the scribes and Pharisees said to Him, "Teacher, we want to see a sign from You."

<sup>39</sup> Jesus replied, "A wicked and adulterous generation demands a sign, but none will be given it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. <sup>40</sup> For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so the Son of Man will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

An Unclean Spirit Returns
(Luke 11:24-26)

<sup>43</sup> When an unclean spirit comes out of a man, it passes through arid places seeking rest and does not find it. <sup>44</sup> Then it says, 'I will return to the house I left.' On its return, it finds the house vacant, swept clean, and put in order. <sup>45</sup> Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and dwell there; and the final plight of that man is worse than the first. So will it be with this wicked generation."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers
(Mark 3:31-35; Luke 8:19-21)

<sup>46</sup> While Jesus was still speaking to the crowds, His mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to Him. <sup>47</sup> Someone told Him, "Look, Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to You."*

<sup>48</sup> But Jesus replied, "Who is My mother, and who are My brothers?" <sup>49</sup> Pointing to His disciples, He said, "Here are My mother and My brothers. <sup>50</sup> For whoever does the will of My Father in heaven is My brother and sister and mother."

The Parable of the Sower
(Mark 4:1-9; Luke 8:4-8)

---

* 12:47 WH does not include verse 47.

<sup>3</sup> And He told them many things in parables, saying, "A farmer went out to sow his seed. <sup>4</sup> And as he was sowing, some seed fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured it.

<sup>5</sup> Some fell on rocky ground, where it did not have much soil. It sprang up quickly because the soil was shallow. <sup>6</sup> But when the sun rose, the seedlings were scorched, and they withered because they had no root.

<sup>7</sup> Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the seedlings.

<sup>8</sup> Still other seed fell on good soil and produced a crop—a hundredfold, sixtyfold, or thirtyfold.

<sup>9</sup> He who has ears,* let him hear."

The Purpose of Jesus' Parables
(Isaiah 6:1-13; Mark 4:10-12; Luke 8:9-10)

<sup>10</sup> Then the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Why do You speak to the people in parables?"

<sup>11</sup> He replied, "The knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven has been given to you, but not to them. <sup>12</sup> Whoever has will be given more, and he will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. <sup>13</sup> This is why I speak to them in parables:

Though seeing, they do not see;
though hearing, they do not hear or understand.†

<sup>14</sup> In them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled:

You will be ever hearing but never understanding;
you will be ever seeing but never perceiving.

<sup>15</sup> For this people's heart has grown callous;
they hardly hear with their ears,
and they have closed their eyes.

Otherwise they might see with their eyes,
hear with their ears,
understand with their hearts,
and turn, and I would heal them.‡

<sup>16</sup> But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear. <sup>17</sup> For truly I tell you, many prophets and righteous men longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it.

The Parable of the Sower Explained

<sup>18</sup> Consider, then, the parable of the sower: <sup>19</sup> When anyone hears the message of the kingdom but does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart. This is the seed sown § along the path.

<sup>20</sup> The seed sown on rocky ground is the one who hears the word and at once receives it with joy. <sup>21</sup> But since he has no root, he remains for only a season. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, he quickly falls away.

* 13:9 BYZ and TR ears to hear; also in verse 43 † 13:13 See Deuteronomy 29:4, Isaiah 42:20, Jeremiah 5:21, and Ezekiel 12:2. ‡ 13:15 Isaiah 6:9-10 (see also LXX) § 13:19 Literally the one sown; also in verses 20, 22, and 23

<sup>22</sup> The seed sown among the thorns is the one who hears the word, but the worries of this life and the deceitfulness of wealth choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

<sup>23</sup> But the seed sown on good soil is the one who hears the word and understands it. He indeed bears fruit and produces a crop—a hundredfold, sixtyfold, or thirtyfold.”

The Parable of the Weeds
(Ezekiel 17:1-10)

<sup>24</sup> Jesus put before them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field. <sup>25</sup> But while everyone was asleep, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and slipped away. <sup>26</sup> When the wheat sprouted and bore grain, then the weeds also appeared.

<sup>27</sup> The owner’s servants came to him and said, ‘Sir, didn’t you sow good seed in your field? Where then did the weeds come from?’

<sup>28</sup> ‘An enemy did this,’ he replied.

So the servants asked him, ‘Do you want us to go and pull them up?’

<sup>29</sup> ‘No,’ he said, ‘if you pull the weeds now, you might uproot the wheat with them. <sup>30</sup> Let both grow together until the harvest. At that time I will tell the harvesters: First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles to be burned; then gather the wheat into my barn.’ ”

The Parable of the Mustard Seed
(Mark 4:30-34; Luke 13:18-19)

<sup>31</sup> He put before them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a man planted in his field. <sup>32</sup> Although it is the smallest of all seeds, yet it grows into the largest of garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches.”

The Parable of the Leaven
(Luke 13:20-21)

<sup>33</sup> He told them still another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like leaven that a woman took and mixed into three measures of flour, until all of it was leavened.”

I Will Open My Mouth in Parables
(Psalm 78:1-72)

<sup>34</sup> Jesus spoke all these things to the crowds in parables. He did not tell them anything without using a parable. <sup>35</sup> So was fulfilled what was spoken through the prophet:

“I will open My mouth in parables;

I will utter things hidden since the foundation of the world.”*

The Parable of the Weeds Explained
(Zephaniah 1:1-6)

<sup>36</sup> Then Jesus dismissed the crowds and went into the house. His disciples came to Him and said, “Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field.”

<sup>40</sup> As the weeds are collected and burned in the fire, so will it be at the end of the age.

<sup>41</sup> The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will weed out of His kingdom every cause of sin and all who practice lawlessness. <sup>42</sup> And they will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. <sup>43</sup> Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father.†

He who has ears, let him hear.

The Parables of the Treasure and the Pearl

<sup>44</sup> The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and in his joy he went and sold all he had and bought that field.

<sup>45</sup> Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls. <sup>46</sup> When he found one very precious pearl, he went away and sold all he had and bought it.

The Parable of the Net

<sup>47</sup> Once again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was cast into the sea and caught all kinds of fish. <sup>48</sup> When it was full, the men pulled it ashore. Then they sat down and sorted the good fish into containers, but threw the bad away.

<sup>49</sup> So will it be at the end of the age: The angels will come and separate the wicked from the righteous, <sup>50</sup> and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

<sup>51</sup> Have you understood all these things?"

"Yes," they answered.

<sup>52</sup> Then He told them, "For this reason, every scribe who has been discipled in the kingdom of heaven is like a homeowner who brings out of his storeroom new treasures as well as old."

The Rejection at Nazareth
(Mark 6:1-6; Luke 4:16-30)

<sup>53</sup> When Jesus had finished these parables, He withdrew from that place. <sup>54</sup> Coming to His hometown, He taught the people in their synagogue, and they were astonished. "Where did this man get such wisdom and miraculous powers?" they asked. <sup>55</sup> "Isn't this the carpenter's son? Isn't His mother's name Mary, and aren't His brothers James, Joseph,‡ Simon, and Judas? <sup>56</sup> Aren't all His sisters with us as well? Where then did this man get all these things?" <sup>57</sup> And they took offense at Him.

But Jesus said to them, "Only in his hometown and in his own household is a prophet without honor." <sup>58</sup> And He did not do many miracles there, because of their unbelief.

The Beheading of John
(Mark 6:14-29; Luke 9:7-9)

<sup>1</sup> At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the reports about Jesus <sup>2</sup> and said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist; he has risen from the dead! That is why miraculous powers are at work in him."

<sup>3</sup> Now Herod had arrested John and bound him and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, <sup>4</sup> because John had been telling him, "It is not lawful for you to have her." <sup>5</sup> Although Herod wanted to kill John, he was afraid of the people, because they regarded John as a prophet.

† 13:43 See Daniel 12:3. ‡ 13:55 BYZ and TR Josés; see Mark 6:3.

<sup>11</sup> John's head was brought in on a platter and presented to the girl, who carried it to her mother.

<sup>12</sup> Then John's disciples came and took his body and buried it. And they went and informed Jesus.

The Feeding of the Five Thousand
(Mark 6:30-44; Luke 9:10-17; John 6:1-15)

<sup>13</sup> When Jesus heard about John, He withdrew by boat privately to a solitary place. But the crowds found out about it and followed Him on foot from the towns. <sup>14</sup> When He stepped ashore and saw a large crowd, He had compassion on them and healed their sick.

<sup>15</sup> When evening came, the disciples came to Him and said, "This is a desolate place, and the hour is already late. Dismiss the crowds so they can go to the villages and buy themselves some food."

<sup>17</sup> "We have here only five loaves of bread and two fish," they answered.

<sup>18</sup> "Bring them here to Me," Jesus said. <sup>19</sup> And He directed the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, He spoke a blessing. Then He broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people.

<sup>20</sup> They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over. <sup>21</sup> About five thousand men were fed, in addition to women and children.

Jesus Walks on Water
(Mark 6:45-52; John 6:16-21)

<sup>22</sup> Immediately Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead of Him to the other side, while He dismissed the crowds. <sup>23</sup> After He had sent them away, He went up on the mountain by Himself to pray. When evening came, He was there alone, <sup>24</sup> but the boat was already far * from land, buffeted by the waves because the wind was against it.

<sup>25</sup> During the fourth watch of the night,† Jesus went out to them, walking on the sea. <sup>26</sup> When the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were terrified. "It's a ghost!" they said, and cried out in fear.

<sup>29</sup> "Come," said Jesus.

Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water, and came toward Jesus. <sup>30</sup> But when he saw the strength of the wind,‡ he was afraid, and beginning to sink, cried out, "Lord, save me!"

<sup>31</sup> Immediately Jesus reached out His hand and took hold of Peter. "You of little faith," He said, "why did you doubt?"

<sup>32</sup> And when they had climbed back into the boat, the wind died down. <sup>33</sup> Then those who were in the boat worshiped Him, saying, "Truly You are the Son of God!"

Jesus Heals at Gennesaret
(Mark 6:53-56)

<sup>34</sup> When they had crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret. <sup>35</sup> And when the men of that place recognized Jesus, they sent word to all the surrounding region. People brought all the sick to Him <sup>36</sup> and begged Him just to let them touch the fringe of His cloak. And all who touched Him were healed.

The Tradition of the Elders
(Mark 7:1-13)

<sup>3</sup> Jesus replied, "And why do you break the command of God for the sake of your tradition? <sup>4</sup> For God said, 'Honor your father and mother'* and 'Anyone who curses his father or mother must be put to death.'† <sup>5</sup> But you say that if anyone says to his father or mother, 'Whatever you would have received from me is a gift devoted to God,' <sup>6</sup> he need not honor his father or mother with it.‡ Thus you nullify the word of God for the sake of your tradition. <sup>7</sup> You hypocrites! Isaiah prophesied correctly about you:

<sup>8</sup> "These people honor Me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from Me.
<sup>9</sup> They worship Me in vain;
they teach as doctrine the precepts of men.'§"

What Defiles a Man
(Mark 7:14-23)

<sup>10</sup> Jesus called the crowd to Him and said, "Listen and understand. <sup>11</sup> A man is not defiled by what enters his mouth, but by what comes out of it."

<sup>12</sup> Then the disciples came to Him and said, "Are You aware that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this?"

<sup>13</sup> But Jesus replied, "Every plant that My heavenly Father has not planted will be pulled up by its roots. <sup>14</sup> Disregard them! They are blind guides.* If a blind man leads a blind man, both will fall into a pit."

21 Leaving that place, Jesus withdrew to the district of Tyre and Sidon. 22 And a Canaanite woman from that region came to Him, crying out, "Lord, Son of David, have mercy on me! My daughter is miserably possessed by a demon."

23 But Jesus did not answer a word. So His disciples came and urged Him, "Send her away, for she keeps crying out after us."

24 He answered, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

25 The woman came and knelt before Him. "Lord, help me!" she said.

26 But Jesus replied, "It is not right to take the children's bread and toss it to the dogs."

27 "Yes, Lord," she said, "even the dogs † eat the crumbs that fall from their master's table."

28 "O woman," Jesus answered, "your faith is great! Let it be done for you as you desire." And her daughter was healed from that very hour.

The Feeding of the Four Thousand
(2 Kings 4:42-44; Mark 8:1-10)

29 Moving on from there, Jesus went along the Sea of Galilee. Then He went up on a mountain and sat down. 30 Large crowds came to Him, bringing the lame, the blind, the crippled, the mute, and many others, and laid them at His feet, and He healed them. 31 The crowd was amazed when they saw the mute speaking, the crippled restored, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. And they glorified the God of Israel.

32 Then Jesus called His disciples to Him and said, "I have compassion for this crowd, because they have already been with Me three days and have nothing to eat. I do not want to send them away hungry, or they may faint along the way."

33 The disciples replied, "Where in this desolate place could we find enough bread to feed such a large crowd?"

34 "How many loaves do you have?" Jesus asked.

"Seven," they replied, "and a few small fish."

35 And He instructed the crowd to sit down on the ground. 36 Taking the seven loaves and the fish, He gave thanks and broke them. Then He gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people.

37 They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up seven basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over. 38 A total of four thousand men were fed, in addition to women and children.

39 After Jesus had dismissed the crowds, He got into the boat and went to the region of Magadan.

The Demand for a Sign
(Mark 8:11-13; Luke 12:54-56)

1 Then the Pharisees and Sadducees came and tested Jesus by asking Him to show them a sign from heaven.

2 But He replied, "When evening comes, you say, 'The weather will be fair, for the sky is red,' 3 and in the morning, 'Today it will be stormy, for the sky is red and overcast.' You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but not the signs of the times.*

<sup>4</sup> A wicked and adulterous generation demands a sign, but none will be given it except the sign of Jonah.” Then He left them and went away.

The Leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees
(Mark 8:14–21; Luke 12:1–3)

<sup>5</sup> When they crossed to the other side, the disciples forgot to take bread. <sup>6</sup> “Watch out!” Jesus told them. “Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

<sup>8</sup> Aware of their conversation, Jesus said, “You of little faith, why are you debating among yourselves about having no bread? <sup>9</sup> Do you still not understand? Do you not remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many basketfuls you gathered? <sup>10</sup> Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many basketfuls you gathered? <sup>11</sup> How do you not understand that I was not telling you about bread? But beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

<sup>12</sup> Then they understood that He was not telling them to beware of the leaven used in bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Peter’s Confession of Christ
(Mark 8:27–30; Luke 9:18–20; John 6:67–71)

<sup>13</sup> When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, He questioned His disciples: “Who do people say the Son of Man is?”

<sup>17</sup> Jesus replied, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah!† For this was not revealed to you by flesh and blood, but by My Father in heaven. <sup>18</sup> And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. <sup>19</sup> I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.”

<sup>20</sup> Then He admonished the disciples not to tell anyone that He was the Christ.

Christ’s Passion Foretold
(Mark 8:31–33; Luke 9:21–22)

<sup>21</sup> From that time on Jesus ‡ began to show His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things at the hands of the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and that He must be killed and on the third day be raised to life.

<sup>22</sup> Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him. “Far be it from You, Lord!” he said. “This shall never happen to You!”

<sup>23</sup> But Jesus turned and said to Peter, “Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to Me. For you do not have in mind the things of God, but the things of men.”

Take Up Your Cross
(Mark 8:34–38; Luke 9:23–27)

<sup>24</sup> Then Jesus told His disciples, “If anyone wants to come after Me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me. <sup>25</sup> For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it. <sup>26</sup> What will it profit a man if he gains the whole world, yet forfeits his soul? ### The Transfiguration

(Mark 9:1-13; Luke 9:28-36; 2 Peter 1:16-21)

<sup>3</sup> Suddenly Moses and Elijah appeared before them, talking with Jesus. <sup>4</sup> Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If You wish, I will put up three shelters *—one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

<sup>5</sup> While Peter was still speaking, a bright cloud enveloped them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.† Listen to Him!" <sup>6</sup> When the disciples heard this, they fell facedown in terror.

<sup>7</sup> Then Jesus came over and touched them. "Get up," He said. "Do not be afraid." <sup>8</sup> And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus.

<sup>9</sup> As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus commanded them, "Do not tell anyone about this vision until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

<sup>11</sup> Jesus replied, "Elijah does indeed come, and he will restore all things. <sup>12</sup> But I tell you that Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but have done to him whatever they wished. In the same way, the Son of Man will suffer at their hands."

<sup>13</sup> Then the disciples understood that He was speaking to them about John the Baptist.

The Boy with a Demon

(Mark 9:14-29; Luke 9:37-42)

<sup>14</sup> When they came to the crowd, a man came up to Jesus and knelt before Him. <sup>15</sup> "Lord, have mercy on my son," he said. "He has seizures and is suffering terribly. He often falls into the fire or into the water. <sup>16</sup> I brought him to Your disciples, but they could not heal him."

<sup>17</sup> "O unbelieving and perverse generation!" Jesus replied. "How long must I remain with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring the boy here to Me." <sup>18</sup> Then Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of the boy, and he was healed from that moment.

The Power of Faith

(Luke 17:5-10)

<sup>19</sup> Afterward the disciples came to Jesus privately and asked, "Why couldn't we drive it out?"

<sup>20</sup> "Because you have so little faith," He answered. "For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you."‡

<sup>22</sup> When they gathered together in Galilee, Jesus told them, “The Son of Man is about to be delivered into the hands of men. <sup>23</sup> They will kill Him, and on the third day He will be raised to life.” And the disciples were deeply grieved.

The Temple Tax

<sup>24</sup> After they had arrived in Capernaum, the collectors of the two-drachma tax § came to Peter and asked, “Does your Teacher pay the two drachmas?”

When Peter entered the house, Jesus preempted him. “What do you think, Simon?” He asked. “From whom do the kings of the earth collect customs and taxes: from their own sons, or from others?”

“Then the sons are exempt,” Jesus declared. <sup>27</sup> “But so that we may not offend them, go to the sea, cast a hook, and take the first fish you catch. When you open its mouth, you will find a four-drachma coin.* Take it and give it to them for My tax and yours.”

The Greatest in the Kingdom

<sup>1</sup> At that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Who then is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?”

Temptations and Trespasses
(Mark 9:42-48; Luke 17:1-4)

<sup>6</sup> But if anyone causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble, it would be better for him to have a large millstone hung around his neck and to be drowned in the depths of the sea.

<sup>7</sup> Woe to the world for the causes of sin. These stumbling blocks must come, but woe to the man through whom they come!

<sup>8</sup> If your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life crippled or lame than to have two hands and two feet and be thrown into the eternal fire. <sup>9</sup> And if your eye causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into the fire of hell.*

(Luke 15:1-7)

<sup>10</sup> See that you do not look down on any of these little ones. For I tell you that their angels in heaven always see the face of My Father in heaven.†

<sup>12</sup> What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them goes astray, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the hills and go out to search for the one that is lost? <sup>13</sup> And if he finds it, truly I tell you, he rejoices more over that one sheep than over the ninety-nine that did not go astray. <sup>14</sup> In the same way, your Father in heaven is not willing that any of these little ones should perish.

A Brother Who Sins
(Deuteronomy 19:15-21)

<sup>15</sup> If your brother sins against you,‡ go and confront him privately. If he listens to you, you have won your brother over. <sup>16</sup> But if he will not listen, take one or two others along, so that 'every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.'§ <sup>17</sup> If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. And if he refuses to listen even to the church, regard him as you would a pagan or a tax collector.

<sup>18</sup> Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

Ask in My Name
(John 16:23-33)

<sup>19</sup> Again, I tell you truly that if two of you on the earth agree about anything you ask for, it will be done for you by My Father in heaven. <sup>20</sup> For where two or three gather together in My name, there am I with them."

The Unforgiving Servant
(Romans 12:14-21)

<sup>21</sup> Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, "Lord, how many times shall I forgive my brother who sins against me? Up to seven times?"

<sup>22</sup> Jesus answered, "I tell you, not just seven times, but seventy-seven times!"*

<sup>26</sup> Then the servant fell on his knees before him. 'Have patience with me,' he begged, 'and I will pay back everything.'

<sup>28</sup> But when that servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii.‡ He grabbed him and began to choke him, saying, 'Pay back what you owe me!'

<sup>29</sup> So his fellow servant fell down and begged him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you back.'

<sup>30</sup> But he refused. Instead, he went and had the man thrown into prison until he could pay his debt.

<sup>31</sup> When his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and recounted all of this to their master.

<sup>32</sup> Then the master summoned him and declared, 'You wicked servant! I forgave all your debt because you begged me. <sup>33</sup> Shouldn't you have had mercy on your fellow servant, just as I had on you?' <sup>34</sup> In anger his master turned him over to the jailers to be tortured, until he should repay all that he owed.

<sup>35</sup> That is how My heavenly Father will treat each of you unless you forgive your brother from your heart."

Teachings about Divorce
(Mark 10:1-12)

<sup>3</sup> Then some Pharisees came and tested Him by asking, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason?"

<sup>4</sup> Jesus answered, "Have you not read that from the beginning the Creator 'made them male and female,'* <sup>5</sup> and said, 'For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh'†? <sup>6</sup> So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let man not separate."

<sup>8</sup> Jesus replied, "Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because of your hardness of heart; but it was not this way from the beginning. <sup>9</sup> Now I tell you that whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another woman, commits adultery.§"

<sup>10</sup> His disciples said to Him, "If this is the case between a man and his wife, it is better not to marry."

<sup>11</sup> "Not everyone can accept this word," He replied, "but only those to whom it has been given. <sup>12</sup> For there are eunuchs who were born that way; others were made that way by men; and still others live like eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. The one who can accept this should accept it."

Jesus Blesses the Children
(Mark 10:13-16; Luke 18:15-17)

<sup>13</sup> Then the little children were brought to Jesus for Him to place His hands on them and pray for them. And the disciples rebuked those who brought them. <sup>14</sup> But Jesus said, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not hinder them! For the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." <sup>15</sup> And after He had placed His hands on them, He went on from there.

The Rich Young Man
(Mark 10:17-31; Luke 18:18-30)

<sup>16</sup> Just then a man came up to Jesus and inquired, "Teacher, what good thing must I do to obtain eternal life?"

<sup>17</sup> "Why do you ask Me about what is good?*" Jesus replied. "There is only One who is good. If you want to enter life, keep the commandments."

Jesus answered, " 'Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not bear false witness, <sup>19</sup> honor your father and mother, and love your neighbor as yourself.'†"

<sup>20</sup> "All these I have kept," said the young man. "What do I still lack?"

<sup>21</sup> Jesus told him, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me."

25 When the disciples heard this, they were greatly astonished and asked, "Who then can be saved?"

26 Jesus looked at them and said, "With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."

27 "Look," Peter replied, "we have left everything to follow You. What then will there be for us?"

28 Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, in the renewal of all things,‡ when the Son of Man sits on His glorious throne, you who have followed Me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. 29 And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife § or children or fields for the sake of My name will receive a hundredfold and will inherit eternal life. 30 But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.

The Parable of the Workers

1 "For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. 2 He agreed to pay them a denarius * for the day and sent them into his vineyard.

3 About the third hour † he went out and saw others standing in the marketplace doing nothing. 4 'You also go into my vineyard,' he said, 'and I will pay you whatever is right.' 5 So they went.

He went out again about the sixth hour and the ninth hour ‡ and did the same thing.

6 About the eleventh hour § he went out and found still others standing around. 'Why have you been standing here all day long doing nothing?' he asked.

7 'Because no one has hired us,' they answered.

So he told them, 'You also go into my vineyard.'*

8 When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, 'Call the workers and pay them their wages, starting with the last ones hired and moving on to the first.'

9 The workers who were hired about the eleventh hour came and each received a denarius. 10 So when the original workers came, they assumed they would receive more. But each of them also received a denarius.

11 On receiving their pay, they began to grumble against the landowner. 12 'These men who were hired last worked only one hour,' they said, 'and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden and the scorching heat of the day.'

13 But he answered one of them, 'Friend, I am not being unfair to you. Did you not agree with me on one denarius? 14 Take your pay and go. I want to give this last man the same

The Third Prediction of the Passion
(Mark 10:32-34; Luke 18:31-34)

<sup>17</sup> As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, He took the twelve disciples aside and said, <sup>18</sup> “Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered over to the chief priests and scribes. They will condemn Him to death <sup>19</sup> and will deliver Him over to the Gentiles to be mocked and flogged and crucified. And on the third day He will be raised to life.”

A Mother’s Request
(Mark 10:35-45)

<sup>20</sup> Then the mother of Zebedee’s sons came to Jesus with her sons and knelt down to make a request of Him.

She answered, “Declare that in Your kingdom one of these two sons of mine may sit at Your right hand, and the other at Your left.”

<sup>22</sup> “You do not know what you are asking,” Jesus replied. “Can you drink the cup I am going to drink?”‡

“We can,” the brothers answered.

<sup>23</sup> “You will indeed drink My cup,”§ Jesus said. “But to sit at My right or left is not Mine to grant. These seats belong to those for whom My Father has prepared them.”

<sup>24</sup> When the ten heard about this, they were indignant with the two brothers. <sup>25</sup> But Jesus called them aside and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their superiors exercise authority over them. <sup>26</sup> It shall not be this way among you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, <sup>27</sup> and whoever wants to be first among you must be your slave— <sup>28</sup> just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

The Blind Men by the Road
(Mark 10:46-52; Luke 18:35-43)

<sup>29</sup> As they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed Him. <sup>30</sup> And there were two blind men sitting beside the road. When they heard that Jesus was passing by, they cried out, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”

<sup>31</sup> The crowd admonished them to be silent, but they cried out all the louder, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”

<sup>32</sup> Jesus stopped and called them. “What do you want Me to do for you?” He asked.

<sup>34</sup> Moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes, and at once they received their sight and followed Him.

The Triumphal Entry

<sup>4</sup> This took place to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet:

 'See, your King comes to you,
 gentle and riding on a donkey,
 on a colt, the foal of a donkey.' "*

<sup>6</sup> So the disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them. <sup>7</sup> They brought the donkey and the colt and laid their cloaks on them, and Jesus sat on them.

<sup>9</sup> The crowds that went ahead of Him and those that followed were shouting:

"Hosanna to the Son of David!"†

"Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!"‡

"Hosanna in the highest!"§

<sup>10</sup> When Jesus had entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred and asked, "Who is this?"

 (Mark 11:15-19; Luke 19:45-48; John 2:12-25)

<sup>12</sup> Then Jesus entered the temple courts * and drove out all who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those selling doves. <sup>13</sup> And He declared to them, "It is written: 'My house will be called a house of prayer.'† But you are making it 'a den of robbers.'‡"

<sup>14</sup> The blind and the lame came to Him at the temple, and He healed them. <sup>15</sup> But the chief priests and scribes were indignant when they saw the wonders He performed and the children shouting in the temple courts, "Hosanna to the Son of David!"

<sup>16</sup> "Do you hear what these children are saying?" they asked.

"Yes," Jesus answered. "Have you never read:

'From the mouths of children and infants
 You have ordained praise'§?"

<sup>21</sup> "Truly I tell you," Jesus replied, "if you have faith and do not doubt, not only will you do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' it will happen. <sup>22</sup> If you believe, you will receive whatever you ask for in prayer."

Jesus' Authority Challenged
(Mark 11:27-33; Luke 20:1-8)

<sup>23</sup> When Jesus returned to the temple courts and began to teach, the chief priests and elders of the people came up to Him. "By what authority are You doing these things?" they asked. "And who gave You this authority?"

<sup>24</sup> "I will also ask you one question," Jesus replied, "and if you answer Me, I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. <sup>25</sup> What was the source of John's baptism? Was it from heaven or from men?"

They deliberated among themselves and said, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will ask, 'Why then did you not believe him?' <sup>26</sup> But if we say, 'From men,' we are afraid of the people, for they all regard John as a prophet." <sup>27</sup> So they answered, "We do not know."

And Jesus replied, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

The Parable of the Two Sons

<sup>28</sup> But what do you think? There was a man who had two sons. He went to the first one and said, 'Son, go and work today in the vineyard.'

<sup>29</sup> 'I will not,' he replied. But later he changed his mind and went.*

<sup>30</sup> Then the man went to the second son and told him the same thing.

'I will, sir,' he said. But he did not go.

<sup>31</sup> Which of the two did the will of his father?"

"The first,†" they answered.

Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, the tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you. <sup>32</sup> For John came to you in a righteous way and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and prostitutes did. And even after you saw this, you did not repent and believe him.

The Parable of the Wicked Tenants
(Mark 12:1-12; Luke 20:9-18)

<sup>33</sup> Listen to another parable: There was a landowner who planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, dug a winepress in it, and built a tower. Then he rented it out to some tenants and went away on a journey.

<sup>34</sup> When the harvest time drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his share of the fruit. <sup>35</sup> But the tenants seized his servants. They beat one, killed another, and stoned a third.

<sup>36</sup> Again, he sent other servants, more than the first group. But the tenants did the same to them.

* 21:29 NE and WH But he went. † 21:31 NE and WH The latter

<sup>37</sup> Finally, he sent his son to them. ‘They will respect my son,’ he said.

<sup>38</sup> But when the tenants saw the son, they said to one another, ‘This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and take his inheritance.’ <sup>39</sup> So they seized him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

<sup>40</sup> Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard returns, what will he do to those tenants?”

<sup>41</sup> “He will bring those wretches to a wretched end,” they replied, “and will rent out the vineyard to other tenants who will give him his share of the fruit at harvest time.”

<sup>42</sup> Jesus said to them, “Have you never read in the Scriptures:

‘The stone the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone.
This is from the Lord,
and it is marvelous in our eyes’‡?

<sup>43</sup> Therefore I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit. <sup>44</sup> He who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but he on whom it falls will be crushed.§”

<sup>45</sup> When the chief priests and Pharisees heard His parables, they knew that Jesus was speaking about them. <sup>46</sup> Although they wanted to arrest Him, they were afraid of the crowds, because the people regarded Him as a prophet.

The Parable of the Banquet (Luke 14:15-24)

<sup>4</sup> Again, he sent other servants and said, ‘Tell those who have been invited that I have prepared my dinner. My oxen and fattened cattle have been killed, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet.’

<sup>7</sup> The king was enraged, and he sent his troops to destroy those murderers and burn their city. <sup>8</sup> Then he said to his servants, ‘The wedding banquet is ready, but those I invited were not worthy. <sup>9</sup> Go therefore to the crossroads and invite to the banquet as many as you can find.’

<sup>10</sup> So the servants went out into the streets and gathered everyone they could find, both evil and good, and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

<sup>11</sup> But when the king came in to see the guests, he spotted a man who was not dressed in wedding clothes. <sup>12</sup> ‘Friend,’ he asked, ‘how did you get in here without wedding clothes?’

But the man was speechless.

<sup>13</sup> Then the king told the servants, ‘Tie him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’

Paying Taxes to Caesar
(Mark 12:13-17; Luke 20:19-26)

<sup>15</sup> Then the Pharisees went out and conspired to trap Jesus in His words. <sup>16</sup> They sent their disciples to Him along with the Herodians. "Teacher," they said, "we know that You are honest and that You teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. You seek favor from no one, because You pay no attention to external appearance. <sup>17</sup> So tell us what You think: Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

<sup>18</sup> But Jesus knew their evil intent and said, "You hypocrites, why are you testing Me? <sup>19</sup> Show Me the coin used for the tax."

And they brought Him a denarius.*

So Jesus told them, "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to God what is God's."

<sup>22</sup> And when they heard this, they were amazed. So they left Him and went away.

The Sadducees and the Resurrection
(Mark 12:18-27; Luke 20:27-40)

<sup>23</sup> That same day the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Jesus and questioned Him. <sup>24</sup> "Teacher," they said, "Moses declared that if a man dies without having children, his brother is to marry the widow and raise up offspring for him.† <sup>25</sup> Now there were seven brothers among us. The first one married and died without having children. So he left his wife to his brother. <sup>26</sup> The same thing happened to the second and third brothers, down to the seventh. <sup>27</sup> And last of all, the woman died. <sup>28</sup> In the resurrection, then, whose wife will she be of the seven? For all of them were married to her."

<sup>29</sup> Jesus answered, "You are mistaken because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God. <sup>30</sup> In the resurrection, people will neither marry nor be given in marriage. Instead, they will be like the angels ‡ in heaven. <sup>31</sup> But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what God said to you: <sup>32</sup> 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'§? He is not the God of the dead, but of the living."

<sup>33</sup> When the crowds heard this, they were astonished at His teaching.

The Greatest Commandment
(Deuteronomy 6:1-19; Mark 12:28-34)

<sup>37</sup> Jesus declared, " 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.'* <sup>38</sup> This is the first and greatest commandment. <sup>39</sup> And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'† <sup>40</sup> All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments."

Whose Son Is the Christ?
(Mark 12:35-37; Luke 20:41-44)

<sup>41</sup> While the Pharisees were assembled, Jesus questioned them: <sup>42</sup> "What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is He?"

"David's," they answered.

44 "The Lord said to my Lord,
 "Sit at My right hand
 until I put Your enemies
 under Your feet." †‡

45 So if David calls Him 'Lord,' how can He be David's son?"

46 No one was able to answer a word, and from that day on no one dared to question Him any further.

Woes to Scribes and Pharisees (Luke 11:37-54)

1 Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and to His disciples: 2 "The scribes and Pharisees sit in Moses' seat. 3 So practice and observe everything they tell you. But do not do what they do, for they do not practice what they preach. 4 They tie up heavy, burdensome loads * and lay them on men's shoulders, but they themselves are not willing to lift a finger to move them.

5 All their deeds are done for men to see. They broaden their phylacteries and lengthen their tassels. 6 They love the places of honor at banquets, the chief seats in the synagogues, 7 the greetings in the marketplaces, and the title of 'Rabbi' by which they are addressed.†

8 But you are not to be called 'Rabbi,' for you have one Teacher, and you are all brothers. 9 And do not call anyone on earth your father, for you have one Father, who is in heaven. 10 Nor are you to be called instructors, for you have one Instructor, the Christ. 11 The greatest among you shall be your servant. 12 For whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.

13 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You shut the kingdom of heaven in men's faces. You yourselves do not enter, nor will you let in those who wish to enter.‡

15 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You traverse land and sea to win a single convert, and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of hell § as you are.

16 Woe to you, blind guides! You say, 'If anyone swears by the temple, it means nothing; but if anyone swears by the gold of the temple, he is bound by his oath.' 17 You blind fools! Which is greater: the gold, or the temple that makes it sacred? 18 And you say, 'If anyone swears by the altar, it means nothing; but if anyone swears by the gift on it, he is bound by his oath.' 19 You blind men! Which is greater: the gift, or the altar that makes it sacred? 20 So then, he who swears by the altar swears by it and by everything on it. 21 And he who swears by the temple swears by it and by the One who dwells in it. 22 And he who swears by heaven swears by God's throne and by the One who sits on it.

23 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You pay tithes of mint, dill, and cumin. But you have disregarded the weightier matters of the law: justice, mercy, and faithfulness. You should have practiced the latter, without neglecting the former. 24 You blind guides! You strain out a gnat but swallow a camel.*

<sup>25</sup> Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence. <sup>26</sup> Blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and dish,† so that the outside may become clean as well.

<sup>27</sup> Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You are like whitewashed tombs, which look beautiful on the outside, but on the inside are full of dead men's bones and every kind of impurity. <sup>28</sup> In the same way, on the outside you appear to be righteous, but on the inside you are full of hypocrisy and wickedness.

<sup>29</sup> Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You build tombs for the prophets and decorate the monuments of the righteous. <sup>30</sup> And you say, 'If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partners with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.' <sup>31</sup> So you testify against yourselves that you are the sons of those who murdered the prophets. <sup>32</sup> Fill up, then,‡ the measure of the sin of your fathers. <sup>33</sup> You snakes! You brood of vipers! How will you escape the sentence of hell?

<sup>34</sup> Because of this, I am sending you prophets and wise men and teachers. Some of them you will kill and crucify, and others you will flog in your synagogues and persecute in town after town. <sup>35</sup> And so upon you will come all the righteous blood shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar. <sup>36</sup> Truly I tell you, all these things will come upon this generation.

(Luke 13:31-35)

<sup>37</sup> O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones those sent to her, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were unwilling! <sup>38</sup> Look, your house is left to you desolate.§ <sup>39</sup> For I tell you that you will not see Me again until you say, 'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.'<sup>**</sup>

Temple Destruction and Other Signs
(Mark 13:1-8; Luke 21:5-9)

<sup>2</sup> "Do you see all these things?" He replied. "Truly I tell you, not one stone here will be left on another; every one will be thrown down."

<sup>3</sup> While Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately. "Tell us," they said, "when will these things happen, and what will be the sign of Your coming and of the end of the age?"

<sup>4</sup> Jesus answered, "See to it that no one deceives you. <sup>5</sup> For many will come in My name, claiming, 'I am the Christ,' and will deceive many. <sup>6</sup> You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. These things must happen, but the end is still to come. <sup>7</sup> Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places. <sup>8</sup> All these are the beginning of birth pains.

Witnessing to All Nations
(Mark 13:9-13; Luke 21:10-19)

<sup>9</sup> Then they will deliver you over to be persecuted and killed, and you will be hated by all nations because of My name. <sup>10</sup> At that time many will fall away and will betray and hate one another, <sup>11</sup> and many false prophets will arise and mislead many.

<sup>12</sup> Because of the multiplication of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold. <sup>13</sup> But the one who perseveres to the end will be saved.

<sup>14</sup> And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.

The Abomination of Desolation

<sup>19</sup> How miserable those days will be for pregnant and nursing mothers! <sup>20</sup> Pray that your flight will not occur in the winter or on the Sabbath. <sup>21</sup> For at that time there will be great tribulation, unmatched from the beginning of the world until now, and never to be seen again. <sup>22</sup> If those days had not been cut short, nobody would be saved. But for the sake of the elect, those days will be cut short.

<sup>23</sup> At that time, if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here is the Christ!’ or ‘There He is!’ do not believe it. <sup>24</sup> For false Christs and false prophets will appear and perform great signs and wonders that would deceive even the elect, if that were possible. <sup>25</sup> See, I have told you in advance.

The Return of the Son of Man
(Mark 13:24–27; Luke 21:25–28)

<sup>26</sup> So if they tell you, ‘There He is in the wilderness,’ do not go out; or, ‘Here He is in the inner rooms,’ do not believe it. <sup>27</sup> For just as the lightning comes from the east and flashes as far as the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. <sup>28</sup> Wherever there is a carcass, there the vultures will gather.

<sup>29</sup> Immediately after the tribulation of those days:

‘The sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not give its light;
the stars will fall from the sky,
and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.†’

<sup>30</sup> At that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven,‡ and all the tribes of the earth will mourn. They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory.§ <sup>31</sup> And He will send out His angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather His elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.

The Lesson of the Fig Tree
(Mark 13:28–31; Luke 21:29–33)

<sup>32</sup> Now learn this lesson* from the fig tree: As soon as its branches become tender and sprout leaves, you know that summer is near. <sup>33</sup> So also, when you see all these things, you will know that He is near,† right at the door. <sup>34</sup> Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have happened. <sup>35</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.

Readiness at Any Hour
(Genesis 6:1–7; Mark 13:32–37; Luke 12:35–48)

<sup>36</sup> No one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son,‡ but only the Father. <sup>37</sup> As it was in the days of Noah, so will it be at the coming of the Son of Man. <sup>38</sup> For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark. <sup>39</sup> And they were oblivious, until the flood came and swept them all away. So will it be at the coming of the Son of Man. <sup>40</sup> Two men will be in the field: one will be taken and the other left. <sup>41</sup> Two women will be grinding at the mill: one will be taken and the other left.

* 24:15 See Daniel 9:27, Daniel 11:31, and Daniel 12:11. † 24:29 Or and the celestial bodies will be shaken; see Isaiah 13:10, Isaiah 34:4, and Joel 2:10. ‡ 24:30 Or the sky; twice in this verse § 24:30 See Daniel 7:13–14.

<sup>45</sup> Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom the master has put in charge of his household, to give the others their food at the proper time? <sup>46</sup> Blessed is that servant whose master finds him doing so when he returns. <sup>47</sup> Truly I tell you, he will put him in charge of all his possessions.

<sup>48</sup> But suppose that servant is wicked and says in his heart, ‘My master will be away a long time.’ <sup>49</sup> And he begins to beat his fellow servants and to eat and drink with drunkards. <sup>50</sup> The master of that servant will come on a day he does not expect and at an hour he does not anticipate. <sup>51</sup> Then he will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

The Parable of the Ten Virgins

<sup>9</sup> ‘No,’ said the wise ones, ‘or there may not be enough for both us and you. Instead, go to those who sell oil and buy some for yourselves.’

<sup>10</sup> But while they were on their way to buy it, the bridegroom arrived. Those who were ready went in with him to the wedding banquet, and the door was shut.

<sup>11</sup> Later the other virgins arrived and said, ‘Lord, lord, open the door for us!’

The Parable of the Talents (Luke 19:11-27)

* 25:13 BYZ and TR include when the Son of Man comes. † 25:15 A talent was worth about twenty years’ wages for a laborer. ‡ 25:16 Or 15... And he went on his journey at once. 16... went and put them to work. the servant who had received the one talent went off, dug a hole in the ground, and hid his master's money.

<sup>19</sup> After a long time the master of those servants returned to settle accounts with them.

<sup>20</sup> The servant who had received the five talents came and presented five more. 'Master,' he said, 'you entrusted me with five talents. See, I have gained five more.'

<sup>22</sup> The servant who had received the two talents also came and said, 'Master, you entrusted me with two talents. See, I have gained two more.'

<sup>24</sup> Finally, the servant who had received the one talent came and said, 'Master, I knew that you are a hard man, reaping where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed. <sup>25</sup> So I was afraid and went out and hid your talent in the ground. See, you have what belongs to you.'

<sup>26</sup> 'You wicked, lazy servant!' replied his master. 'You knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed. <sup>27</sup> Then you should have deposited my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received it back with interest.'

<sup>28</sup> Therefore take the talent from him and give it to the one who has ten talents. <sup>29</sup> For everyone who has will be given more, and he will have an abundance. But the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. <sup>30</sup> And throw that worthless servant into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

The Sheep and the Goats

<sup>31</sup> When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the angels with Him, He will sit on His glorious throne. <sup>32</sup> All the nations will be gathered before Him, and He will separate the people one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. <sup>33</sup> He will place the sheep on His right and the goats on His left.

<sup>34</sup> Then the King will say to those on His right, 'Come, you who are blessed by My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. <sup>35</sup> For I was hungry and you gave Me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave Me something to drink, I was a stranger and you took Me in, <sup>36</sup> I was naked and you clothed Me, I was sick and you looked after Me, I was in prison and you visited Me.'

<sup>37</sup> Then the righteous will answer Him, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You, or thirsty and give You something to drink? <sup>38</sup> When did we see You a stranger and take You in, or naked and clothe You? <sup>39</sup> When did we see You sick or in prison and visit You?'

<sup>40</sup> And the King will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of Mine, you did for Me.'

<sup>41</sup> Then He will say to those on His left, 'Depart from Me, you who are cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. <sup>42</sup> For I was hungry and you gave Me nothing to eat, I was thirsty and you gave Me nothing to drink, <sup>43</sup> I was a stranger and you did not take Me in, I was naked and you did not clothe Me, I was sick and in prison and you did not visit Me.'

<sup>44</sup> And they too will reply, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to You?'

<sup>45</sup> Then the King will answer, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for Me.'

<sup>46</sup> And they will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”

The Plot to Kill Jesus

(Mark 14:1-2; Luke 22:1-2; John 11:45-57)

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus had finished saying all these things, He told His disciples, <sup>2</sup> “You know that the Passover is two days away, and the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified.”

<sup>3</sup> At that time the chief priests and elders of the people assembled in the courtyard of the high priest, whose name was Caiaphas, <sup>4</sup> and they conspired to arrest Jesus covertly and kill Him. <sup>5</sup> “But not during the feast,” they said, “or there may be a riot among the people.”

Jesus Anointed at Bethany

(Mark 14:3-9; Luke 7:36-50; John 12:1-8)

<sup>6</sup> While Jesus was in Bethany in the home of Simon the Leper,* <sup>7</sup> a woman came to Him with an alabaster jar of expensive perfume, which she poured on His head as He reclined at the table.

<sup>8</sup> When the disciples saw this, they were indignant and asked, “Why this waste? <sup>9</sup> This perfume could have been sold at a high price, and the money given to the poor.”

<sup>10</sup> Aware of this, Jesus asked, “Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a beautiful deed to Me. <sup>11</sup> The poor you will always have with you,† but you will not always have Me. <sup>12</sup> By pouring this perfume on Me, she has prepared My body for burial. <sup>13</sup> Truly I tell you, wherever this gospel is preached in all the world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her.”

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

(Mark 14:10-11; Luke 22:3-6)

<sup>14</sup> Then one of the Twelve, the one called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests <sup>15</sup> and asked, “What are you willing to give me if I hand Him over to you?” And they set out for him thirty pieces of silver. <sup>16</sup> So from then on Judas looked for an opportunity to betray Jesus.

Preparing the Passover

(Mark 14:12-16; Luke 22:7-13)

<sup>17</sup> On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread,‡ the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?”

<sup>18</sup> He answered, “Go into the city to a certain man and tell him that the Teacher says, ‘My time is near. I will keep the Passover with My disciples at your house.’” <sup>19</sup> So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.

The Last Supper

(Mark 14:17-26; Luke 22:14-23; 1 Corinthians 11:17-34)

<sup>20</sup> When evening came, Jesus was reclining with the twelve disciples.§ <sup>21</sup> And while they were eating, He said to them, “Truly I tell you, one of you will betray Me.”

<sup>23</sup> Jesus answered, “The one who has dipped his hand into the bowl with Me will betray Me. <sup>24</sup> The Son of Man will go just as it is written about Him, but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed. It would be better for him if he had not been born.”

* 26:6 Aramaic Simon the Potter or Simon the Jar Maker † 26:11 See Deuteronomy 15:11. ‡ 26:17 Literally On the first of the Unleavened; see Exodus 12:14-20. § 26:20 BYZ and TR the Twelve

25 Then Judas, who would betray Him, said, "Surely not I, Rabbi?"

Jesus answered, "You have said it yourself."

26 While they were eating, Jesus took bread, spoke a blessing and broke it, and gave it to the disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is My body."

27 Then He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. 28 This is My blood of the covenant,* which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. 29 I tell you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it anew with you in My Father's kingdom."

30 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial
(Zechariah 13:7-9; Mark 14:27-31; Luke 22:31-38; John 13:36-38)

31 Then Jesus said to them, "This very night you will all fall away on account of Me. For it is written:

'I will strike the Shepherd,
and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.†'

32 But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you into Galilee."

33 Peter said to Him, "Even if all fall away on account of You, I never will."

34 "Truly I tell you," Jesus declared, "this very night, before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times."

35 Peter replied, "Even if I have to die with You, I will never deny You." And all the other disciples said the same thing.

Jesus Prays at Gethsemane
(Mark 14:32-42; Luke 22:39-46)

36 At that time Jesus went with His disciples to a place called Gethsemane, and He told them, "Sit here while I go over there and pray."

37 He took with Him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee and began to be sorrowful and deeply distressed. 38 Then He said to them, "My soul is consumed with sorrow to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with Me."

39 Going a little farther, He fell facedown and prayed, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me. Yet not as I will, but as You will."

40 Then Jesus returned to the disciples and found them sleeping. "Were you not able to keep watch with Me for one hour?" He asked Peter. 41 "Watch and pray so that you will not enter into temptation. For the spirit is willing, but the body is weak."

42 A second time He went away and prayed, "My Father, if this cup cannot pass unless I drink it, may Your will be done." 43 And again Jesus returned and found them sleeping—for their eyes were heavy.

44 So He left them and went away once more and prayed a third time, saying the same thing. 45 Then He returned to the disciples and said, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Look, the hour is near, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 46 Rise, let us go! See, My betrayer is approaching!"

The Betrayal of Jesus
(Mark 14:43-52; Luke 22:47-53; John 18:1-14)

* 26:28 BYZ and TR the new covenant † 26:31 Zechariah 13:7

<sup>48</sup> Now the betrayer had arranged a signal with them: "The One I kiss is the man; arrest Him." <sup>49</sup> Going directly to Jesus, he said, "Greetings, Rabbi!" and kissed Him.

Then the men stepped forward, seized Jesus, and arrested Him. <sup>51</sup> At this, one of Jesus' companions drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear.

<sup>52</sup> "Put your sword back in its place," Jesus said to him. "For all who draw the sword will die by the sword. <sup>53</sup> Are you not aware that I can call on My Father, and He will at once put at My disposal more than twelve legions of angels? <sup>54</sup> But how then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that say it must happen this way?"

<sup>55</sup> At that time Jesus said to the crowd, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me as you would an outlaw? Every day I sat teaching in the temple courts,§ and you did not arrest Me. <sup>56</sup> But this has all happened so that the writings of the prophets would be fulfilled."

Then all the disciples deserted Him and fled.

Jesus before the Sanhedrin

<sup>57</sup> Those who had arrested Jesus led Him away to the house of Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and elders had gathered. <sup>58</sup> But Peter followed Him at a distance, right up to the courtyard of the high priest. And he went in and sat down with the guards to see the outcome.

Finally two came forward <sup>61</sup> and declared, "This man said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and rebuild it in three days.'"

Then the high priest said to Him, "I charge You under oath by the living God: Tell us if You are the Christ, the Son of God."

<sup>64</sup> "You have said it yourself," Jesus answered. "But I say to all of you, from now on you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power† and coming on the clouds of heaven."‡

<sup>65</sup> At this, the high priest tore his clothes and declared, "He has blasphemed! Why do we need any more witnesses? Look, now you have heard the blasphemy. <sup>66</sup> What do you think?"

"He deserves to die," they answered.

<sup>67</sup> Then they spit in His face and struck Him. Others slapped Him <sup>68</sup> and said, "Prophecy to us, Christ! Who hit You?"

Peter Denies Jesus(Mark 14:66-72; Luke 22:54-62; John 18:15-18)

<sup>69</sup> Meanwhile, Peter was sitting out in the courtyard, and a servant girl came up to him. "You also were with Jesus the Galilean," she said.

<sup>70</sup> But he denied it before them all: "I do not know what you are talking about."

<sup>71</sup> When Peter had gone out to the gateway, another servant girl saw him and said to the people there, "This man was with Jesus of Nazareth."

<sup>74</sup> At that he began to curse and swear to them, "I do not know the man!"

And immediately a rooster crowed.

<sup>75</sup> Then Peter remembered the word that Jesus had spoken: "Before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times." And he went outside and wept bitterly.

27Jesus Delivered to Pilate(Mark 15:1-5)*

<sup>1</sup> When morning came, all the chief priests and elders of the people conspired against Jesus to put Him to death. <sup>2</sup> They bound Him, led Him away, and handed Him over to Pilate the governor.

Judas Hangs Himself(Zechariah 11:10-17)

<sup>3</sup> When Judas, who had betrayed Him, saw that Jesus was condemned, he was filled with remorse and returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders. <sup>4</sup> "I have sinned by betraying innocent blood," he said.

"What is that to us?" they replied. "You bear the responsibility."

<sup>5</sup> So Judas threw the silver into the temple and left. Then he went away and hanged himself.

<sup>6</sup> The chief priests picked up the pieces of silver and said, "It is unlawful to put this into the treasury, since it is blood money." <sup>7</sup> After conferring together, they used the money to buy the potter's field as a burial place for foreigners. <sup>8</sup> That is why it has been called the Field of Blood to this day. <sup>9</sup> Then what was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled:

"They took the thirty pieces of silver,
the price set on Him by the people of Israel, <sup>10</sup> and they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord had commanded me."*

Jesus before Pilate(Luke 23:1-5; John 18:28-40)

<sup>11</sup> Meanwhile Jesus stood before the governor, who questioned Him: "Are You the King of the Jews?"

"You have said so," Jesus replied.

* 27:10 See Jeremiah 19:1-15, Jeremiah 32:6-9, and Zechariah 11:12-13.

12 And when He was accused by the chief priests and elders, He gave no answer.

13 Then Pilate asked Him, "Do You not hear how many charges they are bringing against You?"

14 But Jesus gave no answer, not even to a single charge, much to the governor's amazement.

The Crowd Chooses Barabbas
(Mark 15:6-11; Luke 23:13-25)

15 Now it was the governor's custom at the feast to release to the crowd a prisoner of their choosing. 16 At that time they were holding a notorious prisoner named Barabbas.†

17 So when the crowd had assembled, Pilate asked them, "Which one do you want me to release to you: Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?" 18 For he knew it was out of envy that they had handed Jesus over to him.

19 While Pilate was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent him this message: "Have nothing to do with that innocent man, for I have suffered terribly in a dream today because of Him."

20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus put to death.

21 "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" asked the governor.

"Barabbas," they replied.

22 "What then should I do with Jesus who is called Christ?" Pilate asked.

They all answered, "Crucify Him!"

23 "Why?" asked Pilate. "What evil has He done?"

But they shouted all the louder, "Crucify Him!"

Pilate Washes His Hands
(Mark 15:12-15)

24 When Pilate saw that he was accomplishing nothing, but that instead a riot was breaking out, he took water and washed his hands before the crowd. "I am innocent of this man's blood,‡" he said. "You bear the responsibility."

25 All the people answered, "His blood be on us and on our children!"

26 So Pilate released Barabbas to them. But he had Jesus flogged, and handed Him over to be crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus
(Isaiah 50:4-11; Mark 15:16-20; Luke 22:63-65; John 19:1-15)

27 Then the governor's soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium and gathered the whole company around Him. 28 They stripped Him and put a scarlet robe on Him. 29 And they twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on His head. They put a staff in His right hand and knelt down before Him to mock Him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" 30 Then they spit on Him and took the staff and struck Him on the head repeatedly.

31 After they had mocked Him, they removed the robe and put His own clothes back on Him. Then they led Him away to crucify Him.

THIS IS JESUS,
THE KING OF THE JEWS.

<sup>39</sup> And those who passed by heaped abuse on Him, shaking their heads <sup>40</sup> and saying, "You who are going to destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save Yourself! If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross!"

<sup>41</sup> In the same way, the chief priests, scribes, and elders mocked Him, saying, <sup>42</sup> "He saved others, but He cannot save Himself. He is the King of Israel! Let Him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in Him. <sup>43</sup> He trusts in God. Let God deliver Him now if He wants Him. † For He said, 'I am the Son of God.' "

<sup>44</sup> In the same way, even the robbers who were crucified with Him berated Him.

The Death of Jesus

(Psalm 22:1-31; Mark 15:33-41; Luke 23:44-49; John 19:28-30)

<sup>45</sup> From the sixth hour until the ninth hour ‡ darkness came over all the land. <sup>46</sup> About the ninth hour Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, § lema sabachthani?" which means, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"*

<sup>47</sup> When some of those standing there heard this, they said, "He is calling Elijah." <sup>48</sup> One of them quickly ran and brought a sponge. He filled it with sour wine, † put it on a reed, and held it up for Jesus to drink. ‡

<sup>49</sup> But the others said, "Leave Him alone. Let us see if Elijah comes to save Him." §

<sup>50</sup> When Jesus had cried out again in a loud voice, He yielded up His spirit. <sup>51</sup> At that moment the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth quaked and the rocks were split. <sup>52</sup> The tombs broke open, and the bodies of many saints who had fallen asleep were raised. <sup>53</sup> After Jesus' resurrection, when they had come out of the tombs, they entered the holy city and appeared to many people.

<sup>54</sup> When the centurion and those with him who were guarding Jesus saw the earthquake and all that had happened, they were terrified and said, "Truly this was the Son of God."

<sup>55</sup> And many women were there, watching from a distance. They had followed Jesus from Galilee to minister to Him. <sup>56</sup> Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.

<sup>57</sup> When it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea named Joseph, who himself was a disciple of Jesus. <sup>58</sup> He went to Pilate to ask for the body of Jesus, and Pilate ordered that it be given to him. <sup>59</sup> So Joseph took the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, <sup>60</sup> and placed it in his own new tomb that he had cut into the rock. Then he rolled a great stone across the entrance to the tomb and went away. <sup>61</sup> Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were sitting there opposite the tomb.

The Guards at the Tomb

<sup>62</sup> The next day, the one after Preparation Day, the chief priests and Pharisees assembled before Pilate. <sup>63</sup> "Sir," they said, "we remember that while He was alive that deceiver said, 'After three days I will rise again.'" <sup>64</sup> So give the order that the tomb be secured until the third day. Otherwise, His disciples may come and steal Him away and tell the people He has risen from the dead. And this last deception would be worse than the first."

<sup>65</sup> "You have a guard," Pilate said. "Go, make the tomb as secure as you know how."

<sup>66</sup> So they went and secured the tomb by sealing the stone and posting the guard.

The Resurrection

(Mark 16:1-8; Luke 24:1-12; John 20:1-9)

<sup>1</sup> After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week,* Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb.

<sup>2</sup> Suddenly there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, rolled away the stone, and sat on it. <sup>3</sup> His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow. <sup>4</sup> The guards trembled in fear of him and became like dead men.

<sup>5</sup> But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. <sup>6</sup> He is not here; He has risen, just as He said! Come, see the place where He lay.† <sup>7</sup> Then go quickly and tell His disciples, 'He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see Him.' See, I have told you."

<sup>8</sup> So they hurried away from the tomb in fear and great joy, and ran to tell His disciples. <sup>9</sup> Suddenly ‡ Jesus met them and said, "Greetings!" They came to Him, grasped His feet, and worshiped Him. <sup>10</sup> "Do not be afraid," said Jesus. "Go and tell My brothers to go to Galilee. There they will see Me."

The Report of the Guards

<sup>11</sup> While the women were on their way, some of the guards went into the city and reported to the chief priests all that had happened. <sup>12</sup> And after the chief priests had met with the elders and formed a plan, they gave the soldiers a large sum of money <sup>13</sup> and instructed them: "You are to say, 'His disciples came by night and stole Him away while we were asleep.'" <sup>14</sup> If this report reaches the governor, we will satisfy him and keep you out of trouble."

<sup>15</sup> So the guards took the money and did as they were instructed. And this account has been circulated among the Jews to this very day.

The Great Commission

The Mission of John the Baptist

(Isaiah 40:1-5; Matthew 3:1-17; Luke 3:1-22; John 1:19-34)

<sup>1</sup> This is the beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.* <sup>2</sup> As it is written in Isaiah the prophet:†

“Behold, I will send My messenger ahead of You, who will prepare Your way.”‡

<sup>3</sup> “A voice of one calling in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way for the Lord,
make straight paths for Him.’”§

<sup>4</sup> John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. <sup>5</sup> People went out to him from all of Jerusalem and the countryside of Judea. Confessing their sins, they were baptized by him in the Jordan River.

<sup>6</sup> John was clothed in camel’s hair, with a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey. <sup>7</sup> And he began to proclaim: “After me will come One more powerful than I, the straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and untie.

<sup>8</sup> I baptize you with water,* but He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.†”

<sup>9</sup> In those days Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. <sup>10</sup> As soon as Jesus came up out of the water, He saw ‡ the heavens breaking open and the Spirit descending on Him like a dove. <sup>11</sup> And a voice came from heaven: “You are My beloved Son; in You I am well pleased.”

The Temptation and Preaching of Jesus

(Matthew 4:1-17; Luke 4:1-15)

<sup>12</sup> At once the Spirit drove Jesus into the wilderness,<sup>13</sup> and He was there for forty days, being tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals, and the angels ministered to Him.

<sup>15</sup> “The time is fulfilled,” He said, “and the kingdom of God is near. Repent and believe in the gospel!”

The First Disciples

(Matthew 4:18-22; Luke 5:1-11; John 1:35-42)

<sup>16</sup> As Jesus was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. <sup>17</sup> “Come, follow Me,” Jesus said, “and I will make you fishers of men.” <sup>18</sup> And at once they left their nets and followed Him.

<sup>19</sup> Going on a little farther, He saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John. They were in a boat, mending their nets. <sup>20</sup> Immediately Jesus called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men and followed Him.

Jesus Expels an Unclean Spirit

(Luke 4:31-37)

<sup>21</sup> Then Jesus and His companions went to Capernaum, and right away Jesus entered the synagogue on the Sabbath and began to teach. <sup>22</sup> The people were astonished at His teaching, because He taught as one who had authority, and not as the scribes.

* 1:1 SBL and WH the beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ. † 1:2 BYZ and TR in the prophets: ‡ 1:2 Malachi 3:1 § 1:3 Isaiah 40:3 (see also LXX) * 1:8 Or in water † 1:8 Or in the Holy Spirit ‡ 1:10 Or he saw; see John 1:32-33 § 1:14 BYZ and TR the gospel of the kingdom of God

23 Suddenly a man with an unclean spirit cried out in the synagogue: 24 “What do You want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!”

25 But Jesus rebuked the spirit. “Be silent!” He said. “Come out of him!” 26 At this, the unclean spirit threw the man into convulsions and came out with a loud shriek.

27 All the people were amazed and began to ask one another, “What is this? A new teaching with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him!” 28 And the news about Jesus spread quickly through the whole region of Galilee.

Jesus Heals at Peter’s House
(Matthew 8:14–17; Luke 4:38–41)

29 As soon as Jesus and His companions had left the synagogue, they went with James and John to the home of Simon and Andrew. 30 Simon’s mother-in-law was sick in bed with a fever, and they promptly told Jesus about her. 31 So He went to her, took her by the hand, and helped her up. The fever left her, and she began to serve them.

32 That evening, after sunset, people brought to Jesus all who were sick and demon-possessed, 33 and the whole town gathered at the door. 34 And He healed many who were ill with various diseases and drove out many demons. But He would not allow the demons to speak, because they knew who He was.

Jesus Prays and Preaches
(Luke 4:42–44)

35 Early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up and slipped out to a solitary place to pray. 36 Simon and his companions went to look for Him, 37 and when they found Him, they said, “Everyone is looking for You!”

38 But Jesus answered, “Let us go on to the neighboring towns so I can preach there as well, for that is why I have come.” 39 So He went throughout Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and driving out demons.

The Leper’s Prayer
(Leviticus 14:1–32; Matthew 8:1–4; Luke 5:12–16)

40 Then a leper* came to Jesus, begging on his knees: “If You are willing, You can make me clean.”

41 Moved with compassion,† Jesus reached out His hand and touched the man. “I am willing,” He said. “Be clean!” 42 And immediately the leprosy left him, and the man was cleansed.

43 Jesus promptly sent him away with a stern warning: 44 “See that you don’t tell anyone. But go, show yourself to the priest and present the offering Moses prescribed for your cleansing, as a testimony to them.”‡

45 But the man went out and openly began to proclaim and spread the news.

Consequently, Jesus could no longer enter a town in plain view, but He stayed out in solitary places. Yet people came to Him from every quarter.

Jesus Heals a Paralytic
(Matthew 9:1–8; Luke 5:17–26)

1 A few days later Jesus went back to Capernaum. And when the people heard that He was home, 2 they gathered in such large numbers that there was no more room, not even outside the door, as Jesus spoke the word to them.

* 1:40 A leper was one afflicted with a skin disease. See Leviticus 13. † 1:41 SBL Moved with indignation ‡ 1:44 See Leviticus 14:1–32.

<sup>3</sup> Then a paralytic was brought to Him, carried by four men. <sup>4</sup> Since they were unable to get to Jesus through the crowd, they uncovered the roof above Him, made an opening, and lowered the paralytic on his mat.

<sup>6</sup> But some of the scribes were sitting there and thinking in their hearts, <sup>7</sup> "Why does this man speak like this? He is blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

<sup>8</sup> At once Jesus knew in His spirit that they were thinking this way within themselves. "Why are you thinking these things in your hearts?" He asked. <sup>9</sup> "Which is easier: to say to a paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up, pick up your mat, and walk'?" <sup>10</sup> But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins..." He said to the paralytic, <sup>11</sup> "I tell you, get up, pick up your mat, and go home."

<sup>12</sup> And immediately the man got up, picked up his mat, and walked out in front of them all. As a result, they were all astounded and glorified God, saying, "We have never seen anything like this!"

Jesus Calls Levi
(Matthew 9:9-13; Luke 5:27-32)

<sup>13</sup> Once again Jesus went out beside the sea. All the people came to Him, and He taught them there.

<sup>14</sup> As He was walking along, He saw Levi son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax booth. "Follow Me," He told him, and Levi got up and followed Him.

<sup>15</sup> While Jesus was dining at Levi's house, many tax collectors and sinners were eating with Him and His disciples—for there were many who followed Him. <sup>16</sup> When the scribes who were Pharisees saw Jesus eating with these people, they asked His disciples, "Why does He eat * with tax collectors and sinners?"

<sup>17</sup> On hearing this, Jesus told them, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

Questions about Fasting
(Matthew 9:14-15; Luke 5:33-35)

<sup>18</sup> Now John's disciples and the Pharisees were often fasting. So people came to Jesus and asked, "Why don't Your disciples fast like John's disciples and those of the Pharisees?"

<sup>19</sup> Jesus replied, "How can the guests of the bridegroom fast while He is with them? As long as He is with them, they cannot fast. <sup>20</sup> But the time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them; then they will fast.

The Patches and the Wineskins
(Matthew 9:16-17; Luke 5:36-39)

<sup>21</sup> No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment. If he does, the new piece will pull away from the old, and a worse tear will result.

<sup>22</sup> And no one pours new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the wine will burst the skins, and both the wine and the wineskins will be ruined. Instead, new wine is poured into new wineskins."†

The Lord of the Sabbath
(1 Samuel 21:1-7; Matthew 12:1-8; Luke 6:1-5)

<sup>23</sup> One Sabbath Jesus was passing through the grainfields, and His disciples began to pick the heads of grain as they walked along. <sup>24</sup> So the Pharisees said to Him, "Look, why are they doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath?"

* 2:16 BYZ and TR include and drink; see Luke 5:30. † 2:22 Tischendorf does not include Instead, new wine is poured into new wineskins.

<sup>25</sup> Jesus replied, "Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need? <sup>26</sup> During the high priesthood of Abiathar, he entered the house of God and ate the consecrated bread,‡ which was lawful only for the priests. And he gave some to his companions as well."

3

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath (Matthew 12:9-14; Luke 6:6-11)

<sup>1</sup> Once again Jesus entered the synagogue, and a man with a withered hand was there. <sup>2</sup> In order to accuse Jesus, they were watching to see if He would heal on the Sabbath.

<sup>3</sup> Then Jesus said to the man with the withered hand, "Stand up among us." <sup>4</sup> And He asked them, "Which is lawful on the Sabbath: to do good or to do evil, to save life or to destroy it?"

But they were silent.

<sup>5</sup> Jesus looked around at them with anger and sorrow at their hardness of heart. Then He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." So he stretched it out, and it was restored.

<sup>6</sup> At this, the Pharisees went out and began plotting with the Herodians how they might kill Jesus.

Jesus Heals the Multitudes (Matthew 4:23-25; Luke 6:17-19)

<sup>7</sup> So Jesus withdrew with His disciples to the sea, accompanied by a large crowd from Galilee, Judea, <sup>8</sup> Jerusalem, Idumea, the region beyond the Jordan, and the vicinity of Tyre and Sidon. The large crowd came to Him when they heard what great things He was doing.

<sup>9</sup> Jesus asked His disciples to have a boat ready for Him so that the crowd would not crush Him. <sup>10</sup> For He had healed so many that all who had diseases were pressing forward to touch Him. <sup>11</sup> And when the unclean spirits saw Him, they fell down before Him and cried out, "You are the Son of God!" <sup>12</sup> But He warned them sternly not to make Him known.

The Twelve Apostles (Matthew 10:1-4; Luke 6:12-16)

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus went up on the mountain and called for those He wanted, and they came to Him. <sup>14</sup> He appointed twelve of them, whom He designated as apostles,* to accompany Him, to be sent out to preach, <sup>15</sup> and to have authority to drive out demons.

A House Divided (Matthew 12:22-30; Luke 11:14-23)

<sup>20</sup> Then Jesus went home,§ and once again a crowd gathered, so that He and His disciples could not even eat. <sup>21</sup> When His family heard about this, they went out to take custody of Him, saying, "He is out of His mind."

<sup>22</sup> And the scribes who had come down from Jerusalem were saying, "He is possessed by Beelzebul,*" and, "By the prince of the demons He drives out demons."

<sup>23</sup> So Jesus called them together and began to speak to them in parables: "How can Satan drive out Satan? <sup>24</sup> If a kingdom is divided against itself, it cannot stand. <sup>25</sup> If a house is divided against itself, it cannot stand. <sup>26</sup> And if Satan is divided and rises against himself, he cannot stand; his end has come. <sup>27</sup> Indeed, no one can enter a strong man's house to steal his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he can plunder his house.

The Unpardonable Sin
(Matthew 12:31-32)

<sup>28</sup> Truly I tell you, the sons of men will be forgiven all sins and blasphemies, as many as they utter. <sup>29</sup> But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven; he is guilty of eternal sin."

<sup>30</sup> Jesus made this statement because they were saying, "He has an unclean spirit."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers
(Matthew 12:46-50; Luke 8:19-21)

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus' mother and brothers came and stood outside. They sent someone in to summon Him, <sup>32</sup> and a crowd was sitting around Him. "Look," He was told, "Your mother and brothers † are outside, asking for You."

<sup>33</sup> But Jesus replied, "Who are My mother and My brothers?" <sup>34</sup> Looking at those seated in a circle around Him, He said, "Here are My mother and My brothers! <sup>35</sup> For whoever does the will of God is My brother and sister and mother."

The Parable of the Sower
(Matthew 13:1-9; Luke 8:4-8)

<sup>1</sup> Once again Jesus began to teach beside the sea, and such a large crowd gathered around Him that He got into a boat and sat in it, while all the people crowded along the shore.

<sup>2</sup> And He taught them many things in parables, and in His teaching He said, <sup>3</sup> "Listen! A farmer went out to sow his seed. <sup>4</sup> And as he was sowing, some seed fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured it.

<sup>7</sup> Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the seedlings, and they yielded no crop.

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesus said, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

The Purpose of Jesus' Parables
(Isaiah 6:1-13; Matthew 13:10-17; Luke 8:9-10)

<sup>10</sup> As soon as Jesus was alone with the Twelve and those around Him, they asked Him about the parable.

<sup>11</sup> He replied, "The mystery of the kingdom of God has been given to you, but to those on the outside everything is expressed in parables, <sup>12</sup> so that,

‘they may be ever seeing but never perceiving, and ever hearing but never understanding;
otherwise they might turn and be forgiven.’*”

The Parable of the Sower Explained
(Matthew 13:18-23; Luke 8:11-15)

13 Then Jesus said to them, “Do you not understand this parable? Then how will you understand any of the parables?”

14 The farmer sows the word. 15 Some are like the seeds † along the path, where the word is sown. As soon as they hear it, Satan comes and takes away the word that was sown in them.

16 Some are like the seeds sown on rocky ground. They hear the word and at once receive it with joy. 17 But they themselves have no root, and they remain for only a season. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, they quickly fall away.

18 Others are like the seeds sown among the thorns. They hear the word, 19 but the worries of this life, the deceitfulness of wealth, and the desire for other things come in and choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

20 Still others are like the seeds sown on good soil. They hear the word, receive it, and produce a crop—thirtyfold, sixtyfold, or a hundredfold.”

The Lesson of the Lamp
(Luke 8:16-18)

21 Jesus also said to them, “Does anyone bring in a lamp to put it under a basket or under a bed? Doesn’t he set it on a stand? 22 For there is nothing hidden that will not be disclosed, and nothing concealed that will not be brought to light.

23 If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.”

24 He went on to say, “Pay attention to what you hear. With the measure you use, it will be measured to you, and even more will be added to you. 25 For whoever has will be given more. But whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.”

The Seed Growing Secretly

26 Jesus also said, “The kingdom of God is like a man who scatters seed on the ground. 27 Night and day he sleeps and wakes, and the seed sprouts and grows, though he knows not how. 28 All by itself the earth produces a crop—first the stalk, then the head, then grain that ripens within. 29 And as soon as the grain is ripe, he swings the sickle, because the harvest has come.‡”

The Parable of the Mustard Seed
(Matthew 13:31-32; Luke 13:18-19)

30 Then He asked, “To what can we compare the kingdom of God? With what parable shall we present it? 31 It is like a mustard seed, which is the smallest of all seeds sown upon the earth. 32 But after it is planted, it grows to be the largest of all garden plants and puts forth great branches, so that the birds of the air nest in its shade.”

33 With many such parables Jesus spoke the word to them, to the extent that they could understand. 34 He did not tell them anything without using a parable. But privately He explained everything to His own disciples.

<sup>35</sup> When that evening came, He said to His disciples, "Let us cross to the other side."

<sup>36</sup> After they had dismissed the crowd, they took Jesus with them, since He was already in the boat. And there were other boats with Him.

<sup>37</sup> Soon a violent windstorm came up, and the waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was being swamped. <sup>38</sup> But Jesus was in the stern, sleeping on the cushion. So they woke Him and said, "Teacher, don't You care that we are perishing?"

<sup>39</sup> Then Jesus got up and rebuked the wind and the sea. "Silence!" He commanded. "Be still!" And the wind died down, and it was perfectly calm.

<sup>40</sup> "Why are you so afraid?" He asked. "Do you still have no faith?"

<sup>41</sup> Overwhelmed with fear, they asked one another, "Who is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?"

The Demons and the Pigs

(Matthew 8:28-34; Luke 8:26-39)

<sup>7</sup> And he shouted in a loud voice, "What do You want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg You before God not to torture me!" <sup>8</sup> For Jesus had already declared, "Come out of this man, you unclean spirit!"

<sup>9</sup> "What is your name?" Jesus asked.

"My name is Legion," he replied, "for we are many." <sup>10</sup> And he begged Jesus repeatedly not to send them out of that region.

<sup>11</sup> There on the nearby hillside a large herd of pigs was feeding. <sup>12</sup> So the demons begged Jesus, "Send us to the pigs, so that we may enter them."

<sup>13</sup> He gave them permission, and the unclean spirits came out and went into the pigs, and the herd of about two thousand rushed down the steep bank into the sea and drowned in the water.†

<sup>14</sup> Those tending the pigs ran off and reported this in the town and countryside, and the people went out to see what had happened. <sup>15</sup> When they came to Jesus, they saw the man who had been possessed by the legion of demons sitting there, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid.

<sup>16</sup> Those who had seen it described what had happened to the demon-possessed man and also to the pigs. <sup>17</sup> And the people began to beg Jesus to leave their region.

<sup>18</sup> As He was getting into the boat, the man who had been possessed by the demons begged to go with Him. <sup>19</sup> But Jesus would not allow him. "Go home to your own people," He said, "and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and what mercy He has shown you."

<sup>20</sup> So the man went away and began to proclaim throughout the Decapolis ‡ how much Jesus had done for him. And everyone was amazed.

The Healing Touch of Jesus
(Matthew 9:18-26; Luke 8:40-56)

<sup>21</sup> When Jesus had again crossed by boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around Him beside the sea. <sup>22</sup> A synagogue leader named Jairus arrived, and seeing Jesus, he fell at His feet <sup>23</sup> and pleaded with Him urgently, "My little daughter is near death. Please come and place Your hands on her, so that she will be healed and live."

<sup>24</sup> So Jesus went with him, and a large crowd followed and pressed around Him. <sup>25</sup> And a woman was there who had suffered from bleeding for twelve years. <sup>26</sup> She had borne much agony under the care of many physicians and had spent all she had, but to no avail. Instead, her condition had only grown worse.

<sup>27</sup> When the woman heard about Jesus, she came up through the crowd behind Him and touched His cloak. <sup>28</sup> For she kept saying, "If only I touch His garments, I will be healed." <sup>29</sup> Immediately her bleeding stopped, and she sensed in her body that she was healed of her affliction.

<sup>30</sup> At once Jesus was aware that power had gone out from Him. Turning to the crowd, He asked, "Who touched My garments?"

<sup>31</sup> His disciples answered, "You can see the crowd pressing in on You, and yet You ask, 'Who touched Me?'"

<sup>32</sup> But He kept looking around to see who had done this. <sup>33</sup> Then the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him trembling in fear, and she told Him the whole truth.

<sup>34</sup> "Daughter," said Jesus, "your faith has healed you. Go in peace and be free of your affliction."

<sup>35</sup> While He was still speaking, messengers from the house of Jairus arrived and said, "Your daughter is dead; why bother the Teacher anymore?"

<sup>38</sup> When they arrived at the house of the synagogue leader, Jesus saw the commotion and the people weeping and wailing loudly. <sup>39</sup> He went inside and asked, "Why all this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead, but asleep." <sup>40</sup> And they laughed at Him.

After He had put them all outside, He took the child's father and mother and His own companions, and went in to see the child. <sup>41</sup> Taking her by the hand, Jesus said, "Talitha koum!" which means, "Little girl, I say to you, get up!" <sup>42</sup> Immediately the girl got up and began to walk around. She was twelve years old, and at once they were utterly astounded. <sup>43</sup> Then Jesus gave strict orders that no one should know about this, and He told them to give her something to eat.

The Rejection at Nazareth
(Matthew 13:53-58; Luke 4:16-30)

<sup>1</sup> Jesus went on from there and came to His hometown, accompanied by His disciples. <sup>2</sup> When the Sabbath came, He began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard Him were astonished. "Where did this man get these ideas?" they asked. "What is this wisdom He has been given? And how can He perform such miracles?" <sup>3</sup> Isn't this the carpenter, the son of Mary and the brother of James, * Judas, and Simon? Aren't His sisters here with us as well?" And they took offense at Him.

§ 5:36 Or ignored * 6:3 Josés is a variant of Joseph; see Matthew 13:55.

<sup>4</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “Only in his hometown, among his relatives, and in his own household is a prophet without honor.” <sup>5</sup> So He could not perform any miracles there, except to lay His hands on a few of the sick and heal them. <sup>6</sup> And He was amazed at their unbelief.

And He went around from village to village, teaching the people.

The Ministry of the Twelve
(Matthew 10:5-15; Luke 9:1-6)

<sup>7</sup> Then Jesus called the Twelve to Him and began to send them out two by two, giving them authority over unclean spirits. <sup>8</sup> He instructed them to take nothing but a staff for the journey—no bread, no bag, no money † in their belts— <sup>9</sup> and to wear sandals, but not a second tunic.

<sup>10</sup> And He told them, “When you enter a house, stay there until you leave that area. <sup>11</sup> If anyone will not welcome you or listen to you, shake the dust off your feet when you leave that place, as a testimony against them.”‡

<sup>12</sup> So they set out and preached that the people should repent. <sup>13</sup> They also drove out many demons and healed many of the sick, anointing them with oil.

The Beheading of John
(Matthew 14:1-12; Luke 9:7-9)

<sup>14</sup> Now King Herod heard about this, for Jesus’ name had become well known, and people were saying, § “John the Baptist has risen from the dead! That is why miraculous powers are at work in him.” <sup>15</sup> Others were saying, “He is Elijah,” and still others, “He is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old.”

<sup>19</sup> So Herodias held a grudge against John and wanted to kill him. But she had been unable, <sup>20</sup> because Herod feared John and protected him, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man. When he heard John’s words, he was greatly perplexed; yet he listened to him gladly.

<sup>21</sup> On Herod’s birthday, her opportunity arose. Herod held a banquet for his nobles and military commanders and the leading men of Galilee. <sup>22</sup> When the daughter of Herodias * came and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests, and the king said to the girl, “Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it to you.” <sup>23</sup> And he swore to her, “Whatever you ask of me, I will give you, up to half my kingdom!”

And her mother answered, “The head of John the Baptist.”

<sup>26</sup> The king was consumed with sorrow, but because of his oaths and his guests, he did not want to refuse her. <sup>27</sup> So without delay, the king commanded that John’s head be brought in. He sent an executioner, who went and beheaded him in the prison. <sup>28</sup> The man brought John’s head on a platter and presented it to the girl, who gave it to her mother.

(Matthew 14:13-21; Luke 9:10-17; John 6:1-15)

<sup>30</sup> Meanwhile, the apostles gathered around Jesus and brought Him news of all they had done and taught. <sup>31</sup> And He said to them, "Come with Me privately to a solitary place, and let us rest for a while." For many people were coming and going, and they did not even have time to eat.

<sup>32</sup> So they went away in a boat by themselves to a solitary place. <sup>33</sup> But many people saw them leaving and recognized them. They ran together on foot from all the towns and arrived before them. <sup>34</sup> When Jesus stepped ashore and saw a large crowd, He had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. And He began to teach them many things.

<sup>35</sup> By now the hour was already late. So the disciples came to Jesus and said, "This is a desolate place, and the hour is already late. <sup>36</sup> Dismiss the crowd so they can go to the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat."

They asked Him, "Should we go out and spend two hundred denarii † to give all of them bread to eat?"

<sup>38</sup> "Go and see how many loaves you have," He told them.

And after checking, they said, "Five—and two fish."

<sup>39</sup> Then Jesus directed them to have the people sit in groups on the green grass. <sup>40</sup> So they sat down in groups of hundreds and fifties.

<sup>41</sup> Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, Jesus spoke a blessing and broke the loaves. Then He gave them to His disciples to set before the people. And He divided the two fish among them all.

<sup>42</sup> They all ate and were satisfied, <sup>43</sup> and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces of bread and fish. <sup>44</sup> And there were five thousand men who had eaten the loaves.

Jesus Walks on Water
(Matthew 14:22-33; John 6:16-21)

<sup>45</sup> Immediately Jesus made His disciples get into the boat and go on ahead of Him to Bethsaida, while He dismissed the crowd. <sup>46</sup> After bidding them farewell, He went up on the mountain to pray.

<sup>47</sup> When evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and Jesus was alone on land. <sup>48</sup> He could see that the disciples were straining to row, because the wind was against them. About the fourth watch of the night,‡ Jesus went out to them, walking on the sea. He intended to pass by them, <sup>49</sup> but when they saw Him walking on the sea, they cried out, thinking He was a ghost— <sup>50</sup> for they all saw Him and were terrified.

But Jesus spoke up at once: "Take courage! It is I. Do not be afraid." <sup>51</sup> Then He climbed into the boat with them, and the wind died down. And the disciples were utterly astounded, <sup>52</sup> for they had not understood about the loaves, but their hearts had been hardened.

<sup>53</sup> When they had crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret and moored the boat. <sup>54</sup> As soon as they got out of the boat, the people recognized Jesus <sup>55</sup> and ran through that whole region, carrying the sick on mats to wherever they heard He was. <sup>56</sup> And wherever He went—villages and towns and countrysides—they laid the sick in the marketplaces and begged Him just to let them touch the fringe of His cloak. And all who touched Him were healed.

The Tradition of the Elders (Matthew 15:1-9)

<sup>3</sup> Now in holding to the tradition of the elders, the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat until they wash their hands ceremonially.* <sup>4</sup> And on returning from the market, they do not eat unless they wash. And there are many other traditions for them to observe, including the washing of cups, pitchers, kettles, and couches for dining.†

<sup>6</sup> Jesus answered them, “Isaiah prophesied correctly about you hypocrites, as it is written:

‘These people honor Me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from Me.
<sup>7</sup> They worship Me in vain;
they teach as doctrine the precepts of men.’‡

<sup>9</sup> He went on to say, “You neatly set aside the command of God to maintain * your own tradition. <sup>10</sup> For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and your mother’† and ‘Anyone who curses his father or mother must be put to death.’‡ <sup>11</sup> But you say that if a man says to his father or mother, ‘Whatever you would have received from me is Corban’ (that is, a gift devoted to God), <sup>12</sup> he is no longer permitted to do anything for his father or mother. <sup>13</sup> Thus you nullify the word of God by the tradition you have handed down. And you do so in many such matters.”

What Defiles a Man (Matthew 15:10-20)

<sup>14</sup> Once again Jesus called the crowd to Him and said, “All of you, listen to Me and understand: <sup>15</sup> Nothing that enters a man from the outside can defile him; but the things that come out of a man, these are what defile him.”§

<sup>18</sup> “Are you still so dull?” He asked. “Do you not understand? Nothing that enters a man from the outside can defile him, <sup>19</sup> because it does not enter his heart, but it goes into the stomach and then is eliminated.” (Thus all foods are clean.)*

The Faith of the Gentile Woman
(Matthew 15:21–28)

<sup>24</sup> Jesus left that place and went to the region of Tyre.‡ Not wanting anyone to know He was there, He entered a house, but was unable to escape their notice. <sup>25</sup> Instead, a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit soon heard about Jesus, and she came and fell at His feet. <sup>26</sup> Now she was a Greek woman of Syrophenician origin, and she kept asking Jesus to drive the demon out of her daughter:

<sup>29</sup> Then Jesus told her, "Because of this answer, you may go. The demon has left your daughter." <sup>30</sup> And she went home and found her child lying on the bed, and the demon was gone.

The Deaf and Mute Man
(Matthew 9:27–34)

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus left the region of Tyre and went through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee and into the region of the Decapolis.* <sup>32</sup> Some people brought to Him a man who was deaf and hardly able to speak, and they begged Jesus to place His hand on him.

<sup>33</sup> So Jesus took him aside privately, away from the crowd, and put His fingers into the man's ears. Then He spit and touched the man's tongue. <sup>34</sup> And looking up to heaven, He sighed deeply and said to him, "Ephphatha!" (which means, "Be opened!"). <sup>35</sup> Immediately the man's ears were opened and his tongue was released, and he began to speak plainly.

<sup>36</sup> Jesus ordered them not to tell anyone. But the more He ordered them, the more widely they proclaimed it. <sup>37</sup> The people were utterly astonished and said, "He has done all things well! He makes even the deaf hear and the mute speak!"

The Feeding of the Four Thousand
(2 Kings 4:42–44; Matthew 15:29–39)

<sup>1</sup> In those days the crowd once again became very large, and they had nothing to eat. Jesus called the disciples to Him and said, <sup>2</sup> "I have compassion for this crowd, because they have already been with Me three days and have nothing to eat. <sup>3</sup> If I send them home hungry, they will faint along the way. For some of them have come a great distance."

<sup>5</sup> "How many loaves do you have?" Jesus asked.

"Seven," they replied.

<sup>6</sup> And He instructed the crowd to sit down on the ground. Then He took the seven loaves, gave thanks and broke them, and gave them to His disciples to set before the people.

And they distributed them to the crowd. <sup>7</sup> They also had a few small fish, and Jesus blessed them and ordered that these be set before them as well.

As soon as Jesus had dismissed the crowd, <sup>10</sup> He got into the boat with His disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha.

The Demand for a Sign
(Matthew 16:1-4; Luke 12:54-56)

<sup>11</sup> Then the Pharisees came and began to argue with Jesus, testing Him by demanding from Him a sign from heaven.

<sup>12</sup> Jesus sighed deeply in His spirit and said, "Why does this generation demand a sign? Truly I tell you, no sign will be given to this generation." <sup>13</sup> And He left them, got back into the boat, and crossed to the other side.

The Leaven of the Pharisees and of Herod
(Matthew 16:5-12; Luke 12:1-3)

<sup>14</sup> Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, except for one loaf they had with them in the boat. <sup>15</sup> "Watch out!" He cautioned them. "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of Herod."

<sup>16</sup> So they began to discuss with one another the fact that they had no bread.

<sup>17</sup> Aware of their conversation, Jesus asked them, "Why are you debating about having no bread? Do you still not see or understand? Do you have such hard hearts? <sup>18</sup> 'Having eyes, do you not see? And having ears, do you not hear?'† And do you not remember? <sup>19</sup> When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many basketfuls of broken pieces did you collect?"

"Twelve," they answered.

<sup>20</sup> "And when I broke the seven loaves for the four thousand, how many basketfuls of broken pieces did you collect?"

"Seven," they said.

<sup>21</sup> Then He asked them, "Do you still not understand?"

The Blind Man at Bethsaida

<sup>22</sup> When they arrived at Bethsaida, some people brought a blind man and begged Jesus to touch him. <sup>23</sup> So He took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the village. Then He spit on the man's eyes and placed His hands on him. "Can you see anything?" He asked.

<sup>24</sup> The man looked up and said, "I can see the people, but they look like trees walking around."

<sup>25</sup> Once again Jesus placed His hands on the man's eyes, and when he opened them his sight was restored, and he could see everything clearly. <sup>26</sup> Jesus sent him home and said, "Do not go back into the village."‡

Peter's Confession of Christ
(Matthew 16:13-20; Luke 9:18-20; John 6:67-71)

<sup>27</sup> Then Jesus and His disciples went on to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way, He questioned His disciples: "Who do people say I am?"

<sup>29</sup> "But what about you?" Jesus asked. "Who do you say I am?"

Peter answered, "You are the Christ."

<sup>30</sup> And Jesus warned them not to tell anyone about Him.

Christ's Passion Foretold
(Matthew 16:21-23; Luke 9:21-22)

<sup>31</sup> Then He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and that He must be killed and after three days rise again. <sup>32</sup> He spoke this message quite frankly, and Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him.

<sup>33</sup> But Jesus, turning and looking at His disciples, rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind Me, Satan! For you do not have in mind the things of God, but the things of men."

Take Up Your Cross
(Matthew 16:24-28; Luke 9:23-27)

<sup>34</sup> Then Jesus called the crowd to Him along with His disciples, and He told them, "If anyone wants to come after Me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me. <sup>35</sup> For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and for the gospel will save it.

<sup>36</sup> What does it profit a man to gain the whole world, yet forfeit his soul? <sup>37</sup> Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul? <sup>38</sup> If anyone is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when He comes in His Father's glory with the holy angels."

The Transfiguration
(Matthew 17:1-13; Luke 9:28-36; 2 Peter 1:16-21)

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God arrive with power."

<sup>2</sup> After six days Jesus took with Him Peter, James, and John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. There He was transfigured before them. <sup>3</sup> His clothes became radiantly white, brighter than any launderer on earth could bleach them. <sup>4</sup> And Elijah and Moses appeared before them, talking with Jesus.

<sup>5</sup> Peter said to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters *—one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." <sup>6</sup> For they were all so terrified that Peter did not know what else to say.

<sup>7</sup> Then a cloud appeared and enveloped them, and a voice came from the cloud: "This is My beloved Son. Listen to Him!" <sup>8</sup> Suddenly, when they looked around, they saw no one with them except Jesus.

<sup>9</sup> As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus admonished them not to tell anyone what they had seen until the Son of Man had risen from the dead. <sup>10</sup> So they kept this matter to themselves, discussing what it meant to rise from the dead. <sup>11</sup> And they asked Jesus, "Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

<sup>12</sup> He replied, "Elijah does indeed come first, and he restores all things. Why then is it written that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected? <sup>13</sup> But I tell you that Elijah has indeed come, and they have done to him whatever they wished, just as it is written about him."

The Boy with an Evil Spirit
(Matthew 17:14-18; Luke 9:37-42)

<sup>14</sup> When they returned to the other disciples, they saw a large crowd around them, and scribes arguing with them. <sup>15</sup> As soon as all the people saw Jesus, they were filled with awe and ran to greet Him.

<sup>16</sup> "What are you disputing with them?" He asked.

<sup>17</sup> Someone in the crowd replied, "Teacher, I brought You my son, who has a spirit that makes him mute. <sup>18</sup> Whenever it seizes him, it throws him to the ground. He foams at the mouth, gnashes his teeth, and becomes rigid.† I asked Your disciples to drive it out, but they were unable."

<sup>19</sup> "O unbelieving generation!" Jesus replied. "How long must I remain with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring the boy to Me."

<sup>20</sup> So they brought him, and seeing Jesus, the spirit immediately threw the boy into a convulsion. He fell to the ground and rolled around, foaming at the mouth.

<sup>21</sup> Jesus asked the boy's father, "How long has this been with him?"

"From childhood," he said. <sup>22</sup> "It often throws him into the fire or into the water, trying to kill him. But if You can do anything, have compassion on us and help us."

<sup>25</sup> When Jesus saw that a crowd had come running, He rebuked the unclean spirit. "You deaf and mute spirit," He said, "I command you to come out and never enter him again."

<sup>26</sup> After shrieking and convulsing him violently, the spirit came out. The boy became like a corpse, so that many said, "He is dead." <sup>27</sup> But Jesus took him by the hand and helped him to his feet, and he stood up.

<sup>28</sup> After Jesus had gone into the house, His disciples asked Him privately, "Why couldn't we drive it out?"

<sup>29</sup> Jesus answered, "This kind cannot come out, except by prayer."§

The Second Prediction of the Passion
(Matthew 17:22-23; Luke 9:43-45)

<sup>30</sup> Going on from there, they passed through Galilee. But Jesus did not want anyone to know, <sup>31</sup> because He was teaching His disciples. He told them, "The Son of Man will be delivered into the hands of men. They will kill Him, and after three days He will rise."

<sup>32</sup> But they did not understand this statement, and they were afraid to ask Him about it.

The Greatest in the Kingdom
(Matthew 18:1-5; Luke 9:46-50)

<sup>33</sup> Then they came to Capernaum. While Jesus was in the house, He asked them, "What were you discussing on the way?" <sup>34</sup> But they were silent, for on the way they had been arguing about which of them was the greatest.

<sup>35</sup> Sitting down, Jesus called the Twelve and said, "If anyone wants to be first, he must be the last of all and the servant of all."

<sup>36</sup> Then He had a little child stand among them. Taking the child in His arms, He said to them, <sup>37</sup> "Whoever welcomes one of these little children in My name welcomes Me, and whoever welcomes Me welcomes not only Me, but the One who sent Me."

<sup>39</sup> “Do not stop him,” Jesus replied. “For no one who performs a miracle in My name can turn around and speak evil of Me. <sup>40</sup> For whoever is not against us is for us. <sup>41</sup> Indeed, if anyone gives you even a cup of water because you bear the name of Christ, truly I tell you, he will never lose his reward.

It is better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and be thrown into hell.‡ <sup>47</sup> And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell, <sup>48</sup> where ‘their worm never dies, and the fire is never quenched.’§

Teachings about Divorce
(Matthew 19:1-12)

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus left that place and went into the region of Judea, beyond the Jordan. Again the crowds came to Him and He taught them, as was His custom.

<sup>2</sup> Some Pharisees came to test Him. “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?” they inquired.

<sup>5</sup> But Jesus told them, “Moses wrote this commandment for you because of your hardness of heart. <sup>6</sup> However, from the beginning of creation, ‘God made them male and female.’† <sup>7</sup> ‘For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife,‡ and the two will become one flesh.’§ So they are no longer two, but one flesh. <sup>9</sup> Therefore what God has joined together, let man not separate.”

<sup>10</sup> When they were back inside the house, the disciples asked Jesus about this matter. <sup>11</sup> So He told them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery against her. <sup>12</sup> And if a woman divorces her husband and marries another man, she commits adultery.”

Jesus Blesses the Children
(Matthew 19:13-15; Luke 18:15-17)

<sup>13</sup> Now people were bringing the little children to Jesus for Him to place His hands on them, and the disciples rebuked those who brought them.

<sup>14</sup> But when Jesus saw this, He was indignant and told them, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not hinder them! For the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. <sup>15</sup> Truly I tell you, anyone who does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it." <sup>16</sup> And He took the children in His arms, placed His hands on them, and blessed them.

The Rich Young Man
(Matthew 19:16-30; Luke 18:18-30)

<sup>17</sup> As Jesus started on His way, a man ran up and knelt before Him. "Good Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

<sup>21</sup> Jesus looked at him, loved him, and said to him, "There is one thing you lack: Go, sell everything you own and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me.†"

<sup>22</sup> But the man was saddened by these words and went away in sorrow, because he had great wealth.

<sup>23</sup> Then Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, "How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!"

But Jesus said to them again, "Children, how hard it is to enter ‡ the kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup> It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

<sup>26</sup> They were even more astonished and said to one another, "Who then can be saved?"

<sup>27</sup> Jesus looked at them and said, "With man this is impossible, but not with God. For all things are possible with God."

<sup>29</sup> "Truly I tell you," Jesus replied, "no one who has left home or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for My sake and for the gospel <sup>30</sup> will fail to receive a hundredfold in the present age—houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and fields, along with persecutions—and in the age to come, eternal life. <sup>31</sup> But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first."

The Third Prediction of the Passion
(Matthew 20:17-19; Luke 18:31-34)

<sup>32</sup> As they were going up the road to Jerusalem, Jesus was walking ahead of them. The disciples were amazed, but those who followed were afraid. Again Jesus took the Twelve aside and began to tell them what was going to happen to Him: <sup>33</sup> "Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered over to the chief priests and scribes. The Request of James and John
(Matthew 20:20-28)

<sup>35</sup> Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and declared, “Teacher, we want You to do for us whatever we ask.”

<sup>38</sup> “You do not know what you are asking,” Jesus replied. “Can you drink the cup I will drink, or be baptized with the baptism I will undergo?”

“You will drink the cup that I drink,” Jesus said, “and you will be baptized with the baptism that I undergo. <sup>40</sup> But to sit at My right or left is not Mine to grant. These seats belong to those for whom § they have been prepared.”

<sup>41</sup> When the ten heard about this, they became indignant with James and John. <sup>42</sup> So Jesus called them together and said, “You know that those regarded as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their superiors exercise authority over them. <sup>43</sup> But it shall not be this way among you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, <sup>44</sup> and whoever wants to be first must be the slave of all. <sup>45</sup> For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

Jesus Heals Bartimaeus
(Matthew 20:29-34; Luke 18:35-43)

<sup>46</sup> Next, they came to Jericho. And as Jesus and His disciples were leaving Jericho with a large crowd, a blind beggar named Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, was sitting beside the road. <sup>47</sup> When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>48</sup> Many people admonished him to be silent, but he cried out all the louder, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

So they called the blind man. “Take courage!” they said. “Get up! He is calling for you.”

<sup>50</sup> Throwing off his cloak, Bartimaeus jumped up and came to Jesus.

<sup>51</sup> “What do you want Me to do for you?” Jesus asked.

“Rabboni,” said the blind man, “let me see again.”

<sup>52</sup> “Go,” said Jesus, “your faith has healed you.” And immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus along the road.

The Triumphal Entry
(Zechariah 9:9-13; Matthew 21:1-11; Luke 19:28-40; John 12:12-19)

<sup>1</sup> As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent out two of His disciples <sup>2</sup> and said to them, “Go into the village ahead of you, and as soon as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here. <sup>3</sup> If anyone asks, 'Why are you doing this?' tell him, 'The Lord needs it and will return it shortly.' "

<sup>4</sup> So they went and found the colt outside in the street, tied at a doorway. They untied it, <sup>5</sup> and some who were standing there asked, "Why are you untying the colt?"

<sup>6</sup> The disciples answered as Jesus had instructed them, and the people gave them permission. <sup>7</sup> Then they led the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks over it, and He sat on it.

<sup>8</sup> Many in the crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others spread branches they had cut from the fields. <sup>9</sup> The ones who went ahead and those who followed were shouting:

"Hosanna!"*

"Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!"†

<sup>10</sup> "Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!"

"Hosanna in the highest!"‡

<sup>11</sup> Then Jesus entered Jerusalem and went into the temple courts. § He looked around at everything, but since it was already late, He went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

Jesus Curses the Fig Tree
(Matthew 21:18-22; Mark 11:20-25)

<sup>12</sup> The next day, when they had left Bethany, Jesus was hungry. <sup>13</sup> Seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, He went to see if there was any fruit on it. But when He reached it, He found nothing on it except leaves, since it was not the season for figs. <sup>14</sup> Then He said to the tree, "May no one ever eat of your fruit again." And His disciples heard this statement.

(Matthew 21:12-17; Luke 19:45-48; John 2:12-25)

<sup>15</sup> When they arrived in Jerusalem, Jesus entered the temple courts and began to drive out those who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the seats of those selling doves. <sup>16</sup> And He would not allow anyone to carry merchandise through the temple courts. <sup>17</sup> Then Jesus began to teach them, and He declared, "Is it not written: 'My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations'?" But you have made it 'a den of robbers.' †"

<sup>18</sup> When the chief priests and scribes heard this, they looked for a way to kill Him. For they were afraid of Him, because the whole crowd was astonished at His teaching.

(Matthew 21:18-22; Mark 11:12-14)

Jesus' Authority Challenged
(Matthew 21:23-27; Luke 20:1-8)

<sup>27</sup> After their return to Jerusalem, Jesus was walking in the temple courts, and the chief priests, scribes, and elders came up to Him. <sup>28</sup> "By what authority are You doing these things?" they asked. "And who gave You the authority to do them?"

<sup>29</sup> "I will ask you one question," Jesus replied, "and if you answer Me, I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. <sup>30</sup> John's baptism—was it from heaven or from men? Answer Me!"

<sup>31</sup> They deliberated among themselves what they should answer: "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will ask, 'Why then did you not believe him?'" <sup>32</sup> But if we say, 'From men'..." they were afraid of the people, for they all held that John truly was a prophet. <sup>33</sup> So they answered, "We do not know."

And Jesus replied, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things."

The Parable of the Wicked Tenants
(Matthew 21:33-46; Luke 20:9-18)

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus began to speak to them in parables: "A man planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, dug a wine vat, and built a watchtower. Then he rented it out to some tenants and went away on a journey.

<sup>2</sup> At harvest time, he sent a servant to the tenants to collect his share of the fruit of the vineyard. <sup>3</sup> But they seized the servant, beat him, and sent him away empty-handed.

<sup>4</sup> Then he sent them another servant, and they struck him over the head and treated him shamefully.

<sup>5</sup> He sent still another, and this one they killed.

He sent many others; some they beat and others they killed.

<sup>6</sup> Finally, having one beloved son, he sent him to them. 'They will respect my son,' he said.

<sup>7</sup> But the tenants said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' <sup>8</sup> So they seized the son, killed him, and threw him out of the vineyard.

<sup>9</sup> What then will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and kill those tenants, and will give the vineyard to others. <sup>10</sup> Have you never read this Scripture:

Paying Taxes to Caesar
(Matthew 22:15-22; Luke 20:19-26)

<sup>13</sup> Later, they sent some of the Pharisees and Herodians to catch Jesus in His words. <sup>14</sup> "Teacher," they said, "we know that You are honest and seek favor from no one. Indeed, You are impartial and teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not? Should we pay them or not?"

<sup>15</sup> But Jesus saw through their hypocrisy and said, "Why are you testing Me? Bring Me a denarius ‡ to inspect." <sup>16</sup> So they brought it, and He asked them, "Whose image is this? And whose inscription?"

"Caesar's," they answered.

<sup>17</sup> Then Jesus told them, "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to God what is God's."

And they marveled at Him.

(Matthew 22:23-33; Luke 20:27-40)

<sup>18</sup> Then the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Jesus and questioned Him: <sup>19</sup> "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, the man is to marry his brother's widow and raise up offspring for him. § <sup>20</sup> Now there were seven brothers. The first one married and died, leaving no children. <sup>21</sup> Then the second one married the widow, but he also died and left no children. And the third did likewise. <sup>22</sup> In this way, none of the seven left any children. And last of all, the woman died. <sup>23</sup> In the resurrection, then,* whose wife will she be? For all seven were married to her."

<sup>24</sup> Jesus said to them, "Aren't you mistaken, because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God? <sup>25</sup> When the dead rise, they will neither marry nor be given in marriage. Instead, they will be like the angels in heaven.

<sup>26</sup> But concerning the dead rising, have you not read about the burning bush in the Book of Moses, how God told him, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob' †? <sup>27</sup> He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. You are badly mistaken!"

The Greatest Commandment
(Deuteronomy 6:1-19; Matthew 22:34-40)

<sup>28</sup> Now one of the scribes had come up and heard their debate. Noticing how well Jesus had answered them, he asked Him, "Which commandment is the most important of all?"

<sup>29</sup> Jesus replied, "This is the most important: 'Hear O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is One. <sup>30</sup> Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' ‡ <sup>31</sup> The second is this: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' § No other commandment is greater than these."

<sup>32</sup> "Right, Teacher," the scribe replied. "You have stated correctly that God is One and there is no other but Him, <sup>33</sup> and to love Him with all your heart and with all your understanding and with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself, which is more important than all burnt offerings and sacrifices."

<sup>34</sup> When Jesus saw that the man had answered wisely, He said, "You are not far from the kingdom of God."

And no one dared to question Him any further.

Whose Son Is the Christ?
(Matthew 22:41–46; Luke 20:41–44)

<sup>35</sup> While Jesus was teaching in the temple courts,* He asked, “How can the scribes say that the Christ is the Son of David? <sup>36</sup> Speaking by the Holy Spirit, David himself declared:

“The Lord said to my Lord,
“Sit at My right hand
until I put Your enemies
under Your feet.” †

<sup>37</sup> David himself calls Him ‘Lord.’ So how can He be David’s son?”

And the large crowd listened to Him with delight.

Beware of the Scribes
(Luke 20:45–47)

<sup>38</sup> In His teaching Jesus also said, “Watch out for the scribes. They like to walk around in long robes, to receive greetings in the marketplaces, <sup>39</sup> and to have the chief seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at banquets. <sup>40</sup> They defraud widows of their houses,‡ and for a show make lengthy prayers. These men will receive greater condemnation.”

The Widow’s Offering
(Luke 21:1–4)

<sup>41</sup> As Jesus was sitting opposite the treasury, He watched the crowd putting money into it. And many rich people put in large amounts. <sup>42</sup> Then one poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which amounted to a small fraction of a denarius.§

<sup>43</sup> Jesus called His disciples to Him and said, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put more than all the others into the treasury. <sup>44</sup> For they all contributed out of their surplus, but she out of her poverty has put in all she had to live on.”

Temple Destruction and Other Signs
(Matthew 24:1–8; Luke 21:5–9)

<sup>3</sup> While Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked Him privately, <sup>4</sup> “Tell us, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that they are about to be fulfilled?”

<sup>5</sup> Jesus began by telling them, “See to it that no one deceives you. <sup>6</sup> Many will come in My name, claiming, ‘I am He,’ and will deceive many. <sup>7</sup> When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed. These things must happen, but the end is still to come. <sup>8</sup> Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places, as well as famines. These are the beginning of birth pains.

Witnessing to All Nations
(Matthew 24:9–14; Luke 21:10–19)

* 12:35 Literally the temple † 12:36 Psalm 110:1 ‡ 12:40 Literally They devour widows’ houses § 12:42 Greek put in two lepta, which is a kodrantēs; a lepton was a Jewish coin of bronze or copper worth about 1/128 of a denarius.

<sup>9</sup> So be on your guard. You will be delivered over to the councils and beaten in the synagogues. On My account you will stand before governors and kings as witnesses to them. <sup>10</sup> And the gospel must first be proclaimed to all the nations. <sup>11</sup> But when they arrest you and hand you over, do not worry beforehand what to say. Instead, speak whatever you are given at that time, for it will not be you speaking, but the Holy Spirit.

<sup>12</sup> Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child. Children will rise against their parents and have them put to death. <sup>13</sup> You will be hated by everyone because of My name, but the one who perseveres to the end will be saved.

The Abomination of Desolation

<sup>14</sup> So when you see the abomination of desolation * standing where it should not be † (let the reader understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. <sup>15</sup> Let no one on the housetop go back inside to retrieve anything from his house. <sup>16</sup> And let no one in the field return for his cloak.

<sup>17</sup> How miserable those days will be for pregnant and nursing mothers! <sup>18</sup> Pray that this will not occur in the winter. <sup>19</sup> For those will be days of tribulation unmatched from the beginning of God's creation until now, and never to be seen again. <sup>20</sup> If the Lord had not cut short those days, nobody would be saved. But for the sake of the elect, whom He has chosen, He has cut them short.

<sup>21</sup> At that time if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or 'There He is!' do not believe it. <sup>22</sup> For false Christs and false prophets will appear and perform signs and wonders that would deceive even the elect, if that were possible. <sup>23</sup> So be on your guard; I have told you everything in advance.

(Matthew 24:26-31; Luke 21:25-28)

<sup>24</sup> But in those days, after that tribulation:

'The sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not give its light;
<sup>25</sup> the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.'‡

<sup>26</sup> At that time they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. <sup>27</sup> And He will send out the angels to gather His elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven.

The Lesson of the Fig Tree
(Matthew 24:32-35; Luke 21:29-33)

<sup>28</sup> Now learn this lesson * from the fig tree: As soon as its branches become tender and sprout leaves, you know that summer is near. <sup>29</sup> So also, when you see these things happening, know that He is near,† right at the door. <sup>30</sup> Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have happened. <sup>31</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.

Readiness at Any Hour

<sup>32</sup> No one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. <sup>33</sup> Be on your guard and stay alert!‡ For you do not know when the appointed time will come.

The Plot to Kill Jesus

(Matthew 26:1-5; Luke 22:1-2; John 11:45-57)

<sup>1</sup> Now the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread * were two days away, and the chief priests and scribes were looking for a covert way to arrest Jesus and kill Him. <sup>2</sup> “But not during the feast,” they said, “or there may be a riot among the people.”

Jesus Anointed at Bethany

(Matthew 26:6-13; Luke 7:36-50; John 12:1-8)

<sup>3</sup> While Jesus was in Bethany reclining at the table in the home of Simon the Leper,† a woman came with an alabaster jar of expensive perfume, made of pure nard. She broke open the jar and poured it on Jesus’ head.

<sup>6</sup> But Jesus said, “Leave her alone; why are you bothering her? She has done a beautiful deed to Me. <sup>7</sup> The poor you will always have with you,§ and you can help them whenever you want. But you will not always have Me. <sup>8</sup> She has done what she could to anoint My body in advance of My burial. <sup>9</sup> And truly I tell you, wherever the gospel is preached in all the world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her.”

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

(Matthew 26:14-16; Luke 22:3-6)

<sup>10</sup> Then Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Jesus to them. <sup>11</sup> They were delighted to hear this, and they promised to give him money.

So Judas began to look for an opportunity to betray Jesus.

Preparing the Passover

(Matthew 26:17-19; Luke 22:7-13)

<sup>12</sup> On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread,* when the Passover lamb was to be sacrificed, Jesus’ disciples asked Him, “Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?”

<sup>13</sup> So He sent two of His disciples and told them, “Go into the city, and a man carrying a jug of water will meet you. Follow him, <sup>14</sup> and whichever house he enters, say to the owner, ‘The Teacher asks: Where is My guest room, where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?’ <sup>15</sup> And he will show you a large upper room, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there.”

<sup>16</sup> So the disciples left and went into the city, where they found everything as Jesus had described. And they prepared the Passover.

The Last Supper

(Matthew 26:20-30; Luke 22:14-23; 1 Corinthians 11:17-34)

<sup>17</sup> When evening came, Jesus arrived with the Twelve. <sup>18</sup> And while they were reclining and eating, Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, one of you who is eating with Me will betray Me.”

<sup>20</sup> He answered, “It is one of the Twelve—the one who is dipping his hand † into the bowl with Me. <sup>21</sup> The Son of Man will go just as it is written about Him, but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed! It would be better for him if he had not been born.”

<sup>22</sup> While they were eating, Jesus took bread, spoke a blessing and broke it, and gave it to the disciples, saying, “Take it; this is My body.”

<sup>23</sup> Then He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it.

<sup>25</sup> Truly I tell you, I will no longer drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it anew in the kingdom of God.”

<sup>26</sup> And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter’s Denial

(Zechariah 13:7-9; Matthew 26:31-35; Luke 22:31-38; John 13:36-38)

<sup>27</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “You will all fall away,§ for it is written:

‘I will strike the Shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’*

<sup>28</sup> But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you into Galilee.”

<sup>30</sup> “Truly I tell you,” Jesus replied, “this very night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times.”

<sup>31</sup> But Peter kept insisting, “Even if I have to die with You, I will never deny You.” And all the others said the same thing.

Jesus Prays at Gethsemane

(Matthew 26:36-46; Luke 22:39-46)

<sup>32</sup> Then they came to a place called Gethsemane, and Jesus told His disciples, “Sit here while I pray.”

<sup>33</sup> He took with Him Peter, James, and John, and began to be deeply troubled and distressed. <sup>34</sup> Then He said to them, “My soul is consumed with sorrow to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch.”

<sup>35</sup> Going a little farther, He fell to the ground and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour would pass from Him. <sup>36</sup> “Abba, Father,” He said, “all things are possible for You. Take this cup from Me. Yet not what I will, but what You will.”

<sup>37</sup> Then Jesus returned and found them sleeping. “Simon, are you asleep?” He asked. “Were you not able to keep watch for one hour? <sup>38</sup> Watch and pray so that you will not enter into temptation. For the spirit is willing, but the body is weak.”

<sup>39</sup> Again He went away and prayed, saying the same thing. <sup>40</sup> And again Jesus returned and found them sleeping—for their eyes were heavy. And they did not know what to answer Him.

41 When Jesus returned the third time, He said, "Are you still sleeping and resting? That is enough! The hour has come. Look, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 42 Rise, let us go. See, My betrayer is approaching!"

The Betrayal of Jesus

(Matthew 26:47-56; Luke 22:47-53; John 18:1-14)

43 While Jesus was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived, accompanied by a crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests, scribes, and elders.

44 Now the betrayer had arranged a signal with them: "The One I kiss is the man; arrest Him and lead Him away securely." 45 Going directly to Jesus, he said, "Rabbi!" and kissed Him.

46 Then the men seized Jesus and arrested Him. 47 And one of the bystanders drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear.

48 Jesus asked the crowd, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me as you would an outlaw? 49 Every day I was with you, teaching in the temple courts,† and you did not arrest Me. But this has happened that the Scriptures would be fulfilled."

50 Then everyone deserted Him and fled. 51 One young man who had been following Jesus was wearing a linen cloth around his body. They caught hold of him, 52 but he pulled free of the linen cloth and ran away naked.

Jesus before the Sanhedrin

53 They led Jesus away to the high priest, and all the chief priests, elders, and scribes assembled. 54 Peter followed Him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest. And he sat with the officers and warmed himself by the fire.

55 Now the chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin ‡ were seeking testimony against Jesus to put Him to death, but they did not find any. 56 For many bore false witness against Jesus, but their testimony was inconsistent.

57 Then some men stood up and testified falsely against Him: 58 "We heard Him say, 'I will destroy this man-made temple, and in three days I will build another that is made without hands.' " 59 But even their testimony was inconsistent.

60 So the high priest stood up before them and questioned Jesus, "Have You no answer? What are these men testifying against You?"

61 But Jesus remained silent and made no reply.

Again the high priest questioned Him, "Are You the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?"

62 "I am," said Jesus, "and you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power § and coming with the clouds of heaven."*

63 At this, the high priest tore his clothes and declared, "Why do we need any more witnesses? 64 You have heard the blasphemy. What is your verdict?"

And they all condemned Him as deserving of death.

65 Then some of them began to spit on Him. They blindfolded Him, struck Him with their fists, and said to Him, "Prophesy!" And the officers received Him with slaps in His face.

Peter Denies Jesus

(Matthew 26:69-75; Luke 22:54-62; John 18:15-18)

† 14:49 Literally the temple ‡ 14:55 Or the whole Council § 14:62 Or the right hand of the Mighty One

* 14:62 See Psalm 110:1 and Daniel 7:13.

<sup>66</sup> While Peter was in the courtyard below, one of the servant girls of the high priest came down <sup>67</sup> and saw him warming himself there. She looked at Peter and said, "You also were with Jesus the Nazarene."

<sup>68</sup> But he denied it. "I do not know or even understand what you are talking about," he said. Then he went out to the gateway, and the rooster crowed.†

After a little while, those standing nearby said once more to Peter, "Surely you are one of them, for you too are a Galilean."‡

<sup>71</sup> But he began to curse and swear, "I do not know this man of whom you speak!" <sup>72</sup> And immediately the rooster crowed a second time.

Then Peter remembered the word that Jesus had spoken to him: "Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times." And he broke down and wept.

Jesus Delivered to Pilate (Matthew 27:1-2)

<sup>2</sup> So Pilate questioned Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

"You have said so," Jesus replied.

<sup>4</sup> Then Pilate questioned Him again, "Have You no answer? Look how many charges they are bringing against You!"

The Crowd Chooses Barabbas (Matthew 27:15-23; Luke 23:13-25)

<sup>9</sup> "Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?" Pilate asked. <sup>10</sup> For he knew it was out of envy that the chief priests had handed Jesus over.

<sup>11</sup> But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have him release Barabbas to them instead.

Pilate Delivers Up Jesus (Matthew 27:24-26)

<sup>12</sup> So Pilate asked them again, "What then do you want me to do with the One you call the King of the Jews?"

14 "Why?" asked Pilate. "What evil has He done?"

But they shouted all the louder, "Crucify Him!"

15 And wishing to satisfy the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas to them. But he had Jesus flogged, and handed Him over to be crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

16 Then the soldiers led Jesus away into the palace (that is, the Praetorium) and called the whole company together. 17 They dressed Him in a purple robe, twisted together a crown of thorns, and set it on His head. 18 And they began to salute Him: "Hail, King of the Jews!"

19 They kept striking His head with a staff and spitting on Him. And they knelt down and bowed before Him. 20 After they had mocked Him, they removed the purple robe and put His own clothes back on Him. Then they led Him out to crucify Him.

The Crucifixion

(Psalm 22:1-31; Matthew 27:32-44; Luke 23:26-43; John 19:16-27)

21 Now Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus, was passing by on his way in from the country, and the soldiers forced him to carry the cross of Jesus.

22 They brought Jesus to a place called Golgotha, which means The Place of the Skull. 23 There they offered Him wine mixed with myrrh, but He did not take it.

24 And they crucified Him.

They also divided His garments by casting lots to decide what each of them would take.‡

25 It was the third hour § when they crucified Him. 26 And the charge inscribed against Him read:

THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 Along with Jesus, they crucified two robbers,* one on His right and one on His left.†

29 And those who passed by heaped abuse on Him, shaking their heads and saying, "Aha! You who are going to destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, 30 come down from the cross and save Yourself!"

31 In the same way, the chief priests and scribes mocked Him among themselves, saying, "He saved others, but He cannot save Himself! 32 Let the Christ, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross, so that we may see and believe!" And even those who were crucified with Him berated Him.

(Psalm 22:1-31; Matthew 27:45-56; Luke 23:44-49; John 19:28-30)

33 From the sixth hour until the ninth hour ‡ darkness came over all the land. 34 At the ninth hour, Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?" which means, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"§

35 When some of those standing nearby heard this, they said, "Behold, He is calling Elijah."

‡ 15:24 See Psalm 22:18. § 15:25 That is, nine in the morning * 15:27 Or insurrectionists † 15:27 BYZ and TR include 28 So the Scripture was fulfilled that says, "And He was numbered with the transgressors." See Isaiah 53:12 and Luke 22:37. ‡ 15:33 That is, from noon until three in the afternoon § 15:34 Psalm 22:1

<sup>36</sup> And someone ran and filled a sponge with sour wine.* He put it on a reed and held it up for Jesus to drink,† saying, "Leave Him alone. Let us see if Elijah comes to take Him down."

<sup>39</sup> When the centurion standing there in front of Jesus saw how He had breathed His last,‡ he said, "Truly this man was the Son of God!"

<sup>40</sup> And there were also women watching from a distance. Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joseph,§ and Salome. <sup>41</sup> These women had followed Jesus and ministered to Him while He was in Galilee, and there were many other women who had come up to Jerusalem with Him.

The Burial of Jesus

(Isaiah 53:9-12; Matthew 27:57-61; Luke 23:50-56; John 19:38-42)

<sup>42</sup> Now it was already evening. Since it was Preparation Day (that is, the day before the Sabbath), <sup>43</sup> Joseph of Arimathea, a prominent Council member who himself was waiting for the kingdom of God, boldly went to Pilate to ask for the body of Jesus.

<sup>44</sup> Pilate was surprised to hear that Jesus was already dead, so he summoned the centurion to ask if this was so. <sup>45</sup> When Pilate had confirmed it with the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph.

<sup>46</sup> So Joseph bought a linen cloth, took down the body of Jesus, wrapped it in the cloth, and placed it in a tomb that had been cut out of the rock. Then he rolled a stone against the entrance to the tomb. <sup>47</sup> Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joseph * saw where His body was placed.

16

<sup>1</sup> When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices so they could go and anoint the body of Jesus. <sup>2</sup> Very early on the first day of the week,* just after sunrise, they went to the tomb. <sup>3</sup> They were asking one another, "Who will roll away the stone from the entrance of the tomb?" <sup>4</sup> But when they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away, even though it was extremely large.

<sup>5</sup> When they entered the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe sitting on the right side, and they were alarmed. <sup>6</sup> But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. He has risen! He is not here! See the place where they put Him. <sup>7</sup> But go, tell His disciples and Peter, 'He is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see Him, just as He told you.' "

<sup>8</sup> So the women left the tomb and ran away, trembling and bewildered. And in their fear they did not say a word to anyone.†

Jesus Appears to Mary Magdalene

(Luke 24:13-35)

<sup>12</sup> After this, Jesus appeared in a different form to two of them as they walked along in the country.

<sup>13</sup> And they went back and reported it to the rest, but they did not believe them either.

The Great Commission
(Matthew 28:16-20)

<sup>14</sup> Later, as they were eating, Jesus appeared to the Eleven and rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen Him after He had risen.

<sup>15</sup> And He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. <sup>16</sup> Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. <sup>17</sup> And these signs will accompany those who believe: In My name they will drive out demons; they will speak in new tongues; § <sup>18</sup> they will pick up snakes with their hands, and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not harm them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will be made well."

The Ascension
(Luke 24:50-53; Acts 1:6-11)

<sup>19</sup> After the Lord Jesus had spoken to them, He was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God.

<sup>20</sup> And they went out and preached everywhere, and the Lord worked through them, confirming His word by the signs that accompanied it.

Dedication to Theophilus (Acts 1:1–3)

<sup>1</sup> Many have undertaken to compose an account of the things that have been fulfilled among us, <sup>2</sup> just as they were handed down to us by the initial eyewitnesses and servants of the word. <sup>3</sup> Therefore, having carefully investigated everything from the beginning, it seemed good also to me to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus, <sup>4</sup> so that you may know the certainty of the things you have been taught.

Gabriel Foretells John's Birth

<sup>5</sup> In the time of Herod king of Judea there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the priestly division of Abijah, and whose wife Elizabeth was a daughter of Aaron. <sup>6</sup> Both of them were righteous in the sight of God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and decrees of the Lord. <sup>7</sup> But they had no children, because Elizabeth was barren, and they were both well along in years.

<sup>8</sup> One day while Zechariah's division was on duty and he was serving as priest before God, <sup>9</sup> he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to enter the temple of the Lord and burn incense. <sup>10</sup> And at the hour of the incense offering, the whole congregation was praying outside.

<sup>13</sup> But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, because your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you are to give him the name John. <sup>14</sup> He will be a joy and delight to you, and many will rejoice at his birth, <sup>15</sup> for he will be great in the sight of the Lord. He shall never take wine or strong drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit even from his mother's womb. <sup>16</sup> Many of the sons of Israel he will turn back to the Lord their God. <sup>17</sup> And he will go on before the Lord in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to their children * and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous—to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

<sup>18</sup> "How can I be sure of this?" Zechariah asked the angel. "I am an old man, and my wife is well along in years."

<sup>19</sup> "I am Gabriel," replied the angel. "I stand in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news. <sup>20</sup> And now you will be silent and unable to speak until the day this comes to pass, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled at their proper time."

<sup>21</sup> Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Zechariah and wondering why he took so long in the temple. <sup>22</sup> When he came out and was unable to speak to them, they realized he had seen a vision in the temple. He kept making signs to them but remained speechless. <sup>23</sup> And when the days of his service were complete, he returned home.

<sup>24</sup> After these days, his wife Elizabeth became pregnant and for five months remained in seclusion. She declared, <sup>25</sup> "The Lord has done this for me. In these days He has shown me favor and taken away my disgrace among the people."

Gabriel Foretells Jesus' Birth

<sup>26</sup> In the sixth month, God sent the angel Gabriel to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, <sup>27</sup> to a virgin pledged in marriage to a man named Joseph, who was of the house of David.

* 1:17 Malachi 4:5-6

And the virgin's name was Mary. <sup>28</sup> The angel appeared to her and said, "Greetings,† you who are highly favored! The Lord is with you.‡"

<sup>29</sup> Mary was greatly troubled at his words and wondered what kind of greeting this might be. <sup>30</sup> So the angel told her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. <sup>31</sup> Behold, you will conceive and give birth to a son, and you are to give Him the name Jesus. <sup>32</sup> He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David, <sup>33</sup> and He will reign over the house of Jacob forever. His kingdom will never end!"

<sup>35</sup> The angel replied, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. So the Holy One to be born § will be called the Son of God. <sup>36</sup> Look, even Elizabeth your relative has conceived a son in her old age, and she who was called barren is in her sixth month. <sup>37</sup> For no word from God will ever fail.*"

<sup>38</sup> "I am the Lord's servant," Mary answered. "May it happen to me according to your word." Then the angel left her.

Mary Visits Elizabeth

<sup>41</sup> When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. <sup>42</sup> In a loud voice she exclaimed, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! <sup>43</sup> And why am I so honored, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? <sup>44</sup> For as soon as the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy. <sup>45</sup> Blessed is she who has believed that the Lord's word to her will be fulfilled."

Mary's Song (1 Samuel 2:1-11)

<sup>46</sup> Then Mary said:

"My soul magnifies the Lord,
<sup>47</sup> and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior!
<sup>48</sup> For He has looked with favor on the humble state of His servant.
 From now on all generations will call me blessed.
<sup>49</sup> For the Mighty One has done great things for me.
 Holy is His name.
<sup>50</sup> His mercy extends to those who fear Him,
 from generation to generation.
<sup>51</sup> He has performed mighty deeds with His arm;
 He has scattered those who are proud in the thoughts of their hearts.
<sup>52</sup> He has brought down rulers from their thrones, but has exalted the humble.
<sup>53</sup> He has filled the hungry with good things, but has sent the rich away empty.
<sup>54</sup> He has helped His servant Israel, remembering to be merciful,
<sup>55</sup> as He promised to our fathers, to Abraham and his descendants forever."

<sup>56</sup> Mary stayed with Elizabeth for about three months and then returned home.

<sup>59</sup> On the eighth day, when they came to circumcise the child, they were going to name him after his father Zechariah. <sup>60</sup> But his mother replied, "No! He shall be called John."

<sup>61</sup> They said to her, "There is no one among your relatives who bears this name." <sup>62</sup> So they made signs to his father to find out what he wanted to name the child.

<sup>63</sup> Zechariah asked for a tablet and wrote, "His name is John." And they were all amazed.

<sup>64</sup> Immediately Zechariah's mouth was opened and his tongue was released, and he began to speak, praising God.

<sup>65</sup> All their neighbors were filled with awe, and people throughout the hill country of Judea were talking about these events. <sup>66</sup> And all who heard this wondered in their hearts and asked, "What then will this child become?" For the Lord's hand was with him.

Zechariah's Song

<sup>67</sup> Then his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied:

<sup>68</sup> "Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, because He has visited and redeemed His people.

<sup>69</sup> He has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of His servant David,

<sup>70</sup> as He spoke through His holy prophets,
those of ages past,

<sup>71</sup> salvation from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us,

<sup>72</sup> to show mercy to our fathers and to remember His holy covenant,

<sup>73</sup> the oath He swore to our father Abraham, to grant us <sup>74</sup> deliverance from hostile hands,
that we may serve Him without fear,

<sup>75</sup> in holiness and righteousness before Him
all the days of our lives.

<sup>76</sup> And you, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High;

for you will go on before the Lord to prepare the way for Him,

<sup>77</sup> to give to His people the knowledge of salvation through the forgiveness of their sins,

<sup>78</sup> because of the tender mercy of our God, by which the Dawn † will visit us from on high, <sup>79</sup> to shine on those who live in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet

into the path of peace."

<sup>80</sup> And the child grew and became strong in spirit;‡ and he lived in the wilderness until the time of his public appearance to Israel.

The Birth of Jesus (Matthew 1:18-25)

<sup>4</sup> So Joseph also went up from Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, since he was from the house and line of David. <sup>5</sup> He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to him in marriage and was expecting a child.

<sup>6</sup> While they were there, the time came for her Child to be born. <sup>7</sup> And she gave birth to her firstborn, a Son. She wrapped Him in swaddling cloths and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

The Shepherds and the Angels

<sup>8</sup> And there were shepherds residing in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks by night. <sup>9</sup> Just then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. <sup>10</sup> But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid! For behold, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people: <sup>11</sup> Today in the city of David a Savior has been born to you. He is Christ the Lord! <sup>12</sup> And this will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger."

<sup>13</sup> And suddenly there appeared with the angel a great multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying:

<sup>14</sup> "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men
on whom His favor rests!"

<sup>15</sup> When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us."

<sup>16</sup> So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph and the Baby, who was lying in the manger. <sup>17</sup> After they had seen the Child, they spread the message they had received about Him. <sup>18</sup> And all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. <sup>19</sup> But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart.

<sup>20</sup> The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, which was just as the angel had told them.

Jesus Presented at the Temple

<sup>21</sup> When the eight days until His circumcision had passed, He was named Jesus, the name the angel had given Him before He had been conceived.

<sup>22</sup> And when the time of purification according to the Law of Moses was complete, His parents brought Him to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord <sup>23</sup> (as it is written in the Law of the Lord: "Every firstborn male shall be consecrated to the Lord"‡), <sup>24</sup> and to offer the sacrifice specified in the Law of the Lord: "A pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."§

The Prophecy of Simeon

<sup>25</sup> Now there was a man in Jerusalem named Simeon, who was righteous and devout. He was waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. <sup>26</sup> The Holy Spirit had revealed to him that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ. <sup>27</sup> Led by the Spirit, he went into the temple courts.* And when the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for Him what was customary under the Law, <sup>28</sup> Simeon took Him in his arms and blessed God, saying:

* 2:1 Or of the whole land or of the whole world † 2:2 Or This was the census before ‡ 2:23 Exodus 13:2

§ 2:24 Leviticus 12:8 * 2:27 Literally the temple; also in verse 46

<sup>29</sup> “Sovereign Lord, as You have promised,
You now dismiss Your servant in peace.

<sup>30</sup> For my eyes have seen Your salvation,
<sup>31</sup> which You have prepared in the sight of all people,

<sup>32</sup> a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and for glory to Your people Israel.”

<sup>33</sup> The Child’s father and mother were amazed at what was spoken about Him. <sup>34</sup> Then Simeon blessed them and said to His mother Mary:

“Behold, this Child is appointed to cause the rise and fall of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be spoken against, <sup>35</sup> so that the thoughts of many hearts will be revealed—and a sword will pierce your soul as well.”

The Prophecy of Anna

<sup>36</sup> There was also a prophetess named Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher, who was well along in years. She had been married for seven years, <sup>37</sup> and then was a widow to the age of eighty-four.† She never left the temple, but worshiped night and day, fasting and praying.

<sup>38</sup> Coming forward at that moment, she gave thanks to God and spoke about the Child to all who were waiting for the redemption of Jerusalem.

The Return to Nazareth
(Matthew 2:19–23)

<sup>39</sup> When Jesus’ parents had done everything required by the Law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth.

<sup>40</sup> And the Child grew and became strong.‡ He was filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon Him.

The Boy Jesus at the Temple

<sup>41</sup> Every year His parents went to Jerusalem for the Feast of the Passover. <sup>42</sup> And when He was twelve years old, they went up according to the custom of the Feast.

<sup>43</sup> When those days were over and they were returning home, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, but His parents were unaware He had stayed. <sup>44</sup> Assuming He was in their company, they traveled on for a day before they began to look for Him among their relatives and friends.

<sup>45</sup> When they could not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem to search for Him. <sup>46</sup> Finally, after three days they found Him in the temple courts, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. <sup>47</sup> And all who heard Him were astounded at His understanding and His answers.

<sup>48</sup> When His parents saw Him, they were astonished. “Child, why have You done this to us?” His mother asked. “Your father and I have been anxiously searching for You.”

<sup>49</sup> “Why were you looking for Me?” He asked. “Did you not know that I had to be in My Father’s house §?” <sup>50</sup> But they did not understand the statement He was making to them.

<sup>51</sup> Then He went down to Nazareth with them and was obedient to them. But His mother treasured up all these things in her heart.

<sup>52</sup> And Jesus grew in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man.

(Isaiah 40:1-5; Matthew 3:1-12; Mark 1:1-8; John 1:19-28)

<sup>3</sup> He went into all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, <sup>4</sup> as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet:

“A voice of one calling in the wilderness,
 ‘Prepare the way for the Lord,
 make straight paths for Him.

<sup>5</sup> Every valley shall be filled in,
 and every mountain and hill made low.
 The crooked ways shall be made straight,
 and the rough ways smooth.

<sup>7</sup> Then John said to the crowds coming out to be baptized by him, “You brood of vipers, who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? <sup>8</sup> Produce fruit, then, in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’ For I tell you that out of these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. <sup>9</sup> The axe lies ready at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.”

<sup>12</sup> Even tax collectors came to be baptized. “Teacher,” they asked, “what should we do?”

<sup>13</sup> “Collect no more than you are authorized,” he answered.

<sup>15</sup> The people were waiting expectantly and were all wondering in their hearts if John could be the Christ. <sup>16</sup> John answered all of them: “I baptize you with water;† but One more powerful than I will come, the straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie.‡ He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.§ <sup>17</sup> His winnowing fork is in His hand to clear His threshing floor and to gather the wheat into His barn; but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.”

<sup>18</sup> With these and many other exhortations, John proclaimed the good news to the people. <sup>19</sup> But when he rebuked Herod the tetrarch regarding his brother’s wife Herodias and all the evils he had done, <sup>20</sup> Herod added this to them all: He locked John up in prison.

(Matthew 3:13-17; Mark 1:9-11; John 1:29-34)

<sup>21</sup> When all the people were being baptized, Jesus was baptized too. And as He was praying, heaven was opened, <sup>22</sup> and the Holy Spirit descended on Him in a bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven: “You are My beloved Son; in You I am well pleased.”

The Temptation of Jesus
(Matthew 4:1-11; Mark 1:12-13)

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,* <sup>2</sup> where for forty days He was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing during those days, and when they had ended, He was hungry.

<sup>3</sup> The devil said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, tell this stone to become bread."

<sup>4</sup> But Jesus answered, "It is written: 'Man shall not live on bread alone.'†"

<sup>5</sup> Then the devil led Him up to a high place and showed Him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. <sup>6</sup> "I will give You authority over all these kingdoms and all their glory," he said. "For it has been relinquished to me, and I can give it to anyone I wish. <sup>7</sup> So if You worship me, it will all be Yours."

<sup>8</sup> But Jesus answered, "It is written: 'Worship the Lord your God and serve Him only.'‡"

‘He will command His angels concerning You
to guard You carefully;
<sup>11</sup> and they will lift You up in their hands, so that You will not strike Your foot against a stone.’§”

<sup>12</sup> But Jesus answered, “It also says, ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’*”

<sup>13</sup> When the devil had finished every temptation, he left Him until an opportune time.

Jesus Begins His Ministry
(Isaiah 9:1–7; Matthew 4:12–17; Mark 1:14–15)

<sup>14</sup> Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and the news about Him spread throughout the surrounding region. <sup>15</sup> He taught in their synagogues and was glorified by everyone.

The Rejection at Nazareth
(Isaiah 61:1–11; Matthew 13:53–58; Mark 6:1–6)

<sup>16</sup> Then Jesus came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up. As was His custom, He entered the synagogue on the Sabbath. And when He stood up to read, <sup>17</sup> the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to Him. Unrolling it, He found the place where it was written:

<sup>18</sup> “The Spirit of the Lord is on Me, because He has anointed Me
to preach good news to the poor.
He has sent Me to proclaim liberty to the captives † and recovery of sight to the blind,
to release the oppressed,

<sup>20</sup> Then He rolled up the scroll, returned it to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fixed on Him, <sup>21</sup> and He began by saying, “Today this Scripture is fulfilled in your hearing.”

<sup>22</sup> All spoke well of Him and marveled at the gracious words that came from His lips. “Isn’t this the son of Joseph?” they asked.

<sup>23</sup> Jesus said to them, “Surely you will quote this proverb to Me: ‘Physician, heal yourself! Do here in Your hometown what we have heard that You did in Capernaum.’”

<sup>24</sup> Then He added, “Truly I tell you, no prophet is accepted in his hometown. <sup>25</sup> But I tell you truthfully that there were many widows in Israel in the time of Elijah, when the sky was shut for three and a half years and great famine swept over all the land. <sup>26</sup> Yet Elijah was not sent to any of them, but to the widow of Zarephath in Sidon. <sup>27</sup> And there were many lepers § in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet. Yet not one of them was cleansed—only Naaman the Syrian.”

<sup>28</sup> On hearing this, all the people in the synagogue were enraged. <sup>29</sup> They got up, drove Him out of the town, and led Him to the brow of the hill on which the town was built, in order to throw Him over the cliff. <sup>30</sup> But Jesus passed through the crowd and went on His way.

<sup>31</sup> Then He went down to Capernaum, a town in Galilee, and on the Sabbath He began to teach the people. <sup>32</sup> They were astonished at His teaching, because His message had authority.

<sup>33</sup> In the synagogue there was a man possessed by the spirit of an unclean demon. He cried out in a loud voice, <sup>34</sup> "Ha! What do You want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!"

<sup>35</sup> But Jesus rebuked the demon. "Be silent!" He said. "Come out of him!" At this, the demon threw the man down before them all and came out without harming him.

<sup>36</sup> All the people were overcome with amazement and asked one another, "What is this message? With authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out!" <sup>37</sup> And the news about Jesus spread throughout the surrounding region.

Jesus Heals at Peter's House
(Matthew 8:14-17; Mark 1:29-34)

<sup>38</sup> After Jesus had left the synagogue, He went to the home of Simon, whose mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever. So they appealed to Jesus on her behalf, <sup>39</sup> and He stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. And she got up at once and began to serve them.

<sup>40</sup> At sunset, all who were ill with various diseases were brought to Jesus, and laying His hands on each one, He healed them. <sup>41</sup> Demons also came out of many people, shouting, "You are the Son of God!" But He rebuked the demons and would not allow them to speak, because they knew He was the Christ.

Jesus Preaches in Judea
(Mark 1:35-39)

<sup>42</sup> At daybreak, Jesus went out to a solitary place, and the crowds were looking for Him. They came to Him and tried to keep Him from leaving. <sup>43</sup> But Jesus told them, "I must preach the good news of the kingdom of God to the other towns as well, because that is why I was sent."

(Matthew 4:18-22; Mark 1:16-20; John 1:35-42)

<sup>4</sup> When Jesus had finished speaking, He said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and let down your nets for a catch."

<sup>5</sup> "Master," Simon replied, "we have worked hard all night without catching anything. But because You say so, I will let down the nets." <sup>6</sup> When they had done so, they caught such a large number of fish that their nets began to tear. <sup>7</sup> So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them, and they came and filled both boats so full that they began to sink.

<sup>8</sup> When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus' knees. "Go away from me, Lord," he said, "for I am a sinful man." <sup>9</sup> For he and his companions were astonished at the catch of fish they had taken, <sup>10</sup> and so were his partners James and John, the sons of Zebedee.

The Leper’s Prayer

(Leviticus 14:1–32; Matthew 8:1–4; Mark 1:40–45)

<sup>12</sup> While Jesus was in one of the towns, a man came along who was covered with leprosy.† When he saw Jesus, he fell facedown and begged Him, “Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean.”

<sup>14</sup> “Do not tell anyone,” Jesus instructed him. “But go, show yourself to the priest and present the offering Moses prescribed for your cleansing, as a testimony to them.”‡

<sup>15</sup> But the news about Jesus spread all the more, and great crowds came to hear Him and to be healed of their sicknesses. <sup>16</sup> Yet He frequently withdrew to the wilderness to pray.

Jesus Heals a Paralytic

(Matthew 9:1–8; Mark 2:1–12)

<sup>17</sup> One day Jesus was teaching, and the Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting there. People had come from Jerusalem and from every village of Galilee and Judea, and the power of the Lord was present for Him to heal the sick.

<sup>18</sup> Just then some men came carrying a paralyzed man on a mat. They tried to bring him inside to set him before Jesus,<sup>19</sup> but they could not find a way through the crowd. So they went up on the roof and lowered him on his mat through the tiles into the middle of the crowd, right in front of Jesus.

<sup>21</sup> But the scribes and Pharisees began thinking to themselves, “Who is this man who speaks blasphemy? Who can forgive sins but God alone?”

<sup>22</sup> Knowing what they were thinking, Jesus replied, “Why are you thinking these things in your hearts? <sup>23</sup> Which is easier: to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk?’ <sup>24</sup> But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on the earth to forgive sins...” He said to the paralytic, “I tell you, get up, pick up your mat, and go home.”

<sup>25</sup> And immediately the man stood up before them, took what he had been lying on, and went home glorifying God. <sup>26</sup> Everyone was taken with amazement and glorified God. They were filled with awe and said, “We have seen remarkable things today.”

Jesus Calls Levi

(Matthew 9:9–13; Mark 2:13–17)

<sup>29</sup> Then Levi hosted a great banquet for Jesus at his house. A large crowd of tax collectors was there, along with others who were eating with them. <sup>30</sup> But the Pharisees and their scribes complained to Jesus’ disciples, “Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?”

<sup>31</sup> Jesus answered, “It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. <sup>32</sup> I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance.”

Questions about Fasting

(Matthew 9:14–15; Mark 2:18–20)

† 5:12 Leprosy was a term used for various skin diseases. See Leviticus 13. ‡ 5:14 See Leviticus 14:1–32.

<sup>33</sup> Then they said to Him, “John’s disciples and those of the Pharisees frequently fast and pray, but Yours keep on eating and drinking.”

<sup>35</sup> But the time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them; then they will fast.”

The Patches and the Wineskins
(Matthew 9:16–17; Mark 2:21–22)

<sup>36</sup> He also told them a parable: “No one tears a piece of cloth from a new garment and sews it on an old one. If he does, he will tear the new garment as well, and the patch from the new will not match the old.

<sup>37</sup> And no one pours new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the new wine will burst the skins, the wine will spill, and the wineskins will be ruined. <sup>38</sup> Instead, new wine is poured into new wineskins. <sup>39</sup> And no one after drinking old wine wants new, for he says, ‘The old is better.’”

The Lord of the Sabbath
(1 Samuel 21:1–7; Matthew 12:1–8; Mark 2:23–28)

<sup>3</sup> Jesus replied, “Have you not read what David did when he and his companions were hungry? <sup>4</sup> He entered the house of God, took the consecrated bread † and gave it to his companions, and ate what is lawful only for the priests to eat.”

<sup>5</sup> Then Jesus declared, “The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.”

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath
(Matthew 12:9–14; Mark 3:1–6)

<sup>6</sup> On another Sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and was teaching, and a man was there whose right hand was withered. <sup>7</sup> Looking for a reason to accuse Jesus, the scribes and Pharisees were watching Him closely to see if He would heal on the Sabbath.

<sup>8</sup> But Jesus knew their thoughts and said to the man with the withered hand, “Get up and stand among us.” So he got up and stood there.

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “I ask you, which is lawful on the Sabbath: to do good or to do evil, to save life or to destroy it?” <sup>10</sup> And after looking around at all of them, He said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He did so, and it was restored.

<sup>11</sup> But the scribes and Pharisees were filled with rage and began to discuss with one another what they might do to Jesus.

The Twelve Apostles
(Matthew 10:1–4; Mark 3:13–19)

<sup>12</sup> In those days Jesus went out to the mountain to pray, and He spent the night in prayer to God. <sup>13</sup> When daylight came, He called His disciples to Him and chose twelve of them, whom He also designated as apostles: <sup>14</sup> Simon, whom He named Peter, and his brother Andrew; James and John; Philip and Bartholomew; <sup>15</sup> Matthew and Thomas; James son of Alphaeus and Simon called the Zealot; <sup>16</sup> Judas son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

Jesus Heals the Multitudes
(Matthew 4:23–25; Mark 3:7–12)

* 6:1 BYZ and TR On the second Sabbath after the first † 6:4 Or the Bread of the Presence

<sup>17</sup> Then Jesus came down with them and stood on a level place. A large crowd of His disciples was there, along with a great number of people from all over Judea, Jerusalem, and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon. <sup>18</sup> They had come to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases, and those troubled by unclean spirits were healed. <sup>19</sup> The entire crowd was trying to touch Him, because power was coming from Him and healing them all.

The Beatitudes
(Psalm 1:1-6; Matthew 5:3-12)

<sup>20</sup> Looking up at His disciples, Jesus said:

“Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

<sup>21</sup> Blessed are you who hunger now,
for you will be filled.

Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

<sup>22</sup> Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you and insult you and reject your name as evil because of the Son of Man. <sup>23</sup> Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, because great is your reward in heaven. For their fathers treated the prophets in the same way.

Woes to the Satisfied
(Amos 6:1-7)

<sup>24</sup> But woe to you who are rich, for you have already received your comfort.

<sup>25</sup> Woe to you who are well fed now,
for you will hunger.

Woe to you who laugh now,
for you will mourn and weep.

<sup>26</sup> Woe to you when all men speak well of you, for their fathers treated the false prophets in the same way.

Love Your Enemies
(Matthew 5:38-48)

<sup>27</sup> But to those of you who will listen, I say: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, <sup>28</sup> bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. <sup>29</sup> If someone strikes you on one cheek, turn to him the other also. And if someone takes your cloak, do not withhold your tunic as well. <sup>30</sup> Give to everyone who asks you, and if anyone takes what is yours, do not demand it back. <sup>31</sup> Do to others as you would have them do to you.

<sup>32</sup> If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. <sup>33</sup> If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do the same. <sup>34</sup> And if you lend to those from whom you expect repayment, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, expecting to be repaid in full.

<sup>35</sup> But love your enemies, do good to them, and lend to them, expecting nothing in return. Then your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High; for He is kind to the ungrateful and wicked. <sup>36</sup> Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

(Matthew 7:1-6; Romans 14:1-12)

<sup>37</sup> Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven. <sup>38</sup> Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you.”

<sup>39</sup> Jesus also told them a parable: “Can a blind man lead a blind man? Will they not both fall into a pit? <sup>40</sup> A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like his teacher.

<sup>41</sup> Why do you look at the speck in your brother’s eye, but fail to notice the beam in your own eye? <sup>42</sup> How can you say, ‘Brother,‡ let me take the speck out of your eye,’ while you yourself fail to see the beam in your own eye? You hypocrite! First take the beam out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother’s eye.

A Tree and Its Fruit

(Matthew 7:15–23; Matthew 12:33–37)

<sup>43</sup> No good tree bears bad fruit, nor does a bad tree bear good fruit. <sup>44</sup> For each tree is known by its own fruit. Indeed, figs are not gathered from thornbushes, nor grapes from brambles. <sup>45</sup> The good man brings good things out of the good treasure of his heart, and the evil man brings evil things out of the evil treasure of his heart. For out of the overflow of the heart, the mouth speaks.

(Matthew 7:24–27)

<sup>46</sup> Why do you call Me ‘Lord, Lord,’ but not do what I say? <sup>47</sup> I will show you what he is like who comes to Me and hears My words and acts on them: <sup>48</sup> He is like a man building a house, who dug down deep and laid his foundation on the rock. When the flood came, the torrent crashed against that house but could not shake it, because it was well built.§

<sup>49</sup> But the one who hears My words and does not act on them is like a man who built his house on ground without a foundation. The torrent crashed against that house, and immediately it fell—and great was its destruction!”

7

The Faith of the Centurion

(Matthew 8:5–13; John 4:43–54)

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus had concluded His discourse in the hearing of the people, He went to Capernaum. <sup>2</sup> There a highly valued servant of a centurion was sick and about to die. <sup>3</sup> When the centurion heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders to ask Him to come and heal his servant. <sup>4</sup> They came to Jesus and pleaded with Him earnestly, “This man is worthy to have You grant this, <sup>5</sup> for he loves our nation and has built our synagogue.”

<sup>6</sup> So Jesus went with them. But when He was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends with the message: “Lord, do not trouble Yourself, for I am not worthy to have You come under my roof. <sup>7</sup> That is why I did not consider myself worthy to come to You. But just say the word, and my servant will be healed. <sup>8</sup> For I myself am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I tell one to go, and he goes; and another to come, and he comes. I tell my servant to do something, and he does it.”

<sup>9</sup> When Jesus heard this, He marveled at the centurion. Turning to the crowd following Him, He said, “I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such great faith.” <sup>10</sup> And when the messengers returned to the house, they found the servant in good health.

Jesus Raises a Widow’s Son

<sup>11</sup> Soon afterward, Jesus went to a town called Nain. His disciples went with Him, accompanied by a large crowd. <sup>12</sup> As He approached the town gate, He saw a dead man being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the town was with her.

<sup>13</sup> When the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her and said, "Do not weep." <sup>14</sup> Then He went up and touched the coffin,* and those carrying it stood still. "Young man," He said, "I tell you, get up!" <sup>15</sup> And the dead man sat up and began to speak! Then Jesus gave him back to his mother.

<sup>16</sup> A sense of awe swept over all of them, and they glorified God. "A great prophet has appeared among us!" they said. "God has visited His people!" <sup>17</sup> And the news about Jesus spread throughout Judea and all the surrounding region.

John's Inquiry
(Matthew 11:1-6)

<sup>18</sup> Then John's disciples informed him about all these things. <sup>19</sup> So John called two of his disciples and sent them to ask the Lord, "Are You the One who was to come, or should we look for someone else?"

<sup>20</sup> When the men came to Jesus, they said, "John the Baptist sent us to ask, 'Are You the One who was to come, or should we look for someone else?'"

<sup>21</sup> At that very hour Jesus healed many people of their diseases, afflictions, and evil spirits, and He gave sight to many who were blind. <sup>22</sup> So He replied, "Go back and report to John what you have seen and heard: The blind receive sight, the lame walk, the lepers † are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is preached to the poor. <sup>23</sup> Blessed is the one who does not fall away on account of Me.‡"

Jesus Testifies about John
(Malachi 3:1-5; Matthew 11:7-19)

<sup>24</sup> After John's messengers had left, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swaying in the wind? <sup>25</sup> Otherwise, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? Look, those who wear elegant clothing and live in luxury are found in palaces.

<sup>26</sup> What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. <sup>27</sup> This is the one about whom it is written:

'Behold, I will send My messenger ahead of You,
who will prepare Your way before You.'§

<sup>28</sup> I tell you, among those born of women there is no one greater than John, yet even the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

<sup>29</sup> All the people who heard this, even the tax collectors, acknowledged God's justice. For they had received the baptism of John. <sup>30</sup> But the Pharisees and experts in the law rejected God's purpose for themselves, because they had not been baptized by John.

<sup>31</sup> "To what, then, can I compare the men of this generation? What are they like? <sup>32</sup> They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling out to one another:

'We played the flute for you,
and you did not dance;
we sang a dirge,
and you did not weep.'

<sup>33</sup> For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon!' <sup>34</sup> The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and you say, 'Look at this glutton and drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' <sup>35</sup> But wisdom is vindicated by all her children."

A Sinful Woman Anoints Jesus
(Matthew 26:6-13; Mark 14:3-9; John 12:1-8)

* 7:14 Literally bier, probably a wooden plank or open coffin † 7:22 A leper was one afflicted with a skin disease. See Leviticus 13. ‡ 7:23 Or who is not offended by Me § 7:27 Malachi 3:1

<sup>36</sup> Then one of the Pharisees invited Jesus to eat with him, and He entered the Pharisee's house and reclined at the table. <sup>37</sup> When a sinful woman from that town learned that Jesus was dining there, she brought an alabaster jar of perfume. <sup>38</sup> As she stood behind Him at His feet weeping, she began to wet His feet with her tears and wipe them with her hair. Then she kissed His feet and anointed them with the perfume.

<sup>39</sup> When the Pharisee who had invited Jesus saw this, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, He would know who this is and what kind of woman is touching Him—for she is a sinner!"

<sup>40</sup> But Jesus answered him, "Simon, I have something to tell you."

"Tell me, Teacher," he said.

<sup>41</sup> "Two men were debtors to a certain moneylender. One owed him five hundred denarii,* and the other fifty. <sup>42</sup> When they were unable to repay him, he forgave both of them. Which one, then, will love him more?"

<sup>43</sup> "I suppose the one who was forgiven more," Simon replied.

"You have judged correctly," Jesus said.

<sup>44</sup> And turning toward the woman, He said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? When I entered your house, you did not give Me water for My feet, but she wet My feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. <sup>45</sup> You did not greet Me with a kiss, but she has not stopped kissing My feet since I arrived. <sup>46</sup> You did not anoint My head with oil, but she has anointed My feet with perfume. <sup>47</sup> Therefore I tell you, because her many sins have been forgiven, she has loved much. But he who has been forgiven little loves little."

<sup>50</sup> And Jesus told the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

Women Minister to Jesus

<sup>1</sup> Soon afterward, Jesus traveled from one town and village to another, preaching and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. The Twelve were with Him, <sup>2</sup> as well as some women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, <sup>3</sup> Joanna the wife of Herod's household manager Chuza, Susanna, and many others. These women were ministering to them* out of their own means.

The Parable of the Sower (Matthew 13:1-23; Mark 4:1-20)

<sup>4</sup> While a large crowd was gathering and people were coming to Jesus from town after town, He told them this parable: <sup>5</sup> "A farmer went out to sow his seed. And as he was sowing, some seed fell along the path, where it was trampled, and the birds of the air devoured it.

<sup>6</sup> Some fell on rocky ground, and when it came up, the seedlings withered because they had no moisture.

<sup>7</sup> Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up with it and choked the seedlings.

<sup>8</sup> Still other seed fell on good soil, where it sprang up and produced a crop—a hundredfold."

* 7:41 A denarius was customarily a day's wage for a laborer; see Matthew 20:2. * 8:3 TR to Him

As Jesus said this, He called out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

<sup>10</sup> He replied, "The knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of God has been given to you, but to others I speak in parables, so that,

'though seeing, they may not see;
though hearing, they may not understand.'†

<sup>11</sup> Now this is the meaning of the parable: The seed is the word of God. <sup>12</sup> The seeds ‡ along the path are those who hear, but the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved.

<sup>13</sup> The seeds on rocky ground are those who hear the word and receive it with joy, but they have no root. They believe for a season, but in the time of testing, they fall away.

<sup>14</sup> The seeds that fell among the thorns are those who hear, but as they go on their way, they are choked by the worries, riches, and pleasures of this life, and their fruit does not mature.

<sup>15</sup> But the seeds on good soil are those with a noble and good heart, who hear the word, cling to it, and by persevering produce a crop.

(Mark 4:21-25)

<sup>16</sup> No one lights a lamp and covers it with a jar or puts it under a bed. Instead, he sets it on a stand, so those who enter can see the light. <sup>17</sup> For there is nothing hidden that will not be disclosed, and nothing concealed that will not be made known and brought to light.

<sup>18</sup> Pay attention, therefore, to how you listen. Whoever has will be given more, but whoever does not have, even what he thinks he has will be taken away from him."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers
(Matthew 12:46-50; Mark 3:31-35)

<sup>19</sup> Then Jesus' mother and brothers came to see Him, but they were unable to reach Him because of the crowd. <sup>20</sup> He was told, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to see You."

<sup>21</sup> But He replied, "My mother and brothers are those who hear the word of God and carry it out."

Jesus Calms the Storm
(Psalm 107:1-43; Matthew 8:23-27; Mark 4:35-41)

<sup>22</sup> One day Jesus said to His disciples, "Let us cross to the other side of the lake." So He got into a boat with them and set out.

<sup>23</sup> As they sailed, He fell asleep, and a windstorm came down on the lake, so that the boat was being swamped, and they were in great danger. <sup>24</sup> The disciples went and woke Him, saying, "Master, Master, we are perishing!"

Then Jesus got up and rebuked the wind and the raging waters, and they subsided, and all was calm. <sup>25</sup> "Where is your faith?" He asked.

Frightened and amazed, they asked one another, "Who is this? He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey Him!"

The Demons and the Pigs
(Matthew 8:28-34; Mark 5:1-20)

† 8:10 Isaiah 6:9 (See also LXX)    ‡ 8:12 Literally the ones; also in verses 13, 14, and 15

26 Then they sailed to the region of the Gerasenes,§ across the lake from Galilee. 27 When Jesus stepped ashore, He was met by a demon-possessed man from the town. For a long time this man had not worn clothing or lived in a house, but he stayed in the tombs.

28 When the man saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before Him, shouting in a loud voice, "What do You want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg You not to torture me!" 29 For Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. Many times it had seized him, and though he was bound with chains and shackles, he had broken the chains and been driven by the demon into solitary places.

30 "What is your name?" Jesus asked.

"Legion," he replied, because many demons had gone into him. 31 And the demons kept begging Jesus not to order them to go into the Abyss.

32 There on the hillside a large herd of pigs was feeding. So the demons begged Jesus to let them enter the pigs, and He gave them permission.

33 Then the demons came out of the man and went into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

34 When those tending the pigs saw what had happened, they ran off and reported this in the town and countryside. 35 So the people went out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus and found the man whom the demons had left, sitting at Jesus' feet, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. 36 Meanwhile, those who had seen it reported how the demon-possessed man had been healed.

37 Then all the people of the region of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to depart from them, because great fear had taken hold of them. So He got into the boat and started back.

38 The man whom the demons had left begged to go with Jesus. But He sent him away, saying, 39 "Return home and describe how much God has done for you." So the man went away and proclaimed all over the town how much Jesus had done for him.

The Healing Touch of Jesus
(Matthew 9:18-26; Mark 5:21-43)

40 When Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed Him, for they had all been waiting for Him. 41 Just then a synagogue leader named Jairus came and fell at Jesus' feet. He begged Him to come to his house, 42 because his only daughter, who was about twelve, was dying.

As Jesus went with him, the crowds pressed around Him, 43 including a woman who had suffered from bleeding for twelve years. She had spent all her money on physicians,* but no one was able to heal her. 44 She came up behind Jesus and touched the fringe of His cloak, and immediately her bleeding stopped.

45 "Who touched Me?" Jesus asked.

But they all denied it. "Master," said Peter;† "the people are crowding and pressing against You."

46 But Jesus declared, "Someone touched Me, for I know that power has gone out from Me."

47 Then the woman, seeing that she could not escape notice, came trembling and fell down before Him. In the presence of all the people, she explained why she had touched Him and how she had immediately been healed.

48 "Daughter," said Jesus, "your faith has healed you. Go in peace."

§ 8:26 BYZ and TR Gadarenes; Tischendorf Gergesenes; also in verse 37 * 8:43 NE and WH do not include She had spent all her money on physicians. † 8:45 BYZ and TR include and those who were with him.

49 While He was still speaking, someone arrived from the house of the synagogue leader. “Your daughter is dead,” he told Jairus. “Do not bother the Teacher anymore.”

50 But Jesus overheard them and said to Jairus, “Do not be afraid; just believe, and she will be healed.”

51 When He entered the house, He did not allow anyone to go in with Him except Peter, John, James, and the child’s father and mother. 52 Meanwhile, everyone was weeping and mourning for her. But Jesus said, “Stop weeping; she is not dead but asleep.” 53 And they laughed at Him, knowing that she was dead.

54 But Jesus took her by the hand and called out, “Child, get up!” 55 Her spirit returned, and at once she got up. And He directed that she be given something to eat. 56 Her parents were astounded, but Jesus ordered them not to tell anyone what had happened.

The Ministry of the Twelve (Matthew 10:5-15; Mark 6:7-13)

1 Then Jesus called the Twelve * together and gave them power and authority over all demons, and power to cure diseases. 2 And He sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal the sick. 3 “Take nothing for the journey,” He told them, “no staff, no bag, no bread, no money,† no second tunic. 4 Whatever house you enter, stay there until you leave that area. 5 If anyone does not welcome you, shake the dust off your feet when you leave that town, as a testimony against them.”

6 So they set out and went from village to village, preaching the gospel and healing people everywhere.

Herod Tries to See Jesus (Matthew 14:1-12; Mark 6:14-29)

7 When Herod the tetrarch heard about all that was happening, he was perplexed. For some were saying that John had risen from the dead, 8 others that Elijah had appeared, and still others that a prophet of old had arisen.

9 “I beheaded John,” Herod said, “but who is this man I hear such things about?” And he kept trying to see Jesus.

The Feeding of the Five Thousand (Matthew 14:13-21; Mark 6:30-44; John 6:1-15)

10 Then the apostles returned and reported to Jesus all that they had done. Taking them away privately, He withdrew to a town called Bethsaida. 11 But the crowds found out and followed Him. He welcomed them and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and He healed those who needed healing.

12 As the day neared its end, the Twelve came to Jesus and said, “Dismiss the crowd so they can go to the surrounding villages and countryside for lodging and provisions. For we are in a desolate place here.”

13 But Jesus told them, “You give them something to eat.”

“We have only five loaves of bread and two fish,” they answered, “unless we go and buy food for all these people.” 14 (There were about five thousand men.)

He told His disciples, “Have them sit down in groups of about fifty each.” 15 They did so, and everyone was seated.

16 Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, Jesus spoke a blessing and broke them. Then He gave them to the disciples to set before the people.

* 9:1 TR the twelve disciples † 9:3 Or silver coins

<sup>17</sup> They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over.

Peter's Confession of Christ

(Matthew 16:13-20; Mark 8:27-30; John 6:67-71)

<sup>18</sup> One day as Jesus was praying in private and the disciples were with Him, He questioned them: "Who do the crowds say I am?"

<sup>19</sup> They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, that a prophet of old has arisen."

<sup>20</sup> "But what about you?" Jesus asked. "Who do you say I am?"

Peter answered, "The Christ of God."

Christ's Passion Foretold

(Matthew 16:21-23; Mark 8:31-33)

<sup>21</sup> Jesus strictly warned them not to tell this to anyone. <sup>22</sup> "The Son of Man must suffer many things," He said. "He must be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and He must be killed and on the third day be raised to life."

Take Up Your Cross

(Matthew 16:24-28; Mark 8:34-38)

<sup>23</sup> Then Jesus said to all of them, "If anyone wants to come after Me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow Me. <sup>24</sup> For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will save it.

<sup>25</sup> What does it profit a man to gain the whole world, yet lose or forfeit his very self?

<sup>26</sup> If anyone is ashamed of Me and My words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when He comes in His glory and in the glory of the Father and of the holy angels. <sup>27</sup> But I tell you truthfully, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God."

The Transfiguration

(Matthew 17:1-13; Mark 9:1-13; 2 Peter 1:16-21)

<sup>28</sup> About eight days after Jesus had said these things, He took with Him Peter, John, and James, and went up on a mountain to pray. <sup>29</sup> And as He was praying, the appearance of His face changed, and His clothes became radiantly white. <sup>30</sup> Suddenly two men, Moses and Elijah, began talking with Jesus. <sup>31</sup> They appeared in glory and spoke about His departure, which He was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

<sup>32</sup> Meanwhile Peter and his companions were overcome by sleep, but when they awoke, they saw Jesus' glory and the two men standing with Him. <sup>33</sup> As Moses and Elijah were leaving, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters ‡—one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." (He did not know what he was saying.)

<sup>34</sup> While Peter was speaking, a cloud appeared and enveloped them, and they were afraid as they entered the cloud. <sup>35</sup> And a voice came from the cloud, saying, "This is My Son, whom I have chosen. § Listen to Him!"

<sup>36</sup> After the voice had spoken, only Jesus was present with them. The disciples kept this to themselves, and in those days they did not tell anyone what they had seen.

The Boy with an Evil Spirit

(Matthew 17:14-18; Mark 9:14-29)

<sup>37</sup> The next day, when they came down from the mountain, Jesus was met by a large crowd. <sup>38</sup> Suddenly a man in the crowd cried out, "Teacher, I beg You to look at my son,

‡ 9:33 Or three tabernacles § 9:35 BYZ and TR This is My beloved Son; see Matthew 17:5.

for he is my only child. <sup>39</sup> A spirit keeps seizing him, and he screams abruptly. It throws him into convulsions so that he foams at the mouth. It keeps mauling him and rarely departs from him. <sup>40</sup> I begged Your disciples to drive it out, but they were unable.”

<sup>41</sup> “O unbelieving and perverse generation!” Jesus replied. “How long must I remain with you and put up with you? Bring your son here.”

<sup>42</sup> Even while the boy was approaching, the demon slammed him to the ground in a convulsion. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.

The Second Prediction of the Passion
(Matthew 17:22–23; Mark 9:30–32)

While everyone was marveling at all that Jesus was doing, He said to His disciples, <sup>44</sup> “Let these words sink into your ears: The Son of Man is about to be delivered into the hands of men.” <sup>45</sup> But they did not understand this statement. It was veiled from them so that they could not comprehend it, and they were afraid to ask Him about it.

The Greatest in the Kingdom
(Matthew 18:1–5; Mark 9:33–41)

<sup>46</sup> Then an argument started among the disciples as to which of them would be the greatest. <sup>47</sup> But Jesus, knowing the thoughts of their hearts, had a little child stand beside Him. <sup>48</sup> And He said to them, “Whoever welcomes this little child in My name welcomes Me, and whoever welcomes Me welcomes the One who sent Me. For whoever is the least among all of you, he is the greatest.”

<sup>49</sup> “Master,” said John, “we saw someone driving out demons in Your name, and we tried to stop him, because he does not accompany us.”

<sup>50</sup> “Do not stop him,” Jesus replied, “for whoever is not against you is for you.”

The Samaritans Reject Jesus

<sup>51</sup> As the day of His ascension approached, Jesus resolutely set out for Jerusalem. <sup>52</sup> He sent messengers on ahead, who went into a village of the Samaritans to make arrangements for Him. <sup>53</sup> But the people there refused to welcome Him, because He was heading for Jerusalem.

<sup>54</sup> When the disciples James and John saw this, they asked, “Lord, do You want us to call down fire from heaven * to consume them?”

<sup>55</sup> But Jesus turned and rebuked them.† <sup>56</sup> And He and His disciples went on to another village.

The Cost of Discipleship
(Matthew 8:18–22; Luke 14:25–33; John 6:59–66)

<sup>57</sup> As they were walking along the road, someone said to Jesus, “I will follow You wherever You go.”

<sup>58</sup> Jesus replied, “Foxes have dens and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay His head.”

<sup>59</sup> Then He said to another man, “Follow Me.”

The man replied, “Lord, first let me go and bury my father.”

* 9:54 BYZ and TR from heaven, just as Elijah did; see 2 Kings 1:10–12. † 9:55 BYZ and TR include and He said, “You do not know what kind of spirit you are of. <sup>56</sup> For the Son of Man did not come to destroy the lives of men, but to save them.”

<sup>61</sup> Still another said, "I will follow You, Lord; but first let me bid farewell to my family."

<sup>62</sup> Then Jesus declared, "No one who puts his hand to the plow and then looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

Jesus Sends the Seventy-Two (Matthew 9:35-38)

<sup>1</sup> After this, the Lord appointed seventy-two * others and sent them two by two ahead of Him to every town and place He was about to visit. <sup>2</sup> And He told them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into His harvest.

<sup>3</sup> Go! I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. <sup>4</sup> Carry no purse or bag or sandals. Do not greet anyone along the road.

<sup>5</sup> Whatever house you enter, begin by saying, 'Peace to this house.' <sup>6</sup> If a man of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; if not, it will return to you. <sup>7</sup> Stay at the same house, eating and drinking whatever you are offered. For the worker is worthy of his wages.† Do not move around from house to house.

<sup>10</sup> But if you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go into the streets and declare, <sup>11</sup> 'Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off as a testimony against you. Yet be sure of this: The kingdom of God is near.'<sup>12</sup> I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town.

Woe to the Unrepentant (Matthew 11:20-24)

<sup>13</sup> Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>14</sup> But it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you.

<sup>15</sup> And you, Capernaum, will you be lifted up to heaven? No, you will be brought down to Hades!

<sup>16</sup> Whoever listens to you listens to Me; whoever rejects you rejects Me; and whoever rejects Me rejects the One who sent Me."

The Joyful Return

<sup>17</sup> The seventy-two returned with joy and said, "Lord, even the demons submit to us in Your name."

<sup>18</sup> So He told them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. <sup>19</sup> Behold, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. Nothing will harm you. <sup>20</sup> Nevertheless, do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

Jesus' Prayer of Thanksgiving (Matthew 11:25-30)

* 10:1 NE, BYZ, and TR seventy; also in verse 17 † 10:7 See Leviticus 19:13 and Deuteronomy 24:14-15; cited in 1 Timothy 5:18.

<sup>21</sup> At that time Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and declared, "I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this was well-pleasing in Your sight.

<sup>22</sup> All things have been entrusted to Me by My Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and no one knows who the Father is except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him."

<sup>23</sup> Then Jesus turned to the disciples and said privately, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see. <sup>24</sup> For I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it."

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

<sup>25</sup> One day an expert in the law stood up to test Him. "Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

<sup>26</sup> "What is written in the Law?" Jesus replied. "How do you read it?"

<sup>27</sup> He answered, " 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind'‡ and 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'§"

<sup>28</sup> "You have answered correctly," Jesus said. "Do this and you will live."

<sup>29</sup> But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

<sup>30</sup> Jesus took up this question and said, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho when he fell into the hands of robbers. They stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead.

<sup>31</sup> Now by chance a priest was going down the same road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

<sup>32</sup> So too, when a Levite came to that spot and saw him, he passed by on the other side.

<sup>33</sup> But when a Samaritan on a journey came upon him, he looked at him and had compassion. <sup>34</sup> He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

<sup>35</sup> The next day he took out two denarii * and gave them to the innkeeper. 'Take care of him,' he said, 'and on my return I will repay you for any additional expense.'

<sup>36</sup> Which of these three do you think was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?"

Then Jesus told him, "Go and do likewise."

Martha and Mary

<sup>38</sup> As they traveled along, Jesus entered a village where a woman named Martha welcomed Him into her home. <sup>39</sup> She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet listening to His message. <sup>40</sup> But Martha was distracted by all the preparations to be made. She came to Jesus and said, "Lord, do You not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Tell her to help me!"

<sup>42</sup> But only one thing is necessary. Mary has chosen the good portion, and it will not be taken away from her."

The Lord's Prayer
(Matthew 6:5-15)

<sup>2</sup> So Jesus told them, "When you pray, say:

'Father,* hallowed be Your name.
Your kingdom come.†

<sup>4</sup> And forgive us our sins,
for we also forgive everyone who sins against us.
And lead us not into temptation.‡"

Ask, Seek, Knock
(Matthew 7:7-12)

<sup>5</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "Suppose one of you goes to his friend at midnight and says, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, <sup>6</sup> because a friend of mine has come to me on a journey, and I have nothing to set before him.'

<sup>7</sup> And suppose the one inside answers, 'Do not bother me. My door is already shut, and my children and I are in bed. I cannot get up to give you anything.'

<sup>8</sup> I tell you, even though he will not get up to provide for him because of his friendship, yet because of the man's persistence, he will get up and give him as much as he needs.

<sup>9</sup> So I tell you: Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you. <sup>10</sup> For everyone who asks receives; he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks, the door will be opened.

<sup>11</sup> What father among you, if his son asks for a fish,§ will give him a snake instead? <sup>12</sup> Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? <sup>13</sup> So if you who are evil know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!"

A House Divided
(Matthew 12:22-30; Mark 3:20-27)

<sup>14</sup> One day Jesus was driving out a demon that was mute. And when the demon was gone, the man who had been mute spoke. The crowds were amazed, <sup>15</sup> but some of them said, "It is by Beelzebul,* the prince of the demons, that He drives out demons." <sup>16</sup> And others tested Him by demanding a sign from heaven.

<sup>17</sup> Knowing their thoughts, Jesus said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself will be laid waste, and a house divided against a house will fall. <sup>18</sup> If Satan is divided against himself, how can his kingdom stand? After all, you say that I drive out demons by Beelzebul. <sup>19</sup> And if I drive out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons drive them out? So then, they will be your judges. <sup>20</sup> But if I drive out demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.

<sup>21</sup> When a strong man, fully armed, guards his house, his possessions are secure. <sup>22</sup> But when someone stronger attacks and overpowers him, he takes away the armor in which the man trusted, and then he divides up his plunder.

<sup>23</sup> He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters.

An Unclean Spirit Returns
(Matthew 12:43–45)

<sup>24</sup> When an unclean spirit comes out of a man, it passes through arid places seeking rest and does not find it. Then it says, 'I will return to the house I left.' <sup>25</sup> On its return, it finds the house swept clean and put in order. <sup>26</sup> Then it goes and brings seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and dwell there. And the final plight of that man is worse than the first."

True Blessedness

<sup>27</sup> As Jesus was saying these things, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said, "Blessed is the womb that bore You, and blessed are the breasts that nursed You!"

<sup>28</sup> But He replied, "Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and obey it."

The Sign of Jonah
(Jonah 3:1–10; Matthew 12:38–42)

<sup>29</sup> As the crowds were increasing, Jesus said, "This is a wicked generation. It demands a sign, but none will be given it except the sign of Jonah. <sup>30</sup> For as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so the Son of Man will be a sign to this generation.

(Matthew 6:22–24)

<sup>33</sup> No one lights a lamp and puts it in a cellar or under a basket. Instead, he sets it on a stand, so those who enter can see the light.

<sup>34</sup> Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eyes are good,† your whole body also is full of light. But when they are bad,‡ your body is full of darkness. <sup>35</sup> Be careful, then, that the light within you is not darkness. <sup>36</sup> So if your whole body is full of light, with no part of it in darkness, you will be radiant, as though a lamp were shining on you."

Woes to Pharisees and Experts in the Law
(Matthew 23:1–36)

<sup>37</sup> As Jesus was speaking, a Pharisee invited Him to dine with him; so He went in and reclined at the table. <sup>38</sup> But the Pharisee was surprised to see that Jesus did not first wash before the meal.

<sup>39</sup> "Now then," said the Lord, "you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness. <sup>40</sup> You fools! Did not the One who made the outside make the inside as well? <sup>41</sup> But give as alms the things that are within you, and you will see that everything is clean for you.

<sup>42</sup> Woe to you Pharisees! You pay tithes of mint, rue, and every herb, but you disregard justice and the love of God. You should have practiced the latter without neglecting the former.

<sup>46</sup> “Woe to you as well, experts in the law!” He replied. “You weigh men down with heavy burdens, but you yourselves will not lift a finger to lighten their load.

<sup>47</sup> Woe to you! You build tombs for the prophets, but it was your fathers who killed them. <sup>48</sup> So you are witnesses consenting to the deeds of your fathers: They killed the prophets, and you build their tombs. <sup>49</sup> Because of this, the wisdom of God said, ‘I will send them prophets and apostles; some of them they will kill and others they will persecute.’

<sup>50</sup> As a result, this generation will be charged with the blood of all the prophets that has been shed since the foundation of the world, <sup>51</sup> from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who was killed between the altar and the sanctuary.§ Yes, I tell you, all of it will be charged to this generation.

<sup>52</sup> Woe to you experts in the law! For you have taken away the key to knowledge. You yourselves have not entered, and you have hindered those who were entering.”

<sup>53</sup> As Jesus went on from there, the scribes and Pharisees began to oppose Him bitterly and to ply Him with questions about many things, <sup>54</sup> waiting to catch Him in something He might say.

12

The Leaven of the Pharisees (Matthew 16:5-12; Mark 8:14-21)

<sup>1</sup> In the meantime, a crowd of many thousands had gathered, so that they were trampling one another. Jesus began to speak first to His disciples: “Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. <sup>2</sup> There is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, and nothing hidden that will not be made known. <sup>3</sup> What you have spoken in the dark will be heard in the daylight, and what you have whispered in the inner rooms will be proclaimed from the housetops.

Fear God Alone (Matthew 10:26-31)

<sup>4</sup> I tell you, My friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body and after that can do no more. <sup>5</sup> But I will show you whom you should fear: Fear the One who, after you have been killed, has authority to throw you into hell.* Yes, I tell you, fear Him!

<sup>6</sup> Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies?† Yet not one of them is forgotten by God. <sup>7</sup> And even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.

Confessing Christ (Matthew 10:32-33)

<sup>8</sup> I tell you, everyone who confesses Me before men, the Son of Man will also confess him before the angels of God. <sup>9</sup> But whoever denies Me before men will be denied before the angels of God. <sup>10</sup> And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

<sup>11</sup> When you are brought before synagogues, rulers, and authorities, do not worry about how to defend yourselves or what to say. <sup>12</sup> For at that time the Holy Spirit will teach you what you should say.”

The Parable of the Rich Fool

<sup>13</sup> Someone in the crowd said to Him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.”

§ 11:51 Literally the house * 12:5 Greek Gehenna † 12:6 Greek two assaria; an assarion was a Roman copper coin worth about 1/16 of a denarius.

14 But Jesus replied, "Man, who appointed Me judge or executor between you?" 15 And He said to them, "Watch out! Guard yourselves against every form of greed, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions."

16 Then He told them a parable: "The ground of a certain rich man produced an abundance. 17 So he thought to himself, 'What shall I do, since I have nowhere to store my crops?' 18 Then he said, 'This is what I will do: I will tear down my barns and will build bigger ones, and there I will store up all my grain and my goods. 19 Then I will say to myself, 'You have plenty of good things laid up for many years. Take it easy. Eat, drink, and be merry!' "

20 But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life will be required of you. Then who will own what you have accumulated?'

21 This is how it will be for anyone who stores up treasure for himself but is not rich toward God."

Do Not Worry
(Matthew 6:25-34)

22 Then Jesus said to His disciples, "Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat, or about your body, what you will wear. 23 For life is more than food, and the body more than clothes. 24 Consider the ravens: They do not sow or reap, they have no storehouse or barn; yet God feeds them. How much more valuable you are than the birds!

25 Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life?† 26 So if you cannot do such a small thing, why do you worry about the rest?

27 Consider how the lilies grow: They do not labor or spin.§ Yet I tell you, not even Solomon in all his glory was adorned like one of these. 28 If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, how much more will He clothe you, O you of little faith!

29 And do not be concerned about what you will eat or drink. Do not worry about it.

30 For the Gentiles of the world strive after all these things, and your Father knows that you need them. 31 But seek His * kingdom, and these things will be added unto you.

Treasures in Heaven
(Matthew 6:19-21)

32 Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom. 33 Sell your possessions and give to the poor. Provide yourselves with purses that will not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven, where no thief approaches and no moth destroys. 34 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Readiness at Any Hour

35 Be dressed for service and keep your lamps burning. 36 Then you will be like servants waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that when he comes and knocks, they can open the door for him at once. 37 Blessed are those servants whom the master finds on watch when he returns. Truly I tell you, he will dress himself to serve and will have them recline at the table, and he himself will come and wait on them. 38 Even if he comes in the second or third watch of the night † and finds them alert, those servants will be blessed.

<sup>39</sup> But understand this: If the homeowner had known at what hour the thief was coming,‡ he would not have let his house be broken into. <sup>40</sup> You also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour you do not expect.”

<sup>42</sup> And the Lord answered, “Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom the master puts in charge of his servants to give them their portion at the proper time? <sup>43</sup> Blessed is that servant whose master finds him doing so when he returns. <sup>44</sup> Truly I tell you, he will put him in charge of all his possessions.

<sup>45</sup> But suppose that servant says in his heart, ‘My master will be a long time in coming,’ and he begins to beat the menservants and maidservants, and to eat and drink and get drunk. <sup>46</sup> The master of that servant will come on a day he does not expect and at an hour he does not anticipate. Then he will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the unbelievers.

<sup>47</sup> That servant who knows his master’s will but does not get ready or follow his instructions will be beaten with many blows. <sup>48</sup> But the one who unknowingly does things worthy of punishment will be beaten with few blows. From everyone who has been given much, much will be required; and from him who has been entrusted with much, even more will be demanded.

Not Peace but Division
(Micah 7:1–6; Matthew 10:34–39)

<sup>49</sup> I have come to ignite a fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled!
<sup>50</sup> But I have a baptism to undergo, and how distressed I am until it is accomplished!

<sup>51</sup> Do you think that I have come to bring peace to the earth? No, I tell you, but division.
<sup>52</sup> From now on, five in one household will be divided, three against two and two against three. <sup>53</sup> They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.§”

Interpreting the Present Time
(Matthew 16:1–4; Mark 8:11–13)

<sup>54</sup> Then Jesus said to the crowds, “As soon as you see a cloud rising in the west, you say, ‘A shower is coming,’ and that is what happens. <sup>55</sup> And when the south wind blows, you say, ‘It will be hot,’ and it is. <sup>56</sup> You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and sky. Why don’t you know how to interpret the present time?

Reconciling with an Adversary
(Matthew 5:21–26)

<sup>57</sup> And why don’t you judge for yourselves what is right? <sup>58</sup> Make every effort to reconcile with your adversary while you are on your way to the magistrate. Otherwise, he may drag you off to the judge, and the judge may hand you over to the officer, and the officer may throw you into prison. <sup>59</sup> I tell you, you will not get out until you have paid the very last penny.*”

A Call to Repentance
(Joel 1:13–20; Amos 5:4–15; Zephaniah 2:1–3)

<sup>1</sup> At that time some of those present told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. <sup>2</sup> To this He replied, “Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered this fate? <sup>3</sup> No,

But unless you repent, you too will all perish."

The Parable of the Barren Fig Tree
(Isaiah 5:1-7)

<sup>6</sup> Then Jesus told this parable: "A man had a fig tree that was planted in his vineyard. He went to look for fruit on it, but did not find any. <sup>7</sup> So he said to the keeper of the vineyard, 'Look, for the past three years I have come to search for fruit on this fig tree and haven't found any. Therefore cut it down!*' Why should it use up the soil?"

<sup>8</sup> 'Sir,' the man replied, 'leave it alone again this year, until I dig around it and fertilize it. <sup>9</sup> If it bears fruit next year, fine. But if not, you can cut it down.' "

Jesus Heals a Disabled Woman

<sup>10</sup> One Sabbath Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues, <sup>11</sup> and a woman there had been disabled by a spirit for eighteen years. She was hunched over and could not stand up straight. <sup>12</sup> When Jesus saw her, He called her over and said, "Woman, you are set free from your disability." <sup>13</sup> Then He placed His hands on her, and immediately she straightened up and began to glorify God.

<sup>14</sup> But the synagogue leader was indignant that Jesus had healed on the Sabbath. "There are six days for work," he told the crowd. "So come and be healed on those days and not on the Sabbath."

<sup>15</sup> "You hypocrites!" the Lord replied. "Does not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or donkey from the stall and lead it to water? <sup>16</sup> Then should not this daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has kept bound for eighteen long years, be released from her bondage on the Sabbath day?"

<sup>17</sup> When Jesus said this, all His adversaries were humiliated. And the whole crowd rejoiced at all the glorious things He was doing.

The Parable of the Mustard Seed
(Matthew 13:31-32; Mark 4:30-34)

<sup>18</sup> Then Jesus asked, "What is the kingdom of God like? To what can I compare it? <sup>19</sup> It is like a mustard seed that a man tossed into his garden. It grew and became a tree, and the birds of the air nested in its branches."

The Parable of the Leaven
(Matthew 13:33)

<sup>20</sup> Again He asked, "To what can I compare the kingdom of God? <sup>21</sup> It is like leaven that a woman took and mixed into three measures of flour, until all of it was leavened."

The Narrow Door
(Matthew 7:13-14)

<sup>22</sup> Then Jesus traveled throughout the towns and villages, teaching as He made His way toward Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup> "Lord," someone asked Him, "will only a few people be saved?"

Jesus answered, <sup>24</sup> "Make every effort to enter through the narrow door. For many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able. <sup>25</sup> After the master of the house gets up and shuts the door, you will stand outside knocking and saying, 'Lord, open the door for us.'

But he will reply, 'I do not know where you are from.'

<sup>26</sup> Then you will say, 'We ate and drank with you, and you taught in our streets.'

<sup>27</sup> And he will answer, 'I tell you, I do not know where you are from. Depart from me, all you evildoers.'

<sup>28</sup> There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but you yourselves are thrown out. <sup>29</sup> People will come from east and west and north and south, and will recline at the table in the kingdom of God. <sup>30</sup> And indeed, some who are last will be first, and some who are first will be last."

Lament over Jerusalem
(Matthew 23:37-39)

<sup>31</sup> At that very hour, some Pharisees came to Jesus and told Him, "Leave this place and get away, because Herod wants to kill You."

<sup>32</sup> But Jesus replied, "Go tell that fox, 'Look, I will keep driving out demons and healing people today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will reach My goal.' <sup>33</sup> Nevertheless, I must keep going today and tomorrow and the next day, for it is not admissible for a prophet to perish outside of Jerusalem.

<sup>34</sup> O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets and stones those sent to her, how often I have longed to gather your children together as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were unwilling! <sup>35</sup> Look, your house is left to you desolate. And I tell you that you will not see Me again until you say, 'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

Jesus Heals a Man with Dropsy

<sup>1</sup> One Sabbath, Jesus went to eat in the home of a leading Pharisee, and those in attendance were watching Him closely. <sup>2</sup> Right there before Him was a man with dropsy. <sup>3</sup> So Jesus asked the experts in the law and the Pharisees, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath or not?"

Then Jesus took hold of the man, healed him, and sent him on his way. <sup>5</sup> And He asked them, "Which of you whose son * or ox falls into a pit on the Sabbath day will not immediately pull him out?"

<sup>6</sup> And they were unable to answer these questions.

The Parable of the Guests

<sup>7</sup> When Jesus noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, He told them a parable: <sup>8</sup> "When you are invited to a wedding banquet, do not sit in the place of honor, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited. <sup>9</sup> Then the host who invited both of you will come and tell you, 'Give this man your seat.' And in humiliation, you will have to take the last place.

<sup>10</sup> But when you are invited, go and sit in the last place, so that your host will come and tell you, 'Friend, move up to a better place.'† Then you will be honored in front of everyone at the table with you. <sup>11</sup> For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

<sup>12</sup> Then Jesus said to the man who had invited Him, "When you host a dinner or a banquet, do not invite your friends or brothers or relatives or rich neighbors. Otherwise, they may invite you in return, and you will be repaid. <sup>13</sup> But when you host a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind, <sup>14</sup> and you will be blessed. Since they cannot repay you, you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

The Parable of the Banquet
(Matthew 22:1-14)

<sup>15</sup> When one of those reclining with Him heard this, he said to Jesus, “Blessed is everyone who will eat at the feast † in the kingdom of God.”

<sup>16</sup> But Jesus replied, “A certain man prepared a great banquet and invited many guests. <sup>17</sup> When it was time for the banquet, he sent his servant to tell those who had been invited, ‘Come, for everything is now ready.’

<sup>18</sup> But one after another they all began to make excuses. The first one said, ‘I have bought a field, and I need to go see it. Please excuse me.’

<sup>19</sup> Another said, ‘I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to try them out. Please excuse me.’

<sup>20</sup> Still another said, ‘I have married a wife, so I cannot come.’

<sup>21</sup> The servant returned and reported all this to his master. Then the owner of the house became angry and said to his servant, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the city, and bring in the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the lame.’

<sup>22</sup> ‘Sir,’ the servant replied, ‘what you ordered has been done, and there is still room.’

<sup>23</sup> So the master told his servant, ‘Go out to the highways and hedges and compel them to come in, so that my house will be full. <sup>24</sup> For I tell you, not one of those men who were invited will taste my banquet.’ ”

(Matthew 8:18-22; Luke 9:57-62; John 6:59-66)

<sup>25</sup> Large crowds were now traveling with Jesus, and He turned and said to them, <sup>26</sup> “If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters—yes, even his own life—he cannot be My disciple. <sup>27</sup> And whoever does not carry his cross and follow Me cannot be My disciple.

<sup>28</sup> Which of you, wishing to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost to see if he has the resources to complete it? <sup>29</sup> Otherwise, if he lays the foundation and is unable to finish the work, everyone who sees it will ridicule him, <sup>30</sup> saying, ‘This man could not finish what he started to build.’

<sup>31</sup> Or what king on his way to war with another king will not first sit down and consider whether he can engage with ten thousand men the one coming against him with twenty thousand? <sup>32</sup> And if he is unable, he will send a delegation while the other king is still far off, to ask for terms of peace.

<sup>33</sup> In the same way, any one of you who does not give up everything he has cannot be My disciple.

<sup>34</sup> Salt is good, but if the salt loses its savor, with what will it be seasoned? <sup>35</sup> It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile, and it is thrown out.

The Parable of the Lost Sheep
(Matthew 18:10-14)

---

† 14:15 Literally who will eat bread

<sup>3</sup> Then Jesus told them this parable: <sup>4</sup> "What man among you, if he has a hundred sheep and loses one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the pasture and go after the one that is lost, until he finds it? <sup>5</sup> And when he finds it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders, <sup>6</sup> comes home, and calls together his friends and neighbors to tell them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my lost sheep!' <sup>7</sup> In the same way, I tell you that there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous ones who do not need to repent.

The Parable of the Lost Coin

<sup>8</sup> Or what woman who has ten silver coins * and loses one of them does not light a lamp, sweep her house, and search carefully until she finds it? <sup>9</sup> And when she finds it, she calls together her friends and neighbors to say, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my lost coin.' <sup>10</sup> In the same way, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of God's angels over one sinner who repents."

The Parable of the Prodigal Son (Deuteronomy 21:18-21)

<sup>11</sup> Then Jesus said, "There was a man who had two sons. <sup>12</sup> The younger son said to him, 'Father, give me my share of the estate.' So he divided his property between them.

<sup>14</sup> After he had spent all he had, a severe famine swept through that country, and he began to be in need. <sup>15</sup> So he went and hired himself out to a citizen of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed the pigs. <sup>16</sup> He longed to fill his belly with the pods the pigs were eating, but no one would give him a thing.

<sup>17</sup> Finally he came to his senses and said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have plenty of food? But here I am, starving to death! <sup>18</sup> I will get up and go back to my father and say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. <sup>19</sup> I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired servants."'

<sup>20</sup> So he got up and went to his father. But while he was still in the distance, his father saw him and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, embraced him, and kissed him.

<sup>21</sup> The son declared, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'†

<sup>22</sup> But the father said to his servants, 'Quick! Bring the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. <sup>23</sup> Bring the fattened calf and kill it. Let us feast and celebrate. <sup>24</sup> For this son of mine was dead and is alive again! He was lost and is found!' So they began to celebrate.

<sup>25</sup> Meanwhile the older son was in the field, and as he approached the house, he heard music and dancing. <sup>26</sup> So he called one of the servants and asked what was going on.

<sup>27</sup> 'Your brother has returned,' he said, 'and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has him back safe and sound.'

<sup>28</sup> The older son became angry and refused to go in. So his father came out and pleaded with him.

* 15:8 Greek ten drachmas, each worth about a day's wages † 15:21 WH includes Make me like one of your hired servants; see verse 19.

<sup>29</sup> But he answered his father, 'Look, all these years I have served you and never disobeyed a commandment of yours. Yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. <sup>30</sup> But when this son of yours returns from squandering your wealth with prostitutes, you kill the fattened calf for him!'

<sup>31</sup> 'Son, you are always with me,' the father said, 'and all that is mine is yours. <sup>32</sup> But it was fitting to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.'

16

The Parable of the Shrewd Manager

<sup>1</sup> Jesus also said to His disciples, "There was a rich man whose manager was accused of wasting his possessions. <sup>2</sup> So he called him in to ask, 'What is this I hear about you? Turn in an account of your management, for you cannot be manager any longer.'

<sup>3</sup> The manager said to himself, 'What shall I do, now that my master is taking away my position? I am too weak to dig and too ashamed to beg. <sup>4</sup> I know what I will do, so that after my removal from management, people will welcome me into their homes.'

'Take your bill,' said the manager. 'Sit down quickly, and write fifty.'

<sup>7</sup> Then he asked another, 'And how much do you owe?'

'A hundred measures of wheat,'† he replied.

'Take your bill and write eighty,' he told him.

<sup>8</sup> The master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the sons of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own kind than are the sons of light. <sup>9</sup> I tell you, use worldly wealth to make friends for yourselves, so that when it is gone, they will welcome you into eternal dwellings.

<sup>10</sup> Whoever is faithful with very little will also be faithful with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much. <sup>11</sup> So if you have not been faithful with worldly wealth, who will entrust you with true riches? <sup>12</sup> And if you have not been faithful with the belongings of another, who will give you belongings of your own?

<sup>13</sup> No servant can serve two masters. Either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money."

The Law and the Prophets

<sup>14</sup> The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all of this and were scoffing at Jesus. <sup>15</sup> So He said to them, "You are the ones who justify yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts. For what is prized among men is detestable before God.

<sup>16</sup> The Law and the Prophets were proclaimed until John. Since that time, the gospel of the kingdom of God is being preached, and everyone is forcing his way into it.‡ <sup>17</sup> But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for a single stroke of a pen to drop out of the Law.

The Rich Man and Lazarus
(John 5:39-47)

<sup>19</sup> Now there was a rich man dressed in purple and fine linen, who lived each day in joyous splendor. <sup>20</sup> And a beggar named Lazarus lay at his gate, covered with sores <sup>21</sup> and longing to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table. Even the dogs came and licked his sores.

<sup>22</sup> One day the beggar died and was carried by the angels to Abraham's side.§ And the rich man also died and was buried. <sup>23</sup> In Hades, where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham from afar, with Lazarus by his side.

<sup>24</sup> So he cried out, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue. For I am in agony in this fire.'

<sup>25</sup> But Abraham answered, 'Child, remember that during your lifetime you received your good things, while Lazarus received bad things. But now he is comforted here, while you are in agony. <sup>26</sup> And besides all this, a great chasm has been fixed between us and you, so that even those who wish cannot cross from here to you, nor can anyone cross from there to us.'

<sup>27</sup> 'Then I beg you, father,' he said, 'send Lazarus to my father's house, <sup>28</sup> for I have five brothers. Let him warn them, so that they will not also end up in this place of torment.'

<sup>29</sup> But Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the prophets; let your brothers listen to them.'

<sup>30</sup> 'No, father Abraham,' he said, 'but if someone is sent to them from the dead, they will repent.'

<sup>31</sup> Then Abraham said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, they will not be persuaded even if someone rises from the dead.' "

17

Temptations and Trespasses
(Matthew 18:6-9; Mark 9:42-48)

<sup>1</sup> Jesus said to His disciples, "It is inevitable that stumbling blocks will come, but woe to the one through whom they come! <sup>2</sup> It would be better for him to have a millstone hung around his neck and to be thrown into the sea than to cause one of these little ones to stumble.

<sup>3</sup> Watch yourselves. If your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him. <sup>4</sup> Even if he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times returns to say, 'I repent,' you must forgive him."

(Matthew 17:19-20)

<sup>6</sup> And the Lord answered, "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you can say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it will obey you.

<sup>7</sup> Which of you whose servant comes in from plowing or shepherding in the field will say to him, 'Come at once and sit down to eat'? <sup>8</sup> Instead, won't he tell him, 'Prepare my meal and dress yourself to serve me while I eat and drink; and afterward you may eat and drink'? <sup>9</sup> Does he thank the servant because he did what he was told? <sup>10</sup> So you also, when you have done everything commanded of you, should say, 'We are unworthy servants; we have only done our duty.' "

The Ten Lepers
(2 Kings 5:1-14)

<sup>11</sup> While Jesus was on His way to Jerusalem, He was passing between Samaria and Galilee. <sup>12</sup> As He entered one of the villages, He was met by ten lepers.* They stood at a distance <sup>13</sup> and raised their voices, shouting, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

<sup>14</sup> When Jesus saw them, He said, "Go, show yourselves to the priests."† And as they were on their way, they were cleansed.

<sup>15</sup> When one of them saw that he was healed, he came back, praising God in a loud voice. <sup>16</sup> He fell facedown at Jesus' feet in thanksgiving to Him—and he was a Samaritan.

<sup>17</sup> "Were not all ten cleansed?" Jesus asked. "Where then are the other nine? <sup>18</sup> Was not one found except this foreigner to return and give glory to God?"

<sup>19</sup> Then Jesus said to him, "Rise and go; your faith has made you well!‡"

The Coming of the Kingdom
(Genesis 19:24-29)

<sup>20</sup> When asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, Jesus replied, "The kingdom of God will not come with observable signs. <sup>21</sup> Nor will people say, 'Look, here it is,' or 'There it is.' For you see, the kingdom of God is in your midst.§"

<sup>22</sup> Then He said to the disciples, "The time is coming when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, but you will not see it. <sup>23</sup> People will tell you, 'Look, there He is!' or 'Look, here He is!' Do not go out or chase after them. <sup>24</sup> For just as the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one end to the other, so will be the Son of Man in His day. <sup>25</sup> But first He must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

<sup>26</sup> Just as it was in the days of Noah, so also will it be in the days of the Son of Man: <sup>27</sup> People were eating and drinking, marrying and being given in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark. Then the flood came and destroyed them all.

Jesus answered, "Wherever there is a carcass, there the vultures will gather."

The Parable of the Persistent Widow

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray at all times and not lose heart: <sup>2</sup> "In a certain town there was a judge who neither feared God nor respected men. <sup>3</sup> And there was a widow in that town who kept appealing to him, ‘Give me justice against my adversary.’

<sup>4</sup> For a while he refused, but later he said to himself, “Though I neither fear God nor respect men, <sup>5</sup> yet because this widow keeps pestering me, I will give her justice. Then she will stop wearing me out with her perpetual requests.’”

<sup>6</sup> And the Lord said, “Listen to the words of the unjust judge. <sup>7</sup> Will not God bring about justice for His elect who cry out to Him day and night? Will He continue to defer their help? <sup>8</sup> I tell you, He will promptly carry out justice on their behalf. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on earth?”

The Pharisee and the Tax Collector

<sup>9</sup> To some who trusted in their own righteousness and viewed others with contempt, He also told this parable: <sup>10</sup> “Two men went up to the temple to pray. One was a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. <sup>11</sup> The Pharisee stood by himself and prayed, * ‘God, I thank You that I am not like the other men—swindlers, evildoers, adulterers—or even like this tax collector. <sup>12</sup> I fast twice a week and pay tithes of all that I acquire.’

<sup>13</sup> But the tax collector stood at a distance, unwilling even to lift up his eyes to heaven. Instead, he beat his breast and said, ‘God, have mercy on me, a sinner!’ <sup>14</sup> I tell you, this man, rather than the Pharisee, went home justified. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Jesus Blesses the Children

(Matthew 19:13-15; Mark 10:13-16)

<sup>15</sup> Now people were even bringing their babies to Jesus for Him to place His hands on them. And when the disciples saw this, they rebuked those who brought them.

<sup>16</sup> But Jesus called the children to Him and said, “Let the little children come to Me, and do not hinder them! For the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. <sup>17</sup> Truly I tell you, anyone who does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.”

The Rich Young Ruler

(Matthew 19:16-30; Mark 10:17-31)

<sup>18</sup> Then a certain ruler asked Him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

<sup>21</sup> “All these I have kept from my youth,” he said.

<sup>22</sup> On hearing this, Jesus told him, “You still lack one thing: Sell everything you own and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me.”

<sup>23</sup> But when the ruler heard this, he became very sad, because he was extremely wealthy.

29 “Truly I tell you,” Jesus replied, “no one who has left home or wife or brothers or parents or children for the sake of the kingdom of God<sup>30</sup> will fail to receive many times more in this age—and in the age to come, eternal life.”

The Third Prediction of the Passion
(Matthew 20:17-19; Mark 10:32-34)

31 Then Jesus took the Twelve aside and said to them, “Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and everything the prophets have written about the Son of Man will be fulfilled. <sup>32</sup> He will be delivered over to the Gentiles and will be mocked and insulted and spit upon. <sup>33</sup> They will flog Him and kill Him, and on the third day He will rise again.”

34 But the disciples did not understand any of these things. The meaning was hidden from them, and they did not comprehend what He was saying.

Jesus Heals a Blind Beggar
(Matthew 20:29-34; Mark 10:46-52)

35 As Jesus drew near to Jericho, a blind man was sitting beside the road, begging. <sup>36</sup> When he heard the crowd going by, he asked what was happening.

37 “Jesus of Nazareth is passing by,” they told him.

38 So he called out, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

39 Those who led the way admonished him to be silent, but he cried out all the louder, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

40 Jesus stopped and directed that the man be brought to Him. When he had been brought near, Jesus asked him, <sup>41</sup> “What do you want Me to do for you?”

“Lord,” he said, “let me see again.”

42 “Receive your sight!” Jesus replied. “Your faith has healed you.” <sup>43</sup> Immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus, glorifying God. And all the people who saw this gave praise to God.

Jesus and Zacchaeus
(Numbers 5:5-10)

1 Then Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through. <sup>2</sup> And there was a man named Zacchaeus, a chief tax collector, who was very wealthy. <sup>3</sup> He was trying to see who Jesus was, but could not see over the crowd because he was small in stature. <sup>4</sup> So he ran on ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see Him, since Jesus was about to pass that way.

5 When Jesus came to that place, He looked up and said, “Zacchaeus, hurry down, for I must stay at your house today.”

6 So Zacchaeus hurried down and welcomed Him joyfully. <sup>7</sup> And all who saw this began to grumble, saying, “He has gone to be the guest of a sinful man!”

8 But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, “Look, Lord, half of my possessions I give to the poor, and if I have cheated anyone, I will repay it fourfold.”

9 Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this house, because this man too is a son of Abraham. <sup>10</sup> For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost.”

The Parable of the Ten Minas
(Matthew 25:14-30)

11 While the people were listening to this, Jesus proceeded to tell them a parable, because He was near Jerusalem and they thought the kingdom of God would appear imminently.

<sup>12</sup> So He said, "A man of noble birth went to a distant country to lay claim to his kingship and then return. <sup>13</sup> Beforehand, he called ten of his servants and gave them ten minas.* 'Conduct business with this until I return,' he said.

<sup>14</sup> But his subjects hated him and sent a delegation after him to say, 'We do not want this man to rule over us.'

<sup>15</sup> When he returned from procuring his kingship, he summoned the servants to whom he had given the money, to find out what each one had earned.

<sup>16</sup> The first servant came forward and said, 'Master, your mina has produced ten more minas.'

<sup>17</sup> His master replied, 'Well done, good servant! Because you have been faithful in a very small matter, you shall have authority over ten cities.'

<sup>20</sup> Then another servant came and said, 'Master, here is your mina, which I have laid away in a piece of cloth.† <sup>21</sup> For I was afraid of you, because you are a harsh man. You withdraw what you did not deposit and reap what you did not sow.'

<sup>22</sup> His master replied, 'You wicked servant, I will judge you by your own words. So you knew that I am a harsh man, withdrawing what I did not deposit and reaping what I did not sow? <sup>23</sup> Why then did you not deposit my money in the bank, and upon my return I could have collected it with interest?'

<sup>24</sup> Then he told those standing by, 'Take the mina from him and give it to the one who has ten minas.'

<sup>25</sup> 'Master,' they said, 'he already has ten!'

<sup>26</sup> He replied, 'I tell you that everyone who has will be given more; but the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. <sup>27</sup> And these enemies of mine who were unwilling for me to rule over them, bring them here and slay them in front of me.' "

The Triumphal Entry

(Zechariah 9:9-13; Matthew 21:1-11; Mark 11:1-11; John 12:12-19)

<sup>28</sup> After Jesus had said this, He went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

<sup>29</sup> As He approached Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, He sent out two of His disciples, <sup>30</sup> saying, "Go into the village ahead of you, and as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here. <sup>31</sup> If anyone asks, 'Why are you untying it?' tell him, 'The Lord needs it.' "

<sup>32</sup> So those who were sent went out and found it just as Jesus had told them. <sup>33</sup> As they were untying the colt, its owners asked, "Why are you untying the colt?"

<sup>36</sup> As He rode along, the people spread their cloaks on the road. <sup>37</sup> And as He approached the descent from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of disciples began to praise God joyfully in a loud voice for all the miracles they had seen:

* 19:13 That is, he gave each servant one mina. A mina was most likely a silver coin worth a hundred drachmas, that is, about a hundred days' wages. † 19:20 Greek soudariō ‡ 19:38 Psalm 118:26

<sup>39</sup> But some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to Him, “Teacher, rebuke Your disciples!”

<sup>40</sup> “I tell you,” He answered, “if they remain silent, the very stones will cry out.”

Jesus Weeps over Jerusalem
(Isaiah 29:1-16)

<sup>41</sup> As Jesus approached Jerusalem and saw the city, He wept over it <sup>42</sup> and said, “If only you had known on this day what would bring you peace! But now it is hidden from your eyes. <sup>43</sup> For the days will come upon you when your enemies will barricade you and surround you and hem you in on every side. <sup>44</sup> They will level you to the ground—you and the children within your walls. They will not leave one stone on another, because you did not recognize the time of your visitation from God.*”

Jesus Cleanses the Temple
(Matthew 21:12-17; Mark 11:15-19; John 2:12-25)

<sup>45</sup> Then Jesus entered the temple courts † and began to drive out those who were selling there. <sup>46</sup> He declared to them, “It is written: ‘My house will be a house of prayer.’‡ But you have made it ‘a den of robbers.’§”

<sup>47</sup> Jesus was teaching at the temple every day, but the chief priests, scribes, and leaders of the people were intent on killing Him. <sup>48</sup> Yet they could not find a way to do so, because all the people hung on His words.

Jesus’ Authority Challenged
(Matthew 21:23-27; Mark 11:27-33)

<sup>1</sup> One day as Jesus was teaching the people in the temple courts * and proclaiming the gospel, the chief priests and scribes, together with the elders, came up to Him. <sup>2</sup> “Tell us,” they said, “by what authority are You doing these things, and who gave You this authority?”

<sup>5</sup> They deliberated among themselves and said, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will ask, ‘Why did you not believe him?’ <sup>6</sup> But if we say, ‘From men,’ all the people will stone us, for they are convinced that John was a prophet.”

<sup>7</sup> So they answered that they did not know where it was from.

<sup>8</sup> And Jesus replied, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.”

The Parable of the Wicked Tenants
(Matthew 21:33-46; Mark 12:1-12)

<sup>9</sup> Then He proceeded to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard, rented it out to some tenants, and went away for a long time. <sup>10</sup> At harvest time, he sent a servant to the tenants to collect his share of the fruit of the vineyard. But the tenants beat the servant and sent him away empty-handed.

<sup>11</sup> So he sent another servant, but they beat him and treated him shamefully, sending him away empty-handed.

<sup>12</sup> Then he sent a third, but they wounded him and threw him out.

<sup>14</sup> But when the tenants saw the son, they discussed it among themselves and said, ‘This is the heir. Let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.’ <sup>15</sup> So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them? <sup>16</sup> He will come and kill those tenants, and will give the vineyard to others.”

And when the people heard this, they said, “May such a thing never happen!”

<sup>17</sup> But Jesus looked directly at them and said, “Then what is the meaning of that which is written:

‘The stone the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone’†?

<sup>18</sup> Everyone who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but he on whom it falls will be crushed.”

Paying Taxes to Caesar
(Matthew 22:15–22; Mark 12:13–17)

<sup>19</sup> When the scribes and chief priests realized that Jesus had spoken this parable against them, they sought to arrest Him that very hour. But they were afraid of the people.

<sup>20</sup> So they watched Him closely and sent spies who pretended to be sincere. They were hoping to catch Him in His words in order to hand Him over to the rule and authority of the governor. <sup>21</sup> “Teacher,” they inquired, “we know that You speak and teach correctly. You show no partiality, but teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. <sup>22</sup> Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?”

“Caesar’s,” they answered.

<sup>25</sup> So Jesus told them, “Give to Caesar what is Caesar’s, and to God what is God’s.”

<sup>26</sup> And they were unable to trap Him in His words before the people; and amazed at His answer, they fell silent.

The Sadducees and the Resurrection
(Matthew 22:23–33; Mark 12:18–27)

<sup>34</sup> Jesus answered, “The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage. <sup>35</sup> But those who are considered worthy to share in the age to come and in the resurrection from the dead will neither marry nor be given in marriage. <sup>36</sup> In fact, they can no longer die, because they are like the angels. And since they are sons of the resurrection, they are sons of God.

† 20:17 Psalm 118:22    ‡ 20:24 A denarius was customarily a day’s wage for a laborer; see Matthew 20:2.    § 20:28 Deuteronomy 25:5    * 20:30 BYZ and TR include married the widow, and he also died,

<sup>37</sup> Even Moses demonstrates that the dead are raised, in the passage about the burning bush. For he calls the Lord ‘the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’†

<sup>38</sup> He is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for to Him all are alive.”

<sup>39</sup> Some of the scribes answered, “Teacher, You have spoken well!” <sup>40</sup> And they did not dare to question Him any further.

Whose Son Is the Christ?
(Matthew 22:41–46; Mark 12:35–37)

<sup>41</sup> Then Jesus declared, “How can it be said that the Christ is the Son of David? <sup>42</sup> For David himself says in the book of Psalms:

‘The Lord said to my Lord,
“Sit at My right hand
<sup>43</sup> until I make Your enemies
a footstool for Your feet.”’‡

<sup>44</sup> Thus David calls Him ‘Lord.’ So how can He be David’s son?”

(Mark 12:38–40)

<sup>45</sup> In the hearing of all the people, Jesus said to His disciples, <sup>46</sup> “Beware of the scribes. They like to walk around in long robes, and they love the greetings in the marketplaces, the chief seats in the synagogues, and the places of honor at banquets. <sup>47</sup> They defraud widows of their houses,§ and for a show make lengthy prayers. These men will receive greater condemnation.”

21

The Poor Widow’s Offering
(Mark 12:41–44)

<sup>3</sup> “Truly I tell you,” He said, “this poor widow has put in more than all the others. <sup>4</sup> For they all contributed out of their surplus, but she out of her poverty has put in all she had to live on.”

Temple Destruction and Other Signs
(Matthew 24:1–8; Mark 13:1–8)

<sup>5</sup> As some of the disciples were remarking how the temple was adorned with beautiful stones and consecrated gifts, Jesus said, <sup>6</sup> “As for what you see here, the time will come when not one stone will be left on another; every one will be thrown down.”

<sup>7</sup> “Teacher,” they asked, “when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that they are about to take place?”

<sup>8</sup> Jesus answered, “See to it that you are not deceived. For many will come in My name, claiming, ‘I am He,’ and, ‘The time is near.’ Do not follow them. <sup>9</sup> When you hear of wars and rebellions, do not be alarmed. These things must happen first, but the end is not imminent.”

Witnessing to All Nations
(Matthew 24:9–14; Mark 13:9–13)

<sup>10</sup> Then He told them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. <sup>11</sup> There will be great earthquakes, famines, and pestilences in various places, along with fearful sights and great signs from heaven.

<sup>12</sup> But before all this, they will seize you and persecute you. On account of My name they will deliver you to the synagogues and prisons, and they will bring you before kings and governors. <sup>13</sup> This will be your opportunity to serve as witnesses. <sup>14</sup> So make up your mind not to worry beforehand how to defend yourselves. <sup>15</sup> For I will give you speech and wisdom that none of your adversaries will be able to resist or contradict.

<sup>16</sup> You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers and relatives and friends, and some of you will be put to death. <sup>17</sup> And you will be hated by everyone because of My name. <sup>18</sup> Yet not even a hair of your head will perish. <sup>19</sup> By your patient endurance you will gain your souls.

The Destruction of Jerusalem
(Matthew 24:15-25; Mark 13:14-23)

<sup>20</sup> But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, you will know that her desolation is near. <sup>21</sup> Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, let those in the city get out, and let those in the country stay out of the city. <sup>22</sup> For these are the days of vengeance, to fulfill all that is written.

<sup>23</sup> How miserable those days will be for pregnant and nursing mothers! For there will be great distress upon the land and wrath against this people. <sup>24</sup> They will fall by the edge of the sword and be led captive into all the nations. And Jerusalem will be trodden down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

(Matthew 24:26-31; Mark 13:24-27)

<sup>25</sup> There will be signs in the sun and moon and stars, and on the earth dismay among the nations, bewildered by the roaring of the sea and the surging of the waves. <sup>26</sup> Men will faint from fear and anxiety over what is coming upon the earth, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. <sup>27</sup> At that time they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.† <sup>28</sup> When these things begin to happen, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.”

The Lesson of the Fig Tree
(Matthew 24:32-35; Mark 13:28-31)

<sup>29</sup> Then Jesus told them a parable: “Look at the fig tree and all the trees. <sup>30</sup> When they sprout leaves, you can see for yourselves and know that summer is near. <sup>31</sup> So also, when you see these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near. <sup>32</sup> Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have happened. <sup>33</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.

Be Watchful for the Day

<sup>34</sup> But watch yourselves, or your hearts will be weighed down by dissipation, drunkenness, and the worries of life—and that day will spring upon you suddenly like a snare. <sup>35</sup> For it will come upon all who dwell on the face of all the earth. <sup>36</sup> So keep watch at all times, and pray that you may have the strength to escape all that is about to happen and to stand before the Son of Man.”

<sup>37</sup> Every day Jesus taught at the temple, but every evening He went out to spend the night on the Mount of Olives. <sup>38</sup> And early in the morning all the people would come to hear Him at the temple.

22

(Matthew 26:1-5; Mark 14:1-2; John 11:45-57)

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus
(Matthew 26:14-16; Mark 14:10-11)

<sup>3</sup> Then Satan entered Judas Iscariot, who was one of the Twelve. <sup>4</sup> And Judas went to discuss with the chief priests and temple officers how he might betray Jesus to them. <sup>5</sup> They were delighted and agreed to give him money. <sup>6</sup> Judas consented, and began to look for an opportunity to betray Jesus to them in the absence of a crowd.

Preparing the Passover
(Matthew 26:17-19; Mark 14:12-16)

<sup>7</sup> Then came the day of Unleavened Bread on which the Passover lamb was to be sacrificed. <sup>8</sup> Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare for us to eat the Passover."

<sup>9</sup> "Where do You want us to prepare it?" they asked.

<sup>10</sup> He answered, "When you enter the city, a man carrying a jug of water will meet you. Follow him to the house he enters, <sup>11</sup> and say to the owner of that house, 'The Teacher asks: Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?' <sup>12</sup> And he will show you a large upper room, already furnished. Make preparations there."

<sup>13</sup> So they went and found it just as Jesus had told them. And they prepared the Passover.

(Matthew 26:20-30; Mark 14:17-26; 1 Corinthians 11:17-34)

<sup>14</sup> When the hour had come, Jesus reclined at the table with His apostles. <sup>15</sup> And He said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before My suffering. <sup>16</sup> For I tell you that I will not eat it again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."

<sup>17</sup> After taking the cup, He gave thanks and said, "Take this and divide it among yourselves. <sup>18</sup> For I tell you that I will not drink of the fruit of the vine from now on until the kingdom of God comes."

<sup>19</sup> And He took the bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is My body, given for you; do this in remembrance of Me."

<sup>21</sup> Look! The hand of My betrayer is with Mine on the table. <sup>22</sup> Indeed, the Son of Man will go as it has been determined, but woe to that man who betrays Him."

<sup>23</sup> Then they began to question among themselves which of them was going to do this.

Who Is the Greatest?

<sup>24</sup> A dispute also arose among the disciples as to which of them would be considered the greatest. <sup>25</sup> So Jesus declared, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those in authority over them call themselves benefactors. <sup>26</sup> But you shall not be like them. Instead, the greatest among you should be like the youngest, and the one who leads like the one who serves. <sup>27</sup> For who is greater, the one who reclines at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one who reclines? But I am among you as one who serves.

<sup>28</sup> You are the ones who have stood by Me in My trials. <sup>29</sup> And I bestow on you a kingdom, just as My Father has bestowed one on Me, <sup>30</sup> so that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

(Matthew 26:31-35; Mark 14:27-31; John 13:36-38)

† 22:20 Some manuscripts end verse 19 after This is My body and do not include verse 20.

<sup>31</sup> Simon, Simon, Satan has asked to sift each of you like wheat. <sup>32</sup> But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith will not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers."

<sup>34</sup> But Jesus replied, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster will not crow today until you have denied three times that you know Me."

<sup>35</sup> Then Jesus asked them, "When I sent you out without purse or bag or sandals, did you lack anything?"

"Nothing," they answered.

<sup>36</sup> "Now, however," He told them, "the one with a purse should take it, and likewise a bag; and the one without a sword should sell his cloak and buy one. <sup>37</sup> For I tell you that this Scripture must be fulfilled in Me: 'And He was numbered with the transgressors.'‡ For what is written about Me is reaching its fulfillment."

"That is enough," He answered.

Jesus Prays on the Mount of Olives
(Matthew 26:36-46; Mark 14:32-42)

<sup>39</sup> Jesus went out as usual to the Mount of Olives, and the disciples followed Him. <sup>40</sup> When He came to the place, He told them, "Pray that you will not enter into temptation."

<sup>41</sup> And He withdrew about a stone's throw beyond them, where He knelt down and prayed, <sup>42</sup> "Father, if You are willing, take this cup from Me. Yet not My will, but Yours be done."

<sup>45</sup> When Jesus rose from prayer and returned to the disciples, He found them asleep, exhausted from sorrow. <sup>46</sup> "Why are you sleeping?" He asked. "Get up and pray so that you will not enter into temptation."

The Betrayal of Jesus
(Matthew 26:47-56; Mark 14:43-52; John 18:1-14)

<sup>47</sup> While He was still speaking, a crowd arrived, led by the man called Judas, one of the Twelve. He approached Jesus to kiss Him. <sup>48</sup> But Jesus asked him, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?"

<sup>51</sup> But Jesus answered, "No more of this!" And He touched the man's ear and healed him.

<sup>52</sup> Then Jesus said to the chief priests, temple officers, and elders who had come for Him, "Have you come out with swords and clubs as you would against an outlaw? <sup>53</sup> Every day I was with you in the temple courts,* and you did not lay a hand on Me. But this hour belongs to you and to the power of darkness."

<sup>54</sup> Then they seized Jesus, led Him away, and took Him into the house of the high priest. And Peter followed at a distance.

<sup>55</sup> When those present had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat down among them. <sup>56</sup> A servant girl saw him seated in the firelight and looked intently at him. "This man also was with Him," she said.

<sup>57</sup> But Peter denied it. "Woman, I do not know Him," he said.

<sup>58</sup> A short time later, someone else saw him and said, "You also are one of them."

But Peter said, "Man, I am not."

<sup>59</sup> About an hour later, another man insisted, "Certainly this man was with Him, for he too is a Galilean."

While he was still speaking, the rooster crowed. <sup>61</sup> And the Lord turned and looked at Peter.

Then Peter remembered the word that the Lord had spoken to him: "Before the rooster crows today, you will deny Me three times." <sup>62</sup> And he went outside and wept bitterly.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

(Isaiah 50:4-11; Matthew 27:27-31; Mark 15:16-20; John 19:1-15)

<sup>63</sup> The men who were holding Jesus began to mock Him and beat Him. <sup>64</sup> They blindfolded Him † and kept demanding, "Prophecy! Who hit You?" <sup>65</sup> And they said many other blasphemous things against Him.

Jesus before the Sanhedrin

<sup>66</sup> At daybreak the council of the elders of the people, both the chief priests and scribes, met together. They led Jesus into their Sanhedrin ‡ and said, <sup>67</sup> "If You are the Christ, tell us."

Jesus answered, "If I tell you, you will not believe. <sup>68</sup> And if I ask you a question, you will not answer. <sup>69</sup> But from now on the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God."§

<sup>70</sup> So they all asked, "Are You then the Son of God?"

He replied, "You say that I am."

<sup>71</sup> "Why do we need any more testimony?" they declared. "We have heard it for ourselves from His own lips."

23

Jesus before Pilate

(Matthew 27:11-14; John 18:28-40)

<sup>1</sup> Then the whole council rose and led Jesus away to Pilate. <sup>2</sup> And they began to accuse Him, saying, "We found this man subverting our nation, forbidding payment of taxes to Caesar, and proclaiming Himself to be Christ, a King."

<sup>3</sup> So Pilate asked Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

"You have said so," Jesus replied.

† 22:64 BYZ and TR include and were striking Him on the face. ‡ 22:66 Or their Council § 22:69 See Psalm 110:1.

<sup>4</sup> Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, "I find no basis for a charge against this man."

<sup>5</sup> But they kept insisting, "He stirs up the people all over Judea with His teaching. He began in Galilee and has come all the way here."

Jesus before Herod

<sup>6</sup> When Pilate heard this, he asked if the man was a Galilean. <sup>7</sup> And learning that Jesus was under Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who himself was in Jerusalem at that time.

<sup>8</sup> When Herod saw Jesus, he was greatly pleased. He had wanted to see Him for a long time, because he had heard about Him and was hoping to see Him perform a miracle. <sup>9</sup> Herod questioned Jesus at great length, but He gave no answer.

<sup>10</sup> Meanwhile, the chief priests and scribes stood there, vehemently accusing Him. <sup>11</sup> And even Herod and his soldiers ridiculed and mocked Him. Dressing Him in a fine robe, they sent Him back to Pilate.

<sup>12</sup> That day Herod and Pilate became friends; before this time they had been enemies.

The Crowd Chooses Barabbas
(Matthew 27:15-23; Mark 15:6-11)

<sup>13</sup> Then Pilate called together the chief priests, the rulers, and the people, <sup>14</sup> and said to them, "You brought me this man as one who was inciting the people to rebellion. I have examined Him here in your presence and found Him not guilty of your charges against Him. <sup>15</sup> Neither has Herod, for he sent Him back to us. As you can see, He has done nothing deserving of death. <sup>16</sup> Therefore I will punish Him and release Him."*

<sup>19</sup> (Barabbas had been imprisoned for an insurrection in the city, and for murder.)

<sup>22</sup> A third time he said to them, "What evil has this man done? I have found in Him no offense worthy of death. So after I punish Him, I will release Him."

<sup>23</sup> But they were insistent, demanding with loud voices for Jesus to be crucified. And their clamor † prevailed. <sup>24</sup> So Pilate sentenced that their demand be met. <sup>25</sup> As they had requested, he released the one imprisoned for insurrection and murder, and handed Jesus over to their will.

The Crucifixion
(Psalms 22:1-31; Matthew 27:32-44; Mark 15:21-32; John 19:16-27)

<sup>26</sup> As the soldiers led Him away, they seized Simon of Cyrene on his way in from the country, and put the cross on him to carry behind Jesus.

<sup>27</sup> A great number of people followed Him, including women who kept mourning and wailing for Him. <sup>28</sup> But Jesus turned to them and said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. <sup>29</sup> Look, the days are coming when people will say, 'Blessed are the barren women, the wombs that never bore, and breasts that never nursed!'‡ <sup>30</sup> At that time

'they will say to the mountains, "Fall on us!"
and to the hills, "Cover us!"'‡

32 Two others, who were criminals, were also led away to be executed with Jesus.

33 When they came to the place called The Skull,§ they crucified Him there, along with the criminals, one on His right and the other on His left.

34 Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing."* And they divided up His garments by casting lots.†

35 The people stood watching, and the rulers sneered at Him,‡ saying, "He saved others; let Him save Himself if He is the Christ of God, the Chosen One."

36 The soldiers also mocked Him and came up to offer Him sour wine.§ 37 "If You are the King of the Jews," they said, "save Yourself!"

38 Above Him was posted an inscription:*

THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 One of the criminals who hung there heaped abuse on Him. "Are You not the Christ?" he said. "Save Yourself and us!"

40 But the other one rebuked him, saying, "Do you not even fear God, since you are under the same judgment? 41 We are punished justly, for we are receiving what our actions deserve. But this man has done nothing wrong." 42 Then he said, "Jesus, remember me † when You come into Your kingdom!"

43 And Jesus said to him, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with Me in Paradise."

The Death of Jesus

(Psalm 31:1-24; Matthew 27:45-56; Mark 15:33-41; John 19:28-30)

44 It was now about the sixth hour, and darkness came over all the land until the ninth hour.‡ 45 The sun was darkened,§ and the veil of the temple was torn down the middle.

46 Then Jesus called out in a loud voice, "Father, into Your hands I commit My Spirit."* And when He had said this, He breathed His last.

47 When the centurion saw what had happened, he gave glory to God, saying, "Surely this was a righteous man."† 48 And when all the people who had gathered for this spectacle saw what had happened, they returned home beating their breasts. 49 But all those who knew Jesus, including the women who had followed Him from Galilee, stood at a distance watching these things.

50 Now there was a Council member named Joseph, a good and righteous man,§ 51 who had not consented to their decision or action. He was from the Judean town of Arimathea, and was waiting for the kingdom of God. 52 He went to Pilate to ask for the body of Jesus. 53 Then he took it down, wrapped it in a linen cloth, and placed it in a tomb cut into the rock, where no one had yet been laid. 54 It was Preparation Day, and the Sabbath was beginning.‡

55 The women who had come with Jesus from Galilee followed, and they saw the tomb and how His body was placed. 56 Then they returned to prepare spices and perfumes. And they rested on the Sabbath, according to the commandment.

The Resurrection(Matthew 28:1-10; Mark 16:1-8; John 20:1-9)

<sup>5</sup> As the women bowed their faces to the ground in terror, the two men asked them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? <sup>6</sup> He is not here; He has risen! Remember how He told you while He was still in Galilee: <sup>7</sup> 'The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again.' "

<sup>8</sup> Then they remembered His words. <sup>9</sup> And when they returned from the tomb, they reported all these things to the Eleven and to all the others. <sup>10</sup> It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. <sup>11</sup> But their words seemed like nonsense to them, and they did not believe the women.

<sup>12</sup> Peter, however, got up and ran to the tomb. And after bending down and seeing only the linen cloths, he went away, wondering to himself what had happened.

The Road to Emmaus(Mark 16:12-13)

<sup>13</sup> That same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles † from Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. <sup>15</sup> And as they talked and deliberated, Jesus Himself came up and walked along with them. <sup>16</sup> But their eyes were kept from recognizing Him.

They stood still, with sadness on their faces. <sup>18</sup> One of them, named Cleopas, asked Him, "Are You the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in recent days?"

"The events involving Jesus of Nazareth," they answered. "This man was a prophet, powerful in speech and action before God and all the people. <sup>20</sup> Our chief priests and rulers delivered Him up to the sentence of death, and they crucified Him. <sup>21</sup> But we were hoping He was the One who would redeem Israel. And besides all this, it is the third day since these things took place.

<sup>22</sup> Furthermore, some of our women astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, <sup>23</sup> but they did not find His body. They came and told us they had seen a vision of angels, who said that Jesus was alive. <sup>24</sup> Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had described. But Him they did not see."

<sup>25</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "O foolish ones, how slow are your hearts to believe all that the prophets have spoken! <sup>26</sup> Was it not necessary for the Christ to suffer these things and then to enter His glory?" <sup>27</sup> And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, He explained to them what was written in all the Scriptures about Himself.

<sup>28</sup> As they approached the village where they were headed, He seemed to be going farther. <sup>29</sup> But they pleaded with Him, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over."

* 24:1 Literally But on the first of the Sabbaths, † 24:13 Greek being sixty stadia in distance; that is, approximately 6.9 miles or 11.1 kilometers

So He went in to stay with them. <sup>30</sup> While He was reclining at the table with them, He took bread, spoke a blessing and broke it, and gave it to them. <sup>31</sup> Then their eyes were opened and they recognized Jesus—and He disappeared from their sight.

<sup>32</sup> They asked each other, “Were not our hearts burning within us as He spoke with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?” <sup>33</sup> And they got up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem.

There they found the Eleven and those with them, gathered together <sup>34</sup> and saying, “The Lord has indeed risen and has appeared to Simon!”

<sup>35</sup> Then the two told what had happened on the road, and how they had recognized Jesus in the breaking of the bread.

Jesus Appears to the Disciples
(John 20:19–23; 1 John 1:1–4)

<sup>36</sup> While they were describing these events, Jesus Himself stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” <sup>37</sup> But they were startled and frightened, thinking they had seen a spirit.

<sup>38</sup> “Why are you troubled,” Jesus asked, “and why do doubts arise in your hearts? <sup>39</sup> Look at My hands and My feet. It is I Myself. Touch Me and see—for a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have.” <sup>40</sup> And when He had said this, He showed them His hands and feet.

<sup>44</sup> Jesus said to them, “These are the words I spoke to you while I was still with you: Everything must be fulfilled that is written about Me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms.” <sup>45</sup> Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures.

<sup>46</sup> And He told them, “This is what is written: The Christ will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day, <sup>47</sup> and in His name repentance and forgiveness of sins will be proclaimed to all nations, beginning in Jerusalem. <sup>48</sup> You are witnesses of these things.

<sup>49</sup> And behold, I am sending the promise of My Father upon you. But remain in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high.”

The Ascension
(Mark 16:19–20; Acts 1:6–11)

John

The Beginning

(Genesis 1:1-2; Hebrews 11:1-3)

<sup>1</sup> In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. <sup>2</sup> He was with God in the beginning. <sup>3</sup> Through Him all things were made, and without Him nothing was made that has been made. <sup>4</sup> In Him was life, and that life was the light of men. <sup>5</sup> The Light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome * it.

The Witness of John

<sup>6</sup> There came a man who was sent from God. His name was John. <sup>7</sup> He came as a witness to testify about the Light, so that through him everyone might believe. <sup>8</sup> He himself was not the Light, but he came to testify about the Light.

<sup>9</sup> The true Light who gives light to every man was coming into the world. <sup>10</sup> He was in the world, and though the world was made through Him, the world did not recognize Him. <sup>11</sup> He came to His own, and His own did not receive Him. <sup>12</sup> But to all who did receive Him, to those who believed in His name, He gave the right to become children of God— <sup>13</sup> children born not of blood, nor of the desire or will of man, but born of God.

The Word Became Flesh

(Psalm 84:1-12)

<sup>14</sup> The Word became flesh and made His dwelling among us.† We have seen His glory, the glory of the one and only Son ‡ from the Father, full of grace and truth.

<sup>15</sup> John testified concerning Him. He cried out, saying, “This is He of whom I said, ‘He who comes after me has surpassed me because He was before me.’ ”

<sup>16</sup> From His fullness we have all received grace upon grace. <sup>17</sup> For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. <sup>18</sup> No one has ever seen God, but the one and only Son, who is Himself God and § is at the Father’s side,* has made Him known.

The Mission of John the Baptist

(Isaiah 40:1-5; Matthew 3:1-12; Mark 1:1-8; Luke 3:1-20)

<sup>19</sup> And this was John’s testimony when the Jews of Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to ask him, “Who are you?” <sup>20</sup> He did not refuse to confess, but openly declared, “I am not the Christ.”

<sup>21</sup> “Then who are you?” they inquired. “Are you Elijah?”

He said, “I am not.”

“Are you the Prophet?”

He answered, “No.”

<sup>22</sup> So they said to him, “Who are you? We need an answer for those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?”

<sup>23</sup> John replied in the words of Isaiah the prophet:

“I am a voice of one calling in the wilderness, ‘Make straight the way for the Lord.’ ”†

* 1:5 Or comprehended † 1:14 Or and tabernacled among us ‡ 1:14 Or the Only Begotten or the Unique One § 1:18 Or but the only begotten God, who; BYZ and TR but the only begotten Son, who * 1:18 Greek in the Father’s bosom † 1:23 Isaiah 40:3 (see also LXX)

24 Then the Pharisees who had been sent <sup>25</sup> asked him, “Why then do you baptize, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?”

26 “I baptize with ‡ water,” John replied, “but among you stands One you do not know. 27 He is the One who comes after me, the straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie.”

28 All this happened at Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

Jesus the Lamb of God

(Matthew 3:13-17; Mark 1:9-11; Luke 3:21-22)

29 The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, “Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! <sup>30</sup> This is He of whom I said, ‘A man who comes after me has surpassed me because He was before me.’ <sup>31</sup> I myself did not know Him, but the reason I came baptizing with water was that He might be revealed to Israel.”

32 Then John testified, “I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove and resting on Him. <sup>33</sup> I myself did not know Him, but the One who sent me to baptize with water told me, ‘The man on whom you see the Spirit descend and rest is He who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.’ <sup>34</sup> I have seen and testified that this is the Son of God. §”

The First Disciples

(Matthew 4:18-22; Mark 1:16-20; Luke 5:1-11)

35 The next day John was there again with two of his disciples. <sup>36</sup> When he saw Jesus walking by, he said, “Look, the Lamb of God!” <sup>37</sup> And when the two disciples heard him say this, they followed Jesus.

38 Jesus turned and saw them following. “What do you want?” He asked.

They said to Him, “Rabbi” (which means Teacher), “where are You staying?”

39 “Come and see,” He replied. So they went and saw where He was staying, and spent that day with Him. It was about the tenth hour.*

40 Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, was one of the two who heard John’s testimony and followed Jesus. <sup>41</sup> He first found his brother Simon and told him, “We have found the Messiah” (which is translated as Christ).

42 Andrew brought him to Jesus, who looked at him and said, “You are Simon son of John. You will be called Cephas” (which is translated as Peter).

Jesus Calls Philip and Nathanael

43 The next day Jesus decided to set out for Galilee. Finding Philip, He told him, “Follow Me.” <sup>44</sup> Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the same town as Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip found Nathanael and told him, “We have found the One Moses wrote about in the Law, the One the prophets foretold—Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.”

46 “Can anything good come from Nazareth?” Nathanael asked.

“Come and see,” said Philip.

47 When Jesus saw Nathanael approaching, He said of him, “Here is a true Israelite, in whom there is no deceit.”

48 “How do You know me?” Nathanael asked.

Jesus replied, “Before Philip called you, I saw you under the fig tree.”

‡ 1:26 Or in; also in verse 31 and twice in 33 § 1:34 SBL the Chosen One of God * 1:39 That is, about four in the afternoon

49 “Rabbi,” Nathanael answered, “You are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!”

50 Jesus said to him, “Do you believe just because I told you I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these.” 51 Then He declared, “Truly, truly, I tell you, you will all see heaven open and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man.”†

The Wedding at Cana

1 On the third day a wedding took place at Cana in Galilee. Jesus’ mother was there, 2 and Jesus and His disciples had also been invited to the wedding. 3 When the wine ran out, Jesus’ mother said to Him, “They have no more wine.”

4 “Woman, why does this concern us?” Jesus replied. “My hour has not yet come.”

5 His mother said to the servants, “Do whatever He tells you.”

6 Now six stone water jars had been set there for the Jewish rites of purification. Each could hold from twenty to thirty gallons.* 7 Jesus told the servants, “Fill the jars with water.”

So they filled them to the brim.

8 “Now draw some out,” He said, “and take it to the master of the banquet.”

They did so, 9 and the master of the banquet tasted the water that had been turned into wine. He did not know where it was from, but the servants who had drawn the water knew. Then he called the bridegroom aside 10 and said, “Everyone serves the fine wine first, and then the cheap wine after the guests are drunk. But you have saved the fine wine until now!”

11 Jesus performed this, the first of His signs, at Cana in Galilee. He thus revealed His glory, and His disciples believed in Him.

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

(Matthew 21:12-17; Mark 11:15-19; Luke 19:45-48)

12 After this, He went down to Capernaum with His mother and brothers and His disciples, and they stayed there a few days.

13 When the Jewish Passover was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 14 In the temple courts † He found men selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and money changers seated at their tables. 15 So He made a whip out of cords and drove all from the temple courts, both sheep and cattle. He poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables. 16 To those selling doves He said, “Get these out of here! How dare you turn My Father’s house into a marketplace!”

17 His disciples remembered that it is written: “Zeal for Your house will consume Me.”‡

18 On account of this, the Jews demanded, “What sign can You show us to prove Your authority to do these things?”

19 Jesus answered, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up again.”

20 “This temple took forty-six years to build,” the Jews replied, “and You are going to raise it up in three days?”

† 1:51 See Genesis 28:12. * 2:6 Greek two or three metretae; that is, approximately 20.8 to 31.2 gallons (78.8 to 118.1 liters) † 2:14 Literally the temple; also in verse 15 ‡ 2:17 Psalm 69:9

<sup>21</sup> But Jesus was speaking about the temple of His body. <sup>22</sup> After He was raised from the dead, His disciples remembered that He had said this. Then they believed the Scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

<sup>23</sup> While He was in Jerusalem at the Passover Feast, many people saw the signs He was doing and believed in His name. <sup>24</sup> But Jesus did not entrust Himself to them, for He knew them all. <sup>25</sup> He did not need any testimony about man, for He knew what was in a man.

Jesus and Nicodemus (Genesis 22:1–10; Romans 5:6–11)

<sup>1</sup> Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. <sup>2</sup> He came to Jesus at night and said, “Rabbi, we know that You are a teacher who has come from God. For no one could perform the signs You are doing if God were not with him.”

<sup>3</sup> Jesus replied, “Truly, truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God unless he is born again.*”

<sup>4</sup> “How can a man be born when he is old?” Nicodemus asked. “Can he enter his mother’s womb a second time to be born?”

<sup>5</sup> Jesus answered, “Truly, truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless he is born of water and the Spirit. <sup>6</sup> Flesh is born of flesh, but spirit is born of the Spirit. <sup>7</sup> Do not be amazed that I said, ‘You † must be born again.’ <sup>8</sup> The wind blows where it wishes. You hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit.”

<sup>10</sup> “You are Israel’s teacher,” said Jesus, “and you do not understand these things? <sup>11</sup> Truly, truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know, and we testify to what we have seen, and yet you people do not accept our testimony.

<sup>12</sup> If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? <sup>13</sup> No one has ascended into heaven except the One who descended from heaven—the Son of Man.‡ <sup>14</sup> Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the wilderness, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, <sup>15</sup> that everyone who believes in Him may have eternal life.§

<sup>16</sup> For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only* Son, that everyone who believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life. <sup>17</sup> For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through Him. <sup>18</sup> Whoever believes in Him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of God’s one and only Son.

<sup>19</sup> And this is the verdict: The Light has come into the world, but men loved the darkness rather than the Light because their deeds were evil. <sup>20</sup> Everyone who does evil hates the Light, and does not come into the Light for fear that his deeds will be exposed. <sup>21</sup> But whoever practices the truth comes into the Light, so that it may be seen clearly that what he has done has been accomplished in God.”†

John’s Testimony about Jesus

<sup>22</sup> After this, Jesus and His disciples went into the Judean countryside, where He spent some time with them and baptized.

* 3:3 Or born from above; also in verse 7. † 3:7 The Greek word for you is plural; also in verse 12. ‡ 3:13 BYZ and TR include who is in heaven. § 3:15 Or everyone who believes may have eternal life in Him. * 3:16 Or only begotten or unique; also in verse 18 † 3:21 Some translators close this quotation after verse 15.

<sup>23</sup> Now John was also baptizing at Aenon near Salim, because the water was plentiful there, and people kept coming to be baptized. <sup>24</sup> (For John had not yet been thrown into prison.)

<sup>35</sup> The Father loves the Son and has placed all things in His hands. <sup>36</sup> Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life. Whoever rejects the Son will not see life. Instead, the wrath of God remains on him."*

Jesus and the Samaritan Woman

<sup>4</sup> Now He had to pass through Samaria. <sup>5</sup> So He came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. <sup>6</sup> Since Jacob's well was there, Jesus, weary from His journey, sat down by the well. It was about the sixth hour.†

<sup>7</sup> When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, "Give Me a drink."<sup>8</sup> (His disciples had gone into the town to buy food.)

<sup>10</sup> Jesus answered, "If you knew the gift of God and who is asking you for a drink, you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water."

<sup>11</sup> "Sir," the woman replied, "You have nothing to draw with and the well is deep. Where then will You get this living water? <sup>12</sup> Are You greater than our father Jacob, who gave us this well and drank from it himself, as did his sons and his livestock?"

<sup>13</sup> Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again. <sup>14</sup> But whoever drinks the water I give him will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give him will become in him a fount of water springing up to eternal life."

<sup>15</sup> The woman said to Him, "Sir, give me this water so that I will not get thirsty and have to keep coming here to draw water."

‡ 3:25 TR and the Jews § 3:31 Tischendorf The One comes from heaven. * 3:36 Some translators close this quotation after verse 30. * 4:1 Literally When therefore Jesus knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus; NE, WH, BYZ, and TR When therefore the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus † 4:6 That is, about noon

17 "I have no husband," the woman replied.

Jesus said to her, "You are correct to say that you have no husband. <sup>18</sup> In fact, you have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. You have spoken truthfully."

19 "Sir," the woman said, "I see that You are a prophet. <sup>20</sup> Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, but you Jews say that the place where one must worship is in Jerusalem."

21 "Believe Me, woman," Jesus replied, "a time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. <sup>22</sup> You worship what you do not know; we worship what we do know, for salvation is from the Jews. <sup>23</sup> But a time is coming and has now come when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth, for the Father is seeking such as these to worship Him. <sup>24</sup> God is Spirit, and His worshipers must worship Him in spirit and in truth."

25 The woman said, "I know that Messiah" (called Christ) "is coming. When He comes, He will explain everything to us."

26 Jesus answered, "I who speak to you am He."

The Disciples Return and Marvel

27 Just then His disciples returned and were surprised that He was speaking with a woman. But no one asked Him, "What do You want from her?" or "Why are You talking with her?"

28 Then the woman left her water jar, went back into the town, and said to the people, <sup>29</sup> "Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did. Could this be the Christ?" <sup>30</sup> So they left the town and made their way toward Jesus.

31 Meanwhile the disciples urged Him, "Rabbi, eat something."

32 But He told them, "I have food to eat that you know nothing about."

33 So the disciples asked one another, "Could someone have brought Him food?"

34 Jesus explained, "My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me and to finish His work. <sup>35</sup> Do you not say, 'There are still four months until the harvest'? I tell you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are ripe § for harvest.

36 Already the reaper draws his wages and gathers a crop for eternal life, so that the sower and the reaper may rejoice together. <sup>37</sup> For in this case the saying 'One sows and another reaps' is true. <sup>38</sup> I sent you to reap what you have not worked for; others have done the hard work, and now you have taken up their labor."

Many Samaritans Believe

39 Many of the Samaritans from that town believed in Jesus because of the woman's testimony, "He told me everything I ever did." <sup>40</sup> So when the Samaritans came to Him, they asked Him to stay with them, and He stayed two days.

41 And many more believed because of His message. <sup>42</sup> They said to the woman, "We now believe not only because of your words; we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this man truly is the Savior of the world."

Jesus Heals the Official's Son
(Matthew 8:5-13; Luke 7:1-10)

43 After two days, Jesus left for Galilee. <sup>44</sup> Now He Himself had testified that a prophet has no honor in his own hometown. <sup>45</sup> Yet when He arrived, the Galileans welcomed Him. They had seen all the great things He had done in Jerusalem at the feast, for they had gone there as well.

§ 4:35 Literally white

<sup>46</sup> So once again He came to Cana in Galilee, where He had turned the water into wine. And there was a royal official whose son lay sick at Capernaum. <sup>47</sup> When he heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, he went and begged Him to come down and heal his son, who was about to die.

<sup>48</sup> Jesus said to him, "Unless you people see signs and wonders, you will never believe."

The man took Jesus at His word and departed. <sup>51</sup> And while he was still on the way, his servants met him with the news that his boy was alive.

<sup>52</sup> So he inquired as to the hour when his son had recovered, and they told him, "The fever left him yesterday at the seventh hour.*"

<sup>53</sup> Then the father realized that this was the very hour in which Jesus had told him, "Your son will live." And he and all his household believed.

<sup>54</sup> This was now the second sign that Jesus performed after coming from Judea into Galilee.

The Pool of Bethesda

<sup>1</sup> Some time later there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> One man there had been an invalid for thirty-eight years. <sup>6</sup> When Jesus saw him lying there and realized that he had spent a long time in this condition, He asked him, "Do you want to get well?"

<sup>7</sup> "Sir," the invalid replied, "I have no one to help me into the pool when the water is stirred. While I am on my way, someone else goes in before me."

<sup>9</sup> Immediately the man was made well, and he picked up his mat and began to walk.

Now this happened on the Sabbath day, <sup>10</sup> so the Jews said to the man who had been healed, "This is the Sabbath! It is unlawful for you to carry your mat."

<sup>11</sup> But he answered, "The man who made me well told me, 'Pick up your mat and walk.'"

<sup>12</sup> "Who is this man who told you to pick it up and walk?" they asked.

<sup>13</sup> But the man who was healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had slipped away while the crowd was there.

<sup>14</sup> Afterward, Jesus found the man at the temple and said to him, "See, you have been made well. Stop sinning, or something worse may happen to you."

<sup>15</sup> And the man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

The Father and the Son

---

* 4:52 That is, one in the afternoon * 5:2 Or in Aramaic † 5:2 NA, NE, and WH Bethzatha ‡ 5:3 Literally In these § 5:3 NE, BYZ, and TR include awaiting the moving of the waters. 4 For from time to time an angel descended into the pool and stirred the water. As soon as it was stirred, the first to enter the pool would be healed of his disease.

<sup>16</sup> Now because Jesus was doing these things on the Sabbath, the Jews began to persecute Him. <sup>17</sup> But Jesus answered them, "To this very day My Father is at His work, and I too am working."

<sup>18</sup> Because of this, the Jews tried all the harder to kill Him. Not only was He breaking the Sabbath, but He was even calling God His own Father, making Himself equal with God.

<sup>19</sup> So Jesus replied, "Truly, truly, I tell you, the Son can do nothing by Himself, unless He sees the Father doing it. For whatever the Father does, the Son also does. <sup>20</sup> The Father loves the Son and shows Him all He does. And to your amazement, He will show Him even greater works than these. <sup>21</sup> For just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom He wishes.

<sup>22</sup> Furthermore, the Father judges no one, but has assigned all judgment to the Son, <sup>23</sup> so that all may honor the Son just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.

<sup>24</sup> Truly, truly, I tell you, whoever hears My word and believes Him who sent Me has eternal life and will not come under judgment. Indeed, he has crossed over from death to life.

<sup>25</sup> Truly, truly, I tell you, the hour is coming and has now come when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. <sup>26</sup> For as the Father has life in Himself, so also He has granted the Son to have life in Himself. <sup>27</sup> And He has given Him authority to execute judgment, because He is the Son of Man.

<sup>28</sup> Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming when all who are in their graves will hear His voice <sup>29</sup> and come out—those who have done good to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of judgment.*

<sup>30</sup> I can do nothing by Myself; I judge only as I hear. And My judgment is just, because I do not seek My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me.

Testimonies about Jesus

<sup>31</sup> If I testify about Myself, My testimony is not valid. <sup>32</sup> There is another who testifies about Me, and I know that His testimony about Me is valid.

<sup>33</sup> You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth. <sup>34</sup> Even though I do not accept human testimony, I say these things so that you may be saved.

<sup>35</sup> John was a lamp that burned and gave light, and you were willing for a season to bask in his light. <sup>36</sup> But I have testimony more substantial than that of John. For the works that the Father has given Me to accomplish—the very works I am doing—testify about Me that the Father has sent Me. <sup>37</sup> And the Father who sent Me has Himself testified about Me. You have never heard His voice nor seen His form, <sup>38</sup> nor does His word abide in you, because you do not believe the One He sent.

The Witness of Scripture (Luke 16:19–31)

<sup>39</sup> You pore over the Scriptures because you presume that by them you possess eternal life. These are the very words that testify about Me, <sup>40</sup> yet you refuse to come to Me to have life.

<sup>41</sup> I do not accept glory from men, <sup>42</sup> but I know you, that you do not have the love of God within you. <sup>43</sup> I have come in My Father's name, and you have not received Me; but if someone else comes in his own name, you will receive him. <sup>44</sup> How can you believe if you accept glory from one another, yet do not seek the glory that comes from the only God?

* 5:29 See Daniel 12:2.

<sup>45</sup> Do not think that I will accuse you before the Father. Your accuser is Moses, in whom you have put your hope. <sup>46</sup> If you had believed Moses, you would believe Me, because he wrote about Me. <sup>47</sup> But since you do not believe what he wrote, how will you believe what I say?"

The Feeding of the Five Thousand

(Matthew 14:13-21; Mark 6:30-44; Luke 9:10-17)

<sup>1</sup> After this, Jesus crossed to the other side of the Sea of Galilee (that is, the Sea of Tiberias). <sup>2</sup> A large crowd followed Him because they saw the signs He was performing on the sick. <sup>3</sup> Then Jesus went up on the mountain and sat down with His disciples.

<sup>4</sup> Now the Jewish Feast of the Passover was near. <sup>5</sup> When Jesus looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward Him, He said to Philip, "Where can we buy bread for these people to eat?" <sup>6</sup> But He was asking this to test him, for He knew what He was about to do.

<sup>7</sup> Philip answered, "Two hundred denarii * would not buy enough bread for each of them to have a small piece."

<sup>8</sup> One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to Him, <sup>9</sup> "Here is a boy with five barley loaves and two small fish. But what difference will these make among so many?"

<sup>10</sup> "Have the people sit down," Jesus said. Now there was plenty of grass in that place, so the men sat down, about five thousand of them.

<sup>11</sup> Then Jesus took the loaves and the fish, gave thanks, and distributed to those who were seated as much as they wanted.

<sup>12</sup> And when everyone was full, He said to His disciples, "Gather the pieces that are left over, so that nothing will be wasted."

<sup>13</sup> So they collected them and filled twelve baskets with the pieces of the five barley loaves left over by those who had eaten.

<sup>14</sup> When the people saw the sign that Jesus had performed,† they began to say, "Truly this is the Prophet who is to come into the world."

<sup>15</sup> Then Jesus, realizing that they were about to come and make Him king by force, withdrew again to a mountain by Himself.

Jesus Walks on Water

(Matthew 14:22-33; Mark 6:45-52)

<sup>16</sup> When evening came, His disciples went down to the sea, <sup>17</sup> got into a boat, and started across the sea to Capernaum. It was already dark, and Jesus had not yet gone out to them. <sup>18</sup> A strong wind was blowing, and the sea grew agitated.

<sup>19</sup> When they had rowed about three or four miles,‡ they saw Jesus approaching the boat, walking on the sea—and they were terrified. <sup>20</sup> But Jesus spoke up: "It is I; do not be afraid." <sup>21</sup> Then they were willing to take Him into the boat, and at once the boat reached the shore where they were heading.

Jesus the Bread of Life

<sup>22</sup> The next day, the crowd that had remained on the other side of the sea realized that only one boat had been there, and that Jesus had not boarded it with His disciples, but they had gone away alone. <sup>23</sup> However, some boats from Tiberias landed near the place

* 6:7 A denarius was customarily a day's wage for a laborer; see Matthew 20:2. † 6:14 SBL, NA, NE, and WH He had performed ‡ 6:19 Greek about twenty-five or thirty stadia; that is, approximately 2.87 to 3.45 miles (4.62 to 5.55 kilometers) where the people had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks. <sup>24</sup> So when the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor His disciples were there, they got into the boats and went to Capernaum to look for Him. <sup>25</sup> When they found Him on the other side of the sea, they asked Him, "Rabbi, when did You get here?"

<sup>26</sup> Jesus replied, "Truly, truly, I tell you, it is not because you saw these signs that you are looking for Me, but because you ate the loaves and had your fill. <sup>27</sup> Do not work for food that perishes, but for food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For on Him God the Father has placed His seal of approval."

<sup>28</sup> Then they inquired, "What must we do to perform the works of God?"

<sup>29</sup> Jesus replied, "The work of God is this: to believe in the One He has sent."

<sup>30</sup> So they asked Him, "What sign then will You perform, so that we may see it and believe You? What will You do?" <sup>31</sup> Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, as it is written: 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'§"

<sup>32</sup> Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is My Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. <sup>33</sup> For the bread of God is He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

<sup>34</sup> "Sir," they said, "give us this bread at all times."

<sup>35</sup> Jesus answered, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to Me will never hunger, and whoever believes in Me will never thirst. <sup>36</sup> But as I stated, you have seen Me and still you do not believe.

<sup>37</sup> Everyone the Father gives Me will come to Me, and the one who comes to Me I will never drive away. <sup>38</sup> For I have come down from heaven, not to do My own will, but to do the will of Him who sent Me.

<sup>39</sup> And this is the will of Him who sent Me, that I shall lose none of those He has given Me, but raise them up at the last day. <sup>40</sup> For it is My Father's will that everyone who looks to the Son and believes in Him shall have eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day."

<sup>41</sup> At this, the Jews began to grumble about Jesus because He had said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven." <sup>42</sup> They were asking, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How then can He say, 'I have come down from heaven?'"

<sup>43</sup> "Stop grumbling among yourselves," Jesus replied. <sup>44</sup> "No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws him, and I will raise him up at the last day. <sup>45</sup> It is written in the Prophets: 'And they will all be taught by God,'* Everyone who has heard the Father and learned from Him comes to Me— <sup>46</sup> not that anyone has seen the Father except the One who is from God; only He has seen the Father.

<sup>47</sup> Truly, truly, I tell you, he who believes has eternal life. <sup>48</sup> I am the bread of life. <sup>49</sup> Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, yet they died. <sup>50</sup> This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that anyone may eat of it and not die. <sup>51</sup> I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. And this bread, which I will give for the life of the world, is My flesh."

<sup>53</sup> So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh and drink the blood of the Son of Man, you have no life in you. <sup>54</sup> Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. <sup>55</sup> For My flesh is real food, and My blood is real drink.

§ 6:31 Psalm 78:24; see also Exodus 16:4. * 6:45 Isaiah 54:13

<sup>56</sup> Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood remains in Me, and I in him. <sup>57</sup> Just as the living Father sent Me and I live because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on Me will live because of Me. <sup>58</sup> This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your fathers, who ate the manna and died, the one who eats this bread will live forever.”

Many Disciples Turn Back

(Matthew 8:18-22; Luke 9:57-62; Luke 14:25-33)

<sup>59</sup> Jesus said this while teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum. <sup>60</sup> On hearing it, many of His disciples said, “This is a difficult teaching. Who can accept it?”

<sup>61</sup> Aware that His disciples were grumbling about this teaching, Jesus asked them, “Does this offend you? <sup>62</sup> Then what will happen if you see the Son of Man ascend to where He was before?”

<sup>63</sup> The Spirit gives life; the flesh profits nothing. The words I have spoken to you are spirit and they are life. <sup>64</sup> However, there are some of you who do not believe.” (For Jesus had known from the beginning which of them did not believe and who would betray Him.)

<sup>65</sup> Then Jesus said, “This is why I told you that no one can come to Me unless the Father has granted it to him.”

<sup>66</sup> From that time on many of His disciples turned back and no longer walked with Him.

Peter’s Confession of Faith

(Matthew 16:13-20; Mark 8:27-30; Luke 9:18-20)

<sup>67</sup> So Jesus asked the Twelve, “Do you want to leave too?”

<sup>68</sup> Simon Peter replied, “Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words of eternal life. <sup>69</sup> We believe and know that You are the Holy One of God.”†

<sup>70</sup> Jesus answered them, “Have I not chosen you, the Twelve? Yet one of you is a devil!”

<sup>71</sup> He was speaking about Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. For although Judas was one of the Twelve, he was later to betray Jesus.

Jesus Teaches at the Feast

<sup>1</sup> After this, Jesus traveled throughout Galilee. He did not want to travel in Judea, because the Jews there were trying to kill Him. <sup>2</sup> However, the Jewish Feast of Tabernacles * was near. <sup>3</sup> So Jesus’ brothers said to Him, “Leave here and go to Judea, so that Your disciples there may see the works You are doing. <sup>4</sup> For no one who wants to be known publicly acts in secret. Since You are doing these things, show Yourself to the world.” <sup>5</sup> For even His own brothers did not believe in Him.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore Jesus told them, “Although your time is always at hand, My time has not yet come. <sup>7</sup> The world cannot hate you, but it hates Me, because I testify that its works are evil. <sup>8</sup> Go up to the feast on your own. I am not † going up to this feast, because My time has not yet come.”

<sup>9</sup> Having said this, Jesus remained in Galilee. <sup>10</sup> But after His brothers had gone up to the feast, He also went—not publicly, but in secret.

<sup>11</sup> So the Jews were looking for Him at the feast and asking, “Where is He?”

† 6:69 BYZ and TR You are the Christ, the Son of the living God * 7:2 That is, Sukkot, the autumn feast of pilgrimage to Jerusalem; also translated as the Feast of Booths or the Feast of Shelters and originally called the Feast of Ingathering (see Exodus 23:16 and Exodus 34:22). † 7:8 NE, WH, BYZ, and TR I am not yet

But others replied, "No, He deceives the people."

13 Yet no one would speak publicly about Him for fear of the Jews.

14 About halfway through the feast, Jesus went up to the temple courts † and began to teach. 15 The Jews were amazed and asked, "How did this man attain such learning without having studied?"

16 "My teaching is not My own," Jesus replied. "It comes from Him who sent Me. 17 If anyone desires to do His will, he will know whether My teaching is from God or whether I speak on My own. 18 He who speaks on his own authority seeks his own glory, but He who seeks the glory of the One who sent Him is a man of truth; in Him there is no falsehood. 19 Has not Moses given you the law? Yet not one of you keeps it. Why are you trying to kill Me?"

20 "You have a demon," the crowd replied. "Who is trying to kill You?"

21 Jesus answered them, "I did one miracle, and you are all amazed. 22 But because Moses gave you circumcision, you circumcise a boy on the Sabbath (not that it is from Moses, but from the patriarchs.) 23 If a boy can be circumcised on the Sabbath so that the law of Moses will not be broken, why are you angry with Me for making the whole man well on the Sabbath? 24 Stop judging by outward appearances, and start judging justly."

Is Jesus the Christ?

25 Then some of the people of Jerusalem began to say, "Isn't this the man they are trying to kill? 26 Yet here He is, speaking publicly, and they are not saying anything to Him. Have the rulers truly recognized that this is the Christ? 27 But we know where this man is from. When the Christ comes, no one will know where He is from."

28 Then Jesus, still teaching in the temple courts, cried out, "You know Me, and you know where I am from. I have not come of My own accord, but He who sent Me is true. You do not know Him, 29 but I know Him, because I am from Him and He sent Me."

30 So they tried to seize Him, but no one laid a hand on Him, because His hour had not yet come. 31 Many in the crowd, however, believed in Him and said, "When the Christ comes, will He perform more signs than this man?"

32 When the Pharisees heard the crowd whispering these things about Jesus, they and the chief priests sent officers to arrest Him. 33 So Jesus said, "I am with you only a little while longer, and then I am going to the One who sent Me. 34 You will look for Me, but you will not find Me; and where I am, you cannot come."

35 At this, the Jews said to one another, "Where does He intend to go that we will not find Him? Will He go where the Jews are dispersed among the Greeks,§ and teach the Greeks? 36 What does He mean by saying, 'You will look for Me, but you will not find Me,' and, 'Where I am, you cannot come'?"

Living Water

37 On the last and greatest day of the feast, Jesus stood up and called out in a loud voice, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink. 38 Whoever believes in Me, as the Scripture has said: 'Streams of living water will flow from within him.' " 39 He was speaking about the Spirit, whom those who believed in Him were later to receive. For the Spirit had not yet been given,* because Jesus had not yet been glorified.

Division over Jesus

40 On hearing these words, some of the people said, "This is truly the Prophet."

† 7:14 Literally the temple; also in verse 28 § 7:35 Literally Will He go to the Diaspora among the Greeks; the Jewish people living outside the land of Israel since the Babylonian exile were referred to as the Diaspora. * 7:39 Literally the Spirit was not yet; BYZ and TR the Holy Spirit was not yet

41 Others declared, "This is the Christ."

But still others asked, "How can the Christ come from Galilee? 42 Doesn't the Scripture say that the Christ will come from the line of David and from Bethlehem, the village where David lived?"

43 So there was division in the crowd because of Jesus. 44 Some of them wanted to seize Him, but no one laid a hand on Him.

The Unbelief of the Jewish Leaders

45 Then the officers returned to the chief priests and Pharisees, who asked them, "Why didn't you bring Him in?"

46 "Never has anyone spoken like this man!" the officers answered.

47 "Have you also been deceived?" replied the Pharisees. 48 "Have any of the rulers or Pharisees believed in Him? 49 But this crowd that does not know the law, they are under a curse."

50 Nicodemus, who had gone to Jesus earlier and who himself was one of them, asked, 51 "Does our law convict a man without first hearing from him to determine what he has done?"

52 "Aren't you also from Galilee?" they replied. "Look into it, and you will see that no prophet comes out of Galilee."‡

53 Then each went to his own home.

The Woman Caught in Adultery

1 But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

2 Early in the morning He went back into the temple courts.* All the people came to Him, and He sat down to teach them. 3 The scribes and Pharisees, however, brought to Him a woman caught in adultery. They made her stand before them 4 and said, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the act of adultery. 5 In the Law Moses commanded us to stone such a woman. So what do You say?"

6 They said this to test Him, in order to have a basis for accusing Him. But Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with His finger.

7 When they continued to question Him, He straightened up and said to them, "Let him who is without sin among you be the first to cast a stone at her." 8 And again He bent down and wrote on the ground.

9 When they heard this,† they began to go away one by one, beginning with the older ones, until only Jesus was left, with the woman standing there. 10 Then Jesus straightened up ‡ and asked her, "Woman, where are your accusers?§ Has no one condemned you?"

11 "No one, Lord," she answered.

"Then neither do I condemn you," Jesus declared. "Now go and sin no more."

Jesus the Light of the World (1 John 1:5-10)

<sup>12</sup> Once again, Jesus spoke to the people and said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows Me will never walk in the darkness, but will have the light of life."

<sup>14</sup> Jesus replied, "Even if I testify about Myself, My testimony is valid, because I know where I came from and where I am going. But you do not know where I came from or where I am going. <sup>15</sup> You judge according to the flesh; I judge no one. <sup>16</sup> But even if I do judge, My judgment is true, because I am not alone; I am with the Father who sent Me.* <sup>17</sup> Even in your own Law it is written that the testimony of two men is valid.† <sup>18</sup> I am One who testifies about Myself, and the Father, who sent Me, also testifies about Me."

<sup>19</sup> "Where is Your Father?" they asked Him.

"You do not know Me or My Father," Jesus answered. "If you knew Me, you would know My Father as well."

<sup>20</sup> He spoke these words while teaching in the temple courts, near the treasury. Yet no one seized Him, because His hour had not yet come.

<sup>21</sup> Again He said to them, "I am going away, and you will look for Me, but you will die in your sin. Where I am going, you cannot come."

<sup>22</sup> So the Jews began to ask, "Will He kill Himself, since He says, 'Where I am going, you cannot come?'"

<sup>23</sup> Then He told them, "You are from below; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world. <sup>24</sup> That is why I told you that you would die in your sins. For unless you believe that I am He, you will die in your sins."

<sup>25</sup> "Who are You?" they asked.

"Just what I have been telling you from the beginning," Jesus replied. <sup>26</sup> "I have much to say about you and much to judge. But the One who sent Me is truthful, and what I have heard from Him, I tell the world."

<sup>27</sup> They did not understand that He was telling them about the Father. <sup>28</sup> So Jesus said, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am He, and that I do nothing on My own, but speak exactly what the Father has taught Me. <sup>29</sup> He who sent Me is with Me. He has not left Me alone, because I always do what pleases Him."

The Truth Will Set You Free
(2 John 1:4-6)

<sup>30</sup> As Jesus spoke these things, many believed in Him. <sup>31</sup> So He said to the Jews who had believed Him, "If you continue in My word, you are truly My disciples. <sup>32</sup> Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."

<sup>33</sup> "We are Abraham's descendants," they answered. "We have never been slaves to anyone. How can You say we will be set free?"

<sup>34</sup> Jesus replied, "Truly, truly, I tell you, everyone who sins is a slave to sin. <sup>35</sup> A slave is not a permanent member of the family, but a son belongs to it forever. <sup>36</sup> So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.

<sup>37</sup> I know you are Abraham's descendants, but you are trying to kill Me because My word has no place within you. <sup>38</sup> I speak of what I have seen in the presence of the Father, and you do what you have heard from your father."

* 8:16 Literally but (it is) I and the Father who sent Me; NE but (it is) I and the One who sent Me † 8:17 See Deuteronomy 19:15.

“If you were children of Abraham,” said Jesus, “you would do the works of Abraham. <sup>40</sup> But now you are trying to kill Me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. Abraham never did such a thing. <sup>41</sup> You are doing the works of your father.”

“We are not illegitimate children,” they declared. “Our only Father is God Himself.”

<sup>42</sup> Jesus said to them, “If God were your Father, you would love Me, for I have come here from God. I have not come on My own, but He sent Me.

<sup>43</sup> Why do you not understand what I am saying? It is because you are unable to accept My message. <sup>44</sup> You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out his desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, refusing to uphold the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, because he is a liar and the father of lies. <sup>45</sup> But because I speak the truth, you do not believe Me!

<sup>46</sup> Which of you can prove Me guilty of sin? If I speak the truth, why do you not believe Me? <sup>47</sup> Whoever belongs to God hears the words of God. The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God.”

Before Abraham Was Born, I Am

<sup>48</sup> The Jews answered Him, “Are we not right to say that You are a Samaritan and You have a demon?”

<sup>49</sup> “I do not have a demon,” Jesus replied, “but I honor My Father, and you dishonor Me. <sup>50</sup> I do not seek My own glory. There is One who seeks it, and He is the Judge. <sup>51</sup> Truly, truly, I tell you, if anyone keeps My word, he will never see death.”

<sup>52</sup> “Now we know that You have a demon!” declared the Jews. “Abraham died, and so did the prophets, yet You say that anyone who keeps Your word will never taste death. <sup>53</sup> Are You greater than our father Abraham? He died, as did the prophets. Who do You claim to be?”

<sup>54</sup> Jesus answered, “If I glorify Myself, My glory means nothing. The One who glorifies Me is My Father, of whom you say ‘He is our † God.’ <sup>55</sup> You do not know Him, but I know Him. If I said I did not know Him, I would be a liar like you. But I do know Him, and I keep His word. <sup>56</sup> Your father Abraham rejoiced that he would see My day. He saw it and was glad.”

<sup>57</sup> Then the Jews said to Him, “You are not yet fifty years old, and You have seen Abraham?”

<sup>58</sup> “Truly, truly, I tell you,” Jesus declared, “before Abraham was born, I am!§”

<sup>59</sup> At this, they picked up stones to throw at Him. But Jesus was hidden and went out of the temple area.*

Jesus Heals the Man Born Blind

<sup>1</sup> Now as Jesus was passing by, He saw a man blind from birth, <sup>2</sup> and His disciples asked Him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?”

† 8:54 WH and TR Your § 8:58 Literally before Abraham was, I am! * 8:59 BYZ and TR include going through the midst of them, and so He passed by. * 9:4 BYZ and TR I must do

<sup>6</sup> When Jesus had said this, He spit on the ground, made some mud, and applied it to the man's eyes. <sup>7</sup> Then He told him, "Go, wash in the Pool of Siloam" (which means "Sent"). So the man went and washed, and came back seeing.

<sup>8</sup> At this, his neighbors and those who had formerly seen him begging began to ask, "Isn't this the man who used to sit and beg?"

<sup>9</sup> Some claimed that he was, but others said, "No, he just looks like him."

But the man kept saying, "I am the one."

<sup>10</sup> "How then were your eyes opened?" they asked.

<sup>11</sup> He answered, "The man they call Jesus made some mud and anointed my eyes, and He told me to go to Siloam and wash. So I went and washed and received my sight."

<sup>12</sup> "Where is He?" they asked.

"I do not know," he answered.

The Pharisees Investigate the Healing

<sup>13</sup> They brought to the Pharisees the man who had been blind. <sup>14</sup> Now the day on which Jesus had made the mud and opened his eyes was a Sabbath. <sup>15</sup> So the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight.

The man answered, "He put mud on my eyes, and I washed, and now I can see."

<sup>16</sup> Because of this, some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, for He does not keep the Sabbath."

But others said, "How can a sinful man perform such signs?"

And there was division among them. <sup>17</sup> So once again they asked the man who had been blind, "What do you say about Him, since it was your eyes He opened?"

"He is a prophet," the man replied.

<sup>18</sup> The Jews still did not believe that the man had been blind and had received his sight until they summoned his parents <sup>19</sup> and asked, "Is this your son, the one you say was born blind? So how is it that he can now see?"

<sup>20</sup> His parents answered, "We know he is our son, and we know he was born blind.

<sup>21</sup> But how he can now see or who opened his eyes, we do not know. Ask him. He is old enough to speak for himself."

<sup>22</sup> His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews. For the Jews had already determined that anyone who confessed Jesus as the Christ would be put out of the synagogue. <sup>23</sup> That was why his parents said, "He is old enough. Ask him."

<sup>24</sup> So a second time they called for the man who had been blind and said, "Give glory to God! We know that this man is a sinner."

<sup>25</sup> He answered, "Whether He is a sinner I do not know. There is one thing I do know: I was blind, but now I see!"

<sup>26</sup> "What did He do to you?" they asked. "How did He open your eyes?"

<sup>27</sup> He replied, "I already told you, and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become His disciples?"

<sup>28</sup> Then they heaped insults on him and said, "You are His disciple; we are disciples of Moses. <sup>29</sup> We know that God spoke to Moses, but we do not know where this man is from."

<sup>30</sup> "That is remarkable indeed!" the man said. "You do not know where He is from, and yet He opened my eyes. <sup>31</sup> We know that God does not listen to sinners, but He does listen to the one who worships Him and does His will. <sup>32</sup> Never before has anyone heard of opening the eyes of a man born blind. <sup>33</sup> If this man were not from God, He could do no such thing."

<sup>34</sup> They replied, "You were born in utter sin, and you are instructing us?" And they threw him out.

Spiritual Blindness

<sup>35</sup> When Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, He found the man and said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man †?"

<sup>36</sup> "Who is He, Sir?" he replied. "Tell me so that I may believe in Him."

<sup>37</sup> "You have already seen Him," Jesus answered. "He is the One speaking with you."

<sup>38</sup> "Lord, I believe," he said. And he worshiped Jesus.

<sup>39</sup> Then Jesus declared, "For judgment I have come into this world, so that the blind may see and those who see may become blind."‡

<sup>40</sup> Some of the Pharisees who were with Him heard this, and they asked Him, "Are we blind too?"

<sup>41</sup> "If you were blind," Jesus replied, "you would not be guilty of sin. But since you claim you can see, your guilt remains."

Jesus the Good Shepherd (Psalm 23:1-6; Ezekiel 34:11-24)

<sup>4</sup> When he has brought out all his own, he goes on ahead of them, and his sheep follow him because they know his voice. <sup>5</sup> But they will never follow a stranger; in fact, they will flee from him because they do not recognize his voice."

<sup>6</sup> Jesus spoke to them using this illustration, but they did not understand what He was telling them. <sup>7</sup> So He said to them again, "Truly, truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. <sup>8</sup> All who came before Me * were thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. <sup>9</sup> I am the gate. If anyone enters through Me, he will be saved. He will come in and go out and find pasture. <sup>10</sup> The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I have come that they may have life, and have it in all its fullness.

<sup>11</sup> I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down His life for the sheep. <sup>12</sup> The hired hand is not the shepherd, and the sheep are not his own. When he sees the wolf coming, he abandons the sheep and runs away. Then the wolf pounces on them and scatters the flock. <sup>13</sup> The man runs away because he is a hired servant and is unconcerned for the sheep.

<sup>14</sup> I am the good shepherd. I know My sheep and My sheep know Me, <sup>15</sup> just as the Father knows Me and I know the Father. And I lay down My life for the sheep. <sup>16</sup> I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must bring them in as well, and they will listen to My voice. Then there will be one flock and one shepherd.

† 9:35 BYZ and TR the Son of God    ‡ 9:39 Literally so that those not seeing may see and those seeing may become blind. Some manuscripts do not include 38 "Lord, I believe..." 39 Then Jesus declared.    * 10:8 BYZ All who came

<sup>17</sup> The reason the Father loves Me is that I lay down My life in order to take it up again. <sup>18</sup> No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down of My own accord. I have authority to lay it down and authority to take it up again. This charge I have received from My Father.”

<sup>19</sup> Again there was division among the Jews because of Jesus’ message. <sup>20</sup> Many of them said, “He is demon-possessed and insane. Why would you listen to Him?”

<sup>21</sup> But others replied, “These are not the words of a man possessed by a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?”

Jesus at the Feast of Dedication

<sup>25</sup> “I already told you,” Jesus replied, “but you did not believe. The works I do in My Father’s name testify on My behalf. <sup>26</sup> But because you are not My sheep, you refuse to believe. <sup>27</sup> My sheep listen to My voice; I know them, and they follow Me. <sup>28</sup> I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one can snatch them out of My hand. <sup>29</sup> My Father who has given them to Me is greater than all. No one can snatch them out of My Father’s hand. <sup>30</sup> I and the Father are one.”

<sup>31</sup> At this, the Jews again picked up stones to stone Him. <sup>32</sup> But Jesus responded, “I have shown you many good works from the Father. For which of these do you stone Me?”

<sup>33</sup> “We are not stoning You for any good work,” said the Jews, “but for blasphemy, because You, who are a man, declare Yourself to be God.”

<sup>34</sup> Jesus replied, “Is it not written in your Law: ‘I have said you are gods’§? <sup>35</sup> If he called them gods to whom the word of God came—and the Scripture cannot be broken—<sup>36</sup> then what about the One whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world? How then can you accuse Me of blasphemy for stating that I am the Son of God?”

<sup>37</sup> If I am not doing the works of My Father, then do not believe Me. <sup>38</sup> But if I am doing them, even though you do not believe Me, believe the works themselves, so that you may know and understand that the Father is in Me, and I am in the Father.”

<sup>39</sup> At this, they tried again to seize Him, but He escaped their grasp.

John’s Testimony Confirmed

<sup>40</sup> Then Jesus went back across the Jordan to the place where John had first been baptizing, and He stayed there. <sup>41</sup> Many came to Him and said, “Although John never performed a sign, everything he said about this man was true.” <sup>42</sup> And many in that place believed in Jesus.

11

The Death of Lazarus

<sup>4</sup> When Jesus heard this, He said, “This sickness will not end in death. No, it is for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it.”

<sup>5</sup> Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. <sup>6</sup> So on hearing that Lazarus was sick, He stayed where He was for two days, <sup>7</sup> and then He said to the disciples, "Let us go back to Judea."

<sup>8</sup> "Rabbi," they replied, "the Jews just tried to stone You, and You are going back there?"

<sup>9</sup> Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours of daylight? If anyone walks in the daytime, he will not stumble, because he sees by the light of this world. <sup>10</sup> But if anyone walks at night, he will stumble, because he has no light."

<sup>11</sup> After He had said this, He told them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going there to wake him up."

<sup>12</sup> His disciples replied, "Lord, if he is sleeping, he will get better." <sup>13</sup> They thought that Jesus was talking about actual sleep, but He was speaking about the death of Lazarus.

<sup>14</sup> So Jesus told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead, <sup>15</sup> and for your sake I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him."

<sup>16</sup> Then Thomas called Didymus † said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, so that we may die with Him."

Jesus Comforts Martha and Mary

<sup>17</sup> When Jesus arrived, He found that Lazarus had already spent four days in the tomb. <sup>18</sup> Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, a little less than two miles ‡ away, <sup>19</sup> and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them in the loss of their brother. <sup>20</sup> So when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet Him; but Mary stayed at home.

<sup>21</sup> Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died. <sup>22</sup> But even now I know that God will give You whatever You ask of Him."

<sup>25</sup> Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in Me will live, even though he dies. <sup>26</sup> And everyone who lives and believes in Me will never die. Do you believe this?"

<sup>27</sup> "Yes, Lord," she answered, "I believe that You are the Christ, the Son of God, who was to come into the world."

<sup>28</sup> After Martha had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary aside to tell her, "The Teacher is here and is asking for you." <sup>29</sup> And when Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to Him.

<sup>30</sup> Now Jesus had not yet entered the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met Him. <sup>31</sup> When the Jews who were in the house consoling Mary saw how quickly she got up and went out, they followed her, supposing she was going to the tomb to mourn there. <sup>32</sup> When Mary came to Jesus and saw Him, she fell at His feet and said, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died."

<sup>33</sup> When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come with her also weeping, He was deeply moved in spirit § and troubled. <sup>34</sup> "Where have you put him?" He asked.

"Come and see, Lord," they answered.

<sup>36</sup> Then the Jews said, "See how He loved him!"

<sup>37</sup> But some of them asked, "Could not this man who opened the eyes of the blind also have kept Lazarus from dying?"

Jesus Raises Lazarus
(Acts 9:36-43)

<sup>38</sup> Jesus, once again deeply moved, came to the tomb. It was a cave with a stone laid across the entrance. <sup>39</sup> "Take away the stone," Jesus said.

"Lord, by now he stinks," said Martha, the sister of the dead man. "It has already been four days."

<sup>40</sup> Jesus replied, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?"

<sup>41</sup> So they took away the stone. Then Jesus lifted His eyes upward and said, "Father, I thank You that You have heard Me. <sup>42</sup> I knew that You always hear Me, but I say this for the benefit of the people standing here, so they may believe that You sent Me."

<sup>43</sup> After Jesus had said this, He called out in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!"

<sup>44</sup> The man who had been dead came out with his hands and feet bound in strips of linen, and his face wrapped in a cloth.*

"Unwrap him and let him go," Jesus told them.

The Plot to Kill Jesus
(Matthew 26:1-5; Mark 14:1-2; Luke 22:1-2)

<sup>45</sup> Therefore many of the Jews who had come to Mary, and had seen what Jesus did, believed in Him. <sup>46</sup> But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done.

<sup>47</sup> Then the chief priests and Pharisees convened the Sanhedrin † and said, "What are we to do? This man is performing many signs. <sup>48</sup> If we let Him go on like this, everyone will believe in Him, and then the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation."

<sup>49</sup> But one of them, named Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all! <sup>50</sup> You do not realize that it is better for you that one man die for the people than that the whole nation perish."

<sup>51</sup> Caiaphas did not say this on his own. Instead, as high priest that year, he was prophesying that Jesus would die for the nation, <sup>52</sup> and not only for the nation, but also for the scattered children of God, to gather them together into one.

<sup>53</sup> So from that day on they plotted to kill Him. <sup>54</sup> As a result, Jesus no longer went about publicly among the Jews, but He withdrew to a town called Ephraim in an area near the wilderness. And He stayed there with the disciples.

<sup>55</sup> Now the Jewish Passover was near, and many people went up from the country to Jerusalem to purify themselves before the Passover. <sup>56</sup> They kept looking for Jesus and asking one another as they stood in the temple courts,‡ "What do you think? Will He come to the feast at all?" <sup>57</sup> But the chief priests and Pharisees had given orders that anyone who knew where He was must report it, so that they could arrest Him.

Mary Anoints Jesus
(Matthew 26:6-13; Mark 14:3-9; Luke 7:36-50)

* 11:44 Greek soudariō † 11:47 Or the Council ‡ 11:56 Literally the temple

<sup>1</sup> Six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, the hometown of Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead. <sup>2</sup> So they hosted a dinner for Jesus there. Martha served, and Lazarus was among those reclining at the table with Him. <sup>3</sup> Then Mary took about a pint * of expensive perfume, made of pure nard, and she anointed Jesus' feet and wiped them with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

<sup>4</sup> But one of His disciples, Judas Iscariot, who was going to betray Him, asked, <sup>5</sup> "Why wasn't this perfume sold for three hundred denarii † and the money given to the poor?" <sup>6</sup> Judas did not say this because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief. As keeper of the money bag, he used to take from what was put into it.

<sup>7</sup> "Leave her alone," Jesus replied. "She has kept this perfume in preparation for the day of My burial. <sup>8</sup> The poor you will always have with you,‡ but you will not always have Me."

The Plot to Kill Lazarus

<sup>9</sup> Meanwhile a large crowd of Jews learned that Jesus was there. And they came not only because of Him, but also to see Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead. <sup>10</sup> So the chief priests made plans to kill Lazarus as well, <sup>11</sup> for on account of him many of the Jews were deserting them and believing in Jesus.

The Triumphal Entry

(Zechariah 9:9-13; Matthew 21:1-11; Mark 11:1-11; Luke 19:28-40)

<sup>12</sup> The next day the great crowd that had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> They took palm branches and went out to meet Him, shouting:

"Hosanna!"§

"Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!"*

"Blessed is the King of Israel!"

<sup>14</sup> Finding a young donkey, Jesus sat on it, as it is written:

<sup>15</sup> "Do not be afraid, O Daughter of Zion.
See, your King is coming, seated on the colt of a donkey."†

<sup>16</sup> At first His disciples did not understand these things, but after Jesus was glorified they remembered what had been done to Him, and they realized that these very things had also been written about Him.

<sup>17</sup> Meanwhile, many people continued to testify that they had been with Jesus when He called Lazarus from the tomb and raised him from the dead. <sup>18</sup> That is also why the crowd went out to meet Him, because they heard that He had performed this sign.

<sup>19</sup> Then the Pharisees said to one another, "You can see that this is doing you no good. Look how the whole world has gone after Him!"

Jesus Predicts His Death

<sup>20</sup> Now there were some Greeks among those who went up to worship at the feast. <sup>21</sup> They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and requested of him, "Sir, we want to see Jesus." <sup>22</sup> Philip relayed this appeal to Andrew, and both of them went and told Jesus.

* 12:13 Psalm 118:26 † 12:15 Zechariah 9:9

<sup>23</sup> But Jesus replied, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. <sup>24</sup> Truly, truly, I tell you, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a seed; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. <sup>25</sup> Whoever loves his life will lose it, but whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. <sup>26</sup> If anyone serves Me, he must follow Me; and where I am, My servant will be as well. If anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him.

<sup>27</sup> Now My soul is troubled, and what shall I say? 'Father, save Me from this hour'? No, it is for this purpose that I have come to this hour. <sup>28</sup> Father, glorify Your name!"

Then a voice came from heaven: "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again."

<sup>29</sup> The crowd standing there heard it and said that it had thundered. Others said that an angel had spoken to Him.

<sup>30</sup> In response, Jesus said, "This voice was not for My benefit, but yours. <sup>31</sup> Now judgment is upon this world; now the prince of this world will be cast out. <sup>32</sup> And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw everyone to Myself." <sup>33</sup> He said this to indicate the kind of death He was going to die.

<sup>34</sup> The crowd replied, "We have heard from the Law that the Christ will remain forever. So how can you say that the Son of Man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of Man?"

<sup>35</sup> Then Jesus told them, "For a little while longer, the Light will be among you. Walk while you have the Light, so that darkness will not overtake you. The one who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going. <sup>36</sup> While you have the Light, believe in the Light, so that you may become sons of light."

After Jesus had spoken these things, He went away and was hidden from them.

Belief and Unbelief

<sup>37</sup> Although Jesus had performed so many signs in their presence, they still did not believe in Him. <sup>38</sup> This was to fulfill the word of Isaiah the prophet:

"Lord, who has believed our message?
And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?"‡

<sup>39</sup> For this reason they were unable to believe. For again, Isaiah says:

<sup>40</sup> "He has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts,
so that they cannot see with their eyes,
and understand with their hearts,
and turn,
and I would heal them."§

<sup>41</sup> Isaiah said these things because he saw Jesus' glory and spoke about Him. <sup>42</sup> Nevertheless, many of the leaders believed in Him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess Him, for fear that they would be put out of the synagogue. <sup>43</sup> For they loved praise from men more than praise from God.

<sup>44</sup> Then Jesus cried out, "Whoever believes in Me does not believe in Me alone, but in the One who sent Me. <sup>45</sup> And whoever sees Me sees the One who sent Me. <sup>46</sup> I have come into the world as a light, so that no one who believes in Me should remain in darkness.

<sup>47</sup> As for anyone who hears My words and does not keep them, I do not judge him. For I have not come to judge the world, but to save the world. <sup>48</sup> There is a judge for the one who rejects Me and does not receive My words: The word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day.

<sup>49</sup> I have not spoken on My own, but the Father who sent Me has commanded Me what to say and how to say it. <sup>50</sup> And I know that His command leads to eternal life. So I speak exactly what the Father has told Me to say.”

Jesus Washes His Disciples' Feet

<sup>1</sup> It was now just before the Passover Feast, and Jesus knew that His hour had come to leave this world and return to the Father. Having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the very end.* <sup>2</sup> The evening meal was underway, and the devil had already put into the heart of Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Jesus.

<sup>3</sup> Jesus knew that the Father had delivered all things into His hands, and that He had come from God and was returning to God. <sup>4</sup> So He got up from the supper, laid aside His outer garments, and wrapped a towel around His waist. <sup>5</sup> After that, He poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and dry them with the towel that was around Him.

<sup>6</sup> He came to Simon Peter, who asked Him, “Lord, are You going to wash my feet?”

<sup>7</sup> Jesus replied, “You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand.”

<sup>8</sup> “Never shall You wash my feet!” Peter told Him.

Jesus answered, “Unless I wash you, you have no part with Me.”

<sup>9</sup> “Then, Lord,” Simon Peter replied, “not only my feet, but my hands and my head as well!”

<sup>10</sup> Jesus told him, “Whoever has already bathed needs only to wash his feet, and he will be completely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you.” <sup>11</sup> For He knew who would betray Him. That is why He said, “Not all of you are clean.”

<sup>12</sup> When Jesus had washed their feet and put on His outer garments, He reclined with them again and asked, “Do you know what I have done for you? <sup>13</sup> You call Me Teacher and Lord, and rightly so, because I am. <sup>14</sup> So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. <sup>15</sup> I have set you an example so that you should do as I have done for you. <sup>16</sup> Truly, truly, I tell you, no servant is greater than his master,† nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. <sup>17</sup> If you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.

Jesus Predicts His Betrayal (Psalm 41:1–13)

<sup>18</sup> I am not speaking about all of you; I know whom I have chosen. But this is to fulfill the Scripture: “The one who shares My bread has lifted up his heel against Me.”‡ <sup>19</sup> I am telling you now before it happens, so that when it comes to pass, you will believe that I am He. <sup>20</sup> Truly, truly, I tell you, whoever receives the one I send receives Me, and whoever receives Me receives the One who sent Me.”

<sup>26</sup> Jesus answered, "It is the one to whom I give this morsel after I have dipped it." Then He dipped the morsel and gave it to Judas son of Simon Iscariot. <sup>27</sup> And when Judas had taken the morsel, Satan entered into him.

Then Jesus said to Judas, "What you are about to do, do quickly." <sup>28</sup> But no one at the table knew why Jesus had said this to him. <sup>29</sup> Since Judas kept the money bag, some thought that Jesus was telling him to buy what was needed for the feast, or to give something to the poor. <sup>30</sup> As soon as he had received the morsel, Judas went out into the night.

Love One Another
(Romans 12:9-13; 1 John 3:11-24)

<sup>31</sup> When Judas had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man is glorified, and God is glorified in Him. <sup>32</sup> If God is glorified in Him,* God will also glorify the Son in Himself—and will glorify Him at once.

<sup>33</sup> Little children, I am with you only a little while longer. You will look for Me, and as I said to the Jews, so now I say to you: 'Where I am going, you cannot come.'

<sup>34</sup> A new commandment I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also must love one another. <sup>35</sup> By this everyone will know that you are My disciples, if you love one another."

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denial
(Matthew 26:31-35; Mark 14:27-31; Luke 22:31-38)

Jesus answered, "Where I am going, you cannot follow Me now, but you will follow later."

<sup>37</sup> "Lord," said Peter, "why can't I follow You now? I will lay down my life for You."

<sup>38</sup> "Will you lay down your life for Me?" Jesus replied. "Truly, truly, I tell you, before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times.

In My Father's House Are Many Rooms

<sup>1</sup> "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God;* believe in Me as well. <sup>2</sup> In My Father's house are many rooms. <sup>5</sup> "Lord," said Thomas, "we do not know where You are going, so how can we know the way?"

<sup>6</sup> Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me. <sup>7</sup> If you had known Me, you would know My Father as well. From now on you do know Him and have seen Him."

<sup>8</sup> Philip said to Him, "Lord, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us."

<sup>15</sup> If you love Me, you will keep * My commandments. <sup>16</sup> And I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Advocate † to be with you forever— <sup>17</sup> the Spirit of truth. <sup>18</sup> I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. <sup>19</sup> In a little while the world will see Me no more, but you will see Me. Because I live, you also will live. <sup>20</sup> On that day you will know that I am in My Father, and you are in Me, and I am in you. <sup>21</sup> Whoever has My commandments and keeps them is the one who loves Me. The one who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and reveal Myself to him.”

<sup>23</sup> Jesus replied, “If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word. My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our home with him. <sup>24</sup> Whoever does not love Me does not keep My words. The word that you hear is not My own, but it is from the Father who sent Me.

<sup>25</sup> All this I have spoken to you while I am still with you. <sup>26</sup> But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have told you.

Peace I Leave with You

<sup>27</sup> Peace I leave with you; My peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled; do not be afraid. <sup>28</sup> You heard Me say, ‘I am going away, and I am coming back to you.’ If you loved Me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. <sup>29</sup> And now I have told you before it happens, so that when it does happen, you will believe.

<sup>30</sup> I will not speak with you much longer, for the prince of this world is coming, and he has no claim on Me. <sup>31</sup> But I do exactly what the Father has commanded Me, so that the world may know that I love the Father.

Get up! Let us go on from here.

*Jesus the True Vine
(Isaiah 27:1-13)*

<sup>1</sup> “I am the true vine, and My Father is the keeper of the vineyard. <sup>2</sup> He cuts off every branch in Me that bears no fruit, and every branch that does bear fruit, He prunes to make it even more fruitful. <sup>3</sup> You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you. <sup>4</sup> Remain in Me, and I will remain in you. Just as no branch can bear fruit by itself unless it remains in the vine, neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in Me.

§ 14:14 TR does not include Me. * 14:15 Or If you love Me, keep † 14:16 Or Comforter or Helper or Counselor; Greek Paraclete; also in verse 26 ‡ 14:17 WH and is in you

<sup>5</sup> I am the vine and you are the branches. The one who remains in Me, and I in him, will bear much fruit. For apart from Me you can do nothing. <sup>6</sup> If anyone does not remain in Me, he is like a branch that is thrown away and withers. Such branches are gathered up, thrown into the fire, and burned. <sup>7</sup> If you remain in Me and My words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. <sup>8</sup> This is to My Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, proving yourselves to be My disciples.

No Greater Love

<sup>9</sup> As the Father has loved Me, so have I loved you. Remain in My love. <sup>10</sup> If you keep My commandments, you will remain in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commandments and remain in His love. <sup>11</sup> I have told you these things so that My joy may be in you and your joy may be complete.

<sup>12</sup> This is My commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. <sup>13</sup> Greater love has no one than this, that he lay down his life for his friends.

<sup>14</sup> You are My friends if you do what I command you. <sup>15</sup> No longer do I call you servants, for a servant does not understand what his master is doing. But I have called you friends, because everything I have learned from My Father I have made known to you. <sup>16</sup> You did not choose Me, but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit—fruit that will remain—so that whatever you ask the Father in My name, He will give you. <sup>17</sup> This is My command to you: Love one another.

<sup>18</sup> If the world hates you, understand that it hated Me first. <sup>19</sup> If you were of the world, it would love you as its own. Instead, the world hates you, because you are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world.

<sup>20</sup> Remember the word that I spoke to you: 'No servant is greater than his master.'* If they persecuted Me, they will persecute you as well; if they kept My word, they will keep yours as well. <sup>21</sup> But they will treat you like this because of My name, since they do not know the One who sent Me. <sup>22</sup> If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not be guilty of sin. Now, however, they have no excuse for their sin.

<sup>23</sup> Whoever hates Me hates My Father as well. <sup>24</sup> If I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin; but now they have seen and hated both Me and My Father. <sup>25</sup> But this is to fulfill what is written in their Law: 'They hated Me without reason.'†

<sup>26</sup> When the Advocate ‡ comes, whom I will send to you from the Father—the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father—He will testify about Me. <sup>27</sup> And you also must testify, because you have been with Me from the beginning.

16

Persecution Foretold
(Acts 23:12-22)

<sup>1</sup> "I have told you these things so that you will not fall away. <sup>2</sup> They will put you out of the synagogues. In fact, a time is coming when anyone who kills you will think he is offering a service to God. <sup>3</sup> They will do these things because they have not known the Father or Me. <sup>4</sup> But I have told you these things so that when their hour comes, you will remember that I told you about them. I did not tell you these things from the beginning, because I was with you.

The Promise of the Holy Spirit
(John 14:15-26)

<sup>5</sup> Now, however, I am going to Him who sent Me; yet none of you asks Me, 'Where are You going?' <sup>6</sup> Instead, your hearts are filled with sorrow because I have told you these things. <sup>7</sup> But I tell you the truth, it is for your benefit that I am going away. Unless I go away, the Advocate * will not come to you; but if I go, I will send Him to you.

<sup>8</sup> And when He comes, He will convict the world in regard to sin and righteousness and judgment: <sup>9</sup> in regard to sin, because they do not believe in Me; <sup>10</sup> in regard to righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will no longer see Me; <sup>11</sup> and in regard to judgment, because the prince of this world has been condemned.

<sup>12</sup> I still have much to tell you, but you cannot yet bear to hear it. <sup>13</sup> However, when the Spirit of truth comes, He will guide you into all truth. For He will not speak on His own, but He will speak what He hears, and He will declare to you what is to come. <sup>14</sup> He will glorify Me by taking from what is Mine and disclosing it to you. <sup>15</sup> Everything that belongs to the Father is Mine. That is why I said that the Spirit will take from what is Mine and disclose it to you.

<sup>16</sup> In a little while you will see Me no more, and then after a little while you will see Me.†

Grief Will Turn to Joy

<sup>17</sup> Then some of His disciples asked one another, "Why is He telling us, 'In a little while you will not see Me, and then after a little while you will see Me' and 'Because I am going to the Father'?" <sup>18</sup> They kept asking, "Why is He saying, 'a little while'? We do not understand what He is saying."

<sup>19</sup> Aware that they wanted to question Him, Jesus said to them, "Are you asking one another why I said, 'In a little while you will not see Me, and then after a little while you will see Me'?" <sup>20</sup> Truly, truly, I tell you, you will weep and wail while the world rejoices. You will grieve, but your grief will turn to joy. <sup>21</sup> A woman has pain in childbirth because her time has come; but when she brings forth her child, she forgets her anguish because of her joy that a child has been born into the world. <sup>22</sup> So also you have sorrow now, but I will see you again and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy.

(Matthew 18:19-20)

<sup>23</sup> In that day you will no longer ask Me anything. Truly, truly, I tell you, whatever you ask the Father in My name, He will give you. <sup>24</sup> Until now you have not asked for anything in My name. Ask and you will receive, so that your joy may be complete.

<sup>25</sup> I have spoken these things to you in figures of speech. An hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you this way, but will tell you plainly about the Father. <sup>26</sup> In that day you will ask in My name. I am not saying that I will ask the Father on your behalf. <sup>27</sup> For the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me and have believed that I came from God.‡ <sup>28</sup> I came from the Father and entered the world. In turn, I will leave the world and go to the Father."

<sup>29</sup> His disciples said, "See, now You are speaking plainly and without figures of speech. <sup>30</sup> Now we understand that You know all things and that You have no need for anyone to question You. Because of this, we believe that You came from God."

<sup>31</sup> "Do you finally believe?" Jesus replied. <sup>32</sup> "Look, an hour is coming and has already come when you will be scattered, each to his own home, and you will leave Me all alone. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me. <sup>33</sup> I have told you these things so that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But take courage; I have overcome the world!"

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus had spoken these things, He lifted up His eyes to heaven and said, “Father, the hour has come. Glorify Your Son, that Your Son may glorify You. <sup>2</sup> For You granted Him authority over all people,* so that He may give eternal life to all those You have given Him. <sup>3</sup> Now this is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom You have sent. <sup>4</sup> I have glorified You on earth by accomplishing the work You gave Me to do. <sup>5</sup> And now, Father, glorify Me in Your presence with the glory I had with You before the world existed.

Prayer for the Disciples

<sup>6</sup> I have revealed Your name to those You have given Me out of the world. They were Yours; You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word. <sup>7</sup> Now they know that everything You have given Me comes from You. <sup>8</sup> For I have given them the words You gave Me, and they have received them. <sup>9</sup> I ask on their behalf. I do not ask on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those You have given Me; for they are Yours. <sup>10</sup> All I have is Yours, and all You have is Mine; and in them I have been glorified. <sup>11</sup> I will no longer be in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to You.

Holy Father, protect them by Your name, the name You gave Me,† so that they may be one as We are one. <sup>12</sup> While I was with them, I protected and preserved them by Your name, the name You gave Me. Not one of them has been lost, except the son of destruction, so that the Scripture would be fulfilled.

<sup>13</sup> But now I am coming to You; and I am saying these things while I am in the world, so that they may have My joy fulfilled within them. <sup>14</sup> I have given them Your word and the world has hated them; for they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.

<sup>15</sup> I am not asking that You take them out of the world, but that You keep them from the evil one.‡ <sup>16</sup> They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. <sup>17</sup> Sanctify them by the truth; Your word is truth. <sup>18</sup> As You sent Me into the world, I have also sent them into the world. <sup>19</sup> For them I sanctify Myself, so that they too may be sanctified by the truth.

Prayer for All Believers

<sup>20</sup> I am not asking on behalf of them alone, but also on behalf of those who will believe in Me through their message, <sup>21</sup> that all of them may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I am in You. May they also be in Us, so that the world may believe that You sent Me.

<sup>22</sup> I have given them the glory You gave Me, so that they may be one as We are one—<sup>23</sup> I in them and You in Me—that they may be perfectly united, so that the world may know that You sent Me and have loved them just as You have loved Me.

<sup>24</sup> Father, I want those You have given Me to be with Me where I am, that they may see the glory You gave Me because You loved Me before the foundation of the world.

<sup>25</sup> Righteous Father, although the world has not known You, I know You, and they know that You sent Me. <sup>26</sup> And I have made Your name known to them and will continue to make it known, so that the love You have for Me may be in them, and I in them.”

The Betrayal of Jesus

(Matthew 26:47-56; Mark 14:43-52; Luke 22:47-53)

* 17:2 Literally all flesh † 17:11 Literally Your name, which You gave Me; TR Your name. These You have given Me; similarly in verse 12 ‡ 17:15 Or from evil soldiers and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees. They arrived at the garden carrying lanterns, torches, and weapons.

<sup>4</sup> Jesus, knowing all that was coming upon Him, stepped forward and asked them, "Whom are you seeking?"

<sup>5</sup> "Jesus of Nazareth," they answered.

Jesus said, "I am He."

And Judas His betrayer was standing there with them. <sup>6</sup> When Jesus said, "I am He," they drew back and fell to the ground.

<sup>7</sup> So He asked them again, "Whom are you seeking?"

"Jesus of Nazareth," they answered.

<sup>8</sup> "I told you that I am He," Jesus replied. "So if you are looking for Me, let these men go." <sup>9</sup> This was to fulfill the word He had spoken: "I have not lost one of those You have given Me."*

<sup>10</sup> Then Simon Peter drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

<sup>11</sup> "Put your sword back in its sheath!" Jesus said to Peter. "Shall I not drink the cup the Father has given Me?"

<sup>12</sup> Then the band of soldiers, with its commander and the officers of the Jews, arrested Jesus and bound Him. <sup>13</sup> They brought Him first to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year. <sup>14</sup> Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that it would be better if one man died for the people.

Peter's First Denial

(Matthew 26:69-70; Mark 14:66-68; Luke 22:54-57)

<sup>15</sup> Now Simon Peter and another disciple were following Jesus. Since that disciple was known to the high priest, he also went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest.

<sup>16</sup> But Peter stood outside at the door. Then the disciple who was known to the high priest went out and spoke to the doorkeeper, and brought Peter in.

<sup>17</sup> At this, the servant girl watching the door said to Peter, "Aren't you also one of this man's disciples?"

"I am not," he answered.

<sup>18</sup> Because it was cold, the servants and officers were standing around a charcoal fire they had made to keep warm. And Peter was also standing with them, warming himself.

Jesus before the High Priest

(Matthew 26:57-68; Mark 14:53-65; Luke 22:66-71)

<sup>19</sup> Meanwhile, the high priest questioned Jesus about His disciples and His teaching.

<sup>20</sup> "I have spoken openly to the world," Jesus answered. "I always taught in the synagogues and at the temple, where all the Jews come together. I said nothing in secret. <sup>21</sup> Why are you asking Me? Ask those who heard My message. Surely they know what I said."

<sup>22</sup> When Jesus had said this, one of the officers standing nearby slapped Him in the face and said, "Is this how You answer the high priest?"

<sup>23</sup> Jesus replied, "If I said something wrong, testify as to what was wrong. But if I spoke correctly, why did you strike Me?"

---

* 18:9 See John 6:39 and John 17:12.

24 Then Annas sent Him, still bound, to Caiaphas the high priest.

Peter's Second and Third Denials
(Matthew 26:71-75; Mark 14:69-72; Luke 22:58-62)

25 Simon Peter was still standing and warming himself. So they asked him, "Aren't you also one of His disciples?"

He denied it and said, "I am not."

26 One of the high priest's servants, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked, "Didn't I see you with Him in the garden?"

27 Peter denied it once more, and immediately a rooster crowed.

Jesus before Pilate
(Matthew 27:11-14; Luke 23:1-5)

28 Then they led Jesus away from Caiaphas into the Praetorium. By now it was early morning, and the Jews did not enter the Praetorium, to avoid being defiled and unable to eat the Passover.

29 So Pilate went out to them and asked, "What accusation are you bringing against this man?"

30 "If He were not a criminal," they replied, "we would not have handed Him over to you."

31 "You take Him and judge Him by your own law," Pilate told them.

"We are not permitted to execute anyone," the Jews replied. <sup>32</sup> This was to fulfill the word that Jesus had spoken to indicate the kind of death He was going to die.†

33 Pilate went back into the Praetorium, summoned Jesus, and asked Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

34 "Are you saying this on your own," Jesus asked, "or did others tell you about Me?"

35 "Am I a Jew?" Pilate replied. "Your own people and chief priests handed You over to me. What have You done?"

36 Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world; if it were, My servants would fight to prevent My arrest by the Jews. But now My kingdom is not of this realm."

37 "Then You are a king!" Pilate said.

"You say that I am a king," Jesus answered. "For this reason I was born and have come into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to My voice."

38 "What is truth?" Pilate asked.

And having said this, he went out again to the Jews and told them, "I find no basis for a charge against Him. <sup>39</sup> But it is your custom that I release to you one prisoner at the Passover. So then, do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"

40 "Not this man," they shouted, "but Barabbas!" (Now Barabbas was an insurrectionist.)

19

The Soldiers Mock Jesus
(Isaiah 50:4-11; Matthew 27:27-31; Mark 15:16-20; Luke 22:63-65)

<sup>4</sup> Once again Pilate came out and said to the Jews, "Look, I am bringing Him out to you to let you know that I find no basis for a charge against Him." <sup>5</sup> When Jesus came up to wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe, Pilate said to them, "Here is the man!"

<sup>6</sup> As soon as the chief priests and officers saw Him, they shouted, "Crucify Him! Crucify Him!"

"You take Him and crucify Him," Pilate replied, "for I find no basis for a charge against Him."

<sup>7</sup> "We have a law," answered the Jews, "and according to that law He must die, because He declared Himself to be the Son of God."

<sup>8</sup> When Pilate heard this statement, he was even more afraid, <sup>9</sup> and he went back into the Praetorium. "Where are You from?" he asked.

But Jesus gave no answer.

<sup>10</sup> So Pilate said to Him, "Do You refuse to speak to me? Do You not know that I have authority to release You and authority to crucify You?"

<sup>11</sup> Jesus answered, "You would have no authority over Me if it were not given to you from above. Therefore the one who handed Me over to you is guilty of greater sin."

<sup>12</sup> From then on, Pilate tried to release Him, but the Jews kept shouting, "If you release this man, you are no friend of Caesar. Anyone who declares himself a king is defying Caesar."

<sup>13</sup> When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out and sat on the judgment seat at a place called the Stone Pavement, which in Hebrew * is Gabbatha. <sup>14</sup> It was the day of Preparation for the Passover, about the sixth hour.† And Pilate said to the Jews, "Here is your King!"

<sup>15</sup> At this, they shouted, "Away with Him! Away with Him! Crucify Him!"

"Shall I crucify your King?" Pilate asked.

"We have no king but Caesar," replied the chief priests.

The Crucifixion

(Psalm 22:1-31; Matthew 27:32-44; Mark 15:21-32; Luke 23:26-43)

<sup>16</sup> Then Pilate handed Jesus over to be crucified, and the soldiers took Him away.

<sup>18</sup> There they crucified Him, and with Him two others, one on each side, with Jesus in the middle.

<sup>19</sup> Pilate also had a notice posted on the cross. It read:

JESUS OF NAZARETH,
THE KING OF THE JEWS.

<sup>20</sup> Many of the Jews read this sign, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and it was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek. <sup>21</sup> So the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but only that He said, 'I am the King of the Jews.'"

* 19:13 Or in Aramaic; also in verses 17 and 20 † 19:14 That is, about noon

22 Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."

23 When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they divided His garments into four parts, one for each soldier, with the tunic remaining. It was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom. 24 So they said to one another, "Let us not tear it. Instead, let us cast lots to see who will get it." This was to fulfill the Scripture:

"They divided My garments among them, and cast lots for My clothing."‡

So that is what the soldiers did.

25 Near the cross of Jesus stood His mother and her sister, as well as Mary the wife of Clopas and Mary Magdalene. 26 When Jesus saw His mother and the disciple whom He loved standing nearby, He said to His mother, "Woman, here is your son." 27 Then He said to the disciple, "Here is your mother." So from that hour, this disciple took her into his home.

The Death of Jesus

(Psalm 22:1-31; Matthew 27:45-56; Mark 15:33-41; Luke 23:44-49)

28 After this, knowing that everything had now been accomplished, and to fulfill the Scripture, Jesus said, "I am thirsty."§ 29 A jar of sour wine * was sitting there. So they soaked a sponge in the wine, put it on a stalk of hyssop, and lifted it to His mouth.† 30 When Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, "It is finished." And bowing His head, He yielded up His spirit.

Jesus' Side Is Pierced

(Zechariah 12:10-14)

31 It was the day of Preparation, and the next day was a High Sabbath. In order that the bodies would not remain on the cross during the Sabbath, the Jews asked Pilate to have the legs broken and the bodies removed. 32 So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man who had been crucified with Jesus, and those of the other.

33 But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs. 34 Instead, one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water flowed out. 35 The one who saw it has testified to this, and his testimony is true. He knows that he is telling the truth, so that you also may believe.

36 Now these things happened so that the Scripture would be fulfilled: "Not one of His bones will be broken."‡ 37 And, as another Scripture says: "They will look on the One they have pierced."§

The Burial of Jesus

(Isaiah 53:9-12; Matthew 27:57-61; Mark 15:42-47; Luke 23:50-56)

38 Afterward, Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus (but secretly for fear of the Jews), asked Pilate to let him remove the body of Jesus. Pilate gave him permission, so he came and removed His body. 39 Nicodemus, who had previously come to Jesus at night, also brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about seventy-five pounds.* 40 So they took the body of Jesus and wrapped it in linen cloths with the spices, according to the Jewish burial custom.

41 Now there was a garden in the place where Jesus was crucified, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been laid. 42 And because it was the Jewish day of Preparation and the tomb was nearby, they placed Jesus there.

The Resurrection

(Matthew 28:1-10; Mark 16:1-8; Luke 24:1-12)

<sup>1</sup> Early on the first day of the week,* while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance. <sup>2</sup> So she came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved. "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb," she said, "and we do not know where they have put Him!"

<sup>3</sup> Then Peter and the other disciple set out for the tomb. <sup>4</sup> The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. <sup>5</sup> He bent down and looked in at the linen cloths lying there, but he did not go in.

<sup>6</sup> Simon Peter arrived just after him. He entered the tomb and saw the linen cloths lying there. <sup>7</sup> The cloth† that had been around Jesus' head was rolled up, lying separate from the linen cloths. <sup>8</sup> Then the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went in. And he saw and believed. <sup>9</sup> For they still did not understand from the Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead.

Jesus Appears to Mary Magdalene

<sup>10</sup> Then the disciples returned to their homes. <sup>11</sup> But Mary stood outside the tomb weeping. And as she wept, she bent down to look into the tomb, <sup>12</sup> and she saw two angels in white sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the head and the other at the feet.

<sup>13</sup> "Woman, why are you weeping?" they asked.

"Because they have taken my Lord away," she said, "and I do not know where they have put Him."

<sup>14</sup> When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there; but she did not recognize that it was Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> "Woman, why are you weeping?" Jesus asked. "Whom are you seeking?"

Thinking He was the gardener, she said, "Sir, if you have carried Him off, tell me where you have put Him, and I will get Him."

She turned and said to Him in Hebrew,‡ "Rabboni!" (which means "Teacher").

<sup>17</sup> "Do not cling to Me," Jesus said, "for I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go and tell My brothers, 'I am ascending to My Father and your Father, to My God and your God.'"

<sup>18</sup> Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord!" And she told them what He had said to her.

Jesus Appears to the Disciples

(Luke 24:36-49; 1 John 1:1-4)

<sup>19</sup> It was the first day of the week, and that very evening, while the disciples were together with the doors locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them. "Peace be with you!" He said to them. <sup>20</sup> After He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side.

The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

<sup>21</sup> Again Jesus said to them, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent Me, so also I am sending you." <sup>22</sup> When He had said this, He breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>23</sup> If you forgive anyone his sins, they are forgiven; if you withhold forgiveness from anyone, it is withheld."

Jesus Appears to Thomas

<sup>24</sup> Now Thomas called Didymus,§ one of the Twelve, was not with the disciples when Jesus came. <sup>25</sup> So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord!"

But he replied, "Unless I see the nail marks in His hands, and put my finger where the nails have been, and put my hand into His side, I will never believe."

<sup>26</sup> Eight days later, His disciples were once again inside with the doors locked, and Thomas was with them. Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you."

<sup>27</sup> Then Jesus said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and look at My hands. Reach out your hand and put it into My side. Stop doubting and believe."

<sup>28</sup> Thomas replied, "My Lord and my God!"

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said to him, "Because you have seen Me, you have believed; blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."

The Purpose of John's Book

<sup>30</sup> Jesus performed many other signs in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book. <sup>31</sup> But these are written so that you may believe * that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in His name.

21

Jesus Appears by the Sea of Tiberias

"We will go with you," they said. So they went out and got into the boat, but caught nothing that night.

<sup>4</sup> Early in the morning, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not recognize that it was Jesus. <sup>5</sup> So He called out to them, "Children, do you have any fish?"

"No," they answered.

<sup>6</sup> He told them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it there, and they were unable to haul it in because of the great number of fish.

<sup>7</sup> Then the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" As soon as Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer garment (for he had removed it) and jumped into the sea. <sup>8</sup> The other disciples came ashore in the boat. They dragged in the net full of fish, for they were not far from land, only about a hundred yards.‡

<sup>9</sup> When they landed, they saw a charcoal fire there with fish on it, and some bread.

<sup>10</sup> Jesus told them, "Bring some of the fish you have just caught." <sup>11</sup> So Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net ashore. It was full of large fish, 153, but even with so many, the net was not torn.

<sup>12</sup> "Come, have breakfast," Jesus said to them. None of the disciples dared to ask Him, "Who are You?" They knew it was the Lord. <sup>13</sup> Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and He did the same with the fish.

<sup>14</sup> This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after He was raised from the dead.

Jesus and Peter

<sup>15</sup> When they had finished eating, Jesus asked Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love Me more than these?"

"Yes, Lord," he answered, "You know I love You."

Jesus replied, "Feed My lambs."

<sup>16</sup> Jesus asked a second time, "Simon son of John, do you love Me?"

"Yes, Lord," he answered, "You know I love You."

Jesus told him, "Shepherd My sheep."

<sup>17</sup> Jesus asked a third time, "Simon son of John, do you love Me?"

Peter was deeply hurt that Jesus had asked him a third time, "Do you love Me?"

"Lord, You know all things," he replied. "You know I love You."

Jesus said to him, "Feed My sheep.

<sup>18</sup> Truly, truly, I tell you, when you were young, you dressed yourself and walked where you wanted; but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else § will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go." <sup>19</sup> Jesus said this to indicate the kind of death by which Peter would glorify God.

And after He had said this, He told him, "Follow Me."

Jesus and the Beloved Disciple

<sup>20</sup> Peter turned and saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following them. He was the one who had leaned back against Jesus * at the supper to ask, "Lord, who is going to betray You?" <sup>21</sup> When Peter saw him, he asked, "Lord, what about him?"

<sup>22</sup> Jesus answered, "If I want him to remain until I return, what is that to you? You follow Me!" <sup>23</sup> Because of this, the rumor spread among the brothers that this disciple would not die. However, Jesus did not say that he would not die, but only, "If I want him to remain until I return, what is that to you?"

<sup>24</sup> This is the disciple who testifies to these things and who has written them down. And we know that his testimony is true.

<sup>25</sup> There are many more things that Jesus did. If all of them were written down, I suppose that not even the world itself would have space for the books that would be written.

Acts

Prologue (Luke 1:1-4)

<sup>1</sup> In my first book, O Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus began to do and to teach, <sup>2</sup> until the day He was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles He had chosen. <sup>3</sup> After His suffering, He presented Himself to them with many convincing proofs that He was alive. He appeared to them over a span of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God.

<sup>4</sup> And while they were gathered together,* He commanded them: "Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift the Father promised, which you have heard Me discuss. <sup>5</sup> For John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.†"

The Ascension (Mark 16:19-20; Luke 24:50-53)

<sup>6</sup> So when they came together, they asked Him, "Lord, will You at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?"

<sup>7</sup> Jesus replied, "It is not for you to know times or seasons that the Father has fixed by His own authority. <sup>8</sup> But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be My witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

<sup>9</sup> After He had said this, they watched as He was taken up, and a cloud hid Him from their sight. <sup>10</sup> They were looking intently into the sky as He was going, when suddenly two men dressed in white stood beside them. <sup>11</sup> "Men of Galilee," they said, "why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen Him go into heaven."

Matthias Replaces Judas

<sup>12</sup> Then they returned to Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives, which is near the city, a Sabbath day's journey away;‡ <sup>13</sup> When they arrived, they went to the upper room where they were staying: Peter and John, James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. <sup>14</sup> With one accord they all continued in prayer, along with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brothers.

<sup>15</sup> In those days Peter stood up among the brothers (a gathering of about a hundred and twenty) and said, <sup>16</sup> "Brothers, the Scripture had to be fulfilled which the Holy Spirit foretold through the mouth of David concerning Judas, who became a guide for those who arrested Jesus. <sup>17</sup> He was one of our number and shared in this ministry."

<sup>18</sup> (Now with the reward for his wickedness Judas bought a field; there he fell headlong and burst open in the middle, and all his intestines spilled out. <sup>19</sup> This became known to all who lived in Jerusalem, so they called that field in their own language Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood.)

<sup>21</sup> Therefore it is necessary to choose one of the men who have accompanied us the whole time the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, <sup>22</sup> beginning from John's baptism until the day Jesus was taken up from us. For one of these must become a witness with us of His resurrection."

<sup>23</sup> So they proposed two men: Joseph called Barsabbas (also known as Justus) and Matthias. <sup>24</sup> And they prayed, "Lord, You know everyone's heart. Show us which of these two You have chosen <sup>25</sup> to take up this ministry and apostleship, which Judas abandoned to go to his rightful place."

<sup>26</sup> Then they cast lots, and the lot fell to Matthias; so he was added to the eleven apostles.

The Holy Spirit at Pentecost (Genesis 11:1-9; Leviticus 23:15-22)

Peter Addresses the Crowd (Psalm 16:1-11; Joel 2:28-32)

<sup>14</sup> Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, lifted up his voice, and addressed the crowd: "Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen carefully to my words. <sup>15</sup> These men are not drunk, as you suppose. It is only the third hour of the day!§ <sup>16</sup> No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

<sup>17</sup> 'In the last days, God says,
I will pour out My Spirit on all people.
Your sons and daughters will prophesy,
your young men will see visions,
your old men will dream dreams.
<sup>18</sup> Even on My menservants and maidservants
I will pour out My Spirit in those days,
and they will prophesy.

will be saved.*

22 Men of Israel, listen to this message: Jesus of Nazareth was a man certified by God to you by miracles, wonders, and signs, which God did among you through Him, as you yourselves know. 23 He was delivered up by God's set plan and foreknowledge, and you, by the hands of the lawless, put Him to death by nailing Him to the cross. 24 But God raised Him from the dead, releasing Him from the agony of death, because it was impossible for Him to be held in its clutches.

25 David says about Him:

'I saw † the Lord always before me;
because He is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.
26 Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices;
my body also will dwell in hope, 27 because You will not abandon my soul to Hades,
nor will You let Your Holy One see decay.
28 You have made known to me the paths of life;
You will fill me with joy in Your presence. ‡

29 Brothers, I can tell you with confidence that the patriarch David died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. 30 But he was a prophet and knew that God had promised him on oath that He would place one of his descendants on his throne. §
31 Foreseeing this, David spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that He was not abandoned to Hades, nor did His body see decay. 32 God has raised this Jesus to life, to which we are all witnesses.

33 Exalted, then, to the right hand of God, He has received from the Father the promised Holy Spirit and has poured out what you now see and hear. 34 For David did not ascend into heaven, but he himself says:

'The Lord said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand
35 until I make Your enemies
a footstool for Your feet." ,*

36 Therefore let all Israel know with certainty that God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Christ!"

Three Thousand Believe

37 When the people heard this, they were cut to the heart and asked Peter and the other apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?"

38 Peter replied, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 This promise belongs to you and your children and to all who are far off—to all whom the Lord our God will call to Himself."

40 With many other words he testified, and he urged them, "Be saved from this corrupt generation." 41 Those who embraced his message were baptized, and about three thousand were added to the believers that day. †

The Fellowship of Believers
(Acts 4:32–37)

<sup>42</sup> They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. <sup>43</sup> A sense of awe † came over everyone, and the apostles performed many wonders and signs.

<sup>44</sup> All the believers were together and had everything in common. <sup>45</sup> Selling their possessions and goods, they shared with anyone who was in need.

<sup>46</sup> With one accord they continued to meet daily in the temple courts § and to break bread from house to house, sharing their meals with gladness and sincerity of heart, <sup>47</sup> praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

A Lame Man Walks

<sup>1</sup> One afternoon Peter and John were going up to the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour.* <sup>2</sup> And a man who was lame from birth was being carried to the temple gate called Beautiful, where he was put every day to beg from those entering the temple courts.† <sup>3</sup> When he saw Peter and John about to enter, he asked them for money.

<sup>4</sup> Peter looked directly at him, as did John. "Look at us!" said Peter. <sup>5</sup> So the man gave them his attention, expecting to receive something from them. <sup>6</sup> But Peter said, "Silver or gold I do not have, but what I have I give you: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, get up and walk!‡"

<sup>7</sup> Taking him by the right hand, Peter helped him up, and at once the man's feet and ankles were made strong. <sup>8</sup> He sprang to his feet and began to walk. Then he went with them into the temple courts, walking and leaping and praising God.

<sup>9</sup> When all the people saw him walking and praising God, <sup>10</sup> they recognized him as the man who used to sit begging at the Beautiful Gate of the temple, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

Peter Speaks in Solomon's Colonnade
(Deuteronomy 18:15–22)

<sup>11</sup> While the man clung to Peter and John, all the people were astonished and ran to them in the walkway called Solomon's Colonnade.§ <sup>12</sup> And when Peter saw this, he addressed the people: "Men of Israel, why are you surprised by this? Why do you stare at us as if by our own power or godliness we had made this man walk?"

<sup>13</sup> The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified His servant * Jesus. You handed Him over and rejected Him before Pilate, even though he had decided to release Him. <sup>14</sup> You rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to you. <sup>15</sup> You killed the Author of life, but God raised Him from the dead, and we are witnesses of the fact.

<sup>16</sup> By faith in the name of Jesus, this man whom you see and know has been made strong. It is Jesus' name and the faith that comes through Him that has given him this complete healing in your presence.

<sup>17</sup> And now, brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did your leaders. <sup>18</sup> But in this way God has fulfilled what He foretold through all the prophets, saying that His Christ would suffer. <sup>19</sup> Repent, then, and turn back, so that your sins may be wiped away,

You must listen to Him in everything He tells you."† <sup>23</sup> Everyone who does not listen to Him will be completely cut off from among his people.‡

<sup>24</sup> Indeed, all the prophets from Samuel on, as many as have spoken, have proclaimed these days. <sup>25</sup> And you are sons of the prophets and of the covenant God made with your fathers when He said to Abraham, "Through your offspring all the families of the earth will be blessed."§ <sup>26</sup> When God raised up His Servant, He sent Him first to you to bless you by turning each of you from your wicked ways."

Peter and John before the Sanhedrin

<sup>1</sup> While Peter and John were speaking to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple guard and the Sadducees came up to them, <sup>2</sup> greatly disturbed that they were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection of the dead. <sup>3</sup> They seized Peter and John, and because it was evening, they put them in custody until the next day. <sup>4</sup> But many who heard the message believed, and the number of men grew to about five thousand.

<sup>8</sup> Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers and elders of the people! <sup>9</sup> If we are being examined today about a kind service to a man who was lame, to determine how he was healed, <sup>10</sup> then let this be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel: It is by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified but whom God raised from the dead, that this man stands before you healed. <sup>11</sup> This Jesus is 'the stone you builders rejected, which has become the cornerstone.'*

<sup>12</sup> Salvation exists in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved."

The Name Forbidden

<sup>13</sup> When they saw the boldness of Peter and John and realized that they were unschooled, ordinary men, they marveled and took note that these men had been with Jesus. <sup>14</sup> And seeing the man who had been healed standing there with them, they had nothing to say in response. <sup>15</sup> So they ordered them to leave the Sanhedrin † and then conferred together.

<sup>16</sup> "What shall we do with these men?" they asked. "It is clear to everyone living in Jerusalem that a remarkable miracle has occurred through them, and we cannot deny it. <sup>17</sup> But to keep this message from spreading any further among the people, we must warn them not to speak to anyone in this name."

<sup>21</sup> After further threats they let them go. They could not find a way to punish them, because all the people were glorifying God for what had happened. <sup>22</sup> For the man who was miraculously healed was over forty years old.

The Believers' Prayer
(Psalm 2:1-12)

<sup>23</sup> On their release, Peter and John returned to their own people and reported everything that the chief priests and elders had said to them. <sup>24</sup> When the believers heard this, they lifted up their voices to God with one accord. "Sovereign Lord," they said, "You made the heaven and the earth and the sea and everything in them. <sup>25</sup> You spoke by the Holy Spirit through the mouth of Your servant,‡ our father David:

'Why do the nations rage
and the peoples plot in vain?
<sup>26</sup> The kings of the earth take their stand
and the rulers gather together
against the Lord
and against His Anointed One.'§

<sup>27</sup> In fact, this is the very city where Herod and Pontius Pilate conspired with the Gentiles and the people of Israel against Your holy servant Jesus, whom You anointed. <sup>28</sup> They carried out what Your hand and will had decided beforehand would happen. <sup>29</sup> And now, Lord, consider their threats, and enable Your servants to speak Your word with complete boldness, <sup>30</sup> as You stretch out Your hand to heal and perform signs and wonders through the name of Your holy servant Jesus."

<sup>31</sup> After they had prayed, their meeting place was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God boldly.

Sharing among Believers
(Acts 2:42-47)

<sup>32</sup> The multitude of believers was one in heart and soul. No one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they shared everything they owned. <sup>33</sup> With great power the apostles continued to give their testimony about the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And abundant grace was upon them all.

<sup>34</sup> There were no needy ones among them, because those who owned lands or houses would sell their property, bring the proceeds from the sales, <sup>35</sup> and lay them at the apostles' feet for distribution to anyone as he had need.

Ananias and Sapphira

<sup>3</sup> Then Peter said, "Ananias, how is it that Satan has filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and withhold some of the proceeds from the land? <sup>4</sup> Did it not belong to you before it was sold? And after it was sold, was it not at your disposal? How could you conceive such a deed in your heart? You have not lied to men, but to God!"

<sup>5</sup> On hearing these words, Ananias fell down and died. And great fear came over all who heard what had happened. <sup>6</sup> Then the young men stepped forward, wrapped up his body, and carried him out and buried him.

‡ 4:25 Or child; also in verses 27 and 30    § 4:26 Or His Christ or His Messiah; Psalm 2:1-2

<sup>7</sup> About three hours later his wife also came in, unaware of what had happened. <sup>8</sup> “Tell me,” said Peter, “is this the price you and your husband got for the land?”

“Yes,” she answered, “that is the price.”

<sup>9</sup> “How could you agree to test the Spirit of the Lord?” Peter replied. “Look, the feet of the men who buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out also.”

<sup>10</sup> At that instant she fell down at his feet and died. Then the young men came in and, finding her dead, carried her out and buried her beside her husband. <sup>11</sup> And great fear came over the whole church and all who heard about these events.

The Apostles Heal Many

<sup>12</sup> The apostles performed many signs and wonders among the people, and with one accord the believers gathered together in Solomon’s Colonnade. <sup>13</sup> Although the people regarded them highly, no one else dared to join them. <sup>14</sup> Yet more and more believers were brought to the Lord—large numbers of both men and women.

<sup>15</sup> As a result, people brought the sick into the streets and laid them on cots and mats, so that at least Peter’s shadow might fall on some of them as he passed by. <sup>16</sup> Crowds also gathered from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those tormented by unclean spirits, and all of them were healed.

The Apostles Arrested and Freed

<sup>17</sup> Then the high priest and all his associates, who belonged to the party of the Sadducees, were filled with jealousy. They went out <sup>18</sup> and arrested the apostles and put them in the public jail. <sup>19</sup> But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the doors of the jail and brought them out, saying, <sup>20</sup> “Go, stand in the temple courts * and tell the people the full message of this new life.”

<sup>21</sup> At daybreak the apostles entered the temple courts as they had been told and began to teach the people.

When the high priest and his associates arrived, they convened the Sanhedrin†—the full assembly of the elders of Israel—and sent to the jail for the apostles. <sup>22</sup> But on arriving at the jail, the officers did not find them there. So they returned with the report: <sup>23</sup> “We found the jail securely locked, with the guards posted at the doors; but when we opened them, we found no one inside.”

The Apostles before the Sanhedrin

<sup>24</sup> When the captain of the temple guard and the chief priests heard this account, they were perplexed as to what was happening.‡ <sup>25</sup> Then someone came in and announced, “Look, the men you put in jail are standing in the temple courts teaching the people!”

<sup>29</sup> But Peter and the other apostles replied, “We must obey God rather than men. <sup>30</sup> The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you had killed by hanging Him on a tree. <sup>31</sup> God exalted Him to His right hand as Prince and Savior, in order to grant repentance and forgiveness of sins to Israel. <sup>32</sup> We are witnesses of these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey Him.”

Gamaliel’s Advice

* 5:20 Literally the temple; also in verses 21, 25, and 42 † 5:21 Or the Council; also in verses 27, 34, and 41

‡ 5:24 Literally as to what this might be

<sup>33</sup> When the Council members heard this, they were enraged, and they resolved § to put the apostles to death. <sup>34</sup> But a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law who was honored by all the people, stood up in the Sanhedrin and ordered that the men be put outside for a short time.

<sup>35</sup> “Men of Israel,” he said, “consider carefully what you are about to do to these men. <sup>36</sup> Some time ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody, and about four hundred men joined him. He was killed, all his followers were dispersed, and it all came to nothing. <sup>37</sup> After him, Judas the Galilean appeared in the days of the census and drew away people after him. He too perished, and all his followers were scattered.

<sup>38</sup> So in the present case I advise you: Leave these men alone. Let them go! For if their purpose or endeavor is of human origin, it will fail. <sup>39</sup> But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop them. You may even find yourselves fighting against God.”

<sup>40</sup> At this, they yielded to Gamaliel. They called the apostles in and had them flogged. Then they ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and released them.

<sup>41</sup> The apostles left the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they had been counted worthy of suffering disgrace for the Name. <sup>42</sup> Every day, in the temple courts and from house to house, they did not stop teaching and proclaiming the good news that Jesus is the Christ.

The Choosing of the Seven (1 Timothy 3:8-13)

<sup>1</sup> In those days when the disciples were increasing in number, the Grecian Jews among them began to grumble against the Hebraic Jews * because their widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution of food.

<sup>2</sup> So the Twelve summoned all the disciples and said, “It is unacceptable for us to neglect the word of God in order to wait on tables. <sup>3</sup> Therefore, brothers, select from among you seven men confirmed to be full of the Spirit and wisdom. We will appoint this responsibility to them <sup>4</sup> and will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word.”

<sup>5</sup> This proposal pleased the whole group. They chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, as well as Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas from Antioch, a convert to Judaism.† <sup>6</sup> They presented these seven to the apostles,‡ who prayed and laid their hands on them.

<sup>7</sup> So the word of God continued to spread. The number of disciples in Jerusalem grew rapidly, and a great number of priests became obedient to the faith.

The Arrest of Stephen

<sup>8</sup> Now Stephen, who was full of grace and power, was performing great wonders and signs among the people. <sup>9</sup> But resistance arose from what was called the Synagogue of the Freedmen, including Cyrenians, Alexandrians, and men from the provinces of Cilicia and Asia.§ They began to argue with Stephen, <sup>10</sup> but they could not stand up to his wisdom or the Spirit by whom he spoke.

<sup>12</sup> So they stirred up the people, elders, and scribes and confronted Stephen. They seized him and brought him before the Sanhedrin,* <sup>13</sup> where they presented false witnesses who said, "This man never stops speaking against this holy place and against the law. <sup>14</sup> For we have heard him say that Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place and change the customs that Moses handed down to us."

<sup>15</sup> All who were sitting in the Sanhedrin looked intently at Stephen, and they saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

Stephen's Address: The Call of Abraham (Genesis 12:1-9)

<sup>2</sup> And Stephen declared: "Brothers and fathers, listen to me! The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham while he was still in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran, <sup>3</sup> and told him, 'Leave your country and your kindred and go to the land I will show you.*' <sup>4</sup> So Abraham left the land of the Chaldeans and settled in Haran. After his father died, God brought him out of that place and into this land where you are now living.

<sup>5</sup> He gave him no inheritance here, not even a foot of ground. But God promised to give possession of the land to Abraham and his descendants, even though he did not yet have a child. <sup>6</sup> God told him that his descendants would be foreigners in a strange land, and that they would be enslaved and mistreated four hundred years. <sup>7</sup> 'But I will punish the nation that enslaves them,' God said, 'and afterward they will come forth and worship Me in this place.†

<sup>8</sup> Then God gave Abraham the covenant of circumcision, and Abraham became the father of Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day. And Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob of the twelve patriarchs.

Joseph Sold into Egypt (Genesis 37:12-30)

<sup>9</sup> Because the patriarchs were jealous of Joseph, they sold him as a slave into Egypt. But God was with him <sup>10</sup> and rescued him from all his troubles. He granted Joseph favor and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt, who appointed him ruler over Egypt and all his household.

<sup>11</sup> Then famine and great suffering swept across Egypt and Canaan, and our fathers could not find food. <sup>12</sup> When Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our fathers on their first visit. <sup>13</sup> On their second visit, Joseph revealed his identity to ‡ his brothers, and his family became known to Pharaoh. <sup>14</sup> Then Joseph sent for his father Jacob and all his relatives, seventy-five in all.

Israel Oppressed in Egypt (Exodus 1:8-22)

<sup>15</sup> So Jacob went down to Egypt, where he and our fathers died. <sup>16</sup> Their bones were carried back § to Shechem and placed in the tomb that Abraham had bought from the sons of Hamor at Shechem for a price he paid in silver.

<sup>17</sup> As the time drew near for God to fulfill His promise to Abraham, our people in Egypt increased greatly in number. <sup>18</sup> Then another king, who knew nothing of Joseph, arose over Egypt. <sup>19</sup> He exploited our people and oppressed our fathers, forcing them to abandon their infants so they would die.

The Birth and Adoption of Moses (Exodus 2:1-10; Hebrews 11:23-29)

* 6:12 Or the Council; also in verse 15    * 7:3 Genesis 12:1    † 7:7 Genesis 15:13-14; Exodus 3:12    ‡ 7:13 Or Joseph was made known to or Joseph was recognized by    § 7:16 Literally And they were carried back

<sup>20</sup> At that time Moses was born, and he was beautiful in the sight of God.* For three months he was nurtured in his father's house. <sup>21</sup> When he was set outside, Pharaoh's daughter took him and brought him up as her own son. <sup>22</sup> So Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians and was powerful in speech and action.

The Rejection and Flight of Moses
(Exodus 2:11-22)

<sup>23</sup> When Moses was forty years old, he decided to visit his brothers, the children of Israel. <sup>24</sup> And when he saw one of them being mistreated, Moses went to his defense and avenged him by striking down the Egyptian who was oppressing him. <sup>25</sup> He assumed his brothers would understand that God was using him to deliver them, but they did not.

<sup>26</sup> The next day he came upon two Israelites who were fighting, and he tried to reconcile them, saying, 'Men, you are brothers. Why are you mistreating each other?'

<sup>27</sup> But the man who was abusing his neighbor pushed Moses aside and said, 'Who made you ruler and judge over us?' <sup>28</sup> Do you want to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?† <sup>29</sup> At this remark, Moses fled to the land of Midian, where he lived as a foreigner and had two sons.

The Call of Moses
(Exodus 3:1-22)

<sup>30</sup> After forty years had passed, an angel appeared to Moses in the flames of a burning bush in the desert near Mount Sinai. <sup>31</sup> When Moses saw it, he marveled at the sight. As he approached to look more closely, the voice of the Lord came to him: <sup>32</sup> 'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.‡ Moses trembled with fear and did not dare to look.

<sup>33</sup> Then the Lord said to him, 'Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground. <sup>34</sup> I have indeed seen the oppression of My people in Egypt. I have heard their groaning and have come down to deliver them. Now come, I will send you back to Egypt. §

<sup>35</sup> This Moses, whom they had rejected with the words, 'Who made you ruler and judge?*' is the one whom God sent to be their ruler and redeemer through the angel † who appeared to him in the bush. <sup>36</sup> He led them out and performed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, at the Red Sea, and for forty years in the wilderness.

<sup>37</sup> This is the same Moses who told the Israelites, 'God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your brothers.‡' <sup>38</sup> He was in the assembly in the wilderness with the angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers. And he received living words to pass on to us. §

The Rebellion of Israel
(Exodus 32:1-35; Deuteronomy 9:7-29; Amos 5:16-27)

<sup>39</sup> But our fathers refused to obey him. Instead, they rejected him and in their hearts turned back to Egypt. <sup>40</sup> They said to Aaron, 'Make us gods who will go before us! As for this Moses who led us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him. '*

<sup>41</sup> At that time they made a calf and offered a sacrifice to the idol, rejoicing in the works of their hands. <sup>42</sup> But God turned away from them and gave them over to the worship of the host of heaven, as it is written in the book of the prophets:

'Did you bring Me sacrifices and offerings

<sup>43</sup> You have taken along the tabernacle of Molech and the star of your god Rephan,
 the idols you made to worship.
 Therefore I will send you into exile beyond Babylon.†

The Tabernacle of the Testimony
 (Exodus 40:1-33; Hebrews 9:1-10)

<sup>44</sup> Our fathers had the tabernacle of the Testimony with them in the wilderness. It was constructed exactly as God had directed Moses, according to the pattern he had seen.
<sup>45</sup> And our fathers who received it brought it in with Joshua when they dispossessed the nations God drove out before them. It remained until the time of David,<sup>46</sup> who found favor in the sight of God and asked to provide a dwelling place for the God of Jacob.‡

<sup>48</sup> However, the Most High does not dwell in houses made by human hands. As the prophet says:

<sup>49</sup> 'Heaven is My throne and the earth is My footstool.
 What kind of house will you build for Me, says the Lord,
 or where will My place of repose be?

<sup>51</sup> You stiff-necked people with uncircumcised hearts and ears! You always resist the Holy Spirit, just as your fathers did. <sup>52</sup> Which of the prophets did your fathers fail to persecute? They even killed those who foretold the coming of the Righteous One. And now you are His betrayers and murderers—<sup>53</sup> you who received the law ordained by angels, yet have not kept it."

The Stoning of Stephen

<sup>58</sup> They dragged him out of the city and began to stone him. Meanwhile the witnesses laid their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul.

<sup>60</sup> Falling on his knees, he cried out in a loud voice, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

Saul Persecutes the Church

On that day a great persecution broke out against the church in Jerusalem, and all except the apostles were scattered throughout Judea and Samaria. <sup>2</sup> God-fearing men buried Stephen and mourned deeply over him. <sup>3</sup> But Saul began to destroy the church. Going from house to house, he dragged off men and women and put them in prison.

Philip in Samaria

† 7:43 Amos 5:25-27 (see also LXX)    ‡ 7:46 SBL, WH, BYZ, and TR; see also LXX for Psalm 132:5; ECM, NA, and NE a dwelling place for the house of Jacob.    § 7:50 Isaiah 66:1-2    * 7:54 Literally On hearing these things, they were cut in their hearts, <sup>4</sup> Those who had been scattered preached the word wherever they went. <sup>5</sup> Philip went down to a city in Samaria and proclaimed the Christ to them. <sup>6</sup> The crowds gave their undivided attention to Philip's message and to the signs they saw him perform. <sup>7</sup> With loud shrieks, unclean spirits came out of many who were possessed, and many of the paralyzed and lame were healed. <sup>8</sup> So there was great joy in that city.

*Simon the Sorcerer
(Deuteronomy 18:9-14)*

<sup>9</sup> Prior to that time, a man named Simon had practiced sorcery in the city and astounded the people of Samaria. He claimed to be someone great, <sup>10</sup> and all the people, from the least to the greatest, heeded his words and said, "This man is the divine power called the Great Power." <sup>11</sup> They paid close attention to him because he had astounded them for a long time with his sorcery.

<sup>12</sup> But when they believed Philip as he preached the gospel of the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. <sup>13</sup> Even Simon himself believed and was baptized. He followed Philip closely and was astounded by the great signs and miracles he observed.

<sup>14</sup> When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them. <sup>15</sup> On their arrival, they prayed for them to receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>16</sup> For the Holy Spirit had not yet fallen upon any of them; they had simply been baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>17</sup> Then Peter and John laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

<sup>18</sup> When Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money. <sup>19</sup> "Give me this power as well," he said, "so that everyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit."

<sup>20</sup> But Peter replied, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could buy the gift of God with money! <sup>21</sup> You have no part or share in our ministry, because your heart is not right before God. <sup>22</sup> Repent, therefore, of your wickedness, and pray to the Lord. Perhaps He will forgive you for the intent of your heart. <sup>23</sup> For I see that you are poisoned by bitterness and captive to iniquity."

<sup>24</sup> Then Simon answered, "Pray to the Lord for me, so that nothing you have said may happen to me."

<sup>25</sup> And after Peter and John had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem, preaching the gospel in many of the Samaritan villages.

*Philip and the Ethiopian
(Isaiah 53:1-8)*

<sup>26</sup> Now an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Get up and go south to the desert road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." <sup>27</sup> So he started out, and on his way he met an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official in charge of the entire treasury of Candace,* queen of the Ethiopians. He had gone to Jerusalem to worship, <sup>28</sup> and on his return was sitting in his chariot reading Isaiah the prophet.

<sup>29</sup> The Spirit said to Philip, "Go over to that chariot and stay by it."

<sup>30</sup> So Philip ran up and heard the man reading Isaiah the prophet. "Do you understand what you are reading?" Philip asked.

<sup>31</sup> "How can I," he said, "unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

<sup>32</sup> The eunuch was reading this passage of Scripture:

"He was led like a sheep to the slaughter;

* 8:27 Greek Kandakē

and as a lamb before the shearer is silent,
so He did not open His mouth.

<sup>33</sup> In His humiliation He was deprived of justice.
Who can recount His descendants?
For His life was removed from the earth.”†

<sup>34</sup> “Tell me,” said the eunuch, “who is the prophet talking about, himself or someone else?”

<sup>35</sup> Then Philip began with this very Scripture and told him the good news about Jesus.

<sup>36</sup> As they traveled along the road and came to some water, the eunuch said, “Look, here is water! What is there to prevent me from being baptized?”‡ <sup>38</sup> And he gave orders to stop the chariot. Then both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and Philip baptized him.

<sup>39</sup> When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord carried Philip away, and the eunuch saw him no more, but went on his way rejoicing. <sup>40</sup> But Philip appeared at Azotus and traveled through that region, preaching the gospel in all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

The Road to Damascus (Acts 22:1–21; Acts 26:1–23)

<sup>1</sup> Meanwhile, Saul was still breathing out murderous threats against the disciples of the Lord. He approached the high priest <sup>2</sup> and requested letters to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any men or women belonging to the Way, he could bring them as prisoners to Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> As Saul drew near to Damascus on his journey, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. <sup>4</sup> He fell to the ground and heard a voice say to him, “Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me?”

“I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting,” He replied.* <sup>6</sup> “Now get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do.”

<sup>7</sup> The men traveling with Saul stood there speechless. They heard the voice but did not see anyone. <sup>8</sup> Saul got up from the ground, but when he opened his eyes he could not see a thing.† So they led him by the hand into Damascus. <sup>9</sup> For three days he was without sight, and he did not eat or drink anything.

Ananias Baptizes Saul

<sup>10</sup> In Damascus there was a disciple named Ananias. The Lord spoke to him in a vision, “Ananias!”

“Here I am, Lord,” he answered.

<sup>11</sup> “Get up!” the Lord told him. “Go to the house of Judas on Straight Street and ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul, for he is praying. <sup>12</sup> In a vision he has seen a man named Ananias come and place his hands on him to restore his sight.”

<sup>13</sup> But Ananias answered, “Lord, many people have told me about this man and all the harm he has done to Your saints in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> And now he is here with authority from the chief priests to arrest all who call on Your name.”

† 8:33 Isaiah 53:7–8 (see also LXX) ‡ 8:36 TR includes 37 And Philip said, “If you believe with all your heart, you may be baptized.” The eunuch replied, “I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.” * 9:5 TR includes “It is hard for you to kick against the goads.” † 9:8 Literally he could see nothing or he could see no one

15 “Go!” said the Lord. “This man is My chosen instrument to carry My name before the Gentiles and their kings, and before the people of Israel. <sup>16</sup> I will show him how much he must suffer for My name.”

17 So Ananias went to the house, and when he arrived, he placed his hands on Saul. “Brother Saul,” he said, “the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road as you were coming here, has sent me so that you may see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit.”

18 At that instant, something like scales fell from Saul’s eyes, and his sight was restored. He got up and was baptized, <sup>19</sup> and after taking some food, he regained his strength. And he spent several days with the disciples in Damascus.

Saul Preaches at Damascus

20 Saul promptly began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, declaring, “He is the Son of God.”

21 All who heard him were astounded and asked, “Isn’t this the man who wreaked havoc in Jerusalem on those who call on this name? And hasn’t he come here to take them as prisoners to the chief priests?”

22 But Saul was empowered all the more, and he confounded the Jews living in Damascus by proving that Jesus is the Christ.

The Escape from Damascus

23 After many days had passed, the Jews conspired to kill him, <sup>24</sup> but Saul learned of their plot. Day and night they watched the city gates in order to kill him. <sup>25</sup> One night, however, his disciples took him and lowered him in a basket through a window in the wall.‡

Saul in Jerusalem

26 When Saul arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. <sup>27</sup> Then Barnabas brought him to the apostles and described how Saul had seen the Lord, who spoke to him on the road to Damascus, and how Saul had spoken boldly in that city in the name of Jesus.

28 So Saul stayed with them, moving about freely in Jerusalem and speaking boldly in the name of the Lord. <sup>29</sup> He talked and debated with the Grecian Jews,§ but they tried to kill him. <sup>30</sup> When the brothers learned of this, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus.

The Healing of Aeneas

31 Then the church throughout Judea, Galilee, and Samaria experienced a time of peace. It grew in strength and numbers, living in the fear of the Lord and the encouragement of the Holy Spirit.

32 As Peter traveled throughout the area, he went to visit the saints in Lydda. <sup>33</sup> There he found a man named Aeneas, who had been paralyzed and bedridden for eight years. <sup>34</sup> “Aeneas,” Peter said to him, “Jesus Christ heals you! Get up and put away your mat.” Immediately Aeneas got up, <sup>35</sup> and all who lived in Lydda and Sharon saw him and turned to the Lord.

The Raising of Tabitha (John 11:38–44)

36 In Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha (which is translated as Dorcas),* who was always occupied with works of kindness and charity. <sup>37</sup> At that time, however, she became sick and died, and her body was washed and placed in an upper room. <sup>38</sup> Since

‡ 9:25 Literally through the wall; see 2 Corinthians 11:33. § 9:29 Or Hellenists * 9:36 Tabitha in Aramaic and Dorcas in Greek both mean gazelle.

Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples heard that Peter was there and sent two men to urge him, "Come to us without delay."

<sup>39</sup> So Peter got up and went with them. On his arrival, they took him to the upper room. All the widows stood around him, weeping and showing him the tunics and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was still with them.

<sup>40</sup> Then Peter sent them all out of the room. He knelt down and prayed, and turning toward her body, he said, "Tabitha, get up!" She opened her eyes, and seeing Peter, she sat up. <sup>41</sup> Peter took her by the hand and helped her up. Then he called the saints and widows and presented her to them alive.

Cornelius Sends for Peter

<sup>1</sup> At Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion in what was called the Italian Regiment. <sup>2</sup> He and all his household were devout and God-fearing. He gave generously to the people and prayed to God regularly. <sup>3</sup> One day at about the ninth hour,* he had a clear vision of an angel of God who came to him and said, "Cornelius!"

The angel answered, "Your prayers and gifts to the poor have ascended as a memorial offering before God. <sup>5</sup> Now send men to Joppa to call for a man named Simon who is called Peter. <sup>6</sup> He is staying with Simon the tanner, whose house is by the sea."

<sup>7</sup> When the angel who spoke to him had gone, Cornelius called two of his servants and a devout soldier from among his attendants. <sup>8</sup> He explained what had happened and sent them to Joppa.

Peter's Vision

(Leviticus 11:1-47; Deuteronomy 14:1-21)

<sup>9</sup> The next day at about the sixth hour,† as the men were approaching the city on their journey, Peter went up on the roof to pray. <sup>10</sup> He became hungry and wanted something to eat, but while the meal was being prepared, he fell into a trance.

<sup>11</sup> He saw heaven open and something like a large sheet being let down to earth by its four corners. <sup>12</sup> It contained all kinds of four-footed animals and reptiles of the earth, as well as birds of the air. <sup>13</sup> Then a voice said to him: "Get up, Peter, kill and eat!"

<sup>15</sup> The voice spoke to him a second time: "Do not call anything impure that God has made clean."

<sup>16</sup> This happened three times, and all at once the sheet was taken back up into heaven.

Peter Called to Caesarea

<sup>17</sup> While Peter was puzzling over the meaning of the vision, the men sent by Cornelius found Simon's house and approached the gate. <sup>18</sup> They called out to ask if Simon called Peter was staying there.

* 10:3 That is, about three in the afternoon; also in verse 30 † 10:6 TR includes He will tell you what you need to do. ‡ 10:9 That is, about noon § 10:14 Literally common; similarly in verses 15 and 28

<sup>19</sup> As Peter continued to reflect on the vision, the Spirit said to him, “Behold, three men are looking for you.” <sup>20</sup> So get up! Go downstairs and accompany them without hesitation, because I have sent them.”

<sup>21</sup> So Peter went down to the men † and said, “Here am I, the one you are looking for. Why have you come?”

<sup>22</sup> “Cornelius the centurion has sent us,” they said. “He is a righteous and God-fearing man with a good reputation among the whole Jewish nation. A holy angel instructed him to request your presence in his home so he could hear a message from you.”

<sup>23</sup> So Peter invited them in as his guests. And the next day he got ready and went with them, accompanied by some of the brothers from Joppa.

Peter Visits Cornelius

<sup>24</sup> The following day he arrived in Caesarea, where Cornelius was expecting them and had called together his relatives and close friends. <sup>25</sup> As Peter was about to enter, Cornelius met him and fell at his feet to worship him. <sup>26</sup> But Peter helped him up. “Stand up,” he said, “I am only a man myself.”

<sup>27</sup> As Peter talked with him, he went inside and found many people gathered together. <sup>28</sup> He said to them, “You know how unlawful it is for a Jew to associate with a foreigner or visit him. But God has shown me that I should not call any man impure or unclean. <sup>29</sup> So when I was invited, I came without objection. I ask, then, why have you sent for me?”

<sup>30</sup> Cornelius answered: “Four days ago I was in my house praying at this, the ninth hour:‡ Suddenly a man in radiant clothing stood before me <sup>31</sup> and said, ‘Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your gifts to the poor have been remembered before God. <sup>32</sup> Therefore send to Joppa for Simon, who is called Peter. He is a guest in the home of Simon the tanner, by the sea.’

<sup>33</sup> So I sent for you immediately, and you were kind enough to come. Now then, we are all here in the presence of God to listen to everything the Lord has instructed you to tell us.”

Good News for the Gentiles

<sup>34</sup> Then Peter began to speak: “I now truly understand that God does not show favoritism, <sup>35</sup> but welcomes those from every nation who fear Him and do what is right. <sup>36</sup> He has sent this message to the people of Israel, proclaiming the gospel of peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all.

<sup>37</sup> You yourselves know what has happened throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee with the baptism that John proclaimed: <sup>38</sup> how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, and how Jesus went around doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, because God was with Him.

<sup>39</sup> We are witnesses of all that He did, both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem. And although they put Him to death by hanging Him on a tree, <sup>40</sup> God raised Him up on the third day and caused Him to be seen— <sup>41</sup> not by all the people, but by the witnesses God had chosen beforehand, by us who ate and drank with Him after He rose from the dead. <sup>42</sup> And He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that He is the One appointed by God to judge the living and the dead. <sup>43</sup> All the prophets testify about Him that everyone who believes in Him receives forgiveness of sins through His name.”

The Gentiles Receive the Holy Spirit (Acts 19:1-7)

* 10:19 ECM, NA, and TR; NE and WH two men are looking for you; SBL, BYZ, and Tischendorf men are looking for you † 10:21 TR the men sent to him by Cornelius ‡ 10:30 BYZ and TR Four days ago I was fasting until this hour, and at the ninth hour I was praying in my house.

<sup>44</sup> While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard his message. <sup>45</sup> All the circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles. <sup>46</sup> For they heard them speaking in tongues and exalting God.

Then Peter said, <sup>47</sup> "Can anyone withhold the water to baptize these people? They have received the Holy Spirit just as we have!" <sup>48</sup> So he ordered that they be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay for a few days.

Peter's Report at Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> The apostles and brothers throughout Judea soon heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. <sup>2</sup> So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcised believers * took issue with him <sup>3</sup> and said, "You visited uncircumcised men and ate with them."

<sup>4</sup> But Peter began and explained to them the whole sequence of events: <sup>5</sup> "I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision of something like a large sheet being let down from heaven by its four corners, and it came right down to me. <sup>6</sup> I looked at it closely and saw four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, reptiles, and birds of the air. <sup>7</sup> Then I heard a voice saying to me, 'Get up, Peter, kill and eat.'

<sup>8</sup> 'No, Lord,' I said, 'for nothing impure † or unclean has ever entered my mouth.'

<sup>9</sup> But the voice spoke from heaven a second time, 'Do not call anything impure that God has made clean.'

<sup>11</sup> Just then three men sent to me from Caesarea stopped at the house where I was staying. <sup>12</sup> The Spirit told me to accompany them without hesitation. These six brothers also went with me, and we entered the man's home. <sup>13</sup> He told us how he had seen an angel standing in his house and saying, 'Send to Joppa for Simon who is called Peter. <sup>14</sup> He will convey to you a message by which you and all your household will be saved.'

<sup>15</sup> As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them, just as He had fallen upon us at the beginning. <sup>16</sup> Then I remembered the word of the Lord, as He used to say, 'John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.'‡ <sup>17</sup> So if God gave them the same gift He gave us who believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I to hinder the work of God?"

<sup>18</sup> When they heard this, their objections were put to rest, and they glorified God, saying, "So then, God has granted even the Gentiles repentance unto life."

The Church at Antioch

<sup>19</sup> Meanwhile those scattered by the persecution that began with Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the message only to Jews. <sup>20</sup> But some of them, men from Cyprus and Cyrene, went to Antioch and began speaking to the Greeks § as well, proclaiming the good news about the Lord Jesus. <sup>21</sup> The hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number of people believed and turned to the Lord.

<sup>22</sup> When news of this reached the ears of the church in Jerusalem, they sent Barnabas to Antioch. <sup>23</sup> When he arrived and saw the grace of God, he rejoiced and encouraged them all to abide in the Lord with all their hearts. <sup>24</sup> Barnabas was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and faith, and a great number of people were brought to the Lord.

* 11:2 Literally those of the circumcision † 11:8 Literally common; similarly in verse 9 ‡ 11:16 Or 'John baptized in water, but in a few days you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit.' Acts 1:5 § 11:20 Or the Hellenists

<sup>25</sup> Then Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul, <sup>26</sup> and when he found him, he brought him back to Antioch. So for a full year they met together with the church and taught large numbers of people. The disciples were first called Christians at Antioch.

<sup>27</sup> In those days some prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. <sup>28</sup> One of them named Agabus stood up and predicted through the Spirit that a great famine would sweep across the whole world.* (This happened under Claudius.) <sup>29</sup> So the disciples, each according to his ability, decided to send relief to the brothers living in Judea. <sup>30</sup> This they did, sending their gifts to the elders with Barnabas and Saul.

12

James Killed, Peter Imprisoned

<sup>3</sup> And seeing that this pleased the Jews, Herod proceeded to seize Peter during the Feast of Unleavened Bread.‡ <sup>4</sup> He arrested him and put him in prison, handing him over to be guarded by four squads of four soldiers each. Herod intended to bring him out to the people after the Passover.

The Rescue of Peter

<sup>5</sup> So Peter was kept in prison, but the church was fervently praying to God for him.

<sup>6</sup> On the night before Herod was to bring him to trial, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, with sentries standing guard at the entrance to the prison. <sup>7</sup> Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared and a light shone in the cell. He tapped Peter on the side and woke him up, saying, "Get up quickly." And the chains fell off his wrists. <sup>8</sup> "Get dressed and put on your sandals," said the angel. Peter did so, and the angel told him, "Wrap your cloak around you and follow me."

<sup>9</sup> So Peter followed him out, but he was unaware that what the angel was doing was real. He thought he was only seeing a vision. <sup>10</sup> They passed the first and second guards and came to the iron gate leading to the city, which opened for them by itself. When they had gone outside and walked the length of one block, the angel suddenly left him.

<sup>11</sup> Then Peter came to himself and said, "Now I know for sure that the Lord has sent His angel and rescued me from Herod's grasp and from everything the Jewish people were anticipating."

<sup>12</sup> And when he had realized this, he went to the house of Mary the mother of John, also called Mark, where many people had gathered together and were praying. <sup>13</sup> He knocked at the outer gate, and a servant girl named Rhoda came to answer it. <sup>14</sup> When she recognized Peter's voice, she was so overjoyed that she forgot to open the gate, but ran inside and announced, "Peter is standing at the gate!"

<sup>15</sup> "You are out of your mind," they told her. But when she kept insisting it was so, they said, "It must be his angel."

<sup>16</sup> But Peter kept on knocking, and when they opened the door and saw him, they were astounded. <sup>17</sup> Peter motioned with his hand for silence, and he described how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. "Send word to James and to the brothers," he said, and he left for another place.

<sup>18</sup> At daybreak there was no small commotion among the soldiers as to what had become of Peter. <sup>19</sup> After Herod had searched for him unsuccessfully, he examined the guards and ordered that they be executed. Then he went down from Judea to Caesarea and spent some time there.

* 11:28 Or the entire Roman world * 12:1 That is, King Herod Agrippa † 12:1 Literally put forth the hands to mistreat ‡ 12:3 Literally seize Peter—now these were the days of the Unleavened; see Exodus 12:14–20.

The Death of Herod

<sup>20</sup> Now Herod was in a furious dispute § with the people of Tyre and Sidon, and they convened before him. Having secured the support of Blastus, the king's chamberlain, they asked for peace, because their region depended on the king's country for food. <sup>21</sup> On the appointed day, Herod donned his royal robes, sat on his throne, and addressed the people. <sup>22</sup> And they began to shout, "This is the voice of a god, not a man!"

<sup>23</sup> Immediately, because Herod did not give glory to God, an angel of the Lord struck him down, and he was eaten by worms and died.

13

Paul's First Missionary Journey Begins (Acts 15:36–41; Acts 18:23–28)

<sup>1</sup> Now in the church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen (who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch), and Saul. <sup>2</sup> While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for Me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." <sup>3</sup> And after they had fasted and prayed, they laid their hands on them and sent them off.

On Cyprus

<sup>4</sup> So Barnabas and Saul, sent forth by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia and sailed from there to Cyprus. <sup>5</sup> When they arrived at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. And John was with them as their helper.

<sup>6</sup> They traveled through the whole island as far as Paphos, where they found a Jewish sorcerer and false prophet named Bar-Jesus, <sup>7</sup> an attendant of the proconsul, Sergius Paulus. The proconsul, a man of intelligence, summoned Barnabas and Saul because he wanted to hear the word of God. <sup>8</sup> But Elymas the sorcerer (for that is what his name means) opposed them and tried to turn the proconsul from the faith.

<sup>9</sup> Then Saul, who was also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked directly at Elymas <sup>10</sup> and said, "O child of the devil and enemy of all righteousness, you are full of all kinds of deceit and trickery! Will you never stop perverting the straight ways of the Lord? <sup>11</sup> Now look, the hand of the Lord is against you, and for a time you will be blind and unable to see the light of the sun." Immediately mist and darkness came over him, and he groped about, seeking someone to lead him by the hand.

<sup>12</sup> When the proconsul saw what had happened, he believed, for he was astonished at the teaching about the Lord.

In Pisidian Antioch

<sup>13</sup> After setting sail from Paphos, Paul and his companions came to Perga in Pamphylia, where John left them to return to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> And from Perga, they traveled inland to Pisidian Antioch, where they entered the synagogue on the Sabbath and sat down. <sup>15</sup> After the reading from the Law and the Prophets, the synagogue leaders sent word to them: "Brothers, if you have a word of encouragement for the people, please speak."

<sup>16</sup> Paul stood up, motioned with his hand, and began to speak: "Men of Israel and you Gentiles who fear God, listen to me! <sup>17</sup> The God of the people of Israel chose our fathers. He made them into a great people during their stay in Egypt, and with an uplifted arm He led them out of that land. <sup>18</sup> He endured their conduct for about forty years in the wilderness. <sup>19</sup> And having vanquished seven nations in Canaan, He gave their land to His people as an inheritance. <sup>20</sup> All this took about 450 years.

After this, God gave them judges until the time of Samuel the prophet. <sup>21</sup> Then the people asked for a king, and God gave them forty years under Saul son of Kish, from the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>22</sup> After removing Saul, He raised up David as their king and testified about him: 'I have found David son of Jesse a man after My own heart; he will carry out My will in its entirety.'*

<sup>23</sup> From the descendants of this man, God has brought to Israel the Savior Jesus, as He promised. <sup>24</sup> Before the arrival of Jesus, John preached a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. <sup>25</sup> As John was completing his course, he said, 'Who do you suppose I am? I am not that One. But He is coming after me whose sandals I am not worthy to untie.'†

<sup>26</sup> Brothers, children of Abraham, and you Gentiles who fear God, it is to us that this message of salvation has been sent. <sup>27</sup> The people of Jerusalem and their rulers did not recognize Jesus, yet in condemning Him they fulfilled the words of the prophets that are read every Sabbath. <sup>28</sup> And though they found no ground for a death sentence, they asked Pilate to have Him executed.

<sup>29</sup> When they had carried out all that was written about Him, they took Him down from the tree and laid Him in a tomb. <sup>30</sup> But God raised Him from the dead, <sup>31</sup> and for many days He was seen by those who had accompanied Him from Galilee to Jerusalem. They are now His witnesses to our people.

<sup>32</sup> And now we proclaim to you the good news: What God promised our fathers <sup>33</sup> He has fulfilled for us, their children, by raising up Jesus. As it is written in the second Psalm:

'You are My Son;
today I have become Your Father.'‡

<sup>34</sup> In fact, God raised Him from the dead, never to see decay. As He has said:

'I will give you the holy and sure blessings promised to David.'§

<sup>35</sup> So also, He says in another Psalm:

'You will not let Your Holy One see decay.'*

<sup>36</sup> For when David had served God's purpose in his own generation, he fell asleep. His body was buried with his fathers and saw decay. <sup>37</sup> But the One whom God raised from the dead did not see decay.

<sup>38</sup> Therefore let it be known to you, brothers, that through Jesus the forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you. <sup>39</sup> Through Him everyone who believes is justified from everything you could not be justified from by the law of Moses. <sup>40</sup> Watch out, then, that what was spoken by the prophets does not happen to you:

<sup>41</sup> 'Look, you scoffers, wonder and perish!
For I am doing a work in your days
that you would never believe,
even if someone told you.'†

<sup>42</sup> As Paul and Barnabas were leaving the synagogue, the people urged them to continue this message on the next Sabbath. <sup>43</sup> After the synagogue was dismissed, many of the Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to continue in the grace of God.

<sup>44</sup> On the following Sabbath, nearly the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. <sup>45</sup> But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy, and they blasphemously contradicted what Paul was saying.

<sup>46</sup> Then Paul and Barnabas answered them boldly: "It was necessary to speak the word of God to you first. But since you reject it and do not consider yourselves worthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles. <sup>47</sup> For this is what the Lord has commanded us:

'I have made you a light for the Gentiles, to bring salvation to the ends of the earth.'‡"

<sup>48</sup> When the Gentiles heard this, they rejoiced and glorified the word of the Lord, and all who were appointed for eternal life believed. <sup>49</sup> And the word of the Lord spread throughout that region.

<sup>50</sup> The Jews, however, incited the religious women of prominence and the leading men of the city. They stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas and drove them out of their district. <sup>51</sup> So they shook the dust off their feet in protest against them and went to Iconium. <sup>52</sup> And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

14

Paul and Barnabas at Iconium

<sup>1</sup> At Iconium, Paul and Barnabas went as usual into the Jewish synagogue, where they spoke so well that a great number of Jews and Greeks believed. <sup>2</sup> But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers. <sup>3</sup> So Paul and Barnabas spent considerable time there, speaking boldly for the Lord, who affirmed the message of His grace by enabling them to perform signs and wonders.

<sup>4</sup> The people of the city were divided. Some sided with the Jews, and others with the apostles. <sup>5</sup> But when the Gentiles and Jews, together with their rulers, set out to mistreat and stone them, <sup>6</sup> they found out about it and fled to the Lycaonian cities of Lystra and Derbe and to the surrounding region, <sup>7</sup> where they continued to preach the gospel.

The Visit to Lystra and Derbe

<sup>8</sup> In Lystra there sat a man crippled in his feet, who was lame from birth and had never walked. <sup>9</sup> This man was listening to the words of Paul, who looked intently at him and saw that he had faith to be healed. <sup>10</sup> In a loud voice Paul called out, "Stand up on your feet!" And the man jumped up and began to walk.

<sup>11</sup> When the crowds saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices in the Lycaonian language: "The gods have come down to us in human form!" <sup>12</sup> Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul they called Hermes, because he was the chief speaker. <sup>13</sup> The priest of Zeus, whose temple was just outside the city, brought bulls and wreaths to the city gates, hoping to offer a sacrifice along with the crowds.

<sup>14</sup> But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul found out about this, they tore their clothes and rushed into the crowd, shouting, <sup>15</sup> "Men, why are you doing this? We too are only men, human like you. We are bringing you good news that you should turn from these worthless things to the living God, who made heaven and earth and sea and everything in them. <sup>16</sup> In past generations, He let all nations go their own way. <sup>17</sup> Yet He has not left Himself without testimony to His goodness: He gives you rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food and gladness."

<sup>19</sup> Then some Jews arrived from Antioch and Iconium and won over the crowds. They stoned Paul and dragged him outside the city, presuming he was dead. <sup>20</sup> But after the disciples had gathered around him, he got up and went back into the city. And the next day he left with Barnabas for Derbe.

Strengthening the Disciples

<sup>21</sup> They preached the gospel to that city and made many disciples. Then they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, <sup>22</sup> strengthening the souls of the disciples and encouraging them to continue in the faith. "We must endure many hardships to enter the kingdom of God," they said.

<sup>23</sup> Paul and Barnabas appointed elders for them in each church, praying and fasting as they entrusted them to the Lord, in whom they had believed.

<sup>24</sup> After passing through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. <sup>25</sup> And when they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.

<sup>26</sup> From Attalia they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work they had just completed. <sup>27</sup> When they arrived, they gathered the church together and reported all that God had done through them, and how He had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles. <sup>28</sup> And they spent a long time there with the disciples.

15

The Dispute over Circumcision

<sup>1</sup> Then some men came down from Judea and were teaching the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved." <sup>2</sup> And after engaging these men in sharp debate, Paul and Barnabas were appointed, along with some other believers, to go up to Jerusalem to see the apostles and elders about this question.

<sup>3</sup> Sent on their way by the church, they passed through Phoenicia and Samaria, recounting the conversion of the Gentiles and bringing great joy to all the brothers. <sup>4</sup> On their arrival in Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and apostles and elders, to whom they reported all that God had done through them.

The Council at Jerusalem (Amos 9:11-15; Galatians 2:1-10)

<sup>5</sup> But some believers from the party of the Pharisees stood up and declared, "The Gentiles must be circumcised and required to obey the law of Moses." <sup>6</sup> So the apostles and elders met to look into this matter.

<sup>7</sup> After much discussion, Peter got up and said to them, "Brothers, you know that in the early days God made a choice among you that the Gentiles would hear from my lips the message of the gospel and believe. <sup>8</sup> And God, who knows the heart, showed His approval by giving the Holy Spirit to them, just as He did to us. <sup>9</sup> He made no distinction between us and them, for He cleansed their hearts by faith.

<sup>10</sup> Now then, why do you test God by placing on the necks of the disciples a yoke that neither we nor our fathers have been able to bear? <sup>11</sup> On the contrary, we believe it is through the grace of the Lord Jesus that we are saved, just as they are."

<sup>12</sup> The whole assembly fell silent as they listened to Barnabas and Paul describing the signs and wonders God had done among the Gentiles through them. <sup>13</sup> When they had finished speaking, James declared, "Brothers, listen to me! <sup>14</sup> Simon * has told us how

---

* 15:14 Greek Simeon, a variant of Simon

God first visited the Gentiles to take from them a people to be His own. <sup>15</sup> The words of the prophets agree with this, as it is written:

<sup>16</sup> ‘After this I will return and rebuild
the fallen tent of David.

Its ruins I will rebuild,
and I will restore it,

<sup>17</sup> so that the remnant of men may seek the Lord, and all the Gentiles who are called by My name, says the Lord who does these things

<sup>18</sup> that have been known for ages.’†

<sup>19</sup> It is my judgment, therefore, that we should not cause trouble for the Gentiles who are turning to God. <sup>20</sup> Instead, we should write and tell them to abstain from food polluted by idols, from sexual immorality, from the meat of strangled animals, and from blood.

<sup>21</sup> For Moses has been proclaimed in every city from ancient times and is read in the synagogues on every Sabbath.”

The Letter to the Gentile Believers

<sup>22</sup> Then the apostles and elders, with the whole church, decided to select men from among them to send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. They chose Judas called Barsabbas and Silas, two leaders among the brothers, <sup>23</sup> and sent them with this letter:

The apostles and the elders, your brothers,

To the brothers among the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia:

Greetings.

<sup>24</sup> It has come to our attention that some went out from us without our authorization and unsettled you, troubling your minds by what they said.‡ <sup>25</sup> So we all agreed to choose men to send to you along with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, <sup>26</sup> men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>27</sup> Therefore we are sending Judas and Silas to tell you in person the same things we are writing.

<sup>28</sup> It seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us not to burden you with anything beyond these essential requirements: <sup>29</sup> You must abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals, and from sexual immorality. You will do well to avoid these things.

Farewell.

The Believers at Antioch Rejoice

<sup>30</sup> So the men were sent off and went down to Antioch, where they assembled the congregation and delivered the letter. <sup>31</sup> When the people read it, they rejoiced at its encouraging message.

<sup>32</sup> Judas and Silas, who themselves were prophets, said much to encourage and strengthen the brothers. <sup>33</sup> After spending some time there, they were sent off by the brothers in peace to return to those who had sent them.§ <sup>35</sup> But Paul and Barnabas remained at Antioch, along with many others, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord.

Paul's Second Missionary Journey Begins
(Acts 13:1-3; Acts 18:23-28)

<sup>36</sup> Some time later Paul said to Barnabas, “Let us go back and visit the brothers in every town where we proclaimed the word of the Lord, to see how they are doing.” <sup>37</sup> Barnabas

<sup>39</sup> Their disagreement was so sharp that they parted company. Barnabas took Mark and sailed for Cyprus, <sup>40</sup> but Paul chose Silas and left, commended by the brothers to the grace of the Lord. <sup>41</sup> And he traveled through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

Timothy Joins Paul and Silas

<sup>1</sup> Paul came to Derbe and then to Lystra, where he found a disciple named Timothy, the son of a believing Jewish woman and a Greek father. <sup>2</sup> The brothers in Lystra and Iconium spoke well of him. <sup>3</sup> Paul wanted Timothy to accompany him, so he took him and circumcised him on account of the Jews in that area, for they all knew that his father was a Greek.

<sup>4</sup> As they went from town to town, they delivered the decisions handed down by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem for the people to obey. <sup>5</sup> So the churches were strengthened in the faith and grew daily in numbers.

Paul's Vision of the Macedonian

<sup>6</sup> After the Holy Spirit had prevented them from speaking the word in the province of Asia,* they traveled through the region of Phrygia and Galatia. <sup>7</sup> And when they came to the border of Mysia, they tried to enter Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus would not permit them. <sup>8</sup> So they passed by Mysia and went down to Troas.

<sup>9</sup> During the night, Paul had a vision of a man of Macedonia standing and pleading with him, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." <sup>10</sup> As soon as Paul had seen the vision, we got ready to leave for Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them.

Lydia's Conversion in Philippi (Revelation 2:18–29)

<sup>11</sup> We sailed from Troas straight to Samothrace, and the following day on to Neapolis. <sup>12</sup> From there we went to the Roman colony of Philippi, the leading city of that district of Macedonia.† And we stayed there several days.

<sup>13</sup> On the Sabbath we went outside the city gate along the river, where it was customary to find a place of prayer. After sitting down, we spoke to the women who had gathered there.

<sup>14</sup> Among those listening was a woman named Lydia, a dealer in purple cloth from the city of Thyatira, who was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to respond to Paul's message. <sup>15</sup> And when she and her household had been baptized, she urged us, "If you consider me a believer in the Lord, come and stay at my house." And she persuaded us.

Paul and Silas Imprisoned

<sup>16</sup> One day as we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave girl with a spirit of divination,‡ who earned a large income for her masters by fortune-telling. <sup>17</sup> This girl followed Paul and the rest of us, shouting, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who are proclaiming to you the way of salvation!"

<sup>18</sup> She continued this for many days. Eventually Paul grew so aggravated that he turned and said to the spirit, "In the name of Jesus Christ I command you to come out of her!" And the spirit left her at that very moment.

* 16:6 Literally in Asia; Asia was a Roman province in what is now western Turkey. † 16:12 Literally we went to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia—a colony ‡ 16:16 Greek a spirit of Python; that is, a spirit of divination named after the mythical serpent slain by Apollo

<sup>19</sup> When the girl's owners saw that their hope of making money was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them before the authorities in the marketplace. <sup>20</sup> They brought them to the magistrates and said, "These men are Jews and are throwing our city into turmoil <sup>21</sup> by promoting customs that are unlawful for us Romans to adopt or practice."

The Conversion of the Jailer

<sup>25</sup> About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them. <sup>26</sup> Suddenly a strong earthquake shook the foundations of the prison. At once all the doors flew open and everyone's chains came loose.

<sup>27</sup> When the jailer woke up and saw the prison doors open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, presuming that the prisoners had escaped. <sup>28</sup> But Paul called out in a loud voice, "Do not harm yourself! We are all here!"

<sup>29</sup> Calling for lights, the jailer rushed in and fell trembling before Paul and Silas. <sup>30</sup> Then he brought them out and asked, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

<sup>31</sup> They replied, "Believe in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved, you and your household." <sup>32</sup> Then Paul and Silas spoke the word of the Lord to him and to everyone in his house. <sup>33</sup> At that hour of the night, the jailer took them and washed their wounds. And without delay, he and all his household were baptized. <sup>34</sup> Then he brought them into his home and set a meal before them. So he and all his household rejoiced that they had come to believe in God.

An Official Apology

<sup>35</sup> When daylight came, the magistrates sent their officers with the order: "Release those men."

<sup>36</sup> The jailer informed Paul: "The magistrates have sent orders to release you. Now you may go on your way in peace."

<sup>37</sup> But Paul said to the officers, "They beat us publicly without a trial and threw us into prison, even though we are Roman citizens. And now do they want to send us away secretly? Absolutely not! Let them come themselves and escort us out!"

<sup>38</sup> So the officers relayed this message to the magistrates, who were alarmed to hear that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens. <sup>39</sup> They came to appease them and led them out, requesting that they leave the city. <sup>40</sup> After Paul and Silas came out of the prison, they went to Lydia's house to see the brothers and encourage them. Then they left the city.

The Uproar in Thessalonica

<sup>1</sup> When they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue. <sup>2</sup> As was his custom, Paul went into the synagogue, and on three Sabbaths he reasoned with them from the Scriptures, <sup>3</sup> explaining and proving that the Christ had to suffer and rise from the dead. "This Jesus I am proclaiming to you is the Christ," he declared. <sup>4</sup> Some of the Jews were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, along with a large number of God-fearing Greeks and quite a few leading women.

<sup>5</sup> The Jews, however, became jealous. So they brought in some troublemakers from the marketplace, formed a mob, and sent the city into an uproar. They raided Jason's house in search of Paul and Silas, hoping to bring them out to the people. <sup>6</sup> But when they could not find them, they dragged Jason and some other brothers before the city officials, shouting, "These men who have turned the world upside down have now come here, <sup>7</sup> and Jason has welcomed them into his home. They are all defying Caesar's decrees, saying that there is another king, named Jesus!"

<sup>8</sup> On hearing this, the crowd and city officials were greatly disturbed. <sup>9</sup> And they collected bond from Jason and the others, and then released them.

The Character of the Bereans

<sup>10</sup> As soon as night had fallen, the brothers sent Paul and Silas away to Berea. On arriving there, they went into the Jewish synagogue. <sup>11</sup> Now the Bereans were more noble-minded than the Thessalonians, for they received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures every day to see if these teachings were true.* <sup>12</sup> As a result, many of them believed, along with quite a few prominent Greek women and men.

<sup>13</sup> But when the Jews from Thessalonica learned that Paul was also proclaiming the word of God in Berea, they went there themselves to incite and agitate the crowds. <sup>14</sup> The brothers immediately sent Paul to the coast, but Silas and Timothy remained in Berea. <sup>15</sup> Those who escorted Paul brought him to Athens and then returned with instructions for Silas and Timothy to join him as soon as possible.

Paul in Athens

<sup>16</sup> While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, he was deeply disturbed in his spirit to see that the city was full of idols. <sup>17</sup> So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and God-fearing Gentiles, and in the marketplace with those he met each day.

<sup>18</sup> Some Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also began to debate with him. Some of them asked, "What is this babbling trying to say?" Others said, "He seems to be advocating foreign gods." They said this because Paul was proclaiming the good news of Jesus and the resurrection.

<sup>19</sup> So they took Paul and brought him to the Areopagus,† where they asked him, "May we know what this new teaching is that you are presenting? <sup>20</sup> For you are bringing some strange notions to our ears, and we want to know what they mean."

<sup>21</sup> Now all the Athenians and foreigners who lived there spent their time doing nothing more than hearing and articulating new ideas.

Paul's Address in the Areopagus

<sup>22</sup> Then Paul stood up in the meeting ‡ of the Areopagus and said, "Men of Athens, I see that in every way you are very religious. <sup>23</sup> For as I walked around and examined your objects of worship, I even found an altar with this inscription:

TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.

Therefore what you worship as something unknown, I now proclaim to you.

<sup>24</sup> The God who made the world and everything in it is the Lord of heaven and earth and does not live in temples made by human hands. <sup>25</sup> Nor is He served by human hands, as if He needed anything, because He Himself gives everyone life and breath and everything else. <sup>26</sup> From one man § He made every nation of men, that they should inhabit the whole earth; and He determined their appointed times and the boundaries of their lands.

<sup>27</sup> God intended that they would seek Him and perhaps reach out for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us. <sup>28</sup> For in Him we live and move and have

30 Although God overlooked the ignorance of earlier times, He now commands all people everywhere to repent. 31 For He has set a day when He will judge the world with justice by the Man He has appointed. He has given proof of this to everyone by raising Him from the dead."

32 When they heard about the resurrection of the dead, some began to mock him, but others said, "We want to hear you again on this topic." 33 At that, Paul left the Areopagus. 34 But some ‡ joined him and believed, including Dionysius the Areopagite, a woman named Damaris, and others who were with them.

Paul Ministers in Corinth (1 Corinthians 1:1-3; 2 Corinthians 1:1-2)

1 After this, Paul left Athens and went to Corinth. 2 There he found a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla because Claudius had ordered all the Jews to leave Rome. Paul went to visit them, 3 and he stayed and worked with them because they were tentmakers by trade, just as he was.

4 Every Sabbath he reasoned in the synagogue, trying to persuade Jews and Greeks alike. 5 And when Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul devoted himself fully to the word, testifying to the Jews that Jesus is the Christ. 6 But when they opposed and insulted him, he shook out his garments and told them, "Your blood be on your own heads! I am innocent of it. From now on I will go to the Gentiles."

7 So Paul left the synagogue and went next door to the house of Titus Justus,* a worshiper of God. 8 Crispus, the synagogue leader, and his whole household believed in the Lord. And many of the Corinthians who heard the message believed and were baptized.

9 One night the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision: "Do not be afraid; keep on speaking; do not be silent. 10 For I am with you and no one will lay a hand on you, because I have many people in this city." 11 So Paul stayed for a year and a half, teaching the word of God among the Corinthians.

Paul before Gallio

12 While Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews coordinated an attack on Paul and brought him before the judgment seat. 13 "This man is persuading the people to worship God in ways contrary to the law," they said.

14 But just as Paul was about to speak, Gallio told the Jews, "If this matter involved a wrongdoing or vicious crime, O Jews, it would be reasonable for me to hear your complaint. 15 But since it is a dispute about words and names and your own law, settle it yourselves. I refuse to be a judge of such things." 16 And he drove them away from the judgment seat.

17 At this, the crowd† seized Sosthenes the synagogue leader and beat him in front of the judgment seat. But none of this was of concern to Gallio.

Paul Returns to Antioch

18 Paul remained in Corinth for quite some time before saying goodbye to the brothers. He had his head shaved in Cenchrea to keep a vow he had made, and then he sailed for Syria, accompanied by Priscilla and Aquila.

* 17:28 This is probably a quote from the Cretan philosopher Epimenides of Knossos. † 17:28 This is probably a quote from the poem "Phainomena" by the Cilician philosopher Aratus. ‡ 17:34 Literally some men * 18:7 ECM; NA, SBL, NE, and WH Titius Justus; BYZ and TR Justus † 18:17 Literally they all; BYZ and TR all the Greeks

<sup>19</sup> When they reached Ephesus, Paul parted ways with Priscilla and Aquila. He himself went into the synagogue there and reasoned with the Jews. <sup>20</sup> When they asked him to stay for a while longer, he declined. <sup>21</sup> But as he left, he said, "I will come back ‡ to you if God is willing." And he set sail from Ephesus.

<sup>22</sup> When Paul had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the church at Jerusalem. § Then he went down to Antioch.

Paul's Third Missionary Journey Begins
(Acts 13:1-3; Acts 15:36-41)

<sup>23</sup> After Paul had spent some time in Antioch, he traveled from place to place throughout the region of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.

<sup>24</sup> Meanwhile a Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was an eloquent man, well versed in the Scriptures. <sup>25</sup> He had been instructed in the way of the Lord and was fervent in spirit. He spoke and taught accurately about Jesus,* though he knew only the baptism of John. <sup>26</sup> And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him in and explained to him the way of God more accurately.

<sup>27</sup> When Apollos resolved to cross over to Achaia, the brothers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples there to welcome him. On his arrival, he was a great help to those who by grace had believed. <sup>28</sup> For he powerfully refuted the Jews in public debate, proving from the Scriptures that Jesus is the Christ.

19

The Holy Spirit Received at Ephesus
(Acts 10:44-48)

<sup>1</sup> While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the interior * and came to Ephesus. There he found some disciples <sup>2</sup> and asked them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you became believers?"

"No," they answered, "we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit."

<sup>3</sup> "Into what, then, were you baptized?" Paul asked.

"The baptism of John," they replied.

<sup>4</sup> Paul explained: "John's baptism was a baptism of repentance. He told the people to believe in the One coming after him, that is, in Jesus."

<sup>5</sup> On hearing this, they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>6</sup> And when Paul laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they spoke in tongues and prophesied. <sup>7</sup> There were about twelve men in all.

Paul Ministers in Ephesus
(Ephesians 1:1-2; Revelation 2:1-7)

<sup>8</sup> Then Paul went into the synagogue and spoke boldly there for three months, arguing persuasively about the kingdom of God. <sup>9</sup> But when some of them stubbornly refused to believe and publicly maligned the Way, Paul took his disciples and left the synagogue to conduct daily discussions in the lecture hall of Tyrannus. <sup>10</sup> This continued for two years, so that everyone who lived in the province of Asia,† Jews and Greeks alike, heard the word of the Lord.

11 God did extraordinary miracles through the hands of Paul, <sup>12</sup> so that even handkerchiefs ‡ and aprons that had touched him were taken to the sick, and the diseases and evil spirits left them.

Seven Sons of Sceva

13 Now there were some itinerant Jewish exorcists who tried to invoke the name of the Lord Jesus over those with evil spirits. They would say, "I bind you by Jesus, whom Paul proclaims." <sup>14</sup> Seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this.

15 Eventually, one of the evil spirits answered them, "Jesus I know, and I know about Paul, but who are you?" <sup>16</sup> Then the man with the evil spirit jumped on them and overpowered them all. The attack was so violent that they ran out of the house naked and wounded.

17 This became known to all the Jews and Greeks living in Ephesus, and fear came over all of them. So the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honor. <sup>18</sup> Many who had believed now came forward, confessing and disclosing their deeds. <sup>19</sup> And a number of those who had practiced magic arts brought their books and burned them in front of everyone. When the value of the books was calculated, the total came to fifty thousand drachmas. § <sup>20</sup> So the word of the Lord powerfully continued to spread and prevail.

The Riot in Ephesus

<sup>21</sup> After these things had happened, Paul resolved in the Spirit * to go to Jerusalem after he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia. "After I have been there," he said, "I must see Rome as well." <sup>22</sup> He sent two of his helpers, Timothy and Erastus, to Macedonia, while he stayed for a time in the province of Asia.

<sup>25</sup> Demetrius assembled the craftsmen, along with the workmen in related trades. "Men," he said, "you know that this business is our source of prosperity. <sup>26</sup> And you can see and hear that not only in Ephesus, but in nearly the whole province of Asia, Paul has persuaded a great number of people to turn away. He says that man-made gods are no gods at all. <sup>27</sup> There is danger not only that our business will fall into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be discredited and her majesty deposed—she who is worshiped by all the province of Asia and the whole world."

<sup>28</sup> When the men heard this, they were enraged and began shouting, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!" <sup>29</sup> Soon the whole city was in disarray. They rushed together into the theatre, dragging with them Gaius and Aristarchus, Paul's traveling companions from Macedonia.

<sup>32</sup> Meanwhile the assembly was in turmoil. Some were shouting one thing and some another, and most of them did not even know why they were there. <sup>33</sup> The Jews in the crowd pushed Alexander forward to explain himself, and he motioned for silence so he could make his defense to the people. <sup>34</sup> But when they realized that he was a Jew, they all shouted in unison for about two hours: "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

<sup>35</sup> Finally the city clerk quieted the crowd and declared, "Men of Ephesus, doesn't everyone know that the city of Ephesus is guardian of the temple of the great Artemis and of her image, which fell from heaven? <sup>36</sup> Since these things are undeniable, you

<sup>38</sup> So if Demetrius and his fellow craftsmen have a complaint against anyone, the courts are open and proconsuls are available. Let them bring charges against one another there. <sup>39</sup> But if you are seeking anything beyond this, it must be settled in a legal assembly. <sup>40</sup> For we are in jeopardy of being charged with rioting for today's events, and we have no justification to account for this commotion."

<sup>41</sup> After he had said this, he dismissed the assembly.

Paul in Macedonia and Greece

<sup>1</sup> When the uproar had ended, Paul sent for the disciples. And after encouraging them, he said goodbye to them and left for Macedonia. <sup>2</sup> After traveling through that area and speaking many words of encouragement, he arrived in Greece, <sup>3</sup> where he stayed three months. And when the Jews formed a plot against him as he was about to sail for Syria, he decided to go back through Macedonia.

<sup>4</sup> Paul was accompanied by Sopater son of Pyrrhus from Berea, Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, Gaius from Derbe, Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus from the province of Asia.* <sup>5</sup> These men went on ahead and waited for us in Troas. <sup>6</sup> And after the Feast of Unleavened Bread,† we sailed from Philippi, and five days later we rejoined them in Troas, where we stayed seven days.

Eutychus Revived at Troas (2 Kings 4:18-37)

<sup>7</sup> On the first day of the week we came together to break bread. Since Paul was ready to leave the next day, he talked to them and kept on speaking until midnight.

<sup>8</sup> Now there were many lamps in the upper room where we were gathered. <sup>9</sup> And a certain young man named Eutychus, seated in the window, was sinking into a deep sleep as Paul talked on and on. When he was sound asleep, he fell from the third story and was picked up dead. <sup>10</sup> But Paul went down, threw himself on the young man, and embraced him. "Do not be alarmed!" he said. "He is still alive!"

<sup>11</sup> Then Paul went back upstairs, broke bread, and ate. And after speaking until daybreak, he departed. <sup>12</sup> And the people were greatly relieved to take the boy home alive.

From Troas to Miletus

<sup>13</sup> We went on ahead to the ship and sailed to Assos, where we were to take Paul aboard. He had arranged this because he was going there on foot. <sup>14</sup> And when he met us at Assos, we took him aboard and went on to Mitylene. <sup>15</sup> Sailing on from there, we arrived the next day opposite Chios. The day after that we arrived at Samos, and ‡ on the following day we came to Miletus.

<sup>16</sup> Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus to avoid spending time in the province of Asia, because he was in a hurry to reach Jerusalem, if possible, by the day of Pentecost.§

Paul's Farewell to the Ephesians

* 20:4 Literally from Asia; Asia was a Roman province in what is now western Turkey; also in verses 16 and 18.
 † 20:6 Literally after the days of the Unleavened; see Exodus 12:14-20. ‡ 20:15 BYZ and TR and, after remaining at Trogyllium, § 20:16 That is, Shavuot, the late spring feast of pilgrimage to Jerusalem; it is also known as the Feast of Harvest (see Exodus 23:16) or the Feast of Weeks (see Exodus 34:22).

<sup>18</sup> When they came to him, he said, "You know how I lived the whole time I was with you, from the first day I arrived in the province of Asia. <sup>19</sup> I served the Lord with great humility and with tears, especially in the trials that came upon me through the plots of the Jews. <sup>20</sup> I did not shrink back from declaring anything that was helpful to you as I taught you publicly and from house to house, <sup>21</sup> testifying to Jews and Greeks alike about repentance to God and faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.*

<sup>22</sup> And now, compelled by the Spirit, I am going to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there. <sup>23</sup> I only know that in town after town the Holy Spirit warns me that chains and afflictions await me. <sup>24</sup> But I consider my life of no value to me, if only I may finish my course and complete the ministry I have received from the Lord Jesus—the ministry of testifying to the good news of God's grace.

<sup>25</sup> Now I know that none of you among whom I have preached the kingdom will see my face again. <sup>26</sup> Therefore I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all men.† <sup>27</sup> For I did not shrink back from declaring to you the whole will of God.

<sup>28</sup> Keep watch over yourselves and the entire flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers. Be shepherds of the church of God,‡ which He purchased with His own blood.§ <sup>29</sup> I know that after my departure, savage wolves will come in among you and will not spare the flock. <sup>30</sup> Even from your own number, men will rise up and distort the truth to draw away disciples after them. <sup>31</sup> Therefore be alert and remember that for three years I never stopped warning each of you night and day with tears.

<sup>32</sup> And now I commit you to God and to the word of His grace, which can build you up and give you an inheritance among all who are sanctified.

<sup>33</sup> I have not coveted anyone's silver or gold or clothing. <sup>34</sup> You yourselves know that these hands of mine have ministered to my own needs and those of my companions. <sup>35</sup> In everything, I showed you that by this kind of hard work we must help the weak, remembering the words of the Lord Jesus Himself: 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.' "

<sup>36</sup> When Paul had said this, he knelt down with all of them and prayed. <sup>37</sup> They all wept openly as they embraced Paul and kissed him. <sup>38</sup> They were especially grieved by his statement that they would never see his face again. Then they accompanied him to the ship.

Paul's Journey to Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> After we had torn ourselves away from them, we sailed directly to Cos, and the next day on to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. <sup>2</sup> Finding a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we boarded it and set sail. <sup>3</sup> After sighting Cyprus and passing south of it, we sailed on to Syria and landed at Tyre, where the ship was to unload its cargo.

<sup>4</sup> We sought out the disciples in Tyre and stayed with them seven days. Through the Spirit they kept telling Paul not to go up to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> But when our time there had ended, we set out on our journey. All the disciples, with their wives and children, accompanied us out of the city and knelt down on the beach to pray with us. <sup>6</sup> And after we had said our farewells, we went aboard the ship, and they returned home.

<sup>7</sup> When we had finished our voyage from Tyre, we landed at Ptolemais, where we greeted the brothers and stayed with them for a day.

<sup>8</sup> Leaving the next day, we went on to Caesarea and stayed at the home of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the Seven.* <sup>9</sup> He had four unmarried daughters who prophesied.

<sup>10</sup> After we had been there several days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. <sup>11</sup> Coming over to us, he took Paul's belt, bound his own feet and hands, and said, "The Holy Spirit says: 'In this way the Jews of Jerusalem will bind the owner of this belt and hand him over to the Gentiles.' " <sup>12</sup> When we heard this, we and the people there pleaded with Paul not to go up to Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> Then Paul answered, "Why are you weeping and breaking my heart? I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." <sup>14</sup> When he would not be dissuaded, we fell silent and said, "The Lord's will be done."

<sup>15</sup> After these days, we packed up and went on to Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup> Some of the disciples from Caesarea accompanied us, and they took us to stay at the home of Mnason the Cypriot, an early disciple.

Paul's Arrival at Jerusalem

<sup>17</sup> When we arrived in Jerusalem, the brothers welcomed us joyfully. <sup>18</sup> The next day Paul went in with us to see James, and all the elders were present. <sup>19</sup> Paul greeted them and recounted one by one the things that God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

<sup>20</sup> When they heard this, they glorified God. Then they said to Paul, "You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews have believed, and all of them are zealous for the law. <sup>21</sup> But they are under the impression that you teach all the Jews who live among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children or observe our customs. <sup>22</sup> What then should we do? They will certainly hear that you have come.

<sup>23</sup> Therefore do what we advise you. There are four men with us who have taken a vow. <sup>24</sup> Take these men, purify yourself along with them, and pay their expenses so they can have their heads shaved. Then everyone will know that there is no truth to these rumors about you, but that you also live in obedience to the law.

<sup>25</sup> As for the Gentile believers, we have written to them our decision that they must abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals, and from sexual immorality."

<sup>26</sup> So the next day Paul took the men and purified himself along with them. Then he entered the temple to give notice of the date when their purification would be complete and the offering would be made for each of them.

Paul Seized at the Temple

<sup>27</sup> When the seven days were almost over, some Jews from the province of Asia † saw Paul at the temple. They stirred up the whole crowd and seized him, <sup>28</sup> crying out, "Men of Israel, help us! This is the man who teaches everywhere against our people and against our law and against this place. Furthermore, he has brought Greeks into the temple and defiled this holy place." <sup>29</sup> For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city, and they assumed that Paul had brought him into the temple.

<sup>30</sup> The whole city was stirred up, and the people rushed together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple, and at once the gates were shut. <sup>31</sup> While they were trying to kill him, the commander of the Roman regiment ‡ received a report that all Jerusalem was in turmoil. <sup>32</sup> Immediately he took some soldiers and centurions and ran down to the crowd. When the people saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

* 21:8 See Acts 6:5. † 21:27 Literally from Asia; Asia was a Roman province in what is now western Turkey.

‡ 21:31 Literally the commander of the cohort

<sup>33</sup> The commander came up and arrested Paul, ordering that he be bound with two chains. Then he asked who he was and what he had done.

<sup>34</sup> Some in the crowd were shouting one thing, and some another. And since the commander could not get at the truth because of the uproar, he ordered that Paul be brought into the barracks. <sup>35</sup> When Paul reached the steps, he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the mob. <sup>36</sup> For the crowd that followed him kept shouting, "Away with him!"

Paul Addresses the Crowd

<sup>37</sup> As they were about to take Paul into the barracks, he asked the commander, "May I say something to you?"

"Do you speak Greek?" he replied. <sup>38</sup> "Aren't you the Egyptian who incited a rebellion some time ago and led four thousand members of the 'Assassins' into the wilderness?"

<sup>39</sup> But Paul answered, "I am a Jew from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no ordinary city. Now I beg you to allow me to speak to the people."

<sup>40</sup> Having received permission, Paul stood on the steps and motioned to the crowd. A great hush came over the crowd, and he addressed them in Hebrew:§

22

Paul's Defense to the Crowd
(Acts 9:1-19; Acts 26:1-23)

Then Paul declared, <sup>3</sup> "I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but raised in this city. I was educated at the feet of Gamaliel in strict conformity to the law of our fathers. I am just as zealous for God as any of you here today.

<sup>4</sup> I persecuted this Way even to the death, detaining both men and women and throwing them into prison, <sup>5</sup> as the high priest and the whole Council can testify about me. I even obtained letters from them to their brothers in Damascus, and I was on my way to apprehend these people and bring them to Jerusalem to be punished.

<sup>6</sup> About noon as I was approaching Damascus, suddenly a bright light from heaven flashed around me. <sup>7</sup> I fell to the ground and heard a voice say to me, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me?'

<sup>8</sup> 'Who are You, Lord?' I asked.

'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting,' He replied. <sup>9</sup> My companions saw the light, but they could not understand the voice of the One speaking to me.

<sup>10</sup> Then I asked, 'What should I do, Lord?'

'Get up and go into Damascus,' He told me. 'There you will be told all that you have been appointed to do.'

<sup>11</sup> Because the brilliance of the light had blinded me, my companions led me by the hand into Damascus. <sup>12</sup> There a man named Ananias, a devout observer of the law who was highly regarded by all the Jews living there, <sup>13</sup> came and stood beside me. 'Brother Saul,' he said, 'receive your sight.' And at that moment I could see him.

<sup>14</sup> Then he said, 'The God of our fathers has appointed you to know His will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear His voice. <sup>15</sup> You will be His witness to everyone of what you have seen and heard. <sup>16</sup> And now what are you waiting for? Get up, be baptized, and wash your sins away, calling on His name.'

§ 21:40 Or in Aramaic; literally in the Hebrew language * 22:2 Or in Aramaic; literally in the Hebrew language

<sup>17</sup> Later, when I had returned to Jerusalem and was praying at the temple, I fell into a trance <sup>18</sup> and saw the Lord † saying to me, 'Hurry! Leave Jerusalem quickly, because the people here will not accept your testimony about Me.'

<sup>19</sup> 'Lord,' I answered, 'they know very well that in one synagogue after another I imprisoned and beat those who believed in You. <sup>20</sup> And when the blood of Your witness ‡ Stephen was shed, I stood there giving my approval and watching over the garments of those who killed him.'

<sup>21</sup> Then He said to me, 'Go! I will send you far away to the Gentiles.' "

Paul the Roman Citizen

<sup>22</sup> The crowd listened to Paul until he made this statement. Then they lifted up their voices and shouted, "Rid the earth of him! He is not fit to live!"

<sup>23</sup> As they were shouting and throwing off their cloaks and tossing dust into the air, <sup>24</sup> the commander ordered that Paul be brought into the barracks. He directed that Paul be flogged and interrogated to determine the reason for this outcry against him.

<sup>25</sup> But as they stretched him out to strap him down, Paul said to the centurion standing there, "Is it lawful for you to flog a Roman citizen without a trial?"

<sup>26</sup> On hearing this, the centurion went and reported it to the commander. "What are you going to do?" he said. "This man is a Roman citizen."

<sup>27</sup> The commander went to Paul and asked, "Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?"

"Yes," he answered.

<sup>28</sup> "I paid a high price for my citizenship," said the commander.

"But I was born a citizen," Paul replied.

<sup>29</sup> Then those who were about to interrogate Paul stepped back, and the commander himself was alarmed when he realized that he had put a Roman citizen in chains.

<sup>30</sup> The next day the commander, wanting to learn the real reason Paul was accused by the Jews, released him and ordered the chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin § to assemble. Then he brought Paul down and had him stand before them.

23

Paul before the Sanhedrin

<sup>1</sup> Paul looked directly at the Sanhedrin * and said, "Brothers, I have conducted myself before God in all good conscience to this day."

<sup>2</sup> At this, the high priest Ananias ordered those standing near Paul to strike him on the mouth.

<sup>3</sup> Then Paul said to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! You sit here to judge me according to the law, yet you yourself violate the law by commanding that I be struck."

<sup>4</sup> But those standing nearby said, "How dare you insult the high priest of God!"

† 22:18 Literally saw Him ‡ 22:20 Or martyr § 22:30 Or the whole Council * 23:1 Or the Council; also in verses 6, 15, 20, and 28

<sup>5</sup> “Brothers,” Paul replied, “I was not aware that he was the high priest, for it is written: ‘Do not speak evil about the ruler of your people.’†”

<sup>6</sup> Then Paul, knowing that some of them were Sadducees and others Pharisees, called out in the Sanhedrin, “Brothers, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee. It is because of my hope in the resurrection of the dead that I am on trial.”

<sup>7</sup> As soon as he had said this, a dispute broke out between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. <sup>8</sup> For the Sadducees say that there is neither a resurrection, nor angels, nor spirits, but the Pharisees acknowledge them all.

<sup>9</sup> A great clamor arose, and some scribes from the party of the Pharisees got up and contended sharply, “We find nothing wrong with this man. What if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?” <sup>10</sup> The dispute grew so violent that the commander was afraid they would tear Paul to pieces. He ordered the soldiers to go down and remove him by force and bring him into the barracks.

<sup>11</sup> The following night the Lord stood near Paul and said, “Take courage! As you have testified about Me in Jerusalem, so also you must testify in Rome.”

The Plot to Kill Paul
(John 16:1–4)

<sup>12</sup> When daylight came, the Jews formed a conspiracy and bound themselves with an oath not to eat or drink until they had killed Paul. <sup>13</sup> More than forty of them were involved in this plot. <sup>14</sup> They went to the chief priests and elders and said, “We have bound ourselves with a solemn oath not to eat anything until we have killed Paul. <sup>15</sup> Now then, you and the Sanhedrin petition the commander to bring him down to you on the pretext of examining his case more carefully. We are ready to kill him on the way.”

<sup>16</sup> But when the son of Paul’s sister heard about the plot,‡ he went into the barracks and told Paul. <sup>17</sup> Then Paul called one of the centurions and said, “Take this young man to the commander; he has something to tell him.”

<sup>18</sup> So the centurion took him to the commander and said, “Paul the prisoner sent and asked me to bring this young man to you. He has something to tell you.”

<sup>19</sup> The commander took the young man by the hand, drew him aside, and asked, “What do you need to tell me?”

<sup>20</sup> He answered, “The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul to the Sanhedrin tomorrow on the pretext of acquiring more information about him. <sup>21</sup> Do not let them persuade you, because more than forty men are waiting to ambush him. They have bound themselves with an oath not to eat or drink until they have killed him; they are ready now, awaiting your consent.”

<sup>22</sup> So the commander dismissed the young man and instructed him, “Do not tell anyone that you have reported this to me.”

Paul Sent to Felix

<sup>23</sup> Then he called two of his centurions and said, “Prepare two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen to go to Caesarea in the third hour of the night.§ <sup>24</sup> Provide mounts for Paul to take him safely to Governor Felix.” <sup>25</sup> And he wrote the following letter:

<sup>26</sup> Claudius Lysias,

To His Excellency, Governor Felix:

Greetings.

<sup>27</sup> This man was seized by the Jews, and they were about to kill him when I came with my troops to rescue him. For I had learned that he is a Roman citizen, <sup>28</sup> and since I wanted to understand their charges against him, I brought him down to their Sanhedrin. <sup>29</sup> I found that the accusation involved questions about their own law, but there was no charge worthy of death or imprisonment.

<sup>30</sup> When I was informed that there was a plot against the man, I sent him to you at once. I also instructed his accusers to present their case against him before you.

<sup>31</sup> So the soldiers followed their orders and brought Paul by night to Antipatris. <sup>32</sup> The next day they returned to the barracks and let the horsemen go on with him. <sup>33</sup> When the horsemen arrived in Caesarea, they delivered the letter to the governor and presented Paul to him.

<sup>34</sup> The governor read the letter and asked what province Paul was from. Learning that he was from Cilicia, <sup>35</sup> he said, "I will hear your case when your accusers arrive." Then he ordered that Paul be kept under guard in Herod's Praetorium.

24

Tertullus Prosecutes Paul

<sup>1</sup> Five days later the high priest Ananias came down with some elders and a lawyer * named Tertullus, who presented to the governor their case against Paul.

<sup>2</sup> When Paul had been called in, Tertullus opened the prosecution: "Because of you, we have enjoyed a lasting peace, and your foresight has brought improvements to this nation. <sup>3</sup> In every way and everywhere, most excellent Felix, we acknowledge this with all gratitude. <sup>4</sup> But in order not to burden you any further, I beg your indulgence to hear us briefly.

<sup>5</sup> We have found this man to be a pestilence, stirring up dissension among the Jews all over the world. He is a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes, <sup>6</sup> and he even tried to desecrate the temple; so we seized him.† <sup>8</sup> By examining him yourself, you will be able to learn the truth about all our charges against him."

<sup>9</sup> The Jews concurred, asserting that these charges were true.

Paul's Defense to Felix

<sup>10</sup> When the governor motioned for Paul to speak, he began his response: "Knowing that you have been a judge over this nation for many years, I gladly make my defense. <sup>11</sup> You can verify for yourself that no more than twelve days ago I went up to Jerusalem to worship. <sup>12</sup> Yet my accusers did not find me debating with anyone in the temple or riling up a crowd in the synagogues or in the city. <sup>13</sup> Nor can they prove to you any of their charges against me.

<sup>14</sup> I do confess to you, however, that I worship the God of our fathers according to the Way, which they call a sect. I believe everything that is laid down by the Law and written in the Prophets, <sup>15</sup> and I have the same hope in God that they themselves cherish, that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the wicked. <sup>16</sup> In this hope, I strive always to maintain a clear conscience before God and man.

<sup>17</sup> After several years, then, I returned to Jerusalem to bring alms to my people and to present offerings. <sup>18</sup> At the time they found me in the temple, I was ceremonially clean and was not inciting a crowd or an uproar. But there are some Jews from the province of Asia ‡ <sup>19</sup> who ought to appear before you and bring charges, if they have anything against me. <sup>20</sup> Otherwise, let these men state for themselves any crime they found in me when I stood before the Sanhedrin,§ <sup>21</sup> unless it was this one thing I called out as I

* 24:1 Or an orator † 24:6 BYZ and TR include and we would have judged him according to our law. <sup>7</sup> But Lysias the commander came with great force and took him out of our hands, <sup>8</sup> ordering his accusers to come before you.

‡ 24:18 Literally from Asia; Asia was a Roman province in what is now western Turkey. § 24:20 Or the Council stood in their presence: 'It is concerning the resurrection of the dead that I am on trial before you today.' "

The Verdict Postponed

<sup>22</sup> Then Felix, who was well informed about the Way, adjourned the hearing and said, "When Lysias the commander comes, I will decide your case." <sup>23</sup> He ordered the centurion to keep Paul under guard, but to allow him some freedom and permit his friends to minister to his needs.

<sup>24</sup> After several days, Felix returned with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess. He sent for Paul and listened to him speak about faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>25</sup> As Paul expounded on righteousness, self-control, and the coming judgment, Felix became frightened and said, "You may go for now. When I find the time, I will call for you." <sup>26</sup> At the same time, he was hoping that Paul would offer him a bribe. So he sent for Paul frequently and talked with him.

Paul's Trial before Festus

<sup>4</sup> But Festus replied, "Paul is being held in Caesarea, and I myself am going there soon. <sup>5</sup> So if this man has done anything wrong, let some of your leaders come down with me and accuse him there."

<sup>6</sup> After spending no more than eight or ten days with them, Festus went down to Caesarea. The next day he sat on the judgment seat and ordered that Paul be brought in. <sup>7</sup> When Paul arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing many serious charges that they could not prove.

<sup>8</sup> Then Paul made his defense: "I have committed no offense against the law of the Jews or against the temple or against Caesar."

<sup>9</sup> But Festus, wishing to do the Jews a favor, said to Paul, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem to stand trial before me on these charges?"

Paul Appeals to Caesar

<sup>10</sup> Paul replied, "I am standing before the judgment seat of Caesar, where I ought to be tried. I have done nothing wrong to the Jews, as you yourself know very well. <sup>11</sup> If, however, I am guilty of anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die. But if there is no truth to their accusations against me, no one has the right to hand me over to them. I appeal to Caesar!"

<sup>12</sup> Then Festus conferred with his council and replied, "You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you will go!"

Festus Consults Agrippa

<sup>13</sup> After several days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice came down to Caesarea to pay their respects to Festus. <sup>14</sup> Since they were staying several days, Festus laid out Paul's case before the king: "There is a certain man whom Felix left in prison. <sup>15</sup> While I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and elders of the Jews presented their case and requested a judgment against him. <sup>16</sup> I told them that it is not the Roman custom to hand a man over before he has had an opportunity to face his accusers and defend himself against their charges.

<sup>17</sup> So when they came here with me, I did not delay. The next day I sat on the judgment seat and ordered that the man be brought in. <sup>18</sup> But when his accusers rose to speak, they did not charge him with any of the crimes I had expected. <sup>19</sup> They only had some contentions with him regarding their own religion and a certain Jesus who had died, but whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

<sup>20</sup> Since I was at a loss as to how to investigate these matters, I asked if he was willing to go to Jerusalem and be tried there on these charges. <sup>21</sup> But when Paul appealed to be held over for the decision of the Emperor, I ordered that he be held until I could send him to Caesar."

<sup>22</sup> Then Agrippa said to Festus, "I would like to hear this man myself."

"Tomorrow you will hear him," Festus declared.

Paul before Agrippa and Bernice

<sup>23</sup> The next day Agrippa and Bernice came with great pomp and entered the auditorium, along with the commanders and leading men of the city. And Festus ordered that Paul be brought in.

<sup>24</sup> Then Festus said, "King Agrippa and all who are present with us, you see this man. The whole Jewish community has petitioned me about him, both here and in Jerusalem, crying out that he ought not to live any longer. <sup>25</sup> But I found he had done nothing worthy of death, and since he has now appealed to the Emperor, I decided to send him.

<sup>26</sup> I have nothing definite to write to our sovereign one about him. Therefore I have brought him before all of you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after this inquiry I may have something to write. <sup>27</sup> For it seems unreasonable to me to send on a prisoner without specifying the charges against him."

26

Paul's Testimony to Agrippa (Acts 9:1-19; Acts 22:1-21)

Then Paul stretched out his hand and began his defense: <sup>2</sup> "King Agrippa, I consider myself fortunate to stand before you today to defend myself against all the accusations of the Jews, <sup>3</sup> especially since you are acquainted with all the Jewish customs and controversies. I beg you, therefore, to listen to me patiently.

<sup>4</sup> Surely all the Jews know how I have lived from the earliest days of my youth, among my own people and in Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> They have known me for a long time and can testify, if they are willing, that I lived as a Pharisee, adhering to the strictest sect of our religion.

<sup>6</sup> And now I stand on trial because of my hope in the promise that God made to our fathers, <sup>7</sup> the promise our twelve tribes are hoping to realize as they earnestly serve God day and night. It is because of this hope, O king, that I am accused by the Jews. <sup>8</sup> Why would any of you consider it incredible that God raises the dead?

<sup>9</sup> So then, I too was convinced that I ought to do all I could to oppose the name of Jesus of Nazareth. <sup>10</sup> And that is what I did in Jerusalem. With authority from the chief priests I put many of the saints in prison, and when they were condemned to death, I cast my vote against them. <sup>11</sup> I frequently had them punished in the synagogues, and I tried to make them blaspheme. In my raging fury against them, I even went to foreign cities to persecute them.

<sup>12</sup> In this pursuit I was on my way to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests. <sup>13</sup> About noon, O king, as I was on the road, I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and my companions. <sup>14</sup> We all fell to the ground, and I heard a voice say to me in Hebrew,* 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

<sup>15</sup> 'Who are You, Lord?' I asked.

'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting,' the Lord replied. <sup>16</sup> 'But get up and stand on your feet. For I have appeared to you to appoint you as a servant and as a witness of what you have seen from Me and what I will show you. <sup>17</sup> I will rescue you from your own people and from the Gentiles. I am sending you to them <sup>18</sup> to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those sanctified by faith in Me.'

<sup>19</sup> So then, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision. <sup>20</sup> First to those in Damascus and Jerusalem, then to everyone in the region of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, I declared that they should repent and turn to God, performing deeds worthy of their repentance. <sup>21</sup> For this reason the Jews seized me in the temple courts † and tried to kill me.

<sup>22</sup> But I have had God's help to this day, and I stand here to testify to small and great alike. I am saying nothing beyond what the prophets and Moses said would happen: <sup>23</sup> that the Christ would suffer, and as the first to rise from the dead, would proclaim light to our people and to the Gentiles."

Festus Interrupts Paul's Defense

<sup>24</sup> At this stage of Paul's defense, Festus exclaimed in a loud voice, "You are insane, Paul! Your great learning is driving you to madness!"

<sup>25</sup> But Paul answered, "I am not insane, most excellent Festus; I am speaking words of truth and sobriety. <sup>26</sup> For the king knows about these matters, and I can speak freely to him. I am confident that none of this has escaped his notice, because it was not done in a corner. <sup>27</sup> King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know you do."

<sup>28</sup> Then Agrippa said to Paul, "Can you persuade me in such a short time to become a Christian?"

<sup>29</sup> "Short time or long," Paul replied, "I wish to God that not only you but all who hear me this day may become what I am, except for these chains."

<sup>30</sup> Then the king and the governor rose, along with Bernice and those seated with them.

<sup>31</sup> On their way out, they said to one another, "This man has done nothing worthy of death or imprisonment."

<sup>32</sup> And Agrippa said to Festus, "This man could have been released if he had not appealed to Caesar."

Paul Sails for Rome

<sup>1</sup> When it was decided that we would sail for Italy, Paul and some other prisoners were handed over to a centurion named Julius, who belonged to the Imperial * Regiment.

<sup>2</sup> We boarded an Adramyttian ship about to sail for ports along the coast of Asia,† and we put out to sea. Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica, was with us.

<sup>3</sup> The next day we landed at Sidon, and Julius treated Paul with consideration, allowing him to visit his friends and receive their care. <sup>4</sup> After putting out from there, we sailed to the lee of Cyprus because the winds were against us. <sup>5</sup> And when we had sailed across the open sea off the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra in Lycia. <sup>6</sup> There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship sailing for Italy and put us on board.

* 26:14 Or in Aramaic; literally in the Hebrew language † 26:21 Literally the temple * 27:1 Or Augustan

† 27:2 Literally sail to the places along Asia; Asia was a Roman province in what is now western Turkey.

<sup>7</sup> After sailing slowly for many days, we arrived off Cnidus. When the wind impeded us, we sailed to the lee of Crete, opposite Salmone. <sup>8</sup> After we had moved along the coast with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near the town of Lasea.

<sup>9</sup> By now much time had passed, and the voyage had already become dangerous because it was after the Fast.‡ So Paul advised them, <sup>10</sup> “Men, I can see that our voyage will be filled with disaster and great loss, not only to ship and cargo, but to our own lives as well.”

<sup>11</sup> But contrary to Paul’s advice, the centurion was persuaded by the pilot and by the owner of the ship. <sup>12</sup> Since the harbor was unsuitable to winter in, the majority decided to sail on, if somehow they could reach Phoenix to winter there. Phoenix was a harbor in Crete facing both southwest and northwest.

The Storm at Sea
(Jonah 1:4–10)

<sup>13</sup> When a gentle south wind began to blow, they thought they had their opportunity. So they weighed anchor and sailed along, hugging the coast of Crete. <sup>14</sup> But it was not long before a cyclone called the Northeaster swept down across the island. <sup>15</sup> Unable to head into the wind, the ship was caught up. So we gave way and let ourselves be driven along.

<sup>18</sup> We were tossed so violently that the next day the men began to jettison the cargo. <sup>19</sup> On the third day, they threw the ship’s tackle overboard with their own hands. <sup>20</sup> When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days and the great storm continued to batter us, we abandoned all hope of being saved.

<sup>21</sup> After the men had gone a long time without food, Paul stood up among them and said, “Men, you should have followed my advice not to sail from Crete. Then you would have averted this disaster and loss. <sup>22</sup> But now I urge you to keep up your courage, because you will not experience any loss of life, but only of the ship. <sup>23</sup> For just last night an angel of God, whose I am and whom I serve, stood beside me <sup>24</sup> and said, ‘Do not be afraid, Paul; you must stand before Caesar. And look, God has granted you the lives of all who sail with you.’

<sup>25</sup> So take courage, men, for I believe God that it will happen just as He told me. <sup>26</sup> However, we must run aground on some island.”

The Shipwreck

<sup>27</sup> On the fourteenth night we were still being driven across the Adriatic Sea.† About midnight the sailors sensed they were approaching land. <sup>28</sup> They took soundings and found that the water was twenty fathoms deep.‡ Going a little farther, they took another set of soundings that read fifteen fathoms.§ <sup>29</sup> Fearing that we would run aground on the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern and prayed for daybreak.

<sup>30</sup> Meanwhile, the sailors attempted to escape from the ship. Pretending to lower anchors from the bow, they let the lifeboat down into the sea. <sup>31</sup> But Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, “Unless these men remain with the ship, you cannot be saved.” <sup>32</sup> So the soldiers cut the ropes to the lifeboat and set it adrift.

‡ 27:9 That is, Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement    § 27:16 NE, BYZ, and TR Claudia    * 27:17 Or the sails
† 27:27 The Adriatic Sea referred to an area extending well south of Italy to include the central portion of the Mediterranean Sea.    ‡ 27:28 20 fathoms is approximately 120 feet or 36.6 meters.    § 27:28 15 fathoms is approximately 90 feet or 27.4 meters.

<sup>33</sup> Right up to daybreak, Paul kept urging them all to eat: "Today is your fourteenth day in constant suspense, without taking any food. <sup>34</sup> So for your own preservation, I urge you to eat something, because not a single hair of your head will be lost."

<sup>35</sup> After he had said this, Paul took bread and gave thanks to God in front of them all. Then he broke it and began to eat. <sup>36</sup> They were all encouraged and took some food themselves. <sup>37</sup> In all, there were 276 * of us on board. <sup>38</sup> After the men had eaten their fill, they lightened the ship by throwing the grain into the sea.

<sup>39</sup> When daylight came, they did not recognize the land, but they sighted a bay with a sandy beach, where they decided to run the ship aground if they could. <sup>40</sup> Cutting away the anchors, they left them in the sea as they loosened the ropes that held the rudders. Then they hoisted the foresail to the wind and made for the beach. <sup>41</sup> But the vessel struck a sandbar and ran aground. The bow stuck fast and would not move, and the stern was being broken up by the pounding of the waves.

<sup>42</sup> The soldiers planned to kill the prisoners so none of them could swim to freedom. <sup>43</sup> But the centurion, wanting to spare Paul's life, thwarted their plan. He commanded those who could swim to jump overboard first and get to land. <sup>44</sup> The rest were to follow on planks and various parts of the ship. In this way everyone was brought safely to land.

Ashore on Malta

<sup>1</sup> Once we were safely ashore, we learned that the island was called Malta. <sup>2</sup> The islanders showed us extraordinary kindness. They kindled a fire and welcomed all of us because it was raining and cold.

<sup>3</sup> Paul gathered a bundle of sticks, and as he laid them on the fire, a viper, driven out by the heat, fastened itself to his hand. <sup>4</sup> When the islanders saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "Surely this man is a murderer. Although he was saved from the sea, Justice * has not allowed him to live." <sup>5</sup> But Paul shook the creature off into the fire and suffered no ill effects. <sup>6</sup> The islanders were expecting him to swell up or suddenly drop dead. But after waiting a long time and seeing nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and said he was a god.

<sup>7</sup> Nearby stood an estate belonging to Publius, the chief official of the island. He welcomed us and entertained us hospitably for three days. <sup>8</sup> The father of Publius was sick in bed, suffering from fever and dysentery. Paul went in to see him, and after praying and placing his hands on him, he healed the man. <sup>9</sup> After this had happened, the rest of the sick on the island came and were cured as well.

<sup>10</sup> The islanders honored us in many ways and supplied our needs when we were ready to sail.

Paul Arrives in Italy

<sup>11</sup> After three months we set sail in an Alexandrian ship that had wintered in the island. It had the Twin Brothers † as a figurehead. <sup>12</sup> Putting in at Syracuse, we stayed there three days. <sup>13</sup> From there we weighed anchor and came to Rhegium. After one day, a south wind came up, and on the second day we arrived at Puteoli. <sup>14</sup> There we found some brothers who invited us to spend the week with them. And so we came to Rome.

<sup>15</sup> The brothers there had heard about us and traveled as far as the Forum of Appius ‡ and the Three Taverns § to meet us. When Paul saw them, he was encouraged and gave thanks to God.

Paul Preaches at Rome (Isaiah 6:1-13)

* 27:37 WH 76 * 28:4 Greek Dike; that is, the Greek goddess of justice † 28:11 Greek Dioscuri; that is, the Greek gods Castor and Pollux ‡ 28:15 The Forum of Appius was about 43 miles or 70 kilometers from Rome.

§ 28:15 The Three Taverns was about 35 miles or 57 kilometers from Rome.

<sup>16</sup> When we arrived in Rome,* Paul was permitted to stay by himself, with a soldier to guard him.

<sup>17</sup> After three days, he called together the leaders of the Jews. When they had gathered, he said to them, "Brothers, although I have done nothing against our people or the customs of our fathers, I was taken prisoner in Jerusalem and handed over to the Romans. <sup>18</sup> They examined me and wanted to release me, because there was no basis for a death sentence against me. <sup>19</sup> But when the Jews objected, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar, even though I have no charge to bring against my nation. <sup>20</sup> So for this reason I have called to see you and speak with you. It is because of the hope of Israel that I am bound with this chain."

<sup>21</sup> The leaders replied, "We have not received any letters about you from Judea, nor have any of the brothers from there reported or even mentioned anything bad about you. <sup>22</sup> But we consider your views worth hearing, because we know that people everywhere are speaking against this sect."

<sup>23</sup> So they set a day to meet with Paul, and many people came to the place he was staying. He expounded to them from morning to evening, testifying about the kingdom of God and persuading them about Jesus from the Law of Moses and the Prophets.

<sup>24</sup> Some of them were convinced by what he said, but others refused to believe. <sup>25</sup> They disagreed among themselves and began to leave after Paul had made this final statement: "The Holy Spirit was right when He spoke to your fathers through Isaiah the prophet:

<sup>26</sup> 'Go to this people and say,
 "You will be ever hearing but never understanding;
 you will be ever seeing but never perceiving."

<sup>27</sup> For this people's heart has grown callous;
 they hardly hear with their ears,
 and they have closed their eyes.

Otherwise they might see with their eyes,
 hear with their ears,
 understand with their hearts,
 and turn, and I would heal them.'†

<sup>28</sup> Be advised, therefore, that God's salvation has been sent to the Gentiles, and they will listen!‡

<sup>30</sup> Paul stayed there two full years in his own rented house, welcoming all who came to visit him. <sup>31</sup> Boldly and freely he proclaimed the kingdom of God and taught about the Lord Jesus Christ.

Paul Greet the Saints in Rome

<sup>1</sup> Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle, and set apart for the gospel of God—<sup>2</sup> the gospel He promised beforehand through His prophets in the Holy Scriptures, <sup>3</sup> regarding His Son, who was a descendant of David according to the flesh, <sup>4</sup> and who through the Spirit of holiness was declared with power to be the Son of God by His resurrection from the dead: Jesus Christ our Lord.

<sup>5</sup> Through Him and on behalf of His name, we received grace and apostleship to call all those among the Gentiles to the obedience that comes from faith. <sup>6</sup> And you also are among those who are called to belong to Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup> To all in Rome who are loved by God and called to be saints:

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Unashamed of the Gospel

<sup>8</sup> First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is being proclaimed all over the world. <sup>9</sup> God, whom I serve with my spirit * in preaching the gospel of His Son, is my witness how constantly I remember you <sup>10</sup> in my prayers at all times, asking that now at last by God's will I may succeed in coming to you. <sup>11</sup> For I long to see you so that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to strengthen you, <sup>12</sup> that is, that you and I may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith.

<sup>13</sup> I do not want you to be unaware, brothers, how often I planned to come to you (but have been prevented from visiting † until now), in order that I might have a harvest among you, just as I have had among the other Gentiles. <sup>14</sup> I am obligated both to Greeks and non-Greeks,‡ both to the wise and the foolish. <sup>15</sup> That is why I am so eager to preach the gospel also to you who are in Rome.

<sup>16</sup> I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, first to the Jew, then to the Greek. <sup>17</sup> For the gospel reveals the righteousness of God that comes by faith from start to finish,§ just as it is written: "The righteous will live by faith."*

God's Wrath against Sin

<sup>18</sup> The wrath of God is being revealed from heaven against all the godlessness and wickedness of men who suppress the truth by their wickedness. <sup>19</sup> For what may be known about God is plain to them, because God has made it plain to them. <sup>20</sup> For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities, His eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen, being understood from His workmanship, so that men are without excuse.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore God gave them over in the desires of their hearts to impurity for the dishonoring of their bodies with one another. <sup>25</sup> They exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is forever worthy of praise!† Amen.

<sup>26</sup> For this reason God gave them over to dishonorable passions. Even their women exchanged natural relations for unnatural ones. <sup>27</sup> Likewise, the men abandoned natural relations with women and burned with lust for one another. Men committed indecent acts with other men, and received in themselves the due penalty for their error.

<sup>28</sup> Furthermore, since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, He gave them up to a depraved mind, to do what ought not to be done. <sup>29</sup> They have become filled with every kind of wickedness, evil, greed, and depravity. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, and malice. They are gossips, <sup>30</sup> slanderers, God-haters, insolent, arrogant, and boastful. They invent new forms of evil; they disobey their parents. <sup>31</sup> They are senseless, faithless, heartless, merciless.

<sup>32</sup> Although they know God's righteous decree that those who do such things are worthy of death, they not only continue to do these things, but also approve of those who practice them.

God's Righteous Judgment (Psalm 75:1-10)

<sup>1</sup> You, therefore, have no excuse, you who pass judgment on another. For on whatever grounds you judge the other, you are condemning yourself, because you who pass judgment do the same things. <sup>2</sup> And we know that God's judgment against those who do such things is based on truth. <sup>3</sup> So when you, O man, pass judgment on others, yet do the same things, do you think you will escape God's judgment? <sup>4</sup> Or do you disregard the riches of His kindness, tolerance, and patience, not realizing that God's kindness leads you to repentance?

<sup>5</sup> But because of your hard and unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath against yourself for the day of wrath, when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. <sup>6</sup> God "will repay each one according to his deeds."* <sup>7</sup> To those who by perseverance in doing good seek glory, honor, and immortality, He will give eternal life. <sup>8</sup> But for those who are self-seeking and who reject the truth and follow wickedness, there will be wrath and anger.

<sup>9</sup> There will be trouble and distress for every human being who does evil, first for the Jew, then for the Greek; <sup>10</sup> but glory, honor, and peace for everyone who does good, first for the Jew, then for the Greek. <sup>11</sup> For God does not show favoritism.

<sup>12</sup> All who sin apart from the law will also perish apart from the law, and all who sin under the law will be judged by the law. <sup>13</sup> For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but it is the doers of the law who will be declared righteous.

<sup>14</sup> Indeed, when Gentiles, who do not have the law, do by nature what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. <sup>15</sup> So they show that the work of the law is written on their hearts, their consciences also bearing witness, and their thoughts either accusing or defending them <sup>16</sup> on the day when God will judge men's secrets through Christ Jesus,† as proclaimed by my gospel.

The Jews and the Law

<sup>17</sup> Now you, if you call yourself a Jew; if you rely on the law and boast in God; <sup>18</sup> if you know His will and approve of what is superior because you are instructed by the law; <sup>19</sup> if you are convinced that you are a guide for the blind, a light for those in darkness, <sup>20</sup> an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of infants, because you have in the law the embodiment of knowledge and truth— <sup>21</sup> you, then, who teach others, do you not teach yourself? You who preach against stealing, do you steal? <sup>22</sup> You who forbid adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples? <sup>23</sup> You who boast in the law, do you dishonor God by breaking the law? <sup>24</sup> As it is written: "God's name is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you."‡

* 2:6 Psalm 62:12 † 2:16 BYZ and TR through Jesus Christ ‡ 2:24 Isaiah 52:5 (see also LXX)

<sup>25</sup> Circumcision has value if you observe the law, but if you break the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. <sup>26</sup> If a man who is not circumcised keeps the requirements of the law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision? <sup>27</sup> The one who is physically uncircumcised yet keeps the law will condemn you who, even though you have the written code and circumcision, are a lawbreaker.

<sup>28</sup> A man is not a Jew because he is one outwardly, nor is circumcision only outward and physical. <sup>29</sup> No, a man is a Jew because he is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the written code. Such a man's praise does not come from men, but from God.

3

God Remains Faithful

<sup>1</sup> What, then, is the advantage of being a Jew? Or what is the value of circumcision?

<sup>2</sup> Much in every way. First of all, they have been entrusted with the very words * of God.

<sup>3</sup> What if some did not have faith? Will their lack of faith nullify God's faithfulness?

<sup>4</sup> Certainly not! Let God be true and every man a liar. As it is written:

"So that You may be proved right when You speak and victorious when You judge."†

<sup>5</sup> But if our unrighteousness highlights the righteousness of God, what shall we say? That God is unjust to inflict His wrath on us? I am speaking in human terms. <sup>6</sup> Certainly not! In that case, how could God judge the world? <sup>7</sup> However, if my falsehood accentuates God's truthfulness, to the increase of His glory, why am I still condemned as a sinner? <sup>8</sup> Why not say, as some slanderously claim that we say, "Let us do evil that good may result"? Their condemnation is deserved!

There Is No One Righteous
(Psalm 14:1-7; Psalm 53:1-6; Isaiah 59:1-17)

<sup>9</sup> What then? Are we any better? Not at all. For we have already made the charge that Jews and Greeks alike are all under sin. <sup>10</sup> As it is written:

"There is no one righteous,
not even one.

<sup>11</sup> There is no one who understands,
no one who seeks God.

<sup>12</sup> All have turned away,
they have together become worthless;
there is no one who does good,
not even one."‡

<sup>13</sup> "Their throats are open graves;
their tongues practice deceit."§
"The venom of vipers is on their lips."*

<sup>14</sup> "Their mouths are full of cursing and bitterness."†

<sup>16</sup> ruin and misery lie in their wake, <sup>17</sup> and the way of peace they have not known."‡

<sup>18</sup> "There is no fear of God
before their eyes."§

<sup>19</sup> Now we know that whatever the law says, it says to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced and the whole world held accountable to God.

* 3:2 Or the oracles † 3:4 Or when You are judged; Psalm 51:4 (see also LXX) ‡ 3:12 Psalm 14:1-3 and Psalm 53:1-3 (see also LXX) § 3:13 Psalm 5:9 * 3:13 Psalm 140:3 † 3:14 Psalm 10:7 (see also LXX) ‡ 3:17 Isaiah 59:7-8 (see also LXX) § 3:18 Psalm 36:1

<sup>20</sup> Therefore no one will be justified in His sight by works of the law. For the law merely brings awareness of sin.

Righteousness through Faith in Christ
(Philippians 3:1-11)

<sup>21</sup> But now, apart from the law, the righteousness of God has been revealed, as attested by the Law and the Prophets. <sup>22</sup> And this righteousness from God comes through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no distinction, <sup>23</sup> for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, <sup>24</sup> and are justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus.

<sup>25</sup> God presented Him as the atoning sacrifice * through faith in His blood, in order to demonstrate His righteousness, because in His forbearance He had passed over the sins committed beforehand. <sup>26</sup> He did this to demonstrate His righteousness at the present time, so as to be just and to justify the one who has faith in Jesus.

<sup>27</sup> Where, then, is boasting? It is excluded. On what principle? On that of works? No, but on that of faith. <sup>28</sup> For we maintain that a man is justified by faith apart from works of the law.

<sup>29</sup> Is God the God of Jews only? Is He not the God of Gentiles too? Yes, of Gentiles too, <sup>30</sup> since there is only one God, who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through that same faith.

<sup>31</sup> Do we, then, nullify the law by this faith? Certainly not! Instead, we uphold the law.

4

Abraham Justified by Faith
(Genesis 15:1-7; Psalm 32:1-11; Hebrews 11:8-19)

<sup>1</sup> What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather, has discovered? <sup>2</sup> If Abraham was indeed justified by works, he had something to boast about, but not before God. <sup>3</sup> For what does the Scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness."*

<sup>4</sup> Now the wages of the worker are not credited as a gift, but as an obligation. <sup>5</sup> However, to the one who does not work, but believes in Him who justifies the wicked, his faith is credited as righteousness. <sup>6</sup> And David speaks likewise of the blessedness of the man to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

<sup>7</sup> "Blessed are they whose lawless acts are forgiven,
whose sins are covered.

whose sin the Lord will never count against him."†

<sup>9</sup> Is this blessing only on the circumcised, or also on the uncircumcised? We have been saying that Abraham's faith was credited to him as righteousness. <sup>10</sup> In what context was it credited? Was it after his circumcision, or before? It was not after, but before.‡

<sup>11</sup> And he received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. So then, he is the father of all who believe but are not circumcised, in order that righteousness might be credited to them. <sup>12</sup> And he is also the father of the circumcised who not only are circumcised, but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

Abraham Receives the Promise
(Genesis 15:8-21)

---

* 3:25 Or as a propitiation    * 4:3 Genesis 15:6    † 4:8 Psalm 32:1-2 (see also LXX)    ‡ 4:10 Literally How then was it reckoned—being in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

<sup>13</sup> For the promise to Abraham and his offspring that he would be heir of the world was not given through the law, but through the righteousness that comes by faith. <sup>14</sup> For if those who live by the law are heirs, faith is useless and the promise is worthless, <sup>15</sup> because the law brings wrath. And where there is no law, there is no transgression.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore, the promise comes by faith, so that it may rest on grace and may be guaranteed to all Abraham's offspring—not only to those who are of the law, but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham. He is the father of us all. <sup>17</sup> As it is written: "I have made you a father of many nations."§ He is our father in the presence of God, in whom he believed, the God who gives life to the dead and calls into being what does not yet exist.

<sup>18</sup> Against all hope, Abraham in hope believed and so became the father of many nations, just as he had been told, "So shall your offspring be."* <sup>19</sup> Without weakening in his faith, he acknowledged the decrepitness of his body (since he was about a hundred years old) and the lifelessness of Sarah's womb. <sup>20</sup> Yet he did not waver through disbelief in the promise of God, but was strengthened in his faith and gave glory to God, <sup>21</sup> being fully persuaded that God was able to do what He had promised. <sup>22</sup> This is why "it was credited to him as righteousness."†

<sup>23</sup> Now the words "it was credited to him" were written not only for Abraham, <sup>24</sup> but also for us, to whom righteousness will be credited—for us who believe in Him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead. <sup>25</sup> He was delivered over to death for our trespasses and was raised to life for our justification.

The Triumph of Faith

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have * peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>2</sup> through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we stand. And we rejoice † in the hope of the glory of God.

<sup>3</sup> Not only that, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; <sup>4</sup> perseverance, character; and character, hope. <sup>5</sup> And hope does not disappoint us, because God has poured out His love into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, whom He has given us.

Christ's Sacrifice for the Ungodly (John 3:1-21)

<sup>6</sup> For at just the right time, while we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly. <sup>7</sup> Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous man, though for a good man someone might possibly dare to die. <sup>8</sup> But God proves His love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, since we have now been justified by His blood, how much more shall we be saved from wrath through Him! <sup>10</sup> For if, when we were enemies of God, we were reconciled to Him through the death of His Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through His life! <sup>11</sup> Not only that, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Death in Adam, Life in Christ (Genesis 3:1-7)

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, so also death was passed on to all men, because all sinned. <sup>13</sup> For sin was in the world before the law was given; but sin is not taken into account when there is no law. <sup>14</sup> Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those who did not sin in the way that Adam transgressed. He is a pattern of the One to come.

§ 4:17 Genesis 17:5 * 4:18 Genesis 15:5 † 4:22 Genesis 15:6 * 5:1 Or let us have † 5:2 Or exult; also in verses 3 and 11

<sup>15</sup> But the gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died by the trespass of the one man, how much more did God's grace and the gift that came by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many! <sup>16</sup> Again, the gift is not like the result of the one man's sin: The judgment that followed one sin brought condemnation, but the gift that followed many trespasses brought justification. <sup>17</sup> For if, by the trespass of the one man, death reigned through that one man, how much more will those who receive an abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man, Jesus Christ!

<sup>18</sup> So then, just as one trespass brought condemnation for all men, so also one act of righteousness brought justification and life for all men. <sup>19</sup> For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one man the many will be made righteous.

<sup>20</sup> The law came in so that the trespass would increase; but where sin increased, grace increased all the more, <sup>21</sup> so that, just as sin reigned in death, so also grace might reign through righteousness to bring eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6

Dead to Sin, Alive to God
(2 Corinthians 4:7-18)

<sup>1</sup> What then shall we say? Shall we continue in sin so that grace may increase? <sup>2</sup> Certainly not! How can we who died to sin live in it any longer? <sup>3</sup> Or aren't you aware that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death? <sup>4</sup> We were therefore buried with Him through baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may walk in newness of life.

<sup>5</sup> For if we have been united with Him like this in His death, we will certainly also be united with Him in His resurrection. <sup>6</sup> We know that our old self was crucified with Him so that the body of sin might be rendered powerless, that we should no longer be slaves to sin. <sup>7</sup> For anyone who has died has been freed from sin.

<sup>8</sup> Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with Him. <sup>9</sup> For we know that since Christ was raised from the dead, He cannot die again; death no longer has dominion over Him. <sup>10</sup> The death He died, He died to sin once for all; but the life He lives, He lives to God. <sup>11</sup> So you too must count yourselves dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its desires. <sup>13</sup> Do not present the parts of your body to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life; and present the parts of your body to Him as instruments of righteousness. <sup>14</sup> For sin shall not be your master, because you are not under law, but under grace.

The Wages of Sin

<sup>15</sup> What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law, but under grace? Certainly not! <sup>16</sup> Do you not know that when you offer yourselves as obedient slaves, you are slaves to the one you obey, whether you are slaves to sin leading to death, or to obedience leading to righteousness? <sup>17</sup> But thanks be to God that, though you once were slaves to sin, you wholeheartedly obeyed the form of teaching to which you were committed. <sup>18</sup> You have been set free from sin and have become slaves to righteousness.

<sup>19</sup> I am speaking in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. Just as you used to offer the parts of your body in slavery to impurity and to escalating wickedness, so now offer them in slavery to righteousness leading to holiness.

<sup>20</sup> For when you were slaves to sin, you were free of obligation to righteousness. <sup>21</sup> What fruit did you reap at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? The outcome of those things is death. <sup>22</sup> But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves to God, the fruit you reap leads to holiness, and the outcome is eternal life. <sup>23</sup> For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Release from the Law (Galatians 3:15-25)

<sup>1</sup> Do you not know, brothers (for I am speaking to those who know the law), that the law has authority over a man only as long as he lives? <sup>2</sup> For instance, a married woman is bound by law to her husband as long as he lives. But if her husband dies, she is released from the law of marriage. <sup>3</sup> So then, if she is joined to another man while her husband is still alive, she is called an adulteress; but if her husband dies, she is free from that law and is not an adulteress, even if she marries another man.

<sup>4</sup> Therefore, my brothers, you also died to the law through the body of Christ, that you might belong to another, to Him who was raised from the dead, in order that we might bear fruit to God. <sup>5</sup> For when we lived according to the flesh, the sinful passions aroused by the law were at work in our bodies, bearing fruit for death. <sup>6</sup> But now, having died to what bound us, we have been released from the law, so that we serve in the new way of the Spirit, and not in the old way of the written code.

God's Law Is Holy

<sup>7</sup> What then shall we say? Is the law sin? Certainly not! Indeed, I would not have been mindful of sin if not for the law. For I would not have been aware of coveting if the law had not said, "Do not covet."* <sup>8</sup> But sin, seizing its opportunity through the commandment, produced in me every kind of covetous desire. For apart from the law, sin is dead.

<sup>9</sup> Once I was alive apart from the law; but when the commandment came, sin sprang to life and I died. <sup>10</sup> So I discovered that the very commandment that was meant to bring life actually brought death. <sup>11</sup> For sin, seizing its opportunity through the commandment, deceived me and through the commandment put me to death.

<sup>12</sup> So then, the law is holy, and the commandment is holy, righteous, and good.

Struggling with Sin

<sup>13</sup> Did that which is good, then, become death to me? Certainly not! But in order that sin might be exposed as sin, it produced death in me through what was good, so that through the commandment sin might become utterly sinful.

<sup>14</sup> We know that the law is spiritual; but I am unspiritual, sold as a slave to sin. <sup>15</sup> I do not understand what I do. For what I want to do, I do not do. But what I hate, I do. <sup>16</sup> And if I do what I do not want to do, I admit that the law is good. <sup>17</sup> In that case, it is no longer I who do it, but it is sin living in me that does it.

<sup>18</sup> I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my flesh; for I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out. <sup>19</sup> For I do not do the good I want to do. Instead, I keep on doing the evil I do not want to do. <sup>20</sup> And if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who do it, but it is sin living in me that does it.

<sup>21</sup> So this is the principle I have discovered: When I want to do good, evil is right there with me. <sup>22</sup> For in my inner being I delight in God's law. <sup>23</sup> But I see another law at work in my body, warring against the law of my mind and holding me captive to the law of sin that dwells within me.†

<sup>24</sup> What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death? <sup>25</sup> Thanks be to God, through Jesus Christ our Lord!

* 7:7 Exodus 20:17; Deuteronomy 5:21    † 7:23 Literally captive to the law of sin being in my members.

So then, with my mind I serve the law of God, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin.

Walking by the Spirit

(Ezekiel 36:16-38; Galatians 5:16-26)

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.* <sup>2</sup> For in Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit of life set you † free from the law of sin and death. <sup>3</sup> For what the law was powerless to do in that it was weakened by the flesh, God did by sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful man, as an offering for sin.‡ He thus condemned sin in the flesh, <sup>4</sup> so that the righteous standard of the law might be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

<sup>5</sup> Those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh; but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. <sup>6</sup> The mind of the flesh is death, but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace, <sup>7</sup> because the mind of the flesh is hostile to God: It does not submit to God's law, nor can it do so. <sup>8</sup> Those controlled by the flesh § cannot please God.

<sup>9</sup> You, however, are controlled not by the flesh, but by the Spirit, if the Spirit of God lives in you. And if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Christ. <sup>10</sup> But if Christ is in you, your body is dead because of sin, yet your spirit is alive * because of righteousness. <sup>11</sup> And if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, He who raised Christ Jesus from the dead † will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit, who lives in you.

Heirs with Christ

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, brothers, we have an obligation, but it is not to the flesh, to live according to it. <sup>13</sup> For if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. <sup>14</sup> For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God.

<sup>15</sup> For you did not receive a spirit of slavery that returns you to fear, but you received the Spirit of sonship, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!" <sup>16</sup> The Spirit Himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children. <sup>17</sup> And if we are children, then we are heirs: heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ—if indeed we suffer with Him, so that we may also be glorified with Him.

Future Glory

(2 Corinthians 5:1-10)

<sup>18</sup> I consider that our present sufferings are not comparable to the glory that will be revealed in us. <sup>19</sup> The creation waits in eager expectation for the revelation of the sons of God. <sup>20</sup> For the creation was subjected to futility, not by its own will, but because of the One who subjected it, in hope <sup>21</sup> that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and brought into the glorious freedom of the children of God.

<sup>22</sup> We know that the whole creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth until the present time. <sup>23</sup> Not only that, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. <sup>24</sup> For in this hope we were saved; but hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what he can already see? <sup>25</sup> But if we hope for what we do not yet see, we wait for it patiently.

<sup>26</sup> In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know how we ought to pray, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groans too deep for words.

* 8:1 BYZ and TR in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. † 8:2 BYZ and TR me ‡ 8:3 Literally in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin § 8:8 Literally Those being in the flesh; similarly in verse 9 * 8:10 Or yet the Spirit is life † 8:11 NA, BYZ, and TR raised Christ from the dead

<sup>27</sup> And He who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

God Works in All Things
(Ephesians 1:3-14)

<sup>28</sup> And we know that God works all things together for the good of those who love Him, who are called according to His purpose. <sup>29</sup> For those God foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, so that He would be the firstborn among many brothers. <sup>30</sup> And those He predestined, He also called; those He called, He also justified; those He justified, He also glorified.

<sup>31</sup> What then shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? <sup>32</sup> He who did not spare His own Son but gave Him up for us all, how will He not also, along with Him, freely give us all things? <sup>33</sup> Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. <sup>34</sup> Who is there to condemn us? For Christ Jesus, who died, and more than that was raised to life, is at the right hand of God—and He is interceding for us.

More than Conquerors
(Psalm 44:1-26)

<sup>35</sup> Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or distress or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? <sup>36</sup> As it is written:

"For Your sake we face death all day long;
we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered."‡

<sup>37</sup> No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. <sup>38</sup> For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor principalities, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, <sup>39</sup> neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Paul's Concern for the Jews

<sup>1</sup> I speak the truth in Christ; I am not lying, as confirmed by my conscience in the Holy Spirit. <sup>2</sup> I have deep sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. <sup>3</sup> For I could wish that I myself were cursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my brothers, my own flesh and blood, <sup>4</sup> the people of Israel. Theirs is the adoption as sons; theirs the divine glory and the covenants; theirs the giving of the law, the temple worship, and the promises. <sup>5</sup> Theirs are the patriarchs, and from them proceeds the human descent of Christ, who is God over all, forever worthy of praise!* Amen.

God's Sovereign Choice
(Genesis 25:19-28; Malachi 1:1-5)

<sup>6</sup> It is not as though God's word has failed. For not all who are descended from Israel are Israel. <sup>7</sup> Nor because they are Abraham's descendants are they all his children. On the contrary, "Through Isaac your offspring will be reckoned."† <sup>8</sup> So it is not the children of the flesh who are God's children, but it is the children of the promise who are regarded as offspring. <sup>9</sup> For this is what the promise stated: "At the appointed time I will return, and Sarah will have a son."‡

<sup>10</sup> Not only that, but Rebecca's children were conceived by one man, our father Isaac. <sup>11</sup> Yet before the twins were born or had done anything good or bad, in order that God's plan of election might stand, <sup>12</sup> not by works but by Him who calls, she was told, "The older will serve the younger."§ <sup>13</sup> So it is written: "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."*

<sup>14</sup> What then shall we say? Is God unjust? Certainly not! <sup>15</sup> For He says to Moses:

‡ 8:36 Psalm 44:22    * 9:5 Or forever blessed    † 9:7 Genesis 21:12    ‡ 9:9 Genesis 18:14    § 9:12 Genesis 25:23    * 9:13 Malachi 1:2-3

"I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."†

<sup>16</sup> So then, it does not depend on man's desire or effort, but on God's mercy. <sup>17</sup> For the Scripture says to Pharaoh: "I raised you up for this very purpose, that I might display My power in you, and that My name might be proclaimed in all the earth."‡ <sup>18</sup> Therefore God has mercy on whom He wants to have mercy, and He hardens whom He wants to harden.

<sup>19</sup> One of you will say to me, "Then why does God still find fault? For who can resist His will?" <sup>20</sup> But who are you, O man, to talk back to God? Shall what is formed say to Him who formed it, "Why did You make me like this?"§ <sup>21</sup> Does not the potter have the right to make from the same lump of clay one vessel for special occasions and another for common use?

<sup>22</sup> What if God, intending to show His wrath and make His power known, bore with great patience the vessels of His wrath, prepared for destruction? <sup>23</sup> What if He did this to make the riches of His glory known to the vessels of His mercy, whom He prepared in advance for glory— <sup>24</sup> including us, whom He has called not only from the Jews, but also from the Gentiles? <sup>25</sup> As He says in Hosea:

"I will call them 'My People' who are not My people, and I will call her 'My Beloved' who is not My beloved,"*

<sup>26</sup> and,

"It will happen that in the very place where it was said to them,
'You are not My people,'
they will be called
'sons of the living God.'"†

<sup>27</sup> Isaiah cries out concerning Israel:

"Though the number of the Israelites is like the sand of the sea,
only the remnant will be saved.

<sup>28</sup> For the Lord will carry out His sentence on the earth thoroughly and decisively."‡

<sup>29</sup> It is just as Isaiah foretold:

"Unless the Lord of Hosts had left us descendants,
we would have become like Sodom,
we would have resembled Gomorrah."§

Israel's Unbelief

<sup>30</sup> What then will we say? That the Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, have obtained it, a righteousness that is by faith; <sup>31</sup> but Israel, who pursued a law of righteousness, has not attained it. <sup>32</sup> Why not? Because their pursuit was not by faith, but as if it were by works. They stumbled over the stumbling stone, <sup>33</sup> as it is written:

"See, I lay in Zion a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense;*
and the one who believes in Him will never be put to shame."†

10The Word Brings Salvation
(Isaiah 65:1-16)*

<sup>1</sup> Brothers, my heart's desire and prayer to God for the Israelites is for their salvation.
<sup>2</sup> For I testify about them that they are zealous for God, but not on the basis of knowledge.
<sup>3</sup> Because they were ignorant of God's righteousness and sought to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness. <sup>4</sup> For Christ is the end of the law, to bring righteousness to everyone who believes.

<sup>5</sup> For concerning the righteousness that is by the law, Moses writes: "The man who does these things will live by them."* <sup>6</sup> But the righteousness that is by faith says: "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'"† (that is, to bring Christ down) <sup>7</sup> or, 'Who will descend into the Abyss?'"‡ (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead)."

<sup>8</sup> But what does it say? "The word is near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart,"§ that is, the word of faith we are proclaiming: <sup>9</sup> that if you confess with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. <sup>10</sup> For with your heart you believe and are justified, and with your mouth you confess and are saved.

<sup>11</sup> It is just as the Scripture says: "Anyone who believes in Him will never be put to shame."* <sup>12</sup> For there is no difference between Jew and Greek: The same Lord is Lord of all, and gives richly to all who call on Him, <sup>13</sup> for, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."†

<sup>14</sup> How then can they call on the One in whom they have not believed? And how can they believe in the One of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone to preach? <sup>15</sup> And how can they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"‡

<sup>16</sup> But not all of them welcomed the good news. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our message?"§ <sup>17</sup> Consequently, faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ.

<sup>18</sup> But I ask, did they not hear? Indeed they did:

"Their voice has gone out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world."*

<sup>19</sup> I ask instead, did Israel not understand? First, Moses says:

"I will make you jealous by those who are not a nation;
 I will make you angry by a nation without understanding."†

<sup>20</sup> And Isaiah boldly says:

"I was found by those who did not seek Me;
 I revealed Myself to those who did not ask for Me."‡

<sup>21</sup> But as for Israel he says:

"All day long I have held out My hands to a disobedient and obstinate people."§

A Remnant Chosen by Grace

<sup>1</sup> I ask then, did God reject His people? Certainly not! I am an Israelite myself, a descendant of Abraham, from the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>2</sup> God did not reject His people, whom He foreknew. Do you not know what the Scripture says about Elijah, how he appealed to God against Israel: <sup>3</sup> "Lord, they have killed Your prophets and torn down Your altars. I am the only one left, and they are seeking my life as well"*?

<sup>4</sup> And what was the divine reply to him? "I have reserved for Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal."†

<sup>5</sup> In the same way, at the present time there is a remnant chosen by grace. <sup>6</sup> And if it is by grace, then it is no longer by works. Otherwise, grace would no longer be grace.‡

<sup>7</sup> What then? What Israel was seeking, it failed to obtain, but the elect did. The others were hardened, <sup>8</sup> as it is written:

"God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that could not see,
and ears that could not hear,
to this very day."§

<sup>9</sup> And David says:

"May their table become a snare and a trap,
a stumbling block and a retribution to them.
<sup>10</sup> May their eyes be darkened so they cannot see,
and their backs be bent forever."*

The Ingrafting of the Gentiles

<sup>11</sup> I ask then, did they stumble so as to fall beyond recovery?† Certainly not! However, because of their trespass, salvation has come to the Gentiles to make Israel jealous. <sup>12</sup> But if their trespass means riches for the world, and their failure means riches for the Gentiles, how much greater riches will their fullness bring!

<sup>13</sup> I am speaking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch as I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my ministry <sup>14</sup> in the hope that I may provoke my own people to jealousy and save some of them. <sup>15</sup> For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead? <sup>16</sup> If the first part of the dough is holy, so is the whole batch; if the root is holy, so are the branches.

<sup>17</sup> Now if some branches have been broken off, and you, a wild olive shoot, have been grafted in among the others to share in the nourishment of the olive root, <sup>18</sup> do not boast over those branches. If you do, remember this: You do not support the root, but the root supports you.

<sup>19</sup> You will say then, "Branches were broken off so that I could be grafted in." <sup>20</sup> That is correct: They were broken off because of unbelief, but you stand by faith. Do not be arrogant, but be afraid. <sup>21</sup> For if God did not spare the natural branches, He will certainly not ‡ spare you either.

<sup>22</sup> Take notice, therefore, of the kindness and severity of God: severity to those who fell, but kindness to you, if you continue in His kindness. Otherwise you also will be cut off. <sup>23</sup> And if they do not persist in unbelief, they will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again. <sup>24</sup> For if you were cut from a wild olive tree, and contrary to nature

* 11:3 1 Kings 19:10, 14 † 11:4 1 Kings 19:18 ‡ 11:6 BYZ and TR include But if it is by works, then it is no longer grace; otherwise work is no longer work. § 11:8 See Deuteronomy 29:4 and Isaiah 29:10. * 11:10 Psalm 69:22-23 (see also LXX) † 11:11 Or did they stumble so as to lose their share? Literally did they stumble that they might fall? ‡ 11:21 Or He will perhaps not; SBL, NE, and WH He will not were grafted into one that is cultivated, how much more readily will these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree!

All Israel Will Be Saved

<sup>25</sup> I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers, so that you will not be conceited: A hardening in part has come to Israel, until the full number of the Gentiles has come in. <sup>26</sup> And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written:

“The Deliverer will come from Zion;
He will remove godlessness from Jacob.

<sup>27</sup> And this is My covenant with them when I take away their sins.”§

<sup>28</sup> Regarding the gospel, they are enemies on your account; but regarding election, they are loved on account of the patriarchs. <sup>29</sup> For God’s gifts and His call are irrevocable.

<sup>30</sup> Just as you who formerly disobeyed God have now received mercy through their disobedience, <sup>31</sup> so they too have now disobeyed, in order that they too may now receive mercy through the mercy shown to you. * <sup>32</sup> For God has consigned everyone to disobedience so that He may have mercy on everyone.

*A Hymn of Praise
(Isaiah 40:9-31)*

<sup>33</sup> O, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God!
How unsearchable are His judgments, and untraceable His ways!

<sup>34</sup> “Who has known the mind of the Lord?
Or who has been His counselor?”†

<sup>35</sup> “Who has first given to God, that God should repay him?”‡

<sup>36</sup> For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things.
To Him be the glory forever! Amen.

12

*Living Sacrifices
(1 Corinthians 3:16-23; 1 Corinthians 6:18-20)*

<sup>1</sup> Therefore I urge you, brothers, on account of God’s mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God, which is your spiritual service of worship. * <sup>2</sup> Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what is the good, pleasing, and perfect will of God.

<sup>3</sup> For by the grace given me I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but think of yourself with sober judgment, according to the measure of faith God has given you. <sup>4</sup> Just as each of us has one body with many members, and not all members have the same function, <sup>5</sup> so in Christ we who are many are one body, and each member belongs to one another.

<sup>6</sup> We have different gifts according to the grace given us. If one’s gift is prophecy, let him use it in proportion to his faith; <sup>7</sup> if it is serving, let him serve; if it is teaching, let him teach; <sup>8</sup> if it is encouraging, let him encourage; if it is giving, let him give generously; if it is leading, let him lead with diligence; if it is showing mercy, let him do it cheerfully.

*Love, Zeal, Hope, Hospitality
(John 13:31-35; 1 John 3:11-24)*

<sup>9</sup> Love must be sincere. Detest what is evil; cling to what is good. <sup>10</sup> Be devoted to one another in brotherly love. Outdo yourselves in honoring one another.

<sup>13</sup> Share with the saints who are in need. Practice hospitality.

Forgiveness
(Matthew 18:21-35)

<sup>14</sup> Bless those who persecute you. Bless and do not curse. <sup>15</sup> Rejoice with those who rejoice; weep with those who weep. <sup>16</sup> Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud, but enjoy the company of the lowly. Do not be conceited.

<sup>19</sup> Do not avenge yourselves, beloved, but leave room for God's wrath. For it is written: "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay, says the Lord."†

<sup>20</sup> On the contrary,

"If your enemy is hungry, feed him;
if he is thirsty, give him a drink.
For in so doing,
you will heap burning coals on his head."‡

<sup>21</sup> Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

13

Submission to Authorities
(1 Peter 2:13-20)

<sup>1</sup> Everyone must submit himself to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except that which is from God. The authorities that exist have been appointed by God. <sup>2</sup> Consequently, whoever resists authority is opposing what God has set in place, and those who do so will bring judgment on themselves.

<sup>3</sup> For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Do you want to be unafraid of the one in authority? Then do what is right, and you will have his approval. <sup>4</sup> For he is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not carry the sword in vain. He is God's servant, an agent of retribution to the wrongdoer.

<sup>5</sup> Therefore it is necessary to submit to authority, not only to avoid punishment, but also as a matter of conscience. <sup>6</sup> This is also why you pay taxes. For the authorities are God's servants, who devote themselves to their work. <sup>7</sup> Pay everyone what you owe him: taxes to whom taxes are due, revenue to whom revenue is due, respect to whom respect is due, honor to whom honor is due.

Love Fulfills the Law
(Leviticus 19:9-18)

<sup>8</sup> Be indebted to no one, except to one another in love. For he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law. <sup>9</sup> The commandments "Do not commit adultery," "Do not murder," "Do not steal," "Do not covet,"* and any other commandments, are summed up in this one decree: "Love your neighbor as yourself."† <sup>10</sup> Love does no wrong to its neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.

The Day Is Near

<sup>11</sup> And do this, understanding the occasion. The hour has come for you to wake up from your slumber, for our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. <sup>12</sup> The night is nearly over; the day has drawn near. So let us lay aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light. <sup>13</sup> Let us behave decently, as in the daytime, not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and debauchery, not in dissension and jealousy. <sup>14</sup> Instead, clothe yourselves with‡ the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the desires of the flesh.

14

The Law of Liberty

(Matthew 7:1-6; Luke 6:37-42)

<sup>5</sup> One person regards a certain day above the others, while someone else considers every day alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. <sup>6</sup> He who observes a special day does so to the Lord;† he who eats does so to the Lord, for he gives thanks to God; and he who abstains does so to the Lord and gives thanks to God.

<sup>7</sup> For none of us lives to himself alone, and none of us dies to himself alone. <sup>8</sup> If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord. So whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. <sup>9</sup> For this reason Christ died and returned to life, that He might be the Lord of both the dead and the living.

<sup>10</sup> Why, then, do you judge your brother? Or why do you belittle your brother? For we will all stand before God's judgment seat. <sup>11</sup> It is written:

"As surely as I live,
says the Lord,
every knee will bow before Me;
every tongue will confess to God."‡

<sup>12</sup> So then, each of us will give an account of himself to God.

The Law of Love

(Ezekiel 14:1-11; 1 Corinthians 8:1-13)

<sup>13</sup> Therefore let us stop judging one another. Instead, make up your mind not to put any stumbling block or obstacle in your brother's way.

<sup>14</sup> I am convinced and fully persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself. But if anyone regards something as unclean, then for him it is unclean. <sup>15</sup> If your brother is distressed by what you eat, you are no longer acting in love. Do not by your eating destroy your brother, for whom Christ died.

<sup>16</sup> Do not allow what you consider good, then, to be spoken of as evil. <sup>17</sup> For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking, but of righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup> For whoever serves Christ in this way is pleasing to God and approved by men.

<sup>19</sup> So then, let us pursue what leads to peace and to mutual edification. <sup>20</sup> Do not destroy the work of God for the sake of food. All food is clean, but it is wrong for a man to let

‡ 13:14 Or put on; see verse 12. * 14:1 Or without quarreling over disputable matters † 14:6 BYZ and TR include he who does not regard the day, to the Lord he does not regard it; ‡ 14:11 Or will give praise to God or will acknowledge God; Isaiah 45:23 (see also LXX)

his eating be a stumbling block. <sup>21</sup> It is better not to eat meat or drink wine or to do anything to cause your brother to stumble. §

<sup>22</sup> Keep your belief about such matters between yourself and God.* Blessed is the one who does not condemn himself by what he approves. <sup>23</sup> But the one who has doubts is condemned if he eats, because his eating is not from faith; and everything that is not from faith is sin. †

Accept One Another

<sup>1</sup> We who are strong ought to bear with the shortcomings of the weak and not to please ourselves. <sup>2</sup> Each of us should please his neighbor for his good, to build him up. <sup>3</sup> For even Christ did not please Himself, but as it is written: "The insults of those who insult You have fallen on Me."* <sup>4</sup> For everything that was written in the past was written for our instruction, so that through endurance and the encouragement of the Scriptures, we might have hope.

<sup>5</sup> Now may the God who gives endurance and encouragement grant you harmony with one another in Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup> so that with one mind and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Christ the Servant of Jews and Gentiles

<sup>7</sup> Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring glory to God. <sup>8</sup> For I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the circumcised on behalf of God's truth, to confirm the promises made to the patriarchs, <sup>9</sup> so that the Gentiles may glorify God for His mercy. As it is written:

"Therefore I will praise You among the Gentiles;
I will sing hymns to Your name." †

<sup>10</sup> Again, it says:

"Rejoice, O Gentiles, with His people." ‡

<sup>11</sup> And again:

"Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles, and extol Him, all you peoples." §

<sup>12</sup> And once more, Isaiah says:

"The Root of Jesse will appear,
One who will arise to rule over the Gentiles;
in Him the Gentiles will put their hope."*

<sup>13</sup> Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you believe in Him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Paul the Minister to the Gentiles

<sup>14</sup> I myself am convinced, my brothers, that you yourselves are full of goodness, brimming with knowledge, and able to instruct one another. <sup>15</sup> However, I have written you a bold reminder on some points, because of the grace God has given me <sup>16</sup> to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles in the priestly service of the gospel of God, so that the Gentiles might become an offering acceptable to God, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

§ 14:21 SBL, BYZ, and TR include or to be hindered or weakened. * 14:22 Literally Keep the faith that you have to yourself before God † 14:23 Some manuscripts place the text of Romans 16:25-27 here. * 15:3 Psalm 69:9 † 15:9 2 Samuel 22:50; Psalm 18:49 ‡ 15:10 Deuteronomy 32:43 § 15:11 Psalm 117:1 * 15:12 Isaiah 11:10 (see also LXX)

17 Therefore I exult in Christ Jesus in my service to God. 18 I will not presume to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me in leading the Gentiles to obedience by word and deed, 19 by the power of signs and wonders, and by the power of the Spirit of God.† So from Jerusalem all the way around to Illyricum, I have fully proclaimed the gospel of Christ.

20 In this way I have aspired to preach the gospel where Christ was not known, so that I would not be building on someone else's foundation. 21 Rather, as it is written:

"Those who were not told about Him will see,
and those who have not heard will understand."‡

22 That is why I have often been hindered from coming to you.

Paul's Travel Plans
(1 Corinthians 16:5-9)

23 But now that there are no further opportunities for me in these regions, and since I have longed for many years to visit you, 24 I hope to see you on my way to Spain. And after I have enjoyed your company for a while, you can equip me for my journey.

25 Now, however, I am on my way to Jerusalem to serve the saints there. 26 For Macedonia and Achaia were pleased to make a contribution for the poor among the saints in Jerusalem. 27 They were pleased to do it, and indeed they owe it to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual blessings, they are obligated to minister to them with material blessings.

28 So after I have completed this service and have safely delivered this bounty to them, I will set off to Spain by way of you. 29 I know that when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing § of Christ.

30 Now I urge you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to join me in my struggle by praying to God for me. 31 Pray that I may be delivered from the unbelievers in Judea, and that my service in Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints there, 32 so that by God's will I may come to you with joy and together with you be refreshed.

33 The God of peace be with all of you. Amen.*

Personal Greetings and Love

1 I commend to you our sister Phoebe, a servant * of the church in Cenchrea. 2 Welcome her in the Lord in a manner worthy of the saints, and assist her with anything she may need from you. For she has been a great help to many people, including me.

3 Greet Prisca † and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus, 4 who have risked their lives for me. Not only I but all the churches of the Gentiles are grateful to them. 5 Greet also the church that meets at their house.

Greet my beloved Epenetus, who was the first convert to Christ in the province of Asia.‡

6 Greet Mary, who has worked very hard for you.

7 Greet Andronicus and Junia,§ my fellow countrymen and fellow prisoners. They are outstanding among the apostles, and they were in Christ before I was.

<sup>11</sup> Greet Herodion, my fellow countryman.

Greet those from the household of Narcissus who are in the Lord.

<sup>12</sup> Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, women who have worked hard in the Lord.

Greet my beloved Persis, who has worked very hard in the Lord.

<sup>13</sup> Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord, and his mother, who has been a mother to me as well.

All the churches of Christ send you greetings.

Avoid Divisions
(Titus 3:9-11)

<sup>17</sup> Now I urge you, brothers, to watch out for those who create divisions and obstacles that are contrary to the teaching you have learned. Turn away from them. <sup>18</sup> For such people are not serving our Lord Christ, but their own appetites. By smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the naive.

<sup>19</sup> Everyone has heard about your obedience, so I rejoice over you. But I want you to be wise about what is good and innocent about what is evil.

<sup>20</sup> The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ * be with you.

Greetings from Paul's Fellow Workers
(Colossians 4:7-14)

<sup>21</sup> Timothy, my fellow worker, sends you greetings, as do Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my fellow countrymen.

<sup>22</sup> I, Tertius, who wrote down this letter, greet you in the Lord.

<sup>23</sup> Gaius, who has hosted me and all the church, sends you greetings.

Erastus, the city treasurer, sends you greetings, as does our brother Quartus.†

Doxology
(Jude 1:24-25)

1 Corinthians

Greetings from Paul and Sosthenes
(Acts 18:1-11; 2 Corinthians 1:1-2)

<sup>1</sup> Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes,

<sup>2</sup> To the church of God in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus and called to be holy, together with all those everywhere who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours:

<sup>3</sup> Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving
(Philippians 1:3-11; Colossians 1:3-14)

<sup>4</sup> I always thank my God for you because of the grace He has given you in Christ Jesus. <sup>5</sup> For in Him you have been enriched in every way, in all speech and all knowledge, <sup>6</sup> because our testimony about Christ was confirmed in you.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore you do not lack any spiritual gift as you eagerly await the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>8</sup> He will sustain you to the end, so that you will be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup> God, who has called you into fellowship with His Son Jesus Christ our Lord, is faithful.

Unity in the Church
(Psalm 133:1-3; Ephesians 4:1-16)

<sup>10</sup> I appeal to you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree together, so that there may be no divisions among you and that you may be united in mind and conviction. <sup>11</sup> My brothers, some from Chloe's household have informed me that there are quarrels among you. <sup>12</sup> What I mean is this: Individuals among you are saying, "I follow Paul," "I follow Apollos," "I follow Cephas,"* or "I follow Christ."

<sup>13</sup> Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Were you baptized into the name of Paul? <sup>14</sup> I thank God that I did not baptize any of you except Crispus and Gaius, <sup>15</sup> so no one can say that you were baptized into my name. <sup>16</sup> Yes, I also baptized the household of Stephanas; beyond that I do not remember if I baptized anyone else. <sup>17</sup> For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel, not with words of wisdom, lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power.

The Message of the Cross

<sup>18</sup> For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. <sup>19</sup> For it is written:

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise;
the intelligence of the intelligent I will frustrate."†

<sup>20</sup> Where is the wise man? Where is the scribe? Where is the philosopher of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? <sup>21</sup> For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not know Him, God was pleased through the foolishness of what was preached to save those who believe.

<sup>22</sup> Jews demand signs and Greeks search for wisdom, <sup>23</sup> but we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles,‡ <sup>24</sup> but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.

* 1:12 That is, Peter    † 1:19 Isaiah 29:14 (see also LXX)    ‡ 1:23 BYZ and TR to Greeks

<sup>25</sup> For the foolishness of God is wiser than man's wisdom,§ and the weakness of God is stronger than man's strength.

Wisdom from God

<sup>26</sup> Brothers, consider the time of your calling: Not many of you were wise by human standards; not many were powerful; not many were of noble birth. <sup>27</sup> But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. <sup>28</sup> He chose the lowly and despised things of the world, and the things that are not, to nullify the things that are, <sup>29</sup> so that no one may boast in His presence.

<sup>30</sup> It is because of Him that you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God: our righteousness, holiness, and redemption. <sup>31</sup> Therefore, as it is written: "Let him who boasts boast in the Lord."*

2

Paul's Message by the Spirit's Power

<sup>1</sup> When I came to you, brothers, I did not come with eloquence or wisdom as I proclaimed to you the testimony about God. <sup>2</sup> For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ and Him crucified. <sup>3</sup> I came to you in weakness and fear, and with much trembling. <sup>4</sup> My message and my preaching were not with persuasive words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit's power, <sup>5</sup> so that your faith would not rest on men's wisdom, but on God's power.

*Spiritual Wisdom
(Ephesians 1:15-23)*

<sup>6</sup> Among the mature, however, we speak a message of wisdom—but not the wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing. <sup>7</sup> No, we speak of the mysterious and hidden wisdom of God,* which He destined for our glory before time began. <sup>8</sup> None of the rulers of this age understood it. For if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. <sup>9</sup> Rather, as it is written:

"No eye has seen,
no ear has heard,
no heart has imagined,
what God has prepared for those who love Him."†

<sup>10</sup> But God has revealed it to us by the Spirit.

The Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God. <sup>11</sup> For who among men knows the thoughts of man except his own spirit within him? So too, no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. <sup>12</sup> We have not received the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we may understand what God has freely given us. <sup>13</sup> And this is what we speak, not in words taught us by human wisdom, but in words taught by the Spirit, expressing spiritual truths in spiritual words.‡

<sup>14</sup> The natural man does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God. For they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned. <sup>15</sup> The spiritual man judges all things, but he himself is not subject to anyone's judgment. <sup>16</sup> "For who has known the mind of the Lord, so as to instruct Him?"§ But we have the mind of Christ.

*God's Fellow Workers
(Hebrews 5:11-14)*

---

§ 1:25 Literally than men; twice in this verse * 1:31 Jeremiah 9:24 * 2:7 Or we speak God's wisdom in a mystery † 2:9 Isaiah 64:4 ‡ 2:13 Or to spiritual people § 2:16 Isaiah 40:13 (see also LXX)

<sup>1</sup> Brothers, I could not address you as spiritual, but as worldly—as infants in Christ. <sup>2</sup> I gave you milk, not solid food, for you were not yet ready for solid food. In fact, you are still not ready, <sup>3</sup> for you are still worldly. For since there is jealousy and dissension among you, are you not worldly? Are you not walking in the way of man? <sup>4</sup> For when one of you says, “I follow Paul,” and another, “I follow Apollos,” are you not mere men?

<sup>5</sup> What then is Apollos? And what is Paul? They are servants through whom you believed, as the Lord has assigned to each his role. <sup>6</sup> I planted the seed and Apollos watered it, but God made it grow. <sup>7</sup> So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God, who makes things grow. <sup>8</sup> He who plants and he who waters are one in purpose,* and each will be rewarded according to his own labor. <sup>9</sup> For we are God’s fellow workers; you are God’s field, God’s building.

Christ Our Foundation

(Isaiah 28:14–22; Ephesians 2:19–22; 1 Peter 2:1–8)

<sup>10</sup> By the grace God has given me, I laid a foundation as an expert builder, and someone else is building on it. But each one must be careful how he builds. <sup>11</sup> For no one can lay a foundation other than the one already laid, which is Jesus Christ.

<sup>12</sup> If anyone builds on this foundation using gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw, <sup>13</sup> his workmanship will be evident, because the Day will bring it to light. It will be revealed with fire, and the fire will prove the quality of each man’s work. <sup>14</sup> If what he has built survives, he will receive a reward. <sup>15</sup> If it is burned up, he will suffer loss. He himself will be saved, but only as if through the flames.

God’s Temple and God’s Wisdom

(Romans 12:1–8; 1 Corinthians 6:18–20)

<sup>16</sup> Do you not know that you yourselves are God’s temple, and that God’s Spirit dwells in † you? <sup>17</sup> If anyone destroys God’s temple, God will destroy him; for God’s temple is holy, and you are that temple.

<sup>18</sup> Let no one deceive himself. If any of you thinks he is wise in this age, he should become a fool, so that he may become wise. <sup>19</sup> For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in God’s sight. As it is written: “He catches the wise in their craftiness.”‡ <sup>20</sup> And again, “The Lord knows that the thoughts of the wise are futile.”§

<sup>21</sup> Therefore, stop boasting in men. All things are yours, <sup>22</sup> whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas* or the world or life or death or the present or the future. All of them belong to you, <sup>23</sup> and you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

4

Servants of Christ

<sup>1</sup> So then, men ought to regard us as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. <sup>2</sup> Now it is required of stewards that they be found faithful.

<sup>3</sup> I care very little, however, if I am judged by you or by any human court. In fact, I do not even judge myself. <sup>4</sup> My conscience is clear, but that does not vindicate me. It is the Lord who judges me.

<sup>5</sup> Therefore judge nothing before the appointed time; wait until the Lord comes. He will bring to light what is hidden in darkness and will expose the motives of men’s hearts. At that time each will receive his praise from God.

<sup>6</sup> Brothers, I have applied these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, so that you may learn from us not to go beyond what is written. Then you will not take pride in one man over another. <sup>7</sup> For who makes you so superior? What do you have that you did not receive? And if you did receive it, why do you boast as though you did not?

* 3:8 Literally are one † 3:16 Or among ‡ 3:19 Job 5:13 § 3:20 Psalm 94:11 * 3:22 That is, Peter

<sup>8</sup> Already you have all you want. Already you have become rich. Without us, you have become kings. How I wish you really were kings, so that we might be kings with you! <sup>9</sup> For it seems to me that God has displayed us apostles at the end of the procession, like prisoners appointed for death. We have become a spectacle to the whole world, to angels as well as to men.

<sup>10</sup> We are fools for Christ, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are honored, but we are dishonored. <sup>11</sup> To this very hour we are hungry and thirsty, we are poorly clothed, we are brutally treated, we are homeless. <sup>12</sup> We work hard with our own hands. When we are vilified, we bless; when we are persecuted, we endure it; <sup>13</sup> when we are slandered, we answer gently. Up to this moment we have become the scum of the earth, the refuse of the world.

Paul's Fatherly Warning

<sup>14</sup> I am not writing this to shame you, but to warn you as my beloved children. <sup>15</sup> Even if you have ten thousand guardians in Christ, you do not have many fathers; for in Christ Jesus I became your father through the gospel. <sup>16</sup> Therefore I urge you to imitate me. <sup>17</sup> That is why I have sent you Timothy, my beloved and faithful child in the Lord. He will remind you of my way of life in Christ Jesus,* which is exactly what I teach everywhere in every church.

<sup>18</sup> Some of you have become arrogant, as if I were not coming to you. <sup>19</sup> But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord is willing, and then I will find out not only what these arrogant people are saying, but what power they have. <sup>20</sup> For the kingdom of God is not a matter of talk but of power. <sup>21</sup> Which do you prefer? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and with a gentle spirit?

5

Immorality Rebuked

(Leviticus 20:10-21; Proverbs 5:1-23)

<sup>1</sup> It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that is intolerable even among pagans: A man has his father's wife. <sup>2</sup> And you are proud! Shouldn't you rather have been stricken with grief and have removed from your fellowship the man who did this?

<sup>3</sup> Although I am absent from you in body, I am present with you in spirit, and I have already pronounced judgment on the one who did this, just as if I were present. <sup>4</sup> When you are assembled in the name of our Lord Jesus* and I am with you in spirit, along with the power of the Lord Jesus, <sup>5</sup> hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved on the Day of the Lord.†

<sup>6</sup> Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven works through the whole batch of dough? <sup>7</sup> Get rid of the old leaven, that you may be a new unleavened batch, as you really are. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. <sup>8</sup> Therefore let us keep the feast, not with the old bread, leavened with malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and of truth.

Expel the Immoral Brother

<sup>9</sup> I wrote you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people. <sup>10</sup> I was not including the sexually immoral of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters. In that case you would have to leave this world. <sup>11</sup> But now I am writing you not to associate with anyone who claims to be a brother but is sexually immoral or greedy, an idolater or a verbal abuser, a drunkard or a swindler. With such a man do not even eat.

<sup>12</sup> What business of mine is it to judge those outside the church? Are you not to judge those inside? <sup>13</sup> God will judge those outside. "Expel the wicked man from among you."‡

Lawsuits among Believers

<sup>1</sup> If any of you has a grievance against another, how dare he go to law before the unrighteous instead of before the saints! <sup>2</sup> Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if you are to judge the world, are you not competent to judge trivial cases? <sup>3</sup> Do you not know that we will judge angels? How much more the things of this life!

<sup>4</sup> So if you need to settle everyday matters, do you appoint as judges those of no standing in the church? <sup>5</sup> I say this to your shame. Is there really no one among you wise enough to arbitrate between his brothers? <sup>6</sup> Instead, one brother goes to law against another, and this in front of unbelievers!

<sup>7</sup> The very fact that you have lawsuits among you means that you are thoroughly defeated already. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated? <sup>8</sup> Instead, you yourselves cheat and do wrong, even against your own brothers!*

Members of Christ

<sup>9</sup> Do you not know that the wicked will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: Neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor men who submit to or perform homosexual acts, <sup>10</sup> nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor verbal abusers, nor swindlers, will inherit the kingdom of God. <sup>11</sup> And that is what some of you were. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

<sup>12</sup> "Everything is permissible for me," but not everything is beneficial. "Everything is permissible for me," but I will not be mastered by anything. <sup>13</sup> "Food for the stomach and the stomach for food," but God will destroy them both. The body is not intended for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. <sup>14</sup> By His power God raised the Lord from the dead, and He will raise us also.

<sup>15</sup> Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and unite them with a prostitute? Never! <sup>16</sup> Or don't you know that he who unites himself with a prostitute is one with her in body? For it is said, "The two will become one flesh."† <sup>17</sup> But he who unites himself with the Lord is one with Him in spirit.

The Temple of the Holy Spirit
(Romans 12:1–8; 1 Corinthians 3:16–23)

<sup>18</sup> Flee from sexual immorality. Every other sin a man can commit is outside his body, but he who sins sexually sins against his own body. <sup>19</sup> Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; <sup>20</sup> you were bought at a price. Therefore glorify God with your body.‡

7

Principles of Marriage

<sup>1</sup> Now for the matters you wrote about: It is good to abstain from sexual relations.* <sup>2</sup> But because there is so much sexual immorality, each man should have his own wife, and each woman her own husband.

<sup>3</sup> The husband should fulfill his marital duty to his wife, and likewise the wife to her husband. <sup>4</sup> The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband. Likewise the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife.

* 6:8 Literally do wrong, and this to brothers! † 6:16 Genesis 2:24 (see also LXX) ‡ 6:20 BYZ and TR include and with your spirit, which belong to God. * 7:1 Literally It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

<sup>5</sup> Do not deprive each other, except by mutual consent and for a time, so you may devote yourselves to prayer. Then come together again, so that Satan will not tempt you through your lack of self-control. <sup>6</sup> I say this as a concession, not as a command. <sup>7</sup> I wish that all men were as I am. But each man has his own gift from God; one has this gift, another has that.

<sup>8</sup> Now to the unmarried and widows I say this: It is good for them to remain unmarried, as I am. <sup>9</sup> But if they cannot control themselves, let them marry. For it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

<sup>10</sup> To the married I give this command (not I, but the Lord): A wife must not separate from her husband. <sup>11</sup> But if she does, she must remain unmarried or else be reconciled to her husband. And a husband must not divorce his wife.

<sup>12</sup> To the rest I say this (I, not the Lord): If a brother has an unbelieving wife and she is willing to live with him, he must not divorce her. <sup>13</sup> And if a woman has an unbelieving husband and he is willing to live with her, she must not divorce him. <sup>14</sup> For the unbelieving husband is sanctified through his believing wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through her believing husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but now they are holy.

<sup>15</sup> But if the unbeliever leaves, let him go. The believing brother or sister is not bound in such cases. God has called you † to live in peace. <sup>16</sup> How do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?

Live Your Calling

<sup>17</sup> Regardless, each one should lead the life that the Lord has assigned to him and to which God has called him. This is what I prescribe in all the churches. <sup>18</sup> Was a man already circumcised when he was called? He should not become uncircumcised. Was a man still uncircumcised when called? He should not be circumcised. <sup>19</sup> Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing. Keeping God's commandments is what counts.

<sup>20</sup> Each one should remain in the situation he was in when he was called. <sup>21</sup> Were you a slave when you were called? Do not let it concern you—but if you can gain your freedom, take the opportunity. <sup>22</sup> For he who was a slave when he was called by the Lord is the Lord's freedman. Conversely, he who was a free man when he was called is Christ's slave.

<sup>23</sup> You were bought at a price; do not become slaves of men. <sup>24</sup> Brothers, each one should remain in the situation he was in when God called him.

The Unmarried and Widowed

<sup>29</sup> What I am saying, brothers, is that the time is short. From now on those who have wives should live as if they had none; <sup>30</sup> those who weep, as if they did not; those who are joyful, as if they were not; those who make a purchase, as if they had nothing; <sup>31</sup> and those who use the things of this world, as if not dependent on them. For this world in its present form is passing away.

<sup>32</sup> I want you to be free from concern. The unmarried man is concerned about the work of the Lord, how he can please the Lord. <sup>33</sup> But the married man is concerned about the affairs of this world, how he can please his wife, <sup>34</sup> and his interests are divided. The unmarried woman or virgin is concerned about the work of the Lord, how she can be holy in both body and spirit. But the married woman is concerned about the affairs of this world, how she can please her husband.

<sup>35</sup> I am saying this for your own good, not to restrict you, but in order to promote proper decorum and undivided devotion to the Lord.

<sup>36</sup> However, if someone thinks he is acting inappropriately toward his betrothed, and if she is beyond her youth and they ought to marry,§ let him do as he wishes; he is not sinning; they should get married. <sup>37</sup> But the man who is firmly established in his heart and under no constraint, with control over his will and resolve in his heart not to marry the virgin,* he will do well.

<sup>38</sup> So then, he who marries the virgin does well, but he who does not marry her does even better.

<sup>39</sup> A wife is bound to her husband as long as he lives. But if her husband dies, she is free to marry anyone she wishes, as long as he belongs to the Lord.† <sup>40</sup> In my judgment, however, she is happier if she remains as she is. And I think that I too have the Spirit of God.

Food Sacrificed to Idols (Ezekiel 14:1-11; Romans 14:13-23)

<sup>1</sup> Now about food sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. <sup>2</sup> The one who thinks he knows something does not yet know as he ought to know. <sup>3</sup> But the one who loves God is known by God.

<sup>4</sup> So about eating food sacrificed to idols: We know that an idol is nothing at all in the world, and that there is no God but one. <sup>5</sup> For even if there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth (as there are many so-called gods and lords), <sup>6</sup> yet for us there is but one God, the Father, from whom all things came and for whom we exist. And there is but one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom all things came and through whom we exist.

<sup>7</sup> But not everyone has this knowledge. Some people are still so accustomed to idols that they eat such food as if it were sacrificed to an idol. And since their conscience is weak, it is defiled. <sup>8</sup> But food does not bring us closer to God: We are no worse if we do not eat, and no better if we do.

<sup>9</sup> Be careful, however, that your freedom does not become a stumbling block to the weak. <sup>10</sup> For if someone with a weak conscience sees you who are well informed eating in an idol's temple, will he not be encouraged to eat food sacrificed to idols? <sup>11</sup> So this weak brother, for whom Christ died, is destroyed by your knowledge. <sup>12</sup> By sinning against your brothers in this way and wounding their weak conscience, you sin against Christ.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore, if what I eat causes my brother to stumble, I will never eat meat again, so that I will not cause him to stumble.

The Rights of an Apostle (Deuteronomy 18:1-8)

<sup>1</sup> Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are you yourselves not my workmanship in the Lord? <sup>2</sup> Even if I am not an apostle to others, surely I am to you. For you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

§ 7:36 Literally and it ought to be so      * 7:37 Literally in his heart to keep the virgin or in his heart to keep the betrothed      † 7:39 Literally she is free to be married to whom she wishes, only in the Lord

<sup>3</sup> This is my defense to those who scrutinize me: <sup>4</sup> Have we no right to food and to drink? <sup>5</sup> Have we no right to take along a believing wife,* as do the other apostles and the Lord's brothers and Cephas?† <sup>6</sup> Or are Barnabas and I the only apostles who must work for a living?‡

<sup>7</sup> Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit? Who tends a flock and does not drink of its milk?

<sup>8</sup> Do I say this from a human perspective? Doesn't the Law say the same thing? <sup>9</sup> For it is written in the Law of Moses: "Do not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain."§ Is it about oxen that God is concerned? <sup>10</sup> Isn't He actually speaking on our behalf? Indeed, this was written for us, because when the plowman plows and the thresher threshes, they should also expect to share in the harvest.

<sup>11</sup> If we have sown spiritual seed among you, is it too much for us to reap a material harvest from you? <sup>12</sup> If others have this right to your support, shouldn't we have it all the more? But we did not exercise this right. Instead, we put up with anything rather than hinder the gospel of Christ.

<sup>13</sup> Do you not know that those who work in the temple eat of its food, and those who serve at the altar partake of its offerings? <sup>14</sup> In the same way, the Lord has prescribed that those who preach the gospel should receive their living from the gospel. <sup>15</sup> But I have not used any of these rights. And I am not writing this to suggest that something be done for me. Indeed, I would rather die than let anyone nullify my boast.

<sup>16</sup> Yet when I preach the gospel, I have no reason to boast, because I am obligated to preach. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel! <sup>17</sup> If my preaching is voluntary, I have a reward. But if it is not voluntary, I am still entrusted with a responsibility. <sup>18</sup> What then is my reward? That in preaching the gospel I may offer it free of charge, and so not use up my rights in preaching it.

Paul the Servant to All

<sup>19</sup> Though I am free of obligation to anyone, I make myself a slave to everyone, to win as many as possible. <sup>20</sup> To the Jews I became like a Jew, to win the Jews. To those under the law I became like one under the law (though I myself am not under the law), to win those under the law. <sup>21</sup> To those without the law I became like one without the law (though I am not outside the law of God but am under the law of Christ), to win those without the law. <sup>22</sup> To the weak I became weak, to win the weak. I have become all things to all people so that by all possible means I might save some.

<sup>23</sup> I do all this for the sake of the gospel, so that I may share in its blessings.

Run Your Race to Win

<sup>24</sup> Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way as to take the prize. <sup>25</sup> Everyone who competes in the games trains with strict discipline. They do it for a crown that is perishable, but we do it for a crown that is imperishable. <sup>26</sup> Therefore I do not run aimlessly; I do not fight like I am beating the air. <sup>27</sup> No, I discipline my body and make it my slave, so that after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified.

Warnings from Israel's Past (Numbers 16:41-50; Numbers 25:1-5)

<sup>1</sup> I do not want you to be unaware, brothers, that our forefathers were all under the cloud, and that they all passed through the sea. <sup>2</sup> They were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea. <sup>3</sup> They all ate the same spiritual food <sup>4</sup> and drank the same spiritual drink; for they drank from the spiritual rock that accompanied them, and that

* 9:5 Literally take along a sister—a wife— † 9:5 That is, Peter ‡ 9:6 Literally Or is it only Barnabas and I who do not have authority not to work? § 9:9 Deuteronomy 25:4

rock was Christ. <sup>5</sup> Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them, for they were struck down in the wilderness.

<sup>6</sup> These things took place as examples to keep us from craving evil things as they did. <sup>7</sup> Do not be idolaters, as some of them were. As it is written: "The people sat down to eat and to drink, and got up to indulge in revelry."* <sup>8</sup> We should not commit sexual immorality, as some of them did, and in one day twenty-three thousand of them died. <sup>9</sup> We should not test Christ,† as some of them did, and were killed by snakes. <sup>10</sup> And do not complain, as some of them did, and were killed by the destroying angel.‡

<sup>11</sup> Now these things happened to them as examples and were written down as warnings for us, on whom the fulfillment of the ages has come. <sup>12</sup> So the one who thinks he is standing firm should be careful not to fall. <sup>13</sup> No temptation has seized you except what is common to man. And God is faithful; He will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, He will also provide an escape, so that you can stand up under it.

Flee from Idolatry
(Exodus 20:22-26)

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. <sup>15</sup> I speak to reasonable people; judge for yourselves what I say. <sup>16</sup> Is not the cup of blessing that we bless a participation in the blood of Christ? And is not the bread that we break a participation in the body of Christ? <sup>17</sup> Because there is one loaf, we who are many are one body; for we all partake of the one loaf.

<sup>18</sup> Consider the people of Israel: Are not those who eat the sacrifices fellow partakers in the altar? <sup>19</sup> Am I suggesting, then, that food sacrificed to an idol is anything, or that an idol is anything? <sup>20</sup> No, but the sacrifices of pagans are offered to demons, not to God. And I do not want you to be participants with demons. <sup>21</sup> You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons too; you cannot partake in the table of the Lord and the table of demons too. <sup>22</sup> Are we trying to provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than He?

All to God's Glory
(1 Peter 4:1-11)

<sup>27</sup> If an unbeliever invites you to a meal and you want to go, eat anything set before you without raising questions of conscience. <sup>28</sup> But if someone tells you, "This food was offered to idols," then do not eat it, for the sake of the one who told you and for the sake of conscience—† <sup>29</sup> the other one's conscience, I mean, not your own. For why should my freedom be determined by someone else's conscience? <sup>30</sup> If I partake in the meal with thankfulness, why am I denounced because of that for which I give thanks?

<sup>31</sup> So whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all to the glory of God. <sup>32</sup> Do not become a stumbling block, whether to Jews or Greeks or the church of God— <sup>33</sup> as I also try to please everyone in all I do. For I am not seeking my own good, but the good of many, that they may be saved.

Roles in Worship

* 10:7 Or to play; Exodus 32:6 † 10:9 WH, NE, and Tischendorf test the Lord ‡ 10:10 Literally the destroyer

§ 10:23 Or "All things are lawful," twice in this verse * 10:26 Psalm 24:1 † 10:28 BYZ and TR and for the sake of conscience—for the earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof—

1 You are to imitate me, just as I imitate Christ.

2 Now I commend you for remembering me in everything and for maintaining the traditions, just as I passed them on to you. 3 But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is man, and the head of Christ is God.

4 Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors his head. 5 And every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head, for it is just as if her head were shaved. 6 If a woman does not cover her head, she should have her hair cut off. And if it is shameful for a woman to have her hair cut or shaved off, she should cover her head.

7 A man ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of man. 8 For man did not come from woman, but woman from man. 9 Neither was man created for woman, but woman for man. 10 For this reason a woman ought to have a sign of authority on * her head, because of the angels.

11 In the Lord, however, woman is not independent of man, nor is man independent of woman. 12 For just as woman came from man, so also man is born of woman. But everything comes from God.

13 Judge for yourselves: Is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered? 14 Doesn't nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a disgrace to him, 15 but that if a woman has long hair, it is her glory? For long hair is given to her as a covering. 16 If anyone is inclined to dispute this, we have no other practice, nor do the churches of God.

Sharing in the Lord's Supper
(Matthew 26:20-30; Mark 14:17-26; Luke 22:14-23)

17 In the following instructions I have no praise to offer, because your gatherings do more harm than good. 18 First of all, I hear that when you come together as a church, there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it. 19 And indeed, there must be differences among you to show which of you are approved.

20 Now then, when you come together, it is not the Lord's Supper you eat. 21 For as you eat, each of you goes ahead without sharing his meal.† While one remains hungry, another gets drunk. 22 Don't you have your own homes in which to eat and drink? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What can I say to you? Shall I praise you for this? No, I will not!

23 For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you: The Lord Jesus, on the night He was betrayed, took bread, 24 and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "This is My body, which is for you;‡ do this in remembrance of Me." 25 In the same way, after supper He took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood; do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me." 26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until He comes.

27 Therefore, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sinning against the § body and blood of the Lord. 28 Each one must examine himself before he eats of the bread and drinks of the cup. 29 For anyone who eats and drinks without recognizing the body * eats and drinks judgment on himself. 30 That is why many among you are weak and sick, and a number of you have fallen asleep.

31 Now if we judged ourselves properly, we would not come under judgment. 32 But when we are judged by the Lord, we are being disciplined so that we will not be condemned with the world.

* 11:10 Or have authority over † 11:21 Literally each one takes first his own meal. ‡ 11:24 BYZ and TR which is broken for you § 11:27 Or will be responsible for the * 11:29 BYZ and TR the body of the Lord

<sup>33</sup> So, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another. <sup>34</sup> If anyone is hungry, he should eat at home, so that when you come together it will not result in judgment. And when I come, I will give instructions about the remaining matters.

12

Spiritual Gifts

<sup>1</sup> Now about spiritual gifts, brothers, I do not want you to be uninformed. <sup>2</sup> You know that when you were pagans, you were influenced and led astray to mute idols. <sup>3</sup> Therefore I inform you that no one who is speaking by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus be cursed," and no one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>4</sup> There are different gifts, but the same Spirit. <sup>5</sup> There are different ministries, but the same Lord. <sup>6</sup> There are different ways of working, but the same God works all things in all people.

<sup>7</sup> Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good. <sup>8</sup> To one there is given through the Spirit the message of wisdom, to another the message of knowledge by the same Spirit, <sup>9</sup> to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by that one Spirit, <sup>10</sup> to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another distinguishing between spirits, to another speaking in various tongues, and to still another the interpretation of tongues. <sup>11</sup> All these are the work of one and the same Spirit, who apportions them to each one as He determines.

The Body of Christ

<sup>12</sup> The body is a unit, though it is composed of many parts. And although its parts are many, they all form one body. So it is with Christ. <sup>13</sup> For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slave or free, and we were all given one Spirit to drink.

<sup>14</sup> For the body does not consist of one part, but of many. <sup>15</sup> If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. <sup>16</sup> And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. <sup>17</sup> If the whole body were an eye, where would the sense of hearing be? If the whole body were an ear, where would the sense of smell be?

<sup>18</sup> But in fact, God has arranged the members of the body, every one of them, according to His design. <sup>19</sup> If they were all one part, where would the body be? <sup>20</sup> As it is, there are many parts, but one body.

<sup>21</sup> The eye cannot say to the hand, "I do not need you." Nor can the head say to the feet, "I do not need you." <sup>22</sup> On the contrary, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, <sup>23</sup> and the parts we consider less honorable, we treat with greater honor. And our unpresentable parts are treated with special modesty, <sup>24</sup> whereas our presentable parts have no such need.

But God has composed the body and has given greater honor to the parts that lacked it, <sup>25</sup> so that there should be no division in the body, but that its members should have mutual concern for one another. <sup>26</sup> If one part suffers, every part suffers with it; if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it.

The Greater Gifts

<sup>27</sup> Now you are the body of Christ, and each of you is a member of it. <sup>28</sup> And in the church God has appointed first of all apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then workers of miracles, and those with gifts of healing, helping, administration, and various tongues. <sup>29</sup> Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? <sup>30</sup> Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? <sup>31</sup> But eagerly desire the greater gifts.

And now I will show you the most excellent way.

13Love*

<sup>1</sup> If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am only a ringing gong or a clanging cymbal. <sup>2</sup> If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have absolute faith so as to move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. <sup>3</sup> If I give all I possess to the poor and exult in the surrender of my body,* but have not love, I gain nothing.

<sup>8</sup> Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be restrained; where there is knowledge, it will be dismissed. <sup>9</sup> For we know in part and we prophesy in part, <sup>10</sup> but when the perfect comes, the partial passes away.

<sup>11</sup> When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I set aside childish ways. <sup>12</sup> Now we see but a dim reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

<sup>13</sup> And now these three remain: faith, hope, and love; but the greatest of these is love.

14Prophecy and Tongues*

<sup>1</sup> Earnestly pursue love and eagerly desire spiritual gifts, especially the gift of prophecy. <sup>2</sup> For he who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men, but to God. Indeed, no one understands him; he utters mysteries in the Spirit. <sup>3</sup> But he who prophesies speaks to men for their edification, encouragement, and comfort. <sup>4</sup> The one who speaks in a tongue edifies himself, but the one who prophesies edifies the church.

<sup>5</sup> I wish that all of you could speak in tongues, but I would rather have you prophesy. He who prophesies is greater than one who speaks in tongues, unless he interprets so that the church may be edified.

<sup>6</sup> Now, brothers, if I come to you speaking in tongues, how will I benefit you, unless I bring you some revelation or knowledge or prophecy or teaching? <sup>7</sup> Even in the case of lifeless instruments, such as the flute or harp, how will anyone recognize the tune they are playing unless the notes are distinct? <sup>8</sup> Again, if the trumpet sounds a muffled call, who will prepare for battle? <sup>9</sup> So it is with you. Unless you speak intelligible words with your tongue, how will anyone know what you are saying? You will just be speaking into the air.

<sup>10</sup> Assuredly, there are many different languages in the world, yet none of them is without meaning. <sup>11</sup> If, then, I do not know the meaning of someone's language, I am a foreigner* to the speaker, and he is a foreigner to me.

<sup>12</sup> It is the same with you. Since you are eager to have spiritual gifts, strive to excel in gifts that build up the church. <sup>13</sup> Therefore, the one who speaks in a tongue should pray that he may interpret. <sup>14</sup> For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful.

<sup>15</sup> What then shall I do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will also pray with my mind. I will sing with my spirit, but I will also sing with my mind. <sup>16</sup> Otherwise, if you speak a blessing in spirit,† how can someone who is uninstructed say "Amen" to your

* 13:3 SBL, NE, BYZ, and TR surrender my body to be burned * 14:11 Literally a barbarian; twice in this verse

† 14:16 Or in the Spirit

thanksgiving, since he does not know what you are saying? <sup>17</sup> You may be giving thanks well enough, but the other one is not edified.

<sup>18</sup> I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you. <sup>19</sup> But in the church, I would rather speak five coherent words to instruct others than ten thousand words in a tongue.

<sup>20</sup> Brothers, stop thinking like children. In regard to evil be infants, but in your thinking be mature. <sup>21</sup> It is written in the Law:

“By strange tongues and foreign lips
I will speak to this people, but even then they will not listen to Me,
says the Lord.”‡

<sup>22</sup> Tongues, then, are a sign, not for believers, but for unbelievers. Prophecy, however, is for believers, not for unbelievers.

<sup>23</sup> So if the whole church comes together and everyone speaks in tongues, and some who are uninstructed or some unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are out of your minds? <sup>24</sup> But if an unbeliever or uninstructed person comes in while everyone is prophesying, he will be convicted and called to account by all, <sup>25</sup> and the secrets of his heart will be made known. So he will fall facedown and worship God, proclaiming, “God is truly among you!”

Orderly Worship

<sup>26</sup> What then shall we say, brothers? When you come together, everyone has a psalm or a teaching, a revelation, a tongue, or an interpretation. All of these must be done to build up the church.

<sup>27</sup> If anyone speaks in a tongue, two, or at most three, should speak in turn, and someone must interpret. <sup>28</sup> But if there is no interpreter, he should remain silent in the church and speak only to himself and God.

<sup>29</sup> Two or three prophets should speak, and the others should weigh carefully what is said. <sup>30</sup> And if a revelation comes to someone who is seated, the first speaker should stop. <sup>31</sup> For you can all prophesy in turn so that everyone may be instructed and encouraged. <sup>32</sup> The spirits of prophets are subject to prophets. <sup>33</sup> For God is not a God of disorder, but of peace—as in all the churches of the saints.§

<sup>34</sup> Women are to be silent in the churches. They are not permitted to speak, but must be in submission, as the law says. <sup>35</sup> If they wish to inquire about something, they are to ask their own husbands at home; for it is dishonorable for a woman to speak in the church.*

<sup>36</sup> Did the word of God originate with you? Or are you the only ones it has reached? <sup>37</sup> If anyone considers himself a prophet or spiritual person, let him acknowledge that what I am writing you is the Lord’s command. <sup>38</sup> But if anyone ignores this, he himself will be ignored.†

15

The Resurrection of Christ

<sup>1</sup> Now, brothers, I want to remind you of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, and in which you stand firm. <sup>2</sup> By this gospel you are saved, if you hold firmly to the word I preached to you. Otherwise, you have believed in vain.

‡ 14:21 Isaiah 28:11–12    § 14:33 Or of peace. As in all the churches of the saints: Thus, some translators begin the new paragraph after peace.    * 14:35 Some manuscripts place verses 34–35 after verse 40.    † 14:38 BYZ and TR let him be ignorant

<sup>3</sup> For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, <sup>4</sup> that He was buried, that He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, <sup>5</sup> and that He appeared to Cephas * and then to the Twelve. <sup>6</sup> After that, He appeared to more than five hundred brothers at once, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep. <sup>7</sup> Then He appeared to James, then to all the apostles. <sup>8</sup> And last of all He appeared to me also, as to one of untimely birth.

<sup>9</sup> For I am the least of the apostles and am unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. <sup>10</sup> But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace to me was not in vain. No, I worked harder than all of them—yet not I, but the grace of God that was with me. <sup>11</sup> Whether, then, it was I or they, this is what we preach, and this is what you believed.

The Resurrection of the Dead

<sup>12</sup> But if it is preached that Christ has been raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? <sup>13</sup> If there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised. <sup>14</sup> And if Christ has not been raised, our preaching is worthless, and so is your faith. <sup>15</sup> In that case, we are also exposed as false witnesses about God. For we have testified about God that He raised Christ from the dead, but He did not raise Him if in fact the dead are not raised.

<sup>16</sup> For if the dead are not raised, then not even Christ has been raised. <sup>17</sup> And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins. <sup>18</sup> Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. <sup>19</sup> If our hope in Christ is for this life alone, we are to be pitied more than all men.

The Order of Resurrection

<sup>20</sup> But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. <sup>21</sup> For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man. <sup>22</sup> For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive. <sup>23</sup> But each in his own turn: Christ the firstfruits; then at His coming, those who belong to Him.

<sup>24</sup> Then the end will come, when He hands over the kingdom to God the Father after He has destroyed all dominion, authority, and power. <sup>25</sup> For He must reign until He has put all His enemies under His feet. <sup>26</sup> The last enemy to be destroyed is death. <sup>27</sup> For “God has put everything under His feet.”† Now when it says that everything has been put under Him, this clearly does not include the One who put everything under Him. <sup>28</sup> And when all things have been subjected to Him, then the Son Himself will be made subject to Him who put all things under Him, so that God may be all in all.

<sup>29</sup> If these things are not so, what will those do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people baptized for them? <sup>30</sup> And why do we endanger ourselves every hour? <sup>31</sup> I face death every day, brothers, as surely as I boast about you in Christ Jesus our Lord. <sup>32</sup> If I fought wild beasts in Ephesus for human motives, what did I gain? If the dead are not raised,

“Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.”‡

<sup>33</sup> Do not be deceived: “Bad company corrupts good character.”§ <sup>34</sup> Sober up as you ought, and stop sinning; for some of you are ignorant of God. I say this to your shame.

The Resurrection Body

<sup>35</sup> But someone will ask, “How are the dead raised? With what kind of body will they come?” <sup>36</sup> You fool! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. <sup>37</sup> And what you sow is not the body that will be, but just a seed, perhaps of wheat or something else.

* 15:5 That is, Peter † 15:27 Psalm 8:6 ‡ 15:32 Isaiah 22:13 § 15:33 Probably a quote from the Greek comedy Thais by Menander

<sup>38</sup> But God gives it a body as He has designed, and to each kind of seed He gives its own body.

<sup>39</sup> Not all flesh is the same: Men have one kind of flesh, animals have another, birds another, and fish another. <sup>40</sup> There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies. But the splendor of the heavenly bodies is of one degree, and the splendor of the earthly bodies is of another. <sup>41</sup> The sun has one degree of splendor, the moon another, and the stars another; and star differs from star in splendor.

<sup>42</sup> So will it be with the resurrection of the dead: What is sown is perishable; it is raised imperishable. <sup>43</sup> It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. <sup>44</sup> It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. <sup>45</sup> So it is written: "The first man Adam became a living being;"* the last Adam a life-giving spirit.

<sup>46</sup> The spiritual, however, was not first, but the natural, and then the spiritual. <sup>47</sup> The first man was of the dust of the earth, the second man from heaven. <sup>48</sup> As was the earthly man, so also are those who are of the earth; and as is the heavenly man, so also are those who are of heaven. <sup>49</sup> And just as we have borne the likeness of the earthly man, so also shall we bear the likeness of the heavenly man.

Where, O Death, Is Your Victory?
(Hosea 13:9-14)

<sup>50</sup> Now I declare to you, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

<sup>51</sup> Listen, I tell you a mystery: We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed— <sup>52</sup> in an instant, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. <sup>53</sup> For the perishable must be clothed † with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality.

<sup>54</sup> When the perishable has been clothed with the imperishable and the mortal with immortality,‡ then the saying that is written will come to pass: "Death has been swallowed up in victory."§

<sup>55</sup> "Where, O Death, is your victory?
Where, O Death, is your sting?"*

<sup>56</sup> The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. <sup>57</sup> But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!

<sup>58</sup> Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast and immovable. Always excel in the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain.

The Collection for the Saints
(2 Corinthians 9:1-15)

<sup>1</sup> Now about the collection for the saints, you are to do as I directed the churches of Galatia: <sup>2</sup> On the first day of every week, each of you should set aside a portion of his income, saving it up, so that when I come no collections will be needed. <sup>3</sup> Then, on my arrival, I will send letters with those you recommend to carry your gift to Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup> And if it is advisable for me to go also, they can travel with me.

Paul's Travel Plans

<sup>5</sup> After I go through Macedonia, however, I will come to you; for I will be going through Macedonia. <sup>6</sup> Perhaps I will stay with you awhile, or even spend the winter, so that you can help me on my journey, wherever I go. <sup>7</sup> For I do not want to see you now only in passing; I hope to spend some time with you, if the Lord permits. <sup>8</sup> But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost,* <sup>9</sup> because a great door for effective work has opened to me, even though many oppose me.

*Timothy and Apollos
(Philippians 2:19–30)*

<sup>10</sup> If Timothy comes, see to it that he has nothing to fear while he is with you, for he is doing the work of the Lord, just as I am. <sup>11</sup> No one, then, should treat him with contempt. Send him on his way in peace so that he can return to me, for I am expecting him along with the brothers.

<sup>12</sup> Now about our brother Apollos: I strongly urged him to go to you with the brothers. He was not at all inclined to go now, but he will go when he has the opportunity.

Concluding Exhortations

<sup>15</sup> You know that Stephanas and his household were the first converts in Achaia, and they have devoted themselves to the service of the saints. Now I urge you, brothers, <sup>16</sup> to submit to such as these, and to every fellow worker and laborer.

<sup>17</sup> I am glad that Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus have arrived, because they have supplied what was lacking from you. <sup>18</sup> For they refreshed my spirit and yours as well. Show your appreciation, therefore, to such men.

*Signature and Final Greetings
(Colossians 4:15–18; 2 Thessalonians 3:16–18)*

Aquila and Prisca ‡ greet you warmly in the Lord, and so does the church that meets at their house.

<sup>20</sup> All the brothers here send you greetings. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

<sup>23</sup> The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you.

Amen.*

2 Corinthians

*Paul Greets the Corinthians
(Acts 18:1-11; 1 Corinthians 1:1-3)*

<sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

To the church of God in Corinth, together with all the saints throughout Achaia:

<sup>2</sup> Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The God of All Comfort

<sup>3</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, <sup>4</sup> who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves have received from God. <sup>5</sup> For just as the sufferings of Christ overflow to us, so also through Christ our comfort overflows.

<sup>6</sup> If we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which accomplishes in you patient endurance of the same sufferings we experience. <sup>7</sup> And our hope for you is sure, because we know that just as you share in our sufferings, so also you will share in our comfort.

<sup>8</sup> We do not want you to be unaware, brothers, of the hardships we encountered in the province of Asia.* We were under a burden far beyond our ability to endure, so that we despaired even of life. <sup>9</sup> Indeed, we felt we were under the sentence of death, in order that we would not trust in ourselves, but in God, who raises the dead.

<sup>10</sup> He has delivered us from such a deadly peril, and He will deliver us. In Him we have placed our hope that He will yet again deliver us, <sup>11</sup> as you help us by your prayers. Then many will give thanks on our behalf for the favor shown us in answer to their prayers.

Paul's Change of Plans

<sup>12</sup> And this is our boast: Our conscience testifies that we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially in relation to you, in the holiness and sincerity that are from God—not in worldly † wisdom, but in the grace of God. <sup>13</sup> For we do not write you anything that is beyond your ability to read and understand. And I hope that you will understand us completely, <sup>14</sup> as you have already understood us in part, so that you may boast of us just as we will boast of you in the day of our Lord Jesus.‡

<sup>15</sup> Confident of this, I planned to visit you first, so that you might receive a double blessing. <sup>16</sup> I wanted to visit you on my way to Macedonia, and to return to you from Macedonia, and then to have you help me on my way to Judea.

<sup>17</sup> When I planned this, did I do it carelessly? Or do I make my plans by human standards, so as to say “Yes, yes” when I really mean “No, no”? <sup>18</sup> But as surely as God is faithful, our message to you is not “Yes” and “No.” <sup>19</sup> For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was proclaimed among you by me and Silvanus § and Timothy, was not “Yes” and “No,” but in Him it has always been “Yes.” <sup>20</sup> For all the promises of God are “Yes” in Christ. And so through Him, our “Amen” is spoken to the glory of God.

<sup>21</sup> Now it is God who establishes both us and you in Christ. He anointed us, <sup>22</sup> placed His seal on us, and put His Spirit in our hearts as a pledge of what is to come. <sup>23</sup> I call God as my witness that it was in order to spare you that I did not return to Corinth. <sup>24</sup> Not that we lord it over your faith, but we are fellow workers with you for your joy, because it is by faith that you stand firm.

Reaffirm Your Love

<sup>1</sup> So I made up my mind not to make another painful visit to you. <sup>2</sup> For if I grieve you, who is left to cheer me but those whom I have grieved? <sup>3</sup> I wrote as I did so that on my arrival I would not be saddened by those who ought to make me rejoice. I had confidence in all of you, that you would share my joy. <sup>4</sup> For through many tears I wrote you out of great distress and anguish of heart, not to grieve you but to let you know how much I love you.

<sup>5</sup> Now if anyone has caused grief, he has not grieved me but all of you—to some degree, not to overstate it. <sup>6</sup> The punishment imposed on him by the majority is sufficient for him. <sup>7</sup> So instead, you ought to forgive and comfort him, so that he will not be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow. <sup>8</sup> Therefore I urge you to reaffirm your love for him.

<sup>9</sup> My purpose in writing you was to see if you would stand the test and be obedient in everything. <sup>10</sup> If you forgive anyone, I also forgive him. And if I have forgiven anything, I have forgiven it in the presence of Christ for your sake, <sup>11</sup> in order that Satan should not outwit us. For we are not unaware of his schemes.

Triumph in Christ

<sup>12</sup> Now when I went to Troas to preach the gospel of Christ and a door stood open for me in the Lord, <sup>13</sup> I had no peace in my spirit, because I did not find my brother Titus there. So I said goodbye to them and went on to Macedonia.

<sup>14</sup> But thanks be to God, who always leads us triumphantly as captives in Christ and through us spreads everywhere the fragrance of the knowledge of Him. <sup>15</sup> For we are to God the sweet aroma of Christ among those who are being saved and those who are perishing. <sup>16</sup> To the one, we are an odor of death and demise; to the other, a fragrance that brings life.* And who is qualified for such a task?

<sup>17</sup> For we are not like so many others, who peddle the word of God for profit. On the contrary, in Christ we speak before God with sincerity, as men sent from God.

3

Ministers of a New Covenant

<sup>1</sup> Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Or do we need, like some people, letters of recommendation to you or from you? <sup>2</sup> You yourselves are our letter, inscribed on our hearts, known and read by everyone. <sup>3</sup> It is clear that you are a letter from Christ, the result of our ministry, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts.

<sup>4</sup> Such confidence before God is ours through Christ. <sup>5</sup> Not that we are competent in ourselves to claim that anything comes from us, but our competence comes from God. <sup>6</sup> And He has qualified us as ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

The Glory of the New Covenant (Exodus 34:10-35)

<sup>7</sup> Now if the ministry of death, which was engraved in letters on stone, came with such glory that the Israelites could not gaze at the face of Moses because of its fleeting glory, <sup>8</sup> will not the ministry of the Spirit be even more glorious? <sup>9</sup> For if the ministry of condemnation was glorious, how much more glorious is the ministry of righteousness! <sup>10</sup> Indeed, what was once glorious has no glory now in comparison to the glory that surpasses it. <sup>11</sup> For if what was fading away came with glory, how much greater is the glory of that which endures!

* 2:16 Literally To the one, indeed, an aroma from death to death; but to the other, an aroma from life to life.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, since we have such a hope, we are very bold. <sup>13</sup> We are not like Moses, who would put a veil over his face to keep the Israelites from gazing at the end of what was fading away.

<sup>14</sup> But their minds were closed. For to this day the same veil remains at the reading of the old covenant. It has not been lifted, because only in Christ can it be removed. <sup>15</sup> And even to this day when Moses is read, a veil covers their hearts. <sup>16</sup> But whenever anyone turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away.

<sup>17</sup> Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. <sup>18</sup> And we, who with unveiled faces all reflect the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into His image with intensifying glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.

4

The Light of the Gospel

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, since God in His mercy has given us this ministry,* we do not lose heart. <sup>2</sup> Instead, we have renounced secret and shameful ways. We do not practice deceit, nor do we distort the word of God. On the contrary, by open proclamation of the truth, we commend ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. <sup>3</sup> And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing.

<sup>4</sup> The god of this age has blinded the minds of unbelievers so they cannot see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. <sup>5</sup> For we do not proclaim ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake. <sup>6</sup> For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness,"† made His light shine in our hearts to give us the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.‡

Treasure in Jars of Clay (Romans 6:1-14)

<sup>7</sup> Now we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this surpassingly great power is from God and not from us. <sup>8</sup> We are hard pressed on all sides, but not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair; <sup>9</sup> persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed.

<sup>10</sup> We always carry around in our body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body. <sup>11</sup> For we who are alive are always consigned to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our mortal body. <sup>12</sup> So then, death is at work in us, but life is at work in you.

<sup>13</sup> And in keeping with what is written: "I believed, therefore I have spoken,"§ we who have the same spirit of faith also believe and therefore speak, <sup>14</sup> knowing that the One who raised the Lord Jesus * will also raise us with Jesus and present us with you in His presence. <sup>15</sup> All this is for your benefit, so that the grace that is extending to more and more people may overflow in thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore we do not lose heart. Though our outer self is wasting away, yet our inner self is being renewed day by day. <sup>17</sup> For our light and momentary affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory that is far beyond comparison. <sup>18</sup> So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

Our Eternal Dwelling (Romans 8:18-27)

<sup>1</sup> Now we know that if the earthly tent we live in is dismantled, we have a building from God, an eternal house in heaven, not built by human hands. <sup>2</sup> For in this tent we groan, longing to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling, <sup>3</sup> because when we are

* 4:1 Literally Therefore, having this ministry, as we have received mercy, † 4:6 Genesis 1:3 ‡ 4:6 SBL, NE, and WH in the face of Christ § 4:13 Psalm 116:10 (see also LXX) * 4:14 SBL who raised Jesus clothed, we will not be found naked. <sup>4</sup> So while we are in this tent, we groan under our burdens, because we do not wish to be unclothed but clothed, so that our mortality may be swallowed up by life. <sup>5</sup> And God has prepared us for this very purpose and has given us the Spirit as a pledge of what is to come.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore we are always confident, although we know that while we are at home in the body, we are away from the Lord. <sup>7</sup> For we walk by faith, not by sight. <sup>8</sup> We are confident, then, and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord. <sup>9</sup> So we aspire to please Him, whether we are here in this body or away from it. <sup>10</sup> For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive his due for the things done in the body, whether good or bad.

Ambassadors for Christ

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, since we know what it means to fear the Lord, we try to persuade men. What we are is clear to God, and I hope it is clear to your conscience as well. <sup>12</sup> We are not commending ourselves to you again. Instead, we are giving you an occasion to be proud of us, so that you can answer those who take pride in appearances rather than in the heart.

<sup>13</sup> If we are out of our mind, it is for God; if we are of sound mind, it is for you. <sup>14</sup> For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that One died for all, therefore all died. <sup>15</sup> And He died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves, but for Him who died for them and was raised again.

<sup>16</sup> So from now on we regard no one according to the flesh. Although we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer. <sup>17</sup> Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation.* The old has passed away. Behold, the new has come!

<sup>18</sup> All this is from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: <sup>19</sup> that God was reconciling the world to Himself in Christ, not counting men's trespasses against them. And He has committed to us the message of reconciliation.

<sup>20</sup> Therefore we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were making His appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ: Be reconciled to God. <sup>21</sup> God made Him who knew no sin to be sin † on our behalf, so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God.

6

Paul's Hardships and God's Grace

<sup>1</sup> As God's fellow workers,* then, we urge you not to receive God's grace in vain. <sup>2</sup> For He says:

"In the time of favor I heard you, and in the day of salvation I helped you."†

Behold, now is the time of favor; now is the day of salvation!

<sup>3</sup> We put no obstacle in anyone's way, so that no one can discredit our ministry.

<sup>4</sup> Rather, as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: in great endurance; in troubles, hardships, and calamities; <sup>5</sup> in beatings, imprisonments, and riots; in labor, sleepless nights, and hunger; <sup>6</sup> in purity, knowledge, patience, and kindness; in the Holy Spirit and in sincere love; <sup>7</sup> in truthful speech and in the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness in the right hand and in the left; <sup>8</sup> through glory and dishonor, slander and praise; viewed as imposters, yet genuine; <sup>9</sup> as unknown, yet well-known; dying, and yet we live on; punished, yet not killed; <sup>10</sup> sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; poor, yet making many rich; having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

* 5:17 Or a new creature † 5:21 Or a sin offering * 6:1 Literally Now working together † 6:2 Isaiah 49:8
(see also LXX)

<sup>11</sup> We have spoken freely to you, Corinthians. Our hearts are open wide. <sup>12</sup> It is not our affection, but yours, that is restrained. <sup>13</sup> As a fair exchange, I ask you as my children: Open wide your hearts also.

Do Not Be Unequally Yoked

<sup>14</sup> Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership can righteousness have with wickedness? Or what fellowship does light have with darkness? <sup>15</sup> What harmony is there between Christ and Belial?‡ Or what does a believer have in common with an unbeliever? <sup>16</sup> What agreement can exist between the temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God. As God has said:

“I will dwell with them and walk among them,
and I will be their God,
and they will be My people.”§

<sup>17</sup> “Therefore come out from among them and be separate, says the Lord.
Touch no unclean thing,
and I will receive you.”*

<sup>18</sup> And:

“I will be a Father to you,
and you will be My sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.”†

7

Paul's Joy in the Corinthians

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, beloved, since we have these promises, let us cleanse ourselves from everything that defiles body and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

<sup>2</sup> Make room for us in your hearts. We have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have exploited no one. <sup>3</sup> I do not say this to condemn you. I have said before that you so occupy our hearts that we live and die together with you. <sup>4</sup> Great is my confidence in you; great is my pride in you; I am filled with encouragement; in all our troubles my joy overflows.

<sup>5</sup> For when we arrived in Macedonia, our bodies had no rest, but we were pressed from every direction—conflicts on the outside, fears within. <sup>6</sup> But God, who comforts the downcast, comforted us by the arrival of Titus, <sup>7</sup> and not only by his arrival, but also by the comfort he had received from you. He told us about your longing, your mourning, and your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced all the more.

<sup>8</sup> Even if I caused you sorrow by my letter, I do not regret it. Although I did regret it, I now see that my letter caused you sorrow, but only for a short time. <sup>9</sup> And now I rejoice, not because you were made sorrowful, but because your sorrow led you to repentance. For you felt the sorrow that God had intended, and so were not harmed in any way by us. <sup>10</sup> Godly sorrow brings repentance that leads to salvation without regret, but worldly sorrow brings death.

<sup>11</sup> Consider what this godly sorrow has produced in you: what earnestness, what eagerness to clear yourselves, what indignation, what alarm, what longing, what zeal, what vindication! In every way you have proved yourselves to be innocent in this matter. <sup>12</sup> So even though I wrote to you, it was not on account of the one who did wrong or the one who was harmed, but rather that your earnestness on our behalf would be made clear to you in the sight of God. <sup>13</sup> On account of this, we are encouraged.

‡ 6:15 Scrivener's TR and GOC; many Greek sources Beliar § 6:16 Leviticus 26:12; Jeremiah 32:38; Ezekiel 37:27

In addition to our own encouragement, we were even more delighted by the joy of Titus. For his spirit has been refreshed by all of you. <sup>14</sup> Indeed, I was not embarrassed by anything I had boasted to him about you. But just as everything we said to you was true, so our boasting to Titus has proved to be true as well. <sup>15</sup> And his affection for you is even greater when he remembers that you were all obedient as you welcomed him with fear and trembling. <sup>16</sup> I rejoice that I can have complete confidence in you.

Generosity Commended (Philippians 4:10-20)

<sup>1</sup> Now, brothers, we want you to know about the grace that God has given the churches of Macedonia. <sup>2</sup> In the terrible ordeal they suffered, their abundant joy and deep poverty overflowed into rich generosity. <sup>3</sup> For I testify that they gave according to their ability and even beyond it. Of their own accord, <sup>4</sup> they earnestly pleaded with us for the privilege of sharing in this service to the saints. <sup>5</sup> And not only did they do as we expected, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and then to us, because it was the will of God.

<sup>6</sup> So we urged Titus to help complete your act of grace, just as he had started it. <sup>7</sup> But just as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in complete earnestness, and in the love we inspired in you *—see that you also excel in this grace of giving. <sup>8</sup> I am not making a demand, but I am testing the sincerity of your love in comparison to the earnestness of others.

<sup>9</sup> For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, so that you through His poverty might become rich. <sup>10</sup> And this is my opinion about what is helpful for you in this matter: Last year you were the first not only to give, but even to have such a desire. <sup>11</sup> Now finish the work, so that you may complete it just as eagerly as you began, according to your means. <sup>12</sup> For if the eagerness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what he does not have.

<sup>13</sup> It is not our intention that others may be relieved while you are burdened, but that there may be equality. <sup>14</sup> At the present time, your surplus will meet their need, so that in turn their surplus will meet your need. Then there will be equality. <sup>15</sup> As it is written:

“He who gathered much had no excess, and he who gathered little had no shortfall.”†

Titus Commended (Titus 1:1-4)

<sup>16</sup> But thanks be to God, who put into the heart of Titus the same devotion I have for you. <sup>17</sup> For not only did he welcome our appeal, but he is eagerly coming to you of his own volition.

<sup>18</sup> Along with Titus we are sending the brother who is praised by all the churches for his work in the gospel. <sup>19</sup> More than that, this brother was chosen by the churches to accompany us with the offering ‡—the gracious gift we administer to honor the Lord Himself and to show our eagerness to help.

<sup>20</sup> We hope to avoid any criticism of the way we administer this generous gift. <sup>21</sup> For we are taking great care to do what is right, not only in the eyes of the Lord, but also in the eyes of men.

<sup>22</sup> And we are sending along with them our brother whose earnestness has been proven many times and in many ways, and now even more so by his great confidence in you. <sup>23</sup> As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker among you. As for our brothers, they are messengers § of the churches, to the glory of Christ. <sup>24</sup> In full view of the churches, then, show these men the proof of your love and the reason for our boasting about you.

God Loves a Cheerful Giver (1 Corinthians 16:1–4)

<sup>1</sup> Now about the service to the saints, there is no need for me to write to you. <sup>2</sup> For I know your eagerness to help, and I have been boasting to the Macedonians that since last year you in Achaia were prepared to give. And your zeal has stirred most of them to do likewise.

<sup>3</sup> But I am sending the brothers in order that our boasting about you in this matter should not prove empty, but that you will be prepared, just as I said. <sup>4</sup> Otherwise, if any Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we—to say nothing of you—would be ashamed of having been so confident. <sup>5</sup> So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers to visit you beforehand and make arrangements for the bountiful gift you had promised. This way, your gift will be prepared generously and not begrudgingly.

<sup>6</sup> Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. <sup>7</sup> Each one should give what he has decided in his heart to give, not out of regret or compulsion. For God loves a cheerful giver.* <sup>8</sup> And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that in all things, at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work. <sup>9</sup> As it is written:

“He has scattered abroad His gifts to the poor;
His righteousness endures forever.”†

<sup>10</sup> Now He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your store of seed and will increase the harvest of your righteousness. <sup>11</sup> You will be enriched in every way to be generous on every occasion, so that through us your giving will produce thanksgiving to God. <sup>12</sup> For this ministry of service is not only supplying the needs of the saints, but is also overflowing in many expressions of thanksgiving to God.

<sup>13</sup> Because of the proof this ministry provides, the saints will glorify God for your obedient confession of the gospel of Christ, and for the generosity of your contribution to them and to all the others. <sup>14</sup> And their prayers for you will express their affection for you, because of the surpassing grace God has given you. <sup>15</sup> Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift!

Paul's Apostolic Authority

<sup>1</sup> Now by the mildness and gentleness of Christ, I appeal to you—I, Paul, who am humble when face to face with you, but bold when away. <sup>2</sup> I beg you that when I come I may not need to be as bold as I expect toward those who presume that we live according to the flesh.

<sup>3</sup> For though we live in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh. <sup>4</sup> The weapons of our warfare are not the weapons of the world. Instead, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. <sup>5</sup> We tear down arguments and every presumption set up against the knowledge of God; and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ. <sup>6</sup> And we will be ready to punish every act of disobedience, as soon as your obedience is complete.

<sup>7</sup> You are looking at outward appearances. If anyone is confident that he belongs to Christ, he should remind himself that we belong to Christ just as much as he does. <sup>8</sup> For even if I boast somewhat excessively about the authority the Lord gave us for building you up rather than tearing you down, I will not be ashamed.

§ 8:23 Or apostles * 9:7 See Proverbs 22:8, LXX addition. † 9:9 Psalm 112:9

<sup>9</sup> I do not want to seem to be trying to frighten you by my letters. <sup>10</sup> For some say, “His letters are weighty and forceful, but his physical presence is unimpressive, and his speaking is of no account.” <sup>11</sup> Such people should consider that what we are in our letters when absent, we will be in our actions when present.

<sup>12</sup> We do not dare to classify or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves. When they measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves with themselves, they show their ignorance. <sup>13</sup> We, however, will not boast beyond our limits, but only within the field of influence that God has assigned to us—a field that reaches even to you. <sup>14</sup> We are not overstepping our bounds, as if we had not come to you. Indeed, we were the first to reach you with the gospel of Christ.

<sup>15</sup> Neither do we boast beyond our limits in the labors of others. But we hope that as your faith increases, our area of influence among you will greatly increase as well, <sup>16</sup> so that we can preach the gospel in the regions beyond you. Then we will not be boasting in the work already done in another man’s territory.

<sup>17</sup> Rather, “Let him who boasts boast in the Lord.”* <sup>18</sup> For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends.

11

Paul and the False Apostles

<sup>1</sup> I hope you will bear with a little of my foolishness, but you are already doing that. <sup>2</sup> I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy. For I promised you to one husband, to present you as a pure virgin to Christ.

<sup>3</sup> I am afraid, however, that just as Eve was deceived by the serpent’s cunning, your minds may be led astray from your simple and pure devotion to Christ. <sup>4</sup> For if someone comes and proclaims a Jesus other than the One we proclaimed, or if you receive a different spirit than the One you received, or a different gospel than the one you accepted, you put up with it way too easily.

<sup>5</sup> I consider myself in no way inferior to those “super-apostles.” <sup>6</sup> Although I am not a polished speaker, I am certainly not lacking in knowledge. We have made this clear to you in every way possible.

<sup>7</sup> Was it a sin for me to humble myself in order to exalt you, because I preached the gospel of God to you free of charge? <sup>8</sup> I robbed other churches by accepting their support in order to serve you. <sup>9</sup> And when I was with you and in need, I was not a burden to anyone; for the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied my needs. I have refrained from being a burden to you in any way, and I will continue to do so. <sup>10</sup> As surely as the truth of Christ is in me, this boasting of mine will not be silenced in the regions of Achaia. <sup>11</sup> Why? Because I do not love you? God knows I do!

<sup>12</sup> But I will keep on doing what I am doing, in order to undercut those who want an opportunity to be regarded as our equals in the things of which they boast. <sup>13</sup> For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, masquerading as apostles of Christ. <sup>14</sup> And no wonder, for Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light. <sup>15</sup> It is not surprising, then, if his servants masquerade as servants of righteousness. Their end will correspond to their actions.

Paul’s Suffering and Service (Colossians 1:24–29)

<sup>16</sup> I repeat: Let no one take me for a fool. But if you do, then receive me as a fool, so that I too may boast a little. <sup>17</sup> In this confident boasting of mine, I am not speaking as the Lord would, but as a fool. <sup>18</sup> Since many are boasting according to the flesh, I too will boast. <sup>19</sup> For you gladly tolerate fools, since you are so wise. <sup>20</sup> In fact, you even put up with anyone who enslaves you or exploits you or takes advantage of you or exalts himself or strikes you in the face. <sup>21</sup> To my shame I concede that we were too weak for that!

Speaking as a fool, however, I can match what anyone else dares to boast about. <sup>22</sup> Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they descendants of Abraham? So am I. <sup>23</sup> Are they servants of Christ? I am speaking like I am out of my mind, but I am so much more: in harder labor, in more imprisonments, in worse beatings, in frequent danger of death. <sup>24</sup> Five times I received from the Jews the forty lashes minus one. <sup>25</sup> Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I was shipwrecked. I spent a night and a day in the open sea.

<sup>26</sup> In my frequent journeys, I have been in danger from rivers and from bandits, in danger from my countrymen and from the Gentiles, in danger in the city and in the country, in danger on the sea and among false brothers, <sup>27</sup> in labor and toil and often without sleep, in hunger and thirst and often without food, in cold and exposure.

<sup>28</sup> Apart from these external trials, I face daily the pressure of my concern for all the churches. <sup>29</sup> Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is led into sin, and I do not burn with grief?

<sup>30</sup> If I must boast, I will boast of the things that show my weakness. <sup>31</sup> The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, who is forever worthy of praise,* knows that I am not lying. <sup>32</sup> In Damascus, the governor under King Aretas secured the city of the Damascenes in order to arrest me. <sup>33</sup> But I was lowered in a basket through a window in the wall and escaped his grasp.

Paul's Revelation

<sup>1</sup> I must go on boasting. Although there is nothing to gain, I will go on to visions and revelations from the Lord. <sup>2</sup> I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven. Whether it was in the body or out of it I do not know, but God knows. <sup>3</sup> And I know that this man—whether in the body or out of it I do not know, but God knows—<sup>4</sup> was caught up to Paradise. The things he heard were too sacred for words, things that man is not permitted to tell.

Paul's Thorn and God's Grace

<sup>5</sup> I will boast about such a man, but I will not boast about myself, except in my weaknesses. <sup>6</sup> Even if I wanted to boast, I would not be a fool, because I would be speaking the truth. But I refrain, so no one will credit me with more than he sees in me or hears from me, <sup>7</sup> or because of these surpassingly great revelations.

So to keep me from becoming conceited,* I was given a thorn in my flesh, a messenger of Satan, to torment me. <sup>8</sup> Three times I pleaded with the Lord to take it away from me. <sup>9</sup> But He said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for My power is perfected in weakness." Therefore I will boast all the more gladly in my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest on me. <sup>10</sup> That is why, for the sake of Christ, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

Paul's Concern for the Corinthians

<sup>11</sup> I have become a fool, but you drove me to it. In fact, you should have commended me, since I am in no way inferior to those "super-apostles," even though I am nothing. <sup>12</sup> The true marks of an apostle—signs, wonders, and miracles—were performed among you with great perseverance. <sup>13</sup> In what way were you inferior to the other churches, except that I was not a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong!

* 11:31 Or forever blessed * 12:7 Some translators end the previous paragraph after verse 6, and begin verse 7 with So to keep me from becoming conceited because of these surpassingly great revelations,

<sup>14</sup> See, I am ready to come to you a third time, and I will not be a burden, because I am not seeking your possessions, but you. For children should not have to save up for their parents, but parents for their children. <sup>15</sup> And for the sake of your souls, I will most gladly spend my money and myself. If I love you more, will you love me less?

<sup>16</sup> Be that as it may, I was not a burden to you; but crafty as I am, I caught you by trickery. <sup>17</sup> Did I exploit you by anyone I sent you? <sup>18</sup> I urged Titus to visit you, and I sent our brother with him. Did Titus exploit you in any way? Did we not walk in the same Spirit and follow in the same footsteps?†

<sup>19</sup> Have you been thinking all along that we were making a defense to you? We speak before God in Christ, and all of this, beloved, is to build you up. <sup>20</sup> For I am afraid that when I come, I may not find you as I wish, and you may not find me as you wish. I fear that there may be quarreling, jealousy, rage, rivalry, slander, gossip, arrogance, and disorder. <sup>21</sup> I am afraid that when I come again, my God will humble me before you, and I will be grieved over many who have sinned earlier and have not repented of their acts of impurity, sexual immorality, and debauchery.

Examine Yourself

<sup>1</sup> This is the third time I am coming to you. “Every matter must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.”*

<sup>2</sup> I already warned you the second time I was with you. So now in my absence I warn those who sinned earlier and everyone else: If I return, I will not spare anyone, <sup>3</sup> since you are demanding proof that Christ is speaking through me. He is not weak in dealing with you, but is powerful among you. <sup>4</sup> For He was indeed crucified in weakness, yet He lives by God’s power. And though we are weak in Him, yet by God’s power we will live with Him to serve you.

<sup>5</sup> Examine yourselves to see whether you are in the faith; test yourselves. Can’t you see for yourselves that Jesus Christ is in you—unless you actually fail the test? <sup>6</sup> And I hope you will realize that we have not failed the test.

<sup>7</sup> Now we pray to God that you will not do anything wrong—not that we will appear to have stood the test, but that you will do what is right, even if we appear to have failed. <sup>8</sup> For we cannot do anything against the truth, but only for the truth. <sup>9</sup> In fact, we rejoice when we are weak but you are strong, and our prayer is for your perfection.

<sup>10</sup> This is why I write these things while absent, so that when I am present I will not need to be severe in my use of the authority that the Lord gave me for building you up, not for tearing you down.

Benediction and Farewell

<sup>11</sup> Finally, brothers, rejoice! Aim for perfect harmony, encourage one another,† be of one mind, live in peace. And the God of love and peace will be with you.

<sup>13</sup> All the saints send you greetings.

<sup>14</sup> The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.‡

† 12:18 Literally Did we not walk in the same Spirit? Not in the same footsteps?      * 13:1 Deuteronomy 19:15

† 13:11 Or listen to my appeal      ‡ 13:14 Texts vary in verse numbering for the last three verses of this chapter. BYZ and TR end with Amen.

Galatians

Paul's Greeting to the Galatians

<sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle—sent not from men nor by man, but by Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised Him from the dead— <sup>2</sup> and all the brothers with me,

To the churches of Galatia:

<sup>3</sup> Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, * <sup>4</sup> who gave Himself for our sins to rescue us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, <sup>5</sup> to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

No Other Gospel

<sup>6</sup> I am amazed how quickly you are deserting the One who called you by the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel— <sup>7</sup> which is not even a gospel. Evidently some people are troubling you and trying to distort the gospel of Christ.

<sup>8</sup> But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel contrary to the one we preached to you, let him be under a curse! <sup>9</sup> As we have said before, so now I say again: If anyone is preaching to you a gospel contrary to the one you received, let him be under a curse!

Paul Preaches the Gospel

<sup>10</sup> Am I now seeking the approval of men, or of God? Or am I striving to please men? If I were still trying to please men, I would not be a servant of Christ. <sup>11</sup> For I certify to you, brothers, that the gospel I preached was not devised by man. † <sup>12</sup> I did not receive it from any man, nor was I taught it; rather, I received it by revelation from Jesus Christ.

<sup>13</sup> For you have heard of my former way of life in Judaism, how severely I persecuted the church of God and tried to destroy it. <sup>14</sup> I was advancing in Judaism beyond many of my contemporaries and was extremely zealous for the traditions of my fathers.

<sup>15</sup> But when God, who set me apart from my mother's womb and called me by His grace, was pleased <sup>16</sup> to reveal His Son in me so that I might preach Him among the Gentiles, I did not rush to consult with flesh and blood, <sup>17</sup> nor did I go up to Jerusalem to the apostles who came before me, but I went into Arabia and later returned to Damascus.

<sup>18</sup> Only after three years did I go up to Jerusalem to confer with Cephas,‡ and I stayed with him fifteen days. <sup>19</sup> But I saw none of the other apostles except James, the Lord's brother. <sup>20</sup> I assure you before God that what I am writing to you is no lie.

<sup>21</sup> Later I went to the regions of Syria and Cilicia. <sup>22</sup> I was personally unknown, however, to the churches of Judea that are in Christ. <sup>23</sup> They only heard the account: "The man who formerly persecuted us is now preaching the faith he once tried to destroy." <sup>24</sup> And they glorified God because of me.

The Council at Jerusalem (Acts 15:5-21)

<sup>1</sup> Fourteen years later I went up again to Jerusalem, accompanied by Barnabas. I took Titus along also. <sup>2</sup> I went in response to a revelation and set before them the gospel that I preach among the Gentiles. But I spoke privately to those recognized as leaders, for fear that I was running or had already run in vain. <sup>3</sup> Yet not even Titus, who was with me, was compelled to be circumcised, even though he was a Greek.

<sup>4</sup> This issue arose because some false brothers had come in under false pretenses to spy on our freedom in Christ Jesus, in order to enslave us. <sup>5</sup> We did not give in to them for a moment, so that the truth of the gospel would remain with you.

<sup>6</sup> But as for the highly esteemed—whatever they were makes no difference to me; God does not show favoritism *—those leaders added nothing to me. <sup>7</sup> On the contrary, they saw that I had been entrusted to preach the gospel to the uncircumcised, just as Peter had been to the circumcised. <sup>8</sup> For the One who was at work in Peter's apostleship to the circumcised was also at work in my apostleship to the Gentiles.

<sup>9</sup> And recognizing the grace that I had been given, James, Cephas,† and John—those reputed to be pillars—gave me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, so that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcised. <sup>10</sup> They only asked us to remember the poor, the very thing I was eager to do.

Paul Confronts Cephas

<sup>11</sup> When Cephas came to Antioch, however, I opposed him to his face, because he stood to be condemned. <sup>12</sup> For before certain men came from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles. But when they arrived, he began to draw back and separate himself, for fear of those in the circumcision group. <sup>13</sup> The other Jews joined him in his hypocrisy, so that by their hypocrisy even Barnabas was led astray.

<sup>14</sup> When I saw that they were not walking in line with the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas in front of them all, "If you, who are a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how can you compel the Gentiles to live like Jews?"‡

<sup>15</sup> We who are Jews by birth and not Gentile "sinners" <sup>16</sup> know that a man is not justified by works of the law, but by faith in Jesus Christ. So we, too, have believed in Christ Jesus, that we may be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law, because by works of the law no one will be justified.

<sup>17</sup> But if, while we seek to be justified in Christ, we ourselves are found to be sinners, does that make Christ a minister of sin? Certainly not! <sup>18</sup> If I rebuild what I have already torn down, I prove myself to be a lawbreaker.

<sup>19</sup> For through the law I died to the law so that I might live to God. <sup>20</sup> I have been crucified with Christ, and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me. <sup>21</sup> I do not set aside the grace of God. For if righteousness comes through the law, Christ died for nothing.

3

Faith and Belief (James 2:14–26)

<sup>1</sup> O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you? Before your very eyes Jesus Christ was clearly portrayed as crucified. <sup>2</sup> I would like to learn just one thing from you: Did you receive the Spirit by works of the law, or by hearing with faith?

<sup>3</sup> Are you so foolish? After starting in the Spirit, are you now finishing in the flesh?

<sup>4</sup> Have you suffered so much for nothing, if it really was for nothing? <sup>5</sup> Does God lavish His Spirit on you and work miracles among you because you practice the law, or because you hear and believe?

<sup>6</sup> So also, "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness."*

<sup>7</sup> Understand, then, that those who have faith are sons of Abraham. <sup>8</sup> The Scripture foresaw that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, and foretold the gospel to Abraham:

* 2:6 Literally God does not accept the face of man † 2:9 That is, Peter; also in verses 11 and 14 ‡ 2:14 Some translators close this quotation after verse 16 or 21. * 3:6 Genesis 15:6

“All nations will be blessed through you.”† 9 So those who have faith are blessed along with Abraham, the man of faith.

Christ Has Redeemed Us

10 All who rely on works of the law are under a curse. For it is written: “Cursed is everyone who does not continue to do everything written in the Book of the Law.”‡
11 Now it is clear that no one is justified before God by the law, because, “The righteous will live by faith.”§ 12 The law, however, is not based on faith; on the contrary, “The man who does these things will live by them.”*

13 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us. For it is written: “Cursed is everyone who is hung on a tree.”† 14 He redeemed us in order that the blessing promised to Abraham ‡ would come to the Gentiles in Christ Jesus, so that by faith we might receive the promise of the Spirit.

The Purpose of the Law
(Romans 7:1–6)

15 Brothers, let me put this in human terms. Even a human covenant, once it is ratified, cannot be canceled or amended. 16 The promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. The Scripture does not say, “and to seeds,” meaning many, but “and to your seed,”§ meaning One, who is Christ.

17 What I mean is this: The law that came 430 years later does not revoke the covenant previously established by God, so as to nullify the promise. 18 For if the inheritance depends on the law, then it no longer depends on a promise; but God freely granted it to Abraham through a promise.

19 Why then was the law given? It was added because of transgressions, until the arrival of the seed to whom the promise referred. It was administered through angels by a mediator. 20 A mediator is unnecessary, however, for only one party; but God is one.

21 Is the law, then, opposed to the promises of God? Certainly not! For if a law had been given that could impart life, then righteousness would certainly have come from the law. 22 But the Scripture pronounces all things confined by sin, so that by faith in Jesus Christ the promise might be given to those who believe.

23 Before this faith came, we were held in custody under the law, locked up until faith should be revealed. 24 So the law became our guardian to lead us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith. 25 Now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian.

Sons through Faith in Christ

26 You are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus. 27 For all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. 28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. 29 And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham’s seed and heirs according to the promise.

4

Sons and Heirs

1 What I am saying is that as long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a slave, although he is the owner of everything. 2 He is subject to guardians and trustees until the date set by his father.

3 So also, when we were children, we were enslaved under the basic principles * of the world. 4 But when the time had fully come, God sent His Son, born of a woman, born

† 3:8 See Genesis 12:3, Genesis 18:18, and Genesis 22:18. ‡ 3:10 Deuteronomy 27:26 (see also LXX) § 3:11 Habakkuk 2:4 * 3:12 Leviticus 18:5; see also Ezekiel 20:11, 13, and 21. † 3:13 Deuteronomy 21:23 (see also LXX) ‡ 3:14 Literally the blessing of Abraham § 3:16 Genesis 12:7; Genesis 13:15 * 4:3 Or elemental forces; similarly in verse 9

under the law, <sup>5</sup> to redeem those under the law, that we might receive our adoption as sons. <sup>6</sup> And because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying out, “Abba, Father!” <sup>7</sup> So you are no longer a slave, but a son; and since you are a son, you are also an heir through God.

Paul’s Concern for the Galatians

<sup>8</sup> Formerly, when you did not know God, you were slaves to those who by nature are not gods. <sup>9</sup> But now that you know God, or rather are known by God, how is it that you are turning back to those weak and worthless principles? Do you wish to be enslaved by them all over again? <sup>10</sup> You are observing special days and months and seasons and years! <sup>11</sup> I fear for you, that my efforts for you may have been in vain. <sup>12</sup> I beg you, brothers, become like me, for I became like you. You have done me no wrong.

<sup>13</sup> You know that it was because of an illness that I first preached the gospel to you. <sup>14</sup> And although my illness was a trial to you, you did not despise or reject me. Instead, you welcomed me as if I were an angel of God, as if I were Christ Jesus Himself. <sup>15</sup> What then has become of your blessing? For I can testify that, if it were possible, you would have torn out your eyes and given them to me. <sup>16</sup> Have I now become your enemy by telling you the truth?

<sup>17</sup> Those people are zealous for you, but not in a good way. Instead, they want to isolate you from us, so that you may be zealous for them. <sup>18</sup> Nevertheless, it is good to be zealous if it serves a noble purpose—at any time, and not only when I am with you.

<sup>19</sup> My children, for whom I am again in the pains of childbirth until Christ is formed in you, <sup>20</sup> how I wish I could be with you now and change my tone, because I am perplexed about you.

Hagar and Sarah
(Genesis 21:9–21)

<sup>21</sup> Tell me, you who want to be under the law, do you not understand what the law says? <sup>22</sup> For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave woman and the other by the free woman.† <sup>23</sup> His son by the slave woman was born according to the flesh, but his son by the free woman was born through the promise.

<sup>24</sup> These things serve as illustrations, for the women represent two covenants. One covenant is from Mount Sinai and bears children into slavery: This is Hagar. <sup>25</sup> Now Hagar stands for Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present-day Jerusalem, because she is in slavery with her children. <sup>26</sup> But the Jerusalem above is free, and she is our mother. <sup>27</sup> For it is written:

“Rejoice, O barren woman,
who bears no children;
break forth and cry aloud,
you who have never travailed;
because more are the children of the desolate woman
than of her who has a husband.”‡

<sup>30</sup> But what does the Scripture say? “Expel the slave woman and her son, for the slave woman’s son will never share in the inheritance with the free woman’s son.”*

<sup>31</sup> Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

Freedom in Christ

<sup>1</sup> It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not be encumbered once more by a yoke of slavery.

<sup>2</sup> Take notice: I, Paul, tell you that if you let yourselves be circumcised, Christ will be of no value to you at all. <sup>3</sup> Again I testify to every man who gets himself circumcised that he is obligated to obey the whole law. <sup>4</sup> You who are trying to be justified by the law have been severed from Christ; you have fallen away from grace.

<sup>5</sup> But by faith we eagerly await through the Spirit the hope of righteousness. <sup>6</sup> For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any value. All that matters is faith, expressed through love.

<sup>7</sup> You were running so well. Who has obstructed you from obeying the truth? <sup>8</sup> Such persuasion does not come from the One who calls you. <sup>9</sup> A little leaven works through the whole batch of dough. <sup>10</sup> I am confident in the Lord that you will take no other view. The one who is troubling you will bear the judgment, whoever he may be.

<sup>11</sup> Now, brothers, if I am still preaching circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the offense of the cross has been abolished. <sup>12</sup> As for those who are agitating you, I wish they would proceed to emasculate themselves!

<sup>13</sup> For you, brothers, were called to freedom; but do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh. Rather, serve one another in love. <sup>14</sup> The entire law is fulfilled in a single decree: "Love your neighbor as yourself."* <sup>15</sup> But if you keep on biting and devouring one another, watch out, or you will be consumed by one another.

Walking by the Spirit
(Ezekiel 36:16-38; Romans 8:9-11)

<sup>16</sup> So I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. <sup>17</sup> For the flesh craves what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit what is contrary to the flesh. They are opposed to each other, so that you do not do what you want. <sup>18</sup> But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

<sup>19</sup> The acts of the flesh are obvious: sexual immorality, impurity, and debauchery; <sup>20</sup> idolatry and sorcery; hatred, discord, jealousy, and rage; rivalries, divisions, factions, <sup>21</sup> and envy; drunkenness, orgies, and the like. I warn you, as I did before, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

<sup>22</sup> But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, <sup>23</sup> gentleness, and self-control. Against such things there is no law.

<sup>24</sup> Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. <sup>25</sup> Since we live by the Spirit, let us walk in step with the Spirit. <sup>26</sup> Let us not become conceited, provoking and envying one another.

6

Carry One Another's Burdens

<sup>1</sup> Brothers, if someone is caught in a trespass, you who are spiritual should restore him with a spirit of gentleness. But watch yourself, or you also may be tempted. <sup>2</sup> Carry one another's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.

<sup>3</sup> If anyone thinks he is something when he is nothing, he deceives himself.

<sup>4</sup> Each one should test his own work. Then he will have reason to boast in himself alone, and not in someone else. <sup>5</sup> For each one should carry his own load. <sup>6</sup> Nevertheless, the one who receives instruction in the word must share in all good things with his instructor.

* 5:14 Leviticus 19:18

<sup>7</sup> Do not be deceived: God is not to be mocked. Whatever a man sows, he will reap in return. <sup>8</sup> The one who sows to please his flesh, from the flesh will reap destruction; but the one who sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life.

<sup>9</sup> Let us not grow weary in well-doing, for in due time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. <sup>10</sup> Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to the family of faith.

Final Warnings and Blessings

<sup>11</sup> See what large letters I am using to write to you with my own hand!

<sup>12</sup> Those who want to make a good impression outwardly are trying to compel you to be circumcised. They only do this to avoid persecution for the cross of Christ. <sup>13</sup> For the circumcised do not even keep the law themselves, yet they want you to be circumcised that they may boast in your flesh.

<sup>14</sup> But as for me, may I never boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which * the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. <sup>15</sup> For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything. What counts is a new creation.

<sup>16</sup> Peace and mercy to all who walk by this rule, even to the Israel of God.

<sup>17</sup> From now on let no one cause me trouble, for I bear on my body the marks of Jesus.

<sup>18</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers.

Amen.

Ephesians

Paul's Greeting to the Ephesians (Acts 19:8-12; Revelation 2:1-7)

<sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God,

To the saints in Ephesus,* the faithful in Christ Jesus:

<sup>2</sup> Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

*Spiritual Blessings
(Romans 8:28-34)*

<sup>3</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms. <sup>4</sup> For He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless in His presence. In love <sup>5</sup> He predestined us for adoption as His sons through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of His will, <sup>6</sup> to the praise of His glorious grace, which He has freely given us in the Beloved One.

<sup>7</sup> In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of His grace <sup>8</sup> that He lavished on us with all wisdom and understanding. <sup>9</sup> And He has made known to us the mystery of His will according to His good pleasure, which He purposed in Christ <sup>10</sup> as a plan for the fullness of time, to bring all things in heaven and on earth together in Christ.

<sup>11</sup> In Him we were also chosen as God's own, having been predestined according to the plan of Him who works out everything by the counsel of His will, <sup>12</sup> in order that we, who were the first to hope in Christ, would be for the praise of His glory.

<sup>13</sup> And in Him, having heard and believed the word of truth—the gospel of your salvation—you were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, <sup>14</sup> who is the pledge of our inheritance until the redemption of those who are God's possession, to the praise of His glory.

*Spiritual Wisdom
(1 Corinthians 2:6-16)*

<sup>15</sup> For this reason, ever since I heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints, <sup>16</sup> I have not stopped giving thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers, <sup>17</sup> that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in your knowledge of Him.

<sup>18</sup> I ask that the eyes of your heart † may be enlightened, so that you may know the hope of His calling, the riches of His glorious inheritance in the saints, <sup>19</sup> and the surpassing greatness of His power to us who believe. These are in accordance with the working of His mighty strength, <sup>20</sup> which He exerted in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly realms, <sup>21</sup> far above all rule and authority, power and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in the present age but also in the one to come.

<sup>22</sup> And God put everything under His feet and made Him head over everything for the church, <sup>23</sup> which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all in all.

2

*Alive with Christ
(Colossians 2:6-23)*

* 1:1 Some manuscripts do not include in Ephesus. † 1:18 BYZ and TR the eyes of your understanding

<sup>1</sup> And you were dead in your trespasses and sins, <sup>2</sup> in which you used to walk when you conformed to the ways of this world and of the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit who is now at work in the sons of disobedience. <sup>3</sup> All of us also lived among them at one time, fulfilling the cravings of our flesh and indulging its desires and thoughts. Like the rest, we were by nature children of wrath.

<sup>4</sup> But because of His great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, <sup>5</sup> made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in our trespasses. It is by grace you have been saved! <sup>6</sup> And God raised us up with Christ and seated us with Him in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus, <sup>7</sup> in order that in the coming ages He might display the surpassing riches of His grace, demonstrated by His kindness to us in Christ Jesus.

<sup>8</sup> For it is by grace you have been saved through faith, and this not from yourselves; it is the gift of God, <sup>9</sup> not by works, so that no one can boast. <sup>10</sup> For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance as our way of life.*

*One in Christ
(Philippians 2:1-4)*

<sup>11</sup> Therefore remember that formerly you who are Gentiles in the flesh and called uncircumcised by the so-called circumcision (that done in the body by human hands)—<sup>12</sup> remember that at that time you were separate from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of the promise, without hope and without God in the world. <sup>13</sup> But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away have been brought near through the blood of Christ.

<sup>14</sup> For He Himself is our peace, who has made the two one and has torn down the dividing wall of hostility <sup>15</sup> by abolishing in His flesh the law of commandments and decrees. He did this to create in Himself one new man out of the two, thus making peace <sup>16</sup> and reconciling both of them to God in one body through the cross, by which He extinguished their hostility.

<sup>17</sup> He came and preached peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near. <sup>18</sup> For through Him we both have access to the Father by one Spirit.

*Christ Our Cornerstone
(Isaiah 28:14-22; 1 Corinthians 3:10-15; 1 Peter 2:1-8)*

<sup>19</sup> Therefore you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints and members of God's household, <sup>20</sup> built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus Himself as the cornerstone. <sup>21</sup> In Him the whole building is fitted together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord. <sup>22</sup> And in Him you too are being built together into a dwelling place for God in His Spirit.

The Mystery of the Gospel

<sup>1</sup> For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles...*

<sup>2</sup> Surely you have heard about the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for you, <sup>3</sup> that is, the mystery made known to me by revelation, as I have already written briefly. <sup>4</sup> In reading this, then, you will be able to understand my insight into the mystery of Christ, <sup>5</sup> which was not made known to men in other generations as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to God's holy apostles and prophets. <sup>6</sup> This mystery is that through the gospel the Gentiles are fellow heirs, fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus.

<sup>7</sup> I became a servant of this gospel by the gift of God's grace, given me through the working of His power. <sup>8</sup> Though I am less than the least of all the saints, this grace was given me: to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ,<sup>9</sup> and to illuminate for everyone the stewardship† of this mystery, which for ages past was kept hidden in God, who created all things.<sup>10</sup> His purpose was that now, through the church, the manifold wisdom of God should be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly realms,<sup>11</sup> according to the eternal purpose that He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>12</sup> In Him and through faith in Him‡ we may enter God's presence with boldness and confidence.<sup>13</sup> So I ask you not to be discouraged because of my sufferings for you, which are your glory.

Paul's Prayer for the Ephesians

<sup>14</sup> ... for this reason I bow my knees before the Father,§<sup>15</sup> from whom every family in heaven and on earth derives its name.<sup>16</sup> I ask that out of the riches of His glory He may strengthen you with power through His Spirit in your inner being,<sup>17</sup> so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. Then you, being rooted and grounded in love,<sup>18</sup> will have power, together with all the saints, to comprehend the length and width and height and depth<sup>19</sup> of the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

<sup>20</sup> Now to Him who is able to do so much more than all we ask or imagine, according to His power that is at work within us,<sup>21</sup> to Him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

4

Unity in the Body

(Psalm 133:1-3; 1 Corinthians 1:10-17)

<sup>1</sup> As a prisoner in the Lord, then, I urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling you have received:<sup>2</sup> with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love,<sup>3</sup> and with diligence to preserve the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace.

<sup>4</sup> There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to one hope when you were called;<sup>5</sup> one Lord, one faith, one baptism;<sup>6</sup> one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

<sup>7</sup> Now to each one of us grace has been given according to the measure of the gift of Christ.<sup>8</sup> This is why it says:*

"When He ascended on high,
He led captives away,
and gave gifts to men."†

<sup>9</sup> What does "He ascended" mean, except that He also descended‡ to the lower parts of the earth?<sup>10</sup> He who descended is the very One who ascended above all the heavens, in order to fill all things.

<sup>11</sup> And it was He who gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers,<sup>12</sup> to equip the saints for works of ministry and to build up the body of Christ,<sup>13</sup> until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God, as we mature to the full measure of the stature of Christ.

<sup>14</sup> Then we will no longer be infants, tossed about by the waves and carried around by every wind of teaching and by the clever cunning of men in their deceitful scheming.<sup>15</sup> Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will in all things grow up into Christ Himself, who is the head. <sup>16</sup> From Him the whole body, fitted and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love through the work of each individual part.

*New Life in Christ
(Colossians 3:1–17)*

<sup>17</sup> So I tell you this, and insist on it in the Lord, that you must no longer walk as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their thinking. <sup>18</sup> They are darkened in their understanding and alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them due to the hardness of their hearts. <sup>19</sup> Having lost all sense of shame, they have given themselves over to sensuality for the practice of every kind of impurity, with a craving for more.

<sup>20</sup> But this is not the way you came to know Christ. <sup>21</sup> Surely you heard of Him and were taught in Him—in keeping with the truth that is in Jesus—<sup>22</sup> to put off your former way of life, your old self, which is being corrupted by its deceitful desires; <sup>23</sup> to be renewed in the spirit of your minds; <sup>24</sup> and to put on the new self, created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness.

<sup>25</sup> Therefore each of you must put off falsehood and speak truthfully to his neighbor, for we are all members of one another. <sup>26</sup> “Be angry, yet do not sin.”§ Do not let the sun set upon your anger, <sup>27</sup> and do not give the devil a foothold.

<sup>28</sup> He who has been stealing must steal no longer, but must work, doing good with his own hands, that he may have something to share with the one in need.

<sup>29</sup> Let no unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building up the one in need and bringing grace to those who listen.

<sup>30</sup> And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, in whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

<sup>31</sup> Get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger, outcry and slander, along with every form of malice. <sup>32</sup> Be kind and tenderhearted to one another, forgiving each other just as in Christ God forgave you.

5

Imitators of God

<sup>1</sup> Be imitators of God, therefore, as beloved children, <sup>2</sup> and walk in love, just as Christ loved us * and gave Himself up for us as a fragrant sacrificial offering to God.

<sup>3</sup> But among you, as is proper among the saints, there must not be even a hint of sexual immorality, or of any kind of impurity, or of greed. <sup>4</sup> Nor should there be obscenity, foolish talk, or crude joking, which are out of character, but rather thanksgiving. <sup>5</sup> For of this you can be sure: No immoral, impure, or greedy person (that is, an idolater), has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

<sup>6</sup> Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of such things the wrath of God is coming on the sons of disobedience. <sup>7</sup> Therefore do not be partakers with them.

Children of Light

<sup>8</sup> For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light, <sup>9</sup> for the fruit of the light consists in all goodness, righteousness, and truth. <sup>10</sup> Test and prove what pleases the Lord.

<sup>11</sup> Have no fellowship with the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather expose them. <sup>12</sup> For it is shameful even to mention what the disobedient do in secret. <sup>13</sup> But everything exposed by the light becomes visible,† for everything that is illuminated becomes a light itself. <sup>14</sup> So it is said:

§ 4:26 Or “In your anger do not sin.” Psalm 4:4 * 5:2 NE and WH Christ loved you † 5:13 SBL begins verse 14 after visible, “Wake up, O sleeper, rise up from the dead,

and Christ will shine on you.”

<sup>19</sup> Speak to one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs. Sing and make music in your hearts to the Lord, <sup>20</sup> always giving thanks to God the Father for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Wives and Husbands
(Song of Solomon 1:1-17; 1 Peter 3:1-7)

<sup>22</sup> Wives, submit to your husbands as to the Lord. <sup>23</sup> For the husband is the head of the wife as Christ is the head of the church, His body, of which He is the Savior. <sup>24</sup> Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit to their husbands in everything.

<sup>25</sup> Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave Himself up for her <sup>26</sup> to sanctify her, cleansing her by the washing with water through the word, <sup>27</sup> and to present her to Himself as a glorious church, without stain or wrinkle or any such blemish, but holy and blameless.

<sup>28</sup> In the same way, husbands ought to love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. <sup>29</sup> Indeed, no one ever hated his own body, but he nourishes and cherishes it, just as Christ does the church. <sup>30</sup> For we are members of His body.§

<sup>31</sup> “For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.”* <sup>32</sup> This mystery is profound, but I am speaking about Christ and the church. <sup>33</sup> Nevertheless, each one of you also must love his wife as he loves himself, and the wife must respect her husband.

6

Children and Parents
(Colossians 3:18-21)

<sup>1</sup> Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. <sup>2</sup> “Honor your father and mother” (which is the first commandment with a promise), <sup>3</sup> “that it may go well with you and that you may have a long life on the earth.”*

<sup>4</sup> Fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath; instead, bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

Serving with Honor
(Colossians 3:22-25; 1 Timothy 6:1-2)

<sup>5</sup> Slaves, obey your earthly masters with respect and fear and sincerity of heart, just as you would obey Christ. <sup>6</sup> And do this not only to please them while they are watching, but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from your heart. <sup>7</sup> Serve with good will, as to the Lord and not to men, <sup>8</sup> because you know that the Lord will reward each one for whatever good he does, whether he is slave or free.

<sup>9</sup> And masters, do the same for your slaves. Give up your use of threats, because you know that He who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no favoritism with Him.

‡ 5:21 Or in the fear of Christ. § 5:30 BYZ and TR include—of His flesh and of His bones. * 5:31 Genesis 2:24 (see also LXX) * 6:3 Exodus 20:12; Deuteronomy 5:16

The Full Armor of God

<sup>10</sup> Finally, be strong in the Lord and in His mighty power. <sup>11</sup> Put on the full armor of God, so that you can make your stand against the devil's schemes. <sup>12</sup> For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this world's darkness, and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore take up the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you will be able to stand your ground, and having done everything, to stand. <sup>14</sup> Stand firm then, with the belt of truth buckled around your waist, with the breastplate of righteousness arrayed, <sup>15</sup> and with your feet fitted with the readiness of the gospel of peace. <sup>16</sup> In addition to all this, take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. <sup>17</sup> And take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

<sup>18</sup> Pray in the Spirit at all times, with every kind of prayer and petition. To this end, stay alert with all perseverance in your prayers for all the saints. <sup>19</sup> Pray also for me, that whenever I open my mouth, words may be given me so that I will boldly make known the mystery of the gospel, <sup>20</sup> for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may proclaim it fearlessly, as I should.

Final Greetings
(Philippians 4:21-23; 2 Timothy 4:19-22)

<sup>21</sup> Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will tell you everything, so that you also may know about me and what I am doing. <sup>22</sup> I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you may know about us, and that he may encourage your hearts.

<sup>23</sup> Peace to the brothers and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>24</sup> Grace to all who love our Lord Jesus Christ with an undying love.

Philippians

Greetings from Paul and Timothy (Colossians 1:1-2; Philemon 1:1-3)

To all the saints in Christ Jesus at Philippi, together with the overseers and deacons:

<sup>2</sup> Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

*Thanksgiving and Prayer
(1 Corinthians 1:4-9; Colossians 1:3-14)*

<sup>3</sup> I thank my God every time I remember you. <sup>4</sup> In every prayer for all of you, I always pray with joy, <sup>5</sup> because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, <sup>6</sup> being confident of this, that He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.

<sup>7</sup> It is right for me to feel this way about all of you, since I have you in my heart. For in my chains and in my defense and confirmation of the gospel, you are all partners in grace with me. <sup>8</sup> God is my witness how I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus.

<sup>9</sup> And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, <sup>10</sup> so that you may be able to test and prove what is best and may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, <sup>11</sup> filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

*Paul's Trials Advance the Gospel
(James 1:2-12)*

<sup>12</sup> Now I want you to know, brothers, that my circumstances have actually served to advance the gospel. <sup>13</sup> As a result, it has become clear throughout the whole palace guard * and to everyone else that I am in chains for Christ. <sup>14</sup> And most of the brothers, confident in the Lord by my chains, now dare more greatly to speak the word † without fear.

<sup>15</sup> It is true that some preach Christ out of envy and rivalry, but others out of goodwill. <sup>16</sup> The latter do so in love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel.‡ <sup>17</sup> The former, however, preach Christ out of selfish ambition, not sincerely, supposing that they can add to the distress of my chains.

<sup>18</sup> What then is the issue?§ Just this: that in every way, whether by false motives or true, Christ is preached. And in this I rejoice. Yes, and I will continue to rejoice, <sup>19</sup> because I know that through your prayers and the provision of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, my distress will turn out for my deliverance. <sup>20</sup> I eagerly expect and hope that I will in no way be ashamed, but will have complete boldness so that now as always Christ will be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death.

To Live Is Christ

<sup>21</sup> For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain. <sup>22</sup> But if I go on living in the body, this will mean fruitful labor for me. So what shall I choose? I do not know. <sup>23</sup> I am torn between the two. I desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better indeed. <sup>24</sup> But it is more necessary for you that I remain in the body.

* 1:13 Or all the Praetorium † 1:14 NE and WH the word of God ‡ 1:16 BYZ and TR reverse the order of verses 16 and 17. § 1:18 Literally What then?

<sup>25</sup> Convinced of this, I know that I will remain and will continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith, <sup>26</sup> so that through my coming to you again your exultation in Christ Jesus will resound on account of me.

Worthy of the Gospel

<sup>27</sup> Nevertheless, conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ. Then, whether I come and see you or only hear about you in my absence, I will know that you stand firm in one spirit, contending side by side * for the faith of the gospel, <sup>28</sup> without being frightened in any way by those who oppose you. This is a clear sign of their destruction but of your salvation, and it is from God. <sup>29</sup> For it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for Him, <sup>30</sup> since you are encountering the same struggle you saw I had, and now hear that I still have.

2

One in Christ

(Ephesians 2:11-18)

<sup>1</sup> Therefore if you have any encouragement in Christ, if any comfort from His love, if any fellowship with the Spirit, if any affection and compassion, <sup>2</sup> then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being united in spirit and purpose.

<sup>3</sup> Do nothing out of selfish ambition or empty pride, but in humility consider others more important than yourselves. <sup>4</sup> Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others.

The Mind of Christ

(Isaiah 52:13-15)

<sup>5</sup> Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus:

<sup>6</sup> Who, existing in the form of God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped,*

<sup>7</sup> but emptied Himself, taking the form of a servant,
being made in human likeness.

<sup>8</sup> And being found in appearance as a man,
He humbled Himself and became obedient to death—
even death on a cross.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore God exalted Him to the highest place and gave Him the name above all names,

<sup>10</sup> that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

<sup>11</sup> and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Lights in the World

(Matthew 5:13-16)

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence, but now even more in my absence, continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling. <sup>13</sup> For it is God who works in you to will and to act on behalf of His good purpose.

<sup>14</sup> Do everything without complaining or arguing, <sup>15</sup> so that you may be blameless and pure, children of God without fault in a crooked and perverse generation,† in which you shine as lights in the world <sup>16</sup> as you hold forth the word of life, in order that I may boast on the day of Christ that I did not run or labor in vain.

* 1:27 Or striving together with one mind    * 2:6 Or something to be exploited    † 2:15 Deuteronomy 32:5

<sup>17</sup> But even if I am being poured out like a drink offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I am glad and rejoice with all of you. <sup>18</sup> So you too should be glad and rejoice with me.

Timothy and Epaphroditus
(1 Corinthians 16:10–12)

<sup>19</sup> Now I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be cheered when I learn how you are doing. <sup>20</sup> I have nobody else like him who will genuinely care for your needs. <sup>21</sup> For all the others look after their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ. <sup>22</sup> But you know Timothy's proven worth, that as a child with his father he has served with me to advance the gospel. <sup>23</sup> So I hope to send him as soon as I see what happens with me. <sup>24</sup> And I trust in the Lord that I myself will come soon.

<sup>25</sup> But I thought it necessary to send back to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker, and fellow soldier, who is also your messenger and minister to my needs. <sup>26</sup> For he has been longing for all of you and is distressed because you heard he was ill. <sup>27</sup> He was sick indeed, nearly unto death. But God had mercy on him, and not only on him but also on me, to spare me sorrow upon sorrow.

<sup>28</sup> Therefore I am all the more eager to send him, so that when you see him again you may rejoice, and I may be less anxious. <sup>29</sup> Welcome him in the Lord with great joy, and honor men like him, <sup>30</sup> because he nearly died for the work of Christ, risking his life to make up for your deficit of service to me.

Righteousness through Faith in Christ
(Romans 3:21–31)

<sup>1</sup> Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. It is no trouble for me to write the same things to you again, and it is a safeguard for you.

<sup>2</sup> Watch out for those dogs, those workers of evil, those mutilators of the flesh! <sup>3</sup> For it is we who are the circumcision, we who worship by the Spirit of God, who glory in Christ Jesus, and who put no confidence in the flesh— <sup>4</sup> though I myself could have such confidence.

If anyone else thinks he has grounds for confidence in the flesh, I have more: <sup>5</sup> circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin; a Hebrew of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; <sup>6</sup> as to zeal, persecuting the church; as to righteousness in the law, faultless.

<sup>7</sup> But whatever was gain to me I count as loss for the sake of Christ. <sup>8</sup> More than that, I count all things as loss compared to the surpassing excellence of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have lost all things. I consider them rubbish, that I may gain Christ <sup>9</sup> and be found in Him, not having my own righteousness from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ,* the righteousness from God on the basis of faith.

<sup>10</sup> I want to know Christ and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to Him in His death, <sup>11</sup> and so, somehow, to attain to the resurrection from the dead.

Pressing on toward the Goal

<sup>12</sup> Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already been made perfect, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me. <sup>13</sup> Brothers, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, <sup>14</sup> I press on toward the goal to win the prize of God's heavenly calling in Christ Jesus.

* 3:9 Or through the faithfulness of Christ

<sup>15</sup> All of us who are mature should embrace this point of view. And if you think differently about some issue, God will reveal this to you as well. <sup>16</sup> Nevertheless, we must live up to what we have already attained.

Citizenship in Heaven

<sup>17</sup> Join one another in following my example, brothers, and carefully observe those who walk according to the pattern we set for you. <sup>18</sup> For as I have often told you before, and now say again even with tears: Many live as enemies of the cross of Christ. <sup>19</sup> Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and their glory is in their shame. Their minds are set on earthly things.

<sup>20</sup> But our citizenship is in heaven, and we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>21</sup> who, by the power that enables Him to subject all things to Himself, will transform our lowly bodies to be like His glorious body.

Rejoice in the Lord

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, my brothers, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, that is how you must stand firm in the Lord, my beloved.

<sup>2</sup> I urge Euodia and Syntyche to agree with each other in the Lord. <sup>3</sup> Yes, and I ask you, my true yokefellow,* to help these women who have labored with me for the gospel, along with Clement and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the Book of Life.

<sup>4</sup> Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! <sup>5</sup> Let your gentleness be apparent to all. The Lord is near.

<sup>6</sup> Be anxious for nothing, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. <sup>7</sup> And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

<sup>8</sup> Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think on these things. <sup>9</sup> Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me, put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you.

(2 Corinthians 8:1–15)

<sup>10</sup> Now I rejoice greatly in the Lord that at last you have revived your concern for me. You were indeed concerned, but you had no opportunity to show it. <sup>11</sup> I am not saying this out of need, for I have learned to be content regardless of my circumstances. <sup>12</sup> I know how to live humbly, and I know how to abound. I am accustomed to any and every situation—to being filled and being hungry, to having plenty and having need. <sup>13</sup> I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength.†

<sup>14</sup> Nevertheless, you have done well to share in my affliction. <sup>15</sup> And as you Philippians know, in the early days of the gospel, when I left Macedonia, no church but you partnered with me in the matter of giving and receiving. <sup>16</sup> For even while I was in Thessalonica, you provided for my needs again and again.

<sup>17</sup> Not that I am seeking a gift, but I am looking for the fruit that may be credited to your account. <sup>18</sup> I have all I need and more, now that I have received your gifts from Epaphroditus. They are a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, well-pleasing to God.

<sup>19</sup> And my God will supply all your needs according to His glorious riches in Christ Jesus. <sup>20</sup> To our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Colossians

Greetings from Paul and Timothy (Philippians 1:1-2; Philemon 1:1-3)

<sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

Grace and peace to you from God our Father.*

*Thanksgiving and Prayer
(1 Corinthians 1:4-9; Philippians 1:3-11)*

<sup>3</sup> We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, <sup>4</sup> because we have heard about your faith in Christ Jesus and your love for all the saints— <sup>5</sup> the faith and love proceeding from the hope stored up for you in heaven, of which you have already heard in the word of truth, the gospel <sup>6</sup> that has come to you.

All over the world this gospel is bearing fruit and growing, just as it has been doing among you since the day you heard it and truly understood the grace of God. <sup>7</sup> You learned it from Epaphras, our beloved fellow servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ on our † behalf, <sup>8</sup> and who also informed us of your love in the Spirit.

<sup>9</sup> For this reason, since the day we heard about you, we have not stopped praying for you and asking God to fill you with the knowledge of His will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, <sup>10</sup> so that you may walk in a manner worthy of the Lord and may please Him in every way: bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of God, <sup>11</sup> being strengthened with all power according to His glorious might so that you may have full endurance and patience, and joyfully <sup>12</sup> giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you ‡ to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light.

<sup>13</sup> He has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of His beloved Son, <sup>14</sup> in whom we have redemption,§ the forgiveness of sins.

*The Supremacy of the Son
(Hebrews 1:1-14)*

<sup>15</sup> The Son is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. <sup>16</sup> For in Him all things were created, things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities. All things were created through Him and for Him.

<sup>17</sup> He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together. <sup>18</sup> And He is the head of the body, the church; He is the beginning and firstborn from among the dead, so that in all things He may have preeminence. <sup>19</sup> For God was pleased to have all His fullness dwell in Him, <sup>20</sup> and through Him to reconcile to Himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through the blood of His cross.

<sup>21</sup> Once you were alienated from God and were hostile in your minds, engaging in evil deeds. <sup>22</sup> But now He has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy, unblemished, and blameless in His presence— <sup>23</sup> if indeed you continue in your faith, established and firm, not moved from the hope of the gospel you heard, which has been proclaimed to every creature * under heaven, and of which I, Paul, have become a servant.

*Paul's Suffering for the Church
(2 Corinthians 11:16-33)*

* 1:2 BYZ and TR God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ † 1:7 NE, NA, BYZ, and TR your ‡ 1:12 BYZ and TR us § 1:14 TR redemption through His blood, * 1:23 Or in all creation

<sup>24</sup> Now I rejoice in my sufferings for you, and I fill up in my flesh what is lacking in regard to Christ's afflictions for the sake of His body, which is the church. <sup>25</sup> I became its servant by the commission God gave me to fully proclaim to you the word of God, <sup>26</sup> the mystery that was hidden for ages and generations but is now revealed to His saints. <sup>27</sup> To them God has chosen to make known among the Gentiles the glorious riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

<sup>28</sup> We proclaim Him, admonishing and teaching everyone with all wisdom, so that we may present everyone perfect † in Christ. <sup>29</sup> To this end I also labor, striving with all His energy working powerfully within me.

2

Absent in Body, Present in Spirit
(Revelation 3:14–22)

<sup>1</sup> For I want you to know how much I am struggling for you and for those at Laodicea, and for all who have not met me face to face, <sup>2</sup> that they may be encouraged in heart, knit together in love, and filled with the full riches of complete understanding, so that they may know the mystery of God, namely Christ, * <sup>3</sup> in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

<sup>4</sup> I say this so that no one will deceive you by smooth rhetoric. <sup>5</sup> For although I am absent from you in body, I am present with you in spirit, and I delight to see your orderly condition and firm faith in Christ.

Alive with Christ
(Ephesians 2:1–10)

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, just as you have received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to walk in Him, <sup>7</sup> rooted and built up in Him, established in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness.

<sup>8</sup> See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deception, which are based on human tradition and the spiritual forces of the world rather than on Christ. <sup>9</sup> For in Christ all the fullness of the Deity dwells in bodily form. <sup>10</sup> And you have been made complete in Christ, who is the head over every ruler and authority.

<sup>11</sup> In Him you were also circumcised, in the putting off of your sinful nature, with the circumcision performed by Christ † and not by human hands. <sup>12</sup> And having been buried with Him in baptism, you were raised with Him through your faith in the power of God, who raised Him from the dead.

<sup>13</sup> When you were dead in your trespasses and in the uncircumcision of your sinful nature, God made you alive with Christ. He forgave us all our trespasses, <sup>14</sup> having canceled the debt ascribed to us in the decrees that stood against us. He took it away, nailing it to the cross! <sup>15</sup> And having disarmed the powers and authorities, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them by the cross.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore let no one judge you by what you eat or drink, or with regard to a feast, a New Moon, or a Sabbath. <sup>17</sup> These are a shadow of the things to come, but the body that casts it belongs to Christ.‡ <sup>18</sup> Do not let anyone who delights in false humility and the worship of angels disqualify you with speculation about what he has seen. Such a person is puffed up without basis by his unspiritual mind. <sup>19</sup> He has lost connection to the head, from whom the whole body, supported and knit together by its joints and ligaments, grows as God causes it to grow.

<sup>20</sup> If you have died with Christ to the spiritual forces of the world, why, as though you still belonged to the world, do you submit to its regulations: <sup>21</sup> "Do not handle, do not taste, do not touch!"? <sup>22</sup> These will all perish with use, because they are based on human

† 1:28 Or fully mature * 2:2 Literally the mystery of God: Christ † 2:11 Literally in the cutting away of the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ ‡ 2:17 Literally but the body is of the Christ commands and teachings. <sup>23</sup> Such restrictions indeed have an appearance of wisdom, with their self-prescribed worship, their false humility, and their harsh treatment of the body; but they are of no value against the indulgence of the flesh.

3

Put On the New Self
(Ephesians 4:17-32)

<sup>5</sup> Put to death, therefore, the components of your earthly nature: sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires, and greed, which is idolatry. <sup>6</sup> Because of these, the wrath of God is coming on the sons of disobedience.† <sup>7</sup> When you lived among them, you also used to walk in these ways. <sup>8</sup> But now you must put aside all such things as these: anger, rage, malice, slander, and filthy language from your lips.

<sup>9</sup> Do not lie to one another, since you have taken off the old self with its practices, <sup>10</sup> and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge in the image of its Creator. <sup>11</sup> Here there is no Greek or Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave, or free, but Christ is all and is in all.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with hearts of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience. <sup>13</sup> Bear with one another and forgive any complaint you may have against someone else. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. <sup>14</sup> And over all these virtues put on love, which is the bond of perfect unity. <sup>15</sup> Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, for to this you were called as members of one body. And be thankful.

<sup>16</sup> Let the word of Christ richly dwell within you as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom, and as you sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. <sup>17</sup> And whatever you do, in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

Christian Households
(Ephesians 6:1-4)

<sup>18</sup> Wives, submit to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.

<sup>20</sup> Children, obey your parents in everything, for this is pleasing to the Lord.

<sup>21</sup> Fathers, do not provoke your children, so they will not become discouraged.

Serving with Honor
(Ephesians 6:5-9; 1 Timothy 6:1-2)

<sup>22</sup> Slaves, obey your earthly masters in everything, not only to please them while they are watching, but with sincerity of heart and fear of the Lord.

<sup>23</sup> Whatever you do, work at it with your whole being, for the Lord and not for men, <sup>24</sup> because you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as your reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving. <sup>25</sup> Whoever does wrong will be repaid for his wrong, and there is no favoritism.

<sup>5</sup> Act wisely toward outsiders, redeeming the time. <sup>6</sup> Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone.

*Greetings from Paul's Fellow Workers
(Romans 16:21-23)*

<sup>7</sup> Tychicus will tell you all the news about me. He is a beloved brother, a faithful minister, and a fellow servant in the Lord. <sup>8</sup> I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you may know about us, and that he may encourage your hearts. <sup>9</sup> With him I am sending Onesimus, our faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will tell you about everything here.

<sup>10</sup> My fellow prisoner Aristarchus sends you greetings, as does Mark the cousin of Barnabas. You have already received instructions about him: If he comes to you, welcome him. <sup>11</sup> Jesus, who is called Justus, also sends greetings. These are the only Jews among my fellow workers for the kingdom of God, and they have been a comfort to me.

<sup>12</sup> Epaphras, who is one of you and a servant of Christ Jesus, sends you greetings. He is always wrestling in prayer for you, so that you may stand mature and fully assured in the full will of God. <sup>13</sup> For I testify about him that he goes to great pains for you and for those at Laodicea and Hierapolis.

<sup>14</sup> Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas send you greetings.

*Signature and Final Instructions

<sup>15</sup> Greet the brothers in Laodicea, as well as Nympha and the church that meets at her house.

<sup>16</sup> After this letter has been read among you, make sure that it is also read in the church of the Laodiceans, and that you in turn read the letter from Laodicea.

<sup>17</sup> Tell Archippus: "See to it that you complete the ministry you have received in the Lord."

1 Thessalonians

Greetings to the Thessalonians (2 Thessalonians 1:1–4)

To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace and peace to you.†

<sup>2</sup> We always thank God for all of you, remembering you in our prayers <sup>3</sup> and continually recalling before our God and Father your work of faith, your labor of love, and your enduring hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup> Brothers who are beloved by God, we know that He has chosen you, <sup>5</sup> because our gospel came to you not only in word, but also in power, in the Holy Spirit, and with great conviction—just as you know we lived among you for your sake. <sup>6</sup> And you became imitators of us and of the Lord when you welcomed the message with the joy of the Holy Spirit, in spite of your great suffering.

<sup>7</sup> As a result, you have become an example to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia. <sup>8</sup> For not only did the message of the Lord ring out from you to Macedonia and Achaia, but your faith in God has gone out to every place, so that we have no need to say anything more. <sup>9</sup> For they themselves report what kind of welcome you gave us, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God <sup>10</sup> and to await His Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead—Jesus our deliverer from the coming wrath.

Paul's Ministry

<sup>1</sup> You yourselves know, brothers, that our visit to you was not in vain. <sup>2</sup> As you are aware, we had already endured suffering and shameful treatment in Philippi. But in the face of strong opposition, we were bold in our God to speak to you the gospel of God.

<sup>3</sup> For our appeal does not arise from deceit or ulterior motives or trickery. <sup>4</sup> Instead, we speak as those approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, not in order to please men but God, who examines our hearts. <sup>5</sup> As you know, we never used words of flattery or any pretext for greed. God is our witness! <sup>6</sup> Nor did we seek praise from you or from anyone else, although as apostles of Christ we had authority to demand it.*

<sup>7</sup> On the contrary, we were gentle among you,† like a nursing mother caring for her children. <sup>8</sup> We cared so deeply that we were delighted to share with you not only the gospel of God, but our own lives as well. That is how beloved you have become to us.

<sup>9</sup> Surely you recall, brothers, our labor and toil. We worked night and day so that we would not be a burden to anyone while we proclaimed to you the gospel of God. <sup>10</sup> You are witnesses, and so is God, of how holy, righteous, and blameless our conduct was among you who believed. <sup>11</sup> For you know that we treated each of you as a father treats his own children— <sup>12</sup> encouraging you, comforting you, and urging you to walk in a manner worthy of God, who calls you into His own kingdom and glory.

<sup>13</sup> And we continually thank God because, when you received the word of God that you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of men, but as the true word of God—the word which is now at work in you who believe.

* 1:1 That is, Silas † 1:1 BYZ and TR include from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. * 2:6 Or although as apostles of Christ we could have been a burden to you; SBL, NE, and WH include this phrase with verse 7. † 2:7 WH and NA we were like young children among you

<sup>14</sup> For you, brothers, became imitators of the churches of God in Judea that are in Christ Jesus. You suffered from your own countrymen the very things they suffered from the Jews, <sup>15</sup> who killed both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and drove us out as well. They are displeasing to God and hostile to all men, <sup>16</sup> hindering us from telling the Gentiles how they may be saved. As a result, they continue to heap up their sins to full capacity; the utmost wrath has come upon them.‡

Paul's Longing to Visit

<sup>17</sup> Brothers, although we were torn away from you for a short time (in person, not in heart), our desire to see you face to face was even more intense. <sup>18</sup> For we wanted to come to you—indeed I, Paul, tried again and again—but Satan obstructed us. <sup>19</sup> After all, who is our hope, our joy, our crown of boasting, if it is not you yourselves in the presence of our Lord Jesus at His coming? <sup>20</sup> You are indeed our glory and our joy.

3

Timothy's Visit

<sup>1</sup> So when we could bear it no longer, we were willing to be left on our own in Athens.

<sup>2</sup> We sent Timothy, our brother and fellow worker for God * in the gospel of Christ, to strengthen and encourage you in your faith, <sup>3</sup> so that none of you would be shaken by these trials. For you know that we are destined for this. <sup>4</sup> Indeed, when we were with you, we kept warning you that we would suffer persecution; and as you know, it has come to pass. <sup>5</sup> For this reason, when I could bear it no longer, I sent to find out about your faith, for fear that the tempter had somehow tempted you and caused our labor to be in vain.

Timothy's Encouraging Report

<sup>6</sup> But just now, Timothy has returned from his visit with the good news about your faith, your love, and the fond memories you have preserved, longing to see us just as we long to see you. <sup>7</sup> For this reason, brothers, in all our distress and persecution, we have been reassured about you, because of your faith. <sup>8</sup> For now we can go on living, as long as you are standing firm in the Lord.

<sup>9</sup> How can we adequately thank God for you in return for our great joy over you in His presence? <sup>10</sup> Night and day we pray most earnestly that we may see you face to face and supply what is lacking from your faith.

<sup>11</sup> Now may our God and Father Himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way to you. <sup>12</sup> And may the Lord cause you to increase and overflow with love for one another and for everyone else, just as our love for you overflows, <sup>13</sup> so that He may establish your hearts in blamelessness and holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all His saints. Amen.

4

Living to Please God

<sup>1</sup> Finally, brothers, we ask and encourage you in the Lord Jesus to live in a way that is pleasing to God, just as you have received from us. This is how you already live, so you should do so all the more. <sup>2</sup> For you know the instructions we gave you by the authority of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>3</sup> For it is God's will that you should be holy: You must abstain from sexual immorality; <sup>4</sup> each of you must know how to control his own body * in holiness and honor, <sup>5</sup> not in lustful passion like the Gentiles who do not know God; <sup>6</sup> and no one should ever violate or exploit his brother in this regard,† because the Lord will avenge all such acts, as we have already told you and solemnly warned you. <sup>7</sup> For God has not called us to impurity,

‡ 2:16 Or at last the wrath (of God) has come upon them. * 3:2 Or our brother and God's fellow worker; NE, WH, BYZ, and TR our brother and minister of God * 4:4 Literally know how to possess his own vessel † 4:6 Or no one should ever harm or cheat his brother in this matter but to holiness. <sup>8</sup> Anyone, then, who rejects this command does not reject man but God, the very One who gives you His Holy Spirit.

<sup>9</sup> Now about brotherly love, you do not need anyone to write to you, because you yourselves have been taught by God to love one another. <sup>10</sup> And you are indeed showing this love to all the brothers throughout Macedonia. But we urge you, brothers, to excel more and more <sup>11</sup> and to aspire to live quietly, to attend to your own matters, and to work with your own hands, as we instructed you. <sup>12</sup> Then you will behave properly toward outsiders, without being dependent on anyone.

The Return of the Lord

<sup>13</sup> Brothers, we do not want you to be uninformed about those who sleep in death,‡ so that you will not grieve like the rest, who are without hope. <sup>14</sup> For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, we also believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in Him.

<sup>15</sup> By the word of the Lord, we declare to you that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who have fallen asleep. <sup>16</sup> For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a loud command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will be the first to rise. <sup>17</sup> After that, we who are alive and remain will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will always be with the Lord.

5

The Day of the Lord

(Zephaniah 1:7-18; Malachi 4:1-6; 2 Peter 3:8-13)

<sup>1</sup> Now about the times and seasons, brothers, we do not need to write to you. <sup>2</sup> For you are fully aware that the Day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. <sup>3</sup> While people are saying, "Peace and security," destruction will come upon them suddenly, like labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

<sup>4</sup> But you, brothers, are not in the darkness so that this day should overtake you like a thief. <sup>5</sup> For you are all sons of the light and sons of the day; we do not belong to the night or to the darkness. <sup>6</sup> So then, let us not sleep as the others do, but let us remain awake and sober. <sup>7</sup> For those who sleep, sleep at night; and those who get drunk, get drunk at night. <sup>8</sup> But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and the helmet of our hope of salvation.

<sup>9</sup> For God has not appointed us to suffer wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>10</sup> He died for us so that, whether we are awake or asleep, we may live together with Him. <sup>11</sup> Therefore encourage and build one another up, just as you are already doing.

Christian Living

<sup>12</sup> But we ask you, brothers, to acknowledge those who work diligently among you, who preside over you in the Lord and give you instruction. <sup>13</sup> In love, hold them in highest regard because of their work. Live in peace with one another.

<sup>14</sup> And we urge you, brothers, to admonish the unruly, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, and be patient with everyone.

<sup>15</sup> Make sure that no one repays evil for evil. Always pursue what is good for one another and for all people.

‡ 4:13 Literally those who have fallen asleep, as in verses 14 and 15

<sup>19</sup> Do not extinguish the Spirit. <sup>20</sup> Do not treat prophecies with contempt, <sup>21</sup> but test all things. Hold fast to what is good. <sup>22</sup> Abstain from every form of evil.

Final Blessings and Instructions

<sup>23</sup> Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you completely, and may your entire spirit, soul, and body be kept blameless * at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>24</sup> The One who calls you is faithful, and He will do it.

<sup>27</sup> I charge you before the Lord to have this letter read to all the brothers.

2 Thessalonians

Greetings to the Thessalonians (1 Thessalonians 1:1-10)

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

<sup>2</sup> Grace and peace to you from God our Father † and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> We are obligated to thank God for you all the time, brothers, as is fitting, because your faith is growing more and more, and your love for one another is increasing. <sup>4</sup> That is why we boast among God's churches about your perseverance and faith in the face of all the persecution and affliction you are enduring.

Christ's Coming

<sup>5</sup> All this is clear evidence of God's righteous judgment. And so you will be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are suffering. <sup>6</sup> After all, it is only right for God to repay with affliction those who afflict you, <sup>7</sup> and to grant relief to you who are oppressed and to us as well. This will take place when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with His mighty angels <sup>8</sup> in blazing fire, inflicting vengeance on those who do not know God and do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. <sup>9</sup> They will suffer the penalty of eternal destruction, separated from the presence of the Lord and the glory of His might, <sup>10</sup> on the day He comes to be glorified in His saints and regarded with wonder by all who have believed, including you who have believed our testimony.

<sup>11</sup> To this end, we always pray for you, that our God will count you worthy of His calling, and that He will powerfully fulfill your every good desire and work of faith, <sup>12</sup> so that the name of our Lord Jesus will be glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and of the Lord Jesus Christ.‡

The Man of Lawlessness

<sup>1</sup> Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to Him, we ask you, brothers, <sup>2</sup> not to be easily disconcerted or alarmed by any spirit or message or letter seeming to be from us, alleging that the Day of the Lord has already come. <sup>3</sup> Let no one deceive you in any way, for it will not come until the rebellion occurs and the man of lawlessness—the son of destruction—is revealed. <sup>4</sup> He will oppose and exalt himself above every so-called god or object of worship. So he will seat himself in the temple of God, proclaiming himself to be God.

<sup>5</sup> Do you not remember that I told you these things while I was still with you? <sup>6</sup> And you know what is now restraining him, so that he may be revealed at the proper time. <sup>7</sup> For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work, but the one who now restrains it will continue until he is taken out of the way. <sup>8</sup> And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will slay with the breath of His mouth and annihilate by the majesty of His arrival.

<sup>9</sup> The coming of the lawless one will be accompanied by the working of Satan, with every kind of power, sign, and false wonder, <sup>10</sup> and with every wicked deception directed against those who are perishing, because they refused the love of the truth that would have saved them. <sup>11</sup> For this reason God will send them a powerful delusion so that they believe the lie, <sup>12</sup> in order that judgment may come upon all who have disbelieved the truth and delighted in wickedness.

* 1:1 That is, Silas    † 1:2 SBL, NE, and WH God the Father    ‡ 1:12 Or the grace of our God and Lord, Jesus Christ.

Stand Firm

<sup>13</sup> But we should always thank God for you, brothers who are loved by the Lord, because God has chosen you from the beginning * to be saved by the sanctification of the Spirit and by faith in the truth. <sup>14</sup> To this He called you through our gospel, so that you may share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>15</sup> Therefore, brothers, stand firm and cling to the traditions we taught you, whether by speech or by letter.

<sup>16</sup> Now may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself and God our Father, who by grace has loved us and given us eternal comfort and good hope, <sup>17</sup> encourage your hearts and strengthen you in every good word and deed.

3Request for Prayer*

<sup>1</sup> Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may spread quickly and be held in honor, just as it was with you. <sup>2</sup> And pray that we may be delivered from wicked and evil men; for not everyone holds to the faith. <sup>3</sup> But the Lord is faithful, and He will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one. <sup>4</sup> And we have confidence in the Lord that you are doing and will continue to do what we command. <sup>5</sup> May the Lord direct your hearts into God's love and Christ's perseverance.

A Warning against Idleness

<sup>6</sup> Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from any brother who leads an undisciplined life that is not in keeping with the tradition you received † from us. <sup>7</sup> For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us, because we were not undisciplined among you, <sup>8</sup> nor did we eat anyone's food without paying for it. Instead, in labor and toil, we worked night and day so that we would not be a burden to any of you. <sup>9</sup> Not that we lack this right, but we wanted to offer ourselves as an example for you to imitate. <sup>10</sup> For even while we were with you, we gave you this command: "If anyone is unwilling to work, he shall not eat."

<sup>11</sup> Yet we hear that some of you are leading undisciplined lives and accomplishing nothing but being busybodies. <sup>12</sup> We command and urge such people by our Lord Jesus Christ to begin working quietly to earn their own living. <sup>13</sup> But as for you, brothers, do not grow weary in well-doing.

<sup>14</sup> Take note of anyone who does not obey the instructions we have given in this letter. Do not associate with him, so that he may be ashamed. <sup>15</sup> Yet do not regard him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother.

Signature and Final Greetings

(1 Corinthians 16:19-24; Colossians 4:15-18)

<sup>16</sup> Now may the Lord of peace Himself give you peace at all times and in every way. The Lord be with all of you.

<sup>17</sup> This greeting is in my own hand—Paul. This is my mark in every letter; it is the way I write.

1 Timothy

Paul's Greeting to Timothy (2 Timothy 1:1-2)

<sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the command of God our Savior and of Christ Jesus our hope,

<sup>2</sup> To Timothy, my true child in the faith:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

Correcting False Teachers (Titus 1:10-16)

<sup>3</sup> As I urged you on my departure to Macedonia, you should stay on at Ephesus to instruct certain men not to teach false doctrines <sup>4</sup> or devote themselves to myths and endless genealogies, which promote speculation rather than the stewardship of God's work, which is by faith.*

<sup>5</sup> The goal of our instruction is the love that comes from a pure heart, a clear conscience, and a sincere faith. <sup>6</sup> Some have strayed from these ways and turned aside to empty talk. <sup>7</sup> They want to be teachers of the law, but they do not understand what they are saying or that which they so confidently assert.

<sup>8</sup> Now we know that the law is good, if one uses it legitimately. <sup>9</sup> We realize that law is not enacted for the righteous, but for the lawless and rebellious, for the ungodly and sinful, for the unholy and profane, for killers of father or mother, for murderers, <sup>10</sup> for the sexually immoral, for homosexuals, for slave traders † and liars and perjurers, and for anyone else who is averse to sound teaching <sup>11</sup> that agrees with the glorious gospel of the blessed God, with which I have been entrusted.

God's Grace to Paul

<sup>12</sup> I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, that He considered me faithful and appointed me to service. <sup>13</sup> I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a violent man; yet because I had acted in ignorance and unbelief, I was shown mercy. <sup>14</sup> And the grace of our Lord overflowed to me, along with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> This is a trustworthy saying, worthy of full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the worst. <sup>16</sup> But for this very reason I was shown mercy, so that in me, the worst of sinners, Christ Jesus might display His perfect patience as an example to those who would believe in Him for eternal life. <sup>17</sup> Now to the King eternal, immortal, and invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>18</sup> Timothy, my child, I entrust you with this command in keeping with the previous prophecies about you, so that by them you may fight the good fight, <sup>19</sup> holding on to faith and a good conscience, which some have rejected and thereby shipwrecked their faith. <sup>20</sup> Among them are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan to be taught not to blaspheme.

2

A Call to Prayer

<sup>1</sup> First of all, then, I urge that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgiving be offered for everyone— <sup>2</sup> for kings and all those in authority—so that we may lead tranquil and quiet lives in all godliness and dignity. <sup>3</sup> This is good and pleasing in the

* 1:4 Literally rather than the stewardship of God in faith † 1:10 Or for kidnappers sight of God our Savior, <sup>4</sup> who wants everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.

<sup>5</sup> For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup> who gave Himself as a ransom for all—the testimony that was given at just the right time.

<sup>7</sup> For this reason I was appointed as a preacher, an apostle, and a faithful and true teacher of the Gentiles. I am telling the truth; I am not lying about anything. <sup>8</sup> Therefore I want the men everywhere * to pray, lifting up holy hands, without anger or dissension.

Instructions to Women

<sup>9</sup> Likewise, I want the women to adorn themselves with respectable apparel, with modesty, and with self-control, not with braided hair or gold or pearls or expensive clothes, <sup>10</sup> but with good deeds, as is proper for women who profess to worship God.

<sup>11</sup> A woman † must learn in quietness and full submissiveness. <sup>12</sup> I do not permit a woman to teach or to exercise authority over a man;‡ she is to remain quiet. <sup>13</sup> For Adam was formed first, and then Eve. <sup>14</sup> And it was not Adam who was deceived, but the woman who was deceived and fell into transgression. <sup>15</sup> Women, however, will be saved through childbearing, if they continue in faith, love, and holiness, with self-control.

3

Qualifications for Overseers (Titus 1:5–9; 1 Peter 5:1–4)

<sup>4</sup> An overseer must manage his own household well and keep his children under control, with complete dignity. <sup>5</sup> For if someone does not know how to manage his own household, how can he care for the church of God? <sup>6</sup> He must not be a recent convert, or he may become conceited and fall under the same condemnation as the devil. <sup>7</sup> Furthermore, he must have a good reputation with outsiders, so that he will not fall into disgrace and into the snare of the devil.

Qualifications for Deacons (Acts 6:1–7)

<sup>8</sup> Deacons likewise must be dignified, not double-tongued or given to much wine or greedy for money. <sup>9</sup> They must hold to the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience. <sup>10</sup> Additionally, they must first be tested. Then, if they are above reproach, let them serve as deacons.

<sup>11</sup> In the same way, the women † must be dignified, not slanderers, but temperate and faithful in all things.

<sup>12</sup> A deacon must be the husband of but one wife, a good manager of his children and of his own household. <sup>13</sup> For those who have served well as deacons acquire for themselves a high standing and great confidence in the faith that is in Christ Jesus.

The Mystery of Godliness

<sup>14</sup> Although I hope to come to you soon, I am writing you these things <sup>15</sup> in case I am delayed, so that you will know how each one must conduct himself in God's household, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth.

* 2:8 Or in every place (of worship) † 2:11 Or wife; also in verse 12 ‡ 2:12 Or over her husband * 3:2 Or faithful to his wife; also in verse 12 † 3:11 Or their wives

He appeared ‡ in the flesh, was vindicated by the Spirit,§
 was seen by angels,
 was proclaimed among the nations,
 was believed in throughout the world,
 was taken up in glory.

4

A Warning against Apostasy

<sup>1</sup> Now the Spirit expressly states that in later times some will abandon the faith to follow deceitful spirits and the teachings of demons, <sup>2</sup> influenced by the hypocrisy of liars, whose consciences are seared with a hot iron.

<sup>3</sup> They will prohibit marriage and require abstinence from certain foods that God has created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. <sup>4</sup> For every creation of God is good, and nothing that is received with thanksgiving should be rejected, <sup>5</sup> because it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

A Good Servant of Jesus Christ

<sup>6</sup> By pointing out these things to the brothers, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, nourished by the words of faith and sound instruction that you have followed.

<sup>7</sup> But reject irreverent, silly myths. Instead, train yourself for godliness. <sup>8</sup> For physical exercise is of limited value, but godliness is valuable in every way, holding promise for the present life and for the one to come. <sup>9</sup> This is a trustworthy saying, worthy of full acceptance.

<sup>10</sup> To this end we labor and strive, * because we have set our hope on the living God, who is the Savior of everyone, and especially of those who believe. <sup>11</sup> Command and teach these things.

<sup>12</sup> Let no one despise your youth, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, in purity. <sup>13</sup> Until I come, devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to exhortation, and to teaching.

<sup>14</sup> Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given you through the prophecy spoken over you at the laying on of the hands of the elders. <sup>15</sup> Be diligent in these matters and absorbed in them, so that your progress will be evident to all. <sup>16</sup> Pay close attention to your life and to your teaching. Persevere in these things, for by so doing you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

5

Reproof and Respect

<sup>1</sup> Do not rebuke an older man, but appeal to him as to a father.

Treat younger men as brothers, <sup>2</sup> older women as mothers, and younger women as sisters, with absolute purity.

Honoring True Widows (Ruth 1:1-5)

<sup>3</sup> Honor the widows who are truly widows. <sup>4</sup> But if a widow has children or grandchildren, they must first learn to show godliness to their own family and repay their parents, for this is pleasing in the sight of God.

---

‡ 3:16 Literally He who appeared; BYZ and TR God appeared § 3:16 Or vindicated in spirit * 4:10 SBL, BYZ, and TR and suffer reproach

<sup>5</sup> The widow who is truly in need and left all alone puts her hope in God and continues night and day in her petitions and prayers. <sup>6</sup> But she who lives for pleasure is dead even while she is still alive.

<sup>7</sup> Give these instructions to the believers, so that they will be above reproach. <sup>8</sup> If anyone does not provide for his own, and especially his own household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

<sup>9</sup> A widow should be enrolled if she is at least sixty years old, the wife of one man, <sup>10</sup> and well known for good deeds such as bringing up children, entertaining strangers, washing the feet of the saints, imparting relief to the afflicted, and devoting herself to every good work.

<sup>11</sup> But refuse to enroll younger widows. For when their passions draw them away from Christ, they will want to marry, <sup>12</sup> and thus will incur judgment because they are setting aside their first faith. <sup>13</sup> At the same time they will also learn to be idle, going from house to house and being not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies, discussing things they should not mention.

<sup>14</sup> So I advise the younger widows to marry, have children, and manage their households, denying the adversary occasion for slander. <sup>15</sup> For some have already turned aside to follow Satan.

<sup>16</sup> If any believing woman has dependent widows, she must assist them and not allow the church to be burdened, so that it can help the widows who are truly in need.

Honoring Elders

<sup>17</sup> Elders who lead effectively are worthy of double honor, especially those who work hard at preaching and teaching. <sup>18</sup> For the Scripture says, "Do not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain,"* and, "The worker is worthy of his wages."†

<sup>19</sup> Do not entertain an accusation against an elder, except on the testimony of two or three witnesses. <sup>20</sup> But those who persist in sin should be rebuked in front of everyone, so that the others will stand in fear of sin.

A Charge to Timothy

<sup>21</sup> I solemnly charge you before God and Christ Jesus and the elect angels to maintain these principles without bias, and to do nothing out of partiality.

<sup>22</sup> Do not be too quick in the laying on of hands and thereby share in the sins of others. Keep yourself pure.

<sup>23</sup> Stop drinking only water and use a little wine instead, because of your stomach and your frequent ailments.

<sup>24</sup> The sins of some men are obvious, going ahead of them to judgment; but the sins of others do not surface until later. <sup>25</sup> In the same way, good deeds are obvious, and even the ones that are inconspicuous cannot remain hidden.

6

Serving with Honor (Ephesians 6:5-9; Colossians 3:22-25)

<sup>1</sup> All who are under the yoke of slavery should regard their masters as fully worthy of honor, so that God's name and our teaching will not be discredited. <sup>2</sup> Those who have believing masters should not show disrespect because they are brothers, but should serve them all the more, since those receiving their good service are beloved believers. Teach and encourage these principles.

Reject False Doctrines

* 5:18 Deuteronomy 25:4 † 5:18 Luke 10:7; see also Leviticus 19:13 and Deuteronomy 24:14-15.

<sup>3</sup> If anyone teaches another doctrine and disagrees with the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ and with godly teaching, <sup>4</sup> he is conceited and understands nothing. Instead, he has an unhealthy interest in controversies and semantics, out of which come envy, strife, abusive talk, evil suspicions, <sup>5</sup> and constant friction between men of depraved mind who are devoid of the truth. These men regard godliness as a means of gain.*

Godliness with Contentment

<sup>6</sup> Of course, godliness with contentment is great gain. <sup>7</sup> For we brought nothing into the world, so † we cannot carry anything out of it. <sup>8</sup> But if we have food and clothing, we will be content with these.

<sup>9</sup> Those who want to be rich, however, fall into temptation and become ensnared by many foolish and harmful desires that plunge them into ruin and destruction. <sup>10</sup> For the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil. By craving it, some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many sorrows.

Fight the Good Fight

<sup>11</sup> But you, O man of God, flee from these things and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, perseverance, and gentleness. <sup>12</sup> Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called when you made the good confession before many witnesses.

<sup>13</sup> I charge you in the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who made the good confession in His testimony before Pontius Pilate: <sup>14</sup> Keep this commandment without stain or reproach until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>15</sup> which the blessed and only Sovereign One—the King of kings and Lord of lords—will bring about in His own time. <sup>16</sup> He alone is immortal and dwells in unapproachable light. No one has ever seen Him, nor can anyone see Him. To Him be honor and eternal dominion! Amen.

A Charge to the Rich
(Proverbs 23:1–5; James 5:1–6)

<sup>17</sup> Instruct those who are rich in the present age not to be conceited and not to put their hope in the uncertainty of wealth, but in God, who richly provides all things for us to enjoy. <sup>18</sup> Instruct them to do good, to be rich in good works, and to be generous and ready to share, <sup>19</sup> treasuring up for themselves a firm foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is truly life.

Guard the Faith

<sup>20</sup> O Timothy, guard what has been entrusted to you. Avoid irreverent, empty chatter and the opposing arguments of so-called “knowledge,” <sup>21</sup> which some have professed and thus swerved away from the faith.

Grace be with you all.‡

---

* 6:5 BYZ and TR include Withdraw yourself from such. † 6:7 BYZ and TR so certainly ‡ 6:21 BYZ and TR include Amen.

2 Timothy

Paul's Greeting to Timothy (1 Timothy 1:1-2)

<sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, according to the promise of life in Christ Jesus,

<sup>2</sup> To Timothy, my beloved child:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

Faithfulness under Persecution (Matthew 10:16-25)

<sup>3</sup> I thank God, whom I serve with a clear conscience as did my forefathers, as I constantly remember you night and day in my prayers. <sup>4</sup> Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy.

<sup>5</sup> I am reminded of your sincere faith, which first dwelt in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am convinced is in you as well.

<sup>6</sup> For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands. <sup>7</sup> For God has not given us a spirit of fear,* but of power, love, and self-control.

<sup>8</sup> So do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, or of me, His prisoner. Instead, join me in suffering for the gospel by the power of God. <sup>9</sup> He has saved us and called us to a holy calling, not because of our works, but by His own purpose and by the grace He granted us in Christ Jesus before time began.† <sup>10</sup> And now He has revealed this grace through the appearing of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who has abolished death and illuminated the way to life and immortality through the gospel, <sup>11</sup> to which I was appointed as a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher.

<sup>12</sup> For this reason, even though I suffer as I do, I am not ashamed; for I know whom I have believed, and I am convinced that He is able to guard what I have entrusted to Him ‡ for that day.

Holding to Sound Teaching

<sup>13</sup> Hold on to the pattern of sound teaching § you have heard from me, with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. <sup>14</sup> Guard the treasure entrusted to you,* with the help of the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.

<sup>15</sup> You know that everyone in the Province of Asia † has deserted me, including Phygelus and Hermogenes.

<sup>16</sup> May the Lord grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, because he has often refreshed me and was unashamed of my chains. <sup>17</sup> Indeed, when he arrived in Rome, he searched diligently until he found me.

<sup>18</sup> May the Lord grant Onesiphorus His mercy on that day. You know very well how much he ministered to me in Ephesus.

2

Grace and Perseverance (Hebrews 12:1-3)

---

* 1:7 Or timidity or cowardice † 1:9 Literally before times eternal ‡ 1:12 Or what He has entrusted to me
§ 1:13 Literally sound words * 1:14 Or the good deposit entrusted to you † 1:15 Literally in Asia; Asia was a Roman province in what is now western Turkey.

<sup>1</sup> You therefore, my child, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup> And the things that you have heard me say among many witnesses, entrust these to faithful men who will be qualified to teach others as well.

<sup>8</sup> Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, descended from David, as proclaimed by my gospel, <sup>9</sup> for which I suffer to the extent of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God cannot be chained! <sup>10</sup> For this reason I endure all things for the sake of the elect, so that they too may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

If we died with Him,
we will also live with Him;
<sup>12</sup> if we endure,
we will also reign with Him;
if we deny Him,
He will also deny us;
<sup>13</sup> if we are faithless,
He remains faithful,
for He cannot deny Himself.

The Lord's Approved Workman

<sup>14</sup> Remind the believers of these things, charging them before God * to avoid quarreling over words, which succeeds only in leading the listeners to ruin.

<sup>15</sup> Make every effort to present yourself approved to God, an unashamed workman who accurately handles the word of truth.

<sup>16</sup> But avoid irreverent, empty chatter, which will only lead to more ungodliness, <sup>17</sup> and the talk of such men will spread like gangrene. Among them are Hymenaeus and Philetus, <sup>18</sup> who have deviated from the truth. They say that the resurrection has already occurred, and they undermine the faith of some.

<sup>20</sup> A large house contains not only vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay. Some indeed are for honorable use, but others are for common use. <sup>21</sup> So if anyone cleanses himself of what is unfit,‡ he will be a vessel for honor: sanctified, useful to the Master, and prepared for every good work.

<sup>22</sup> Flee from youthful passions and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, together with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

<sup>23</sup> But reject foolish and ignorant speculation, for you know that it breeds quarreling. <sup>24</sup> And a servant of the Lord must not be quarrelsome, but must be kind to everyone, able to teach, and forbearing. <sup>25</sup> He must gently reprove those who oppose him, in the hope that God may grant them repentance leading to a knowledge of the truth. <sup>26</sup> Then they will come to their senses and escape the snare of the devil, who has taken them captive to his will.

Evil in the Last Days

<sup>6</sup> They are the kind who worm their way into households and captivate vulnerable women who are weighed down with sins and led astray by various passions, <sup>7</sup> who are always learning but never able to come to a knowledge of the truth.

<sup>8</sup> Just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses,* so also these men oppose the truth. They are depraved in mind and disqualified from the faith. <sup>9</sup> But they will not advance much further. For just like Jannes and Jambres, their folly will be plain to everyone.

*All Scripture Is God-Breathed
(Hebrews 4:12-16)*

<sup>10</sup> You, however, have observed my teaching, my conduct, my purpose, my faith, my patience, my love, my perseverance, <sup>11</sup> my persecutions, and the sufferings that came upon me in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. What persecutions I endured! Yet the Lord rescued me from all of them. <sup>12</sup> Indeed, all who desire to live godly lives in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, <sup>13</sup> while evil men and imposters go from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived.

<sup>14</sup> But as for you, continue in the things you have learned and firmly believed, since you know from whom you have learned them. <sup>15</sup> From infancy you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>16</sup> All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for instruction, for conviction, for correction, and for training in righteousness, <sup>17</sup> so that the man of God may be complete, fully equipped for every good work.

4

Preach the Word

<sup>1</sup> I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and in view of His appearing and His kingdom: <sup>2</sup> Preach the word; be prepared in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and encourage with every form of patient instruction.

<sup>3</sup> For the time will come when men will not tolerate sound doctrine, but with itching ears they will gather around themselves teachers to suit their own desires. <sup>4</sup> So they will turn their ears away from the truth and turn aside to myths.

<sup>5</sup> But you, be sober in all things, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry. <sup>6</sup> For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time of my departure is at hand. <sup>7</sup> I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. <sup>8</sup> From now on there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but to all who crave His appearing.

Personal Concerns

<sup>9</sup> Make every effort to come to me quickly, <sup>10</sup> because Demas, in his love of this world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica. Crescens has gone to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia. <sup>11</sup> Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, because he is useful to me in the ministry. <sup>12</sup> Tychicus, however, I have sent to Ephesus. <sup>13</sup> When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, and my scrolls, especially the parchments.

* 3:8 See Jasher 79:27. The Book of Jasher or the Book of the Upright One is often cited as Jasher.

<sup>14</sup> Alexander the coppersmith did great harm to me. The Lord will repay him according to his deeds. <sup>15</sup> You too should beware of him, for he has vigorously opposed our message.

The Lord Remains Faithful

<sup>16</sup> At my first defense, no one stood with me, but everyone deserted me. May it not be charged against them. <sup>17</sup> But the Lord stood by me and strengthened me, so that through me the message would be fully proclaimed, and all the Gentiles would hear it. So I was delivered from the mouth of the lion. <sup>18</sup> And the Lord will rescue me from every evil action and bring me safely into His heavenly kingdom. To Him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

(Ephesians 6:21-24; Philippians 4:21-23)

Eubulus sends you greetings, as do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers.

* 4:19 Prisca is a variant of Priscilla; see Acts 18:2. † 4:22 BYZ and TR include Amen.

Titus

Paul's Greeting to Titus (2 Corinthians 8:16-24)

<sup>1</sup> Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ for the faith of God's elect and their knowledge of the truth that leads to godliness, <sup>2</sup> in the hope of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, promised before time began.* <sup>3</sup> In His own time He has made His word evident in the proclamation entrusted to me by the command of God our Savior.

<sup>4</sup> To Titus, my true child in our common faith:

Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

Appointing Elders on Crete (1 Timothy 3:1-7; 1 Peter 5:1-4)

<sup>5</sup> The reason I left you in Crete was that you would set in order what was unfinished and appoint elders in every town, as I directed you. <sup>6</sup> An elder must be blameless, the husband of but one wife,† having children who are believers and who are not open to accusation of indiscretion or insubordination.

<sup>7</sup> As God's steward, an overseer must be above reproach—not self-absorbed, not quick-tempered, not given to drunkenness, not violent, not greedy for money. <sup>8</sup> Instead, he must be hospitable, a lover of good, self-controlled, upright, holy, and disciplined. <sup>9</sup> He must hold firmly to the faithful word as it was taught, so that he can encourage others by sound teaching and refute those who contradict it.

Correcting False Teachers (1 Timothy 1:3-11)

<sup>10</sup> For many are rebellious and full of empty talk and deception, especially those of the circumcision, <sup>11</sup> who must be silenced. For the sake of dishonorable gain, they undermine entire households and teach things they should not. <sup>12</sup> As one of their own prophets has said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons."‡

<sup>13</sup> This testimony is true. Therefore rebuke them sternly, so that they will be sound in the faith <sup>14</sup> and will pay no attention to Jewish myths or to the commands of men who have rejected the truth.

<sup>15</sup> To the pure, all things are pure; but to the defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure. Indeed, both their minds and their consciences are defiled. <sup>16</sup> They profess to know God, but by their actions they deny Him. They are detestable, disobedient, and unfit for any good deed.

2

Teaching Sound Doctrine

<sup>2</sup> Older men are to be temperate, dignified, self-controlled, and sound in faith, love, and perseverance.

* 1:2 Literally before times eternal    † 1:6 Or faithful to his wife    ‡ 1:12 This quote, also known as the Epimenides paradox, has been attributed to the Cretan philosopher Epimenides of Knossos.

<sup>6</sup> In the same way, urge the younger men to be self-controlled.

<sup>7</sup> In everything, show yourself to be an example by doing good works. In your teaching show integrity, dignity, <sup>8</sup> and wholesome speech that is above reproach, so that anyone who opposes us will be ashamed to have nothing bad to say about us.

<sup>9</sup> Slaves are to submit to their own masters in everything, to be well-pleasing, not argumentative, <sup>10</sup> not stealing from them, but showing all good faith, so that in every respect they will adorn the teaching about God our Savior.

God's Grace Brings Salvation

<sup>11</sup> For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to everyone. <sup>12</sup> It instructs us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live sensible, upright, and godly lives in the present age, <sup>13</sup> as we await the blessed hope and glorious appearance of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ. <sup>14</sup> He gave Himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for Himself a people for His own possession, zealous for good deeds.

<sup>15</sup> Speak these things as you encourage and rebuke with all authority. Let no one despise you.

3

Heirs of Grace

<sup>1</sup> Remind the believers to submit to rulers and authorities, to be obedient and ready for every good work, <sup>2</sup> to malign no one, and to be peaceable and gentle, showing full consideration to everyone.

<sup>3</sup> For at one time we too were foolish, disobedient, misled, and enslaved to all sorts of desires and pleasures—living in malice and envy, being hated and hating one another.

<sup>4</sup> But when the kindness of God our Savior and His love for mankind appeared, <sup>5</sup> He saved us, not by the righteous deeds we had done, but according to His mercy, through the washing of new birth * and renewal by the Holy Spirit. <sup>6</sup> This is the Spirit He poured out on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior, <sup>7</sup> so that, having been justified by His grace, we would become heirs with the hope of eternal life. <sup>8</sup> This saying is trustworthy. And I want you to emphasize these things, so that those who have believed God will take care to devote themselves to good deeds. These things are excellent and profitable for the people.

*Avoid Divisions
(Romans 16:17–20)*

<sup>9</sup> But avoid foolish controversies, genealogies, arguments, and quarrels about the law, because these things are pointless and worthless.

<sup>10</sup> Reject a divisive man after a first and second admonition, <sup>11</sup> knowing that such a man is corrupt and sinful; he is self-condemned.

Final Remarks and Greetings

<sup>12</sup> As soon as I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, make every effort to come to me at Nicopolis, because I have decided to winter there. <sup>13</sup> Do your best to equip Zenas the lawyer and Apollos, so that they will have everything they need. <sup>14</sup> And our people must also learn to devote themselves to good works in order to meet the pressing needs of others, so that they will not be unfruitful.

<sup>15</sup> All who are with me send you greetings.

Greet those who love us in the faith.

Philemon

*Greetings from Paul and Timothy
(Philippians 1:1-2; Colossians 1:1-2)*

To Philemon our beloved fellow worker, <sup>2</sup> to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church that meets at your * house:

<sup>3</sup> Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philemon's Faith and Love

<sup>4</sup> I always thank my God, remembering you in my prayers, <sup>5</sup> because I hear about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints. <sup>6</sup> I pray that your partnership in the faith may become effective as you fully acknowledge every good thing that is ours in Christ. <sup>7</sup> I take great joy and encouragement in your love, because you, brother, have refreshed the hearts of the saints.

Paul's Appeal for Onesimus

<sup>8</sup> So although in Christ I am bold enough to order you to do what is proper, <sup>9</sup> I prefer to appeal on the basis of love. For I, Paul, am now aged, and a prisoner of Christ Jesus as well.

<sup>10</sup> I appeal to you for my child Onesimus,† whose father I became while I was in chains.

<sup>11</sup> Formerly he was useless to you, but now he has become useful both to you and to me.

<sup>12</sup> I am sending back to you him who is my very heart.

<sup>13</sup> I would have liked to keep him with me, so that on your behalf he could minister to me in my chains for the gospel. <sup>14</sup> But I did not want to do anything without your consent, so that your goodness will not be out of compulsion, but by your own free will. <sup>15</sup> For perhaps this is why he was separated from you for a while, so that you might have him back for good— <sup>16</sup> no longer as a slave, but better than a slave, as a beloved brother. He is especially beloved to me, but even more so to you, both in person and in the Lord.

<sup>17</sup> So if you consider me a partner, receive him as you would receive me. <sup>18</sup> But if he has wronged you in any way or owes you anything, charge it to my account. <sup>19</sup> I, Paul, write this with my own hand. I will repay it—not to mention that you owe me your very self.

<sup>20</sup> Yes, brother, let me have some benefit ‡ from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in Christ.

<sup>21</sup> Confident of your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than I ask.

<sup>22</sup> In the meantime, prepare a guest room for me, because I hope that through your prayers I will be restored to you.

Additional Greetings

Hebrews

The Supremacy of the Son (Colossians 1:15-23)

<sup>1</sup> On many past occasions and in many different ways, God spoke to our fathers through the prophets. <sup>2</sup> But in these last days He has spoken to us by His Son,* whom He appointed heir of all things, and through whom He made the universe.†

<sup>3</sup> The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of His nature, upholding all things by His powerful word. After He had provided purification for sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high. <sup>4</sup> So He became as far superior to the angels as the name He has inherited is excellent beyond theirs. <sup>5</sup> For to which of the angels did God ever say:

"You are My Son;
today I have become Your Father"‡?

Or again:

"I will be His Father, and He will be My Son"§?

<sup>6</sup> And again, when God brings His firstborn into the world, He says:

"Let all God's angels worship Him."*

<sup>7</sup> Now about the angels He says:

"He makes His angels winds,
His servants flames of fire."†

<sup>8</sup> But about the Son He says:

"Your throne, O God, endures forever and ever,
and justice is the scepter of Your kingdom.

<sup>9</sup> You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness;

therefore God, Your God, has anointed You above Your companions with the oil of joy."‡

<sup>10</sup> And:

"In the beginning, O Lord, You laid the foundations of the earth,
and the heavens are the work of Your hands.

<sup>11</sup> They will perish, but You remain;
they will all wear out like a garment.

<sup>12</sup> You will roll them up like a robe;
like a garment § they will be changed;
but You remain the same,
and Your years will never end."*

<sup>13</sup> Yet to which of the angels did God ever say:

"Sit at My right hand

* 1:2 Or in His Son † 1:2 Or the world; literally the ages ‡ 1:5 Psalm 2:7; literally today I have begotten You

§ 1:5 2 Samuel 7:14; 1 Chronicles 17:13 * 1:6 Deuteronomy 32:43 (see DSS and LXX) † 1:7 Psalm 104:4 (see also LXX) ‡ 1:9 Psalm 45:6-7 § 1:12 BYZ and TR do not include like a garment. * 1:12 Psalm 102:25-27

until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet”†?

14 Are not the angels ‡ ministering spirits sent to serve those who will inherit salvation?

2

Salvation Confirmed

1 We must pay closer attention, therefore, to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away. 2 For if the message spoken by angels was binding, and every transgression and disobedience received its just punishment, 3 how shall we escape if we neglect such a great salvation?

This salvation was first announced by the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard Him, 4 and was affirmed by God through signs, wonders, various miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to His will.

Jesus like His Brothers

5 For it is not to angels that He has subjected the world to come, about which we are speaking. 6 But somewhere it is testified in these words:

“What is man that You are mindful of him,
or the son of man that You care for him?
7 You made him a little lower * than the angels;
You crowned him with glory and honor †
8 and placed everything under his feet.”‡

When God subjected all things to him, He left nothing outside of his control. Yet at present we do not see everything subject to him. 9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels, now crowned with glory and honor because He suffered death, so that by the grace of God He might taste death for everyone.

10 In bringing many sons to glory, it was fitting for God, for whom and through whom all things exist, to make the author § of their salvation perfect through suffering. 11 For both the One who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are of the same family. So Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers. 12 He says:

“I will proclaim Your name to My brothers;
I will sing Your praises in the assembly.”*

13 And again:

“I will put My trust in Him.”†

And once again:

“Here am I, and the children God has given Me.”‡

14 Now since the children have flesh and blood, He too shared in their humanity, so that by His death He might destroy him who holds the power of death, that is, the devil, 15 and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death.

16 For surely it is not the angels He helps, but the descendants of Abraham. 17 For this reason He had to be made like His brothers in every way, so that He might become a merciful and faithful high priest in service to God, in order to make atonement § for the sins of the people. 18 Because He Himself suffered when He was tempted, He is able to help those who are being tempted.

3

Jesus Our Apostle and High Priest

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, holy brothers, who share in the heavenly calling, set your focus on Jesus, the apostle and high priest whom we confess. <sup>2</sup> He was faithful to the One who appointed Him, just as Moses was faithful in all God's house.*

<sup>3</sup> For Jesus has been counted worthy of greater glory than Moses, just as the builder of a house has greater honor than the house itself. <sup>4</sup> And every house is built by someone, but God is the builder of everything.

<sup>5</sup> Now Moses was faithful as a servant in all God's house,† testifying to what would be spoken later. <sup>6</sup> But Christ is faithful as the Son over God's house. And we are His house, if we hold firmly ‡ to our confidence and the hope of which we boast.

Do Not Harden Your Hearts
(Psalm 95:1-11)

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says:

"Today, if you hear His voice,
<sup>8</sup> do not harden your hearts,
as you did in the rebellion,
in the day of testing in the wilderness,
<sup>9</sup> where your fathers tested and tried Me,
and for forty years saw My works.
<sup>10</sup> Therefore I was angry with that generation,
and I said,
'Their hearts are always going astray,
and they have not known My ways.'
<sup>11</sup> So I swore on oath in My anger,
'They shall never enter My rest.' "§

The Peril of Unbelief

<sup>12</sup> See to it, brothers, that none of you has a wicked heart of unbelief that turns away from the living God. <sup>13</sup> But exhort one another daily, as long as it is called today, so that none of you may be hardened by sin's deceitfulness.

<sup>14</sup> We have come to share in Christ if we hold firmly to the end the assurance we had at first. <sup>15</sup> As it has been said:

"Today, if you hear His voice,
do not harden your hearts,
as you did in the rebellion."*

<sup>16</sup> For who were the ones who heard and rebelled? Were they not all those Moses led out of Egypt? <sup>17</sup> And with whom was God angry for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? <sup>18</sup> And to whom did He swear that they would never enter His rest? Was it not to those who disobeyed? <sup>19</sup> So we see that it was because of their unbelief that they were unable to enter.

4

The Sabbath Rest
(Genesis 2:1-3; Exodus 16:22-30)

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, while the promise of entering His rest still stands, let us be careful that none of you be deemed to have fallen short of it. <sup>2</sup> For we also received the good news just as

* 3:2 Literally just as Moses in all His house; SBL just as Moses in His house † 3:5 Numbers 12:7 ‡ 3:6 NE, WH, BYZ, and TR include to the end. § 3:11 Psalm 95:7-11 (see also LXX) * 3:15 Psalm 95:7-8

they did; but the message they heard was of no value to them, since they did not share the faith of those who comprehended it.*

<sup>3</sup> Now we who have believed enter that rest. As for the others, it is just as God has said:

“So I swore on oath in My anger,
‘They shall never enter My rest.’”†

And yet His works have been finished since the foundation of the world. <sup>4</sup> For somewhere He has spoken about the seventh day in this manner: “And on the seventh day God rested from all His works.”‡ <sup>5</sup> And again, as He says in the passage above: “They shall never enter My rest.”

<sup>6</sup> Since, then, it remains for some to enter His rest, and since those who formerly heard the good news did not enter because of their disobedience, <sup>7</sup> God again designated a certain day as “Today,” when a long time later He spoke through David as was just stated: “Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts.”§

<sup>8</sup> For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken later about another day. <sup>9</sup> There remains, then, a Sabbath rest for the people of God. <sup>10</sup> For whoever enters God’s rest also rests from his own work, just as God did from His. <sup>11</sup> Let us, therefore, make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one will fall by following the same pattern of disobedience.

The Living Word
(2 Timothy 3:10-17)

<sup>12</sup> For the word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it pierces even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow. It judges the thoughts and intentions of the heart. <sup>13</sup> Nothing in all creation is hidden from God’s sight; everything is uncovered and exposed before the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to what we profess. <sup>15</sup> For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who was tempted in every way that we are, yet was without sin. <sup>16</sup> Let us then approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

5

The Perfect High Priest
(Psalm 110:1-7)

<sup>1</sup> Every high priest is appointed from among men to represent them in matters relating to God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. <sup>2</sup> He is able to deal gently with those who are ignorant and misguided, since he himself is beset by weakness. <sup>3</sup> That is why he is obligated to offer sacrifices for his own sins, as well as for the sins of the people.

<sup>4</sup> No one takes this honor upon himself; he must be called by God, just as Aaron was. <sup>5</sup> So also Christ did not take upon Himself the glory of becoming a high priest, but He was called by the One who said to Him:

“You are My Son;
today I have become Your Father.”*

<sup>6</sup> And in another passage God says:

“You are a priest forever
in the order of Melchizedek.”†

* 4:2 Literally not having been united in the faith of those who heard † 4:3 Psalm 95:11; also in verse 5 ‡ 4:4 Genesis 2:2 § 4:7 Psalm 95:7-8 * 5:5 Psalm 2:7; literally today I have begotten You † 5:6 Psalm 110:4

<sup>7</sup> During the days of Jesus' earthly life, He offered up prayers and petitions with loud cries and tears to the One who could save Him from death, and He was heard because of His reverence. <sup>8</sup> Although He was a Son, He learned obedience from what He suffered. <sup>9</sup> And having been made perfect, He became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey Him <sup>10</sup> and was designated by God as high priest in the order of Melchizedek.

Milk and Solid Food
(1 Corinthians 3:1-9)

<sup>11</sup> We have much to say about this, but it is hard to explain, because you are dull of hearing. <sup>12</sup> Although by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to reteach you the basic principles of God's word.‡ You need milk, not solid food!

<sup>13</sup> For everyone who lives on milk is still an infant, inexperienced in the message of righteousness. <sup>14</sup> But solid food is for the mature, who by constant use have trained their senses to distinguish good from evil.

6

A Call to Maturity

<sup>4</sup> It is impossible for those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, who have shared in the Holy Spirit, <sup>5</sup> who have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the coming age—<sup>6</sup> and then have fallen away—to be restored to repentance, because they themselves are crucifying the Son of God all over again and subjecting Him to open shame.

<sup>7</sup> For land that drinks in the rain often falling on it and that produces a crop useful to those for whom it is tended receives the blessing of God. <sup>8</sup> But land that produces thorns and thistles is worthless, and its curse is imminent. In the end it will be burned.

<sup>9</sup> Even though we speak like this, beloved, we are convinced of better things in your case—things that accompany salvation. <sup>10</sup> For God is not unjust. He will not forget your work and the love you have shown for His name as you have ministered to the saints and continue to do so.

<sup>11</sup> We want each of you to show this same diligence to the very end, in order to make your hope sure. <sup>12</sup> Then you will not be sluggish, but will imitate those who through faith and patience inherit what has been promised.

God's Unchangeable Promise

<sup>13</sup> When God made His promise to Abraham, since He had no one greater to swear by, He swore by Himself, <sup>14</sup> saying, "I will surely bless you and multiply your descendants."‡ <sup>15</sup> And so Abraham, after waiting patiently, obtained the promise.

<sup>16</sup> Men swear by someone greater than themselves, and their oath serves as a confirmation to end all argument. <sup>17</sup> So when God wanted to make the unchanging nature of His purpose very clear to the heirs of the promise, He guaranteed it with an oath. <sup>18</sup> Thus by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled to take hold of the hope set before us may be strongly encouraged.

<sup>19</sup> We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure. It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain, <sup>20</sup> where Jesus our forerunner has entered on our behalf. He has become a high priest forever in the order of Melchizedek.

Melchizedek and Abraham
(Genesis 14:17-24)

<sup>1</sup> This Melchizedek was king of Salem and priest of God Most High.* He met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him,<sup>2</sup> and Abraham apportioned to him a tenth of everything. First, his name means “king of righteousness.” Then also, “king of Salem” means “king of peace.”<sup>3</sup> Without father or mother or genealogy, without beginning of days or end of life, like the Son of God, he remains a priest for all time.

<sup>4</sup> Consider how great Melchizedek was: Even the patriarch Abraham gave him a tenth of the plunder.<sup>5</sup> Now the law commands the sons of Levi who become priests to collect a tenth from the people—that is, from their brothers—though they too are descended from Abraham.<sup>6</sup> But Melchizedek, who did not trace his descent from Levi, collected a tenth from Abraham and blessed him who had the promises.<sup>7</sup> And indisputably, the lesser is blessed by the greater.

<sup>8</sup> In the case of the Levites, mortal men collect the tenth; but in the case of Melchizedek, it is affirmed that he lives on.<sup>9</sup> And so to speak, Levi, who collects the tenth, paid the tenth through Abraham.<sup>10</sup> For when Melchizedek met Abraham, Levi was still in the loins of his ancestor.

A Superior Priesthood

<sup>11</sup> Now if perfection could have been attained through the Levitical priesthood (for on this basis the people received the law), why was there still need for another priest to appear—one in the order of Melchizedek and not in the order of Aaron?<sup>12</sup> For when the priesthood is changed, the law must be changed as well.

<sup>13</sup> He of whom these things are said belonged to a different tribe, from which no one has ever served at the altar.<sup>14</sup> For it is clear that our Lord descended from Judah, a tribe as to which Moses said nothing about priests.

<sup>15</sup> And this point is even more clear if another priest like Melchizedek appears,<sup>16</sup> one who has become a priest not by a law of succession, but by the power of an indestructible life.<sup>17</sup> For it is testified:

“You are a priest forever
in the order of Melchizedek.”†

<sup>18</sup> So the former commandment is set aside because it was weak and useless<sup>19</sup> (for the law made nothing perfect), and a better hope is introduced, by which we draw near to God.

<sup>20</sup> And none of this happened without an oath. For others became priests without an oath,<sup>21</sup> but Jesus became a priest with an oath by the One who said to Him:

“The Lord has sworn and will not change His mind:
‘You are a priest forever.’”‡

<sup>22</sup> Because of this oath, Jesus has become the guarantee of a better covenant.

<sup>23</sup> Now there have been many other priests, since death prevented them from continuing in office.<sup>24</sup> But because Jesus lives forever, He has a permanent priesthood.<sup>25</sup> Therefore He is able to save completely § those who draw near to God through Him, since He always lives to intercede for them.

<sup>26</sup> Such a high priest truly befits us—One who is holy, innocent, undefiled, set apart from sinners, and exalted above the heavens.<sup>27</sup> Unlike the other high priests, He does not need to offer daily sacrifices, first for His own sins and then for the sins of the people; He sacrificed for sin once for all when He offered up Himself.<sup>28</sup> For the law appoints as

* 7:1 Genesis 14:18 † 7:17 Psalm 110:4 ‡ 7:21 Psalm 110:4 § 7:25 Or forever high priests men who are weak; but the oath, which came after the law, appointed the Son, who has been made perfect forever.

Christ's Eternal Priesthood

<sup>1</sup> The point of what we are saying is this: We do have such a high priest, who sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in heaven, <sup>2</sup> and who ministers in the sanctuary and true tabernacle set up by the Lord, not by man. <sup>3</sup> And since every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices, it was necessary for this One also to have something to offer.

<sup>4</sup> Now if He were on earth, He would not be a priest, since there are already priests who offer gifts according to the law. <sup>5</sup> The place where they serve is a copy and shadow of what is in heaven. This is why Moses was warned when he was about to build the tabernacle: "See to it that you make everything according to the pattern shown you on the mountain."*

The New Covenant
(Jeremiah 31:26-40)

<sup>6</sup> Now, however, Jesus has received a much more excellent ministry, just as the covenant He mediates is better and is founded on better promises. <sup>7</sup> For if that first covenant had been without fault, no place would have been sought for a second. <sup>8</sup> But God found fault with the people and said:

"Behold, the days are coming, declares the Lord,
when I will make a new covenant
with the house of Israel
and with the house of Judah.

<sup>9</sup> It will not be like the covenant
I made with their fathers
when I took them by the hand
to lead them out of the land of Egypt,
because they did not abide by My covenant,
and I disregarded them,

declares the Lord.

<sup>10</sup> For this is the covenant I will make
with the house of Israel
after those days,
declares the Lord.

I will put My laws in their minds and inscribe them on their hearts.
And I will be their God,
and they will be My people.

<sup>11</sup> No longer will each one teach his neighbor or his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord,'
because they will all know Me,
from the least of them to the greatest.

<sup>12</sup> For I will forgive their iniquities
and will remember their sins no more."†

<sup>13</sup> By speaking of a new covenant,‡ He has made the first one obsolete; and what is obsolete and aging will soon disappear.

9

The Earthly Tabernacle (Exodus 40:1-33; Acts 7:44-47)

* 8:5 Exodus 25:40; see also Exodus 26:30. † 8:12 Jeremiah 31:31-34 (see also LXX) ‡ 8:13 Literally In saying new; here and in Hebrews 9:1 and 18, covenant is included for clarity but is not contained in the Greek. A broader interpretation could also include priesthood or tabernacle.

<sup>6</sup> When everything had been prepared in this way, the priests entered regularly into the first room to perform their sacred duties. <sup>7</sup> But only the high priest entered the second room, and then only once a year, and never without blood, which he offered for himself and for the sins the people had committed in ignorance.

<sup>8</sup> By this arrangement the Holy Spirit was showing that the way into the Most Holy Place * had not yet been disclosed as long as the first tabernacle was still standing. <sup>9</sup> It is an illustration for the present time, because the gifts and sacrifices being offered were unable to cleanse the conscience of the worshiper. <sup>10</sup> They consist only in food and drink and special washings—external regulations imposed until the time of reform.

Redemption through His Blood

<sup>11</sup> But when Christ came as high priest of the good things that have come,† He went through the greater and more perfect tabernacle that is not made by hands and is not a part of this creation. <sup>12</sup> He did not enter by the blood of goats and calves, but He entered the Most Holy Place once for all by His own blood, thus securing eternal redemption.

<sup>13</sup> For if the blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer sprinkled on those who are ceremonially unclean sanctify them so that their bodies are clean, <sup>14</sup> how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself unblemished to God, purify our ‡ consciences from works of death, so that we may serve the living God!

<sup>15</sup> Therefore Christ is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance, now that He has died to redeem them from the transgressions committed under the first covenant.

<sup>16</sup> In the case of a will,§ it is necessary to establish the death of the one who made it, <sup>17</sup> because a will does not take effect until the one who made it has died; it cannot be executed while he is still alive.

<sup>18</sup> That is why even the first covenant was not put into effect without blood. <sup>19</sup> For when Moses had proclaimed every commandment of the law to all the people, he took the blood of calves and goats,* along with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled the scroll and all the people, <sup>20</sup> saying, "This is the blood of the covenant, which God has commanded you to keep."†

<sup>21</sup> In the same way, he sprinkled with blood the tabernacle and all the vessels used in worship. <sup>22</sup> According to the law, in fact, nearly everything must be purified with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

<sup>23</sup> So it was necessary for the copies of the heavenly things to be purified with these sacrifices, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. <sup>24</sup> For Christ did not enter a man-made copy of the true sanctuary, but He entered heaven itself, now to appear on our behalf in the presence of God.

<sup>25</sup> Nor did He enter heaven to offer Himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Most Holy Place every year with blood that is not his own. <sup>26</sup> Otherwise, Christ would have had to suffer repeatedly since the foundation of the world. But now He has appeared once for all at the end of the ages to do away with sin by the sacrifice of Himself.

<sup>27</sup> Just as man is appointed to die once, and after that to face judgment, <sup>28</sup> so also Christ was offered once to bear the sins of many; and He will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who eagerly await Him.

10

Christ's Perfect Sacrifice (Psalm 40:1-17)

<sup>1</sup> For the law is only a shadow of the good things to come, not the realities themselves. It can never, by the same sacrifices offered year after year, make perfect those who draw near to worship. <sup>2</sup> If it could, would not the offerings have ceased? For the worshipers would have been cleansed once for all, and would no longer have felt the guilt of their sins.

<sup>3</sup> Instead, those sacrifices are an annual reminder of sins, <sup>4</sup> because it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins. <sup>5</sup> Therefore, when Christ came into the world, He said:

“Sacrifice and offering You did not desire,
but a body You prepared for Me.

<sup>6</sup> In burnt offerings and sin offerings
You took no delight.

<sup>7</sup> Then I said, ‘Here I am, it is written about Me in the scroll:
I have come to do Your will, O God.’”*

<sup>8</sup> In the passage above He says, “Sacrifices and offerings, burnt offerings and sin offerings You did not desire, nor did You delight in them” (although they are offered according to the law). <sup>9</sup> Then He adds, “Here I am, I have come to do Your will.” He takes away the first to establish the second. <sup>10</sup> And by that will, we have been sanctified through the sacrifice of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

<sup>11</sup> Day after day every priest stands to minister and to offer again and again the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. <sup>12</sup> But when this Priest had offered for all time one sacrifice for sins, He sat down at the right hand of God. <sup>13</sup> Since that time, He waits for His enemies to be made a footstool for His feet, <sup>14</sup> because by a single offering He has made perfect for all time those who are being sanctified.

<sup>15</sup> The Holy Spirit also testifies to us about this. First He says:

<sup>16</sup> “This is the covenant I will make with them
after those days, declares the Lord.

I will put My laws in their hearts and inscribe them on their minds.”†

<sup>17</sup> Then He adds:

“Their sins and lawless acts
I will remember no more.”‡

<sup>18</sup> And where these have been forgiven, an offering for sin is no longer needed.

A Call to Persevere (Jude 1:17-23)

<sup>19</sup> Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place § by the blood of Jesus, <sup>20</sup> by the new and living way opened for us through the curtain of His

* 10:7 Psalm 40:6-8 (see also LXX) † 10:16 Jeremiah 31:33 ‡ 10:17 Jeremiah 31:34 § 10:19 Or the Holy Place body,* <sup>21</sup> and since we have a great priest over the house of God, <sup>22</sup> let us draw near with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

<sup>23</sup> Let us hold resolutely to the hope we profess, for He who promised is faithful. <sup>24</sup> And let us consider how to spur one another on to love and good deeds. <sup>25</sup> Let us not neglect meeting together, as some have made a habit, but let us encourage one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

<sup>26</sup> If we deliberately go on sinning after we have received the knowledge of the truth, no further sacrifice for sins remains, <sup>27</sup> but only a fearful expectation of judgment and of raging fire that will consume all adversaries. <sup>28</sup> Anyone who rejected the law of Moses died without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. <sup>29</sup> How much more severely do you think one deserves to be punished who has trampled on the Son of God, profaned the blood of the covenant that sanctified him, and insulted the Spirit of grace?

<sup>30</sup> For we know Him who said, "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay,"† and again, "The Lord will judge His people."‡ <sup>31</sup> It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

<sup>32</sup> Remember the early days that you were in the light.§ In those days, you endured a great conflict in the face of suffering. <sup>33</sup> Sometimes you were publicly exposed to ridicule and persecution; at other times you were partners with those who were so treated. <sup>34</sup> You sympathized with those in prison and joyfully accepted the confiscation of your property, knowing that you yourselves had a better and permanent possession.

<sup>35</sup> So do not throw away your confidence; it holds a great reward. <sup>36</sup> You need to persevere, so that after you have done the will of God, you will receive what He has promised. <sup>37</sup> For,

"In just a little while,
He who is coming will come and will not delay.

<sup>38</sup> But My righteous one will live by faith,* and if he shrinks back,
I will take no pleasure in him."†

<sup>39</sup> But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls.

11

Faith and Assurance (Genesis 1:1-2; John 1:1-5)

<sup>1</sup> Now faith is the assurance of what we hope for and the certainty of what we do not see. <sup>2</sup> This is why the ancients were commended.

<sup>3</sup> By faith we understand that the universe was formed at God's command, so that what is seen was not made out of what was visible.

The Faith of Abel, Enoch, Noah (Genesis 4-9)

<sup>4</sup> By faith Abel offered God a better sacrifice than Cain did. By faith he was commended as righteous when God gave approval to his gifts. And by faith he still speaks, even though he is dead.

* 10:20 Literally through the veil that is His flesh † 10:30 Deuteronomy 32:35 (see also LXX) ‡ 10:30 Deuteronomy 32:36; Psalm 135:14 § 10:32 Or Remember when you were first enlightened. * 10:38 BYZ and TR But the righteous will live by faith † 10:38 Habakkuk 2:3-4 (see also LXX)

<sup>5</sup> By faith Enoch was taken up * so that he did not see death: "He could not be found, because God had taken him away."† For before he was taken, he was commended as one who pleased God.

<sup>6</sup> And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who approaches Him must believe that He exists and that He rewards those who earnestly seek Him.

<sup>7</sup> By faith Noah, when warned about things not yet seen, in godly fear built an ark to save his family. By faith he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.

The Faith of Abraham and Sarah
(Genesis 15-22; Romans 4:1-12)

<sup>8</sup> By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, without knowing where he was going. <sup>9</sup> By faith he dwelt in the promised land as a stranger in a foreign country. He lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. <sup>10</sup> For he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

<sup>11</sup> By faith Sarah, even though she was barren and beyond the proper age, was enabled to conceive a child, because she considered Him faithful who had promised. <sup>12</sup> And so from one man, and he as good as dead, came descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sand on the seashore.

<sup>13</sup> All these people died in faith, without having received the things they were promised. However, they saw them and welcomed them from afar. And they acknowledged that they were strangers and exiles on the earth.

<sup>14</sup> Now those who say such things show that they are seeking a country of their own. <sup>15</sup> If they had been thinking of the country they had left, they would have had opportunity to return. <sup>16</sup> Instead, they were longing for a better country, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them.

<sup>17</sup> By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac on the altar. He who had received the promises was ready to offer his one and only son,‡ <sup>18</sup> even though God had said to him, "Through Isaac your offspring will be reckoned."§ <sup>19</sup> Abraham reasoned that God could raise the dead, and in a sense, he did receive Isaac back from death.

The Faith of Isaac, Jacob, and Joseph
(Genesis 27-50)

<sup>21</sup> By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of Joseph's sons and worshiped as he leaned on the top of his staff.

<sup>22</sup> By faith Joseph, when his end was near, spoke about the exodus of the Israelites and gave instructions about his bones.

The Faith of Moses
(Exodus 2-15; Acts 7:20-22)

<sup>23</sup> By faith Moses' parents hid him for three months after his birth, because they saw that he was a beautiful child, and they were unafraid of the king's edict.

<sup>24</sup> By faith Moses, when he was grown, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter. <sup>25</sup> He chose to suffer oppression with God's people rather than to experience the fleeting enjoyment of sin. <sup>26</sup> He valued disgrace for Christ above the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking ahead to his reward.

* 11:5 Literally transferred or translated † 11:5 Genesis 5:24 (see also LXX) ‡ 11:17 Or only begotten son or unique son § 11:18 Genesis 21:12

<sup>27</sup> By faith Moses left Egypt, not fearing the king's anger; he persevered because he saw Him who is invisible. <sup>28</sup> By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch Israel's own firstborn.

<sup>29</sup> By faith the people passed through the Red Sea as on dry land; but when the Egyptians tried to follow,* they were drowned.

The Faith of Mary (Joshua-Malachi)

<sup>30</sup> By faith the walls of Jericho fell, after the people had marched around them for seven days.

<sup>31</sup> By faith the prostitute Rahab, because she welcomed the spies in peace, did not perish with those who were disobedient.

<sup>32</sup> And what more shall I say? Time will not allow me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and the prophets, <sup>33</sup> who through faith conquered kingdoms, administered justice, and gained what was promised; who shut the mouths of lions, <sup>34</sup> quenched the raging fire, and escaped the edge of the sword; who gained strength from weakness, became mighty in battle, and put foreign armies to flight.

<sup>35</sup> Women received back their dead, raised to life again. Others were tortured and refused their release, so that they might gain a better resurrection. <sup>36</sup> Still others endured mocking and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment.

<sup>37</sup> They were stoned, they were sawed in two,† they were put to death by the sword. They went around in sheepskins and goatskins, destitute, oppressed, and mistreated. <sup>38</sup> The world was not worthy of them. They wandered in deserts and mountains, and hid in caves and holes in the ground.

<sup>39</sup> These were all commended for their faith, yet they did not receive what was promised. <sup>40</sup> God had planned something better for us, so that together with us they would be made perfect.

12

*A Call to Endurance
(2 Timothy 2:1-13)*

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off every encumbrance and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with endurance the race set out for us. <sup>2</sup> Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author * and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before Him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. <sup>3</sup> Consider Him who endured such hostility from sinners, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.

God Disciplines His Sons

<sup>4</sup> In your struggle against sin, you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. <sup>5</sup> And you have forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons:

"My son, do not take lightly the discipline of the Lord, and do not lose heart when He rebukes you.

<sup>6</sup> For the Lord disciplines the one He loves, and He chastises every son He receives."†

<sup>7</sup> Endure suffering as discipline; God is treating you as sons. For what son is not disciplined by his father? <sup>8</sup> If you do not experience discipline like everyone else, then you are illegitimate children and not true sons. <sup>9</sup> Furthermore, we have all had earthly

* 11:29 Literally made an attempt † 11:37 NE, WH, BYZ, and TR include they were put to the test, * 12:2 Or pioneer or founder † 12:6 Literally and He flogs every son He receives; Proverbs 3:11-12 (see also LXX) fathers who disciplined us, and we respected them. Should we not much more submit to the Father of our spirits and live?

<sup>10</sup> Our fathers disciplined us for a short time as they thought best, but God disciplines us for our good, so that we may share in His holiness. <sup>11</sup> No discipline seems enjoyable at the time, but painful. Later on, however, it yields a harvest of righteousness and peace † to those who have been trained by it.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore strengthen your limp hands and weak knees. § <sup>13</sup> Make straight paths for your feet,* so that the lame may not be disabled, but rather healed.

A Call to Holiness
(1 Peter 1:13–21)

<sup>14</sup> Pursue peace with everyone, as well as holiness, without which no one will see the Lord. <sup>15</sup> See to it that no one falls short of the grace of God, and that no root of bitterness † springs up to cause trouble and defile many. <sup>16</sup> See to it that no one is sexually immoral, or is godless like Esau, who for a single meal sold his birthright. <sup>17</sup> For you know that afterward, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected. He could find no ground for repentance, though he sought the blessing with tears.

An Unshakable Kingdom
(Exodus 20:18–21; Deuteronomy 5:22–33)

<sup>18</sup> For you have not come to a mountain that can be touched and that ‡ is burning with fire; to darkness, gloom, and storm; <sup>19</sup> to a trumpet blast or to a voice that made its hearers beg that no further word be spoken. <sup>20</sup> For they could not bear what was commanded: “If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned.” § <sup>21</sup> The sight was so terrifying that even Moses said, “I am trembling with fear.”*

<sup>22</sup> Instead, you have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem. You have come to myriads of angels <sup>23</sup> in joyful assembly, to the congregation of the firstborn, enrolled in heaven. You have come to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, <sup>24</sup> to Jesus the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

<sup>25</sup> See to it that you do not refuse Him who speaks. For if the people did not escape when they refused Him who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we reject Him who warns us from heaven? <sup>26</sup> At that time His voice shook the earth, but now He has promised, “Once more I will shake not only the earth, but heaven as well.” † <sup>27</sup> The words “Once more” signify the removal of what can be shaken—that is, created things—so that the unshakable may remain.

<sup>28</sup> Therefore, since we are receiving an unshakable kingdom, let us be filled with gratitude, and so worship God acceptably with reverence and awe. <sup>29</sup> “For our God is a consuming fire.” ‡

Brotherly Love

<sup>1</sup> Continue in brotherly love. <sup>2</sup> Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have entertained angels without knowing it. <sup>3</sup> Remember those in prison as if you were bound with them, and those who are mistreated as if you were suffering with them.

<sup>4</sup> Marriage should be honored by all and the marriage bed kept undefiled, for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers.

Christ's Unchanging Nature

‡ 12:11 Or it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness § 12:12 Isaiah 35:3 * 12:13 Proverbs 4:26 (see also LXX) † 12:15 See Deuteronomy 29:18 ‡ 12:18 Literally to what can be touched and § 12:20 Exodus 19:12–13

* 12:21 Deuteronomy 9:19 † 12:26 Haggai 2:6 ‡ 12:29 Deuteronomy 4:24

<sup>5</sup> Keep your lives free from the love of money and be content with what you have, for God has said:

“Never will I leave you, never will I forsake you.”*

<sup>6</sup> So we say with confidence:

“The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid.
What can man do to me?”†

<sup>7</sup> Remember your leaders who spoke the word of God to you. Consider the outcome of their way of life and imitate their faith. <sup>8</sup> Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

<sup>9</sup> Do not be carried away by all kinds of strange teachings, for it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace and not by foods of no value to those devoted to them. <sup>10</sup> We have an altar from which those who serve at the tabernacle have no right to eat.

<sup>11</sup> Although the high priest brings the blood of animals into the Holy Place as a sacrifice for sin, the bodies are burned outside the camp. <sup>12</sup> And so Jesus also suffered outside the city gate, to sanctify the people by His own blood. <sup>13</sup> Therefore let us go to Him outside the camp, bearing the disgrace He bore. <sup>14</sup> For here we do not have a permanent city, but we are looking for the city that is to come.

Sacrifice, Obedience, and Prayer

<sup>15</sup> Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise, the fruit of lips that confess His name. <sup>16</sup> And do not neglect to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

<sup>17</sup> Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they watch over your souls as those who must give an account. To this end, allow them to lead with joy and not with grief, for that would be of no advantage to you.

<sup>18</sup> Pray for us; we are convinced that we have a clear conscience and desire to live honorably in every way. <sup>19</sup> And I especially urge you to pray that I may be restored to you soon.

Benediction and Farewell

<sup>20</sup> Now may the God of peace, who through the blood of the eternal covenant brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, <sup>21</sup> equip you with every good thing ‡ to do His will. And may He accomplish in us § what is pleasing in His sight through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>22</sup> I urge you, brothers, to bear with my word of exhortation, for I have only written to you briefly.

<sup>23</sup> Be aware that our brother Timothy has been released. If he arrives soon, I will come with him to see you.

<sup>24</sup> Greet all your leaders and all the saints.

Those from Italy send you greetings.

<sup>25</sup> Grace be with all of you.*

James

A Greeting from James (Jude 1:1-2)

<sup>1</sup> James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ,

To the twelve tribes of the Dispersion:*

Greetings.

Rejoicing in Trials (Philippians 1:12-20)

<sup>2</sup> Consider it pure joy, my brothers, when you encounter trials of many kinds, <sup>3</sup> because you know that the testing of your faith develops perseverance. <sup>4</sup> Allow perseverance to finish its work, so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything.

<sup>5</sup> Now if any of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to him. <sup>6</sup> But he must ask in faith, without doubting, because he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind. <sup>7</sup> That man should not expect to receive anything from the Lord. <sup>8</sup> He is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

<sup>9</sup> The brother in humble circumstances should exult in his high position. <sup>10</sup> But the one who is rich should exult in his low position, because he will pass away like a flower of the field. <sup>11</sup> For the sun rises with scorching heat and withers the plant; its flower falls and its beauty is lost. So too, the rich man will fade away in the midst of his pursuits.

<sup>12</sup> Blessed is the man who perseveres under trial, because when he has stood the test, he will receive the crown of life that God has promised to those who love Him.

Good and Perfect Gifts

<sup>13</sup> When tempted, no one should say, "God is tempting me." For God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does He tempt anyone. <sup>14</sup> But each one is tempted when by his own evil desires he is lured away and enticed. <sup>15</sup> Then after desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, gives birth to death.

<sup>16</sup> Do not be deceived, my beloved brothers. <sup>17</sup> Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, with whom there is no change or shifting shadow.† <sup>18</sup> He chose to give us birth through the word of truth, that we would be a kind of firstfruits of His creation.‡

Hearing and Doing

<sup>19</sup> My beloved brothers, understand this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to anger; <sup>20</sup> for man's anger does not bring about the righteousness that God desires. <sup>21</sup> Therefore, get rid of all moral filth and every expression of evil, and humbly accept the word planted in you, which can save your souls.

* 1:1 Literally To the twelve tribes in the Diaspora. Originally referring to the Jewish people living outside the land of Israel, the Diaspora is applied here to the Jewish believers scattered abroad. † 1:17 Or no change or shadow of turning. ‡ 1:18 Or of His creatures.

<sup>26</sup> If anyone considers himself religious and yet does not bridle his tongue, he deceives his heart and his religion is worthless. <sup>27</sup> Pure and undefiled religion before our God and Father is this: to care for orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world.

2

A Warning against Favoritism

<sup>1</sup> My brothers, as you hold out your faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ, do not show favoritism.

<sup>2</sup> Suppose a man comes into your meeting * wearing a gold ring and fine clothes, and a poor man in shabby clothes also comes in. <sup>3</sup> If you lavish attention on the man in fine clothes and say, "Here is a seat of honor," but say to the poor man, "You must stand" or "Sit at my feet," <sup>4</sup> have you not discriminated among yourselves and become judges with evil thoughts?

<sup>5</sup> Listen, my beloved brothers: Has not God chosen the poor of this world to be rich in faith and to inherit the kingdom He promised those who love Him? <sup>6</sup> But you have dishonored the poor. Is it not the rich who oppress you and drag you into court? <sup>7</sup> Are they not the ones who blaspheme the noble name by which you have been called?†

<sup>8</sup> If you really fulfill the royal law stated in Scripture, "Love your neighbor as yourself,"‡ you are doing well. <sup>9</sup> But if you show favoritism, you sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors.

<sup>10</sup> Whoever keeps the whole law but stumbles at just one point is guilty of breaking all of it. <sup>11</sup> For He who said, "Do not commit adultery,"§ also said, "Do not murder."* If you do not commit adultery, but do commit murder, you have become a lawbreaker.

<sup>12</sup> Speak and act as those who are going to be judged by the law that gives freedom. <sup>13</sup> For judgment without mercy will be shown to anyone who has not been merciful. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

Faith and Works (Galatians 3:1-9)

<sup>14</sup> What good is it, my brothers, if someone claims to have faith, but has no deeds? Can such faith save him? <sup>15</sup> Suppose a brother or sister is without clothes and daily food. <sup>16</sup> If one of you tells him, "Go in peace; stay warm and well fed," but does not provide for his physical needs, what good is that? <sup>17</sup> So too, faith by itself, if it does not result in action,† is dead.

<sup>18</sup> But someone will say, "You have faith and I have deeds." Show me your faith without deeds, and I will show you my faith by my deeds. <sup>19</sup> You believe that God is one.‡ Good for you! Even the demons believe that—and shudder.

<sup>25</sup> In the same way, was not even Rahab the prostitute justified by her actions when she welcomed the spies ‡ and sent them off on another route? <sup>26</sup> As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead.

* 2:2 Greek your synagogue    † 2:7 Or the noble name invoked upon you or the noble name of Him to whom you belong    ‡ 2:8 Leviticus 19:18    § 2:11 Exodus 20:14; Deuteronomy 5:18    * 2:11 Exodus 20:13; Deuteronomy 5:17    † 2:17 Literally if it does not have works    ‡ 2:19 Or that there is one God    § 2:20 BYZ and TR read * 2:23 Genesis 15:6    † 2:23 See Isaiah 41:8.    ‡ 2:25 Literally messengers

Taming the Tongue
(Psalm 64:1–10)

<sup>1</sup> Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers, because you know that we who teach will be judged more strictly. <sup>2</sup> We all stumble in many ways. If anyone is never at fault in what he says, he is a perfect man, able to control his whole body.

<sup>3</sup> When we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we can guide the whole animal. <sup>4</sup> Consider ships as well. Although they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are steered by a very small rudder wherever the pilot is inclined.

<sup>5</sup> In the same way, the tongue is a small part of the body, but it boasts of great things. Consider how small a spark sets a great forest ablaze. <sup>6</sup> The tongue also is a fire, a world of wickedness among the parts of the body. It pollutes the whole person, sets the course of his life on fire, and is itself set on fire by hell.*

<sup>7</sup> All kinds of animals, birds, reptiles, and creatures of the sea are being tamed and have been tamed by man, <sup>8</sup> but no man can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison.

<sup>9</sup> With the tongue we bless our Lord and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made in God's likeness. <sup>10</sup> Out of the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers, this should not be! <sup>11</sup> Can both fresh water and salt water † flow from the same spring? <sup>12</sup> My brothers, can a fig tree grow olives, or a grapevine bear figs? Neither can a salt spring ‡ produce fresh water.

The Wisdom from Above

<sup>13</sup> Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show it by his good conduct, by deeds done in the humility that comes from wisdom. <sup>14</sup> But if you harbor bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast in it or deny the truth. <sup>15</sup> Such wisdom does not come from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, demonic. <sup>16</sup> For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there will be disorder and every evil practice.

4

A Warning against Pride

<sup>1</sup> What causes conflicts and quarrels among you? Don't they come from the passions at war within you? * <sup>2</sup> You crave what you do not have; you kill and covet, but are unable to obtain it. You quarrel and fight. You do not have, because you do not ask. <sup>3</sup> And when you do ask, you do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, that you may squander it on your pleasures.

<sup>4</sup> You adulteresses! † Do you not know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? Therefore, whoever chooses to be a friend of the world renders himself ‡ an enemy of God. <sup>5</sup> Or do you think the Scripture says without reason that the Spirit § He caused to dwell in us yearns with envy? <sup>6</sup> But He gives us more grace. This is why it says:

“God opposes the proud,
but gives grace to the humble.”*

Drawing Near to God

<sup>7</sup> Submit yourselves, then, to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. <sup>8</sup> Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. <sup>9</sup> Grieve, mourn, and weep. Turn your laughter to mourning, and your joy to gloom. <sup>10</sup> Humble yourselves before the Lord, and He will exalt you.

<sup>11</sup> Brothers, do not slander one another. Anyone who speaks against his brother or judges him speaks against the law and judges it. And if you judge the law, you are not a practitioner of the law, but a judge of it. <sup>12</sup> There is only one Lawgiver and Judge, the One who is able to save and destroy. But who are you to judge your neighbor?

Do Not Boast about Tomorrow
(Proverbs 27:1)

<sup>13</sup> Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business, and make a profit." <sup>14</sup> You do not even know what will happen tomorrow! What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes.

<sup>15</sup> Instead, you ought to say, "If the Lord is willing, we will live and do this or that." <sup>16</sup> As it is, you boast in your proud intentions. All such boasting is evil. <sup>17</sup> Anyone, then, who knows the right thing to do, yet fails to do it, is guilty of sin.

5

A Warning to the Rich
(Proverbs 23:1-5; 1 Timothy 6:17-19)

<sup>1</sup> Come now, you who are rich, weep and wail over the misery to come upon you. <sup>2</sup> Your riches have rotted and moths have eaten your clothes. <sup>3</sup> Your gold and silver are corroded. Their corrosion will testify against you and consume your flesh like fire.

You have hoarded treasure in the last days. <sup>4</sup> Look, the wages you withheld from the workmen who mowed your fields are crying out against you. The cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of Hosts.

<sup>5</sup> You have lived on earth in luxury and self-indulgence. You have fattened your hearts in the day of slaughter. <sup>6</sup> You have condemned and murdered the righteous, who did not resist you.

Patience in Suffering
(Job 1:1-5)

<sup>7</sup> Be patient, then, brothers, until the Lord's coming. See how the farmer awaits the precious fruit of the soil—how patient he is for the fall and spring rains.* <sup>8</sup> You, too, be patient and strengthen your hearts, because the Lord's coming is near. <sup>9</sup> Do not complain about one another, brothers, so that you will not be judged. Look, the Judge is standing at the door!

<sup>10</sup> Brothers, as an example of patience in affliction, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. <sup>11</sup> See how blessed we consider those who have persevered. You have heard of Job's perseverance and have seen the outcome from the Lord. The Lord is full of compassion and mercy.

<sup>12</sup> Above all, my brothers, do not swear, not by heaven or earth or by any other oath. Simply let your "Yes" be yes, and your "No," no, so that you will not fall under judgment.

The Prayer of Faith

<sup>13</sup> Is any one of you suffering? He should pray. Is anyone cheerful? He should sing praises. <sup>14</sup> Is any one of you sick? He should call the elders of the church to pray over him and anoint him with oil in the name of the Lord. <sup>15</sup> And the prayer offered in faith

* 5:7 Literally for it until it receives the early and the late will restore the one who is sick. The Lord will raise him up. If he has sinned, he will be forgiven.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous man has great power to prevail. <sup>17</sup> Elijah was a man just like us. He prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three and a half years. <sup>18</sup> Again he prayed, and the heavens gave rain, and the earth yielded its crops.

Restoring a Sinner

<sup>19</sup> My brothers, if one of you should wander from the truth and someone should bring him back, <sup>20</sup> consider this: Whoever turns a sinner from the error of his way will save his soul from death and cover over a multitude of sins.

1 Peter

A Greeting from Peter (2 Peter 1:1–2)

To the elect who are exiles of the Dispersion throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, chosen * <sup>2</sup> according to the foreknowledge of God the Father and sanctified by the Spirit for obedience to Jesus Christ and sprinkling by His blood:

Grace and peace be yours in abundance.

A Living Hope

<sup>3</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By His great mercy He has given us new birth † into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, <sup>4</sup> and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, reserved in heaven for you, <sup>5</sup> who through faith are shielded by God's power for the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time.

<sup>6</sup> In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have had to suffer grief in various trials <sup>7</sup> so that the proven character of your faith—more precious than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire—may result in praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ.

<sup>8</sup> Though you have not seen Him, you love Him; and though you do not see Him now, you believe in Him and rejoice with an inexpressible and glorious joy, <sup>9</sup> now that you are receiving the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

<sup>10</sup> Concerning this salvation, the prophets who foretold the grace to come to you searched and investigated carefully, <sup>11</sup> trying to determine the time and setting to which the Spirit of Christ in them was pointing when He predicted the sufferings of Christ and the glories to follow.

<sup>12</sup> It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves, but you, when they foretold the things now announced by those who preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven. Even angels long to look into these things.

A Call to Holiness (Hebrews 12:14–17)

<sup>13</sup> Therefore prepare your minds for action.‡ Be sober-minded. Set your hope fully on the grace to be given you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. <sup>14</sup> As obedient children, do not conform to the passions of your former ignorance. <sup>15</sup> But just as He who called you is holy, so be holy in all you do, <sup>16</sup> for it is written: "Be holy, because I am holy."§

<sup>17</sup> Since you call on a Father who judges each one's work impartially, conduct yourselves in reverent fear during your stay as foreigners. <sup>18</sup> For you know that it was not with perishable things such as silver or gold that you were redeemed from the empty way of life you inherited from your forefathers, <sup>19</sup> but with the precious blood of Christ, a lamb without blemish or spot. <sup>20</sup> He was known before the foundation of the world, but was revealed in the last times for your sake.

<sup>21</sup> Through Him you believe in God, who raised Him from the dead and glorified Him; and so your faith and hope are in God.

* 1:1 Literally To the elect sojourners of the Diaspora of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia. These provinces were located in what is now Turkey. † 1:3 Or has caused us to be born again or has begotten us again

‡ 1:13 Literally Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind § 1:16 Leviticus 11:44–45; Leviticus 19:2

The Enduring Word
(Isaiah 40:6-8)

<sup>22</sup> Since you have purified your souls by obedience to the truth so that you have a genuine love for your brothers, love one another deeply, from a pure heart.* <sup>23</sup> For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God. <sup>24</sup> For,

“All flesh is like grass,
and all its glory like the flowers of the field;
the grass withers and the flowers fall,
<sup>25</sup> but the word of the Lord stands forever.”†

And this is the word that was proclaimed to you.

2

The Living Stone and Chosen People
(Isaiah 28:14-22; 1 Corinthians 3:10-15; Ephesians 2:19-22)

<sup>1</sup> Rid yourselves, therefore, of all malice, deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and slander. <sup>2</sup> Like newborn babies, crave pure spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow up in your salvation, <sup>3</sup> now that you have tasted that the Lord is good.

<sup>4</sup> As you come to Him, the living stone, rejected by men but chosen and precious in God’s sight, <sup>5</sup> you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. <sup>6</sup> For it stands in Scripture:

“See, I lay in Zion a stone, a chosen and precious cornerstone;
and the one who believes in Him
will never be put to shame.”*

<sup>7</sup> To you who believe, then, this stone is precious. But to those who do not believe,

“The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone,”†

<sup>8</sup> and,

“A stone of stumbling and a rock of offense.”‡

They stumble because they disobey the word—and to this they were appointed.

<sup>9</sup> But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God’s own possession, to proclaim the virtues of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light. <sup>10</sup> Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.§

<sup>11</sup> Beloved, I urge you, as foreigners and exiles, to abstain from the desires of the flesh, which war against your soul. <sup>12</sup> Conduct yourselves with such honor among the Gentiles that, though they slander you as evildoers, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day He visits us.

Submission to Authorities
(Romans 13:1-7)

<sup>13</sup> Submit yourselves for the Lord’s sake to every human institution, whether to the king as the supreme authority, <sup>14</sup> or to governors as those sent by him to punish those who

* 1:22 SBL, NE, and WH from the heart † 1:25 Isaiah 40:6-8 * 2:6 Isaiah 28:16 (see also LXX) † 2:7 Psalm 118:22 ‡ 2:8 Isaiah 8:14 § 2:10 Hosea 2:23

do wrong and to praise those who do right. <sup>15</sup> For it is God's will that by doing good you should silence the ignorance of foolish men.

<sup>16</sup> Live in freedom, but do not use your freedom as a cover-up for evil; live as servants of God. <sup>17</sup> Treat everyone with high regard: Love the brotherhood of believers,* fear God, honor the king.

<sup>18</sup> Servants, submit yourselves to your masters with all respect,† not only to those who are good and gentle, but even to those who are unreasonable. <sup>19</sup> For if anyone endures the pain of unjust suffering because he is conscious of God, this is to be commended. <sup>20</sup> How is it to your credit if you are beaten for doing wrong and you endure it? But if you suffer for doing good and you endure it, this is commendable before God.

Christ's Example of Suffering
(Isaiah 53:1-8)

<sup>21</sup> For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in His footsteps:

<sup>22</sup> "He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in His mouth."‡

<sup>23</sup> When they heaped abuse on Him,
He did not retaliate;
when He suffered, He made no threats,
but entrusted Himself to Him who judges justly.

<sup>24</sup> He Himself bore our sins §
in His body on the tree,
so that we might die to sin
and live to righteousness.

"By His stripes you are healed."*

<sup>25</sup> For "you were like sheep going astray,"† but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

3

Wives and Husbands
(Song of Solomon 1:1-17; Ephesians 5:22-33)

<sup>1</sup> Wives, in the same way, submit yourselves to your husbands, so that even if they refuse to believe the word, they will be won over without words by the behavior of their wives <sup>2</sup> when they see your pure and reverent demeanor.

<sup>3</sup> Your beauty should not come from outward adornment, such as braided hair or gold jewelry or fine clothes, <sup>4</sup> but from the inner disposition of your heart, the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is precious in God's sight. <sup>5</sup> For this is how the holy women of the past adorned themselves. They put their hope in God and were submissive to their husbands, <sup>6</sup> just as Sarah obeyed Abraham and called him lord. And you are her children if you do what is right and refuse to give way to fear.

<sup>7</sup> Husbands, in the same way, treat your wives with consideration as a delicate vessel, and with honor as fellow heirs of the gracious gift of life, so that your prayers will not be hindered.

Turning from Evil

<sup>8</sup> Finally, all of you, be like-minded and sympathetic, love as brothers, be tenderhearted and humble. <sup>9</sup> Do not repay evil with evil or insult with insult, but with blessing, because to this you were called so that you may inherit a blessing. <sup>10</sup> For,

"Whoever would love life

* 2:17 Literally Love the brotherhood † 2:18 Or in all fear ‡ 2:22 Isaiah 53:9 § 2:24 Isaiah 53:4 (see also LXX) * 2:24 Isaiah 53:5 † 2:25 Isaiah 53:6

and his lips from deceitful speech.

<sup>11</sup> He must turn from evil and do good;
he must seek peace and pursue it.

<sup>12</sup> For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and His ears are inclined to their prayer.

But the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.”*

<sup>13</sup> Who can harm you if you are zealous for what is good?

Suffering for Righteousness

<sup>14</sup> But even if you should suffer for what is right, you are blessed. “Do not fear what they fear; do not be shaken.”† <sup>15</sup> But in your hearts sanctify Christ as Lord.‡ Always be prepared to give a defense to everyone who asks you the reason for the hope that is in you. But respond with gentleness and respect, <sup>16</sup> keeping a clear conscience, so that those who slander you may be put to shame by your good behavior in Christ. <sup>17</sup> For it is better, if it is God’s will, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil.

<sup>18</sup> For Christ also suffered § for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God. He was put to death in the body but made alive in the Spirit, <sup>19</sup> in whom * He also went and preached to the spirits in prison <sup>20</sup> who disobeyed long ago when God waited patiently in the days of Noah while the ark was being built.

In the ark a few people, only eight souls, were saved through water. <sup>21</sup> And this water symbolizes the baptism that now saves you also—not the removal of dirt from the body, but the pledge of † a clear conscience toward God—through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, <sup>22</sup> who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers subject to Him.

Living for God’s Glory (1 Corinthians 10:23–33)

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, since Christ suffered * in His body, arm yourselves with the same resolve, because anyone who has suffered in his body is done with sin. <sup>2</sup> Consequently, he does not live out his remaining time on earth for human passions, but for the will of God. <sup>3</sup> For you have spent enough time in the past carrying out the same desires as the Gentiles: living in debauchery, lust, drunkenness, orgies, carousing, and detestable idolatry.

<sup>4</sup> Because of this, they consider it strange of you not to plunge with them into the same flood of reckless indiscretion, and they heap abuse on you. <sup>5</sup> But they will have to give an account to Him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. <sup>6</sup> That is why the gospel was preached even to those who are now dead,† so that they might be judged as men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

<sup>7</sup> The end of all things is near. Therefore be clear-minded and sober, so that you can pray. <sup>8</sup> Above all, love one another deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins.‡

<sup>10</sup> As good stewards of the manifold grace of God, each of you should use whatever gift he has received to serve one another. <sup>11</sup> If anyone speaks, he should speak as one conveying the words of God. If anyone serves, he should serve with the strength God

Suffering as Christians

<sup>12</sup> Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery trial that has come upon you, as though something strange were happening to you. <sup>13</sup> But rejoice that you share in the sufferings of Christ, so that you may be overjoyed at the revelation of His glory.

<sup>14</sup> If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. § <sup>15</sup> Indeed, none of you should suffer as a murderer or thief or wrongdoer, or even as a meddler. <sup>16</sup> But if you suffer as a Christian, do not be ashamed, but glorify God that you bear that name. * <sup>17</sup> For it is time for judgment to begin with the family of God; and if it begins with us, what will the outcome be for those who disobey the gospel of God? <sup>18</sup> And,

“If it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what will become of the ungodly and the sinner?”†

<sup>19</sup> So then, those who suffer according to God’s will should entrust their souls to their faithful Creator and continue to do good.

Instructions to Elders

(1 Timothy 3:1-7; Titus 1:5-9)

Cast Your Cares on Him

<sup>5</sup> Young men, in the same way, submit yourselves to your elders. And all of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because,

“God opposes the proud,
but gives grace to the humble.”§

<sup>6</sup> Humble yourselves, therefore, under God’s mighty hand, so that in due time He may exalt you. <sup>7</sup> Cast all your anxiety on Him, because He cares for you.

<sup>8</sup> Be sober-minded and alert. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. <sup>9</sup> Resist him, standing firm in your faith and in the knowledge that your brothers throughout the world are undergoing the same kinds of suffering.

Benediction and Farewell

<sup>10</sup> And after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to His eternal glory in Christ,* will Himself restore you, secure you, strengthen you, and establish you. <sup>11</sup> To Him be the power forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>12</sup> Through Silvanus,† whom I regard as a faithful brother, I have written to you briefly, encouraging you and testifying that this is the true grace of God. Stand firm in it.

2 Peter

A Greeting from Peter (1 Peter 1:1-2)

To those who through the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ have received a faith as precious as ours:

<sup>2</sup> Grace and peace be multiplied to you through the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

Partakers of the Divine Nature

<sup>3</sup> His divine power has given us everything we need for life and godliness through the knowledge of Him who called us by His own * glory and excellence. <sup>4</sup> Through these He has given us His precious and magnificent promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, now that you have escaped the corruption in the world caused by evil desires.

<sup>5</sup> For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith virtue; and to virtue, knowledge; <sup>6</sup> and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness; <sup>7</sup> and to godliness, brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness, love. <sup>8</sup> For if you possess these qualities and continue to grow in them, they will keep you from being ineffective and unproductive in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup> But whoever lacks these traits is nearsighted to the point of blindness, having forgotten that he has been cleansed from his past sins.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore, brothers, strive to make your calling and election sure. For if you practice these things you will never stumble, <sup>11</sup> and you will receive a lavish reception into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore I will always remind you of these things, even though you know them and are established in the truth you now have. <sup>13</sup> I think it is right to refresh your memory as long as I live in the tent of my body,† <sup>14</sup> because I know that this tent will soon be laid aside, as our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me. <sup>15</sup> And I will make every effort to ensure that after my departure, you will be able to recall these things at all times.

Eyewitnesses of His Majesty (Matthew 17:1-13; Mark 9:1-13; Luke 9:28-36)

<sup>16</sup> For we did not follow cleverly devised fables when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of His majesty. <sup>17</sup> For He received honor and glory from God the Father when the voice came to Him from the Majestic Glory, saying, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."‡ <sup>18</sup> And we ourselves heard this voice from heaven when we were with Him on the holy mountain.

<sup>19</sup> We also have the word of the prophets as confirmed beyond doubt. And you will do well to pay attention to it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. <sup>20</sup> Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture comes from one's own interpretation. <sup>21</sup> For no such prophecy was ever brought forth by the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

2

Deliverance from False Prophets (Jude 1:3-16)

* 1:3 Or to His own    † 1:13 Literally as long as I am in this tent    ‡ 1:17 Matthew 17:5; see also Mark 9:7 and Luke 9:35.

<sup>1</sup> Now there were also false prophets among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you. They will secretly introduce destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them—bringing swift destruction on themselves. <sup>2</sup> Many will follow in their depravity, and because of them the way of truth will be defamed. <sup>3</sup> In their greed, these false teachers will exploit you with deceptive words. The longstanding verdict against them remains in force, and their destruction does not sleep.

<sup>4</sup> For if God did not spare the angels when they sinned, but cast them deep into hell,* placing them in chains of darkness to be held for judgment; <sup>5</sup> if He did not spare the ancient world when He brought the flood on its ungodly people, but preserved Noah, a preacher of righteousness, among the eight; <sup>6</sup> if He condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to destruction,† reducing them to ashes as an example of what is coming on the ungodly;‡ <sup>7</sup> and if He rescued Lot, a righteous man distressed by the depraved conduct of the lawless <sup>8</sup> (for that righteous man, living among them day after day, was tormented in his righteous soul by the lawless deeds he saw and heard)— <sup>9</sup> if all this is so, then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials and to hold the unrighteous for punishment on the day of judgment.

<sup>10</sup> Such punishment is specially reserved for those who indulge the corrupt desires of the flesh and despise authority. Bold and self-willed, they are unafraid to slander glorious beings.§ <sup>11</sup> Yet not even angels, though greater in strength and power, dare to bring such slanderous charges against them before the Lord.

<sup>12</sup> These men are like irrational animals, creatures of instinct, born to be captured and destroyed. They blaspheme in matters they do not understand, and like such creatures, they too will be destroyed. <sup>13</sup> The harm they will suffer is the wages of their wickedness.

They consider it a pleasure to carouse in broad daylight. They are blots and blemishes, reveling in their deception as they feast with you. <sup>14</sup> Their eyes are full of adultery; their desire for sin is never satisfied; they seduce the unstable. They are accursed children with hearts trained in greed.

<sup>15</sup> They have left the straight way and wandered off to follow the way of Balaam son of Beor,* who loved the wages of wickedness. <sup>16</sup> But he was rebuked for his transgression by a donkey, otherwise without speech, that spoke with a man's voice and restrained the prophet's madness.

<sup>17</sup> These men are springs without water and mists driven by a storm. Blackest darkness is reserved for them. <sup>18</sup> With lofty but empty words, they appeal to the sensual passions of the flesh and entice those who are just escaping from others who live in error. <sup>19</sup> They promise them freedom, while they themselves are slaves to depravity. For a man is a slave to whatever has mastered him.

<sup>20</sup> If indeed they have escaped the corruption of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ,† only to be entangled and overcome by it again, their final condition is worse than it was at first. <sup>21</sup> It would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness than to have known it and then to turn away from the holy commandment passed on to them. <sup>22</sup> Of them the proverbs are true: "A dog returns to its vomit,"‡ and, "A sow that is washed goes back to her wallowing in the mud."

<sup>1</sup> Beloved, this is now my second letter to you. Both of them are reminders to stir you to wholesome thinking <sup>2</sup> by recalling what was foretold by the holy prophets and commanded by our Lord and Savior through your apostles.

<sup>3</sup> Most importantly, you must understand that in the last days scoffers will come, scoffing and following their own evil desires.* <sup>4</sup> “Where is the promise of His coming?” they will ask. “Ever since our fathers fell asleep, everything continues as it has from the beginning of creation.”

<sup>5</sup> But they deliberately overlook the fact that long ago by God’s word the heavens existed and the earth was formed out of water and by water, <sup>6</sup> through which † the world of that time perished in the flood. <sup>7</sup> And by that same word, the present heavens and earth are reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

The Day of the Lord

(Zephaniah 1:7–18; Malachi 4:1–6; 1 Thessalonians 5:1–11)

<sup>8</sup> Beloved, do not let this one thing escape your notice: With the Lord a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day.‡ <sup>9</sup> The Lord is not slow in keeping His promise as some understand slowness, but is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish but everyone to come to repentance.

<sup>10</sup> But the Day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar, the elements will be destroyed § by fire, and the earth and its works will be laid bare.*

<sup>11</sup> Since everything will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be? You ought to conduct yourselves in holiness and godliness <sup>12</sup> as you anticipate and hasten the coming of the day of God, when the heavens will be destroyed by fire and the elements will melt in the heat. <sup>13</sup> But in keeping with God’s promise, we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, where righteousness dwells.

Final Exhortations

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, beloved, as you anticipate these things, make every effort to be found at peace—spotless and blameless in His sight.†

<sup>15</sup> Consider also that our Lord’s patience brings salvation, just as our beloved brother Paul also wrote you with the wisdom God gave him. <sup>16</sup> He writes this way in all his letters,‡ speaking in them about such matters. Some parts of his letters are hard to understand, which ignorant and unstable people distort,§ as they do the rest of the Scriptures, to their own destruction.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore, beloved, since you already know these things, be on your guard so that you will not be carried away by the error of the lawless and fall from your secure standing. <sup>18</sup> But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity.

Amen.*

1 John

The Word of Life

(Luke 24:36-49; John 20:19-23)

<sup>1</sup> That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our own eyes, which we have gazed upon and touched with our own hands—this is the Word of life. <sup>2</sup> And this is the life that was revealed; we have seen it and testified to it, and we proclaim to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us.

<sup>3</sup> We proclaim to you what we have seen and heard, so that you also may have fellowship with us. And this fellowship of ours is with the Father and with His Son, Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup> We write these things so that our * joy may be complete.

Walking in the Light

(John 8:12-29)

<sup>5</sup> And this is the message we have heard from Him and announce to you: God is light, and in Him there is no darkness at all. <sup>6</sup> If we say we have fellowship with Him yet walk in the darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. <sup>7</sup> But † if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin.

<sup>8</sup> If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. <sup>9</sup> If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. <sup>10</sup> If we say we have not sinned, we make Him out to be a liar, and His word is not in us.

2

Jesus Our Advocate

<sup>1</sup> My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you will not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate before the Father—Jesus Christ, the Righteous One. <sup>2</sup> He Himself is the atoning sacrifice * for our sins, and not only for ours but also for the sins of the whole world.

<sup>3</sup> By this we can be sure that we have come to know Him: if we keep His commandments.

<sup>4</sup> If anyone says, "I know Him," but does not keep His commandments, he is a liar, and the truth is not in him. <sup>5</sup> But if anyone keeps His word, the love of God has been truly perfected in him. By this we know that we are in Him: <sup>6</sup> Whoever claims to abide in Him must walk as Jesus walked.

A New Commandment

<sup>7</sup> Beloved, I am not writing to you a new commandment, but an old one, which you have had from the beginning. This commandment is the message you have heard. <sup>8</sup> Then again, I am also writing to you a new commandment, which is true in Him and also in you. For the darkness is fading and the true light is already shining.

<sup>9</sup> If anyone claims to be in the light but hates his brother, he is still in the darkness.

<sup>10</sup> Whoever loves his brother remains in the light, and there is no cause of stumbling in him. <sup>11</sup> But whoever hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness. He does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

<sup>12</sup> I am writing to you, little children, because your sins have been forgiven through His name.

<sup>13</sup> I am writing to you, fathers, because you know Him who is from the beginning.

---

* 1:4 BYZ and TR your † 1:7 NA does not include But. * 2:2 Or the propitiation

I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one.†

I have written to you, children, because you know the Father.

14 I have written to you, fathers, because you know Him who is from the beginning.

I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

Do Not Love the World

15 Do not love the world or anything in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh, the desires of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not from the Father but from the world. 17 The world is passing away, along with its desires; but whoever does the will of God remains forever.

Beware of Antichrists

18 Children, it is the last hour; and just as you have heard that the antichrist is coming, so now many antichrists have appeared. This is how we know it is the last hour. 19 They went out from us, but they did not belong to us. For if they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us. But their departure made it clear that none of them belonged to us.

20 You, however, have an anointing from the Holy One, and all of you know the truth.‡ 21 I have not written to you because you lack knowledge of the truth, but because you have it, and because no lie comes from the truth. 22 Who is the liar, if it is not the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, who denies the Father and the Son. 23 Whoever denies the Son does not have the Father, but whoever confesses the Son has the Father as well.

Remain in Christ

24 As for you, let what you have heard from the beginning remain in you. If it does, you will also remain in the Son and in the Father. 25 And this is the promise that He Himself made to us: eternal life.

26 I have written these things to you about those who are trying to deceive you. 27 And as for you, the anointing you received from Him remains in you, and you do not need anyone to teach you. But just as His true and genuine anointing teaches you about all things, so remain in Him as you have been taught.

28 And now, little children, remain in Christ,§ so that when He appears, we may be confident and unashamed before Him at His coming.

29 If you know that He is righteous, you also know that everyone who practices righteousness has been born of Him.

3

Children of God

1 Behold what manner of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God. And that is what we are! The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know Him. 2 Beloved, we are now children of God, and what we will be has not yet been revealed. We know that when Christ appears,* we will be like Him, for we will see Him as He is. 3 And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as Christ is pure.†

† 2:13 Or you have overcome evil; also in verse 14 ‡ 2:20 BYZ and TR and you know all things § 2:28 Literally remain in Him * 3:2 Literally when He appears or when it appears † 3:3 Literally just as He is pure

<sup>5</sup> But you know that Christ appeared to take away sins, and in Him there is no sin. <sup>6</sup> No one who remains in Him keeps on sinning. No one who continues to sin has seen Him or known Him.

<sup>7</sup> Little children,§ let no one deceive you: The one who practices righteousness is righteous, just as Christ is righteous.* <sup>8</sup> The one who practices sin is of the devil, because the devil has been sinning from the very start. This is why the Son of God was revealed, to destroy the works of the devil.

<sup>9</sup> Anyone born of God refuses to practice sin, because God's seed abides in him; he cannot go on sinning, because he has been born of God. <sup>10</sup> By this the children of God are distinguished from the children of the devil: Anyone who does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is anyone who does not love his brother.

Love One Another
(John 13:31-35; Romans 12:9-13)

<sup>11</sup> This is the message you have heard from the beginning: We should love one another. <sup>12</sup> Do not be like Cain, who belonged to the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did Cain slay him? Because his own deeds were evil, while those of his brother were righteous. <sup>13</sup> So do not be surprised, brothers, if the world hates you.

<sup>14</sup> We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love our brothers. The one who does not love remains in death. <sup>15</sup> Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that eternal life does not reside in a murderer.

<sup>16</sup> By this we know what love is: Jesus laid down His life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers. <sup>17</sup> If anyone with earthly possessions sees his brother in need, but withholds his compassion from him, how can the love of God abide in him?

<sup>18</sup> Little children, let us love not in word and speech, but in action and truth. <sup>19</sup> And by this we will know that we belong to the truth, and will assure our hearts in His presence: <sup>20</sup> Even if our hearts condemn us, God is greater than our hearts, and He knows all things.

<sup>21</sup> Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God, <sup>22</sup> and we will receive from Him whatever we ask, because we keep His commandments and do what is pleasing in His sight. <sup>23</sup> And this is His commandment: that we should believe in the name of His Son, Jesus Christ, and we should love one another just as He commanded us. <sup>24</sup> Whoever keeps His commandments remains in God, and God in him. And by this we know that He remains in us: by the Spirit He has given us.

Testing the Spirits

<sup>1</sup> Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God. For many false prophets have gone out into the world. <sup>2</sup> By this you will know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, <sup>3</sup> and every spirit that does not confess Jesus* is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you have heard is coming and which is already in the world at this time.

<sup>4</sup> You, little children, are from God and have overcome them, because greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world. <sup>5</sup> They are of the world. That is why they speak from the world's perspective, and the world listens to them. <sup>6</sup> We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. That is how we know the Spirit † of truth and the spirit of deception.

Love Comes from God

‡ 3:4 Or is violation of the Law    § 3:7 NA Young children in training    * 3:7 Literally He is righteous    * 4:3
 BYZ and TR that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh    † 4:6 Or spirit

<sup>7</sup> Beloved, let us love one another, because love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. <sup>8</sup> Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love.

<sup>9</sup> This is how God's love was revealed among us: God sent His one and only ‡ Son into the world, so that we might live through Him. <sup>10</sup> And love consists in this: not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son as the atoning sacrifice § for our sins.

<sup>11</sup> Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. <sup>12</sup> No one has ever seen God; but if we love one another, God remains in us, and His love is perfected in us. <sup>13</sup> By this we know that we remain in Him, and He in us: He has given us of His Spirit. <sup>14</sup> And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent His Son to be the Savior of the world.

<sup>15</sup> If anyone confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. <sup>16</sup> And we have come to know and believe the love that God has for us. God is love; whoever abides in love abides in God, and God in him. <sup>17</sup> In this way, love has been perfected among us, so that we may have confidence on the day of judgment; for in this world we are just like Him.

<sup>18</sup> There is no fear in love, but perfect love drives out fear, because fear involves punishment. The one who fears has not been perfected in love. <sup>19</sup> We love * because He first loved us.

<sup>20</sup> If anyone says, "I love God," but hates his brother, he is a liar. For anyone who does not love his brother, whom he has seen, cannot love God, whom he has not seen. <sup>21</sup> And we have this commandment from Him: Whoever loves God must love his brother as well.

5

Overcoming the World

<sup>1</sup> Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father also loves those born of Him.* <sup>2</sup> By this we know that we love the children of God: when we love God and keep His commandments. <sup>3</sup> For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments. And His commandments are not burdensome, <sup>4</sup> because everyone born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world: our faith.

<sup>5</sup> Who then overcomes the world? Only he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God. <sup>6</sup> This is the One who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ—not by water alone, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit who testifies to this, because the Spirit is the truth. <sup>7</sup> For there are three that testify:† <sup>8</sup> the Spirit, the water, and the blood—and these three are in agreement.

God's Testimony about His Son

<sup>9</sup> Even if we accept human testimony, the testimony of God is greater. For this is the testimony that God has given about His Son. <sup>10</sup> Whoever believes in the Son of God has this testimony within him; whoever does not believe God has made Him out to be a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has given about His Son.

<sup>11</sup> And this is that testimony: God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. <sup>12</sup> Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life.

Effective Prayer

<sup>16</sup> If anyone sees his brother committing a sin not leading to death, he should ask God, who will give life to those who commit this kind of sin. There is a sin that leads to death; I am not saying he should ask regarding that sin. <sup>17</sup> All unrighteousness is sin, yet there is sin that does not lead to death.

The True God

<sup>18</sup> We know that anyone born of God does not keep on sinning; the One who was born of God protects him,§ and the evil one * cannot touch him. <sup>19</sup> We know that we are of God, and that the whole world is under the power of the evil one. <sup>20</sup> And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know Him who is true; and we are in Him who is true—in His Son Jesus Christ. <sup>1</sup> The elder,

To the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in the truth—and not I alone, but also all who know the truth— <sup>2</sup> because of the truth that abides in us and will be with us forever:

<sup>3</sup> Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, will be with us in truth and love.

Walking in the Truth
(John 8:30–47)

<sup>4</sup> I was overjoyed to find some of your children walking in the truth, just as the Father has commanded us. <sup>5</sup> And now I urge you, dear lady—not as a new commandment to you, but one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. <sup>6</sup> And this is love, that we walk according to His commandments. This is the very commandment you have heard from the beginning, that you must walk in love.

Beware of Deceivers

<sup>7</sup> For many deceivers have gone out into the world, refusing to confess the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. Any such person is the deceiver and the antichrist. <sup>8</sup> Watch yourselves, so that you do not lose what we have worked for,* but that you may be fully rewarded. <sup>9</sup> Anyone who runs ahead without remaining in the teaching of Christ does not have God. Whoever remains in His teaching has both the Father and the Son.

<sup>10</sup> If anyone comes to you but does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your home or even greet him. <sup>11</sup> Whoever greets such a person shares in his evil deeds.

Conclusion
(3 John 1:13–14)

<sup>12</sup> I have many things to write to you, but I would prefer not to do so with paper and ink. Instead, I hope to come and speak with you face to face,† so that our joy may be complete.

<sup>13</sup> The children of your elect sister send you greetings.‡

3 John

A Greeting from the Elder (2 John 1:1-3)

<sup>1</sup> The elder,

To the beloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth:

<sup>2</sup> Beloved, I pray that in every way you may prosper and enjoy good health, as your soul also prospers. <sup>3</sup> For I was overjoyed when the brothers came and testified about your devotion to the truth, in which you continue to walk. <sup>4</sup> I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth.

Gaius Commended for Hospitality

<sup>5</sup> Beloved, you are faithful in what you are doing for the brothers, and especially since they are strangers to you. <sup>6</sup> They have testified to the church about your love. You will do well to send them on their way in a manner worthy of God. <sup>7</sup> For they went out on behalf of the Name, accepting nothing from the Gentiles. <sup>8</sup> Therefore we ought to support such men, so that we may be fellow workers for the truth.

Diotrephes and Demetrius

<sup>9</sup> I have written to the church about this,* but Diotrephes, who loves to be first, will not accept our instruction. <sup>10</sup> So if I come, I will call attention to his malicious slander against us. And unsatisfied with that, he refuses to welcome the brothers and forbids those who want to do so, even putting them out of the church.

<sup>11</sup> Beloved, do not imitate what is evil, but what is good. The one who does good is of God; the one who does evil has not seen God.

<sup>12</sup> Demetrius has received a good testimony from everyone, and from the truth itself. We also testify for him, and you know that our testimony is true.

Conclusion (2 John 1:12-13)

<sup>13</sup> I have many things to write to you, but I would prefer not to do so with pen and ink. <sup>14</sup> Instead, I hope to see you soon and speak with you face to face.†

Peace to you.

The friends here send you greetings.

Greet each of our friends there by name.

Jude

A Greeting from Jude (James 1:1)

<sup>1</sup> Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and a brother of James,

To those who are called, loved by God the Father, and kept in Jesus Christ:

<sup>2</sup> Mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you.

God's Judgment on the Ungodly (2 Peter 3:1-7)

<sup>3</sup> Beloved, although I made every effort to write to you about the salvation we share, I felt it necessary to write and urge you to contend earnestly for the faith entrusted once for all to the saints. <sup>4</sup> For certain men have crept in among you unnoticed—ungodly ones who were designated long ago for condemnation. They turn the grace of our God into a license for immorality, and they deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

<sup>5</sup> Although you are fully aware of this, I want to remind you that after Jesus * had delivered His people out of the land of Egypt, He destroyed those who did not believe. <sup>6</sup> And the angels who did not stay within their own domain but abandoned their proper dwelling—these He has kept in eternal chains under darkness, bound for judgment on that great day. <sup>7</sup> In like manner, Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities around them, who indulged in sexual immorality and pursued strange flesh, are on display as an example of those who sustain the punishment of eternal fire.

<sup>8</sup> Yet in the same way these dreamers defile their bodies, reject authority, and slander glorious beings. <sup>9</sup> But even the archangel Michael, when he disputed with the devil over the body of Moses, did not presume to bring a slanderous charge against him, but said, "The Lord rebuke you!"† <sup>10</sup> These men, however, slander what they do not understand, and like irrational animals, they will be destroyed by the things they do instinctively. <sup>11</sup> Woe to them! They have traveled the path of Cain; they have rushed headlong into the error of Balaam; they have perished in Korah's rebellion.

<sup>14</sup> Enoch, the seventh from Adam, also prophesied about them:

"Behold, the Lord is coming with myriads of His holy ones <sup>15</sup> to execute judgment on everyone, and to convict all the ungodly of every ungodly act of wickedness and every harsh word spoken against Him by ungodly sinners."§

A Call to Persevere (Hebrews 10:19-39; 2 Peter 3:1-7)

<sup>17</sup> But you, beloved, remember what was foretold by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ <sup>18</sup> when they said to you, "In the last times there will be scoffers who will follow after their own ungodly desires."* <sup>19</sup> These are the ones who cause divisions, who are worldly and devoid of the Spirit.

<sup>20</sup> But you, beloved, by building yourselves up in your most holy faith and praying in the Holy Spirit, <sup>21</sup> keep yourselves in the love of God as you await the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to bring you eternal life.

<sup>22</sup> And indeed, have mercy on those who doubt; <sup>23</sup> save others by snatching them from the fire; and to still others show mercy tempered with fear, hating even the clothing stained by the flesh.

Doxology
(Romans 16:25-27)

<sup>24</sup> Now to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling and to present you unblemished in His glorious presence, with great joy— <sup>25</sup> to the only God our Savior be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority through Jesus Christ our Lord before all time, and now, and for all eternity.

Amen.

Revelation

Prologue

(Daniel 12:1-13)

<sup>1</sup> This is the revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave Him to show His servants what must soon * come to pass. He made it known by sending His angel to His servant John, <sup>2</sup> who testifies to everything he saw. This is the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear and obey what is written in it, because the time is near.

John Greets the Seven Churches

<sup>4</sup> John,

To the seven churches in the province of Asia:†

Grace and peace to you from Him who is and was and is to come, and from the seven Spirits ‡ before His throne, <sup>5</sup> and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth.

To Him who loves us and has released us from our sins by His blood, <sup>6</sup> who has made us to be a kingdom, priests to His God and Father—to Him be the glory and power forever and ever! Amen.

<sup>7</sup> Behold, He is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see Him—even those who pierced Him. And all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of Him. So shall it be! Amen.

<sup>8</sup> “I am the Alpha and the Omega,§” says the Lord God, who is and was and is to come—the Almighty.

John’s Vision on Patmos

<sup>9</sup> I, John, your brother and partner in the tribulation and kingdom and perseverance that are in Jesus, was on the island of Patmos because of the word of God and my testimony about Jesus. <sup>10</sup> On the Lord’s day I was in the Spirit, and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet, <sup>11</sup> saying,* “Write on a scroll what you see and send it to the seven churches: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea.”

<sup>12</sup> Then I turned to see the voice that was speaking with me. And having turned, I saw seven golden lampstands, <sup>13</sup> and among the lampstands was One like the Son of Man,† dressed in a long robe, with a golden sash around His chest. <sup>14</sup> The hair of His head was white like wool, as white as snow, and His eyes were like a blazing fire. <sup>15</sup> His feet were like polished bronze refined in a furnace, and His voice was like the roar of many waters. <sup>16</sup> He held in His right hand seven stars, and a sharp double-edged sword came from His mouth. His face was like the sun shining at its brightest.

<sup>17</sup> When I saw Him, I fell at His feet like a dead man. But He placed His right hand on me and said, “Do not be afraid. I am the First and the Last, <sup>18</sup> the Living One. I was dead, and behold, now I am alive forever and ever! And I hold the keys of Death and of Hades.

* 1:1 Or suddenly or quickly † 1:4 Literally in Asia; Asia was a Roman province in what is now western Turkey.

<sup>19</sup> Therefore write down the things you have seen, and the things that are, and the things that will happen after this. <sup>20</sup> This is the mystery of the seven stars you saw in My right hand and of the seven golden lampstands: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

2

To the Church in Ephesus
(Acts 19:8-12; Ephesians 1:1-2)

These are the words of Him who holds the seven stars in His right hand and walks among the seven golden lampstands.

<sup>2</sup> I know your deeds, your labor, and your perseverance. I know that you cannot tolerate those who are evil, and you have tested and exposed as liars those who falsely claim to be apostles. <sup>3</sup> Without growing weary, you have persevered and endured many things for the sake of My name.

<sup>4</sup> But I have this against you: You have abandoned your first love. <sup>5</sup> Therefore, keep in mind how far you have fallen. Repent and perform the deeds you did at first. But if you do not repent, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place.

<sup>6</sup> But you have this to your credit: You hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

<sup>7</sup> He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who overcomes, I will grant the right to eat from the tree of life in the Paradise of God.

To the Church in Smyrna

These are the words of the First and the Last, who died and returned to life.

<sup>9</sup> I know your affliction and your poverty—though you are rich! And I am aware of the slander of those who falsely claim to be Jews, but are in fact a synagogue of Satan.

<sup>10</sup> Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Look, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison to test you, and you will suffer tribulation for ten days. Be faithful even unto death, and I will give you the crown of life.

<sup>11</sup> He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. The one who overcomes will not be harmed by the second death.

To the Church in Pergamum

<sup>12</sup> To the angel of the church in Pergamum write:

These are the words of the One who holds the sharp, double-edged sword.

<sup>13</sup> I know where you live, where the throne of Satan sits. Yet you have held fast to My name and have not denied your faith in Me, even in the day when My faithful witness Antipas was killed among you, where Satan dwells.

<sup>14</sup> But I have a few things against you, because some of you hold to the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to place a stumbling block before the Israelites so they would eat food sacrificed to idols and commit sexual immorality. <sup>15</sup> In the same way, some of you also hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans. <sup>16</sup> Therefore repent! Otherwise I will come to you shortly and wage war against them with the sword of My mouth.

<sup>17</sup> He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who overcomes, I will give the hidden manna. I will also give him a white stone inscribed with a new name, known only to the one who receives it.

To the Church in Thyatira
(Acts 16:11-15)

These are the words of the Son of God, whose eyes are like a blazing fire and whose feet are like polished bronze.

<sup>19</sup> I know your deeds—your love, your faith, your service, your perseverance—and your latter deeds are greater than your first.

<sup>20</sup> But I have this against you: You tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess. By her teaching she misleads My servants to be sexually immoral and to eat food sacrificed to idols. <sup>21</sup> Even though I have given her time to repent of her immorality, she is unwilling.

<sup>22</sup> Behold, I will cast her onto a bed of sickness, and those who commit adultery with her will suffer great tribulation unless they repent of her deeds. <sup>23</sup> Then I will strike her children dead, and all the churches will know that I am the One who searches minds and hearts, and I will repay each of you according to your deeds.

<sup>24</sup> But I say to the rest of you in Thyatira, who do not hold to her teaching and have not learned the so-called deep things of Satan: I will place no further burden upon you. <sup>25</sup> Nevertheless, hold fast to what you have until I come. <sup>26</sup> And to the one who overcomes and continues in My work until the end, I will give authority over the nations. <sup>27</sup> He will rule them with an iron scepter and shatter them like pottery*—just as I have received authority from My Father. <sup>28</sup> And I will give him the morning star.

<sup>29</sup> He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

3

To the Church in Sardis

These are the words of the One who holds the seven Spirits* of God and the seven stars.

I know your deeds; you have a reputation for being alive, yet you are dead. <sup>2</sup> Wake up and strengthen what remains, which was about to die; for I have found your deeds incomplete in the sight of My God. <sup>3</sup> Remember, then, what you have received and heard. Keep it and repent. If you do not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know the hour when I will come upon you.

<sup>4</sup> But you do have a few people in Sardis who have not soiled their garments, and because they are worthy, they will walk with Me in white. <sup>5</sup> Like them, he who overcomes will be dressed in white. And I will never blot out † his name from the Book of Life, but I will confess his name before My Father and His angels.

<sup>6</sup> He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

To the Church in Philadelphia

These are the words of the One who is holy and true, who holds the key of David. What He opens no one can shut, and what He shuts no one can open.‡

* 2:27 Psalm 2:9 (see also LXX) * 3:1 Or the sevenfold Spirit † 3:5 Or scrape off ‡ 3:7 See Isaiah 22:22.

<sup>8</sup> I know your deeds. See, I have placed before you an open door, which no one can shut. For you have only a little strength, yet you have kept My word and have not denied My name. <sup>9</sup> Look at those who belong to the synagogue of Satan, who claim to be Jews but are liars instead. I will make them come and bow down at your feet, and they will know that I love you.

<sup>10</sup> Because you have kept My command to persevere, I will also keep you from the hour of testing that is about to come upon the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth. <sup>11</sup> I am coming soon.§ Hold fast to what you have, so that no one will take your crown. <sup>12</sup> The one who overcomes I will make a pillar in the temple of My God, and he will never again leave it. Upon him I will write the name of My God, and the name of the city of My God (the new Jerusalem that comes down out of heaven from My God), and My new name.

<sup>13</sup> He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

*To the Church in Laodicea
(Colossians 2:1-5)*

These are the words of the Amen, the faithful and true Witness, the Originator * of God's creation.

<sup>15</sup> I know your deeds; you are neither cold nor hot. How I wish you were one or the other! <sup>16</sup> So because you are lukewarm—neither hot nor cold—I am about to vomit you out of My mouth!

<sup>17</sup> You say, 'I am rich; I have grown wealthy and need nothing.' But you do not realize that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind, and naked. <sup>18</sup> I counsel you to buy from Me gold refined by fire so that you may become rich, white garments so that you may be clothed and your shameful nakedness not exposed, and salve to anoint your eyes so that you may see. <sup>19</sup> Those I love, I rebuke and discipline. Therefore be earnest and repent.

<sup>20</sup> Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in and dine with him, and he with Me. <sup>21</sup> To the one who overcomes, I will grant the right to sit with Me on My throne, just as I overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne.

<sup>22</sup> He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."

The Throne in Heaven

<sup>1</sup> After this I looked and saw a door standing open in heaven. And the voice I had previously heard speak to me like a trumpet was saying, "Come up here, and I will show you what must happen after these things."

<sup>2</sup> At once I was in the Spirit, and I saw a throne standing in heaven, with someone seated on it. <sup>3</sup> The One seated there looked like jasper and carnelian, and a rainbow that gleamed like an emerald encircled the throne. <sup>4</sup> Surrounding the throne were twenty-four other thrones, and on these thrones sat twenty-four elders dressed in white, with golden crowns on their heads.

Worship of the Creator

<sup>5</sup> From the throne came flashes of lightning, and rumblings, and peals of thunder. Before the throne burned seven torches of fire. These are the seven Spirits * of God. <sup>6</sup> And before the throne was something like a sea of glass, as clear as crystal. In the center, around the throne, were four living creatures, covered with eyes in front and back.

§ 3:11 Or suddenly or quickly * 3:14 Or Beginning or Ruler * 4:5 Or This is the sevenfold Spirit

<sup>7</sup> The first living creature was like a lion, the second like a calf, the third had a face like a man, and the fourth was like an eagle in flight. <sup>8</sup> And each of the four living creatures had six wings and was covered with eyes all around and within. Day and night they never stop saying:

“Holy, Holy, Holy,
is the Lord God Almighty, who was and is and is to come!”

<sup>9</sup> And whenever the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to the One seated on the throne who lives forever and ever, <sup>10</sup> the twenty-four elders fall down before the One seated on the throne, and they worship Him who lives forever and ever. They cast their crowns before the throne, saying:

<sup>11</sup> “Worthy are You, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power,
for You created all things;
by Your will they exist and came to be.”

The Lamb Takes the Scroll

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw a scroll in the right hand of the One seated on the throne. It had writing on both sides and was sealed with seven seals. <sup>2</sup> And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming in a loud voice, “Who is worthy to break the seals and open the scroll?”

<sup>3</sup> But no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or look inside it. <sup>4</sup> And I began to weep bitterly, because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or look inside it.

<sup>5</sup> Then one of the elders said to me, “Do not weep! Behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has triumphed to open the scroll and its seven seals.”

<sup>6</sup> Then I saw a Lamb who appeared to have been slain, standing in the center of the throne, encircled by the four living creatures and the elders. The Lamb had seven horns and seven eyes, which represent the seven Spirits * of God sent out into all the earth. <sup>7</sup> And He came and took the scroll from the right hand of the One seated on the throne.

<sup>8</sup> When He had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb. Each one had a harp, and they were holding golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. <sup>9</sup> And they sang a new song:

“Worthy are You to take the scroll and open its seals, because You were slain,
and by Your blood You purchased for God
those from every tribe and tongue and people and nation.
<sup>10</sup> You have made them to be a kingdom and priests to serve our God, and they will reign upon † the earth.”

The Lamb Exalted

<sup>11</sup> Then I looked, and I heard the voices of many angels and living creatures and elders encircling the throne, and their number was myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands. <sup>12</sup> In a loud voice they were saying:

“Worthy is the Lamb, who was slain, to receive power and riches and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing!”

* 5:6 Or the sevenfold Spirit † 5:10 Or they will reign over; WH they reign upon

<sup>13</sup> And I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, saying:

“To Him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb
be praise and honor and glory and power
forever and ever!”

<sup>14</sup> And the four living creatures said, “Amen,” and the elders fell down and worshiped.‡

6

The First Seal: The White Horse

<sup>1</sup> Then I watched as the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures say in a thunderous voice, “Come!”

<sup>2</sup> So I looked and saw a white horse, and its rider held a bow. And he was given a crown, and he rode out to overcome and conquer.

The Second Seal: War

<sup>3</sup> And when the Lamb opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, “Come!”

<sup>4</sup> Then another horse went forth. It was bright red, and its rider was granted permission to take away peace from the earth and to make men slay one another. And he was given a great sword.

The Third Seal: Famine

<sup>5</sup> And when the Lamb opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, “Come!”

Then I looked and saw a black horse, and its rider held in his hand a pair of scales.
<sup>6</sup> And I heard what sounded like a voice from among the four living creatures, saying, “A quart of wheat for a denarius,* and three quarts of barley for a denarius, and do not harm the oil and wine.”

The Fourth Seal: Death

<sup>7</sup> And when the Lamb opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, “Come!”

<sup>8</sup> Then I looked and saw a pale green horse. Its rider’s name was Death, and Hades followed close behind. And they were given authority over a fourth of the earth, to kill by sword, by famine, by plague, and by the beasts of the earth.

The Fifth Seal: The Martyrs

<sup>9</sup> And when the Lamb opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the testimony they had upheld. <sup>10</sup> And they cried out in a loud voice, “How long, O Lord, holy and true, until You avenge our blood and judge those who dwell upon the earth?”

<sup>11</sup> Then each of them was given a white robe and told to rest a little while longer, until the full number of their fellow servants, their brothers, were killed, just as they had been killed.

The Sixth Seal: Terror

<sup>12</sup> And when I saw the Lamb open the sixth seal, there was a great earthquake, and the sun became black like sackcloth of goat hair, and the whole moon turned blood red,

‡ 5:14 TR includes Him who lives for ever and ever. * 6:6 Greek A choenix of wheat for a denarius. A choenix was a Greek dry measure equivalent to 1.92 pints or 0.91 liters. A denarius was customarily a day’s wage for a laborer; see Matthew 20:2.

<sup>13</sup> and the stars of the sky fell to the earth like unripe figs dropping from a tree shaken by a great wind. <sup>14</sup> The sky receded like a scroll being rolled up, and every mountain and island was moved from its place.

<sup>15</sup> Then the kings of the earth, the nobles, the commanders, the rich, the mighty, and every slave and free man hid in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains. <sup>16</sup> And they said to the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us and hide us † from the face of the One seated on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb. <sup>17</sup> For the great day of Their ‡ wrath has come, and who is able to withstand it?"

144,000 Sealed

<sup>1</sup> After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back its four winds so that no wind would blow on land or sea or on any tree. <sup>2</sup> And I saw another angel ascending from the east, with the seal of the living God. And he called out in a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the land and the sea: <sup>3</sup> "Do not harm the land or sea or trees until we have sealed the foreheads of the servants of our God."

<sup>4</sup> And I heard the number of those who were sealed, 144,000 from all the tribes of Israel:

<sup>5</sup> From the tribe of Judah 12,000 were sealed, from the tribe of Reuben 12,000,
from the tribe of Gad 12,000,

<sup>6</sup> from the tribe of Asher 12,000,
from the tribe of Naphtali 12,000,
from the tribe of Manasseh 12,000,

<sup>7</sup> from the tribe of Simeon 12,000, from the tribe of Levi 12,000,
from the tribe of Issachar 12,000,

<sup>8</sup> from the tribe of Zebulun 12,000, from the tribe of Joseph 12,000,
and from the tribe of Benjamin 12,000.

Praise from the Great Multitude

<sup>9</sup> After this I looked and saw a multitude too large to count, from every nation and tribe and people and tongue, standing before the throne and before the Lamb. They were wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands. <sup>10</sup> And they cried out in a loud voice:

"Salvation to our God,
who sits on the throne,
and to the Lamb!"

<sup>11</sup> And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures. And they fell facedown before the throne and worshiped God, <sup>12</sup> saying, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanks and honor and power and strength be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

<sup>13</sup> Then one of the elders addressed me: "These in white robes," he asked, "who are they, and where have they come from?"

So he replied, "These are the ones who have come out of the great tribulation; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. <sup>15</sup> For this reason,

The Seventh Seal

1 When the Lamb opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. 2 And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and they were given seven trumpets.

3 Then another angel, who had a golden censer, came and stood at the altar. He was given much incense to offer, along with the prayers of all the saints, on the golden altar before the throne. 4 And the smoke of the incense, together with the prayers of the saints, rose up before God from the hand of the angel.

5 Then the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and hurled it to the earth; and there were peals of thunder, and rumblings, and flashes of lightning, and an earthquake.

The First Four Trumpets

6 And the seven angels with the seven trumpets prepared to sound them.

7 Then the first angel sounded his trumpet, and hail and fire mixed with blood were hurled down upon the earth. A third of the earth was burned up, along with a third of the trees and all the green grass.

8 Then the second angel sounded his trumpet, and something like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea. A third of the sea turned to blood, 9 a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

10 Then the third angel sounded his trumpet, and a great star burning like a torch fell from heaven and landed on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. 11 The name of the star is Wormwood. A third of the waters turned bitter like wormwood oil,* and many people died from the bitter waters.

12 Then the fourth angel sounded his trumpet, and a third of the sun and moon and stars were struck. A third of the stars were darkened, a third of the day was without light, and a third of the night as well.

13 And as I observed, I heard an eagle flying overhead, calling in a loud voice, "Woe! Woe! Woe to those who dwell on the earth, because of the trumpet blasts about to be sounded by the remaining three angels!"

The Fifth Trumpet

1 Then the fifth angel sounded his trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen from heaven to earth, and it was given the key to the pit of the Abyss. 2 The star opened the pit of the

* 7:16 Isaiah 49:10 † 7:17 See Psalm 23:1. ‡ 7:17 Isaiah 49:10 § 7:17 Isaiah 25:8 * 8:11 Literally became wormwood

Abys, and smoke rose out of it like the smoke of a great furnace, and the sun and the air were darkened by the smoke from the pit.

<sup>3</sup> And out of the smoke, locusts descended on the earth, and they were given power like that of the scorpions of the earth. <sup>4</sup> They were told not to harm the grass of the earth or any plant or tree, but only those who did not have the seal of God on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup> The locusts were not given power to kill them, but only to torment them for five months, and their torment was like the stinging of a scorpion. <sup>6</sup> In those days men will seek death and will not find it; they will long to die, but death will escape them.

<sup>7</sup> And the locusts looked like horses prepared for battle, with something like crowns of gold on their heads, and faces like the faces of men. <sup>8</sup> They had hair like that of women, and teeth like those of lions. <sup>9</sup> They also had thoraxes like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the roar of many horses and chariots rushing into battle. <sup>10</sup> They had tails with stingers like scorpions, which had the power to injure people for five months. <sup>11</sup> They were ruled by a king, the angel of the Abyss. His name in Hebrew is Abaddon,* and in Greek it is Apollyon.†

<sup>12</sup> The first woe has passed. Behold, two woes are still to follow.

The Sixth Trumpet

<sup>13</sup> Then the sixth angel sounded his trumpet, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar before God <sup>14</sup> saying to the sixth angel with the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates."

<sup>15</sup> So the four angels who had been prepared for this hour and day and month and year were released to kill a third of mankind. <sup>16</sup> And the number of mounted troops was two hundred million; I heard their number.

<sup>17</sup> Now the horses and riders in my vision looked like this: The riders had breastplates the colors of fire, sapphire, and sulfur. The heads of the horses were like the heads of lions, and out of their mouths proceeded fire, smoke, and sulfur. <sup>18</sup> A third of mankind was killed by the three plagues of fire, smoke, and sulfur that proceeded from their mouths. <sup>19</sup> For the power of the horses was in their mouths and in their tails; indeed, their tails were like snakes, having heads with which to inflict harm.

<sup>20</sup> Now the rest of mankind who were not killed by these plagues still did not repent of the works of their hands. They did not stop worshiping demons and idols of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood, which cannot see or hear or walk. <sup>21</sup> Furthermore, they did not repent of their murder, sorcery, sexual immorality, and theft.

The Angel and the Small Scroll (Ezekiel 3:1-15)

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven, wrapped in a cloud, with a rainbow above his head. His face was like the sun, and his legs were like pillars of fire. <sup>2</sup> He held in his hand a small scroll, which lay open. He placed his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land. <sup>3</sup> Then he cried out in a loud voice like the roar of a lion. And when he cried out, the seven thunders sounded their voices.

<sup>4</sup> When the seven thunders had spoken, I was about to put it in writing. But I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Seal up what the seven thunders have said, and do not write it down."

<sup>5</sup> Then the angel I had seen standing on the sea and on the land lifted up his right hand to heaven. <sup>6</sup> And he swore by Him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and everything in it, the earth and everything in it, and the sea and everything in it: "There will be no more delay!" <sup>7</sup> But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound his trumpet, the mystery of God will be fulfilled, just as He proclaimed to His servants the prophets.”

* 9:11 Abaddon means Destruction. † 9:11 Apollyon means Destroyer.

<sup>8</sup> Then the voice that I had heard from heaven spoke to me again, saying, “Go, take the small scroll that lies open in the hand of the angel standing on the sea and on the land.”

<sup>9</sup> And I went to the angel and said, “Give me the small scroll.”

“Take it and eat it,” he said. “It will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey.”*

<sup>10</sup> So I took the small scroll from the angel’s hand and ate it; and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I had eaten it, my stomach turned bitter.

<sup>11</sup> And they told me, “You must prophesy again about many peoples and nations and tongues and kings.”

11

The Two Witnesses

<sup>1</sup> Then I was given a measuring rod like a staff and was told, “Go and measure the temple of God and the altar, and count the number of worshipers there. <sup>2</sup> But exclude the courtyard outside the temple. Do not measure it, because it has been given over to the nations, and they will trample the holy city for 42 months. <sup>3</sup> And I will empower my two witnesses, and they will prophesy for 1,260 days, clothed in sackcloth.”

<sup>4</sup> These witnesses are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth.* <sup>5</sup> If anyone wants to harm them, fire proceeds from their mouths and devours their enemies. In this way, anyone who wants to harm them must be killed. <sup>6</sup> These witnesses have power to shut the sky so that no rain will fall during the days of their prophecy, and power to turn the waters into blood and to strike the earth with every kind of plague as often as they wish.

The Witnesses Killed and Raised

<sup>7</sup> When the two witnesses have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up from the Abyss will wage war with them, and will overpower and kill them. <sup>8</sup> Their bodies will lie in the street of the great city—figuratively called Sodom and Egypt—where their Lord was also crucified. <sup>9</sup> For three and a half days all peoples and tribes and tongues and nations will view their bodies and will not permit them to be laid in a tomb. <sup>10</sup> And those who dwell on the earth will gloat over them, and will celebrate and send one another gifts, because these two prophets had tormented them.

<sup>11</sup> But after the three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered the two witnesses, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell upon those who saw them. <sup>12</sup> And the witnesses heard a loud voice from heaven saying, “Come up here.” And they went up to heaven in a cloud as their enemies watched them.

<sup>13</sup> And in that hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city collapsed. Seven thousand were killed in the quake, and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

<sup>14</sup> The second woe has passed. Behold, the third woe is coming shortly.

The Seventh Trumpet

<sup>15</sup> Then the seventh angel sounded his trumpet, and loud voices called out in heaven:

“The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ,

* 10:9 See Numbers 5:24 and Ezekiel 3:3. * 11:4 See Zechariah 4:14.

and He will reign forever and ever.”

<sup>16</sup> And the twenty-four elders who sit on their thrones before God fell on their faces and worshiped God, <sup>17</sup> saying:

“We give thanks to You, O Lord God Almighty, the One who is and who was,† because You have taken Your great power and have begun to reign.

<sup>18</sup> The nations were enraged,‡
and Your wrath has come.

The time has come to judge the dead § and to reward Your servants the prophets, as well as the saints and those who fear Your name, both small and great—
and to destroy those who destroy the earth.”

<sup>19</sup> Then the temple of God in heaven was opened, and the ark of His covenant appeared in His temple. And there were flashes of lightning, and rumblings, and peals of thunder, and an earthquake, and a great hailstorm.

12

The Woman and the Dragon

<sup>1</sup> And a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed in the sun, with the moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars on her head. <sup>2</sup> She was pregnant and crying out in the pain and agony of giving birth.

<sup>3</sup> Then another sign appeared in heaven: a huge red dragon with seven heads, ten horns, and seven royal crowns on his heads. <sup>4</sup> His tail swept a third of the stars from the sky, tossing them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, ready to devour her child as soon as she gave birth.

<sup>5</sup> And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who will rule all the nations with an iron scepter.* And her child was caught up to God and to His throne. <sup>6</sup> And the woman fled into the wilderness, where God had prepared a place for her to be nourished for 1,260 days.

The War in Heaven

<sup>7</sup> Then a war broke out in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought back. <sup>8</sup> But the dragon was not strong enough, and no longer was any place found in heaven for him and his angels. <sup>9</sup> And the great dragon was hurled down—that ancient serpent called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world. He was hurled to the earth, and his angels with him.

<sup>10</sup> And I heard a loud voice in heaven saying:

“Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of His Christ.
For the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down—
he who accuses them day and night before our God.

<sup>11</sup> They have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony.

And they did not love their lives
so as to shy away from death.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and you who dwell in them!
But woe to the earth and the sea;

† 11:17 TR includes and who is to come. ‡ 11:18 See Psalm 2:1. § 11:18 See Daniel 12:2. * 12:5 See Psalm 2:9 (see also LXX).

with great fury the devil has come down to you, knowing he has only a short time.”

The Woman Persecuted

<sup>13</sup> And when the dragon saw that he had been thrown to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child. <sup>14</sup> But the woman was given two wings of a great eagle to fly from the presence of the serpent to her place in the wilderness, where she was nourished for a time, and times, and half a time.

<sup>15</sup> Then from the mouth of the serpent spewed water like a river to overtake the woman and sweep her away in the torrent. <sup>16</sup> But the earth helped the woman and opened its mouth to swallow up the river that had poured from the dragon’s mouth. <sup>17</sup> And the dragon was enraged at the woman, and went to make war with the rest of her children, who keep the commandments of God and hold to the testimony of Jesus.

And the dragon stood on the shore of the sea.†

The Beast from the Sea
(Daniel 7:1–8)

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw a beast with ten horns and seven heads rising out of the sea. There were ten royal crowns on its horns and blasphemous names on its heads. <sup>2</sup> The beast I saw was like a leopard, with the feet of a bear and the mouth of a lion. And the dragon gave the beast his power and his throne and great authority.

<sup>3</sup> One of the heads of the beast appeared to be mortally wounded. But the mortal wound was healed, and the whole world marveled and followed the beast. <sup>4</sup> They worshiped the dragon who had given authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, “Who is like the beast, and who can wage war against it?”

<sup>5</sup> The beast was given a mouth to speak arrogant and blasphemous words, and authority to act for 42 months. <sup>6</sup> And the beast opened its mouth to speak blasphemies against God and to slander His name and His tabernacle—those who dwell in heaven.

<sup>7</sup> Then the beast was permitted to wage war against the saints and to conquer them, and it was given authority over every tribe and people and tongue and nation. <sup>8</sup> And all who dwell on the earth will worship the beast—all whose names have not been written from the foundation of the world in the Book of Life belonging to the Lamb who was slain.*

<sup>9</sup> He who has an ear, let him hear:

<sup>10</sup> “If anyone is destined for captivity, into captivity he will go;
if anyone is to die † by the sword,
by the sword he must be killed.”‡

Here is a call for the perseverance and faith of the saints.

The Beast from the Earth

<sup>11</sup> Then I saw another beast rising out of the earth. This beast had two horns like a lamb, but spoke like a dragon. <sup>12</sup> And this beast exercised all the authority of the first beast and caused the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose mortal wound had been healed.

† 12:17 Literally And he stood on the sand of the sea. BYZ and TR And I stood on the sand of the sea. Some texts number this sentence as verse 18; others include it with Revelation 13:1. * 13:8 Or written in the Book of Life belonging to the Lamb who was slain from the foundation of the world. † 13:10 NE, WH, and BYZ if anyone kills ‡ 13:10 See Jeremiah 15:2.

<sup>13</sup> And the second beast performed great signs to cause even fire from heaven to come down to earth in the presence of the people. <sup>14</sup> Because of the signs it was given to perform on behalf of the first beast, it deceived those who dwell on the earth, telling them to make an image to the beast that had been wounded by the sword and yet had lived. <sup>15</sup> The second beast was permitted to give breath to the image of the first beast, so that the image could speak and cause all who refused to worship it to be killed.

The Mark of the Beast

<sup>16</sup> And the second beast required all people small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hand or on their forehead, <sup>17</sup> so that no one could buy or sell unless he had the mark—the name of the beast or the number of its name.

<sup>18</sup> Here is a call for wisdom: Let the one who has insight calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man, and that number is 666.§

14

The Lamb and the 144,000

<sup>1</sup> Then I looked and saw the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with Him 144,000 who had His name and His Father's name written on their foreheads. <sup>2</sup> And I heard a sound from heaven like the roar of many waters and the loud rumbling of thunder. And the sound I heard was like harpists strumming their harps.

<sup>3</sup> And they sang a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders. And no one could learn the song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth. <sup>4</sup> These are the ones who have not been defiled with women, for they are virgins. They follow the Lamb wherever He goes. They have been redeemed from among men as firstfruits to God and to the Lamb. <sup>5</sup> And no lie was found in their mouths; they are blameless.*

The Three Angels and Babylon's Fall

<sup>6</sup> Then I saw another angel flying overhead, with the eternal gospel to proclaim to those who dwell on the earth—to every nation and tribe and tongue and people. <sup>7</sup> And he said in a loud voice, "Fear God and give Him glory, because the hour of His judgment has come. Worship the One who made the heavens and the earth and the sea and the springs of waters."

<sup>9</sup> And a third angel followed them, calling out in a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and its image, and receives its mark on his forehead or on his hand, <sup>10</sup> he too will drink the wine of God's anger, poured undiluted into the cup of His wrath. And he will be tormented in fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and of the Lamb. <sup>11</sup> And the smoke of their torment rises forever and ever. Day and night there is no rest for those who worship the beast and its image, or for anyone who receives the mark of its name."

<sup>12</sup> Here is a call for the perseverance of the saints who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus.

<sup>13</sup> And I heard a voice from heaven telling me to write, "Blessed are the dead—those who die in the Lord from this moment on."

"Yes," says the Spirit, "they will rest from their labors, for their deeds will follow them."

The Harvest of the Earth

§ 13:18 Some manuscripts 616 * 14:5 BYZ and TR include before the throne of God. † 14:8 See Isaiah 21:9 and Revelation 18:2.

14 And I looked and saw a white cloud, and seated on the cloud was One like the Son of Man,‡ with a golden crown on His head and a sharp sickle in His hand.

15 Then another angel came out of the temple, crying out in a loud voice to the One seated on the cloud, “Swing Your sickle and reap, because the time has come to harvest; for the crop of the earth is ripe.”<sup>16</sup> So the One seated on the cloud swung His sickle over the earth, and the earth was harvested.

17 Then another angel came out of the temple in heaven, and he too had a sharp sickle. 18 Still another angel, with authority over the fire, came from the altar and called out in a loud voice to the angel with the sharp sickle, “Swing your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of grapes from the vine of the earth, because its grapes are ripe.”

19 So the angel swung his sickle over the earth and gathered the grapes of the earth, and he threw them into the great winepress of God’s wrath. 20 And the winepress was trodden outside the city, and the blood that flowed from it rose as high as the bridles of the horses for a distance of 1,600 stadia.§

15

The Song of Moses and the Lamb (Deuteronomy 32:1–47)

1 Then I saw another great and marvelous sign in heaven: seven angels with the seven final plagues, with which the wrath of God is completed.

2 And I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, beside which stood those who had conquered the beast and its image and the number of its name. They were holding harps from God, 3 and they sang the song of God’s servant Moses and of the Lamb:

“Great and wonderful are Your works,
O Lord God Almighty!

Just and true are Your ways,
O King of the nations!*

4 Who will not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your name?

For You alone are holy.

All nations will come and worship before You,
for Your righteous acts have been revealed.”

Preparation for Judgment

5 After this I looked, and the temple—the tabernacle of the Testimony—was opened in heaven. 6 And out of the temple came the seven angels with the seven plagues, dressed in clean and bright linen and girded with golden sashes around their chests.

7 Then one of the four living creatures gave the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. 8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power; and no one could enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

16

The First Six Bowls of Wrath

1 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, “Go, pour out on the earth the seven bowls of God’s wrath.”

2 So the first angel went and poured out his bowl on the earth, and loathsome, malignant sores broke out on those who had the mark of the beast and worshiped its image.

‡ 14:14 Or one like a son of man; see Daniel 7:13.    § 14:20 1,600 stadia is approximately 184 miles or 296 kilometers.    * 15:3 SBL and WH King of the ages; TR King of the saints

<sup>3</sup> And the second angel poured out his bowl into the sea, and it turned to blood like that of the dead, and every living thing in the sea died.

<sup>4</sup> And the third angel poured out his bowl into the rivers and springs of water, and they turned to blood. <sup>5</sup> And I heard the angel of the waters say:

“Righteous are You, O Holy One, who is and was,
 because You have brought these judgments.

<sup>6</sup> For they have spilled the blood of saints and prophets, and You have given them blood to drink,
 as they deserve.”

<sup>7</sup> And I heard the altar reply:

“Yes, Lord God Almighty, true and just are Your judgments.”

<sup>8</sup> Then the fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was given power to scorch the people with fire. <sup>9</sup> And the people were scorched by intense heat, and they cursed the name of God, who had authority over these plagues; yet they did not repent and give Him glory.

<sup>10</sup> And the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and its kingdom was plunged into darkness, and men began to gnaw their tongues in anguish <sup>11</sup> and curse the God of heaven for their pains and sores; yet they did not repent of their deeds.

<sup>12</sup> And the sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up to prepare the way for the kings of the East.

<sup>13</sup> And I saw three unclean spirits that looked like frogs coming out of the mouths of the dragon, the beast, and the false prophet. <sup>14</sup> These are demonic spirits that perform signs and go out to all the kings of the earth, to assemble them for battle on the great day of God the Almighty.

<sup>15</sup> “Behold, I am coming like a thief. Blessed is the one who remains awake and clothed, so that he will not go naked and let his shame be exposed.”

<sup>16</sup> And they assembled the kings in the place that in Hebrew is called Armageddon.

The Seventh Bowl of Wrath

<sup>17</sup> Then the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came from the throne in the temple, saying, “It is done!”

<sup>18</sup> And there were flashes of lightning, and rumblings, and peals of thunder, and a great earthquake the likes of which had not occurred since men were upon the earth—so mighty was the great quake. <sup>19</sup> The great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the nations collapsed. And God remembered Babylon the great and gave her the cup of the wine of the fury of His wrath.

17

The Woman on the Beast

<sup>1</sup> Then one of the seven angels with the seven bowls came and said to me, “Come, I will show you the punishment of the great prostitute, who sits on many waters. <sup>2</sup> The kings

* 16:21 Greek great hail as of a talent; that is, hailstones weighing approximately 75.4 pounds or 34.2 kilograms each of the earth were immoral with her, and those who dwell on the earth were intoxicated with the wine of her immorality.”

<sup>3</sup> And the angel carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness, where I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was covered with blasphemous names and had seven heads and ten horns. <sup>4</sup> The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls. She held in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the impurities of her sexual immorality. <sup>5</sup> And on her forehead a mysterious name was written:

BABYLON THE GREAT,
THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES
AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

The Mystery Explained

<sup>6</sup> I could see that the woman was drunk with the blood of the saints and witnesses for Jesus. And I was utterly amazed at the sight of her.

<sup>7</sup> “Why are you so amazed?” said the angel. “I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and ten horns.

<sup>8</sup> The beast that you saw—it was, and now is no more, but is about to come up out of the Abyss and go to its destruction. And those who dwell on the earth whose names were not written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world will marvel when they see the beast that was, and is not, and yet will be.

<sup>9</sup> This calls for a mind with wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits. <sup>10</sup> There are also seven kings. Five have fallen, one is, and the other has not yet come; but when he does come, he must remain for only a little while.

<sup>11</sup> The beast that was, and now is not, is an eighth king, who belongs to the other seven and is going into destruction. <sup>12</sup> The ten horns you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but will receive one hour of authority as kings, along with the beast. <sup>13</sup> These kings have one purpose: to yield their power and authority to the beast.

The Victory of the Lamb

<sup>14</sup> They will make war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will triumph over them, because He is Lord of lords and King of kings; and He will be accompanied by His called and chosen and faithful ones.”

<sup>15</sup> Then the angel said to me, “The waters you saw, where the prostitute was seated, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues. <sup>16</sup> And the ten horns and the beast that you saw will hate the prostitute. They will leave her desolate and naked, and will eat her flesh and burn her with fire. <sup>17</sup> For God has put it into their hearts to carry out His purpose by uniting to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God are fulfilled. <sup>18</sup> And the woman you saw is the great city that rules over the kings of the earth.”

18

Babylon Is Fallen
(Isaiah 21:1-10)

<sup>1</sup> After this I saw another angel descending from heaven with great authority, and the earth was illuminated by his glory. <sup>2</sup> And he cried out in a mighty voice:

“Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great!*

She has become a lair for demons and a haunt for every unclean spirit, every unclean bird,

---

* 18:2 See Isaiah 21:9 and Revelation 14:8.

and every detestable beast.†

<sup>3</sup> All the nations have drunk ‡ the wine of the passion of her immorality.

The kings of the earth were immoral with her,
and the merchants of the earth have grown wealthy from the extravagance of her luxury.”

<sup>4</sup> Then I heard another voice from heaven say:

“Come out of her, My people,§ so that you will not share in her sins or contract any of her plagues.

<sup>5</sup> For her sins are piled up to heaven,
and God has remembered her iniquities.

<sup>6</sup> Give back to her as she has done to others;
pay her back double for what she has done;
mix her a double portion in her own cup.

<sup>7</sup> As much as she has glorified herself and lived in luxury, give her the same measure of torment and grief.

In her heart she says, ‘I sit as queen;
I am not a widow and will never see grief.’

<sup>8</sup> Therefore her plagues will come in one day—death and grief and famine—
and she will be consumed by fire,
for mighty is the Lord God who judges her.”

Lament over Babylon

<sup>9</sup> Then the kings of the earth who committed sexual immorality and lived in luxury with her will weep and wail at the sight of the smoke rising from the fire that consumes her.*

<sup>10</sup> In fear of her torment, they will stand at a distance and cry out:

“Woe, woe to the great city,
the mighty city of Babylon!
For in a single hour
your judgment has come.”

<sup>11</sup> And the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, because there is no one left to buy their cargo— <sup>12</sup> cargo of gold, silver, precious stones, and pearls; of fine linen, purple, silk, and scarlet; of all kinds of citron wood and every article of ivory, precious wood, bronze, iron, and marble; <sup>13</sup> of cinnamon, spice, incense, myrrh, and frankincense; of wine, olive oil, fine flour, and wheat; of cattle, sheep, horses, and chariots; of slaves and souls of men. <sup>14</sup> And they will say:†

“The fruit of your soul’s desire has departed from you;
all your luxury and splendor have vanished,
never to be seen again.”

<sup>15</sup> The merchants who sold these things and grew their wealth from her will stand at a distance, in fear of her torment. They will weep and mourn, <sup>16</sup> saying:

“Woe, woe to the great city, clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet,
adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls!
<sup>17</sup> For in a single hour
such fabulous wealth has been destroyed!”

Every shipmaster, passenger, and sailor, and all who make their living from the sea, will stand at a distance <sup>18</sup> and cry out at the sight of the smoke rising from the fire that consumes her. "What city was ever like this great city?" they will exclaim.

<sup>19</sup> Then they will throw dust on their heads as they weep and mourn and cry out:

"Woe, woe to the great city,
 where all who had ships on the sea were enriched by her wealth!
 For in a single hour
 she has been destroyed."

<sup>20</sup> Rejoice over her, O heaven,
 O saints and apostles and prophets, because God has pronounced for you
 His judgment against her.

The Doom of Babylon

<sup>21</sup> Then a mighty angel picked up a stone the size of a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying:

"With such violence
 the great city of Babylon will be cast down,
 never to be seen again.

<sup>22</sup> And the sound of harpists and musicians, of flute players and trumpeters,
 will never ring out in you again.

Nor will any craftsmen of any trade
 be found in you again,
 nor the sound of a millstone be heard in you again.

<sup>23</sup> The light of a lamp will never shine in you again,
 and the voices of a bride and bridegroom will never call out in you again.

For your merchants were the great ones of the earth, because all the nations were deceived by your sorcery."

<sup>24</sup> And there was found in her the blood of prophets and saints, and of all who had been slain on the earth.

Rejoicing in Heaven

<sup>1</sup> After this I heard a sound like the roar of a great multitude in heaven, shouting:

"Hallelujah!"*

Salvation and glory and power belong to our God!

<sup>2</sup> For His judgments are true and just.

He has judged the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her immorality.
 He has avenged the blood of His servants that was poured out by her hand."

<sup>3</sup> And a second time they called out:

"Hallelujah!

Her smoke rises forever and ever."

* 19:1 Hallelujah is a transliteration of the Hebrew Hallelu YAH, meaning Praise the LORD; also in verses 3, 4, and 6.

<sup>4</sup> And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne, saying:

“Amen, Hallelujah!”

<sup>5</sup> Then a voice came from the throne, saying:

“Praise our God,
all you who serve Him,
and those who fear Him,
small and great alike!”

The Marriage of the Lamb

<sup>6</sup> And I heard a sound like the roar of a great multitude, like the rushing of many waters, and like a mighty rumbling of thunder, crying out:

“Hallelujah!

For the Lord our God † the Almighty reigns.

<sup>7</sup> Let us rejoice and be glad and give Him the glory.

For the marriage of the Lamb has come,
and His bride has made herself ready.

<sup>8</sup> She was given clothing of fine linen, bright and pure.”

For the fine linen she wears is the righteous acts of the saints.

<sup>9</sup> Then the angel told me to write, “Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.” And he said to me, “These are the true words of God.”

<sup>10</sup> So I fell at his feet to worship him. But he told me, “Do not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers who rely on the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”

The Rider on the White Horse

<sup>11</sup> Then I saw heaven standing open, and there before me was a white horse. And its rider is called Faithful and True. With righteousness He judges and wages war. <sup>12</sup> He has eyes like blazing fire, and many royal crowns on His head. He has a name written on Him that only He Himself knows. <sup>13</sup> He is dressed in a robe dipped in blood,‡ and His name is The Word of God.

<sup>14</sup> The armies of heaven, dressed in fine linen, white and pure, follow Him on white horses. <sup>15</sup> And from His mouth proceeds a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations, and He will rule them with an iron scepter.§ He treads the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God the Almighty. <sup>16</sup> And He has a name written on His robe and on His thigh:

KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

Defeat of the Beast and False Prophet

<sup>17</sup> Then I saw an angel standing in the sun, and he cried out in a loud voice to all the birds flying overhead, “Come, gather together for the great supper of God, <sup>18</sup> so that you may eat the flesh of kings and commanders and mighty men, of horses and riders, of everyone slave and free, small and great.”

<sup>19</sup> Then I saw the beast and the kings of the earth with their armies assembled to wage war against the One seated on the horse, and against His army. <sup>20</sup> But the beast was captured along with the false prophet, who on its behalf had performed signs deceiving those who had the mark of the beast and worshiped its image. Both the beast and the false prophet were thrown alive into the fiery lake of burning sulfur. <sup>21</sup> And the rest were killed with the sword that proceeded from the mouth of the One seated on the horse.

And all the birds gorged themselves on their flesh.

Satan Bound

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven with the key to the Abyss, holding in his hand a great chain. <sup>2</sup> He seized the dragon, that ancient serpent who is the devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years. <sup>3</sup> And he threw him into the Abyss, shut it, and sealed it over him, so that he could not deceive the nations until the thousand years were complete. After that, he must be released for a brief period of time.

<sup>4</sup> Then I saw the thrones, and those seated on them had been given authority to judge. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their testimony of Jesus and for the word of God, and those who had not worshiped the beast or its image, and had not received its mark on their foreheads or hands. And they came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years.

<sup>5</sup> The rest of the dead did not come back to life until the thousand years were complete. This is the first resurrection. <sup>6</sup> Blessed and holy are those who share in the first resurrection! The second death has no power over them, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with Him for a thousand years.

Satan Cast into the Lake of Fire

<sup>7</sup> When the thousand years are complete, Satan will be released from his prison, <sup>8</sup> and will go out to deceive the nations in the four corners of the earth—Gog and Magog—to assemble them for battle. Their number is like the sand of the seashore.

<sup>9</sup> And they marched across the broad expanse of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city. But fire came down from heaven * and consumed them. <sup>10</sup> And the devil who had deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, into which the beast and the false prophet had already been thrown. There they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

Judgment before the Great White Throne

<sup>11</sup> Then I saw a great white throne and the One seated on it. Earth and heaven fled from His presence, and no place was found for them. <sup>12</sup> And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne.

And there were open books, and one of them was the Book of Life. And the dead were judged according to their deeds, as recorded in the books. <sup>13</sup> The sea gave up its dead, and Death and Hades gave up their dead, and each one was judged according to his deeds.

<sup>14</sup> Then Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death—the lake of fire. <sup>15</sup> And if anyone was found whose name was not written in the Book of Life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

A New Heaven and a New Earth (Isaiah 65:17-25)

* 20:9 BYZ and TR came down from God out of heaven

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth,* for the first heaven and earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. <sup>2</sup> I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

<sup>3</sup> And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying:

“Behold, the dwelling place of God is with man, and He will dwell with them.

They will be His people, and God Himself will be with them as their God.†

<sup>4</sup> ‘He will wipe away every tear from their eyes,‡ and there will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain,

for the former things have passed away.”

<sup>5</sup> And the One seated on the throne said, “Behold, I make all things new.” Then He said, “Write this down, for these words are faithful and true.” <sup>6</sup> And He told me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To the thirsty I will give freely from the spring of the water of life. <sup>7</sup> The one who overcomes will inherit all things, and I will be his God, and he will be My son.

<sup>8</sup> But to the cowardly and unbelieving and abominable and murderers and sexually immoral and sorcerers and idolaters and all liars, their place will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur. This is the second death.”

The New Jerusalem

<sup>9</sup> Then one of the seven angels with the seven bowls full of the seven final plagues came and said to me, “Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb.”

<sup>10</sup> And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and showed me the holy city of Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God, <sup>11</sup> shining with the glory of God. Its radiance was like a most precious jewel, like a jasper, as clear as crystal. <sup>12</sup> The city had a great and high wall with twelve gates inscribed with the names of the twelve tribes of Israel, and twelve angels at the gates. <sup>13</sup> There were three gates on the east, three on the north, three on the south, and three on the west. <sup>14</sup> The wall of the city had twelve foundations bearing the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

<sup>15</sup> The angel who spoke with me had a golden measuring rod to measure the city and its gates and walls. <sup>16</sup> The city lies foursquare, with its width the same as its length. And he measured the city with the rod, and all its dimensions were equal—12,000 stadia § in length and width and height. <sup>17</sup> And he measured its wall to be 144 cubits,* by the human measure the angel was using.

<sup>18</sup> The wall was made of jasper, and the city itself of pure gold, as pure as glass. <sup>19</sup> The foundations of the city walls were adorned with every kind of precious stone:

The first foundation was jasper,

the second sapphire,

the third chalcedony,

the fourth emerald,

<sup>20</sup> the fifth sardonyx,

the sixth carnelian,

The measure could indicate either height or thickness.

the seventh chrysolite,
 the eighth beryl,
 the ninth topaz,
 the tenth chrysoprase,
 the eleventh jacinth,
 and the twelfth amethyst.

<sup>21</sup> And the twelve gates were twelve pearls, with each gate consisting of a single pearl. The main street of the city was pure gold, as clear as glass.

<sup>22</sup> But I saw no temple in the city, because the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. <sup>23</sup> And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, because the glory of God illuminates the city, and the Lamb is its lamp. <sup>24</sup> By its light the nations will walk, and into it the kings of the earth will bring their glory.† <sup>25</sup> Its gates will never be shut at the end of the day, because there will be no night there.

<sup>26</sup> And into the city will be brought the glory and honor of the nations. <sup>27</sup> But nothing unclean will ever enter it, nor anyone who practices an abomination or a lie, but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

The River of Life

<sup>1</sup> Then the angel showed me a river of the water of life, as clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb <sup>2</sup> down the middle of the main street of the city. On either side of the river stood a tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruit and yielding a fresh crop for each month. And the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations.

<sup>3</sup> No longer will there be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be within the city, and His servants will worship Him. <sup>4</sup> They will see His face, and His name will be on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup> There will be no more night in the city, and they will have no need for the light of a lamp or of the sun. For the Lord God will shine on them, and they will reign forever and ever.

Jesus Is Coming

<sup>6</sup> Then the angel said to me, "These words are faithful and true. The Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent His angel to show His servants what must soon * take place."

<sup>7</sup> "Behold, I am coming soon. Blessed is the one who keeps the words of prophecy in this book.†"

<sup>8</sup> And I am John, who heard and saw these things. And when I had heard and seen them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who had shown me these things. <sup>9</sup> But he said to me, "Do not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God!"

<sup>10</sup> Then he told me, "Do not seal up the words of prophecy in this book, because the time is near. <sup>11</sup> Let the unrighteous continue to be unrighteous, and the vile continue to be vile; let the righteous continue to practice righteousness, and the holy continue to be holy."

<sup>12</sup> "Behold, I am coming soon, and My reward is with Me, to give to each one according to what he has done. <sup>13</sup> I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End."

† 21:24 BYZ and TR include and honor. * 22:6 Or suddenly or quickly; similarly in verses 7, 12, and 20 † 22:7 Or scroll; also in verses 9, 10, 18, 19

<sup>14</sup> Blessed are those who wash their robes,‡ so that they may have the right to the tree of life and may enter the city by its gates. <sup>15</sup> But outside are the dogs, the sorcerers, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood.

<sup>16</sup> “I, Jesus, have sent My angel to give you this testimony for the churches. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, the bright Morning Star.”

<sup>17</sup> The Spirit and the bride say, “Come!” Let the one who hears say, “Come!” And let the one who is thirsty come, and the one who desires the water of life drink freely.

Nothing May Be Added or Removed

<sup>18</sup> I testify to everyone who hears the words of prophecy in this book: If anyone adds to them, God will add to him the plagues described in this book. <sup>19</sup> And if anyone takes away from the words of this book of prophecy, God will take away his share in the tree of life and the holy city, which are described in this book.

<sup>20</sup> He who testifies to these things says, “Yes, I am coming soon.” Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

Amen.†
