

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO PHILEMON

<sup>1</sup> Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy the brother, to Philemon our beloved friend and fellow-laborer, <sup>2</sup> and to the beloved Apphia, and to Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the church in thy house: <sup>3</sup> Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup> I thank my God at all times, making mention of thee in my prayers, <sup>5</sup> hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus and toward all the saints; <sup>6</sup> that the fellowship of thy faith may become effectual in the knowledge of every good thing which is in us, for Christ Jesus. <sup>7</sup> For we have great thankfulness and comfort on account of thy love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed by thee, brother. <sup>8</sup> Wherefore, though I have much boldness in Christ to enjoin upon thee that which is befitting, <sup>9</sup> yet for love's sake I beseech thee rather; being such a one as Paul an old man, and now also a prisoner of Christ Jesus, <sup>10</sup> I beseech thee for my child, whom I begot in my bonds, Onesimus; <sup>11</sup> who in time past was unprofitable to thee, but is now profitable to thee and to me; <sup>12</sup> whom I have sent back; and do thou [[receive]] him, that is, my own flesh. <sup>13</sup> Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might minister to me in the bonds of the gospel; <sup>14</sup> but I chose to do nothing without thy consent, that thy benefit may be not as from necessity, but willingly. <sup>15</sup> For perhaps he was separated from thee for a season to this end, that thou shouldst receive him back as thine for ever; <sup>16</sup> no longer as a bond-servant, but above a bond-servant, a brother beloved, especially to me, but how much more to thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord! <sup>17</sup> If thou then regardest me as a partner, receive him as myself. <sup>18</sup> And if he wronged thee in anything, or oweth thee, put that to my account. <sup>19</sup> I Paul have written it with my own hand, I will repay it; not to say to thee, that to me thou owest even thy own self besides. <sup>20</sup> Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord; refresh my heart in Christ. <sup>21</sup> Having confidence in thy obedience I have written to thee, knowing that thou wilt do even more than I say. <sup>22</sup> And at the same time make ready a lodging for me; for I hope that through your prayers I shall be granted to you. <sup>23</sup> Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus, <sup>24</sup> Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, Luke, my fellow-laborers, salute thee. <sup>25</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.
