The NET Bible (New English Translation) is a completely new translation of the Bible with 58,506 translators' notes! It was completed by more than 25 scholars – experts in the original biblical languages – who worked directly from the best currently available Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek texts. Turn the pages and see the breadth of the translators' notes, documenting their decisions and choices as they worked.

The translators' notes make the original languages far more accessible, allowing you to look over the translator's shoulder at the very process of translation. This level of documentation is a first for a Bible translation, making transparent the textual basis and the rationale for key renderings (including major interpretive options and alternative translations).

This unparalleled level of detail helps connect people to the Bible in the original languages in a way never before possible without years of study of Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek. It unlocks the riches of the Bible's truth from entirely new perspectives.

Genesis

The Creation of the World

<sup>2</sup> Now the earth was without shape and empty, and darkness was over the surface of the watery deep, but the Spirit of God was moving over the surface of the water.

<sup>3</sup> God said, "Let there be light." And there was light!

<sup>4</sup> God saw that the light was good, so God separated the light from the darkness.

<sup>5</sup> God called the light "day" and the darkness "night." There was evening, and there was morning, marking the first day.

<sup>6</sup> God said, "Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters and let it separate water from water.

<sup>7</sup> So God made the expanse and separated the water under the expanse from the water above it. It was so.

<sup>8</sup> God called the expanse "sky." There was evening, and there was morning, a second day.

<sup>9</sup> God said, "Let the water under the sky be gathered to one place and let dry ground appear." It was so.

<sup>10</sup> God called the dry ground "land" and the gathered waters he called "seas." God saw that it was good.

<sup>11</sup> God said, "Let the land produce vegetation: plants yielding seeds according to their kinds, and trees bearing fruit with seed in it according to their kinds." It was so.

<sup>12</sup> The land produced vegetation – plants yielding seeds according to their kinds, and trees bearing fruit with seed in it according to their kinds. God saw that it was good.

<sup>13</sup> There was evening, and there was morning, a third day.

<sup>14</sup> God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of the sky to separate the day from the night, and let them be signs to indicate seasons and days and years, <sup>15</sup> and let them serve as lights in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth." It was so.

<sup>16</sup> God made two great lights – the greater light to rule over the day and the lesser light to rule over the night. He made the stars also.

<sup>17</sup> God placed the lights in the expanse of the sky to shine on the earth, <sup>18</sup> to preside over the day and the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. God saw that it was good.

<sup>19</sup> There was evening, and there was morning, a fourth day.

<sup>20</sup> God said, "Let the water swarm with swarms of living creatures and let birds fly above the earth across the expanse of the sky."

<sup>21</sup> God created the great sea creatures and every living and moving thing with which the water swarmed, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind. God saw that it was good.

<sup>22</sup> God blessed them and said, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the water in the seas, and let the birds multiply on the earth."

<sup>23</sup> There was evening, and there was morning, a fifth day.

<sup>24</sup> God said, "Let the land produce living creatures according to their kinds: cattle, creeping things, and wild animals, each according to its kind." It was so.

<sup>25</sup> God made the wild animals according to their kinds, the cattle according to their kinds, and all the creatures that creep along the ground according to their kinds. God saw that it was good.

humankind in our image, after our likeness, so they may rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over all the creatures that move on the earth.”

<sup>27</sup> God created humankind in his own image, in the image of God he created them, male and female he created them.

<sup>28</sup> God blessed them and said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply! Fill the earth and subdue it! Rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air and every creature that moves on the ground.”

<sup>29</sup> Then God said, “I now give you every seed-bearing plant on the face of the entire earth and every tree that has fruit with seed in it. They will be yours for food.

<sup>30</sup> And to all the animals of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to all the creatures that move on the ground – everything that has the breath of life in it – I give every green plant for food.” It was so.

<sup>31</sup> God saw all that he had made – and it was very good! There was evening, and there was morning, the sixth day.

<sup>2</sup> By the seventh day God finished the work that he had been doing, and he ceased on the seventh day all the work that he had been doing.

<sup>3</sup> God blessed the seventh day and made it holy because on it he ceased all the work that he had been doing in creation.

The Creation of Man and Woman

<sup>4</sup> This is the account of the heavens and the earth when they were created – when the LORD God made the earth and heavens.

<sup>5</sup> Now no shrub of the field had yet grown on the earth, and no plant of the field had yet sprouted, for the LORD God had not caused it to rain on the earth, and there was no man to cultivate the ground.

<sup>6</sup> Springs would well up from the earth and water the whole surface of the ground.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD God formed the man from the soil of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living being.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD God planted an orchard in the east, in Eden; and there he placed the man he had formed.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD God made all kinds of trees grow from the soil, every tree that was pleasing to look at and good for food. (Now the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil were in the middle of the orchard.)

<sup>11</sup> The name of the first is Pishon; it runs through the entire land of Havilah, where there is gold.

<sup>15</sup> The LORD God took the man and placed him in the orchard in Eden to care for it and to maintain it.

<sup>16</sup> Then the LORD God commanded the man, “You may freely eat fruit from every tree of the orchard,

<sup>18</sup> The LORD God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a companion for him who corresponds to him."

<sup>19</sup> The LORD God formed out of the ground every living animal of the field and every bird of the air. He brought them to the man to see what he would name them, and whatever the man called each living creature, that was its name.

<sup>20</sup> So the man named all the animals, the birds of the air, and the living creatures of the field, but for Adam no companion who corresponded to him was found.

<sup>21</sup> So the LORD God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep, and while he was asleep, he took part of the man's side and closed up the place with flesh.

<sup>22</sup> Then the LORD God made a woman from the part he had taken out of the man, and he brought her to the man.

<sup>23</sup> Then the man said,
"This one at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh;
this one will be called 'woman,' for she was taken out of man."

<sup>24</sup> That is why a man leaves his father and mother and unites with his wife, and they become a new family.

<sup>1</sup> Now the serpent was more shrewd than any of the wild animals that the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, "Is it really true that God said, 'You must not eat from any tree of the orchard?'"

<sup>2</sup> The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat of the fruit from the trees of the orchard;

<sup>3</sup> but concerning the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the orchard God said, 'You must not eat from it, and you must not touch it, or else you will die.' "

<sup>5</sup> for God knows that when you eat from it your eyes will open and you will be like divine beings who know good and evil."

<sup>6</sup> When the woman saw that the tree produced fruit that was good for food, was attractive to the eye, and was desirable for making one wise, she took some of its fruit and ate it. She also gave some of it to her husband who was with her, and he ate it.

<sup>7</sup> Then the eyes of both of them opened, and they knew they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.

The Judgment Oracles of God at the Fall

<sup>8</sup> Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the LORD God moving about in the orchard at the breezy time of the day, and they hid from the LORD God among the trees of the orchard.

<sup>9</sup> But the LORD God called to the man and said to him, "Where are you?"

<sup>10</sup> The man replied, "I heard you moving about in the orchard, and I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid."

<sup>11</sup> And the LORD God said |strong="H0559", "Who told you that you were naked? Did you eat from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?"

<sup>12</sup> The man said, "The woman whom you gave me, she gave me some fruit from the tree and I ate it."

<sup>13</sup> So the LORD God said to the woman, "What is this you have done?" And the woman replied, "The serpent tricked me, and I ate."

<sup>14</sup> The LORD God said to the serpent,
"Because you have done this, cursed are you above all the wild beasts and all the living creatures of the field!

On your belly you will crawl and dust you will eat all the days of your life.

<sup>15</sup> And I will put hostility between you and the woman and between your offspring and her offspring; her offspring will attack your head, and you will attack her offspring's heel."

<sup>16</sup> To the woman he said,
"I will greatly increase your labor pains;
with pain you will give birth to children.
You will want to control your husband,
but he will dominate you."

<sup>17</sup> But to Adam he said,
"Because you obeyed your wife and ate from the tree about which I commanded you,
'You must not eat from it,' cursed is the ground thanks to you;
in painful toil you will eat of it all the days of your life.

<sup>18</sup> It will produce thorns and thistles for you, but you will eat the grain of the field.

<sup>19</sup> By the sweat of your brow you will eat food until you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken;
for you are dust, and to dust you will return."

<sup>20</sup> The man named his wife Eve, because she was the mother of all the living.

<sup>21</sup> The LORD God made garments from skin for Adam and his wife, and clothed them.

<sup>22</sup> And the LORD God said, "Now that the man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil, he must not be allowed to stretch out his hand and take also from the tree of life and eat, and live forever."

<sup>23</sup> So the LORD God expelled him from the orchard in Eden to cultivate the ground from which he had been taken.

<sup>24</sup> When he drove the man out, he placed on the eastern side of the orchard in Eden angelic sentries who used the flame of a whirling sword to guard the way to the tree of

gave birth to Cain. Then she said, "I have created a man just as the LORD did!"

cultivated the ground.

to the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> But Abel brought some of the firstborn of his flock – even the fattest of them. And the LORD was pleased with Abel and his offering, <sup>5</sup> but with Cain and his offering he was not pleased. So Cain became very angry, and his expression was downcast.

<sup>6</sup> Then the LORD said to Cain, "Why are you angry, and why is your expression downcast?"

<sup>7</sup> Is it not true that if you do what is right, you will be fine? But if you do not do what is right, sin is crouching at the door. It desires to dominate you, but you must subdue it."

<sup>8</sup> Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let's go out to the field." While they were in the field, Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him.

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD said to Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?" And he replied, "I don't know! Am I my brother's guardian?"

<sup>10</sup> But the LORD said, "What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood is crying out to me from the ground!"

<sup>11</sup> So now, you are banished from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand.

<sup>12</sup> When you try to cultivate the ground it will no longer yield its best for you. You will be a homeless wanderer on the earth."

<sup>13</sup> Then Cain said to the LORD, "My punishment is too great to endure!"

<sup>14</sup> Look! You are driving me off the land today, and I must hide from your presence. I will be a homeless wanderer on the earth; whoever finds me will kill me."

<sup>15</sup> But the LORD said to him, "All right then, if anyone kills Cain, Cain will be avenged seven times as much." Then the LORD put a special mark on Cain so that no one who found him would strike him down.

<sup>16</sup> So Cain went out from the presence of the LORD and lived in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

The Beginning of Civilization

<sup>17</sup> Cain had marital relations with his wife, and she became pregnant and gave birth to Enoch. Cain was building a city, and he named the city after his son Enoch.

<sup>18</sup> To Enoch was born Irad, and Irad was the father of Mehujael. Mehujael was the father of Methushael, and Methushael was the father of Lamech.

<sup>19</sup> Lamech took two wives for himself; the name of the first was Adah, and the name of the second was Zillah.

<sup>20</sup> Adah gave birth to Jabal; he was the first of those who live in tents and keep livestock.

<sup>21</sup> The name of his brother was Jubal; he was the first of all who play the harp and the flute.

"Adah and Zillah! Listen to me!
You wives of Lamech, hear my words!
I have killed a man for wounding me, a young man for hurting me.

<sup>24</sup> If Cain is to be avenged seven times as much,
then Lamech seventy-seven times!"

<sup>25</sup> And Adam had marital relations with his wife again, and she gave birth to a son. She named him Seth, saying, "God has given me another child in place of Abel because Cain killed him."

<sup>26</sup> And a son was also born to Seth, whom he named Enosh. At that time people began to worship the LORD.

When God created humankind, he made them in the likeness of God.

<sup>4</sup> The length of time Adam lived after he became the father of Seth was 800 years; during this time he had other sons and daughters.

<sup>7</sup> Seth lived 807 years after he became the father of Enosh, and he had other sons and daughters.

<sup>8</sup> The entire lifetime of Seth was 912 years, and then he died.

<sup>10</sup> Enosh lived 815 years after he became the father of Kenan, and he had other sons and daughters.

<sup>13</sup> Kenan lived 840 years after he became the father of Mahalalel, and he had other sons and daughters.

<sup>16</sup> Mahalalel lived 830 years after he became the father of Jared, and he had other sons and daughters.

<sup>19</sup> Jared lived 800 years after he became the father of Enoch, and he had other sons and daughters.

<sup>26</sup> Methuselah lived 782 years after he became the father of Lamech, and he had other sons and daughters.

<sup>28</sup> When Lamech had lived 182 years, he had a son.

<sup>29</sup> He named him Noah, saying, "This one will bring us comfort from our labor and from the painful toil of our hands because of the ground that the LORD has cursed."

<sup>30</sup> Lamech lived 595 years after he became the father of Noah, and he had other sons and daughters.

<sup>31</sup> The entire lifetime of Lamech was 777 years, and then he died.

<sup>3</sup> So the LORD said, "My spirit will not remain in humankind indefinitely, since they are mortal. They will remain for 120 more years."

<sup>4</sup> The Nephilim were on the earth in those days (and also after this) when the sons of God were having sexual relations with the daughters of humankind, who gave birth to their children. They were the mighty heroes of old, the famous men.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD regretted that he had made humankind on the earth, and he was highly offended.

<sup>7</sup> So the LORD said, "I will wipe humankind, whom I have created, from the face of the earth – everything from humankind to animals, including creatures that move on the ground and birds of the air, for I regret that I have made them."

The Judgment of the Flood

Noah was a godly man; he was blameless among his contemporaries. He walked with God.

<sup>12</sup> God saw the earth, and indeed it was ruined, for all living creatures on the earth were sinful.

<sup>13</sup> So God said to Noah, "I have decided that all living creatures must die, for the earth is filled with violence because of them. Now I am about to destroy them and the earth.

<sup>14</sup> Make for yourself an ark of cypress wood. Make rooms in the ark, and cover it with pitch inside and out.

<sup>15</sup> This is how you should make it: The ark is to be 450 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high.

<sup>16</sup> Make a roof for the ark and finish it, leaving 18 inches from the top. Put a door in the side of the ark, and make lower, middle, and upper decks.

<sup>17</sup> I am about to bring floodwaters on the earth to destroy from under the sky all the living creatures that have the breath of life in them. Everything that is on the earth will die,

<sup>18</sup> but I will confirm my covenant with you. You will enter the ark – you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you.

<sup>19</sup> You must bring into the ark two of every kind of living creature from all flesh, male and female, to keep them alive with you.

<sup>20</sup> Of the birds after their kinds, and of the cattle after their kinds, and of every creeping thing of the ground after its kind, two of every kind will come to you so you can keep them alive.

<sup>21</sup> And you must take for yourself every kind of food that is eaten, and gather it together. It will be food for you and for them.

7

<sup>1</sup> The LORD said to Noah, "Come into the ark, you and all your household, for I consider you godly among this generation.

<sup>2</sup> You must take with you seven of every kind of clean animal, the male and its mate, two of every kind of unclean animal, the male and its mate,

<sup>3</sup> and also seven of every kind of bird in the sky, male and female, to preserve their offspring on the face of the earth.

<sup>4</sup> For in seven days I will cause it to rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights, and I will wipe from the face of the ground every living thing that I have made."

<sup>11</sup> In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month – on that day all the fountains of the great deep burst open and the floodgates of the heavens were opened.

<sup>14</sup> They entered, along with every living creature after its kind, every animal after its kind, every creeping thing that creeps on the earth after its kind, and every bird after its kind, everything with wings.

<sup>16</sup> Those that entered were male and female, just as God commanded him. Then the LORD shut him in.

<sup>21</sup> And all living things that moved on the earth died, including the birds, domestic animals, wild animals, all the creatures that swarm over the earth, and all humankind.

<sup>23</sup> So the LORD destroyed every living thing that was on the surface of the ground, including people, animals, creatures that creep along the ground, and birds of the sky. They were wiped off the earth. Only Noah and those who were with him in the ark survived.

<sup>1</sup> But God remembered Noah and all the wild animals and domestic animals that were with him in the ark. God caused a wind to blow over the earth and the waters receded.

<sup>2</sup> The fountains of the deep and the floodgates of heaven were closed, and the rain stopped falling from the sky.

<sup>7</sup> and sent out a raven; it kept flying back and forth until the waters had dried up on the earth.

<sup>9</sup> The dove could not find a resting place for its feet because water still covered the surface of the entire earth, and so it returned to Noah in the ark. He stretched out his hand, took the dove, and brought it back into the ark.

<sup>11</sup> When the dove returned to him in the evening, there was a freshly plucked olive leaf in its beak! Noah knew that the waters had receded from the earth.

<sup>12</sup> He waited another seven days and sent the dove out again, but it did not return to him this time.

<sup>13</sup> In Noah's six hundred and first year, in the first day of the first month, the waters had dried up from the earth, and Noah removed the covering from the ark and saw that the surface of the ground was dry.

<sup>14</sup> And by the twenty-seventh day of the second month the earth was dry.

<sup>16</sup> "Come out of the ark, you, your wife, your sons, and your sons' wives with you.

<sup>17</sup> Bring out with you all the living creatures that are with you. Bring out every living thing, including the birds, animals, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth. Let them increase and be fruitful and multiply on the earth!"

<sup>20</sup> Noah built an altar to the LORD. He then took some of every kind of clean animal and clean bird and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

<sup>21</sup> And the LORD smelled the soothing aroma and said to himself, "I will never again curse the ground because of humankind, even though the inclination of their minds is evil from childhood on. I will never again destroy everything that lives, as I have just done.

<sup>22</sup> "While the earth continues to exist, planting time and harvest, cold and heat,
summer and winter,
and day and night will not cease."

<sup>1</sup> Then God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth.

<sup>2</sup> Every living creature of the earth and every bird of the sky will be terrified of you. Everything that creeps on the ground and all the fish of the sea are under your authority.

<sup>3</sup> You may eat any moving thing that lives. As I gave you the green plants, I now give you everything.

<sup>5</sup> For your lifeblood I will surely exact punishment, from every living creature I will exact punishment. From each person I will exact punishment for the life of the individual since the man was his relative.

by other humans must his blood be shed; for in God's image
God has made humankind."

<sup>7</sup> But as for you, be fruitful and multiply; increase abundantly on the earth and multiply on it."

<sup>8</sup> God said to Noah and his sons,

<sup>10</sup> and with every living creature that is with you, including the birds, the domestic animals, and every living creature of the earth with you, all those that came out of the ark with you – every living creature of the earth.

<sup>11</sup> I confirm my covenant with you: Never again will all living things be wiped out by the waters of a flood; never again will a flood destroy the earth.”

<sup>12</sup> And God said, “This is the guarantee of the covenant I am making with you and every living creature with you, a covenant for all subsequent generations:

<sup>13</sup> I will place my rainbow in the clouds, and it will become a guarantee of the covenant between me and the earth.

<sup>14</sup> Whenever I bring clouds over the earth and the rainbow appears in the clouds, <sup>15</sup> then I will remember my covenant with you and with all living creatures of all kinds. Never again will the waters become a flood and destroy all living things.

<sup>16</sup> When the rainbow is in the clouds, I will notice it and remember the perpetual covenant between God and all living creatures of all kinds that are on the earth.”

<sup>17</sup> So God said to Noah, “This is the guarantee of the covenant that I am confirming between me and all living things that are on the earth.”

The Curse of Canaan

<sup>18</sup> The sons of Noah who came out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. (Now Ham was the father of Canaan.)

<sup>19</sup> These were the sons of Noah, and from them the whole earth was populated.

<sup>23</sup> Shem and Japheth took the garment and placed it on their shoulders. Then they walked in backwards and covered up their father’s nakedness. Their faces were turned the other way so they did not see their father’s nakedness.

“Cursed be Canaan!
The lowest of slaves
he will be to his brothers.”

<sup>26</sup> He also said,
“Worthy of praise is the LORD, the God of Shem!
May Canaan be the slave of Shem!

May he live in the tents of Shem and may Canaan be his slave!”

<sup>29</sup> The entire lifetime of Noah was 950 years, and then he died.

10

<sup>7</sup> The sons of Cush were Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabteca. The sons of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan.

<sup>8</sup> Cush was the father of Nimrod; he began to be a valiant warrior on the earth.

<sup>21</sup> And sons were also born to Shem (the older brother of Japheth), the father of all the sons of Eber.

<sup>25</sup> Two sons were born to Eber: One was named Peleg because in his days the earth was divided, and his brother's name was Joktan.

<sup>32</sup> These are the families of the sons of Noah, according to their genealogies, by their nations, and from these the nations spread over the earth after the flood.

<sup>3</sup> Then they said to one another, “Come, let’s make bricks and bake them thoroughly.” (They had brick instead of stone and tar instead of mortar.)

<sup>4</sup> Then they said, “Come, let’s build ourselves a city and a tower with its top in the heavens so that we may make a name for ourselves. Otherwise we will be scattered across the face of the entire earth.”

<sup>5</sup> But the LORD came down to see the city and the tower that the people had started building.

<sup>6</sup> And the LORD said, “If as one people all sharing a common language they have begun to do this, then nothing they plan to do will be beyond them.

<sup>8</sup> So the LORD scattered them from there across the face of the entire earth, and they stopped building the city.

<sup>9</sup> That is why its name was called Babel – because there the LORD confused the language of the entire world, and from there the LORD scattered them across the face of the entire earth.

The Genealogy of Shem

Shem was 100 old when he became the father of Arphaxad, two years after the flood.

<sup>11</sup> And after becoming the father of Arphaxad, Shem lived 500 years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>12</sup> When Arphaxad had lived 35 years, he became the father of Shelah.

<sup>13</sup> And after he became the father of Shelah, Arphaxad lived 403 years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>15</sup> And after he became the father of Eber, Shelah lived 403 years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>17</sup> And after he became the father of Peleg, Eber lived 430 years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>19</sup> And after he became the father of Reu, Peleg lived 209 years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>21</sup> And after he became the father of Serug, Reu lived 207 years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>23</sup> And after he became the father of Nahor, Serug lived 200 years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>24</sup> When Nahor had lived 29 years, he became the father of Terah.

<sup>25</sup> And after he became the father of Terah, Nahor lived 119 years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>26</sup> When Terah had lived 70 years, he became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

The Record of Terah

Terah became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran. And Haran became the father of Lot.

<sup>29</sup> And Abram and Nahor took wives for themselves. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah; she was the daughter of Haran, the father of both Milcah and Iscah.

<sup>31</sup> Terah took his son Abram, his grandson Lot (the son of Haran), and his daughter-in-law Sarai, his son Abram's wife, and with them he set out from Ur of the Chaldeans to go to Canaan. When they came to Haran, they settled there.

“Go out from your country, your relatives, and your father's household to the land that I will show you.

<sup>2</sup> Then I will make you into a great nation, and I will bless you, and I will make your name great,

so that you will exemplify divine blessing.

<sup>3</sup> I will bless those who bless you, but the one who treats you lightly I must curse, and all the families of the earth will bless one another by your name.”

<sup>7</sup> The LORD appeared to Abram and said, “To your descendants I will give this land.” So Abram built an altar there to the LORD, who had appeared to him.

<sup>8</sup> Then he moved from there to the hill country east of Bethel and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. There he built an altar to the LORD and worshiped the LORD.

The Promised Blessing Jeopardized

<sup>10</sup> There was a famine in the land, so Abram went down to Egypt to stay for a while because the famine was severe.

<sup>11</sup> As he approached Egypt, he said to his wife Sarai, “Look, I know that you are a beautiful woman.

<sup>12</sup> When the Egyptians see you they will say, ‘This is his wife.’ Then they will kill me but will keep you alive.

<sup>13</sup> So tell them you are my sister so that it may go well for me because of you and my life will be spared on account of you.”

<sup>15</sup> When Pharaoh’s officials saw her, they praised her to Pharaoh. So Abram’s wife was taken into the household of Pharaoh, <sup>16</sup> and he did treat Abram well on account of her. Abram received sheep and cattle, male donkeys, male servants, female servants, female donkeys, and camels.

<sup>18</sup> So Pharaoh summoned Abram and said, “What is this you have done to me? Why didn’t you tell me that she was your wife?

<sup>3</sup> And he journeyed from place to place from the Negev as far as Bethel. He returned to the place where he had pitched his tent at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai.

<sup>4</sup> This was the place where he had first built the altar, and there Abram worshiped the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> But the land could not support them while they were living side by side. Because their possessions were so great, they were not able to live alongside one another.

<sup>7</sup> So there were quarrels between Abram's herdsmen and Lot's herdsmen. (Now the Canaanites and the Perizzites were living in the land at that time.)

<sup>8</sup> Abram said to Lot, "Let there be no quarreling between me and you, and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, for we are close relatives.

<sup>10</sup> Lot looked up and saw the whole region of the Jordan. He noticed that all of it was well-watered (before the LORD obliterated Sodom and Gomorrah) like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, all the way to Zoar.

<sup>11</sup> Lot chose for himself the whole region of the Jordan and traveled toward the east. So the relatives separated from each other.

<sup>15</sup> I will give all the land that you see to you and your descendants forever.

<sup>16</sup> And I will make your descendants like the dust of the earth, so that if anyone is able to count the dust of the earth, then your descendants also can be counted.

<sup>17</sup> Get up and walk throughout the land, for I will give it to you."

<sup>18</sup> So Abram moved his tents and went to live by the oaks of Mamre in Hebron, and he built an altar to the LORD there.

<sup>5</sup> In the fourteenth year, Kedorlaomer and the kings who were his allies came and defeated the Rephaites in Ashteroth Karnaim, the Zuzites in Ham, the Emmites in Shaveh Kiriathaim, <sup>6</sup> and the Horites in their hill country of Seir, as far as El Paran, which is near the desert.

<sup>7</sup> Then they attacked En Mishpat (that is, Kadesh) again, and they conquered all the territory of the Amalekites, as well as the Amorites who were living in Hazazon Tamar.

<sup>15</sup> Then, during the night, Abram divided his forces against them and defeated them. He chased them as far as Hobah, which is north of Damascus.

<sup>16</sup> He retrieved all the stolen property. He also brought back his nephew Lot and his possessions, as well as the women and the rest of the people.

<sup>17</sup> After Abram returned from defeating Kedorlaomer and the kings who were with him, the king of Sodom went out to meet Abram in the Valley of Shaveh (known as the King's Valley).

<sup>19</sup> He blessed Abram, saying,
"Blessed be Abram by the Most High God,
Creator of heaven and earth.

<sup>20</sup> Worthy of praise is the Most High God, who delivered your enemies into your hand."

Abram gave Melchizedek a tenth of everything.

<sup>21</sup> Then the king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the people and take the possessions for yourself."

<sup>22</sup> But Abram replied to the king of Sodom, "I raise my hand to the LORD, the Most High God, Creator of heaven and earth, and vow

<sup>23</sup> that I will take nothing belonging to you, not even a thread or the strap of a sandal. That way you can never say, 'It is I who made Abram rich.'

<sup>24</sup> I will take nothing except compensation for what the young men have eaten. As for the share of the men who went with me - Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre - let them take their share."

15

<sup>1</sup> After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision: "Fear not, Abram! I am your shield and the one who will reward you in great abundance."

<sup>2</sup> But Abram said, "O sovereign LORD, what will you give me since I continue to be childless, and my heir is Eliezer of Damascus?"

<sup>3</sup> Abram added, "Since you have not given me a descendant, then look, one born in my house will be my heir!"

<sup>4</sup> But look, the word of the LORD came to him: "This man will not be your heir, but instead a son who comes from your own body will be your heir."

<sup>5</sup> The LORD took him outside and said, "Gaze into the sky and count the stars - if you are able to count them!" Then he said to him, "So will your descendants be."

<sup>7</sup> The LORD said to him, "I am the LORD who brought you out from Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land to possess."

<sup>8</sup> But Abram said, "O sovereign LORD, by what can I know that I am to possess it?"

<sup>9</sup> The LORD said to him, "Take for me a heifer, a goat, and a ram, each three years old, along with a dove and a young pigeon."

<sup>10</sup> So Abram took all these for him and then cut them in two and placed each half opposite the other, but he did not cut the birds in half.

<sup>13</sup> Then the LORD said| strong="H0559" to Abram, "Know for certain that your descendants will be strangers in a foreign country. They will be enslaved and oppressed for four hundred years.

<sup>15</sup> But as for you, you will go to your ancestors in peace and be buried at a good old age.

<sup>2</sup> So Sarai said to Abram, "Since the LORD has prevented me from having children, have sexual relations with my servant. Perhaps I can have a family by her." Abram did what Sarai told him.

<sup>4</sup> He had sexual relations with Hagar, and she became pregnant. Once Hagar realized she was pregnant, she despised Sarai.

<sup>5</sup> Then Sarai said to Abram, "You have brought this wrong on me! I allowed my servant to have sexual relations with you, but when she realized that she was pregnant, she despised me. May the LORD judge between you and me!"

<sup>8</sup> He said, "Hagar, servant of Sarai, where have you come from, and where are you going?" She replied, "I'm running away from my mistress, Sarai."

<sup>10</sup> I will greatly multiply your descendants," the LORD's angel added, "so that they will be too numerous to count."

<sup>11</sup> Then the LORD's angel said to her,

"You are now pregnant and are about to give birth to a son.
You are to name him Ishmael, for the LORD has heard your painful groans.

<sup>12</sup> He will be a wild donkey of a man.

He will be hostile to everyone, and everyone will be hostile to him.
He will live away from his brothers.”

<sup>13</sup> So Hagar named the LORD who spoke to her, “You are the God who sees me,” for she said, “Here I have seen one who sees me!”

<sup>14</sup> That is why the well was called Beer Lahai Roi. (It is located between Kadesh and Bered.)

17

<sup>1</sup> When Abram was 99 years old, the LORD appeared to him and said, “I am the sovereign God. Walk before me and be blameless.

<sup>2</sup> Then I will confirm my covenant between me and you, and I will give you a multitude of descendants.”

<sup>3</sup> Abram bowed down with his face to the ground, and God said to him, <sup>4</sup> “As for me, this is my covenant with you: You will be the father of a multitude of nations.

<sup>5</sup> No longer will your name be Abram. Instead, your name will be Abraham because I will make you the father of a multitude of nations.

<sup>6</sup> I will make you extremely fruitful. I will make nations of you, and kings will descend from you.

<sup>7</sup> I will confirm my covenant as a perpetual covenant between me and you. It will extend to your descendants after you throughout their generations. I will be your God and the God of your descendants after you.

<sup>8</sup> I will give the whole land of Canaan – the land where you are now residing – to you and your descendants after you as a permanent possession. I will be their God.”

<sup>9</sup> Then God said to Abraham, “As for you, you must keep the covenantal requirement I am imposing on you and your descendants after you throughout their generations.

<sup>10</sup> This is my requirement that you and your descendants after you must keep: Every male among you must be circumcised.

<sup>11</sup> You must circumcise the flesh of your foreskins. This will be a reminder of the covenant between me and you.

<sup>12</sup> Throughout your generations every male among you who is eight days old must be circumcised, whether born in your house or bought with money from any foreigner who is not one of your descendants.

<sup>13</sup> They must indeed be circumcised, whether born in your house or bought with money. The sign of my covenant will be visible in your flesh as a permanent reminder.

<sup>14</sup> Any uncircumcised male who has not been circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin will be cut off from his people – he has failed to carry out my requirement.”

<sup>15</sup> Then God said to Abraham, “As for your wife, you must no longer call her Sarai; Sarah will be her name.

<sup>16</sup> I will bless her and will give you a son through her. I will bless her and she will become a mother of nations. Kings of countries will come from her!”

<sup>17</sup> Then Abraham bowed down with his face to the ground and laughed as he said to himself, “Can a son be born to a man who is a hundred years old? Can Sarah bear a child at the age of ninety?”

<sup>19</sup> God said, “No, Sarah your wife is going to bear you a son, and you will name him Isaac. I will confirm my covenant with him as a perpetual covenant for his descendants after him.

<sup>20</sup> As for Ishmael, I have heard you. I will indeed bless him, make him fruitful, and give him a multitude of descendants. He will become the father of twelve princes; I will make him into a great nation.

<sup>23</sup> Abraham took his son Ishmael and every male in his household (whether born in his house or bought with money) and circumcised them on that very same day, just as God had told him to do.

<sup>3</sup> He said, "My lord, if I have found favor in your sight, do not pass by and leave your servant.

<sup>4</sup> Let a little water be brought so that you may all wash your feet and rest under the tree.

<sup>5</sup> And let me get a bit of food so that you may refresh yourselves since you have passed by your servant's home. After that you may be on your way." "All right," they replied, "you may do as you say."

<sup>7</sup> Then Abraham ran to the herd and chose a fine, tender calf, and gave it to a servant, who quickly prepared it.

<sup>8</sup> Abraham then took some curds and milk, along with the calf that had been prepared, and placed the food before them. They ate while he was standing near them under a tree.

<sup>9</sup> Then they asked him, "Where is Sarah your wife?" He replied, "There, in the tent."

<sup>10</sup> One of them said, "I will surely return to you when the season comes round again, and your wife Sarah will have a son!" (Now Sarah was listening at the entrance to the tent, not far behind him.

<sup>12</sup> So Sarah laughed to herself, thinking, "After I am worn out will I have pleasure, especially when my husband is old too?"

<sup>13</sup> The LORD said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh and say, 'Will I really have a child when I am old?'"

<sup>14</sup> Is anything impossible for the LORD? I will return to you when the season comes round again and Sarah will have a son."

<sup>15</sup> Then Sarah lied, saying, "I did not laugh," because she was afraid. But the LORD said |strong="H0559", "No! You did laugh."

Abraham Pleads for Sodom

<sup>16</sup> When the men got up to leave, they looked out over Sodom. (Now Abraham was walking with them to see them on their way.)

<sup>17</sup> Then the LORD said, "Should I hide from Abraham what I am about to do?"

<sup>18</sup> After all, Abraham will surely become a great and powerful nation, and all the nations on the earth will pronounce blessings on one another using his name.

<sup>19</sup> I have chosen him so that he may command his children and his household after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing what is right and just. Then the LORD will give to Abraham what he promised him."

<sup>20</sup> So the LORD said, "The outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is so great and their sin so blatant <sup>21</sup> that I must go down and see if they are as wicked as the outcry suggests. If not, I want to know."

<sup>23</sup> Abraham approached and said, "Will you sweep away the godly along with the wicked?"

<sup>24</sup> What if there are fifty godly people in the city? Will you really wipe it out and not spare the place for the sake of the fifty godly people who are in it?"

<sup>25</sup> Far be it from you to do such a thing – to kill the godly with the wicked, treating the godly and the wicked alike! Far be it from you! Will not the judge of the whole earth do what is right?"

<sup>26</sup> So the LORD replied, "If I find in the city of Sodom fifty godly people, I will spare the whole place for their sake."

<sup>27</sup> Then Abraham asked, "Since I have undertaken to speak to the Lord (although I am but dust and ashes), <sup>28</sup> what if there are five less than the fifty godly people? Will you destroy the whole city because five are lacking?" He replied, "I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there."

<sup>29</sup> Abraham spoke to him again, "What if forty are found there?" He replied, "I will not do it for the sake of the forty."

<sup>30</sup> Then Abraham said, "May the Lord not be angry so that I may speak! What if thirty are found there?" He replied, "I will not do it if I find thirty there."

<sup>31</sup> Abraham said, "Since I have undertaken to speak to the Lord, what if only twenty are found there?" He replied, "I will not destroy it for the sake of the twenty."

<sup>32</sup> Finally Abraham said, "May the Lord not be angry so that I may speak just once more. What if ten are found there?" He replied, "I will not destroy it for the sake of the ten."

<sup>33</sup> The LORD went on his way when he had finished speaking to Abraham. Then Abraham returned home.

<sup>1</sup> The two angels came to Sodom in the evening while Lot was sitting in the city's gateway. When Lot saw them, he got up to meet them and bowed down with his face toward the ground.

<sup>2</sup> He said, "Here, my lords, please turn aside to your servant's house. Stay the night and wash your feet. Then you can be on your way early in the morning." "No," they replied, "we'll spend the night in the town square."

<sup>3</sup> But he urged them persistently, so they turned aside with him and entered his house. He prepared a feast for them, including bread baked without yeast, and they ate.

<sup>5</sup> They shouted to Lot, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us so we can have sex with them!"

<sup>8</sup> Look, I have two daughters who have never had sexual relations with a man. Let me bring them out to you, and you can do to them whatever you please. Only don't do anything to these men, for they have come under the protection of my roof."

<sup>9</sup> "Out of our way!" they cried, and "This man came to live here as a foreigner, and now he dares to judge us! We'll do more harm to you than to them!" They kept pressing in on Lot until they were close enough to break down the door.

<sup>12</sup> Then the two visitors said to Lot, "Who else do you have here? Do you have any sons-in-law, sons, daughters, or other relatives in the city? Get them out of this place

<sup>13</sup> because we are about to destroy it. The outcry against this place is so great before the LORD that he has sent us to destroy it."

<sup>14</sup> Then Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law who were going to marry his daughters. He said, "Quick, get out of this place because the LORD is about to destroy the city!" But his sons-in-law thought he was ridiculing them.

<sup>15</sup> At dawn the angels hurried Lot along, saying, "Get going! Take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or else you will be destroyed when the city is judged!"

<sup>16</sup> When Lot hesitated, the men grabbed his hand and the hands of his wife and two daughters because the LORD had compassion on them. They led them away and placed them outside the city.

<sup>17</sup> When they had brought them outside, they said, "Run for your lives! Don't look behind you or stop anywhere in the valley! Escape to the mountains or you will be destroyed!"

<sup>18</sup> But Lot said to them, "No, please, Lord!

<sup>19</sup> Your servant has found favor with you, and you have shown me great kindness by sparing my life. But I am not able to escape to the mountains because this disaster will overtake me and I'll die.

<sup>21</sup> "Very well," he replied, "I will grant this request too and will not overthrow the town you mentioned.

<sup>24</sup> Then the LORD rained down sulfur and fire on Sodom and Gomorrah. It was sent down from the sky by the LORD.

<sup>25</sup> So he overthrew those cities and all that region, including all the inhabitants of the cities and the vegetation that grew from the ground.

<sup>27</sup> Abraham got up early in the morning and went to the place where he had stood before the LORD.

<sup>28</sup> He looked out toward Sodom and Gomorrah and all the land of that region. As he did so, he saw the smoke rising up from the land like smoke from a furnace.

<sup>29</sup> So when God destroyed the cities of the region, God honored Abraham's request. He removed Lot from the midst of the destruction when he destroyed the cities Lot had lived in.

<sup>30</sup> Lot went up from Zoar with his two daughters and settled in the mountains because he was afraid to live in Zoar. So he lived in a cave with his two daughters.

<sup>31</sup> Later the older daughter said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is no man anywhere nearby to have sexual relations with us, according to the way of all the world.

<sup>32</sup> Come, let's make our father drunk with wine so we can have sexual relations with him and preserve our family line through our father."

<sup>33</sup> So that night they made their father drunk with wine, and the older daughter came and had sexual relations with her father. But he was not aware that she had sexual relations with him and then got up.

<sup>34</sup> So in the morning the older daughter said to the younger, "Since I had sexual relations with my father last night, let's make him drunk again tonight. Then you go and have sexual relations with him so we can preserve our family line through our father."

<sup>35</sup> So they made their father drunk that night as well, and the younger one came and had sexual relations with him. But he was not aware that she had sexual relations with him and then got up.

20

<sup>3</sup> But God appeared to Abimelech in a dream at night and said to him, "You are as good as dead because of the woman you have taken, for she is someone else's wife."

<sup>5</sup> Did Abraham not say to me, 'She is my sister'? And she herself said, 'He is my brother.' I have done this with a clear conscience and with innocent hands!"

<sup>6</sup> Then in the dream God replied to him, "Yes, I know that you have done this with a clear conscience. That is why I have kept you from sinning against me and why I did not allow you to touch her.

<sup>7</sup> But now give back the man's wife. Indeed he is a prophet and he will pray for you; thus you will live. But if you don't give her back, know that you will surely die along with all who belong to you."

<sup>8</sup> Early in the morning Abimelech summoned all his servants. When he told them about all these things, they were terrified.

<sup>9</sup> Abimelech summoned Abraham and said to him, "What have you done to us? What sin did I commit against you that would cause you to bring such great guilt on me and my kingdom? You have done things to me that should not be done!"

<sup>13</sup> When God made me wander from my father's house, I told her, 'This is what you can do to show your loyalty to me: Every place we go, say about me, "He is my brother." ' "

<sup>15</sup> Then Abimelech said, "Look, my land is before you; live wherever you please."

<sup>16</sup> To Sarah he said, “Look, I have given a thousand pieces of silver to your ‘brother.’ This is compensation for you so that you will stand vindicated before all who are with you.”

<sup>17</sup> Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech, as well as his wife and female slaves so that they were able to have children.

<sup>4</sup> When his son Isaac was eight days old, Abraham circumcised him just as God had commanded him to do.

<sup>6</sup> Sarah said, “God has made me laugh. Everyone who hears about this will laugh with me.”

<sup>7</sup> She went on to say, “Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have given birth to a son for him in his old age!”

<sup>9</sup> But Sarah noticed the son of Hagar the Egyptian – the son whom Hagar had borne to Abraham – mocking.

<sup>10</sup> So she said to Abraham, “Banish that slave woman and her son, for the son of that slave woman will not be an heir along with my son Isaac!”

<sup>12</sup> But God said to Abraham, “Do not be upset about the boy or your slave wife. Do all that Sarah is telling you because through Isaac your descendants will be counted.

<sup>14</sup> Early in the morning Abraham took some food and a skin of water and gave them to Hagar. He put them on her shoulders, gave her the child, and sent her away. So she went wandering aimlessly through the wilderness of Beer Sheba.

<sup>15</sup> When the water in the skin was gone, she shoved the child under one of the shrubs.

<sup>16</sup> Then she went and sat down by herself across from him at quite a distance, about a bowshot away; for she thought, “I refuse to watch the child die.” So she sat across from him and wept uncontrollably.

<sup>17</sup> But God heard the boy’s voice. The angel of God called to Hagar from heaven and asked her, “What is the matter, Hagar? Don’t be afraid, for God has heard the boy’s voice right where he is crying.

<sup>18</sup> Get up! Help the boy up and hold him by the hand, for I will make him into a great nation.”

<sup>20</sup> God was with the boy as he grew. He lived in the wilderness and became an archer.

<sup>22</sup> At that time Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, said to Abraham, “God is with you in all that you do.

<sup>23</sup> Now swear to me right here in God's name that you will not deceive me, my children, or my descendants. Show me, and the land where you are staying, the same loyalty that I have shown you."

<sup>26</sup> "I do not know who has done this thing," Abimelech replied. "Moreover, you did not tell me. I did not hear about it until today."

<sup>31</sup> That is why he named that place Beer Sheba, because the two of them swore an oath there.

<sup>32</sup> So they made a treaty at Beer Sheba. Then Abimelech and Phicol, the commander of his army, returned to the land of the Philistines.

<sup>33</sup> Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beer Sheba. There he worshiped the LORD, the eternal God.

<sup>1</sup> Some time after these things God tested Abraham. He said to him, "Abraham!" "Here I am!" Abraham replied.

<sup>2</sup> God said, "Take your son – your only son, whom you love, Isaac – and go to the land of Moriah! Offer him up there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains which I will indicate to you."

<sup>3</sup> Early in the morning Abraham got up and saddled his donkey. He took two of his young servants with him, along with his son Isaac. When he had cut the wood for the burnt offering, he started out for the place God had spoken to him about.

<sup>5</sup> So he said to his servants, "You two stay here with the donkey while the boy and I go up there. We will worship and then return to you."

<sup>6</sup> Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and put it on his son Isaac. Then he took the fire and the knife in his hand, and the two of them walked on together.

<sup>7</sup> Isaac said to his father Abraham, "My father?" "What is it, my son?" he replied. "Here is the fire and the wood," Isaac said, "but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?"

<sup>8</sup> "God will provide for himself the lamb for the burnt offering, my son," Abraham replied. The two of them continued on together.

<sup>9</sup> When they came to the place God had told him about, Abraham built the altar there and arranged the wood on it. Next he tied up his son Isaac and placed him on the altar on top of the wood.

<sup>11</sup> But the LORD's angel called to him from heaven, "Abraham! Abraham!" "Here I am!" he answered.

<sup>12</sup> "Do not harm the boy!" the angel said. "Do not do anything to him, for now I know that you fear God because you did not withhold your son, your only son, from me."

<sup>13</sup> Abraham looked up and saw behind him a ram caught in the bushes by its horns. So he went over and got the ram and offered it up as a burnt offering instead of his son.

<sup>14</sup> And Abraham called the name of that place "The LORD provides." It is said to this day, "In the mountain of the LORD provision will be made."

<sup>16</sup> and said, " 'I solemnly swear by my own name,' decrees the LORD, 'that because you have done this and have not withheld your son, your only son,

<sup>17</sup> I will indeed bless you, and I will greatly multiply your descendants so that they will be as countless as the stars in the sky or the grains of sand on the seashore. Your descendants will take possession of the strongholds of their enemies.

<sup>18</sup> Because you have obeyed me, all the nations of the earth will pronounce blessings on one another using the name of your descendants.' "

<sup>4</sup> "I am a temporary settler among you. Grant me ownership of a burial site among you so that I may bury my dead."

<sup>6</sup> "Listen, sir, you are a mighty prince among us! You may bury your dead in the choicest of our tombs. None of us will refuse you his tomb to prevent you from burying your dead."

<sup>8</sup> Then he said to them, "If you agree that I may bury my dead, then hear me out. Ask Ephron the son of Zohar

<sup>9</sup> if he will sell me the cave of Machpelah that belongs to him; it is at the end of his field. Let him sell it to me publicly for the full price, so that I may own it as a burial site."

<sup>10</sup> (Now Ephron was sitting among the sons of Heth.) Ephron the Hethite replied to Abraham in the hearing of the sons of Heth - before all who entered the gate of his city -

<sup>11</sup> "No, my lord! Hear me out. I sell you both the field and the cave that is in it. In the presence of my people I sell it to you. Bury your dead."

<sup>13</sup> and said to Ephron in their hearing, "Hear me, if you will. I pay to you the price of the field. Take it from me so that I may bury my dead there."

<sup>15</sup> "Hear me, my lord. The land is worth 400 pieces of silver, but what is that between me and you? So bury your dead."

<sup>16</sup> So Abraham agreed to Ephron's price and weighed out for him the price that Ephron had quoted in the hearing of the sons of Heth – 400 pieces of silver, according to the standard measurement at the time.

<sup>17</sup> So Abraham secured Ephron's field in Machpelah, next to Mamre, including the field, the cave that was in it, and all the trees that were in the field and all around its border,

24

<sup>2</sup> Abraham said to his servant, the senior one in his household who was in charge of everything he had, "Put your hand under my thigh

<sup>3</sup> so that I may make you solemnly promise by the LORD, the God of heaven and the God of the earth: You must not acquire a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I am living.

<sup>4</sup> You must go instead to my country and to my relatives to find a wife for my son Isaac."

<sup>5</sup> The servant asked him, "What if the woman is not willing to come back with me to this land? Must I then take your son back to the land from which you came?"

<sup>6</sup> "Be careful never to take my son back there!" Abraham told him.

<sup>7</sup> "The LORD, the God of heaven, who took me from my father's house and the land of my relatives, promised me with a solemn oath, 'To your descendants I will give this land.' He will send his angel before you so that you may find a wife for my son from there.

<sup>8</sup> But if the woman is not willing to come back with you, you will be free from this oath of mine. But you must not take my son back there!"

<sup>9</sup> So the servant placed his hand under the thigh of his master Abraham and gave his solemn promise he would carry out his wishes.

<sup>11</sup> He made the camels kneel down by the well outside the city. It was evening, the time when the women would go out to draw water.

<sup>12</sup> He prayed, "O LORD, God of my master Abraham, guide me today. Be faithful to my master Abraham.

<sup>13</sup> Here I am, standing by the spring, and the daughters of the people who live in the town are coming out to draw water.

<sup>14</sup> I will say to a young woman, 'Please lower your jar so I may drink.' May the one you have chosen for your servant Isaac reply, 'Drink, and I'll give your camels water too.' In this way I will know that you have been faithful to my master."

<sup>15</sup> Before he had finished praying, there came Rebekah with her water jug on her shoulder. She was the daughter of Bethuel son of Milcah (Milcah was the wife of Abraham's brother Nahor).

<sup>17</sup> Abraham's servant ran to meet her and said, "Please give me a sip of water from your jug."

<sup>19</sup> When she had done so, she said, "I'll draw water for your camels too, until they have drunk as much as they want."

<sup>21</sup> Silently the man watched her with interest to determine if the LORD had made his journey successful or not.

<sup>22</sup> After the camels had finished drinking, the man took out a gold nose ring weighing a beka and two gold bracelets weighing ten shekels and gave them to her.

<sup>23</sup> "Whose daughter are you?" he asked. "Tell me, is there room in your father's house for us to spend the night?"

<sup>27</sup> saying "Praised be the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who has not abandoned his faithful love for my master! The LORD has led me to the house of my master's relatives!"

<sup>30</sup> When he saw the bracelets on his sister's wrists and the nose ring and heard his sister Rebekah say, "This is what the man said to me," he went out to meet the man. There he was, standing by the camels near the spring.

<sup>31</sup> Laban said to him, "Come, you who are blessed by the LORD! Why are you standing out here when I have prepared the house and a place for the camels?"

<sup>32</sup> So Abraham's servant went to the house and unloaded the camels. Straw and feed were given to the camels, and water was provided so that he and the men who were with him could wash their feet.

<sup>33</sup> When food was served, he said, "I will not eat until I have said what I want to say." "Tell us," Laban said.

<sup>34</sup> "I am the servant of Abraham," he began.

<sup>35</sup> "The LORD has richly blessed my master and he has become very wealthy. The Lord has given him sheep and cattle, silver and gold, male and female servants, and camels and donkeys.

<sup>36</sup> My master's wife Sarah bore a son to him when she was old, and my master has given him everything he owns.

<sup>37</sup> My master made me swear an oath. He said, 'You must not acquire a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I am living,

<sup>38</sup> but you must go to the family of my father and to my relatives to find a wife for my son.'

<sup>39</sup> But I said to my master, 'What if the woman does not want to go with me?'

<sup>40</sup> He answered, 'The LORD, before whom I have walked, will send his angel with you. He will make your journey a success and you will find a wife for my son from among my relatives, from my father's family.

<sup>41</sup> You will be free from your oath if you go to my relatives and they will not give her to you. Then you will be free from your oath.'

<sup>42</sup> When I came to the spring today, I prayed, ‘O LORD, God of my master Abraham, if you have decided to make my journey successful, may events unfold as follows:

<sup>44</sup> Then she will reply to me, “Drink, and I’ll draw water for your camels too.” May that woman be the one whom the LORD has chosen for my master’s son.’

<sup>45</sup> “Before I finished praying in my heart, along came Rebekah with her water jug on her shoulder! She went down to the spring and drew water. So I said to her, ‘Please give me a drink.’

<sup>46</sup> She quickly lowered her jug from her shoulder and said, ‘Drink, and I’ll give your camels water too.’ So I drank, and she also gave the camels water.

<sup>47</sup> Then I asked her, ‘Whose daughter are you?’ She replied, ‘The daughter of Bethuel the son of Nahor, whom Milcah bore to Nahor.’ I put the ring in her nose and the bracelets on her wrists.

<sup>48</sup> Then I bowed down and worshiped the LORD. I praised the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me on the right path to find the granddaughter of my master’s brother for his son.

<sup>49</sup> Now, if you will show faithful love to my master, tell me. But if not, tell me as well, so that I may go on my way.”

<sup>50</sup> Then Laban and Bethuel replied, “This is the LORD’s doing. Our wishes are of no concern.

<sup>53</sup> Then he brought out gold, silver jewelry, and clothing and gave them to Rebekah. He also gave valuable gifts to her brother and to her mother.

<sup>54</sup> After this, he and the men who were with him ate a meal and stayed there overnight. When they got up in the morning, he said, “Let me leave now so I can return to my master.”

<sup>56</sup> But he said to them, “Don’t detain me – the LORD has granted me success on my journey. Let me leave now so I may return to my master.”

May your descendants possess the strongholds of their enemies.”

<sup>63</sup> He went out to relax in the field in the early evening. Then he looked up and saw that there were camels approaching.

<sup>65</sup> and asked Abraham’s servant, “Who is that man walking in the field toward us?” “That is my master,” the servant replied. So she took her veil and covered herself.

The Sons of Ishmael

Jacob and Esau

<sup>19</sup> This is the account of Isaac, the son of Abraham.

Abraham became the father of Isaac.

<sup>22</sup> But the children struggled inside her, and she said, "If it is going to be like this, I'm not so sure I want to be pregnant!" So she asked the LORD,

<sup>23</sup> and the LORD said to her,

"Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples will be separated from within you.

One people will be stronger than the other, and the older will serve the younger."

<sup>30</sup> So Esau said to Jacob, "Feed me some of the red stuff – yes, this red stuff – because I'm starving!" (That is why he was also called Edom.)

<sup>33</sup> But Jacob said, "Swear an oath to me now." So Esau swore an oath to him and sold his birthright to Jacob.

<sup>34</sup> Then Jacob gave Esau some bread and lentil stew; Esau ate and drank, then got up and went out. So Esau despised his birthright.

26

<sup>1</sup> There was a famine in the land, subsequent to the earlier famine that occurred in the days of Abraham. Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines at Gerar.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD appeared to Isaac and said, "Do not go down to Egypt; settle down in the land that I will point out to you.

<sup>3</sup> Stay in this land. Then I will be with you and will bless you, for I will give all these lands to you and to your descendants, and I will fulfill the solemn promise I made to your father Abraham.

<sup>4</sup> I will multiply your descendants so they will be as numerous as the stars in the sky, and I will give them all these lands. All the nations of the earth will pronounce blessings on one another using the name of your descendants.

<sup>5</sup> All this will come to pass because Abraham obeyed me and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws."

<sup>7</sup> When the men of that place asked him about his wife, he replied, "She is my sister." He was afraid to say, "She is my wife," for he thought to himself, "The men of this place will kill me to get Rebekah because she is very beautiful."

<sup>8</sup> After Isaac had been there a long time, Abimelech king of the Philistines happened to look out a window and observed Isaac caressing his wife Rebekah.

<sup>9</sup> So Abimelech summoned Isaac and said, "She is really your wife! Why did you say, 'She is my sister'?" Isaac replied, "Because I thought someone might kill me to get her."

<sup>10</sup> Then Abimelech exclaimed, "What in the world have you done to us? One of the men might easily have had sexual relations with your wife, and you would have brought guilt on us!"

<sup>12</sup> When Isaac planted in that land, he reaped in the same year a hundred times what he had sown, because the LORD blessed him.

<sup>22</sup> Then he moved away from there and dug another well. They did not quarrel over it, so Isaac named it Rehoboth, saying, “For now the LORD has made room for us, and we will prosper in the land.”

<sup>24</sup> The LORD appeared to him that night and said, “I am the God of your father Abraham. Do not be afraid, for I am with you. I will bless you and multiply your descendants for the sake of my servant Abraham.”

<sup>27</sup> Isaac asked them, “Why have you come to me? You hate me and sent me away from you.”

<sup>28</sup> They replied, “We could plainly see that the LORD is with you. So we decided there should be a pact between us – between us and you. Allow us to make a treaty with you

<sup>29</sup> so that you will not do us any harm, just as we have not harmed you, but have always treated you well before sending you away in peace. Now you are blessed by the LORD.”

<sup>32</sup> That day Isaac’s servants came and told him about the well they had dug. “We’ve found water,” they reported.

<sup>33</sup> So he named it Shibah; that is why the name of the city has been Beer Sheba to this day.

27

<sup>1</sup> When Isaac was old and his eyes were so weak that he was almost blind, he called his older son Esau and said to him, “My son!” “Here I am!” Esau replied.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore, take your weapons – your quiver and your bow – and go out into the open fields and hunt down some wild game for me.

<sup>4</sup> Then prepare for me some tasty food, the kind I love, and bring it to me. Then I will eat it so that I may bless you before I die.”

<sup>6</sup> Rebekah said to her son Jacob, "Look, I overheard your father tell your brother Esau,
<sup>7</sup> 'Bring me some wild game and prepare for me some tasty food. Then I will eat it and bless you in the presence of the LORD before I die.'

<sup>8</sup> Now then, my son, do exactly what I tell you!

<sup>9</sup> Go to the flock and get me two of the best young goats. I'll prepare them in a tasty way for your father, just the way he loves them.

<sup>10</sup> Then you will take it to your father. Thus he will eat it and bless you before he dies."

<sup>12</sup> My father may touch me! Then he'll think I'm mocking him and I'll bring a curse on myself instead of a blessing."

<sup>17</sup> Then she handed the tasty food and the bread she had made to her son Jacob.

<sup>18</sup> He went to his father and said, "My father!" Isaac replied, "Here I am. Which are you, my son?"

<sup>19</sup> Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau, your firstborn. I've done as you told me. Now sit up and eat some of my wild game so that you can bless me."

<sup>20</sup> But Isaac asked his son, "How in the world did you find it so quickly, my son?" "Because the LORD your God brought it to me," he replied.

<sup>21</sup> Then Isaac said to Jacob, "Come closer so I can touch you, my son, and know for certain if you really are my son Esau."

<sup>24</sup> Then he asked, "Are you really my son Esau?" "I am," Jacob replied.

<sup>25</sup> Isaac said, "Bring some of the wild game for me to eat, my son. Then I will bless you." So Jacob brought it to him, and he ate it. He also brought him wine, and Isaac drank.

<sup>26</sup> Then his father Isaac said to him, "Come here and kiss me, my son."

<sup>27</sup> So Jacob went over and kissed him. When Isaac caught the scent of his clothing, he blessed him, saying,

"Yes, my son smells like the scent of an open field which the LORD has blessed.

<sup>28</sup> May God give you the dew of the sky and the richness of the earth, and plenty of grain and new wine.

<sup>29</sup> May peoples serve you and nations bow down to you.
You will be lord over your brothers, and the sons of your mother will bow down to you.
May those who curse you be cursed, and those who bless you be blessed."

<sup>31</sup> He also prepared some tasty food and brought it to his father. Esau said to him, "My father, get up and eat some of your son's wild game. Then you can bless me."

<sup>32</sup> His father Isaac asked, "Who are you?" "I am your firstborn son," he replied, "Esau!"

<sup>33</sup> Isaac began to shake violently and asked, "Then who else hunted game and brought it to me? I ate all of it just before you arrived, and I blessed him. He will indeed be blessed!"

<sup>34</sup> When Esau heard his father's words, he wailed loudly and bitterly. He said to his father, "Bless me too, my father!"

<sup>36</sup> Esau exclaimed, " 'Jacob' is the right name for him! He has tripped me up two times! He took away my birthright, and now, look, he has taken away my blessing!" Then he asked, "Have you not kept back a blessing for me?"

<sup>37</sup> Isaac replied to Esau, "Look! I have made him lord over you. I have made all his relatives his servants and provided him with grain and new wine. What is left that I can do for you, my son?"

<sup>38</sup> Esau said to his father, "Do you have only that one blessing, my father? Bless me too!" Then Esau wept loudly.

<sup>39</sup> So his father Isaac said to him,
"Indeed, your home will be away from the richness of the earth, and away from the dew of the sky above.

<sup>40</sup> You will live by your sword but you will serve your brother.
When you grow restless, you will tear off his yoke from your neck."

<sup>41</sup> So Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing his father had given to his brother. Esau said privately, "The time of mourning for my father is near; then I will kill my brother Jacob!"

<sup>42</sup> When Rebekah heard what her older son Esau had said, she quickly summoned her younger son Jacob and told him, "Look, your brother Esau is planning to get revenge by killing you.

<sup>45</sup> Stay there until your brother's anger against you subsides and he forgets what you did to him. Then I'll send someone to bring you back from there. Why should I lose both of you in one day?"

<sup>46</sup> Then Rebekah said to Isaac, "I am deeply depressed because of these daughters of Heth. If Jacob were to marry one of these daughters of Heth who live in this land, I would want to die!"

28

<sup>1</sup> So Isaac called for Jacob and blessed him. Then he commanded him, "You must not marry a Canaanite woman!

<sup>3</sup> May the sovereign God bless you! May he make you fruitful and give you a multitude of descendants! Then you will become a large nation.

<sup>4</sup> May he give you and your descendants the blessing he gave to Abraham so that you may possess the land God gave to Abraham, the land where you have been living as a temporary resident.”

<sup>5</sup> So Isaac sent Jacob on his way, and he went to Paddan Aram, to Laban son of Bethuel the Aramean and brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

<sup>9</sup> So Esau went to Ishmael and married Mahalath, the sister of Nebaioth and daughter of Abraham’s son Ishmael, along with the wives he already had.

Jacob’s Dream at Bethel

<sup>11</sup> He reached a certain place where he decided to camp because the sun had gone down. He took one of the stones and placed it near his head. Then he fell asleep in that place

<sup>12</sup> and had a dream. He saw a stairway erected on the earth with its top reaching to the heavens. The angels of God were going up and coming down it

<sup>13</sup> and the LORD stood at its top. He said, “I am the LORD, the God of your grandfather Abraham and the God of your father Isaac. I will give you and your descendants the ground you are lying on.

<sup>14</sup> Your descendants will be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread out to the west, east, north, and south. All the families of the earth will pronounce blessings on one another using your name and that of your descendants.

<sup>15</sup> I am with you! I will protect you wherever you go and will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have done what I promised you!”

<sup>17</sup> He was afraid and said, “What an awesome place this is! This is nothing else than the house of God! This is the gate of heaven!”

<sup>18</sup> Early in the morning Jacob took the stone he had placed near his head and set it up as a sacred stone. Then he poured oil on top of it.

<sup>19</sup> He called that place Bethel, although the former name of the town was Luz.

<sup>20</sup> Then Jacob made a vow, saying, “If God is with me and protects me on this journey I am taking and gives me food to eat and clothing to wear, <sup>21</sup> and I return safely to my father’s home, then the LORD will become my God.

<sup>22</sup> Then this stone that I have set up as a sacred stone will be the house of God, and I will surely give you back a tenth of everything you give me.”

29

<sup>3</sup> When all the flocks were gathered there, the shepherds would roll the stone off the mouth of the well and water the sheep. Then they would put the stone back in its place over the well’s mouth.

<sup>5</sup> So he said to them, "Do you know Laban, the grandson of Nahor?" "We know him," they said.

<sup>6</sup> "Is he well?" Jacob asked. They replied, "He is well. Now look, here comes his daughter Rachel with the sheep."

<sup>7</sup> Then Jacob said, "Since it is still the middle of the day, it is not time for the flocks to be gathered. You should water the sheep and then go and let them graze some more."

<sup>8</sup> "We can't," they said, "until all the flocks are gathered and the stone is rolled off the mouth of the well. Then we water the sheep."

<sup>12</sup> When Jacob explained to Rachel that he was a relative of her father and the son of Rebekah, she ran and told her father.

<sup>13</sup> When Laban heard this news about Jacob, his sister's son, he rushed out to meet him. He embraced him and kissed him and brought him to his house. Jacob told Laban how he was related to him.

<sup>14</sup> Then Laban said to him, "You are indeed my own flesh and blood." So Jacob stayed with him for a month.

<sup>15</sup> Then Laban said to Jacob, "Should you work for me for nothing because you are my relative? Tell me what your wages should be."

<sup>20</sup> So Jacob worked for seven years to acquire Rachel. But they seemed like only a few days to him because his love for her was so great.

<sup>25</sup> In the morning Jacob discovered it was Leah! So Jacob said to Laban, "What in the world have you done to me! Didn't I work for you in exchange for Rachel? Why have you tricked me?"

<sup>27</sup> Complete my older daughter's bridal week. Then we will give you the younger one too, in exchange for seven more years of work."

<sup>30</sup> Jacob had marital relations with Rachel as well. He loved Rachel more than Leah, so he worked for Laban for seven more years.

The Family of Jacob

<sup>31</sup> When the LORD saw that Leah was unloved, he enabled her to become pregnant while Rachel remained childless.

<sup>32</sup> So Leah became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She named him Reuben, for she said, "The LORD has looked with pity on my oppressed condition. Surely my husband will love me now."

<sup>33</sup> She became pregnant again and had another son. She said, "Because the LORD heard that I was unloved, he gave me this one too." So she named him Simeon.

<sup>34</sup> She became pregnant again and had another son. She said, "Now this time my husband will show me affection, because I have given birth to three sons for him." That is why he was named Levi.

<sup>35</sup> She became pregnant again and had another son. She said, "This time I will praise the LORD." That is why she named him Judah. Then she stopped having children.

30

<sup>1</sup> When Rachel saw that she could not give Jacob children, she became jealous of her sister. She said to Jacob, "Give me children or I'll die!"

<sup>6</sup> Then Rachel said, "God has vindicated me. He has responded to my prayer and given me a son." That is why she named him Dan.

<sup>8</sup> Then Rachel said, "I have fought a desperate struggle with my sister, but I have won." So she named him Naphtali.

<sup>13</sup> Leah said, "How happy I am, for women will call me happy!" So she named him Asher.

<sup>14</sup> At the time of the wheat harvest Reuben went out and found some mandrake plants in a field and brought them to his mother Leah. Rachel said to Leah, "Give me some of your son's mandrakes."

<sup>15</sup> But Leah replied, "Wasn't it enough that you've taken away my husband? Would you take away my son's mandrakes too?" "All right," Rachel said, "he may sleep with you tonight in exchange for your son's mandrakes."

<sup>16</sup> When Jacob came in from the fields that evening, Leah went out to meet him and said, "You must sleep with me because I have paid for your services with my son's mandrakes." So he had marital relations with her that night.

<sup>17</sup> God paid attention to Leah; she became pregnant and gave Jacob a son for the fifth time.

<sup>18</sup> Then Leah said, "God has granted me a reward because I gave my servant to my husband as a wife." So she named him Issachar.

<sup>20</sup> Then Leah said, "God has given me a good gift. Now my husband will honor me because I have given him six sons." So she named him Zebulun.

<sup>23</sup> She became pregnant and gave birth to a son. Then she said, "God has taken away my shame."

<sup>24</sup> She named him Joseph, saying, "May the LORD give me yet another son."

The Flocks of Jacob

<sup>25</sup> After Rachel had given birth to Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, "Send me on my way so that I can go home to my own country.

<sup>26</sup> Let me take my wives and my children whom I have acquired by working for you. Then I'll depart, because you know how hard I've worked for you."

<sup>27</sup> But Laban said to him, "If I have found favor in your sight, please stay here, for I have learned by divination that the LORD has blessed me on account of you."

<sup>29</sup> "You know how I have worked for you," Jacob replied, "and how well your livestock have fared under my care.

<sup>30</sup> Indeed, you had little before I arrived, but now your possessions have increased many times over. The LORD has blessed you wherever I worked. But now, how long must it be before I do something for my own family too?"

<sup>31</sup> So Laban asked, "What should I give you?" "You don't need to give me a thing," Jacob replied, "but if you agree to this one condition, I will continue to care for your flocks and protect them:

<sup>32</sup> Let me walk among all your flocks today and remove from them every speckled or spotted sheep, every dark-colored lamb, and the spotted or speckled goats. These animals will be my wages.

<sup>33</sup> My integrity will testify for me later on. When you come to verify that I've taken only the wages we agreed on, if I have in my possession any goat that is not speckled or spotted or any sheep that is not dark-colored, it will be considered stolen."

<sup>35</sup> So that day Laban removed the male goats that were streaked or spotted, all the female goats that were speckled or spotted (all that had any white on them), and all the dark-colored lambs, and put them in the care of his sons.

<sup>39</sup> When the sheep mated in front of the branches, they gave birth to young that were streaked or speckled or spotted.

<sup>40</sup> Jacob removed these lambs, but he made the rest of the flock face the streaked and completely dark-colored animals in Laban's flock. So he made separate flocks for himself and did not mix them with Laban's flocks.

<sup>41</sup> When the stronger females were in heat, Jacob would set up the branches in the troughs in front of the flock, so they would mate near the branches.

<sup>42</sup> But if the animals were weaker, he did not set the branches there. So the weaker animals ended up belonging to Laban and the stronger animals to Jacob.

31

<sup>1</sup> Jacob heard that Laban's sons were complaining, "Jacob has taken everything that belonged to our father! He has gotten rich at our father's expense!"

<sup>2</sup> When Jacob saw the look on Laban's face, he could tell his attitude toward him had changed.

<sup>3</sup> The LORD said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your fathers and to your relatives. I will be with you."

<sup>4</sup> So Jacob sent a message for Rachel and Leah to come to the field where his flocks were.

<sup>5</sup> There he said to them, "I can tell that your father's attitude toward me has changed, but the God of my father has been with me.

<sup>6</sup> You know that I've worked for your father as hard as I could, <sup>7</sup> but your father has humiliated me and changed my wages ten times. But God has not permitted him to do me any harm.

<sup>8</sup> If he said, 'The speckled animals will be your wage,' then the entire flock gave birth to speckled offspring. But if he said, 'The streaked animals will be your wage,' then the entire flock gave birth to streaked offspring.

<sup>9</sup> In this way God has snatched away your father's livestock and given them to me.

<sup>11</sup> In the dream the angel of God said to me, 'Jacob!' 'Here I am!' I replied.

<sup>12</sup> Then he said, 'Observe that all the male goats mating with the flock are streaked, speckled, or spotted, for I have observed all that Laban has done to you.

<sup>13</sup> I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed the sacred stone and made a vow to me. Now leave this land immediately and return to your native land.' "

<sup>14</sup> Then Rachel and Leah replied to him, "Do we still have any portion or inheritance in our father's house?

<sup>16</sup> Surely all the wealth that God snatched away from our father belongs to us and to our children. So now do everything God has told you."

<sup>18</sup> He took away all the livestock he had acquired in Paddan Aram and all his moveable property that he had accumulated. Then he set out toward the land of Canaan to return to his father Isaac.

<sup>25</sup> Laban overtook Jacob, and when Jacob pitched his tent in the hill country of Gilead, Laban and his relatives set up camp there too.

<sup>26</sup> “What have you done?” Laban demanded of Jacob. “You’ve deceived me and carried away my daughters as if they were captives of war!”

<sup>27</sup> Why did you run away secretly and deceive me? Why didn’t you tell me so I could send you off with a celebration complete with singing, tambourines, and harps?

<sup>28</sup> You didn’t even allow me to kiss my daughters and my grandchildren good-bye. You have acted foolishly!

<sup>29</sup> I have the power to do you harm, but the God of your father told me last night, ‘Be careful that you neither bless nor curse Jacob.’

<sup>30</sup> Now I understand that you have gone away because you longed desperately for your father’s house. Yet why did you steal my gods?”

<sup>32</sup> Whoever has taken your gods will be put to death! In the presence of our relatives identify whatever is yours and take it.” (Now Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.)

<sup>33</sup> So Laban entered Jacob’s tent, and Leah’s tent, and the tent of the two female servants, but he did not find the idols. Then he left Leah’s tent and entered Rachel’s.

<sup>35</sup> Rachel said to her father, “Don’t be angry, my lord. I cannot stand up in your presence because I am having my period.” So he searched thoroughly, but did not find the idols.

<sup>36</sup> Jacob became angry and argued with Laban. “What did I do wrong?” he demanded of Laban. “What sin of mine prompted you to chase after me in hot pursuit?

<sup>37</sup> When you searched through all my goods, did you find anything that belonged to you? Set it here before my relatives and yours, and let them settle the dispute between the two of us!

<sup>38</sup> “I have been with you for the past twenty years. Your ewes and female goats have not miscarried, nor have I eaten rams from your flocks.

<sup>39</sup> Animals torn by wild beasts I never brought to you; I always absorbed the loss myself. You always made me pay for every missing animal, whether it was taken by day or at night.

<sup>40</sup> I was consumed by scorching heat during the day and by piercing cold at night, and I went without sleep.

<sup>41</sup> This was my lot for twenty years in your house: I worked like a slave for you – fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flocks, but you changed my wages ten times!

<sup>42</sup> If the God of my father – the God of Abraham, the one whom Isaac fears – had not been with me, you would certainly have sent me away empty-handed! But God saw how I was oppressed and how hard I worked, and he rebuked you last night.”

<sup>43</sup> Laban replied to Jacob, “These women are my daughters, these children are my grandchildren, and these flocks are my flocks. All that you see belongs to me. But how can I harm these daughters of mine today or the children to whom they have given birth?

<sup>44</sup> So now, come, let’s make a formal agreement, you and I, and it will be proof that we have made peace.”

<sup>48</sup> Laban said, "This pile of stones is a witness of our agreement today." That is why it was called Galeed.

<sup>49</sup> It was also called Mizpah because he said, "May the LORD watch between us when we are out of sight of one another.

<sup>50</sup> If you mistreat my daughters or if you take wives besides my daughters, although no one else is with us, realize that God is witness to your actions."

<sup>52</sup> "This pile of stones and the pillar are reminders that I will not pass beyond this pile to come to harm you and that you will not pass beyond this pile and this pillar to come to harm me.

<sup>53</sup> May the God of Abraham and the god of Nahor, the gods of their father, judge between us." Jacob took an oath by the God whom his father Isaac feared.

<sup>54</sup> Then Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain and invited his relatives to eat the meal. They ate the meal and spent the night on the mountain.

32

<sup>5</sup> I have oxen, donkeys, sheep, and male and female servants. I have sent this message to inform my lord, so that I may find favor in your sight.' "

<sup>6</sup> The messengers returned to Jacob and said, "We went to your brother Esau. He is coming to meet you and has four hundred men with him."

<sup>7</sup> Jacob was very afraid and upset. So he divided the people who were with him into two camps, as well as the flocks, herds, and camels.

<sup>8</sup> "If Esau attacks one camp," he thought, "then the other camp will be able to escape."

<sup>9</sup> Then Jacob prayed, "O God of my father Abraham, God of my father Isaac, O LORD, you said to me, 'Return to your land and to your relatives and I will make you prosper.'

<sup>10</sup> I am not worthy of all the faithful love you have shown your servant. With only my walking stick I crossed the Jordan, but now I have become two camps.

<sup>11</sup> Rescue me, I pray, from the hand of my brother Esau, for I am afraid he will come and attack me, as well as the mothers with their children.

<sup>12</sup> But you said, 'I will certainly make you prosper and will make your descendants like the sand on the seashore, too numerous to count.' "

<sup>14</sup> two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams,

<sup>15</sup> thirty female camels with their young, forty cows and ten bulls, and twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys.

<sup>16</sup> He entrusted them to his servants, who divided them into herds. He told his servants, "Pass over before me, and keep some distance between one herd and the next."

<sup>17</sup> He instructed the servant leading the first herd, "When my brother Esau meets you and asks, 'To whom do you belong? Where are you going? Whose herds are you driving?'

<sup>18</sup> then you must say, 'They belong to your servant Jacob. They have been sent as a gift to my lord Esau. In fact Jacob himself is behind us.' "

<sup>19</sup> He also gave these instructions to the second and third servants, as well as all those who were following the herds, saying, "You must say the same thing to Esau when you meet him.

<sup>20</sup> You must also say, 'In fact your servant Jacob is behind us.' " Jacob thought, "I will first appease him by sending a gift ahead of me. After that I will meet him. Perhaps he will accept me."

<sup>21</sup> So the gifts were sent on ahead of him while he spent that night in the camp.

<sup>26</sup> Then the man said, "Let me go, for the dawn is breaking." "I will not let you go," Jacob replied, "unless you bless me."

<sup>28</sup> "No longer will your name be Jacob," the man told him, "but Israel, because you have fought with God and with men and have prevailed."

<sup>29</sup> Then Jacob asked, "Please tell me your name." "Why do you ask my name?" the man replied. Then he blessed Jacob there.

<sup>30</sup> So Jacob named the place Peniel, explaining, "Certainly I have seen God face to face and have survived."

<sup>31</sup> The sun rose over him as he crossed over Peniel, but he was limping because of his hip.

<sup>32</sup> That is why to this day the Israelites do not eat the sinew which is attached to the socket of the hip, because he struck the socket of Jacob's hip near the attached sinew.

33

<sup>4</sup> But Esau ran to meet him, embraced him, hugged his neck, and kissed him. Then they both wept.

<sup>8</sup> Esau then asked, "What did you intend by sending all these herds to meet me?" Jacob replied, "To find favor in your sight, my lord."

<sup>10</sup> "No, please take them," Jacob said. "If I have found favor in your sight, accept my gift from my hand. Now that I have seen your face and you have accepted me, it is as if I have seen the face of God.

<sup>11</sup> Please take my present that was brought to you, for God has been generous to me and I have all I need.” When Jacob urged him, he took it.

<sup>12</sup> Then Esau said, “Let’s be on our way! I will go in front of you.”

<sup>13</sup> But Jacob said to him, “My lord knows that the children are young, and that I have to look after the sheep and cattle that are nursing their young. If they are driven too hard for even a single day, all the animals will die.

<sup>14</sup> Let my lord go on ahead of his servant. I will travel more slowly, at the pace of the herds and the children, until I come to my lord at Seir.”

<sup>15</sup> So Esau said, “Let me leave some of my men with you.” “Why do that?” Jacob replied. “My lord has already been kind enough to me.”

<sup>17</sup> But Jacob traveled to Succoth where he built himself a house and made shelters for his livestock. That is why the place was called Succoth.

<sup>19</sup> Then he purchased the portion of the field where he had pitched his tent; he bought it from the sons of Hamor, Shechem’s father, for a hundred pieces of money.

34

<sup>1</sup> Now Dinah, Leah’s daughter whom she bore to Jacob, went to meet the young women of the land.

<sup>2</sup> When Shechem son of Hamor the Hivite, who ruled that area, saw her, he grabbed her, forced himself on her, and sexually assaulted her.

<sup>3</sup> Then he became very attached to Dinah, Jacob’s daughter. He fell in love with the young woman and spoke romantically to her.

<sup>5</sup> When Jacob heard that Shechem had violated his daughter Dinah, his sons were with the livestock in the field. So Jacob remained silent until they came in.

<sup>7</sup> Now Jacob’s sons had come in from the field when they heard the news. They were offended and very angry because Shechem had disgraced Israel by sexually assaulting Jacob’s daughter, a crime that should not be committed.

<sup>8</sup> But Hamor made this appeal to them: “My son Shechem is in love with your daughter. Please give her to him as his wife.

<sup>10</sup> You may live among us, and the land will be open to you. Live in it, travel freely in it, and acquire property in it.”

<sup>11</sup> Then Shechem said to Dinah’s father and brothers, “Let me find favor in your sight, and whatever you require of me I’ll give.

<sup>12</sup> You can make the bride price and the gift I must bring very expensive, and I’ll give whatever you ask of me. Just give me the young woman as my wife!”

<sup>15</sup> We will give you our consent on this one condition: You must become like us by circumcising all your males.

<sup>16</sup> Then we will give you our daughters to marry, and we will take your daughters as wives for ourselves, and we will live among you and become one people.

<sup>21</sup> “These men are at peace with us. So let them live in the land and travel freely in it, for the land is wide enough for them. We will take their daughters for wives, and we will give them our daughters to marry.

<sup>22</sup> Only on this one condition will these men consent to live with us and become one people: They demand that every male among us be circumcised just as they are circumcised.

<sup>23</sup> If we do so, won't their livestock, their property, and all their animals become ours? So let's consent to their demand, so they will live among us.”

<sup>25</sup> In three days, when they were still in pain, two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword and went to the unsuspecting city and slaughtered every male.

<sup>30</sup> Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, “You have brought ruin on me by making me a foul odor among the inhabitants of the land – among the Canaanites and the Perizzites. I am few in number; they will join forces against me and attack me, and both I and my family will be destroyed!”

35

<sup>1</sup> Then God said to Jacob, “Go up at once to Bethel and live there. Make an altar there to God, who appeared to you when you fled from your brother Esau.”

<sup>2</sup> So Jacob told his household and all who were with him, “Get rid of the foreign gods you have among you. Purify yourselves and change your clothes.

<sup>3</sup> Let us go up at once to Bethel. Then I will make an altar there to God, who responded to me in my time of distress and has been with me wherever I went.”

<sup>4</sup> So they gave Jacob all the foreign gods that were in their possession and the rings that were in their ears. Jacob buried them under the oak near Shechem

<sup>6</sup> Jacob and all those who were with him arrived at Luz (that is, Bethel) in the land of Canaan.

<sup>7</sup> He built an altar there and named the place El Bethel because there God had revealed himself to him when he was fleeing from his brother.

<sup>10</sup> God said to him, "Your name is Jacob, but your name will no longer be called Jacob; Israel will be your name." So God named him Israel.

<sup>11</sup> Then God said to him, "I am the sovereign God. Be fruitful and multiply! A nation – even a company of nations – will descend from you; kings will be among your descendants!

<sup>12</sup> The land I gave to Abraham and Isaac I will give to you. To your descendants I will also give this land."

<sup>13</sup> Then God went up from the place where he spoke with him.

<sup>14</sup> So Jacob set up a sacred stone pillar in the place where God spoke with him. He poured out a drink offering on it, and then he poured oil on it.

Jacob had twelve sons:

These were the sons of Jacob who were born to him in Paddan Aram.

<sup>29</sup> Then Isaac breathed his last and joined his ancestors. He died an old man who had lived a full life. His sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

36

<sup>5</sup> and Oholibamah bore Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. These were the sons of Esau who were born to him in the land of Canaan.

<sup>7</sup> because they had too many possessions to be able to stay together and the land where they had settled was not able to support them because of their livestock.

Eliphaz, the son of Esau's wife Adah, and Reuel, the son of Esau's wife Basemath.

Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam, and Kenaz.

<sup>12</sup> Timna, a concubine of Esau's son Eliphaz, bore Amalek to Eliphaz. These were the sons of Esau's wife Adah.

37

Joseph, his seventeen-year-old son, was taking care of the flocks with his brothers. Now he was a youngster working with the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives. Joseph brought back a bad report about them to their father.

<sup>3</sup> Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his sons because he was a son born to him late in life, and he made a special tunic for him.

<sup>4</sup> When Joseph's brothers saw that their father loved him more than any of them, they hated Joseph and were not able to speak to him kindly.

<sup>5</sup> Joseph had a dream, and when he told his brothers about it, they hated him even more.

<sup>7</sup> There we were, binding sheaves of grain in the middle of the field. Suddenly my sheaf rose up and stood upright and your sheaves surrounded my sheaf and bowed down to it!"

<sup>8</sup> Then his brothers asked him, "Do you really think you will rule over us or have dominion over us?" They hated him even more because of his dream and because of what he said.

<sup>9</sup> Then he had another dream, and told it to his brothers. "Look," he said. "I had another dream. The sun, the moon, and eleven stars were bowing down to me."

<sup>10</sup> When he told his father and his brothers, his father rebuked him, saying, "What is this dream that you had? Will I, your mother, and your brothers really come and bow down to you?"

<sup>11</sup> His brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept in mind what Joseph said.

<sup>13</sup> Israel said to Joseph, "Your brothers are grazing the flocks near Shechem. Come, I will send you to them." "I'm ready," Joseph replied.

<sup>14</sup> So Jacob said to him, "Go now and check on the welfare of your brothers and of the flocks, and bring me word." So Jacob sent him from the valley of Hebron.

<sup>26</sup> Then Judah said to his brothers, "What profit is there if we kill our brother and cover up his blood?

<sup>27</sup> Come, let's sell him to the Ishmaelites, but let's not lay a hand on him, for after all, he is our brother, our own flesh." His brothers agreed.

<sup>28</sup> So when the Midianite merchants passed by, Joseph's brothers pulled him out of the cistern and sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. The Ishmaelites then took Joseph to Egypt.

<sup>29</sup> Later Reuben returned to the cistern to find that Joseph was not in it! He tore his clothes,

<sup>30</sup> returned to his brothers, and said, "The boy isn't there! And I, where can I go?"

<sup>31</sup> So they took Joseph's tunic, killed a young goat, and dipped the tunic in the blood.

<sup>32</sup> Then they brought the special tunic to their father and said, "We found this. Determine now whether it is your son's tunic or not."

<sup>33</sup> He recognized it and exclaimed, "It is my son's tunic! A wild animal has eaten him! Joseph has surely been torn to pieces!"

<sup>35</sup> All his sons and daughters stood by him to console him, but he refused to be consoled. "No," he said, "I will go to the grave mourning my son." So Joseph's father wept for him.

<sup>8</sup> Then Judah said to Onan, "Have sexual relations with your brother's wife and fulfill the duty of a brother-in-law to her so that you may raise up a descendant for your brother."

<sup>10</sup> What he did was evil in the LORD's sight, so the LORD killed him too.

<sup>11</sup> Then Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, "Live as a widow in your father's house until Shelah my son grows up." For he thought, "I don't want him to die like his brothers." So Tamar went and lived in her father's house.

<sup>14</sup> So she removed her widow's clothes and covered herself with a veil. She wrapped herself and sat at the entrance to Enaim which is on the way to Timnah. (She did this because she saw that she had not been given to Shelah as a wife, even though he had now grown up.)

<sup>16</sup> He turned aside to her along the road and said, "Come on! I want to have sex with you." (He did not realize it was his daughter-in-law.) She asked, "What will you give me in exchange for having sex with you?"

<sup>17</sup> He replied, "I'll send you a young goat from the flock." She asked, "Will you give me a pledge until you send it?"

<sup>18</sup> He said, "What pledge should I give you?" She replied, "Your seal, your cord, and the staff that's in your hand." So he gave them to her and had sex with her. She became pregnant by him.

<sup>21</sup> He asked the men who were there, "Where is the cult prostitute who was at Enaim by the road?" But they replied, "There has been no cult prostitute here."

<sup>22</sup> So he returned to Judah and said, "I couldn't find her. Moreover, the men of the place said, 'There has been no cult prostitute here.'"

<sup>23</sup> Judah said, "Let her keep the things for herself. Otherwise we will appear to be dishonest. I did indeed send this young goat, but you couldn't find her."

<sup>24</sup> After three months Judah was told, "Your daughter-in-law Tamar has turned to prostitution, and as a result she has become pregnant." Judah said, "Bring her out and let her be burned!"

<sup>25</sup> While they were bringing her out, she sent word to her father-in-law: "I am pregnant by the man to whom these belong." Then she said, "Identify the one to whom the seal, cord, and staff belong."

<sup>26</sup> Judah recognized them and said, "She is more upright than I am, because I wouldn't give her to Shelah my son." He did not have sexual relations with her again.

<sup>27</sup> When it was time for her to give birth, there were twins in her womb.

<sup>29</sup> But then he drew back his hand, and his brother came out before him. She said, "How you have broken out of the womb!" So he was named Perez.

39

<sup>1</sup> Now Joseph had been brought down to Egypt. An Egyptian named Potiphar, an official of Pharaoh and the captain of the guard, purchased him from the Ishmaelites who had brought him there.

<sup>3</sup> His master observed that the LORD was with him and that the LORD made everything he was doing successful.

<sup>5</sup> From the time Potiphar appointed him over his household and over all that he owned, the LORD blessed the Egyptian's household for Joseph's sake. The blessing of the LORD was on everything that he had, both in his house and in his fields.

<sup>6</sup> So Potiphar left everything he had in Joseph's care; he gave no thought to anything except the food he ate.

Now Joseph was well built and good-looking.

<sup>7</sup> Soon after these things, his master's wife took notice of Joseph and said, "Have sex with me."

<sup>8</sup> But he refused, saying to his master's wife, "Look, my master does not give any thought to his household with me here, and everything that he owns he has put into my care.

<sup>9</sup> There is no one greater in this household than I am. He has withheld nothing from me except you because you are his wife. So how could I do such a great evil and sin against God?"

<sup>11</sup> One day he went into the house to do his work when none of the household servants were there in the house.

<sup>14</sup> she called for her household servants and said to them, "See, my husband brought in a Hebrew man to us to humiliate us. He tried to have sex with me, but I screamed loudly.

<sup>20</sup> Joseph's master took him and threw him into the prison, the place where the king's prisoners were confined. So he was there in the prison.

<sup>22</sup> The warden put all the prisoners under Joseph's care. He was in charge of whatever they were doing.

<sup>23</sup> The warden did not concern himself with anything that was in Joseph's care because the LORD was with him and whatever he was doing the LORD was making successful.

40

<sup>4</sup> The captain of the guard appointed Joseph to be their attendant, and he served them. They spent some time in custody.

<sup>5</sup> Both of them, the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were confined in the prison, had a dream the same night. Each man's dream had its own meaning.

<sup>6</sup> When Joseph came to them in the morning, he saw that they were looking depressed.

<sup>7</sup> So he asked Pharaoh's officials, who were with him in custody in his master's house, "Why do you look so sad today?"

<sup>8</sup> They told him, "We both had dreams, but there is no one to interpret them." Joseph responded, "Don't interpretations belong to God? Tell them to me."

<sup>9</sup> So the chief cupbearer told his dream to Joseph: "In my dream, there was a vine in front of me.

<sup>13</sup> In three more days Pharaoh will reinstate you and restore you to your office. You will put Pharaoh's cup in his hand, just as you did before when you were cupbearer.

<sup>14</sup> But remember me when it goes well for you, and show me kindness. Make mention of me to Pharaoh and bring me out of this prison,

<sup>15</sup> for I really was kidnapped from the land of the Hebrews and I have done nothing wrong here for which they should put me in a dungeon."

<sup>16</sup> When the chief baker saw that the interpretation of the first dream was favorable, he said to Joseph, "I also appeared in my dream and there were three baskets of white bread on my head.

<sup>17</sup> In the top basket there were baked goods of every kind for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating them from the basket that was on my head."

<sup>19</sup> In three more days Pharaoh will decapitate you and impale you on a pole. Then the birds will eat your flesh from you."

<sup>21</sup> He restored the chief cupbearer to his former position so that he placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand,

41

<sup>5</sup> Then he fell asleep again and had a second dream: There were seven heads of grain growing on one stalk, healthy and good.

<sup>6</sup> Then seven heads of grain, thin and burned by the east wind, were sprouting up after them.

<sup>8</sup> In the morning he was troubled, so he called for all the diviner-priests of Egypt and all its wise men. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but no one could interpret them for him.

<sup>11</sup> We each had a dream one night; each of us had a dream with its own meaning.

<sup>12</sup> Now a young man, a Hebrew, a servant of the captain of the guards, was with us there. We told him our dreams, and he interpreted the meaning of each of our respective dreams for us.

<sup>14</sup> Then Pharaoh summoned Joseph. So they brought him quickly out of the dungeon; he shaved himself, changed his clothes, and came before Pharaoh.

<sup>15</sup> Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I had a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it. But I have heard about you, that you can interpret dreams."

<sup>18</sup> Then seven fat and fine-looking cows were coming up out of the Nile, and they grazed in the reeds.

<sup>19</sup> Then seven other cows came up after them; they were scrawny, very bad-looking, and lean. I had never seen such bad-looking cows as these in all the land of Egypt!

<sup>21</sup> When they had eaten them, no one would have known that they had done so, for they were just as bad-looking as before. Then I woke up.

<sup>23</sup> Then seven heads of grain, withered and thin and burned with the east wind, were sprouting up after them.

<sup>24</sup> The thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven good heads of grain. So I told all this to the diviner-priests, but no one could tell me its meaning."

<sup>25</sup> Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, "Both dreams of Pharaoh have the same meaning. God has revealed to Pharaoh what he is about to do.

<sup>26</sup> The seven good cows represent seven years, and the seven good heads of grain represent seven years. Both dreams have the same meaning.

<sup>30</sup> But seven years of famine will occur after them, and all the abundance will be forgotten in the land of Egypt. The famine will devastate the land.

<sup>32</sup> The dream was repeated to Pharaoh because the matter has been decreed by God, and God will make it happen soon.

<sup>35</sup> They should gather all the excess food during these good years that are coming. By Pharaoh’s authority they should store up grain so the cities will have food, and they should preserve it.

<sup>36</sup> This food should be held in storage for the land in preparation for the seven years of famine that will occur throughout the land of Egypt. In this way the land will survive the famine.”

<sup>39</sup> So Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Because God has enabled you to know all this, there is no one as wise and discerning as you are!

<sup>40</sup> You will oversee my household, and all my people will submit to your commands. Only I, the king, will be greater than you.

<sup>41</sup> “See here,” Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I place you in authority over all the land of Egypt.”

<sup>43</sup> Pharaoh had him ride in the chariot used by his second-in-command, and they cried out before him, “Kneel down!” So he placed him over all the land of Egypt.

<sup>44</sup> Pharaoh also said to Joseph, “I am Pharaoh, but without your permission no one will move his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt.”

<sup>45</sup> Pharaoh gave Joseph the name Zaphenath-Paneah. He also gave him Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, to be his wife. So Joseph took charge of all the land of Egypt.

<sup>46</sup> Now Joseph was 30 years old when he began serving Pharaoh king of Egypt. Joseph was commissioned by Pharaoh and was in charge of all the land of Egypt.

<sup>50</sup> Two sons were born to Joseph before the famine came. Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, was their mother.

<sup>51</sup> Joseph named the firstborn Manasseh, saying, “Certainly God has made me forget all my trouble and all my father’s house.”

<sup>54</sup> Then the seven years of famine began, just as Joseph had predicted. There was famine in all the other lands, but throughout the land of Egypt there was food.

<sup>55</sup> When all the land of Egypt experienced the famine, the people cried out to Pharaoh for food. Pharaoh said to all the people of Egypt, “Go to Joseph and do whatever he tells you.”

<sup>56</sup> While the famine was over all the earth, Joseph opened the storehouses and sold grain to the Egyptians. The famine was severe throughout the land of Egypt.

<sup>57</sup> People from every country came to Joseph in Egypt to buy grain because the famine was severe throughout the earth.

42

<sup>1</sup> When Jacob heard there was grain in Egypt, he said to his sons, “Why are you looking at each other?”

<sup>2</sup> He then said, “Look, I hear that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy grain for us so that we may live and not die.”

<sup>5</sup> So Israel’s sons came to buy grain among the other travelers, for the famine was severe in the land of Canaan.

<sup>6</sup> Now Joseph was the ruler of the country, the one who sold grain to all the people of the country. Joseph’s brothers came and bowed down before him with their faces to the ground.

<sup>7</sup> When Joseph saw his brothers, he recognized them, but he pretended to be a stranger to them and spoke to them harshly. He asked, “Where do you come from?” They answered, “From the land of Canaan, to buy grain for food.”

<sup>9</sup> Then Joseph remembered the dreams he had dreamed about them, and he said to them, “You are spies; you have come to see if our land is vulnerable!”

<sup>13</sup> They replied, “Your servants are from a family of twelve brothers. We are the sons of one man in the land of Canaan. The youngest is with our father at this time, and one is no longer alive.”

<sup>15</sup> You will be tested in this way: As surely as Pharaoh lives, you will not depart from this place unless your youngest brother comes here.

<sup>16</sup> One of you must go and get your brother, while the rest of you remain in prison. In this way your words may be tested to see if you are telling the truth. If not, then, as surely as Pharaoh lives, you are spies!”

<sup>18</sup> On the third day Joseph said to them, “Do as I say and you will live, for I fear God.

<sup>19</sup> If you are honest men, leave one of your brothers confined here in prison while the rest of you go and take grain back for your hungry families.

<sup>20</sup> But you must bring your youngest brother to me. Then your words will be verified and you will not die.” They did as he said.

<sup>21</sup> They said to one other, “Surely we’re being punished because of our brother, because we saw how distressed he was when he cried to us for mercy, but we refused to listen. That is why this distress has come on us!”

<sup>22</sup> Reuben said to them, “Didn’t I say to you, ‘Don’t sin against the boy,’ but you wouldn’t listen? So now we must pay for shedding his blood!”

<sup>23</sup> (Now they did not know that Joseph could understand them, for he was speaking through an interpreter.)

<sup>28</sup> He said to his brothers, "My money was returned! Here it is in my sack!" They were dismayed; they turned trembling one to another and said, "What in the world has God done to us?"

<sup>29</sup> They returned to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan and told him all the things that had happened to them, saying,

<sup>30</sup> "The man, the lord of the land, spoke harshly to us and treated us as if we were spying on the land.

<sup>31</sup> But we said to him, 'We are honest men; we are not spies!

<sup>32</sup> We are from a family of twelve brothers; we are the sons of one father. One is no longer alive, and the youngest is with our father at this time in the land of Canaan.'

<sup>33</sup> "Then the man, the lord of the land, said to us, 'This is how I will find out if you are honest men. Leave one of your brothers with me, and take grain for your hungry households and go.

<sup>34</sup> But bring your youngest brother back to me so I will know that you are honest men and not spies. Then I will give your brother back to you and you may move about freely in the land.' "

<sup>35</sup> When they were emptying their sacks, there was each man's bag of money in his sack! When they and their father saw the bags of money, they were afraid.

<sup>36</sup> Their father Jacob said to them, "You are making me childless! Joseph is gone. Simeon is gone. And now you want to take Benjamin! Everything is against me."

<sup>37</sup> Then Reuben said to his father, "You may put my two sons to death if I do not bring him back to you. Put him in my care and I will bring him back to you."

<sup>38</sup> But Jacob replied, "My son will not go down there with you, for his brother is dead and he alone is left. If an accident happens to him on the journey you have to make, then you will bring down my gray hair in sorrow to the grave."

43

<sup>2</sup> When they finished eating the grain they had brought from Egypt, their father said to them, "Return, buy us a little more food."

<sup>3</sup> But Judah said to him, "The man solemnly warned us, 'You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.'

<sup>4</sup> If you send our brother with us, we'll go down and buy food for you.

<sup>5</sup> But if you will not send him, we won't go down there because the man said to us, 'You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.' "

<sup>7</sup> They replied, "The man questioned us thoroughly about ourselves and our family, saying, 'Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother?' So we answered him in this way. How could we possibly know that he would say, 'Bring your brother down?'"

<sup>8</sup> Then Judah said to his father Israel, "Send the boy with me and we will go immediately. Then we will live and not die – we and you and our little ones.

<sup>9</sup> I myself pledge security for him; you may hold me liable. If I do not bring him back to you and place him here before you, I will bear the blame before you all my life.

<sup>10</sup> But if we had not delayed, we could have traveled there and back twice by now!"

<sup>11</sup> Then their father Israel said to them, "If it must be so, then do this: Take some of the best products of the land in your bags, and take a gift down to the man – a little balm and a little honey, spices and myrrh, pistachios and almonds.

<sup>14</sup> May the sovereign God grant you mercy before the man so that he may release your other brother and Benjamin! As for me, if I lose my children I lose them."

<sup>15</sup> So the men took these gifts, and they took double the money with them, along with Benjamin. Then they hurried down to Egypt and stood before Joseph.

<sup>16</sup> When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the servant who was over his household, "Bring the men to the house. Slaughter an animal and prepare it, for the men will eat with me at noon."

<sup>18</sup> But the men were afraid when they were brought to Joseph's house. They said, "We are being brought in because of the money that was returned in our sacks last time. He wants to capture us, make us slaves, and take our donkeys!"

<sup>20</sup> They said, "My lord, we did indeed come down the first time to buy food.

<sup>21</sup> But when we came to the place where we spent the night, we opened our sacks and each of us found his money – the full amount – in the mouth of his sack. So we have returned it.

<sup>22</sup> We have brought additional money with us to buy food. We do not know who put the money in our sacks!"

<sup>23</sup> "Everything is fine," the man in charge of Joseph's household told them. "Don't be afraid. Your God and the God of your father has given you treasure in your sacks. I had your money." Then he brought Simeon out to them.

<sup>24</sup> The servant in charge brought the men into Joseph's house. He gave them water, and they washed their feet. Then he gave food to their donkeys.

<sup>26</sup> When Joseph came home, they presented him with the gifts they had brought inside, and they bowed down to the ground before him.

<sup>27</sup> He asked them how they were doing. Then he said, "Is your aging father well, the one you spoke about? Is he still alive?"

<sup>28</sup> "Your servant our father is well," they replied. "He is still alive." They bowed down in humility.

<sup>29</sup> When Joseph looked up and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, he said, "Is this your youngest brother, whom you told me about?" Then he said, "May God be gracious to you, my son."

<sup>30</sup> Joseph hurried out, for he was overcome by affection for his brother and was at the point of tears. So he went to his room and wept there.

<sup>32</sup> They set a place for him, a separate place for his brothers, and another for the Egyptians who were eating with him. (The Egyptians are not able to eat with Hebrews, for the Egyptians think it is disgusting to do so.)

<sup>33</sup> They sat before him, arranged by order of birth, beginning with the firstborn and ending with the youngest. The men looked at each other in astonishment.

<sup>34</sup> He gave them portions of the food set before him, but the portion for Benjamin was five times greater than the portions for any of the others. They drank with Joseph until they all became drunk.

44

<sup>2</sup> Then put my cup – the silver cup – in the mouth of the youngest one's sack, along with the money for his grain." He did as Joseph instructed.

<sup>4</sup> They had not gone very far from the city when Joseph said to the servant who was over his household, "Pursue the men at once! When you overtake them, say to them, 'Why have you repaid good with evil?'

<sup>6</sup> When the man overtook them, he spoke these words to them.

<sup>7</sup> They answered him, "Why does my lord say such things? Far be it from your servants to do such a thing!

<sup>8</sup> Look, the money that we found in the mouths of our sacks we brought back to you from the land of Canaan. Why then would we steal silver or gold from your master's house?

<sup>9</sup> If one of us has it, he will die, and the rest of us will become my lord's slaves!"

<sup>10</sup> He replied, "You have suggested your own punishment! The one who has it will become my slave, but the rest of you will go free."

<sup>13</sup> They all tore their clothes! Then each man loaded his donkey, and they returned to the city.

<sup>14</sup> So Judah and his brothers came back to Joseph's house. He was still there, and they threw themselves to the ground before him.

<sup>15</sup> Joseph said to them, "What did you think you were doing? Don't you know that a man like me can find out things like this by divination?"

<sup>16</sup> Judah replied, "What can we say to my lord? What can we speak? How can we clear ourselves?

God has exposed the sin of your servants! We are now my lord's slaves, we and the one in whose possession the cup was found."

<sup>17</sup> But Joseph said, "Far be it from me to do this! The man in whose hand the cup was found will become my slave, but the rest of you may go back to your father in peace."

<sup>18</sup> Then Judah approached him and said, "My lord, please allow your servant to speak a word with you. Please do not get angry with your servant, for you are just like Pharaoh.

<sup>20</sup> We said to my lord, 'We have an aged father, and there is a young boy who was born when our father was old. The boy's brother is dead. He is the only one of his mother's sons left, and his father loves him.'

<sup>21</sup> "Then you told your servants, 'Bring him down to me so I can see him.'

<sup>22</sup> We said to my lord, 'The boy cannot leave his father. If he leaves his father, his father will die.'

<sup>23</sup> But you said to your servants, 'If your youngest brother does not come down with you, you will not see my face again.'

<sup>24</sup> When we returned to your servant my father, we told him the words of my lord.

<sup>25</sup> “Then our father said, ‘Go back and buy us a little food.’

<sup>26</sup> But we replied, ‘We cannot go down there. If our youngest brother is with us, then we will go, for we won’t be permitted to see the man’s face if our youngest brother is not with us.’

<sup>27</sup> “Then your servant my father said to us, ‘You know that my wife gave me two sons.

<sup>28</sup> The first disappeared and I said, “He has surely been torn to pieces.” I have not seen him since.

<sup>29</sup> If you take this one from me too and an accident happens to him, then you will bring down my gray hair in tragedy to the grave.’

<sup>30</sup> “So now, when I return to your servant my father, and the boy is not with us – his very life is bound up in his son’s life.

<sup>31</sup> When he sees the boy is not with us, he will die, and your servants will bring down the gray hair of your servant our father in sorrow to the grave.

<sup>32</sup> Indeed, your servant pledged security for the boy with my father, saying, ‘If I do not bring him back to you, then I will bear the blame before my father all my life.’

<sup>33</sup> “So now, please let your servant remain as my lord’s slave instead of the boy. As for the boy, let him go back with his brothers.

<sup>34</sup> For how can I go back to my father if the boy is not with me? I couldn’t bear to see my father’s pain.”

45

<sup>1</sup> Joseph was no longer able to control himself before all his attendants, so he cried out, “Make everyone go out from my presence!” No one remained with Joseph when he made himself known to his brothers.

<sup>3</sup> Joseph said to his brothers, “I am Joseph! Is my father still alive?” His brothers could not answer him because they were dumbfounded before him.

<sup>4</sup> Joseph said to his brothers, “Come closer to me,” so they came near. Then he said, “I am Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt.

<sup>5</sup> Now, do not be upset and do not be angry with yourselves because you sold me here, for God sent me ahead of you to preserve life!

<sup>6</sup> For these past two years there has been famine in the land and for five more years there will be neither plowing nor harvesting.

<sup>7</sup> God sent me ahead of you to preserve you on the earth and to save your lives by a great deliverance.

<sup>8</sup> So now, it is not you who sent me here, but God. He has made me an adviser to Pharaoh, lord over all his household, and ruler over all the land of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> Now go up to my father quickly and tell him, ‘This is what your son Joseph says: “God has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me; do not delay!

<sup>10</sup> You will live in the land of Goshen, and you will be near me – you, your children, your grandchildren, your flocks, your herds, and everything you have.

<sup>11</sup> I will provide you with food there because there will be five more years of famine. Otherwise you would become poor – you, your household, and everyone who belongs to you.”

<sup>12</sup> You and my brother Benjamin can certainly see with your own eyes that I really am the one who speaks to you.

<sup>13</sup> So tell my father about all my honor in Egypt and about everything you have seen. But bring my father down here quickly!”

<sup>17</sup> Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Say to your brothers, 'Do this: Load your animals and go to the land of Canaan!'

<sup>18</sup> Get your father and your households and come to me! Then I will give you the best land in Egypt and you will eat the best of the land.'

<sup>19</sup> You are also commanded to say, 'Do this: Take for yourselves wagons from the land of Egypt for your little ones and for your wives. Bring your father and come.

<sup>20</sup> Don't worry about your belongings, for the best of all the land of Egypt will be yours.' "

<sup>21</sup> So the sons of Israel did as he said. Joseph gave them wagons as Pharaoh had instructed, and he gave them provisions for the journey.

<sup>25</sup> So they went up from Egypt and came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan.

<sup>26</sup> They told him, "Joseph is still alive and he is ruler over all the land of Egypt!" Jacob was stunned, for he did not believe them.

<sup>27</sup> But when they related to him everything Joseph had said to them, and when he saw the wagons that Joseph had sent to transport him, their father Jacob's spirit revived.

<sup>28</sup> Then Israel said, "Enough! My son Joseph is still alive! I will go and see him before I die."

46

<sup>1</sup> So Israel began his journey, taking with him all that he had. When he came to Beer Sheba he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.

<sup>2</sup> God spoke to Israel in a vision during the night and said, "Jacob, Jacob!" He replied, "Here I am!"

<sup>3</sup> He said, "I am God, the God of your father. Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make you into a great nation there.

<sup>4</sup> I will go down with you to Egypt and I myself will certainly bring you back from there. Joseph will close your eyes."

<sup>5</sup> Then Jacob started out from Beer Sheba, and the sons of Israel carried their father Jacob, their little children, and their wives in the wagons that Pharaoh had sent along to transport him.

<sup>6</sup> Jacob and all his descendants took their livestock and the possessions they had acquired in the land of Canaan, and they went to Egypt.

Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah

(but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan).

The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

Sered, Elon, and Jahleel.

<sup>15</sup> These were the sons of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob in Paddan Aram, along with Dinah his daughter. His sons and daughters numbered thirty-three in all.

Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah, and Serah their sister.

The sons of Beriah were Heber and Malkiel.

Joseph and Benjamin.

<sup>20</sup> Manasseh and Ephraim were born to Joseph in the land of Egypt. Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, bore them to him.

Bela, Beker, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim and Ard.

Jahziel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem.

<sup>25</sup> These were the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter. She bore these to Jacob, seven in all.

<sup>26</sup> All the direct descendants of Jacob who went to Egypt with him were sixty-six in number. (This number does not include the wives of Jacob's sons.)

<sup>27</sup> Counting the two sons of Joseph who were born to him in Egypt, all the people of the household of Jacob who were in Egypt numbered seventy.

<sup>28</sup> Jacob sent Judah before him to Joseph to accompany him to Goshen. So they came to the land of Goshen.

<sup>29</sup> Joseph harnessed his chariot and went up to meet his father Israel in Goshen. When he met him, he hugged his neck and wept on his neck for quite some time.

<sup>30</sup> Israel said to Joseph, "Now let me die since I have seen your face and know that you are still alive."

<sup>31</sup> Then Joseph said to his brothers and his father's household, "I will go up and tell Pharaoh, 'My brothers and my father's household who were in the land of Canaan have come to me.'

<sup>33</sup> Pharaoh will summon you and say, 'What is your occupation?'

<sup>34</sup> Tell him, 'Your servants have taken care of cattle from our youth until now, both we and our fathers,' so that you may live in the land of Goshen, for everyone who takes care of sheep is disgusting to the Egyptians."

47

<sup>1</sup> Joseph went and told Pharaoh, “My father, my brothers, their flocks and herds, and all that they own have arrived from the land of Canaan. They are now in the land of Goshen.”

<sup>3</sup> Pharaoh said to Joseph’s brothers, “What is your occupation?” They said to Pharaoh, “Your servants take care of flocks, just as our ancestors did.”

<sup>4</sup> Then they said to Pharaoh, “We have come to live as temporary residents in the land. There is no pasture for your servants’ flocks because the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. So now, please let your servants live in the land of Goshen.”

<sup>5</sup> Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Your father and your brothers have come to you.

<sup>6</sup> The land of Egypt is before you; settle your father and your brothers in the best region of the land. They may live in the land of Goshen. If you know of any highly capable men among them, put them in charge of my livestock.”

<sup>9</sup> Jacob said to Pharaoh, “All the years of my travels are 130. All the years of my life have been few and painful; the years of my travels are not as long as those of my ancestors.”

<sup>11</sup> So Joseph settled his father and his brothers. He gave them territory in the land of Egypt, in the best region of the land, the land of Rameses, just as Pharaoh had commanded.

<sup>12</sup> Joseph also provided food for his father, his brothers, and all his father’s household, according to the number of their little children.

<sup>13</sup> But there was no food in all the land because the famine was very severe; the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan wasted away because of the famine.

<sup>14</sup> Joseph collected all the money that could be found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan as payment for the grain they were buying. Then Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh’s palace.

<sup>15</sup> When the money from the lands of Egypt and Canaan was used up, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, “Give us food! Why should we die before your very eyes because our money has run out?”

<sup>16</sup> Then Joseph said, “If your money is gone, bring your livestock, and I will give you food in exchange for your livestock.”

<sup>17</sup> So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them food in exchange for their horses, the livestock of their flocks and herds, and their donkeys. He got them through that year by giving them food in exchange for livestock.

<sup>18</sup> When that year was over, they came to him the next year and said to him, “We cannot hide from our lord that the money is used up and the livestock and the animals belong to our lord. Nothing remains before our lord except our bodies and our land.

<sup>19</sup> Why should we die before your very eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land in exchange for food, and we, with our land, will become Pharaoh’s slaves. Give us seed that we may live and not die. Then the land will not become desolate.”

<sup>21</sup> Joseph made all the people slaves from one end of Egypt’s border to the other end of it.

<sup>22</sup> But he did not purchase the land of the priests because the priests had an allotment from Pharaoh and they ate from their allotment that Pharaoh gave them. That is why they did not sell their land.

<sup>23</sup> Joseph said to the people, "Since I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh, here is seed for you. Cultivate the land.

<sup>24</sup> When you gather in the crop, give one-fifth of it to Pharaoh, and the rest will be yours for seed for the fields and for you to eat, including those in your households and your little children."

<sup>25</sup> They replied, "You have saved our lives! You are showing us favor, and we will be Pharaoh's slaves."

<sup>26</sup> So Joseph made it a statute, which is in effect to this day throughout the land of Egypt: One-fifth belongs to Pharaoh. Only the land of the priests did not become Pharaoh's.

<sup>27</sup> Israel settled in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen, and they owned land there. They were fruitful and increased rapidly in number.

<sup>28</sup> Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years; the years of Jacob's life were 147 in all.

<sup>29</sup> The time for Israel to die approached, so he called for his son Joseph and said to him, "If now I have found favor in your sight, put your hand under my thigh and show me kindness and faithfulness. Do not bury me in Egypt, <sup>30</sup> but when I rest with my fathers, carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burial place." Joseph said, "I will do as you say."

<sup>31</sup> Jacob said, "Swear to me that you will do so." So Joseph gave him his word. Then Israel bowed down at the head of his bed.

48

<sup>2</sup> When Jacob was told, "Your son Joseph has just come to you," Israel regained strength and sat up on his bed.

<sup>3</sup> Jacob said to Joseph, "The sovereign God appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me.

<sup>4</sup> He said to me, 'I am going to make you fruitful and will multiply you. I will make you into a group of nations, and I will give this land to your descendants as an everlasting possession.'

<sup>5</sup> "Now, as for your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, they will be mine. Ephraim and Manasseh will be mine just as Reuben and Simeon are.

<sup>6</sup> Any children that you father after them will be yours; they will be listed under the names of their brothers in their inheritance.

<sup>7</sup> But as for me, when I was returning from Paddan, Rachel died – to my sorrow – in the land of Canaan. It happened along the way, some distance from Ephrath. So I buried her there on the way to Ephrath" (that is, Bethlehem).

<sup>9</sup> Joseph said to his father, "They are the sons God has given me in this place." His father said, "Bring them to me so I may bless them."

<sup>10</sup> Now Israel's eyes were failing because of his age; he was not able to see well. So Joseph brought his sons near to him, and his father kissed them and embraced them.

<sup>11</sup> Israel said to Joseph, "I never expected to see you again, but now God has allowed me to see your children too."

<sup>15</sup> Then he blessed Joseph and said,
"May the God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked – the God who has been my shepherd all my life long to this day,

<sup>16</sup> the Angel who has protected me from all harm – bless these boys.
May my name be named in them,
and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac.
May they grow into a multitude on the earth."

<sup>19</sup> But his father refused and said, "I know, my son, I know. He too will become a nation and he too will become great. In spite of this, his younger brother will be even greater and his descendants will become a multitude of nations."

<sup>20</sup> So he blessed them that day, saying,
"By you will Israel bless, saying,
'May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh.'"
So he put Ephraim before Manasseh.

<sup>21</sup> Then Israel said to Joseph, "I am about to die, but God will be with you and will bring you back to the land of your fathers.

49

listen to Israel, your father.

<sup>3</sup> Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might and the beginning of my strength, outstanding in dignity, outstanding in power.

<sup>4</sup> You are destructive like water and will not excel, for you got on your father's bed,
then you defiled it – he got on my couch!

<sup>5</sup> Simeon and Levi are brothers, weapons of violence are their knives!

do not be united to their assembly, my heart, for in their anger they have killed men, and for pleasure they have hamstrung oxen.

<sup>7</sup> Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce, and their fury, for it was cruel.

I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel!

<sup>8</sup> Judah, your brothers will praise you.
Your hand will be on the neck of your enemies, your father's sons will bow down before you.

<sup>9</sup> You are a lion's cub, Judah, from the prey, my son, you have gone up.
He crouches and lies down like a lion;
like a lioness – who will rouse him?

<sup>10</sup> The scepter will not depart from Judah, nor the ruler's staff from between his feet, until he comes to whom it belongs;
the nations will obey him.

<sup>11</sup> Binding his foal to the vine,
and his colt to the choicest vine,
he will wash his garments in wine, his robes in the blood of grapes.

<sup>12</sup> His eyes will be dark from wine, and his teeth white from milk.

<sup>13</sup> Zebulun will live by the haven of the sea and become a haven for ships;
his border will extend to Sidon.

<sup>14</sup> Issachar is a strong-boned donkey lying down between two saddlebags.

<sup>15</sup> When he sees a good resting place,
and the pleasant land,
he will bend his shoulder to the burden and become a slave laborer.

<sup>16</sup> Dan will judge his people
as one of the tribes of Israel.

a viper by the path,
that bites the heels of the horse
so that its rider falls backward.

<sup>18</sup> I wait for your deliverance, O LORD.

but he will attack them at their heels.

<sup>20</sup> Asher's food will be rich, and he will provide delicacies to royalty.

<sup>21</sup> Naphtali is a free running doe,
he speaks delightful words.

<sup>22</sup> Joseph is a fruitful bough,
a fruitful bough near a spring whose branches climb over the wall.

<sup>23</sup> The archers will attack him,
they will shoot at him and oppose him.

<sup>24</sup> But his bow will remain steady, and his hands will be skillful;

because of the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob, because of the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel,

<sup>25</sup> because of the God of your father, who will help you,

because of the sovereign God,

who will bless you

with blessings from the sky above, blessings from the deep that lies below, and blessings of the breasts and womb.

<sup>26</sup> The blessings of your father are greater than the blessings of the eternal mountains or the desirable things of the age-old hills.

They will be on the head of Joseph and on the brow of the prince of his brothers.

in the morning devouring the prey, and in the evening dividing the plunder.”

<sup>28</sup> These are the twelve tribes of Israel. This is what their father said to them when he blessed them. He gave each of them an appropriate blessing.

<sup>29</sup> Then he instructed them, “I am about to go to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite.

50

<sup>3</sup> They took forty days, for that is the full time needed for embalming. The Egyptians mourned for him seventy days.

<sup>4</sup> When the days of mourning had passed, Joseph said to Pharaoh’s royal court, “If I have found favor in your sight, please say to Pharaoh, <sup>5</sup> ‘My father made me swear an oath. He said, “I am about to die. Bury me in my tomb that I dug for myself there in the land of Canaan.” Now let me go and bury my father; then I will return.’ ”

<sup>6</sup> So Pharaoh said, “Go and bury your father, just as he made you swear to do.”

<sup>7</sup> So Joseph went up to bury his father; all Pharaoh’s officials went with him – the senior courtiers of his household, all the senior officials of the land of Egypt,

<sup>9</sup> Chariots and horsemen also went up with him, so it was a very large entourage.

<sup>10</sup> When they came to the threshing floor of Atad on the other side of the Jordan, they mourned there with very great and bitter sorrow. There Joseph observed a seven day period of mourning for his father.

<sup>11</sup> When the Canaanites who lived in the land saw them mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, they said, “This is a very sad occasion for the Egyptians.” That is why its name was called Abel Mizraim, which is beyond the Jordan.

<sup>12</sup> So the sons of Jacob did for him just as he had instructed them.

<sup>14</sup> After he buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, along with his brothers and all who had accompanied him to bury his father.

<sup>15</sup> When Joseph’s brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, “What if Joseph bears a grudge and wants to repay us in full for all the harm we did to him?”

<sup>17</sup> ‘Tell Joseph this: Please forgive the sin of your brothers and the wrong they did when they treated you so badly.’ Now please forgive the sin of the servants of the God of your father.” When this message was reported to him, Joseph wept.

<sup>18</sup> Then his brothers also came and threw themselves down before him; they said, “Here we are; we are your slaves.”

<sup>20</sup> As for you, you meant to harm me, but God intended it for a good purpose, so he could preserve the lives of many people, as you can see this day.

<sup>21</sup> So now, don’t be afraid. I will provide for you and your little children.” Then he consoled them and spoke kindly to them.

<sup>23</sup> Joseph saw the descendants of Ephraim to the third generation. He also saw the children of Makir the son of Manasseh; they were given special inheritance rights by Joseph.

<sup>24</sup> Then Joseph said to his brothers, “I am about to die. But God will surely come to you and lead you up from this land to the land he swore on oath to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.”

<sup>25</sup> Joseph made the sons of Israel swear an oath. He said, “God will surely come to you. Then you must carry my bones up from this place.”

<sup>26</sup> So Joseph died at the age of 110. After they embalmed him, his body was placed in a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

Blessing during Bondage in Egypt

<sup>5</sup> All the people who were directly descended from Jacob numbered seventy. But Joseph was already in Egypt,

<sup>7</sup> The Israelites, however, were fruitful, increased greatly, multiplied, and became extremely strong, so that the land was filled with them.

<sup>8</sup> Then a new king, who did not know about Joseph, came to power over Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> He said to his people, “Look at the Israelite people, more numerous and stronger than we are!

<sup>10</sup> Come, let’s deal wisely with them. Otherwise they will continue to multiply, and if a war breaks out, they will ally themselves with our enemies and fight against us and leave the country.”

<sup>13</sup> and they made the Israelites serve rigorously.

<sup>14</sup> They made their lives bitter by hard service with mortar and bricks and by all kinds of service in the fields. Every kind of service the Israelites were required to give was rigorous.

<sup>15</sup> The king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was named Shiphrah and the other Puah,

<sup>16</sup> “When you assist the Hebrew women in childbirth, observe at the delivery: If it is a son, kill him, but if it is a daughter, she may live.”

<sup>17</sup> But the midwives feared God and did not do what the king of Egypt had told them; they let the boys live.

<sup>18</sup> Then the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and said to them, “Why have you done this and let the boys live?”

<sup>21</sup> And because the midwives feared God, he made households for them.

<sup>2</sup> The woman became pregnant and gave birth to a son. When she saw that he was a healthy child, she hid him for three months.

<sup>3</sup> But when she was no longer able to hide him, she took a papyrus basket for him and sealed it with bitumen and pitch. She put the child in it and set it among the reeds along the edge of the Nile.

<sup>6</sup> opened it, and saw the child – a boy, crying! – and she felt compassion for him and said, “This is one of the Hebrews’ children.”

<sup>7</sup> Then his sister said to Pharaoh’s daughter, “Shall I go and get a nursing woman for you from the Hebrews, so that she may nurse the child for you?”

<sup>8</sup> Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Yes, do so.” So the young girl went and got the child’s mother.

<sup>9</sup> Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Take this child and nurse him for me, and I will pay your wages.” So the woman took the child and nursed him.

<sup>10</sup> When the child grew older she brought him to Pharaoh’s daughter, and he became her son. She named him Moses, saying, “Because I drew him from the water.”

The Presumption of the Deliverer

<sup>11</sup> In those days, when Moses had grown up, he went out to his people and observed their hard labor, and he saw an Egyptian man attacking a Hebrew man, one of his own people.

<sup>12</sup> He looked this way and that and saw that no one was there, and then he attacked the Egyptian and concealed the body in the sand.

<sup>13</sup> When he went out the next day, there were two Hebrew men fighting. So he said to the one who was in the wrong, “Why are you attacking your fellow Hebrew?”

<sup>14</sup> The man replied, “Who made you a ruler and a judge over us? Are you planning to kill me like you killed that Egyptian?” Then Moses was afraid, thinking, “Surely what I did has become known.”

<sup>15</sup> When Pharaoh heard about this event, he sought to kill Moses. So Moses fled from Pharaoh and settled in the land of Midian, and he settled by a certain well.

<sup>16</sup> Now a priest of Midian had seven daughters, and they came and began to draw water and fill the troughs in order to water their father’s flock.

<sup>17</sup> When some shepherds came and drove them away, Moses came up and defended them and then watered their flock.

<sup>18</sup> So when they came home to their father Reuel, he asked, “Why have you come home so early today?”

<sup>19</sup> They said, “An Egyptian man rescued us from the shepherds, and he actually drew water for us and watered the flock!”

<sup>20</sup> He said to his daughters, “So where is he? Why in the world did you leave the man? Call him, so that he may eat a meal with us.”

<sup>21</sup> Moses agreed to stay with the man, and he gave his daughter Zipporah to Moses in marriage.

<sup>22</sup> When she bore a son, Moses named him Gershom, for he said, “I have become a resident foreigner in a foreign land.”

The Call of the Deliverer

<sup>23</sup> During that long period of time the king of Egypt died, and the Israelites groaned because of the slave labor. They cried out, and their desperate cry because of their slave labor went up to God.

<sup>1</sup> Now Moses was shepherding the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian, and he led the flock to the far side of the desert and came to the mountain of God, to Horeb.

<sup>2</sup> The angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire from within a bush. He looked – and the bush was ablaze with fire, but it was not being consumed!

<sup>3</sup> So Moses thought, “I will turn aside to see this amazing sight. Why does the bush not burn up?”

<sup>4</sup> When the LORD saw that he had turned aside to look, God called to him from within the bush and said, “Moses, Moses!” And Moses said, “Here I am.”

<sup>5</sup> God said, “Do not approach any closer! Take your sandals off your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy ground.”

<sup>6</sup> He added, “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” Then Moses hid his face, because he was afraid to look at God.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD said, “I have surely seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt. I have heard their cry because of their taskmasters, for I know their sorrows.

<sup>8</sup> I have come down to deliver them from the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up from that land to a land that is both good and spacious, to a land flowing with milk and honey, to the region of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites.

<sup>9</sup> And now indeed the cry of the Israelites has come to me, and I have also seen how severely the Egyptians oppress them.

<sup>10</sup> So now go, and I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt.”

<sup>11</sup> Moses said to God, “Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh, or that I should bring the Israelites out of Egypt?”

<sup>12</sup> He replied, “Surely I will be with you, and this will be the sign to you that I have sent you: When you bring the people out of Egypt, you and they will serve God on this mountain.”

<sup>13</sup> Moses said to God, “If I go to the Israelites and tell them, ‘The God of your fathers has sent me to you,’ and they ask me, ‘What is his name?’ – what should I say to them?”

<sup>14</sup> God said to Moses, “I AM | strong="H1961" that I AM.” And he said, “You must say this | strong="H3541" to the Israelites, ‘I AM | strong="H1961" has sent me to you.’ ”

<sup>15</sup> God also said to Moses, “You must say this to the Israelites, ‘The LORD – the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob – has sent me to you. This is my name forever, and this is my memorial from generation to generation.’

<sup>16</sup> “Go and bring together the elders of Israel and tell them, ‘The LORD, the God of your fathers, appeared to me – the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob – saying, “I have attended carefully to you and to what has been done to you in Egypt,

<sup>17</sup> and I have promised that I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, to a land flowing with milk and honey.” ’

<sup>18</sup> “The elders will listen to you, and then you and the elders of Israel must go to the king of Egypt and tell him, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. So now, let us go three days’ journey into the wilderness, so that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.’

<sup>19</sup> But I know that the king of Egypt will not let you go, not even under force.

<sup>20</sup> So I will extend my hand and strike Egypt with all my wonders that I will do among them, and after that he will release you.

<sup>21</sup> “I will grant this people favor with the Egyptians, so that when you depart you will not leave empty-handed.

<sup>22</sup> Every woman will ask her neighbor and the one who happens to be staying in her house for items of silver and gold and for clothing. You will put these articles on your sons and daughters – thus you will plunder Egypt!”

4

<sup>1</sup> Moses answered again, “And if they do not believe me or pay attention to me, but say, ‘The LORD has not appeared to you?’”

<sup>2</sup> The LORD said to him, “What is that in your hand?” He said, “A staff.”

<sup>3</sup> The LORD said | strong="H0559", “Throw it to the ground.” So he threw it to the ground, and it became a snake, and Moses ran from it.

<sup>4</sup> But the LORD said to Moses, “Put out your hand and grab it by the tail” – so he put out his hand and caught it, and it became a staff in his hand –

<sup>5</sup> “that they may believe that the LORD, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you.”

<sup>6</sup> The LORD also said to him, “Put your hand into your robe.” So he put his hand into his robe, and when he brought it out – there was his hand, leprous like snow!

<sup>7</sup> He said, “Put your hand back into your robe.” So he put his hand back into his robe, and when he brought it out from his robe – there it was, restored like the rest of his skin!

<sup>8</sup> “If they do not believe you or pay attention to the former sign, then they may believe the latter sign.

<sup>9</sup> And if they do not believe even these two signs or listen to you, then take some water from the Nile and pour it out on the dry ground. The water you take out of the Nile will become blood on the dry ground.”

<sup>10</sup> Then Moses said to the LORD, “O my Lord, I am not an eloquent man, neither in the past nor since you have spoken to your servant, for I am slow of speech and slow of tongue.”

<sup>11</sup> The LORD said to him, “Who gave a mouth to man, or who makes a person mute or deaf or seeing or blind? Is it not I, the LORD?

<sup>12</sup> So now go, and I will be with your mouth and will teach you what you must say.”

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD became angry with Moses, and he said, “What about your brother Aaron the Levite? I know that he can speak very well. Moreover, he is coming to meet you, and when he sees you he will be glad in his heart.

<sup>15</sup> “So you are to speak to him and put the words in his mouth. And as for me, I will be with your mouth and with his mouth, and I will teach you both what you must do.

<sup>16</sup> He will speak for you to the people, and it will be as if he were your mouth and as if you were his God.

<sup>17</sup> You will also take in your hand this staff, with which you will do the signs.”

The Return of Moses

<sup>18</sup> So Moses went back to his father-in-law Jethro and said to him, “Let me go, so that I may return to my relatives in Egypt and see if they are still alive.” Jethro said to Moses, “Go in peace.”

<sup>19</sup> The LORD said to Moses in Midian, “Go back to Egypt, because all the men who were seeking your life are dead.”

<sup>20</sup> Then Moses took his wife and sons and put them on a donkey and headed back to the land of Egypt, and Moses took the staff of God in his hand.

<sup>21</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “When you go back to Egypt, see that you do before Pharaoh all the wonders I have put under your control. But I will harden his heart and he will not let the people go.

<sup>22</sup> You must say to Pharaoh, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Israel is my son, my firstborn,

<sup>23</sup> and I said to you, ‘Let my son go that he may serve me,’ but since you have refused to let him go, I will surely kill your son, your firstborn!” ’ ”

<sup>25</sup> But Zipporah took a flint knife, cut off the foreskin of her son and touched it to Moses’ feet, and said, “Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me.”

<sup>26</sup> So the LORD let him alone. (At that time she said, “A bridegroom of blood,” referring to the circumcision.)

<sup>27</sup> The LORD said to Aaron, “Go to the wilderness to meet Moses. So he went and met him at the mountain of God and greeted him with a kiss.

<sup>28</sup> Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD who had sent him and all the signs that he had commanded him.

<sup>30</sup> Aaron spoke all the words that the LORD had spoken to Moses and did the signs in the sight of the people, <sup>31</sup> and the people believed. When they heard that the LORD had attended to the Israelites and that he had seen their affliction, they bowed down close to the ground.

5

<sup>1</sup> Afterward Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Release my people so that they may hold a pilgrim feast to me in the desert.’ ”

<sup>2</sup> But Pharaoh said, “Who is the LORD that I should obey him by releasing Israel? I do not know the LORD, and I will not release Israel!”

<sup>3</sup> And they said, “The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Let us go a three-day journey into the desert so that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God, so that he does not strike us with plague or the sword.”

<sup>7</sup> “You must no longer give straw to the people for making bricks as before. Let them go and collect straw for themselves.

<sup>8</sup> But you must require of them the same quota of bricks that they were making before. Do not reduce it, for they are slackers. That is why they are crying, ‘Let us go sacrifice to our God.’

<sup>9</sup> Make the work harder for the men so they will keep at it and pay no attention to lying words!”

<sup>10</sup> So the slave masters of the people and their foremen went to the Israelites and said, “Thus says Pharaoh: ‘I am not giving you straw.

<sup>11</sup> You go get straw for yourselves wherever you can find it, because there will be no reduction at all in your workload.’ ”

<sup>13</sup> The slave masters were pressuring them, saying, “Complete your work for each day, just like when there was straw!”

<sup>14</sup> The Israelite foremen whom Pharaoh's slave masters had set over them were beaten and were asked, "Why did you not complete your requirement for brickmaking as in the past – both yesterday and today?"

The Israelite foremen went and cried out to Pharaoh, "Why are you treating your servants this way?"

<sup>16</sup> No straw is given to your servants, but we are told, 'Make bricks!' Your servants are even being beaten, but the fault is with your people."

<sup>18</sup> So now, get back to work! You will not be given straw, but you must still produce your quota of bricks!"

<sup>19</sup> The Israelite foremen saw that they were in trouble when they were told, "You must not reduce the daily quota of your bricks."

<sup>21</sup> and they said to them, "May the LORD look on you and judge, because you have made us stink in the opinion of Pharaoh and his servants, so that you have given them an excuse to kill us!"

The Assurance of Deliverance

<sup>22</sup> Moses returned to the LORD, and said, "Lord, why have you caused trouble for this people? Why did you ever send me?"

<sup>23</sup> From the time I went to speak to Pharaoh in your name, he has caused trouble for this people, and you have certainly not rescued them!"

6

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, "Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh, for compelled by my strong hand he will release them, and by my strong hand he will drive them out of his land."

<sup>2</sup> God spoke to Moses and said to him, "I am the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob as God Almighty, but by my name 'the LORD' I was not known to them.

<sup>5</sup> I have also heard the groaning of the Israelites, whom the Egyptians are enslaving, and I have remembered my covenant.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, tell the Israelites, 'I am the LORD. I will bring you out from your enslavement to the Egyptians, I will rescue you from the hard labor they impose, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with great judgments.

<sup>7</sup> I will take you to myself for a people, and I will be your God. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God, who brought you out from your enslavement to the Egyptians.

<sup>8</sup> I will bring you to the land I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob – and I will give it to you as a possession. I am the LORD!"

<sup>9</sup>

Moses told this to the Israelites, but they did not listen to him because of their discouragement and hard labor.

<sup>10</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses,

<sup>12</sup> But Moses replied to the LORD, "If the Israelites did not listen to me, then how will Pharaoh listen to me, since I speak with difficulty?"

<sup>13</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron and gave them a charge for the Israelites and Pharaoh king of Egypt to bring the Israelites out of the land of Egypt.

The Ancestry of the Deliverer

The sons of Reuben, the firstborn son of Israel, were Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi. These were the clans of Reuben.

These are the heads of the fathers' households of Levi according to their clans.

<sup>26</sup> It was the same Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said, "Bring the Israelites out of the land of Egypt by their regiments."

<sup>27</sup> They were the men who were speaking to Pharaoh king of Egypt, in order to bring the Israelites out of Egypt. It was the same Moses and Aaron.

The Authentication of the Word

<sup>28</sup> When the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt,

<sup>29</sup> he said to him, "I am the LORD. Tell Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I am telling you."

<sup>30</sup> But Moses said before the LORD, "Since I speak with difficulty, why should Pharaoh listen to me?"

7

<sup>1</sup> So the LORD said to Moses, "See, I have made you like God to Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron will be your prophet.

<sup>2</sup> You are to speak everything I command you, and your brother Aaron is to tell Pharaoh that he must release the Israelites from his land.

<sup>3</sup> But I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and although I will multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt, <sup>4</sup> Pharaoh will not listen to you. I will reach into Egypt and bring out my regiments, my people the Israelites, from the land of Egypt with great acts of judgment.

<sup>5</sup> Then the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD, when I extend my hand over Egypt and bring the Israelites out from among them.

<sup>6</sup> And Moses and Aaron did so; they did just as the LORD commanded them.

<sup>7</sup> Now Moses was eighty years old and Aaron was eighty-three years old when they spoke to Pharaoh.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

<sup>9</sup> “When Pharaoh says to you, ‘Do a miracle,’ and you say to Aaron, ‘Take your staff and throw it down before Pharaoh,’ it will become a snake.”

<sup>10</sup> When Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh, they did so, just as the LORD had commanded them – Aaron threw down his staff before Pharaoh and his servants and it became a snake.

<sup>12</sup> Each man threw down his staff, and the staffs became snakes. But Aaron’s staff swallowed up their staffs.

<sup>13</sup> Yet Pharaoh’s heart became hard, and he did not listen to them, just as the LORD had predicted.

The First Blow: Water to Blood

<sup>14</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh’s heart is hard; he refuses to release the people.

<sup>15</sup> Go to Pharaoh in the morning when he goes out to the water. Position yourself to meet him by the edge of the Nile, and take in your hand the staff that was turned into a snake.

<sup>16</sup> Tell him, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you to say, “Release my people, that they may serve me in the desert!” But until now you have not listened.

<sup>17</sup> Thus says the LORD: “By this you will know that I am the LORD: I am going to strike the water of the Nile with the staff that is in my hand, and it will be turned into blood.

<sup>18</sup> Fish in the Nile will die, the Nile will stink, and the Egyptians will be unable to drink water from the Nile.” ’ ’ ”

<sup>19</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Tell Aaron, ‘Take your staff and stretch out your hand over Egypt’s waters – over their rivers, over their canals, over their ponds, and over all their reservoirs – so that it becomes blood.’ There will be blood everywhere in the land of Egypt, even in wooden and stone containers.”

<sup>20</sup> Moses and Aaron did so, just as the LORD had commanded. Moses raised the staff and struck the water that was in the Nile right before the eyes of Pharaoh and his servants, and all the water that was in the Nile was turned to blood.

<sup>21</sup> When the fish that were in the Nile died, the Nile began to stink, so that the Egyptians could not drink water from the Nile. There was blood everywhere in the land of Egypt!

<sup>22</sup> But the magicians of Egypt did the same by their secret arts, and so Pharaoh’s heart remained hard, and he refused to listen to Moses and Aaron – just as the LORD had predicted.

The Second Blow: Frogs

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and tell him, ‘Thus says the LORD: “Release my people in order that they may serve me!”

<sup>2</sup> But if you refuse to release them, then I am going to plague all your territory with frogs.

<sup>3</sup> The Nile will swarm with frogs, and they will come up and go into your house, in your bedroom, and on your bed, and into the houses of your servants and your people, and into your ovens and your kneading troughs.

<sup>6</sup> So Aaron extended his hand over the waters of Egypt, and frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.

<sup>7</sup> The magicians did the same with their secret arts and brought up frogs on the land of Egypt too.

<sup>8</sup> Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, “Pray to the LORD that he may take the frogs away from me and my people, and I will release the people that they may sacrifice to the LORD.”

<sup>9</sup> Moses said to Pharaoh, “You may have the honor over me – when shall I pray for you, your servants, and your people, for the frogs to be removed from you and your houses, so that they will be left only in the Nile?”

<sup>10</sup> He said, “Tomorrow.” And Moses said, “It will be as you say, so that you may know that there is no one like the LORD our God.

<sup>13</sup> The LORD did as Moses asked – the frogs died out of the houses, the villages, and the fields.

<sup>15</sup> But when Pharaoh saw that there was relief, he hardened his heart and did not listen to them, just as the LORD had predicted.

The Third Blow: Gnats

<sup>16</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Tell Aaron, ‘Extend your staff and strike the dust of the ground, and it will become gnats throughout all the land of Egypt.’ ”

<sup>17</sup> They did so; Aaron extended his hand with his staff, he struck the dust of the ground, and it became gnats on people and on animals. All the dust of the ground became gnats throughout all the land of Egypt.

<sup>18</sup> When the magicians attempted to bring forth gnats by their secret arts, they could not. So there were gnats on people and on animals.

<sup>19</sup> The magicians said to Pharaoh, “It is the finger of God!” But Pharaoh’s heart remained hard, and he did not listen to them, just as the LORD had predicted.

The Fourth Blow: Flies

<sup>20</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Get up early in the morning and position yourself before Pharaoh as he goes out to the water, and tell him, ‘Thus says the LORD, “Release my people that they may serve me!’ ”

<sup>21</sup> If you do not release my people, then I am going to send swarms of flies on you and on your servants and on your people and in your houses. The houses of the Egyptians will be full of flies, and even the ground they stand on.

<sup>22</sup> But on that day I will mark off the land of Goshen, where my people are staying, so that no swarms of flies will be there, that you may know that I am the LORD in the midst of this land.

<sup>23</sup> I will put a division between my people and your people. This sign will take place tomorrow.” ’ ”

<sup>24</sup> The LORD did so; a thick swarm of flies came into Pharaoh’s house and into the houses of his servants, and throughout the whole land of Egypt the land was ruined because of the swarms of flies.

<sup>26</sup> But Moses said, “That would not be the right thing to do, for the sacrifices we make to the LORD our God would be an abomination to the Egyptians. If we make sacrifices that are an abomination to the Egyptians right before their eyes, will they not stone us?

<sup>27</sup> We must go on a three-day journey into the desert and sacrifice to the LORD our God, just as he is telling us.”

<sup>28</sup> Pharaoh said, “I will release you so that you may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the desert. Only you must not go very far. Do pray for me.”

<sup>29</sup> Moses said, “I am going to go out from you and pray to the LORD, and the swarms of flies will go away from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people tomorrow. Only do not let Pharaoh deal falsely again by not releasing the people to sacrifice to the LORD.”

<sup>30</sup> So Moses went out from Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD,

<sup>31</sup> and the LORD did as Moses asked – he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. Not one remained!

<sup>32</sup> But Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also and did not release the people.

9

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and tell him, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, “Release my people that they may serve me!’

<sup>2</sup> For if you refuse to release them and continue holding them,

<sup>3</sup> then the hand of the LORD will surely bring a very terrible plague on your livestock in the field, on the horses, the donkeys, the camels, the herds, and the flocks.

<sup>4</sup> But the Lord will distinguish between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, and nothing will die of all that the Israelites have.” ’ ’ ”

<sup>6</sup> And the LORD did this on the next day; all the livestock of the Egyptians died, but of the Israelites’ livestock not one died.

<sup>7</sup> Pharaoh sent representatives to investigate, and indeed, not even one of the livestock of Israel had died. But Pharaoh’s heart remained hard, and he did not release the people.

The Sixth Blow: Boils

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Take handfuls of soot from a furnace, and have Moses throw it into the air while Pharaoh is watching.

<sup>9</sup> It will become fine dust over the whole land of Egypt and will cause boils to break out and fester on both people and animals in all the land of Egypt.”

<sup>11</sup> The magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils, for boils were on the magicians and on all the Egyptians.

<sup>12</sup> But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not listen to them, just as the LORD had predicted to Moses.

The Seventh Blow: Hail

<sup>13</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Get up early in the morning, stand before Pharaoh, and tell him, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews: “Release my people so that they may serve me!’

<sup>14</sup> For this time I will send all my plagues on your very self and on your servants and your people, so that you may know that there is no one like me in all the earth.

<sup>15</sup> For by now I could have stretched out my hand and struck you and your people with plague, and you would have been destroyed from the earth.

<sup>16</sup> But for this purpose I have caused you to stand: to show you my strength, and so that my name may be declared in all the earth.

<sup>17</sup> You are still exalting yourself against my people by not releasing them.

<sup>18</sup> I am going to cause very severe hail to rain down about this time tomorrow, such hail as has never occurred in Egypt from the day it was founded until now.

<sup>19</sup> So now, send instructions to gather your livestock and all your possessions in the fields to a safe place. Every person or animal caught in the field and not brought into the house – the hail will come down on them, and they will die!” ’ ’ ”

<sup>22</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “Extend your hand toward the sky that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, on people and on animals, and on everything that grows in the field in the land of Egypt.”

<sup>23</sup> When Moses extended his staff toward the sky, the LORD sent thunder and hail, and fire fell to the earth; so the LORD caused hail to rain down on the land of Egypt.

<sup>24</sup> Hail fell and fire mingled with the hail; the hail was so severe that there had not been any like it in all the land of Egypt since it had become a nation.

<sup>25</sup> The hail struck everything in the open fields, both people and animals, throughout all the land of Egypt. The hail struck everything that grows in the field, and it broke all the trees of the field to pieces.

<sup>27</sup> So Pharaoh sent and summoned Moses and Aaron and said to them, “I have sinned this time! The LORD is righteous, and I and my people are guilty.

<sup>28</sup> Pray to the LORD, for the mighty thunderings and hail are too much! I will release you and you will stay no longer.”

<sup>29</sup> Moses said to him, “When I leave the city I will spread my hands to the LORD, the thunder will cease, and there will be no more hail, so that you may know that the earth belongs to the LORD.

<sup>30</sup> But as for you and your servants, I know that you do not yet fear the LORD God.”

<sup>31</sup> (Now the flax and the barley were struck by the hail, for the barley had ripened and the flax was in bud.

<sup>32</sup> But the wheat and the spelt were not struck, for they are later crops.)

<sup>34</sup> When Pharaoh saw that the rain and hail and thunder ceased, he sinned again: both he and his servants hardened their hearts.

<sup>35</sup> So Pharaoh’s heart remained hard, and he did not release the Israelites, as the LORD had predicted through Moses.

10

<sup>1</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the heart of his servants, in order to display these signs of mine before him,

<sup>2</sup> and in order that in the hearing of your son and your grandson you may tell how I made fools of the Egyptians and about my signs that I displayed among them, so that you may know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>3</sup> So Moses and Aaron came to Pharaoh and told him, “Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews: ‘How long do you refuse to humble yourself before me? Release my people so that they may serve me!’

<sup>4</sup> But if you refuse to release my people, I am going to bring locusts into your territory tomorrow.

<sup>5</sup> They will cover the surface of the earth, so that you will be unable to see the ground. They will eat the remainder of what escaped – what is left over for you – from the hail, and they will eat every tree that grows for you from the field.

<sup>6</sup> They will fill your houses, the houses of your servants, and all the houses of Egypt, such as neither your fathers nor your grandfathers have seen since they have been in the land until this day!’ ” Then Moses turned and went out from Pharaoh.

<sup>7</sup> Pharaoh’s servants said to him, “How long will this man be a menace to us? Release the people so that they may serve the LORD their God. Do you not know that Egypt is destroyed?”

<sup>8</sup> So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh, and he said to them, “Go, serve the LORD your God. Exactly who is going with you?”

<sup>9</sup> Moses said, “We will go with our young and our old, with our sons and our daughters, and with our sheep and our cattle we will go, because we are to hold a pilgrim feast for the LORD.”

<sup>10</sup> He said to them, “The LORD will need to be with you if I release you and your dependents! Watch out! Trouble is right in front of you!”

<sup>11</sup> No! Go, you men only, and serve the LORD, for that is what you want.” Then Moses and Aaron were driven out of Pharaoh’s presence.

<sup>12</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Extend your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up over the land of Egypt and eat everything that grows in the ground, everything that the hail has left.”

<sup>13</sup> So Moses extended his staff over the land of Egypt, and then the LORD brought an east wind on the land all that day and all night. The morning came, and the east wind had brought up the locusts!

<sup>14</sup> The locusts went up over all the land of Egypt and settled down in all the territory of Egypt. It was very severe; there had been no locusts like them before, nor will there be such ever again.

<sup>15</sup> They covered the surface of all the ground, so that the ground became dark with them, and they ate all the vegetation of the ground and all the fruit of the trees that the hail had left. Nothing green remained on the trees or on anything that grew in the fields throughout the whole land of Egypt.

Then Pharaoh quickly summoned Moses and Aaron and said, “I have sinned against the LORD your God and against you!”

<sup>17</sup> So now, forgive my sin this time only, and pray to the LORD your God that he would only take this death away from me.”

<sup>20</sup> But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not release the Israelites.

The Ninth Blow: Darkness

<sup>21</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Extend your hand toward heaven so that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, a darkness so thick it can be felt.”

<sup>22</sup> So Moses extended his hand toward heaven, and there was absolute darkness throughout the land of Egypt for three days.

<sup>23</sup> No one could see another person, and no one could rise from his place for three days. But the Israelites had light in the places where they lived.

<sup>24</sup> Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and said, “Go, serve the LORD – only your flocks and herds will be detained. Even your families may go with you.”

<sup>25</sup> But Moses said, “Will you also provide us with sacrifices and burnt offerings that we may present them to the LORD our God?

<sup>26</sup> Our livestock must also go with us! Not a hoof is to be left behind! For we must take these animals to serve the LORD our God. Until we arrive there, we do not know what we must use to serve the LORD.”

<sup>27</sup> But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he was not willing to release them.

11

<sup>1</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “I will bring one more plague on Pharaoh and on Egypt; after that he will release you from this place. When he releases you, he will drive you out completely from this place.

<sup>2</sup> Instruct the people that each man and each woman is to request from his or her neighbor items of silver and gold.”

<sup>4</sup> Moses said, “Thus says the LORD: ‘About midnight I will go throughout Egypt,

<sup>5</sup> and all the firstborn in the land of Egypt will die, from the firstborn son of Pharaoh who sits on his throne, to the firstborn son of the slave girl who is at her hand mill, and all the firstborn of the cattle.

<sup>6</sup> There will be a great cry throughout the whole land of Egypt, such as there has never been, nor ever will be again.

<sup>7</sup> But against any of the Israelites not even a dog will bark against either people or animals, so that you may know that the LORD distinguishes between Egypt and Israel.’

<sup>8</sup> All these your servants will come down to me and bow down to me, saying, ‘Go, you and all the people who follow you,’ and after that I will go out.” Then Moses went out from Pharaoh in great anger.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh will not listen to you, so that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.”

<sup>10</sup> So Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh, but the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not release the Israelites from his land.

12

<sup>2</sup> “This month is to be your beginning of months; it will be your first month of the year.

<sup>3</sup> Tell the whole community of Israel, ‘In the tenth day of this month they each must take a lamb for themselves according to their families – a lamb for each household.

<sup>4</sup> If any household is too small for a lamb, the man and his next-door neighbor are to take a lamb according to the number of people – you will make your count for the lamb according to how much each one can eat.

<sup>5</sup> Your lamb must be perfect, a male, one year old; you may take it from the sheep or from the goats.

<sup>6</sup> You must care for it until the fourteenth day of this month, and then the whole community of Israel will kill it around sundown.

<sup>8</sup> They will eat the meat the same night; they will eat it roasted over the fire with bread made without yeast and with bitter herbs.

<sup>9</sup> Do not eat it raw or boiled in water, but roast it over the fire with its head, its legs, and its entrails.

<sup>10</sup> You must leave nothing until morning, but you must burn with fire whatever remains of it until morning.

<sup>11</sup> This is how you are to eat it – dressed to travel, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. You are to eat it in haste. It is the LORD's Passover.

<sup>12</sup> I will pass through the land of Egypt in the same night, and I will attack all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both of humans and of animals, and on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment. I am the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are, so that when I see the blood I will pass over you, and this plague will not fall on you to destroy you when I attack the land of Egypt.

<sup>14</sup> This day will become a memorial for you, and you will celebrate it as a festival to the LORD – you will celebrate it perpetually as a lasting ordinance.

<sup>15</sup> For seven days you must eat bread made without yeast. Surely on the first day you must put away yeast from your houses because anyone who eats bread made with yeast from the first day to the seventh day will be cut off from Israel.

<sup>16</sup> On the first day there will be a holy convocation, and on the seventh day there will be a holy convocation for you. You must do no work of any kind on them, only what every person will eat – that alone may be prepared for you.

<sup>17</sup> So you will keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread, because on this very day I brought your regiments out from the land of Egypt, and so you must keep this day perpetually as a lasting ordinance.

<sup>18</sup> In the first month, from the fourteenth day of the month, in the evening, you will eat bread made without yeast until the twenty-first day of the month in the evening.

<sup>19</sup> For seven days yeast must not be found in your houses, for whoever eats what is made with yeast – that person will be cut off from the community of Israel, whether a foreigner or one born in the land.

<sup>20</sup> You will not eat anything made with yeast; in all the places where you live you must eat bread made without yeast.' ”

<sup>21</sup> Then Moses summoned all the elders of Israel, and told them, “Go and select for yourselves a lamb or young goat for your families, and kill the Passover animals.

<sup>22</sup> Take a branch of hyssop, dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and apply to the top of the doorframe and the two side posts some of the blood that is in the basin. Not one of you is to go out the door of his house until morning.

<sup>23</sup> For the LORD will pass through to strike Egypt, and when he sees the blood on the top of the doorframe and the two side posts, then the LORD will pass over the door, and he will not permit the destroyer to enter your houses to strike you.

<sup>24</sup> You must observe this event as an ordinance for you and for your children forever.

<sup>25</sup> When you enter the land that the LORD will give to you, just as he said, you must observe this ceremony.

<sup>27</sup> then you will say, ‘It is the sacrifice of the LORD's Passover, when he passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt, when he struck Egypt and delivered our households.’ ” The people bowed down low to the ground, <sup>28</sup> and the Israelites went away and did exactly as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron.

The Deliverance from Egypt

<sup>29</sup> It happened at midnight – the LORD attacked all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the prison, and all the firstborn of the cattle.

<sup>30</sup> Pharaoh got up in the night, along with all his servants and all Egypt, and there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was no house in which there was not someone dead.

<sup>31</sup> Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron in the night and said, “Get up, get out from among my people, both you and the Israelites! Go, serve the LORD as you have requested!

<sup>32</sup> Also, take your flocks and your herds, just as you have requested, and leave. But bless me also.”

<sup>33</sup> The Egyptians were urging the people on, in order to send them out of the land quickly, for they were saying, “We are all dead!”

<sup>34</sup> So the people took their dough before the yeast was added, with their kneading troughs bound up in their clothing on their shoulders.

<sup>38</sup> A mixed multitude also went up with them, and flocks and herds – a very large number of cattle.

<sup>39</sup> They baked cakes of bread without yeast using the dough they had brought from Egypt, for it was made without yeast – because they were thrust out of Egypt and were not able to delay, they could not prepare food for themselves either.

<sup>41</sup> At the end of the 430 years, on the very day, all the regiments of the LORD went out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>42</sup> It was a night of vigil for the LORD to bring them out from the land of Egypt, and so on this night all Israel is to keep the vigil to the LORD for generations to come.

Participation in the Passover

<sup>43</sup> The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “This is the ordinance of the Passover. No foreigner may share in eating it.

<sup>46</sup> It must be eaten in one house; you must not bring any of the meat outside the house, and you must not break a bone of it.

<sup>48</sup> “When a foreigner lives with you and wants to observe the Passover to the LORD, all his males must be circumcised, and then he may approach and observe it, and he will be like one who is born in the land – but no uncircumcised person may eat of it.

<sup>49</sup> The same law will apply to the person who is native-born and to the foreigner who lives among you.”

13

<sup>2</sup> “Set apart to me every firstborn male – the first offspring of every womb among the Israelites, whether human or animal; it is mine.”

<sup>3</sup> Moses said to the people, “Remember this day on which you came out from Egypt, from the place where you were enslaved, for the LORD brought you out of there with a mighty hand – and no bread made with yeast may be eaten.

<sup>5</sup> When the LORD brings you to the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Hivites, and Jebusites, which he swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, then you will keep this ceremony in this month.

<sup>6</sup> For seven days you must eat bread made without yeast, and on the seventh day there is to be a festival to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> Bread made without yeast must be eaten for seven days; no bread made with yeast shall be seen among you, and you must have no yeast among you within any of your borders.

<sup>8</sup> You are to tell your son on that day, ‘It is because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.’

<sup>9</sup> It will be a sign for you on your hand and a memorial on your forehead, so that the law of the LORD may be in your mouth, for with a mighty hand the LORD brought you out of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup> So you must keep this ordinance at its appointed time from year to year.

<sup>11</sup> When the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, as he swore to you and to your fathers, and gives it to you,

<sup>12</sup> then you must give over to the LORD the first offspring of every womb. Every firstling of a beast that you have – the males will be the LORD’s.

<sup>13</sup> Every firstling of a donkey you must redeem with a lamb, and if you do not redeem it, then you must break its neck. Every firstborn of your sons you must redeem.

In the future, when your son asks you ‘What is this?’ you are to tell him, ‘With a mighty hand the LORD brought us out from Egypt, from the land of slavery.’

<sup>15</sup> When Pharaoh stubbornly refused to release us, the LORD killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of people to the firstborn of animals. That is why I am sacrificing to the LORD the first male offspring of every womb, but all my firstborn sons I redeem.’

<sup>16</sup> It will be for a sign on your hand and for frontlets on your forehead, for with a mighty hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt.”

The Leading of God

<sup>17</sup> When Pharaoh released the people, God did not lead them by the way to the land of the Philistines, although that was nearby, for God said, “Lest the people change their minds and return to Egypt when they experience war.”

<sup>18</sup> So God brought the people around by the way of the desert to the Red Sea, and the Israelites went up from the land of Egypt prepared for battle.

<sup>19</sup> Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for Joseph had made the Israelites solemnly swear, “God will surely attend to you, and you will carry my bones up from this place with you.”

<sup>21</sup> Now the LORD was going before them by day in a pillar of cloud to lead them in the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, so that they could travel day or night.

<sup>2</sup> “Tell the Israelites that they must turn and camp before Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea; you are to camp by the sea before Baal Zephon opposite it.

<sup>3</sup> Pharaoh will think regarding the Israelites, ‘They are wandering around confused in the land – the desert has closed in on them.’

<sup>4</sup> I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, and he will chase after them. I will gain honor because of Pharaoh and because of all his army, and the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD.” So this is what they did.

<sup>5</sup> When it was reported to the king of Egypt that the people had fled, the heart of Pharaoh and his servants was turned against the people, and the king and his servants said, “What in the world have we done? For we have released the people of Israel from serving us!”

<sup>8</sup> But the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he chased after the Israelites. Now the Israelites were going out defiantly.

<sup>10</sup> When Pharaoh got closer, the Israelites looked up, and there were the Egyptians marching after them, and they were terrified. The Israelites cried out to the LORD,

<sup>11</sup> and they said to Moses, “Is it because there are no graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the desert? What in the world have you done to us by bringing us out of Egypt?”

<sup>12</sup> Isn’t this what we told you in Egypt, ‘Leave us alone so that we can serve the Egyptians, because it is better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the desert!’ ”

<sup>13</sup> Moses said to the people, “Do not fear! Stand firm and see the salvation of the LORD that he will provide for you today; for the Egyptians that you see today you will never, ever see again.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD will fight for you, and you can be still.”

<sup>15</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Why do you cry out to me? Tell the Israelites to move on.

<sup>16</sup> And as for you, lift up your staff and extend your hand toward the sea and divide it, so that the Israelites may go through the middle of the sea on dry ground.

<sup>17</sup> And as for me, I am going to harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will come after them, that I may be honored because of Pharaoh and his army and his chariots and his horsemen.

<sup>18</sup> And the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD when I have gained my honor because of Pharaoh, his chariots, and his horsemen.”

<sup>19</sup> The angel of God, who was going before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them, and the pillar of cloud moved from before them and stood behind them.

<sup>20</sup> It came between the Egyptian camp and the Israelite camp; it was a dark cloud and it lit up the night so that one camp did not come near the other the whole night.

<sup>21</sup> Moses stretched out his hand toward the sea, and the LORD drove the sea apart by a strong east wind all that night, and he made the sea into dry land, and the water was divided.

<sup>24</sup> In the morning watch the LORD looked down on the Egyptian army through the pillar of fire and cloud, and he threw the Egyptian army into a panic.

<sup>25</sup> He jammed the wheels of their chariots so that they had difficulty driving, and the Egyptians said, "Let's flee from Israel, for the LORD fights for them against Egypt!"

<sup>26</sup> The LORD said to Moses, "Extend your hand toward the sea, so that the waters may flow back on the Egyptians, on their chariots, and on their horsemen!"

<sup>27</sup> So Moses extended his hand toward the sea, and the sea returned to its normal state when the sun began to rise. Now the Egyptians were fleeing before it, but the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the middle of the sea.

<sup>28</sup> The water returned and covered the chariots and the horsemen and all the army of Pharaoh that was coming after the Israelites into the sea – not so much as one of them survived!

<sup>30</sup> So the LORD saved Israel on that day from the power of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the shore of the sea.

<sup>31</sup> When Israel saw the great power that the LORD had exercised over the Egyptians, they feared the LORD, and they believed in the LORD and in his servant Moses.

15

<sup>1</sup> Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the LORD. They said,
"I will sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously, the horse and its rider he has thrown into the sea.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD | strong="H3050" is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation.

This is my God, and I will praise him, my father's God, and I will exalt him.

<sup>3</sup> The LORD is a warrior, the LORD is his name.

<sup>4</sup> The chariots of Pharaoh and his army he has thrown into the sea, and his chosen officers were drowned in the Red Sea.

they went down to the bottom like a stone.

your right hand, O LORD, shattered the enemy.

<sup>7</sup> In the abundance of your majesty you have overthrown those who rise up against you.

You sent forth your wrath;
it consumed them like stubble.

<sup>8</sup> By the blast of your nostrils the waters were piled up, the flowing water stood upright like a heap, and the deep waters were solidified in the heart of the sea.

<sup>9</sup> The enemy said, 'I will chase, I will overtake,
I will divide the spoil;
my desire will be satisfied on them.

I will draw my sword, my hand will destroy them.'

<sup>10</sup> But you blew with your breath, and the sea covered them.
They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

<sup>11</sup> Who is like you, O LORD, among the gods?
Who is like you? – majestic in holiness, fearful in praises, working wonders?

the earth swallowed them.

<sup>13</sup> By your loyal love you will lead the people whom you have redeemed; you will guide them by your strength to your holy dwelling place.

<sup>15</sup> Then the chiefs of Edom will be terrified, trembling will seize the leaders of Moab, and the inhabitants of Canaan will shake.

<sup>16</sup> Fear and dread will fall on them; by the greatness of your arm they will be as still as stone until your people pass by, O LORD, until the people whom you have bought pass by.

<sup>17</sup> You will bring them in and plant them in the mountain of your inheritance, in the place you made for your residence, O Lord, the sanctuary, O LORD | strong="H0136", that your hands have established.

<sup>18</sup> The LORD will reign forever and ever!

<sup>21</sup> Miriam sang in response to them, "Sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously; the horse and its rider he has thrown into the sea."

The Bitter Water

<sup>22</sup> Then Moses led Israel to journey away from the Red Sea. They went out to the Desert of Shur, walked for three days into the desert, and found no water.

<sup>23</sup> Then they came to Marah, but they were not able to drink the waters of Marah, because they were bitter. (That is why its name was Marah.)

<sup>25</sup> He cried out to the LORD, and the LORD showed him a tree. When Moses threw it into the water, the water became safe to drink. There the Lord made for them a binding ordinance, and there he tested them.

<sup>26</sup> He said, "If you will diligently obey the LORD your God, and do what is right in his sight, and pay attention to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, then all the diseases that I brought on the Egyptians I will not bring on you, for I, the LORD, am your healer."

<sup>27</sup> Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve wells of water and seventy palm trees, and they camped there by the water.

16

<sup>3</sup> The Israelites said to them, "If only we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the pots of meat, when we ate bread to the full, for you have brought us out into this desert to kill this whole assembly with hunger!"

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, "I am going to rain bread from heaven for you, and the people will go out and gather the amount for each day, so that I may test them. Will they walk in my law or not?"

<sup>5</sup> On the sixth day they will prepare what they bring in, and it will be twice as much as they gather every other day.”

<sup>6</sup> Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, “In the evening you will know that the LORD has brought you out of the land of Egypt, <sup>7</sup> and in the morning you will see the glory of the LORD, because he has heard your murmurings against the LORD. As for us, what are we, that you should murmur against us?”

<sup>8</sup> Moses said, “You will know this when the LORD gives you meat to eat in the evening and bread in the morning to satisfy you, because the LORD has heard your murmurings that you are murmuring against him. As for us, what are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD.”

<sup>9</sup> Then Moses said to Aaron, “Tell the whole community of the Israelites, ‘Come before the LORD, because he has heard your murmurings.’ ”

<sup>10</sup> As Aaron spoke to the whole community of the Israelites and they looked toward the desert, there the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud,

<sup>11</sup> and the LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>12</sup> “I have heard the murmurings of the Israelites. Tell them, ‘During the evening you will eat meat, and in the morning you will be satisfied with bread, so that you may know that I am the LORD your God.’ ”

<sup>13</sup> In the evening the quail came up and covered the camp, and in the morning a layer of dew was all around the camp.

<sup>14</sup> When the layer of dew had evaporated, there on the surface of the desert was a thin flaky substance, thin like frost on the earth.

<sup>15</sup> When the Israelites saw it, they said to one another, “What is it?” because they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, “It is the bread that the LORD has given you for food.

<sup>16</sup> “This is what the LORD has commanded: ‘Each person is to gather from it what he can eat, an omer per person according to the number of your people; each one will pick it up for whoever lives in his tent.’ ”

<sup>20</sup> But they did not listen to Moses; some kept part of it until morning, and it was full of worms and began to stink, and Moses was angry with them.

<sup>21</sup> So they gathered it each morning, each person according to what he could eat, and when the sun got hot, it would melt.

<sup>22</sup> And on the sixth day they gathered twice as much food, two omers per person; and all the leaders of the community came and told Moses.

<sup>23</sup> He said to them, “This is what the LORD has said: ‘Tomorrow is a time of cessation from work, a holy Sabbath to the LORD. Whatever you want to bake, bake today; whatever you want to boil, boil today; whatever is left put aside for yourselves to be kept until morning.’ ”

<sup>24</sup> So they put it aside until the morning, just as Moses had commanded, and it did not stink, nor were there any worms in it.

<sup>25</sup> Moses said, “Eat it today, for today is a Sabbath to the LORD; today you will not find it in the area.

<sup>26</sup> Six days you will gather it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, there will not be any.”

<sup>27</sup> On the seventh day some of the people went out to gather it, but they found nothing.

<sup>28</sup> So the LORD said to Moses, “How long do you refuse to obey my commandments and my instructions?”

<sup>29</sup> See, because the LORD has given you the Sabbath, that is why he is giving you food for two days on the sixth day. Each of you stay where you are; let no one go out of his place on the seventh day.”

<sup>30</sup> So the people rested on the seventh day.

<sup>31</sup> The house of Israel called its name “manna.” It was like coriander seed and was white, and it tasted like wafers with honey.

<sup>32</sup> Moses said, “This is what the LORD has commanded: ‘Fill an omer with it to be kept for generations to come, so that they may see the food I fed you in the desert when I brought you out from the land of Egypt.’ ”

<sup>35</sup> Now the Israelites ate manna forty years, until they came to a land that was inhabited; they ate manna until they came to the border of the land of Canaan.

17

<sup>1</sup> The whole community of the Israelites traveled on their journey from the Desert of Sin according to the LORD’s instruction, and they pitched camp in Rephidim. Now there was no water for the people to drink.

<sup>2</sup> So the people contended with Moses, and they said, “Give us water to drink!” Moses said to them, “Why do you contend with me? Why do you test the LORD?”

<sup>3</sup> But the people were very thirsty there for water, and they murmured against Moses and said, “Why in the world did you bring us up out of Egypt – to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst?”

<sup>4</sup> Then Moses cried out to the LORD, “What will I do with this people? – a little more and they will stone me!”

<sup>5</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Go over before the people; take with you some of the elders of Israel and take in your hand your staff with which you struck the Nile and go.

<sup>6</sup> I will be standing before you there on the rock in Horeb, and you will strike the rock, and water will come out of it so that the people may drink.” And Moses did so in plain view of the elders of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> He called the name of the place Massah and Meribah, because of the contending of the Israelites and because of their testing the LORD, saying, “Is the LORD among us or not?”

Victory over the Amalekites

<sup>9</sup> So Moses said to Joshua, “Choose some of our men and go out, fight against Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand.”

<sup>12</sup> When the hands of Moses became heavy, they took a stone and put it under him, and Aaron and Hur held up his hands, one on one side and one on the other, and so his hands were steady until the sun went down.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD said to Moses, "Write this as a memorial in the book, and rehearse it in Joshua's hearing; for I will surely wipe out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.

<sup>16</sup> for he said, "For a hand was lifted up to the throne of the LORD | strong="H3050" – that the LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation."

18

<sup>1</sup> Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard about all that God had done for Moses and for his people Israel, that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.

<sup>3</sup> and her two sons, one of whom was named Gershom (for Moses had said, "I have been a foreigner in a foreign land"), <sup>4</sup> and the other Eliezer (for Moses had said, "The God of my father has been my help and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh").

<sup>5</sup> Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, together with Moses' sons and his wife, came to Moses in the desert where he was camping by the mountain of God.

<sup>6</sup> He said to Moses, "I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you, along with your wife and her two sons with her."

<sup>7</sup> Moses went out to meet his father-in-law and bowed down and kissed him; they each asked about the other's welfare, and then they went into the tent.

<sup>8</sup> Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to Egypt for Israel's sake, and all the hardship that had come on them along the way, and how the LORD had delivered them.

<sup>9</sup> Jethro rejoiced because of all the good that the LORD had done for Israel, whom he had delivered from the hand of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup> Jethro said, "Blessed be the LORD who has delivered you from the hand of Egypt, and from the hand of Pharaoh, who has delivered the people from the Egyptians' control!

<sup>11</sup> Now I know that the LORD is greater than all the gods, for in the thing in which they dealt proudly against them he has destroyed them."

<sup>12</sup> Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, brought a burnt offering and sacrifices for God, and Aaron and all the elders of Israel came to eat food with the father-in-law of Moses before God.

<sup>13</sup> On the next day Moses sat to judge the people, and the people stood around Moses from morning until evening.

<sup>14</sup> When Moses' father-in-law saw all that he was doing for the people, he said, "What is this that you are doing for the people? Why are you sitting by yourself, and all the people stand around you from morning until evening?"

<sup>15</sup> Moses said to his father-in-law, "Because the people come to me to inquire of God.

<sup>16</sup> When they have a dispute, it comes to me and I decide between a man and his neighbor, and I make known the decrees of God and his laws."

<sup>17</sup> Moses' father-in-law said to him, "What you are doing is not good!

<sup>18</sup> You will surely wear out, both you and these people who are with you, for this is too heavy a burden for you; you are not able to do it by yourself.

<sup>19</sup> Now listen to me, I will give you advice, and may God be with you: You be a representative for the people to God, and you bring their disputes to God;

<sup>20</sup> warn them of the statutes and the laws, and make known to them the way in which they must walk and the work they must do.

<sup>21</sup> But you choose from the people capable men, God-fearing, men of truth, those who hate bribes, and put them over the people as rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

<sup>22</sup> They will judge the people under normal circumstances, and every difficult case they will bring to you, but every small case they themselves will judge, so that you may make it easier for yourself, and they will bear the burden with you.

<sup>23</sup> If you do this thing, and God so commands you, then you will be able to endure, and all these people will be able to go home satisfied.”

<sup>24</sup> Moses listened to his father-in-law and did everything he had said.

<sup>25</sup> Moses chose capable men from all Israel, and he made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

<sup>26</sup> They judged the people under normal circumstances; the difficult cases they would bring to Moses, but every small case they would judge themselves.

<sup>27</sup> Then Moses sent his father-in-law on his way, and so Jethro went to his own land.

19

<sup>3</sup> Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain, “Thus you will tell the house of Jacob, and declare to the people of Israel:

<sup>4</sup> ‘You yourselves have seen what I did to Egypt and how I lifted you on eagles’ wings and brought you to myself.

<sup>5</sup> And now, if you will diligently listen to me and keep my covenant, then you will be my special possession out of all the nations, for all the earth is mine,

<sup>6</sup> and you will be to me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.’ These are the words that you will speak to the Israelites.”

<sup>7</sup> So Moses came and summoned the elders of Israel. He set before them all these words that the LORD had commanded him, <sup>8</sup> and all the people answered together, “All that the LORD has commanded we will do!” So Moses brought the words of the people back to the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “I am going to come to you in a dense cloud, so that the people may hear when I speak with you and so that they will always believe in you.” And Moses told the words of the people to the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Go to the people and sanctify them today and tomorrow, and make them wash their clothes

<sup>11</sup> and be ready for the third day, for on the third day the LORD will come down on Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.

<sup>12</sup> You must set boundaries for the people all around, saying, “Take heed to yourselves not to go up on the mountain nor touch its edge. Whoever touches the mountain will surely be put to death!

<sup>13</sup> No hand will touch him – but he will surely be stoned or shot through, whether a beast or a human being; he must not live.’ When the ram’s horn sounds a long blast they may go up on the mountain.”

<sup>15</sup> He said to the people, “Be ready for the third day. Do not go near your wives.”

<sup>16</sup> On the third day in the morning there was thunder and lightning and a dense cloud on the mountain, and the sound of a very loud horn; all the people who were in the camp trembled.

<sup>18</sup> Now Mount Sinai was completely covered with smoke because the LORD had descended on it in fire, and its smoke went up like the smoke of a great furnace, and the whole mountain shook violently.

<sup>20</sup> The LORD came down on Mount Sinai, on the top of the mountain, and the LORD summoned Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.

<sup>21</sup> The LORD said to Moses, "Go down and solemnly warn the people, lest they force their way through to the LORD to look, and many of them perish.

<sup>23</sup> Moses said to the LORD, "The people are not able to come up to Mount Sinai, because you solemnly warned us, 'Set boundaries for the mountain and set it apart.' "

<sup>24</sup> The LORD said to him, "Go, get down, and come up, and Aaron with you, but do not let the priests and the people force their way through to come up to the LORD, lest he break through against them."

<sup>5</sup> You shall not bow down to them or serve them, for I, the LORD, your God, am a jealous God, responding to the transgression of fathers by dealing with children to the third and fourth generations of those who reject me, <sup>6</sup> and showing covenant faithfulness to a thousand generations of those who love me and keep my commandments.

<sup>9</sup> For six days you may labor and do all your work,

<sup>10</sup> but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God; on it you shall not do any work, you, or your son, or your daughter, or your male servant, or your female servant, or your cattle, or the resident foreigner who is in your gates.

<sup>11</sup> For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth and the sea and all that is in them, and he rested on the seventh day; therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and set it apart as holy.

<sup>12</sup> "Honor your father and your mother, that you may live a long time in the land the LORD your God is giving to you.

<sup>18</sup> All the people were seeing the thundering and the lightning, and heard the sound of the horn, and saw the mountain smoking – and when the people saw it they trembled with fear and kept their distance.

<sup>19</sup> They said to Moses, “You speak to us and we will listen, but do not let God speak with us, lest we die.”

<sup>20</sup> Moses said to the people, “Do not fear, for God has come to test you, that the fear of him may be before you so that you do not sin.”

<sup>21</sup> The people kept their distance, but Moses drew near the thick darkness where God was.

The Altar

<sup>22</sup> The LORD said to Moses: “Thus you will tell the Israelites: ‘You yourselves have seen that I have spoken with you from heaven.

<sup>23</sup> You must not make gods of silver alongside me, nor make gods of gold for yourselves.

<sup>24</sup> ‘You must make for me an altar made of earth, and you will sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, your sheep and your cattle. In every place where I cause my name to be honored I will come to you and I will bless you.

<sup>25</sup> If you make me an altar of stone, you must not build it of stones shaped with tools, for if you use your tool on it you have defiled it.

<sup>26</sup> And you must not go up by steps to my altar, so that your nakedness is not exposed.’

21

Hebrew Servants

<sup>2</sup> “If you buy a Hebrew servant, he is to serve you for six years, but in the seventh year he will go out free without paying anything.

<sup>3</sup> If he came in by himself he will go out by himself; if he had a wife when he came in, then his wife will go out with him.

<sup>4</sup> If his master gave him a wife, and she bore sons or daughters, the wife and the children will belong to her master, and he will go out by himself.

<sup>5</sup> But if the servant should declare, ‘I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free,’

<sup>6</sup> then his master must bring him to the judges, and he will bring him to the door or the doorposts, and his master will pierce his ear with an awl, and he shall serve him forever.

<sup>7</sup> “If a man sells his daughter as a female servant, she will not go out as the male servants do.

<sup>8</sup> If she does not please her master, who has designated her for himself, then he must let her be redeemed. He has no right to sell her to a foreign nation, because he has dealt deceitfully with her.

<sup>9</sup> If he designated her for his son, then he will deal with her according to the customary rights of daughters.

<sup>10</sup> If he takes another wife, he must not diminish the first one’s food, her clothing, or her marital rights.

<sup>11</sup> If he does not provide her with these three things, then she will go out free, without paying money.

Personal Injuries

<sup>12</sup> “Whoever strikes someone so that he dies must surely be put to death.

<sup>13</sup> But if he does not do it with premeditation, but it happens by accident, then I will appoint for you a place where he may flee.

<sup>14</sup> But if a man willfully attacks his neighbor to kill him cunningly, you will take him even from my altar that he may die.

<sup>19</sup> and then if he gets up and walks about outside on his staff, then the one who struck him is innocent, except he must pay for the injured person’s loss of time and see to it that he is fully healed.

<sup>20</sup> “If a man strikes his male servant or his female servant with a staff so that he or she dies as a result of the blow, he will surely be punished.

<sup>21</sup> However, if the injured servant survives one or two days, the owner will not be punished, for he has suffered the loss.

<sup>22</sup> “If men fight and hit a pregnant woman and her child is born prematurely, but there is no serious injury, he will surely be punished in accordance with what the woman’s husband demands of him, and he will pay what the court decides.

<sup>23</sup> But if there is serious injury, then you will give a life for a life,

<sup>26</sup> “If a man strikes the eye of his male servant or his female servant so that he destroys it, he will let the servant go free as compensation for the eye.

<sup>27</sup> If he knocks out the tooth of his male servant or his female servant, he will let the servant go free as compensation for the tooth.

Laws about Animals

<sup>28</sup> “If an ox gores a man or a woman so that either dies, then the ox must surely be stoned and its flesh must not be eaten, but the owner of the ox will be acquitted.

<sup>29</sup> But if the ox had the habit of goring, and its owner was warned, and he did not take the necessary precautions, and then it killed a man or a woman, the ox must be stoned and the man must be put to death.

<sup>30</sup> If a ransom is set for him, then he must pay the redemption for his life according to whatever amount was set for him.

<sup>31</sup> If the ox gores a son or a daughter, the owner will be dealt with according to this rule.

<sup>32</sup> If the ox gores a male servant or a female servant, the owner must pay thirty shekels of silver, and the ox must be stoned.

<sup>33</sup> “If a man opens a pit or if a man digs a pit and does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls into it,

<sup>34</sup> the owner of the pit must repay the loss. He must give money to its owner, and the dead animal will become his.

<sup>35</sup> If the ox of one man injures the ox of his neighbor so that it dies, then they will sell the live ox and divide its proceeds, and they will also divide the dead ox.

<sup>36</sup> Or if it is known that the ox had the habit of goring, and its owner did not take the necessary precautions, he must surely pay ox for ox, and the dead animal will become his.

22

<sup>1</sup> “If a man steals an ox or a sheep and kills it or sells it, he must pay back five head of cattle for the ox, and four sheep for the one sheep.

<sup>2</sup> “If a thief is caught breaking in and is struck so that he dies, there will be no blood guilt for him.

<sup>3</sup> If the sun has risen on him, then there is blood guilt for him. A thief must surely make full restitution; if he has nothing, then he will be sold for his theft.

<sup>4</sup> If the stolen item should in fact be found alive in his possession, whether it be an ox or a donkey or a sheep, he must pay back double.

<sup>5</sup> “If a man grazes his livestock in a field or a vineyard, and he lets the livestock loose and they graze in the field of another man, he must make restitution from the best of his own field and the best of his own vineyard.

<sup>6</sup> “If a fire breaks out and spreads to thorn bushes, so that stacked grain or standing grain or the whole field is consumed, the one who started the fire must surely make restitution.

<sup>7</sup> “If a man gives his neighbor money or articles for safekeeping, and it is stolen from the man’s house, if the thief is caught, he must repay double.

<sup>8</sup> If the thief is not caught, then the owner of the house will be brought before the judges to see whether he has laid his hand on his neighbor’s goods.

<sup>9</sup> In all cases of illegal possessions, whether for an ox, a donkey, a sheep, a garment, or any kind of lost item, about which someone says ‘This belongs to me,’ the matter of the two of them will come before the judges, and the one whom the judges declare guilty must repay double to his neighbor.

<sup>10</sup> If a man gives his neighbor a donkey or an ox or a sheep or any beast to keep, and it dies or is hurt or is carried away without anyone seeing it,

<sup>11</sup> then there will be an oath to the LORD between the two of them, that he has not laid his hand on his neighbor’s goods, and its owner will accept this, and he will not have to pay.

<sup>12</sup> But if it was stolen from him, he will pay its owner.

<sup>13</sup> If it is torn in pieces, then he will bring it for evidence, and he will not have to pay for what was torn.

<sup>14</sup> “If a man borrows an animal from his neighbor, and it is hurt or dies when its owner was not with it, the man who borrowed it will surely pay.

<sup>15</sup> If its owner was with it, he will not have to pay; if it was hired, what was paid for the hire covers it.

Moral and Ceremonial Laws

<sup>21</sup> “You must not wrong a foreigner nor oppress him, for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

<sup>22</sup> “You must not afflict any widow or orphan.

<sup>23</sup> If you afflict them in any way and they cry to me, I will surely hear their cry, <sup>24</sup> and my anger will burn and I will kill you with the sword, and your wives will be widows and your children will be fatherless.

<sup>25</sup> “If you lend money to any of my people who are needy among you, do not be like a moneylender to him; do not charge him interest.

<sup>26</sup> If you do take the garment of your neighbor in pledge, you must return it to him by the time the sun goes down, <sup>27</sup> for it is his only covering – it is his garment for his body. What else can he sleep in? And when he cries out to me, I will hear, for I am gracious.

<sup>28</sup> “You must not blaspheme God or curse the ruler of your people.

<sup>29</sup> “Do not hold back offerings from your granaries or your vats. You must give me the firstborn of your sons.

<sup>30</sup> You must also do this for your oxen and for your sheep; seven days they may remain with their mothers, but give them to me on the eighth day.

<sup>31</sup> “You will be holy people to me; you must not eat any meat torn by animals in the field. You must throw it to the dogs.

23

<sup>1</sup> “You must not give a false report. Do not make common cause with the wicked to be a malicious witness.

<sup>2</sup> “You must not follow a crowd in doing evil things; in a lawsuit you must not offer testimony that agrees with a crowd so as to pervert justice,

<sup>4</sup> “If you encounter your enemy’s ox or donkey wandering off, you must by all means return it to him.

<sup>5</sup> If you see the donkey of someone who hates you fallen under its load, you must not ignore him, but be sure to help him with it.

<sup>8</sup> “You must not accept a bribe, for a bribe blinds those who see and subverts the words of the righteous.

<sup>9</sup> “You must not oppress a foreigner, since you know the life of a foreigner, for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

Sabbaths and Feasts

<sup>10</sup> “For six years you are to sow your land and gather in its produce.

<sup>11</sup> But in the seventh year you must let it lie fallow and leave it alone so that the poor of your people may eat, and what they leave any animal in the field may eat; you must do likewise with your vineyard and your olive grove.

<sup>12</sup> For six days you are to do your work, but on the seventh day you must cease, in order that your ox and your donkey may rest and that your female servant’s son and any hired help may refresh themselves.

<sup>13</sup> “Pay attention to do everything I have told you, and do not even mention the names of other gods – do not let them be heard on your lips.

<sup>14</sup> “Three times in the year you must make a pilgrim feast to me.

<sup>15</sup> You are to observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread; seven days you must eat bread made without yeast, as I commanded you, at the appointed time of the month of Abib, for at that time you came out of Egypt. No one may appear before me empty-handed.

<sup>16</sup> “You are also to observe the Feast of Harvest, the firstfruits of your labors that you have sown in the field, and the Feast of Ingathering at the end of the year when you have gathered in your harvest out of the field.

<sup>18</sup> “You must not offer the blood of my sacrifice with bread containing yeast; the fat of my festal sacrifice must not remain until morning.

<sup>19</sup> The first of the firstfruits of your soil you must bring to the house of the LORD your God.

“You must not cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.

The Angel of the Presence

<sup>20</sup> “I am going to send an angel before you to protect you as you journey and to bring you into the place that I have prepared.

<sup>21</sup> Take heed because of him, and obey his voice; do not rebel against him, for he will not pardon your transgressions, for my name is in him.

<sup>22</sup> But if you diligently obey him and do all that I command, then I will be an enemy to your enemies, and I will be an adversary to your adversaries.

<sup>23</sup> For my angel will go before you and bring you to the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, and I will destroy them completely.

<sup>24</sup> “You must not bow down to their gods; you must not serve them or do according to their practices. Instead you must completely overthrow them and smash their standing stones to pieces.

<sup>25</sup> You must serve the LORD your God, and he will bless your bread and your water, and I will remove sickness from your midst.

<sup>26</sup> No woman will miscarry her young or be barren in your land. I will fulfill the number of your days.

<sup>27</sup> “I will send my terror before you, and I will destroy all the people whom you encounter; I will make all your enemies turn their backs to you.

<sup>28</sup> I will send hornets before you that will drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite before you.

<sup>29</sup> I will not drive them out before you in one year, lest the land become desolate and the wild animals multiply against you.

<sup>30</sup> Little by little I will drive them out before you, until you become fruitful and inherit the land.

<sup>31</sup> I will set your boundaries from the Red Sea to the sea of the Philistines, and from the desert to the River, for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you will drive them out before you.

<sup>33</sup> They must not live in your land, lest they make you sin against me, for if you serve their gods, it will surely be a snare to you.”

<sup>1</sup> But to Moses the LORD said | strong="H0559", “Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, and worship from a distance.

<sup>2</sup> Moses alone may come near the LORD, but the others must not come near, nor may the people go up with him.”

<sup>3</sup> Moses came and told the people all the LORD’s words and all the decisions. All the people answered together, “We are willing to do all the words that the LORD has said,”

<sup>4</sup> and Moses wrote down all the words of the LORD. Early in the morning he built an altar at the foot of the mountain and arranged twelve standing stones – according to the twelve tribes of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> Moses took half of the blood and put it in bowls, and half of the blood he splashed on the altar.

<sup>7</sup> He took the Book of the Covenant and read it aloud to the people, and they said, “We are willing to do and obey all that the LORD has spoken.”

<sup>8</sup> So Moses took the blood and splashed it on the people and said, “This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words.”

<sup>9</sup> Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and the seventy elders of Israel went up, <sup>10</sup> and they saw the God of Israel. Under his feet there was something like a pavement made of sapphire, clear like the sky itself.

<sup>11</sup> But he did not lay a hand on the leaders of the Israelites, so they saw God, and they ate and they drank.

<sup>12</sup>

The LORD said to Moses, “Come up to me to the mountain and remain there, and I will give you the stone tablets with the law and the commandments that I have written, so that you may teach them.”

<sup>14</sup> He told the elders, “Wait for us in this place until we return to you. Here are Aaron and Hur with you. Whoever has any matters of dispute can approach them.”

<sup>16</sup> The glory of the LORD resided on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days. On the seventh day he called to Moses from within the cloud.

<sup>8</sup> Let them make for me a sanctuary, so that I may live among them.

<sup>9</sup> According to all that I am showing you – the pattern of the tabernacle and the pattern of all its furnishings – you must make it exactly so.

The Ark of the Covenant

<sup>10</sup> “They are to make an ark of acacia wood – its length is to be three feet nine inches, its width two feet three inches, and its height two feet three inches.

<sup>11</sup> You are to overlay it with pure gold – both inside and outside you must overlay it, and you are to make a surrounding border of gold over it.

<sup>12</sup> You are to cast four gold rings for it and put them on its four feet, with two rings on one side and two rings on the other side.

<sup>14</sup> and put the poles into the rings at the sides of the ark in order to carry the ark with them.

<sup>16</sup> You are to put into the ark the testimony that I will give to you.

<sup>17</sup> “You are to make an atonement lid of pure gold; its length is to be three feet nine inches, and its width is to be two feet three inches.

<sup>19</sup> Make one cherub on one end and one cherub on the other end; from the atonement lid you are to make the cherubim on the two ends.

<sup>20</sup> The cherubim are to be spreading their wings upward, overshadowing the atonement lid with their wings, and the cherubim are to face each other, looking toward the atonement lid.

<sup>21</sup> You are to put the atonement lid on top of the ark, and in the ark you are to put the testimony I am giving you.

<sup>22</sup> I will meet with you there, and from above the atonement lid, from between the two cherubim that are over the ark of the testimony, I will speak with you about all that I will command you for the Israelites.

The Table for the Bread of the Presence

<sup>23</sup> “You are to make a table of acacia wood; its length is to be three feet, its width one foot six inches, and its height two feet three inches.

<sup>24</sup> You are to overlay it with pure gold, and you are to make a surrounding border of gold for it.

<sup>25</sup> You are to make a surrounding frame for it about three inches broad, and you are to make a surrounding border of gold for its frame.

<sup>26</sup> You are to make four rings of gold for it and attach the rings at the four corners where its four legs are.

<sup>27</sup> The rings are to be close to the frame to provide places for the poles to carry the table.

<sup>28</sup> You are to make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold, so that the table may be carried with them.

<sup>29</sup> You are to make its plates, its ladles, its pitchers, and its bowls, to be used in pouring out offerings; you are to make them of pure gold.

<sup>30</sup> You are to set the Bread of the Presence on the table before me continually.

The Lampstand

<sup>31</sup> “You are to make a lampstand of pure gold. The lampstand is to be made of hammered metal; its base and its shaft, its cups, its buds, and its blossoms are to be from the same piece.

<sup>32</sup> Six branches are to extend from the sides of the lampstand, three branches of the lampstand from one side of it and three branches of the lampstand from the other side of it.

<sup>33</sup> Three cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms are to be on one branch, and three cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms are to be on the next branch, and the same for the six branches extending from the lampstand.

<sup>34</sup> On the lampstand there are to be four cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms,

<sup>35</sup> with a bud under the first two branches from it, and a bud under the next two branches from it, and a bud under the third two branches from it, according to the six branches that extend from the lampstand.

<sup>36</sup> Their buds and their branches will be one piece, all of it one hammered piece of pure gold.

<sup>37</sup> “You are to make its seven lamps, and then set its lamps up on it, so that it will give light to the area in front of it.

<sup>39</sup> About seventy-five pounds of pure gold is to be used for it and for all these utensils.

26

<sup>2</sup> The length of each curtain is to be forty-two feet, and the width of each curtain is to be six feet – the same size for each of the curtains.

<sup>3</sup> Five curtains are to be joined, one to another, and the other five curtains are to be joined, one to another.

<sup>4</sup> You are to make loops of blue material along the edge of the end curtain in one set, and in the same way you are to make loops in the outer edge of the end curtain in the second set.

<sup>5</sup> You are to make fifty loops on the one curtain, and you are to make fifty loops on the end curtain which is on the second set, so that the loops are opposite one to another.

<sup>7</sup> “You are to make curtains of goats’ hair for a tent over the tabernacle; you are to make eleven curtains.

<sup>8</sup> The length of each curtain is to be forty-five feet, and the width of each curtain is to be six feet – the same size for the eleven curtains.

<sup>9</sup> You are to join five curtains by themselves and six curtains by themselves. You are to double over the sixth curtain at the front of the tent.

<sup>10</sup> You are to make fifty loops along the edge of the end curtain in one set and fifty loops along the edge of the curtain that joins the second set.

<sup>12</sup> Now the part that remains of the curtains of the tent – the half curtain that remains will hang over at the back of the tabernacle.

<sup>13</sup> The foot and a half on the one side and the foot and a half on the other side of what remains in the length of the curtains of the tent will hang over the sides of the tabernacle, on one side and the other side, to cover it.

<sup>15</sup> “You are to make the frames for the tabernacle out of acacia wood as uprights.

<sup>16</sup> Each frame is to be fifteen feet long, and each frame is to be two feet three inches wide,

<sup>19</sup> and you are to make forty silver bases to go under the twenty frames – two bases under the first frame for its two projections, and likewise two bases under the next frame for its two projections;

<sup>20</sup> and for the second side of the tabernacle, the north side, twenty frames,

<sup>22</sup> And for the back of the tabernacle on the west you will make six frames.

<sup>25</sup> So there are to be eight frames and their silver bases, sixteen bases, two bases under the first frame, and two bases under the next frame.

<sup>26</sup> “You are to make bars of acacia wood, five for the frames on one side of the tabernacle,

<sup>28</sup> The middle bar in the center of the frames will reach from end to end.

<sup>29</sup> You are to overlay the frames with gold and make their rings of gold to provide places for the bars, and you are to overlay the bars with gold.

<sup>30</sup> You are to set up the tabernacle according to the plan that you were shown on the mountain.

<sup>31</sup> "You are to make a special curtain of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and fine twisted linen; it is to be made with cherubim, the work of an artistic designer.

<sup>32</sup> You are to hang it with gold hooks on four posts of acacia wood overlaid with gold, set in four silver bases.

<sup>33</sup> You are to hang this curtain under the clasps and bring the ark of the testimony in there behind the curtain. The curtain will make a division for you between the Holy Place and the Most Holy Place.

<sup>34</sup> You are to put the atonement lid on the ark of the testimony in the Most Holy Place.

<sup>36</sup> "You are to make a hanging for the entrance of the tent of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and fine twined linen, the work of an embroiderer.

<sup>37</sup> You are to make for the hanging five posts of acacia wood and overlay them with gold, and their hooks will be gold, and you are to cast five bronze bases for them.

27

<sup>1</sup> "You are to make the altar of acacia wood, seven feet six inches long, and seven feet six inches wide; the altar is to be square, and its height is to be four feet six inches.

<sup>2</sup> You are to make its four horns on its four corners; its horns will be part of it, and you are to overlay it with bronze.

<sup>3</sup> You are to make its pots for the ashes, its shovels, its tossing bowls, its meat hooks, and its fire pans – you are to make all its utensils of bronze.

<sup>4</sup> You are to make a grating for it, a network of bronze, and you are to make on the network four bronze rings on its four corners.

<sup>5</sup> You are to put it under the ledge of the altar below, so that the network will come halfway up the altar.

<sup>6</sup> You are to make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and you are to overlay them with bronze.

<sup>7</sup> The poles are to be put into the rings so that the poles will be on two sides of the altar when carrying it.

<sup>8</sup> You are to make the altar hollow, out of boards. Just as it was shown you on the mountain, so they must make it.

The Courtyard

<sup>9</sup> "You are to make the courtyard of the tabernacle. For the south side there are to be hangings for the courtyard of fine twisted linen, one hundred fifty feet long for one side, <sup>10</sup> with twenty posts and their twenty bronze bases, with the hooks of the posts and their bands of silver.

<sup>12</sup> The width of the court on the west side is to be seventy-five feet with hangings, with their ten posts and their ten bases.

<sup>13</sup> The width of the court on the east side, toward the sunrise, is to be seventy-five feet.

<sup>15</sup> On the second side there are to be hangings twenty-two and a half feet long, with their three posts and their three bases.

<sup>16</sup> For the gate of the courtyard there is to be a curtain of thirty feet, of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and fine twined linen, the work of an embroiderer, with four posts and their four bases.

<sup>17</sup> All the posts around the courtyard are to have silver bands; their hooks are to be silver, and their bases bronze.

<sup>18</sup> The length of the courtyard is to be one hundred fifty feet and the width seventy-five feet, and the height of the fine twisted linen hangings is to be seven and a half feet, with their bronze bases.

<sup>19</sup> All the utensils of the tabernacle used in all its service, all its tent pegs, and all the tent pegs of the courtyard are to be made of bronze.

Offering the Oil

<sup>20</sup> “You are to command the Israelites that they bring to you pure oil of pressed olives for the light, so that the lamps will burn regularly.

<sup>21</sup> In the tent of meeting outside the curtain that is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons are to arrange it from evening to morning before the LORD. This is to be a lasting ordinance among the Israelites for generations to come.

28

<sup>1</sup> “And you, bring near to you your brother Aaron and his sons with him from among the Israelites, so that they may minister as my priests – Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron’s sons.

<sup>2</sup> You must make holy garments for your brother Aaron, for glory and for beauty.

<sup>3</sup> You are to speak to all who are specially skilled, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, so that they may make Aaron’s garments to set him apart to minister as my priest.

<sup>4</sup> Now these are the garments that they are to make: a breastpiece, an ephod, a robe, a fitted tunic, a turban, and a sash. They are to make holy garments for your brother Aaron and for his sons, that they may minister as my priests.

<sup>6</sup> “They are to make the ephod of gold, blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twisted linen, the work of an artistic designer.

<sup>7</sup> It is to have two shoulder pieces attached to two of its corners, so it can be joined together.

<sup>9</sup> “You are to take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel, <sup>10</sup> six of their names on one stone, and the six remaining names on the second stone, according to the order of their birth.

<sup>11</sup> You are to engrave the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel with the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a seal; you are to have them set in gold filigree settings.

<sup>14</sup> and two braided chains of pure gold, like a cord, and attach the chains to the settings.

<sup>15</sup> “You are to make a breastpiece for use in making decisions, the work of an artistic designer; you are to make it in the same fashion as the ephod; you are to make it of gold, blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twisted linen.

<sup>21</sup> The stones are to be for the names of the sons of Israel, twelve, according to the number of their names. Each name according to the twelve tribes is to be like the engravings of a seal.

<sup>22</sup> “You are to make for the breastpiece braided chains like cords of pure gold, <sup>23</sup> and you are to make for the breastpiece two gold rings and attach the two rings to the upper two ends of the breastpiece.

<sup>24</sup> You are to attach the two gold chains to the two rings at the ends of the breastpiece;

<sup>25</sup> the other two ends of the two chains you will attach to the two settings and then attach them to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front of it.

<sup>26</sup> You are to make two rings of gold and put them on the other two ends of the breastpiece, on its edge that is on the inner side of the ephod.

<sup>27</sup> You are to make two more gold rings and attach them to the bottom of the two shoulder pieces on the front of the ephod, close to the juncture above the waistband of the ephod.

<sup>28</sup> They are to tie the breastpiece by its rings to the rings of the ephod by blue cord, so that it may be above the waistband of the ephod, and so that the breastpiece will not be loose from the ephod.

<sup>29</sup> Aaron will bear the names of the sons of Israel in the breastpiece of decision over his heart when he goes into the holy place, for a memorial before the LORD continually.

<sup>30</sup> “You are to put the Urim and the Thummim into the breastpiece of decision; and they are to be over Aaron’s heart when he goes in before the LORD. Aaron is to bear the decisions of the Israelites over his heart before the LORD continually.

<sup>32</sup> There is to be an opening in its top in the center of it, with an edge all around the opening, the work of a weaver, like the opening of a collar, so that it cannot be torn.

<sup>34</sup> The pattern is to be a gold bell and a pomegranate, a gold bell and a pomegranate, all around the hem of the robe.

<sup>35</sup> The robe is to be on Aaron as he ministers, and his sound will be heard when he enters the Holy Place before the LORD and when he leaves, so that he does not die.

<sup>36</sup> “You are to make a plate of pure gold and engrave on it the way a seal is engraved: “Holiness to the LORD.”

<sup>37</sup> You are to attach to it a blue cord so that it will be on the turban; it is to be on the front of the turban,

<sup>38</sup> It will be on Aaron’s forehead, and Aaron will bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the Israelites are to sanctify by all their holy gifts; it will always be on his forehead, for their acceptance before the LORD.

<sup>39</sup> You are to weave the tunic of fine linen and make the turban of fine linen, and make the sash the work of an embroiderer.

<sup>40</sup> “For Aaron’s sons you are to make tunics, sashes, and headbands for glory and for beauty.

<sup>41</sup> “You are to clothe them – your brother Aaron and his sons with him – and anoint them and ordain them and set them apart as holy, so that they may minister as my priests.

<sup>42</sup> Make for them linen undergarments to cover their naked bodies; they must cover from the waist to the thighs.

<sup>43</sup> These must be on Aaron and his sons when they enter to the tent of meeting, or when they approach the altar to minister in the Holy Place, so that they bear no iniquity and die. It is to be a perpetual ordinance for him and for his descendants after him.

29

<sup>1</sup> “Now this is what you are to do for them to consecrate them so that they may minister as my priests. Take a young bull and two rams without blemish;

<sup>2</sup> and bread made without yeast, and perforated cakes without yeast mixed with oil, and wafers without yeast spread with oil – you are to make them using fine wheat flour.

<sup>3</sup> You are to put them in one basket and present them in the basket, along with the bull and the two rams.

<sup>5</sup> and take the garments and clothe Aaron with the tunic, the robe of the ephod, the ephod, and the breastpiece; you are to fasten the ephod on him by using the skillfully woven waistband.

<sup>6</sup> You are to put the turban on his head and put the holy diadem on the turban.

<sup>7</sup> You are to take the anointing oil and pour it on his head and anoint him.

<sup>9</sup> and wrap the sashes around Aaron and his sons and put headbands on them, and so the ministry of priesthood will belong to them by a perpetual ordinance. Thus you are to consecrate Aaron and his sons.

<sup>12</sup> and take some of the blood of the bull and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger; all the rest of the blood you are to pour out at the base of the altar.

<sup>13</sup> You are to take all the fat that covers the entrails, and the lobe that is above the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, and burn them on the altar.

<sup>14</sup> But the meat of the bull, its skin, and its dung you are to burn up outside the camp. It is the purification offering.

<sup>15</sup> “You are to take one ram, and Aaron and his sons are to lay their hands on the ram’s head, <sup>16</sup> and you are to kill the ram and take its blood and splash it all around on the altar.

<sup>17</sup> Then you are to cut the ram into pieces and wash the entrails and its legs and put them on its pieces and on its head

<sup>18</sup> and burn the whole ram on the altar. It is a burnt offering to the LORD, a soothing aroma; it is an offering made by fire to the LORD.

<sup>19</sup> “You are to take the second ram, and Aaron and his sons are to lay their hands on the ram’s head,

<sup>20</sup> and you are to kill the ram and take some of its blood and put it on the tip of the right ear of Aaron, on the tip of the right ear of his sons, on the thumb of their right hand, and on the big toe of their right foot, and then splash the blood all around on the altar.

<sup>21</sup> You are to take some of the blood that is on the altar and some of the anointing oil and sprinkle it on Aaron, on his garments, on his sons, and on his sons' garments with him, so that he may be holy, he and his garments along with his sons and his sons' garments.

<sup>22</sup> "You are to take from the ram the fat, the fat tail, the fat that covers the entrails, the lobe of the liver, the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, and the right thigh – for it is the ram for consecration –

<sup>23</sup> and one round flat cake of bread, one perforated cake of oiled bread, and one wafer from the basket of bread made without yeast that is before the LORD.

<sup>24</sup> You are to put all these in Aaron's hands and in his sons' hands, and you are to wave them as a wave offering before the LORD.

<sup>25</sup> Then you are to take them from their hands and burn them on the altar for a burnt offering, for a soothing aroma before the LORD. It is an offering made by fire to the LORD.

<sup>26</sup> You are to take the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration; you are to wave it as a wave offering before the LORD, and it is to be your share.

<sup>27</sup> You are to sanctify the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the contribution, which were waved and lifted up as a contribution from the ram of consecration, from what belongs to Aaron and to his sons.

<sup>28</sup> It is to belong to Aaron and to his sons from the Israelites, by a perpetual ordinance, for it is a contribution. It is to be a contribution from the Israelites from their peace offerings, their contribution to the LORD.

<sup>29</sup> "The holy garments that belong to Aaron are to belong to his sons after him, so that they may be anointed in them and consecrated in them.

<sup>30</sup> The priest who succeeds him from his sons, when he first comes to the tent of meeting to minister in the Holy Place, is to wear them for seven days.

<sup>31</sup> "You are to take the ram of the consecration and cook its meat in a holy place.

<sup>32</sup> Aaron and his sons are to eat the meat of the ram and the bread that was in the basket at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

<sup>33</sup> They are to eat those things by which atonement was made to consecrate and to set them apart, but no one else may eat them, for they are holy.

<sup>35</sup> "Thus you are to do for Aaron and for his sons, according to all that I have commanded you; you are to consecrate them for seven days.

<sup>36</sup> Every day you are to prepare a bull for a purification offering for atonement. You are to purge the altar by making atonement for it, and you are to anoint it to set it apart as holy.

<sup>37</sup> For seven days you are to make atonement for the altar and set it apart as holy. Then the altar will be most holy. Anything that touches the altar will be holy.

<sup>41</sup> The second lamb you are to offer around sundown; you are to prepare for it the same meal offering as for the morning and the same drink offering, for a soothing aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

<sup>42</sup> “This will be a regular burnt offering throughout your generations at the entrance of the tent of meeting before the LORD, where I will meet with you to speak to you there.

<sup>43</sup> There I will meet with the Israelites, and it will be set apart as holy by my glory.

<sup>44</sup> “So I will set apart as holy the tent of meeting and the altar, and I will set apart as holy Aaron and his sons, that they may minister as priests to me.

<sup>45</sup> I will reside among the Israelites, and I will be their God, <sup>46</sup> and they will know that I am the LORD their God, who brought them out from the land of Egypt, so that I may reside among them. I am the LORD their God.

30

<sup>1</sup> “You are to make an altar for burning incense; you are to make it of acacia wood.

<sup>2</sup> Its length is to be a foot and a half and its width a foot and a half; it will be square. Its height is to be three feet, with its horns of one piece with it.

<sup>3</sup> You are to overlay it with pure gold – its top, its four walls, and its horns – and make a surrounding border of gold for it.

<sup>4</sup> You are to make two gold rings for it under its border, on its two flanks; you are to make them on its two sides. The rings will be places for poles to carry it with.

<sup>5</sup> You are to make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.

<sup>6</sup> “You are to put it in front of the curtain that is before the ark of the testimony (before the atonement lid that is over the testimony), where I will meet you.

<sup>7</sup> Aaron is to burn sweet incense on it morning by morning; when he attends to the lamps he is to burn incense.

<sup>8</sup> When Aaron sets up the lamps around sundown he is to burn incense on it; it is to be a regular incense offering before the LORD throughout your generations.

<sup>9</sup> You must not offer strange incense on it, nor burnt offering, nor meal offering, and you must not pour out a drink offering on it.

<sup>10</sup> Aaron is to make atonement on its horns once in the year with some of the blood of the sin offering for atonement; once in the year he is to make atonement on it throughout your generations. It is most holy to the LORD.”

The Ransom Money

<sup>12</sup> “When you take a census of the Israelites according to their number, then each man is to pay a ransom for his life to the LORD when you number them, so that there will be no plague among them when you number them.

<sup>13</sup> Everyone who crosses over to those who are numbered is to pay this: a half shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary (a shekel weighs twenty gerahs). The half shekel is to be an offering to the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> Everyone who crosses over to those numbered, from twenty years old and up, is to pay an offering to the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> The rich are not to increase it, and the poor are not to pay less than the half shekel when giving the offering of the LORD, to make atonement for your lives.

<sup>16</sup> You are to receive the atonement money from the Israelites and give it for the service of the tent of meeting. It will be a memorial for the Israelites before the LORD, to make atonement for your lives.”

The Bronze Laver

<sup>17</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses:

18 “You are also to make a large bronze basin with a bronze stand for washing. You are to put it between the tent of meeting and the altar and put water in it,
19 and Aaron and his sons must wash their hands and their feet from it.
20 When they enter the tent of meeting, they must wash with water so that they do not die. Also, when they approach the altar to minister by burning incense as an offering made by fire to the LORD,
21 they must wash their hands and their feet so that they do not die. And this will be a perpetual ordinance for them and for their descendants throughout their generations.”

Oil and Incense

22 The LORD spoke to Moses:

23 “Take choice spices: twelve and a half pounds of free-flowing myrrh, half that – about six and a quarter pounds – of sweet-smelling cinnamon, six and a quarter pounds of sweet-smelling cane,

24 and twelve and a half pounds of cassia, all weighed according to the sanctuary shekel, and four quarts of olive oil.

25 You are to make this into a sacred anointing oil, a perfumed compound, the work of a perfumer. It will be sacred anointing oil.

26 “With it you are to anoint the tent of meeting, the ark of the testimony,

27 the table and all its utensils, the lampstand and its utensils, the altar of incense,

28 the altar for the burnt offering and all its utensils, and the laver and its base.

29 So you are to sanctify them, and they will be most holy; anything that touches them will be holy.

30 “You are to anoint Aaron and his sons and sanctify them, so that they may minister as my priests.

31 And you are to tell the Israelites: ‘This is to be my sacred anointing oil throughout your generations.

32 It must not be applied to people’s bodies, and you must not make any like it with the same recipe. It is holy, and it must be holy to you.

33 Whoever makes perfume like it and whoever puts any of it on someone not a priest will be cut off from his people.’ ”

34 The LORD said to Moses: “Take spices, gum resin, onycha, galbanum, and pure frankincense of equal amounts 35 and make it into an incense, a perfume, the work of a perfumer. It is to be finely ground, and pure and sacred.

36 You are to beat some of it very fine and put some of it before the ark of the testimony in the tent of meeting where I will meet with you; it is to be most holy to you.

37 And the incense that you are to make, you must not make for yourselves using the same recipe; it is to be most holy to you, belonging to the LORD.

38 Whoever makes anything like it, to use as perfume, will be cut off from his people.”

31

1 The LORD spoke to Moses:

2 “See, I have chosen Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah,

3 and I have filled him with the Spirit of God in skill, in understanding, in knowledge, and in all kinds of craftsmanship,

4 to make artistic designs for work with gold, with silver, and with bronze,

5 and with cutting and setting stone, and with cutting wood, to work in all kinds of craftsmanship.

<sup>6</sup> Moreover, I have also given him Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, and I have given ability to all the specially skilled, that they may make everything I have commanded you:

<sup>7</sup> the tent of meeting, the ark of the testimony, the atonement lid that is on it, all the furnishings of the tent,

<sup>8</sup> the table with its utensils, the pure lampstand with all its utensils, the altar of incense,

<sup>9</sup> the altar for the burnt offering with all its utensils, the large basin with its base,

<sup>11</sup> the anointing oil, and sweet incense for the Holy Place. They will make all these things just as I have commanded you.”

Sabbath Observance

<sup>12</sup> The LORD said to Moses,

<sup>13</sup> “Tell the Israelites, ‘Surely you must keep my Sabbaths, for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations, that you may know that I am the LORD who sanctifies you.

<sup>14</sup> So you must keep the Sabbath, for it is holy for you. Everyone who defiles it must surely be put to death; indeed, if anyone does any work on it, then that person will be cut off from among his people.

<sup>15</sup> Six days work may be done, but on the seventh day is a Sabbath of complete rest, holy to the LORD; anyone who does work on the Sabbath day must surely be put to death.

<sup>16</sup> The Israelites must keep the Sabbath by observing the Sabbath throughout their generations as a perpetual covenant.

<sup>17</sup> It is a sign between me and the Israelites forever; for in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day he rested and was refreshed.’ ”

<sup>18</sup> He gave Moses two tablets of testimony when he had finished speaking with him on Mount Sinai, tablets of stone written by the finger of God.

32

<sup>1</sup> When the people saw that Moses delayed in coming down from the mountain, they gathered around Aaron and said to him, “Get up, make us gods that will go before us. As for this fellow Moses, the man who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him!”

<sup>2</sup> So Aaron said to them, “Break off the gold earrings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.”

<sup>3</sup> So all the people broke off the gold earrings that were on their ears and brought them to Aaron.

<sup>4</sup> He accepted the gold from them, fashioned it with an engraving tool, and made a molten calf. Then they said, “These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt.”

<sup>5</sup> When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it, and Aaron made a proclamation and said, “Tomorrow will be a feast to the LORD.”

<sup>6</sup> So they got up early on the next day and offered up burnt offerings and brought peace offerings, and the people sat down to eat and drink, and they rose up to play.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses: “Go quickly, descend, because your people, whom you brought up from the land of Egypt, have acted corruptly.

<sup>8</sup> They have quickly turned aside from the way that I commanded them – they have made for themselves a molten calf and have bowed down to it and sacrificed to it and said, ‘These are your gods, O Israel, which brought you up from the land of Egypt.’ ”

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses: "I have seen this people. Look what a stiff-necked people they are!

<sup>10</sup> So now, leave me alone so that my anger can burn against them and I can destroy them, and I will make from you a great nation."

<sup>11</sup> But Moses sought the favor of the LORD his God and said, "O LORD, why does your anger burn against your people, whom you have brought out from the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand?

<sup>12</sup> Why should the Egyptians say, 'For evil he led them out to kill them in the mountains and to destroy them from the face of the earth'? Turn from your burning anger, and relent of this evil against your people.

<sup>13</sup> Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel your servants, to whom you swore by yourself and told them, 'I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken about I will give to your descendants, and they will inherit it forever.' "

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD relented over the evil that he had said he would do to his people.

<sup>15</sup> Moses turned and went down from the mountain with the two tablets of the testimony in his hands. The tablets were written on both sides – they were written on the front and on the back.

<sup>16</sup> Now the tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, engraved on the tablets.

<sup>17</sup> When Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, "It is the sound of war in the camp!"

<sup>18</sup> Moses said, "It is not the sound of those who shout for victory, nor is it the sound of those who cry because they are overcome, but the sound of singing I hear."

<sup>19</sup> When he approached the camp and saw the calf and the dancing, Moses became extremely angry. He threw the tablets from his hands and broke them to pieces at the bottom of the mountain.

<sup>20</sup> He took the calf they had made and burned it in the fire, ground it to powder, poured it out on the water, and made the Israelites drink it.

<sup>21</sup> Moses said to Aaron, "What did this people do to you, that you have brought on them so great a sin?"

<sup>22</sup> Aaron said, "Do not let your anger burn hot, my lord; you know these people, that they tend to evil.

<sup>23</sup> They said to me, 'Make us gods that will go before us, for as for this fellow Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him.'

<sup>24</sup> So I said to them, 'Whoever has gold, break it off.' So they gave it to me, and I threw it into the fire, and this calf came out."

<sup>25</sup> Moses saw that the people were running wild, for Aaron had let them get completely out of control, causing derision from their enemies.

<sup>26</sup> So Moses stood at the entrance of the camp and said, "Whoever is for the LORD, come to me." All the Levites gathered around him,

<sup>27</sup> and he said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Each man fasten his sword on his side, and go back and forth from entrance to entrance throughout the camp, and each one kill his brother, his friend, and his neighbor.' "

<sup>28</sup> The Levites did what Moses ordered, and that day about three thousand men of the people died.

<sup>29</sup> Moses said, "You have been consecrated today for the LORD, for each of you was against his son or against his brother, so he has given a blessing to you today."

<sup>30</sup> The next day Moses said to the people, "You have committed a very serious sin, but now I will go up to the LORD – perhaps I can make atonement on behalf of your sin."

<sup>31</sup> So Moses returned to the LORD and said, “Alas, this people has committed a very serious sin, and they have made for themselves gods of gold.

<sup>32</sup> But now, if you will forgive their sin..., but if not, wipe me out from your book that you have written.”

<sup>33</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Whoever has sinned against me – that person I will wipe out of my book.

<sup>34</sup> So now go, lead the people to the place I have spoken to you about. See, my angel will go before you. But on the day that I punish, I will indeed punish them for their sin.”

<sup>35</sup> And the LORD sent a plague on the people because they had made the calf – the one Aaron made.

33

<sup>1</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Go up from here, you and the people whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, to the land I promised on oath to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants.’

<sup>2</sup> I will send an angel before you, and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite.

<sup>5</sup> For the LORD had said to Moses, “Tell the Israelites, ‘You are a stiff-necked people. If I went up among you for a moment, I might destroy you. Now take off your ornaments, that I may know what I should do to you.’ ”

The Presence of the Lord

<sup>7</sup> Moses took the tent and pitched it outside the camp, at a good distance from the camp, and he called it the tent of meeting. Anyone seeking the LORD would go out to the tent of meeting that was outside the camp.

<sup>8</sup> And when Moses went out to the tent, all the people would get up and stand at the entrance to their tents and watch Moses until he entered the tent.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD would speak to Moses face to face, the way a person speaks to a friend. Then Moses would return to the camp, but his servant, Joshua son of Nun, a young man, did not leave the tent.

<sup>12</sup> Moses said to the LORD, “See, you have been saying to me, ‘Bring this people up,’ but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. But you said, ‘I know you by name, and also you have found favor in my sight.’

<sup>13</sup> Now if I have found favor in your sight, show me your way, that I may know you, that I may continue to find favor in your sight. And see that this nation is your people.”

<sup>14</sup> And the LORD said |strong="H0559", “My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.”

<sup>15</sup> And Moses said to him, “If your presence does not go with us, do not take us up from here.

<sup>16</sup> For how will it be known then that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people? Is it not by your going with us, so that we will be distinguished, I and your people, from all the people who are on the face of the earth?”

<sup>17</sup> The LORD said to Moses, "I will do this thing also that you have requested, for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name."

<sup>18</sup> And Moses said, "Show me your glory."

<sup>19</sup> And the LORD said | strong="H0559", "I will make all my goodness pass before your face, and I will proclaim the LORD by name before you; I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, I will show mercy to whom I will show mercy."

<sup>22</sup> When my glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft in the rock and will cover you with my hand while I pass by.

<sup>23</sup> Then I will take away my hand, and you will see my back, but my face must not be seen."

34

<sup>1</sup> The LORD said to Moses, "Cut out two tablets of stone like the first, and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you smashed."

<sup>4</sup> So Moses cut out two tablets of stone like the first; early in the morning he went up to Mount Sinai, just as the LORD had commanded him, and he took in his hand the two tablets of stone.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD descended in the cloud and stood with him there and proclaimed the LORD by name.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD passed by before him and proclaimed: "The LORD, the LORD, the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, and abounding in loyal love and faithfulness, <sup>7</sup> keeping loyal love for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin. But he by no means leaves the guilty unpunished, responding to the transgression of fathers by dealing with children and children's children, to the third and fourth generation."

<sup>9</sup> and said, "If now I have found favor in your sight, O Lord, let my Lord go among us, for we are a stiff-necked people; pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for your inheritance."

<sup>10</sup> He said, "See, I am going to make a covenant before all your people. I will do wonders such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation. All the people among whom you live will see the work of the LORD, for it is a fearful thing that I am doing with you."

<sup>11</sup> "Obey what I am commanding you this day. I am going to drive out before you the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite."

<sup>12</sup> Be careful not to make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land where you are going, lest it become a snare among you.

<sup>14</sup> For you must not worship any other god, for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God.

<sup>15</sup> Be careful not to make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, for when they prostitute themselves to their gods and sacrifice to their gods, and someone invites you, you will eat from his sacrifice;

<sup>16</sup> and you then take his daughters for your sons, and when his daughters prostitute themselves to their gods, they will make your sons prostitute themselves to their gods as well.

<sup>18</sup> “You must keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread. For seven days you must eat bread made without yeast, as I commanded you; do this at the appointed time of the month Abib, for in the month Abib you came out of Egypt.

<sup>19</sup> “Every firstborn of the womb belongs to me, even every firstborn of your cattle that is a male, whether ox or sheep.

<sup>20</sup> Now the firstling of a donkey you may redeem with a lamb, but if you do not redeem it, then break its neck. You must redeem all the firstborn of your sons.

“No one will appear before me empty-handed.

<sup>21</sup> “On six days you may labor, but on the seventh day you must rest; even at the time of plowing and of harvest you are to rest.

<sup>22</sup> “You must observe the Feast of Weeks – the firstfruits of the harvest of wheat – and the Feast of Ingathering at the end of the year.

<sup>23</sup> At three times in the year all your men must appear before the Lord God, the God of Israel.

<sup>24</sup> For I will drive out the nations before you and enlarge your borders; no one will covet your land when you go up to appear before the LORD your God three times in the year.

<sup>26</sup> “The first of the firstfruits of your soil you must bring to the house of the LORD your God.

You must not cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.”

<sup>27</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Write down these words, for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel.”

<sup>28</sup> So he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he did not eat bread, and he did not drink water. He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.

The Radiant Face of Moses

<sup>29</sup> Now when Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand – when he came down from the mountain, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone while he talked with him.

<sup>30</sup> When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to approach him.

<sup>31</sup> But Moses called to them, so Aaron and all the leaders of the community came back to him, and Moses spoke to them.

<sup>34</sup> But when Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he would remove the veil until he came out. Then he would come out and tell the Israelites what he had been commanded.

<sup>35</sup> When the Israelites would see the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses’ face shone, Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with the LORD.

35

<sup>1</sup> Moses assembled the whole community of the Israelites and said to them, “These are the things that the LORD has commanded you to do.

<sup>2</sup> In six days work may be done, but on the seventh day there must be a holy day for you, a Sabbath of complete rest to the LORD. Anyone who does work on it will be put to death.

<sup>3</sup> You must not kindle a fire in any of your homes on the Sabbath day.”

Willing Workers

<sup>4</sup> Moses spoke to the whole community of the Israelites, “This is the word that the LORD has commanded:

<sup>5</sup> ‘Take an offering for the LORD. Let everyone who has a willing heart bring an offering to the LORD: gold, silver, bronze,

<sup>9</sup> onyx stones, and other gems for mounting on the ephod and the breastpiece.

<sup>10</sup> Every skilled person among you is to come and make all that the LORD has commanded:

<sup>11</sup> the tabernacle with its tent, its covering, its clasps, its frames, its crossbars, its posts, and its bases;

<sup>12</sup> the ark, with its poles, the atonement lid, and the special curtain that conceals it;

<sup>14</sup> the lampstand for the light and its accessories, its lamps, and oil for the light;

<sup>15</sup> and the altar of incense with its poles, the anointing oil, and the fragrant incense; the hanging for the door at the entrance of the tabernacle;

<sup>16</sup> the altar for the burnt offering with its bronze grating that is on it, its poles, and all its utensils; the large basin and its pedestal;

<sup>17</sup> the hangings of the courtyard, its posts and its bases, and the curtain for the gateway to the courtyard;

<sup>18</sup> tent pegs for the tabernacle and tent pegs for the courtyard and their ropes;

<sup>21</sup> Everyone whose heart stirred him to action and everyone whose spirit was willing came and brought the offering for the LORD for the work of the tent of meeting, for all its service, and for the holy garments.

<sup>22</sup> They came, men and women alike, all who had willing hearts. They brought brooches, earrings, rings and ornaments, all kinds of gold jewelry, and everyone came who waved a wave offering of gold to the LORD.

<sup>23</sup> Everyone who had blue, purple, or scarlet yarn, fine linen, goats’ hair, ram skins dyed red, or fine leather brought them.

<sup>24</sup> Everyone making an offering of silver or bronze brought it as an offering to the LORD, and everyone who had acacia wood for any work of the service brought it.

<sup>26</sup> and all the women whose heart stirred them to action and who were skilled spun goats’ hair.

<sup>28</sup> and spices and olive oil for the light, for the anointing oil, and for the fragrant incense.

<sup>29</sup> The Israelites brought a freewill offering to the LORD, every man and woman whose heart was willing to bring materials for all the work that the LORD through Moses had commanded them to do.

<sup>30</sup> Moses said to the Israelites, "See, the LORD has chosen Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.

<sup>32</sup> to design artistic designs, to work in gold, in silver, and in bronze,

<sup>33</sup> and in cutting stones for their setting, and in cutting wood, to do work in every artistic craft.

<sup>34</sup> And he has put it in his heart to teach, he and Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.

<sup>35</sup> He has filled them with skill to do all kinds of work as craftsmen, as designers, as embroiderers in blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and in fine linen, and as weavers. They are craftsmen in all the work and artistic designers.

36

<sup>1</sup> So Bezalel and Oholiab and every skilled person in whom the LORD has put skill and ability to know how to do all the work for the service of the sanctuary are to do the work according to all that the LORD has commanded."

<sup>2</sup> Moses summoned Bezalel and Oholiab and every skilled person in whom the LORD had put skill – everyone whose heart stirred him to volunteer to do the work,

<sup>3</sup> and they received from Moses all the offerings the Israelites had brought to do the work for the service of the sanctuary, and they still continued to bring him a freewill offering each morning.

<sup>4</sup> So all the skilled people who were doing all the work on the sanctuary came from the work they were doing

<sup>5</sup> and told Moses, "The people are bringing much more than is needed for the completion of the work which the LORD commanded us to do!"

<sup>6</sup> Moses instructed them to take his message throughout the camp, saying, "Let no man or woman do any more work for the offering for the sanctuary." So the people were restrained from bringing any more.

<sup>7</sup> Now the materials were more than enough for them to do all the work.

The Building of the Tabernacle

<sup>8</sup> All the skilled among those who were doing the work made the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twisted linen and blue and purple and scarlet; they were made with cherubim that were the work of an artistic designer.

<sup>9</sup> The length of one curtain was forty-two feet, and the width of one curtain was six feet – the same size for each of the curtains.

<sup>10</sup> He joined five of the curtains to one another, and the other five curtains he joined to one another.

<sup>11</sup> He made loops of blue material along the edge of the end curtain in the first set; he did the same along the edge of the end curtain in the second set.

<sup>12</sup> He made fifty loops on the first curtain, and he made fifty loops on the end curtain that was in the second set, with the loops opposite one another.

<sup>13</sup> He made fifty gold clasps and joined the curtains together to one another with the clasps, so that the tabernacle was a unit.

<sup>14</sup> He made curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the tabernacle; he made eleven curtains.

<sup>15</sup> The length of one curtain was forty-five feet, and the width of one curtain was six feet – one size for all eleven curtains.

- <sup>16</sup> He joined five curtains by themselves and six curtains by themselves.
- <sup>17</sup> He made fifty loops along the edge of the end curtain in the first set and fifty loops along the edge of the curtain that joined the second set.
- <sup>18</sup> He made fifty bronze clasps to join the tent together so that it might be a unit.
- <sup>19</sup> He made a covering for the tent out of ram skins dyed red and over that a covering of fine leather.
- <sup>20</sup> He made the frames for the tabernacle of acacia wood as uprights.
- <sup>21</sup> The length of each frame was fifteen feet, the width of each frame was two and a quarter feet,
- <sup>22</sup> with two projections per frame parallel one to another. He made all the frames of the tabernacle in this way.
- <sup>23</sup> So he made frames for the tabernacle: twenty frames for the south side.
- <sup>24</sup> He made forty silver bases under the twenty frames – two bases under the first frame for its two projections, and likewise two bases under the next frame for its two projections,
- <sup>25</sup> and for the second side of the tabernacle, the north side, he made twenty frames
- <sup>26</sup> and their forty silver bases, two bases under the first frame and two bases under the next frame.
- <sup>27</sup> And for the back of the tabernacle on the west he made six frames.
- <sup>28</sup> He made two frames for the corners of the tabernacle on the back.
- <sup>29</sup> At the two corners they were doubled at the lower end and finished together at the top in one ring. So he did for both.
- <sup>30</sup> So there were eight frames and their silver bases, sixteen bases, two bases under each frame.
- <sup>31</sup> He made bars of acacia wood, five for the frames on one side of the tabernacle
- <sup>32</sup> and five bars for the frames on the second side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the frames of the tabernacle for the back side on the west.
- <sup>33</sup> He made the middle bar to reach from end to end in the center of the frames.
- <sup>34</sup> He overlaid the frames with gold and made their rings of gold to provide places for the bars, and he overlaid the bars with gold.
- <sup>35</sup> He made the special curtain of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and fine twisted linen; he made it with cherubim, the work of an artistic designer.
- <sup>36</sup> He made for it four posts of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold, with gold hooks, and he cast for them four silver bases.
- <sup>37</sup> He made a hanging for the entrance of the tent of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and fine twisted linen, the work of an embroiderer,
- <sup>38</sup> and its five posts and their hooks. He overlaid their tops and their bands with gold, but their five bases were bronze.

37

- <sup>1</sup> Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood; its length was three feet nine inches, its width two feet three inches, and its height two feet three inches.
- <sup>2</sup> He overlaid it with pure gold, inside and out, and he made a surrounding border of gold for it.
- <sup>3</sup> He cast four gold rings for it that he put on its four feet, with two rings on one side and two rings on the other side.
- <sup>4</sup> He made poles of acacia wood, overlaid them with gold,
- <sup>5</sup> and put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark in order to carry the ark.
- <sup>6</sup> He made an atonement lid of pure gold; its length was three feet nine inches, and its width was two feet three inches.
- <sup>7</sup> He made two cherubim of gold; he made them of hammered metal on the two ends of the atonement lid, <sup>8</sup> one cherub on one end and one cherub on the other end. He made the cherubim from the atonement lid on its two ends.

The Making of the Table

<sup>10</sup> He made the table of acacia wood; its length was three feet, its width one foot six inches, and its height two feet three inches.

<sup>11</sup> He overlaid it with pure gold, and he made a surrounding border of gold for it.

<sup>12</sup> He made a surrounding frame for it about three inches wide, and he made a surrounding border of gold for its frame.

<sup>13</sup> He cast four gold rings for it and attached the rings at the four corners where its four legs were.

<sup>14</sup> The rings were close to the frame to provide places for the poles to carry the table.

<sup>15</sup> He made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold, to carry the table.

<sup>16</sup> He made the vessels which were on the table out of pure gold, its plates, its ladles, its pitchers, and its bowls, to be used in pouring out offerings.

The Making of the Lampstand

<sup>17</sup> He made the lampstand of pure gold. He made the lampstand of hammered metal; its base and its shaft, its cups, its buds, and its blossoms were from the same piece.

<sup>18</sup> Six branches were extending from its sides, three branches of the lampstand from one side of it, and three branches of the lampstand from the other side of it.

<sup>19</sup> Three cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms were on the first branch, and three cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms were on the next branch, and the same for the six branches that were extending from the lampstand.

<sup>20</sup> On the lampstand there were four cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms,

<sup>21</sup> with a bud under the first two branches from it, and a bud under the next two branches from it, and a bud under the third two branches from it; according to the six branches that extended from it.

<sup>22</sup> Their buds and their branches were of one piece; all of it was one hammered piece of pure gold.

<sup>24</sup> He made the lampstand and all its accessories with seventy-five pounds of pure gold.

The Making of the Altar of Incense

<sup>25</sup> He made the incense altar of acacia wood. Its length was a foot and a half and its width a foot and a half – a square – and its height was three feet. Its horns were of one piece with it.

<sup>26</sup> He overlaid it with pure gold – its top, its four walls, and its horns – and he made a surrounding border of gold for it.

<sup>27</sup> He also made two gold rings for it under its border, on its two sides, on opposite sides, as places for poles to carry it with.

<sup>28</sup> He made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

38

<sup>1</sup> He made the altar for the burnt offering of acacia wood seven feet six inches long and seven feet six inches wide – it was square – and its height was four feet six inches.

<sup>2</sup> He made its horns on its four corners; its horns were part of it, and he overlaid it with bronze.

<sup>3</sup> He made all the utensils of the altar – the pots, the shovels, the tossing bowls, the meat hooks, and the fire pans – he made all its utensils of bronze.

<sup>5</sup> He cast four rings for the four corners of the bronze grating, to provide places for the poles.

<sup>7</sup> He put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, with which to carry it. He made the altar hollow, out of boards.

<sup>8</sup> He made the large basin of bronze and its pedestal of bronze from the mirrors of the women who served at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

The Construction of the Courtyard

<sup>9</sup> He made the courtyard. For the south side the hangings of the courtyard were of fine twisted linen, one hundred fifty feet long,

<sup>10</sup> with their twenty posts and their twenty bronze bases, with the hooks of the posts and their bands of silver.

<sup>14</sup> with hangings on one side of the gate that were twenty-two and a half feet long, with their three posts and their three bases, <sup>15</sup> and for the second side of the gate of the courtyard, just like the other, the hangings were twenty-two and a half feet long, with their three posts and their three bases.

<sup>17</sup> The bases for the posts were bronze. The hooks of the posts and their bands were silver, their tops were overlaid with silver, and all the posts of the courtyard had silver bands.

<sup>18</sup> The curtain for the gate of the courtyard was of blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and fine twisted linen, the work of an embroiderer. It was thirty feet long, and like the hangings in the courtyard, it was seven and a half feet high,

<sup>20</sup> All the tent pegs of the tabernacle and of the courtyard all around were bronze.

The Materials of the Construction

<sup>21</sup> This is the inventory of the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the testimony, which was counted by the order of Moses, being the work of the Levites under the direction of Ithamar, son of Aaron the priest.

<sup>22</sup> Now Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made everything that the LORD had commanded Moses;

<sup>23</sup> and with him was Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an artisan, a designer, and an embroiderer in blue, purple, and scarlet yarn and fine linen.

<sup>24</sup> All the gold that was used for the work, in all the work of the sanctuary (namely, the gold of the wave offering) was twenty-nine talents and 730 shekels, according to the sanctuary shekel.

<sup>25</sup> The silver of those who were numbered of the community was one hundred talents and 1,775 shekels, according to the sanctuary shekel,

<sup>26</sup> one beka per person, that is, a half shekel, according to the sanctuary shekel, for everyone who crossed over to those numbered, from twenty years old or older, 603,550 in all.

<sup>30</sup> With it he made the bases for the door of the tent of meeting, the bronze altar, the bronze grating for it, and all the utensils of the altar;

39

<sup>1</sup> From the blue, purple, and scarlet yarn they made woven garments for serving in the sanctuary; they made holy garments that were for Aaron, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The Ephod

<sup>3</sup> They hammered the gold into thin sheets and cut it into narrow strips to weave them into the blue, purple, and scarlet yarn, and into the fine linen, the work of an artistic designer.

<sup>4</sup> They made shoulder pieces for it, attached to two of its corners, so it could be joined together.

<sup>7</sup> He put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod as stones of memorial for the Israelites, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The Breastpiece of Decision

<sup>8</sup> He made the breastpiece, the work of an artistic designer, in the same fashion as the ephod, of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet, and fine twisted linen.

<sup>9</sup> It was square – they made the breastpiece doubled, nine inches long and nine inches wide when doubled.

<sup>13</sup> and the fourth row, a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper. They were enclosed in gold filigree settings.

<sup>16</sup> and they made two gold filigree settings and two gold rings, and they attached the two rings to the upper two ends of the breastpiece.

<sup>18</sup> the other two ends of the two chains they attached to the two settings, and they attached them to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front of it.

<sup>19</sup> They made two rings of gold and put them on the other two ends of the breastpiece on its edge, which is on the inner side of the ephod.

<sup>20</sup> They made two more gold rings and attached them to the bottom of the two shoulder pieces on the front of the ephod, close to the juncture above the waistband of the ephod.

<sup>21</sup> They tied the breastpiece by its rings to the rings of the ephod by blue cord, so that it was above the waistband of the ephod, so that the breastpiece would not be loose from the ephod, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The Other Garments

<sup>22</sup> He made the robe of the ephod completely blue, the work of a weaver.

<sup>28</sup> and the turban of fine linen, the headbands of fine linen, and the undergarments of fine twisted linen.

<sup>30</sup> They made a plate, the holy diadem, of pure gold and wrote on it an inscription, as on the engravings of a seal, “Holiness to the LORD.”

<sup>31</sup> They attached to it a blue cord, to attach it to the turban above, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Moses Inspects the Sanctuary

<sup>32</sup> So all the work of the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, was completed, and the Israelites did according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses – they did it exactly so.

<sup>34</sup> and the coverings of ram skins dyed red, the covering of fine leather, and the protecting curtain;

<sup>35</sup> the ark of the testimony and its poles, and the atonement lid;

<sup>37</sup> the pure lampstand, its lamps, with the lamps set in order, and all its accessories, and oil for the light;

<sup>38</sup> and the gold altar, and the anointing oil, and the fragrant incense; and the curtain for the entrance to the tent;

<sup>39</sup> the bronze altar and its bronze grating, its poles, and all its utensils; the large basin with its pedestal;

<sup>40</sup> the hangings of the courtyard, its posts and its bases, and the curtain for the gateway of the courtyard, its ropes and its tent pegs, and all the furnishings for the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of meeting;

<sup>42</sup> The Israelites did all the work according to all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>43</sup> Moses inspected all the work – and they had done it just as the LORD had commanded – they had done it exactly – and Moses blessed them.

40

<sup>2</sup> “On the first day of the first month you are to set up the tabernacle, the tent of meeting.

<sup>4</sup> You are to bring in the table and set out the things that belong on it; then you are to bring in the lampstand and set up its lamps.

<sup>7</sup> You are to put the large basin between the tent of meeting and the altar and put water in it.

<sup>9</sup> And take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle and all that is in it, and sanctify it and all its furnishings, and it will be holy.

<sup>10</sup> Then you are to anoint the altar for the burnt offering with all its utensils; you are to sanctify the altar, and it will be the most holy altar.

<sup>11</sup> You must also anoint the large basin and its pedestal, and you are to sanctify it.

<sup>13</sup> Then you are to clothe Aaron with the holy garments and anoint him and sanctify him so that he may minister as my priest.

<sup>14</sup> You are to bring his sons and clothe them with tunics

<sup>15</sup> and anoint them just as you anointed their father, so that they may minister as my priests; their anointing will make them a priesthood that will continue throughout their generations.”

<sup>16</sup> This is what Moses did, according to all the LORD had commanded him – so he did.

<sup>17</sup> So the tabernacle was set up on the first day of the first month, in the second year.

<sup>18</sup> When Moses set up the tabernacle and put its bases in place, he set up its frames, attached its bars, and set up its posts.

<sup>19</sup> Then he spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering of the tent over it, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>22</sup> And he put the table in the tent of meeting, on the north side of the tabernacle, outside the curtain.

<sup>23</sup> And he set the bread in order on it before the LORD, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>24</sup> And he put the lampstand in the tent of meeting opposite the table, on the south side of the tabernacle.

<sup>29</sup> He also put the altar for the burnt offering by the entrance to the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, and offered on it the burnt offering and the meal offering, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>30</sup> Then he put the large basin between the tent of meeting and the altar and put water in it for washing.

<sup>34</sup> Then the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

<sup>36</sup> But when the cloud was lifted up from the tabernacle, the Israelites would set out on all their journeys;

<sup>37</sup> but if the cloud was not lifted up, then they would not journey further until the day it was lifted up.

<sup>38</sup> For the cloud of the LORD was on the tabernacle by day, but fire would be on it at night, in plain view of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

Leviticus

Introduction to the Sacrificial Regulations

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD called to Moses and spoke to him from the Meeting Tent:

<sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them, ‘When someone among you presents an offering to the LORD, you must present your offering from the domesticated animals, either from the herd or from the flock.

Burnt Offering Regulations: Animal from the Herd

<sup>3</sup> “If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd he must present it as a flawless male; he must present it at the entrance of the Meeting Tent for its acceptance before the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> He must lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it will be accepted for him to make atonement on his behalf.

<sup>5</sup> Then the one presenting the offering must slaughter the bull before the LORD, and the sons of Aaron, the priests, must present the blood and splash the blood against the sides of the altar which is at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.

<sup>6</sup> Next, the one presenting the offering must skin the burnt offering and cut it into parts, <sup>7</sup> and the sons of Aaron, the priest, must put fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire.

<sup>8</sup> Then the sons of Aaron, the priests, must arrange the parts with the head and the suet on the wood that is in the fire on the altar.

<sup>9</sup> Finally, the one presenting the offering must wash its entrails and its legs in water and the priest must offer all of it up in smoke on the altar – it is a burnt offering, a gift of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Animal from the Flock

<sup>10</sup> “If his offering is from the flock for a burnt offering – from the sheep or the goats – he must present a flawless male,

<sup>11</sup> and must slaughter it on the north side of the altar before the LORD | strong="H3069", and the sons of Aaron, the priests, will splash its blood against the altar’s sides.

<sup>12</sup> Next, the one presenting the offering must cut it into parts, with its head and its suet, and the priest must arrange them on the wood which is in the fire, on the altar.

<sup>13</sup> Then the one presenting the offering must wash the entrails and the legs in water, and the priest must present all of it and offer it up in smoke on the altar – it is a burnt offering, a gift of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

From the Birds

<sup>14</sup> “If his offering to the LORD is a burnt offering from the birds, he must present his offering from the turtledoves or from the young pigeons.

<sup>15</sup> The priest must present it at the altar, pinch off its head and offer the head up in smoke on the altar, and its blood must be drained out against the side of the altar.

<sup>16</sup> Then the priest must remove its entrails by cutting off its tail feathers, and throw them to the east side of the altar into the place of fatty ashes, <sup>17</sup> and tear it open by its wings without dividing it into two parts. Finally, the priest must offer it up in smoke on the altar on the wood which is in the fire – it is a burnt offering, a gift of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>1</sup> “When a person presents a grain offering to the LORD, his offering must consist of choice wheat flour, and he must pour olive oil on it and put frankincense on it.

<sup>2</sup> Then he must bring it to the sons of Aaron, the priests, and the priest must scoop out from there a handful of its choice wheat flour and some of its olive oil in addition to all of its frankincense, and the priest must offer its memorial portion up in smoke on the altar – it is a gift of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Processed Grain Offerings

<sup>4</sup> “When you present an offering of grain baked in an oven, it must be made of choice wheat flour baked into unleavened loaves mixed with olive oil or unleavened wafers smeared with olive oil.

<sup>6</sup> Crumble it in pieces and pour olive oil on it – it is a grain offering.

<sup>7</sup> If your offering is a grain offering made in a pan, it must be made of choice wheat flour deep fried in olive oil.

<sup>8</sup> “You must bring the grain offering that must be made from these to the LORD. Present it to the priest, and he will bring it to the altar.

<sup>9</sup> Then the priest must take up from the grain offering its memorial portion and offer it up in smoke on the altar – it is a gift of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> The remainder of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and to his sons – it is most holy from the gifts of the LORD | strong="H3069".

Additional Grain Offering Regulations

<sup>11</sup> “No grain offering which you present to the LORD can be made with yeast, for you must not offer up in smoke any yeast or honey as a gift to the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> You can present them to the LORD as an offering of first fruit, but they must not go up to the altar for a soothing aroma.

<sup>13</sup> Moreover, you must season every one of your grain offerings with salt; you must not allow the salt of the covenant of your God to be missing from your grain offering – on every one of your grain offerings you must present salt.

<sup>14</sup> “If you present a grain offering of first ripe grain to the LORD, you must present your grain offering of first ripe grain as soft kernels roasted in fire – crushed bits of fresh grain.

<sup>15</sup> And you must put olive oil on it and set frankincense on it – it is a grain offering.

<sup>16</sup> Then the priest must offer its memorial portion up in smoke – some of its crushed bits, some of its olive oil, in addition to all of its frankincense – it is a gift to the LORD.

3

<sup>3</sup> Then the one presenting the offering must present a gift to the LORD from the peace offering sacrifice: He must remove the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that surrounds the entrails,

<sup>4</sup> the two kidneys with the fat on their sinews, and the protruding lobe on the liver (which he is to remove along with the kidneys).

<sup>5</sup> Then the sons of Aaron must offer it up in smoke on the altar atop the burnt offering that is on the wood in the fire as a gift of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Animal from the Flock

<sup>6</sup> “If his offering for a peace offering sacrifice to the LORD | strong="H3069" is from the flock, he must present a flawless male or female.

<sup>7</sup> If he presents a sheep as his offering, he must present it before the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> He must lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it before the Meeting Tent, and the sons of Aaron must splash its blood against the altar's sides.

<sup>9</sup> Then he must present a gift to the LORD from the peace offering sacrifice: He must remove all the fatty tail up to the end of the spine, the fat covering the entrails, and all the fat on the entrails,

<sup>11</sup> Then the priest must offer it up in smoke on the altar as a food gift to the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> “If his offering is a goat he must present it before the LORD, <sup>13</sup> lay his hand on its head, and slaughter it before the Meeting Tent, and the sons of Aaron must splash its blood against the altar's sides.

<sup>14</sup> Then he must present from it his offering as a gift to the LORD: the fat which covers the entrails and all the fat on the entrails,

<sup>16</sup> Then the priest must offer them up in smoke on the altar as a food gift for a soothing aroma – all the fat belongs to the LORD.

<sup>17</sup> This is a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all the places where you live: You must never eat any fat or any blood.’ ”

4

<sup>2</sup> “Tell the Israelites, ‘When a person sins by straying unintentionally from any of the Lord's commandments which must not be violated, and violates any one of them –

For the Priest

<sup>3</sup> “If the high priest sins so that the people are guilty, on account of the sin he has committed he must present a flawless young bull to the LORD for a sin offering.

<sup>5</sup> Then that high priest must take some of the blood of the bull and bring it to the Meeting Tent.

<sup>7</sup> The priest must put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense that is before the LORD in the Meeting Tent, and all the rest of the bull's blood he must pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering that is at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.

<sup>8</sup> “Then he must take up all the fat from the sin offering bull: the fat covering the entrails and all the fat surrounding the entrails,

<sup>9</sup> the two kidneys with the fat on their sinews, and the protruding lobe on the liver (which he is to remove along with the kidneys)

<sup>10</sup> – just as it is taken from the ox of the peace offering sacrifice – and the priest must offer them up in smoke on the altar of burnt offering.

<sup>11</sup> But the hide of the bull, all its flesh along with its head and its legs, its entrails, and its dung –

<sup>12</sup> all the rest of the bull – he must bring outside the camp to a ceremonially clean place, to the fatty ash pile, and he must burn it on a wood fire; it must be burned on the fatty ash pile.

For the Whole Congregation

<sup>13</sup> “If the whole congregation of Israel strays unintentionally and the matter is not noticed by the assembly, and they violate one of the Lord’s commandments, which must not be violated, so they become guilty,

<sup>14</sup> the assembly must present a young bull for a sin offering when the sin they have committed becomes known. They must bring it before the Meeting Tent,

<sup>16</sup> Then the high priest must bring some of the blood of the bull to the Meeting Tent,

<sup>18</sup> He must put some of the blood on the horns of the altar which is before the LORD in the Meeting Tent, and all the rest of the blood he must pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering that is at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.

<sup>19</sup> “Then the priest must take all its fat and offer the fat up in smoke on the altar.

<sup>20</sup> He must do with the rest of the bull just as he did with the bull of the sin offering; this is what he must do with it. So the priest will make atonement on their behalf and they will be forgiven.

<sup>21</sup> He must bring the rest of the bull outside the camp and burn it just as he burned the first bull – it is the sin offering of the assembly.

For the Leader

<sup>23</sup> or his sin that he committed is made known to him, he must bring a flawless male goat as his offering.

<sup>24</sup> He must lay his hand on the head of the male goat and slaughter it in the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered before the LORD – it is a sin offering.

<sup>25</sup> Then the priest must take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and he must pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering.

<sup>26</sup> Then the priest must offer all of its fat up in smoke on the altar like the fat of the peace offering sacrifice. So the priest will make atonement on his behalf for his sin and he will be forgiven.

For the Common Person

<sup>27</sup> “If an ordinary individual sins by straying unintentionally when he violates one of the Lord’s commandments which must not be violated, and he pleads guilty

<sup>28</sup> or his sin that he committed is made known to him, he must bring a flawless female goat as his offering for the sin that he committed.

<sup>29</sup> He must lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter the sin offering in the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered.

<sup>30</sup> Then the priest must take some of its blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and he must pour out all the rest of its blood at the base of the altar.

<sup>31</sup> Then he must remove all of its fat (just as fat was removed from the peace offering sacrifice) and the priest must offer it up in smoke on the altar for a soothing aroma to the LORD. So the priest will make atonement on his behalf and he will be forgiven.

<sup>32</sup> “But if he brings a sheep as his offering, for a sin offering, he must bring a flawless female.

<sup>33</sup> He must lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter it for a sin offering in the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered.

<sup>35</sup> Then the one who brought the offering must remove all its fat (just as the fat of the sheep is removed from the peace offering sacrifice) and the priest must offer them up in smoke on the altar on top of the other gifts of the LORD. So the priest will make atonement on his behalf for his sin which he has committed and he will be forgiven.

<sup>1</sup> “When a person sins in that he hears a public curse against one who fails to testify and he is a witness (he either saw or knew what had happened ) and he does not make it known, then he will bear his punishment for iniquity.

<sup>2</sup> Or when there is a person who touches anything ceremonially unclean, whether the carcass of an unclean wild animal, or the carcass of an unclean domesticated animal, or the carcass of an unclean creeping thing, even if he did not realize it, but he himself has become unclean and is guilty;

<sup>3</sup> or when he touches human uncleanness with regard to anything by which he can become unclean, even if he did not realize it, but he himself has later come to know it and is guilty;

<sup>4</sup> or when a person swears an oath, speaking thoughtlessly with his lips, whether to do evil or to do good, with regard to anything which the individual might speak thoughtlessly in an oath, even if he did not realize it, but he himself has later come to know it and is guilty with regard to one of these oaths –

<sup>5</sup> when an individual becomes guilty with regard to one of these things he must confess how he has sinned,

<sup>6</sup> and he must bring his penalty for guilt to the LORD for his sin that he has committed, a female from the flock, whether a female sheep or a female goat, for a sin offering. So the priest will make atonement on his behalf for his sin.

<sup>7</sup> “If he cannot afford an animal from the flock, he must bring his penalty for guilt for his sin that he has committed, two turtledoves or two young pigeons, to the LORD, one for a sin offering and one for a burnt offering.

<sup>8</sup> He must bring them to the priest and present first the one that is for a sin offering. The priest must pinch its head at the nape of its neck, but must not sever the head from the body.

<sup>9</sup> Then he must sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the wall of the altar, and the remainder of the blood must be squeezed out at the base of the altar – it is a sin offering.

<sup>10</sup> The second bird he must make a burnt offering according to the standard regulation. So the priest will make atonement on behalf of this person for his sin which he has committed, and he will be forgiven.

<sup>11</sup> “If he cannot afford two turtledoves or two young pigeons, he must bring as his offering for his sin which he has committed a tenth of an ephah of choice wheat flour for a sin offering. He must not place olive oil on it and he must not put frankincense on it, because it is a sin offering.

<sup>12</sup> He must bring it to the priest and the priest must scoop out from it a handful as its memorial portion and offer it up in smoke on the altar on top of the other gifts of the LORD – it is a sin offering.

<sup>13</sup> So the priest will make atonement on his behalf for his sin which he has committed by doing one of these things, and he will be forgiven. The remainder of the offering will belong to the priest like the grain offering.’ ”

Guilt Offering Regulations: Known Trespass

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>15</sup> “When a person commits a trespass and sins by straying unintentionally from the regulations about the Lord’s holy things, then he must bring his penalty for guilt to the LORD, a flawless ram from the flock, convertible into silver shekels according to the standard of the sanctuary shekel, for a guilt offering.

<sup>16</sup> And whatever holy thing he violated he must restore and must add one fifth to it and give it to the priest. So the priest will make atonement on his behalf with the guilt offering ram and he will be forgiven.”

Unknown trespass

<sup>17</sup> “If a person sins and violates any of the Lord’s commandments which must not be violated (although he did not know it at the time, but later realizes he is guilty), then he will bear his punishment for iniquity

<sup>18</sup> and must bring a flawless ram from the flock, convertible into silver shekels, for a guilt offering to the priest. So the priest will make atonement on his behalf for his error which he committed (although he himself had not known it) and he will be forgiven.

<sup>2</sup> “When a person sins and commits a trespass against the LORD by deceiving his fellow citizen in regard to something held in trust, or a pledge, or something stolen, or by extorting something from his fellow citizen,

<sup>3</sup> or has found something lost and denies it and swears falsely concerning any one of the things that someone might do to sin –

<sup>4</sup> when it happens that he sins and he is found guilty, then he must return whatever he had stolen, or whatever he had extorted, or the thing that he had held in trust, or the lost thing that he had found,

<sup>5</sup> or anything about which he swears falsely. He must restore it in full and add one fifth to it; he must give it to its owner when he is found guilty.

<sup>6</sup> Then he must bring his guilt offering to the LORD, a flawless ram from the flock, convertible into silver shekels, for a guilt offering to the priest.

<sup>7</sup> So the priest will make atonement on his behalf before the LORD and he will be forgiven for whatever he has done to become guilty.”

Sacrificial Instructions for the Priests: The Burnt Offering

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>9</sup> “Command Aaron and his sons, ‘This is the law of the burnt offering. The burnt offering is to remain on the hearth on the altar all night until morning, and the fire of the altar must be kept burning on it.

<sup>10</sup> Then the priest must put on his linen robe and must put linen leggings over his bare flesh, and he must take up the fatty ashes of the burnt offering that the fire consumed on the altar, and he must place them beside the altar.

<sup>11</sup> Then he must take off his clothes and put on other clothes, and he must bring the fatty ashes outside the camp to a ceremonially clean place,

<sup>12</sup> but the fire which is on the altar must be kept burning on it. It must not be extinguished. So the priest must kindle wood on it morning by morning, and he must arrange the burnt offering on it and offer the fat of the peace offering up in smoke on it.

<sup>13</sup> A continual fire must be kept burning on the altar. It must not be extinguished.

The Grain Offering of the Common Person

<sup>14</sup> “This is the law of the grain offering. The sons of Aaron are to present it before the LORD in front of the altar, <sup>15</sup> and the priest must take up with his hand some of the choice wheat flour of the grain offering and some of its olive oil, and all of the frankincense that is on the grain offering, and he must offer its memorial portion up in smoke on the altar as a soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>16</sup> Aaron and his sons are to eat what is left over from it. It must be eaten unleavened in a holy place; they are to eat it in the courtyard of the Meeting Tent.

<sup>17</sup> It must not be baked with yeast. I have given it as their portion from my gifts. It is most holy, like the sin offering and the guilt offering.

<sup>18</sup> Every male among the sons of Aaron may eat it. It is a perpetual allotted portion throughout your generations from the gifts of the LORD. Anyone who touches these gifts must be holy.’ ”

The Grain Offering of the Priests

<sup>19</sup> Then the LORD |strong="H3069" spoke to Moses:

<sup>20</sup> “This is the offering of Aaron and his sons which they must present to the LORD on the day when he is anointed: a tenth of an ephah of choice wheat flour as a continual grain offering, half of it in the morning and half of it in the evening.

<sup>21</sup> It must be made with olive oil on a griddle and you must bring it well soaked, so you must present a grain offering of broken pieces as a soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>22</sup> The high priest who succeeds him from among his sons must do it. It is a perpetual statute; it must be offered up in smoke as a whole offering to the LORD.

<sup>23</sup> Every grain offering of a priest must be a whole offering; it must not be eaten.”

The Sin Offering

<sup>24</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>25</sup> “Tell Aaron and his sons, ‘This is the law of the sin offering. In the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered the sin offering must be slaughtered before the LORD. It is most holy.

<sup>26</sup> The priest who offers it for sin is to eat it. It must be eaten in a holy place, in the court of the Meeting Tent.

<sup>27</sup> Anyone who touches its meat must be holy, and whoever spatters some of its blood on a garment, you must wash whatever he spatters it on in a holy place.

<sup>28</sup> Any clay vessel it is boiled in must be broken, and if it was boiled in a bronze vessel, then that vessel must be rubbed out and rinsed in water.

<sup>29</sup> Any male among the priests may eat it. It is most holy.

<sup>30</sup> But any sin offering from which some of its blood is brought into the Meeting Tent to make atonement in the sanctuary must not be eaten. It must be burned up in the fire.

7

<sup>2</sup> In the place where they slaughter the burnt offering they must slaughter the guilt offering, and the officiating priest must splash the blood against the altar’s sides.

<sup>3</sup> Then the one making the offering must present all its fat: the fatty tail, the fat covering the entrails, <sup>4</sup> the two kidneys and the fat on their sinews, and the protruding lobe on the liver (which he must remove along with the kidneys).

<sup>5</sup> Then the priest must offer them up in smoke on the altar as a gift to the LORD. It is a guilt offering.

<sup>6</sup> Any male among the priests may eat it. It must be eaten in a holy place. It is most holy.

<sup>7</sup> The law is the same for the sin offering and the guilt offering; it belongs to the priest who makes atonement with it.

Priestly Portions of Burnt and Grain Offerings

<sup>8</sup> “As for the priest who presents someone’s burnt offering, the hide of that burnt offering which he presented belongs to him.

<sup>9</sup> Every grain offering which is baked in the oven or made in the pan or on the griddle belongs to the priest who presented it.

<sup>10</sup> Every grain offering, whether mixed with olive oil or dry, belongs to all the sons of Aaron, each one alike.

The Peace Offering

<sup>11</sup> “This is the law of the peace offering sacrifice which he is to present to the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> If he presents it on account of thanksgiving, along with the thank offering sacrifice he must present unleavened loaves mixed with olive oil, unleavened wafers smeared with olive oil, and well soaked ring-shaped loaves made of choice wheat flour mixed with olive oil.

<sup>13</sup> He must present this grain offering in addition to ring-shaped loaves of leavened bread which regularly accompany the sacrifice of his thanksgiving peace offering.

<sup>14</sup> He must present one of each kind of grain offering as a contribution offering to the LORD; it belongs to the priest who splashes the blood of the peace offering.

<sup>15</sup> The meat of his thanksgiving peace offering must be eaten on the day of his offering; he must not set any of it aside until morning.

<sup>16</sup> “If his offering is a votive or freewill sacrifice, it may be eaten on the day he presents his sacrifice, and also the leftovers from it may be eaten on the next day,

<sup>17</sup> but the leftovers from the meat of the sacrifice must be burned up in the fire on the third day.

<sup>18</sup> If some of the meat of his peace offering sacrifice is ever eaten on the third day it will not be accepted; it will not be accounted to the one who presented it, since it is spoiled, and the person who eats from it will bear his punishment for iniquity.

<sup>21</sup> When a person touches anything unclean (whether human uncleanness, or an unclean animal, or an unclean detestable creature) and eats some of the meat of the peace offering sacrifice which belongs to the LORD, that person will be cut off from his people.’ ”

Sacrificial Instructions for the Common People: Fat and Blood

<sup>22</sup> Then the LORD |strong="H3069" spoke to Moses:

<sup>23</sup> “Tell the Israelites, ‘You must not eat any fat of an ox, sheep, or goat.

<sup>24</sup> Moreover, the fat of an animal that has died of natural causes and the fat of an animal torn by beasts may be used for any other purpose, but you must certainly never eat it.

<sup>26</sup> And you must not eat any blood of the birds or the domesticated land animals in any of the places where you live.

<sup>27</sup> Any person who eats any blood – that person will be cut off from his people.’ ”

Priestly Portions of Peace Offerings

<sup>28</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>29</sup> “Tell the Israelites, ‘The one who presents his peace offering sacrifice to the LORD must bring his offering to the LORD from his peace offering sacrifice.

<sup>30</sup> With his own hands he must bring the LORD’s gifts. He must bring the fat with the breast to wave the breast as a wave offering before the LORD,

<sup>32</sup> The right thigh you must give as a contribution offering to the priest from your peace offering sacrifices.

<sup>33</sup> The one from Aaron’s sons who presents the blood of the peace offering and fat will have the right thigh as his share,

<sup>34</sup> for the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the contribution offering I have taken from the Israelites out of their peace offering sacrifices and have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons from the people of Israel as a perpetual allotted portion.’ ”

Summary of Sacrificial Regulations in Leviticus 6:8-7:36

<sup>37</sup> This is the law for the burnt offering, the grain offering, the sin offering, the guilt offering, the ordination offering, and the peace offering sacrifice,

8

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>2</sup> “Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, the anointing oil, the sin offering bull, the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread,

Clothing Aaron

<sup>7</sup> Then he put the tunic on Aaron, wrapped the sash around him, and clothed him with the robe. Next he put the ephod on him and placed on him the decorated band of the ephod, and fastened the ephod closely to him with the band.

<sup>8</sup> He then set the breastpiece on him and put the Urim and Thummim into the breastpiece.

<sup>9</sup> Finally, he set the turban on his head and attached the gold plate, the holy diadem, to the front of the turban just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Anointing the Tabernacle and Aaron, and Clothing Aaron's Sons

<sup>10</sup> Then Moses took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle and everything in it, and so consecrated them.

<sup>11</sup> Next he sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times and so anointed the altar, all its vessels, and the wash basin and its stand to consecrate them.

<sup>12</sup> He then poured some of the anointing oil on the head of Aaron and anointed him to consecrate him.

<sup>13</sup> Moses also brought forward Aaron's sons, clothed them with tunics, wrapped sashes around them, and wrapped headbands on them just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Consecration Offerings

<sup>14</sup> Then he brought near the sin offering bull and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the sin offering bull, <sup>15</sup> and he slaughtered it. Moses then took the blood and put it all around on the horns of the altar with his finger and decontaminated the altar, and he poured out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar and so consecrated it to make atonement on it.

<sup>16</sup> Then he took all the fat on the entrails, the protruding lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and their fat, and Moses offered it all up in smoke on the altar, <sup>17</sup> but the rest of the bull – its hide, its flesh, and its dung – he completely burned up outside the camp just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>18</sup> Then he presented the burnt offering ram and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram, <sup>19</sup> and he slaughtered it. Moses then splashed the blood against the altar's sides.

<sup>20</sup> Then he cut the ram into parts, and Moses offered the head, the parts, and the suet up in smoke,

<sup>21</sup> but the entrails and the legs he washed with water, and Moses offered the whole ram up in smoke on the altar – it was a burnt offering for a soothing aroma, a gift to the LORD |strong="H3069", just as the LORD |strong="H3069" had commanded Moses.

<sup>25</sup> Then he took the fat (the fatty tail, all the fat on the entrails, the protruding lobe of the liver, and the two kidneys and their fat ) and the right thigh,

<sup>27</sup> He then put all of them on the palms of Aaron and his sons, who waved them as a wave offering before the LORD.

<sup>28</sup> Moses then took them from their palms and offered them up in smoke on the altar on top of the burnt offering – they were an ordination offering for a soothing aroma; it was a gift to the LORD.

<sup>29</sup> Finally, Moses took the breast and waved it as a wave offering before the LORD from the ram of ordination. It was Moses' share just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Anointing Aaron, his Sons, and their Garments

<sup>30</sup> Then Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood which was on the altar and sprinkled it on Aaron and his garments, and on his sons and his sons' garments with him. So he consecrated Aaron, his garments, and his sons and his sons' garments with him.

<sup>31</sup> Then Moses said to Aaron and his sons, "Boil the meat at the entrance of the Meeting Tent, and there you are to eat it and the bread which is in the ordination offering basket, just as I have commanded, saying, 'Aaron and his sons are to eat it,'

<sup>32</sup> but the remainder of the meat and the bread you must burn with fire.

<sup>33</sup> And you must not go out from the entrance of the Meeting Tent for seven days, until the day when your days of ordination are completed, because you must be ordained over a seven-day period.

<sup>34</sup> What has been done on this day the LORD has commanded to be done to make atonement for you.

<sup>35</sup> You must reside at the entrance of the Meeting Tent day and night for seven days and keep the charge of the LORD so that you will not die, for this is what I have been commanded."

<sup>2</sup> and said to Aaron, "Take for yourself a bull calf for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering, both flawless, and present them before the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> Then tell the Israelites: 'Take a male goat for a sin offering and a calf and lamb, both a year old and flawless, for a burnt offering,

<sup>4</sup> and an ox and a ram for peace offerings to sacrifice before the LORD, and a grain offering mixed with olive oil, for today the LORD is going to appear to you.' "

<sup>5</sup> So they took what Moses had commanded to the front of the Meeting Tent and the whole congregation presented them and stood before the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> Then Moses said, "This is what the LORD has commanded you to do so that the glory of the LORD may appear to you."

<sup>7</sup> Moses then said to Aaron, "Approach the altar and make your sin offering and your burnt offering, and make atonement on behalf of yourself and on behalf of the people; and also make the people's offering and make atonement on behalf of them just as the LORD has commanded."

The Sin Offering for the Priests

<sup>8</sup> So Aaron approached the altar and slaughtered the sin offering calf which was for himself.

<sup>9</sup> Then Aaron's sons presented the blood to him and he dipped his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar, and the rest of the blood he poured out at the base of the altar.

<sup>10</sup> The fat and the kidneys and the protruding lobe of the liver from the sin offering he offered up in smoke on the altar just as the LORD had commanded Moses, <sup>11</sup> but the flesh and the hide he completely burned up outside the camp.

The Burnt Offering for the Priests

<sup>12</sup> He then slaughtered the burnt offering, and his sons handed the blood to him and he splashed it against the altar's sides.

<sup>13</sup> The burnt offering itself they handed to him by its parts, including the head, and he offered them up in smoke on the altar, <sup>14</sup> and he washed the entrails and the legs and offered them up in smoke on top of the burnt offering on the altar.

The Offerings for the People

<sup>15</sup> Then he presented the people's offering. He took the sin offering male goat which was for the people, slaughtered it, and performed a decontamination rite with it like the first one.

<sup>16</sup> He then presented the burnt offering, and did it according to the standard regulation.

<sup>17</sup> Next he presented the grain offering, filled his hand with some of it, and offered it up in smoke on the altar in addition to the morning burnt offering.

<sup>18</sup> Then he slaughtered the ox and the ram – the peace offering sacrifices which were for the people – and Aaron's sons handed the blood to him and he splashed it against the altar's sides.

<sup>20</sup> they set those on the breasts and he offered the fat parts up in smoke on the altar.

<sup>22</sup> Then Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them and descended from making the sin offering, the burnt offering, and the peace offering.

<sup>23</sup> Moses and Aaron then entered into the Meeting Tent. When they came out, they blessed the people, and the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people.

<sup>24</sup> Then fire went out from the presence of the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the fat parts on the altar, and all the people saw it, so they shouted loudly and fell down with their faces to the ground.

10

<sup>2</sup> So fire went out from the presence of the LORD and consumed them so that they died before the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> Moses then said to Aaron, "This is what the LORD spoke: 'Among the ones close to me I will show myself holy, and in the presence of all the people I will be honored.'" So Aaron kept silent.

<sup>4</sup> Moses then called to Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel, Aaron's uncle, and said to them, "Come near, carry your brothers away from the front of the sanctuary to a place outside the camp."

<sup>5</sup> So they came near and carried them away in their tunics to a place outside the camp just as Moses had spoken.

<sup>6</sup> Then Moses said to Aaron and to Eleazar and Ithamar his other two sons, "Do not dishevel the hair of your heads and do not tear your garments, so that you do not die and so that wrath does not come on the whole congregation. Your brothers, all the house of Israel, are to mourn the burning which the LORD has caused, <sup>7</sup> but you must not go out from the entrance of the Meeting Tent lest you die, for the Lord's anointing oil is on you." So they acted according to the word of Moses.

Perpetual Statutes the Lord Spoke to Aaron

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD | strong="H3069" spoke to Aaron,

<sup>9</sup> “Do not drink wine or strong drink, you and your sons with you, when you enter into the Meeting Tent, so that you do not die, which is a perpetual statute throughout your generations,

<sup>10</sup> as well as to distinguish between the holy and the common, and between the unclean and the clean,

<sup>11</sup> and to teach the Israelites all the statutes that the LORD has spoken to them through Moses.”

Perpetual Statutes Moses spoke to Aaron

<sup>12</sup> Then Moses spoke to Aaron and to Eleazar and Ithamar, his remaining sons, “Take the grain offering which remains from the gifts of the LORD and eat it unleavened beside the altar, for it is most holy.

<sup>13</sup> You must eat it in a holy place because it is your allotted portion and the allotted portion of your sons from the gifts of the LORD, for this is what I have been commanded.

<sup>14</sup> Also, the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the contribution offering you must eat in a ceremonially clean place, you and your sons and daughters with you, for they have been given as your allotted portion and the allotted portion of your sons from the peace offering sacrifices of the Israelites.

<sup>15</sup> The thigh of the contribution offering and the breast of the wave offering they must bring in addition to the gifts of the fat parts to wave them as a wave offering before the LORD, and it will belong to you and your sons with you for a perpetual statute just as the LORD has commanded.”

The Problem with the Inaugural Sin Offering

<sup>16</sup> Later Moses sought diligently for the sin offering male goat, but it had actually been burnt. So he became angry at Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron’s remaining sons, saying,

<sup>17</sup> “Why did you not eat the sin offering in the sanctuary? For it is most holy and he gave it to you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement on their behalf before the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> See here! Its blood was not brought into the holy place within! You should certainly have eaten it in the sanctuary just as I commanded!”

<sup>19</sup> But Aaron spoke to Moses, “See here! Just today they presented their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD and such things as these have happened to me! If I had eaten a sin offering today would the LORD have been pleased?”

<sup>3</sup> You may eat any among the animals that has a divided hoof (the hooves are completely split in two ) and that also chews the cud.

<sup>4</sup> However, you must not eat these from among those that chew the cud and have divided hooves: The camel is unclean to you because it chews the cud even though its hoof is not divided.

<sup>5</sup> The rock badger is unclean to you because it chews the cud even though its hoof is not divided.

<sup>6</sup> The hare is unclean to you because it chews the cud even though its hoof is not divided.

<sup>7</sup> The pig is unclean to you because its hoof is divided (the hoof is completely split in two ), even though it does not chew the cud.

<sup>8</sup> You must not eat from their meat and you must not touch their carcasses; they are unclean to you.

Clean and Unclean Water Creatures

<sup>9</sup> “These you can eat from all creatures that are in the water: Any creatures in the water that have both fins and scales, whether in the seas or in the streams, you may eat.

<sup>10</sup> But any creatures that do not have both fins and scales, whether in the seas or in the streams, from all the swarming things of the water and from all the living creatures that are in the water, are detestable to you.

<sup>11</sup> Since they are detestable to you, you must not eat their meat and their carcass you must detest.

<sup>12</sup> Any creature in the water that does not have both fins and scales is detestable to you.

Clean and Unclean Birds

<sup>13</sup> “These you are to detest from among the birds – they must not be eaten, because they are detestable: the griffon vulture, the bearded vulture, the black vulture,

<sup>14</sup> the kite, the buzzard of any kind,

Clean and Unclean Insects

<sup>20</sup> “Every winged swarming thing that walks on all fours is detestable to you.

<sup>21</sup> However, this you may eat from all the winged swarming things that walk on all fours, which have jointed legs to hop with on the land.

<sup>22</sup> These you may eat from them: the locust of any kind, the bald locust of any kind, the cricket of any kind, the grasshopper of any kind.

<sup>23</sup> But any other winged swarming thing that has four legs is detestable to you.

Carcass Uncleanness

<sup>24</sup> “By these you defile yourselves; anyone who touches their carcass will be unclean until the evening, <sup>25</sup> and anyone who carries their carcass must wash his clothes and will be unclean until the evening.

Inedible Land Quadrupeds

<sup>26</sup> “All animals that divide the hoof but it is not completely split in two and do not chew the cud are unclean to you; anyone who touches them becomes unclean.

<sup>27</sup> All that walk on their paws among all the creatures that walk on all fours are unclean to you. Anyone who touches their carcass will be unclean until the evening, <sup>28</sup> and the one who carries their carcass must wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening; they are unclean to you.

Creatures that Swarm on the Land

<sup>29</sup> “Now this is what is unclean to you among the swarming things that swarm on the land: the rat, the mouse, the large lizard of any kind,

<sup>30</sup> the Mediterranean gecko, the spotted lizard, the wall gecko, the skink, and the chameleon.

<sup>31</sup> These are the ones that are unclean to you among all the swarming things. Anyone who touches them when they die will be unclean until evening.

<sup>32</sup> Also, anything they fall on when they die will become unclean – any wood vessel or garment or article of leather or sackcloth. Any such vessel with which work is done must be immersed in water and will be unclean until the evening. Then it will become clean.

<sup>33</sup> As for any clay vessel they fall into, everything in it will become unclean and you must break it.

<sup>34</sup> Any food that may be eaten which becomes soaked with water will become unclean. Anything drinkable in any such vessel will become unclean.

<sup>35</sup> Anything their carcass may fall on will become unclean. An oven or small stove must be smashed to pieces; they are unclean, and they will stay unclean to you.

<sup>36</sup> However, a spring or a cistern which collects water will be clean, but one who touches their carcass will be unclean.

<sup>37</sup> Now, if such a carcass falls on any sowing seed which is to be sown, it is clean, <sup>38</sup> but if water is put on the seed and such a carcass falls on it, it is unclean to you.

Edible Land Quadrupeds

<sup>39</sup> “Now if an animal that you may eat dies, whoever touches its carcass will be unclean until the evening.

<sup>40</sup> One who eats from its carcass must wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening, and whoever carries its carcass must wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>41</sup> Every swarming thing that swarms on the land is detestable; it must not be eaten.

<sup>42</sup> You must not eat anything that crawls on its belly or anything that walks on all fours or on any number of legs of all the swarming things that swarm on the land, because they are detestable.

<sup>43</sup> Do not make yourselves detestable by any of the swarming things. You must not defile yourselves by them and become unclean by them,

<sup>44</sup> for I am the LORD your God and you are to sanctify yourselves and be holy because I am holy. You must not defile yourselves by any of the swarming things that creep on the ground, <sup>45</sup> for I am the LORD who brought you up from the land of Egypt to be your God, and you are to be holy because I am holy.

<sup>46</sup> This is the law of the land animals, the birds, all the living creatures that move in the water, and all the creatures that swarm on the land,

<sup>47</sup> to distinguish between the unclean and the clean, between the living creatures that may be eaten and the living creatures that must not be eaten.’ ”

<sup>4</sup> Then she will remain thirty-three days in blood purity. She must not touch anything holy and she must not enter the sanctuary until the days of her purification are fulfilled.

<sup>5</sup> If she bears a female child, she will be impure fourteen days as during her menstrual flow, and she will remain sixty-six days in blood purity.

<sup>6</sup> “When the days of her purification are completed for a son or for a daughter, she must bring a one year old lamb for a burnt offering and a young pigeon or turtledove for a sin offering to the entrance of the Meeting Tent, to the priest.

<sup>7</sup> The priest is to present it before the LORD | strong="H3069" and make atonement on her behalf, and she will be clean from her flow of blood. This is the law of the one who bears a child, for the male or the female child.

<sup>8</sup> If she cannot afford a sheep, then she must take two turtledoves or two young pigeons, one for a burnt offering and one for a sin offering, and the priest is to make atonement on her behalf, and she will be clean.’ ”

<sup>2</sup> “When someone has a swelling or a scab or a bright spot on the skin of his body that may become a diseased infection, he must be brought to Aaron the priest or one of his sons, the priests.

<sup>3</sup> The priest must then examine the infection on the skin of the body, and if the hair in the infection has turned white and the infection appears to be deeper than the skin of the body, then it is a diseased infection, so when the priest examines it he must pronounce the person unclean.

A Bright Spot on the Skin

<sup>4</sup> “If it is a white bright spot on the skin of his body, but it does not appear to be deeper than the skin, and the hair has not turned white, then the priest is to quarantine the person with the infection for seven days.

<sup>5</sup> The priest must then examine it on the seventh day, and if, as far as he can see, the infection has stayed the same and has not spread on the skin, then the priest is to quarantine the person for another seven days.

<sup>6</sup> The priest must then examine it again on the seventh day, and if the infection has faded and has not spread on the skin, then the priest is to pronounce the person clean. It is a scab, so he must wash his clothes and be clean.

<sup>7</sup> If, however, the scab is spreading further on the skin after he has shown himself to the priest for his purification, then he must show himself to the priest a second time.

<sup>8</sup> The priest must then examine it, and if the scab has spread on the skin, then the priest is to pronounce the person unclean. It is a disease.

A Swelling on the Skin

<sup>9</sup> “When someone has a diseased infection, he must be brought to the priest.

<sup>10</sup> The priest will then examine it, and if a white swelling is on the skin, it has turned the hair white, and there is raw flesh in the swelling,

<sup>11</sup> it is a chronic disease on the skin of his body, so the priest is to pronounce him unclean. The priest must not merely quarantine him, for he is unclean.

<sup>12</sup> If, however, the disease breaks out on the skin so that the disease covers all the skin of the person with the infection from his head to his feet, as far as the priest can see,

<sup>13</sup> the priest must then examine it, and if the disease covers his whole body, he is to pronounce the person with the infection clean. He has turned all white, so he is clean.

<sup>14</sup> But whenever raw flesh appears in it he will be unclean, <sup>15</sup> so the priest is to examine the raw flesh and pronounce him unclean – it is diseased.

<sup>16</sup> If, however, the raw flesh once again turns white, then he must come to the priest.

<sup>17</sup> The priest will then examine it, and if the infection has turned white, the priest is to pronounce the person with the infection clean – he is clean.

A Boil on the Skin

<sup>18</sup> “When someone’s body has a boil on its skin and it heals,

<sup>19</sup> and in the place of the boil there is a white swelling or a reddish white bright spot, he must show himself to the priest.

<sup>20</sup> The priest will then examine it, and if it appears to be deeper than the skin and its hair has turned white, then the priest is to pronounce the person unclean. It is a diseased infection that has broken out in the boil.

<sup>21</sup> If, however, the priest examines it, and there is no white hair in it, it is not deeper than the skin, and it has faded, then the priest is to quarantine him for seven days.

<sup>22</sup> If it is spreading further on the skin, then the priest is to pronounce him unclean. It is an infection.

<sup>23</sup> But if the bright spot stays in its place and has not spread, it is the scar of the boil, so the priest is to pronounce him clean.

A Burn on the Skin

<sup>24</sup> “When a body has a burn on its skin and the raw area of the burn becomes a reddish white or white bright spot,

<sup>25</sup> the priest must examine it, and if the hair has turned white in the bright spot and it appears to be deeper than the skin, it is a disease that has broken out in the burn. The priest is to pronounce the person unclean. It is a diseased infection.

<sup>26</sup> If, however, the priest examines it and there is no white hair in the bright spot, it is not deeper than the skin, and it has faded, then the priest is to quarantine him for seven days.

<sup>27</sup> The priest must then examine it on the seventh day, and if it is spreading further on the skin, then the priest is to pronounce him unclean. It is a diseased infection.

<sup>28</sup> But if the bright spot stays in its place, has not spread on the skin, and it has faded, then it is the swelling of the burn, so the priest is to pronounce him clean, because it is the scar of the burn.

Scall on the Head or in the Beard

<sup>29</sup> “When a man or a woman has an infection on the head or in the beard,

<sup>30</sup> the priest is to examine the infection, and if it appears to be deeper than the skin and the hair in it is reddish yellow and thin, then the priest is to pronounce the person unclean. It is scall, a disease of the head or the beard.

<sup>31</sup> But if the priest examines the scall infection and it does not appear to be deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, then the priest is to quarantine the person with the scall infection for seven days.

<sup>32</sup> The priest must then examine the infection on the seventh day, and if the scall has not spread, there is no reddish yellow hair in it, and the scall does not appear to be deeper than the skin,

<sup>33</sup> then the individual is to shave himself, but he must not shave the area affected by the scall, and the priest is to quarantine the person with the scall for another seven days.

<sup>34</sup> The priest must then examine the scall on the seventh day, and if the scall has not spread on the skin and it does not appear to be deeper than the skin, then the priest is to pronounce him clean. So he is to wash his clothes and be clean.

<sup>36</sup> then the priest is to examine it, and if the scall has spread on the skin the priest is not to search further for reddish yellow hair. The person is unclean.

<sup>37</sup> If, as far as the priest can see, the scall has stayed the same and black hair has sprouted in it, the scall has been healed; the person is clean. So the priest is to pronounce him clean.

Bright White Spots on the Skin

<sup>38</sup> “When a man or a woman has bright spots – white bright spots – on the skin of their body, <sup>39</sup> the priest is to examine them, and if the bright spots on the skin of their body are faded white, it is a harmless rash that has broken out on the skin. The person is clean.

Baldness on the Head

<sup>40</sup> “When a man’s head is bare so that he is balding in back, he is clean.

<sup>41</sup> If his head is bare on the forehead so that he is balding in front, he is clean.

<sup>43</sup> The priest is to examine it, and if the swelling of the infection is reddish white in the back or front bald area like the appearance of a disease on the skin of the body,

<sup>44</sup> he is a diseased man. He is unclean. The priest must surely pronounce him unclean because of his infection on his head.

The Life of the Person with Skin Disease

<sup>45</sup> “As for the diseased person who has the infection, his clothes must be torn, the hair of his head must be unbound, he must cover his mustache, and he must call out ‘Unclean! Unclean!’

<sup>46</sup> The whole time he has the infection he will be continually unclean. He must live in isolation, and his place of residence must be outside the camp.

Infections in Garments, Cloth, or Leather

<sup>47</sup> “When a garment has a diseased infection in it, whether a wool or linen garment,
<sup>48</sup> or in the warp or woof of the linen or the wool, or in leather or anything made of leather, <sup>49</sup> if the infection in the garment or leather or warp or woof or any article of leather is yellowish green or reddish, it is a diseased infection and it must be shown to the priest.

<sup>50</sup> The priest is to examine and then quarantine the article with the infection for seven days.

<sup>51</sup> He must then examine the infection on the seventh day. If the infection has spread in the garment, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in the leather – whatever the article into which the leather was made – the infection is a malignant disease. It is unclean.

<sup>52</sup> He must burn the garment or the warp or the woof, whether wool or linen, or any article of leather which has the infection in it. Because it is a malignant disease it must be burned up in the fire.

<sup>53</sup> But if the priest examines it and the infection has not spread in the garment or in the warp or in the woof or in any article of leather,

<sup>54</sup> the priest is to command that they wash whatever has the infection and quarantine it for another seven days.

<sup>55</sup> The priest must then examine it after the infection has been washed out, and if the infection has not changed its appearance even though the infection has not spread, it is unclean. You must burn it up in the fire. It is a fungus, whether on the back side or front side of the article.

<sup>56</sup> But if the priest has examined it and the infection has faded after it has been washed, he is to tear it out of the garment or the leather or the warp or the woof.

<sup>57</sup> Then if it still appears again in the garment or the warp or the woof, or in any article of leather, it is an outbreak. Whatever has the infection in it you must burn up in the fire.

<sup>58</sup> But the garment or the warp or the woof or any article of leather which you wash and infection disappears from it is to be washed a second time and it will be clean.”

Summary of Infection Regulations

<sup>59</sup> This is the law of the diseased infection in the garment of wool or linen, or the warp or woof, or any article of leather, for pronouncing it clean or unclean.

14

<sup>2</sup> “This is the law of the diseased person on the day of his purification, when he is brought to the priest.

<sup>3</sup> The priest is to go outside the camp and examine the infection. If the infection of the diseased person has been healed, <sup>4</sup> then the priest will command that two live clean birds, a piece of cedar wood, a scrap of crimson fabric, and some twigs of hyssop be taken up for the one being cleansed.

<sup>5</sup> The priest will then command that one bird be slaughtered into a clay vessel over fresh water.

<sup>6</sup> Then he is to take the live bird along with the piece of cedar wood, the scrap of crimson fabric, and the twigs of hyssop, and he is to dip them and the live bird in the blood of the bird slaughtered over the fresh water, <sup>7</sup> and sprinkle it seven times on the one being cleansed from the disease, pronounce him clean, and send the live bird away over the open countryside.

The Seven Days of Purification

<sup>8</sup> “The one being cleansed must then wash his clothes, shave off all his hair, and bathe in water, and so be clean. Then afterward he may enter the camp, but he must live outside his tent seven days.

<sup>9</sup> When the seventh day comes he must shave all his hair – his head, his beard, his eyebrows, all his hair – and he must wash his clothes, bathe his body in water, and so be clean.

The Eighth Day Atonement Rituals

<sup>10</sup> “On the eighth day he must take two flawless male lambs, one flawless yearling female lamb, three-tenths of an ephah of choice wheat flour as a grain offering mixed with olive oil, and one log of olive oil,

<sup>11</sup> and the priest who pronounces him clean will have the man who is being cleansed stand along with these offerings before the LORD | strong="H3069" at the entrance of the Meeting Tent.

<sup>12</sup> “The priest is to take one male lamb and present it for a guilt offering along with the log of olive oil and present them as a wave offering before the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> He must then slaughter the male lamb in the place where the sin offering and the burnt offering are slaughtered, in the sanctuary, because, like the sin offering, the guilt offering belongs to the priest; it is most holy.

<sup>18</sup> and the remainder of the olive oil that is in his hand the priest is to put on the head of the one being cleansed. So the priest is to make atonement for him before the LORD.

<sup>19</sup> “The priest must then perform the sin offering and make atonement for the one being cleansed from his impurity. After that he is to slaughter the burnt offering, <sup>20</sup> and the priest is to offer the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar. So the priest is to make atonement for him and he will be clean.

The Eighth Day Atonement Rituals for the Poor Person

<sup>21</sup> “If the person is poor and does not have sufficient means, he must take one male lamb as a guilt offering for a wave offering to make atonement for himself, one-tenth of an ephah of choice wheat flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering, a log of olive oil,

<sup>22</sup> and two turtledoves or two young pigeons, which are within his means. One will be a sin offering and the other a burnt offering.

<sup>23</sup> “On the eighth day he must bring them for his purification to the priest at the entrance of the Meeting Tent before the LORD, <sup>24</sup> and the priest is to take the male lamb of the guilt offering and the log of olive oil and wave them as a wave offering before the LORD.

<sup>29</sup> and the remainder of the olive oil that is in the hand of the priest he is to put on the head of the one being cleansed to make atonement for him before the LORD.

<sup>30</sup> “He will then make one of the turtledoves or young pigeons, which are within his means,

<sup>31</sup> a sin offering and the other a burnt offering along with the grain offering. So the priest is to make atonement for the one being cleansed before the LORD.

<sup>32</sup> This is the law of the one in whom there is a diseased infection, who does not have sufficient means for his purification.”

Purification of Disease-Infected Houses

<sup>33</sup> The Lord spoke to Moses and Aaron:

<sup>34</sup> “When you enter the land of Canaan which I am about to give to you for a possession, and I put a diseased infection in a house in the land you are to possess,

<sup>35</sup> then whoever owns the house must come and declare to the priest, ‘Something like an infection is visible to me in the house.’

<sup>36</sup> Then the priest will command that the house be cleared before the priest enters to examine the infection so that everything in the house does not become unclean, and afterward the priest will enter to examine the house.

<sup>37</sup> He is to examine the infection, and if the infection in the walls of the house consists of yellowish green or reddish eruptions, and it appears to be deeper than the surface of the wall,

<sup>38</sup> then the priest is to go out of the house to the doorway of the house and quarantine the house for seven days.

<sup>39</sup> The priest must return on the seventh day and examine it, and if the infection has spread in the walls of the house,

<sup>40</sup> then the priest is to command that the stones that had the infection in them be pulled and thrown outside the city into an unclean place.

<sup>41</sup> Then he is to have the house scraped all around on the inside, and the plaster which is scraped off must be dumped outside the city into an unclean place.

<sup>42</sup> They are then to take other stones and replace those stones, and he is to take other plaster and replaster the house.

<sup>43</sup> “If the infection returns and breaks out in the house after he has pulled out the stones, scraped the house, and it is replastered, <sup>44</sup> the priest is to come and examine it, and if the infection has spread in the house, it is a malignant disease in the house. It is unclean.

<sup>45</sup> He must tear down the house, its stones, its wood, and all the plaster of the house, and bring all of it outside the city to an unclean place.

<sup>46</sup> Anyone who enters the house all the days the priest has quarantined it will be unclean until evening.

<sup>48</sup> “If, however, the priest enters and examines it, and the infection has not spread in the house after the house has been replastered, then the priest is to pronounce the house clean because the infection has been healed.

<sup>49</sup> Then he is to take two birds, a piece of cedar wood, a scrap of crimson fabric, and some twigs of hyssop to decontaminate the house,

<sup>50</sup> and he is to slaughter one bird into a clay vessel over fresh water.

<sup>51</sup> He must then take the piece of cedar wood, the twigs of hyssop, the scrap of crimson fabric, and the live bird, and dip them in the blood of the slaughtered bird and in the fresh water, and sprinkle the house seven times.

<sup>52</sup> So he is to decontaminate the house with the blood of the bird, the fresh water, the live bird, the piece of cedar wood, the twigs of hyssop, and the scrap of crimson fabric, <sup>53</sup> and he is to send the live bird away outside the city into the open countryside. So he is to make atonement for the house and it will be clean.

Summary of Purification Regulations for Infections

15

<sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them, ‘When any man has a discharge from his body, his discharge is unclean.

<sup>4</sup> “Any bed the man with a discharge lies on will be unclean, and any furniture he sits on will be unclean.

<sup>6</sup> The one who sits on the furniture the man with a discharge sits on must wash his clothes, bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

<sup>7</sup> The one who touches the body of the man with a discharge must wash his clothes, bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

<sup>8</sup> If the man with a discharge spits on a person who is ceremonially clean, that person must wash his clothes, bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

<sup>9</sup> Any means of riding the man with a discharge rides on will be unclean.

<sup>10</sup> Anyone who touches anything that was under him will be unclean until evening, and the one who carries those items must wash his clothes, bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

<sup>12</sup> A clay vessel which the man with the discharge touches must be broken, and any wooden utensil must be rinsed in water.

Purity Regulations for Male Bodily Discharges

<sup>13</sup> “When the man with the discharge becomes clean from his discharge he is to count off for himself seven days for his purification, and he must wash his clothes, bathe in fresh water, and be clean.

<sup>14</sup> Then on the eighth day he is to take for himself two turtledoves or two young pigeons, and he is to present himself before the LORD at the entrance of the Meeting Tent and give them to the priest, <sup>15</sup> and the priest is to make one of them a sin offering and the other a burnt offering. So the priest is to make atonement for him before the LORD for his discharge.

<sup>16</sup> “When a man has a seminal emission, he must bathe his whole body in water and be unclean until evening, <sup>17</sup> and he must wash in water any clothing or leather that has semen on it, and it will be unclean until evening.

<sup>18</sup> When a man has sexual intercourse with a woman and there is a seminal emission, they must bathe in water and be unclean until evening.

Female Bodily Discharges

<sup>19</sup> “When a woman has a discharge and her discharge is blood from her body, she is to be in her menstruation seven days, and anyone who touches her will be unclean until evening.

<sup>20</sup> Anything she lies on during her menstruation will be unclean, and anything she sits on will be unclean.

<sup>21</sup> Anyone who touches her bed must wash his clothes, bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

<sup>22</sup> Anyone who touches any furniture she sits on must wash his clothes, bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

<sup>23</sup> If there is something on the bed or on the furniture she sits on, when he touches it he will be unclean until evening, <sup>24</sup> and if a man actually has sexual intercourse with her so that her menstrual impurity touches him, then he will be unclean seven days and any bed he lies on will be unclean.

<sup>25</sup> “When a woman’s discharge of blood flows many days not at the time of her menstruation, or if it flows beyond the time of her menstruation, all the days of her discharge of impurity will be like the days of her menstruation – she is unclean.

<sup>26</sup> Any bed she lies on all the days of her discharge will be to her like the bed of her menstruation, any furniture she sits on will be unclean like the impurity of her menstruation, <sup>27</sup> and anyone who touches them will be unclean, and he must wash his clothes, bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

Purity Regulations from Female Bodily Discharges

<sup>28</sup> “If she becomes clean from her discharge, then she is to count off for herself seven days, and afterward she will be clean.

<sup>29</sup> Then on the eighth day she must take for herself two turtledoves or two young pigeons and she must bring them to the priest at the entrance of the Meeting Tent,

<sup>30</sup> and the priest is to make one a sin offering and the other a burnt offering. So the priest is to make atonement for her before the LORD | strong="H3069" from her discharge of impurity.

Summary of Purification Regulations for Bodily Discharges

<sup>32</sup> This is the law of the one with a discharge: the one who has a seminal emission and becomes unclean by it,

<sup>33</sup> the one who is sick in her menstruation, the one with a discharge, whether male or female, and a man who has sexual intercourse with an unclean woman.’ ”

16

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses after the death of Aaron’s two sons when they approached the presence of the LORD and died, <sup>2</sup> and the LORD said to Moses: “Tell Aaron your brother that he must not enter at any time into the holy place inside the veil-canopy in front of the atonement plate that is on the ark so that he may not die, for I will appear in the cloud over the atonement plate.

Day of Atonement Offerings

<sup>3</sup> “In this way Aaron is to enter into the sanctuary – with a young bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.

<sup>4</sup> He must put on a holy linen tunic, linen leggings are to cover his body, and he is to wrap himself with a linen sash and wrap his head with a linen turban. They are holy garments, so he must bathe his body in water and put them on.

<sup>6</sup> Then Aaron is to present the sin offering bull which is for himself and is to make atonement on behalf of himself and his household.

<sup>7</sup> He must then take the two goats and stand them before the LORD at the entrance of the Meeting Tent, <sup>8</sup> and Aaron is to cast lots over the two goats, one lot for the LORD and one lot for Azazel.

<sup>9</sup> Aaron must then present the goat which has been designated by lot for the LORD, and he is to make it a sin offering, <sup>10</sup> but the goat which has been designated by lot for Azazel is to be stood alive before the LORD to make atonement on it by sending it away to Azazel into the wilderness.

The Sin Offering Sacrificial Procedures

<sup>11</sup> “Aaron is to present the sin offering bull which is for himself, and he is to make atonement on behalf of himself and his household. He is to slaughter the sin offering bull which is for himself, <sup>12</sup> and take a censer full of coals of fire from the altar before the LORD and a full double handful of finely ground fragrant incense, and bring them inside the veil-canopy.

<sup>13</sup> He must then put the incense on the fire before the LORD, and the cloud of incense will cover the atonement plate which is above the ark of the testimony, so that he will not die.

<sup>14</sup> Then he is to take some of the blood of the bull and sprinkle it with his finger on the eastern face of the atonement plate, and in front of the atonement plate he is to sprinkle some of the blood seven times with his finger.

<sup>15</sup> “He must then slaughter the sin offering goat which is for the people. He is to bring its blood inside the veil-canopy, and he is to do with its blood just as he did to the blood of the bull: He is to sprinkle it on the atonement plate and in front of the atonement plate.

<sup>16</sup> So he is to make atonement for the holy place from the impurities of the Israelites and from their transgressions with regard to all their sins, and thus he is to do for the Meeting Tent which resides with them in the midst of their impurities.

<sup>17</sup> Nobody is to be in the Meeting Tent when he enters to make atonement in the holy place until he goes out, and he has made atonement on his behalf, on behalf of his household, and on behalf of the whole assembly of Israel.

<sup>18</sup> “Then he is to go out to the altar which is before the LORD | strong=“H3069” and make atonement for it. He is to take some of the blood of the bull and some of the blood of the goat, and put it all around on the horns of the altar.

<sup>19</sup> Then he is to sprinkle on it some of the blood with his finger seven times, and cleanse and consecrate it from the impurities of the Israelites.

The Live Goat Ritual Procedures

<sup>20</sup> “When he has finished purifying the holy place, the Meeting Tent, and the altar, he is to present the live goat.

<sup>21</sup> Aaron is to lay his two hands on the head of the live goat and confess over it all the iniquities of the Israelites and all their transgressions in regard to all their sins, and thus he is to put them on the head of the goat and send it away into the wilderness by the hand of a man standing ready.

<sup>22</sup> The goat is to bear on itself all their iniquities into an inaccessible land, so he is to send the goat away in the wilderness.

The Concluding Rituals

<sup>23</sup> “Aaron must then enter the Meeting Tent and take off the linen garments which he had put on when he entered the sanctuary, and leave them there.

<sup>24</sup> Then he must bathe his body in water in a holy place, put on his clothes, and go out and make his burnt offering and the people’s burnt offering. So he is to make atonement on behalf of himself and the people.

<sup>25</sup> “Then he is to offer up the fat of the sin offering in smoke on the altar, <sup>26</sup> and the one who sent the goat away to Azazel must wash his clothes, bathe his body in water, and afterward he may reenter the camp.

<sup>27</sup> The bull of the sin offering and the goat of the sin offering, whose blood was brought to make atonement in the holy place, must be brought outside the camp and their hide, their flesh, and their dung must be burned up, <sup>28</sup> and the one who burns them must wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward he may reenter the camp.

Review of the Day of Atonement

<sup>29</sup> “This is to be a perpetual statute for you. In the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you must humble yourselves and do no work of any kind, both the native citizen and the foreigner who resides in your midst, <sup>30</sup> for on this day atonement is to be made for you to cleanse you from all your sins; you must be clean before the LORD.

<sup>31</sup> It is to be a Sabbath of complete rest for you, and you must humble yourselves. It is a perpetual statute.

<sup>32</sup> “The priest who is anointed and ordained to act as high priest in place of his father is to make atonement. He is to put on the linen garments, the holy garments, <sup>33</sup> and he is to purify the Most Holy Place, he is to purify the Meeting Tent and the altar, and he is to make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly.

<sup>34</sup> This is to be a perpetual statute for you to make atonement for the Israelites for all their sins once a year.” So he did just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

17

<sup>2</sup> “Speak to Aaron, his sons, and all the Israelites, and tell them: ‘This is the word that the LORD has commanded:

<sup>3</sup> “Blood guilt will be accounted to any man from the house of Israel who slaughters an ox or a lamb or a goat inside the camp or outside the camp, <sup>4</sup> but has not brought it to the entrance of the Meeting Tent to present it as an offering to the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD. He has shed blood, so that man will be cut off from the midst of his people.

<sup>5</sup> This is so that the Israelites will bring their sacrifices that they are sacrificing in the open field to the LORD at the entrance of the Meeting Tent to the priest and sacrifice them there as peace offering sacrifices to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> So they must no longer offer their sacrifices to the goat demons, acting like prostitutes by going after them. This is to be a perpetual statute for them throughout their generations.

<sup>8</sup> “You are to say to them: ‘Any man from the house of Israel or from the foreigners who reside in their midst, who offers a burnt offering or a sacrifice

<sup>9</sup> but does not bring it to the entrance of the Meeting Tent to offer it to the LORD – that person will be cut off from his people.

Prohibition against Eating Blood

<sup>10</sup> “Any man from the house of Israel or from the foreigners who reside in their midst who eats any blood, I will set my face against that person who eats the blood, and I will cut him off from the midst of his people,

<sup>11</sup> for the life of every living thing is in the blood. So I myself have assigned it to you on the altar to make atonement for your lives, for the blood makes atonement by means of the life.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, I have said to the Israelites: No person among you is to eat blood, and no resident foreigner who lives among you is to eat blood.

<sup>13</sup> “Any man from the Israelites or from the foreigners who reside in their midst who hunts a wild animal or a bird that may be eaten must pour out its blood and cover it with soil, <sup>14</sup> for the life of all flesh is its blood. So I have said to the Israelites: You must not eat the blood of any living thing because the life of every living thing is its blood – all who eat it will be cut off.

Regulations for Eating Carcasses

<sup>15</sup> “Any person who eats an animal that has died of natural causes or an animal torn by beasts, whether a native citizen or a foreigner, must wash his clothes, bathe in water, and be unclean until evening; then he becomes clean.

<sup>16</sup> But if he does not wash his clothes and does not bathe his body, he will bear his punishment for iniquity.’ ”

18

<sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them, ‘I am the LORD your God!

<sup>3</sup> You must not do as they do in the land of Egypt where you have been living, and you must not do as they do in the land of Canaan into which I am about to bring you; you must not walk in their statutes.

<sup>4</sup> You must observe my regulations and you must be sure to walk in my statutes. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>5</sup> So you must keep my statutes and my regulations; anyone who does so will live by keeping them. I am the LORD.

Laws of Sexual Relations

<sup>6</sup> “No man is to approach any close relative to have sexual intercourse with her. I am the LORD | strong="H3069".

<sup>8</sup> You must not have sexual intercourse with your father's wife; she is your father's nakedness.

<sup>9</sup> You must not have sexual intercourse with your sister, whether she is your father's daughter or your mother's daughter, whether she is born in the same household or born outside it; you must not have sexual intercourse with either of them.

<sup>10</sup> You must not expose the nakedness of your son's daughter or your daughter's daughter by having sexual intercourse with them, because they are your own nakedness.

<sup>11</sup> You must not have sexual intercourse with the daughter of your father's wife born of your father; she is your sister. You must not have intercourse with her.

<sup>12</sup> You must not have sexual intercourse with your father's sister; she is your father's flesh.

<sup>13</sup> You must not have sexual intercourse with your mother's sister, because she is your mother's flesh.

<sup>15</sup> You must not have sexual intercourse with your daughter-in-law; she is your son's wife. You must not have intercourse with her.

<sup>16</sup> You must not have sexual intercourse with your brother's wife; she is your brother's nakedness.

<sup>17</sup> You must not have sexual intercourse with both a woman and her daughter; you must not take as wife either her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter to have intercourse with them. They are closely related to her – it is lewdness.

<sup>21</sup> You must not give any of your children as an offering to Molech, so that you do not profane the name of your God. I am the LORD!

<sup>22</sup> You must not have sexual intercourse with a male as one has sexual intercourse with a woman; it is a detestable act.

<sup>23</sup> You must not have sexual intercourse with any animal to become defiled with it, and a woman must not stand before an animal to have sexual intercourse with it; it is a perversion.

Warning against the Abominations of the Nations

<sup>24</sup> “Do not defile yourselves with any of these things, for the nations which I am about to drive out before you have been defiled with all these things.

<sup>25</sup> Therefore the land has become unclean and I have brought the punishment for its iniquity upon it, so that the land has vomited out its inhabitants.

<sup>26</sup> You yourselves must obey my statutes and my regulations and must not do any of these abominations, both the native citizen and the resident foreigner in your midst,

<sup>27</sup> for the people who were in the land before you have done all these abominations, and the land has become unclean.

<sup>28</sup> So do not make the land vomit you out because you defile it just as it has vomited out the nations that were before you.

<sup>29</sup> For if anyone does any of these abominations, the persons who do them will be cut off from the midst of their people.

<sup>30</sup> You must obey my charge to not practice any of the abominable statutes that have been done before you, so that you do not defile yourselves by them. I am the LORD your God.’ ”

19

<sup>2</sup> “Speak to the whole congregation of the Israelites and tell them, ‘You must be holy because I, the LORD your God, am holy.

<sup>3</sup> Each of you must respect his mother and his father, and you must keep my Sabbaths. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>4</sup> Do not turn to idols, and you must not make for yourselves gods of cast metal. I am the LORD your God.

Eating the Peace Offering

<sup>5</sup> “When you sacrifice a peace offering sacrifice to the LORD, you must sacrifice it so that it is accepted for you.

<sup>7</sup> If, however, it is eaten on the third day, it is spoiled, it will not be accepted, <sup>8</sup> and the one who eats it will bear his punishment for iniquity because he has profaned what is holy to the LORD. That person will be cut off from his people.

Leaving the Gleanings

<sup>9</sup> “When you gather in the harvest of your land, you must not completely harvest the corner of your field, and you must not gather up the gleanings of your harvest.

<sup>10</sup> You must not pick your vineyard bare, and you must not gather up the fallen grapes of your vineyard. You must leave them for the poor and the foreigner. I am the LORD | strong="H3069" your God.

Dealing Honestly

<sup>11</sup> “You must not steal, you must not tell lies, and you must not deal falsely with your fellow citizen.

<sup>12</sup> You must not swear falsely in my name, so that you do not profane the name of your God. I am the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> You must not oppress your neighbor or commit robbery against him. You must not withhold the wages of the hired laborer overnight until morning.

<sup>14</sup> You must not curse a deaf person or put a stumbling block in front of a blind person. You must fear your God; I am the LORD.

Justice, Love, and Propriety

<sup>15</sup> “You must not deal unjustly in judgment: you must neither show partiality to the poor nor honor the rich. You must judge your fellow citizen fairly.

<sup>16</sup> You must not go about as a slanderer among your people. You must not stand idly by when your neighbor’s life is at stake. I am the LORD.

<sup>17</sup> You must not hate your brother in your heart. You must surely reprove your fellow citizen so that you do not incur sin on account of him.

<sup>18</sup> You must not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the children of your people, but you must love your neighbor as yourself. I am the LORD.

<sup>19</sup> You must keep my statutes. You must not allow two different kinds of your animals to breed, you must not sow your field with two different kinds of seed, and you must not wear a garment made of two different kinds of fabric.

Lying with a Slave Woman

<sup>20</sup> “When a man has sexual intercourse with a woman, although she is a slave woman designated for another man and she has not yet been ransomed, or freedom has not been granted to her, there will be an obligation to pay compensation. They must not be put to death, because she was not free.

<sup>21</sup> He must bring his guilt offering to the LORD at the entrance of the Meeting Tent, a guilt offering ram, <sup>22</sup> and the priest is to make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering before the LORD for his sin that he has committed, and he will be forgiven of his sin that he has committed.

The Produce of Fruit Trees

<sup>23</sup> “When you enter the land and plant any fruit tree, you must consider its fruit to be forbidden. Three years it will be forbidden to you; it must not be eaten.

<sup>24</sup> In the fourth year all its fruit will be holy, praise offerings to the LORD.

<sup>25</sup> Then in the fifth year you may eat its fruit to add its produce to your harvest. I am the LORD your God.

Blood, Hair, and Body

<sup>26</sup> “You must not eat anything with the blood still in it. You must not practice either divination or soothsaying.

<sup>27</sup> You must not round off the corners of the hair on your head or ruin the corners of your beard.

<sup>28</sup> You must not slash your body for a dead person or incise a tattoo on yourself. I am the LORD.

<sup>29</sup> Do not profane your daughter by making her a prostitute, so that the land does not practice prostitution and become full of lewdness.

Purity, Honor, Respect, and Honesty

<sup>30</sup> “You must keep my Sabbaths and fear my sanctuary. I am the LORD.

<sup>31</sup> Do not turn to the spirits of the dead and do not seek familiar spirits to become unclean by them. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>32</sup> You must stand up in the presence of the aged, honor the presence of an elder, and fear your God. I am the LORD.

<sup>33</sup> When a foreigner resides with you in your land, you must not oppress him.

<sup>34</sup> The foreigner who resides with you must be to you like a native citizen among you; so you must love him as yourself, because you were foreigners in the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>35</sup> You must not do injustice in the regulation of measures, whether of length, weight, or volume.

<sup>36</sup> You must have honest balances, honest weights, an honest ephah, and an honest hin. I am the LORD your God who brought you out from the land of Egypt.

<sup>37</sup> You must be sure to obey all my statutes and regulations. I am the LORD.’ ”

20

<sup>2</sup> “You are to say to the Israelites, ‘Any man from the Israelites or from the foreigners who reside in Israel who gives any of his children to Molech must be put to death; the people of the land must pelt him with stones.

<sup>3</sup> I myself will set my face against that man and cut him off from the midst of his people, because he has given some of his children to Molech and thereby defiled my sanctuary and profaned my holy name.

<sup>4</sup> If, however, the people of the land shut their eyes to that man when he gives some of his children to Molech so that they do not put him to death,

<sup>5</sup> I myself will set my face against that man and his clan. I will cut off from the midst of their people both him and all who follow after him in spiritual prostitution, to commit prostitution by worshiping Molech.

Prohibition against Spiritists and Mediums

<sup>6</sup> “The person who turns to the spirits of the dead and familiar spirits to commit prostitution by going after them, I will set my face against that person and cut him off from the midst of his people.

Exhortation to Holiness and Obedience

<sup>7</sup> “You must sanctify yourselves and be holy, because I am the LORD | strong="H3069" your God.

<sup>8</sup> You must be sure to obey my statutes. I am the LORD who sanctifies you.

Family Life and Sexual Prohibitions

<sup>9</sup> “If anyone curses his father and mother he must be put to death. He has cursed his father and mother; his blood guilt is on himself.

<sup>10</sup> If a man commits adultery with his neighbor’s wife, both the adulterer and the adulteress must be put to death.

<sup>12</sup> If a man has sexual intercourse with his daughter-in-law, both of them must be put to death. They have committed perversion; their blood guilt is on themselves.

<sup>13</sup> If a man has sexual intercourse with a male as one has sexual intercourse with a woman, the two of them have committed an abomination. They must be put to death; their blood guilt is on themselves.

<sup>14</sup> If a man has sexual intercourse with both a woman and her mother, it is lewdness. Both he and they must be burned to death, so there is no lewdness in your midst.

<sup>15</sup> If a man has sexual intercourse with any animal, he must be put to death, and you must kill the animal.

<sup>16</sup> If a woman approaches any animal to have sexual intercourse with it, you must kill the woman, and the animal must be put to death; their blood guilt is on themselves.

<sup>17</sup> “If a man has sexual intercourse with his sister, whether the daughter of his father or his mother, so that he sees her nakedness and she sees his nakedness, it is a disgrace. They must be cut off in the sight of the children of their people. He has exposed his sister’s nakedness; he will bear his punishment for iniquity.

<sup>18</sup> If a man has sexual intercourse with a menstruating woman and uncovers her nakedness, he has laid bare her fountain of blood and she has exposed the fountain of her blood, so both of them must be cut off from the midst of their people.

<sup>20</sup> If a man has sexual intercourse with his aunt, he has exposed his uncle’s nakedness; they must bear responsibility for their sin, they will die childless.

<sup>21</sup> If a man has sexual intercourse with his brother’s wife, it is indecency. He has exposed his brother’s nakedness; they will be childless.

Exhortation to Holiness and Obedience

<sup>22</sup> “You must be sure to obey all my statutes and regulations, so that the land to which I am about to bring you to take up residence there does not vomit you out.

<sup>23</sup> You must not walk in the statutes of the nation which I am about to drive out before you, because they have done all these things and I am filled with disgust against them.

<sup>24</sup> So I have said to you: You yourselves will possess their land and I myself will give it to you for a possession, a land flowing with milk and honey. I am the LORD your God who has set you apart from the other peoples.

<sup>25</sup> Therefore you must distinguish between the clean animal and the unclean, and between the unclean bird and the clean, and you must not make yourselves detestable by means of an animal or bird or anything that creeps on the ground – creatures I have distinguished for you as unclean.

<sup>26</sup> You must be holy to me because I, the LORD, am holy, and I have set you apart from the other peoples to be mine.

Prohibition against Spiritists and Mediums

<sup>27</sup> “A man or woman who has in them a spirit of the dead or a familiar spirit must be put to death. They must pelt them with stones; their blood guilt is on themselves.”

21

<sup>1</sup> The LORD said to Moses: “Say to the priests, the sons of Aaron – say to them, ‘For a dead person no priest is to defile himself among his people,

<sup>3</sup> and his virgin sister who is near to him, who has no husband; he may defile himself for her.

<sup>4</sup> He must not defile himself as a husband among his people so as to profane himself.

<sup>5</sup> Priests must not have a bald spot shaved on their head, they must not shave the corner of their beard, and they must not cut slashes in their body.

<sup>6</sup> “They must be holy to their God, and they must not profane the name of their God, because they are the ones who present the LORD’s gifts, the food of their God. Therefore they must be holy.

<sup>7</sup> They must not take a wife defiled by prostitution, nor are they to take a wife divorced from her husband, for the priest is holy to his God.

<sup>8</sup> You must sanctify him because he presents the food of your God. He must be holy to you because I, the LORD who sanctifies you all, am holy.

<sup>9</sup> If a daughter of a priest profanes herself by engaging in prostitution, she is profaning her father. She must be burned to death.

Rules for the High Priest

<sup>10</sup> “The high priest – who is greater than his brothers, on whose head the anointing oil is poured, who has been ordained to wear the priestly garments – must neither dishevel the hair of his head nor tear his garments.

<sup>11</sup> He must not go where there is any dead person; he must not defile himself even for his father and his mother.

<sup>12</sup> He must not go out from the sanctuary and must not profane the sanctuary of his God, because the dedication of the anointing oil of his God is on him. I am the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> He must not profane his children among his people, for I am the LORD | strong="H3069" who sanctifies him.”

Rules for the Priesthood

<sup>16</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>17</sup> “Tell Aaron, ‘No man from your descendants throughout their generations who has a physical flaw is to approach to present the food of his God.

<sup>18</sup> Certainly no man who has a physical flaw is to approach: a blind man, or one who is lame, or one with a slit nose, or a limb too long,

<sup>19</sup> or a man who has had a broken leg or arm,

<sup>20</sup> or a hunchback, or a dwarf, or one with a spot in his eye, or a festering eruption, or a feverish rash, or a crushed testicle.

<sup>21</sup> No man from the descendants of Aaron the priest who has a physical flaw may step forward to present the LORD’s gifts; he has a physical flaw, so he must not step forward to present the food of his God.

<sup>22</sup> He may eat both the most holy and the holy food of his God,

<sup>23</sup> but he must not go into the veil-canopy or step forward to the altar because he has a physical flaw. Thus he must not profane my holy places, for I am the LORD who sanctifies them.’ ”

22

<sup>2</sup> “Tell Aaron and his sons that they must deal respectfully with the holy offerings of the Israelites, which they consecrate to me, so that they do not profane my holy name. I am the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> Say to them, ‘Throughout your generations, if any man from all your descendants approaches the holy offerings which the Israelites consecrate to the LORD while he is impure, that person must be cut off from before me. I am the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> No man from the descendants of Aaron who is diseased or has a discharge may eat the holy offerings until he becomes clean. The one who touches anything made unclean by contact with a dead person, or a man who has a seminal emission,

<sup>5</sup> or a man who touches a swarming thing by which he becomes unclean, or touches a person by which he becomes unclean, whatever that person’s impurity –

<sup>6</sup> the person who touches any of these will be unclean until evening and must not eat from the holy offerings unless he has bathed his body in water.

<sup>7</sup> When the sun goes down he will be clean, and afterward he may eat from the holy offerings, because they are his food.

<sup>8</sup> He must not eat an animal that has died of natural causes or an animal torn by beasts and thus become unclean by it. I am the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> They must keep my charge so that they do not incur sin on account of it and therefore die because they profane it. I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

<sup>10</sup> “No lay person may eat anything holy. Neither a priest’s lodger nor a hired laborer may eat anything holy,

<sup>11</sup> but if a priest buys a person with his own money, that person may eat the holy offerings, and those born in the priest’s own house may eat his food.

<sup>12</sup> If a priest’s daughter marries a lay person, she may not eat the holy contribution offerings, <sup>13</sup> but if a priest’s daughter is a widow or divorced, and she has no children so that she returns to live in her father’s house as in her youth, she may eat from her father’s food, but no lay person may eat it.

<sup>14</sup> “If a man eats a holy offering by mistake, he must add one fifth to it and give the holy offering to the priest.

<sup>15</sup> They must not profane the holy offerings which the Israelites contribute to the LORD,

<sup>16</sup> and so cause them to incur a penalty for guilt when they eat their holy offerings, for I am the LORD who sanctifies them.’ ”

Regulations for Offering Votive and Freewill Offerings

<sup>17</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>18</sup> “Speak to Aaron, his sons, and all the Israelites and tell them, ‘When any man from the house of Israel or from the foreigners in Israel presents his offering for any of the votive or freewill offerings which they present to the LORD as a burnt offering, <sup>19</sup> if it is to be acceptable for your benefit it must be a flawless male from the cattle, sheep, or goats.

<sup>20</sup> You must not present anything that has a flaw, because it will not be acceptable for your benefit.

<sup>21</sup> If a man presents a peace offering sacrifice to the LORD | strong="H3069" for a special votive offering or for a freewill offering from the herd or the flock, it must be flawless to be acceptable; it must have no flaw.

<sup>22</sup> “You must not present to the LORD something blind, or with a broken bone, or mutilated, or with a running sore, or with a festering eruption, or with a feverish rash. You must not give any of these as a gift on the altar to the LORD.

<sup>23</sup> As for an ox or a sheep with a limb too long or stunted, you may present it as a freewill offering, but it will not be acceptable for a votive offering.

<sup>24</sup> You must not present to the LORD something with testicles that are bruised, crushed, torn, or cut off; you must not do this in your land.

<sup>25</sup> Even from a foreigner you must not present the food of your God from such animals as these, for they are ruined and flawed; they will not be acceptable for your benefit.’ ”

<sup>26</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>27</sup> “When an ox, lamb, or goat is born, it must be under the care of its mother seven days, but from the eighth day onward it will be acceptable as an offering gift to the LORD.

<sup>28</sup> You must not slaughter an ox or a sheep and its young on the same day.

<sup>29</sup> When you sacrifice a thanksgiving offering to the LORD, you must sacrifice it so that it is acceptable for your benefit.

<sup>30</sup> On that very day it must be eaten; you must not leave any part of it over until morning. I am the LORD.

<sup>31</sup> “You must be sure to do my commandments. I am the LORD.

<sup>32</sup> You must not profane my holy name, and I will be sanctified in the midst of the Israelites. I am the LORD who sanctifies you,

<sup>33</sup> the one who brought you out from the land of Egypt to be your God. I am the LORD.”

23

<sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them, ‘These are the LORD’s appointed times which you must proclaim as holy assemblies – my appointed times:

The Weekly Sabbath

<sup>3</sup> “Six days work may be done, but on the seventh day there must be a Sabbath of complete rest, a holy assembly. You must not do any work; it is a Sabbath to the LORD in all the places where you live.

The Festival of Passover and Unleavened Bread

<sup>4</sup> “These are the LORD’s appointed times, holy assemblies, which you must proclaim at their appointed time.

<sup>5</sup> In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at twilight, is a Passover offering to the LORD | strong="H3069".

<sup>6</sup> Then on the fifteenth day of the same month will be the festival of unleavened bread to the LORD; seven days you must eat unleavened bread.

<sup>7</sup> On the first day there will be a holy assembly for you; you must not do any regular work.

<sup>8</sup> You must present a gift to the LORD for seven days, and the seventh day is a holy assembly; you must not do any regular work.’ ”

The Presentation of First Fruits

<sup>9</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>10</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them, ‘When you enter the land that I am about to give to you and you gather in its harvest, then you must bring the sheaf of the first portion of your harvest to the priest,

<sup>11</sup> and he must wave the sheaf before the LORD to be accepted for your benefit – on the day after the Sabbath the priest is to wave it.

<sup>12</sup> On the day you wave the sheaf you must also offer a flawless yearling lamb for a burnt offering to the LORD, <sup>13</sup> along with its grain offering, two tenths of an ephah of choice wheat flour mixed with olive oil, as a gift to the LORD, a soothing aroma, and its drink offering, one fourth of a hin of wine.

<sup>14</sup> You must not eat bread, roasted grain, or fresh grain until this very day, until you bring the offering of your God. This is a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all the places where you live.

The Festival of Weeks

<sup>15</sup> “You must count for yourselves seven weeks from the day after the Sabbath, from the day you bring the wave offering sheaf; they must be complete weeks.

<sup>16</sup> You must count fifty days – until the day after the seventh Sabbath – and then you must present a new grain offering to the LORD.

<sup>17</sup> From the places where you live you must bring two loaves of bread for a wave offering; they must be made from two tenths of an ephah of fine wheat flour, baked with yeast, as first fruits to the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> Along with the loaves of bread, you must also present seven flawless yearling lambs, one young bull, and two rams. They are to be a burnt offering to the LORD along with their grain offering and drink offerings, a gift of a soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>19</sup> You must also offer one male goat for a sin offering and two yearling lambs for a peace offering sacrifice, <sup>20</sup> and the priest is to wave them – the two lambs – along with the bread of the first fruits, as a wave offering before the LORD; they will be holy to the LORD for the priest.

<sup>21</sup> “On this very day you must proclaim an assembly; it is to be a holy assembly for you. You must not do any regular work. This is a perpetual statute in all the places where you live throughout your generations.

<sup>22</sup> When you gather in the harvest of your land, you must not completely harvest the corner of your field, and you must not gather up the gleanings of your harvest. You must leave them for the poor and the foreigner. I am the LORD your God.’ ”

The Festival of Horn Blasts

<sup>23</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>24</sup> “Tell the Israelites, ‘In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you must have a complete rest, a memorial announced by loud horn blasts, a holy assembly.

<sup>25</sup> You must not do any regular work, but you must present a gift to the LORD.’ ”

The Day of Atonement

<sup>26</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>27</sup> “The tenth day of this seventh month is the Day of Atonement. It is to be a holy assembly for you, and you must humble yourselves and present a gift to the LORD.

<sup>28</sup> You must not do any work on this particular day, because it is a day of atonement to make atonement for yourselves before the LORD your God.

<sup>29</sup> Indeed, any person who does not behave with humility on this particular day will be cut off from his people.

<sup>30</sup> As for any person who does any work on this particular day, I will exterminate that person from the midst of his people!

<sup>31</sup> You must not do any work. This is a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all the places where you live.

<sup>32</sup> It is a Sabbath of complete rest for you, and you must humble yourselves on the ninth day of the month in the evening, from evening until evening you must observe your Sabbath.”

The Festival of Booths

<sup>33</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>34</sup> “Tell the Israelites, ‘On the fifteenth day of this seventh month is the Festival of Temporary Shelters for seven days to the LORD.

<sup>36</sup> For seven days you must present a gift to the LORD. On the eighth day there is to be a holy assembly for you, and you must present a gift to the LORD. It is a solemn assembly day; you must not do any regular work.

<sup>37</sup> “These are the appointed times of the LORD that you must proclaim as holy assemblies to present a gift to the LORD – burnt offering, grain offering, sacrifice, and drink offerings, each day according to its regulation, <sup>38</sup> besides the Sabbaths of the LORD and all your gifts, votive offerings, and freewill offerings which you must give to the LORD.

<sup>39</sup> “On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you gather in the produce of the land, you must celebrate a pilgrim festival of the LORD for seven days. On the first day is a complete rest and on the eighth day is complete rest.

<sup>40</sup> On the first day you must take for yourselves branches from majestic trees – palm branches, branches of leafy trees, and willows of the brook – and you must rejoice before the LORD your God for seven days.

<sup>41</sup> You must celebrate it as a pilgrim festival to the LORD for seven days in the year. This is a perpetual statute throughout your generations; you must celebrate it in the seventh month.

<sup>42</sup> You must live in temporary shelters for seven days; every native citizen in Israel must live in temporary shelters,

<sup>43</sup> so that your future generations may know that I made the Israelites live in temporary shelters when I brought them out from the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.’ ”

<sup>44</sup> So Moses spoke to the Israelites about the appointed times of the LORD.

24

<sup>2</sup> “Command the Israelites to bring to you pure oil of beaten olives for the light, to make a lamp burn continually.

<sup>5</sup> “You must take choice wheat flour and bake twelve loaves; there must be two tenths of an ephah of flour in each loaf,

<sup>8</sup> Each Sabbath day Aaron must arrange it before the LORD continually; this portion is from the Israelites as a perpetual covenant.

<sup>9</sup> It will belong to Aaron and his sons, and they must eat it in a holy place because it is most holy to him, a perpetual allotted portion from the gifts of the LORD.”

A Case of Blaspheming the Name

<sup>10</sup> Now an Israelite woman’s son whose father was an Egyptian went out among the Israelites, and the Israelite woman’s son and an Israelite man had a fight in the camp.

<sup>11</sup> The Israelite woman’s son misused the Name and cursed, so they brought him to Moses. (Now his mother’s name was Shelomith daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.)

<sup>12</sup> So they placed him in custody until they were able to make a clear legal decision for themselves based on words from the mouth of the LORD | strong="H3069".

<sup>13</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>14</sup> “Bring the one who cursed outside the camp, and all who heard him are to lay their hands on his head, and the whole congregation is to stone him to death.

<sup>15</sup> Moreover, you are to tell the Israelites, ‘If any man curses his God he will bear responsibility for his sin, <sup>16</sup> and one who misuses the name of the LORD must surely be put to death. The whole congregation must surely stone him, whether he is a foreigner or a native citizen; when he misuses the Name he must be put to death.

<sup>17</sup> “‘If a man beats any person to death, he must be put to death.

<sup>18</sup> One who beats an animal to death must make restitution for it, life for life.

<sup>19</sup> If a man inflicts an injury on his fellow citizen, just as he has done it must be done to him –

<sup>20</sup> fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth – just as he inflicts an injury on another person that same injury must be inflicted on him.

<sup>21</sup> One who beats an animal to death must make restitution for it, but one who beats a person to death must be put to death.

<sup>22</sup> There will be one regulation for you, whether a foreigner or a native citizen, for I am the LORD your God.’ ”

<sup>23</sup> Then Moses spoke to the Israelites and they brought the one who cursed outside the camp and stoned him with stones. So the Israelites did just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

25

<sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them, ‘When you enter the land that I am giving you, the land must observe a Sabbath to the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> Six years you may sow your field, and six years you may prune your vineyard and gather the produce, <sup>4</sup> but in the seventh year the land must have a Sabbath of complete rest – a Sabbath to the LORD. You must not sow your field or prune your vineyard.

<sup>5</sup> You must not gather in the aftergrowth of your harvest and you must not pick the grapes of your unpruned vines; the land must have a year of complete rest.

<sup>6</sup> You may have the Sabbath produce of the land to eat – you, your male servant, your female servant, your hired worker, the resident foreigner who stays with you,
<sup>7</sup> your cattle, and the wild animals that are in your land – all its produce will be for you to eat.

Regulations for the Jubilee Year of Release

<sup>8</sup> “You must count off seven weeks of years, seven times seven years, and the days of the seven weeks of years will amount to forty-nine years.

<sup>9</sup> You must sound loud horn blasts – in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, on the Day of Atonement – you must sound the horn in your entire land.

<sup>10</sup> So you must consecrate the fiftieth year, and you must proclaim a release in the land for all its inhabitants. That year will be your jubilee; each one of you must return to his property and each one of you must return to his clan.

<sup>11</sup> That fiftieth year will be your jubilee; you must not sow the land, harvest its aftergrowth, or pick the grapes of its unpruned vines.

<sup>12</sup> Because that year is a jubilee, it will be holy to you – you may eat its produce from the field.

Release of Landed Property

<sup>13</sup> “In this year of jubilee you must each return to your property.

<sup>14</sup> If you make a sale to your fellow citizen or buy from your fellow citizen, no one is to wrong his brother.

<sup>15</sup> You may buy it from your fellow citizen according to the number of years since the last jubilee; he may sell it to you according to the years of produce that are left.

<sup>16</sup> The more years there are, the more you may make its purchase price, and the fewer years there are, the less you must make its purchase price, because he is only selling to you a number of years of produce.

<sup>17</sup> No one is to oppress his fellow citizen, but you must fear your God, because I am the LORD your God.

<sup>18</sup> You must obey my statutes and my regulations; you must be sure to keep them so that you may live securely in the land.

<sup>19</sup> “The land will give its fruit and you may eat until you are satisfied, and you may live securely in the land.

<sup>20</sup> If you say, ‘What will we eat in the seventh year if we do not sow and gather our produce?’

<sup>21</sup> I will command my blessing for you in the sixth year so that it may yield the produce for three years,

<sup>22</sup> and you may sow the eighth year and eat from that sixth year’s produce – old produce. Until you bring in the ninth year’s produce, you may eat old produce.

<sup>23</sup> The land must not be sold without reclaim because the land belongs to me, for you are foreigners and residents with me.

<sup>24</sup> In all your landed property you must provide for the right of redemption of the land.

<sup>26</sup> If a man has no redeemer, but he prospers and gains enough for its redemption, <sup>27</sup> he is to calculate the value of the years it was sold, refund the balance to the man to whom he had sold it, and return to his property.

<sup>28</sup> If he has not prospered enough to refund a balance to him, then what he sold will belong to the one who bought it until the jubilee year, but it must revert in the jubilee and the original owner may return to his property.

Release of Houses

<sup>29</sup> “If a man sells a residential house in a walled city, its right of redemption must extend until one full year from its sale; its right of redemption must extend to a full calendar year.

<sup>30</sup> If it is not redeemed before the full calendar year is ended, the house in the walled city will belong without reclaim to the one who bought it throughout his generations; it will not revert in the jubilee.

<sup>31</sup> The houses of villages, however, which have no wall surrounding them must be considered as the field of the land; they will have the right of redemption and must revert in the jubilee.

<sup>32</sup> As for the cities of the Levites, the houses in the cities which they possess, the Levites must have a perpetual right of redemption.

<sup>34</sup> Moreover, the open field areas of their cities must not be sold, because that is their perpetual possession.

Debt and Slave Regulations

<sup>35</sup> “If your brother becomes impoverished and is indebted to you, you must support him; he must live with you like a foreign resident.

<sup>36</sup> Do not take interest or profit from him, but you must fear your God and your brother must live with you.

<sup>37</sup> You must not lend him your money at interest and you must not sell him food for profit.

<sup>38</sup> I am the LORD your God who brought you out from the land of Egypt to give you the land of Canaan – to be your God.

<sup>39</sup> “If your brother becomes impoverished with regard to you so that he sells himself to you, you must not subject him to slave service.

<sup>40</sup> He must be with you as a hired worker, as a resident foreigner; he must serve with you until the year of jubilee, <sup>41</sup> but then he may go free, he and his children with him, and may return to his family and to the property of his ancestors.

<sup>42</sup> Since they are my servants whom I brought out from the land of Egypt, they must not be sold in a slave sale.

<sup>43</sup> You must not rule over him harshly, but you must fear your God.

<sup>44</sup> “As for your male and female slaves who may belong to you – you may buy male and female slaves from the nations all around you.

<sup>45</sup> Also you may buy slaves from the children of the foreigners who reside with you, and from their families that are with you, whom they have fathered in your land, they may become your property.

<sup>46</sup> You may give them as inheritance to your children after you to possess as property. You may enslave them perpetually. However, as for your brothers the Israelites, no man may rule over his brother harshly.

<sup>47</sup> “If a resident foreigner who is with you prospers and your brother becomes impoverished with regard to him so that he sells himself to a resident foreigner who is with you or to a member of a foreigner’s family,

<sup>48</sup> after he has sold himself he retains a right of redemption. One of his brothers may redeem him, <sup>49</sup> or his uncle or his cousin may redeem him, or anyone of the rest of his blood relatives – his family – may redeem him, or if he prospers he may redeem himself.

<sup>50</sup> He must calculate with the one who bought him the number of years from the year he sold himself to him until the jubilee year, and the cost of his sale must correspond to the number of years, according to the rate of wages a hired worker would have earned while with him.

<sup>51</sup> If there are still many years, in keeping with them he must refund most of the cost of his purchase for his redemption, <sup>52</sup> but if only a few years remain until the jubilee, he must calculate for himself in keeping with the remaining years and refund it for his redemption.

<sup>53</sup> He must be with the one who bought him like a yearly hired worker. The one who bought him must not rule over him harshly in your sight.

<sup>54</sup> If, however, he is not redeemed in these ways, he must go free in the jubilee year, he and his children with him, <sup>55</sup> because the Israelites are my own servants; they are my servants whom I brought out from the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

26

<sup>1</sup> “You must not make for yourselves idols, so you must not set up for yourselves a carved image or a pillar, and you must not place a sculpted stone in your land to bow down before it, for I am the LORD your God.

<sup>2</sup> You must keep my Sabbaths and reverence my sanctuary. I am the LORD.

The Benefits of Obedience

<sup>3</sup> “If you walk in my statutes and are sure to obey my commandments,

<sup>4</sup> I will give you your rains in their time so that the land will give its yield and the trees of the field will produce their fruit.

<sup>5</sup> Threshing season will extend for you until the season for harvesting grapes, and the season for harvesting grapes will extend until sowing season, so you will eat your bread until you are satisfied, and you will live securely in your land.

<sup>6</sup> I will grant peace in the land so that you will lie down to sleep without anyone terrifying you. I will remove harmful animals from the land, and no sword of war will pass through your land.

<sup>7</sup> You will pursue your enemies and they will fall before you by the sword.

<sup>8</sup> Five of you will pursue a hundred, and a hundred of you will pursue ten thousand, and your enemies will fall before you by the sword.

<sup>9</sup> I will turn to you, make you fruitful, multiply you, and maintain my covenant with you.

<sup>10</sup> You will still be eating stored produce from the previous year and will have to clean out what is stored from the previous year to make room for new.

<sup>11</sup> “I will put my tabernacle in your midst and I will not abhor you.

<sup>12</sup> I will walk among you, and I will be your God and you will be my people.

<sup>13</sup> I am the LORD your God who brought you out from the land of Egypt, from being their slaves, and I broke the bars of your yoke and caused you to walk upright.

The Consequences of Disobedience

<sup>14</sup> “If, however, you do not obey me and keep all these commandments –

<sup>15</sup> if you reject my statutes and abhor my regulations so that you do not keep all my commandments and you break my covenant –

<sup>16</sup> I for my part will do this to you: I will inflict horror on you, consumption and fever, which diminish eyesight and drain away the vitality of life. You will sow your seed in vain because your enemies will eat it.

<sup>17</sup> I will set my face against you. You will be struck down before your enemies, those who hate you will rule over you, and you will flee when there is no one pursuing you.

<sup>18</sup> “If, in spite of all these things, you do not obey me, I will discipline you seven times more on account of your sins.

<sup>19</sup> I will break your strong pride and make your sky like iron and your land like bronze.

<sup>20</sup> Your strength will be used up in vain, your land will not give its yield, and the trees of the land will not produce their fruit.

<sup>21</sup> “If you walk in hostility against me and are not willing to obey me, I will increase your affliction seven times according to your sins.

<sup>22</sup> I will send the wild animals against you and they will bereave you of your children, annihilate your cattle, and diminish your population so that your roads will become deserted.

<sup>23</sup> “If in spite of these things you do not allow yourselves to be disciplined and you walk in hostility against me, <sup>24</sup> I myself will also walk in hostility against you and strike you seven times on account of your sins.

<sup>25</sup> I will bring on you an avenging sword, a covenant vengeance. Although you will gather together into your cities, I will send pestilence among you and you will be given into enemy hands.

<sup>26</sup> When I break off your supply of bread, ten women will bake your bread in one oven; they will ration your bread by weight, and you will eat and not be satisfied.

<sup>27</sup> “If in spite of this you do not obey me but walk in hostility against me, <sup>28</sup> I will walk in hostile rage against you and I myself will also discipline you seven times on account of your sins.

<sup>29</sup> You will eat the flesh of your sons and the flesh of your daughters.

<sup>30</sup> I will destroy your high places and cut down your incense altars, and I will stack your dead bodies on top of the lifeless bodies of your idols. I will abhor you.

<sup>31</sup> I will lay your cities waste and make your sanctuaries desolate, and I will refuse to smell your soothing aromas.

<sup>32</sup> I myself will make the land desolate and your enemies who live in it will be appalled.

<sup>33</sup> I will scatter you among the nations and unsheathe the sword after you, so your land will become desolate and your cities will become a waste.

<sup>34</sup> “Then the land will make up for its Sabbaths all the days it lies desolate while you are in the land of your enemies; then the land will rest and make up its Sabbaths.

<sup>35</sup> All the days of the desolation it will have the rest it did not have on your Sabbaths when you lived on it.

<sup>36</sup> “As for the ones who remain among you, I will bring despair into their hearts in the lands of their enemies. The sound of a blowing leaf will pursue them, and they will flee as one who flees the sword and fall down even though there is no pursuer.

<sup>37</sup> They will stumble over each other as those who flee before a sword, though there is no pursuer, and there will be no one to take a stand for you before your enemies.

<sup>38</sup> You will perish among the nations; the land of your enemies will consume you.

Restoration through Confession and Repentance

<sup>39</sup> “As for the ones who remain among you, they will rot away because of their iniquity in the lands of your enemies, and they will also rot away because of their ancestors’ iniquities which are with them.

<sup>40</sup> However, when they confess their iniquity and their ancestors’ iniquity which they committed by trespassing against me, by which they also walked in hostility against me

<sup>41</sup> (and I myself will walk in hostility against them and bring them into the land of their enemies), and then their uncircumcised hearts become humbled and they make up for their iniquity,

<sup>42</sup> I will remember my covenant with Jacob and also my covenant with Isaac and also my covenant with Abraham, and I will remember the land.

<sup>43</sup> The land will be abandoned by them in order that it may make up for its Sabbaths while it is made desolate without them, and they will make up for their iniquity because they have rejected my regulations and have abhorred my statutes.

<sup>44</sup> In spite of this, however, when they are in the land of their enemies I will not reject them and abhor them to make a complete end of them, to break my covenant with them, for I am the LORD their God.

<sup>45</sup> I will remember for them the covenant with their ancestors whom I brought out from the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations to be their God. I am the LORD.’ ”

Summary Colophon

<sup>46</sup> These are the statutes, regulations, and instructions which the LORD established between himself and the Israelites at Mount Sinai through Moses.

27

<sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them, ‘When a man makes a special votive offering based on the conversion value of persons to the LORD,

<sup>3</sup> the conversion value of the male from twenty years old up to sixty years old is fifty shekels by the standard of the sanctuary shekel.

<sup>4</sup> If the person is a female, the conversion value is thirty shekels.

<sup>5</sup> If the person is from five years old up to twenty years old, the conversion value of the male is twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

<sup>6</sup> If the person is one month old up to five years old, the conversion value of the male is five shekels of silver, and for the female the conversion value is three shekels of silver.

<sup>7</sup> If the person is from sixty years old and older, if he is a male the conversion value is fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

<sup>8</sup> If he is too poor to pay the conversion value, he must stand the person before the priest and the priest will establish his conversion value; according to what the man who made the vow can afford, the priest will establish his conversion value.

Redemption of Vowed Animals

<sup>9</sup> “If what is vowed is a kind of animal from which an offering may be presented to the LORD, anything which he gives to the LORD from this kind of animal will be holy.

<sup>10</sup> He must not replace or exchange it, good for bad or bad for good, and if he does indeed exchange one animal for another animal, then both the original animal and its substitute will be holy.

<sup>11</sup> If what is vowed is an unclean animal from which an offering must not be presented to the LORD, then he must stand the animal before the priest, <sup>12</sup> and the priest will establish its conversion value, whether good or bad. According to the assessed conversion value of the priest, thus it will be.

<sup>13</sup> If, however, the person who made the vow redeems the animal, he must add one fifth to its conversion value.

Redemption of Vowed Houses

<sup>14</sup> “If a man consecrates his house as holy to the LORD, the priest will establish its conversion value, whether good or bad. Just as the priest establishes its conversion value, thus it will stand.

<sup>15</sup> If the one who consecrates it redeems his house, he must add to it one fifth of its conversion value in silver, and it will belong to him.

Redemption of Vowed Fields

<sup>16</sup> “If a man consecrates to the LORD some of his own landed property, the conversion value must be calculated in accordance with the amount of seed needed to sow it, a homer of barley seed being priced at fifty shekels of silver.

<sup>17</sup> If he consecrates his field in the jubilee year, the conversion value will stand, <sup>18</sup> but if he consecrates his field after the jubilee, the priest will calculate the price for him according to the years that are left until the next jubilee year, and it will be deducted from the conversion value.

<sup>19</sup> If, however, the one who consecrated the field redeems it, he must add to it one fifth of the conversion price and it will belong to him.

<sup>20</sup> If he does not redeem the field, but sells the field to someone else, he may never redeem it.

<sup>21</sup> When it reverts in the jubilee, the field will be holy to the LORD like a permanently dedicated field; it will become the priest’s property.

<sup>22</sup> “If he consecrates to the LORD a field he has purchased, which is not part of his own landed property, <sup>23</sup> the priest will calculate for him the amount of its conversion value until the jubilee year, and he must pay the conversion value on that jubilee day as something that is holy to the LORD.

<sup>24</sup> In the jubilee year the field will return to the one from whom he bought it, the one to whom it belongs as landed property.

<sup>25</sup> Every conversion value must be calculated by the standard of the sanctuary shekel; twenty gerahs to the shekel.

Redemption of the Firstborn

<sup>26</sup> “Surely no man may consecrate a firstborn that already belongs to the LORD as a firstborn among the animals; whether it is an ox or a sheep, it belongs to the LORD.

<sup>27</sup> If, however, it is among the unclean animals, he may ransom it according to its conversion value and must add one fifth to it, but if it is not redeemed it must be sold according to its conversion value.

Things Permanently Dedicated to the Lord

<sup>28</sup> “Surely anything which a man permanently dedicates to the LORD | strong="H3069" from all that belongs to him, whether from people, animals, or his landed property, must be neither sold nor redeemed; anything permanently dedicated is most holy to the LORD | strong="H3069".

<sup>29</sup> Any human being who is permanently dedicated must not be ransomed; such a person must be put to death.

Redemption of the Tithe

<sup>30</sup> “Any tithe of the land, from the grain of the land or from the fruit of the trees, belongs to the LORD; it is holy to the LORD.

<sup>32</sup> All the tithe of herd or flock, everything which passes under the rod, the tenth one will be holy to the LORD.

<sup>33</sup> The owner must not examine the animals to distinguish between good and bad, and he must not exchange it. If, however, he does exchange it, both the original animal and its substitute will be holy. It must not be redeemed.’ ”

Final Colophon

<sup>34</sup> These are the commandments which the LORD commanded Moses to tell the Israelites at Mount Sinai.

Numbers

Organizing the Census of the Israelites

<sup>1</sup> Now the LORD spoke to Moses in the tent of meeting in the wilderness of Sinai on the first day of the second month of the second year after the Israelites departed from the land of Egypt. He said:

<sup>2</sup> “Take a census of the entire Israelite community by their clans and families, counting the name of every individual male.

<sup>3</sup> You and Aaron are to number all in Israel who can serve in the army, those who are twenty years old or older, by their divisions.

<sup>4</sup> And to help you there is to be a man from each tribe, each man the head of his family.

from Reuben, Elizur son of Shedeur;

<sup>9</sup> from Zebulun, Eliab son of Helon;

from Ephraim, Elishama son of Ammihud;

from Manasseh, Gamaliel son of Pedahzur;

The Census of the Tribes

<sup>17</sup> So Moses and Aaron took these men who had been mentioned specifically by name,

<sup>18</sup> and they assembled the entire community together on the first day of the second month. Then the people recorded their ancestry by their clans and families, and the men who were twenty years old or older were listed by name individually, <sup>19</sup> just as the LORD had commanded Moses. And so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

The descendants of Reuben, the firstborn son of Israel: According to the records of their clans and families, all the males twenty years old or older who could serve in the army were listed by name individually.

<sup>21</sup> Those of them who were numbered from the tribe of Reuben were 46,500.

<sup>22</sup> From the descendants of Simeon: According to the records of their clans and families, all the males numbered of them twenty years old or older who could serve in the army were listed by name individually.

<sup>23</sup> Those of them who were numbered from the tribe of Simeon were 59,300.

<sup>24</sup>

From the descendants of Gad: According to the records of their clans and families, all the males twenty years old or older who could serve in the army were listed by name.

<sup>25</sup> Those of them who were numbered from the tribe of Gad were 45,650.

<sup>26</sup> From the descendants of Judah: According to the records of their clans and families, all the males twenty years old or older who could serve in the army were listed by name.

<sup>27</sup> Those of them who were numbered from the tribe of Judah were 74,600.

<sup>28</sup> From the descendants of Issachar: According to the records of their clans and families, all the males twenty years old or older who could serve in the army were listed by name.

<sup>29</sup> Those of them who were numbered from the tribe of Issachar were 54,400.

<sup>30</sup> From the descendants of Zebulun: According to the records of their clans and families, all the males twenty years old or older who could serve in the army were listed by name.

<sup>31</sup> Those of them who were numbered from the tribe of Zebulun were 57,400.

From the descendants of Ephraim: According to the records of their clans and families, all the males twenty years old or older who could serve in the army were listed by name.

<sup>33</sup> Those of them who were numbered from the tribe of Ephraim were 40,500.

<sup>34</sup> From the descendants of Manasseh: According to the records of their clans and families, all the males twenty years old or older who could serve in the army were listed by name.

<sup>35</sup> Those of them who were numbered from the tribe of Manasseh were 32,200.

<sup>36</sup> From the descendants of Benjamin: According to the records of their clans and families, all the males twenty years old or older who could serve in the army were listed by name.

<sup>37</sup> Those of them who were numbered from the tribe of Benjamin were 35,400.

<sup>38</sup> From the descendants of Dan: According to the records of their clans and families, all the males twenty years old or older who could serve in the army were listed by name.

<sup>39</sup> Those of them who were numbered from the tribe of Dan were 62,700.

<sup>40</sup> From the descendants of Asher: According to the records of their clans and families, all the males twenty years old or older who could serve in the army were listed by name.

<sup>41</sup> Those of them who were numbered from the tribe of Asher were 41,500.

<sup>42</sup> From the descendants of Naphtali: According to the records of their clans and families, all the males twenty years old or older who could serve in the army were listed by name.

<sup>43</sup> Those of them who were numbered from the tribe of Naphtali were 53,400.

<sup>44</sup> These were the men whom Moses and Aaron numbered along with the twelve leaders of Israel, each of whom was from his own family.

<sup>45</sup> All the Israelites who were twenty years old or older, who could serve in Israel's army, were numbered according to their families.

<sup>46</sup> And all those numbered totaled 603,550.

The Exemption of the Levites

<sup>47</sup> But the Levites, according to the tribe of their fathers, were not numbered among them.

<sup>48</sup> The LORD had said to Moses,

<sup>49</sup> "Only the tribe of Levi you must not number or count with the other Israelites.

<sup>50</sup> But appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of the testimony, over all its furnishings and over everything in it. They must carry the tabernacle and all its furnishings; and they must attend to it and camp around it.

<sup>51</sup> Whenever the tabernacle is to move, the Levites must take it down, and whenever the tabernacle is to be reassembled, the Levites must set it up. Any unauthorized person who approaches it must be killed.

<sup>52</sup> “The Israelites will camp according to their divisions, each man in his camp, and each man by his standard.

<sup>53</sup> But the Levites must camp around the tabernacle of the testimony, so that the LORD’s anger | strong=“H7110” will not fall on the Israelite community. The Levites are responsible for the care of the tabernacle of the testimony.”

<sup>2</sup> “Every one of the Israelites must camp under his standard with the emblems of his family; they must camp at some distance around the tent of meeting.

The Tribes on the East

<sup>3</sup> “Now those who will be camping on the east, toward the sunrise, are the divisions of the camp of Judah under their standard. The leader of the people of Judah is Nahshon son of Amminadab.

<sup>4</sup> Those numbered in his division are 74,600.

<sup>5</sup> Those who will be camping next to them are the tribe of Issachar. The leader of the people of Issachar is Nethanel son of Zuar.

<sup>7</sup> Next will be the tribe of Zebulun. The leader of the people of Zebulun is Eliab son of Helon.

<sup>9</sup> All those numbered of the camp of Judah, according to their divisions, are 186,400. They will travel at the front.

The Tribes on the South

<sup>10</sup> “On the south will be the divisions of the camp of Reuben under their standard. The leader of the people of Reuben is Elizur son of Shedeur.

<sup>11</sup> Those numbered in his division are 46,500.

<sup>12</sup> Those who will be camping next to them are the tribe of Simeon. The leader of the people of Simeon is Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai.

<sup>14</sup> Next will be the tribe of Gad. The leader of the people of Gad is Eliasaph son of Deuel.

<sup>16</sup> All those numbered of the camp of Reuben, according to their divisions, are 151,450. They will travel second.

The Tribe in the Center

<sup>17</sup> “Then the tent of meeting with the camp of the Levites will travel in the middle of the camps. They will travel in the same order as they camped, each in his own place under his standard.

The Tribes on the West

<sup>18</sup> “On the west will be the divisions of the camp of Ephraim under their standard. The leader of the people of Ephraim is Elishama son of Amihud.

<sup>19</sup> Those numbered in his division are 40,500.

<sup>22</sup> Next will be the tribe of Benjamin. The leader of the people of Benjamin is Abidan son of Gideoni.

<sup>24</sup> All those numbered of the camp of Ephraim, according to their divisions, are 108,100. They will travel third.

The Tribes on the North

<sup>26</sup> Those numbered in his division are 62,700.

<sup>27</sup> Those who will be camping next to them are the tribe of Asher. The leader of the people of Asher is Pagiel son of Ocran.

<sup>29</sup> Next will be the tribe of Naphtali. The leader of the people of Naphtali is Ahira son of Enan.

<sup>31</sup> All those numbered of the camp of Dan are 157,600. They will travel last, under their standards.”

Summary

<sup>32</sup> These are the Israelites, numbered according to their families. All those numbered in the camps, by their divisions, are 603,550.

<sup>33</sup> But the Levites were not numbered among the other Israelites, as the LORD | strong="H3069" commanded Moses.

<sup>34</sup> So the Israelites did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses; that is the way they camped under their standards, and that is the way they traveled, each with his clan and family.

3

<sup>4</sup> Nadab and Abihu died before the LORD when they offered strange fire before the LORD in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children. So Eleazar and Ithamar ministered as priests in the presence of Aaron their father.

The Assignment of the Levites

<sup>5</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>6</sup> “Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest, that they may serve him.

<sup>7</sup> They are responsible for his needs and the needs of the whole community before the tent of meeting, by attending to the service of the tabernacle.

<sup>8</sup> And they are responsible for all the furnishings of the tent of meeting, and for the needs of the Israelites, as they serve in the tabernacle.

<sup>9</sup> You are to assign the Levites to Aaron and his sons; they will be assigned exclusively to him out of all the Israelites.

<sup>10</sup> So you are to appoint Aaron and his sons, and they will be responsible for their priesthood; but the unauthorized person who comes near must be put to death.”

<sup>11</sup> Then the LORD | strong="H3069" spoke to Moses:

<sup>12</sup> “Look, I myself have taken the Levites from among the Israelites instead of every firstborn who opens the womb among the Israelites. So the Levites belong to me,

<sup>13</sup> because all the firstborn are mine. When I destroyed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I set apart for myself all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast. They belong to me. I am the LORD.”

The Numbering of the Levites

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai:

<sup>15</sup> “Number the Levites by their clans and their families; every male from a month old and upward you are to number.”

<sup>16</sup> So Moses numbered them according to the word of the LORD, just as he had been commanded.

The Summary of Families

<sup>20</sup> The sons of Merari by their families were Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites by their clans.

The Numbering of the Gershonites

<sup>21</sup> From Gershon came the family of the Libnites and the family of the Shimeites; these were the families of the Gershonites.

<sup>22</sup> Those of them who were numbered, counting every male from a month old and upward, were 7,500.

<sup>23</sup> The families of the Gershonites were to camp behind the tabernacle toward the west.

<sup>26</sup> the hangings of the courtyard, the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard that surrounded the tabernacle and the altar, and their ropes, plus all the service connected with these things.

The Numbering of the Kohathites

<sup>27</sup> From Kohath came the family of the Amramites, the family of the Izharites, the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites; these were the families of the Kohathites.

<sup>28</sup> Counting every male from a month old and upward, there were 8,600. They were responsible for the care of the sanctuary.

<sup>29</sup> The families of the Kohathites were to camp on the south side of the tabernacle.

<sup>30</sup> Now the leader of the clan of the families of the Kohathites was Elizaphan son of Uzziel.

<sup>31</sup> Their responsibilities included the ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, and the utensils of the sanctuary with which they ministered, the curtain, and all their service.

<sup>32</sup> Now the head of all the Levitical leaders was Eleazar son of Aaron the priest. He was appointed over those who were responsible for the sanctuary.

The Numbering of Merari

<sup>33</sup> From Merari came the family of the Mahlites and the family of the Mushites; these were the families of Merari.

<sup>34</sup> Those of them who were numbered, counting every male from a month old and upward, were 6,200.

<sup>35</sup> Now the leader of the clan of the families of Merari was Zuriel son of Abihail. These were to camp on the north side of the tabernacle.

<sup>38</sup> But those who were to camp in front of the tabernacle on the east, in front of the tent of meeting, were Moses, Aaron, and his sons. They were responsible for the needs of the sanctuary and for the needs of the Israelites, but the unauthorized person who approached was to be put to death.

<sup>39</sup> All who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered by the word of the LORD, according to their families, every male from a month old and upward, were 22,000.

The Substitution for the Firstborn

<sup>40</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, "Number all the firstborn males of the Israelites from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names.

<sup>41</sup> And take the Levites for me – I am the LORD – instead of all the firstborn males among the Israelites, and the livestock of the Levites instead of all the firstborn of the livestock of the Israelites."

<sup>42</sup> So Moses numbered all the firstborn males among the Israelites, as the LORD had commanded him.

<sup>43</sup> And all the firstborn males, by the number of the names from a month old and upward, totaled 22,273.

<sup>44</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>45</sup> "Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn males among the Israelites, and the livestock of the Levites instead of their livestock. And the Levites will be mine. I am the LORD.

<sup>46</sup> And for the redemption of the 273 firstborn males of the Israelites who exceed the number of the Levites,

<sup>49</sup> So Moses took the redemption money from those who were in excess of those redeemed by the Levites.

<sup>50</sup> From the firstborn males of the Israelites he collected the money, 1,365 shekels, according to the sanctuary shekel.

<sup>51</sup> Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

4

<sup>3</sup> from thirty years old and upward to fifty years old, all who enter the company to do the work in the tent of meeting.

<sup>4</sup> This is the service of the Kohathites in the tent of meeting, relating to the most holy things.

<sup>5</sup> When it is time for the camp to journey, Aaron and his sons must come and take down the screening curtain and cover the ark of the testimony with it.

<sup>6</sup> Then they must put over it a covering of fine leather and spread over that a cloth entirely of blue, and then they must insert its poles.

<sup>7</sup> “On the table of the presence they must spread a blue cloth, and put on it the dishes, the pans, the bowls, and the pitchers for pouring, and the Bread of the Presence must be on it continually.

<sup>8</sup> They must spread over them a scarlet cloth, and cover the same with a covering of fine leather; and they must insert its poles.

<sup>9</sup> “They must take a blue cloth and cover the lampstand of the light, with its lamps, its wick-trimmers, its trays, and all its oil vessels, with which they service it.

<sup>10</sup> Then they must put it with all its utensils in a covering of fine leather, and put it on a carrying beam.

<sup>11</sup> “They must spread a blue cloth on the gold altar, and cover it with a covering of fine leather; and they must insert its poles.

<sup>13</sup> Also, they must take away the ashes from the altar and spread a purple cloth over it.

<sup>14</sup> Then they must place on it all its implements with which they serve there – the trays, the meat forks, the shovels, the basins, and all the utensils of the altar – and they must spread on it a covering of fine leather, and then insert its poles.

<sup>15</sup> “When Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary and all the furnishings of the sanctuary, when the camp is ready to journey, then the Kohathites will come to carry them; but they must not touch any holy thing, or they will die. These are the responsibilities of the Kohathites with the tent of meeting.

<sup>16</sup> “The appointed responsibility of Eleazar son of Aaron the priest is for the oil for the light, and the spiced incense, and the daily grain offering, and the anointing oil; he also has the appointed responsibility over all the tabernacle with all that is in it, over the sanctuary and over all its furnishings.”

<sup>18</sup> “Do not allow the tribe of the families of the Kohathites to be cut off from among the Levites;

<sup>19</sup> but in order that they will live and not die when they approach the most holy things, do this for them: Aaron and his sons will go in and appoint each man to his service and his responsibility.

<sup>20</sup> But the Kohathites are not to go in to watch while the holy things are being covered, or they will die.”

The Service of the Gershonites

<sup>21</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>22</sup> “Also take a census of the Gershonites, by their clans and by their families.

<sup>23</sup> You must number them from thirty years old and upward to fifty years old, all who enter the company to do the work of the tent of meeting.

<sup>24</sup> This is the service of the families of Gershonites, as they serve and carry it.

<sup>25</sup> They must carry the curtains for the tabernacle and the tent of meeting with its covering, the covering of fine leather that is over it, the curtains for the entrance of the tent of meeting,

<sup>26</sup> the hangings for the courtyard, the curtain for the entrance of the gate of the court, which is around the tabernacle and the altar, and their ropes, along with all the furnishings for their service and everything that is made for them. So they are to serve.

<sup>27</sup> “All the service of the Gershonites, whether carrying loads or for any of their work, will be at the direction of Aaron and his sons. You will assign them all their tasks as their responsibility.

<sup>28</sup> This is the service of the families of the Gershonites concerning the tent of meeting. Their responsibilities will be under the authority of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.

The Service of the Merarites

<sup>29</sup> “As for the sons of Merari, you are to number them by their families and by their clans.

<sup>30</sup> You must number them from thirty years old and upward to fifty years old, all who enter the company to do the work of the tent of meeting.

<sup>31</sup> This is what they are responsible to carry as their entire service in the tent of meeting: the frames of the tabernacle, its crossbars, its posts, its sockets,

<sup>32</sup> and the posts of the surrounding courtyard with their sockets, tent pegs, and ropes, along with all their furnishings and everything for their service. You are to assign by names the items that each man is responsible to carry.

<sup>33</sup> This is the service of the families of the Merarites, their entire service concerning the tent of meeting, under the authority of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.”

Summary

<sup>34</sup> So Moses and Aaron and the leaders of the community numbered the Kohathites by their families and by clans,

<sup>35</sup> from thirty years old and upward to fifty years old, everyone who entered the company for the work in the tent of meeting;

<sup>36</sup> and those of them numbered by their families were 2,750.

<sup>37</sup> These were those numbered from the families of the Kohathites, everyone who served in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the word of the LORD by the authority of Moses.

<sup>38</sup> Those numbered from the Gershonites, by their families and by their clans,

<sup>40</sup> those of them numbered by their families, by their clans, were 2,630.

<sup>41</sup> These were those numbered from the families of the Gershonites, everyone who served in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the word of the LORD.

<sup>42</sup> Those numbered from the families of the Merarites, by their families, by their clans,

<sup>44</sup> those of them numbered by their families were 3,200.

<sup>45</sup> These are those numbered from the families of the Merarites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the word of the LORD by the authority of Moses.

<sup>46</sup> All who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of Israel numbered by their families and by their clans,

<sup>47</sup> from thirty years old and upward to fifty years old, everyone who entered to do the work of service and the work of carrying relating to the tent of meeting –

<sup>48</sup> those of them numbered were 8,580.

<sup>49</sup> According to the word of the LORD they were numbered, by the authority of Moses, each according to his service and according to what he was to carry. Thus were they numbered by him, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

5

<sup>2</sup> “Command the Israelites to expel from the camp every leper, everyone who has a discharge, and whoever becomes defiled by a corpse.

<sup>3</sup> You must expel both men and women; you must put them outside the camp, so that they will not defile their camps, among which I live.”

<sup>4</sup> So the Israelites did so, and expelled them outside the camp. As the LORD had spoken to Moses, so the Israelites did.

Restitution for Sin

<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>6</sup> “Tell the Israelites, ‘When a man or a woman commits any sin that people commit, thereby breaking faith with the LORD, and that person is found guilty, <sup>7</sup> then he must confess his sin that he has committed and must make full reparation, add one fifth to it, and give it to whomever he wronged.

<sup>8</sup> But if the individual has no close relative to whom reparation can be made for the wrong, the reparation for the wrong must be paid to the LORD for the priest, in addition to the ram of atonement by which atonement is made for him.

<sup>9</sup> Every offering of all the Israelites’ holy things that they bring to the priest will be his.

<sup>10</sup> Every man’s holy things will be his; whatever any man gives the priest will be his.’ ”

The Jealousy Ordeal

<sup>11</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>12</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them, ‘If any man’s wife goes astray and behaves unfaithfully toward him,

<sup>13</sup> and a man has sexual relations with her without her husband knowing it, and it is hidden that she has defiled herself, since there was no witness against her, nor was she caught –

<sup>14</sup> and if jealous feelings come over him and he becomes suspicious of his wife, when she is defiled; or if jealous feelings come over him and he becomes suspicious of his wife, when she is not defiled –

<sup>15</sup> then the man must bring his wife to the priest, and he must bring the offering required for her, one tenth of an ephah of barley meal; he must not pour olive oil on it or put frankincense on it, because it is a grain offering of suspicion, a grain offering for remembering, for bringing iniquity to remembrance.

<sup>16</sup> “Then the priest will bring her near and have her stand before the LORD | strong="H3069".

<sup>17</sup> The priest will then take holy water in a pottery jar, and take some of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle, and put it into the water.

<sup>18</sup> Then the priest will have the woman stand before the LORD, uncover the woman’s head, and put the grain offering for remembering in her hands, which is the grain offering of suspicion. The priest will hold in his hand the bitter water that brings a curse.

<sup>19</sup> Then the priest will put the woman under oath and say to the her, “If no other man has had sexual relations with you, and if you have not gone astray and become defiled while under your husband’s authority, may you be free from this bitter water that brings a curse.

<sup>20</sup> But if you have gone astray while under your husband’s authority, and if you have defiled yourself and some man other than your husband has had sexual relations with you....”

<sup>21</sup> Then the priest will put the woman under the oath of the curse and will say to the her, “The LORD make you an attested curse among your people, if the LORD makes your thigh fall away and your abdomen swell;

<sup>22</sup> and this water that causes the curse will go into your stomach, and make your abdomen swell and your thigh rot.” Then the woman must say, “Amen, amen.”

<sup>23</sup> “Then the priest will write these curses on a scroll and then scrape them off into the bitter water.

<sup>24</sup> He will make the woman drink the bitter water that brings a curse, and the water that brings a curse will enter her to produce bitterness.

<sup>25</sup> The priest will take the grain offering of suspicion from the woman’s hand, wave the grain offering before the LORD, and bring it to the altar.

<sup>26</sup> Then the priest will take a handful of the grain offering as its memorial portion, burn it on the altar, and afterward make the woman drink the water.

<sup>27</sup> When he has made her drink the water, then, if she has defiled herself and behaved unfaithfully toward her husband, the water that brings a curse will enter her to produce bitterness – her abdomen will swell, her thigh will fall away, and the woman will become a curse among her people.

<sup>28</sup> But if the woman has not defiled herself, and is clean, then she will be free of ill effects and will be able to bear children.

<sup>29</sup> “This is the law for cases of jealousy, when a wife, while under her husband’s authority, goes astray and defiles herself, <sup>30</sup> or when jealous feelings come over a man and he becomes suspicious of his wife; then he must have the woman stand before the LORD, and the priest will carry out all this law upon her.

<sup>31</sup> Then the man will be free from iniquity, but that woman will bear the consequences of her iniquity.’ ”

6

<sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites, and tell them, ‘When either a man or a woman takes a special vow, to take a vow as a Nazirite, to separate himself to the LORD | strong="H3069",

<sup>4</sup> All the days of his separation he must not eat anything that is produced by the grapevine, from seed to skin.

<sup>5</sup> “All the days of the vow of his separation no razor may be used on his head until the time is fulfilled for which he separated himself to the LORD. He will be holy, and he must let the locks of hair on his head grow long.

<sup>6</sup> “All the days that he separates himself to the LORD he must not contact a dead body.

<sup>7</sup> He must not defile himself even for his father or his mother or his brother or his sister if they die, because the separation for his God is on his head.

<sup>8</sup> All the days of his separation he must be holy to the LORD.

Contingencies for Defilement

<sup>9</sup> “If anyone dies very suddenly beside him and he defiles his consecrated head, then he must shave his head on the day of his purification – on the seventh day he must shave it.

<sup>10</sup> On the eighth day he is to bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest, to the entrance to the tent of meeting.

<sup>11</sup> Then the priest will offer one for a purification offering and the other as a burnt offering, and make atonement for him, because of his transgression in regard to the corpse. So he must reconsecrate his head on that day.

<sup>12</sup> He must rededicate to the LORD the days of his separation and bring a male lamb in its first year as a reparation offering, but the former days will not be counted because his separation was defiled.

Fulfilling the Vows

<sup>13</sup> “Now this is the law of the Nazirite: When the days of his separation are fulfilled, he must be brought to the entrance of the tent of meeting,

<sup>14</sup> and he must present his offering to the LORD: one male lamb in its first year without blemish for a burnt offering, one ewe lamb in its first year without blemish for a purification offering, one ram without blemish for a peace offering,

<sup>15</sup> and a basket of bread made without yeast, cakes of fine flour mixed with olive oil, wafers made without yeast and smeared with olive oil, and their grain offering and their drink offerings.

<sup>16</sup> “Then the priest must present all these before the LORD and offer his purification offering and his burnt offering.

<sup>17</sup> Then he must offer the ram as a peace offering to the LORD, with the basket of bread made without yeast; the priest must also offer his grain offering and his drink offering.

<sup>18</sup> “Then the Nazirite must shave his consecrated head at the entrance to the tent of meeting and must take the hair from his consecrated head and put it on the fire where the peace offering is burning.

<sup>19</sup> And the priest must take the boiled shoulder of the ram, one cake made without yeast from the basket, and one wafer made without yeast, and put them on the hands of the Nazirite after he has shaved his consecrated head;

<sup>20</sup> then the priest must wave them as a wave offering before the LORD; it is a holy portion for the priest, together with the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the raised offering. After this the Nazirite may drink wine.’

<sup>21</sup> “This is the law of the Nazirite who vows to the LORD his offering according to his separation, as well as whatever else he can provide. Thus he must fulfill his vow that he makes, according to the law of his separation.”

The Priestly Benediction

<sup>22</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>23</sup> “Tell Aaron and his sons, ‘This is the way you are to bless the Israelites. Say to them:

<sup>24</sup> “The LORD bless you and protect you;

<sup>25</sup> The LORD make his face to shine upon you,
and be gracious to you;

<sup>26</sup> The LORD lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace.”’

<sup>27</sup> So they will put my name on the Israelites, and I will bless them.”

7

<sup>1</sup> When Moses had completed setting up the tabernacle, he anointed it and consecrated it and all its furnishings, and he anointed and consecrated the altar and all its utensils.

<sup>2</sup> Then the leaders of Israel, the heads of their clans, made an offering. They were the leaders of the tribes; they were the ones who had been supervising the numbering.

<sup>3</sup> They brought their offering before the LORD, six covered carts and twelve oxen – one cart for every two of the leaders, and an ox for each one; and they presented them in front of the tabernacle.

The Distribution of the Gifts

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>5</sup> “Receive these gifts from them, that they may be used in doing the work of the tent of meeting; and you must give them to the Levites, to every man as his service requires.”

<sup>6</sup> So Moses accepted the carts and the oxen and gave them to the Levites.

<sup>7</sup> He gave two carts and four oxen to the Gershonites, as their service required;

<sup>8</sup> and he gave four carts and eight oxen to the Merarites, as their service required, under the authority of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.

<sup>9</sup> But to the Kohathites he gave none, because the service of the holy things, which they carried on their shoulders, was their responsibility.

The Time of Presentation

<sup>10</sup> The leaders offered gifts for the dedication of the altar when it was anointed. And the leaders presented their offering before the altar.

<sup>11</sup> For the LORD | strong="H3069" said to Moses, "They must present their offering, one leader for each day, for the dedication of the altar."

The Tribal Offerings

<sup>12</sup> The one who presented his offering on the first day was Nahshon son of Amminadab, from the tribe of Judah.

<sup>13</sup> His offering was one silver platter weighing 130 shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing 70 shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each of them full of fine flour mixed with olive oil as a grain offering;

<sup>15</sup> one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year, for a burnt offering;

<sup>27</sup> one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year, for a burnt offering;

<sup>29</sup> and for the sacrifice of peace offerings: two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Eliab son of Helon.

<sup>30</sup> On the fourth day Elizur son of Shedeur, leader of the Reubenites, presented an offering.

<sup>32</sup> one gold pan weighing 10 shekels, full of incense;

<sup>33</sup> one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year, for a burnt offering;

<sup>35</sup> and for the sacrifice of peace offerings: two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Elizur son of Shedeur.

<sup>36</sup> On the fifth day Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai, leader of the Simeonites, presented an offering.

<sup>38</sup> one gold pan weighing 10 shekels;

<sup>41</sup> and for the sacrifice of peace offerings: two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Sheloumiel son of Zurishaddai.

<sup>42</sup> On the sixth day Eliasaph son of Deuel, leader of the Gadites, presented an offering.

<sup>44</sup> one gold pan weighing 10 shekels;

<sup>47</sup> and for the sacrifice of peace offerings: two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Eliasaph son of Deuel.

<sup>48</sup> On the seventh day Elishama son of Ammihud, leader of the Ephraimites, presented an offering.

<sup>53</sup> and for the sacrifice of peace offerings: two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Elishama son of Ammihud.

<sup>54</sup> On the eighth day Gamaliel son of Pedahzur, leader of the Manassehites, presented an offering.

<sup>57</sup> one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year, for a burnt offering;

<sup>59</sup> and for the sacrifice of peace offerings: two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Gamaliel son of Pedahzur.

<sup>60</sup> On the ninth day Abidan son of Gideoni, leader of the Benjaminites, presented an offering.

<sup>63</sup> one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year, for a burnt offering;

<sup>66</sup> On the tenth day Ahiezer son of Amishaddai, leader of the Danites, presented an offering.

<sup>80</sup> one gold pan weighing 10 shekels;

<sup>83</sup> and for the sacrifice of peace offerings: two bulls, five rams, five male goats, and five lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Ahira son of Enan.

Summary

<sup>84</sup> This was the dedication for the altar from the leaders of Israel, when it was anointed: twelve silver platters, twelve silver sprinkling bowls, and twelve gold pans.

<sup>85</sup> Each silver platter weighed 130 shekels, and each silver sprinkling bowl weighed 70 shekels. All the silver of the vessels weighed 2,400 shekels, according to the sanctuary shekel.

<sup>86</sup> The twelve gold pans full of incense weighed 10 shekels each, according to the sanctuary shekel; all the gold of the pans weighed 120 shekels.

<sup>88</sup> All the animals for the sacrifice for the peace offering were 24 young bulls, 60 rams, 60 male goats, and 60 lambs in their first year. These were the dedication offerings for the altar after it was anointed.

<sup>89</sup> Now when Moses went into the tent of meeting to speak with the LORD, he heard | strong="H8085" the voice speaking to him from above the atonement lid that was on the ark of the testimony, from between the two cherubim. Thus he spoke to him.

8

<sup>2</sup> “Speak to Aaron and tell him, ‘When you set up the lamps, the seven lamps are to give light in front of the lampstand.’ ”

<sup>3</sup> And Aaron did so; he set up the lamps to face toward the front of the lampstand, as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>4</sup> This is how the lampstand was made: It was beaten work in gold; from its shaft to its flowers it was beaten work. According to the pattern which the LORD had shown Moses, so he made the lampstand.

The Separation of the Levites

<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>7</sup> And do this to them to purify them: Sprinkle water of purification on them; then have them shave all their body and wash their clothes, and so purify themselves.

<sup>8</sup> Then they are to take a young bull with its grain offering of fine flour mixed with olive oil; and you are to take a second young bull for a purification offering.

<sup>9</sup> You are to bring the Levites before the tent of meeting and assemble the entire community of the Israelites.

<sup>10</sup> Then you are to bring the Levites before the LORD | strong="H3069", and the Israelites are to lay their hands on the Levites;

<sup>11</sup> and Aaron is to offer the Levites before the LORD as a wave offering from the Israelites, that they may do the work of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> When the Levites lay their hands on the heads of the bulls, offer the one for a purification offering and the other for a whole burnt offering to the LORD, to make atonement for the Levites.

<sup>13</sup> You are to have the Levites stand before Aaron and his sons, and then offer them as a wave offering to the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> And so you are to separate the Levites from among the Israelites, and the Levites will be mine.

<sup>15</sup> “After this, the Levites will go in to do the work of the tent of meeting. So you must cleanse them and offer them like a wave offering.

<sup>16</sup> For they are entirely given to me from among the Israelites. I have taken them for myself instead of all who open the womb, the firstborn sons of all the Israelites.

<sup>17</sup> For all the firstborn males among the Israelites are mine, both humans and animals; when I destroyed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I set them apart for myself.

<sup>18</sup> So I have taken the Levites instead of all the firstborn sons among the Israelites.

<sup>19</sup> I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and his sons from among the Israelites, to do the work for the Israelites in the tent of meeting, and to make atonement for the Israelites, so there will be no plague among the Israelites when the Israelites come near the sanctuary.”

<sup>20</sup> So Moses and Aaron and the entire community of the Israelites did this with the Levites. According to all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, this is what the Israelites did with them.

<sup>21</sup> The Levites purified themselves and washed their clothing; then Aaron presented them like a wave offering before the LORD, and Aaron made atonement for them to purify them.

<sup>22</sup> After this, the Levites went in to do their work in the tent of meeting before Aaron and before his sons. As the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did.

The Work of the Levites

<sup>23</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>24</sup> “This is what pertains to the Levites: At the age of twenty-five years and upward one may begin to join the company in the work of the tent of meeting, <sup>25</sup> and at the age of fifty years they must retire from performing the work and may no longer work.

<sup>26</sup> They may assist their colleagues in the tent of meeting, to attend to needs, but they must do no work. This is the way you must establish the Levites regarding their duties.”

9

<sup>3</sup> In the fourteenth day of this month, at twilight, you are to observe it at its appointed time; you must keep it in accordance with all its statutes and all its customs.”

<sup>5</sup> And they observed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month at twilight in the wilderness of Sinai; in accordance with all that the LORD had commanded Moses, so the Israelites did.

<sup>6</sup> It happened that some men who were ceremonially defiled by the dead body of a man could not keep the Passover on that day, so they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day.

<sup>7</sup> And those men said to him, “We are ceremonially defiled by the dead body of a man; why are we kept back from offering the LORD’s offering at its appointed time among the Israelites?”

<sup>8</sup> So Moses said to them, “Remain here and I will hear what the LORD will command concerning you.”

<sup>9</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>10</sup> “Tell the Israelites, ‘If any of you or of your posterity become ceremonially defiled by touching a dead body, or are on a journey far away, then he may observe the Passover to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> They may observe it on the fourteenth day of the second month at twilight; they are to eat it with bread made without yeast and with bitter herbs.

<sup>12</sup> They must not leave any of it until morning, nor break any of its bones; they must observe it in accordance with every statute of the Passover.

<sup>13</sup> But the man who is ceremonially clean, and was not on a journey, and fails to keep the Passover, that person must be cut off from his people. Because he did not bring the LORD’s offering at its appointed time, that man must bear his sin.

<sup>14</sup> If a resident foreigner lives among you and wants to keep the Passover to the LORD, he must do so according to the statute of the Passover, and according to its custom. You must have the same statute for the resident foreigner and for the one who was born in the land.’ ”

The Leading of the Lord

<sup>15</sup> On the day that the tabernacle was set up, the cloud covered the tabernacle – the tent of the testimony – and from evening until morning there was a fiery appearance over the tabernacle.

<sup>16</sup> This is the way it used to be continually: The cloud would cover it by day, and there was a fiery appearance by night.

<sup>17</sup> Whenever the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, then after that the Israelites would begin their journey; and in whatever place the cloud settled, there the Israelites would make camp.

<sup>18</sup> At the commandment of the LORD the Israelites would begin their journey, and at the commandment of the LORD they would make camp; as long as the cloud remained settled over the tabernacle they would camp.

<sup>19</sup> When the cloud remained over the tabernacle many days, then the Israelites obeyed the instructions of the LORD and did not journey.

<sup>20</sup> When the cloud remained over the tabernacle a number of days, they remained camped according to the LORD's commandment, and according to the LORD's commandment they would journey.

<sup>21</sup> And when the cloud remained only from evening until morning, when the cloud was taken up the following morning, then they traveled on. Whether by day or by night, when the cloud was taken up they traveled.

<sup>22</sup> Whether it was for two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud prolonged its stay over the tabernacle, the Israelites remained camped without traveling; but when it was taken up, they traveled on.

10

<sup>2</sup> "Make two trumpets of silver; you are to make them from a single hammered piece. You will use them for assembling the community and for directing the traveling of the camps.

<sup>3</sup> When they blow them both, all the community must come to you to the entrance of the tent of meeting.

<sup>4</sup> "But if they blow with one trumpet, then the leaders, the heads of the thousands of Israel, must come to you.

<sup>5</sup> When you blow an alarm, then the camps that are located on the east side must begin to travel.

<sup>6</sup> And when you blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that are located on the south side must begin to travel. An alarm must be sounded for their journeys.

<sup>7</sup> But when you assemble the community, you must blow, but you must not sound an alarm.

<sup>8</sup> The sons of Aaron, the priests, must blow the trumpets; and they will be to you for an eternal ordinance throughout your generations.

<sup>9</sup> If you go to war in your land against an adversary who opposes you, then you must sound an alarm with the trumpets, and you will be remembered before the LORD your God, and you will be saved from your enemies.

<sup>10</sup> "Also in the time when you rejoice, such as on your appointed festivals or at the beginnings of your months, you must blow with your trumpets over your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings, so that they may become a memorial for you before your God: I am the LORD your God."

The Journey From Sinai to Kadesh

<sup>11</sup> On the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle of the testimony.

<sup>12</sup> So the Israelites set out on their journeys from the wilderness of Sinai; and the cloud settled in the wilderness of Paran.

Judah Begins the Journey

<sup>13</sup> This was the first time they set out on their journey according to the commandment of the LORD, by the authority of Moses.

<sup>16</sup> and over the company of the tribe of the Zebulunites was Elion son of Helon.

<sup>17</sup> Then the tabernacle was dismantled, and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari set out, carrying the tabernacle.

Journey Arrangements for the Tribes

<sup>18</sup> The standard of the camp of Reuben set out according to their companies; over his company was Elizur son of Shedeur.

<sup>19</sup> Over the company of the tribe of the Simeonites was Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai, <sup>20</sup> and over the company of the tribe of the Gadites was Eliasaph son of Deuel.

<sup>21</sup> And the Kohathites set out, carrying the articles for the sanctuary; the tabernacle was to be set up before they arrived.

<sup>22</sup> And the standard of the camp of the Ephraimites set out according to their companies; over his company was Elishama son of Ammihud.

<sup>23</sup> Over the company of the tribe of the Manassehites was Gamaliel son of Pedahzur, <sup>24</sup> and over the company of the tribe of Benjaminites was Abidan son of Gideoni.

<sup>26</sup> Over the company of the tribe of the Asherites was Pagiel son of Ocran, <sup>27</sup> and over the company of the tribe of the Naphtalites was Ahira son of Enan.

<sup>28</sup> These were the traveling arrangements of the Israelites according to their companies when they traveled.

The Appeal to Hobab

<sup>29</sup> Moses said to Hobab son of Reuel, the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are journeying to the place about which the LORD said, 'I will give it to you.' Come with us and we will treat you well, for the LORD has promised good things for Israel."

<sup>30</sup> But Hobab said to him, "I will not go, but I will go instead to my own land and to my kindred."

<sup>31</sup> Moses said, "Do not leave us, because you know places for us to camp in the wilderness, and you could be our guide.

<sup>32</sup> And if you come with us, it is certain that whatever good things the LORD will favor us with, we will share with you as well."

<sup>34</sup> And the cloud of the LORD was over them by day, when they traveled from the camp.

<sup>35</sup> And when the ark traveled, Moses would say, "Rise up, O LORD! May your enemies be scattered, and may those who hate you flee before you!"

<sup>36</sup> And when it came to rest he would say, "Return, O LORD, to the many thousands of Israel!"

11

<sup>1</sup> When the people complained, it displeased the LORD. When the LORD heard it, his anger burned, and so the fire of the LORD burned among them and consumed some of the outer parts of the camp.

<sup>2</sup> When the people cried to Moses, he prayed to the LORD, and the fire died out.

<sup>3</sup> So he called the name of that place Taberah because there the fire of the LORD burned among them.

Complaints about Food

<sup>4</sup> Now the mixed multitude who were among them craved more desirable foods, and so the Israelites wept again and said, "If only we had meat to eat!

<sup>5</sup> We remember the fish we used to eat freely in Egypt, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic.

<sup>6</sup> But now we are dried up, and there is nothing at all before us except this manna!"

<sup>8</sup> And the people went about and gathered it, and ground it with mills or pounded it in mortars; they baked it in pans and made cakes of it. It tasted like fresh olive oil.

<sup>9</sup> And when the dew came down on the camp in the night, the manna fell with it.)

Moses' Complaint to the Lord

<sup>10</sup> Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, everyone at the door of his tent; and when the anger of the LORD | strong="H3069" was kindled greatly, Moses was also displeased.

<sup>11</sup> And Moses said to the LORD, "Why have you afflicted your servant? Why have I not found favor in your sight, that you lay the burden of this entire people on me?

<sup>12</sup> Did I conceive this entire people? Did I give birth to them, that you should say to me, 'Carry them in your arms, as a foster father bears a nursing child,' to the land which you swore to their fathers?

<sup>13</sup> From where shall I get meat to give to this entire people, for they cry to me, 'Give us meat, that we may eat!'

<sup>14</sup> I am not able to bear this entire people alone, because it is too heavy for me!

<sup>15</sup> But if you are going to deal with me like this, then kill me immediately. If I have found favor in your sight then do not let me see my trouble."

The Response of God

<sup>16</sup> The LORD said to Moses, "Gather to me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know are elders of the people and officials over them, and bring them to the tent of meeting; let them take their position there with you.

<sup>17</sup> Then I will come down and speak with you there, and I will take part of the spirit that is on you, and will put it on them, and they will bear some of the burden of the people with you, so that you do not bear it all by yourself.

<sup>18</sup> "And say to the people, 'Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, and you will eat meat, for you have wept in the hearing of the LORD, saying, "Who will give us meat to eat, for life was good for us in Egypt?" Therefore the LORD will give you meat, and you will eat.

<sup>19</sup> You will eat, not just one day, nor two days, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days,

<sup>20</sup> but a whole month, until it comes out your nostrils and makes you sick, because you have despised the LORD who is among you and have wept before him, saying, "Why did we ever come out of Egypt?" ' "

<sup>21</sup> Moses said, "The people around me are 600,000 on foot; but you say, 'I will give them meat, that they may eat for a whole month.'

<sup>22</sup> Would they have enough if the flocks and herds were slaughtered for them? If all the fish of the sea were caught for them, would they have enough?"

<sup>23</sup> And the LORD said to Moses, "Is the LORD's hand shortened? Now you will see whether my word to you will come true or not!"

<sup>24</sup> So Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD. He then gathered seventy men of the elders of the people and had them stand around the tabernacle.

<sup>25</sup> And the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to them, and he took some of the Spirit that was on Moses and put it on the seventy elders. When the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied, but did not do so again.

Eldad and Medad

<sup>26</sup> But two men remained in the camp; one's name was Eldad, and the other's name was Medad. And the spirit rested on them. (Now they were among those in the registration, but had not gone to the tabernacle.) So they prophesied in the camp.

<sup>27</sup> And a young man ran and told Moses, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp!"

<sup>29</sup> Moses said to him, "Are you jealous for me? I wish that all the LORD's people were prophets, that the LORD would put his Spirit on them!"

<sup>30</sup> Then Moses returned to the camp along with the elders of Israel.

Provision of Quail

<sup>31</sup> Now a wind went out from the LORD and brought quail from the sea, and let them fall near the camp, about a day's journey on this side, and about a day's journey on the other side, all around the camp, and about three feet high on the surface of the ground.

<sup>32</sup> And the people stayed up all that day, all that night, and all the next day, and gathered the quail. The one who gathered the least gathered ten homers, and they spread them out for themselves all around the camp.

<sup>33</sup> But while the meat was still between their teeth, before they chewed it, the anger of the LORD burned against the people, and the LORD struck the people with a very great plague.

<sup>34</sup> So the name of that place was called Kibroth Hattaavah, because there they buried the people that craved different food.

12

<sup>1</sup> Then Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman he had married (for he had married an Ethiopian woman).

<sup>2</sup> They said, "Has the LORD only spoken through Moses? Has he not also spoken through us?" And the LORD heard it.

<sup>3</sup> (Now the man Moses was very humble, more so than any man on the face of the earth.)

The Response of the Lord

<sup>4</sup> The LORD spoke immediately to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam: "The three of you come to the tent of meeting." So the three of them went.

<sup>5</sup> And the LORD came down in a pillar of cloud and stood at the entrance of the tent; he then called Aaron and Miriam, and they both came forward.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD said | strong="H0559", "Hear now my words: If there is a prophet among you, I the LORD will make myself known to him in a vision; I will speak with him in a dream.

<sup>7</sup> My servant Moses is not like this; he is faithful in all my house.

<sup>8</sup> With him I will speak face to face, openly, and not in riddles; and he will see the form of the LORD. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?"

The Intercession of Moses

<sup>11</sup> So Aaron said to Moses, "O my lord, please do not hold this sin against us, in which we have acted foolishly and have sinned!

<sup>12</sup> Do not let her be like a baby born dead, whose flesh is half-consumed when it comes out of its mother's womb!"

<sup>14</sup> The LORD said to Moses, "If her father had only spit in her face, would she not have been disgraced for seven days? Shut her out from the camp seven days, and afterward she can be brought back in again."

<sup>15</sup> So Miriam was shut outside of the camp for seven days, and the people did not journey on until Miriam was brought back in.

13

<sup>2</sup> "Send out men to investigate the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the Israelites. You are to send one man from each ancestral tribe, each one a leader among them."

<sup>16</sup> These are the names of the men whom Moses sent to investigate the land. And Moses gave Hoshea son of Nun the name Joshua.

The Spies' Instructions

<sup>17</sup> When Moses sent them to investigate the land of Canaan, he told them, "Go up through the Negev, and then go up into the hill country

<sup>18</sup> and see what the land is like, and whether the people who live in it are strong or weak, few or many,

<sup>19</sup> and whether the land they live in is good or bad, and whether the cities they inhabit are like camps or fortified cities, <sup>20</sup> and whether the land is rich or poor, and whether or not there are forests in it. And be brave, and bring back some of the fruit of the land." Now it was the time of year for the first ripe grapes.

The Spies' Activities

<sup>21</sup> So they went up and investigated the land from the wilderness of Zin to Rehob, at the entrance of Hamath.

<sup>22</sup> When they went up through the Negev, they came to Hebron where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, descendants of Anak, were living. (Now Hebron had been built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)

<sup>23</sup> When they came to the valley of Eshcol, they cut down from there a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they carried it on a staff between two men, as well as some of the pomegranates and the figs.

The Spies' Reports

<sup>26</sup> They came back to Moses and Aaron and to the whole community of the Israelites in the wilderness of Paran at Kadesh. They reported to the whole community and showed the fruit of the land.

<sup>27</sup> They told Moses, "We went to the land where you sent us. It is indeed flowing with milk and honey, and this is its fruit.

<sup>28</sup> But the inhabitants are strong, and the cities are fortified and very large. Moreover we saw the descendants of Anak there.

<sup>29</sup> The Amalekites live in the land of the Negev; the Hittites, Jebusites, and Amorites live in the hill country; and the Canaanites live by the sea and along the banks of the Jordan."

<sup>30</sup> Then Caleb silenced the people before Moses, saying, "Let us go up and occupy it, for we are well able to conquer it."

<sup>31</sup> But the men who had gone up with him said, "We are not able to go up against these people, because they are stronger than we are!"

<sup>32</sup> Then they presented the Israelites with a discouraging report of the land they had investigated, saying, "The land that we passed through to investigate is a land that devours its inhabitants. All the people we saw there are of great stature.

<sup>33</sup> We even saw the Nephilim there (the descendants of Anak came from the Nephilim), and we seemed like grasshoppers both to ourselves and to them."

14

<sup>1</sup> Then all the community raised a loud cry, and the people wept that night.

<sup>2</sup> And all the Israelites murmured against Moses and Aaron, and the whole congregation said to them, "If only we had died in the land of Egypt, or if only we had perished in this wilderness!

<sup>3</sup> Why has the LORD brought us into this land only to be killed by the sword, that our wives and our children should become plunder? Wouldn't it be better for us to return to Egypt?"

<sup>4</sup> So they said to one another, "Let's appoint a leader and return to Egypt."

<sup>5</sup> Then Moses and Aaron fell down with their faces to the ground before the whole assembled community of the Israelites.

<sup>7</sup> They said to the whole community of the Israelites, "The land we passed through to investigate is an exceedingly good land.

<sup>8</sup> If the LORD delights in us, then he will bring us into this land and give it to us – a land that is flowing with milk and honey.

<sup>9</sup> Only do not rebel against the LORD, and do not fear the people of the land, for they are bread for us. Their protection has turned aside from them, but the LORD is with us. Do not fear them!"

<sup>10</sup> However, the whole community threatened to stone them. But the glory of the LORD appeared to all the Israelites at the tent of meeting.

The Punishment from God

<sup>11</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “How long will this people despise me, and how long will they not believe in me, in spite of the signs that I have done among them?”

<sup>12</sup> I will strike them with the pestilence, and I will disinherit them; I will make you into a nation that is greater and mightier than they!”

<sup>13</sup> Moses said to the LORD, “When the Egyptians hear it – for you brought up this people by your power from among them –

<sup>14</sup> then they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that you, LORD, are among this people, that you, LORD, are seen face to face, that your cloud stands over them, and that you go before them by day in a pillar of cloud and in a pillar of fire by night.

<sup>15</sup> If you kill this entire people at once, then the nations that have heard of your fame will say,

<sup>16</sup> ‘Because the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land that he swore to them, he killed them in the wilderness.’

<sup>17</sup> So now, let the power of my Lord be great, just as you have said,

<sup>18</sup> ‘The LORD is slow to anger and abounding in loyal love, forgiving iniquity and transgression, but by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children until the third and fourth generations.’

<sup>19</sup> Please forgive the iniquity of this people according to your great loyal love, just as you have forgiven this people from Egypt even until now.”

<sup>20</sup> Then the LORD said, “I have forgiven them as you asked.

<sup>21</sup> But truly, as I live, all the earth will be filled with the glory of the LORD.

<sup>22</sup> For all the people have seen my glory and my signs that I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and yet have tempted me now these ten times, and have not obeyed me, <sup>23</sup> they will by no means see the land that I swore to their fathers, nor will any of them who despised me see it.

<sup>24</sup> Only my servant Caleb, because he had a different spirit and has followed me fully – I will bring him into the land where he had gone, and his descendants will possess it.

<sup>25</sup> (Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites were living in the valleys.) Tomorrow, turn and journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea.”

<sup>27</sup> “How long must I bear with this evil congregation that murmurs against me? I have heard the complaints of the Israelites that they murmured against me.

<sup>28</sup> Say to them, ‘As I live, says the LORD, I will surely do to you just what you have spoken in my hearing.

<sup>29</sup> Your dead bodies will fall in this wilderness – all those of you who were numbered, according to your full number, from twenty years old and upward, who have murmured against me.

<sup>30</sup> You will by no means enter into the land where I swore to settle you. The only exceptions are Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

<sup>31</sup> But I will bring in your little ones, whom you said would become victims of war, and they will enjoy the land that you have despised.

<sup>32</sup> But as for you, your dead bodies will fall in this wilderness, <sup>33</sup> and your children will wander in the wilderness forty years and suffer for your unfaithfulness, until your dead bodies lie finished in the wilderness.

<sup>34</sup> According to the number of the days you have investigated this land, forty days – one day for a year – you will suffer for your iniquities, forty years, and you will know what it means to thwart me.

<sup>35</sup> I, the LORD, have said, “I will surely do so to all this evil congregation that has gathered together against me. In this wilderness they will be finished, and there they will die!” ’ ’ ”

<sup>36</sup> The men whom Moses sent to investigate the land, who returned and made the whole community murmur against him by producing an evil report about the land,

<sup>37</sup> those men who produced the evil report about the land, died by the plague before the LORD | strong="H3069".

<sup>38</sup> But Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh, who were among the men who went to investigate the land, lived.

<sup>39</sup> When Moses told these things to all the Israelites, the people mourned greatly.

<sup>40</sup> And early in the morning they went up to the crest of the hill country, saying, “Here we are, and we will go up to the place that the LORD commanded, for we have sinned.”

<sup>41</sup> But Moses said, “Why are you now transgressing the commandment of the LORD? It will not succeed!

<sup>42</sup> Do not go up, for the LORD is not among you, and you will be defeated before your enemies.

<sup>43</sup> For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and you will fall by the sword. Because you have turned away from the LORD, the LORD will not be with you.”

<sup>44</sup> But they dared to go up to the crest of the hill, although neither the ark of the covenant of the LORD nor Moses departed from the camp.

<sup>45</sup> So the Amalekites and the Canaanites who lived in that hill country swooped down and attacked them as far as Hormah.

15

<sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them, ‘When you enter the land where you are to live, which I am giving you,

<sup>3</sup> and you make an offering by fire to the LORD from the herd or from the flock (whether a burnt offering or a sacrifice for discharging a vow or as a freewill offering or in your solemn feasts) to create a pleasing aroma to the LORD,

<sup>5</sup> You must also prepare one-fourth of a hin of wine for a drink offering with the burnt offering or the sacrifice for each lamb.

<sup>6</sup> Or for a ram, you must prepare as a grain offering two-tenths of an ephah of finely ground flour mixed with one-third of a hin of olive oil,

<sup>7</sup> and for a drink offering you must offer one-third of a hin of wine as a pleasing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> And when you prepare a young bull as a burnt offering or a sacrifice for discharging a vow or as a peace offering to the LORD,

<sup>9</sup> then a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of finely ground flour mixed with half a hin of olive oil must be presented with the young bull, <sup>10</sup> and you must present as the drink offering half a hin of wine with the fire offering as a pleasing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> This is what is to be done for each ox, or each ram, or each of the male lambs or the goats.

<sup>12</sup> You must do so for each one according to the number that you prepare.

<sup>13</sup> “Every native-born person must do these things in this way to present an offering made by fire as a pleasing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> If a resident foreigner is living with you – or whoever is among you in future generations – and prepares an offering made by fire as a pleasing aroma to the LORD, he must do it the same way you are to do it.

<sup>15</sup> One statute must apply to you who belong to the congregation and to the resident foreigner who is living among you, as a permanent statute for your future generations. You and the resident foreigner will be alike before the LORD.

<sup>16</sup> One law and one custom must apply to you and to the resident foreigner who lives alongside you.’ ”

Rules for First Fruits

<sup>17</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>18</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them, ‘When you enter the land to which I am bringing you

<sup>19</sup> and you eat some of the food of the land, you must offer up a raised offering to the LORD.

<sup>20</sup> You must offer up a cake of the first of your finely ground flour as a raised offering; as you offer the raised offering of the threshing floor, so you must offer it up.

<sup>21</sup> You must give to the LORD some of the first of your finely ground flour as a raised offering in your future generations.

Rules for Unintentional Offenses

<sup>22</sup> “ ‘If you sin unintentionally and do not observe all these commandments that the LORD has spoken to Moses –

<sup>23</sup> all that the LORD has commanded you by the authority of Moses, from the day that the LORD commanded Moses and continuing through your future generations –

<sup>24</sup> then if anything is done unintentionally without the knowledge of the community, the whole community must prepare one young bull for a burnt offering – for a pleasing aroma to the LORD – along with its grain offering and its customary drink offering, and one male goat for a purification offering.

<sup>25</sup> And the priest is to make atonement for the whole community of the Israelites, and they will be forgiven, because it was unintentional and they have brought their offering, an offering made by fire to the LORD, and their purification offering before the LORD, for their unintentional offense.

<sup>26</sup> And the whole community of the Israelites and the resident foreigner who lives among them will be forgiven, since all the people were involved in the unintentional offense.

<sup>27</sup> “‘If any person sins unintentionally, then he must bring a yearling female goat for a purification offering.

<sup>28</sup> And the priest must make atonement for the person who sins unintentionally – when he sins unintentionally before the LORD – to make atonement for him, and he will be forgiven.

<sup>29</sup> You must have one law for the person who sins unintentionally, both for the native-born among the Israelites and for the resident foreigner who lives among them.

Deliberate Sin

<sup>30</sup> “‘But the person who acts defiantly, whether native-born or a resident foreigner, insults the LORD. That person must be cut off from among his people.

<sup>31</sup> Because he has despised the word of the LORD and has broken his commandment, that person must be completely cut off. His iniquity will be on him.’ ”

<sup>32</sup> When the Israelites were in the wilderness they found a man gathering wood on the Sabbath day.

<sup>33</sup> Those who found him gathering wood brought him to Moses and Aaron and to the whole community.

<sup>34</sup> They put him in custody, because there was no clear instruction about what should be done to him.

<sup>35</sup> Then the LORD | strong="H3069" said to Moses, "The man must surely be put to death; the whole community must stone him with stones outside the camp."

<sup>36</sup> So the whole community took him outside the camp and stoned him to death, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Rules for Tassels

<sup>37</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>38</sup> "Speak to the Israelites and tell them to make tassels for themselves on the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and put a blue thread on the tassel of the corners.

<sup>39</sup> You must have this tassel so that you may look at it and remember all the commandments of the LORD and obey them and so that you do not follow after your own heart and your own eyes that lead you to unfaithfulness.

<sup>40</sup> Thus you will remember and obey all my commandments and be holy to your God.

<sup>41</sup> I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God. I am the LORD your God."

16

<sup>1</sup> Now Korah son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On son of Peleth, who were Reubenites, took men

<sup>3</sup> And they assembled against Moses and Aaron, saying to them, "You take too much upon yourselves, seeing that the whole community is holy, every one of them, and the LORD is among them. Why then do you exalt yourselves above the community of the LORD?"

<sup>4</sup> When Moses heard it he fell down with his face to the ground.

<sup>5</sup> Then he said to Korah and to all his company, "In the morning the LORD will make known who are his, and who is holy. He will cause that person to approach him; the person he has chosen he will cause to approach him.

<sup>7</sup> put fire in them, and set incense on them before the LORD tomorrow, and the man whom the LORD chooses will be holy. You take too much upon yourselves, you sons of Levi!"

<sup>8</sup> Moses said to Korah, "Listen now, you sons of Levi!

<sup>9</sup> Does it seem too small a thing to you that the God of Israel has separated you from the community of Israel to bring you near to himself, to perform the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the community to minister to them?

<sup>10</sup> He has brought you near and all your brothers, the sons of Levi, with you. Do you now seek the priesthood also?

<sup>11</sup> Therefore you and all your company have assembled together against the LORD! And Aaron – what is he that you murmur against him?"

<sup>12</sup> Then Moses summoned Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, but they said, "We will not come up.

<sup>13</sup> Is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of the land that flows with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness? Now do you want to make yourself a prince over us?

<sup>14</sup> Moreover, you have not brought us into a land that flows with milk and honey, nor given us an inheritance of fields and vineyards. Do you think you can blind these men? We will not come up."

<sup>15</sup> Moses was very angry, and he said to the LORD, "Have no respect for their offering! I have not taken so much as one donkey from them, nor have I harmed any one of them!"

<sup>16</sup> Then Moses said to Korah, "You and all your company present yourselves before the LORD – you and they, and Aaron – tomorrow.

<sup>17</sup> And each of you take his censer, put incense in it, and then each of you present his censer before the LORD: 250 censers, along with you, and Aaron – each of you with his censer."

<sup>19</sup> When Korah assembled the whole community against them at the entrance of the tent of meeting, then the glory of the LORD appeared to the whole community.

The Judgment on the Rebels

<sup>21</sup> "Separate yourselves from among this community, that I may consume them in an instant."

<sup>22</sup> Then they threw themselves down with their faces to the ground and said, "O God, the God of the spirits of all people, will you be angry with the whole community when only one man sins?"

<sup>23</sup> So the LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>25</sup> Then Moses got up and went to Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel went after him.

<sup>26</sup> And he said to the community, "Move away from the tents of these wicked men, and do not touch anything they have, lest you be destroyed because of all their sins."

<sup>28</sup> Then Moses said, "This is how you will know that the LORD has sent me to do all these works, for I have not done them of my own will.

<sup>29</sup> If these men die a natural death, or if they share the fate of all men, then the LORD has not sent me.

<sup>30</sup> But if the LORD does something entirely new, and the earth opens its mouth and swallows them up along with all that they have, and they go down alive to the grave, then you will know that these men have despised the LORD!"

<sup>31</sup> When he had finished speaking all these words, the ground that was under them split open,

<sup>32</sup> and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, along with their households, and all Korah's men, and all their goods.

<sup>33</sup> They and all that they had went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed over them. So they perished from among the community.

<sup>34</sup> All the Israelites who were around them fled at their cry, for they said, "What if the earth swallows us too?"

<sup>35</sup> Then a fire went out from the LORD and devoured the 250 men who offered incense.

The Atonement for the Rebellion

<sup>37</sup> "Tell Eleazar son of Aaron the priest to pick up the censers out of the flame, for they are holy, and then scatter the coals of fire at a distance.

<sup>38</sup> As for the censers of these men who sinned at the cost of their lives, they must be made into hammered sheets for covering the altar, because they presented them before the LORD and sanctified them. They will become a sign to the Israelites.”

<sup>39</sup> So Eleazar the priest took the bronze censers presented by those who had been burned up, and they were hammered out as a covering for the altar.

<sup>40</sup> It was a memorial for the Israelites, that no outsider who is not a descendant of Aaron should approach to burn incense before the LORD, that he might not become like Korah and his company – just as the LORD had spoken by the authority of Moses.

<sup>41</sup> But on the next day the whole community of Israelites murmured against Moses and Aaron, saying, “You have killed the LORD’s people!”

<sup>42</sup> When the community assembled against Moses and Aaron, they turned toward the tent of meeting – and the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared.

<sup>43</sup> Then Moses and Aaron stood before the tent of meeting.

<sup>45</sup> “Get away from this community, so that I can consume them in an instant!” But they threw themselves down with their faces to the ground.

<sup>46</sup> Then Moses said to Aaron, “Take the censer, put burning coals from the altar in it, place incense on it, and go quickly into the assembly and make atonement for them, for wrath has gone out from the LORD – the plague has begun!”

<sup>47</sup> So Aaron did as Moses commanded and ran into the middle of the assembly, where the plague was just beginning among the people. So he placed incense on the coals and made atonement for the people.

<sup>48</sup> He stood between the dead and the living, and the plague was stopped.

<sup>49</sup> Now 14,700 people died in the plague, in addition to those who died in the event with Korah.

<sup>50</sup> Then Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and the plague was stopped.

17

<sup>3</sup> You must write Aaron’s name on the staff of Levi; for one staff is for the head of every tribe.

<sup>4</sup> You must place them in the tent of meeting before the ark of the covenant where I meet with you.

<sup>5</sup> And the staff of the man whom I choose will blossom; so I will rid myself of the complaints of the Israelites, which they murmur against you.”

<sup>7</sup> Then Moses placed the staffs before the LORD in the tent of the testimony.

<sup>8</sup> On the next day Moses went into the tent of the testimony – and the staff of Aaron for the house of Levi had sprouted, and brought forth buds, and produced blossoms, and yielded almonds!

<sup>9</sup> So Moses brought out all the staffs from before the LORD | strong="H3069" to all the Israelites. They looked at them, and each man took his staff.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Bring Aaron’s staff back before the testimony to be preserved for a sign to the rebels, so that you may bring their murmurings to an end before me, that they will not die.”

<sup>11</sup> So Moses did as the LORD commanded him – this is what he did.

<sup>12</sup> The Israelites said to Moses, “We are bound to die! We perish, we all perish!

<sup>13</sup> Anyone who even comes close to the tabernacle of the LORD will die! Are we all to die?”

18

<sup>1</sup> The LORD said to Aaron, “You and your sons and your tribe with you must bear the iniquity of the sanctuary, and you and your sons with you must bear the iniquity of your priesthood.

<sup>2</sup> “Bring with you your brothers, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, so that they may join with you and minister to you while you and your sons with you are before the tent of the testimony.

<sup>3</sup> They must be responsible to care for you and to care for the entire tabernacle. However, they must not come near the furnishings of the sanctuary and the altar, or both they and you will die.

<sup>4</sup> They must join with you, and they will be responsible for the care of the tent of meeting, for all the service of the tent, but no unauthorized person may approach you.

<sup>5</sup> You will be responsible for the care of the sanctuary and the care of the altar, so that there will be no more wrath on the Israelites.

<sup>6</sup> I myself have chosen your brothers the Levites from among the Israelites. They are given to you as a gift from the LORD, to perform the duties of the tent of meeting.

<sup>7</sup> But you and your sons with you are responsible for your priestly duties, for everything at the altar and within the curtain. And you must serve. I give you the priesthood as a gift for service; but the unauthorized person who approaches must be put to death.”

The Portion of the Priests

<sup>8</sup> The LORD spoke to Aaron, “See, I have given you the responsibility for my raised offerings; I have given all the holy things of the Israelites to you as your priestly portion and to your sons as a perpetual ordinance.

<sup>9</sup> Of all the most holy offerings reserved from the fire this will be yours: Every offering of theirs, whether from every grain offering or from every purification offering or from every reparation offering which they bring to me, will be most holy for you and for your sons.

<sup>10</sup> You are to eat it as a most holy offering; every male may eat it. It will be holy to you.

<sup>11</sup> “And this is yours: the raised offering of their gift, along with all the wave offerings of the Israelites. I have given them to you and to your sons and daughters with you as a perpetual ordinance. Everyone who is ceremonially clean in your household may eat of it.

<sup>12</sup> “All the best of the olive oil and all the best of the wine and of the wheat, the first fruits of these things that they give to the LORD, I have given to you.

<sup>13</sup> And whatever first ripe fruit in their land they bring to the LORD will be yours; everyone who is ceremonially clean in your household may eat of it.

<sup>14</sup> “Everything devoted in Israel will be yours.

<sup>15</sup> The firstborn of every womb which they present to the LORD, whether human or animal, will be yours. Nevertheless, the firstborn sons you must redeem, and the firstborn males of unclean animals you must redeem.

<sup>16</sup> And those that must be redeemed you are to redeem when they are a month old, according to your estimation, for five shekels of silver according to the sanctuary shekel (which is twenty gerahs).

<sup>17</sup> But you must not redeem the firstborn of a cow or a sheep or a goat; they are holy. You must splash their blood on the altar and burn their fat for an offering made by fire for a pleasing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> And their meat will be yours, just as the breast and the right hip of the raised offering is yours.

<sup>19</sup> All the raised offerings of the holy things that the Israelites offer to the LORD, I have given to you, and to your sons and daughters with you, as a perpetual ordinance. It is a covenant of salt forever before the LORD for you and for your descendants with you.”

Duties of the Levites

<sup>20</sup> The LORD spoke to Aaron, “You will have no inheritance in their land, nor will you have any portion of property among them – I am your portion and your inheritance among the Israelites.

<sup>21</sup> See, I have given the Levites all the tithes in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they perform – the service of the tent of meeting.

<sup>22</sup> No longer may the Israelites approach the tent of meeting, or else they will bear their sin and die.

<sup>23</sup> But the Levites must perform the service of the tent of meeting, and they must bear their iniquity. It will be a perpetual ordinance throughout your generations that among the Israelites the Levites have no inheritance.

<sup>24</sup> But I have given to the Levites for an inheritance the tithes of the Israelites that are offered to the LORD as a raised offering. That is why I said to them that among the Israelites they are to have no inheritance.”

Instructions for the Levites

<sup>25</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>26</sup> “You are to speak to the Levites, and you must tell them, ‘When you receive from the Israelites the tithe that I have given you from them as your inheritance, then you are to offer up from it as a raised offering to the LORD a tenth of the tithe.

<sup>27</sup> And your raised offering will be credited to you as though it were grain from the threshing floor or as new wine from the winepress.

<sup>28</sup> Thus you are to offer up a raised offering to the LORD of all your tithes which you receive from the Israelites; and you must give the LORD’s raised offering from it to Aaron the priest.

<sup>29</sup> From all your gifts you must offer up every raised offering due the LORD, from all the best of it, and the holiest part of it.’

<sup>30</sup> “Therefore you will say to them, ‘When you offer up the best of it, then it will be credited to the Levites as the product of the threshing floor and as the product of the winepress.

<sup>31</sup> And you may eat it in any place, you and your household, because it is your wages for your service in the tent of meeting.

<sup>32</sup> And you will bear no sin concerning it when you offer up the best of it. And you must not profane the holy things of the Israelites, or else you will die.’ ”

19

<sup>2</sup> “This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD has commanded: ‘Instruct the Israelites to bring you a red heifer without blemish, which has no defect and has never carried a yoke.

<sup>3</sup> You must give it to Eleazar the priest so that he can take it outside the camp, and it must be slaughtered before him.

<sup>5</sup> Then the heifer must be burned in his sight – its skin, its flesh, its blood, and its offal is to be burned.

<sup>6</sup> And the priest must take cedar wood, hyssop, and scarlet wool and throw them into the midst of the fire where the heifer is burning.

<sup>7</sup> Then the priest must wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and afterward he may come into the camp, but the priest will be ceremonially unclean until evening.

<sup>8</sup> The one who burns it must wash his clothes in water and bathe himself in water. He will be ceremonially unclean until evening.

<sup>9</sup> “Then a man who is ceremonially clean must gather up the ashes of the red heifer and put them in a ceremonially clean place outside the camp. They must be kept for the community of the Israelites for use in the water of purification – it is a purification for sin.

<sup>10</sup> The one who gathers the ashes of the heifer must wash his clothes and be ceremonially unclean until evening. This will be a permanent ordinance both for the Israelites and the resident foreigner who lives among them.

Purification from Uncleaness

<sup>11</sup> “Whoever touches the corpse of any person will be ceremonially unclean seven days.

<sup>12</sup> He must purify himself with water on the third day and on the seventh day, and so will be clean. But if he does not purify himself on the third day and the seventh day, then he will not be clean.

<sup>13</sup> Anyone who touches the corpse of any dead person and does not purify himself defiles the tabernacle of the LORD | strong="H3069". And that person must be cut off from Israel, because the water of purification was not sprinkled on him. He will be unclean; his uncleanness remains on him.

<sup>14</sup> “This is the law: When a man dies in a tent, anyone who comes into the tent and all who are in the tent will be ceremonially unclean seven days.

<sup>15</sup> And every open container that has no covering fastened on it is unclean.

<sup>16</sup> And whoever touches the body of someone killed with a sword in the open fields, or the body of someone who died of natural causes, or a human bone, or a grave, will be unclean seven days.

<sup>17</sup> “For a ceremonially unclean person you must take some of the ashes of the heifer burnt for purification from sin and pour fresh running water over them in a vessel.

<sup>18</sup> Then a ceremonially clean person must take hyssop, dip it in the water, and sprinkle it on the tent, on all its furnishings, and on the people who were there, or on the one who touched a bone, or one killed, or one who died, or a grave.

<sup>19</sup> And the clean person must sprinkle the unclean on the third day and on the seventh day; and on the seventh day he must purify him, and then he must wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and he will be clean in the evening.

<sup>20</sup> But the man who is unclean and does not purify himself, that person must be cut off from among the community, because he has polluted the sanctuary of the LORD; the water of purification was not sprinkled on him, so he is unclean.

<sup>21</sup> “So this will be a perpetual ordinance for them: The one who sprinkles the water of purification must wash his clothes, and the one who touches the water of purification will be unclean until evening.

<sup>22</sup> And whatever the unclean person touches will be unclean, and the person who touches it will be unclean until evening.’ ”

20

<sup>1</sup> Then the entire community of Israel entered the wilderness of Zin in the first month, and the people stayed in Kadesh. Miriam died and was buried there.

<sup>2</sup> And there was no water for the community, and so they gathered themselves together against Moses and Aaron.

<sup>3</sup> The people contended with Moses, saying, “If only we had died when our brothers died before the LORD!

<sup>4</sup> Why have you brought up the LORD’s community into this wilderness? So that we and our cattle should die here?

<sup>5</sup> Why have you brought us up from Egypt only to bring us to this dreadful place? It is no place for grain, or figs, or vines, or pomegranates; nor is there any water to drink!”

Moses Responds

<sup>6</sup> So Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the entrance to the tent of meeting. They then threw themselves down with their faces to the ground, and the glory of the LORD appeared to them.

<sup>7</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>8</sup> “Take the staff and assemble the community, you and Aaron your brother, and then speak to the rock before their eyes. It will pour forth its water, and you will bring water out of the rock for them, and so you will give the community and their beasts water to drink.”

<sup>9</sup> So Moses took the staff from before the LORD, just as he commanded him.

<sup>10</sup> Then Moses and Aaron gathered the community together in front of the rock, and he said to them, “Listen, you rebels, must we bring water out of this rock for you?”

<sup>11</sup> Then Moses raised his hand, and struck the rock twice with his staff. And water came out abundantly. So the community drank, and their beasts drank too.

The Lord’s Judgment

<sup>12</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, “Because you did not trust me enough to show me as holy before the Israelites, therefore you will not bring this community into the land I have given them.”

<sup>13</sup> These are the waters of Meribah, because the Israelites contended with the LORD | strong="H3069", and his holiness was maintained among them.

Rejection by the Edomites

<sup>14</sup> Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom: “Thus says your brother Israel: ‘You know all the hardships we have experienced, <sup>15</sup> how our ancestors went down into Egypt, and we lived in Egypt a long time, and the Egyptians treated us and our ancestors badly.

<sup>16</sup> So when we cried to the LORD, he heard our voice and sent a messenger, and has brought us up out of Egypt. Now we are here in Kadesh, a town on the edge of your country.

<sup>17</sup> Please let us pass through your country. We will not pass through the fields or through the vineyards, nor will we drink water from any well. We will go by the King’s Highway; we will not turn to the right or the left until we have passed through your region.’ ”

<sup>18</sup> But Edom said to him, “You will not pass through me, or I will come out against you with the sword.”

<sup>19</sup> Then the Israelites said to him, "We will go along the highway, and if we or our cattle drink any of your water, we will pay for it. We will only pass through on our feet, without doing anything else."

<sup>20</sup> But he said, "You may not pass through." Then Edom came out against them with a large and powerful force.

<sup>21</sup> So Edom refused to give Israel passage through his border; therefore Israel turned away from him.

Aaron's Death

<sup>22</sup> So the entire company of Israelites traveled from Kadesh and came to Mount Hor.

<sup>23</sup> And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in Mount Hor, by the border of the land of Edom. He said:

<sup>24</sup> "Aaron will be gathered to his ancestors, for he will not enter into the land I have given to the Israelites because both of you rebelled against my word at the waters of Meribah.

<sup>27</sup> So Moses did as the LORD commanded; and they went up Mount Hor in the sight of the whole community.

<sup>28</sup> And Moses removed Aaron's garments and put them on his son Eleazar. So Aaron died there on the top of the mountain. And Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain.

<sup>29</sup> When all the community saw that Aaron was dead, the whole house of Israel mourned for Aaron thirty days.

21

<sup>1</sup> When the Canaanite king of Arad who lived in the Negev heard that Israel was approaching along the road to Atharim, he fought against Israel and took some of them prisoner.

<sup>2</sup> So Israel made a vow to the LORD and said, "If you will indeed deliver this people into our hand, then we will utterly destroy their cities."

<sup>3</sup> The LORD listened to the voice of Israel and delivered up the Canaanites, and they utterly destroyed them and their cities. So the name of the place was called Hormah.

Fiery Serpents

<sup>4</sup> Then they traveled from Mount Hor by the road to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom, but the people became impatient along the way.

<sup>5</sup> And the people spoke against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness, for there is no bread or water, and we detest this worthless food."

<sup>6</sup> So the LORD sent poisonous snakes among the people, and they bit the people; many people of Israel died.

<sup>7</sup> Then the people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD and against you. Pray to the LORD that he would take away the snakes from us." So Moses prayed for the people.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD said to Moses, "Make a poisonous snake and set it on a pole. When anyone who is bitten looks at it, he will live."

<sup>9</sup> So Moses made a bronze snake and put it on a pole, so that if a snake had bitten someone, when he looked at the bronze snake he lived.

The Approach to Moab

<sup>11</sup> Then they traveled on from Oboth and camped at Iye Abarim, in the wilderness that is before Moab, on the eastern side.

<sup>13</sup> From there they moved on and camped on the other side of the Arnon, in the wilderness that extends from the regions of the Amorites, for Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

<sup>14</sup> This is why it is said in the Book of the Wars of the LORD, “Waheb in Suphah and the wadis,
the Arnon

<sup>15</sup> and the slope of the valleys that extends to the dwelling of Ar, and falls off at the border of Moab.”

<sup>16</sup> And from there they traveled to Beer; that is the well where the LORD spoke to Moses, “Gather the people and I will give them water.”

<sup>17</sup> Then Israel sang this song:
“Spring up, O well, sing to it!

<sup>18</sup> The well which the princes dug, which the leaders of the people opened with their scepters and their staffs.”

And from the wilderness they traveled to Mattanah;

<sup>20</sup> and from Bamoth to the valley that is in the country of Moab, near the top of Pisgah, which overlooks the wilderness.

The Victory over Sihon and Og

<sup>22</sup> “Let us pass through your land; we will not turn aside into the fields or into the vineyards, nor will we drink water from any well, but we will go along the King’s Highway until we pass your borders.”

<sup>23</sup> But Sihon did not permit Israel to pass through his border; he gathered all his forces together and went out against Israel into the wilderness. When he came to Jahaz, he fought against Israel.

<sup>25</sup> So Israel took all these cities; and Israel settled in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all its villages.

<sup>26</sup> For Heshbon was the city of King Sihon of the Amorites. Now he had fought against the former king of Moab and had taken all of his land from his control, as far as the Arnon.

<sup>27</sup> That is why those who speak in proverbs say,
“Come to Heshbon, let it be built.
Let the city of Sihon be established!

<sup>28</sup> For fire went out from Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon.
It has consumed Ar of Moab and the lords of the high places of Arnon.

<sup>29</sup> Woe to you, Moab.
You are ruined, O people of Chemosh!
He has made his sons fugitives, and his daughters the prisoners of King Sihon of the Amorites.
<sup>30</sup> We have overpowered them;

Heshbon has perished as far as Dibon.
We have shattered them as far as Nophah, which reaches to Medeba.”

<sup>32</sup> Moses sent spies to reconnoiter Jaazer, and they captured its villages and dispossessed the Amorites who were there.

<sup>33</sup> Then they turned and went up by the road to Bashan. And King Og of Bashan and all his forces marched out against them to do battle at Edrei.

<sup>34</sup> And the LORD said to Moses, “Do not fear him, for I have delivered him and all his people and his land into your hand. You will do to him what you did to King Sihon of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon.

<sup>35</sup> So they defeated Og, his sons, and all his people, until there were no survivors, and they possessed his land.

22

<sup>2</sup> Balak son of Zippor saw all that the Israelites had done to the Amorites.

<sup>3</sup> And the Moabites were greatly afraid of the people, because they were so numerous. The Moabites were sick with fear because of the Israelites.

<sup>4</sup> So the Moabites said to the elders of Midian, “Now this mass of people will lick up everything around us, as the bull devours the grass of the field. Now Balak son of Zippor was king of the Moabites at this time.

<sup>5</sup> And he sent messengers to Balaam son of Beor at Pethor, which is by the Euphrates River in the land of Amaw, to summon him, saying, “Look, a nation has come out of Egypt. They cover the face of the earth, and they are settling next to me.

<sup>6</sup> So now, please come and curse this nation for me, for they are too powerful for me. Perhaps I will prevail so that we may conquer them and drive them out of the land. For I know that whoever you bless is blessed, and whoever you curse is cursed.”

<sup>7</sup> So the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the fee for divination in their hand. They came to Balaam and reported to him the words of Balak.

<sup>8</sup> He replied to them, “Stay here tonight, and I will bring back to you whatever word the LORD may speak to me.” So the princes of Moab stayed with Balaam.

<sup>9</sup> And God came to Balaam and said, “Who are these men with you?”

<sup>10</sup> Balaam said to God, “Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent a message to me, saying,

<sup>11</sup> “Look, a nation has come out of Egypt, and it covers the face of the earth. Come now and put a curse on them for me; perhaps I will be able to defeat them and drive them out.”

<sup>12</sup> But God said to Balaam, “You must not go with them; you must not curse the people, for they are blessed.”

<sup>13</sup> So Balaam got up in the morning, and said to the princes of Balak, “Go to your land, for the LORD has refused to permit me to go with you.”

<sup>14</sup> So the princes of Moab departed and went back to Balak and said, “Balaam refused to come with us.”

Balaam Accompanies the Moabite Princes

<sup>15</sup> Balak again sent princes, more numerous and more distinguished than the first.

<sup>16</sup> And they came to Balaam and said to him, “Thus says Balak son of Zippor: ‘Please do not let anything hinder you from coming to me.

<sup>17</sup> For I will honor you greatly, and whatever you tell me I will do. So come, put a curse on this nation for me.’ ”

<sup>18</sup> Balaam replied to the servants of Balak, “Even if Balak would give me his palace full of silver and gold, I could not transgress the commandment of the LORD my God to do less or more.

<sup>19</sup> Now therefore, please stay the night here also, that I may know what more the LORD might say to me.”

<sup>20</sup> God came to Balaam that night, and said to him, “If the men have come to call you, get up and go with them; but the word that I will say to you, that you must do.”

<sup>21</sup> So Balaam got up in the morning, saddled his donkey, and went with the princes of Moab.

God Opposes Balaam

<sup>22</sup> Then God’s anger was kindled because he went, and the angel of the LORD stood in the road to oppose him. Now he was riding on his donkey and his two servants were with him.

<sup>24</sup> Then the angel of the LORD stood in a path among the vineyards, where there was a wall on either side.

<sup>25</sup> And when the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, she pressed herself into the wall, and crushed Balaam’s foot against the wall. So he beat her again.

<sup>27</sup> When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, she crouched down under Balaam. Then Balaam was angry, and he beat his donkey with a staff.

<sup>28</sup> Then the LORD opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, “What have I done to you that you have beaten me these three times?”

<sup>29</sup> And Balaam said to the donkey, “You have made me look stupid; I wish there were a sword in my hand, for I would kill you right now.”

<sup>30</sup> The donkey said to Balaam, “Am not I your donkey that you have ridden ever since I was yours until this day? Have I ever attempted to treat you this way?” And he said, “No.”

<sup>31</sup> Then the LORD opened Balaam’s eyes, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way with his sword drawn in his hand; so he bowed his head and threw himself down with his face to the ground.

<sup>32</sup> The angel of the LORD said to him, “Why have you beaten your donkey these three times? Look, I came out to oppose you because what you are doing is perverse before me.

<sup>33</sup> The donkey saw me and turned from me these three times. If she had not turned from me, I would have killed you but saved her alive.”

<sup>34</sup> Balaam said to the angel of the LORD, “I have sinned, for I did not know that you stood against me in the road. So now, if it is evil in your sight, I will go back home.”

<sup>35</sup> But the angel of the LORD said to Balaam, “Go with the men, but you may only speak the word that I will speak to you.” So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

Balaam Meets Balak

<sup>36</sup> When Balak heard that Balaam was coming, he went out to meet him at a city of Moab which was on the border of the Arnon at the boundary of his territory.

<sup>37</sup> Balak said to Balaam, “Did I not send again and again to you to summon you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not able to honor you?”

<sup>38</sup> Balaam said to Balak, “Look, I have come to you. Now, am I able to speak just anything? I must speak only the word that God puts in my mouth.”

<sup>39</sup> So Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kiriath-huzoth.

<sup>40</sup> And Balak sacrificed bulls and sheep, and sent some to Balaam, and to the princes who were with him.

<sup>41</sup> Then on the next morning Balak took Balaam, and brought him up to Bamoth Baal. From there he saw the extent of the nation.

23

<sup>2</sup> So Balak did just as Balaam had said. Balak and Balaam then offered on each altar a bull and a ram.

<sup>3</sup> Balaam said to Balak, "Station yourself by your burnt offering, and I will go off; perhaps the LORD will come to meet me, and whatever he reveals to me I will tell you." Then he went to a deserted height.

<sup>4</sup> Then God met Balaam, who said to him, "I have prepared seven altars, and I have offered on each altar a bull and a ram."

<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD put a message in Balaam's mouth and said, "Return to Balak, and speak what I tell you."

<sup>6</sup> So he returned to him, and he was still standing by his burnt offering, he and all the princes of Moab.

<sup>7</sup> Then Balaam uttered his oracle, saying,
"Balak, the king of Moab, brought me from Aram, out of the mountains of the east, saying,
'Come, pronounce a curse on Jacob for me;
come, denounce Israel.'

<sup>8</sup> How can I curse one whom God has not cursed, or how can I denounce one whom the LORD has not denounced?

<sup>9</sup> For from the top of the rocks I see them;
from the hills I watch them.
Indeed, a nation that lives alone, and it will not be reckoned among the nations.

<sup>10</sup> Who can count the dust of Jacob,
Or number the fourth part of Israel?
Let me die the death of the upright, and let the end of my life be like theirs."

Balaam Relocates

<sup>11</sup> Then Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I brought you to curse my enemies, but on the contrary you have only blessed them!"

<sup>12</sup> Balaam replied, "Must I not be careful to speak what the LORD has put in my mouth?"

<sup>13</sup> Balak said to him, "Please come with me to another place from which you can observe them. You will see only a part of them, but you will not see all of them. Curse them for me from there."

<sup>14</sup> So Balak brought Balaam to the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, where he built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

<sup>15</sup> And Balaam said to Balak, "Station yourself here by your burnt offering, while I meet the LORD there | strong="H7136".

<sup>16</sup> Then the LORD met Balaam and put a message in his mouth and said, "Return to Balak, and speak what I tell you."

<sup>17</sup> When Balaam came to him, he was still standing by his burnt offering, along with the princes of Moab. And Balak said to him, "What has the LORD spoken?"

Balaam Prophesies Again

<sup>18</sup> Balaam uttered his oracle, and said, “Rise up, Balak, and hear;
Listen to me, son of Zippor:
<sup>19</sup> God is not a man, that he should lie, nor a human being, that he should change his mind.
Has he said, and will he not do it?
Or has he spoken, and will he not make it happen?
<sup>20</sup> Indeed, I have received a command to bless;
he has blessed, and I cannot reverse it.
<sup>21</sup> He has not looked on iniquity in Jacob, nor has he seen trouble in Israel.
The LORD their God is with them;
his acclamation as king is among them.
<sup>22</sup> God brought them out of Egypt.
They have, as it were, the strength of a wild bull.
<sup>23</sup> For there is no spell against Jacob, nor is there any divination against Israel.
At this time it must be said of Jacob and of Israel, ‘Look at what God has done!’
<sup>24</sup> Indeed, the people will rise up like a lioness, and like a lion raises himself up;
they will not lie down until they eat their prey, and drink the blood of the slain.”

Balaam Relocates Yet Again

<sup>25</sup> Balak said to Balaam, “Neither curse them at all nor bless them at all!”
<sup>26</sup> But Balaam replied to Balak, “Did I not tell you, ‘All that the LORD speaks, I must do’?”
<sup>27</sup> Balak said to Balaam, “Come, please; I will take you to another place. Perhaps it will please God to let you curse them for me from there.”
<sup>29</sup> Then Balaam said to Balak, “Build seven altars here for me, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams.”
<sup>30</sup> So Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

24

<sup>1</sup> When Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not go as at the other times to seek for omens, but he set his face toward the wilderness.
<sup>2</sup> When Balaam lifted up his eyes, he saw Israel camped tribe by tribe; and the Spirit of God came upon him.
<sup>3</sup> Then he uttered this oracle:
“The oracle of Balaam son of Beor;
the oracle of the man whose eyes are open;
<sup>4</sup> the oracle of the one who hears the words of God,
who sees a vision from the Almighty,
although falling flat on the ground with eyes open:
<sup>5</sup> ‘How beautiful are your tents, O Jacob, and your dwelling places, O Israel!
<sup>6</sup> They are like valleys stretched forth, like gardens by the river’s side,
like aloes that the LORD has planted, and like cedar trees beside the waters.
<sup>7</sup> He will pour the water out of his buckets, and their descendants will be like abundant water;

their king will be greater than Agag,
and their kingdom will be exalted.

<sup>8</sup> God brought them out of Egypt.

They have, as it were, the strength of a young bull;
they will devour hostile people and will break their bones and will pierce them through with arrows.

<sup>9</sup> They crouch and lie down like a lion, and as a lioness, who can stir him?
Blessed is the one who blesses you, and cursed is the one who curses you! ”

<sup>10</sup> Then Balak became very angry at Balaam, and he struck his hands together. Balak said to Balaam, “I called you to curse my enemies, and look, you have done nothing but bless them these three times!

<sup>11</sup> So now, go back where you came from! I said that I would greatly honor you; but now the LORD has stood in the way of your honor.”

<sup>12</sup> Balaam said to Balak, “Did I not also tell your messengers whom you sent to me,

<sup>13</sup> ‘If Balak would give me his palace full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the commandment of the LORD to do either good or evil of my own will, but whatever the LORD tells me I must speak’?

<sup>14</sup> And now, I am about to go back to my own people. Come now, and I will advise you as to what this people will do to your people in the future.”

Balaam Prophesies a Fourth Time

<sup>15</sup> Then he uttered this oracle:

“The oracle of Balaam son of Beor;
the oracle of the man whose eyes are open;

<sup>16</sup> the oracle of the one who hears the words of God, and who knows the knowledge of the Most High,
who sees a vision from the Almighty,
although falling flat on the ground with eyes open:

<sup>17</sup> ‘I see him, but not now;
I behold him, but not close at hand.
A star will march forth out of Jacob,
and a scepter will rise out of Israel.
He will crush the skulls of Moab,
and the heads of all the sons of Sheth.

<sup>18</sup> Edom will be a possession,
Seir, his enemies, will also be a possession;
but Israel will act valiantly.

<sup>19</sup> A ruler will be established from Jacob;
he will destroy the remains of the city.’ ”

Balaam's Final Prophecies

<sup>20</sup> Then Balaam looked on Amalek and delivered this oracle:
“Amalek was the first of the nations, but his end will be that he will perish.”

<sup>21</sup> Then he looked on the Kenites and uttered this oracle:
“Your dwelling place seems strong,
and your nest is set on a rocky cliff.

<sup>22</sup> Nevertheless the Kenite will be consumed.
How long will Asshur take you away captive?”

<sup>23</sup> Then he uttered this oracle:
“O, who will survive when God does this!
<sup>24</sup> Ships will come from the coast of Kittim, and will afflict Asshur, and will afflict Eber, and he will also perish forever.”

<sup>25</sup> Balaam got up and departed and returned to his home, and Balak also went his way.

25

<sup>2</sup> These women invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods; then the people ate and bowed down to their gods.

<sup>3</sup> When Israel joined themselves to Baal-peor, the anger of the LORD flared up against Israel.

God's Punishment

<sup>4</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “Arrest all the leaders of the people, and hang them up before the LORD in broad daylight, so that the fierce anger of the LORD may be turned away from Israel.”

<sup>5</sup> So Moses said to the judges of Israel, “Each of you must execute those of his men who were joined to Baal-peor.”

<sup>7</sup> When Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he got up from among the assembly, took a javelin in his hand, <sup>8</sup> and went after the Israelite man into the tent and thrust through the Israelite man and into the woman's abdomen. So the plague was stopped from the Israelites.

<sup>9</sup> Those that died in the plague were 24,000.

The Aftermath

<sup>10</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>11</sup> “Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned my anger away from the Israelites, when he manifested such zeal for my sake among them, so that I did not consume the Israelites in my zeal.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, announce: ‘I am going to give to him my covenant of peace.

<sup>13</sup> So it will be to him and his descendants after him a covenant of a permanent priesthood, because he has been zealous for his God, and has made atonement for the Israelites.’ ”

<sup>14</sup> Now the name of the Israelite who was stabbed – the one who was stabbed with the Midianite woman – was Zimri son of Salu, a leader of a clan of the Simeonites.

<sup>15</sup> The name of the Midianite woman who was killed was Cozbi daughter of Zur. He was a leader over the people of a clan of Midian.

<sup>16</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>17</sup> “Bring trouble to the Midianites, and destroy them,

<sup>18</sup> because they bring trouble to you by their treachery with which they have deceived you in the matter of Peor, and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of a prince of Midian, their sister, who was killed on the day of the plague that happened as a result of Peor.”

26

<sup>1</sup> After the plague the LORD said to Moses and to Eleazar son of Aaron the priest,

<sup>2</sup> “Take a census of the whole community of Israelites, from twenty years old and upward, by their clans, everyone who can serve in the army of Israel.”

<sup>4</sup> “Number the people from twenty years old and upward, just as the LORD commanded Moses and the Israelites who went out from the land of Egypt.”

Reuben

<sup>5</sup> Reuben was the firstborn of Israel. The Reubenites: from Hanoch, the family of the Hanochites; from Pallu, the family of the Palluites;

<sup>9</sup> Eliab's descendants were Nemuel, Dathan, and Abiram. It was Dathan and Abiram who as leaders of the community rebelled against Moses and Aaron with the followers of Korah when they rebelled against the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them and Korah at the time that company died, when the fire consumed 250 men. So they became a warning.

Simeon

Gad

<sup>16</sup> from Ozni, the family of the Oznites; from Eri, the family of the Erites;

<sup>18</sup> These were the families of the Gadites according to those numbered of them, 40,500.

Judah

<sup>19</sup> The descendants of Judah were Er and Onan, but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan.

<sup>20</sup> And the Judahites by their families were: from Shelah, the family of the Shelahites; from Perez, the family of the Perezites; and from Zerah, the family of the Zerahites.

<sup>21</sup> And the Perezites were: from Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; from Hamul, the family of the Hamulites.

<sup>22</sup> These were the families of Judah according to those numbered of them, 76,500.

Issachar

<sup>23</sup> The Issacharites by their families: from Tola, the family of the Tolaites; from Puah, the family of the Puites;

<sup>25</sup> These were the families of Issachar, according to those numbered of them, 64,300.

Zebulun

<sup>27</sup> These were the families of the Zebulunites, according to those numbered of them, 60,500.

Manasseh

<sup>30</sup> These were the Gileadites: from Iezer, the family of the Iezerites; from Helek, the family of the Helekites;

<sup>34</sup> These were the families of Manasseh; those numbered of them were 52,700.

Ephraim

<sup>37</sup> These were the families of the Ephraimites, according to those numbered of them, 32,500. These were the descendants of Joseph by their families.

Benjamin

<sup>41</sup> These are the Benjaminites, according to their families, and according to those numbered of them, 45,600.

Dan

<sup>42</sup> These are the Danites by their families: from Shuham, the family of the Shuhamites. These were the families of Dan, according to their families.

<sup>43</sup> All the families of the Shuhahites according to those numbered of them were 64,400.

Asher

<sup>47</sup> These are the families of the Asherites, according to those numbered of them, 53,400.

Naphtali

<sup>48</sup> The Naphtalites by their families: from Jahzeel, the family of the Jahzeelites; from Guni, the family of the Gunites;

<sup>50</sup> These were the families of Naphtali according to their families; and those numbered of them were 45,400.

Total Number and Division of the Land

<sup>51</sup> These were those numbered of the Israelites, 601,730.

<sup>52</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>53</sup> “To these the land must be divided as an inheritance according to the number of the names.

<sup>54</sup> To a larger group you will give a larger inheritance, and to a smaller group you will give a smaller inheritance. To each one its inheritance must be given according to the number of people in it.

<sup>55</sup> The land must be divided by lot; and they will inherit in accordance with the names of their ancestral tribes.

<sup>56</sup> Their inheritance must be apportioned by lot among the larger and smaller groups.

<sup>57</sup> And these are the Levites who were numbered according to their families: from Gershon, the family of the Gershonites; of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites; from Merari, the family of the Merarites.

<sup>58</sup> These are the families of the Levites: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, the family of the Korahites. Kohath became the father of Amram.

<sup>59</sup> Now the name of Amram’s wife was Jochebed, daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt. And to Amram she bore Aaron, Moses, and Miriam their sister.

<sup>60</sup> And to Aaron were born Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

<sup>61</sup> But Nadab and Abihu died when they offered strange fire before the LORD.

<sup>62</sup> Those of them who were numbered were 23,000, all males from a month old and upward, for they were not numbered among the Israelites; no inheritance was given to them among the Israelites.

<sup>63</sup> These are those who were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the Israelites in the plains of Moab along the Jordan River opposite Jericho.

<sup>64</sup> But there was not a man among these who had been among those numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest when they numbered the Israelites in the wilderness of Sinai.

<sup>65</sup> For the LORD had said of them, “They will surely die in the wilderness.” And there was not left a single man of them, except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

27

<sup>1</sup> Then the daughters of Zelophehad son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh of the families of Manasseh, the son Joseph came forward. Now these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

<sup>2</sup> And they stood before Moses and Eleazar the priest and the leaders of the whole assembly at the entrance to the tent of meeting and said, <sup>3</sup> “Our father died in the wilderness, although he was not part of the company of those that gathered themselves together against the LORD in the company of Korah; but he died for his own sin, and he had no sons.

<sup>4</sup> Why should the name of our father be lost from among his family because he had no son? Give us a possession among the relatives of our father.”

<sup>5</sup> So Moses brought their case before the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD said to Moses:

<sup>7</sup> “The daughters of Zelophehad have a valid claim. You must indeed give them possession of an inheritance among their father’s relatives, and you must transfer the inheritance of their father to them.

<sup>8</sup> And you must tell the Israelites, ‘If a man dies and has no son, then you must transfer his inheritance to his daughter;

<sup>9</sup> and if he has no daughter, then you are to give his inheritance to his brothers;

<sup>10</sup> and if he has no brothers, then you are to give his inheritance to his father’s brothers;

<sup>11</sup> and if his father has no brothers, then you are to give his inheritance to his relative nearest to him from his family, and he will possess it. This will be for the Israelites a legal requirement, as the LORD | strong="H3069" commanded Moses.' "

Leadership Change

<sup>12</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go up this mountain of the Abarim range, and see the land I have given to the Israelites.

<sup>13</sup> When you have seen it, you will be gathered to your ancestors, as Aaron your brother was gathered to his ancestors.

<sup>14</sup> For in the wilderness of Zin when the community rebelled against me, you rebelled against my command to show me as holy before their eyes over the water – the water of Meribah in Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin."

<sup>15</sup> Then Moses spoke to the LORD:

<sup>16</sup> "Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of all humankind, appoint a man over the community, <sup>17</sup> who will go out before them, and who will come in before them, and who will lead them out, and who will bring them in, so that the community of the LORD may not be like sheep that have no shepherd."

<sup>18</sup> The LORD replied to Moses, "Take Joshua son of Nun, a man in whom is such a spirit, and lay your hand on him;

<sup>19</sup> set him before Eleazar the priest and before the whole community, and commission him publicly.

<sup>20</sup> Then you must delegate some of your authority to him, so that the whole community of the Israelites will be obedient.

<sup>21</sup> And he will stand before Eleazar the priest, who will seek counsel for him before the LORD by the decision of the Urim. At his command they will go out, and at his command they will come in, he and all the Israelites with him, the whole community."

<sup>22</sup> So Moses did as the LORD commanded him; he took Joshua and set him before Eleazar the priest and before the whole community.

<sup>23</sup> He laid his hands on him and commissioned him, just as the LORD commanded, by the authority of Moses.

28

<sup>2</sup> "Command the Israelites: 'With regard to my offering, be sure to offer my food for my offering made by fire, as a pleasing aroma to me at its appointed time.'

<sup>3</sup> You will say to them, 'This is the offering made by fire which you must offer to the LORD: two unblemished lambs one year old each day for a continual burnt offering.

<sup>4</sup> The first lamb you must offer in the morning, and the second lamb you must offer in the late afternoon, <sup>5</sup> with one-tenth of an ephah of finely ground flour as a grain offering mixed with one quarter of a hin of pressed olive oil.

<sup>6</sup> It is a continual burnt offering that was instituted on Mount Sinai as a pleasing aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> "And its drink offering must be one quarter of a hin for each lamb. You must pour out the strong drink as a drink offering to the LORD in the holy place.

<sup>8</sup> And the second lamb you must offer in the late afternoon; just as you offered the grain offering and drink offering in the morning, you must offer it as an offering made by fire, as a pleasing aroma to the LORD.

Weekly Offerings

<sup>9</sup> “On the Sabbath day, you must offer two unblemished lambs a year old, and two-tenths of an ephah of finely ground flour as a grain offering, mixed with olive oil, along with its drink offering.

<sup>10</sup> This is the burnt offering for every Sabbath, besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.

Monthly Offerings

<sup>11</sup> “On the first day of each month you must offer as a burnt offering to the LORD | strong="H3069" two young bulls, one ram, and seven unblemished lambs a year old,

<sup>12</sup> with three-tenths of an ephah of finely ground flour mixed with olive oil as a grain offering for each bull, and two-tenths of an ephah of finely ground flour mixed with olive oil as a grain offering for the ram,

<sup>13</sup> and one-tenth of an ephah of finely ground flour mixed with olive oil as a grain offering for each lamb, as a burnt offering for a pleasing aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> For their drink offerings, include half a hin of wine with each bull, one-third of a hin for the ram, and one-fourth of a hin for each lamb. This is the burnt offering for each month throughout the months of the year.

<sup>15</sup> And one male goat must be offered to the LORD as a purification offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.

Passover and Unleavened Bread

<sup>18</sup> And on the first day there is to be a holy assembly; you must do no ordinary work on it.

<sup>19</sup> “But you must offer to the LORD an offering made by fire, a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram, and seven lambs one year old; they must all be unblemished.

<sup>20</sup> And their grain offering is to be of finely ground flour mixed with olive oil. For each bull you must offer three-tenths of an ephah, and two-tenths for the ram.

<sup>21</sup> For each of the seven lambs you are to offer one-tenth of an ephah, <sup>22</sup> as well as one goat for a purification offering, to make atonement for you.

<sup>23</sup> You must offer these in addition to the burnt offering in the morning which is for a continual burnt offering.

<sup>24</sup> In this manner you must offer daily throughout the seven days the food of the sacrifice made by fire as a sweet aroma to the LORD. It is to be offered in addition to the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.

<sup>25</sup> On the seventh day you are to have a holy assembly, you must do no regular work.

Firstfruits

<sup>26</sup> “Also, on the day of the first fruits, when you bring a new grain offering to the LORD during your Feast of Weeks, you are to have a holy assembly. You must do no ordinary work.

<sup>27</sup> But you must offer as the burnt offering, as a sweet aroma to the LORD, two young bulls, one ram, seven lambs one year old,

<sup>28</sup> with their grain offering of finely ground flour mixed with olive oil: three-tenths of an ephah for each bull, two-tenths for the one ram,

<sup>29</sup> with one-tenth for each of the seven lambs,

<sup>30</sup> as well as one male goat to make an atonement for you.

<sup>31</sup> You are to offer them with their drink offerings in addition to the continual burnt offering and its grain offering – they must be unblemished.

29

<sup>2</sup> You must offer a burnt offering as a sweet aroma to the LORD: one young bull, one ram, and seven lambs one year old without blemish.

<sup>3</sup> “Their grain offering is to be of finely ground flour mixed with olive oil, three-tenths of an ephah for the bull, two-tenths of an ephah for the ram,

<sup>5</sup> with one male goat for a purification offering to make an atonement for you;

<sup>6</sup> this is in addition to the monthly burnt offering and its grain offering, and the daily burnt offering with its grain offering and their drink offerings as prescribed, as a sweet aroma, a sacrifice made by fire to the LORD.

The Day of Atonement

<sup>7</sup> “On the tenth day of this seventh month you are to have a holy assembly. You must humble yourselves; you must not do any work on it.

<sup>8</sup> But you must offer a burnt offering as a pleasing aroma to the LORD, one young bull, one ram, and seven lambs one year old, all of them without blemish.

<sup>10</sup> and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs,

<sup>11</sup> along with one male goat for a purification offering, in addition to the purification offering for atonement and the continual burnt offering with its grain offering and their drink offerings.

The Feast of Temporary Shelters

<sup>12</sup> “On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you are to have a holy assembly; you must do no ordinary work, and you must keep a festival to the LORD | strong="H3069" for seven days.

<sup>13</sup> You must offer a burnt offering, an offering made by fire as a pleasing aroma to the LORD: thirteen young bulls, two rams, and fourteen lambs each one year old, all of them without blemish.

<sup>14</sup> Their grain offering must be of finely ground flour mixed with olive oil, three-tenths of an ephah for each of the thirteen bulls, two-tenths of an ephah for each of the two rams,

<sup>17</sup> “On the second day you must offer twelve young bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs one year old, all without blemish,

<sup>19</sup> along with one male goat for a purification offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering with its grain offering and their drink offerings.

<sup>20</sup> “On the third day you must offer eleven bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs one year old, all without blemish,

<sup>21</sup> and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number as prescribed,

<sup>22</sup> along with one male goat for a purification offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering with its grain offering and its drink offering.

<sup>23</sup> “On the fourth day you must offer ten bulls, two rams, and fourteen lambs one year old, all without blemish,

<sup>24</sup> and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number as prescribed,

<sup>25</sup> along with one male goat for a purification offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering with its grain offering and its drink offering.

<sup>26</sup> “On the fifth day you must offer nine bulls, two rams, and fourteen lambs one year old, all without blemish,

<sup>28</sup> along with one male goat for a purification offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering with its grain offering and its drink offering.

<sup>29</sup> “On the sixth day you must offer eight bulls, two rams, and fourteen lambs one year old, all without blemish,

<sup>30</sup> and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number as prescribed,

<sup>31</sup> along with one male goat for a purification offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering with its grain offering and its drink offering.

<sup>32</sup> “On the seventh day you must offer seven bulls, two rams, and fourteen lambs one year old, all without blemish,

<sup>33</sup> and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, according to their number as prescribed,

<sup>34</sup> along with one male goat for a purification offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering with its grain offering and its drink offering.

<sup>35</sup> “On the eighth day you are to have a holy assembly; you must do no ordinary work on it.

<sup>36</sup> But you must offer a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, as a pleasing aroma to the LORD, one bull, one ram, seven lambs one year old, all of them without blemish,

<sup>37</sup> and with their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bull, for the ram, and for the lambs, according to their number as prescribed,

<sup>38</sup> along with one male goat for a purification offering, in addition to the continual burnt offering with its grain offering and its drink offering.

<sup>39</sup> “These things you must present to the LORD at your appointed times, in addition to your vows and your freewill offerings, as your burnt offerings, your grain offerings, your drink offerings, and your peace offerings.”

<sup>40</sup> So Moses told the Israelites everything, just as the LORD had commanded him.

30

<sup>2</sup> If a man makes a vow to the LORD | strong="H3069" or takes an oath of binding obligation on himself, he must not break his word, but must do whatever he has promised.

Vows Made by Single Women

<sup>3</sup> “If a young woman who is still living in her father’s house makes a vow to the LORD or places herself under an obligation,

<sup>4</sup> and her father hears of her vow or the obligation to which she has pledged herself, and her father remains silent about her, then all her vows will stand, and every obligation to which she has pledged herself will stand.

<sup>5</sup> But if her father overrules her when he hears about it, then none of her vows or her obligations which she has pledged for herself will stand. And the LORD will release her from it, because her father overruled her.

Vows Made by Married Women

<sup>6</sup> “And if she marries a husband while under a vow, or she uttered anything impulsively by which she has pledged herself,

<sup>7</sup> and her husband hears about it, but remains silent about her when he hears about it, then her vows will stand and her obligations which she has pledged for herself will stand.

<sup>8</sup> But if when her husband hears it he overrules her, then he will nullify the vow she has taken, and whatever she uttered impulsively which she has pledged for herself. And the LORD will release her from it.

Vows Made by Widows

<sup>9</sup> “But every vow of a widow or of a divorced woman which she has pledged for herself will remain intact.

<sup>10</sup> If she made the vow in her husband’s house or put herself under obligation with an oath, <sup>11</sup> and her husband heard about it, but remained silent about her, and did not overrule her, then all her vows will stand, and every obligation which she pledged for herself will stand.

<sup>12</sup> But if her husband clearly nullifies them when he hears them, then whatever she says by way of vows or obligations will not stand. Her husband has made them void, and the LORD will release her from them.

<sup>13</sup> “Any vow or sworn obligation that would bring affliction to her, her husband can confirm or nullify.

<sup>14</sup> But if her husband remains completely silent about her from day to day, he thus confirms all her vows or all her obligations which she is under; he confirms them because he remained silent about when he heard them.

<sup>15</sup> But if he should nullify them after he has heard them, then he will bear her iniquity.”

<sup>16</sup> These are the statutes that the LORD commanded Moses, relating to a man and his wife, and a father and his young daughter who is still living in her father’s house.

31

<sup>2</sup> “Exact vengeance for the Israelites on the Midianites – after that you will be gathered to your people.”

<sup>3</sup> So Moses spoke to the people: “Arm men from among you for the war, to attack the Midianites and to execute the LORD’s vengeance on Midian.

<sup>4</sup> You must send to the battle a thousand men from every tribe throughout all the tribes of Israel.”

<sup>5</sup> So a thousand from every tribe, twelve thousand armed for battle in all, were provided out of the thousands of Israel.

Campaign Against the Midianites

<sup>6</sup> So Moses sent them to the war, one thousand from every tribe, with Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest, who was in charge of the holy articles and the signal trumpets.

<sup>8</sup> They killed the kings of Midian in addition to those slain – Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba – five Midianite kings. They also killed Balaam son of Beor with the sword.

<sup>12</sup> They brought the captives and the spoils and the plunder to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the Israelite community, to the camp on the plains of Moab, along the Jordan River across from Jericho.

<sup>13</sup> Moses, Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders of the community went out to meet them outside the camp.

The Death of the Midianite Women

<sup>14</sup> But Moses was furious with the officers of the army, the commanders over thousands and commanders over hundreds, who had come from service in the war.

<sup>15</sup> Moses said to them, "Have you allowed all the women to live?"

<sup>17</sup> Now therefore kill every boy, and kill every woman who has had sexual intercourse with a man.

<sup>18</sup> But all the young women who have not had sexual intercourse with a man will be yours.

Purification After Battle

<sup>19</sup> "Any of you who has killed anyone or touched any of the dead, remain outside the camp for seven days; purify yourselves and your captives on the third day, and on the seventh day.

<sup>20</sup> You must purify each garment and everything that is made of skin, everything made of goat's hair, and everything made of wood."

<sup>21</sup> Then Eleazar the priest said to the men of war who had gone into the battle, "This is the ordinance of the law that the LORD | strong="H3069" commanded Moses:

<sup>22</sup> 'Only the gold, the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin, and the lead,

<sup>23</sup> everything that may stand the fire, you are to pass through the fire, and it will be ceremonially clean, but it must still be purified with the water of purification. Anything that cannot withstand the fire you must pass through the water.

<sup>24</sup> You must wash your clothes on the seventh day, and you will be ceremonially clean, and afterward you may enter the camp.' "

The Distribution of Spoils

<sup>25</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>26</sup> "You and Eleazar the priest, and all the family leaders of the community, take the sum of the plunder that was captured, both people and animals.

<sup>27</sup> Divide the plunder into two parts, one for those who took part in the war – who went out to battle – and the other for all the community.

<sup>28</sup> "You must exact a tribute for the LORD from the fighting men who went out to battle: one life out of five hundred, from the people, the cattle, and from the donkeys and the sheep.

<sup>29</sup> You are to take it from their half-share and give it to Eleazar the priest for a raised offering to the LORD.

<sup>30</sup> From the Israelites' half-share you are to take one portion out of fifty of the people, the cattle, the donkeys, and the sheep – from every kind of animal – and you are to give them to the Levites, who are responsible for the care of the LORD's tabernacle."

<sup>35</sup> and 32,000 young women who had never had sexual intercourse with a man.
<sup>36</sup> The half-portion of those who went to war numbered 337,500 sheep;
<sup>38</sup> The cattle numbered 36,000; the LORD's tribute was 72.
<sup>39</sup> The donkeys were 30,500, of which the LORD's tribute was 61.
<sup>40</sup> The people were 16,000, of which the LORD's tribute was 32 people.
<sup>41</sup> So Moses gave the tribute, which was the LORD's raised offering, to Eleazar the priest, as the LORD commanded Moses.
<sup>42</sup> From the Israelites' half-share that Moses had separated from the fighting men, <sup>43</sup> there were 337,500 sheep from the portion belonging to the community,
<sup>44</sup> 36,000 cattle,
<sup>47</sup> From the Israelites' share Moses took one of every fifty people and animals and gave them to the Levites who were responsible for the care of the LORD's tabernacle, just as the LORD commanded Moses.
<sup>48</sup> Then the officers who were over the thousands of the army, the commanders over thousands and the commanders over hundreds, approached Moses <sup>49</sup> and said to him, "Your servants have taken a count of the men who were in the battle, who were under our authority, and not one is missing.
<sup>50</sup> So we have brought as an offering for the LORD what each man found: gold ornaments, armlets, bracelets, signet rings, earrings, and necklaces, to make atonement for ourselves before the LORD."
<sup>51</sup> Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from them, all of it in the form of ornaments.
<sup>52</sup> All the gold of the offering they offered up to the LORD from the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds weighed 16,750 shekels.
<sup>54</sup> So Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds and brought it into the tent of meeting as a memorial for the Israelites before the LORD.

32

<sup>1</sup> Now the Reubenites and the Gadites possessed a very large number of cattle. When they saw that the lands of Jazer and Gilead were ideal for cattle,
<sup>2</sup> the Gadites and the Reubenites came and addressed Moses, Eleazar the priest, and the leaders of the community. They said,
<sup>4</sup> the land that the LORD subdued before the community of Israel, is ideal for cattle, and your servants have cattle."
<sup>5</sup> So they said, "If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants for our inheritance. Do not have us cross the Jordan River."

Moses' Response

<sup>6</sup> Moses said to the Gadites and the Reubenites, "Must your brothers go to war while you remain here?
<sup>7</sup> Why do you frustrate the intent of the Israelites to cross over into the land which the LORD has given them?
<sup>8</sup> Your fathers did the same thing when I sent them from Kadesh Barnea to see the land.
<sup>9</sup> When they went up to the Eshcol Valley and saw the land, they frustrated the intent of the Israelites so that they did not enter the land that the LORD had given them.

<sup>10</sup> So the anger of the LORD was kindled that day, and he swore,

<sup>11</sup> ‘Because they have not followed me wholeheartedly, not one of the men twenty years old and upward who came from Egypt will see the land that I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob,

<sup>12</sup> except Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, and Joshua son of Nun, for they followed the LORD wholeheartedly.’

<sup>13</sup> So the LORD’s anger was kindled against the Israelites, and he made them wander in the wilderness for forty years, until all that generation that had done wickedly before the LORD was finished.

<sup>15</sup> For if you turn away from following him, he will once again abandon them in the wilderness, and you will be the reason for their destruction.”

The Offer of the Reubenites and Gadites

<sup>16</sup> Then they came very close to him and said, “We will build sheep folds here for our flocks and cities for our families,

<sup>17</sup> but we will maintain ourselves in armed readiness and go before the Israelites until whenever we have brought them to their place. Our descendants will be living in fortified towns as a protection against the inhabitants of the land.

<sup>18</sup> We will not return to our homes until every Israelite has his inheritance.

<sup>19</sup> For we will not accept any inheritance on the other side of the Jordan River and beyond, because our inheritance has come to us on this eastern side of the Jordan.”

<sup>20</sup> Then Moses replied, “If you will do this thing, and if you will arm yourselves for battle before the LORD,

<sup>21</sup> and if all your armed men cross the Jordan before the LORD until he drives out his enemies from his presence

<sup>22</sup> and the land is subdued before the LORD, then afterward you may return and be free of your obligation to the LORD and to Israel. This land will then be your possession in the LORD’s sight.

<sup>23</sup> “But if you do not do this, then look, you will have sinned against the LORD. And know that your sin will find you out.

<sup>24</sup> So build cities for your descendants and pens for your sheep, but do what you have said you would do.”

<sup>25</sup> So the Gadites and the Reubenites replied to Moses, “Your servants will do as my lord commands.

<sup>26</sup> Our children, our wives, our flocks, and all our livestock will be there in the cities of Gilead,

<sup>27</sup> but your servants will cross over, every man armed for war, to do battle in the LORD’s presence, just as my lord says.”

<sup>28</sup> So Moses gave orders about them to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua son of Nun, and to the heads of the families of the Israelite tribes.

<sup>29</sup> Moses said to them: “If the Gadites and the Reubenites cross the Jordan with you, each one equipped for battle in the LORD’s presence, and you conquer the land, then you must allot them the territory of Gilead as their possession.

<sup>30</sup> But if they do not cross over with you armed, they must receive possessions among you in Canaan.”

<sup>31</sup> Then the Gadites and the Reubenites answered, “Your servants will do what the LORD has spoken.

<sup>32</sup> We will cross armed in the LORD's presence into the land of Canaan, and then the possession of our inheritance that we inherit will be ours on this side of the Jordan River."

Land Assignment

<sup>33</sup> So Moses gave to the Gadites, the Reubenites, and to half the tribe of Manasseh son of Joseph the realm of King Sihon of the Amorites, and the realm of King Og of Bashan, the entire land with its cities and the territory surrounding them.

<sup>40</sup> So Moses gave Gilead to Machir, son of Manasseh, and he lived there.

<sup>41</sup> Now Jair son of Manasseh went and captured their small towns and named them Havvoth Jair.

<sup>42</sup> Then Nobah went and captured Kenath and its villages and called it Nobah after his own name.

33

<sup>4</sup> Now the Egyptians were burying all their firstborn, whom the LORD had killed among them; the LORD also executed judgments on their gods.

<sup>8</sup> They traveled from Pi-hahiroth, and passed through the middle of the sea into the wilderness, and went three days' journey in the wilderness of Etham, and camped in Marah.

<sup>9</sup> They traveled from Marah and came to Elim; in Elim there are twelve fountains of water and seventy palm trees, so they camped there.

Wanderings in the Wilderness

Wanderings from Kadesh to Moab

<sup>38</sup> Aaron the priest ascended Mount Hor at the command of the LORD, and he died there in the fortieth year after the Israelites had come out of the land of Egypt on the first day of the fifth month.

At the Border of Canaan

<sup>50</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, across from Jericho. He said:
<sup>51</sup> "Speak to the Israelites and tell them, 'When you have crossed the Jordan into the land of Canaan, <sup>52</sup> you must drive out all the inhabitants of the land before you. Destroy all their carved images, all their molten images, and demolish their high places.

<sup>53</sup> You must dispossess the inhabitants of the land and live in it, for I have given you the land to possess it.

<sup>54</sup> You must divide the land by lot for an inheritance among your families. To a larger group you must give a larger inheritance, and to a smaller group you must give a smaller inheritance. Everyone's inheritance must be in the place where his lot falls. You must inherit according to your ancestral tribes.

<sup>55</sup> But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land before you, then those whom you allow to remain will be irritants in your eyes and thorns in your side, and will cause you trouble in the land where you will be living.

<sup>56</sup> And what I intended to do to them I will do to you."

34

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses:

<sup>2</sup> "Give these instructions to the Israelites, and tell them: 'When you enter Canaan, the land that has been assigned to you as an inheritance, the land of Canaan with its borders,

<sup>3</sup> your southern border will extend from the wilderness of Zin along the Edomite border, and your southern border will run eastward to the extremity of the Salt Sea,

<sup>4</sup> and then the border will turn from the south to the Scorpion Ascent, continue to Zin, and then its direction will be from the south to Kadesh Barnea. Then it will go to Hazar Addar and pass over to Azmon.

<sup>5</sup> There the border will turn from Azmon to the Brook of Egypt, and then its direction is to the sea.

The Western Border of the Land

<sup>6</sup> "And for a western border you will have the Great Sea. This will be your western border.

The Northern Border of the Land

<sup>7</sup> "And this will be your northern border: From the Great Sea you will draw a line to Mount Hor;

<sup>8</sup> from Mount Hor you will draw a line to Lebo Hamath, and the direction of the border will be to Zedad.

<sup>9</sup> The border will continue to Ziphron, and its direction will be to Hazar Enan. This will be your northern border.

The Eastern Border of the Land

<sup>10</sup> "For your eastern border you will draw a line from Hazar Enan to Shepham.

<sup>11</sup> The border will run down from Shepham to Riblah, on the east side of Ain, and the border will descend and reach the eastern side of the Sea of Chinnereth.

<sup>12</sup> Then the border will continue down the Jordan River and its direction will be to the Salt Sea. This will be your land by its borders that surround it.' "

<sup>13</sup> Then Moses commanded the Israelites: "This is the land which you will inherit by lot, which the LORD has commanded to be given to the nine and a half tribes, <sup>14</sup> because the tribe of the Reubenites by their families, the tribe of the Gadites by their families, and half of the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance.

<sup>15</sup> The two and a half tribes have received their inheritance on this side of the Jordan, east of Jericho, toward the sunrise."

Appointed Officials

<sup>16</sup> The LORD said to Moses:

<sup>17</sup> "These are the names of the men who are to allocate the land to you as an inheritance: Eleazar the priest and Joshua son of Nun.

<sup>18</sup> You must take one leader from every tribe to assist in allocating the land as an inheritance.

35

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses in the Moabite plains by the Jordan near Jericho. He said:

<sup>2</sup> "Instruct the Israelites to give the Levites towns to live in from the inheritance the Israelites will possess. You must also give the Levites grazing land around the towns.

<sup>3</sup> Thus they will have towns in which to live, and their grazing lands will be for their cattle, for their possessions, and for all their animals.

<sup>4</sup> The grazing lands around the towns that you will give to the Levites must extend to a distance of 500 yards from the town wall.

<sup>5</sup> "You must measure from outside the wall of the town on the east 1,000 yards, and on the south side 1,000 yards, and on the west side 1,000 yards, and on the north side 1,000 yards, with the town in the middle. This territory must belong to them as grazing land for the towns.

<sup>6</sup> Now from these towns that you will give to the Levites you must select six towns of refuge to which a person who has killed someone may flee. And you must give them forty-two other towns.

<sup>7</sup> "So the total of the towns you will give the Levites is forty-eight. You must give these together with their grazing lands.

<sup>8</sup> The towns you will give must be from the possession of the Israelites. From the larger tribes you must give more; and from the smaller tribes fewer. Each must contribute some of its own towns to the Levites in proportion to the inheritance allocated to each.

The Cities of Refuge

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD |strong="H3069" spoke to Moses:

<sup>10</sup> "Speak to the Israelites and tell them, 'When you cross over the Jordan River into the land of Canaan, <sup>11</sup> you must then designate some towns as towns of refuge for you, to which a person who has killed someone unintentionally may flee.

<sup>12</sup> And they must stand as your towns of refuge from the avenger in order that the killer may not die until he has stood trial before the community.

<sup>13</sup> These towns that you must give shall be your six towns for refuge.

<sup>14</sup> "You must give three towns on this side of the Jordan, and you must give three towns in the land of Canaan; they must be towns of refuge.

<sup>15</sup> These six towns will be places of refuge for the Israelites, and for the foreigner, and for the settler among them, so that anyone who kills any person accidentally may flee there.

<sup>16</sup> “But if he hits someone with an iron tool so that he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer must surely be put to death.

<sup>17</sup> If he strikes him by throwing a stone large enough that he could die, and he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer must surely be put to death.

<sup>18</sup> Or if he strikes him with a wooden hand weapon so that he could die, and he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer must surely be put to death.

<sup>19</sup> The avenger of blood himself must kill the murderer; when he meets him, he must kill him.

<sup>20</sup> “But if he strikes him out of hatred or throws something at him intentionally so that he dies, <sup>21</sup> or with enmity he strikes him with his hand and he dies, the one who struck him must surely be put to death, for he is a murderer. The avenger of blood must kill the murderer when he meets him.

<sup>22</sup> “But if he strikes him suddenly, without enmity, or throws anything at him unintentionally,

<sup>23</sup> or with any stone large enough that a man could die, without seeing him, and throws it at him, and he dies, even though he was not his enemy nor sought his harm,

<sup>24</sup> then the community must judge between the slayer and the avenger of blood according to these decisions.

<sup>25</sup> The community must deliver the slayer out of the hand of the avenger of blood, and the community must restore him to the town of refuge to which he fled, and he must live there until the death of the high priest, who was anointed with the consecrated oil.

<sup>26</sup> But if the slayer at any time goes outside the boundary of the town to which he had fled,

<sup>27</sup> and the avenger of blood finds him outside the borders of the town of refuge, and the avenger of blood kills the slayer, he will not be guilty of blood,

<sup>28</sup> because the slayer should have stayed in his town of refuge until the death of the high priest. But after the death of the high priest, the slayer may return to the land of his possessions.

<sup>29</sup> So these things must be a statutory ordinance for you throughout your generations, in all the places where you live.

<sup>30</sup> “Whoever kills any person, the murderer must be put to death by the testimony of witnesses; but one witness cannot testify against any person to cause him to be put to death.

<sup>31</sup> Moreover, you must not accept a ransom for the life of a murderer who is guilty of death; he must surely be put to death.

<sup>32</sup> And you must not accept a ransom for anyone who has fled to a town of refuge, to allow him to return home and live on his own land before the death of the high priest.

<sup>33</sup> “You must not pollute the land where you live, for blood defiles the land, and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed there, except by the blood of the person who shed it.

<sup>34</sup> Therefore do not defile the land that you will inhabit, in which I live, for I the LORD live among the Israelites.”

36

<sup>1</sup> Then the heads of the family groups of the Gileadites, the descendant of Machir, the descendant of Manasseh, who were from the Josephite families, approached and spoke before Moses and the leaders who were the heads of the Israelite families.

<sup>2</sup> They said, “The LORD commanded my lord to give the land as an inheritance by lot to the Israelites; and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters.

<sup>3</sup> Now if they should be married to one of the men from another Israelite tribe, their inheritance would be taken from the inheritance of our fathers and added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they marry. As a result, it will be taken from the lot of our inheritance.

<sup>4</sup> And when the Jubilee of the Israelites is to take place, their inheritance will be added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they marry. So their inheritance will be taken away from the inheritance of our ancestral tribe.”

Moses' Decision

<sup>5</sup> Then Moses gave a ruling to the Israelites by the word of the LORD: “What the tribe of the Josephites is saying is right.

<sup>8</sup> And every daughter who possesses an inheritance from any of the tribes of the Israelites must become the wife of a man from any family in her father's tribe, so that every Israelite may retain the inheritance of his fathers.

<sup>11</sup> For the daughters of Zelophehad – Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah – were married to the sons of their uncles.

<sup>12</sup> They were married into the families of the Manassehites, the descendants of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of their father's family.

<sup>13</sup> These are the commandments and the decisions that the LORD commanded the Israelites through the authority of Moses, on the plains of Moab by the Jordan River opposite Jericho.

Deuteronomy

The Covenant Setting

<sup>3</sup> However, it was not until the first day of the eleventh month of the fortieth year that Moses addressed the Israelites just as the LORD had instructed him to do.

<sup>4</sup> This took place after the defeat of King Sihon of the Amorites, whose capital was in Heshbon, and King Og of Bashan, whose capital was in Ashtaroth, specifically in Edrei.

<sup>5</sup> So it was in the Transjordan, in Moab, that Moses began to deliver these words:

Events at Horeb

<sup>6</sup> The LORD our God spoke to us at Horeb and said, “You have stayed in the area of this mountain long enough.

<sup>7</sup> Get up now, resume your journey, heading for the Amorite hill country, to all its areas including the arid country, the highlands, the Shephelah, the Negev, and the coastal plain – all of Canaan and Lebanon as far as the Great River, that is, the Euphrates.

<sup>8</sup> Look! I have already given the land to you. Go, occupy the territory that I, the LORD, promised to give to your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and to their descendants.”

<sup>9</sup> I also said to you at that time, “I am no longer able to sustain you by myself.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD your God has increased your population to the point that you are now as numerous as the very stars of the sky.

<sup>11</sup> Indeed, may the LORD, the God of your ancestors, make you a thousand times more numerous than you are now, blessing you just as he said he would!

<sup>12</sup> But how can I alone bear up under the burden of your hardship and strife?

<sup>13</sup> Select wise and practical men, those known among your tribes, whom I may appoint as your leaders.”

<sup>14</sup> You replied to me that what I had said to you was good.

<sup>15</sup> So I chose as your tribal leaders wise and well-known men, placing them over you as administrators of groups of thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens, and also as other tribal officials.

<sup>16</sup> I furthermore admonished your judges at that time that they should pay attention to issues among your fellow citizens and judge fairly, whether between one citizen and another or a citizen and a resident foreigner.

<sup>17</sup> They must not discriminate in judgment, but hear the lowly and the great alike. Nor should they be intimidated by human beings, for judgment belongs to God. If the matter being adjudicated is too difficult for them, they should bring it before me for a hearing.

Instructions at Kadesh Barnea

<sup>18</sup> So I instructed you at that time regarding everything you should do.

<sup>19</sup> Then we left Horeb and passed through all that immense, forbidding wilderness that you saw on the way to the Amorite hill country as the LORD our God had commanded us to do, finally arriving at Kadesh Barnea.

<sup>20</sup> Then I said to you, “You have come to the Amorite hill country which the LORD our God is about to give us.

<sup>21</sup> Look, he has placed the land in front of you! Go up, take possession of it, just as the LORD, the God of your ancestors, said to do. Do not be afraid or discouraged!”

<sup>22</sup> So all of you approached me and said, “Let’s send some men ahead of us to scout out the land and bring us back word as to how we should attack it and what the cities are like there.”

<sup>23</sup> I thought this was a good idea, so I sent twelve men from among you, one from each tribe.

<sup>25</sup> Then they took some of the produce of the land and carried it back down to us. They also brought a report to us, saying, “The land that the LORD our God is about to give us is good.”

Disobedience at Kadesh Barnea

<sup>26</sup> You were not willing to go up, however, but instead rebelled against the LORD your God.

<sup>27</sup> You complained among yourselves privately and said, “Because the LORD hates us he brought us from Egypt to deliver us over to the Amorites so they could destroy us!

<sup>28</sup> What is going to happen to us? Our brothers have drained away our courage by describing people who are more numerous and taller than we are, and great cities whose defenses appear to be as high as heaven itself! Moreover, they said they saw Anakites there.”

<sup>29</sup> So I responded to you, “Do not be terrified of them!

<sup>30</sup> The LORD your God is about to go ahead of you; he will fight for you, just as you saw him do in Egypt

<sup>31</sup> and in the desert, where you saw him carrying you along like a man carries his son. This he did everywhere you went until you came to this very place.”

<sup>32</sup> However, through all this you did not have confidence in the LORD your God, <sup>33</sup> the one who was constantly going before you to find places for you to set up camp. He appeared by fire at night and cloud by day, to show you the way you ought to go.

Judgment at Kadesh Barnea

<sup>34</sup> When the LORD heard you, he became angry and made this vow:

<sup>35</sup> “Not a single person of this evil generation will see the good land that I promised to give to your ancestors!

<sup>36</sup> The exception is Caleb son of Jephunneh; he will see it and I will give him and his descendants the territory on which he has walked, because he has wholeheartedly followed me.”

<sup>37</sup> As for me, the LORD was also angry with me on your account. He said, “You also will not be able to go there.

<sup>38</sup> However, Joshua son of Nun, your assistant, will go. Encourage him, because he will enable Israel to inherit the land.

<sup>39</sup> Also, your infants, who you thought would die on the way, and your children, who as yet do not know good from bad, will go there; I will give them the land and they will possess it.

<sup>40</sup> But as for you, turn back and head for the desert by the way to the Red Sea.”

Unsuccessful Conquest of Canaan

<sup>41</sup> Then you responded to me and admitted, “We have sinned against the LORD. We will now go up and fight as the LORD our God has told us to do.” So you each put on your battle gear and prepared to go up to the hill country.

<sup>42</sup> But the LORD told me: “Tell them this: ‘Do not go up and fight, because I will not be with you and you will be defeated by your enemies.’ ”

<sup>43</sup> I spoke to you, but you did not listen. Instead you rebelled against the LORD and recklessly went up to the hill country.

<sup>44</sup> The Amorite inhabitants of that area confronted you and chased you like a swarm of bees, striking you down from Seir as far as Hormah.

<sup>45</sup> Then you came back and wept before the LORD, but he paid no attention to you whatsoever.

<sup>46</sup> Therefore, you remained at Kadesh for a long time – indeed, for the full time.

2

<sup>2</sup> At this point the LORD said to me,

<sup>4</sup> Instruct these people as follows: ‘You are about to cross the border of your relatives the descendants of Esau, who inhabit Seir. They will be afraid of you, so watch yourselves carefully.

<sup>5</sup> Do not be hostile toward them, because I am not giving you any of their land, not even a footprint, for I have given Mount Seir as an inheritance for Esau.

<sup>7</sup> All along the way I, the LORD your God, have blessed your every effort. I have been attentive to your travels through this great wasteland. These forty years I have been with you; you have lacked for nothing.’ ”

<sup>8</sup> So we turned away from our relatives the descendants of Esau, the inhabitants of Seir, turning from the desert route, from Elat and Ezion Geber, and traveling the way of the Moab wastelands.

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD said to me, “Do not harass Moab and provoke them to war, for I will not give you any of their land as your territory. This is because I have given Ar to the descendants of Lot as their possession.

<sup>10</sup> (The Emmites used to live there, a people as powerful, numerous, and tall as the Anakites.

<sup>11</sup> These people, as well as the Anakites, are also considered Rephaites; the Moabites call them Emmites.

<sup>12</sup> Previously the Horites lived in Seir but the descendants of Esau dispossessed and destroyed them and settled in their place, just as Israel did to the land it came to possess, the land the LORD gave them.)

<sup>13</sup> Now, get up and cross the Wadi Zered.” So we did so.

<sup>14</sup> Now the length of time it took for us to go from Kadesh Barnea to the crossing of Wadi Zered was thirty-eight years, time for all the military men of that generation to die, just as the LORD had vowed to them.

<sup>15</sup> Indeed, it was the very hand of the LORD that eliminated them from within the camp until they were all gone.

Instructions Concerning Ammon

<sup>16</sup> So it was that after all the military men had been eliminated from the community,

<sup>17</sup> the LORD said to me,

<sup>18</sup> “Today you are going to cross the border of Moab, that is, of Ar.

<sup>19</sup> But when you come close to the Ammonites, do not harass or provoke them because I am not giving you any of the Ammonites’ land as your possession; I have already given it to Lot’s descendants as their possession.

<sup>20</sup> (That also is considered to be a land of the Rephaites. The Rephaites lived there originally; the Ammonites call them Zamzummites.

<sup>21</sup> They are a people as powerful, numerous, and tall as the Anakites. But the LORD destroyed the Rephaites in advance of the Ammonites, so they dispossessed them and settled down in their place.

<sup>22</sup> This is exactly what he did for the descendants of Esau who lived in Seir when he destroyed the Horites before them so that they could dispossess them and settle in their area to this very day.

<sup>23</sup> As for the Avvites who lived in settlements as far west as Gaza, Caphtorites who came from Crete destroyed them and settled down in their place.)

<sup>24</sup> Get up, make your way across Wadi Arnon. Look! I have already delivered over to you Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land. Go ahead! Take it! Engage him in war!

<sup>25</sup> This very day I will begin to fill all the people of the earth with dread and to terrify them when they hear about you. They will shiver and shake in anticipation of your approach.”

Defeat of Sihon, King of Heshbon

<sup>26</sup> Then I sent messengers from the Kedemoth Desert to King Sihon of Heshbon with an offer of peace:

<sup>27</sup> “Let me pass through your land; I will keep strictly to the roadway. I will not turn aside to the right or the left.

<sup>28</sup> Sell me food for cash so that I can eat and sell me water to drink. Just allow me to go through on foot,

<sup>29</sup> just as the descendants of Esau who live at Seir and the Moabites who live in Ar did for me, until I cross the Jordan to the land the LORD our God is giving us.”

<sup>30</sup> But King Sihon of Heshbon was unwilling to allow us to pass near him because the LORD our God had made him obstinate and stubborn so that he might deliver him over to you this very day.

<sup>33</sup> the LORD our God delivered him over to us and we struck him down, along with his sons and everyone else.

<sup>36</sup> From Aroer, which is at the edge of Wadi Arnon (it is the city in the wadi), all the way to Gilead there was not a town able to resist us – the LORD our God gave them all to us.

<sup>37</sup> However, you did not approach the land of the Ammonites, the Wadi Jabbok, the cities of the hill country, or any place else forbidden by the LORD our God.

3

<sup>1</sup> Next we set out on the route to Bashan, but King Og of Bashan and his whole army came out to meet us in battle at Edrei.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD, however, said to me, “Don’t be afraid of him because I have already given him, his whole army, and his land to you. You will do to him exactly what you did to King Sihon of the Amorites who lived in Heshbon.”

<sup>3</sup> So the LORD our God did indeed give over to us King Og of Bashan and his whole army and we struck them down until not a single survivor was left.

<sup>4</sup> We captured all his cities at that time – there was not a town we did not take from them – sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the dominion of Og in Bashan.

<sup>5</sup> All of these cities were fortified by high walls, gates, and locking bars; in addition there were a great many open villages.

<sup>7</sup> But all the livestock and plunder from the cities we kept for ourselves.

<sup>8</sup> So at that time we took the land of the two Amorite kings in the Transjordan from Wadi Arnon to Mount Hermon

<sup>11</sup> Only King Og of Bashan was left of the remaining Rephaites. (It is noteworthy that his sarcophagus was made of iron. Does it not, indeed, still remain in Rabbath of the Ammonites? It is thirteen and a half feet long and six feet wide according to standard measure.)

Distribution of the Transjordanian Allotments

<sup>12</sup> This is the land we brought under our control at that time: The territory extending from Aroer by the Wadi Arnon and half the Gilead hill country with its cities I gave to the Reubenites and Gadites.

<sup>13</sup> The rest of Gilead and all of Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to half the tribe of Manasseh. (All the region of Argob, that is, all Bashan, is called the land of Rephaim.

<sup>14</sup> Jair, son of Manasseh, took all the Argob region as far as the border with the Geshurites and Maacathites (namely Bashan) and called it by his name, Havvoth-Jair, which it retains to this very day.)

<sup>16</sup> To the Reubenites and Gadites I allocated the territory extending from Gilead as far as Wadi Arnon (the exact middle of the wadi was a boundary) all the way to the Wadi Jabbok, the Ammonite border.

<sup>17</sup> The Arabah and the Jordan River were also a border, from the sea of Chinnereth to the sea of the Arabah (that is, the Salt Sea), beneath the watershed of Pisgah to the east.

Instructions to the Transjordanian Tribes

<sup>18</sup> At that time I instructed you as follows: “The LORD your God has given you this land for your possession. You warriors are to cross over before your fellow Israelites equipped for battle.

<sup>19</sup> But your wives, children, and livestock (of which I know you have many) may remain in the cities I have given you.

<sup>20</sup> You must fight until the LORD gives your countrymen victory as he did you and they take possession of the land that the LORD your God is giving them on the other side of the Jordan River. Then each of you may return to his own territory that I have given you.”

<sup>21</sup> I also commanded Joshua at the same time, “You have seen everything the LORD your God did to these two kings; he will do the same to all the kingdoms where you are going.

<sup>22</sup> Do not be afraid of them, for the LORD your God will personally fight for you.”

Denial to Moses of the Promised Land

<sup>23</sup> Moreover, at that time I pleaded with the LORD,

<sup>24</sup> “O, Lord GOD, you have begun to show me your greatness and strength. (What god in heaven or earth can rival your works and mighty deeds?)

<sup>25</sup> Let me please cross over to see the good land on the other side of the Jordan River – this good hill country and the Lebanon!”

<sup>26</sup> But the LORD was angry at me because of you and would not listen to me. Instead, he said to me, “Enough of that! Do not speak to me anymore about this matter.

<sup>27</sup> Go up to the top of Pisgah and take a good look to the west, north, south, and east, for you will not be allowed to cross the Jordan.

<sup>28</sup> Commission Joshua, and encourage and strengthen him, because he will lead these people over and will enable them to inherit the land you will see.”

<sup>1</sup> Now, Israel, pay attention to the statutes and ordinances I am about to teach you, so that you might live and go on to enter and take possession of the land that the LORD, the God of your ancestors, is giving you.

<sup>2</sup> Do not add a thing to what I command you nor subtract from it, so that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God that I am delivering to you.

<sup>3</sup> You have witnessed what the LORD did at Baal Peor, how he eradicated from your midst everyone who followed Baal Peor.

<sup>4</sup> But you who remained faithful to the LORD your God are still alive to this very day, every one of you.

<sup>5</sup> Look! I have taught you statutes and ordinances just as the LORD my God told me to do, so that you might carry them out in the land you are about to enter and possess.

<sup>6</sup> So be sure to do them, because this will testify of your wise understanding to the people who will learn of all these statutes and say, “Indeed, this great nation is a very wise people.”

<sup>7</sup> In fact, what other great nation has a god so near to them like the LORD our God whenever we call on him?

<sup>8</sup> And what other great nation has statutes and ordinances as just as this whole law that I am about to share with you today?

Reminder of the Horeb Covenant

<sup>9</sup> Again, however, pay very careful attention, lest you forget the things you have seen and disregard them for the rest of your life; instead teach them to your children and grandchildren.

<sup>10</sup> You stood before the LORD your God at Horeb and he said to me, “Assemble the people before me so that I can tell them my commands. Then they will learn to revere me all the days they live in the land, and they will instruct their children.”

<sup>12</sup> Then the LORD spoke to you from the middle of the fire; you heard speech but you could not see anything – only a voice was heard.

<sup>13</sup> And he revealed to you the covenant he has commanded you to keep, the ten commandments, writing them on two stone tablets.

<sup>14</sup> Moreover, at that same time the LORD commanded me to teach you statutes and ordinances for you to keep in the land which you are about to enter and possess.

The Nature of Israel's God

<sup>15</sup> Be very careful, then, because you saw no form at the time the LORD spoke to you at Horeb from the middle of the fire.

<sup>16</sup> I say this so you will not corrupt yourselves by making an image in the form of any kind of figure. This includes the likeness of a human male or female,

<sup>17</sup> any kind of land animal, any bird that flies in the sky,

<sup>18</sup> anything that crawls on the ground, or any fish in the deep waters of the earth.

<sup>19</sup> When you look up to the sky and see the sun, moon, and stars – the whole heavenly creation – you must not be seduced to worship and serve them, for the LORD your God has assigned them to all the people of the world.

<sup>20</sup> You, however, the LORD has selected and brought from Egypt, that iron-smelting furnace, to be his special people as you are today.

<sup>21</sup> But the LORD became angry with me because of you and vowed that I would never cross the Jordan nor enter the good land that he is about to give you.

<sup>22</sup> So I must die here in this land; I will not cross the Jordan. But you are going over and will possess that good land.

<sup>23</sup> Be on guard so that you do not forget the covenant of the LORD your God that he has made with you, and that you do not make an image of any kind, just as he has forbidden you.

<sup>24</sup> For the LORD your God is a consuming fire; he is a jealous God.

Threat and Blessing following Covenant Disobedience

<sup>25</sup> After you have produced children and grandchildren and have been in the land a long time, if you become corrupt and make an image of any kind and do other evil things before the LORD your God that enrage him,

<sup>26</sup> I invoke heaven and earth as witnesses against you today that you will surely and swiftly be removed from the very land you are about to cross the Jordan to possess. You will not last long there because you will surely be annihilated.

<sup>27</sup> Then the LORD will scatter you among the peoples and there will be very few of you among the nations where the LORD will drive you.

<sup>28</sup> There you will worship gods made by human hands – wood and stone that can neither see, hear, eat, nor smell.

<sup>29</sup> But if you seek the LORD your God from there, you will find him, if, indeed, you seek him with all your heart and soul.

<sup>30</sup> In your distress when all these things happen to you in the latter days, if you return to the LORD your God and obey him

<sup>31</sup> (for he is a merciful God), he will not let you down or destroy you, for he cannot forget the covenant with your ancestors that he confirmed by oath to them.

The Uniqueness of Israel's God

<sup>32</sup> Indeed, ask about the distant past, starting from the day God created humankind on the earth, and ask from one end of heaven to the other, whether there has ever been such a great thing as this, or even a rumor of it.

<sup>33</sup> Have a people ever heard the voice of God speaking from the middle of fire, as you yourselves have, and lived to tell about it?

<sup>34</sup> Or has God ever before tried to deliver a nation from the middle of another nation, accompanied by judgments, signs, wonders, war, strength, power, and other very terrifying things like the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your very eyes?

<sup>35</sup> You have been taught that the LORD alone is God – there is no other besides him.

<sup>36</sup> From heaven he spoke to you in order to teach you, and on earth he showed you his great fire from which you also heard his words.

<sup>37</sup> Moreover, because he loved your ancestors, he chose their descendants who followed them and personally brought you out of Egypt with his great power

<sup>38</sup> to dispossess nations greater and stronger than you and brought you here this day to give you their land as your property.

<sup>39</sup> Today realize and carefully consider that the LORD is God in heaven above and on earth below – there is no other!

<sup>40</sup> Keep his statutes and commandments that I am setting forth today so that it may go well with you and your descendants and that you may enjoy longevity in the land that the LORD your God is about to give you as a permanent possession.

The Narrative Concerning Cities of Refuge

<sup>41</sup> Then Moses selected three cities in the Transjordan, toward the east.

The Setting and Introduction of the Covenant

<sup>45</sup> These are the stipulations, statutes, and ordinances that Moses spoke to the Israelites after he had brought them out of Egypt,

<sup>47</sup> They possessed his land and that of King Og of Bashan – both of whom were Amorite kings in the Transjordan, to the east.

<sup>1</sup> Then Moses called all the people of Israel together and said to them: “Listen, Israel, to the statutes and ordinances that I am about to deliver to you today; learn them and be careful to keep them!

<sup>5</sup> (I was standing between the LORD and you at that time to reveal to you the message of the LORD, because you were afraid of the fire and would not go up the mountain.) He said:

The Ten Commandments

<sup>6</sup> “I am the LORD your God, he who brought you from the land of Egypt, from the place of slavery.

<sup>7</sup> You must not have any other gods besides me.

<sup>8</sup> You must not make for yourself an image of anything in heaven above, on earth below, or in the waters beneath.

<sup>9</sup> You must not worship or serve them, for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God. I punish the sons, grandsons, and great-grandsons for the sin of the fathers who reject me, <sup>10</sup> but I show covenant faithfulness to the thousands who choose me and keep my commandments.

<sup>11</sup> You must not make use of the name of the LORD your God for worthless purposes, for the LORD will not exonerate anyone who abuses his name that way.

<sup>12</sup> Be careful to observe the Sabbath day just as the LORD your God has commanded you.

<sup>13</sup> You are to work and do all your tasks in six days,

<sup>14</sup> but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God. On that day you must not do any work, you, your son, your daughter, your male slave, your female slave, your ox, your donkey, any other animal, or the foreigner who lives with you, so that your male and female slaves, like yourself, may have rest.

<sup>15</sup> Recall that you were slaves in the land of Egypt and that the LORD your God brought you out of there by strength and power. That is why the LORD your God has commanded you to observe the Sabbath day.

<sup>16</sup> Honor your father and your mother just as the LORD your God has commanded you to do, so that your days may be extended and that it may go well with you in the land that he is about to give you.

<sup>17</sup> You must not murder.

The Narrative of the Sinai Revelation and Israel's Response

<sup>22</sup> The LORD said these things to your entire assembly at the mountain from the middle of the fire, the cloud, and the darkness with a loud voice, and that was all he said. Then he inscribed the words on two stone tablets and gave them to me.

<sup>23</sup> Then, when you heard the voice from the midst of the darkness while the mountain was ablaze, all your tribal leaders and elders approached me.

<sup>24</sup> You said, "The LORD our God has shown us his great glory and we have heard him speak from the middle of the fire. It is now clear to us that God can speak to human beings and they can keep on living.

<sup>25</sup> But now, why should we die, because this intense fire will consume us! If we keep hearing the voice of the LORD our God we will die!

<sup>26</sup> Who is there from the entire human race who has heard the voice of the living God speaking from the middle of the fire as we have, and has lived?

<sup>27</sup> You go near so that you can hear everything the LORD our God is saying and then you can tell us whatever he says to you; then we will pay attention and do it."

<sup>28</sup> When the LORD heard you speaking to me, he said to me, "I have heard what these people have said to you – they have spoken well.

<sup>29</sup> If only it would really be their desire to fear me and obey all my commandments in the future, so that it may go well with them and their descendants forever.

<sup>31</sup> But as for you, remain here with me so I can declare to you all the commandments, statutes, and ordinances that you are to teach them, so that they can carry them out in the land I am about to give them."

<sup>32</sup> Be careful, therefore, to do exactly what the LORD your God has commanded you; do not turn right or left!

<sup>33</sup> Walk just as he has commanded you so that you may live, that it may go well with you, and that you may live long in the land you are going to possess.

6

<sup>1</sup> Now these are the commandments, statutes, and ordinances that the LORD your God instructed me to teach you so that you may carry them out in the land where you are headed

<sup>2</sup> and that you may so revere the LORD your God that you will keep all his statutes and commandments that I am giving you – you, your children, and your grandchildren – all your lives, to prolong your days.

<sup>3</sup> Pay attention, Israel, and be careful to do this so that it may go well with you and that you may increase greatly in number – as the LORD, God of your ancestors, said to you, you will have a land flowing with milk and honey.

The Essence of the Covenant Principles

<sup>4</sup> Listen, Israel: The LORD is our God, the LORD is one!

<sup>5</sup> You must love the LORD your God with your whole mind, your whole being, and all your strength.

Exhortation to Teach the Covenant Principles

<sup>6</sup> These words I am commanding you today must be kept in mind,

<sup>7</sup> and you must teach them to your children and speak of them as you sit in your house, as you walk along the road, as you lie down, and as you get up.

<sup>8</sup> You should tie them as a reminder on your forearm and fasten them as symbols on your forehead.

<sup>9</sup> Inscribe them on the doorframes of your houses and gates.

Exhortation to Worship the LORD Exclusively

<sup>10</sup> Then when the LORD your God brings you to the land he promised your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob to give you – a land with large, fine cities you did not build,

<sup>11</sup> houses filled with choice things you did not accumulate, hewn out cisterns you did not dig, and vineyards and olive groves you did not plant – and you eat your fill,

<sup>12</sup> be careful not to forget the LORD who brought you out of Egypt, that place of slavery.

<sup>13</sup> You must revere the LORD your God, serve him, and take oaths using only his name.

<sup>14</sup> You must not go after other gods, those of the surrounding peoples, <sup>15</sup> for the LORD your God, who is present among you, is a jealous God and his anger will erupt against you and remove you from the land.

Exhortation to Obey the LORD Exclusively

<sup>16</sup> You must not put the LORD your God to the test as you did at Massah.

<sup>17</sup> Keep his commandments very carefully, as well as the stipulations and statutes he commanded you to observe.

<sup>18</sup> Do whatever is proper and good before the LORD so that it may go well with you and that you may enter and occupy the good land that he promised your ancestors, <sup>19</sup> and that you may drive out all your enemies just as the LORD said.

Exhortation to Remember the Past

<sup>20</sup> When your children ask you later on, “What are the stipulations, statutes, and ordinances that the LORD our God commanded you?”

<sup>21</sup> you must say to them, “We were Pharaoh’s slaves in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt in a powerful way.

<sup>22</sup> And he brought signs and great, devastating wonders on Egypt, on Pharaoh, and on his whole family before our very eyes.

<sup>23</sup> He delivered us from there so that he could give us the land he had promised our ancestors.

<sup>24</sup> The LORD commanded us to obey all these statutes and to revere him so that it may always go well for us and he may preserve us, as he has to this day.

<sup>25</sup> We will be innocent if we carefully keep all these commandments before the LORD our God, just as he demands.”

7

<sup>1</sup> When the LORD your God brings you to the land that you are going to occupy and forces out many nations before you – Hittites, Girgashites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, seven nations more numerous and powerful than you

– <sup>2</sup> and he delivers them over to you and you attack them, you must utterly annihilate them. Make no treaty with them and show them no mercy!

<sup>3</sup> You must not intermarry with them. Do not give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons, <sup>4</sup> for they will turn your sons away from me to worship other gods. Then the anger of the LORD will erupt against you and he will quickly destroy you.

<sup>5</sup> Instead, this is what you must do to them: You must tear down their altars, shatter their sacred pillars, cut down their sacred Asherah poles, and burn up their idols.

<sup>6</sup> For you are a people holy to the LORD your God. He has chosen you to be his people, prized above all others on the face of the earth.

The Basis of Israel's Election

<sup>7</sup> It is not because you were more numerous than all the other peoples that the LORD favored and chose you – for in fact you were the least numerous of all peoples.

<sup>8</sup> Rather it is because of his love for you and his faithfulness to the promise he solemnly vowed to your ancestors that the LORD brought you out with great power, redeeming you from the place of slavery, from the power of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> So realize that the LORD your God is the true God, the faithful God who keeps covenant faithfully with those who love him and keep his commandments, to a thousand generations, <sup>10</sup> but who pays back those who hate him as they deserve and destroys them. He will not ignore those who hate him but will repay them as they deserve!

<sup>11</sup> So keep the commandments, statutes, and ordinances that I today am commanding you to do.

Promises of Good for Covenant Obedience

<sup>12</sup> If you obey these ordinances and are careful to do them, the LORD your God will faithfully keep covenant with you as he promised your ancestors.

<sup>13</sup> He will love and bless you, and make you numerous. He will bless you with many children, with the produce of your soil, your grain, your new wine, your oil, the offspring of your oxen, and the young of your flocks in the land which he promised your ancestors to give you.

<sup>14</sup> You will be blessed beyond all peoples; there will be no barrenness among you or your livestock.

<sup>15</sup> The LORD will protect you from all sickness, and you will not experience any of the terrible diseases that you knew in Egypt; instead he will inflict them on all those who hate you.

Exhortation to Destroy Canaanite Paganism

<sup>16</sup> You must destroy all the people whom the LORD your God is about to deliver over to you; you must not pity them or worship their gods, for that will be a snare to you.

<sup>17</sup> If you think, “These nations are more numerous than I – how can I dispossess them?”

<sup>18</sup> you must not fear them. You must carefully recall what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and all Egypt, <sup>19</sup> the great judgments you saw, the signs and wonders, the strength and power by which he brought you out – thus the LORD your God will do to all the people you fear.

<sup>20</sup> Furthermore, the LORD your God will release hornets among them until the very last ones who hide from you perish.

<sup>21</sup> You must not tremble in their presence, for the LORD your God, who is present among you, is a great and awesome God.

<sup>22</sup> He, the God who leads you, will expel the nations little by little. You will not be allowed to destroy them all at once lest the wild animals overrun you.

<sup>23</sup> The LORD your God will give them over to you; he will throw them into a great panic until they are destroyed.

<sup>24</sup> He will hand over their kings to you and you will erase their very names from memory. Nobody will be able to resist you until you destroy them.

<sup>25</sup> You must burn the images of their gods, but do not covet the silver and gold that covers them so much that you take it for yourself and thus become ensnared by it; for it is abhorrent to the LORD your God.

<sup>26</sup> You must not bring any abhorrent thing into your house and thereby become an object of divine wrath along with it. You must absolutely detest and abhor it, for it is an object of divine wrath.

8

<sup>1</sup> You must keep carefully all these commandments I am giving you today so that you may live, increase in number, and go in and occupy the land that the LORD promised to your ancestors.

<sup>2</sup> Remember the whole way by which he has brought you these forty years through the desert so that he might, by humbling you, test you to see if you have it within you to keep his commandments or not.

<sup>3</sup> So he humbled you by making you hungry and then feeding you with unfamiliar manna. He did this to teach you that humankind cannot live by bread alone, but also by everything that comes from the LORD's mouth.

<sup>4</sup> Your clothing did not wear out nor did your feet swell all these forty years.

<sup>5</sup> Be keenly aware that just as a parent disciplines his child, the LORD your God disciplines you.

<sup>6</sup> So you must keep his commandments, live according to his standards, and revere him.

<sup>9</sup> a land where you may eat food in plenty and find no lack of anything, a land whose stones are iron and from whose hills you can mine copper.

<sup>10</sup> You will eat your fill and then praise the LORD your God because of the good land he has given you.

Exhortation to Remember That Blessing Comes from God

<sup>11</sup> Be sure you do not forget the LORD your God by not keeping his commandments, ordinances, and statutes that I am giving you today.

<sup>12</sup> When you eat your fill, when you build and occupy good houses,

<sup>13</sup> when your cattle and flocks increase, when you have plenty of silver and gold, and when you have abundance of everything,

<sup>14</sup> be sure you do not feel self-important and forget the LORD your God who brought you from the land of Egypt, the place of slavery,

<sup>15</sup> and who brought you through the great, fearful desert of venomous serpents and scorpions, an arid place with no water. He made water flow from a flint rock and

<sup>16</sup> fed you in the desert with manna (which your ancestors had never before known) so that he might by humbling you test you and eventually bring good to you.

<sup>17</sup> Be careful not to say, "My own ability and skill have gotten me this wealth."

<sup>18</sup> You must remember the LORD your God, for he is the one who gives ability to get wealth; if you do this he will confirm his covenant that he made by oath to your ancestors, even as he has to this day.

<sup>19</sup> Now if you forget the LORD your God at all and follow other gods, worshiping and prostrating yourselves before them, I testify to you today that you will surely be annihilated.

<sup>20</sup> Just like the nations the LORD is about to destroy from your sight, so he will do to you because you would not obey him.

9

<sup>1</sup> Listen, Israel: Today you are about to cross the Jordan so you can dispossess the nations there, people greater and stronger than you who live in large cities with extremely high fortifications.

<sup>2</sup> They include the Anakites, a numerous and tall people whom you know about and of whom it is said, "Who is able to resist the Anakites?"

<sup>3</sup> Understand today that the LORD your God who goes before you is a devouring fire; he will defeat and subdue them before you. You will dispossess and destroy them quickly just as he has told you.

<sup>4</sup> Do not think to yourself after the LORD your God has driven them out before you, "Because of my own righteousness the LORD has brought me here to possess this land." It is because of the wickedness of these nations that the Lord is driving them out ahead of you.

<sup>5</sup> It is not because of your righteousness, or even your inner uprightness, that you have come here to possess their land. Instead, because of the wickedness of these nations the LORD your God is driving them out ahead of you in order to confirm the promise he made on oath to your ancestors, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

<sup>6</sup> Understand, therefore, that it is not because of your righteousness that the LORD your God is about to give you this good land as a possession, for you are a stubborn people!

The History of Israel's Stubbornness

<sup>7</sup> Remember – don't ever forget – how you provoked the LORD your God in the desert; from the time you left the land of Egypt until you came to this place you were constantly rebelling against him.

<sup>8</sup> At Horeb you provoked him and he was angry enough with you to destroy you.

<sup>9</sup> When I went up the mountain to receive the stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant that the LORD made with you, I remained there forty days and nights, eating and drinking nothing.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD gave me the two stone tablets, written by the very finger of God, and on them was everything he said to you at the mountain from the midst of the fire at the time of that assembly.

<sup>11</sup> Now at the end of the forty days and nights the LORD presented me with the two stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant.

<sup>12</sup> And he said to me, "Get up, go down at once from here because your people whom you brought out of Egypt have sinned! They have quickly turned from the way I commanded them and have made for themselves a cast metal image."

<sup>13</sup> Moreover, he said to me, "I have taken note of these people; they are a stubborn lot!

<sup>14</sup> Stand aside and I will destroy them, obliterating their very name from memory, and I will make you into a stronger and more numerous nation than they are.”

<sup>15</sup> So I turned and went down the mountain while it was blazing with fire; the two tablets of the covenant were in my hands.

<sup>16</sup> When I looked, you had indeed sinned against the LORD your God and had cast for yourselves a metal calf; you had quickly turned aside from the way he had commanded you!

<sup>17</sup> I grabbed the two tablets, threw them down, and shattered them before your very eyes.

<sup>18</sup> Then I again fell down before the LORD for forty days and nights; I ate and drank nothing because of all the sin you had committed, doing such evil before the LORD as to enrage him.

<sup>19</sup> For I was terrified at the LORD’s intense anger that threatened to destroy you. But he listened to me this time as well.

<sup>20</sup> The LORD was also angry enough at Aaron to kill him, but at that time I prayed for him too.

<sup>21</sup> As for your sinful thing that you had made, the calf, I took it, melted it down, ground it up until it was as fine as dust, and tossed the dust into the stream that flows down the mountain.

<sup>23</sup> And when he sent you from Kadesh-Barnea and told you, “Go up and possess the land I have given you,” you rebelled against the LORD your God and would neither believe nor obey him.

<sup>24</sup> You have been rebelling against him from the very first day I knew you!

Moses’ Plea on Behalf of the LORD’s Reputation

<sup>25</sup> I lay flat on the ground before the LORD for forty days and nights, for he had said he would destroy you.

<sup>26</sup> I prayed to him: O, Lord GOD, do not destroy your people, your valued property that you have powerfully redeemed, whom you brought out of Egypt by your strength.

<sup>27</sup> Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; ignore the stubbornness, wickedness, and sin of these people.

<sup>28</sup> Otherwise the people of the land from which you brought us will say, “The LORD was unable to bring them to the land he promised them, and because of his hatred for them he has brought them out to kill them in the desert.”

<sup>29</sup> They are your people, your valued property, whom you brought out with great strength and power.

10

<sup>1</sup> At that same time the LORD said to me, “Carve out for yourself two stone tablets like the first ones and come up the mountain to me; also make for yourself a wooden ark.

<sup>2</sup> I will write on the tablets the same words that were on the first tablets you broke, and you must put them into the ark.”

<sup>3</sup> So I made an ark of acacia wood and carved out two stone tablets just like the first ones. Then I went up the mountain with the two tablets in my hands.

<sup>4</sup> The LORD then wrote on the tablets the same words, the ten commandments, which he had spoken to you at the mountain from the middle of the fire at the time of that assembly, and he gave them to me.

<sup>5</sup> Then I turned, went down the mountain, and placed the tablets into the ark I had made – they are still there, just as the LORD commanded me.

Conclusion of the Historical Resume

<sup>7</sup> From there they traveled to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a place of flowing streams.

<sup>8</sup> At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the LORD’s covenant, to stand before the LORD to serve him, and to formulate blessings in his name, as they do to this very day.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore Levi has no allotment or inheritance among his brothers; the LORD is his inheritance just as the LORD your God told him.

<sup>10</sup> As for me, I stayed at the mountain as I did the first time, forty days and nights. The LORD listened to me that time as well and decided not to destroy you.

<sup>11</sup> Then he said to me, “Get up, set out leading the people so they may go and possess the land I promised to give to their ancestors.”

An Exhortation to Love Both God and People

<sup>12</sup> Now, Israel, what does the LORD | strong="H3069" your God require of you except to revere him, to obey all his commandments, to love him, to serve him with all your mind and being,

<sup>13</sup> and to keep the Lord’s commandments and statutes that I am giving you today for your own good?

<sup>14</sup> The heavens – indeed the highest heavens – belong to the LORD your God, as does the earth and everything in it.

<sup>15</sup> However, only to your ancestors did he show his loving favor, and he chose you, their descendants, from all peoples – as is apparent today.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore, cleanse your heart and stop being so stubborn!

<sup>17</sup> For the LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, mighty, and awesome God who is unbiased and takes no bribe, <sup>18</sup> who justly treats the orphan and widow, and who loves resident foreigners, giving them food and clothing.

<sup>19</sup> So you must love the resident foreigner because you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

<sup>20</sup> Revere the LORD your God, serve him, be loyal to him and take oaths only in his name.

<sup>21</sup> He is the one you should praise; he is your God, the one who has done these great and awesome things for you that you have seen.

<sup>22</sup> When your ancestors went down to Egypt, they numbered only seventy, but now the LORD your God has made you as numerous as the stars of the sky.

11

<sup>1</sup> You must love the LORD your God and do what he requires; keep his statutes, ordinances, and commandments at all times.

<sup>2</sup> Bear in mind today that I am not speaking to your children who have not personally experienced the judgments of the LORD your God, which revealed his greatness, strength, and power.

<sup>3</sup> They did not see the awesome deeds he performed in the midst of Egypt against Pharaoh king of Egypt and his whole land, <sup>4</sup> or what he did to the army of Egypt, including their horses and chariots, when he made the waters of the Red Sea overwhelm them while they were pursuing you and he annihilated them.

<sup>5</sup> They did not see what he did to you in the desert before you reached this place, <sup>6</sup> or what he did to Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab the Reubenite, when the earth opened its mouth in the middle of the Israelite camp and swallowed them, their families, their tents, and all the property they brought with them.

<sup>7</sup> I am speaking to you because you are the ones who saw all the great deeds of the LORD!

The Abundance of the Land of Promise

<sup>8</sup> Now pay attention to all the commandments I am giving you today, so that you may be strong enough to enter and possess the land where you are headed,

<sup>9</sup> and that you may enjoy long life in the land the LORD promised to give to your ancestors and their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey.

<sup>10</sup> For the land where you are headed is not like the land of Egypt from which you came, a land where you planted seed and which you irrigated by hand like a vegetable garden.

<sup>11</sup> Instead, the land you are crossing the Jordan to occupy is one of hills and valleys, a land that drinks in water from the rains, <sup>12</sup> a land the LORD your God looks after. He is constantly attentive to it from the beginning to the end of the year.

<sup>13</sup> Now, if you pay close attention to my commandments that I am giving you today and love the LORD your God and serve him with all your mind and being,

<sup>14</sup> then he promises, "I will send rain for your land in its season, the autumn and the spring rains, so that you may gather in your grain, new wine, and olive oil.

<sup>15</sup> I will provide pasture for your livestock and you will eat your fill."

Exhortation to Instruction and Obedience

<sup>16</sup> Make sure you do not turn away to serve and worship other gods!

<sup>17</sup> Then the anger of the LORD will erupt against you and he will close up the sky so that it does not rain. The land will not yield its produce, and you will soon be removed from the good land that the Lord is about to give you.

<sup>18</sup> Fix these words of mine into your mind and being, and tie them as a reminder on your hands and let them be symbols on your forehead.

<sup>19</sup> Teach them to your children and speak of them as you sit in your house, as you walk along the road, as you lie down, and as you get up.

<sup>20</sup> Inscribe them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates

<sup>21</sup> so that your days and those of your descendants may be extended in the land which the LORD promised to give to your ancestors, like the days of heaven itself.

<sup>22</sup> For if you carefully observe all of these commandments I am giving you and love the LORD your God, live according to his standards, and remain loyal to him, <sup>23</sup> then he will drive out all these nations ahead of you, and you will dispossess nations greater and stronger than you.

<sup>24</sup> Every place you set your foot will be yours; your border will extend from the desert to Lebanon and from the River (that is, the Euphrates) as far as the Mediterranean Sea.

<sup>25</sup> Nobody will be able to resist you; the LORD your God will spread the fear and terror of you over the whole land on which you walk, just as he promised you.

Anticipation of a Blessing and Cursing Ceremony

<sup>26</sup> Take note - I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse:

<sup>27</sup> the blessing if you take to heart the commandments of the LORD your God that I am giving you today, <sup>28</sup> and the curse if you pay no attention to his commandments and turn from the way I am setting before you today to pursue other gods you have not known.

<sup>29</sup> When the LORD your God brings you into the land you are to possess, you must pronounce the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal.

<sup>30</sup> Are they not across the Jordan River, toward the west, in the land of the Canaanites who live in the Arabah opposite Gilgal near the oak of Moreh?

<sup>31</sup> For you are about to cross the Jordan to possess the land the LORD your God is giving you, and you will possess and inhabit it.

<sup>32</sup> Be certain to keep all the statutes and ordinances that I am presenting to you today.

12

<sup>1</sup> These are the statutes and ordinances you must be careful to obey as long as you live in the land the LORD, the God of your ancestors, has given you to possess.

<sup>2</sup> You must by all means destroy all the places where the nations you are about to dispossess worship their gods – on the high mountains and hills and under every leafy tree.

<sup>3</sup> You must tear down their altars, shatter their sacred pillars, burn up their sacred Asherah poles, and cut down the images of their gods; you must eliminate their very memory from that place.

<sup>4</sup> You must not worship the LORD your God the way they worship.

<sup>5</sup> But you must seek only the place he chooses from all your tribes to establish his name as his place of residence, and you must go there.

<sup>6</sup> And there you must take your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the personal offerings you have prepared, your votive offerings, your freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks.

<sup>7</sup> Both you and your families must feast there before the LORD your God and rejoice in all the output of your labor with which he has blessed you.

<sup>8</sup> You must not do like we are doing here today, with everyone doing what seems best to him,

<sup>9</sup> for you have not yet come to the final stop and inheritance the LORD | strong="H3069" your God is giving you.

<sup>10</sup> When you do go across the Jordan River and settle in the land he is granting you as an inheritance and you find relief from all the enemies who surround you, you will live in safety.

<sup>11</sup> Then you must come to the place the LORD your God chooses for his name to reside, bringing everything I am commanding you – your burnt offerings, sacrifices, tithes, the personal offerings you have prepared, and all your choice votive offerings which you devote to him.

<sup>12</sup> You shall rejoice in the presence of the LORD your God, along with your sons, daughters, male and female servants, and the Levites in your villages (since they have no allotment or inheritance with you).

<sup>13</sup> Make sure you do not offer burnt offerings in any place you wish, <sup>14</sup> for you may do so only in the place the LORD chooses in one of your tribal areas – there you may do everything I am commanding you.

Regulations for Profane Slaughter

<sup>15</sup> On the other hand, you may slaughter and eat meat as you please when the LORD your God blesses you in all your villages. Both the ritually pure and impure may eat it, whether it is a gazelle or an ibex.

<sup>16</sup> However, you must not eat blood – pour it out on the ground like water.

<sup>17</sup> You will not be allowed to eat in your villages your tithe of grain, new wine, olive oil, the firstborn of your herd and flock, any votive offerings you have vowed, or your freewill and personal offerings.

<sup>18</sup> Only in the presence of the LORD your God may you eat these, in the place he chooses. This applies to you, your son, your daughter, your male and female servants, and the Levites in your villages. In that place you will rejoice before the LORD your God in all the output of your labor.

<sup>19</sup> Be careful not to overlook the Levites as long as you live in the land.

The Sanctity of Blood

<sup>20</sup> When the LORD your God extends your borders as he said he would do and you say, "I want to eat meat just as I please," you may do so as you wish.

<sup>21</sup> If the place he chooses to locate his name is too far for you, you may slaughter any of your herd and flock he has given you just as I have stipulated; you may eat them in your villages just as you wish.

<sup>22</sup> Like you eat the gazelle or ibex, so you may eat these; the ritually impure and pure alike may eat them.

<sup>23</sup> However, by no means eat the blood, for the blood is life itself – you must not eat the life with the meat!

<sup>24</sup> You must not eat it! You must pour it out on the ground like water.

<sup>25</sup> You must not eat it so that it may go well with you and your children after you; you will be doing what is right in the LORD's sight.

<sup>26</sup> Only the holy things and votive offerings that belong to you, you must pick up and take to the place the LORD will choose.

<sup>27</sup> You must offer your burnt offerings, both meat and blood, on the altar of the LORD your God; the blood of your other sacrifices you must pour out on his altar while you eat the meat.

<sup>28</sup> Pay careful attention to all these things I am commanding you so that it may always go well with you and your children after you when you do what is good and right in the sight of the LORD your God.

The Abomination of Pagan Gods

<sup>29</sup> When the LORD your God eliminates the nations from the place where you are headed and you dispossess them, you will settle down in their land.

<sup>30</sup> After they have been destroyed from your presence, be careful not to be ensnared like they are; do not pursue their gods and say, "How do these nations serve their gods? I will do the same."

<sup>31</sup> You must not worship the LORD your God the way they do! For everything that is abhorrent to him, everything he hates, they have done when worshiping their gods. They even burn up their sons and daughters before their gods!

Idolatry and False Prophets

<sup>32</sup> You must be careful to do everything I am commanding you. Do not add to it or subtract from it!

13

<sup>1</sup> Suppose a prophet or one who foretells by dreams should appear among you and show you a sign or wonder,

<sup>2</sup> and the sign or wonder should come to pass concerning what he said to you, namely, "Let us follow other gods" – gods whom you have not previously known – "and let us serve them."

<sup>3</sup> You must not listen to the words of that prophet or dreamer, for the LORD your God will be testing you to see if you love him with all your mind and being.

<sup>4</sup> You must follow the LORD | strong="H3069" your God and revere only him; and you must observe his commandments, obey him, serve him, and remain loyal to him.

<sup>5</sup> As for that prophet or dreamer, he must be executed because he encouraged rebellion against the LORD your God who brought you from the land of Egypt, redeeming you from that place of slavery, and because he has tried to entice you from the way the LORD your God has commanded you to go. In this way you must purge out evil from within.

False Prophets in the Family

<sup>6</sup> Suppose your own full brother, your son, your daughter, your beloved wife, or your closest friend should seduce you secretly and encourage you to go and serve other gods that neither you nor your ancestors have previously known,

<sup>7</sup> the gods of the surrounding people (whether near you or far from you, from one end of the earth to the other).

<sup>8</sup> You must not give in to him or even listen to him; do not feel sympathy for him or spare him or cover up for him.

<sup>9</sup> Instead, you must kill him without fail! Your own hand must be the first to strike him, and then the hands of the whole community.

<sup>10</sup> You must stone him to death because he tried to entice you away from the LORD your God, who delivered you from the land of Egypt, that place of slavery.

<sup>11</sup> Thus all Israel will hear and be afraid; no longer will they continue to do evil like this among you.

Punishment of Community Idolatry

<sup>12</sup> Suppose you should hear in one of your cities, which the LORD your God is giving you as a place to live, that

<sup>13</sup> some evil people have departed from among you to entice the inhabitants of their cities, saying, "Let's go and serve other gods" (whom you have not known before).

<sup>14</sup> You must investigate thoroughly and inquire carefully. If it is indeed true that such a disgraceful thing is being done among you, <sup>15</sup> you must by all means slaughter the inhabitants of that city with the sword; annihilate with the sword everyone in it, as well as the livestock.

<sup>16</sup> You must gather all of its plunder into the middle of the plaza and burn the city and all its plunder as a whole burnt offering to the LORD your God. It will be an abandoned ruin forever – it must never be rebuilt again.

<sup>17</sup> You must not take for yourself anything that has been placed under judgment. Then the LORD will relent from his intense anger, show you compassion, have mercy on you, and multiply you as he promised your ancestors.

<sup>18</sup> Thus you must obey the LORD your God, keeping all his commandments that I am giving you today and doing what is right before him.

14

<sup>1</sup> You are children of the LORD your God. Do not cut yourselves or shave your forehead bald for the sake of the dead.

<sup>3</sup> You must not eat any forbidden thing.

<sup>5</sup> the ibex, the gazelle, the deer, the wild goat, the antelope, the wild oryx, and the mountain sheep.

<sup>6</sup> You may eat any animal that has hooves divided into two parts and that chews the cud.

<sup>7</sup> However, you may not eat the following animals among those that chew the cud or those that have divided hooves: the camel, the hare, and the rock badger. (Although they chew the cud, they do not have divided hooves and are therefore ritually impure to you).

<sup>8</sup> Also the pig is ritually impure to you; though it has divided hooves, it does not chew the cud. You may not eat their meat or even touch their remains.

<sup>9</sup> These you may eat from among water creatures: anything with fins and scales you may eat, <sup>10</sup> but whatever does not have fins and scales you may not eat; it is ritually impure to you.

<sup>13</sup> the kite, the black kite, the dayyah after its species,

<sup>14</sup> every raven after its species,

<sup>17</sup> the jackdaw, the carrion vulture, the cormorant,

<sup>19</sup> and any winged thing on the ground are impure to you – they may not be eaten.

<sup>21</sup> You may not eat any corpse, though you may give it to the resident foreigner who is living in your villages and he may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner. You are a people holy to the LORD your God. Do not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.

The Offering of Tribute

<sup>22</sup> You must be certain to tithe all the produce of your seed that comes from the field year after year.

<sup>23</sup> In the presence of the LORD | strong="H3069" your God you must eat from the tithe of your grain, your new wine, your olive oil, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks in the place he chooses to locate his name, so that you may learn to revere the LORD | strong="H3069" your God always.

<sup>24</sup> When he blesses you, if the place where he chooses to locate his name is distant, <sup>25</sup> you may convert the tithe into money, secure the money, and travel to the place the LORD your God chooses for himself.

<sup>26</sup> Then you may spend the money however you wish for cattle, sheep, wine, beer, or whatever you desire. You and your household may eat there in the presence of the LORD your God and enjoy it.

<sup>27</sup> As for the Levites in your villages, you must not ignore them, for they have no allotment or inheritance along with you.

<sup>28</sup> At the end of every three years you must bring all the tithe of your produce, in that very year, and you must store it up in your villages.

<sup>29</sup> Then the Levites (because they have no allotment or inheritance with you), the resident foreigners, the orphans, and the widows of your villages may come and eat their fill so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work you do.

15

<sup>2</sup> This is the nature of the cancellation: Every creditor must remit what he has loaned to another person; he must not force payment from his fellow Israelite, for it is to be recognized as “the LORD's cancellation of debts.”

<sup>3</sup> You may exact payment from a foreigner, but whatever your fellow Israelite owes you, you must remit.

<sup>4</sup> However, there should not be any poor among you, for the LORD will surely bless you in the land that he is giving you as an inheritance, <sup>5</sup> if you carefully obey him by keeping all these commandments that I am giving you today.

<sup>6</sup> For the LORD your God will bless you just as he has promised; you will lend to many nations but will not borrow from any, and you will rule over many nations but they will not rule over you.

The Spirit of Liberality

<sup>7</sup> If a fellow Israelite from one of your villages in the land that the LORD your God is giving you should be poor, you must not harden your heart or be insensitive to his impoverished condition.

<sup>8</sup> Instead, you must be sure to open your hand to him and generously lend him whatever he needs.

<sup>9</sup> Be careful lest you entertain the wicked thought that the seventh year, the year of cancellation of debts, has almost arrived, and your attitude be wrong toward your impoverished fellow Israelite and you do not lend him anything; he will cry out to the LORD against you and you will be regarded as having sinned.

<sup>10</sup> You must by all means lend to him and not be upset by doing it, for because of this the LORD | strong="H3069" your God will bless you in all your work and in everything you attempt.

<sup>11</sup> There will never cease to be some poor people in the land; therefore, I am commanding you to make sure you open your hand to your fellow Israelites who are needy and poor in your land.

Release of Debt Slaves

<sup>12</sup> If your fellow Hebrew – whether male or female – is sold to you and serves you for six years, then in the seventh year you must let that servant go free.

<sup>13</sup> If you set them free, you must not send them away empty-handed.

<sup>14</sup> You must supply them generously from your flock, your threshing floor, and your winepress – as the LORD your God has blessed you, you must give to them.

<sup>15</sup> Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt and the LORD your God redeemed you; therefore, I am commanding you to do this thing today.

<sup>16</sup> However, if the servant says to you, “I do not want to leave you,” because he loves you and your household, since he is well off with you,

<sup>17</sup> you shall take an awl and pierce a hole through his ear to the door. Then he will become your servant permanently (this applies to your female servant as well).

<sup>18</sup> You should not consider it difficult to let him go free, for he will have served you for six years, twice the time of a hired worker; the LORD your God will bless you in everything you do.

Giving God the Best

<sup>19</sup> You must set apart for the LORD your God every firstborn male born to your herds and flocks. You must not work the firstborn of your bulls or shear the firstborn of your flocks.

<sup>20</sup> You and your household must eat them annually before the LORD your God in the place he chooses.

<sup>21</sup> If they have any kind of blemish – lameness, blindness, or anything else – you may not offer them as a sacrifice to the LORD your God.

<sup>22</sup> You may eat it in your villages, whether you are ritually impure or clean, just as you would eat a gazelle or an ibex.

<sup>23</sup> However, you must not eat its blood; you must pour it out on the ground like water.

16

<sup>1</sup> Observe the month Abib and keep the Passover to the LORD your God, for in that month he brought you out of Egypt by night.

<sup>2</sup> You must sacrifice the Passover animal (from the flock or the herd) to the LORD your God in the place where he chooses to locate his name.

<sup>3</sup> You must not eat any yeast with it; for seven days you must eat bread made without yeast, symbolic of affliction, for you came out of Egypt hurriedly. You must do this so you will remember for the rest of your life the day you came out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>4</sup> There must not be a scrap of yeast within your land for seven days, nor can any of the meat you sacrifice on the evening of the first day remain until the next morning.

<sup>5</sup> You may not sacrifice the Passover in just any of your villages that the LORD your God is giving you, <sup>6</sup> but you must sacrifice it in the evening in the place where he chooses to locate his name, at sunset, the time of day you came out of Egypt.

<sup>7</sup> You must cook and eat it in the place the LORD your God chooses; you may return the next morning to your tents.

<sup>8</sup> You must eat bread made without yeast for six days. The seventh day you are to hold an assembly for the LORD your God; you must not do any work on that day.

The Festival of Weeks

<sup>9</sup> You must count seven weeks; you must begin to count them from the time you begin to harvest the standing grain.

<sup>10</sup> Then you are to celebrate the Festival of Weeks before the LORD your God with the voluntary offering that you will bring, in proportion to how he has blessed you.

<sup>11</sup> You shall rejoice before him – you, your son, your daughter, your male and female slaves, the Levites in your villages, the resident foreigners, the orphans, and the widows among you – in the place where the LORD chooses to locate his name.

<sup>12</sup> Furthermore, remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and so be careful to observe these statutes.

The Festival of Temporary Shelters

<sup>13</sup> You must celebrate the Festival of Temporary Shelters for seven days, at the time of the grain and grape harvest.

<sup>14</sup> You are to rejoice in your festival, you, your son, your daughter, your male and female slaves, the Levites, the resident foreigners, the orphans, and the widows who are in your villages.

<sup>15</sup> You are to celebrate the festival seven days before the LORD your God in the place he chooses, for he will bless you in all your productivity and in whatever you do; so you will indeed rejoice!

<sup>16</sup> Three times a year all your males must appear before the LORD your God in the place he chooses for the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the Festival of Weeks, and the Festival of Temporary Shelters; and they must not appear before him empty-handed.

<sup>17</sup> Every one of you must give as you are able, according to the blessing of the LORD your God that he has given you.

Provision for Justice

<sup>18</sup> You must appoint judges and civil servants for each tribe in all your villages that the LORD your God is giving you, and they must judge the people fairly.

<sup>19</sup> You must not pervert justice or show favor. Do not take a bribe, for bribes blind the eyes of the wise and distort the words of the righteous.

<sup>20</sup> You must pursue justice alone so that you may live and inherit the land the LORD your God is giving you.

Examples of Legal Cases

<sup>21</sup> You must not plant any kind of tree as a sacred Asherah pole near the altar of the LORD your God which you build for yourself.

<sup>22</sup> You must not erect a sacred pillar, a thing the LORD your God detests.

17

<sup>1</sup> You must not sacrifice to him a bull or sheep that has a blemish or any other defect, because that is considered offensive to the LORD your God.

<sup>2</sup> Suppose a man or woman is discovered among you – in one of your villages that the LORD your God is giving you – who sins before the Lord your God and breaks his covenant

<sup>3</sup> by serving other gods and worshiping them – the sun, moon, or any other heavenly bodies which I have not permitted you to worship.

<sup>4</sup> When it is reported to you and you hear about it, you must investigate carefully. If it is indeed true that such a disgraceful thing is being done in Israel, <sup>5</sup> you must bring to your city gates that man or woman who has done this wicked thing – that very man or woman – and you must stone that person to death.

<sup>6</sup> At the testimony of two or three witnesses they must be executed. They cannot be put to death on the testimony of only one witness.

<sup>7</sup> The witnesses must be first to begin the execution, and then all the people are to join in afterward. In this way you will purge evil from among you.

Appeal to a Higher Court

<sup>8</sup> If a matter is too difficult for you to judge – bloodshed, legal claim, or assault – matters of controversy in your villages – you must leave there and go up to the place the LORD your God chooses.

<sup>9</sup> You will go to the Levitical priests and the judge in office in those days and seek a solution; they will render a verdict.

<sup>10</sup> You must then do as they have determined at that place the LORD chooses. Be careful to do just as you are taught.

<sup>11</sup> You must do what you are instructed, and the verdict they pronounce to you, without fail. Do not deviate right or left from what they tell you.

<sup>12</sup> The person who pays no attention to the priest currently serving the LORD | strong="H3069" your God there, or to the verdict – that person must die, so that you may purge evil from Israel.

<sup>13</sup> Then all the people will hear and be afraid, and not be so presumptuous again.

Provision for Kingship

<sup>14</sup> When you come to the land the LORD your God is giving you and take it over and live in it and then say, “I will select a king like all the nations surrounding me,”

<sup>15</sup> you must select without fail a king whom the LORD your God chooses. From among your fellow citizens you must appoint a king – you may not designate a foreigner who is not one of your fellow Israelites.

<sup>16</sup> Moreover, he must not accumulate horses for himself or allow the people to return to Egypt to do so, for the LORD has said you must never again return that way.

<sup>17</sup> Furthermore, he must not marry many wives lest his affections turn aside, and he must not accumulate much silver and gold.

<sup>18</sup> When he sits on his royal throne he must make a copy of this law on a scroll given to him by the Levitical priests.

<sup>19</sup> It must be with him constantly and he must read it as long as he lives, so that he may learn to revere the LORD his God and observe all the words of this law and these statutes and carry them out.

18

<sup>2</sup> They will have no inheritance in the midst of their fellow Israelites; the LORD alone is their inheritance, just as he had told them.

<sup>3</sup> This shall be the priests' fair allotment from the people who offer sacrifices, whether bull or sheep – they must give to the priest the shoulder, the jowls, and the stomach.

<sup>4</sup> You must give them the best of your grain, new wine, and olive oil, as well as the best of your wool when you shear your flocks.

<sup>5</sup> For the LORD your God has chosen them and their sons from all your tribes to stand and serve in his name permanently.

<sup>7</sup> and serves in the name of the LORD his God like his fellow Levites who stand there before the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> He must eat the same share they do, despite any profits he may gain from the sale of his family's inheritance.

Provision for Prophetism

<sup>9</sup> When you enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, you must not learn the abhorrent practices of those nations.

<sup>10</sup> There must never be found among you anyone who sacrifices his son or daughter in the fire, anyone who practices divination, an omen reader, a soothsayer, a sorcerer,

<sup>11</sup> one who casts spells, one who conjures up spirits, a practitioner of the occult, or a necromancer.

<sup>12</sup> Whoever does these things is abhorrent to the LORD and because of these detestable things the LORD your God is about to drive them out from before you.

<sup>13</sup> You must be blameless before the LORD your God.

<sup>14</sup> Those nations that you are about to dispossess listen to omen readers and diviners, but the LORD your God has not given you permission to do such things.

<sup>15</sup> The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among you – from your fellow Israelites; you must listen to him.

<sup>16</sup> This accords with what happened at Horeb in the day of the assembly. You asked the LORD your God: "Please do not make us hear the voice of the LORD our God any more or see this great fire any more lest we die."

<sup>17</sup> The LORD then said to me, "What they have said is good.

<sup>18</sup> I will raise up a prophet like you for them from among their fellow Israelites. I will put my words in his mouth and he will speak to them whatever I command.

<sup>19</sup> I will personally hold responsible anyone who then pays no attention to the words that prophet speaks in my name.

<sup>20</sup> "But if any prophet presumes to speak anything in my name that I have not authorized him to speak, or speaks in the name of other gods, that prophet must die.

<sup>21</sup> Now if you say to yourselves, 'How can we tell that a message is not from the LORD?'

– <sup>22</sup> whenever a prophet speaks in my name and the prediction is not fulfilled, then I have not spoken it; the prophet has presumed to speak it, so you need not fear him."

19

<sup>1</sup> When the LORD your God destroys the nations whose land he is about to give you and you dispossess them and settle in their cities and houses,

<sup>2</sup> you must set apart for yourselves three cities in the middle of your land that the LORD your God is giving you as a possession.

<sup>3</sup> You shall build a roadway and divide into thirds the whole extent of your land that the LORD your God is providing as your inheritance; anyone who kills another person should flee to the closest of these cities.

<sup>4</sup> Now this is the law pertaining to one who flees there in order to live, if he has accidentally killed another without hating him at the time of the accident.

<sup>5</sup> Suppose he goes with someone else to the forest to cut wood and when he raises the ax to cut the tree, the ax head flies loose from the handle and strikes his fellow worker so hard that he dies. The person responsible may then flee to one of these cities to save himself.

<sup>6</sup> Otherwise the blood avenger will chase after the killer in the heat of his anger, eventually overtake him, and kill him, though this is not a capital case since he did not hate him at the time of the accident.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, I am commanding you to set apart for yourselves three cities.

<sup>8</sup> If the LORD your God enlarges your borders as he promised your ancestors and gives you all the land he pledged to them,

<sup>9</sup> and then you are careful to observe all these commandments I am giving you today (namely, to love the LORD | strong="H3069" your God and to always walk in his ways), then you must add three more cities to these three.

<sup>10</sup> You must not shed innocent blood in your land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, for that would make you guilty.

<sup>11</sup> However, suppose a person hates someone else and stalks him, attacks him, kills him, and then flees to one of these cities.

<sup>12</sup> The elders of his own city must send for him and remove him from there to deliver him over to the blood avenger to die.

<sup>13</sup> You must not pity him, but purge out the blood of the innocent from Israel, so that it may go well with you.

Laws Concerning Witnesses

<sup>14</sup> You must not encroach on your neighbor's property, which will have been defined in the inheritance you will obtain in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

<sup>15</sup> A single witness may not testify against another person for any trespass or sin that he commits. A matter may be legally established only on the testimony of two or three witnesses.

<sup>16</sup> If a false witness testifies against another person and accuses him of a crime, <sup>17</sup> then both parties to the controversy must stand before the LORD, that is, before the priests and judges who will be in office in those days.

<sup>18</sup> The judges will thoroughly investigate the matter, and if the witness should prove to be false and to have given false testimony against the accused,

<sup>19</sup> you must do to him what he had intended to do to the accused. In this way you will purge evil from among you.

<sup>20</sup> The rest of the people will hear and become afraid to keep doing such evil among you.

<sup>21</sup> You must not show pity; the principle will be a life for a life, an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand, and a foot for a foot.

20

<sup>1</sup> When you go to war against your enemies and see chariotry and troops who outnumber you, do not be afraid of them, for the LORD your God, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt, is with you.

<sup>2</sup> As you move forward for battle, the priest will approach and say to the soldiers,

<sup>3</sup> “Listen, Israel! Today you are moving forward to do battle with your enemies. Do not be fainthearted. Do not fear and tremble or be terrified because of them, <sup>4</sup> for the LORD your God goes with you to fight on your behalf against your enemies to give you victory.”

<sup>5</sup> Moreover, the officers are to say to the troops, “Who among you has built a new house and not dedicated it? He may go home, lest he die in battle and someone else dedicate it.

<sup>6</sup> Or who among you has planted a vineyard and not benefited from it? He may go home, lest he die in battle and someone else benefit from it.

<sup>7</sup> Or who among you has become engaged to a woman but has not married her? He may go home, lest he die in battle and someone else marry her.”

<sup>8</sup> In addition, the officers are to say to the troops, “Who among you is afraid and fainthearted? He may go home so that he will not make his fellow soldier’s heart as fearful as his own.”

<sup>9</sup> Then, when the officers have finished speaking, they must appoint unit commanders to lead the troops.

<sup>10</sup> When you approach a city to wage war against it, offer it terms of peace.

<sup>11</sup> If it accepts your terms and submits to you, all the people found in it will become your slaves.

<sup>12</sup> If it does not accept terms of peace but makes war with you, then you are to lay siege to it.

<sup>13</sup> The LORD your God will deliver it over to you and you must kill every single male by the sword.

<sup>14</sup> However, the women, little children, cattle, and anything else in the city – all its plunder – you may take for yourselves as spoil. You may take from your enemies the plunder that the LORD your God has given you.

<sup>15</sup> This is how you are to deal with all those cities located far from you, those that do not belong to these nearby nations.

Laws Concerning War with Canaanite Nations

<sup>16</sup> As for the cities of these peoples that the LORD your God is going to give you as an inheritance, you must not allow a single living thing to survive.

<sup>17</sup> Instead you must utterly annihilate them – the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites – just as the LORD your God has commanded you, <sup>18</sup> so that they cannot teach you all the abhorrent ways they worship their gods, causing you to sin against the LORD your God.

<sup>19</sup> If you besiege a city for a long time while attempting to capture it, you must not chop down its trees, for you may eat fruit from them and should not cut them down. A tree in the field is not human that you should besiege it!

<sup>20</sup> However, you may chop down any tree you know is not suitable for food, and you may use it to build siege works against the city that is making war with you until that city falls.

21

<sup>2</sup> your elders and judges must go out and measure how far it is to the cities in the vicinity of the corpse.

<sup>3</sup> Then the elders of the city nearest to the corpse must take from the herd a heifer that has not been worked – that has never pulled with the yoke –

<sup>4</sup> and bring the heifer down to a wadi with flowing water, to a valley that is neither plowed nor sown. There at the wadi they are to break the heifer's neck.

<sup>5</sup> Then the Levitical priests will approach (for the LORD your God has chosen them to serve him and to pronounce blessings in his name, and to decide every judicial verdict )

<sup>6</sup> and all the elders of that city nearest the corpse must wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley.

<sup>7</sup> Then they must proclaim, "Our hands have not spilled this blood, nor have we witnessed the crime.

<sup>8</sup> Do not blame your people Israel whom you redeemed, O LORD, and do not hold them accountable for the bloodshed of an innocent person." Then atonement will be made for the bloodshed.

<sup>9</sup> In this manner you will purge out the guilt of innocent blood from among you, for you must do what is right before the LORD.

Laws Concerning Wives

<sup>10</sup> When you go out to do battle with your enemies and the LORD your God allows you to prevail and you take prisoners,

<sup>11</sup> if you should see among them an attractive woman whom you wish to take as a wife,

<sup>12</sup> you may bring her back to your house. She must shave her head, trim her nails, <sup>13</sup> discard the clothing she was wearing when captured, and stay in your house, lamenting for her father and mother for a full month. After that you may have sexual relations with her and become her husband and she your wife.

<sup>14</sup> If you are not pleased with her, then you must let her go where she pleases. You cannot in any case sell her; you must not take advantage of her, since you have already humiliated her.

Laws Concerning Children

<sup>15</sup> Suppose a man has two wives, one whom he loves more than the other, and they both bear him sons, with the firstborn being the child of the less loved wife.

<sup>16</sup> In the day he divides his inheritance he must not appoint as firstborn the son of the favorite wife in place of the other wife's son who is actually the firstborn.

<sup>17</sup> Rather, he must acknowledge the son of the less loved wife as firstborn and give him the double portion of all he has, for that son is the beginning of his father's procreative power – to him should go the right of the firstborn.

<sup>18</sup> If a person has a stubborn, rebellious son who pays no attention to his father or mother, and they discipline him to no avail, <sup>19</sup> his father and mother must seize him and bring him to the elders at the gate of his city.

<sup>20</sup> They must declare to the elders of his city, "Our son is stubborn and rebellious and pays no attention to what we say – he is a glutton and drunkard."

<sup>21</sup> Then all the men of his city must stone him to death. In this way you will purge out wickedness from among you, and all Israel will hear about it and be afraid.

Disposition of a Criminal's Remains

<sup>22</sup> If a person commits a sin punishable by death and is executed, and you hang the corpse on a tree,

<sup>23</sup> his body must not remain all night on the tree; instead you must make certain you bury him that same day, for the one who is left exposed on a tree is cursed by God. You must not defile your land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

22

<sup>1</sup> When you see your neighbor's ox or sheep going astray, do not ignore it; you must return it without fail to your neighbor.

<sup>2</sup> If the owner does not live near you or you do not know who the owner is, then you must corral the animal at your house and let it stay with you until the owner looks for it; then you must return it to him.

<sup>3</sup> You shall do the same to his donkey, his clothes, or anything else your neighbor has lost and you have found; you must not refuse to get involved.

<sup>4</sup> When you see your neighbor's donkey or ox fallen along the road, do not ignore it; instead, you must be sure to help him get the animal on its feet again.

<sup>5</sup> A woman must not wear men's clothing, nor should a man dress up in women's clothing, for anyone who does this is offensive to the LORD | strong="H3069" your God.

<sup>6</sup> If you happen to notice a bird's nest along the road, whether in a tree or on the ground, and there are chicks or eggs with the mother bird sitting on them, you must not take the mother from the young.

<sup>7</sup> You must be sure to let the mother go, but you may take the young for yourself. Do this so that it may go well with you and you may have a long life.

<sup>8</sup> If you build a new house, you must construct a guard rail around your roof to avoid being culpable in the event someone should fall from it.

Illustrations of the Principle of Purity

<sup>9</sup> You must not plant your vineyard with two kinds of seed; otherwise the entire yield, both of the seed you plant and the produce of the vineyard, will be defiled.

<sup>10</sup> You must not plow with an ox and a donkey harnessed together.

<sup>11</sup> You must not wear clothing made with wool and linen meshed together.

Purity in the Marriage Relationship

<sup>15</sup> Then the father and mother of the young woman must produce the evidence of virginity for the elders of the city at the gate.

<sup>16</sup> The young woman's father must say to the elders, "I gave my daughter to this man and he has rejected her.

<sup>17</sup> Moreover, he has raised accusations of impropriety by saying, 'I discovered your daughter was not a virgin,' but this is the evidence of my daughter's virginity!" The cloth must then be spread out before the city's elders.

<sup>18</sup> The elders of that city must then seize the man and punish him.

<sup>19</sup> They will fine him one hundred shekels of silver and give them to the young woman's father, for the man who made the accusation ruined the reputation of an Israelite virgin. She will then become his wife and he may never divorce her as long as he lives.

<sup>20</sup> But if the accusation is true and the young woman was not a virgin,

<sup>21</sup> the men of her city must bring the young woman to the door of her father's house and stone her to death, for she has done a disgraceful thing in Israel by behaving like a prostitute while living in her father's house. In this way you will purge evil from among you.

<sup>22</sup> If a man is caught having sexual relations with a married woman both the man who had relations with the woman and the woman herself must die; in this way you will purge evil from Israel.

<sup>23</sup> If a virgin is engaged to a man and another man meets her in the city and has sexual relations with her,

<sup>24</sup> you must bring the two of them to the gate of that city and stone them to death, the young woman because she did not cry out though in the city and the man because he violated his neighbor's fiancée; in this way you will purge evil from among you.

<sup>25</sup> But if the man came across the engaged woman in the field and overpowered her and raped her, then only the rapist must die.

<sup>26</sup> You must not do anything to the young woman – she has done nothing deserving of death. This case is the same as when someone attacks another person and murders him, <sup>27</sup> for the man met her in the field and the engaged woman cried out, but there was no one to rescue her.

<sup>28</sup> Suppose a man comes across a virgin who is not engaged and overpowers and rapes her and they are discovered.

<sup>29</sup> The man who has raped her must pay her father fifty shekels of silver and she must become his wife because he has violated her; he may never divorce her as long as he lives.

23

<sup>2</sup> A person of illegitimate birth may not enter the assembly of the LORD; to the tenth generation no one related to him may do so.

<sup>3</sup> An Ammonite or Moabite may not enter the assembly of the LORD; to the tenth generation none of their descendants shall ever do so,

<sup>4</sup> for they did not meet you with food and water on the way as you came from Egypt, and furthermore, they hired Balaam son of Beor of Pethor in Aram Naharaim to curse you.

<sup>5</sup> But the LORD your God refused to listen to Balaam and changed the curse to a blessing, for the LORD your God loves you.

<sup>6</sup> You must not seek peace and prosperity for them through all the ages to come.

<sup>7</sup> You must not hate an Edomite, for he is your relative; you must not hate an Egyptian, for you lived as a foreigner in his land.

<sup>8</sup> Children of the third generation born to them may enter the assembly of the LORD.

Purity in Personal Hygiene

<sup>9</sup> When you go out as an army against your enemies, guard yourselves against anything impure.

<sup>10</sup> If there is someone among you who is impure because of some nocturnal emission, he must leave the camp; he may not reenter it immediately.

<sup>11</sup> When evening arrives he must wash himself with water and then at sunset he may reenter the camp.

<sup>12</sup> You are to have a place outside the camp to serve as a latrine.

<sup>13</sup> You must have a spade among your other equipment and when you relieve yourself outside you must dig a hole with the spade and then turn and cover your excrement.

<sup>14</sup> For the LORD your God walks about in the middle of your camp to deliver you and defeat your enemies for you. Therefore your camp should be holy, so that he does not see anything indecent among you and turn away from you.

Purity in the Treatment of the Nonprivileged

<sup>15</sup> You must not return an escaped slave to his master when he has run away to you.

<sup>16</sup> Indeed, he may live among you in any place he chooses, in whichever of your villages he prefers; you must not oppress him.

Purity in Cultic Personnel

<sup>17</sup> There must never be a sacred prostitute among the young women of Israel nor a sacred male prostitute among the young men of Israel.

<sup>18</sup> You must never bring the pay of a female prostitute or the wage of a male prostitute into the temple of the LORD your God in fulfillment of any vow, for both of these are abhorrent to the LORD your God.

Respect for Others' Property

<sup>19</sup> You must not charge interest on a loan to your fellow Israelite, whether on money, food, or anything else that has been loaned with interest.

<sup>20</sup> You may lend with interest to a foreigner, but not to your fellow Israelite; if you keep this command the LORD your God will bless you in all you undertake in the land you are about to enter to possess.

<sup>21</sup> When you make a vow to the LORD your God you must not delay in fulfilling it, for otherwise he will surely hold you accountable as a sinner.

<sup>23</sup> Whatever you vow, you must be careful to do what you have promised, such as what you have vowed to the LORD your God as a freewill offering.

<sup>24</sup> When you enter the vineyard of your neighbor you may eat as many grapes as you please, but you must not take away any in a container.

<sup>25</sup> When you go into the ripe grain fields of your neighbor you may pluck off the kernels with your hand, but you must not use a sickle on your neighbor's ripe grain.

24

<sup>1</sup> If a man marries a woman and she does not please him because he has found something offensive in her, then he may draw up a divorce document, give it to her, and evict her from his house.

<sup>3</sup> If the second husband rejects her and then divorces her, gives her the papers, and evicts her from his house, or if the second husband who married her dies,

<sup>4</sup> her first husband who divorced her is not permitted to remarry her after she has become ritually impure, for that is offensive to the LORD. You must not bring guilt on the land which the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

<sup>5</sup> When a man is newly married, he need not go into the army nor be obligated in any way; he must be free to stay at home for a full year and bring joy to the wife he has married.

<sup>6</sup> One must not take either lower or upper millstones as security on a loan, for that is like taking a life itself as security.

<sup>7</sup> If a man is found kidnapping a person from among his fellow Israelites, and regards him as mere property and sells him, that kidnapper must die. In this way you will purge evil from among you.

Respect for Human Dignity

<sup>8</sup> Be careful during an outbreak of leprosy to follow precisely all that the Levitical priests instruct you; as I have commanded them, so you should do.

<sup>9</sup> Remember what the LORD | strong="H3069" your God did to Miriam along the way after you left Egypt.

<sup>10</sup> When you make any kind of loan to your neighbor, you may not go into his house to claim what he is offering as security.

<sup>11</sup> You must stand outside and the person to whom you are making the loan will bring out to you what he is offering as security.

<sup>12</sup> If the person is poor you may not use what he gives you as security for a covering.

<sup>13</sup> You must by all means return to him at sunset the item he gave you as security so that he may sleep in his outer garment and bless you for it; it will be considered a just deed by the LORD your God.

<sup>14</sup> You must not oppress a lowly and poor servant, whether one from among your fellow Israelites or from the resident foreigners who are living in your land and villages.

<sup>15</sup> You must pay his wage that very day before the sun sets, for he is poor and his life depends on it. Otherwise he will cry out to the LORD against you, and you will be guilty of sin.

<sup>16</sup> Fathers must not be put to death for what their children do, nor children for what their fathers do; each must be put to death for his own sin.

<sup>17</sup> You must not pervert justice due a resident foreigner or an orphan, or take a widow's garment as security for a loan.

<sup>18</sup> Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and that the LORD your God redeemed you from there; therefore I am commanding you to do all this.

<sup>19</sup> Whenever you reap your harvest in your field and leave some unraked grain there, you must not return to get it; it should go to the resident foreigner, orphan, and widow so that the LORD your God may bless all the work you do.

<sup>20</sup> When you beat your olive tree you must not repeat the procedure; the remaining olives belong to the resident foreigner, orphan, and widow.

<sup>21</sup> When you gather the grapes of your vineyard you must not do so a second time; they should go to the resident foreigner, orphan, and widow.

<sup>22</sup> Remember that you were slaves in the land of Egypt; therefore, I am commanding you to do all this.

25

<sup>1</sup> If controversy arises between people, they should go to court for judgment. When the judges hear the case, they shall exonerate the innocent but condemn the guilty.

<sup>2</sup> Then, if the guilty person is sentenced to a beating, the judge shall force him to lie down and be beaten in his presence with the number of blows his wicked behavior deserves.

<sup>3</sup> The judge may sentence him to forty blows, but no more. If he is struck with more than these, you might view your fellow Israelite with contempt.

<sup>4</sup> You must not muzzle your ox when it is treading grain.

Respect for the Sanctity of Others

<sup>5</sup> If brothers live together and one of them dies without having a son, the dead man's wife must not remarry someone outside the family. Instead, her late husband's brother must go to her, marry her, and perform the duty of a brother-in-law.

<sup>6</sup> Then the first son she bears will continue the name of the dead brother, thus preventing his name from being blotted out of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> But if the man does not want to marry his brother's widow, then she must go to the elders at the town gate and say, "My husband's brother refuses to preserve his brother's name in Israel; he is unwilling to perform the duty of a brother-in-law to me!"

<sup>8</sup> Then the elders of his city must summon him and speak to him. If he persists, saying, "I don't want to marry her,"

<sup>9</sup> then his sister-in-law must approach him in view of the elders, remove his sandal from his foot, and spit in his face. She will then respond, "Thus may it be done to any man who does not maintain his brother's family line!"

<sup>10</sup> His family name will be referred to in Israel as "the family of the one whose sandal was removed."

<sup>14</sup> You must not have in your house different measuring containers, a large and a small one.

<sup>15</sup> You must have an accurate and correct stone weight and an accurate and correct measuring container, so that your life may be extended in the land the LORD your God is about to give you.

<sup>16</sup> For anyone who acts dishonestly in these ways is abhorrent to the LORD your God.

Treatment of the Amalekites

<sup>17</sup> Remember what the Amalekites did to you on your way from Egypt,

<sup>18</sup> how they met you along the way and cut off all your stragglers in the rear of the march when you were exhausted and tired; they were unafraid of God.

<sup>19</sup> So when the LORD your God gives you relief from all the enemies who surround you in the land he is giving you as an inheritance, you must wipe out the memory of the Amalekites from under heaven – do not forget!

26

<sup>1</sup> When you enter the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, and you occupy it and live in it,

<sup>2</sup> you must take the first of all the ground's produce you harvest from the land the LORD your God is giving you, place it in a basket, and go to the place where he chooses to locate his name.

<sup>3</sup> You must go to the priest in office at that time and say to him, "I declare today to the LORD your God that I have come into the land that the LORD promised to our ancestors to give us."

<sup>4</sup> The priest will then take the basket from you and set it before the altar of the LORD your God.

<sup>5</sup> Then you must affirm before the LORD your God, "A wandering Aramean was my ancestor, and he went down to Egypt and lived there as a foreigner with a household few in number, but there he became a great, powerful, and numerous people.

<sup>6</sup> But the Egyptians mistreated and oppressed us, forcing us to do burdensome labor.

<sup>7</sup> So we cried out to the LORD, the God of our ancestors, and he heard us and saw our humiliation, toil, and oppression.

<sup>8</sup> Therefore the LORD brought us out of Egypt with tremendous strength and power, as well as with great awe-inspiring signs and wonders.

<sup>9</sup> Then he brought us to this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey.

<sup>10</sup> So now, look! I have brought the first of the ground's produce that you, LORD, have given me." Then you must set it down before the LORD your God and worship before him.

<sup>11</sup> You will celebrate all the good things that the LORD your God has given you and your family, along with the Levites and the resident foreigners among you.

Presentation of the Third-year Tithe

<sup>12</sup> When you finish tithing all your income in the third year (the year of tithing), you must give it to the Levites, the resident foreigners, the orphans, and the widows so that they may eat to their satisfaction in your villages.

<sup>13</sup> Then you shall say before the LORD your God, "I have removed the sacred offering from my house and given it to the Levites, the resident foreigners, the orphans, and the widows just as you have commanded me. I have not violated or forgotten your commandments.

<sup>14</sup> I have not eaten anything when I was in mourning, or removed any of it while ceremonially unclean, or offered any of it to the dead; I have obeyed you and have done everything you have commanded me.

<sup>15</sup> Look down from your holy dwelling place in heaven and bless your people Israel and the land you have given us, just as you promised our ancestors – a land flowing with milk and honey."

Narrative Interlude

<sup>16</sup> Today the LORD your God is commanding you to keep these statutes and ordinances, something you must do with all your heart and soul.

<sup>17</sup> Today you have declared the LORD to be your God, and that you will walk in his ways, keep his statutes, commandments, and ordinances, and obey him.

<sup>18</sup> And today the LORD has declared you to be his special people (as he already promised you) so you may keep all his commandments.

<sup>19</sup> Then he will elevate you above all the nations he has made and you will receive praise, fame, and honor. You will be a people holy to the LORD your God, as he has said.

27

<sup>2</sup> When you cross the Jordan River to the land the LORD your God is giving you, you must erect great stones and cover them with plaster.

<sup>3</sup> Then you must inscribe on them all the words of this law when you cross over, so that you may enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey just as the LORD, the God of your ancestors, said to you.

<sup>4</sup> So when you cross the Jordan you must erect on Mount Ebal these stones about which I am commanding you today, and you must cover them with plaster.

<sup>5</sup> Then you must build an altar there to the LORD your God, an altar of stones – do not use an iron tool on them.

<sup>6</sup> You must build the altar of the LORD your God with whole stones and offer burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God.

<sup>7</sup> Also you must offer fellowship offerings and eat them there, rejoicing before the LORD your God.

<sup>8</sup> You must inscribe on the stones all the words of this law, making them clear."

<sup>9</sup> Then Moses and the Levitical priests spoke to all Israel: "Be quiet and pay attention, Israel. Today you have become the people of the LORD your God.

<sup>10</sup> You must obey him and keep his commandments and statutes that I am giving you today."

The Covenant Curses

<sup>15</sup> ‘Cursed is the one who makes a carved or metal image – something abhorrent to the LORD, the work of the craftsman – and sets it up in a secret place.’ Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>16</sup> ‘Cursed is the one who disrespects his father and mother.’ Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>17</sup> ‘Cursed is the one who moves his neighbor’s boundary marker.’ Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>18</sup> ‘Cursed is the one who misleads a blind person on the road.’ Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>19</sup> ‘Cursed is the one who perverts justice for the resident foreigner, the orphan, and the widow.’ Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>20</sup> ‘Cursed is the one who has sexual relations with his father’s former wife, for he dishonors his father.’ Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>21</sup> ‘Cursed is the one who commits bestiality.’ Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>22</sup> ‘Cursed is the one who has sexual relations with his sister, the daughter of either his father or mother.’ Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>23</sup> ‘Cursed is the one who has sexual relations with his mother-in-law.’ Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>24</sup> ‘Cursed is the one who kills his neighbor in private.’ Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>25</sup> ‘Cursed is the one who takes a bribe to kill an innocent person.’ Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’

<sup>26</sup> ‘Cursed is the one who refuses to keep the words of this law.’ Then all the people will say, ‘Amen!’

28

<sup>1</sup> “If you indeed obey the LORD your God and are careful to observe all his commandments I am giving you today, the LORD your God will elevate you above all the nations of the earth.

<sup>2</sup> All these blessings will come to you in abundance if you obey the LORD your God:

<sup>3</sup> You will be blessed in the city and blessed in the field.

<sup>4</sup> Your children will be blessed, as well as the produce of your soil, the offspring of your livestock, the calves of your herds, and the lambs of your flocks.

<sup>5</sup> Your basket and your mixing bowl will be blessed.

<sup>6</sup> You will be blessed when you come in and blessed when you go out.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD will cause your enemies who attack you to be struck down before you; they will attack you from one direction but flee from you in seven different directions.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD will decree blessing for you with respect to your barns and in everything you do – yes, he will bless you in the land he is giving you.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD will designate you as his holy people just as he promised you, if you keep his commandments and obey him.

<sup>10</sup> Then all the peoples of the earth will see that you belong to the LORD | strong="H5921", and they will respect you.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD will greatly multiply your children, the offspring of your livestock, and the produce of your soil in the land which he promised your ancestors he would give you.

<sup>12</sup> The LORD will open for you his good treasure house, the heavens, to give you rain for the land in its season and to bless all you do; you will lend to many nations but you will not borrow from any.

<sup>13</sup> The LORD will make you the head and not the tail, and you will always end up at the top and not at the bottom, if you obey his commandments which I am urging you today to be careful to do.

<sup>14</sup> But you must not turn away from all the commandments I am giving you today, to either the right or left, nor pursue other gods and worship them.

Curses as Reversal of Blessings

<sup>15</sup> “But if you ignore the LORD your God and are not careful to keep all his commandments and statutes I am giving you today, then all these curses will come upon you in full force:

<sup>16</sup> You will be cursed in the city and cursed in the field.

<sup>17</sup> Your basket and your mixing bowl will be cursed.

<sup>18</sup> Your children will be cursed, as well as the produce of your soil, the calves of your herds, and the lambs of your flocks.

<sup>19</sup> You will be cursed when you come in and cursed when you go out.

Curses by Disease and Drought

<sup>20</sup> “The LORD will send on you a curse, confusing you and opposing you in everything you undertake until you are destroyed and quickly perish because of the evil of your deeds, in that you have forsaken me.

<sup>21</sup> The LORD will plague you with deadly diseases until he has completely removed you from the land you are about to possess.

<sup>22</sup> He will afflict you with weakness, fever, inflammation, infection, sword, blight, and mildew; these will attack you until you perish.

<sup>23</sup> The sky above your heads will be bronze and the earth beneath you iron.

<sup>24</sup> The LORD will make the rain of your land powder and dust; it will come down on you from the sky until you are destroyed.

Curses by Defeat and Deportation

<sup>25</sup> “The LORD will allow you to be struck down before your enemies; you will attack them from one direction but flee from them in seven directions and will become an object of terror to all the kingdoms of the earth.

<sup>26</sup> Your carcasses will be food for every bird of the sky and wild animal of the earth, and there will be no one to chase them off.

<sup>27</sup> The LORD will afflict you with the boils of Egypt and with tumors, eczema, and scabies, all of which cannot be healed.

<sup>28</sup> The LORD will also subject you to madness, blindness, and confusion of mind.

<sup>29</sup> You will feel your way along at noon like the blind person does in darkness and you will not succeed in anything you do; you will be constantly oppressed and continually robbed, with no one to save you.

<sup>30</sup> You will be engaged to a woman and another man will rape her. You will build a house but not live in it. You will plant a vineyard but not even begin to use it.

<sup>31</sup> Your ox will be slaughtered before your very eyes but you will not eat of it. Your donkey will be stolen from you as you watch and will not be returned to you. Your flock of sheep will be given to your enemies and there will be no one to save you.

<sup>32</sup> Your sons and daughters will be given to another people while you look on in vain all day, and you will be powerless to do anything about it.

<sup>33</sup> As for the produce of your land and all your labor, a people you do not know will consume it, and you will be nothing but oppressed and crushed for the rest of your lives.

<sup>35</sup> The LORD will afflict you in your knees and on your legs with painful, incurable boils – from the soles of your feet to the top of your head.

<sup>36</sup> The LORD will force you and your king whom you will appoint over you to go away to a people whom you and your ancestors have not known, and you will serve other gods of wood and stone there.

<sup>37</sup> You will become an occasion of horror, a proverb, and an object of ridicule to all the peoples to whom the LORD will drive you.

The Curse of Reversed Status

<sup>38</sup> “You will take much seed to the field but gather little harvest, because locusts will consume it.

<sup>39</sup> You will plant vineyards and cultivate them, but you will not drink wine or gather in grapes, because worms will eat them.

<sup>40</sup> You will have olive trees throughout your territory but you will not anoint yourself with olive oil, because the olives will drop off the trees while still unripe.

<sup>41</sup> You will bear sons and daughters but not keep them, because they will be taken into captivity.

<sup>42</sup> Whirring locusts will take over every tree and all the produce of your soil.

<sup>43</sup> The foreigners who reside among you will become higher and higher over you and you will become lower and lower.

<sup>44</sup> They will lend to you but you will not lend to them; they will become the head and you will become the tail!

<sup>45</sup> All these curses will fall on you, pursuing and overtaking you until you are destroyed, because you would not obey the LORD your God by keeping his commandments and statutes that he has given you.

<sup>46</sup> These curses will be a perpetual sign and wonder with reference to you and your descendants.

The Curse of Military Siege

<sup>47</sup> “Because you have not served the LORD your God joyfully and wholeheartedly with the abundance of everything you have,

<sup>48</sup> instead in hunger, thirst, nakedness, and poverty you will serve your enemies whom the LORD will send against you. They will place an iron yoke on your neck until they have destroyed you.

<sup>49</sup> The LORD will raise up a distant nation against you, one from the other side of the earth as the eagle flies, a nation whose language you will not understand, <sup>50</sup> a nation of stern appearance that will have no regard for the elderly or pity for the young.

<sup>51</sup> They will devour the offspring of your livestock and the produce of your soil until you are destroyed. They will not leave you with any grain, new wine, olive oil, calves of your herds, or lambs of your flocks until they have destroyed you.

<sup>52</sup> They will besiege all of your villages until all of your high and fortified walls collapse – those in which you put your confidence throughout the land. They will besiege all your villages throughout the land the LORD your God has given you.

<sup>53</sup> You will then eat your own offspring, the flesh of the sons and daughters the LORD your God has given you, because of the severity of the siege by which your enemies will constrict you.

<sup>54</sup> The man among you who is by nature tender and sensitive will turn against his brother, his beloved wife, and his remaining children.

<sup>55</sup> He will withhold from all of them his children's flesh that he is eating (since there is nothing else left), because of the severity of the siege by which your enemy will constrict you in your villages.

<sup>56</sup> Likewise, the most tender and delicate of your women, who would never think of putting even the sole of her foot on the ground because of her daintiness, will turn against her beloved husband, her sons and daughters, <sup>57</sup> and will secretly eat her afterbirth and her newborn children (since she has nothing else), because of the severity of the siege by which your enemy will constrict you in your villages.

The Curse of Covenant Termination

<sup>58</sup> "If you refuse to obey all the words of this law, the things written in this scroll, and refuse to fear this glorious and awesome name, the LORD your God,

<sup>59</sup> then the LORD will increase your punishments and those of your descendants – great and long-lasting afflictions and severe, enduring illnesses.

<sup>60</sup> He will infect you with all the diseases of Egypt that you dreaded, and they will persistently afflict you.

<sup>61</sup> Moreover, the LORD will bring upon you every kind of sickness and plague not mentioned in this scroll of commandments, until you have perished.

<sup>62</sup> There will be very few of you left, though at one time you were as numerous as the stars in the sky, because you will have disobeyed the LORD your God.

<sup>63</sup> This is what will happen: Just as the LORD delighted to do good for you and make you numerous, he will take delight in destroying and decimating you. You will be uprooted from the land you are about to possess.

<sup>64</sup> The LORD will scatter you among all nations, from one end of the earth to the other. There you will worship other gods that neither you nor your ancestors have known, gods of wood and stone.

<sup>65</sup> Among those nations you will have no rest nor will there be a place of peaceful rest for the soles of your feet, for there the LORD will give you an anxious heart, failing eyesight, and a spirit of despair.

<sup>66</sup> Your life will hang in doubt before you; you will be terrified by night and day and will have no certainty of surviving from one day to the next.

<sup>67</sup> In the morning you will say, 'If only it were evening!' And in the evening you will say, 'I wish it were morning!' because of the things you will fear and the things you will see.

<sup>68</sup> Then the LORD will make you return to Egypt by ship, over a route I said to you that you would never see again. There you will sell yourselves to your enemies as male and female slaves, but no one will buy you."

29

<sup>1</sup> These are the words of the covenant that the LORD commanded Moses to make with the people of Israel in the land of Moab, in addition to the covenant he had made with them at Horeb.

The Exodus, Wandering, and Conquest Reviewed

<sup>2</sup> Moses proclaimed to all Israel as follows: "You have seen all that the LORD did in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, all his servants, and his land.

<sup>3</sup> Your eyes have seen the great judgments, those signs and mighty wonders.

<sup>4</sup> But to this very day the LORD has not given you an understanding mind, perceptive eyes, or discerning ears!

<sup>5</sup> I have led you through the desert for forty years. Your clothing has not worn out nor have your sandals deteriorated.

<sup>6</sup> You have eaten no bread and drunk no wine or beer – all so that you might know that I am the LORD your God!

<sup>7</sup> When you came to this place King Sihon of Heshbon and King Og of Bashan came out to make war and we defeated them.

<sup>8</sup> Then we took their land and gave it as an inheritance to Reuben, Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh.

The Present Covenant Setting

<sup>9</sup> “Therefore, keep the terms of this covenant and obey them so that you may be successful in everything you do.

<sup>10</sup> You are standing today, all of you, before the LORD your God – the heads of your tribes, your elders, your officials, every Israelite man,

<sup>11</sup> your infants, your wives, and the foreigners living in your encampment, those who chop wood and those who carry water –

<sup>12</sup> so that you may enter by oath into the covenant the LORD your God is making with you today.

<sup>13</sup> Today he will affirm that you are his people and that he is your God, just as he promised you and as he swore by oath to your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

<sup>14</sup> It is not with you alone that I am making this covenant by oath, <sup>15</sup> but with whoever stands with us here today before the LORD our God as well as those not with us here today.

The Results of Disobedience

<sup>16</sup> “(For you know how we lived in the land of Egypt and how we crossed through the nations as we traveled.

<sup>18</sup> Beware that the heart of no man, woman, clan, or tribe among you turns away from the LORD our God today to pursue and serve the gods of those nations; beware that there is among you no root producing poisonous and bitter fruit.

<sup>19</sup> When such a person hears the words of this oath he secretly blesses himself and says, “I will have peace though I continue to walk with a stubborn spirit.” This will destroy the watered ground with the parched.

<sup>20</sup> The LORD will be unwilling to forgive him, and his intense anger will rage against that man; all the curses written in this scroll will fall upon him and the LORD will obliterate his name from memory.

<sup>21</sup> The LORD will single him out for judgment from all the tribes of Israel according to all the curses of the covenant written in this scroll of the law.

<sup>22</sup> The generation to come – your descendants who will rise up after you, as well as the foreigner who will come from distant places – will see the afflictions of that land and the illnesses that the LORD has brought on it.

<sup>23</sup> The whole land will be covered with brimstone, salt, and burning debris; it will not be planted nor will it sprout or produce grass. It will resemble the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which the LORD destroyed in his intense anger.

<sup>24</sup> Then all the nations will ask, “Why has the LORD done all this to this land? What is this fierce, heated display of anger all about?”

<sup>25</sup> Then people will say, “Because they abandoned the covenant of the LORD, the God of their ancestors, which he made with them when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>26</sup> They went and served other gods and worshiped them, gods they did not know and that he did not permit them to worship.

<sup>27</sup> That is why the LORD's anger erupted against this land, bringing on it all the curses written in this scroll.

<sup>28</sup> So the LORD has uprooted them from their land in anger, wrath, and great rage and has deported them to another land, as is clear today."

<sup>29</sup> Secret things belong to the LORD our God, but those that are revealed belong to us and our descendants forever, so that we might obey all the words of this law.

30

<sup>1</sup> "When you have experienced all these things, both the blessings and the curses I have set before you, you will reflect upon them in all the nations where the LORD your God has banished you.

<sup>2</sup> Then if you and your descendants turn to the LORD your God and obey him with your whole mind and being just as I am commanding you today, <sup>3</sup> the LORD your God will reverse your captivity and have pity on you. He will turn and gather you from all the peoples among whom he has scattered you.

<sup>4</sup> Even if your exiles are in the most distant land, from there the LORD your God will gather you and bring you back.

<sup>5</sup> Then he will bring you to the land your ancestors possessed and you also will possess it; he will do better for you and multiply you more than he did your ancestors.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD your God will also cleanse your heart and the hearts of your descendants so that you may love him with all your mind and being and so that you may live.

<sup>7</sup> Then the LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies, on those who hate you and persecute you.

<sup>8</sup> You will return and obey the LORD, keeping all his commandments I am giving you today.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD your God will make the labor of your hands abundantly successful and multiply your children, the offspring of your cattle, and the produce of your soil. For the LORD your God will once more rejoice over you to make you prosperous just as he rejoiced over your ancestors, <sup>10</sup> if you obey the LORD your God and keep his commandments and statutes that are written in this scroll of the law. But you must turn to him with your whole mind and being.

Exhortation to Covenant Obedience

<sup>11</sup> "This commandment I am giving you today is not too difficult for you, nor is it too remote.

<sup>12</sup> It is not in heaven, as though one must say, "Who will go up to heaven to get it for us and proclaim it to us so we may obey it?"

<sup>13</sup> And it is not across the sea, as though one must say, "Who will cross over to the other side of the sea and get it for us and proclaim it to us so we may obey it?"

<sup>14</sup> For the thing is very near you - it is in your mouth and in your mind so that you can do it.

<sup>15</sup> "Look! I have set before you today life and prosperity on the one hand, and death and disaster on the other.

<sup>16</sup> What I am commanding you today is to love the LORD your God, to walk in his ways, and to obey his commandments, his statutes, and his ordinances. Then you will live and become numerous and the LORD your God will bless you in the land which you are about to possess.

<sup>17</sup> However, if you turn aside and do not obey, but are lured away to worship and serve other gods, <sup>18</sup> I declare to you this very day that you will certainly perish! You will not extend your time in the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess.

<sup>19</sup> Today I invoke heaven and earth as a witness against you that I have set life and death, blessing and curse, before you. Therefore choose life so that you and your descendants may live!

<sup>20</sup> I also call on you to love the LORD your God, to obey him and be loyal to him, for he gives you life and enables you to live continually in the land the LORD promised to give to your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.”

31

<sup>2</sup> He said to them, “Today I am a hundred and twenty years old. I am no longer able to get about, and the LORD has said to me, ‘You will not cross the Jordan.’

<sup>3</sup> As for the LORD your God, he is about to cross over before you; he will destroy these nations before you and dispossess them. As for Joshua, he is about to cross before you just as the LORD has said.

<sup>4</sup> The LORD will do to them just what he did to Sihon and Og, the Amorite kings, and to their land, which he destroyed.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD will deliver them over to you and you will do to them according to the whole commandment I have given you.

<sup>6</sup> Be strong and courageous! Do not fear or tremble before them, for the LORD your God is the one who is going with you. He will not fail you or abandon you!”

<sup>7</sup> Then Moses called out to Joshua in the presence of all Israel, “Be strong and courageous, for you will accompany these people to the land that the LORD promised to give their ancestors, and you will enable them to inherit it.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD is indeed going before you – he will be with you; he will not fail you or abandon you. Do not be afraid or discouraged!”

The Deposit of the Covenant Text

<sup>9</sup> Then Moses wrote down this law and gave it to the Levitical priests, who carry the ark of the LORD’s covenant, and to all Israel’s elders.

<sup>10</sup> He commanded them: “At the end of seven years, at the appointed time of the cancellation of debts, at the Feast of Temporary Shelters, <sup>11</sup> when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD your God in the place he chooses, you must read this law before them within their hearing.

<sup>12</sup> Gather the people – men, women, and children, as well as the resident foreigners in your villages – so they may hear and thus learn about and fear the LORD your God and carefully obey all the words of this law.

<sup>13</sup> Then their children, who have not known this law, will also hear about and learn to fear the LORD your God for as long as you live in the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess.”

The Commissioning of Joshua

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “The day of your death is near. Summon Joshua and present yourselves in the tent of meeting so that I can commission him.” So Moses and Joshua presented themselves in the tent of meeting.

<sup>16</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses, “You are about to die, and then these people will begin to prostitute themselves with the foreign gods of the land into which they are going. They will reject me and break my covenant that I have made with them.

<sup>17</sup> At that time my anger will erupt against them and I will abandon them and hide my face from them until they are devoured. Many disasters and distresses will overcome them so that they will say at that time, ‘Have not these disasters overcome us because our God is not among us?’

<sup>18</sup> But I will certainly hide myself at that time because of all the wickedness they will have done by turning to other gods.

<sup>19</sup> Now write down for yourselves the following song and teach it to the Israelites. Put it into their very mouths so that this song may serve as my witness against the Israelites!

<sup>20</sup> For after I have brought them to the land I promised to their ancestors – one flowing with milk and honey – and they eat their fill and become fat, then they will turn to other gods and worship them; they will reject me and break my covenant.

<sup>21</sup> Then when many disasters and distresses overcome them this song will testify against them, for their descendants will not forget it. I know the intentions they have in mind today, even before I bring them to the land I have promised.”

<sup>22</sup> So on that day Moses wrote down this song and taught it to the Israelites,

<sup>23</sup> and the LORD commissioned | strong="H6680" Joshua son of Nun, “Be strong and courageous, for you will take the Israelites to the land I have promised them, and I will be with you.”

Anticipation of Disobedience

<sup>24</sup> When Moses finished writing on a scroll the words of this law in their entirety,

<sup>25</sup> he commanded the Levites who carried the ark of the LORD’s covenant,

<sup>26</sup> “Take this scroll of the law and place it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God. It will remain there as a witness against you,

<sup>27</sup> for I know about your rebellion and stubbornness. Indeed, even while I have been living among you to this very day, you have rebelled against the LORD; you will be even more rebellious after my death!

<sup>28</sup> Gather to me all your tribal elders and officials so I can speak to them directly about these things and call the heavens and the earth to witness against them.

<sup>29</sup> For I know that after I die you will totally corrupt yourselves and turn away from the path I have commanded you to walk. Disaster will confront you in the days to come because you will act wickedly before the LORD, inciting him to anger because of your actions.”

<sup>30</sup> Then Moses recited the words of this song from start to finish in the hearing of the whole assembly of Israel.

32

hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.

<sup>2</sup> My teaching will drop like the rain, my sayings will drip like the dew,
as rain drops upon the grass,
and showers upon new growth.

<sup>3</sup> For I will proclaim the name of the LORD;
you must acknowledge the greatness of our God.

<sup>4</sup> As for the Rock, his work is perfect, for all his ways are just.
He is a reliable God who is never unjust,
he is fair and upright.

<sup>5</sup> His people have been unfaithful to him;
they have not acted like his children – this is their sin.
They are a perverse and deceitful generation.

<sup>6</sup> Is this how you repay the LORD,

you foolish, unwise people?

Is he not your father, your creator?

He has made you and established you.

<sup>7</sup> Remember the ancient days;

bear in mind the years of past generations.

Ask your father and he will inform you, your elders, and they will tell you.

<sup>8</sup> When the Most High gave the nations their inheritance, when he divided up humankind,
he set the boundaries of the peoples,
according to the number of the heavenly assembly.

<sup>9</sup> For the LORD's allotment is his people,
Jacob is his special possession.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD found | strong="H4672" him in a desolate land,
in an empty wasteland where animals howl.
He continually guarded him and taught him;
he continually protected him like the pupil of his eye.

<sup>11</sup> Like an eagle that stirs up its nest, that hovers over its young,
so the LORD | strong="H7363" spread out his wings and took him,
he lifted him up on his pinions.

<sup>12</sup> The LORD alone was guiding him, no foreign god was with him.

<sup>13</sup> He enabled him to travel over the high terrain of the land, and he ate of the produce of the fields.
He provided honey for him from the cliffs,
and olive oil from the hardest of rocks,

<sup>14</sup> butter from the herd and milk from the flock, along with the fat of lambs,
rams and goats of Bashan,
along with the best of the kernels of wheat;
and from the juice of grapes you drank wine.

Israel's Rebellion

<sup>15</sup> But Jeshurun became fat and kicked, you got fat, thick, and stuffed!
Then he deserted the God who made him,
and treated the Rock who saved him with contempt.

<sup>16</sup> They made him jealous with other gods, they enraged him with abhorrent idols.

<sup>17</sup> They sacrificed to demons, not God, to gods they had not known;
to new gods who had recently come along,
gods your ancestors had not known about.

<sup>18</sup> You have forgotten the Rock who fathered you, and put out of mind the God who gave you birth.

A Word of Judgment

<sup>19</sup> But the LORD took note and despised them because his sons and daughters enraged him.

<sup>20</sup> He said, "I will reject them,

I will see what will happen to them;
for they are a perverse generation, children who show no loyalty.

<sup>21</sup> They have made me jealous with false gods, enraging me with their worthless gods;
so I will make them jealous with a people they do not recognize, with a nation slow to learn I will enrage them.

<sup>22</sup> For a fire has been kindled by my anger, and it burns to lowest Sheol;
it consumes the earth and its produce, and ignites the foundations of the mountains.

<sup>23</sup> I will increase their disasters,
I will use up my arrows on them.

<sup>24</sup> They will be starved by famine, eaten by plague, and bitterly stung;
I will send the teeth of wild animals against them, along with the poison of creatures that crawl in the dust.

<sup>25</sup> The sword will make people childless outside, and terror will do so inside;
they will destroy both the young man and the virgin,
the infant and the gray-haired man.

The Weakness of Other Gods

<sup>26</sup> “I said, ‘I want to cut them in pieces.
I want to make people forget they ever existed.

<sup>27</sup> But I fear the reaction of their enemies, for their adversaries would misunderstand and say, “Our power is great, and the LORD has not done all this!” ’

<sup>28</sup> They are a nation devoid of wisdom, and there is no understanding among them.

<sup>29</sup> I wish that they were wise and could understand this, and that they could comprehend what will happen to them.”

<sup>30</sup> How can one man chase a thousand of them, and two pursue ten thousand;
unless their Rock had delivered them up, and the LORD had handed them over?

<sup>31</sup> For our enemies’ rock is not like our Rock,
as even our enemies concede.

<sup>32</sup> For their vine is from the stock of Sodom, and from the fields of Gomorrah.
Their grapes contain venom, their clusters of grapes are bitter.

<sup>33</sup> Their wine is snakes’ poison, the deadly venom of cobras.

<sup>34</sup> “Is this not stored up with me?” says the LORD, |strong="H2856"
“Is it not sealed up in my storehouses?

<sup>35</sup> I will get revenge and pay them back at the time their foot slips; for the day of their disaster is near,
and the impending judgment is rushing upon them!”

<sup>36</sup> The LORD will judge his people, and will change his plans concerning his servants;

when he sees that their power has disappeared, and that no one is left, whether confined or set free.

<sup>37</sup> He will say, "Where are their gods,
the rock in whom they sought security,

<sup>38</sup> who ate the best of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink offerings?

Let them rise and help you;
let them be your refuge!

The Vindication of the LORD

<sup>39</sup> "See now that I, indeed I, am he!" says the LORD, | strong="H0369"
"and there is no other god besides me.

I kill and give life,
I smash and I heal,
and none can resist my power.

<sup>40</sup> For I raise up my hand to heaven, and say, 'As surely as I live forever,

<sup>41</sup> I will sharpen my lightning-like sword, and my hand will grasp hold of the weapon of judgment;
I will execute vengeance on my foes,
and repay those who hate me!

<sup>42</sup> I will make my arrows drunk with blood, and my sword will devour flesh –
the blood of the slaughtered and captured, the chief of the enemy's leaders!' "

<sup>43</sup> Cry out, O nations, with his people, for he will avenge his servants' blood;
he will take vengeance against his enemies,
and make atonement for his land and people.

Narrative Interlude

<sup>44</sup> Then Moses went with Joshua son of Nun and recited all the words of this song to the people.

<sup>45</sup> When Moses finished reciting all these words to all Israel

<sup>46</sup> he said to them, "Keep in mind all the words I am solemnly proclaiming to you today; you must command your children to observe carefully all the words of this law.

<sup>47</sup> For this is no idle word for you – it is your life! By this word you will live a long time in the land you are about to cross the Jordan to possess."

Instructions about Moses' Death

<sup>48</sup> Then the LORD said to Moses that same day,

<sup>49</sup> "Go up to this Abarim hill country, to Mount Nebo (which is in the land of Moab opposite Jericho ) and look at the land of Canaan that I am giving to the Israelites as a possession.

<sup>50</sup> You will die on the mountain that you ascend and join your deceased ancestors, just as Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor and joined his deceased ancestors, <sup>51</sup> for both of you rebelled against me among the Israelites at the waters of Meribah Kadesh in the desert of Zin when you did not show me proper respect among the Israelites.

<sup>52</sup> You will see the land before you, but you will not enter the land that I am giving to the Israelites."

33

A Historical Review

The LORD came from Sinai and revealed himself to Israel from Seir.
He appeared in splendor from Mount Paran, and came forth with ten thousand holy ones.
With his right hand he gave a fiery law to them.

<sup>3</sup> Surely he loves the people;
all your holy ones are in your power.
And they sit at your feet,
each receiving your words.

<sup>4</sup> Moses delivered to us a law, an inheritance for the assembly of Jacob.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD was |strong="H1961" king over Jeshurun, when the leaders of the people assembled,
the tribes of Israel together.

Blessing on Reuben

<sup>6</sup> May Reuben live and not die, and may his people multiply.

Blessing on Judah

<sup>7</sup> And this is the blessing to Judah. He said, Listen, O LORD, to Judah's voice, and bring him to his people.
May his power be great,
and may you help him against his foes.

Blessing on Levi

<sup>8</sup> Of Levi he said:
Your Thummim and Urim belong to your godly one, whose authority you challenged at Massah,
and with whom you argued at the waters of Meribah.
<sup>9</sup> He said to his father and mother, "I have not seen him," and he did not acknowledge his own brothers or know his own children, for they kept your word,
and guarded your covenant.

<sup>10</sup> They will teach Jacob your ordinances and Israel your law;
they will offer incense as a pleasant odor,
and a whole offering on your altar.

<sup>11</sup> Bless, O LORD |strong="H3069", his goods, and be pleased with his efforts;
undercut the legs of any who attack him,
and of those who hate him, so that they cannot stand.

Blessing on Benjamin

<sup>12</sup> Of Benjamin he said:
The beloved of the LORD will live safely by him;

he protects him all the time,
and the LORD places |strong="H7931" him on his chest.

Blessing on Joseph

<sup>13</sup> Of Joseph he said:

May the LORD bless his land with the harvest produced by the sky, by the dew, and by the depths crouching beneath;

<sup>14</sup> with the harvest produced by the daylight and by the moonlight;

<sup>15</sup> with the best of the ancient mountains and the harvest produced by the age-old hills;

<sup>16</sup> with the harvest of the earth and its fullness and the pleasure of him who resided in the burning bush.

May blessing rest on Joseph's head, and on the top of the head of the one set apart from his brothers.

<sup>17</sup> May the firstborn of his bull bring him honor, and may his horns be those of a wild ox;
with them may he gore all peoples,
all the far reaches of the earth.

They are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh.

Blessing on Zebulun and Issachar

<sup>18</sup> Of Zebulun he said:

Rejoice, Zebulun, when you go outside, and Issachar, when you are in your tents.

<sup>19</sup> They will summon peoples to the mountain, there they will sacrifice proper sacrifices;
for they will enjoy the abundance of the seas,
and the hidden treasures of the shores.

Blessing on Gad

<sup>20</sup> Of Gad he said:

Blessed be the one who enlarges Gad.

Like a lioness he will dwell;
he will tear at an arm – indeed, a scalp.

<sup>21</sup> He has selected the best part for himself, for the portion of the ruler is set aside there;
he came with the leaders of the people, he obeyed the righteous laws of the LORD and his ordinances with Israel.

Blessing on Dan

<sup>22</sup> Of Dan he said:

Dan is a lion's cub;
he will leap forth from Bashan.

Blessing on Naphtali

<sup>23</sup> Of Naphtali he said:

O Naphtali, overflowing with favor, and full of the LORD's blessing, possess the west and south.

Blessing on Asher

<sup>24</sup> Of Asher he said:
 Asher is blessed with children, may he be favored by his brothers and may he dip his foot in olive oil.
<sup>25</sup> The bars of your gates will be made of iron and bronze, and may you have lifelong strength.

General Praise and Blessing

<sup>26</sup> There is no one like God, O Jeshurun, who rides through the sky to help you,
 on the clouds in majesty.
<sup>27</sup> The everlasting God is a refuge, and underneath you are his eternal arms;
 he has driven out enemies before you,
 and has said, "Destroy!"
<sup>28</sup> Israel lives in safety,
 the fountain of Jacob is quite secure,
 in a land of grain and new wine;
 indeed, its heavens rain down dew.
<sup>29</sup> You have joy, Israel! Who is like you?
 You are a people delivered by the LORD, your protective shield and your exalted sword.
 May your enemies cringe before you;
 may you trample on their backs.

34

<sup>2</sup> and all of Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the distant sea,
<sup>3</sup> the Negev, and the plain of the valley of Jericho, the city of the date palm trees, as far as Zoar.
<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD said to him, "This is the land I promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob when I said, 'I will give it to your descendants.' I have let you see it, but you will not cross over there."
<sup>5</sup> So Moses, the servant of the LORD, died there in the land of Moab as the LORD had said.
<sup>6</sup> He buried him in the land of Moab near Beth Peor, but no one knows his exact burial place to this very day.
<sup>7</sup> Moses was 120 years old when he died, but his eye was not dull nor had his vitality departed.
<sup>8</sup> The Israelites mourned for Moses in the deserts of Moab for thirty days; then the days of mourning for Moses ended.

The Epitaph of Moses

<sup>9</sup> Now Joshua son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had placed his hands on him; and the Israelites listened to him and did just what the LORD had commanded Moses.
<sup>10</sup> No prophet ever again arose in Israel like Moses, who knew the LORD| strong="H3069" face to face.
<sup>11</sup> He did all the signs and wonders the LORD had sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, all his servants, and the whole land, <sup>12</sup> and he displayed great power and awesome might in view of all Israel.

Joshua

The LORD Commissions Joshua

<sup>1</sup> After Moses the LORD's servant died, the LORD said to Joshua son of Nun, Moses' assistant:

<sup>2</sup> "Moses my servant is dead. Get ready! Cross the Jordan River! Lead these people into the land which I am ready to hand over to them.

<sup>3</sup> I am handing over to you every place you set foot, as I promised Moses.

<sup>4</sup> Your territory will extend from the wilderness in the south to Lebanon in the north. It will extend all the way to the great River Euphrates in the east (including all of Syria) and all the way to the Mediterranean Sea in the west.

<sup>5</sup> No one will be able to resist you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not abandon you or leave you alone.

<sup>6</sup> Be strong and brave! You must lead these people in the conquest of this land that I solemnly promised their ancestors I would hand over to them.

<sup>7</sup> Make sure you are very strong and brave! Carefully obey all the law my servant Moses charged you to keep! Do not swerve from it to the right or to the left, so that you may be successful in all you do.

<sup>8</sup> This law scroll must not leave your lips! You must memorize it day and night so you can carefully obey all that is written in it. Then you will prosper and be successful.

<sup>9</sup> I repeat, be strong and brave! Don't be afraid and don't panic, for I, the LORD your God, am with you in all you do."

Joshua Prepares for the Invasion

<sup>10</sup> Joshua instructed the leaders of the people:

<sup>11</sup> "Go through the camp and command the people, 'Prepare your supplies, for within three days you will cross the Jordan River and begin the conquest of the land the LORD your God is ready to hand over to you.' "

<sup>12</sup> Joshua told the Reubenites, Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh:

<sup>13</sup> "Remember what Moses the LORD's servant commanded you. The LORD your God is giving you a place to settle and is handing this land over to you.

<sup>14</sup> Your wives, children and cattle may stay in the land that Moses assigned to you east of the Jordan River. But all you warriors must cross over armed for battle ahead of your brothers. You must help them

<sup>15</sup> until the LORD gives your brothers a place like yours to settle and they conquer the land the LORD your God is ready to hand over to them. Then you may go back to your allotted land and occupy the land Moses the LORD's servant assigned you east of the Jordan."

<sup>16</sup> They told Joshua, "We will do everything you say. We will go wherever you send us.

<sup>17</sup> Just as we obeyed Moses, so we will obey you. But may the LORD your God be with you as he was with Moses!

<sup>18</sup> Any man who rebels against what you say and does not obey all your commands will be executed. But be strong and brave!"

2

<sup>2</sup> The king of Jericho received this report: “Note well! Israelite men have come here tonight to spy on the land.”

<sup>3</sup> So the king of Jericho sent this order to Rahab: “Turn over the men who came to you – the ones who came to your house – for they have come to spy on the whole land!”

<sup>4</sup> But the woman hid the two men and replied, “Yes, these men were clients of mine, but I didn’t know where they came from.

<sup>5</sup> When it was time to shut the city gate for the night, the men left. I don’t know where they were heading. Chase after them quickly, for you have time to catch them!”

<sup>6</sup> (Now she had taken them up to the roof and had hidden them in the stalks of flax she had spread out on the roof.)

<sup>8</sup> Now before the spies went to sleep, Rahab went up to the roof.

<sup>9</sup> She said to the men, “I know the LORD is handing this land over to you. We are absolutely terrified of you, and all who live in the land are cringing before you.

<sup>10</sup> For we heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea before you when you left Egypt and how you annihilated the two Amorite kings, Sihon and Og, on the other side of the Jordan.

<sup>11</sup> When we heard the news we lost our courage and no one could even breathe for fear of you. For the LORD your God is God in heaven above and on earth below!

<sup>12</sup> So now, promise me this with an oath sworn in the LORD’s name. Because I have shown allegiance to you, show allegiance to my family. Give me a solemn pledge

<sup>13</sup> that you will spare the lives of my father, mother, brothers, sisters, and all who belong to them, and rescue us from death.”

<sup>14</sup> The men said to her, “If you die, may we die too! If you do not report what we’ve been up to, then, when the LORD hands the land over to us, we will show unswerving allegiance to you.”

<sup>15</sup> Then Rahab let them down by a rope through the window. (Her house was built as part of the city wall; she lived in the wall.)

<sup>16</sup> She told them, “Head to the hill country, so the ones chasing you don’t find you. Hide from them there for three days, long enough for those chasing you to return. Then you can be on your way.”

<sup>17</sup> The men said to her, “We are not bound by this oath you made us swear unless the following conditions are met:

<sup>18</sup> When we invade the land, tie this red rope in the window through which you let us down, and gather together in your house your father, mother, brothers, and all who live in your father’s house.

<sup>19</sup> Anyone who leaves your house will be responsible for his own death – we are innocent in that case! But if anyone with you in the house is harmed, we will be responsible.

<sup>20</sup> If you should report what we’ve been up to, we are not bound by this oath you made us swear.”

<sup>21</sup> She said, “I agree to these conditions.” She sent them on their way and then tied the red rope in the window.

<sup>22</sup> They went to the hill country and stayed there for three days, long enough for those chasing them to return. Their pursuers looked all along the way but did not find them.

<sup>23</sup> Then the two men returned – they came down from the hills, crossed the river, came to Joshua son of Nun, and reported to him all they had discovered.

<sup>24</sup> They told Joshua, “Surely the LORD is handing over all the land to us! All who live in the land are cringing before us!”

3

<sup>3</sup> and commanded the people: "When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God being carried by the Levitical priests, you must leave here and walk behind it.

<sup>4</sup> But stay about three thousand feet behind it. Keep your distance so you can see which way you should go, for you have not traveled this way before."

<sup>5</sup> Joshua told the people, "Ritually consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will perform miraculous deeds among you."

<sup>6</sup> Joshua told the priests, "Pick up the ark of the covenant and pass on ahead of the people." So they picked up the ark of the covenant and went ahead of the people.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD told Joshua, "This very day I will begin to honor you before all Israel so they will know that I am with you just as I was with Moses.

<sup>8</sup> Instruct the priests carrying the ark of the covenant, 'When you reach the bank of the Jordan River, wade into the water.' "

<sup>9</sup> Joshua told the Israelites, "Come here and listen to the words of the LORD your God!"

<sup>10</sup> Joshua continued, "This is how you will know the living God is among you and that he will truly drive out before you the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites, and Jebusites.

<sup>12</sup> Now select for yourselves twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one per tribe.

<sup>14</sup> So when the people left their tents to cross the Jordan, the priests carrying the ark of the covenant went ahead of them.

<sup>15</sup> When the ones carrying the ark reached the Jordan and the feet of the priests carrying the ark touched the surface of the water - (the Jordan is at flood stage all during harvest time) -

<sup>16</sup> the water coming downstream toward them stopped flowing. It piled up far upstream at Adam (the city near Zarethan); there was no water at all flowing to the sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea). The people crossed the river opposite Jericho.

<sup>17</sup> The priests carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firmly on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan. All Israel crossed over on dry ground until the entire nation was on the other side.

<sup>4</sup> Joshua summoned the twelve men he had appointed from the Israelites, one per tribe.

<sup>5</sup> Joshua told them, "Go in front of the ark of the LORD your God to the middle of the Jordan. Each of you is to put a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the Israelite tribes.

<sup>6</sup> The stones will be a reminder to you. When your children ask someday, 'Why are these stones important to you?'

<sup>8</sup> The Israelites did just as Joshua commanded. They picked up twelve stones, according to the number of the Israelite tribes, from the middle of the Jordan as the LORD had instructed Joshua. They carried them over with them to the camp and put them there.

<sup>9</sup> Joshua also set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan in the very place where the priests carrying the ark of the covenant stood. They remain there to this very day.

<sup>10</sup> Now the priests carrying the ark of the covenant were standing in the middle of the Jordan until everything the Lord had commanded Joshua to tell the people was accomplished, in accordance with all that Moses had commanded Joshua. The people went across quickly, <sup>11</sup> and when all the people had finished crossing, the ark of the LORD and the priests crossed as the people looked on.

<sup>13</sup> About forty thousand battle-ready troops marched past the LORD to fight on the plains of Jericho.

<sup>18</sup> The priests carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD came up from the middle of the Jordan, and as soon as they set foot on dry land, the water of the Jordan flowed again and returned to flood stage.

<sup>23</sup> For the LORD your God dried up the water of the Jordan before you while you crossed over. It was just like when the LORD your God dried up the Red Sea before us while we crossed it.

<sup>24</sup> He has done this so all the nations of the earth might recognize the LORD’s power and so you might always obey the LORD your God.”

5

<sup>1</sup> When all the Amorite kings on the west side of the Jordan and all the Canaanite kings along the seacoast heard how the LORD had dried up the water of the Jordan before the Israelites while they crossed, they lost their courage and could not even breathe for fear of the Israelites.

A New Generation is Circumcised

<sup>6</sup> Indeed, for forty years the Israelites traveled through the desert until all the men old enough to fight when they left Egypt, the ones who had disobeyed the LORD, died off. For the LORD had sworn a solemn oath to them that he would not let them see the land he had sworn on oath to give them, a land rich in milk and honey.

<sup>7</sup> He replaced them with their sons, whom Joshua circumcised. They were uncircumcised; their fathers had not circumcised them along the way.

<sup>8</sup> When all the men had been circumcised, they stayed there in the camp until they had healed.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD said to Joshua, "Today I have taken away the disgrace of Egypt from you." So that place is called Gilgal even to this day.

<sup>10</sup> So the Israelites camped in Gilgal and celebrated the Passover in the evening of the fourteenth day of the month on the plains of Jericho.

<sup>11</sup> They ate some of the produce of the land the day after the Passover, including unleavened bread and roasted grain.

<sup>12</sup> The manna stopped appearing the day they ate some of the produce of the land; the Israelites never ate manna again.

Israel Conquers Jericho

<sup>13</sup> When Joshua was near Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him holding a drawn sword. Joshua approached him and asked him, "Are you on our side or allied with our enemies?"

<sup>14</sup> He answered, "Truly I am the commander of the LORD's army. Now I have arrived!" Joshua bowed down with his face to the ground and asked, "What does my master want to say to his servant?"

<sup>15</sup> The commander of the LORD's army answered Joshua, "Remove your sandals from your feet, because the place where you stand is holy." Joshua did so.

6

<sup>1</sup> Now Jericho was shut tightly because of the Israelites. No one was allowed to leave or enter.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD told Joshua, "See, I am about to defeat Jericho for you, along with its king and its warriors.

<sup>3</sup> Have all the warriors march around the city one time; do this for six days.

<sup>5</sup> When you hear the signal from the ram's horn, have the whole army give a loud battle cry. Then the city wall will collapse and the warriors should charge straight ahead."

<sup>7</sup> And he told the army, "Move ahead and march around the city, with armed troops going ahead of the ark of the LORD."

<sup>8</sup> When Joshua gave the army its orders, the seven priests carrying the seven rams' horns before the LORD moved ahead and blew the horns as the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed behind.

<sup>9</sup> Armed troops marched ahead of the priests blowing the horns, while the rear guard followed along behind the ark blowing rams' horns.

<sup>10</sup> Now Joshua had instructed the army, “Do not give a battle cry or raise your voices; say nothing until the day I tell you, ‘Give the battle cry.’ Then give the battle cry!”

<sup>11</sup> So Joshua made sure they marched the ark of the LORD around the city one time. Then they went back to the camp and spent the night there.

<sup>12</sup> Bright and early the next morning Joshua had the priests pick up the ark of the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> The seven priests carrying the seven rams’ horns before the ark of the LORD marched along blowing their horns. Armed troops marched ahead of them, while the rear guard followed along behind the ark of the LORD blowing rams’ horns.

<sup>14</sup> They marched around the city one time on the second day, then returned to the camp. They did this six days in all.

<sup>15</sup> On the seventh day they were up at the crack of dawn and marched around the city as before – only this time they marched around it seven times.

<sup>16</sup> The seventh time around, the priests blew the rams’ horns and Joshua told the army, “Give the battle cry, for the LORD is handing the city over to you!”

<sup>17</sup> The city and all that is in it must be set apart for the LORD, except for Rahab the prostitute and all who are with her in her house, because she hid the spies we sent.

<sup>18</sup> But be careful when you are setting apart the riches for the LORD. If you | strong="H6435" take any of it, you will make the Israelite camp subject to annihilation and cause a disaster.

<sup>19</sup> All the silver and gold, as well as bronze and iron items, belong to the LORD. They must go into the LORD’s treasury.”

<sup>21</sup> They annihilated with the sword everything that breathed in the city, including men and women, young and old, as well as cattle, sheep, and donkeys.

<sup>22</sup> Joshua told the two men who had spied on the land, “Enter the prostitute’s house and bring out the woman and all who belong to her as you promised her.”

<sup>23</sup> So the young spies went and brought out Rahab, her father, mother, brothers, and all who belonged to her. They brought out her whole family and took them to a place outside the Israelite camp.

<sup>24</sup> But they burned the city and all that was in it, except for the silver, gold, and bronze and iron items they put in the treasury of the LORD’s house.

<sup>25</sup> Yet Joshua spared Rahab the prostitute, her father’s family, and all who belonged to her. She lives in Israel to this very day because she hid the messengers Joshua sent to spy on Jericho.

<sup>26</sup> At that time Joshua made this solemn declaration: “The man who attempts to rebuild this city of Jericho will stand condemned before the LORD. He will lose his firstborn son when he lays its foundations and his youngest son when he erects its gates!”

<sup>27</sup> The LORD was with Joshua and he became famous throughout the land.

7

<sup>2</sup> Joshua sent men from Jericho ) and instructed them, “Go up and spy on the land.” So the men went up and spied on Ai.

<sup>4</sup> So about three thousand men went up, but they fled from the men of Ai.

<sup>5</sup> The men of Ai killed about thirty-six of them and chased them from in front of the city gate all the way to the fissures and defeated them on the steep slope. The people's courage melted away like water.

<sup>6</sup> Joshua tore his clothes; he and the leaders of Israel lay face down on the ground before the ark of the LORD until evening and threw dirt on their heads.

<sup>7</sup> Joshua prayed, "O, Master, LORD! Why did you bring these people across the Jordan to hand us over to the Amorites so they could destroy us?"

<sup>8</sup> If only we had been satisfied to live on the other side of the Jordan! O Lord, what can I say now that Israel has retreated before its enemies?

<sup>9</sup> When the Canaanites and all who live in the land hear about this, they will turn against us and destroy the very memory of us from the earth. What will you do to protect your great reputation?"

<sup>10</sup> The LORD responded to Joshua, "Get up! Why are you lying there face down?"

<sup>11</sup> Israel has sinned; they have violated my covenantal commandment! They have taken some of the riches; they have stolen them and deceitfully put them among their own possessions.

<sup>12</sup> The Israelites are unable to stand before their enemies; they retreat because they have become subject to annihilation. I will no longer be with you, unless you destroy what has contaminated you.

<sup>13</sup> Get up! Ritually consecrate the people and tell them this: 'Ritually consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, because the LORD God of Israel says, "You are contaminated, O Israel! You will not be able to stand before your enemies until you remove what is contaminating you."

<sup>14</sup> In the morning you must approach in tribal order. The tribe the LORD selects must approach by clans. The clan the LORD selects must approach by families. The family the LORD selects must approach man by man.

<sup>15</sup> The one caught with the riches must be burned up along with all who belong to him, because he violated the LORD's covenant and did such a disgraceful thing in Israel.' "

<sup>16</sup> Bright and early the next morning Joshua made Israel approach in tribal order and the tribe of Judah was selected.

<sup>17</sup> He then made the clans of Judah approach and the clan of the Zerahites was selected. He made the clan of the Zerahites approach and Zabdi was selected.

<sup>18</sup> He then made Zabdi's family approach man by man and Achan son of Carmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, from the tribe of Judah, was selected.

<sup>19</sup> So Joshua said to Achan, "My son, honor the LORD God of Israel and give him praise! Tell me what you did; don't hide anything from me!"

<sup>20</sup> Achan told Joshua, "It is true. I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel in this way:

<sup>21</sup> I saw among the goods we seized a nice robe from Babylon, two hundred silver pieces, and a bar of gold weighing fifty shekels. I wanted them, so I took them. They are hidden in the ground right in the middle of my tent with the silver underneath."

<sup>22</sup> Joshua sent messengers who ran to the tent. The things were hidden right in his tent, with the silver underneath.

<sup>23</sup> They took it all from the middle of the tent, brought it to Joshua and all the Israelites, and placed it before the LORD.

<sup>24</sup> Then Joshua and all Israel took Achan, son of Zerah, along with the silver, the robe, the bar of gold, his sons, daughters, ox, donkey, sheep, tent, and all that belonged to him and brought them up to the Valley of Disaster.

<sup>25</sup> Joshua said, “Why have you brought disaster on us? The LORD will bring disaster on you today!” All Israel stoned him to death. (They also stoned and burned the others.)

<sup>26</sup> Then they erected over him a large pile of stones (it remains to this very day ) and the LORD’s anger subsided. So that place is called the Valley of Disaster to this very day.

8

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Joshua, “Don’t be afraid and don’t panic! Take the whole army with you and march against Ai! See, I am handing over to you the king of Ai, along with his people, city, and land.

<sup>2</sup> Do to Ai and its king what you did to Jericho and its king, except you may plunder its goods and cattle. Set an ambush behind the city!”

<sup>3</sup> Joshua and the whole army marched against Ai. Joshua selected thirty thousand brave warriors and sent them out at night.

<sup>4</sup> He told them, “Look, set an ambush behind the city. Don’t go very far from the city; all of you be ready!

<sup>5</sup> I and all the troops who are with me will approach the city. When they come out to fight us like before, we will retreat from them.

<sup>6</sup> They will attack us until we have lured them from the city, for they will say, ‘They are retreating from us like before.’ We will retreat from them.

<sup>7</sup> Then you rise up from your hiding place and seize the city. The LORD your God will hand it over to you.

<sup>8</sup> When you capture the city, set it on fire. Do as the LORD says! See, I have given you orders.”

<sup>9</sup> Joshua sent them away and they went to their hiding place west of Ai, between Bethel and Ai. Joshua spent that night with the army.

<sup>10</sup> Bright and early the next morning Joshua gathered the army, and he and the leaders of Israel marched at the head of it to Ai.

<sup>11</sup> All the troops that were with him marched up and drew near the city. They camped north of Ai on the other side of the valley.

<sup>12</sup> He took five thousand men and set an ambush west of the city between Bethel and Ai.

<sup>13</sup> The army was in position – the main army north of the city and the rear guard west of the city. That night Joshua went into the middle of the valley.

<sup>14</sup> When the king of Ai saw Israel, he and his whole army quickly got up the next day and went out to fight Israel at the meeting place near the Arabah. But he did not realize men were hiding behind the city.

<sup>15</sup> Joshua and all Israel pretended to be defeated by them and they retreated along the way to the desert.

<sup>16</sup> All the reinforcements in Ai were ordered to chase them; they chased Joshua and were lured away from the city.

<sup>18</sup> The LORD told Joshua, “Hold out toward Ai the curved sword in your hand, for I am handing the city over to you.” So Joshua held out toward Ai the curved sword in his hand.

<sup>19</sup> When he held out his hand, the men waiting in ambush rose up quickly from their place and attacked. They entered the city, captured it, and immediately set it on fire.

<sup>20</sup> When the men of Ai turned around, they saw the smoke from the city ascending into the sky and were so shocked they were unable to flee in any direction. In the meantime the men who were retreating to the desert turned against their pursuers.

<sup>21</sup> When Joshua and all Israel saw that the men in ambush had captured the city and that the city was going up in smoke, they turned around and struck down the men of Ai.

<sup>22</sup> At the same time the men who had taken the city came out to fight, and the men of Ai were trapped in the middle. The Israelites struck them down, leaving no survivors or refugees.

<sup>24</sup> When Israel had finished killing all the men of Ai who had chased them toward the desert (they all fell by the sword), all Israel returned to Ai and put the sword to it.

<sup>25</sup> Twelve thousand men and women died that day, including all the men of Ai.

<sup>28</sup> Joshua burned Ai and made it a permanently uninhabited mound (it remains that way to this very day).

<sup>29</sup> He hung the king of Ai on a tree, leaving him exposed until evening. At sunset Joshua ordered that his corpse be taken down from the tree. They threw it down at the entrance of the city gate and erected over it a large pile of stones (it remains to this very day).

Covenant Renewal

<sup>30</sup> Then Joshua built an altar for the LORD God of Israel on Mount Ebal, <sup>31</sup> just as Moses the LORD's servant had commanded the Israelites. As described in the law scroll of Moses, it was made with uncut stones untouched by an iron tool. They offered burnt sacrifices on it and sacrificed tokens of peace.

<sup>32</sup> There, in the presence of the Israelites, Joshua inscribed on the stones a duplicate of the law written by Moses.

<sup>33</sup> All the people, rulers, leaders, and judges were standing on either side of the ark, in front of the Levitical priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD. Both resident foreigners and native Israelites were there. Half the people stood in front of Mount Gerizim and the other half in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the LORD's servant had previously instructed to them to do for the formal blessing ceremony.

<sup>34</sup> Then Joshua read aloud all the words of the law, including the blessings and the curses, just as they are written in the law scroll.

<sup>35</sup> Joshua read aloud every commandment Moses had given before the whole assembly of Israel, including the women, children, and resident foreigners who lived among them.

9

<sup>4</sup> they did something clever. They collected some provisions and put worn-out sacks on their donkeys, along with worn-out wineskins that were ripped and patched.

<sup>5</sup> They had worn-out, patched sandals on their feet and dressed in worn-out clothes. All their bread was dry and hard.

<sup>6</sup> They came to Joshua at the camp in Gilgal and said to him and the men of Israel, "We have come from a distant land. Make a treaty with us."

<sup>7</sup> The men of Israel said to the Hivites, “Perhaps you live near us. So how can we make a treaty with you?”

<sup>8</sup> But they said to Joshua, “We are willing to be your subjects.” So Joshua said to them, “Who are you and where do you come from?”

<sup>9</sup> They told him, “Your subjects have come from a very distant land because of the reputation of the LORD your God, for we have heard the news about all he did in Egypt

<sup>10</sup> and all he did to the two Amorite kings on the other side of the Jordan – King Sihon of Heshbon and King Og of Bashan in Ashtaroth.

<sup>11</sup> Our leaders and all who live in our land told us, “Take provisions for your journey and go meet them. Tell them, “We are willing to be your subjects. Make a treaty with us.”

<sup>12</sup> This bread of ours was warm when we packed it in our homes the day we started out to meet you, but now it is dry and hard.

<sup>13</sup> These wineskins we filled were brand new, but look how they have ripped. Our clothes and sandals have worn out because it has been a very long journey.”

<sup>14</sup> The men examined some of their provisions, but they failed to ask the LORD’s advice.

<sup>15</sup> Joshua made a peace treaty with them and agreed to let them live. The leaders of the community sealed it with an oath.

<sup>16</sup> Three days after they made the treaty with them, the Israelites found out they were from the local area and lived nearby.

<sup>17</sup> So the Israelites set out and on the third day arrived at their cities – Gibeon, Kephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath Jearim.

<sup>18</sup> The Israelites did not attack them because the leaders of the community had sworn an oath to them in the name of the LORD God of Israel. The whole community criticized the leaders, <sup>19</sup> but all the leaders told the whole community, “We swore an oath to them in the name of the LORD God of Israel. So now we can’t hurt them!

<sup>20</sup> We must let them live so we can escape the curse attached to the oath we swore to them.”

<sup>21</sup> The leaders then added, “Let them live.” So they became woodcutters and water carriers for the whole community, as the leaders had decided.

<sup>22</sup>

Joshua summoned the Gibeonites and said to them, “Why did you trick us by saying, ‘We live far away from you,’ when you really live nearby?”

<sup>23</sup> Now you are condemned to perpetual servitude as woodcutters and water carriers for the house of my God.”

<sup>24</sup> They said to Joshua, “It was carefully reported to your subjects how the LORD your God commanded Moses his servant to assign you the whole land and to destroy all who live in the land from before you. Because of you we were terrified we would lose our lives, so we did this thing.

<sup>25</sup> So now we are in your power. Do to us what you think is good and appropriate.

<sup>26</sup> Joshua did as they said; he kept the Israelites from killing them

<sup>27</sup> and that day made them woodcutters and water carriers for the community and for the altar of the LORD at the divinely chosen site. (They continue in that capacity to this very day.)

10

<sup>1</sup> Adoni-Zedek, king of Jerusalem, and its king. He also heard how the people of Gibeon made peace with Israel and lived among them.

<sup>2</sup> All Jerusalem was terrified because Gibeon was a large city, like one of the royal cities. It was larger than Ai and all its men were warriors.

<sup>3</sup> So King Adoni-Zedek of Jerusalem sent this message to King Hoham of Hebron, King Piram of Jarmuth, King Japhia of Lachish, and King Debir of Eglon:

<sup>4</sup> “Come to my aid so we can attack Gibeon, for it has made peace with Joshua and the Israelites.”

<sup>11</sup> As they fled from Israel on the slope leading down from Beth Horon, the LORD threw down on them large hailstones from the sky, all the way to Azekah. They died – in fact, more died from the hailstones than the Israelites killed with the sword.

<sup>12</sup> The day the LORD delivered the Amorites over to the Israelites, Joshua prayed to the LORD before Israel:

“O sun, stand still over Gibeon!
O moon, over the Valley of Aijalon!”

<sup>13</sup> The sun stood still and the moon stood motionless while the nation took vengeance on its enemies. The event is recorded in the Scroll of the Upright One. The sun stood motionless in the middle of the sky and did not set for about a full day.

<sup>14</sup> There has not been a day like it before or since. The LORD obeyed a man, for the LORD fought for Israel!

<sup>19</sup> But don’t you delay! Chase your enemies and catch them! Don’t allow them to retreat to their cities, for the LORD your God is handing them over to you.”

<sup>21</sup> Then the whole army safely returned to Joshua at the camp in Makkedah. No one dared threaten the Israelites.

<sup>22</sup> Joshua said, “Open the cave’s mouth and bring the five kings out of the cave to me.”

<sup>23</sup> They did as ordered; they brought the five kings out of the cave to him – the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon.

<sup>24</sup> When they brought the kings out to Joshua, he summoned all the men of Israel and said to the commanders of the troops who accompanied him, “Come here and put your feet on the necks of these kings.” So they came up and put their feet on their necks.

<sup>25</sup> Then Joshua said to them, “Don’t be afraid and don’t panic! Be strong and brave, for the LORD will do the same thing to all your enemies you fight.

<sup>27</sup> At sunset Joshua ordered his men to take them down from the trees. They threw them into the cave where they had hidden and piled large stones over the mouth of the cave. (They remain to this very day.)

Joshua Launches a Southern Campaign

<sup>28</sup> That day Joshua captured Makkedah and put the sword to it and its king. He annihilated everyone who lived in it; he left no survivors. He did to its king what he had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>29</sup> Joshua and all Israel marched from Makkedah to Libnah and fought against it.

<sup>30</sup> The LORD handed it and its king over to Israel, and Israel put the sword to all who lived there; they left no survivors. They did to its king what they had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>32</sup> The LORD handed Lachish over to Israel and they captured it on the second day. They put the sword to all who lived there, just as they had done to Libnah.

<sup>35</sup> That day they captured it and put the sword to all who lived there. That day they annihilated it just as they had done to Lachish.

<sup>39</sup> They captured it, its king, and all its surrounding cities and put the sword to them. They annihilated everyone who lived there; they left no survivors. They did to Debir and its king what they had done to Libnah and its king and to Hebron.

<sup>41</sup> Joshua conquered the area between Kadesh Barnea and Gaza and the whole region of Goshen, all the way to Gibeon.

<sup>42</sup> Joshua captured in one campaign all these kings and their lands, for the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel.

11

<sup>1</sup> When King Jabin of Hazor heard the news, he organized a coalition, including King Jobab of Madon, the king of Shimron, the king of Acshaph,

<sup>6</sup> The LORD told Joshua, "Don't be afraid of them, for about this time tomorrow I will cause all of them to lie dead before Israel. You must hamstring their horses and burn their chariots."

<sup>8</sup> The LORD handed them over to Israel and they struck them down and chased them all the way to Greater Sidon, Misrephoth Maim, and the Mizpah Valley to the east. They struck them down until no survivors remained.

<sup>9</sup> Joshua did to them as the LORD had commanded him; he hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots.

<sup>10</sup> At that time Joshua turned, captured Hazor, and struck down its king with the sword, for Hazor was at that time the leader of all these kingdoms.

<sup>11</sup> They annihilated everyone who lived there with the sword – no one who breathed remained – and burned Hazor.

<sup>13</sup> But Israel did not burn any of the cities located on mounds, except for Hazor; it was the only one Joshua burned.

<sup>14</sup> The Israelites plundered all the goods of these cities and the cattle, but they totally destroyed all the people and allowed no one who breathed to live.

<sup>15</sup> Moses the LORD's servant passed on the LORD's commands| strong="H6680" to Joshua, and Joshua did as he was told. He did not ignore any of the commands the LORD had given Moses.

A Summary of Israel's Victories

<sup>16</sup> Joshua conquered the whole land, including the hill country, all the Negev, all the land of Goshen, the lowlands, the Arabah, the hill country of Israel and its lowlands,

<sup>19</sup> No city made peace with the Israelites (except the Hivites living in Gibeon); they had to conquer all of them,

<sup>20</sup> for the LORD determined to make them obstinate so they would attack Israel. He wanted Israel to annihilate them without mercy, as he had instructed Moses.

<sup>23</sup> Joshua conquered the whole land, just as the LORD had promised Moses, and he assigned Israel their tribal portions. Then the land was free of war.

12

<sup>6</sup> Moses the LORD's | strong="H3069" servant and the Israelites defeated them and Moses the LORD's | strong="H3069" servant assigned their land to Reuben, Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>8</sup> including the hill country, the lowlands, the Arabah, the slopes, the wilderness, and the Negev – the land of the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites:

<sup>9</sup> the king of Jericho (one),

the king of Ai – located near Bethel – (one),

<sup>10</sup> the king of Jerusalem (one),

the king of Hebron (one),

<sup>11</sup> the king of Jarmuth (one),

the king of Lachish (one),

<sup>12</sup> the king of Eglon (one),

the king of Gezer (one),

<sup>13</sup> the king of Debir (one),

the king of Geder (one),

<sup>14</sup> the king of Hormah (one),

the king of Arad (one),

<sup>15</sup> the king of Libnah (one),

the king of Adullam (one),

<sup>16</sup> the king of Makkedah (one),

the king of Bethel (one),

<sup>17</sup> the king of Tappuah (one),

the king of Hephher (one),

<sup>18</sup> the king of Aphek (one),

the king of Lasharon (one),

<sup>19</sup> the king of Madon (one),

the king of Hazor (one),

<sup>20</sup> the king of Shimron Meron (one),

the king of Acshaph (one),

<sup>21</sup> the king of Taanach (one),

the king of Megiddo (one),

<sup>22</sup> the king of Kedesh (one),

the king of Jokneam near Carmel (one),

<sup>23</sup> the king of Dor – near Naphath Dor – (one),

the king of Goyim – near Gilgal – (one),

<sup>24</sup> the king of Tirzah (one),

a total of thirty-one kings.

13

<sup>2</sup> This is the land that remains: all the territory of the Philistines and all the Geshurites,

<sup>3</sup> from the Shihor River east of Egypt northward to the territory of Ekron (it is regarded as Canaanite territory), including the area belonging to the five Philistine lords who ruled in Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron, as well as Avvite land

<sup>4</sup> to the south; all the Canaanite territory, from Arah in the region of Sidon to Aphek, as far as Amorite territory;

<sup>6</sup> I will drive out before the Israelites all who live in the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth Maim, all the Sidonians; you be sure to parcel it out to Israel as I instructed you.”

<sup>7</sup> Now, divide up this land among the nine tribes and the half-tribe of Manasseh.”

Tribal Lands East of the Jordan

<sup>8</sup> The other half of Manasseh, Reuben, and Gad received their allotted tribal lands beyond the Jordan, just as Moses, the LORD's servant, had assigned them.

<sup>9</sup> Their territory started from Aroer (on the edge of the Arnon Valley), included the city in the middle of the valley, the whole plain of Medeba as far as Dibon,

<sup>11</sup> Their territory also included Gilead, Geshurite and Maacathite territory, all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan to Salecah –

<sup>13</sup> But the Israelites did not conquer the Geshurites and Maacathites; Geshur and Maacah live among Israel to this very day.

<sup>14</sup> However, Moses did not assign land as an inheritance to the Levites; their inheritance is the sacrificial offerings made to the LORD God of Israel, as he instructed them.

<sup>21</sup> It encompassed all the cities of the plain and the whole realm of King Sihon of the Amorites who ruled in Heshbon. Moses defeated him and the Midianite leaders Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba (they were subjects of Sihon and lived in his territory).

<sup>28</sup> The land allotted to the tribe of Gad by its clans included these cities and their towns.

<sup>29</sup> Moses assigned land to the half-tribe of Manasseh by its clans.

<sup>31</sup> Half of Gilead, Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities in the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were assigned to the descendants of Makir son of Manasseh, to half the descendants of Makir by their clans.

<sup>32</sup> These are the land assignments made by Moses on the plains of Moab east of the Jordan River opposite Jericho.

<sup>33</sup> However, Moses did not assign land as an inheritance to the Levites; their inheritance is the LORD God of Israel, as he instructed them.

14

<sup>2</sup> The land assignments to the nine-and-a-half tribes were made by drawing lots, as the LORD had instructed Moses.

<sup>3</sup> Now Moses had assigned land to the two-and-a-half tribes east of the Jordan, but he assigned no land to the Levites.

<sup>4</sup> The descendants of Joseph were considered as two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim. The Levites were allotted no territory, though they were assigned cities in which to live, along with the grazing areas for their cattle and possessions.

<sup>6</sup> The men of Judah approached Joshua in Gilgal, and Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, "You know what the LORD | strong="H3069" said about you and me to Moses, the man of God, at Kadesh Barnea.

<sup>7</sup> I was forty years old when Moses, the LORD's servant, sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy on the land and I brought back to him an honest report.

<sup>8</sup> My countrymen who accompanied me frightened the people, but I remained loyal to the LORD my God.

<sup>9</sup> That day Moses made this solemn promise: 'Surely the land on which you walked will belong to you and your descendants permanently, for you remained loyal to the LORD your God.'

<sup>10</sup> So now, look, the LORD has preserved my life, just as he promised, these past forty-five years since the LORD spoke these words to Moses, during which Israel traveled through the wilderness. Now look, I am today eighty-five years old.

<sup>11</sup> Today I am still as strong as when Moses sent me out. I can fight and go about my daily activities with the same energy I had then.

<sup>12</sup> Now, assign me this hill country which the LORD promised me at that time! No doubt you heard at that time that the Anakites live there in large, fortified cities. But, assuming the LORD is with me, I will conquer them, as the LORD promised."

<sup>13</sup> Joshua asked God to empower Caleb son of Jephunneh and assigned him Hebron.

<sup>14</sup> So Hebron remains the assigned land of Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this very day because he remained loyal to the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> (Hebron used to be called Kiriath Arba. Arba was a famous Anakite. ) Then the land was free of war.

15

<sup>4</sup> It then crossed to Azmon, extended to the Stream of Egypt, and ended at the sea. This was their southern border.

<sup>5</sup> The eastern border was the Salt Sea to the mouth of the Jordan River.

The northern border started north of the Salt Sea at the mouth of the Jordan, <sup>6</sup> went up to Beth Hoglah, crossed north of Beth Arabah, and went up to the Stone of Bohan son of Reuben.

<sup>7</sup> It then went up to Debir from the Valley of Achor, turning northward to Gilgal (which is opposite the Pass of Adummim south of the valley), crossed to the waters of En Shemesh and extended to En Rogel.

<sup>9</sup> It then went from the top of the hill to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah, extended to the cities of Mount Ephron, and went to Baalah (that is, Kiriath Jearim).

<sup>12</sup> The western border was the Mediterranean Sea. These were the borders of the tribe of Judah and its clans.

<sup>13</sup> Caleb son of Jephunneh was assigned Kiriath Arba (that is Hebron) within the tribe of Judah, according to the LORD's instructions to Joshua. (Arba was the father of Anak.)

<sup>16</sup> Caleb said, "To the man who attacks and captures Kiriath Sepher I will give my daughter Acsah as a wife."

<sup>17</sup> When Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's brother, captured it, Caleb gave Acsah his daughter to him as a wife.

<sup>18</sup> One time Acsah came and charmed her father so that she could ask him for some land. When she got down from her donkey, Caleb said to her, "What would you like?"

<sup>19</sup> She answered, "Please give me a special present. Since you have given me land in the Negev, now give me springs of water. So he gave her both upper and lower springs.

<sup>20</sup> This is the land assigned to the tribe of Judah by its clans:

<sup>45</sup> Ekron and its surrounding towns and settlements;

<sup>62</sup> Nibshan, the city of Salt, and En Gedi – a total of six cities and their towns.

<sup>63</sup> The men of Judah were unable to conquer the Jebusites living in Jerusalem. The Jebusites live with the people of Judah in Jerusalem to this very day.

16

<sup>6</sup> It then extended on to the sea, with Micmethath on the north. It turned eastward to Taanath Shiloh and crossed it on the east to Janoah.

<sup>7</sup> It then descended from Janoah to Ataroth and Naarah, touched Jericho, and extended to the Jordan River.

<sup>9</sup> Also included were the cities set apart for the tribe of Ephraim within Manasseh's territory, along with their towns.

<sup>10</sup> The Ephraimites did not conquer the Canaanites living in Gezer. The Canaanites live among the Ephraimites to this very day and do hard labor as their servants.

17

<sup>1</sup> The tribe of Manasseh, Joseph's firstborn son, was also allotted land. The descendants of Makir, Manasseh's firstborn and the father of Gilead, received land, for they were warriors. They were assigned Gilead and Bashan.

<sup>2</sup> The rest of Manasseh's descendants were also assigned land by their clans, including the descendants of Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hepher, and Shemida. These are the male descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph by their clans.

<sup>3</sup> Now Zelophehad son of Hepher, son of Gilead, son of Makir, son of Manasseh, had no sons, only daughters. These are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

<sup>4</sup> They went before Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the leaders and said, "The LORD | strong="H3069" told Moses to assign us land among our relatives." So Joshua assigned them land among their uncles, as the LORD | strong="H3069" had commanded.

<sup>5</sup> Manasseh was allotted ten shares of land, in addition to the land of Gilead and Bashan east of the Jordan, <sup>6</sup> for the daughters of Manasseh were assigned land among his sons. The land of Gilead belonged to the rest of the descendants of Manasseh.

<sup>7</sup> The border of Manasseh went from Asher to Micmethath which is near Shechem. It then went south toward those who live in Tappuah.

<sup>8</sup> (The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah, located on the border of Manasseh, belonged to the tribe of Ephraim.)

<sup>9</sup> The border then descended southward to the Valley of Kanah. Ephraim was assigned cities there among the cities of Manasseh, but the border of Manasseh was north of the valley and ended at the sea.

<sup>10</sup> Ephraim's territory was to the south, and Manasseh's to the north. The sea was Manasseh's western border and their territory touched Asher on the north and Issachar on the east.

<sup>11</sup> Within Issachar's and Asher's territory Manasseh was assigned Beth Shean, Ibleam, the residents of Dor, En Dor, the residents of Taanach, the residents of Megiddo, the three of Napheth, and the towns surrounding all these cities.

<sup>12</sup> But the men of Manasseh were unable to conquer these cities; the Canaanites managed to remain in those areas.

<sup>13</sup> Whenever the Israelites were strong militarily, they forced the Canaanites to do hard labor, but they never totally conquered them.

<sup>14</sup> The descendants of Joseph said to Joshua, "Why have you assigned us only one tribal allotment? After all, we have many people, for until now the LORD has enabled us to increase in number."

<sup>15</sup> Joshua replied to them, "Since you have so many people, go up into the forest and clear out a place to live in the land of the Perizzites and Rephaites, for the hill country of Ephraim is too small for you."

<sup>16</sup> The descendants of Joseph said, "The whole hill country is inadequate for us, and the Canaanites living down in the valley in Beth Shean and its surrounding towns and in the Valley of Jezreel have chariots with iron-rimmed wheels."

<sup>17</sup> Joshua said to the family of Joseph – to both Ephraim and Manasseh: "You have many people and great military strength. You will not have just one tribal allotment.

<sup>18</sup> The whole hill country will be yours; though it is a forest, you can clear it and it will be entirely yours. You can conquer the Canaanites, though they have chariots with iron-rimmed wheels and are strong."

18

<sup>3</sup> So Joshua said to the Israelites: "How long do you intend to put off occupying the land the LORD God of your ancestors has given you?"

<sup>4</sup> Pick three men from each tribe. I will send them out to walk through the land and make a map of it for me.

<sup>5</sup> Divide it into seven regions. Judah will stay in its territory in the south, and the family of Joseph in its territory in the north.

<sup>6</sup> But as for you, map out the land into seven regions and bring it to me. I will draw lots for you here before the LORD our God.

<sup>7</sup> But the Levites will not have an allotted portion among you, for their inheritance is to serve the LORD. Gad, Reuben, and the half-tribe of Manasseh have already received their allotted land east of the Jordan which Moses the LORD's servant assigned them."

<sup>8</sup> When the men started out, Joshua told those going to map out the land, "Go, walk through the land, map it out, and return to me. Then I will draw lots for you before the LORD here in Shiloh."

<sup>9</sup> The men journeyed through the land and mapped it and its cities out into seven regions on a scroll. Then they came to Joshua at the camp in Shiloh.

<sup>10</sup> Joshua drew lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD and divided the land among the Israelites according to their allotted portions.

Benjamin's Tribal Lands

<sup>11</sup> The first lot belonged to the tribe of Benjamin by its clans. Their allotted territory was between Judah and Joseph.

<sup>12</sup> Their northern border started at the Jordan, went up to the slope of Jericho on the north, ascended westward to the hill country, and extended to the desert of Beth Aven.

<sup>13</sup> It then crossed from there to Luz, to the slope of Luz to the south (that is, Bethel), and descended to Ataroth Addar located on the hill that is south of lower Beth Horon.

<sup>16</sup> The border then descended to the edge of the hill country near the Valley of Ben Hinnom located in the Valley of the Rephaites to the north. It descended through the Valley of Hinnom to the slope of the Jebusites to the south and then down to En Rogel.

<sup>17</sup> It went northward, extending to En Shemesh and Geliloth opposite the Pass of Adummim, and descended to the Stone of Bohan son of Reuben.

<sup>18</sup> It crossed to the slope in front of the Arabah to the north and descended into the Arabah.

<sup>28</sup> Zelah, Haeleph, the Jebusite city (that is, Jerusalem), Gibeah, and Kiriath – a total of fourteen cities and their towns. This was the land assigned to the tribe of Benjamin by its clans.

19

<sup>4</sup> Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah,
<sup>7</sup> Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan – a total of four cities and their towns,
<sup>8</sup> as well as all the towns around these cities as far as Baalath Beer (Ramah of the Negev). This was the land assigned to the tribe of Simeon by its clans.
<sup>9</sup> Simeon's assigned land was taken from Judah's allotted portion, for Judah's territory was too large for them; so Simeon was assigned land within Judah.

Zebulun's Tribal Lands

<sup>10</sup> The third lot belonged to the tribe of Zebulun by its clans. The border of their territory extended to Sarid.
<sup>11</sup> Their border went up westward to Maralah and touched Dabbesheth and the valley near Jokneam.
<sup>12</sup> From Sarid it turned eastward to the territory of Kisloth Tabor, extended to Daberath, and went up to Japhia.
<sup>13</sup> From there it crossed eastward to Gath Hepher and Eth Kazin and extended to Rimmon, turning toward Neah.
<sup>14</sup> It then turned on the north to Hannathon and ended at the Valley of Iphtah El.
<sup>15</sup> Their territory included Kattah, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem; in all they had twelve cities and their towns.
<sup>16</sup> This was the land assigned to the tribe of Zebulun by its clans, including these cities and their towns.

Issachar's Tribal Lands

<sup>20</sup> Rabbith, Kishion, Ebez,
<sup>23</sup> This was the land assigned to the tribe of Issachar by its clans, including the cities and their towns.

Asher's Tribal Lands

<sup>27</sup> It turned eastward toward Beth Dagon, touched Zebulun and the Valley of Iphtah El to the north, as well as the Valley of Emek and Neiel, and extended to Cabul on the north

<sup>29</sup> It then turned toward Ramah as far as the fortified city of Tyre, turned to Hosah, and ended at the sea near Hebel, Aczib, <sup>30</sup> Umah, Aphek, and Rehob. In all they had twenty-two cities and their towns.

<sup>31</sup> This was the land assigned to the tribe of Asher by its clans, including these cities and their towns.

Naphtali's Tribal Lands

<sup>33</sup> Their border started at Heleph and the oak of Zaanannim, went to Adami Nekeb, Jabneel and on to Lakkum, and ended at the Jordan River.

<sup>38</sup> Yiron, Migdal El, Horem, Beth Anath, and Beth Shemesh. In all they had nineteen cities and their towns.

<sup>39</sup> This was the land assigned to the tribe of Naphtali by its clans, including the cities and their towns.

Dan's Tribal Lands

<sup>47</sup> (The Danites failed to conquer their territory, so they went up and fought with Leshem and captured it. They put the sword to it, took possession of it, and lived in it. They renamed it Dan after their ancestor. )

<sup>48</sup> This was the land assigned to the tribe of Dan by its clans, including these cities and their towns.

Joshua Receives Land

<sup>49</sup> When they finished dividing the land into its regions, the Israelites gave Joshua son of Nun some land.

<sup>50</sup> As the LORD had instructed, they gave him the city he requested – Timnath Serah in the Ephraimite hill country. He built up the city and lived in it.

<sup>51</sup> These are the land assignments which Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the Israelite tribal leaders made by drawing lots in Shiloh before the LORD at the entrance of the tent of meeting. So they finished dividing up the land.

20

<sup>2</sup> “Have the Israelites select the cities of refuge that I told you about through Moses.

<sup>3</sup> Anyone who accidentally kills someone can escape there; these cities will be a place of asylum from the avenger of blood.

<sup>4</sup> The one who committed manslaughter should escape to one of these cities, stand at the entrance of the city gate, and present his case to the leaders of that city. They should then bring him into the city, give him a place to stay, and let him live there.

<sup>5</sup> When the avenger of blood comes after him, they must not hand over to him the one who committed manslaughter, for he accidentally killed his fellow man without premeditation.

<sup>6</sup> He must remain in that city until his case is decided by the assembly and the high priest dies. Then the one who committed manslaughter may return home to the city from which he escaped.”

<sup>7</sup> So they selected Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron) in the hill country of Judah.

<sup>8</sup> Beyond the Jordan east of Jericho they selected Bezer in the desert on the plain belonging to the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead belonging to the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan belonging to the tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>9</sup> These were the cities of refuge appointed for all the Israelites and for resident foreigners living among them. Anyone who accidentally killed someone could escape there and not be executed by the avenger of blood, at least until his case was reviewed by the assembly.

21

<sup>2</sup> in Shiloh in the land of Canaan and said, “The LORD told Moses to assign us cities in which to live along with the grazing areas for our cattle.”

<sup>11</sup> They assigned them Kiriath Arba (Arba was the father of Anak), that is, Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, along with its surrounding grazing areas.

<sup>12</sup> (Now the city’s fields and surrounding towns they had assigned to Caleb son of Jephunneh as his property.)

<sup>13</sup> So to the descendants of Aaron the priest they assigned Hebron (a city of refuge for one who committed manslaughter), Libnah,

<sup>16</sup> Ain, Juttah, and Beth Shemesh, along with the grazing areas of each – a total of nine cities taken from these two tribes.

<sup>27</sup> They assigned to the Gershonite clans of the Levites the following cities: from the half-tribe of Manasseh: Golan in Bashan (a city of refuge for one who committed manslaughter) and Beeshtarah, along with the grazing areas of each – a total of two cities;

<sup>32</sup> from the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee (a city of refuge for one who committed manslaughter), Hammoth Dor, and Kartan, along with the grazing areas of each – a total of three cities.

<sup>37</sup> Kedemoth, and Mephaath, along with the grazing areas of each – a total of four cities;

<sup>39</sup> Heshbon, and Jazer, along with the grazing areas of each – a total of four cities.

22

<sup>2</sup> and told them: "You have carried out all the instructions of Moses the LORD's servant, and you have obeyed all I have told you.

<sup>3</sup> You have not abandoned your fellow Israelites this entire time, right up to this very day. You have completed the task given you by the LORD your God.

<sup>4</sup> Now the LORD your God has made your fellow Israelites secure, just as he promised them. So now you may turn around and go to your homes in your own land which Moses the LORD's servant assigned to you east of the Jordan.

<sup>5</sup> But carefully obey the commands and instructions Moses the LORD's servant gave you. Love the LORD your God, follow all his instructions, obey his commands, be loyal to him, and serve him with all your heart and being!"

<sup>7</sup> (Now to one half-tribe of Manasseh, Moses had assigned land in Bashan; and to the other half Joshua had assigned land on the west side of the Jordan with their fellow Israelites.) When Joshua sent them home, he rewarded them,

<sup>9</sup> So the Reubenites, Gadites, and half-tribe of Manasseh left the Israelites in Shiloh in the land of Canaan and headed home to their own land in Gilead, which they acquired by the LORD's command through Moses.

Civil War is Averted

<sup>10</sup> The Reubenites, Gadites, and half-tribe of Manasseh came to Geliloth near the Jordan in the land of Canaan and built there, near the Jordan, an impressive altar.

<sup>14</sup> He was accompanied by ten leaders, one from each of the Israelite tribes, each one a family leader among the Israelite clans.

<sup>15</sup> They went to the land of Gilead to the Reubenites, Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, and said to them:

<sup>16</sup> "The entire community of the LORD says, 'Why have you disobeyed the God of Israel by turning back today from following the LORD? You built an altar for yourselves and have rebelled today against the LORD.'

<sup>17</sup> The sin we committed at Peor was bad enough. To this very day we have not purified ourselves; it even brought a plague on the community of the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> Now today you dare to turn back from following the LORD! You are rebelling today against the LORD; tomorrow he may break out in anger against the entire community of Israel.

<sup>19</sup> But if your own land is impure, cross over to the LORD's own land, where the LORD himself lives, and settle down among us. But don't rebel against the LORD or us by building for yourselves an altar aside from the altar of the LORD our God.

<sup>20</sup> When Achan son of Zerah disobeyed the command about the city's riches, the entire Israelite community was judged, though only one man had sinned. He most certainly died for his sin! "

<sup>21</sup> The Reubenites, Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh answered the leaders of the Israelite clans:

<sup>22</sup> "El, God, the LORD! El, God, the LORD! He knows the truth! Israel must also know! If we have rebelled or disobeyed the LORD, don't spare us today!

<sup>23</sup> If we have built an altar for ourselves to turn back from following the LORD by making burnt sacrifices and grain offerings on it, or by offering tokens of peace on it, the LORD himself will punish us.

<sup>24</sup> We swear we have done this because we were worried that in the future your descendants would say to our descendants, ‘What relationship do you have with the LORD God of Israel?’

<sup>25</sup> The LORD made the Jordan a boundary between us and you Reubenites and Gadites. You have no right to worship the LORD.’ In this way your descendants might cause our descendants to stop obeying the LORD.

<sup>26</sup> So we decided to build this altar, not for burnt offerings and sacrifices,

<sup>27</sup> but as a reminder to us and you, and to our descendants who follow us, that we will honor the LORD in his very presence with burnt offerings, sacrifices, and tokens of peace. Then in the future your descendants will not be able to say to our descendants, ‘You have no right to worship the LORD.’

<sup>28</sup> We said, ‘If in the future they say such a thing to us or to our descendants, we will reply, “See the model of the LORD’s altar that our ancestors made, not for burnt offerings or sacrifices, but as a reminder to us and you.” ’

<sup>29</sup> Far be it from us to rebel against the LORD by turning back today from following after the LORD by building an altar for burnt offerings, sacrifices, and tokens of peace aside from the altar of the LORD our God located in front of his dwelling place!”

<sup>30</sup> When Phinehas the priest and the community leaders and clan leaders who accompanied him heard the defense of the Reubenites, Gadites, and the Manassehites, they were satisfied.

<sup>31</sup> Phinehas, son of Eleazar, the priest, said to the Reubenites, Gadites, and the Manassehites, “Today we know that the LORD is among us, because you have not disobeyed the LORD in this. Now you have rescued the Israelites from the LORD’s judgment.”

<sup>32</sup> Phinehas, son of Eleazar, the priest, and the leaders left the Reubenites and Gadites in the land of Gilead and reported back to the Israelites in the land of Canaan.

<sup>33</sup> The Israelites were satisfied with their report and gave thanks to God. They said nothing more about launching an attack to destroy the land in which the Reubenites and Gadites lived.

<sup>34</sup> The Reubenites and Gadites named the altar, “Surely it is a Reminder to us that the LORD is God.”

23

<sup>1</sup> A long time passed after the LORD made Israel secure from all their enemies, and Joshua was very old.

<sup>2</sup> So Joshua summoned all Israel, including the elders, rulers, judges, and leaders, and told them: “I am very old.

<sup>3</sup> You saw everything the LORD your God did to all these nations on your behalf, for the LORD your God fights for you.

<sup>4</sup> See, I have parceled out to your tribes these remaining nations, from the Jordan to the Mediterranean Sea in the west, including all the nations I defeated.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD your God will drive them out from before you and remove them, so you can occupy their land as the LORD your God promised you.

<sup>6</sup> Be very strong! Carefully obey all that is written in the law scroll of Moses so you won’t swerve from it to the right or the left, <sup>7</sup> or associate with these nations that remain near you. You must not invoke or make solemn declarations by the names of their gods! You must not worship or bow down to them!

<sup>8</sup> But you must be loyal to the LORD your God, as you have been to this very day.

<sup>9</sup> “The LORD drove out from before you great and mighty nations; no one has been able to resist you to this very day.

<sup>10</sup> One of you makes a thousand run away, for the LORD your God fights for you as he promised you he would.

<sup>12</sup> But if you ever turn away and make alliances with these nations that remain near you, and intermarry with them and establish friendly relations with them,

<sup>13</sup> know for certain that the LORD our God will no longer drive out these nations from before you. They will trap and ensnare you; they will be a whip that tears your sides and thorns that blind your eyes until you disappear from this good land the LORD your God gave you.

<sup>14</sup> “Look, today I am about to die. You know with all your heart and being that not even one of all the faithful promises the LORD your God made to you is left unfulfilled; every one was realized – not one promise is unfulfilled!

<sup>15</sup> But in the same way every faithful promise the LORD your God made to you has been realized, it is just as certain, if you disobey, that the LORD will bring on you every judgment until he destroys you from this good land which the LORD your God gave you.

<sup>16</sup> If you violate the covenantal laws of the LORD your God which he commanded you to keep, and follow, worship, and bow down to other gods, the LORD will be very angry with you and you will disappear quickly from the good land which he gave to you.”

24

<sup>2</sup> Joshua told all the people, “Here is what the LORD God of Israel says: ‘In the distant past your ancestors lived beyond the Euphrates River, including Terah the father of Abraham and Nahor. They worshiped other gods,

<sup>3</sup> but I took your father Abraham from beyond the Euphrates and brought him into the entire land of Canaan. I made his descendants numerous; I gave him Isaac, <sup>4</sup> and to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. To Esau I assigned Mount Seir, while Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt.

<sup>5</sup> I sent Moses and Aaron, and I struck Egypt down when I intervened in their land. Then I brought you out.

<sup>6</sup> When I brought your fathers out of Egypt, you arrived at the sea. The Egyptians chased your fathers with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea.

<sup>7</sup> Your fathers cried out for help to the LORD; he made the area between you and the Egyptians dark, and then drowned them in the sea. You witnessed with your very own eyes what I did in Egypt. You lived in the wilderness for a long time.

<sup>8</sup> Then I brought you to the land of the Amorites who lived east of the Jordan. They fought with you, but I handed them over to you; you conquered their land and I destroyed them from before you.

<sup>9</sup> Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, launched an attack against Israel. He summoned Balaam son of Beor to call down judgment on you.

<sup>10</sup> I refused to respond to Balaam; he kept prophesying good things about you, and I rescued you from his power.

<sup>11</sup> You crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho. The leaders of Jericho, as well as the Amorites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hittites, Girgashites, Hivites, and Jebusites, fought with you, but I handed them over to you.

<sup>12</sup> I sent terror ahead of you to drive out before you the two Amorite kings. I gave you the victory; it was not by your swords or bows.

<sup>13</sup> I gave you a land in which you had not worked hard; you took up residence in cities you did not build and you are eating the produce of vineyards and olive groves you did not plant.'

<sup>14</sup> Now obey the LORD and worship him with integrity and loyalty. Put aside the gods your ancestors worshiped beyond the Euphrates and in Egypt and worship the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> If you have no desire to worship the LORD, choose today whom you will worship, whether it be the gods whom your ancestors worshiped beyond the Euphrates, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living. But I and my family will worship the LORD!"

<sup>16</sup> The people responded, "Far be it from us to abandon the LORD so we can worship other gods!

<sup>17</sup> For the LORD our God took us and our fathers out of slavery in the land of Egypt and performed these awesome miracles before our very eyes. He continually protected us as we traveled and when we passed through nations.

<sup>18</sup> The LORD drove out from before us all the nations, including the Amorites who lived in the land. So we too will worship the LORD, for he is our God!"

<sup>19</sup> Joshua warned the people, "You will not keep worshiping the LORD, for he is a holy God. He is a jealous God who will not forgive your rebellion or your sins.

<sup>20</sup> If you abandon the LORD and worship foreign gods, he will turn against you; he will bring disaster on you and destroy you, though he once treated you well."

<sup>21</sup> The people said to Joshua, "No! We really will worship the LORD!"

<sup>22</sup> Joshua said to the people, "Do you agree to be witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen to worship the LORD?" They replied, "We are witnesses!"

<sup>23</sup> Joshua said, "Now put aside the foreign gods that are among you and submit to the LORD God of Israel."

<sup>24</sup> The people said to Joshua, "We will worship the LORD our God and obey him."

<sup>25</sup> That day Joshua drew up an agreement for the people, and he established rules and regulations for them in Shechem.

<sup>26</sup> Joshua wrote these words in the Law Scroll of God. He then took a large stone and set it up there under the oak tree near the LORD's shrine.

<sup>27</sup> Joshua said to all the people, "Look, this stone will be a witness against you, for it has heard everything the LORD said to us. It will be a witness against you if you deny your God."

<sup>28</sup> When Joshua dismissed the people, they went to their allotted portions of land.

An Era Ends

<sup>29</sup> After all this Joshua son of Nun, the LORD's servant, died at the age of one hundred ten.

<sup>30</sup> They buried him in his allotted territory in Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

<sup>31</sup> Israel worshiped the LORD throughout Joshua's lifetime and as long as the elderly men who outlived him remained alive. These men had experienced firsthand everything the LORD had done for Israel.

<sup>32</sup> The bones of Joseph, which the Israelites had brought up from Egypt, were buried at Shechem in the part of the field that Jacob bought from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem, for one hundred pieces of money. So it became the inheritance of the tribe of Joseph.

<sup>33</sup> Eleazar son of Aaron died, and they buried him in Gibeah in the hill country of Ephraim, where his son Phinehas had been assigned land.

Judges

Judah Takes the Lead

<sup>1</sup> After Joshua died, the Israelites asked the LORD, “Who should lead the invasion against the Canaanites and launch the attack?”

<sup>2</sup> The LORD said, “The men of Judah should take the lead. Be sure of this! I am handing the land over to them.”

<sup>3</sup> The men of Judah said to their relatives, the men of Simeon, “Invade our allotted land with us and help us attack the Canaanites. Then we will go with you into your allotted land.” So the men of Simeon went with them.

<sup>5</sup> They met Adoni-Bezek at Bezek and fought him. They defeated the Canaanites and Perizzites.

<sup>6</sup> When Adoni-Bezek ran away, they chased him and captured him. Then they cut off his thumbs and big toes.

<sup>7</sup> Adoni-Bezek said, “Seventy kings, with thumbs and big toes cut off, used to lick up food scraps under my table. God has repaid me for what I did to them.” They brought him to Jerusalem, where he died.

<sup>8</sup> The men of Judah attacked Jerusalem and captured it. They put the sword to it and set the city on fire.

<sup>9</sup> Later the men of Judah went down to attack the Canaanites living in the hill country, the Negev, and the lowlands.

<sup>13</sup> When Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother, captured it, Caleb gave him his daughter Acsah as a wife.

<sup>14</sup> One time Acsah came and charmed her father so she could ask him for some land. When she got down from her donkey, Caleb said to her, “What would you like?”

<sup>15</sup> She answered, “Please give me a special present. Since you have given me land in the Negev, now give me springs of water.” So Caleb gave her both the upper and lower springs.

<sup>16</sup> Now the descendants of the Kenite, Moses’ father-in-law, went up with the people of Judah from the City of Date Palm Trees to Arad in the desert of Judah, located in the Negev. They went and lived with the people of Judah.

<sup>19</sup> The LORD was with the men of Judah. They conquered the hill country, but they could not conquer the people living in the coastal plain, because they had chariots with iron-rimmed wheels.

<sup>21</sup> The men of Benjamin, however, did not conquer the Jebusites living in Jerusalem. The Jebusites live with the people of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this very day.

Partial Success

<sup>24</sup> the spies spotted a man leaving the city. They said to him, "If you show us a secret entrance into the city, we will reward you."

<sup>25</sup> He showed them a secret entrance into the city, and they put the city to the sword. But they let the man and his extended family leave safely.

<sup>26</sup> He moved to Hittite country and built a city. He named it Luz, and it has kept that name to this very day.

<sup>27</sup> The men of Manasseh did not conquer Beth Shan, Taanach, or their surrounding towns. Nor did they conquer the people living in Dor, Ibleam, Megiddo or their surrounding towns. The Canaanites managed to remain in those areas.

<sup>28</sup> Whenever Israel was strong militarily, they forced the Canaanites to do hard labor, but they never totally conquered them.

<sup>29</sup> The men of Ephraim did not conquer the Canaanites living in Gezer. The Canaanites lived among them in Gezer.

<sup>30</sup> The men of Zebulun did not conquer the people living in Kitron and Nahalol. The Canaanites lived among them and were forced to do hard labor.

<sup>31</sup> The men of Asher did not conquer the people living in Acco or Sidon, nor did they conquer Ahlab, Aczib, Helbah, Aphek, or Rehob.

<sup>32</sup> The people of Asher live among the Canaanites residing in the land because they did not conquer them.

<sup>33</sup> The men of Naphtali did not conquer the people living in Beth Shemesh or Beth Anath. They live among the Canaanites residing in the land. The Canaanites living in Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath were forced to do hard labor for them.

<sup>34</sup> The Amorites forced the people of Dan to live in the hill country. They did not allow them to live in the coastal plain.

<sup>35</sup> The Amorites managed to remain in Har Heres, Aijalon, and Shaalvim. Whenever the tribe of Joseph was strong militarily, the Amorites were forced to do hard labor.

<sup>1</sup> The LORD's angelic messenger went up from Gilgal to Bokim. He said, "I brought you up from Egypt and led you into the land I had solemnly promised to give to your ancestors. I said, 'I will never break my agreement with you,

<sup>2</sup> but you must not make an agreement with the people who live in this land. You should tear down the altars where they worship.' But you have disobeyed me. Why would you do such a thing?

<sup>3</sup> At that time I also warned you, 'If you disobey, I will not drive out the Canaanites before you. They will ensnare you and their gods will lure you away.' "

<sup>4</sup> When the LORD's messenger finished speaking these words to all the Israelites, the people wept loudly.

<sup>5</sup> They named that place Bokim and offered sacrifices to the LORD there.

The End of an Era

<sup>6</sup> When Joshua dismissed the people, the Israelites went to their allotted portions of territory, intending to take possession of the land.

<sup>7</sup> The people worshiped the LORD throughout Joshua's lifetime and as long as the elderly men who outlived him remained alive. These men had witnessed all the great things the LORD had done for Israel.

<sup>10</sup> That entire generation passed away; a new generation grew up that had not personally experienced the LORD's presence or seen what he had done for Israel.

A Monotonous Cycle

<sup>12</sup> They abandoned the LORD God of their ancestors who brought them out of the land of Egypt. They followed other gods – the gods of the nations who lived around them. They worshiped them and made the LORD angry.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD was furious with Israel and handed them over to robbers who plundered them. He turned them over to their enemies who lived around them. They could not withstand their enemies' attacks.

<sup>15</sup> Whenever they went out to fight, the LORD did them harm, just as he had warned and solemnly vowed he would do. They suffered greatly.

<sup>17</sup> But they did not obey their leaders. Instead they prostituted themselves to other gods and worshiped them. They quickly turned aside from the path their ancestors had walked. Their ancestors had obeyed the LORD's commands, but they did not.

<sup>18</sup> When the LORD raised up leaders for them, the LORD was with each leader and delivered the people from their enemies while the leader remained alive. The LORD felt sorry for them when they cried out in agony because of what their harsh oppressors did to them.

<sup>19</sup> When a leader died, the next generation would again act more wickedly than the previous one. They would follow after other gods, worshiping them and bowing down to them. They did not give up their practices or their stubborn ways.

A Divine Decision

<sup>20</sup> The LORD was furious with Israel. He said, "This nation has violated the terms of the agreement I made with their ancestors by disobeying me.

<sup>21</sup> So I will no longer remove before them any of the nations that Joshua left unconquered when he died.

<sup>23</sup> This is why the LORD permitted these nations to remain and did not conquer them immediately; he did not hand them over to Joshua.

3

<sup>1</sup> These were the nations the LORD permitted to remain so he could use them to test Israel – he wanted to test all those who had not experienced battle against the Canaanites.

Othniel: A Model Leader

<sup>7</sup> The Israelites did evil in the LORD's sight. They forgot the LORD their God and worshiped the Baals and the Asherahs.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD was furious with Israel and turned them over to King Cushan-Rishathaim of Aram-Naharaim. They were Cushan-Rishathaim's subjects for eight years.

<sup>9</sup> When the Israelites cried out for help to the LORD, he raised up a deliverer for the Israelites who rescued them. His name was Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD's spirit empowered him and he led Israel. When he went to do battle, the LORD handed over to him King Cushan-Rishathaim of Aram and he overpowered him.

<sup>11</sup> The land had rest for forty years; then Othniel son of Kenaz died.

Deceit, Assassination, and Deliverance

<sup>12</sup> The Israelites again did evil in the LORD's sight. The LORD gave King Eglon of Moab control over Israel because they had done evil in the LORD's sight.

<sup>16</sup> Ehud made himself a sword – it had two edges and was eighteen inches long. He strapped it under his coat on his right thigh.

<sup>17</sup> He brought the tribute payment to King Eglon of Moab. (Now Eglon was a very fat man.)

<sup>18</sup> After Ehud brought the tribute payment, he dismissed the people who had carried it.

<sup>19</sup> But he went back once he reached the carved images at Gilgal. He said to Eglon, "I have a secret message for you, O king." Eglon said, "Be quiet!" All his attendants left.

<sup>20</sup> When Ehud approached him, he was sitting in his well-ventilated upper room all by himself. Ehud said, "I have a message from God for you." When Eglon rose up from his seat,

<sup>23</sup> As Ehud went out into the vestibule, he closed the doors of the upper room behind him and locked them.

<sup>24</sup> When Ehud had left, Eglon's servants came and saw the locked doors of the upper room. They said, "He must be relieving himself in the well-ventilated inner room."

<sup>25</sup> They waited so long they were embarrassed, but he still did not open the doors of the upper room. Finally they took the key and opened the doors. Right before their eyes was their master, sprawled out dead on the floor!

<sup>26</sup> Now Ehud had escaped while they were delaying. When he passed the carved images, he escaped to Seirah.

<sup>27</sup> When he reached Seirah, he blew a trumpet in the Ephraimite hill country. The Israelites went down with him from the hill country, with Ehud in the lead.

<sup>28</sup> He said to them, "Follow me, for the LORD is about to defeat your enemies, the Moabites!" They followed him, captured the fords of the Jordan River opposite Moab, and did not let anyone cross.

<sup>29</sup> That day they killed about ten thousand Moabites – all strong, capable warriors; not one escaped.

<sup>30</sup> Israel humiliated Moab that day, and the land had rest for eighty years.

<sup>31</sup> After Ehud came Shamgar son of Anath; he killed six hundred Philistines with an oxgoad and, like Ehud, delivered Israel.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD turned them over to King Jabin of Canaan, who ruled in Hazor. The general of his army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth Haggoyim.

<sup>5</sup> She would sit under the Date Palm Tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the Ephraimite hill country. The Israelites would come up to her to have their disputes settled.

<sup>6</sup> She summoned Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali. She said to him, "Is it not true that the LORD God of Israel is commanding you? Go, march to Mount Tabor! Take with you ten thousand men from Naphtali and Zebulun!"

<sup>7</sup> I will bring Sisera, the general of Jabin's army, to you at the Kishon River, along with his chariots and huge army. I will hand him over to you."

<sup>8</sup> Barak said to her, "If you go with me, I will go. But if you do not go with me, I will not go."

<sup>9</sup> She said, "I will indeed go with you. But you will not gain fame on the expedition you are undertaking, for the LORD will turn Sisera over to a woman." Deborah got up and went with Barak to Kedesh.

<sup>10</sup> Barak summoned men from Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh. Ten thousand men followed him; Deborah went up with him as well.

<sup>11</sup> Now Heber the Kenite had moved away from the Kenites, the descendants of Hobab, Moses' father-in-law. He lived near the great tree in Zaanannim near Kedesh.

<sup>12</sup> When Sisera heard that Barak son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor, <sup>13</sup> he ordered all his chariotry – nine hundred chariots with iron-rimmed wheels – and all the troops he had with him to go from Harosheth-Haggoyim to the River Kishon.

<sup>14</sup> Deborah said to Barak, "Spring into action, for this is the day the LORD is handing Sisera over to you! Has the LORD not taken the lead?" Barak quickly went down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand men following him.

<sup>17</sup> Now Sisera ran away on foot to the tent of Jael, wife of Heber the Kenite, for King Jabin of Hazor and the family of Heber the Kenite had made a peace treaty.

<sup>18</sup> Jael came out to welcome Sisera. She said to him, "Stop and rest, my lord. Stop and rest with me. Don't be afraid." So Sisera stopped to rest in her tent, and she put a blanket over him.

<sup>19</sup> He said to her, "Give me a little water to drink, because I'm thirsty." She opened a goatskin container of milk and gave him some milk to drink. Then she covered him up again.

<sup>20</sup> He said to her, "Stand watch at the entrance to the tent. If anyone comes along and asks you, 'Is there a man here?' say 'No.' "

<sup>21</sup> Then Jael wife of Heber took a tent peg in one hand and a hammer in the other. She crept up on him, drove the tent peg through his temple into the ground while he was asleep from exhaustion, and he died.

<sup>22</sup> Now Barak was chasing Sisera. Jael went out to welcome him. She said to him, "Come here and I will show you the man you are searching for." He went with her into the tent, and there he saw Sisera sprawled out dead with the tent peg in his temple.

<sup>2</sup> "When the leaders took the lead in Israel,
When the people answered the call to war –
Praise the LORD!

Pay attention, O rulers!

I will sing to the LORD!

I will sing to the LORD God of Israel!

<sup>4</sup> O LORD, when you departed from Seir, when you marched from Edom's plains,
the earth shook, the heavens poured down,
the clouds poured down rain.

<sup>5</sup> The mountains trembled before the LORD, the God of Sinai;
before the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> In the days of Shamgar son of Anath, in the days of Jael caravans disappeared;
travelers had to go on winding side roads.

<sup>7</sup> Warriors were scarce, they were scarce in Israel,
until you arose, Deborah,
until you arose as a motherly protector in Israel.

<sup>8</sup> God chose new leaders, then fighters appeared in the city gates;
but, I swear, not a shield or spear could be found, among forty military units in Israel.

<sup>9</sup> My heart went out to Israel's leaders, to the people who answered the call to war.
Praise the LORD!

<sup>10</sup> You who ride on light-colored female donkeys, who sit on saddle blankets,
you who walk on the road, pay attention!

<sup>11</sup> Hear the sound of those who divide the sheep among the watering places;
there they tell of the Lord's victorious deeds,
the victorious deeds of his warriors in Israel.
Then the LORD's people went down to the city gates –

<sup>12</sup> Wake up, wake up, Deborah!

Wake up, wake up, sing a song!

Get up, Barak!

Capture your prisoners of war, son of Abinoam!

<sup>13</sup> Then the survivors came down to the mighty ones;
the LORD's people came down to me as warriors.

<sup>14</sup> They came from Ephraim, who uprooted Amalek, they follow after you, Benjamin, with your soldiers.
From Makir leaders came down, from Zebulun came the ones who march carrying an officer's staff.

<sup>15</sup> Issachar's leaders were with Deborah, the men of Issachar supported Barak;
into the valley they were sent under Barak's command.
Among the clans of Reuben there was intense heart searching.

<sup>16</sup> Why do you remain among the sheepfolds, listening to the shepherds playing their pipes for their flocks?
As for the clans of Reuben – there was intense searching of heart.

<sup>17</sup> Gilead stayed put beyond the Jordan River.
As for Dan – why did he seek temporary employment in the shipyards?
Asher remained on the seacoast,
he stayed by his harbors.

<sup>18</sup> The men of Zebulun were not concerned about their lives;
Naphtali charged on to the battlefields.

<sup>19</sup> Kings came, they fought;
the kings of Canaan fought,
at Taanach by the waters of Megiddo, but they took no silver as plunder.

<sup>20</sup> From the sky the stars fought, from their paths in the heavens they fought against Sisera.

<sup>21</sup> The Kishon River carried them off;
the river confronted them – the Kishon River.
Step on the necks of the strong!

<sup>22</sup> The horses' hooves pounded the ground;
the stallions galloped madly.

<sup>23</sup> 'Call judgment down on Meroz,' says the LORD's angelic messenger;
'Be sure to call judgment down on those who live there, because they did not come to help in the LORD's battle, to help in the LORD's battle against the warriors.'

<sup>24</sup> The most rewarded of women should be Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite!
She should be the most rewarded of women who live in tents.

<sup>25</sup> He asked for water, and she gave him milk;
in a bowl fit for a king,
she served him curds.

<sup>26</sup> Her left hand reached for the tent peg, her right hand for the workmen's hammer.
She "hammered" Sisera,
she shattered his skull,
she smashed his head,
she drove the tent peg through his temple.

<sup>27</sup> Between her feet he collapsed, he fell limp and was lifeless;

between her feet he collapsed and fell limp,
in the spot where he collapsed,
there he fell limp – violently murdered!
<sup>28</sup> Through the window she looked;
Sisera's mother cried out through the lattice:
'Why is his chariot so slow to return?
Why are the hoofbeats of his chariot-horses delayed?'
<sup>29</sup> The wisest of her ladies answer;
indeed she even thinks to herself,
<sup>30</sup> 'No doubt they are gathering and dividing the plunder –
a girl or two for each man to rape!
Sisera is grabbing up colorful cloth,
he is grabbing up colorful embroidered cloth,
two pieces of colorful embroidered cloth,
for the neck of the plunderer!'
<sup>31</sup> May all your enemies perish like this, O LORD!
But may those who love you shine like the rising sun at its brightest!"
And the land had rest for forty years.

6

<sup>1</sup> The Israelites did evil in the LORD's sight, so the LORD turned them over to Midian for seven years.

<sup>3</sup> Whenever the Israelites planted their crops, the Midianites, Amalekites, and the people from the east would attack them.

<sup>5</sup> When they invaded with their cattle and tents, they were as thick as locusts. Neither they nor their camels could be counted. They came to devour the land.

<sup>6</sup> Israel was so severely weakened by Midian that the Israelites cried out to the LORD for help.

<sup>7</sup> When the Israelites cried out to the LORD for help because of Midian, <sup>8</sup> he sent a prophet to the Israelites. He said to them, "This is what the LORD God of Israel says: 'I brought you up from Egypt and took you out of that place of slavery.

<sup>9</sup> I rescued you from Egypt's power and from the power of all who oppressed you. I drove them out before you and gave their land to you.

<sup>10</sup> I said to you, "I am the LORD your God! Do not worship the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are now living!" But you have disobeyed me.' "

Gideon Meets Some Visitors

<sup>11</sup> The LORD's angelic messenger came and sat down under the oak tree in Ophrah owned by Joash the Abiezrite. He arrived while Joash's son Gideon was threshing wheat in a winepress so he could hide it from the Midianites.

<sup>12</sup> The LORD's messenger appeared and said to him, "The LORD is with you, courageous warrior!"

<sup>13</sup> Gideon said to him, "Pardon me, but if the LORD is with us, why has such disaster overtaken us? Where are all his miraculous deeds our ancestors told us about? They said, 'Did the LORD not bring us up from Egypt?' But now the LORD has abandoned us and handed us over to Midian."

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD himself turned to him and said, “You have the strength. Deliver Israel from the power of the Midianites! Have I not sent you?”

<sup>15</sup> Gideon said to him, “But Lord, how can I deliver Israel? Just look! My clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the youngest in my family.”

<sup>16</sup> The LORD said to him, “Ah, but I will be with you! You will strike down the whole Midianite army.”

<sup>17</sup> Gideon said to him, “If you really are pleased with me, then give me a sign as proof that it is really you speaking with me.

<sup>18</sup> Do not leave this place until I come back with a gift and present it to you.” The LORD said |strong="H0559", “I will stay here until you come back.”

<sup>19</sup> Gideon went and prepared a young goat, along with unleavened bread made from an ephah of flour. He put the meat in a basket and the broth in a pot. He brought the food to him under the oak tree and presented it to him.

<sup>20</sup> God’s messenger said to him, “Put the meat and unleavened bread on this rock, and pour out the broth.” Gideon did as instructed.

<sup>21</sup> The LORD’s messenger touched the meat and the unleavened bread with the tip of his staff. Fire flared up from the rock and consumed the meat and unleavened bread. The LORD’s messenger then disappeared.

<sup>22</sup> When Gideon realized that it was the LORD’s messenger, he said, “Oh no! Master, LORD! I have seen the LORD’s messenger face to face!”

<sup>23</sup> The LORD said to him, “You are safe! Do not be afraid! You are not going to die!”

<sup>24</sup> Gideon built an altar for the LORD there, and named it “The LORD is on friendly terms with me.” To this day it is still there in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

Gideon Destroys the Altar

<sup>25</sup> That night the LORD said to him, “Take the bull from your father’s herd, as well as a second bull, one that is seven years old. Pull down your father’s Baal altar and cut down the nearby Asherah pole.

<sup>26</sup> Then build an altar for the LORD your God on the top of this stronghold according to the proper pattern. Take the second bull and offer it as a burnt sacrifice on the wood from the Asherah pole that you cut down.”

<sup>27</sup> So Gideon took ten of his servants and did just as the LORD had told him. He was too afraid of his father’s family and the men of the city to do it in broad daylight, so he waited until nighttime.

<sup>28</sup> When the men of the city got up the next morning, they saw the Baal altar pulled down, the nearby Asherah pole cut down, and the second bull sacrificed on the newly built altar.

<sup>29</sup> They said to one another, “Who did this?” They investigated the matter thoroughly and concluded that Gideon son of Joash had done it.

<sup>30</sup> The men of the city said to Joash, “Bring out your son, so we can execute him! He pulled down the Baal altar and cut down the nearby Asherah pole.”

<sup>31</sup> But Joash said to all those who confronted him, “Must you fight Baal’s battles? Must you rescue him? Whoever takes up his cause will die by morning! If he really is a god, let him fight his own battles! After all, it was his altar that was pulled down.”

<sup>32</sup> That very day Gideon’s father named him Jerub-Baal, because he had said, “Let Baal fight with him, for it was his altar that was pulled down.”

Gideon Summons an Army and Seeks Confirmation

<sup>34</sup> The LORD's spirit took control of Gideon. He blew a trumpet, summoning the Abiezrites to follow him.

<sup>35</sup> He sent messengers throughout Manasseh and summoned them to follow him as well. He also sent messengers throughout Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, and they came up to meet him.

<sup>36</sup> Gideon said to God, "If you really intend to use me to deliver Israel, as you promised, then give me a sign as proof.

<sup>37</sup> Look, I am putting a wool fleece on the threshing floor. If there is dew only on the fleece, and the ground around it is dry, then I will be sure that you will use me to deliver Israel, as you promised."

<sup>38</sup> The LORD did as he asked. When he got up the next morning, he squeezed the fleece, and enough dew dripped from it to fill a bowl.

<sup>39</sup> Gideon said to God, "Please do not get angry at me, when I ask for just one more sign. Please allow me one more test with the fleece. This time make only the fleece dry, while the ground around it is covered with dew."

<sup>40</sup> That night God did as he asked. Only the fleece was dry and the ground around it was covered with dew.

7

<sup>1</sup> Jerub-Baal (that is, Gideon) and his men got up the next morning and camped near the spring of Harod. The Midianites were camped north of them near the hill of Moreh in the valley.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD said to Gideon, "You have too many men for me to hand Midian over to you. Israel might brag, 'Our own strength has delivered us.'

<sup>3</sup> Now, announce to the men, 'Whoever is shaking with fear may turn around and leave Mount Gilead.' " Twenty-two thousand men went home; ten thousand remained.

<sup>4</sup> The LORD spoke to Gideon again, "There are still too many men. Bring them down to the water and I will thin the ranks some more. When I say, 'This one should go with you,' pick him to go; when I say, 'This one should not go with you,' do not take him."

<sup>5</sup> So he brought the men down to the water. Then the LORD said to Gideon, "Separate those who lap the water as a dog laps from those who kneel to drink."

<sup>7</sup> The LORD said to Gideon, "With the three hundred men who lapped I will deliver the whole army and I will hand Midian over to you. The rest of the men should go home."

<sup>8</sup> The men who were chosen took supplies and their trumpets. Gideon sent all the men of Israel back to their homes; he kept only three hundred men. Now the Midianites were camped down below in the valley.

Gideon Reassured of Victory

<sup>9</sup> That night the LORD said to Gideon, "Get up! Attack the camp, for I am handing it over to you.

<sup>10</sup> But if you are afraid to attack, go down to the camp with Purah your servant

<sup>11</sup> and listen to what they are saying. Then you will be brave and attack the camp." So he went down with Purah his servant to where the sentries were guarding the camp.

<sup>12</sup> Now the Midianites, Amalekites, and the people from the east covered the valley like a swarm of locusts. Their camels could not be counted; they were as innumerable as the sand on the seashore.

<sup>13</sup> When Gideon arrived, he heard a man telling another man about a dream he had. The man said, "Look! I had a dream. I saw a stale cake of barley bread rolling into the Midianite camp. It hit a tent so hard it knocked it over and turned it upside down. The tent just collapsed."

<sup>14</sup> The other man said, “Without a doubt this symbolizes the sword of Gideon son of Joash, the Israelite. God is handing Midian and all the army over to him.”

Gideon Routs the Enemy

<sup>15</sup> When Gideon heard the report of the dream and its interpretation, he praised God. Then he went back to the Israelite camp and said, “Get up, for the LORD is handing the Midianite army over to you!”

<sup>16</sup> He divided the three hundred men into three units. He gave them all trumpets and empty jars with torches inside them.

<sup>17</sup> He said to them, “Watch me and do as I do. Watch closely! I am going to the edge of the camp. Do as I do!”

<sup>18</sup> When I and all who are with me blow our trumpets, you also blow your trumpets all around the camp. Then say, ‘For the LORD and for Gideon!’ ”

<sup>21</sup> They stood in order all around the camp. The whole army ran away; they shouted as they scrambled away.

<sup>22</sup> When the three hundred men blew their trumpets, the LORD caused the Midianites to attack one another with their swords throughout the camp. The army fled to Beth Shittah on the way to Zererah. They went to the border of Abel Meholah near Tabbath.

Gideon Appeases the Ephraimites

<sup>24</sup> Now Gideon sent messengers throughout the Ephraimite hill country who announced, “Go down and head off the Midianites. Take control of the fords of the streams all the way to Beth Barah and the Jordan River.” When all the Ephraimites had assembled, they took control of the fords all the way to Beth Barah and the Jordan River.

<sup>25</sup> They captured the two Midianite generals, Oreb and Zeeb. They executed Oreb on the rock of Oreb and Zeeb in the winepress of Zeeb. They chased the Midianites and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon, who was now on the other side of the Jordan River.

8

<sup>1</sup> The Ephraimites said to him, “Why have you done such a thing to us? You did not summon us when you went to fight the Midianites!” They argued vehemently with him.

<sup>2</sup> He said to them, “Now what have I accomplished compared to you? Even Ephraim’s leftover grapes are better quality than Abiezer’s harvest!”

<sup>3</sup> It was to you that God handed over the Midianite generals, Oreb and Zeeb! What did I accomplish to rival that?” When he said this, they calmed down.

Gideon Tracks Down the Midianite Kings

<sup>4</sup> Now Gideon and his three hundred men had crossed over the Jordan River, and even though they were exhausted, they were still chasing the Midianites.

<sup>5</sup> He said to the men of Succoth, “Give some loaves of bread to the men who are following me, because they are exhausted. I am chasing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian.”

<sup>6</sup> The officials of Succoth said, “You have not yet overpowered Zebah and Zalmunna. So why should we give bread to your army?”

<sup>7</sup> Gideon said, “Since you will not help, after the LORD hands Zebah and Zalmunna over to me, I will thresh your skin with desert thorns and briers.”

<sup>8</sup> He went up from there to Penuel and made the same request. The men of Penuel responded the same way the men of Succoth had.

<sup>9</sup> He also threatened the men of Penuel, warning, “When I return victoriously, I will tear down this tower.”

<sup>10</sup> Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor with their armies. There were about fifteen thousand survivors from the army of the eastern peoples; a hundred and twenty thousand sword-wielding soldiers had been killed.

<sup>11</sup> Gideon went up the road of the nomads east of Nobah and Jogbehah and ambushed the surprised army.

<sup>12</sup> When Zebah and Zalmunna ran away, Gideon chased them and captured the two Midianite kings, Zebah and Zalmunna. He had surprised their entire army.

<sup>14</sup> He captured a young man from Succoth and interrogated him. The young man wrote down for him the names of Succoth’s officials and city leaders – seventy-seven men in all.

<sup>15</sup> He approached the men of Succoth and said, “Look what I have! Zebah and Zalmunna! You insulted me, saying, ‘You have not yet overpowered Zebah and Zalmunna. So why should we give bread to your exhausted men?’”

<sup>16</sup> He seized the leaders of the city, along with some desert thorns and briers; he then “threshed” the men of Succoth with them.

<sup>17</sup> He also tore down the tower of Penuel and executed the city’s men.

<sup>18</sup> He said to Zebah and Zalmunna, “Describe for me the men you killed at Tabor.” They said, “They were like you. Each one looked like a king’s son.”

<sup>19</sup> He said, “They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. I swear, as surely as the LORD is alive, if you had let them live, I would not kill you.”

<sup>20</sup> He ordered Jether his firstborn son, “Come on! Kill them!” But Jether was too afraid to draw his sword, because he was still young.

<sup>21</sup> Zebah and Zalmunna said to Gideon, “Come on, you strike us, for a man is judged by his strength.” So Gideon killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and he took the crescent-shaped ornaments which were on the necks of their camels.

Gideon Rejects a Crown but Makes an Ephod

<sup>22</sup> The men of Israel said to Gideon, “Rule over us – you, your son, and your grandson. For you have delivered us from Midian’s power.”

<sup>23</sup> Gideon said to them, “I will not rule over you, nor will my son rule over you. The LORD will rule over you.”

<sup>24</sup> Gideon continued, “I would like to make one request. Each of you give me an earring from the plunder you have taken.” (The Midianites had gold earrings because they were Ishmaelites.)

<sup>25</sup> They said, “We are happy to give you earrings.” So they spread out a garment, and each one threw an earring from his plunder onto it.

<sup>26</sup> The total weight of the gold earrings he requested came to seventeen hundred gold shekels. This was in addition to the crescent-shaped ornaments, jewelry, purple clothing worn by the Midianite kings, and the necklaces on the camels.

<sup>27</sup> Gideon used all this to make an ephod, which he put in his hometown of Ophrah. All the Israelites prostituted themselves to it by worshiping it there. It became a snare to Gideon and his family.

Gideon’s Story Ends

<sup>28</sup> The Israelites humiliated Midian; the Midianites' fighting spirit was broken. The land had rest for forty years during Gideon's time.

<sup>32</sup> Gideon son of Joash died at a very old age and was buried in the tomb of his father Joash located in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

Israel Returns to Baal-Worship

<sup>33</sup> After Gideon died, the Israelites again prostituted themselves to the Baals. They made Baal-Berith their god.

<sup>34</sup> The Israelites did not remain true to the LORD their God, who had delivered them from all the enemies who lived around them.

<sup>35</sup> They did not treat the family of Jerub-Baal (that is, Gideon) fairly in return for all the good he had done for Israel.

9

<sup>1</sup> Now Abimelech son of Jerub-Baal went to Shechem to see his mother's relatives. He said to them and to his mother's entire extended family,

<sup>2</sup> "Tell all the leaders of Shechem this: 'Why would you want to have seventy men, all Jerub-Baal's sons, ruling over you, when you can have just one ruler? Recall that I am your own flesh and blood.' "

<sup>3</sup> His mother's relatives spoke on his behalf to all the leaders of Shechem and reported his proposal. The leaders were drawn to Abimelech; they said, "He is our close relative."

<sup>4</sup> They paid him seventy silver shekels out of the temple of Baal-Berith. Abimelech then used the silver to hire some lawless, dangerous men as his followers.

<sup>6</sup> All the leaders of Shechem and Beth Millo assembled and then went and made Abimelech king by the oak near the pillar in Shechem.

Jotham's Parable

<sup>7</sup> When Jotham heard the news, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim. He spoke loudly to the people below, "Listen to me, leaders of Shechem, so that God may listen to you!

<sup>8</sup> "The trees were determined to go out and choose a king for themselves. They said to the olive tree, 'Be our king!'

<sup>9</sup> But the olive tree said to them, 'I am not going to stop producing my oil, which is used to honor gods and men, just to sway above the other trees!'

<sup>10</sup> "So the trees said to the fig tree, 'You come and be our king!'

<sup>11</sup> But the fig tree said to them, 'I am not going to stop producing my sweet figs, my excellent fruit, just to sway above the other trees!'

<sup>12</sup> "So the trees said to the grapevine, 'You come and be our king!'

<sup>13</sup> But the grapevine said to them, 'I am not going to stop producing my wine, which makes gods and men so happy, just to sway above the other trees!'

<sup>14</sup> "So all the trees said to the thornbush, 'You come and be our king!'

<sup>15</sup> The thornbush said to the trees, 'If you really want to choose me as your king, then come along, find safety under my branches! Otherwise may fire blaze from the thornbush and consume the cedars of Lebanon!'

<sup>16</sup> “Now, if you have shown loyalty and integrity when you made Abimelech king, if you have done right to Jerub-Baal and his family, if you have properly repaid him –

<sup>17</sup> my father fought for you; he risked his life and delivered you from Midian’s power.

<sup>18</sup> But you have attacked my father’s family today. You murdered his seventy legitimate sons on one stone and made Abimelech, the son of his female slave, king over the leaders of Shechem, just because he is your close relative.

<sup>19</sup> So if you have shown loyalty and integrity to Jerub-Baal and his family today, then may Abimelech bring you happiness and may you bring him happiness!

<sup>20</sup> But if not, may fire blaze from Abimelech and consume the leaders of Shechem and Beth Millo! May fire also blaze from the leaders of Shechem and Beth Millo and consume Abimelech!”

<sup>21</sup> Then Jotham ran away to Beer and lived there to escape from Abimelech his half-brother.

God Fulfills Jotham’s Curse

<sup>23</sup> God sent a spirit to stir up hostility between Abimelech and the leaders of Shechem. He made the leaders of Shechem disloyal to Abimelech.

<sup>24</sup> He did this so the violent deaths of Jerub-Baal’s seventy sons might be avenged and Abimelech, their half-brother who murdered them, might have to pay for their spilled blood, along with the leaders of Shechem who helped him murder them.

<sup>26</sup> Gaal son of Ebed came through Shechem with his brothers. The leaders of Shechem transferred their loyalty to him.

<sup>27</sup> They went out to the field, harvested their grapes, squeezed out the juice, and celebrated. They came to the temple of their god and ate, drank, and cursed Abimelech.

<sup>28</sup> Gaal son of Ebed said, “Who is Abimelech and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerub-Baal, and is not Zebul the deputy he appointed? Serve the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem! But why should we serve Abimelech?”

<sup>29</sup> If only these men were under my command, I would get rid of Abimelech!” He challenged Abimelech, “Mustering your army and come out for battle!”

<sup>30</sup> When Zebul, the city commissioner, heard the words of Gaal son of Ebed, he was furious.

<sup>31</sup> He sent messengers to Abimelech, who was in Arumah, reporting, “Beware! Gaal son of Ebed and his brothers are coming to Shechem and inciting the city to rebel against you.

<sup>32</sup> Now, come up at night with your men and set an ambush in the field outside the city.

<sup>34</sup> So Abimelech and all his men came up at night and set an ambush outside Shechem – they divided into four units.

<sup>35</sup> When Gaal son of Ebed came out and stood at the entrance to the city’s gate, Abimelech and his men got up from their hiding places.

<sup>37</sup> Gaal again said, “Look, men are coming down from the very center of the land. A unit is coming by way of the Oak Tree of the Diviners.”

<sup>38</sup> Zebul said to him, “Where now are your bragging words, ‘Who is Abimelech that we should serve him?’ Are these not the men you insulted? Go out now and fight them!”

<sup>42</sup> The next day the Shechemites came out to the field. When Abimelech heard about it, <sup>43</sup> he took his men and divided them into three units and set an ambush in the field. When he saw the people coming out of the city, he attacked and struck them down.

<sup>44</sup> Abimelech and his units attacked and blocked the entrance to the city’s gate. Two units then attacked all the people in the field and struck them down.

<sup>45</sup> Abimelech fought against the city all that day. He captured the city and killed all the people in it. Then he leveled the city and spread salt over it.

<sup>47</sup> Abimelech heard that all the leaders of the Tower of Shechem were in one place.

<sup>48</sup> He and all his men went up on Mount Zalmon. He took an ax in his hand and cut off a tree branch. He put it on his shoulder and said to his men, “Quickly, do what you have just seen me do!”

<sup>49</sup> So each of his men also cut off a branch and followed Abimelech. They put the branches against the stronghold and set fire to it. All the people of the Tower of Shechem died – about a thousand men and women.

<sup>50</sup> Abimelech moved on to Thebez; he besieged and captured it.

<sup>51</sup> There was a fortified tower in the center of the city, so all the men and women, as well as the city’s leaders, ran into it and locked the entrance. Then they went up to the roof of the tower.

<sup>54</sup> He quickly called to the young man who carried his weapons, “Draw your sword and kill me, so they will not say, ‘A woman killed him.’ ” So the young man stabbed him and he died.

<sup>55</sup> When the Israelites saw that Abimelech was dead, they went home.

<sup>56</sup> God repaid Abimelech for the evil he did to his father by murdering his seventy half-brothers.

<sup>57</sup> God also repaid the men of Shechem for their evil deeds. The curse spoken by Jotham son of Jerub-Baal fell on them.

10

<sup>2</sup> He led Israel for twenty-three years, then died and was buried in Shamir.

<sup>3</sup> Jair the Gileadite rose up after him; he led Israel for twenty-two years.

<sup>4</sup> He had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkeys and possessed thirty cities. To this day these towns are called Havvoth Jair – they are in the land of Gilead.

<sup>6</sup> The Israelites again did evil in the LORD's sight. They worshiped the Baals and the Ashtars, as well as the gods of Syria, Sidon, Moab, the Ammonites, and the Philistines. They abandoned the LORD and did not worship him.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD was furious with Israel and turned them over to the Philistines and Ammonites.

<sup>10</sup> The Israelites cried out for help to the LORD: "We have sinned against you. We abandoned our God and worshiped the Baals."

<sup>11</sup> The LORD said to the Israelites, "Did I not deliver you from Egypt, the Amorites, the Ammonites, the Philistines, <sup>12</sup> the Sidonians, Amalek, and Midian when they oppressed you? You cried out for help to me, and I delivered you from their power.

<sup>13</sup> But since you abandoned me and worshiped other gods, I will not deliver you again.

<sup>14</sup> Go and cry for help to the gods you have chosen! Let them deliver you from trouble!"

<sup>15</sup> But the Israelites said to the LORD, "We have sinned. You do to us as you see fit, but deliver us today!"

<sup>16</sup> They threw away the foreign gods they owned and worshiped the LORD. Finally the LORD grew tired of seeing Israel suffer so much.

An Outcast Becomes a General

<sup>18</sup> The leaders of Gilead said to one another, "Who is willing to lead the charge against the Ammonites? He will become the leader of all who live in Gilead!"

11

<sup>2</sup> Gilead's wife also gave him sons. When his wife's sons grew up, they made Jephthah leave and said to him, "You are not going to inherit any of our father's wealth, because you are another woman's son."

<sup>5</sup> When the Ammonites attacked, the leaders of Gilead asked Jephthah to come back from the land of Tob.

<sup>6</sup> They said, "Come, be our commander, so we can fight with the Ammonites."

<sup>7</sup> Jephthah said to the leaders of Gilead, "But you hated me and made me leave my father's house. Why do you come to me now, when you are in trouble?"

<sup>8</sup> The leaders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "That may be true, but now we pledge to you our loyalty. Come with us and fight with the Ammonites. Then you will become the leader of all who live in Gilead."

<sup>9</sup> Jephthah said to the leaders of Gilead, "All right! If you take me back to fight with the Ammonites and the LORD gives them to me, I will be your leader."

<sup>10</sup> The leaders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "The LORD will judge any grievance you have against us, if we do not do as you say."

<sup>11</sup> So Jephthah went with the leaders of Gilead. The people made him their leader and commander. Jephthah repeated the terms of the agreement before the LORD in Mizpah.

Jephthah Gives a History Lesson

<sup>12</sup> Jephthah sent messengers to the Ammonite king, saying, “Why have you come against me to attack my land?”

<sup>13</sup> The Ammonite king said to Jephthah’s messengers, “Because Israel stole my land when they came up from Egypt – from the Arnon River in the south to the Jabbok River in the north, and as far west as the Jordan. Now return it peaceably!”

<sup>15</sup> and said to him, “This is what Jephthah says, ‘Israel did not steal the land of Moab and the land of the Ammonites.

<sup>16</sup> When they left Egypt, Israel traveled through the desert as far as the Red Sea and then came to Kadesh.

<sup>17</sup> Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, “Please allow us to pass through your land.” But the king of Edom rejected the request. Israel sent the same request to the king of Moab, but he was unwilling to cooperate. So Israel stayed at Kadesh.

<sup>18</sup> Then Israel went through the desert and bypassed the land of Edom and the land of Moab. They traveled east of the land of Moab and camped on the other side of the Arnon River; they did not go through Moabite territory (the Arnon was Moab’s border).

<sup>19</sup> Israel sent messengers to King Sihon, the Amorite king who ruled in Heshbon, and said to him, “Please allow us to pass through your land to our land.”

<sup>20</sup> But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory. He assembled his whole army, camped in Jahaz, and fought with Israel.

<sup>21</sup> The LORD God of Israel handed Sihon and his whole army over to Israel and they defeated them. Israel took all the land of the Amorites who lived in that land.

<sup>23</sup> Since the LORD God of Israel has driven out the Amorites before his people Israel, do you think you can just take it from them?

<sup>24</sup> You have the right to take what Chemosh your god gives you, but we will take the land of all whom the LORD our God has driven out before us.

<sup>25</sup> Are you really better than Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he dare to quarrel with Israel? Did he dare to fight with them?

<sup>26</sup> Israel has been living in Heshbon and its nearby towns, in Aroer and its nearby towns, and in all the cities along the Arnon for three hundred years! Why did you not reclaim them during that time?

<sup>27</sup> I have not done you wrong, but you are doing wrong by attacking me. May the LORD, the Judge, judge this day between the Israelites and the Ammonites!’ ”

A Foolish Vow Spells Death for a Daughter

<sup>29</sup> The LORD’s spirit empowered Jephthah. He passed through Gilead and Manasseh and went to Mizpah in Gilead. From there he approached the Ammonites.

<sup>30</sup> Jephthah made a vow to the LORD, saying, “If you really do hand the Ammonites over to me, <sup>31</sup> then whoever is the first to come through the doors of my house to meet me when I return safely from fighting the Ammonites – he will belong to the LORD and I will offer him up as a burnt sacrifice.”

<sup>32</sup> Jephthah approached the Ammonites to fight with them, and the LORD handed them over to him.

<sup>33</sup> He defeated them from Aroer all the way to Minnith – twenty cities in all, even as far as Abel Keramim! He wiped them out! The Israelites humiliated the Ammonites.

<sup>34</sup> When Jephthah came home to Mizpah, there was his daughter hurrying out to meet him, dancing to the rhythm of tambourines. She was his only child; except for her he had no son or daughter.

<sup>35</sup> When he saw her, he ripped his clothes and said, "Oh no! My daughter! You have completely ruined me! You have brought me disaster! I made an oath to the LORD, and I cannot break it."

<sup>36</sup> She said to him, "My father, since you made an oath to the LORD, do to me as you promised. After all, the LORD vindicated you before your enemies, the Ammonites."

<sup>37</sup> She then said to her father, "Please grant me this one wish. For two months allow me to walk through the hills with my friends and mourn my virginity."

<sup>38</sup> He said, "You may go." He permitted her to leave for two months. She went with her friends and mourned her virginity as she walked through the hills.

<sup>39</sup> After two months she returned to her father, and he did to her as he had vowed. She died a virgin. Her tragic death gave rise to a custom in Israel.

12

<sup>1</sup> The Ephraimites assembled and crossed over to Zaphon. They said to Jephthah, "Why did you go and fight with the Ammonites without asking us to go with you? We will burn your house down right over you!"

<sup>2</sup> Jephthah said to them, "My people and I were entangled in controversy with the Ammonites. I asked for your help, but you did not deliver me from their power.

<sup>3</sup> When I saw that you were not going to help, I risked my life and advanced against the Ammonites, and the LORD handed them over to me. Why have you come up to fight with me today?"

<sup>4</sup> Jephthah assembled all the men of Gilead and they fought with Ephraim. The men of Gilead defeated Ephraim, because the Ephraimites insulted them, saying, "You Gileadites are refugees in Ephraim, living within Ephraim's and Manasseh's territory."

<sup>5</sup> The Gileadites captured the fords of the Jordan River opposite Ephraim. Whenever an Ephraimite fugitive said, "Let me cross over," the men of Gilead asked him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" If he said, "No,"

<sup>6</sup> then they said to him, "Say 'Shibboleth!'" If he said, "Sibboleth" (and could not pronounce the word correctly), they grabbed him and executed him right there at the fords of the Jordan. On that day forty-two thousand Ephraimites fell dead.

<sup>7</sup> Jephthah led Israel for six years; then he died and was buried in his city in Gilead.

Order Restored

<sup>8</sup> After him Ibzan of Bethlehem led Israel.

<sup>9</sup> He had thirty sons. He arranged for thirty of his daughters to be married outside his extended family, and he arranged for thirty young women to be brought from outside as wives for his sons. Ibzan led Israel for seven years;

<sup>10</sup> then he died and was buried in Bethlehem.

<sup>14</sup> He had forty sons and thirty grandsons who rode on seventy donkeys. He led Israel for eight years.

<sup>15</sup> Then Abdon son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

13

<sup>1</sup> The Israelites again did evil in the LORD's sight, so the LORD handed them over to the Philistines for forty years.

<sup>2</sup> There was a man named Manoah from Zorah, from the Danite tribe. His wife was infertile and childless.

<sup>3</sup> The LORD's angelic messenger appeared to the woman and said to her, "You are infertile and childless, but you will conceive and have a son.

<sup>4</sup> Now be careful! Do not drink wine or beer, and do not eat any food that will make you ritually unclean.

<sup>5</sup> Look, you will conceive and have a son. You must never cut his hair, for the child will be dedicated to God from birth. He will begin to deliver Israel from the power of the Philistines."

<sup>6</sup> The woman went and said to her husband, "A man sent from God came to me! He looked like God's angelic messenger – he was very awesome. I did not ask him where he came from, and he did not tell me his name.

<sup>7</sup> He said to me, 'Look, you will conceive and have a son. So now, do not drink wine or beer and do not eat any food that will make you ritually unclean. For the child will be dedicated to God from birth till the day he dies.' "

<sup>8</sup> Manoah prayed to the LORD, "Please, Lord, allow the man sent from God to visit us again, so he can teach us how we should raise the child who will be born."

<sup>9</sup> God answered Manoah's prayer. God's angelic messenger visited the woman again while she was sitting in the field. But her husband Manoah was not with her.

<sup>10</sup> The woman ran at once and told her husband, "Come quickly, the man who visited me the other day has appeared to me!"

<sup>11</sup> So Manoah got up and followed his wife. When he met the man, he said to him, "Are you the man who spoke to my wife?" He said, "Yes."

<sup>12</sup> Manoah said, "Now, when your announcement comes true, how should the child be raised and what should he do?"

<sup>14</sup> She should not drink anything that the grapevine produces. She must not drink wine or beer, and she must not eat any food that will make her ritually unclean. She should obey everything I commanded her to do."

<sup>15</sup> Manoah said to the LORD's messenger, "Please stay here awhile, so we can prepare a young goat for you to eat."

<sup>16</sup> The LORD's messenger said to Manoah, "If I stay, I will not eat your food. But if you want to make a burnt sacrifice to the LORD, you should offer it." (He said this because Manoah did not know that he was the LORD's messenger.)

<sup>17</sup> Manoah said to the LORD's messenger, "Tell us your name, so we can honor you when your announcement comes true."

<sup>18</sup> The LORD's messenger said to him, "You should not ask me my name, because you cannot comprehend it."

<sup>20</sup> As the flame went up from the altar toward the sky, the LORD's messenger went up in it while Manoah and his wife watched. They fell facedown to the ground.

<sup>21</sup> The LORD's messenger did not appear again to Manoah and his wife. After all this happened Manoah realized that the visitor had been the LORD's messenger.

<sup>22</sup> Manoah said to his wife, "We will certainly die, because we have seen a supernatural being!"

<sup>23</sup> But his wife said to him, "If the LORD wanted to kill us, he would not have accepted the burnt offering and the grain offering from us. He would not have shown us all these things, or have spoken to us like this just now."

<sup>24</sup> Manoah's wife gave birth to a son and named him Samson. The child grew and the LORD empowered him.

14

<sup>2</sup> When he got home, he told his father and mother, "A Philistine girl in Timnah has caught my eye. Now get her for my wife."

<sup>3</sup> But his father and mother said to him, "Certainly you can find a wife among your relatives or among all our people! You should not have to go and get a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines." But Samson said to his father, "Get her for me, because she is the right one for me."

<sup>4</sup> Now his father and mother did not realize this was the LORD's doing, because he was looking for an opportunity to stir up trouble with the Philistines (for at that time the Philistines were ruling Israel).

<sup>5</sup> Samson went down to Timnah. When he approached the vineyards of Timnah, he saw a roaring young lion attacking him.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD's spirit empowered him and he tore the lion in two with his bare hands as easily as one would tear a young goat. But he did not tell his father or mother what he had done.

<sup>8</sup> Some time later, when he went back to marry her, he turned aside to see the lion's remains. He saw a swarm of bees in the lion's carcass, as well as some honey.

<sup>9</sup> He scooped it up with his hands and ate it as he walked along. When he returned to his father and mother, he offered them some and they ate it. But he did not tell them he had scooped the honey out of the lion's carcass.

<sup>10</sup> Then Samson's father accompanied him to Timnah for the marriage. Samson hosted a party there, for this was customary for bridegrooms to do.

<sup>11</sup> When the Philistines saw he had no attendants, they gave him thirty groomsmen who kept him company.

<sup>12</sup> Samson said to them, "I will give you a riddle. If you really can solve it during the seven days the party lasts, I will give you thirty linen robes and thirty sets of clothes.

<sup>13</sup> But if you cannot solve it, you will give me thirty linen robes and thirty sets of clothes." They said to him, "Let us hear your riddle."

<sup>14</sup> He said to them,
"Out of the one who eats came something to eat;
out of the strong one came something sweet."

They could not solve the riddle for three days.

<sup>15</sup> On the fourth day they said to Samson's bride, "Trick your husband into giving the solution to the riddle. If you refuse, we will burn up you and your father's family. Did you invite us here to make us poor?"

<sup>16</sup> So Samson's bride cried on his shoulder and said, "You must hate me; you do not love me! You told the young men a riddle, but you have not told me the solution." He said to her, "Look, I have not even told my father or mother. Do you really expect me to tell you?"

<sup>17</sup> She cried on his shoulder until the party was almost over. Finally, on the seventh day, he told her because she had nagged him so much. Then she told the young men the solution to the riddle.

<sup>18</sup> On the seventh day, before the sun set, the men of the city said to him, "What is sweeter than honey?
What is stronger than a lion?"

He said to them,
"If you had not plowed with my heifer, you would not have solved my riddle!"

<sup>19</sup> The LORD's spirit empowered him. He went down to Ashkelon and murdered thirty men. He took their clothes and gave them to the men who had solved the riddle. He was furious as he went back home.

15

<sup>1</sup> Sometime later, during the wheat harvest, Samson took a young goat as a gift and went to visit his bride. He said to her father, "I want to have sex with my bride in her bedroom!" But her father would not let him enter.

<sup>2</sup> Her father said, "I really thought you absolutely despised her, so I gave her to your best man. Her younger sister is more attractive than she is. Take her instead!"

<sup>3</sup> Samson said to them, "This time I am justified in doing the Philistines harm!"

<sup>4</sup> Samson went and captured three hundred jackals and got some torches. He tied the jackals in pairs by their tails and then tied a torch to each pair.

<sup>5</sup> He lit the torches and set the jackals loose in the Philistines' standing grain. He burned up the grain heaps and the standing grain, as well as the vineyards and olive groves.

<sup>6</sup> The Philistines asked, "Who did this?" They were told, "Samson, the Timnite's son-in-law, because the Timnite took Samson's bride and gave her to his best man." So the Philistines went up and burned her and her father.

<sup>7</sup> Samson said to them, "Because you did this, I will get revenge against you before I quit fighting."

<sup>8</sup> He struck them down and defeated them. Then he went down and lived for a time in the cave in the cliff of Etam.

<sup>9</sup> The Philistines went up and invaded Judah. They arrayed themselves for battle in Lehi.

<sup>10</sup> The men of Judah said, "Why are you attacking us?" The Philistines said, "We have come up to take Samson prisoner so we can do to him what he has done to us."

<sup>11</sup> Three thousand men of Judah went down to the cave in the cliff of Etam and said to Samson, "Do you not know that the Philistines rule over us? Why have you done this to us?" He said to them, "I have only done to them what they have done to me."

<sup>12</sup> They said to him, "We have come down to take you prisoner so we can hand you over to the Philistines." Samson said to them, "Promise me you will not kill me."

<sup>13</sup> They said to him, "We promise! We will only take you prisoner and hand you over to them. We promise not to kill you." They tied him up with two brand new ropes and led him up from the cliff.

<sup>14</sup> When he arrived in Lehi, the Philistines shouted as they approached him. But the LORD's spirit empowered him. The ropes around his arms were like flax dissolving in fire, and they melted away from his hands.

<sup>15</sup> He happened to see a solid jawbone of a donkey. He grabbed it and struck down a thousand men.

<sup>16</sup> Samson then said,
"With the jawbone of a donkey

I have left them in heaps;
with the jawbone of a donkey
I have struck down a thousand men!"

<sup>17</sup> When he finished speaking, he threw the jawbone down and named that place Ramath Lehi.

<sup>18</sup> He was very thirsty, so he cried out to the LORD and said, "You have given your servant this great victory. But now must I die of thirst and fall into hands of the Philistines?"

<sup>19</sup> So God split open the basin at Lehi and water flowed out from it. When he took a drink, his strength was restored and he revived. For this reason he named the spring En Hakkore. It remains in Lehi to this very day.

<sup>2</sup> The Gazites were told, "Samson has come here!" So they surrounded the town and hid all night at the city gate, waiting for him to leave. They relaxed all night, thinking, "He will not leave until morning comes; then we will kill him!"

<sup>3</sup> Samson spent half the night with the prostitute; then he got up in the middle of the night and left. He grabbed the doors of the city gate, as well as the two posts, and pulled them right off, bar and all. He put them on his shoulders and carried them up to the top of a hill east of Hebron.

<sup>4</sup> After this Samson fell in love with a woman named Delilah, who lived in the Sorek Valley.

<sup>5</sup> The rulers of the Philistines went up to visit her and said to her, "Trick him! Find out what makes him so strong and how we can subdue him and humiliate him. Each one of us will give you eleven hundred silver pieces."

<sup>6</sup> So Delilah said to Samson, "Tell me what makes you so strong and how you can be subdued and humiliated."

<sup>7</sup> Samson said to her, "If they tie me up with seven fresh bowstrings that have not been dried, I will become weak and be just like any other man."

<sup>8</sup> So the rulers of the Philistines brought her seven fresh bowstrings which had not been dried and they tied him up with them.

<sup>9</sup> They hid in the bedroom and then she said to him, "The Philistines are here, Samson!" He snapped the bowstrings as easily as a thread of yarn snaps when it is put close to fire. The secret of his strength was not discovered.

<sup>10</sup> Delilah said to Samson, "Look, you deceived me and told me lies! Now tell me how you can be subdued."

<sup>11</sup> He said to her, "If they tie me tightly with brand new ropes that have never been used, I will become weak and be just like any other man."

<sup>12</sup> So Delilah took new ropes and tied him with them and said to him, "The Philistines are here, Samson!" (The Philistines were hiding in the bedroom.) But he tore the ropes from his arms as if they were a piece of thread.

<sup>13</sup> Delilah said to Samson, "Up to now you have deceived me and told me lies. Tell me how you can be subdued." He said to her, "If you weave the seven braids of my hair into the fabric on the loom and secure it with the pin, I will become weak and be like any other man."

<sup>14</sup> So she made him go to sleep, wove the seven braids of his hair into the fabric on the loom, fastened it with the pin, and said to him, "The Philistines are here, Samson!" He woke up and tore away the pin of the loom and the fabric.

<sup>15</sup> She said to him, “How can you say, ‘I love you,’ when you will not share your secret with me? Three times you have deceived me and have not told me what makes you so strong.”

<sup>16</sup> She nagged him every day and pressured him until he was sick to death of it.

<sup>17</sup> Finally he told her his secret. He said to her, “My hair has never been cut, for I have been dedicated to God from the time I was conceived. If my head were shaved, my strength would leave me; I would become weak, and be just like all other men.”

<sup>18</sup> When Delilah saw that he had told her his secret, she sent for the rulers of the Philistines, saying, “Come up here again, for he has told me his secret.” So the rulers of the Philistines went up to visit her, bringing the silver in their hands.

<sup>19</sup> She made him go to sleep on her lap and then called a man in to shave off the seven braids of his hair. She made him vulnerable and his strength left him.

<sup>20</sup> She said, “The Philistines are here, Samson!” He woke up and thought, “I will do as I did before and shake myself free.” But he did not realize that the LORD had left him.

<sup>21</sup> The Philistines captured him and gouged out his eyes. They brought him down to Gaza and bound him in bronze chains. He became a grinder in the prison.

<sup>22</sup> His hair began to grow back after it had been shaved off.

Samson's Death and Burial

<sup>23</sup> The rulers of the Philistines gathered to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god and to celebrate. They said, “Our god has handed Samson, our enemy, over to us.”

<sup>24</sup> When the people saw him, they praised their god, saying, “Our god has handed our enemy over to us, the one who ruined our land and killed so many of us!”

<sup>25</sup> When they really started celebrating, they said, “Call for Samson so he can entertain us!” So they summoned Samson from the prison and he entertained them. They made him stand between two pillars.

<sup>26</sup> Samson said to the young man who held his hand, “Position me so I can touch the pillars that support the temple. Then I can lean on them.”

<sup>27</sup> Now the temple was filled with men and women, and all the rulers of the Philistines were there. There were three thousand men and women on the roof watching Samson entertain.

<sup>28</sup> Samson called to the LORD| strong="H3069", “O Master, LORD, remember me! Strengthen me just one more time, O God, so I can get swift revenge against the Philistines for my two eyes!”

<sup>30</sup> Samson said, “Let me die with the Philistines!” He pushed hard and the temple collapsed on the rulers and all the people in it. He killed many more people in his death than he had killed during his life.

<sup>31</sup> His brothers and all his family went down and brought him back. They buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of Manoah his father. He had led Israel for twenty years.

<sup>2</sup> He said to his mother, “You know the eleven hundred pieces of silver which were stolen from you, about which I heard you pronounce a curse? Look here, I have the silver. I stole it, but now I am giving it back to you.” His mother said, “May the LORD reward you, my son!”

<sup>3</sup> When he gave back to his mother the eleven hundred pieces of silver, his mother said, “I solemnly dedicate this silver to the LORD. It will be for my son’s benefit. We will use it to make a carved image and a metal image.”

<sup>4</sup> When he gave the silver back to his mother, she took two hundred pieces of silver to a silversmith, who made them into a carved image and a metal image. She then put them in Micah’s house.

<sup>6</sup> In those days Israel had no king. Each man did what he considered to be right.

Micah Hires a Professional

<sup>7</sup> There was a young man from Bethlehem in Judah. He was a Levite who had been temporarily residing among the tribe of Judah.

<sup>8</sup> This man left the town of Bethlehem in Judah to find another place to live. He came to the Ephraimite hill country and made his way to Micah’s house.

<sup>9</sup> Micah said to him, “Where do you come from?” He replied, “I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah. I am looking for a new place to live.”

<sup>10</sup> Micah said to him, “Stay with me. Become my adviser and priest. I will give you ten pieces of silver per year, plus clothes and food.”

<sup>11</sup> So the Levite agreed to stay with the man; the young man was like a son to Micah.

<sup>13</sup> Micah said, “Now I know God will make me rich, because I have this Levite as my priest.”

18

<sup>1</sup> In those days Israel had no king. And in those days the Danite tribe was looking for a place to settle, because at that time they did not yet have a place to call their own among the tribes of Israel.

<sup>2</sup> The Danites sent out from their whole tribe five representatives, capable men from Zorah and Eshtaol, to spy out the land and explore it. They said to them, “Go, explore the land.” They came to the Ephraimite hill country and spent the night at Micah’s house.

<sup>3</sup> As they approached Micah’s house, they recognized the accent of the young Levite. So they stopped there and said to him, “Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What is your business here?”

<sup>4</sup> He told them what Micah had done for him, saying, “He hired me and I became his priest.”

<sup>5</sup> They said to him, “Seek a divine oracle for us, so we can know if we will be successful on our mission.”

<sup>6</sup> The priest said to them, “Go with confidence. The LORD will be with you on your mission.”

<sup>7</sup> So the five men journeyed on and arrived in Laish. They noticed that the people there were living securely, like the Sidonians do, undisturbed and unsuspecting. No conqueror was troubling them in any way. They lived far from the Sidonians and had no dealings with anyone.

<sup>8</sup> When the Danites returned to their tribe in Zorah and Eshtaol, their kinsmen asked them, “How did it go?”

<sup>9</sup> They said, “Come on, let’s attack them, for we saw their land and it is very good. You seem lethargic, but don’t hesitate to invade and conquer the land.

<sup>10</sup> When you invade, you will encounter unsuspecting people. The land is wide! God is handing it over to you – a place that lacks nothing on earth!”

<sup>13</sup> From there they traveled through the Ephraimite hill country and arrived at Micah's house.

<sup>14</sup> The five men who had gone to spy out the land of Laish said to their kinsmen, "Do you realize that inside these houses are an ephod, some personal idols, a carved image, and a metal image? Decide now what you want to do."

<sup>15</sup> They stopped there, went inside the young Levite's house (which belonged to Micah), and asked him how he was doing.

<sup>17</sup> The five men who had gone to spy out the land broke in and stole the carved image, the ephod, the personal idols, and the metal image, while the priest was standing at the entrance to the gate with the six hundred fully armed men.

<sup>18</sup> When these men broke into Micah's house and stole the carved image, the ephod, the personal idols, and the metal image, the priest said to them, "What are you doing?"

<sup>19</sup> They said to him, "Shut up! Put your hand over your mouth and come with us! You can be our adviser and priest. Wouldn't it be better to be a priest for a whole Israelite tribe than for just one man's family?"

<sup>20</sup> The priest was happy. He took the ephod, the personal idols, and the carved image and joined the group.

<sup>21</sup> They turned and went on their way, but they walked behind the children, the cattle, and their possessions.

<sup>23</sup> When they called out to the Danites, the Danites turned around and said to Micah, "Why have you gathered together?"

<sup>24</sup> He said, "You stole my gods that I made, as well as this priest, and then went away. What do I have left? How can you have the audacity to say to me, 'What do you want?' "

<sup>25</sup> The Danites said to him, "Don't say another word to us, or some very angry men will attack you, and you and your family will die."

<sup>26</sup> The Danites went on their way; when Micah realized they were too strong to resist, he turned around and went home.

<sup>27</sup> Now the Danites took what Micah had made, as well as his priest, and came to Laish, where the people were undisturbed and unsuspecting. They struck them down with the sword and burned the city.

<sup>28</sup> No one came to the rescue because the city was far from Sidon and they had no dealings with anyone. The city was in a valley near Beth Rehob. The Danites rebuilt the city and occupied it.

19

<sup>1</sup> In those days Israel had no king. There was a Levite living temporarily in the remote region of the Ephraimite hill country. He acquired a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah.

<sup>2</sup> However, she got angry at him and went home to her father's house in Bethlehem in Judah. When she had been there four months, <sup>3</sup> her husband came after her, hoping he could convince her to return. He brought with him his servant and a pair of donkeys. When she brought him into her father's house and the girl's father saw him, he greeted him warmly.

<sup>4</sup> His father-in-law, the girl's father, persuaded him to stay with him for three days, and they ate and drank together, and spent the night there.

<sup>5</sup> On the fourth day they woke up early and the Levite got ready to leave. But the girl's father said to his son-in-law, "Have a bite to eat for some energy, then you can go."

<sup>6</sup> So the two of them sat down and had a meal together. Then the girl's father said to the man, "Why not stay another night and have a good time!"

<sup>7</sup> When the man got ready to leave, his father-in-law convinced him to stay another night.

<sup>8</sup> He woke up early in the morning on the fifth day so he could leave, but the girl's father said, "Get some energy. Wait until later in the day to leave!" So they ate a meal together.

<sup>9</sup> When the man got ready to leave with his concubine and his servant, his father-in-law, the girl's father, said to him, "Look! The day is almost over! Stay another night! Since the day is over, stay another night here and have a good time. You can get up early tomorrow and start your trip home."

<sup>11</sup> When they got near Jebus, it was getting quite late and the servant said to his master, "Come on, let's stop at this Jebusite city and spend the night in it."

<sup>12</sup> But his master said to him, "We should not stop at a foreign city where non-Israelites live. We will travel on to Gibeah."

<sup>13</sup> He said to his servant, "Come on, we will go into one of the other towns and spend the night in Gibeah or Ramah."

<sup>14</sup> So they traveled on, and the sun went down when they were near Gibeah in the territory of Benjamin.

<sup>15</sup> They stopped there and decided to spend the night in Gibeah. They came into the city and sat down in the town square, but no one invited them to spend the night.

<sup>16</sup> But then an old man passed by, returning at the end of the day from his work in the field. The man was from the Ephraimite hill country; he was living temporarily in Gibeah. (The residents of the town were Benjaminites.)

<sup>17</sup> When he looked up and saw the traveler in the town square, the old man said, "Where are you heading? Where do you come from?"

<sup>18</sup> The Levite said to him, "We are traveling from Bethlehem in Judah to the remote region of the Ephraimite hill country. That's where I'm from. I had business in Bethlehem in Judah, but now I'm heading home. But no one has invited me into their home.

<sup>19</sup> We have enough straw and grain for our donkeys, and there is enough food and wine for me, your female servant, and the young man who is with your servants. We lack nothing."

<sup>20</sup> The old man said, "Everything is just fine! I will take care of all your needs. But don't spend the night in the town square."

<sup>21</sup> So he brought him to his house and fed the donkeys. They washed their feet and had a meal.

<sup>22</sup> They were having a good time, when suddenly some men of the city, some good-for-nothings, surrounded the house and kept beating on the door. They said to the old man who owned the house, "Send out the man who came to visit you so we can have sex with him."

<sup>23</sup> The man who owned the house went outside and said to them, "No, my brothers! Don't do this wicked thing! After all, this man is a guest in my house. Don't do such a disgraceful thing!"

<sup>24</sup> Here are my virgin daughter and my guest's concubine. I will send them out and you can abuse them and do to them whatever you like. But don't do such a disgraceful thing to this man!"

<sup>26</sup> The woman arrived back at daybreak and was sprawled out on the doorstep of the house where her master was staying until it became light.

<sup>27</sup> When her master got up in the morning, opened the doors of the house, and went outside to start on his journey, there was the woman, his concubine, sprawled out on the doorstep of the house with her hands on the threshold.

<sup>28</sup> He said to her, "Get up, let's leave!" But there was no response. He put her on the donkey and went home.

<sup>29</sup> When he got home, he took a knife, grabbed his concubine, and carved her up into twelve pieces. Then he sent the pieces throughout Israel.

<sup>30</sup> Everyone who saw the sight said, "Nothing like this has happened or been witnessed during the entire time since the Israelites left the land of Egypt! Take careful note of it! Discuss it and speak!"

20

<sup>2</sup> The leaders of all the people from all the tribes of Israel took their places in the assembly of God's people, which numbered four hundred thousand sword-wielding foot soldiers.

<sup>3</sup> The Benjaminites heard that the Israelites had gone up to Mizpah. Then the Israelites said, "Explain how this wicked thing happened!"

<sup>4</sup> The Levite, the husband of the murdered woman, spoke up, "I and my concubine stopped in Gibeah in the territory of Benjamin to spend the night.

<sup>5</sup> The leaders of Gibeah attacked me and at night surrounded the house where I was staying. They wanted to kill me; instead they abused my concubine so badly that she died.

<sup>6</sup> I grabbed hold of my concubine and carved her up and sent the pieces throughout the territory occupied by Israel, because they committed such an unthinkable atrocity in Israel.

<sup>8</sup> All Israel rose up in unison and said, "Not one of us will go home! Not one of us will return to his house!"

<sup>9</sup> Now this is what we will do to Gibeah: We will attack the city as the lot dictates.

<sup>10</sup> We will take ten of every group of a hundred men from all the tribes of Israel (and a hundred of every group of a thousand, and a thousand of every group of ten thousand) to get supplies for the army. When they arrive in Gibeah of Benjamin they will punish them for the atrocity which they committed in Israel."

<sup>12</sup> The tribes of Israel sent men throughout the tribe of Benjamin, saying, "How could such a wicked thing take place?"

<sup>13</sup> Now, hand over the good-for-nothings in Gibeah so we can execute them and purge Israel of wickedness.” But the Benjaminites refused to listen to their Israelite brothers.

<sup>16</sup> Among this army were seven hundred specially-trained left-handed soldiers. Each one could sling a stone and hit even the smallest target.

<sup>17</sup> The men of Israel (not counting Benjamin) had mustered four hundred thousand sword-wielding soldiers, every one an experienced warrior.

<sup>18</sup> The Israelites went up to Bethel and asked God, “Who should lead the charge against the Benjaminites?” The LORD said, “Judah should lead.”

<sup>23</sup> The Israelites went up and wept before the LORD until evening. They asked the LORD, “Should we again march out to fight the Benjaminites, our brothers?” The LORD said, “Attack them!”

<sup>26</sup> So all the Israelites, the whole army, went up to Bethel. They wept and sat there before the LORD; they did not eat anything that day until evening. They offered up burnt sacrifices and tokens of peace to the LORD.

<sup>27</sup> The Israelites asked the LORD (for the ark of God’s covenant was there in those days;

<sup>28</sup> Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron, was serving the LORD in those| strong="H1992" days), “Should we once more march out to fight the Benjaminites our brothers, or should we quit?” The LORD said, “Attack, for tomorrow I will hand them over to you.”

<sup>31</sup> The Benjaminites attacked the army, leaving the city unguarded. They began to strike down their enemy just as they had done before. On the main roads (one leads to Bethel, the other to Gibeah) and in the field, they struck down about thirty Israelites.

<sup>32</sup> Then the Benjaminites said, “They are defeated just as before.” But the Israelites said, “Let’s retreat and lure them away from the city into the main roads.”

<sup>34</sup> Ten thousand men, well-trained soldiers from all Israel, then made a frontal assault against Gibeah – the battle was fierce. But the Benjaminites did not realize that disaster was at their doorstep.

<sup>36</sup> Then the Benjaminites saw they were defeated.

The Israelites retreated before Benjamin, because they had confidence in the men they had hid in ambush outside Gibeah.

<sup>37</sup> The men hiding in ambush made a mad dash to Gibeah. They attacked and put the sword to the entire city.

<sup>38</sup> The Israelites and the men hiding in ambush had arranged a signal. When the men hiding in ambush sent up a smoke signal from the city,

<sup>39</sup> the Israelites counterattacked. Benjamin had begun to strike down the Israelites; they struck down about thirty men. They said, "There's no doubt about it! They are totally defeated as in the earlier battle."

<sup>40</sup> But when the signal, a pillar of smoke, began to rise up from the city, the Benjaminites turned around and saw the whole city going up in a cloud of smoke that rose high into the sky.

<sup>41</sup> When the Israelites turned around, the Benjaminites panicked because they could see that disaster was on their doorstep.

<sup>46</sup> That day twenty-five thousand sword-wielding Benjaminites fell in battle, all of them capable warriors.

<sup>47</sup> Six hundred survivors turned and ran away to the wilderness, to the cliff of Rimmon. They stayed there four months.

<sup>48</sup> The Israelites returned to the Benjaminite towns and put the sword to them. They wiped out the cities, the animals, and everything they could find. They set fire to every city in their path.

21

<sup>2</sup> So the people came to Bethel and sat there before God until evening, weeping loudly and uncontrollably.

<sup>3</sup> They said, "Why, O LORD God of Israel, has this happened in Israel?" An entire tribe has disappeared from Israel today!"

<sup>4</sup> The next morning the people got up early and built an altar there. They offered up burnt sacrifices and tokens of peace.

<sup>5</sup> The Israelites asked, "Who from all the Israelite tribes has not assembled before the LORD?" They had made a solemn oath that whoever did not assemble before the LORD at Mizpah must certainly be executed.

<sup>7</sup> How can we find wives for those who are left? After all, we took an oath in the LORD's name not to give them our daughters as wives."

<sup>8</sup> So they asked, "Who from all the Israelite tribes did not assemble before the LORD at Mizpah?" Now it just so happened no one from Jabesh Gilead had come to the gathering.

<sup>9</sup> When they took roll call, they noticed none of the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead were there.

<sup>10</sup> So the assembly sent 12,000 capable warriors against Jabesh Gilead. They commanded them, "Go and kill with your swords the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead, including the women and little children.

<sup>11</sup> Do this: exterminate every male, as well as every woman who has had sexual relations with a male. But spare the lives of any virgins." So they did as instructed.

<sup>12</sup> They found among the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead four hundred young girls who were virgins – they had never had sexual relations with a male. They brought them back to the camp at Shiloh in the land of Canaan.

<sup>13</sup> The entire assembly sent messengers to the Benjaminites at the cliff of Rimmon and assured them they would not be harmed.

<sup>14</sup> The Benjaminites returned at that time, and the Israelites gave to them the women they had spared from Jabesh Gilead. But there were not enough to go around.

<sup>16</sup> The leaders of the assembly said, "How can we find wives for those who are left? After all, the Benjaminite women have been wiped out.

<sup>17</sup> The remnant of Benjamin must be preserved. An entire Israelite tribe should not be wiped out.

<sup>18</sup> But we can't allow our daughters to marry them, for the Israelites took an oath, saying, 'Whoever gives a woman to a Benjaminite will be destroyed!'

<sup>19</sup> However, there is an annual festival to the LORD in Shiloh, which is north of Bethel (east of the main road that goes up from Bethel to Shechem) and south of Lebonah."

<sup>20</sup> So they commanded the Benjaminites, "Go hide in the vineyards,

<sup>21</sup> and keep your eyes open. When you see the daughters of Shiloh coming out to dance in the celebration, jump out from the vineyards. Each one of you, catch yourself a wife from among the daughters of Shiloh and then go home to the land of Benjamin.

<sup>22</sup> When their fathers or brothers come and protest to us, we'll say to them, "Do us a favor and let them be, for we could not get each one a wife through battle. Don't worry about breaking your oath! You would only be guilty if you had voluntarily given them wives.' "

<sup>23</sup> The Benjaminites did as instructed. They abducted two hundred of the dancing girls to be their wives. They went home to their own territory, rebuilt their cities, and settled down.

<sup>24</sup> Then the Israelites dispersed from there to their respective tribal and clan territories. Each went from there to his own property.

<sup>25</sup> In those days Israel had no king. Each man did what he considered to be right.

Ruth

A Family Tragedy: Famine and Death

<sup>1</sup> During the time of the judges there was a famine in the land of Judah. So a man from Bethlehem in Judah went to live as a resident foreigner in the region of Moab, along with his wife and two sons.

<sup>2</sup> (Now the man's name was Elimelech, his wife was Naomi, and his two sons were Mahlon and Kilion. They were of the clan of Ephrath from Bethlehem in Judah.) They entered the region of Moab and settled there.

<sup>4</sup> So her sons married Moabite women. (One was named Orpah and the other Ruth.) And they continued to live there about ten years.

<sup>5</sup> Then Naomi's two sons, Mahlon and Kilion, also died. So the woman was left all alone – bereaved of her two children as well as her husband!

<sup>6</sup> So she decided to return home from the region of Moab, accompanied by her daughters-in-law, because while she was living in Moab she had heard that the LORD | strong="H3069" had shown concern for his people, reversing the famine by providing abundant crops.

Ruth Returns with Naomi

<sup>7</sup> Now as she and her two daughters-in-law began to leave the place where she had been living to return to the land of Judah,

<sup>8</sup> Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Listen to me! Each of you should return to your mother's home! May the LORD show you the same kind of devotion that you have shown to your deceased husbands and to me!

<sup>9</sup> May the LORD enable each of you to find security in the home of a new husband!" Then she kissed them goodbye and they wept loudly.

<sup>10</sup> But they said to her, "No! We will return with you to your people."

<sup>11</sup> But Naomi replied, "Go back home, my daughters! There is no reason for you to return to Judah with me! I am no longer capable of giving birth to sons who might become your husbands!

<sup>12</sup> Go back home, my daughters! For I am too old to get married again. Even if I thought that there was hope that I could get married tonight and conceive sons,

<sup>13</sup> surely you would not want to wait until they were old enough to marry! Surely you would not remain unmarried all that time! No, my daughters, you must not return with me. For my intense suffering is too much for you to bear. For the LORD is afflicting me!"

<sup>14</sup> Again they wept loudly. Then Orpah kissed her mother-in-law goodbye, but Ruth clung tightly to her.

<sup>15</sup> So Naomi said, "Look, your sister-in-law is returning to her people and to her god. Follow your sister-in-law back home!"

"Stop urging me to abandon you!
For wherever you go, I will go.
Wherever you live, I will live.
Your people will become my people, and your God will become my God.

<sup>17</sup> Wherever you die, I will die – and there I will be buried.
May the LORD punish me severely if I do not keep my promise!
Only death will be able to separate me from you!"

<sup>19</sup> So the two of them journeyed together until they arrived in Bethlehem.

Naomi and Ruth Arrive in Bethlehem

When they entered Bethlehem, the whole village was excited about their arrival. The women of the village said, “Can this be Naomi?”

<sup>20</sup> But she replied to them, “Don’t call me ‘Naomi’! Call me ‘Mara’ because the Sovereign One has treated me very harshly.

<sup>21</sup> I left here full, but the LORD has caused me to return empty-handed. Why do you call me ‘Naomi,’ seeing that the LORD has opposed me, and the Sovereign One has caused me to suffer?”

<sup>1</sup> Now Naomi had a relative on her husband’s side of the family named Boaz. He was a wealthy, prominent man from the clan of Elimelech.

<sup>2</sup> One day Ruth the Moabite said to Naomi, “Let me go to the fields so I can gather grain behind whoever permits me to do so.” Naomi replied, “You may go, my daughter.”

<sup>3</sup> So Ruth went and gathered grain in the fields behind the harvesters. Now she just happened to end up in the portion of the field belonging to Boaz, who was from the clan of Elimelech.

Boaz and Ruth Meet

<sup>4</sup> Now at that very moment, Boaz arrived from Bethlehem and greeted the harvesters, “May the LORD be with you!” They replied, “May the LORD bless you!”

<sup>5</sup> Boaz asked his servant in charge of the harvesters, “To whom does this young woman belong?”

<sup>6</sup> The servant in charge of the harvesters replied, “She’s the young Moabite woman who came back with Naomi from the region of Moab.

<sup>7</sup> She asked, ‘May I follow the harvesters and gather grain among the bundles?’ Since she arrived she has been working hard from this morning until now – except for sitting in the resting hut a short time.”

<sup>8</sup> So Boaz said to Ruth, “Listen carefully, my dear! Do not leave to gather grain in another field. You need not go beyond the limits of this field. You may go along beside my female workers.

<sup>9</sup> Take note of the field where the men are harvesting and follow behind with the female workers. I will tell the men to leave you alone. When you are thirsty, you may go to the water jars and drink some of the water the servants draw.”

<sup>10</sup> Ruth knelt before him with her forehead to the ground and said to him, “Why are you so kind and so attentive to me, even though I am a foreigner?”

<sup>11</sup> Boaz replied to her, “I have been given a full report of all that you have done for your mother-in-law following the death of your husband – how you left your father and your mother, as well as your homeland, and came to live among people you did not know previously.

<sup>12</sup> May the LORD reward your efforts! May your acts of kindness be repaid fully by the LORD God of Israel, from whom you have sought protection!”

<sup>13</sup> She said, “You really are being kind to me, sir, for you have reassured and encouraged me, your servant, even though I am not one of your servants!”

<sup>14</sup> Later during the mealtime Boaz said to her, “Come here and have some food! Dip your bread in the vinegar!” So she sat down beside the harvesters. Then he handed her some roasted grain. She ate until she was full and saved the rest.

<sup>15</sup> When she got up to gather grain, Boaz told his male servants, “Let her gather grain even among the bundles! Don’t chase her off!

<sup>16</sup> Make sure you pull out ears of grain for her and drop them so she can gather them up. Don’t tell her not to!”

<sup>17</sup> So she gathered grain in the field until evening. When she threshed what she had gathered, it came to about thirty pounds of barley!

Ruth Returns to Naomi

<sup>18</sup> She carried it back to town, and her mother-in-law saw how much grain she had gathered. Then Ruth gave her the roasted grain she had saved from mealtime.

<sup>19</sup> Her mother-in-law asked her, “Where did you gather grain today? Where did you work? May the one who took notice of you be rewarded!” So Ruth told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked. She said, “The name of the man with whom I worked today is Boaz.”

<sup>20</sup> Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, “May he be rewarded by the LORD because he has shown loyalty to the living on behalf of the dead!” Then Naomi said to her, “This man is a close relative of ours; he is our guardian.”

<sup>21</sup> Ruth the Moabite replied, “He even told me, ‘You may go along beside my servants until they have finished gathering all my harvest!’ ”

<sup>22</sup> Naomi then said to her daughter-in-law Ruth, “It is good, my daughter, that you should go out to work with his female servants. That way you will not be harmed, which could happen in another field.”

<sup>23</sup> So Ruth worked beside Boaz’s female servants, gathering grain until the end of the barley harvest as well as the wheat harvest. After that she stayed home with her mother-in-law.

3

<sup>1</sup> At that time, Naomi, her mother-in-law, said to her, “My daughter, I must find a home for you so you will be secure.

<sup>3</sup> So bathe yourself, rub on some perfumed oil, and get dressed up. Then go down to the threshing floor. But don’t let the man know you’re there until he finishes his meal.

<sup>4</sup> When he gets ready to go to sleep, take careful notice of the place where he lies down. Then go, uncover his legs, and lie down beside him. He will tell you what you should do.”

<sup>5</sup> Ruth replied to Naomi, “I will do everything you have told me to do.”

Ruth Visits Boaz

<sup>6</sup> So she went down to the threshing floor and did everything her mother-in-law had instructed her to do.

<sup>7</sup> When Boaz had finished his meal and was feeling satisfied, he lay down to sleep at the far end of the grain heap. Then Ruth crept up quietly, uncovered his legs, and lay down beside him.

<sup>8</sup> In the middle of the night he was startled and turned over. Now he saw a woman lying beside him!

<sup>9</sup> He said, “Who are you?” She replied, “I am Ruth, your servant. Marry your servant, for you are a guardian of the family interests.”

<sup>10</sup> He said, “May you be rewarded by the LORD | strong="H3069", my dear! This act of devotion is greater than what you did before. For you have not sought to marry one of the young men, whether rich or poor.

<sup>11</sup> Now, my dear, don't worry! I intend to do for you everything you propose, for everyone in the village knows that you are a worthy woman.

<sup>12</sup> Now yes, it is true that I am a guardian, but there is another guardian who is a closer relative than I am.

<sup>13</sup> Remain here tonight. Then in the morning, if he agrees to marry you, fine, let him do so. But if he does not want to do so, I promise, as surely as the LORD lives, to marry you. Sleep here until morning.”

<sup>14</sup> So she slept beside him until morning. She woke up while it was still dark. Boaz thought, “No one must know that a woman visited the threshing floor.”

<sup>15</sup> Then he said, “Hold out the shawl you are wearing and grip it tightly.” As she held it tightly, he measured out about sixty pounds of barley into the shawl and put it on her shoulders. Then he went into town, <sup>16</sup> and she returned to her mother-in-law.

Ruth Returns to Naomi

When Ruth returned to her mother-in-law, Naomi asked, “How did things turn out for you, my daughter?” Ruth told her about all the man had done for her.

<sup>17</sup> She said, “He gave me these sixty pounds of barley, for he said to me, ‘Do not go to your mother-in-law empty-handed.’ ”

<sup>18</sup> Then Naomi said, “Stay put, my daughter, until you know how the matter turns out. For the man will not rest until he has taken care of the matter today.”

4

<sup>1</sup> Now Boaz went up to the village gate and sat there. Then along came the guardian whom Boaz had mentioned to Ruth! Boaz said, “Come here and sit down, ‘John Doe!’” So he came and sat down.

<sup>2</sup> Boaz chose ten of the village leaders and said, “Sit down here!” So they sat down.

<sup>3</sup> Then Boaz said to the guardian, “Naomi, who has returned from the region of Moab, is selling the portion of land that belongs to our relative Elimelech.

<sup>4</sup> So I am legally informing you: Acquire it before those sitting here and before the leaders of my people! If you want to exercise your right to redeem it, then do so. But if not, then tell me so I will know. For you possess the first option to redeem it; I am next in line after you.” He replied, “I will redeem it.”

<sup>5</sup> Then Boaz said, “When you acquire the field from Naomi, you must also acquire Ruth the Moabite, the wife of our deceased relative, in order to preserve his family name by raising up a descendant who will inherit his property.”

<sup>6</sup> The guardian said, “Then I am unable to redeem it, for I would ruin my own inheritance in that case. You may exercise my redemption option, for I am unable to redeem it.”

<sup>7</sup> (Now this used to be the customary way to finalize a transaction involving redemption in Israel: A man would remove his sandal and give it to the other party. This was a legally binding act in Israel.)

<sup>8</sup> So the guardian said to Boaz, “You may acquire it,” and he removed his sandal.

<sup>9</sup> Then Boaz said to the leaders and all the people, “You are witnesses today that I have acquired from Naomi all that belonged to Elimelech, Kilion, and Mahlon.

<sup>10</sup> I have also acquired Ruth the Moabite, the wife of Mahlon, as my wife to raise up a descendant who will inherit his property so the name of the deceased might not disappear from among his relatives and from his village. You are witnesses today.”

<sup>11</sup> All the people who were at the gate and the elders replied, “We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman who is entering your home like Rachel and Leah, both of whom built up the house of Israel! May you prosper in Ephrathah and become famous in Bethlehem.

<sup>12</sup> May your family become like the family of Perez – whom Tamar bore to Judah – through the descendants the LORD gives you by this young woman.”

A Grandson is Born to Naomi

<sup>13</sup> So Boaz married Ruth and had sexual relations with her. The LORD enabled her to conceive and she gave birth to a son.

<sup>14</sup> The village women said to Naomi, “May the LORD be praised because he has not left you without a guardian today! May he become famous in Israel!

<sup>15</sup> He will encourage you and provide for you when you are old, for your daughter-in-law, who loves you, has given him birth. She is better to you than seven sons!”

<sup>17</sup> The neighbor women named him, saying, “A son has been born to Naomi.” They named him Obed. Now he became the father of Jesse – David’s father!

Epilogue: Obed in the Genealogy of David

<sup>19</sup> Hezron was the father of Ram, Ram was the father of Amminadab,

<sup>20</sup> Amminadab was the father of Nachshon, Nachshon was the father of Salmah,

<sup>21</sup> Salmon was the father of Boaz, Boaz was the father of Obed, <sup>22</sup> Obed was the father of Jesse, and Jesse was the father of David.

1 Samuel

Hannah Gives Birth to Samuel

<sup>1</sup> There was a man from Ramathaim Zophim, from the hill country of Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah. He was the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.

<sup>2</sup> He had two wives; the name of the first was Hannah and the name of the second was Peninnah. Now Peninnah had children, but Hannah was childless.

<sup>3</sup> Year after year this man would go up from his city to worship and to sacrifice to the LORD of hosts at Shiloh. It was there that the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phineas, served as the LORD's priests.

<sup>4</sup> Whenever the day came for Elkanah to sacrifice, he used to give meat portions to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters.

<sup>5</sup> But he would give a double portion to Hannah, because he especially loved her. Now the LORD had not enabled her to have children.

<sup>7</sup> Peninnah would behave this way year after year. Whenever Hannah went up to the LORD's house, Peninnah would upset her so that she would weep and refuse to eat.

<sup>8</sup> Finally her husband Elkanah said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep and not eat? Why are you so sad? Am I not better to you than ten sons?"

<sup>10</sup> She was very upset as she prayed to the LORD, and she was weeping uncontrollably.

<sup>11</sup> She made a vow saying, "O LORD of hosts, if you will look with compassion on the suffering of your female servant, remembering me and not forgetting your servant, and give a male child to your servant, then I will dedicate him to the LORD all the days of his life. His hair will never be cut."

<sup>13</sup> Now Hannah was speaking from her heart. Although her lips were moving, her voice was inaudible. Eli therefore thought she was drunk.

<sup>14</sup> So he said to her, "How often do you intend to get drunk? Put away your wine!"

<sup>15</sup> But Hannah replied, "That's not the way it is, my lord! I am under a great deal of stress. I have drunk neither wine nor beer. Rather, I have poured out my soul to the LORD.

<sup>16</sup> Don't consider your servant a wicked woman, for until now I have spoken from my deep pain and anguish."

<sup>17</sup> Eli replied, "Go in peace, and may the God of Israel grant the request that you have asked of him."

<sup>18</sup> She said, "May I, your servant, find favor in your sight." So the woman went her way and got something to eat. Her face no longer looked sad.

<sup>19</sup> They got up early the next morning and after worshiping the LORD, they returned to their home at Ramah. Elkanah had marital relations with his wife Hannah, and the LORD remembered her.

<sup>20</sup> After some time Hannah became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She named him Samuel, thinking, "I asked the LORD for him."

Hannah Dedicates Samuel to the Lord

<sup>21</sup> This man Elkanah went up with all his family to make the yearly sacrifice to the LORD and to keep his vow,

<sup>22</sup> but Hannah did not go up with them. Instead she told her husband, "Once the boy is weaned, I will bring him and appear before the LORD, and he will remain there from then on."

<sup>23</sup> So her husband Elkanah said to her, "Do what you think best. Stay until you have weaned him. May the LORD fulfill his promise."

So the woman stayed and nursed her son until she had weaned him.

<sup>24</sup> Once she had weaned him, she took him up with her, along with three bulls, an ephah of flour, and a container of wine. She brought him to the LORD's house at Shiloh, even though he was young.

<sup>26</sup> She said, "Just as surely as you are alive, my lord, I am the woman who previously stood here with you in order to pray to the LORD.

<sup>27</sup> I prayed for this boy, and the LORD has given me the request that I asked of him.

<sup>28</sup> Now I dedicate him to the LORD. From this time on he is dedicated to the LORD." Then they worshiped the LORD there.

<sup>1</sup> Hannah prayed,

"My heart rejoices in the LORD;
my horn is exalted high because of the LORD.
I loudly denounce my enemies,
for I am happy that you delivered me.

<sup>2</sup> No one is holy like the LORD!
There is no one other than you!

There is no rock like our God!
<sup>3</sup> Don't keep speaking so arrogantly, letting proud talk come out of your mouth!
For the LORD is a God who knows;
he evaluates what people do.

<sup>4</sup> The bows of warriors are shattered, but those who stumble find their strength reinforced.

<sup>5</sup> Those who are well-fed hire themselves out to earn food, but the hungry no longer lack.

Even the barren woman gives birth to seven,
but the one with many children withers away.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD both kills and gives life;
he brings down to the grave and raises up.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD impoverishes and makes wealthy;
he humbles and he exalts.

<sup>8</sup> He lifts the weak from the dust;
he raises the poor from the ash heap to seat them with princes and to bestow on them an honored position.

The foundations of the earth belong to the LORD, and he has placed the world on them.

<sup>9</sup> He watches over his holy ones, but the wicked are made speechless in the darkness, for it is not by one's own strength that one prevails.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD shatters his adversaries;

he thunders against them from the heavens.
The LORD executes judgment to the ends of the earth.
He will strengthen his king and exalt the power of his anointed one.”

<sup>11</sup> Then Elkanah went back home to Ramah. But the boy was serving the LORD under the supervision of Eli the priest.

Eli's Sons Misuse Their Sacred Office

<sup>12</sup> The sons of Eli were wicked men. They did not recognize the LORD's authority.

<sup>13</sup> Now the priests would always treat the people in the following way: Whenever anyone was making a sacrifice, while the meat was boiling, the priest's attendant would come with a three-pronged fork in his hand.

<sup>14</sup> He would jab it into the basin, kettle, caldron, or pot, and everything that the fork brought up the priest would take for himself. This is what they used to do to all the Israelites when they came there to Shiloh.

<sup>15</sup> Even before they burned the fat, the priest's attendant would come and say to the person who was making the sacrifice, “Hand over some meat for the priest to roast! He won't take boiled meat from you, but only raw.”

<sup>16</sup> If the individual said to him, “First let the fat be burned away, and then take for yourself whatever you wish,” he would say, “No! Hand it over right now! If you don't, I will take it forcibly!”

<sup>17</sup> The sin of these young men was very great in the LORD's sight, for they treated the LORD's offering with contempt.

<sup>18</sup> Now Samuel was ministering before the LORD. The boy was dressed in a linen ephod.

<sup>19</sup> His mother used to make him a small robe and bring it up to him at regular intervals when she would go up with her husband to make the annual sacrifice.

<sup>20</sup> Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife saying, “May the LORD raise up for you descendants from this woman to replace the one that she dedicated to the LORD.” Then they would go to their home.

<sup>21</sup> So the LORD graciously attended to Hannah, and she was able to conceive and gave birth to three sons and two daughters. The boy Samuel grew up at the LORD's sanctuary.

<sup>22</sup> Now Eli was very old when he heard about everything that his sons used to do to all the people of Israel and how they used to have sex with the women who were stationed at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

<sup>23</sup> He said to them, “Why do you behave in this way? For I hear about these evil things from all these people.

<sup>24</sup> This ought not to be, my sons! For the report that I hear circulating among the LORD's people is not good.

<sup>25</sup> If a man sins against a man, one may appeal to God on his behalf. But if a man sins against the LORD, who then will intercede for him?” But Eli's sons would not listen to their father, for the LORD had decided to kill them.

<sup>26</sup> Now the boy Samuel was growing up and finding favor both with the LORD and with people.

The Lord Judges the House of Eli

<sup>27</sup> A man of God came to Eli and said to him, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Did I not plainly reveal myself to your ancestor's house when they were in Egypt in the house of Pharaoh?’

<sup>28</sup> I chose your ancestor from all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to offer sacrifice on my altar, to burn incense, and to bear the ephod before me. I gave to your ancestor's house all the fire offerings made by the Israelites.

<sup>29</sup> Why are you scorning my sacrifice and my offering that I commanded for my dwelling place? You have honored your sons more than you have me by having made yourselves fat from the best parts of all the offerings of my people Israel.'

<sup>30</sup> Therefore the LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'I really did say that your house and your ancestor's house would serve me forever.' But now the LORD says, 'May it never be! For I will honor those who honor me, but those who despise me will be cursed!

<sup>31</sup> In fact, days are coming when I will remove your strength and the strength of your father's house. There will not be an old man in your house!

<sup>32</sup> You will see trouble in my dwelling place! Israel will experience blessings, but there will not be an old man in your house for all time.

<sup>33</sup> Any one of you that I do not cut off from my altar, I will cause your eyes to fail and will cause you grief. All of those born to your family will die in the prime of life.

<sup>34</sup> This will be a confirming sign for you that will be fulfilled through your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas: in a single day they both will die!

<sup>35</sup> Then I will raise up for myself a faithful priest. He will do what is in my heart and soul. I will build for him a secure dynasty and he will serve my chosen one for all time.

<sup>36</sup> Everyone who remains in your house will come to bow before him for a little money and for a scrap of bread. Each will say, 'Assign me to a priestly task so I can eat a scrap of bread.' "

3

<sup>2</sup> Eli's eyes had begun to fail, so that he was unable to see well. At that time he was lying down in his place, <sup>3</sup> and the lamp of God had not yet been extinguished. Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD as well; the ark of God was also there.

<sup>4</sup> The LORD called to Samuel, and he replied, "Here I am!"

<sup>5</sup> Then he ran to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But Eli said, "I didn't call you. Go back and lie down." So he went back and lay down.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD again called, "Samuel!" So Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But Eli said, "I didn't call you, my son. Go back and lie down."

<sup>7</sup> Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD; the word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him.

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD called Samuel a third time. So he got up and went to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me!" Eli then realized that it was the LORD who was calling the boy.

<sup>9</sup> So Eli said to Samuel, "Go back and lie down. When he calls you, say, "Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening." So Samuel went back and lay down in his place.

<sup>10</sup> Then the LORD came and stood nearby, calling as he had previously done, "Samuel! Samuel!" Samuel replied, "Speak, for your servant is listening!"

<sup>11</sup> The LORD said to Samuel, "Look! I am about to do something in Israel; when anyone hears about it, both of his ears will tingle.

<sup>12</sup> On that day I will carry out against Eli everything that I spoke about his house – from start to finish!

<sup>13</sup> You should tell him that I am about to judge his house forever because of the sin that he knew about. For his sons were cursing God, and he did not rebuke them.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore I swore an oath to the house of Eli, 'The sin of the house of Eli can never be forgiven by sacrifice or by grain offering.' "

<sup>15</sup> So Samuel lay down until morning. Then he opened the doors of the LORD's house. But Samuel was afraid to tell Eli about the vision.

<sup>16</sup> However, Eli called Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son!" He replied, "Here I am."

<sup>17</sup> Eli said, "What message did he speak to you? Don't conceal it from me. God will judge you severely if you conceal from me anything that he said to you!"

<sup>18</sup> So Samuel told him everything. He did not hold back anything from him. Eli said, "The LORD will do what he pleases."

<sup>19</sup> Samuel continued to grow, and the LORD was with him. None of his prophecies fell to the ground unfulfilled.

<sup>20</sup> All Israel from Dan to Beer Sheba realized that Samuel was confirmed as a prophet of the LORD.

<sup>21</sup> Then the LORD again appeared in Shiloh, for it was in Shiloh that the LORD had revealed himself to Samuel through the word of the LORD.

The Ark of the Covenant is Lost to the Philistines

Then the Israelites went out to fight the Philistines. They camped at Ebenezer, and the Philistines camped at Aphek.

<sup>2</sup> The Philistines arranged their forces to fight Israel. As the battle spread out, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who killed about four thousand men in the battle line in the field.

<sup>3</sup> When the army came back to the camp, the elders of Israel said, "Why did the LORD let us be defeated today by the Philistines? Let's take with us the ark of the covenant of the LORD from Shiloh. When it is with us, it will save us from the hand of our enemies.

<sup>4</sup> So the army sent to Shiloh, and they took from there the ark of the covenant of the LORD | strong="H3069" of hosts who sits between the cherubim. Now the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phineas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

<sup>5</sup> When the ark of the covenant of the LORD arrived at the camp, all Israel shouted so loudly that the ground shook.

<sup>6</sup> When the Philistines heard the sound of the shout, they said, "What is this loud shout in the camp of the Hebrews?" Then they realized that the ark of the LORD had arrived at the camp.

<sup>7</sup> The Philistines were scared because they thought that gods had come to the camp. They said, "Too bad for us! We've never seen anything like this!

<sup>8</sup> Too bad for us! Who can deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods who struck the Egyptians with all sorts of plagues in the desert!

<sup>9</sup> Be strong and act like men, you Philistines, or else you will wind up serving the Hebrews the way they have served you! Act like men and fight!"

<sup>10</sup> So the Philistines fought. Israel was defeated; they all ran home. The slaughter was very great; thirty thousand foot soldiers fell in battle.

<sup>11</sup> The ark of God was taken, and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phineas, were killed.

Eli Dies

<sup>12</sup> On that day a Benjaminite ran from the battle lines and came to Shiloh. His clothes were torn and dirt was on his head.

<sup>13</sup> When he arrived in Shiloh, Eli was sitting in his chair watching by the side of the road, for he was very worried about the ark of God. As the man entered the city to give his report, the whole city cried out.

<sup>14</sup> When Eli heard the outcry, he said, "What is this commotion?" The man quickly came and told Eli.

<sup>15</sup> Now Eli was ninety-eight years old and his eyes looked straight ahead; he was unable to see.

<sup>16</sup> The man said to Eli, "I am the one who came from the battle lines! Just today I fled from the battle lines!" Eli asked, "How did things go, my son?"

<sup>17</sup> The messenger replied, "Israel has fled from the Philistines! The army has suffered a great defeat! Your two sons, Hophni and Phineas, are dead! The ark of God has been captured!"

<sup>18</sup> When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell backward from his chair beside the gate. He broke his neck and died, for he was old and heavy. He had judged Israel for forty years.

<sup>19</sup> His daughter-in-law, the wife of Phineas, was pregnant and close to giving birth. When she heard that the ark of God was captured and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she doubled over and gave birth. But her labor pains were too much for her.

<sup>20</sup> As she was dying, the women who were there with her said, "Don't be afraid! You have given birth to a son!" But she did not reply or pay any attention.

<sup>21</sup> She named the boy Ichabod, saying, "The glory has departed from Israel," referring to the capture of the ark of God and the deaths of her father-in-law and her husband.

<sup>22</sup> She said, "The glory has departed from Israel, because the ark of God has been captured."

5

<sup>2</sup> The Philistines took the ark of God and brought it into the temple of Dagon, where they positioned it beside Dagon.

<sup>3</sup> When the residents of Ashdod got up early the next day, Dagon was lying on the ground before the ark of the LORD. So they took Dagon and set him back in his place.

<sup>5</sup> (For this reason, to this very day, neither Dagon's priests nor anyone else who enters Dagon's temple step on Dagon's threshold in Ashdod.)

<sup>6</sup> The LORD attacked the residents of Ashdod severely, bringing devastation on them. He struck the people of both Ashdod and the surrounding area with sores.

<sup>7</sup> When the people of Ashdod saw what was happening, they said, "The ark of the God of Israel should not remain with us, for he has attacked both us and our god Dagon!"

<sup>8</sup> So they assembled all the leaders of the Philistines and asked, "What should we do with the ark of the God of Israel?" They replied, "The ark of the God of Israel should be moved to Gath." So they moved the ark of the God of Israel.

<sup>9</sup> But after it had been moved the LORD attacked that city as well, causing a great deal of panic. He struck all the people of that city with sores.

<sup>10</sup> So they sent the ark of God to Ekron.

But when the ark of God arrived at Ekron, the residents of Ekron cried out saying, "They have brought the ark of the God of Israel here to kill our people!"

<sup>11</sup> So they assembled all the leaders of the Philistines and said, "Get the ark of the God of Israel out of here! Let it go back to its own place so that it won't kill us and our people!" The terror of death was throughout the entire city; God was attacking them very severely there.

<sup>12</sup> The people who did not die were struck with sores; the city's cry for help went all the way up to heaven.

<sup>1</sup> When the ark of the LORD had been in the land of the Philistines for seven months,
<sup>2</sup> the Philistines called the priests and the omen readers, saying, "What should we do with the ark of the LORD? Advise us as to how we should send it back to its place."

<sup>3</sup> They replied, "If you are going to send the ark of the God of Israel back, don't send it away empty. Be sure to return it with a guilt offering. Then you will be healed, and you will understand why his hand is not removed from you."

<sup>4</sup> They inquired, "What is the guilt offering that we should send to him?"

They replied, "The Philistine leaders number five. So send five gold sores and five gold mice, for it is the same plague that has afflicted both you and your leaders.

<sup>5</sup> You should make images of the sores and images of the mice that are destroying the land. You should honor the God of Israel. Perhaps he will release his grip on you, your gods, and your land.

<sup>6</sup> Why harden your hearts like the Egyptians and Pharaoh did? When God treated them harshly, didn't the Egyptians send the Israelites on their way?

<sup>7</sup> So now go and make a new cart. Get two cows that have calves and that have never had a yoke placed on them. Harness the cows to the cart and take their calves from them back to their stalls.

<sup>8</sup> Then take the ark of the LORD and place it on the cart, and put in a chest beside it the gold objects you are sending to him as a guilt offering. You should then send it on its way.

<sup>9</sup> But keep an eye on it. If it should go up by the way of its own border to Beth Shemesh, then he has brought this great calamity on us. But if that is not the case, then we will know that it was not his hand that struck us; rather, it just happened to us by accident."

<sup>10</sup> So the men did as instructed. They took two cows that had calves and harnessed them to a cart; they also removed their calves to their stalls.

<sup>11</sup> They put the ark of the LORD on the cart, along with the chest, the gold mice, and the images of the sores.

<sup>13</sup> Now the residents of Beth Shemesh were harvesting wheat in the valley. When they looked up and saw the ark, they were pleased at the sight.

<sup>14</sup> The cart was coming to the field of Joshua, who was from Beth Shemesh. It paused there near a big stone. Then they cut up the wood of the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> The Levites took down the ark of the LORD and the chest that was with it, which contained the gold objects. They placed them near the big stone. At that time the people of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offerings and made sacrifices to the LORD.

<sup>16</sup> The five leaders of the Philistines watched what was happening and then returned to Ekron on the same day.

<sup>18</sup> The gold mice corresponded in number to all the Philistine cities of the five leaders, from the fortified cities to hamlet villages, to greater Abel, where they positioned the ark of the LORD until this very day in the field of Joshua who was from Beth Shemesh.

<sup>19</sup> But the LORD struck down | strong="H5221" some of the people of Beth Shemesh because they had looked into the ark of the LORD; he struck down 50,070 of the men. The people grieved because the LORD had struck the people with a hard blow.

<sup>20</sup> The residents of Beth Shemesh asked, "Who is able to stand before the LORD, this holy God? To whom will the ark go up from here?"

<sup>21</sup> So they sent messengers to the residents of Kiriath Jearim, saying, "The Philistines have returned the ark of the LORD. Come down here and take it back home with you."

7

<sup>1</sup> Then the people of Kiriath Jearim came and took the ark of the LORD; they brought it to the house of Abinadab located on the hill. They consecrated Eleazar his son to guard the ark of the LORD.

Further Conflict with the Philistines

<sup>2</sup> It was quite a long time – some twenty years in all – that the ark stayed at Kiriath Jearim. All the people of Israel longed for the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> Samuel said to all the people of Israel, "If you are really turning to the LORD with all your hearts, remove from among you the foreign gods and the images of Ashtoreth. Give your hearts to the LORD and serve only him. Then he will deliver you from the hand of the Philistines."

<sup>4</sup> So the Israelites removed the Baals and images of Ashtoreth. They served only the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> Then Samuel said, "Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray to the LORD on your behalf."

<sup>6</sup> After they had assembled at Mizpah, they drew water and poured it out before the LORD. They fasted on that day, and they confessed there, "We have sinned against the LORD." So Samuel led the people of Israel at Mizpah.

<sup>7</sup> When the Philistines heard that the Israelites had gathered at Mizpah, the leaders of the Philistines went up against Israel. When the Israelites heard about this, they were afraid of the Philistines.

<sup>8</sup> The Israelites said to Samuel, "Keep crying out to the LORD our God so that he may save us from the hand of the Philistines!"

<sup>9</sup> So Samuel took a nursing lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to the LORD. Samuel cried out to the LORD on Israel's behalf, and the LORD answered him.

<sup>10</sup> As Samuel was offering burnt offerings, the Philistines approached to do battle with Israel. But on that day the LORD thundered loudly against the Philistines. He caused them to panic, and they were defeated by Israel.

<sup>12</sup> Samuel took a stone and placed it between Mizpah and Shen. He named it Ebenezer, saying, "Up to here the LORD has helped us."

<sup>13</sup> So the Philistines were defeated; they did not invade Israel again. The hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

<sup>14</sup> The cities that the Philistines had captured from Israel were returned to Israel, from Ekron to Gath. Israel also delivered their territory from the control of the Philistines. There was also peace between Israel and the Amorites.

<sup>16</sup> Year after year he used to travel the circuit of Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah; he used to judge Israel in all of these places.

<sup>17</sup> Then he would return to Ramah, because his home was there. He also judged Israel there and built an altar to the LORD there.

<sup>3</sup> But his sons did not follow his ways. Instead, they made money dishonestly, accepted bribes, and perverted justice.

<sup>5</sup> They said to him, "Look, you are old, and your sons don't follow your ways. So now appoint over us a king to lead us, just like all the other nations have."

<sup>6</sup> But this request displeased Samuel, for they said, "Give us a king to lead us." So Samuel prayed to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD said to Samuel, "Do everything the people request of you. For it is not you that they have rejected, but it is me that they have rejected as their king.

<sup>8</sup> Just as they have done from the day that I brought them up from Egypt until this very day, they have rejected me and have served other gods. This is what they are also doing to you.

<sup>9</sup> So now do as they say. But seriously warn them and make them aware of the policies of the king who will rule over them."

<sup>10</sup> So Samuel spoke all the words of the LORD to the people who were asking him for a king.

<sup>11</sup> He said, "Here are the policies of the king who will rule over you: He will conscript your sons and put them in his chariot forces and in his cavalry; they will run in front of his chariot.

<sup>12</sup> He will appoint for himself leaders of thousands and leaders of fifties, as well as those who plow his ground, reap his harvest, and make his weapons of war and his chariot equipment.

<sup>13</sup> He will take your daughters to be ointment makers, cooks, and bakers.

<sup>14</sup> He will take your best fields and vineyards and give them to his own servants.

<sup>15</sup> He will demand a tenth of your seed and of the produce of your vineyards and give it to his administrators and his servants.

<sup>16</sup> He will take your male and female servants, as well as your best cattle and your donkeys, and assign them for his own use.

<sup>17</sup> He will demand a tenth of your flocks, and you yourselves will be his servants.

<sup>18</sup> In that day you will cry out because of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves, but the LORD won't answer you in that day."

<sup>19</sup> But the people refused to heed Samuel's warning. Instead they said, "No! There will be a king over us!

<sup>20</sup> We will be like all the other nations. Our king will judge us and lead us and fight our battles."

<sup>21</sup> So Samuel listened to everything the people said and then reported it to the LORD.

<sup>22</sup> The LORD said to Samuel, "Do as they say and install a king over them." Then Samuel said to the men of Israel, "Each of you go back to his own city."

9

<sup>1</sup> There was a Benjaminite man named Kish son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah of Benjamin. He was a prominent person.

<sup>2</sup> He had a son named Saul, a handsome young man. There was no one among the Israelites more handsome than he was; he stood head and shoulders above all the people.

<sup>3</sup> The donkeys of Saul's father Kish wandered off, so Kish said to his son Saul, "Take one of the servants with you and go look for the donkeys."

<sup>4</sup> So Saul crossed through the hill country of Ephraim, passing through the land of Shalisha, but they did not find them. So they crossed through the land of Shaalim, but they were not there. Then he crossed through the land of Benjamin, and still they did not find them.

<sup>5</sup> When they came to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, "Come on, let's head back before my father quits worrying about the donkeys and becomes anxious about us!"

<sup>6</sup> But the servant said to him, "Look, there is a man of God in this town. He is highly respected. Everything that he says really happens. Now let's go there. Perhaps he will tell us where we should go from here."

<sup>7</sup> So Saul said to his servant, "All right, we can go. But what can we bring the man, since the food in our bags is used up? We have no gift to take to the man of God. What do we have?"

<sup>8</sup> The servant went on to answer Saul, "Look, I happen to have in my hand a quarter shekel of silver. I will give it to the man of God and he will tell us where we should go."

<sup>9</sup> (Now it used to be in Israel that whenever someone went to inquire of God he would say, "Come on, let's go to the seer." For today's prophet used to be called a seer.)

<sup>10</sup> So Saul said to his servant, "That's a good idea! Come on. Let's go." So they went to the town where the man of God was.

<sup>11</sup> As they were going up the ascent to the town, they met some girls coming out to draw water. They said to them, "Is this where the seer is?"

<sup>12</sup> They replied, "Yes, straight ahead! But hurry now, for he came to the town today, and the people are making a sacrifice at the high place."

<sup>13</sup> When you enter the town, you can find him before he goes up to the high place to eat. The people won't eat until he arrives, for he must bless the sacrifice. Once that happens, those who have been invited will eat. Now go on up, for this is the time when you can find him!"

<sup>14</sup> So they went up to the town. As they were heading for the middle of the town, Samuel was coming in their direction to go up to the high place.

<sup>16</sup> "At this time tomorrow I will send to you a man from the land of Benjamin. You must consecrate him as a leader over my people Israel. He will save my people from the hand of the Philistines. For I have looked with favor on my people. Their cry has reached me!"

<sup>17</sup> When Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said, "Here is the man that I told you about! He will rule over my people."

<sup>18</sup> As Saul approached Samuel in the middle of the gate, he said, "Please tell me where the seer's house is."

<sup>19</sup> Samuel replied to Saul, "I am the seer! Go up in front of me to the high place! Today you will eat with me and in the morning I will send you away. I will tell you everything that you are thinking."

<sup>20</sup> Don't be concerned about the donkeys that you lost three days ago, for they have been found. Whom does all Israel desire? Is it not you, and all your father's family?"

<sup>21</sup> Saul replied, "Am I not a Benjaminite, from the smallest of Israel's tribes, and is not my family clan the smallest of all the tribes of Benjamin? Why do you speak to me in this way?"

<sup>22</sup> Then Samuel brought Saul and his servant into the room and gave them a place at the head of those who had been invited. There were about thirty people present.

<sup>23</sup> Samuel said to the cook, "Give me the portion of meat that I gave to you - the one I asked you to keep with you."

<sup>24</sup> So the cook picked up the leg and brought it and set it in front of Saul. Samuel said, "What was kept is now set before you! Eat, for it has been kept for you for this meeting time, from the time I said, 'I have invited the people.'" So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

<sup>25</sup> When they came down from the high place to the town, Samuel spoke with Saul on the roof.

<sup>26</sup> They got up at dawn and Samuel called to Saul on the roof, "Get up, so I can send you on your way." So Saul got up and the two of them – he and Samuel – went outside.

<sup>27</sup> While they were going down to the edge of town, Samuel said to Saul, "Tell the servant to go on ahead of us." So he did. Samuel then said, "You remain here awhile, so I can inform you of God's message."

10

<sup>1</sup> Then Samuel took a small container of olive oil and poured it on Saul's head. Samuel kissed him and said, "The LORD has chosen you to lead his people Israel! You will rule over the LORD's people and you will deliver them from the power of the enemies who surround them. This will be your sign that the LORD has chosen you as leader over his inheritance.

<sup>2</sup> When you leave me today, you will find two men near Rachel's tomb at Zelzah on Benjamin's border. They will say to you, 'The donkeys you have gone looking for have been found. Your father is no longer concerned about the donkeys but has become anxious about you two! He is asking, "What should I do about my son?"'

<sup>3</sup> "As you continue on from there, you will come to the tall tree of Tabor. At that point three men who are going up to God at Bethel will meet you. One of them will be carrying three young goats, one of them will be carrying three round loaves of bread, and one of them will be carrying a container of wine.

<sup>4</sup> They will ask you how you're doing and will give you two loaves of bread. You will accept them.

<sup>5</sup> Afterward you will go to Gibeah of God, where there are Philistine officials. When you enter the town, you will meet a company of prophets coming down from the high place. They will have harps, tambourines, flutes, and lyres, and they will be prophesying.

<sup>6</sup> Then the spirit of the LORD will rush upon you and you will prophesy with them. You will be changed into a different person.

<sup>7</sup> "When these signs have taken place, do whatever your hand finds to do, for God will be with you.

<sup>8</sup> You will go down to Gilgal before me. I am going to join you there to offer burnt offerings and to make peace offerings. You should wait for seven days, until I arrive and tell you what to do."

Saul Becomes King

<sup>9</sup> As Saul turned to leave Samuel, God changed his inmost person. All these signs happened on that very day.

<sup>10</sup> When Saul and his servant arrived at Gibeah, a company of prophets was coming out to meet him. Then the spirit of God rushed upon Saul and he prophesied among them.

<sup>11</sup> When everyone who had known him previously saw him prophesying with the prophets, the people all asked one another, "What on earth has happened to the son of Kish? Does even Saul belong with the prophets?"

<sup>12</sup> A man who was from there replied, "And who is their father?" Therefore this became a proverb: "Is even Saul among the prophets?"

<sup>13</sup> When Saul had finished prophesying, he went to the high place.

<sup>14</sup> Saul's uncle asked him and his servant, "Where did you go?" Saul replied, "To look for the donkeys. But when we realized they were lost, we went to Samuel."

<sup>15</sup> Saul's uncle said, "Tell me what Samuel said to you."

<sup>16</sup> Saul said to his uncle, "He assured us that the donkeys had been found." But Saul did not tell him what Samuel had said about the matter of kingship.

<sup>18</sup> He said to the Israelites, "This is what the LORD God of Israel says, 'I brought Israel up from Egypt and I delivered you from the power of the Egyptians and from the power of all the kingdoms that oppressed you.'

<sup>19</sup> But today you have rejected your God who saves you from all your trouble and distress. You have said, "No! Appoint a king over us." Now take your positions before the LORD by your tribes and by your clans.'"

<sup>20</sup> Then Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was chosen by lot.

<sup>21</sup> Then he brought the tribe of Benjamin near by its families, and the family of Matri was chosen by lot. At last Saul son of Kish was chosen by lot. But when they looked for him, he was nowhere to be found.

<sup>22</sup> So they inquired again of the LORD, "Has the man arrived here yet?" The LORD said, "He has hidden himself among the equipment."

<sup>23</sup> So they ran and brought him from there. When he took his position among the people, he stood head and shoulders above them all.

<sup>24</sup> Then Samuel said to all the people, "Do you see the one whom the LORD has chosen? Indeed, there is no one like him among all the people!" All the people shouted out, "Long live the king!"

<sup>25</sup> Then Samuel talked to the people about how the kingship would work. He wrote it all down on a scroll and set it before the LORD. Then Samuel sent all the people away to their homes.

<sup>26</sup> Even Saul went to his home in Gibeah. With him went some brave men whose hearts God had touched.

<sup>27</sup> But some wicked men said, "How can this man save us?" They despised him and did not even bring him a gift. But Saul said nothing about it.

11

<sup>1</sup> Nahash the Ammonite marched against Jabesh Gilead. All the men of Jabesh Gilead said to Nahash, "Make a treaty with us and we will serve you."

<sup>2</sup> But Nahash the Ammonite said to them, "The only way I will make a treaty with you is if you let me gouge out the right eye of every one of you and in so doing humiliate all Israel!"

<sup>3</sup> The elders of Jabesh said to him, "Leave us alone for seven days so that we can send messengers throughout the territory of Israel. If there is no one who can deliver us, we will come out voluntarily to you."

<sup>4</sup> When the messengers went to Gibeah (where Saul lived) and informed the people of these matters, all the people wept loudly.

<sup>5</sup> Now Saul was walking behind the oxen as he came from the field. Saul asked, "What has happened to the people? Why are they weeping?" So they told him about the men of Jabesh.

<sup>6</sup> The Spirit of God rushed upon Saul when he heard these words, and he became very angry.

<sup>7</sup> He took a pair of oxen and cut them up. Then he sent the pieces throughout the territory of Israel by the hand of messengers, who said, "Whoever does not go out after Saul and after Samuel should expect this to be done to his oxen!" Then the terror of the LORD fell on the people, and they went out as one army.

<sup>8</sup> When Saul counted them at Bezek, the Israelites were 300,000 strong and the men of Judah numbered 30,000.

<sup>9</sup> They said to the messengers who had come, "Here's what you should say to the men of Jabesh Gilead: 'Tomorrow deliverance will come to you when the sun is fully up.' " When the messengers went and told the men of Jabesh Gilead, they were happy.

<sup>10</sup> The men of Jabesh said, "Tomorrow we will come out to you and you can do with us whatever you wish."

<sup>11</sup> The next day Saul placed the people in three groups. They went to the Ammonite camp during the morning watch and struck them down until the hottest part of the day. The survivors scattered; no two of them remained together.

Saul Is Established as King

<sup>12</sup> Then the people said to Samuel, "Who were the ones asking, 'Will Saul reign over us?' Hand over those men so we may execute them!"

<sup>13</sup> But Saul said, "No one will be killed on this day. For today the LORD has given Israel a victory!"

<sup>14</sup> Samuel said to the people, "Come on! Let's go to Gilgal and renew the kingship there."

<sup>15</sup> So all the people went to Gilgal, where they established Saul as king in the LORD's presence. They offered up peace offerings there in the LORD's presence. Saul and all the Israelites were very happy.

12

<sup>1</sup> Samuel said to all Israel, "I have done everything you requested. I have given you a king.

<sup>2</sup> Now look! This king walks before you. As for me, I am old and gray, though my sons are here with you. I have walked before you from the time of my youth till the present day.

<sup>3</sup> Here I am. Bring a charge against me before the LORD and before his chosen king. Whose ox have I taken? Whose donkey have I taken? Whom have I wronged? Whom have I oppressed? From whose hand have I taken a bribe so that I would overlook something? Tell me, and I will return it to you!"

<sup>4</sup> They replied, "You have not wronged us or oppressed us. You have not taken anything from the hand of anyone."

<sup>5</sup> He said to them, "The LORD is witness against you, and his chosen king is witness this day, that you have not found any reason to accuse me." They said, "He is witness!"

<sup>6</sup> Samuel said to the people, "The LORD is the one who chose Moses and Aaron and who brought your ancestors up from the land of Egypt.

<sup>7</sup> Now take your positions, so I may confront you before the LORD | strong="H3069" regarding all the LORD's | strong="H3069" just actions toward you and your ancestors.

<sup>8</sup> When Jacob entered Egypt, your ancestors cried out to the LORD. The LORD sent Moses and Aaron, and they led your ancestors out of Egypt and settled them in this place.

<sup>9</sup> "But they forgot the LORD their God, so he gave them into the hand of Sisera, the general in command of Hazor's army, and into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them.

<sup>10</sup> Then they cried out to the LORD and admitted, 'We have sinned, for we have forsaken the LORD and have served the Baals and the images of Ashtoreth. Now deliver us from the hand of our enemies so that we may serve you.'

<sup>11</sup> So the LORD sent Jerub-Baal, Barak, Jephthah, and Samuel, and he delivered you from the hand of the enemies all around you, and you were able to live securely.

<sup>12</sup> “When you saw that King Nahash of the Ammonites was advancing against you, you said to me, ‘No! A king will rule over us’ – even though the LORD your God is your king!

<sup>13</sup> Now look! Here is the king you have chosen – the one that you asked for! Look, the LORD has given you a king!

<sup>14</sup> If you fear the LORD, serving him and obeying him and not rebelling against what he says, and if both you and the king who rules over you follow the LORD your God, all will be well.

<sup>15</sup> But if you don’t obey the LORD and rebel against what the LORD says, the hand of the LORD will be against both you and your king.

<sup>16</sup> “So now, take your positions and watch this great thing that the LORD is about to do in your sight.

<sup>17</sup> Is this not the time of the wheat harvest? I will call on the LORD so that he makes it thunder and rain. Realize and see what a great sin you have committed before the LORD by asking for a king for yourselves.”

<sup>18</sup> So Samuel called to the LORD, and the LORD made it thunder and rain that day. All the people were very afraid of both the LORD and Samuel.

<sup>19</sup> All the people said to Samuel, “Pray to the LORD your God on behalf of us – your servants – so we won’t die, for we have added to all our sins by asking for a king.”

<sup>20</sup> Then Samuel said to the people, “Don’t be afraid. You have indeed sinned. However, don’t turn aside from the LORD. Serve the LORD with all your heart.

<sup>21</sup> You should not turn aside after empty things that can’t profit and can’t deliver, since they are empty.

<sup>22</sup> The LORD will not abandon his people because he wants to uphold his great reputation. The LORD was pleased to make you his own people.

<sup>23</sup> As far as I am concerned, far be it from me to sin against the LORD by ceasing to pray for you! I will instruct you in the way that is good and upright.

<sup>24</sup> However, fear the LORD and serve him faithfully with all your heart. Just look at the great things he has done for you!

<sup>25</sup> But if you continue to do evil, both you and your king will be swept away.”

13

<sup>1</sup> Saul was [thirty] years old when he began to reign; he ruled over Israel for [forty] years.

<sup>2</sup> Saul selected for himself three thousand men from Israel. Two thousand of these were with Saul at Micmash and in the hill country of Bethel; the remaining thousand were with Jonathan at Gibeah in the territory of Benjamin. He sent all the rest of the people back home.

<sup>3</sup> Jonathan attacked the Philistine outpost that was at Geba and the Philistines heard about it. Then Saul alerted all the land saying, “Let the Hebrews pay attention!”

<sup>4</sup> All Israel heard this message, “Saul has attacked the Philistine outpost, and now Israel is repulsive to the Philistines!” So the people were summoned to join Saul at Gilgal.

<sup>5</sup> For the battle with Israel the Philistines had amassed 3,000 chariots, 6,000 horsemen, and an army as numerous as the sand on the seashore. They went up and camped at Micmash, east of Beth Aven.

<sup>6</sup> The men of Israel realized they had a problem because their army was hard pressed. So the army hid in caves, thickets, cliffs, strongholds, and cisterns.

<sup>7</sup> Some of the Hebrews crossed over the Jordan River to the land of Gad and Gilead. But Saul stayed at Gilgal; the entire army that was with him was terrified.

<sup>8</sup> He waited for seven days, the time period indicated by Samuel. But Samuel did not come to Gilgal, and the army began to abandon Saul.

<sup>9</sup> So Saul said, "Bring me the burnt offering and the peace offerings." Then he offered a burnt offering.

<sup>10</sup> Just when he had finished offering the burnt offering, Samuel appeared on the scene. Saul went out to meet him and to greet him.

<sup>11</sup> But Samuel said, "What have you done?" Saul replied, "When I saw that the army had started to abandon me and that you didn't come at the appointed time and that the Philistines had assembled at Micmash, <sup>12</sup> I thought, 'Now the Philistines will come down on me at Gilgal and I have not sought the LORD's favor.' So I felt obligated to offer the burnt offering."

<sup>13</sup> Then Samuel said to Saul, "You have made a foolish choice! You have not obeyed the commandment that the LORD your God gave you. Had you done that, the LORD would have established your kingdom over Israel forever!

<sup>14</sup> But now your kingdom will not continue! The LORD | strong="H3069" has sought out for himself a man who is loyal to him and the LORD | strong="H3069" has appointed him to be leader over his people, for you have not obeyed what the LORD | strong="H3069" commanded you."

<sup>15</sup> Then Samuel set out and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah in the territory of Benjamin. Saul mustered the army that remained with him; there were about six hundred men.

<sup>19</sup> A blacksmith could not be found in all the land of Israel, for the Philistines had said, "This will prevent the Hebrews from making swords and spears."

<sup>20</sup> So all Israel had to go down to the Philistines in order to get their plowshares, cutting instruments, axes, and sickles sharpened.

<sup>21</sup> They charged two-thirds of a shekel to sharpen plowshares and cutting instruments, and a third of a shekel to sharpen picks and axes, and to set ox goads.

<sup>22</sup> So on the day of the battle no sword or spear was to be found in the hand of anyone in the army that was with Saul and Jonathan. No one but Saul and his son Jonathan had them.

Jonathan Ignites a Battle

14

<sup>1</sup> Then one day Jonathan son of Saul said to his armor bearer, "Come on, let's go over to the Philistine garrison that is opposite us." But he did not let his father know.

<sup>2</sup> Now Saul was sitting under a pomegranate tree in Migron, on the outskirts of Gibeah. The army that was with him numbered about six hundred men.

<sup>3</sup> Now Ahijah was carrying an ephod. He was the son of Ahitub, who was the brother of Ichabod and a son of Phineas, son of Eli, the priest of the LORD in Shiloh. The army was unaware that Jonathan had left.

<sup>4</sup> Now there was a steep cliff on each side of the pass through which Jonathan intended to go to reach the Philistine garrison. One cliff was named Bozez, the other Seneh.

<sup>5</sup> The cliff to the north was closer to Micmash, the one to the south closer to Geba.

<sup>6</sup> Jonathan said to his armor bearer, "Come on, let's go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised men. Perhaps the LORD will intervene for us. Nothing can prevent the LORD from delivering, whether by many or by a few."

<sup>7</sup> His armor bearer said to him, "Do everything that is on your mind. Do as you're inclined. I'm with you all the way!"

<sup>9</sup> If they say to us, 'Stay put until we approach you,' we will stay right there and not go up to them.

<sup>10</sup> But if they say, 'Come up against us,' we will go up. For in that case the LORD has given them into our hand – it will be a sign to us."

<sup>11</sup> When they made themselves known to the Philistine garrison, the Philistines said, "Look! The Hebrews are coming out of the holes in which they hid themselves."

<sup>12</sup> Then the men of the garrison said to Jonathan and his armor bearer, "Come on up to us so we can teach you a thing or two!" Then Jonathan said to his armor bearer, "Come up behind me, for the LORD has given them into the hand of Israel!"

<sup>14</sup> In this initial skirmish Jonathan and his armor bearer struck down about twenty men in an area that measured half an acre.

<sup>15</sup> Then fear overwhelmed those who were in the camp, those who were in the field, all the army in the garrison, and the raiding bands. They trembled and the ground shook. This fear was caused by God.

<sup>16</sup> Saul's watchmen at Gibeah in the territory of Benjamin looked on as the crowd of soldiers seemed to melt away first in one direction and then in another.

<sup>17</sup> So Saul said to the army that was with him, "Mustering the troops and see who is no longer with us." When they mustered the troops, Jonathan and his armor bearer were not there.

<sup>18</sup> So Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring near the ephod," for he was at that time wearing the ephod.

<sup>19</sup> While Saul spoke to the priest, the panic in the Philistines' camp was becoming greater and greater. So Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand!"

<sup>21</sup> The Hebrews who had earlier gone over to the Philistine side joined the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.

<sup>22</sup> When all the Israelites who had hidden themselves in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines had fled, they too pursued them in battle.

<sup>23</sup> So the LORD delivered Israel that day, and the battle shifted over to Beth Aven.

Jonathan Violates Saul's Oath

<sup>24</sup> Now the men of Israel were hard pressed that day, for Saul had made the army agree to this oath: "Cursed be the man who eats food before evening! I will get my vengeance on my enemies!" So no one in the army ate anything.

<sup>25</sup> Now the whole army entered the forest and there was honey on the ground.

<sup>26</sup> When the army entered the forest, they saw the honey flowing, but no one ate any of it, for the army was afraid of the oath.

<sup>27</sup> But Jonathan had not heard about the oath his father had made the army take. He extended the end of his staff that was in his hand and dipped it in the honeycomb. When he ate it, his eyes gleamed.

<sup>28</sup> Then someone from the army informed him, "Your father put the army under a strict oath saying, 'Cursed be the man who eats food today!' That is why the army is tired."

<sup>29</sup> Then Jonathan said, "My father has caused trouble for the land. See how my eyes gleamed when I tasted just a little of this honey.

<sup>30</sup> Certainly if the army had eaten some of the enemies' provisions that they came across today, would not the slaughter of the Philistines have been even greater?"

<sup>31</sup> On that day the army struck down the Philistines from Micmash to Aijalon, and they became very tired.

<sup>32</sup> So the army rushed greedily on the plunder, confiscating sheep, cattle, and calves. They slaughtered them right on the ground, and the army ate them blood and all.

<sup>33</sup> Now it was reported to Saul, "Look, the army is sinning against the LORD by eating even the blood." He said, "All of you have broken the covenant! Roll a large stone over here to me."

<sup>34</sup> Then Saul said, "Scatter out among the army and say to them, 'Each of you bring to me your ox and sheep and slaughter them in this spot and eat. But don't sin against the LORD by eating the blood.'" So that night each one brought his ox and slaughtered it there.

<sup>35</sup> Then Saul built an altar for the LORD; it was the first time he had built an altar for the LORD.

<sup>36</sup> Saul said, "Let's go down after the Philistines at night; we will rout them until the break of day. We won't leave any of them alive!" They replied, "Do whatever seems best to you." But the priest said, "Let's approach God here."

<sup>37</sup> So Saul asked God, "Should I go down after the Philistines? Will you deliver them into the hand of Israel?" But he did not answer him that day.

<sup>38</sup> Then Saul said, "All you leaders of the army come here. Find out how this sin occurred today.

<sup>39</sup> For as surely as the LORD, the deliverer of Israel, lives, even if it turns out to be my own son Jonathan, he will certainly die!" But no one from the army said anything.

<sup>40</sup> Then he said to all Israel, "You will be on one side, and I and my son Jonathan will be on the other side." The army replied to Saul, "Do whatever you think is best."

<sup>41</sup> Then Saul said, "O LORD God of Israel! If this sin has been committed by me or by my son Jonathan, then, O LORD God of Israel, respond with Urim. But if this sin has been committed by your people Israel, respond with Thummim." Then Jonathan | strong="H3129" and Saul were indicated by lot, while the army was exonerated.

<sup>42</sup> Then Saul said, "Cast the lot between me and my son Jonathan!" Jonathan was indicated by lot.

<sup>43</sup> So Saul said to Jonathan, "Tell me what you have done." Jonathan told him, "I used the end of the staff that was in my hand to taste a little honey. I must die!"

<sup>44</sup> Saul said, "God will punish me severely if Jonathan doesn't die!"

<sup>45</sup> But the army said to Saul, "Should Jonathan, who won this great victory in Israel, die? May it never be! As surely as the LORD lives, not a single hair of his head will fall to the ground! For it is with the help of God that he has acted today." So the army rescued Jonathan from death.

<sup>47</sup> After Saul had secured his royal position over Israel, he fought against all their enemies on all sides – the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, the kings of Zobah, and the Philistines. In every direction that he turned he was victorious.

<sup>48</sup> He fought bravely, striking down the Amalekites and delivering Israel from the hand of its enemies.

Members of Saul's Family

<sup>49</sup> The sons of Saul were Jonathan, Ishvi, and Malki-Shua. He had two daughters; the older one was named Merab and the younger Michal.

<sup>51</sup> Kish was the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

<sup>52</sup> There was fierce war with the Philistines all the days of Saul. So whenever Saul saw anyone who was a warrior or a brave individual, he would conscript him.

15

<sup>1</sup> Then Samuel said to Saul, "I was the one the LORD sent to anoint you as king over his people Israel. Now listen to what the LORD says.

<sup>2</sup> Here is what the LORD of hosts says: 'I carefully observed how the Amalekites opposed Israel along the way when Israel came up from Egypt.

<sup>3</sup> So go now and strike down the Amalekites. Destroy everything that they have. Don't spare them. Put them to death – man, woman, child, infant, ox, sheep, camel, and donkey alike.' "

<sup>5</sup> Saul proceeded to the city of Amalek, where he set an ambush in the wadi.

<sup>6</sup> Saul said to the Kenites, "Go on and leave! Go down from among the Amalekites! Otherwise I will sweep you away with them! After all, you were kind to all the Israelites when they came up from Egypt." So the Kenites withdrew from among the Amalekites.

<sup>7</sup> Then Saul struck down the Amalekites all the way from Havilah to Shur, which is next to Egypt.

<sup>8</sup> He captured King Agag of the Amalekites alive, but he executed all Agag's people with the sword.

<sup>9</sup> However, Saul and the army spared Agag, along with the best of the flock, the cattle, the fatlings, and the lambs, as well as everything else that was of value. They were not willing to slaughter them. But they did slaughter everything that was despised and worthless.

<sup>10</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to Samuel:

<sup>11</sup> "I regret that I have made Saul king, for he has turned away from me and has not done what I told him to do." Samuel became angry and he cried out to the LORD all that night.

<sup>12</sup> Then Samuel got up early to meet Saul the next morning. But Samuel was informed, "Saul has gone to Carmel where he is setting up a monument for himself. Then Samuel left and went down to Gilgal."

<sup>13</sup> When Samuel came to him, Saul said to him, "May the LORD bless you! I have done what the LORD said."

<sup>14</sup> Samuel replied, "If that is the case, then what is this sound of sheep in my ears and the sound of cattle that I hear?"

<sup>15</sup> Saul said, "They were brought from the Amalekites; the army spared the best of the flocks and cattle to sacrifice to the LORD our God. But everything else we slaughtered."

<sup>16</sup> Then Samuel said to Saul, "Wait a minute! Let me tell you what the LORD said to me last night." Saul said to him, "Tell me."

<sup>17</sup> Samuel said, "Is it not true that when you were insignificant in your own eyes, you became head of the tribes of Israel? The LORD chose you as king over Israel.

<sup>18</sup> The LORD sent you on a campaign saying, ‘Go and exterminate those sinful Amalekites! Fight against them until you have destroyed them.’

<sup>19</sup> Why haven’t you obeyed the LORD? Instead you have greedily rushed upon the plunder! You have done what is wrong in the LORD’s estimation.”

<sup>20</sup> Then Saul said to Samuel, “But I have obeyed the LORD! I went on the campaign the LORD sent me on. I brought back King Agag of the Amalekites after exterminating the Amalekites.

<sup>21</sup> But the army took from the plunder some of the sheep and cattle – the best of what was to be slaughtered – to sacrifice to the LORD your God in Gilgal.”

<sup>22</sup> Then Samuel said,
“Does the LORD take pleasure in burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as he does in obedience?
Certainly, obedience is better than sacrifice;
paying attention is better than the fat of rams.

<sup>23</sup> For rebellion is like the sin of divination, and presumption is like the evil of idolatry.
Because you have rejected the word of the LORD,
he has rejected you as king.”

<sup>24</sup> Then Saul said to Samuel, “I have sinned, for I have disobeyed what the LORD commanded and what you said as well. For I was afraid of the army, and I followed their wishes.

<sup>25</sup> Now please forgive my sin! Go back with me so I can worship the LORD.”

<sup>26</sup> Samuel said to Saul, “I will not go back with you, for you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel!”

<sup>27</sup> When Samuel turned to leave, Saul grabbed the edge of his robe and it tore.

<sup>28</sup> Samuel said to him, “The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you this day and has given it to one of your colleagues who is better than you!

<sup>29</sup> The Preeminent One of Israel does not go back on his word or change his mind, for he is not a human being who changes his mind.”

<sup>30</sup> Saul again replied, “I have sinned. But please honor me before the elders of my people and before Israel. Go back with me so I may worship the LORD your God.”

<sup>31</sup> So Samuel followed Saul back, and Saul worshiped the LORD.

Samuel Puts Agag to Death

<sup>32</sup> Then Samuel said, “Bring me King Agag of the Amalekites.” So Agag came to him trembling, thinking to himself, “Surely death is bitter!”

<sup>33</sup> Samuel said, “Just as your sword left women childless, so your mother will be the most bereaved among women!” Then Samuel hacked Agag to pieces there in Gilgal before the LORD.

<sup>34</sup> Then Samuel went to Ramah, while Saul went up to his home in Gibeah of Saul.

<sup>35</sup> Until the day he died Samuel did not see Saul again. Samuel did, however, mourn for Saul, but the LORD regretted that he had made Saul king over Israel.

16

<sup>1</sup> The LORD said to Samuel, “How long do you intend to mourn for Saul? I have rejected him as king over Israel. Fill your horn with olive oil and go! I am sending you to Jesse in Bethlehem, for I have selected a king for myself from among his sons.”

<sup>2</sup> Samuel replied, “How can I go? Saul will hear about it and kill me!” But the LORD said, “Take a heifer with you and say, ‘I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.’

<sup>3</sup> Then invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you should do. You will anoint for me the one I point out to you.”

<sup>4</sup> Samuel did what the LORD told him. When he arrived in Bethlehem, the elders of the city were afraid to meet him. They said, “Do you come in peace?”

<sup>5</sup> He replied, “Yes, in peace. I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Consecrate yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice.” So he consecrated Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice.

<sup>6</sup> When they arrived, Samuel noticed Eliab and said to himself, “Surely, here before the LORD stands his chosen king!”

<sup>7</sup> But the LORD said to Samuel, “Don’t be impressed by his appearance or his height, for I have rejected him. God does not view things the way men do. People look on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart.”

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesse presented Shammah. But Samuel said, “The LORD has not chosen this one either.”

<sup>10</sup> Jesse presented seven of his sons to Samuel. But Samuel said to Jesse, “The LORD has not chosen any of these.”

<sup>11</sup> Then Samuel said to Jesse, “Is that all of the young men?” Jesse replied, “There is still the youngest one, but he’s taking care of the flock.” Samuel said to Jesse, “Send and get him, for we cannot turn our attention to other things until he comes here.”

<sup>12</sup> So Jesse had him brought in. Now he was ruddy, with attractive eyes and a handsome appearance. The LORD said, “Go and anoint him. This is the one!”

<sup>13</sup> So Samuel took the horn full of olive oil and anointed him in the presence of his brothers. The Spirit of the LORD rushed upon David from that day onward. Then Samuel got up and went to Ramah.

David Appears before Saul

<sup>14</sup> Now the Spirit of the LORD had turned away from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD tormented him.

<sup>15</sup> Then Saul’s servants said to him, “Look, an evil spirit from God is tormenting you!”

<sup>16</sup> Let our lord instruct his servants who are here before you to look for a man who knows how to play the lyre. Then whenever the evil spirit from God comes upon you, he can play the lyre and you will feel better.”

<sup>17</sup> So Saul said to his servants, “Find me a man who plays well and bring him to me.”

<sup>19</sup> So Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, “Send me your son David, who is out with the sheep.

<sup>21</sup> David came to Saul and stood before him. Saul liked him a great deal, and he became his armor bearer.

<sup>23</sup> So whenever the spirit from God would come upon Saul, David would take his lyre and play it. This would bring relief to Saul and make him feel better. Then the evil spirit would leave him alone.

17

<sup>3</sup> The Philistines were standing on one hill, and the Israelites on another hill, with the valley between them.

<sup>4</sup> Then a champion came out from the camp of the Philistines. His name was Goliath; he was from Gath. He was close to seven feet tall.

<sup>8</sup> Goliath stood and called to Israel's troops, "Why do you come out to prepare for battle? Am I not the Philistine, and are you not the servants of Saul? Choose for yourselves a man so he may come down to me!

<sup>9</sup> If he is able to fight with me and strike me down, we will become your servants. But if I prevail against him and strike him down, you will become our servants and will serve us."

<sup>10</sup> Then the Philistine said, "I defy Israel's troops this day! Give me a man so we can fight each other!"

<sup>11</sup> When Saul and all the Israelites heard these words of the Philistine, they were upset and very afraid.

<sup>12</sup>

Now David was the son of this Ephrathite named Jesse from Bethlehem in Judah. He had eight sons, and in Saul's days he was old and well advanced in years.

<sup>13</sup> Jesse's three oldest sons had followed Saul to war. The names of the three sons who went to war were Eliab, his firstborn, Abinadab, the second oldest, and Shammah, the third oldest.

<sup>15</sup> David was going back and forth from Saul in order to care for his father's sheep in Bethlehem.

<sup>16</sup> Meanwhile for forty days the Philistine approached every morning and evening and took his position.

<sup>17</sup> Jesse said to his son David, "Take your brothers this ephah of roasted grain and these ten loaves of bread; go quickly to the camp to your brothers.

<sup>18</sup> Also take these ten portions of cheese to their commanding officer. Find out how your brothers are doing and bring back their pledge that they received the goods.

<sup>19</sup> They are with Saul and the whole Israelite army in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines."

<sup>20</sup> So David got up early in the morning and entrusted the flock to someone else who would watch over it. After loading up, he went just as Jesse had instructed him. He arrived at the camp as the army was going out to the battle lines shouting its battle cry.

<sup>22</sup> After David had entrusted his cargo to the care of the supply officer, he ran to the battlefield. When he arrived, he asked his brothers how they were doing.

<sup>23</sup> As he was speaking with them, the champion named Goliath, the Philistine from Gath, was coming up from the battle lines of the Philistines. He spoke the way he usually did, and David heard it.

<sup>24</sup> When all the men of Israel saw this man, they retreated from his presence and were very afraid.

<sup>25</sup> The men of Israel said, "Have you seen this man who is coming up? He does so to defy Israel. But the king will make the man who can strike him down very wealthy! He will give him his daughter in marriage, and he will make his father's house exempt from tax obligations in Israel."

<sup>26</sup> David asked the men who were standing near him, "What will be done for the man who strikes down this Philistine and frees Israel from this humiliation? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he defies the armies of the living God?"

<sup>27</sup> The soldiers told him what had been promised, saying, "This is what will be done for the man who can strike him down."

<sup>28</sup> When David's oldest brother Eliab heard him speaking to the men, he became angry with David and said, "Why have you come down here? To whom did you entrust those few sheep in the desert? I am familiar with your pride and deceit! You have come down here to watch the battle!"

<sup>30</sup> Then he turned from those who were nearby to someone else and asked the same question, but they gave him the same answer as before.

<sup>31</sup> When David's words were overheard and reported to Saul, he called for him.

<sup>32</sup> David said to Saul, "Don't let anyone be discouraged. Your servant will go and fight this Philistine!"

<sup>34</sup> David replied to Saul, "Your servant has been a shepherd for his father's flock. Whenever a lion or bear would come and carry off a sheep from the flock, <sup>35</sup> I would go out after it, strike it down, and rescue the sheep from its mouth. If it rose up against me, I would grab it by its jaw, strike it, and kill it.

<sup>36</sup> Your servant has struck down both the lion and the bear. This uncircumcised Philistine will be just like one of them. For he has defied the armies of the living God!"

<sup>37</sup> David went on to say, "The LORD who delivered me from the lion and the bear will also deliver me from the hand of this Philistine!" Then Saul said to David, "Go! The LORD will be with you."

<sup>38</sup> Then Saul clothed David with his own fighting attire and put a bronze helmet on his head. He also put body armor on him.

<sup>39</sup> David strapped on his sword over his fighting attire and tried to walk around, but he was not used to them. David said to Saul, "I can't walk in these things, for I'm not used to them." So David removed them.

<sup>43</sup> The Philistine said to David, "Am I a dog, that you are coming after me with sticks?" Then the Philistine cursed David by his gods.

<sup>44</sup> The Philistine said to David, "Come here to me, so I can give your flesh to the birds of the sky and the wild animals of the field!"

<sup>45</sup> But David replied to the Philistine, "You are coming against me with sword and spear and javelin. But I am coming against you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel's armies, whom you have defied!"

<sup>46</sup> This very day the LORD will deliver you into my hand! I will strike you down and cut off your head. This day I will give the corpses of the Philistine army to the birds of the sky and the wild animals of the land. Then all the land will realize that Israel has a God

<sup>47</sup> and all this assembly will know that it is not by sword or spear that the LORD saves! For the battle is the LORD's, and he will deliver you into our hand."

<sup>48</sup> The Philistine drew steadily closer to David to attack him, while David quickly ran toward the battle line to attack the Philistine.

<sup>49</sup> David reached his hand into the bag and took out a stone. He slung it, striking the Philistine on the forehead. The stone sank deeply into his forehead, and he fell down with his face to the ground.

<sup>50</sup>

David prevailed over the Philistine with just the sling and the stone. He struck down the Philistine and killed him. David did not even have a sword in his hand.

<sup>51</sup> David ran and stood over the Philistine. He grabbed Goliath's sword, drew it from its sheath, killed him, and cut off his head with it. When the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they ran away.

<sup>52</sup> Then the men of Israel and Judah charged forward, shouting a battle cry. They chased the Philistines to the valley and to the very gates of Ekron. The Philistine corpses lay fallen along the Shaaraim road to Gath and Ekron.

<sup>53</sup> When the Israelites returned from their hot pursuit of the Philistines, they looted their camp.

<sup>55</sup>

Now as Saul watched David going out to fight the Philistine, he asked Abner, the general in command of the army, "Whose son is this young man, Abner?" Abner replied, "As surely as you live, O king, I don't know."

<sup>57</sup> So when David returned from striking down the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul. He still had the head of the Philistine in his hand.

<sup>58</sup> Saul said to him, "Whose son are you, young man?" David replied, "I am the son of your servant Jesse in Bethlehem."

18

<sup>2</sup> Saul retained David on that day and did not allow him to return to his father's house.

<sup>3</sup> Jonathan made a covenant with David, for he loved him as much as he did his own life.

<sup>4</sup> Jonathan took off the robe he was wearing and gave it to David, along with the rest of his gear, including his sword, his bow, and even his belt.

<sup>5</sup> On every mission on which Saul sent him, David achieved success. So Saul appointed him over the men of war. This pleased not only all the army, but also Saul's servants.

<sup>6</sup> When the men arrived after David returned from striking down the Philistine, the women from all the cities of Israel came out singing and dancing to meet King Saul. They were happy as they played their tambourines and three-stringed instruments.

<sup>7</sup> The women who were playing the music sang,
"Saul has struck down his thousands, but David his tens of thousands!"

<sup>8</sup> This made Saul very angry. The statement displeased him and he thought, "They have attributed to David tens of thousands, but to me they have attributed only thousands. What does he lack, except the kingdom?"

<sup>9</sup> So Saul was keeping an eye on David from that day onward.

<sup>10</sup> The next day an evil spirit from God rushed upon Saul and he prophesied within his house. Now David was playing the lyre that day. There was a spear in Saul's hand, <sup>11</sup> and Saul threw the spear, thinking, "I'll nail David to the wall!" But David escaped from him on two different occasions.

<sup>12</sup> So Saul feared David, because the LORD was with him but had departed from Saul.

<sup>15</sup> When Saul saw how very successful he was, he was afraid of him.

<sup>16</sup> But all Israel and Judah loved David, for he was the one leading them out to battle and back.

<sup>17</sup>

Then Saul said to David, "Here's my oldest daughter, Merab. I want to give her to you in marriage. Only be a brave warrior for me and fight the battles of the LORD." For Saul thought, "There's no need for me to raise my hand against him. Let it be the hand of the Philistines!"

<sup>18</sup> David said to Saul, "Who am I? Who are my relatives or the clan of my father in Israel that I should become the king's son-in-law?"

<sup>19</sup> When the time came for Merab, Saul's daughter, to be given to David, she instead was given in marriage to Adriel, who was from Meholah.

<sup>20</sup> Now Michal, Saul's daughter, loved David. When they told Saul about this, it pleased him.

<sup>21</sup> Saul said, "I will give her to him so that she may become a snare to him and the hand of the Philistines may be against him." So Saul said to David, "Today is the second time for you to become my son-in-law."

<sup>22</sup> Then Saul instructed his servants, "Tell David secretly, 'The king is pleased with you, and all his servants like you. So now become the king's son-in-law.'"

<sup>23</sup> So Saul's servants spoke these words privately to David. David replied, "Is becoming the king's son-in-law something insignificant to you? I'm just a poor and lightly-esteemed man!"

<sup>24</sup> When Saul's servants reported what David had said,

<sup>25</sup> Saul replied, "Here is what you should say to David: 'There is nothing that the king wants as a price for the bride except a hundred Philistine foreskins, so that he can be avenged of his enemies.' " (Now Saul was thinking that he could kill David by the hand of the Philistines.)

<sup>26</sup> So his servants told David these things and David agreed to become the king's son-in-law. Now the specified time had not yet expired

<sup>27</sup> when David, along with his men, went out and struck down two hundred Philistine men. David brought their foreskins and presented all of them to the king so he could become the king's son-in-law. Saul then gave him his daughter Michal in marriage.

<sup>28</sup> When Saul realized that the LORD was with David and that his daughter Michal loved David,

<sup>30</sup> Then the leaders of the Philistines would march out, and as often as they did so, David achieved more success than all of Saul's servants. His name was held in high esteem.

19

<sup>1</sup> Then Saul told his son Jonathan and all his servants to kill David. But Saul's son Jonathan liked David very much.

<sup>2</sup> So Jonathan told David, "My father Saul is trying to kill you. So be careful tomorrow morning. Find a hiding place and stay in seclusion.

<sup>3</sup> I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are. I will speak about you to my father. When I find out what the problem is, I will let you know."

<sup>4</sup> So Jonathan spoke on David's behalf to his father Saul. He said to him, "The king should not sin against his servant David, for he has not sinned against you. On the contrary, his actions have been very beneficial for you.

<sup>5</sup> He risked his life when he struck down the Philistine and the LORD gave all Israel a great victory. When you saw it, you were happy. So why would you sin against innocent blood by putting David to death for no reason?"

<sup>6</sup> Saul accepted Jonathan's advice and took an oath, "As surely as the LORD lives, he will not be put to death."

<sup>7</sup> Then Jonathan called David and told him all these things. Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he served him as he had done formerly.

<sup>8</sup> Now once again there was war. So David went out to fight the Philistines. He defeated them thoroughly and they ran away from him.

<sup>9</sup> Then an evil spirit from the LORD came upon Saul. He was sitting in his house with his spear in his hand, while David was playing the lyre.

<sup>10</sup> Saul tried to nail David to the wall with the spear, but he escaped from Saul's presence and the spear drove into the wall. David escaped quickly that night.

<sup>11</sup> Saul sent messengers to David's house to guard it and to kill him in the morning. Then David's wife Michal told him, "If you do not save yourself tonight, tomorrow you will be dead!"

<sup>12</sup> So Michal lowered David through the window, and he ran away and escaped.

<sup>15</sup> Then Saul sent the messengers back to see David, saying, "Bring him up to me on his bed so I can kill him."

<sup>16</sup> When the messengers came, they found only the idol on the bed and the quilt made of goat's hair at its head.

<sup>17</sup> Saul said to Michal, "Why have you deceived me this way by sending my enemy away? Now he has escaped!" Michal replied to Saul, "He said to me, 'Help me get away or else I will kill you!'"

<sup>18</sup> Now David had run away and escaped. He went to Samuel in Ramah and told him everything that Saul had done to him. Then he and Samuel went and stayed at Naioth.

<sup>20</sup> So Saul sent messengers to capture David. When they saw a company of prophets prophesying with Samuel standing there as their leader, the spirit of God came upon Saul's messengers, and they also prophesied.

<sup>21</sup> When it was reported to Saul, he sent more messengers, but they prophesied too. So Saul sent messengers a third time, but they also prophesied.

<sup>22</sup> Finally Saul himself went to Ramah. When he arrived at the large cistern that is in Secu, he asked, "Where are Samuel and David?" They said, "At Naioth in Ramah."

<sup>23</sup> So Saul went to Naioth in Ramah. The Spirit of God came upon him as well, and he walked along prophesying until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

<sup>24</sup> He even stripped off his clothes and prophesied before Samuel. He lay there naked all that day and night. (For that reason it is asked, "Is Saul also among the prophets?")

20

<sup>1</sup> David fled from Naioth in Ramah. He came to Jonathan and asked, "What have I done? What is my offense? How have I sinned before your father? For he is seeking my life!"

<sup>2</sup> Jonathan said to him, "By no means are you going to die! My father does nothing large or small without making me aware of it. Why would my father hide this matter from me? It just won't happen!"

<sup>3</sup> Taking an oath, David again said, "Your father is very much aware of the fact that I have found favor with you, and he has thought, 'Don't let Jonathan know about this, or he will be upset.' But as surely as the LORD lives and you live, there is about one step between me and death!"

<sup>5</sup> David said to Jonathan, "Tomorrow is the new moon, and I am certainly expected to join the king for a meal. You must send me away so I can hide in the field until the third evening from now.

<sup>6</sup> If your father happens to miss me, you should say, 'David urgently requested me to let him go to his city Bethlehem, for there is an annual sacrifice there for his entire family.'

<sup>7</sup> If he should then say, 'That's fine,' then your servant is safe. But if he becomes very angry, be assured that he has decided to harm me.

<sup>8</sup> You must be loyal to your servant, for you have made a covenant with your servant in the LORD's name. If I am guilty, you yourself kill me! Why bother taking me to your father?"

<sup>9</sup> Jonathan said, "Far be it from you to suggest this! If I were at all aware that my father had decided to harm you, wouldn't I tell you about it?"

<sup>10</sup> David said to Jonathan, "Who will tell me if your father answers you harshly?"

<sup>11</sup> Jonathan said to David, "Come on. Let's go out to the field."

When the two of them had gone out into the field,

<sup>12</sup> Jonathan said to David, "The LORD God of Israel is my witness. I will feel out my father about this time the day after tomorrow. If he is favorably inclined toward David, will I not then send word to you and let you know?"

<sup>13</sup> But if my father intends to do you harm, may the LORD do all this and more to Jonathan, if I don't let you know and send word to you so you can go safely on your way. May the LORD be with you, as he was with my father.

<sup>14</sup> While I am still alive, extend to me the loyalty of the LORD, or else I will die!

<sup>15</sup> Don't ever cut off your loyalty to my family, not even when the LORD has cut off every one of David's enemies from the face of the earth

<sup>16</sup> and called David's enemies to account." So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David.

<sup>17</sup> Jonathan once again took an oath with David, because he loved him. In fact Jonathan loved him as much as he did his own life.

<sup>18</sup> Jonathan said to him, "Tomorrow is the new moon, and you will be missed, for your seat will be empty.

<sup>19</sup> On the third day you should go down quickly and come to the place where you hid yourself the day this all started. Stay near the stone Ezel.

<sup>20</sup> I will shoot three arrows near it, as though I were shooting at a target.

<sup>21</sup> When I send a boy after them, I will say, "Go and find the arrows." If I say to the boy, 'Look, the arrows are on this side of you; get them,' then come back. For as surely as the LORD lives, you will be safe and there will be no problem.

<sup>22</sup> But if I say to the boy, "Look, the arrows are on the other side of you," get away. For in that case the LORD has sent you away.

<sup>23</sup> With regard to the matter that you and I discussed, the LORD is the witness between us forever!”

<sup>25</sup> The king sat down in his usual place by the wall, with Jonathan opposite him and Abner at his side. But David’s place was vacant.

<sup>26</sup> However, Saul said nothing about it that day, for he thought, “Something has happened to make him ceremonially unclean. Yes, he must be unclean.”

<sup>27</sup> But the next morning, the second day of the new moon, David’s place was still vacant. So Saul said to his son Jonathan, “Why has Jesse’s son not come to the meal yesterday or today?”

<sup>28</sup> Jonathan replied to Saul, “David urgently requested that he be allowed to go to Bethlehem.

<sup>29</sup> He said, ‘Permit me to go, for we are having a family sacrifice in the city, and my brother urged me to be there. So now, if I have found favor with you, let me go to see my brothers.’ For that reason he has not come to the king’s table.”

<sup>30</sup> Saul became angry with Jonathan and said to him, “You stupid traitor! Don’t I realize that to your own disgrace and to the disgrace of your mother’s nakedness you have chosen this son of Jesse?

<sup>31</sup> For as long as this son of Jesse is alive on the earth, you and your kingdom will not be established. Now, send some men and bring him to me. For he is as good as dead!”

<sup>32</sup> Jonathan responded to his father Saul, “Why should he be put to death? What has he done?”

<sup>33</sup> Then Saul threw his spear at Jonathan in order to strike him down. So Jonathan was convinced that his father had decided to kill David.

<sup>34</sup> Jonathan got up from the table enraged. He did not eat any food on that second day of the new moon, for he was upset that his father had humiliated David.

<sup>35</sup> The next morning Jonathan, along with a young servant, went out to the field to meet David.

<sup>36</sup> He said to his servant, “Run, find the arrows that I am about to shoot.” As the servant ran, Jonathan shot the arrow beyond him.

<sup>37</sup> When the servant came to the place where Jonathan had shot the arrow, Jonathan called out to the servant, “Isn’t the arrow further beyond you?”

<sup>39</sup> (Now the servant did not understand any of this. Only Jonathan and David knew what was going on.)

<sup>40</sup> Then Jonathan gave his equipment to the servant who was with him. He said to him, “Go, take these things back to the city.”

<sup>41</sup> When the servant had left, David got up from beside the mound, knelt with his face to the ground, and bowed three times. Then they kissed each other and they both wept, especially David.

<sup>42</sup> Jonathan said to David, “Go in peace, for the two of us have sworn together in the name of the LORD saying, ‘The LORD will be between me and you and between my descendants and your descendants forever.’ ”

Then David got up and left, while Jonathan went back to the city.

21

<sup>1</sup> David went to Ahimelech the priest in Nob. Ahimelech was shaking with fear when he met David, and said to him, “Why are you by yourself with no one accompanying you?”

<sup>2</sup> David replied to Ahimelech the priest, "The king instructed me to do something, but he said to me, 'Don't let anyone know the reason I am sending you or the instructions I have given you.' I have told my soldiers to wait at a certain place.

<sup>3</sup> Now what do you have at your disposal? Give me five loaves of bread, or whatever can be found."

<sup>4</sup> The priest replied to David, "I don't have any ordinary bread at my disposal. Only holy bread is available, and then only if your soldiers have abstained from sexual relations with women."

<sup>5</sup> David said to the priest, "Certainly women have been kept away from us, just as on previous occasions when I have set out. The soldiers' equipment is holy, even on an ordinary journey. How much more so will they be holy today, along with their equipment!"

<sup>6</sup> So the priest gave him holy bread, for there was no bread there other than the bread of the Presence. It had been removed from before the LORD in order to replace it with hot bread on the day it had been taken away.

<sup>7</sup> (One of Saul's servants was there that day, detained before the LORD | strong="H3069". His name was Doeg the Edomite, who was in charge of Saul's shepherds.)

<sup>8</sup> David said to Ahimelech, "Is there no sword or spear here at your disposal? I don't have my own sword or equipment in hand due to the urgency of the king's instructions."

David Goes to Gath

<sup>9</sup> The priest replied, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you struck down in the valley of Elah, is wrapped in a garment behind the ephod. If you wish, take it for yourself. Other than that, there's nothing here." David said, "There's nothing like it! Give it to me!"

<sup>10</sup> So on that day David arose and fled from Saul. He went to King Achish of Gath.

<sup>11</sup> The servants of Achish said to him, "Isn't this David, the king of the land? Isn't he the one that they sing about when they dance, saying, 'Saul struck down his thousands, But David his tens of thousands?'"

<sup>12</sup> David thought about what they said and was very afraid of King Achish of Gath.

<sup>13</sup> He altered his behavior in their presence. Since he was in their power, he pretended to be insane, making marks on the doors of the gate and letting his saliva run down his beard.

<sup>14</sup> Achish said to his servants, "Look at this madman! Why did you bring him to me?"

<sup>15</sup> Do I have a shortage of fools, that you have brought me this man to display his insanity in front of me? Should this man enter my house?"

22

<sup>1</sup> So David left there and escaped to the cave of Adullam. When his brothers and the rest of his father's family learned about it, they went down there to him.

<sup>2</sup> All those who were in trouble or owed someone money or were discontented gathered around him, and he became their leader. He had about four hundred men with him.

<sup>3</sup> Then David went from there to Mizpah in Moab, where he said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and mother stay with you until I know what God is going to do for me."

<sup>4</sup> So he had them stay with the king of Moab; they stayed with him the whole time that David was in the stronghold.

<sup>5</sup> Then Gad the prophet said to David, "Don't stay in the stronghold. Go to the land of Judah." So David left and went to the forest of Hereth.

Saul Executes the Priests

<sup>6</sup> But Saul found out the whereabouts of David and the men who were with him. Now Saul was sitting at Gibeah under the tamarisk tree at an elevated location with his spear in hand and all his servants stationed around him.

<sup>7</sup> Saul said to his servants who were stationed around him, "Listen up, you Benjaminites! Is Jesse's son giving fields and vineyards to all of you? Or is he making all of you commanders and officers?"

<sup>8</sup> For all of you have conspired against me! No one informs me when my own son makes an agreement with this son of Jesse! Not one of you feels sorry for me or informs me that my own son has commissioned my own servant to hide in ambush against me, as is the case today!"

<sup>9</sup> But Doeg the Edomite, who had stationed himself with the servants of Saul, replied, "I saw this son of Jesse come to Ahimelech son of Ahitub at Nob.

<sup>10</sup> He inquired of the LORD for him and gave him provisions. He also gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

<sup>11</sup> Then the king arranged for a meeting with the priest Ahimelech son of Ahitub and all the priests of his father's house who were at Nob. They all came to the king.

<sup>12</sup> Then Saul said, "Listen, son of Ahitub." He replied, "Here I am, my lord."

<sup>13</sup> Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired against me, you and this son of Jesse? You gave him bread and a sword and inquired of God on his behalf, so that he opposes me and waits in ambush, as is the case today!"

<sup>14</sup> Ahimelech replied to the king, "Who among all your servants is faithful like David? He is the king's son-in-law, the leader of your bodyguard, and honored in your house!

<sup>15</sup> Was it just today that I began to inquire of God on his behalf? Far be it from me! The king should not accuse his servant or any of my father's house. For your servant is not aware of all this - not in whole or in part!"

<sup>16</sup> But the king said, "You will surely die, Ahimelech, you and all your father's house!

<sup>17</sup> Then the king said to the messengers who were stationed beside him, "Turn and kill the priests of the LORD, for they too have sided with David! They knew he was fleeing, but they did not inform me." But the king's servants refused to harm the priests of the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> Then the king said to Doeg, "You turn and strike down the priests!" So Doeg the Edomite turned and struck down the priests. He killed on that day eighty-five men who wore the linen ephod.

<sup>19</sup> As for Nob, the city of the priests, he struck down with the sword men and women, children and infants, oxen, donkeys, and sheep - all with the sword.

<sup>22</sup> Then David said to Abiathar, "I knew that day when Doeg the Edomite was there that he would certainly tell Saul! I am guilty of all the deaths in your father's house!

<sup>23</sup> Stay with me. Don't be afraid! Whoever seeks my life is seeking your life as well. You are secure with me."

<sup>2</sup> So David asked the LORD, "Should I go and strike down these Philistines?" The LORD said to David, "Go, strike down the Philistines and deliver Keilah."

<sup>3</sup> But David's men said to him, "We are afraid while we are still here in Judah! What will it be like if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?"

<sup>4</sup> So David asked the LORD once again. But again the LORD replied, “Arise, go down to Keilah, for I will give the Philistines into your hand.”

<sup>5</sup> So David and his men went to Keilah and fought the Philistines. He took away their cattle and thoroughly defeated them. David delivered the inhabitants of Keilah.

David Eludes Saul Again

<sup>6</sup> Now when Abiathar son of Ahimelech had fled to David at Keilah, he had brought with him an ephod.

<sup>7</sup> When Saul was told that David had come to Keilah, Saul said, “God has delivered him into my hand, for he has boxed himself into a corner by entering a city with two barred gates.”

<sup>8</sup> So Saul mustered all his army to go down to Keilah and besiege David and his men.

<sup>9</sup> When David realized that Saul was planning to harm him, he told Abiathar the priest, “Bring the ephod!”

<sup>10</sup> Then David said, “O LORD God of Israel, your servant has clearly heard that Saul is planning to come to Keilah to destroy the city because of me.

<sup>11</sup> Will the leaders of Keilah deliver me into his hand? Will Saul come down as your servant has heard? O LORD God of Israel, please inform your servant!”

Then the LORD said, “He will come down.”

<sup>12</sup> David asked, “Will the leaders of Keilah deliver me and my men into Saul’s hand?” The LORD said, “They will deliver you over.”

<sup>13</sup> So David and his men, who numbered about six hundred, set out and left Keilah; they moved around from one place to another. When told that David had escaped from Keilah, Saul called a halt to his expedition.

<sup>14</sup> David stayed in the strongholds that were in the desert and in the hill country of the desert of Ziph. Saul looked for him all the time, but God did not deliver David into his hand.

<sup>16</sup> Then Jonathan son of Saul left and went to David at Horesh. He encouraged him through God.

<sup>17</sup> He said to him, “Don’t be afraid! For the hand of my father Saul cannot find you. You will rule over Israel, and I will be your second in command. Even my father Saul realizes this.”

<sup>18</sup> When the two of them had made a covenant before the LORD, David stayed on at Horesh, but Jonathan went to his house.

<sup>19</sup> Then the Ziphites went up to Saul at Gibeah and said, “Isn’t David hiding among us in the strongholds at Horesh on the hill of Hakilah, south of Jeshimon?”

<sup>20</sup> Now at your own discretion, O king, come down. Delivering him into the king’s hand will be our responsibility.”

<sup>21</sup> Saul replied, “May you be blessed by the LORD, for you have had compassion on me.

<sup>22</sup> Go and make further arrangements. Determine precisely where he is and who has seen him there, for I am told that he is extremely cunning.

<sup>23</sup> Locate precisely all the places where he hides and return to me with dependable information. Then I will go with you. If he is in the land, I will find him among all the thousands of Judah.”

<sup>24</sup> So they left and went to Ziph ahead of Saul. Now David and his men were in the desert of Maon, in the Arabah to the south of Jeshimon.

<sup>25</sup> Saul and his men went to look for him. But David was informed and went down to the rock and stayed in the desert of Maon. When Saul heard about it, he pursued David in the desert of Maon.

<sup>26</sup> Saul went on one side of the mountain, while David and his men went on the other side of the mountain. David was hurrying to get away from Saul, but Saul and his men were surrounding David and his men so they could capture them.

<sup>27</sup> But a messenger came to Saul saying, "Come quickly, for the Philistines have raided the land!"

<sup>28</sup> So Saul stopped pursuing David and went to confront the Philistines. Therefore that place is called Sela Hammahlekoth.

<sup>29</sup> Then David went up from there and stayed in the strongholds of En Gedi.

24

<sup>3</sup> He came to the sheepfolds by the road, where there was a cave. Saul went into it to relieve himself.

Now David and his men were sitting in the recesses of the cave.

<sup>4</sup> David's men said to him, "This is the day about which the LORD said to you, 'I will give your enemy into your hand, and you can do to him whatever seems appropriate to you.' " So David got up and quietly cut off an edge of Saul's robe.

<sup>5</sup> Afterward David's conscience bothered him because he had cut off an edge of Saul's robe.

<sup>6</sup> He said to his men, "May the LORD | strong="H3069" keep me far away from doing such a thing to my lord, who is the LORD's | strong="H3069" chosen one, by extending my hand against him. After all, he is the LORD's | strong="H3069" chosen one."

<sup>8</sup> Afterward David got up and went out of the cave. He called out after Saul, "My lord, O king!" When Saul looked behind him, David kneeled down and bowed with his face to the ground.

<sup>9</sup> David said to Saul, "Why do you pay attention when men say, 'David is seeking to do you harm'?"

<sup>10</sup> Today your own eyes see how the LORD delivered you - this very day - into my hands in the cave. Some told me to kill you, but I had pity on you and said, 'I will not extend my hand against my lord, for he is the LORD's chosen one.'

<sup>11</sup> Look, my father, and see the edge of your robe in my hand! When I cut off the edge of your robe, I didn't kill you. So realize and understand that I am not planning evil or rebellion. Even though I have not sinned against you, you are waiting in ambush to take my life.

<sup>12</sup> May the LORD judge between the two of us, and may the LORD vindicate me over you, but my hand will not be against you.

<sup>13</sup> It's like the old proverb says: 'From evil people evil proceeds.' But my hand will not be against you.

<sup>14</sup> Who has the king of Israel come out after? Who is it that you are pursuing? A dead dog? A single flea?

<sup>15</sup> May the LORD be our judge and arbiter. May he see and arbitrate my case and deliver me from your hands!"

<sup>16</sup> When David finished speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, "Is that your voice, my son David?" Then Saul wept loudly.

<sup>17</sup> He said to David, "You are more innocent than I, for you have treated me well, even though I have tried to harm you!"

<sup>18</sup> You have explained today how you have treated me well. The LORD delivered me into your hand, but you did not kill me.

<sup>19</sup> Now if a man finds his enemy, does he send him on his way in good shape? May the LORD repay you with good this day for what you have done to me.

<sup>20</sup> Now look, I realize that you will in fact be king and that the kingdom of Israel will be established in your hand.

<sup>21</sup> So now swear to me in the LORD's name that you will not kill my descendants after me or destroy my name from the house of my father."

<sup>22</sup> David promised Saul this on oath. Then Saul went to his house, and David and his men went up to the stronghold.

25

David Marries Abigail the Widow of Nabal

<sup>2</sup> There was a man in Maon whose business was in Carmel. This man was very wealthy; he owned three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. At that time he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

<sup>3</sup> The man's name was Nabal, and his wife's name was Abigail. She was both wise and beautiful, but the man was harsh and his deeds were evil. He was a Calebite.

<sup>5</sup> he sent ten servants, saying to them, "Go up to Carmel to see Nabal and give him greetings in my name.

<sup>6</sup> Then you will say to my brother, "Peace to you and your house! Peace to all that is yours!

<sup>7</sup> Now I hear that they are shearing sheep for you. When your shepherds were with us, we neither insulted them nor harmed them the whole time they were in Carmel.

<sup>8</sup> Ask your own servants; they can tell you! May my servants find favor in your sight, for we have come at the time of a holiday. Please provide us – your servants and your son David – with whatever you can spare."

<sup>9</sup> So David's servants went and spoke all these words to Nabal in David's name. Then they paused.

<sup>10</sup> But Nabal responded to David's servants, "Who is David, and who is this son of Jesse? This is a time when many servants are breaking away from their masters!

<sup>11</sup> Should I take my bread and my water and my meat that I have slaughtered for my shearers and give them to these men? I don't even know where they came from!"

<sup>12</sup> So David's servants went on their way. When they had returned, they came and told David all these things.

<sup>13</sup> Then David instructed his men, "Each of you strap on your sword!" So each one strapped on his sword, and David also strapped on his sword. About four hundred men followed David up, while two hundred stayed behind with the equipment.

<sup>14</sup> But one of the servants told Nabal's wife Abigail, "David sent messengers from the desert to greet our lord, but he screamed at them.

<sup>15</sup> These men were very good to us. They did not insult us, nor did we sustain any loss during the entire time we were together in the field.

<sup>16</sup> Both night and day they were a protective wall for us the entire time we were with them, while we were tending our flocks.

<sup>17</sup> Now be aware of this, and see what you can do. For disaster has been planned for our lord and his entire household. He is such a wicked person that no one tells him anything!"

<sup>18</sup> So Abigail quickly took two hundred loaves of bread, two containers of wine, five prepared sheep, five seahs of roasted grain, a hundred bunches of raisins, and two hundred lumps of pressed figs. She loaded them on donkeys

<sup>19</sup> and said to her servants, "Go on ahead of me. I will come after you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

<sup>20</sup> Riding on her donkey, she went down under cover of the mountain. David and his men were coming down to meet her, and she encountered them.

<sup>21</sup> Now David had been thinking, "In vain I guarded everything that belonged to this man in the desert. I didn't take anything from him. But he has repaid my good with evil.

<sup>22</sup> God will severely punish David, if I leave alive until morning even one male from all those who belong to him!"

<sup>23</sup> When Abigail saw David, she got down quickly from the donkey, threw herself down before David, and bowed to the ground.

<sup>24</sup> Falling at his feet, she said, "My lord, I accept all the guilt! But please let your female servant speak with my lord! Please listen to the words of your servant!

<sup>25</sup> My lord should not pay attention to this wicked man Nabal. He simply lives up to his name! His name means 'fool,' and he is indeed foolish! But I, your servant, did not see the servants my lord sent.

<sup>26</sup> "Now, my lord, as surely as the LORD lives and as surely as you live, it is the LORD who has kept you from shedding blood and taking matters into your own hands. Now may your enemies and those who seek to harm my lord be like Nabal.

<sup>27</sup> Now let this present that your servant has brought to my lord be given to the servants who follow my lord.

<sup>28</sup> Please forgive the sin of your servant, for the LORD will certainly establish the house of my lord, because my lord fights the battles of the LORD. May no evil be found in you all your days!

<sup>29</sup> When someone sets out to chase you and to take your life, the life of my lord will be wrapped securely in the bag of the living by the LORD your God. But he will sling away the lives of your enemies from the sling's pocket!

<sup>30</sup> The LORD will do for my lord everything that he promised you, and he will make you a leader over Israel.

<sup>31</sup> Your conscience will not be overwhelmed with guilt for having poured out innocent blood and for having taken matters into your own hands. When the LORD | strong="H0113" has granted my lord success, please remember your servant."

<sup>32</sup> Then David said to Abigail, "Praised be the LORD, the God of Israel, who has sent you this day to meet me!

<sup>33</sup> Praised be your good judgment! May you yourself be rewarded for having prevented me this day from shedding blood and taking matters into my own hands!

<sup>34</sup> Otherwise, as surely as the LORD, the God of Israel, lives – he who has prevented me from harming you – if you had not come so quickly to meet me, by morning's light not even one male belonging to Nabal would have remained alive!"

<sup>35</sup> Then David took from her hand what she had brought to him. He said to her, "Go back to your home in peace. Be assured that I have listened to you and responded favorably."

<sup>36</sup> When Abigail went back to Nabal, he was holding a banquet in his house like that of the king. Nabal was having a good time and was very intoxicated. She told him absolutely nothing until morning's light.

<sup>37</sup> In the morning, when Nabal was sober, his wife told him about these matters. He had a stroke and was paralyzed.

<sup>38</sup> After about ten days the LORD struck Nabal down and he died.

<sup>39</sup> When David heard that Nabal had died, he said, “Praised be the LORD who has vindicated me and avenged the insult that I suffered from Nabal! The LORD has kept his servant from doing evil, and he has repaid Nabal for his evil deeds.” Then David sent word to Abigail and asked her to become his wife.

<sup>40</sup> So the servants of David went to Abigail at Carmel and said to her, “David has sent us to you to bring you back to be his wife.”

<sup>41</sup> She arose, bowed her face toward the ground, and said, “Your female servant, like a lowly servant, will wash the feet of the servants of my lord.”

<sup>43</sup> David had also married Ahinoam from Jezreel; the two of them became his wives.

26

<sup>2</sup> So Saul arose and went down to the desert of Ziph, accompanied by three thousand select men of Israel, to look for David in the desert of Ziph.

<sup>3</sup> Saul camped by the road on the hill of Hakilah near Jeshimon, but David was staying in the desert. When he realized that Saul had come to the desert to find him,

<sup>5</sup> So David set out and went to the place where Saul was camped. David saw the place where Saul and Abner son of Ner, the general in command of his army, were sleeping. Now Saul was lying in the entrenchment, and the army was camped all around him.

<sup>6</sup> David said to Ahimelech the Hittite and Abishai son of Zeruiah, Joab’s brother, “Who will go down with me to Saul in the camp?” Abishai replied, “I will go down with you.”

<sup>7</sup> So David and Abishai approached the army at night and found Saul lying asleep in the entrenchment with his spear stuck in the ground by his head. Abner and the army were lying all around him.

<sup>8</sup> Abishai said to David, “Today God has delivered your enemy into your hands. Now let me drive the spear right through him into the ground with one swift jab! A second jab won’t be necessary!”

<sup>9</sup> But David said to Abishai, “Don’t kill him! Who can extend his hand against the LORD’s chosen one and remain guiltless?”

<sup>10</sup> David went on to say, “As the LORD lives, the LORD himself will strike him down. Either his day will come and he will die, or he will go down into battle and be swept away.

<sup>11</sup> But may the LORD prevent me from extending my hand against the LORD’s chosen one! Now take the spear by Saul’s head and the jug of water, and let’s get out of here!”

<sup>12</sup> So David took the spear and the jug of water by Saul’s head, and they got out of there. No one saw them or was aware of their presence or woke up. All of them were asleep, for the LORD had caused a deep sleep to fall on them.

<sup>13</sup> Then David crossed to the other side and stood on the top of the hill some distance away; there was a considerable distance between them.

<sup>14</sup> David called to the army and to Abner son of Ner, “Won’t you answer, Abner?” Abner replied, “Who are you, that you have called to the king?”

<sup>15</sup> David said to Abner, “Aren’t you a man? After all, who is like you in Israel? Why then haven’t you protected your lord the king? One of the soldiers came to kill your lord the king.

<sup>16</sup> This failure on your part isn't good! As surely as the LORD lives, you people who have not protected your lord, the LORD's chosen one, are as good as dead! Now look where the king's spear and the jug of water that was by his head are!"

<sup>17</sup> When Saul recognized David's voice, he said, "Is that your voice, my son David?" David replied, "Yes, it's my voice, my lord the king."

<sup>18</sup> He went on to say, "Why is my lord chasing his servant? What have I done? What wrong have I done?"

<sup>19</sup> So let my lord the king now listen to the words of his servant. If the LORD has incited you against me, may he take delight in an offering. But if men have instigated this, may they be cursed before the LORD! For they have driven me away this day from being united with the LORD's inheritance, saying, 'Go on, serve other gods!'

<sup>20</sup> Now don't let my blood fall to the ground away from the LORD's presence, for the king of Israel has gone out to look for a flea the way one looks for a partridge in the hill country."

<sup>21</sup> Saul replied, "I have sinned. Come back, my son David. I won't harm you, for you treated my life with value this day. I have behaved foolishly and have made a very terrible mistake!"

<sup>23</sup> The LORD rewards each man for his integrity and loyalty. Even though today the LORD delivered you into my hand, I was not willing to extend my hand against the LORD's chosen one.

<sup>24</sup> In the same way that I valued your life this day, may the LORD value my life and deliver me from all danger."

<sup>25</sup> Saul replied to David, "May you be rewarded, my son David! You will without question be successful!" So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

27

<sup>1</sup> David thought to himself, "One of these days I'm going to be swept away by the hand of Saul! There is nothing better for me than to escape to the land of the Philistines. Then Saul will despair of searching for me through all the territory of Israel and I will escape from his hand."

<sup>4</sup> When Saul learned that David had fled to Gath, he did not mount a new search for him.

<sup>5</sup> David said to Achish, "If I have found favor with you, let me be given a place in one of the country towns so that I can live there. Why should your servant settle in the royal city with you?"

<sup>6</sup> So Achish gave him Ziklag on that day. (For that reason Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah until this very day.)

<sup>7</sup> The length of time that David lived in the Philistine countryside was a year and four months.

<sup>8</sup> Then David and his men went up and raided the Geshurites, the Girzites, and the Amalekites. (They had been living in that land for a long time, from the approach to Shur as far as the land of Egypt.)

<sup>9</sup> When David would attack a district, he would leave neither man nor woman alive. He would take sheep, cattle, donkeys, camels, and clothing and would then go back to Achish.

<sup>10</sup> When Achish would ask, “Where did you raid today?” David would say, “The Negev of Judah” or “The Negev of Jeharmeel” or “The Negev of the Kenites.”

<sup>11</sup> Neither man nor woman would David leave alive so as to bring them back to Gath. He was thinking, “This way they can’t tell on us, saying, ‘This is what David did.’ ” Such was his practice the entire time that he lived in the country of the Philistines.

<sup>12</sup> So Achish trusted David, thinking to himself, “He is really hated among his own people in Israel! From now on he will be my servant.”

28

<sup>1</sup> In those days the Philistines gathered their troops for war in order to fight Israel. Achish said to David, “You should fully understand that you and your men must go with me into the battle.”

<sup>2</sup> David replied to Achish, “That being the case, you will come to know what your servant can do!” Achish said to David, “Then I will make you my bodyguard from now on.”

<sup>3</sup> Now Samuel had died, and all Israel had lamented over him and had buried him in Ramah, his hometown. In the meantime Saul had removed the mediums and magicians from the land.

<sup>6</sup> So Saul inquired of the LORD, but the LORD did not answer him – not by dreams nor by Urim nor by the prophets.

<sup>7</sup> So Saul instructed his servants, “Find me a woman who is a medium, so that I may go to her and inquire of her.” His servants replied to him, “There is a woman who is a medium in Endor.”

<sup>8</sup> So Saul disguised himself and put on other clothing and left, accompanied by two of his men. They came to the woman at night and said, “Use your ritual pit to conjure up for me the one I tell you.”

<sup>9</sup> But the woman said to him, “Look, you are aware of what Saul has done; he has removed the mediums and magicians from the land! Why are you trapping me so you can put me to death?”

<sup>10</sup> But Saul swore an oath to her by the LORD, “As surely as the LORD lives, you will not incur guilt in this matter!”

<sup>11</sup> The woman replied, “Who is it that I should bring up for you?” He said, “Bring up for me Samuel.”

<sup>12</sup> When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out loudly. The woman said to Saul, “Why have you deceived me? You are Saul!”

<sup>13</sup> The king said to her, “Don’t be afraid! What have you seen?” The woman replied to Saul, “I have seen one like a god coming up from the ground!”

<sup>14</sup> He said to her, “What about his appearance?” She said, “An old man is coming up! He is wrapped in a robe!”

Then Saul realized it was Samuel, and he bowed his face toward the ground and kneeled down.

<sup>15</sup> Samuel said to Saul, “Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?” Saul replied, “I am terribly troubled! The Philistines are fighting against me and God has turned away from me. He does not answer me – not by the prophets nor by dreams. So I have called on you to tell me what I should do.”

<sup>16</sup> Samuel said, “Why are you asking me, now that the LORD has turned away from you and has become your enemy?”

<sup>17</sup> The LORD has done exactly as I prophesied! The LORD has torn the kingdom from your hand and has given it to your neighbor David!

<sup>18</sup> Since you did not obey the LORD and did not carry out his fierce anger against the Amalekites, the LORD has done this thing to you today.

<sup>19</sup> The LORD will hand you and Israel over to the Philistines! Tomorrow both you and your sons will be with me. The LORD will also hand the army of Israel over to the Philistines!"

<sup>20</sup> Saul quickly fell full length on the ground and was very afraid because of Samuel's words. He was completely drained of energy, not having eaten anything all that day and night.

<sup>21</sup> When the woman came to Saul and saw how terrified he was, she said to him, "Your servant has done what you asked. I took my life into my own hands and did what you told me.

<sup>22</sup> Now it's your turn to listen to your servant! Let me set before you a bit of bread so that you can eat. When you regain your strength, you can go on your way."

<sup>23</sup> But he refused, saying, "I won't eat!" Both his servants and the woman urged him to eat, so he gave in. He got up from the ground and sat down on the bed.

<sup>24</sup> Now the woman had a well-fed calf at her home that she quickly slaughtered. Taking some flour, she kneaded bread and baked it without leaven.

<sup>25</sup> She brought it to Saul and his servants, and they ate. Then they arose and left that same night.

29

<sup>3</sup> The leaders of the Philistines asked, "What about these Hebrews?" Achish said to the leaders of the Philistines, "Isn't this David, the servant of King Saul of Israel, who has been with me for quite some time? I have found no fault with him from the day of his defection until the present time!"

<sup>4</sup> But the leaders of the Philistines became angry with him and said to him, "Send the man back! Let him return to the place that you assigned him! Don't let him go down with us into the battle, for he might become our adversary in the battle. What better way to please his lord than with the heads of these men?"

<sup>5</sup> Isn't this David, of whom they sang as they danced, 'Saul has struck down his thousands, but David his tens of thousands'?"

<sup>6</sup> So Achish summoned David and said to him, "As surely as the LORD lives, you are an honest man, and I am glad to have you serving with me in the army. I have found no fault with you from the day that you first came to me until the present time. But in the opinion of the leaders, you are not reliable.

<sup>7</sup> So turn and leave in peace. You must not do anything that the leaders of the Philistines consider improper!"

<sup>8</sup> But David said to Achish, "What have I done? What have you found in your servant from the day that I first came into your presence until the present time, that I shouldn't go and fight the enemies of my lord the king?"

<sup>9</sup> Achish replied to David, "I am convinced that you are as reliable as the angel of God! However, the leaders of the Philistines have said, 'He must not go up with us in the battle.'

<sup>10</sup> So get up early in the morning along with the servants of your lord who have come with you. When you get up early in the morning, as soon as it is light enough to see, leave.”

<sup>11</sup> So David and his men got up early in the morning to return to the land of the Philistines, but the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

30

<sup>1</sup> On the third day David and his men came to Ziklag. Now the Amalekites had raided the Negev and Ziklag. They attacked Ziklag and burned it.

<sup>2</sup> They took captive the women who were in it, from the youngest to the oldest, but they did not kill anyone. They simply carried them off and went on their way.

<sup>4</sup> Then David and the men who were with him wept loudly until they could weep no more.

<sup>6</sup> David was very upset, for the men were thinking of stoning him; each man grieved bitterly over his sons and daughters. But David drew strength from the LORD his God.

<sup>7</sup> Then David said to the priest Abiathar son of Ahimelech, “Bring me the ephod.” So Abiathar brought the ephod to David.

<sup>8</sup> David inquired of the LORD, saying, “Should I pursue this raiding band? Will I overtake them?” He said to him, “Pursue, for you will certainly overtake them and carry out a rescue!”

<sup>9</sup> So David went, accompanied by his six hundred men. When he came to the Wadi Besor, those who were in the rear stayed there.

<sup>10</sup> David and four hundred men continued the pursuit, but two hundred men who were too exhausted to cross the Wadi Besor stayed there.

<sup>11</sup> Then they found an Egyptian in the field and brought him to David. They gave him bread to eat and water to drink.

<sup>12</sup> They gave him a slice of pressed figs and two bunches of raisins to eat. This greatly refreshed him, for he had not eaten food or drunk water for three days and three nights.

<sup>13</sup> David said to him, “To whom do you belong, and where are you from?” The young man said, “I am an Egyptian, the servant of an Amalekite man. My master abandoned me when I was ill for three days.

<sup>14</sup> We conducted a raid on the Negev of the Kerethites, on the area of Judah, and on the Negev of Caleb. We burned Ziklag.”

<sup>15</sup> David said to him, “Can you take us down to this raiding party?” He said, “Swear to me by God that you will not kill me or hand me over to my master, and I will take you down to this raiding party.”

<sup>16</sup> So he took David down, and they found them spread out over the land. They were eating and drinking and enjoying themselves because of all the loot they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah.

<sup>18</sup> David retrieved everything the Amalekites had taken; he also rescued his two wives.

<sup>20</sup> David took all the flocks and herds and drove them in front of the rest of the animals. People were saying, “This is David's plunder!”

<sup>21</sup> Then David approached the two hundred men who had been too exhausted to go with him, those whom they had left at the Wadi Besor. They went out to meet David and the people who were with him. When David approached the people, he asked how they were doing.

<sup>22</sup> But all the evil and worthless men among those who had gone with David said, "Since they didn't go with us, we won't give them any of the loot we retrieved! They may take only their wives and children. Let them lead them away and be gone!"

<sup>23</sup> But David said, "No! You shouldn't do this, my brothers. Look at what the LORD has given us! He has protected us and has delivered into our hands the raiding party that came against us.

<sup>24</sup> Who will listen to you in this matter? The portion of the one who went down into the battle will be the same as the portion of the one who remained with the equipment! Let their portions be the same!"

<sup>25</sup> From that time onward it was a binding ordinance for Israel, right up to the present time.

<sup>26</sup> When David came to Ziklag, he sent some of the plunder to the elders of Judah who were his friends, saying, "Here's a gift for you from the looting of the LORD's enemies!"

<sup>27</sup> The gift was for those in the following locations: for those in Bethel, Ramoth Negev, and Jattir;

<sup>29</sup> and Racal; for those in the cities of the Jerahmeelites and Kenites;

31

<sup>3</sup> Saul himself was in the thick of the battle; the archers spotted him and wounded him severely.

<sup>4</sup> Saul said to his armor bearer, "Draw your sword and stab me with it! Otherwise these uncircumcised people will come, stab me, and torture me." But his armor bearer refused to do it, because he was very afraid. So Saul took his sword and fell on it.

<sup>5</sup> When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his own sword and died with him.

<sup>6</sup> So Saul, his three sons, his armor bearer, and all his men died together that day.

<sup>7</sup> When the men of Israel who were in the valley and across the Jordan saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned the cities and fled. The Philistines came and occupied them.

<sup>12</sup> all their warriors set out and traveled throughout the night. They took Saul's corpse and the corpses of his sons from the city wall of Beth Shan and went to Jabesh, where they burned them.

<sup>13</sup> They took the bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh; then they fasted for seven days.

2 Samuel

David Learns of the Deaths of Saul and Jonathan

<sup>1</sup> After the death of Saul, when David had returned from defeating the Amalekites, he stayed at Ziklag for two days.

<sup>3</sup> David asked him, "Where are you coming from?" He replied, "I have escaped from the camp of Israel."

<sup>4</sup> David inquired, "How were things going? Tell me!" He replied, "The people fled from the battle and many of them fell dead. Even Saul and his son Jonathan are dead!"

<sup>5</sup> David said to the young man who was telling him this, "How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?"

<sup>6</sup> The young man who was telling him this said, "I just happened to be on Mount Gilboa and came across Saul leaning on his spear for support. The chariots and leaders of the horsemen were in hot pursuit of him.

<sup>7</sup> When he turned around and saw me, he called out to me. I answered, 'Here I am!'

<sup>8</sup> He asked me, 'Who are you?' I told him, 'I'm an Amalekite.'

<sup>9</sup> He said to me, 'Stand over me and finish me off! I'm very dizzy, even though I'm still alive.'

<sup>10</sup> So I stood over him and put him to death, since I knew that he couldn't live in such a condition. Then I took the crown which was on his head and the bracelet which was on his arm. I have brought them here to my lord."

<sup>11</sup> David then grabbed his own clothes and tore them, as did all the men who were with him.

<sup>12</sup> They lamented and wept and fasted until evening because Saul, his son Jonathan, the LORD's people, and the house of Israel had fallen by the sword.

<sup>13</sup> David said to the young man who told this to him, "Where are you from?" He replied, "I am an Amalekite, the son of a resident foreigner."

<sup>14</sup> David replied to him, "How is it that you were not afraid to reach out your hand to destroy the LORD's anointed?"

<sup>15</sup> Then David called one of the soldiers and said, "Come here and strike him down!" So he struck him down, and he died.

<sup>16</sup> David said to him, "Your blood be on your own head! Your own mouth has testified against you, saying 'I have put the LORD's anointed to death.' "

David's Tribute to Saul and Jonathan

<sup>18</sup> (He gave instructions that the people of Judah should be taught "The Bow." Indeed, it is written down in the Book of Yashar.)

<sup>19</sup> The beauty of Israel lies slain on your high places!
How the mighty have fallen!

<sup>20</sup> Don't report it in Gath, don't spread the news in the streets of Ashkelon, or the daughters of the Philistines will rejoice,
the daughters of the uncircumcised will celebrate!

<sup>21</sup> O mountains of Gilboa, may there be no dew or rain on you, nor fields of grain offerings!
For it was there that the shield of warriors was defiled;

the shield of Saul lies neglected without oil.

<sup>22</sup> From the blood of the slain, from the fat of warriors, the bow of Jonathan was not turned away.
The sword of Saul never returned empty.

<sup>23</sup> Saul and Jonathan were greatly loved during their lives, and not even in their deaths were they separated.
They were swifter than eagles, stronger than lions.

<sup>24</sup> O daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet as well as jewelry, who put gold jewelry on your clothes.

<sup>25</sup> How the warriors have fallen
in the midst of battle!
Jonathan lies slain on your high places!

<sup>26</sup> I grieve over you, my brother Jonathan!

You were very dear to me.

Your love was more special to me than the love of women.

<sup>27</sup> How the warriors have fallen!
The weapons of war are destroyed!

2

<sup>3</sup> David also brought along the men who were with him, each with his family. They settled in the cities of Hebron.

<sup>4</sup> The men of Judah came and there they anointed David as king over the people of Judah.

David was told, "The people of Jabesh Gilead are the ones who buried Saul."

<sup>5</sup> So David sent messengers to the people of Jabesh Gilead and told them, "May you be blessed by the LORD because you have shown this kindness to your lord Saul by burying him.

<sup>6</sup> Now may the LORD show you true kindness! I also will reward you, because you have done this deed.

<sup>7</sup> Now be courageous and prove to be valiant warriors, for your lord Saul is dead. The people of Judah have anointed me as king over them."

David's Army Clashes with the Army of Saul

<sup>8</sup> Now Abner son of Ner, the general in command of Saul's army, had taken Saul's son Ish-bosheth and had brought him to Mahanaim.

<sup>9</sup> He appointed him king over Gilead, the Geshurites, Jezreel, Ephraim, Benjamin, and all Israel.

<sup>10</sup> Ish-bosheth son of Saul was forty years old when he began to rule over Israel. He ruled two years. However, the people of Judah followed David.

<sup>11</sup> David was king in Hebron over the people of Judah for seven and a half years.

<sup>12</sup> Then Abner son of Ner and the servants of Ish-bosheth son of Saul went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.

<sup>13</sup> Joab son of Zeruiah and the servants of David also went out and confronted them at the pool of Gibeon. One group stationed themselves on one side of the pool, and the other group on the other side of the pool.

<sup>14</sup> Abner said to Joab, "Let the soldiers get up and fight before us." Joab said, "So be it!"

<sup>15</sup> So they got up and crossed over by number: twelve belonging to Benjamin and to Ish-bosheth son of Saul, and twelve from the servants of David.

<sup>17</sup> Now the battle was very severe that day; Abner and the men of Israel were overcome by David's soldiers.

<sup>20</sup> Then Abner turned and asked, "Is that you, Asahel?" He replied, "Yes it is!"

<sup>22</sup> So Abner spoke again to Asahel, "Turn aside from following me! I do not want to strike you to the ground. How then could I show my face in the presence of Joab your brother?"

<sup>23</sup> But Asahel refused to turn aside. So Abner struck him in the abdomen with the back end of his spear. The spear came out his back; Asahel collapsed on the spot and died there right before Abner. Everyone who now comes to the place where Asahel fell dead pauses in respect.

<sup>26</sup> Then Abner called out to Joab, "Must the sword devour forever? Don't you realize that this will turn bitter in the end? When will you tell the people to turn aside from pursuing their brothers?"

<sup>27</sup> Joab replied, "As surely as God lives, if you had not said this, it would have been morning before the people would have abandoned pursuit of their brothers!"

<sup>28</sup> Then Joab blew the ram's horn and all the people stopped in their tracks. They stopped chasing Israel and ceased fighting.

<sup>29</sup> Abner and his men went through the Arabah all that night. They crossed the Jordan River and went through the whole region of Bitron and came to Mahanaim.

<sup>31</sup> But David's soldiers had slaughtered the Benjaminites and Abner's men – in all, 360 men had died!

<sup>32</sup> They took Asahel's body and buried him in his father's tomb at Bethlehem. Joab and his men then traveled all that night and reached Hebron by dawn.

3

<sup>1</sup> However, the war was prolonged between the house of Saul and the house of David. David was becoming steadily stronger, while the house of Saul was becoming increasingly weaker.

<sup>2</sup> Now sons were born to David in Hebron. His firstborn was Amnon, born to Ahinoam the Jezreelite.

<sup>3</sup> His second son was Kileab, born to Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite. His third son was Absalom, the son of Maacah daughter of King Talmai of Geshur.

<sup>4</sup> His fourth son was Adonijah, the son of Haggith. His fifth son was Shephatiah, the son of Abitail.

<sup>5</sup> His sixth son was Ithream, born to David's wife Eglah. These sons were all born to David in Hebron.

Abner Defects to David's Camp

<sup>6</sup> As the war continued between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner was becoming more influential in the house of Saul.

<sup>7</sup> Now Saul had a concubine named Rizpah daughter of Aiah. Ish-bosheth said to Abner, "Why did you have sexual relations with my father's concubine?"

<sup>8</sup> These words of Ish-bosheth really angered Abner and he said, "Am I the head of a dog that belongs to Judah? This very day I am demonstrating loyalty to the house of Saul your father and to his relatives and his friends! I have not betrayed you into the hand of David. Yet you have accused me of sinning with this woman today!"

<sup>9</sup> God will severely judge Abner if I do not do for David exactly what the LORD has promised him,

<sup>10</sup> namely, to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul and to establish the throne of David over Israel and over Judah all the way from Dan to Beer Sheba!"

<sup>11</sup> Ish-bosheth was unable to answer Abner with even a single word because he was afraid of him.

<sup>12</sup> Then Abner sent messengers to David saying, "To whom does the land belong? Make an agreement with me, and I will do whatever I can to cause all Israel to turn to you."

<sup>13</sup> So David said, "Good! I will make an agreement with you. I ask only one thing from you. You will not see my face unless you bring Saul's daughter Michal when you come to visit me."

<sup>17</sup> Abner advised the elders of Israel, "Previously you were wanting David to be your king.

<sup>18</sup> Act now! For the LORD has said to David, 'By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel from the Philistines and from all their enemies.' "

<sup>19</sup> Then Abner spoke privately with the Benjaminites. Abner also went to Hebron to inform David privately of all that Israel and the entire house of Benjamin had agreed to.

<sup>20</sup> When Abner, accompanied by twenty men, came to David in Hebron, David prepared a banquet for Abner and the men who were with him.

<sup>21</sup> Abner said to David, "Let me leave so that I may go and gather all Israel to my lord the king so that they may make an agreement with you. Then you will rule over all that you desire." So David sent Abner away, and he left in peace.

Abner Is Killed

<sup>22</sup> Now David's soldiers and Joab were coming back from a raid, bringing a great deal of plunder with them. Abner was no longer with David in Hebron, for David had sent him away and he had left in peace.

<sup>23</sup> When Joab and all the army that was with him arrived, Joab was told: "Abner the son of Ner came to the king; he sent him away, and he left in peace!"

<sup>24</sup> So Joab went to the king and said, "What have you done? Abner has come to you! Why would you send him away? Now he's gone on his way!"

<sup>25</sup> You know Abner the son of Ner! Surely he came here to spy on you and to determine when you leave and when you return and to discover everything that you are doing!"

<sup>26</sup> Then Joab left David and sent messengers after Abner. They brought him back from the well of Sirah. (But David was not aware of it.)

<sup>27</sup> When Abner returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside at the gate as if to speak privately with him. Joab then stabbed him in the abdomen and killed him, avenging the shed blood of his brother Asahel.

<sup>28</sup> When David later heard about this, he said, "I and my kingdom are forever innocent before the LORD of the shed blood of Abner son of Ner!

<sup>29</sup> May his blood whirl over the head of Joab and the entire house of his father! May the males of Joab's house never cease to have someone with a running sore or a skin disease or one who works at the spindle or one who falls by the sword or one who lacks food!"

"Should Abner have died like a fool?

<sup>34</sup> Your hands were not bound, and your feet were not put into irons.
You fell the way one falls before criminals."

All the people wept over him again.

<sup>35</sup> Then all the people came and encouraged David to eat food while it was still day. But David took an oath saying, "God will punish me severely if I taste bread or anything whatsoever before the sun sets!"

<sup>36</sup> All the people noticed this and it pleased them. In fact, everything the king did pleased all the people.

<sup>37</sup> All the people and all Israel realized on that day that the killing of Abner son of Ner was not done at the king's instigation.

<sup>38</sup> Then the king said to his servants, "Do you not realize that a great leader has fallen this day in Israel?"

<sup>39</sup> Today I am weak, even though I am anointed as king. These men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too much for me to bear! May the LORD punish appropriately the one who has done this evil thing!"

4

<sup>1</sup> When Ish-bosheth the son of Saul heard that Abner had died in Hebron, he was very disheartened, and all Israel was afraid.

<sup>2</sup> Now Saul's son had two men who were in charge of raiding units; one was named Baanah and the other Recab. They were sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, who was a Benjaminite. (Beeroth is regarded as belonging to Benjamin, <sup>3</sup> for the Beerothites fled to Gittaim and have remained there as resident foreigners until the present time.)

<sup>4</sup> Now Saul's son Jonathan had a son who was crippled in both feet. He was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan arrived from Jezreel. His nurse picked him up and fled, but in her haste to get away, he fell and was injured. Mephibosheth was his name.

<sup>6</sup> They entered the house under the pretense of getting wheat and mortally wounded him in the stomach. Then Recab and his brother Baanah escaped.

<sup>7</sup> They had entered the house while Ish-bosheth was resting on his bed in his bedroom. They mortally wounded him and then cut off his head. Taking his head, they traveled on the way of the Arabah all that night.

<sup>8</sup> They brought the head of Ish-bosheth to David in Hebron, saying to the king, "Look! The head of Ish-bosheth son of Saul, your enemy who sought your life! The LORD has granted vengeance to my lord the king this day against Saul and his descendants!"

<sup>9</sup> David replied to Recab and his brother Baanah, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, "As surely as the LORD lives, who has delivered my life from all adversity, <sup>10</sup> when someone told me that Saul was dead – even though he thought he was bringing good news – I seized him and killed him in Ziklag. That was the good news I gave to him!

<sup>11</sup> Surely when wicked men have killed an innocent man as he slept in his own house, should I not now require his blood from your hands and remove you from the earth?"

<sup>12</sup> So David issued orders to the soldiers and they put them to death. Then they cut off their hands and feet and hung them near the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth and buried it in the tomb of Abner in Hebron.

<sup>1</sup> All the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron saying, "Look, we are your very flesh and blood!

<sup>2</sup> In the past, when Saul was our king, you were the real leader in Israel. The LORD said to you, 'You will shepherd my people Israel; you will rule over Israel.' "

<sup>4</sup> David was thirty years old when he began to reign and he reigned for forty years.

<sup>5</sup> In Hebron he reigned over Judah for seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned for thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

David Occupies Jerusalem

<sup>6</sup> Then the king and his men advanced to Jerusalem against the Jebusites who lived in the land. The Jebusites said to David, "You cannot invade this place! Even the blind and the lame will turn you back, saying, 'David cannot invade this place!'"

<sup>8</sup> David said on that day, "Whoever attacks the Jebusites must approach the 'lame' and the 'blind' who are David's enemies by going through the water tunnel." For this reason it is said, "The blind and the lame cannot enter the palace."

<sup>10</sup> David's power grew steadily, for the LORD God who commands armies was with him.

<sup>12</sup> David realized that the LORD had established him as king over Israel and that he had elevated his kingdom for the sake of his people Israel.

Conflict with the Philistines

<sup>17</sup> When the Philistines heard that David had been designated king over Israel, they all went up to search for David. When David heard about it, he went down to the fortress.

<sup>18</sup> Now the Philistines had arrived and spread out in the valley of Rephaim.

<sup>19</sup> So David asked the LORD, "Should I march up against the Philistines? Will you hand them over to me?" The LORD said to David, "March up, for I will indeed hand the Philistines over to you."

<sup>20</sup> So David marched against Baal Perazim and defeated them there. Then he said, "The LORD has burst out against my enemies like water bursts out." So he called the name of that place Baal Perazim.

<sup>23</sup> So David asked the LORD what he should do. This time the LORD said to him, "Don't march straight up. Instead, circle around behind them and come against them opposite the trees.

<sup>2</sup> David and all the men who were with him traveled to Baalah in Judah to bring up from there the ark of God which is called by the name of the LORD of hosts, who sits enthroned between the cherubim that are on it.

<sup>3</sup> They loaded the ark of God on a new cart and carried it from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were guiding the new cart.

<sup>5</sup> while David and all Israel were energetically celebrating before the LORD, singing and playing various stringed instruments, tambourines, rattles, and cymbals.

<sup>6</sup> When they arrived at the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah reached out and grabbed hold of the ark of God, because the oxen stumbled.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD was so furious with Uzzah, he killed him on the spot for his negligence. He died right there beside the ark of God.

<sup>8</sup> David was angry because the LORD attacked Uzzah; so he called that place Perez Uzzah, which remains its name to this very day.

<sup>9</sup> David was afraid of the LORD that day and said, "How will the ark of the LORD ever come to me?"

<sup>11</sup> The ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite for three months. The LORD blessed Obed-Edom and all his family.

<sup>12</sup> David was told, "The LORD has blessed the family of Obed-Edom and everything he owns because of the ark of God." So David went and joyfully brought the ark of God from the house of Obed-Edom to the City of David.

<sup>13</sup> Those who carried the ark of the LORD took six steps and then David sacrificed an ox and a fatling calf.

<sup>16</sup> As the ark of the LORD entered the City of David, Saul's daughter Michal looked out the window. When she saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD, she despised him.

<sup>17</sup> They brought the ark of the LORD and put it in its place in the middle of the tent that David had pitched for it. Then David offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> When David finished offering the burnt sacrifices and peace offerings, he pronounced a blessing over the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

<sup>19</sup> He then handed out to each member of the entire assembly of Israel, both men and women, a portion of bread, a date cake, and a raisin cake. Then all the people went home.

<sup>20</sup> When David went home to pronounce a blessing on his own house, Michal, Saul's daughter, came out to meet him. She said, "How the king of Israel has distinguished himself this day! He has exposed himself today before his servants' slave girls the way a vulgar fool might do!"

<sup>21</sup> David replied to Michal, "It was before the LORD! I was celebrating before the LORD, who chose me over your father and his entire family and appointed me as leader over the LORD's people Israel.

<sup>22</sup> I am willing to shame and humiliate myself even more than this! But with the slave girls whom you mentioned let me be distinguished!"

<sup>2</sup> The king said to Nathan the prophet, "Look! I am living in a palace made from cedar, while the ark of God sits in the middle of a tent."

<sup>3</sup> Nathan replied to the king, "You should go and do whatever you have in mind, for the LORD is with you."

<sup>4</sup> That night the LORD told Nathan,

<sup>5</sup> "Go, tell my servant David: 'This is what the LORD says: Do you really intend to build a house for me to live in?'

<sup>6</sup> I have not lived in a house from the time I brought the Israelites up from Egypt to the present day. Instead, I was traveling with them and living in a tent.

<sup>7</sup> Wherever I moved among all the Israelites, I did not say to any of the leaders whom I appointed to care for my people Israel, 'Why have you not built me a house made from cedar?'

<sup>8</sup> "So now, say this to my servant David: 'This is what the LORD of hosts says: I took you from the pasture and from your work as a shepherd to make you leader of my people Israel.

<sup>9</sup> I was with you wherever you went, and I defeated all your enemies before you. Now I will make you as famous as the great men of the earth.

<sup>10</sup> I will establish a place for my people Israel and settle them there; they will live there and not be disturbed any more. Violent men will not oppress them again, as they did in the beginning <sup>11</sup> and during the time when I appointed judges to lead my people Israel. Instead, I will give you relief from all your enemies. The LORD declares to you that he himself will build a dynastic house for you.

<sup>12</sup> When the time comes for you to die, I will raise up your descendant, one of your own sons, to succeed you, and I will establish his kingdom.

<sup>13</sup> He will build a house for my name, and I will make his dynasty permanent.

<sup>14</sup> I will become his father and he will become my son. When he sins, I will correct him with the rod of men and with wounds inflicted by human beings.

<sup>15</sup> But my loyal love will not be removed from him as I removed it from Saul, whom I removed from before you.

<sup>16</sup> Your house and your kingdom will stand before me permanently; your dynasty will be permanent.' "

<sup>17</sup> Nathan told David all these words that were revealed to him.

David Offers a Prayer to God

<sup>18</sup> King David went in, sat before the LORD, and said, "Who am I, O LORD | strong="H0136" God, and what is my family, that you should have brought me to this point?

<sup>19</sup> And you didn't stop there, O LORD God! You have also spoken about the future of your servant's family. Is this your usual way of dealing with men, O LORD | strong="H0136" God?

<sup>20</sup> What more can David say to you? You have given your servant special recognition, O LORD | strong="H3069" God!

<sup>21</sup> For the sake of your promise and according to your purpose you have done this great thing in order to reveal it to your servant.

<sup>22</sup> Therefore you are great, O LORD | strong="H3069" God, for there is none like you! There is no God besides you! What we have heard is true!

<sup>23</sup> Who is like your people, Israel, a unique nation on the earth? Their God went to claim a nation for himself and to make a name for himself! You did great and awesome acts for your land, before your people whom you delivered for yourself from the Egyptian empire and its gods.

<sup>24</sup> You made Israel your very own people for all time. You, O LORD, became their God.

<sup>25</sup> So now, O LORD God, make this promise you have made about your servant and his family a permanent reality. Do as you promised,

<sup>26</sup> so you may gain lasting fame, as people say, 'The LORD of hosts is God over Israel!' The dynasty of your servant David will be established before you,

<sup>27</sup> for you, O LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have told your servant, 'I will build you a dynastic house.' That is why your servant has had the courage to pray this prayer to you.

<sup>28</sup> Now, O sovereign LORD, you are the true God! May your words prove to be true! You have made this good promise to your servant!

<sup>29</sup> Now be willing to bless your servant's dynasty so that it may stand permanently before you, for you, O sovereign LORD, have spoken. By your blessing may your servant's dynasty be blessed on into the future!"

<sup>2</sup> He defeated the Moabites. He made them lie on the ground and then used a rope to measure them off. He put two-thirds of them to death and spared the other third. The Moabites became David's subjects and brought tribute.

<sup>10</sup> he sent his son Joram to King David to extend his best wishes and to pronounce a blessing on him for his victory over Hadadezer, for Toi had been at war with Hadadezer. He brought with him various items made of silver, gold, and bronze.

<sup>11</sup> King David dedicated these things to the LORD, along with the dedicated silver and gold that he had taken from all the nations that he had subdued,

<sup>14</sup> He placed garrisons throughout Edom, and all the Edomites became David's subjects. The LORD protected David wherever he campaigned.

David's Cabinet

<sup>16</sup> Joab son of Zeruiah was general in command of the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was secretary;

<sup>17</sup> Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests; Seraiah was scribe;

9

<sup>1</sup> Then David asked, "Is anyone still left from the family of Saul, so that I may extend kindness to him for the sake of Jonathan?"

<sup>2</sup> Now there was a servant from Saul's house named Ziba, so he was summoned to David. The king asked him, "Are you Ziba?" He replied, "At your service."

<sup>5</sup> So King David had him brought from the house of Makir son of Ammiel in Lo Debar.

<sup>6</sup> When Mephibosheth son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, came to David, he bowed low with his face toward the ground. David said, "Mephibosheth?" He replied, "Yes, at your service."

<sup>7</sup> David said to him, "Don't be afraid, because I will certainly extend kindness to you for the sake of Jonathan your father. You will be a regular guest at my table."

<sup>8</sup> Then Mephibosheth bowed and said, "Of what importance am I, your servant, that you show regard for a dead dog like me?"

<sup>9</sup> Then the king summoned Ziba, Saul's attendant, and said to him, "Everything that belonged to Saul and to his entire house I hereby give to your master's grandson.

<sup>10</sup> You will cultivate the land for him – you and your sons and your servants. You will bring its produce and it will be food for your master's grandson to eat. But Mephibosheth, your master's grandson, will be a regular guest at my table." (Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.)

<sup>11</sup> Ziba said to the king, "Your servant will do everything that my lord the king has instructed his servant to do." So Mephibosheth was a regular guest at David's table, just as though he were one of the king's sons.

<sup>12</sup> Now Mephibosheth had a young son whose name was Mica. All the members of Ziba's household were Mephibosheth's servants.

<sup>13</sup> Mephibosheth was living in Jerusalem, for he was a regular guest at the king's table. But both his feet were crippled.

10

<sup>2</sup> David said, "I will express my loyalty to Hanun son of Nahash just as his father was loyal to me." So David sent his servants with a message expressing sympathy over his father's death. When David's servants entered the land of the Ammonites,

<sup>3</sup> the Ammonite officials said to their lord Hanun, "Do you really think David is trying to honor your father by sending these messengers to express his sympathy? No, David has sent his servants to you to get information about the city and spy on it so they can overthrow it!"

<sup>4</sup> So Hanun seized David's servants and shaved off half of each one's beard. He cut the lower part of their robes off so that their buttocks were exposed, and then sent them away.

<sup>5</sup> Messengers told David what had happened, so he summoned them, for the men were thoroughly humiliated. The king said, "Stay in Jericho until your beards have grown again; then you may come back."

<sup>6</sup> When the Ammonites realized that David was disgusted with them, they sent and hired 20,000 foot soldiers from Aram Beth Rehob and Aram Zobah, in addition to 1,000 men from the king of Maacah and 12,000 men from Ish-tob.

<sup>7</sup> When David heard the news, he sent Joab and the entire army to meet them.

<sup>10</sup> He put his brother Abishai in charge of the rest of the army and they were deployed against the Ammonites.

<sup>11</sup> Joab said, "If the Arameans start to overpower me, you come to my rescue. If the Ammonites start to overpower you, I will come to your rescue.

<sup>12</sup> Be strong! Let's fight bravely for the sake of our people and the cities of our God! The LORD will do what he decides is best!"

<sup>13</sup> So Joab and his men marched out to do battle with the Arameans, and they fled before him.

<sup>14</sup> When the Ammonites saw the Arameans flee, they fled before his brother Abishai and went into the city. Joab withdrew from fighting the Ammonites and returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup> When the Arameans realized that they had been defeated by Israel, they consolidated their forces.

<sup>16</sup> Then Hadadezer sent for Arameans from beyond the Euphrates River, and they came to Helam. Shobach, the general in command of Hadadezer's army, led them.

<sup>17</sup> When David was informed, he gathered all Israel, crossed the Jordan River, and came to Helam. The Arameans deployed their forces against David and fought with him.

<sup>18</sup> The Arameans fled before Israel. David killed 700 Aramean charioteers and 40,000 foot soldiers. He also struck down Shobach, the general in command of the army, who died there.

<sup>19</sup> When all the kings who were subject to Hadadezer saw they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel and became subjects of Israel. The Arameans were no longer willing to help the Ammonites.

11

<sup>2</sup> One evening David got up from his bed and walked around on the roof of his palace. From the roof he saw a woman bathing. Now this woman was very attractive.

<sup>3</sup> So David sent someone to inquire about the woman. The messenger said, "Isn't this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?"

<sup>4</sup> David sent some messengers to get her. She came to him and he had sexual relations with her. (Now at that time she was in the process of purifying herself from her menstrual uncleanness.) Then she returned to her home.

<sup>6</sup> So David sent a message to Joab that said, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." So Joab sent Uriah to David.

<sup>7</sup> When Uriah came to him, David asked about how Joab and the army were doing and how the campaign was going.

<sup>9</sup> But Uriah stayed at the door of the palace with all the servants of his lord. He did not go down to his house.

<sup>10</sup> So they informed David, "Uriah has not gone down to his house." So David said to Uriah, "Haven't you just arrived from a journey? Why haven't you gone down to your house?"

<sup>11</sup> Uriah replied to David, "The ark and Israel and Judah reside in temporary shelters, and my lord Joab and my lord's soldiers are camping in the open field. Should I go to my house to eat and drink and have marital relations with my wife? As surely as you are alive, I will not do this thing!"

<sup>12</sup> So David said to Uriah, "Stay here another day. Tomorrow I will send you back." So Uriah stayed in Jerusalem both that day and the following one.

<sup>13</sup> Then David summoned him. He ate and drank with him, and got him drunk. But in the evening he went out to sleep on his bed with the servants of his lord; he did not go down to his own house.

<sup>14</sup> In the morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it with Uriah.

<sup>15</sup> In the letter he wrote: "Station Uriah in the thick of the battle and then withdraw from him so he will be cut down and killed."

<sup>16</sup> So as Joab kept watch on the city, he stationed Uriah at the place where he knew the best enemy soldiers were.

<sup>19</sup> He instructed the messenger as follows: “When you finish giving the battle report to the king,

<sup>20</sup> if the king becomes angry and asks you, ‘Why did you go so close to the city to fight? Didn’t you realize they would shoot from the wall?’

<sup>21</sup> Who struck down Abimelech the son of Jerub-Besheth? Didn’t a woman throw an upper millstone down on him from the wall so that he died in Thebez? Why did you go so close to the wall?’ just say to him, ‘Your servant Uriah the Hittite is also dead.’ ”

<sup>22</sup> So the messenger departed. When he arrived, he informed David of all the news that Joab had sent with him.

<sup>23</sup> The messenger said to David, “The men overpowered us and attacked us in the field. But we forced them to retreat all the way to the door of the city gate.

<sup>24</sup> Then the archers shot at your servants from the wall and some of the king’s soldiers died. Your servant Uriah the Hittite is also dead.”

<sup>25</sup> David said to the messenger, “Tell Joab, ‘Don’t let this thing upset you. There is no way to anticipate whom the sword will cut down. Press the battle against the city and conquer it.’ Encourage him with these words.”

<sup>26</sup> When Uriah’s wife heard that her husband Uriah was dead, she mourned for him.

<sup>27</sup> When the time of mourning passed, David had her brought to his palace. She became his wife and she bore him a son. But what David had done upset the LORD.

12

<sup>1</sup> So the LORD sent Nathan to David. When he came to David, Nathan said, “There were two men in a certain city, one rich and the other poor.

<sup>3</sup> But the poor man had nothing except for a little lamb he had acquired. He raised it, and it grew up alongside him and his children. It used to eat his food, drink from his cup, and sleep in his arms. It was just like a daughter to him.

<sup>4</sup> “When a traveler arrived at the rich man’s home, he did not want to use one of his own sheep or cattle to feed the traveler who had come to visit him. Instead, he took the poor man’s lamb and cooked it for the man who had come to visit him.”

<sup>5</sup> Then David became very angry at this man. He said to Nathan, “As surely as the LORD lives, the man who did this deserves to die!

<sup>6</sup> Because he committed this cold-hearted crime, he must pay for the lamb four times over!”

<sup>7</sup> Nathan said to David, “You are that man! This is what the LORD God of Israel says: ‘I chose you to be king over Israel and I rescued you from the hand of Saul.

<sup>8</sup> I gave you your master’s house, and put your master’s wives into your arms. I also gave you the house of Israel and Judah. And if all that somehow seems insignificant, I would have given you so much more as well!

<sup>9</sup> Why have you shown contempt for the word of the LORD by doing evil in my sight? You have struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword and you have taken his wife as your own! You have killed him with the sword of the Ammonites.

<sup>10</sup> So now the sword will never depart from your house. For you have despised me by taking the wife of Uriah the Hittite as your own!’

<sup>11</sup> This is what the LORD says: ‘I am about to bring disaster on you from inside your own household! Right before your eyes I will take your wives and hand them over to your companion. He will have sexual relations with your wives in broad daylight!

<sup>12</sup> Although you have acted in secret, I will do this thing before all Israel, and in broad daylight.’ ”

<sup>13</sup> Then David exclaimed to Nathan, “I have sinned against the LORD!” Nathan replied to David, “Yes, and the LORD has forgiven your sin. You are not going to die.

<sup>14</sup> Nonetheless, because you have treated the LORD with such contempt in this matter, the son who has been born to you will certainly die.”

<sup>15</sup> Then Nathan went to his home. The LORD struck the child that Uriah’s wife had borne to David, and the child became very ill.

<sup>16</sup> Then David prayed to God for the child and fasted. He would even go and spend the night lying on the ground.

<sup>17</sup> The elders of his house stood over him and tried to lift him from the ground, but he was unwilling, and refused to eat food with them.

<sup>18</sup> On the seventh day the child died. But the servants of David were afraid to inform him that the child had died, for they said, “While the child was still alive he would not listen to us when we spoke to him. How can we tell him that the child is dead? He will do himself harm!”

<sup>19</sup> When David saw that his servants were whispering to one another, he realized that the child was dead. So David asked his servants, “Is the child dead?” They replied, “Yes, he’s dead.”

<sup>20</sup> So David got up from the ground, bathed, put on oil, and changed his clothes. He went to the house of the LORD and worshiped. Then, when he entered his palace, he requested that food be brought to him, and he ate.

<sup>21</sup> His servants said to him, “What is this that you have done? While the child was still alive, you fasted and wept. Once the child was dead you got up and ate food!”

<sup>22</sup> He replied, “While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept because I thought, ‘Perhaps the LORD will show pity and the child will live.’

<sup>23</sup> But now he is dead. Why should I fast? Am I able to bring him back? I will go to him, but he cannot return to me!’ ”

<sup>25</sup> and sent word through Nathan the prophet that he should be named Jedidiah for the LORD’s sake.

David’s Forces Defeat the Ammonites

<sup>27</sup> Joab then sent messengers to David, saying, “I have fought against Rabbah and have captured the water supply of the city.

<sup>28</sup> So now assemble the rest of the army and besiege the city and capture it. Otherwise I will capture the city and it will be named for me.”

<sup>29</sup> So David assembled all the army and went to Rabbah and fought against it and captured it.

<sup>30</sup> He took the crown of their king from his head – it was gold, weighed about seventy-five pounds, and held a precious stone – and it was placed on David’s head. He also took from the city a great deal of plunder.

<sup>31</sup> He removed the people who were in it and made them do hard labor with saws, iron picks, and iron axes, putting them to work at the brick kiln. This was his policy with all the Ammonite cities. Then David and all the army returned to Jerusalem.

13

<sup>1</sup> Now David’s son Absalom had a beautiful sister named Tamar. In the course of time David’s son Amnon fell madly in love with her.

<sup>2</sup> But Amnon became frustrated because he was so lovesick over his sister Tamar. For she was a virgin, and to Amnon it seemed out of the question to do anything to her.

<sup>3</sup> Now Amnon had a friend named Jonadab, the son of David’s brother Shimeah. Jonadab was a very crafty man.

<sup>4</sup> He asked Amnon, “Why are you, the king’s son, so depressed every morning? Can’t you tell me?” So Amnon said to him, “I’m in love with Tamar the sister of my brother Absalom.”

<sup>5</sup> Jonadab replied to him, “Lie down on your bed and pretend to be sick. When your father comes in to see you, say to him, ‘Please let my sister Tamar come in so she can fix some food for me. Let her prepare the food in my sight so I can watch. Then I will eat from her hand.’ ”

<sup>6</sup> So Amnon lay down and pretended to be sick. When the king came in to see him, Amnon said to the king, “Please let my sister Tamar come in so she can make a couple of cakes in my sight. Then I will eat from her hand.”

<sup>7</sup> So David sent Tamar to the house saying, “Please go to the house of Amnon your brother and prepare some food for him.”

<sup>8</sup> So Tamar went to the house of Amnon her brother, who was lying down. She took the dough, kneaded it, made some cakes while he watched, and baked them.

<sup>9</sup> But when she took the pan and set it before him, he refused to eat. Instead Amnon said, “Get everyone out of here!” So everyone left.

<sup>10</sup> Then Amnon said to Tamar, “Bring the cakes into the bedroom; then I will eat from your hand.” So Tamar took the cakes that she had prepared and brought them to her brother Amnon in the bedroom.

<sup>11</sup> As she brought them to him to eat, he grabbed her and said to her, “Come on! Get in bed with me, my sister!”

<sup>12</sup> But she said to him, “No, my brother! Don’t humiliate me! This just isn’t done in Israel! Don’t do this foolish thing!”

<sup>14</sup> But he refused to listen to her. He overpowered her and humiliated her by raping her.

<sup>15</sup> Then Amnon greatly despised her. His disdain toward her surpassed the love he had previously felt toward her. Amnon said to her, “Get up and leave!”

<sup>16</sup> But she said to him, “No I won’t, for sending me away now would be worse than what you did to me earlier!” But he refused to listen to her.

<sup>17</sup> He called his personal attendant and said to him, “Take this woman out of my sight and lock the door behind her!”

<sup>18</sup> (Now she was wearing a long robe, for this is what the king’s virgin daughters used to wear.) So Amnon’s attendant removed her and bolted the door behind her.

<sup>19</sup> Then Tamar put ashes on her head and tore the long robe she was wearing. She put her hands on her head and went on her way, wailing as she went.

<sup>20</sup> Her brother Absalom said to her, “Was Amnon your brother with you? Now be quiet, my sister. He is your brother. Don’t take it so seriously!” Tamar, devastated, lived in the house of her brother Absalom.

<sup>21</sup> Now King David heard about all these things and was very angry.

<sup>22</sup> But Absalom said nothing to Amnon, either bad or good, yet Absalom hated Amnon because he had humiliated his sister Tamar.

Absalom Has Amnon Put to Death

<sup>23</sup> Two years later Absalom’s sheepshearers were in Baal Hazor, near Ephraim. Absalom invited all the king’s sons.

<sup>24</sup> Then Absalom went to the king and said, “My shearers have begun their work. Let the king and his servants go with me.”

<sup>25</sup> But the king said to Absalom, “No, my son. We shouldn’t all go. We shouldn’t burden you in that way.” Though Absalom pressed him, the king was not willing to go. Instead, David blessed him.

<sup>26</sup> Then Absalom said, "If you will not go, then let my brother Amnon go with us." The king replied to him, "Why should he go with you?"

<sup>27</sup> But when Absalom pressed him, he sent Amnon and all the king's sons along with him.

<sup>28</sup> Absalom instructed his servants, "Look! When Amnon is drunk and I say to you, 'Strike Amnon down,' kill him then and there. Don't fear! Is it not I who have given you these instructions? Be strong and courageous!"

<sup>29</sup> So Absalom's servants did to Amnon exactly what Absalom had instructed. Then all the king's sons got up; each one rode away on his mule and fled.

<sup>30</sup> While they were still on their way, the following report reached David: "Absalom has killed all the king's sons; not one of them is left!"

<sup>31</sup> Then the king stood up and tore his garments and lay down on the ground. All his servants were standing there with torn garments as well.

<sup>32</sup> Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shimeah, said, "My lord should not say, 'They have killed all the young men who are the king's sons.' For only Amnon is dead. This is what Absalom has talked about from the day that Amnon humiliated his sister Tamar.

<sup>33</sup> Now don't let my lord the king be concerned about the report that has come saying, 'All the king's sons are dead.' It is only Amnon who is dead."

<sup>35</sup> Jonadab said to the king, "Look! The king's sons have come! It's just as I said!"

<sup>37</sup> But Absalom fled and went to King Talmai son of Ammihud of Geshur. And David grieved over his son every day.

<sup>38</sup> After Absalom fled and went to Geshur, he remained there for three years.

<sup>39</sup> The king longed to go to Absalom, for he had since been consoled over the death of Amnon.

<sup>2</sup> So Joab sent to Tekoa and brought from there a wise woman. He told her, "Pretend to be in mourning and put on garments for mourning. Don't anoint yourself with oil. Instead, act like a woman who has been mourning for the dead for some time.

<sup>3</sup> Go to the king and speak to him in the following fashion." Then Joab told her what to say.

<sup>4</sup> So the Tekoan woman went to the king. She bowed down with her face to the ground in deference to him and said, "Please help me, O king!"

<sup>5</sup> The king replied to her, "What do you want?" She answered, "I am a widow; my husband is dead.

<sup>6</sup> Your servant has two sons. When the two of them got into a fight in the field, there was no one present who could intervene. One of them struck the other and killed him.

<sup>7</sup> Now the entire family has risen up against your servant, saying, 'Turn over the one who struck down his brother, so that we can execute him and avenge the death of his brother whom he killed. In so doing we will also destroy the heir.' They want to extinguish my remaining coal, leaving no one on the face of the earth to carry on the name of my husband."

<sup>8</sup> Then the king told the woman, "Go to your home. I will give instructions concerning your situation."

<sup>9</sup> The Tekoan woman said to the king, "My lord the king, let any blame fall on me and on the house of my father. But let the king and his throne be innocent!"

<sup>10</sup> The king said, "Bring to me whoever speaks to you, and he won't bother you again!"

<sup>11</sup> She replied, "In that case, let the king invoke the name of the LORD your God so that the avenger of blood may not kill! Then they will not destroy my son!" He replied, "As surely as the LORD lives, not a single hair of your son's head will fall to the ground."

<sup>12</sup> Then the woman said, "Please permit your servant to speak to my lord the king about another matter." He replied, "Tell me."

<sup>13</sup> The woman said, "Why have you devised something like this against God's people? When the king speaks in this fashion, he makes himself guilty, for the king has not brought back the one he has banished."

<sup>14</sup> Certainly we must die, and are like water spilled on the ground that cannot be gathered up again. But God does not take away life; instead he devises ways for the banished to be restored.

<sup>15</sup> I have now come to speak with my lord the king about this matter, because the people have made me fearful. But your servant said, 'I will speak to the king! Perhaps the king will do what his female servant asks.'

<sup>16</sup> Yes! The king may listen and deliver his female servant from the hand of the man who seeks to remove both me and my son from the inheritance God has given us!"

<sup>17</sup> So your servant said, 'May the word of my lord the king be my security, for my lord the king is like the angel of God when it comes to deciding between right and wrong! May the LORD your God be with you!' "

<sup>18</sup> Then the king replied to the woman, "Don't hide any information from me when I question you." The woman said, "Let my lord the king speak!"

<sup>19</sup> The king said, "Did Joab put you up to all of this?" The woman answered, "As surely as you live, my lord the king, there is no deviation to the right or to the left from all that my lord the king has said. For your servant Joab gave me instructions. He has put all these words in your servant's mouth."

<sup>20</sup> Your servant Joab did this so as to change this situation. But my lord has wisdom like that of the angel of God, and knows everything that is happening in the land."

<sup>21</sup> Then the king said to Joab, "All right! I will do this thing! Go and bring back the young man Absalom!"

<sup>22</sup> Then Joab bowed down with his face toward the ground and thanked the king. Joab said, "Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, my lord the king, because the king has granted the request of your servant!"

<sup>23</sup> So Joab got up and went to Geshur and brought Absalom back to Jerusalem.

<sup>24</sup> But the king said, "Let him go over to his own house. He may not see my face." So Absalom went over to his own house; he did not see the king's face.

<sup>25</sup> Now in all Israel everyone acknowledged that there was no man as handsome as Absalom. From the sole of his feet to the top of his head he was perfect in appearance.

<sup>27</sup> Absalom had three sons and one daughter, whose name was Tamar. She was a very attractive woman.

<sup>29</sup> Then Absalom sent a message to Joab asking him to send him to the king, but Joab was not willing to come to him. So he sent a second message to him, but he still was not willing to come.

<sup>30</sup> So he said to his servants, "Look, Joab has a portion of field adjacent to mine and he has some barley there. Go and set it on fire." So Absalom's servants set Joab's portion of the field on fire.

<sup>31</sup> Then Joab got up and came to Absalom's house. He said to him, "Why did your servants set my portion of field on fire?"

<sup>32</sup> Absalom said to Joab, "Look, I sent a message to you saying, 'Come here so that I can send you to the king with this message: "Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me if I were still there." ' Let me now see the face of the king. If I am at fault, let him put me to death!"

<sup>33</sup> So Joab went to the king and informed him. The king summoned Absalom, and he came to the king. Absalom bowed down before the king with his face toward the ground and the king kissed him.

15

<sup>1</sup> Some time later Absalom managed to acquire a chariot and horses, as well as fifty men to serve as his royal guard.

<sup>2</sup> Now Absalom used to get up early and stand beside the road that led to the city gate. Whenever anyone came by who had a complaint to bring to the king for arbitration, Absalom would call out to him, "What city are you from?" The person would answer, "I, your servant, am from one of the tribes of Israel."

<sup>3</sup> Absalom would then say to him, "Look, your claims are legitimate and appropriate. But there is no representative of the king who will listen to you."

<sup>4</sup> Absalom would then say, "If only they would make me a judge in the land! Then everyone who had a judicial complaint could come to me and I would make sure he receives a just settlement."

<sup>5</sup> When someone approached to bow before him, Absalom would extend his hand and embrace him and kiss him.

<sup>6</sup> Absalom acted this way toward everyone in Israel who came to the king for justice. In this way Absalom won the loyalty of the citizens of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> After four years Absalom said to the king, "Let me go and repay my vow that I made to the LORD while I was in Hebron.

<sup>8</sup> For I made this vow when I was living in Geshur in Aram: 'If the LORD really does allow me to return to Jerusalem, I will serve the LORD.' "

<sup>9</sup> The king replied to him, "Go in peace." So Absalom got up and went to Hebron.

<sup>10</sup> Then Absalom sent spies through all the tribes of Israel who said, "When you hear the sound of the horn, you may assume that Absalom rules in Hebron."

<sup>11</sup> Now two hundred men had gone with Absalom from Jerusalem. Since they were invited, they went naively and were unaware of what Absalom was planning.

<sup>12</sup> While he was offering sacrifices, Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's adviser, to come from his city, Giloh. The conspiracy was gaining momentum, and the people were starting to side with Absalom.

David Flees from Jerusalem

<sup>13</sup> Then a messenger came to David and reported, "The men of Israel are loyal to Absalom!"

<sup>14</sup> So David said to all his servants who were with him in Jerusalem, "Come on! Let's escape! Otherwise no one will be delivered from Absalom! Go immediately, or else he will quickly overtake us and bring disaster on us and kill the city's residents with the sword."

<sup>17</sup> The king and all the people set out on foot, pausing at a spot some distance away.

<sup>18</sup> All his servants were leaving with him, along with all the Kerethites, all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites – some six hundred men who had come on foot from Gath. They were leaving with the king.

<sup>19</sup> Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, “Why should you come with us? Go back and stay with the new king, for you are a foreigner and an exile from your own country.

<sup>20</sup> It seems like you arrived just yesterday. Today should I make you wander around by going with us? I go where I must go. But as for you, go back and take your men with you. May genuine loyal love protect you!”

<sup>21</sup> But Ittai replied to the king, “As surely as the LORD lives and as my lord the king lives, wherever my lord the king is, whether dead or alive, there I will be as well!”

<sup>22</sup> So David said to Ittai, “Come along then.” So Ittai the Gittite went along, accompanied by all his men and all the dependents who were with him.

<sup>23</sup> All the land was weeping loudly as all these people were leaving. As the king was crossing over the Kidron Valley, all the people were leaving on the road that leads to the desert.

<sup>24</sup> Zadok and all the Levites who were with him were carrying the ark of the covenant of God. When they positioned the ark of God, Abiathar offered sacrifices until all the people had finished leaving the city.

<sup>25</sup> Then the king said to Zadok, “Take the ark of God back to the city. If I find favor in the LORD’s sight he will bring me back and enable me to see both it and his dwelling place again.

<sup>26</sup> However, if he should say, ‘I do not take pleasure in you,’ then he will deal with me in a way that he considers appropriate.”

<sup>27</sup> The king said to Zadok the priest, “Are you a seer? Go back to the city in peace! Your son Ahimaaz and Abiathar’s son Jonathan may go with you and Abiathar.

<sup>28</sup> Look, I will be waiting at the fords of the desert until word from you reaches me.”

<sup>29</sup> So Zadok and Abiathar took the ark of God back to Jerusalem and remained there.

<sup>30</sup> As David was going up the Mount of Olives, he was weeping as he went; his head was covered and his feet were bare. All the people who were with him also had their heads covered and were weeping as they went up.

<sup>32</sup> When David reached the summit, where he used to worship God, Hushai the Arkite met him with his clothes torn and dirt on his head.

<sup>33</sup> David said to him, “If you leave with me you will be a burden to me.

<sup>34</sup> But you will be able to counter the advice of Ahithophel if you go back to the city and say to Absalom, ‘I will be your servant, O king! Previously I was your father’s servant, and now I will be your servant.’

<sup>35</sup> Zadok and Abiathar the priests will be there with you. Everything you hear in the king’s palace you must tell Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

<sup>36</sup> Furthermore, their two sons are there with them, Zadok’s son Ahimaaz and Abiathar’s son Jonathan. You must send them to me with any information you hear.”

<sup>37</sup> So David’s friend Hushai arrived in the city, just as Absalom was entering Jerusalem.

16

<sup>1</sup> When David had gone a short way beyond the summit, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth was there to meet him. He had a couple of donkeys that were saddled, and on them were two hundred loaves of bread, a hundred raisin cakes, a hundred baskets of summer fruit, and a container of wine.

<sup>2</sup> The king asked Ziba, “Why did you bring these things?” Ziba replied, “The donkeys are for the king’s family to ride on, the loaves of bread and the summer fruit are for the attendants to eat, and the wine is for those who get exhausted in the desert.”

<sup>3</sup> The king asked, “Where is your master’s grandson?” Ziba replied to the king, “He remains in Jerusalem, for he said, ‘Today the house of Israel will give back to me my grandfather’s kingdom.’ ”

<sup>4</sup> The king said to Ziba, “Everything that was Mephibosheth’s now belongs to you.” Ziba replied, “I bow before you. May I find favor in your sight, my lord the king.”

Shimei Curses David and His Men

<sup>5</sup> Then King David reached Bahurim. There a man from Saul’s extended family named Shimei son of Gera came out, yelling curses as he approached.

<sup>6</sup> He threw stones at David and all of King David’s servants, as well as all the people and the soldiers who were on his right and on his left.

<sup>7</sup> As he yelled curses, Shimei said, “Leave! Leave! You man of bloodshed, you wicked man!”

<sup>8</sup> The LORD has punished you for all the spilled blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you rule. Now the LORD has given the kingdom into the hand of your son Absalom. Disaster has overtaken you, for you are a man of bloodshed!”

<sup>9</sup> Then Abishai son of Zeruiah said to the king, “Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over and cut off his head!”

<sup>10</sup> But the king said, “What do we have in common, you sons of Zeruiah? If he curses because the LORD has said to him, ‘Curse David!’, who can say to him, ‘Why have you done this?’ ”

<sup>11</sup> Then David said to Abishai and to all his servants, “My own son, my very own flesh and blood, is trying to take my life. So also now this Benjaminite! Leave him alone so that he can curse, for the LORD has spoken to him.

<sup>12</sup> Perhaps the LORD will notice my affliction and this day grant me good in place of his curse.”

<sup>13</sup> So David and his men went on their way. But Shimei kept going along the side of the hill opposite him, yelling curses as he threw stones and dirt at them.

<sup>14</sup> The king and all the people who were with him arrived exhausted at their destination, where David refreshed himself.

The Advice of Ahithophel

<sup>15</sup> Now when Absalom and all the men of Israel arrived in Jerusalem, Ahithophel was with him.

<sup>16</sup> When David’s friend Hushai the Arkite came to Absalom, Hushai said to him, “Long live the king! Long live the king!”

<sup>17</sup> Absalom said to Hushai, “Do you call this loyalty to your friend? Why didn’t you go with your friend?”

<sup>18</sup> Hushai replied to Absalom, “No, I will be loyal to the one whom the LORD, these people, and all the men of Israel have chosen.

<sup>19</sup> Moreover, whom should I serve? Should it not be his son? Just as I served your father, so I will serve you.”

<sup>20</sup> Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, “Give us your advice. What should we do?”

<sup>21</sup> Ahithophel replied to Absalom, “Have sex with your father’s concubines whom he left to care for the palace. All Israel will hear that you have made yourself repulsive to your father. Then your followers will be motivated to support you.”

<sup>22</sup> So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the roof, and Absalom had sex with his father’s concubines in the sight of all Israel.

<sup>23</sup> In those days Ahithophel's advice was considered as valuable as a prophetic revelation. Both David and Absalom highly regarded the advice of Ahithophel.

17

<sup>1</sup> Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Let me pick out twelve thousand men. Then I will go and pursue David this very night.

<sup>2</sup> When I catch up with him he will be exhausted and worn out. I will rout him, and the entire army that is with him will flee. I will kill only the king

<sup>3</sup> and will bring the entire army back to you. In exchange for the life of the man you are seeking, you will get back everyone. The entire army will return unharmed."

<sup>4</sup> This seemed like a good idea to Absalom and to all the leaders of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> But Absalom said, "Call for Hushai the Arkite, and let's hear what he has to say."

<sup>6</sup> So Hushai came to Absalom. Absalom said to him, "Here is what Ahithophel has advised. Should we follow his advice? If not, what would you recommend?"

<sup>8</sup> Hushai went on to say, "You know your father and his men – they are soldiers and are as dangerous as a bear out in the wild that has been robbed of her cubs. Your father is an experienced soldier; he will not stay overnight with the army.

<sup>9</sup> At this very moment he is hiding out in one of the caves or in some other similar place. If it should turn out that he attacks our troops first, whoever hears about it will say, 'Absalom's army has been slaughtered!'

<sup>10</sup> If that happens even the bravest soldier – one who is lion-hearted – will virtually melt away. For all Israel knows that your father is a warrior and that those who are with him are brave.

<sup>11</sup> My advice therefore is this: Let all Israel from Dan to Beer Sheba – in number like the sand by the sea! – be mustered to you, and you lead them personally into battle.

<sup>12</sup> We will come against him wherever he happens to be found. We will descend on him like the dew falls on the ground. Neither he nor any of the men who are with him will be spared alive – not one of them!

<sup>13</sup> If he regroups in a city, all Israel will take up ropes to that city and drag it down to the valley, so that not a single pebble will be left there!"

<sup>14</sup> Then Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The advice of Hushai the Arkite sounds better than the advice of Ahithophel." Now the LORD had decided to frustrate the sound advice of Ahithophel, so that the LORD could bring disaster on Absalom.

<sup>15</sup> Then Hushai reported to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, "Here is what Ahithophel has advised Absalom and the leaders of Israel to do, and here is what I have advised.

<sup>16</sup> Now send word quickly to David and warn him, "Don't spend the night at the fords of the desert tonight. Instead, be sure you cross over, or else the king and everyone who is with him may be overwhelmed."

<sup>17</sup> Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying in En Rogel. A female servant would go and inform them, and they would then go and inform King David. It was not advisable for them to be seen going into the city.

<sup>18</sup> But a young man saw them on one occasion and informed Absalom. So the two of them quickly departed and went to the house of a man in Bahurim. There was a well in his courtyard, and they got down in it.

<sup>19</sup> His wife then took the covering and spread it over the top of the well and scattered some grain over it. No one was aware of what she had done.

<sup>20</sup> When the servants of Absalom approached the woman at her home, they asked, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" The woman replied to them, "They crossed over the stream.” Absalom’s men searched but did not find them, so they returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>22</sup> So David and all the people who were with him got up and crossed the Jordan River. By dawn there was not one person left who had not crossed the Jordan.

<sup>23</sup> When Ahithophel realized that his advice had not been followed, he saddled his donkey and returned to his house in his hometown. After setting his household in order, he hanged himself. So he died and was buried in the grave of his father.

<sup>25</sup> Absalom had made Amasa general in command of the army in place of Joab. (Now Amasa was the son of an Israelite man named Jether, who had married Abigail the daughter of Nahash and sister of Zeruiah, Joab’s mother.)

<sup>27</sup> When David came to Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Nahash from Rabbah of the Ammonites, Makir the son of Ammiel from Lo Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim

<sup>28</sup> brought bedding, basins, and pottery utensils. They also brought food for David and all who were with him, including wheat, barley, flour, roasted grain, beans, lentils,

<sup>29</sup> honey, curds, flocks, and cheese. For they said, “The people are no doubt hungry, tired, and thirsty there in the desert.”

18

<sup>2</sup> David then sent out the army – a third under the leadership of Joab, a third under the leadership of Joab’s brother Abishai son of Zeruiah, and a third under the leadership of Ittai the Gittite. The king said to the troops, “I too will indeed march out with you.”

<sup>3</sup> But the soldiers replied, “You should not do this! For if we should have to make a rapid retreat, they won’t be too concerned about us. Even if half of us should die, they won’t be too concerned about us. But you are like ten thousand of us! So it is better if you remain in the city for support.”

<sup>4</sup> Then the king said to them, “I will do whatever seems best to you.”

So the king stayed beside the city gate, while all the army marched out by hundreds and by thousands.

<sup>5</sup> The king gave this order to Joab, Abishai, and Ittai: “For my sake deal gently with the young man Absalom.” Now the entire army was listening when the king gave all the leaders this order concerning Absalom.

<sup>6</sup> Then the army marched out to the field to fight against Israel. The battle took place in the forest of Ephraim.

<sup>7</sup> The army of Israel was defeated there by David’s men. The slaughter there was great that day – 20,000 soldiers were killed.

<sup>8</sup> The battle there was spread out over the whole area, and the forest consumed more soldiers than the sword devoured that day.

<sup>9</sup> Then Absalom happened to come across David’s men. Now as Absalom was riding on his mule, it went under the branches of a large oak tree. His head got caught in the oak and he was suspended in midair, while the mule he had been riding kept going.

<sup>10</sup> When one of the men saw this, he reported it to Joab saying, “I saw Absalom hanging in an oak tree.

<sup>11</sup> Joab replied to the man who was telling him this, “What! You saw this? Why didn’t you strike him down right on the spot? I would have given you ten pieces of silver and a commemorative belt!”

<sup>12</sup> The man replied to Joab, “Even if I were receiving a thousand pieces of silver, I would not strike the king’s son! In our very presence the king gave this order to you and Abishai and Ittai, ‘Protect the young man Absalom for my sake.’

<sup>13</sup> If I had acted at risk of my own life – and nothing is hidden from the king! – you would have abandoned me.”

<sup>14</sup> Joab replied, “I will not wait around like this for you!” He took three spears in his hand and thrust them into the middle of Absalom while he was still alive in the middle of the oak tree.

<sup>15</sup> Then ten soldiers who were Joab’s armor bearers struck Absalom and finished him off.

<sup>17</sup> They took Absalom, threw him into a large pit in the forest, and stacked a huge pile of stones over him. In the meantime all the Israelite soldiers fled to their homes.

<sup>18</sup> Prior to this Absalom had set up a monument and dedicated it to himself in the King’s Valley, reasoning “I have no son who will carry on my name.” He named the monument after himself, and to this day it is known as Absalom’s Memorial.

David Learns of Absalom’s Death

<sup>19</sup> Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, “Let me run and give the king the good news that the LORD has vindicated him before his enemies.”

<sup>20</sup> But Joab said to him, “You will not be a bearer of good news today. You will bear good news some other day, but not today, for the king’s son is dead.”

<sup>21</sup> Then Joab said to the Cushite, “Go and tell the king what you have seen.” After bowing to Joab, the Cushite ran off.

<sup>22</sup> Ahimaaz the son of Zadok again spoke to Joab, “Whatever happens, let me go after the Cushite.” But Joab said, “Why is it that you want to go, my son? You have no good news that will bring you a reward.”

<sup>23</sup> But he said, “Whatever happens, I want to go!” So Joab said to him, “Then go!” So Ahimaaz ran by the way of the Jordan plain, and he passed the Cushite.

<sup>24</sup> Now David was sitting between the inner and outer gates, and the watchman went up to the roof over the gate at the wall. When he looked, he saw a man running by himself.

<sup>25</sup> So the watchman called out and informed the king. The king said, “If he is by himself, he brings good news.” The runner came ever closer.

<sup>26</sup> Then the watchman saw another man running. The watchman called out to the gatekeeper, “There is another man running by himself.” The king said, “This one also is bringing good news.”

<sup>27</sup> The watchman said, “It appears to me that the first runner is Ahimaaz son of Zadok.” The king said, “He is a good man, and he comes with good news.”

<sup>28</sup> Then Ahimaaz called out and said to the king, “Greetings!” He bowed down before the king with his face toward the ground and said, “May the LORD your God be praised because he has defeated the men who opposed my lord the king!”

<sup>29</sup> The king replied, “How is the young man Absalom?” Ahimaaz replied, “I saw a great deal of confusion when Joab was sending the king’s servant and me, your servant, but I don’t know what it was all about.”

<sup>30</sup> The king said, “Turn aside and take your place here.” So he turned aside and waited.

<sup>31</sup> Then the Cushite arrived and said, “May my lord the king now receive the good news! The LORD has vindicated you today and delivered you from the hand of all who have rebelled against you!”

<sup>32</sup> The king asked the Cushite, “How is the young man Absalom?” The Cushite replied, “May the enemies of my lord the king and all who have plotted against you be like that young man!”

<sup>33</sup> The king then became very upset. He went up to the upper room over the gate and wept. As he went he said, “My son, Absalom! My son, my son, Absalom! If only I could have died in your place! Absalom, my son, my son!”

19

<sup>2</sup> So the victory of that day was turned to mourning as far as all the people were concerned. For the people heard on that day, “The king is grieved over his son.”

<sup>3</sup> That day the people stole away to go to the city the way people who are embarrassed steal away in fleeing from battle.

<sup>4</sup> The king covered his face and cried out loudly, “My son, Absalom! Absalom, my son, my son!”

<sup>5</sup> So Joab visited the king at his home. He said, “Today you have embarrassed all your servants who have saved your life this day, as well as the lives of your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your concubines.

<sup>6</sup> You seem to love your enemies and hate your friends! For you have as much as declared today that leaders and servants don’t matter to you. I realize now that if Absalom were alive and all of us were dead today, it would be all right with you.

<sup>7</sup> So get up now and go out and give some encouragement to your servants. For I swear by the LORD that if you don’t go out there, not a single man will stay here with you tonight! This disaster will be worse for you than any disaster that has overtaken you from your youth right to the present time!”

<sup>8</sup> So the king got up and sat at the city gate. When all the people were informed that the king was sitting at the city gate, they all came before him.

David Goes Back to Jerusalem

But the Israelite soldiers had all fled to their own homes.

<sup>9</sup> All the people throughout all the tribes of Israel were arguing among themselves saying, “The king delivered us from the hand of our enemies. He rescued us from the hand of the Philistines, but now he has fled from the land because of Absalom.

<sup>10</sup> But Absalom, whom we anointed as our king, has died in battle. So now why do you hesitate to bring the king back?”

<sup>11</sup> Then King David sent a message to Zadok and Abiathar the priests saying, “Tell the elders of Judah, ‘Why should you delay any further in bringing the king back to his palace, when everything Israel is saying has come to the king’s attention.

<sup>12</sup> You are my brothers – my very own flesh and blood! Why should you delay any further in bringing the king back?’”

<sup>13</sup> Say to Amasa, ‘Are you not my flesh and blood? God will punish me severely, if from this time on you are not the commander of my army in place of Joab!’ ”

<sup>14</sup> He won over the hearts of all the men of Judah as though they were one man. Then they sent word to the king saying, “Return, you and all your servants as well.”

<sup>15</sup> So the king returned and came to the Jordan River.

Now the people of Judah had come to Gilgal to meet the king and to help him cross the Jordan.

<sup>16</sup> Shimei son of Gera the Benjaminite from Bahurim came down quickly with the men of Judah to meet King David.

<sup>17</sup> There were a thousand men from Benjamin with him, along with Ziba the servant of Saul's household, and with him his fifteen sons and twenty servants. They hurriedly crossed the Jordan within sight of the king.

<sup>18</sup> They crossed at the ford in order to help the king's household cross and to do whatever he thought appropriate.

Now after he had crossed the Jordan, Shimei son of Gera threw himself down before the king.

<sup>19</sup> He said to the king, "Don't think badly of me, my lord, and don't recall the sin of your servant on the day when you, my lord the king, left Jerusalem! Please don't call it to mind!

<sup>20</sup> For I, your servant, know that I sinned, and I have come today as the first of all the house of Joseph to come down to meet my lord the king."

<sup>21</sup> Abishai son of Zeruiah replied, "For this should not Shimei be put to death? After all, he cursed the LORD's anointed!"

<sup>22</sup> But David said, "What do we have in common, you sons of Zeruiah? You are like my enemy today! Should anyone be put to death in Israel today? Don't you realize that today I am king over Israel?"

<sup>25</sup> When he came from Jerusalem to meet the king, the king asked him, "Why didn't you go with me, Mephibosheth?"

<sup>26</sup> He replied, "My lord the king, my servant deceived me! I said, 'Let me get my donkey saddled so that I can ride on it and go with the king,' for I am lame.

<sup>27</sup> But my servant has slandered me to my lord the king. But my lord the king is like an angel of God. Do whatever seems appropriate to you.

<sup>28</sup> After all, there was no one in the entire house of my grandfather who did not deserve death from my lord the king. But instead you allowed me to eat at your own table! What further claim do I have to ask the king for anything?"

<sup>29</sup> Then the king replied to him, "Why should you continue speaking like this? You and Ziba will inherit the field together."

<sup>30</sup> Mephibosheth said to the king, "Let him have the whole thing! My lord the king has returned safely to his house!"

<sup>31</sup> Now when Barzillai the Gileadite had come down from Rogelim, he crossed the Jordan with the king so he could send him on his way from there.

<sup>32</sup> But Barzillai was very old – eighty years old, in fact – and he had taken care of the king when he stayed in Mahanaim, for he was a very rich man.

<sup>33</sup> So the king said to Barzillai, "Cross over with me, and I will take care of you while you are with me in Jerusalem."

<sup>34</sup> Barzillai replied to the king, "How many days do I have left to my life, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?"

<sup>35</sup> I am presently eighty years old. Am I able to discern good and bad? Can I taste what I eat and drink? Am I still able to hear the voices of male and female singers? Why should I continue to be a burden to my lord the king?

<sup>36</sup> I will cross the Jordan with the king and go a short distance. Why should the king reward me in this way?

<sup>37</sup> Let me return so that I may die in my own city near the grave of my father and my mother. But look, here is your servant Kimham. Let him cross over with my lord the king. Do for him whatever seems appropriate to you.”

<sup>38</sup> The king replied, “Kimham will cross over with me, and I will do for him whatever I deem appropriate. And whatever you choose, I will do for you.”

<sup>39</sup> So all the people crossed the Jordan, as did the king. After the king had kissed him and blessed him, Barzillai returned to his home.

<sup>40</sup> When the king crossed over to Gilgal, Kimham crossed over with him. Now all the soldiers of Judah along with half of the soldiers of Israel had helped the king cross over.

<sup>41</sup> Then all the men of Israel began coming to the king. They asked the king, “Why did our brothers, the men of Judah, sneak the king away and help the king and his household cross the Jordan – and not only him but all of David’s men as well?”

<sup>42</sup> All the men of Judah replied to the men of Israel, “Because the king is our close relative! Why are you so upset about this? Have we eaten at the king’s expense? Or have we misappropriated anything for our own use?”

<sup>43</sup> The men of Israel replied to the men of Judah, “We have ten shares in the king, and we have a greater claim on David than you do! Why do you want to curse us? Weren’t we the first to suggest bringing back our king?” But the comments of the men of Judah were more severe than those of the men of Israel.

20

<sup>1</sup> Now a wicked man named Sheba son of Bicri, a Benjaminite, happened to be there. He blew the trumpet and said, “We have no share in David;
we have no inheritance in this son of Jesse!
Every man go home, O Israel!”

<sup>2</sup> So all the men of Israel deserted David and followed Sheba son of Bicri. But the men of Judah stuck by their king all the way from the Jordan River to Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> Then David went to his palace in Jerusalem. The king took the ten concubines he had left to care for the palace and placed them under confinement. Though he provided for their needs, he did not have sexual relations with them. They remained in confinement until the day they died, living out the rest of their lives as widows.

<sup>4</sup> Then the king said to Amasa, “Call the men of Judah together for me in three days, and you be present here with them too.”

<sup>5</sup> So Amasa went out to call Judah together. But in doing so he took longer than the time that the king had allotted him.

<sup>6</sup> Then David said to Abishai, “Now Sheba son of Bicri will cause greater disaster for us than Absalom did! Take your lord’s servants and pursue him. Otherwise he will secure fortified cities for himself and get away from us.”

<sup>8</sup> When they were near the big rock that is in Gibeon, Amasa came to them. Now Joab was dressed in military attire and had a dagger in its sheath belted to his waist. When he advanced, it fell out.

<sup>9</sup> Joab said to Amasa, “How are you, my brother?” With his right hand Joab took hold of Amasa’s beard as if to greet him with a kiss.

<sup>10</sup> Amasa did not protect himself from the knife in Joab’s other hand, and Joab stabbed him in the abdomen, causing Amasa’s intestines to spill out on the ground. There was no need to stab him again; the first blow was fatal. Then Joab and his brother Abishai pursued Sheba son of Bicri.

<sup>11</sup> One of Joab's soldiers who stood over Amasa said, "Whoever is for Joab and whoever is for David, follow Joab!"

<sup>12</sup> Amasa was squirming in his own blood in the middle of the path, and this man had noticed that all the soldiers stopped. Having noticed that everyone who came across Amasa stopped, the man pulled him away from the path and into the field and threw a garment over him.

<sup>13</sup> Once he had removed Amasa from the path, everyone followed Joab to pursue Sheba son of Bicri.

<sup>14</sup> Sheba traveled through all the tribes of Israel to Abel of Beth Maacah and all the Berite region. When they had assembled, they too joined him.

<sup>15</sup> So Joab's men came and laid siege against him in Abel of Beth Maacah. They prepared a siege ramp outside the city which stood against its outer rampart. As all of Joab's soldiers were trying to break through the wall so that it would collapse,

<sup>16</sup> a wise woman called out from the city, "Listen up! Listen up! Tell Joab, 'Come near so that I may speak to you.' "

<sup>17</sup> When he approached her, the woman asked, "Are you Joab?" He replied, "I am." She said to him, "Listen to the words of your servant." He said, "Go ahead. I'm listening."

<sup>18</sup> She said, "In the past they would always say, 'Let them inquire in Abel,' and that is how they settled things.

<sup>19</sup> I represent the peaceful and the faithful in Israel. You are attempting to destroy an important city in Israel. Why should you swallow up the LORD's inheritance?"

<sup>21</sup> That's not the way things are. There is a man from the hill country of Ephraim named Sheba son of Bicri. He has rebelled against King David. Give me just this one man, and I will leave the city." The woman said to Joab, "This very minute his head will be thrown over the wall to you!"

<sup>22</sup> Then the woman went to all the people with her wise advice and they cut off Sheba's head and threw it out to Joab. Joab blew the trumpet, and his men dispersed from the city, each going to his own home. Joab returned to the king in Jerusalem.

<sup>23</sup> Now Joab was the general in command of all the army of Israel. Benaiah the son of Jehoida was over the Kerethites and the Perethites.

<sup>24</sup> Adoniram was supervisor of the work crews. Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the secretary.

<sup>1</sup> During David's reign there was a famine for three consecutive years. So David inquired of the LORD. The LORD said, "It is because of Saul and his bloodstained family, because he murdered the Gibeonites."

<sup>2</sup> So the king summoned the Gibeonites and spoke with them. (Now the Gibeonites were not descendants of Israel; they were a remnant of the Amorites. The Israelites had made a promise to them, but Saul tried to kill them because of his zeal for the people of Israel and Judah.)

<sup>3</sup> David said to the Gibeonites, "What can I do for you, and how can I make amends so that you will bless the LORD's inheritance?"

<sup>4</sup> The Gibeonites said to him, "We have no claim to silver or gold from Saul or from his family, nor would we be justified in putting to death anyone in Israel." David asked, "What then are you asking me to do for you?"

<sup>5</sup> They replied to the king, “As for this man who exterminated us and who schemed against us so that we were destroyed and left without status throughout all the borders of Israel –

<sup>6</sup> let seven of his male descendants be turned over to us, and we will execute them before the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, who was the LORD’s chosen one.” The king replied, “I will turn them over.”

<sup>7</sup> The king had mercy on Mephibosheth son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, in light of the LORD’s oath that had been taken between David and Jonathan son of Saul.

<sup>8</sup> So the king took Armoni and Mephibosheth, the two sons of Aiah’s daughter Rizpah whom she had born to Saul, and the five sons of Saul’s daughter Merab whom she had born to Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite.

<sup>9</sup> He turned them over to the Gibeonites, and they executed them on a hill before the LORD. The seven of them died together; they were put to death during harvest time – during the first days of the beginning of the barley harvest.

<sup>10</sup> Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it out for herself on a rock. From the beginning of the harvest until the rain fell on them, she did not allow the birds of the air to feed on them by day, nor the wild animals by night.

<sup>11</sup> When David was told what Rizpah daughter of Aiah, Saul’s concubine, had done,

<sup>12</sup> he went and took the bones of Saul and of his son Jonathan from the leaders of Jabesh Gilead. (They had secretly taken them from the plaza at Beth Shan. It was there that Philistines publicly exposed their corpses after they had killed Saul at Gilboa.)

<sup>13</sup> David brought the bones of Saul and of Jonathan his son from there; they also gathered up the bones of those who had been executed.

<sup>14</sup> They buried the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan in the land of Benjamin at Zela in the grave of his father Kish. After they had done everything that the king had commanded, God responded to their prayers for the land.

Israel Engages in Various Battles with the Philistines

<sup>15</sup> Another battle was fought between the Philistines and Israel. So David went down with his soldiers and fought the Philistines. David became exhausted.

<sup>16</sup> Now Ishbi-Benob, one of the descendants of Rapha, had a spear that weighed three hundred bronze shekels, and he was armed with a new weapon. He had said that he would kill David.

<sup>17</sup> But Abishai the son of Zeruiah came to David’s aid, striking the Philistine down and killing him. Then David’s men took an oath saying, “You will not go out to battle with us again! You must not extinguish the lamp of Israel!”

<sup>18</sup> Later there was another battle with the Philistines, this time in Gob. On that occasion Sibbekai the Hushathite killed Saph, who was one of the descendants of Rapha.

<sup>19</sup> Yet another battle occurred with the Philistines in Gob. On that occasion Elhanan the son of Jair the Bethlehemite killed the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver’s beam.

<sup>20</sup> Yet another battle occurred in Gath. On that occasion there was a large man who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in all! He too was a descendant of Rapha.

<sup>22</sup> These four were the descendants of Rapha who lived in Gath; they were killed by David and his soldiers.

22

<sup>2</sup> He said:

"The LORD is my high ridge, my stronghold, my deliverer.

<sup>3</sup> My God is my rocky summit where I take shelter, my shield, the horn that saves me, my stronghold, my refuge, my savior. You save me from violence!

<sup>4</sup> I called to the LORD, who is worthy of praise, and I was delivered from my enemies.

<sup>5</sup> The waves of death engulfed me;
the currents of chaos overwhelmed me.

<sup>6</sup> The ropes of Sheol tightened around me;
the snares of death trapped me.

<sup>7</sup> In my distress I called to the LORD;
I called to my God.

From his heavenly temple he heard my voice;
he listened to my cry for help.

<sup>8</sup> The earth heaved and shook;
the foundations of the sky trembled.
They heaved because he was angry.

<sup>9</sup> Smoke ascended from his nose;
fire devoured as it came from his mouth;
he hurled down fiery coals.

<sup>10</sup> He made the sky sink as he descended;
a thick cloud was under his feet.

<sup>11</sup> He mounted a winged angel and flew;
he glided on the wings of the wind.

<sup>12</sup> He shrouded himself in darkness, in thick rain clouds.

<sup>13</sup> From the brightness in front of him came coals of fire.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD | strong="H3069" thundered from the sky;
the sovereign One shouted loudly.

<sup>15</sup> He shot arrows and scattered them, lightning and routed them.

<sup>16</sup> The depths of the sea were exposed;
the inner regions of the world were uncovered
by the LORD's battle cry, by the powerful breath from his nose.

<sup>17</sup> He reached down from above and grabbed me;
he pulled me from the surging water.

<sup>18</sup> He rescued me from my strong enemy, from those who hate me,
for they were too strong for me.

<sup>19</sup> They confronted me in my day of calamity, but the LORD helped me.

<sup>20</sup> He brought me out into a wide open place;
he delivered me because he was pleased with me.

<sup>21</sup> The LORD repaid me for my godly deeds;
he rewarded my blameless behavior.

<sup>22</sup> For I have obeyed the LORD's commands;
I have not rebelled against my God.

<sup>23</sup> For I am aware of all his regulations, and I do not reject his rules.

<sup>24</sup> I was blameless before him;
I kept myself from sinning.
<sup>25</sup> The LORD rewarded me for my godly deeds; he took notice of my blameless behavior.
<sup>26</sup> You prove to be loyal to one who is faithful;
you prove to be trustworthy to one who is innocent.
<sup>27</sup> You prove to be reliable to one who is blameless, but you prove to be deceptive to one who is perverse.
<sup>28</sup> You deliver oppressed people, but you watch the proud and bring them down.
<sup>29</sup> Indeed, you are my lamp, LORD.
The LORD illumines the darkness around me.
<sup>30</sup> Indeed, with your help I can charge against an army;
by my God's power I can jump over a wall.
<sup>31</sup> The one true God acts in a faithful manner;
the LORD's promise is reliable;
he is a shield to all who take shelter in him.
<sup>32</sup> Indeed, who is God besides the LORD?
Who is a protector besides our God?
<sup>33</sup> The one true God is my mighty refuge;
he removes the obstacles in my way.
<sup>34</sup> He gives me the agility of a deer;
he enables me to negotiate the rugged terrain.
<sup>35</sup> He trains my hands for battle;
my arms can bend even the strongest bow.
<sup>36</sup> You give me your protective shield;
your willingness to help enables me to prevail.
<sup>37</sup> You widen my path;
my feet do not slip.
<sup>38</sup> I chase my enemies and destroy them;
I do not turn back until I wipe them out.
<sup>39</sup> I wipe them out and beat them to death;
they cannot get up;
they fall at my feet.
<sup>40</sup> You give me strength for battle;
you make my foes kneel before me.
<sup>41</sup> You make my enemies retreat;
I destroy those who hate me.
<sup>42</sup> They cry out, but there is no one to help them;
they cry out to the LORD, but he does not answer them.
<sup>43</sup> I grind them as fine as the dust of the ground;
I crush them and stomp on them like clay in the streets.
<sup>44</sup> You rescue me from a hostile army;
you preserve me as a leader of nations;
people over whom I had no authority are now my subjects.
<sup>45</sup> Foreigners are powerless before me;
when they hear of my exploits, they submit to me.
<sup>46</sup> Foreigners lose their courage;
they shake with fear as they leave their strongholds.
<sup>47</sup> The LORD is alive!
My protector is praiseworthy!

The God who delivers me is exalted as king!

<sup>48</sup> The one true God completely vindicates me;
he makes nations submit to me.

<sup>49</sup> He delivers me from my enemies;
you snatch me away from those who attack me;
you rescue me from violent men.

<sup>50</sup> So I will give you thanks, O LORD, before the nations!
I will sing praises to you.

<sup>51</sup> He gives his chosen king magnificent victories;
he is faithful to his chosen ruler, to David and to his descendants forever!"

23

<sup>1</sup> These are the final words of David:

"The oracle of David son of Jesse, the oracle of the man raised up as the ruler chosen by the God of Jacob,
Israel's beloved singer of songs:

<sup>2</sup> The LORD's spirit spoke through me;
his word was on my tongue.

<sup>3</sup> The God of Israel spoke, the protector of Israel spoke to me.
The one who rules fairly among men,
the one who rules in the fear of God,

<sup>4</sup> is like the light of morning when the sun comes up, a morning in which there are no clouds.
He is like the brightness after rain that produces grass from the earth.

<sup>5</sup> My dynasty is approved by God, for he has made a perpetual covenant with me,
arranged in all its particulars and secured.
He always delivers me,
and brings all I desire to fruition.

<sup>6</sup> But evil people are like thorns – all of them are tossed away, for they cannot be held in the hand.

<sup>7</sup> The one who touches them must use an iron instrument or the wooden shaft of a spear.
They are completely burned up right where they lie!"

David's Warriors

Josheb-Basshebeth, a Tahkemonite, was head of the officers. He killed eight hundred men with his spear in one battle.

<sup>9</sup> Next in command was Eleazar son of Dodo, the son of Ahohi. He was one of the three warriors who were with David when they defied the Philistines who were assembled there for battle. When the men of Israel retreated, <sup>10</sup> he stood his ground and fought the Philistines until his hand grew so tired that it seemed stuck to his sword. The LORD gave a great victory on that day. When the army returned to him, the only thing left to do was to plunder the corpses.

<sup>11</sup> Next in command was Shammah son of Agee the Hararite. When the Philistines assembled at Lehi, where there happened to be an area of a field that was full of lentils, the army retreated before the Philistines.

<sup>12</sup> But he made a stand in the middle of that area. He defended it and defeated the Philistines; the LORD gave them a great victory.

<sup>14</sup> David was in the stronghold at the time, while a Philistine garrison was in Bethlehem.

<sup>15</sup> David was thirsty and said, "How I wish someone would give me some water to drink from the cistern in Bethlehem near the gate!"

<sup>16</sup> So the three elite warriors broke through the Philistine forces and drew some water from the cistern in Bethlehem near the gate. They carried it back to David, but he refused to drink it. He poured it out as a drink offering to the LORD

<sup>17</sup> and said, "O LORD, I will not do this! It is equivalent to the blood of the men who risked their lives by going." So he refused to drink it. Such were the exploits of the three elite warriors.

<sup>18</sup> Abishai son of Zeruiah, the brother of Joab, was head of the three. He killed three hundred men with his spear and gained fame among the three.

<sup>19</sup> From the three he was given honor and he became their officer, even though he was not one of the three.

<sup>20</sup> Benaiah son of Jehoida was a brave warrior from Kabzeel who performed great exploits. He struck down the two sons of Ariel of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion in a cistern on a snowy day.

<sup>22</sup> Such were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoida, who gained fame among the three elite warriors.

<sup>6</sup> Then they went on to Gilead and to the region of Tahtim Hodshi, coming to Dan Jaan and on around to Sidon.

<sup>7</sup> Then they went to the fortress of Tyre and all the cities of the Hivites and the Canaanites. Then they went on to the Negev of Judah, to Beer Sheba.

<sup>8</sup> They went through all the land and after nine months and twenty days came back to Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup> Joab reported the number of warriors to the king. In Israel there were 800,000 sword-wielding warriors, and in Judah there were 500,000 soldiers.

<sup>10</sup> David felt guilty after he had numbered the army. David said to the LORD, "I have sinned greatly by doing this! Now, O LORD, please remove the guilt of your servant, for I have acted very foolishly."

<sup>11</sup> When David got up the next morning, the LORD had already spoken to Gad the prophet, David's seer:

<sup>12</sup> "Go, tell David, 'This is what the LORD says: I am offering you three forms of judgment. Pick one of them and I will carry it out against you.' "

<sup>13</sup> Gad went to David and told him, "Shall seven years of famine come upon your land? Or shall you flee for three months from your enemy with him in hot pursuit? Or shall there be three days of plague in your land? Now decide what I should tell the one who sent me."

<sup>14</sup> David said to Gad, "I am very upset! I prefer that we be attacked by the LORD, for his mercy is great; I do not want to be attacked by men!"

<sup>15</sup> So the LORD sent a plague through Israel from the morning until the completion of the appointed time. Seventy thousand men died from Dan to Beer Sheba.

<sup>16</sup> When the angel extended his hand to destroy Jerusalem, the LORD relented from his judgment. He told the angel who was killing the people, "That's enough! Stop now!" (Now the LORD's angel was near the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.)

<sup>17</sup> When he saw the angel who was destroying the people, David said to the LORD, "Look, it is I who have sinned and done this evil thing! As for these sheep - what have they done? Attack me and my family."

David Acquires a Threshing Floor and Constructs an Altar There

<sup>18</sup> So Gad went to David that day and told him, "Go up and build an altar for the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite."

<sup>19</sup> So David went up as Gad instructed him to do, according to the LORD's instructions.

<sup>20</sup> When Araunah looked out and saw the king and his servants approaching him, he went out and bowed to the king with his face to the ground.

<sup>21</sup> Araunah said, “Why has my lord the king come to his servant?” David replied, “To buy from you the threshing floor so I can build an altar for the LORD, so that the plague may be removed from the people.”

<sup>22</sup> Araunah told David, “My lord the king may take whatever he wishes and offer it. Look! Here are oxen for burnt offerings, and threshing sledges and harnesses for wood.

<sup>23</sup> I, the servant of my lord the king, give it all to the king!” Araunah also told the king, “May the LORD your God show you favor!”

<sup>24</sup> But the king said to Araunah, “No, I insist on buying it from you! I will not offer to the LORD my God burnt sacrifices that cost me nothing.”

So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty pieces of silver.

<sup>25</sup> Then David built an altar for the LORD there and offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings. And the LORD accepted prayers for the land, and the plague was removed from Israel.

Adonijah Tries to Seize the Throne

<sup>4</sup> The young woman was very beautiful; she became the king’s nurse and served him, but the king did not have sexual relations with her.

<sup>5</sup> Now Adonijah, son of David and Haggith, was promoting himself, boasting, “I will be king!” He managed to acquire chariots and horsemen, as well as fifty men to serve as his royal guard.

<sup>6</sup> (Now his father had never corrected him by saying, “Why do you do such things?” He was also very handsome and had been born right after Absalom. )

<sup>7</sup> He collaborated with Joab son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest, and they supported him.

<sup>10</sup> But he did not invite Nathan the prophet, Benaiah, the elite warriors, or his brother Solomon.

<sup>11</sup> Nathan said to Bathsheba, Solomon’s mother, “Has it been reported to you that Haggith’s son Adonijah has become king behind our master David’s back?”

<sup>12</sup> Now let me give you some advice as to how you can save your life and your son Solomon’s life.

<sup>13</sup> Visit King David and say to him, ‘My master, O king, did you not solemnly promise your servant, “Surely your son Solomon will be king after me; he will sit on my throne”? So why has Adonijah become king?’

<sup>14</sup> While you are still there speaking to the king, I will arrive and verify your report.”

<sup>16</sup> Bathsheba bowed down on the floor before the king. The king said, “What do you want?”

<sup>17</sup> She replied to him, “My master, you swore an oath to your servant by the LORD your God, ‘Solomon your son will be king after me and he will sit on my throne.’

<sup>18</sup> But now, look, Adonijah has become king! But you, my master the king, are not even aware of it!

<sup>19</sup> He has sacrificed many cattle, steers, and sheep and has invited all the king’s sons, Abiathar the priest, and Joab, the commander of the army, but he has not invited your servant Solomon.

<sup>20</sup> Now, my master, O king, all Israel is watching anxiously to see who is named to succeed my master the king on the throne.

<sup>21</sup> If a decision is not made, when my master the king is buried with his ancestors, my son Solomon and I will be considered state criminals.”

<sup>24</sup> Nathan said, "My master, O king, did you announce, 'Adonijah will be king after me; he will sit on my throne'?"

<sup>25</sup> For today he has gone down and sacrificed many cattle, steers, and sheep and has invited all the king's sons, the army commanders, and Abiathar the priest. At this moment they are having a feast in his presence, and they have declared, 'Long live King Adonijah!'

<sup>26</sup> But he did not invite me – your servant – or Zadok the priest, or Benaiah son of Jehoiada, or your servant Solomon.

<sup>27</sup> Has my master the king authorized this without informing your servants who should succeed my master the king on his throne?"

David Picks Solomon as His Successor

<sup>29</sup> The king swore an oath: "As certainly as the LORD lives (he who has rescued me from every danger), <sup>30</sup> I will keep today the oath I swore to you by the LORD God of Israel: 'Surely Solomon your son will be king after me; he will sit in my place on my throne.' "

<sup>31</sup> Bathsheba bowed down to the king with her face to the floor and said, "May my master, King David, live forever!"

<sup>32</sup> King David said, "Summon Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada." They came before the king, <sup>33</sup> and he told them, "Take your master's servants with you, put my son Solomon on my mule, and lead him down to Gihon.

<sup>34</sup> There Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet will anoint him king over Israel; then blow the trumpet and declare, 'Long live King Solomon!'

<sup>35</sup> Then follow him up as he comes and sits on my throne. He will be king in my place; I have decreed that he will be ruler over Israel and Judah."

<sup>36</sup> Benaiah son of Jehoiada responded to the king: "So be it! May the LORD God of my master the king confirm it!

<sup>37</sup> As the LORD is with my master the king, so may he be with Solomon, and may he make him an even greater king than my master King David!"

<sup>38</sup> So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, the Kerethites, and the Pelethites went down, put Solomon on King David's mule, and led him to Gihon.

<sup>40</sup> All the people followed him up, playing flutes and celebrating so loudly they made the ground shake.

<sup>41</sup> Now Adonijah and all his guests heard the commotion just as they had finished eating. When Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he asked, "Why is there such a noisy commotion in the city?"

<sup>42</sup> As he was still speaking, Jonathan son of Abiathar the priest arrived. Adonijah said, "Come in, for an important man like you must be bringing good news."

<sup>44</sup> The king sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, the Kerethites, and the Pelethites and they put him on the king's mule.

<sup>45</sup> Then Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anointed him king in Gihon. They went up from there rejoicing, and the city is in an uproar. That is the sound you hear.

<sup>47</sup> The king's servants have even come to congratulate our master King David, saying, 'May your God make Solomon more famous than you and make him an even greater king than you!' Then the king leaned on the bed

<sup>48</sup> and said this: 'The LORD God of Israel is worthy of praise because today he has placed a successor on my throne and allowed me to see it.' "

<sup>50</sup> Adonijah feared Solomon, so he got up and went and grabbed hold of the horns of the altar.

<sup>51</sup> Solomon was told, "Look, Adonijah fears you; see, he has taken hold of the horns of the altar, saying, 'May King Solomon solemnly promise me today that he will not kill his servant with the sword.' "

<sup>52</sup> Solomon said, "If he is a loyal subject, not a hair of his head will be harmed, but if he is found to be a traitor, he will die."

<sup>53</sup> King Solomon sent men to bring him down from the altar. He came and bowed down to King Solomon, and Solomon told him, "Go home."

<sup>3</sup> Do the job the LORD your God has assigned you by following his instructions and obeying his rules, commandments, regulations, and laws as written in the law of Moses. Then you will succeed in all you do and seek to accomplish,

<sup>4</sup> and the LORD will fulfill his promise to me, 'If your descendants watch their step and live faithfully in my presence with all their heart and being, then,' he promised, 'you will not fail to have a successor on the throne of Israel.'

<sup>5</sup> "You know what Joab son of Zeruiah did to me – how he murdered two commanders of the Israelite armies, Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Jether. During peacetime he struck them down like he would in battle; when he shed their blood as if in battle, he stained his own belt and the sandals on his feet.

<sup>6</sup> Do to him what you think is appropriate, but don't let him live long and die a peaceful death.

<sup>7</sup> "Treat fairly the sons of Barzillai of Gilead and provide for their needs, because they helped me when I had to flee from your brother Absalom.

<sup>8</sup> "Note well, you still have to contend with Shimei son of Gera, the Benjaminite from Bahurim, who tried to call down upon me a horrible judgment when I went to Mahanaim. He came down and met me at the Jordan, and I solemnly promised him by the LORD, 'I will not strike you down with the sword.'

<sup>9</sup> But now don't treat him as if he were innocent. You are a wise man and you know how to handle him; make sure he has a bloody death."

<sup>10</sup> Then David passed away and was buried in the city of David.

<sup>11</sup> David reigned over Israel forty years; he reigned in Hebron seven years, and in Jerusalem thirty-three years.

Solomon Secures the Throne

<sup>13</sup> Haggith's son Adonijah visited Bathsheba, Solomon's mother. She asked, "Do you come in peace?" He answered, "Yes."

<sup>14</sup> He added, "I have something to say to you." She replied, "Speak."

<sup>15</sup> He said, "You know that the kingdom was mine and all Israel considered me king. But then the kingdom was given to my brother, for the LORD decided it should be his."

<sup>16</sup> Now I'd like to ask you for just one thing. Please don't refuse me." She said, "Go ahead and ask."

<sup>17</sup> He said, "Please ask King Solomon if he would give me Abishag the Shunammite as a wife, for he won't refuse you."

<sup>19</sup> So Bathsheba visited King Solomon to speak to him on Adonijah's behalf. The king got up to greet her, bowed to her, and then sat on his throne. He ordered a throne to be brought for the king's mother, and she sat at his right hand.

<sup>20</sup> She said, "I would like to ask you for just one small favor. Please don't refuse me." He said, "Go ahead and ask, my mother, for I would not refuse you."

<sup>21</sup> She said, "Allow Abishag the Shunammite to be given to your brother Adonijah as a wife."

<sup>22</sup> King Solomon answered his mother, "Why just request Abishag the Shunammite for him? Since he is my older brother, you should also request the kingdom for him, for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab son of Zeruiah!"

<sup>23</sup> King Solomon then swore an oath by the LORD, "May God judge me severely, if Adonijah does not pay for this request with his life!"

<sup>24</sup> Now, as certainly as the LORD lives (he who made me secure, allowed me to sit on my father David's throne, and established a dynasty for me as he promised), Adonijah will be executed today!"

<sup>26</sup> The king then told Abiathar the priest, "Go back to your property in Anathoth. You deserve to die, but today I will not kill you because you did carry the ark of the sovereign LORD before my father David and you suffered with my father through all his difficult times."

<sup>28</sup> When the news reached Joab (for Joab had supported Adonijah, although he had not supported Absalom), he ran to the tent of the LORD and grabbed hold of the horns of the altar.

<sup>29</sup> When King Solomon heard that Joab had run to the tent of the LORD and was right there beside the altar, he ordered Benaiah son of Jehoiada, "Go, strike him down."

<sup>30</sup> When Benaiah arrived at the tent of the LORD, he said to him, "The king says, 'Come out!'" But he replied, "No, I will die here!" So Benaiah sent word to the king and reported Joab's reply.

<sup>31</sup> The king told him, "Do as he said! Strike him down and bury him. Take away from me and from my father's family the guilt of Joab's murderous, bloody deeds.

<sup>32</sup> May the LORD punish him for the blood he shed; behind my father David's back he struck down and murdered with the sword two men who were more innocent and morally upright than he - Abner son of Ner, commander of Israel's army, and Amasa son of Jether, commander of Judah's army.

<sup>34</sup> So Benaiah son of Jehoiada went up and executed Joab; he was buried at his home in the wilderness.

<sup>35</sup> The king appointed Benaiah son of Jehoiada to take his place at the head of the army, and the king appointed Zadok the priest to take Abiathar's place.

<sup>36</sup> Next the king summoned Shimei and told him, "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there - but you may not leave there to go anywhere!"

<sup>37</sup> If you ever do leave and cross the Kidron Valley, know for sure that you will certainly die! You will be responsible for your own death."

<sup>38</sup> Shimei said to the king, “My master the king’s proposal is acceptable. Your servant will do as you say.” So Shimei lived in Jerusalem for a long time.

<sup>41</sup> When Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had then returned,

<sup>42</sup> the king summoned Shimei and said to him, “You will recall that I made you take an oath by the LORD, and I solemnly warned you, ‘If you ever leave and go anywhere, know for sure that you will certainly die.’ You said to me, ‘The proposal is acceptable; I agree to it.’

<sup>43</sup> Why then have you broken the oath you made before the LORD and disobeyed the order I gave you?”

<sup>44</sup> Then the king said to Shimei, “You are well aware of the way you mistreated my father David. The LORD will punish you for what you did.

<sup>46</sup> The king then gave the order to Benaiah son of Jehoiada who went and executed Shimei.

So Solomon took firm control of the kingdom.

3

<sup>3</sup> Solomon demonstrated his loyalty to the LORD by following the practices of his father David, except that he offered sacrifices and burned incense on the high places.

<sup>4</sup> The king went to Gibeon to offer sacrifices, for it had the most prominent of the high places. Solomon would offer up a thousand burnt sacrifices on the altar there.

<sup>5</sup> One night in Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream. God said, “Tell me what I should give you.”

<sup>6</sup> Solomon replied, “You demonstrated great loyalty to your servant, my father David, as he served you faithfully, properly, and sincerely. You have maintained this great loyalty to this day by allowing his son to sit on his throne.

<sup>7</sup> Now, O LORD my God, you have made your servant king in my father David’s place, even though I am only a young man and am inexperienced.

<sup>8</sup> Your servant stands among your chosen people; they are a great nation that is too numerous to count or number.

<sup>9</sup> So give your servant a discerning mind so he can make judicial decisions for your people and distinguish right from wrong. Otherwise no one is able to make judicial decisions for this great nation of yours.”

<sup>11</sup> God said to him, “Because you asked for the ability to make wise judicial decisions, and not for long life, or riches, or vengeance on your enemies,

<sup>12</sup> I grant your request, and give you a wise and discerning mind superior to that of anyone who has preceded or will succeed you.

<sup>13</sup> Furthermore, I am giving you what you did not request – riches and honor so that you will be the greatest king of your generation.

<sup>14</sup> If you follow my instructions by obeying my rules and regulations, just as your father David did, then I will grant you long life.”

<sup>15</sup> Solomon then woke up and realized it was a dream. He went to Jerusalem, stood before the ark of the Lord’s covenant, offered up burnt sacrifices, presented peace offerings, and held a feast for all his servants.

Solomon Demonstrates His Wisdom

<sup>16</sup> Then two prostitutes came to the king and stood before him.

<sup>17</sup> One of the women said, “My master, this woman and I live in the same house. I had a baby while she was with me in the house.

<sup>18</sup> Then three days after I had my baby, this woman also had a baby. We were alone; there was no one else in the house except the two of us.

<sup>20</sup> She got up in the middle of the night and took my son from my side, while your servant was sleeping. She put him in her arms, and put her dead son in my arms.

<sup>21</sup> I got up in the morning to nurse my son, and there he was, dead! But when I examined him carefully in the morning, I realized it was not my baby.”

<sup>22</sup> The other woman said, “No! My son is alive; your son is dead!” But the first woman replied, “No, your son is dead; my son is alive.” Each presented her case before the king.

<sup>23</sup> The king said, “One says, ‘My son is alive; your son is dead,’ while the other says, ‘No, your son is dead; my son is alive.’ ”

<sup>25</sup> The king then said, “Cut the living child in two, and give half to one and half to the other!”

<sup>26</sup> The real mother spoke up to the king, for her motherly instincts were aroused. She said, “My master, give her the living child! Whatever you do, don’t kill him!” But the other woman said, “Neither one of us will have him! Let them cut him in two!”

<sup>28</sup> When all Israel heard about the judicial decision which the king had rendered, they respected the king, for they realized that he possessed supernatural wisdom to make judicial decisions.

Azariah son of Zadok was the priest.

<sup>3</sup> Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, wrote down what happened.

Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was in charge of the records.

Zadok and Abiathar were priests.

<sup>5</sup> Azariah son of Nathan was supervisor of the district governors.

Zabud son of Nathan was a priest and adviser to the king.

<sup>6</sup> Ahishar was supervisor of the palace.

Adoniram son of Abda was supervisor of the work crews.

<sup>8</sup> These were their names:

Ben-Hur was in charge of the hill country of Ephraim.

<sup>9</sup> Ben-Deker was in charge of Makaz, Shaalbim, Beth Shemesh, and Elon Beth Hanan.

<sup>12</sup> Baana son of Ahilud was in charge of Taanach and Megiddo, as well as all of Beth Shan next to Zarethan below Jezreel, from Beth Shan to Abel Meholah and on past Jokmeam.

<sup>13</sup> Ben-Geber was in charge of Ramoth Gilead; he controlled the tent villages of Jair son of Manasseh in Gilead, as well as the region of Argob in Bashan, including sixty large walled cities with bronze bars locking their gates.

<sup>19</sup> Geber son of Uri was in charge of the land of Gilead (the territory which had once belonged to King Sihon of the Amorites and to King Og of Bashan). He was sole governor of the area.

Solomon's Wealth and Fame

<sup>20</sup> The people of Judah and Israel were as innumerable as the sand on the seashore; they had plenty to eat and drink and were happy.

<sup>23</sup> ten calves fattened in the stall, twenty calves from the pasture, and a hundred sheep, not to mention rams, gazelles, deer, and well-fed birds.

<sup>24</sup> His royal court was so large because he ruled over all the kingdoms west of the Euphrates River from Tiphseh to Gaza; he was at peace with all his neighbors.

<sup>28</sup> Each one also brought to the assigned location his quota of barley and straw for the various horses.

<sup>31</sup> He was wiser than any man, including Ethan the Ezrahite or Heman, Calcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol. He was famous in all the neighboring nations.

<sup>32</sup> He composed 3,000 proverbs and 1,005 songs.

<sup>33</sup> He produced manuals on botany, describing every kind of plant, from the cedars of Lebanon to the hyssop that grows on walls. He also produced manuals on biology, describing animals, birds, insects, and fish.

<sup>34</sup> People from all nations came to hear Solomon's display of wisdom; they came from all the kings of the earth who heard about his wisdom.

5

<sup>3</sup> "You know that my father David was unable to build a temple to honor the LORD his God, for he was busy fighting battles on all fronts while the LORD subdued his enemies.

<sup>4</sup> But now the LORD my God has made me secure on all fronts; there is no adversary or dangerous threat.

<sup>5</sup> So I have decided to build a temple to honor the LORD my God, as the LORD instructed my father David, 'Your son, whom I will put on your throne in your place, is the one who will build a temple to honor me.'

<sup>6</sup> So now order some cedars of Lebanon to be cut for me. My servants will work with your servants. I will pay your servants whatever you say is appropriate, for you know that we have no one among us who knows how to cut down trees like the Sidonians."

<sup>7</sup> When Hiram heard Solomon's message, he was very happy. He said, "The LORD is worthy of praise today because he has given David a wise son to rule over this great nation."

<sup>8</sup> Hiram then sent this message to Solomon: "I received the message you sent to me. I will give you all the cedars and evergreens you need.

<sup>9</sup> My servants will bring the timber down from Lebanon to the sea. I will send it by sea in raft-like bundles to the place you designate. There I will separate the logs and you can carry them away. In exchange you will supply the food I need for my royal court."

<sup>11</sup> and Solomon supplied Hiram annually with 20,000 cors of wheat as provision for his royal court, as well as 20,000 baths of pure olive oil.

<sup>12</sup> So the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as he had promised him. And Hiram and Solomon were at peace and made a treaty.

<sup>14</sup> He sent them to Lebanon in shifts of 10,000 men per month. They worked in Lebanon for one month, and then spent two months at home. Adoniram was supervisor of the work crews.

<sup>15</sup> Solomon also had 70,000 common laborers and 80,000 stonecutters in the hills, <sup>16</sup> besides 3,300 officials who supervised the workers.

<sup>17</sup> By royal order they supplied large valuable stones in order to build the temple's foundation with chiseled stone.

<sup>18</sup> Solomon's and Hiram's construction workers, along with men from Byblos, did the chiseling and prepared the wood and stones for the building of the temple.

6

<sup>2</sup> The temple King Solomon built for the LORD was 90 feet long, 30 feet wide, and 45 feet high.

<sup>3</sup> The porch in front of the main hall of the temple was 30 feet long, corresponding to the width of the temple. It was 15 feet wide, extending out from the front of the temple.

<sup>5</sup> He built an extension all around the walls of the temple's main hall and holy place and constructed side rooms in it.

<sup>6</sup> The bottom floor of the extension was seven and a half feet wide, the middle floor nine feet wide, and the third floor ten and a half feet wide. He made ledges on the temple's outer walls so the beams would not have to be inserted into the walls.

<sup>7</sup> As the temple was being built, only stones shaped at the quarry were used; the sound of hammers, pickaxes, or any other iron tool was not heard at the temple while it was being built.

<sup>8</sup> The entrance to the bottom level of side rooms was on the south side of the temple; stairs went up to the middle floor and then on up to the third floor.

<sup>9</sup> He finished building the temple and covered it with rafters and boards made of cedar.

<sup>10</sup> He built an extension all around the temple; it was seven and a half feet high and it was attached to the temple by cedar beams.

The LORD | strong="H3069" said to Solomon:

<sup>12</sup> "As for this temple you are building, if you follow my rules, observe my regulations, and obey all my commandments, I will fulfill through you the promise I made to your father David.

<sup>13</sup> I will live among the Israelites and will not abandon my people Israel."

<sup>15</sup> He constructed the walls inside the temple with cedar planks; he paneled the inside with wood from the floor of the temple to the rafters of the ceiling. He covered the temple floor with boards made from the wood of evergreens.

<sup>16</sup> He built a wall 30 feet in from the rear of the temple as a partition for an inner sanctuary that would be the most holy place. He paneled the wall with cedar planks from the floor to the rafters.

<sup>18</sup> The inside of the temple was all cedar and was adorned with carvings of round ornaments and of flowers in bloom. Everything was cedar; no stones were visible.

<sup>19</sup> He prepared the inner sanctuary inside the temple so that the ark of the covenant of the LORD could be placed there.

<sup>20</sup> The inner sanctuary was 30 feet long, 30 feet wide, and 30 feet high. He plated it with gold, as well as the cedar altar.

<sup>21</sup> Solomon plated the inside of the temple with gold. He hung golden chains in front of the inner sanctuary and plated the inner sanctuary with gold.

<sup>22</sup> He plated the entire inside of the temple with gold, as well as the altar inside the inner sanctuary.

<sup>23</sup> In the inner sanctuary he made two cherubs of olive wood; each stood 15 feet high.

<sup>24</sup> Each of the first cherub's wings was seven and a half feet long; its entire wingspan was 15 feet.

<sup>25</sup> The second cherub also had a wingspan of 15 feet; it was identical to the first in measurements and shape.

<sup>29</sup> On all the walls around the temple, inside and out, he carved cherubs, palm trees, and flowers in bloom.

<sup>31</sup> He made doors of olive wood at the entrance to the inner sanctuary; the pillar on each doorpost was five-sided.

<sup>32</sup> On the two doors made of olive wood he carved cherubs, palm trees, and flowers in bloom, and he plated them with gold. He plated the cherubs and the palm trees with hammered gold.

<sup>33</sup> In the same way he made doorposts of olive wood for the entrance to the main hall, only with four-sided pillars.

<sup>34</sup> He also made two doors out of wood from evergreens; each door had two folding leaves.

<sup>35</sup> He carved cherubs, palm trees, and flowers in bloom and plated them with gold, leveled out over the carvings.

<sup>37</sup> In the month Ziv of the fourth year of Solomon's reign the foundation was laid for the LORD's temple.

<sup>38</sup> In the eleventh year, in the month Bul (the eighth month) the temple was completed in accordance with all its specifications and blueprints. It took seven years to build.

<sup>2</sup> He named it "The Palace of the Lebanon Forest"; it was 150 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high. It had four rows of cedar pillars and cedar beams above the pillars.

<sup>3</sup> The roof above the beams supported by the pillars was also made of cedar; there were forty-five beams, fifteen per row.

<sup>4</sup> There were three rows of windows arranged in sets of three.

<sup>5</sup> All of the entrances were rectangular in shape and they were arranged in sets of three.

<sup>6</sup> He made a colonnade 75 feet long and 45 feet wide. There was a porch in front of this and pillars and a roof in front of the porch.

<sup>7</sup> He also made a throne room, called "The Hall of Judgment," where he made judicial decisions. It was paneled with cedar from the floor to the rafters.

<sup>8</sup> The palace where he lived was constructed in a similar way. He also constructed a palace like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had married.

Solomon Commissions Hiram to Supply the Temple

<sup>14</sup> He was the son of a widow from the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a craftsman in bronze from Tyre. He had the skill and knowledge to make all kinds of works of bronze. He reported to King Solomon and did all the work he was assigned.

<sup>15</sup> He fashioned two bronze pillars; each pillar was 27 feet high and 18 feet in circumference.

<sup>16</sup> He made two bronze tops for the pillars; each was seven-and-a-half feet high.

<sup>17</sup> The latticework on the tops of the pillars was adorned with ornamental wreaths and chains; the top of each pillar had seven groupings of ornaments.

<sup>18</sup> When he made the pillars, there were two rows of pomegranate-shaped ornaments around the latticework covering the top of each pillar.

<sup>19</sup> The tops of the two pillars in the porch were shaped like lilies and were six feet high.

<sup>22</sup> The tops of the pillars were shaped like lilies. So the construction of the pillars was completed.

<sup>23</sup> He also made the large bronze basin called "The Sea." It measured 15 feet from rim to rim, was circular in shape, and stood seven-and-a-half feet high. Its circumference was 45 feet.

<sup>24</sup> Under the rim all the way around it were round ornaments arranged in settings 15 feet long. The ornaments were in two rows and had been cast with "The Sea."

<sup>25</sup> "The Sea" stood on top of twelve bulls. Three faced northward, three westward, three southward, and three eastward. "The Sea" was placed on top of them, and they all faced outward.

<sup>26</sup> It was four fingers thick and its rim was like that of a cup shaped like a lily blossom. It could hold about 12,000 gallons.

<sup>27</sup> He also made ten bronze movable stands. Each stand was six feet long, six feet wide, and four-and-a-half feet high.

<sup>29</sup> On these frames and joints were ornamental lions, bulls, and cherubs. Under the lions and bulls were decorative wreaths.

<sup>30</sup> Each stand had four bronze wheels with bronze axles and four supports. Under the basin the supports were fashioned on each side with wreaths.

<sup>31</sup> Inside the stand was a round opening that was a foot-and-a-half deep; it had a support that was two and one-quarter feet long. On the edge of the opening were carvings in square frames.

<sup>32</sup> The four wheels were under the frames and the crossbars of the axles were connected to the stand. Each wheel was two and one-quarter feet high.

<sup>36</sup> He engraved ornamental cherubs, lions, and palm trees on the plates of the supports and frames wherever there was room, with wreaths all around.

<sup>37</sup> He made the ten stands in this way. All of them were cast in one mold and were identical in measurements and shape.

<sup>38</sup> He also made ten bronze basins, each of which could hold about 240 gallons. Each basin was six feet in diameter; there was one basin for each stand.

<sup>39</sup> He put five basins on the south side of the temple and five on the north side. He put "The Sea" on the south side, in the southeast corner.

<sup>40</sup> Hiram also made basins, shovels, and bowls. He finished all the work on the LORD's temple he had been assigned by King Solomon.

<sup>41</sup> He made the two pillars, the two bowl-shaped tops of the pillars, the latticework for the bowl-shaped tops of the two pillars,

<sup>47</sup> Solomon left all these items unweighed; there were so many of them they did not weigh the bronze.

<sup>48</sup> Solomon also made all these items for the LORD's temple: the gold altar, the gold table on which was kept the Bread of the Presence,

<sup>50</sup> the pure gold bowls, trimming shears, basins, pans, and censers, and the gold door sockets for the inner sanctuary (the most holy place) and for the doors of the main hall of the temple.

<sup>51</sup> When King Solomon finished constructing the LORD's temple, he put the holy items that belonged to his father David (the silver, gold, and other articles) in the treasuries of the LORD's temple.

8

<sup>4</sup> The priests and Levites carried the ark of the LORD, the tent of meeting, and all the holy items in the tent.

<sup>5</sup> Now King Solomon and all the Israelites who had assembled with him went on ahead of the ark and sacrificed more sheep and cattle than could be counted or numbered.

<sup>7</sup> The cherubs' wings extended over the place where the ark sat; the cherubs overshadowed the ark and its poles.

<sup>8</sup> The poles were so long their ends were visible from the holy place in front of the inner sanctuary, but they could not be seen from beyond that point. They have remained there to this very day.

<sup>9</sup> There was nothing in the ark except the two stone tablets Moses had placed there in Horeb. It was there that the LORD made an agreement with the Israelites after he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>12</sup> Then Solomon said, "The LORD has said that he lives in thick darkness.

<sup>13</sup> O LORD, truly | strong="H1129" I have built a lofty temple for you, a place where you can live permanently."

<sup>14</sup> Then the king turned around and pronounced a blessing over the whole Israelite assembly as they stood there.

<sup>15</sup> He said, "The LORD God of Israel is worthy of praise because he has fulfilled what he promised my father David.

<sup>16</sup> He told David, 'Since the day I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I have not chosen a city from all the tribes of Israel to build a temple in which to live. But I have chosen David to lead my people Israel.'

<sup>17</sup> Now my father David had a strong desire to build a temple to honor the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>18</sup> The LORD told my father David, 'It is right for you to have a strong desire to build a temple to honor me.

<sup>19</sup> But you will not build the temple; your very own son will build the temple for my honor.'

<sup>20</sup> The LORD has kept the promise he made. I have taken my father David's place and have occupied the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised. I have built this temple for the honor of the LORD God of Israel

<sup>21</sup> and set up in it a place for the ark containing the covenant the LORD made with our ancestors when he brought them out of the land of Egypt."

Solomon Prays for Israel

<sup>22</sup> Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the entire assembly of Israel and spread out his hands toward the sky.

<sup>23</sup> He prayed: "O LORD, God of Israel, there is no god like you in heaven above or on earth below! You maintain covenantal loyalty to your servants who obey you with sincerity.

<sup>24</sup> You have kept your word to your servant, my father David; this very day you have fulfilled what you promised.

<sup>25</sup> Now, O LORD | strong="H3069", God of Israel, keep the promise you made to your servant, my father David, when you said, 'You will never fail to have a successor ruling before me on the throne of Israel, provided that your descendants watch their step and serve me as you have done.'

<sup>26</sup> Now, O God of Israel, may the promise you made to your servant, my father David, be realized.

<sup>27</sup> "God does not really live on the earth! Look, if the sky and the highest heaven cannot contain you, how much less this temple I have built!

<sup>28</sup> But respond favorably to your servant's prayer and his request for help, O LORD my God. Answer the desperate prayer your servant is presenting to you today.

<sup>29</sup> Night and day may you watch over this temple, the place where you promised you would live. May you answer your servant's prayer for this place.

<sup>30</sup> Respond to the request of your servant and your people Israel for this place. Hear from inside your heavenly dwelling place and respond favorably.

<sup>32</sup> Listen from heaven and make a just decision about your servants' claims. Condemn the guilty party, declare the other innocent, and give both of them what they deserve.

<sup>33</sup> "The time will come when your people Israel are defeated by an enemy because they sinned against you. If they come back to you, renew their allegiance to you, and pray for your help in this temple,

<sup>34</sup> then listen from heaven, forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them back to the land you gave to their ancestors.

<sup>35</sup> “The time will come when the skies are shut up tightly and no rain falls because your people sinned against you. When they direct their prayers toward this place, renew their allegiance to you, and turn away from their sin because you punish them,

<sup>36</sup> then listen from heaven and forgive the sin of your servants, your people Israel. Certainly you will then teach them the right way to live and send rain on your land that you have given your people to possess.

<sup>37</sup> “The time will come when the land suffers from a famine, a plague, blight and disease, or a locust invasion, or when their enemy lays siege to the cities of the land, or when some other type of plague or epidemic occurs.

<sup>38</sup> When all your people Israel pray and ask for help, as they acknowledge their pain and spread out their hands toward this temple,

<sup>40</sup> Then they will obey you throughout their lifetimes as they live on the land you gave to our ancestors.

<sup>42</sup> When they hear about your great reputation and your ability to accomplish mighty deeds, they will come and direct their prayers toward this temple.

<sup>43</sup> Then listen from your heavenly dwelling place and answer all the prayers of the foreigners. Then all the nations of the earth will acknowledge your reputation, obey you like your people Israel do, and recognize that this temple I built belongs to you.

<sup>46</sup> “The time will come when your people will sin against you (for there is no one who is sinless!) and you will be angry with them and deliver them over to their enemies, who will take them as prisoners to their own land, whether far away or close by.

<sup>47</sup> When your people come to their senses in the land where they are held prisoner, they will repent and beg for your mercy in the land of their imprisonment, admitting, ‘We have sinned and gone astray; we have done evil.’

<sup>48</sup> When they return to you with all their heart and being in the land where they are held prisoner, and direct their prayers to you toward the land you gave to their ancestors, your chosen city, and the temple I built for your honor,

<sup>49</sup> then listen from your heavenly dwelling place to their prayers for help and vindicate them.

<sup>50</sup> Forgive all the rebellious acts of your sinful people and cause their captors to have mercy on them.

<sup>51</sup> After all, they are your people and your special possession whom you brought out of Egypt, from the middle of the iron-smelting furnace.

<sup>52</sup> “May you be attentive to your servant’s and your people Israel’s requests for help and may you respond to all their prayers to you.

<sup>53</sup> After all, you picked them out of all the nations of the earth to be your special possession, just as you, O sovereign LORD, announced through your servant Moses when you brought our ancestors out of Egypt.”

<sup>54</sup> When Solomon finished presenting all these prayers and requests to the LORD, he got up from before the altar of the LORD where he had kneeled and spread out his hands toward the sky.

<sup>55</sup> When he stood up, he pronounced a blessing over the entire assembly of Israel, saying in a loud voice:

<sup>56</sup> “The LORD is worthy of praise because he has made Israel his people secure just as he promised! Not one of all the faithful promises he made through his servant Moses is left unfulfilled!

<sup>57</sup> May the LORD our God be with us, as he was with our ancestors. May he not abandon us or leave us.

<sup>58</sup> May he make us submissive, so we can follow all his instructions and obey the commandments, rules, and regulations he commanded our ancestors.

<sup>59</sup> May the LORD our God be constantly aware of these requests of mine I have presented to him, so that he might vindicate his servant and his people Israel as the need arises.

<sup>60</sup> Then all the nations of the earth will recognize that the LORD is the only genuine God.

<sup>61</sup> May you demonstrate wholehearted devotion to the LORD our God by following his rules and obeying his commandments, as you are presently doing.”

Solomon Dedicates the Temple

<sup>62</sup> The king and all Israel with him were presenting sacrifices to the LORD.

<sup>63</sup> Solomon offered as peace offerings to the LORD 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep. Then the king and all the Israelites dedicated the LORD’s temple.

<sup>64</sup> That day the king consecrated the middle of the courtyard that is in front of the LORD’s temple. He offered there burnt sacrifices, grain offerings, and the fat from the peace offerings, because the bronze altar that stood before the LORD was too small to hold all these offerings.

<sup>65</sup> At that time Solomon and all Israel with him celebrated a festival before the LORD our God for two entire weeks. This great assembly included people from all over the land, from Lebo Hamath in the north to the Brook of Egypt in the south.

<sup>66</sup> On the fifteenth day after the festival started, he dismissed the people. They asked God to empower the king and then went to their homes, happy and content because of all the good the LORD had done for his servant David and his people Israel.

9

<sup>1</sup> After Solomon finished building the LORD’s temple, the royal palace, and all the other construction projects he had planned, <sup>2</sup> the LORD appeared to Solomon a second time, in the same way he had appeared to him at Gibeon.

<sup>3</sup> The LORD said to him, “I have answered your prayer and your request for help that you made to me. I have consecrated this temple you built by making it my permanent home; I will be constantly present there.

<sup>4</sup> You must serve me with integrity and sincerity, just as your father David did. Do everything I commanded and obey my rules and regulations.

<sup>5</sup> Then I will allow your dynasty to rule over Israel permanently, just as I promised your father David, ‘You will not fail to have a successor on the throne of Israel.’

<sup>6</sup> “But if you or your sons ever turn away from me, fail to obey the regulations and rules I instructed you to keep, and decide to serve and worship other gods,

<sup>7</sup> then I will remove Israel from the land I have given them, I will abandon this temple I have consecrated with my presence, and Israel will be mocked and ridiculed among all the nations.

<sup>8</sup> This temple will become a heap of ruins; everyone who passes by it will be shocked and will hiss out their scorn, saying, ‘Why did the LORD do this to this land and this temple?’

<sup>9</sup> Others will then answer, 'Because they abandoned the LORD their God, who led their ancestors out of Egypt. They embraced other gods whom they worshiped and served. That is why the LORD has brought all this disaster down on them.' "

Foreign Affairs and Building Projects

<sup>10</sup> After twenty years, during which Solomon built the LORD's temple and the royal palace,

<sup>12</sup> When Hiram went out from Tyre to inspect the cities Solomon had given him, he was not pleased with them.

<sup>13</sup> Hiram asked, "Why did you give me these cities, my friend?" He called that area the region of Cabul, a name which it has retained to this day.

<sup>16</sup> (Pharaoh, king of Egypt, had attacked and captured Gezer. He burned it and killed the Canaanites who lived in the city. He gave it as a wedding present to his daughter, who had married Solomon.)

<sup>19</sup> all the storage cities that belonged to him, and the cities where chariots and horses were kept. He built whatever he wanted in Jerusalem, Lebanon, and throughout his entire kingdom.

<sup>21</sup> Their descendants remained in the land (the Israelites were unable to wipe them out completely). Solomon conscripted them for his work crews, and they continue in that role to this very day.

<sup>24</sup> Solomon built the terrace as soon as Pharaoh's daughter moved up from the city of David to the palace Solomon built for her.

<sup>25</sup> Three times a year Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar he had built for the LORD, burning incense along with them before the LORD. He made the temple his official worship place.

<sup>27</sup> Hiram sent his fleet and some of his sailors, who were well acquainted with the sea, to serve with Solomon's men.

<sup>28</sup> They sailed to Ophir, took from there four hundred twenty talents of gold, and then brought them to King Solomon.

10

<sup>3</sup> Solomon answered all her questions; there was no question too complex for the king.

<sup>4</sup> When the queen of Sheba saw for herself Solomon's extensive wisdom, the palace he had built,

<sup>5</sup> the food in his banquet hall, his servants and attendants, their robes, his cupbearers, and his burnt offerings which he presented in the LORD's temple, she was amazed.

<sup>6</sup> She said to the king, "The report I heard in my own country about your wise sayings and insight was true!

<sup>7</sup> I did not believe these things until I came and saw them with my own eyes. Indeed, I didn't hear even half the story! Your wisdom and wealth surpass what was reported to me.

<sup>8</sup> Your attendants, who stand before you at all times and hear your wise sayings, are truly happy!

<sup>9</sup> May the LORD your God be praised because he favored you by placing you on the throne of Israel! Because of the LORD's eternal love for Israel, he made you king so you could make just and right decisions."

<sup>10</sup> She gave the king 120 talents of gold, a very large quantity of spices, and precious gems. The quantity of spices the queen of Sheba gave King Solomon has never been matched.

<sup>11</sup> (Hiram's fleet, which carried gold from Ophir, also brought from Ophir a very large quantity of fine timber and precious gems.

<sup>12</sup> With the timber the king made supports for the LORD's | strong="H3069" temple and for the royal palace and stringed instruments for the musicians. No one has seen so much of this fine timber to this very day. )

Solomon's Wealth

<sup>15</sup> besides what he collected from the merchants, traders, Arabian kings, and governors of the land.

<sup>16</sup> King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; 600 measures of gold were used for each shield.

<sup>19</sup> There were six steps leading up to the throne, and the back of it was rounded on top. The throne had two armrests with a statue of a lion standing on each side.

<sup>20</sup> There were twelve statues of lions on the six steps, one lion at each end of each step. There was nothing like it in any other kingdom.

<sup>21</sup> All of King Solomon's cups were made of gold, and all the household items in the Palace of the Lebanon Forest were made of pure gold. There were no silver items, for silver was not considered very valuable in Solomon's time.

<sup>22</sup> Along with Hiram's fleet, the king had a fleet of large merchant ships that sailed the sea. Once every three years the fleet came into port with cargoes of gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

<sup>27</sup> The king made silver as plentiful in Jerusalem as stones; cedar was as plentiful as sycamore fig trees are in the lowlands.

<sup>29</sup> They paid 600 silver pieces for each chariot from Egypt and 150 silver pieces for each horse. They also sold chariots and horses to all the kings of the Hittites and to the kings of Syria.

11

<sup>2</sup> They came from nations about which the LORD | strong="H3069" had warned the Israelites, "You must not establish friendly relations with them! If you do, they will surely shift your allegiance to their gods." But Solomon was irresistibly attracted to them.

<sup>3</sup> He had 700 royal wives and 300 concubines; his wives had a powerful influence over him.

<sup>6</sup> Solomon did evil in the LORD's sight; he did not remain loyal to the LORD, like his father David had.

<sup>7</sup> Furthermore, on the hill east of Jerusalem Solomon built a high place for the detestable Moabite god Chemosh and for the detestable Ammonite god Milcom.

<sup>8</sup> He built high places for all his foreign wives so they could burn incense and make sacrifices to their gods.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD was angry with Solomon because he had shifted his allegiance away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him on two occasions

<sup>10</sup> and had warned him about this very thing, so that he would not follow other gods. But he did not obey the LORD's command.

<sup>11</sup> So the LORD said to Solomon, "Because you insist on doing these things and have not kept the covenantal rules I gave you, I will surely tear the kingdom away from you and give it to your servant.

<sup>12</sup> However, for your father David's sake I will not do this while you are alive. I will tear it away from your son's hand instead.

<sup>13</sup> But I will not tear away the entire kingdom; I will leave your son one tribe for my servant David's sake and for the sake of my chosen city Jerusalem."

<sup>17</sup> Hadad, who was only a small boy at the time, escaped with some of his father's Edomite servants and headed for Egypt.

<sup>18</sup> They went from Midian to Paran; they took some men from Paran and went to Egypt. Pharaoh, king of Egypt, supplied him with a house and food and even assigned him some land.

<sup>19</sup> Pharaoh liked Hadad so well he gave him his sister-in-law (Queen Tahpenes' sister) as a wife.

<sup>20</sup> Tahpenes' sister gave birth to his son, named Genubath. Tahpenes raised him in Pharaoh's palace; Genubath grew up in Pharaoh's palace among Pharaoh's sons.

<sup>21</sup> While in Egypt Hadad heard that David had passed away and that Joab, the commander of the army, was dead. So Hadad asked Pharaoh, "Give me permission to leave so I can return to my homeland."

<sup>22</sup> Pharaoh said to him, "What do you lack here that makes you want to go to your homeland?" Hadad replied, "Nothing, but please give me permission to leave."

<sup>24</sup> He gathered some men and organized a raiding band. When David tried to kill them, they went to Damascus, where they settled down and gained control of the city.

<sup>25</sup> He was Israel's enemy throughout Solomon's reign and, like Hadad, caused trouble. He loathed Israel and ruled over Syria.

<sup>27</sup> This is what prompted him to rebel against the king: Solomon built a terrace and he closed up a gap in the wall of the city of his father David.

<sup>28</sup> Jeroboam was a talented man; when Solomon saw that the young man was an accomplished worker, he made him the leader of the work crew from the tribe of Joseph.

<sup>29</sup> At that time, when Jeroboam had left Jerusalem, the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite met him on the road; the two of them were alone in the open country. Ahijah was wearing a brand new robe, <sup>30</sup> and he grabbed the robe and tore it into twelve pieces.

<sup>31</sup> Then he told Jeroboam, "Take ten pieces, for this is what the LORD God of Israel says: 'Look, I am about to tear the kingdom from Solomon's hand and I will give ten tribes to you.'

<sup>32</sup> He will retain one tribe, for my servant David's sake and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel.

<sup>33</sup> I am taking the kingdom from him because they have abandoned me and worshiped the Sidonian goddess Astarte, the Moabite god Chemosh, and the Ammonite god Milcom. They have not followed my instructions by doing what I approve and obeying my rules and regulations, like Solomon's father David did.

<sup>34</sup> I will not take the whole kingdom from his hand. I will allow him to be ruler for the rest of his life for the sake of my chosen servant David who kept my commandments and rules.

<sup>35</sup> I will take the kingdom from the hand of his son and give ten tribes to you.

<sup>36</sup> I will leave his son one tribe so my servant David's dynasty may continue to serve me in Jerusalem, the city I have chosen as my home.

<sup>37</sup> I will select you; you will rule over all you desire to have and you will be king over Israel.

<sup>38</sup> You must obey all I command you to do, follow my instructions, do what I approve, and keep my rules and commandments, like my servant David did. Then I will be with you and establish for you a lasting dynasty, as I did for David; I will give you Israel.

<sup>39</sup> I will humiliate David's descendants because of this, but not forever."

Solomon's Reign Ends

12

<sup>2</sup> When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard the news, he was still in Egypt, where he had fled from King Solomon and had been living ever since.

<sup>3</sup> They sent for him, and Jeroboam and the whole Israelite assembly came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

<sup>4</sup> "Your father made us work too hard. Now if you lighten the demands he made and don't make us work as hard, we will serve you."

<sup>5</sup> He said to them, "Go away for three days, then return to me." So the people went away.

<sup>6</sup> King Rehoboam consulted with the older advisers who had served his father Solomon when he had been alive. He asked them, "How do you advise me to answer these people?"

<sup>7</sup> They said to him, "Today if you show a willingness to help these people and grant their request, they will be your servants from this time forward."

<sup>8</sup> But Rehoboam rejected their advice and consulted the young advisers who served him, with whom he had grown up.

<sup>9</sup> He asked them, "How do you advise me to respond to these people who said to me, 'Lessen the demands your father placed on us'?"

<sup>10</sup> The young advisers with whom Rehoboam had grown up said to him, "Say this to these people who have said to you, 'Your father made us work hard, but now lighten our burden.' Say this to them: 'I am a lot harsher than my father!'

<sup>11</sup> My father imposed heavy demands on you; I will make them even heavier. My father punished you with ordinary whips; I will punish you with whips that really sting your flesh.' "

<sup>12</sup> Jeroboam and all the people reported to Rehoboam on the third day, just as the king had ordered when he said, "Return to me on the third day."

<sup>13</sup> The king responded to the people harshly. He rejected the advice of the older men

<sup>14</sup> and followed the advice of the younger ones. He said, "My father imposed heavy demands on you; I will make them even heavier. My father punished you with ordinary whips; I will punish you with whips that really sting your flesh."

<sup>15</sup> The king refused to listen to the people, because the LORD was instigating this turn of events so that he might bring to pass the prophetic announcement he had made through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam son of Nebat.

<sup>16</sup> When all Israel saw that the king refused to listen to them, the people answered the king, "We have no portion in David, no share in the son of Jesse! Return to your homes, O Israel! Now, look after your own dynasty, O David!" So Israel returned to their homes.

<sup>19</sup> So Israel has been in rebellion against the Davidic dynasty to this very day.

<sup>20</sup> When all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, they summoned him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel. No one except the tribe of Judah remained loyal to the Davidic dynasty.

<sup>21</sup> When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he summoned 180,000 skilled warriors from all of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin to attack Israel and restore the kingdom to Rehoboam son of Solomon.

<sup>22</sup> But God told Shemaiah the prophet,

<sup>23</sup> “Say this to King Rehoboam son of Solomon of Judah, and to all Judah and Benjamin, as well as the rest of the people,

<sup>24</sup> ‘The LORD | strong="H3069" says this: “Do not attack and make war with your brothers, the Israelites. Each of you go home, for I have caused this to happen.” ’ They obeyed the LORD and went home as the LORD | strong="H3069" had ordered them to do.

Jeroboam Makes Golden Calves

<sup>25</sup> Jeroboam built up Shechem in the Ephraimite hill country and lived there. From there he went out and built up Penuel.

<sup>26</sup> Jeroboam then thought to himself: “Now the Davidic dynasty could regain the kingdom.

<sup>27</sup> If these people go up to offer sacrifices in the LORD’s temple in Jerusalem, their loyalty could shift to their former master, King Rehoboam of Judah. They might kill me and return to King Rehoboam of Judah.”

<sup>28</sup> After the king had consulted with his advisers, he made two golden calves. Then he said to the people, “It is too much trouble for you to go up to Jerusalem. Look, Israel, here are your gods who brought you up from the land of Egypt.”

<sup>29</sup> He put one in Bethel and the other in Dan.

<sup>30</sup> This caused Israel to sin; the people went to Bethel and Dan to worship the calves.

<sup>31</sup> He built temples on the high places and appointed as priests people who were not Levites.

<sup>32</sup> Jeroboam inaugurated a festival on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, like the festival celebrated in Judah. On the altar in Bethel he offered sacrifices to the calves he had made. In Bethel he also appointed priests for the high places he had made.

A Prophet from Judah Visits Bethel

<sup>33</sup> On the fifteenth day of the eighth month (a date he had arbitrarily chosen) Jeroboam offered sacrifices on the altar he had made in Bethel. He inaugurated a festival for the Israelites and went up to the altar to offer sacrifices.

13

<sup>1</sup> Just then a prophet from Judah, sent by the LORD, arrived in Bethel, as Jeroboam was standing near the altar ready to offer a sacrifice.

<sup>2</sup> With the authority of the LORD he cried out against the altar, “O altar, altar! This is what the LORD says, ‘Look, a son named Josiah will be born to the Davidic dynasty. He will sacrifice on you the priests of the high places who offer sacrifices on you. Human bones will be burned on you.’ ”

<sup>3</sup> That day he also announced a sign, “This is the sign the LORD has predetermined: The altar will be split open and the ashes on it will fall to the ground.”

<sup>4</sup> When the king heard what the prophet cried out against the altar in Bethel, Jeroboam, standing at the altar, extended his hand and ordered, “Seize him!” The hand he had extended shriveled up and he could not pull it back.

<sup>5</sup> The altar split open and the ashes fell from the altar to the ground, in fulfillment of the sign the prophet had announced with the LORD’s authority.

<sup>6</sup> The king pled with the prophet, "Seek the favor of the LORD your God and pray for me, so that my hand may be restored." So the prophet sought the LORD's favor and the king's hand was restored to its former condition.

<sup>7</sup> The king then said to the prophet, "Come home with me and have something to eat. I'd like to give a present."

<sup>8</sup> But the prophet said to the king, "Even if you were to give me half your possessions, I could not go with you and eat and drink in this place.

<sup>9</sup> For the LORD | strong="H3069" gave me strict orders, 'Do not eat or drink there and do not go home the way you came.' "

<sup>10</sup> So he started back on another road; he did not travel back on the same road he had taken to Bethel.

<sup>11</sup> Now there was an old prophet living in Bethel. When his sons came home, they told their father everything the prophet had done in Bethel that day and all the words he had spoken to the king.

<sup>12</sup> Their father asked them, "Which road did he take?" His sons showed him the road the prophet from Judah had taken.

<sup>13</sup> He then told his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me." When they had saddled the donkey for him, he mounted it

<sup>14</sup> and took off after the prophet, whom he found sitting under an oak tree. He asked him, "Are you the prophet from Judah?" He answered, "Yes, I am."

<sup>15</sup> He then said to him, "Come home with me and eat something."

<sup>16</sup> But he replied, "I can't go back with you or eat and drink with you in this place.

<sup>17</sup> For the LORD | strong="H3069" gave me strict orders, 'Do not eat or drink there; do not go back the way you came.' "

<sup>18</sup> The old prophet then said, "I too am a prophet like you. An angel told me with the LORD's authority, 'Bring him back with you to your house so he can eat and drink.' " But he was lying to him.

<sup>19</sup> So the prophet went back with him and ate and drank in his house.

<sup>21</sup> and he cried out to the prophet from Judah, "This is what the LORD says, 'You have rebelled against the LORD and have not obeyed the command the LORD your God gave you.

<sup>22</sup> You went back and ate and drank in this place, even though he said to you, "Do not eat or drink there." Therefore your corpse will not be buried in your ancestral tomb.' "

<sup>25</sup> Some men came by and saw the corpse lying in the road with the lion standing beside it. They went and reported what they had seen in the city where the old prophet lived.

<sup>26</sup> When the old prophet who had invited him to his house heard the news, he said, "It is the prophet who rebelled against the LORD. The LORD delivered him over to the lion and it ripped him up and killed him, just as the LORD warned him."

<sup>27</sup> He told his sons, "Saddle my donkey," and they did so.

<sup>29</sup> The old prophet picked up the corpse of the prophet, put it on the donkey, and brought it back. The old prophet then entered the city to mourn him and to bury him.

<sup>30</sup> He put the corpse into his own tomb, and they mourned over him, saying, “Ah, my brother!”

<sup>32</sup> for the prophecy he announced with the LORD’s authority against the altar in Bethel and against all the temples on the high places in the cities of the north will certainly be fulfilled.”

A Prophet Announces the End of Jeroboam’s Dynasty

<sup>33</sup> After this happened, Jeroboam still did not change his evil ways; he continued to appoint common people as priests at the high places. Anyone who wanted the job he consecrated as a priest.

<sup>34</sup> This sin caused Jeroboam’s dynasty to come to an end and to be destroyed from the face of the earth.

At that time Jeroboam’s son Abijah became sick.

<sup>2</sup> Jeroboam told his wife, “Disguise yourself so that people cannot recognize you are Jeroboam’s wife. Then go to Shiloh; Ahijah the prophet, who told me I would rule over this nation, lives there.

<sup>3</sup> Take ten loaves of bread, some small cakes, and a container of honey and visit him. He will tell you what will happen to the boy.”

<sup>4</sup> Jeroboam’s wife did as she was told. She went to Shiloh and visited Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see; he had lost his eyesight in his old age.

<sup>5</sup> But the LORD had told Ahijah, “Look, Jeroboam’s wife is coming to find out from you what will happen to her son, for he is sick. Tell her so-and-so. When she comes, she will be in a disguise.”

<sup>6</sup> When Ahijah heard the sound of her footsteps as she came through the door, he said, “Come on in, wife of Jeroboam! Why are you pretending to be someone else? I have been commissioned to give you bad news.

<sup>7</sup> Go, tell Jeroboam, “This is what the LORD God of Israel says: “I raised you up from among the people and made you ruler over my people Israel.

<sup>8</sup> I tore the kingdom away from the Davidic dynasty and gave it to you. But you are not like my servant David, who kept my commandments and followed me wholeheartedly by doing only what I approve.

<sup>9</sup> You have sinned more than all who came before you. You went and angered me by making other gods, formed out of metal; you have completely disregarded me.

<sup>10</sup> So I am ready to bring disaster on the dynasty of Jeroboam. I will cut off every last male belonging to Jeroboam in Israel, including even the weak and incapacitated. I will burn up the dynasty of Jeroboam, just as one burns manure until it is completely consumed.

<sup>11</sup> Dogs will eat the members of your family who die in the city, and the birds of the sky will eat the ones who die in the country.”’ Indeed, the LORD has announced it!

<sup>12</sup> “As for you, get up and go home. When you set foot in the city, the boy will die.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD will raise up a king over Israel who will cut off Jeroboam’s dynasty. It is ready to happen!

<sup>15</sup> The LORD will attack Israel, making it like a reed that sways in the water. He will remove Israel from this good land he gave to their ancestors and scatter them beyond the Euphrates River, because they angered the LORD by making Asherah poles.

<sup>16</sup> He will hand Israel over to their enemies because of the sins which Jeroboam committed and which he made Israel commit.”

<sup>17</sup> So Jeroboam’s wife got up and went back to Tirzah. As she crossed the threshold of the house, the boy died.

<sup>18</sup> All Israel buried him and mourned for him, just as the LORD had predicted through his servant the prophet Ahijah.

Jeroboam’s Reign Ends

<sup>19</sup> The rest of the events of Jeroboam’s reign, including the details of his battles and rule, are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

<sup>20</sup> Jeroboam ruled for twenty-two years; then he passed away. His son Nadab replaced him as king.

Rehoboam’s Reign over Judah

<sup>21</sup> Now Rehoboam son of Solomon ruled in Judah. He was forty-one years old when he became king and he ruled for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city the LORD chose from all the tribes of Israel to be his home. His mother was an Ammonite woman named Naamah.

<sup>23</sup> They even built for themselves high places, sacred pillars, and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every green tree.

<sup>24</sup> There were also male cultic prostitutes in the land. They committed the same horrible sins as the nations that the LORD had driven out from before the Israelites.

15

<sup>5</sup> He did this because David had done what he approved and had not disregarded any of his commandments his entire lifetime, except for the incident involving Uriah the Hittite.

<sup>6</sup> Rehoboam and Jeroboam were continually at war with each other throughout Abijah's lifetime.

<sup>8</sup> Abijah passed away and was buried in the city of David. His son Asa replaced him as king.

Asa's Reign over Judah

<sup>13</sup> He also removed Maacah his grandmother from her position as queen because she had made a loathsome Asherah pole. Asa cut down her Asherah pole and burned it in the Kidron Valley.

<sup>14</sup> The high places were not eliminated, yet Asa was wholeheartedly devoted to the LORD throughout his lifetime.

<sup>15</sup> He brought the holy items that he and his father had made into the LORD's temple, including the silver, gold, and other articles.

<sup>16</sup> Now Asa and King Baasha of Israel were continually at war with each other.

<sup>17</sup> King Baasha of Israel attacked Judah and established Ramah as a military outpost to prevent anyone from leaving or entering the land of King Asa of Judah.

<sup>18</sup> Asa took all the silver and gold that was left in the treasuries of the LORD's temple and of the royal palace and handed it to his servants. He then told them to deliver it to Ben Hadad son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, ruler in Damascus, along with this message:

<sup>19</sup> "I want to make a treaty with you, like the one our fathers made. See, I have sent you silver and gold as a present. Break your treaty with King Baasha of Israel, so he will retreat from my land."

<sup>21</sup> When Baasha heard the news, he stopped fortifying Ramah and settled down in Tirzah.

<sup>22</sup> King Asa ordered all the men of Judah (no exemptions were granted) to carry away the stones and wood that Baasha had used to build Ramah. King Asa used the materials to build up Geba (in Benjamin) and Mizpah.

<sup>23</sup> The rest of the events of Asa's reign, including all his successes and accomplishments, as well as a record of the cities he built, are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Judah. Yet when he was very old he developed a foot disease.

<sup>24</sup> Asa passed away and was buried with his ancestors in the city of his ancestor David. His son Jehoshaphat replaced him as king.

Nadab's Reign over Israel

<sup>25</sup> In the second year of Asa's reign over Judah, Jeroboam's son Nadab became the king of Israel; he ruled Israel for two years.

<sup>26</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD. He followed in his father's footsteps and encouraged Israel to sin.

<sup>27</sup> Baasha son of Ahijah, from the tribe of Issachar, conspired against Nadab and assassinated him in Gibbethon, which was in Philistine territory. This happened while Nadab and all the Israelite army were besieging Gibbethon.

<sup>28</sup> Baasha killed him in the third year of Asa's reign over Judah and replaced him as king.

<sup>29</sup> When he became king, he executed Jeroboam's entire family. He wiped out everyone who breathed, just as the LORD had predicted through his servant Ahijah the Shilonite.

<sup>30</sup> This happened because of the sins which Jeroboam committed and which he made Israel commit. These sins angered the LORD God of Israel.

Baasha's Reign over Israel

<sup>33</sup> In the third year of Asa's reign over Judah, Baasha son of Ahijah became king over all Israel in Tirzah; he ruled for twenty-four years.

<sup>34</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he followed in Jeroboam's footsteps and encouraged Israel to sin.

<sup>2</sup> "I raised you up from the dust and made you ruler over my people Israel. Yet you followed in Jeroboam's footsteps and encouraged my people Israel to sin; their sins have made me angry.

<sup>3</sup> So I am ready to burn up Baasha and his family, and make your family like the family of Jeroboam son of Nebat.

<sup>4</sup> Dogs will eat the members of Baasha's family who die in the city, and the birds of the sky will eat the ones who die in the country."

<sup>6</sup> Baasha passed away and was buried in Tirzah. His son Elah replaced him as king.

<sup>7</sup> The prophet Jehu son of Hanani received from the LORD the message predicting the downfall of Baasha and his family because of all the evil Baasha had done in the sight of the LORD. His actions angered the LORD (including the way he had destroyed Jeroboam's dynasty | strong="H1004"), so that his family ended up like Jeroboam's.

Elah's Reign over Israel

<sup>9</sup> His servant Zimri, a commander of half of his chariot force, conspired against him. While Elah was drinking heavily at the house of Arza, who supervised the palace in Tirzah, <sup>10</sup> Zimri came in and struck him dead. (This happened in the twenty-seventh year of Asa's reign over Judah.) Zimri replaced Elah as king.

<sup>11</sup> When he became king and occupied the throne, he killed Baasha's entire family. He did not spare any male belonging to him; he killed his relatives and his friends.

<sup>12</sup> Zimri destroyed Baasha's entire family, just as the LORD | strong="H3069" had predicted to Baasha through Jehu the prophet.

<sup>13</sup> This happened because of all the sins which Baasha and his son Elah committed and which they made Israel commit. They angered the LORD God of Israel with their worthless idols.

<sup>14</sup> The rest of the events of Elah's reign, including all his accomplishments, are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

Zimri's Reign over Israel

<sup>15</sup> In the twenty-seventh year of Asa's reign over Judah, Zimri became king over Israel; he ruled for seven days in Tirzah. Zimri's revolt took place while the army was deployed in Gibbethon, which was in Philistine territory.

<sup>16</sup> While deployed there, the army received this report: "Zimri has conspired against the king and assassinated him." So all Israel made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that very day in the camp.

<sup>17</sup> Omri and all Israel went up from Gibbethon and besieged Tirzah.

<sup>18</sup> When Zimri saw that the city was captured, he went into the fortified area of the royal palace. He set the palace on fire and died in the flames.

<sup>19</sup> This happened because of the sins he committed. He did evil in the sight of the LORD and followed in Jeroboam's footsteps and encouraged Israel to continue sinning.

Omri's Reign over Israel

<sup>21</sup> At that time the people of Israel were divided in their loyalties. Half the people supported Tibni son of Ginath and wanted to make him king; the other half supported Omri.

<sup>22</sup> Omri's supporters were stronger than those who supported Tibni son of Ginath. Tibni died; Omri became king.

<sup>23</sup> In the thirty-first year of Asa's reign over Judah, Omri became king over Israel. He ruled for twelve years, six of them in Tirzah.

<sup>24</sup> He purchased the hill of Samaria from Shemer for two talents of silver. He launched a construction project there and named the city he built after Shemer, the former owner of the hill of Samaria.

<sup>25</sup> Omri did more evil in the sight of the LORD than all who were before him.

<sup>26</sup> He followed in the footsteps of Jeroboam son of Nebat and encouraged Israel to sin; they angered the LORD God of Israel with their worthless idols.

<sup>28</sup> Omri passed away and was buried in Samaria. His son Ahab replaced him as king.

Ahab Promotes Idolatry

<sup>29</sup> In the thirty-eighth year of Asa's reign over Judah, Omri's son Ahab became king over Israel. Ahab son of Omri ruled over Israel for twenty-two years in Samaria.

<sup>30</sup> Ahab son of Omri did more evil in the sight of the LORD than all who were before him.

<sup>31</sup> As if following in the sinful footsteps of Jeroboam son of Nebat were not bad enough, he married Jezebel the daughter of King Ethbaal of the Sidonians. Then he worshiped and bowed to Baal.

<sup>32</sup> He set up an altar for Baal in the temple of Baal he had built in Samaria.

<sup>33</sup> Ahab also made an Asherah pole; he did more to anger the LORD God of Israel than all the kings of Israel who were before him.

<sup>34</sup> During Ahab's reign, Hiel the Bethelite rebuilt Jericho. Abiram, his firstborn son, died when he laid the foundation; Segub, his youngest son, died when he erected its gates, just as the LORD had warned through Joshua son of Nun.

17

<sup>1</sup> Elijah the Tishbite, from Tishbe in Gilead, said to Ahab, "As certainly as the LORD God of Israel lives (whom I serve), there will be no dew or rain in the years ahead unless I give the command."

<sup>4</sup> Drink from the stream; I have already told the ravens to bring you food there."

<sup>5</sup> So he did as the LORD told him; he went and lived in the Kerith Valley near the Jordan.

<sup>6</sup> The ravens would bring him bread and meat each morning and evening, and he would drink from the stream.

<sup>7</sup> After a while, the stream dried up because there had been no rain in the land.

<sup>9</sup> "Get up, go to Zarephath in Sidonian territory, and live there. I have already told a widow who lives there to provide for you."

<sup>10</sup> So he got up and went to Zarephath. When he went through the city gate, there was a widow gathering wood. He called out to her, "Please give me a cup of water, so I can take a drink."

<sup>11</sup> As she went to get it, he called out to her, "Please bring me a piece of bread."

<sup>12</sup> She said, "As certainly as the LORD your God lives, I have no food, except for a handful of flour in a jar and a little olive oil in a jug. Right now I am gathering a couple of sticks for a fire. Then I'm going home to make one final meal for my son and myself. After we have eaten that, we will die of starvation."

<sup>13</sup> Elijah said to her, "Don't be afraid. Go and do as you planned. But first make a small cake for me and bring it to me; then make something for yourself and your son.

<sup>14</sup> For this is what the LORD God of Israel says, 'The jar of flour will not be empty and the jug of oil will not run out until the day the LORD makes it rain on the surface of the ground.'

<sup>15</sup> She went and did as Elijah told her; there was always enough food for Elijah and for her and her family.

<sup>16</sup> The jar of flour was never empty and the jug of oil never ran out, just as the LORD had promised through Elijah.

<sup>17</sup> After this the son of the woman who owned the house got sick. His illness was so severe he could no longer breathe.

<sup>18</sup> She asked Elijah, "Why, prophet, have you come to me to confront me with my sin and kill my son?"

<sup>19</sup> He said to her, "Hand me your son." He took him from her arms, carried him to the upper room where he was staying, and laid him down on his bed.

<sup>20</sup> Then he called out to the LORD, "O LORD, my God, are you also bringing disaster on this widow I am staying with by killing her son?"

<sup>21</sup> He stretched out over the boy three times and called out to the LORD, "O LORD, my God, please let this boy's breath return to him."

<sup>22</sup> The LORD answered Elijah's prayer; the boy's breath returned to him and he lived.

<sup>23</sup> Elijah took the boy, brought him down from the upper room to the house, and handed him to his mother. Elijah then said, "See, your son is alive!"

<sup>24</sup> The woman said to Elijah, "Now I know that you are a prophet and that the LORD really does speak through you."

18

<sup>2</sup> So Elijah went to make an appearance before Ahab.

Now the famine was severe in Samaria.

<sup>3</sup> So Ahab summoned Obadiah, who supervised the palace. (Now Obadiah was a very loyal follower of the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> When Jezebel was killing the LORD’s prophets, Obadiah took one hundred prophets and hid them in two caves in two groups of fifty. He also brought them food and water.)

<sup>5</sup> Ahab told Obadiah, “Go through the land to all the springs and valleys. Maybe we can find some grazing areas so we can keep the horses and mules alive and not have to kill some of the animals.”

<sup>6</sup> They divided up the land between them; Ahab went one way and Obadiah went the other.

<sup>7</sup> As Obadiah was traveling along, Elijah met him. When he recognized him, he fell facedown to the ground and said, “Is it really you, my master, Elijah?”

<sup>8</sup> He replied, “Yes, go and say to your master, ‘Elijah is back.’ ”

<sup>9</sup> Obadiah said, “What sin have I committed that you are ready to hand your servant over to Ahab for execution?”

<sup>10</sup> As certainly as the LORD your God lives, my master has sent to every nation and kingdom in an effort to find you. When they say, ‘He’s not here,’ he makes them swear an oath that they could not find you.

<sup>12</sup> But when I leave you, the LORD’s spirit will carry you away so I can’t find you. If I go tell Ahab I’ve seen you, he won’t be able to find you and he will kill me. That would not be fair, because your servant has been a loyal follower of the LORD from my youth.

<sup>13</sup> Certainly my master is aware of what I did when Jezebel was killing the LORD’s prophets. I hid one hundred of the LORD’s prophets in two caves in two groups of fifty and I brought them food and water.

<sup>14</sup> Now you say, ‘Go and say to your master, “Elijah is back,” ’ but he will kill me.”

<sup>15</sup> But Elijah said, “As certainly as the LORD who rules over all lives (whom I serve), I will make an appearance before him today.”

Elijah Confronts Baal’s Prophets

<sup>16</sup> When Obadiah went and informed Ahab, the king went to meet Elijah.

<sup>17</sup> When Ahab saw Elijah, he said to him, “Is it really you, the one who brings disaster on Israel?”

<sup>18</sup> Elijah replied, “I have not brought disaster on Israel. But you and your father’s dynasty have, by abandoning the LORD’s commandments and following the Baals.

<sup>21</sup> Elijah approached all the people and said, “How long are you going to be paralyzed by indecision? If the LORD is the true God, then follow him, but if Baal is, follow him!” But the people did not say a word.

<sup>22</sup> Elijah said to them: “I am the only prophet of the LORD who is left, but there are 450 prophets of Baal.

<sup>23</sup> Let them bring us two bulls. Let them choose one of the bulls for themselves, cut it up into pieces, and place it on the wood. But they must not set it on fire. I will do the same to the other bull and place it on the wood. But I will not set it on fire.

<sup>24</sup> Then you will invoke the name of your god, and I will invoke the name of the LORD. The god who responds with fire will demonstrate that he is the true God.” All the people responded, “This will be a fair test.”

<sup>25</sup> Elijah told the prophets of Baal, “Choose one of the bulls for yourselves and go first, for you are the majority. Invoke the name of your god, but do not light a fire.”

<sup>26</sup> So they took a bull, as he had suggested, and prepared it. They invoked the name of Baal from morning until noon, saying, “Baal, answer us.” But there was no sound and no answer. They jumped around on the altar they had made.

<sup>27</sup> At noon Elijah mocked them, “Yell louder! After all, he is a god; he may be deep in thought, or perhaps he stepped out for a moment or has taken a trip. Perhaps he is sleeping and needs to be awakened.”

<sup>28</sup> So they yelled louder and, in accordance with their prescribed ritual, mutilated themselves with swords and spears until their bodies were covered with blood.

<sup>29</sup> Throughout the afternoon they were in an ecstatic frenzy, but there was no sound, no answer, and no response.

<sup>30</sup> Elijah then told all the people, “Approach me.” So all the people approached him. He repaired the altar of the LORD that had been torn down.

<sup>31</sup> Then Elijah took twelve stones, corresponding to the number of tribes that descended from Jacob, to whom the LORD had said, “Israel will be your new name.”

<sup>32</sup> With the stones he constructed an altar for the LORD. Around the altar he made a trench large enough to contain two seahs of seed.

<sup>33</sup> He arranged the wood, cut up the bull, and placed it on the wood.

<sup>34</sup> Then he said, “Fill four water jars and pour the water on the offering and the wood.” When they had done so, he said, “Do it again.” So they did it again. Then he said, “Do it a third time.” So they did it a third time.

<sup>35</sup> The water flowed down all sides of the altar and filled the trench.

<sup>36</sup> When it was time for the evening offering, Elijah the prophet approached the altar and prayed: “O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, prove today that you are God in Israel and that I am your servant and have done all these things at your command.

<sup>37</sup> Answer me, O LORD, answer me, so these people will know that you, O LORD, are the true God and that you are winning back their allegiance.”

<sup>38</sup> Then fire from the LORD fell from the sky. It consumed the offering, the wood, the stones, and the dirt, and licked up the water in the trench.

<sup>39</sup> When all the people saw this, they threw themselves down with their faces to the ground and said, “The LORD is the true God! The LORD is the true God!”

<sup>40</sup> Elijah told them, “Seize the prophets of Baal! Don’t let even one of them escape!” So they seized them, and Elijah led them down to the Kishon Valley and executed them there.

<sup>42</sup> So Ahab went on up to eat and drink, while Elijah climbed to the top of Carmel. He bent down toward the ground and put his face between his knees.

<sup>43</sup> He told his servant, “Go on up and look in the direction of the sea.” So he went on up, looked, and reported, “There is nothing.” Seven times Elijah sent him to look.

<sup>44</sup> The seventh time the servant said, “Look, a small cloud, the size of the palm of a man’s hand, is rising up from the sea.” Elijah then said, “Go and tell Ahab, ‘Hitch up the chariots and go down, so that the rain won’t overtake you.’ ”

<sup>45</sup> Meanwhile the sky was covered with dark clouds, the wind blew, and there was a heavy rainstorm. Ahab rode toward Jezreel.

19

<sup>1</sup> Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, including a detailed account of how he killed all the prophets with the sword.

<sup>2</sup> Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah with this warning, “May the gods judge me severely if by this time tomorrow I do not take your life as you did theirs!”

<sup>3</sup> Elijah was afraid, so he got up and fled for his life to Beer Sheba in Judah. He left his servant there,

<sup>4</sup> while he went a day’s journey into the desert. He went and sat down under a shrub and asked the LORD to take | strong="H3947" his life: “I’ve had enough! Now, O LORD, take my life. After all, I’m no better than my ancestors.”

<sup>5</sup> He stretched out and fell asleep under the shrub. All of a sudden an angelic messenger touched him and said, “Get up and eat.”

<sup>6</sup> He looked and right there by his head was a cake baking on hot coals and a jug of water. He ate and drank and then slept some more.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD’s angelic messenger came back again, touched him, and said, “Get up and eat, for otherwise you won’t be able to make the journey.”

<sup>8</sup> So he got up and ate and drank. That meal gave him the strength to travel forty days and forty nights until he reached Horeb, the mountain of God.

<sup>9</sup> He went into a cave there and spent the night. All of a sudden the LORD spoke to him, “Why are you here, Elijah?”

<sup>10</sup> He answered, “I have been absolutely loyal to the LORD | strong="H3069", the sovereign God, even though the Israelites have abandoned the agreement they made with you, torn down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left and now they want to take my life.”

A very powerful wind went before the LORD, digging into the mountain and causing landslides, but the LORD was not in the wind. After the windstorm there was an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake.

<sup>12</sup> After the earthquake, there was a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire. After the fire, there was a soft whisper.

<sup>13</sup> When Elijah heard it, he covered his face with his robe and went out and stood at the entrance to the cave. All of a sudden a voice asked him, “Why are you here, Elijah?”

<sup>14</sup> He answered, “I have been absolutely loyal to the LORD, the sovereign God, even though the Israelites have abandoned the agreement they made with you, torn down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left and now they want to take my life.”

<sup>15</sup> The LORD said to him, “Go back the way you came and then head for the Desert of Damascus. Go and anoint Hazael king over Syria.

<sup>16</sup> You must anoint Jehu son of Nimshi king over Israel, and Elisha son of Shaphat from Abel Meholah to take your place as prophet.

<sup>17</sup> Jehu will kill anyone who escapes Hazael’s sword, and Elisha will kill anyone who escapes Jehu’s sword.

<sup>18</sup> I still have left in Israel seven thousand followers who have not bowed their knees to Baal or kissed the images of him.”

<sup>19</sup> Elijah went from there and found Elisha son of Shaphat. He was plowing with twelve pairs of oxen; he was near the twelfth pair. Elijah passed by him and threw his robe over him.

<sup>20</sup> He left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, “Please let me kiss my father and mother goodbye, then I will follow you.” Elijah said to him, “Go back! Indeed, what have I done to you?”

<sup>21</sup> Elisha went back and took his pair of oxen and slaughtered them. He cooked the meat over a fire that he made by burning the harness and yoke. He gave the people meat and they ate. Then he got up and followed Elijah and became his assistant.

20

<sup>2</sup> He sent messengers to King Ahab of Israel, who was in the city.

<sup>3</sup> He said to him, "This is what Ben Hadad says, 'Your silver and your gold are mine, as well as the best of your wives and sons.' "

<sup>4</sup> The king of Israel replied, "It is just as you say, my master, O king. I and all I own belong to you."

<sup>5</sup> The messengers came again and said, "This is what Ben Hadad says, 'I sent this message to you, "You must give me your silver, gold, wives, and sons.' "

<sup>6</sup> But now at this time tomorrow I will send my servants to you and they will search through your palace and your servants' houses. They will carry away all your valuables."

<sup>7</sup> The king of Israel summoned all the leaders of the land and said, "Notice how this man is looking for trouble. Indeed, he demanded my wives, sons, silver, and gold, and I did not resist him."

<sup>8</sup> All the leaders and people said to him, "Do not give in or agree to his demands."

<sup>9</sup> So he said to the messengers of Ben Hadad, "Say this to my master, the king, 'I will give you everything you demanded at first from your servant, but I am unable to agree to this latest demand.' " So the messengers went back and gave their report.

<sup>11</sup> The king of Israel replied, "Tell him the one who puts on his battle gear should not boast like one who is taking it off."

<sup>12</sup> When Ben Hadad received this reply, he and the other kings were drinking in their quarters. He ordered his servants, "Get ready to attack!" So they got ready to attack the city.

The Lord Delivers Israel

<sup>13</sup> Now a prophet visited King Ahab of Israel and said, "This is what the LORD says, 'Do you see this huge army? Look, I am going to hand it over to you this very day. Then you will know that I am the LORD.' "

<sup>14</sup> Ahab asked, "By whom will this be accomplished?" He answered, "This is what the LORD says, 'By the servants of the district governors.' " Ahab asked, "Who will launch the attack?" He answered, "You will."

<sup>15</sup> So Ahab assembled the 232 servants of the district governors. After that he assembled all the Israelite army, numbering 7,000.

<sup>16</sup> They marched out at noon, while Ben Hadad and the thirty-two kings allied with him were drinking heavily in their quarters.

<sup>19</sup> They marched out of the city with the servants of the district governors in the lead and the army behind them.

<sup>21</sup> Then the king of Israel marched out and struck down the horses and chariots; he thoroughly defeated Syria.

The Lord Gives Israel Another Victory

<sup>22</sup> The prophet visited the king of Israel and instructed him, “Go, fortify your defenses. Determine what you must do, for in the spring the king of Syria will attack you.”

<sup>23</sup> Now the advisers of the king of Syria said to him: “Their God is a god of the mountains. That’s why they overpowered us. But if we fight them in the plains, we will certainly overpower them.

<sup>25</sup> Muster an army like the one you lost, with the same number of horses and chariots. Then we will fight them in the plains; we will certainly overpower them.” He approved their plan and did as they advised.

<sup>26</sup> In the spring Ben Hadad mustered the Syrian army and marched to Aphek to fight Israel.

<sup>27</sup> When the Israelites had mustered and had received their supplies, they marched out to face them in battle. When the Israelites deployed opposite them, they were like two small flocks of goats, but the Syrians filled the land.

<sup>28</sup> The prophet visited the king of Israel and said, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Because the Syrians said, “The LORD is a god of the mountains and not a god of the valleys,” I will hand over to you this entire huge army. Then you will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

<sup>29</sup> The armies were deployed opposite each other for seven days. On the seventh day the battle began, and the Israelites killed 100,000 Syrian foot soldiers in one day.

<sup>30</sup> The remaining 27,000 ran to Aphek and went into the city, but the wall fell on them. Now Ben Hadad ran into the city and hid in an inner room.

<sup>31</sup> His advisers said to him, “Look, we have heard that the kings of the Israelite dynasty are kind. Allow us to put sackcloth around our waists and ropes on our heads and surrender to the king of Israel. Maybe he will spare our lives.”

<sup>32</sup> So they put sackcloth around their waists and ropes on their heads and went to the king of Israel. They said, “Your servant Ben Hadad says, ‘Please let me live!’ ” Ahab replied, “Is he still alive? He is my brother.”

<sup>33</sup> The men took this as a good omen and quickly accepted his offer, saying, “Ben Hadad is your brother.” Ahab then said, “Go, get him.” So Ben Hadad came out to him, and Ahab pulled him up into his chariot.

<sup>34</sup> Ben Hadad said, “I will return the cities my father took from your father. You may set up markets in Damascus, just as my father did in Samaria.” Ahab then said, “I want to make a treaty with you before I dismiss you.” So he made a treaty with him and then dismissed him.

A Prophet Denounces Ahab's Actions

<sup>35</sup> One of the members of the prophetic guild, speaking with divine authority, ordered his companion, “Wound me!” But the man refused to wound him.

<sup>36</sup> So the prophet said to him, “Because you have disobeyed the LORD, as soon as you leave me a lion will kill you.” When he left him, a lion attacked and killed him.

<sup>37</sup> He found another man and said, “Wound me!” So the man wounded him severely.

<sup>38</sup> The prophet then went and stood by the road, waiting for the king. He also disguised himself by putting a bandage down over his eyes.

<sup>39</sup> When the king passed by, he called out to the king, “Your servant went out into the heat of the battle, and then a man turned aside and brought me a prisoner. He told me, ‘Guard this prisoner. If he ends up missing for any reason, you will pay with your life or with a talent of silver.’ ”

<sup>40</sup> Well, it just so happened that while your servant was doing this and that, he disappeared.” The king of Israel said to him, “Your punishment is already determined by your own testimony.”

<sup>42</sup> The prophet then said to him, “This is what the LORD says, ‘Because you released a man I had determined should die, you will pay with your life and your people will suffer instead of his people.’ ”

<sup>2</sup> Ahab said to Naboth, “Give me your vineyard so I can make a vegetable garden out of it, for it is adjacent to my palace. I will give you an even better vineyard in its place, or if you prefer, I will pay you silver for it.”

<sup>3</sup> But Naboth replied to Ahab, “The LORD forbid that I should sell you my ancestral inheritance.”

<sup>4</sup> So Ahab went into his palace, bitter and angry that Naboth the Jezreelite had said, “I will not sell to you my ancestral inheritance.” He lay down on his bed, pouted, and would not eat.

<sup>5</sup> Then his wife Jezebel came in and said to him, “Why do you have a bitter attitude and refuse to eat?”

<sup>6</sup> He answered her, “While I was talking to Naboth the Jezreelite, I said to him, ‘Sell me your vineyard for silver, or if you prefer, I will give you another vineyard in its place.’ But he said, ‘I will not sell you my vineyard.’ ”

<sup>7</sup> His wife Jezebel said to him, “You are the king of Israel! Get up, eat some food, and have a good time. I will get the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite for you.”

<sup>8</sup> She wrote out orders, signed Ahab’s name to them, and sealed them with his seal. She then sent the orders to the leaders and to the nobles who lived in Naboth’s city.

<sup>9</sup> This is what she wrote: “Observe a time of fasting and seat Naboth in front of the people.

<sup>10</sup> Also seat two villains opposite him and have them testify, ‘You cursed God and the king.’ Then take him out and stone him to death.”

<sup>13</sup> The two villains arrived and sat opposite him. Then the villains testified against Naboth right before the people, saying, “Naboth cursed God and the king.” So they dragged him outside the city and stoned him to death.

<sup>14</sup> Then they reported to Jezebel, “Naboth has been stoned to death.”

<sup>15</sup> When Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned to death, she said to Ahab, “Get up, take possession of the vineyard Naboth the Jezreelite refused to sell you for silver, for Naboth is no longer alive; he’s dead.”

<sup>16</sup> When Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he got up and went down to take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.

<sup>18</sup> “Get up, go down and meet King Ahab of Israel who lives in Samaria. He is at the vineyard of Naboth; he has gone down there to take possession of it.

<sup>19</sup> Say to him, ‘This is what the LORD says: “Haven’t you committed murder and taken possession of the property of the deceased?” ’ Then say to him, ‘This is what the LORD says: "In the spot where dogs licked up Naboth's blood they will also lick up your blood – yes, yours!" "

<sup>20</sup> When Elijah arrived, Ahab said to him, "So, you have found me, my enemy!" Elijah replied, "I have found you, because you are committed to doing evil in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>21</sup> The LORD says, 'Look| strong="H2005", I am ready to bring disaster on you. I will destroy you and cut off every last male belonging to Ahab in Israel, including even the weak and incapacitated.

<sup>22</sup> I will make your dynasty like those of Jeroboam son of Nebat and Baasha son of Ahijah because you angered me and made Israel sin.'

<sup>24</sup> As for Ahab's family, dogs will eat the ones who die in the city, and the birds of the sky will eat the ones who die in the country."

<sup>25</sup> (There had never been anyone like Ahab, who was firmly committed to doing evil in the sight of the LORD, urged on by his wife Jezebel.

<sup>26</sup> He was so wicked he worshiped the disgusting idols, just like the Amorites whom the LORD had driven out from before the Israelites.)

<sup>27</sup> When Ahab heard these words, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth, and fasted. He slept in sackcloth and walked around dejected.

<sup>28</sup> The LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite,

22

<sup>2</sup> In the third year King Jehoshaphat of Judah came down to visit the king of Israel.

<sup>3</sup> The king of Israel said to his servants, "Surely you recognize that Ramoth Gilead belongs to us, though we are hesitant to reclaim it from the king of Syria."

<sup>4</sup> Then he said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to attack Ramoth Gilead?" Jehoshaphat replied to the king of Israel, "I will support you; my army and horses are at your disposal."

<sup>6</sup> So the king of Israel assembled about four hundred prophets and asked them, "Should I attack Ramoth Gilead or not?" They said, "Attack! The sovereign one will hand it over to the king."

<sup>7</sup> But Jehoshaphat asked, "Is there not a prophet of the LORD still here, that we may ask him?"

<sup>8</sup> The king of Israel answered Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man through whom we can seek the LORD's will. But I despise him because he does not prophesy prosperity for me, but disaster. His name is Micaiah son of Imlah. Jehoshaphat said, "The king should not say such things."

<sup>9</sup> The king of Israel summoned an official and said, "Quickly bring Micaiah son of Imlah."

<sup>11</sup> Zedekiah son of Kenaanah made iron horns and said, "This is what the LORD says, 'With these you will gore Syria until they are destroyed.' "

<sup>12</sup> All the prophets were prophesying the same, saying, "Attack Ramoth Gilead! You will succeed; the LORD will hand it over to the king."

<sup>13</sup> Now the messenger who went to summon Micaiah said to him, "Look, the prophets are in complete agreement that the king will succeed. Your words must agree with theirs; you must predict success."

<sup>14</sup> But Micaiah said, "As certainly as the LORD lives, I will say what the LORD tells me to say."

<sup>15</sup> When he came before the king, the king asked him, "Micaiah, should we attack Ramoth Gilead or not?" He answered him, "Attack! You will succeed; the LORD will hand it over to the king."

<sup>16</sup> The king said to him, "How many times must I make you solemnly promise in the name of the LORD to tell me only the truth?"

<sup>17</sup> Micaiah said, "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains like sheep that have no shepherd. Then the LORD said, 'They have no master. They should go home in peace.' "

<sup>18</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Didn't I tell you he does not prophesy prosperity for me, but disaster?"

<sup>20</sup> The LORD said, 'Who will deceive Ahab, so he will attack Ramoth Gilead and die there?' One said this and another that.

<sup>21</sup> Then a spirit stepped forward and stood before the LORD. He said, 'I will deceive him.' The LORD asked him, 'How?'

<sup>22</sup> He replied, 'I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouths of all his prophets.' The LORD said| strong="H0559", 'Deceive and overpower him. Go out and do as you have proposed.'

<sup>23</sup> So now, look, the LORD has placed a lying spirit in the mouths of all these prophets of yours; but the LORD has decreed disaster for you."

<sup>24</sup> Zedekiah son of Kenaanah approached, hit Micaiah on the jaw, and said, "Which way did the LORD's spirit go when he went from me to speak to you?"

<sup>25</sup> Micaiah replied, "Look, you will see in the day when you go into an inner room to hide."

<sup>27</sup> Say, 'This is what the king says, "Put this man in prison. Give him only a little bread and water until I safely return." ' "

<sup>28</sup> Micaiah said, "If you really do safely return, then the LORD has not spoken through me." Then he added, "Take note, all you people."

<sup>30</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and then enter into the battle; but you wear your royal robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself and then entered into the battle.

<sup>31</sup> Now the king of Syria had ordered his thirty-two chariot commanders, "Do not fight common soldiers or high-ranking officers; fight only the king of Israel."

<sup>32</sup> When the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they said, "He must be the king of Israel." So they turned and attacked him, but Jehoshaphat cried out.

<sup>33</sup> When the chariot commanders realized he was not the king of Israel, they turned away from him.

<sup>37</sup> So the king died and was taken to Samaria, where they buried him.

<sup>39</sup> The rest of the events of Ahab's reign, including a record of his accomplishments and how he built a luxurious palace and various cities, are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

Jehoshaphat's Reign over Judah

<sup>41</sup> In the fourth year of King Ahab's reign over Israel, Asa's son Jehoshaphat became king over Judah.

<sup>42</sup> Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king and he reigned for twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi.

<sup>43</sup> He followed in his father Asa's footsteps and was careful to do what the LORD approved. However, the high places were not eliminated; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense on the high places.

<sup>46</sup> He removed from the land any male cultic prostitutes who had managed to survive the reign of his father Asa.

<sup>47</sup> There was no king in Edom at this time; a governor ruled.

<sup>48</sup> Jehoshaphat built a fleet of large merchant ships to travel to Ophir for gold, but they never made the voyage because they were shipwrecked in Ezion Geber.

<sup>49</sup> Then Ahaziah son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my sailors join yours in the fleet," but Jehoshaphat refused.

<sup>50</sup> Jehoshaphat passed away and was buried with his ancestors in the city of his ancestor David. His son Jehoram replaced him as king.

Ahaziah's Reign over Israel

<sup>51</sup> In the seventeenth year of King Jehoshaphat's reign over Judah, Ahab's son Ahaziah became king over Israel in Samaria. He ruled for two years over Israel.

<sup>52</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD and followed in the footsteps of his father and mother; like Jeroboam son of Nebat, he encouraged Israel to sin.

<sup>53</sup> He worshiped and bowed down to Baal, angering the LORD God of Israel just as his father had done.

2 Kings

Elijah Confronts the King and His Commanders

<sup>2</sup> Ahaziah fell through a window lattice in his upper chamber in Samaria and was injured. He sent messengers with these orders, “Go, ask Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron, if I will survive this injury.”

<sup>3</sup> But the LORD’s angelic messenger told Elijah the Tishbite, “Get up, go to meet the messengers from the king of Samaria. Say this to them: ‘You must think there is no God in Israel! That explains why you are on your way to seek an oracle from Baal Zebub the god of Ekron.’”

<sup>4</sup> Therefore this is what the LORD says, “You will not leave the bed you lie on, for you will certainly die!” ’ ’ So Elijah went on his way.

<sup>5</sup> When the messengers returned to the king, he asked them, “Why have you returned?”

<sup>6</sup> They replied, “A man came up to meet us. He told us, ‘Go back to the king who sent you and tell him, ‘This is what the LORD says: “You must think there is no God in Israel! That explains why you are sending for an oracle from Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron. Therefore you will not leave the bed you lie on, for you will certainly die.” ’ ’”

<sup>7</sup> The king asked them, “Describe the appearance of this man who came up to meet you and told you these things.”

<sup>8</sup> They replied, “He was a hairy man and had a leather belt tied around his waist.” The king said, “He is Elijah the Tishbite.”

<sup>9</sup> The king sent a captain and his fifty soldiers to retrieve Elijah. The captain went up to him, while he was sitting on the top of a hill. He told him, “Prophet, the king says, ‘Come down!’ ”

<sup>10</sup> Elijah replied to the captain, “If I am indeed a prophet, may fire come down from the sky and consume you and your fifty soldiers!” Fire then came down from the sky and consumed him and his fifty soldiers.

<sup>11</sup> The king sent another captain and his fifty soldiers to retrieve Elijah. He went up and told him, “Prophet, this is what the king says, ‘Come down at once!’ ”

<sup>12</sup> Elijah replied to them, “If I am indeed a prophet, may fire come down from the sky and consume you and your fifty soldiers!” Fire from God came down from the sky and consumed him and his fifty soldiers.

<sup>13</sup> The king sent a third captain and his fifty soldiers. This third captain went up and fell on his knees before Elijah. He begged for mercy, “Prophet, please have respect for my life and for the lives of these fifty servants of yours.”

<sup>14</sup> Indeed, fire came down from the sky and consumed the two captains who came before me, along with their men. So now, please have respect for my life.”

<sup>15</sup> The LORD’s| strong="H3069" angelic messenger said to Elijah, “Go down with him. Don’t be afraid of him.” So he got up and went down with him to the king.

<sup>16</sup> Elijah said to the king, “This is what the LORD says, ‘You sent messengers to seek an oracle from Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron. You must think there is no God in Israel from whom you can seek an oracle! Therefore you will not leave the bed you lie on, for you will certainly die.’ ”

<sup>17</sup> He died just as the LORD had prophesied through Elijah. In the second year of the reign of King Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat over Judah, Ahaziah’s brother Jehoram replaced him as king of Israel, because he had no son.

<sup>18</sup> The rest of the events of Ahaziah's reign, including his accomplishments, are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

<sup>2</sup> Elijah told Elisha, "Stay here, for the LORD has sent me to Bethel." But Elisha said, "As certainly as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel.

<sup>3</sup> Some members of the prophetic guild in Bethel came out to Elisha and said, "Do you know that today the LORD is going to take your master from you?" He answered, "Yes, I know. Be quiet."

<sup>4</sup> Elijah said to him, "Elisha, stay here, for the LORD has sent me to Jericho." But he replied, "As certainly as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So they went to Jericho.

<sup>5</sup> Some members of the prophetic guild in Jericho approached Elisha and said, "Do you know that today the LORD is going to take your master from you?" He answered, "Yes, I know. Be quiet."

<sup>6</sup> Elijah said to him, "Stay here, for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan." But he replied, "As certainly as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So they traveled on together.

<sup>8</sup> Elijah took his cloak, folded it up, and hit the water with it. The water divided, and the two of them crossed over on dry ground.

<sup>9</sup> When they had crossed over, Elijah said to Elisha, "What can I do for you, before I am taken away from you?" Elisha answered, "May I receive a double portion of the prophetic spirit that energizes you."

<sup>10</sup> Elijah replied, "That's a difficult request! If you see me taken from you, may it be so, but if you don't, it will not happen."

<sup>11</sup> As they were walking along and talking, suddenly a fiery chariot pulled by fiery horses appeared. They went between Elijah and Elisha, and Elijah went up to heaven in a windstorm.

<sup>12</sup> While Elisha was watching, he was crying out, "My father, my father! The chariot and horsemen of Israel!" Then he could no longer see him. He grabbed his clothes and tore them in two.

<sup>13</sup> He picked up Elijah's cloak, which had fallen off him, and went back and stood on the shore of the Jordan.

<sup>14</sup> He took the cloak that had fallen off Elijah, hit the water with it, and said, "Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah?" When he hit the water, it divided and Elisha crossed over.

<sup>15</sup> When the members of the prophetic guild in Jericho, who were standing at a distance, saw him do this, they said, "The spirit that energized Elijah rests upon Elisha." They went to meet him and bowed down to the ground before him.

<sup>16</sup> They said to him, "Look, there are fifty capable men with your servants. Let them go and look for your master, for the wind sent from the LORD may have carried him away and dropped him on one of the hills or in one of the valleys." But Elisha replied, "Don't send them out."

<sup>17</sup> But they were so insistent, he became embarrassed. So he said, "Send them out." They sent the fifty men out and they looked for three days, but could not find Elijah.

<sup>18</sup> When they came back, Elisha was staying in Jericho. He said to them, "Didn't I tell you, 'Don't go'?"

Elisha Demonstrates His Authority

<sup>19</sup> The men of the city said to Elisha, “Look, the city has a good location, as our master can see. But the water is bad and the land doesn’t produce crops.”

<sup>20</sup> Elisha said, “Get me a new jar and put some salt in it.” So they got it.

<sup>21</sup> He went out to the spring and threw the salt in. Then he said, “This is what the LORD says, ‘I have purified this water. It will no longer cause death or fail to produce crops.’”

<sup>22</sup> The water has been pure to this very day, just as Elisha prophesied.

<sup>23</sup> He went up from there to Bethel. As he was traveling up the road, some young boys came out of the city and made fun of him, saying, “Go on up, baldy! Go on up, baldy!”

<sup>24</sup> When he turned around and saw them, he called God’s judgment down on them. Two female bears came out of the woods and ripped forty-two of the boys to pieces.

<sup>1</sup> In the eighteenth year of King Jehoshaphat’s reign over Judah, Ahab’s son Jehoram became king over Israel in Samaria; he ruled for twelve years.

<sup>2</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD, but not to the same degree as his father and mother. He did remove the sacred pillar of Baal that his father had made.

<sup>3</sup> Yet he persisted in the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who encouraged Israel to sin; he did not turn from them.

<sup>4</sup> Now King Mesha of Moab was a sheep breeder. He would send as tribute to the king of Israel 100,000 male lambs and the wool of 100,000 rams.

<sup>7</sup> He sent this message to King Jehoshaphat of Judah: “The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you fight with me against Moab?” Jehoshaphat replied, “I will join you in the campaign; my army and horses are at your disposal.”

<sup>8</sup> He then asked, “Which invasion route are we going to take?” Jehoram answered, “By the road through the Desert of Edom.”

<sup>9</sup> So the kings of Israel, Judah, and Edom set out together. They wandered around on the road for seven days and finally ran out of water for the men and animals they had with them.

<sup>10</sup> The king of Israel said, “Oh no! Certainly the LORD | strong="H3069" has summoned these three kings so that he can hand them over to the king of Moab!”

<sup>11</sup> Jehoshaphat asked, “Is there no prophet of the LORD here that we might seek the LORD’s direction?” One of the servants of the king of Israel answered, “Elisha son of Shapat is here; he used to be Elijah’s servant.”

<sup>12</sup> Jehoshaphat said, “The LORD speaks through him.” So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to visit him.

<sup>13</sup> Elisha said to the king of Israel, “Why are you here? Go to your father’s prophets or your mother’s prophets!” The king of Israel replied to him, “No, for the LORD is the one who summoned these three kings so that he can hand them over to Moab.”

<sup>14</sup> Elisha said, “As certainly as the LORD who rules over all lives (whom I serve), if I did not respect King Jehoshaphat of Judah, I would not pay attention to you or acknowledge you.

<sup>15</sup> But now, get me a musician.” When the musician played, the LORD energized him, <sup>16</sup> and he said, “This is what the LORD says, ‘Make many cisterns in this valley,’

<sup>17</sup> for this is what the LORD says, ‘You will not feel any wind or see any rain, but this valley will be full of water and you and your cattle and animals will drink.’

<sup>18</sup> This is an easy task for the LORD; he will also hand Moab over to you.

<sup>19</sup> You will defeat every fortified city and every important city. You must chop down every productive tree, stop up all the springs, and cover all the cultivated land with stones.”

<sup>20</sup> Sure enough, the next morning, at the time of the morning sacrifice, water came flowing down from Edom and filled the land.

<sup>21</sup> Now all Moab had heard that the kings were attacking, so everyone old enough to fight was mustered and placed at the border.

<sup>22</sup> When they got up early the next morning, the sun was shining on the water. To the Moabites, who were some distance away, the water looked red like blood.

They have struck one another down! Now, Moab, seize the plunder!”

<sup>24</sup> When they approached the Israelite camp, the Israelites rose up and struck down the Moabites, who then ran from them. The Israelites thoroughly defeated Moab.

<sup>25</sup> They tore down the cities and each man threw a stone into every cultivated field until they were covered. They stopped up every spring and chopped down every productive tree.

Only Kir Hareseth was left intact, but the slingers surrounded it and attacked it.

<sup>26</sup> When the king of Moab realized he was losing the battle, he and 700 swordsmen tried to break through and attack the king of Edom, but they failed.

<sup>27</sup> So he took his firstborn son, who was to succeed him as king, and offered him up as a burnt sacrifice on the wall. There was an outburst of divine anger against Israel, so they broke off the attack and returned to their homeland.

4

<sup>1</sup> Now a wife of one of the prophets appealed to Elisha for help, saying, “Your servant, my husband is dead. You know that your servant was a loyal follower of the LORD. Now the creditor is coming to take away my two boys to be his servants.”

<sup>2</sup> Elisha said to her, “What can I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?” She answered, “Your servant has nothing in the house except a small jar of olive oil.”

<sup>3</sup> He said, “Go and ask all your neighbors for empty containers. Get as many as you can.

<sup>4</sup> Go and close the door behind you and your sons. Pour the olive oil into all the containers; set aside each one when you have filled it.”

<sup>5</sup> So she left him and closed the door behind her and her sons. As they were bringing the containers to her, she was pouring the olive oil.

<sup>6</sup> When the containers were full, she said to one of her sons, “Bring me another container.” But he answered her, “There are no more.” Then the olive oil stopped flowing.

<sup>7</sup> She went and told the prophet. He said, “Go, sell the olive oil. Repay your creditor, and then you and your sons can live off the rest of the profit.”

Elisha Gives Life to a Boy

<sup>8</sup> One day Elisha traveled to Shunem, where a prominent woman lived. She insisted that he stop for a meal. So whenever he was passing through, he would stop in there for a meal.

<sup>9</sup> She said to her husband, “Look, I’m sure that the man who regularly passes through here is a very special prophet.

<sup>11</sup> One day Elisha came for a visit; he went into the upper room and rested.

<sup>12</sup> He told his servant Gehazi, “Ask the Shunammite woman to come here.” So he did so and she came to him.

<sup>13</sup> Elisha said to Gehazi, "Tell her, 'Look, you have treated us with such great respect. What can I do for you? Can I put in a good word for you with the king or the commander of the army?'" She replied, "I'm quite secure."

<sup>14</sup> So he asked Gehazi, "What can I do for her?" Gehazi replied, "She has no son, and her husband is old."

<sup>15</sup> Elisha told him, "Ask her to come here." So he did so and she came and stood in the doorway.

<sup>16</sup> He said, "About this time next year you will be holding a son." She said, "No, my master! O prophet, do not lie to your servant!"

<sup>17</sup> The woman did conceive, and at the specified time the next year she gave birth to a son, just as Elisha had told her.

<sup>18</sup> The boy grew and one day he went out to see his father who was with the harvest workers.

<sup>19</sup> He said to his father, "My head! My head!" His father told a servant, "Carry him to his mother."

<sup>20</sup> So he picked him up and took him to his mother. He sat on her lap until noon and then died.

<sup>22</sup> She called to her husband, "Send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys, so I can go see the prophet quickly and then return."

<sup>23</sup> He said, "Why do you want to go see him today? It is not the new moon or the Sabbath." She said, "Everything's fine."

<sup>24</sup> She saddled the donkey and told her servant, "Lead on. Do not stop unless I say so."

<sup>25</sup> So she went to visit the prophet at Mount Carmel. When he saw her at a distance, he said to his servant Gehazi, "Look, it's the Shunammite woman."

<sup>26</sup> Now, run to meet her and ask her, 'Are you well? Are your husband and the boy well?' " She told Gehazi, "Everything's fine."

<sup>27</sup> But when she reached the prophet on the mountain, she grabbed hold of his feet. Gehazi came near to push her away, but the prophet said, "Leave her alone, for she is very upset. The LORD | strong="H3069" has kept the matter hidden from me; he didn't tell me about it."

<sup>28</sup> She said, "Did I ask my master for a son? Didn't I say, 'Don't mislead me?'"

<sup>29</sup> Elisha told Gehazi, "Tuck your robes into your belt, take my staff, and go! Don't stop to exchange greetings with anyone! Place my staff on the child's face."

<sup>30</sup> The mother of the child said, "As certainly as the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So Elisha got up and followed her back.

<sup>31</sup> Now Gehazi went on ahead of them. He placed the staff on the child's face, but there was no sound or response. When he came back to Elisha he told him, "The child did not wake up."

<sup>32</sup> When Elisha arrived at the house, there was the child lying dead on his bed.

<sup>33</sup> He went in by himself and closed the door. Then he prayed to the LORD.

<sup>34</sup> He got up on the bed and spread his body out over the boy; he put his mouth on the boy's mouth, his eyes over the boy's eyes, and the palms of his hands against the boy's palms. He bent down over him, and the boy's skin grew warm.

<sup>35</sup> Elisha went back and walked around in the house. Then he got up on the bed again and bent down over him. The child sneezed seven times and opened his eyes.

<sup>36</sup> Elisha called to Gehazi and said, "Get the Shunammite woman." So he did so and she came to him. He said to her, "Take your son."

<sup>37</sup> She came in, fell at his feet, and bowed down. Then she picked up her son and left.

Elisha Makes a Meal Edible

<sup>38</sup> Now Elisha went back to Gilgal, while there was famine in the land. Some of the prophets were visiting him and he told his servant, "Put the big pot on the fire and boil some stew for the prophets."

<sup>39</sup> Someone went out to the field to gather some herbs and found a wild vine. He picked some of its fruit, enough to fill up the fold of his robe. He came back, cut it up, and threw the slices into the stew pot, not knowing they were harmful.

<sup>40</sup> The stew was poured out for the men to eat. When they ate some of the stew, they cried out, "Death is in the pot, O prophet!" They could not eat it.

<sup>41</sup> He said, "Get some flour." Then he threw it into the pot and said, "Now pour some out for the men so they may eat." There was no longer anything harmful in the pot.

Elisha Miraculously Feeds a Hundred People

<sup>42</sup> Now a man from Baal Shalisha brought some food for the prophet – twenty loaves of bread made from the firstfruits of the barley harvest, as well as fresh ears of grain. Elisha said, "Set it before the people so they may eat."

<sup>43</sup> But his attendant said, "How can I feed a hundred men with this?" He replied, "Set it before the people so they may eat, for this is what the LORD says, 'They will eat and have some left over.'"

<sup>44</sup> So he set it before them; they ate and had some left over, just as the LORD predicted.

5

<sup>2</sup> Raiding parties went out from Syria and took captive from the land of Israel a young girl, who became a servant to Naaman's wife.

<sup>3</sup> She told her mistress, "If only my master were in the presence of the prophet who is in Samaria! Then he would cure him of his skin disease."

<sup>4</sup> Naaman went and told his master what the girl from the land of Israel had said.

<sup>5</sup> The king of Syria said, "Go! I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So Naaman went, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten suits of clothes.

<sup>6</sup> He brought the letter to king of Israel. It read: "This is a letter of introduction for my servant Naaman, whom I have sent to be cured of his skin disease."

<sup>7</sup> When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God? Can I kill or restore life? Why does he ask me to cure a man of his skin disease? Certainly you must see that he is looking for an excuse to fight me!"

<sup>8</sup> When Elisha the prophet heard that the king had torn his clothes, he sent this message to the king, "Why did you tear your clothes? Send him to me so he may know there is a prophet in Israel."

<sup>9</sup> So Naaman came with his horses and chariots and stood in the doorway of Elisha's house.

<sup>10</sup> Elisha sent out a messenger who told him, "Go and wash seven times in the Jordan; your skin will be restored and you will be healed."

<sup>11</sup> Naaman went away angry. He said, "Look, I thought for sure he would come out, stand there, invoke the name of the LORD his God, wave his hand over the area, and cure the skin disease."

<sup>12</sup> The rivers of Damascus, the Abana and Pharpar, are better than any of the waters of Israel! Could I not wash in them and be healed?" So he turned around and went away angry.

<sup>13</sup> His servants approached and said to him, "O master, if the prophet had told you to do some difficult task, you would have been willing to do it. It seems you should be happy that he simply said, "Wash and you will be healed."

<sup>14</sup> So he went down and dipped in the Jordan seven times, as the prophet had instructed. His skin became as smooth as a young child's and he was healed.

<sup>15</sup> He and his entire entourage returned to the prophet. Naaman came and stood before him. He said, "For sure I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel! Now, please accept a gift from your servant."

<sup>16</sup> But Elisha replied, "As certainly as the LORD lives (whom I serve), I will take nothing from you." Naaman insisted that he take it, but he refused.

<sup>17</sup> Naaman said, "If not, then please give your servant a load of dirt, enough for a pair of mules to carry, for your servant will never again offer a burnt offering or sacrifice to a god other than the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> May the LORD forgive your servant for this one thing: When my master enters the temple of Rimmon to worship, and he leans on my arm and I bow down in the temple of Rimmon, may the LORD forgive your servant for this."

<sup>19</sup> Elisha said to him, "Go in peace."

When he had gone a short distance,

<sup>20</sup> Gehazi, the prophet Elisha's servant, thought, "Look, my master did not accept what this Syrian Naaman offered him. As certainly as the LORD lives, I will run after him and accept something from him."

<sup>21</sup> So Gehazi ran after Naaman. When Naaman saw someone running after him, he got down from his chariot to meet him and asked, "Is everything all right?"

<sup>22</sup> He answered, "Everything is fine. My master sent me with this message, 'Look, two servants of the prophets just arrived from the Ephraimite hill country. Please give them a talent of silver and two suits of clothes.' "

<sup>23</sup> Naaman said, "Please accept two talents of silver. He insisted, and tied up two talents of silver in two bags, along with two suits of clothes. He gave them to two of his servants and they carried them for Gehazi.

<sup>24</sup> When he arrived at the hill, he took them from the servants and put them in the house. Then he sent the men on their way.

<sup>25</sup> When he came and stood before his master, Elisha asked him, "Where have you been, Gehazi?" He answered, "Your servant hasn't been anywhere."

<sup>26</sup> Elisha replied, "I was there in spirit when a man turned and got down from his chariot to meet you. This is not the proper time to accept silver or to accept clothes, olive groves, vineyards, sheep, cattle, and male and female servants.

<sup>27</sup> Therefore Naaman's skin disease will afflict you and your descendants forever!" When Gehazi went out from his presence, his skin was as white as snow.

6

<sup>1</sup> Some of the prophets said to Elisha, "Look, the place where we meet with you is too cramped for us.

<sup>2</sup> Let's go to the Jordan. Each of us will get a log from there and we will build a meeting place for ourselves there." He said, "Go."

<sup>4</sup> So he went with them. When they arrived at the Jordan, they started cutting down trees.

<sup>5</sup> As one of them was felling a log, the ax head dropped into the water. He shouted, "Oh no, my master! It was borrowed!"

<sup>6</sup> The prophet asked, “Where did it drop in?” When he showed him the spot, Elisha cut off a branch, threw it in at that spot, and made the ax head float.

<sup>7</sup> He said, “Lift it out.” So he reached out his hand and grabbed it.

Elisha Defeats an Army

<sup>8</sup> Now the king of Syria was at war with Israel. He consulted his advisers, who said, “Invade at such and such a place.”

<sup>9</sup> But the prophet sent this message to the king of Israel, “Make sure you don’t pass through this place because Syria is invading there.”

<sup>10</sup> So the king of Israel sent a message to the place the prophet had pointed out, warning it to be on its guard. This happened on several occasions.

<sup>11</sup> This made the king of Syria upset. So he summoned his advisers and said to them, “One of us must be helping the king of Israel.”

<sup>13</sup> The king ordered, “Go, find out where he is, so I can send some men to capture him.” The king was told, “He is in Dothan.”

<sup>14</sup> So he sent horses and chariots there, along with a good-sized army. They arrived during the night and surrounded the city.

<sup>15</sup> The prophet’s attendant got up early in the morning. When he went outside there was an army surrounding the city, along with horses and chariots. He said to Elisha, “Oh no, my master! What will we do?”

<sup>17</sup> Then Elisha prayed, “O LORD, open his eyes so he can see.” The LORD opened the servant’s eyes and he saw that the hill was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

<sup>18</sup> As they approached him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, “Strike these people with blindness.” The LORD struck them with blindness as Elisha requested.

<sup>19</sup> Then Elisha said to them, “This is not the right road or city. Follow me, and I will lead you to the man you’re looking for.” He led them to Samaria.

<sup>20</sup> When they had entered Samaria, Elisha said, “O LORD, open their eyes, so they can see.” The LORD opened their eyes and they saw that they were in the middle of Samaria.

<sup>21</sup> When the king of Israel saw them, he asked Elisha, “Should I strike them down, my master?”

<sup>22</sup> He replied, “Do not strike them down! You did not capture them with your sword or bow, so what gives you the right to strike them down? Give them some food and water, so they can eat and drink and then go back to their master.”

<sup>23</sup> So he threw a big banquet for them and they ate and drank. Then he sent them back to their master. After that no Syrian raiding parties again invaded the land of Israel.

The Lord Saves Samaria

<sup>25</sup> Samaria’s food supply ran out. They laid siege to it so long that a donkey’s head was selling for eighty shekels of silver and a quarter of a kab of dove’s droppings for five shekels of silver.

<sup>27</sup> He replied, “No, let the LORD help you. How can I help you? The threshing floor and winepress are empty.”

<sup>28</sup> Then the king asked her, “What’s your problem?” She answered, “This woman said to me, ‘Hand over your son; we’ll eat him today and then eat my son tomorrow.’”

<sup>29</sup> So we boiled my son and ate him. Then I said to her the next day, 'Hand over your son and we'll eat him.' But she hid her son!"

<sup>30</sup> When the king heard what the woman said, he tore his clothes. As he was passing by on the wall, the people could see he was wearing sackcloth under his clothes.

<sup>31</sup> Then he said, "May God judge me severely if Elisha son of Shaphat still has his head by the end of the day!"

<sup>32</sup> Now Elisha was sitting in his house with the community leaders. The king sent a messenger on ahead, but before he arrived, Elisha said to the leaders, "Do you realize this assassin intends to cut off my head?" Look, when the messenger arrives, shut the door and lean against it. His master will certainly be right behind him."

<sup>33</sup> He was still talking to them when the messenger approached and said, "Look, the LORD is responsible for this disaster! Why should I continue to wait for the LORD to help?"

<sup>2</sup> An officer who was the king's right-hand man responded to the prophet, "Look, even if the LORD made it rain by opening holes in the sky, could this happen so soon?" Elisha said, "Look, you will see it happen with your own eyes, but you will not eat any of the food!"

<sup>3</sup> Now four men with a skin disease were sitting at the entrance of the city gate. They said to one another, "Why are we just sitting here waiting to die?"

<sup>4</sup> If we go into the city, we'll die of starvation, and if we stay here we'll die! So come on, let's defect to the Syrian camp! If they spare us, we'll live; if they kill us - well, we were going to die anyway."

<sup>5</sup> So they started toward the Syrian camp at dusk. When they reached the edge of the Syrian camp, there was no one there.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD | strong="H0136" had caused the Syrian camp to hear the sound of chariots and horses and a large army. Then they said to one another, "Look, the king of Israel has paid the kings of the Hittites and Egypt to attack us!"

<sup>7</sup> So they got up and fled at dusk, leaving behind their tents, horses, and donkeys. They left the camp as it was and ran for their lives.

<sup>8</sup> When the men with a skin disease reached the edge of the camp, they entered a tent and had a meal. They also took some silver, gold, and clothes and went and hid it all. Then they went back and entered another tent. They looted it and went and hid what they had taken.

<sup>9</sup> Then they said to one another, "It's not right what we're doing! This is a day to celebrate, but we haven't told anyone. If we wait until dawn, we'll be punished. So come on, let's go and inform the royal palace."

<sup>10</sup> So they went and called out to the gatekeepers of the city. They told them, "We entered the Syrian camp and there was no one there. We didn't even hear a man's voice. But the horses and donkeys are still tied up, and the tents remain up."

<sup>12</sup> The king got up in the night and said to his advisers, "I will tell you what the Syrians have done to us. They know we are starving, so they left the camp and hid in the field, thinking, 'When they come out of the city, we will capture them alive and enter the city.' "

<sup>13</sup> One of his advisers replied, "Pick some men and have them take five of the horses that are left in the city. (Even if they are killed, their fate will be no different than that of all the Israelite people – we’re all going to die!) Let’s send them out so we can know for sure what’s going on.”

<sup>14</sup> So they picked two horsemen and the king sent them out to track the Syrian army. He ordered them, “Go and find out what’s going on.”

<sup>15</sup> So they tracked them as far as the Jordan. The road was filled with clothes and equipment that the Syrians had discarded in their haste. The scouts went back and told the king.

<sup>16</sup> Then the people went out and looted the Syrian camp. A seah of finely milled flour sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley for a shekel, just as the LORD had said they would.

<sup>17</sup> Now the king had placed the officer who was his right-hand man at the city gate. When the people rushed out, they trampled him to death in the gate. This fulfilled the prophet’s word which he had spoken when the king tried to arrest him.

<sup>18</sup> The prophet told the king, “Two seahs of barley will sell for a shekel, and a seah of finely milled flour for a shekel; this will happen about this time tomorrow in the gate of Samaria.”

<sup>19</sup> But the officer replied to the prophet, “Look, even if the LORD made it rain by opening holes in the sky, could this happen so soon?” Elisha said, “Look, you will see it happen with your own eyes, but you will not eat any of the food!”

<sup>20</sup> This is exactly what happened to him. The people trampled him to death in the city gate.

8

<sup>1</sup> Now Elisha advised the woman whose son he had brought back to life, “You and your family should go and live somewhere else for a while, for the LORD has decreed that a famine will overtake the land for seven years.”

<sup>2</sup> So the woman did as the prophet said. She and her family went and lived in the land of the Philistines for seven years.

<sup>3</sup> After seven years the woman returned from the land of the Philistines and went to ask the king to give her back her house and field.

<sup>4</sup> Now the king was talking to Gehazi, the prophet’s servant, and said, “Tell me all the great things which Elisha has done.”

<sup>5</sup> While Gehazi was telling the king how Elisha had brought the dead back to life, the woman whose son he had brought back to life came to ask the king for her house and field. Gehazi said, “My master, O king, this is the very woman and this is her son whom Elisha brought back to life!”

<sup>6</sup> The king asked the woman about it, and she gave him the details. The king assigned a eunuch to take care of her request and ordered him, “Give her back everything she owns, as well as the amount of crops her field produced from the day she left the land until now.”

Elisha Meets with Hazael

<sup>8</sup> So the king told Hazael, “Take a gift and go visit the prophet. Request from him an oracle from the LORD | strong=“H3069”. Ask him, ‘Will I recover from this sickness?’ ”

<sup>9</sup> So Hazael went to visit Elisha. He took along a gift, as well as forty camel loads of all the fine things of Damascus. When he arrived, he stood before him and said, “Your son, King Ben Hadad of Syria, has sent me to you with this question, ‘Will I recover from this sickness?’ ”

<sup>10</sup> Elisha said to him, “Go and tell him, ‘You will surely recover,’ but the LORD has revealed to me that he will surely die.”

<sup>11</sup> Elisha just stared at him until Hazael became uncomfortable. Then the prophet started crying.

<sup>12</sup> Hazael asked, "Why are you crying, my master?" He replied, "Because I know the trouble you will cause the Israelites. You will set fire to their fortresses, kill their young men with the sword, smash their children to bits, and rip open their pregnant women."

<sup>13</sup> Hazael said, "How could your servant, who is as insignificant as a dog, accomplish this great military victory?" Elisha answered, "The LORD has revealed to me that you will be the king of Syria."

<sup>14</sup> He left Elisha and went to his master. Ben Hadad asked him, "What did Elisha tell you?" Hazael replied, "He told me you would surely recover."

<sup>15</sup> The next day Hazael took a piece of cloth, dipped it in water, and spread it over Ben Hadad's face until he died. Then Hazael replaced him as king.

Jehoram's Reign over Judah

<sup>16</sup> In the fifth year of the reign of Israel's King Joram, son of Ahab, Jehoshaphat's son Jehoram became king over Judah.

<sup>17</sup> He was thirty-two years old when he became king and he reigned for eight years in Jerusalem.

<sup>18</sup> He followed in the footsteps of the kings of Israel, just as Ahab's dynasty had done, for he married Ahab's daughter. He did evil in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>19</sup> But the LORD was unwilling to destroy Judah. He preserved Judah for the sake of his servant David to whom he had promised a perpetual dynasty.

<sup>22</sup> So Edom has remained free from Judah's control to this very day. At that same time Libnah also rebelled.

<sup>24</sup> Joram passed away and was buried with his ancestors in the city of David. His son Ahaziah replaced him as king.

Ahaziah Takes the Throne of Judah

<sup>25</sup> In the twelfth year of the reign of Israel's King Joram, son of Ahab, Jehoram's son Ahaziah became king over Judah.

<sup>26</sup> Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king and he reigned for one year in Jerusalem. His mother was Athaliah, the granddaughter of King Omri of Israel.

<sup>27</sup> He followed in the footsteps of Ahab's dynasty and did evil in the sight of the LORD, like Ahab's dynasty, for he was related to Ahab's family.

<sup>28</sup> He joined Ahab's son Joram in a battle against King Hazael of Syria at Ramoth Gilead in which the Syrians defeated Joram.

<sup>29</sup> King Joram returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds he received from the Syrians in Ramah when he fought against King Hazael of Syria. King Ahaziah son of Jehoram of Judah went down to visit Joram son of Ahab in Jezreel, for he was ill.

9

<sup>2</sup> When you arrive there, look for Jehu son of Jehoshaphat son of Nimshi and take him aside into an inner room.

<sup>3</sup> Take the container of olive oil, pour it over his head, and say, 'This is what the LORD says, "I have designated you as king over Israel."' Then open the door and run away quickly!

<sup>4</sup> So the young prophet went to Ramoth Gilead.

<sup>5</sup> When he arrived, the officers of the army were sitting there. So he said, "I have a message for you, O officer." Jehu asked, "For which one of us?" He replied, "For you, O officer."

<sup>6</sup> So Jehu got up and went inside. Then the prophet poured the olive oil on his head and said to him, "This is what the LORD God of Israel says, 'I have designated you as king over the LORD's people Israel.'

<sup>7</sup> You will destroy the family of your master Ahab. I will get revenge against Jezebel for the shed blood of my servants the prophets and for the shed blood of all the LORD's servants.

<sup>8</sup> Ahab's entire family will die. I will cut off every last male belonging to Ahab in Israel, including even the weak and incapacitated.

<sup>9</sup> I will make Ahab's dynasty like those of Jeroboam son of Nebat and Baasha son of Ahijah.

<sup>10</sup> Dogs will devour Jezebel on the plot of ground in Jezreel; she will not be buried.' " Then he opened the door and ran away.

<sup>11</sup> When Jehu rejoined his master's servants, they asked him, "Is everything all right? Why did this madman visit you?" He replied, "Ah, it's not important. You know what kind of man he is and the kinds of things he says."

<sup>12</sup> But they said, "You're lying! Tell us what he said." So he told them what he had said. He also related how he had said, "This is what the LORD says, 'I have designated you as king over Israel.' "

Jehu the Assassin

Now Joram had been in Ramoth Gilead with the whole Israelite army, guarding against an invasion by King Hazael of Syria.

<sup>15</sup> But King Joram had returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds he received from the Syrians when he fought against King Hazael of Syria. Jehu told his supporters, "If you really want me to be king, then don't let anyone escape from the city to go and warn Jezreel."

<sup>16</sup> Jehu drove his chariot to Jezreel, for Joram was recuperating there. (Now King Ahaziah of Judah had come down to visit Joram.)

<sup>17</sup> Now the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel and saw Jehu's troops approaching. He said, "I see troops!" Jehoram ordered, "Send a rider out to meet them and have him ask, 'Is everything all right?'"

<sup>18</sup> So the horseman went to meet him and said, "This is what the king says, 'Is everything all right?'" Jehu replied, "None of your business! Follow me." The watchman reported, "The messenger reached them, but hasn't started back."

<sup>19</sup> So he sent a second horseman out to them and he said, "This is what the king says, 'Is everything all right?'" Jehu replied, "None of your business! Follow me."

<sup>20</sup> The watchman reported, "He reached them, but hasn't started back. The one who drives the lead chariot drives like Jehu son of Nimshi; he drives recklessly."

<sup>21</sup> Jehoram ordered, "Hitch up my chariot." When his chariot had been hitched up, King Jehoram of Israel and King Ahaziah of Judah went out in their respective chariots to meet Jehu. They met up with him in the plot of land that had once belonged to Naboth of Jezreel.

<sup>24</sup> Jehu aimed his bow and shot an arrow right between Jehoram's shoulders. The arrow went through his heart and he fell to his knees in his chariot.

<sup>25</sup> Jehu ordered his officer Bidkar, "Pick him up and throw him into the part of the field that once belonged to Naboth of Jezreel. Remember, you and I were riding together behind his father Ahab, when the LORD pronounced this judgment on him, <sup>26</sup> ' "Know for sure that I saw the shed blood of Naboth and his sons yesterday," says the LORD, "and that I will give you what you deserve right here in this plot of land," says the LORD.' So now pick him up and throw him into this plot of land, just as the LORD said."

<sup>31</sup> When Jehu came through the gate, she said, "Is everything all right, Zimri, murderer of his master?"

<sup>32</sup> He looked up at the window and said, "Who is on my side? Who?" Two or three eunuchs looked down at him.

<sup>33</sup> He said, "Throw her down!" So they threw her down, and when she hit the ground, her blood splattered against the wall and the horses, and Jehu drove his chariot over her.

<sup>34</sup> He went inside and had a meal. Then he said, "Dispose of this accursed woman's corpse. Bury her, for after all, she was a king's daughter."

<sup>36</sup> When they went back and told him, he said, "The LORD's word through his servant, Elijah the Tishbite, has come to pass. He warned, 'In the plot of land at Jezreel, dogs will devour Jezebel's flesh.

<sup>37</sup> Jezebel's corpse will be like manure on the surface of the ground in the plot of land at Jezreel. People will not be able to even recognize her.' "

10

<sup>1</sup> Ahab had seventy sons living in Samaria. So Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria to the leading officials of Jezreel and to the guardians of Ahab's dynasty. This is what the letters said,

<sup>2</sup> "You have with you the sons of your master, chariots and horses, a fortified city, and weapons. So when this letter arrives, <sup>3</sup> pick the best and most capable of your master's sons, place him on his father's throne, and defend your master's dynasty."

<sup>4</sup> They were absolutely terrified and said, "Look, two kings could not stop him! How can we?"

<sup>5</sup> So the palace supervisor, the city commissioner, the leaders, and the guardians sent this message to Jehu, "We are your subjects! Whatever you say, we will do. We will not make anyone king. Do what you consider proper."

<sup>6</sup> He wrote them a second letter, saying, "If you are really on my side and are willing to obey me, then take the heads of your master's sons and come to me in Jezreel at this time tomorrow." Now the king had seventy sons, and the prominent men of the city were raising them.

<sup>7</sup> When they received the letter, they seized the king's sons and executed all seventy of them. They put their heads in baskets and sent them to him in Jezreel.

<sup>8</sup> The messenger came and told Jehu, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons." Jehu said, "Stack them in two piles at the entrance of the city gate until morning."

<sup>9</sup> In the morning he went out and stood there. Then he said to all the people, "You are innocent. I conspired against my master and killed him. But who struck down all of these men?"

<sup>10</sup> Therefore take note that not one of the judgments the LORD announced against Ahab's dynasty has failed to materialize. The LORD had done what he announced through his servant Elijah."

<sup>12</sup> Jehu then left there and set out for Samaria. While he was traveling through Beth Eked of the Shepherds,

<sup>13</sup> Jehu encountered the relatives of King Ahaziah of Judah. He asked, "Who are you?" They replied, "We are Ahaziah's relatives. We have come down to see how the king's sons and the queen mother's sons are doing."

<sup>14</sup> He said, "Capture them alive!" So they captured them alive and then executed all forty-two of them in the cistern at Beth Eked. He left no survivors.

<sup>15</sup> When he left there, he met Jehonadab, son of Rekab, who had been looking for him. Jehu greeted him and asked, "Are you as committed to me as I am to you?" Jehonadab answered, "I am!" Jehu replied, "If so, give me your hand." So he offered his hand and Jehu pulled him up into the chariot.

<sup>16</sup> Jehu said, "Come with me and see how zealous I am for the LORD's cause." So he took him along in his chariot.

<sup>17</sup> He went to Samaria and exterminated all the members of Ahab's family who were still alive in Samaria, just as the LORD had announced to Elijah.

Jehu Executes the Prophets and Priests of Baal

<sup>18</sup> Jehu assembled all the people and said to them, "Ahab worshiped Baal a little; Jehu will worship him with great devotion.

<sup>19</sup> So now, bring to me all the prophets of Baal, as well as all his servants and priests. None of them must be absent, for I am offering a great sacrifice to Baal. Any of them who fail to appear will lose their lives." But Jehu was tricking them so he could destroy the servants of Baal.

<sup>20</sup> Then Jehu ordered, "Make arrangements for a celebration for Baal." So they announced it.

<sup>21</sup> Jehu sent invitations throughout Israel, and all the servants of Baal came; not one was absent. They arrived at the temple of Baal and filled it up from end to end.

<sup>22</sup> Jehu ordered the one who was in charge of the wardrobe, "Bring out robes for all the servants of Baal." So he brought out robes for them.

<sup>23</sup> Then Jehu and Jehonadab son of Rekab went to the temple of Baal. Jehu said to the servants of Baal, "Make sure there are no servants of the LORD here with you; there must be only servants of Baal."

<sup>24</sup> They went inside to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had stationed eighty men outside. He had told them, "If any of the men inside get away, you will pay with your lives!"

<sup>25</sup> When he finished offering the burnt sacrifice, Jehu ordered the royal guard and officers, "Come in and strike them down! Don't let any escape!" So the royal guard and officers struck them down with the sword and left their bodies lying there. Then they entered the inner sanctuary of the temple of Baal.

<sup>26</sup> They hauled out the sacred pillar of the temple of Baal and burned it.

<sup>27</sup> They demolished the sacred pillar of Baal and the temple of Baal; it is used as a latrine to this very day.

A Summary of Jehu's Reign

<sup>29</sup> However, Jehu did not repudiate the sins which Jeroboam son of Nebat had encouraged Israel to commit; the golden calves remained in Bethel and Dan.

<sup>30</sup> The LORD said to Jehu, "You have done well. You have accomplished my will and carried out my wishes with regard to Ahab's dynasty. Therefore four generations of your descendants will rule over Israel."

<sup>31</sup> But Jehu did not carefully and wholeheartedly obey the law of the LORD God of Israel. He did not repudiate the sins which Jeroboam had encouraged Israel to commit.

<sup>32</sup> In those days the LORD began to reduce the size of Israel's territory. Hazael attacked their eastern border.

<sup>33</sup> He conquered all the land of Gilead, including the territory of Gad, Reuben, and Manasseh, extending all the way from the Aroer in the Arnon Valley through Gilead to Bashan.

<sup>34</sup> The rest of the events of Jehu's reign, including all his accomplishments and successes, are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

<sup>35</sup> Jehu passed away and was buried in Samaria. His son Jehoahaz replaced him as king.

11

<sup>1</sup> When Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she was determined to destroy the entire royal line.

<sup>2</sup> So Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram and sister of Ahaziah, took Ahaziah's son Joash and sneaked him away from the rest of the royal descendants who were to be executed. She hid him and his nurse in the room where the bed covers were stored. So he was hidden from Athaliah and escaped execution.

<sup>3</sup> He hid out with his nurse in the LORD's temple for six years, while Athaliah was ruling over the land.

<sup>4</sup> In the seventh year Jehoiada summoned the officers of the units of hundreds of the Carians and the royal bodyguard. He met with them in the LORD's temple. He made an agreement with them and made them swear an oath of allegiance in the LORD's temple. Then he showed them the king's son.

<sup>5</sup> He ordered them, "This is what you must do. One third of the unit that is on duty during the Sabbath will guard the royal palace.

<sup>6</sup> Another third of you will be stationed at the Foundation Gate. Still another third of you will be stationed at the gate behind the royal guard. You will take turns guarding the palace.

<sup>7</sup> The two units who are off duty on the Sabbath will guard the LORD's temple and protect the king.

<sup>8</sup> You must surround the king. Each of you must hold his weapon in his hand. Whoever approaches your ranks must be killed. You must accompany the king wherever he goes."

<sup>9</sup> The officers of the units of hundreds did just as Jehoiada the priest ordered. Each of them took his men, those who were on duty during the Sabbath as well as those who were off duty on the Sabbath, and reported to Jehoiada the priest.

<sup>10</sup> The priest gave to the officers of the units of hundreds King David's spears and the shields that were kept in the LORD's temple.

<sup>11</sup> The royal bodyguard took their stations, each holding his weapon in his hand. They lined up from the south side of the temple to the north side and stood near the altar and the temple, surrounding the king.

<sup>12</sup> Jehoiada led out the king's son and placed on him the crown and the royal insignia. They proclaimed him king and poured olive oil on his head. They clapped their hands and cried out, "Long live the king!"

<sup>14</sup> Then she saw the king standing by the pillar, according to custom. The officers stood beside the king with their trumpets and all the people of the land were celebrating and blowing trumpets. Athaliah tore her clothes and screamed, "Treason, treason!"

<sup>15</sup> Jehoiada the priest ordered the officers of the units of hundreds, who were in charge of the army, "Bring her outside the temple to the guards. Put the sword to anyone who follows her." The priest gave this order because he had decided she should not be executed in the LORD's temple.

<sup>16</sup> They seized her and took her into the precincts of the royal palace through the horses' entrance. There she was executed.

<sup>17</sup> Jehoiada then drew up a covenant between the LORD and the king and people, stipulating that they should be loyal to the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> All the people of the land went and demolished the temple of Baal. They smashed its altars and idols to bits. They killed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altar. Jehoiada the priest then placed guards at the LORD's temple.

<sup>19</sup> He took the officers of the units of hundreds, the Carians, the royal bodyguard, and all the people of land, and together they led the king down from the LORD's temple. They entered the royal palace through the Gate of the Royal Bodyguard, and the king sat down on the royal throne.

<sup>20</sup> All the people of the land celebrated, for the city had rest now that they had killed Athaliah with the sword in the royal palace.

Joash's Reign over Judah

<sup>21</sup> Jehoash was seven years old when he began to reign.

12

<sup>1</sup> In Jehu's seventh year Jehoash became king; he reigned for forty years in Jerusalem. His mother was Zibiah, who was from Beer Sheba.

<sup>3</sup> But the high places were not eliminated; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense on the high places.

<sup>4</sup> Jehoash said to the priests, "I place at your disposal all the consecrated silver that has been brought to the LORD's temple, including the silver collected from the census tax, the silver received from those who have made vows, and all the silver that people have voluntarily contributed to the LORD's temple.

<sup>5</sup> The priests should receive the silver they need from the treasurers and repair any damage to the temple they discover."

<sup>6</sup> By the twenty-third year of King Jehoash's reign the priests had still not repaired the damage to the temple.

<sup>7</sup> So King Jehoash summoned Jehoiada the priest along with the other priests, and said to them, "Why have you not repaired the damage to the temple? Now, take no more silver from your treasurers unless you intend to use it to repair the damage."

<sup>8</sup> The priests agreed not to collect silver from the people and relieved themselves of personal responsibility for the temple repairs.

<sup>9</sup> Jehoiada the priest took a chest and drilled a hole in its lid. He placed it on the right side of the altar near the entrance of the LORD's temple. The priests who guarded the entrance would put into it all the silver brought to the LORD's temple.

<sup>10</sup> When they saw the chest was full of silver, the royal secretary and the high priest counted the silver that had been brought to the LORD's temple and bagged it up.

<sup>11</sup> They would then hand over the silver that had been weighed to the construction foremen assigned to the LORD's temple. They hired carpenters and builders to work on the LORD's temple, <sup>12</sup> as well as masons and stonecutters. They bought wood and chiseled stone to repair the damage to the LORD's temple and also paid for all the other expenses.

<sup>13</sup> The silver brought to the LORD's temple was not used for silver bowls, trimming shears, basins, trumpets, or any kind of gold or silver implements.

<sup>14</sup> It was handed over to the foremen who used it to repair the LORD's temple.

<sup>15</sup> They did not audit the treasurers who disbursed the funds to the foremen, for they were honest.

<sup>17</sup> At that time King Hazael of Syria attacked Gath and captured it. Hazael then decided to attack Jerusalem.

<sup>18</sup> King Jehoash of Judah collected all the sacred items that his ancestors Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah, kings of Judah, had consecrated, as well as his own sacred items and all the gold that could be found in the treasuries of the LORD's temple and the royal palace. He sent it all to King Hazael of Syria, who then withdrew from Jerusalem.

<sup>21</sup> His servants Jozabad son of Shimeath and Jehozabad son of Shomer murdered him. He was buried with his ancestors in the city of David. His son Amaziah replaced him as king.

13

<sup>1</sup> In the twenty-third year of the reign of Judah's King Joash son of Ahaziah, Jehu's son Jehoahaz became king over Israel. He reigned in Samaria for seventeen years.

<sup>2</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD. He continued in the sinful ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat who had encouraged Israel to sin; he did not repudiate those sins.

<sup>3</sup> The LORD was furious with Israel and handed them over to King Hazael of Syria and to Hazael's son Ben Hadad for many years.

<sup>4</sup> Jehoahaz asked for the LORD's mercy and the LORD responded favorably, for he saw that Israel was oppressed by the king of Syria.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD provided a deliverer for Israel and they were freed from Syria's power. The Israelites once more lived in security.

<sup>6</sup> But they did not repudiate the sinful ways of the family of Jeroboam, who encouraged Israel to sin; they continued in those sins. There was even an Asherah pole standing in Samaria.

<sup>8</sup> The rest of the events of Jehoahaz's reign, including all his accomplishments and successes, are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

<sup>9</sup> Jehoahaz passed away and was buried in Samaria. His son Joash replaced him as king.

Jehoash's Reign over Israel

<sup>10</sup> In the thirty-seventh year of King Joash's reign over Judah, Jehoahaz's son Jehoash became king over Israel. He reigned in Samaria for sixteen years.

<sup>11</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not repudiate the sinful ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat who encouraged Israel to sin; he continued in those sins.

<sup>12</sup> The rest of the events of Joash's reign, including all his accomplishments and his successful war with King Amaziah of Judah, are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

<sup>13</sup> Joash passed away and Jeroboam succeeded him on the throne. Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

Elisha Makes One Final Prophecy

<sup>14</sup> Now Elisha had a terminal illness. King Joash of Israel went down to visit him. He wept before him and said, "My father, my father! The chariot and horsemen of Israel!"

<sup>15</sup> Elisha told him, "Take a bow and some arrows," and he did so.

<sup>16</sup> Then Elisha told the king of Israel, "Aim the bow." He did so, and Elisha placed his hands on the king's hands.

<sup>17</sup> Elisha said, "Open the east window," and he did so. Elisha said, "Shoot!" and he did so. Elisha said, "This arrow symbolizes the victory the LORD will give you over Syria. You will annihilate Syria in Aphek!"

<sup>18</sup> Then Elisha said, "Take the arrows," and he did so. He told the king of Israel, "Strike the ground!" He struck the ground three times and stopped.

<sup>19</sup> The prophet got angry at him and said, "If you had struck the ground five or six times, you would have annihilated Syria!

But now, you will defeat Syria only three times."

<sup>21</sup> One day some men were burying a man when they spotted a raiding party. So they threw the dead man into Elisha's tomb. When the body touched Elisha's bones, the dead man came to life and stood on his feet.

<sup>23</sup> But the LORD had mercy on them and felt pity for them. He extended his favor to them because of the promise he had made to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. He has been unwilling to destroy them or remove them from his presence to this very day.

<sup>25</sup> Jehoahaz's son Jehoash took back from Ben Hadad son of Hazael the cities that he had taken from his father Jehoahaz in war. Joash defeated him three times and recovered the Israelite cities.

14

<sup>2</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother was Jehoaddan, who was from Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> He did what the LORD approved, but not like David his father. He followed the example of his father Joash.

<sup>5</sup> When he had secured control of the kingdom, he executed the servants who had assassinated his father.

<sup>6</sup> But he did not execute the sons of the assassins. He obeyed the LORD's commandment as recorded in the law scroll of Moses, "Fathers must not be put to death for what their sons do, and sons must not be put to death for what their fathers do. A man must be put to death only for his own sin."

<sup>7</sup> He defeated 10,000 Edomites in the Salt Valley; he captured Sela in battle and renamed it Joktheel, a name it has retained to this very day.

<sup>8</sup> Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel. He said, "Come, let's meet face to face."

<sup>9</sup> King Jehoash of Israel sent this message back to King Amaziah of Judah, "A thornbush in Lebanon sent this message to a cedar in Lebanon, 'Give your daughter to my son as a wife.' Then a wild animal of Lebanon came by and trampled down the thorn."

<sup>10</sup> You thoroughly defeated Edom and it has gone to your head! Gloat over your success, but stay in your palace. Why bring calamity on yourself? Why bring down yourself and Judah along with you?"

<sup>11</sup> But Amaziah would not heed the warning, so King Jehoash of Israel attacked. He and King Amaziah of Judah met face to face in Beth Shemesh of Judah.

<sup>12</sup> Judah was defeated by Israel, and each man ran back home.

<sup>13</sup> King Jehoash of Israel captured King Amaziah of Judah, son of Jehoash son of Ahaziah, in Beth Shemesh. He attacked Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate – a distance of about six hundred feet.

<sup>14</sup> He took away all the gold and silver, all the items found in the LORD's strong="H3069" temple and in the treasuries of the royal palace, and some hostages. Then he went back to Samaria.

<sup>15</sup> The rest of the events of Jehoash's reign, including all his accomplishments and his successful war with King Amaziah of Judah, are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

<sup>16</sup> Jehoash passed away and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. His son Jeroboam replaced him as king.)

<sup>18</sup> The rest of the events of Amaziah's reign are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Judah.

<sup>19</sup> Conspirators plotted against him in Jerusalem, so he fled to Lachish. But they sent assassins after him and they killed him there.

<sup>20</sup> His body was carried back by horses and he was buried in Jerusalem with his ancestors in the city of David.

<sup>21</sup> All the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in his father Amaziah's place.

<sup>22</sup> Azariah built up Elat and restored it to Judah after the king had passed away.

Jeroboam II's Reign over Israel

<sup>23</sup> In the fifteenth year of the reign of Judah's King Amaziah, son of Joash, Jeroboam son of Joash became king over Israel. He reigned for forty-one years in Samaria.

<sup>24</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not repudiate the sinful ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat who encouraged Israel to sin.

<sup>25</sup> He restored the border of Israel from Lebo Hamath in the north to the sea of the Arabah in the south, in accordance with the word of the LORD God of Israel announced through his servant Jonah son of Amittai, the prophet from Gath Hepher.

<sup>26</sup> The LORD saw Israel's intense suffering; everyone was weak and incapacitated and Israel had no deliverer.

<sup>27</sup> The LORD had not decreed that he would blot out Israel's memory from under heaven, so he delivered them through Jeroboam son of Joash.

<sup>28</sup> The rest of the events of Jeroboam's reign, including all his accomplishments, his military success in restoring Israelite control over Damascus and Hamath, are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

<sup>29</sup> Jeroboam passed away and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. His son Zechariah replaced him as king.

15

<sup>2</sup> He was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecholiah, who was from Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> He did what the LORD approved, just as his father Amaziah had done.

<sup>4</sup> But the high places were not eliminated; the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense on the high places.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD afflicted the king with an illness; he suffered from a skin disease until the day he died. He lived in separate quarters, while his son Jotham was in charge of the palace and ruled over the people of the land.

<sup>7</sup> Azariah passed away and was buried with his ancestors in the city of David. His son Jotham replaced him as king.

Zechariah's Reign over Israel

<sup>8</sup> In the thirty-eighth year of King Azariah's reign over Judah, Jeroboam's son Zechariah became king over Israel. He reigned in Samaria for six months.

<sup>9</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD, as his ancestors had done. He did not repudiate the sinful ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat who encouraged Israel to sin.

<sup>10</sup> Shallum son of Jabesh conspired against him; he assassinated him in Ibleam and took his place as king.

<sup>11</sup> The rest of the events of Zechariah's reign are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

<sup>12</sup> His assassination brought to fulfillment the LORD's word to Jehu, "Four generations of your descendants will rule over Israel." That is exactly what happened.

<sup>13</sup> Shallum son of Jabesh became king in the thirty-ninth year of King Uzziah's reign over Judah. He reigned for one month in Samaria.

<sup>14</sup> Menahem son of Gadi went up from Tirzah to Samaria and attacked Shallum son of Jabesh. He killed him and took his place as king.

<sup>15</sup> The rest of the events of Shallum's reign, including the conspiracy he organized, are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

<sup>16</sup> At that time Menahem came from Tirzah and attacked Tiphseh. He struck down all who lived in the city and the surrounding territory, because they would not surrender. He even ripped open the pregnant women.

Menahem's Reign over Israel

<sup>17</sup> In the thirty-ninth year of King Azariah's reign over Judah, Menahem son of Gadi became king over Israel. He reigned for twelve years in Samaria.

<sup>18</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not repudiate the sinful ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat who encouraged Israel to sin.

During his reign,

<sup>19</sup> Pul king of Assyria invaded the land, and Menahem paid him a thousand talents of silver to gain his support and to solidify his control of the kingdom.

<sup>22</sup> Menahem passed away and his son Pekahiah replaced him as king.

Pekahiah's Reign over Israel

<sup>23</sup> In the fiftieth year of King Azariah's reign over Judah, Menahem's son Pekahiah became king over Israel. He reigned in Samaria for two years.

<sup>24</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not repudiate the sinful ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat who encouraged Israel to sin.

<sup>25</sup> His officer Pekah son of Remaliah conspired against him. He and fifty Gileadites assassinated Pekahiah, as well as Argob and Arieah, in Samaria in the fortress of the royal palace. Pekah then took his place as king.

<sup>26</sup> The rest of the events of Pekahiah's reign, including all his accomplishments, are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

Pekah's Reign over Israel

<sup>27</sup> In the fifty-second year of King Azariah's reign over Judah, Pekah son of Remaliah became king over Israel. He reigned in Samaria for twenty years.

<sup>28</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not repudiate the sinful ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat who encouraged Israel to sin.

<sup>29</sup> During Pekah's reign over Israel, King Tiglath-pileser of Assyria came and captured Ijon, Abel Beth Maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and Galilee, including all the territory of Naphtali. He deported the people to Assyria.

<sup>30</sup> Hoshea son of Elah conspired against Pekah son of Remaliah. He assassinated him and took his place as king, in the twentieth year of the reign of Jotham son of Uzziah.

<sup>31</sup> The rest of the events of Pekah's reign, including all his accomplishments, are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

Jotham's Reign over Judah

<sup>32</sup> In the second year of the reign of Israel's King Pekah son of Remaliah, Uzziah's son Jotham became king over Judah.

<sup>33</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok.

<sup>34</sup> He did what the LORD approved, just as his father Uzziah had done.

<sup>36</sup> The rest of the events of Jotham's reign, including his accomplishments, are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Judah.

<sup>37</sup> In those days the LORD prompted King Rezin of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah to attack Judah.

<sup>38</sup> Jotham passed away and was buried with his ancestors in the city of his ancestor David. His son Ahaz replaced him as king.

16

<sup>2</sup> Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for sixteen years in Jerusalem. He did not do what pleased the LORD his God, in contrast to his ancestor David.

<sup>4</sup> He offered sacrifices and burned incense on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

<sup>5</sup> At that time King Rezin of Syria and King Pekah son of Remaliah of Israel attacked Jerusalem. They besieged Ahaz, but were unable to conquer him.

<sup>6</sup> (At that time King Rezin of Syria recovered Elat for Syria; he drove the Judahites from there. Syrians arrived in Elat and live there to this very day.)

<sup>7</sup> Ahaz sent messengers to King Tiglath-pileser of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your dependent. March up and rescue me from the power of the king of Syria and the king of Israel, who have attacked me."

<sup>8</sup> Then Ahaz took the silver and gold that were in the LORD's temple and in the treasuries of the royal palace and sent it as tribute to the king of Assyria.

<sup>9</sup> The king of Assyria responded favorably to his request; he attacked Damascus and captured it. He deported the people to Kir and executed Rezin.

<sup>10</sup> When King Ahaz went to meet with King Tiglath-pileser of Assyria in Damascus, he saw the altar there. King Ahaz sent to Uriah the priest a drawing of the altar and a blueprint for its design.

<sup>12</sup> When the king arrived back from Damascus and saw the altar, he approached it and offered a sacrifice on it.

<sup>13</sup> He offered his burnt sacrifice and his grain offering. He poured out his libation and sprinkled the blood from his peace offerings on the altar.

<sup>14</sup> He moved the bronze altar that stood in the LORD's presence from the front of the temple (between the altar and the LORD's temple) and put it on the north side of the new altar.

<sup>15</sup> King Ahaz ordered Uriah the priest, "On the large altar offer the morning burnt sacrifice, the evening grain offering, the royal burnt sacrifices and grain offering, the burnt sacrifice for all the people of Israel, their grain offering, and their libations. Sprinkle all the blood of the burnt sacrifice and other sacrifices on it. The bronze altar will be for my personal use."

<sup>18</sup> He also removed the Sabbath awning that had been built in the temple and the king's outer entranceway, on account of the king of Assyria.

<sup>20</sup> Ahaz passed away and was buried with his ancestors in the city of David. His son Hezekiah replaced him as king.

17

<sup>1</sup> In the twelfth year of King Ahaz's reign over Judah, Hoshea son of Elah became king over Israel. He reigned in Samaria for nine years.

<sup>2</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD, but not to the same degree as the Israelite kings who preceded him.

<sup>4</sup> The king of Assyria discovered that Hoshea was planning a revolt. Hoshea had sent messengers to King So of Egypt and had not sent his annual tribute to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria arrested him and imprisoned him.

<sup>5</sup> The king of Assyria marched through the whole land. He attacked Samaria and besieged it for three years.

<sup>6</sup> In the ninth year of Hoshea's reign, the king of Assyria captured Samaria and deported the people of Israel to Assyria. He settled them in Halah, along the Habor (the river of Gozan), and in the cities of the Medes.

A Summary of Israel's Sinful History

<sup>7</sup> This happened because the Israelites sinned against the LORD their God, who brought them up from the land of Egypt and freed them from the power of Pharaoh king of Egypt. They worshiped other gods;

<sup>8</sup> they observed the practices of the nations whom the LORD had driven out from before Israel, and followed the example of the kings of Israel.

<sup>9</sup> The Israelites said things about the LORD their God that were not right. They built high places in all their cities, from the watchtower to the fortress.

<sup>10</sup> They set up sacred pillars and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every green tree.

<sup>13</sup> The LORD solemnly warned Israel and Judah through all his prophets and all the seers, "Turn back from your evil ways; obey my commandments and rules that are recorded in the law. I ordered your ancestors to keep this law and sent my servants the prophets to remind you of its demands.”

<sup>14</sup> But they did not pay attention and were as stubborn as their ancestors, who had not trusted the LORD their God.

<sup>15</sup> They rejected his rules, the covenant he had made with their ancestors, and the laws he had commanded them to obey. They paid allegiance to worthless idols, and so became worthless to the LORD. They copied the practices | strong="H0310" of the surrounding nations in blatant disregard of the LORD's command.

<sup>16</sup> They abandoned all the commandments of the LORD their God; they made two metal calves and an Asherah pole, bowed down to all the stars in the sky, and worshiped Baal.

<sup>17</sup> They passed their sons and daughters through the fire, and practiced divination and omen reading. They committed themselves to doing evil in the sight of the LORD and made him angry.

<sup>18</sup> So the LORD was furious with Israel and rejected them; only the tribe of Judah was left.

<sup>19</sup> Judah also failed to keep the commandments of the LORD their God; they followed Israel's example.

<sup>20</sup> So the LORD rejected all of Israel's descendants; he humiliated them and handed them over to robbers, until he had thrown them from his presence.

<sup>21</sup> He tore Israel away from David's dynasty, and Jeroboam son of Nebat became their king. Jeroboam drove Israel away from the LORD and encouraged them to commit a serious sin.

<sup>22</sup> The Israelites followed in the sinful ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat and did not repudiate them.

<sup>23</sup> Finally the LORD rejected Israel just as he had warned he would do through all his servants the prophets. Israel was deported from its land to Assyria and remains there to this very day.

The King of Assyria Populates Israel with Foreigners

<sup>24</sup> The king of Assyria brought foreigners from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath, and Sepharvaim and settled them in the cities of Samaria in place of the Israelites. They took possession of Samaria and lived in its cities.

<sup>25</sup> When they first moved in, they did not worship the LORD. So the LORD sent lions among them and the lions were killing them.

<sup>26</sup> The king of Assyria was told, “The nations whom you deported and settled in the cities of Samaria do not know the requirements of the God of the land, so he has sent lions among them. They are killing the people because they do not know the requirements of the God of the land.”

<sup>27</sup> So the king of Assyria ordered, “Take back one of the priests whom you deported from there. He must settle there and teach them the requirements of the God of the land.”

<sup>28</sup> So one of the priests whom they had deported from Samaria went back and settled in Bethel. He taught them how to worship the LORD.

<sup>29</sup> But each of these nations made its own gods and put them in the shrines on the high places that the people of Samaria had made. Each nation did this in the cities where they lived.

<sup>30</sup> The people from Babylon made Succoth Benoth, the people from Cuth made Nergal, the people from Hamath made Ashima, <sup>31</sup> the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burned their sons in the fire as an offering to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

<sup>32</sup> At the same time they worshiped the LORD |strong="H3069". They appointed some of their own people to serve as priests in the shrines on the high places.

<sup>33</sup> They were worshiping the LORD and at the same time serving their own gods in accordance with the practices of the nations from which they had been deported.

<sup>34</sup> To this very day they observe their earlier practices. They do not worship the LORD; they do not obey the rules, regulations, law, and commandments that the LORD gave the descendants of Jacob, whom he renamed Israel.

<sup>35</sup> The LORD made an agreement with them and instructed them, "You must not worship other gods. Do not bow down to them, serve them, or offer sacrifices to them.

<sup>36</sup> Instead you must worship the LORD, who brought you up from the land of Egypt by his great power and military ability; bow down to him and offer sacrifices to him.

<sup>37</sup> You must carefully obey at all times the rules, regulations, law, and commandments he wrote down for you. You must not worship other gods.

<sup>38</sup> You must never forget the agreement I made with you, and you must not worship other gods.

<sup>39</sup> Instead you must worship the LORD your God; then he will rescue you from the power of all your enemies."

18

<sup>1</sup> In the third year of the reign of Israel's King Hoshea son of Elah, Ahaz's son Hezekiah became king over Judah.

<sup>2</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother was Abi, the daughter of Zechariah.

<sup>3</sup> He did what the LORD approved, just as his ancestor David had done.

<sup>4</sup> He eliminated the high places, smashed the sacred pillars to bits, and cut down the Asherah pole. He also demolished the bronze serpent that Moses had made, for up to that time the Israelites had been offering incense to it; it was called Nehushtan.

<sup>5</sup> He trusted in the LORD God of Israel; in this regard there was none like him among the kings of Judah either before or after.

<sup>6</sup> He was loyal to the LORD and did not abandon him. He obeyed the commandments which the LORD had given to Moses.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD was with him; he succeeded in all his endeavors. He rebelled against the king of Assyria and refused to submit to him.

<sup>8</sup> He defeated the Philistines as far as Gaza and its territory, from the watchtower to the city fortress.

<sup>9</sup> In the fourth year of King Hezekiah's reign (it was the seventh year of the reign of Israel's King Hoshea, son of Elah), King Shalmaneser of Assyria marched up against Samaria and besieged it.

<sup>10</sup> After three years he captured it (in the sixth year of Hezekiah's reign); in the ninth year of King Hoshea's reign over Israel Samaria was captured.

<sup>11</sup> The king of Assyria deported the people of Israel to Assyria. He settled them in Halah, along the Habor (the river of Gozan), and in the cities of the Medes.

<sup>12</sup> This happened because they did not obey the LORD |strong="H3069" their God and broke his agreement with them. They did not pay attention to and obey all that Moses, the LORD's |strong="H3069" servant, had commanded.

Sennacherib Invades Judah

<sup>13</sup> In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah's reign, King Sennacherib of Assyria marched up against all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.

<sup>14</sup> King Hezekiah of Judah sent this message to the king of Assyria, who was at Lachish, "I have violated our treaty. If you leave, I will do whatever you demand." So the king of Assyria demanded that King Hezekiah of Judah pay three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

<sup>15</sup> Hezekiah gave him all the silver in the LORD's temple and in the treasuries of the royal palace.

<sup>16</sup> At that time King Hezekiah of Judah stripped the metal overlays from the doors of the LORD's temple and from the posts which he had plated and gave them to the king of Assyria.

<sup>17</sup> The king of Assyria sent his commanding general, the chief eunuch, and the chief adviser from Lachish to King Hezekiah in Jerusalem, along with a large army. They went up and arrived at Jerusalem. They went and stood at the conduit of the upper pool which is located on the road to the field where they wash and dry cloth.

<sup>18</sup> They summoned the king, so Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, the palace supervisor, accompanied by Shebna the scribe and Joah son of Asaph, the secretary, went out to meet them.

<sup>19</sup> The chief adviser said to them, "Tell Hezekiah: 'This is what the great king, the king of Assyria, says: "What is your source of confidence?"

<sup>20</sup> Your claim to have a strategy and military strength is just empty talk. In whom are you trusting that you would dare to rebel against me?"

<sup>21</sup> Now look, you must be trusting in Egypt, that splintered reed staff. If a man leans for support on it, it punctures his hand and wounds him. That is what Pharaoh king of Egypt does to all who trust in him.

<sup>22</sup> Perhaps you will tell me, 'We are trusting in the LORD our God.' But Hezekiah is the one who eliminated his high places and altars and then told the people of Judah and Jerusalem, 'You must worship at this altar in Jerusalem.'

<sup>23</sup> Now make a deal with my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, provided you can find enough riders for them.

<sup>24</sup> Certainly you will not refuse one of my master's minor officials and trust in Egypt for chariots and horsemen.

<sup>25</sup> Furthermore it was by the command of the LORD that I marched up against this place to destroy it. The LORD told me, 'March up against this land and destroy it.' " " "

<sup>26</sup> Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, Shebna, and Joah said to the chief adviser, "Speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it. Don't speak with us in the Judahite dialect in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

<sup>27</sup> But the chief adviser said to them, "My master did not send me to speak these words only to your master and to you. His message is also for the men who sit on the wall, for they will eat their own excrement and drink their own urine along with you."

<sup>28</sup> The chief adviser then stood there and called out loudly in the Judahite dialect, "Listen to the message of the great king, the king of Assyria.

<sup>29</sup> This is what the king says: 'Don't let Hezekiah mislead you, for he is not able to rescue you from my hand!

<sup>30</sup> Don't let Hezekiah talk you into trusting in the LORD when he says, "The LORD will certainly rescue us; this city will not be handed over to the king of Assyria."

<sup>31</sup> Don't listen to Hezekiah!' For this is what the king of Assyria says, 'Send me a token of your submission and surrender to me. Then each of you may eat from his own vine and fig tree and drink water from his own cistern,

<sup>32</sup> until I come and take you to a land just like your own – a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and honey. Then you will live and not die. Don't listen to Hezekiah, for he is misleading you when he says, "The LORD will rescue us."

<sup>33</sup> Have any of the gods of the nations actually rescued his land from the power of the king of Assyria?

<sup>34</sup> Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? Indeed, did any gods rescue Samaria from my power?

<sup>35</sup> Who among all the gods of the lands has rescued their lands from my power? So how can the LORD rescue Jerusalem from my power?" "

<sup>36</sup> The people were silent and did not respond, for the king had ordered, "Don't respond to him."

<sup>37</sup> Eliakim son of Hilkiah, the palace supervisor, accompanied by Shebna the scribe and Joah son of Asaph, the secretary, went to Hezekiah with their clothes torn and reported to him what the chief adviser had said.

19

<sup>2</sup> He sent Eliakim the palace supervisor, Shebna the scribe, and the leading priests, clothed in sackcloth, with this message to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz:

<sup>3</sup> "This is what Hezekiah says: 'This is a day of distress, insults, and humiliation, as when a baby is ready to leave the birth canal, but the mother lacks the strength to push it through.'

<sup>4</sup> Perhaps the LORD your God will hear all these things the chief adviser has spoken on behalf of his master, the king of Assyria, who sent him to taunt the living God. When the LORD your God hears, perhaps he will punish him for the things he has said. So pray for this remnant that remains.' "

<sup>6</sup> Isaiah said to them, "Tell your master this: 'This is what the LORD says: "Don't be afraid because of the things you have heard – these insults the king of Assyria's servants have hurled against me.'

<sup>7</sup> Look, I will take control of his mind; he will receive a report and return to his own land. I will cut him down with a sword in his own land.' " "

<sup>8</sup> When the chief adviser heard the king of Assyria had departed from Lachish, he left and went to Libnah, where the king was campaigning.

<sup>9</sup> The king heard that King Tirhakah of Ethiopia was marching out to fight him. He again sent messengers to Hezekiah, ordering them:

<sup>10</sup> "Tell King Hezekiah of Judah this: 'Don't let your God in whom you trust mislead you when he says, "Jerusalem will not be handed over to the king of Assyria.' "

<sup>11</sup> Certainly you have heard how the kings of Assyria have annihilated all lands. Do you really think you will be rescued?

<sup>12</sup> Were the nations whom my ancestors destroyed – the nations of Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden in Telassar – rescued by their gods?

<sup>14</sup> Hezekiah took the letter from the messengers and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to the LORD's |strong="H3069" temple and spread it out before the LORD |strong="H3069".

<sup>15</sup> Hezekiah prayed before the LORD: "LORD God of Israel, who is enthroned on the cherubs! You alone are God over all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the sky and the earth.

<sup>16</sup> Pay attention, LORD, and hear! Open your eyes, LORD, and observe! Listen to the message Sennacherib sent and how he taunts the living God!

<sup>17</sup> It is true, LORD, that the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands.

<sup>18</sup> They have burned the gods of the nations, for they are not really gods, but only the product of human hands manufactured from wood and stone. That is why the Assyrians could destroy them.

<sup>19</sup> Now, O LORD our God, rescue us from his power, so that all the kingdoms of the earth will know that you, LORD, are the only God.”

<sup>20</sup> Isaiah son of Amoz sent this message to Hezekiah: “This is what the LORD God of Israel says: ‘I have heard your prayer concerning King Sennacherib of Assyria.

<sup>21</sup> This is what the LORD says about him:

“The virgin daughter Zion despises you, she makes fun of you;
Daughter Jerusalem
shakes her head after you.

<sup>22</sup> Whom have you taunted and hurled insults at?

At whom have you shouted, and looked so arrogantly?
At the Holy One of Israel!

<sup>23</sup> Through your messengers you taunted the sovereign master,

‘With my many chariots
I climbed up the high mountains,
the slopes of Lebanon.
I cut down its tall cedars,
and its best evergreens.
I invaded its most remote regions, its thickest woods.

<sup>24</sup> I dug wells and drank water in foreign lands.
With the soles of my feet I dried up all the rivers of Egypt.’

<sup>25</sup>
Certainly you must have heard!
Long ago I worked it out,
In ancient times I planned it;
and now I am bringing it to pass.
The plan is this:
Fortified cities will crash into heaps of ruins.

<sup>26</sup> Their residents are powerless, they are terrified and ashamed.
They are as short-lived as plants in the field,
or green vegetation.
They are as short-lived as grass on the rooftops when it is scorched by the east wind.

<sup>27</sup> I know where you live, and everything you do.

<sup>28</sup> Because you rage against me,
and the uproar you create has reached my ears;
I will put my hook in your nose,
and my bridle between your lips, and I will lead you back the way you came.”

29

This will be your confirmation that I have spoken the truth: This year you will eat what grows wild, and next year what grows on its own from that. But in the third year you will plant seed and harvest crops; you will plant vines and consume their produce.

30 Those who remain in Judah will take root in the ground and bear fruit.

31 For a remnant will leave Jerusalem;
survivors will come out of Mount Zion.

The intense devotion of the sovereign LORD to his people will accomplish this.

32 So this is what the LORD says about the king of Assyria:

“He will not enter this city, nor will he shoot an arrow here.
He will not attack it with his shield-carrying warriors, nor will he build siege works against it.

33 He will go back the way he came.

He will not enter this city,” says the LORD.

34 I will shield this city and rescue it for the sake of my reputation and because of my promise to David my servant.’ ”

35 That very night the LORD’s messenger went out and killed 185,000 men in the Assyrian camp. When they got up early the next morning, there were all the corpses.

36 So King Sennacherib of Assyria broke camp and went on his way. He went home and stayed in Nineveh.

37 One day, as he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword. They escaped to the land of Ararat; his son Esarhaddon replaced him as king.

20

1 In those days Hezekiah was stricken with a terminal illness. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz visited him and told him, “This is what the LORD says, ‘Give your household instructions, for you are about to die; you will not get well.’ ”

2 He turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD,

3 “Please, LORD. Remember how I have served you faithfully and with wholehearted devotion, and how I have carried out your will.” Then Hezekiah wept bitterly.

4 Isaiah was still in the middle courtyard when the LORD told him,

5 “Go back and tell Hezekiah, the leader of my people: ‘This is what the LORD God of your ancestor David says: “I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears. Look, I will heal you. The day after tomorrow you will go up to the LORD’s temple.

6 I will add fifteen years to your life and rescue you and this city from the king of Assyria. I will shield this city for the sake of my reputation and because of my promise to David my servant.’ ”

7 Isaiah ordered, “Get a fig cake.” So they did as he ordered and placed it on the ulcerated sore, and he recovered.

8 Hezekiah had said to Isaiah, “What is the confirming sign that the LORD will heal me and that I will go up to the LORD’s temple the day after tomorrow?”

9 Isaiah replied, “This is your sign from the LORD confirming that the LORD will do what he has said. Do you want the shadow to move ahead ten steps or to go back ten steps?”

10 Hezekiah answered, “It is easy for the shadow to lengthen ten steps, but not for it to go back ten steps.”

11 Isaiah the prophet called out to the LORD, and the LORD made the shadow go back ten steps on the stairs of Ahaz.

Messengers from Babylon Visit Hezekiah

<sup>12</sup> At that time Merodach-Baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, for he had heard that Hezekiah was ill.

<sup>13</sup> Hezekiah welcomed them and showed them his whole storehouse, with its silver, gold, spices, and high quality olive oil, as well as his armory and everything in his treasuries. Hezekiah showed them everything in his palace and in his whole kingdom.

<sup>14</sup> Isaiah the prophet visited King Hezekiah and asked him, "What did these men say? Where do they come from?" Hezekiah replied, "They come from the distant land of Babylon."

<sup>15</sup> Isaiah asked, "What have they seen in your palace?" Hezekiah replied, "They have seen everything in my palace. I showed them everything in my treasuries."

<sup>16</sup> Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Listen to the word of the LORD,

<sup>17</sup> 'Look, a time is coming when everything in your palace and the things your ancestors have accumulated to this day will be carried away to Babylon; nothing will be left,' says the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> 'Some of your very own descendants whom your father will be taken away and will be made eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.' "

<sup>19</sup> Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The LORD's word which you have announced is appropriate." Then he added, "At least there will be peace and stability during my lifetime."

<sup>20</sup> The rest of the events of Hezekiah's reign and all his accomplishments, including how he built a pool and conduit to bring water into the city, are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Judah.

<sup>21</sup> Hezekiah passed away and his son Manasseh replaced him as king.

21

<sup>3</sup> He rebuilt the high places that his father Hezekiah had destroyed; he set up altars for Baal and made an Asherah pole just like King Ahab of Israel had done. He bowed down to all the stars in the sky and worshiped them.

<sup>4</sup> He built altars in the LORD's temple, about which the LORD had said, "Jerusalem will be my home."

<sup>5</sup> In the two courtyards of the LORD's temple he built altars for all the stars in the sky.

<sup>6</sup> He passed his son through the fire and practiced divination and omen reading. He set up a ritual pit to conjure up underworld spirits, and appointed magicians to supervise it. He did a great amount of evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking him to anger.

<sup>7</sup> He put an idol of Asherah he had made in the temple, about which the LORD had said to David and to his son Solomon, "This temple in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will be my permanent home.

<sup>8</sup> I will not make Israel again leave the land I gave to their ancestors, provided that they carefully obey all I commanded them, the whole law my servant Moses ordered them to obey."

<sup>9</sup> But they did not obey, and Manasseh misled them so that they sinned more than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed from before the Israelites.

<sup>10</sup> So the LORD announced through his servants the prophets:

<sup>11</sup> “King Manasseh of Judah has committed horrible sins. He has sinned more than the Amorites before him and has encouraged Judah to sin by worshiping his disgusting idols.

<sup>12</sup> So this is what the LORD God of Israel says, ‘I am about to bring disaster on Jerusalem and Judah. The news will reverberate in the ears of those who hear about it.

<sup>13</sup> I will destroy Jerusalem the same way I did Samaria and the dynasty of Ahab. I will wipe Jerusalem clean, just as one wipes a plate on both sides.

<sup>14</sup> I will abandon this last remaining tribe among my people and hand them over to their enemies; they will be plundered and robbed by all their enemies,

<sup>15</sup> because they have done evil in my sight and have angered me from the time their ancestors left Egypt right up to this very day!’ ”

<sup>16</sup> Furthermore Manasseh killed so many innocent people, he stained Jerusalem with their blood from end to end, in addition to encouraging Judah to sin by doing evil in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>17</sup> The rest of the events of Manasseh’s reign and all his accomplishments, as well as the sinful acts he committed, are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Judah.

<sup>18</sup> Manasseh passed away and was buried in his palace garden, the garden of Uzzah, and his son Amon replaced him as king.

Amon’s Reign over Judah

<sup>19</sup> Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned for two years in Jerusalem. His mother was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz, from Jotbah.

<sup>20</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD, just like his father Manasseh had done.

<sup>25</sup> The rest of Amon’s accomplishments are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Judah.

<sup>26</sup> He was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzzah, and his son Josiah replaced him as king.

22

<sup>3</sup> In the eighteenth year of King Josiah’s reign, the king sent the scribe Shaphan son of Azaliah, son of Meshullam, to the LORD’s temple with these orders:

<sup>4</sup> “Go up to Hilkiyah the high priest and have him melt down the silver that has been brought by the people to the LORD’s temple and has been collected by the guards at the door.

<sup>5</sup> Have them hand it over to the construction foremen assigned to the LORD’s temple. They in turn should pay the temple workers to repair it, <sup>6</sup> including craftsmen, builders, and masons, and should buy wood and chiseled stone for the repair work.

<sup>8</sup> Hilkiah the high priest informed Shaphan the scribe, "I found the law scroll in the LORD's temple." Hilkiah gave the scroll to Shaphan and he read it.

<sup>9</sup> Shaphan the scribe went to the king and reported, "Your servants melted down the silver in the temple and handed it over to the construction foremen assigned to the LORD's temple."

<sup>11</sup> When the king heard the words of the law scroll, he tore his clothes.

<sup>12</sup> The king ordered Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Acbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant,

<sup>13</sup> "Go, seek an oracle from the LORD for me and the people – for all Judah. Find out about the words of this scroll that has been discovered. For the LORD's fury has been ignited against us, because our ancestors have not obeyed the words of this scroll by doing all that it instructs us to do."

<sup>14</sup> So Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Acbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shullam son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, the supervisor of the wardrobe. (She lived in Jerusalem in the Mishneh district.) They stated their business,

<sup>15</sup> and she said to them: "This is what the LORD God of Israel says: 'Say this to the man who sent you to me:

<sup>16</sup> "This is what the LORD says: 'I am about to bring disaster on this place and its residents, the details of which are recorded in the scroll which the king of Judah has read.

<sup>17</sup> This will happen because they have abandoned me and offered sacrifices to other gods, angering me with all the idols they have made. My anger will ignite against this place and will not be extinguished!' "

<sup>18</sup> Say this to the king of Judah, who sent you to seek an oracle from the LORD: "This is what the LORD God of Israel says concerning the words you have heard:

<sup>19</sup> 'You displayed a sensitive spirit and humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard how I intended to make this place and its residents into an appalling example of an accursed people. You tore your clothes and wept before me, and I have heard you,' says the LORD.

<sup>20</sup> 'Therefore I will allow you to die and be buried in peace. You will not have to witness all the disaster I will bring on this place.' " " Then they reported back to the king.

<sup>2</sup> The king went up to the LORD's temple, accompanied by all the people of Judah, all the residents of Jerusalem, the priests, and the prophets. All the people were there, from the youngest to the oldest. He read aloud all the words of the scroll of the covenant that had been discovered in the LORD's temple.

<sup>3</sup> The king stood by the pillar and renewed the covenant before the LORD, agreeing to follow the LORD and to obey his commandments, laws, and rules with all his heart and being, by carrying out the terms of this covenant recorded on this scroll. All the people agreed to keep the covenant.

<sup>4</sup> The king ordered Hilkiah the high priest, the high-ranking priests, and the guards to bring out of the LORD's temple all the items that were used in the worship of Baal, Asherah, and all the stars of the sky. The king burned them outside of Jerusalem in the terraces of Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel.

<sup>5</sup> He eliminated the pagan priests whom the kings of Judah had appointed to offer sacrifices on the high places in the cities of Judah and in the area right around Jerusalem.

(They offered sacrifices to Baal, the sun god, the moon god, the constellations, and all the stars in the sky.)

<sup>6</sup> He removed the Asherah pole from the LORD's temple and took it outside Jerusalem to the Kidron Valley, where he burned it. He smashed it to dust and then threw the dust in the public graveyard.

<sup>7</sup> He tore down the quarters of the male cultic prostitutes in the LORD's temple, where women were weaving shrines for Asherah.

<sup>8</sup> He brought all the priests from the cities of Judah and ruined the high places where the priests had offered sacrifices, from Geba to Beer Sheba. He tore down the high place of the goat idols situated at the entrance of the gate of Joshua, the city official, on the left side of the city gate.

<sup>9</sup> (Now the priests of the high places did not go up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they did eat unleavened cakes among their fellow priests.)

<sup>10</sup> The king ruined Topheth in the Valley of Ben Hinnom so that no one could pass his son or his daughter through the fire to Molech.

<sup>11</sup> He removed from the entrance to the LORD's temple the statues of horses that the kings of Judah had placed there in honor of the sun god. (They were kept near the room of Nathan Melech the eunuch, which was situated among the courtyards.) He burned up the chariots devoted to the sun god.

<sup>12</sup> The king tore down the altars the kings of Judah had set up on the roof of Ahaz's upper room, as well as the altars Manasseh had set up in the two courtyards of the LORD's temple. He crushed them up and threw the dust in the Kidron Valley.

<sup>13</sup> The king ruined the high places east of Jerusalem, south of the Mount of Destruction, that King Solomon of Israel had built for the detestable Sidonian goddess Astarte, the detestable Moabite god Chemosh, and the horrible Ammonite god Milcom.

<sup>14</sup> He smashed the sacred pillars to bits, cut down the Asherah pole, and filled those shrines with human bones.

<sup>15</sup> He also tore down the altar in Bethel at the high place made by Jeroboam son of Nebat, who encouraged Israel to sin. He burned all the combustible items at that high place and crushed them to dust; including the Asherah pole.

<sup>16</sup> When Josiah turned around, he saw the tombs there on the hill. So he ordered the bones from the tombs to be brought; he burned them on the altar and defiled it. This fulfilled the LORD's announcement made by the prophet while Jeroboam stood by the altar during a festival. King Josiah turned and saw the grave of the prophet who had foretold this.

<sup>17</sup> He asked, "What is this grave marker I see?" The men from the city replied, "It's the grave of the prophet who came from Judah and foretold these very things you have done to the altar of Bethel."

<sup>19</sup> Josiah also removed all the shrines on the high places in the cities of Samaria. The kings of Israel had made them and angered the LORD. He did H6213 to them what he had done to the high place in Bethel.

<sup>20</sup> He sacrificed all the priests of the high places on the altars located there, and burned human bones on them. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>23</sup> But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah's reign, such a Passover of the LORD was observed in Jerusalem.

<sup>24</sup> Josiah also got rid of the ritual pits used to conjure up spirits, the magicians, personal idols, disgusting images, and all the detestable idols that had appeared in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem. In this way he carried out the terms of the law recorded on the scroll that Hilkiah the priest had discovered in the LORD's temple.

<sup>25</sup> No king before or after repented before the LORD as he did, with his whole heart, soul, and being in accordance with the whole law of Moses.

<sup>26</sup> Yet the LORD's great anger against Judah did not subside; he was still infuriated by all the things Manasseh had done.

<sup>27</sup> The LORD announced, "I will also spurn Judah, just as I spurned Israel. I will reject this city that I chose – both Jerusalem and the temple, about which I said, "I will live there."

<sup>28</sup> The rest of the events of Josiah's reign and all his accomplishments are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Judah.

<sup>29</sup> During Josiah's reign Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt marched toward the Euphrates River to help the king of Assyria. King Josiah marched out to fight him, but Necho killed him at Megiddo when he saw him.

<sup>30</sup> His servants transported his dead body from Megiddo in a chariot and brought it to Jerusalem, where they buried him in his tomb. The people of the land took Josiah's son Jehoahaz, poured olive oil on his head, and made him king in his father's place.

Jehoahaz's Reign over Judah

<sup>31</sup> Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah, from Libnah.

<sup>32</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD as his ancestors had done.

<sup>33</sup> Pharaoh Necho imprisoned him in Riblah in the land of Hamath and prevented him from ruling in Jerusalem. He imposed on the land a special tax of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

<sup>34</sup> Pharaoh Necho made Josiah's son Eliakim king in Josiah's place, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. He took Jehoahaz to Egypt, where he died.

<sup>35</sup> Jehoiakim paid Pharaoh the required amount of silver and gold, but to meet Pharaoh's demands Jehoiakim had to tax the land. He collected an assessed amount from each man among the people of the land in order to pay Pharaoh Necho.

Jehoiakim's Reign over Judah

<sup>36</sup> Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned for eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother was Zebidah the daughter of Pedaiiah, from Rumah.

<sup>37</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD as his ancestors had done.

24

<sup>1</sup> During Jehoiakim's reign, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon attacked. Jehoiakim was his subject for three years, but then he rebelled against him.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD sent against him Babylonian, Syrian, Moabite, and Ammonite raiding bands; he sent them to destroy Judah, as he had warned he would do through his servants the prophets.

<sup>3</sup> Just as the LORD had announced, he rejected Judah because of all the sins which Manasseh had committed.

<sup>4</sup> Because he killed innocent people and stained Jerusalem with their blood, the LORD was unwilling to forgive them.

<sup>5</sup> The rest of the events of Jehoiakim's reign and all his accomplishments, are recorded in the scroll called the Annals of the Kings of Judah.

<sup>6</sup> He passed away and his son Jehoiachin replaced him as king.

<sup>7</sup> The king of Egypt did not march out from his land again, for the king of Babylon conquered all the territory that the king of Egypt had formerly controlled between the Brook of Egypt and the Euphrates River.

Jehoiachin's Reign over Judah

<sup>8</sup> Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother was Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan, from Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD as his ancestors had done.

<sup>10</sup> At that time the generals of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon marched to Jerusalem and besieged the city.

<sup>13</sup> Nebuchadnezzar took from there all the riches in the treasuries of the LORD's temple and of the royal palace. He removed all the gold items which King Solomon of Israel had made for the LORD's temple, just as the LORD had warned.

<sup>14</sup> He deported all the residents of Jerusalem, including all the officials and all the soldiers (10,000 people in all). This included all the craftsmen and those who worked with metal. No one was left except for the poorest among the people of the land.

<sup>15</sup> He deported Jehoiachin from Jerusalem to Babylon, along with the king's mother and wives, his eunuchs, and the high-ranking officials of the land.

<sup>16</sup> The king of Babylon deported to Babylon all the soldiers (there were 7,000), as well as 1,000 craftsmen and metal workers. This included all the best warriors.

Zedekiah's Reign over Judah

<sup>18</sup> Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he ruled for eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah, from Libnah.

<sup>19</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD, as Jehoiakim had done.

25

<sup>3</sup> By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine in the city was so severe the residents had no food.

<sup>4</sup> The enemy broke through the city walls, and all the soldiers tried to escape. They left the city during the night. They went through the gate between the two walls that is near the king's garden. (The Babylonians were all around the city.) Then they headed for the Jordan Valley.

<sup>5</sup> But the Babylonian army chased after the king. They caught up with him in the plains of Jericho, and his entire army deserted him.

<sup>6</sup> They captured the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, where he passed sentence on him.

<sup>7</sup> Zedekiah's sons were executed while Zedekiah was forced to watch. The king of Babylon then had Zedekiah's eyes put out, bound him in bronze chains, and carried him off to Babylon.

Nebuchadnezzar Destroys Jerusalem

<sup>8</sup> On the seventh day of the fifth month, in the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the royal guard who served the king of Babylon, arrived in Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup> He burned down the LORD's temple, the royal palace, and all the houses in Jerusalem, including every large house.

<sup>10</sup> The whole Babylonian army that came with the captain of the royal guard tore down the walls that surrounded Jerusalem.

<sup>12</sup> But he left behind some of the poor of the land and gave them fields and vineyards.

<sup>13</sup> The Babylonians broke the two bronze pillars in the LORD's temple, as well as the movable stands and the big bronze basin called the "The Sea." They took the bronze to Babylon.

<sup>14</sup> They also took the pots, shovels, trimming shears, pans, and all the bronze utensils used by the priests.

<sup>15</sup> The captain of the royal guard took the golden and silver censers and basins.

<sup>16</sup> The bronze of the items that King Solomon made for the LORD's temple – including the two pillars, the big bronze basin called "The Sea," the twelve bronze bulls under "The Sea," and the movable stands – was too heavy to be weighed.

<sup>17</sup> Each of the pillars was about twenty-seven feet high. The bronze top of one pillar was about four and a half feet high and had bronze latticework and pomegranate shaped ornaments all around it. The second pillar with its latticework was like it.

<sup>18</sup> The captain of the royal guard took Seraiah the chief priest and Zephaniah, the priest who was second in rank, and the three doorkeepers.

<sup>19</sup> From the city he took a eunuch who was in charge of the soldiers, five of the king's advisers who were discovered in the city, an official army secretary who drafted citizens for military service, and sixty citizens from the people of the land who were discovered in the city.

<sup>20</sup> Nebuzaradan, captain of the royal guard, took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah.

<sup>21</sup> The king of Babylon ordered them to be executed at Riblah in the territory of Hamath. So Judah was deported from its land.

Gedaliah Appointed Governor

<sup>22</sup> Now King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, as governor over the people whom he allowed to remain in the land of Judah.

<sup>23</sup> All of the officers of the Judahite army and their troops heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah to govern. So they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. The officers who came were Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah son of the Maacathite.

<sup>24</sup> Gedaliah took an oath so as to give them and their troops some assurance of safety. He said, "You don't need to be afraid to submit to the Babylonian officials. Settle down in the land and submit to the king of Babylon. Then things will go well for you."

<sup>25</sup> But in the seventh month Ishmael son of Nethaniah, son of Elishama, who was a member of the royal family, came with ten of his men and murdered Gedaliah, as well as the Judeans and Babylonians who were with him at Mizpah.

Jehoiachin in Babylon

<sup>27</sup> In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of King Jehoiachin of Judah, on the twenty-seventh day of the twelfth month, King Evil-Merodach of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, pardoned King Jehoiachin of Judah and released him from prison.

<sup>28</sup> He spoke kindly to him and gave him a more prestigious position than the other kings who were with him in Babylon.

<sup>30</sup> He was given daily provisions by the king for the rest of his life until the day he died.

 Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

Judah's Descendants

 Er, Onan, and Shelah. These three were born to him by Bathshua, a Canaanite woman. Er, Judah's firstborn, displeased the LORD | strong="H3069", so the LORD killed | strong="H4191" him.

<sup>4</sup> Tamar, Judah's daughter-in-law, bore to him Perez and Zerah. Judah had five sons in all.

 Hezron and Hamul.

<sup>6</sup> The sons of Zerah:
 Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Kalkol, Dara – five in all.

 Achan, who brought the disaster on Israel when he stole what was devoted to God.

<sup>8</sup> The son of Ethan:
 Azariah.

<sup>9</sup> The sons born to Hezron:
 Jerahmeel, Ram, and Caleb.

Ram's Descendants

<sup>10</sup> Ram was the father of Amminadab, and Amminadab was the father of Nahshon, the tribal chief of Judah.

<sup>11</sup> Nahshon was the father of Salma, and Salma was the father of Boaz.

<sup>12</sup> Boaz was the father of Obed, and Obed was the father of Jesse.

Caleb's Descendants

<sup>18</sup> Caleb son of Hezron fathered sons by his wife Azubah (also known as Jerioth). Her sons were Jeshar, Shobab, and Ardon.

<sup>19</sup> When Azubah died, Caleb married Ephrath, who bore him Hur.

<sup>20</sup> Hur was the father of Uri, and Uri was the father of Bezalel.

<sup>21</sup> Later Hezron had sexual relations with the daughter of Makir, the father of Gilead. (He had married her when he was sixty years old.) She bore him Segub.

<sup>22</sup> Segub was the father of Jair, who owned twenty-three cities in the land of Gilead.

<sup>23</sup> (Geshur and Aram captured the towns of Jair, along with Kenath and its sixty surrounding towns.) All these were descendants of Makir, the father of Gilead.

<sup>24</sup> After Hezron's death, Caleb had sexual relations with Ephrath, his father Hezron's widow, and she bore to him Ashhur the father of Tekoa.

Jerahmeel's Descendants

<sup>25</sup> The sons of Jerahmeel, Hezron's firstborn, were Ram, the firstborn, Bunah, Oren, Ozem, and Ahijah.

The sons of Shammai:

Nadab and Abishur.

<sup>29</sup> Abishur's wife was Abihail, who bore him Ahban and Molid.

<sup>30</sup> The sons of Nadab:

Seled and Appaim. (Seled died without having sons.)

<sup>31</sup> The son of Appaim:

Ishi.

The son of Ishi:

Sheshan.

The son of Sheshan:

Ahlai.

<sup>32</sup> The sons of Jada, Shammai's brother:

Jether and Jonathan. (Jether died without having sons.)

<sup>33</sup> The sons of Jonathan:

Peleth and Zaza.

These were the descendants of Jerahmeel.

<sup>37</sup> Zabad was the father of Ephlal, and Ephlal was the father of Obed.

<sup>38</sup> Obed was the father of Jehu, and Jehu was the father of Azariah.

Korah, Tappuah, Rekem, and Shema.

<sup>44</sup> Shema was the father of Raham, the father of Jorkeam. Rekem was the father of Shammai.

<sup>45</sup> Shammai's son was Maon, who was the father of Beth-Zur.

Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah, and Shaaph.

<sup>49</sup> She also bore Shaaph the father of Madmannah and Sheva the father of Machbenah and Gibeon. Caleb's daughter was Achsah.

<sup>50</sup> These were the descendants of Caleb.

The sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrath:

Shobal, the father of Kiriath Jearim,

<sup>52</sup> The sons of Shobal, the father of Kiriath Jearim, were Haroeh, half of the Manahathites,

Bethlehem, the Netophathites, Atroth Beth-Joab, half the Manahathites, the Zorites, <sup>55</sup> and the clans of the scribes who lived in Jabez: the Tirathites, Shimeathites, and Sucathites. These are the Kenites who descended from Hammath, the father of Beth-Rechab.

3

<sup>1</sup> These were the sons of David who were born to him in Hebron:
The firstborn was Amnon, whose mother was Ahinoam from Jezreel;
the second was Daniel, whose mother was Abigail from Carmel;

<sup>2</sup> the third was Absalom whose mother was Maacah, daughter of King Talmai of Geshur;

the fourth was Adonijah, whose mother was Haggith;

<sup>3</sup> the fifth was Shephatiah, whose mother was Abital;
the sixth was Ithream, whose mother was Eglah.

<sup>4</sup> These six were born to David in Hebron, where he ruled for seven years and six months.

He ruled thirty-three years in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> These were the sons born to him in Jerusalem:

Shimea, Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon – the mother of these four was Bathsheba the daughter of Ammiel.

<sup>9</sup> These were all the sons of David, not counting the sons of his concubines. Tamar was their sister.

Solomon's Descendants

<sup>10</sup> Solomon's son was Rehoboam, followed by Abijah his son,

Asa his son,

Jehoshaphat his son,

<sup>11</sup> Joram his son,

Ahaziah his son,

Joash his son,

<sup>12</sup> Amaziah his son,

Azariah his son,

Jotham his son,

<sup>13</sup> Ahaz his son,

Hezekiah his son,

Manasseh his son,

<sup>14</sup> Amon his son,

Josiah his son.

Johanan was the firstborn; Jehoiakim was born second; Zedekiah third; and Shallum fourth.

<sup>16</sup> The sons of Jehoiakim:

his son Jehoiachin and his son Zedekiah.

<sup>17</sup> The sons of Jehoiachin the exile:

Shealtiel his son,

Zerubbabel and Shimei.

The sons of Zerubbabel:

Meshullam and Hananiah. Shelomith was their sister.

Pelatiah, Jeshaiah, the sons of Rephaiah, of Arnan, of Obadiah, and of Shecaniah.

Shemaiah and his sons: Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah, and Shaphat – six in all.

<sup>23</sup> The sons of Neariah:

Elioenai, Hizkiah, and Azrikam – three in all.

<sup>24</sup> The sons of Elioenai:

Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah, and Anani – seven in all.

<sup>1</sup> The descendants of Judah:

Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur, and Shobal.

<sup>2</sup> Reaiah the son of Shobal was the father of Jahath, and Jahath was the father of Ahumai and Lahad. These were the clans of the Zorathites.

<sup>3</sup> These were the sons of Etam:

Jezreel, Ishma, and Idbash. Their sister was Hazzelelponi.

<sup>4</sup> Penuel was the father of Gedor, and Ezer was the father of Hushah. These were the descendants of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah and the father of Bethlehem.

<sup>5</sup> Ashhur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and Naarah.

<sup>8</sup> and Koz, who was the father of Anub, Hazzobebah, and the clans of Aharhel the son of Harum.

<sup>9</sup> Jabez was more respected than his brothers. His mother had named him Jabez, for she said, "I experienced pain when I gave birth to him."

<sup>10</sup> Jabez called out to the God of Israel, "If only you would greatly bless me and expand my territory! May your hand be with me! Keep me from harm so I might not endure pain!" God answered his prayer.

<sup>11</sup> Kelub, the brother of Shuhah, was the father of Mehir, who was the father of Eshton.

<sup>13</sup> The sons of Kenaz:

Othniel and Seraiah.

The sons of Othniel:

Hathath and Meonothai.

<sup>14</sup> Meonothai was the father of Ophrah.

Seraiah was the father of Joab, the father of those who live in Ge Harashim, who were craftsmen.

<sup>15</sup> The sons of Caleb son of Jephunneh:

Iru, Elah, and Naam.

The son of Elah:

Kenaz.

<sup>16</sup> The sons of Jehallelel:

Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria, and Asarel.

<sup>17</sup> The sons of Ezrah:

Jether, Mered, Ephraim, and Jalon.

Mered's wife Bithiah gave birth to Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah, the father of Eshtemoa.

<sup>18</sup> (His Judahite wife gave birth to Jered the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Soco, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah.) These were the sons of Pharaoh's daughter Bithiah, whom Mered married.

<sup>19</sup> The sons of Hodiah's wife, the sister of Naham:
the father of Keilah the Garmite, and Eshtemoa the Maacathite.

<sup>20</sup> The sons of Shimon:
Amnon, Rinnah, Ben-Hanan, and Tilon.

The descendants of Ishi:
Zoheth and Ben Zoheth.

<sup>21</sup> The sons of Shelah son of Judah:
Er the father of Lecah, Laadah the father of Mareshah, the clans of the linen workers at Beth-Ashbea,

<sup>22</sup> Jokim, the men of Cozeba, and Joash and Saraph, both of whom ruled in Moab and Jashubi Lehem. (This information is from ancient records.)

<sup>23</sup> They were the potters who lived in Netaim and Gederah; they lived there and worked for the king.

Simeon's Descendants

<sup>24</sup> The descendants of Simeon:
Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, Shaul,

His son Hammuel, his son Zaccur, and his son Shimei.

<sup>27</sup> Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters. But his brothers did not have many sons, so their whole clan was not as numerous as the sons of Judah.

<sup>31</sup> Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susim, Beth Biri, and Shaaraim. These were their towns until the reign of David.

<sup>32</sup> Their settlements also included Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen, and Ashan – five towns.

<sup>33</sup> They also lived in all the settlements that surrounded these towns as far as Baal. These were their settlements; they kept genealogical records.

<sup>34</sup> Their clan leaders were:
Meshobab, Jamlech, Joshah son of Amaziah,

<sup>38</sup> These who are named above were the leaders of their clans.

Their extended families increased greatly in numbers.

<sup>39</sup> They went to the entrance of Gedor, to the east of the valley, looking for pasture for their sheep.

<sup>40</sup> They found fertile and rich pasture; the land was very broad, undisturbed and peaceful. Indeed some Hamites had been living there prior to that.

<sup>41</sup> The men whose names are listed came during the time of King Hezekiah of Judah and attacked the Hamites' settlements, as well as the Meunites they discovered there, and they wiped them out to this very day. They dispossessed them, for they found pasture for their sheep there.

<sup>42</sup> Five hundred men of Simeon, led by Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi, went to the hill country of Seir

<sup>43</sup> and defeated the rest of the Amalekite refugees; they live there to this very day.

(Now he was the firstborn, but when he defiled his father's bed, his rights as firstborn were given to the sons of Joseph, Israel's son. So Reuben is not listed as firstborn in the genealogical records.

Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

<sup>4</sup> The descendants of Joel:

His son Shemaiah, his son Gog, his son Shimei,

<sup>7</sup> His brothers by their clans, as listed in their genealogical records:

The leader Jeiel, Zechariah,

<sup>8</sup> and Bela son of Azaz, son of Shema, son of Joel.

They lived in Aroer as far as Nebo and Baal Meon.

<sup>9</sup> In the east they settled as far as the entrance to the desert that stretches to the Euphrates River, for their cattle had increased in numbers in the land of Gilead.

<sup>10</sup> During the time of Saul they attacked the Hagrites and defeated them. They took over their territory in the entire eastern region of Gilead.

Gad's Descendants

<sup>12</sup> They included Joel the leader, Shapham the second in command, Janai, and Shaphat in Bashan.

<sup>13</sup> Their relatives, listed according to their families, included Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia, and Eber – seven in all.

<sup>14</sup> These were the sons of Abihail son of Huri, son of Jaroah, son of Gilead, son of Michael, son of Jeshishai, son of Jahdo, son of Buz.

<sup>15</sup> Ahi son of Abdiel, son of Guni, was the leader of the family.

<sup>16</sup> They lived in Gilead, in Bashan and its surrounding settlements, and in the pasturelands of Sharon to their very borders.

<sup>17</sup> All of them were listed in the genealogical records in the time of King Jotham of Judah and in the time of King Jeroboam of Israel.

<sup>18</sup> The Reubenites, Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh had 44,760 men in their combined armies, warriors who carried shields and swords, were equipped with bows, and were trained for war.

<sup>20</sup> They received divine help in fighting them, and the Hagrites and all their allies were handed over to them. They cried out to God during the battle; he responded to their prayers because they trusted in him.

<sup>21</sup> They seized the Hagrites' animals, including 50,000 camels, 250,000 sheep, and 2,000 donkeys. They also took captive 100,000 people.

<sup>22</sup> Because God fought for them, they killed many of the enemy. They dispossessed the Hagrites and lived in their land until the exile.

The Half-Tribe of Manasseh

<sup>23</sup> The half-tribe of Manasseh settled in the land from Bashan as far as Baal Hermon, Senir, and Mount Hermon. They grew in number.

<sup>24</sup> These were the leaders of their families:

Epher, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel. They were skilled warriors, men of reputation, and leaders of their families.

<sup>25</sup> But they were unfaithful to the God of their ancestors and worshiped instead the gods of the native peoples whom God had destroyed before them.

<sup>26</sup> So the God of Israel stirred up King Pul of Assyria (that is, King Tiglath-pileser of Assyria), and he carried away the Reubenites, Gadites, and half-tribe of Manasseh and took them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and the river of Gozan, where they remain to this very day.

6

<sup>11</sup> Azariah was the father of Amariah, and Amariah was the father of Ahitub.

<sup>12</sup> Ahitub was the father of Zadok, and Zadok was the father of Shallum.

<sup>13</sup> Shallum was the father of Hilkiah, and Hilkiah was the father of Azariah.

<sup>14</sup> Azariah was the father of Seraiah, and Seraiah was the father of Jehozadak.

<sup>16</sup> The sons of Levi:

Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

<sup>17</sup> These are the names of the sons Gershon:

Libni and Shimei.

<sup>18</sup> The sons of Kohath:

Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

<sup>19</sup> The sons of Merari:

Mahli and Mushi.

These are the clans of the Levites by their families.

<sup>20</sup> To Gershon:

His son Libni, his son Jahath, his son Zimmah,

<sup>22</sup> The sons of Kohath:

His son Amminadab, his son Korah, his son Assir,

<sup>23</sup> his son Elkanah, his son Ebiasaph, his son Assir,

<sup>25</sup> The sons of Elkanah:

Amasai, Ahimoth,

- <sup>26</sup> his son Elkanah, his son Zophai, his son Nahath, <sup>27</sup> his son Eliab, his son Jeroham, and his son Elkanah.
<sup>28</sup> The sons of Samuel:
Joel the firstborn and Abijah the second oldest.
<sup>29</sup> The descendants of Merari:
Mahli, his son Libni, his son Shimei, his son Uzzah,
<sup>30</sup> his son Shimea, his son Haggiah, and his son Asaiah.

Professional Musicians

- <sup>31</sup> These are the men David put in charge of music in the LORD's sanctuary, after the ark was placed there.
<sup>32</sup> They performed music before the sanctuary of the meeting tent until Solomon built the LORD's temple in Jerusalem. They carried out their tasks according to regulations.
<sup>33</sup> These are the ones who served along with their sons:
From the Kohathites:
Heman the musician, son of Joel, son of Samuel,
<sup>34</sup> son of Elkanah, son of Jeroham, son of Eliel, son of Toah,
<sup>35</sup> son of Zuph, son of Elkanah, son of Mahath, son of Amasai, <sup>36</sup> son of Elkanah, son of Joel, son of Azariah, son of Zephaniah,
<sup>37</sup> son of Tahath, son of Assir, son of Ebiasaph, son of Korah, <sup>38</sup> son of Izhar, son of Kohath, son of Levi, son of Israel.
<sup>39</sup> Serving beside him was his fellow Levite Asaph, son of Berechiah, son of Shimea,
<sup>40</sup> son of Michael, son of Baaseiah, son of Malkijah,
<sup>41</sup> son of Ethni, son of Zerah, son of Adaiah,
<sup>42</sup> son of Ethan, son of Zimmah, son of Shimei,
<sup>43</sup> son of Jahath, son of Gershom, son of Levi.
<sup>44</sup> Serving beside them were their fellow Levites, the descendants of Merari, led by Ethan, son of Kishi, son of Abdi, son of Malluch,
<sup>45</sup> son of Hashabiah, son of Amaziah, son of Hilkiah,
<sup>46</sup> son of Amzi, son of Bani, son of Shemer,
<sup>47</sup> son of Mahli, son of Mushi, son of Merari, son of Levi.
<sup>48</sup> The rest of their fellow Levites were assigned to perform the remaining tasks at God's sanctuary.
<sup>49</sup> But Aaron and his descendants offered sacrifices on the altar for burnt offerings and on the altar for incense as they had been assigned to do in the most holy sanctuary. They made atonement for Israel, just as God's servant Moses had ordered.
<sup>50</sup> These were the descendants of Aaron:
His son Eleazar, his son Phinehas, his son Abishua,
<sup>51</sup> his son Bukki, his son Uzzi, his son Zerahiah,
<sup>52</sup> his son Meraioth, his son Amariah, his son Ahitub,
<sup>53</sup> his son Zadok, and his son Ahimaaz.
<sup>54</sup> These were the areas where Aaron's descendants lived:
The following belonged to the Kohathite clan, for they received the first allotment:
<sup>55</sup> They were allotted Hebron in the territory of Judah, as well as its surrounding pasturelands.
<sup>56</sup> (But the city's land and nearby towns were allotted to Caleb son of Jephunneh.)
<sup>57</sup> The descendants of Aaron were also allotted as cities of refuge Hebron, Libnah and its pasturelands, Jattir, Eshtemoa and its pasturelands,
<sup>58</sup> Hilez and its pasturelands, Debir and its pasturelands,

<sup>60</sup> Within the territory of the tribe of Benjamin they were allotted Geba and its pasturelands, Alemeth and its pasturelands, and Anathoth and its pasturelands. Their clans were allotted thirteen cities in all.

<sup>61</sup> The rest of Kohath's descendants were allotted ten cities in the territory of the half-tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>63</sup> The clans of Merari's descendants were allotted twelve cities within the territory of the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun.

<sup>67</sup> They were allotted as cities of refuge Shechem and its pasturelands (in the hill country of Ephraim), Gezer and its pasturelands,

<sup>70</sup> Within the territory of the half-tribe of Manasseh, the rest of Kohath's descendants received Aner and its pasturelands and Bileam and its pasturelands.

Within the territory of the half-tribe of Manasseh: Golan in Bashan and its pasturelands and Ashtaroth and its pasturelands.

<sup>72</sup> Within the territory of the tribe of Issachar: Kedesh and its pasturelands, Daberath and its pasturelands,

<sup>74</sup> Within the territory of the tribe of Asher: Mashal and its pasturelands, Abdon and its pasturelands,

<sup>76</sup> Within the territory of the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee and its pasturelands, Hammon and its pasturelands, and Kiriathaim and its pasturelands.

Within the territory of the tribe of Zebulun: Rimmono and its pasturelands, and Tabor and its pasturelands.

<sup>78</sup> Within the territory of the tribe of Reuben across the Jordan River east of Jericho: Bezer in the desert and its pasturelands, Jahzah and its pasturelands,

<sup>80</sup> Within the territory of the tribe of Gad: Ramoth in Gilead and its pasturelands, Mahanaim and its pasturelands, <sup>81</sup> Heshbon and its pasturelands, and Jazer and its pasturelands.

Ulam was his firstborn, Jeush second, and Eliphelet third.

<sup>40</sup> The sons of Ulam were warriors who were adept archers. They had many sons and grandsons, a total of 150.

All these were the descendants of Benjamin.

9

<sup>1</sup> Genealogical records were kept for all Israel; they are recorded in the Scroll of the Kings of Israel.

Exiles Who Resettled in Jerusalem

The people of Judah were carried away to Babylon because of their unfaithfulness.

<sup>2</sup> The first to resettle on their property and in their cities were some Israelites, priests, Levites, and temple servants.

<sup>3</sup> Some from the tribes of Judah, Benjamin, and Ephraim and Manasseh settled in Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup> The settlers included: Uthai son of Ammihud, son of Omri, son of Imri, son of Bani, who was a descendant of Perez son of Judah.

Their relatives numbered 690.

<sup>7</sup> From the descendants of Benjamin:

Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Hodaviah, son of Hassenuah;

<sup>8</sup> Ibneiah son of Jeroham; Elah son of Uzzi, son of Mikri; and Meshullam son of Shephatiah, son of Reuel, son of Ibnijah.

<sup>9</sup> Their relatives, listed in their genealogical records, numbered 956. All these men were leaders of their families.

<sup>10</sup> From the priests:

Jedaiah; Jehoiarib; Jakin;

<sup>11</sup> Azariah son of Hilkiyah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub the leader in God's temple;

<sup>12</sup> Adaiah son of Jeroham, son of Pashhur, son of Malkijah; and Maasai son of Adiel, son of Jahzerah, son of Meshullam, son of Meshillemith, son of Immer.

<sup>13</sup> Their relatives, who were leaders of their families, numbered 1,760. They were capable men who were assigned to carry out the various tasks of service in God's temple.

Shemaiah son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah a descendant of Merari;

<sup>15</sup> Bakbakkar; Heresh; Galal; Mattaniah son of Mika, son of Zikri, son of Asaph;

<sup>16</sup> Obadiah son of Shemaiah, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah son of Asa, son of Elkanah, who lived among the settlements of the Netophathites.

<sup>17</sup> The gatekeepers were:

Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their brothers. Shallum was the leader; <sup>18</sup> he serves to this day at the King's Gate on the east. These were the gatekeepers from the camp of the descendants of Levi.

<sup>19</sup> Shallum son of Kore, son of Ebiasaph, son of Korah, and his relatives from his family (the Korahites) were assigned to guard the entrance to the sanctuary. Their ancestors had guarded the entrance to the LORD's dwelling place.

<sup>20</sup> Phinehas son of Eleazar had been their leader in earlier times, and the LORD was with him.

<sup>21</sup> Zechariah son of Meshelemiah was the guard at the entrance to the meeting tent.

<sup>23</sup> They and their descendants were assigned to guard the gates of the LORD's sanctuary (that is, the tabernacle).

<sup>24</sup> The gatekeepers were posted on all four sides – east, west, north, and south.

<sup>25</sup> Their relatives, who lived in their settlements, came from time to time and served with them for seven-day periods.

<sup>26</sup> The four head gatekeepers, who were Levites, were assigned to guard the store-rooms and treasuries in God's sanctuary.

<sup>27</sup> They would spend the night in their posts all around God's sanctuary, for they were assigned to guard it and would open it with the key every morning.

<sup>28</sup> Some of them were in charge of the articles used by those who served; they counted them when they brought them in and when they brought them out.

<sup>29</sup> Some of them were in charge of the equipment and articles of the sanctuary, as well as the flour, wine, olive oil, incense, and spices.

<sup>31</sup> Mattithiah, a Levite, the firstborn son of Shallum the Korahite, was in charge of baking the bread for offerings.

<sup>32</sup> Some of the Kohathites, their relatives, were in charge of preparing the bread that is displayed each Sabbath.

<sup>34</sup> These were the family leaders of the Levites, as listed in their genealogical records. They lived in Jerusalem.

Jeiel's Descendants

<sup>38</sup> Mikloth was the father of Shimeam. They also lived near their relatives in Jerusalem.

<sup>39</sup> Ner was the father of Kish, and Kish was the father of Saul. Saul was the father of Jonathan, Malki-Shua, Abinadab, and Eshbaal.

<sup>40</sup> The son of Jonathan:

Meribbaal, who was the father of Micah.

<sup>41</sup> The sons of Micah:

Pithon, Melech, Tahrea, and Ahaz.

<sup>42</sup> Ahaz was the father of Jarah, and Jarah was the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri. Zimri was the father of Moza, <sup>43</sup> and Moza was the father of Binea. His son was Rephaiah, whose son was Eleasah, whose son was Azel.

<sup>44</sup> Azel had six sons: Azrikam his firstborn, followed by Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

10

<sup>4</sup> Saul told his armor bearer, "Draw your sword and stab me with it. Otherwise these uncircumcised people will come and torture me." But his armor bearer refused to do it, because he was very afraid. So Saul took the sword and fell on it.

<sup>5</sup> When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died.

<sup>6</sup> So Saul and his three sons died; his whole household died together.

<sup>7</sup> When all the Israelites who were in the valley saw that the army had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their cities and fled. The Philistines came and occupied them.

<sup>8</sup> The next day, when the Philistines came to strip loot from the corpses, they discovered Saul and his sons lying dead on Mount Gilboa.

<sup>10</sup> They placed his armor in the temple of their gods and hung his head in the temple of Dagon.

<sup>11</sup> When all the residents of Jabesh Gilead heard about everything the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>12</sup> all the warriors went and recovered the bodies of Saul and his sons and brought them to Jabesh. They buried their remains under the oak tree in Jabesh and fasted for seven days.

<sup>13</sup> So Saul died because he was unfaithful to the LORD and did not obey the LORD's instructions; he even tried to conjure up underworld spirits.

<sup>14</sup> He did not seek the LORD's guidance, so the LORD | strong="H3068" killed him and transferred the kingdom to David son of Jesse.

11

<sup>1</sup> All Israel joined David at Hebron and said, "Look, we are your very flesh and blood!

<sup>2</sup> In the past, even when Saul was king, you were Israel's commanding general. The LORD your God said to you, 'You will shepherd my people Israel; you will rule over my people Israel.' "

<sup>3</sup> When all the leaders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, David made an agreement with them in Hebron before the LORD. They anointed David king over Israel, just as the LORD had announced through Samuel.

David Conquers Jerusalem

<sup>4</sup> David and the whole Israelite army advanced to Jerusalem (that is, Jebus). (The Jebusites, the land's original inhabitants, lived there.)

<sup>5</sup> The residents of Jebus said to David, "You cannot invade this place!" But David captured the fortress of Zion (that is, the City of David).

<sup>6</sup> David said, "Whoever attacks the Jebusites first will become commanding general!" So Joab son of Zeruiah attacked first and became commander.

<sup>7</sup> David lived in the fortress; for this reason it is called the City of David.

<sup>8</sup> He built up the city around it, from the terrace to the surrounding walls; Joab restored the rest of the city.

<sup>9</sup> David's power steadily grew, for the LORD who commands armies was with him.

David's Warriors

<sup>10</sup> These were the leaders of David's warriors who helped establish and stabilize his rule over all Israel, in accordance with the LORD's word.

<sup>11</sup> This is the list of David's warriors:

Jashobeam, a Hachmonite, was head of the officers. He killed three hundred men with his spear in a single battle.

<sup>12</sup> Next in command was Eleazar son of Dodo the Ahohite. He was one of the three elite warriors.

<sup>13</sup> He was with David in Pas Dammim when the Philistines assembled there for battle. In an area of the field that was full of barley, the army retreated before the Philistines, <sup>14</sup> but then they made a stand in the middle of that area. They defended it and defeated the Philistines; the LORD gave them a great victory.

<sup>16</sup> David was in the stronghold at the time, while a Philistine garrison was in Bethlehem.

<sup>17</sup> David was thirsty and said, "How I wish someone would give me some water to drink from the cistern in Bethlehem near the city gate!"

<sup>18</sup> So the three elite warriors broke through the Philistine forces and drew some water from the cistern in Bethlehem near the city gate. They carried it back to David, but David refused to drink it. He poured it out as a drink offering to the LORD

<sup>19</sup> and said, "God forbid that I should do this! Should I drink the blood of these men who risked their lives?" Because they risked their lives to bring it to him, he refused to drink it. Such were the exploits of the three elite warriors.

<sup>20</sup> Abishai the brother of Joab was head of the three elite warriors. He killed three hundred men with his spear and gained fame along with the three elite warriors.

<sup>21</sup> From the three he was given double honor and he became their officer, even though he was not one of them.

<sup>22</sup> Benaiah son of Jehoiada was a brave warrior from Kabzeel who performed great exploits. He struck down the two sons of Ariel of Moab; he also went down and killed a lion inside a cistern on a snowy day.

<sup>23</sup> He even killed an Egyptian who was seven and a half feet tall. The Egyptian had a spear as big as the crossbeam of a weaver's loom; Benaiah attacked him with a club. He grabbed the spear out of the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear.

<sup>24</sup> Such were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoiada, who gained fame along with the three elite warriors.

<sup>26</sup> The mighty warriors were:

Asahel the brother of Joab,
Elhanan son of Dodo, from Bethlehem,

<sup>27</sup> Shammoth the Harorite,
Helez the Pelonite,

<sup>28</sup> Ira son of Ikesh the Tekoite,
Abiezer the Anathothite,

<sup>29</sup> Sibbekai the Hushathite,
Ilai the Ahohite,

<sup>30</sup> Maharai the Netophathite,
Heled son of Baanah the Netophathite,

<sup>31</sup> Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah in Benjaminite territory,
Benaiah the Pirathonite,

<sup>32</sup> Hurai from the valleys of Gaash,
Abiel the Arbathite,

<sup>33</sup> Azmaveth the Baharumite,
Eliabha the Shaalbonite,

<sup>34</sup> the sons of Hashem the Gizonite,
Jonathan son of Shageh the Hararite,

12

<sup>1</sup> These were the men who joined David in Ziklag, when he was banished from the presence of Saul son of Kish. (They were among the warriors who assisted him in battle.

<sup>2</sup> They were armed with bows and could shoot arrows or sling stones right or left-handed. They were fellow tribesmen of Saul from Benjamin. ) These were:

<sup>3</sup> Ahiezer, the leader, and Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth;

Berachah,

Jehu the Anathothite,

<sup>4</sup> Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, one of the thirty warriors and their leader,

Jeremiah,

Jahaziel,

Johanan,

Jozabad the Gederathite,

<sup>5</sup> Eluzai,

Jerimoth,

Bealiah,

Shemariah,

Shephatiah the Haruphite,

<sup>6</sup> Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer, and Jashobeam, who were Korahites,

<sup>8</sup> Some of the Gadites joined David at the stronghold in the desert. They were warriors who were trained for battle; they carried shields and spears. They were as fierce as lions and could run as quickly as gazelles across the hills.

<sup>9</sup> Ezer was the leader, Obadiah the second in command, Eliab the third,

<sup>14</sup> These Gadites were military leaders; the least led a hundred men, the greatest a thousand.

<sup>15</sup> They crossed the Jordan River in the first month, when it was overflowing its banks, and routed those living in all the valleys to the east and west.

<sup>16</sup> Some from Benjamin and Judah also came to David's stronghold.

<sup>17</sup> David went out to meet them and said, "If you come to me in peace and want to help me, then I will make an alliance with you. But if you come to betray me to my enemies when I have not harmed you, may the God of our ancestors take notice and judge!"

<sup>18</sup> But a spirit empowered Amasai, the leader of the thirty warriors, and he said:

"We are yours, O David!

We support you, O son of Jesse!

May you greatly prosper!

May those who help you prosper!

Indeed your God helps you!"

So David accepted them and made them leaders of raiding bands.

<sup>19</sup> Some men from Manasseh joined David when he went with the Philistines to fight against Saul. (But in the end they did not help the Philistines because, after taking counsel, the Philistine lords sent David away, saying: "It would be disastrous for us if he deserts to his master Saul.")

<sup>20</sup> When David went to Ziklag, the men of Manasseh who joined him were Adnach, Jozabad, Jediahel, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, leaders of a thousand soldiers each in the tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>21</sup> They helped David fight against raiding bands, for all of them were warriors and leaders in the army.

<sup>22</sup> Each day men came to help David until his army became very large.

Support for David in Hebron

<sup>24</sup> From Judah came 6,800 trained warriors carrying shields and spears.

<sup>25</sup> From Simeon there were 7,100 warriors.

<sup>26</sup> From Levi there were 4,600.

<sup>29</sup> From Benjamin, Saul's tribe, there were 3,000, most of whom, up to that time, had been loyal to Saul.

<sup>30</sup> From Ephraim there were 20,800 warriors, who had brought fame to their families.

<sup>31</sup> From the half tribe of Manasseh there were 18,000 who had been designated by name to come and make David king.

<sup>32</sup> From Issachar there were 200 leaders and all their relatives at their command – they understood the times and knew what Israel should do.

<sup>34</sup> From Naphtali there were 1,000 officers, along with 37,000 men carrying shields and spears.

<sup>35</sup> From Dan there were 28,600 men prepared for battle.

<sup>37</sup> From the other side of the Jordan, from Reuben, Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, there were 120,000 men armed with all kinds of weapons.

<sup>38</sup> All these men were warriors who were ready to march. They came to Hebron to make David king over all Israel by acclamation; all the rest of the Israelites also were in agreement that David should become king.

<sup>39</sup> They spent three days feasting there with David, for their relatives had given them provisions.

<sup>40</sup> Also their neighbors, from as far away as Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali, were bringing food on donkeys, camels, mules, and oxen. There were large supplies of flour, fig cakes, raisins, wine, olive oil, beef, and lamb, for Israel was celebrating.

13

<sup>1</sup> David consulted with his military officers, including those who led groups of a thousand and those who led groups of a hundred.

<sup>2</sup> David said to the whole Israelite assembly, "If you so desire and the LORD our God approves, let's spread the word to our brothers who remain in all the regions of Israel, and to the priests and Levites in their cities, so they may join us."

<sup>3</sup> Let's move the ark of our God back here, for we did not seek his will throughout Saul's reign."

<sup>4</sup> The whole assembly agreed to do this, for the proposal seemed right to all the people.

<sup>5</sup> So David assembled all Israel from the Shihor River in Egypt to Lebo Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath Jearim.

<sup>6</sup> David and all Israel went up to Baalah (that is, Kiriath Jearim) in Judah to bring up from there the ark of God the LORD, who sits enthroned between the cherubim – the ark that is called by his name.

<sup>7</sup> They transported the ark on a new cart from the house of Abinadab; Uzzah and Ahio were guiding the cart, <sup>8</sup> while David and all Israel were energetically celebrating before God, singing and playing various stringed instruments, tambourines, cymbals, and trumpets.

<sup>9</sup> When they arrived at the threshing floor of Kidon, Uzzah reached out his hand to take hold of the ark, because the oxen stumbled.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD was so furious with Uzzah, he killed him, because he reached out his hand and touched the ark. He died right there before God.

<sup>11</sup> David was angry because the LORD attacked Uzzah; so he called that place Perez Uzzah, which remains its name to this very day.

<sup>12</sup> David was afraid of God that day and said, "How will I ever be able to bring the ark of God up here?"

<sup>13</sup> So David did not move the ark to the City of David; he left it in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

<sup>14</sup> The ark of God remained in Obed-Edom's house for three months; the LORD blessed Obed-Edom's family and everything that belonged to him.

14

<sup>2</sup> David realized that the LORD had established him as king over Israel and that he had elevated his kingdom for the sake of his people Israel.

<sup>8</sup> When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king of all Israel, all the Philistines marched up to confront him. When David heard about it, he marched out against them.

<sup>9</sup> Now the Philistines had come and raided the Valley of Rephaim.

<sup>10</sup> David asked God, "Should I march up against the Philistines? Will you hand them over to me?" The LORD said to him, "March up! I will hand them over to you!"

<sup>11</sup> So they marched against Baal Perazim and David defeated them there. David said, "Using me as his instrument, God has burst out against my enemies like water bursts out." So that place is called Baal Perazim.

<sup>14</sup> So David again asked God what he should do. This time God told him, "Don't march up after them; circle around them and come against them in front of the trees.

<sup>15</sup> When you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the trees, then attack. For at that moment the LORD is going before |strong="H6440" you to strike down the army of the Philistines.”

<sup>16</sup> David did just as God commanded him, and they struck down the Philistine army from Gibeon to Gezer.

<sup>17</sup> So David became famous in all the lands; the LORD caused all the nations to fear him.

15

<sup>1</sup> David constructed buildings in the City of David; he then prepared a place for the ark of God and pitched a tent for it.

<sup>2</sup> Then David said, “Only the Levites may carry the ark of God, for the LORD chose them to carry the ark of the LORD and to serve before him perpetually.

<sup>3</sup> David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem to bring the ark of the LORD up to the place he had prepared for it.

<sup>11</sup> David summoned the priests Zadok and Abiathar, along with the Levites Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab.

<sup>12</sup> He told them: “You are the leaders of the Levites’ families. You and your relatives must consecrate yourselves and bring the ark of the LORD God of Israel up to the place I have prepared for it.

<sup>13</sup> The first time you did not carry it; that is why the LORD God attacked us, because we did not ask him about the proper way to carry it.”

<sup>14</sup> The priests and Levites consecrated themselves so they could bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> The descendants of Levi carried the ark of God on their shoulders with poles, just as Moses had ordered according to the divine command.

<sup>16</sup> David told the leaders of the Levites to appoint some of their relatives as musicians; they were to play various instruments, including stringed instruments and cymbals, and to sing loudly and joyfully.

<sup>17</sup> So the Levites appointed Heman son of Joel; one of his relatives, Asaph son of Berechiah; one of the descendants of Merari, Ethan son of Kushaiah;

<sup>19</sup> The musicians Heman, Asaph, and Ethan were to sound the bronze cymbals;

<sup>20</sup> Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah were to play the harps according to the alamoth style;

<sup>21</sup> Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah were to play the lyres according to the sheminith style, as led by the director;

<sup>22</sup> Kenaniah, the leader of the Levites, was in charge of transport, for he was well-informed on this matter;

<sup>23</sup> Berechiah and Elkanah were guardians of the ark;

<sup>24</sup> Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer the priests were to blow the trumpets before the ark of God; Obed-Edom and Jehiel were also guardians of the ark.

<sup>25</sup> So David, the leaders of Israel, and the commanders of units of a thousand went to bring up the ark of the LORD's covenant from the house of Obed-Edom with celebration.

<sup>26</sup> When God helped the Levites who were carrying the ark of the LORD's covenant, they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams.

<sup>27</sup> David was wrapped in a linen robe, as were all the Levites carrying the ark, the musicians, and Kenaniah the supervisor of transport and the musicians; David also wore a linen ephod.

<sup>28</sup> All Israel brought up the ark of the LORD's covenant; they were shouting, blowing trumpets, sounding cymbals, and playing stringed instruments.

<sup>29</sup> As the ark of the LORD's covenant entered the City of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, looked out the window. When she saw King David jumping and celebrating, she despised him.

16

<sup>1</sup> They brought the ark of God and put it in the middle of the tent David had pitched for it. Then they offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before God.

<sup>2</sup> When David finished offering burnt sacrifices and peace offerings, he pronounced a blessing over the people in the LORD's name.

<sup>3</sup> He then handed out to each Israelite man and woman a loaf of bread, a date cake, and a raisin cake.

<sup>4</sup> He appointed some of the Levites to serve before the ark of the LORD, to offer prayers, songs of thanks, and hymns to the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> Asaph was the leader and Zechariah second in command, followed by Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-Edom, and Jeiel. They were to play stringed instruments; Asaph was to sound the cymbals;

<sup>6</sup> and the priests Benaiah and Jahaziel were to blow trumpets regularly before the ark of God's covenant.

David Thanks God

<sup>7</sup> That day David first gave to Asaph and his colleagues this song of thanks to the LORD:

<sup>8</sup> Give thanks to the LORD!

Call on his name!

Make known his accomplishments among the nations!

<sup>9</sup> Sing to him! Make music to him!

Tell about all his miraculous deeds!

<sup>10</sup> Boast about his holy name!

Let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice!

<sup>11</sup> Seek the LORD and the strength he gives!

Seek his presence continually!

<sup>12</sup> Recall the miraculous deeds he performed, his mighty acts and the judgments he decreed,

<sup>13</sup> O children of Israel, God's servant,
you descendants of Jacob, God's chosen ones!

<sup>14</sup> He is the LORD our God;
he carries out judgment throughout the earth.

<sup>15</sup> Remember continually his covenantal decree, the promise he made to a thousand generations –

<sup>16</sup> the promise he made to Abraham, the promise he made by oath to Isaac!

<sup>17</sup> He gave it to Jacob as a decree, to Israel as a lasting promise,

<sup>18</sup> saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan as the portion of your inheritance.”

<sup>19</sup> When they were few in number,
just a very few, and foreign residents within it,

<sup>20</sup> they wandered from nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another.

<sup>21</sup> He let no one oppress them,
he disciplined kings for their sake,

<sup>22</sup> saying, “Don’t touch my anointed ones!
Don’t harm my prophets!”

<sup>23</sup> Sing to the LORD, all the earth!
Announce every day how he delivers!

<sup>24</sup> Tell the nations about his splendor, tell all the nations about his miraculous deeds!

<sup>25</sup> For the LORD is great and certainly worthy of praise, he is more awesome than all gods.

<sup>26</sup> For all the gods of the nations are worthless, but the LORD made the heavens.

<sup>27</sup> Majestic splendor emanates from him, he is the source of strength and joy.

<sup>28</sup> Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the nations, ascribe to the LORD splendor and strength!

<sup>29</sup> Ascribe to the LORD the splendor he deserves!
Bring an offering and enter his presence!

Worship the LORD in holy attire!

<sup>30</sup> Tremble before him, all the earth!
The world is established, it cannot be moved.

<sup>31</sup> Let the heavens rejoice, and the earth be happy!
Let the nations say, ‘The LORD reigns!’

<sup>32</sup> Let the sea and everything in it shout!
Let the fields and everything in them celebrate!

<sup>33</sup> Then let the trees of the forest shout with joy before the LORD, for he comes to judge the earth!

<sup>34</sup> Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good and his loyal love endures.

<sup>35</sup> Say this prayer: “Deliver us, O God who delivers us!
Gather us! Rescue us from the nations!

Then we will give thanks to your holy name, and boast about your praiseworthy deeds.”

<sup>36</sup> May the LORD God of Israel be praised, in the future and forevermore.
Then all the people said, “We agree! Praise the LORD!”

David Appoints Worship Leaders

<sup>37</sup> David left Asaph and his colleagues there before the ark of the LORD’s covenant to serve before the ark regularly and fulfill each day’s requirements, <sup>38</sup> including Obed-Edom and sixty-eight colleagues. Obed-Edom son of Jeduthun and Hosah were gatekeepers.

<sup>39</sup> Zadok the priest and his fellow priests served before the LORD’s tabernacle at the worship center in Gibeon,

<sup>40</sup> regularly offering burnt sacrifices to the LORD on the altar for burnt sacrifice, morning and evening, according to what is prescribed in the law of the LORD which he charged Israel to observe.

<sup>41</sup> Joining them were Heman, Jeduthun, and the rest of those chosen and designated by name to give thanks to the LORD. (For his loyal love endures!)

<sup>42</sup> Heman and Jeduthun were in charge of the music, including the trumpets, cymbals, and the other musical instruments used in praising God. The sons of Jeduthun guarded the entrance.

<sup>43</sup> Then all the people returned to their homes, and David went to pronounce a blessing on his family.

17

<sup>1</sup> When David had settled into his palace, he said to Nathan the prophet, "Look, I am living in a palace made from cedar, while the ark of the LORD's covenant is under a tent."

<sup>2</sup> Nathan said to David, "You should do whatever you have in mind, for God is with you."

<sup>3</sup> That night God told Nathan the prophet,

<sup>4</sup> "Go, tell my servant David: 'This is what the LORD says: "You must not build me a house in which to live.

<sup>5</sup> For I have not lived in a house from the time I brought Israel up from Egypt to the present day. I have lived in a tent that has been in various places.

<sup>6</sup> Wherever I moved throughout Israel, I did not say to any of the leaders whom I appointed to care for my people Israel, 'Why have you not built me a house made from cedar?' " "

<sup>7</sup> "So now, say this to my servant David: 'This is what the LORD who commands armies says: "I took you from the pasture and from your work as a shepherd to make you a leader of my people Israel.

<sup>8</sup> I was with you wherever you went and I defeated all your enemies before you. Now I will make you as famous as the great men of the earth.

<sup>9</sup> I will establish a place for my people Israel and settle them there; they will live there and not be disturbed anymore. Violent men will not oppress them again, as they did in the beginning <sup>10</sup> and during the time when I appointed judges to lead my people Israel. I will subdue all your enemies.

"" "I declare to you that the LORD will build a dynastic house for you!

<sup>11</sup> When the time comes for you to die, I will raise up your descendant, one of your own sons, to succeed you, and I will establish his kingdom.

<sup>12</sup> He will build me a house, and I will make his dynasty permanent.

<sup>13</sup> I will become his father and he will become my son. I will never withhold my loyal love from him, as I withheld it from the one who ruled before you.

<sup>14</sup> I will put him in permanent charge of my house and my kingdom; his dynasty will be permanent." " "

<sup>15</sup> Nathan told David all these words that were revealed to him.

David Praises God

<sup>16</sup> David went in, sat before the LORD, and said: "Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my family, that you should have brought me to this point?

<sup>17</sup> And you did not stop there, O God! You have also spoken about the future of your servant's family. You have revealed to me what men long to know, O LORD God.

<sup>18</sup> What more can David say to you? You have honored your servant; you have given your servant special recognition.

<sup>19</sup> O LORD, for the sake of your servant and according to your will, you have done this great thing in order to reveal your greatness.

<sup>20</sup> O LORD, there is none like you; there is no God besides you! What we heard is true!

<sup>21</sup> And who is like your people, Israel, a unique nation in the earth? Their God went to claim a nation for himself! You made a name for yourself by doing great and awesome deeds when you drove out nations before your people whom you had delivered from the Egyptian empire and its gods.

<sup>22</sup> You made Israel your very own nation for all time. You, O LORD, became their God.

<sup>23</sup> So now, O LORD, may the promise you made about your servant and his family become a permanent reality! Do as you promised,

<sup>24</sup> so it may become a reality and you may gain lasting fame, as people say, 'The LORD who commands armies is the God of Israel.' David's dynasty will be established before you,

<sup>25</sup> for you, my God, have revealed to your servant that you will build a dynasty for him. That is why your servant has had the courage to pray to you.

<sup>26</sup> Now, O LORD, you are the true God; you have made this good promise to your servant.

<sup>27</sup> Now you are willing to bless your servant's dynasty so that it may stand permanently before you, for you, O LORD, have blessed it and it will be blessed from now on into the future."

18

<sup>7</sup> David took the golden shields which Hadadezer's servants had carried and brought them to Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup> From Tibhath and Kun, Hadadezer's cities, David took a great deal of bronze. (Solomon used it to make the big bronze basin called "The Sea," the pillars, and other bronze items.

<sup>9</sup> When King Tou of Hamath heard that David had defeated the entire army of King Hadadezer of Zobah, <sup>10</sup> he sent his son Hadoram to King David to extend his best wishes and to pronounce a blessing on him for his victory over Hadadezer, for Tou had been at war with Hadadezer. He also sent various items made of gold, silver, and bronze.

<sup>11</sup> King David dedicated these things to the LORD, along with the silver and gold which he had carried off from all the nations, including Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, and Amalek.

<sup>12</sup> Abishai son of Zeruiah killed 18,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

<sup>13</sup> He placed garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became David's subjects. The LORD protected David wherever he campaigned.

David's Officials

<sup>15</sup> Joab son of Zeruiah was commanding general of the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was secretary;

<sup>16</sup> Zadok son of Ahitub and Abimelech son of Abiathar were priests; Shavsha was scribe;

<sup>17</sup> Benaiah son of Jehoiada supervised the Kerethites and Pelethites; and David's sons were the king's leading officials.

19

<sup>2</sup> David said, "I will express my loyalty to Hanun son of Nahash, for his father was loyal to me." So David sent messengers to express his sympathy over his father's death. When David's servants entered Ammonite territory to visit Hanun and express the king's sympathy,

<sup>3</sup> the Ammonite officials said to Hanun, "Do you really think David is trying to honor your father by sending these messengers to express his sympathy? No, his servants have come to you so they can get information and spy out the land!"

<sup>4</sup> So Hanun seized David's servants and shaved their beards off. He cut off the lower part of their robes so that their buttocks were exposed and then sent them away.

<sup>5</sup> Messengers came and told David what had happened to the men, so he summoned them, for the men were thoroughly humiliated. The king said, "Stay in Jericho until your beards grow again; then you may come back."

<sup>6</sup> When the Ammonites realized that David was disgusted with them, Hanun and the Ammonites sent 1,000 talents of silver to hire chariots and charioteers from Aram Naharaim, Aram Maacah, and Zobah.

<sup>7</sup> They hired 32,000 chariots, along with the king of Maacah and his army, who came and camped in front of Medeba. The Ammonites also assembled from their cities and marched out to do battle.

<sup>8</sup> When David heard the news, he sent Joab and the entire army to meet them.

<sup>9</sup> The Ammonites marched out and were deployed for battle at the entrance to the city, while the kings who had come were by themselves in the field.

<sup>10</sup> When Joab saw that the battle would be fought on two fronts, he chose some of Israel's best men and deployed them against the Arameans.

<sup>11</sup> He put his brother Abishai in charge of the rest of the army and they were deployed against the Ammonites.

<sup>12</sup> Joab said, "If the Arameans start to overpower me, you come to my rescue. If the Ammonites start to overpower you, I will come to your rescue.

<sup>13</sup> Be strong! Let's fight bravely for the sake of our people and the cities of our God! The LORD will do what he decides is best!"

<sup>14</sup> So Joab and his men marched toward the Arameans to do battle, and they fled before him.

<sup>15</sup> When the Ammonites saw the Arameans flee, they fled before Joab's brother Abishai and withdrew into the city. Joab went back to Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup> When the Arameans realized they had been defeated by Israel, they sent for reinforcements from beyond the Euphrates River, led by Shophach the commanding general of Hadadezer's army.

<sup>17</sup> When David was informed, he gathered all Israel, crossed the Jordan River, and marched against them. David deployed his army against the Arameans for battle and they fought against him.

<sup>18</sup> The Arameans fled before Israel. David killed 7,000 Aramean charioteers and 40,000 infantrymen; he also killed Shophach the commanding general.

<sup>19</sup> When Hadadezer's subjects saw they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and became his subjects. The Arameans were no longer willing to help the Ammonites.

20

<sup>1</sup> In the spring, at the time when kings normally conduct wars, Joab led the army into battle and devastated the land of the Ammonites. He went and besieged Rabbah, while David stayed in Jerusalem. Joab defeated Rabbah and tore it down.

<sup>2</sup> David took the crown from the head of their king and wore it (its weight was a talent of gold and it was set with precious stones). He took a large amount of plunder from the city.

<sup>3</sup> He removed the city's residents and made them do hard labor with saws, iron picks, and axes. This was his policy with all the Ammonite cities. Then David and all the army returned to Jerusalem.

Battles with the Philistines

<sup>4</sup> Later there was a battle with the Philistines in Gezer. At that time Sibbekai the Hushathite killed Sippai, one of the descendants of the Rephaim, and the Philistines were subdued.

<sup>5</sup> There was another battle with the Philistines in which Elhanan son of Jair the Bethlehemite killed the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear had a shaft as big as the crossbeam of a weaver's loom.

<sup>6</sup> In a battle in Gath there was a large man who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot – twenty-four in all! He too was a descendant of Rapha.

<sup>7</sup> When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of Shimea, David's brother, killed him.

<sup>8</sup> These were the descendants of Rapha who lived in Gath; they were killed by the hand of David and his soldiers.

21

<sup>2</sup> David told Joab and the leaders of the army, "Go, count the number of warriors from Beer Sheba to Dan. Then bring back a report to me so I may know how many we have."

<sup>3</sup> Joab replied, "May the LORD make his army a hundred times larger! My master, O king, do not all of them serve my master? Why does my master want to do this? Why bring judgment on Israel?"

<sup>5</sup> Joab reported to David the number of warriors. In all Israel there were 1,100,000 sword-wielding soldiers; Judah alone had 470,000 sword-wielding soldiers.

<sup>6</sup> Now Joab did not number Levi and Benjamin, for the king's edict disgusted him.

<sup>7</sup> God was also offended by it, so he attacked Israel.

<sup>8</sup> David said to God, "I have sinned greatly by doing this! Now, please remove the guilt of your servant, for I have acted very foolishly."

<sup>10</sup> "Go, tell David, 'This is what the LORD says: "I am offering you three forms of judgment from which to choose. Pick one of them." ' "

<sup>12</sup> three years of famine, or three months being chased by your enemies and struck down by their swords, or three days being struck down by the LORD, during which a plague will invade the land and the LORD's messenger will destroy throughout Israel's territory.' Now, decide what I should tell the one who sent me."

<sup>13</sup> David said to Gad, "I am very upset! I prefer to be attacked by the LORD, for his mercy is very great; I do not want to be attacked by men!"

<sup>14</sup> So the LORD sent a plague through Israel, and 70,000 Israelite men died.

<sup>15</sup> God sent an angel to ravage Jerusalem. As he was doing so, the LORD watched and relented from his judgment. He told the angel who was destroying, "That's enough! Stop now!"

Now the LORD's angel was standing near the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

<sup>16</sup> David looked up and saw the LORD's messenger standing between the earth and sky with his sword drawn and in his hand, stretched out over Jerusalem. David and the leaders, covered with sackcloth, threw themselves down with their faces to the ground.

<sup>17</sup> David said to God, "Was I not the one who decided to number the army? I am the one who sinned and committed this awful deed! As for these sheep – what have they done? O LORD my God, attack me and my family, but remove the plague from your people!"

<sup>18</sup> So the LORD's messenger told Gad to instruct David to go up and build an altar for the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

<sup>19</sup> So David went up as Gad instructed him to do in the name of the LORD.

<sup>20</sup> While Ornan was threshing wheat, he turned and saw the messenger, and he and his four sons hid themselves.

<sup>21</sup> When David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David; he came out from the threshing floor and bowed to David with his face to the ground.

<sup>22</sup> David said to Ornan, "Sell me the threshing floor so I can build on it an altar for the LORD – I'll pay top price – so that the plague may be removed from the people."

<sup>23</sup> Ornan told David, "You can have it! My master, the king, may do what he wants. Look, I am giving you the oxen for burnt sacrifices, the threshing sledges for wood, and the wheat for an offering. I give it all to you."

<sup>24</sup> King David replied to Ornan, "No, I insist on buying it for top price. I will not offer to the LORD what belongs to you or offer a burnt sacrifice that cost me nothing.

<sup>26</sup> David built there an altar to the LORD and offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings. He called out to the LORD, and the LORD responded by sending fire from the sky and consuming the burnt sacrifice on the altar.

<sup>28</sup> At that time, when David saw that the LORD responded to him at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he sacrificed there.

<sup>29</sup> Now the LORD's tabernacle (which Moses had made in the wilderness) and the altar for burnt sacrifices were at that time at the worship center in Gibeon.

<sup>30</sup> But David could not go before it to seek God's will, for he was afraid of the sword of the LORD's messenger.

22

<sup>1</sup> David then said, "This is the place where the temple of the LORD God will be, along with the altar for burnt sacrifices for Israel."

David Orders a Temple to Be Built

<sup>2</sup> David ordered the resident foreigners in the land of Israel to be called together. He appointed some of them to be stonecutters to chisel stones for the building of God's temple.

<sup>3</sup> David supplied a large amount of iron for the nails of the doors of the gates and for braces, more bronze than could be weighed,

<sup>4</sup> and more cedar logs than could be counted. (The Sidonians and Tyrians had brought a large amount of cedar logs to David.)

<sup>5</sup> David said, "My son Solomon is just an inexperienced young man, and the temple to be built for the LORD must be especially magnificent so it will become famous and be considered splendid by all the nations. Therefore I will make preparations for its construction." So David made extensive preparations before he died.

<sup>6</sup> He summoned his son Solomon and charged him to build a temple for the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> David said to Solomon: "My son, I really wanted to build a temple to honor the LORD my God.

<sup>8</sup> But the LORD said to me: 'You have spilled a great deal of blood and fought many battles. You must not build a temple to honor me, for you have spilled a great deal of blood on the ground before me.

<sup>9</sup> Look, you will have a son, who will be a peaceful man. I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side. Indeed, Solomon will be his name; I will give Israel peace and quiet during his reign.

<sup>10</sup> He will build a temple to honor me; he will become my son, and I will become his father. I will grant to his dynasty permanent rule over Israel.'

<sup>11</sup> "Now, my son, may the LORD be with you! May you succeed and build a temple for the LORD your God, just as he announced you would.

<sup>12</sup> Only may the LORD give you insight and understanding when he places you in charge of Israel, so you may obey the law of the LORD your God.

<sup>13</sup> Then you will succeed, if you carefully obey the rules and regulations which the LORD ordered Moses to give to Israel. Be strong and brave! Don't be afraid and don't panic!

<sup>14</sup> Now, look, I have made every effort to supply what is needed to build the LORD's temple. I have stored up 100,000 talents of gold, 1,000,000 talents of silver, and so much bronze and iron it cannot be weighed, as well as wood and stones. Feel free to add more!

<sup>15</sup> You also have available many workers, including stonecutters, masons, carpenters, and an innumerable array of workers who are skilled

<sup>16</sup> in using gold, silver, bronze, and iron. Get up and begin the work! May the LORD be with you!"

<sup>18</sup> He told them, "The LORD your God is with you! He has made you secure on every side, for he handed over to me the inhabitants of the region and the region is subdued before the LORD and his people.

<sup>19</sup> Now seek the LORD your God wholeheartedly and with your entire being! Get up and build the sanctuary of the LORD God! Then you can bring the ark of the LORD's covenant and the holy items dedicated to God's service into the temple that is built to honor the LORD."

23

<sup>2</sup> David assembled all the leaders of Israel, along with the priests and the Levites.

<sup>3</sup> The Levites who were thirty years old and up were counted; there were 38,000 men.

<sup>4</sup> David said, "Of these, 24,000 are to direct the work of the LORD's temple; 6,000 are to be officials and judges;

<sup>5</sup> 4,000 are to be gatekeepers; and 4,000 are to praise the LORD with the instruments I supplied for worship."

Jehiel the oldest, Zetham, and Joel – three in all.

<sup>9</sup> The sons of Shimei:

Shelomoth, Haziël, and Haran – three in all.

These were the leaders of the family of Ladan.

<sup>10</sup> The sons of Shimei:

Jahath, Zina, Jeush, and Beriah. These were Shimei's sons – four in all.

<sup>11</sup> Jahath was the oldest and Zizah the second oldest. Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, so they were considered one family with one responsibility.

<sup>12</sup> The sons of Kohath:

Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel – four in all.

<sup>13</sup> The sons of Amram:

Aaron and Moses.

Aaron and his descendants were chosen on a permanent basis to consecrate the most holy items, to offer sacrifices before the LORD, to serve him, and to praise his name.

<sup>14</sup> The descendants of Moses the man of God were considered Levites.

<sup>15</sup> The sons of Moses:

Gershom and Eliezer.

<sup>16</sup> The son of Gershom:

Shebuel the oldest.

<sup>17</sup> The son of Eliezer was Rehabiah, the oldest. Eliezer had no other sons, but Rehabiah had many descendants.

<sup>18</sup> The son of Izhar:

Shelomith the oldest.

Jeriah the oldest, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

<sup>20</sup> The sons of Uzziel:

Micah the oldest, and Isshiah the second.

<sup>21</sup> The sons of Merari:

Mahli and Mushi.

The sons of Mahli:

Eleazar and Kish.

<sup>22</sup> Eleazar died without having sons; he had only daughters. The sons of Kish, their cousins, married them.

Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth – three in all.

<sup>24</sup> These were the descendants of Levi according to their families, that is, the leaders of families as counted and individually listed who carried out assigned tasks in the LORD's temple and were twenty years old and up.

<sup>25</sup> For David said, "The LORD God of Israel has given his people rest and has permanently settled in Jerusalem.

<sup>26</sup> So the Levites no longer need to carry the tabernacle or any of the items used in its service."

<sup>27</sup> According to David's final instructions, the Levites twenty years old and up were counted.

<sup>28</sup> Their job was to help Aaron's descendants in the service of the LORD's temple. They were to take care of the courtyards, the rooms, ceremonial purification of all holy items, and other jobs related to the service of God's temple.

<sup>29</sup> They also took care of the bread that is displayed, the flour for offerings, the unleavened wafers, the round cakes, the mixing, and all the measuring.

<sup>30</sup> They also stood in a designated place every morning and offered thanks and praise to the LORD. They also did this in the evening

<sup>31</sup> and whenever burnt sacrifices were offered to the LORD on the Sabbath and at new moon festivals and assemblies. A designated number were to serve before the LORD regularly in accordance with regulations.

<sup>32</sup> They were in charge of the meeting tent and the holy place, and helped their relatives, the descendants of Aaron, in the service of the LORD's temple.

24

<sup>1</sup> The divisions of Aaron's descendants were as follows:

The sons of Aaron:

Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

<sup>2</sup> Nadab and Abihu died before their father did; they had no sons. Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests.

<sup>3</sup> David, Zadok (a descendant of Eleazar), and Ahimelech (a descendant of Ithamar) divided them into groups to carry out their assigned responsibilities.

<sup>4</sup> The descendants of Eleazar had more leaders than the descendants of Ithamar, so they divided them up accordingly; the descendants of Eleazar had sixteen leaders, while the descendants of Ithamar had eight.

<sup>5</sup> They divided them by lots, for there were officials of the holy place and officials designated by God among the descendants of both Eleazar and Ithamar.

<sup>6</sup> The scribe Shemaiah son of Nethanel, a Levite, wrote down their names before the king, the officials, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech son of Abiathar, and the leaders of the priestly and Levite families. One family was drawn by lot from Eleazar, and then the next from Ithamar.

<sup>7</sup> The first lot went to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,

<sup>8</sup> the third to Harim,

the fourth to Seorim,

<sup>9</sup> the fifth to Malkijah,

the sixth to Mijamin,

<sup>10</sup> the seventh to Hakkoz,

the eighth to Abijah,

<sup>11</sup> the ninth to Jeshua,

the tenth to Shecaniah,

<sup>12</sup> the eleventh to Eliashib,

the twelfth to Jakim,

<sup>13</sup> the thirteenth to Huppah,

the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,

<sup>14</sup> the fifteenth to Bilgah,

the sixteenth to Immer,

<sup>15</sup> the seventeenth to Hezir,

the eighteenth to Happizzes,

<sup>16</sup> the nineteenth to Pethahiah,

the twentieth to Jehezkel,

<sup>17</sup> the twenty-first to Jakin,

the twenty-second to Gamul,

<sup>18</sup> the twenty-third to Delaiah, the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.

<sup>19</sup> This was the order in which they carried out their assigned responsibilities when they entered the LORD's temple, according to the regulations given them by their ancestor Aaron, just as the LORD God of Israel had instructed him.

Remaining Levites

<sup>20</sup> The rest of the Levites included:

Shubael from the sons of Amram,
Jehdeiah from the sons of Shubael,

<sup>21</sup> the firstborn Isshiah from Rehabiah and the sons of Rehabiah,

<sup>22</sup> Shelomoth from the Izharites,
Jahath from the sons of Shelomoth.

<sup>23</sup> The sons of Hebron:

Jeriah, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

<sup>24</sup> The son of Uzziel:

Micah;
Shamir from the sons of Micah.

<sup>25</sup> The brother of Micah:

Isshiah.
Zechariah from the sons of Isshiah.

<sup>26</sup> The sons of Merari:

Mahli and Mushi.
The son of Jaaziah:

Beno.

<sup>27</sup> The sons of Merari, from Jaaziah:

Beno, Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibri.

<sup>28</sup> From Mahli:

Eleazar, who had no sons.

<sup>29</sup> From Kish:

Jerahmeel.

<sup>30</sup> The sons of Mushi:

Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth.

These were the Levites, listed by their families.

<sup>31</sup> Just like their relatives, the descendants of Aaron, they also cast lots before King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, the leaders of families, the priests, and the Levites. The families of the oldest son cast lots along with the those of the youngest.

25

<sup>2</sup> From the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asarelah. The sons of Asaph were supervised by Asaph, who prophesied under the king's supervision.

<sup>3</sup> From the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiiah, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah – six in all, under supervision of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied as he played a harp, giving thanks and praise to the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> All these were the sons of Heman, the king's prophet. God had promised him these sons in order to make him prestigious. God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

<sup>6</sup> All of these were under the supervision of their fathers; they were musicians in the LORD's temple, playing cymbals and stringed instruments as they served in God's temple. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman were under the supervision of the king.

<sup>7</sup> They and their relatives, all of them skilled and trained to make music to the LORD, numbered two hundred eighty-eight.

<sup>8</sup> They cast lots to determine their responsibilities – oldest as well as youngest, teacher as well as student.

<sup>9</sup> The first lot went to Asaph's son Joseph and his relatives and sons – twelve in all, the second to Gedaliah and his relatives and sons – twelve in all,

<sup>10</sup> the third to Zaccur and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>11</sup> the fourth to Izri and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>12</sup> the fifth to Nethaniah and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>13</sup> the sixth to Bukkiah and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>14</sup> the seventh to Jesharelah and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>15</sup> the eighth to Jeshaiiah and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>16</sup> the ninth to Mattaniah and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>17</sup> the tenth to Shimei and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>18</sup> the eleventh to Azarel and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>19</sup> the twelfth to Hashabiah and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>20</sup> the thirteenth to Shubael and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>21</sup> the fourteenth to Mattithiah and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>22</sup> the fifteenth to Jerimoth and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>23</sup> the sixteenth to Hananiah and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>24</sup> the seventeenth to Joshbekashah and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>25</sup> the eighteenth to Hanani and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>26</sup> the nineteenth to Mallothi and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>27</sup> the twentieth to Eliathah and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>28</sup> the twenty-first to Hothir and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>29</sup> the twenty-second to Giddalti and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>30</sup> the twenty-third to Mahazioth and his sons and relatives – twelve in all,

<sup>31</sup> the twenty-fourth to Romamti-Ezer and his sons and relatives – twelve in all.

26

<sup>1</sup> The divisions of the gatekeepers:

From the Korahites: Meshelemiah, son of Kore, one of the sons of Asaph.

The firstborn Zechariah, the second Jediahel, the third Zebadiah, the fourth Jathniel,

The firstborn Shemaiah, the second Jehozabad, the third Joah, the fourth Sakar, the fifth Nethanel,

<sup>5</sup> the sixth Ammiel, the seventh Issachar, and the eighth Peullethai. (Indeed, God blessed Obed-Edom.)

<sup>6</sup> His son Shemaiah also had sons, who were leaders of their families, for they were highly respected.

Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad. His relatives Elihu and Semakiah were also respected.

<sup>8</sup> All these were the descendants of Obed-Edom. They and their sons and relatives were respected men, capable of doing their responsibilities. There were sixty-two of them related to Obed-Edom.

<sup>9</sup> Meshelemiah had sons and relatives who were respected – eighteen in all.

The firstborn Shimri (he was not actually the firstborn, but his father gave him that status), <sup>11</sup> the second Hilkiah, the third Tebaliah, and the fourth Zechariah. All of Hosah's sons and relatives numbered thirteen.

<sup>12</sup> These divisions of the gatekeepers, corresponding to their leaders, had assigned responsibilities, like their relatives, as they served in the LORD's temple.

<sup>13</sup> They cast lots, both young and old, according to their families, to determine which gate they would be responsible for.

<sup>14</sup> The lot for the east gate went to Shelemiah. They then cast lots for his son Zechariah, a wise adviser, and the lot for the north gate went to him.

<sup>15</sup> Obed-Edom was assigned the south gate, and his sons were assigned the storehouses.

<sup>16</sup> Shuppim and Hosah were assigned the west gate, along with the Shalleketh gate on the upper road. One guard was adjacent to another.

<sup>17</sup> Each day there were six Levites posted on the east, four on the north, and four on the south. At the storehouses they were posted in pairs.

Supervisors of the Storehouses

<sup>20</sup> Their fellow Levites were in charge of the storehouses in God's temple and the storehouses containing consecrated items.

<sup>21</sup> The descendants of Ladan, who were descended from Gershon through Ladan and were leaders of the families of Ladan the Gershonite, included Jehieli

<sup>22</sup> and the sons of Jehieli, Zetham and his brother Joel. They were in charge of the storehouses in the LORD's temple.

<sup>24</sup> Shebuel son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was the supervisor of the storehouses.

<sup>25</sup> His relatives through Eliezer included: Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiiah his son, Joram his son, Zikri his son, and Shelomith his son.

<sup>26</sup> Shelomith and his relatives were in charge of all the storehouses containing the consecrated items dedicated by King David, the family leaders who led units of a thousand and a hundred, and the army officers.

<sup>27</sup> They had dedicated some of the plunder taken in battles to be used for repairs on the LORD's temple.

<sup>28</sup> They were also in charge of everything dedicated by Samuel the prophet, Saul son of Kish, Abner son of Ner, and Joab son of Zeruiah; Shelomith and his relatives were in charge of everything that had been dedicated.

<sup>29</sup> As for the Izharites: Kenaniah and his sons were given responsibilities outside the temple as officers and judges over Israel.

<sup>30</sup> As for the Hebronites: Hashabiah and his relatives, 1,700 respected men, were assigned responsibilities in Israel west of the Jordan; they did the LORD's work and the king's service.

<sup>31</sup> As for the Hebronites: Jeriah was the leader of the Hebronites according to the genealogical records. In the fortieth year of David's reign, they examined the records and discovered there were highly respected men in Jazer in Gilead.

<sup>32</sup> Jeriah had 2,700 relatives who were respected family leaders. King David placed them in charge of the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh; they took care of all matters pertaining to God and the king.

27

<sup>1</sup> What follows is a list of Israelite family leaders and commanders of units of a thousand and a hundred, as well as their officers who served the king in various matters. Each division was assigned to serve for one month during the year; each consisted of 24,000 men.

<sup>2</sup> Jashobeam son of Zabdiel was in charge of the first division, which was assigned the first month. His division consisted of 24,000 men.

<sup>3</sup> He was a descendant of Perez; he was in charge of all the army officers for the first month.

<sup>4</sup> Dodai the Ahohite was in charge of the division assigned the second month; Mikloth was the next in rank. His division consisted of 24,000 men.

<sup>5</sup> The third army commander, assigned the third month, was Benaiah son of Jehoiada the priest. He was the leader of his division, which consisted of 24,000 men.

<sup>6</sup> Benaiah was the leader of the thirty warriors and his division; his son was Ammizabad.

<sup>7</sup> The fourth, assigned the fourth month, was Asahel, brother of Joab; his son Zebadiah succeeded him. His division consisted of 24,000 men.

<sup>8</sup> The fifth, assigned the fifth month, was the commander Shamhuth the Izrahite. His division consisted of 24,000 men.

<sup>9</sup> The sixth, assigned the sixth month, was Ira son of Ikkesh the Tekoite. His division consisted of 24,000 men.

<sup>10</sup> The seventh, assigned the seventh month, was Helez the Pelonite, an Ephraimite. His division consisted of 24,000 men.

<sup>11</sup> The eighth, assigned the eighth month, was Sibbekai the Hushathite, a Zerahite. His division consisted of 24,000 men.

<sup>12</sup> The ninth, assigned the ninth month, was Abiezer the Anathothite, a Benjaminite. His division consisted of 24,000 men.

<sup>13</sup> The tenth, assigned the tenth month, was Maharai the Netophathite, a Zerahite. His division consisted of 24,000 men.

<sup>14</sup> The eleventh, assigned the eleventh month, was Benaiah the Pirathonite, an Ephraimite. His division consisted of 24,000 men.

<sup>15</sup> The twelfth, assigned the twelfth month, was Heldai the Netophathite, a descendant of Othniel. His division consisted of 24,000 men.

Eliezer son of Zikri was the leader of the Reubenites,
Shephatiah son of Maacah led the Simeonites,

<sup>17</sup> Hashabiah son of Kemuel led the Levites, Zadok led the descendants of Aaron,

<sup>18</sup> Elihu, a brother of David, led Judah,
Omri son of Michael led Issachar,

<sup>19</sup> Ishmaiah son of Obadiah led Zebulun, Jerimoth son of Azriel led Naphtali,

<sup>20</sup> Hoshea son of Azaziah led the Ephraimites,
Joel son of Pedaiah led the half-tribe of Manasseh,

<sup>21</sup> Iddo son of Zechariah led the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Jaasiel son of Abner led Benjamin,

<sup>22</sup> Azarel son of Jeroham led Dan.

These were the commanders of the Israelite tribes.

<sup>23</sup> David did not count the males twenty years old and under, for the LORD | strong="H3069" had promised to make Israel as numerous as the stars in the sky.

<sup>24</sup> Joab son of Zeruiah started to count the men but did not finish. God was angry with Israel because of this, so the number was not recorded in the scroll called The Annals of King David.

<sup>25</sup> Azmaveth son of Adiel was in charge of the king's storehouses;
Jonathan son of Uzziah was in charge of the storehouses in the field, in the cities, in the towns, and in the towers.
<sup>26</sup> Ezri son of Kelub was in charge of the field workers who farmed the land.
<sup>27</sup> Shimei the Ramathite was in charge of the vineyards;
Zabdi the Shiphmite was in charge of the wine stored in the vineyards.
<sup>28</sup> Baal-Hanan the Gederite was in charge of the olive and sycamore trees in the lowlands;
Joash was in charge of the storehouses of olive oil.
<sup>29</sup> Shitrai the Sharonite was in charge of the cattle grazing in Sharon;
Shaphat son of Adlai was in charge of the cattle in the valleys.
<sup>30</sup> Obil the Ishmaelite was in charge of the camels;
Jehdeiah the Meronothite was in charge of the donkeys.
<sup>31</sup> Jaziz the Hagrite was in charge of the sheep.
All these were the officials in charge of King David's property.
<sup>32</sup> Jonathan, David's uncle, was a wise adviser and scribe;
Jehiel son of Hacmoni cared for the king's sons.
<sup>33</sup> Ahithophel was the king's adviser;
Hushai the Arkite was the king's confidant.
<sup>34</sup> Ahithophel was succeeded by Jehoiada son of Benaiah and by Abiathar.
Joab was the commanding general of the king's army.

28

<sup>1</sup> David assembled in Jerusalem all the officials of Israel, including the commanders of the tribes, the commanders of the army divisions that served the king, the commanders of units of a thousand and a hundred, the officials who were in charge of all the property and livestock of the king and his sons, the eunuchs, and the warriors, including the most skilled of them.

<sup>2</sup> King David rose to his feet and said: "Listen to me, my brothers and my people. I wanted to build a temple where the ark of the LORD's covenant could be placed as a footstool for our God. I have made the preparations for building it.

<sup>3</sup> But God said to me, 'You must not build a temple to honor me, for you are a warrior and have spilled blood.'

<sup>4</sup> The LORD | strong="H3069" God of Israel chose me out of my father's entire family to become king over Israel and have a permanent dynasty. Indeed, he chose Judah as leader, and my father's family within Judah, and then he picked me out from among my father's sons and made me king over all Israel.

<sup>5</sup> From all the many sons the LORD has given me, he chose Solomon my son to rule on his behalf over Israel.

<sup>6</sup> He said to me, 'Solomon your son is the one who will build my temple and my courts, for I have chosen him to become my son and I will become his father.

<sup>7</sup> I will establish his kingdom permanently, if he remains committed to obeying my commands and regulations, as you are doing this day.'

<sup>8</sup> So now, in the sight of all Israel, the LORD's assembly, and in the hearing of our God, I say this: Carefully observe all the commands of the LORD your God, so that you may possess this good land and may leave it as a permanent inheritance for your children after you.

<sup>9</sup> "And you, Solomon my son, obey the God of your father and serve him with a submissive attitude and a willing spirit, for the LORD examines all minds and understands every motive of one's thoughts. If you seek him, he will let you find him, but if you abandon him, he will reject you permanently.

<sup>10</sup> Realize now that the LORD has chosen you to build a temple as his sanctuary. Be strong and do it!"

<sup>11</sup> David gave to his son Solomon the blueprints for the temple porch, its buildings, its treasuries, its upper areas, its inner rooms, and the room for atonement.

<sup>12</sup> He gave him the blueprints of all he envisioned for the courts of the LORD's temple, all the surrounding rooms, the storehouses of God's temple, and the storehouses for the holy items.

<sup>13</sup> He gave him the regulations for the divisions of priests and Levites, for all the assigned responsibilities within the LORD's temple, and for all the items used in the service of the LORD's temple.

<sup>14</sup> He gave him the prescribed weight for all the gold items to be used in various types of service in the LORD's temple, for all the silver items to be used in various types of service,

<sup>15</sup> for the gold lampstands and their gold lamps, including the weight of each lampstand and its lamps, for the silver lampstands, including the weight of each lampstand and its lamps, according to the prescribed use of each lampstand,

<sup>16</sup> for the gold used in the display tables, including the amount to be used in each table, for the silver to be used in the silver tables,

He gave him the blueprint for the seat of the gold cherubim that spread their wings and provide shelter for the ark of the LORD's covenant.

<sup>19</sup> David said, "All of this I put in writing as the LORD directed me and gave me insight regarding the details of the blueprints."

<sup>20</sup> David said to his son Solomon: "Be strong and brave! Do it! Don't be afraid and don't panic! For the LORD God, my God, is with you. He will not leave you or abandon you before all the work for the service of the LORD's temple is finished.

<sup>21</sup> Here are the divisions of the priests and Levites who will perform all the service of God's temple. All the willing and skilled men are ready to assist you in all the work and perform their service. The officials and all the people are ready to follow your instructions."

29

<sup>1</sup> King David said to the entire assembly: "My son Solomon, the one whom God has chosen, is just an inexperienced young man, and the task is great, for this palace is not for man, but for the LORD God.

<sup>2</sup> So I have made every effort to provide what is needed for the temple of my God, including the gold, silver, bronze, iron, wood, as well as a large amount of onyx, settings of antimony and other stones, all kinds of precious stones, and alabaster.

<sup>3</sup> Now, to show my commitment to the temple of my God, I donate my personal treasure of gold and silver to the temple of my God, in addition to all that I have already supplied for this holy temple.

<sup>4</sup> This includes 3,000 talents of gold from Ophir and 7,000 talents of refined silver for overlaying the walls of the buildings,

<sup>5</sup> for gold and silver items, and for all the work of the craftsmen. Who else wants to contribute to the LORD today?"

<sup>6</sup> The leaders of the families, the leaders of the Israelite tribes, the commanders of units of a thousand and a hundred, and the supervisors of the king's work contributed willingly.

<sup>7</sup> They donated for the service of God's temple 5,000 talents and ten thousand darics of gold, 10,000 talents of silver, 18,000 talents of bronze, and 100,000 talents of iron.

<sup>8</sup> All who possessed precious stones donated them to the treasury of the LORD's temple, which was under the supervision of Jehiel the Gershonite.

<sup>9</sup> The people were delighted with their donations, for they contributed to the LORD with a willing attitude; King David was also very happy.

David Praises the Lord

<sup>10</sup> David praised the LORD before the entire assembly:

"O LORD God of our father Israel, you deserve praise forevermore!

<sup>11</sup> O LORD |strong="H3069", you are great, mighty, majestic, magnificent, glorious, and sovereign over all the sky and earth! You have dominion and exalt yourself as the ruler of all.

<sup>12</sup> You are the source of wealth and honor; you rule over all. You possess strength and might to magnify and give strength to all.

<sup>13</sup> Now, our God, we give thanks to you and praise your majestic name!

<sup>14</sup> "But who am I and who are my people, that we should be in a position to contribute this much? Indeed, everything comes from you, and we have simply given back to you what is yours.

<sup>15</sup> For we are resident foreigners and nomads in your presence, like all our ancestors; our days are like a shadow on the earth, without security.

<sup>16</sup> O LORD our God, all this wealth, which we have collected to build a temple for you to honor your holy name, comes from you; it all belongs to you.

<sup>17</sup> I know, my God, that you examine thoughts and are pleased with integrity. With pure motives I contribute all this; and now I look with joy as your people who have gathered here contribute to you.

<sup>18</sup> O LORD God of our ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, maintain the motives of your people and keep them devoted to you.

<sup>19</sup> Make my son Solomon willing to obey your commands, rules, and regulations, and to complete building the palace for which I have made preparations."

<sup>20</sup> David told the entire assembly: "Praise the LORD your God!" So the entire assembly praised the LORD God of their ancestors; they bowed down and stretched out flat on the ground before the LORD and the king.

David Designates Solomon King

<sup>21</sup> The next day they made sacrifices and offered burnt sacrifices to the LORD (1,000 bulls, 1,000 rams, 1,000 lambs), along with their accompanying drink offerings and many other sacrifices for all Israel.

<sup>22</sup> They held a feast before the LORD that day and celebrated.

Then they designated Solomon, David's son, as king a second time; before the LORD they anointed him as ruler and Zadok as priest.

<sup>23</sup> Solomon sat on the LORD's throne as king in place of his father David; he was successful and all Israel was loyal to him.

<sup>24</sup> All the officers and warriors, as well as all of King David's sons, pledged their allegiance to King Solomon.

<sup>25</sup> The LORD greatly magnified Solomon before all Israel and bestowed on him greater majesty than any king of Israel before him.

David's Reign Comes to an End

<sup>27</sup> He reigned over Israel forty years; he reigned in Hebron seven years and in Jerusalem thirty-three years.

<sup>28</sup> He died at a good old age, having enjoyed long life, wealth, and honor. His son Solomon succeeded him.

<sup>29</sup> King David's accomplishments, from start to finish, are recorded in the Annals of Samuel the prophet, the Annals of Nathan the prophet, and the Annals of Gad the prophet.

<sup>30</sup> Recorded there are all the facts about his reign and accomplishments, and an account of the events that involved him, Israel, and all the neighboring kingdoms.

2 Chronicles

The Lord Gives Solomon Wisdom

<sup>1</sup> Solomon son of David solidified his royal authority, for the LORD his God was with him and magnified him greatly.

<sup>2</sup> Solomon addressed all Israel, including those who commanded units of a thousand and a hundred, the judges, and all the leaders of all Israel who were heads of families.

<sup>3</sup> Solomon and the entire assembly went to the worship center in Gibeon, for the tent where they met God was located there, which Moses the LORD's servant had made in the wilderness.

<sup>4</sup> (Now David had brought up the ark of God from Kiriath Jearim to the place he had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> But the bronze altar made by Bezalel son of Uri, son of Hur, was in front of the LORD's tabernacle. Solomon and the entire assembly prayed to him there.)

<sup>6</sup> Solomon went up to the bronze altar before the LORD which was at the meeting tent, and he offered up a thousand burnt sacrifices.

<sup>7</sup> That night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, "Tell me what I should give you."

<sup>8</sup> Solomon replied to God, "You demonstrated great loyalty to my father David and have made me king in his place.

<sup>9</sup> Now, LORD God, may your promise to my father David be realized, for you have made me king over a great nation as numerous as the dust of the earth.

<sup>10</sup> Now give me wisdom and discernment so I can effectively lead this nation. Otherwise no one is able to make judicial decisions for this great nation of yours."

<sup>11</sup> God said to Solomon, "Because you desire this, and did not ask for riches, wealth, and honor, or for vengeance on your enemies, and because you did not ask for long life, but requested wisdom and discernment so you can make judicial decisions for my people over whom I have made you king,

<sup>12</sup> you are granted wisdom and discernment. Furthermore I am giving you riches, wealth, and honor surpassing that of any king before or after you."

<sup>13</sup> Solomon left the meeting tent at the worship center in Gibeon and went to Jerusalem, where he reigned over Israel.

Solomon's Wealth

<sup>14</sup> Solomon accumulated chariots and horses. He had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horses. He kept them in assigned cities and in Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup> The king made silver and gold as plentiful in Jerusalem as stones; cedar was as plentiful as sycamore fig trees are in the lowlands.

<sup>17</sup> They paid 600 silver pieces for each chariot from Egypt, and 150 silver pieces for each horse. They also sold chariots and horses to all the kings of the Hittites and to the kings of Syria.

2

<sup>3</sup> Solomon sent a message to King Hiram of Tyre: “Help me as you did my father David, when you sent him cedar logs for the construction of his palace.

<sup>4</sup> Look, I am ready to build a temple to honor the LORD | strong="H3069" my God and to dedicate it to him in order to burn fragrant incense before him, to set out the bread that is regularly displayed, and to offer burnt sacrifices each morning and evening, and on Sabbaths, new moon festivals, and at other times appointed by the LORD | strong="H3069" our God. This is something Israel must do on a permanent basis.

<sup>5</sup> I will build a great temple, for our God is greater than all gods.

<sup>6</sup> Of course, who can really build a temple for him, since the sky and the highest heavens cannot contain him? Who am I that I should build him a temple! It will really be only a place to offer sacrifices before him.

<sup>7</sup> “Now send me a man who is skilled in working with gold, silver, bronze, and iron, as well as purple, crimson, and violet colored fabrics, and who knows how to engrave. He will work with my skilled craftsmen here in Jerusalem and Judah, whom my father David provided.

<sup>8</sup> Send me cedars, evergreens, and algum trees from Lebanon, for I know your servants are adept at cutting down trees in Lebanon. My servants will work with your servants

<sup>9</sup> to supply me with large quantities of timber, for I am building a great, magnificent temple.

<sup>10</sup> Look, I will pay your servants who cut the timber 20,000 kors of ground wheat, 20,000 kors of barley, 120,000 gallons of wine, and 120,000 gallons of olive oil.”

<sup>11</sup> King Hiram of Tyre sent this letter to Solomon: “Because the LORD loves his people, he has made you their king.”

<sup>12</sup> Hiram also said, “Worthy of praise is the LORD God of Israel, who made the sky and the earth! He has given David a wise son who has discernment and insight and will build a temple for the LORD, as well as a royal palace for himself.

<sup>13</sup> Now I am sending you Hiram Abi, a skilled and capable man, <sup>14</sup> whose mother is a Danite and whose father is a Tyrian. He knows how to work with gold, silver, bronze, iron, stones, and wood, as well as purple, violet, white, and crimson fabrics. He knows how to do all kinds of engraving and understands any design given to him. He will work with your skilled craftsmen and the skilled craftsmen of my lord David your father.

<sup>15</sup> Now let my lord send to his servants the wheat, barley, olive oil, and wine he has promised;

<sup>16</sup> we will get all the timber you need from Lebanon and bring it in raft-like bundles by sea to Joppa. You can then haul it on up to Jerusalem.”

<sup>17</sup> Solomon took a census of all the male resident foreigners in the land of Israel, after the census his father David had taken. There were 153,600 in all.

<sup>18</sup> He designated 70,000 as common laborers, 80,000 as stonecutters in the hills, and 3,600 as supervisors to make sure the people completed the work.

3

<sup>2</sup> He began building on the second day of the second month of the fourth year of his reign.

<sup>3</sup> Solomon laid the foundation for God’s temple; its length (determined according to the old standard of measure) was 90 feet, and its width 30 feet.

<sup>4</sup> The porch in front of the main hall was 30 feet long, corresponding to the width of the temple, and its height was 30 feet. He plated the inside with pure gold.

<sup>5</sup> He paneled the main hall with boards made from evergreen trees and plated it with fine gold, decorated with palm trees and chains.

<sup>6</sup> He decorated the temple with precious stones; the gold he used came from Parvaim.

<sup>7</sup> He overlaid the temple's rafters, thresholds, walls and doors with gold; he carved decorative cherubim on the walls.

<sup>8</sup> He made the most holy place; its length was 30 feet, corresponding to the width of the temple, and its width 30 feet. He plated it with 600 talents of fine gold.

<sup>9</sup> The gold nails weighed 50 shekels; he also plated the upper areas with gold.

<sup>10</sup> In the most holy place he made two images of cherubim and plated them with gold.

<sup>11</sup> The combined wing span of the cherubs was 30 feet. One of the first cherub's wings was seven and one-half feet long and touched one wall of the temple; its other wing was also seven and one-half feet long and touched one of the second cherub's wings.

<sup>12</sup> Likewise one of the second cherub's wings was seven and one-half feet long and touched the other wall of the temple; its other wing was also seven and one-half feet long and touched one of the first cherub's wings.

<sup>13</sup> The combined wingspan of these cherubim was 30 feet. They stood upright, facing inward.

<sup>14</sup> He made the curtain out of violet, purple, crimson, and white fabrics, and embroidered on it decorative cherubim.

<sup>15</sup> In front of the temple he made two pillars which had a combined length of 52½ feet, with each having a plated capital seven and one-half feet high.

<sup>16</sup> He made ornamental chains and put them on top of the pillars. He also made one hundred pomegranate-shaped ornaments and arranged them within the chains.

<sup>17</sup> He set up the pillars in front of the temple, one on the right side and the other on the left. He named the one on the right Jachin, and the one on the left Boaz.

<sup>1</sup> He made a bronze altar, 30 feet long, 30 feet wide, and 15 feet high.

<sup>2</sup> He also made the big bronze basin called "The Sea." It measured 15 feet from rim to rim, was circular in shape, and stood seven and one-half feet high. Its circumference was 45 feet.

<sup>3</sup> Images of bulls were under it all the way around, ten every eighteen inches all the way around. The bulls were in two rows and had been cast with "The Sea."

<sup>4</sup> "The Sea" stood on top of twelve bulls. Three faced northward, three westward, three southward, and three eastward. "The Sea" was placed on top of them, and they all faced outward.

<sup>5</sup> It was four fingers thick and its rim was like that of a cup shaped like a lily blossom. It could hold 18,000 gallons.

<sup>6</sup> He made ten washing basins; he put five on the south side and five on the north side. In them they rinsed the items used for burnt sacrifices; the priests washed in "The Sea."

<sup>7</sup> He made ten gold lampstands according to specifications and put them in the temple, five on the right and five on the left.

<sup>8</sup> He made ten tables and set them in the temple, five on the right and five on the left. He also made one hundred gold bowls.

<sup>9</sup> He made the courtyard of the priests and the large enclosure and its doors; he plated their doors with bronze.

<sup>10</sup> He put "The Sea" on the south side, in the southeast corner.

<sup>11</sup> Hiram Abi made the pots, shovels, and bowls. He finished all the work on God's temple he had been assigned by King Solomon.

<sup>12</sup> He made the two pillars, the two bowl-shaped tops of the pillars, the latticework for the bowl-shaped tops of the two pillars,

<sup>15</sup> the big bronze basin called "The Sea" with its twelve bulls underneath,

<sup>18</sup> Solomon made so many of these items they did not weigh the bronze.

<sup>19</sup> Solomon also made these items for God's temple: the gold altar, the tables on which the Bread of the Presence was kept,

<sup>20</sup> the pure gold lampstands and their lamps which burned as specified at the entrance to the inner sanctuary,

<sup>22</sup> the pure gold trimming shears, basins, pans, and censers, and the gold door sockets for the inner sanctuary (the most holy place) and for the doors of the main hall of the temple.

5

<sup>1</sup> When Solomon had finished constructing the LORD's temple, he put the holy items that belonged to his father David (the silver, gold, and all the other articles) in the treasuries of God's temple.

Solomon Moves the Ark into the Temple

<sup>2</sup> Then Solomon convened Israel's elders – all the leaders of the Israelite tribes and families – in Jerusalem, so they could witness the transferal of the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the City of David (that is, Zion).

<sup>3</sup> All the men of Israel assembled before the king during the festival in the seventh month.

<sup>5</sup> The priests and Levites carried the ark, the tent where God appeared to his people, and all the holy items in the tent.

<sup>6</sup> Now King Solomon and all the Israelites who had assembled with him went on ahead of the ark and sacrificed more sheep and cattle than could be counted or numbered.

<sup>7</sup> The priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its assigned place in the inner sanctuary of the temple, in the most holy place under the wings of the cherubs.

<sup>8</sup> The cherubs' wings extended over the place where the ark sat; the cherubs overshadowed the ark and its poles.

<sup>9</sup> The poles were so long their ends extending out from the ark were visible from in front of the inner sanctuary, but they could not be seen from beyond that point. They have remained there to this very day.

<sup>10</sup> There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets Moses had placed there in Horeb. (It was there that the LORD made an agreement with the Israelites after he brought them out of the land of Egypt.)

<sup>12</sup> All the Levites who were musicians, including Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and relatives, wore linen. They played cymbals and stringed instruments as they stood east of the altar. They were accompanied by 120 priests who blew trumpets.

<sup>13</sup> The trumpeters and musicians played together, praising and giving thanks to the LORD. Accompanied by trumpets, cymbals, and other instruments, they loudly praised the LORD, singing: "Certainly he is good; certainly his loyal love endures!" Then a cloud filled the LORD's temple.

<sup>14</sup> The priests could not carry out their duties because of the cloud; the LORD's splendor filled God's temple.

<sup>1</sup> Then Solomon said, "The LORD has said that he lives in thick darkness.

<sup>2</sup> O LORD, I have built a lofty temple for you, a place where you can live permanently."

<sup>3</sup> Then the king turned around and pronounced a blessing over the whole Israelite assembly as they stood there.

<sup>4</sup> He said, "The LORD God of Israel is worthy of praise because he has fulfilled what he promised my father David.

<sup>5</sup> He told David, 'Since the day I brought my people out of the land of Egypt, I have not chosen a city from all the tribes of Israel to build a temple in which to live. Nor did I choose a man as leader of my people Israel.

<sup>6</sup> But now I have chosen Jerusalem as a place to live, and I have chosen David to lead my people Israel.'

<sup>7</sup> Now my father David had a strong desire to build a temple to honor the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD told my father David, 'It is right for you to have a strong desire to build a temple to honor me.

<sup>9</sup> But you will not build the temple; your very own son will build the temple for my honor.'

<sup>10</sup> The LORD has kept the promise he made. I have taken my father David's place and have occupied the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised. I have built this temple for the honor of the LORD God of Israel

<sup>11</sup> and set up in it a place for the ark containing the covenant the LORD made with the Israelites."

<sup>12</sup> He stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the entire assembly of Israel and spread out his hands.

<sup>13</sup> Solomon had made a bronze platform and had placed it in the middle of the enclosure. It was seven and one-half feet long, seven and one-half feet wide, and four and one-half feet high. He stood on it and then got down on his knees in front of the entire assembly of Israel. He spread out his hands toward the sky, <sup>14</sup> and prayed: "O LORD God of Israel, there is no god like you in heaven or on earth! You maintain covenantal loyalty to your servants who obey you with sincerity.

<sup>15</sup> You have kept your word to your servant, my father David; this very day you have fulfilled what you promised.

<sup>16</sup> Now, O LORD God of Israel, keep the promise you made to your servant, my father David, when you said, 'You will never fail to have a successor ruling before me on the throne of Israel, provided that your descendants watch their step and obey my law as you have done.'

<sup>17</sup> Now, O LORD God of Israel, may the promise you made to your servant David be realized.

<sup>18</sup> “God does not really live with humankind on the earth! Look, if the sky and the highest heaven cannot contain you, how much less this temple I have built!

<sup>19</sup> But respond favorably to your servant’s prayer and his request for help, O LORD my God. Answer the desperate prayer your servant is presenting to you.

<sup>20</sup> Night and day may you watch over this temple, the place where you promised you would live. May you answer your servant’s prayer for this place.

<sup>21</sup> Respond to the requests of your servant and your people Israel for this place. Hear from your heavenly dwelling place and respond favorably and forgive.

<sup>22</sup> “When someone is accused of sinning against his neighbor and the latter pronounces a curse on the alleged offender before your altar in this temple,

<sup>23</sup> listen from heaven and make a just decision about your servants’ claims. Condemn the guilty party, declare the other innocent, and give both of them what they deserve.

<sup>24</sup> “If your people Israel are defeated by an enemy because they sinned against you, then if they come back to you, renew their allegiance to you, and pray for your help before you in this temple,

<sup>25</sup> then listen from heaven, forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them back to the land you gave to them and their ancestors.

<sup>26</sup> “The time will come when the skies are shut up tightly and no rain falls because your people sinned against you. When they direct their prayers toward this place, renew their allegiance to you, and turn away from their sin because you punish them,

<sup>27</sup> then listen from heaven and forgive the sin of your servants, your people Israel. Certainly you will then teach them the right way to live and send rain on your land that you have given your people to possess.

<sup>28</sup> “The time will come when the land suffers from a famine, a plague, blight, and disease, or a locust invasion, or when their enemy lays siege to the cities of the land, or when some other type of plague or epidemic occurs.

<sup>29</sup> When all your people Israel pray and ask for help, as they acknowledge their intense pain and spread out their hands toward this temple,

<sup>30</sup> then listen from your heavenly dwelling place, forgive their sin, and act favorably toward each one based on your evaluation of their motives. (Indeed you are the only one who can correctly evaluate the motives of all people.)

<sup>31</sup> Then they will honor you by obeying you throughout their lifetimes as they live on the land you gave to our ancestors.

<sup>32</sup> “Foreigners, who do not belong to your people Israel, will come from a distant land because of your great reputation and your ability to accomplish mighty deeds; they will come and direct their prayers toward this temple.

<sup>33</sup> Then listen from your heavenly dwelling place and answer all the prayers of the foreigners. Then all the nations of the earth will acknowledge your reputation, obey you like your people Israel do, and recognize that this temple I built belongs to you.

<sup>34</sup> “When you direct your people to march out and fight their enemies, and they direct their prayers to you toward this chosen city and this temple I built for your honor,

<sup>36</sup> “The time will come when your people will sin against you (for there is no one who is sinless!) and you will be angry at them and deliver them over to their enemies, who will take them as prisoners to their land, whether far away or close by.

<sup>37</sup> When your people come to their senses in the land where they are held prisoner, they will repent and beg for your mercy in the land of their imprisonment, admitting, ‘We have sinned and gone astray, we have done evil!’

<sup>38</sup> When they return to you with all their heart and being in the land where they are held prisoner and direct their prayers toward the land you gave to their ancestors, your chosen city, and the temple I built for your honor,

<sup>39</sup> then listen from your heavenly dwelling place to their prayers for help, vindicate them, and forgive your sinful people.

<sup>40</sup> “Now, my God, may you be attentive and responsive to the prayers offered in this place.

<sup>41</sup> Now ascend, O LORD God, to your resting place, you and the ark of your strength! May your priests, O LORD God, experience your deliverance! May your loyal followers rejoice in the prosperity you give!

<sup>42</sup> O LORD God, do not reject your chosen ones! Remember the faithful promises you made to your servant David!”

7

<sup>1</sup> When Solomon finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the LORD’s splendor filled the temple.

<sup>2</sup> The priests were unable to enter the LORD’s temple because the LORD’s splendor filled the LORD’s temple.

<sup>3</sup> When all the Israelites saw the fire come down and the LORD’s splendor over the temple, they got on their knees with their faces downward toward the pavement. They worshiped and gave thanks to the LORD, saying, “Certainly he is good; certainly his loyal love endures!”

<sup>4</sup> The king and all the people were presenting sacrifices to the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> King Solomon sacrificed 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep. Then the king and all the people dedicated God’s temple.

<sup>6</sup> The priests stood in their assigned spots, along with the Levites who had the musical instruments used for praising the LORD. (These were the ones King David made for giving thanks to the LORD and which were used by David when he offered praise, saying, “Certainly his loyal love endures.”) Opposite the Levites, the priests were blowing the trumpets, while all Israel stood there.

<sup>7</sup> Solomon consecrated the middle of the courtyard that is in front of the LORD’s temple. He offered burnt sacrifices, grain offerings, and the fat from the peace offerings there, because the bronze altar that Solomon had made was too small to hold all these offerings.

<sup>8</sup> At that time Solomon and all Israel with him celebrated a festival for seven days. This great assembly included people from Lebo Hamath in the north to the Brook of Egypt in the south.

<sup>9</sup> On the eighth day they held an assembly, for they had dedicated the altar for seven days and celebrated the festival for seven more days.

<sup>10</sup> On the twenty-third day of the seventh month, Solomon sent the people home. They left happy and contented because of the good the LORD had done for David, Solomon, and his people Israel.

The Lord Gives Solomon a Promise and a Warning

<sup>11</sup> After Solomon finished building the LORD’s temple and the royal palace, and accomplished all his plans for the LORD’s temple and his royal palace, <sup>12</sup> the LORD appeared to Solomon at night and said to him: “I have answered your prayer and chosen this place to be my temple where sacrifices are to be made.

<sup>13</sup> When I close up the sky so that it doesn’t rain, or command locusts to devour the land’s vegetation, or send a plague among my people, <sup>14</sup> if my people, who belong to me, humble themselves, pray, seek to please me, and repudiate their sinful practices, then I will respond from heaven, forgive their sin, and heal their land.

<sup>15</sup> Now I will be attentive and responsive to the prayers offered in this place.

<sup>16</sup> Now I have chosen and consecrated this temple by making it my permanent home; I will be constantly present there.

<sup>17</sup> You must serve me as your father David did. Do everything I commanded and obey my rules and regulations.

<sup>18</sup> Then I will establish your dynasty, just as I promised your father David, 'You will not fail to have a successor ruling over Israel.'

<sup>19</sup> "But if you people ever turn away from me, fail to obey the regulations and rules I instructed you to keep, and decide to serve and worship other gods,

<sup>20</sup> then I will remove you from my land I have given you, I will abandon this temple I have consecrated with my presence, and I will make you an object of mockery and ridicule among all the nations.

<sup>21</sup> As for this temple, which was once majestic, everyone who passes by it will be shocked and say, 'Why did the LORD do this to this land and this temple?'

<sup>22</sup> Others will then answer, 'Because they abandoned the LORD God of their ancestors, who led them out of Egypt. They embraced other gods whom they worshiped and served. That is why he brought all this disaster down on them.' "

8

<sup>4</sup> He built up Tadmor in the wilderness and all the storage cities he had built in Hamath.

<sup>5</sup> He made upper Beth Horon and lower Beth Horon fortified cities with walls and barred gates, <sup>6</sup> and built up Baalath, all the storage cities that belonged to him, and all the cities where chariots and horses were kept. He built whatever he wanted in Jerusalem, Lebanon, and throughout his entire kingdom.

<sup>8</sup> Their descendants remained in the land (the Israelites were unable to wipe them out). Solomon conscripted them for his work crews and they continue in that role to this very day.

<sup>9</sup> Solomon did not assign Israelites to these work crews; the Israelites served as his soldiers, officers, charioteers, and commanders of his chariot forces.

<sup>10</sup> These men worked for Solomon as supervisors; there were a total of 250 of them who were in charge of the people.

<sup>11</sup> Solomon moved Pharaoh's daughter up from the City of David to the palace he had built for her; for he said, "My wife must not live in the palace of King David of Israel, for the places where the ark of the LORD has entered are holy."

<sup>12</sup> Then Solomon offered burnt sacrifices to the LORD on the altar of the LORD which he had built in front of the temple's porch.

<sup>13</sup> He observed the daily requirements for sacrifices that Moses had specified for Sabbaths, new moon festivals, and the three annual celebrations – the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks, and the Feast of Temporary Shelters.

<sup>15</sup> They did not neglect any detail of the king's orders pertaining to the priests, Levites, and treasuries.

<sup>16</sup> All the work ordered by Solomon was completed, from the day the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid until it was finished; the LORD's temple was completed.

<sup>17</sup> Then Solomon went to Ezion Geber and to Elat on the coast in the land of Edom.

<sup>18</sup> Hiram sent him ships and some of his sailors, men who were well acquainted with the sea. They sailed with Solomon's men to Ophir, and took from there 450 talents of gold, which they brought back to King Solomon.

9

<sup>1</sup> When the queen of Sheba heard about Solomon, she came to challenge him with difficult questions. She arrived in Jerusalem with a great display of pomp, bringing with her camels carrying spices, a very large quantity of gold, and precious gems. She visited Solomon and discussed with him everything that was on her mind.

<sup>3</sup> When the queen of Sheba saw for herself Solomon's extensive wisdom, the palace he had built,

<sup>4</sup> the food in his banquet hall, his servants and attendants in their robes, his cupbearers in their robes, and his burnt sacrifices which he presented in the LORD's temple, she was amazed.

<sup>5</sup> She said to the king, "The report I heard in my own country about your wise sayings and insight was true!

<sup>6</sup> I did not believe these things until I came and saw them with my own eyes. Indeed, I didn't hear even half the story! Your wisdom surpasses what was reported to me.

<sup>7</sup> Your attendants, who stand before you at all times and hear your wise sayings, are truly happy!

<sup>8</sup> May the LORD | strong="H3069" your God be praised because he favored you by placing you on his throne as the one ruling on his behalf! Because of your God's love for Israel and his lasting commitment to them, he made you king over them so you could make just and right decisions."

<sup>9</sup> She gave the king 120 talents of gold and a very large quantity of spices and precious gems. The quantity of spices the queen of Sheba gave King Solomon has never been matched.

<sup>10</sup> (Hiram's servants, aided by Solomon's servants, brought gold from Ophir, as well as fine timber and precious gems.

<sup>12</sup> King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba everything she requested, more than what she had brought him. Then she left and returned to her homeland with her attendants.

Solomon's Wealth

<sup>14</sup> besides what he collected from the merchants and traders. All the Arabian kings and the governors of the land also brought gold and silver to Solomon.

<sup>15</sup> King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; 600 measures of hammered gold were used for each shield.

<sup>16</sup> He also made three hundred small shields of hammered gold; 300 measures of gold were used for each of those shields. The king placed them in the Palace of the Lebanon Forest.

<sup>18</sup> There were six steps leading up to the throne, and a gold footstool was attached to the throne. The throne had two armrests with a statue of a lion standing on each side.

<sup>19</sup> There were twelve statues of lions on the six steps, one lion at each end of each step. There was nothing like it in any other kingdom.

<sup>20</sup> All of King Solomon's cups were made of gold, and all the household items in the Palace of the Lebanon Forest were made of pure gold. There were no silver items, for silver was not considered very valuable in Solomon's time.

<sup>21</sup> The king had a fleet of large merchant ships manned by Hiram's men that sailed the sea. Once every three years the fleet came into port with cargoes of gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

<sup>23</sup> All the kings of the earth wanted to visit Solomon to see him display his God-given wisdom.

<sup>25</sup> Solomon had 4,000 stalls for his chariot horses and 12,000 horses. He kept them in assigned cities and in Jerusalem.

<sup>26</sup> He ruled all the kingdoms from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistines as far as the border of Egypt.

<sup>27</sup> The king made silver as plentiful in Jerusalem as stones; cedar was as plentiful as sycamore fig trees are in the lowlands.

Solomon's Reign Ends

<sup>29</sup> The rest of the events of Solomon's reign, from start to finish, are recorded in the Annals of Nathan the Prophet, the Prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and the Vision of Iddo the Seer pertaining to Jeroboam son of Nebat.

<sup>31</sup> Then Solomon passed away and was buried in the city of his father David. His son Rehoboam replaced him as king.

10

<sup>2</sup> When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard the news, he was still in Egypt, where he had fled from King Solomon. Jeroboam returned from Egypt.

<sup>3</sup> They sent for him and Jeroboam and all Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

<sup>4</sup> "Your father made us work too hard! Now if you lighten the demands he made and don't make us work as hard, we will serve you."

<sup>5</sup> He said to them, "Go away for three days, then return to me." So the people went away.

<sup>6</sup> King Rehoboam consulted with the older advisers who had served his father Solomon when he had been alive. He asked them, "How do you advise me to answer these people?"

<sup>7</sup> They said to him, "If you are fair to these people, grant their request, and are cordial to them, they will be your servants from this time forward."

<sup>8</sup> But Rehoboam rejected their advice and consulted the young advisers who served him, with whom he had grown up.

<sup>9</sup> He asked them, "How do you advise me to respond to these people who said to me, 'Lessen the demands your father placed on us'?"

<sup>10</sup> The young advisers with whom Rehoboam had grown up said to him, "Say this to these people who have said to you, 'Your father made us work hard, but now lighten our burden' – say this to them: 'I am a lot harsher than my father!'

<sup>11</sup> My father imposed heavy demands on you; I will make them even heavier. My father punished you with ordinary whips; I will punish you with whips that really sting your flesh.' "

<sup>12</sup> Jeroboam and all the people reported to Rehoboam on the third day, just as the king had ordered when he said, "Return to me on the third day."

<sup>13</sup> The king responded to the people harshly. He rejected the advice of the older men

<sup>14</sup> and followed the advice of the younger ones. He said, "My father imposed heavy demands on you; I will make them even heavier. My father punished you with ordinary whips; I will punish you with whips that really sting your flesh."

<sup>15</sup> The king refused to listen to the people, because God was instigating this turn of events so that he might bring to pass the prophetic announcement he had made through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam son of Nebat.

<sup>16</sup> When all Israel saw that the king refused to listen to them, the people answered the king, "We have no portion in David – no share in the son of Jesse! Return to your homes, O Israel! Now, look after your own dynasty, O David!" So all Israel returned to their homes.

<sup>18</sup> King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, the supervisor of the work crews, out after them, but the Israelites stoned him to death. King Rehoboam managed to jump into his chariot and escape to Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup> So Israel has been in rebellion against the Davidic dynasty to this very day.

11

<sup>1</sup> When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he summoned 180,000 skilled warriors from Judah and Benjamin to attack Israel and restore the kingdom to Rehoboam.

<sup>3</sup> "Say this to King Rehoboam son of Solomon of Judah and to all the Israelites in Judah and Benjamin, <sup>4</sup> "The LORD says this: "Do not attack and make war with your brothers. Each of you go home, for I have caused this to happen." "' They obeyed the LORD and called off the attack against Jeroboam.

Rehoboam's Reign

<sup>10</sup> Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron. These were the fortified cities in Judah and Benjamin.

<sup>11</sup> He fortified these cities and placed officers in them, as well as storehouses of food, olive oil, and wine.

<sup>12</sup> In each city there were shields and spears; he strongly fortified them. Judah and Benjamin belonged to him.

<sup>13</sup> The priests and Levites who lived throughout Israel supported him, no matter where they resided.

<sup>15</sup> Jeroboam appointed his own priests to serve at the worship centers and to lead in the worship of the goat idols and calf idols he had made.

<sup>16</sup> Those among all the Israelite tribes who were determined to worship the LORD God of Israel followed them to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the LORD God of their ancestors.

<sup>17</sup> They supported the kingdom of Judah and were loyal to Rehoboam son of Solomon for three years; they followed the edicts of David and Solomon for three years.

<sup>18</sup> Rehoboam married Mahalath the daughter of David's son Jerimoth and of Abihail, the daughter of Jesse's son Eliab.

<sup>20</sup> He later married Maacah the daughter of Absalom. She bore to him Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith.

<sup>21</sup> Rehoboam loved Maacah daughter of Absalom more than his other wives and concubines. He had eighteen wives and sixty concubines; he fathered twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

<sup>22</sup> Rehoboam appointed Abijah son of Maacah as the leader over his brothers, for he intended to name him his successor.

<sup>23</sup> He wisely placed some of his many sons throughout the regions of Judah and Benjamin in the various fortified cities. He supplied them with abundant provisions and acquired many wives for them.

12

<sup>1</sup> After Rehoboam's rule was established and solidified, he and all Israel rejected the law of the LORD.

<sup>2</sup> Because they were unfaithful to the LORD, in King Rehoboam's fifth year, King Shishak of Egypt attacked Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> He had 1,200 chariots, 60,000 horsemen, and an innumerable number of soldiers who accompanied him from Egypt, including Libyans, Sukkites, and Cushites.

<sup>4</sup> He captured the fortified cities of Judah and marched against Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> Shemaiah the prophet visited Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah who were assembled in Jerusalem because of Shishak. He said to them, "This is what the LORD says: 'You have rejected me, so I have rejected you and will hand you over to Shishak.' "

<sup>6</sup> The leaders of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, "The LORD is just."

<sup>7</sup> When the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, he gave this message to Shemaiah: "They have humbled themselves, so I will not destroy them. I will deliver them soon. My anger will not be unleashed against Jerusalem through Shishak.

<sup>8</sup> Yet they will become his subjects, so they can experience how serving me differs from serving the surrounding nations."

<sup>9</sup> King Shishak of Egypt attacked Jerusalem and took away the treasures of the LORD's temple and of the royal palace; he took everything, including the gold shields that Solomon had made.

<sup>11</sup> Whenever the king visited the LORD's temple, the royal guards carried them and then brought them back to the guardroom.

<sup>12</sup> So when Rehoboam humbled himself, the LORD relented from his anger and did not annihilate him; Judah experienced some good things.

<sup>13</sup> King Rehoboam solidified his rule in Jerusalem; he was forty-one years old when he became king and he ruled for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city the LORD chose from all the tribes of Israel to be his home. Rehoboam's mother was an Ammonite named Naamah.

<sup>14</sup> He did evil because he was not determined to follow the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> The events of Rehoboam's reign, from start to finish, are recorded in the Annals of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer that include genealogical records.

<sup>16</sup> Then Rehoboam passed away and was buried in the City of David. His son Abijah replaced him as king.

13

<sup>2</sup> He ruled for three years in Jerusalem. His mother was Michaiah, the daughter of Uriel from Gibeah.

There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

<sup>3</sup> Abijah launched the attack with 400,000 well-trained warriors, while Jeroboam deployed against him 800,000 well-trained warriors.

<sup>4</sup> Abijah ascended Mount Zemaraim, in the Ephraimite hill country, and said: "Listen to me, Jeroboam and all Israel!

<sup>5</sup> Don't you realize that the LORD God of Israel has given David and his dynasty lasting dominion over Israel by a formal agreement?

<sup>7</sup> Lawless good-for-nothing men gathered around him and conspired against Rehoboam son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was an inexperienced young man and could not resist them.

<sup>8</sup> Now you are declaring that you will resist the LORD's rule through the Davidic dynasty. You have a huge army, and bring with you the gold calves that Jeroboam made for you as gods.

<sup>9</sup> But you banished the LORD's priests, Aaron's descendants, and the Levites, and appointed your own priests just as the surrounding nations do! Anyone who comes to consecrate himself with a young bull or seven rams becomes a priest of these fake gods!

<sup>10</sup> But as for us, the LORD is our God and we have not rejected him. Aaron's descendants serve as the LORD's priests and the Levites assist them with the work.

<sup>11</sup> They offer burnt sacrifices to the LORD every morning and every evening, along with fragrant incense. They arrange the Bread of the Presence on a ritually clean table and light the lamps on the gold lampstand every evening. Certainly we are observing the LORD our God's regulations, but you have rejected him.

<sup>12</sup> Now look, God is with us as our leader. His priests are ready to blow the trumpets to signal the attack against you. You Israelites, don't fight against the LORD God of your ancestors, for you will not win!"

<sup>13</sup> Now Jeroboam had sent some men to ambush the Judahite army from behind. The main army was in front of the Judahite army; the ambushers were behind it.

<sup>14</sup> The men of Judah turned around and realized they were being attacked from the front and the rear. So they cried out for help to the LORD. The priests blew their trumpets, <sup>15</sup> and the men of Judah gave the battle cry. As the men of Judah gave the battle cry, the LORD struck down Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.

<sup>16</sup> The Israelites fled from before the Judahite army, and God handed them over to the men of Judah.

<sup>17</sup> Abijah and his army thoroughly defeated them; 500,000 well-trained Israelite men fell dead.

<sup>18</sup> That day the Israelites were defeated; the men of Judah prevailed because they relied on the LORD God of their ancestors.

<sup>19</sup> Abijah chased Jeroboam; he seized from him these cities: Bethel and its surrounding towns, Jeshanah and its surrounding towns, and Ephron and its surrounding towns.

<sup>20</sup> Jeroboam did not regain power during the reign of Abijah. The LORD struck him down and he died.

<sup>21</sup> Abijah's power grew; he had fourteen wives and fathered twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

<sup>22</sup> The rest of the events of Abijah's reign, including his deeds and sayings, are recorded in the writings of the prophet Iddo.

14

Asa's Religious and Military Accomplishments

<sup>3</sup> He removed the pagan altars and the high places, smashed the sacred pillars, and cut down the Asherah poles.

<sup>4</sup> He ordered Judah to seek the LORD God of their ancestors and to observe his law and commands.

<sup>5</sup> He removed the high places and the incense altars from all the cities of Judah. The kingdom had rest under his rule.

<sup>6</sup> He built fortified cities throughout Judah, for the land was at rest and there was no war during those years; the LORD gave him peace.

<sup>7</sup> He said to the people of Judah: "Let's build these cities and fortify them with walls, towers, and barred gates. The land remains ours because we have followed the LORD our God and he has made us secure on all sides." So they built the cities and prospered.

<sup>8</sup> Asa had an army of 300,000 men from Judah, equipped with large shields and spears. He also had 280,000 men from Benjamin who carried small shields and were adept archers; they were all skilled warriors.

<sup>9</sup> Zerah the Cushite marched against them with an army of 1,000,000 men and 300 chariots. He arrived at Mareshah, <sup>10</sup> and Asa went out to oppose him. They deployed for battle in the Valley of Zephathah near Mareshah.

<sup>11</sup> Asa prayed to the LORD his God: "O LORD, there is no one but you who can help the weak when they are vastly outnumbered. Help us, O LORD our God, for we rely on you and have marched on your behalf against this huge army. O LORD our God, don't let men prevail against you!"

<sup>12</sup> The LORD | strong="H3069" struck down the Cushites before Asa and Judah. The Cushites fled,

<sup>13</sup> and Asa and his army chased them as far as Gerar. The Cushites were wiped out; they were shattered before the LORD and his army. The men of Judah carried off a huge amount of plunder.

<sup>14</sup> They defeated all the cities surrounding Gerar, for the LORD caused them to panic. The men of Judah looted all the cities, for they contained a huge amount of goods.

<sup>15</sup> They also attacked the tents of the herdsmen in charge of the livestock. They carried off many sheep and camels and then returned to Jerusalem.

15

<sup>2</sup> He met Asa and told him, "Listen to me, Asa and all Judah and Benjamin! The LORD is with you when you are loyal to him. If you seek him, he will respond to you, but if you reject him, he will reject you.

<sup>3</sup> For a long time Israel had no true God, or priest to instruct them, or law.

<sup>4</sup> Because of their distress, they turned back to the LORD God of Israel. They sought him and he responded to them.

<sup>5</sup> In those days no one could travel safely, for total chaos had overtaken all the people of the surrounding lands.

<sup>6</sup> One nation was crushed by another, and one city by another, for God caused them to be in great turmoil.

<sup>7</sup> But as for you, be strong and don't get discouraged, for your work will be rewarded."

<sup>8</sup> When Asa heard these words and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he was encouraged. He removed the detestable idols from the entire land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities he had seized in the Ephraimite hill country. He repaired the altar of the LORD in front of the porch of the LORD's temple.

<sup>9</sup> He assembled all Judah and Benjamin, as well as the settlers from Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon who had come to live with them. Many people from Israel had come there to live when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

<sup>10</sup> They assembled in Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of Asa's reign.

<sup>11</sup> At that time they sacrificed to the LORD some of the plunder they had brought back, including 700 head of cattle and 7,000 sheep.

<sup>12</sup> They solemnly agreed to seek the LORD God of their ancestors with their whole heart and being.

<sup>13</sup> Anyone who would not seek the LORD | strong="H3069" God of Israel would be executed, whether they were young or old, male or female.

<sup>14</sup> They swore their allegiance to the LORD, shouting their approval loudly and sounding trumpets and horns.

<sup>15</sup> All Judah was happy about the oath, because they made the vow with their whole heart. They willingly sought the LORD and he responded to them. He made them secure on every side.

<sup>16</sup> King Asa also removed Maacah his grandmother from her position as queen mother because she had made a loathsome Asherah pole. Asa cut down her Asherah pole and crushed and burned it in the Kidron Valley.

<sup>17</sup> The high places were not eliminated from Israel, yet Asa was wholeheartedly devoted to the LORD throughout | strong="H3605" his lifetime.

<sup>18</sup> He brought the holy items that his father and he had made into God's temple, including the silver, gold, and other articles.

Asa's Failures

<sup>19</sup> There was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

16

<sup>1</sup> In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign, King Baasha of Israel attacked Judah, and he established Ramah as a military outpost to prevent anyone from leaving or entering the land of King Asa of Judah.

<sup>2</sup> Asa took all the silver and gold that was left in the treasuries of the LORD's temple and of the royal palace and sent it to King Ben Hadad of Syria, ruler in Damascus, along with this message:

<sup>3</sup> “I want to make a treaty with you, like the one our fathers made. See, I have sent you silver and gold. Break your treaty with King Baasha of Israel, so he will retreat from my land.”

<sup>5</sup> When Baasha heard the news, he stopped fortifying Ramah and abandoned the project.

<sup>6</sup> King Asa ordered all the men of Judah to carry away the stones and wood that Baasha had used to build Ramah. He used the materials to build up Geba and Mizpah.

<sup>7</sup> At that time Hanani the prophet visited King Asa of Judah and said to him: “Because you relied on the king of Syria and did not rely on the LORD | strong="H3069" your God, the army of the king of Syria has escaped from your hand.

<sup>8</sup> Did not the Cushites and Libyans have a huge army with chariots and a very large number of horsemen? But when you relied on the LORD, he handed them over to you!

<sup>9</sup> Certainly the LORD watches the whole earth carefully and is ready to strengthen those who are devoted to him. You have acted foolishly in this matter; from now on you will have war.

<sup>10</sup> Asa was so angry at the prophet, he put him in jail. Asa also oppressed some of the people at that time.

Asa’s Reign Ends

<sup>11</sup> The events of Asa’s reign, from start to finish, are recorded in the Scroll of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

<sup>12</sup> In the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa developed a foot disease. Though his disease was severe, he did not seek the LORD, but only the doctors.

<sup>13</sup> Asa passed away in the forty-first year of his reign.

<sup>14</sup> He was buried in the tomb he had carved out in the City of David. They laid him to rest on a bier covered with spices and assorted mixtures of ointments. They made a huge bonfire to honor him.

17

<sup>2</sup> He placed troops in all of Judah’s fortified cities and posted garrisons throughout the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim that his father Asa had seized.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD made his kingdom secure; all Judah brought tribute to Jehoshaphat, and he became very wealthy and greatly respected.

<sup>6</sup> He was committed to following the LORD; he even removed the high places and Asherah poles from Judah.

<sup>7</sup> In the third year of his reign he sent his officials Ben-Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Micaiah to teach in the cities of Judah.

<sup>8</sup> They were accompanied by the Levites Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tob-Adonijah, and by the priests Elishama and Jehoram.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD put fear into all the kingdoms surrounding Judah; they did not make war with Jehoshaphat.

<sup>11</sup> Some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat tribute, including a load of silver. The Arabs brought him 7,700 rams and 7,700 goats from their flocks.

<sup>12</sup> Jehoshaphat's power kept increasing. He built fortresses and storage cities throughout Judah.

<sup>13</sup> He had many supplies stored in the cities of Judah and an army of skilled warriors stationed in Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup> These were their divisions by families:

There were a thousand officers from Judah. Adnah the commander led 300,000 skilled warriors,

<sup>16</sup> and Amasiah son of Zikri, who volunteered to serve the LORD, led 200,000 skilled warriors.

<sup>17</sup> From Benjamin, Eliada, a skilled warrior, led 200,000 men who were equipped with bows and shields,

<sup>19</sup> These were the ones who served the king, besides those whom the king placed in the fortified cities throughout Judah.

18

<sup>1</sup> Jehoshaphat was very wealthy and greatly respected. He made an alliance by marriage with Ahab, <sup>2</sup> and after several years went down to visit Ahab in Samaria. Ahab slaughtered many sheep and cattle to honor Jehoshaphat and those who came with him. He persuaded him to join in an attack against Ramoth Gilead.

<sup>3</sup> King Ahab of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to attack Ramoth Gilead?" Jehoshaphat replied to the king of Israel, "I will support you; my army is at your disposal and will support you in battle."

<sup>5</sup> So the king of Israel assembled 400 prophets and asked them, "Should we attack Ramoth Gilead or not?" They said, "Attack! God will hand it over to the king."

<sup>6</sup> But Jehoshaphat asked, "Is there not a prophet of the LORD still here, that we may ask him?"

<sup>7</sup> The king of Israel answered Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man through whom we can seek the LORD's will. But I despise him because he does not prophesy prosperity for me, but always disaster. His name is Micaiah son of Imlah. Jehoshaphat said, "The king should not say such things!"

<sup>8</sup> The king of Israel summoned an officer and said, "Quickly bring Micaiah son of Imlah."

<sup>10</sup> Zedekiah son of Kenaanah made iron horns and said, "This is what the LORD says, 'With these you will gore Syria until they are destroyed!' "

<sup>11</sup> All the prophets were prophesying the same, saying, "Attack Ramoth Gilead! You will succeed; the LORD will hand it over to the king!"

<sup>12</sup> Now the messenger who went to summon Micaiah said to him, "Look, the prophets are in complete agreement that the king will succeed. Your words must agree with theirs; you must predict success!"

<sup>13</sup> But Micaiah said, “As certainly as the LORD lives, I will say what my God tells me to say!”

<sup>14</sup> Micaiah came before the king and the king asked him, “Micaiah, should we attack Ramoth Gilead or not?” He answered him, “Attack! You will succeed; they will be handed over to you.”

<sup>15</sup> The king said to him, “How many times must I make you solemnly promise in the name of the LORD to tell me only the truth?”

<sup>16</sup> Micaiah replied, “I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains like sheep that have no shepherd. Then the LORD said, ‘They have no master. They should go home in peace.’ ”

<sup>17</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “Didn’t I tell you he does not prophesy prosperity for me, but disaster?”

<sup>19</sup> The LORD said, ‘Who will deceive King Ahab of Israel, so he will attack Ramoth Gilead and die there?’ One said this and another that.

<sup>20</sup> Then a spirit stepped forward and stood before the LORD. He said, ‘I will deceive him.’ The LORD asked him, ‘How?’

<sup>21</sup> He replied, ‘I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouths of all his prophets.’ The LORD said| strong="H0559", ‘Deceive and overpower him. Go out and do as you have proposed.’

<sup>22</sup> So now, look, the LORD has placed a lying spirit in the mouths of all these prophets of yours; but the LORD has decreed disaster for you.”

<sup>23</sup> Zedekiah son of Kenaanah approached, hit Micaiah on the jaw, and said, “Which way did the LORD’s spirit go when he went from me to speak to you?”

<sup>26</sup> Say, ‘This is what the king says: “Put this man in prison. Give him only a little bread and water until I return safely.” ’ ”

<sup>27</sup> Micaiah said, “If you really do return safely, then the LORD has not spoken through me!” Then he added, “Take note, all you people.”

<sup>29</sup> The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “I will disguise myself and then enter the battle; but you wear your royal attire.” So the king of Israel disguised himself and they entered the battle.

<sup>30</sup> Now the king of Syria had ordered his chariot commanders, “Do not fight common soldiers or high ranking officers; fight only the king of Israel!”

<sup>31</sup> When the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they said, “He must be the king of Israel!” So they turned and attacked him, but Jehoshaphat cried out. The LORD helped him; God lured them away from him.

<sup>32</sup> When the chariot commanders realized he was not the king of Israel, they turned away from him.

<sup>33</sup> Now an archer shot an arrow at random and it struck the king of Israel between the plates of his armor. The king ordered his charioteer, “Turn around and take me from the battle line, for I am wounded.”

<sup>34</sup> While the battle raged throughout the day, the king stood propped up in his chariot opposite the Syrians. He died in the evening as the sun was setting.

19

<sup>2</sup> the prophet Jehu son of Hanani confronted him; he said to King Jehoshaphat, “Is it right to help the wicked and be an ally of those who oppose the LORD? Because you have done this the LORD is angry with you!

<sup>3</sup> Nevertheless you have done some good things; you removed the Asherah poles from the land and you were determined to follow the LORD | strong="H0430".”

Jehoshaphat Appoints Judges

<sup>4</sup> Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem. He went out among the people from Beer Sheba to the hill country of Ephraim and encouraged them to follow the LORD God of their ancestors.

<sup>5</sup> He appointed judges throughout the land and in each of the fortified cities of Judah.

<sup>6</sup> He told the judges, “Be careful what you do, for you are not judging for men, but for the LORD, who will be with you when you make judicial decisions.

<sup>7</sup> Respect the LORD and make careful decisions, for the LORD our God disapproves of injustice, partiality, and bribery.”

<sup>8</sup> In Jerusalem Jehoshaphat appointed some Levites, priests, and Israelite family leaders to judge on behalf of the LORD | strong="H3069" and to settle disputes among the residents of Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup> He commanded them: “Carry out your duties with respect for the LORD, with honesty, and with pure motives.

<sup>10</sup> Whenever your countrymen who live in the cities bring a case before you (whether it involves a violent crime or other matters related to the law, commandments, rules, and regulations), warn them that they must not sin against the LORD. If you fail to do so, God will be angry with you and your colleagues; but if you obey, you will be free of guilt.

<sup>11</sup> You will report to Amariah the chief priest in all matters pertaining to the LORD’s law, and to Zebadiah son of Ishmael, the leader of the family of Judah, in all matters pertaining to the king. The Levites will serve as officials before you. Confidently carry out your duties! May the LORD be with those who do well!”

20

<sup>2</sup> Messengers arrived and reported to Jehoshaphat, “A huge army is attacking you from the other side of the Dead Sea, from the direction of Edom. Look, they are in Hazeon Tamar (that is, En Gedi).”

<sup>3</sup> Jehoshaphat was afraid, so he decided to seek the LORD’s advice. He decreed that all Judah should observe a fast.

<sup>4</sup> The people of Judah assembled to ask for the LORD’s help; they came from all the cities of Judah to ask for the LORD’s help.

<sup>6</sup> He prayed: “O LORD God of our ancestors, you are the God who lives in heaven and rules over all the kingdoms of the nations. You possess strength and power; no one can stand against you.

<sup>7</sup> Our God, you drove out the inhabitants of this land before your people Israel and gave it as a permanent possession to the descendants of your friend Abraham.

<sup>8</sup> They settled down in it and built in it a temple to honor you, saying,

<sup>9</sup> ‘If disaster comes on us in the form of military attack, judgment, plague, or famine, we will stand in front of this temple before you, for you are present in this temple. We will cry out to you for help in our distress, so that you will hear and deliver us.’

<sup>10</sup> Now the Ammonites, Moabites, and men from Mount Seir are coming! When Israel came from the land of Egypt, you did not allow them to invade these lands. They bypassed them and did not destroy them.

<sup>11</sup> Look how they are repaying us! They come to drive us out of our allotted land which you assigned to us!

<sup>12</sup> Our God, will you not judge them? For we are powerless against this huge army that attacks us! We don't know what we should do; we look to you for help."

<sup>13</sup> All the men of Judah were standing before the LORD, along with their infants, wives, and children.

<sup>14</sup> Then in the midst of the assembly, the LORD's Spirit came upon Jachaziel son of Zechariah, son of Benaiah, son of Jeiel, son of Mattaniah, a Levite and descendant of Asaph.

<sup>15</sup> He said: "Pay attention, all you people of Judah, residents of Jerusalem, and King Jehoshaphat! This is what the LORD says to you: 'Don't be afraid and don't panic because of this huge army! For the battle is not yours, but God's.

<sup>16</sup> Tomorrow march down against them as they come up the Ascent of Ziz. You will find them at the end of the ravine in front of the Desert of Jeruel.

<sup>17</sup> You will not fight in this battle. Take your positions, stand, and watch the LORD deliver you, O Judah and Jerusalem. Don't be afraid and don't panic! Tomorrow march out toward them; the LORD is with you!' "

<sup>18</sup> Jehoshaphat bowed down with his face toward the ground, and all the people of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem fell down before the LORD and worshiped him.

<sup>19</sup> Then some Levites, from the Kohathites and Korahites, got up and loudly praised the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>20</sup> Early the next morning they marched out to the Desert of Tekoa. When they were ready to march, Jehoshaphat stood up and said: "Listen to me, you people of Judah and residents of Jerusalem! Trust in the LORD your God and you will be safe! Trust in the message of his prophets and you will win."

<sup>21</sup> He met with the people and appointed musicians to play before the LORD and praise his majestic splendor. As they marched ahead of the warriors they said: "Give thanks to the LORD, for his loyal love endures."

<sup>22</sup> When they began to shout and praise, the LORD suddenly attacked the Ammonites, Moabites, and men from Mount Seir who were invading Judah, and they were defeated.

<sup>23</sup> The Ammonites and Moabites attacked the men from Mount Seir and annihilated them. When they had finished off the men of Seir, they attacked and destroyed one another.

<sup>24</sup> When the men of Judah arrived at the observation post overlooking the desert and looked at the huge army, they saw dead bodies on the ground; there were no survivors!

<sup>25</sup> Jehoshaphat and his men went to gather the plunder; they found a huge amount of supplies, clothing and valuable items. They carried away everything they could. There was so much plunder, it took them three days to haul it off.

<sup>26</sup> On the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Berachah, where they praised the LORD. So that place is called the Valley of Berachah to this very day.

<sup>27</sup> Then all the men of Judah and Jerusalem returned joyfully to Jerusalem with Jehoshaphat leading them; the LORD | strong="H3069" had given them reason to rejoice over their enemies.

<sup>28</sup> They entered Jerusalem to the sound of stringed instruments and trumpets and proceeded to the temple of the LORD.

<sup>29</sup> All the kingdoms of the surrounding lands were afraid of God when they heard how the LORD had fought against Israel's enemies.

<sup>30</sup> Jehoshaphat's kingdom enjoyed peace; his God made him secure on every side.

Jehoshaphat's Reign Ends

<sup>31</sup> Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he became king and he reigned for twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi.

<sup>32</sup> He followed in his father Asa's footsteps and was careful to do what the LORD approved.

<sup>33</sup> However, the high places were not eliminated; the people were still not devoted to the God of their ancestors.

<sup>35</sup> Later King Jehoshaphat of Judah made an alliance with King Ahaziah of Israel, who did evil.

<sup>36</sup> They agreed to make large seagoing merchant ships; they built the ships in Ezion Geber.

<sup>37</sup> Eliezer son of Dodavahu from Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, "Because you made an alliance with Ahaziah, the LORD will shatter what you have made." The ships were wrecked and unable to go to sea.

21

<sup>1</sup> Jehoshaphat passed away and was buried with his ancestors in the City of David. His son Jehoram replaced him as king.

Jehoram's Reign

<sup>2</sup> His brothers, Jehoshaphat's sons, were Azariah, Jechiel, Zechariah, Azariah, Michael, and Shephatiah. All of these were sons of King Jehoshaphat of Israel.

<sup>3</sup> Their father gave them many presents, including silver, gold, and other precious items, along with fortified cities in Judah. But he gave the kingdom to Jehoram because he was the firstborn.

<sup>4</sup> Jehoram took control of his father's kingdom and became powerful. Then he killed all his brothers, as well as some of the officials of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king and he reigned for eight years in Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup> He followed in the footsteps of the kings of Israel, just as Ahab's dynasty had done, for he married Ahab's daughter. He did evil in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> But the LORD was unwilling to destroy David's dynasty because of the promise he had made to give David a perpetual dynasty.

<sup>9</sup> Jehoram crossed over to Zair with his officers and all his chariots. The Edomites, who had surrounded him, attacked at night and defeated him and his chariot officers.

<sup>10</sup> So Edom has remained free from Judah's control to this very day. At that same time Libnah also rebelled and freed themselves from Judah's control because Jehoram rejected the LORD God of his ancestors.

<sup>11</sup> He also built high places on the hills of Judah; he encouraged the residents of Jerusalem to be unfaithful to the LORD and led Judah away from the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> Jehoram received this letter from Elijah the prophet: "This is what the LORD God of your ancestor David says: 'You have not followed in the footsteps of your father Jehoshaphat and of King Asa of Judah,

<sup>13</sup> but have instead followed in the footsteps of the kings of Israel. You encouraged the people of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem to be unfaithful to the LORD, just as the family| strong="H1004" of Ahab does in Israel. You also killed your brothers, members of your father's family, who were better than you.

<sup>14</sup> So look, the LORD is about to severely afflict your people, your sons, your wives, and all you own.

<sup>15</sup> And you will get a serious, chronic intestinal disease which will cause your intestines to come out."

<sup>17</sup> They attacked Judah and swept through it. They carried off everything they found in the royal palace, including his sons and wives. None of his sons was left, except for his youngest, Ahaziah.

<sup>19</sup> After about two years his intestines came out because of the disease, so that he died a very painful death. His people did not make a bonfire to honor him, as they had done for his ancestors.

<sup>20</sup> Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. No one regretted his death; he was buried in the City of David, but not in the royal tombs.

22

<sup>1</sup> The residents of Jerusalem made his youngest son Ahaziah king in his place, for the raiding party that invaded the city with the Arabs had killed all the older sons. So Ahaziah son of Jehoram became king of Judah.

<sup>5</sup> He followed their advice and joined Ahab's son King Joram of Israel in a battle against King Hazael of Syria at Ramoth Gilead in which the Syrians defeated Joram.

<sup>6</sup> Joram returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds he received from the Syrians in Ramah when he fought against King Hazael of Syria. Ahaziah son of King Jehoram of Judah went down to visit Joram son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he had been wounded.

<sup>7</sup> God brought about Ahaziah's downfall through his visit to Joram. When Ahaziah arrived, he went out with Joram to meet Jehu son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had commissioned to wipe out Ahab's family.

<sup>8</sup> While Jehu was dishing out punishment to Ahab's family, he discovered the officials of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's relatives who were serving Ahaziah and killed them.

<sup>9</sup> He looked for Ahaziah, who was captured while hiding in Samaria. They brought him to Jehu and then executed him. They did give him a burial, for they reasoned, "He is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with his whole heart." There was no one in Ahaziah's family strong enough to rule in his place.

Athaliah is Eliminated

<sup>10</sup> When Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she was determined to destroy the entire royal line of Judah.

<sup>11</sup> So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of King Jehoram, took Ahaziah's son Joash and sneaked him away from the rest of the royal descendants who were to be executed. She hid him and his nurse in the room where the bed covers were stored. So Jehoshabeath the daughter of King Jehoram, wife of Jehoiada the priest and sister of Ahaziah, hid him from Athaliah so she could not execute him.

<sup>12</sup> He remained in hiding in God's temple for six years, while Athaliah was ruling over the land.

23

<sup>1</sup> In the seventh year Jehoiada made a bold move. He made a pact with the officers of the units of hundreds: Azariah son of Jehoram, Ishmael son of Jehochanan, Azariah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat son of Zikri.

<sup>2</sup> They traveled throughout Judah and assembled the Levites from all the cities of Judah, as well as the Israelite family leaders.

They came to Jerusalem,

<sup>3</sup> and the whole assembly made a covenant with the king in the temple of God. Jehoiada said to them, "The king's son will rule, just as the LORD | strong="H3069" promised David's descendants.

<sup>4</sup> This is what you must do. One third of you priests and Levites who are on duty during the Sabbath will guard the doors.

<sup>5</sup> Another third of you will be stationed at the royal palace and still another third at the Foundation Gate. All the others will stand in the courtyards of the LORD's temple.

<sup>6</sup> No one must enter the LORD's temple except the priests and Levites who are on duty. They may enter because they are ceremonially pure. All the others should carry out their assigned service to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> The Levites must surround the king. Each of you must hold his weapon in his hand. Whoever tries to enter the temple must be killed. You must accompany the king wherever he goes."

<sup>8</sup> The Levites and all the men of Judah did just as Jehoiada the priest ordered. Each of them took his men, those who were on duty during the Sabbath as well as those who were off duty on the Sabbath. Jehoiada the priest did not release his divisions from their duties.

<sup>9</sup> Jehoiada the priest gave to the officers of the units of hundreds King David's spears and shields that were kept in God's temple.

<sup>10</sup> He placed the men at their posts, each holding his weapon in his hand. They lined up from the south side of the temple to the north side and stood near the altar and the temple, surrounding the king.

<sup>11</sup> Jehoiada and his sons led out the king's son and placed on him the crown and the royal insignia. They proclaimed him king and poured olive oil on his head. They declared, "Long live the king!"

<sup>13</sup> Then she saw the king standing by his pillar at the entrance. The officers and trumpeters stood beside the king and all the people of the land were celebrating and blowing trumpets, and the musicians with various instruments were leading the celebration. Athaliah tore her clothes and yelled, "Treason! Treason!"

<sup>14</sup> Jehoiada the priest sent out the officers of the units of hundreds, who were in charge of the army, and ordered them, "Bring her outside the temple to the guards. Put the sword to anyone who follows her." The priest gave this order because he had decided she should not be executed in the LORD's temple.

<sup>15</sup> They seized her and took her into the precincts of the royal palace through the horses' entrance. There they executed her.

<sup>16</sup> Jehoiada then drew up a covenant stipulating that he, all the people, and the king should be loyal to the LORD.

<sup>17</sup> All the people went and demolished the temple of Baal. They smashed its altars and idols. They killed Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altars.

<sup>18</sup> Jehoiada then assigned the duties of the LORD's temple to the priests, the Levites whom David had assigned to the LORD's temple. They were responsible for offering burnt sacrifices to the LORD with joy and music, according to the law of Moses and the edict of David.

<sup>19</sup> He posted guards at the gates of the LORD's temple, so no one who was ceremonially unclean in any way could enter.

<sup>20</sup> He summoned the officers of the units of hundreds, the nobles, the rulers of the people, and all the people of land, and he then led the king down from the LORD's temple. They entered the royal palace through the Upper Gate and seated the king on the royal throne.

<sup>21</sup> All the people of the land celebrated, for the city had rest now that they had killed Athaliah.

24

<sup>2</sup> Joash did what the LORD approved throughout the lifetime of Jehoiada the priest.

<sup>3</sup> Jehoiada chose two wives for him who gave him sons and daughters.

<sup>5</sup> He assembled the priests and Levites and ordered them, "Go out to the cities of Judah and collect the annual quota of silver from all Israel for repairs on the temple of your God. Be quick about it!" But the Levites delayed.

<sup>6</sup> So the king summoned Jehoiada the chief priest, and said to him, "Why have you not made the Levites collect from Judah and Jerusalem the tax authorized by Moses the LORD's servant and by the assembly of Israel at the tent containing the tablets of the law?"

<sup>8</sup> The king ordered a chest to be made and placed outside the gate of the LORD's temple.

<sup>9</sup> An edict was sent throughout Judah and Jerusalem requiring the people to bring to the LORD the tax that Moses, God's servant, imposed on Israel in the wilderness.

<sup>10</sup> All the officials and all the people gladly brought their silver and threw it into the chest until it was full.

<sup>11</sup> Whenever the Levites brought the chest to the royal accountant and they saw there was a lot of silver, the royal scribe and the accountant of the high priest emptied the chest and then took it back to its place. They went through this routine every day and collected a large amount of silver.

<sup>12</sup> The king and Jehoiada gave it to the construction foremen assigned to the LORD's temple. They hired carpenters and craftsmen to repair the LORD's temple, as well as those skilled in working with iron and bronze to restore the LORD's temple.

<sup>13</sup> They worked hard and made the repairs. They followed the measurements specified for God's temple and restored it.

<sup>14</sup> When they were finished, they brought the rest of the silver to the king and Jehoiada. They used it to make items for the LORD's temple, including items used in the temple service and for burnt sacrifices, pans, and various other gold and silver items. Throughout Jehoiada's lifetime, burnt sacrifices were offered regularly in the LORD's temple.

<sup>16</sup> He was buried in the City of David with the kings, because he had accomplished good in Israel and for God and his temple.

<sup>17</sup> After Jehoiada died, the officials of Judah visited the king and declared their loyalty to him. The king listened to their advice.

<sup>18</sup> They abandoned the temple of the LORD God of their ancestors, and worshiped the Asherah poles and idols. Because of this sinful activity, God was angry with Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup> The LORD sent prophets among them to lead them back to him. They warned the people, but they would not pay attention.

<sup>20</sup> God's Spirit energized Zechariah son of Jehoiada the priest. He stood up before the people and said to them, "This is what God says: 'Why are you violating the commands of the LORD? You will not be prosperous! Because you have rejected the LORD, he has rejected you!'"

<sup>21</sup> They plotted against him and by royal decree stoned him to death in the courtyard of the LORD's temple.

<sup>22</sup> King Joash disregarded the loyalty his father Jehoiada had shown him and killed Jehoiada's son. As Zechariah was dying, he said, "May the LORD take notice and seek vengeance!"

<sup>23</sup> At the beginning of the year the Syrian army attacked Joash and invaded Judah and Jerusalem. They wiped out all the leaders of the people and sent all the plunder they gathered to the king of Damascus.

<sup>24</sup> Even though the invading Syrian army was relatively weak, the LORD handed over to them Judah's very large army, for the people of Judah had abandoned the LORD God of their ancestors. The Syrians gave Joash what he deserved.

<sup>25</sup> When they withdrew, they left Joash badly wounded. His servants plotted against him because of what he had done to the son of Jehoiada the priest. They murdered him on his bed. Thus he died and was buried in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

<sup>26</sup> The conspirators were Zabad son of Shimeath (an Ammonite woman) and Jehozabad son of Shimrith (a Moabite woman).

<sup>27</sup> The list of Joash's sons, the many prophetic oracles pertaining to him, and the account of his building project on God's temple are included in the record of the Scroll of the Kings. His son Amaziah replaced him as king.

25

<sup>1</sup> Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother was Jehoaddan, who was from Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> When he had secured control of the kingdom, he executed the servants who had assassinated his father.

<sup>4</sup> However, he did not execute their sons. He obeyed the LORD's commandment as recorded in the law scroll of Moses, "Fathers must not be executed for what their sons do, and sons must not be executed for what their fathers do. A man must be executed only for his own sin."

<sup>5</sup> Amaziah assembled the people of Judah and assigned them by families to the commanders of units of a thousand and the commanders of units of a hundred for all Judah and Benjamin. He counted those twenty years old and up and discovered there were 300,000 young men of fighting age equipped with spears and shields.

<sup>7</sup> But a prophet visited him and said: "O king, the Israelite troops must not go with you, for the LORD | strong="H3069" is not with Israel or any of the Ephraimites.

<sup>8</sup> Even if you go and fight bravely in battle, God will defeat you before the enemy. God is capable of helping or defeating."

<sup>9</sup> Amaziah asked the prophet: "But what should I do about the hundred talents of silver I paid the Israelite troops?" The prophet replied, "The LORD is capable of giving you more than that."

<sup>10</sup> So Amaziah dismissed the troops that had come to him from Ephraim and sent them home. They were very angry at Judah and returned home incensed.

<sup>11</sup> Amaziah boldly led his army to the Valley of Salt, where he defeated 10,000 Edomites.

<sup>12</sup> The men of Judah captured 10,000 men alive. They took them to the top of a cliff and threw them over. All the captives fell to their death.

<sup>13</sup> Now the troops Amaziah had dismissed and had not allowed to fight in the battle raided the cities of Judah from Samaria to Beth Horon. They killed 3,000 people and carried off a large amount of plunder.

<sup>14</sup> When Amaziah returned from defeating the Edomites, he brought back the gods of the people of Seir and made them his personal gods. He bowed down before them and offered them sacrifices.

<sup>15</sup> The LORD was angry at Amaziah and sent a prophet to him, who said, "Why are you following these gods that could not deliver their own people from your power?"

<sup>16</sup> While he was speaking, Amaziah said to him, "Did we appoint you to be a royal counselor? Stop prophesying or else you will be killed!" So the prophet stopped, but added, "I know that the LORD has decided to destroy you, because you have done this thing and refused to listen to my advice."

<sup>17</sup> After King Amaziah of Judah consulted with his advisers, he sent this message to the king of Israel, Joash son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, "Come, face me on the battlefield."

<sup>18</sup> King Joash of Israel sent this message back to King Amaziah of Judah, "A thorn bush in Lebanon sent this message to a cedar in Lebanon, 'Give your daughter to my son as a wife.' Then a wild animal of Lebanon came by and trampled down the thorn bush."

<sup>19</sup> You defeated Edom and it has gone to your head. Gloat over your success, but stay in your palace. Why bring calamity on yourself? Why bring down yourself and Judah along with you?"

<sup>20</sup> But Amaziah did not heed the warning, for God wanted to hand them over to Joash because they followed the gods of Edom.

<sup>21</sup> So King Joash of Israel attacked. He and King Amaziah of Judah faced each other on the battlefield in Beth Shemesh of Judah.

<sup>23</sup> King Joash of Israel captured King Amaziah of Judah, son of Joash son of Jehoahaz, in Beth Shemesh and brought him to Jerusalem. He broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate – a distance of about six hundred feet.

<sup>24</sup> He took away all the gold and silver, all the items found in God's temple that were in the care of Obed-Edom, the riches in the royal palace, and some hostages. Then he went back to Samaria.

<sup>26</sup> The rest of the events of Amaziah's reign, from start to finish, are recorded in the Scroll of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

<sup>27</sup> From the time Amaziah turned from following the LORD, conspirators plotted against him in Jerusalem, so he fled to Lachish. But they sent assassins after him and they killed him there.

<sup>28</sup> His body was carried back by horses, and he was buried in Jerusalem with his ancestors in the City of David.

26

<sup>1</sup> All the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in his father Amaziah's place.

<sup>3</sup> Uzziah was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecholiah, who was from Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup> He did what the LORD approved, just as his father Amaziah had done.

<sup>5</sup> He followed God during the lifetime of Zechariah, who taught him how to honor God. As long as he followed the LORD, God caused him to succeed.

<sup>6</sup> Uzziah attacked the Philistines and broke down the walls of Gath, Jabneh, and Ashdod. He built cities in the region of Ashdod and throughout Philistine territory.

<sup>7</sup> God helped him in his campaigns against the Philistines, the Arabs living in Gur Baal, and the Meunites.

<sup>8</sup> The Ammonites paid tribute to Uzziah and his fame reached the border of Egypt, for he grew in power.

<sup>10</sup> He built towers in the desert and dug many cisterns, for he owned many herds in the lowlands and on the plain. He had workers in the fields and vineyards in the hills and in Carmel, for he loved agriculture.

<sup>11</sup> Uzziah had an army of skilled warriors trained for battle. They were organized by divisions according to the muster rolls made by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer under the authority of Hananiah, a royal official.

<sup>12</sup> The total number of family leaders who led warriors was 2,600.

<sup>13</sup> They commanded an army of 307,500 skilled and able warriors who were ready to defend the king against his enemies.

<sup>15</sup> In Jerusalem he made war machines carefully designed to shoot arrows and large stones from the towers and corners of the walls. He became very famous, for he received tremendous support and became powerful.

<sup>16</sup> But once he became powerful, his pride destroyed him. He disobeyed the LORD his God. He entered the LORD's temple to offer incense on the incense altar.

<sup>17</sup> Azariah the priest and eighty other brave priests of the LORD followed him in.

<sup>18</sup> They confronted King Uzziah and said to him, "It is not proper for you, Uzziah, to offer incense to the LORD. That is the responsibility of the priests, the descendants of Aaron, who are consecrated to offer incense. Leave the sanctuary, for you have disobeyed and the LORD God will not honor you!"

<sup>19</sup> Uzziah, who had an incense censer in his hand, became angry. While he was ranting and raving at the priests, a skin disease appeared on his forehead right there in front of the priests in the LORD's temple near the incense altar.

<sup>20</sup> When Azariah the high priest and the other priests looked at him, there was a skin disease on his forehead. They hurried him out of there; even the king himself wanted to leave quickly because the LORD had afflicted him.

<sup>21</sup> King Uzziah suffered from a skin disease until the day he died. He lived in separate quarters, afflicted by a skin disease and banned from the LORD's temple. His son Jotham was in charge of the palace and ruled over the people of the land.

<sup>22</sup> The rest of the events of Uzziah's reign, from start to finish, were recorded by the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.

<sup>23</sup> Uzziah passed away and was buried near his ancestors in a cemetery belonging to the kings. (This was because he had a skin disease.) His son Jotham replaced him as king.

27

<sup>1</sup> Jotham was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok.

<sup>2</sup> He did what the LORD approved, just as his father Uzziah had done. (He did not, however, have the audacity to enter the temple.) Yet the people were still sinning.

<sup>3</sup> He built the Upper Gate to the LORD's temple and did a lot of work on the wall in the area known as Ophel.

<sup>4</sup> He built cities in the hill country of Judah and fortresses and towers in the forests.

<sup>5</sup> He launched a military campaign against the king of the Ammonites and defeated them. That year the Ammonites paid him 100 talents of silver, 10,000 kors of wheat, and 10,000 kors of barley. The Ammonites also paid this same amount of annual tribute the next two years.

<sup>6</sup> Jotham grew powerful because he was determined to please the LORD | strong="H3069" his God.

<sup>7</sup> The rest of the events of Jotham's reign, including all his military campaigns and his accomplishments, are recorded in the scroll of the kings of Israel and Judah.

<sup>8</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for sixteen years in Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup> Jotham passed away and was buried in the City of David. His son Ahaz replaced him as king.

28

<sup>2</sup> He followed in the footsteps of the kings of Israel; he also made images of the Baals.

<sup>3</sup> He offered sacrifices in the Valley of Ben-Hinnom and passed his sons through the fire, a horrible sin practiced by the nations whom the LORD drove out before the Israelites.

<sup>4</sup> He offered sacrifices and burned incense on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD his God handed him over to the king of Syria. The Syrians defeated him and deported many captives to Damascus. He was also handed over to the king of Israel, who thoroughly defeated him.

<sup>6</sup> In one day King Pekah son of Remaliah of Israel killed 120,000 warriors in Judah, because they had abandoned the LORD God of their ancestors.

<sup>7</sup> Zikri, an Ephraimite warrior, killed the king's son Maaseiah, Azrikam, the supervisor of the palace, and Elkanah, the king's second-in-command.

<sup>8</sup> The Israelites seized from their brothers 200,000 wives, sons, and daughters. They also carried off a huge amount of plunder and took it back to Samaria.

<sup>9</sup> Oded, a prophet of the LORD, was there. He went to meet the army as they arrived in Samaria and said to them: "Look, because the LORD God of your ancestors was angry with Judah he handed them over to you. You have killed them so mercilessly that God has taken notice.

<sup>10</sup> And now you are planning to enslave the people of Judah and Jerusalem. Yet are you not also guilty before the LORD your God?

<sup>11</sup> Now listen to me! Send back those you have seized from your brothers, for the LORD | strong="H3069" is very angry at you!"

<sup>12</sup> So some of the Ephraimite family leaders, Azariah son of Jehochanan, Berechiah son of Meshillemoth, Jechizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai confronted those returning from the battle.

<sup>13</sup> They said to them, “Don’t bring those captives here! Are you planning on making us even more sinful and guilty before the LORD? Our guilt is already great and the LORD is very | strong=“H2740” angry at Israel.”

<sup>14</sup> So the soldiers released the captives and the plunder before the officials and the entire assembly.

<sup>15</sup> Men were assigned to take the prisoners and find clothes among the plunder for those who were naked. So they clothed them, supplied them with sandals, gave them food and drink, and provided them with oil to rub on their skin. They put the ones who couldn’t walk on donkeys. They brought them back to their brothers at Jericho, the city of the date palm trees, and then returned to Samaria.

<sup>18</sup> The Philistines had raided the cities of Judah in the lowlands and the Negev. They captured and settled in Beth Shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Soco and its surrounding villages, Timnah and its surrounding villages, and Gimzo and its surrounding villages.

<sup>19</sup> The LORD humiliated Judah because of King Ahaz of Israel, for he encouraged Judah to sin and was very unfaithful to the LORD.

<sup>20</sup> King Tiglath-pileser of Assyria came, but he gave him more trouble than support.

<sup>21</sup> Ahaz gathered riches from the LORD’s temple, the royal palace, and the officials and gave them to the king of Assyria, but that did not help.

<sup>23</sup> He offered sacrifices to the gods of Damascus whom he thought had defeated him. He reasoned, “Since the gods of the kings of Damascus helped them, I will sacrifice to them so they will help me.” But they caused him and all Israel to stumble.

<sup>24</sup> Ahaz gathered the items in God’s temple and removed them. He shut the doors of the LORD’s temple and erected altars on every street corner in Jerusalem.

<sup>25</sup> In every city throughout Judah he set up high places to offer sacrifices to other gods. He angered the LORD God of his ancestors.

<sup>26</sup> The rest of the events of Ahaz’s reign, including his accomplishments from start to finish, are recorded in the Scroll of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

<sup>27</sup> Ahaz passed away and was buried in the City of David; they did not bring him to the tombs of the kings of Israel. His son Hezekiah replaced him as king.

29

<sup>1</sup> Hezekiah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah.

<sup>3</sup> In the first month of the first year of his reign, he opened the doors of the LORD’s temple and repaired them.

<sup>4</sup> He brought in the priests and Levites and assembled them in the square on the east side.

<sup>5</sup> He said to them: “Listen to me, you Levites! Now consecrate yourselves, so you can consecrate the temple of the LORD God of your ancestors! Remove from the sanctuary what is ceremonially unclean!

<sup>6</sup> For our fathers were unfaithful; they did what is evil in the sight of the LORD our God and abandoned him! They turned away from the LORD’s dwelling place and rejected him.

<sup>7</sup> They closed the doors of the temple porch and put out the lamps; they did not offer incense or burnt sacrifices in the sanctuary of the God of Israel.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD was angry at Judah and Jerusalem and made them an appalling object of horror at which people hiss out their scorn, as you can see with your own eyes.

<sup>9</sup> Look, our fathers died violently and our sons, daughters, and wives were carried off because of this.

<sup>10</sup> Now I intend to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, so that he may relent from his raging anger.

<sup>11</sup> My sons, do not be negligent now, for the LORD | strong="H3069" has chosen you to serve in his presence and offer sacrifices."

<sup>12</sup> The following Levites prepared to carry out the king's orders:

From the Kohathites: Mahath son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah; from the Merarites: Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallelel; from the Gershonites: Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joah;

<sup>13</sup> from the descendants of Elizaphan: Shimri and Jeiel;

from the descendants of Asaph: Zechariah and Mattaniah;

<sup>14</sup> from the descendants of Heman: Jehiel and Shimei; from the descendants of Jeduthun: Shemaiah and Uzziel.

<sup>15</sup> They assembled their brothers and consecrated themselves. Then they went in to purify the LORD's temple, just as the king had ordered, in accordance with the word of the LORD.

<sup>16</sup> The priests then entered the LORD's temple to purify it; they brought out to the courtyard of the LORD's temple every ceremonially unclean thing they discovered inside. The Levites took them out to the Kidron Valley.

<sup>17</sup> On the first day of the first month they began consecrating; by the eighth day of the month they reached the porch of the LORD's temple. For eight more days they consecrated the LORD's temple. On the sixteenth day of the first month they were finished.

<sup>18</sup> They went to King Hezekiah and said: "We have purified the entire temple of the LORD, including the altar of burnt sacrifice and all its equipment, and the table for the Bread of the Presence and all its equipment.

<sup>19</sup> We have prepared and consecrated all the items that King Ahaz removed during his reign when he acted unfaithfully. They are in front of the altar of the LORD."

<sup>20</sup> Early the next morning King Hezekiah assembled the city officials and went up to the LORD's temple.

<sup>21</sup> They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven goats as a sin offering for the kingdom, the sanctuary, and Judah. The king told the priests, the descendants of Aaron, to offer burnt sacrifices on the altar of the LORD.

<sup>22</sup> They slaughtered the bulls, and the priests took the blood and splashed it on the altar. Then they slaughtered the rams and splashed the blood on the altar; next they slaughtered the lambs and splashed the blood on the altar.

<sup>23</sup> Finally they brought the goats for the sin offering before the king and the assembly, and they placed their hands on them.

<sup>24</sup> Then the priests slaughtered them. They offered their blood as a sin offering on the altar to make atonement for all Israel, because the king had decreed that the burnt sacrifice and sin offering were for all Israel.

<sup>27</sup> Hezekiah ordered the burnt sacrifice to be offered on the altar. As they began to offer the sacrifice, they also began to sing to the LORD, accompanied by the trumpets and the musical instruments of King David of Israel.

<sup>28</sup> The entire assembly worshiped, as the singers sang and the trumpeters played. They continued until the burnt sacrifice was completed.

<sup>29</sup> When the sacrifices were completed, the king and all who were with him bowed down and worshiped.

<sup>30</sup> King Hezekiah and the officials told the Levites to praise the LORD, using the psalms of David and Asaph the prophet. So they joyfully offered praise and bowed down and worshiped.

<sup>31</sup> Hezekiah said, "Now you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD. Come and bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the LORD's temple." So the assembly brought sacrifices and thank offerings, and whoever desired to do so brought burnt sacrifices.

<sup>32</sup> The assembly brought a total of 70 bulls, 100 rams, and 200 lambs as burnt sacrifices to the LORD, <sup>33</sup> and 600 bulls and 3,000 sheep were consecrated.

<sup>34</sup> But there were not enough priests to skin all the animals, so their brothers, the Levites, helped them until the work was finished and the priests could consecrate themselves. (The Levites had been more conscientious about consecrating themselves than the priests.)

<sup>35</sup> There was a large number of burnt sacrifices, as well as fat from the peace offerings and drink offerings that accompanied the burnt sacrifices. So the service of the LORD's temple was reinstituted.

<sup>36</sup> Hezekiah and all the people were happy about what God had done for them, for it had been done quickly.

30

<sup>1</sup> Hezekiah sent messages throughout Israel and Judah; he even wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, summoning them to come to the LORD's temple in Jerusalem and observe a Passover celebration for the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>2</sup> The king, his officials, and the entire assembly in Jerusalem decided to observe the Passover in the second month.

<sup>3</sup> They were unable to observe it at the regular time because not enough priests had consecrated themselves and the people had not assembled in Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup> The proposal seemed appropriate to the king and the entire assembly.

<sup>5</sup> So they sent an edict throughout Israel from Beer Sheba to Dan, summoning the people to come and observe a Passover for the LORD God of Israel in Jerusalem, for they had not observed it on a nationwide scale as prescribed in the law.

<sup>6</sup> Messengers delivered the letters from the king and his officials throughout Israel and Judah.

This royal edict read: "O Israelites, return to the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, so he may return to you who have been spared from the kings of Assyria.

<sup>7</sup> Don't be like your fathers and brothers who were unfaithful to the LORD God of their ancestors, provoking him to destroy them, as you can see.

<sup>8</sup> Now, don't be stubborn like your fathers! Submit to the LORD and come to his sanctuary which he has permanently consecrated. Serve the LORD your God so that he might relent from his raging anger.

<sup>9</sup> For if you return to the LORD, your brothers and sons will be shown mercy by their captors and return to this land. The LORD your God is merciful and compassionate; he will not reject you if you return to him."

<sup>10</sup> The messengers journeyed from city to city through the land of Ephraim and Manasseh as far as Zebulun, but people mocked and ridiculed them.

<sup>11</sup> But some men from Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.

<sup>12</sup> In Judah God moved the people to unite and carry out the edict the king and the officers had issued at the LORD's command.

<sup>13</sup> A huge crowd assembled in Jerusalem to observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month.

<sup>14</sup> They removed the altars in Jerusalem; they also removed all the incense altars and threw them into the Kidron Valley.

<sup>15</sup> They slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and Levites were ashamed, so they consecrated themselves and brought burnt sacrifices to the LORD's temple.

<sup>16</sup> They stood at their posts according to the regulations outlined in the law of Moses, the man of God. The priests were splashing the blood as the Levites handed it to them.

<sup>17</sup> Because many in the assembly had not consecrated themselves, the Levites slaughtered the Passover lambs of all who were ceremonially unclean and could not consecrate their sacrifice to the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> The majority of the many people from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun were ceremonially unclean, yet they ate the Passover in violation of what is prescribed in the law. For Hezekiah prayed for them, saying: "May the LORD, who is good, forgive

<sup>19</sup> everyone who has determined to follow God, the LORD God of his ancestors, even if he is not ceremonially clean according to the standards of the temple."

<sup>21</sup> The Israelites who were in Jerusalem observed the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with great joy. The Levites and priests were praising the LORD every day with all their might.

<sup>22</sup> Hezekiah expressed his appreciation to all the Levites, who demonstrated great skill in serving the LORD. They feasted for the seven days of the festival, and were making peace offerings and giving thanks to the LORD God of their ancestors.

<sup>23</sup> The entire assembly then decided to celebrate for seven more days; so they joyfully celebrated for seven more days.

<sup>24</sup> King Hezekiah of Judah supplied 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep for the assembly, while the officials supplied them with 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep. Many priests consecrated themselves.

<sup>25</sup> The celebration included the entire assembly of Judah, the priests, the Levites, the entire assembly of those who came from Israel, the resident foreigners who came from the land of Israel, and the residents of Judah.

<sup>26</sup> There was a great celebration in Jerusalem, unlike anything that had occurred in Jerusalem since the time of King Solomon son of David of Israel.

<sup>27</sup> The priests and Levites got up and pronounced blessings on the people. The LORD responded|strong="H8085" favorably to them as their prayers reached his holy dwelling place in heaven.

31

<sup>1</sup> When all this was over, the Israelites who were in the cities of Judah went out and smashed the sacred pillars, cut down the Asherah poles, and demolished all the high places and altars throughout Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh. Then all the Israelites returned to their own homes in their cities.

The People Contribute to the Temple

<sup>2</sup> Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and Levites to do their assigned tasks – to offer burnt sacrifices and present offerings and to serve, give thanks, and offer praise in the gates of the LORD's sanctuary.

<sup>3</sup> The king contributed some of what he owned for burnt sacrifices, including the morning and evening burnt sacrifices and the burnt sacrifices made on Sabbaths, new moon festivals, and at other appointed times prescribed in the law of the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> He ordered the people living in Jerusalem to contribute the portion prescribed for the priests and Levites so they might be obedient to the law of the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> When the edict was issued, the Israelites freely contributed the initial portion of their grain, wine, olive oil, honey, and all the produce of their fields. They brought a tenth of everything, which added up to a huge amount.

<sup>6</sup> The Israelites and people of Judah who lived in the cities of Judah also contributed a tenth of their cattle and sheep, as well as a tenth of the holy items consecrated to the LORD their God. They brought them and placed them in many heaps.

<sup>7</sup> In the third month they began piling their contributions in heaps and finished in the seventh month.

<sup>8</sup> When Hezekiah and the officials came and saw the heaps, they praised the LORD and pronounced blessings on his people Israel.

<sup>9</sup> When Hezekiah asked the priests and Levites about the heaps,

<sup>10</sup> Azariah, the head priest from the family of Zadok, said to him, "Since the contributions began arriving in the LORD's temple, we have had plenty to eat and have a large quantity left over. For the LORD has blessed his people, and this large amount remains."

<sup>11</sup> Hezekiah ordered that storerooms be prepared in the LORD's temple. When this was done, <sup>12</sup> they brought in the contributions, tithes, and consecrated items that had been offered. Konaniah, a Levite, was in charge of all this, assisted by his brother Shimei.

<sup>13</sup> Jehiel, Azariah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismakiah, Mahath, and Benaiah worked under the supervision of Konaniah and his brother Shimei, as directed by King Hezekiah and Azariah, the supervisor of God's temple.

<sup>14</sup> Kore son of Imnah, a Levite and the guard on the east side, was in charge of the voluntary offerings made to God and disbursed the contributions made to the LORD and the consecrated items.

<sup>15</sup> In the cities of the priests, Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah faithfully assisted him in making disbursements to their fellow priests according to their divisions, regardless of age.

<sup>16</sup> They made disbursements to all the males three years old and up who were listed in the genealogical records – to all who would enter the LORD's temple to serve on a daily basis and fulfill their duties as assigned to their divisions.

<sup>17</sup> They made disbursements to the priests listed in the genealogical records by their families, and to the Levites twenty years old and up, according to their duties as assigned to their divisions, <sup>18</sup> and to all the infants, wives, sons, and daughters of the entire assembly listed in the genealogical records, for they faithfully consecrated themselves.

<sup>19</sup> As for the descendants of Aaron, the priests who lived in the outskirts of all their cities, men were assigned to disburse portions to every male among the priests and to every Levite listed in the genealogical records.

<sup>20</sup> This is what Hezekiah did throughout Judah. He did what the LORD his God considered good and right and faithful.

<sup>21</sup> He wholeheartedly and successfully reinstituted service in God's temple and obedience to the law, in order to follow his God.

32

<sup>2</sup> When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had invaded and intended to attack Jerusalem, <sup>3</sup> he consulted with his advisers and military officers about stopping up the springs outside the city, and they supported him.

<sup>4</sup> A large number of people gathered together and stopped up all the springs and the stream that flowed through the district. They reasoned, "Why should the kings of Assyria come and find plenty of water?"

<sup>6</sup> He appointed military officers over the army and assembled them in the square at the city gate. He encouraged them, saying, <sup>7</sup> "Be strong and brave! Don't be afraid and don't panic because of the king of Assyria and this huge army that is with him! We have with us one who is stronger than those who are with him.

<sup>8</sup> He has with him mere human strength, but the LORD | strong="H3069" our God is with us to help us and fight our battles!" The army was encouraged by the words of King Hezekiah of Judah.

<sup>9</sup> Afterward King Sennacherib of Assyria, while attacking Lachish with all his military might, sent his messengers to Jerusalem. The message was for King Hezekiah of Judah and all the people of Judah who were in Jerusalem. It read:

<sup>10</sup> "This is what King Sennacherib of Assyria says: 'Why are you so confident that you remain in Jerusalem while it is under siege?

<sup>11</sup> Hezekiah says, 'The LORD our God will rescue us from the power of the king of Assyria.' But he is misleading you and you will die of hunger and thirst!

<sup>12</sup> Hezekiah is the one who eliminated the LORD's high places | strong="H1116" and altars and then told Judah and Jerusalem, 'At one altar you must worship and offer sacrifices.'

<sup>13</sup> Are you not aware of what I and my predecessors have done to all the nations of the surrounding lands? Have the gods of the surrounding lands actually been able to rescue their lands from my power?

<sup>14</sup> Who among all the gods of these nations whom my predecessors annihilated was able to rescue his people from my power?

<sup>15</sup> Now don't let Hezekiah deceive you or mislead you like this. Don't believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to rescue his people from my power or the power of my predecessors. So how can your gods rescue you from my power?"

<sup>17</sup> He wrote letters mocking the LORD God of Israel and insulting him with these words: "The gods of the surrounding nations could not rescue their people from my power. Neither can Hezekiah's god rescue his people from my power."

<sup>18</sup> They called out loudly in the Judahite dialect to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, trying to scare and terrify them so they could seize the city.

<sup>19</sup> They talked about the God of Jerusalem as if he were one of the man-made gods of the nations of the earth.

<sup>20</sup> King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz prayed about this and cried out to heaven.

<sup>21</sup> The LORD sent a messenger and he wiped out all the soldiers, princes, and officers in the army of the king of Assyria. So Sennacherib returned home humiliated. When he entered the temple of his god, some of his own sons struck him down with the sword.

<sup>22</sup> The LORD delivered Hezekiah and the residents of Jerusalem from the power of King Sennacherib of Assyria and from all the other nations. He made them secure on every side.

<sup>23</sup> Many were bringing presents to the LORD in Jerusalem and precious gifts to King Hezekiah of Judah. From that time on he was respected by all the nations.

Hezekiah's Shortcomings and Accomplishments

<sup>24</sup> In those days Hezekiah was stricken with a terminal illness. He prayed to the LORD, who answered him and gave him a sign confirming that he would be healed.

<sup>25</sup> But Hezekiah was ungrateful; he had a proud attitude, provoking God to be angry at him, as well as Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>26</sup> But then Hezekiah and the residents of Jerusalem humbled themselves and abandoned their pride, and the LORD was not angry with them for the rest of Hezekiah's reign.

<sup>27</sup> Hezekiah was very wealthy and greatly respected. He made storehouses for his silver, gold, precious stones, spices, and all his other valuable possessions.

<sup>28</sup> He made storerooms for the harvest of grain, wine, and olive oil, and stalls for all his various kinds of livestock and his flocks.

<sup>29</sup> He built royal cities and owned a large number of sheep and cattle, for God gave him a huge amount of possessions.

<sup>30</sup> Hezekiah dammed up the source of the waters of the Upper Gihon and directed them down to the west side of the City of David. Hezekiah succeeded in all that he did.

<sup>31</sup> So when the envoys arrived from the Babylonian officials to visit him and inquire about the sign that occurred in the land, God left him alone to test him, in order to know his true motives.

<sup>32</sup> The rest of the events of Hezekiah's reign, including his faithful deeds, are recorded in the vision of the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz, included in the Scroll of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

<sup>33</sup> Hezekiah passed away and was buried on the ascent of the tombs of the descendants of David. All the people of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem buried him with great honor. His son Manasseh replaced him as king.

33

<sup>1</sup> Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned for fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD and committed the same horrible sins practiced by the nations whom the LORD drove out ahead of the Israelites.

<sup>3</sup> He rebuilt the high places that his father Hezekiah had destroyed; he set up altars for the Baals and made Asherah poles. He bowed down to all the stars in the sky and worshiped them.

<sup>4</sup> He built altars in the LORD's temple, about which the LORD had said, "Jerusalem will be my permanent home."

<sup>5</sup> In the two courtyards of the LORD's temple he built altars for all the stars in the sky.

<sup>6</sup> He passed his sons through the fire in the Valley of Ben-Hinnom and practiced divination, omen reading, and sorcery. He set up a ritual pit to conjure up underworld spirits and appointed magicians to supervise it. He did a great amount of evil in the sight of the LORD and angered him.

<sup>7</sup> He put an idolatrous image he had made in God's temple, about which God had said to David and to his son Solomon, "This temple in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will be my permanent home."

<sup>8</sup> I will not make Israel again leave the land I gave to their ancestors, provided that they carefully obey all I commanded them, the whole law, the rules and regulations given to Moses.”

<sup>9</sup> But Manasseh misled the people of Judah and the residents of Jerusalem so that they sinned more than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed ahead of the Israelites.

<sup>12</sup> In his pain Manasseh asked the LORD his God for mercy and truly humbled himself before the God of his ancestors.

<sup>13</sup> When he prayed to the LORD, the LORD responded | strong="H6279" to him and answered favorably his cry for mercy. The LORD brought him back | strong="H7725" to Jerusalem to his kingdom. Then Manasseh realized that the LORD is the true God.

<sup>14</sup> After this Manasseh built up the outer wall of the City of David on the west side of the Gihon in the valley to the entrance of the Fish Gate and all around the terrace; he made it much higher. He placed army officers in all the fortified cities in Judah.

<sup>15</sup> He removed the foreign gods and images from the LORD's temple and all the altars he had built on the hill of the LORD's temple and in Jerusalem; he threw them outside the city.

<sup>16</sup> He erected the altar of the LORD and offered on it peace offerings and thank offerings. He told the people of Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>17</sup> The people continued to offer sacrifices at the high places, but only to the LORD their God.

<sup>18</sup> The rest of the events of Manasseh's reign, including his prayer to his God and the words the prophets spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, are recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

<sup>19</sup> The Annals of the Prophets include his prayer, give an account of how the LORD responded | strong="H6279" to it, record all his sins and unfaithful acts, and identify the sites where he built high places and erected Asherah poles and idols before he humbled himself.

<sup>20</sup> Manasseh passed away and was buried in his palace. His son Amon replaced him as king.

Amon's Reign

<sup>21</sup> Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned for two years in Jerusalem.

<sup>22</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD, just like his father Manasseh had done. He offered sacrifices to all the idols his father Manasseh had made, and worshiped them.

<sup>23</sup> He did not humble himself before the LORD as his father Manasseh had done. Amon was guilty of great sin.

<sup>25</sup> The people of the land executed all who had conspired against King Amon, and they made his son Josiah king in his place.

34

<sup>1</sup> Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned for thirty-one years in Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> In the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek the God of his ancestor David. In his twelfth year he began ridding Judah and Jerusalem of the high places, Asherah poles, idols, and images.

<sup>4</sup> He ordered the altars of the Baals to be torn down, and broke the incense altars that were above them. He smashed the Asherah poles, idols and images, crushed them up and sprinkled the dust over the tombs of those who had sacrificed to them.

<sup>5</sup> He burned the bones of the pagan priests on their altars; he purified Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup> In the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, as far as Naphtali, and in the ruins around them, <sup>7</sup> he tore down the altars and Asherah poles, demolished the idols, and smashed all the incense altars throughout the land of Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup> In the eighteenth year of his reign, he continued his policy of purifying the land and the temple. He sent Shaphan son of Azaliah, Maaseiah the city official, and Joah son of Joahaz the secretary to repair the temple of the LORD his God.

<sup>9</sup> They went to Hilkiah the high priest and gave him the silver that had been brought to God's temple. The Levites who guarded the door had collected it from the people of Manasseh and Ephraim and from all who were left in Israel, as well as from all the people of Judah and Benjamin and the residents of Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> They handed it over to the construction foremen assigned to the LORD's temple. They in turn paid the temple workers to restore and repair it.

<sup>11</sup> They gave money to the craftsmen and builders to buy chiseled stone and wood for the braces and rafters of the buildings that the kings of Judah had allowed to fall into disrepair.

<sup>12</sup> The men worked faithfully. Their supervisors were Jahath and Obadiah (Levites descended from Merari), as well as Zechariah and Meshullam (descendants of Kohath). The Levites, all of whom were skilled musicians, <sup>13</sup> supervised the laborers and all the foremen on their various jobs. Some of the Levites were scribes, officials, and guards.

<sup>14</sup> When they took out the silver that had been brought to the LORD's temple, Hilkiah the priest found the law scroll the LORD had given to Moses.

<sup>15</sup> Hilkiah informed Shaphan the scribe, "I found the law scroll in the LORD's temple." Hilkiah gave the scroll to Shaphan.

<sup>16</sup> Shaphan brought the scroll to the king and reported, "Your servants are doing everything assigned to them."

<sup>17</sup> They melted down the silver in the LORD's temple and handed it over to the supervisors of the construction foremen."

<sup>19</sup> When the king heard the words of the law scroll, he tore his clothes.

<sup>20</sup> The king ordered Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant,

<sup>21</sup> "Go, seek an oracle from the LORD for me and those who remain in Israel and Judah. Find out about the words of this scroll that has been discovered. For the LORD's fury has been ignited against us, because our ancestors have not obeyed the word of the LORD by doing all that this scroll instructs!"

<sup>22</sup> So Hilkiah and the others sent by the king went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, the supervisor of the wardrobe. (She lived in Jerusalem in the Mishneh district.) They stated their business,

<sup>23</sup> and she said to them: “This is what the LORD God of Israel says: ‘Say this to the man who sent you to me:

<sup>24</sup> “This is what the LORD says: ‘I am about to bring disaster on this place and its residents, the details of which are recorded in the scroll which they read before the king of Judah.

<sup>25</sup> This will happen because they have abandoned me and offered sacrifices to other gods, angering me with all the idols they have made. My anger will ignite against this place and will not be extinguished!’ ”

<sup>26</sup> Say this to the king of Judah, who sent you to seek an oracle from the LORD: “This is what the LORD God of Israel says concerning the words you have heard:

<sup>27</sup> ‘You displayed a sensitive spirit and humbled yourself before God when you heard his words concerning this place and its residents. You humbled yourself before me, tore your clothes and wept before me, and I have heard you,’ says the LORD.

<sup>28</sup> ‘Therefore I will allow you to die and be buried in peace. You will not have to witness all the disaster I will bring on this place and its residents.’ ” ” Then they reported back to the king.

<sup>30</sup> The king went up to the LORD’s temple, accompanied by all the people of Judah, the residents of Jerusalem, the priests, and the Levites. All the people were there, from the oldest to the youngest. He read aloud all the words of the scroll of the covenant that had been discovered in the LORD’s temple.

<sup>31</sup> The king stood by his pillar and renewed the covenant before the LORD, agreeing to follow the LORD and to obey his commandments, laws, and rules with all his heart and being, by carrying out the terms of this covenant recorded on this scroll.

<sup>32</sup> He made all who were in Jerusalem and Benjamin agree to it. The residents of Jerusalem acted in accordance with the covenant of God, the God of their ancestors.

<sup>33</sup> Josiah removed all the detestable idols from all the areas belonging to the Israelites and encouraged all who were in Israel to worship the LORD their God. Throughout the rest of his reign they did not turn aside from following the LORD God of their ancestors.

35

<sup>2</sup> He appointed the priests to fulfill their duties and encouraged them to carry out their service in the LORD’s temple.

<sup>3</sup> He told the Levites, who instructed all Israel about things consecrated to the LORD, “Place the holy ark in the temple which King Solomon son of David of Israel built. Don’t carry it on your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God and his people Israel!

<sup>4</sup> Prepare yourselves by your families according to your divisions, as instructed by King David of Israel and his son Solomon.

<sup>5</sup> Stand in the sanctuary and, together with the Levites, represent the family divisions of your countrymen.

<sup>8</sup> His officials also willingly contributed to the people, priests, and Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, the leaders of God’s temple, supplied 2,600 Passover sacrifices and 300 cattle.

<sup>9</sup> Konaniah and his brothers Shemaiah and Nethanel, along with Hashabiah, Jeiel, and Jozabad, the officials of the Levites, supplied the Levites with 5,000 Passover sacrifices and 500 cattle.

<sup>10</sup> Preparations were made, and the priests stood at their posts and the Levites in their divisions as prescribed by the king.

<sup>12</sup> They reserved the burnt offerings and the cattle for the family divisions of the people to present to the LORD, as prescribed in the scroll of Moses.

<sup>13</sup> They cooked the Passover sacrifices over the open fire as prescribed and cooked the consecrated offerings in pots, kettles, and pans. They quickly served them to all the people.

<sup>14</sup> Afterward they made preparations for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the descendants of Aaron, were offering burnt sacrifices and fat portions until evening. The Levites made preparations for themselves and for the priests, the descendants of Aaron.

<sup>15</sup> The musicians, the descendants of Asaph, manned their posts, as prescribed by David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's prophet. The guards at the various gates did not need to leave their posts, for their fellow Levites made preparations for them.

<sup>16</sup> So all the preparations for the LORD's service were made that day, as the Passover was observed and the burnt sacrifices were offered on the altar of the LORD, as prescribed by King Josiah.

<sup>17</sup> So the Israelites who were present observed the Passover at that time, as well as the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days.

<sup>18</sup> A Passover like this had not been observed in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet. None of the kings of Israel had observed a Passover like the one celebrated by Josiah, the priests, the Levites, all the people of Judah and Israel who were there, and the residents of Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup> This Passover was observed in the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign.

Josiah's Reign Ends

<sup>20</sup> After Josiah had done all this for the temple, King Necho of Egypt marched up to do battle at Carchemish on the Euphrates River. Josiah marched out to oppose him.

<sup>21</sup> Necho sent messengers to him, saying, "Why are you opposing me, O king of Judah? I am not attacking you today, but the kingdom with which I am at war. God told me to hurry. Stop opposing God, who is with me, or else he will destroy you."

<sup>22</sup> But Josiah did not turn back from him; he disguised himself for battle. He did not take seriously the words of Necho which he had received from God; he went to fight him in the Plain of Megiddo.

<sup>23</sup> Archers shot King Josiah; the king ordered his servants, "Take me out of this chariot, for I am seriously wounded."

<sup>24</sup> So his servants took him out of the chariot, put him in another chariot that he owned, and brought him to Jerusalem, where he died. He was buried in the tombs of his ancestors; all the people of Judah and Jerusalem mourned Josiah.

<sup>25</sup> Jeremiah composed laments for Josiah which all the male and female singers use to mourn Josiah to this very day. It has become customary in Israel to sing these; they are recorded in the Book of Laments.

<sup>26</sup> The rest of the events of Josiah's reign, including the faithful acts he did in obedience to what is written in the law of the LORD

36

<sup>1</sup> The people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah and made him king in his father's place in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> The king of Egypt prevented him from ruling in Jerusalem and imposed on the land a special tax of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

<sup>4</sup> The king of Egypt made Jehoahaz's brother Eliakim king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. Necho seized his brother Jehoahaz and took him to Egypt.

Jehoiakim's Reign

<sup>5</sup> Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned for eleven years in Jerusalem. He did evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

<sup>6</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon attacked him, bound him with bronze chains, and carried him away to Babylon.

<sup>7</sup> Nebuchadnezzar took some of the items in the LORD's temple to Babylon and put them in his palace there.

<sup>8</sup> The rest of the events of Jehoiakim's reign, including the horrible sins he committed and his shortcomings, are recorded in the Scroll of the Kings of Israel and Judah. His son Jehoiachin replaced him as king.

Jehoiachin's Reign

<sup>9</sup> Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem. He did evil in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> At the beginning of the year King Nebuchadnezzar ordered him to be brought to Babylon, along with the valuable items in the LORD's temple. In his place he made his relative Zedekiah king over Judah and Jerusalem.

Zedekiah's Reign

<sup>11</sup> Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he ruled for eleven years in Jerusalem.

<sup>12</sup> He did evil in the sight of the LORD his God. He did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, the LORD's spokesman.

<sup>13</sup> He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him vow allegiance in the name of God. He was stubborn and obstinate, and refused to return to the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>14</sup> All the leaders of the priests and people became more unfaithful and committed the same horrible sins practiced by the nations. They defiled the LORD's temple which he had consecrated in Jerusalem.

The Babylonians Destroy Jerusalem

<sup>15</sup> The LORD God of their ancestors continually warned them through his messengers, for he felt compassion for his people and his dwelling place.

<sup>16</sup> But they mocked God's messengers, despised his warnings, and ridiculed his prophets. Finally the LORD got very angry at his people and there was no one who could prevent his judgment.

<sup>17</sup> He brought against them the king of the Babylonians, who slaughtered their young men in their temple. He did not spare young men or women, or even the old and aging. God handed everyone over to him.

<sup>18</sup> He carried away to Babylon all the items in God's temple, whether large or small, as well as what was in the treasuries of the LORD's temple and in the treasuries of the king and his officials.

<sup>19</sup> They burned down the LORD's |strong="H0430" temple and tore down the wall of Jerusalem. They burned all its fortified buildings and destroyed all its valuable items.

<sup>20</sup> He deported to Babylon all who escaped the sword. They served him and his sons until the Persian kingdom rose to power.

<sup>21</sup> This took place to fulfill the LORD's message delivered through Jeremiah. The land experienced its sabbatical years; it remained desolate for seventy years, as prophesied.

Cyrus Allows the Exiles to Go Home

<sup>22</sup> In the first year of the reign of King Cyrus of Persia, in fulfillment of the promise he delivered through Jeremiah, the LORD moved King Cyrus of Persia to issue a written decree throughout his kingdom.

<sup>23</sup> It read: "This is what King Cyrus of Persia says: 'The LORD God of the heavens has given to me all the kingdoms of the earth. He has appointed me to build for him a temple in Jerusalem in Judah. May the LORD your God energize you who belong to his people, so you may be able to go back there!'"

Ezra

The Decree of Cyrus

" 'The LORD God of heaven has given me all the kingdoms of the earth. He has instructed me to build a temple for him in Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

<sup>3</sup> Anyone from his people among you (may his God be with him!) may go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and may build the temple of the LORD God of Israel – he is the God who is in Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup> Anyone who survives in any of those places where he is a resident foreigner must be helped by his neighbors with silver, gold, equipment, and animals, along with voluntary offerings for the temple of God which is in Jerusalem.' "

The Exiles Prepare to Return to Jerusalem

<sup>5</sup> Then the leaders of Judah and Benjamin, along with the priests and the Levites – all those whose mind God had stirred – got ready to go up in order to build the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem.

<sup>6</sup> All their neighbors assisted them with silver utensils, gold, equipment, animals, and expensive gifts, not to mention all the voluntary offerings.

<sup>8</sup> King Cyrus of Persia entrusted them to Mithredath the treasurer, who counted them out to Sheshbazzar the leader of the Judahite exiles.

<sup>9</sup> The inventory of these items was as follows:

30 gold basins,

1,000 silver basins,

29 silver utensils,

<sup>10</sup> 30 gold bowls,

410 other silver bowls,

and 1,000 other vessels.

<sup>11</sup> All these gold and silver vessels totaled 5,400. Sheshbazzar brought them all along when the captives were brought up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

2

<sup>1</sup> These are the people of the province who were going up, from the captives of the exile whom King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon had forced into exile in Babylon. They returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his own city.

<sup>2</sup> They came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, and Baanah.

The number of Israelites was as follows:

<sup>3</sup> the descendants of Parosh: 2,172;

<sup>4</sup> the descendants of Shephatiah: 372;

<sup>6</sup> the descendants of Pahath-Moab (from the line of Jeshua and Joab): 2,812;

<sup>7</sup> the descendants of Elam: 1,254;

- <sup>8</sup> the descendants of Zattu: 945;
- <sup>9</sup> the descendants of Zaccai: 760;
- <sup>10</sup> the descendants of Bani: 642;
- <sup>11</sup> the descendants of Bebai: 623;
- <sup>12</sup> the descendants of Azgad: 1,222;
- <sup>13</sup> the descendants of Adonikam: 666;
- <sup>14</sup> the descendants of Bigvai: 2,056;
- <sup>15</sup> the descendants of Adin: 454;
- <sup>16</sup> the descendants of Ater (through Hezekiah): 98;
- <sup>17</sup> the descendants of Bezai: 323;
- <sup>18</sup> the descendants of Jorah: 112;
- <sup>19</sup> the descendants of Hashum: 223;
- <sup>20</sup> the descendants of Gibbar: 95.
- <sup>21</sup> The men of Bethlehem: 123;
- <sup>22</sup> the men of Netophah: 56;
- <sup>23</sup> the men of Anathoth: 128;
- <sup>24</sup> the men of the family of Azmaveth: 42;
- <sup>25</sup> the men of Kiriath Jearim, Kephirah and Beeroth: 743;
- <sup>26</sup> the men of Ramah and Geba: 621;
- <sup>27</sup> the men of Micmash: 122;
- <sup>28</sup> the men of Bethel and Ai: 223;
- <sup>29</sup> the descendants of Nebo: 52;
- <sup>30</sup> the descendants of Magbish: 156;
- <sup>31</sup> the descendants of the other Elam: 1,254;
- <sup>32</sup> the descendants of Harim: 320;
- <sup>33</sup> the men of Lod, Hadid, and Ono: 725;
- <sup>34</sup> the men of Jericho: 345;
- <sup>35</sup> the descendants of Senaah: 3,630.
- <sup>36</sup> The priests: the descendants of Jedaiah (through the family of Jeshua): 973;
- <sup>37</sup> the descendants of Immer: 1,052;
- <sup>38</sup> the descendants of Pashhur: 1,247;
- <sup>39</sup> the descendants of Harim: 1,017.
- <sup>40</sup> The Levites: the descendants of Jeshua and Kadmiel (through the line of Hodaviah):
- <sup>74.</sup>
- <sup>41</sup> The singers: the descendants of Asaph: 128.
- <sup>42</sup> The gatekeepers: the descendants of Shallum, the descendants of Ater, the descendants of Talmon, the descendants of Akkub, the descendants of Hatita, and the descendants of Shobai: 139.
- <sup>43</sup> The temple servants: the descendants of Ziha, the descendants of Hasupha, the descendants of Tabbaoth,
- <sup>44</sup> the descendants of Keros, the descendants of Siaha, the descendants of Padon,
- <sup>45</sup> the descendants of Lebanah, the descendants of Hagabah, the descendants of Akkub,
- <sup>46</sup> the descendants of Hagab, the descendants of Shalmi, the descendants of Hanan,
- <sup>47</sup> the descendants of Giddel, the descendants of Gahar, the descendants of Reaiah,
- <sup>48</sup> the descendants of Rezin, the descendants of Nekoda, the descendants of Gazzam,
- <sup>49</sup> the descendants of Uzzah, the descendants of Paseah, the descendants of Besai,
- <sup>50</sup> the descendants of Asnah, the descendants of Meunim, the descendants of Nephusim,
- <sup>51</sup> the descendants of Bakbuk, the descendants of Hakupha, the descendants of Harhur,
- <sup>52</sup> the descendants of Bazluth, the descendants of Mehida, the descendants of Harsha,

<sup>59</sup> These are the ones that came up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon, and Immer (although they were unable to certify their family connection or their ancestry, as to whether they really were from Israel):

<sup>61</sup> And from among the priests: the descendants of Hobaiah, the descendants of Hakkoz, and the descendants of Barzillai (who had taken a wife from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite and was called by that name).

<sup>62</sup> They searched for their records in the genealogical materials, but did not find them. They were therefore excluded from the priesthood.

<sup>63</sup> The governor instructed them not to eat any of the sacred food until there was a priest who could consult the Urim and Thummim.

<sup>65</sup> not counting their male and female servants, who numbered 7,337. They also had 200 male and female singers

<sup>68</sup> When they came to the LORD's temple in Jerusalem, some of the family leaders offered voluntary offerings for the temple of God in order to rebuild it on its site.

<sup>69</sup> As they were able, they gave to the treasury for this work 61,000 drachmas of gold, 5,000 minas of silver, and 100 priestly robes.

<sup>70</sup> The priests, the Levites, some of the people, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the temple servants lived in their towns, and all the rest of Israel lived in their towns.

<sup>1</sup> When the seventh month arrived and the Israelites were living in their towns, the people assembled in Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> Then Jeshua the son of Jozadak and his priestly colleagues and Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and his colleagues started to build the altar of the God of Israel so they could offer burnt offerings on it as required by the law of Moses the man of God.

<sup>3</sup> They established the altar on its foundations, even though they were in terror of the local peoples, and they offered burnt offerings on it to the LORD, both the morning and the evening offerings.

<sup>4</sup> They observed the Festival of Temporary Shelters as required and offered the proper number of daily burnt offerings according to the requirement for each day.

<sup>5</sup> Afterward they offered the continual burnt offerings and those for the new moons and those for all the holy assemblies of the LORD and all those that were being voluntarily offered to the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to the LORD | strong="H3069". However, the LORD's | strong="H3069" temple was not at that time established.

Preparations for Rebuilding the Temple

<sup>7</sup> So they provided money for the masons and carpenters, and food, beverages, and olive oil for the people of Sidon so that they would bring cedar timber from Lebanon to the seaport at Joppa, in accord with the edict of King Cyrus of Persia.

<sup>8</sup> In the second year after they had come to the temple of God in Jerusalem, in the second month, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak initiated the work, along with the rest of their associates, the priests and the Levites, and all those who were coming to Jerusalem from the exile. They appointed the Levites who were at least twenty years old to take charge of the work on the LORD's temple.

<sup>9</sup> So Jeshua appointed both his sons and his relatives, Kadmiel and his sons (the sons of Yehudah ), to take charge of the workers in the temple of God, along with the sons of Henadad, their sons, and their relatives the Levites.

<sup>11</sup> With antiphonal response they sang, praising and glorifying the LORD:
"For he is good;
his loyal love toward Israel is forever."

All the people gave a loud shout as they praised the LORD when the temple of the LORD was established.

<sup>12</sup> Many of the priests, the Levites, and the leaders – older people who had seen with their own eyes the former temple while it was still established – were weeping loudly, and many others raised their voice in a joyous shout.

<sup>13</sup> People were unable to tell the difference between the sound of joyous shouting and the sound of the people's weeping, for the people were shouting so loudly that the sound was heard a long way off.

<sup>1</sup> When the enemies of Judah and Benjamin learned that the former exiles were building a temple for the LORD God of Israel,

<sup>2</sup> they came to Zerubbabel and the leaders and said to them, "Let us help you build, for like you we seek your God and we have been sacrificing to him from the time of King Esarhaddon of Assyria, who brought us here."

<sup>3</sup> But Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the rest of the leaders of Israel said to them, "You have no right to help us build the temple of our God. We will build it by ourselves for the LORD God of Israel, just as King Cyrus, the king of Persia, has commanded us."

<sup>4</sup> Then the local people began to discourage the people of Judah and to dishearten them from building.

<sup>5</sup> They were hiring advisers to oppose them, so as to frustrate their plans, throughout the time of King Cyrus of Persia until the reign of King Darius of Persia.

Official Complaints Are Lodged Against the Jews

<sup>6</sup> At the beginning of the reign of Ahasuerus they filed an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>7</sup> And during the reign of Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their colleagues wrote to King Artaxerxes of Persia. This letter was first written in Aramaic but then translated.

[Aramaic:]

<sup>8</sup> Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter concerning Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes as follows:

<sup>9</sup> From Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their colleagues – the judges, the rulers, the officials, the secretaries, the Erechites, the Babylonians, the people of Susa (that is, the Elamites), <sup>10</sup> and the rest of nations whom the great and noble Ashurbanipal deported and settled in the cities of Samaria and other places in Trans-Euphrates.

<sup>11</sup> (This is a copy of the letter they sent to him:)

“To King Artaxerxes, from your servants in Trans-Euphrates:

<sup>12</sup> Now let the king be aware that the Jews who came up to us from you have gone to Jerusalem. They are rebuilding that rebellious and odious city. They are completing its walls and repairing its foundations.

<sup>13</sup> Let the king also be aware that if this city is built and its walls are completed, no more tax, custom, or toll will be paid, and the royal treasury will suffer loss.

<sup>14</sup> In light of the fact that we are loyal to the king, and since it does not seem appropriate to us that the king should sustain damage, we are sending the king this information

<sup>15</sup> so that he may initiate a search of the records of his predecessors and discover in those records that this city is rebellious and injurious to both kings and provinces, producing internal revolts from long ago. It is for this very reason that this city was destroyed.

<sup>16</sup> We therefore are informing the king that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are completed, you will not retain control of this portion of Trans-Euphrates.”

“To Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their colleagues who live in Samaria and other parts of Trans-Euphrates: Greetings!

<sup>18</sup> The letter you sent to us has been translated and read in my presence.

<sup>19</sup> So I gave orders, and it was determined that this city from long ago has been engaging in insurrection against kings. It has continually engaged in rebellion and revolt.

<sup>20</sup> Powerful kings have been over Jerusalem who ruled throughout the entire Trans-Euphrates and who were the beneficiaries of tribute, custom, and toll.

<sup>21</sup> Now give orders that these men cease their work and that this city not be rebuilt until such time as I so instruct.

<sup>22</sup> Exercise appropriate caution so that there is no negligence in this matter. Why should danger increase to the point that kings sustain damage?”

<sup>23</sup> Then, as soon as the copy of the letter from King Artaxerxes was read in the presence of Rehum, Shimshai the scribe, and their colleagues, they proceeded promptly to the Jews in Jerusalem and stopped them with threat of armed force.

<sup>24</sup> So the work on the temple of God in Jerusalem came to a halt. It remained halted until the second year of the reign of King Darius of Persia.

5

<sup>1</sup> Then the prophets Haggai and Zechariah son of Iddo prophesied concerning the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel who was over them.

<sup>2</sup> Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak began to rebuild the temple of God in Jerusalem. The prophets of God were with them, supporting them.

<sup>3</sup> At that time Tattenai governor of Trans-Euphrates, Shethar-Bozenai, and their colleagues came to them and asked, “Who gave you authority to rebuild this temple and to complete this structure?”

<sup>4</sup> They also asked them, “What are the names of the men who are building this edifice?”

<sup>5</sup> But God was watching over the elders of Judah, and they were not stopped until a report could be dispatched to Darius and a letter could be sent back concerning this.

<sup>6</sup> This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai governor of Trans-Euphrates, Shethar-Bozenai, and his colleagues who were the officials of Trans-Euphrates sent to King Darius.

<sup>7</sup> The report they sent to him was written as follows:

“To King Darius: All greetings!

<sup>8</sup> Let it be known to the king that we have gone to the province of Judah, to the temple of the great God. It is being built with large stones, and timbers are being placed in the walls. This work is being done with all diligence and is prospering in their hands.

<sup>9</sup> We inquired of those elders, asking them, ‘Who gave you the authority to rebuild this temple and to complete this structure?’

<sup>10</sup> We also inquired of their names in order to inform you, so that we might write the names of the men who were their leaders.

<sup>11</sup> They responded to us in the following way: ‘We are servants of the God of heaven and earth. We are rebuilding the temple which was previously built many years ago. A great king of Israel built it and completed it.

<sup>12</sup> But after our ancestors angered the God of heaven, he delivered them into the hands of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this temple and exiled the people to Babylon.

<sup>13</sup> But in the first year of King Cyrus of Babylon, King Cyrus enacted a decree to rebuild this temple of God.

<sup>14</sup> Even the gold and silver vessels of the temple of God that Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem and had brought to the palace of Babylon – even those things King Cyrus brought from the palace of Babylon and presented to a man by the name of Sheshbazzar whom he had appointed as governor.

<sup>15</sup> He said to him, “Take these vessels and go deposit them in the temple in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt in its proper location.”

<sup>16</sup> Then this Sheshbazzar went and laid the foundations of the temple of God in Jerusalem. From that time to the present moment it has been in the process of being rebuilt, although it is not yet finished.’

<sup>17</sup> “Now if the king is so inclined, let a search be conducted in the royal archives there in Babylon in order to determine whether King Cyrus did in fact issue orders for this temple of God to be rebuilt in Jerusalem. Then let the king send us a decision concerning this matter.”

6

<sup>1</sup> So Darius the king issued orders, and they searched in the archives of the treasury which were deposited there in Babylon.

<sup>2</sup> A scroll was found in the citadel of Ecbatana which is in the province of Media, and it was inscribed as follows:

“Memorandum:

<sup>3</sup> In the first year of his reign, King Cyrus gave orders concerning the temple of God in Jerusalem: ‘Let the temple be rebuilt as a place where sacrifices are offered. Let its foundations be set in place. Its height is to be ninety feet and its width ninety feet, <sup>4</sup> with three layers of large stones and one layer of timber. The expense is to be subsidized by the royal treasury.

<sup>5</sup> Furthermore let the gold and silver vessels of the temple of God, which Nebuchadnezzar brought from the temple in Jerusalem and carried to Babylon, be returned and brought to their proper place in the temple in Jerusalem. Let them be deposited in the temple of God.’

<sup>6</sup> “Now Tattenai governor of Trans-Euphrates, Shethar Bozenai, and their colleagues, the officials of Trans-Euphrates – all of you stay far away from there!

<sup>7</sup> Leave the work on this temple of God alone. Let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews rebuild this temple of God in its proper place.

<sup>8</sup> “I also hereby issue orders as to what you are to do with those elders of the Jews in order to rebuild this temple of God. From the royal treasury, from the taxes of Trans-Euphrates the complete costs are to be given to these men, so that there may be no interruption of the work.

<sup>9</sup> Whatever is needed – whether oxen or rams or lambs or burnt offerings for the God of heaven or wheat or salt or wine or oil, as required by the priests who are in Jerusalem – must be given to them daily without any neglect, <sup>10</sup> so that they may be offering incense to the God of heaven and may be praying for the good fortune of the king and his family.

<sup>11</sup> “I hereby give orders that if anyone changes this directive a beam is to be pulled out from his house and he is to be raised up and impaled on it, and his house is to be reduced to a rubbish heap for this indiscretion.

<sup>12</sup> May God who makes his name to reside there overthrow any king or nation who reaches out to cause such change so as to destroy this temple of God in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have given orders. Let them be carried out with precision!”

The Temple Is Finally Dedicated

<sup>13</sup> Then Tattenai governor of Trans-Euphrates, Shethar-Bozenai, and their colleagues acted accordingly – with precision, just as Darius the king had given instructions.

<sup>14</sup> The elders of the Jews continued building and prospering, while at the same time Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo continued prophesying. They built and brought it to completion by the command of the God of Israel and by the command of Cyrus and Darius and Artaxerxes king of Persia.

<sup>15</sup> They finished this temple on the third day of the month Adar, which is the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

<sup>16</sup> The people of Israel – the priests, the Levites, and the rest of the exiles – observed the dedication of this temple of God with joy.

<sup>17</sup> For the dedication of this temple of God they offered one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and twelve male goats for the sin of all Israel, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

<sup>18</sup> They appointed the priests by their divisions and the Levites by their divisions over the worship of God at Jerusalem, in accord with the book of Moses.

<sup>19</sup> The exiles observed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.

<sup>20</sup> The priests and the Levites had purified themselves, every last one, and they all were ceremonially pure. They sacrificed the Passover lamb for all the exiles, for their colleagues the priests, and for themselves.

<sup>21</sup> The Israelites who were returning from the exile ate it, along with all those who had joined them in separating themselves from the uncleanness of the nations of the land to seek the LORD | strong="H3069" God of Israel.

<sup>22</sup> They observed the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with joy, for the LORD had given them joy and had changed the opinion of the king of Assyria toward them, so that he assisted them in the work on the temple of God, the God of Israel.

7

<sup>1</sup> Now after these things had happened, during the reign of King Artaxerxes of Persia, Ezra came up from Babylon. Ezra was the son of Seraiah, who was the son of Azariah, who was the son of Hilkiah,

<sup>2</sup> who was the son of Shallum, who was the son of Zadok, who was the son of Ahitub,
<sup>3</sup> who was the son of Amariah, who was the son of Azariah, who was the son of Meraioth,

<sup>4</sup> who was the son of Zerahiah, who was the son of Uzzi, who was the son of Bukki, <sup>5</sup> who was the son of Abishua, who was the son of Phinehas, who was the son of Eleazar, who was the son of Aaron the chief priest.

<sup>6</sup> This Ezra is the one who came up from Babylon. He was a scribe who was skilled in the law of Moses which the LORD God of Israel had given. The king supplied him with everything he requested, for the hand of the LORD his God was on him.

<sup>7</sup> In the seventh year of King Artaxerxes, Ezra brought up to Jerusalem some of the Israelites and some of the priests, the Levites, the attendants, the gatekeepers, and the temple servants.

<sup>8</sup> He entered Jerusalem in the fifth month of the seventh year of the king.

<sup>9</sup> On the first day of the first month he had determined to make the ascent from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month he arrived at Jerusalem, for the good hand of his God was on him.

<sup>10</sup> Now Ezra had dedicated himself to the study of the law of the LORD | strong="H3069", to its observance, and to teaching its statutes and judgments in Israel.

Artaxerxes Gives Official Endorsement to Ezra's Mission

<sup>11</sup> What follows is a copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priestly scribe. Ezra was a scribe in matters pertaining to the commandments of the LORD and his statutes over Israel:

<sup>12</sup> "Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, a scribe of the perfect law of the God of heaven:

<sup>13</sup> I have now issued a decree that anyone in my kingdom from the people of Israel – even the priests and Levites – who wishes to do so may go up with you to Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup> You are authorized by the king and his seven advisers to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of your God which is in your possession,

<sup>15</sup> and to bring silver and gold which the king and his advisers have freely contributed to the God of Israel, who resides in Jerusalem,

<sup>16</sup> along with all the silver and gold that you may collect throughout all the province of Babylon and the contributions of the people and the priests for the temple of their God which is in Jerusalem.

<sup>17</sup> With this money you should be sure to purchase bulls, rams, and lambs, along with the appropriate meal offerings and libations. You should bring them to the altar of the temple of your God which is in Jerusalem.

<sup>18</sup> You may do whatever seems appropriate to you and your colleagues with the rest of the silver and the gold, in keeping with the will of your God.

<sup>19</sup> Deliver to the God of Jerusalem the vessels that are given to you for the service of the temple of your God.

<sup>20</sup> The rest of the needs for the temple of your God that you may have to supply, you may do so from the royal treasury.

<sup>21</sup> "I, King Artaxerxes, hereby issue orders to all the treasurers of Trans-Euphrates, that you precisely execute all that Ezra the priestly scribe of the law of the God of heaven may request of you –

<sup>22</sup> up to 100 talents of silver, 100 cors of wheat, 100 baths of wine, 100 baths of olive oil, and unlimited salt.

<sup>23</sup> Everything that the God of heaven has required should be precisely done for the temple of the God of heaven. Why should there be wrath against the empire of the king and his sons?

<sup>24</sup> Furthermore, be aware of the fact that you have no authority to impose tax, tribute, or toll on any of the priests, the Levites, the musicians, the doorkeepers, the temple servants, or the attendants at the temple of this God.

<sup>25</sup> “Now you, Ezra, in keeping with the wisdom of your God which you possess, appoint judges and court officials who can arbitrate cases on behalf of all the people who are in Trans-Euphrates who know the laws of your God. Those who do not know this law should be taught.

<sup>26</sup> Everyone who does not observe both the law of your God and the law of the king will be completely liable to the appropriate penalty, whether it is death or banishment or confiscation of property or detainment in prison.”

<sup>27</sup>

Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, who so moved in the heart of the king to so honor the temple of the LORD which is in Jerusalem!

<sup>28</sup> He has also conferred his favor on me before the king, his advisers, and all the influential leaders of the king. I gained strength as the hand of the LORD my God was on me, and I gathered leaders from Israel to go up with me.

8

<sup>1</sup> These are the leaders and those enrolled with them by genealogy who were coming up with me from Babylon during the reign of King Artaxerxes:

<sup>2</sup> from the descendants of Phinehas, Gershom;

from the descendants of Ithamar, Daniel;

from the descendants of David, Hattush

from the descendants of Parosh, Zechariah, and with him were enrolled by genealogy 150 men;

<sup>4</sup> from the descendants of Pahath-Moab, Eliehoenai son of Zerahiah, and with him 200 men;

<sup>5</sup> from the descendants of Zattu, Shecaniah son of Jahaziel, and with him 300 men;

<sup>6</sup> from the descendants of Adin, Ebed son of Jonathan, and with him 50 men;

<sup>7</sup> from the descendants of Elam, Jeshaiiah son of Athaliah, and with him 70 men;

<sup>8</sup> from the descendants of Shephatiah, Zebadiah son of Michael, and with him 80 men;

<sup>9</sup> from the descendants of Joab, Obadiah son of Jehiel, and with him 218 men;

<sup>10</sup> from the descendants of Bani, Shelomith son of Josiphiah, and with him 160 men;

<sup>11</sup> from the descendants of Bebai, Zechariah son of Bebai, and with him 28 men;

<sup>12</sup> from the descendants of Azgad, Johanan son of Hakkatan, and with him 110 men;

<sup>13</sup> from the descendants of Adonikam there were the latter ones. Their names were Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah, and with them 60 men;

<sup>14</sup> from the descendants of Bigvai, Uthai, and Zaccur, and with them 70 men.

The Exiles Travel to Jerusalem

<sup>15</sup> I had them assemble at the canal that flows toward Ahava, and we camped there for three days. I observed that the people and the priests were present, but I found no Levites there.

<sup>16</sup> So I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, who were leaders, and Joiarib and Elnathan, who were teachers.

<sup>17</sup> I sent them to Iddo, who was the leader in the place called Casiphia. I told them what to say to Iddo and his relatives, who were the temple servants in Casiphia, so they would bring us attendants for the temple of our God.

<sup>18</sup> Due to the fact that the good hand of our God was on us, they brought us a skilled man, from the descendants of Mahli the son of Levi son of Israel. This man was Sherebiah, who was accompanied by his sons and brothers, 18 men,

<sup>19</sup> and Hashabiah, along with Jeshaiiah from the descendants of Merari, with his brothers and their sons, 20 men, <sup>20</sup> and some of the temple servants that David and his officials had established for the work of the Levites – 220 of them. They were all designated by name.

<sup>21</sup> I called for a fast there by the Ahava Canal, so that we might humble ourselves before our God and seek from him a safe journey for us, our children, and all our property.

<sup>22</sup> I was embarrassed to request soldiers and horsemen from the king to protect us from the enemy along the way, because we had said to the king, “The good hand of our God is on everyone who is seeking him, but his great anger is against everyone who forsakes him.”

<sup>23</sup> So we fasted and prayed to our God about this, and he answered us.

<sup>24</sup> Then I set apart twelve of the leading priests, together with Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers, <sup>25</sup> and I weighed out to them the silver, the gold, and the vessels intended for the temple of our God – items that the king, his advisers, his officials, and all Israel who were present had contributed.

<sup>26</sup> I weighed out to them 650 talents of silver, silver vessels worth 100 talents, 100 talents of gold, <sup>27</sup> 20 gold bowls worth 1,000 darics, and two exquisite vessels of gleaming bronze, as valuable as gold.

<sup>28</sup> Then I said to them, “You are holy to the LORD, just as these vessels are holy. The silver and the gold are a voluntary offering to the LORD, the God of your fathers.

<sup>29</sup> Be careful with them and protect them, until you weigh them out before the leading priests and the Levites and the family leaders of Israel in Jerusalem, in the storerooms of the temple of the LORD.”

<sup>30</sup> Then the priests and the Levites took charge of the silver, the gold, and the vessels that had been weighed out, to transport them to Jerusalem to the temple of our God.

<sup>31</sup> On the twelfth day of the first month we began traveling from the Ahava Canal to go to Jerusalem. The hand of our God was on us, and he delivered us from our enemy and from bandits along the way.

<sup>32</sup> So we came to Jerusalem, and we stayed there for three days.

<sup>33</sup> On the fourth day we weighed out the silver, the gold, and the vessels in the house of our God into the care of Meremoth son of Uriah, the priest, and Eleazar son of Phinehas, who were accompanied by Jozabad son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binnui, who were Levites.

<sup>34</sup> Everything was verified by number and by weight, and the total weight was written down at that time.

<sup>35</sup> The exiles who were returning from the captivity offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel – twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven male lambs, along with twelve male goats as a sin offering. All this was a burnt offering to the LORD.

<sup>36</sup> Then they presented the decrees of the king to the king’s satraps and to the governors of Trans-Euphrates, who gave help to the people and to the temple of God.

9

<sup>1</sup> Now when these things had been completed, the leaders approached me and said, “The people of Israel, the priests, and the Levites have not separated themselves from the local residents who practice detestable things similar to those of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

<sup>2</sup> Indeed, they have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and for their sons, so that the holy race has become intermingled with the local residents. Worse still, the leaders and the officials have been at the forefront of all of this!”

<sup>3</sup> When I heard this report, I tore my tunic and my robe and ripped out some of the hair from my head and beard. Then I sat down, quite devastated.

<sup>4</sup> Everyone who held the words of the God of Israel in awe gathered around me because of the unfaithful acts of the people of the exile. Devastated, I continued to sit there until the evening offering.

<sup>5</sup> At the time of the evening offering I got up from my self-abasement, with my tunic and robe torn, and then dropped to my knees and spread my hands to the LORD my God.

“O my God, I am ashamed and embarrassed to lift my face to you, my God! For our iniquities have climbed higher than our heads, and our guilt extends to the heavens.

<sup>7</sup> From the days of our fathers until this very day our guilt has been great. Because of our iniquities we, along with our kings and priests, have been delivered over by the local kings to sword, captivity, plunder, and embarrassment – right up to the present time.

<sup>8</sup> “But now briefly we have received mercy from the LORD our God, in that he has left us a remnant and has given us a secure position in his holy place. Thus our God has enlightened our eyes and has given us a little relief in our time of servitude.

<sup>9</sup> Although we are slaves, our God has not abandoned us in our servitude. He has extended kindness to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, in that he has revived us to restore the temple of our God and to raise up its ruins and to give us a protective wall in Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> “And now what are we able to say after this, our God? For we have forsaken your commandments

<sup>11</sup> which you commanded us through your servants the prophets with these words: ‘The land that you are entering to possess is a land defiled by the impurities of the local residents! With their abominations they have filled it from one end to the other with their filthiness.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore do not give your daughters in marriage to their sons, and do not take their daughters in marriage for your sons. Do not ever seek their peace or welfare, so that you may be strong and may eat the good of the land and may leave it as an inheritance for your children forever.’

<sup>13</sup> “Everything that has happened to us has come about because of our wicked actions and our great guilt. Even so, our God, you have exercised restraint toward our iniquities and have given us a remnant such as this.

<sup>14</sup> Shall we once again break your commandments and intermarry with these abominable peoples? Would you not be so angered by us that you would wipe us out, with no survivor or remnant?

<sup>15</sup> O LORD God of Israel, you are righteous, for we are left as a remnant this day. Indeed, we stand before you in our guilt. However, because of this guilt no one can really stand before you.”

10

<sup>2</sup> Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel, from the descendants of Elam, addressed Ezra:

“We have been unfaithful to our God by marrying foreign women from the local peoples. Nonetheless, there is still hope for Israel in this regard.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore let us enact a covenant with our God to send away all these women and their offspring, in keeping with your counsel, my lord, and that of those who respect the commandments of our God. And let it be done according to the law.

<sup>4</sup> Get up, for this matter concerns you. We are with you, so be strong and act decisively!"

<sup>5</sup> So Ezra got up and made the leading priests and Levites and all Israel take an oath to carry out this plan. And they all took a solemn oath.

<sup>6</sup> Then Ezra got up from in front of the temple of God and went to the room of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. While he stayed there, he did not eat food or drink water, for he was in mourning over the infidelity of the exiles.

<sup>7</sup> A proclamation was circulated throughout Judah and Jerusalem that all the exiles were to be assembled in Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup> Everyone who did not come within three days would thereby forfeit all his property, in keeping with the counsel of the officials and the elders. Furthermore, he himself would be excluded from the assembly of the exiles.

<sup>9</sup> All the men of Judah and Benjamin were gathered in Jerusalem within the three days. (It was in the ninth month, on the twentieth day of that month.) All the people sat in the square at the temple of God, trembling because of this matter and because of the rains.

<sup>10</sup> Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, "You have behaved in an unfaithful manner by taking foreign wives! This has contributed to the guilt of Israel.

<sup>11</sup> Now give praise to the LORD God of your fathers, and do his will. Separate yourselves from the local residents and from these foreign wives."

<sup>12</sup> All the assembly replied in a loud voice: "We will do just as you have said!

<sup>13</sup> However, the people are numerous and it is the rainy season. We are unable to stand here outside. Furthermore, this business cannot be resolved in a day or two, for we have sinned greatly in this matter.

<sup>14</sup> Let our leaders take steps on behalf of all the assembly. Let all those in our towns who have married foreign women come at an appointed time, and with them the elders of each town and its judges, until the hot anger of our God is turned away from us in this matter."

<sup>15</sup> Only Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah were against this, assisted by Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite.

<sup>16</sup> So the exiles proceeded accordingly. Ezra the priest separated out by name men who were leaders in their family groups. They sat down to consider this matter on the first day of the tenth month, <sup>17</sup> and on the first day of the first month they finished considering all the men who had married foreign wives.

Those Who Had Taken Foreign Wives

<sup>19</sup> (They gave their word to send away their wives; their guilt offering was a ram from the flock for their guilt.)

<sup>44</sup> All these had taken foreign wives, and some of them also had children by these women.

Nehemiah

A Prayer of Nehemiah

It so happened that in the month of Kislev, in the twentieth year, I was in Susa the citadel.

<sup>2</sup> Hanani, who was one of my relatives, along with some of the men from Judah, came to me, and I asked them about the Jews who had escaped and had survived the exile, and about Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> They said to me, “The remnant that remains from the exile there in the province are experiencing considerable adversity and reproach. The wall of Jerusalem lies breached, and its gates have been burned down!”

<sup>4</sup> When I heard these things I sat down abruptly, crying and mourning for several days. I continued fasting and praying before the God of heaven.

<sup>5</sup> Then I said, “Please, O LORD | strong="H3069" God of heaven, great and awesome God, who keeps his loving covenant with those who love him and obey his commandments,

<sup>6</sup> may your ear be attentive and your eyes be open to hear the prayer of your servant that I am praying to you today throughout both day and night on behalf of your servants the Israelites. I am confessing the sins of the Israelites that we have committed against you – both I myself and my family have sinned.

<sup>7</sup> We have behaved corruptly against you, not obeying the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments that you commanded your servant Moses.

<sup>8</sup> Please recall the word you commanded your servant Moses: ‘If you act unfaithfully, I will scatter you among the nations.

<sup>9</sup> But if you repent and obey my commandments and do them, then even if your dispersed people are in the most remote location, I will gather them from there and bring them to the place I have chosen for my name to reside.’

<sup>10</sup> They are your servants and your people, whom you have redeemed by your mighty strength and by your powerful hand.

<sup>11</sup> Please, O Lord, listen attentively to the prayer of your servant and to the prayer of your servants who take pleasure in showing respect to your name. Grant your servant success today and show compassion to me in the presence of this man.”

Now I was cupbearer for the king.

2

<sup>1</sup> Then in the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was brought to me, I took the wine and gave it to the king. Previously I had not been depressed in the king's presence.

<sup>2</sup> So the king said to me, “Why do you appear to be depressed when you aren't sick? What can this be other than sadness of heart?” This made me very fearful.

<sup>3</sup> I replied to the king, “O king, live forever! Why would I not appear dejected when the city with the graves of my ancestors lies desolate and its gates destroyed by fire?”

<sup>4</sup> The king responded, “What is it you are seeking?” Then I quickly prayed to the God of heaven

<sup>5</sup> and said to the king, “If the king is so inclined and if your servant has found favor in your sight, dispatch me to Judah, to the city with the graves of my ancestors, so that I can rebuild it.”

<sup>6</sup> Then the king, with his consort sitting beside him, replied, “How long would your trip take, and when would you return?” Since the king was amenable to dispatching me, I gave him a time.

<sup>7</sup> I said to the king, “If the king is so inclined, let him give me letters for the governors of Trans-Euphrates that will enable me to travel safely until I reach Judah, <sup>8</sup> and a letter for Asaph the keeper of the king’s nature preserve, so that he will give me timber for beams for the gates of the fortress adjacent to the temple and for the city wall and for the house to which I go.” So the king granted me these requests, for the good hand of my God was on me.

<sup>9</sup> Then I went to the governors of Trans-Euphrates, and I presented to them the letters from the king. The king had sent with me officers of the army and horsemen.

<sup>10</sup> When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard all this, they were very displeased that someone had come to seek benefit for the Israelites.

Nehemiah Arrives in Jerusalem

<sup>11</sup> So I came to Jerusalem. When I had been there for three days, <sup>12</sup> I got up during the night, along with a few men who were with me. But I did not tell anyone what my God was putting on my heart to do for Jerusalem. There were no animals with me, except for the one I was riding.

<sup>13</sup> I proceeded through the Valley Gate by night, in the direction of the Well of the Dragons and the Dung Gate, inspecting the walls of Jerusalem that had been breached and its gates that had been destroyed by fire.

<sup>14</sup> I passed on to the Gate of the Well and the King’s Pool, where there was not enough room for my animal to pass with me.

<sup>15</sup> I continued up the valley during the night, inspecting the wall. Then I turned back and came to the Valley Gate, and so returned.

<sup>16</sup> The officials did not know where I had gone or what I had been doing, for up to this point I had not told any of the Jews or the priests or the nobles or the officials or the rest of the workers.

<sup>17</sup> Then I said to them, “You see the problem that we have: Jerusalem is desolate and its gates are burned. Come on! Let’s rebuild the wall of Jerusalem so that this reproach will not continue.”

<sup>18</sup> Then I related to them how the good hand of my God was on me and what the king had said to me. Then they replied, “Let’s begin rebuilding right away!” So they readied themselves for this good project.

<sup>19</sup> But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard all this, they derided us and expressed contempt toward us. They said, “What is this you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?”

<sup>20</sup> I responded to them by saying, “The God of heaven will prosper us. We his servants will start the rebuilding. But you have no just or ancient right in Jerusalem.”

3

<sup>2</sup> The men of Jericho built adjacent to it, and Zaccur son of Imri built adjacent to them.

<sup>3</sup> The sons of Hassenaah rebuilt the Fish Gate. They laid its beams and positioned its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

<sup>4</sup> Meremoth son of Uriah, the son of Hakoz, worked on the section adjacent to them. Meshullam son of Berechiah the son of Meshezabel worked on the section next to them. And Zadok son of Baana worked on the section adjacent to them.

<sup>5</sup> The men of Tekoa worked on the section adjacent to them, but their town leaders would not assist with the work of their master.

<sup>6</sup> Joiada son of Paseah and Meshullam son of Besodeiah worked on the Jeshanah Gate. They laid its beams and positioned its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

<sup>7</sup> Adjacent to them worked Melatiah the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite, who were men of Gibeon and Mizpah. These towns were under the jurisdiction of the governor of Trans-Euphrates.

<sup>8</sup> Uzziel son of Harhaiah, a member of the goldsmiths' guild, worked on the section adjacent to him. Hananiah, a member of the perfumers' guild, worked on the section adjacent to him. They plastered the city wall of Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

<sup>9</sup> Rephaiah son of Hur, head of a half-district of Jerusalem, worked on the section adjacent to them.

<sup>10</sup> Jedaiah son of Harumaph worked on the section adjacent to them opposite his house, and Hattush son of Hashabneiah worked on the section adjacent to him.

<sup>11</sup> Malkijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath-Moab worked on another section and the Tower of the Fire Pots.

<sup>12</sup> Shallum son of Hallohesh, head of a half-district of Jerusalem, worked on the section adjacent to him, assisted by his daughters.

<sup>13</sup> Hanun and the residents of Zanoah worked on the Valley Gate. They rebuilt it and positioned its doors, its bolts, and its bars, in addition to working on fifteen hundred feet of the wall as far as the Dung Gate.

<sup>14</sup> Malkijah son of Recab, head of the district of Beth Hakkerem, worked on the Dung Gate. He rebuilt it and positioned its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

<sup>15</sup> Shallun son of Col-Hozeh, head of the district of Mizpah, worked on the Fountain Gate. He rebuilt it, put on its roof, and positioned its doors, its bolts, and its bars. In addition, he rebuilt the wall of the Pool of Siloam, by the royal garden, as far as the steps that go down from the City of David.

<sup>16</sup> Nehemiah son of Azbuk, head of a half-district of Beth Zur, worked after him as far as the tombs of David and the artificial pool and the House of the Warriors.

<sup>17</sup> After him the Levites worked – Rehum son of Bani and after him Hashabiah, head of half the district of Keilah, for his district.

<sup>19</sup> Adjacent to him Ezer son of Jeshua, head of Mizpah, worked on another section, opposite the ascent to the armory at the buttress.

<sup>20</sup> After him Baruch son of Zabbai worked on another section, from the buttress to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

<sup>23</sup> After them Benjamin and Hasshub worked opposite their house. After them Azariah son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, worked near his house.

<sup>24</sup> After him Binnui son of Henadad worked on another section, from the house of Azariah to the buttress and the corner.

<sup>25</sup> After him Palal son of Uzai worked opposite the buttress and the tower that protrudes from the upper palace of the court of the guard. After him Pedaiah son of Parosh

<sup>26</sup> and the temple servants who were living on Ophel worked up to the area opposite the Water Gate toward the east and the protruding tower.

<sup>29</sup> After them Zadok son of Immer worked opposite his house, and after him Shemaiah son of Shecaniah, guard at the East Gate, worked.

<sup>30</sup> After him Hananiah son of Shelemiah, and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, worked on another section. After them Meshullam son of Berechiah worked opposite his quarters.

<sup>32</sup> And between the room above the corner and the Sheep Gate the goldsmiths and traders worked.

<sup>1</sup> Now when Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall he became angry and was quite upset. He derided the Jews,

<sup>2</sup> and in the presence of his colleagues and the army of Samaria he said, "What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they be left to themselves? Will they again offer sacrifice? Will they finish this in a day? Can they bring these burnt stones to life again from piles of dust?"

<sup>3</sup> Then Tobiah the Ammonite, who was close by, said, "If even a fox were to climb up on what they are building, it would break down their wall of stones!"

<sup>4</sup> Hear, O our God, for we are despised! Return their reproach on their own head! Reduce them to plunder in a land of exile!

<sup>6</sup> So we rebuilt the wall, and the entire wall was joined together up to half its height. The people were enthusiastic in their work.

<sup>7</sup> When Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the people of Ashdod heard that the restoration of the walls of Jerusalem had moved ahead and that the breaches had begun to be closed, they were very angry.

<sup>8</sup> All of them conspired together to move with armed forces against Jerusalem and to create a disturbance in it.

<sup>9</sup> So we prayed to our God and stationed a guard to protect against them both day and night.

<sup>10</sup> Then those in Judah said, "The strength of the laborers has failed! The debris is so great that we are unable to rebuild the wall."

<sup>11</sup> Our adversaries also boasted, "Before they are aware or anticipate anything, we will come in among them and kill them, and we will bring this work to a halt!"

<sup>12</sup> So it happened that the Jews who were living near them came and warned us repeatedly about all the schemes they were plotting against us.

<sup>13</sup> So I stationed people at the lower places behind the wall in the exposed places. I stationed the people by families, with their swords, spears, and bows.

<sup>14</sup> When I had made an inspection, I stood up and said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people, "Don't be afraid of them. Remember the great and awesome Lord, and fight on behalf of your brothers, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your families!"

<sup>15</sup> It so happened that when our adversaries heard that we were aware of these matters, God frustrated their intentions. Then all of us returned to the wall, each to his own work.

<sup>16</sup> From that day forward, half of my men were doing the work and half of them were taking up spears, shields, bows, and body armor. Now the officers were behind all the people of Judah

<sup>17</sup> who were rebuilding the wall. Those who were carrying loads did so by keeping one hand on the work and the other on their weapon.

<sup>18</sup> The builders to a man had their swords strapped to their sides while they were building. But the trumpeter remained with me.

<sup>19</sup> I said to the nobles, the officials, and the rest of the people, "The work is demanding and extensive, and we are spread out on the wall, far removed from one another.

<sup>20</sup> Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, gather there with us. Our God will fight for us!"

<sup>21</sup> So we worked on, with half holding spears, from dawn till dusk.

<sup>22</sup> At that time I instructed the people, "Let every man and his coworker spend the night in Jerusalem and let them be guards for us by night and workers by day.

<sup>23</sup> We did not change clothes – not I, nor my relatives, nor my workers, nor the watchmen who were with me. Each had his weapon, even when getting a drink of water.

5

<sup>2</sup> There were those who said, "With our sons and daughters, we are many. We must obtain grain in order to eat and stay alive."

<sup>3</sup> There were others who said, "We are putting up our fields, our vineyards, and our houses as collateral in order to obtain grain during the famine."

<sup>4</sup> Then there were those who said, "We have borrowed money to pay our taxes to the king on our fields and our vineyards.

<sup>5</sup> And now, though we share the same flesh and blood as our fellow countrymen, and our children are just like their children, still we have found it necessary to subject our sons and daughters to slavery. Some of our daughters have been subjected to slavery, while we are powerless to help, since our fields and vineyards now belong to other people."

<sup>6</sup> I was very angry when I heard their outcry and these complaints.

<sup>7</sup> I considered these things carefully and then registered a complaint with the wealthy and the officials. I said to them, "Each one of you is seizing the collateral from your own countrymen!" Because of them I called for a great public assembly.

<sup>8</sup> I said to them, "To the extent possible we have bought back our fellow Jews who had been sold to the Gentiles. But now you yourselves want to sell your own countrymen, so that we can then buy them back!" They were utterly silent, and could find nothing to say.

<sup>9</sup> Then I said, "The thing that you are doing is wrong! Should you not conduct yourselves in the fear of our God in order to avoid the reproach of the Gentiles who are our enemies?"

<sup>10</sup> Even I and my relatives and my associates are lending them money and grain. But let us abandon this practice of seizing collateral!

<sup>11</sup> This very day return to them their fields, their vineyards, their olive trees, and their houses, along with the interest that you are exacting from them on the money, the grain, the new wine, and the olive oil."

<sup>12</sup> They replied, "We will return these things, and we will no longer demand anything from them. We will do just as you say." Then I called the priests and made the wealthy and the officials swear to do what had been promised.

<sup>13</sup> I also shook out my garment, and I said, "In this way may God shake out from his house and his property every person who does not carry out this matter. In this way may he be shaken out and emptied!" All the assembly replied, "So be it!" and they praised the LORD. Then the people did as they had promised.

<sup>14</sup> From the day that I was appointed governor in the land of Judah, that is, from the twentieth year until the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes – twelve years in all – neither I nor my relatives ate the food allotted to the governor.

<sup>15</sup> But the former governors who preceded me had burdened the people and had taken food and wine from them, in addition to forty shekels of silver. Their associates were also domineering over the people. But I did not behave in this way, due to my fear of God.

<sup>16</sup> I gave myself to the work on this wall, without even purchasing a field. All my associates were gathered there for the work.

<sup>17</sup> There were 150 Jews and officials who dined with me routinely, in addition to those who came to us from the nations all around us.

<sup>18</sup> Every day one ox, six select sheep, and some birds were prepared for me, and every ten days all kinds of wine in abundance. Despite all this I did not require the food allotted to the governor, for the work was demanding on this people.

<sup>19</sup> Please remember me for good, O my God, for all that I have done for this people.

6

<sup>1</sup> When Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall and no breach remained in it (even though up to that time I had not positioned doors in the gates), <sup>2</sup> Sanballat and Geshem sent word to me saying, "Come on! Let's set up a time to meet together at Kephirim in the plain of Ono." Now they intended to do me harm.

<sup>3</sup> So I sent messengers to them saying, "I am engaged in an important work, and I am unable to come down. Why should the work come to a halt when I leave it to come down to you?"

<sup>4</sup> They contacted me four times in this way, and I responded the same way each time.

<sup>5</sup> The fifth time that Sanballat sent his assistant to me in this way, he had an open letter in his hand.

<sup>6</sup> Written in it were the following words:

"Among the nations it is rumored (and Geshem has substantiated this) that you and the Jews have intentions of revolting, and for this reason you are building the wall. Furthermore, according to these rumors you are going to become their king.

<sup>7</sup> You have also established prophets to announce in Jerusalem on your behalf, 'We have a king in Judah!' Now the king is going to hear about these rumors. So come on! Let's talk about this."

<sup>8</sup> I sent word back to him, "We are not engaged in these activities you are describing. All of this is a figment of your imagination."

<sup>9</sup> All of them were wanting to scare us, supposing, "Their hands will grow slack from the work, and it won't get done."

So now, strengthen my hands!

<sup>10</sup> Then I went to the house of Shemaiah son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel. He was confined to his home. He said, "Let's set up a time to meet in the house of God, within the temple. Let's close the doors of the temple, for they are coming to kill you. It will surely be at night that they will come to kill you."

<sup>11</sup> But I replied, "Should a man like me run away? Would someone like me flee to the temple in order to save his life? I will not go!"

<sup>12</sup> I recognized the fact that God had not sent him, for he had spoken the prophecy against me as a hired agent of Tobiah and Sanballat.

<sup>13</sup> He had been hired to scare me so that I would do this and thereby sin. They would thus bring reproach on me and I would be discredited.

<sup>14</sup> Remember, O my God, Tobiah and Sanballat in light of these actions of theirs – also Noadiah the prophetess and the other prophets who were trying to scare me!

The Rebuilding of the Wall Is Finally Completed

<sup>15</sup> So the wall was completed on the twenty-fifth day of Elul, in just fifty-two days.

<sup>16</sup> When all our enemies heard and all the nations who were around us saw this, they were greatly disheartened. They knew that this work had been accomplished with the help of our God.

<sup>17</sup> In those days the aristocrats of Judah repeatedly sent letters to Tobiah, and responses from Tobiah were repeatedly coming to them.

<sup>18</sup> For many in Judah had sworn allegiance to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah son of Arah. His son Jonathan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berechiah.

<sup>19</sup> They were telling me about his good deeds and then taking back to him the things I said. Tobiah, on the other hand, sent letters in order to scare me.

7

<sup>1</sup> When the wall had been rebuilt and I had positioned the doors, and the gatekeepers, the singers, and the Levites had been appointed,

<sup>2</sup> I then put in charge over Jerusalem my brother Hanani and Hananiah the chief of the citadel, for he was a faithful man and feared God more than many do.

<sup>3</sup> I said to them, “The gates of Jerusalem must not be opened in the early morning, until those who are standing guard close the doors and lock them. Position residents of Jerusalem as guards, some at their guard stations and some near their homes.”

<sup>4</sup> Now the city was spread out and large, and there were not a lot of people in it. At that time houses had not been rebuilt.

<sup>5</sup> My God placed it on my heart to gather the leaders, the officials, and the ordinary people so they could be enrolled on the basis of genealogy. I found the genealogical records of those who had formerly returned. Here is what I found written in that record:

<sup>6</sup> These are the people of the province who returned from the captivity of the exiles, whom King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon had forced into exile. They returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, each to his own city.

<sup>7</sup> They came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah.

The number of Israelite men was as follows:

<sup>8</sup> the descendants of Parosh, 2,172;

<sup>9</sup> the descendants of Shephatiah, 372;

<sup>11</sup> the descendants of Pahath-Moab (from the line of Jeshua and Joab), 2,818;

<sup>12</sup> the descendants of Elam, 1,254;

<sup>13</sup> the descendants of Zattu, 845;

<sup>14</sup> the descendants of Zaccai, 760;

<sup>16</sup> the descendants of Bebai, 628;

<sup>17</sup> the descendants of Azgad, 2,322;

<sup>18</sup> the descendants of Adonikam, 667;

<sup>19</sup> the descendants of Bigvai, 2,067;

<sup>20</sup> the descendants of Adin, 655;

<sup>21</sup> the descendants of Ater (through Hezekiah), 98;

<sup>22</sup> the descendants of Hashum, 328;

- <sup>23</sup> the descendants of Bezai, 324;
<sup>24</sup> the descendants of Harif, 112;
<sup>25</sup> the descendants of Gibeon, 95;
<sup>26</sup> The men of Bethlehem and Netophah, 188;
<sup>27</sup> the men of Anathoth, 128;
<sup>28</sup> the men of the family of Azmaveth, 42;
<sup>29</sup> the men of Kiriath Jearim, Kephirah, and Beeroth, 743;
<sup>30</sup> the men of Ramah and Geba, 621;
<sup>31</sup> the men of Micmash, 122;
<sup>32</sup> the men of Bethel and Ai, 123;
<sup>33</sup> the men of the other Nebo, 52;
<sup>34</sup> the descendants of the other Elam, 1,254;
<sup>35</sup> the descendants of Harim, 320;
<sup>36</sup> the descendants of Jericho, 345;
<sup>37</sup> the descendants of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, 721;
<sup>38</sup> the descendants of Senaah, 3,930.
<sup>39</sup> The priests:
the descendants of Jedaiah (through the family of Jeshua), 973;
<sup>40</sup> the descendants of Immer, 1,052;
<sup>41</sup> the descendants of Pashhur, 1,247;
<sup>42</sup> the descendants of Harim, 1,017.
<sup>43</sup> The Levites:
the descendants of Jeshua (through Kadmiel, through the line of Hodaviah), 74.
<sup>44</sup> The singers:
the descendants of Asaph, 148.
<sup>45</sup> The gatekeepers:
the descendants of Shallum, the descendants of Ater, the descendants of Talmon, the descendants of Akkub, the descendants of Hatita, and the descendants of Shobai, 138.
<sup>46</sup> The temple servants:
the descendants of Ziha, the descendants of Hasupha, the descendants of Tabbaoth, <sup>47</sup> the descendants of Keros, the descendants of Sia, the descendants of Padon,
<sup>55</sup> the descendants of Barkos, the descendants of Sisera, the descendants of Temah,
<sup>56</sup> the descendants of Nezhiah, the descendants of Hatipha.
the descendants of Sotai, the descendants of Sophereth, the descendants of Perida,
<sup>59</sup> the descendants of Shephatiah, the descendants of Hattil, the descendants of Pokereth-Hazzebaim, and the descendants of Amon.
<sup>60</sup> All the temple servants and the descendants of the servants of Solomon, 392.
<sup>61</sup> These are the ones who came up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon, and Immer (although they were unable to certify their family connection or their ancestry, as to whether they were really from Israel):

<sup>63</sup> And from among the priests: the descendants of Hobaiah, the descendants of Hakkoz, and the descendants of Barzillai (who had married a woman from the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite and was called by that name).

<sup>64</sup> They searched for their records in the genealogical materials, but none were found. They were therefore excluded from the priesthood.

<sup>65</sup> The governor instructed them not to eat any of the sacred food until there was a priest who could consult the Urim and Thummim.

<sup>67</sup> not counting their 7,337 male and female servants. They also had 245 male and female singers.

<sup>71</sup> Some of the family leaders gave to the project treasury 20,000 gold drachmas and 2,200 silver minas.

<sup>72</sup> What the rest of the people gave amounted to 20,000 gold drachmas, 2,000 silver minas, and 67 priestly garments.

<sup>73</sup> The priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the temple servants, and all the rest of Israel lived in their cities.

The People Respond to the Reading of the Law

When the seventh month arrived and the Israelites were settled in their cities,

8

<sup>1</sup> all the people gathered together in the plaza which was in front of the Water Gate. They asked Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses which the LORD | strong="H3068" had commanded Israel.

<sup>2</sup> So Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly which included men and women and all those able to understand what they heard. (This happened on the first day of the seventh month.)

<sup>3</sup> So he read it before the plaza in front of the Water Gate from dawn till noon before the men and women and those children who could understand. All the people were eager to hear the book of the law.

<sup>5</sup> Ezra opened the book in plain view of all the people, for he was elevated above all the people. When he opened the book, all the people stood up.

<sup>6</sup> Ezra blessed the LORD | strong="H3068", the great God, and all the people replied "Amen! Amen!" as they lifted their hands. Then they bowed down and worshiped the LORD | strong="H3068" with their faces to the ground.

<sup>7</sup> Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, and Pelaiah – all of whom were Levites – were teaching the people the law, as the people remained standing.

<sup>8</sup> They read from the book of God's law, explaining it and imparting insight. Thus the people gained understanding from what was read.

<sup>9</sup> Then Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the priestly scribe, and the Levites who were imparting understanding to the people said to all of them, “This day is holy to the LORD | strong="H3068" your God. Do not mourn or weep.” For all the people had been weeping when they heard the words of the law.

<sup>10</sup> He said to them, “Go and eat delicacies and drink sweet drinks and send portions to those for whom nothing is prepared. For this day is holy to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of the LORD | strong="H3068" is your strength.”

<sup>11</sup> Then the Levites quieted all the people saying, “Be quiet, for this day is holy. Do not grieve.”

<sup>12</sup> So all the people departed to eat and drink and to share their food with others and to enjoy tremendous joy, for they had gained insight in the matters that had been made known to them.

<sup>13</sup> On the second day of the month the family leaders met with Ezra the scribe, together with all the people, the priests, and the Levites, to consider the words of the law.

<sup>14</sup> They discovered written in the law that the LORD | strong="H3068" had commanded through Moses that the Israelites should live in temporary shelters during the festival of the seventh month,

<sup>15</sup> and that they should make a proclamation and disseminate this message in all their cities and in Jerusalem: “Go to the hill country and bring back olive branches and branches of wild olive trees, myrtle trees, date palms, and other leafy trees to construct temporary shelters, as it is written.”

<sup>16</sup> So the people went out and brought these things back and constructed temporary shelters for themselves, each on his roof and in his courtyard and in the courtyards of the temple of God and in the plaza of the Water Gate and the plaza of the Ephraim Gate.

<sup>17</sup> So all the assembly which had returned from the exile constructed temporary shelters and lived in them. The Israelites had not done so from the days of Joshua son of Nun until that day. Everyone experienced very great joy.

<sup>18</sup> Ezra read in the book of the law of God day by day, from the first day to the last. They observed the festival for seven days, and on the eighth day they held an assembly as was required.

9

<sup>1</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of this same month the Israelites assembled; they were fasting and wearing sackcloth, their heads covered with dust.

<sup>3</sup> For one-fourth of the day they stood in their place and read from the book of the law of the LORD | strong="H3068" their God, and for another fourth they were confessing their sins and worshiping the LORD | strong="H3068" their God.

<sup>4</sup> Then the Levites – Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Kenani – stood on the steps and called out loudly to the LORD | strong="H3068" their God.

<sup>5</sup> The Levites – Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodia, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah – said, “Stand up and bless the LORD | strong="H3068" your God!”

“May you be blessed, O LORD our God, from age to age. May your glorious name be blessed; may it be lifted up above all blessing and praise.

<sup>6</sup> You alone are the LORD | strong="H3068". You made the heavens, even the highest heavens, along with all their multitude of stars, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them. You impart life to them all, and the multitudes of heaven worship you.

<sup>7</sup> “You are the LORD | strong="H3068" God who chose Abram and brought him forth from Ur of the Chaldeans. You changed his name to Abraham.

<sup>8</sup> When you perceived that his heart was faithful toward you, you established a covenant with him to give his descendants the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, and the Girgashites. You have fulfilled your promise, for you are righteous.

<sup>9</sup> “You saw the affliction of our ancestors in Egypt, and you heard their cry at the Red Sea.

<sup>10</sup> You performed awesome signs against Pharaoh, against his servants, and against all the people of his land, for you knew that the Egyptians had acted presumptuously against them. You made for yourself a name that is celebrated to this day.

<sup>11</sup> You split the sea before them, and they crossed through the sea on dry ground! But you threw their pursuers into the depths, like a stone into surging waters.

<sup>12</sup> You guided them with a pillar of cloud by day and with a pillar of fire by night to illumine for them the path they were to travel.

<sup>13</sup> “You came down on Mount Sinai and spoke with them from heaven. You provided them with just judgments, true laws, and good statutes and commandments.

<sup>14</sup> You made known to them your holy Sabbath; you issued commandments, statutes, and law to them through Moses your servant.

<sup>15</sup> You provided bread from heaven for them in their time of hunger, and you brought forth water from the rock for them in their time of thirst. You told them to enter in order to possess the land that you had sworn to give them.

<sup>16</sup> “But they – our ancestors – behaved presumptuously; they rebelled and did not obey your commandments.

<sup>17</sup> They refused to obey and did not recall your miracles that you had performed among them. Instead, they rebelled and appointed a leader to return to their bondage in Egypt. But you are a God of forgiveness, merciful and compassionate, slow to get angry and unfailing in your loyal love. You did not abandon them, <sup>18</sup> even when they made a cast image of a calf for themselves and said, ‘This is your God who brought you up from Egypt,’ or when they committed atrocious blasphemies.

<sup>19</sup> “Due to your great compassion you did not abandon them in the desert. The pillar of cloud did not stop guiding them in the path by day, nor did the pillar of fire stop illuminating for them by night the path on which they should travel.

<sup>20</sup> You imparted your good Spirit to instruct them. You did not withhold your manna from their mouths; you provided water for their thirst.

<sup>21</sup> For forty years you sustained them. Even in the desert they never lacked anything. Their clothes did not wear out and their feet did not swell.

<sup>22</sup> “You gave them kingdoms and peoples, and you allocated them to every corner of the land. They inherited the land of King Sihon of Heshbon and the land of King Og of Bashan.

<sup>23</sup> You multiplied their descendants like the stars of the sky. You brought them to the land you had told their ancestors to enter in order to possess.

<sup>24</sup> Their descendants entered and possessed the land. You subdued before them the Canaanites who were the inhabitants of the land. You delivered them into their hand, together with their kings and the peoples of the land, to deal with as they pleased.

<sup>25</sup> They captured fortified cities and fertile land. They took possession of houses full of all sorts of good things – wells previously dug, vineyards, olive trees, and fruit trees in abundance. They ate until they were full and grew fat. They enjoyed to the full your great goodness.

<sup>26</sup> “Nonetheless they grew disobedient and rebelled against you; they disregarded your law. They killed your prophets who had solemnly admonished them in order to cause them to return to you. They committed atrocious blasphemies.

<sup>27</sup> Therefore you delivered them into the hand of their adversaries, who oppressed them. But in the time of their distress they called to you, and you heard from heaven. In your abundant compassion you provided them with deliverers to rescue them from their adversaries.

<sup>28</sup> “Then, when they were at rest again, they went back to doing evil before you. Then you abandoned them to their enemies, and they gained dominion over them. When they again cried out to you, in your compassion you heard from heaven and rescued them time and again.

<sup>29</sup> And you solemnly admonished them in order to return them to your law, but they behaved presumptuously and did not obey your commandments. They sinned against your ordinances – those by which an individual, if he obeys them, will live. They boldly turned from you; they rebelled and did not obey.

<sup>30</sup> You prolonged your kindness with them for many years, and you solemnly admonished them by your Spirit through your prophets. Still they paid no attention, so you delivered them into the hands of the neighboring peoples.

<sup>31</sup> However, due to your abundant mercy you did not do away with them altogether; you did not abandon them. For you are a merciful and compassionate God.

<sup>32</sup> “So now, our God – the great, powerful, and awesome God, who keeps covenant fidelity – do not regard as inconsequential all the hardship that has befallen us – our kings, our leaders, our priests, our prophets, our ancestors, and all your people – from the days of the kings of Assyria until this very day!

<sup>33</sup> You are righteous with regard to all that has happened to us, for you have acted faithfully. It is we who have been in the wrong!

<sup>34</sup> Our kings, our leaders, our priests, and our ancestors have not kept your law. They have not paid attention to your commandments or your testimonies by which you have solemnly admonished them.

<sup>35</sup> Even when they were in their kingdom and benefiting from your incredible goodness that you had lavished on them in the spacious and fertile land you had set before them, they did not serve you, nor did they turn from their evil practices.

<sup>36</sup> “So today we are slaves! In the very land you gave to our ancestors to eat its fruit and to enjoy its good things – we are slaves!

<sup>37</sup> Its abundant produce goes to the kings you have placed over us due to our sins. They rule over our bodies and our livestock as they see fit, and we are in great distress!

The People Pledge to be Faithful

<sup>38</sup> “Because of all of this we are entering into a binding covenant in written form; our leaders, our Levites, and our priests have affixed their names on the sealed document.”

10

<sup>1</sup> On the sealed documents were the following names:

Nehemiah the governor, son of Hacaliah, along with Zedekiah,

Jeshua son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel.

<sup>10</sup> Their colleagues were as follows:

Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan,

<sup>13</sup> Hodiah, Bani, and Beninu.

<sup>14</sup> The leaders of the people were as follows:

Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,

<sup>28</sup> "Now the rest of the people – the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple attendants, and all those who have separated themselves from the neighboring peoples because of the law of God, along with their wives, their sons, and their daughters, all of whom are able to understand –

<sup>29</sup> hereby participate with their colleagues the town leaders and enter into a curse and an oath to adhere to the law of God which was given through Moses the servant of God, and to obey carefully all the commandments of the LORD | strong="H3068" our Lord, along with his ordinances and his statutes.

<sup>30</sup> "We will not give our daughters in marriage to the neighboring peoples, and we will not take their daughters in marriage for our sons.

<sup>31</sup> We will not buy on the Sabbath or on a holy day from the neighboring peoples who bring their wares and all kinds of grain to sell on the Sabbath day. We will let the fields lie fallow every seventh year, and we will cancel every loan.

<sup>32</sup> We accept responsibility for fulfilling the commands to give one third of a shekel each year for the work of the temple of our God, <sup>33</sup> for the loaves of presentation and for the regular grain offerings and regular burnt offerings, for the Sabbaths, for the new moons, for the appointed meetings, for the holy offerings, for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the temple of our God.

<sup>34</sup> "We – the priests, the Levites, and the people – have cast lots concerning the wood offerings, to bring them to the temple of our God according to our families at the designated times year by year to burn on the altar of the LORD our God, as is written in the law.

<sup>35</sup> We also accept responsibility for bringing the first fruits of our land and the first fruits of every fruit tree year by year to the temple of the LORD | strong="H3068".

<sup>36</sup> We also accept responsibility, as is written in the law, for bringing the firstborn of our sons and our cattle and the firstborn of our herds and of our flocks to the temple of our God, to the priests who are ministering in the temple of our God.

<sup>37</sup> We will also bring the first of our coarse meal, of our contributions, of the fruit of every tree, of new wine, and of olive oil to the priests at the storerooms of the temple of our God, along with a tenth of the produce of our land to the Levites, for the Levites are the ones who collect the tithes in all the cities where we work.

<sup>38</sup> A priest of Aaron's line will be with the Levites when the Levites collect the tithes, and the Levites will bring up a tenth of the tithes to the temple of our God, to the storerooms of the treasury.

<sup>39</sup> The Israelites and the Levites will bring the contribution of the grain, the new wine, and the olive oil to the storerooms where the utensils of the sanctuary are kept, and where the priests who minister stay, along with the gatekeepers and the singers. We will not neglect the temple of our God."

11

<sup>1</sup> So the leaders of the people settled in Jerusalem, while the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of every ten to settle in Jerusalem, the holy city, while the other nine remained in other cities.

<sup>3</sup> These are the provincial leaders who settled in Jerusalem. (While other Israelites, the priests, the Levites, the temple attendants, and the sons of the servants of Solomon settled in the cities of Judah, each on his own property in their cities, <sup>4</sup> some of the descendants of Judah and some of the descendants of Benjamin settled in Jerusalem.)

Of the descendants of Judah:

Athaiah son of Uziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, from the descendants of Perez;

<sup>5</sup> and Maaseiah son of Baruch, the son of Col-Hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, from the descendants of Shelah.

<sup>6</sup> The sum total of the descendants of Perez who were settling in Jerusalem was 468 exceptional men.

Sallu son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiiah, <sup>8</sup> and his followers, Gabbai and Sallai – 928 in all.

<sup>9</sup> Joel son of Zicri was the officer in charge of them, and Judah son of Hassenuah was second-in-command over the city.

<sup>10</sup> From the priests:

Jedaiah son of Joiarib, Jakin,

<sup>11</sup> Seraiah son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, supervisor in the temple of God,

<sup>12</sup> and their colleagues who were carrying out work for the temple – 822; and Adaiah son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malkijah,

<sup>13</sup> and his colleagues who were heads of families – 242; and Amashsai son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, <sup>14</sup> and his colleagues who were exceptional men – 128. The officer over them was Zabdiel the son of Haggadolim.

Shemaiah son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni;

<sup>16</sup> Shabbethai and Jozabad, leaders of the Levites, were in charge of the external work for the temple of God;

<sup>17</sup> Mattaniah son of Mica, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, the praise leader who led in thanksgiving and prayer; Bakbukiah, second among his colleagues; and Abda son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

<sup>18</sup> The sum total of the Levites in the holy city was 284.

<sup>19</sup> And the gatekeepers:

Akkub, Talmon and their colleagues who were guarding the gates – 172.

<sup>20</sup> And the rest of the Israelites, with the priests and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, each on his own property.

<sup>21</sup> The temple attendants were living on Ophel, and Ziha and Gishpa were over them.

<sup>22</sup> The overseer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica. He was one of Asaph's descendants who were the singers responsible for the service of the temple of God.

<sup>23</sup> For they were under royal orders which determined their activity day by day.

<sup>24</sup> Pethahiah son of Meshezabel, one of the descendants of Zerah son of Judah, was an adviser to the king in every matter pertaining to the people.

<sup>25</sup> As for the settlements with their fields, some of the people of Judah settled in Kiriath Arba and its neighboring villages, in Dibon and its villages, in Jekabzeel and its settlements,

<sup>26</sup> in Jeshua, in Moladah, in Beth Pelet,

<sup>28</sup> in Ziklag, in Meconah and its villages,

<sup>30</sup> Zanoah, Adullam and their settlements, in Lachish and its fields, and in Azekah and its villages. So they were encamped from Beer Sheba to the Valley of Hinnom.

<sup>31</sup> Some of the descendants of Benjamin settled in Geba, Micmash, Aija, Bethel and its villages,

12

<sup>7</sup> Sallu, Amok, Hilkiyah, and Jedaiah. These were the leaders of the priests and their colleagues in the days of Jeshua.

<sup>8</sup> And the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, who together with his colleagues was in charge of the songs of thanksgiving.

<sup>10</sup> Jeshua was the father of Joiakim, Joiakim was the father of Eliashib, Eliashib was the father of Joiada, <sup>11</sup> Joiada was the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan was the father of Jaddua.

<sup>12</sup> In the days of Joiakim, these were the priests who were leaders of the families: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah;

<sup>22</sup> As for the Levites, in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan and Jaddua the heads of families were recorded, as were the priests during the reign of Darius the Persian.

<sup>23</sup> The descendants of Levi were recorded in the Book of the Chronicles as heads of families up to the days of Johanan son of Eliashib.

<sup>24</sup> And the leaders of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, Jeshua son of Kadmiel, and their colleagues, who stood opposite them to offer praise and thanks, one contingent corresponding to the other, as specified by David the man of God.

<sup>25</sup> Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers who were guarding the storerooms at the gates.

<sup>26</sup> These all served in the days of Joiakim son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor and of Ezra the priestly scribe.

The Wall of Jerusalem is Dedicated

<sup>27</sup> At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, they sought out the Levites from all the places they lived to bring them to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication joyfully with songs of thanksgiving and songs accompanied by cymbals, harps, and lyres.

<sup>28</sup> The singers were also assembled from the district around Jerusalem and from the settlements of the Netophathites

<sup>29</sup> and from Beth Gilgal and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth, for the singers had built settlements for themselves around Jerusalem.

<sup>30</sup> When the priests and Levites had purified themselves, they purified the people, the gates, and the wall.

<sup>31</sup> I brought the leaders of Judah up on top of the wall, and I appointed two large choirs to give thanks. One was to proceed on the top of the wall southward toward the Dung Gate.

<sup>35</sup> some of the priests with trumpets, Zechariah son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph,

<sup>38</sup> The second choir was proceeding in the opposite direction. I followed them, along with half the people, on top of the wall, past the Tower of the Ovens to the Broad Wall, <sup>39</sup> over the Ephraim Gate, the Jeshanah Gate, the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananel, and the Tower of the Hundred, to the Sheep Gate. They stopped at the Gate of the Guard.

<sup>40</sup> Then the two choirs that gave thanks took their stations in the temple of God. I did also, along with half the officials with me,

<sup>42</sup> and also Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malkijah, Elam, and Ezer. The choirs sang loudly under the direction of Jezrahiah.

<sup>43</sup> And on that day they offered great sacrifices and rejoiced, for God had given them great joy. The women and children also rejoiced. The rejoicing in Jerusalem could be heard from far away.

<sup>44</sup> On that day men were appointed over the storerooms for the contributions, first fruits, and tithes, to gather into them from the fields of the cities the portions prescribed by the law for the priests and the Levites, for the people of Judah took delight in the priests and Levites who were ministering.

<sup>45</sup> They performed the service of their God and the service of purification, along with the singers and gatekeepers, according to the commandment of David and his son Solomon.

<sup>46</sup> For long ago, in the days of David and Asaph, there had been directors for the singers and for the songs of praise and thanks to God.

<sup>47</sup> So in the days of Zerubbabel and in the days of Nehemiah, all Israel was contributing the portions for the singers and gatekeepers, according to the daily need. They also set aside the portion for the Levites, and the Levites set aside the portion for the descendants of Aaron.

13

<sup>1</sup> On that day the book of Moses was read aloud in the hearing of the people. They found written in it that no Ammonite or Moabite may ever enter the assembly of God,

<sup>2</sup> for they had not met the Israelites with food and water, but instead had hired Balaam to curse them. (Our God, however, turned the curse into blessing.)

<sup>3</sup> When they heard the law, they removed from Israel all who were of mixed ancestry.

<sup>4</sup> But prior to this time, Eliashib the priest, a relative of Tobiah, had been appointed over the storerooms of the temple of our God.

<sup>5</sup> He made for himself a large storeroom where previously they had been keeping the grain offering, the incense, and the vessels, along with the tithes of the grain, the new wine, and the olive oil as commanded for the Levites, the singers, the gate keepers, and the offering for the priests.

<sup>6</sup> During all this time I was not in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes of Babylon, I had gone back to the king. After some time I had requested leave of the king, <sup>7</sup> and I returned to Jerusalem. Then I discovered the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah by supplying him with a storeroom in the courts of the temple of God.

<sup>8</sup> I was very upset, and I threw all of Tobiah's household possessions out of the storeroom.

<sup>9</sup> Then I gave instructions that the storerooms should be purified, and I brought back the equipment of the temple of God, along with the grain offering and the incense.

<sup>10</sup> I also discovered that the grain offerings for the Levites had not been provided, and that as a result the Levites and the singers who performed this work had all gone off to their fields.

<sup>11</sup> So I registered a complaint with the leaders, asking "Why is the temple of God neglected?" Then I gathered them and reassigned them to their positions.

<sup>12</sup> Then all of Judah brought the tithe of the grain, the new wine, and the olive oil to the storerooms.

<sup>13</sup> I gave instructions that Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and a certain Levite named Pedaiah be put in charge of the storerooms, and that Hanan son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah, be their assistant, for they were regarded as trustworthy. It was then their responsibility to oversee the distribution to their colleagues.

<sup>14</sup> Please remember me for this, O my God, and do not wipe out the kindness that I have done for the temple of my God and for its services!

<sup>15</sup> In those days I saw people in Judah treading winepresses on the Sabbath, bringing in heaps of grain and loading them onto donkeys, along with wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of loads, and bringing them to Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. So I warned them on the day that they sold these provisions.

<sup>16</sup> The people from Tyre who lived there were bringing fish and all kinds of merchandise and were selling it on the Sabbath to the people of Judah – and in Jerusalem, of all places!

<sup>17</sup> So I registered a complaint with the nobles of Judah, saying to them, “What is this evil thing that you are doing, profaning the Sabbath day?”

<sup>18</sup> Isn’t this the way your ancestors acted, causing our God to bring on them and on this city all this misfortune? And now you are causing even more wrath on Israel, profaning the Sabbath like this!”

<sup>19</sup> When the evening shadows began to fall on the gates of Jerusalem before the Sabbath, I ordered the doors to be closed. I further directed that they were not to be opened until after the Sabbath. I positioned some of my young men at the gates so that no load could enter on the Sabbath day.

<sup>20</sup> The traders and sellers of all kinds of merchandise spent the night outside Jerusalem once or twice.

<sup>21</sup> But I warned them and said, “Why do you spend the night by the wall? If you repeat this, I will forcibly remove you!” From that time on they did not show up on the Sabbath.

<sup>22</sup> Then I directed the Levites to purify themselves and come and guard the gates in order to keep the Sabbath day holy.

For this please remember me, O my God, and have pity on me in keeping with your great love.

<sup>23</sup> Also in those days I saw the men of Judah who had married women from Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab.

<sup>24</sup> Half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod (or the language of one of the other peoples mentioned ) and were unable to speak the language of Judah.

<sup>25</sup> So I entered a complaint with them. I called down a curse on them, and I struck some of the men and pulled out their hair. I had them swear by God saying, “You will not marry off your daughters to their sons, and you will not take any of their daughters as wives for your sons or for yourselves!”

<sup>26</sup> Was it not because of things like these that King Solomon of Israel sinned? Among the many nations there was no king like him. He was loved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel. But the foreign wives made even him sin!

<sup>27</sup> Should we then in your case hear that you do all this great evil, thereby being unfaithful to our God by marrying foreign wives?”

<sup>28</sup> Now one of the sons of Joiada son of Eliashib the high priest was a son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite. So I banished him from my sight.

<sup>29</sup> Please remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, the covenant of the priesthood, and the Levites.

<sup>30</sup> So I purified them of everything foreign, and I assigned specific duties to the priests and the Levites.

<sup>31</sup> I also provided for the wood offering at the appointed times and also for the first fruits.

Please remember me for good, O my God.

Esther

The King Throws a Lavish Party

<sup>1</sup> The following events happened in the days of Ahasuerus. (I am referring to that Ahasuerus who used to rule over a hundred and twenty-seven provinces extending all the way from India to Ethiopia. )

<sup>3</sup> in the third year of his reign he provided a banquet for all his officials and his servants. The army of Persia and Media was present, as well as the nobles and the officials of the provinces.

<sup>4</sup> He displayed the riches of his royal glory and the splendor of his majestic greatness for a lengthy period of time – a hundred and eighty days, to be exact!

<sup>5</sup> When those days were completed, the king then provided a seven-day banquet for all the people who were present in Susa the citadel, for those of highest standing to the most lowly. It was held in the court located in the garden of the royal palace.

<sup>6</sup> The furnishings included linen and purple curtains hung by cords of the finest linen and purple wool on silver rings, alabaster columns, gold and silver couches displayed on a floor made of valuable stones of alabaster, mother-of-pearl, and mineral stone.

<sup>7</sup> Drinks were served in golden containers, all of which differed from one another. Royal wine was available in abundance at the king's expense.

<sup>8</sup> There were no restrictions on the drinking, for the king had instructed all of his supervisors that they should do as everyone so desired.

<sup>9</sup> Queen Vashti also gave a banquet for the women in King Ahasuerus' royal palace.

Queen Vashti is Removed from Her Royal Position

<sup>10</sup> On the seventh day, as King Ahasuerus was feeling the effects of the wine, he ordered Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven eunuchs who attended him, <sup>11</sup> to bring Queen Vashti into the king's presence wearing her royal high turban. He wanted to show the people and the officials her beauty, for she was very attractive.

<sup>12</sup> But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's bidding conveyed through the eunuchs. Then the king became extremely angry, and his rage consumed him.

<sup>13</sup> The king then inquired of the wise men who were discerners of the times – for it was the royal custom to confer with all those who were proficient in laws and legalities.

<sup>14</sup> Those who were closest to him were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan. These men were the seven officials of Persia and Media who saw the king on a regular basis and had the most prominent offices in the kingdom.

<sup>15</sup> The king asked, "By law, what should be done to Queen Vashti in light of the fact that she has not obeyed the instructions of King Ahasuerus conveyed through the eunuchs?"

<sup>16</sup> Memucan then replied to the king and the officials, "The wrong of Queen Vashti is not against the king alone, but against all the officials and all the people who are throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus.

<sup>17</sup> For the matter concerning the queen will spread to all the women, leading them to treat their husbands with contempt, saying, 'When King Ahasuerus gave orders to bring Queen Vashti into his presence, she would not come.'

<sup>18</sup> And this very day the noble ladies of Persia and Media who have heard the matter concerning the queen will respond in the same way to all the royal officials, and there will be more than enough contempt and anger!

<sup>19</sup> If the king is so inclined, let a royal edict go forth from him, and let it be written in the laws of Persia and Media that cannot be repealed, that Vashti may not come into the presence of King Ahasuerus, and let the king convey her royalty to another who is more deserving than she.

<sup>20</sup> And let the king's decision which he will enact be disseminated throughout all his kingdom, vast though it is. Then all the women will give honor to their husbands, from the most prominent to the lowly."

<sup>21</sup> The matter seemed appropriate to the king and the officials. So the king acted on the advice of Memucan.

<sup>22</sup> He sent letters throughout all the royal provinces, to each province according to its own script and to each people according to its own language, that every man should be ruling his family and should be speaking the language of his own people.

2

<sup>1</sup> When these things had been accomplished and the rage of King Ahasuerus had diminished, he remembered Vashti and what she had done and what had been decided against her.

<sup>2</sup> The king's servants who attended him said, "Let a search be conducted in the king's behalf for attractive young women.

<sup>3</sup> And let the king appoint officers throughout all the provinces of his kingdom to gather all the attractive young women to Susa the citadel, to the harem under the authority of Hegai, the king's eunuch who oversees the women, and let him provide whatever cosmetics they desire.

<sup>4</sup> Let the young woman whom the king finds most attractive become queen in place of Vashti." This seemed like a good idea to the king, so he acted accordingly.

<sup>5</sup> Now there happened to be a Jewish man in Susa the citadel whose name was Mordecai. He was the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjaminite, <sup>6</sup> who had been taken into exile from Jerusalem with the captives who had been carried into exile with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had taken into exile.

<sup>7</sup> Now he was acting as the guardian of Hadassah (that is, Esther), the daughter of his uncle, for neither her father nor her mother was alive. This young woman was very attractive and had a beautiful figure. When her father and mother died, Mordecai had raised her as if she were his own daughter.

<sup>8</sup> It so happened that when the king's edict and his law became known many young women were taken to Susa the citadel to be placed under the authority of Hegai. Esther also was taken to the royal palace to be under the authority of Hegai, who was overseeing the women.

<sup>9</sup> This young woman pleased him, and she found favor with him. He quickly provided her with her cosmetics and her rations; he also provided her with the seven specially chosen young women who were from the palace. He then transferred her and her young women to the best quarters in the harem.

<sup>10</sup> Now Esther had not disclosed her people or her lineage, for Mordecai had instructed her not to do so.

<sup>11</sup> And day after day Mordecai used to walk back and forth in front of the court of the harem in order to learn how Esther was doing and what might happen to her.

<sup>12</sup> At the end of the twelve months that were required for the women, when the turn of each young woman arrived to go to King Ahasuerus – for in this way they had to fulfill their time of cosmetic treatment: six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with perfume and various ointments used by women –

<sup>13</sup> the woman would go to the king in the following way: Whatever she asked for would be provided for her to take with her from the harem to the royal palace.

<sup>14</sup> In the evening she went, and in the morning she returned to a separate part of the harem, to the authority of Shaashgaz the king's eunuch who was overseeing the concubines. She would not go back to the king unless the king was pleased with her and she was requested by name.

<sup>15</sup> When it became the turn of Esther daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai (who had raised her as if she were his own daughter ) to go to the king, she did not request anything except what Hegai the king's eunuch, who was overseer of the women, had recommended. Yet Esther met with the approval of all who saw her.

<sup>16</sup> Then Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus at his royal residence in the tenth month (that is, the month of Tebeth) in the seventh year of his reign.

<sup>17</sup> And the king loved Esther more than all the other women, and she met with his loving approval more than all the other young women. So he placed the royal high turban on her head and appointed her queen in place of Vashti.

<sup>18</sup> Then the king prepared a large banquet for all his officials and his servants – it was actually Esther's banquet. He also set aside a holiday for the provinces, and he provided for offerings at the king's expense.

Mordecai Learns of a Plot against the King

<sup>19</sup> Now when the young women were being gathered again, Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate.

<sup>20</sup> Esther was still not divulging her lineage or her people, just as Mordecai had instructed her. Esther continued to do whatever Mordecai said, just as she had done when he was raising her.

<sup>22</sup> When Mordecai learned of the conspiracy, he informed Queen Esther, and Esther told the king in Mordecai's behalf.

<sup>23</sup> The king then had the matter investigated and, finding it to be so, had the two conspirators hanged on a gallows. It was then recorded in the daily chronicles in the king's presence.

3

<sup>1</sup> Some time later King Ahasuerus promoted Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, exalting him and setting his position above that of all the officials who were with him.

<sup>2</sup> As a result, all the king's servants who were at the king's gate were bowing and paying homage to Haman, for the king had so commanded. However, Mordecai did not bow, nor did he pay him homage.

<sup>3</sup> Then the servants of the king who were at the king's gate asked Mordecai, "Why are you violating the king's commandment?"

<sup>4</sup> And after they had spoken to him day after day without his paying any attention to them, they informed Haman to see whether this attitude on Mordecai's part would be permitted. Furthermore, he had disclosed to them that he was a Jew.

<sup>5</sup> When Haman saw that Mordecai was not bowing or paying homage to him, he was filled with rage.

<sup>6</sup> But the thought of striking out against Mordecai alone was repugnant to him, for he had been informed of the identity of Mordecai's people. So Haman sought to destroy all the Jews (that is, the people of Mordecai) who were in all the kingdom of Ahasuerus.

<sup>7</sup> In the first month (that is, the month of Nisan), in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus' reign, pur (that is, the lot) was cast before Haman in order to determine a day and a month. It turned out to be the twelfth month (that is, the month of Adar).

<sup>8</sup> Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There is a particular people that is dispersed and spread among the inhabitants throughout all the provinces of your kingdom whose laws differ from those of all other peoples. Furthermore, they do not observe the king's laws. It is not appropriate for the king to provide a haven for them.

<sup>9</sup> If the king is so inclined, let an edict be issued to destroy them. I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to be conveyed to the king's treasuries for the officials who carry out this business."

<sup>10</sup> So the king removed his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, who was hostile toward the Jews.

<sup>12</sup> So the royal scribes were summoned in the first month, on the thirteenth day of the month. Everything Haman commanded was written to the king's satraps and governors who were in every province and to the officials of every people, province by province according to its script and people by people according to its language. In the name of King Ahasuerus it was written and sealed with the king's signet ring.

<sup>13</sup> Letters were sent by the runners to all the king's provinces stating that they should destroy, kill, and annihilate all the Jews, from youth to elderly, both women and children, on a particular day, namely the thirteenth day of the twelfth month (that is, the month of Adar), and to loot and plunder their possessions.

<sup>14</sup> A copy of this edict was to be presented as law throughout every province; it was to be made known to all the inhabitants, so that they would be prepared for this day.

<sup>15</sup> The messengers scurried forth with the king's order. The edict was issued in Susa the citadel. While the king and Haman sat down to drink, the city of Susa was in an uproar!

4

<sup>1</sup> Now when Mordecai became aware of all that had been done, he tore his garments and put on sackcloth and ashes. He went out into the city, crying out in a loud and bitter voice.

<sup>2</sup> But he went no further than the king's gate, for no one was permitted to enter the king's gate clothed in sackcloth.

<sup>3</sup> Throughout each and every province where the king's edict and law were announced there was considerable mourning among the Jews, along with fasting, weeping, and sorrow. Sackcloth and ashes were characteristic of many.

<sup>4</sup> When Esther's female attendants and her eunuchs came and informed her about Mordecai's behavior, the queen was overcome with anguish. Although she sent garments for Mordecai to put on so that he could remove his sackcloth, he would not accept them.

<sup>5</sup> So Esther called for Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs who had been placed at her service, and instructed him to find out the cause and reason for Mordecai's behavior.

<sup>7</sup> Then Mordecai related to him everything that had happened to him, even the specific amount of money that Haman had offered to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews to be destroyed.

<sup>8</sup> He also gave him a written copy of the law that had been disseminated in Susa for their destruction so that he could show it to Esther and talk to her about it. He also gave instructions that she should go to the king to implore him and petition him on behalf of her people.

<sup>9</sup> So Hathach returned and related Mordecai's instructions to Esther.

<sup>11</sup> "All the servants of the king and the people of the king's provinces know that there is only one law applicable to any man or woman who comes uninvited to the king in the inner court – that person will be put to death, unless the king extends to him the gold scepter, permitting him to be spared. Now I have not been invited to come to the king for some thirty days!"

<sup>12</sup> When Esther's reply was conveyed to Mordecai,

<sup>13</sup> he said to take back this answer to Esther:

<sup>14</sup> "Don't imagine that because you are part of the king's household you will be the one Jew who will escape. If you keep quiet at this time, liberation and protection for the Jews will appear from another source, while you and your father's household perish. It may very well be that you have achieved royal status for such a time as this!"

<sup>15</sup> Then Esther sent this reply to Mordecai:

<sup>16</sup> "Go, assemble all the Jews who are found in Susa and fast in my behalf. Don't eat and don't drink for three days, night or day. My female attendants and I will also fast in the same way. Afterward I will go to the king, even though it violates the law. If I perish, I perish!"

<sup>17</sup> So Mordecai set out to do everything that Esther had instructed him.

<sup>1</sup> It so happened that on the third day Esther put on her royal attire and stood in the inner court of the palace, opposite the king's quarters. The king was sitting on his royal throne in the palace, opposite the entrance.

<sup>2</sup> When the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, she met with his approval. The king extended to Esther the gold scepter that was in his hand, and Esther approached and touched the end of the scepter.

<sup>3</sup> The king said to her, "What is on your mind, Queen Esther? What is your request? Even as much as half the kingdom will be given to you!"

<sup>4</sup> Esther replied, "If the king is so inclined, let the king and Haman come today to the banquet that I have prepared for him."

<sup>5</sup> The king replied, "Find Haman quickly so that we can do as Esther requests."

So the king and Haman went to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

<sup>6</sup> While at the banquet of wine, the king said to Esther, "What is your request? It shall be given to you. What is your petition? Ask for as much as half the kingdom, and it shall be done!"

<sup>7</sup> Esther responded, "My request and my petition is this:

<sup>8</sup> If I have found favor in the king's sight and if the king is inclined to grant my request and perform my petition, let the king and Haman come tomorrow to the banquet that I will prepare for them. At that time I will do as the king wishes.

Haman Expresses His Hatred of Mordecai

<sup>9</sup> Now Haman went forth that day pleased and very much encouraged. But when Haman saw Mordecai at the king's gate, and he did not rise nor tremble in his presence, Haman was filled with rage toward Mordecai.

<sup>10</sup> But Haman restrained himself and went on to his home.

He then sent for his friends to join him, along with his wife Zeresh.

<sup>11</sup> Haman then recounted to them his fabulous wealth, his many sons, and how the king had magnified him and exalted him over the king's other officials and servants.

<sup>12</sup> Haman said, "Furthermore, Queen Esther invited only me to accompany the king to the banquet that she prepared! And also tomorrow I am invited along with the king.

<sup>13</sup> Yet all of this fails to satisfy me so long as I have to see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate."

<sup>14</sup> Haman's wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, "Have a gallows seventy-five feet high built, and in the morning tell the king that Mordecai should be hanged on it. Then go with the king to the banquet contented."

It seemed like a good idea to Haman, so he had the gallows built.

6

<sup>1</sup> Throughout that night the king was unable to sleep, so he asked for the book containing the historical records to be brought. As the records were being read in the king's presence, <sup>2</sup> it was found written that Mordecai had disclosed that Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs who guarded the entrance, had plotted to assassinate King Ahasuerus.

<sup>3</sup> The king asked, "What great honor was bestowed on Mordecai because of this?" The king's attendants who served him responded, "Not a thing was done for him."

<sup>4</sup> Then the king said, "Who is that in the courtyard?" Now Haman had come to the outer courtyard of the palace to suggest that the king hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had constructed for him.

<sup>5</sup> The king's attendants said to him, "It is Haman who is standing in the courtyard." The king said, "Let him enter."

<sup>6</sup> So Haman came in, and the king said to him, "What should be done for the man whom the king wishes to honor?" Haman thought to himself, "Who is it that the king would want to honor more than me?"

<sup>7</sup> So Haman said to the king, "For the man whom the king wishes to honor, <sup>8</sup> let them bring royal attire which the king himself has worn and a horse on which the king himself has ridden - one bearing the royal insignia!

<sup>9</sup> Then let this clothing and this horse be given to one of the king's noble officials. Let him then clothe the man whom the king wishes to honor, and let him lead him about through the plaza of the city on the horse, calling before him, 'So shall it be done to the man whom the king wishes to honor!' "

<sup>10</sup> The king then said to Haman, "Go quickly! Take the clothing and the horse, just as you have described, and do as you just indicated to Mordecai the Jew who sits at the king's gate. Don't neglect a single thing of all that you have said."

<sup>11</sup> So Haman took the clothing and the horse, and he clothed Mordecai. He led him about on the horse throughout the plaza of the city, calling before him, "So shall it be done to the man whom the king wishes to honor!"

<sup>12</sup> Then Mordecai again sat at the king's gate, while Haman hurried away to his home, mournful and with a veil over his head.

<sup>13</sup> Haman then related to his wife Zeresh and to all his friends everything that had happened to him. These wise men, along with his wife Zeresh, said to him, "If indeed this Mordecai before whom you have begun to fall is Jewish, you will not prevail against him. No, you will surely fall before him!"

<sup>14</sup> While they were still speaking with him, the king's eunuchs arrived. They quickly brought Haman to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

<sup>2</sup> On the second day of the banquet of wine the king asked Esther, "What is your request, Queen Esther? It shall be granted to you. And what is your petition? Ask up to half the kingdom, and it shall be done!"

<sup>3</sup> Queen Esther replied, "If I have met with your approval, O king, and if the king is so inclined, grant me my life as my request, and my people as my petition.

<sup>4</sup> For we have been sold – both I and my people – to destruction and to slaughter and to annihilation! If we had simply been sold as male and female slaves, I would have remained silent, for such distress would not have been sufficient for troubling the king."

<sup>5</sup> Then King Ahasuerus responded to Queen Esther, "Who is this individual? Where is this person to be found who is presumptuous enough to act in this way?"

Then Haman became terrified in the presence of the king and queen.

<sup>7</sup> In rage the king arose from the banquet of wine and withdrew to the palace garden. Meanwhile, Haman stood to beg Queen Esther for his life, for he realized that the king had now determined a catastrophic end for him.

<sup>8</sup> When the king returned from the palace garden to the banquet of wine, Haman was throwing himself down on the couch where Esther was lying. The king exclaimed, "Will he also attempt to rape the queen while I am still in the building!"

As these words left the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.

<sup>9</sup> Harbona, one of the king's eunuchs, said, "Indeed, there is the gallows that Haman made for Mordecai, who spoke out in the king's behalf. It stands near Haman's home and is seventy-five feet high."

The king said, "Hang him on it!"

<sup>10</sup> So they hanged Haman on the very gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. The king's rage then abated.

8

<sup>1</sup> On that same day King Ahasuerus gave the estate of Haman, that adversary of the Jews, to Queen Esther. Now Mordecai had come before the king, for Esther had revealed how he was related to her.

<sup>2</sup> The king then removed his signet ring (the very one he had taken back from Haman) and gave it to Mordecai. And Esther designated Mordecai to be in charge of Haman's estate.

<sup>3</sup> Then Esther again spoke with the king, falling at his feet. She wept and begged him for mercy, that he might nullify the evil of Haman the Agagite which he had intended against the Jews.

<sup>4</sup> When the king extended to Esther the gold scepter, she arose and stood before the king.

<sup>5</sup> She said, "If the king is so inclined and if I have met with his approval and if the matter is agreeable to the king and if I am attractive to him, let an edict be written rescinding those recorded intentions of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, which he wrote in order to destroy the Jews who are throughout all the king's provinces.

<sup>6</sup> For how can I watch the calamity that will befall my people, and how can I watch the destruction of my relatives?"

<sup>7</sup> King Ahasuerus replied to Queen Esther and to Mordecai the Jew, "Look, I have already given Haman's estate to Esther, and he has been hanged on the gallows because he took hostile action against the Jews.

<sup>8</sup> Now you write in the king's name whatever in your opinion is appropriate concerning the Jews and seal it with the king's signet ring. Any decree that is written in the king's name and sealed with the king's signet ring cannot be rescinded.

<sup>9</sup> The king's scribes were quickly summoned – in the third month (that is, the month of Sivan), on the twenty-third day. They wrote out everything that Mordecai instructed to the Jews and to the satraps and the governors and the officials of the provinces all the way from India to Ethiopia – a hundred and twenty-seven provinces in all – to each province in its own script and to each people in their own language, and to the Jews according to their own script and their own language.

<sup>10</sup> Mordecai wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed it with the king's signet ring. He then sent letters by couriers on horses, who rode royal horses that were very swift.

<sup>11</sup> The king thereby allowed the Jews who were in every city to assemble and to stand up for themselves – to destroy, to kill, and to annihilate any army of whatever people or province that should become their adversaries, including their women and children, and to confiscate their property.

<sup>12</sup> This was to take place on a certain day throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus – namely, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month (that is, the month of Adar).

<sup>13</sup> A copy of the edict was to be presented as law throughout each and every province and made known to all peoples, so that the Jews might be prepared on that day to avenge themselves from their enemies.

<sup>14</sup> The couriers who were riding the royal horses went forth with the king's edict without delay. And the law was presented in Susa the citadel as well.

<sup>15</sup> Now Mordecai went out from the king's presence in purple and white royal attire, with a large golden crown and a purple linen mantle. The city of Susa shouted with joy.

<sup>17</sup> Throughout every province and throughout every city where the king's edict and his law arrived, the Jews experienced happiness and joy, banquets and holidays. Many of the resident peoples pretended to be Jews, because the fear of the Jews had overcome them.

9

<sup>1</sup> In the twelfth month (that is, the month of Adar), on its thirteenth day, the edict of the king and his law were to be executed. It was on this day that the enemies of the Jews had supposed that they would gain power over them. But contrary to expectations, the Jews gained power over their enemies.

<sup>2</sup> The Jews assembled themselves in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus to strike out against those who were seeking their harm. No one was able to stand before them, for dread of them fell on all the peoples.

<sup>3</sup> All the officials of the provinces, the satraps, the governors and those who performed the king's business were assisting the Jews, for the dread of Mordecai had fallen on them.

<sup>5</sup> The Jews struck all their enemies with the sword, bringing death and destruction, and they did as they pleased with their enemies.

<sup>6</sup> In Susa the citadel the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men.

<sup>10</sup> the ten sons of Haman son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews. But they did not confiscate their property.

<sup>11</sup> On that same day the number of those killed in Susa the citadel was brought to the king's attention.

<sup>12</sup> Then the king said to Queen Esther, "In Susa the citadel the Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men and the ten sons of Haman! What then have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? What is your request? It shall be given to you. What other petition do you have? It shall be done."

<sup>13</sup> Esther replied, "If the king is so inclined, let the Jews who are in Susa be permitted to act tomorrow also according to today's law, and let them hang the ten sons of Haman on the gallows."

<sup>14</sup> So the king issued orders for this to be done. A law was passed in Susa, and the ten sons of Haman were hanged.

<sup>15</sup> The Jews who were in Susa then assembled on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar, and they killed three hundred men in Susa. But they did not confiscate their property.

<sup>16</sup> The rest of the Jews who were throughout the provinces of the king assembled in order to stand up for themselves and to have rest from their enemies. They killed seventy-five thousand of their adversaries, but they did not confiscate their property.

<sup>17</sup> All of this happened on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar. They then rested on the fourteenth day and made it a day for banqueting and happiness.

The Origins of the Feast of Purim

<sup>18</sup> But the Jews who were in Susa assembled on the thirteenth and fourteenth days, and rested on the fifteenth, making it a day for banqueting and happiness.

<sup>19</sup> This is why the Jews who are in the rural country – those who live in rural cities – set aside the fourteenth day of the month of Adar as a holiday for happiness, banqueting, holiday, and sending gifts to one another.

<sup>20</sup> Mordecai wrote these matters down and sent letters to all the Jews who were throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far,

<sup>21</sup> to have them observe the fourteenth and the fifteenth day of the month of Adar each year <sup>22</sup> as the time when the Jews gave themselves rest from their enemies – the month when their trouble was turned to happiness and their mourning to a holiday. These were to be days of banqueting, happiness, sending gifts to one another, and providing for the poor.

<sup>23</sup> So the Jews committed themselves to continue what they had begun to do and to what Mordecai had written to them.

<sup>24</sup> For Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised plans against the Jews to destroy them. He had cast pur (that is, the lot) in order to afflict and destroy them.

<sup>25</sup> But when the matter came to the king's attention, the king gave written orders that Haman's evil intentions that he had devised against the Jews should fall on his own head. He and his sons were hanged on the gallows.

<sup>26</sup> For this reason these days are known as Purim, after the name of pur.

<sup>27</sup> Therefore, because of the account found in this letter and what they had faced in this regard and what had happened to them, the Jews established as binding on themselves, their descendants, and all who joined their company that they should observe these two days without fail, just as written and at the appropriate time on an annual basis.

<sup>28</sup> These days were to be remembered and to be celebrated in every generation and in every family, every province, and every city. The Jews were not to fail to observe these days of Purim; the remembrance of them was not to cease among their descendants.

<sup>29</sup> So Queen Esther, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter about Purim.

<sup>30</sup> Letters were sent to all the Jews in the hundred and twenty-seven provinces of the empire of Ahasuerus – words of true peace –

<sup>31</sup> to establish these days of Purim in their proper times, just as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had established, and just as they had established both for themselves and their descendants, matters pertaining to fasting and lamentation.

<sup>32</sup> Esther's command established these matters of Purim, and the matter was officially recorded.

10

<sup>2</sup> Now all the actions carried out under his authority and his great achievements, along with an exact statement concerning the greatness of Mordecai, whom the king promoted, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Media and Persia?

<sup>3</sup> Mordecai the Jew was second only to King Ahasuerus. He was the highest-ranking Jew, and he was admired by his numerous relatives. He worked enthusiastically for the good of his people and was an advocate for the welfare of all his descendants.

Job

I. The Prologue (1:1-2:13) Job's Good Life

<sup>1</sup> There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job. And that man was pure and upright, one who feared God and turned away from evil.

<sup>2</sup> Seven sons and three daughters were born to him.

<sup>3</sup> His possessions included 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 500 yoke of oxen, and 500 female donkeys; in addition he had a very great household. Thus he was the greatest of all the people in the east.

<sup>4</sup> Now his sons used to go and hold a feast in the house of each one in turn, and they would send and invite their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

<sup>5</sup> When the days of their feasting were finished, Job would send for them and sanctify them; he would get up early in the morning and offer burnt offerings according to the number of them all. For Job thought, "Perhaps my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts." This was Job's customary practice.

Satan's Accusation of Job

<sup>6</sup> Now the day came when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD – and Satan also arrived among them.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD | strong="H3069" said to Satan, "Where have you come from?" And Satan answered the LORD | strong="H3069", "From roving about on the earth, and from walking back and forth across it."

<sup>8</sup> So the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? There is no one like him on the earth, a pure and upright man, one who fears God and turns away from evil."

<sup>9</sup> Then Satan answered the LORD, "Is it for nothing that Job fears God?

<sup>10</sup> Have you not made a hedge around him and his household and all that he has on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his livestock have increased in the land.

<sup>11</sup> But extend your hand and strike everything he has, and he will no doubt curse you to your face!"

<sup>12</sup> So the LORD said to Satan, "All right then, everything he has is in your power. Only do not extend your hand against the man himself!" So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD.

Job's Integrity in Adversity

<sup>13</sup> Now the day came when Job's sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house,

<sup>14</sup> and a messenger came to Job, saying, "The oxen were plowing and the donkeys were grazing beside them,

<sup>15</sup> and the Sabeans swooped down and carried them all away, and they killed the servants with the sword! And I – only I alone – escaped to tell you!"

<sup>16</sup> While this one was still speaking, another messenger arrived and said, "The fire of God has fallen from heaven and has burned up the sheep and the servants – it has consumed them! And I – only I alone – escaped to tell you!"

<sup>17</sup> While this one was still speaking another messenger arrived and said, "The Chaldeans formed three bands and made a raid on the camels and carried them all away, and they killed the servants with the sword! And I – only I alone – escaped to tell you!"

<sup>18</sup> While this one was still speaking another messenger arrived and said, “Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother’s house,

<sup>19</sup> and suddenly a great wind swept across the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young people, and they died! And I – only I alone – escaped to tell you!”

<sup>20</sup> Then Job got up and tore his robe. He shaved his head, and then he threw himself down with his face to the ground.

<sup>21</sup> He said, “Naked I came from my mother’s womb, and naked I will return there. The LORD gives, and the LORD takes away. May the name of the LORD be blessed!”

<sup>22</sup> In all this Job did not sin, nor did he charge God with moral impropriety.

<sup>1</sup> Again the day came when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also arrived among them to present himself before the LORD.

<sup>2</sup> And the LORD said to Satan, “Where do you come from?” Satan answered the LORD, “From roving about on the earth, and from walking back and forth across it.”

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD said to Satan, “Have you considered my servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a pure and upright man, one who fears God and turns away from evil. And he still holds firmly to his integrity, so that you stirred me up to destroy him without reason.”

<sup>4</sup> But Satan answered the LORD, “Skin for skin! Indeed, a man will give up all that he has to save his life!

<sup>5</sup> But extend your hand and strike his bone and his flesh, and he will no doubt curse you to your face!”

<sup>6</sup> So the LORD| strong="H3069" said to Satan, “All right, he is in your power; only preserve his life.”

Job's Integrity in Suffering

<sup>7</sup> So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD, and he afflicted Job with a malignant ulcer from the sole of his feet to the top of his head.

<sup>8</sup> Job took a shard of broken pottery to scrape himself with while he was sitting among the ashes.

<sup>9</sup> Then his wife said to him, “Are you still holding firmly to your integrity? Curse God, and die!”

<sup>10</sup> But he replied, “You’re talking like one of the godless women would do! Should we receive what is good from God, and not also receive what is evil?” In all this Job did not sin by what he said.

The Visit of Job's Friends

<sup>11</sup> When Job’s three friends heard about all this calamity that had happened to him, each of them came from his own country – Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. They met together to come to show sympathy for him and to console him.

<sup>12</sup> But when they gazed intently from a distance but did not recognize him, they began to weep loudly. Each of them tore his robes, and they threw dust into the air over their heads.

<sup>13</sup> Then they sat down with him on the ground for seven days and seven nights, yet no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his pain was very great.

<sup>2</sup> Job spoke up and said:

<sup>3</sup> “Let the day on which I was born perish, and the night that said,

'A man has been conceived!'
<sup>4</sup> That day – let it be darkness;
let not God on high regard it,
nor let light shine on it!
<sup>5</sup> Let darkness and the deepest shadow claim it;
let a cloud settle on it;
let whatever blackens the day terrify it!
<sup>6</sup> That night – let darkness seize it;
let it not be included among the days of the year;
let it not enter among the number of the months!
<sup>7</sup> Indeed, let that night be barren;
let no shout of joy penetrate it!
<sup>8</sup> Let those who curse the day curse it –
those who are prepared to rouse Leviathan.
<sup>9</sup> Let its morning stars be darkened;
let it wait for daylight but find none,
nor let it see the first rays of dawn,
<sup>10</sup> because it did not shut the doors of my mother's womb on me, nor did it hide trouble from my eyes!

Job Wishes He Had Died at Birth

<sup>11</sup> "Why did I not die at birth, and why did I not expire
as I came out of the womb?
<sup>12</sup> Why did the knees welcome me, and why were there two breasts that I might nurse at them?
<sup>13</sup> For now I would be lying down and would be quiet,
I would be asleep and then at peace
<sup>14</sup> with kings and counselors of the earth who built for themselves places now desolate, <sup>15</sup> or with princes who possessed gold, who filled their palaces with silver.
<sup>16</sup> Or why was I not buried like a stillborn infant, like infants who have never seen the light?
<sup>17</sup> There the wicked cease from turmoil, and there the weary are at rest.
<sup>18</sup> There the prisoners relax together;
they do not hear the voice of the oppressor.
<sup>19</sup> Small and great are there, and the slave is free from his master.

Longing for Death

<sup>20</sup> "Why does God give light to one who is in misery, and life to those whose soul is bitter, <sup>21</sup> to those who wait for death that does not come, and search for it
more than for hidden treasures,

<sup>22</sup> who rejoice even to jubilation, and are exultant when they find the grave?
<sup>23</sup> Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden,
and whom God has hedged in?
<sup>24</sup> For my sighing comes in place of my food, and my groanings flow forth like water.
<sup>25</sup> For the very thing I dreaded has happened to me, and what I feared has come upon me.
<sup>26</sup> I have no ease, I have no quietness;
I cannot rest; turmoil has come upon me.”

<sup>1</sup> Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered:
<sup>2</sup> “If someone should attempt a word with you, will you be impatient?
But who can refrain from speaking ?
<sup>3</sup> Look, you have instructed many;
