you have strengthened feeble hands.
<sup>4</sup> Your words have supported those who stumbled,
and you have strengthened the knees that gave way.
<sup>5</sup> But now the same thing comes to you, and you are discouraged;
it strikes you,
and you are terrified.
<sup>6</sup> Is not your piety your confidence, and your blameless ways your hope?
Who, being innocent, ever perished?
And where were upright people ever destroyed?
<sup>8</sup> Even as I have seen, those who plow iniquity and those who sow trouble reap the same.
<sup>9</sup> By the breath of God they perish, and by the blast of his anger they are consumed.
<sup>10</sup> There is the roaring of the lion and the growling of the young lion, but the teeth of the young lions are broken.
<sup>11</sup> The mighty lion perishes for lack of prey, and the cubs of the lioness are scattered.
Ungodly Complainers Provoke God's Wrath <sup>12</sup> “Now a word was secretly brought to me, and my ear caught a whisper of it.
<sup>13</sup> In the troubling thoughts of the dreams in the night when a deep sleep falls on men, <sup>14</sup> a trembling gripped me – and a terror! – and made all my bones shake.
<sup>15</sup> Then a breath of air passes by my face;
it makes the hair of my flesh stand up.

but I cannot recognize its appearance;
an image is before my eyes,
and I hear a murmuring voice:
<sup>17</sup> “Is a mortal man righteous before God?
Or a man pure before his Creator?
<sup>18</sup> If God puts no trust in his servants and attributes folly to his angels, <sup>19</sup> how much more to those who live in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, who are crushed like a moth?
<sup>20</sup> They are destroyed between morning and evening;
they perish forever without anyone regarding it.
They die, yet without attaining wisdom.

<sup>1</sup> “Call now! Is there anyone who will answer you?
To which of the holy ones will you turn?
<sup>2</sup> For wrath kills the foolish person, and anger slays the silly one.
<sup>3</sup> I myself have seen the fool taking root, but suddenly I cursed his place of residence.
<sup>4</sup> His children are far from safety, and they are crushed at the place where judgment is rendered, nor is there anyone to deliver them.
<sup>5</sup> The hungry eat up his harvest, and take it even from behind the thorns,
and the thirsty swallow up their fortune.
<sup>6</sup> For evil does not come up from the dust, nor does trouble spring up from the ground, <sup>7</sup> but people are born to trouble, as surely as the sparks fly upward.

Blessings for the One Who Seeks God

<sup>8</sup> “But as for me, I would seek God, and to God I would set forth my case.
<sup>9</sup> He does great and unsearchable things, marvelous things without number; <sup>10</sup> he gives rain on the earth, and sends water on the fields; <sup>11</sup> he sets the lowly on high,
that those who mourn are raised to safety.
<sup>12</sup> He frustrates the plans of the crafty so that their hands cannot accomplish what they had planned!
<sup>13</sup> He catches the wise in their own craftiness, and the counsel of the cunning is brought to a quick end.
<sup>14</sup> They meet with darkness in the daytime, and grope about in the noontime as if it were night.
<sup>15</sup> So he saves from the sword that comes from their mouth,

and iniquity shuts its mouth.

<sup>17</sup> “Therefore, blessed is the man whom God corrects, so do not despise the discipline of the Almighty.

<sup>18</sup> For he wounds, but he also bandages;
he strikes, but his hands also heal.

<sup>19</sup> He will deliver you from six calamities;
yes, in seven no evil will touch you.

<sup>20</sup> In time of famine he will redeem you from death, and in time of war from the power of the sword.

<sup>21</sup> You will be protected from malicious gossip, and will not be afraid of the destruction when it comes.

<sup>22</sup> You will laugh at destruction and famine and need not be afraid of the beasts of the earth.

<sup>23</sup> For you will have a pact with the stones of the field, and the wild animals will be at peace with you.

<sup>24</sup> And you will know that your home will be secure,
and when you inspect your domains,
you will not be missing anything.

<sup>25</sup> You will also know that your children will be numerous, and your descendants like the grass of the earth.

<sup>26</sup> You will come to your grave in a full age,
As stacks of grain are harvested in their season.

<sup>27</sup> Look, we have investigated this, so it is true.
Hear it, and apply it for your own good.”

<sup>2</sup> “Oh, if only my grief could be weighed,
and my misfortune laid on the scales too!

<sup>3</sup> But because it is heavier than the sand of the sea, that is why my words have been wild.

<sup>4</sup> For the arrows of the Almighty are within me;
my spirit drinks their poison;
God’s sudden terrors are arrayed against me.

Complaints Reflect Suffering

<sup>5</sup> “Does the wild donkey bray when it is near grass?
Or does the ox low near its fodder?

<sup>6</sup> Can food that is tasteless be eaten without salt?
Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

<sup>7</sup> I have refused to touch such things;
they are like loathsome food to me.

A Cry for Death

<sup>8</sup> “Oh that my request would be realized, and that God would grant me what I long for!

<sup>9</sup> And that God would be willing to crush me, that he would let loose his hand and kill me.

<sup>10</sup> Then I would yet have my comfort, then I would rejoice,

in spite of pitiless pain, for I have not concealed the words of the Holy One.

11 What is my strength, that I should wait?
and what is my end,
that I should prolong my life?

12 Is my strength like that of stones?
or is my flesh made of bronze?

13 Is not my power to help myself nothing, and has not every resource been driven from me?

Disappointing Friends

14 "To the one in despair, kindness should come from his friend even if he forsakes the fear of the Almighty.

15 My brothers have been as treacherous as a seasonal stream, and as the riverbeds of the intermittent streams that flow away.

16 They are dark because of ice;
snow is piled up over them.

17 When they are scorched, they dry up, when it is hot, they vanish from their place.

18 Caravans turn aside from their routes;
they go into the wasteland and perish.

19 The caravans of Tema looked intently for these streams;
the traveling merchants of Sheba hoped for them.

20 They were distressed, because each one had been so confident;
they arrived there, but were disappointed.

21 For now you have become like these streams that are no help; you see a terror, and are afraid.

Friends' Fears

22 "Have I ever said, 'Give me something, and from your fortune make gifts in my favor'?

23 Or 'Deliver me from the enemy's power, and from the hand of tyrants ransom me'?

No Sin Discovered

24 "Teach me and I, for my part, will be silent; explain to me how I have been mistaken.

25 How painful are honest words!
But what does your reproof prove?

26 Do you intend to criticize mere words, and treat the words of a despairing man as wind?

27 Yes, you would gamble for the fatherless, and auction off your friend.

Other Explanation

28 "Now then, be good enough to look at me; and I will not lie to your face!

29 Relent, let there be no falsehood; reconsider, for my righteousness is intact!

30 Is there any falsehood on my lips?

Can my mouth not discern evil things?

Are not their days also like the days of a hired man?

<sup>2</sup> Like a servant longing for the evening shadow,
and like a hired man looking for his wages,

<sup>3</sup> thus I have been made to inherit months of futility, and nights of sorrow have been appointed to me.

<sup>4</sup> If I lie down, I say, ‘When will I arise?’, and the night stretches on and I toss and turn restlessly until the day dawns.

<sup>5</sup> My body is clothed with worms and dirty scabs;
my skin is broken and festering.

<sup>6</sup> My days are swifter than a weaver’s shuttle and they come to an end without hope.

<sup>7</sup> Remember that my life is but a breath, that my eyes will never again see happiness.

<sup>8</sup> The eye of him who sees me now will see me no more;
your eyes will look for me, but I will be gone.

<sup>9</sup> As a cloud is dispersed and then disappears, so the one who goes down to the grave does not come up again.

<sup>10</sup> He returns no more to his house, nor does his place of residence know him any more.

Job Remonstrates with God

<sup>11</sup> “Therefore, I will not refrain my mouth;
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

<sup>12</sup> Am I the sea, or the creature of the deep, that you must put me under guard?

<sup>13</sup> If I say, “My bed will comfort me, my couch will ease my complaint,”

<sup>14</sup> then you scare me with dreams and terrify me with visions,

<sup>15</sup> so that I would prefer strangling, and death more than life.

<sup>16</sup> I loathe it; I do not want to live forever; leave me alone, for my days are a vapor!

Insignificance of Humans

<sup>17</sup> “What is mankind that you make so much of them, and that you pay attention to them?

<sup>18</sup> And that you visit them every morning, and try them every moment?

<sup>19</sup> Will you never look away from me, will you not let me alone

long enough to swallow my spittle?

<sup>20</sup> If I have sinned – what have I done to you,

O watcher of men?

Why have you set me as your target?

Have I become a burden to you?

<sup>21</sup> And why do you not pardon my transgression, and take away my iniquity?

For now I will lie down in the dust, and you will seek me diligently,

but I will be gone.”

8

<sup>2</sup> “How long will you speak these things, seeing that the words of your mouth are like a great wind?

Or does the Almighty pervert what is right?

<sup>4</sup> If your children sinned against him,
he gave them over to the penalty of their sin.

<sup>5</sup> But if you will look to God,
and make your supplication to the Almighty,

<sup>6</sup> if you become pure and upright, even now he will rouse himself for you, and will restore your righteous abode.

<sup>7</sup> Your beginning will seem so small,
since your future will flourish.

<sup>8</sup> “For inquire now of the former generation, and pay attention to the findings of their ancestors;

<sup>9</sup> For we were born yesterday and do not have knowledge, since our days on earth are but a shadow.

<sup>10</sup> Will they not instruct you and speak to you, and bring forth words from their understanding?

<sup>11</sup> Can the papyrus plant grow tall where there is no marsh?
Can reeds flourish without water?

<sup>12</sup> While they are still beginning to flower and not ripe for cutting, they can wither away faster than any grass!

<sup>13</sup> Such is the destiny of all who forget God;
the hope of the godless perishes,

<sup>14</sup> whose trust is in something futile, whose security is a spider’s web.

he takes hold of it but it does not stand.

its shoots spread over its garden.

<sup>17</sup> It wraps its roots around a heap of stones and it looks for a place among stones.

<sup>18</sup> If he is uprooted from his place, then that place will disown him, saying,
'I have never seen you!'
<sup>19</sup> Indeed, this is the joy of his way, and out of the earth others spring up.
<sup>20</sup> "Surely, God does not reject a blameless man, nor does he grasp the hand of the evildoers.
<sup>21</sup> He will yet fill your mouth with laughter, and your lips with gladness.
<sup>22</sup> Those who hate you will be clothed with shame, and the tent of the wicked will be no more."

<sup>2</sup> "Truly, I know that this is so.
But how can a human be just before God?
<sup>3</sup> If someone wishes to contend with him, he cannot answer him one time in a thousand.
<sup>4</sup> He is wise in heart and mighty in strength – who has resisted him and remained safe?
<sup>5</sup> He who removes mountains suddenly, who overturns them in his anger; <sup>6</sup> he who shakes the earth out of its place so that its pillars tremble; <sup>7</sup> he who commands the sun and it does not shine and seals up the stars; <sup>8</sup> he alone spreads out the heavens, and treads on the waves of the sea;
<sup>9</sup> he makes the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades, and the constellations of the southern sky;
<sup>10</sup> he does great and unsearchable things, and wonderful things without number.
<sup>11</sup> If he passes by me, I cannot see him, if he goes by, I cannot perceive him.
<sup>12</sup> If he snatches away, who can turn him back?
Who dares to say to him, 'What are you doing?'
<sup>13</sup> God does not restrain his anger;
under him the helpers of Rahab lie crushed.

The Impossibility of Facing God in Court

<sup>14</sup> "How much less, then, can I answer him and choose my words to argue with him!
<sup>15</sup> Although I am innocent,
I could not answer him;
I could only plead with my judge for mercy.
<sup>16</sup> If I summoned him, and he answered me,
I would not believe that he would be listening to my voice – <sup>17</sup> he who crushes me with a tempest, and multiplies my wounds for no reason.
<sup>18</sup> He does not allow me to recover my breath, for he fills me with bitterness.

19 If it is a matter of strength, most certainly he is the strong one!
And if it is a matter of justice,
he will say, 'Who will summon me?'

20 Although I am innocent, my mouth would condemn me;
although I am blameless,
it would declare me perverse.

21 I am blameless. I do not know myself.
I despise my life.

Accusation of God's Justice

22 "It is all one! That is why I say,
'He destroys the blameless and the guilty.'

23 If a scourge brings sudden death, he mocks at the despair of the innocent.

24 If a land has been given into the hand of a wicked man, he covers the faces of its judges;
if it is not he, then who is it?

Renewed Complaint

25 "My days are swifter than a runner, they speed by without seeing happiness.

26 They glide by like reed boats, like an eagle that swoops down on its prey.

27 If I say, 'I will forget my complaint,
I will change my expression and be cheerful,'

28 I dread all my sufferings, for I know that you do not hold me blameless.

29 If I am guilty,
why then weary myself in vain?

30 If I wash myself with snow water, and make my hands clean with lye,

31 then you plunge me into a slimy pit and my own clothes abhor me.

32 For he is not a human being like I am,
that I might answer him,
that we might come together in judgment.

33 Nor is there an arbiter between us, who might lay his hand on us both,

34 who would take his rod away from me so that his terror would not make me afraid.

35 Then would I speak and not fear him, but it is not so with me.

10

1 "I am weary of my life;
I will complain without restraint;
I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

2 I will say to God, 'Do not condemn me; tell me why you are contending with me.’

<sup>3</sup> Is it good for you to oppress, to despise the work of your hands, while you smile
on the schemes of the wicked?

Motivations of God

<sup>4</sup> “Do you have eyes of flesh, or do you see as a human being sees?
<sup>5</sup> Are your days like the days of a mortal, or your years like the years of a mortal, <sup>6</sup> that you must search out my iniquity, and inquire about my sin, <sup>7</sup> although you know that I am not guilty, and that there is no one who can deliver out of your hand?

Contradictions in God's Dealings

<sup>8</sup> “Your hands have shaped me and made me, but now you destroy me completely.
<sup>9</sup> Remember that you have made me as with the clay;
will you return me to dust?
<sup>10</sup> Did you not pour me out like milk, and curdle me like cheese?
<sup>11</sup> You clothed me with skin and flesh and knit me together with bones and sinews.
<sup>12</sup> You gave me life and favor, and your intervention watched over my spirit.
<sup>13</sup> “But these things you have concealed in your heart;
I know that this is with you:
<sup>14</sup> If I sinned, then you would watch me and you would not acquit me of my iniquity.
<sup>15</sup> If I am guilty, woe to me, and if I am innocent, I cannot lift my head;
I am full of shame,
and satiated with my affliction.
<sup>16</sup> If I lift myself up, you hunt me as a fierce lion, and again you display your power against me.
<sup>17</sup> You bring new witnesses against me, and increase your anger against me;
relief troops come against me.

An Appeal for Relief

<sup>18</sup> “Why then did you bring me out from the womb?
I should have died and no eye would have seen me!
<sup>19</sup> I should have been as though I had never existed;
I should have been carried right from the womb to the grave!
<sup>20</sup> Are not my days few?
Cease, then, and leave me alone,
that I may find a little comfort,

<sup>21</sup> before I depart, never to return, to the land of darkness and the deepest shadow, <sup>22</sup> to the land of utter darkness, like the deepest darkness, and the deepest shadow and disorder, where even the light is like darkness.”

11

<sup>1</sup> Then Zophar the Naamathite spoke up and said:
<sup>2</sup> “Should not this abundance of words be answered, or should this talkative man be vindicated?
<sup>3</sup> Will your idle talk reduce people to silence, and will no one rebuke you when you mock?
<sup>4</sup> For you have said, ‘My teaching is flawless, and I am pure in your sight.’
<sup>5</sup> But if only God would speak, if only he would open his lips against you, <sup>6</sup> and reveal to you the secrets of wisdom – for true wisdom has two sides – so that you would know that God has forgiven some of your sins.
<sup>7</sup> “Can you discover the essence of God?
Can you find out the perfection of the Almighty?
<sup>8</sup> It is higher than the heavens – what can you do?
It is deeper than Sheol – what can you know?
<sup>9</sup> Its measure is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.
<sup>10</sup> If he comes by and confines you and convenes a court, then who can prevent him?
<sup>11</sup> For he knows deceitful men;
when he sees evil, will he not consider it?
<sup>12</sup> But an empty man will become wise, when a wild donkey’s colt is born a human being.
<sup>13</sup> “As for you, if you prove faithful, and if you stretch out your hands toward him, <sup>14</sup> if iniquity is in your hand – put it far away, and do not let evil reside in your tents.
<sup>15</sup> For then you will lift up your face without blemish;
you will be securely established and will not fear.
<sup>16</sup> For you will forget your trouble;
you will remember it like water that has flowed away.
<sup>17</sup> And life will be brighter than the noonday;
though there be darkness,
it will be like the morning.
<sup>18</sup> And you will be secure, because there is hope;

you will be protected and will take your rest in safety.
<sup>19</sup> You will lie down with no one to make you afraid, and many will seek your favor.
<sup>20</sup> But the eyes of the wicked fail, and escape eludes them;
their one hope is to breathe their last.”

<sup>2</sup> “Without a doubt you are the people, and wisdom will die with you.
<sup>3</sup> I also have understanding as well as you;
I am not inferior to you.
Who does not know such things as these?
<sup>4</sup> I am a laughingstock to my friends,
I, who called on God and whom he answered – a righteous and blameless man is a laughingstock!
<sup>5</sup> For calamity, there is derision (according to the ideas of the fortunate ) – a fate for those whose feet slip!
<sup>6</sup> But the tents of robbers are peaceful, and those who provoke God are confident – who carry their god in their hands.

Knowledge of God's Wisdom

<sup>7</sup> “But now, ask the animals and they will teach you, or the birds of the sky and they will tell you.
<sup>8</sup> Or speak to the earth and it will teach you, or let the fish of the sea declare to you.
<sup>9</sup> Which of all these does not know that the hand of the LORD |strong="H3069" has done this, <sup>10</sup> in whose hand is the life of every creature and the breath of all the human race.
<sup>11</sup> Does not the ear test words, as the tongue tastes food?
<sup>12</sup> Is not wisdom found among the aged?
Does not long life bring understanding?
<sup>13</sup> “With God are wisdom and power; counsel and understanding are his.
<sup>14</sup> If he tears down, it cannot be rebuilt;
if he imprisons a person, there is no escape.
<sup>15</sup> If he holds back the waters, then they dry up;
if he releases them, they destroy the land.
<sup>16</sup> With him are strength and prudence;
both the one who goes astray and the one who misleads are his.
<sup>17</sup> He leads counselors away stripped and makes judges into fools.
<sup>18</sup> He loosens the bonds of kings and binds a loincloth around their waist.

<sup>19</sup> He leads priests away stripped and overthrows the potentates.
<sup>20</sup> He deprives the trusted advisers of speech and takes away the discernment of elders.
<sup>21</sup> He pours contempt on noblemen and disarms the powerful.
<sup>22</sup> He reveals the deep things of darkness, and brings deep shadows into the light.
<sup>23</sup> He makes nations great, and destroys them;
he extends the boundaries of nations and disperses them.
<sup>24</sup> He deprives the leaders of the earth of their understanding;
he makes them wander
in a trackless desert waste.
<sup>25</sup> They grope about in darkness without light;
he makes them stagger like drunkards.

my ears have heard and understood it.
<sup>2</sup> What you know, I know also;
I am not inferior to you!
<sup>3</sup> But I wish to speak to the Almighty, and I desire to argue my case with God.
<sup>4</sup> But you, however, are inventors of lies;
all of you are worthless physicians!
<sup>5</sup> If only you would keep completely silent!
For you, that would be wisdom.
<sup>6</sup> “Listen now to my argument, and be attentive to my lips’ contentions.
<sup>7</sup> Will you speak wickedly on God’s behalf?
Will you speak deceitfully for him?
<sup>8</sup> Will you show him partiality?
Will you argue the case for God?
<sup>9</sup> Would it turn out well if he would examine you?
Or as one deceives a man would you deceive him?
<sup>10</sup> He would certainly rebuke you if you secretly showed partiality!
<sup>11</sup> Would not his splendor terrify you and the fear he inspires fall on you?
<sup>12</sup> Your maxims are proverbs of ashes;
your defenses are defenses of clay.
<sup>13</sup> “Refrain from talking with me so that I may speak;
then let come to me what may.
<sup>14</sup> Why do I put myself in peril, and take my life in my hands?
<sup>15</sup> Even if he slays me, I will hope in him;
I will surely defend my ways to his face!
<sup>16</sup> Moreover, this will become my deliverance, for no godless person would come before him.

let your ears be attentive to my explanation.

I know that I am right.

<sup>19</sup> Who will contend with me?
If anyone can, I will be silent and die.

<sup>20</sup> Only in two things spare me, O God, and then I will not hide from your face:

<sup>21</sup> Remove your hand far from me and stop making me afraid with your terror.

or I will speak, and you respond to me.

<sup>23</sup> How many are my iniquities and sins?
Show me my transgression and my sin.

and regard me as your enemy?

<sup>25</sup> Do you wish to torment a windblown leaf and chase after dry chaff?

<sup>26</sup> For you write down bitter things against me and cause me to inherit the sins of my youth.

<sup>27</sup> And you put my feet in the stocks and you watch all my movements;
you put marks on the soles of my feet.

<sup>28</sup> So I waste away like something rotten, like a garment eaten by moths.

lives but a few days, and they are full of trouble.

he flees like a shadow, and does not remain.

And do you bring me before you for judgment?

No one!

<sup>5</sup> Since man’s days are determined, the number of his months is under your control;
you have set his limit and he cannot pass it.

<sup>6</sup> Look away from him and let him desist, until he fulfills his time like a hired man.

The Inevitability of Death

<sup>7</sup> “But there is hope for a tree:
If it is cut down, it will sprout again,
and its new shoots will not fail.

and its stump begins to die in the soil,

<sup>9</sup> at the scent of water it will flourish and put forth shoots like a new plant.

<sup>10</sup> But man dies and is powerless;
he expires – and where is he?

11 As water disappears from the sea, or a river drains away and dries up, 12 so man lies down and does not rise;
until the heavens are no more,
they will not awake nor arise from their sleep.

The Possibility of Another Life

13 “O that you would hide me in Sheol, and conceal me till your anger has passed!
O that you would set me a time and then remember me!
14 If a man dies, will he live again?
All the days of my hard service I will wait until my release comes.
15 You will call and I – I will answer you;
you will long for the creature you have made.

The Present Condition

16 “Surely now you count my steps;
then you would not mark my sin.
17 My offenses would be sealed up in a bag;
you would cover over my sin.
18 But as a mountain falls away and crumbles, and as a rock will be removed from its place, 19 as water wears away stones, and torrents wash away the soil,
so you destroy man’s hope.
20 You overpower him once for all,
and he departs;
you change his appearance and send him away.
21 If his sons are honored,
he does not know it;
if they are brought low,
he does not see it.
22 Only his flesh has pain for himself, and he mourns for himself.”

15

1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered:
2 “Does a wise man answer with blustery knowledge, or fill his belly with the east wind?
3 Does he argue with useless talk, with words that have no value in them?
4 But you even break off piety, and hinder meditation before God.
5 Your sin inspires your mouth;
you choose the language of the crafty.
6 Your own mouth condemns you, not I;
your own lips testify against you.
7 “Were you the first man ever born?
Were you brought forth before the hills?

<sup>8</sup> Do you listen in on God's secret council?
Do you limit wisdom to yourself?
<sup>9</sup> What do you know that we don't know?
What do you understand that we don't understand?
<sup>10</sup> The gray-haired and the aged are on our side, men far older than your father.
<sup>11</sup> Are God's consolations too trivial for you;
or a word spoken in gentleness to you?
<sup>12</sup> Why has your heart carried you away, and why do your eyes flash, <sup>13</sup> when you turn your rage against God and allow such words to escape from your mouth?
<sup>14</sup> What is man that he should be pure, or one born of woman, that he should be righteous?
<sup>15</sup> If God places no trust in his holy ones, if even the heavens are not pure in his eyes, <sup>16</sup> how much less man, who is abominable and corrupt, who drinks in evil like water!
<sup>17</sup> "I will explain to you;
listen to me,
and what I have seen, I will declare, <sup>18</sup> what wise men declare, hiding nothing,
from the tradition of their ancestors, <sup>19</sup> to whom alone the land was given when no foreigner passed among them.
<sup>20</sup> All his days the wicked man suffers torment, throughout the number of the years that are stored up for the tyrant.
<sup>21</sup> Terrifying sounds fill his ears;
in a time of peace marauders attack him.
<sup>22</sup> He does not expect to escape from darkness;
he is marked for the sword;
<sup>23</sup> he wanders about – food for vultures;
he knows that the day of darkness is at hand.
<sup>24</sup> Distress and anguish terrify him;
they prevail against him like a king ready to launch an attack, <sup>25</sup> for he stretches out his hand against God, and vaunts himself against the Almighty, <sup>26</sup> defiantly charging against him with a thick, strong shield!
<sup>27</sup> Because he covered his face with fat, and made his hips bulge with fat, <sup>28</sup> he lived in ruined towns and in houses where no one lives, where they are ready to crumble into heaps.
<sup>29</sup> He will not grow rich, and his wealth will not endure, nor will his possessions spread over the land.
<sup>30</sup> He will not escape the darkness;

a flame will wither his shoots and he will depart
by the breath of God's mouth.

<sup>31</sup> Let him not trust in what is worthless, deceiving himself;

for worthlessness will be his reward.

<sup>32</sup> Before his time he will be paid in full,
and his branches will not flourish.

and like an olive tree
he will shed his blossoms.

and fire consumes the tents of those who accept bribes.

<sup>35</sup> They conceive trouble and bring forth evil;

What miserable comforters are you all!

<sup>3</sup> Will there be an end to your windy words?
Or what provokes you that you answer?

<sup>4</sup> I also could speak like you,
if you were in my place;
I could pile up words against you and I could shake my head at you.

<sup>5</sup> But I would strengthen you with my words;
comfort from my lips would bring you relief.

Abandonment by God and Man

<sup>6</sup> "But if I speak, my pain is not relieved, and if I refrain from speaking – how much of it goes away?

<sup>7</sup> Surely now he has worn me out, you have devastated my entire household.

<sup>8</sup> You have seized me, and it has become a witness;
my leanness has risen up against me and testifies against me.

<sup>9</sup> His anger has torn me and persecuted me;
he has gnashed at me with his teeth;
my adversary locks his eyes on me.

<sup>10</sup> People have opened their mouths against me, they have struck my cheek in scorn;
they unite together against me.

<sup>11</sup> God abandons me to evil men, and throws me into the hands of wicked men.

<sup>12</sup> I was in peace, and he has shattered me.
He has seized me by the neck and crushed me.
He has made me his target;

Without pity he pierces my kidneys and pours out my gall on the ground.

<sup>14</sup> He breaks through against me, time and time again;
he rushes against me like a warrior.

<sup>15</sup> I have sewed sackcloth on my skin,
and buried my horn in the dust;

<sup>16</sup> my face is reddened because of weeping, and on my eyelids there is a deep darkness,

<sup>17</sup> although there is no violence in my hands and my prayer is pure.

An Appeal to God as Witness

<sup>18</sup> "O earth, do not cover my blood, nor let there be a secret place for my cry.

<sup>19</sup> Even now my witness is in heaven;
my advocate is on high.

<sup>20</sup> My intercessor is my friend
as my eyes pour out tears to God;

<sup>21</sup> and he contends with God on behalf of man as a man pleads for his friend.

<sup>22</sup> For the years that lie ahead are few,
and then I will go on the way of no return.

my days have faded out,
the grave awaits me.

my eyes must dwell on their hostility.

<sup>3</sup> Make then my pledge with you.
Who else will put up security for me?

therefore you will not exalt them.

the eyes of his children will fail.

<sup>6</sup> He has made me a byword to people,
I am the one in whose face they spit.

<sup>7</sup> My eyes have grown dim with grief;
my whole frame is but a shadow.

<sup>8</sup> Upright men are appalled at this;
the innocent man is troubled with the godless.

<sup>9</sup> But the righteous man holds to his way, and the one with clean hands grows stronger.

Anticipation of Death

<sup>10</sup> "But turn, all of you, and come now!
I will not find a wise man among you.

<sup>11</sup> My days have passed, my plans are shattered, even the desires of my heart.

<sup>12</sup> These men change night into day; they say, 'The light is near in the face of darkness.'

<sup>13</sup> If I hope for the grave to be my home,

if I spread out my bed in darkness, 14 If I cry to corruption, 'You are my father,' and to the worm, 'My Mother,' or 'My sister,' 15 where then is my hope?
And my hope, who sees it?
16 Will it go down to the barred gates of death?
Will we descend together into the dust?"

18

1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered:
2 "How long until you make an end of words?
You must consider, and then we can talk.
3 Why should we be regarded as beasts, and considered stupid in your sight?
4 You who tear yourself to pieces in your anger, will the earth be abandoned for your sake?
Or will a rock be moved from its place?
5 "Yes, the lamp of the wicked is extinguished;
his flame of fire does not shine.
6 The light in his tent grows dark;
his lamp above him is extinguished.
7 His vigorous steps are restricted, and his own counsel throws him down.
8 For he has been thrown into a net by his feet and he wanders into a mesh.
9 A trap seizes him by the heel;
a snare grips him.
10 A rope is hidden for him on the ground and a trap for him lies on the path.
11 Terrors frighten him on all sides and dog his every step.
12 Calamity is hungry for him, and misfortune is ready at his side.
13 It eats away parts of his skin;
the most terrible death devours his limbs.
14 He is dragged from the security of his tent, and marched off to the king of terrors.
15 Fire resides in his tent;
over his residence burning sulfur is scattered.
16 Below his roots dry up,
17 His memory perishes from the earth,
he has no name in the land.
18 He is driven from light into darkness and is banished from the world.
19 He has neither children nor descendants among his people, no survivor in those places he once stayed.
20 People of the west are appalled at his fate;
people of the east are seized with horror, saying, 21 'Surely such is the residence of an evil man;
and this is the place of one who has not known God.' "

<sup>2</sup> “How long will you torment me and crush me with your words?

<sup>3</sup> These ten times you have been reproaching me;
you are not ashamed to attack me!

<sup>4</sup> But even if it were true that I have erred, my error remains solely my concern!

and plead my disgrace against me,

<sup>6</sup> know then that God has wronged me and encircled me with his net.

Job's Abandonment and Affliction

<sup>7</sup> “If I cry out, ‘Violence!’

I receive no answer;

I cry for help,

but there is no justice.

<sup>8</sup> He has blocked my way so I cannot pass, and has set darkness over my paths.

<sup>9</sup> He has stripped me of my honor and has taken the crown off my head.

he uproots my hope like one uproots a tree.

and he considers me among his enemies.

they throw up a siege ramp against me,
and they camp around my tent.

Job's Forsaken State

<sup>13</sup> “He has put my relatives far from me; my acquaintances only turn away from me.

<sup>14</sup> My kinsmen have failed me;
my friends have forgotten me.

<sup>15</sup> My guests and my servant girls consider me a stranger;

I am a foreigner in their eyes.

<sup>16</sup> I summon my servant, but he does not respond, even though I implore him with my own mouth.

<sup>17</sup> My breath is repulsive to my wife;
I am loathsome to my brothers.

<sup>18</sup> Even youngsters have scorned me;
when I get up, they scoff at me.

<sup>19</sup> All my closest friends detest me;
and those whom I love have turned against me.

<sup>20</sup> My bones stick to my skin and my flesh;
I have escaped alive with only the skin of my teeth.

<sup>21</sup> Have pity on me, my friends, have pity on me, for the hand of God has struck me.

<sup>22</sup> Why do you pursue me like God does?
Will you never be satiated with my flesh?

Job's Assurance of Vindication

<sup>23</sup> “O that my words were written down,
O that they were written on a scroll, <sup>24</sup> that with an iron chisel and with lead they were engraved in a rock forever!
<sup>25</sup> As for me, I know that my Redeemer lives, and that as the last he will stand upon the earth.
<sup>26</sup> And after my skin has been destroyed, yet in my flesh I will see God, <sup>27</sup> whom I will see for myself, and whom my own eyes will behold, and not another.
My heart grows faint within me.
<sup>28</sup> If you say, ‘How we will pursue him, since the root of the trouble is found in him!’
<sup>29</sup> Fear the sword yourselves, for wrath brings the punishment by the sword, so that you may know that there is judgment.”

<sup>2</sup> “This is why my troubled thoughts bring me back – because of my feelings within me.
<sup>3</sup> When I hear a reproof that dishonors me, then my understanding prompts me to answer.
<sup>4</sup> “Surely you know that it has been from old, ever since humankind was placed on the earth, <sup>5</sup> that the elation of the wicked is brief, the joy of the godless lasts but a moment.
<sup>6</sup> Even though his stature reaches to the heavens and his head touches the clouds, <sup>7</sup> he will perish forever, like his own excrement;
those who used to see him will say, ‘Where is he?’
<sup>8</sup> Like a dream he flies away, never again to be found, and like a vision of the night he is put to flight.
<sup>9</sup> People who had seen him will not see him again, and the place where he was will recognize him no longer.
<sup>10</sup> His sons must recompense the poor;
his own hands must return his wealth.
<sup>11</sup> His bones were full of his youthful vigor, but that vigor will lie down with him in the dust.
<sup>12</sup> “If evil is sweet in his mouth and he hides it under his tongue, <sup>13</sup> if he retains it for himself and does not let it go, and holds it fast in his mouth, <sup>14</sup> his food is turned sour in his stomach;
it becomes the venom of serpents within him.
<sup>15</sup> The wealth that he consumed he vomits up,

God will make him throw it out of his stomach.

<sup>16</sup> He sucks the poison of serpents;
the fangs of a viper kill him.

<sup>17</sup> He will not look on the streams, the rivers, which are the torrents of honey and butter.

<sup>18</sup> He gives back the ill-gotten gain without assimilating it;
he will not enjoy the wealth from his commerce.

<sup>19</sup> For he has oppressed the poor and abandoned them;
he has seized a house which he did not build.

<sup>20</sup> For he knows no satisfaction in his appetite;
he does not let anything he desires escape.

<sup>21</sup> “Nothing is left for him to devour;
that is why his prosperity does not last.

distress overtakes him.
the full force of misery will come upon him.

God sends his burning anger against him, and rains down his blows upon him.

<sup>24</sup> If he flees from an iron weapon, then an arrow from a bronze bow pierces him.

<sup>25</sup> When he pulls it out and it comes out of his back, the gleaming point out of his liver, terrors come over him.

<sup>26</sup> Total darkness waits to receive his treasures;
a fire which has not been kindled will consume him
and devour what is left in his tent.

the earth rises up against him.

<sup>28</sup> A flood will carry off his house, rushing waters on the day of God’s wrath.

<sup>29</sup> Such is the lot God allots the wicked, and the heritage of his appointment from God.”

let this be the consolation you offer me.

<sup>3</sup> Bear with me and I will speak, and after I have spoken you may mock.

If so, why should I not be impatient?

<sup>5</sup> Look at me and be appalled;
put your hands over your mouths.

<sup>6</sup> For, when I think about this, I am terrified and my body feels a shudder.

The Wicked Prosper

<sup>7</sup> “Why do the wicked go on living, grow old, even increase in power?

<sup>8</sup> Their children are firmly established in their presence, their offspring before their eyes.

<sup>9</sup> Their houses are safe and without fear;
and no rod of punishment from God is upon them.

their cows calve and do not miscarry.

their little ones dance about.

and make merry to the sound of the flute.

<sup>13</sup> They live out their years in prosperity and go down to the grave in peace.

We do not want to know your ways.

<sup>15</sup> Who is the Almighty, that we should serve him?
What would we gain
if we were to pray to him?'

The counsel of the wicked is far from me!

How Often Do the Wicked Suffer?

<sup>17</sup> "How often is the lamp of the wicked extinguished?
How often does their misfortune come upon them?
How often does God apportion pain to them in his anger?

and like chaff swept away by a whirlwind?

Instead let him repay the man himself so that he may know it!

let him drink of the anger of the Almighty.

<sup>21</sup> For what is his interest in his home after his death, when the number of his months has been broken off?

<sup>22</sup> Can anyone teach God knowledge, since he judges those that are on high?

Death Levels Everything

<sup>23</sup> "One man dies in his full vigor, completely secure and prosperous,

<sup>24</sup> his body well nourished, and the marrow of his bones moist.

never having tasted anything good.

<sup>26</sup> Together they lie down in the dust, and worms cover over them both.

Futile Words, Deceptive Answers

<sup>27</sup> "Yes, I know what you are thinking, the schemes by which you would wrong me.

<sup>28</sup> For you say,
'Where now is the nobleman's house, and where are the tents in which the wicked lived?'
<sup>29</sup> Have you never questioned those who travel the roads?
Do you not recognize their accounts – <sup>30</sup> that the evil man is spared from the day of his misfortune, that he is delivered from the day of God's wrath?
<sup>31</sup> No one denounces his conduct to his face;
no one repays him for what he has done.
<sup>32</sup> And when he is carried to the tombs, and watch is kept over the funeral mound, <sup>33</sup> The clods of the torrent valley are sweet to him;
behind him everybody follows in procession, and before him goes a countless throng.
<sup>34</sup> So how can you console me with your futile words?

<sup>2</sup> "Is it to God that a strong man is of benefit?
Is it to him that even a wise man is profitable?
<sup>3</sup> Is it of any special benefit to the Almighty that you should be righteous, or is it any gain to him that you make your ways blameless?
<sup>4</sup> Is it because of your piety that he rebukes you and goes to judgment with you?
<sup>5</sup> Is not your wickedness great and is there no end to your iniquity?
<sup>6</sup> "For you took pledges from your brothers for no reason,
and you stripped the clothing from the naked.
<sup>7</sup> You gave the weary no water to drink and from the hungry you withheld food.
<sup>8</sup> Although you were a powerful man, owning land, an honored man living on it, <sup>9</sup> you sent widows away empty-handed,
and the arms of the orphans you crushed.
<sup>10</sup> That is why snares surround you, and why sudden fear terrifies you, <sup>11</sup> why it is so dark you cannot see,
and why a flood of water covers you.
<sup>12</sup> "Is not God on high in heaven?
And see the lofty stars, how high they are!
<sup>13</sup> But you have said, 'What does God know?
Does he judge through such deep darkness?
<sup>14</sup> Thick clouds are a veil for him, so he does not see us, as he goes back and forth in the vault of heaven.'

15 Will you keep to the old path that evil men have walked – 16 men who were carried off before their time, when the flood was poured out on their foundations?
17 They were saying to God, ‘Turn away from us,’ and ‘What can the Almighty do to us?’
18 But it was he who filled their houses with good things – yet the counsel of the wicked was far from me.
19 The righteous see their destruction and rejoice;
the innocent mock them scornfully, saying, 20 ‘Surely our enemies are destroyed, and fire consumes their wealth.’ 21 “Reconcile yourself with God, and be at peace with him;
in this way your prosperity will be good.
22 Accept instruction from his mouth and store up his words in your heart.
23 If you return to the Almighty, you will be built up;
if you remove wicked behavior far from your tent, 24 and throw your gold in the dust – your gold of Ophir
among the rocks in the ravines – 25 then the Almighty himself will be your gold, and the choicest silver for you.
26 Surely then you will delight yourself in the Almighty, and will lift up your face toward God.
27 You will pray to him and he will hear you, and you will fulfill your vows to him.
28 Whatever you decide on a matter,
it will be established for you,
and light will shine on your ways.
29 When people are brought low and you say ‘Lift them up!’
then he will save the downcast; 30 he will deliver even someone who is not innocent, who will escape through the cleanness of your hands.”

23

1 Then Job answered:
2 “Even today my complaint is still bitter;
his hand is heavy despite my groaning.
3 O that I knew where I might find him, that I could come to his place of residence!
4 I would lay out my case before him and fill my mouth with arguments.
5 I would know with what words he would answer me, and understand what he would say to me.
6 Would he contend with me with great power?

No, he would only pay attention to me.

<sup>7</sup> There an upright person could present his case before him, and I would be delivered forever from my judge.

The Inaccessibility and Power of God

<sup>8</sup> “If I go to the east, he is not there, and to the west, yet I do not perceive him.

<sup>9</sup> In the north when he is at work,
I do not see him;
when he turns to the south,
I see no trace of him.

<sup>10</sup> But he knows the pathway that I take;
if he tested me, I would come forth like gold.

<sup>11</sup> My feet have followed his steps closely;
I have kept to his way and have not turned aside.

<sup>12</sup> I have not departed from the commands of his lips;
I have treasured the words of his mouth more than my allotted portion.

<sup>13</sup> But he is unchangeable, and who can change him?
Whatever he has desired, he does.

<sup>14</sup> For he fulfills his decree against me, and many such things are his plans.

<sup>15</sup> That is why I am terrified in his presence;
when I consider, I am afraid because of him.

<sup>16</sup> Indeed, God has made my heart faint;
the Almighty has terrified me.

<sup>17</sup> Yet I have not been silent because of the darkness, because of the thick darkness that covered my face.

24

Why do those who know him not see his days?

they seize the flock and pasture them.

they take the widow’s ox as a pledge.

<sup>4</sup> They turn the needy from the pathway, and the poor of the land hide themselves together.

<sup>5</sup> Like wild donkeys in the desert they go out to their labor, seeking diligently for food;
the wasteland provides food for them and for their children.

<sup>6</sup> They reap fodder in the field,
and glean in the vineyard of the wicked.

<sup>7</sup> They spend the night naked because they lack clothing;
they have no covering against the cold.

<sup>8</sup> They are soaked by mountain rains and huddle in the rocks because they lack shelter.

the infant of the poor is taken as a pledge.

<sup>10</sup> They go about naked, without clothing, and go hungry while they carry the sheaves.
<sup>11</sup> They press out the olive oil between the rows of olive trees;
they tread the winepresses while they are thirsty.
<sup>12</sup> From the city the dying groan, and the wounded cry out for help,
but God charges no one with wrongdoing.
<sup>13</sup> There are those who rebel against the light;
they do not know its ways and they do not stay on its paths.
<sup>14</sup> Before daybreak the murderer rises up;
he kills the poor and the needy;
in the night he is like a thief.
<sup>15</sup> And the eye of the adulterer watches for the twilight, thinking, 'No eye can see me,' and covers his face with a mask.
<sup>16</sup> In the dark the robber breaks into houses, but by day they shut themselves in;
they do not know the light.
<sup>17</sup> For all of them, the morning is to them like deep darkness;
they are friends with the terrors of darkness.
<sup>18</sup>
"You say, 'He is foam on the face of the waters; their portion of the land is cursed so that no one goes to their vineyard.'
<sup>19</sup> The drought as well as the heat carry away the melted snow;
so the grave takes away those who have sinned.
<sup>20</sup> The womb forgets him,
the worm feasts on him,
no longer will he be remembered.
Like a tree, wickedness will be broken down.
<sup>21</sup> He preys on the barren and childless woman, and does not treat the widow well.
<sup>22</sup> But God drags off the mighty by his power;
when God rises up against him, he has no faith in his life.
<sup>23</sup> God may let them rest in a feeling of security, but he is constantly watching all their ways.
<sup>24</sup> They are exalted for a little while,
and then they are gone,
they are brought low like all others,
and gathered in,
and like a head of grain they are cut off.'
<sup>25</sup> "If this is not so, who can prove me a liar and reduce my words to nothing?"

he establishes peace in his heights.

On whom does his light not rise?
<sup>4</sup> How then can a human being be righteous before God?
How can one born of a woman be pure?
<sup>5</sup> If even the moon is not bright, and the stars are not pure as far as he is concerned, <sup>6</sup> how much less a mortal man, who is but a maggot – a son of man, who is only a worm!”

26

<sup>2</sup> “How you have helped the powerless!
How you have saved the person who has no strength!
<sup>3</sup> How you have advised the one without wisdom, and abundantly revealed your insight!
<sup>4</sup> To whom did you utter these words?
And whose spirit has come forth from your mouth?

A Better Description of God's Greatness

<sup>5</sup> “The dead tremble – those beneath the waters and all that live in them.
<sup>6</sup> The underworld is naked before God;
the place of destruction lies uncovered.
<sup>7</sup> He spreads out the northern skies over empty space;
he suspends the earth on nothing.
<sup>8</sup> He locks the waters in his clouds, and the clouds do not burst with the weight of them.
<sup>9</sup> He conceals the face of the full moon, shrouding it with his clouds.
<sup>10</sup> He marks out the horizon on the surface of the waters as a boundary between light and darkness.
<sup>11</sup> The pillars of the heavens tremble and are amazed at his rebuke.
<sup>12</sup> By his power he stills the sea;
by his wisdom he cut Rahab the great sea monster to pieces.
<sup>13</sup> By his breath the skies became fair;
his hand pierced the fleeing serpent.
<sup>14</sup> Indeed, these are but the outer fringes of his ways!
How faint is the whisper we hear of him!
But who can understand the thunder of his power?”

27

<sup>2</sup> “As surely as God lives, who has denied me justice, the Almighty, who has made my life bitter – <sup>3</sup> for while my spirit is still in me, and the breath from God is in my nostrils, <sup>4</sup> my lips will not speak wickedness, and my tongue will whisper no deceit.
<sup>5</sup> I will never declare that you three are in the right;
until I die, I will not set aside my integrity!

<sup>6</sup> I will maintain my righteousness and never let it go;
my conscience will not reproach me for as long as I live.

The Condition of the Wicked

<sup>7</sup> “May my enemy be like the wicked, my adversary like the unrighteous.
<sup>8</sup> For what hope does the godless have when he is cut off, when God takes away his life?
<sup>9</sup> Does God listen to his cry when distress overtakes him?
<sup>10</sup> Will he find delight in the Almighty?
Will he call out to God at all times?
<sup>11</sup> I will teach you about the power of God;
What is on the Almighty’s mind I will not conceal.
<sup>12</sup> If you yourselves have all seen this,
Why in the world do you continue this meaningless talk?
<sup>13</sup> This is the portion of the wicked man allotted by God, the inheritance that evildoers receive from the Almighty.
<sup>14</sup> If his children increase – it is for the sword!
His offspring never have enough to eat.
<sup>15</sup> Those who survive him are buried by the plague, and their widows do not mourn for them.
<sup>16</sup> If he piles up silver like dust and stores up clothing like mounds of clay, <sup>17</sup> what he stores up a righteous man will wear, and an innocent man will inherit his silver.
<sup>18</sup> The house he builds is as fragile as a moth’s cocoon, like a hut that a watchman has made.
<sup>19</sup> He goes to bed wealthy, but will do so no more.
When he opens his eyes, it is all gone.
<sup>20</sup> Terrors overwhelm him like a flood;
at night a whirlwind carries him off.
<sup>21</sup> The east wind carries him away, and he is gone;
it sweeps him out of his place.
<sup>22</sup> It hurls itself against him without pity as he flees headlong from its power.
<sup>23</sup> It claps its hands at him in derision and hisses him away from his place.

28

<sup>1</sup> “Surely there is a mine for silver, and a place where gold is refined.
<sup>2</sup> Iron is taken from the ground, and rock is poured out as copper.
<sup>3</sup> Man puts an end to the darkness;
he searches the farthest recesses for the ore in the deepest darkness.
<sup>4</sup> Far from where people live he sinks a shaft, in places travelers have long forgotten, far from other people he dangles and sways.

5 The earth, from which food comes,
is overturned below as though by fire;
6 a place whose stones are sapphires and which contains dust of gold; 7 a hidden path no bird of prey knows – no falcon's eye has spotted it.
8 Proud beasts have not set foot on it, and no lion has passed along it.
9 On the flinty rock man has set to work with his hand;
he has overturned mountains at their bases.
10 He has cut out channels through the rocks;
his eyes have spotted every precious thing.
11 He has searched the sources of the rivers and what was hidden he has brought into the light.

No Price Can Buy Wisdom

12 "But wisdom – where can it be found?
Where is the place of understanding?
13 Mankind does not know its place;
it cannot be found in the land of the living.
14 The deep says, 'It is not with me.'
And the sea says, 'It is not with me.'
15 Fine gold cannot be given in exchange for it, nor can its price be weighed out in silver.
16 It cannot be measured out for purchase with the gold of Ophir, with precious onyx or sapphires.
17 Neither gold nor crystal can be compared with it, nor can a vase of gold match its worth.
18 Of coral and jasper no mention will be made;
the price of wisdom is more than pearls.
19 The topaz of Cush cannot be compared with it;
it cannot be purchased with pure gold.

God Alone Has Wisdom

20 "But wisdom – where does it come from?
Where is the place of understanding?
21 For it has been hidden from the eyes of every living creature, and from the birds of the sky it has been concealed.
22 Destruction and Death say,
'With our ears we have heard a rumor about where it can be found.'
23 God understands the way to it, and he alone knows its place.
24 For he looks to the ends of the earth and observes everything under the heavens.
25 When he made the force of the wind and measured the waters with a gauge.
26 When he imposed a limit for the rain, and a path for the thunderstorm, 27 then he looked at wisdom and assessed its value;
he established it and examined it closely.

<sup>28</sup> And he said to mankind,
'The fear of the LORD | strong="H0136" – that is wisdom, and to turn away from evil is understanding.' "

29

<sup>2</sup> "O that I could be as I was in the months now gone, in the days when God watched over me, <sup>3</sup> when he caused his lamp to shine upon my head, and by his light
I walked through darkness;
<sup>4</sup> just as I was in my most productive time, when God's intimate friendship was experienced in my tent, <sup>5</sup> when the Almighty was still with me and my children were around me; <sup>6</sup> when my steps were bathed with butter and the rock poured out for me streams of olive oil!
<sup>7</sup> When I went out to the city gate and secured my seat in the public square, <sup>8</sup> the young men would see me and step aside, and the old men would get up and remain standing; <sup>9</sup> the chief men refrained from talking and covered their mouths with their hands; <sup>10</sup> the voices of the nobles fell silent, and their tongues stuck to the roof of their mouths.

Job's Benevolence

<sup>11</sup> "As soon as the ear heard these things, it blessed me, and when the eye saw them, it bore witness to me, <sup>12</sup> for I rescued the poor who cried out for help, and the orphan who had no one to assist him; <sup>13</sup> the blessing of the dying man descended on me, and I made the widow's heart rejoice;
<sup>14</sup> I put on righteousness and it clothed me, my just dealing was like a robe and a turban;
<sup>15</sup> I was eyes for the blind and feet for the lame; <sup>16</sup> I was a father to the needy, and I investigated the case of the person I did not know; <sup>17</sup> I broke the fangs of the wicked, and made him drop his prey from his teeth.

Job's Confidence

<sup>18</sup> "Then I thought, 'I will die in my own home, my days as numerous as the grains of sand.
<sup>19</sup> My roots reach the water, and the dew lies on my branches all night long.
<sup>20</sup> My glory will always be fresh in me, and my bow ever new in my hand.'

Job's Reputation

<sup>21</sup> “People listened to me and waited silently; they kept silent for my advice.
<sup>22</sup> After I had spoken, they did not respond;
my words fell on them drop by drop.
<sup>23</sup> They waited for me as people wait for the rain, and they opened their mouths
as for the spring rains.
<sup>24</sup> If I smiled at them, they hardly believed it;
and they did not cause the light of my face to darken.
<sup>25</sup> I chose the way for them and sat as their chief;
I lived like a king among his troops;
I was like one who comforts mourners.

30

<sup>1</sup> “But now they mock me, those who are younger than I, whose fathers I disdained too much to put with my sheep dogs.
<sup>2</sup> Moreover, the strength of their hands –
what use was it to me?
Men whose strength had perished;
<sup>3</sup> gaunt with want and hunger, they would gnaw the parched land,
in former time desolate and waste.
<sup>4</sup> By the brush they would gather herbs from the salt marshes, and the root of the broom tree was their food.
<sup>5</sup> They were banished from the community – people shouted at them like they would shout at thieves – <sup>6</sup> so that they had to live in the dry stream beds, in the holes of the ground, and among the rocks.
<sup>7</sup> They brayed like animals among the bushes and were huddled together under the nettles.
<sup>8</sup> Sons of senseless and nameless people, they were driven out of the land with whips.

Job's Indignities

<sup>9</sup> “And now I have become their taunt song;
I have become a byword among them.
<sup>10</sup> They detest me and maintain their distance; they do not hesitate to spit in my face.
<sup>11</sup> Because God has untied my tent cord and afflicted me, people throw off all restraint in my presence.
<sup>12</sup> On my right the young rabble rise up;
they drive me from place to place,
and build up siege ramps against me.
<sup>13</sup> They destroy my path;
they succeed in destroying me without anyone assisting them.
<sup>14</sup> They come in as through a wide breach;

amid the crash they come rolling in.

<sup>15</sup> Terrors are turned loose on me;
they drive away my honor like the wind, and like a cloud my deliverance has passed away.

Job's Despondency

<sup>16</sup> "And now my soul pours itself out within me; days of suffering take hold of me.

<sup>17</sup> Night pierces my bones;
my gnawing pains never cease.

<sup>18</sup> With great power God grasps my clothing;
he binds me like the collar of my tunic.

<sup>19</sup> He has flung me into the mud, and I have come to resemble dust and ashes.

<sup>20</sup> I cry out to you, but you do not answer me;
I stand up, and you only look at me.

<sup>21</sup> You have become cruel to me;
with the strength of your hand you attack me.

<sup>22</sup> You pick me up on the wind and make me ride on it;
you toss me about in the storm.

<sup>23</sup> I know that you are bringing me to death, to the meeting place for all the living.

The Contrast With the Past

<sup>24</sup> "Surely one does not stretch out his hand against a broken man
when he cries for help in his distress.

<sup>25</sup> Have I not wept for the unfortunate?
Was not my soul grieved for the poor?

<sup>26</sup> But when I hoped for good, trouble came;
when I expected light, then darkness came.

<sup>27</sup> My heart is in turmoil unceasingly;
the days of my affliction confront me.

<sup>28</sup> I go about blackened, but not by the sun;
in the assembly I stand up and cry for help.

<sup>29</sup> I have become a brother to jackals and a companion of ostriches.

<sup>30</sup> My skin has turned dark on me;
my body is hot with fever.

<sup>31</sup> My harp is used for mourning and my flute for the sound of weeping.

31

<sup>1</sup> "I made a covenant with my eyes;
how then could I entertain thoughts against a virgin?

one's heritage from the Almighty on high?

<sup>3</sup> Is it not misfortune for the unjust, and disaster for those who work iniquity?

<sup>4</sup> Does he not see my ways and count all my steps?

<sup>5</sup> If I have walked in falsehood, and if my foot has hastened to deceit – 6 let him weigh me with honest scales;

then God will discover my integrity.
7 If my footsteps have strayed from the way, if my heart has gone after my eyes, or if anything has defiled my hands, 8 then let me sow and let another eat, and let my crops be uprooted.
9 If my heart has been enticed by a woman, and I have lain in wait at my neighbor's door, 10 then let my wife turn the millstone for another man, and may other men have sexual relations with her.
11 For I would have committed a shameful act, an iniquity to be judged.
12 For it is a fire that devours even to Destruction, and it would uproot all my harvest.
13 "If I have disregarded the right of my male servants or my female servants
when they disputed with me, 14 then what will I do when God confronts me in judgment;
when he intervenes,
how will I respond to him?
15 Did not the one who made me in the womb make them?
Did not the same one form us in the womb?
16 If I have refused to give the poor what they desired, or caused the eyes of the widow to fail, 17 If I ate my morsel of bread myself, and did not share any of it with orphans – 18 but from my youth I raised the orphan like a father, and from my mother's womb
I guided the widow!
19 If I have seen anyone about to perish for lack of clothing, or a poor man without a coat, 20 whose heart did not bless me as he warmed himself with the fleece of my sheep, 21 if I have raised my hand to vote against the orphan, when I saw my support in the court, 22 then let my arm fall from the shoulder, let my arm be broken off at the socket.
23 For the calamity from God was a terror to me, and by reason of his majesty I was powerless.
24 "If I have put my confidence in gold or said to pure gold,
'You are my security!'
25 if I have rejoiced because of the extent of my wealth, or because of the great wealth my hand had gained, 26 if I looked at the sun when it was shining, and the moon advancing as a precious thing, 27 so that my heart was secretly enticed, and my hand threw them a kiss from my mouth, 28 then this also would be iniquity to be judged, for I would have been false to God above.

<sup>29</sup> If I have rejoiced over the misfortune of my enemy or exulted because calamity found him – <sup>30</sup> I have not even permitted my mouth to sin by asking for his life through a curse – <sup>31</sup> if the members of my household have never said,
'If only there were someone who has not been satisfied from Job's meat!' – <sup>32</sup> But no stranger had to spend the night outside, for I opened my doors to the traveler – <sup>33</sup> if I have covered my transgressions as men do, by hiding iniquity in my heart, <sup>34</sup> because I was terrified of the great multitude, and the contempt of families terrified me, so that I remained silent and would not go outdoors –

Job's Appeal

<sup>35</sup> "If only I had someone to hear me!
Here is my signature –
let the Almighty answer me!
If only I had an indictment that my accuser had written.
<sup>36</sup> Surely I would wear it proudly on my shoulder,
I would bind it on me like a crown;
<sup>37</sup> I would give him an accounting of my steps;
like a prince I would approach him.

Job's Final Solemn Oath

<sup>38</sup> "If my land cried out against me and all its furrows wept together, <sup>39</sup> if I have eaten its produce without paying, or caused the death of its owners, <sup>40</sup> then let thorns sprout up in place of wheat, and in place of barley, weeds!"
The words of Job are ended.

32

<sup>1</sup> So these three men refused to answer Job further, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

<sup>2</sup> Then Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, became very angry. He was angry with Job for justifying himself rather than God.

<sup>3</sup> With Job's three friends he was also angry, because they could not find an answer, and so declared Job guilty.

<sup>4</sup> Now Elihu had waited before speaking to Job, because the others were older than he was.

Elihu Claims Wisdom

<sup>6</sup> So Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite spoke up:
"I am young, but you are elderly;
that is why I was fearful, and afraid to explain to you what I know.

<sup>7</sup> I said to myself, 'Age should speak, and length of years should make wisdom known.'

<sup>8</sup> But it is a spirit in people, the breath of the Almighty, that makes them understand.

<sup>9</sup> It is not the aged who are wise, nor old men who understand what is right.

I, even I, will explain what I know.'

<sup>11</sup> Look, I waited for you to speak;
I listened closely to your wise thoughts, while you were searching for words.

<sup>12</sup> Now I was paying you close attention, yet there was no one proving Job wrong, not one of you was answering his statements!

God will refute him, not man!'

<sup>14</sup> Job has not directed his words to me, and so I will not reply to him with your arguments.

Job's Friends Failed to Answer

<sup>15</sup> "They are dismayed and cannot answer any more;
they have nothing left to say.

because they stand there and answer no more,

<sup>17</sup> I too will answer my part,
I too will explain what I know.

<sup>18</sup> For I am full of words, and the spirit within me constrains me.

<sup>19</sup> Inside I am like wine which has no outlet, like new wineskins ready to burst!

<sup>20</sup> I will speak, so that I may find relief;
I will open my lips, so that I may answer.

<sup>21</sup> I will not show partiality to anyone, nor will I confer a title on any man.

if I did, my Creator would quickly do away with me.

33

<sup>1</sup> "But now, O Job, listen to my words, and hear everything I have to say!

my tongue in my mouth has spoken.

<sup>3</sup> My words come from the uprightness of my heart, and my lips will utter knowledge sincerely.

<sup>4</sup> The Spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Almighty gives me life.

<sup>5</sup> Reply to me, if you can;
set your arguments in order before me and take your stand!

<sup>6</sup> Look, I am just like you in relation to God;
I too have been molded from clay.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore no fear of me should terrify you, nor should my pressure be heavy on you.

Elihu Rejects Job's Plea of Innocence

<sup>8</sup> “Indeed, you have said in my hearing
(I heard the sound of the words!):

<sup>9</sup>

‘I am pure, without transgression;
I am clean and have no iniquity.

<sup>10</sup>

Yet God finds occasions with me;
he regards me as his enemy!

<sup>11</sup>

He puts my feet in shackles;
he watches closely all my paths.’

<sup>12</sup> Now in this, you are not right – I answer you, for God is greater than a human being.

<sup>13</sup> Why do you contend against him, that he does not answer all a person's words?

Elihu Disagrees With Job's View of God

<sup>14</sup> “For God speaks, the first time in one way, the second time in another, though a person does not perceive it.

<sup>15</sup> In a dream, a night vision, when deep sleep falls on people as they sleep in their beds.

<sup>16</sup> Then he gives a revelation to people, and terrifies them with warnings,

<sup>17</sup> to turn a person from his sin,
and to cover a person's pride.

his very life from crossing over the river.

<sup>19</sup> Or a person is chastened by pain on his bed, and with the continual strife of his bones,

<sup>20</sup> so that his life loathes food, and his soul rejects appetizing fare.

and his bones, which were not seen,
are easily visible.

<sup>22</sup> He draws near to the place of corruption, and his life to the messengers of death.

<sup>23</sup> If there is an angel beside him, one mediator out of a thousand,
to tell a person what constitutes his uprightness;

<sup>24</sup> and if God is gracious to him and says, ‘Spare him from going down to the place of corruption,
I have found a ransom for him,’

<sup>25</sup> then his flesh is restored like a youth's;
he returns to the days of his youthful vigor.

<sup>26</sup> He entreats God, and God delights in him, he sees God's face with rejoicing, and God restores to him his righteousness.

<sup>27</sup> That person sings to others, saying:
'I have sinned and falsified what is right,
but I was not punished according to what I deserved.

<sup>28</sup> He redeemed my life from going down to the place of corruption, and my life sees the light!'

Elihu's Appeal to Job

<sup>29</sup> "Indeed, God does all these things, twice, three times, in his dealings with a person, <sup>30</sup> to turn back his life from the place of corruption, that he may be enlightened with the light of life.

be silent, and I will speak.

<sup>32</sup> If you have any words, reply to me;
speak, for I want to justify you.

<sup>33</sup> If not, you listen to me;
be silent, and I will teach you wisdom."

34

<sup>2</sup> "Listen to my words, you wise men;
hear me, you learned men.

<sup>3</sup> For the ear assesses words as the mouth tastes food.

let us come to know among ourselves what is good.

<sup>5</sup> For Job says, 'I am innocent, but God turns away my right.

My wound is incurable,
although I am without transgression.'

who drinks derision like water!

<sup>8</sup> He goes about in company with evildoers, he goes along with wicked men.

<sup>9</sup> For he says, 'It does not profit a man when he makes his delight with God.'

God is Not Unjust

<sup>10</sup> "Therefore, listen to me, you men of understanding.
Far be it from God to do wickedness, from the Almighty to do evil.

<sup>11</sup> For he repays a person for his work, and according to the conduct of a person,
he causes the consequences to find him.

<sup>12</sup> Indeed, in truth, God does not act wickedly, and the Almighty does not pervert justice.

<sup>13</sup> Who entrusted to him the earth?
And who put him over the whole world?

<sup>14</sup> If God were to set his heart on it, and gather in his spirit and his breath, <sup>15</sup> all flesh would perish together and human beings would return to dust.

God Is Impartial and Omniscient

<sup>16</sup> “If you have understanding, listen to this, hear what I have to say.
<sup>17</sup> Do you really think that one who hates justice can govern?
And will you declare guilty
the supremely righteous One, <sup>18</sup> who says to a king, ‘Worthless man’ and to nobles, ‘Wicked men,’ <sup>19</sup> who shows no partiality to princes, and does not take note of the rich more than the poor, because all of them are the work of his hands?
<sup>20</sup> In a moment they die, in the middle of the night, people are shaken and they pass away.
The mighty are removed effortlessly.
<sup>21</sup> For his eyes are on the ways of an individual, he observes all a person’s steps.
<sup>22</sup> There is no darkness, and no deep darkness, where evildoers can hide themselves.
<sup>23</sup> For he does not still consider a person, that he should come before God in judgment.
<sup>24</sup> He shatters the great without inquiry, and sets up others in their place.
<sup>25</sup> Therefore, he knows their deeds, he overthrows them in the night and they are crushed.
<sup>26</sup> He strikes them for their wickedness, in a place where people can see, <sup>27</sup> because they have turned away from following him, and have not understood any of his ways, <sup>28</sup> so that they caused the cry of the poor to come before him,
so that he hears the cry of the needy.
<sup>29</sup> But if God is quiet, who can condemn him?
If he hides his face, then who can see him?
Yet he is over the individual and the nation alike, <sup>30</sup> so that the godless man should not rule, and not lay snares for the people.

Job Is Foolish to Rebel

<sup>31</sup> “Has anyone said to God, ‘I have endured chastisement, but I will not act wrongly any more.
<sup>32</sup> Teach me what I cannot see.
If I have done evil, I will do so no more.’
<sup>33</sup> Is it your opinion that God should recompense it, because you reject this?

But you must choose, and not I,
so tell us what you know.
<sup>34</sup> Men of understanding say to me – any wise man listening to me says – <sup>35</sup> that Job speaks without knowledge and his words are without understanding.
<sup>36</sup> But Job will be tested to the end, because his answers are like those of wicked men.
<sup>37</sup> For he adds transgression to his sin;
in our midst he claps his hands, and multiplies his words against God.”

35

<sup>2</sup> “Do you think this to be just:
when you say, ‘My right before God.’
<sup>3</sup> But you say, ‘What will it profit you,’ and, ‘What do I gain by not sinning?’ <sup>4</sup> I will reply to you, and to your friends with you.
<sup>5</sup> Gaze at the heavens and see;
consider the clouds, which are higher than you!
<sup>6</sup> If you sin, how does it affect God?
If your transgressions are many,
what does it do to him?
<sup>7</sup> If you are righteous, what do you give to God, or what does he receive from your hand?
<sup>8</sup> Your wickedness affects only a person like yourself, and your righteousness only other people.
<sup>9</sup> “People cry out because of the excess of oppression;
they cry out for help because of the power of the mighty.
<sup>10</sup> But no one says, ‘Where is God, my Creator, who gives songs in the night, <sup>11</sup> who teaches us more than the wild animals of the earth, and makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?’
<sup>12</sup> Then they cry out – but he does not answer – because of the arrogance of the wicked.
<sup>13</sup> Surely it is an empty cry – God does not hear it;
the Almighty does not take notice of it.
<sup>14</sup> How much less, then, when you say that you do not perceive him, that the case is before him and you are waiting for him!
<sup>15</sup> And further, when you say that his anger does not punish, and that he does not know transgression!
<sup>16</sup> So Job opens his mouth to no purpose; without knowledge he multiplies words.”

- <sup>1</sup> Elihu said further: <sup>2</sup> “Be patient with me a little longer and I will instruct you, for I still have words to speak on God’s behalf.
<sup>3</sup> With my knowledge I will speak comprehensively, and to my Creator I will ascribe righteousness.
<sup>4</sup> For in truth, my words are not false;
it is one complete in knowledge who is with you.
<sup>5</sup> Indeed, God is mighty; and he does not despise people, he is mighty, and firm in his intent.
<sup>6</sup> He does not allow the wicked to live, but he gives justice to the poor.
<sup>7</sup> He does not take his eyes off the righteous;
but with kings on the throne
he seats the righteous and exalts them forever.
<sup>8</sup> But if they are bound in chains, and held captive by the cords of affliction, <sup>9</sup> then he reveals to them what they have done, and their transgressions, that they were behaving proudly.
<sup>10</sup> And he reveals this for correction, and says that they must turn from evil.
<sup>11</sup> If they obey and serve him, they live out their days in prosperity and their years in pleasantness.
<sup>12</sup> But if they refuse to listen, they pass over the river of death, and expire without knowledge.
<sup>13</sup> The godless at heart nourish anger, they do not cry out even when he binds them.
<sup>14</sup> They die in their youth, and their life ends among the male cultic prostitutes.
<sup>15</sup> He delivers the afflicted by their afflictions, he reveals himself to them by their suffering.
<sup>16</sup> And surely, he drew you from the mouth of distress, to a wide place, unrestricted, and to the comfort of your table filled with rich food.
<sup>17</sup> But now you are preoccupied with the judgment due the wicked, judgment and justice take hold of you.
<sup>18</sup> Be careful that no one entices you with riches;
do not let a large bribe turn you aside.
<sup>19</sup> Would your wealth sustain you, so that you would not be in distress,
even all your mighty efforts?
<sup>20</sup> Do not long for the cover of night to drag people away from their homes.
<sup>21</sup> Take heed, do not turn to evil, for because of this you have been tested by affliction.

who is a teacher like him?
<sup>23</sup> Who has prescribed his ways for him?
Or said to him, 'You have done what is wicked'?
<sup>24</sup> Remember to extol his work, which people have praised in song.
<sup>25</sup> All humanity has seen it;
people gaze on it from afar.

The Work and Wisdom of God

<sup>26</sup> "Yes, God is great – beyond our knowledge!
The number of his years is unsearchable.
<sup>27</sup> He draws up drops of water;
they distill the rain into its mist, <sup>28</sup> which the clouds pour down and shower on humankind abundantly.
<sup>29</sup> Who can understand the spreading of the clouds, the thunderings of his pavilion?
<sup>30</sup> See how he scattered his lightning about him;
he has covered the depths of the sea.
<sup>31</sup> It is by these that he judges the nations and supplies food in abundance.
<sup>32</sup> With his hands he covers the lightning, and directs it against its target.
<sup>33</sup>
His thunder announces the coming storm, the cattle also, concerning the storm's approach.

37

<sup>1</sup> At this also my heart pounds and leaps from its place.
<sup>2</sup> Listen carefully to the thunder of his voice, to the rumbling that proceeds from his mouth.
<sup>3</sup> Under the whole heaven he lets it go, even his lightning to the far corners of the earth.
<sup>4</sup> After that a voice roars;
he thunders with an exalted voice, and he does not hold back his lightning bolts
when his voice is heard.
<sup>5</sup> God thunders with his voice in marvelous ways;
he does great things beyond our understanding.
<sup>6</sup> For to the snow he says, 'Fall to earth,' and to the torrential rains, 'Pour down.' <sup>7</sup> He causes everyone to stop working, so that all people may know his work.
<sup>8</sup> The wild animals go to their lairs, and in their dens they remain.
<sup>9</sup> A tempest blows out from its chamber, icy cold from the driving winds.
<sup>10</sup> The breath of God produces ice, and the breadth of the waters freeze solid.
<sup>11</sup> He loads the clouds with moisture;

he scatters his lightning through the clouds.

<sup>12</sup> The clouds go round in circles, wheeling about according to his plans, to carry out all that he commands them over the face of the whole inhabited world.

<sup>13</sup> Whether it is for punishment for his land, or whether it is for mercy,
he causes it to find its mark.

Stand still and consider the wonders God works.

<sup>15</sup> Do you know how God commands them, how he makes lightning flash in his storm cloud?

<sup>16</sup> Do you know about the balancing of the clouds, that wondrous activity of him who is perfect in knowledge?

<sup>17</sup> You, whose garments are hot when the earth is still because of the south wind, <sup>18</sup> will you, with him, spread out the clouds, solid as a mirror of molten metal?

<sup>19</sup> Tell us what we should say to him.

We cannot prepare a case because of the darkness.

<sup>20</sup> Should he be informed that I want to speak?
If a man speaks, surely he would be swallowed up!

<sup>21</sup> But now, the sun cannot be looked at – it is bright in the skies – after a wind passed and swept the clouds away.

<sup>22</sup> From the north he comes in golden splendor; around God is awesome majesty.

<sup>23</sup> As for the Almighty, we cannot attain to him!

He is great in power,
but justice and abundant righteousness he does not oppress.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore people fear him, for he does not regard all the wise in heart.”

38

<sup>2</sup> “Who is this who darkens counsel with words without knowledge?

I will question you and you will inform me!

God's questions to Job

<sup>4</sup> “Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth?
Tell me, if you possess understanding!

<sup>5</sup> Who set its measurements – if you know – or who stretched a measuring line across it?

<sup>6</sup> On what were its bases set, or who laid its cornerstone –

<sup>7</sup> when the morning stars sang in chorus, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

8 “Who shut up the sea with doors when it burst forth, coming out of the womb, 9 when I made the storm clouds its garment, and thick darkness its swaddling band, 10 when I prescribed its limits, and set in place its bolts and doors, 11 when I said, ‘To here you may come and no farther,
here your proud waves will be confined’?
12 Have you ever in your life commanded the morning, or made the dawn know its place, 13 that it might seize the corners of the earth, and shake the wicked out of it?
14 The earth takes shape like clay under a seal;
its features are dyed like a garment.
15 Then from the wicked the light is withheld, and the arm raised in violence is broken.
16 Have you gone to the springs that fill the sea, or walked about in the recesses of the deep?
17 Have the gates of death been revealed to you?
Have you seen the gates of deepest darkness?
18 Have you considered the vast expanses of the earth?
Tell me, if you know it all!
19 “In what direction does light reside, and darkness, where is its place, 20 that you may take them to their borders and perceive the pathways to their homes?
21 You know, for you were born before them;
and the number of your days is great!
22 Have you entered the storehouse of the snow, or seen the armory of the hail, 23 which I reserve for the time of trouble, for the day of war and battle?
24 In what direction is lightning dispersed, or the east winds scattered over the earth?
25 Who carves out a channel for the heavy rains, and a path for the rumble of thunder, 26 to cause it to rain on an uninhabited land,
a desert where there are no human beings, 27 to satisfy a devastated and desolate land, and to cause it to sprout with vegetation?
28 Does the rain have a father, or who has fathered the drops of the dew?
29 From whose womb does the ice emerge, and the frost from the sky, who gives birth to it, 30 when the waters become hard like stone, when the surface of the deep is frozen solid?
31 Can you tie the bands of the Pleiades, or release the cords of Orion?
32 Can you lead out the constellations in their seasons, or guide the Bear with its cubs?

33 Do you know the laws of the heavens, or can you set up their rule over the earth?
34 Can you raise your voice to the clouds so that a flood of water covers you?
35 Can you send out lightning bolts, and they go?
Will they say to you, 'Here we are'?
36 Who has put wisdom in the heart, or has imparted understanding to the mind?
37 Who by wisdom can count the clouds, and who can tip over the water jars of heaven, 38 when the dust hardens into a mass, and the clumps of earth stick together?
39 "Do you hunt prey for the lioness, and satisfy the appetite of the lions, 40 when they crouch in their dens, when they wait in ambush in the thicket?
41 Who prepares prey for the raven, when its young cry out to God and wander about for lack of food?

39

1 "Are you acquainted with the way the mountain goats give birth?
Do you watch as the wild deer give birth to their young?
2 Do you count the months they must fulfill, and do you know the time they give birth?
3 They crouch, they bear their young,
they bring forth the offspring they have carried.
4 Their young grow strong, and grow up in the open;
they go off, and do not return to them.
5 Who let the wild donkey go free?
Who released the bonds of the donkey,
6 to whom I appointed the steppe for its home,
the salt wastes as its dwelling place?
7 It scorns the tumult in the town;
it does not hear the shouts of a driver.
8 It ranges the hills as its pasture, and searches after every green plant.
9 Is the wild ox willing to be your servant?
Will it spend the night at your feeding trough?
10 Can you bind the wild ox to a furrow with its rope, will it till the valleys, following after you?
11 Will you rely on it because its strength is great?
Will you commit your labor to it?
12 Can you count on it to bring in your grain, and gather the grain to your threshing floor?
13
"The wings of the ostrich flap with joy,
but are they the pinions and plumage of a stork?
14 For she leaves her eggs on the ground, and lets them be warmed on the soil.

15 She forgets that a foot might crush them, or that a wild animal might trample them.
16 She is harsh with her young,
as if they were not hers;
she is unconcerned
about the uselessness of her labor.
17 For God deprived her of wisdom, and did not impart understanding to her.
18 But as soon as she springs up,
she laughs at the horse and its rider.
19 “Do you give the horse its strength?
Do you clothe its neck with a mane?
20 Do you make it leap like a locust?
Its proud neighing is terrifying!
21 It paws the ground in the valley, exulting mightily,
it goes out to meet the weapons.
22 It laughs at fear and is not dismayed;
it does not shy away from the sword.
23 On it the quiver rattles;
the lance and javelin flash.
24 In excitement and impatience it consumes the ground;
it cannot stand still when the trumpet is blown.
25 At the sound of the trumpet, it says, ‘Aha!’
And from a distance it catches the scent of battle, the thunderous shouting of commanders,
and the battle cries.
26 “Is it by your understanding that the hawk soars, and spreads its wings toward the south?
27 Is it at your command that the eagle soars, and builds its nest on high?
28 It lives on a rock and spends the night there, on a rocky crag and a fortress.
29 From there it spots its prey, its eyes gaze intently from a distance.
30 And its young ones devour the blood, and where the dead carcasses are,
there it is.”

40

1 Then the LORD answered Job:
2 “Will the one who contends with the Almighty correct him?
Let the person who accuses God give him an answer!”
3 Then Job answered the LORD:
4 “Indeed, I am completely unworthy – how could I reply to you?
I put my hand over my mouth to silence myself.
5 I have spoken once, but I cannot answer; twice, but I will say no more.”

The Lord's Second Speech

6 Then the LORD answered Job from the whirlwind:

7 “Get ready for a difficult task like a man.
I will question you and you will inform me!
8 Would you indeed annul my justice?
Would you declare me guilty so that you might be right?
9 Do you have an arm as powerful as God’s, and can you thunder with a voice like his?
10 Adorn yourself, then, with majesty and excellency, and clothe yourself with glory and honor!
11 Scatter abroad the abundance of your anger.
Look at every proud man and bring him low;
12 Look at every proud man and abase him;
crush the wicked on the spot!
13 Hide them in the dust together, imprison them in the grave.
14 Then I myself will acknowledge to you that your own right hand can save you.

The Description of Behemoth

15 “Look now at Behemoth, which I made as I made you;
it eats grass like the ox.
16 Look at its strength in its loins, and its power in the muscles of its belly.
17 It makes its tail stiff like a cedar,
the sinews of its thighs are tightly wound.
18 Its bones are tubes of bronze, its limbs like bars of iron.
19 It ranks first among the works of God, the One who made it has furnished it with a sword.
20 For the hills bring it food, where all the wild animals play.
21 Under the lotus trees it lies, in the secrecy of the reeds and the marsh.
22 The lotus trees conceal it in their shadow;
the poplars by the stream conceal it.
23 If the river rages, it is not disturbed, it is secure, though the Jordan should surge up to its mouth.
24 Can anyone catch it by its eyes, or pierce its nose with a snare?

41

1 “Can you pull in Leviathan with a hook, and tie down its tongue with a rope?
2 Can you put a cord through its nose, or pierce its jaw with a hook?
3 Will it make numerous supplications to you, will it speak to you with tender words?
4 Will it make a pact with you,
so you could take it as your slave for life?
5 Can you play with it, like a bird, or tie it on a leash for your girls?

<sup>6</sup> Will partners bargain for it?
Will they divide it up among the merchants?
<sup>7</sup> Can you fill its hide with harpoons or its head with fishing spears?
<sup>8</sup> If you lay your hand on it,
you will remember the fight, and you will never do it again!
<sup>9</sup> See, his expectation is wrong, he is laid low even at the sight of it.
<sup>10</sup> Is it not fierce when it is awakened?
Who is he, then, who can stand before it?
<sup>11</sup> (Who has confronted me that I should repay?
Everything under heaven belongs to me!)
<sup>12</sup> I will not keep silent about its limbs, and the extent of its might,
and the grace of its arrangement.
<sup>13</sup> Who can uncover its outer covering?
Who can penetrate to the inside of its armor?
<sup>14</sup> Who can open the doors of its mouth?
Its teeth all around are fearsome.
<sup>15</sup> Its back has rows of shields, shut up closely together as with a seal; <sup>16</sup> each one is so close to the next that no air can come between them.
<sup>17</sup> They lock tightly together, one to the next;
they cling together and cannot be separated.
<sup>18</sup> Its snorting throws out flashes of light;
its eyes are like the red glow of dawn.
<sup>19</sup> Out of its mouth go flames, sparks of fire shoot forth!
<sup>20</sup> Smoke streams from its nostrils as from a boiling pot over burning rushes.
<sup>21</sup> Its breath sets coals ablaze and a flame shoots from its mouth.
<sup>22</sup> Strength lodges in its neck, and despair runs before it.
<sup>23</sup> The folds of its flesh are tightly joined;
they are firm on it, immovable.
<sup>24</sup> Its heart is hard as rock, hard as a lower millstone.
<sup>25</sup> When it rises up, the mighty are terrified, at its thrashing about they withdraw.
<sup>26</sup> Whoever strikes it with a sword will have no effect, nor with the spear, arrow, or dart.
<sup>27</sup> It regards iron as straw and bronze as rotten wood.
<sup>28</sup> Arrows do not make it flee;
slingstones become like chaff to it.
<sup>29</sup> A club is counted as a piece of straw;
it laughs at the rattling of the lance.
<sup>30</sup> Its underparts are the sharp points of potsherds, it leaves its mark in the mud like a threshing sledge.

<sup>31</sup> It makes the deep boil like a cauldron and stirs up the sea like a pot of ointment,

one would think the deep had a head of white hair.

<sup>33</sup> The likes of it is not on earth,
a creature without fear.

<sup>34</sup> It looks on every haughty being;
it is king over all that are proud.”

42

<sup>2</sup> “I know that you can do all things;
no purpose of yours can be thwarted;

<sup>3</sup> you asked,
‘Who is this who darkens counsel without knowledge?’

But I have declared without understanding things too wonderful for me to know.

<sup>4</sup> You said,
‘Pay attention, and I will speak;
I will question you, and you will answer me.’

<sup>5</sup> I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye has seen you.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore I despise myself, and I repent in dust and ashes!

VII. The Epilogue (42:7-17)

<sup>7</sup> After the LORD had spoken these things to Job, he said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “My anger is stirred up against you and your two friends, because you have not spoken about me what is right, as my servant Job has.

<sup>8</sup> So now take seven bulls and seven rams and go to my servant Job and offer a burnt offering for yourselves. And my servant Job will intercede for you, and I will respect him, so that I do not deal with you according to your folly, because you have not spoken about me what is right, as my servant Job has.”

<sup>9</sup> So they went, Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite, and did just as the LORD had told them; and the LORD had respect for Job.

<sup>10</sup> So the LORD restored what Job had lost after he prayed for his friends, and the LORD doubled all that had belonged to Job.

<sup>11</sup> So they came to him, all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before, and they dined with him in his house. They comforted him and consoled him for all the trouble the LORD had brought on him, and each one gave him a piece of silver and a gold ring.

<sup>12</sup> So the LORD blessed the second part of Job’s life more than the first. He had 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 1,000 yoke of oxen, and 1,000 female donkeys.

<sup>13</sup> And he also had seven sons and three daughters.

<sup>15</sup> Nowhere in all the land could women be found who were as beautiful as Job’s daughters, and their father granted them an inheritance alongside their brothers.

Book 1

(Psalms 1-41)

1

<sup>1</sup> How blessed is the one who does not follow the advice of the wicked, or stand in the pathway with sinners, or sit in the assembly of scoffers!
<sup>2</sup> Instead he finds pleasure in obeying the LORD's | strong="H3069" commands;
he meditates on his commands day and night.
<sup>3</sup> He is like a tree planted by flowing streams;
it yields its fruit at the proper time,
and its leaves never fall off.
He succeeds in everything he attempts.
<sup>4</sup> Not so with the wicked!
Instead they are like wind-driven chaff.
<sup>5</sup> For this reason the wicked cannot withstand judgment, nor can sinners join the assembly of the godly.
<sup>6</sup> Certainly the LORD guards the way of the godly, but the way of the wicked ends in destruction.

Why are the countries devising plots that will fail?
<sup>2</sup> The kings of the earth form a united front;
the rulers collaborate against the LORD and his anointed king.
<sup>3</sup> They say, "Let's tear off the shackles they've put on us!
Let's free ourselves from their ropes!"
<sup>4</sup> The one enthroned in heaven laughs in disgust;
the Lord taunts them.
<sup>5</sup> Then he angrily speaks to them and terrifies them in his rage, saying, <sup>6</sup> "I myself have installed my king on Zion, my holy hill."
<sup>7</sup> The king says, "I will announce the LORD's | strong="H3069" decree. He said to me:
'You are my son! This very day I have become your father!'
<sup>8</sup> Ask me, and I will give you the nations as your inheritance,
the ends of the earth as your personal property.
<sup>9</sup> You will break them with an iron scepter;
you will smash them like a potter's jar! " " <sup>10</sup> So now, you kings, do what is wise;
you rulers of the earth, submit to correction!
<sup>11</sup> Serve the LORD in fear!
Repent in terror!
<sup>12</sup> Give sincere homage!
Otherwise he will be angry,
and you will die because of your behavior,

when his anger quickly ignites.
How blessed are all who take shelter in him!

3

A psalm of David, written when he fled from his son Absalom.

<sup>1</sup> LORD, how numerous are my enemies!

Many attack me.

“God will not deliver him.” (Selah)

<sup>3</sup> But you, LORD, are a shield that protects me;
you are my glory and the one who restores me.

<sup>4</sup> To the LORD | strong="H3069" I cried out, and he answered me from his holy hill. (Selah)

<sup>5</sup> I rested and slept;

I awoke, for the LORD protects me.

<sup>6</sup> I am not afraid of the multitude of people who attack me from all directions.

Deliver me, my God!

Yes, you will strike all my enemies on the jaw;
you will break the teeth of the wicked.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD delivers;

you show favor to your people. (Selah)

4

For the music director, to be accompanied by stringed instruments; a psalm of David.

O God who vindicates me!

Though I am hemmed in, you will lead me into a wide, open place.

Have mercy on me and respond to my prayer!

<sup>2</sup> You men, how long will you try to turn my honor into shame?

How long will you love what is worthless and search for what is deceptive? (Selah)

the LORD responds when I cry out to him.

Meditate as you lie in bed, and repent of your ways! (Selah)

and trust in the LORD!

Smile upon us, LORD!

<sup>7</sup> You make me happier than those who have abundant grain and wine.

<sup>8</sup> I will lie down and sleep peacefully, for you, LORD, make me safe and secure.

5

For the music director, to be accompanied by wind instruments; a psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> Listen to what I say, LORD!

Carefully consider my complaint!

my king and my God,

for I am praying to you!

<sup>3</sup> LORD, in the morning you will hear me;
in the morning I will present my case to you and then wait expectantly for an answer.

<sup>4</sup> Certainly you are not a God who approves of evil; evil people cannot dwell with you.

<sup>5</sup> Arrogant people cannot stand in your presence;
you hate all who behave wickedly.

the LORD despises violent and deceitful people.

<sup>7</sup> But as for me, because of your great faithfulness I will enter your house;
I will bow down toward your holy temple as I worship you.

<sup>8</sup> LORD, lead me in your righteousness because of those who wait to ambush me, remove the obstacles in the way in which you are guiding me!

<sup>9</sup> For they do not speak the truth;
their stomachs are like the place of destruction, their throats like an open grave, their tongues like a steep slope leading into it.

<sup>10</sup> Condemn them, O God!
May their own schemes be their downfall!
Drive them away because of their many acts of insurrection, for they have rebelled against you.

<sup>11</sup> But may all who take shelter in you be happy!
May they continually shout for joy!
Shelter them so that those who are loyal to you may rejoice!

<sup>12</sup> Certainly you reward the godly, LORD.
Like a shield you protect them in your good favor.

6

For the music director, to be accompanied by stringed instruments, according to the sheminith style; a psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger!
Do not discipline me in your raging fury!

<sup>2</sup> Have mercy on me, LORD, for I am frail!
Heal me, LORD |strong="H3069", for my bones are shaking!

<sup>3</sup> I am absolutely terrified, and you, LORD – how long will this continue?

<sup>4</sup> Relent, LORD, rescue me!
Deliver me because of your faithfulness!

<sup>5</sup> For no one remembers you in the realm of death,
In Sheol who gives you thanks?

<sup>6</sup> I am exhausted as I groan;
all night long I drench my bed in tears;
my tears saturate the cushion beneath me.

<sup>7</sup> My eyes grow dim from suffering;
they grow weak because of all my enemies.

<sup>8</sup> Turn back from me, all you who behave wickedly, for the LORD has heard the sound of my weeping!

<sup>9</sup> The LORD has heard my appeal for mercy;
the LORD has accepted my prayer.

<sup>10</sup> May all my enemies be humiliated and absolutely terrified!
May they turn back and be suddenly humiliated!

7

A musical composition by David, which he sang to the LORD concerning a Benjaminite named Cush.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD my God, in you I have taken shelter.
Deliver me from all who chase me! Rescue me!
<sup>2</sup> Otherwise they will rip me to shreds like a lion;
they will tear me to bits and no one will be able to rescue me.
<sup>3</sup> O LORD my God, if I have done what they say, or am guilty of unjust actions, <sup>4</sup> or have wronged my ally, or helped his lawless enemy, <sup>5</sup> may an enemy relentlessly chase me and catch me;
may he trample me to death and leave me lying dishonored in the dust. (Selah) <sup>6</sup> Stand up angrily, LORD!
Rise up with raging fury against my enemies!
Wake up for my sake and execute the judgment you have decreed for them!
<sup>7</sup> The countries are assembled all around you;
take once more your rightful place over them!
<sup>8</sup> The LORD judges the nations.
Vindicate me, LORD, because I am innocent, because I am blameless, O Exalted One!
<sup>9</sup> May the evil deeds of the wicked come to an end!
But make the innocent secure,
O righteous God,
you who examine inner thoughts and motives!
<sup>10</sup> The Exalted God is my shield, the one who delivers the morally upright.
<sup>11</sup> God is a just judge;
he is angry throughout the day.
<sup>12</sup> If a person does not repent, God sharpens his sword and prepares to shoot his bow.
<sup>13</sup> He prepares to use deadly weapons against him;
he gets ready to shoot flaming arrows.
<sup>14</sup> See the one who is pregnant with wickedness, who conceives destructive plans, and gives birth to harmful lies – <sup>15</sup> he digs a pit and then falls into the hole he has made.
<sup>16</sup> He becomes the victim of his own destructive plans and the violence he intended for others falls on his own head.
<sup>17</sup> I will thank the LORD for his justice;
I will sing praises to the sovereign LORD!

8

For the music director, according to the gittith style; a psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, our Lord,
how magnificent is your reputation throughout the earth!
You reveal your majesty in the heavens above!

<sup>2</sup> From the mouths of children and nursing babies you have ordained praise on account of your adversaries, so that you might put an end to the vindictive enemy.
<sup>3</sup> When I look up at the heavens, which your fingers made, and see the moon and the stars, which you set in place, <sup>4</sup> Of what importance is the human race, that you should notice them?
Of what importance is mankind, that you should pay attention to them, <sup>5</sup> and make them a little less than the heavenly beings?
You grant mankind honor and majesty;
<sup>6</sup> you appoint them to rule over your creation;
you have placed everything under their authority, <sup>7</sup> including all the sheep and cattle,
as well as the wild animals, <sup>8</sup> the birds in the sky, the fish in the sea and everything that moves through the currents of the seas.
<sup>9</sup> O LORD, our Lord,
how magnificent is your reputation throughout the earth!

9

For the music director; according to the alumoth-labben style; a psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> I will thank the LORD with all my heart!
I will tell about all your amazing deeds!
<sup>2</sup> I will be happy and rejoice in you!
I will sing praises to you, O sovereign One!
<sup>3</sup> When my enemies turn back, they trip and are defeated before you.
<sup>4</sup> For you defended my just cause;
from your throne you pronounced a just decision.
<sup>5</sup> You terrified the nations with your battle cry;
you destroyed the wicked;
you permanently wiped out all memory of them.
<sup>6</sup> The enemy's cities have been reduced to permanent ruins;
you destroyed their cities;
all memory of the enemies has perished.
<sup>7</sup> But the LORD rules forever;
he reigns in a just manner.
<sup>8</sup> He judges the world fairly;
he makes just legal decisions for the nations.
<sup>9</sup> Consequently the LORD provides safety for the oppressed;
he provides safety in times of trouble.
<sup>10</sup> Your loyal followers trust in you, for you, LORD, do not abandon those who seek your help.
<sup>11</sup> Sing praises to the LORD, who rules in Zion!
Tell the nations what he has done!
<sup>12</sup> For the one who takes revenge against murderers took notice of the oppressed;
he did not overlook their cry for help <sup>13</sup> when they prayed:
"Have mercy on me, LORD!
See how I am oppressed by those who hate me,
O one who can snatch me away from the gates of death!"
<sup>14</sup> Then I will tell about all your praiseworthy acts; in the gates of Daughter Zion I will rejoice because of your deliverance.”

<sup>15</sup> The nations fell into the pit they had made; their feet were caught in the net they had hidden.

<sup>16</sup> The LORD revealed himself;
he accomplished justice;
the wicked were ensnared by their own actions. (Higgaion. Selah)

<sup>17</sup> The wicked are turned back and sent to Sheol;
this is the destiny of all the nations that ignore God,

<sup>18</sup> for the needy are not permanently ignored, the hopes of the oppressed are not forever dashed.

<sup>19</sup> Rise up, LORD | strong="H3069"!

Don't let men be defiant!
May the nations be judged in your presence!

<sup>20</sup> Terrify them, LORD | strong="H3069"!

Let the nations know they are mere mortals! (Selah)

10

Why do you pay no attention during times of trouble?

<sup>2</sup> The wicked arrogantly chase the oppressed;
the oppressed are trapped by the schemes the wicked have dreamed up.

<sup>3</sup> Yes, the wicked man boasts because he gets what he wants;
the one who robs others curses and rejects the LORD.

“God won't hold me accountable; he doesn't care.”

<sup>5</sup> He is secure at all times.
He has no regard for your commands;
he disdains all his enemies.

<sup>6</sup> He says to himself,
“I will never be upended,
because I experience no calamity.”

<sup>7</sup> His mouth is full of curses and deceptive, harmful words; his tongue injures and destroys.

<sup>8</sup> He waits in ambush near the villages;
in hidden places he kills the innocent.
His eyes look for some unfortunate victim.

<sup>9</sup> He lies in ambush in a hidden place, like a lion in a thicket;
he lies in ambush, waiting to catch the oppressed;
he catches the oppressed by pulling in his net.

<sup>10</sup> His victims are crushed and beaten down;
they are trapped in his sturdy nets.

“God overlooks it;
he does not pay attention;
he never notices.”

<sup>12</sup> Rise up, LORD!
O God, strike him down!
Do not forget the oppressed!

<sup>13</sup> Why does the wicked man reject God?
He says to himself, “You will not hold me accountable.”

<sup>14</sup> You have taken notice, for you always see one who inflicts pain and suffering.

The unfortunate victim entrusts his cause to you;
you deliver the fatherless.

Hold him accountable for his wicked deeds, which he thought you would not discover.

<sup>16</sup> The LORD rules forever!
The nations are driven out of his land.

<sup>17</sup> LORD, you have heard the request of the oppressed;
you make them feel secure because you listen to their prayer.

<sup>18</sup> You defend the fatherless and oppressed, so that mere mortals may no longer terrorize them.

11

For the music director; by David.

<sup>1</sup> In the LORD I have taken shelter.
How can you say to me,

“Flee to a mountain like a bird!

<sup>2</sup> For look, the wicked prepare their bows, they put their arrows on the strings, to shoot in the darkness at the morally upright.

<sup>3</sup> When the foundations are destroyed, what can the godly accomplish?”

<sup>4</sup> The LORD is in his holy temple;
the LORD’s throne is in heaven.
His eyes watch;

his eyes examine all people.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD approves of the godly, but he hates the wicked and those who love to do violence.

<sup>6</sup> May the LORD rain down | strong="H4305" burning coals and brimstone on the wicked!
A whirlwind is what they deserve!

<sup>7</sup> Certainly the LORD is just;
he rewards godly deeds;
the upright will experience his favor.

12

For the music director; according to the sheminith style; a psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> Deliver, LORD!
For the godly have disappeared;
people of integrity have vanished.

<sup>2</sup> People lie to one another;
they flatter and deceive.

<sup>3</sup> May the LORD cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that boasts!

<sup>4</sup> They say, “We speak persuasively;
we know how to flatter and boast.
Who is our master?”

<sup>5</sup> “Because of the violence done to the oppressed, because of the painful cries of the needy,
I will spring into action,” says the LORD.
“I will provide the safety they so desperately desire.”

<sup>6</sup> The LORD’s words are absolutely reliable.

They are as untainted as silver purified in a furnace on the ground, where it is thoroughly refined.

<sup>7</sup> You, LORD, will protect them;
you will continually shelter each one from these evil people, <sup>8</sup> for the wicked seem to be everywhere, when people promote evil.

13

For the music director; a psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> How long, LORD, will you continue to ignore me?
How long will you pay no attention to me?

and suffer in broad daylight?
How long will my enemy gloat over me?

<sup>3</sup> Look at me! Answer me, O LORD my God!
Revive me, or else I will die!

<sup>4</sup> Then my enemy will say, "I have defeated him!"
Then my foes will rejoice because I am upended.

<sup>5</sup> But I trust in your faithfulness.
May I rejoice because of your deliverance!

<sup>6</sup> I will sing praises to the LORD when he vindicates me.

14

For the music director; by David.

They sin and commit evil deeds;
none of them does what is right.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD looks down from heaven at the human race,
to see if there is anyone who is wise and seeks God.

they are all morally corrupt.
None of them does what is right,
not even one!

<sup>4</sup> All those who behave wickedly do not understand – those who devour my people as if they were eating bread, and do not call out to the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> They are absolutely terrified,
for God defends the godly.

<sup>6</sup> You want to humiliate the oppressed, even though the LORD is their shelter.

When the LORD restores the well-being of his people,
may Jacob rejoice,
may Israel be happy!

15

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> LORD, who may be a guest in your home?
Who may live on your holy hill?

<sup>2</sup> Whoever lives a blameless life, does what is right,

and speaks honestly.

<sup>3</sup> He does not slander, or do harm to others,
or insult his neighbor.

<sup>4</sup> He despises a reprobate, but honors the LORD's loyal followers.

He makes firm commitments and does not renege on his promise.

<sup>5</sup> He does not charge interest when he lends his money.
He does not take bribes to testify against the innocent.
The one who lives like this will never be upended.

16

A prayer of David.

<sup>2</sup> I say to the LORD, "You are the Lord, my only source of well-being."

<sup>3</sup> As for God's chosen people who are in the land, and the leading officials I admired so much – <sup>4</sup> their troubles multiply, they desire other gods.

I will not pour out drink offerings of blood to their gods, nor will I make vows in the name of their gods.

<sup>5</sup> LORD, you give me stability and prosperity;
you make my future secure.

<sup>6</sup> It is as if I have been given fertile fields or received a beautiful tract of land.

<sup>7</sup> I will praise the LORD who guides me;
yes, during the night I reflect and learn.

<sup>8</sup> I constantly trust in the LORD;
because he is at my right hand, I will not be upended.

<sup>9</sup> So my heart rejoices and I am happy;
My life is safe.

<sup>10</sup> You will not abandon me to Sheol;
you will not allow your faithful follower to see the Pit.

<sup>11</sup> You lead me in the path of life;
I experience absolute joy in your presence;
you always give me sheer delight.

17

A prayer of David.

<sup>1</sup> LORD, consider my just cause!
Pay attention to my cry for help!
Listen to the prayer
I sincerely offer!

<sup>2</sup> Make a just decision on my behalf!
Decide what is right!

<sup>3</sup> You have scrutinized my inner motives;
you have examined me during the night.
You have carefully evaluated me, but you find no sin.
I am determined I will say nothing sinful.

<sup>4</sup> As for the actions of people –
just as you have commanded,
I have not followed in the footsteps of violent men.
<sup>5</sup> I carefully obey your commands;
I do not deviate from them.
<sup>6</sup> I call to you for you will answer me, O God.
Listen to me!
Hear what I say!
you who powerfully deliver those who look to you for protection from their enemies.
<sup>8</sup> Protect me as you would protect the pupil of your eye!
Hide me in the shadow of your wings!
<sup>9</sup> Protect me from the wicked men who attack me, my enemies who crowd around me for the kill.
<sup>10</sup> They are calloused;
they speak arrogantly.
<sup>11</sup> They attack me, now they surround me;
they intend to throw me to the ground.
<sup>12</sup> He is like a lion that wants to tear its prey to bits, like a young lion crouching in hidden places.
<sup>13</sup> Rise up, LORD!
Confront him! Knock him down!
Use your sword to rescue me from the wicked man!
<sup>14</sup> LORD, use your power to deliver me from these murderers, from the murderers of this world!
They enjoy prosperity;
you overwhelm them with the riches they desire.
They have many children,
and leave their wealth to their offspring.
<sup>15</sup> As for me, because I am innocent I will see your face; when I awake you will reveal yourself to me.

18

For the music director; by the LORD's servant David, who sang to the LORD the words of this song when the LORD rescued him from the power of all his enemies, including Saul.

"I love you, LORD, my source of strength!
<sup>2</sup> The LORD is my high ridge, my stronghold, my deliverer.
My God is my rocky summit where I take shelter, my shield, the horn that saves me, and my refuge.
<sup>3</sup> I called to the LORD, who is worthy of praise, and I was delivered from my enemies.
<sup>4</sup> The waves of death engulfed me,
the currents of chaos overwhelmed me.
<sup>5</sup> The ropes of Sheol tightened around me, the snares of death trapped me.
<sup>6</sup> In my distress I called to the LORD;
I cried out to my God.
From his heavenly temple he heard my voice;
he listened to my cry for help.
<sup>7</sup> The earth heaved and shook;

the roots of the mountains trembled;
they heaved because he was angry.

<sup>8</sup> Smoke ascended from his nose;
fire devoured as it came from his mouth;
he hurled down fiery coals.

<sup>9</sup> He made the sky sink as he descended;
a thick cloud was under his feet.

<sup>10</sup> He mounted a winged angel and flew;
he glided on the wings of the wind.

<sup>11</sup> He shrouded himself in darkness, in thick rain clouds.

<sup>12</sup> From the brightness in front of him came hail and fiery coals.

<sup>13</sup> The LORD thundered in the sky;
the sovereign One shouted.

<sup>14</sup> He shot his arrows and scattered them, many lightning bolts and routed them.

<sup>15</sup> The depths of the sea were exposed;
the inner regions of the world were uncovered
by your battle cry, LORD, by the powerful breath from your nose.

<sup>16</sup> He reached down from above and took hold of me;
he pulled me from the surging water.

<sup>17</sup> He rescued me from my strong enemy, from those who hate me,
for they were too strong for me.

<sup>18</sup> They confronted me in my day of calamity, but the LORD helped me.

<sup>19</sup> He brought me out into a wide open place;
he delivered me because he was pleased with me.

<sup>20</sup> The LORD repaid me for my godly deeds;
he rewarded my blameless behavior.

<sup>21</sup> For I have obeyed the LORD's commands;
I have not rebelled against my God.

<sup>22</sup> For I am aware of all his regulations, and I do not reject his rules.

<sup>23</sup> I was innocent before him, and kept myself from sinning.

<sup>24</sup> The LORD rewarded me for my godly deeds;
he took notice of my blameless behavior.

<sup>25</sup> You prove to be loyal to one who is faithful;
you prove to be trustworthy to one who is innocent.

<sup>26</sup> You prove to be reliable to one who is blameless, but you prove to be deceptive to one who is perverse.

<sup>27</sup> For you deliver oppressed people, but you bring down those who have a proud look.

My God illuminates the darkness around me.

<sup>29</sup> Indeed, with your help I can charge against an army;
by my God's power I can jump over a wall.

<sup>30</sup> The one true God acts in a faithful manner;

the LORD's promise is reliable;
he is a shield to all who take shelter in him.
<sup>31</sup> Indeed, who is God besides the LORD?
Who is a protector besides our God?
<sup>32</sup> The one true God gives me strength;
he removes the obstacles in my way.
<sup>33</sup> He gives me the agility of a deer;
he enables me to negotiate the rugged terrain.
<sup>34</sup> He trains my hands for battle;
my arms can bend even the strongest bow.
<sup>35</sup> You give me your protective shield;
your right hand supports me;
your willingness to help enables me to prevail.
<sup>36</sup> You widen my path;
my feet do not slip.
<sup>37</sup> I chase my enemies and catch them;
I do not turn back until I wipe them out.
<sup>38</sup> I beat them to death;
they fall at my feet.
<sup>39</sup> You give me strength for battle;
you make my foes kneel before me.
<sup>40</sup> You make my enemies retreat;
I destroy those who hate me.
<sup>41</sup> They cry out, but there is no one to help them;
they cry out to the LORD, but he does not answer them.
<sup>42</sup> I grind them as fine windblown dust;
I beat them underfoot like clay in the streets.
<sup>43</sup> You rescue me from a hostile army;
you make me a leader of nations;
people over whom I had no authority are now my subjects.
<sup>44</sup> When they hear of my exploits, they submit to me.
Foreigners are powerless before me;
<sup>45</sup> foreigners lose their courage;
they shake with fear as they leave their strongholds.
<sup>46</sup> The LORD is alive!
My protector is praiseworthy!
The God who delivers me is exalted as king!
<sup>47</sup> The one true God completely vindicates me;
he makes nations submit to me.
<sup>48</sup> He delivers me from my enemies;
you snatch me away from those who attack me;
you rescue me from violent men.
<sup>49</sup> So I will give you thanks before the nations, O LORD!
I will sing praises to you!
<sup>50</sup> He gives his chosen king magnificent victories;
he is faithful to his chosen ruler, to David and his descendants forever."

For the music director; a psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> The heavens declare the glory of God;

night after night it reveals his greatness.

<sup>3</sup> There is no actual speech or word, nor is its voice literally heard.

<sup>4</sup> Yet its voice echoes throughout the earth;
its words carry to the distant horizon.

In the sky he has pitched a tent for the sun.

<sup>5</sup> Like a bridegroom it emerges from its chamber;
like a strong man it enjoys running its course.

<sup>6</sup> It emerges from the distant horizon, and goes from one end of the sky to the other;
nothing can escape its heat.

<sup>7</sup> The law of the LORD is perfect and preserves one's life.

The rules set down by the LORD are reliable and impart wisdom to the inexperienced.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD's precepts are fair and make one joyful.

The LORD's commands are pure and give insight for life.

<sup>9</sup> The commands to fear the LORD are right and endure forever.

The judgments given by the LORD are trustworthy and absolutely just.

<sup>10</sup> They are of greater value than gold, than even a great amount of pure gold;
they bring greater delight than honey, than even the sweetest honey from a honeycomb.

<sup>11</sup> Yes, your servant finds moral guidance there;
those who obey them receive a rich reward.

<sup>12</sup> Who can know all his errors?
Please do not punish me for sins I am unaware of.

<sup>13</sup> Moreover, keep me from committing flagrant sins;
do not allow such sins to control me.

Then I will be blameless, and innocent of blatant rebellion.

<sup>14</sup> May my words and my thoughts be acceptable in your sight,
O LORD, my sheltering rock and my redeemer.

20

For the music director; a psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> May the LORD answer you when you are in trouble;
may the God of Jacob make you secure!

<sup>2</sup> May he send you help from his temple;
from Zion may he give you support!

<sup>3</sup> May he take notice of your offerings;
may he accept your burnt sacrifice! (Selah)

<sup>4</sup> May he grant your heart's desire;
may he bring all your plans to pass!

<sup>5</sup> Then we will shout for joy over your victory;
we will rejoice in the name of our God!
May the LORD grant all your requests!
<sup>6</sup> Now I am sure that the LORD will deliver his chosen king;
he will intervene for him from his holy heavenly temple, and display his mighty ability to deliver.
<sup>7</sup> Some trust in chariots and others in horses, but we depend on the LORD our God.
<sup>8</sup> They will fall down,
but we will stand firm.
<sup>9</sup> The LORD will deliver the king;
he will answer us when we call to him for help!

21

For the music director; a psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, the king rejoices in the strength you give;
he takes great delight in the deliverance you provide.
<sup>2</sup> You grant him his heart's desire;
you do not refuse his request. (Selah) <sup>3</sup> For you bring him rich blessings;
you place a golden crown on his head.
<sup>4</sup> He asked you to sustain his life, and you have granted him long life and an enduring dynasty.
<sup>5</sup> Your deliverance brings him great honor;
you give him majestic splendor.
<sup>6</sup> For you grant him lasting blessings;
you give him great joy by allowing him into your presence.
<sup>7</sup> For the king trusts in the LORD, and because of the sovereign LORD's faithfulness he is not upended.
<sup>8</sup> You prevail over all your enemies;
your power is too great for those who hate you.
<sup>9</sup> You burn them up like a fiery furnace when you appear;
the LORD angrily devours them;
the fire consumes them.
<sup>10</sup> You destroy their offspring from the earth, their descendants from among the human race.
<sup>11</sup> Yes, they intend to do you harm;
they dream up a scheme, but they do not succeed.
<sup>12</sup> For you make them retreat when you shoot your arrows at them.
<sup>13</sup> Rise up, O LORD, in strength!
We will sing and praise your power!

22

For the music director; according to the tune "Morning Doe;" a psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?
I groan in prayer, but help seems far away.
<sup>2</sup> My God, I cry out during the day,
but you do not answer,
and during the night my prayers do not let up.
<sup>3</sup> You are holy;

you sit as king receiving the praises of Israel.

<sup>4</sup> In you our ancestors trusted;
they trusted in you and you rescued them.

<sup>5</sup> To you they cried out, and they were saved;
in you they trusted and they were not disappointed.

<sup>6</sup> But I am a worm, not a man;
people insult me and despise me.

<sup>7</sup> All who see me taunt me;
they mock me and shake their heads.

<sup>8</sup> They say, “Commit yourself to the LORD!

Let the LORD rescue | strong="H6403" him!

Let the LORD deliver | strong="H5337" him, for he delights in him.”

<sup>9</sup> Yes, you are the one who brought me out from the womb and made me feel secure on my mother’s breasts.

<sup>10</sup> I have been dependent on you since birth;
from the time I came out of my mother’s womb you have been my God.

<sup>11</sup> Do not remain far away from me, for trouble is near and I have no one to help me.

<sup>12</sup> Many bulls surround me;
powerful bulls of Bashan hem me in.

<sup>13</sup> They open their mouths to devour me like a roaring lion that rips its prey.

<sup>14</sup> My strength drains away like water;
all my bones are dislocated;
my heart is like wax;
it melts away inside me.

<sup>15</sup> The roof of my mouth is as dry as a piece of pottery;
my tongue sticks to my gums.
You set me in the dust of death.

<sup>16</sup> Yes, wild dogs surround me – a gang of evil men crowd around me; like a lion they pin my hands and feet.

<sup>17</sup> I can count all my bones;
my enemies are gloating over me in triumph.

<sup>18</sup> They are dividing up my clothes among themselves;
they are rolling dice for my garments.

You are my source of strength! Hurry and help me!

Save my life from the claws of the wild dogs!

<sup>21</sup> Rescue me from the mouth of the lion, and from the horns of the wild oxen!
You have answered me!

<sup>22</sup> I will declare your name to my countrymen!
In the middle of the assembly I will praise you!

<sup>23</sup> You loyal followers of the LORD, praise him!
All you descendants of Jacob, honor him!

All you descendants of Israel, stand in awe of him!

<sup>24</sup> For he did not despise or detest the suffering of the oppressed;
he did not ignore him;

when he cried out to him, he responded.

<sup>25</sup> You are the reason I offer praise in the great assembly;
I will fulfill my promises before the LORD's loyal followers | strong="H3373".

Let those who seek his help praise the LORD!
May you live forever!

Let all the nations worship you!

<sup>28</sup> For the LORD is king and rules over the nations.

<sup>29</sup> All of the thriving people of the earth will join the celebration and worship;
all those who are descending into the grave will bow before him, including those who cannot preserve their lives.

<sup>30</sup> A whole generation will serve him;
they will tell the next generation about the sovereign Lord.

<sup>31</sup> They will come and tell about his saving deeds;
they will tell a future generation what he has accomplished.

23

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> The LORD is my shepherd,
I lack nothing.

<sup>2</sup> He takes me to lush pastures, he leads me to refreshing water.

<sup>3</sup> He restores my strength.
He leads me down the right paths for the sake of his reputation.

<sup>4</sup> Even when I must walk through the darkest valley,
I fear no danger,
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff reassure me.

<sup>5</sup> You prepare a feast before me in plain sight of my enemies.
You refresh my head with oil;
my cup is completely full.

<sup>6</sup> Surely your goodness and faithfulness will pursue me all my days, and I will live in the LORD's house for the rest of my life.

24

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> The LORD owns the earth and all it contains, the world and all who live in it.

<sup>2</sup> For he set its foundation upon the seas, and established it upon the ocean currents.

<sup>3</sup> Who is allowed to ascend the mountain of the LORD?
Who may go up to his holy dwelling place?

<sup>4</sup> The one whose deeds are blameless and whose motives are pure, who does not lie,
or make promises with no intention of keeping them.

<sup>5</sup> Such godly people are rewarded by the LORD, and vindicated by the God who delivers them.

Rise up, you eternal doors!

Then the majestic king will enter!

The LORD who is strong and mighty!

The LORD who is mighty in battle!

Rise up, you eternal doors!

Then the majestic king will enter!

The LORD who commands armies!

He is the majestic king! (Selah)

25

By David.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, I come before you in prayer.

<sup>2</sup> My God, I trust in you.

Please do not let me be humiliated;
do not let my enemies triumphantly rejoice over me!

<sup>3</sup> Certainly none who rely on you will be humiliated.

Those who deal in treachery will be thwarted and humiliated.

<sup>4</sup> Make me understand your ways, O LORD!

Teach me your paths!

<sup>5</sup> Guide me into your truth and teach me.

For you are the God who delivers me;

on you I rely all day long.

<sup>6</sup> Remember your compassionate and faithful deeds, O LORD, for you have always acted in this manner.

Because you are faithful to me, extend to me your favor, O LORD!

<sup>8</sup> The LORD is both kind and fair; that is why he teaches sinners the right way to live.

<sup>9</sup> May he show the humble what is right!

May he teach the humble his way!

<sup>10</sup> The LORD always proves faithful and reliable to those who follow the demands of his covenant.

<sup>11</sup> For the sake of your reputation, O LORD, forgive my sin, because it is great.

<sup>12</sup> The LORD shows his faithful followers
the way they should live.

<sup>13</sup> They experience his favor; their descendants inherit the land.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD's loyal followers receive his guidance, and he reveals his covenantal demands to them.

<sup>15</sup> I continually look to the LORD for help, for he will free my feet from the enemy's net.

<sup>16</sup> Turn toward me and have mercy on me, for I am alone and oppressed!

<sup>17</sup> Deliver me from my distress;
rescue me from my suffering!
<sup>18</sup> See my pain and suffering!
Forgive all my sins!
<sup>19</sup> Watch my enemies, for they outnumber me;
they hate me and want to harm me.
<sup>20</sup> Protect me and deliver me!
Please do not let me be humiliated,
for I have taken shelter in you!
<sup>21</sup> May integrity and godliness protect me, for I rely on you!
<sup>22</sup> O God, rescue Israel from all their distress!

26

By David.

<sup>1</sup> Vindicate me, O LORD, for I have integrity,
and I trust in the LORD without wavering.
<sup>2</sup> Examine me, O LORD, and test me!
Evaluate my inner thoughts and motives!
<sup>3</sup> For I am ever aware of your faithfulness, and your loyalty continually motivates me.
<sup>4</sup> I do not associate with deceitful men, or consort with those who are dishonest.
<sup>5</sup> I hate the mob of evil men, and do not associate with the wicked.
<sup>6</sup> I maintain a pure lifestyle, so I can appear before your altar, O LORD, <sup>7</sup> to give you thanks, and to tell about all your amazing deeds.
<sup>8</sup> O LORD, I love the temple where you live, the place where your splendor is revealed.
<sup>9</sup> Do not sweep me away with sinners, or execute me along with violent people, <sup>10</sup> who are always ready to do wrong or offer a bribe.
<sup>11</sup> But I have integrity!
Rescue me and have mercy on me!
<sup>12</sup> I am safe, and among the worshipers I will praise the LORD.

27

By David.

<sup>1</sup> The LORD delivers and vindicates me!
I fear no one!
The LORD protects my life!
I am afraid of no one!
<sup>2</sup> When evil men attack me to devour my flesh, when my adversaries and enemies attack me,
they stumble and fall.
<sup>3</sup> Even when an army is deployed against me,

I do not fear.
Even when war is imminent,
I remain confident.
<sup>4</sup>I have asked the LORD for one thing –
this is what I desire!
I want to live in the LORD's house all the days of my life, so I can gaze at the splendor of the LORD and contemplate in his temple.
<sup>5</sup>He will surely give me shelter in the day of danger;
he will hide me in his home;
he will place me on an inaccessible rocky summit.
<sup>6</sup>Now I will triumph over my enemies who surround me!
I will offer sacrifices in his dwelling place and shout for joy!
I will sing praises to the LORD!
<sup>7</sup>Hear me, O LORD, when I cry out!
Have mercy on me and answer me!
<sup>8</sup>My heart tells me to pray to you, and I do pray to you, O LORD.
<sup>9</sup>Do not reject me!
Do not push your servant away in anger!
You are my deliverer!
Do not forsake or abandon me,
O God who vindicates me!
<sup>10</sup>Even if my father and mother abandoned me, the LORD would take me in.
<sup>11</sup>Teach me how you want me to live;
lead me along a level path because of those who wait to ambush me!
<sup>12</sup>Do not turn me over to my enemies, for false witnesses who want to destroy me testify against me.
<sup>13</sup>Where would I be if I did not believe I would experience the LORD's favor in the land of the living?
<sup>14</sup>Rely on the LORD!
Be strong and confident!
Rely on the LORD!

28

By David.

<sup>1</sup>To you, O LORD, I cry out!
My protector, do not ignore me!
If you do not respond to me,
I will join those who are descending into the grave.
<sup>2</sup>Hear my plea for mercy when I cry out to you for help, when I lift my hands toward your holy temple!
<sup>3</sup>Do not drag me away with evil men, with those who behave wickedly, who talk so friendly to their neighbors,
while they plan to harm them!
<sup>4</sup>Pay them back for their evil deeds!
Pay them back for what they do!
Punish them!
<sup>5</sup>For they do not understand the LORD's actions | strong="H6468", or the way he carries out justice.

The LORD will permanently demolish them.
<sup>6</sup> The LORD deserves praise,
for he has heard my plea for mercy!
<sup>7</sup> The LORD strengthens and protects me;
I trust in him with all my heart.
I am rescued and my heart is full of joy;
I will sing to him in gratitude.
<sup>8</sup> The LORD strengthens his people;
he protects and delivers his chosen king.
<sup>9</sup> Deliver your people!
Empower the nation that belongs to you!
Care for them like a shepherd and carry them in your arms at all times!

29

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> Acknowledge the LORD, you heavenly beings, acknowledge the LORD's majesty and power!
<sup>2</sup> Acknowledge the majesty of the LORD's reputation!
Worship the LORD in holy attire!
<sup>3</sup> The LORD's shout is heard over the water;
the majestic God thunders, the LORD appears over the surging water.
<sup>4</sup> The LORD's shout is powerful, the LORD's shout is majestic.
<sup>5</sup> The LORD's shout breaks the cedars, the LORD shatters the cedars of Lebanon.
<sup>6</sup> He makes Lebanon skip like a calf and Sirion like a young ox.
<sup>7</sup> The LORD's shout strikes with flaming fire.
<sup>8</sup> The LORD's shout shakes the wilderness, the LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
<sup>9</sup> The LORD's shout bends the large trees and strips the leaves from the forests.
Everyone in his temple says, "Majestic!"
<sup>10</sup> The LORD sits enthroned over the engulfing waters, the LORD sits enthroned as the eternal king.
<sup>11</sup> The LORD gives his people strength;
the LORD grants his people security.

30

A psalm – a song used at the dedication of the temple; by David.

<sup>1</sup> I will praise you, O LORD, for you lifted me up, and did not allow my enemies to gloat over me.
<sup>2</sup> O LORD my God,
I cried out to you and you healed me.
<sup>3</sup> O LORD, you pulled me up from Sheol; you rescued me from among those descending into the grave.
<sup>4</sup> Sing to the LORD, you faithful followers of his;
give thanks to his holy name.
<sup>5</sup> For his anger lasts only a brief moment, and his good favor restores one's life.

One may experience sorrow during the night,
but joy arrives in the morning.
<sup>6</sup> In my self-confidence I said,
"I will never be upended."
<sup>7</sup> O LORD, in your good favor you made me secure.
Then you rejected me and I was terrified.
<sup>8</sup> To you, O LORD, I cried out;
I begged the Lord for mercy:
<sup>9</sup> "What profit is there in taking my life, in my descending into the Pit?
Can the dust of the grave praise you?
Can it declare your loyalty?
<sup>10</sup> Hear, O LORD, and have mercy on me!
O LORD, deliver me!"
<sup>11</sup> Then you turned my lament into dancing;
you removed my sackcloth and covered me with joy.
<sup>12</sup> So now my heart will sing to you and not be silent;
O LORD my God, I will always give thanks to you.

31

For the music director; a psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> In you, O LORD, I have taken shelter!
Never let me be humiliated!
Vindicate me by rescuing me!
<sup>2</sup> Listen to me!
Quickly deliver me!
Be my protector and refuge,
a stronghold where I can be safe!
<sup>3</sup> For you are my high ridge and my stronghold;
for the sake of your own reputation you lead me and guide me.
<sup>4</sup> You will free me from the net they hid for me, for you are my place of refuge.
<sup>5</sup> Into your hand I entrust my life;
you will rescue me, O LORD, the faithful God.
<sup>6</sup> I hate those who serve worthless idols, but I trust in the LORD.
<sup>7</sup> I will be happy and rejoice in your faithfulness, because you notice my pain and you are aware of how distressed I am.
<sup>8</sup> You do not deliver me over to the power of the enemy;
you enable me to stand in a wide open place.
<sup>9</sup> Have mercy on me, for I am in distress!
My eyes grow dim from suffering.
I have lost my strength.
<sup>10</sup> For my life nears its end in pain;
my years draw to a close as I groan.
My strength fails me because of my sin, and my bones become brittle.
<sup>11</sup> Because of all my enemies, people disdain me;
my neighbors are appalled by my suffering –

those who know me are horrified by my condition;
those who see me in the street run away from me.

<sup>12</sup> I am forgotten, like a dead man no one thinks about;
I am regarded as worthless, like a broken jar.

<sup>13</sup> For I hear what so many are saying,
the terrifying news that comes from every direction.
When they plot together against me,
they figure out how they can take my life.

<sup>14</sup> But I trust in you, O LORD!
I declare, "You are my God!"

<sup>15</sup> You determine my destiny!
Rescue me from the power of my enemies and those who chase me.

<sup>16</sup> Smile on your servant!
Deliver me because of your faithfulness!

<sup>17</sup> O LORD, do not let me be humiliated, for I call out to you!

May evil men be humiliated!
May they go wailing to the grave!

<sup>18</sup> May lying lips be silenced – lips that speak defiantly against the innocent with arrogance and contempt!

<sup>19</sup> How great is your favor, which you store up for your loyal followers!
In plain sight of everyone you bestow it on those who take shelter in you.

<sup>20</sup> You hide them with you, where they are safe from the attacks of men;
you conceal them in a shelter, where they are safe from slanderous attacks.

for he demonstrated his amazing faithfulness to me when I was besieged by enemies.

<sup>22</sup> I jumped to conclusions and said,
"I am cut off from your presence!"
But you heard my plea for mercy when I cried out to you for help.

<sup>23</sup> Love the LORD, all you faithful followers of his!
The LORD protects those who have integrity, but he pays back in full the one who acts arrogantly.

all you who wait on the LORD!

32

By David; a well-written song.

<sup>1</sup> How blessed is the one whose rebellious acts are forgiven, whose sin is pardoned!

in whose spirit there is no deceit.

<sup>3</sup> When I refused to confess my sin, my whole body wasted away,
while I groaned in pain all day long.

<sup>4</sup> For day and night you tormented me;
you tried to destroy me in the intense heat of summer. (Selah)

<sup>5</sup> Then I confessed my sin;
I no longer covered up my wrongdoing.

I said, "I will confess my rebellious acts to the LORD."

And then you forgave my sins. (Selah)

<sup>6</sup> For this reason every one of your faithful followers should pray to you while there is a window of opportunity.

Certainly when the surging water rises, it will not reach them.

<sup>7</sup> You are my hiding place; you protect me from distress.

You surround me with shouts of joy from those celebrating deliverance. (Selah)

<sup>8</sup> I will instruct and teach you about how you should live.

I will advise you as I look you in the eye.

<sup>9</sup> Do not be like an unintelligent horse or mule, which will not obey you unless they are controlled by a bridle and bit.

<sup>10</sup> An evil person suffers much pain, but the LORD's faithfulness overwhelms the one who trusts in him.

<sup>11</sup> Rejoice in the LORD and be happy, you who are godly! Shout for joy, all you who are morally upright!

33

It is appropriate for the morally upright to offer him praise.

<sup>2</sup> Give thanks to the LORD with the harp!

Sing to him to the accompaniment of a ten-stringed instrument!

<sup>3</sup> Sing to him a new song!

Play skillfully as you shout out your praises to him!

<sup>6</sup> By the LORD's decree the heavens were made; by a mere word from his mouth all the stars in the sky were created.

<sup>8</sup> Let the whole earth fear the LORD! Let all who live in the world stand in awe of him!

<sup>9</sup> For he spoke, and it came into existence, he issued the decree, and it stood firm.

despite its great strength, it cannot deliver.
<sup>18</sup> Look, the LORD takes notice of his loyal followers, those who wait for him to demonstrate his faithfulness <sup>19</sup> by saving their lives from death and sustaining them during times of famine.
<sup>20</sup> We wait for the LORD;
he is our deliverer and shield.
<sup>21</sup> For our hearts rejoice in him, for we trust in his holy name.
<sup>22</sup> May we experience your faithfulness, O LORD, for we wait for you.

34

Written by David, when he pretended to be insane before Abimelech, causing the king to send him away.

<sup>1</sup> I will praise the LORD at all times;
my mouth will continually praise him.
<sup>2</sup> I will boast in the LORD;
let the oppressed hear and rejoice!
<sup>3</sup> Magnify the LORD with me!
Let's praise his name together!
<sup>4</sup> I sought the LORD's help and he answered me;
he delivered me from all my fears.
<sup>5</sup> Those who look to him for help are happy;
their faces are not ashamed.
<sup>6</sup> This oppressed man cried out and the LORD heard;
he saved him from all his troubles.
<sup>7</sup> The LORD's angel camps around the LORD's loyal followers | strong="H3373" and delivers them.
<sup>8</sup> Taste and see that the LORD is good!
How blessed is the one who takes shelter in him!
<sup>9</sup> Remain loyal to the LORD, you chosen people of his,
for his loyal followers lack nothing!
<sup>10</sup> Even young lions sometimes lack food and are hungry, but those who seek the LORD lack no good thing.
<sup>11</sup> Come children! Listen to me!
I will teach you what it means to fear the LORD.
<sup>12</sup> Do you want to really live?
Would you love to live a long, happy life?
<sup>13</sup> Then make sure you don't speak evil words or use deceptive speech!
<sup>14</sup> Turn away from evil and do what is right!
Strive for peace and promote it!
<sup>15</sup> The LORD pays attention to the godly and hears their cry for help.
<sup>16</sup> But the LORD opposes evildoers and wipes out all memory of them from the earth.
<sup>17</sup> The godly cry out and the LORD hears;
he saves them from all their troubles.
<sup>18</sup> The LORD is near the brokenhearted;
he delivers those who are discouraged.

<sup>19</sup> The godly face many dangers,
but the LORD saves them from each one of them.
<sup>20</sup> He protects all his bones;
not one of them is broken.
<sup>21</sup> Evil people self-destruct;
those who hate the godly are punished.
<sup>22</sup> The LORD rescues his servants;
all who take shelter in him escape punishment.

By David.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, fight those who fight with me!
Attack those who attack me!
<sup>2</sup> Grab your small shield and large shield, and rise up to help me!
<sup>3</sup> Use your spear and lance against those who chase me!
Assure me with these words: "I am your deliverer!"
<sup>4</sup> May those who seek my life be embarrassed and humiliated!
May those who plan to harm me be turned back and ashamed!
<sup>5</sup> May they be like wind-driven chaff, as the LORD's angel attacks them!
<sup>6</sup> May their path be dark and slippery, as the LORD's angel chases them!
<sup>7</sup> I did not harm them, but they hid a net to catch me and dug a pit to trap me.
<sup>8</sup> Let destruction take them by surprise!
Let the net they hid catch them!
Let them fall into destruction!
<sup>9</sup> Then I will rejoice in the LORD and be happy because of his deliverance.
<sup>10</sup> With all my strength I will say,
"O LORD, who can compare to you?
You rescue the oppressed from those who try to overpower them;
the oppressed and needy from those who try to rob them."
<sup>11</sup> Violent men perjure themselves, and falsely accuse me.
<sup>12</sup> They repay me evil for the good I have done;
I am overwhelmed with sorrow.
<sup>13</sup> When they were sick, I wore sackcloth, and refrained from eating food.
(If I am lying, may my prayers go unanswered!)
<sup>14</sup> I mourned for them as I would for a friend or my brother.
I bowed down in sorrow as if I were mourning for my mother.
<sup>15</sup> But when I stumbled, they rejoiced and gathered together;
they gathered together to ambush me.
They tore at me without stopping to rest.
<sup>16</sup> When I tripped, they taunted me relentlessly, and tried to bite me.
<sup>17</sup> O Lord, how long are you going to just stand there and watch this?
Rescue me from their destructive attacks; guard my life from the young lions!

<sup>18</sup> Then I will give you thanks in the great assembly;
I will praise you before a large crowd of people!
<sup>19</sup> Do not let those who are my enemies for no reason gloat over me!
Do not let those who hate me without cause carry out their wicked schemes!
<sup>20</sup> For they do not try to make peace with others, but plan ways to deceive those who are unsuspecting.
<sup>21</sup> They are ready to devour me;
they say, "Aha! Aha! We've got you!"
<sup>22</sup> But you take notice, LORD!
O Lord, do not remain far away from me!
<sup>23</sup> Rouse yourself, wake up and vindicate me!
My God and Lord, defend my just cause!
<sup>24</sup> Vindicate me by your justice, O LORD my God!
Do not let them gloat over me!
<sup>25</sup> Do not let them say to themselves, "Aha! We have what we wanted!"
Do not let them say, "We have devoured him!"
<sup>26</sup> May those who want to harm me be totally embarrassed and ashamed!
May those who arrogantly taunt me be covered with shame and humiliation!
<sup>27</sup> May those who desire my vindication shout for joy and rejoice!
May they continually say, "May the LORD be praised, for he wants his servant to be secure."
<sup>28</sup> Then I will tell others about your justice, and praise you all day long.

36

For the music director; written by the LORD's servant, David; an oracle.

<sup>1</sup> An evil man is rebellious to the core.
He does not fear God, <sup>2</sup> for he is too proud to recognize and give up his sin.
<sup>3</sup> The words he speaks are sinful and deceitful;
he does not care about doing what is wise and right.
<sup>4</sup> He plans ways to sin while he lies in bed;
he is committed to a sinful lifestyle;
he does not reject what is evil.
<sup>5</sup> O LORD, your loyal love reaches to the sky;
your faithfulness to the clouds.
<sup>6</sup> Your justice is like the highest mountains, your fairness like the deepest sea;
you preserve mankind and the animal kingdom.
<sup>7</sup> How precious is your loyal love, O God!
The human race finds shelter under your wings.
<sup>8</sup> They are filled with food from your house, and you allow them to drink from the river of your delicacies.
<sup>9</sup> For you are the one who gives and sustains life.
<sup>10</sup> Extend your loyal love to your faithful followers, and vindicate the morally upright!
<sup>11</sup> Do not let arrogant men overtake me, or let evil men make me homeless!
<sup>12</sup> I can see the evildoers! They have fallen!

They have been knocked down and are unable to get up!

37

By David.

<sup>1</sup> Do not fret when wicked men seem to succeed!
Do not envy evildoers!

<sup>2</sup> For they will quickly dry up like grass, and wither away like plants.

<sup>3</sup> Trust in the LORD and do what is right!
Settle in the land and maintain your integrity!

<sup>4</sup> Then you will take delight in the LORD, and he will answer your prayers.

<sup>5</sup> Commit your future to the LORD!
Trust in him, and he will act on your behalf.

<sup>6</sup> He will vindicate you in broad daylight, and publicly defend your just cause.

<sup>7</sup> Wait patiently for the LORD!
Wait confidently for him!

Do not fret over the apparent success of a sinner, a man who carries out wicked schemes!

<sup>8</sup> Do not be angry and frustrated!
Do not fret! That only leads to trouble!

<sup>9</sup> Wicked men will be wiped out, but those who rely on the LORD are the ones who will possess the land.

<sup>10</sup> Evil men will soon disappear;
you will stare at the spot where they once were, but they will be gone.

<sup>11</sup> But the oppressed will possess the land and enjoy great prosperity.

<sup>12</sup> Evil men plot against the godly and viciously attack them.

<sup>13</sup> The Lord laughs in disgust at them, for he knows that their day is coming.

<sup>14</sup> Evil men draw their swords and prepare their bows, to bring down the oppressed and needy,
and to slaughter those who are godly.

<sup>15</sup> Their swords will pierce their own hearts, and their bows will be broken.

<sup>16</sup> The little bit that a godly man owns is better than the wealth of many evil men,

<sup>17</sup> for evil men will lose their power, but the LORD sustains the godly.

<sup>18</sup> The LORD watches over the innocent day by day and they possess a permanent inheritance.

<sup>19</sup> They will not be ashamed when hard times come;
when famine comes they will have enough to eat.

<sup>20</sup> But evil men will die;
the LORD's enemies will be incinerated –
they will go up in smoke.

<sup>21</sup> Evil men borrow, but do not repay their debt, but the godly show compassion and are generous.

<sup>22</sup> Surely those favored by the LORD will possess | strong="H3423" the land, but those rejected by him will be wiped out.

<sup>23</sup> The LORD grants success to the one whose behavior he finds commendable.

<sup>24</sup> Even if he trips, he will not fall headlong, for the LORD holds his hand.

<sup>25</sup> I was once young, now I am old.

I have never seen a godly man abandoned, or his children forced to search for food.

<sup>26</sup> All day long he shows compassion and lends to others, and his children are blessed.

Then you will enjoy lasting security.

<sup>28</sup> For the LORD promotes justice, and never abandons his faithful followers.
They are permanently secure,
but the children of evil men are wiped out.

<sup>29</sup> The godly will possess the land and will dwell in it permanently.

<sup>30</sup> The godly speak wise words and promote justice.

their feet do not slip.

<sup>32</sup> Evil men set an ambush for the godly and try to kill them.

<sup>33</sup> But the LORD does not surrender the godly, or allow them to be condemned in a court of law.

<sup>34</sup> Rely on the LORD! Obey his commands!
Then he will permit you to possess the land;
you will see the demise of evil men.

<sup>35</sup> I have seen ruthless evil men growing in influence, like a green tree grows in its native soil.

<sup>36</sup> But then one passes by, and suddenly they have disappeared!
I looked for them, but they could not be found.

<sup>37</sup> Take note of the one who has integrity! Observe the godly!
For the one who promotes peace has a future.

<sup>38</sup> Sinful rebels are totally destroyed;
evil men have no future.

<sup>39</sup> But the LORD delivers the godly;
he protects them in times of trouble.

<sup>40</sup> The LORD helps them and rescues them;
he rescues them from evil men and delivers them, for they seek his protection.

38

A psalm of David, written to get God's attention.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, do not continue to rebuke me in your anger!
Do not continue to punish me in your raging fury!

<sup>2</sup> For your arrows pierce me, and your hand presses me down.

<sup>3</sup> My whole body is sick because of your judgment;
I am deprived of health because of my sin.

<sup>4</sup> For my sins overwhelm me; like a heavy load, they are too much for me to bear.
<sup>5</sup> My wounds are infected and starting to smell, because of my foolish sins.
<sup>6</sup> I am dazed and completely humiliated;
all day long I walk around mourning.
<sup>7</sup> For I am overcome with shame and my whole body is sick.
<sup>8</sup> I am numb with pain and severely battered;
I groan loudly because of the anxiety I feel.
<sup>9</sup> O Lord, you understand my heart's desire;
my groaning is not hidden from you.
<sup>10</sup> My heart beats quickly;
my strength leaves me;
I can hardly see.
<sup>11</sup> Because of my condition, even my friends and acquaintances keep their distance;
my neighbors stand far away.
<sup>12</sup> Those who seek my life try to entrap me;
those who want to harm me speak destructive words;
all day long they say deceitful things.
<sup>13</sup> But I am like a deaf man – I hear nothing;
I am like a mute who cannot speak.
<sup>14</sup> I am like a man who cannot hear and is incapable of arguing his defense.
<sup>15</sup> Yet I wait for you, O LORD | strong="H3069"!
You will respond, O Lord, my God!
<sup>16</sup> I have prayed for deliverance, because otherwise they will gloat over me;
when my foot slips they will arrogantly taunt me.
<sup>17</sup> For I am about to stumble, and I am in constant pain.
<sup>18</sup> Yes, I confess my wrongdoing, and I am concerned about my sins.
<sup>19</sup> But those who are my enemies for no reason are numerous;
those who hate me without cause outnumber me.
<sup>20</sup> They repay me evil for the good I have done;
though I have tried to do good to them, they hurl accusations at me.
<sup>21</sup> Do not abandon me, O LORD!
My God, do not remain far away from me!
<sup>22</sup> Hurry and help me, O Lord, my deliverer!

39

For the music director, Jeduthun; a psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> I decided, "I will watch what I say and make sure I do not sin with my tongue.
I will put a muzzle over my mouth while in the presence of an evil man."
<sup>2</sup> I was stone silent;
I held back the urge to speak.
My frustration grew;
<sup>3</sup> my anxiety intensified.
As I thought about it, I became impatient.

Finally I spoke these words:

<sup>4</sup>“O LORD, help me understand my mortality and the brevity of life!

Let me realize how quickly my life will pass!

<sup>5</sup> Look, you make my days short-lived, and my life span is nothing from your perspective.

Surely all people, even those who seem secure, are nothing but vapor.

<sup>6</sup> Surely people go through life as mere ghosts.

Surely they accumulate worthless wealth without knowing who will eventually haul it away.”

<sup>7</sup> But now, O Lord, upon what am I relying?

You are my only hope!

<sup>8</sup> Deliver me from all my sins of rebellion!

Do not make me the object of fools’ insults!

<sup>9</sup> I am silent and cannot open my mouth because of what you have done.

<sup>10</sup> Please stop wounding me!

You have almost beaten me to death!

<sup>11</sup> You severely discipline people for their sins;
like a moth you slowly devour their strength.

Surely all people are a mere vapor. (Selah)

<sup>12</sup> Hear my prayer, O LORD!

Listen to my cry for help!

Do not ignore my sobbing!

For I am dependent on you, like one residing outside his native land;

I am at your mercy, just as all my ancestors were.

<sup>13</sup> Turn your angry gaze away from me, so I can be happy before I pass away.

40

For the music director; By David, a psalm.

<sup>1</sup> I relied completely on the LORD, and he turned toward me and heard my cry for help.

<sup>2</sup> He lifted me out of the watery pit, out of the slimy mud.

He placed my feet on a rock and gave me secure footing.

<sup>3</sup> He gave me reason to sing a new song, praising our God.

May many see what God has done, so that they might swear allegiance to him and trust in the LORD!

<sup>4</sup> How blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD | strong="H3068" and does not seek help from the proud or from liars!

<sup>5</sup> O LORD, my God, you have accomplished many things; you have done amazing things and carried out your purposes for us.
No one can thwart you!

I want to declare them and talk about them, but they are too numerous to recount!

<sup>6</sup> Receiving sacrifices and offerings are not your primary concern.
You make that quite clear to me!

You do not ask for burnt sacrifices and sin offerings.

<sup>7</sup> Then I say,

“Look! I come!

What is written in the scroll pertains to me.

<sup>8</sup> I want to do what pleases you, my God.

Your law dominates my thoughts.”

<sup>9</sup> I have told the great assembly about your justice.

Look! I spare no words!

O LORD, you know this is true.

<sup>10</sup> I have not failed to tell about your justice;

I spoke about your reliability and deliverance;

I have not neglected to tell the great assembly about your loyal love and faithfulness.

<sup>11</sup> O LORD, you do not withhold your compassion from me.

May your loyal love and faithfulness continually protect me!

<sup>12</sup> For innumerable dangers surround me.

My sins overtake me

so I am unable to see;

they outnumber the hairs of my head

so my strength fails me.

<sup>13</sup> Please be willing, O LORD, to rescue me!

O LORD, hurry and help me!

<sup>14</sup> May those who are trying to snatch away my life be totally embarrassed and ashamed!

May those who want to harm me

be turned back and ashamed!

<sup>15</sup> May those who say to me, “Aha! Aha!”

be humiliated and disgraced!

<sup>16</sup> May all those who seek you be happy and rejoice in you!

May those who love to experience your deliverance say continually,

“May the LORD be praised!”

<sup>17</sup> I am oppressed and needy!

May the Lord pay attention to me!

You are my helper and my deliverer!

O my God, do not delay!

41

For the music director; a psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> How blessed is the one who treats the poor properly!

When trouble comes, the LORD delivers him.

<sup>2</sup> May the LORD protect him and save his life!

May he be blessed in the land!

Do not turn him over to his enemies!

<sup>3</sup> The LORD supports him on his sickbed;

you completely heal him from his illness.

<sup>4</sup> As for me, I said:

“O LORD, have mercy on me!

Heal me, for I have sinned against you!

<sup>5</sup> My enemies ask this cruel question about me,

‘When will he finally die and be forgotten?’

<sup>6</sup> When someone comes to visit, he pretends to be friendly;

he thinks of ways to defame me, and when he leaves he slanders me.

<sup>7</sup> All who hate me whisper insults about me to one another;
they plan ways to harm me.

<sup>8</sup> They say,

‘An awful disease overwhelms him, and now that he is bed-ridden he will never recover.’

<sup>9</sup> Even my close friend whom I trusted, he who shared meals with me, has turned against me.

<sup>10</sup> As for you, O LORD | strong="H3069", have mercy on me and raise me up, so I can pay them back!"

<sup>11</sup> By this I know that you are pleased with me, for my enemy does not triumph over me.

<sup>12</sup> As for me, you uphold me because of my integrity;
you allow me permanent access to your presence.

<sup>13</sup> The LORD God of Israel deserves praise
in the future and forevermore!
We agree! We agree!

42

For the music director; a well-written song by the Korahites.

<sup>1</sup> As a deer longs for streams of water, so I long for you, O God!

<sup>2</sup> I thirst for God, for the living God.

I say, "When will I be able to go and appear in God's presence?"

<sup>3</sup> I cannot eat, I weep day and night;
all day long they say to me, "Where is your God?"

<sup>4</sup> I will remember and weep!

For I was once walking along with the great throng to the temple of God, shouting and giving thanks along with the crowd as we celebrated the holy festival.

<sup>5</sup> Why are you depressed, O my soul?

Why are you upset?

Wait for God!

For I will again give thanks to my God for his saving intervention.

<sup>6</sup> I am depressed,

so I will pray to you while I am trapped here in the region of the upper Jordan, from Hermon, from Mount Mizar.

<sup>7</sup> One deep stream calls out to another at the sound of your waterfalls;
all your billows and waves overwhelm me.

<sup>8</sup> By day the LORD decrees his loyal love, and by night he gives me a song,
a prayer to the living God.

<sup>9</sup> I will pray to God, my high ridge:
"Why do you ignore me?

Why must I walk around mourning
because my enemies oppress me?"

<sup>10</sup> My enemies' taunts cut into me to the bone, as they say to me all day long, "Where is your God?"

<sup>11</sup> Why are you depressed, O my soul?
Why are you upset?

Wait for God!
For I will again give thanks to my God for his saving intervention.

43

<sup>1</sup> Vindicate me, O God!
Fight for me against an ungodly nation!
Deliver me from deceitful and evil men!
<sup>2</sup> For you are the God who shelters me.
Why do you reject me?
Why must I walk around mourning
because my enemies oppress me?
<sup>3</sup> Reveal your light and your faithfulness!
They will lead me,
they will escort me back to your holy hill,
and to the place where you live.
<sup>4</sup> Then I will go to the altar of God, to the God who gives me ecstatic joy, so that I express my thanks to you, O God, my God, with a harp.
<sup>5</sup> Why are you depressed, O my soul?
Why are you upset?
Wait for God!
For I will again give thanks to my God for his saving intervention.

44

For the music director; by the Korahites, a well-written song.

<sup>1</sup> O God, we have clearly heard;
our ancestors have told us what you did in their days,
in ancient times.
<sup>2</sup> You, by your power, defeated nations and settled our fathers on their land;
you crushed the people living there and enabled our ancestors to occupy it.
<sup>3</sup> For they did not conquer the land by their swords, and they did not prevail by their strength, but rather by your power, strength and good favor,
for you were partial to them.
<sup>4</sup> You are my king, O God!
Decree Jacob's deliverance!
<sup>5</sup> By your power we will drive back our enemies;
by your strength we will trample down our foes!
<sup>6</sup> For I do not trust in my bow, and I do not prevail by my sword.
<sup>7</sup> For you deliver us from our enemies;
you humiliate those who hate us.
<sup>8</sup> In God I boast all day long, and we will continually give thanks to your name. (Selah) <sup>9</sup> But you rejected and embarrassed us!
You did not go into battle with our armies.
<sup>10</sup> You made us retreat from the enemy.
Those who hate us take whatever they want from us.

<sup>11</sup> You handed us over like sheep to be eaten;
you scattered us among the nations.
<sup>12</sup> You sold your people for a pittance;
you did not ask a high price for them.
<sup>13</sup> You made us an object of disdain to our neighbors;
those who live on our borders taunt and insult us.
<sup>14</sup> You made us an object of ridicule among the nations; foreigners treat us with contempt.
<sup>15</sup> All day long I feel humiliated and am overwhelmed with shame, <sup>16</sup> before the vindictive enemy who ridicules and insults me.
<sup>17</sup> All this has happened to us, even though we have not rejected you or violated your covenant with us.
<sup>18</sup> We have not been unfaithful, nor have we disobeyed your commands.
<sup>19</sup> Yet you have battered us, leaving us a heap of ruins overrun by wild dogs;
you have covered us with darkness.
<sup>20</sup> If we had rejected our God, and spread out our hands in prayer to another god, <sup>21</sup> would not God discover it, for he knows one's thoughts?
<sup>22</sup> Yet because of you we are killed all day long;
we are treated like sheep at the slaughtering block.
<sup>23</sup> Rouse yourself! Why do you sleep, O Lord?
Wake up! Do not reject us forever!
<sup>24</sup> Why do you look the other way, and ignore the way we are oppressed and mistreated?
<sup>25</sup> For we lie in the dirt, with our bellies pressed to the ground.
<sup>26</sup> Rise up and help us!
Rescue us because of your loyal love!

45

For the music director; according to the tune of "Lilies;" by the Korahites, a well-written poem, a love song.

<sup>1</sup> My heart is stirred by a beautiful song.
I say, "I have composed this special song for the king;
my tongue is as skilled as the stylus of an experienced scribe."
<sup>2</sup> You are the most handsome of all men!
You speak in an impressive and fitting manner!
For this reason God grants you continual blessings.
<sup>3</sup> Strap your sword to your thigh, O warrior!
Appear in your majestic splendor!
<sup>4</sup> Appear in your majesty and be victorious!
Ride forth for the sake of what is right,
on behalf of justice!
Then your right hand will accomplish mighty acts!
<sup>5</sup> Your arrows are sharp and penetrate the hearts of the king's enemies.
Nations fall at your feet.

The scepter of your kingdom is a scepter of justice.
<sup>7</sup> You love justice and hate evil.
For this reason God, your God has anointed you with the oil of joy, elevating you above your companions.
<sup>8</sup> All your garments are perfumed with myrrh, aloes, and cassia.
From the luxurious palaces comes the music of stringed instruments that makes you happy.
<sup>9</sup> Princesses are among your honored guests, your bride stands at your right hand, wearing jewelry made with gold from Ophir.
<sup>10</sup> Listen, O princess!
Observe and pay attention!
Forget your homeland and your family!
<sup>11</sup> Then the king will be attracted by your beauty.
After all, he is your master! Submit to him!
<sup>12</sup> Rich people from Tyre will seek your favor by bringing a gift.
<sup>13</sup> The princess looks absolutely magnificent, decked out in pearls and clothed in a brocade trimmed with gold.
<sup>14</sup> In embroidered robes she is escorted to the king.
Her attendants, the maidens of honor who follow her,
are led before you.
<sup>15</sup> They are bubbling with joy as they walk in procession and enter the royal palace.
<sup>16</sup> Your sons will carry on the dynasty of your ancestors;
you will make them princes throughout the land.
<sup>17</sup> I will proclaim your greatness through the coming years, then the nations will praise you forever.

46

For the music director; by the Korahites; according to the alamothe style; a song.

<sup>1</sup> God is our strong refuge;
he is truly our helper in times of trouble.
<sup>2</sup> For this reason we do not fear when the earth shakes, and the mountains tumble into the depths of the sea, <sup>3</sup> when its waves crash and foam, and the mountains shake before the surging sea. (Selah) <sup>4</sup> The river's channels bring joy to the city of God, the special, holy dwelling place of the sovereign One.
<sup>5</sup> God lives within it, it cannot be moved.
God rescues it at the break of dawn.
<sup>6</sup> Nations are in uproar, kingdoms are overthrown.
God gives a shout, the earth dissolves.
<sup>7</sup> The LORD who commands armies is on our side!
The God of Jacob is our protector! (Selah)
<sup>8</sup> Come! Witness the exploits of the LORD, who brings devastation to the earth!
<sup>9</sup> He brings an end to wars throughout the earth;
he shatters the bow and breaks the spear;
he burns the shields with fire.
<sup>10</sup> He says, "Stop your striving and recognize that I am God!"

I will be exalted over the nations! I will be exalted over the earth!"

<sup>11</sup> The LORD who commands armies is on our side!
The God of Jacob is our protector! (Selah)

47

For the music director; by the Korahites; a psalm.

<sup>1</sup> All you nations, clap your hands!

Shout out to God in celebration!

<sup>2</sup> For the sovereign LORD is awe-inspiring;
he is the great king who rules the whole earth!

<sup>3</sup> He subdued nations beneath us and countries under our feet.

<sup>4</sup> He picked out for us a special land to be a source of pride for Jacob, whom he loves. (Selah)

<sup>5</sup> God has ascended his throne amid loud shouts;
the LORD has ascended his throne amid the blaring of ram's horns.

<sup>6</sup> Sing to God! Sing!

Sing to our king! Sing!

<sup>7</sup> For God is king of the whole earth!

Sing a well-written song!

<sup>8</sup> God reigns over the nations!

God sits on his holy throne!

<sup>9</sup> The nobles of the nations assemble, along with the people of the God of Abraham, for God has authority over the rulers of the earth.
He is highly exalted!

A song, a psalm by the Korahites.

<sup>1</sup> The LORD is great and certainly worthy of praise in the city of our God, his holy hill.

<sup>2</sup> It is lofty and pleasing to look at,
a source of joy to the whole earth.

Mount Zion resembles the peaks of Zaphon;
it is the city of the great king.

<sup>3</sup> God is in its fortresses;
he reveals himself as its defender.

<sup>4</sup> For look, the kings assemble;
they advance together.

<sup>5</sup> As soon as they see, they are shocked;
they are terrified, they quickly retreat.

<sup>6</sup> Look at them shake uncontrollably, like a woman writhing in childbirth.

<sup>7</sup> With an east wind you shatter the large ships.

<sup>8</sup> We heard about God's mighty deeds, now we have seen them, in the city of the LORD | strong="H3069", the invincible Warrior, in the city of our God.

God makes it permanently secure. (Selah)

<sup>9</sup> We reflect on your loyal love, O God, within your temple.

<sup>10</sup> The praise you receive as far away as the ends of the earth is worthy of your reputation, O God.

You execute justice!

<sup>11</sup> Mount Zion rejoices;
the towns of Judah are happy,
because of your acts of judgment.

<sup>12</sup> Walk around Zion! Encircle it!
Count its towers!

<sup>13</sup> Consider its defenses!
Walk through its fortresses, so you can tell the next generation about it!

<sup>14</sup> For God, our God, is our defender forever!
He guides us!

49

For the music director, a psalm by the Korahites.

<sup>1</sup> Listen to this, all you nations!
Pay attention, all you inhabitants of the world!

<sup>2</sup> Pay attention, all you people, both rich and poor!

<sup>3</sup> I will declare a wise saying;
I will share my profound thoughts.

<sup>4</sup> I will learn a song that imparts wisdom;
I will then sing my insightful song to the accompaniment of a harp.

<sup>5</sup> Why should I be afraid in times of trouble, when the sinful deeds of deceptive men threaten to overwhelm me?

<sup>6</sup> They trust in their wealth and boast in their great riches.

<sup>7</sup> Certainly a man cannot rescue his brother;
he cannot pay God an adequate ransom price <sup>8</sup> (the ransom price for a human life is too high, and people go to their final destiny),

<sup>9</sup> so that he might continue to live forever and not experience death.

<sup>10</sup> Surely one sees that even wise people die;
fools and spiritually insensitive people all pass away and leave their wealth to others.

<sup>11</sup> Their grave becomes their permanent residence, their eternal dwelling place.

They name their lands after themselves,

<sup>12</sup> but, despite their wealth, people do not last,
they are like animals that perish.

<sup>13</sup> This is the destiny of fools, and of those who approve of their philosophy. (Selah)

<sup>14</sup> They will travel to Sheol like sheep, with death as their shepherd.

The godly will rule over them when the day of vindication dawns;
Sheol will consume their bodies and they will no longer live in impressive houses.

<sup>15</sup> But God will rescue my life from the power of Sheol; certainly he will pull me to safety. (Selah)

<sup>16</sup> Do not be afraid when a man becomes rich and his wealth multiplies!

<sup>17</sup> For he will take nothing with him when he dies;
his wealth will not follow him down into the grave.
<sup>18</sup> He pronounces this blessing on himself while he is alive:
“May men praise you, for you have done well!”
<sup>19</sup> But he will join his ancestors;
they will never again see the light of day.
<sup>20</sup> Wealthy people do not understand;
they are like animals that perish.

50

A psalm by Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> El, God, the LORD speaks, and summons the earth to come from the east and west.
<sup>2</sup> From Zion, the most beautiful of all places,
God comes in splendor.
<sup>3</sup> Our God approaches and is not silent; consuming fire goes ahead of him and all around him a storm rages.
<sup>4</sup> He summons the heavens above, as well as the earth, so that he might judge his people.
<sup>5</sup> He says:
“Assemble my covenant people before me, those who ratified a covenant with me by sacrifice!”
<sup>6</sup> The heavens declare his fairness, for God is judge. (Selah)
<sup>7</sup> He says:
“Listen my people! I am speaking!
Listen Israel! I am accusing you!
I am God, your God!”
<sup>8</sup> I am not condemning you because of your sacrifices, or because of your burnt sacrifices that you continually offer me.
<sup>9</sup> I do not need to take a bull from your household or goats from your sheepfolds.
<sup>10</sup> For every wild animal in the forest belongs to me, as well as the cattle that graze on a thousand hills.
<sup>11</sup> I keep track of every bird in the hills, and the insects of the field are mine.
<sup>12</sup> Even if I were hungry, I would not tell you, for the world and all it contains belong to me.
<sup>13</sup> Do I eat the flesh of bulls?
Do I drink the blood of goats?
<sup>14</sup> Present to God a thank-offering!
Repay your vows to the sovereign One!
<sup>15</sup> Pray to me when you are in trouble!
I will deliver you, and you will honor me!”
<sup>16</sup> God says this to the evildoer:
“How can you declare my commands, and talk about my covenant?”
<sup>17</sup> For you hate instruction and reject my words.
<sup>18</sup> When you see a thief, you join him;

you associate with men who are unfaithful to their wives.

<sup>19</sup> You do damage with words, and use your tongue to deceive.

<sup>20</sup> You plot against your brother;
you slander your own brother.

<sup>21</sup> When you did these things, I was silent, so you thought I was exactly like you.

But now I will condemn you and state my case against you!

<sup>22</sup> Carefully consider this, you who reject God!
Otherwise I will rip you to shreds and no one will be able to rescue you.

<sup>23</sup> Whoever presents a thank-offering honors me.
To whoever obeys my commands, I will reveal my power to deliver.”

51

For the music director; a psalm of David, written when Nathan the prophet confronted him after David's affair with Bathsheba.

<sup>1</sup> Have mercy on me, O God, because of your loyal love!
Because of your great compassion, wipe away my rebellious acts!

<sup>2</sup> Wash away my wrongdoing!
Cleanse me of my sin!

<sup>3</sup> For I am aware of my rebellious acts;
I am forever conscious of my sin.

<sup>4</sup> Against you – you above all – I have sinned;
I have done what is evil in your sight.
So you are just when you confront me;
you are right when you condemn me.

<sup>5</sup> Look, I was guilty of sin from birth,
a sinner the moment my mother conceived me.

<sup>6</sup> Look, you desire integrity in the inner man;
you want me to possess wisdom.

<sup>7</sup> Sprinkle me with water and I will be pure;
wash me and I will be whiter than snow.

<sup>8</sup> Grant me the ultimate joy of being forgiven!
May the bones you crushed rejoice!

<sup>9</sup> Hide your face from my sins!
Wipe away all my guilt!

<sup>10</sup> Create for me a pure heart, O God!
Renew a resolute spirit within me!

Do not take your Holy Spirit away from me!

<sup>12</sup> Let me again experience the joy of your deliverance!
Sustain me by giving me the desire to obey!

<sup>13</sup> Then I will teach rebels your merciful ways, and sinners will turn to you.

<sup>14</sup> Rescue me from the guilt of murder, O God, the God who delivers me!
Then my tongue will shout for joy because of your deliverance.

<sup>15</sup> O Lord, give me the words!
Then my mouth will praise you.

<sup>16</sup> Certainly you do not want a sacrifice, or else I would offer it;

you do not desire a burnt sacrifice.

O God, a humble and repentant heart you will not reject.

<sup>18</sup> Because you favor Zion, do what is good for her!
Fortify the walls of Jerusalem!

<sup>19</sup> Then you will accept the proper sacrifices, burnt sacrifices and whole offerings; then bulls will be sacrificed on your altar.

52

For the music director; a well-written song by David. It was written when Doeg the Edomite went and informed Saul: “David has arrived at the home of Ahimelech.”

<sup>1</sup> Why do you boast about your evil plans, O powerful man?
God’s loyal love protects me all day long!

<sup>2</sup> Your tongue carries out your destructive plans;
it is as effective as a sharp razor, O deceiver.

<sup>3</sup> You love evil more than good, lies more than speaking the truth. (Selah)

<sup>4</sup> You love to use all the words that destroy, and the tongue that deceives.

<sup>5</sup> Yet God will make you a permanent heap of ruins.
He will scoop you up and remove you from your home;
he will uproot you from the land of the living. (Selah)

<sup>6</sup> When the godly see this, they will be filled with awe, and will mock the evildoer, saying:

<sup>7</sup> “Look, here is the man who would not make God his protector!
He trusted in his great wealth and was confident about his plans to destroy others.”

<sup>8</sup> But I am like a flourishing olive tree in the house of God;
I continually trust in God’s loyal love.

<sup>9</sup> I will continually thank you when you execute judgment;
I will rely on you, for your loyal followers know you are good.

53

For the music director; according to the machalath style; a well-written song by David.

They sin and commit evil deeds;
none of them does what is right.

<sup>2</sup> God looks down from heaven at the human race,
to see if there is anyone who is wise and seeks God.

they are all morally corrupt.
None of them does what is right,
not even one!

<sup>4</sup> All those who behave wickedly do not understand – those who devour my people as if they were eating bread, and do not call out to God.

<sup>5</sup> They are absolutely terrified,
even by things that do not normally cause fear.
For God annihilates those who attack you.
You are able to humiliate them because God has rejected them.

<sup>6</sup> I wish the deliverance of Israel would come from Zion!

When God restores the well-being of his people,
may Jacob rejoice,
may Israel be happy!

54

For the music director, to be accompanied by stringed instruments; a well-written song by David. It was written when the Ziphites came and informed Saul: "David is hiding with us."

<sup>1</sup> O God, deliver me by your name!

Vindicate me by your power!

<sup>2</sup> O God, listen to my prayer!

Pay attention to what I say!

<sup>3</sup> For foreigners attack me;

ruthless men, who do not respect God, seek my life. (Selah)

<sup>4</sup> Look, God is my deliverer!

The Lord is among those who support me.

<sup>5</sup> May those who wait to ambush me be repaid for their evil!

As a demonstration of your faithfulness, destroy them!

<sup>6</sup> With a freewill offering I will sacrifice to you!

I will give thanks to your name, O LORD, for it is good!

<sup>7</sup> Surely he rescues me from all trouble, and I triumph over my enemies.

55

For the music director, to be accompanied by stringed instruments; a well-written song by David.

<sup>1</sup> Listen, O God, to my prayer!

Do not ignore my appeal for mercy!

<sup>2</sup> Pay attention to me and answer me!

I am so upset and distressed, I am beside myself,

<sup>3</sup> because of what the enemy says, and because of how the wicked pressure me, for they hurl trouble down upon me and angrily attack me.

<sup>4</sup> My heart beats violently within me;
the horrors of death overcome me.

<sup>5</sup> Fear and panic overpower me;
terror overwhelms me.

<sup>6</sup> I say, "I wish I had wings like a dove!
I would fly away and settle in a safe place!"

<sup>7</sup> Look, I will escape to a distant place;
I will stay in the wilderness. (Selah)

<sup>8</sup> I will hurry off to a place that is safe from the strong wind and the gale."

<sup>9</sup> Confuse them, O Lord!

Frustrate their plans!

For I see violence and conflict in the city.

<sup>10</sup> Day and night they walk around on its walls, while wickedness and destruction are within it.

<sup>11</sup> Disaster is within it;
violence and deceit do not depart from its public square.

<sup>12</sup> Indeed, it is not an enemy who insults me, or else I could bear it;
it is not one who hates me who arrogantly taunts me,
or else I could hide from him.
<sup>13</sup> But it is you, a man like me, my close friend in whom I confided.
<sup>14</sup> We would share personal thoughts with each other;
in God's temple we would walk together among the crowd.
<sup>15</sup> May death destroy them!
May they go down alive into Sheol!
For evil is in their dwelling place and in their midst.
<sup>16</sup> As for me, I will call out to God, and the LORD will deliver me.
<sup>17</sup> During the evening, morning, and noontime
I will lament and moan,
and he will hear me.
<sup>18</sup> He will rescue me and protect me from those who attack me, even though they greatly outnumber me.
<sup>19</sup> God, the one who has reigned as king from long ago, will hear and humiliate them. (Selah)
They refuse to change,
and do not fear God.
<sup>20</sup> He attacks his friends;
he breaks his solemn promises to them.
<sup>21</sup> His words are as smooth as butter, but he harbors animosity in his heart.
His words seem softer than oil,
but they are really like sharp swords.
<sup>22</sup> Throw your burden upon the LORD, and he will sustain you.
He will never allow the godly to be upended.
<sup>23</sup> But you, O God, will bring them down to the deep Pit.
Violent and deceitful people will not live even half a normal lifespan.
But as for me, I trust in you.

56

For the music director; according to the yonath-elem-rechovim style; a prayer of David, written when the Philistines captured him in Gath.

<sup>1</sup> Have mercy on me, O God, for men are attacking me!
All day long hostile enemies are tormenting me.
<sup>2</sup> Those who anticipate my defeat attack me all day long.
Indeed, many are fighting against me, O Exalted One.
<sup>3</sup> When I am afraid,
I trust in you.
<sup>4</sup> In God – I boast in his promise – in God I trust, I am not afraid.
What can mere men do to me?
<sup>5</sup> All day long they cause me trouble;
they make a habit of plotting my demise.
<sup>6</sup> They stalk and lurk;
they watch my every step,
as they prepare to take my life.

<sup>7</sup> Because they are bent on violence, do not let them escape!
In your anger bring down the nations, O God!
<sup>8</sup> You keep track of my misery.
Put my tears in your leather container!
Are they not recorded in your scroll?
<sup>9</sup> My enemies will turn back when I cry out to you for help;
I know that God is on my side.
<sup>10</sup> In God – I boast in his promise – in the LORD – I boast in his promise – <sup>11</sup> in God I trust, I am not afraid.
What can mere men do to me?
<sup>12</sup> I am obligated to fulfill the vows I made to you, O God;
I will give you the thank-offerings you deserve, <sup>13</sup> when you deliver my life from death.
You keep my feet from stumbling,
so that I might serve God as I enjoy life.

57

For the music director; according to the al-tashcheth style; a prayer of David, written when he fled from Saul into the cave.

<sup>1</sup> Have mercy on me, O God! Have mercy on me!
For in you I have taken shelter.
In the shadow of your wings I take shelter until trouble passes.
<sup>2</sup> I cry out for help to the sovereign God, to the God who vindicates me.
<sup>3</sup> May he send help from heaven and deliver me from my enemies who hurl insults! (Selah)
May God send his loyal love and faithfulness!
<sup>4</sup> I am surrounded by lions;
I lie down among those who want to devour me;
men whose teeth are spears and arrows, whose tongues are a sharp sword.
<sup>5</sup> Rise up above the sky, O God!
May your splendor cover the whole earth!
<sup>6</sup> They have prepared a net to trap me;
I am discouraged.
They have dug a pit for me.
They will fall into it! (Selah) <sup>7</sup> I am determined, O God! I am determined!
I will sing and praise you!
<sup>8</sup> Awake, my soul!
Awake, O stringed instrument and harp!
I will wake up at dawn!
<sup>9</sup> I will give you thanks before the nations, O Master!
I will sing praises to you before foreigners!
<sup>10</sup> For your loyal love extends beyond the sky, and your faithfulness reaches the clouds.
<sup>11</sup> Rise up above the sky, O God!
May your splendor cover the whole earth!

58

For the music director; according to the al-tashcheth style; a prayer of David.

<sup>1</sup> Do you rulers really pronounce just decisions?

Do you judge people fairly?

<sup>2</sup> No! You plan how to do what is unjust;
you deal out violence in the earth.

<sup>3</sup> The wicked turn aside from birth;
liars go astray as soon as they are born.

<sup>4</sup> Their venom is like that of a snake, like a deaf serpent that does not hear,

<sup>5</sup> that does not respond to the magicians, or to a skilled snake-charmer.

<sup>6</sup> O God, break the teeth in their mouths!
Smash the jawbones of the lions, O LORD!

<sup>7</sup> Let them disappear like water that flows away!
Let them wither like grass!

<sup>8</sup> Let them be like a snail that melts away as it moves along!
Let them be like stillborn babies that never see the sun!

<sup>9</sup> Before the kindling is even placed under your pots, he will sweep it away along with both the raw and cooked meat.

<sup>10</sup> The godly will rejoice when they see vengeance carried out;
they will bathe their feet in the blood of the wicked.

<sup>11</sup> Then observers will say,
“Yes indeed, the godly are rewarded!
Yes indeed, there is a God who judges in the earth!”

59

For the music director; according to the al-tashcheth style; a prayer of David, written when Saul sent men to surround his house and murder him.

<sup>1</sup> Deliver me from my enemies, my God!

Protect me from those who attack me!

<sup>2</sup> Deliver me from evildoers!

Rescue me from violent men!

<sup>3</sup> For look, they wait to ambush me;

powerful men stalk me,
but not because I have rebelled or sinned, O LORD.

<sup>4</sup> Though I have done nothing wrong, they are anxious to attack.

Spring into action and help me! Take notice of me!

<sup>5</sup> You, O LORD God, the invincible warrior, the God of Israel, rouse yourself and punish all the nations!

Have no mercy on any treacherous evildoers! (Selah)

<sup>6</sup> They return in the evening;
they growl like a dog
and prowl around outside the city.

<sup>7</sup> Look, they hurl insults at me and openly threaten to kill me, for they say,

“Who hears?”

<sup>8</sup> But you, O LORD, laugh in disgust at them;
you taunt all the nations.

<sup>9</sup> You are my source of strength! I will wait for you!
For God is my refuge.

<sup>10</sup> The God who loves me will help me;
God will enable me to triumph over my enemies.
<sup>11</sup> Do not strike them dead suddenly, because then my people might forget the lesson.
Use your power to make them homeless vagabonds and then bring them down,
O Lord who shields us!
<sup>12</sup> They speak sinful words.
So let them be trapped by their own pride and by the curses and lies they speak!
<sup>13</sup> Angrily wipe them out! Wipe them out so they vanish!
Let them know that God rules in Jacob and to the ends of the earth! (Selah) <sup>14</sup> They return in the evening;
they growl like a dog
and prowl around outside the city.
<sup>15</sup> They wander around looking for something to eat;
they refuse to sleep until they are full.
<sup>16</sup> As for me, I will sing about your strength;
I will praise your loyal love in the morning.
For you are my refuge and my place of shelter when I face trouble.
<sup>17</sup> You are my source of strength! I will sing praises to you!
For God is my refuge, the God who loves me.

60

For the music director; according to the shushan-eduth style; a prayer of David written to instruct others. It was written when he fought against Aram Naharaim and Aram-Zobah. That was when Joab turned back and struck down 12,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

You suddenly turned on us in your anger.
Please restore us!
<sup>2</sup> You made the earth quake; you split it open.
Repair its breaches, for it is ready to fall.
<sup>3</sup> You have made your people experience hard times;
you have made us drink intoxicating wine.
<sup>4</sup> You have given your loyal followers a rallying flag, so that they might seek safety from the bow. (Selah) <sup>5</sup> Deliver by your power and answer me, so that the ones you love may be safe.
<sup>6</sup> God has spoken in his sanctuary:
"I will triumph! I will parcel out Shechem;
the Valley of Succoth I will measure off.
<sup>7</sup> Gilead belongs to me,
as does Manasseh!
Ephraim is my helmet,
Judah my royal scepter.
<sup>8</sup> Moab is my washbasin.
I will make Edom serve me.
I will shout in triumph over Philistia."
<sup>9</sup> Who will lead me into the fortified city?

Who will bring me to Edom?

<sup>10</sup> Have you not rejected us, O God?

O God, you do not go into battle with our armies.

<sup>11</sup> Give us help against the enemy,
for any help men might offer is futile.

<sup>12</sup> By God's power we will conquer;
he will trample down our enemies.

61

For the music director; to be played on a stringed instrument; written by David.

<sup>1</sup> O God, hear my cry for help!

Pay attention to my prayer!

<sup>2</sup> From the most remote place on earth

I call out to you in my despair.

Lead me up to an inaccessible rocky summit!

<sup>3</sup> Indeed, you are my shelter, a strong tower that protects me from the enemy.

<sup>4</sup> I will be a permanent guest in your home;
I will find shelter in the protection of your wings. (Selah)

<sup>5</sup> For you, O God, hear my vows;
you grant me the reward that belongs to your loyal followers.

<sup>6</sup> Give the king long life!

Make his lifetime span several generations!

<sup>7</sup> May he reign forever before God!

Decree that your loyal love and faithfulness should protect him.

<sup>8</sup> Then I will sing praises to your name continually, as I fulfill my vows day after day.

62

For the music director, Jeduthun; a psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> For God alone I patiently wait;
he is the one who delivers me.

<sup>2</sup> He alone is my protector and deliverer.
He is my refuge; I will not be upended.

<sup>3</sup> How long will you threaten a man?
All of you are murderers,
as dangerous as a leaning wall or an unstable fence.

<sup>4</sup> They spend all their time planning how to bring him down.
They love to use deceit;

they pronounce blessings with their mouths,
but inwardly they utter curses. (Selah)

<sup>5</sup> Patiently wait for God alone, my soul!
For he is the one who gives me confidence.

<sup>6</sup> He alone is my protector and deliverer.
He is my refuge; I will not be upended.

<sup>7</sup> God delivers me and exalts me;
God is my strong protector and my shelter.

<sup>8</sup> Trust in him at all times, you people!
Pour out your hearts before him!

God is our shelter! (Selah)

<sup>9</sup> Men are nothing but a mere breath;

human beings are unreliable.

When they are weighed in the scales,
all of them together are lighter than air.

<sup>10</sup> Do not trust in what you can gain by oppression!
Do not put false confidence in what you can gain by robbery!
If wealth increases, do not become attached to it!

<sup>11</sup> God has declared one principle;
two principles I have heard:
God is strong,

<sup>12</sup> and you, O Lord, demonstrate loyal love.
For you repay men for what they do.

63

A psalm of David, written when he was in the Judean wilderness.

<sup>1</sup> O God, you are my God! I long for you!

My soul thirsts for you,
my flesh yearns for you,
in a dry and parched land where there is no water.

<sup>2</sup> Yes, in the sanctuary I have seen you, and witnessed your power and splendor.

<sup>3</sup> Because experiencing your loyal love is better than life itself, my lips will praise you.

<sup>4</sup> For this reason I will praise you while I live;
in your name I will lift up my hands.

<sup>5</sup> As if with choice meat you satisfy my soul.
My mouth joyfully praises you,

<sup>6</sup> whenever I remember you on my bed, and think about you during the nighttime hours.

<sup>7</sup> For you are my deliverer;
under your wings I rejoice.

<sup>8</sup> My soul pursues you;
your right hand upholds me.

<sup>9</sup> Enemies seek to destroy my life, but they will descend into the depths of the earth.

<sup>10</sup> Each one will be handed over to the sword; their corpses will be eaten by jackals.

<sup>11</sup> But the king will rejoice in God;
everyone who takes oaths in his name will boast, for the mouths of those who speak lies will be shut up.

64

For the music director; a psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> Listen to me, O God, as I offer my lament!
Protect my life from the enemy's terrifying attacks.

<sup>2</sup> Hide me from the plots of evil men, from the crowd of evildoers.

<sup>3</sup> They sharpen their tongues like a sword;
they aim their arrow, a slanderous charge,

<sup>4</sup> in order to shoot down the innocent in secluded places.
They shoot at him suddenly and are unafraid of retaliation.

They plan how to hide snares, and boast, "Who will see them?"
<sup>6</sup> They devise unjust schemes;
they disguise a well-conceived plot.
Man's inner thoughts cannot be discovered.
<sup>7</sup> But God will shoot at them;
suddenly they will be wounded by an arrow.
<sup>8</sup> Their slander will bring about their demise.
All who see them will shudder, <sup>9</sup> and all people will fear.
They will proclaim what God has done, and reflect on his deeds.
<sup>10</sup> The godly will rejoice in the LORD | strong="H3069" and take shelter in him.
All the morally upright will boast.

For the music director; a psalm of David, a song.

<sup>1</sup> Praise awaits you, O God, in Zion.
Vows made to you are fulfilled.
<sup>2</sup> You hear prayers;
all people approach you.
<sup>3</sup> Our record of sins overwhelms me, but you forgive our acts of rebellion.
<sup>4</sup> How blessed is the one whom you choose,
and allow to live in your palace courts.
May we be satisfied with the good things of your house – your holy palace.
<sup>5</sup> You answer our prayers by performing awesome acts of deliverance, O God, our savior.
All the ends of the earth trust in you,
as well as those living across the wide seas.
<sup>6</sup> You created the mountains by your power, and demonstrated your strength.
<sup>7</sup> You calm the raging seas and their roaring waves, as well as the commotion made by the nations.
<sup>8</sup> Even those living in the most remote areas are awestruck by your acts;
you cause those living in the east and west to praise you.
<sup>9</sup> You visit the earth and give it rain;
you make it rich and fertile with overflowing streams full of water.
You provide grain for them,
for you prepare the earth to yield its crops.
<sup>10</sup> You saturate its furrows, and soak its plowed ground.
With rain showers you soften its soil,
and make its crops grow.
<sup>11</sup> You crown the year with your good blessings, and you leave abundance in your wake.
<sup>12</sup> The pastures in the wilderness glisten with moisture, and the hills are clothed with joy.

<sup>13</sup> The meadows are clothed with sheep, and the valleys are covered with grain.
They shout joyfully, yes, they sing.

66

For the music director; a song, a psalm.

Give him the honor he deserves!

<sup>3</sup> Say to God:

“How awesome are your deeds!

Because of your great power your enemies cower in fear before you.

<sup>4</sup> All the earth worships you and sings praises to you!

They sing praises to your name!” (Selah)

His acts on behalf of people are awesome!

<sup>6</sup> He turned the sea into dry land;
they passed through the river on foot.

Let us rejoice in him there!

<sup>7</sup> He rules by his power forever;

he watches the nations.

Stubborn rebels should not exalt themselves. (Selah)

<sup>8</sup> Praise our God, you nations!

Loudly proclaim his praise!

<sup>9</sup> He preserves our lives and does not allow our feet to slip.

<sup>10</sup> For you, O God, tested us;
you purified us like refined silver.

<sup>11</sup> You led us into a trap;
you caused us to suffer.

<sup>12</sup> You allowed men to ride over our heads;
we passed through fire and water,
but you brought us out into a wide open place.

<sup>13</sup> I will enter your temple with burnt sacrifices;
I will fulfill the vows I made to you,

<sup>14</sup> which my lips uttered and my mouth spoke when I was in trouble.

<sup>15</sup> I will offer up to you fattened animals as burnt sacrifices, along with the smell of sacrificial rams.

I will offer cattle and goats. (Selah)

<sup>16</sup> Come! Listen, all you who are loyal to God!
I will declare what he has done for me.

<sup>17</sup> I cried out to him for help and praised him with my tongue.

<sup>18</sup> If I had harbored sin in my heart, the Lord would not have listened.

<sup>19</sup> However, God heard;
he listened to my prayer.

<sup>20</sup> God deserves praise, for he did not reject my prayer or abandon his love for me!

67

For the music director; to be accompanied by stringed instruments; a psalm, a song.

<sup>1</sup> May God show us his favor and bless us!

May he smile on us! (Selah)

<sup>2</sup> Then those living on earth will know what you are like;
all nations will know how you deliver your people.

<sup>3</sup> Let the nations thank you, O God!

Let all the nations thank you!

<sup>4</sup> Let foreigners rejoice and celebrate!

For you execute justice among the nations, and govern the people living on earth. (Selah)

<sup>5</sup> Let the nations thank you, O God!

Let all the nations thank you!

<sup>6</sup> The earth yields its crops.

May God, our God, bless us!

<sup>7</sup> May God bless us!

Then all the ends of the earth will give him the honor he deserves.

68

For the music director; by David, a psalm, a song.

<sup>1</sup> God springs into action!

His enemies scatter;
his adversaries run from him.

<sup>2</sup> As smoke is driven away by the wind, so you drive them away.

As wax melts before fire,
so the wicked are destroyed before God.

<sup>3</sup> But the godly are happy;

they rejoice before God and are overcome with joy.

<sup>4</sup> Sing to God! Sing praises to his name!

Exalt the one who rides on the clouds!

For the LORD | strong="H3050" is his name!

Rejoice before him!

<sup>5</sup> He is a father to the fatherless and an advocate for widows.

God rules from his holy palace.

<sup>6</sup> God settles those who have been deserted in their own homes;

he frees prisoners and grants them prosperity.

But sinful rebels live in the desert.

<sup>7</sup> O God, when you lead your people into battle, when you march through the desert, (Selah)

<sup>8</sup> the earth shakes, yes, the heavens pour down rain before God, the God of Sinai, before God, the God of Israel.

<sup>9</sup> O God, you cause abundant showers to fall on your chosen people.

When they are tired, you sustain them,

<sup>10</sup> for you live among them.

You sustain the oppressed with your good blessings, O God.

11 The Lord speaks;
many, many women spread the good news.
12 Kings leading armies run away – they run away!
The lovely lady of the house divides up the loot.
13 When you lie down among the sheepfolds, the wings of the dove are covered with silver and with glittering gold.
14 When the sovereign judge scatters kings,
let it snow on Zalmon!
15 The mountain of Bashan is a towering mountain;
the mountain of Bashan is a mountain with many peaks.
16 Why do you look with envy, O mountains with many peaks, at the mountain where God has decided to live?
Indeed the LORD will live there permanently!
17 God has countless chariots;
they number in the thousands.
The Lord comes from Sinai in holy splendor.
18 You ascend on high,
you have taken many captives.
You receive tribute from men, including even sinful rebels.
Indeed the LORD | strong="H3050" God lives there!
19 The Lord deserves praise!
Day after day he carries our burden,
the God who delivers us. (Selah) 20 Our God is a God who delivers;
the LORD | strong="H3069", the sovereign Lord, can rescue from death.
21 Indeed God strikes the heads of his enemies, the hairy foreheads of those who persist in rebellion.
22 The Lord says,
“I will retrieve them from Bashan,
I will bring them back from the depths of the sea, 23 so that your feet may stomp in their blood, and your dogs may eat their portion of the enemies’ corpses.”
24 They see your processions, O God – the processions of my God, my king, who marches along in holy splendor.
25 Singers walk in front;
musicians follow playing their stringed instruments,
in the midst of young women playing tambourines.
26 In your large assemblies praise God,
the LORD, in the assemblies of Israel!
27 There is little Benjamin, their ruler, and the princes of Judah in their robes, along with the princes of Zebulun and the princes of Naphtali.
28 God has decreed that you will be powerful.
O God, you who have acted on our behalf, demonstrate your power, 29 as you come out of your temple in Jerusalem!
Kings bring tribute to you.
30 Sound your battle cry against the wild beast of the reeds, and the nations that assemble like a herd of calves led by bulls!
They humble themselves and offer gold and silver as tribute.

God scatters the nations that like to do battle.

<sup>31</sup> They come with red cloth from Egypt,
Ethiopia voluntarily offers tribute to God.

<sup>32</sup> O kingdoms of the earth, sing to God!
Sing praises to the Lord, (Selah)

<sup>33</sup> to the one who rides through the sky from ancient times!
Look! He thunders loudly.

his sovereignty over Israel, and the power he reveals in the skies!

<sup>35</sup> You are awe-inspiring, O God, as you emerge from your holy temple!
It is the God of Israel who gives the people power and strength.
God deserves praise!

69

For the music director; according to the tune of "Lilies;" by David.

<sup>1</sup> Deliver me, O God, for the water has reached my neck.

<sup>2</sup> I sink into the deep mire where there is no solid ground;
I am in deep water,
and the current overpowers me.

<sup>3</sup> I am exhausted from shouting for help;
my throat is sore;
my eyes grow tired of looking for my God.

<sup>4</sup> Those who hate me without cause are more numerous than the hairs of my head.
Those who want to destroy me, my enemies for no reason, outnumber me.
They make me repay what I did not steal!

<sup>5</sup> O God, you are aware of my foolish sins;
my guilt is not hidden from you.

<sup>6</sup> Let none who rely on you be disgraced because of me,
O sovereign LORD and king!
Let none who seek you be ashamed because of me,
O God of Israel!

<sup>7</sup> For I suffer humiliation for your sake and am thoroughly disgraced.

<sup>8</sup> My own brothers treat me like a stranger;
they act as if I were a foreigner.

<sup>9</sup> Certainly zeal for your house consumes me;
I endure the insults of those who insult you.

<sup>10</sup> I weep and refrain from eating food, which causes others to insult me.

<sup>11</sup> I wear sackcloth and they ridicule me.

<sup>12</sup> Those who sit at the city gate gossip about me; drunkards mock me in their songs.

<sup>13</sup> O LORD, may you hear my prayer and be favorably disposed to me!
O God, because of your great loyal love, answer me with your faithful deliverance!

<sup>14</sup> Rescue me from the mud! Don't let me sink!
Deliver me from those who hate me,

from the deep water!

<sup>15</sup> Don't let the current overpower me!

Don't let the deep swallow me up!

Don't let the pit devour me!

<sup>16</sup> Answer me, O LORD, for your loyal love is good!

Because of your great compassion, turn toward me!

<sup>17</sup> Do not ignore your servant, for I am in trouble! Answer me right away!

<sup>18</sup> Come near me and redeem me!

Because of my enemies, rescue me!

<sup>19</sup> You know how I am insulted, humiliated and disgraced;

you can see all my enemies.

<sup>20</sup> Their insults are painful and make me lose heart;

I look for sympathy, but receive none, for comforters, but find none.

<sup>21</sup> They put bitter poison into my food, and to quench my thirst they give me vinegar to drink.

<sup>22</sup> May their dining table become a trap before them!

May it be a snare for that group of friends!

<sup>23</sup> May their eyes be blinded!

Make them shake violently!

<sup>24</sup> Pour out your judgment on them!

May your raging anger overtake them!

<sup>25</sup> May their camp become desolate, their tents uninhabited!

<sup>26</sup> For they harass the one whom you discipline;

they spread the news about the suffering of those whom you punish.

<sup>27</sup> Hold them accountable for all their sins!

Do not vindicate them!

<sup>28</sup> May their names be deleted from the scroll of the living!

Do not let their names be listed with the godly!

<sup>29</sup> I am oppressed and suffering!

O God, deliver and protect me!

<sup>30</sup> I will sing praises to God's name!

I will magnify him as I give him thanks!

<sup>31</sup> That will please the LORD more than an ox or a bull with horns and hooves.

<sup>32</sup> The oppressed look on – let them rejoice!

You who seek God, may you be encouraged!

<sup>33</sup> For the LORD listens to the needy;

he does not despise his captive people.

<sup>34</sup> Let the heavens and the earth praise him, along with the seas and everything that swims in them!

<sup>35</sup> For God will deliver Zion and rebuild the cities of Judah, and his people will again live in them and possess Zion.

<sup>36</sup> The descendants of his servants will inherit it, and those who are loyal to him will live in it.

70

For the music director; by David; written to get God's attention.

<sup>1</sup> O God, please be willing to rescue me!
O LORD, hurry and help me!
<sup>2</sup> May those who are trying to take my life be embarrassed and ashamed!
May those who want to harm me
be turned back and ashamed!
<sup>3</sup> May those who say, "Aha! Aha!"
be driven back and disgraced!
<sup>4</sup> May all those who seek you be happy and rejoice in you!
May those who love to experience your deliverance say continually,
"May God be praised!"
<sup>5</sup> I am oppressed and needy!
O God, hurry to me!
You are my helper and my deliverer!
O LORD, do not delay!

71

<sup>1</sup> In you, O LORD, I have taken shelter!
Never let me be humiliated!
<sup>2</sup> Vindicate me by rescuing me!
Listen to me! Deliver me!
<sup>3</sup> Be my protector and refuge,
a stronghold where I can be safe!
For you are my high ridge and my stronghold.
<sup>4</sup> My God, rescue me from the power of the wicked, from the hand of the cruel oppressor!
<sup>5</sup> For you give me confidence, O Lord;
O LORD, I have trusted in you since I was young.
<sup>6</sup> I have leaned on you since birth;
you pulled me from my mother's womb.
I praise you continually.
<sup>7</sup> Many are appalled when they see me, but you are my secure shelter.
<sup>8</sup> I praise you constantly and speak of your splendor all day long.
<sup>9</sup> Do not reject me in my old age!
When my strength fails, do not abandon me!
<sup>10</sup> For my enemies talk about me;
those waiting for a chance to kill me plot my demise.
<sup>11</sup> They say, "God has abandoned him."
Run and seize him, for there is no one who will rescue him!"
<sup>12</sup> O God, do not remain far away from me!
My God, hurry and help me!
<sup>13</sup> May my accusers be humiliated and defeated!
May those who want to harm me be covered with scorn and disgrace!
<sup>14</sup> As for me, I will wait continually, and will continue to praise you.
<sup>15</sup> I will tell about your justice, and all day long proclaim your salvation,
though I cannot fathom its full extent.
<sup>16</sup> I will come and tell about the mighty acts of the sovereign LORD.

I will proclaim your justice – yours alone.

<sup>17</sup> O God, you have taught me since I was young, and I am still declaring your amazing deeds.

<sup>18</sup> Even when I am old and gray,
O God, do not abandon me,
until I tell the next generation about your strength, and those coming after me about your power.

you have done great things.

O God, who can compare to you?

<sup>20</sup> Though you have allowed me to experience much trouble and distress, revive me once again!

Bring me up once again from the depths of the earth!

<sup>21</sup> Raise me to a position of great honor!

Turn and comfort me!

<sup>22</sup> I will express my thanks to you with a stringed instrument, praising your faithfulness, O my God!

I will sing praises to you accompanied by a harp,
O Holy One of Israel!

<sup>23</sup> My lips will shout for joy! Yes, I will sing your praises!

I will praise you when you rescue me!

<sup>24</sup> All day long my tongue will also tell about your justice, for those who want to harm me will be embarrassed and ashamed.

72

For Solomon.

<sup>1</sup> O God, grant the king the ability to make just decisions!
Grant the king's son the ability to make fair decisions!

<sup>2</sup> Then he will judge your people fairly, and your oppressed ones equitably.

<sup>3</sup> The mountains will bring news of peace to the people, and the hills will announce justice.

<sup>4</sup> He will defend the oppressed among the people; he will deliver the children of the poor and crush the oppressor.

<sup>5</sup> People will fear you as long as the sun and moon remain in the sky, for generation after generation.

<sup>6</sup> He will descend like rain on the mown grass, like showers that drench the earth.

<sup>7</sup> During his days the godly will flourish;
peace will prevail as long as the moon remains in the sky.

<sup>8</sup> May he rule from sea to sea, and from the Euphrates River to the ends of the earth!

<sup>9</sup> Before him the coastlands will bow down, and his enemies will lick the dust.

<sup>10</sup> The kings of Tarshish and the coastlands will offer gifts;
the kings of Sheba and Seba will bring tribute.

<sup>11</sup> All kings will bow down to him;
all nations will serve him.

<sup>12</sup> For he will rescue the needy when they cry out for help, and the oppressed who have no defender.

<sup>13</sup> He will take pity on the poor and needy;
the lives of the needy he will save.
<sup>14</sup> From harm and violence he will defend them;
he will value their lives.
<sup>15</sup> May he live! May they offer him gold from Sheba!
May they continually pray for him!
May they pronounce blessings on him all day long!
<sup>16</sup> May there be an abundance of grain in the earth;
on the tops of the mountains may it sway!
May its fruit trees flourish like the forests of Lebanon!
May its crops be as abundant as the grass of the earth!
<sup>17</sup> May his fame endure!
May his dynasty last as long as the sun remains in the sky!
May they use his name when they formulate their blessings!
May all nations consider him to be favored by God!
<sup>18</sup> The LORD God, the God of Israel, deserves praise!
He alone accomplishes amazing things!
<sup>19</sup> His glorious name deserves praise forevermore!
May his majestic splendor fill the whole earth!
We agree! We agree!
<sup>20</sup> This collection of the prayers of David son of Jesse ends here.

A psalm by Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> Certainly God is good to Israel, and to those whose motives are pure!
<sup>2</sup> But as for me, my feet almost slipped;
my feet almost slid out from under me.
<sup>3</sup> For I envied those who are proud,
as I observed the prosperity of the wicked.
<sup>4</sup> For they suffer no pain;
their bodies are strong and well-fed.
<sup>5</sup> They are immune to the trouble common to men;
they do not suffer as other men do.
<sup>6</sup> Arrogance is their necklace, and violence their clothing.
<sup>7</sup> Their prosperity causes them to do wrong;
their thoughts are sinful.
<sup>8</sup> They mock and say evil things;
they proudly threaten violence.
<sup>9</sup> They speak as if they rule in heaven, and lay claim to the earth.
<sup>10</sup> Therefore they have more than enough food to eat, and even suck up the water of the sea.
<sup>11</sup> They say, "How does God know what we do?
Is the sovereign one aware of what goes on?"
<sup>12</sup> Take a good look! This is what the wicked are like, those who always have it so easy and get richer and richer.
<sup>13</sup> I concluded, "Surely in vain I have kept my motives pure and maintained a pure lifestyle."

<sup>14</sup> I suffer all day long, and am punished every morning.”
<sup>15</sup> If I had publicized these thoughts,
I would have betrayed your loyal followers.
<sup>16</sup> When I tried to make sense of this,
it was troubling to me.
<sup>17</sup> Then I entered the precincts of God’s temple, and understood the destiny of the wicked.
<sup>18</sup> Surely you put them in slippery places;
you bring them down to ruin.
<sup>19</sup> How desolate they become in a mere moment!
Terrifying judgments make their demise complete!
<sup>20</sup> They are like a dream after one wakes up.
O Lord, when you awake you will despise them.
<sup>21</sup> Yes, my spirit was bitter, and my insides felt sharp pain.
<sup>22</sup> I was ignorant and lacked insight;
I was as senseless as an animal before you.
<sup>23</sup> But I am continually with you;
you hold my right hand.
<sup>24</sup> You guide me by your wise advice, and then you will lead me to a position of honor.
<sup>25</sup> Whom do I have in heaven but you?
I desire no one but you on earth.
<sup>26</sup> My flesh and my heart may grow weak, but God always protects my heart and gives me stability.
<sup>27</sup> Yes, look! Those far from you die;
you destroy everyone who is unfaithful to you.
<sup>28</sup> But as for me, God’s presence is all I need.
I have made the sovereign LORD my shelter, as I declare all the things you have done.

74

A well-written song by Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> Why, O God, have you permanently rejected us?
Why does your anger burn against the sheep of your pasture?
<sup>2</sup> Remember your people whom you acquired in ancient times, whom you rescued so they could be your very own nation,
as well as Mount Zion, where you dwell!
<sup>3</sup> Hurry and look at the permanent ruins, and all the damage the enemy has done to the temple!
<sup>4</sup> Your enemies roar in the middle of your sanctuary;
they set up their battle flags.
<sup>5</sup> They invade like lumberjacks swinging their axes in a thick forest.
<sup>6</sup> And now they are tearing down all its engravings with axes and crowbars.
<sup>7</sup> They set your sanctuary on fire;
they desecrate your dwelling place by knocking it to the ground.
<sup>8</sup> They say to themselves,

“We will oppress all of them.”
They burn down all the places where people worship God in the land.
<sup>9</sup> We do not see any signs of God’s presence;
there are no longer any prophets and we have no one to tell us how long this will last.
<sup>10</sup> How long, O God, will the adversary hurl insults?
Will the enemy blaspheme your name forever?
<sup>11</sup> Why do you remain inactive?
Intervene and destroy him!
<sup>12</sup> But God has been my king from ancient times, performing acts of deliverance on the earth.
<sup>13</sup> You destroyed the sea by your strength;
you shattered the heads of the sea monster in the water.
<sup>14</sup> You crushed the heads of Leviathan;
you fed him to the people who live along the coast.
<sup>15</sup> You broke open the spring and the stream;
you dried up perpetually flowing rivers.
<sup>16</sup> You established the cycle of day and night;
you put the moon and sun in place.
<sup>17</sup> You set up all the boundaries of the earth;
you created the cycle of summer and winter.
<sup>18</sup> Remember how the enemy hurls insults, O LORD, and how a foolish nation blasphemes your name!
<sup>19</sup> Do not hand the life of your dove over to a wild animal!
Do not continue to disregard the lives of your oppressed people!
<sup>20</sup> Remember your covenant promises, for the dark regions of the earth are full of places where violence rules.
<sup>21</sup> Do not let the afflicted be turned back in shame!
Let the oppressed and poor praise your name!
<sup>22</sup> Rise up, O God! Defend your honor!
Remember how fools insult you all day long!
<sup>23</sup> Do not disregard what your enemies say, or the unceasing shouts of those who defy you.

For the music director; according to the al-tashcheth style; a psalm of Asaph; a song.

<sup>1</sup> We give thanks to you, O God! We give thanks!
You reveal your presence;
people tell about your amazing deeds.
<sup>2</sup> God says,
“At the appointed times,
I judge fairly.
<sup>3</sup> When the earth and all its inhabitants dissolve in fear,
I make its pillars secure.” (Selah)
<sup>4</sup>
I say to the proud, “Do not be proud,” and to the wicked, “Do not be so confident of victory!”
<sup>5</sup> Do not be so certain you have won!
Do not speak with your head held so high!
<sup>6</sup> For victory does not come from the east or west, or from the wilderness.

<sup>7</sup> For God is the judge!
He brings one down and exalts another.
<sup>8</sup> For the LORD holds in his hand a cup full of foaming wine mixed with spices, and pours it out.
Surely all the wicked of the earth will slurp it up and drink it to its very last drop.”
<sup>9</sup> As for me, I will continually tell what you have done;
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob!
<sup>10</sup> God says,
“I will bring down all the power of the wicked;
the godly will be victorious.”

76

For the music director; to be accompanied by stringed instruments; a psalm of Asaph, a song.

<sup>1</sup> God has revealed himself in Judah;
in Israel his reputation is great.
<sup>2</sup> He lives in Salem;
he dwells in Zion.
<sup>3</sup> There he shattered the arrows, the shield, the sword, and the rest of the weapons of war. (Selah) <sup>4</sup> You shine brightly and reveal your majesty, as you descend from the hills where you killed your prey.
<sup>5</sup> The bravehearted were plundered;
they “fell asleep.”
All the warriors were helpless.
<sup>6</sup> At the sound of your battle cry, O God of Jacob, both rider and horse “fell asleep.”
<sup>7</sup> You are awesome! Yes, you!
Who can withstand your intense anger?
<sup>8</sup> From heaven you announced what their punishment would be.
The earth was afraid and silent <sup>9</sup> when God arose to execute judgment, and to deliver all the oppressed of the earth. (Selah) <sup>10</sup> Certainly your angry judgment upon men will bring you praise;
you reveal your anger in full measure.
<sup>11</sup> Make vows to the LORD your God and repay them!
Let all those who surround him bring tribute to the awesome one!
<sup>12</sup> He humbles princes;
the kings of the earth regard him as awesome.

77

For the music director, Jeduthun; a psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> I will cry out to God and call for help!
I will cry out to God and he will pay attention to me.
<sup>2</sup> In my time of trouble I sought the Lord.
I kept my hand raised in prayer throughout the night.
I refused to be comforted.
<sup>3</sup> I said, “I will remember God while I groan;
I will think about him while my strength leaves me.” (Selah)

<sup>4</sup> You held my eyelids open;
I was troubled and could not speak.
<sup>5</sup> I thought about the days of old, about ancient times.
<sup>6</sup> I said, "During the night I will remember the song I once sang;
I will think very carefully."
I tried to make sense of what was happening.
<sup>7</sup> I asked, "Will the Lord reject me forever?
Will he never again show me his favor?
<sup>8</sup> Has his loyal love disappeared forever?
Has his promise failed forever?
<sup>9</sup> Has God forgotten to be merciful?
Has his anger stifled his compassion?"
<sup>10</sup> Then I said, "I am sickened by the thought that the sovereign One might become inactive.
<sup>11</sup> I will remember the works of the LORD | strong="H3050".
Yes, I will remember the amazing things you did long ago!
<sup>12</sup> I will think about all you have done;
I will reflect upon your deeds!"
<sup>13</sup>
O God, your deeds are extraordinary!
What god can compare to our great God?
<sup>14</sup> You are the God who does amazing things;
you have revealed your strength among the nations.
<sup>15</sup> You delivered your people by your strength – the children of Jacob and Joseph. (Selah) <sup>16</sup> The waters saw you, O God, the waters saw you and trembled.
Yes, the depths of the sea shook with fear.
<sup>17</sup> The clouds poured down rain;
the skies thundered.
Yes, your arrows flashed about.
<sup>18</sup> Your thunderous voice was heard in the wind;
the lightning bolts lit up the world;
the earth trembled and shook.
<sup>19</sup> You walked through the sea;
you passed through the surging waters,
but left no footprints.
<sup>20</sup> You led your people like a flock of sheep, by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

A well-written song by Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> Pay attention, my people, to my instruction!
Listen to the words I speak!
<sup>2</sup> I will sing a song that imparts wisdom;
I will make insightful observations about the past.
<sup>3</sup> What we have heard and learned – that which our ancestors have told us – <sup>4</sup> we will not hide from their descendants.
We will tell the next generation about the LORD's praiseworthy acts, about his strength and the amazing things he has done.

<sup>5</sup> He established a rule in Jacob;
he set up a law in Israel.
He commanded our ancestors to make his deeds known to their descendants, <sup>6</sup> so that the next generation, children yet to be born, might know about them.
They will grow up and tell their descendants about them.
<sup>7</sup> Then they will place their confidence in God.
They will not forget the works of God,
and they will obey his commands.
<sup>8</sup> Then they will not be like their ancestors, who were a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation that was not committed and faithful to God.
<sup>9</sup> The Ephraimites were armed with bows, but they retreated in the day of battle.
<sup>10</sup> They did not keep their covenant with God, and they refused to obey his law.
<sup>11</sup> They forgot what he had done,
the amazing things he had shown them.
<sup>12</sup> He did amazing things in the sight of their ancestors, in the land of Egypt, in the region of Zoan.
<sup>13</sup> He divided the sea and led them across it;
he made the water stand in a heap.
<sup>14</sup> He led them with a cloud by day, and with the light of a fire all night long.
<sup>15</sup> He broke open rocks in the wilderness, and gave them enough water to fill the depths of the sea.
<sup>16</sup> He caused streams to flow from the rock, and made the water flow like rivers.
<sup>17</sup> Yet they continued to sin against him, and rebelled against the sovereign One in the desert.
<sup>18</sup> They willfully challenged God by asking for food to satisfy their appetite.
<sup>19</sup> They insulted God, saying,
"Is God really able to give us food in the wilderness?" <sup>20</sup> Yes, he struck a rock and water flowed out, streams gushed forth.
But can he also give us food?
Will he provide meat for his people?"
<sup>21</sup> When the LORD heard this, he was furious.
A fire broke out against Jacob,
and his anger flared up against Israel, <sup>22</sup> because they did not have faith in God, and did not trust his ability to deliver them.
<sup>23</sup> He gave a command to the clouds above, and opened the doors in the sky.
<sup>24</sup> He rained down manna for them to eat;
he gave them the grain of heaven.

25 Man ate the food of the mighty ones.
He sent them more than enough to eat.
26 He brought the east wind through the sky, and by his strength led forth the south wind.
27 He rained down meat on them like dust, birds as numerous as the sand on the seashores.
28 He caused them to fall right in the middle of their camp, all around their homes.
29 They ate until they were stuffed;
he gave them what they desired.
30 They were not yet filled up, their food was still in their mouths,
31 when the anger of God flared up against them.
He killed some of the strongest of them;
he brought the young men of Israel to their knees.
32 Despite all this, they continued to sin, and did not trust him to do amazing things.
33 So he caused them to die unsatisfied and filled with terror.
34 When he struck them down, they sought his favor;
they turned back and longed for God.
35 They remembered that God was their protector, and that the sovereign God was their deliverer.
36 But they deceived him with their words, and lied to him.
37 They were not really committed to him, and they were unfaithful to his covenant.
38 Yet he is compassionate.
He forgives sin and does not destroy.
He often holds back his anger,
and does not stir up his fury.
39 He remembered that they were made of flesh, and were like a wind that blows past and does not return.
40 How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness, and insulted him in the desert!
41 They again challenged God, and offended the Holy One of Israel.
42 They did not remember what he had done,
how he delivered them from the enemy, 43 when he performed his awesome deeds in Egypt, and his acts of judgment in the region of Zoan.
44 He turned their rivers into blood, and they could not drink from their streams.
45 He sent swarms of biting insects against them, as well as frogs that overran their land.
46 He gave their crops to the grasshopper, the fruit of their labor to the locust.
47 He destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamore-fig trees with driving rain.
48 He rained hail down on their cattle, and hurled lightning bolts down on their livestock.

49 His raging anger lashed out against them,
He sent fury, rage, and trouble as messengers who bring disaster.
50 He sent his anger in full force;
he did not spare them from death;
he handed their lives over to destruction.
51 He struck down all the firstborn in Egypt, the firstfruits of their reproductive power in the tents of Ham.
52 Yet he brought out his people like sheep;
he led them through the wilderness like a flock.
53 He guided them safely along,
while the sea covered their enemies.
54 He brought them to the border of his holy land, to this mountainous land which his right hand acquired.
55 He drove the nations out from before them;
he assigned them their tribal allotments and allowed the tribes of Israel to settle down.
56 Yet they challenged and defied the sovereign God, and did not obey his commands.
57 They were unfaithful and acted as treacherously as their ancestors;
they were as unreliable as a malfunctioning bow.
58 They made him angry with their pagan shrines, and made him jealous with their idols.
59 God heard and was angry;
he completely rejected Israel.
60 He abandoned the sanctuary at Shiloh, the tent where he lived among men.
61 He allowed the symbol of his strong presence to be captured;
he gave the symbol of his splendor into the hand of the enemy.
62 He delivered his people over to the sword, and was angry with his chosen nation.
63 Fire consumed their young men, and their virgins remained unmarried.
64 Their priests fell by the sword, but their widows did not weep.
65 But then the Lord awoke from his sleep;
he was like a warrior in a drunken rage.
66 He drove his enemies back;
he made them a permanent target for insults.
67 He rejected the tent of Joseph;
he did not choose the tribe of Ephraim.
68 He chose the tribe of Judah, and Mount Zion, which he loves.
69 He made his sanctuary as enduring as the heavens above;
as secure as the earth, which he established permanently.
70 He chose David, his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds.
71 He took him away from following the mother sheep, and made him the shepherd of Jacob, his people, and of Israel, his chosen nation.
72 David cared for them with pure motives;

he led them with skill.

79

A psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> O God, foreigners have invaded your chosen land;
they have polluted your holy temple and turned Jerusalem into a heap of ruins.

<sup>2</sup> They have given the corpses of your servants to the birds of the sky;
the flesh of your loyal followers to the beasts of the earth.

<sup>3</sup> They have made their blood flow like water all around Jerusalem, and there is no one to bury them.

<sup>4</sup> We have become an object of disdain to our neighbors;
those who live on our borders taunt and insult us.

<sup>5</sup> How long will this go on, O LORD?

Will you stay angry forever?

How long will your rage burn like fire?

<sup>6</sup> Pour out your anger on the nations that do not acknowledge you, on the kingdoms that do not pray to you!

<sup>7</sup> For they have devoured Jacob and destroyed his home.

<sup>8</sup> Do not hold us accountable for the sins of earlier generations!
Quickly send your compassion our way, for we are in serious trouble!

<sup>9</sup> Help us, O God, our deliverer!

For the sake of your glorious reputation, rescue us!

Forgive our sins for the sake of your reputation!

<sup>10</sup> Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?"

Before our very eyes may the shed blood of your servants be avenged among the nations!

<sup>11</sup> Listen to the painful cries of the prisoners!

Use your great strength to set free those condemned to die!

<sup>12</sup> Pay back our neighbors in full!

May they be insulted the same way they insulted you, O Lord!

<sup>13</sup> Then we, your people, the sheep of your pasture, will continually thank you.

We will tell coming generations of your praiseworthy acts.

80

For the music director; according to the shushan-eduth style; a psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> O shepherd of Israel, pay attention, you who lead Joseph like a flock of sheep!
You who sit enthroned above the winged angels, reveal your splendor!

Come and deliver us!

Smile on us! Then we will be delivered!

<sup>4</sup> O LORD God, invincible warrior!

How long will you remain angry at your people while they pray to you?

<sup>5</sup> You have given them tears as food;
you have made them drink tears by the measure.

<sup>6</sup> You have made our neighbors dislike us, and our enemies insult us.
<sup>7</sup> O God, invincible warrior, restore us!
Smile on us! Then we will be delivered!
<sup>8</sup> You uprooted a vine from Egypt;
you drove out nations and transplanted it.
<sup>9</sup> You cleared the ground for it;
it took root,
and filled the land.
<sup>10</sup> The mountains were covered by its shadow, the highest cedars by its branches.
<sup>11</sup> Its branches reached the Mediterranean Sea, and its shoots the Euphrates River.
<sup>12</sup> Why did you break down its walls, so that all who pass by pluck its fruit?
<sup>13</sup> The wild boars of the forest ruin it;
the insects of the field feed on it.
<sup>14</sup> O God, invincible warrior, come back!
Look down from heaven and take notice!
Take care of this vine, <sup>15</sup> the root your right hand planted, the shoot you made to grow!
<sup>16</sup> It is burned and cut down.
They die because you are displeased with them.
<sup>17</sup> May you give support to the one you have chosen, to the one whom you raised up for yourself!
<sup>18</sup> Then we will not turn away from you.
Revive us and we will pray to you!
<sup>19</sup> O LORD God, invincible warrior, restore us!
Smile on us! Then we will be delivered!

81

For the music director; according to the gittith style; by Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> Shout for joy to God, our source of strength!
Shout out to the God of Jacob!
<sup>2</sup> Sing a song and play the tambourine, the pleasant sounding harp, and the ten-stringed instrument!
<sup>3</sup> Sound the ram's horn on the day of the new moon, and on the day of the full moon when our festival begins.
<sup>4</sup> For observing the festival is a requirement for Israel;
it is an ordinance given by the God of Jacob.
<sup>5</sup> He decreed it as a regulation in Joseph, when he attacked the land of Egypt.
I heard a voice I did not recognize.
<sup>6</sup> It said: "I removed the burden from his shoulder; his hands were released from holding the basket."
<sup>7</sup> In your distress you called out and I rescued you.
I answered you from a dark thundercloud.
I tested you at the waters of Meribah. (Selah) <sup>8</sup> I said, 'Listen, my people!
I will warn you!
O Israel, if only you would obey me!

<sup>9</sup> There must be no other god among you.
You must not worship a foreign god.
<sup>10</sup> I am the LORD, your God,
the one who brought you out of the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide and I will fill it!
<sup>11</sup> But my people did not obey me;
Israel did not submit to me.
<sup>12</sup> I gave them over to their stubborn desires;
they did what seemed right to them.
<sup>13</sup> If only my people would obey me!
If only Israel would keep my commands!
<sup>14</sup> Then I would quickly subdue their enemies, and attack their adversaries.”
<sup>15</sup> (May those who hate the LORD cower in fear before him!
May they be permanently humiliated!)
<sup>16</sup> “I would feed Israel the best wheat, and would satisfy your appetite with honey from the rocky cliffs.”

82

A psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> God stands in the assembly of El;
in the midst of the gods he renders judgment.
<sup>2</sup> He says, “How long will you make unjust legal decisions and show favoritism to the wicked? (Selah) <sup>3</sup> Defend the cause of the poor and the fatherless!
Vindicate the oppressed and suffering!
<sup>4</sup> Rescue the poor and needy!
Deliver them from the power of the wicked!
<sup>5</sup> They neither know nor understand.
They stumble around in the dark,
while all the foundations of the earth crumble.
<sup>6</sup> I thought, ‘You are gods;
all of you are sons of the Most High.’ <sup>7</sup> Yet you will die like mortals;
you will fall like all the other rulers.”
<sup>8</sup> Rise up, O God, and execute judgment on the earth!
For you own all the nations.

83

A song, a psalm of Asaph.

<sup>1</sup> O God, do not be silent!
Do not ignore us! Do not be inactive, O God!
<sup>2</sup> For look, your enemies are making a commotion;
those who hate you are hostile.
<sup>3</sup> They carefully plot against your people, and make plans to harm the ones you cherish.
<sup>4</sup> They say, “Come on, let’s annihilate them so they are no longer a nation!
Then the name of Israel will be remembered no more.”
<sup>5</sup> Yes, they devise a unified strategy;
they form an alliance against you.
<sup>6</sup> It includes the tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, Moab and the Hagrites,

<sup>7</sup> Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek, Philistia and the inhabitants of Tyre.
<sup>8</sup> Even Assyria has allied with them, lending its strength to the descendants of Lot. (Selah) <sup>9</sup> Do to them as you did to Midian – as you did to Sisera and Jabin at the Kishon River!
<sup>10</sup> They were destroyed at Endor; their corpses were like manure on the ground.
<sup>11</sup> Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb, and all their rulers like Zebah and Zalmunna, <sup>12</sup> who said, “Let’s take over the pastures of God!”
<sup>13</sup> O my God, make them like dead thistles, like dead weeds blown away by the wind!
<sup>14</sup> Like the fire that burns down the forest, or the flames that consume the mountainsides, <sup>15</sup> chase them with your gale winds, and terrify them with your windstorm.
<sup>16</sup> Cover their faces with shame, so they might seek you, O LORD.
<sup>17</sup> May they be humiliated and continually terrified!
 May they die in shame!
<sup>18</sup> Then they will know that you alone are the LORD, the sovereign king over all the earth.

84

For the music director; according to the gittith style; written by the Korahites, a psalm.

<sup>1</sup> How lovely is the place where you live,
 O LORD who rules over all!
<sup>2</sup> I desperately want to be in the courts of the LORD’s temple.
 My heart and my entire being shout for joy to the living God.
<sup>3</sup> Even the birds find a home there, and the swallow builds a nest, where she can protect her young near your altars, O LORD who rules over all,
 my king and my God.
<sup>4</sup> How blessed are those who live in your temple and praise you continually! (Selah) <sup>5</sup> How blessed are those who find their strength in you, and long to travel the roads that lead to your temple!
<sup>6</sup> As they pass through the Baca Valley, he provides a spring for them.
 The rain even covers it with pools of water.
<sup>7</sup> They are sustained as they travel along;
 each one appears before God in Zion.
<sup>8</sup> O LORD, sovereign God, hear my prayer!
 Listen, O God of Jacob! (Selah)
<sup>9</sup> O God, take notice of our shield!

Show concern for your chosen king!

<sup>10</sup> Certainly spending just one day in your temple courts is better than spending a thousand elsewhere.

I would rather stand at the entrance to the temple of my God than live in the tents of the wicked.

The LORD bestows favor and honor; he withholds no good thing from those who have integrity.

<sup>12</sup> O LORD who rules over all, how blessed are those who trust in you!

85

For the music director; written by the Korahites, a psalm.

<sup>5</sup> Will you stay mad at us forever? Will you remain angry throughout future generations?

<sup>6</sup> Will you not revive us once more? Then your people will rejoice in you!

<sup>7</sup> O LORD, show us your loyal love! Bestow on us your deliverance!

<sup>8</sup> I will listen to what God the LORD says. For he will make peace with his people, his faithful followers. Yet they must not return to their foolish ways.

<sup>9</sup> Certainly his loyal followers will soon experience his deliverance; then his splendor will again appear in our land.

<sup>10</sup> Loyal love and faithfulness meet; deliverance and peace greet each other with a kiss.

86

A prayer of David.

<sup>2</sup> Protect me, for I am loyal! O my God, deliver your servant, who trusts in you!

<sup>5</sup> Certainly O Lord, you are kind and forgiving, and show great faithfulness to all who cry out to you.
<sup>6</sup> O LORD, hear my prayer!
Pay attention to my plea for mercy!
<sup>7</sup> In my time of trouble I cry out to you, for you will answer me.
<sup>8</sup> None can compare to you among the gods, O Lord!
Your exploits are incomparable!
<sup>9</sup> All the nations, whom you created, will come and worship you, O Lord.
They will honor your name.
<sup>10</sup> For you are great and do amazing things.
You alone are God.
<sup>11</sup> O LORD, teach me how you want me to live!
Then I will obey your commands.
Make me wholeheartedly committed to you!
<sup>12</sup> O Lord, my God, I will give you thanks with my whole heart!
I will honor your name continually!
<sup>13</sup> For you will extend your great loyal love to me, and will deliver my life from the depths of Sheol.
<sup>14</sup> O God, arrogant men attack me;
a gang of ruthless men, who do not respect you, seek my life.
<sup>15</sup> But you, O Lord, are a compassionate and merciful God.
You are patient and demonstrate great loyal love and faithfulness.
<sup>16</sup> Turn toward me and have mercy on me!
Give your servant your strength!
Deliver your slave!
<sup>17</sup> Show me evidence of your favor!
Then those who hate me will see it and be ashamed, for you, O LORD, will help me and comfort me.

Written by the Korahites; a psalm, a song.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwelling places of Jacob.
<sup>3</sup> People say wonderful things about you,
O city of God. (Selah)
<sup>4</sup> I mention Rahab and Babylon to my followers.
Here are Philistia and Tyre, along with Ethiopia.
It is said of them, "This one was born there."
<sup>5</sup> But it is said of Zion's residents,
"Each one of these was born in her, and the sovereign One makes her secure."
<sup>6</sup> The LORD writes in the census book of the nations,
"This one was born there." (Selah) <sup>7</sup> As for the singers, as well as the pipers – all of them sing within your walls.

88

A song, a psalm written by the Korahites; for the music director; according to the machalath-leannothe style; a well-written song by Heman the Ezrachite.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD God who delivers me!

By day I cry out and at night I pray before you.

<sup>2</sup> Listen to my prayer!

Pay attention to my cry for help!

<sup>3</sup> For my life is filled with troubles and I am ready to enter Sheol.

<sup>4</sup> They treat me like those who descend into the grave.

I am like a helpless man,

<sup>5</sup> adrift among the dead, like corpses lying in the grave, whom you remember no more,

and who are cut off from your power.

<sup>6</sup> You place me in the lowest regions of the pit, in the dark places, in the watery depths.

<sup>7</sup> Your anger bears down on me, and you overwhelm me with all your waves. (Selah)

<sup>8</sup> You cause those who know me to keep their distance;
you make me an appalling sight to them.

I am trapped and cannot get free.

<sup>9</sup> My eyes grow weak because of oppression.

I call out to you, O LORD, all day long;

I spread out my hands in prayer to you.

<sup>10</sup> Do you accomplish amazing things for the dead?
Do the departed spirits rise up and give you thanks? (Selah)

<sup>11</sup> Is your loyal love proclaimed in the grave, or your faithfulness in the place of the dead?

<sup>12</sup> Are your amazing deeds experienced in the dark region, or your deliverance in the land of oblivion?

<sup>13</sup> As for me, I cry out to you, O LORD;
in the morning my prayer confronts you.

<sup>14</sup> O LORD, why do you reject me, and pay no attention to me?

<sup>15</sup> I am oppressed and have been on the verge of death since my youth.
I have been subjected to your horrors and am numb with pain.

<sup>16</sup> Your anger overwhelms me;
your terrors destroy me.

<sup>17</sup> They surround me like water all day long;
they join forces and encircle me.

<sup>18</sup> You cause my friends and neighbors to keep their distance;
those who know me leave me alone in the darkness.

89

A well-written song by Ethan the Ezrachite.

<sup>1</sup> I will sing continually about the LORD's faithful deeds;
to future generations I will proclaim your faithfulness.

<sup>2</sup> For I say, "Loyal love is permanently established; in the skies you set up your faithfulness."

<sup>3</sup> The LORD said, |strong="H3772"
"I have made a covenant with my chosen one;
I have made a promise on oath to David, my servant:
<sup>4</sup> 'I will give you an eternal dynasty and establish your throne throughout future generations.' " (Selah) <sup>5</sup> O LORD, the heavens praise your amazing deeds, as well as your faithfulness in the angelic assembly.
<sup>6</sup> For who in the skies can compare to the LORD?
Who is like the LORD among the heavenly beings, <sup>7</sup> a God who is honored in the great angelic assembly, and more awesome than all who surround him?
<sup>8</sup> O LORD, sovereign God!
Who is strong like you, O LORD |strong="H3050"?
Your faithfulness surrounds you.
<sup>9</sup> You rule over the proud sea.
When its waves surge, you calm them.
<sup>10</sup> You crushed the Proud One and killed it;
with your strong arm you scattered your enemies.
<sup>11</sup> The heavens belong to you, as does the earth.
You made the world and all it contains.
<sup>12</sup> You created the north and the south.
Tabor and Hermon rejoice in your name.
<sup>13</sup> Your arm is powerful, your hand strong,
your right hand victorious.
<sup>14</sup> Equity and justice are the foundation of your throne.
Loyal love and faithfulness characterize your rule.
<sup>15</sup> How blessed are the people who worship you!
O LORD, they experience your favor.
<sup>16</sup> They rejoice in your name all day long, and are vindicated by your justice.
<sup>17</sup> For you give them splendor and strength.
By your favor we are victorious.
<sup>18</sup> For our shield belongs to the LORD, our king to the Holy One of Israel.
<sup>19</sup> Then you spoke through a vision to your faithful followers and said:
"I have energized a warrior;
I have raised up a young man from the people.
<sup>20</sup> I have discovered David, my servant.
With my holy oil I have anointed him as king.
<sup>21</sup> My hand will support him, and my arm will strengthen him.
<sup>22</sup> No enemy will be able to exact tribute from him;
a violent oppressor will not be able to humiliate him.
<sup>23</sup> I will crush his enemies before him;
I will strike down those who hate him.
<sup>24</sup> He will experience my faithfulness and loyal love, and by my name he will win victories.
<sup>25</sup> I will place his hand over the sea, his right hand over the rivers.
<sup>26</sup> He will call out to me,

'You are my father, my God, and the protector who delivers me.'

<sup>27</sup> I will appoint him to be my firstborn son, the most exalted of the earth's kings.

<sup>28</sup> I will always extend my loyal love to him, and my covenant with him is secure.

<sup>29</sup> I will give him an eternal dynasty, and make his throne as enduring as the skies above.

<sup>30</sup> If his sons reject my law and disobey my regulations,

<sup>31</sup> if they break my rules and do not keep my commandments,

<sup>32</sup> I will punish their rebellion by beating them with a club, their sin by inflicting them with bruises.

<sup>33</sup> But I will not remove my loyal love from him, nor be unfaithful to my promise.

<sup>34</sup> I will not break my covenant or go back on what I promised.

<sup>35</sup> Once and for all I have vowed by my own holiness,
I will never deceive David.

<sup>36</sup> His dynasty will last forever.

His throne will endure before me, like the sun,

<sup>37</sup> it will remain stable, like the moon, his throne will endure like the skies." (Selah)

<sup>38</sup> But you have spurned and rejected him;
you are angry with your chosen king.

<sup>39</sup> You have repudiated your covenant with your servant;
you have thrown his crown to the ground.

<sup>40</sup> You have broken down all his walls;
you have made his strongholds a heap of ruins.

<sup>41</sup> All who pass by have robbed him;
he has become an object of disdain to his neighbors.

<sup>42</sup> You have allowed his adversaries to be victorious, and all his enemies to rejoice.

<sup>43</sup> You turn back his sword from the adversary, and have not sustained him in battle.

<sup>44</sup> You have brought to an end his splendor, and have knocked his throne to the ground.

<sup>45</sup> You have cut short his youth, and have covered him with shame. (Selah)

<sup>46</sup> How long, O LORD, will this last?

Will you remain hidden forever?

Will your anger continue to burn like fire?

<sup>47</sup> Take note of my brief lifespan!

Why do you make all people so mortal?

<sup>48</sup> No man can live on without experiencing death, or deliver his life from the power of Sheol. (Selah)

<sup>49</sup> Where are your earlier faithful deeds, O Lord, the ones performed in accordance with your reliable oath to David?

<sup>50</sup> Take note, O Lord, of the way your servants are taunted, and of how I must bear so many insults from people!

<sup>51</sup> Your enemies, O LORD, hurl insults;

they insult your chosen king as they dog his footsteps.

52

The LORD deserves praise forevermore!
We agree! We agree!

A prayer of Moses, the man of God.

or you brought the world into being,
you were the eternal God.

<sup>3</sup> You make mankind return to the dust, and say, "Return, O people!"

<sup>4</sup> Yes, in your eyes a thousand years are like yesterday that quickly passes, or like one of the divisions of the nighttime.

<sup>5</sup> You bring their lives to an end and they "fall asleep."
In the morning they are like the grass that sprouts up;

<sup>6</sup> in the morning it glistens and sprouts up;
at evening time it withers and dries up.

<sup>7</sup> Yes, we are consumed by your anger;
we are terrified by your wrath.

<sup>8</sup> You are aware of our sins;
you even know about our hidden sins.

<sup>9</sup> Yes, throughout all our days we experience your raging fury;
the years of our lives pass quickly, like a sigh.

<sup>10</sup> The days of our lives add up to seventy years, or eighty, if one is especially strong.
But even one's best years are marred by trouble and oppression.
Yes, they pass quickly and we fly away.

<sup>11</sup> Who can really fathom the intensity of your anger?
Your raging fury causes people to fear you.

<sup>12</sup> So teach us to consider our mortality, so that we might live wisely.

<sup>13</sup> Turn back toward us, O LORD!
How long must this suffering last?
Have pity on your servants!

<sup>14</sup> Satisfy us in the morning with your loyal love!
Then we will shout for joy and be happy all our days!

<sup>15</sup> Make us happy in proportion to the days you have afflicted us, in proportion to the years we have experienced trouble!

<sup>16</sup> May your servants see your work!
May their sons see your majesty!

<sup>17</sup> May our sovereign God extend his favor to us!
Make our endeavors successful!
Yes, make them successful!

<sup>1</sup> As for you, the one who lives in the shelter of the sovereign One, and resides in the protective shadow of the mighty king –

<sup>2</sup> I say this about the LORD, my shelter and my stronghold, my God in whom I trust –

<sup>3</sup> he will certainly rescue you from the snare of the hunter and from the destructive plague.

<sup>4</sup> He will shelter you with his wings;
you will find safety under his wings.
His faithfulness is like a shield or a protective wall.

<sup>5</sup> You need not fear the terrors of the night,
the arrow that flies by day,

<sup>6</sup> the plague that comes in the darkness, or the disease that comes at noon.

<sup>7</sup> Though a thousand may fall beside you, and a multitude on your right side,
it will not reach you.

<sup>8</sup> Certainly you will see it with your very own eyes – you will see the wicked paid back.

<sup>9</sup> For you have taken refuge in the LORD, my shelter, the sovereign One.

<sup>10</sup> No harm will overtake you;
no illness will come near your home.

<sup>11</sup> For he will order his angels to protect you in all you do.

<sup>12</sup> They will lift you up in their hands, so you will not slip and fall on a stone.

<sup>13</sup> You will subdue a lion and a snake;
you will trample underfoot a young lion and a serpent.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD says, |strong="H3588"
“Because he is devoted to me, I will deliver him;
I will protect him because he is loyal to me.

<sup>15</sup> When he calls out to me, I will answer him.
I will be with him when he is in trouble;
I will rescue him and bring him honor.

<sup>16</sup> I will satisfy him with long life, and will let him see my salvation.

92

A psalm; a song for the Sabbath day.

<sup>1</sup> It is fitting to thank the LORD, and to sing praises to your name, O sovereign One!

<sup>2</sup> It is fitting to proclaim your loyal love in the morning, and your faithfulness during the night,

<sup>3</sup> to the accompaniment of a ten-stringed instrument and a lyre, to the accompaniment of the meditative tone of the harp.

<sup>4</sup> For you, O LORD, have made me happy by your work.
I will sing for joy because of what you have done.

<sup>5</sup> How great are your works, O LORD!
Your plans are very intricate!

<sup>6</sup> The spiritually insensitive do not recognize this;
the fool does not understand this.

<sup>7</sup> When the wicked sprout up like grass, and all the evildoers glisten,
it is so that they may be annihilated.

<sup>8</sup> But you, O LORD, reign forever!
<sup>9</sup> Indeed, look at your enemies, O LORD!
Indeed, look at how your enemies perish!
All the evildoers are scattered!
<sup>10</sup> You exalt my horn like that of a wild ox.
I am covered with fresh oil.
<sup>11</sup> I gloat in triumph over those who tried to ambush me;
I hear the defeated cries of the evil foes who attacked me.
<sup>12</sup> The godly grow like a palm tree;
they grow high like a cedar in Lebanon.
<sup>13</sup> Planted in the LORD's house, they grow in the courts of our God.
<sup>14</sup> They bear fruit even when they are old;
they are filled with vitality and have many leaves.
<sup>15</sup> So they proclaim that the LORD, my protector, is just and never unfair.

93

<sup>1</sup> The LORD reigns!
He is robed in majesty,
the LORD is robed,
he wears strength around his waist.
Indeed, the world is established, it cannot be moved.
<sup>2</sup> Your throne has been secure from ancient times;
you have always been king.
<sup>3</sup> The waves roar, O LORD, the waves roar,
the waves roar and crash.
<sup>4</sup> Above the sound of the surging water, and the mighty waves of the sea,
the LORD sits enthroned in majesty.
<sup>5</sup> The rules you set down are completely reliable.
Holiness aptly adorns your house, O LORD, forever.

94

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, the God who avenges!
O God who avenges, reveal your splendor!
<sup>2</sup> Rise up, O judge of the earth!
Pay back the proud!
<sup>3</sup> O LORD, how long will the wicked, how long will the wicked celebrate?
<sup>4</sup> They spew out threats and speak defiantly;
all the evildoers boast.
<sup>5</sup> O LORD, they crush your people; they oppress the nation that belongs to you.
<sup>6</sup> They kill the widow and the one residing outside his native land, and they murder the fatherless.
<sup>7</sup> Then they say, "The LORD | strong="H3050" does not see this;
the God of Jacob does not take notice of it."
<sup>8</sup> Take notice of this, you ignorant people!
You fools, when will you ever understand?
<sup>9</sup> Does the one who makes the human ear not hear?

Does the one who forms the human eye not see?

<sup>10</sup> Does the one who disciplines the nations not punish?

He is the one who imparts knowledge to human beings!

<sup>11</sup> The LORD knows that peoples' thoughts are morally bankrupt.

<sup>12</sup> How blessed is the one whom you instruct, O LORD | strong="H3050", the one whom you teach from your law,

<sup>13</sup> in order to protect him from times of trouble, until the wicked are destroyed.

<sup>14</sup> Certainly the LORD does not forsake his people; he does not abandon the nation that belongs to him.

<sup>15</sup> For justice will prevail, and all the morally upright will be vindicated.

<sup>16</sup> Who will rise up to defend me against the wicked?
Who will stand up for me against the evildoers?

<sup>17</sup> If the LORD had not helped me,
I would have laid down in the silence of death.

<sup>18</sup> If I say, "My foot is slipping," your loyal love, O LORD, supports me.

<sup>19</sup> When worries threaten to overwhelm me, your soothing touch makes me happy.

<sup>20</sup> Cruel rulers are not your allies, those who make oppressive laws.

<sup>21</sup> They conspire against the blameless, and condemn to death the innocent.

<sup>22</sup> But the LORD will protect me, and my God will shelter me.

<sup>23</sup> He will pay them back for their sin.
He will destroy them because of their evil;
the LORD our God will destroy them.

95

<sup>1</sup> Come! Let's sing for joy to the LORD!

Let's shout out praises to our protector who delivers us!

<sup>2</sup> Let's enter his presence with thanksgiving!

Let's shout out to him in celebration!

<sup>3</sup> For the LORD is a great God,
a great king who is superior to all gods.

<sup>4</sup> The depths of the earth are in his hand, and the mountain peaks belong to him.

<sup>5</sup> The sea is his, for he made it.
His hands formed the dry land.

<sup>6</sup> Come! Let's bow down and worship!
Let's kneel before the LORD, our creator!

<sup>7</sup> For he is our God;
we are the people of his pasture,
the sheep he owns.

Today, if only you would obey him!

<sup>8</sup> He says, "Do not be stubborn like they were at Meribah, like they were that day at Massah in the wilderness,

<sup>9</sup> where your ancestors challenged my authority, and tried my patience, even though they had seen my work.

<sup>10</sup> For forty years I was continually disgusted with that generation, and I said, 'These people desire to go astray; they do not obey my commands.'

<sup>11</sup> So I made a vow in my anger, 'They will never enter into the resting place I had set aside for them.' "

96

<sup>1</sup> Sing to the LORD a new song!

Sing to the LORD, all the earth!

<sup>2</sup> Sing to the LORD! Praise his name!

Announce every day how he delivers!

<sup>3</sup> Tell the nations about his splendor!

Tell all the nations about his amazing deeds!

<sup>4</sup> For the LORD is great and certainly worthy of praise; he is more awesome than all gods.

<sup>7</sup> Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the nations, ascribe to the LORD splendor and strength!

<sup>8</sup> Ascribe to the LORD the splendor he deserves! Bring an offering and enter his courts!

<sup>9</sup> Worship the LORD in holy attire!

Tremble before him, all the earth!

<sup>10</sup> Say among the nations, "The LORD reigns! The world is established, it cannot be moved. He judges the nations fairly."

<sup>11</sup> Let the sky rejoice, and the earth be happy! Let the sea and everything in it shout!

<sup>12</sup> Let the fields and everything in them celebrate! Then let the trees of the forest shout with joy <sup>13</sup> before the LORD, for he comes!

For he comes to judge the earth!

He judges the world fairly, and the nations in accordance with his justice.

97

<sup>1</sup> The LORD reigns!

Let the earth be happy!

Let the many coastlands rejoice!

and all the nations see his splendor.

<sup>7</sup> All who worship idols are ashamed, those who boast about worthless idols.
All the gods bow down before him.

<sup>8</sup> Zion hears and rejoices,
the towns of Judah are happy,
because of your judgments, O LORD.

<sup>9</sup> For you, O LORD, are the sovereign king over the whole earth;
you are elevated high above all gods.

<sup>10</sup> You who love the LORD, hate evil!
He protects the lives of his faithful followers;
he delivers them from the power of the wicked.

<sup>11</sup> The godly bask in the light;
the morally upright experience joy.

<sup>12</sup> You godly ones, rejoice in the LORD!
Give thanks to his holy name.

98

A psalm.

<sup>1</sup> Sing to the LORD a new song,
for he performs amazing deeds!
His right hand and his mighty arm accomplish deliverance.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD demonstrates his power to deliver;
in the sight of the nations he reveals his justice.

<sup>3</sup> He remains loyal and faithful to the family of Israel.

All the ends of the earth see our God deliver us.

<sup>4</sup> Shout out praises to the LORD, all the earth!

Break out in a joyful shout and sing!

<sup>5</sup> Sing to the LORD accompanied by a harp, accompanied by a harp and the sound of music!

<sup>6</sup> With trumpets and the blaring of the ram's horn, shout out praises before the king, the LORD!

<sup>7</sup> Let the sea and everything in it shout, along with the world and those who live in it!

<sup>8</sup> Let the rivers clap their hands!
Let the mountains sing in unison

<sup>9</sup> before the LORD!
For he comes to judge the earth!
He judges the world fairly,
and the nations in a just manner.

99

<sup>1</sup> The LORD reigns!

The nations tremble.

He sits enthroned above the winged angels;
the earth shakes.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD is elevated in Zion;
he is exalted over all the nations.

<sup>3</sup> Let them praise your great and awesome name!
He is holy!

he loves justice.

You ensure that legal decisions will be made fairly;
you promote justice and equity in Jacob.

<sup>5</sup> Praise the LORD our God!
Worship before his footstool!
He is holy!

<sup>6</sup> Moses and Aaron were among his priests;
Samuel was one of those who prayed to him.
They prayed to the LORD and he answered them.

<sup>7</sup> He spoke to them from a pillar of cloud;
they obeyed his regulations and the ordinance he gave them.

<sup>8</sup> O LORD | strong="H3069" our God, you answered them.
They found you to be a forgiving God, but also one who punished their sinful deeds.

<sup>9</sup> Praise the LORD our God!
Worship on his holy hill, for the LORD our God is holy!

100

A thanksgiving psalm.

<sup>2</sup> Worship the LORD with joy!
Enter his presence with joyful singing!

<sup>3</sup> Acknowledge that the LORD is God!
He made us and we belong to him;
we are his people, the sheep of his pasture.

<sup>4</sup> Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise!

Give him thanks!

Praise his name!

<sup>5</sup> For the LORD is good.
His loyal love endures,
and he is faithful through all generations.

101

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> I will sing about loyalty and justice!

To you, O LORD, I will sing praises!

<sup>2</sup> I will walk in the way of integrity.

When will you come to me?

I will conduct my business with integrity in the midst of my palace.

<sup>3</sup> I will not even consider doing what is dishonest.

I hate doing evil;

I will have no part of it.

<sup>4</sup> I will have nothing to do with a perverse person;

I will not permit evil.

<sup>5</sup> I will destroy anyone who slanders his neighbor in secret.

I will not tolerate anyone who has a cocky demeanor and an arrogant attitude.

<sup>6</sup> I will favor the honest people of the land, and allow them to live with me.

Those who walk in the way of integrity will attend me.

<sup>7</sup> Deceitful people will not live in my palace.
Liars will not be welcome in my presence.
<sup>8</sup> Each morning I will destroy all the wicked people in the land, and remove all evildoers from the city of the LORD.

102

The prayer of an oppressed man, as he grows faint and pours out his lament before the LORD.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, hear my prayer!
Pay attention to my cry for help!
<sup>2</sup> Do not ignore me in my time of trouble!
Listen to me!
When I call out to you, quickly answer me!
<sup>3</sup> For my days go up in smoke, and my bones are charred like a fireplace.
<sup>4</sup> My heart is parched and withered like grass, for I am unable to eat food.
<sup>5</sup> Because of the anxiety that makes me groan, my bones protrude from my skin.
<sup>6</sup> I am like an owl in the wilderness;
I am like a screech owl among the ruins.
<sup>7</sup> I stay awake;
I am like a solitary bird on a roof.
<sup>8</sup> All day long my enemies taunt me;
those who mock me use my name in their curses.
<sup>9</sup> For I eat ashes as if they were bread, and mix my drink with my tears, <sup>10</sup> because of your anger and raging fury.
Indeed, you pick me up and throw me away.
<sup>11</sup> My days are coming to an end, and I am withered like grass.
<sup>12</sup> But you, O LORD, rule forever, and your reputation endures.
<sup>13</sup> You will rise up and have compassion on Zion.
For it is time to have mercy on her,
for the appointed time has come.
<sup>14</sup> Indeed, your servants take delight in her stones, and feel compassion for the dust of her ruins.
<sup>15</sup> The nations will respect the reputation of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth will respect his splendor, <sup>16</sup> when the LORD rebuilds Zion, and reveals his splendor, <sup>17</sup> when he responds to the prayer of the destitute, and does not reject their request.
<sup>18</sup> The account of his intervention will be recorded for future generations;
people yet to be born will praise the LORD | strong="H3050".
<sup>19</sup> For he will look down from his sanctuary above;
from heaven the LORD will look toward earth, <sup>20</sup> in order to hear the painful cries of the prisoners, and to set free those condemned to die, <sup>21</sup> so they may proclaim the name of the LORD in Zion, and praise him in Jerusalem, 22 when the nations gather together, and the kingdoms pay tribute to the LORD.

23 He has taken away my strength in the middle of life;
he has cut short my days.
24 I say, "O my God, please do not take me away in the middle of my life!
You endure through all generations.
25 In earlier times you established the earth;
the skies are your handiwork.
26 They will perish,
but you will endure.
They will wear out like a garment;
like clothes you will remove them and they will disappear.
27 But you remain;
your years do not come to an end.
28 The children of your servants will settle down here, and their descendants will live securely in your presence."

103

By David.

1 Praise the LORD, O my soul!
With all that is within me, praise his holy name!
2 Praise the LORD, O my soul!
Do not forget all his kind deeds!
3 He is the one who forgives all your sins, who heals all your diseases,
4 who delivers your life from the Pit, who crowns you with his loyal love and compassion, 5 who satisfies your life with good things, so your youth is renewed like an eagle's.
6 The LORD does what is fair, and executes justice for all the oppressed.
7 The LORD revealed his faithful acts to Moses, his deeds to the Israelites.
8 The LORD is compassionate and merciful;
he is patient and demonstrates great loyal love.
9 He does not always accuse, and does not stay angry.
10 He does not deal with us as our sins deserve;
he does not repay us as our misdeeds deserve.
11 For as the skies are high above the earth,
so his loyal love towers over his faithful followers.
12 As far as the eastern horizon is from the west, so he removes the guilt of our rebellious actions from us.
13 As a father has compassion on his children, so the LORD has compassion on his faithful followers.
14 For he knows what we are made of;
he realizes we are made of clay.
15 A person's life is like grass.
Like a flower in the field it flourishes, 16 but when the hot wind blows by, it disappears, and one can no longer even spot the place where it once grew.

<sup>17</sup> But the LORD continually shows loyal love to his faithful followers, and is faithful to their descendants,

<sup>18</sup> to those who keep his covenant, who are careful to obey his commands.

<sup>19</sup> The LORD has established his throne in heaven;
his kingdom extends over everything.

<sup>20</sup> Praise the LORD, you angels of his, you powerful warriors who carry out his decrees and obey his orders!

<sup>21</sup> Praise the LORD, all you warriors of his,
you servants of his who carry out his desires!

<sup>22</sup> Praise the LORD, all that he has made, in all the regions of his kingdom!
Praise the LORD, O my soul!

104

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD my God, you are magnificent.
You are robed in splendor and majesty.

<sup>2</sup> He covers himself with light as if it were a garment.
He stretches out the skies like a tent curtain,

<sup>3</sup> and lays the beams of the upper rooms of his palace on the rain clouds.
He makes the clouds his chariot, and travels along on the wings of the wind.

<sup>4</sup> He makes the winds his messengers, and the flaming fire his attendant.

<sup>5</sup> He established the earth on its foundations;
it will never be upended.

<sup>6</sup> The watery deep covered it like a garment;
the waters reached above the mountains.

<sup>7</sup> Your shout made the waters retreat;
at the sound of your thunderous voice they hurried off –

<sup>8</sup> as the mountains rose up, and the valleys went down – to the place you appointed for them.

<sup>9</sup> You set up a boundary for them that they could not cross, so that they would not cover the earth again.

<sup>10</sup> He turns springs into streams;
they flow between the mountains.

<sup>11</sup> They provide water for all the animals in the field;
the wild donkeys quench their thirst.

<sup>12</sup> The birds of the sky live beside them;
they chirp among the bushes.

<sup>13</sup> He waters the mountains from the upper rooms of his palace;
the earth is full of the fruit you cause to grow.

<sup>14</sup> He provides grass for the cattle, and crops for people to cultivate,
so they can produce food from the ground,

<sup>15</sup> as well as wine that makes people feel so good, and so they can have oil to make their faces shine,

as well as food that sustains people's lives.
<sup>16</sup> The trees of the LORD receive all the rain they need,
the cedars of Lebanon which he planted, <sup>17</sup> where the birds make nests, near the evergreens in which the herons live.
<sup>18</sup> The wild goats live in the high mountains;
the rock badgers find safety in the cliffs.
<sup>19</sup> He made the moon to mark the months, and the sun sets according to a regular schedule.
<sup>20</sup> You make it dark and night comes, during which all the beasts of the forest prowl around.
<sup>21</sup> The lions roar for prey, seeking their food from God.
<sup>22</sup> When the sun rises, they withdraw and sleep in their dens.
<sup>23</sup> Men then go out to do their work, and labor away until evening.
<sup>24</sup> How many living things you have made, O LORD!
You have exhibited great skill in making all of them;
the earth is full of the living things you have made.
<sup>25</sup> Over here is the deep, wide sea, which teems with innumerable swimming creatures, living things both small and large.
<sup>26</sup> The ships travel there, and over here swims the whale you made to play in it.
<sup>27</sup> All of your creatures wait for you to provide them with food on a regular basis.
<sup>28</sup> You give food to them and they receive it;
you open your hand and they are filled with food.
<sup>29</sup> When you ignore them, they panic.
When you take away their life's breath, they die and return to dust.
<sup>30</sup> When you send your life-giving breath, they are created, and you replenish the surface of the ground.
<sup>31</sup> May the splendor of the LORD endure!
May the LORD find pleasure in the living things he has made!
<sup>32</sup> He looks down on the earth and it shakes;
he touches the mountains and they start to smolder.
<sup>33</sup> I will sing to the LORD as long as I live;
I will sing praise to my God as long as I exist!
<sup>34</sup> May my thoughts be pleasing to him!
I will rejoice in the LORD.
<sup>35</sup> May sinners disappear from the earth, and the wicked vanish!
Praise the LORD, O my soul!

<sup>1</sup> Give thanks to the LORD!
Call on his name!
Make known his accomplishments among the nations!

<sup>2</sup> Sing to him!
Make music to him!
Tell about all his miraculous deeds!
<sup>3</sup> Boast about his holy name!
Let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice!
<sup>4</sup> Seek the LORD and the strength he gives!
Seek his presence continually!
<sup>5</sup> Recall the miraculous deeds he performed, his mighty acts and the judgments he decreed, <sup>6</sup> O children of Abraham, God's servant,
you descendants of Jacob, God's chosen ones!
<sup>7</sup> He is the LORD our God;
he carries out judgment throughout the earth.
<sup>8</sup> He always remembers his covenantal decree, the promise he made to a thousand generations – <sup>9</sup> the promise he made to Abraham, the promise he made by oath to Isaac!
<sup>10</sup> He gave it to Jacob as a decree, to Israel as a lasting promise, <sup>11</sup> saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan as the portion of your inheritance."
<sup>12</sup> When they were few in number, just a very few, and resident aliens within it, <sup>13</sup> they wandered from nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another.
<sup>14</sup> He let no one oppress them;
he disciplined kings for their sake, <sup>15</sup> saying, "Don't touch my chosen ones!
Don't harm my prophets!"
<sup>16</sup> He called down a famine upon the earth;
he cut off all the food supply.
<sup>17</sup> He sent a man ahead of them –
Joseph was sold as a servant.
<sup>18</sup> The shackles hurt his feet;
his neck was placed in an iron collar, <sup>19</sup> until the time when his prediction came true.
The LORD's word proved him right.
<sup>20</sup> The king authorized his release;
the ruler of nations set him free.
<sup>21</sup> He put him in charge of his palace, and made him manager of all his property, <sup>22</sup> giving him authority to imprison his officials and to teach his advisers.
<sup>23</sup> Israel moved to Egypt;
Jacob lived for a time in the land of Ham.
<sup>24</sup> The LORD made his people |strong="H5971" very fruitful, and made them more numerous than their enemies.
<sup>25</sup> He caused them to hate his people, and to mistreat his servants.
<sup>26</sup> He sent his servant Moses, and Aaron, whom he had chosen.

<sup>27</sup> They executed his miraculous signs among them, and his amazing deeds in the land of Ham.
<sup>28</sup> He made it dark;
they did not disobey his orders.
<sup>29</sup> He turned their water into blood, and killed their fish.
<sup>30</sup> Their land was overrun by frogs, which even got into the rooms of their kings.
<sup>31</sup> He ordered flies to come;
gnats invaded their whole territory.
<sup>32</sup> He sent hail along with the rain;
there was lightning in their land.
<sup>33</sup> He destroyed their vines and fig trees, and broke the trees throughout their territory.
<sup>34</sup> He ordered locusts to come, innumerable grasshoppers.
<sup>35</sup> They ate all the vegetation in their land, and devoured the crops of their fields.
<sup>36</sup> He struck down all the firstborn in their land, the firstfruits of their reproductive power.
<sup>37</sup> He brought his people out enriched with silver and gold;
none of his tribes stumbled.
<sup>38</sup> Egypt was happy when they left,
for they were afraid of them.
<sup>39</sup> He spread out a cloud for a cover, and provided a fire to light up the night.
<sup>40</sup> They asked for food, and he sent quails;
he satisfied them with food from the sky.
<sup>41</sup> He opened up a rock and water flowed out;
a river ran through dry regions.
<sup>42</sup> Yes, he remembered the sacred promise he made to Abraham his servant.
<sup>43</sup> When he led his people out, they rejoiced; his chosen ones shouted with joy.
<sup>44</sup> He handed the territory of nations over to them, and they took possession of what other peoples had produced, <sup>45</sup> so that they might keep his commands and obey his laws.

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD! | strong="H3034"
Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
and his loyal love endures!
<sup>2</sup> Who can adequately recount the LORD's mighty acts, or relate all his praiseworthy deeds?
<sup>3</sup> How blessed are those who promote justice, and do what is right all the time!
<sup>4</sup> Remember me, O LORD, when you show favor to your people!
Pay attention to me, when you deliver, <sup>5</sup> so I may see the prosperity of your chosen ones, rejoice along with your nation,

and boast along with the people who belong to you.

<sup>6</sup> We have sinned like our ancestors;
we have done wrong, we have done evil.

<sup>7</sup> Our ancestors in Egypt failed to appreciate your miraculous deeds, they failed to remember your many acts of loyal love, and they rebelled at the sea, by the Red Sea.

<sup>8</sup> Yet he delivered them for the sake of his reputation, that he might reveal his power.

<sup>9</sup> He shouted at the Red Sea and it dried up;
he led them through the deep water as if it were a desert.

<sup>10</sup> He delivered them from the power of the one who hated them, and rescued them from the power of the enemy.

<sup>11</sup> The water covered their enemies;
not even one of them survived.

<sup>12</sup> They believed his promises;
they sang praises to him.

<sup>13</sup> They quickly forgot what he had done;
they did not wait for his instructions.

<sup>14</sup> In the wilderness they had an insatiable craving for meat;
they challenged God in the desert.

<sup>15</sup> He granted their request, then struck them with a disease.

<sup>16</sup> In the camp they resented Moses, and Aaron, the LORD's holy priest.

<sup>17</sup> The earth opened up and swallowed Dathan;
it engulfed the group led by Abiram.

<sup>18</sup> Fire burned their group;
the flames scorched the wicked.

<sup>19</sup> They made an image of a calf at Horeb, and worshiped a metal idol.

<sup>20</sup> They traded their majestic God for the image of an ox that eats grass.

<sup>21</sup> They rejected the God who delivered them, the one who performed great deeds in Egypt,

<sup>22</sup> amazing feats in the land of Ham, mighty acts by the Red Sea.

<sup>23</sup> He threatened to destroy them, but Moses, his chosen one, interceded with him and turned back his destructive anger.

<sup>24</sup> They rejected the fruitful land;
they did not believe his promise.

<sup>25</sup> They grumbled in their tents;
they did not obey the LORD.

<sup>26</sup> So he made a solemn vow that he would make them die in the desert,

<sup>27</sup> make their descendants die among the nations, and scatter them among foreign lands.

<sup>28</sup> They worshiped Baal of Peor, and ate sacrifices offered to the dead.

<sup>29</sup> They made the LORD angry | strong="H3707" by their actions, and a plague broke out among them.

<sup>30</sup> Phinehas took a stand and intervened, and the plague subsided.

<sup>31</sup> This brought him a reward, an eternal gift.

<sup>32</sup> They made him angry by the waters of Meribah, and Moses suffered because of them,

<sup>33</sup> for they aroused his temper, and he spoke rashly.

<sup>34</sup> They did not destroy the nations, as the LORD | strong="H3069" had commanded them to do.

<sup>35</sup> They mixed in with the nations and learned their ways.

<sup>36</sup> They worshiped their idols, which became a snare to them.

<sup>37</sup> They sacrificed their sons and daughters to demons.

<sup>38</sup> They shed innocent blood –
the blood of their sons and daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan.
The land was polluted by bloodshed.

<sup>39</sup> They were defiled by their deeds, and unfaithful in their actions.

<sup>40</sup> So the LORD was angry with his people and despised the people who belong to him.

<sup>41</sup> He handed them over to the nations, and those who hated them ruled over them.

<sup>42</sup> Their enemies oppressed them;
they were subject to their authority.

<sup>43</sup> Many times he delivered them, but they had a rebellious attitude, and degraded themselves by their sin.

<sup>44</sup> Yet he took notice of their distress, when he heard their cry for help.

<sup>45</sup> He remembered his covenant with them, and relented because of his great loyal love.

<sup>46</sup> He caused all their conquerors to have pity on them.

<sup>47</sup> Deliver us, O LORD, our God!
Gather us from among the nations!
Then we will give thanks to your holy name,
and boast about your praiseworthy deeds.

<sup>48</sup> The LORD God of Israel deserves praise,
in the future and forevermore.
Let all the people say, "We agree! Praise the LORD | strong="H3050"!"

107

<sup>1</sup> Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
and his loyal love endures!

<sup>2</sup> Let those delivered by the LORD speak out, those whom he delivered from the power of the enemy,

<sup>3</sup> and gathered from foreign lands, from east and west,

from north and south.

<sup>4</sup> They wandered through the wilderness on a desert road;
they found no city in which to live.

<sup>5</sup> They were hungry and thirsty;
they fainted from exhaustion.

<sup>6</sup> They cried out to the LORD | strong="H3069" in their distress;
he delivered them from their troubles.

<sup>7</sup> He led them on a level road, that they might find a city in which to live.

<sup>8</sup> Let them give thanks to the LORD for his loyal love,
and for the amazing things he has done for people!

<sup>9</sup> For he has satisfied those who thirst, and those who hunger he has filled with food.

<sup>10</sup> They sat in utter darkness, bound in painful iron chains,

<sup>11</sup> because they had rebelled against God's commands, and rejected the instructions of the sovereign king.

<sup>12</sup> So he used suffering to humble them;
they stumbled and no one helped them up.

<sup>13</sup> They cried out to the LORD | strong="H3069" in their distress;
he delivered them from their troubles.

<sup>14</sup> He brought them out of the utter darkness, and tore off their shackles.

<sup>15</sup> Let them give thanks to the LORD for his loyal love,
and for the amazing things he has done for people!

<sup>16</sup> For he shattered the bronze gates, and hacked through the iron bars.

<sup>17</sup> They acted like fools in their rebellious ways, and suffered because of their sins.

<sup>18</sup> They lost their appetite for all food, and they drew near the gates of death.

<sup>19</sup> They cried out to the LORD | strong="H3069" in their distress;
he delivered them from their troubles.

<sup>20</sup> He sent them an assuring word and healed them;
he rescued them from the pits where they were trapped.

<sup>21</sup> Let them give thanks to the LORD for his loyal love,
and for the amazing things he has done for people!

<sup>22</sup> Let them present thank offerings, and loudly proclaim what he has done!

<sup>23</sup>

Some traveled on the sea in ships, and carried cargo over the vast waters.

<sup>24</sup> They witnessed the acts of the LORD, his amazing feats on the deep water.

<sup>25</sup> He gave the order for a windstorm, and it stirred up the waves of the sea.

<sup>26</sup> They reached up to the sky, then dropped into the depths.

The sailors' strength left them because the danger was so great.

<sup>27</sup> They swayed and staggered like a drunk, and all their skill proved ineffective.

<sup>28</sup> They cried out to the LORD | strong="H3069" in their distress;
he delivered them from their troubles.

<sup>29</sup> He calmed the storm, and the waves grew silent.

<sup>30</sup> The sailors rejoiced because the waves grew quiet, and he led them to the harbor they desired.

<sup>31</sup> Let them give thanks to the LORD for his loyal love,
and for the amazing things he has done for people!

<sup>32</sup> Let them exalt him in the assembly of the people!
Let them praise him in the place where the leaders preside!

<sup>33</sup> He turned streams into a desert, springs of water into arid land,

<sup>34</sup> and a fruitful land into a barren place, because of the sin of its inhabitants.

<sup>35</sup> As for his people, he turned a desert into a pool of water, and a dry land into springs of water.

<sup>36</sup> He allowed the hungry to settle there, and they established a city in which to live.

<sup>37</sup> They cultivated fields, and planted vineyards,
which yielded a harvest of fruit.

<sup>38</sup> He blessed them so that they became very numerous.
He would not allow their cattle to decrease in number.

<sup>39</sup> As for their enemies, they decreased in number and were beaten down, because of painful distress and suffering.

<sup>40</sup> He would pour contempt upon princes, and he made them wander in a wasteland with no road.

<sup>41</sup> Yet he protected the needy from oppression, and cared for his families like a flock of sheep.

<sup>42</sup> When the godly see this, they rejoice, and every sinner shuts his mouth.

<sup>43</sup> Whoever is wise, let him take note of these things!
Let them consider the LORD's acts of loyal love!

108

A song, a psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> I am determined, O God!
I will sing and praise you with my whole heart.

<sup>2</sup> Awake, O stringed instrument and harp!
I will wake up at dawn!

<sup>3</sup> I will give you thanks before the nations, O LORD!
I will sing praises to you before foreigners!

<sup>4</sup> For your loyal love extends beyond the sky,
and your faithfulness reaches the clouds.

May your splendor cover the whole earth!

<sup>6</sup> Deliver by your power and answer me,
so that the ones you love may be safe.

<sup>7</sup> God has spoken in his sanctuary:
"I will triumph! I will parcel out Shechem,

the valley of Succoth I will measure off.

<sup>8</sup> Gilead belongs to me,
as does Manasseh!
Ephraim is my helmet,
Judah my royal scepter.

<sup>9</sup> Moab is my wash basin.
I will make Edom serve me.
I will shout in triumph over Philistia.”

<sup>10</sup> Who will lead me into the fortified city?
Who will bring me to Edom?

<sup>11</sup> Have you not rejected us, O God?
O God, you do not go into battle with our armies.

<sup>12</sup> Give us help against the enemy,
for any help men might offer is futile.

<sup>13</sup> By God's power we will conquer;
he will trample down our enemies.

109

For the music director, a psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> O God whom I praise, do not ignore me!

they lie to me.

<sup>3</sup> They surround me and say hateful things;
they attack me for no reason.

<sup>4</sup> They repay my love with accusations, but I continue to pray.

<sup>5</sup> They repay me evil for good, and hate for love.

<sup>6</sup>
Appoint an evil man to testify against him!
May an accuser stand at his right side!

<sup>7</sup> When he is judged, he will be found guilty!
Then his prayer will be regarded as sinful.

<sup>8</sup> May his days be few!
May another take his job!

<sup>9</sup> May his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow!

<sup>10</sup> May his children roam around begging, asking for handouts as they leave their ruined home!

<sup>11</sup> May the creditor seize all he owns!
May strangers loot his property!

<sup>12</sup> May no one show him kindness!
May no one have compassion on his fatherless children!

<sup>13</sup> May his descendants be cut off!
May the memory of them be wiped out by the time the next generation arrives!

<sup>14</sup> May his ancestors' sins be remembered by the LORD!
May his mother's sin not be forgotten!

<sup>15</sup> May the LORD be constantly aware of them, and cut off the memory of his children from the earth!

<sup>16</sup> For he never bothered to show kindness;
he harassed the oppressed and needy, and killed the disheartened.

<sup>17</sup> He loved to curse others, so those curses have come upon him.
He had no desire to bless anyone, so he has experienced no blessings.

<sup>18</sup> He made cursing a way of life, so curses poured into his stomach like water and seeped into his bones like oil.

<sup>19</sup> May a curse attach itself to him, like a garment one puts on, or a belt one wears continually!

<sup>20</sup> May the LORD repay my accusers in this way, those who say evil things about me!

<sup>21</sup> O sovereign LORD, intervene on my behalf for the sake of your reputation!
Because your loyal love is good, deliver me!

<sup>22</sup> For I am oppressed and needy, and my heart beats violently within me.

<sup>23</sup> I am fading away like a shadow at the end of the day;
I am shaken off like a locust.

<sup>24</sup> I am so starved my knees shake;
I have turned into skin and bones.

<sup>25</sup> I am disdained by them.
When they see me, they shake their heads.

<sup>26</sup> Help me, O LORD my God!
Because you are faithful to me, deliver me!

<sup>27</sup> Then they will realize this is your work, and that you, LORD, have accomplished it.

<sup>28</sup> They curse, but you will bless.
When they attack, they will be humiliated, but your servant will rejoice.

<sup>29</sup> My accusers will be covered with shame, and draped in humiliation as if it were a robe.

<sup>30</sup> I will thank the LORD profusely, in the middle of a crowd I will praise him,

<sup>31</sup> because he stands at the right hand of the needy, to deliver him from those who threaten his life.

110

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> Here is the LORD's proclamation to my lord:
"Sit down at my right hand until I make your enemies your footstool!"

<sup>2</sup> The LORD extends your dominion from Zion.
Rule in the midst of your enemies!

<sup>3</sup> Your people willingly follow you when you go into battle.
On the holy hills at sunrise the dew of your youth belongs to you.

<sup>4</sup> The LORD makes this promise on oath and will not revoke it:
"You are an eternal priest after the pattern of Melchizedek."

<sup>5</sup> O sovereign LORD, at your right hand he strikes down kings in the day he unleashes his anger.

<sup>6</sup> He executes judgment against the nations;
he fills the valleys with corpses;
he shatters their heads over the vast battlefield.

<sup>7</sup> From the stream along the road he drinks;

then he lifts up his head.

111

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD | strong="H3050"!

I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart, in the assembly of the godly and the congregation.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD's deeds are great, eagerly awaited by all who desire them.

<sup>3</sup> His work is majestic and glorious, and his faithfulness endures forever.

<sup>4</sup> He does amazing things that will be remembered;
the LORD is merciful and compassionate.

<sup>5</sup> He gives food to his faithful followers;
he always remembers his covenant.

<sup>6</sup> He announced that he would do mighty deeds for his people, giving them a land that belonged to other nations.

<sup>7</sup> His acts are characterized by faithfulness and justice;
all his precepts are reliable.

<sup>8</sup> They are forever firm, and should be faithfully and properly carried out.

<sup>9</sup> He delivered his people;
he ordained that his covenant be observed forever.
His name is holy and awesome.

<sup>10</sup> To obey the LORD is the fundamental principle for wise living;
all who carry out his precepts acquire good moral insight.
He will receive praise forever.

112

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD | strong="H3050"!

How blessed is the one who obeys the LORD, who takes great delight in keeping his commands.

<sup>2</sup> His descendants will be powerful on the earth;
the godly will be blessed.

<sup>3</sup> His house contains wealth and riches;
his integrity endures.

<sup>4</sup> In the darkness a light shines for the godly, for each one who is merciful, compassionate, and just.

<sup>5</sup> It goes well for the one who generously lends money, and conducts his business honestly.

<sup>6</sup> For he will never be upended; others will always remember one who is just.

<sup>7</sup> He does not fear bad news.
He is confident; he trusts in the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> His resolve is firm; he will not succumb to fear before he looks in triumph on his enemies.

<sup>9</sup> He generously gives to the needy;
his integrity endures.

He will be vindicated and honored.

<sup>10</sup> When the wicked see this, they will worry;
they will grind their teeth in frustration and melt away;
the desire of the wicked will perish.

113

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD | strong="H3050"!
Praise, you servants of the LORD,
praise the name of the LORD!
<sup>2</sup> May the LORD's name be praised now and forevermore!
<sup>3</sup> From east to west the LORD's name is deserving of praise.
<sup>4</sup> The LORD is exalted over all the nations;
his splendor reaches beyond the sky.
<sup>5</sup> Who can compare to the LORD our God, who sits on a high throne?
<sup>6</sup> He bends down to look at the sky and the earth.
<sup>7</sup> He raises the poor from the dirt, and lifts up the needy from the garbage pile, <sup>8</sup> that he might seat him with princes, with the princes of his people.
<sup>9</sup> He makes the barren woman of the family a happy mother of children.
Praise the LORD | strong="H3050"!

114

<sup>1</sup> When Israel left Egypt, when the family of Jacob left a foreign nation behind, <sup>2</sup> Judah became his sanctuary,
Israel his kingdom.
<sup>3</sup> The sea looked and fled;
the Jordan River turned back.
<sup>4</sup> The mountains skipped like rams, the hills like lambs.
<sup>5</sup> Why do you flee, O sea?
Why do you turn back, O Jordan River?
<sup>6</sup> Why do you skip like rams, O mountains, like lambs, O hills?
<sup>7</sup> Tremble, O earth, before the Lord –
before the God of Jacob, <sup>8</sup> who turned a rock into a pool of water, a hard rock into springs of water!

115

<sup>1</sup> Not to us, O LORD, not to us!
But to your name bring honor,
for the sake of your loyal love and faithfulness.
<sup>2</sup> Why should the nations say,
“Where is their God?”
<sup>3</sup> Our God is in heaven!
He does whatever he pleases!
<sup>4</sup> Their idols are made of silver and gold – they are man-made.
<sup>5</sup> They have mouths, but cannot speak,
eyes, but cannot see,

<sup>6</sup> ears, but cannot hear,
noses, but cannot smell, <sup>7</sup> hands, but cannot touch, feet, but cannot walk.
They cannot even clear their throats.
<sup>8</sup> Those who make them will end up like them,
as will everyone who trusts in them.
<sup>9</sup> O Israel, trust in the LORD!
He is their deliverer and protector.
<sup>10</sup> O family of Aaron, trust in the LORD!
He is their deliverer and protector.
<sup>11</sup> You loyal followers of the LORD, trust in the LORD!
He is their deliverer and protector.
<sup>12</sup> The LORD takes notice of us, he will bless – he will bless the family of Israel, he will bless the family of Aaron.
<sup>13</sup> He will bless his loyal followers, both young and old.
<sup>14</sup> May he increase your numbers, yours and your children's!
<sup>15</sup> May you be blessed by the LORD,
the creator of heaven and earth!
<sup>16</sup> The heavens belong to the LORD, but the earth he has given to mankind.
<sup>17</sup> The dead do not praise the LORD | strong="H3050", nor do any of those who descend into the silence of death.
<sup>18</sup> But we will praise the LORD | strong="H3050"
now and forevermore.
Praise the LORD | strong="H3050"!

116

<sup>1</sup> I love the LORD because he heard my plea for mercy, <sup>2</sup> and listened to me.
As long as I live, I will call to him when I need help.
<sup>3</sup> The ropes of death tightened around me, the snares of Sheol confronted me.
I was confronted with trouble and sorrow.
<sup>4</sup> I called on the name of the LORD,
“Please LORD, rescue my life!”
<sup>5</sup> The LORD is merciful and fair;
our God is compassionate.
<sup>6</sup> The LORD protects the untrained;
I was in serious trouble and he delivered me.
<sup>7</sup> Rest once more, my soul, for the LORD has vindicated you.
<sup>8</sup> Yes, LORD, you rescued my life from death, and kept my feet from stumbling.
<sup>9</sup> I will serve the LORD in the land of the living.
<sup>10</sup> I had faith when I said,
“I am severely oppressed.”

<sup>11</sup> I rashly declared,
"All men are liars."
<sup>12</sup> How can I repay the LORD for all his acts of kindness to me?
<sup>13</sup> I will celebrate my deliverance, and call on the name of the LORD.
<sup>14</sup> I will fulfill my vows to the LORD
before all his people.
<sup>15</sup> The LORD values the lives of his faithful followers.
<sup>16</sup> Yes, LORD! I am indeed your servant;
I am your lowest slave.
You saved me from death.
<sup>17</sup> I will present a thank offering to you,
and call on the name of the LORD.
<sup>18</sup> I will fulfill my vows to the LORD
before all his people, <sup>19</sup> in the courts of the LORD's temple, in your midst, O Jerusalem.
Praise the LORD | strong="H3050"!

117

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD, all you nations!
Applaud him, all you foreigners!
<sup>2</sup> For his loyal love towers over us, and the LORD's faithfulness endures.
Praise the LORD | strong="H3050"!

118

<sup>1</sup> Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good
and his loyal love endures!
<sup>2</sup> Let Israel say,
"Yes, his loyal love endures!"
<sup>3</sup> Let the family of Aaron say,
"Yes, his loyal love endures!"
<sup>4</sup> Let the loyal followers of the LORD say,
"Yes, his loyal love endures!"
<sup>5</sup> In my distress I cried out to the LORD | strong="H3050".
The LORD | strong="H3050" answered me and put me in a wide open place.
<sup>6</sup> The LORD is on my side, I am not afraid!
What can people do to me?
<sup>7</sup> The LORD is on my side as my helper.
I look in triumph on those who hate me.
<sup>8</sup> It is better to take shelter in the LORD than to trust in people.
<sup>9</sup> It is better to take shelter in the LORD than to trust in princes.
<sup>10</sup> All the nations surrounded me.
Indeed, in the name of the LORD I pushed them away.
<sup>11</sup> They surrounded me, yes, they surrounded me.
Indeed, in the name of the LORD I pushed them away.
<sup>12</sup> They surrounded me like bees.

But they disappeared as quickly as a fire among thorns.
 Indeed, in the name of the LORD I pushed them away.
<sup>13</sup> "You aggressively attacked me and tried to knock me down, but the LORD helped me.
<sup>14</sup> The LORD | strong="H3050" gives me strength and protects me;
 he has become my deliverer."
<sup>15</sup> They celebrate deliverance in the tents of the godly.
 The LORD's right hand conquers,
<sup>16</sup> the LORD's right hand gives victory,
 the LORD's right hand conquers.
<sup>17</sup> I will not die, but live, and I will proclaim what the LORD | strong="H3050" has done.
<sup>18</sup> The LORD | strong="H3050" severely punished me, but he did not hand me over to death.
<sup>19</sup> Open for me the gates of the just king's temple!
 I will enter through them and give thanks to the LORD | strong="H3050".
<sup>20</sup> This is the LORD's gate – the godly enter through it.
<sup>21</sup> I will give you thanks, for you answered me, and have become my deliverer.
<sup>22</sup> The stone which the builders discarded has become the cornerstone.
<sup>23</sup> This is the LORD's work.
 We consider it amazing!
<sup>24</sup> This is the day the LORD has brought about.
 We will be happy and rejoice in it.
<sup>25</sup> Please LORD, deliver!
 Please LORD, grant us success!
<sup>26</sup> May the one who comes in the name of the LORD be blessed!
 We will pronounce blessings on you in the LORD's temple.
<sup>27</sup> The LORD is God and he has delivered us.
 Tie the offering with ropes to the horns of the altar!
<sup>28</sup> You are my God and I will give you thanks!
 You are my God and I will praise you!
<sup>29</sup> Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good and his loyal love endures!

which you made to the one who honors you.

Yet I do not turn aside from your law.

<sup>52</sup> I remember your ancient regulations,
O LORD | strong="H3069", and console myself.
<sup>53</sup> Rage takes hold of me because of the wicked, those who reject your law.
<sup>54</sup> Your statutes have been my songs in the house where I live.
<sup>55</sup> I remember your name during the night, O LORD | strong="H3069", and I will keep your law.
<sup>56</sup> This has been my practice,
for I observe your precepts.

so that I might learn your statutes.
<sup>72</sup> The law you have revealed is more important to me than thousands of pieces of gold and silver.

Give me understanding so that I might learn your commands.
<sup>74</sup> Your loyal followers will be glad when they see me,

<sup>76</sup> May your loyal love console me, as you promised your servant.

<sup>77</sup> May I experience your compassion, so I might live!
For I find delight in your law.

<sup>78</sup> May the arrogant be humiliated, for they have slandered me!

so that I might not be ashamed.

כ (Kaf)

<sup>81</sup> I desperately long for your deliverance.
I find hope in your word.

<sup>82</sup> My eyes grow tired as I wait for your promise to be fulfilled.
I say, "When will you comfort me?"

<sup>83</sup> For I am like a wineskin dried up in smoke.
I do not forget your statutes.

<sup>84</sup> How long must your servant endure this?
When will you judge those who pursue me?

<sup>85</sup> The arrogant dig pits to trap me, which violates your law.

<sup>86</sup> All your commands are reliable.
I am pursued without reason. Help me!

<sup>87</sup> They have almost destroyed me here on the earth, but I do not reject your precepts.

for I observe your precepts.

so that I might keep your instructions.

for you teach me.

Therefore I hate all deceitful actions.

י (Nun)

105 Your word is a lamp to walk by,
and a light to illumine my path.

106 I have vowed and solemnly sworn to keep your just regulations.

so that I can observe the commands of my God.

116 Sustain me as you promised, so that I will live.
Do not disappoint me!

117 Support me, so that I will be delivered.
Then I will focus on your statutes continually.

118 You despise all who stray from your statutes, for they are deceptive and unreliable.

119 You remove all the wicked of the earth like slag.
Therefore I love your rules.

120 My body trembles because I fear you;
I am afraid of your judgments.

ע (Ayin)

121 I do what is fair and right.
Do not abandon me to my oppressors!
122 Guarantee the welfare of your servant!
Do not let the arrogant oppress me!
123 My eyes grow tired as I wait for your deliverance, for your reliable promise to be fulfilled.
124 Show your servant your loyal love!
Teach me your statutes!
125 I am your servant. Give me insight, so that I can understand your rules.
126 It is time for the LORD | strong="H3069" to act –
they break your law!
127 For this reason I love your commands more than gold, even purest gold.
128 For this reason I carefully follow all your precepts.
I hate all deceitful actions.

☞ (Pe)

129 Your rules are marvelous.
Therefore I observe them.
130 Your instructions are a doorway through which light shines.
They give insight to the untrained.
131 I open my mouth and pant, because I long for your commands.
132 Turn toward me and extend mercy to me, as you typically do to your loyal followers.
133 Direct my steps by your word!
Do not let any sin dominate me!
134 Deliver me from oppressive men, so that I can keep your precepts.
135 Smile on your servant!
Teach me your statutes!
136 Tears stream down from my eyes, because people do not keep your law.

⚡ (Tsade)

137 You are just, O LORD, and your judgments are fair.
138 The rules you impose are just,
and absolutely reliable.
139 My zeal consumes me,
for my enemies forget your instructions.
140 Your word is absolutely pure, and your servant loves it!
141 I am insignificant and despised, yet I do not forget your precepts.
142 Your justice endures, and your law is reliable.
143 Distress and hardship confront me, yet I find delight in your commands.
144 Your rules remain just.
Give me insight so that I can live.

𐤒 (Qof)

145 I cried out with all my heart, "Answer me, O LORD!
I will observe your statutes."

146 I cried out to you, "Deliver me, so that I can keep your rules."

147 I am up before dawn crying for help.
I find hope in your word.

148 My eyes anticipate the nighttime hours, so that I can meditate on your word.

149 Listen to me because of your loyal love!
O LORD | strong="H3069", revive me, as you typically do!

150 Those who are eager to do wrong draw near;
they are far from your law.

151 You are near, O LORD | strong="H3069", and all your commands are reliable.

152 I learned long ago that you ordained your rules to last.

𐤓 (Resh)

153 See my pain and rescue me!
For I do not forget your law.

154 Fight for me and defend me!
Revive me with your word!

155 The wicked have no chance for deliverance, for they do not seek your statutes.

156 Your compassion is great, O LORD | strong="H3069".
Revive me, as you typically do!

157 The enemies who chase me are numerous.
Yet I do not turn aside from your rules.

158 I take note of the treacherous and despise them, because they do not keep your instructions.

159 See how I love your precepts!
O LORD | strong="H3069", revive me with your loyal love!

160 Your instructions are totally reliable;
all your just regulations endure.

𐤔/𐤕 (Sin/Shin)

161 Rulers pursue me for no reason, yet I am more afraid of disobeying your instructions.

162 I rejoice in your instructions, like one who finds much plunder.

163 I hate and despise deceit;
I love your law.

164 Seven times a day I praise you because of your just regulations.

165 Those who love your law are completely secure;
nothing causes them to stumble.

166 I hope for your deliverance, O LORD | strong="H3069", and I obey your commands.

167 I keep your rules;

I love them greatly.

<sup>168</sup> I keep your precepts and rules, for you are aware of everything I do.

<sup>169</sup> Listen to my cry for help, O LORD!

Give me insight by your word!

<sup>170</sup> Listen to my appeal for mercy!

Deliver me, as you promised.

<sup>171</sup> May praise flow freely from my lips, for you teach me your statutes.

<sup>172</sup> May my tongue sing about your instructions, for all your commands are just.

<sup>173</sup> May your hand help me, for I choose to obey your precepts.

<sup>174</sup> I long for your deliverance, O LORD | strong="H3069";
I find delight in your law.

<sup>175</sup> May I live and praise you!
May your regulations help me!

<sup>176</sup> I have wandered off like a lost sheep.
Come looking for your servant,
for I do not forget your commands.

120

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup> In my distress I cried out to the LORD and he answered me.

<sup>2</sup> I said, "O LORD, rescue me from those who lie with their lips and those who deceive with their tongue.

<sup>3</sup> How will he severely punish you, you deceptive talker?

<sup>4</sup> Here's how! With the sharp arrows of warriors, with arrowheads forged over the hot coals.

<sup>5</sup> How miserable I am!
For I have lived temporarily in Meshech;
I have resided among the tents of Kedar.

<sup>6</sup> For too long I have had to reside with those who hate peace.

<sup>7</sup> I am committed to peace, but when I speak, they want to make war.

121

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup> I look up toward the hills.
From where does my help come?

<sup>2</sup> My help comes from the LORD,
the Creator of heaven and earth!

<sup>3</sup> May he not allow your foot to slip!
May your protector not sleep!

<sup>4</sup> Look! Israel's protector does not sleep or slumber!

<sup>5</sup> The LORD is your protector;
the LORD is the shade at your right hand.
<sup>6</sup> The sun will not harm you by day, or the moon by night.
<sup>7</sup> The LORD will protect you from all harm;
he will protect your life.
<sup>8</sup> The LORD will protect you in all you do,
now and forevermore.

122

A song of ascents, by David.

<sup>1</sup> I was glad because they said to me,
“We will go to the LORD’s temple.”
<sup>2</sup> Our feet are standing inside your gates, O Jerusalem.
<sup>3</sup> Jerusalem is a city designed to accommodate an assembly.
<sup>4</sup> The tribes go up there,
the tribes of the LORD | strong="H3050", where it is required that Israel give thanks to the name of the LORD.
<sup>5</sup> Indeed, the leaders sit there on thrones and make legal decisions, on the thrones of the house of David.
<sup>6</sup> Pray for the peace of Jerusalem!
May those who love her prosper!
<sup>7</sup> May there be peace inside your defenses, and prosperity inside your fortresses!
<sup>8</sup> For the sake of my brothers and my neighbors
I will say, “May there be peace in you!”
<sup>9</sup> For the sake of the temple of the LORD our God
I will pray for you to prosper.

123

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup> I look up toward you,
the one enthroned in heaven.
<sup>2</sup> Look, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a female servant look to the hand of her mistress, so my eyes will look to the LORD, our God, until he shows us favor.
<sup>3</sup> Show us favor, O LORD, show us favor!
For we have had our fill of humiliation, and then some.
<sup>4</sup> We have had our fill of the taunts of the self-assured, of the contempt of the proud.

124

A song of ascents, by David.

<sup>1</sup> “If the LORD had not been on our side” – let Israel say this! – <sup>2</sup> if the LORD had not been on our side, when men attacked us, <sup>3</sup> they would have swallowed us alive, when their anger raged against us.

<sup>4</sup> The water would have overpowered us;
the current would have overwhelmed us.
<sup>5</sup> The raging water would have overwhelmed us.
<sup>6</sup> The LORD deserves praise, for he did not hand us over as prey to their teeth.
<sup>7</sup> We escaped with our lives, like a bird from a hunter's snare.
The snare broke, and we escaped.
<sup>8</sup> Our deliverer is the LORD,
the Creator of heaven and earth.

125

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup> Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion;
it cannot be upended and will endure forever.
<sup>2</sup> As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the LORD surrounds his people,
now and forevermore.
<sup>3</sup> Indeed, the scepter of a wicked king will not settle upon the allotted land of the godly.
Otherwise the godly might do what is wrong.
<sup>4</sup> Do good, O LORD, to those who are good,
to the morally upright!
<sup>5</sup> As for those who are bent on traveling a sinful path, may the LORD remove them, along with those who behave wickedly!
May Israel experience peace!

126

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup> When the LORD restored the well-being of Zion, we thought we were dreaming.
<sup>2</sup> At that time we laughed loudly and shouted for joy.
At that time the nations said,
"The LORD has accomplished great things for these people."
<sup>3</sup> The LORD did indeed accomplish great things for us.
We were happy.
<sup>4</sup> O LORD, restore our well-being, just as the streams in the arid south are replenished.
<sup>5</sup> Those who shed tears as they plant will shout for joy when they reap the harvest.
<sup>6</sup> The one who weeps as he walks along, carrying his bag of seed, will certainly come in with a shout of joy, carrying his sheaves of grain.

127

A song of ascents, by Solomon.

<sup>1</sup> If the LORD does not build a house, then those who build it work in vain.
If the LORD does not guard a city, then the watchman stands guard in vain.

<sup>2</sup> It is vain for you to rise early, come home late,
and work so hard for your food.
Yes, he can provide for those whom he loves even when they sleep.
<sup>3</sup> Yes, sons are a gift from the LORD, the fruit of the womb is a reward.
<sup>4</sup> Sons born during one's youth are like arrows in a warrior's hand.
<sup>5</sup> How blessed is the man who fills his quiver with them!
They will not be put to shame when they confront enemies at the city gate.

128

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup> How blessed is every one of the LORD's | strong="H3069" loyal followers, each one who keeps his commands!
<sup>2</sup> You will eat what you worked so hard to grow.
You will be blessed and secure.
<sup>3</sup> Your wife will be like a fruitful vine in the inner rooms of your house;
your children will be like olive branches,
as they sit all around your table.
<sup>4</sup> Yes indeed, the man who fears the LORD will be blessed in this way.
<sup>5</sup> May the LORD bless you from Zion, that you might see Jerusalem prosper
all the days of your life, <sup>6</sup> and that you might see your grandchildren.
May Israel experience peace!

129

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup> "Since my youth they have often attacked me," let Israel say.
<sup>2</sup> "Since my youth they have often attacked me, but they have not defeated me.
<sup>3</sup> The plowers plowed my back;
they made their furrows long.
<sup>4</sup> The LORD is just;
he cut the ropes of the wicked."
<sup>5</sup> May all who hate Zion be humiliated and turned back!
<sup>6</sup> May they be like the grass on the rooftops which withers before one can even pull it up, <sup>7</sup> which cannot fill the reaper's hand, or the lap of the one who gathers the grain!
<sup>8</sup> Those who pass by will not say,
"May you experience the LORD's blessing!
We pronounce a blessing on you in the name of the LORD."

A song of ascents.

Pay attention to my plea for mercy!

<sup>3</sup> If you, O LORD | strong="H3050", were to keep track of sins,
O Lord, who could stand before you?

<sup>4</sup> But you are willing to forgive, so that you might be honored.

<sup>5</sup> I rely on the LORD,
I rely on him with my whole being;
I wait for his assuring word.

<sup>6</sup> I yearn for the Lord, more than watchmen do for the morning,
yes, more than watchmen do for the morning.

<sup>7</sup> O Israel, hope in the LORD, for the LORD exhibits loyal love, and is more than willing to deliver.

<sup>8</sup> He will deliver Israel from all the consequences of their sins.

131

A song of ascents, by David.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, my heart is not proud, nor do I have a haughty look.
I do not have great aspirations, or concern myself with things that are beyond me.

<sup>2</sup> Indeed I am composed and quiet, like a young child carried by its mother;
I am content like the young child I carry.

<sup>3</sup> O Israel, hope in the LORD
now and forevermore!

132

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, for David's sake remember all his strenuous effort, <sup>2</sup> and how he made a vow to the LORD, and swore an oath to the powerful ruler of Jacob.

<sup>3</sup> He said, "I will not enter my own home, or get into my bed.

<sup>4</sup> I will not allow my eyes to sleep, or my eyelids to slumber;

<sup>5</sup> until I find a place for the LORD,
a fine dwelling place for the powerful ruler of Jacob."

<sup>6</sup> Look, we heard about it in Ephrathah, we found it in the territory of Jaar.

<sup>7</sup> Let us go to his dwelling place!
Let us worship before his footstool!

<sup>8</sup> Ascend, O LORD, to your resting place, you and the ark of your strength!

<sup>9</sup> May your priests be clothed with integrity!
May your loyal followers shout for joy!

<sup>10</sup> For the sake of David, your servant, do not reject your chosen king!

<sup>11</sup> The LORD made a reliable promise to David;
he will not go back on his word.
He said, "I will place one of your descendants on your throne.
<sup>12</sup> If your sons keep my covenant and the rules I teach them, their sons will also sit on your throne forever."
<sup>13</sup> Certainly the LORD has chosen Zion; he decided to make it his home.
<sup>14</sup> He said, "This will be my resting place forever;
I will live here, for I have chosen it.
<sup>15</sup> I will abundantly supply what she needs;
I will give her poor all the food they need.
<sup>16</sup> I will protect her priests, and her godly people will shout exuberantly.
<sup>17</sup> There I will make David strong;
I have determined that my chosen king's dynasty will continue.
<sup>18</sup> I will humiliate his enemies, and his crown will shine.

133

A song of ascents, by David.

<sup>1</sup> Look! How good and how pleasant it is when brothers live together!
<sup>2</sup> It is like fine oil poured on the head which flows down the beard – Aaron's beard,
and then flows down his garments.
<sup>3</sup> It is like the dew of Hermon, which flows down upon the hills of Zion.
Indeed that is where the LORD has decreed a blessing will be available – eternal life.

134

A song of ascents.

<sup>1</sup> Attention! Praise the LORD, all you servants of the LORD, who serve in the LORD's temple during the night.
<sup>2</sup> Lift your hands toward the sanctuary and praise the LORD!
<sup>3</sup> May the LORD, the Creator of heaven and earth, bless you from Zion!

135

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD | strong="H3050"!
Praise the name of the LORD!
Offer praise, you servants of the LORD, <sup>2</sup> who serve in the LORD's temple, in the courts of the temple of our God.
<sup>3</sup> Praise the LORD | strong="H3050", for the LORD is good!
Sing praises to his name, for it is pleasant!
<sup>4</sup> Indeed, the LORD | strong="H3050" has chosen Jacob for himself, Israel to be his special possession.

<sup>5</sup> Yes, I know the LORD is great, and our Lord is superior to all gods.
<sup>6</sup> He does whatever he pleases in heaven and on earth,
in the seas and all the ocean depths.
<sup>7</sup> He causes the clouds to arise from the end of the earth, makes lightning bolts accompany the rain, and brings the wind out of his storehouses.
<sup>8</sup> He struck down the firstborn of Egypt, including both men and animals.
<sup>9</sup> He performed awesome deeds and acts of judgment in your midst, O Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants.
<sup>10</sup> He defeated many nations, and killed mighty kings – <sup>11</sup> Sihon, king of the Amorites, and Og, king of Bashan,
and all the kingdoms of Canaan.
<sup>12</sup> He gave their land as an inheritance, as an inheritance to Israel his people.
<sup>13</sup> O LORD, your name endures, your reputation, O LORD, lasts.
<sup>14</sup> For the LORD vindicates his people, and has compassion on his servants.
<sup>15</sup> The nations' idols are made of silver and gold,
they are man-made.
<sup>16</sup> They have mouths, but cannot speak,
eyes, but cannot see,
<sup>17</sup> and ears, but cannot hear.
Indeed, they cannot breathe.
<sup>18</sup> Those who make them will end up like them,
as will everyone who trusts in them.
<sup>19</sup> O family of Israel, praise the LORD!
O family of Aaron, praise the LORD!
<sup>20</sup> O family of Levi, praise the LORD!
You loyal followers of the LORD, praise the LORD!
<sup>21</sup> The LORD deserves praise in Zion – he who dwells in Jerusalem.
Praise the LORD | strong="H3050"!

for his loyal love endures.

137

<sup>1</sup> By the rivers of Babylon we sit down and weep
when we remember Zion.
<sup>2</sup> On the poplars in her midst
we hang our harps, <sup>3</sup> for there our captors ask us to compose songs;
those who mock us demand that we be happy, saying:

“Sing for us a song about Zion!”

<sup>4</sup> How can we sing a song to the LORD in a foreign land?

<sup>5</sup> If I forget you, O Jerusalem, may my right hand be crippled!

<sup>6</sup> May my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth, if I do not remember you,
and do not give Jerusalem priority over whatever gives me the most joy.

<sup>7</sup> Remember, O LORD, what the Edomites did on the day Jerusalem fell.

They said, “Tear it down, tear it down, right to its very foundation!”

<sup>8</sup> O daughter Babylon, soon to be devastated!
How blessed will be the one who repays you for what you dished out to us!

<sup>9</sup> How blessed will be the one who grabs your babies and smashes them on a rock!

138

By David.

<sup>1</sup> I will give you thanks with all my heart;
before the heavenly assembly I will sing praises to you.

<sup>2</sup> I will bow down toward your holy temple, and give thanks to your name,
because of your loyal love and faithfulness,
for you have exalted your promise above the entire sky.

<sup>3</sup> When I cried out for help, you answered me.
You made me bold and energized me.

<sup>4</sup> Let all the kings of the earth give thanks to you, O LORD, when they hear the words you speak.

<sup>5</sup> Let them sing about the LORD’s deeds, for the LORD’s splendor is magnificent.

<sup>6</sup> Though the LORD is exalted, he takes note of the lowly, and recognizes the proud from far away.

<sup>7</sup> Even when I must walk in the midst of danger, you revive me.
You oppose my angry enemies, and your right hand delivers me.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD avenges me.

O LORD, your loyal love endures.

Do not abandon those whom you have made!

139

For the music director, a psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, you examine me and know.

even from far away you understand my motives.

<sup>3</sup> You carefully observe me when I travel or when I lie down to rest;
you are aware of everything I do.

<sup>4</sup> Certainly my tongue does not frame a word without you, O LORD, being thoroughly aware of it.

<sup>5</sup> You squeeze me in from behind and in front;
you place your hand on me.
<sup>6</sup> Your knowledge is beyond my comprehension;
it is so far beyond me, I am unable to fathom it.
<sup>7</sup> Where can I go to escape your spirit?
Where can I flee to escape your presence?
<sup>8</sup> If I were to ascend to heaven, you would be there.
If I were to sprawl out in Sheol, there you would be.
<sup>9</sup> If I were to fly away on the wings of the dawn, and settle down on the other side of the sea, <sup>10</sup> even there your hand would guide me, your right hand would grab hold of me.
<sup>11</sup> If I were to say, "Certainly the darkness will cover me, and the light will turn to night all around me," <sup>12</sup> even the darkness is not too dark for you to see, and the night is as bright as day;
darkness and light are the same to you.
<sup>13</sup> Certainly you made my mind and heart;
you wove me together in my mother's womb.
<sup>14</sup> I will give you thanks because your deeds are awesome and amazing.
You knew me thoroughly;
<sup>15</sup> my bones were not hidden from you, when I was made in secret and sewed together in the depths of the earth.
<sup>16</sup> Your eyes saw me when I was inside the womb.
All the days ordained for me were recorded in your scroll before one of them came into existence.
<sup>17</sup> How difficult it is for me to fathom your thoughts about me, O God!
How vast is their sum total!
<sup>18</sup> If I tried to count them, they would outnumber the grains of sand.
Even if I finished counting them,
I would still have to contend with you.
<sup>19</sup> If only you would kill the wicked, O God!
Get away from me, you violent men!
<sup>20</sup> They rebel against you and act deceitfully;
your enemies lie.
<sup>21</sup> O LORD, do I not hate those who hate you, and despise those who oppose you?
<sup>22</sup> I absolutely hate them,
they have become my enemies!
<sup>23</sup> Examine me, and probe my thoughts!
Test me, and know my concerns!
<sup>24</sup> See if there is any idolatrous tendency in me, and lead me in the reliable ancient path!

140

For the music director; a psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, rescue me from wicked men!
Protect me from violent men,

<sup>2</sup> who plan ways to harm me.
All day long they stir up conflict.
<sup>3</sup> Their tongues wound like a serpent;
a viper's venom is behind their lips. (Selah) <sup>4</sup> O LORD, shelter me from the power of the wicked!
Protect me from violent men,
who plan to knock me over.
<sup>5</sup> Proud men hide a snare for me;
evil men spread a net by the path;
they set traps for me. (Selah)
<sup>6</sup> I say to the LORD, "You are my God."
O LORD, pay attention to my plea for mercy!
<sup>7</sup> O sovereign LORD, my strong deliverer, you shield my head in the day of battle.
<sup>8</sup> O LORD, do not let the wicked have their way!
Do not allow their plan to succeed when they attack! (Selah) <sup>9</sup> As for the heads of those who surround me – may the harm done by their lips overwhelm them!
<sup>10</sup> May he rain down fiery coals upon them!
May he throw them into the fire!
From bottomless pits they will not escape.
<sup>11</sup> A slanderer will not endure on the earth;
calamity will hunt down a violent man and strike him down.
<sup>12</sup> I know that the LORD defends the cause of the oppressed and vindicates the poor.
<sup>13</sup> Certainly the godly will give thanks to your name;
the morally upright will live in your presence.

141

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, I cry out to you. Come quickly to me!
Pay attention to me when I cry out to you!
<sup>2</sup> May you accept my prayer like incense, my uplifted hands like the evening offering!
<sup>3</sup> O LORD, place a guard on my mouth!
Protect the opening of my lips!
<sup>4</sup> Do not let me have evil desires, or participate in sinful activities with men who behave wickedly.
I will not eat their delicacies.
<sup>5</sup> May the godly strike me in love and correct me!
May my head not refuse choice oil!
Indeed, my prayer is a witness against their evil deeds.
<sup>6</sup> They will be thrown down the side of a cliff by their judges.
They will listen to my words, for they are pleasant.
<sup>7</sup> As when one plows and breaks up the soil, so our bones are scattered at the mouth of Sheol.
<sup>8</sup> Surely I am looking to you, O sovereign LORD.
In you I take shelter.
Do not expose me to danger!
<sup>9</sup> Protect me from the snare they have laid for me, and the traps the evildoers have set.

<sup>10</sup> Let the wicked fall into their own nets, while I escape.

142

A well-written song by David, when he was in the cave; a prayer.

<sup>1</sup> To the LORD I cry out; to the LORD I plead for mercy.
<sup>2</sup> I pour out my lament before him;
I tell him about my troubles.
<sup>3</sup> Even when my strength leaves me, you watch my footsteps.
In the path where I walk
they have hidden a trap for me.
<sup>4</sup> Look to the right and see!
No one cares about me.
I have nowhere to run;
no one is concerned about my life.
<sup>5</sup> I cry out to you, O LORD;
I say, "You are my shelter, my security in the land of the living."
<sup>6</sup> Listen to my cry for help, for I am in serious trouble!
Rescue me from those who chase me,
for they are stronger than I am.
<sup>7</sup> Free me from prison, that I may give thanks to your name.
Because of me the godly will assemble, for you will vindicate me.

143

A psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, hear my prayer!
Pay attention to my plea for help!
Because of your faithfulness and justice, answer me!
<sup>2</sup> Do not sit in judgment on your servant, for no one alive is innocent before you.
<sup>3</sup> Certainly my enemies chase me.
They smash me into the ground.
They force me to live in dark regions,
like those who have been dead for ages.
<sup>4</sup> My strength leaves me;
I am absolutely shocked.
<sup>5</sup> I recall the old days;
I meditate on all you have done;
I reflect on your accomplishments.
<sup>6</sup> I spread my hands out to you in prayer;
my soul thirsts for you in a parched land.
<sup>7</sup> Answer me quickly, LORD!
My strength is fading.
Do not reject me,

or I will join those descending into the grave.

<sup>8</sup> May I hear about your loyal love in the morning, for I trust in you.

Show me the way I should go,
because I long for you.

<sup>9</sup> Rescue me from my enemies, O LORD!
I run to you for protection.

<sup>10</sup> Teach me to do what pleases you, for you are my God.

May your kind presence lead me into a level land.

<sup>11</sup> O LORD, for the sake of your reputation, revive me!
Because of your justice, rescue me from trouble!

<sup>12</sup> As a demonstration of your loyal love, destroy my enemies!
Annihilate all who threaten my life,
for I am your servant.

144

By David.

<sup>1</sup> The LORD, my protector, deserves praise – the one who trains my hands for battle, and my fingers for war,

<sup>2</sup> who loves me and is my stronghold, my refuge and my deliverer,
my shield and the one in whom I take shelter, who makes nations submit to me.

<sup>3</sup> O LORD | strong="H3069", of what importance is the human race, that you should notice them?

Of what importance is mankind, that you should be concerned about them?

<sup>4</sup> People are like a vapor, their days like a shadow that disappears.

<sup>5</sup> O LORD, make the sky sink and come down!
Touch the mountains and make them smolder!

<sup>6</sup> Hurl lightning bolts and scatter them!
Shoot your arrows and rout them!

<sup>7</sup> Reach down from above!
Grab me and rescue me from the surging water, from the power of foreigners,

<sup>8</sup> who speak lies,
and make false promises.

<sup>9</sup> O God, I will sing a new song to you!
Accompanied by a ten-stringed instrument, I will sing praises to you,

<sup>10</sup> the one who delivers kings, and rescued David his servant from a deadly sword.

<sup>11</sup> Grab me and rescue me from the power of foreigners, who speak lies,
and make false promises.

<sup>12</sup> Then our sons will be like plants, that quickly grow to full size.
Our daughters will be like corner pillars, carved like those in a palace.

<sup>13</sup> Our storehouses will be full, providing all kinds of food.
Our sheep will multiply by the thousands and fill our pastures.
<sup>14</sup> Our cattle will be weighted down with produce.
No one will break through our walls,
no one will be taken captive, and there will be no terrified cries in our city squares.
<sup>15</sup> How blessed are the people who experience these things!
How blessed are the people whose God is the LORD!

145

A psalm of praise, by David.

<sup>1</sup> I will extol you, my God, O king!
I will praise your name continually!
<sup>2</sup> Every day I will praise you!
I will praise your name continually!
<sup>3</sup> The LORD is great and certainly worthy of praise!
No one can fathom his greatness!
<sup>4</sup> One generation will praise your deeds to another, and tell about your mighty acts!
<sup>5</sup> I will focus on your honor and majestic splendor, and your amazing deeds!
<sup>6</sup> They will proclaim the power of your awesome acts!
I will declare your great deeds!
<sup>7</sup> They will talk about the fame of your great kindness, and sing about your justice.
<sup>8</sup> The LORD is merciful and compassionate;
he is patient and demonstrates great loyal love.
<sup>9</sup> The LORD is good to all,
and has compassion on all he has made.
<sup>10</sup> All he has made will give thanks to the LORD.
Your loyal followers will praise you.
<sup>11</sup> They will proclaim the splendor of your kingdom;
they will tell about your power, <sup>12</sup> so that mankind might acknowledge your mighty acts, and the majestic splendor of your kingdom.
<sup>13</sup> Your kingdom is an eternal kingdom, and your dominion endures through all generations.
<sup>14</sup>
The LORD supports all who fall, and lifts up all who are bent over.
<sup>15</sup> Everything looks to you in anticipation, and you provide them with food on a regular basis.
<sup>16</sup> You open your hand, and fill every living thing with the food they desire.
<sup>17</sup> The LORD is just in all his actions, and exhibits love in all he does.
<sup>18</sup> The LORD is near all who cry out to him, all who cry out to him sincerely.
<sup>19</sup> He satisfies the desire of his loyal followers;

he hears their cry for help and delivers them.

<sup>20</sup> The LORD protects those who love him, but he destroys all the wicked.

<sup>21</sup> My mouth will praise the LORD.

Let all who live praise his holy name forever!

146

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD | strong="H3050"!

Praise the LORD, O my soul!

<sup>2</sup> I will praise the LORD as long as I live!

I will sing praises to my God as long as I exist!

<sup>3</sup> Do not trust in princes, or in human beings, who cannot deliver!

<sup>4</sup> Their life's breath departs, they return to the ground; on that day their plans die.

<sup>5</sup> How blessed is the one whose helper is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the LORD his God,

<sup>6</sup> the one who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them,
who remains forever faithful,

<sup>7</sup> vindicates the oppressed, and gives food to the hungry.
The LORD releases the imprisoned.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD gives sight to the blind.
The LORD lifts up all who are bent over.
The LORD loves the godly.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD protects those residing outside their native land;
he lifts up the fatherless and the widow,
but he opposes the wicked.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD rules forever,
your God, O Zion, throughout the generations to come!
Praise the LORD | strong="H3050"!

147

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD | strong="H3050",
for it is good to sing praises to our God!
Yes, praise is pleasant and appropriate!

<sup>2</sup> The LORD rebuilds Jerusalem, and gathers the exiles of Israel.

<sup>3</sup> He heals the brokenhearted, and bandages their wounds.

<sup>4</sup> He counts the number of the stars;
he names all of them.

<sup>5</sup> Our Lord is great and has awesome power;
there is no limit to his wisdom.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD lifts up the oppressed, but knocks the wicked to the ground.

<sup>7</sup> Offer to the LORD a song of thanks!
Sing praises to our God to the accompaniment of a harp!

<sup>8</sup> He covers the sky with clouds, provides the earth with rain,

and causes grass to grow on the hillsides.
9 He gives food to the animals, and to the young ravens when they chirp.
10 He is not enamored with the strength of a horse, nor is he impressed by the warrior's strong legs.
11 The LORD takes delight in his faithful followers, and in those who wait for his loyal love.
12 Extol the LORD, O Jerusalem!
Praise your God, O Zion!
13 For he makes the bars of your gates strong.
He blesses your children within you.
14 He brings peace to your territory.
He abundantly provides for you the best grain.
15 He sends his command through the earth;
swiftly his order reaches its destination.
16 He sends the snow that is white like wool;
he spreads the frost that is white like ashes.
17 He throws his hailstones like crumbs.
Who can withstand the cold wind he sends?
18 He then orders it all to melt;
he breathes on it, and the water flows.
19 He proclaims his word to Jacob, his statutes and regulations to Israel.
20 He has not done so with any other nation;
they are not aware of his regulations.
Praise the LORD | strong="H3050"!

148

1 Praise the LORD | strong="H3050"!
Praise the LORD from the sky!
Praise him in the heavens!
2 Praise him, all his angels!
Praise him, all his heavenly assembly!
3 Praise him, O sun and moon!
Praise him, all you shiny stars!
4 Praise him, O highest heaven, and you waters above the sky!
5 Let them praise the name of the LORD, for he gave the command and they came into existence.
6 He established them so they would endure;
he issued a decree that will not be revoked.
7 Praise the LORD from the earth, you sea creatures and all you ocean depths,
8 O fire and hail, snow and clouds,
O stormy wind that carries out his orders, 9 you mountains and all you hills,
you fruit trees and all you cedars, 10 you animals and all you cattle,
you creeping things and birds, 11 you kings of the earth and all you nations, you princes and all you leaders on the earth,

<sup>12</sup> you young men and young women, you elderly, along with you children!
<sup>13</sup> Let them praise the name of the LORD, for his name alone is exalted;
his majesty extends over the earth and sky.
<sup>14</sup> He has made his people victorious, and given all his loyal followers reason to praise –
the Israelites, the people who are close to him.
Praise the LORD | strong="H3050"!

149

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD | strong="H3050"!
Sing to the LORD a new song!
Praise him in the assembly of the godly!
<sup>2</sup> Let Israel rejoice in their Creator!
Let the people of Zion delight in their king!
<sup>3</sup> Let them praise his name with dancing!
Let them sing praises to him to the accompaniment of the tambourine and harp!
<sup>4</sup> For the LORD takes delight in his people; he exalts the oppressed by delivering them.
<sup>5</sup> Let the godly rejoice because of their vindication!
Let them shout for joy upon their beds!
<sup>6</sup> May they praise God while they hold a two-edged sword in their hand, <sup>7</sup> in order to take revenge on the nations, and punish foreigners.
<sup>8</sup> They bind their kings in chains, and their nobles in iron shackles, <sup>9</sup> and execute the judgment to which their enemies have been sentenced.
All his loyal followers will be vindicated.

Proverbs

Introduction to the Book

- <sup>1</sup> The Proverbs of Solomon son of David, king of Israel:
<sup>2</sup> To learn wisdom and moral instruction, and to discern wise counsel.
<sup>3</sup> To receive moral instruction in skillful living, in righteousness, justice, and equity.
<sup>4</sup> To impart shrewdness to the morally naive, and a discerning plan to the young person.
<sup>5</sup> (Let the wise also hear and gain instruction, and let the discerning acquire guidance! ) <sup>6</sup> To discern the meaning of a proverb and a parable, the sayings of the wise and their riddles.

Introduction to the Theme of the Book

- <sup>7</sup> Fearing the LORD is the beginning of moral knowledge, but fools despise wisdom and instruction.
<sup>8</sup> Listen, my child, to the instruction from your father, and do not forsake the teaching from your mother.
<sup>9</sup> For they will be like an elegant garland on your head, and like pendants around your neck.

Admonition to Avoid Easy but Unjust Riches

- <sup>10</sup> My child, if sinners try to entice you, do not consent!
<sup>11</sup> If they say, "Come with us!
We will lie in wait to shed blood;
we will ambush an innocent person capriciously.
<sup>12</sup> We will swallow them alive like Sheol, those full of vigor like those going down to the Pit.
<sup>13</sup> We will seize all kinds of precious wealth;
we will fill our houses with plunder.
<sup>14</sup> Join with us!
We will all share equally in what we steal."
<sup>15</sup> My child, do not go down their way, withhold yourself from their path; <sup>16</sup> for they are eager to inflict harm, and they hasten to shed blood.
<sup>17</sup> Surely it is futile to spread a net in plain sight of any bird, <sup>18</sup> but these men lie in wait for their own blood, they ambush their own lives!
<sup>19</sup> Such are the ways of all who gain profit unjustly;
it takes away the life of those who obtain it!

Warning Against Disregarding Wisdom

- <sup>20</sup> Wisdom calls out in the street, she shouts loudly in the plazas;
<sup>21</sup> at the head of the noisy streets she calls, in the entrances of the gates in the city she utters her words:

<sup>22</sup> “How long will you simpletons love naiveté?
How long will mockers delight in mockery and fools hate knowledge?
<sup>23</sup> If only you will respond to my rebuke, then I will pour out my thoughts to you and I will make my words known to you.
<sup>24</sup> However, because I called but you refused to listen, because I stretched out my hand but no one paid attention, <sup>25</sup> because you neglected all my advice, and did not comply with my rebuke, <sup>26</sup> so I myself will laugh when disaster strikes you,
I will mock when what you dread comes,
<sup>27</sup> when what you dread comes like a whirlwind, and disaster strikes you like a devastating storm,
when distressing trouble comes on you.
<sup>28</sup> Then they will call to me, but I will not answer; they will diligently seek me, but they will not find me.
<sup>29</sup> Because they hated moral knowledge, and did not choose to fear the LORD, <sup>30</sup> they did not comply with my advice, they spurned all my rebuke.
<sup>31</sup> Therefore they will eat from the fruit of their way, and they will be stuffed full of their own counsel.
<sup>32</sup> For the waywardness of the simpletons will kill them, and the careless ease of fools will destroy them.
<sup>33</sup> But the one who listens to me will live in security, and will be at ease from the dread of harm.

2

<sup>1</sup> My child, if you receive my words, and store up my commands within you, <sup>2</sup> by making your ear attentive to wisdom, and by turning your heart to understanding, <sup>3</sup> indeed, if you call out for discernment – raise your voice for understanding – <sup>4</sup> if you seek it like silver, and search for it like hidden treasure, <sup>5</sup> then you will understand how to fear the LORD, and you will discover knowledge about God.
<sup>6</sup> For the LORD gives wisdom, and from his mouth comes knowledge and understanding.
<sup>7</sup> He stores up effective counsel for the upright, and is like a shield for those who live with integrity, <sup>8</sup> to guard the paths of the righteous and to protect the way of his pious ones.
<sup>9</sup> Then you will understand righteousness and justice and equity – every good way.
<sup>10</sup> For wisdom will enter your heart, and moral knowledge will be attractive to you.

<sup>11</sup> Discretion will protect you, understanding will guard you, <sup>12</sup> to deliver you from the way of the wicked, from those speaking perversity, <sup>13</sup> who leave the upright paths to walk on the dark ways, <sup>14</sup> who delight in doing evil, they rejoice in perverse evil;
<sup>15</sup> whose paths are morally crooked, and who are devious in their ways; <sup>16</sup> to deliver you from the adulteress, from the sexually loose woman who speaks flattering words; <sup>17</sup> who leaves the husband from her younger days, and forgets her marriage covenant made before God.
<sup>18</sup> For her house sinks down to death, and her paths lead to the place of the departed spirits.
<sup>19</sup> None who go in to her will return, nor will they reach the paths of life.
<sup>20</sup> So you will walk in the way of good people, and will keep on the paths of the righteous.
<sup>21</sup> For the upright will reside in the land, and those with integrity will remain in it, <sup>22</sup> but the wicked will be removed from the land, and the treacherous will be torn away from it.

3

<sup>1</sup> My child, do not forget my teaching,
but let your heart keep my commandments, <sup>2</sup> for they will provide a long and full life,
and they will add well-being to you.
<sup>3</sup> Do not let truth and mercy leave you;
bind them around your neck,
write them on the tablet of your heart.
<sup>4</sup> Then you will find favor and good understanding, in the sight of God and people.
<sup>5</sup> Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not rely on your own understanding.
<sup>6</sup> Acknowledge him in all your ways, and he will make your paths straight.
<sup>7</sup> Do not be wise in your own estimation; fear the LORD and turn away from evil.
<sup>8</sup> This will bring healing to your body, and refreshment to your inner self.
<sup>9</sup> Honor the LORD from your wealth and from the first fruits of all your crops; <sup>10</sup> then your barns will be filled completely, and your vats will overflow with new wine.
<sup>11</sup> My child, do not despise discipline from the LORD, and do not loathe his rebuke.
<sup>12</sup> For the LORD disciplines those he loves, just as a father disciplines the son in whom he delights.

Blessings of Obtaining Wisdom

<sup>13</sup> Blessed is the one who finds wisdom, and the one who obtains understanding.

<sup>14</sup> For her benefit is more profitable than silver, and her gain is better than gold.

<sup>15</sup> She is more precious than rubies, and none of the things you desire can compare with her.

<sup>16</sup> Long life is in her right hand;
in her left hand are riches and honor.

<sup>17</sup> Her ways are very pleasant, and all her paths are peaceful.

<sup>18</sup> She is like a tree of life to those who obtain her, and everyone who grasps hold of her will be blessed.

<sup>19</sup> By wisdom the LORD laid the foundation of the earth;
he established the heavens by understanding.

<sup>20</sup> By his knowledge the primordial sea was broken open, and the clouds drip down dew.

<sup>21</sup> My child, do not let them escape from your sight;
safeguard sound wisdom and discretion.

<sup>22</sup> So they will give life to you, and grace to adorn your neck.

<sup>23</sup> Then you will walk on your way with security, and you will not stumble.

<sup>24</sup> When you lie down you will not be filled with fear;
when you lie down your sleep will be pleasant.

<sup>25</sup> You will not be afraid of sudden disaster, or when destruction overtakes the wicked;

<sup>26</sup> for the LORD will be the source of your confidence, and he will guard your foot from being caught in a trap.

Wisdom Demonstrated in Relationships with People

<sup>27</sup> Do not withhold good from those who need it, when you have the ability to help.

<sup>28</sup> Do not say to your neighbor, "Go! Return tomorrow and I will give it," when you have it with you at the time.

<sup>29</sup> Do not plot evil against your neighbor when he dwells by you unsuspectingly.

<sup>30</sup> Do not accuse anyone without legitimate cause, if he has not treated you wrongly.

<sup>31</sup> Do not envy a violent man, and do not choose to imitate any of his ways;

<sup>32</sup> for one who goes astray is an abomination to the LORD, but he reveals his intimate counsel to the upright.

<sup>33</sup> The LORD's curse is on the household of the wicked, but he blesses the home of the righteous.

<sup>34</sup> Although he is scornful to arrogant scoffers, yet he shows favor to the humble.

<sup>35</sup> The wise inherit honor, but he holds fools up to public contempt.

4

- <sup>1</sup> Listen, children, to a father's instruction, and pay attention so that you may gain discernment.
- <sup>2</sup> Because I give you good instruction, do not forsake my teaching.
- <sup>3</sup> When I was a son to my father,
a tender only child before my mother,
- <sup>4</sup> he taught me, and he said to me:
"Let your heart lay hold of my words;
keep my commands so that you will live.
- <sup>5</sup> Acquire wisdom, acquire understanding;
do not forget and do not turn aside from the words I speak.
- <sup>6</sup> Do not forsake wisdom, and she will protect you;
love her, and she will guard you.
- <sup>7</sup> Wisdom is supreme – so acquire wisdom, and whatever you acquire, acquire understanding!
- <sup>8</sup> Esteem her highly and she will exalt you;
she will honor you if you embrace her.
- <sup>9</sup> She will place a fair garland on your head;
she will bestow a beautiful crown on you."
- <sup>10</sup> Listen, my child, and accept my words, so that the years of your life will be many.
- <sup>11</sup> I will guide you in the way of wisdom and I will lead you in upright paths.
- <sup>12</sup> When you walk, your steps will not be hampered, and when you run, you will not stumble.
- <sup>13</sup> Hold on to instruction, do not let it go;
protect it, because it is your life.
- <sup>14</sup> Do not enter the path of the wicked or walk in the way of those who are evil.
- <sup>15</sup> Avoid it, do not go on it;
turn away from it, and go on.
- <sup>16</sup> For they cannot sleep unless they cause harm;
they are robbed of sleep until they make someone stumble.
- <sup>17</sup> For they eat bread gained from wickedness and drink wine obtained from violence.
- <sup>18</sup> But the path of the righteous is like the bright morning light, growing brighter and brighter until full day.
- <sup>19</sup> The way of the wicked is like gloomy darkness;
they do not know what causes them to stumble.
- <sup>20</sup> My child, pay attention to my words;
listen attentively to my sayings.
- <sup>21</sup> Do not let them depart from your sight, guard them within your heart;
- <sup>22</sup> for they are life to those who find them and healing to one's entire body.
- <sup>23</sup> Guard your heart with all vigilance, for from it are the sources of life.
- <sup>24</sup> Remove perverse speech from your mouth;
keep devious talk far from your lips.

<sup>25</sup> Let your eyes look directly in front of you and let your gaze look straight before you.

<sup>26</sup> Make the path for your feet level, so that all your ways may be established.

<sup>27</sup> Do not turn to the right or to the left;
turn yourself away from evil.

5

<sup>1</sup> My child, be attentive to my wisdom, pay close attention to my understanding,

<sup>2</sup> in order to safeguard discretion, and that your lips may guard knowledge.

<sup>3</sup> For the lips of the adulterous woman drip honey, and her seductive words are smoother than olive oil,

<sup>4</sup> but in the end she is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword.

<sup>5</sup> Her feet go down to death;
her steps lead straight to the grave.

<sup>6</sup> Lest she should make level the path leading to life, her paths are unstable but she does not know it.

<sup>7</sup> So now, children, listen to me;
do not turn aside from the words I speak.

<sup>8</sup> Keep yourself far from her,
and do not go near the door of her house,

<sup>9</sup> lest you give your vigor to others and your years to a cruel person,

<sup>10</sup> lest strangers devour your strength, and your labor benefit another man's house.

<sup>11</sup> And at the end of your life you will groan when your flesh and your body are wasted away.

<sup>12</sup> And you will say, "How I hated discipline!
My heart spurned reproof!

<sup>13</sup> For I did not obey my teachers and I did not heed my instructors.

<sup>14</sup> I almost came to complete ruin in the midst of the whole congregation!"

<sup>15</sup> Drink water from your own cistern and running water from your own well.

<sup>16</sup> Should your springs be dispersed outside, your streams of water in the wide plazas?

<sup>17</sup> Let them be for yourself alone, and not for strangers with you.

<sup>18</sup> May your fountain be blessed, and may you rejoice in your young wife –

<sup>19</sup> a loving doe, a graceful deer;
may her breasts satisfy you at all times,
may you be captivated by her love always.

<sup>20</sup> But why should you be captivated, my son, by an adulteress, and embrace the bosom of a different woman?

<sup>21</sup> For the ways of a person are in front of the LORD's | strong="H5227" eyes, and the LORD | strong="H3069" weighs all that person's paths.

<sup>22</sup> The wicked will be captured by his own iniquities, and he will be held by the cords of his own sin.

<sup>23</sup> He will die because there was no discipline; because of the greatness of his folly he will reel.

6

<sup>1</sup> My child, if you have made a pledge for your neighbor, and have become a guarantor for a stranger,

<sup>2</sup> if you have been ensnared by the words you have uttered, and have been caught by the words you have spoken,

<sup>3</sup> then, my child, do this in order to deliver yourself, because you have fallen into your neighbor's power:
go, humble yourself,

and appeal firmly to your neighbor.

<sup>4</sup> Permit no sleep to your eyes or slumber to your eyelids.

<sup>5</sup> Deliver yourself like a gazelle from a snare, and like a bird from the trap of the fowler.

<sup>6</sup> Go to the ant, you sluggard; observe its ways and be wise!

<sup>7</sup> It has no commander, overseer, or ruler,

<sup>8</sup> yet it prepares its food in the summer;
it gathers at the harvest what it will eat.

<sup>9</sup> How long, you sluggard, will you lie there?
When will you rise from your sleep?

<sup>10</sup> A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to relax,

<sup>11</sup> and your poverty will come like a robber, and your need like an armed man.

<sup>12</sup> A worthless and wicked person walks around saying perverse things;

<sup>13</sup> he winks with his eyes, signals with his feet,

and points with his fingers;

<sup>14</sup> he plots evil with perverse thoughts in his heart, he spreads contention at all times.

<sup>15</sup> Therefore, his disaster will come suddenly;
in an instant he will be broken, and there will be no remedy.

<sup>16</sup> There are six things that the LORD hates, even seven things that are an abomination to him:

<sup>17</sup> haughty eyes, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood,

<sup>18</sup> a heart that devises wicked plans, feet that are swift to run to evil,

<sup>19</sup> a false witness who pours out lies,
and a person who spreads discord among family members.

<sup>20</sup> My child, guard the commands of your father and do not forsake the instruction of your mother.

<sup>21</sup> Bind them on your heart continually; fasten them around your neck.
<sup>22</sup> When you walk about, they will guide you;
when you lie down, they will watch over you;
when you wake up, they will talk to you.
<sup>23</sup> For the commandments are like a lamp, instruction is like a light, and rebukes of discipline are like the road leading to life, <sup>24</sup> by keeping you from the evil woman, from the smooth tongue of the loose woman.
<sup>25</sup> Do not lust in your heart for her beauty, and do not let her captivate you with her alluring eyes; <sup>26</sup> for on account of a prostitute one is brought down to a loaf of bread, but the wife of another man preys on your precious life.
<sup>27</sup> Can a man hold fire against his chest without burning his clothes?
<sup>28</sup> Can a man walk on hot coals without scorching his feet?
<sup>29</sup> So it is with the one who has sex with his neighbor's wife;
no one who touches her will escape punishment.
<sup>30</sup> People do not despise a thief when he steals to fulfill his need when he is hungry.
<sup>31</sup> Yet if he is caught he must repay seven times over, he might even have to give all the wealth of his house.
<sup>32</sup> A man who commits adultery with a woman lacks wisdom, whoever does it destroys his own life.
<sup>33</sup> He will be beaten and despised, and his reproach will not be wiped away; <sup>34</sup> for jealousy kindles a husband's rage, and he will not show mercy when he takes revenge.
<sup>35</sup> He will not consider any compensation;
he will not be willing, even if you multiply the compensation.

7

<sup>1</sup> My child, keep my words and treasure up my commands in your own keeping.
<sup>2</sup> Keep my commands so that you may live, and obey my instruction as your most prized possession.
<sup>3</sup> Bind them on your forearm;
write them on the tablet of your heart.
<sup>4</sup> Say to wisdom, "You are my sister," and call understanding a close relative, <sup>5</sup> so that they may keep you from the adulterous woman, from the loose woman who flatters you with her words.
<sup>6</sup> For at the window of my house through my window lattice I looked out <sup>7</sup> and I saw among the naive –
I discerned among the youths – a young man who lacked wisdom.
<sup>8</sup> He was passing by the street near her corner, making his way along the road to her house 9 in the twilight, the evening, in the dark of the night.

10 Suddenly a woman came out to meet him!
She was dressed like a prostitute and with secret intent.
11 (She is loud and rebellious, she does not remain at home – 12 at one time outside, at another in the wide plazas, and by every corner she lies in wait.) 13 So she grabbed him and kissed him, and with a bold expression she said to him, 14 “I have fresh meat at home;
today I have fulfilled my vows!
15 That is why I came out to meet you, to look for you, and I found you!
16 I have spread my bed with elegant coverings, with richly colored fabric from Egypt.
17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
18 Come, let’s drink deeply of lovemaking until morning, let’s delight ourselves with sexual intercourse.
19 For my husband is not at home;
he has gone on a journey of some distance.
20 He has taken a bag of money with him;
he will not return until the end of the month.”
21 She persuaded him with persuasive words;
with her smooth talk she compelled him.
22 Suddenly he went after her like an ox that goes to the slaughter, like a stag prancing into a trapper’s snare 23 till an arrow pierces his liver – like a bird hurrying into a trap, and he does not know that it will cost him his life.
24 So now, sons, listen to me, and pay attention to the words I speak.
25 Do not let your heart turn aside to her ways – do not wander into her pathways; 26 for she has brought down many fatally wounded, and all those she has slain are many.
27 Her house is the way to the grave, going down to the chambers of death.

8

1 Does not wisdom call out?
Does not understanding raise her voice?
2 At the top of the elevated places along the way, at the intersection of the paths she takes her stand;
3 beside the gates opening into the city, at the entrance of the doorways she cries out:
4 “To you, O people, I call out, and my voice calls to all mankind.

<sup>5</sup> You who are naive, discern wisdom!
And you fools, understand discernment!
<sup>6</sup> Listen, for I will speak excellent things, and my lips will utter what is right.
<sup>7</sup> For my mouth speaks truth, and my lips hate wickedness.
<sup>8</sup> All the words of my mouth are righteous;
there is nothing in them twisted or crooked.
<sup>9</sup> All of them are clear to the discerning and upright to those who find knowledge.
<sup>10</sup> Receive my instruction rather than silver, and knowledge rather than choice gold.
<sup>11</sup> For wisdom is better than rubies, and desirable things cannot be compared to her.
<sup>12</sup> "I, wisdom, live with prudence, and I find knowledge and discretion.
<sup>13</sup> The fear of the LORD is to hate evil;
I hate arrogant pride and the evil way and perverse utterances.
<sup>14</sup> Counsel and sound wisdom belong to me;
I possess understanding and might.
<sup>15</sup> Kings reign by means of me, and potentates decree righteousness;
<sup>16</sup> by me princes rule, as well as nobles and all righteous judges.
<sup>17</sup> I love those who love me, and those who seek me find me.
<sup>18</sup> Riches and honor are with me, long-lasting wealth and righteousness.
<sup>19</sup> My fruit is better than the purest gold, and what I produce is better than choice silver.
<sup>20</sup> I walk in the path of righteousness, in the pathway of justice, <sup>21</sup> that I may cause those who love me to inherit wealth, and that I may fill their treasuries.
<sup>22</sup> The LORD created me as the beginning of his works, before his deeds of long ago.
<sup>23</sup> From eternity I was appointed, from the beginning, from before the world existed.
<sup>24</sup> When there were no deep oceans I was born, when there were no springs overflowing with water; <sup>25</sup> before the mountains were set in place – before the hills – I was born, <sup>26</sup> before he made the earth and its fields, or the beginning of the dust of the world.
<sup>27</sup> When he established the heavens, I was there;
when he marked out the horizon over the face of the deep, <sup>28</sup> when he established the clouds above, when the fountains of the deep grew strong, <sup>29</sup> when he gave the sea his decree that the waters should not pass over his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, 30 then I was beside him as a master craftsman, and I was his delight day by day, rejoicing before him at all times, 31 rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth, and delighting in its people.

32 “So now, children, listen to me;
blessed are those who keep my ways.
33 Listen to my instruction so that you may be wise, and do not neglect it.
34 Blessed is the one who listens to me, watching at my doors day by day,
waiting beside my doorway.
35 For the one who finds me finds life and receives favor from the LORD.

1 Wisdom has built her house;
she has carved out its seven pillars.
2 She has prepared her meat, she has mixed her wine;
she also has arranged her table.
3 She has sent out her female servants;
she calls out on the highest places of the city.
4 “Whoever is naive, let him turn in here,”
she says to those who lack understanding.

14 So she sits at the door of her house, on a seat at the highest point of the city, 15 calling out to those who are passing by her in the way, who go straight on their way.
16 “Whoever is simple, let him turn in here,”
she says to those who lack understanding.

<sup>24</sup> The one who hates others disguises it with his lips, but he stores up deceit within him.
<sup>25</sup> When he speaks graciously, do not believe him, for there are seven abominations within him.
<sup>26</sup> Though his hatred may be concealed by deceit, his evil will be uncovered in the assembly.
<sup>27</sup> The one who digs a pit will fall into it;
the one who rolls a stone – it will come back on him.
<sup>28</sup> A lying tongue hates those crushed by it, and a flattering mouth works ruin.

27

<sup>1</sup> Do not boast about tomorrow; for you do not know what a day may bring forth.
<sup>2</sup> Let another praise you, and not your own mouth;
someone else, and not your own lips.
<sup>3</sup> A stone is heavy and sand is weighty, but vexation by a fool is more burdensome than the two of them.
<sup>4</sup> Wrath is cruel and anger is overwhelming, but who can stand before jealousy?
<sup>5</sup> Better is open rebuke than hidden love.
<sup>6</sup> Faithful are the wounds of a friend, but the kisses of an enemy are excessive.
<sup>7</sup> The one whose appetite is satisfied loathes honey, but to the hungry mouth every bitter thing is sweet.
<sup>8</sup> Like a bird that wanders from its nest, so is a person who wanders from his home.
<sup>9</sup> Ointment and incense make the heart rejoice, likewise the sweetness of one's friend from sincere counsel.
<sup>10</sup> Do not forsake your friend and your father's friend, and do not enter your brother's house in the day of your disaster;
a neighbor nearby is better than a brother far away.
<sup>11</sup> Be wise, my son, and make my heart glad, so that I may answer anyone who taunts me.
<sup>12</sup> A shrewd person sees danger and hides himself, but the naive keep right on going and suffer for it.
<sup>13</sup> Take a man's garment when he has given security for a stranger, and when he gives surety for a stranger, hold him in pledge.
<sup>14</sup> If someone blesses his neighbor with a loud voice early in the morning, it will be counted as a curse to him.

<sup>15</sup> A continual dripping on a rainy day and a contentious wife are alike.
<sup>16</sup> Whoever hides her hides the wind or grasps oil with his right hand.
<sup>17</sup> As iron sharpens iron,
so a person sharpens his friend.
<sup>18</sup> The one who tends a fig tree will eat its fruit, and whoever takes care of his master will be honored.
<sup>19</sup> As in water the face is reflected as a face, so a person's heart reflects the person.
<sup>20</sup> As Death and Destruction are never satisfied, so the eyes of a person are never satisfied.
<sup>21</sup> As the crucible is for silver and the furnace is for gold, so a person is proved by the praise he receives.
<sup>22</sup> If you should pound the fool in the mortar among the grain with the pestle, his foolishness would not depart from him.
<sup>23</sup> Pay careful attention to the condition of your flocks, give careful attention to your herds, <sup>24</sup> for riches do not last forever, nor does a crown last from generation to generation.
<sup>25</sup> When the hay is removed and new grass appears, and the grass from the hills is gathered in, <sup>26</sup> the lambs will be for your clothing, and the goats will be for the price of a field.
<sup>27</sup> And there will be enough goat's milk for your food, for the food of your household, and for the sustenance of your servant girls.

28

<sup>1</sup> The wicked person flees when there is no one pursuing,
but the righteous person is as confident as a lion.
<sup>2</sup> When a country is rebellious it has many princes, but by someone who is discerning and knowledgeable order is maintained.
<sup>3</sup> A poor person who oppresses the weak is like a driving rain without food.
<sup>4</sup> Those who forsake the law praise the wicked, but those who keep the law contend with them.
<sup>5</sup> Evil people do not understand justice, but those who seek the LORD |strong="H3069" understand it all.
<sup>6</sup> A poor person who walks in his integrity is better than one who is perverse in his ways even though he is rich.
<sup>7</sup> The one who keeps the law is a discerning child, but a companion of gluttons brings shame to his parents.
<sup>8</sup> The one who increases his wealth by increasing interest gathers it for someone who is gracious to the needy.
<sup>9</sup> The one who turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is an abomination.
<sup>10</sup> The one who leads the upright astray in an evil way will himself fall into his own pit, but the blameless will inherit what is good.

- <sup>11</sup> A rich person is wise in his own eyes, but a discerning poor person can evaluate him properly.
- <sup>12</sup> When the righteous rejoice, great is the glory, but when the wicked rise to power, people are sought out.
- <sup>13</sup> The one who covers his transgressions will not prosper, but whoever confesses them and forsakes them will find mercy.
- <sup>14</sup> Blessed is the one who is always cautious, but whoever hardens his heart will fall into evil.
- <sup>15</sup> Like a roaring lion or a roving bear, so is a wicked ruler over a poor people.
- <sup>16</sup> The prince who is a great oppressor lacks wisdom, but the one who hates unjust gain will prolong his days.
- <sup>17</sup> The one who is tormented by the murder of another will flee to the pit;
let no one support him.
- <sup>18</sup> The one who walks blamelessly will be delivered, but whoever is perverse in his ways will fall at once.
- <sup>19</sup> The one who works his land will be satisfied with food, but whoever chases daydreams will have his fill of poverty.
- <sup>20</sup> A faithful person will have an abundance of blessings, but the one who hastens to gain riches will not go unpunished.
- <sup>21</sup> To show partiality is terrible, for a person will transgress over the smallest piece of bread.
- <sup>22</sup> The stingy person hastens after riches and does not know that poverty will overtake him.
- <sup>23</sup> The one who reproves another will in the end find more favor than the one who flatters with the tongue.
- <sup>24</sup> The one who robs his father and mother and says, "There is no transgression," is a companion to the one who destroys.
- <sup>25</sup> The greedy person stirs up dissension, but the one who trusts in the LORD will prosper.
- <sup>26</sup> The one who trusts in his own heart is a fool, but the one who walks in wisdom will escape.
- <sup>27</sup> The one who gives to the poor will not lack, but whoever shuts his eyes to them will receive many curses.
- <sup>28</sup> When the wicked gain control, people hide themselves, but when they perish, the righteous increase.

29

- <sup>1</sup> The one who stiffens his neck after numerous rebukes will suddenly be destroyed without remedy.
- <sup>2</sup> When the righteous become numerous, the people rejoice;
when the wicked rule, the people groan.
- <sup>3</sup> The man who loves wisdom brings joy to his father, but whoever associates with prostitutes wastes his wealth.
- <sup>4</sup> A king brings stability to a land by justice, but one who exacts tribute tears it down.
- <sup>5</sup> The one who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his steps.
- <sup>6</sup> In the transgression of an evil person there is a snare, but a righteous person can sing and rejoice.
- <sup>7</sup> The righteous person cares for the legal rights of the poor;

the wicked does not understand such knowledge.

<sup>8</sup> Scornful people inflame a city, but those who are wise turn away wrath.

<sup>9</sup> If a wise person goes to court with a foolish person, there is no peace whether he is angry or laughs.

<sup>10</sup> Bloodthirsty people hate someone with integrity;
as for the upright, they seek his life.

<sup>11</sup> A fool lets fly with all his temper, but a wise person keeps it back.

<sup>12</sup> If a ruler listens to lies,
all his ministers will be wicked.

<sup>13</sup> The poor person and the oppressor have this in common:
the LORD gives light to the eyes of them both.

<sup>14</sup> If a king judges the poor in truth, his throne will be established forever.

<sup>15</sup> A rod and reproof impart wisdom, but a child who is unrestrained brings shame to his mother.

<sup>16</sup> When the wicked increase, transgression increases, but the righteous will see their downfall.

<sup>17</sup> Discipline your child, and he will give you rest;
he will bring you happiness.

<sup>18</sup> When there is no prophetic vision the people cast off restraint, but the one who keeps the law, blessed is he!

<sup>19</sup> A servant cannot be corrected by words, for although he understands, there is no answer.

<sup>20</sup> Do you see someone who is hasty in his words?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.

<sup>21</sup> If someone pampers his servant from youth, he will be a weakling in the end.

<sup>22</sup> An angry person stirs up dissension, and a wrathful person is abounding in transgression.

<sup>23</sup> A person's pride will bring him low, but one who has a lowly spirit will gain honor.

<sup>24</sup> Whoever shares with a thief is his own enemy;
he hears the oath to testify, but does not talk.

<sup>25</sup> The fear of people becomes a snare, but whoever trusts in the LORD will be set on high.

<sup>26</sup> Many people seek the face of a ruler, but it is from the LORD that one receives justice.

<sup>27</sup> An unjust person is an abomination to the righteous, and the one who lives an upright life is an abomination to the wicked.

30

This man says to Ithiel, to Ithiel and to Ukal:

<sup>2</sup> Surely I am more brutish than any other human being,
and I do not have human understanding;

<sup>3</sup> I have not learned wisdom, nor do I have knowledge of the Holy One.

<sup>4</sup> Who has ascended into heaven, and then descended?
Who has gathered up the winds in his fists?

Who has bound up the waters in his cloak?
Who has established all the ends of the earth?
What is his name, and what is his son's name? – if you know!

<sup>5</sup> Every word of God is purified;
he is like a shield for those who take refuge in him.

<sup>6</sup> Do not add to his words, lest he reprove you, and prove you to be a liar.

<sup>7</sup> Two things I ask from you;
do not refuse me before I die:

<sup>8</sup> Remove falsehood and lies far from me;
do not give me poverty or riches,
feed me with my allotted portion of bread,

<sup>9</sup> lest I become satisfied and act deceptively and say, “Who is the LORD | strong=“H3069”?”

Or lest I become poor and steal and demean the name of my God.

<sup>10</sup> Do not slander a servant to his master, lest he curse you, and you are found guilty.

<sup>11</sup> There is a generation who curse their fathers and do not bless their mothers.

<sup>12</sup> There is a generation who are pure in their own eyes and yet are not washed from their filthiness.

<sup>13</sup> There is a generation whose eyes are so lofty, and whose eyelids are lifted up disdainfully.

<sup>14</sup> There is a generation whose teeth are like swords and whose molars are like knives to devour the poor from the earth and the needy from among the human race.

<sup>15</sup> The leech has two daughters:
“Give! Give!”

There are three things that are never satisfied, four that never say, “Enough” –

<sup>16</sup> the grave, the barren womb, land that is not satisfied with water, and fire that never says, “Enough!”

<sup>17</sup> The eye that mocks at a father and despises obeying a mother – the ravens of the valley will peck it out and the young vultures will eat it.

<sup>18</sup> There are three things that are too wonderful for me, four that I do not understand:

<sup>19</sup> the way of an eagle in the sky,
the way of a snake on a rock,
the way of a ship in the sea,
and the way of a man with a woman.

<sup>20</sup> This is the way of an adulterous woman:
she eats and wipes her mouth and says, “I have not done wrong.”

<sup>21</sup> Under three things the earth trembles, and under four things it cannot bear up:

<sup>22</sup> under a servant who becomes king, under a fool who is stuffed with food, <sup>23</sup> under an unloved woman who is married, and under a female servant who dispossesses her mistress.

<sup>24</sup> There are four things on earth that are small, but they are exceedingly wise:
<sup>25</sup> ants are creatures with little strength, but they prepare their food in the summer; <sup>26</sup> rock badgers are creatures with little power, but they make their homes in the crags; <sup>27</sup> locusts have no king,
but they all go forward by ranks;
<sup>28</sup> a lizard you can catch with the hand, but it gets into the palaces of the king.
<sup>29</sup> There are three things that are magnificent in their step, four things that move about magnificently:
<sup>30</sup> a lion, mightiest of the beasts, who does not retreat from anything; <sup>31</sup> a strutting rooster, a male goat, and a king with his army around him.
<sup>32</sup> If you have done foolishly by exalting yourself or if you have planned evil, put your hand over your mouth!
<sup>33</sup> For as the churning of milk produces butter and as punching the nose produces blood, so stirring up anger produces strife.

31

<sup>1</sup> The words of King Lemuel, an oracle that his mother taught him:
<sup>2</sup> O my son, O son of my womb,
O son of my vows,
<sup>3</sup> Do not give your strength to women, nor your ways to that which ruins kings.
<sup>4</sup> It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine,
or for rulers to crave strong drink, <sup>5</sup> lest they drink and forget what is decreed, and remove from all the poor their legal rights.
<sup>6</sup> Give strong drink to the one who is perishing, and wine to those who are bitterly distressed; <sup>7</sup> let them drink and forget their poverty, and remember their misery no more.
<sup>8</sup> Open your mouth on behalf of those unable to speak, for the legal rights of all the dying.
<sup>9</sup> Open your mouth, judge in righteousness, and plead the cause of the poor and needy.

The Wife of Noble Character

<sup>10</sup> Who can find a wife of noble character?
For her value is far more than rubies.
<sup>11</sup> The heart of her husband has confidence in her,

and he has no lack of gain.

<sup>12</sup> She brings him good and not evil all the days of her life.

<sup>13</sup> She obtains wool and flax, and she is pleased to work with her hands.

<sup>14</sup> She is like the merchant ships; she brings her food from afar.

<sup>15</sup> She also gets up while it is still night, and provides food for her household and a portion to her female servants.

<sup>16</sup> She considers a field and buys it;
from her own income she plants a vineyard.

<sup>17</sup> She begins her work vigorously, and she strengthens her arms.

<sup>18</sup> She knows that her merchandise is good, and her lamp does not go out in the night.

<sup>19</sup> Her hands take hold of the distaff, and her hands grasp the spindle.

<sup>20</sup> She extends her hand to the poor, and reaches out her hand to the needy.

<sup>21</sup> She is not afraid of the snow for her household, for all of her household are clothed with scarlet.

<sup>22</sup> She makes for herself coverlets;
her clothing is fine linen and purple.

<sup>23</sup> Her husband is well-known in the city gate when he sits with the elders of the land.

<sup>24</sup> She makes linen garments and sells them, and supplies the merchants with sashes.

<sup>25</sup> She is clothed with strength and honor, and she can laugh at the time to come.

<sup>26</sup> She opens her mouth with wisdom, and loving instruction is on her tongue.

<sup>27</sup> She watches over the ways of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness.

<sup>28</sup> Her children rise up and call her blessed, her husband also praises her:

<sup>29</sup> "Many daughters have done valiantly, but you surpass them all!"

<sup>30</sup> Charm is deceitful and beauty is fleeting, but a woman who fears the LORD | strong="H3069" will be praised.

<sup>31</sup> Give her credit for what she has accomplished, and let her works praise her in the city gates.

Ecclesiastes

Title

Introduction: Utter Futility

<sup>2</sup> “Futile! Futile!” laments the Teacher, “Absolutely futile! Everything is futile!”

Futility Illustrated from Nature

<sup>3</sup> What benefit do people get from all the effort which they expend on earth?

<sup>4</sup> A generation comes and a generation goes,
but the earth remains the same through the ages.

<sup>5</sup> The sun rises and the sun sets;
it hurries away to a place from which it rises again.

<sup>6</sup> The wind goes to the south and circles around to the north; round and round the wind goes and on its rounds it returns.

<sup>7</sup> All the streams flow into the sea, but the sea is not full, and to the place where the streams flow, there they will flow again.

The eye is never satisfied with seeing, nor is the ear ever content with hearing.

<sup>9</sup> What exists now is what will be,
and what has been done is what will be done;
there is nothing truly new on earth.

<sup>10</sup> Is there anything about which someone can say, “Look at this! It is new!”?
It was already done long ago, before our time.

<sup>11</sup> No one remembers the former events, nor will anyone remember the events that are yet to happen;
they will not be remembered by the future generations.

Futility of Secular Accomplishment

<sup>12</sup> I, the Teacher, have been king over Israel in Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> I decided to carefully and thoroughly examine all that has been accomplished on earth.

I concluded: God has given people a burdensome task that keeps them occupied.

<sup>14</sup> I reflected on everything that is accomplished by man on earth, and I concluded: Everything he has accomplished is futile – like chasing the wind!

<sup>15</sup> What is bent cannot be straightened, and what is missing cannot be supplied.

Futility of Secular Wisdom

<sup>16</sup> I thought to myself,
“I have become much wiser than any of my predecessors who ruled over Jerusalem;
I have acquired much wisdom and knowledge.”

<sup>17</sup> So I decided to discern the benefit of wisdom and knowledge over foolish behavior and ideas;

however, I concluded that even this endeavor is like trying to chase the wind!

<sup>18</sup> For with great wisdom comes great frustration;
whoever increases his knowledge merely increases his heartache.

1

Futility of Self-Indulgent Pleasure I thought to myself,

“Come now, I will try self-indulgent pleasure to see if it is worthwhile.”

But I found that it also is futile.

<sup>2</sup> I said of partying, “It is folly,” and of self-indulgent pleasure, “It accomplishes nothing!”

<sup>3</sup> I thought deeply about the effects of indulging myself with wine

(all the while my mind was guiding me with wisdom) and the effects of behaving foolishly, so that I might discover what is profitable for people to do on earth during the few days of their lives.

Futility of Materialism

<sup>4</sup> I increased my possessions:

I built houses for myself;

I planted vineyards for myself.

<sup>5</sup> I designed royal gardens and parks for myself, and I planted all kinds of fruit trees in them.

<sup>6</sup> I constructed pools of water for myself, to irrigate my grove of flourishing trees.

<sup>7</sup> I purchased male and female slaves, and I owned slaves who were born in my house;

I also possessed more livestock – both herds and flocks – than any of my predecessors in Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup> I also amassed silver and gold for myself, as well as valuable treasures taken from kingdoms and provinces.

I acquired male singers and female singers for myself, and what gives a man sensual delight – a harem of beautiful concubines!

<sup>9</sup> So I was far wealthier than all my predecessors in Jerusalem, yet I maintained my objectivity:

<sup>10</sup> I did not restrain myself from getting whatever I wanted;

I did not deny myself anything that would bring me pleasure.

So all my accomplishments gave me joy;

this was my reward for all my effort.

<sup>11</sup> Yet when I reflected on everything I had accomplished and on all the effort that I had expended to accomplish it,

I concluded: “All these achievements and possessions are ultimately profitless – like chasing the wind!

There is nothing gained from them on earth.”

Wisdom is Better than Folly

<sup>12</sup> Next, I decided to consider wisdom, as well as foolish behavior and ideas.

For what more can the king’s successor do than what the king has already done?

<sup>13</sup> I realized that wisdom is preferable to folly, just as light is preferable to darkness:

<sup>14</sup> The wise man can see where he is going, but the fool walks in darkness.

Yet I also realized that the same fate happens to them both.

<sup>15</sup> So I thought to myself, “The fate of the fool will happen even to me!

Then what did I gain by becoming so excessively wise?”

So I lamented to myself,

“The benefits of wisdom are ultimately meaningless!”

<sup>16</sup> For the wise man, like the fool, will not be remembered for very long, because in the days to come, both will already have been forgotten.

Alas, the wise man dies – just like the fool!

<sup>17</sup> So I loathed life because what happens on earth seems awful to me; for all the benefits of wisdom are futile – like chasing the wind.

Futility of Being a Workaholic

<sup>18</sup> So I loathed all the fruit of my effort, for which I worked so hard on earth, because I must leave it behind in the hands of my successor.

<sup>19</sup> Who knows if he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will be master over all the fruit of my labor for which I worked so wisely on earth!

This also is futile!

<sup>20</sup> So I began to despair about all the fruit of my labor for which I worked so hard on earth.

<sup>21</sup> For a man may do his work with wisdom, knowledge, and skill; however, he must hand over the fruit of his labor as an inheritance to someone else who did not work for it. This also is futile, and an awful injustice!

Painful Days and Restless Nights

<sup>22</sup> What does a man acquire from all his labor and from the anxiety that accompanies his toil on earth?

<sup>23</sup> For all day long his work produces pain and frustration, and even at night his mind cannot relax! This also is futile!

Enjoy Work and its Benefits

<sup>24</sup> There is nothing better for people than to eat and drink, and to find enjoyment in their work. I also perceived that this ability to find enjoyment comes from God.

<sup>26</sup> For to the one who pleases him, God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy, but to the sinner, he gives the task of amassing wealth – only to give it to the one who pleases God.

This task of the wicked is futile – like chasing the wind!

3

<sup>1</sup> For everything there is an appointed time, and an appropriate time for every activity on earth:

<sup>2</sup> A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to uproot what was planted;

<sup>3</sup> A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

<sup>4</sup> A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance.

<sup>5</sup> A time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

<sup>6</sup> A time to search, and a time to give something up as lost;

a time to keep, and a time to throw away;
7 A time to rip, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silent, and a time to speak.
8 A time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.

Man is Ignorant of God's Timing

9 What benefit can a worker gain from his toil?
10 I have observed the burden that God has given to people to keep them occupied.
11 God has made everything fit beautifully in its appropriate time, but he has also placed ignorance in the human heart so that people cannot discover what God has ordained, from the beginning to the end of their lives.

Enjoy Life in the Present

12 I have concluded that there is nothing better for people than to be happy and to enjoy themselves as long as they live, 13 and also that everyone should eat and drink, and find enjoyment in all his toil, for these things are a gift from God.

God's Sovereignty

14 I also know that whatever God does will endure forever;
nothing can be added to it, and nothing taken away from it.
God has made it this way, so that men will fear him.
15 Whatever exists now has already been, and whatever will be has already been;
for God will seek to do again what has occurred in the past.

The Problem of Injustice and Oppression

16 I saw something else on earth:
In the place of justice, there was wickedness, and in the place of fairness, there was wickedness.
17 I thought to myself, "God will judge both the righteous and the wicked; for there is an appropriate time for every activity, and there is a time of judgment for every deed." 18 I also thought to myself, "It is for the sake of people, so God can clearly show them that they are like animals."
19 For the fate of humans and the fate of animals are the same:
As one dies, so dies the other; both have the same breath.
There is no advantage for humans over animals,
for both are fleeting.
20 Both go to the same place, both come from the dust,
and to dust both return.
21 Who really knows if the human spirit ascends upward, and the animal's spirit descends into the earth?
22 So I perceived there is nothing better than for people to enjoy their work, because that is their reward;
for who can show them what the future holds?

4

1 So I again considered all the oppression that continually occurs on earth.
This is what I saw:

The oppressed were in tears, but no one was comforting them;
no one delivers them from the power of their oppressors.

<sup>2</sup> So I considered those who are dead and gone more fortunate than those who are still alive.

<sup>3</sup> But better than both is the one who has not been born and has not seen the evil things that are done on earth.

Labor Motivated by Envy

<sup>4</sup> Then I considered all the skillful work that is done:
Surely it is nothing more than competition between one person and another.
This also is profitless – like chasing the wind.

<sup>5</sup> The fool folds his hands and does no work, so he has nothing to eat but his own flesh.

<sup>6</sup> Better is one handful with some rest than two hands full of toil and chasing the wind.

Labor Motivated by Greed

<sup>7</sup> So I again considered another futile thing on earth:

<sup>8</sup> A man who is all alone with no companion, he has no children nor siblings;
yet there is no end to all his toil,
and he is never satisfied with riches.
He laments, “For whom am I toiling and depriving myself of pleasure?”
This also is futile and a burdensome task!

Labor is Beneficial When Its Rewards Are Shared

<sup>9</sup> Two people are better than one, because they can reap more benefit from their labor.

<sup>10</sup> For if they fall, one will help his companion up, but pity the person who falls down and has no one to help him up.

<sup>11</sup> Furthermore, if two lie down together, they can keep each other warm, but how can one person keep warm by himself?

<sup>12</sup> Although an assailant may overpower one person, two can withstand him.
Moreover, a three-stranded cord is not quickly broken.

Labor Motivated by Prestige-Seeking

<sup>13</sup> A poor but wise youth is better than an old and foolish king who no longer knows how to receive advice.

<sup>14</sup> For he came out of prison to become king, even though he had been born poor in what would become his kingdom.

<sup>15</sup> I considered all the living who walk on earth, as well as the successor who would arise in his place.

<sup>16</sup> There is no end to all the people nor to the past generations, yet future generations will not rejoice in him.
This also is profitless and like chasing the wind.

5

<sup>1</sup> Be careful what you do when you go to the temple of God;
draw near to listen rather than to offer a sacrifice like fools, for they do not realize that they are doing wrong.

<sup>2</sup> Do not be rash with your mouth or hasty in your heart to bring up a matter before God, for God is in heaven and you are on earth!
Therefore, let your words be few.

<sup>3</sup> Just as dreams come when there are many cares, so the rash vow of a fool occurs when there are many words.

<sup>4</sup> When you make a vow to God, do not delay in paying it.
For God takes no pleasure in fools:
Pay what you vow!

<sup>5</sup> It is better for you not to vow than to vow and not pay it.

<sup>6</sup> Do not let your mouth cause you to sin, and do not tell the priest, "It was a mistake!"
Why make God angry at you so that he would destroy the work of your hands?"

<sup>7</sup> Just as there is futility in many dreams, so also in many words.
Therefore, fear God!

Government Corruption

<sup>8</sup> If you see the extortion of the poor, or the perversion of justice and fairness in the government,
do not be astonished by the matter.
For the high official is watched by a higher official,
and there are higher ones over them!

<sup>9</sup> The produce of the land is seized by all of them, even the king is served by the fields.

Covetousness

<sup>10</sup> The one who loves money will never be satisfied with money, he who loves wealth will never be satisfied with his income.
This also is futile.

<sup>11</sup> When someone's prosperity increases, those who consume it also increase;
so what does its owner gain, except that he gets to see it with his eyes?

<sup>12</sup> The sleep of the laborer is pleasant – whether he eats little or much – but the wealth of the rich will not allow him to sleep.

Materialism Thwarts Enjoyment of Life

<sup>13</sup> Here is a misfortune on earth that I have seen:
Wealth hoarded by its owner to his own misery.

<sup>14</sup> Then that wealth was lost through bad luck;
although he fathered a son, he has nothing left to give him.

<sup>15</sup> Just as he came forth from his mother's womb, naked will he return as he came, and he will take nothing in his hand that he may carry away from his toil.

<sup>16</sup> This is another misfortune:
Just as he came, so will he go.

What did he gain from toiling for the wind?

<sup>17</sup> Surely, he ate in darkness every day of his life, and he suffered greatly with sickness and anger.

Enjoy the Fruit of Your Labor

<sup>18</sup> I have seen personally what is the only beneficial and appropriate course of action for people:

to eat and drink, and find enjoyment in all their hard work on earth during the few days of their life which God has given them, for this is their reward.

<sup>19</sup> To every man whom God has given wealth, and possessions, he has also given him the ability to eat from them, to receive his reward and to find enjoyment in his toil;

these things are the gift of God.

<sup>20</sup> For he does not think much about the fleeting days of his life because God keeps him preoccupied with the joy he derives from his activity.

6

and it weighs heavily on people:

<sup>2</sup> God gives a man riches, property, and wealth so that he lacks nothing that his heart desires, yet God does not enable him to enjoy the fruit of his labor – instead, someone else enjoys it!

This is fruitless and a grave misfortune.

<sup>3</sup> Even if a man fathers a hundred children and lives many years – even if he lives a long, long time, but cannot enjoy his prosperity – even if he were to live forever –
I would say, “A stillborn child is better off than he is!”

<sup>4</sup> Though the stillborn child came into the world for no reason and departed into darkness,

though its name is shrouded in darkness,

<sup>5</sup> though it never saw the light of day nor knew anything, yet it has more rest than that man –

<sup>6</sup> if he should live a thousand years twice, yet does not enjoy his prosperity.
For both of them die!

<sup>7</sup> All of man’s labor is for nothing more than to fill his stomach – yet his appetite is never satisfied!

<sup>8</sup> So what advantage does a wise man have over a fool?
And what advantage does a pauper gain by knowing how to survive?

<sup>9</sup> It is better to be content with what the eyes can see than for one’s heart always to crave more.
This continual longing is futile – like chasing the wind.

The Futile Way Life Works

<sup>10</sup> Whatever has happened was foreordained, and what happens to a person was also foreknown.
It is useless for him to argue with God about his fate because God is more powerful than he is.

<sup>11</sup> The more one argues with words, the less he accomplishes.
How does that benefit him?

<sup>12</sup> For no one knows what is best for a person during his life – during the few days of his fleeting life – for they pass away like a shadow.
Nor can anyone tell him what the future will hold for him on earth.

7

<sup>1</sup> A good reputation is better than precious perfume;
likewise, the day of one’s death is better than the day of one’s birth.

<sup>2</sup> It is better to go to a funeral than a feast.
For death is the destiny of every person, and the living should take this to heart.

<sup>3</sup> Sorrow is better than laughter, because sober reflection is good for the heart.
<sup>4</sup> The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in the house of merrymaking.

Frivolous Living Versus Wisdom

<sup>5</sup> It is better for a person to receive a rebuke from those who are wise than to listen to the song of fools.
<sup>6</sup> For like the crackling of quick-burning thorns under a cooking pot, so is the laughter of the fool.
This kind of folly also is useless.

Human Wisdom Overturned by Adversity

<sup>7</sup> Surely oppression can turn a wise person into a fool; likewise, a bribe corrupts the heart.
<sup>8</sup> The end of a matter is better than its beginning;
likewise, patience is better than pride.
<sup>9</sup> Do not let yourself be quickly provoked, for anger resides in the lap of fools.
<sup>10</sup> Do not say, "Why were the old days better than these days?"
for it is not wise to ask that.

Wisdom Can Lengthen One's Life

<sup>11</sup> Wisdom, like an inheritance, is a good thing;
it benefits those who see the light of day.
<sup>12</sup> For wisdom provides protection, just as money provides protection.
But the advantage of knowledge is this:
Wisdom preserves the life of its owner.

Wisdom Acknowledges God's Orchestration of Life

<sup>13</sup> Consider the work of God:
For who can make straight what he has bent?
<sup>14</sup> In times of prosperity be joyful, but in times of adversity consider this:
God has made one as well as the other,
so that no one can discover what the future holds.

Exceptions to the Law of Retribution

<sup>15</sup> During the days of my fleeting life I have seen both of these things:
Sometimes a righteous person dies prematurely in spite of his righteousness, and sometimes a wicked person lives long in spite of his evil deeds.
<sup>16</sup> So do not be excessively righteous or excessively wise; otherwise you might be disappointed.
<sup>17</sup> Do not be excessively wicked and do not be a fool; otherwise you might die before your time.
<sup>18</sup> It is best to take hold of one warning without letting go of the other warning;
for the one who fears God will follow both warnings.

Wisdom Needed Because No One is Truly Righteous

<sup>19</sup> Wisdom gives a wise person more protection than ten rulers in a city.
<sup>20</sup> For there is not one truly righteous person on the earth who continually does good and never sins.

<sup>21</sup> Also, do not pay attention to everything that people say; otherwise, you might even hear your servant cursing you.

<sup>22</sup> For you know in your own heart that you also have cursed others many times.

Human Wisdom is Limited

<sup>23</sup> I have examined all this by wisdom; I said, "I am determined to comprehend this" – but it was beyond my grasp.

<sup>24</sup> Whatever has happened is beyond human understanding; it is far deeper than anyone can fathom.

True Righteousness and Wisdom are Virtually Nonexistent

<sup>25</sup> I tried to understand, examine, and comprehend the role of wisdom in the scheme of things, and to understand the stupidity of wickedness and the insanity of folly.

<sup>26</sup> I discovered this:
More bitter than death is the kind of woman who is like a hunter's snare;
her heart is like a hunter's net and her hands are like prison chains.
The man who pleases God escapes her,
but the sinner is captured by her.

<sup>27</sup> The Teacher says:
I discovered this while trying to discover the scheme of things, item by item.

<sup>28</sup> What I have continually sought, I have not found;
I have found only one upright man among a thousand, but I have not found one upright woman among all of them.

<sup>29</sup> This alone have I discovered: God made humankind upright, but they have sought many evil schemes.

8

<sup>1</sup> Who is a wise person? Who knows the solution to a problem?
A person's wisdom brightens his appearance, and softens his harsh countenance.

<sup>2</sup> Obey the king's command, because you took an oath before God to be loyal to him.

<sup>3</sup> Do not rush out of the king's presence in haste – do not delay when the matter is unpleasant, for he can do whatever he pleases.

<sup>4</sup> Surely the king's authority is absolute;
no one can say to him, "What are you doing?"

<sup>5</sup> Whoever obeys his command will not experience harm, and a wise person knows the proper time and procedure.

<sup>6</sup> For there is a proper time and procedure for every matter, for the oppression of the king is severe upon his victim.

<sup>7</sup> Surely no one knows the future, and no one can tell another person what will happen.

<sup>8</sup> Just as no one has power over the wind to restrain it, so no one has power over the day of his death.

Just as no one can be discharged during the battle, so wickedness cannot rescue the wicked.

<sup>9</sup> While applying my mind to everything that happens in this world, I have seen all this:
Sometimes one person dominates other people to their harm.

Contradictions to the Law of Retribution

<sup>10</sup> Not only that, but I have seen the wicked approaching and entering the temple, and as they left the holy temple, they boasted in the city that they had done so.

This also is an enigma.

<sup>11</sup> When a sentence is not executed at once against a crime, the human heart is encouraged to do evil.

<sup>12</sup> Even though a sinner might commit a hundred crimes and still live a long time, yet I know that it will go well with God-fearing people – for they stand in fear before him.

<sup>13</sup> But it will not go well with the wicked, nor will they prolong their days like a shadow, because they do not stand in fear before God.

<sup>14</sup> Here is another enigma that occurs on earth:
Sometimes there are righteous people who get what the wicked deserve, and sometimes there are wicked people who get what the righteous deserve.
I said, “This also is an enigma.”

Enjoy Life In Spite of Its Injustices

<sup>15</sup> So I recommend the enjoyment of life, for there is nothing better on earth for a person to do except to eat, drink, and enjoy life.
So joy will accompany him in his toil during the days of his life which God gives him on earth.

Limitations of Human Wisdom

<sup>16</sup> When I tried to gain wisdom and to observe the activity on earth – even though it prevents anyone from sleeping day or night – <sup>17</sup> then I discerned all that God has done:
No one really comprehends what happens on earth.
Despite all human efforts to discover it, no one can ever grasp it.
Even if a wise person claimed that he understood,
he would not really comprehend it.

9

I concluded that the righteous and the wise, as well as their works, are in the hand of God;

whether a person will be loved or hated – no one knows what lies ahead.

<sup>2</sup> Everyone shares the same fate –
the righteous and the wicked,
the good and the bad,
the ceremonially clean and unclean,
those who offer sacrifices and those who do not.
What happens to the good person, also happens to the sinner;
what happens to those who make vows, also happens to those who are afraid to make vows.

<sup>3</sup> This is the unfortunate fact about everything that happens on earth:
the same fate awaits everyone.

In addition to this, the hearts of all people are full of evil, and there is folly in their hearts during their lives – then they die.

Better to Be Poor but Alive than Rich but Dead

<sup>4</sup> But whoever is among the living has hope;

a live dog is better than a dead lion.

<sup>5</sup> For the living know that they will die, but the dead do not know anything; they have no further reward – and even the memory of them disappears.

<sup>6</sup> What they loved, as well as what they hated and envied, perished long ago, and they no longer have a part in anything that happens on earth.

Life is Brief, so Cherish its Joys

<sup>7</sup> Go, eat your food with joy, and drink your wine with a happy heart, because God has already approved your works.

<sup>8</sup> Let your clothes always be white, and do not spare precious ointment on your head.

<sup>9</sup> Enjoy life with your beloved wife during all the days of your fleeting life that God has given you on earth during all your fleeting days; for that is your reward in life and in your burdensome work on earth.

<sup>10</sup> Whatever you find to do with your hands, do it with all your might, because there is neither work nor planning nor knowledge nor wisdom in the grave, the place where you will eventually go.

Wisdom Cannot Protect against Seemingly Chance Events

<sup>11</sup> Again, I observed this on the earth: the race is not always won by the swiftest, the battle is not always won by the strongest; prosperity does not always belong to those who are the wisest, wealth does not always belong to those who are the most discerning, nor does success always come to those with the most knowledge – for time and chance may overcome them all.

<sup>12</sup> Surely, no one knows his appointed time! Like fish that are caught in a deadly net, and like birds that are caught in a snare – just like them, all people are ensnared at an unfortunate time that falls upon them suddenly.

Most People Are Not Receptive to Wise Counsel

<sup>13</sup> This is what I also observed about wisdom on earth, and it is a great burden to me:

<sup>14</sup> There was once a small city with a few men in it, and a mighty king attacked it, besieging it and building strong siege works against it.

<sup>15</sup> However, a poor but wise man lived in the city, and he could have delivered the city by his wisdom, but no one listened to that poor man.

<sup>16</sup> So I concluded that wisdom is better than might, but a poor man's wisdom is despised; no one ever listens to his advice.

Wisdom versus Fools, Sin, and Folly

<sup>17</sup> The words of the wise are heard in quiet, more than the shouting of a ruler is heard among fools.

<sup>18</sup> Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one sinner can destroy much that is good.

10

Wisdom Can Be Nullified By the Caprice of Rulers

<sup>2</sup> A wise person's good sense protects him, but a fool's lack of sense leaves him vulnerable.

<sup>3</sup> Even when a fool walks along the road he lacks sense, and shows everyone what a fool he is.

<sup>4</sup> If the anger of the ruler flares up against you, do not resign from your position, for a calm response can undo great offenses.

<sup>5</sup> I have seen another misfortune on the earth:
It is an error a ruler makes.

Wisdom is Needed to Avert Dangers in Everyday Life

<sup>8</sup> One who digs a pit may fall into it, and one who breaks through a wall may be bitten by a snake.

<sup>9</sup> One who quarries stones may be injured by them;
one who splits logs may be endangered by them.

<sup>10</sup> If an iron axhead is blunt and a workman does not sharpen its edge, he must exert a great deal of effort;
so wisdom has the advantage of giving success.

<sup>11</sup> If the snake should bite before it is charmed, the snake charmer is in trouble.

Words and Works of Wise Men and Fools

<sup>12</sup> The words of a wise person win him favor, but the words of a fool are self-destructive.

<sup>13</sup> At the beginning his words are foolish and at the end his talk is wicked madness,

<sup>14</sup> yet a fool keeps on babbling.

No one knows what will happen;
who can tell him what will happen in the future?

<sup>15</sup> The toil of a stupid fool wears him out, because he does not even know the way to the city.

The Problem with Foolish Rulers

<sup>16</sup> Woe to you, O land, when your king is childish, and your princes feast in the morning!

<sup>17</sup> Blessed are you, O land, when your king is the son of nobility, and your princes feast at the proper time – with self-control and not in drunkenness.

<sup>18</sup> Because of laziness the roof caves in,
and because of idle hands the house leaks.

<sup>19</sup> Feasts are made for laughter, and wine makes life merry,
but money is the answer for everything.

<sup>20</sup> Do not curse a king even in your thoughts, and do not curse the rich while in your bedroom;
for a bird might report what you are thinking, or some winged creature might repeat your words.

<sup>1</sup> Send your grain overseas, for after many days you will get a return.

<sup>2</sup> Divide your merchandise among seven or even eight investments, for you do not know what calamity may happen on earth.

<sup>3</sup> If the clouds are full of rain, they will empty themselves on the earth, and whether a tree falls to the south or to the north, the tree will lie wherever it falls.

<sup>4</sup> He who watches the wind will not sow, and he who observes the clouds will not reap.

<sup>5</sup> Just as you do not know the path of the wind, or how the bones form in the womb of a pregnant woman, so you do not know the work of God who makes everything.

<sup>6</sup> Sow your seed in the morning, and do not stop working until the evening;
for you do not know which activity will succeed – whether this one or that one, or whether both will prosper equally.

Life Should Be Enjoyed Because Death is Inevitable

<sup>7</sup> Light is sweet, and it is pleasant for a person to see the sun.

<sup>8</sup> So, if a man lives many years, let him rejoice in them all, but let him remember that the days of darkness will be many – all that is about to come is obscure.

Enjoy Life to the Fullest under the Fear of God

<sup>9</sup> Rejoice, young man, while you are young, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth.
Follow the impulses of your heart and the desires of your eyes, but know that God will judge your motives and actions.

<sup>10</sup> Banish emotional stress from your mind.
and put away pain from your body;
for youth and the prime of life are fleeting.

12

before the difficult days come, and the years draw near when you will say, “I have no pleasure in them”;

<sup>2</sup> before the sun and the light of the moon and the stars grow dark, and the clouds disappear after the rain;

<sup>3</sup> when those who keep watch over the house begin to tremble, and the virile men begin to stoop over,
and the grinders begin to cease because they grow few,
and those who look through the windows grow dim,

<sup>4</sup> and the doors along the street are shut;
when the sound of the grinding mill grows low,
and one is awakened by the sound of a bird,
and all their songs grow faint,

<sup>5</sup> and they are afraid of heights and the dangers in the street;
the almond blossoms grow white,
and the grasshopper drags itself along,
and the caper berry shrivels up – because man goes to his eternal home, and the mourners go about in the streets –

<sup>6</sup> before the silver cord is removed, or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher is shattered at the well, or the water wheel is broken at the cistern – <sup>7</sup> and the dust returns to the earth as it was,

and the life's breath returns to God who gave it.

Concluding Refrain: Qoheleth Restates His Thesis

“All of these things are futile!”

Concluding Epilogue: Qoheleth's Advice is Wise

<sup>9</sup> Not only was the Teacher wise, but he also taught knowledge to the people;
he carefully evaluated and arranged many proverbs.

<sup>10</sup> The Teacher sought to find delightful words, and to write accurately truthful sayings.

<sup>11</sup> The words of the sages are like prods, and the collected sayings are like firmly fixed nails;
they are given by one shepherd.

Concluding Exhortation: Fear God and Obey His Commands!

<sup>12</sup> Be warned, my son, of anything in addition to them.
There is no end to the making of many books, and much study is exhausting to the body.

<sup>13</sup> Having heard everything, I have reached this conclusion:
Fear God and keep his commandments, because this is the whole duty of man.

<sup>14</sup> For God will evaluate every deed, including every secret thing, whether good or evil.

<sup>2</sup> Like a lily among the thorns, so is my darling among the maidens.

by the gazelles and by the young does of the open fields:

Do not awaken or arouse love until it pleases!

The Arrival of the Lover

<sup>8</sup> Listen! My lover is approaching!

Look! Here he comes,
leaping over the mountains,
bounding over the hills!

<sup>9</sup> My lover is like a gazelle or a young stag.

Look! There he stands behind our wall, gazing through the window,
peering through the lattice.

The Season of Love and the Song of the Turtle-Dove

The Lover |strong="H6030" to His Beloved:

<sup>10</sup> My lover spoke to me, saying:

“Arise, my darling;

My beautiful one, come away with me!

<sup>11</sup> Look! The winter has passed, the winter rains are over and gone.

<sup>12</sup> The pomegranates have appeared in the land, the time for pruning and singing has come;
the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.

<sup>13</sup> The fig tree has budded, the vines have blossomed and give off their fragrance.
Arise, come away my darling;
my beautiful one, come away with me!”

The Lover to His Beloved: |strong="H3123"

<sup>14</sup> O my dove, in the clefts of the rock, let me see your face,

let me hear your voice;
for your voice is sweet,
and your face is lovely.

The Foxes in the Vineyard

The Beloved to Her Lover: |strong="H0270"

<sup>15</sup> Catch the foxes for us, the little foxes,
that ruin the vineyards –
for our vineyard is in bloom.

Poetic Refrain: Mutual Possession

The Beloved about Her Lover: |strong="H1730"

<sup>16</sup> My lover is mine and I am his;
he grazes among the lilies.

The Gazelle and the Rugged Mountains

The Beloved to Her Lover: |strong="H5704"

<sup>17</sup> Until the dawn arrives and the shadows flee, turn, my beloved – be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountain gorges.

The Beloved about Her Lover: |strong="H3915"

<sup>1</sup> All night long on my bed
I longed for my lover.
I longed for him but he never appeared.
<sup>2</sup> “I will arise and look all around throughout the town, and throughout the streets and squares;
I will search for my beloved.”
I searched for him but I did not find him.
<sup>3</sup> The night watchmen found me – the ones who guard the city walls.
“Have you seen my beloved?”
<sup>4</sup> Scarcely had I passed them by when I found my beloved!
I held onto him tightly and would not let him go until I brought him to my mother’s house, to the bedroom chamber of the one who conceived me.

The Adjuration Refrain

The Beloved to the Maidens: |strong="H5782"

<sup>5</sup> I admonish you, O maidens of Jerusalem,
by the gazelles and by the young does of the open fields:
“Do not awake or arouse love until it pleases!”

The Royal Wedding Procession

The Speaker: |strong="H4310"

<sup>6</sup> Who is this coming up from the desert like a column of smoke, like a fragrant billow of myrrh and frankincense, every kind of fragrant powder of the traveling merchants?
<sup>7</sup> Look! It is Solomon’s portable couch!
It is surrounded by sixty warriors,
some of Israel’s mightiest warriors.
<sup>8</sup> All of them are skilled with a sword, well-trained in the art of warfare.
Each has his sword at his side,
to guard against the terrors of the night.
<sup>9</sup> King Solomon made a sedan chair for himself of wood imported from Lebanon.
<sup>10</sup> Its posts were made of silver;
its back was made of gold.
Its seat was upholstered with purple wool;
its interior was inlaid with leather by the maidens of Jerusalem.
<sup>11</sup> Come out, O maidens of Zion, and gaze upon King Solomon!
He is wearing the crown with which his mother crowned him on his wedding day,
on the most joyous day of his life!

The Lover | strong="H2005" to His Beloved:

<sup>1</sup> Oh, you are beautiful, my darling!
 Oh, you are beautiful!
 Your eyes behind your veil are like doves.
 Your hair is like a flock of female goats descending from Mount Gilead.
<sup>2</sup> Your teeth are like a flock of newly-shorn sheep coming up from the washing place;
 each of them has a twin,
 and not one of them is missing.
<sup>3</sup> Your lips are like a scarlet thread;
 your mouth is lovely.
 Your forehead behind your veil is like a slice of pomegranate.
<sup>4</sup> Your neck is like the tower of David built with courses of stones;
 one thousand shields are hung on it – all shields of valiant warriors.
<sup>5</sup> Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of the gazelle grazing among the lilies.
<sup>6</sup> Until the dawn arrives and the shadows flee,
 I will go up to the mountain of myrrh,
 and to the hill of frankincense.
<sup>7</sup> You are altogether beautiful, my darling!
 There is no blemish in you!

The Wedding Night: Beautiful as Lebanon

<sup>8</sup> Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, come with me from Lebanon.
 Descend from the crest of Amana, from the top of Senir, the summit of Hermon, from the lions' dens
 and the mountain haunts of the leopards.
<sup>9</sup> You have stolen my heart, my sister, my bride!
 You have stolen my heart with one glance of your eyes, with one jewel of your necklace.
<sup>10</sup> How delightful is your love, my sister, my bride!
 How much better is your love than wine;
 the fragrance of your perfume is better than any spice!
<sup>11</sup> Your lips drip sweetness like the honeycomb, my bride, honey and milk are under your tongue.
 The fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon.

The Wedding Night: The Delightful Garden

The Lover to His Beloved: | strong="H5274"

<sup>12</sup> You are a locked garden, my sister, my bride;
 you are an enclosed spring, a sealed-up fountain.
<sup>13</sup> Your shoots are a royal garden full of pomegranates with choice fruits:

henna with nard,
<sup>14</sup> nard and saffron;
 calamus and cinnamon with every kind of spice,
 myrrh and aloes with all the finest spices.
<sup>15</sup> You are a garden spring,
 a well of fresh water flowing down from Lebanon.

The Beloved to Her Lover:

<sup>16</sup> Awake, O north wind; come, O south wind!
 Blow on my garden so that its fragrant spices may send out their sweet smell.
 May my beloved come into his garden and eat its delightful fruit!

5

The Lover to His Beloved:

<sup>1</sup> I have entered my garden, O my sister, my bride;
 I have gathered my myrrh with my balsam spice.
 I have eaten my honeycomb and my honey;
 I have drunk my wine and my milk!

The Poet to the Couple: | strong="H0398"

Eat, friends, and drink!
 Drink freely, O lovers!

The Trials of Love: The Beloved's Dream of Losing Her Lover

The Beloved about Her Lover: | strong="H0589"

<sup>2</sup> I was asleep, but my mind was dreaming.
 Listen! My lover is knocking at the door!

The Lover to His Beloved: | strong="H6605"

“Open for me, my sister, my darling, my dove, my flawless one!
 My head is drenched with dew,
 my hair with the dampness of the night.”

The Beloved to Her Lover:

<sup>3</sup> “I have already taken off my robe – must I put it on again?
 I have already washed my feet – must I soil them again?”
<sup>4</sup> My lover thrust his hand through the hole, and my feelings were stirred for him.
<sup>5</sup> I arose to open for my beloved; my hands dripped with myrrh – my fingers flowed with myrrh on the handles of the lock.
<sup>6</sup> I opened for my beloved, but my lover had already turned and gone away.
 I fell into despair when he departed.
 I looked for him but did not find him;
 I called him but he did not answer me.
<sup>7</sup> The watchmen found me as they made their rounds in the city.
 They beat me, they bruised me;
 they took away my cloak, those watchmen on the walls!

The Triumph of Love: The Beloved Praises Her Lover

The Beloved to the Maidens: | strong="H7650"

<sup>8</sup> O maidens of Jerusalem, I command you –
 If you find my beloved, what will you tell him?
 Tell him that I am lovesick!

The Maidens to The Beloved:

<sup>9</sup> Why is your beloved better than others,
 O most beautiful of women?
 Why is your beloved better than others, that you would command us in this manner?

The Beloved to the Maidens:

<sup>10</sup> My beloved is dazzling and ruddy;
 he stands out in comparison to all other men.
<sup>11</sup> His head is like the most pure gold.
 His hair is curly – black like a raven.
<sup>12</sup> His eyes are like doves by streams of water, washed in milk, mounted like jewels.
<sup>13</sup> His cheeks are like garden beds full of balsam trees yielding perfume.
 His lips are like lilies dripping with drops of myrrh.
<sup>14</sup> His arms are like rods of gold set with chrysolite.
 His abdomen is like polished ivory inlaid with sapphires.
<sup>15</sup> His legs are like pillars of marble set on bases of pure gold.
 His appearance is like Lebanon, choice as its cedars.
<sup>16</sup> His mouth is very sweet;
 he is totally desirable.
 This is my beloved!
 This is my companion, O maidens of Jerusalem!

6The Maidens to the Beloved:

<sup>1</sup> Where has your beloved gone,
 O most beautiful among women?
 Where has your beloved turned?
 Tell us, that we may seek him with you.

The Beloved to the Maidens:

<sup>2</sup> My beloved has gone down to his garden, to the flowerbeds of balsam spices,
 to graze in the gardens,
 and to gather lilies.

Poetic Refrain: Mutual PossessionThe Beloved about Her Lover:

<sup>3</sup> I am my lover's and my lover is mine;
 he grazes among the lilies.

The Renewal of LoveThe Lover to His Beloved:

<sup>4</sup> My darling, you are as beautiful as Tirzah, as lovely as Jerusalem,
 as awe-inspiring as bannered armies!
<sup>5</sup> Turn your eyes away from me –

they overwhelm me!
 Your hair is like a flock of goats
 descending from Mount Gilead.
<sup>6</sup> Your teeth are like a flock of sheep coming up from the washing;
 each has its twin;
 not one of them is missing.
<sup>7</sup> Like a slice of pomegranate is your forehead behind your veil.
<sup>8</sup> There may be sixty queens, and eighty concubines,
 and young women without number.
<sup>9</sup> But she is unique!
 My dove, my perfect one!
 She is the special daughter of her mother,
 she is the favorite of the one who bore her.
 The maidens saw her and complimented her;
 the queens and concubines praised her:
<sup>10</sup> "Who is this who appears like the dawn?
 Beautiful as the moon, bright as the sun, awe-inspiring as the stars in procession?"

The Return to the Vineyards

The Lover to His Beloved:

<sup>11</sup> I went down to the orchard of walnut trees, to look for the blossoms of the valley, to see if the vines had budded or if the pomegranates were in bloom.

<sup>12</sup>
 I was beside myself with joy!
 There please give me your myrrh,
 O daughter of my princely people.

The Love Song and Dance

The Lover to His Beloved:

<sup>13</sup> Turn, turn, O Perfect One!
 Turn, turn, that I may stare at you!

The Beloved to Her Lover:

Why do you gaze upon the Perfect One like the dance of the Mahanaim?

7

The Lover to His Beloved:

<sup>1</sup> How beautiful are your sandaled feet,
 O nobleman's daughter!
 The curves of your thighs are like jewels,
 the work of the hands of a master craftsman.

<sup>2</sup> Your navel is a round mixing bowl – may it never lack mixed wine!
 Your belly is a mound of wheat, encircled by lilies.

<sup>3</sup> Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.

<sup>4</sup> Your neck is like a tower made of ivory.

Your eyes are the pools in Heshbon by the gate of Bath-Rabbim.

Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon overlooking Damascus.

<sup>5</sup> Your head crowns you like Mount Carmel.

The locks of your hair are like royal tapestries – the king is held captive in its tresses!

<sup>6</sup> How beautiful you are! How lovely,
O love, with your delights!

The Palm Tree and the Palm Tree Climber

The Lover to His Beloved: |strong="H1819"

<sup>7</sup> Your stature is like a palm tree, and your breasts are like clusters of grapes.

<sup>8</sup> I want to climb the palm tree, and take hold of its fruit stalks.
May your breasts be like the clusters of grapes, and may the fragrance of your breath be like apricots!

<sup>9</sup> May your mouth be like the best wine, flowing smoothly for my beloved,
gliding gently over our lips as we sleep together.

Poetic Refrain: Mutual Possession

The Beloved about Her Lover: |strong="H1730"

<sup>10</sup> I am my beloved's, and he desires me!

The Journey to the Countryside

The Beloved to Her Lover: |strong="H1980"

<sup>11</sup> Come, my beloved, let us go to the countryside;
let us spend the night in the villages.

<sup>12</sup> Let us rise early to go to the vineyards, to see if the vines have budded, to see if their blossoms have opened,
if the pomegranates are in bloom –
there I will give you my love.

<sup>13</sup> The mandrakes send out their fragrance;
over our door is every delicacy, both new and old, which I have stored up for you, my lover.

8

The Beloved to Her Lover: |strong="H0251"

<sup>1</sup> Oh, how I wish you were my little brother, nursing at my mother's breasts;
if I saw you outside, I could kiss you – surely no one would despise me!

<sup>2</sup> I would lead you and bring you to my mother's house, the one who taught me.
I would give you spiced wine to drink,

the nectar of my pomegranates.

Double Refrain: Embracing and Adjuration

The Beloved about Her Lover: | strong="H8040"

<sup>3</sup> His left hand caresses my head, and his right hand stimulates me.

The Beloved to the Maidens:

<sup>4</sup> I admonish you, O maidens of Jerusalem:
“Do not arouse or awaken love until it pleases!”

The Awakening of Love

The Maidens about His Beloved: | strong="H4310"

<sup>5</sup> Who is this coming up from the desert, leaning on her beloved?

The Beloved | strong="H1730" to Her Lover:

Under the apple tree I aroused you;
there your mother conceived you,
there she who bore you was in labor of childbirth.

The Nature of True Love

The Beloved to Her Lover: | strong="H7760"

<sup>6</sup> Set me like a cylinder seal over your heart, like a signet on your arm.
For love is as strong as death, passion is as unrelenting as Sheol.
Its flames burst forth,
it is a blazing flame.
<sup>7</sup> Surging waters cannot quench love;
floodwaters cannot overflow it.
If someone were to offer all his possessions to buy love, the offer would be utterly despised.

The Brother's Plan and the Sister's Reward

The Beloved's Brothers: | strong="H6996"

<sup>8</sup> We have a little sister, and as yet she has no breasts.
What shall we do for our sister on the day when she is spoken for?
<sup>9</sup> If she is a wall, we will build on her a battlement of silver;
but if she is a door,
we will barricade her with boards of cedar.

The Beloved:

<sup>10</sup> I was a wall, and my breasts were like fortress towers.
Then I found favor in his eyes.

Solomon's Vineyard and the Beloved's Vineyard

The Beloved to Her Lover: | strong="H8010"

<sup>11</sup> Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-Hamon;
he leased out the vineyard to those who maintained it.

Each was to bring a thousand shekels of silver for its fruit.
<sup>12</sup> My vineyard, which belongs to me, is at my disposal alone.
The thousand shekels belong to you, O Solomon, and two hundred shekels belong to those who maintain it for its fruit.

Epilogue: The Lover's Request and His Beloved's Invitation

The Lover to His Beloved: | strong="H3427"

<sup>13</sup> O you who stay in the gardens, my companions are listening attentively for your voice;
let me be the one to hear it!

The Beloved to Her Lover:

<sup>14</sup> Make haste, my beloved!
Be like a gazelle or a young stag
on the mountains of spices.

Isaiah

Heading

<sup>1</sup> Here is the message about Judah and Jerusalem that was revealed to Isaiah son of Amoz during the time when Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah reigned over Judah.

Obedience, not Sacrifice

<sup>2</sup> Listen, O heavens, pay attention, O earth!
For the LORD speaks:

“I raised children, I brought them up, but they have rebelled against me!

<sup>3</sup> An ox recognizes its owner, a donkey recognizes where its owner puts its food;
but Israel does not recognize me, my people do not understand.”

<sup>4</sup>
The sinful nation is as good as dead,
the people weighed down by evil deeds.
They are offspring who do wrong,
children who do wicked things.
They have abandoned the LORD, and rejected the Holy One of Israel.
They are alienated from him.

<sup>5</sup>
Why do you insist on being battered?
Why do you continue to rebel?
Your head has a massive wound,
your whole body is weak.

<sup>6</sup> From the soles of your feet to your head, there is no spot that is unharmed.
There are only bruises, cuts,
and open wounds.
They have not been cleansed or bandaged, nor have they been treated with olive oil.

<sup>7</sup> Your land is devastated, your cities burned with fire.
Right before your eyes your crops are being destroyed by foreign invaders.
They leave behind devastation and destruction.

<sup>8</sup> Daughter Zion is left isolated, like a hut in a vineyard, or a shelter in a cucumber field;
she is a besieged city.

<sup>9</sup> If the LORD who commands armies had not left us a few survivors, we would have quickly become like Sodom,
we would have become like Gomorrah.

<sup>10</sup> Listen to the LORD's word, you leaders of Sodom!
Pay attention to our God's rebuke, people of Gomorrah!

<sup>11</sup> “Of what importance to me are your many sacrifices?”
says the LORD.

“I am stuffed with burnt sacrifices of rams and the fat from steers.
The blood of bulls, lambs, and goats
I do not want.

<sup>12</sup> When you enter my presence, do you actually think I want this – animals trampling on my courtyards?

<sup>13</sup> Do not bring any more meaningless offerings;
I consider your incense detestable!
You observe new moon festivals, Sabbaths, and convocations, but I cannot tolerate sin-stained celebrations!

<sup>14</sup> I hate your new moon festivals and assemblies; they are a burden that I am tired of carrying.

<sup>15</sup> When you spread out your hands in prayer,
I look the other way;
when you offer your many prayers,
I do not listen,
because your hands are covered with blood.

<sup>16</sup>
Wash! Cleanse yourselves!
Remove your sinful deeds from my sight.
Stop sinning!

<sup>17</sup> Learn to do what is right!
Promote justice!
Give the oppressed reason to celebrate!
Take up the cause of the orphan!
Defend the rights of the widow!

<sup>18</sup>
Come, let’s consider your options,” says the LORD.
“Though your sins have stained you like the color red,
you can become white like snow;
though they are as easy to see as the color scarlet,
you can become white like wool.

<sup>19</sup> If you have a willing attitude and obey, then you will again eat the good crops of the land.

<sup>20</sup> But if you refuse and rebel, you will be devoured by the sword.”
Know for certain that the LORD has spoken.

Purifying Judgment

<sup>21</sup> How tragic that the once-faithful city has become a prostitute!
She was once a center of justice, fairness resided in her,
but now only murderers.

<sup>22</sup> Your silver has become scum, your beer is diluted with water.

<sup>23</sup> Your officials are rebels, they associate with thieves.
All of them love bribery,
and look for payoffs.
They do not take up the cause of the orphan, or defend the rights of the widow.
<sup>24</sup> Therefore, the sovereign LORD who commands armies, the powerful ruler of Israel, says this:
“Ah, I will seek vengeance against my adversaries,
I will take revenge against my enemies.
<sup>25</sup> I will attack you;
I will purify your metal with flux.
I will remove all your slag.
<sup>26</sup> I will reestablish honest judges as in former times, wise advisers as in earlier days.
Then you will be called, ‘The Just City, Faithful Town.’ ”
<sup>27</sup>
Zion will be freed by justice, and her returnees by righteousness.
<sup>28</sup> All rebellious sinners will be shattered, those who abandon the LORD will perish.
<sup>29</sup> Indeed, they will be ashamed of the sacred trees you find so desirable;
you will be embarrassed because of the sacred orchards where you choose to worship.
<sup>30</sup> For you will be like a tree whose leaves wither, like an orchard that is unwatered.
<sup>31</sup> The powerful will be like a thread of yarn, their deeds like a spark;
both will burn together,
and no one will put out the fire.

2

<sup>2</sup> In the future
the mountain of the LORD’s temple will endure as the most important of mountains, and will be the most prominent of hills.
All the nations will stream to it,
<sup>3</sup> many peoples will come and say,
“Come, let us go up to the LORD’s | strong=“H3069” mountain, to the temple of the God of Jacob,
so he can teach us his requirements, and we can follow his standards.”
For Zion will be the center for moral instruction;
the LORD | strong=“H3069” will issue edicts from Jerusalem.
<sup>4</sup> He will judge disputes between nations;
he will settle cases for many peoples.
They will beat their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruning hooks.

Nations will not take up the sword against other nations, and they will no longer train for war.

<sup>5</sup> O descendants of Jacob, come, let us walk in the LORD's guiding light.

The Lord's Day of Judgment

<sup>6</sup> Indeed, O LORD, you have abandoned | strong="H5203" your people, the descendants of Jacob.

For diviners from the east are everywhere;
they consult omen readers like the Philistines do.
Plenty of foreigners are around.

<sup>7</sup> Their land is full of gold and silver;
there is no end to their wealth.

Their land is full of horses;
there is no end to their chariots.

<sup>8</sup> Their land is full of worthless idols;
they worship the product of their own hands,
what their own fingers have fashioned.

<sup>9</sup> Men bow down to them in homage, they lie flat on the ground in worship.
Don't spare them!

<sup>10</sup> Go up into the rocky cliffs, hide in the ground.

Get away from the dreadful judgment of the LORD,
from his royal splendor!

<sup>11</sup> Proud men will be brought low, arrogant men will be humiliated;
the LORD alone will be exalted
in that day.

<sup>12</sup> Indeed, the LORD who commands armies has planned a day of judgment, for all the high and mighty,
for all who are proud – they will be humiliated;

<sup>13</sup> for all the cedars of Lebanon, that are so high and mighty,
for all the oaks of Bashan;

<sup>14</sup> for all the tall mountains, for all the high hills,

<sup>15</sup> for every high tower,
for every fortified wall,

<sup>16</sup> for all the large ships, for all the impressive ships.

<sup>17</sup> Proud men will be humiliated, arrogant men will be brought low;
the LORD alone will be exalted
in that day.

<sup>18</sup> The worthless idols will be completely eliminated.

<sup>19</sup> They will go into caves in the rocky cliffs and into holes in the ground, trying to escape the dreadful judgment of the LORD
and his royal splendor,
when he rises up to terrify the earth.

<sup>20</sup> At that time men will throw their silver and gold idols, which they made for themselves to worship, into the caves where rodents and bats live, <sup>21</sup> so they themselves can go into the crevices of the rocky cliffs and the openings under the rocky overhangs, trying to escape the dreadful judgment of the LORD

and his royal splendor,
when he rises up to terrify the earth.
<sup>22</sup> Stop trusting in human beings, whose life's breath is in their nostrils.
For why should they be given special consideration?

3

<sup>1</sup> Look, the sovereign LORD who commands armies is about to remove from Jerusalem and Judah every source of security, including all the food and water, <sup>2</sup> the mighty men and warriors, judges and prophets,
omen readers and leaders, <sup>3</sup> captains of groups of fifty,
the respected citizens,
advisers and those skilled in magical arts,
and those who know incantations.
<sup>4</sup> The LORD says, "I will make youths their officials; malicious young men will rule over them.
<sup>5</sup> The people will treat each other harshly; men will oppose each other;
neighbors will fight.
Youths will proudly defy the elderly and riffraff will challenge those who were once respected.
<sup>6</sup> Indeed, a man will grab his brother right in his father's house and say,
'You own a coat –
you be our leader!
This heap of ruins will be under your control.'
<sup>7</sup> At that time the brother will shout,
'I am no doctor,
I have no food or coat in my house;
don't make me a leader of the people!' "
<sup>8</sup> Jerusalem certainly stumbles, Judah falls,
for their words and their actions offend the LORD;
they rebel against his royal authority.
<sup>9</sup> The look on their faces testifies to their guilt;
like the people of Sodom they openly boast of their sin.
Too bad for them!
For they bring disaster on themselves.
<sup>10</sup> Tell the innocent it will go well with them, for they will be rewarded for what they have done.
<sup>11</sup> Too bad for the wicked sinners!
For they will get exactly what they deserve.

<sup>12</sup> Oppressors treat my people cruelly;
creditors rule over them.
My people's leaders mislead them;
they give you confusing directions.
<sup>13</sup> The LORD takes his position to judge;
he stands up to pass sentence on his people.
<sup>14</sup> The LORD comes to pronounce judgment on the leaders of his people and their officials.
He says, "It is you who have ruined the vineyard!
You have stashed in your houses what you have stolen from the poor."
<sup>15</sup> Why do you crush my people and grind the faces of the poor?"
The sovereign LORD who commands armies has spoken.

Washing Away Impurity

<sup>16</sup> The LORD | strong="H3069" says,
"The women of Zion are proud.
They walk with their heads high and flirt with their eyes.
They skip along and the jewelry on their ankles jingles." <sup>17</sup> So the sovereign master will afflict the foreheads of Zion's women with skin diseases, the LORD will make the front of their heads bald."
<sup>18</sup>
At that time the sovereign master will remove their beautiful ankle jewelry, neck ornaments, crescent shaped ornaments, <sup>19</sup> earrings, bracelets, veils,
<sup>20</sup> headdresses, ankle ornaments, sashes, sachets, amulets,
<sup>22</sup> festive dresses, robes, shawls, purses, <sup>23</sup> garments, vests, head coverings, and gowns.
<sup>24</sup> A putrid stench will replace the smell of spices, a rope will replace a belt,
baldness will replace braided locks of hair,
a sackcloth garment will replace a fine robe,
and a prisoner's brand will replace beauty.
<sup>25</sup> Your men will fall by the sword, your strong men will die in battle.
<sup>26</sup> Her gates will mourn and lament; deprived of her people, she will sit on the ground.

<sup>1</sup> Seven women will grab hold of one man at that time.
They will say, "We will provide our own food, we will provide our own clothes;
but let us belong to you – take away our shame!"

The Branch of the Lord

<sup>2</sup> At that time
the crops given by the LORD will bring admiration and honor;

the produce of the land will be a source of pride and delight to those who remain in Israel.

<sup>3</sup> Those remaining in Zion, those left in Jerusalem, will be called "holy," all in Jerusalem who are destined to live.

<sup>4</sup> At that time the sovereign master will wash the excrement from Zion's women, he will rinse the bloodstains from Jerusalem's midst, as he comes to judge and to bring devastation.

<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD | strong="H3069" will create over all of Mount Zion and over its convocations a cloud and smoke by day and a bright flame of fire by night; indeed a canopy will accompany the LORD's glorious | strong="H3519" presence.

<sup>6</sup> By day it will be a shelter to provide shade from the heat, as well as safety and protection from the heavy downpour.

<sup>1</sup> I will sing to my love – a song to my lover about his vineyard. My love had a vineyard on a fertile hill.

He built a tower in the middle of it, and constructed a winepress. He waited for it to produce edible grapes, but it produced sour ones instead.

<sup>3</sup> So now, residents of Jerusalem, people of Judah, you decide between me and my vineyard!

<sup>4</sup> What more can I do for my vineyard beyond what I have already done? When I waited for it to produce edible grapes, why did it produce sour ones instead?

<sup>5</sup> Now I will inform you what I am about to do to my vineyard: I will remove its hedge and turn it into pasture, I will break its wall and allow animals to graze there.

<sup>6</sup> I will make it a wasteland; no one will prune its vines or hoe its ground, and thorns and briers will grow there.

I will order the clouds not to drop any rain on it.

<sup>7</sup> Indeed Israel is the vineyard of the LORD who commands armies, the people of Judah are the cultivated place in which he took delight. He waited for justice, but look what he got – disobedience! He waited for fairness, but look what he got – cries for help!

Disaster is Coming

<sup>8</sup> Those who accumulate houses are as good as dead, those who also accumulate landed property until there is no land left, and you are the only landowners remaining within the land.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD who commands armies told me this:

“Many houses will certainly become desolate, large, impressive houses will have no one living in them.

<sup>10</sup> Indeed, a large vineyard will produce just a few gallons, and enough seed to yield several bushels will produce less than a bushel.”

<sup>11</sup> Those who get up early to drink beer are as good as dead, those who keep drinking long after dark until they are intoxicated with wine.

<sup>12</sup> They have stringed instruments, tambourines, flutes, and wine at their parties.

So they do not recognize what the LORD is doing, they do not perceive what he is bringing about.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore my people will be deported because of their lack of understanding.

Their leaders will have nothing to eat, their masses will have nothing to drink.

<sup>14</sup> So Death will open up its throat, and open wide its mouth;
Zion’s dignitaries and masses will descend into it, including those who revel and celebrate within her.

<sup>15</sup> Men will be humiliated, they will be brought low;
the proud will be brought low.

<sup>16</sup> The LORD who commands armies will be exalted when he punishes, the sovereign God’s authority will be recognized when he judges.

<sup>17</sup> Lambs will graze as if in their pastures, amid the ruins the rich sojourners will graze.

<sup>18</sup> Those who pull evil along using cords of emptiness are as good as dead, who pull sin as with cart ropes.

<sup>19</sup> They say, “Let him hurry, let him act quickly, so we can see;
let the plan of the Holy One of Israel take shape and come to pass, then we will know it!”

<sup>20</sup> Those who call evil good and good evil are as good as dead, who turn darkness into light and light into darkness, who turn bitter into sweet and sweet into bitter.

<sup>21</sup> Those who think they are wise are as good as dead, those who think they possess understanding.

<sup>22</sup> Those who are champions at drinking wine are as good as dead, who display great courage when mixing strong drinks.

<sup>23</sup> They pronounce the guilty innocent for a payoff, they ignore the just cause of the innocent.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore, as flaming fire devours straw, and dry grass disintegrates in the flames,
so their root will rot,
and their flower will blow away like dust.

For they have rejected the law of the LORD who commands armies, they have spurned the commands of the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>25</sup> So the LORD is furious with his people;
he lifts his hand and strikes them.
The mountains shake,
and corpses lie like manure in the middle of the streets.
Despite all this, his anger does not subside,
and his hand is ready to strike again.
<sup>26</sup> He lifts a signal flag for a distant nation, he whistles for it to come from the far regions of the earth.
Look, they come quickly and swiftly.
<sup>27</sup> None tire or stumble, they don't stop to nap or sleep.
They don't loosen their belts, or unstrap their sandals to rest.
<sup>28</sup> Their arrows are sharpened, and all their bows are prepared.
The hooves of their horses are hard as flint, and their chariot wheels are like a windstorm.
<sup>29</sup> Their roar is like a lion's;
they roar like young lions.
They growl and seize their prey;
they drag it away and no one can come to the rescue.
<sup>30</sup> At that time they will growl over their prey, it will sound like sea waves crashing against rocks.
One will look out over the land and see the darkness of disaster, clouds will turn the light into darkness.

6

<sup>2</sup> Seraphs stood over him; each one had six wings. With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and they used the remaining two to fly.
<sup>3</sup> They called out to one another, "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord who commands armies! His majestic splendor fills the entire earth!"
<sup>5</sup> I said, "Too bad for me! I am destroyed, for my lips are contaminated by sin, and I live among people whose lips are contaminated by sin. My eyes have seen the king, the LORD who commands armies."
<sup>6</sup> But then one of the seraphs flew toward me. In his hand was a hot coal he had taken from the altar with tongs.
<sup>7</sup> He touched my mouth with it and said, "Look, this coal has touched your lips. Your evil is removed; your sin is forgiven."
<sup>8</sup> I heard the voice of the sovereign master say, "Whom will I send? Who will go on our behalf?" I answered, "Here I am, send me!"
<sup>9</sup> He said, "Go and tell these people:
'Listen continually, but don't understand!
Look continually, but don't perceive!'
<sup>10</sup> Make the hearts of these people calloused; make their ears deaf and their eyes blind!
Otherwise they might see with their eyes and hear with their ears, their hearts might understand and they might repent and be healed."

<sup>11</sup> I replied, “How long, sovereign master?” He said, “Until cities are in ruins and unpopulated, and houses are uninhabited,
and the land is ruined and devastated,

<sup>12</sup> and the LORD | strong="H3069" has sent the people off to a distant place, and the very heart of the land is completely abandoned.

<sup>13</sup> Even if only a tenth of the people remain in the land, it will again be destroyed, like one of the large sacred trees or an Asherah pole, when a sacred pillar on a high place is thrown down. That sacred pillar symbolizes the special chosen family.”

7

<sup>2</sup> It was reported to the family of David, “Syria has allied with Ephraim.” They and their people were emotionally shaken, just as the trees of the forest shake before the wind.

<sup>3</sup> So the LORD told Isaiah, “Go out with your son Shear-jashub and meet Ahaz at the end of the conduit of the upper pool which is located on the road to the field where they wash and dry cloth.

<sup>4</sup> Tell him, ‘Make sure you stay calm! Don’t be afraid! Don’t be intimidated by these two stubs of smoking logs, or by the raging anger of Rezin, Syria, and the son of Remaliah.

<sup>7</sup> For this reason the sovereign master, the LORD, says:
“It will not take place;
it will not happen.

<sup>8</sup> For Syria’s leader is Damascus, and the leader of Damascus is Rezin.
Within sixty-five years Ephraim will no longer exist as a nation.

<sup>9</sup> Ephraim’s leader is Samaria, and Samaria’s leader is the son of Remaliah.
If your faith does not remain firm, then you will not remain secure.”

<sup>10</sup> The LORD | strong="H3069" again spoke to Ahaz:

<sup>12</sup> But Ahaz responded, “I don’t want to ask; I don’t want to put the LORD to a test.”

<sup>13</sup> So Isaiah replied, “Pay attention, family of David. Do you consider it too insignificant to try the patience of men? Is that why you are also trying the patience of my God?

<sup>14</sup> For this reason the sovereign master himself will give you a confirming sign. Look, this young woman is about to conceive and will give birth to a son. You, young woman, will name him Immanuel.

<sup>15</sup> He will eat sour milk and honey, which will help him know how to reject evil and choose what is right.

<sup>16</sup> Here is why this will be so: Before the child knows how to reject evil and choose what is right, the land whose two kings you fear will be desolate.

<sup>17</sup> The LORD will bring on you, your people, and your father’s family a time unlike any since Ephraim departed from Judah – the king of Assyria!”

<sup>18</sup> At that time the LORD will whistle for flies from the distant streams of Egypt and for bees from the land of Assyria.

<sup>19</sup> All of them will come and make their home in the ravines between the cliffs, and in the crevices of the cliffs, in all the thorn bushes, and in all the watering holes.

<sup>20</sup> At that time the sovereign master will use a razor hired from the banks of the Euphrates River, the king of Assyria, to shave the head and the pubic hair; it will also shave off the beard.

<sup>21</sup> At that time a man will keep alive a young cow from the herd and a couple of goats.

<sup>22</sup> From the abundance of milk they produce, he will have sour milk for his meals. Indeed, everyone left in the heart of the land will eat sour milk and honey.

<sup>23</sup> At that time every place where there had been a thousand vines worth a thousand shekels will be overrun with thorns and briers.

<sup>24</sup> With bow and arrow men will hunt there, for the whole land will be covered with thorns and briers.

<sup>25</sup> They will stay away from all the hills that were cultivated, for fear of the thorns and briers. Cattle will graze there and sheep will trample on them.

8

<sup>2</sup> Then I will summon as my reliable witnesses Uriah the priest and Zechariah son of Jeberechiah."

<sup>3</sup> I then had sexual relations with the prophetess; she conceived and gave birth to a son. The LORD told me, "Name him Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz, <sup>4</sup> for before the child knows how to cry out, 'My father' or 'My mother,' the wealth of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria will be carried off by the king of Assyria."

<sup>5</sup> The LORD spoke to me again:

<sup>6</sup> "These people have rejected the gently flowing waters of Shiloah and melt in fear over Rezin and the son of Remaliah.

<sup>7</sup> So look, the sovereign master is bringing up against them the turbulent and mighty waters of the Euphrates River – the king of Assyria and all his majestic power. It will reach flood stage and overflow its banks.

<sup>8</sup> It will spill into Judah, flooding and engulfing, as it reaches to the necks of its victims. He will spread his wings out over your entire land, O Immanuel."

<sup>9</sup> You will be broken, O nations;
you will be shattered!

Pay attention, all you distant lands of the earth!

Get ready for battle, and you will be shattered!

Get ready for battle, and you will be shattered!

<sup>10</sup> Devise your strategy, but it will be thwarted!

Issue your orders, but they will not be executed!

For God is with us!

The Lord Encourages Isaiah

<sup>11</sup> Indeed this is what the LORD told me. He took hold of me firmly and warned me not to act like these people:

<sup>12</sup> "Do not say, 'Conspiracy,' every time these people say the word.

Don't be afraid of what scares them; don't be terrified.

<sup>13</sup> You must recognize the authority of the LORD who commands armies.

He is the one you must respect;

he is the one you must fear.

<sup>14</sup> He will become a sanctuary, but a stone that makes a person trip, and a rock that makes one stumble – to the two houses of Israel.

He will become a trap and a snare to the residents of Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup> Many will stumble over the stone and the rock, and will fall and be seriously injured, and will be ensnared and captured.”

<sup>16</sup> Tie up the scroll as legal evidence, seal the official record of God’s instructions and give it to my followers.

<sup>17</sup> I will wait patiently for the LORD, who has rejected the family of Jacob;
I will wait for him.

<sup>18</sup> Look, I and the sons whom the LORD has given me are reminders and object lessons in Israel, sent from the LORD who commands armies, who lives on Mount Zion.

Darkness Turns to Light as an Ideal King Arrives

<sup>19</sup> They will say to you, “Seek oracles at the pits used to conjure up underworld spirits, from the magicians who chirp and mutter incantations. Should people not seek oracles from their gods, by asking the dead about the destiny of the living?”

<sup>20</sup> Then you must recall the LORD’s instructions | strong="H8451" and the prophetic testimony of what would happen. Certainly they say such things because their minds are spiritually darkened.

<sup>21</sup> They will pass through the land destitute and starving. Their hunger will make them angry, and they will curse their king and their God as they look upward.

<sup>22</sup> When one looks out over the land, he sees distress and darkness, gloom and anxiety, darkness and people forced from the land.

9

<sup>1</sup> The gloom will be dispelled for those who were anxious.

In earlier times he humiliated
the land of Zebulun, and the land of Naphtali;
but now he brings honor
to the way of the sea,
the region beyond the Jordan, and Galilee of the nations.

<sup>2</sup> The people walking in darkness see a bright light;
light shines
on those who live in a land of deep darkness.

<sup>3</sup> You have enlarged the nation;
you give them great joy.
They rejoice in your presence
as harvesters rejoice;
as warriors celebrate when they divide up the plunder.

<sup>4</sup> For their oppressive yoke and the club that strikes their shoulders, the cudgel the oppressor uses on them,
you have shattered, as in the day of Midian’s defeat.

<sup>5</sup> Indeed every boot that marches and shakes the earth and every garment dragged through blood is used as fuel for the fire.

<sup>6</sup> For a child has been born to us, a son has been given to us.

He shoulders responsibility and is called:

Extraordinary Strategist,

Mighty God,

Everlasting Father,

Prince of Peace.

<sup>7</sup> His dominion will be vast and he will bring immeasurable prosperity.

He will rule on David's throne and over David's kingdom, establishing it and strengthening it by promoting justice and fairness, from this time forward and forevermore.

The LORD's intense devotion to his people will accomplish this.

God's Judgment Intensifies

<sup>8</sup> The sovereign master decreed judgment on Jacob, and it fell on Israel.

<sup>9</sup> All the people were aware of it, the people of Ephraim and those living in Samaria.

Yet with pride and an arrogant attitude, they said,

<sup>10</sup> "The bricks have fallen, but we will rebuild with chiseled stone;
the sycamore fig trees have been cut down,
but we will replace them with cedars."

<sup>11</sup> Then the LORD provoked their adversaries to attack them, he stirred up their enemies –

<sup>12</sup> Syria from the east, and the Philistines from the west,
they gobbled up Israelite territory.

Despite all this, his anger does not subside,
and his hand is ready to strike again.

<sup>13</sup> The people did not return to the one who struck them, they did not seek reconciliation with the LORD who commands armies.

<sup>14</sup> So the LORD cut off Israel's head and tail, both the shoots and stalk in one day.

<sup>15</sup> The leaders and the highly respected people are the head, the prophets who teach lies are the tail.

<sup>16</sup> The leaders of this nation were misleading people, and the people being led were destroyed.

<sup>17</sup> So the sovereign master was not pleased with their young men, he took no pity on their orphans and widows;
for the whole nation was godless and did wicked things,
every mouth was speaking disgraceful words.

Despite all this, his anger does not subside,
and his hand is ready to strike again.

<sup>18</sup> For evil burned like a fire,
it consumed thorns and briers;
it burned up the thickets of the forest, and they went up in smoke.

<sup>19</sup> Because of the anger of the LORD | strong="H3069" who commands armies, the land was scorched, and the people became fuel for the fire.

People had no compassion on one another.

<sup>20</sup> They devoured on the right, but were still hungry, they ate on the left, but were not satisfied.

People even ate the flesh of their own arm!

Despite all this, his anger does not subside, and his hand is ready to strike again.

10

<sup>1</sup> Those who enact unjust policies are as good as dead, those who are always instituting unfair regulations,

<sup>2</sup> to keep the poor from getting fair treatment, and to deprive the oppressed among my people of justice, so they can steal what widows own, and loot what belongs to orphans.

<sup>3</sup> What will you do on judgment day, when destruction arrives from a distant place? To whom will you run for help? Where will you leave your wealth?

<sup>4</sup> You will have no place to go, except to kneel with the prisoners, or to fall among those who have been killed. Despite all this, his anger does not subside, and his hand is ready to strike again.

The Lord Turns on Arrogant Assyria

<sup>5</sup> Assyria, the club I use to vent my anger, is as good as dead, a cudgel with which I angrily punish.

<sup>6</sup> I sent him against a godless nation, I ordered him to attack the people with whom I was angry, to take plunder and to carry away loot, to trample them down like dirt in the streets.

<sup>7</sup> But he does not agree with this, his mind does not reason this way, for his goal is to destroy, and to eliminate many nations.

<sup>8</sup> Indeed, he says:

“Are not my officials all kings?

<sup>9</sup> Is not Calneh like Carchemish? Hamath like Arpad?

Samaria like Damascus?

<sup>10</sup> I overpowered kingdoms ruled by idols, whose carved images were more impressive than Jerusalem’s or Samaria’s.

<sup>11</sup> As I have done to Samaria and its idols, so I will do to Jerusalem and its idols.”

<sup>12</sup> But when the sovereign master finishes judging Mount Zion and Jerusalem, then I will punish the king of Assyria for what he has proudly planned and for the arrogant attitude he displays.

<sup>13</sup> For he says:

“By my strong hand I have accomplished this,
by my strategy that I devised.

I invaded the territory of nations, and looted their storehouses.

Like a mighty conqueror, I brought down rulers.

<sup>14</sup> My hand discovered the wealth of the nations, as if it were in a nest, as one gathers up abandoned eggs,
I gathered up the whole earth.

There was no wing flapping, or open mouth chirping.”

<sup>15</sup> Does an ax exalt itself over the one who wields it, or a saw magnify itself over the one who cuts with it?
As if a scepter should brandish the one who raises it, or a staff should lift up what is not made of wood!

<sup>16</sup> For this reason the sovereign master, the LORD who commands armies, will make his healthy ones emaciated. His majestic glory will go up in smoke.

<sup>17</sup> The light of Israel will become a fire, their Holy One will become a flame;
it will burn and consume the Assyrian king's briers and his thorns in one day.

<sup>18</sup> The splendor of his forest and his orchard will be completely destroyed, as when a sick man's life ebbs away.

<sup>19</sup> There will be so few trees left in his forest, a child will be able to count them.

<sup>20</sup> At that time those left in Israel, those who remain of the family of Jacob, will no longer rely on a foreign leader that abuses them. Instead they will truly rely on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>21</sup> A remnant will come back, a remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God.

<sup>22</sup> For though your people, Israel, are as numerous as the sand on the seashore, only a remnant will come back. Destruction has been decreed; just punishment is about to engulf you.

<sup>24</sup> So here is what the sovereign master, the LORD who commands armies, says: “My people who live in Zion, do not be afraid of Assyria, even though they beat you with a club and lift their cudgel against you as Egypt did.

<sup>26</sup> The LORD who commands armies is about to beat them with a whip, similar to the way he struck down Midian at the rock of Oreb. He will use his staff against the sea, lifting it up as he did in Egypt.

<sup>27</sup> At that time
the LORD will remove | strong="H5493" their burden from your shoulders, and their yoke from your neck;
the yoke will be taken off because your neck will be too large.

<sup>28</sup>

They attacked Aiath, moved through Migron,
depositing their supplies at Micmash.

<sup>29</sup> They went through the pass, spent the night at Geba.

Ramah trembled,
Gibeah of Saul ran away.

<sup>30</sup> Shout out, daughter of Gallim!

Pay attention, Laishah!

Answer her, Anathoth!

<sup>31</sup> Madmenah flees,
the residents of Gebim have hidden.

<sup>32</sup> This very day, standing in Nob, they shake their fist at Daughter Zion's mountain – at the hill of Jerusalem.

<sup>33</sup> Look, the sovereign master, the LORD who commands armies, is ready to cut off the branches with terrifying power.

The tallest trees will be cut down, the loftiest ones will be brought low.

<sup>34</sup> The thickets of the forest will be chopped down with an ax, and mighty Lebanon will fall.

11

<sup>1</sup> A shoot will grow out of Jesse's root stock, a bud will sprout from his roots.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD's spirit will rest on him – a spirit that gives extraordinary wisdom, a spirit that provides the ability to execute plans,
a spirit that produces absolute loyalty to the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> He will take delight in obeying the LORD.
He will not judge by mere appearances, or make decisions on the basis of hearsay.

<sup>4</sup> He will treat the poor fairly, and make right decisions for the downtrodden of the earth.
He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and order the wicked to be executed.

<sup>5</sup> Justice will be like a belt around his waist, integrity will be like a belt around his hips.

<sup>6</sup> A wolf will reside with a lamb, and a leopard will lie down with a young goat;
an ox and a young lion will graze together, as a small child leads them along.

<sup>7</sup> A cow and a bear will graze together, their young will lie down together.
A lion, like an ox, will eat straw.

<sup>8</sup> A baby will play over the hole of a snake;
over the nest of a serpent an infant will put his hand.

<sup>9</sup> They will no longer injure or destroy on my entire royal mountain.

For there will be universal submission to the LORD's sovereignty, just as the waters completely cover the sea.

Israel is Reclaimed and Reunited

<sup>10</sup> At that time a root from Jesse will stand like a signal flag for the nations. Nations will look to him for guidance, and his residence will be majestic.

<sup>11</sup> At that time the sovereign master will again lift his hand to reclaim the remnant of his people from Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, Cush, Elam, Shinar, Hamath, and the seacoasts.

<sup>12</sup> He will lift a signal flag for the nations;
he will gather Israel's dispersed people and assemble Judah's scattered people from the four corners of the earth.

<sup>13</sup> Ephraim's jealousy will end, and Judah's hostility will be eliminated.
Ephraim will no longer be jealous of Judah, and Judah will no longer be hostile toward Ephraim.

<sup>14</sup> They will swoop down on the Philistine hills to the west;
together they will loot the people of the east.
They will take over Edom and Moab, and the Ammonites will be their subjects.

<sup>15</sup> The LORD will divide the gulf of the Egyptian Sea;
he will wave his hand over the Euphrates River and send a strong wind, he will turn it into seven dried-up streams, and enable them to walk across in their sandals.

<sup>16</sup> There will be a highway leading out of Assyria for the remnant of his people, just as there was for Israel,
when they went up from the land of Egypt.

12

<sup>1</sup> At that time you will say:

"I praise you, O LORD,
for even though you were angry with me,
your anger subsided, and you consoled me.

I will trust in him and not fear.
For the LORD | strong="H3050" gives me strength and protects me;
he has become my deliverer."

<sup>3</sup> Joyfully you will draw water from the springs of deliverance.

<sup>4</sup> At that time you will say:
"Praise the LORD | strong="H3069"!
Ask him for help!

Publicize his mighty acts among the nations!
Make it known that he is unique!

<sup>5</sup> Sing to the LORD, for he has done magnificent things, let this be known throughout the earth!

<sup>6</sup> Cry out and shout for joy, O citizens of Zion, for the Holy One of Israel acts mightily among you!"

13

<sup>1</sup> This is a message about Babylon that God revealed to Isaiah son of Amoz:

2

On a bare hill raise a signal flag, shout to them,
wave your hand,
so they might enter the gates of the princes!

<sup>3</sup> I have given orders to my chosen soldiers;
I have summoned the warriors through whom I will vent my anger, my boasting, arrogant ones.

4

There is a loud noise on the mountains –
it sounds like a large army!
There is great commotion among the kingdoms – nations are being assembled!
The LORD who commands armies is mustering forces for battle.

<sup>5</sup> They come from a distant land, from the horizon.
It is the LORD with his instruments of judgment, coming to destroy the whole earth.
<sup>6</sup> Wail, for the LORD's day of judgment is near;
it comes with all the destructive power of the sovereign judge.

<sup>7</sup> For this reason all hands hang limp, every human heart loses its courage.

<sup>8</sup> They panic – cramps and pain seize hold of them like those of a woman who is straining to give birth.
They look at one another in astonishment;
their faces are flushed red.

<sup>9</sup> Look, the LORD's day of judgment is coming;
it is a day of cruelty and savage, raging anger, destroying the earth and annihilating its sinners.

<sup>10</sup> Indeed the stars in the sky and their constellations no longer give out their light;
the sun is darkened as soon as it rises,
and the moon does not shine.

11

I will punish the world for its evil, and wicked people for their sin.
I will put an end to the pride of the insolent,
I will bring down the arrogance of tyrants.

<sup>12</sup> I will make human beings more scarce than pure gold, and people more scarce than gold from Ophir.

<sup>13</sup> So I will shake the heavens, and the earth will shake loose from its foundation, because of the fury of the LORD who commands armies, in the day he vents his raging anger.

<sup>14</sup> Like a frightened gazelle or a sheep with no shepherd, each will turn toward home,
each will run to his homeland.
<sup>15</sup> Everyone who is caught will be stabbed;

everyone who is seized will die by the sword.

<sup>16</sup> Their children will be smashed to pieces before their very eyes; their houses will be looted and their wives raped.

<sup>17</sup> Look, I am stirring up the Medes to attack them;
they are not concerned about silver,
nor are they interested in gold.

<sup>18</sup> Their arrows will cut young men to ribbons;
they have no compassion on a person's offspring,
they will not look with pity on children.

<sup>19</sup> Babylon, the most admired of kingdoms, the Chaldeans' source of honor and pride, will be destroyed by God
just as Sodom and Gomorrah were.

<sup>20</sup> No one will live there again;
no one will ever reside there again.
No bedouin will camp there,
no shepherds will rest their flocks there.

<sup>21</sup> Wild animals will rest there, the ruined houses will be full of hyenas.
Ostriches will live there,
wild goats will skip among the ruins.

<sup>22</sup> Wild dogs will yip in her ruined fortresses, jackals will yelp in the once-splendid palaces.
Her time is almost up,
her days will not be prolonged.

14

<sup>1</sup> The LORD will certainly have compassion on Jacob; he will again choose Israel as his special people and restore them to their land. Resident foreigners will join them and unite with the family of Jacob.

<sup>2</sup> Nations will take them and bring them back to their own place. Then the family of Jacob will make foreigners their servants as they settle in the LORD's land. They will make their captors captives and rule over the ones who oppressed them.

<sup>3</sup> When the LORD gives you relief from your suffering and anxiety, and from the hard labor which you were made to perform,

<sup>4</sup> you will taunt the king of Babylon with these words:
"Look how the oppressor has met his end!
Hostility has ceased!

<sup>5</sup> The LORD has broken the club of the wicked, the scepter of rulers.

<sup>6</sup> It furiously struck down nations with unceasing blows.
It angrily ruled over nations, oppressing them without restraint.

<sup>7</sup> The whole earth rests and is quiet;
they break into song.

<sup>8</sup> The evergreens also rejoice over your demise, as do the cedars of Lebanon, singing,
'Since you fell asleep,
no woodsman comes up to chop us down!'

<sup>9</sup> Sheol below is stirred up about you, ready to meet you when you arrive.
It rouses the spirits of the dead for you,
all the former leaders of the earth;
it makes all the former kings of the nations rise from their thrones.

<sup>10</sup> All of them respond to you, saying:
‘You too have become weak like us!
You have become just like us!

<sup>11</sup> Your splendor has been brought down to Sheol, as well as the sound of your stringed instruments.
You lie on a bed of maggots, with a blanket of worms over you.

<sup>12</sup> Look how you have fallen from the sky,
O shining one, son of the dawn!
You have been cut down to the ground,
O conqueror of the nations!

<sup>13</sup> You said to yourself,
“I will climb up to the sky.
Above the stars of El
I will set up my throne.
I will rule on the mountain of assembly on the remote slopes of Zaphon.

<sup>14</sup> I will climb up to the tops of the clouds;
I will make myself like the Most High!”

<sup>15</sup> But you were brought down to Sheol, to the remote slopes of the pit.

<sup>16</sup> Those who see you stare at you, they look at you carefully, thinking: “Is this the man who shook the earth, the one who made kingdoms tremble?

<sup>17</sup> Is this the one who made the world like a desert, who ruined its cities, and refused to free his prisoners so they could return home?” ’

<sup>18</sup>
As for all the kings of the nations, all of them lie down in splendor,
each in his own tomb.

<sup>19</sup> But you have been thrown out of your grave like a shoot that is thrown away.
You lie among the slain,
among those who have been slashed by the sword, among those headed for the stones of the pit,
as if you were a mangled corpse.

<sup>20</sup> You will not be buried with them, because you destroyed your land and killed your people.

The offspring of the wicked will never be mentioned again.

<sup>21</sup> Prepare to execute his sons for the sins their ancestors have committed.

They must not rise up and take possession of the earth, or fill the surface of the world with cities.”

<sup>22</sup> “I will rise up against them,” says the LORD | strong="H3069" who commands armies.
“I will blot out all remembrance of Babylon and destroy all her people, including the offspring she produces,”
says the LORD | strong="H3069".

<sup>23</sup> “I will turn her into a place that is overrun with wild animals and covered with pools of stagnant water.
I will get rid of her, just as one sweeps away dirt with a broom,”
says the LORD who commands armies.

<sup>24</sup>
The LORD who commands armies makes this solemn vow:
“Be sure of this:
Just as I have intended, so it will be;
just as I have planned, it will happen.

<sup>25</sup> I will break Assyria in my land,
I will trample them underfoot on my hills.
Their yoke will be removed from my people,
the burden will be lifted from their shoulders.

<sup>26</sup> This is the plan I have devised for the whole earth;
my hand is ready to strike all the nations.”

<sup>27</sup> Indeed, the LORD who commands armies has a plan, and who can possibly frustrate it?
His hand is ready to strike,
and who can possibly stop it?

The Lord Will Judge the Philistines

<sup>28</sup> In the year King Ahaz died, this message was revealed:
<sup>29</sup> Don't be so happy, all you Philistines, just because the club that beat you has been broken!
For a viper will grow out of the serpent's root, and its fruit will be a darting adder.

<sup>30</sup> The poor will graze in my pastures;
the needy will rest securely.
But I will kill your root by famine;
it will put to death all your survivors.

<sup>31</sup> Wail, O city gate!
Cry out, O city!
Melt with fear, all you Philistines!
For out of the north comes a cloud of smoke, and there are no stragglers in its ranks.
<sup>32</sup> How will they respond to the messengers of this nation?
Indeed, the LORD has made Zion secure;
the oppressed among his people will find safety in her.

15

Indeed, in a night it is devastated,
Ar of Moab is destroyed!
Indeed, in a night it is devastated,
Kir of Moab is destroyed!

<sup>2</sup> They went up to the temple, the people of Dibon went up to the high places to lament.
Because of what happened to Nebo and Medeba, Moab wails.
Every head is shaved bare,
every beard is trimmed off.

<sup>3</sup> In their streets they wear sackcloth; on their roofs and in their town squares
all of them wail,
they fall down weeping.

<sup>4</sup> The people of Heshbon and Elealeh cry out, their voices are heard as far away as Jahaz.
For this reason Moab's soldiers shout in distress;
their courage wavers.

<sup>5</sup> My heart cries out because of Moab's plight, and for the fugitives stretched out as far as Zoar and Eglath Shelishiyah.
For they weep as they make their way up the ascent of Luhith;
they loudly lament their demise on the road to Horonaim.

<sup>6</sup> For the waters of Nimrim are gone;
the grass is dried up,
the vegetation has disappeared,
and there are no plants.

<sup>7</sup> For this reason what they have made and stored up, they carry over the Stream of the Poplars.

<sup>8</sup> Indeed, the cries of distress echo throughout Moabite territory; their wailing can be heard in Eglaim and Beer Elim.

Indeed, I will heap even more trouble on Dimon.
A lion will attack the Moabite fugitives and the people left in the land.

16

<sup>1</sup> Send rams as tribute to the ruler of the land, from Sela in the desert to the hill of Daughter Zion.

<sup>2</sup> At the fords of the Arnon the Moabite women are like a bird that flies about when forced from its nest.

<sup>3</sup> "Bring a plan, make a decision!
Provide some shade in the middle of the day!
Hide the fugitives! Do not betray the one who tries to escape!

<sup>4</sup> Please let the Moabite fugitives live among you.
Hide them from the destroyer!"
Certainly the one who applies pressure will cease, the destroyer will come to an end,
those who trample will disappear from the earth.

<sup>5</sup> Then a trustworthy king will be established;
he will rule in a reliable manner,
this one from David's family.
He will be sure to make just decisions and will be experienced in executing justice.

<sup>6</sup> We have heard about Moab's pride, their great arrogance, their boasting, pride, and excess.

 But their boastful claims are empty!

<sup>7</sup> So Moab wails over its demise – they all wail!

Completely devastated, they moan about what has happened to the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth.

<sup>8</sup> For the fields of Heshbon are dried up, as well as the vines of Sibmah.
 The rulers of the nations trample all over its vines, which reach Jazer and spread to the desert;
 their shoots spread out and cross the sea.

<sup>9</sup> So I weep along with Jazer over the vines of Sibmah.
 I will saturate you with my tears, Heshbon and Elealeh, for the conquering invaders shout triumphantly over your fruit and crops.

<sup>10</sup> Joy and happiness disappear from the orchards, and in the vineyards no one rejoices or shouts;
 no one treads out juice in the wine vats –
 I have brought the joyful shouts to an end.

<sup>11</sup> So my heart constantly sighs for Moab, like the strumming of a harp, my inner being sighs for Kir Hareseth.

<sup>12</sup> When the Moabites plead with all their might at their high places, and enter their temples to pray, their prayers will be ineffective!

<sup>14</sup> Now the LORD makes this announcement: “Within exactly three years Moab’s splendor will disappear, along with all her many people; there will be just a few, insignificant survivors left.”

<sup>1</sup> Here is a message about Damascus: “Look, Damascus is no longer a city, it is a heap of ruins!

<sup>2</sup> The cities of Aroer are abandoned.
 They will be used for herds, which will lie down there in peace.

<sup>3</sup> Fortified cities will disappear from Ephraim, and Damascus will lose its kingdom.

The survivors in Syria will end up like the splendor of the Israelites,”
 says the LORD who commands armies.

<sup>4</sup> “At that time
 Jacob’s splendor will be greatly diminished, and he will become skin and bones.

<sup>5</sup> It will be as when one gathers the grain harvest, and his hand gleans the ear of grain.
 It will be like one gathering the ears of grain in the Valley of Rephaim.

<sup>6</sup> There will be some left behind, like when an olive tree is beaten –
 two or three ripe olives remain toward the very top, four or five on its fruitful branches,” says the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> At that time men will trust in their creator;
they will depend on the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>8</sup> They will no longer trust in the altars their hands made, or depend on the Asherah poles and incense altars their fingers made.

<sup>9</sup> At that time their fortified cities will be like the abandoned summits of the Amorites, which they abandoned because of the Israelites;
there will be desolation.

<sup>10</sup> For you ignore the God who rescues you;
you pay no attention to your strong protector.
So this is what happens:

You cultivate beautiful plants and plant exotic vines.

<sup>11</sup> The day you begin cultivating, you do what you can to make it grow;
the morning you begin planting, you do what you can to make it sprout.
Yet the harvest will disappear in the day of disease and incurable pain.

<sup>12</sup> The many nations massing together are as good as dead, those who make a commotion as loud as the roaring of the sea's waves.
The people making such an uproar are as good as dead, those who make an uproar as loud as the roaring of powerful waves.

<sup>13</sup> Though these people make an uproar as loud as the roaring of powerful waves, when he shouts at them, they will flee to a distant land, driven before the wind like dead weeds on the hills,
or like dead thistles before a strong gale.

<sup>14</sup> In the evening there is sudden terror;
by morning they vanish.
This is the fate of those who try to plunder us,
the destiny of those who try to loot us!

18

<sup>1</sup> The land of buzzing wings is as good as dead, the one beyond the rivers of Cush,

<sup>2</sup> that sends messengers by sea, who glide over the water's surface in boats made of papyrus.
Go, you swift messengers,
to a nation of tall, smooth-skinned people,
to a people that are feared far and wide,
to a nation strong and victorious,
whose land rivers divide.

<sup>3</sup> All you who live in the world, who reside on the earth,
you will see a signal flag raised on the mountains;
you will hear a trumpet being blown.

<sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD has told me:
“I will wait and watch from my place, like scorching heat produced by the sunlight, like a cloud of mist in the heat of harvest.”

<sup>5</sup> For before the harvest, when the bud has sprouted, and the ripening fruit appears,

he will cut off the unproductive shoots with pruning knives;
he will prune the tendrils.

<sup>6</sup> They will all be left for the birds of the hills and the wild animals;
the birds will eat them during the summer, and all the wild animals will eat them during the winter.

<sup>7</sup> At that time
tribute will be brought to the LORD | strong="H3069" who commands armies, by a people that are tall and smooth-skinned,
a people that are feared far and wide,
a nation strong and victorious,
whose land rivers divide.
The tribute will be brought to the place where the LORD | strong="H3069" who commands armies has chosen to reside, on Mount Zion.

19

Look, the LORD rides on a swift-moving cloud and approaches Egypt.

The idols of Egypt tremble before him;
the Egyptians lose their courage.

<sup>2</sup> "I will provoke civil strife in Egypt, brothers will fight with each other,
as will neighbors,
cities, and kingdoms.

<sup>3</sup> The Egyptians will panic, and I will confuse their strategy.
They will seek guidance from the idols and from the spirits of the dead, from the pits used to conjure up underworld spirits, and from the magicians.

<sup>4</sup> I will hand Egypt over to a harsh master;
a powerful king will rule over them," says the sovereign master, the LORD who commands armies.

<sup>5</sup> The water of the sea will be dried up, and the river will dry up and be empty.

<sup>6</sup> The canals will stink;
the streams of Egypt will trickle and then dry up;
the bulrushes and reeds will decay,

<sup>7</sup> along with the plants by the mouth of the river.
All the cultivated land near the river will turn to dust and be blown away.

<sup>8</sup> The fishermen will mourn and lament, all those who cast a fishhook into the river, and those who spread out a net on the water's surface will grieve.

<sup>9</sup> Those who make clothes from combed flax will be embarrassed; those who weave will turn pale.

<sup>10</sup> Those who make cloth will be demoralized;
all the hired workers will be depressed.

<sup>11</sup> The officials of Zoan are nothing but fools;
Pharaoh's wise advisers give stupid advice.
How dare you say to Pharaoh,
"I am one of the sages,

one well-versed in the writings of the ancient kings?"

<sup>12</sup> But where, oh where, are your wise men?

Let them tell you, let them find out what the LORD | strong="H3069" who commands armies has planned for Egypt.

<sup>13</sup> The officials of Zoan are fools, the officials of Memphis are misled;
the rulers of her tribes lead Egypt astray.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD has made them undiscerning; they lead Egypt astray in all she does,
so that she is like a drunk sliding around in his own vomit.

<sup>15</sup> Egypt will not be able to do a thing, head or tail, shoots and stalk.

<sup>16</sup> At that time the Egyptians will be like women. They will tremble and fear because the LORD who commands armies brandishes his fist against them.

<sup>17</sup> The land of Judah will humiliate Egypt. Everyone who hears about Judah will be afraid because of what the LORD who commands armies is planning to do to them.

<sup>18</sup> At that time five cities in the land of Egypt will speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to the LORD who commands armies. One will be called the City of the Sun.

<sup>19</sup> At that time there will be an altar for the LORD in the middle of the land of Egypt, as well as a sacred pillar dedicated to the LORD at its border.

<sup>20</sup> It will become a visual reminder in the land of Egypt of the LORD who commands armies. When they cry out to the LORD because of oppressors, he will send them a deliverer and defender who will rescue them.

<sup>21</sup> The LORD will reveal himself to the Egyptians, and they will acknowledge the LORD's authority at that time. They will present sacrifices and offerings; they will make vows to the LORD and fulfill them.

<sup>22</sup> The LORD will strike Egypt, striking and then healing them. They will turn to the LORD and he will listen to their prayers and heal them.

<sup>23</sup> At that time there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria. The Assyrians will visit Egypt, and the Egyptians will visit Assyria. The Egyptians and Assyrians will worship together.

<sup>24</sup> At that time Israel will be the third member of the group, along with Egypt and Assyria, and will be a recipient of blessing in the earth.

<sup>25</sup> The LORD who commands armies will pronounce a blessing over the earth, saying, "Blessed be my people, Egypt, and the work of my hands, Assyria, and my special possession, Israel!"

20

<sup>2</sup> At that time the LORD | strong="H3069" announced through Isaiah son of Amoz: "Go, remove the sackcloth from your waist and take your sandals off your feet." He did as instructed and walked around in undergarments and barefoot.

<sup>3</sup> Later the LORD explained, "In the same way that my servant Isaiah has walked around in undergarments and barefoot for the past three years, as an object lesson and omen pertaining to Egypt and Cush, <sup>4</sup> so the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Cush, both young and old. They will be in undergarments and barefoot, with the buttocks exposed; the Egyptians will be publicly humiliated.

<sup>5</sup> Those who put their hope in Cush and took pride in Egypt will be afraid and embarrassed.

<sup>6</sup> At that time those who live on this coast will say, 'Look what has happened to our source of hope to whom we fled for help, expecting to be rescued from the king of Assyria! How can we escape now?' "

21

Like strong winds blowing in the south,
one invades from the desert,
from a land that is feared.

<sup>2</sup> I have received a distressing message:

"The deceiver deceives,
the destroyer destroys.

Attack, you Elamites!

Lay siege, you Medes!

I will put an end to all the groaning!"

<sup>3</sup> For this reason my stomach churns;

cramps overwhelm me like the contractions of a woman in labor.

I am disturbed by what I hear, horrified by what I see.

<sup>4</sup> My heart palpitates,

I shake in fear;

the twilight I desired has brought me terror.

<sup>5</sup> Arrange the table,

lay out the carpet,

eat and drink!

Get up, you officers,

smear oil on the shields!

<sup>6</sup> For this is what the sovereign master has told me:

"Go, post a guard!

He must report what he sees.

<sup>7</sup> When he sees chariots, teams of horses,

riders on donkeys,

riders on camels,

he must be alert,

very alert."

<sup>8</sup> Then the guard cries out:

"On the watchtower, O sovereign master,

I stand all day long;

at my post

I am stationed every night.

<sup>9</sup> Look what's coming!

A charioteer,

a team of horses."

When questioned, he replies,

"Babylon has fallen, fallen!

All the idols of her gods lie shattered on the ground!"

<sup>10</sup> O my downtrodden people, crushed like stalks on the threshing floor, what I have heard from the LORD who commands armies, the God of Israel,

I have reported to you.

Bad News for Seir

<sup>11</sup> Here is a message about Dumah:
Someone calls to me from Seir,
“Watchman, what is left of the night?

“Morning is coming, but then night.
If you want to ask, ask;
come back again.”

The Lord Will Judge Arabia

<sup>13</sup> Here is a message about Arabia:
In the thicket of Arabia you spend the night,
you Dedanite caravans.

<sup>14</sup> Bring out some water for the thirsty.
You who live in the land of Tema, bring some food for the fugitives.

<sup>15</sup> For they flee from the swords – from the drawn sword and from the battle-ready bow and from the severity of the battle.

<sup>16</sup> For this is what the sovereign master has told me: “Within exactly one year all the splendor of Kedar will come to an end.

<sup>17</sup> Just a handful of archers, the warriors of Kedar, will be left.” Indeed, the LORD God of Israel has spoken.

22

What is the reason that all of you go up to the rooftops?

<sup>2</sup> The noisy city is full of raucous sounds;
the town is filled with revelry.
Your slain were not cut down by the sword;
they did not die in battle.

<sup>3</sup>
All your leaders ran away together – they fled to a distant place;
all your refugees were captured together – they were captured without a single arrow being shot.

<sup>4</sup> So I say:
“Don’t look at me!
I am weeping bitterly.
Don’t try to console me concerning the destruction of my defenseless people.”

<sup>5</sup> For the sovereign master, the LORD who commands armies, has planned a day of panic, defeat, and confusion.
In the Valley of Vision people shout and cry out to the hill.

<sup>6</sup> The Elamites picked up the quiver, and came with chariots and horsemen;
the men of Kir prepared the shield.

<sup>7</sup> Your very best valleys were full of chariots; horsemen confidently took their positions at the gate.

At that time you looked for the weapons in the House of the Forest.

<sup>9</sup> You saw the many breaks in the walls of the city of David;
you stored up water in the lower pool.

<sup>10</sup> You counted the houses in Jerusalem, and demolished houses so you could have material to reinforce the wall.

<sup>11</sup> You made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool – but you did not trust in the one who made it;

you did not depend on the one who formed it long ago!

<sup>12</sup> At that time the sovereign master, the LORD | strong="H3069" who commands armies, called for weeping and mourning, for shaved heads and sackcloth.

<sup>13</sup> But look, there is outright celebration!

You say, “Kill the ox and slaughter the sheep, eat meat and drink wine.

Eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!”

<sup>14</sup> The LORD | strong="H3069" who commands armies told me this: “Certainly this sin will not be forgiven as long as you live,” says the sovereign master, the LORD who commands armies.

<sup>15</sup> This is what the sovereign master, the LORD | strong="H3069" who commands armies, says:

“Go visit this administrator, Shebna, who supervises the palace, and tell him:

<sup>16</sup> ‘What right do you have to be here? What relatives do you have buried here?

Why do you chisel out a tomb for yourself here?

He chisels out his burial site in an elevated place, he carves out his tomb on a cliff.

<sup>17</sup> Look, the LORD will throw you far away, you mere man!

He will wrap you up tightly.

<sup>18</sup> He will wind you up tightly into a ball and throw you into a wide, open land.

There you will die,

and there with you will be your impressive chariots, which bring disgrace to the house of your master.

<sup>19</sup> I will remove you from your office;
you will be thrown down from your position.

<sup>20</sup> “At that time I will summon my servant Eliakim, son of Hilkiah.

<sup>21</sup> I will put your robe on him, tie your belt around him, and transfer your authority to him. He will become a protector of the residents of Jerusalem and of the people of Judah.

<sup>22</sup> I will place the key to the house of David on his shoulder. When he opens the door, no one can close it; when he closes the door, no one can open it.

<sup>23</sup> I will fasten him like a peg into a solid place; he will bring honor and respect to his father’s family.

<sup>24</sup> His father's family will gain increasing prominence because of him, including the offspring and the offshoots. All the small containers, including the bowls and all the jars will hang from this peg.'

<sup>25</sup> "At that time," says the LORD who commands armies, "the peg fastened into a solid place will come loose. It will be cut off and fall, and the load hanging on it will be cut off." Indeed, the LORD has spoken.

23

Wail, you large ships,
for the port is too devastated to enter!
From the land of Cyprus this news is announced to them.

<sup>2</sup> Lament, you residents of the coast, you merchants of Sidon who travel over the sea, whose agents sail over

<sup>3</sup> the deep waters!

Grain from the Shihor region, crops grown near the Nile she receives;
she is the trade center of the nations.

<sup>4</sup> Be ashamed, O Sidon, for the sea says this, O fortress of the sea:
"I have not gone into labor or given birth;

I have not raised young men or brought up young women."

<sup>5</sup> When the news reaches Egypt, they will be shaken by what has happened to Tyre.

<sup>6</sup> Travel to Tarshish!
Wail, you residents of the coast!

<sup>7</sup> Is this really your boisterous city whose origins are in the distant past, and whose feet led her to a distant land to reside?

<sup>8</sup> Who planned this for royal Tyre, whose merchants are princes, whose traders are the dignitaries of the earth?

<sup>9</sup> The LORD | strong="H3069" who commands armies planned it – to dishonor the pride that comes from all her beauty, to humiliate all the dignitaries of the earth.

<sup>10</sup> Daughter Tarshish, travel back to your land, as one crosses the Nile;
there is no longer any marketplace in Tyre.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD stretched out his hand over the sea, he shook kingdoms;
he gave the order to destroy Canaan's fortresses.

<sup>12</sup> He said,
"You will no longer celebrate,
oppressed virgin daughter Sidon!
Get up, travel to Cyprus,
but you will find no relief there."

<sup>13</sup> Look at the land of the Chaldeans, these people who have lost their identity!

The Assyrians have made it a home for wild animals.
They erected their siege towers, demolished its fortresses,
and turned it into a heap of ruins.

<sup>14</sup> Wail, you large ships, for your fortress is destroyed!

<sup>15</sup> At that time Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, the typical life span of a king.
At the end of seventy years Tyre will try to attract attention again, like the prostitute in the popular song:

<sup>16</sup> "Take the harp, go through the city,
forgotten prostitute!
Play it well,
play lots of songs, so you'll be noticed!"

<sup>17</sup> At the end of seventy years the LORD will revive Tyre. She will start making money again by selling her services to all the earth's kingdoms.

<sup>18</sup> Her profits and earnings will be set apart for the LORD. They will not be stored up or accumulated, for her profits will be given to those who live in the LORD's presence and will be used to purchase large quantities of food and beautiful clothes.

24

<sup>1</sup> Look, the LORD is ready to devastate the earth and leave it in ruins;
he will mar its surface and scatter its inhabitants.

<sup>2</sup> Everyone will suffer – the priest as well as the people, the master as well as the servant,
the elegant lady as well as the female attendant,
the seller as well as the buyer,
the borrower as well as the lender,
the creditor as well as the debtor.

<sup>3</sup> The earth will be completely devastated and thoroughly ransacked.
For the LORD has decreed this judgment.

<sup>4</sup> The earth dries up and withers, the world shrivels up and withers;
the prominent people of the earth fade away.

<sup>5</sup> The earth is defiled by its inhabitants, for they have violated laws,
disregarded the regulation,
and broken the permanent treaty.

<sup>6</sup> So a treaty curse devours the earth;
its inhabitants pay for their guilt.
This is why the inhabitants of the earth disappear, and are reduced to just a handful of people.

<sup>7</sup> The new wine dries up,
the vines shrivel up,
all those who like to celebrate groan.

<sup>8</sup> The happy sound of the tambourines stops, the revelry of those who celebrate comes to a halt, the happy sound of the harp ceases.

<sup>9</sup> They no longer sing and drink wine;
the beer tastes bitter to those who drink it.

<sup>10</sup> The ruined town is shattered;
all of the houses are shut up tight.

<sup>11</sup> They howl in the streets because of what happened to the wine;
all joy turns to sorrow;
celebrations disappear from the earth.

<sup>12</sup> The city is left in ruins;
the gate is reduced to rubble.

<sup>13</sup> This is what will happen throughout the earth, among the nations.

It will be like when they beat an olive tree, and just a few olives are left at the end of the harvest.

<sup>14</sup> They lift their voices and shout joyfully;
they praise the majesty of the LORD | strong="H3069" in the west.

<sup>15</sup> So in the east extol the LORD, along the seacoasts extol the fame of the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>16</sup> From the ends of the earth we hear songs – the Just One is majestic.

But I say, "I'm wasting away! I'm wasting away! I'm doomed!
Deceivers deceive, deceivers thoroughly deceive!"

<sup>17</sup> Terror, pit, and snare are ready to overtake you inhabitants of the earth!

<sup>18</sup> The one who runs away from the sound of the terror will fall into the pit;
the one who climbs out of the pit,
will be trapped by the snare.

For the floodgates of the heavens are opened up and the foundations of the earth shake.

<sup>19</sup> The earth is broken in pieces, the earth is ripped to shreds,
the earth shakes violently.

<sup>20</sup> The earth will stagger around like a drunk;
it will sway back and forth like a hut in a windstorm.
Its sin will weigh it down,
and it will fall and never get up again.

The Lord Will Become King

<sup>21</sup> At that time the LORD will punish the heavenly forces in the heavens and the earthly kings on the earth.

<sup>22</sup> They will be imprisoned in a pit, locked up in a prison,
and after staying there for a long time, they will be punished.

<sup>23</sup> The full moon will be covered up, the bright sun will be darkened;
for the LORD who commands armies will rule on Mount Zion in Jerusalem in the presence of his assembly, in majestic splendor.

I will exalt you in praise, I will extol your fame.

For you have done extraordinary things, and executed plans made long ago exactly as you decreed.

<sup>2</sup> Indeed, you have made the city into a heap of rubble, the fortified town into a heap of ruins;
the fortress of foreigners is no longer a city,
it will never be rebuilt.

<sup>3</sup> So a strong nation will extol you;
the towns of powerful nations will fear you.

<sup>4</sup> For you are a protector for the poor,
a protector for the needy in their distress,
a shelter from the rainstorm,
a shade from the heat.
Though the breath of tyrants is like a winter rainstorm,

<sup>5</sup> like heat in a dry land, you humble the boasting foreigners.

Just as the shadow of a cloud causes the heat to subside, so he causes the song of tyrants to cease.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD who commands armies will hold a banquet for all the nations on this mountain.

At this banquet there will be plenty of meat and aged wine – tender meat and choicest wine.

<sup>7</sup> On this mountain he will swallow up the shroud that is over all the peoples, the woven covering that is over all the nations;

<sup>8</sup> he will swallow up death permanently.
The sovereign LORD will wipe away the tears from every face, and remove his people's disgrace from all the earth.
Indeed, the LORD has announced it!

<sup>9</sup> At that time they will say,

“Look, here is our God!

We waited for him and he delivered us.

Here is the LORD | strong="H3069"! We waited for him.

Let's rejoice and celebrate his deliverance!”

<sup>10</sup> For the LORD's power will make this mountain secure.

Moab will be trampled down where it stands, as a heap of straw is trampled down in a manure pile.

<sup>11</sup> Moab will spread out its hands in the middle of it, just as a swimmer spreads his hands to swim;
the LORD will bring down | strong="H8213" Moab's pride as it spreads its hands.

<sup>12</sup> The fortified city (along with the very tops of your walls) he will knock down, he will bring it down, he will throw it down to the dusty ground.

26

<sup>1</sup> At that time this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

“We have a strong city!

The LORD's deliverance | strong="H3444", like walls and a rampart, makes it secure.

<sup>2</sup> Open the gates so a righteous nation can enter – one that remains trustworthy.

<sup>3</sup> You keep completely safe the people who maintain their faith, for they trust in you.

<sup>4</sup> Trust in the LORD from this time forward, even in Yah, the LORD, an enduring protector!

<sup>5</sup> Indeed, the LORD knocks down | strong="H7817" those who live in a high place, he brings down an elevated town;
he brings it down to the ground,
he throws it down to the dust.

<sup>6</sup> It is trampled underfoot by the feet of the oppressed, by the soles of the poor."

God's People Anticipate Vindication

<sup>7</sup> The way of the righteous is level, the path of the righteous that you make is straight.

<sup>8</sup> Yes, as your judgments unfold,
O LORD, we wait for you.
We desire your fame and reputation to grow.

<sup>9</sup> I look for you during the night, my spirit within me seeks you at dawn,
for when your judgments come upon the earth,
those who live in the world learn about justice.

<sup>10</sup> If the wicked are shown mercy, they do not learn about justice.
Even in a land where right is rewarded, they act unjustly;
they do not see the LORD's | strong="H3069" majesty revealed.

<sup>11</sup> O LORD, you are ready to act,
but they don't even notice.
They will see and be put to shame by your angry judgment against humankind, yes, fire will consume your enemies.

<sup>12</sup> O LORD, you make us secure, for even all we have accomplished, you have done for us.

<sup>13</sup> O LORD, our God, masters other than you have ruled us,
but we praise your name alone.

<sup>14</sup> The dead do not come back to life, the spirits of the dead do not rise.
That is because you came in judgment and destroyed them, you wiped out all memory of them.

<sup>15</sup> You have made the nation larger, O LORD, you have made the nation larger and revealed your splendor, you have extended all the borders of the land.

<sup>16</sup> O LORD, in distress they looked for you;
they uttered incantations because of your discipline.

<sup>17</sup> As when a pregnant woman gets ready to deliver and strains and cries out because of her labor pains, so were we because of you, O LORD.

<sup>18</sup> We were pregnant, we strained, we gave birth, as it were, to wind.
We cannot produce deliverance on the earth;
people to populate the world are not born.

19

Your dead will come back to life;
your corpses will rise up.
Wake up and shout joyfully, you who live in the ground!
For you will grow like plants drenched with the morning dew, and the earth will bring forth its dead spirits.

20 Go, my people! Enter your inner rooms!

Close your doors behind you!

Hide for a little while,
until his angry judgment is over!

21 For look, the LORD is coming out of the place where he lives, to punish the sin of those who live on the earth.

The earth will display the blood shed on it;
it will no longer cover up its slain.

27

1 At that time the LORD will punish with his destructive, great, and powerful sword Leviathan the fast-moving serpent, Leviathan the squirming serpent;
he will kill the sea monster.

2 When that time comes, sing about a delightful vineyard!

3 I, the LORD, protect it;

I water it regularly.

I guard it night and day,

so no one can harm it.

4 I am not angry.

I wish I could confront some thorns and briers!

Then I would march against them for battle;

I would set them all on fire,

5 unless they became my subjects and made peace with me;

let them make peace with me.

6 The time is coming when Jacob will take root;

Israel will blossom and grow branches.

The produce will fill the surface of the world.

7 Has the LORD | strong="H4347" struck down Israel like he did their oppressors?

Has Israel been killed like their enemies?

8 When you summon her for divorce, you prosecute her;

he drives her away with his strong wind in the day of the east wind.

9 So in this way Jacob's sin will be forgiven, and this is how they will show they are finished sinning:

They will make all the stones of the altars like crushed limestone, and the Asherah poles and the incense altars will no longer stand.

10 For the fortified city is left alone;

it is a deserted settlement and abandoned like the desert.

Calves graze there;

they lie down there and eat its branches bare.

<sup>11</sup> When its branches get brittle, they break;
 women come and use them for kindling.
 For these people lack understanding, therefore the one who made them has no compassion on them;
 the one who formed them has no mercy on them.

<sup>12</sup> At that time the LORD | strong="H3069" will shake the tree, from the Euphrates River to the Stream of Egypt. Then you will be gathered up one by one, O Israelites.

<sup>13</sup> At that time a large trumpet will be blown, and the ones lost in the land of Assyria will come, as well as the refugees in the land of Egypt. They will worship the LORD on the holy mountain in Jerusalem.

28

<sup>1</sup> The splendid crown of Ephraim's drunkards is doomed, the withering flower, its beautiful splendor,
 situated at the head of a rich valley,
 the crown of those overcome with wine.

<sup>2</sup> Look, the sovereign master sends a strong, powerful one.
 With the force of a hailstorm or a destructive windstorm, with the might of a driving, torrential rainstorm, he will knock that crown to the ground with his hand.

<sup>3</sup> The splendid crown of Ephraim's drunkards will be trampled underfoot.

<sup>4</sup> The withering flower, its beautiful splendor, situated at the head of a rich valley, will be like an early fig before harvest – as soon as someone notices it, he grabs it and swallows it.

<sup>5</sup> At that time the LORD who commands armies will become a beautiful crown and a splendid diadem for the remnant of his people.

<sup>6</sup> He will give discernment to the one who makes judicial decisions, and strength to those who defend the city from attackers.

<sup>7</sup> Even these men stagger because of wine, they stumble around because of beer –
 priests and prophets stagger because of beer, they are confused because of wine,
 they stumble around because of beer;
 they stagger while seeing prophetic visions,
 they totter while making legal decisions.

<sup>8</sup> Indeed, all the tables are covered with vomit;
 no place is untouched.

<sup>9</sup> Who is the LORD trying to teach | strong="H1844"?
 To whom is he explaining a message?
 Those just weaned from milk!

Those just taken from their mother's breast!

<sup>10</sup> Indeed, they will hear meaningless gibberish, senseless babbling,
 a syllable here, a syllable there.

<sup>11</sup> For with mocking lips and a foreign tongue he will speak to these people.

<sup>12</sup> In the past he said to them,
 "This is where security can be found.

Provide security for the one who is exhausted!

This is where rest can be found.”

But they refused to listen.

<sup>13</sup> So the LORD’s word to them will sound like meaningless gibberish,

senseless babbling,

a syllable here, a syllable there.

As a result, they will fall on their backsides when they try to walk, and be injured, ensnared, and captured.

The Lord Will Judge Jerusalem

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, listen to the LORD’s word, you who mock,

you rulers of these people who reside in Jerusalem!

<sup>15</sup> For you say,

“We have made a treaty with death, with Sheol we have made an agreement.

When the overwhelming judgment sweeps by it will not reach us.

For we have made a lie our refuge,

we have hidden ourselves in a deceitful word.”

<sup>16</sup> Therefore, this is what the sovereign master, the LORD | strong="H3069", says:

“Look, I am laying a stone in Zion, an approved stone,

set in place as a precious cornerstone for the foundation.

The one who maintains his faith will not panic.

<sup>17</sup> I will make justice the measuring line, fairness the plumb line;

hail will sweep away the unreliable refuge,

the floodwaters will overwhelm the hiding place.

<sup>18</sup> Your treaty with death will be dissolved;

your agreement with Sheol will not last.

When the overwhelming judgment sweeps by,

you will be overrun by it.

<sup>19</sup> Whenever it sweeps by, it will overtake you;

indeed, every morning it will sweep by,

it will come through during the day and the night.”

When this announcement is understood, it will cause nothing but terror.

<sup>20</sup> For the bed is too short to stretch out on, and the blanket is too narrow to wrap around oneself.

<sup>21</sup> For the LORD will rise up, as he did at Mount Perazim, he will rouse himself, as he did in the Valley of Gibeon, to accomplish his work,

his peculiar work,

to perform his task,

his strange task.

<sup>22</sup> So now, do not mock,

or your chains will become heavier!

For I have heard a message about decreed destruction, from the sovereign master, the LORD who commands armies, against the entire land.

<sup>23</sup> Pay attention and listen to my message!
Be attentive and listen to what I have to say!
<sup>24</sup> Does a farmer just keep on plowing at planting time?
Does he keep breaking up and harrowing his ground?
<sup>25</sup> Once he has leveled its surface, does he not scatter the seed of the caraway plant,
sow the seed of the cumin plant, and plant the wheat, barley, and grain in their designated places?
<sup>26</sup> His God instructs him;
he teaches him the principles of agriculture.
<sup>27</sup> Certainly caraway seed is not threshed with a sledge, nor is the wheel of a cart rolled over cumin seed.
Certainly caraway seed is beaten with a stick,
and cumin seed with a flail.
<sup>28</sup> Grain is crushed, though one certainly does not thresh it forever.
The wheel of one's wagon rolls over it,
but his horses do not crush it.
<sup>29</sup> This also comes from the LORD who commands armies, who gives supernatural guidance and imparts great wisdom.

29

<sup>1</sup> Ariel is as good as dead –
Ariel, the town David besieged!
Keep observing your annual rituals, celebrate your festivals on schedule.
<sup>2</sup> I will threaten Ariel, and she will mourn intensely and become like an altar hearth before me.
<sup>3</sup> I will lay siege to you on all sides;
I will besiege you with troops;
I will raise siege works against you.
<sup>4</sup> You will fall;
while lying on the ground you will speak;
from the dust where you lie, your words will be heard.
Your voice will sound like a spirit speaking from the underworld;
from the dust you will chirp as if muttering an incantation.
<sup>5</sup> But the horde of invaders will be like fine dust, the horde of tyrants like chaff that is blown away.
It will happen suddenly, in a flash.
<sup>6</sup> Judgment will come from the LORD who commands armies, accompanied by thunder, earthquake, and a loud noise, by a strong gale, a windstorm, and a consuming flame of fire.
<sup>7</sup> It will be like a dream, a night vision.
There will be a horde from all the nations that fight against Ariel, those who attack her and her stronghold and besiege her.
<sup>8</sup> It will be like a hungry man dreaming that he is eating, only to awaken and find that his stomach is empty.
It will be like a thirsty man dreaming that he is drinking, only to awaken and find that he is still weak and his thirst unquenched.
So it will be for the horde from all the nations that fight against Mount Zion.

God's People are Spiritually Insensitive

<sup>9</sup> You will be shocked and amazed!

You are totally blind!

They are drunk, but not because of wine;
they stagger, but not because of beer.

<sup>10</sup> For the LORD | strong="H3069" has poured out on you a strong urge to sleep deeply.

He has shut your eyes (the prophets), and covered your heads (the seers).

<sup>11</sup> To you this entire prophetic revelation is like words in a sealed scroll. When they hand it to one who can read and say, "Read this," he responds, "I can't, because it is sealed."

<sup>12</sup> Or when they hand the scroll to one who can't read and say, "Read this," he says, "I can't read."

<sup>13</sup> The sovereign master says,
"These people say they are loyal to me;
they say wonderful things about me,
but they are not really loyal to me.

Their worship consists of nothing but man-made ritual.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore I will again do an amazing thing for these people – an absolutely extraordinary deed.

Wise men will have nothing to say,
the sages will have no explanations."

<sup>15</sup> Those who try to hide their plans from the LORD are as good as dead, who do their work in secret and boast,
"Who sees us? Who knows what we're doing?"

<sup>16</sup> Your thinking is perverse!

Should the potter be regarded as clay?

Should the thing made say about its maker, "He didn't make me"?

Or should the pottery say about the potter, "He doesn't understand"?

Changes are Coming

<sup>17</sup> In just a very short time

Lebanon will turn into an orchard, and the orchard will be considered a forest.

<sup>18</sup> At that time the deaf will be able to hear words read from a scroll, and the eyes of the blind will be able to see through deep darkness.

<sup>19</sup> The downtrodden will again rejoice in the LORD;
the poor among humankind will take delight in the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>20</sup> For tyrants will disappear, those who taunt will vanish, and all those who love to do wrong will be eliminated –

<sup>21</sup> those who bear false testimony against a person, who entrap the one who arbitrates at the city gate and deprive the innocent of justice by making false charges.

<sup>22</sup> So this is what the LORD, the one who delivered Abraham, says to the family of Jacob:
"Jacob will no longer be ashamed; their faces will no longer show their embarrassment.

<sup>23</sup> For when they see their children, whom I will produce among them,
they will honor my name.

They will honor the Holy One of Jacob;
they will respect the God of Israel.

<sup>24</sup> Those who stray morally will gain understanding;
those who complain will acquire insight.

30

“those who make plans without consulting me, who form alliances without consulting my Spirit, and thereby compound their sin.

<sup>2</sup> They travel down to Egypt without seeking my will,
seeking Pharaoh’s protection, and looking for safety in Egypt’s protective shade.

<sup>3</sup> But Pharaoh’s protection will bring you nothing but shame, and the safety of Egypt’s protective shade nothing but humiliation.

<sup>4</sup> Though his officials are in Zoan and his messengers arrive at Hanes,

<sup>5</sup> all will be put to shame because of a nation that cannot help them, who cannot give them aid or help, but only shame and disgrace.”

<sup>6</sup> This is a message about the animals in the Negev:
Through a land of distress and danger, inhabited by lionesses and roaring lions,
by snakes and darting adders,
they transport their wealth on the backs of donkeys, their riches on the humps of camels,
to a nation that cannot help them.

<sup>7</sup> Egypt is totally incapable of helping.

For this reason I call her ‘Proud one who is silenced.’ ”

<sup>8</sup> Now go, write it down on a tablet in their presence, inscribe it on a scroll,
so that it might be preserved for a future time as an enduring witness.

<sup>9</sup> For these are rebellious people –
they are lying children, children unwilling to obey the LORD’s law.

<sup>10</sup> They say to the visionaries, “See no more visions!”
and to the seers, “Don’t relate messages to us about what is right!
Tell us nice things, relate deceptive messages.

<sup>11</sup> Turn aside from the way, stray off the path.

Remove from our presence the Holy One of Israel.”

<sup>12</sup> For this reason this is what the Holy One of Israel says:
“You have rejected this message;
you trust instead in your ability to oppress and trick,
and rely on that kind of behavior.

<sup>13</sup> So this sin will become your downfall.

You will be like a high wall that bulges and cracks and is ready to collapse;
it crumbles suddenly, in a flash.

<sup>14</sup> It shatters in pieces like a clay jar, so shattered to bits that none of it can be salvaged.
Among its fragments one cannot find a shard large enough to scoop a hot coal from a fire or to skim off water from a cistern.”

<sup>15</sup> For this is what the master, the LORD | strong="H3069", the Holy One of Israel says:
“If you repented and patiently waited for me, you would be delivered;
if you calmly trusted in me you would find strength,
but you are unwilling.

<sup>16</sup> You say, ‘No, we will flee on horses,’ so you will indeed flee.
You say, ‘We will ride on fast horses,’ so your pursuers will be fast.

<sup>17</sup> One thousand will scurry at the battle cry of one enemy soldier;
at the battle cry of five enemy soldiers you will all run away, until the remaining few are as isolated as a flagpole on a mountaintop or a signal flag on a hill.”

The Lord Will Not Abandon His People

<sup>18</sup> For this reason the LORD is ready to show you mercy;
he sits on his throne, ready to have compassion on you.
Indeed, the LORD is a just God;
all who wait for him in faith will be blessed.

<sup>19</sup> For people will live in Zion;
in Jerusalem you will weep no more.
When he hears your cry of despair, he will indeed show you mercy;
when he hears it, he will respond to you.

<sup>20</sup> The sovereign master will give you distress to eat and suffering to drink;
but your teachers will no longer be hidden;
your eyes will see them.

<sup>21</sup> You will hear a word spoken behind you, saying,
“This is the correct way, walk in it,” whether you are heading to the right or the left.

<sup>22</sup> You will desecrate your silver-plated idols and your gold-plated images.
You will throw them away as if they were a menstrual rag, saying to them, “Get out!”

<sup>23</sup> He will water the seed you plant in the ground, and the ground will produce crops in abundance.
At that time your cattle will graze in wide pastures.

<sup>24</sup> The oxen and donkeys used in plowing will eat seasoned feed winnowed with a shovel and pitchfork.

<sup>25</sup> On every high mountain and every high hill
there will be streams flowing with water, at the time of great slaughter when the fortified towers collapse.

<sup>26</sup> The light of the full moon will be like the sun's glare and the sun's glare will be seven times brighter, like the light of seven days, when the LORD binds up his people's fractured bones and heals their severe wound.
<sup>27</sup> Look, the name of the LORD comes from a distant place in raging anger and awesome splendor.
He speaks angrily and his word is like destructive fire.
<sup>28</sup> His battle cry overwhelms like a flooding river that reaches one's neck.
He shakes the nations in a sieve that isolates the chaff;
he puts a bit into the mouth of the nations and leads them to destruction.
<sup>29</sup> You will sing as you do in the evening when you are celebrating a festival.
You will be happy like one who plays a flute as he goes to the mountain of the LORD, the Rock who shelters Israel.
<sup>30</sup> The LORD will give a mighty shout and intervene in power, with furious anger and flaming, destructive fire,
with a driving rainstorm and hailstones.
<sup>31</sup> Indeed, the LORD's shout will shatter Assyria;
he will beat them with a club.
<sup>32</sup> Every blow from his punishing cudgel, with which the LORD will beat them, will be accompanied by music from the tambourine and harp,
and he will attack them with his weapons.
<sup>33</sup> For the burial place is already prepared;
it has been made deep and wide for the king.
The firewood is piled high on it.
The LORD's breath, like a stream flowing with brimstone, will ignite it.

<sup>1</sup> Those who go down to Egypt for help are as good as dead, those who rely on war horses, and trust in Egypt's many chariots and in their many, many horsemen.
But they do not rely on the Holy One of Israel and do not seek help from the LORD.
<sup>2</sup> Yet he too is wise and he will bring disaster; he does not retract his decree.
He will attack the wicked nation, and the nation that helps those who commit sin.
<sup>3</sup> The Egyptians are mere humans, not God;
their horses are made of flesh, not spirit.
The LORD will strike with his hand;
the one who helps will stumble and the one being helped will fall.
Together they will perish.

The Lord Will Defend Zion

<sup>4</sup> Indeed, this is what the LORD says to me:
 "The LORD | strong="H1897" will be like a growling lion, like a young lion growling over its prey.
 Though a whole group of shepherds gathers against it, it is not afraid of their shouts or intimidated by their yelling.
 In this same way the LORD who commands armies will descend to do battle on Mount Zion and on its hill.
<sup>5</sup> Just as birds hover over a nest, so the LORD who commands armies will protect Jerusalem.
 He will protect and deliver it;
 as he passes over he will rescue it.
<sup>6</sup> You Israelites! Return to the one against whom you have so blatantly rebelled!
<sup>7</sup> For at that time everyone will get rid of the silver and gold idols your hands sinfully made.
<sup>8</sup> Assyria will fall by a sword, but not one human-made;
 a sword not made by humankind will destroy them.
 They will run away from this sword and their young men will be forced to do hard labor.
<sup>9</sup> They will surrender their stronghold because of fear;
 their officers will be afraid of the LORD's battle flag | strong="H5251".
 This is what the LORD | strong="H3069" says –
 the one whose fire is in Zion, whose firepot is in Jerusalem.

32

<sup>1</sup> Look, a king will promote fairness;
 officials will promote justice.
<sup>2</sup> Each of them will be like a shelter from the wind and a refuge from a rainstorm; like streams of water in a dry region and like the shade of a large cliff in a parched land.
<sup>3</sup> Eyes will no longer be blind and ears will be attentive.
<sup>4</sup> The mind that acts rashly will possess discernment and the tongue that stutters will speak with ease and clarity.
<sup>5</sup> A fool will no longer be called honorable;
 a deceiver will no longer be called principled.
<sup>6</sup> For a fool speaks disgraceful things;
 his mind plans out sinful deeds.
 He commits godless deeds
 and says misleading things about the LORD | strong="H3069";
 he gives the hungry nothing to satisfy their appetite and gives the thirsty nothing to drink.
<sup>7</sup> A deceiver's methods are evil;
 he dreams up evil plans to ruin the poor with lies,
 even when the needy are in the right.
<sup>8</sup> An honorable man makes honorable plans;
 his honorable character gives him security.

The Lord Will Give True Security

<sup>9</sup> You complacent women, get up and listen to me!
You carefree daughters,
pay attention to what I say!

<sup>10</sup> In a year's time you carefree ones will shake with fear, for the grape harvest will fail,
and the fruit harvest will not arrive.

<sup>11</sup> Tremble, you complacent ones!
Shake with fear, you carefree ones!
Strip off your clothes and expose yourselves – put sackcloth on your waist!

<sup>12</sup> Mourn over the field, over the delightful fields and the fruitful vine!

<sup>13</sup> Mourn over the land of my people, which is overgrown with thorns and briers, and over all the once-happy houses in the city filled with revelry.

<sup>14</sup> For the fortress is neglected;
the once-crowded city is abandoned.

Hill and watchtower are permanently uninhabited.
Wild donkeys love to go there,
and flocks graze there.

<sup>15</sup> This desolation will continue until new life is poured out on us from heaven.
Then the desert will become an orchard and the orchard will be considered a forest.

<sup>16</sup> Justice will settle down in the desert and fairness will live in the orchard.

<sup>17</sup> Fairness will produce peace and result in lasting security.

<sup>18</sup> My people will live in peaceful settlements, in secure homes,
and in safe, quiet places.

<sup>19</sup> Even if the forest is destroyed and the city is annihilated,

<sup>20</sup> you will be blessed, you who plant seed by all the banks of the streams,
you who let your ox and donkey graze.

33

<sup>1</sup> The destroyer is as good as dead,
you who have not been destroyed!
The deceitful one is as good as dead,
the one whom others have not deceived!
When you are through destroying, you will be destroyed;
when you finish deceiving, others will deceive you!

<sup>2</sup> LORD, be merciful to us! We wait for you.
Give us strength each morning!
Deliver us when distress comes.

<sup>3</sup> The nations run away when they hear a loud noise;

the nations scatter when you spring into action!

<sup>4</sup> Your plunder disappears as if locusts were eating it; they swarm over it like locusts!

<sup>6</sup> He is your constant source of stability; he abundantly provides safety and great wisdom; he gives all this to those who fear him.

<sup>8</sup> Highways are empty, there are no travelers. Treaties are broken, witnesses are despised, human life is treated with disrespect.

<sup>9</sup> The land dries up and withers away; the forest of Lebanon shrivels up and decays. Sharon is like the desert; Bashan and Carmel are parched.

<sup>10</sup> "Now I will rise up," says the LORD. "Now I will exalt myself; now I will magnify myself.

<sup>11</sup> You conceive straw, you give birth to chaff; your breath is a fire that destroys you.

<sup>12</sup> The nations will be burned to ashes; like thorn bushes that have been cut down, they will be set on fire.

<sup>13</sup> You who are far away, listen to what I have done! You who are close by, recognize my strength!"

<sup>15</sup> The one who lives uprightly and speaks honestly; the one who refuses to profit from oppressive measures and rejects a bribe; the one who does not plot violent crimes and does not seek to harm others –

<sup>16</sup> This is the person who will live in a secure place; he will find safety in the rocky, mountain strongholds; he will have food and a constant supply of water.

<sup>17</sup> You will see a king in his splendor; you will see a wide land.

<sup>18</sup> Your mind will recall the terror you experienced, and you will ask yourselves, "Where is the scribe? Where is the one who weighs the money? Where is the one who counts the towers?"

<sup>19</sup> You will no longer see a defiant people whose language you do not comprehend, whose derisive speech you do not understand.

<sup>20</sup> Look at Zion, the city where we hold religious festivals!
You will see Jerusalem,
a peaceful settlement,
a tent that stays put;
its stakes will never be pulled up;
none of its ropes will snap in two.
<sup>21</sup> Instead the LORD will rule there as our mighty king.
Rivers and wide streams will flow through it;
no war galley will enter;
no large ships will sail through.
<sup>22</sup> For the LORD, our ruler, the LORD, our commander, the LORD, our king –
he will deliver us.
<sup>23</sup> Though at this time your ropes are slack, the mast is not secured,
and the sail is not unfurled, at that time you will divide up a great quantity of loot;
even the lame will drag off plunder.
<sup>24</sup> No resident of Zion will say, “I am ill”;
the people who live there will have their sin forgiven.

34

<sup>1</sup> Come near, you nations, and listen!
Pay attention, you people!
The earth and everything it contains must listen,
the world and everything that lives in it.
<sup>2</sup> For the LORD is angry at all the nations and furious with all their armies.
He will annihilate them and slaughter them.
<sup>3</sup> Their slain will be left unburied,
their corpses will stink;
the hills will soak up their blood.
<sup>4</sup> All the stars in the sky will fade away, the sky will roll up like a scroll;
all its stars will wither,
like a leaf withers and falls from a vine or a fig withers and falls from a tree.
<sup>5</sup> He says, “Indeed, my sword has slaughtered heavenly powers.
Look, it now descends on Edom, on the people I will annihilate in judgment.” <sup>6</sup> The LORD’s sword is dripping with blood, it is covered with fat;
it drips with the blood of young rams and goats and is covered with the fat of rams’ kidneys.
For the LORD is holding a sacrifice in Bozrah, a bloody slaughter in the land of Edom.
<sup>7</sup> Wild oxen will be slaughtered along with them, as well as strong bulls.

Their land is drenched with blood, their soil is covered with fat.
<sup>8</sup> For the LORD has planned a day of revenge, a time when he will repay Edom for her hostility toward Zion.
<sup>9</sup> Edom's streams will be turned into pitch and her soil into brimstone;
her land will become burning pitch.
<sup>10</sup> Night and day it will burn;
its smoke will ascend continually.
Generation after generation it will be a wasteland and no one will ever pass through it again.
<sup>11</sup> Owls and wild animals will live there, all kinds of wild birds will settle in it.
The LORD will stretch out | strong="H5186" over her the measuring line of ruin and the plumb line of destruction.
<sup>12</sup> Her nobles will have nothing left to call a kingdom and all her officials will disappear.
<sup>13</sup> Her fortresses will be overgrown with thorns;
thickets and weeds will grow in her fortified cities.
Jackals will settle there;
ostriches will live there.
<sup>14</sup> Wild animals and wild dogs will congregate there;
wild goats will bleat to one another.
Yes, nocturnal animals will rest there and make for themselves a nest.
<sup>15</sup> Owls will make nests and lay eggs there;
they will hatch them and protect them.
Yes, hawks will gather there,
each with its mate.
<sup>16</sup> Carefully read the scroll of the LORD!
Not one of these creatures will be missing,
none will lack a mate.
For the LORD | strong="H6680" has issued the decree, and his own spirit gathers them.
<sup>17</sup> He assigns them their allotment;
he measures out their assigned place.
They will live there permanently;
they will settle in it through successive generations.

35

<sup>1</sup> Let the desert and dry region be happy;
let the wilderness rejoice and bloom like a lily!
<sup>2</sup> Let it richly bloom;
let it rejoice and shout with delight!
It is given the grandeur of Lebanon,
the splendor of Carmel and Sharon.
They will see the grandeur of the LORD,
the splendor of our God.
<sup>3</sup> Strengthen the hands that have gone limp, steady the knees that shake!
<sup>4</sup> Tell those who panic,

“Be strong! Do not fear!
Look, your God comes to avenge!
With divine retribution he comes to deliver you.”
<sup>5</sup> Then blind eyes will open, deaf ears will hear.
<sup>6</sup> Then the lame will leap like a deer, the mute tongue will shout for joy;
for water will flow in the desert,
streams in the wilderness.
<sup>7</sup> The dry soil will become a pool of water, the parched ground springs of water.
Where jackals once lived and sprawled out, grass, reeds, and papyrus will grow.
<sup>8</sup> A thoroughfare will be there – it will be called the Way of Holiness.
The unclean will not travel on it;
it is reserved for those authorized to use it – fools will not stray into it.
<sup>9</sup> No lions will be there, no ferocious wild animals will be on it –
they will not be found there.
Those delivered from bondage will travel on it, <sup>10</sup> those whom the LORD has ransomed will return that way.
They will enter Zion with a happy shout.
Unending joy will crown them,
happiness and joy will overwhelm them;
grief and suffering will disappear.

36

<sup>5</sup> Your claim to have a strategy and military strength is just empty talk. In whom are you trusting, that you would dare to rebel against me?’

<sup>6</sup> Look, you must be trusting in Egypt, that splintered reed staff. If someone leans on it for support, it punctures his hand and wounds him. That is what Pharaoh king of Egypt does to all who trust in him!

<sup>7</sup> Perhaps you will tell me, ‘We are trusting in the LORD | strong="H3069" our God.’ But Hezekiah is the one who eliminated his high places and altars and then told the people of Judah and Jerusalem, ‘You must worship at this altar.’

<sup>8</sup> Now make a deal with my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, provided you can find enough riders for them.

<sup>9</sup> Certainly you will not refuse one of my master's minor officials and trust in Egypt for chariots and horsemen.

<sup>10</sup> Furthermore it was by the command of the LORD that I marched up against this land to destroy it. The LORD told me, 'March up against this land and destroy it!' " " "

<sup>11</sup> Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the chief adviser, "Speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it. Don't speak with us in the Judahite dialect in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

<sup>12</sup> But the chief adviser said, "My master did not send me to speak these words only to your master and to you. His message is also for the men who sit on the wall, for they will eat their own excrement and drink their own urine along with you!"

<sup>14</sup> This is what the king says: 'Don't let Hezekiah mislead you, for he is not able to rescue you!'

<sup>15</sup> Don't let Hezekiah talk you into trusting in the LORD by saying, "The LORD will certainly rescue us; this city will not be handed over to the king of Assyria."

<sup>16</sup> Don't listen to Hezekiah! For this is what the king of Assyria says, 'Send me a token of your submission and surrender to me. Then each of you may eat from his own vine and fig tree and drink water from his own cistern, <sup>17</sup> until I come and take you to a land just like your own - a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

<sup>18</sup> Hezekiah is misleading you when he says, "The LORD will rescue us." Has any of the gods of the nations rescued his land from the power of the king of Assyria?

<sup>19</sup> Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Indeed, did any gods rescue Samaria from my power?

<sup>20</sup> Who among all the gods of these lands have rescued their lands from my power? So how can the LORD rescue Jerusalem from my power?" "

<sup>21</sup> They were silent and did not respond, for the king had ordered, "Don't respond to him."

<sup>22</sup> Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, the palace supervisor, accompanied by Shebna the scribe and Joah son of Asaph, the secretary, went to Hezekiah with their clothes torn in grief and reported to him what the chief adviser had said.

37

<sup>2</sup> Eliakim the palace supervisor, Shebna the scribe, and the leading priests, clothed in sackcloth, sent this message to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz:

<sup>4</sup> Perhaps the LORD | strong="H3069" your God will hear all these things the chief adviser has spoken on behalf of his master, the king of Assyria, who sent him to taunt the living God. When the LORD | strong="H3069" your God hears, perhaps he will punish him for the things he has said. So pray for this remnant that remains.' "

<sup>6</sup> Isaiah said to them, "Tell your master this: 'This is what the LORD says: "Don't be afraid because of the things you have heard - these insults the king of Assyria's servants have hurled against me.'

<sup>7</sup> Look, I will take control of his mind; he will receive a report and return to his own land. I will cut him down with a sword in his own land.' " "

<sup>8</sup> When the chief adviser heard the king of Assyria had departed from Lachish, he left and went to Libnah, where the king was campaigning.

<sup>9</sup> The king heard that King Tirhakah of Ethiopia was marching out to fight him. He again sent messengers to Hezekiah, ordering them:

<sup>10</sup> “Tell King Hezekiah of Judah this: ‘Don’t let your God in whom you trust mislead you when he says, “Jerusalem will not be handed over to the king of Assyria.”’

<sup>11</sup> Certainly you have heard how the kings of Assyria have annihilated all lands. Do you really think you will be rescued?

<sup>12</sup> Were the nations whom my predecessors destroyed – the nations of Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden in Telassar – rescued by their gods?

<sup>14</sup> Hezekiah took the letter from the messengers and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to the LORD’s temple and spread it out before the LORD.

<sup>16</sup> “O LORD who commands armies, O God of Israel, who is enthroned on the cherubim! You alone are God over all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the sky and the earth.

<sup>17</sup> Pay attention, LORD, and hear! Open your eyes, LORD, and observe! Listen to this entire message Sennacherib sent and how he taunts the living God!

<sup>18</sup> It is true, LORD, that the kings of Assyria have destroyed all the nations and their lands.

<sup>19</sup> They have burned the gods of the nations, for they are not really gods, but only the product of human hands manufactured from wood and stone. That is why the Assyrians could destroy them.

<sup>20</sup> Now, O LORD our God, rescue us from his power, so all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you alone are the LORD.”

<sup>21</sup> Isaiah son of Amoz sent this message to Hezekiah: “This is what the LORD God of Israel says: ‘Because you prayed to me concerning King Sennacherib of Assyria, <sup>22</sup> this is what the LORD says about him:

“The virgin daughter Zion despises you – she makes fun of you;
daughter Jerusalem shakes her head after you.

<sup>23</sup> Whom have you taunted and hurled insults at?

At whom have you shouted and looked so arrogantly?

At the Holy One of Israel!

<sup>24</sup> Through your messengers you taunted the sovereign master,

‘With my many chariots I climbed up the high mountains,

the slopes of Lebanon.

I cut down its tall cedars and its best evergreens.

I invaded its most remote regions, its thickest woods.

<sup>25</sup> I dug wells and drank water.

With the soles of my feet I dried up all the rivers of Egypt.’

<sup>26</sup>

Certainly you must have heard!

Long ago I worked it out, in ancient times I planned it, and now I am bringing it to pass.

The plan is this:

Fortified cities will crash into heaps of ruins.

<sup>27</sup> Their residents are powerless;
they are terrified and ashamed.

They are as short-lived as plants in the field or green vegetation.

They are as short-lived as grass on the rooftops when it is scorched by the east wind.

<sup>28</sup> I know where you live and everything you do and how you rage against me.

<sup>29</sup> Because you rage against me and the uproar you create has reached my ears,

I will put my hook in your nose, and my bridle between your lips,

and I will lead you back the way you came.”

<sup>30</sup>

“This will be your reminder that I have spoken the truth: This year you will eat what grows wild, and next year what grows on its own. But the year after that you will plant seed and harvest crops; you will plant vines and consume their produce.

<sup>31</sup> Those who remain in Judah will take root in the ground and bear fruit.

<sup>32</sup> “For a remnant will leave Jerusalem; survivors will come out of Mount Zion.

The intense devotion of the LORD who commands armies will accomplish this.

<sup>33</sup> So this is what the LORD says about the king of Assyria:

‘He will not enter this city, nor will he shoot an arrow here.

He will not attack it with his shielded warriors, nor will he build siege works against it.

<sup>34</sup> He will go back the way he came –

he will not enter this city,’ says the LORD.

<sup>35</sup> I will shield this city and rescue it for the sake of my reputation and because of my promise to David my servant.” ’ ’ ”

<sup>36</sup> The LORD’s messenger went out and killed 185,000 troops in the Assyrian camp. When they got up early the next morning, there were all the corpses!

<sup>37</sup> So King Sennacherib of Assyria broke camp and went on his way. He went home and stayed in Nineveh.

<sup>38</sup> One day, as he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adram-melech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword. They ran away to the land of Ararat; his son Esarhaddon replaced him as king.

38

<sup>3</sup> “Please, LORD. Remember how I have served you faithfully and with wholehearted devotion, and how I have carried out your will.” Then Hezekiah wept bitterly.

<sup>5</sup> “Go and tell Hezekiah: ‘This is what the LORD | strong=“H3069” God of your ancestor David says: “I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears. Look, I will add fifteen years to your life,

<sup>6</sup> and rescue you and this city from the king of Assyria. I will shield this city.” ’ ”

<sup>7</sup> Isaiah replied, “This is your sign from the LORD confirming that the LORD will do what he has said:

<sup>8</sup> Look, I will make the shadow go back ten steps on the stairs of Ahaz.” And then the shadow went back ten steps.

Hezekiah's Song of Thanks

<sup>9</sup> This is the prayer of King Hezekiah of Judah when he was sick and then recovered from his illness:

<sup>10</sup> “I thought,

‘In the middle of my life I must walk through the gates of Sheol,
I am deprived of the rest of my years.’

<sup>11</sup> “I thought,

‘I will no longer see the LORD | strong=“H3050” in the land of the living,
I will no longer look on humankind with the inhabitants of the world.

<sup>12</sup> My dwelling place is removed and taken away from me like a shepherd’s tent.

I rolled up my life like a weaver rolls cloth;
from the loom he cuts me off.

You turn day into night and end my life.

<sup>13</sup> I cry out until morning;

like a lion he shatters all my bones;
you turn day into night and end my life.

<sup>14</sup> Like a swallow or a thrush I chirp,

I coo like a dove;
my eyes grow tired from looking up to the sky.
O sovereign master, I am oppressed;
help me!

<sup>15</sup> What can I say?

He has decreed and acted.

I will walk slowly all my years because I am overcome with grief.

<sup>16</sup> O sovereign master, your decrees can give men life;

may years of life be restored to me.

Restore my health and preserve my life.’

<sup>17</sup> “Look, the grief I experienced was for my benefit.

You delivered me from the pit of oblivion.

For you removed all my sins from your sight.

<sup>18</sup> Indeed Sheol does not give you thanks;

death does not praise you.

Those who descend into the pit do not anticipate your faithfulness.

<sup>19</sup> The living person, the living person, he gives you thanks, as I do today.

A father tells his sons about your faithfulness.

<sup>20</sup> The LORD is about to deliver me, and we will celebrate with music for the rest of our lives in the LORD’s temple.”

<sup>21</sup> Isaiah ordered, “Let them take a fig cake and apply it to the ulcerated sore and he will get well.”

<sup>22</sup> Hezekiah said, “What is the confirming sign that I will go up to the LORD’s temple?”

39

<sup>1</sup> At that time Merodach-Baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, for he heard that Hezekiah had been ill and had recovered.

<sup>2</sup> Hezekiah welcomed them and showed them his storehouse with its silver, gold, spices, and high-quality olive oil, as well as his whole armory and everything in his treasuries. Hezekiah showed them everything in his palace and in his whole kingdom.

<sup>3</sup> Isaiah the prophet visited King Hezekiah and asked him, “What did these men say? Where do they come from?” Hezekiah replied, “They come from the distant land of Babylon.”

<sup>4</sup> Isaiah asked, “What have they seen in your palace?” Hezekiah replied, “They have seen everything in my palace. I showed them everything in my treasuries.”

<sup>5</sup> Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Listen to the word of the LORD who commands armies:

<sup>6</sup> ‘Look, a time is coming when everything in your palace and the things your ancestors have accumulated to this day will be carried away to Babylon; nothing will be left,’ says the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> ‘Some of your very own descendants whom your father will be taken away and will be made eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.’ ”

<sup>8</sup> Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “The LORD’s word which you have announced is appropriate.” Then he thought, “For there will be peace and stability during my lifetime.”

40

says your God.

<sup>2</sup> “Speak kindly to Jerusalem, and tell her that her time of warfare is over, that her punishment is completed.
For the LORD | strong="H3069" has made her pay double for all her sins.”

<sup>3</sup> A voice cries out,
“In the wilderness clear a way for the LORD;
construct in the desert a road for our God.

<sup>4</sup> Every valley must be elevated, and every mountain and hill leveled.
The rough terrain will become a level plain,
the rugged landscape a wide valley.

<sup>5</sup> The splendor of the LORD will be revealed, and all people will see it at the same time.
For the LORD has decreed it.”

Another asks, “What should I cry out?”
The first voice responds: “All people are like grass, and all their promises are like the flowers in the field.

<sup>7</sup> The grass dries up,
the flowers wither,
when the wind sent by the LORD blows on them.
Surely humanity is like grass.

<sup>8</sup> The grass dries up,
the flowers wither,
but the decree of our God is forever reliable.”

<sup>9</sup> Go up on a high mountain, O herald Zion!

Shout out loudly, O herald Jerusalem!
Shout, don't be afraid!
Say to the towns of Judah,
"Here is your God!"

<sup>10</sup> Look, the sovereign LORD comes as a victorious warrior; his military power establishes his rule.
Look, his reward is with him;
his prize goes before him.

<sup>11</sup> Like a shepherd he tends his flock;
he gathers up the lambs with his arm;
he carries them close to his heart;
he leads the ewes along.

The Lord is Incomparable

<sup>12</sup> Who has measured out the waters in the hollow of his hand, or carefully measured the sky,
or carefully weighed the soil of the earth, or weighed the mountains in a balance,
or the hills on scales?

<sup>13</sup> Who comprehends the mind of the LORD, or gives him instruction as his counselor?

<sup>14</sup> From whom does he receive directions?
Who teaches him the correct way to do things, or imparts knowledge to him,
or instructs him in skillful design?

<sup>15</sup> Look, the nations are like a drop in a bucket;
they are regarded as dust on the scales.
He lifts the coastlands as if they were dust.

<sup>16</sup> Not even Lebanon could supply enough firewood for a sacrifice; its wild animals would not provide enough burnt offerings.

<sup>17</sup> All the nations are insignificant before him;
they are regarded as absolutely nothing.

<sup>18</sup> To whom can you compare God?
To what image can you liken him?

<sup>19</sup> A craftsman casts an idol;
a metalsmith overlays it with gold and forges silver chains for it.

<sup>20</sup> To make a contribution one selects wood that will not rot;
he then seeks a skilled craftsman to make an idol that will not fall over.

<sup>21</sup> Do you not know?

Do you not hear?

Has it not been told to you since the very beginning?
Have you not understood from the time the earth's foundations were made?

<sup>22</sup> He is the one who sits on the earth's horizon; its inhabitants are like grasshoppers before him.
He is the one who stretches out the sky like a thin curtain, and spreads it out like a pitched tent.

<sup>23</sup> He is the one who reduces rulers to nothing;
he makes the earth's leaders insignificant.

<sup>24</sup> Indeed, they are barely planted;
yes, they are barely sown;

yes, they barely take root in the earth, and then he blows on them, causing them to dry up, and the wind carries them away like straw.

says the Holy One.

Who created all these heavenly lights?

He is the one who leads out their ranks;

he calls them all by name.

Because of his absolute power and awesome strength,
not one of them is missing.

Why do you say, Israel,

“The LORD is not aware of what is happening to me,

My God is not concerned with my vindication”?

<sup>28</sup> Do you not know?

Have you not heard?

The LORD is an eternal God,

the creator of the whole earth.

He does not get tired or weary;

there is no limit to his wisdom.

<sup>29</sup> He gives strength to those who are tired; to the ones who lack power, he gives renewed energy.

<sup>30</sup> Even youths get tired and weary;

even strong young men clumsily stumble.

<sup>31</sup> But those who wait for the LORD’s help find renewed strength;

they rise up as if they had eagles’ wings,

they run without growing weary,

they walk without getting tired.

41

<sup>1</sup> “Listen to me in silence, you coastlands!

Let the nations find renewed strength!

Let them approach and then speak;

let us come together for debate!

<sup>2</sup> Who stirs up this one from the east?

Who officially commissions him for service?

He hands nations over to him, and enables him to subdue kings.

He makes them like dust with his sword, like windblown straw with his bow.

<sup>3</sup> He pursues them and passes by unharmed;

he advances with great speed.

<sup>4</sup> Who acts and carries out decrees?

Who summons the successive generations from the beginning?

I, the LORD, am present at the very beginning, and at the very end – I am the one.

<sup>5</sup> The coastlands see and are afraid;

the whole earth trembles;

they approach and come.

<sup>6</sup> They help one another;

one says to the other, ‘Be strong!’

<sup>7</sup> The craftsman encourages the metalsmith, the one who wields the hammer encourages the one who pounds on the anvil.
He approves the quality of the welding, and nails it down so it won't fall over."

The Lord Encourages His People

<sup>8</sup> "You, my servant Israel, Jacob whom I have chosen,
offspring of Abraham my friend, <sup>9</sup> you whom I am bringing back from the earth's extremities, and have summoned from the remote regions –
I told you, "You are my servant."
I have chosen you and not rejected you.

<sup>10</sup> Don't be afraid, for I am with you!
Don't be frightened, for I am your God!
I strengthen you –
yes, I help you –

yes, I uphold you with my saving right hand!
<sup>11</sup> Look, all who were angry at you will be ashamed and humiliated; your adversaries will be reduced to nothing and perish.

<sup>12</sup> When you will look for your opponents, you will not find them; your enemies will be reduced to absolutely nothing.

<sup>13</sup> For I am the LORD | strong="H3069" your God, the one who takes hold of your right hand, who says to you, 'Don't be afraid, I am helping you.'

<sup>14</sup> Don't be afraid, despised insignificant Jacob, men of Israel.

I am helping you," says the LORD,
your protector, the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> "Look, I am making you like a sharp threshing sledge, new and double-edged.

You will thresh the mountains and crush them;
you will make the hills like straw.

<sup>16</sup> You will winnow them and the wind will blow them away;
the wind will scatter them.

You will rejoice in the LORD;
you will boast in the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>17</sup> The oppressed and the poor look for water, but there is none; their tongues are parched from thirst.

I, the LORD, will respond to their prayers;
I, the God of Israel, will not abandon them.

<sup>18</sup> I will make streams flow down the slopes and produce springs in the middle of the valleys.
I will turn the desert into a pool of water and the arid land into springs.

<sup>19</sup> I will make cedars, acacias, myrtles, and olive trees grow in the wilderness;
I will make evergreens, firs, and cypresses grow together in the desert.

<sup>20</sup> I will do this so people will observe and recognize, so they will pay attention and understand that the LORD's power has accomplished this, and that the Holy One of Israel has brought it into being."

The Lord Challenges the Pagan Gods

- <sup>21</sup> “Present your argument,” says the LORD.
 “Produce your evidence,” says Jacob’s king.
- <sup>22</sup> “Let them produce evidence! Let them tell us what will happen!
 Tell us about your earlier predictive oracles, so we may examine them and see how they were fulfilled.
 Or decree for us some future events!
- <sup>23</sup> Predict how future events will turn out, so we might know you are gods.
 Yes, do something good or bad,
 so we might be frightened and in awe.
- <sup>24</sup> Look, you are nothing, and your accomplishments are nonexistent;
 the one who chooses to worship you is disgusting.
- <sup>25</sup> I have stirred up one out of the north and he advances, one from the eastern horizon who prays in my name.
 He steps on rulers as if they were clay, like a potter treading the clay.
- <sup>26</sup> Who decreed this from the beginning, so we could know?
 Who announced it ahead of time, so we could say, ‘He’s correct’?
 Indeed, none of them decreed it!
 Indeed, none of them announced it!
 Indeed, no one heard you say anything!
- <sup>27</sup> I first decreed to Zion, ‘Look, here’s what will happen!’
 I sent a herald to Jerusalem.
- <sup>28</sup> I look, but there is no one, among them there is no one who serves as an adviser, that I might ask questions and receive answers.
- <sup>29</sup> Look, all of them are nothing, their accomplishments are nonexistent;
 their metal images lack any real substance.

42

- <sup>1</sup> “Here is my servant whom I support, my chosen one in whom I take pleasure.
 I have placed my spirit on him;
 he will make just decrees for the nations.
- <sup>2</sup> He will not cry out or shout;
 he will not publicize himself in the streets.
- <sup>3</sup> A crushed reed he will not break, a dim wick he will not extinguish;
 he will faithfully make just decrees.
- <sup>4</sup> He will not grow dim or be crushed before establishing justice on the earth;
 the coastlands will wait in anticipation for his decrees.”
- <sup>5</sup> This is what the true God, the LORD, says – the one who created the sky and stretched it out, the one who fashioned the earth and everything that lives on it,
 the one who gives breath to the people on it,
 and life to those who live on it:
- <sup>6</sup> “I, the LORD, officially commission you;
 I take hold of your hand.

I protect you and make you a covenant mediator for people, and a light to the nations, 7 to open blind eyes,
to release prisoners from dungeons,
those who live in darkness from prisons.

The Lord Intervenes

8 I am the LORD! That is my name!
I will not share my glory with anyone else,
or the praise due me with idols.
9 Look, my earlier predictive oracles have come to pass;
now I announce new events.
Before they begin to occur,
I reveal them to you.”
10 Sing to the LORD a brand new song!
Praise him from the horizon of the earth, you who go down to the sea, and everything that lives in it,
you coastlands and those who live there!
11 Let the desert and its cities shout out,
the towns where the nomads of Kedar live!
Let the residents of Sela shout joyfully;
let them shout loudly from the mountaintops.
12 Let them give the LORD the honor he deserves;
let them praise his deeds in the coastlands.
13 The LORD emerges like a hero, like a warrior he inspires himself for battle;
he shouts, yes, he yells,
he shows his enemies his power.
14 “I have been inactive for a long time;
I kept quiet and held back.
Like a woman in labor I groan;
I pant and gasp.
15 I will make the trees on the mountains and hills wither up;
I will dry up all their vegetation.
I will turn streams into islands, and dry up pools of water.
16 I will lead the blind along an unfamiliar way;
I will guide them down paths they have never traveled.
I will turn the darkness in front of them into light, and level out the rough ground.
This is what I will do for them.
I will not abandon them.
17 Those who trust in idols will turn back and be utterly humiliated, those who say to metal images, ‘You are our gods.’ ”

The Lord Reasons with His People

18 “Listen, you deaf ones!
Take notice, you blind ones!
19 My servant is truly blind, my messenger is truly deaf.
My covenant partner, the servant of the LORD, is truly blind.
20 You see many things, but don’t comprehend; their ears are open, but do not hear.”

<sup>22</sup> But these people are looted and plundered; all of them are trapped in pits and held captive in prisons.

They were carried away as loot with no one to rescue them; they were carried away as plunder, and no one says, “Bring that back!”

<sup>23</sup> Who among you will pay attention to this? Who will listen attentively in the future?

Who handed Israel over to the looters?

Was it not the LORD | strong="H3069", against whom we sinned?

They refused to follow his commands; they disobeyed his law.

<sup>25</sup> So he poured out his fierce anger on them, along with the devastation of war.

Its flames encircled them, but they did not realize it; it burned against them, but they did notice.

43

<sup>1</sup> Now, this is what the LORD says, the one who created you, O Jacob, and formed you, O Israel:

“Don’t be afraid, for I will protect you. I call you by name, you are mine.

<sup>2</sup> When you pass through the waters, I am with you; when you pass through the streams, they will not overwhelm you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned; the flames will not harm you.

<sup>3</sup> For I am the LORD | strong="H3069" your God, the Holy One of Israel, your deliverer. I have handed over Egypt as a ransom price, Ethiopia and Seba in place of you.

<sup>4</sup> Since you are precious and special in my sight, and I love you, I will hand over people in place of you, nations in place of your life.

<sup>5</sup> Don’t be afraid, for I am with you. From the east I will bring your descendants; from the west I will gather you.

<sup>6</sup> I will say to the north, ‘Hand them over!’ and to the south, ‘Don’t hold any back!’ Bring my sons from distant lands, and my daughters from the remote regions of the earth, <sup>7</sup> everyone who belongs to me, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed – yes, whom I made!

The Lord Declares His Sovereignty

<sup>8</sup> Bring out the people who are blind, even though they have eyes, those who are deaf, even though they have ears!

<sup>9</sup> All nations gather together, the peoples assemble.

Who among them announced this?

Who predicted earlier events for us?

Let them produce their witnesses to testify they were right;
let them listen and affirm, 'It is true.'

<sup>10</sup> You are my witnesses," says the LORD,
"my servant whom I have chosen,
so that you may consider and believe in me,
and understand that I am he.
No god was formed before me,
and none will outlive me.

<sup>11</sup> I, I am the LORD, and there is no deliverer besides me.

<sup>12</sup> I decreed and delivered and proclaimed, and there was no other god among you.
You are my witnesses," says the LORD, "that I am God.

<sup>13</sup> From this day forward I am he; no one can deliver from my power; *
I will act, and who can prevent it?"

The Lord Will Do Something New

<sup>14</sup> This is what the LORD says, your protector, † the Holy One of Israel: ‡
"For your sake I send to Babylon and make them all fugitives, § turning the Babylonians' joyful shouts into mourning songs. *

<sup>15</sup> I am the LORD, your Holy One, † the one who created Israel, your king."

<sup>16</sup> This is what the LORD says,
the one who made a road through the sea,
a pathway through the surging waters,

<sup>17</sup> the one who led chariots and horses to destruction, ‡ together with a mighty army.

They fell down, § never to rise again;
they were extinguished, put out like a burning wick:

<sup>18</sup> "Don't remember these earlier events; *
don't recall these former events.

* 43:13 Translator's Note Heb "hand" (so KJV, NASB, NIV, NRSV); NLT "No one can oppose what I do." † 43:14 Translator's Note Or "kinsman redeemer." See the note at . ‡ 43:14 Study Note See the note on the phrase "the Holy One of Israel" in . § 43:14 Translator's Note Heb "and I bring down [as] fugitives all of them." * 43:14 Translator's Note The Hebrew text reads literally, "as for the Babylonians, in ships their joyful shout." This might be paraphrased, "even the Babylonians in the ships [over which] they joyfully shouted." The point would be that the Lord caused the Babylonians to flee for safety in the ships in which they took such great pride. A slight change in vocalization yields the reading "into mourning songs," which provides a good contrast with "joyful shout." The prefixed bet (ב) would indicate identity. † 43:15 Study Note See the note on the phrase "the Holy One of Israel" in . ‡ 43:17 Translator's Note Heb "led out chariots and horses." The words "to destruction" are supplied in the translation for clarification. The verse refers to the destruction of the Egyptians at the Red Sea. § 43:17 Translator's Note Heb "lay down"; NAB "lie prostrate together"; CEV "lie dead"; NRSV "they lie down." * 43:18 Translator's Note Heb "the former things" (so KJV, NASB, NIV, NRSV); NLT "forget all that."

Now it begins to happen! † Do you not recognize ‡ it?

Yes, I will make a road in the desert and paths § in the wilderness.

<sup>20</sup> The wild animals of the desert honor me,
the jackals and ostriches, because I put water in the desert and streams in the wilderness, to quench the thirst of my chosen people, <sup>21</sup> the people whom I formed for myself, so they might praise me.” *

The Lord Rebukes His People

<sup>22</sup> “But you did not call for me, O Jacob;
you did not long † for me, O Israel.

<sup>23</sup> You did not bring me lambs for your burnt offerings;
you did not honor me with your sacrifices.

I did not burden you with offerings;
I did not make you weary by demanding ‡ incense.

<sup>24</sup> You did not buy me aromatic reeds; § you did not present to me * the fat of your sacrifices.

Yet you burdened me with your sins;
you made me weary with your evil deeds. †

<sup>25</sup> I, I am the one who blots out your rebellious deeds for my sake; your sins I do not remember.

<sup>26</sup> Remind me of what happened! Let's debate!
You, prove to me that you are right! ‡

<sup>27</sup> The father of your nation § sinned;
your spokesmen * rebelled against me.

<sup>28</sup> So I defiled your holy princes, and handed Jacob over to destruction, and subjected † Israel to humiliating abuse.”

† 43:19 Translator's Note Heb “sprouts up”; NASB “will spring forth.” ‡ 43:19 Translator's Note Or “know” (KJV, ASV); NASB “be aware of”; NAB, NIV, NRSV “perceive.” § 43:19 Translator's Note The Hebrew texts has “streams,” probably under the influence of v. 20. The Qumran scroll 1QIsa<sup>a</sup> has נתיבות (“paths”). * 43:21 Translator's Note Heb “[so] they might declare my praise.” † 43:22 Translator's Note Or “strive”; KJV, ASV, NRSV “been weary of me.”

‡ 43:23 Translator's Note Heb “with.” The words “by demanding” are supplied in the translation for clarification.

§ 43:24 Translator's Note That is, “calamus” (so NIV); NCV, TEV, NLT “incense”; CEV “spices.” * 43:24 Translator's Note Heb “you did not saturate me”; NASB “Neither have you filled Me.” † 43:24 Study Note In vv. 22-24 the Lord appears to be condemning his people for failure to bring the proper sacrifices. However, this is problematic. If this refers to the nation's behavior while in exile, such cultic service was impossible and could hardly be expected by the Lord. If this refers to the nation's conduct before the exile, it contradicts other passages that depict Israel as bringing excessive sacrifices (see, e.g., ; , ). Rather than being a condemnation of Israel's failure to bring sacrifices, these verses are better taken as a highly rhetorical comment on the worthlessness of Israel's religious ritual. They may have brought sacrifices, but not to the Lord, for he did not accept them or even want them. See C. R. North, Second Isaiah, 127, and R. Whybray, (NCBC), 91. ‡ 43:26 Translator's Note Heb “you, tell in order that you may be right”; NAB “prove your innocence.” § 43:27 Translator's Note Heb “your first father.” This could refer to Abraham (see ), but elsewhere in Isaiah he does not appear in a negative light (see ; , ). A more likely candidate is Jacob/Israel, also referred to as the nation's “father” elsewhere (see ; , ). * 43:27 Translator's Note On the meaning of the term לִיִּי (lits), see HALOT 590 s.v. לִיִּי. This may refer to the nation's prophets, priests, and/or kings. † 43:28 Translator's Note The word “subjected” is supplied in the translation for stylistic reasons.

Israel whom I have chosen!”

<sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD, the one who made you, says – the one who formed you in the womb and helps you:

“Don’t be afraid, my servant Jacob,
Jeshurun, whom I have chosen!

<sup>3</sup> For I will pour water on the parched ground and cause streams to flow on the dry land.

I will pour my spirit on your offspring and my blessing on your children.

<sup>4</sup> They will sprout up like a tree in the grass, like poplars beside channels of water.

<sup>5</sup> One will say, ‘I belong to the LORD,’ and another will use the name ‘Jacob.’
One will write on his hand, ‘The LORD’s,’ and use the name ‘Israel.’ ”

The Absurdity of Idolatry

<sup>6</sup> This is what the LORD, Israel’s king, says, their protector, the LORD who commands armies:

“I am the first and I am the last,
there is no God but me.

<sup>7</sup> Who is like me? Let him make his claim!
Let him announce it and explain it to me –
since I established an ancient people – let them announce future events!

<sup>8</sup> Don’t panic! Don’t be afraid!
Did I not tell you beforehand and decree it?
You are my witnesses! Is there any God but me?
There is no other sheltering rock; I know of none.

<sup>9</sup> All who form idols are nothing;
the things in which they delight are worthless.
Their witnesses cannot see;
they recognize nothing, so they are put to shame.

<sup>10</sup> Who forms a god and casts an idol that will prove worthless?

<sup>11</sup> Look, all his associates will be put to shame;
the craftsmen are mere humans.
Let them all assemble and take their stand!
They will panic and be put to shame.

<sup>12</sup> A blacksmith works with his tool and forges metal over the coals.
He forms it with hammers;
he makes it with his strong arm.
He gets hungry and loses his energy;
he drinks no water and gets tired.

<sup>13</sup> A carpenter takes measurements;
he marks out an outline of its form;
he scrapes it with chisels,
and marks it with a compass.
He patterns it after the human form, like a well-built human being,

and puts it in a shrine.

<sup>14</sup> He cuts down cedars and acquires a cypress or an oak.
He gets trees from the forest;
he plants a cedar and the rain makes it grow.

<sup>15</sup> A man uses it to make a fire;
he takes some of it and warms himself.
Yes, he kindles a fire and bakes bread.
Then he makes a god and worships it;
he makes an idol and bows down to it.

<sup>16</sup> Half of it he burns in the fire – over that half he cooks meat;
he roasts a meal and fills himself.
Yes, he warms himself and says,
'Ah! I am warm as I look at the fire.'

<sup>17</sup> With the rest of it he makes a god, his idol;
he bows down to it and worships it.
He prays to it, saying,

'Rescue me, for you are my god!'

<sup>18</sup> They do not comprehend or understand, for their eyes are blind and cannot see;
their minds do not discern.

<sup>19</sup> No one thinks to himself, nor do they comprehend or understand and say to themselves:
'I burned half of it in the fire –
yes, I baked bread over the coals;
I roasted meat and ate it.
With the rest of it should I make a disgusting idol?
Should I bow down to dry wood?'

<sup>20</sup> He feeds on ashes;
his deceived mind misleads him.
He cannot rescue himself, nor does he say, 'Is this not a false god I hold in my right hand?'

<sup>21</sup> Remember these things, O Jacob,
O Israel, for you are my servant.
I formed you to be my servant;
O Israel, I will not forget you!

<sup>22</sup> I remove the guilt of your rebellious deeds as if they were a cloud, the guilt of your sins as if they were a cloud.
Come back to me, for I protect you."

<sup>23</sup> Shout for joy, O sky, for the LORD | strong="H3069" intervenes;
shout out, you subterranean regions of the earth.
O mountains, give a joyful shout;
you too, O forest and all your trees!
For the LORD | strong="H3069" protects Jacob;
he reveals his splendor through Israel.

The Lord Empowers Cyrus

<sup>24</sup> This is what the LORD, your protector, says, the one who formed you in the womb:
"I am the LORD, who made everything, who alone stretched out the sky,
who fashioned the earth all by myself,

<sup>25</sup> who frustrates the omens of the empty talkers and humiliates the omen readers, who overturns the counsel of the wise men and makes their advice seem foolish, <sup>26</sup> who fulfills the oracles of his prophetic servants and brings to pass the announcements of his messengers, who says about Jerusalem, 'She will be inhabited,' and about the towns of Judah, 'They will be rebuilt, her ruins I will raise up,' <sup>27</sup> who says to the deep sea, 'Be dry!
I will dry up your sea currents,' <sup>28</sup> who commissions Cyrus, the one I appointed as shepherd to carry out all my wishes and to decree concerning Jerusalem, 'She will be rebuilt,' and concerning the temple, 'It will be reconstructed.' "

45

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD says to his chosen one, to Cyrus, whose right hand I hold in order to subdue nations before him, and disarm kings,
to open doors before him,
so gates remain unclosed:
<sup>2</sup> "I will go before you and level mountains.
Bronze doors I will shatter and iron bars I will hack through.
<sup>3</sup> I will give you hidden treasures, riches stashed away in secret places,
so you may recognize that I am the LORD,
the one who calls you by name, the God of Israel.
<sup>4</sup> For the sake of my servant Jacob, Israel, my chosen one,
I call you by name
and give you a title of respect, even though you do not recognize me.
<sup>5</sup> I am the LORD, I have no peer,
there is no God but me.
I arm you for battle, even though you do not recognize me.
<sup>6</sup> I do this so people will recognize from east to west that there is no God but me;
I am the LORD, I have no peer.
<sup>7</sup> I am the one who forms light and creates darkness;
the one who brings about peace
and creates calamity.
I am the LORD, who accomplishes all these things.
<sup>8</sup> O sky, rain down from above!
Let the clouds send down showers of deliverance!
Let the earth absorb it so salvation may grow, and deliverance may sprout up along with it.
I, the LORD, create it.

The Lord Gives a Warning

<sup>9</sup> One who argues with his creator is in grave danger, one who is like a mere shard among the other shards on the ground!

The clay should not say to the potter,

“What in the world are you doing?

Your work lacks skill!”

<sup>10</sup> Danger awaits one who says to his father,

“What in the world are you fathering?”

and to his mother,

“What in the world are you bringing forth?”

<sup>11</sup> This is what the LORD says,

the Holy One of Israel, the one who formed him, concerning things to come:

“How dare you question me about my children!

How dare you tell me what to do with the work of my own hands!

<sup>12</sup> I made the earth,

I created the people who live on it.

It was me – my hands stretched out the sky,

I give orders to all the heavenly lights.

<sup>13</sup> It is me – I stir him up and commission him;

I will make all his ways level.

He will rebuild my city;

he will send my exiled people home, but not for a price or a bribe,”

says the LORD who commands armies.

The Lord is the Nations' Only Hope

<sup>14</sup> This is what the LORD | strong="H3069" says:

“The profit of Egypt and the revenue of Ethiopia, along with the Sabeans, those tall men, will be brought to you and become yours.

They will walk behind you, coming along in chains.

They will bow down to you and pray to you:

‘Truly God is with you; he has no peer;

there is no other God!’ ”

<sup>15</sup> Yes, you are a God who keeps hidden,

O God of Israel, deliverer!

<sup>16</sup> They will all be ashamed and embarrassed;

those who fashion idols will all be humiliated.

<sup>17</sup> Israel will be delivered once and for all by the LORD;

you will never again be ashamed or humiliated.

<sup>18</sup> For this is what the LORD says, the one who created the sky –

he is the true God,

the one who formed the earth and made it;

he established it,

he did not create it without order,

he formed it to be inhabited –

“I am the LORD, I have no peer.

<sup>19</sup> I have not spoken in secret, in some hidden place.

I did not tell Jacob's descendants,
'Seek me in vain!'
I am the LORD,
the one who speaks honestly,
who makes reliable announcements.
<sup>20</sup> Gather together and come!
Approach together, you refugees from the nations!
Those who carry wooden idols know nothing,
those who pray to a god that cannot deliver.
<sup>21</sup> Tell me! Present the evidence!
Let them consult with one another!
Who predicted this in the past?
Who announced it beforehand?
Was it not I, the LORD?
I have no peer, there is no God but me, a God who vindicates and delivers;
there is none but me.
<sup>22</sup> Turn to me so you can be delivered, all you who live in the earth's remote regions!
For I am God, and I have no peer.
<sup>23</sup> I solemnly make this oath – what I say is true and reliable:
'Surely every knee will bow to me,
every tongue will solemnly affirm; <sup>24</sup> they will say about me,
"Yes, the LORD is a powerful deliverer." "'
All who are angry at him will cower before him.
<sup>25</sup> All the descendants of Israel will be vindicated by the LORD and will boast in him.

<sup>1</sup> Bel kneels down,
Nebo bends low.
Their images weigh down animals and beasts.
Your heavy images are burdensome to tired animals.
<sup>2</sup> Together they bend low and kneel down;
they are unable to rescue the images;
they themselves head off into captivity.
<sup>3</sup> "Listen to me, O family of Jacob, all you who are left from the family of Israel, you who have been carried from birth,
you who have been supported from the time you left the womb.
<sup>4</sup> Even when you are old, I will take care of you, even when you have gray hair, I will carry you.
I made you and I will support you;
I will carry you and rescue you.
<sup>5</sup> To whom can you compare and liken me?
Tell me whom you think I resemble, so we can be compared!
<sup>6</sup> Those who empty out gold from a purse and weigh out silver on the scale hire a metalsmith, who makes it into a god.
They then bow down and worship it.

<sup>7</sup> They put it on their shoulder and carry it;
they put it in its place and it just stands there;
it does not move from its place.
Even when someone cries out to it, it does not reply;
it does not deliver him from his distress.
<sup>8</sup> Remember this, so you can be brave!
Think about it, you rebels!
<sup>9</sup> Remember what I accomplished in antiquity!
Truly I am God, I have no peer;
I am God, and there is none like me, <sup>10</sup> who announces the end from the beginning and reveals beforehand what has not yet occurred, who says, 'My plan will be realized,
I will accomplish what I desire,' <sup>11</sup> who summons an eagle from the east, from a distant land, one who carries out my plan.
Yes, I have decreed,
yes, I will bring it to pass;
I have formulated a plan,
yes, I will carry it out.
<sup>12</sup> Listen to me, you stubborn people, you who distance yourself from doing what is right.
<sup>13</sup> I am bringing my deliverance near, it is not far away;
I am bringing my salvation near, it does not wait.
I will save Zion;
I will adorn Israel with my splendor."

<sup>1</sup> "Fall down! Sit in the dirt, O virgin daughter Babylon!
Sit on the ground, not on a throne,
O daughter of the Babylonians!
Indeed, you will no longer be called delicate and pampered.
<sup>2</sup> Pick up millstones and grind flour!
Remove your veil,
strip off your skirt,
expose your legs,
cross the streams!
<sup>3</sup> Let your private parts be exposed!
Your genitals will be on display!
I will get revenge;
I will not have pity on anyone," <sup>4</sup> says our protector –
the LORD who commands armies is his name,
the Holy One of Israel.
<sup>5</sup> "Sit silently! Go to a hiding place,
O daughter of the Babylonians!
Indeed, you will no longer be called 'Queen of kingdoms.'
<sup>6</sup> I was angry at my people;
I defiled my special possession and handed them over to you.

You showed them no mercy;
you even placed a very heavy burden on old people.

<sup>7</sup> You said,
‘I will rule forever as permanent queen!’
You did not think about these things;
you did not consider how it would turn out.

<sup>8</sup> So now, listen to this,
O one who lives so lavishly,
who lives securely,
who says to herself,
‘I am unique! No one can compare to me!’
I will never have to live as a widow;
I will never lose my children.’

<sup>9</sup> Both of these will come upon you suddenly, in one day!
You will lose your children and be widowed.
You will be overwhelmed by these tragedies, despite your many incantations and your numerous amulets.

<sup>10</sup> You were complacent in your evil deeds;
you thought, ‘No one sees me.’
Your self-professed wisdom and knowledge lead you astray, when you say, ‘I am unique! No one can compare to me!’

<sup>11</sup> Disaster will overtake you;
you will not know how to charm it away.
Destruction will fall on you;
you will not be able to appease it.
Calamity will strike you suddenly,
before you recognize it.

<sup>12</sup> Persist in trusting your amulets and your many incantations, which you have faithfully recited since your youth!
Maybe you will be successful –
maybe you will scare away disaster.

<sup>13</sup> You are tired out from listening to so much advice.
Let them take their stand – the ones who see omens in the sky, who gaze at the stars,
who make monthly predictions –
let them rescue you from the disaster that is about to overtake you!

<sup>14</sup> Look, they are like straw, which the fire burns up;
they cannot rescue themselves from the heat of the flames.
There are no coals to warm them,
no firelight to enjoy.

<sup>15</sup> They will disappoint you, those you have so faithfully dealt with since your youth.
Each strays off in his own direction, leaving no one to rescue you.”

48

- <sup>1</sup> Listen to this, O family of Jacob, you who are called by the name 'Israel,' and are descended from Judah, who take oaths in the name of the LORD, and invoke the God of Israel –
but not in an honest and just manner.
- <sup>2</sup> Indeed, they live in the holy city;
they trust in the God of Israel, whose name is the LORD who commands armies.
- <sup>3</sup> "I announced events beforehand,
I issued the decrees and made the predictions;
suddenly I acted and they came to pass.
- <sup>4</sup> I did this because I know how stubborn you are.
Your neck muscles are like iron and your forehead like bronze.
- <sup>5</sup> I announced them to you beforehand;
before they happened, I predicted them for you,
so you could never say,
'My image did these things,
my idol, my cast image, decreed them.'
- <sup>6</sup> You have heard; now look at all the evidence!
Will you not admit that what I say is true?
From this point on I am announcing to you new events that are previously unrevealed and you do not know about.
- <sup>7</sup> Now they come into being, not in the past;
before today you did not hear about them,
so you could not say,
'Yes, I know about them.'
- <sup>8</sup> You did not hear,
you do not know,
you were not told beforehand.
For I know that you are very deceitful;
you were labeled a rebel from birth.
- <sup>9</sup> For the sake of my reputation I hold back my anger;
for the sake of my prestige I restrain myself from destroying you.
- <sup>10</sup> Look, I have refined you, but not as silver;
I have purified you in the furnace of misery.
- <sup>11</sup> For my sake alone I will act, for how can I allow my name to be defiled?
I will not share my glory with anyone else!
- <sup>12</sup> Listen to me, O Jacob, Israel, whom I summoned!
I am the one;
I am present at the very beginning and at the very end.
- <sup>13</sup> Yes, my hand founded the earth;
my right hand spread out the sky.
I summon them;
they stand together.
- <sup>14</sup> All of you, gather together and listen!

Who among them announced these things?
The LORD's ally will carry out his desire against Babylon;
he will exert his power against the Babylonians.

<sup>15</sup> I, I have spoken –

yes, I have summoned him;
I lead him and he will succeed.

<sup>16</sup> Approach me! Listen to this!

From the very first I have not spoken in secret;
when it happens, I am there.”

So now, the sovereign LORD has sent me, accompanied by his spirit.

<sup>17</sup> This is what the LORD, your protector, says,
the Holy One of Israel:

“I am the LORD your God, who teaches you how to succeed,
who leads you in the way you should go.

<sup>18</sup> If only you had obeyed my commandments, prosperity would have flowed to you like a river, deliverance would have come to you like the waves of the sea.

<sup>19</sup> Your descendants would have been as numerous as sand, and your children like its granules.
Their name would not have been cut off and eliminated from my presence.

<sup>20</sup> Leave Babylon!

Flee from the Babylonians!
Announce it with a shout of joy!

Make this known!

Proclaim it throughout the earth!

Say, ‘The LORD protects his servant Jacob.

<sup>21</sup> They do not thirst as he leads them through dry regions;
he makes water flow out of a rock for them;
he splits open a rock and water flows out.’

<sup>22</sup> There will be no prosperity for the wicked,” says the LORD.

49

<sup>1</sup> Listen to me, you coastlands!

Pay attention, you people who live far away!

The LORD summoned me from birth;
he commissioned me when my mother brought me into the world.

<sup>2</sup> He made my mouth like a sharp sword, he hid me in the hollow of his hand;
he made me like a sharpened arrow,
he hid me in his quiver.

<sup>3</sup> He said to me, “You are my servant, Israel, through whom I will reveal my splendor.”

<sup>4</sup> But I thought, “I have worked in vain;
I have expended my energy for absolutely nothing.”
But the LORD will vindicate me;
my God will reward me.

<sup>5</sup> So now the LORD says, the one who formed me from birth to be his servant –
he did this to restore Jacob to himself, so that Israel might be gathered to him;

and I will be honored in the LORD's sight, for my God is my source of strength – <sup>6</sup> he says, "Is it too insignificant a task for you to be my servant, to reestablish the tribes of Jacob,
and restore the remnant of Israel?
I will make you a light to the nations, so you can bring my deliverance to the remote regions of the earth."

<sup>7</sup> This is what the LORD, the protector of Israel, their Holy One, says to the one who is despised and rejected by nations, a servant of rulers:
"Kings will see and rise in respect, princes will bow down,
because of the faithful LORD,
the Holy One of Israel who has chosen you."

<sup>8</sup> This is what the LORD says:
"At the time I decide to show my favor, I will respond to you;
in the day of deliverance I will help you;
I will protect you and make you a covenant mediator for people, to rebuild the land
and to reassign the desolate property.

<sup>9</sup> You will say to the prisoners, 'Come out,' and to those who are in dark dungeons, 'Emerge.'
They will graze beside the roads;
on all the slopes they will find pasture.

<sup>10</sup> They will not be hungry or thirsty;
the sun's oppressive heat will not beat down on them,
for one who has compassion on them will guide them;
he will lead them to springs of water.

<sup>11</sup> I will make all my mountains into a road;
I will construct my roadways."

<sup>12</sup> Look, they come from far away!
Look, some come from the north and west, and others from the land of Sinim!

<sup>13</sup> Shout for joy, O sky!
Rejoice, O earth!
Let the mountains give a joyful shout!
For the LORD consoles his people and shows compassion to the oppressed.

The Lord Remembers Zion

<sup>14</sup> "Zion said, 'The LORD has abandoned me, the sovereign master has forgotten me.'

<sup>15</sup> Can a woman forget her baby who nurses at her breast?
Can she withhold compassion from the child she has borne?
Even if mothers were to forget,
I could never forget you!

<sup>16</sup> Look, I have inscribed your name on my palms; your walls are constantly before me.

<sup>17</sup> Your children hurry back, while those who destroyed and devastated you depart.

<sup>18</sup> Look all around you!
All of them gather to you.
As surely as I live," says the LORD,
"you will certainly wear all of them like jewelry;
you will put them on as if you were a bride.
<sup>19</sup> Yes, your land lies in ruins;
it is desolate and devastated.
But now you will be too small to hold your residents, and those who devoured you will be far away.
<sup>20</sup> Yet the children born during your time of bereavement will say within your hearing,
'This place is too cramped for us, make room for us so we can live here.'
<sup>21</sup> Then you will think to yourself,
'Who bore these children for me?
I was bereaved and barren, dismissed and divorced.
Who raised these children?
Look, I was left all alone;
where did these children come from?' "
<sup>22</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says:
"Look I will raise my hand to the nations;
I will raise my signal flag to the peoples.
They will bring your sons in their arms and carry your daughters on their shoulders.
<sup>23</sup> Kings will be your children's guardians; their princesses will nurse your children.
With their faces to the ground they will bow down to you and they will lick the dirt on your feet.
Then you will recognize that I am the LORD;
those who wait patiently for me are not put to shame.
<sup>24</sup> Can spoils be taken from a warrior, or captives be rescued from a conqueror?
<sup>25</sup> Indeed," says the LORD,
"captives will be taken from a warrior;
spoils will be rescued from a conqueror.
I will oppose your adversary and I will rescue your children.
<sup>26</sup> I will make your oppressors eat their own flesh;
they will get drunk on their own blood, as if it were wine.
Then all humankind will recognize that I am the LORD, your deliverer, your protector, the powerful ruler of Jacob."

50

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD says:
"Where is your mother's divorce certificate
by which I divorced her?
Or to which of my creditors did I sell you?
Look, you were sold because of your sins;
because of your rebellious acts I divorced your mother.
<sup>2</sup> Why does no one challenge me when I come?

Why does no one respond when I call?
Is my hand too weak to deliver you?
Do I lack the power to rescue you?
Look, with a mere shout I can dry up the sea;
I can turn streams into a desert, so the fish rot away and die from lack of water.
<sup>3</sup> I can clothe the sky in darkness;
I can cover it with sackcloth."

The Servant Perseveres

<sup>4</sup> The sovereign LORD has given me the capacity to be his spokesman, so that I know how to help the weary.
He wakes me up every morning;
he makes me alert so I can listen attentively as disciples do.
<sup>5</sup> The sovereign LORD has spoken to me clearly;
I have not rebelled,
I have not turned back.
<sup>6</sup> I offered my back to those who attacked, my jaws to those who tore out my beard;
I did not hide my face
from insults and spitting.
<sup>7</sup> But the sovereign LORD helps me, so I am not humiliated.
For that reason I am steadfastly resolved;
I know I will not be put to shame.
<sup>8</sup> The one who vindicates me is close by.
Who dares to argue with me? Let us confront each other!
Who is my accuser? Let him challenge me!
<sup>9</sup> Look, the sovereign LORD helps me.
Who dares to condemn me?
Look, all of them will wear out like clothes;
a moth will eat away at them.
<sup>10</sup> Who among you fears the LORD?
Who obeys his servant?
Whoever walks in deep darkness,
without light,
should trust in the name of the LORD and rely on his God.
<sup>11</sup> Look, all of you who start a fire and who equip yourselves with flaming arrows, walk in the light of the fire you started and among the flaming arrows you ignited!
This is what you will receive from me:
you will lie down in a place of pain.

51

<sup>1</sup> "Listen to me, you who pursue godliness, who seek the LORD!
Look at the rock from which you were chiseled, at the quarry from which you were dug!
<sup>2</sup> Look at Abraham, your father, and Sarah, who gave you birth.

When I summoned him, he was a lone individual,
but I blessed him and gave him numerous descendants.

<sup>3</sup> Certainly the LORD will console Zion;
he will console all her ruins.
He will make her wilderness like Eden, her desert like the Garden of the LORD.
Happiness and joy will be restored to her, thanksgiving and the sound of music.

<sup>4</sup> Pay attention to me, my people!
Listen to me, my people!
For I will issue a decree,
I will make my justice a light to the nations.

<sup>5</sup> I am ready to vindicate,
I am ready to deliver,
I will establish justice among the nations.
The coastlands wait patiently for me;
they wait in anticipation for the revelation of my power.

Look at the earth below!
For the sky will dissipate like smoke, and the earth will wear out like clothes;
its residents will die like gnats.
But the deliverance I give is permanent;
the vindication I provide will not disappear.

<sup>7</sup> Listen to me, you who know what is right, you people who are aware of my law!
Don't be afraid of the insults of men;
don't be discouraged because of their abuse!

<sup>8</sup> For a moth will eat away at them like clothes;
a clothes moth will devour them like wool.
But the vindication I provide will be permanent;
the deliverance I give will last."

<sup>9</sup> Wake up! Wake up!
Clothe yourself with strength, O arm of the LORD | strong="H3069"
Wake up as in former times, as in antiquity!
Did you not smash the Proud One?
Did you not wound the sea monster?

<sup>10</sup> Did you not dry up the sea,
the waters of the great deep?
Did you not make a path through the depths of the sea, so those delivered from bondage could cross over?

<sup>11</sup> Those whom the LORD has ransomed will return;
they will enter Zion with a happy shout.
Unending joy will crown them,
happiness and joy will overwhelm them;
grief and suffering will disappear.

<sup>12</sup> "I, I am the one who consoles you.
Why are you afraid of mortal men, of mere human beings who are as short-lived as grass?

<sup>13</sup> Why do you forget the LORD, who made you, who stretched out the sky and founded the earth?

Why do you constantly tremble all day long at the anger of the oppressor, when he makes plans to destroy?
Where is the anger of the oppressor?

<sup>14</sup> The one who suffers will soon be released;
he will not die in prison,
he will not go hungry.

<sup>15</sup> I am the LORD your God, who churns up the sea so that its waves surge.
The LORD who commands armies is his name!

Zion's Time to Celebrate

<sup>16</sup> I commission you as my spokesman;
I cover you with the palm of my hand,
to establish the sky and to found the earth, to say to Zion, 'You are my people.' "

<sup>17</sup> Wake up! Wake up!
Get up, O Jerusalem!
You drank from the cup the LORD passed to you,
which was full of his anger!
You drained dry
the goblet full of intoxicating wine.

<sup>18</sup> There was no one to lead her among all the children she bore;
there was no one to take her by the hand among all the children she raised.

<sup>19</sup> These double disasters confronted you.
But who feels sorry for you?
Destruction and devastation,
famine and sword.
But who consoles you?

<sup>20</sup> Your children faint;
they lie at the head of every street like an antelope in a snare.
They are left in a stupor by the LORD's anger, by the battle cry of your God.

<sup>21</sup> So listen to this, oppressed one, who is drunk, but not from wine!

<sup>22</sup> This is what your sovereign master, the LORD your God, says:
"Look, I have removed from your hand the cup of intoxicating wine, the goblet full of my anger.
You will no longer have to drink it.

<sup>23</sup> I will put it into the hand of your tormentors who said to you, 'Lie down, so we can walk over you.'
You made your back like the ground, and like the street for those who walked over you."

52

<sup>1</sup> Wake up! Wake up!
Clothe yourself with strength, O Zion!

Put on your beautiful clothes,
O Jerusalem, holy city!
For uncircumcised and unclean pagans will no longer invade you.
<sup>2</sup> Shake off the dirt!
Get up, captive Jerusalem!
Take off the iron chains around your neck,
O captive daughter Zion!
<sup>3</sup> For this is what the LORD says:
“You were sold for nothing, and you will not be redeemed for money.”
<sup>4</sup> For this is what the sovereign LORD says:
“In the beginning my people went to live temporarily in Egypt;
Assyria oppressed them for no good reason.
<sup>5</sup> And now, what do we have here?” says the LORD.
“Indeed my people have been carried away for nothing, those who rule over them taunt,” says the LORD,
“and my name is constantly slandered all day long.
<sup>6</sup> For this reason my people will know my name, for this reason they will know at that time that I am the one who says, ‘Here I am.’ ”
<sup>7</sup> How delightful it is to see approaching over the mountains the feet of a messenger who announces peace, a messenger who brings good news, who announces deliverance, who says to Zion, “Your God reigns!” <sup>8</sup> Listen, your watchmen shout;
in unison they shout for joy, for they see with their very own eyes
the LORD’s return to Zion.
<sup>9</sup> In unison give a joyful shout,
O ruins of Jerusalem!
For the LORD consoles his people;
he protects Jerusalem.
<sup>10</sup> The LORD reveals his royal power in the sight of all the nations;
the entire earth sees
our God deliver.
<sup>11</sup> Leave! Leave! Get out of there!
Don’t touch anything unclean!
Get out of it!
Stay pure, you who carry the LORD’s holy items!
<sup>12</sup> Yet do not depart quickly or leave in a panic.
For the LORD | strong="H3069" goes before you;
the God of Israel is your rear guard.

The Lord Will Vindicate His Servant

<sup>13</sup> “Look, my servant will succeed!
He will be elevated, lifted high, and greatly exalted – <sup>14</sup> (just as many were horrified by the sight of you) he was so disfigured he no longer looked like a man; <sup>15</sup> his form was so marred he no longer looked human – so now he will startle many nations.

Kings will be shocked by his exaltation, for they will witness something unannounced to them, and they will understand something they had not heard about.

53

<sup>1</sup> Who would have believed what we just heard?
When was the LORD's power revealed through him?
<sup>2</sup> He sprouted up like a twig before God, like a root out of parched soil;
he had no stately form or majesty that might catch our attention, no special appearance that we should want to follow him.
<sup>3</sup> He was despised and rejected by people, one who experienced pain and was acquainted with illness;
people hid their faces from him;
he was despised, and we considered him insignificant.
<sup>4</sup> But he lifted up our illnesses, he carried our pain;
even though we thought he was being punished, attacked by God, and afflicted for something he had done.
<sup>5</sup> He was wounded because of our rebellious deeds, crushed because of our sins;
he endured punishment that made us well;
because of his wounds we have been healed.
<sup>6</sup> All of us had wandered off like sheep;
each of us had strayed off on his own path,
but the LORD caused the sin of all of us to attack him.
<sup>7</sup> He was treated harshly and afflicted, but he did not even open his mouth.
Like a lamb led to the slaughtering block, like a sheep silent before her shearers,
he did not even open his mouth.
<sup>8</sup> He was led away after an unjust trial – but who even cared?
Indeed, he was cut off from the land of the living;
because of the rebellion of his own people he was wounded.
<sup>9</sup> They intended to bury him with criminals, but he ended up in a rich man's tomb, because he had committed no violent deeds,
nor had he spoken deceitfully.
<sup>10</sup> Though the LORD desired to crush him and make him ill, once restitution is made,
he will see descendants and enjoy long life,
and the LORD's purpose will be accomplished through him.
<sup>11</sup> Having suffered, he will reflect on his work, he will be satisfied when he understands what he has done.
“My servant will acquit many,
for he carried their sins.
<sup>12</sup> So I will assign him a portion with the multitudes, he will divide the spoils of victory with the powerful, because he willingly submitted to death and was numbered with the rebels, when he lifted up the sin of many and intervened on behalf of the rebels.”

<sup>1</sup> “Shout for joy, O barren one who has not given birth!
Give a joyful shout and cry out, you who have not been in labor!
For the children of the desolate one are more numerous than the children of the married woman,” says the LORD.

<sup>2</sup> Make your tent larger, stretch your tent curtains farther out!
Spare no effort,
lengthen your ropes,
and pound your stakes deep.

<sup>3</sup> For you will spread out to the right and to the left;
your children will conquer nations and will resettle desolate cities.

<sup>4</sup> Don’t be afraid, for you will not be put to shame!
Don’t be intimidated, for you will not be humiliated!
You will forget about the shame you experienced in your youth;
you will no longer remember the disgrace of your abandonment.

<sup>5</sup> For your husband is the one who made you –
the LORD who commands armies is his name.
He is your protector, the Holy One of Israel.
He is called “God of the entire earth.”

<sup>6</sup> “Indeed, the LORD | strong="H3069" will call you back like a wife who has been abandoned and suffers from depression, like a young wife when she has been rejected,” says your God.

<sup>7</sup> “For a short time I abandoned you, but with great compassion I will gather you.

<sup>8</sup> In a burst of anger I rejected you momentarily, but with lasting devotion I will have compassion on you,” says your protector, the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> “As far as I am concerned, this is like in Noah’s time, when I vowed that the waters of Noah’s flood would never again cover the earth.
In the same way I have vowed that I will not be angry at you or shout at you.

<sup>10</sup> Even if the mountains are removed and the hills displaced,
my devotion will not be removed from you, nor will my covenant of friendship be displaced,” says the LORD, the one who has compassion on you.

<sup>11</sup> “O afflicted one, driven away, and unconsolated!
Look, I am about to set your stones in antimony and I lay your foundation with lapis-lazuli.

<sup>12</sup> I will make your pinnacles out of gems, your gates out of beryl,
and your outer wall out of beautiful stones.

<sup>13</sup> All your children will be followers of the LORD, and your children will enjoy great prosperity.

<sup>14</sup> You will be reestablished when I vindicate you.
You will not experience oppression;
indeed, you will not be afraid.

You will not be terrified, for nothing frightening will come near you.
<sup>15</sup> If anyone dares to challenge you, it will not be my doing!
Whoever tries to challenge you will be defeated.
<sup>16</sup> Look, I create the craftsman, who fans the coals into a fire and forges a weapon.
I create the destroyer so he might devastate.
<sup>17</sup> No weapon forged to be used against you will succeed;
you will refute everyone who tries to accuse you.
This is what the LORD will do for his servants –
I will vindicate them,”
says the LORD.

55

<sup>1</sup> “Hey, all who are thirsty, come to the water!
You who have no money, come!
Buy and eat!
Come! Buy wine and milk without money and without cost!
<sup>2</sup> Why pay money for something that will not nourish you?
Why spend your hard-earned money on something that will not satisfy?
Listen carefully to me and eat what is nourishing!
Enjoy fine food!
<sup>3</sup> Pay attention and come to me!
Listen, so you can live!
Then I will make an unconditional covenantal promise to you, just like the reliable covenantal promises I made to David.
<sup>4</sup> Look, I made him a witness to nations, a ruler and commander of nations.”
<sup>5</sup> Look, you will summon nations you did not previously know; nations that did not previously know you will run to you, because of the LORD your God,
the Holy One of Israel,
for he bestows honor on you.
<sup>6</sup> Seek the LORD while he makes himself available;
call to him while he is nearby!
<sup>7</sup> The wicked need to abandon their lifestyle and sinful people their plans.
They should return to the LORD | strong="H3069", and he will show mercy to them, and to their God, for he will freely forgive them.
<sup>8</sup> “Indeed, my plans are not like your plans, and my deeds are not like your deeds, <sup>9</sup> for just as the sky is higher than the earth, so my deeds are superior to your deeds and my plans superior to your plans.
<sup>10</sup>
The rain and snow fall from the sky and do not return,
but instead water the earth and make it produce and yield crops, and provide seed for the planter and food for those who must eat.

<sup>11</sup> In the same way, the promise that I make does not return to me, having accomplished nothing.
No, it is realized as I desire and is fulfilled as I intend.”

<sup>12</sup> Indeed you will go out with joy;
you will be led along in peace;
the mountains and hills will give a joyful shout before you,
and all the trees in the field will clap their hands.

<sup>13</sup> Evergreens will grow in place of thorn bushes, firs will grow in place of nettles;
they will be a monument to the LORD,
a permanent reminder that will remain.

56

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD says, “Promote justice! Do what is right!
For I am ready to deliver you;
I am ready to vindicate you openly.

<sup>2</sup> The people who do this will be blessed, the people who commit themselves to obedience, who observe the Sabbath and do not defile it,
who refrain from doing anything that is wrong.

<sup>3</sup> No foreigner who becomes a follower of the LORD should say,
‘The LORD will certainly exclude me from his people.’
The eunuch should not say,
‘Look, I am like a dried-up tree.’ ”

<sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD says:
“For the eunuchs who observe my Sabbaths and choose what pleases me and are faithful to my covenant,

<sup>5</sup> I will set up within my temple and my walls a monument that will be better than sons and daughters.
I will set up a permanent monument for them that will remain.

<sup>6</sup> As for foreigners who become followers of the LORD and serve him, who love the name of the LORD and want to be his servants – all who observe the Sabbath and do not defile it, and who are faithful to my covenant –

<sup>7</sup> I will bring them to my holy mountain;
I will make them happy in the temple where people pray to me.
Their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be accepted on my altar, for my temple will be known as a temple where all nations may pray.”

<sup>8</sup> The sovereign LORD says this,
the one who gathers the dispersed of Israel:
“I will still gather them up.”

The Lord Denounces Israel's Paganism

<sup>9</sup> All you wild animals in the fields, come and devour, all you wild animals in the forest!

<sup>10</sup> All their watchmen are blind, they are unaware.
All of them are like mute dogs, unable to bark.

They pant, lie down,
and love to snooze.
<sup>11</sup> The dogs have big appetites;
they are never full.
They are shepherds who have no understanding;
they all go their own way,
each one looking for monetary gain.
<sup>12</sup> Each one says,
'Come on, I'll get some wine!
Let's guzzle some beer!
Tomorrow will be just like today!
We'll have everything we want!'

57

<sup>1</sup> The godly perish, but no one cares.
Honest people disappear,
when no one minds
that the godly disappear because of evil.
<sup>2</sup> Those who live uprightly enter a place of peace;
they rest on their beds.
<sup>3</sup> But approach, you sons of omen readers, you offspring of adulteresses and prostitutes!
<sup>4</sup> At whom are you laughing?
At whom are you opening your mouth and sticking out your tongue?
You are the children of rebels,
the offspring of liars, <sup>5</sup> you who practice ritual sex under the oaks and every green tree, who slaughter children near the streams under the rocky overhangs.
<sup>6</sup> Among the smooth stones of the stream are the idols you love;
they, they are the object of your devotion.
You pour out liquid offerings to them,
you make an offering.
Because of these things I will seek vengeance.
<sup>7</sup> On every high, elevated hill you prepare your bed;
you go up there to offer sacrifices.
<sup>8</sup> Behind the door and doorpost you put your symbols.
Indeed, you depart from me and go up and invite them into bed with you.
You purchase favors from them,
you love their bed,
and gaze longingly on their genitals.
<sup>9</sup> You take olive oil as tribute to your king, along with many perfumes.
You send your messengers to a distant place;
you go all the way to Sheol.
<sup>10</sup> Because of the long distance you must travel, you get tired, but you do not say, 'I give up.'
You get renewed energy,
so you don't collapse.

<sup>11</sup> Whom are you worried about?

Whom do you fear, that you would act so deceitfully and not remember me or think about me?

Because I have been silent for so long,
you are not afraid of me.

<sup>12</sup> I will denounce your so-called righteousness and your deeds, but they will not help you.

<sup>13</sup> When you cry out for help, let your idols help you!

The wind blows them all away,
a breeze carries them away.

But the one who looks to me for help will inherit the land and will have access to my holy mountain."

<sup>14</sup> He says,

"Build it! Build it! Clear a way!

Remove all the obstacles out of the way of my people!"

<sup>15</sup> For this is what the high and exalted one says, the one who rules forever, whose name is holy:

"I dwell in an exalted and holy place, but also with the discouraged and humiliated, in order to cheer up the humiliated and to encourage the discouraged.

<sup>16</sup> For I will not be hostile forever or perpetually angry,
for then man's spirit would grow faint before me,
the life-giving breath I created.

<sup>17</sup> I was angry because of their sinful greed;
I attacked them and angrily rejected them,
yet they remained disobedient and stubborn.

<sup>18</sup> I have seen their behavior,
but I will heal them and give them rest, and I will once again console those who mourn.

<sup>19</sup> I am the one who gives them reason to celebrate.

Complete prosperity is available both to those who are far away and those who are nearby," says the LORD, "and I will heal them.

<sup>20</sup> But the wicked are like a surging sea that is unable to be quiet;
its waves toss up mud and sand.

<sup>21</sup> There will be no prosperity," says my God, "for the wicked."

58

Yell as loud as a trumpet!

Confront my people with their rebellious deeds;
confront Jacob's family with their sin!

<sup>2</sup> They seek me day after day;
they want to know my requirements, like a nation that does what is right and does not reject the law of their God.
They ask me for just decrees;

they want to be near God.

<sup>3</sup> They lament, 'Why don't you notice when we fast?
Why don't you pay attention when we humble ourselves?'
Look, at the same time you fast, you satisfy your selfish desires, you oppress your workers.

<sup>4</sup> Look, your fasting is accompanied by arguments, brawls, and fistfights.

Do not fast as you do today, trying to make your voice heard in heaven.

<sup>5</sup> Is this really the kind of fasting I want?
Do I want a day when people merely humble themselves, bowing their heads like a reed and stretching out on sackcloth and ashes?
Is this really what you call a fast,
a day that is pleasing to the LORD?

<sup>6</sup> No, this is the kind of fast I want.
I want you to remove the sinful chains, to tear away the ropes of the burdensome yoke,
to set free the oppressed,
and to break every burdensome yoke.

<sup>7</sup> I want you to share your food with the hungry and to provide shelter for homeless, oppressed people.
When you see someone naked, clothe him!
Don't turn your back on your own flesh and blood!

<sup>8</sup> Then your light will shine like the sunrise;
your restoration will quickly arrive;
your godly behavior will go before you,
and the LORD's splendor will be your rear guard.

<sup>9</sup> Then you will call out, and the LORD will respond;
you will cry out, and he will reply, 'Here I am.'
You must remove the burdensome yoke from among you and stop pointing fingers and speaking sinfully.

<sup>10</sup> You must actively help the hungry and feed the oppressed.

Then your light will dispel the darkness, and your darkness will be transformed into noonday.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD | strong="H3069" will continually lead you;
he will feed you even in parched regions.
He will give you renewed strength, and you will be like a well-watered garden,
like a spring that continually produces water.

<sup>12</sup> Your perpetual ruins will be rebuilt;
you will reestablish the ancient foundations.
You will be called, 'The one who repairs broken walls, the one who makes the streets inhabitable again.'

<sup>13</sup> You must observe the Sabbath rather than doing anything you please on my holy day.
You must look forward to the Sabbath and treat the LORD's holy day with respect.
You must treat it with respect by refraining from your normal activities, and by refraining from your selfish pursuits and from making business deals.

<sup>14</sup> Then you will find joy in your relationship to the LORD, and I will give you great prosperity, and cause crops to grow on the land I gave to your ancestor Jacob.”
Know for certain that the LORD has spoken.

59

<sup>1</sup> Look, the LORD’s hand is not too weak to deliver you;
his ear is not too deaf to hear you.

<sup>2</sup> But your sinful acts have alienated you from your God; your sins have caused him to reject you and not listen to your prayers.

<sup>3</sup> For your hands are stained with blood and your fingers with sin;
your lips speak lies,
your tongue utters malicious words.

<sup>4</sup> No one is concerned about justice;
no one sets forth his case truthfully.
They depend on false words and tell lies;
they conceive of oppression and give birth to sin.

<sup>5</sup> They hatch the eggs of a poisonous snake and spin a spider’s web.
Whoever eats their eggs will die,
a poisonous snake is hatched.

<sup>6</sup> Their webs cannot be used for clothing;
they cannot cover themselves with what they make.
Their deeds are sinful;
they commit violent crimes.

<sup>7</sup> They are eager to do evil, quick to shed innocent blood.
Their thoughts are sinful;
they crush and destroy.

<sup>8</sup> They are unfamiliar with peace;
their deeds are unjust.
They use deceitful methods, and whoever deals with them is unfamiliar with peace.

Israel Confesses its Sin

<sup>9</sup> For this reason deliverance is far from us and salvation does not reach us.
We wait for light, but see only darkness;
we wait for a bright light, but live in deep darkness.

<sup>10</sup> We grope along the wall like the blind, we grope like those who cannot see;
we stumble at noontime as if it were evening.
Though others are strong, we are like dead men.

<sup>11</sup> We all growl like bears, we coo mournfully like doves;
we wait for deliverance, but there is none,
for salvation, but it is far from us.

<sup>12</sup> For you are aware of our many rebellious deeds, and our sins testify against us;

indeed, we are aware of our rebellious deeds;
we know our sins all too well.
<sup>13</sup> We have rebelled and tried to deceive the LORD;
we turned back from following our God.
We stir up oppression and rebellion;
we tell lies we concocted in our minds.
<sup>14</sup> Justice is driven back;
godliness stands far off.
Indeed, honesty stumbles in the city square and morality is not even able to enter.
<sup>15</sup> Honesty has disappeared;
the one who tries to avoid evil is robbed.
The LORD watches and is displeased, for there is no justice.

The Lord Intervenes

<sup>16</sup> He sees there is no advocate;
he is shocked that no one intervenes.
So he takes matters into his own hands;
his desire for justice drives him on.
<sup>17</sup> He wears his desire for justice like body armor, and his desire to deliver is like a helmet on his head.
He puts on the garments of vengeance and wears zeal like a robe.
<sup>18</sup> He repays them for what they have done, dispensing angry judgment to his adversaries and punishing his enemies.
He repays the coastlands.
<sup>19</sup> In the west, people respect the LORD's reputation; in the east they recognize his splendor.
For he comes like a rushing stream driven on by wind sent from the LORD.
<sup>20</sup> "A protector comes to Zion, to those in Jacob who repent of their rebellious deeds," says the LORD.
<sup>21</sup> "As for me, this is my promise to them," says the LORD. "My spirit, who is upon you, and my words, which I have placed in your mouth, will not depart from your mouth or from the mouths of your children and descendants from this time forward," says the LORD.

<sup>1</sup> "Arise! Shine! For your light arrives!
The splendor of the LORD shines on you!
<sup>2</sup> For, look, darkness covers the earth and deep darkness covers the nations, but the LORD shines on you;
his splendor appears over you.
<sup>3</sup> Nations come to your light, kings to your bright light.
<sup>4</sup> Look all around you!
They all gather and come to you – your sons come from far away and your daughters are escorted by guardians.

<sup>5</sup> Then you will look and smile, you will be excited and your heart will swell with pride.
For the riches of distant lands will belong to you and the wealth of nations will come to you.

<sup>6</sup> Camel caravans will cover your roads, young camels from Midian and Ephah.
All the merchants of Sheba will come, bringing gold and incense and singing praises to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> All the sheep of Kedar will be gathered to you;
the rams of Nebaioth will be available to you as sacrifices.
They will go up on my altar acceptably, and I will bestow honor on my majestic temple.

<sup>8</sup> Who are these who float along like a cloud, who fly like doves to their shelters?

<sup>9</sup> Indeed, the coastlands look eagerly for me, the large ships are in the lead, bringing your sons from far away, along with their silver and gold,
to honor the LORD your God,
the Holy One of Israel, for he has bestowed honor on you.

<sup>10</sup> Foreigners will rebuild your walls;
their kings will serve you.
Even though I struck you down in my anger,
I will restore my favor and have compassion on you.

<sup>11</sup> Your gates will remain open at all times;
they will not be shut during the day or at night,
so that the wealth of nations may be delivered,
with their kings leading the way.

<sup>12</sup> Indeed, nations or kingdoms that do not serve you will perish; such nations will be totally destroyed.

<sup>13</sup> The splendor of Lebanon will come to you, its evergreens, firs, and cypresses together,
to beautify my palace;
I will bestow honor on my throne room.

<sup>14</sup> The children of your oppressors will come bowing to you;
all who treated you with disrespect will bow down at your feet.
They will call you, 'The City of the LORD | strong="H3069",
Zion of the Holy One of Israel.'

<sup>15</sup> You were once abandoned and despised, with no one passing through, but I will make you a permanent source of pride and joy to coming generations.

<sup>16</sup> You will drink the milk of nations;
you will nurse at the breasts of kings.
Then you will recognize that I, the LORD, am your deliverer,
your protector, the powerful ruler of Jacob.

<sup>17</sup> Instead of bronze, I will bring you gold, instead of iron, I will bring you silver,
instead of wood, I will bring you bronze,

instead of stones, I will bring you iron.

I will make prosperity your overseer, and vindication your sovereign ruler.

<sup>18</sup> Sounds of violence will no longer be heard in your land, or the sounds of destruction and devastation within your borders.

You will name your walls, 'Deliverance,' and your gates, 'Praise.'

<sup>19</sup> The sun will no longer supply light for you by day, nor will the moon's brightness shine on you;
the LORD will be your permanent source of light –
the splendor of your God will shine upon you.

<sup>20</sup> Your sun will no longer set;
your moon will not disappear;
the LORD will be your permanent source of light;
your time of sorrow will be over.

<sup>21</sup> All of your people will be godly;
they will possess the land permanently.

I will plant them like a shoot;
they will be the product of my labor,
through whom I reveal my splendor.

<sup>22</sup> The least of you will multiply into a thousand;
the smallest of you will become a large nation.
When the right time comes, I the LORD will quickly do this!"

61

<sup>1</sup> The spirit of the sovereign LORD is upon me, because the LORD has chosen me.
He has commissioned me to encourage the poor,
to help the brokenhearted, to decree the release of captives,

and the freeing of prisoners,

<sup>2</sup> to announce the year when the LORD will show his favor, the day when our God will seek vengeance,
to console all who mourn,

<sup>3</sup> to strengthen those who mourn in Zion, by giving them a turban, instead of ashes, oil symbolizing joy, instead of mourning,
a garment symbolizing praise, instead of discouragement.

They will be called oaks of righteousness, trees planted by the LORD to reveal his splendor.

<sup>4</sup> They will rebuild the perpetual ruins and restore the places that were desolate;
they will reestablish the ruined cities,
the places that have been desolate since ancient times.

<sup>5</sup> "Foreigners will take care of your sheep; foreigners will work in your fields and vineyards.

<sup>6</sup> You will be called, 'the LORD's priests, servants of our God.'

You will enjoy the wealth of nations and boast about the riches you receive from them.

<sup>7</sup> Instead of shame, you will get a double portion;

instead of humiliation, they will rejoice over the land they receive.
Yes, they will possess a double portion in their land and experience lasting joy.

<sup>8</sup> For I, the LORD, love justice and hate robbery and sin.

I will repay them because of my faithfulness;
I will make a permanent covenant with them.

<sup>9</sup> Their descendants will be known among the nations, their offspring among the peoples.
All who see them will recognize that the LORD has blessed them.”

<sup>10</sup> I will greatly rejoice in the LORD;
I will be overjoyed because of my God.
For he clothes me in garments of deliverance;
he puts on me a robe symbolizing vindication.
I look like a bridegroom when he wears a turban as a priest would;
I look like a bride when she puts on her jewelry.

<sup>11</sup> For just as the ground produces its crops and a garden yields its produce, so the sovereign LORD will cause deliverance to grow, and give his people reason to praise him in the sight of all the nations.

62

for the sake of Jerusalem I will not be quiet, until her vindication shines brightly and her deliverance burns like a torch.”

<sup>2</sup> Nations will see your vindication, and all kings your splendor.

You will be called by a new name that the LORD himself will give you.

<sup>3</sup> You will be a majestic crown in the hand of the LORD, a royal turban in the hand of your God.

<sup>4</sup> You will no longer be called, “Abandoned,” and your land will no longer be called “Desolate.”
Indeed, you will be called “My Delight is in Her,”
and your land “Married.”

For the LORD will take delight in you, and your land will be married to him.

<sup>5</sup> As a young man marries a young woman, so your sons will marry you.

As a bridegroom rejoices over a bride, so your God will rejoice over you.

<sup>6</sup> I post watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem;
they should keep praying all day and all night.
You who pray to the LORD, don’t be silent!

<sup>7</sup> Don’t allow him to rest until he reestablishes Jerusalem, until he makes Jerusalem the pride of the earth.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD swears an oath by his right hand,
by his strong arm:

“I will never again give your grain to your enemies as food,

 and foreigners will not drink your wine,
 which you worked hard to produce.
<sup>9</sup> But those who harvest the grain will eat it, and will praise the LORD.
 Those who pick the grapes will drink the wine in the courts of my holy sanctuary.”
<sup>10</sup> Come through! Come through the gates!
 Prepare the way for the people!
 Build it! Build the roadway!
 Remove the stones!
 Lift a signal flag for the nations!
<sup>11</sup> Look, the LORD announces to the entire earth:
 “Say to Daughter Zion, ‘Look, your deliverer comes!
 Look, his reward is with him and his reward goes before him!’ ” <sup>12</sup> They will be called, “The Holy People, the Ones Protected by the LORD | strong="H3069".”
 You will be called, “Sought After, City Not Abandoned.”

63

<sup>1</sup> Who is this who comes from Edom, dressed in bright red, coming from Bozrah?
 Who is this one wearing royal attire, who marches confidently because of his great strength?
 “It is I, the one who announces vindication, and who is able to deliver!”
<sup>2</sup> Why are your clothes red?
 Why do you look like someone who has stomped on grapes in a vat?
<sup>3</sup> “I have stomped grapes in the winepress all by myself;
 no one from the nations joined me.
 I stomped on them in my anger;
 I trampled them down in my rage.
 Their juice splashed on my garments,
 and stained all my clothes.
<sup>4</sup> For I looked forward to the day of vengeance, and then payback time arrived.
<sup>5</sup> I looked, but there was no one to help;
 I was shocked because there was no one offering support.
 So my right arm accomplished deliverance;
 my raging anger drove me on.
<sup>6</sup> I trampled nations in my anger,
 I made them drunk in my rage,
 I splashed their blood on the ground.”

A Prayer for Divine Intervention

<sup>7</sup> I will tell of the faithful acts of the LORD, of the LORD’s praiseworthy deeds.
 I will tell about all the LORD did for us,
 the many good things he did for the family of Israel, because of his compassion and great faithfulness.

<sup>8</sup> He said, "Certainly they will be my people, children who are not disloyal."

He became their deliverer.

<sup>9</sup> Through all that they suffered, he suffered too.

The messenger sent from his very presence delivered them.

In his love and mercy he protected them;

he lifted them up and carried them throughout ancient times.

<sup>10</sup> But they rebelled and offended his holy Spirit, so he turned into an enemy and fought against them.

<sup>11</sup> His people remembered the ancient times.

Where is the one who brought them up out of the sea, along with the shepherd of his flock?

Where is the one who placed his holy Spirit among them,

<sup>12</sup> the one who made his majestic power available to Moses, who divided the water before them, gaining for himself a lasting reputation,

<sup>13</sup> who led them through the deep water?

Like a horse running on flat land they did not stumble.

<sup>14</sup> Like an animal that goes down into a valley to graze, so the Spirit of the LORD granted them rest.

In this way you guided your people, gaining for yourself an honored reputation.

<sup>15</sup> Look down from heaven and take notice, from your holy, majestic palace!

Where are your zeal and power?

Do not hold back your tender compassion!

<sup>16</sup> For you are our father, though Abraham does not know us and Israel does not recognize us.

You, LORD, are our father;
you have been called our protector from ancient times.

<sup>17</sup> Why, LORD, do you make us stray from your ways, and make our minds stubborn so that we do not obey you?

Return for the sake of your servants,
the tribes of your inheritance!

<sup>18</sup> For a short time your special nation possessed a land, but then our adversaries knocked down your holy sanctuary.

<sup>19</sup> We existed from ancient times, but you did not rule over them,
they were not your subjects.

64

<sup>1</sup> If only you would tear apart the sky and come down!
The mountains would tremble before you!

<sup>2</sup> As when fire ignites dry wood, or fire makes water boil, let your adversaries know who you are,
and may the nations shake at your presence!

<sup>3</sup> When you performed awesome deeds that took us by surprise, you came down, and the mountains trembled before you.

<sup>4</sup> Since ancient times no one has heard or perceived, no eye has seen any God besides you,
who intervenes for those who wait for him.

<sup>5</sup> You assist those who delight in doing what is right, who observe your commandments.

Look, you were angry because we violated them continually.

How then can we be saved?

<sup>6</sup> We are all like one who is unclean, all our so-called righteous acts are like a menstrual rag in your sight.
We all wither like a leaf;
our sins carry us away like the wind.

<sup>7</sup> No one invokes your name, or makes an effort to take hold of you.

For you have rejected us and handed us over to our own sins.

<sup>8</sup> Yet, LORD, you are our father.
We are the clay, and you are our potter;
we are all the product of your labor.

<sup>9</sup> LORD, do not be too angry!
Do not hold our sins against us continually!
Take a good look at your people, at all of us!

<sup>10</sup> Your chosen cities have become a desert;
Zion has become a desert,
Jerusalem is a desolate ruin.

<sup>11</sup> Our holy temple, our pride and joy, the place where our ancestors praised you,
has been burned with fire;
all our prized possessions have been destroyed.

<sup>12</sup> In light of all this, how can you still hold back, LORD?
How can you be silent and continue to humiliate us?

65

<sup>1</sup> "I made myself available to those who did not ask for me;
I appeared to those who did not look for me.

I said, 'Here I am! Here I am!'
to a nation that did not invoke my name.

<sup>2</sup> I spread out my hands all day long to my rebellious people, who lived in a way that is morally unacceptable,
and who did what they desired.

<sup>3</sup> These people continually and blatantly offend me as they sacrifice in their sacred orchards and burn incense on brick altars.

<sup>4</sup> They sit among the tombs and keep watch all night long.
They eat pork,
and broth from unclean sacrificial meat is in their pans.

<sup>5</sup> They say, 'Keep to yourself!
Don't get near me, for I am holier than you!'
These people are like smoke in my nostrils, like a fire that keeps burning all day long.

<sup>6</sup> Look, I have decreed:
I will not keep silent, but will pay them back;
I will pay them back exactly what they deserve, <sup>7</sup> for your sins and your ancestors' sins," says the LORD.
"Because they burned incense on the mountains and offended me on the hills,
I will punish them in full measure."
<sup>8</sup> This is what the LORD says:
"When juice is discovered in a cluster of grapes, someone says, 'Don't destroy it, for it contains juice.'
So I will do for the sake of my servants –
I will not destroy everyone.
<sup>9</sup> I will bring forth descendants from Jacob, and from Judah people to take possession of my mountains.
My chosen ones will take possession of the land;
my servants will live there.
<sup>10</sup> Sharon will become a pasture for sheep, and the Valley of Achor a place where cattle graze;
they will belong to my people, who seek me.
<sup>11</sup> But as for you who abandon the LORD and forget about worshiping at my holy mountain, who prepare a feast for the god called 'Fortune,' and fill up wine jugs for the god called 'Destiny' – <sup>12</sup> I predestine you to die by the sword, all of you will kneel down at the slaughtering block, because I called to you, and you did not respond,
I spoke and you did not listen.
You did evil before me;
you chose to do what displeases me."
<sup>13</sup> So this is what the sovereign LORD says:
"Look, my servants will eat, but you will be hungry!
Look, my servants will drink, but you will be thirsty!
Look, my servants will rejoice, but you will be humiliated!
<sup>14</sup> Look, my servants will shout for joy as happiness fills their hearts!
But you will cry out as sorrow fills your hearts;
you will wail because your spirits will be crushed.
<sup>15</sup> Your names will live on in the curse formulas of my chosen ones.
The sovereign LORD will kill you, but he will give his servants another name.
<sup>16</sup> Whoever pronounces a blessing in the earth will do so in the name of the faithful God;
whoever makes an oath in the earth
will do so in the name of the faithful God.
For past problems will be forgotten;
I will no longer think about them.
<sup>17</sup> For look, I am ready to create new heavens and a new earth!
The former ones will not be remembered;
no one will think about them anymore.
<sup>18</sup> But be happy and rejoice forevermore over what I am about to create!

For look, I am ready to create Jerusalem to be a source of joy, and her people to be a source of happiness.

<sup>19</sup> Jerusalem will bring me joy, and my people will bring me happiness.

The sound of weeping or cries of sorrow will never be heard in her again.

<sup>20</sup> Never again will one of her infants live just a few days or an old man die before his time.
Indeed, no one will die before the age of a hundred, anyone who fails to reach the age of a hundred will be considered cursed.

<sup>21</sup> They will build houses and live in them;
they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

<sup>22</sup> No longer will they build a house only to have another live in it, or plant a vineyard only to have another eat its fruit, for my people will live as long as trees, and my chosen ones will enjoy to the fullest what they have produced.

<sup>23</sup> They will not work in vain, or give birth to children that will experience disaster.
For the LORD | strong="H3069" will bless their children and their descendants.

<sup>24</sup> Before they even call out, I will respond;
while they are still speaking, I will hear.

<sup>25</sup> A wolf and a lamb will graze together;
a lion, like an ox, will eat straw,
and a snake's food will be dirt.
They will no longer injure or destroy on my entire royal mountain," says the LORD.

66

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD says:
"The heavens are my throne and the earth is my footstool.
Where then is the house you will build for me?
Where is the place where I will rest?

<sup>2</sup> My hand made them;
that is how they came to be," says the LORD.
I show special favor to the humble and contrite, who respect what I have to say.

<sup>3</sup> The one who slaughters a bull also strikes down a man;
the one who sacrifices a lamb also breaks a dog's neck;
the one who presents an offering includes pig's blood with it;
the one who offers incense also praises an idol.
They have decided to behave this way;
they enjoy these disgusting practices.

<sup>4</sup> So I will choose severe punishment for them;
I will bring on them what they dread,
because I called, and no one responded,
I spoke and they did not listen.
They did evil before me;
they chose to do what displeases me."

<sup>5</sup> Hear the word of the LORD, you who respect what he has to say!

Your countrymen, who hate you and exclude you, supposedly for the sake of my name, say, "May the LORD be glorified, then we will witness your joy."
But they will be put to shame.

<sup>6</sup> The sound of battle comes from the city;
the sound comes from the temple!
It is the sound of the LORD paying back his enemies.

<sup>7</sup> Before she goes into labor, she gives birth!
Before her contractions begin, she delivers a boy!

<sup>8</sup> Who has ever heard of such a thing?

Who has ever seen this?
Can a country be brought forth in one day?
Can a nation be born in a single moment?
Yet as soon as Zion goes into labor she gives birth to sons!

<sup>9</sup> "Do I bring a baby to the birth opening and then not deliver it?"
asks the LORD.
"Or do I bring a baby to the point of delivery and then hold it back?"
asks your God.

<sup>10</sup> Be happy for Jerusalem and rejoice with her, all you who love her!
Share in her great joy,
all you who have mourned over her!

<sup>11</sup> For you will nurse from her satisfying breasts and be nourished;
you will feed with joy from her milk-filled breasts.

<sup>12</sup> For this is what the LORD says:
"Look, I am ready to extend to her prosperity that will flow like a river, the riches of nations will flow into her like a stream that floods its banks.
You will nurse from her breast and be carried at her side;
you will play on her knees.

<sup>13</sup> As a mother consoles a child,
so I will console you,
and you will be consoled over Jerusalem."

<sup>14</sup> When you see this, you will be happy, and you will be revived.
The LORD will reveal his power to his servants and his anger to his enemies.

<sup>15</sup> For look, the LORD comes with fire, his chariots come like a windstorm, to reveal his raging anger,
his battle cry, and his flaming arrows.

<sup>16</sup> For the LORD judges all humanity with fire and his sword;
the LORD will kill many.

<sup>17</sup> "As for those who consecrate and ritually purify themselves so they can follow their leader and worship in the sacred orchards, those who eat the flesh of pigs and other disgusting creatures, like mice – they will all be destroyed together," says the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> "I hate their deeds and thoughts! So I am coming to gather all the nations and ethnic groups; they will come and witness my splendor.

<sup>19</sup> I will perform a mighty act among them and then send some of those who remain to the nations – to Tarshish, Pul, Lud (known for its archers ), Tubal, Javan, and to the distant coastlands that have not heard about me or seen my splendor. They will tell the nations of my splendor.

<sup>20</sup> They will bring back all your countrymen from all the nations as an offering to the LORD. They will bring them on horses, in chariots, in wagons, on mules, and on camels to my holy hill Jerusalem,” says the LORD, “just as the Israelites bring offerings to the LORD’s temple in ritually pure containers.

<sup>21</sup> And I will choose some of them as priests and Levites,” says the LORD.

<sup>22</sup> “For just as the new heavens and the new earth I am about to make will remain standing before me,” says the LORD, “so your descendants and your name will remain.

<sup>23</sup> From one month to the next and from one Sabbath to the next, all people will come to worship me,” says the LORD.

<sup>24</sup> “They will go out and observe the corpses of those who rebelled against me, for the maggots that eat them will not die, and the fire that consumes them will not die out. All people will find the sight abhorrent.”

Jeremiah

The Superscription

<sup>2</sup> The LORD began to speak to him in the thirteenth year that Josiah son of Amon ruled over Judah.

<sup>3</sup> The LORD also spoke to him when | strong="H3117" Jehoiakim son of Josiah ruled over Judah, and he continued to speak to him until the fifth month of the eleventh year that Zedekiah son of Josiah ruled over Judah. That was when the people of Jerusalem were taken into exile.

Jeremiah's Call and Commission

<sup>4</sup> The LORD said to me,

<sup>5</sup> "Before I formed you in your mother's womb I chose you. Before you were born I set you apart. I appointed you to be a prophet to the nations."

<sup>6</sup> I answered, "Oh, Lord GOD, I really do not know how to speak well enough for that, for I am too young."

<sup>7</sup> The LORD said to me, "Do not say, 'I am too young.' But go to whomever I send you and say whatever I tell you.

<sup>8</sup> Do not be afraid of those to whom I send you, for I will be with you to protect you," says the LORD | strong="H3069".

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD reached out his hand and touched my mouth and said to me, "I will most assuredly give you the words you are to speak for me.

<sup>10</sup> Know for certain that I hereby give you the authority to announce to nations and kingdoms that they will be uprooted and torn down, destroyed and demolished, rebuilt and firmly planted."

Visions Confirming Jeremiah's Call and Commission

<sup>11</sup> Later the LORD asked me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?" I answered, "I see a branch of an almond tree."

<sup>12</sup> Then the LORD said, "You have observed correctly. This means I am watching to make sure my threats are carried out."

<sup>13</sup> The LORD again asked me, "What do you see?" I answered, "I see a pot of boiling water; it is tipped toward us from the north."

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD said, "This means destruction will break out from the north on all who live in the land.

<sup>15</sup> For I will soon summon all the peoples of the kingdoms of the north," says the LORD. "They will come and their kings will set up their thrones near the entrances of the gates of Jerusalem. They will attack all the walls surrounding it, and all the towns in Judah.

<sup>16</sup> In this way I will pass sentence on the people of Jerusalem and Judah because of all their wickedness. For they rejected me and offered sacrifices to other gods, worshiping what they made with their own hands."

<sup>17</sup> "But you, Jeremiah, get yourself ready! Go and tell these people everything I instruct you to say. Do not be terrified of them, or I will give you good reason to be terrified of them.

<sup>18</sup> I, the LORD, hereby | strong="H2009" promise to make you as strong as a fortified city, an iron pillar, and a bronze wall. You will be able to stand up against all who live in the land, including the kings of Judah, its officials, its priests and all the people of the land.

<sup>19</sup>They will attack you but they will not be able to overcome you, for I will be with you to rescue you,” says the LORD.

2

<sup>2</sup>“Go and declare in the hearing of the people of Jerusalem: ‘This is what the LORD | strong="H3069" says: “I have fond memories of you, how devoted you were to me in your early years. I remember how you loved me like a new bride; you followed me through the wilderness, through a land that had never been planted.

<sup>3</sup>Israel was set apart to the LORD; they were like the first fruits of a harvest to him. All who tried to devour them were punished; disaster came upon them,” says the LORD.’ ”

The Lord Reminds Them of the Unfaithfulness of Their Ancestors

<sup>4</sup>Now listen to what the Lord has to say, you descendants of Jacob, all you family groups from the nation of Israel.

“What fault could your ancestors have possibly found in me that they strayed so far from me?

They paid allegiance to worthless idols, and so became worthless to me.

‘Where is the LORD who delivered us out of Egypt, who brought us through the wilderness, through a land of desert sands and rift valleys, through a land of drought and deep darkness, through a land in which no one travels, and where no one lives?’

<sup>7</sup>I brought you into a fertile land so you could enjoy its fruits and its rich bounty. But when you entered my land, you defiled it; you made the land I call my own loathsome to me.

<sup>8</sup>Your priests did not ask, ‘Where is the LORD?’

Those responsible for teaching my law did not really know me.

Your rulers rebelled against me.

Your prophets prophesied in the name of the god Baal.

They all worshiped idols that could not help them.

The Lord Charges Contemporary Israel with Spiritual Adultery

<sup>9</sup>“So, once more I will state my case against you,” says the LORD.

“I will also state it against your children and grandchildren.

<sup>10</sup>Go west across the sea to the coasts of Cyprus and see.

Send someone east to Kedar and have them look carefully.

See if such a thing as this has ever happened:

<sup>11</sup>Has a nation ever changed its gods (even though they are not really gods at all)?

But my people have exchanged me, their glorious God, for a god that cannot help them at all!

Be shocked and utterly dumbfounded,” says the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>“Do so because my people have committed a double wrong:

they have rejected me,
the fountain of life-giving water,
and they have dug cisterns for themselves, cracked cisterns which cannot even hold water.”

Israel's Reliance on Foreign Alliances (not on God)

<sup>14</sup> “Israel is not a slave, is he?
He was not born into slavery, was he?
If not, why then is he being carried off?
<sup>15</sup> Like lions his enemies roar victoriously over him;
they raise their voices in triumph.
They have laid his land waste;
his cities have been burned down and deserted.
<sup>16</sup> Even the soldiers from Memphis and Tahpanhes have cracked your skulls, people of Israel.
<sup>17</sup> You have brought all this on yourself, Israel, by deserting the LORD your God when he was leading you along the right path.
<sup>18</sup> What good will it do you then to go down to Egypt to seek help from the Egyptians?
What good will it do you to go over to Assyria to seek help from the Assyrians?
<sup>19</sup> Your own wickedness will bring about your punishment.
Your unfaithful acts will bring down discipline on you.
Know, then, and realize how utterly harmful it was for you to reject me, the LORD your God, to show no respect for me,”
says the Lord GOD who rules over all.

The Lord Expresses His Exasperation at Judah's Persistent Idolatry

<sup>20</sup> “Indeed, long ago you threw off my authority and refused to be subject to me.
You said, ‘I will not serve you.’
Instead, you gave yourself to other gods on every high hill and under every green tree, like a prostitute sprawls out before her lovers.
<sup>21</sup> I planted you in the land like a special vine of the very best stock.
Why in the world have you turned into something like a wild vine that produces rotten, foul-smelling grapes?
<sup>22</sup> You can try to wash away your guilt with a strong detergent.
You can use as much soap as you want.
But the stain of your guilt is still there for me to see,”
says the Lord GOD.
<sup>23</sup> “How can you say, ‘I have not made myself unclean.
I have not paid allegiance to the gods called Baal.’
Just look at the way you have behaved in the Valley of Hinnom!
Think about the things you have done there!
You are like a flighty, young female camel that rushes here and there, crisscrossing its path.
<sup>24</sup> You are like a wild female donkey brought up in the wilderness.
In her lust she sniffs the wind to get the scent of a male.
No one can hold her back when she is in heat.

None of the males need wear themselves out chasing after her.
At mating time she is easy to find.

<sup>25</sup> Do not chase after other gods until your shoes wear out and your throats become dry.

But you say, 'It is useless for you to try and stop me because I love those foreign gods and want to pursue them!'

<sup>26</sup> Just as a thief has to suffer dishonor when he is caught, so the people of Israel will suffer dishonor for what they have done.
So will their kings and officials, their priests and their prophets.

<sup>27</sup> They say to a wooden idol, 'You are my father.'
They say to a stone image, 'You gave birth to me.'
Yes, they have turned away from me instead of turning to me.
Yet when they are in trouble, they say, 'Come and save us!'

<sup>28</sup> But where are the gods you made for yourselves?

Let them save you when you are in trouble.

The sad fact is that you have as many gods
as you have towns, Judah.

<sup>29</sup> "Why do you try to refute me?
All of you have rebelled against me,"
says the LORD.

<sup>30</sup> "It did no good for me to punish your people.

They did not respond to such correction.

You slaughtered your prophets like a voracious lion."

<sup>31</sup> You people of this generation, listen to what the LORD says.

"Have I been like a wilderness to you, Israel?

Have I been like a dark and dangerous land to you?

Why then do you say, 'We are free to wander.

We will not come to you any more?'

<sup>32</sup> Does a young woman forget to put on her jewels?

Does a bride forget to put on her bridal attire?

But my people have forgotten me for more days than can even be counted.

<sup>33</sup> "My, how good you have become at chasing after your lovers!

Why, you could even teach prostitutes a thing or two!

<sup>34</sup> Even your clothes are stained with the lifeblood of the poor who had not done anything wrong;
you did not catch them breaking into your homes.

Yet, in spite of all these things you have done,

<sup>35</sup> you say, 'I have not done anything wrong, so the LORD cannot really be angry with me any more.'

But, watch out! I will bring down judgment on you because you say, 'I have not committed any sin.'

<sup>36</sup> Why do you constantly go about changing your political allegiances?
You will get no help from Egypt
just as you got no help from Assyria.

<sup>37</sup> Moreover, you will come away from Egypt with your hands covering your faces in sorrow and shame because the LORD will not allow your reliance on them to be successful and you will not gain any help from them.

3

<sup>1</sup> “If a man divorces his wife and she leaves him and becomes another man’s wife, he may not take her back again.
Doing that would utterly defile the land.
But you, Israel, have given yourself as a prostitute to many gods.
So what makes you think you can return to me?”
says the LORD.

<sup>2</sup> “Look up at the hilltops and consider this.
You have had sex with other gods on every one of them.
You waited for those gods like a thief lying in wait in the desert.
You defiled the land by your wicked prostitution to other gods.

<sup>3</sup> That is why the rains have been withheld, and the spring rains have not come.
Yet in spite of this you are obstinate as a prostitute.
You refuse to be ashamed of what you have done.

<sup>4</sup> Even now you say to me, ‘You are my father!
You have been my faithful companion ever since I was young.

<sup>5</sup> You will not always be angry with me, will you?
You will not be mad at me forever, will you?’
That is what you say,
but you continually do all the evil that you can.”

<sup>6</sup> When Josiah was king of Judah, the LORD |strong="H3069" said to me, “Jeremiah, you have no doubt seen what wayward Israel has done. You have seen how she went up to every high hill and under every green tree to give herself like a prostitute to other gods.

<sup>7</sup> Yet even after she had done all that, I thought that she might come back to me. But she did not. Her sister, unfaithful Judah, saw what she did.

<sup>8</sup> She also saw that I gave wayward Israel her divorce papers and sent her away because of her adulterous worship of other gods. Even after her unfaithful sister Judah had seen this, she still was not afraid, and she too went and gave herself like a prostitute to other gods.

<sup>9</sup> Because she took her prostitution so lightly, she defiled the land through her adulterous worship of gods made of wood and stone.

<sup>10</sup> In spite of all this, Israel’s sister, unfaithful Judah, has not turned back to me with any sincerity; she has only pretended to do so,” says the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> Then the LORD said to me, “Under the circumstances, wayward Israel could even be considered less guilty than unfaithful Judah.

The Lord Calls on Israel and Judah to Repent

<sup>12</sup> “Go and shout this message to my people in the countries in the north. Tell them, ‘Come back to me, wayward Israel,’ says the LORD.

‘I will not continue to look on you with displeasure.

For I am merciful,’ says the LORD.

‘I will not be angry with you forever.

<sup>13</sup> However, you must confess that you have done wrong, and that you have rebelled against the LORD your God.

You must confess that you have given yourself to foreign gods under every green tree, and have not obeyed my commands,' says the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> "Come back to me, my wayward sons," says the LORD, "for I am your true master. If you do, I will take one of you from each town and two of you from each family group, and I will bring you back to Zion.

<sup>15</sup> I will give you leaders who will be faithful to me. They will lead you with knowledge and insight.

<sup>16</sup> In those days, your population will greatly increase in the land. At that time," says the LORD, "people will no longer talk about having the ark that contains the LORD's covenant with us. They will not call it to mind, remember it, or miss it. No, that will not be done any more!

<sup>17</sup> At that time the city of Jerusalem will be called the LORD's throne. All nations will gather there in Jerusalem to honor the LORD's name. They will no longer follow the stubborn inclinations of their own evil hearts.

<sup>18</sup> At that time the nation of Judah and the nation of Israel will be reunited. Together they will come back from a land in the north to the land that I gave to your ancestors as a permanent possession. "

<sup>19</sup> "I thought to myself,
'Oh what a joy it would be for me to treat you like a son!
What a joy it would be for me to give you a pleasant land, the most beautiful piece of property there is in all the world!
I thought you would call me, 'Father' and would never cease being loyal to me.

<sup>20</sup> But, you have been unfaithful to me, nation of Israel, like an unfaithful wife who has left her husband,"
says the LORD.

<sup>21</sup> "A noise is heard on the hilltops.
It is the sound of the people of Israel crying and pleading to their gods.
Indeed they have followed sinful ways;
they have forgotten to be true to the LORD their God.

<sup>22</sup> Come back to me, you wayward people.
I want to cure your waywardness.
Say, 'Here we are. We come to you because you are the LORD our God.

<sup>23</sup> We know our noisy worship of false gods on the hills and mountains did not help us.
We know that the LORD our God is the only one who can deliver Israel.

<sup>24</sup> From earliest times our worship of that shameful god, Baal, has taken away all that our ancestors worked for.
It has taken away our flocks and our herds, and even our sons and daughters.

<sup>25</sup> Let us acknowledge our shame.
Let us bear the disgrace that we deserve.
For we have sinned against the LORD our God,
both we and our ancestors.
From earliest times to this very day we have not obeyed the LORD our God.'

<sup>1</sup> "If you, Israel, want to come back," says the LORD,

“if you want to come back to me you must get those disgusting idols out of my sight and must no longer go astray.

<sup>2</sup> You must be truthful, honest and upright when you take an oath saying, ‘As surely as the LORD lives!’
If you do, the nations will pray to be as blessed by him as you are and will make him the object of their boasting.”

<sup>3</sup> Yes, the LORD has this to say to the people of Judah and Jerusalem: “Like a farmer breaking up hard unplowed ground, you must break your rebellious will and make a new beginning;
just as a farmer must clear away thorns lest the seed is wasted, you must get rid of the sin that is ruining your lives.

<sup>4</sup> Just as ritual circumcision cuts away the foreskin as an external symbol of dedicated covenant commitment, you must genuinely dedicate yourselves to the LORD and get rid of everything that hinders your commitment to me, people of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem.
If you do not, my anger will blaze up like a flaming fire against you that no one will be able to extinguish.
That will happen because of the evil you have done.”

Warning of Coming Judgment

<sup>5</sup> The LORD said | strong="H5046",
“Announce this in Judah and proclaim it in Jerusalem:
‘Sound the trumpet throughout the land!’
Shout out loudly,
‘Gather together! Let us flee into the fortified cities!’

<sup>6</sup> Raise a signal flag that tells people to go to Zion.
Run for safety! Do not delay!
For I am about to bring disaster out of the north.
It will bring great destruction.

<sup>7</sup> Like a lion that has come up from its lair the one who destroys nations has set out from his home base.
He is coming out to lay your land waste.
Your cities will become ruins and lie uninhabited.

<sup>8</sup> So put on sackcloth!
Mourn and wail, saying,
‘The fierce anger of the LORD has not turned away from us!’ ”

<sup>9</sup> “When this happens,” says the LORD,
“the king and his officials will lose their courage.
The priests will be struck with horror, and the prophets will be speechless in astonishment.”

<sup>10</sup> In response to all this I said, “Ah, Lord GOD, you have surely allowed the people of Judah and Jerusalem to be deceived by those who say, ‘You will be safe!’ But in fact a sword is already at our throats.”

<sup>11</sup> “At that time the people of Judah and Jerusalem will be told,
‘A scorching wind will sweep down from the hilltops in the desert on my dear people.
It will not be a gentle breeze for winnowing the grain and blowing away the chaff.

<sup>12</sup> No, a wind too strong for that will come at my bidding.
Yes, even now I, myself, am calling down judgment on them.'

<sup>13</sup> Look! The enemy is approaching like gathering clouds.
The roar of his chariots is like that of a whirlwind.
His horses move more swiftly than eagles."

I cry out, "We are doomed, for we will be destroyed!"

<sup>14</sup> "Oh people of Jerusalem, purify your hearts from evil so that you may yet be delivered.

How long will you continue to harbor up wicked schemes within you?

<sup>15</sup> For messengers are coming, heralding disaster, from the city of Dan and from the hills of Ephraim.

<sup>16</sup> They are saying,
'Announce to the surrounding nations,
"The enemy is coming!"

Proclaim this message to Jerusalem:

"Those who besiege cities are coming from a distant land.
They are ready to raise the battle cry against the towns in Judah." '

<sup>17</sup> They will surround Jerusalem like men guarding a field because they have rebelled against me,"
says the LORD | strong="H3069".

<sup>18</sup> "The way you have lived and the things you have done will bring this on you.
This is the punishment you deserve, and it will be painful indeed.
The pain will be so bad it will pierce your heart."

<sup>19</sup> I said,
"Oh, the feeling in the pit of my stomach!
I writhe in anguish.
Oh, the pain in my heart!
My heart pounds within me.
I cannot keep silent.

For I hear the sound of the trumpet;
the sound of the battle cry pierces my soul!

<sup>20</sup> I see one destruction after another taking place, so that the whole land lies in ruins.
I see our tents suddenly destroyed, their curtains torn down in a mere instant.

<sup>21</sup> "How long must I see the enemy's battle flags and hear the military signals of their bugles?"

<sup>22</sup> The LORD answered, | strong="H3588"
"This will happen because my people are foolish.
They do not know me.
They are like children who have no sense.
They have no understanding.
They are skilled at doing evil.
They do not know how to do good."

<sup>23</sup> "I looked at the land and saw that it was an empty wasteland.
I looked up at the sky, and its light had vanished.

<sup>24</sup> I looked at the mountains and saw that they were shaking.

All the hills were swaying back and forth!

<sup>25</sup> I looked and saw that there were no more people, and that all the birds in the sky had flown away.

<sup>26</sup> I looked and saw that the fruitful land had become a desert and that all of the cities had been laid in ruins.

The LORD had brought this all about because of his blazing anger.

<sup>27</sup> All this will happen because the LORD said,
“The whole land will be desolate;
however, I will not completely destroy it.

<sup>28</sup> Because of this the land will mourn and the sky above will grow black.

For I have made my purpose known and I will not relent or turn back from carrying it out.”

<sup>29</sup> At the sound of the approaching horsemen and archers the people of every town will flee.

Some of them will hide in the thickets.

Others will climb up among the rocks.

All the cities will be deserted.

No one will remain in them.

<sup>30</sup> And you, Zion, city doomed to destruction, you accomplish nothing by wearing a beautiful dress, decking yourself out in jewels of gold,
and putting on eye shadow!

You are making yourself beautiful for nothing.

Your lovers spurn you.

They want to kill you.

<sup>31</sup> In fact, I hear a cry like that of a woman in labor, a cry of anguish like that of a woman giving birth to her first baby.

It is the cry of Daughter Zion gasping for breath, reaching out for help, saying, “I am done in!

My life is ebbing away before these murderers!”

5

<sup>1</sup> The LORD said, | strong="H7751"

“Go up and down through the streets of Jerusalem.

Look around and see for yourselves.

Search through its public squares.

See if any of you can find a single person who deals honestly and tries to be truthful.

If you can, then I will not punish this city.

But the fact is, what they swear to is really a lie.”

<sup>3</sup> LORD, I know you look for faithfulness.

But even when you punish these people, they feel no remorse.

Even when you nearly destroy them, they refuse to be corrected.

They have become as hardheaded as a rock.

They refuse to change their ways.

<sup>4</sup> I thought, “Surely it is only the ignorant poor who act this way.

They act like fools because they do not know what the LORD demands.

They do not know what their God requires of them.

<sup>5</sup> I will go to the leaders and speak with them.

Surely they know what the LORD demands.
Surely they know what their God requires of them.”

Yet all of them, too, have rejected his authority and refuse to submit to him.

<sup>6</sup> So like a lion from the thicket their enemies will kill them.
Like a wolf from the desert they will destroy them.
Like a leopard they will lie in wait outside their cities and totally destroy anyone who ventures out.

For they have rebelled so much and done so many unfaithful things.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD asked | strong="H5545",
“How can I leave you unpunished, Jerusalem?
Your people have rejected me and have worshiped gods that are not gods at all.
Even though I supplied all their needs, they were like an unfaithful wife to me.
They went flocking to the houses of prostitutes.

<sup>8</sup> They are like lusty, well-fed stallions.
Each of them lusts after his neighbor’s wife.

<sup>9</sup> I will surely punish them for doing such things!” says the LORD.
“I will surely bring retribution on such a nation as this!”

<sup>10</sup> The LORD commanded | strong="H5927" the enemy, “March through the vineyards of Israel and Judah and ruin them.
But do not destroy them completely.

Strip off their branches for these people do not belong to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> For the nations of Israel and Judah have been very unfaithful to me,”
says the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> “These people have denied what the LORD says.
They have said, ‘That is not so!

No harm will come to us.
We will not experience war and famine.

<sup>13</sup> The prophets will prove to be full of wind.
The LORD has not | strong="H0369" spoken through them.
So, let what they say happen to them.’ ”

<sup>14</sup> Because of that, the LORD, the God who rules over all, said to me, “Because these people have spoken like this,
I will make the words that I put in your mouth like fire.
And I will make this people like wood which the fiery judgments you speak will burn up.”

<sup>15</sup> The LORD says, “Listen, nation of Israel!
I am about to bring a nation from far away to attack you.
It will be a nation that was founded long ago and has lasted for a long time.
It will be a nation whose language you will not know.
Its people will speak words that you will not be able to understand.

<sup>16</sup> All of its soldiers are strong and mighty.
Their arrows will send you to your grave.

<sup>17</sup> They will eat up your crops and your food.

They will kill off your sons and your daughters.
They will eat up your sheep and your cattle.
They will destroy your vines and your fig trees.
Their weapons will batter down the fortified cities you trust in.

<sup>18</sup> Yet even then I will not completely destroy you," says the LORD.

<sup>19</sup> "So then, Jeremiah, when your people ask, 'Why has the LORD our God done all this to us?' tell them, 'It is because you rejected me and served foreign gods in your own land. So you must serve foreigners in a land that does not belong to you.'

<sup>20</sup> "Proclaim this message among the descendants of Jacob.
Make it known throughout Judah.

you foolish people who have no understanding, who have eyes but do not discern,
who have ears but do not perceive:

<sup>22</sup> "You should fear me!" says the LORD.

"You should tremble in awe before me!
I made the sand to be a boundary for the sea,
a permanent barrier that it can never cross.
Its waves may roll, but they can never prevail.
They may roar, but they can never cross beyond that boundary."

<sup>23</sup> But these people have stubborn and rebellious hearts.
They have turned aside and gone their own way.

<sup>24</sup> They do not say to themselves,
"Let us revere the LORD our God.
It is he who gives us the autumn rains and the spring rains at the proper time.
It is he who assures us of the regular weeks of harvest."

Your sins have deprived you of my bounty.'

<sup>26</sup> "Indeed, there are wicked scoundrels among my people.
They lie in wait like bird catchers hiding in ambush.
They set deadly traps to catch people.

<sup>27</sup> Like a cage filled with the birds that have been caught, their houses are filled with the gains of their fraud and deceit.
That is how they have gotten so rich and powerful.

<sup>28</sup> That is how they have grown fat and sleek.
There is no limit to the evil things they do.
They do not plead the cause of the fatherless in such a way as to win it.
They do not defend the rights of the poor.

<sup>29</sup> I will certainly punish them for doing such things!" says the LORD.
"I will certainly bring retribution on such a nation as this!

<sup>30</sup> "Something horrible and shocking is going on in the land of Judah:

<sup>31</sup> The prophets prophesy lies.
The priests exercise power by their own authority.
And my people love to have it this way.
But they will not be able to help you when the time of judgment comes!

Get out of Jerusalem!

Sound the trumpet in Tekoa!
Light the signal fires at Beth Hakkerem!
For disaster lurks out of the north;
it will bring great destruction.
<sup>2</sup> I will destroy Daughter Zion, who is as delicate and defenseless as a young maiden.
<sup>3</sup> Kings will come against it with their armies.
They will encamp in siege all around it.
Each of them will devastate the portion assigned to him.
<sup>4</sup> They will say, 'Prepare to do battle against it!
Come on! Let's attack it at noon!'
But later they will say, 'Oh, oh! Too bad!
The day is almost over and the shadows of evening are getting long.' <sup>5</sup> So come on, let's go ahead and attack it by night and destroy all its fortified buildings.' <sup>6</sup> All of this is because the LORD who rules over all has said:
'Cut down the trees around Jerusalem and build up a siege ramp against its walls.
This is the city which is to be punished.
Nothing but oppression happens in it.'
<sup>7</sup> As a well continually pours out fresh water so it continually pours out wicked deeds.
Sounds of violence and destruction echo throughout it.
All I see are sick and wounded people.'
<sup>8</sup> So take warning, Jerusalem, or I will abandon you in disgust and make you desolate, a place where no one can live."
<sup>9</sup> This is what the LORD who rules over all said to me:
"Those who remain in Israel will be like the grapes thoroughly gleaned from a vine.
So go over them again, as though you were a grape harvester passing your hand over the branches one last time." <sup>10</sup> I answered,
"Who would listen
if I spoke to them and warned them?
Their ears are so closed
that they cannot hear!
Indeed, what the LORD says is offensive to them.
They do not like it at all."
<sup>11</sup> I am as full of anger as you are, LORD,
I am tired of trying to hold it in."
The LORD answered, |strong="H8210"
"Vent it, then, on the children who play in the street and on the young men who are gathered together.
Husbands and wives are to be included, as well as the old and those who are advanced in years."
<sup>12</sup> Their houses will be turned over to others as will their fields and their wives.
For I will unleash my power against those who live in this land,"

says the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> “That is because, from the least important to the most important of them, all of them are greedy for dishonest gain.

Prophets and priests alike,
all of them practice deceit.

<sup>14</sup> They offer only superficial help for the harm my people have suffered.
They say, ‘Everything will be all right!’
But everything is not all right!

<sup>15</sup> Are they ashamed because they have done such shameful things?
No, they are not at all ashamed.

They do not even know how to blush!
So they will die, just like others have died.
They will be brought to ruin when I punish them,”

says the LORD.

<sup>16</sup> The LORD said to his people:

“You are standing at the crossroads. So consider your path.
Ask where the old, reliable paths are.
Ask where the path is that leads to blessing and follow it.
If you do, you will find rest for your souls.”
But they said, “We will not follow it!”

<sup>17</sup> The LORD said, | strong="H6965"

“I appointed prophets as watchmen to warn you, saying:
‘Pay attention to the warning sound of the trumpet!’ ”
But they said, “We will not pay attention!”

<sup>18</sup> So the LORD said, | strong="H8085"

“Hear, you nations!
Be witnesses and take note of what will happen to these people.

<sup>19</sup> Hear this, you peoples of the earth:

‘Take note! I am about to bring disaster on these people.
It will come as punishment for their scheming.
For they have paid no attention to what I have said,
and they have rejected my law.

<sup>20</sup> I take no delight when they offer up to me frankincense that comes from Sheba or sweet-smelling cane imported from a faraway land.
I cannot accept the burnt offerings they bring me.
I get no pleasure from the sacrifices they offer to me.’

<sup>21</sup> So, this is what the LORD says:

‘I will assuredly make these people stumble to their doom.
Parents and children will stumble and fall to their destruction.
Friends and neighbors will die.’

‘Beware! An army is coming from a land in the north.
A mighty nation is stirring into action in faraway parts of the earth.

They are cruel and show no mercy.
They sound like the roaring sea
as they ride forth on their horses.
Lined up in formation like men going into battle to attack you, Daughter Zion.’ ”

<sup>24</sup> The people cry out, “We have heard reports about them!
We have become helpless with fear!

Anguish grips us,
agony like that of a woman giving birth to a baby!

<sup>25</sup> Do not go out into the countryside.

Do not travel on the roads.

For the enemy is there with sword in hand.

They are spreading terror everywhere.”

<sup>26</sup> So I said, “Oh, my dear people, put on sackcloth and roll in ashes.

Mourn with painful sobs

as though you had lost your only child.

For any moment now that destructive army will come against us.”

<sup>27</sup> The LORD said to me, |strong="H5414"

“I have made you like a metal assayer to test my people like ore.

You are to observe them and evaluate how they behave.”

<sup>28</sup> I reported,

“All of them are the most stubborn of rebels!

They are as hard as bronze or iron.

They go about telling lies.

They all deal corruptly.

<sup>29</sup> The fiery bellows of judgment burn fiercely.

But there is too much dross to be removed.

The process of refining them has proved useless.

The wicked have not been purged.

<sup>30</sup> They are regarded as ‘rejected silver’

because the LORD rejects them.”

7

<sup>2</sup> “Stand in the gate of the LORD’s temple and proclaim this message: ‘Listen, all you people of Judah who have passed through these gates to worship the LORD. Hear what the LORD has to say.

<sup>3</sup> The LORD God of Israel who rules over all says: Change the way you have been living and do what is right. If you do, I will allow you to continue to live in this land.

<sup>4</sup> Stop putting your confidence in the false belief that says, “We are safe! The temple of the LORD is here! The temple of the LORD is here! The temple of the LORD is here!”

<sup>5</sup> You must change the way you have been living and do what is right. You must treat one another fairly.

<sup>6</sup> Stop oppressing foreigners who live in your land, children who have lost their fathers, and women who have lost their husbands. Stop killing innocent people in this land. Stop paying allegiance to other gods. That will only bring about your ruin.

<sup>7</sup> If you stop doing these things, I will allow you to continue to live in this land which I gave to your ancestors as a lasting possession.

<sup>8</sup> “But just look at you! You are putting your confidence in a false belief that will not deliver you.

<sup>9</sup> You steal. You murder. You commit adultery. You lie when you swear on oath. You sacrifice to the god Baal. You pay allegiance to other gods whom you have not previously known.

<sup>10</sup> Then you come and stand in my presence in this temple I have claimed as my own and say, "We are safe!" You think you are so safe that you go on doing all those hateful sins!

<sup>11</sup> Do you think this temple I have claimed as my own is to be a hideout for robbers? You had better take note! I have seen for myself what you have done! says the LORD | strong="H3069".

<sup>12</sup> So, go to the place in Shiloh where I allowed myself to be worshiped in the early days. See what I did to it because of the wicked things my people Israel did.

<sup>13</sup> You also have done all these things, says the LORD, and I have spoken to you over and over again. But you have not listened! You have refused to respond when I called you to repent!

<sup>14</sup> So I will destroy this temple which I have claimed as my own, this temple that you are trusting to protect you. I will destroy this place that I gave to you and your ancestors, just like I destroyed Shiloh.

<sup>15</sup> And I will drive you out of my sight just like I drove out your relatives, the people of Israel.' "

<sup>16</sup> Then the LORD said, "As for you | strong="H0859", Jeremiah, do not pray for these people! Do not cry out to me or petition me on their behalf! Do not plead with me to save them, because I will not listen to you.

<sup>17</sup> Do you see what they are doing in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

<sup>18</sup> Children are gathering firewood, fathers are building fires with it, and women are mixing dough to bake cakes to offer to the goddess they call the Queen of Heaven. They are also pouring out drink offerings to other gods. They seem to do all this just to trouble me.

<sup>19</sup> But I am not really the one being troubled!" says the LORD. "Rather they are bringing trouble on themselves to their own shame!

<sup>20</sup> So," the Lord GOD says, "my raging fury will be poured out on this land. It will be poured out on human beings and animals, on trees and crops. And it will burn like a fire which cannot be extinguished."

<sup>21</sup> The LORD said | strong="H0559" to the people of Judah, "The LORD God of Israel who rules over all says: 'You might as well go ahead and add the meat of your burnt offerings to that of the other sacrifices and eat it, too!

<sup>22</sup> Consider this: When I spoke to your ancestors after I brought them out of Egypt, I did not merely give them commands about burnt offerings and sacrifices.

<sup>23</sup> I also explicitly commanded them: "Obey me. If you do, I will be your God and you will be my people. Live exactly the way I tell you and things will go well with you."

<sup>24</sup> But they did not listen to me or pay any attention to me. They followed the stubborn inclinations of their own wicked hearts. They acted worse and worse instead of better.

<sup>25</sup> From the time your ancestors departed the land of Egypt until now, I sent my servants the prophets to you again and again, day after day.

<sup>26</sup> But your ancestors did not listen to me nor pay attention to me. They became obstinate and were more wicked than even their own forefathers.' "

<sup>27</sup> Then the LORD said | strong="H1696" to me, "When you tell them all this, they will not listen to you. When you call out to them, they will not respond to you.

<sup>28</sup> So tell them: 'This is a nation that has not obeyed the LORD their God and has not accepted correction. Faithfulness is nowhere to be found in it. These people do not even profess it anymore.

<sup>29</sup> So, mourn, you people of this nation. Cut off your hair and throw it away. Sing a song of mourning on the hilltops. For the LORD has decided to reject and forsake this generation that has provoked his wrath!" "

<sup>30</sup> The LORD says, "I have rejected them because the people of Judah have done what I consider evil. They have set up their disgusting idols in the temple which I have claimed for my own and have defiled it.

<sup>31</sup> They have also built places of worship in a place called Topheth in the Valley of Ben Hinnom so that they can sacrifice their sons and daughters by fire. That is something I never commanded them to do! Indeed, it never even entered my mind to command such a thing!

<sup>32</sup> So, watch out!" says the LORD. "The time will soon come when people will no longer call those places Topheth or the Valley of Ben Hinnom. But they will call that valley the Valley of Slaughter and they will bury so many people in Topheth they will run out of room.

<sup>33</sup> Then the dead bodies of these people will be left on the ground for the birds and wild animals to eat. There will not be any survivors to scare them away.

<sup>34</sup> I will put an end to the sounds of joy and gladness, or the glad celebration of brides and grooms throughout the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem. For the whole land will become a desolate wasteland."

8

<sup>1</sup> The LORD says, "When that time comes, the bones of the kings of Judah and its leaders, the bones of the priests and prophets and of all the other people who lived in Jerusalem will be dug up from their graves.

<sup>2</sup> They will be spread out and exposed to the sun, the moon and the stars. These are things they adored and served, things to which they paid allegiance, from which they sought guidance, and worshiped. The bones of these people will never be regathered and reburied. They will be like manure used to fertilize the ground.

<sup>3</sup> However, I will leave some of these wicked people alive and banish them to other places. But wherever these people who survive may go, they will wish they had died rather than lived," says the LORD who rules over all.

Willful Disregard of God Will Lead to Destruction

<sup>4</sup> The LORD said | strong="H0559" to me,
"Tell them, 'The LORD says,
Do people not get back up when they fall down?
Do they not turn around when they go the wrong way?"

<sup>5</sup> Why, then, do these people of Jerusalem continually turn away from me in apostasy?
They hold fast to their deception.
They refuse to turn back to me.

<sup>6</sup> I have listened to them very carefully, but they do not speak honestly.
None of them regrets the evil he has done.
None of them says, "I have done wrong!"
All of them persist in their own wayward course like a horse charging recklessly into battle.

<sup>7</sup> Even the stork knows when it is time to move on.
The turtledove, swallow, and crane recognize the normal times for their migration.
But my people pay no attention to what I, the LORD, require of them.

<sup>8</sup> How can you say, "We are wise!

We have the law of the LORD"?

The truth is, those who teach it have used their writings to make it say what it does not really mean.

<sup>9</sup> Your wise men will be put to shame.

They will be dumbfounded and be brought to judgment.

Since they have rejected the word of the LORD, what wisdom do they really have?

<sup>10</sup>

So I will give their wives to other men and their fields to new owners.

For from the least important to the most important of them, all of them are greedy for dishonest gain.

Prophets and priests alike,
all practice deceit.

<sup>11</sup> They offer only superficial help for the hurt my dear people have suffered.

They say, "Everything will be all right!"

But everything is not all right!

<sup>12</sup> Are they ashamed because they have done such disgusting things?

No, they are not at all ashamed!

They do not even know how to blush!

So they will die just like others have died.

They will be brought to ruin when I punish them,
says the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> I will take away their harvests, says the LORD | strong="H3069".

There will be no grapes on their vines.

There will be no figs on their fig trees.

Even the leaves on their trees will wither.

The crops that I gave them will be taken away.' "

Jeremiah Laments over the Coming Destruction

<sup>14</sup> The people say,

"Why are we just sitting here?

Let us gather together inside the fortified cities.

Let us at least die there fighting, since the LORD our God has condemned us to die.

He has condemned us to drink the poison waters of judgment because we have sinned against him.

<sup>15</sup> We hoped for good fortune, but nothing good has come of it.

We hoped for a time of relief, but instead we experience terror.

<sup>16</sup> The snorting of the enemy's horses is already being heard in the city of Dan.

The sound of the neighing of their stallions causes the whole land to tremble with fear.

They are coming to destroy the land and everything in it!

They are coming to destroy the cities and everyone who lives in them!"

<sup>17</sup> The LORD says,

"Yes indeed, I am sending an enemy against you that will be like poisonous snakes which cannot be charmed away.

And they will inflict fatal wounds on you."

<sup>18</sup> Then I said,
 “There is no cure for my grief!
 I am sick at heart!
<sup>19</sup> I hear my dear people crying out throughout the length and breadth of the land.
 They are crying, ‘Is the LORD no longer in Zion?
 Is her divine King no longer there?’ ”
 The LORD answers, |strong="H4069"
 “Why then do they provoke me to anger with their images, with their worthless foreign idols?” <sup>20</sup> “They cry, ‘Harvest time has come and gone, and the summer is over, and still we have not been delivered.’
<sup>21</sup> My heart is crushed because my dear people are being crushed.
 I go about crying and grieving. I am overwhelmed with dismay.
<sup>22</sup> There is still medicinal ointment available in Gilead!
 There is still a physician there!
 Why then have my dear people not been restored to health?

9

<sup>1</sup> I wish that my head were a well full of water and my eyes were a fountain full of tears!
 If they were, I could cry day and night for those of my dear people who have been killed.
<sup>2</sup> I wish I had a lodging place in the desert where I could spend some time like a weary traveler.
 Then I would desert my people and walk away from them because they are all unfaithful to God, a congregation of people that has been disloyal to him.

The Lord Laments That He Has No Choice But to Judge Them

<sup>3</sup> The LORD says,
 “These people are like soldiers who have readied their bows.
 Their tongues are always ready to shoot out lies.
 They have become powerful in the land,
 but they have not done so by honest means.
 Indeed, they do one evil thing after another and do not pay attention to me.
<sup>4</sup> Everyone must be on his guard around his friends.
 He must not even trust any of his relatives.
 For every one of them will find some way to cheat him.
 And all of his friends will tell lies about him.
<sup>5</sup> One friend deceives another and no one tells the truth.
 These people have trained themselves to tell lies.
 They do wrong and are unable to repent.
<sup>6</sup> They do one act of violence after another, and one deceitful thing after another.
 They refuse to pay attention to me,”
 says the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore the LORD who rules over all says,

"I will now purify them in the fires of affliction and test them.
The wickedness of my dear people has left me no choice.
What else can I do?

<sup>8</sup> Their tongues are like deadly arrows.

They are always telling lies.

Friendly words for their neighbors come from their mouths.

But their minds are thinking up ways to trap them.

<sup>9</sup> I will certainly punish them for doing such things!" says the LORD.

"I will certainly bring retribution on such a nation as this!"

The Coming Destruction Calls For Mourning

<sup>10</sup> I said,

"I will weep and mourn for the grasslands on the mountains,
I will sing a mournful song for the pastures in the wilderness because they are so scorched no one travels through them.
The sound of livestock is no longer heard there.
Even the birds in the sky and the wild animals in the fields have fled and are gone."

<sup>11</sup> The LORD said, | strong="H5414"

"I will make Jerusalem a heap of ruins.

Jackals will make their home there.

I will destroy the towns of Judah so that no one will be able to live in them."

<sup>12</sup> I said,

"Who is wise enough to understand why this has happened?

Who has a word from the LORD that can explain it?

Why does the land lie in ruins?

Why is it as scorched as a desert through which no one travels?"

<sup>13</sup> The LORD | strong="H3069" answered, "This has happened because these people have rejected my laws which I gave them. They have not obeyed me or followed those laws.

<sup>14</sup> Instead they have followed the stubborn inclinations of their own hearts. They have paid allegiance to the gods called Baal, as their fathers taught them to do.

<sup>15</sup> So then, listen to what I, the LORD God of Israel who rules over all, say. 'I will make these people eat the bitter food of suffering and drink the poison water of judgment.

<sup>16</sup> I will scatter them among nations that neither they nor their ancestors have known anything about. I will send people chasing after them with swords until I have destroyed them.' "

<sup>17</sup> The LORD who rules over all told me to say to this people,

"Take note of what I say.

Call for the women who mourn for the dead!

Summon those who are the most skilled at it!"

<sup>18</sup> I said, "Indeed, let them come quickly and sing a song of mourning for us.

Let them wail loudly until tears stream from our own eyes and our eyelids overflow with water.

<sup>19</sup> For the sound of wailing is soon to be heard in Zion.

They will wail, 'We are utterly ruined! We are completely disgraced!

For our houses have been torn down and we must leave our land.' "

<sup>20</sup> I said,

"So now, you wailing women, hear what the LORD says.

Open your ears to the words from his mouth.

Teach your daughters this mournful song, and each of you teach your neighbor this lament.
<sup>21</sup> 'Death has climbed in through our windows.
 It has entered into our fortified houses.
 It has taken away our children who play in the streets.
 It has taken away our young men who gather in the city squares.'
<sup>22</sup> Tell your daughters and neighbors, 'The LORD says,
 "The dead bodies of people will lie scattered everywhere like manure scattered on a field.
 They will lie scattered on the ground like grain that has been cut down but has not been gathered." ' "

<sup>23</sup>
 The LORD says,
 "Wise people should not boast that they are wise.
 Powerful people should not boast that they are powerful.
 Rich people should not boast that they are rich.
<sup>24</sup> If people want to boast, they should boast about this:
 They should boast that they understand and know me.
 They should boast that they know and understand that I, the LORD, act out of faithfulness, fairness, and justice in the earth and that I desire people to do these things,"
 says the LORD.

<sup>25</sup> The LORD says, "Watch out! The time is soon coming when I will punish all those who are circumcised only in the flesh.

<sup>26</sup> That is, I will punish the Egyptians, the Judeans, the Edomites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, and all the desert people who cut their hair short at the temples. I will do so because none of the people of those nations are really circumcised in the LORD's sight.
 Moreover, none of the people of Israel are circumcised when it comes to their hearts."

10

<sup>2</sup> The LORD says,
 "Do not start following pagan religious practices.
 Do not be in awe of signs that occur in the sky even though the nations hold them in awe.
<sup>3</sup> For the religion of these people is worthless.
 They cut down a tree in the forest, and a craftsman makes it into an idol with his tools.
<sup>4</sup> He decorates it with overlays of silver and gold.
 He uses hammer and nails to fasten it together so that it will not fall over.
<sup>5</sup> Such idols are like scarecrows in a cucumber field.
 They cannot talk.
 They must be carried because they cannot walk.
 Do not be afraid of them
 because they cannot hurt you.
 And they do not have any power to help you."

<sup>6</sup> I said,
 "There is no one like you, LORD.
 You are great.

And you are renowned for your power.

<sup>7</sup> Everyone should revere you, O King of all nations, because you deserve to be revered.

For there is no one like you among any of the wise people of the nations nor among any of their kings.

<sup>8</sup> The people of those nations are both stupid and foolish.

<sup>9</sup> Hammered-out silver is brought from Tarshish and gold is brought from Uphaz to cover those idols.
They are the handiwork of carpenters and goldsmiths.
They are clothed in blue and purple clothes.
They are all made by skillful workers.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD is the only true God.

He is the living God and the everlasting King.

When he shows his anger the earth shakes.

None of the nations can stand up to his fury.

<sup>11</sup> You people of Israel should tell those nations this:

‘These gods did not make heaven and earth.

They will disappear from the earth and from under the heavens.’

<sup>12</sup> The LORD is the one who by his power | strong="H3581" made the earth.

He is the one who by his wisdom established the world.

And by his understanding he spread out the skies.

<sup>13</sup> When his voice thunders, the heavenly ocean roars.

He makes the clouds rise from the far-off horizons.

He makes the lightning flash out in the midst of the rain.

He unleashes the wind from the places where he stores it.

<sup>14</sup> All these idolaters will prove to be stupid and ignorant.

Every goldsmith will be disgraced by the idol he made.

For the image he forges is merely a sham.

There is no breath in any of those idols.

<sup>15</sup> They are worthless, mere objects to be mocked.

When the time comes to punish them, they will be destroyed.

them.

He is the one who created everything.

And the people of Israel are those he claims as his own.

He is known as the LORD who rules over all.”

Jeremiah Laments for and Prays for the Soon-to-be-Judged People

<sup>17</sup> Gather your belongings together and prepare to leave the land, you people of Jerusalem who are being besieged.

<sup>18</sup> For the LORD | strong="H3069" says, “I will now throw out those who live in this land.
I will bring so much trouble on them that they will actually feel it.”

<sup>19</sup> And I cried out, “We are doomed!

Our wound is severe!

We once thought, ‘This is only an illness.

And we will be able to bear it!’

<sup>20</sup> But our tents have been destroyed.

The ropes that held them in place have been ripped apart.

Our children are gone and are not coming back.

There is no survivor to put our tents back up, no one left to hang their tent curtains in place.

They have not sought the LORD's advice.

So they do not act wisely, and the people they are responsible for have all been scattered.

<sup>22</sup> Listen! News is coming even now.

The rumble of a great army is heard approaching from a land in the north.

It is coming to turn the towns of Judah into rubble, places where only jackals live.

<sup>23</sup> LORD, we know that people do not control their own destiny.

It is not in their power to determine what will happen to them.

<sup>24</sup> Correct us, LORD, but only in due measure.

Do not punish us in anger or you will reduce us to nothing.

<sup>25</sup> Vent your anger on the nations that do not acknowledge you.

Vent it on the peoples who do not worship you.

For they have destroyed the people of Jacob.

They have completely destroyed them and left their homeland in utter ruin.

11

<sup>2</sup> "Hear the terms of the covenant I made with Israel and pass them on to the people of Judah and the citizens of Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> Tell them that the LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'Anyone who does not keep the terms of the covenant will be under a curse.

<sup>4</sup> Those are the terms that I charged your ancestors to keep when I brought them out of Egypt, that place which was like an iron-smelting furnace. I said at that time, "Obey me and carry out the terms of the agreement exactly as I commanded you. If you do, you will be my people and I will be your God.

<sup>5</sup> Then I will keep the promise I swore on oath to your ancestors to give them a land flowing with milk and honey." That is the very land that you still live in today.' " And I responded, "Amen! Let it be so, LORD!"

<sup>6</sup> The LORD said to me, "Announce all the following words in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: 'Listen to the terms of my covenant with you and carry them out!

<sup>7</sup> For I solemnly warned your ancestors to obey me. I warned them again and again, ever since I delivered them out of Egypt until this very day.

<sup>8</sup> But they did not listen to me or pay any attention to me! Each one of them followed the stubborn inclinations of his own wicked heart. So I brought on them all the punishments threatened in the covenant because they did not carry out its terms as I commanded them to do.' "

<sup>9</sup> The LORD said to me, "The people of Judah and the citizens of Jerusalem have plotted rebellion against me!

<sup>10</sup> They have gone back to the evil ways of their ancestors of old who refused to obey what I told them. They, too, have paid allegiance to other gods and worshiped them. Both the nation of Israel and the nation of Judah have violated the covenant I made with their ancestors.

<sup>11</sup> So I, the LORD, say this: 'I will soon bring disaster on them which they will not be able to escape! When they cry out to me for help, I will not listen to them.

<sup>12</sup> Then those living in the towns of Judah and in Jerusalem will go and cry out for help to the gods to whom they have been sacrificing. However, those gods will by no means be able to save them when disaster strikes them.

<sup>13</sup> This is in spite of the fact that the people of Judah have as many gods as they have towns and the citizens of Jerusalem have set up as many altars to sacrifice to that disgusting god, Baal, as they have streets in the city!

<sup>14</sup> So, Jeremiah, do not pray for these people. Do not cry out to me or petition me on their behalf. Do not plead with me to save them. For I will not listen to them when they call out to me for help when disaster strikes them."

<sup>15</sup> The LORD says to the people of Judah, | strong="H4100"
"What right do you have to be in my temple, my beloved people?
Many of you have done wicked things.

Can your acts of treachery be so easily canceled by sacred offerings that you take joy in doing evil even while you make them?

<sup>16</sup> I, the LORD, once called you a thriving olive tree, one that produced beautiful fruit.

But I will set you on fire, fire that will blaze with a mighty roar.

Then all your branches will be good for nothing.

<sup>17</sup> For though I, the LORD who rules over all, planted you in the land,
I now decree that disaster will come on you because the nations of Israel and Judah have done evil and have made me angry by offering sacrifices to the god Baal."

A Plot Against Jeremiah is Revealed and He Complains of Injustice

<sup>18</sup> The LORD gave me knowledge, that I might have understanding.
Then he showed me what the people were doing.

<sup>19</sup> Before this I had been like a docile lamb ready to be led to the slaughter.
I did not know they were making plans to kill me.

I did not know they were saying,
"Let's destroy the tree along with its fruit!
Let's remove Jeremiah from the world of the living so people will not even be reminded of him any more."

<sup>20</sup> So I said to the LORD, | strong="H3068"

"O LORD who rules over all, you are a just judge!

You examine people's hearts and minds.

I want to see you pay them back for what they have done because I trust you to vindicate my cause."

<sup>21</sup> Then the LORD told me about some men from Anathoth who were threatening to kill me. They had threatened, "Stop prophesying in the name of the LORD or we will kill you!"

<sup>22</sup> So the LORD who rules over all said, "I will surely punish them! Their young men will be killed in battle. Their sons and daughters will die of starvation.

12

<sup>1</sup> LORD, you have always been fair whenever I have complained to you.

However, I would like to speak with you about the disposition of justice.
Why are wicked people successful?

Why do all dishonest people have such easy lives?

<sup>2</sup> You plant them like trees and they put down their roots.
They grow prosperous and are very fruitful.
They always talk about you,
but they really care nothing about you.

<sup>3</sup> But you, LORD, know all about me.
You watch me and test my devotion to you.
Drag these wicked men away like sheep to be slaughtered!
Appoint a time when they will be killed!
<sup>4</sup> How long must the land be parched and the grass in every field be withered?
How long must the animals and the birds die because of the wickedness of the people who live in this land?
For these people boast,
“God will not see what happens to us.”

<sup>5</sup> The LORD answered, |strong="H3588"
“If you have raced on foot against men and they have worn you out, how will you be able to compete with horses?
And if you feel secure only in safe and open country, how will you manage in the thick undergrowth along the Jordan River?

<sup>6</sup> As a matter of fact, even your own brothers and the members of your own family have betrayed you too.
Even they have plotted to do away with you.
So do not trust them even when they say kind things to you.

<sup>7</sup> “I will abandon my nation.
I will forsake the people I call my own.
I will turn my beloved people over to the power of their enemies.

<sup>8</sup> The people I call my own have turned on me like a lion in the forest.
They have roared defiantly at me.
So I will treat them as though I hate them.

<sup>9</sup> The people I call my own attack me like birds of prey or like hyenas.
But other birds of prey are all around them.
Let all the nations gather together like wild beasts.
Let them come and destroy these people I call my own.

<sup>10</sup> Many foreign rulers will ruin the land where I planted my people.
They will trample all over my chosen land.
They will turn my beautiful land into a desolate wasteland.

<sup>11</sup> They will lay it waste.
It will lie parched and empty before me.
The whole land will be laid waste.
But no one living in it will pay any heed.

<sup>12</sup> A destructive army will come marching over the hilltops in the desert.
For the LORD will use them as his destructive weapon against everyone from one end of the land to the other.
No one will be safe.

<sup>13</sup> My people will sow wheat, but will harvest weeds.
They will work until they are exhausted, but will get nothing from it.

They will be disappointed in their harvests because the LORD will take them away in his fierce anger.

<sup>14</sup> “I, the LORD, also have something to say concerning the wicked nations who surround my land and have attacked and plundered the land that I gave to my people as a permanent possession. I say: ‘I will uproot the people of those nations from their lands and I will free the people of Judah who have been taken there.

<sup>15</sup> But after I have uprooted the people of those nations, I will relent and have pity on them. I will restore the people of each of those nations to their own lands and to their own country.

<sup>16</sup> But they must make sure you learn to follow the religious practices of my people. Once they taught my people to swear their oaths using the name of the god Baal. But then, they must swear oaths using my name, saying, “As surely as the LORD | strong=“H3069” lives, I swear.” If they do these things, then they will be included among the people I call my own.

13

<sup>2</sup> So I bought the shorts as the LORD had told me to do and put them on.

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD spoke to me again and said,

<sup>5</sup> So I went and buried them at Perath as the LORD had ordered me to do.

<sup>6</sup> Many days later the LORD said to me, “Go at once to Perath and get the shorts I ordered you to bury there.”

<sup>7</sup> So I went to Perath and dug up the shorts from the place where I had buried them. I found that they were ruined; they were good for nothing.

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD said to me,

<sup>9</sup> “I, the LORD, say: ‘This shows how I will ruin the highly exalted position in which Judah and Jerusalem take pride.

<sup>10</sup> These wicked people refuse to obey what I have said. They follow the stubborn inclinations of their own hearts and pay allegiance to other gods by worshiping and serving them. So they will become just like these linen shorts which are good for nothing.

<sup>11</sup> For,’ I say, ‘just as shorts cling tightly to a person’s body, so I bound the whole nation of Israel and the whole nation of Judah tightly to me.’ I intended for them to be my special people and to bring me fame, honor, and praise. But they would not obey me.

<sup>12</sup> “So tell them, ‘The LORD, the God of Israel, says, “Every wine jar is made to be filled with wine.” ’ And they will probably say to you, ‘Do you not think we know that every wine jar is supposed to be filled with wine?’

<sup>13</sup> Then tell them, ‘The LORD says, “I will soon fill all the people who live in this land with stupor. I will also fill the kings from David’s dynasty, the priests, the prophets, and the citizens of Jerusalem with stupor.

<sup>14</sup> And I will smash them like wine bottles against one another, children and parents alike. I will not show any pity, mercy, or compassion. Nothing will keep me from destroying them,’ says the LORD.”

<sup>15</sup> Then I said to the people of Judah, “Listen and pay attention! Do not be arrogant!
For the LORD has spoken.

<sup>16</sup> Show the LORD your God the respect that is due him.
Do it before he brings the darkness of disaster.
Do it before you stumble into distress like a traveler on the mountains at twilight.
Do it before he turns the light of deliverance you hope for into the darkness and gloom of exile.

<sup>17</sup> But if you will not pay attention to this warning,
I will weep alone because of your arrogant pride.
I will weep bitterly and my eyes will overflow with tears because you, the LORD's flock, will be carried into exile."

<sup>18</sup> The LORD told | strong="H0559" me,
"Tell the king and the queen mother,
'Surrender your thrones,
for your glorious crowns will be removed from your heads.

<sup>19</sup> The gates of the towns in southern Judah will be shut tight.
No one will be able to go in or out of them.
All Judah will be carried off into exile.
They will be completely carried off into exile.' "

<sup>20</sup> Then I said,
"Look up, Jerusalem, and see the enemy that is coming from the north.
Where now is the flock of people that were entrusted to your care?
Where now are the 'sheep' that you take such pride in?

<sup>21</sup> What will you say when the LORD appoints | strong="H6485" as rulers over you those allies that you, yourself, had actually prepared as such?
Then anguish and agony will grip you like that of a woman giving birth to a baby.

<sup>22</sup> You will probably ask yourself,
'Why have these things happened to me?
Why have I been treated like a disgraced adulteress whose skirt has been torn off and her limbs exposed?'
It is because you have sinned so much.

<sup>23</sup> But there is little hope for you ever doing good, you who are so accustomed to doing evil.
Can an Ethiopian change the color of his skin?
Can a leopard remove its spots?

<sup>24</sup> "The LORD says, | strong="H6327"
'That is why I will scatter your people like chaff that is blown away by a desert wind.

<sup>25</sup> This is your fate,
the destiny to which I have appointed you, because you have forgotten me and have trusted in false gods.

<sup>26</sup> So I will pull your skirt up over your face and expose you to shame like a disgraced adulteress!

<sup>27</sup> People of Jerusalem, I have seen your adulterous worship, your shameless prostitution to, and your lustful pursuit of, other gods.
I have seen your disgusting acts of worship on the hills throughout the countryside.

You are doomed to destruction!
How long will you continue to be unclean?’ ”

14

<sup>2</sup> “The people of Judah are in mourning.
The people in her cities are pining away.
They lie on the ground expressing their sorrow.
Cries of distress come up to me from Jerusalem.
<sup>3</sup> The leading men of the cities send their servants for water.
They go to the cisterns, but they do not find any water there.
They return with their containers empty.
Disappointed and dismayed, they bury their faces in their hands.
<sup>4</sup> They are dismayed because the ground is cracked because there has been no rain in the land.
The farmers, too, are dismayed and bury their faces in their hands.
<sup>5</sup> Even the doe abandons her newborn fawn in the field because there is no grass.
<sup>6</sup> Wild donkeys stand on the hilltops and pant for breath like jackals.
Their eyes are strained looking for food, because there is none to be found.”
<sup>7</sup> Then I said,
“O LORD, intervene for the honor of your name even though our sins speak out against us.
Indeed, we have turned away from you many times.
We have sinned against you.
<sup>8</sup> You have been the object of Israel’s hopes.
You have saved them when they were in trouble.
Why have you become like a resident foreigner in the land?
Why have you become like a traveler who only stops in to spend the night?
<sup>9</sup> Why should you be like someone who is helpless, like a champion who cannot save anyone?
You are indeed with us,
and we belong to you.
Do not abandon us!”
<sup>10</sup> Then the LORD spoke about these people.
“They truly love to go astray.
They cannot keep from running away from me.
So I am not pleased with them.
I will now call to mind the wrongs they have done and punish them for their sins.”

Judgment for Believing the Misleading Lies of the False Prophets

<sup>11</sup> Then the LORD said to me, “Do not pray for good to come to these people!
<sup>12</sup> Even if they fast, I will not hear their cries for help. Even if they offer burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them. Instead, I will kill them through wars, famines, and plagues.”

<sup>13</sup> Then I said, “Oh, Lord GOD, look! The prophets are telling them that you said, ‘You will not experience war or suffer famine. I will give you lasting peace and prosperity in this land.’ ”

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD said to me, “Those prophets are prophesying lies while claiming my authority! I did not send them. I did not commission them. I did not speak to them. They are prophesying to these people false visions, worthless predictions, and the delusions of their own mind.

<sup>15</sup> I did not send those prophets, though they claim to be prophesying in my name. They may be saying, ‘No war or famine will happen in this land.’ But I, the LORD, say this about them: ‘War and starvation will kill those prophets.’

<sup>16</sup> The people to whom they are prophesying will die through war and famine. Their bodies will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem and there will be no one to bury them. This will happen to the men and their wives, their sons, and their daughters. For I will pour out on them the destruction they deserve.”

Lament over Present Destruction and Threat of More to Come

‘My eyes overflow with tears day and night without ceasing.

For my people, my dear children, have suffered a crushing blow.

They have suffered a serious wound.

<sup>18</sup> If I go out into the countryside,

I see those who have been killed in battle.

If I go into the city,

I see those who are sick because of starvation.

For both prophet and priest go about their own business in the land without having any real understanding.’ ”

<sup>19</sup> Then I said,

“LORD, have you completely rejected | strong="H3988" the nation of Judah?

Do you despise the city of Zion?

Why have you struck us with such force that we are beyond recovery?

We hope for peace, but nothing good has come of it.

We hope for a time of relief from our troubles, but experience terror.

<sup>20</sup> LORD, we confess that we have been wicked.

We confess that our ancestors have done wrong.

We have indeed sinned against you.

<sup>21</sup> For the honor of your name, do not treat Jerusalem with contempt.

Do not treat with disdain the place where your glorious throne sits.

Be mindful of your covenant with us. Do not break it!

<sup>22</sup> Do any of the worthless idols of the nations cause rain to fall?

Do the skies themselves send showers?

Is it not you, O Lord our God, who does this?

So we put our hopes in you because you alone do all this.”

15

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD said to me, “Even if Moses and Samuel stood before me pleading for these people, I would not feel pity for them! Get them away from me! Tell them to go away!

<sup>2</sup> If they ask you, ‘Where should we go?’ tell them the LORD says this:

“Those who are destined to die of disease will go to death by disease.

Those who are destined to die in war will go to death in war.
Those who are destined to die of starvation will go to death by starvation.
Those who are destined to go into exile will go into exile.”

<sup>3</sup> “I will punish them in four different ways: I will have war kill them. I will have dogs drag off their dead bodies. I will have birds and wild beasts devour and destroy their corpses.

<sup>4</sup> I will make all the people in all the kingdoms of the world horrified at what has happened to them because of what Hezekiah’s son Manasseh, king of Judah, did in Jerusalem.”

“Who in the world will have pity on you, Jerusalem?
Who will grieve over you?
Who will stop long enough to inquire about how you are doing?

<sup>6</sup> I, the LORD, say: ‘You people have deserted me!
You keep turning your back on me.’
So I have unleashed my power against you and have begun to destroy you.
I have grown tired of feeling sorry for you!”

<sup>7</sup> The LORD continued, |strong="H8179"
“In every town in the land I will purge them like straw blown away by the wind.
I will destroy my people.
I will kill off their children.
I will do so because they did not change their behavior.
<sup>8</sup> Their widows will become in my sight more numerous than the grains of sand on the seashores.
At noontime I will bring a destroyer against the mothers of their young men.
I will cause anguish and terror to fall suddenly upon them.

<sup>9</sup> The mother who had seven children will grow faint.
All the breath will go out of her.
Her pride and joy will be taken from her in the prime of their life.
It will seem as if the sun had set while it was still day.
She will suffer shame and humiliation.
I will cause any of them who are still left alive to be killed in war by the onslaughts of their enemies,”
says the LORD.

Jeremiah Complains about His Lot and The Lord Responds

<sup>10</sup> I said,
“Oh, mother, how I regret that you ever gave birth to me!
I am always starting arguments and quarrels with the people of this land.
I have not lent money to anyone and I have not borrowed from anyone.
Yet all of these people are treating me with contempt.”

<sup>11</sup> The LORD said, “Jerusalem, I will surely send you away for your own good.
I will surely bring the enemy upon you in a time of trouble and distress.

<sup>12</sup> Can you people who are like iron and bronze break that iron fist from the north?

<sup>13</sup> I will give away your wealth and your treasures as plunder.

I will give it away free of charge for the sins you have committed throughout your land.

<sup>14</sup> I will make you serve your enemies in a land that you know nothing about. For my anger is like a fire that will burn against you.”

<sup>15</sup> I said,

“LORD, you know how I suffer.

Take thought of me and care for me.

Pay back for me those who have been persecuting me.

Do not be so patient with them that you allow them to kill me.

Be mindful of how I have put up with their insults for your sake.

<sup>16</sup> As your words came to me I drank them in, and they filled my heart with joy and happiness because I belong to you.

<sup>17</sup> I did not spend my time in the company of other people, laughing and having a good time.

I stayed to myself because I felt obligated to you and because I was filled with anger at what they had done.

<sup>18</sup> Why must I continually suffer such painful anguish?

Why must I endure the sting of their insults like an incurable wound?

Will you let me down when I need you like a brook one goes to for water, but that cannot be relied on?”

<sup>19</sup> Because of this, the LORD said,

“You must repent of such words and thoughts!

If you do, I will restore you to the privilege of serving me.

If you say what is worthwhile instead of what is worthless,

I will again allow you to be my spokesman.

They must become as you have been.

You must not become like them.

<sup>20</sup> I will make you as strong as a wall to these people, a fortified wall of bronze.

They will attack you,

but they will not be able to overcome you.

For I will be with you to rescue you and deliver you,”

says the LORD.

<sup>21</sup> “I will deliver you from the power of the wicked.

I will free you from the clutches of violent people.”

16

<sup>3</sup> For I, the LORD, tell you what will happen to the children who are born here in this land and to the men and women who are their mothers and fathers.

<sup>4</sup> They will die of deadly diseases. No one will mourn for them. They will not be buried. Their dead bodies will lie like manure spread on the ground. They will be killed in war or die of starvation. Their corpses will be food for the birds and wild animals.

<sup>5</sup> “Moreover I, the LORD, tell you: ‘Do not go into a house where they are having a funeral meal. Do not go there to mourn and express your sorrow for them. For I have stopped showing them my good favor, my love, and my compassion. I, the LORD, so affirm it!

<sup>6</sup> Rich and poor alike will die in this land. They will not be buried or mourned. People will not cut their bodies or shave off their hair to show their grief for them.

<sup>7</sup> No one will take any food to those who mourn for the dead to comfort them. No one will give them any wine to drink to console them for the loss of their father or mother.

<sup>8</sup> “Do not go to a house where people are feasting and sit down to eat and drink with them either.

<sup>9</sup> For I, the LORD God of Israel who rules over all, tell you what will happen. I will put an end to the sounds of joy and gladness, to the glad celebration of brides and grooms in this land. You and the rest of the people will live to see this happen.’ ”

The Lord Promises Exile (But Also Restoration)

<sup>10</sup> “When you tell these people about all this, they will undoubtedly ask you, ‘Why has the LORD threatened us with such great disaster? What wrong have we done? What sin have we done to offend the LORD our God?’

<sup>11</sup> Then tell them that the LORD says, ‘It is because your ancestors rejected me and paid allegiance to other gods. They have served them and worshiped them. But they have rejected me and not obeyed my law.

<sup>12</sup> And you have acted even more wickedly than your ancestors! Each one of you has followed the stubborn inclinations of your own wicked heart and not obeyed me.

<sup>13</sup> So I will throw you out of this land into a land that neither you nor your ancestors have ever known. There you must worship other gods day and night, for I will show you no mercy.’ ”

<sup>14</sup> Yet I, the LORD, say: “A new time will certainly come. People now affirm their oaths with ‘I swear as surely as the LORD lives who delivered the people of Israel out of Egypt.’

<sup>15</sup> But in that time they will affirm them with ‘I swear as surely as the LORD lives who delivered the people of Israel from the land of the north and from all the other lands where he had banished them.’ At that time I will bring them back to the land I gave their ancestors.”

<sup>16</sup> But for now I, the LORD, say: “I will send many enemies who will catch these people like fishermen. After that I will send others who will hunt them out like hunters from all the mountains, all the hills, and the crevices in the rocks.

<sup>17</sup> For I see everything they do. Their wicked ways are not hidden from me. Their sin is not hidden away where I cannot see it.

<sup>18</sup> Before I restore them I will punish them in full for their sins and the wrongs they have done. For they have polluted my land with the lifeless statues of their disgusting idols. They have filled the land I have claimed as my own with their detestable idols.”

<sup>19</sup> Then I said,

“LORD, you give me strength and protect me.

You are the one I can run to for safety when I am in trouble.

Nations from all over the earth will come to you and say,

‘Our ancestors had nothing but false gods – worthless idols that could not help them at all.

<sup>20</sup> Can people make their own gods?

No, what they make are not gods at all.”

<sup>21</sup> The LORD said, | strong="H3651"

“So I will now let this wicked people know –

I will let them know my mighty power in judgment.

Then they will know that my name is the LORD.”

17

1

The sin of Judah is engraved with an iron chisel on their stone-hard hearts.

It is inscribed with a diamond point on the horns of their altars.

<sup>2</sup> Their children are always thinking about their altars and their sacred poles dedicated to the goddess Asherah, set up beside the green trees on the high hills

<sup>3</sup> and on the mountains and in the fields.

I will give your wealth and all your treasures away as plunder.

I will give it away as the price for the sins you have committed throughout your land.

<sup>4</sup> You will lose your hold on the land which I gave to you as a permanent possession.

I will make you serve your enemies in a land that you know nothing about.

For you have made my anger burn like a fire that will never be put out.”

Individuals Are Challenged to Put Their Trust in the Lord

<sup>5</sup> The LORD says,

“I will put a curse on people who trust in mere human beings, who depend on mere flesh and blood for their strength, and whose hearts have turned away from the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> They will be like a shrub in the desert.

They will not experience good things even when they happen.

It will be as though they were growing in the desert, in a salt land where no one can live.

<sup>7</sup> My blessing is on those people who trust in me, who put their confidence in me.

<sup>8</sup> They will be like a tree planted near a stream whose roots spread out toward the water.

It has nothing to fear when the heat comes.

Its leaves are always green.

It has no need to be concerned in a year of drought.

It does not stop bearing fruit.

<sup>9</sup> The human mind is more deceitful than anything else.

It is incurably bad. Who can understand it?

<sup>10</sup> I, the LORD, probe into people’s minds.

I examine people’s hearts.

I deal with each person according to how he has behaved.

I give them what they deserve based on what they have done.

<sup>11</sup> The person who gathers wealth by unjust means is like the partridge that broods over eggs but does not hatch them.

Before his life is half over he will lose his ill-gotten gains.

At the end of his life it will be clear he was a fool.”

Jeremiah Appeals to the Lord for Vindication

<sup>12</sup> Then I said,

“LORD, from the very beginning |strong="H7223"

you have been seated on your glorious throne on high.

You are the place where we can find refuge.

<sup>13</sup> You are the one in whom Israel may find hope.

All who leave you will suffer shame.

Those who turn away from you will be consigned to the nether world.

For they have rejected you, the LORD, the fountain of life.

<sup>14</sup> LORD, grant me relief from my suffering

so that I may have some relief.

Rescue me from those who persecute me so that I may be rescued.

<sup>15</sup> Listen to what they are saying to me.

They are saying, "Where are the things the LORD threatens us with?

Come on! Let's see them happen!"

<sup>16</sup> But I have not pestered you to bring disaster.

I have not desired the time of irreparable devastation.

You know that.

You are fully aware of every word that I have spoken.

<sup>17</sup> Do not cause me dismay!

You are my source of safety in times of trouble.

<sup>18</sup> May those who persecute me be disgraced.

Do not let me be disgraced.

May they be dismayed.

Do not let me be dismayed.

Bring days of disaster on them.

Bring on them the destruction they deserve."

Observance of the Sabbath Day Is a Key to the Future

<sup>19</sup> The LORD told me, "Go and stand in the People's Gate through which the kings of Judah enter and leave the city. Then go and stand in all the other gates of the city of Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup> As you stand in those places announce, 'Listen, all you people who pass through these gates. Listen, all you kings of Judah, all you people of Judah and all you citizens of Jerusalem. Listen to what the LORD says.

<sup>21</sup> The LORD says, 'Be very careful if you value your lives! Do not carry any loads in through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day.

<sup>22</sup> Do not carry any loads out of your houses or do any work on the Sabbath day. But observe the Sabbath day as a day set apart to the LORD, as I commanded | strong="H6680" your ancestors.

<sup>23</sup> Your ancestors, however, did not listen to me or pay any attention to me. They stubbornly refused to pay attention or to respond to any discipline.'

<sup>24</sup> The LORD says, 'You must make sure to obey me. You must not bring any loads through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day. You must set the Sabbath day apart to me. You must not do any work on that day.

<sup>25</sup> If you do this, then the kings and princes who follow in David's succession and ride in chariots or on horses will continue to enter through these gates, as well as their officials and the people of Judah and the citizens of Jerusalem. This city will always be filled with people.

<sup>26</sup> Then people will come here from the towns in Judah, from the villages surrounding Jerusalem, from the territory of Benjamin, from the western foothills, from the southern hill country, and from the southern part of Judah. They will come bringing offerings to the temple of the LORD: burnt offerings, sacrifices, grain offerings, and incense along with their thank offerings.

<sup>27</sup> But you must obey me and set the Sabbath day apart to me. You must not carry any loads in through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. If you disobey, I will set the gates of Jerusalem on fire. It will burn down all the fortified dwellings in Jerusalem and no one will be able to put it out.' "

18

<sup>2</sup> “Go down at once to the potter’s house. I will speak to you further there.”

<sup>3</sup> So I went down to the potter’s house and found him working at his wheel.

<sup>4</sup> Now and then there would be something wrong with the pot he was molding from the clay with his hands. So he would rework the clay into another kind of pot as he saw fit.

<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD said to me,

<sup>6</sup> “I, the LORD, say: ‘O nation of Israel, can I not deal with you as this potter deals with the clay? In my hands, you, O nation of Israel, are just like the clay in this potter’s hand.’

<sup>7</sup> There are times, Jeremiah, when I threaten to uproot, tear down, and destroy a nation or kingdom.

<sup>8</sup> But if that nation I threatened stops doing wrong, I will cancel the destruction I intended to do to it.

<sup>9</sup> And there are times when I promise to build up and establish a nation or kingdom.

<sup>10</sup> But if that nation does what displeases me and does not obey me, then I will cancel the good I promised to do to it.

<sup>11</sup> So now, tell the people of Judah and the citizens of Jerusalem this: The LORD says, ‘I am preparing to bring disaster on you! I am making plans to punish you. So, every one of you, stop the evil things you have been doing. Correct the way you have been living and do what is right.’

<sup>12</sup> But they just keep saying, ‘We do not care what you say! We will do whatever we want to do! We will continue to behave wickedly and stubbornly!’ ”

<sup>13</sup> Therefore, the LORD says, “Ask the people of other nations whether they have heard of anything like this.
Israel should have been like a virgin.
But she has done something utterly revolting!

<sup>14</sup> Does the snow ever completely vanish from the rocky slopes of Lebanon?
Do the cool waters from those distant mountains ever cease to flow?

<sup>15</sup> Yet my people have forgotten me and offered sacrifices to worthless idols!
This makes them stumble along in the way they live and leave the old reliable path of their fathers.
They have left them to walk in bypaths, in roads that are not smooth and level.

<sup>16</sup> So their land will become an object of horror.
People will forever hiss out their scorn over it.
All who pass that way will be filled with horror and will shake their heads in derision.

<sup>17</sup> I will scatter them before their enemies like dust blowing in front of a burning east wind.
I will turn my back on them and not look favorably on them when disaster strikes them.”

Jeremiah Petitions the Lord to Punish Those Who Attack Him

<sup>18</sup> Then some people said, “Come on! Let us consider how to deal with Jeremiah! There will still be priests to instruct us, wise men to give us advice, and prophets to declare God’s word. Come on! Let’s bring charges against him and get rid of him! Then we will not need to pay attention to anything he says.”

<sup>19</sup> Then I said, “LORD, pay attention to me.

Listen to what my enemies are saying.

<sup>20</sup> Should good be paid back with evil?

Yet they are virtually digging a pit to kill me.

Just remember how I stood before you pleading on their behalf to keep you from venting your anger on them.

<sup>21</sup> So let their children die of starvation.

Let them be cut down by the sword.

Let their wives lose their husbands and children.

Let the older men die of disease and the younger men die by the sword in battle.

<sup>22</sup> Let cries of terror be heard in their houses when you send bands of raiders unexpectedly to plunder them.

For they have virtually dug a pit to capture me and have hidden traps for me to step into.

<sup>23</sup> But you, LORD, know all their plots to kill me.

Do not pardon their crimes!

Do not ignore their sins as though you had erased them!

Let them be brought down in defeat before you!

Deal with them while you are still angry!

19

<sup>2</sup> Go out to the part of the Hinnom Valley which is near the entrance of the Potsherd Gate. Announce there what I tell you.

<sup>3</sup> Say, 'Listen to what the LORD says, you kings of Judah and citizens of Jerusalem! The LORD God of Israel who rules over all says, "I will bring a disaster on this place that will make the ears of everyone who hears about it ring!"

<sup>4</sup> I will do so because these people have rejected me and have defiled this place. They have offered sacrifices in it to other gods which neither they nor their ancestors nor the kings of Judah knew anything about. They have filled it with the blood of innocent children.

<sup>5</sup> They have built places here for worship of the god Baal so that they could sacrifice their children as burnt offerings to him in the fire. Such sacrifices are something I never commanded them to make! They are something I never told them to do! Indeed, such a thing never even entered my mind!

<sup>6</sup> So I, the LORD, say: "The time will soon come that people will no longer call this place Topheth or the Hinnom Valley. But they will call this valley the Valley of Slaughter!"

<sup>7</sup> In this place I will thwart the plans of the people of Judah and Jerusalem. I will deliver them over to the power of their enemies who are seeking to kill them. They will die by the sword at the hands of their enemies. I will make their dead bodies food for the birds and wild beasts to eat.

<sup>8</sup> I will make this city an object of horror, a thing to be hissed at. All who pass by it will be filled with horror and will hiss out their scorn because of all the disasters that have happened to it.

<sup>9</sup> I will reduce the people of this city to desperate straits during the siege imposed on it by their enemies who are seeking to kill them. I will make them so desperate that they will eat the flesh of their own sons and daughters and the flesh of one another." ' "

<sup>11</sup> Tell them the LORD who rules over all says, ‘I will do just as Jeremiah has done. I will smash this nation and this city as though it were a potter’s vessel which is broken beyond repair. The dead will be buried here in Topheth until there is no more room to bury them.’

<sup>12</sup> I, the LORD, say: ‘That is how I will deal with this city and its citizens. I will make it like Topheth.

<sup>13</sup> The houses in Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah will be defiled by dead bodies just like this place, Topheth. For they offered sacrifice to the stars and poured out drink offerings to other gods on the roofs of those houses.’ ”

<sup>14</sup> Then Jeremiah left Topheth where the LORD had sent him to give that prophecy. He went to the LORD’s temple and stood in its courtyard and called out to all the people.

<sup>15</sup> “The LORD God of Israel who rules over all says, ‘I will soon bring on this city and all the towns surrounding it all the disaster I threatened to do to it. I will do so because they have stubbornly refused to pay any attention to what I have said!’ ”

20

<sup>1</sup> Now Pashhur son of Immer heard Jeremiah prophesy these things. He was the priest who was chief of security in the LORD’s temple.

<sup>2</sup> When he heard Jeremiah’s prophecy, he had the prophet flogged. Then he put him in the stocks which were at the Upper Gate of Benjamin in the LORD’s temple.

<sup>3</sup> But the next day Pashhur released Jeremiah from the stocks. When he did, Jeremiah said to him, “The LORD’s name for you is not ‘Pashhur’ but ‘Terror is Everywhere.’

<sup>4</sup> For the LORD says, ‘I will make both you and your friends terrified of what will happen to you. You will see all of them die by the swords of their enemies. I will hand all the people of Judah over to the king of Babylon. He will carry some of them away into exile in Babylon and he will kill others of them with the sword.

<sup>5</sup> I will hand over all the wealth of this city to their enemies. I will hand over to them all the fruits of the labor of the people of this city and all their prized possessions, as well as all the treasures of the kings of Judah. Their enemies will seize it all as plunder and carry it off to Babylon.

<sup>6</sup> You, Pashhur, and all your household will go into exile in Babylon. You will die there and you will be buried there. The same thing will happen to all your friends to whom you have prophesied lies.’ ”

Jeremiah Complains about the Reaction to His Ministry

<sup>7</sup> LORD, you coerced me into being a prophet, and I allowed you to do it.
You overcame my resistance and prevailed over me.
Now I have become a constant laughingstock.
Everyone ridicules me.

<sup>8</sup> For whenever I prophesy, I must cry out, “Violence and destruction are coming!”
This message from the LORD has made me an object of continual insults and derision.

<sup>9</sup> Sometimes I think, “I will make no mention of his message.
I will not speak as his messenger any more.”
But then his message becomes like a fire locked up inside of me, burning in my heart and soul.
I grow weary of trying to hold it in;

I cannot contain it.

<sup>10</sup> I hear many whispering words of intrigue against me.

Those who would cause me terror are everywhere!

They are saying, "Come on, let's publicly denounce him!"

All my so-called friends are just watching for something that would lead to my downfall.

They say, "Perhaps he can be enticed into slipping up, so we can prevail over him and get our revenge on him."

<sup>11</sup> But the LORD is with me to help me like an awe-inspiring warrior.

Therefore those who persecute me will fail and will not prevail over me.

They will be thoroughly disgraced because they did not succeed.

Their disgrace will never be forgotten.

<sup>12</sup> O LORD who rules over all, you test and prove the righteous.

You see into people's hearts and minds.

Pay them back for what they have done because I trust you to vindicate my cause.

<sup>13</sup> Sing to the LORD! Praise the LORD!

For he rescues the oppressed from the clutches of evildoers.

<sup>14</sup> Cursed be the day I was born!

May that day not be blessed when my mother gave birth to me.

<sup>15</sup> Cursed be the man who made my father very glad when he brought him the news that a baby boy had been born to him!

<sup>16</sup> May that man be like the cities that the LORD destroyed without showing any mercy.

May he hear a cry of distress in the morning and a battle cry at noon.

<sup>17</sup> For he did not kill me before I came from the womb, making my pregnant mother's womb my grave forever.

<sup>18</sup> Why did I ever come forth from my mother's womb?

All I experience is trouble and grief, and I spend my days in shame.

21

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Jeremiah when King Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur son of Malkijah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah. Zedekiah sent them to Jeremiah to ask,

<sup>2</sup> "Please ask the LORD to come and help us, because King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon is attacking us. Maybe the LORD will perform one of his miracles as in times past and make him stop attacking us and leave."

<sup>4</sup> that the LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'The forces at your disposal are now outside the walls fighting against King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and the Babylonians who have you under siege. I will gather those forces back inside the city.'

<sup>5</sup> In anger, in fury, and in wrath I myself will fight against you with my mighty power and great strength!

<sup>6</sup> I will kill everything living in Jerusalem, people and animals alike! They will die from terrible diseases.

<sup>7</sup> Then I, the LORD, promise that I will hand over King Zedekiah of Judah, his officials, and any of the people who survive the war, starvation, and disease. I will hand them over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and to their enemies who want to kill them. He will slaughter them with the sword. He will not show them any mercy, compassion, or pity.'

<sup>8</sup> "But tell the people of Jerusalem that the LORD says, 'I will give you a choice between two courses of action. One will result in life; the other will result in death.'

<sup>9</sup> Those who stay in this city will die in battle or of starvation or disease. Those who leave the city and surrender to the Babylonians who are besieging it will live. They will escape with their lives.

<sup>10</sup> For I, the LORD, say that I am determined not to deliver this city but to bring disaster on it. It will be handed over to the king of Babylon and he will destroy it with fire.' "

Warnings to the Royal Court

<sup>11</sup> The LORD told | strong="H1004" me to say to the royal court of Judah, "Listen to what the LORD says,

The LORD says:

'See to it that people each day are judged fairly.

Deliver those who have been robbed from those who oppress them.

Otherwise, my wrath will blaze out against you.

It will burn like a fire that cannot be put out because of the evil that you have done.

<sup>13</sup> Listen, you who sit enthroned above the valley on a rocky plateau.

I am opposed to you,' says the LORD.

'You boast, "No one can swoop down on us.

No one can penetrate into our places of refuge."

<sup>14</sup> But I will punish you as your deeds deserve,'

says the LORD.

'I will set fire to your palace;

it will burn up everything around it.' "

22

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told me, "Go down to the palace of the king of Judah. Give him a message from me there.

<sup>2</sup> Say: 'Listen, O king of Judah who follows in David's succession. You, your officials, and your subjects who pass through the gates of this palace must listen to what the LORD says.

<sup>3</sup> The LORD says, "Do what is just and right. Deliver those who have been robbed from those who oppress them. Do not exploit or mistreat foreigners who live in your land, children who have no fathers, or widows. Do not kill innocent people in this land.

<sup>4</sup> If you are careful to obey these commands, then the kings who follow in David's succession and ride in chariots or on horses will continue to come through the gates of this palace, as will their officials and their subjects.

<sup>5</sup> But, if you do not obey these commands, I solemnly swear that this palace will become a pile of rubble. I, the LORD, affirm it!"

<sup>6</sup> "For the LORD says concerning the palace of the king of Judah,

"This place looks like a veritable forest of Gilead to me.

It is like the wooded heights of Lebanon in my eyes.

But I swear that I will make it like a wilderness whose towns have all been deserted.

<sup>7</sup> I will send men against it to destroy it with their axes and hatchets.

They will hack up its fine cedar panels and columns and throw them into the fire.

<sup>8</sup> “People from other nations will pass by this city. They will ask one another, “Why has the LORD done such a thing to this great city?”

<sup>9</sup> The answer will come back, “It is because they broke their covenant with the LORD their God and worshiped and served other gods.”

Judgment on Jehoahaz

<sup>10</sup> “Do not weep for the king who was killed.

Do not grieve for him.

But weep mournfully for the king who has gone into exile.

For he will never return to see his native land again.

<sup>11</sup> “For the LORD has spoken about Shallum son of Josiah, who succeeded his father as king of Judah but was carried off into exile. He has said, “He will never return to this land.

<sup>12</sup> For he will die in the country where they took him as a captive. He will never see this land again.”

Judgment on Jehoiakim

<sup>13</sup> “Sure to be judged is the king who builds his palace using injustice and treats people unfairly while adding its upper rooms.

He makes his countrymen work for him for nothing.

He does not pay them for their labor.

<sup>14</sup> He says, “I will build myself a large palace with spacious upper rooms.”

He cuts windows in its walls, panels it with cedar, and paints its rooms red.

<sup>15</sup> Does it make you any more of a king that you outstrip everyone else in building with cedar?
Just think about your father.

He was content that he had food and drink.

He did what was just and right.

So things went well with him.

<sup>16</sup> He upheld the cause of the poor and needy.

So things went well for Judah.’

The LORD says,

‘That is a good example of what it means to know me.’

<sup>17</sup> But you are always thinking and looking for ways to increase your wealth by dishonest means.

Your eyes and your heart are set on killing some innocent person and committing fraud and oppression.

<sup>18</sup> So the LORD has this to say about Josiah’s son, King Jehoiakim of Judah:

People will not mourn for him, saying,

“This makes me sad, my brother!

This makes me sad, my sister!”

They will not mourn for him, saying,

“Poor, poor lord! Poor, poor majesty!”

<sup>19</sup> He will be left unburied just like a dead donkey.

His body will be dragged off and thrown outside the gates of Jerusalem.’ ”

Warning to Jerusalem

<sup>20</sup> People of Jerusalem, go up to Lebanon and cry out in mourning.

Go to the land of Bashan and cry out loudly.
Cry out in mourning from the mountains of Moab.
For your allies have all been defeated.

But you said, "I refuse to listen to you."

That is the way you have acted from your earliest history onward.

Indeed, you have never paid attention to me.

<sup>22</sup> My judgment will carry off all your leaders like a storm wind!

Your allies will go into captivity.

Then you will certainly be disgraced and put to shame because of all the wickedness you have done.

<sup>23</sup> You may feel as secure as a bird nesting in the cedars of Lebanon.

But oh how you will groan when the pains of judgment come on you.
They will be like those of a woman giving birth to a baby.

Jeconiah Will Be Permanently Exiled

<sup>24</sup> The LORD says,

"As surely as I am the living God, you, Jeconiah, king of Judah, son of Jehoiakim, will not be the earthly representative of my authority. Indeed, I will take that right away from you.

<sup>25</sup> I will hand you over to those who want to take your life and of whom you are afraid.
I will hand you over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and his Babylonian soldiers.

<sup>26</sup> I will force you and your mother who gave you birth into exile. You will be exiled to a country where neither of you were born, and you will both die there.

<sup>27</sup> You will never come back to this land to which you will long to return!"

<sup>28</sup> This man, Jeconiah, will be like a broken pot someone threw away.

He will be like a clay vessel that no one wants.

Why will he and his children be forced into exile?

Why will they be thrown out into a country they know nothing about?

<sup>29</sup> O land of Judah, land of Judah, land of Judah!

Listen to what the LORD | strong="H3069" has to say!

<sup>30</sup> The LORD says,

"Enroll this man in the register as though he were childless.

Enroll him as a man who will not enjoy success during his lifetime.

For none of his sons will succeed in occupying the throne of David or ever succeed in ruling over Judah."

23

<sup>1</sup> The LORD says, "The leaders of my people are sure to be judged. They were supposed to watch over my people like shepherds watch over their sheep. But they are causing my people to be destroyed and scattered.

<sup>2</sup> So the LORD God of Israel has this to say about the leaders who are ruling over his people: "You have caused my people to be dispersed and driven into exile. You have not taken care of them. So I will punish you for the evil that you have done. I, the LORD, affirm it!

<sup>3</sup> Then I myself will regather those of my people who are still alive from all the countries where I have driven them. I will bring them back to their homeland. They will greatly increase in number.

<sup>4</sup> I will install rulers over them who will care for them. Then they will no longer need to fear or be terrified. None of them will turn up missing. I, the LORD, promise it!

<sup>5</sup> “I, the LORD, promise that a new time will certainly come when I will raise up for them a righteous branch, a descendant of David. He will rule over them with wisdom and understanding and will do what is just and right in the land.

<sup>6</sup> Under his rule Judah will enjoy safety and Israel will live in security. This is the name he will go by: ‘The LORD has provided us with justice.’

<sup>7</sup> “So I, the LORD, say: ‘A new time will certainly come. People now affirm their oaths with “I swear as surely as the LORD lives who delivered the people of Israel out of Egypt.”

<sup>8</sup> But at that time they will affirm them with “I swear as surely as the LORD lives who delivered the descendants of the former nation of Israel from the land of the north and from all the other lands where he had banished them.” At that time they will live in their own land.’ ”

Oracles Against the False Prophets

<sup>9</sup> Here is what the LORD says concerning the false prophets | strong="H5030": My heart and my mind are deeply disturbed. I tremble all over.

I am like a drunk person, like a person who has had too much wine, because of the way the LORD and his holy word are being mistreated.

<sup>10</sup> For the land is full of people unfaithful to him. They live wicked lives and they misuse their power. So the land is dried up because it is under his curse. The pastures in the wilderness are withered.

<sup>11</sup> Moreover, the LORD says, “Both the prophets and priests are godless. I have even found them doing evil in my temple!

<sup>12</sup> So the paths they follow will be dark and slippery. They will stumble and fall headlong. For I will bring disaster on them. A day of reckoning is coming for them.”

The LORD | strong="H3069" affirms it!

<sup>13</sup> The LORD says, “I saw | strong="H7200" the prophets of Samaria doing something that was disgusting. They prophesied in the name of the god Baal and led my people Israel astray.

<sup>14</sup> But I see the prophets of Jerusalem doing something just as shocking. They are unfaithful to me and continually prophesy lies.

So they give encouragement to people who are doing evil, with the result that they do not stop their evildoing. I consider all of them as bad as the people of Sodom, and the citizens of Jerusalem as bad as the people of Gomorrah.

<sup>15</sup> So then I, the LORD who rules over all, have something to say concerning the prophets of Jerusalem: ‘I will make these prophets eat the bitter food of suffering and drink the poison water of judgment.

For the prophets of Jerusalem are the reason that ungodliness has spread throughout the land.' ”

<sup>16</sup> The LORD who rules over all says to the people of Jerusalem:

“Do not listen to what those prophets are saying to you.

They are filling you with false hopes.

They are reporting visions of their own imaginations, not something the LORD has given them to say.

<sup>17</sup> They continually say to those who reject what the LORD has said,

‘Things will go well for you!’

They say to all those who follow the stubborn inclinations of their own hearts,

‘Nothing bad will happen to you!’

<sup>18</sup> Yet which of them has ever stood in the LORD’s inner circle so they could see and hear what he has to say?

Which of them have ever paid attention or listened to what he has said?

<sup>19</sup> But just watch! The wrath of the LORD will come like a storm!

Like a raging storm it will rage down
on the heads of those who are wicked.

<sup>20</sup> The anger of the LORD will not turn back until he has fully carried out his intended purposes.

In days to come

you people will come to understand this clearly.

<sup>21</sup> I did not send those prophets.

Yet they were in a hurry to give their message.

I did not tell them anything.

Yet they prophesied anyway.

<sup>22</sup> But if they had stood in my inner circle, they would have proclaimed my message to my people.

They would have caused my people to turn from their wicked ways and stop doing the evil things they are doing.

<sup>23</sup> Do you people think that I am some local deity and not the transcendent God?”

the LORD asks.

<sup>24</sup> “Do you really think anyone can hide himself where I cannot see him?” the LORD asks.

“Do you not know that I am everywhere?”

the LORD asks.

<sup>25</sup> The LORD says, “I have heard| strong="H8085" what those prophets who are prophesying lies in my name are saying. They are saying, ‘I have had a dream! I have had a dream!’

<sup>26</sup> Those prophets are just prophesying lies. They are prophesying the delusions of their own minds.

<sup>27</sup> How long will they go on plotting to make my people forget who I am through the dreams they tell one another? That is just as bad as what their ancestors did when they forgot who I am by worshiping the god Baal.

<sup>28</sup> Let the prophet who has had a dream go ahead and tell his dream. Let the person who has received my message report that message faithfully. What is like straw cannot compare to what is like grain! I, the LORD, affirm it!

<sup>29</sup> My message is like a fire that purges dross! It is like a hammer that breaks a rock in pieces! I, the LORD, so affirm it!

<sup>30</sup> So I, the LORD, affirm that I am opposed to those prophets who steal messages from one another that they claim are from me.

<sup>31</sup> I, the LORD, affirm that I am opposed to those prophets who are using their own tongues to declare, 'The LORD declares | strong="H5002" ....'

<sup>32</sup> I, the LORD, affirm that I am opposed to those prophets who dream up lies and report them. They are misleading my people with their reckless lies. I did not send them. I did not commission them. They are not helping these people at all. I, the LORD, affirm it!"

<sup>33</sup> The LORD said to me, "Jeremiah, when one of these people, or a prophet, or a priest asks you, 'What burdensome message do you have from the LORD?' Tell them, 'You are the burden, and I will cast you away. I, the LORD, affirm it!

<sup>34</sup> I will punish any prophet, priest, or other person who says "The LORD's message is burdensome." I will punish both that person and his whole family.' "

<sup>35</sup> So I, Jeremiah, tell you, "Each of you people should say to his friend or his relative, 'How did the LORD answer? Or what did the LORD say?'

<sup>36</sup> You must no longer say that the LORD's message is burdensome. For what is 'burdensome' really pertains to what a person himself says. You are misrepresenting the words of our God, the living God, the LORD who rules over all.

<sup>37</sup> Each of you should merely ask the prophet, 'What answer did the LORD give you? Or what did the LORD say?'

<sup>38</sup> But just suppose you continue to say, 'The message of the LORD is burdensome.' Here is what the LORD says will happen: 'I sent word to you that you must not say, "The LORD's message is burdensome." But you used the words "The LORD's message is burdensome" anyway.

<sup>39</sup> So I will carry you far off and throw you away. I will send both you and the city I gave to you and to your ancestors out of my sight.

<sup>40</sup> I will bring on you lasting shame and lasting disgrace which will never be forgotten!' "

24

<sup>1</sup> The LORD showed me two baskets of figs sitting before his temple. This happened after King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon deported Jehoiakim's son, King Jeconiah of Judah. He deported him and the leaders of Judah, along with the craftsmen and metal workers, and took them to Babylon.

<sup>2</sup> One basket had very good-looking figs in it. They looked like those that had ripened early. The other basket had very bad-looking figs in it, so bad they could not be eaten.

<sup>3</sup> The LORD said to me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?" I answered, "I see figs. The good ones look very good. But the bad ones look very bad, so bad that they cannot be eaten."

<sup>4</sup> The LORD said to me,

<sup>5</sup> "I, the LORD, the God of Israel, say: 'The exiles whom I sent away from here to the land of Babylon are like those good figs. I consider them to be good.

<sup>6</sup> I will look after their welfare and will restore them to this land. There I will build them up and will not tear them down. I will plant them firmly in the land and will not uproot them.

<sup>7</sup> I will give them the desire to acknowledge that I am the LORD. I will be their God and they will be my people. For they will wholeheartedly return to me.'

<sup>8</sup> "I, the LORD, also solemnly assert: 'King Zedekiah of Judah, his officials, and the people who remain in Jerusalem or who have gone to live in Egypt are like those bad figs. I consider them to be just like those bad figs that are so bad they cannot be eaten.

<sup>9</sup> I will bring such disaster on them that all the kingdoms of the earth will be horrified. I will make them an object of reproach, a proverbial example of disaster. I will make them an object of ridicule, an example to be used in curses. That is how they will be remembered wherever I banish them.

<sup>10</sup> I will bring war, starvation, and disease on them until they are completely destroyed from the land I gave them and their ancestors.' ”

25

<sup>1</sup> In the fourth year that Jehoiakim son of Josiah was king of Judah, the LORD spoke to Jeremiah | strong="H3414" concerning all the people of Judah. (That was the same as the first year that Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylon.)

<sup>2</sup> So the prophet Jeremiah spoke to all the people of Judah and to all the people who were living in Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> “For the last twenty-three years, from the thirteenth year that Josiah son of Amon was ruling in Judah until now, the LORD has been speaking to me. I told you over and over again what he said. But you would not listen.

<sup>4</sup> Over and over again the LORD has sent his servants the prophets to you. But you have not listened or paid attention.

<sup>5</sup> He said through them, ‘Each of you must turn from your wicked ways and stop doing the evil things you are doing. If you do, I will allow you to continue to live here in the land that I gave to you and your ancestors as a lasting possession.

<sup>6</sup> Do not pay allegiance to other gods and worship and serve them. Do not make me angry by the things that you do. Then I will not cause you any harm.’

<sup>7</sup> So, now the LORD says, ‘You have not listened to me. But you have made me angry by the things that you have done. Thus you have brought harm on yourselves.’

<sup>8</sup> “Therefore, the LORD who rules over all says, ‘You have not listened to what I said.

<sup>9</sup> So I, the LORD, affirm that I will send for all the peoples of the north and my servant, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. I will bring them against this land and its inhabitants and all the nations that surround it. I will utterly destroy this land, its inhabitants, and all the nations that surround it and make them everlasting ruins. I will make them objects of horror and hissing scorn.

<sup>10</sup> I will put an end to the sounds of joy and gladness, to the glad celebration of brides and grooms in these lands. I will put an end to the sound of people grinding meal. I will put an end to lamps shining in their houses.

<sup>11</sup> This whole area will become a desolate wasteland. These nations will be subject to the king of Babylon for seventy years.’

<sup>12</sup> “‘But when the seventy years are over, I will punish the king of Babylon and his nation for their sins. I will make the land of Babylon an everlasting ruin. I, the LORD, affirm it!

<sup>13</sup> I will bring on that land everything that I said I would. I will bring on it everything that is written in this book. I will bring on it everything that Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations.

<sup>14</sup> For many nations and great kings will make slaves of the king of Babylon and his nation too. I will repay them for all they have done!’ ”

Judah and the Nations Will Experience God's Wrath

<sup>15</sup> So the LORD, the God of Israel, spoke to me in a vision. “Take this cup from my hand. It is filled with the wine of my wrath. Take it and make the nations to whom I send you drink it.

<sup>16</sup> When they have drunk it, they will stagger to and fro and act insane. For I will send wars sweeping through them.”

<sup>17</sup> So I took the cup from the LORD's hand. I made all the nations to whom he sent me drink the wine of his wrath.

<sup>18</sup> I made Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, its kings and its officials drink it. I did it so Judah would become a ruin. I did it so Judah, its kings, and its officials would become an object of horror and of hissing scorn, an example used in curses. Such is already becoming the case!

<sup>20</sup> the foreigners living in Egypt; all the kings of the land of Uz; all the kings of the land of the Philistines, the people of Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, the people who had been left alive from Ashdod;

<sup>23</sup> the people of Dedan, Tema, Buz, all the desert people who cut their hair short at the temples;

<sup>26</sup> all the kings of the north, whether near or far from one another; and all the other kingdoms which are on the face of the earth. After all of them have drunk the wine of the LORD's wrath | strong="H0127", the king of Babylon must drink it.

<sup>27</sup> Then the LORD said | strong="H0559" to me, "Tell them that the LORD God of Israel who rules over all says, 'Drink this cup until you get drunk and vomit. Drink until you fall down and can't get up. For I will send wars sweeping through you.'

<sup>28</sup> If they refuse to take the cup from your hand and drink it, tell them that the LORD who rules over all says 'You most certainly must drink it!

<sup>29</sup> For take note, I am already beginning to bring disaster on the city that I call my own. So how can you possibly avoid being punished? You will not go unpunished! For I am proclaiming war against all who live on the earth. I, the LORD who rules over all, affirm it!

<sup>30</sup> "Then, Jeremiah, make the following prophecy against them:
'Like a lion about to attack, the LORD will roar from the heights of heaven;
from his holy dwelling on high he will roar loudly.
He will roar mightily against his land.
He will shout in triumph like those stomping juice from the grapes against all those who live on the earth.

<sup>31</sup> The sounds of battle will resound to the ends of the earth.
For the LORD will bring charges against the nations.
He will pass judgment on all humankind and will hand the wicked over to be killed in war.'
The LORD so affirms it!

<sup>32</sup> The LORD who rules over all says,
'Disaster will soon come on one nation after another.
A mighty storm of military destruction is rising up from the distant parts of the earth.'

<sup>33</sup> Those who have been killed by the LORD at that time will be scattered from one end of the earth to the other.
They will not be mourned over, gathered up, or buried.
Their dead bodies will lie scattered over the ground like manure.

<sup>34</sup> Wail and cry out in anguish, you rulers!
Roll in the dust, you who shepherd flocks of people!
The time for you to be slaughtered has come.
You will lie scattered and fallen like broken pieces of fine pottery.
<sup>35</sup> The leaders will not be able to run away and hide.

The shepherds of the flocks will not be able to escape.

Listen to the wails of the shepherds of the flocks.

They are wailing because the LORD is about to destroy their lands.

<sup>37</sup> Their peaceful dwelling places will be laid waste by the fierce anger of the LORD.

<sup>38</sup> The LORD is like a lion | strong="H3715" who has left his lair.
So their lands will certainly be laid waste by the warfare of the oppressive nation and by the fierce anger of the LORD."

26

<sup>2</sup> The LORD said, "Go stand in the courtyard of the LORD's temple. Speak out to all the people who are coming from the towns of Judah to worship in the LORD's temple. Tell them everything I command you to tell them. Do not leave out a single word!

<sup>3</sup> Maybe they will pay attention and each of them will stop living the evil way they do. If they do that, then I will forgo destroying them as I had intended to do because of the wicked things they have been doing.

<sup>4</sup> Tell them that the LORD says, 'You must obey me! You must live according to the way I have instructed you in my laws.

<sup>5</sup> You must pay attention to the exhortations of my servants the prophets. I have sent them to you over and over again. But you have not paid any attention to them.

<sup>6</sup> If you do not obey me, then I will do to this temple what I did to Shiloh. And I will make this city an example to be used in curses by people from all the nations on the earth.' "

<sup>8</sup> Jeremiah had just barely finished saying all the LORD had commanded him to say to all the people. All at once some of the priests, the prophets, and the people grabbed him and shouted, "You deserve to die!

<sup>9</sup> How dare you claim the LORD's authority to prophesy such things! How dare you claim his authority to prophesy that this temple will become like Shiloh and that this city will become an uninhabited ruin!" Then all the people crowded around Jeremiah.

<sup>10</sup> However, some of the officials of Judah heard about what was happening and they rushed up to the LORD's temple from the royal palace. They set up court at the entrance of the New Gate of the LORD's temple.

<sup>11</sup> Then the priests and the prophets made their charges before the officials and all the people. They said, "This man should be condemned to die because he prophesied against this city. You have heard him do so with your own ears."

<sup>12</sup> Then Jeremiah made his defense before all the officials and all the people. "The LORD sent me to prophesy everything you have heard me say against this temple and against this city.

<sup>13</sup> But correct the way you have been living and do what is right. Obey the LORD your God. If you do, the LORD will forgo destroying you as he threatened he would.

<sup>14</sup> As to my case, I am in your power. Do to me what you deem fair and proper.

<sup>15</sup> But you should take careful note of this: If you put me to death, you will bring on yourselves and this city and those who live in it the guilt of murdering an innocent man. For the LORD has sent me to speak all this where you can hear it. That is the truth!"

<sup>16</sup> Then the officials and all the people rendered their verdict to the priests and the prophets. They said, "This man should not be condemned to die. For he has spoken to us under the authority of the LORD | strong="H3069" our God."

<sup>17</sup> Then some of the elders of Judah stepped forward and spoke to all the people gathered there. They said, <sup>18</sup> "Micah from Moresheth prophesied during the time Hezekiah was king of Judah. He told all the people of Judah,

"The LORD who rules over all says,

"Zion will become a plowed field.

Jerusalem will become a pile of rubble.

The temple mount will become a mere wooded ridge." '

<sup>19</sup> King Hezekiah and all the people of Judah did not put him to death, did they? Did not Hezekiah show reverence for the LORD and seek the LORD's favor? Did not the LORD forgo destroying them as he threatened he would? But we are on the verge of bringing great disaster on ourselves."

<sup>20</sup> Now there was another man who prophesied as the LORD's representative against this city and this land just as Jeremiah did. His name was Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath Jearim.

<sup>21</sup> When the king and all his bodyguards and officials heard what he was prophesying, the king sought to have him executed. But Uriah found out about it and fled to Egypt out of fear.

<sup>23</sup> and they brought Uriah back from there. They took him to King Jehoiakim, who had him executed and had his body thrown into the burial place of the common people.

<sup>24</sup> However, Ahikam son of Shaphan used his influence to keep Jeremiah from being handed over and executed by the people.

27

<sup>3</sup> Use it to send messages to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre, to King Zedekiah of Judah.

<sup>4</sup> Charge them to give their masters a message from me. Tell them, 'The LORD God of Israel who rules over all says to give your masters this message.

<sup>5</sup> "I made the earth and the people and animals on it by my mighty power and great strength, and I give it to whomever I see fit.

<sup>6</sup> I have at this time placed all these nations of yours under the power of my servant, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. I have even made all the wild animals subject to him.

<sup>7</sup> All nations must serve him and his son and grandson until the time comes for his own nation to fall. Then many nations and great kings will in turn subjugate Babylon.

<sup>8</sup> But suppose a nation or a kingdom will not be subject to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. Suppose it will not submit to the yoke of servitude to him. I, the LORD, affirm that I will punish that nation. I will use the king of Babylon to punish it with war, starvation, and disease until I have destroyed it.

<sup>9</sup> So do not listen to your prophets or to those who claim to predict the future by divination, by dreams, by consulting the dead, or by practicing magic. They keep telling you, 'You do not need to be subject to the king of Babylon.'

<sup>10</sup> Do not listen to them, because their prophecies are lies. Listening to them will only cause you to be taken far away from your native land. I will drive you out of your country and you will die in exile.

<sup>11</sup> Things will go better for the nation that submits to the yoke of servitude to the king of Babylon and is subject to him. I will leave that nation in its native land. Its people can continue to farm it and live in it. I, the LORD, affirm it!" ' "

<sup>12</sup> I told King Zedekiah of Judah the same thing. I said, "Submit to the yoke of servitude to the king of Babylon. Be subject to him and his people. Then you will continue to live.

<sup>13</sup> There is no reason why you and your people should die in war or from starvation or disease! That's what the LORD says will happen to any nation that will not be subject to the king of Babylon.

<sup>14</sup> Do not listen to the prophets who are telling you that you do not need to serve the king of Babylon. For they are prophesying lies to you.

<sup>15</sup> For I, the LORD, affirm that I did not send them. They are prophesying lies to you. If you listen to them, I will drive you and the prophets who are prophesying lies out of the land and you will all die in exile."

<sup>16</sup> I also told the priests and all the people, "The LORD says, 'Do not listen to what your prophets are saying. They are prophesying to you that the valuable articles taken from the LORD's temple will be brought back from Babylon very soon. But they are prophesying a lie to you.

<sup>17</sup> Do not listen to them. Be subject to the king of Babylon. Then you will continue to live. Why should this city be made a pile of rubble?" "

<sup>18</sup> I also told them, "If they are really prophets and the LORD is speaking to them, let them pray earnestly to the LORD who rules over all. Let them plead with him not to let the valuable articles that are still left in the LORD's temple, in the royal palace, and in Jerusalem be taken away to Babylon.

<sup>19</sup> For the LORD who rules over all has already spoken about the two bronze pillars, the large bronze basin called 'The Sea,' and the movable bronze stands. He has already spoken about the rest of the valuable articles that are left in this city.

<sup>20</sup> He has already spoken about these things that King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon did not take away when he carried Jehoiakim's son King Jeconiah of Judah and the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem away as captives.

<sup>21</sup> Indeed, the LORD God of Israel who rules over all has already spoken about the valuable articles that are left in the LORD's temple, in the royal palace of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

<sup>22</sup> He has said, 'They will be carried off to Babylon. They will remain there until it is time for me to show consideration for them again. Then I will bring them back and restore them to this place.' I, the LORD, affirm this!"

28

<sup>1</sup> The following events occurred in that same year, early in the reign of King Zedekiah of Judah. To be more precise, it was the fifth month of the fourth year of his reign. The prophet Hananiah son of Azzur, who was from Gibeon, spoke to Jeremiah in the LORD's temple in the presence of the priests and all the people.

<sup>2</sup> "The LORD God of Israel who rules over all says, 'I will break the yoke of servitude to the king of Babylon.

<sup>3</sup> Before two years are over, I will bring back to this place everything that King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon took from it and carried away to Babylon.

<sup>4</sup> I will also bring back to this place Jehoiakim's son King Jeconiah of Judah and all the exiles who were taken to Babylon.' Indeed, the LORD affirms, 'I will break the yoke of servitude to the king of Babylon.'

<sup>5</sup> Then the prophet Jeremiah responded to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the LORD's temple.

<sup>6</sup> The prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen! May the LORD do all this! May the LORD make your prophecy come true! May he bring back to this place from Babylon all the valuable articles taken from the LORD's temple and the people who were carried into exile.

<sup>7</sup> But listen to what I say to you and to all these people.

<sup>8</sup> From earliest times, the prophets who preceded you and me invariably prophesied war, disaster, and plagues against many countries and great kingdoms.

<sup>9</sup> So if a prophet prophesied peace and prosperity, it was only known that the LORD truly sent him when what he prophesied came true."

<sup>11</sup> Then he spoke up in the presence of all the people. "The LORD says, 'In the same way I will break the yoke of servitude of all the nations to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon before two years are over.' " After he heard this, the prophet Jeremiah departed and went on his way.

<sup>12</sup> But shortly after the prophet Hananiah had broken the yoke off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, the LORD spoke to Jeremiah.

<sup>13</sup> "Go and tell Hananiah that the LORD says, 'You have indeed broken the wooden yoke. But you have only succeeded in replacing it with an iron one!

<sup>14</sup> For the LORD God of Israel who rules over all says, "I have put an irresistible yoke of servitude on all these nations so they will serve King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. And they will indeed serve him. I have even given him control over the wild animals." "

<sup>15</sup> Then the prophet Jeremiah told the prophet Hananiah, "Listen, Hananiah! The LORD did not send you! You are making these people trust in a lie!

<sup>16</sup> So the LORD says, 'I will most assuredly remove you from the face of the earth. You will die this very year because you have counseled rebellion against the LORD.' "

<sup>17</sup> In the seventh month of that very same year the prophet Hananiah died.

29

<sup>1</sup> The prophet Jeremiah sent a letter to the exiles Nebuchadnezzar had carried off from Jerusalem to Babylon. It was addressed to the elders who were left among the exiles, to the priests, to the prophets, and to all the other people who were exiled in Babylon.

<sup>2</sup> He sent it after King Jeconiah, the queen mother, the palace officials, the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the metal workers had been exiled from Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> He sent it with Elasah son of Shaphan and Gemariah son of Hilkiah. King Zedekiah of Judah had sent these men to Babylon to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. The letter said:

<sup>4</sup> "The LORD God of Israel who rules over all says to all those he sent into exile to Babylon from Jerusalem,

<sup>6</sup> Marry and have sons and daughters. Find wives for your sons and allow your daughters get married so that they too can have sons and daughters. Grow in number; do not dwindle away.

<sup>7</sup> Work to see that the city where I sent you as exiles enjoys peace and prosperity. Pray to the LORD for it. For as it prospers you will prosper.'

<sup>8</sup> "For the LORD God of Israel who rules over all says, 'Do not let the prophets or those among you who claim to be able to predict the future by divination deceive you. And do not pay any attention to the dreams that you are encouraging them to dream.

<sup>9</sup> They are prophesying lies to you and claiming my authority to do so. But I did not send them. I, the LORD, affirm it!'

<sup>10</sup> "For the LORD says, 'Only when the seventy years of Babylonian rule are over will I again take up consideration for you. Then I will fulfill my gracious promise to you and restore you to your homeland.

<sup>11</sup> For I know what I have planned for you,' says the LORD. 'I have plans to prosper you, not to harm you. I have plans to give you a future filled with hope.

<sup>12</sup> When you call out to me and come to me in prayer, I will hear your prayers.

<sup>13</sup> When you seek me in prayer and worship, you will find me available to you. If you seek me with all your heart and soul,

<sup>14</sup> I will make myself available to you,' says the LORD. 'Then I will reverse your plight and will regather you from all the nations and all the places where I have exiled you,' says the LORD. 'I will bring you back to the place from which I exiled you.'

<sup>16</sup> But just listen to what the LORD has to say about the king who occupies David's throne and all your fellow countrymen who are still living in this city of Jerusalem and were not carried off into exile with you.

<sup>17</sup> The LORD who rules over all says, 'I will bring war, starvation, and disease on them. I will treat them like figs that are so rotten they cannot be eaten.

<sup>18</sup> I will chase after them with war, starvation, and disease. I will make all the kingdoms of the earth horrified at what happens to them. I will make them examples of those who are cursed, objects of horror, hissing scorn, and ridicule among all the nations where I exile them.

<sup>19</sup> For they have not paid attention to what I said to them through my servants the prophets whom I sent to them over and over again,' says the LORD. 'And you exiles have not paid any attention to them either,' says the LORD.

<sup>20</sup> 'So pay attention to what I, the LORD, have said, all you exiles whom I have sent to Babylon from Jerusalem.'

<sup>21</sup> "The LORD God of Israel who rules over all also has something to say about Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, who are prophesying lies to you and claiming my authority to do so. 'I will hand them over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and he will execute them before your very eyes.

<sup>22</sup> And all the exiles of Judah who are in Babylon will use them as examples when they put a curse on anyone. They will say, "May the LORD treat you like Zedekiah and Ahab whom the king of Babylon roasted to death in the fire!"

<sup>23</sup> This will happen to them because they have done what is shameful in Israel. They have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives and have spoken lies while claiming my authority. They have spoken words that I did not command them to speak. I know what they have done. I have been a witness to it,' says the LORD."

A Response to the Letter and a Subsequent Letter

<sup>25</sup> that the LORD God of Israel who rules over all has a message for him. Tell him, ‘On your own initiative you sent a letter to the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah and to all the other priests and to all the people in Jerusalem. In your letter you said to Zephaniah, <sup>26</sup> “The LORD has made you priest in place of Jehoiada. He has put you in charge in the LORD’s temple of controlling any lunatic who pretends to be a prophet. And it is your duty to put any such person in the stocks with an iron collar around his neck.

<sup>27</sup> You should have reprimanded Jeremiah from Anathoth who is pretending to be a prophet among you!

<sup>28</sup> For he has even sent a message to us here in Babylon. He wrote and told us, “You will be there a long time. Build houses and settle down. Plant gardens and eat what they produce.” ’ ’ ”

<sup>29</sup> Zephaniah the priest read that letter to the prophet Jeremiah.

<sup>30</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Jeremiah.

<sup>31</sup> “Send a message to all the exiles in Babylon. Tell them, ‘The LORD has spoken about Shemaiah the Nehelamite. “Shemaiah has spoken to you as a prophet even though I did not send him. He is making you trust in a lie.

<sup>32</sup> Because he has done this,” the LORD | strong="H3069" says, “I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his whole family. There will not be any of them left to experience the good things that I will do for my people. I, the LORD | strong="H3069", affirm it! For he counseled rebellion against the LORD | strong="H3069".” ’ ’ ”

30

<sup>2</sup> “The LORD God of Israel says, ‘Write everything that I am about to tell you in a scroll.

<sup>3</sup> For I, the LORD, affirm that the time will come when I will reverse the plight of my people, Israel and Judah,’ says the LORD. ‘I will bring them back to the land I gave their ancestors and they will take possession of it once again.’ ”

Israel and Judah Will Be Delivered after a Time of Deep Distress

<sup>4</sup> So here is what the LORD has to say about Israel and Judah.

<sup>5</sup> Yes, here is what he says:

“You hear cries of panic and of terror;
there is no peace in sight.

<sup>6</sup> Ask yourselves this and consider it carefully:
Have you ever seen a man give birth to a baby?
Why then do I see all these strong men grabbing their stomachs in pain like a woman giving birth?
And why do their faces turn so deathly pale?

<sup>7</sup> Alas, what a terrible time of trouble it is!
There has never been any like it.
It is a time of trouble for the descendants of Jacob, but some of them will be rescued out of it.

<sup>8</sup> When the time for them to be rescued comes,” says the LORD who rules over all,
“I will rescue you from foreign subjugation.

I will deliver you from captivity.
Foreigners will then no longer subjugate them.

<sup>9</sup> But they will be subject to the LORD their God and to the Davidic ruler whom I will raise up as king over them.

<sup>10</sup> So I, the LORD, tell you not to be afraid, you descendants of Jacob, my servants.

Do not be terrified, people of Israel.
For I will rescue you and your descendants from a faraway land where you are captives.
The descendants of Jacob will return to their land and enjoy peace.
They will be secure and no one will terrify them.

<sup>11</sup> For I, the LORD, affirm that I will be with you and will rescue you.
I will completely destroy all the nations where I scattered you.
But I will not completely destroy you.
I will indeed discipline you, but only in due measure.
I will not allow you to go entirely unpunished.”

The Lord Will Heal the Wounds of Judah

<sup>12</sup> Moreover, the LORD says to the people of Zion, “Your injuries are incurable;
your wounds are severe.

<sup>13</sup> There is no one to plead your cause.
There are no remedies for your wounds.
There is no healing for you.

<sup>14</sup> All your allies have abandoned you.
They no longer have any concern for you.
For I have attacked you like an enemy would.
I have chastened you cruelly.
For your wickedness is so great and your sin is so much.

<sup>15</sup> Why do you complain about your injuries, that your pain is incurable?
I have done all this to you because your wickedness is so great and your sin is so much.

<sup>16</sup> But all who destroyed you will be destroyed.
All your enemies will go into exile.
Those who plundered you will be plundered.
I will cause those who pillaged you to be pillaged.

<sup>17</sup> Yes, I will restore you to health.
I will heal your wounds.
I, the LORD, affirm it!
For you have been called an outcast, Zion, whom no one cares for.”

The Lord Will Restore Israel and Judah

<sup>18</sup> The LORD says,
“I will restore the ruined houses of the descendants of Jacob.
I will show compassion on their ruined homes.
Every city will be rebuilt on its former ruins.
Every fortified dwelling will occupy its traditional site.

<sup>19</sup> Out of those places you will hear songs of thanksgiving and the sounds of laughter and merriment.
I will increase their number and they will not dwindle away.
I will bring them honor and they will no longer be despised.
<sup>20</sup> The descendants of Jacob will enjoy their former privileges.

Their community will be reestablished in my favor and I will punish all who try to oppress them.

<sup>21</sup> One of their own people will be their leader.
Their ruler will come from their own number.
I will invite him to approach me, and he will do so.
For no one would dare approach me on his own.

I, the LORD, affirm it!

<sup>22</sup> Then you will again be my people and I will be your God.

<sup>23</sup> Just watch! The wrath of the LORD will come like a storm.
Like a raging storm it will rage down
on the heads of those who are wicked.

<sup>24</sup> The anger of the LORD will not turn back
until he has fully carried out his intended purposes.
In days to come you will come to understand this.

31

<sup>1</sup> At that time I will be the God of all the clans of Israel and they will be my people.
I, the LORD, affirm it!"

Israel Will Be Restored and Join Judah in Worship

<sup>2</sup> The LORD says,
"The people of Israel who survived death at the hands of the enemy will find favor in the wilderness as they journey to find rest for themselves.
<sup>3</sup> In a far-off land the LORD will manifest himself to them.
He will say to them, 'I have loved you with an everlasting love.
That is why I have continued to be faithful to you.

<sup>4</sup> I will rebuild you, my dear children Israel, so that you will once again be built up.
Once again you will take up the tambourine and join in the happy throng of dancers.

<sup>5</sup> Once again you will plant vineyards on the hills of Samaria.
Those who plant them will once again enjoy their fruit.

<sup>6</sup> Yes, a time is coming when watchmen will call out on the mountains of Ephraim,
"Come! Let us go to Zion to worship the LORD our God!" ' "

<sup>7</sup> Moreover, the LORD says,
"Sing for joy for the descendants of Jacob.
Utter glad shouts for that foremost of the nations.
Make your praises heard.

Then say, 'LORD, rescue your people.
Deliver those of Israel who remain alive.'

<sup>8</sup> Then I will reply, 'I will bring them back from the land of the north.
I will gather them in from the distant parts of the earth.
Blind and lame people will come with them, so will pregnant women and women about to give birth.

A vast throng of people will come back here.

<sup>9</sup> They will come back shedding tears of contrition.
I will bring them back praying prayers of repentance.
I will lead them besides streams of water, along smooth paths where they will never stumble.
I will do this because I am Israel's father;
Ephraim is my firstborn son.' "

<sup>10</sup> Hear what the LORD has to say, O nations.
Proclaim it in the faraway lands along the sea.
Say, "The one who scattered Israel will regather them.
He will watch over his people like a shepherd watches over his flock."

<sup>11</sup> For the LORD will rescue the descendants of Jacob.
He will secure their release from those who had overpowered them.

<sup>12</sup> They will come and shout for joy on Mount Zion.
They will be radiant with joy over the good things the LORD provides, the grain, the fresh wine, the olive oil,
the young sheep and calves he has given to them.
They will be like a well-watered garden and will not grow faint or weary any more.

<sup>13</sup> The LORD says, "At that time | strong="H0227" young women will dance and be glad.
Young men and old men will rejoice.

I will turn their grief into gladness.
I will give them comfort and joy in place of their sorrow.

<sup>14</sup> I will provide the priests with abundant provisions.
My people will be filled to the full with the good things I provide."

<sup>15</sup> The LORD says,
"A sound is heard in Ramah,
a sound of crying in bitter grief.
It is the sound of Rachel weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted, because her children are gone."

<sup>16</sup> The LORD says to her,
"Stop crying! Do not shed any more tears!
For your heartfelt repentance will be rewarded.
Your children will return from the land of the enemy.
I, the LORD, affirm it!

<sup>17</sup> Indeed, there is hope for your posterity.
Your children will return to their own territory.
I, the LORD, affirm it!

<sup>18</sup> I have indeed heard the people of Israel say mournfully,
'We were like a calf untrained to the yoke.
You disciplined us and we learned from it.
Let us come back to you and we will do so,
for you are the LORD our God.

<sup>19</sup> For after we turned away from you we repented.
After we came to our senses we beat our breasts in sorrow.
We are ashamed and humiliated because of the disgraceful things we did previously.'

<sup>20</sup> Indeed, the people of Israel are my dear children.
They are the children I take delight in.
For even though I must often rebuke them,

I still remember them with fondness.
So I am deeply moved with pity for them and will surely have compassion on them.

I, the LORD, affirm it!

<sup>21</sup> I will say, 'My dear children of Israel, keep in mind the road you took when you were carried off.

Mark off in your minds the landmarks.

Make a mental note of telltale signs marking the way back.

Return, my dear children of Israel.

Return to these cities of yours.

<sup>22</sup> How long will you vacillate, you who were once like an unfaithful daughter?

For I, the LORD, promise to bring about something new on the earth, something as unique as a woman protecting a man!' "

Judah Will Be Restored

<sup>23</sup> The LORD God of Israel who rules over all says,

"I will restore the people of Judah to their land and to their towns.

When I do, they will again say of Jerusalem,

'May the LORD bless you, you holy mountain, the place where righteousness dwells.'

<sup>24</sup> The land of Judah will be inhabited by people who live in its towns as well as by farmers and shepherds with their flocks.

<sup>25</sup> I will fully satisfy the needs of those who are weary and fully refresh the souls of those who are faint.

<sup>26</sup> Then they will say, 'Under these conditions I can enjoy sweet sleep when I wake up and look around.' "

Israel and Judah Will Be Repopulated

<sup>27</sup> "Indeed, a time is coming," says the LORD, "when I will cause people and animals to sprout up in the lands of Israel and Judah.

<sup>28</sup> In the past I saw to it that they were uprooted and torn down, that they were destroyed and demolished. But now I will see to it that they are built up and firmly planted. I, the LORD, affirm it!"

The Lord Will Make a New Covenant with Israel and Judah

<sup>29</sup> "When that time comes, people will no longer say, 'The parents have eaten sour grapes, but the children's teeth have grown numb.'

<sup>30</sup> Rather, each person will die for his own sins. The teeth of the person who eats the sour grapes will themselves grow numb.

<sup>31</sup> "Indeed, a time is coming," says the LORD, "when I will make a new covenant with the people of Israel and Judah.

<sup>32</sup> It will not be like the old covenant that I made with their ancestors when I delivered them from Egypt. For they violated that covenant, even though I was like a faithful husband to them," says the LORD.

<sup>33</sup> "But I will make a new covenant with the whole nation of Israel after I plant them back in the land," says the LORD. "I will put my law within them and write it on their hearts and minds. I will be their God and they will be my people.

<sup>34</sup> "People will no longer need to teach their neighbors and relatives to know me. For all of them, from the least important to the most important, will know me," says the LORD. "For I will forgive their sin and will no longer call to mind the wrong they have done."

The Lord Guarantees Israel's Continuance

<sup>35</sup> The LORD has made a promise to Israel.

He promises it as the one who fixed the sun to give light by day and the moon and stars to give light by night.

He promises it as the one who stirs up the sea so that its waves roll.

He promises it as the one who is known as the LORD who rules over all.

<sup>36</sup> The LORD affirms, "The descendants of Israel will not cease forever to be a nation in my sight.

That could only happen if the fixed ordering of the heavenly lights were to cease to operate before me."

<sup>37</sup> The LORD says, "I will not reject all the descendants of Israel because of all that they have done.

That could only happen if the heavens above could be measured or the foundations of the earth below could all be explored," says the LORD.

Jerusalem Will Be Enlarged

<sup>38</sup> "Indeed a time is coming," says the LORD, "when the city of Jerusalem will be rebuilt as my special city. It will be built from the Tower of Hananel westward to the Corner Gate.

<sup>39</sup> The boundary line will extend beyond that, straight west from there to the Hill of Gareb and then turn southward to Goah.

<sup>40</sup> The whole valley where dead bodies and sacrificial ashes are thrown and all the terraced fields out to the Kidron Valley on the east as far north as the Horse Gate will be included within this city that is sacred to the LORD. The city will never again be torn down or destroyed."

32

<sup>1</sup> In the tenth year that Zedekiah was ruling over Judah the LORD spoke to Jeremiah. That was the same as the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar.

<sup>2</sup> Now at that time, the armies of the king of Babylon were besieging Jerusalem. The prophet Jeremiah was confined in the courtyard of the guardhouse attached to the royal palace of Judah.

<sup>3</sup> For King Zedekiah had confined Jeremiah there after he had reproved him for prophesying as he did. He had asked Jeremiah, "Why do you keep prophesying these things? Why do you keep saying that the LORD says, 'I will hand this city over to the king of Babylon? I will let him capture it.

<sup>4</sup> King Zedekiah of Judah will not escape from the Babylonians. He will certainly be handed over to the king of Babylon. He must answer personally to the king of Babylon and confront him face to face.

<sup>5</sup> Zedekiah will be carried off to Babylon and will remain there until I have fully dealt with him. I, the LORD, affirm it! Even if you continue to fight against the Babylonians, you cannot win.' "

<sup>6</sup> So now, Jeremiah said, "The LORD told me,

<sup>7</sup> 'Hanamel, the son of your uncle Shallum, will come to you soon. He will say to you, "Buy my field at Anathoth because you are entitled as my closest relative to buy it.' "

<sup>8</sup> Now it happened just as the LORD had said! My cousin Hanamel came to me in the courtyard of the guardhouse. He said to me, 'Buy my field which is at Anathoth in the territory of the tribe of Benjamin. Buy it for yourself since you are entitled as my closest relative to take possession of it for yourself.' When this happened, I recognized that the LORD had indeed spoken to me.

<sup>9</sup> So I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel. I weighed out seven ounces of silver and gave it to him to pay for it.

<sup>10</sup> I signed the deed of purchase, sealed it, and had some men serve as witnesses to the purchase. I weighed out the silver for him on a scale.

<sup>11</sup> There were two copies of the deed of purchase. One was sealed and contained the order of transfer and the conditions of purchase. The other was left unsealed.

<sup>12</sup> I took both copies of the deed of purchase and gave them to Baruch son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah. I gave them to him in the presence of my cousin Hanamel, the witnesses who had signed the deed of purchase, and all the Judeans who were housed in the courtyard of the guardhouse.

<sup>14</sup> ‘The LORD God of Israel who rules over all says, “Take these documents, both the sealed copy of the deed of purchase and the unsealed copy. Put them in a clay jar so that they may be preserved for a long time to come.” ’

<sup>15</sup> For the LORD God of Israel who rules over all says, “Houses, fields, and vineyards will again be bought in this land.” ’

Jeremiah's Prayer of Praise and Bewilderment

<sup>16</sup> “After I had given the copies of the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD, <sup>17</sup> ‘Oh, Lord GOD, you did indeed make heaven and earth by your mighty power and great strength. Nothing is too hard for you!

<sup>18</sup> You show unfailing love to thousands. But you also punish children for the sins of their parents. You are the great and powerful God who is known as the LORD who rules over all.

<sup>19</sup> You plan great things and you do mighty deeds. You see everything people do. You reward each of them for the way they live and for the things they do.

<sup>20</sup> You did miracles and amazing deeds in the land of Egypt which have had lasting effect. By this means you gained both in Israel and among humankind a renown that lasts to this day.

<sup>21</sup> You used your mighty power and your great strength to perform miracles and amazing deeds and to bring great terror on the Egyptians. By this means you brought your people Israel out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>22</sup> You kept the promise that you swore on oath to their ancestors. You gave them a land flowing with milk and honey.

<sup>23</sup> But when they came in and took possession of it, they did not obey you or live as you had instructed them. They did not do anything that you commanded them to do. So you brought all this disaster on them.

<sup>24</sup> Even now siege ramps have been built up around the city in order to capture it. War, starvation, and disease are sure to make the city fall into the hands of the Babylonians who are attacking it. LORD, you threatened that this would happen. Now you can see that it is already taking place.

<sup>25</sup> The city is sure to fall into the hands of the Babylonians. Yet, in spite of this, you, Lord GOD, have said to me, “Buy that field with silver and have the transaction legally witnessed.” ’

The Lord Answers Jeremiah's Prayer

<sup>27</sup> “I am the LORD, the God of all humankind. There is, indeed, nothing too difficult for me.

<sup>28</sup> Therefore I, the LORD, say: ‘I will indeed hand this city over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and the Babylonian army. They will capture it.

<sup>29</sup> The Babylonian soldiers that are attacking this city will break into it and set it on fire. They will burn it down along with the houses where people have made me angry by offering sacrifices to the god Baal and by pouring out drink offerings to other gods on their rooftops.

<sup>30</sup> This will happen because the people of Israel and Judah have repeatedly done what displeases me from their earliest history until now and because they have repeatedly made me angry by the things they have done. I, the LORD, affirm it!

<sup>31</sup> This will happen because the people of this city have aroused my anger and my wrath since the time they built it until now. They have made me so angry that I am determined to remove it from my sight.

<sup>32</sup> I am determined to do so because the people of Israel and Judah have made me angry with all their wickedness – they, their kings, their officials, their priests, their prophets, and especially the people of Judah and the citizens of Jerusalem have done this wickedness.

<sup>33</sup> They have turned away from me instead of turning to me. I tried over and over again to instruct them, but they did not listen and respond to correction.

<sup>34</sup> They set up their disgusting idols in the temple which I have claimed for my own and defiled it.

<sup>35</sup> They built places of worship for the god Baal in the Valley of Ben Hinnom so that they could sacrifice their sons and daughters to the god Molech. Such a disgusting practice was not something I commanded them to do! It never even entered my mind to command them to do such a thing! So Judah is certainly liable for punishment.'

<sup>36</sup> "You and your people are right in saying, 'War, starvation, and disease are sure to make this city fall into the hands of the king of Babylon.' But now I, the LORD God of Israel, have something further to say about this city:

<sup>37</sup> 'I will certainly regather my people from all the countries where I will have exiled them in my anger, fury, and great wrath. I will bring them back to this place and allow them to live here in safety.

<sup>38</sup> They will be my people, and I will be their God.

<sup>39</sup> I will give them a single-minded purpose to live in a way that always shows respect for me. They will want to do that for their own good and the good of the children who descend from them.

<sup>40</sup> I will make a lasting covenant with them that I will never stop doing good to them. I will fill their hearts and minds with respect for me so that they will never again turn away from me.

<sup>41</sup> I will take delight in doing good to them. I will faithfully and wholeheartedly plant them firmly in the land.'

<sup>42</sup> "For I, the LORD, say: 'I will surely bring on these people all the good fortune that I am hereby promising them. I will be just as sure to do that as I have been in bringing all this great disaster on them.

<sup>43</sup> You and your people are saying that this land will become desolate, uninhabited by either people or animals. You are saying that it will be handed over to the Babylonians. But fields will again be bought in this land.

<sup>44</sup> Fields will again be bought with silver, and deeds of purchase signed, sealed, and witnessed. This will happen in the territory of Benjamin, the villages surrounding Jerusalem, the towns in Judah, the southern hill country, the western foothills, and southern Judah. For I will restore them to their land. I, the LORD, affirm it!'" "

33

<sup>2</sup> “I, the LORD, do these things. I, the LORD, form the plan to bring them about. I am known as the LORD. I say to you,

<sup>3</sup> ‘Call on me in prayer and I will answer you. I will show you great and mysterious things which you still do not know about.’

<sup>4</sup> For I, the LORD God of Israel, have something more to say about the houses in this city and the royal buildings which have been torn down for defenses against the siege ramps and military incursions of the Babylonians:

<sup>5</sup> ‘The defenders of the city will go out and fight with the Babylonians. But they will only fill those houses and buildings with the dead bodies of the people that I will kill in my anger and my wrath. That will happen because I have decided to turn my back on this city on account of the wicked things they have done.

<sup>6</sup> But I will most surely heal the wounds of this city and restore it and its people to health. I will show them abundant peace and security.

<sup>7</sup> I will restore Judah and Israel and will rebuild them as they were in days of old.

<sup>8</sup> I will purify them from all the sin that they committed against me. I will forgive all their sins which they committed in rebelling against me.

<sup>9</sup> All the nations will hear about all the good things which I will do to them. This city will bring me fame, honor, and praise before them for the joy that I bring it. The nations will tremble in awe at all the peace and prosperity that I will provide for it.’

<sup>10</sup> “I, the LORD, say: ‘You and your people are saying about this place, “It lies in ruins. There are no people or animals in it.” That is true. The towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem will soon be desolate, uninhabited either by people or by animals. But happy sounds will again be heard in these places.

<sup>11</sup> Once again there will be sounds of joy and gladness and the glad celebrations of brides and grooms. Once again people will bring their thank offerings to the temple of the LORD and will say |strong="H0559", “Give thanks to the LORD who rules over all. For the LORD is good and his unfailing love lasts forever.” For I, the LORD, affirm that I will restore the land to what it was in days of old.’

<sup>12</sup> “I, the LORD who rules over all, say: ‘This place will indeed lie in ruins. There will be no people or animals in it. But there will again be in it and in its towns sheepfolds where shepherds can rest their sheep.

<sup>13</sup> I, the LORD, say that shepherds will once again count their sheep as they pass into the fold. They will do this in all the towns in the southern hill country, the western foothills, the southern hill country, the territory of Benjamin, the villages surrounding Jerusalem, and the towns of Judah.’

The Lord Reaffirms His Covenant with David, Israel, and Levi

<sup>14</sup> “I, the LORD, affirm: ‘The time will certainly come when I will fulfill my gracious promise concerning the nations of Israel and Judah.

<sup>15</sup> In those days and at that time I will raise up for them a righteous descendant of David.

“He will do what is just and right in the land.

<sup>16</sup> Under his rule Judah will enjoy safety and Jerusalem will live in security. At that time Jerusalem will be called “The LORD has provided us with justice.”

<sup>17</sup> For I, the LORD, promise: “David will never lack a successor to occupy the throne over the nation of Israel.

<sup>18</sup> Nor will the Levitical priests ever lack someone to stand before me and continually offer up burnt offerings, sacrifice cereal offerings, and offer the other sacrifices.” ’ ’ ”

<sup>20</sup> “I, LORD, make the following promise: ‘I have made a covenant with the day and with the night that they will always come at their proper times. Only if you people could break that covenant

<sup>21</sup> could my covenant with my servant David and my covenant with the Levites ever be broken. So David will by all means always have a descendant to occupy his throne as king and the Levites will by all means always have priests who will minister before me.

<sup>22</sup> I will make the children who follow one another in the line of my servant David very numerous. I will also make the Levites who minister before me very numerous. I will make them all as numerous as the stars in the sky and as the sands which are on the seashore.’ ”

<sup>24</sup> “You have surely noticed what these people are saying, haven’t you? They are saying, ‘The LORD has rejected the two families of Israel and Judah that he chose.’ So they have little regard that my people will ever again be a nation.

<sup>25</sup> But I, the LORD, make the following promise: I have made a covenant governing the coming of day and night. I have established the fixed laws governing heaven and earth.

<sup>26</sup> Just as surely as I have done this, so surely will I never reject the descendants of Jacob. Nor will I ever refuse to choose one of my servant David’s descendants to rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Indeed, I will restore them and show mercy to them.”

34

<sup>2</sup> The LORD God of Israel told Jeremiah to go and give King Zedekiah of Judah a message. He told Jeremiah to tell him, “The LORD says, ‘I am going to hand this city over to the king of Babylon and he will burn it down.

<sup>3</sup> You yourself will not escape his clutches, but will certainly be captured and handed over to him. You must confront the king of Babylon face to face and answer to him personally. Then you must go to Babylon.

<sup>4</sup> However, listen to what I, the LORD, promise you, King Zedekiah of Judah. I, the LORD, promise that you will not die in battle or be executed.

<sup>5</sup> You will die a peaceful death. They will burn incense at your burial just as they did at the burial of your ancestors, the former kings who preceded you. They will mourn for you, saying, “Poor, poor master!” Indeed, you have my own word on this. I, the LORD, affirm it!”

<sup>7</sup> He did this while the army of the king of Babylon was attacking Jerusalem and the cities of Lachish and Azekah. He was attacking these cities because they were the only fortified cities of Judah which were still holding out.

The Lord Threatens to Destroy Those Who Wronged Their Slaves

<sup>8</sup> The LORD| strong="H3069" spoke to Jeremiah after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem to grant their slaves their freedom.

<sup>9</sup> Everyone was supposed to free their male and female Hebrew slaves. No one was supposed to keep a fellow Judean enslaved.

<sup>10</sup> All the people and their leaders had agreed to this. They had agreed to free their male and female slaves and not keep them enslaved any longer. They originally complied with the covenant and freed them.

<sup>11</sup> But later they had changed their minds. They had taken back their male and female slaves that they had freed and forced them to be slaves again.

<sup>12</sup> That was when the LORD spoke to Jeremiah, <sup>13</sup> “The LORD God of Israel has a message for you. ‘I made a covenant with your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt where they had been slaves. It stipulated, <sup>14</sup> “Every seven years each of you must free any fellow Hebrews who have sold themselves to you. After they have served you for six years, you shall set them free.” But your ancestors did not obey me or pay any attention to me.

<sup>15</sup> Recently, however, you yourselves showed a change of heart and did what is pleasing to me. You granted your fellow countrymen their freedom and you made a covenant to that effect in my presence in the house that I have claimed for my own.

<sup>16</sup> But then you turned right around and showed that you did not honor me. Each of you took back your male and female slaves whom you had freed as they desired, and you forced them to be your slaves again.

<sup>17</sup> So I, the LORD, say: “You have not really obeyed me and granted freedom to your neighbor and fellow countryman. Therefore, I will grant you freedom, the freedom to die in war, or by starvation or disease. I, the LORD, affirm it! I will make all the kingdoms of the earth horrified at what happens to you.

<sup>18</sup> I will punish those people who have violated their covenant with me. I will make them like the calf they cut in two and passed between its pieces. I will do so because they did not keep the terms of the covenant they made in my presence.

<sup>19</sup> I will punish the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the court officials, the priests, and all the other people of the land who passed between the pieces of the calf.

<sup>20</sup> I will hand them over to their enemies who want to kill them. Their dead bodies will become food for the birds and the wild animals.

<sup>21</sup> I will also hand King Zedekiah of Judah and his officials over to their enemies who want to kill them. I will hand them over to the army of the king of Babylon, even though they have temporarily withdrawn from attacking you.

<sup>22</sup> For I, the LORD, affirm that I will soon give the order and bring them back to this city. They will fight against it and capture it and burn it down. I will also make the towns of Judah desolate so that there will be no one living in them.” ’ ’ ”

35

<sup>2</sup> “Go to the Rechabite community. Invite them to come into one of the side rooms of the LORD’s temple and offer them some wine to drink.”

<sup>3</sup> So I went and got Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah the grandson of Habazziniah, his brothers, all his sons, and all the rest of the Rechabite community.

<sup>4</sup> I took them to the LORD’s temple. I took them into the room where the disciples of the prophet Hanan son of Igdaliah stayed. That room was next to the one where the temple officers stayed and above the room where Maaseiah son of Shallum, one of the doorkeepers of the temple, stayed.

<sup>5</sup> Then I set cups and pitchers full of wine in front of the members of the Rechabite community and said to them, “Have some wine.”

<sup>6</sup> But they answered, “We do not drink wine because our ancestor Jonadab son of Rechab commanded us not to. He told us, ‘You and your children must never drink wine.

<sup>7</sup> Do not build houses. Do not plant crops. Do not plant a vineyard or own one. Live in tents all your lives. If you do these things you will live a long time in the land that you wander about on.’

<sup>8</sup> We and our wives and our sons and daughters have obeyed everything our ancestor Jonadab commanded us. We have never drunk wine.

<sup>9</sup> We have not built any houses to live in. We do not own any vineyards, fields, or crops.

<sup>10</sup> We have lived in tents. We have obeyed our ancestor Jonadab and done exactly as he commanded us.

<sup>11</sup> But when King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon invaded the land we said, 'Let's get up and go to Jerusalem to get away from the Babylonian and Aramean armies.' That is why we are staying here in Jerusalem."

<sup>12</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Jeremiah.

<sup>13</sup> The LORD God of Israel who rules over all told him, "Go and speak to the people of Judah and the citizens of Jerusalem. Tell them, 'I, the LORD, say: "You must learn a lesson from this about obeying what I say!"

<sup>14</sup> Jonadab son of Rechab ordered his descendants not to drink wine. His orders have been carried out. To this day his descendants have drunk no wine because they have obeyed what their ancestor commanded them. But I have spoken to you over and over again, but you have not obeyed me!

<sup>15</sup> I sent all my servants the prophets to warn you over and over again. They said, "Every one of you, stop doing the evil things you have been doing and do what is right. Do not pay allegiance to other gods and worship them. Then you can continue to live in this land that I gave to you and your ancestors." But you did not pay any attention or listen to me.

<sup>16</sup> Yes, the descendants of Jonadab son of Rechab have carried out the orders that their ancestor gave them. But you people have not obeyed me!

<sup>17</sup> So I, the LORD, the God who rules over all, the God of Israel, say: "I will soon bring on Judah and all the citizens of Jerusalem all the disaster that I threatened to bring on them. I will do this because I spoke to them but they did not listen. I called out to them but they did not answer." ' ' "

<sup>18</sup> Then Jeremiah spoke to the Rechabite community, "The LORD God of Israel who rules over all says, 'You have obeyed the orders of your ancestor Jonadab. You have followed all his instructions. You have done exactly as he commanded you.'

<sup>19</sup> So the LORD God of Israel who rules over all says, 'Jonadab son of Rechab will never lack a male descendant to serve me.' "

36

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Jeremiah in the fourth year that Jehoiakim son of Josiah was ruling over Judah.

<sup>2</sup> "Get a scroll. Write on it everything I have told you to say about Israel, Judah, and all the other nations since I began to speak to you in the reign of Josiah until now.

<sup>3</sup> Perhaps when the people of Judah hear about all the disaster I intend to bring on them, they will all stop doing the evil things they have been doing. If they do, I will forgive their sins and the wicked things they have done."

<sup>4</sup> So Jeremiah summoned Baruch son of Neriah. Then Jeremiah dictated to Baruch everything the LORD had told him to say and Baruch wrote it all down in a scroll.

<sup>5</sup> Then Jeremiah told Baruch, "I am no longer allowed to go into the LORD's temple.

<sup>6</sup> So you go there the next time all the people of Judah come in from their towns to fast in the LORD's temple. Read out loud where all of them can hear you what I told you the LORD said, which you wrote in the scroll.

<sup>7</sup> Perhaps then they will ask the LORD for mercy and will all stop doing the evil things they have been doing. For the LORD has threatened to bring great anger and wrath against these people."

<sup>8</sup> So Baruch son of Neriah did exactly what the prophet Jeremiah had told him to do. He read what the LORD had said from the scroll in the temple of the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> All the people living in Jerusalem and all the people who came into Jerusalem from the towns of Judah came to observe a fast before the LORD. The fast took place in the ninth month of the fifth year that Jehoiakim son of Josiah was ruling over Judah.

<sup>10</sup> At that time Baruch went into the temple of the LORD. He stood in the entrance of the room of Gemariah the son of Shaphan who had been the royal secretary. That room was in the upper court near the entrance of the New Gate. There, where all the people could hear him, he read from the scroll what Jeremiah had said.

<sup>11</sup> Micaiah, who was the son of Gemariah and the grandson of Shaphan, heard Baruch read from the scroll everything the LORD had said.

<sup>12</sup> He went down to the chamber of the royal secretary in the king's palace and found all the court officials in session there. Elishama the royal secretary, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Achbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the other officials were seated there.

<sup>14</sup> All the officials sent Jehudi, who was the son of Nethaniah and the grandson of Cushi, to Baruch. They ordered him to tell Baruch, "Come here and bring with you the scroll you read in the hearing of the people." So Baruch son of Neriah went to them, carrying the scroll in his hand.

<sup>15</sup> They said to him, "Please sit down and read it to us." So Baruch sat down and read it to them.

<sup>16</sup> When they had heard it all, they expressed their alarm to one another. Then they said to Baruch, "We must certainly give the king a report about everything you have read!"

<sup>17</sup> Then they asked Baruch, "How did you come to write all these words? Do they actually come from Jeremiah's mouth?"

<sup>18</sup> Baruch answered, "Yes, they came from his own mouth. He dictated all these words to me and I wrote them down in ink on this scroll."

<sup>19</sup> Then the officials said to Baruch, "You and Jeremiah must go and hide. You must not let anyone know where you are."

<sup>20</sup> The officials put the scroll in the room of Elishama, the royal secretary, for safekeeping. Then they went to the court and reported everything to the king.

<sup>21</sup> The king sent Jehudi to get the scroll. He went and got it from the room of Elishama, the royal secretary. Then he himself read it to the king and all the officials who were standing around him.

<sup>22</sup> Since it was the ninth month of the year, the king was sitting in his winter quarters. A fire was burning in the firepot in front of him.

<sup>23</sup> As soon as Jehudi had read three or four columns of the scroll, the king would cut them off with a penknife and throw them on the fire in the firepot. He kept doing so until the whole scroll was burned up in the fire.

<sup>24</sup> Neither he nor any of his attendants showed any alarm when they heard all that had been read. Nor did they tear their clothes to show any grief or sorrow.

<sup>25</sup> The king did not even listen to Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah, who had urged him not to burn the scroll.

<sup>26</sup> He also ordered Jerahmeel, who was one of the royal princes, Seraiah son of Azriel, and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to arrest the scribe Baruch and the prophet Jeremiah. However, the LORD hid them.

Baruch and Jeremiah Write Another Scroll

<sup>27</sup> The LORD spoke to Jeremiah after Jehoiakim had burned the scroll containing what Jeremiah had spoken and Baruch had written down.

<sup>28</sup> “Get another scroll and write on it everything that was written on the original scroll that King Jehoiakim of Judah burned.

<sup>29</sup> Tell King Jehoiakim of Judah, ‘The LORD says, “You burned the scroll. You asked Jeremiah, ‘How dare you write in this scroll that the king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land and wipe out all the people and animals on it?’ ”

<sup>30</sup> So the LORD says concerning King Jehoiakim of Judah, “None of his line will occupy the throne of David. His dead body will be thrown out to be exposed to scorching heat by day and frost by night.

<sup>31</sup> I will punish him and his descendants and the officials who serve him for the wicked things they have done. I will bring on them, the citizens of Jerusalem, and the people of Judah all the disaster that I threatened to do to them. I will punish them because I threatened them but they still paid no heed.” ’ ’

<sup>32</sup> Then Jeremiah got another scroll and gave it to the scribe Baruch son of Neriah. As Jeremiah dictated, Baruch wrote on this scroll everything that had been on the scroll that King Jehoiakim of Judah burned in the fire. They also added on this scroll several other messages of the same kind.

37

<sup>2</sup> Neither he nor the officials who served him nor the people of Judah paid any attention to what the LORD said through the prophet Jeremiah.

The Lord Responds to Zedekiah's Hope for Help

<sup>3</sup> King Zedekiah sent Jehucal son of Shelemiah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah to the prophet Jeremiah. He told them to say, “Please pray to the LORD our God on our behalf.”

<sup>4</sup> (Now Jeremiah had not yet been put in prison. So he was still free to come and go among the people as he pleased.

<sup>5</sup> At that time the Babylonian forces had temporarily given up their siege against Jerusalem. They had had it under siege, but withdrew when they heard that the army of Pharaoh had set out from Egypt. )

<sup>6</sup> The LORD gave the prophet Jeremiah a message for them. He told him to tell them, <sup>7</sup> “The LORD God of Israel says, ‘Give a message to the king of Judah who sent you to ask me to help him. Tell him, “The army of Pharaoh that was on its way to help you will go back home to Egypt.

<sup>8</sup> Then the Babylonian forces will return. They will attack the city and will capture it and burn it down.

<sup>9</sup> Moreover, I, the LORD, warn you not to deceive yourselves into thinking that the Babylonian forces will go away and leave you alone. For they will not go away.

<sup>10</sup> For even if you were to defeat all the Babylonian forces fighting against you so badly that only wounded men were left lying in their tents, they would get up and burn this city down.” ’ ’

Jeremiah is Charged with Deserting, Arrested, and Imprisoned

<sup>11</sup> The following events also occurred while the Babylonian forces had temporarily withdrawn from Jerusalem because the army of Pharaoh was coming.

<sup>12</sup> Jeremiah started to leave Jerusalem to go to the territory of Benjamin. He wanted to make sure he got his share of the property that was being divided up among his family there.

<sup>13</sup> But he only got as far as the Benjamin Gate. There an officer in charge of the guards named Irijah, who was the son of Shelemiah and the grandson of Hananiah, stopped him. He seized Jeremiah and said, "You are deserting to the Babylonians!"

<sup>14</sup> Jeremiah answered, "That's a lie! I am not deserting to the Babylonians." But Irijah would not listen to him. Irijah put Jeremiah under arrest and took him to the officials.

<sup>15</sup> The officials were very angry at Jeremiah. They had him flogged and put in prison in the house of Jonathan, the royal secretary, which they had converted into a place for confining prisoners.

<sup>16</sup> So Jeremiah was put in prison in a cell in the dungeon in Jonathan's house. He was kept there for a long time.

<sup>17</sup> Then King Zedekiah had him brought to the palace. There he questioned him privately and asked him, "Is there any message from the LORD?" Jeremiah answered, "Yes, there is." Then he announced, "You will be handed over to the king of Babylon."

<sup>18</sup> Then Jeremiah asked King Zedekiah, "What crime have I committed against you, or the officials who serve you, or the people of Judah? What have I done to make you people throw me into prison?"

<sup>19</sup> Where now are the prophets who prophesied to you that the king of Babylon would not attack you or this land?

<sup>20</sup> But now please listen, your royal Majesty, and grant my plea for mercy. Do not send me back to the house of Jonathan, the royal secretary. If you do, I will die there."

<sup>21</sup> Then King Zedekiah ordered that Jeremiah be committed to the courtyard of the guardhouse. He also ordered that a loaf of bread be given to him every day from the baker's street until all the bread in the city was gone. So Jeremiah was kept in the courtyard of the guardhouse.

38

<sup>1</sup> Now Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jehucal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malkijah had heard the things that Jeremiah had been telling the people. They had heard him say,

<sup>2</sup> "The LORD says, 'Those who stay in this city will die in battle or of starvation or disease. Those who leave the city and surrender to the Babylonians will live. They will escape with their lives.' "

<sup>3</sup> They had also heard him say, "The LORD says, 'This city will certainly be handed over to the army of the king of Babylon. They will capture it.' "

<sup>4</sup> So these officials said to the king, "This man must be put to death. For he is demoralizing the soldiers who are left in the city as well as all the other people there by these things he is saying. This man is not seeking to help these people but is trying to harm them."

<sup>5</sup> King Zedekiah said to them, "Very well, you can do what you want with him. For I cannot do anything to stop you."

<sup>6</sup> So the officials took Jeremiah and put him in the cistern of Malkijah, one of the royal princes, that was in the courtyard of the guardhouse. There was no water in the cistern, only mud. So when they lowered Jeremiah into the cistern with ropes he sank in the mud.

An Ethiopian Official Rescues Jeremiah from the Cistern

<sup>7</sup> An Ethiopian, Ebed Melech, a court official in the royal palace, heard that Jeremiah had been put in the cistern. While the king was holding court at the Benjamin Gate, <sup>8</sup> Ebed Melech departed the palace and went to speak to the king. He said to him, <sup>9</sup> “Your royal Majesty, those men have been very wicked in all that they have done to the prophet Jeremiah. They have thrown him into a cistern and he is sure to die of starvation there because there is no food left in the city.

<sup>11</sup> So Ebed Melech took the men with him and went to a room under the treasure room in the palace. He got some worn-out clothes and old rags from there and let them down by ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern.

<sup>12</sup> Ebed Melech called down to Jeremiah, “Put these rags and worn-out clothes under your armpits to pad the ropes. Jeremiah did as Ebed Melech instructed.

<sup>13</sup> So they pulled Jeremiah up from the cistern with ropes. Jeremiah, however, still remained confined to the courtyard of the guardhouse.

Jeremiah Responds to Zedekiah's Request for Secret Advice

<sup>14</sup> Some time later Zedekiah sent and had Jeremiah brought to him at the third entrance of the LORD's temple. The king said to Jeremiah, “I would like to ask you a question. Do not hide anything from me when you answer.”

<sup>15</sup> Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “If I answer you, you will certainly kill me. If I give you advice, you will not listen to me.”

<sup>16</sup> So King Zedekiah made a secret promise to Jeremiah and sealed it with an oath. He promised, “As surely as the LORD lives who has given us life and breath, I promise you this: I will not kill you or hand you over to those men who want to kill you.”

<sup>17</sup> Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “The LORD, the God who rules over all, the God of Israel, says, ‘You must surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon. If you do, your life will be spared and this city will not be burned down. Indeed, you and your whole family will be spared.

<sup>18</sup> But if you do not surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, this city will be handed over to the Babylonians and they will burn it down. You yourself will not escape from them.’ ”

<sup>19</sup> Then King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “I am afraid of the Judeans who have deserted to the Babylonians. The Babylonians might hand me over to them and they will torture me.”

<sup>20</sup> Then Jeremiah answered, “You will not be handed over to them. Please obey the LORD by doing what I have been telling you. Then all will go well with you and your life will be spared.

<sup>21</sup> But if you refuse to surrender, the LORD has shown me a vision of what will happen. Here is what I saw:

<sup>22</sup> All the women who are left in the royal palace of Judah will be led out to the officers of the king of Babylon. They will taunt you saying,

‘Your trusted friends misled you;
they have gotten the best of you.

Now that your feet are stuck in the mud, they have turned their backs on you.’

<sup>23</sup> “All your wives and your children will be turned over to the Babylonians. You yourself will not escape from them but will be captured by the king of Babylon. This city will be burned down.”

<sup>24</sup> Then Zedekiah told Jeremiah, “Do not let anyone know about the conversation we have had. If you do, you will die.

<sup>25</sup> The officials may hear that I have talked with you. They may come to you and say, 'Tell us what you said to the king and what the king said to you. Do not hide anything from us. If you do, we will kill you.'

<sup>26</sup> If they do this, tell them, 'I was pleading with the king not to send me back to die in the dungeon of Jonathan's house.' "

<sup>27</sup> All the officials did indeed come and question Jeremiah. He told them exactly what the king had instructed him to say. They stopped questioning him any further because no one had actually heard their conversation.

<sup>28</sup> So Jeremiah remained confined in the courtyard of the guardhouse until the day Jerusalem was captured.

The Fall of Jerusalem and Its Aftermath

The following events occurred when Jerusalem was captured.

39

<sup>2</sup> It lasted until the ninth day of the fourth month of Zedekiah's eleventh year. On that day they broke through the city walls.

<sup>3</sup> Then Nergal-Sharezer of Samgar, Nebo-Sarsekim, who was a chief officer, Nergal-Sharezer, who was a high official, and all the other officers of the king of Babylon came and set up quarters in the Middle Gate.

<sup>4</sup> When King Zedekiah of Judah and all his soldiers saw them, they tried to escape. They departed from the city during the night. They took a path through the king's garden and passed out through the gate between the two walls. Then they headed for the Jordan Valley.

<sup>5</sup> But the Babylonian army chased after them. They caught up with Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho and captured him. They took him to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon at Riblah in the territory of Hamath and Nebuchadnezzar passed sentence on him there.

<sup>6</sup> There at Riblah the king of Babylon had Zedekiah's sons put to death while Zedekiah was forced to watch. The king of Babylon also had all the nobles of Judah put to death.

<sup>7</sup> Then he had Zedekiah's eyes put out and had him bound in chains to be led off to Babylon.

<sup>8</sup> The Babylonians burned down the royal palace, the temple of the LORD, and the people's homes, and they tore down the wall of Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup> Then Nebuzaradan, the captain of the royal guard, took captive the rest of the people who were left in the city. He carried them off to Babylon along with the people who had deserted to him.

<sup>10</sup> But he left behind in the land of Judah some of the poor people who owned nothing. He gave them fields and vineyards at that time.

<sup>11</sup> Now King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon had issued orders concerning Jeremiah. He had passed them on through Nebuzaradan, the captain of his royal guard,

<sup>12</sup> "Find Jeremiah and look out for him. Do not do anything to harm him, but do with him whatever he tells you."

<sup>13</sup> So Nebuzaradan, the captain of the royal guard, Nebushazban, who was a chief officer, Nergal-Sharezer, who was a high official, and all the other officers of the king of Babylon

<sup>14</sup> sent and had Jeremiah brought from the courtyard of the guardhouse. They turned him over to Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam and the grandson of Shaphan, to take him home with him. But Jeremiah stayed among the people.

Ebed Melech Is Promised Deliverance because of His Faith

<sup>15</sup> Now the LORD had spoken to Jeremiah while he was still confined in the courtyard of the guardhouse, <sup>16</sup> “Go and tell Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, ‘The LORD God of Israel who rules over all says, “I will carry out against this city what I promised. It will mean disaster and not good fortune for it. When that disaster happens, you will be there to see it.

<sup>17</sup> But I will rescue you when it happens. I, the LORD, affirm it! You will not be handed over to those whom you fear.

<sup>18</sup> I will certainly save you. You will not fall victim to violence. You will escape with your life because you trust in me. I, the LORD, affirm it!” ’ ”

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Jeremiah after Nebuzaradan the captain of the royal guard had set him free at Ramah. He had taken him there in chains along with all the people from Jerusalem and Judah who were being carried off to exile to Babylon.

<sup>2</sup> The captain of the royal guard took Jeremiah aside and said to him, “The LORD your God threatened this place with this disaster.

<sup>3</sup> Now he has brought it about. The LORD has done just as he threatened to do. This disaster has happened because you people sinned against the LORD and did not obey him.

<sup>4</sup> But now, Jeremiah, today I will set you free from the chains on your wrists. If you would like to come to Babylon with me, come along and I will take care of you. But if you prefer not to come to Babylon with me, you are not required to do so. You are free to go anywhere in the land you want to go. Go wherever you choose.”

<sup>5</sup> Before Jeremiah could turn to leave, the captain of the guard added, “Go back to Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon appointed to govern the towns of Judah. Go back and live with him among the people. Or go wherever else you choose.” Then the captain of the guard gave Jeremiah some food and a present and let him go.

<sup>6</sup> So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah and lived there with him. He stayed there to live among the people who had been left in the land of Judah.

A Small Judean Province is Established at Mizpah

<sup>7</sup> Now some of the officers of the Judean army and their troops had been hiding in the countryside. They heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam to govern the country. They also heard that he had been put in charge over the men, women, and children from the poorer classes of the land who had not been carried off into exile in Babylon.

<sup>8</sup> So all these officers and their troops came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. The officers who came were Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah son of the Maacathite.

<sup>9</sup> Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan, took an oath so as to give them and their troops some assurance of safety. “Do not be afraid to submit to the Babylonians. Settle down in the land and submit to the king of Babylon. Then things will go well for you.

<sup>10</sup> I for my part will stay at Mizpah to represent you before the Babylonians whenever they come to us. You for your part go ahead and harvest the wine, the dates, the figs, and the olive oil, and store them in jars. Go ahead and settle down in the towns that you have taken over.”

<sup>11</sup> Moreover, all the Judeans who were in Moab, Ammon, Edom, and all the other countries heard what had happened. They heard that the king of Babylon had allowed some people to stay in Judah and that he had appointed Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan, to govern them.

<sup>12</sup> So all these Judeans returned to the land of Judah from the places where they had been scattered. They came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. Thus they harvested a large amount of wine and dates and figs.

Ishmael Murders Gedaliah and Carries the Judeans at Mizpah off as Capt

<sup>13</sup> Johanan and all the officers of the troops that had been hiding in the open country came to Gedaliah at Mizpah.

<sup>14</sup> They said to him, "Are you at all aware that King Baalis of Ammon has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to kill you?" But Gedaliah son of Ahikam would not believe them.

<sup>15</sup> Then Johanan son of Kareah spoke privately to Gedaliah there at Mizpah, "Let me go and kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah before anyone knows about it. Otherwise he will kill you and all the Judeans who have rallied around you will be scattered. Then what remains of Judah will disappear."

<sup>16</sup> But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, "Do not do that because what you are saying about Ishmael is not true."

41

<sup>1</sup> But in the seventh month Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah and grandson of Elishama who was a member of the royal family and had been one of Zedekiah's chief officers, came with ten of his men to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah. While they were eating a meal together with him there at Mizpah, <sup>2</sup> Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the ten men who were with him stood up, pulled out their swords, and killed Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan. Thus Ishmael killed the man that the king of Babylon had appointed to govern the country.

<sup>3</sup> Ishmael also killed all the Judeans who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah and the Babylonian soldiers who happened to be there.

<sup>4</sup> On the day after Gedaliah had been murdered, before anyone even knew about it,

<sup>6</sup> Ishmael son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them. He was pretending to cry as he walked along. When he met them, he said to them, "Come with me to meet Gedaliah son of Ahikam."

<sup>7</sup> But as soon as they were inside the city, Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the men who were with him slaughtered them and threw their bodies in a cistern.

<sup>8</sup> But there were ten men among them who said to Ishmael, "Do not kill us. For we will give you the stores of wheat, barley, olive oil, and honey we have hidden in a field. So he spared their lives and did not kill them along with the rest.

<sup>9</sup> Now the cistern where Ishmael threw all the dead bodies of those he had killed was a large one that King Asa had constructed as part of his defenses against King Baasha of Israel. Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled it with dead bodies.

<sup>10</sup> Then Ishmael took captive all the people who were still left alive in Mizpah. This included the royal princesses and all the rest of the people in Mizpah that Nebuzaradan, the captain of the royal guard, had put under the authority of Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Ishmael son of Nethaniah took all these people captive and set out to cross over to the Ammonites.

Johanan Rescues the People Ishmael Had Carried Off

<sup>11</sup> Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers who were with him heard about all the atrocities that Ishmael son of Nethaniah had committed.

<sup>12</sup> So they took all their troops and went to fight against Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They caught up with him near the large pool at Gibeon.

<sup>13</sup> When all the people that Ishmael had taken captive saw Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers with him, they were glad.

<sup>14</sup> All those people that Ishmael had taken captive from Mizpah turned and went over to Johanan son of Kareah.

<sup>15</sup> But Ishmael son of Nethaniah managed to escape from Johanan along with eight of his men, and he went on over to Ammon.

<sup>16</sup> Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers who were with him led off all the people who had been left alive at Mizpah. They had rescued them from Ishmael son of Nethaniah after he killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam. They led off the men, women, children, soldiers, and court officials whom they had brought away from Gibeon.

<sup>18</sup> They were afraid of what the Babylonians might do because Ishmael son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had appointed to govern the country.

42

<sup>1</sup> Then all the army officers, including Johanan son of Kareah and Jezaniah son of Hoshaiah and all the people of every class, went to the prophet Jeremiah.

<sup>2</sup> They said to him, "Please grant our request and pray to the LORD your God for all those of us who are still left alive here. For, as you yourself can see, there are only a few of us left out of the many there were before.

<sup>3</sup> Pray that the LORD | strong="H3069" your God will tell us where we should go and what we should do."

<sup>4</sup> The prophet Jeremiah answered them, "Agreed! I will indeed pray to the LORD your God as you have asked. I will tell you everything the LORD replies in response to you. I will not keep anything back from you."

<sup>5</sup> They answered Jeremiah, "May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us if we do not do just as the LORD sends you to tell us to do.

<sup>6</sup> We will obey what the LORD our God to whom we are sending you tells us to do. It does not matter whether we like what he tells us or not. We will obey what he tells us to do so that things will go well for us."

<sup>8</sup> So Jeremiah summoned Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers who were with him and all the people of every class.

<sup>9</sup> Then Jeremiah said to them, "You sent me to the LORD God of Israel to make your request known to him. Here is what he says to you:

<sup>10</sup> 'If you will just stay in this land, I will build you up. I will not tear you down. I will firmly plant you. I will not uproot you. For I am filled with sorrow because of the disaster that I have brought on you.

<sup>11</sup> Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon whom you now fear. Do not be afraid of him because I will be with you to save you and to rescue you from his power. I, the LORD, affirm it!

<sup>12</sup> I will have compassion on you so that he in turn will have mercy on you and allow you to return to your land.'

<sup>14</sup> You must not say, 'No, we will not stay. Instead we will go and live in the land of Egypt where we will not face war, or hear the enemy's trumpet calls, or starve for lack of food.'

<sup>15</sup> If you people who remain in Judah do that, then listen to what the LORD says. The LORD God of Israel who rules over all says, 'If you are so determined to go to Egypt that you go and settle there, <sup>16</sup> the wars you fear will catch up with you there in the land of Egypt. The starvation you are worried about will follow you there to Egypt. You will die there.

<sup>17</sup> All the people who are determined to go and settle in Egypt will die from war, starvation, or disease. No one will survive or escape the disaster I will bring on them.'

<sup>18</sup> For the LORD God of Israel who rules over all says, 'If you go to Egypt, I will pour out my wrath on you just as I poured out my anger and wrath on the citizens of Jerusalem. You will become an object of horror and ridicule, an example of those who have been cursed and that people use in pronouncing a curse. You will never see this place again.'

<sup>19</sup> "The LORD has told you people who remain in Judah, 'Do not go to Egypt.' Be very sure of this: I warn you here and now.

<sup>20</sup> You are making a fatal mistake. For you sent me to the LORD your God and asked me, 'Pray to the LORD our God for us. Tell us what the LORD our God says and we will do it.'

<sup>21</sup> This day I have told you what he said. But you do not want to obey the LORD by doing what he sent me to tell you.

<sup>22</sup> So now be very sure of this: You will die from war, starvation, or disease in the place where you want to go and live."

43

<sup>2</sup> Then Azariah son of Hoshaiiah, Johanan son of Kareah, and other arrogant men said to Jeremiah, "You are telling a lie! The LORD our God did not send you to tell us, 'You must not go to Egypt and settle there.'

<sup>3</sup> But Baruch son of Neriah is stirring you up against us. He wants to hand us over to the Babylonians so that they will kill us or carry us off into exile in Babylon."

<sup>4</sup> So Johanan son of Kareah, all the army officers, and all the rest of the people did not obey the LORD's command to stay in the land.

<sup>5</sup> Instead Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers led off all the Judean remnant who had come back to live in the land of Judah from all the nations where they had been scattered.

<sup>6</sup> They also led off all the men, women, children, and royal princesses that Nebuzaradan, the captain of the royal guard, had left with Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan. This included the prophet Jeremiah and Baruch son of Neriah.

<sup>7</sup> They went on to Egypt because they refused to obey the LORD, and came to Tahpanhes.

Jeremiah Predicts that Nebuchadnezzar Will Plunder Egypt and Its Gods

<sup>9</sup> "Take some large stones and bury them in the mortar of the clay pavement at the entrance of Pharaoh's residence here in Tahpanhes. Do it while the people of Judah present there are watching.

<sup>10</sup> Then tell them, 'The LORD God of Israel who rules over all says, "I will bring my servant King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. I will set his throne over these stones which I have buried. He will pitch his royal tent over them.

<sup>11</sup> He will come and attack Egypt. Those who are destined to die of disease will die of disease. Those who are destined to be carried off into exile will be carried off into exile. Those who are destined to die in war will die in war.

<sup>12</sup> He will set fire to the temples of the gods of Egypt. He will burn their gods or carry them off as captives. He will pick Egypt clean like a shepherd picks the lice from his clothing. He will leave there unharmed.

<sup>13</sup> He will demolish the sacred pillars in the temple of the sun in Egypt and will burn down the temples of the gods of Egypt.” ’ ’ ”

44

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke | strong="H1697" to Jeremiah concerning all the Judeans who were living in the land of Egypt, those in Migdol, Tahpanhes, Memphis, and in the region of southern Egypt.

<sup>2</sup> “The LORD God of Israel who rules over all says, ‘You have seen all the disaster I brought on Jerusalem and all the towns of Judah. Indeed, they now lie in ruins and are deserted.

<sup>3</sup> This happened because of the wickedness the people living there did. They made me angry by worshiping and offering sacrifice to other gods whom neither they nor you nor your ancestors previously knew.

<sup>4</sup> I sent my servants the prophets to you people over and over again warning you not to do this disgusting thing I hate.

<sup>5</sup> But the people of Jerusalem and Judah would not listen or pay any attention. They would not stop the wickedness they were doing nor quit sacrificing to other gods.

<sup>6</sup> So my anger and my wrath were poured out and burned like a fire through the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem. That is why they have become the desolate ruins that they are today.’

<sup>7</sup> “So now the LORD, the God who rules over all, the God of Israel, asks, ‘Why will you do such great harm to yourselves? Why should every man, woman, child, and baby of yours be destroyed from the midst of Judah? Why should you leave yourselves without a remnant?

<sup>8</sup> That is what will result from your making me angry by what you are doing. You are making me angry by sacrificing to other gods here in the land of Egypt where you live. You will be destroyed for doing that! You will become an example used in curses and an object of ridicule among all the nations of the earth.

<sup>9</sup> Have you forgotten all the wicked things that have been done in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem by your ancestors, by the kings of Judah and their wives, by you and your wives?

<sup>10</sup> To this day your people have shown no contrition! They have not revered me nor followed the laws and statutes I commanded you and your ancestors.’

<sup>11</sup> “Because of this, the LORD God of Israel who rules over all says, ‘I am determined to bring disaster on you, even to the point of destroying all the Judeans here.

<sup>12</sup> I will see to it that all the Judean remnant that was determined to go and live in the land of Egypt will be destroyed. Here in the land of Egypt they will fall in battle or perish from starvation. People of every class will die in war or from starvation. They will become an object of horror and ridicule, an example of those who have been cursed and that people use in pronouncing a curse.

<sup>13</sup> I will punish those who live in the land of Egypt with war, starvation, and disease just as I punished Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup> None of the Judean remnant who have come to live in the land of Egypt will escape or survive to return to the land of Judah. Though they long to return and live there, none of them shall return except a few fugitives.’ ”

<sup>15</sup> Then all the men who were aware that their wives were sacrificing to other gods, as well as all their wives, answered Jeremiah. There was a great crowd of them representing all the people who lived in northern and southern Egypt. They answered, <sup>16</sup> “We will not listen to what you claim the LORD has spoken to us!

<sup>17</sup> Instead we will do everything we vowed we would do. We will sacrifice and pour out drink offerings to the goddess called the Queen of Heaven just as we and our ancestors, our kings, and our leaders previously did in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. For then we had plenty of food, were well-off, and had no troubles.

<sup>18</sup> But ever since we stopped sacrificing and pouring out drink offerings to the Queen of Heaven, we have been in great need. Our people have died in wars or of starvation.”

<sup>19</sup> The women added, “We did indeed sacrifice and pour out drink offerings to the Queen of Heaven. But it was with the full knowledge and approval of our husbands that we made cakes in her image and poured out drink offerings to her.”

<sup>20</sup> Then Jeremiah replied to all the people, both men and women, who responded to him in this way.

<sup>21</sup> “The LORD did indeed remember and call to mind what you did! He remembered the sacrifices you and your ancestors, your kings, your leaders, and all the rest of the people of the land offered to other gods in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem.

<sup>22</sup> Finally the LORD could no longer endure your wicked deeds and the disgusting things you did. That is why your land has become the desolate, uninhabited ruin that it is today. That is why it has become a proverbial example used in curses.

<sup>23</sup> You have sacrificed to other gods! You have sinned against the LORD| strong="H3069"! You have not obeyed the LORD| strong="H3069"! You have not followed his laws, his statutes, and his decrees! That is why this disaster that is evident to this day has happened to you.”

<sup>24</sup> Then Jeremiah spoke to all the people, particularly to all the women. “Listen to what the LORD has to say all you people of Judah who are in Egypt.

<sup>25</sup> The LORD God of Israel who rules over all says, ‘You women have confirmed by your actions what you vowed with your lips! You said, “We will certainly carry out our vows to sacrifice and pour out drink offerings to the Queen of Heaven.” Well, then fulfill your vows! Carry them out!’

<sup>26</sup> But listen to what the LORD has to say, all you people of Judah who are living in the land of Egypt. The LORD says, ‘I hereby swear by my own great name that none of the people of Judah who are living anywhere in Egypt will ever again invoke my name in their oaths! Never again will any of them use it in an oath saying, “As surely as the Lord God lives....”’

<sup>27</sup> I will indeed see to it that disaster, not prosperity, happens to them. All the people of Judah who are in the land of Egypt will die in war or from starvation until not one of them is left.

<sup>28</sup> Some who survive in battle will return to the land of Judah from the land of Egypt. But they will be very few indeed! Then the Judean remnant who have come to live in the land of Egypt will know whose word proves true, mine or theirs.’

<sup>29</sup> Moreover the LORD says, ‘I will make something happen to prove that I will punish you in this place. I will do it so that you will know that my threats to bring disaster on you will prove true.

<sup>30</sup> I, the LORD, promise that I will hand Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt over to his enemies who are seeking to kill him. I will do that just as surely as I handed King Zedekiah of Judah over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, his enemy who was seeking to kill him.’ ”

45

<sup>1</sup> The prophet Jeremiah spoke to Baruch son of Neriah while he was writing down in a scroll the words that Jeremiah spoke to him. This happened in the fourth year that Jehoiakim son of Josiah was ruling over Judah.

<sup>2</sup> “The LORD God of Israel has a message for you, Baruch.

<sup>3</sup> ‘You have said, “I feel so hopeless! For the LORD has added sorrow to my suffering. I am worn out from groaning. I can’t find any rest.” ’ ’ ”

<sup>4</sup> The LORD told | strong="H0559" Jeremiah, “Tell Baruch, ‘The LORD says, “I am about to tear down what I have built and to uproot what I have planted. I will do this throughout the whole earth.

<sup>5</sup> Are you looking for great things for yourself? Do not look for such things. For I, the LORD | strong="H3069", affirm that I am about to bring disaster on all humanity. But I will allow you to escape with your life wherever you go.” ’ ’ ”

46

The Prophecy about Egypt's Defeat at Carchemish

<sup>2</sup> He spoke about Egypt and the army of Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt which was encamped along the Euphrates River at Carchemish. Now this was the army that King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon defeated in the fourth year that Jehoiakim son of Josiah was ruling over Judah.

<sup>3</sup> “Fall into ranks with your shields ready!

Prepare to march into battle!

Mount your horses!

Put on your helmets and take your positions!

Sharpen you spears!

Put on your armor!

<sup>5</sup> What do I see?” says the LORD.

“The soldiers are terrified.

They are retreating.

They have been defeated.

They are overcome with terror;

they desert quickly without looking back.

<sup>6</sup> But even the swiftest cannot get away.

Even the strongest cannot escape.

There in the north by the Euphrates River they stumble and fall in defeat.

<sup>7</sup> “Who is this that rises like the Nile, like its streams turbulent at flood stage?

<sup>8</sup> Egypt rises like the Nile,
like its streams turbulent at flood stage.

Egypt says, ‘I will arise and cover the earth.

I will destroy cities and the people who inhabit them.’

<sup>9</sup> Go ahead and charge into battle, you horsemen!

Drive furiously, you charioteers!

Let the soldiers march out into battle,
those from Ethiopia and Libya who carry shields, and those from Lydia who are armed with the bow.

<sup>10</sup> But that day belongs to the Lord God who rules over all.

It is the day when he will pay back his enemies.

His sword will devour them until its appetite is satisfied!

It will drink their blood until it is full!

For the Lord GOD who rules over all will offer them up as a sacrifice in the land of the north by the Euphrates River.

<sup>11</sup> Go up to Gilead and get medicinal ointment, you dear poor people of Egypt. But it will prove useless no matter how much medicine you use; there will be no healing for you.

<sup>12</sup> The nations will hear of your devastating defeat. your cries of distress will echo throughout the earth. In the panic of their flight one soldier will trip over another and both of them will fall down defeated.”

The Lord Predicts that Nebuchadnezzar Will Attack and Plunder Egypt

<sup>13</sup> The LORD spoke to the prophet Jeremiah about Nebuchadnezzar coming to attack the land of Egypt.

<sup>14</sup> “Make an announcement throughout Egypt. Proclaim it in Migdol, Memphis, and Tahpanhes. ‘Take your positions and prepare to do battle. For the enemy army is destroying all the nations around you.’

<sup>15</sup> Why will your soldiers be defeated? They will not stand because I, the LORD, will thrust them down.

<sup>16</sup> I will make many stumble. They will fall over one another in their hurry to flee. They will say, ‘Get up!

Let’s go back to our own people. Let’s go back to our homelands because the enemy is coming to destroy us.’

<sup>17</sup> There at home they will say, ‘Pharaoh king of Egypt is just a big noise! He has let the most opportune moment pass by.’

<sup>18</sup> I the King, whose name is the LORD who rules over all, swear this: I swear as surely as I live that a conqueror is coming. He will be as imposing as Mount Tabor is among the mountains, as Mount Carmel is against the backdrop of the sea.

<sup>19</sup> Pack your bags for exile, you inhabitants of poor dear Egypt. For Memphis will be laid waste. It will lie in ruins and be uninhabited.

<sup>20</sup> Egypt is like a beautiful young cow. But northern armies will attack her like swarms of stinging flies.

<sup>21</sup> Even her mercenaries will prove to be like pampered, well-fed calves. For they too will turn and run away. They will not stand their ground when the time for them to be destroyed comes, the time for them to be punished.

<sup>22</sup> Egypt will run away, hissing like a snake, as the enemy comes marching up in force. They will come against her with axes as if they were woodsmen chopping down trees.

<sup>23</sup> The population of Egypt is like a vast, impenetrable forest. But I, the LORD, affirm that the enemy will cut them down. For those who chop them down will be more numerous than locusts.

They will be too numerous to count.

<sup>24</sup> Poor dear Egypt will be put to shame.

She will be handed over to the people from the north.”

<sup>25</sup> The LORD God of Israel who rules over all says, “I will punish Amon, the god of Thebes. I will punish Egypt, its gods, and its kings. I will punish Pharaoh and all who trust in him.

<sup>26</sup> I will hand them over to Nebuchadnezzar and his troops, who want to kill them. But later on, people will live in Egypt again as they did in former times. I, the LORD, affirm it!”

A Promise of Hope for Israel

<sup>27</sup> “You descendants of Jacob, my servants, do not be afraid;

do not be terrified, people of Israel.

For I will rescue you and your descendants from the faraway lands where you are captives.

The descendants of Jacob will return to their land and enjoy peace.

They will be secure and no one will terrify them.

<sup>28</sup> I, the LORD, tell you not to be afraid, you descendants of Jacob, my servant,
for I am with you.

Though I completely destroy all the nations where I scatter you,

I will not completely destroy you.

I will indeed discipline you but only in due measure.

I will not allow you to go entirely unpunished.”

47

They will be like an overflowing stream.

They will overwhelm the whole country and everything in it like a flood.

They will overwhelm the cities and their inhabitants.

People will cry out in alarm.

Everyone living in the country will cry out in pain.

<sup>3</sup> Fathers will hear the hoofbeats of the enemies’ horses, the clatter of their chariots and the rumbling of their wheels.

They will not turn back to save their children because they will be paralyzed with fear.

<sup>4</sup> For the time has come to destroy all the Philistines.

The time has come to destroy all the help that remains for Tyre

For I, the LORD, will destroy the Philistines, that remnant that came from the island of Crete.

<sup>5</sup> The people of Gaza will shave their heads in mourning.

The people of Ashkelon will be struck dumb.

How long will you gash yourselves to show your sorrow, you who remain of Philistia’s power?

<sup>6</sup> How long will you cry out, ‘Oh, sword of the LORD | strong=“H3069”, how long will it be before you stop killing?

Go back into your sheath!

Stay there and rest!’

<sup>7</sup> But how can it rest when I, the LORD, have given it orders?
I have ordered it to attack
the people of Ashkelon and the seacoast.

48

<sup>1</sup> The LORD God of Israel who rules over all spoke about Moab.
“Sure to be judged is Nebo! Indeed, it will be destroyed!
Kiriathaim will suffer disgrace. It will be captured!
Its fortress will suffer disgrace. It will be torn down!

<sup>2</sup> People will not praise Moab any more.
The enemy will capture Heshbon and plot how to destroy Moab, saying, ‘Come, let’s put an end to that nation!’
City of Madmen, you will also be destroyed.
A destructive army will march against you.

<sup>3</sup> Cries of anguish will arise in Horonaim,
‘Oh, the ruin and great destruction!’

<sup>4</sup> “Moab will be crushed.
Her children will cry out in distress.

<sup>5</sup> Indeed they will climb the slopes of Luhith, weeping continually as they go.
For on the road down to Horonaim they will hear the cries of distress over the destruction.

Even if you must be like a lonely shrub in the desert!’

<sup>7</sup> “Moab, you trust in the things you do and in your riches.
So you too will be conquered.
Your god Chemosh will go into exile along with his priests and his officials.

<sup>8</sup> The destroyer will come against every town.
Not one town will escape.
The towns in the valley will be destroyed.
The cities on the high plain will be laid waste.
I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>9</sup> Set up a gravestone for Moab, for it will certainly be laid in ruins!
Its cities will be laid waste and become uninhabited.”

<sup>10</sup> A curse on anyone who is lax in doing the LORD’s work!
A curse on anyone who keeps from carrying out his destruction!

<sup>11</sup> “From its earliest days Moab has lived undisturbed.
It has never been taken into exile.
Its people are like wine allowed to settle undisturbed on its dregs, never poured out from one jar to another.
They are like wine which tastes like it always did,
whose aroma has remained unchanged.

<sup>12</sup> But the time is coming when I will send men against Moab who will empty it out.
They will empty the towns of their people, then will lay those towns in ruins.
I, the LORD, affirm it!

<sup>13</sup> The people of Moab will be disappointed by their god Chemosh.

They will be as disappointed as the people of Israel were when they put their trust in the calf god at Bethel.

<sup>15</sup> Moab will be destroyed. Its towns will be invaded. Its finest young men will be slaughtered.

I, the King, the LORD who rules over all, affirm it!

<sup>16</sup> Moab's destruction is at hand.

Disaster will come on it quickly.

<sup>17</sup> Mourn for that nation, all you nations living around it, all of you nations that know of its fame.

Mourn and say, 'Alas, its powerful influence has been broken! Its glory and power have been done away!'

<sup>18</sup> Come down from your place of honor; sit on the dry ground, you who live in Dibon. For the one who will destroy Moab will attack you; he will destroy your fortifications.

Question the man who is fleeing and the woman who is escaping. Ask them, 'What has happened?'

<sup>20</sup> They will answer, 'Moab is disgraced, for it has fallen!'

Wail and cry out in mourning!

Announce along the Arnon River that Moab has been destroyed.'

<sup>24</sup> on Kerioth and Bozrah. It will come on all the towns of Moab, both far and near.

<sup>25</sup> Moab's might will be crushed. Its power will be broken. I, the LORD, affirm it!

So make him drunk with the wine of my wrath until he splashes around in his own vomit, until others treat him as a laughingstock.

<sup>27</sup> For did not you people of Moab laugh at the people of Israel? Did you think that they were nothing but thieves, that you shook your head in contempt every time you talked about them?

Go and live in the cliffs.

Be like a dove that makes its nest high on the sides of a ravine.

<sup>29</sup> I have heard how proud the people of Moab are, I know how haughty they are.

I have heard how arrogant, proud, and haughty they are, what a high opinion they have of themselves.

<sup>30</sup> I, the LORD, affirm that I know how arrogant they are.

But their pride is ill-founded.

Their boastings will prove to be false.

<sup>31</sup> So I will weep with sorrow for Moab.

I will cry out in sadness for all of Moab.

I will moan for the people of Kir Heres.

<sup>32</sup> I will weep for the grapevines of Sibmah just like the town of Jazer weeps over them.

Their branches once spread as far as the Dead Sea.

They reached as far as the town of Jazer.

The destroyer will ravage her fig, date, and grape crops.

<sup>33</sup> Joy and gladness will disappear from the fruitful land of Moab.

I will stop the flow of wine from the winepresses.

No one will stomp on the grapes there and shout for joy.

The shouts there will be shouts of soldiers, not the shouts of those making wine.

<sup>34</sup> Cries of anguish raised from Heshbon and Elealeh will be sounded as far as Jahaz.

They will be sounded from Zoar as far as Horonaim and Eglath Shelishiyah.

For even the waters of Nimrim will be dried up.

<sup>35</sup> I will put an end in Moab to those who make offerings at her places of worship.

I will put an end to those who sacrifice to other gods.

I, the LORD, affirm it!

<sup>36</sup> So my heart moans for Moab like a flute playing a funeral song.

Yes, like a flute playing a funeral song,

my heart moans for the people of Kir Heres.

For the wealth they have gained will perish.

<sup>37</sup> For all of them will shave their heads in mourning.

They will all cut off their beards to show their sorrow.

They will all make gashes in their hands.

They will all put on sackcloth.

<sup>38</sup> On all the housetops in Moab and in all its public squares

there will be nothing but mourning.

For I will break Moab like an unwanted jar.

I, the LORD, affirm it!

<sup>39</sup> Oh, how shattered Moab will be!

Oh, how her people will wail!

Oh, how she will turn away in shame!

Moab will become an object of ridicule, a terrifying sight to all the nations that surround her.”

<sup>40</sup> For the LORD says,

“Look! Like an eagle with outspread wings a nation will swoop down on Moab.

<sup>41</sup> Her towns will be captured.

Her fortresses will be taken.

At that time the soldiers of Moab will be frightened like a woman in labor.

<sup>42</sup> Moab will be destroyed and no longer be a nation, because she has vaunted herself against the LORD.

<sup>43</sup> Terror, pits, and traps are in store for the people who live in Moab.

I, the LORD, affirm it!

<sup>44</sup> Anyone who flees at the sound of terror will fall into a pit.

Anyone who climbs out of the pit will be caught in a trap.

For the time is coming when I will punish the people of Moab.

I, the LORD, affirm it!

<sup>45</sup> In the shadows of the walls of Heshbon those trying to escape will stand helpless.

For a fire will burst forth from Heshbon.

Flames will shoot out from the former territory of Sihon.

They will burn the foreheads of the people of Moab, the skulls of those war-loving people.

<sup>46</sup> Moab, you are doomed!

You people who worship Chemosh will be destroyed.

Your sons will be taken away captive.

Your daughters will be carried away into exile.

<sup>47</sup> Yet in days to come

I will reverse Moab's ill fortune."
says the LORD.

The judgment against Moab ends here.

49

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke about the Ammonites.

"Do you think there are not any people of the nation of Israel remaining?

Do you think there are not any of them remaining to reinherit their land?

Is that why you people who worship the god Milcom have taken possession of the territory of Gad and live in his cities?

<sup>2</sup> Because you did that,

I, the LORD, affirm that a time is coming when I will make Rabbah, the capital city of Ammon, hear the sound of the battle cry.

It will become a mound covered with ruins.

Its villages will be burned to the ground.

Then Israel will take back its land from those who took their land from them.

I, the Lord, affirm it!

<sup>3</sup> Wail, you people in Heshbon, because Ai in Ammon is destroyed.

Cry out in anguish, you people in the villages surrounding Rabbah.

Put on sackcloth and cry out in mourning.

Run about covered with gashes.

For your god Milcom will go into exile along with his priests and officials.

<sup>4</sup> Why do you brag about your great power?

Your power is ebbing away, you rebellious people of Ammon, who trust in your riches and say,

'Who would dare to attack us?'

<sup>5</sup> I will bring terror on you from every side," says the Lord God who rules over all.

"You will be scattered in every direction.

No one will gather the fugitives back together.

<sup>6</sup> Yet in days to come

I will reverse Ammon's ill fortune."
says the LORD.

Judgment Against Edom

<sup>7</sup> The LORD who rules over all spoke about Edom.

"Is wisdom no longer to be found in Teman?

Can Edom's counselors not give her any good advice?

Has all of their wisdom turned bad?

<sup>8</sup> Turn and flee! Take up refuge in remote places, you people who live in Dedan.

For I will bring disaster on the descendants of Esau.

I have decided it is time for me to punish them.

<sup>9</sup> If grape pickers came to pick your grapes, would they not leave a few grapes behind?

If robbers came at night,
would they not pillage only what they needed?

<sup>10</sup> But I will strip everything away from Esau's descendants.

I will uncover their hiding places so they cannot hide.

Their children, relatives, and neighbors will all be destroyed.

Not one of them will be left!

Your widows too can depend on me."

<sup>12</sup> For the LORD says, "If even those who did not deserve to drink from the cup of my wrath must drink from it, do you think you will go unpunished? You will not go unpunished, but must certainly drink from the cup of my wrath.

<sup>13</sup> For I solemnly swear," says the LORD, "that Bozrah will become a pile of ruins. It will become an object of horror and ridicule, an example to be used in curses. All the towns around it will lie in ruins forever."

<sup>14</sup> I said, "I have heard a message from the LORD.

A messenger has been sent among the nations to say,

'Gather your armies and march out against her!

Prepare to do battle with her!' "

<sup>15</sup> The LORD says to Edom, | strong="H2009"

"I will certainly make you small among nations.

I will make you despised by all humankind.

<sup>16</sup> The terror you inspire in others and the arrogance of your heart have deceived you.

You may make your home in the clefts of the rocks;

you may occupy the highest places in the hills.

But even if you made your home where the eagles nest,

I would bring you down from there,"

says the LORD.

<sup>17</sup> "Edom will become an object of horror.

All who pass by it will be filled with horror;

they will hiss out their scorn

because of all the disasters that have happened to it.

<sup>18</sup> Edom will be destroyed like Sodom and Gomorrah and the towns that were around them.

No one will live there.

No human being will settle in it,"

says the LORD.

<sup>19</sup> “A lion coming up from the thick undergrowth along the Jordan scatters the sheep in the pastureland around it. So too I will chase the Edomites off their land. Then I will appoint over it whomever I choose. For there is no one like me, and there is no one who can call me to account. There is no ruler who can stand up against me.

<sup>20</sup> So listen to what I, the LORD, have planned against Edom, what I intend to do to the people who live in Teman. Their little ones will be dragged off. I will completely destroy their land because of what they have done.
<sup>21</sup> The people of the earth will quake when they hear of their downfall. Their cries of anguish will be heard all the way to the Gulf of Aqaba.

<sup>22</sup> Look! Like an eagle with outspread wings, a nation will soar up and swoop down on Bozrah. At that time the soldiers of Edom will be as fearful as a woman in labor.”

Judgment Against Damascus

<sup>23</sup> The LORD spoke about Damascus |strong="H1834". “The people of Hamath and Arpad will be dismayed because they have heard bad news. Their courage will melt away because of worry. Their hearts will not be able to rest.
<sup>24</sup> The people of Damascus will lose heart and turn to flee. Panic will grip them. Pain and anguish will seize them like a woman in labor.
<sup>25</sup> How deserted will that once-famous city be, that city that was once filled with joy!
<sup>26</sup> For her young men will fall in her city squares. All her soldiers will be destroyed at that time,” says the LORD who rules over all.
<sup>27</sup> “I will set fire to the walls of Damascus; it will burn up the palaces of Ben Hadad.”

Judgment Against Kedar and Hazor

<sup>28</sup> The LORD spoke about Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor that King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon conquered. “Army of Babylon, go and attack Kedar. Lay waste those who live in the eastern desert.
<sup>29</sup> Their tents and their flocks will be taken away. Their tent curtains, equipment, and camels will be carried off. People will shout to them, ‘Terror is all around you!’ ”
<sup>30</sup> The LORD says, “Flee quickly, you who live in Hazor. Take up refuge in remote places. For King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon has laid out plans to attack you. He has formed his strategy on how to defeat you.”
<sup>31</sup> The LORD says, “Army of Babylon, go and attack a nation that lives in peace and security. They have no gates or walls to protect them.

They live all alone.

<sup>32</sup> Their camels will be taken as plunder.

Their vast herds will be taken as spoil.

I will scatter to the four winds those desert peoples who cut their hair short at the temples.

I will bring disaster against them from every direction," says the LORD.

<sup>33</sup> "Hazor will become a permanent wasteland, a place where only jackals live.

No one will live there.

No human being will settle in it."

Judgment Against Elam

<sup>34</sup> Early in the reign of King Zedekiah of Judah, the LORD spoke to the prophet Jeremiah about Elam.

<sup>35</sup> The LORD who rules over all said,

"I will kill all the archers of Elam, who are the chief source of her military might.

<sup>36</sup> I will cause enemies to blow through Elam from every direction like the winds blowing in from the four quarters of heaven.

I will scatter the people of Elam to the four winds.

There will not be any nation where the refugees of Elam will not go.

<sup>37</sup> I will make the people of Elam terrified of their enemies, who are seeking to kill them.

I will vent my fierce anger and bring disaster upon them," says the LORD.

"I will send armies chasing after them until I have completely destroyed them.

<sup>38</sup> I will establish my sovereignty over Elam.

I will destroy their king and their leaders," says the LORD.

<sup>39</sup> "Yet in days to come

I will reverse Elam's ill fortune."

says the LORD.

50

<sup>2</sup> "Announce the news among the nations! Proclaim it!

Signal for people to pay attention!

Declare the news! Do not hide it! Say:

'Babylon will be captured.

Bel will be put to shame.

Marduk will be dismayed.

Babylon's idols will be put to shame.

Her disgusting images will be dismayed.

<sup>3</sup> For a nation from the north will attack Babylon.

It will lay her land waste.

People and animals will flee out of it.

No one will inhabit it.'

<sup>4</sup> "When that time comes," says the LORD |strong="H3069",

"the people of Israel and Judah will return to the land together.

They will come back with tears of repentance

as they seek the LORD | strong="H3069" their God.

<sup>5</sup> They will ask the way to Zion;

they will turn their faces toward it.

They will come and bind themselves to the LORD in a lasting covenant that will never be forgotten.

<sup>6</sup> "My people have been lost sheep.

Their shepherds have allowed them to go astray.

They have wandered around in the mountains.

They have roamed from one mountain and hill to another.

They have forgotten their resting place.

<sup>7</sup> All who encountered them devoured them.

Their enemies who did this said, 'We are not liable for punishment!

For those people have sinned against the LORD, their true pasture.

They have sinned against the LORD in whom their ancestors trusted.'

Leave the land of Babylonia!

Be the first to depart!

Be like the male goats that lead the herd.

<sup>9</sup> For I will rouse into action and bring against Babylon a host of mighty nations from the land of the north.

They will set up their battle lines against her.

They will come from the north and capture her.

Their arrows will be like a skilled soldier who does not return from the battle empty-handed.

<sup>10</sup> Babylonia will be plundered.

Those who plunder it will take all they want,"
says the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> "People of Babylonia, you plundered my people.

That made you happy and glad.

You frolic about like calves in a pasture.

Your joyous sounds are like the neighs of a stallion.

<sup>12</sup> But Babylonia will be put to great shame.

The land where you were born will be disgraced.

Indeed, Babylonia will become the least important of all nations.

It will become a dry and barren desert.

<sup>13</sup> After I vent my wrath on it Babylon will be uninhabited.

It will be totally desolate.

All who pass by will be filled with horror and will hiss out their scorn because of all the disasters that have happened to it.

<sup>14</sup> "Take up your battle positions all around Babylon, all you soldiers who are armed with bows.

Shoot all your arrows at her! Do not hold any back!

For she has sinned against the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> Shout the battle cry from all around the city.

She will throw up her hands in surrender.

Her towers will fall.

Her walls will be torn down.

Because I, the LORD, am wreaking revenge, take out your vengeance on her!

Do to her as she has done!

<sup>16</sup> Kill all the farmers who sow the seed in the land of Babylon.

Kill all those who wield the sickle at harvest time.
Let all the foreigners return to their own people.
Let them hurry back to their own lands to escape destruction by that enemy army.

<sup>17</sup> “The people of Israel are like scattered sheep which lions have chased away.

First the king of Assyria devoured them.

Now last of all King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon has gnawed their bones.

<sup>18</sup> So I, the LORD God of Israel who rules over all, say:

‘I will punish the king of Babylon and his land just as I punished the king of Assyria.

<sup>19</sup> But I will restore the flock of Israel to their own pasture.

They will graze on Mount Carmel and the land of Bashan.

They will eat until they are full on the hills of Ephraim and the land of Gilead.

<sup>20</sup> When that time comes, no guilt will be found in Israel.

No sin will be found in Judah.

For I will forgive those of them I have allowed to survive.

I, the LORD, affirm it!’ ”

<sup>21</sup> The LORD says,

“Attack the land of Merathaim and the people who live in Pekod!

Pursue, kill, and completely destroy them!

Do just as I have commanded you!

<sup>22</sup> The noise of battle can be heard in the land of Babylonia.

There is the sound of great destruction.

<sup>23</sup> Babylon hammered the whole world to pieces.

But see how that ‘hammer’ has been broken and shattered!

See what an object of horror

Babylon has become among the nations!

<sup>24</sup> I set a trap for you, Babylon;

you were caught before you knew it.

You fought against me.

So you were found and captured.

<sup>25</sup> I have opened up the place where my weapons are stored.

I have brought out the weapons for carrying out my wrath.

For I, the Lord God who rules over all, have work to carry out in the land of Babylonia.

<sup>26</sup> Come from far away and attack Babylonia!

Open up the places where she stores her grain!

Pile her up in ruins! Destroy her completely!

Do not leave anyone alive!

<sup>27</sup> Kill all her soldiers!

Let them be slaughtered!

They are doomed, for their day of reckoning has come,

the time for them to be punished.”

They are coming to Zion to declare there how the LORD our God is getting revenge, getting revenge for what they have done to his temple.

29 “Call for archers to come against Babylon!
Summon against her all who draw the bow!
Set up camp all around the city!
Do not allow anyone to escape!
Pay her back for what she has done.
Do to her what she has done to others.
For she has proudly defied me,
the Holy One of Israel.

30 So her young men will fall in her city squares.
All her soldiers will be destroyed at that time,”
says the LORD.

31 “Listen! I am opposed to you, you proud city,” says the Lord GOD who rules over all.
“Indeed, your day of reckoning has come,
the time when I will punish you.

32 You will stumble and fall, you proud city;
no one will help you get up.
I will set fire to your towns;
it will burn up everything that surrounds you.”

33 The LORD who rules over all says,
“The people of Israel are oppressed.
So too are the people of Judah.
All those who took them captive are holding them prisoners.
They refuse to set them free.

34 But the one who will rescue them is strong.
He is known as the LORD who rules over all.
He will strongly champion their cause.
As a result he will bring peace and rest to the earth, but trouble and turmoil to the people who inhabit Babylonia.
35 “Destructive forces will come against the Babylonians,” says the LORD.
“They will come against the people who inhabit Babylonia, against her leaders and her men of wisdom.

36 Destructive forces will come against her false prophets;
they will be shown to be fools!
Destructive forces will come against her soldiers;
they will be filled with terror!

37 Destructive forces will come against her horses and her chariots.
Destructive forces will come against all the foreign troops within her;
they will be as frightened as women!
Destructive forces will come against her treasures;
they will be taken away as plunder!

38 A drought will come upon her land;
her rivers and canals will be dried up.
All of this will happen because her land is filled with idols.
Her people act like madmen because of those idols they fear.

39 Therefore desert creatures and jackals will live there.
Ostriches will dwell in it too.
But no people will ever live there again.
No one will dwell there for all time to come.
40 I will destroy Babylonia just like I did Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighboring towns.

No one will live there.
No human being will settle in it,"
says the LORD.

<sup>41</sup> "Look! An army is about to come from the north.
A mighty nation and many kings are stirring into action in faraway parts of the earth.

They are cruel and show no mercy.

They sound like the roaring sea
as they ride forth on their horses.

Lined up in formation like men going into battle,
they are coming against you, fair Babylon!

<sup>43</sup> The king of Babylon will become paralyzed with fear when he hears news of their coming.

Anguish will grip him,
agony like that of a woman giving birth to a baby.

<sup>44</sup> "A lion coming up from the thick undergrowth along the Jordan scatters the sheep in the pastureland around it.

So too I will chase the Babylonians off of their land.

Then I will appoint over it whomever I choose.

For there is no one like me.

There is no one who can call me to account.

There is no ruler that can stand up against me.

<sup>45</sup> So listen to what I, the LORD, have planned against Babylon, what I intend to do to the people who inhabit the land of Babylonia.
Their little ones will be dragged off.

I will completely destroy their land because of what they have done.

<sup>46</sup> The people of the earth will quake when they hear Babylon has been captured.
Her cries of anguish will be heard by the other nations."

51

<sup>1</sup> The LORD says,

"I will cause a destructive wind to blow against Babylon and the people who inhabit Babylonia.

<sup>2</sup> I will send people to winnow Babylonia like a wind blowing away chaff.

They will winnow her and strip her land bare.

This will happen when they come against her from every direction, when it is time to destroy her.

<sup>3</sup> Do not give her archers time to string their bows or to put on their coats of armor.

Do not spare any of her young men.

Completely destroy her whole army.

<sup>4</sup> Let them fall slain in the land of Babylonia, mortally wounded in the streets of her cities.

<sup>5</sup> "For Israel and Judah will not be forsaken by their God, the LORD who rules over all.

For the land of Babylonia is full of guilt against the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> Get out of Babylonia quickly, you foreign people.
Flee to save your lives.

Do not let yourselves be killed because of her sins.

For it is time for the LORD to wreak his revenge.

He will pay Babylonia back for what she has done.

<sup>7</sup> Babylonia had been a gold cup in the LORD's hand.

She had made the whole world drunk.

The nations had drunk from the wine of her wrath.

So they have all gone mad.

<sup>8</sup> But suddenly Babylonia will fall and be destroyed.

Cry out in mourning over it!

Get medicine for her wounds!

Perhaps she can be healed!

<sup>9</sup> Foreigners living there will say,

'We tried to heal her, but she could not be healed.

Let's leave Babylonia and each go back to his own country.

For judgment on her will be vast in its proportions.

It will be like it is piled up to heaven, stacked up into the clouds.'

<sup>10</sup> The exiles from Judah will say,

'The LORD | strong="H3069" has brought about a great deliverance for us!

Come on, let's go and proclaim in Zion

what the LORD | strong="H3069" our God has done!'

<sup>11</sup> "Sharpen your arrows!

Fill your quivers!

The LORD will arouse a spirit of hostility in the kings of Media.

For he intends to destroy Babylonia.

For that is how the LORD will get his revenge –

how he will get his revenge for the Babylonians' destruction of his temple.

<sup>12</sup> Give the signal to attack Babylon's wall!

Bring more guards!

Post them all around the city!

Put men in ambush!

For the LORD will do what he has planned.

He will do what he said he would do to the people of Babylon.

<sup>13</sup> "You who live along the rivers of Babylon, the time of your end has come.

You who are rich in plundered treasure,

it is time for your lives to be cut off.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD who rules over all has solemnly sworn,

'I will fill your land with enemy soldiers.

They will swarm over it like locusts.

They will raise up shouts of victory over it.'

<sup>15</sup> He is the one who by his power made the earth.

He is the one who by his wisdom fixed the world in place, by his understanding he spread out the heavens.

<sup>16</sup> When his voice thunders, the waters in the heavens roar.

He makes the clouds rise from the far-off horizons.

He makes the lightning flash out in the midst of the rain.

He unleashes the wind from the places where he stores it.

<sup>17</sup> All idolaters will prove to be stupid and ignorant.

Every goldsmith will be disgraced by the idol he made.

For the image he forges is merely a sham.

There is no breath in any of those idols.

<sup>18</sup> They are worthless, objects to be ridiculed.

When the time comes to punish them, they will be destroyed.

<sup>19</sup> The LORD, who is the portion | strong="H2506" of the descendants of Jacob, is not like them.

For he is the one who created everything, including the people of Israel whom he claims as his own.

He is known as the LORD who rules over all.

<sup>20</sup> “Babylon, you are my war club, my weapon for battle.

I used you to smash nations.

I used you to destroy kingdoms.

<sup>21</sup> I used you to smash horses and their riders.

I used you to smash chariots and their drivers.

<sup>22</sup> I used you to smash men and women.

I used you to smash old men and young men.

I used you to smash young men and young women.

<sup>23</sup> I used you to smash shepherds and their flocks.

I used you to smash farmers and their teams of oxen.

I used you to smash governors and leaders.”

<sup>24</sup> “But I will repay Babylon and all who live in Babylonia for all the wicked things they did in Zion right before the eyes of you Judeans,”
says the LORD.

<sup>25</sup> The LORD says, “Beware! I am opposed to you, Babylon!
You are like a destructive mountain that destroys all the earth.
I will unleash my power against you;
I will roll you off the cliffs and make you like a burned-out mountain.

<sup>26</sup> No one will use any of your stones as a cornerstone.
No one will use any of them in the foundation of his house.
For you will lie desolate forever,”
says the LORD.

<sup>27</sup> “Raise up battle flags throughout the lands.
Sound the trumpets calling the nations to do battle.
Prepare the nations to do battle against Babylonia.
Call for these kingdoms to attack her:
Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz.
Appoint a commander to lead the attack.
Send horses against her like a swarm of locusts.

<sup>28</sup> Prepare the nations to do battle against her.
Prepare the kings of the Medes.
Prepare their governors and all their leaders.
Prepare all the countries they rule to do battle against her.

<sup>29</sup> The earth will tremble and writhe in agony.
For the LORD will carry out his plan.
He plans to make the land of Babylonia a wasteland where no one lives.

<sup>30</sup> The soldiers of Babylonia will stop fighting.
They will remain in their fortified cities.
They will lose their strength to do battle.
They will be as frightened as women.
The houses in her cities will be set on fire.

The gates of her cities will be broken down.

<sup>31</sup> One runner after another will come to the king of Babylon.
One messenger after another will come bringing news.
They will bring news to the king of Babylon that his whole city has been captured.

<sup>32</sup> They will report that the fords have been captured, the reed marshes have been burned,
the soldiers are terrified.

<sup>33</sup> For the LORD God of Israel who rules over all says, 'Fair Babylon will be like a threshing floor which has been trampled flat for harvest.
The time for her to be cut down and harvested will come very soon.'

<sup>34</sup> "King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon devoured me and drove my people out.
Like a monster from the deep he swallowed me.
He filled his belly with my riches.
He made me an empty dish.
He completely cleaned me out."

<sup>35</sup> The person who lives in Zion says, "May Babylon pay for the violence done to me and to my relatives."
Jerusalem says,
"May those living in Babylonia pay for the bloodshed of my people."

<sup>36</sup> Therefore the LORD says,
"I will stand up for your cause.
I will pay the Babylonians back for what they have done to you.
I will dry up their sea.
I will make their springs run dry.

<sup>37</sup> Babylon will become a heap of ruins.
Jackals will make their home there.
It will become an object of horror and of hissing scorn, a place where no one lives.

<sup>38</sup> The Babylonians are all like lions roaring for prey.
They are like lion cubs growling for something to eat.

<sup>39</sup> When their appetites are all stirred up,
I will set out a banquet for them.
I will make them drunk
so that they will pass out, they will fall asleep forever,
they will never wake up,"
says the LORD.

<sup>40</sup> "I will lead them off to be slaughtered like lambs, rams, and male goats."

<sup>41</sup> "See how Babylon has been captured!
See how the pride of the whole earth has been taken!
See what an object of horror
Babylon has become among the nations!

<sup>42</sup> The sea has swept over Babylon.
She has been covered by a multitude of its waves.

<sup>43</sup> The towns of Babylonia have become heaps of ruins.
She has become a dry and barren desert.

No one lives in those towns any more.
No one even passes through them.

<sup>44</sup> I will punish the god Bel in Babylon.
I will make him spit out what he has swallowed.
The nations will not come streaming to him any longer.
Indeed, the walls of Babylon will fall.”

<sup>45</sup> “Get out of Babylon, my people!
Flee to save your lives
from the fierce anger of the LORD!

<sup>46</sup> Do not lose your courage or become afraid because of the reports that are heard in the land.
For a report will come in one year.
Another report will follow it in the next.
There will be violence in the land with ruler fighting against ruler.”

<sup>47</sup> “So the time will certainly come when I will punish the idols of Babylon.
Her whole land will be put to shame.
All her mortally wounded will collapse in her midst.
<sup>48</sup> Then heaven and earth and all that is in them will sing for joy over Babylon.
For destroyers from the north will attack it,”
says the LORD.

<sup>49</sup> “Babylon must fall because of the Israelites she has killed, just as the earth’s mortally wounded fell because of Babylon.

<sup>50</sup> You who have escaped the sword, go, do not delay.
Remember the LORD in a faraway land.
Think about Jerusalem.

<sup>51</sup> ‘We are ashamed because we have been insulted.
Our faces show our disgrace.
For foreigners have invaded the holy rooms in the LORD’s temple.’

<sup>52</sup> Yes, but the time will certainly come,” says the LORD,
“when I will punish her idols.
Throughout her land the mortally wounded will groan.

<sup>53</sup> Even if Babylon climbs high into the sky and fortifies her elevated stronghold,
I will send destroyers against her,”
says the LORD.

<sup>54</sup> Cries of anguish will come from Babylon, the sound of great destruction from the land of the Babylonians.

<sup>55</sup> For the LORD is ready to destroy Babylon, and put an end to her loud noise.
Their waves will roar like turbulent waters.
They will make a deafening noise.

<sup>56</sup> For a destroyer is attacking Babylon.
Her warriors will be captured;
their bows will be broken.

For the LORD is a God who punishes;
he pays back in full.

<sup>57</sup> “I will make her officials and wise men drunk, along with her governors, leaders, and warriors.
They will fall asleep forever and never wake up,” says the King whose name is the LORD who rules over all.

<sup>58</sup> This is what the LORD who rules over all says, “Babylon’s thick wall will be completely demolished.
Her high gates will be set on fire.

The peoples strive for what does not satisfy.
The nations grow weary trying to get what will be destroyed.”

<sup>59</sup> This is the order Jeremiah the prophet gave to Seraiah son of Neriah, son of Mahseiah, when he went to King Zedekiah of Judah in Babylon during the fourth year of his reign. (Seraiah was a quartermaster.)

<sup>61</sup> Then Jeremiah said to Seraiah, “When you arrive in Babylon, make sure you read aloud all these prophecies.

<sup>62</sup> Then say, ‘O LORD, you have announced that you will destroy this place so that no people or animals live in it any longer. Certainly it will lie desolate forever!’

<sup>63</sup> When you finish reading this scroll aloud, tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates River.

<sup>64</sup> Then say, ‘In the same way Babylon will sink and never rise again because of the judgments I am ready to bring upon her; they will grow faint.’ ”

The prophecies of Jeremiah end here.

52

<sup>4</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came against Jerusalem with his whole army and set up camp outside it. They built siege ramps all around it. He arrived on the tenth day of the tenth month in the ninth year that Zedekiah ruled over Judah.

<sup>6</sup> By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine in the city was so severe the residents had no food.

<sup>7</sup> They broke through the city walls, and all the soldiers tried to escape. They left the city during the night. They went through the gate between the two walls that is near the king’s garden. (The Babylonians had the city surrounded.) Then they headed for the Jordan Valley.

<sup>8</sup> But the Babylonian army chased after the king. They caught up with Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho, and his entire army deserted him.

<sup>9</sup> They captured him and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the territory of Hamath and he passed sentence on him there.

<sup>10</sup> The king of Babylon had Zedekiah’s sons put to death while Zedekiah was forced to watch. He also had all the nobles of Judah put to death there at Riblah.

<sup>11</sup> He had Zedekiah's eyes put out and had him bound in chains. Then the king of Babylon had him led off to Babylon and he was imprisoned there until the day he died.

<sup>12</sup> On the tenth day of the fifth month, in the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the royal guard who served the king of Babylon, arrived in Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> He burned down the LORD's temple, the royal palace, and all the houses in Jerusalem, including every large house.

<sup>14</sup> The whole Babylonian army that came with the captain of the royal guard tore down the walls that surrounded Jerusalem.

<sup>15</sup> Nebuzaradan, the captain of the royal guard, took into exile some of the poor, the rest of the people who remained in the city, those who had deserted to him, and the rest of the craftsmen.

<sup>17</sup> The Babylonians broke the two bronze pillars in the temple of the LORD, as well as the movable stands and the large bronze basin called the "The Sea." They took all the bronze to Babylon.

<sup>18</sup> They also took the pots, shovels, trimming shears, basins, pans, and all the bronze utensils used by the priests.

<sup>19</sup> The captain of the royal guard took the gold and silver bowls, censers, basins, pots, lampstands, pans, and vessels.

<sup>20</sup> The bronze of the items that King Solomon made for the LORD's temple (including the two pillars, the large bronze basin called "The Sea," the twelve bronze bulls under "The Sea," and the movable stands ) was too heavy to be weighed.

<sup>21</sup> Each of the pillars was about 27 feet high, about 18 feet in circumference, three inches thick, and hollow.

<sup>22</sup> The bronze top of one pillar was about seven and one-half feet high and had bronze latticework and pomegranate-shaped ornaments all around it. The second pillar with its pomegranate-shaped ornaments was like it.

<sup>23</sup> There were ninety-six pomegranate-shaped ornaments on the sides; in all there were one hundred pomegranate-shaped ornaments over the latticework that went around it.

<sup>24</sup> The captain of the royal guard took Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the priest who was second in rank, and the three doorkeepers.

<sup>25</sup> From the city he took an official who was in charge of the soldiers, seven of the king's advisers who were discovered in the city, an official army secretary who drafted citizens for military service, and sixty citizens who were discovered in the middle of the city.

So Judah was taken into exile away from its land.

<sup>28</sup> Here is the official record of the number of people Nebuchadnezzar carried into exile: In the seventh year, 3,023 Jews;

<sup>30</sup> in Nebuchadnezzar's twenty-third year, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the royal guard, carried into exile 745 Judeans. In all 4,600 people went into exile.

<sup>32</sup> He spoke kindly to him and gave him a more prestigious position than the other kings who were with him in Babylon.

Lamentations

The Prophet Speaks:

א (Alef)

<sup>1</sup> Alas! The city once full of people now sits all alone!
The prominent lady among the nations has become a widow!
The princess who once ruled the provinces has become a forced laborer!

ב (Bet)

<sup>2</sup> She weeps bitterly at night;
tears stream down her cheeks.
She has no one to comfort her among all her lovers.
All her friends have betrayed her;
they have become her enemies.

ג (Gimel)

<sup>3</sup> Judah has departed into exile under affliction and harsh oppression.
She lives among the nations;
she has found no resting place.
All who pursued her overtook her in narrow straits.

ד (Dalet)

<sup>4</sup> The roads to Zion mourn because no one travels to the festivals.
All her city gates are deserted;
her priests groan.
Her virgins grieve;
she is in bitter anguish!

ה (He)

<sup>5</sup> Her foes subjugated her;
her enemies are at ease.
For the LORD afflicted her because of her many acts of rebellion.
Her children went away captive before the enemy.

ו (Vav)

<sup>6</sup> All of Daughter Zion's splendor has departed.
Her leaders became like deer;
they found no pasture,
so they were too exhausted to escape from the hunter.

ז (Zayin)

<sup>7</sup> Jerusalem remembers, when she became a poor homeless person,

all her treasures
that she owned in days of old.
When her people fell into an enemy's grip, none of her allies came to her rescue.
Her enemies gloated over her;
they sneered at her downfall.

𐤎 (Khet)

<sup>8</sup> Jerusalem committed terrible sin;
therefore she became an object of scorn.
All who admired her have despised her because they have seen her nakedness.
She groans aloud
and turns away in shame.

𐤎 (Tet)

<sup>9</sup> Her menstrual flow has soiled her clothing;
she did not consider the consequences of her sin.
Her demise was astonishing, and there was no one to comfort her.
She cried, "Look, O LORD, on my affliction because my enemy boasts!"

𐤎 (Yod)

<sup>10</sup> An enemy grabbed all her valuables.
Indeed she watched in horror as Gentiles invaded her holy temple –
those whom you had commanded:
"They must not enter your assembly place."

𐤎 (Kaf)

<sup>11</sup> All her people groaned as they searched for a morsel of bread.
They exchanged their valuables for just enough food to stay alive.

Jerusalem Speaks:

"Look, O LORD! Consider that I have become worthless!"

𐤎 (Lamed)

<sup>12</sup> Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by on the road?
Look and see!
Is there any pain like mine?
The Lord has afflicted me,
he has inflicted it on me when he burned with anger.

𐤎 (Mem)

<sup>13</sup> He sent down fire into my bones, and it overcame them.
He spread out a trapper's net for my feet;
he made me turn back.
He has made me desolate;

I am faint all day long.

נ (Nun)

14 My sins are bound around my neck like a yoke;
they are fastened together by his hand.
He has placed his yoke on my neck;
he has sapped my strength.
The Lord has handed me over to those whom I cannot resist.

ס (Samek)

15 He rounded up all my mighty ones;
The Lord did this in my midst.
He summoned an assembly against me to shatter my young men.
The Lord has stomped like grapes
the virgin daughter, Judah.

ע (Ayin)

16 I weep because of these things;
my eyes flow with tears.
For there is no one in sight who can comfort me or encourage me.
My children are desolated because an enemy has prevailed.

The Prophet Speaks:

פ (Pe)

17 Zion spread out her hands, but there is no one to comfort her.
The LORD has issued a "H6680" decree against Jacob;
his neighbors have become his enemies.
Jerusalem has become like filthy garbage in their midst.

Jerusalem Speaks:

צ (Tsade)

18 The LORD is right to judge me!
Yes, I rebelled against his commands.
Please listen, all you nations,
and look at my suffering!
My young women and men have gone into exile.

ק (Qof)

19 I called for my lovers, but they had deceived me.
My priests and my elders perished in the city.
Truly they had searched for food to keep themselves alive.

ר (Resh)

20 Look, O LORD! I am distressed;
my stomach is in knots!

My heart is pounding inside me.
 Yes, I was terribly rebellious!
 Out in the street the sword bereaves a mother of her children;
 Inside the house death is present.

𐤑 (Sin/Shin)

<sup>21</sup> They have heard that I groan, yet there is no one to comfort me.
 All my enemies have heard of my trouble;
 they are glad that you have brought it about.
 Bring about the day of judgment that you promised so that they may end up like me!

𐤓 (Tav)

<sup>22</sup> Let all their wickedness come before you; afflict them
 just as you have afflicted me because of all my acts of rebellion.
 For my groans are many,
 and my heart is sick with sorrow.

2

𐤀 (Alef)

<sup>1</sup> Alas! The Lord has covered Daughter Zion with his anger.
 He has thrown down the splendor of Israel from heaven to earth;
 he did not protect his temple
 when he displayed his anger.

𐤁 (Bet)

<sup>2</sup> The Lord destroyed mercilessly all the homes of Jacob's descendants.
 In his anger he tore down
 the fortified cities of Daughter Judah.
 He knocked to the ground and humiliated the kingdom and its rulers.

𐤂 (Gimel)

<sup>3</sup> In fierce anger he destroyed the whole army of Israel.
 He withdrew his right hand
 as the enemy attacked.
 He was like a raging fire in the land of Jacob;
 it consumed everything around it.

𐤄 (Dalet)

<sup>4</sup> He prepared his bow like an enemy; his right hand was ready to shoot.
 Like a foe he killed everyone,
 even our strong young men;
 he has poured out his anger like fire on the tent of Daughter Zion.

𐤅 (He)

<sup>5</sup> The Lord, like an enemy, destroyed Israel.
He destroyed all her palaces;
he ruined her fortified cities.
He made everyone in Daughter Judah mourn and lament.

׀ (Vav)

<sup>6</sup> He destroyed his temple as if it were a vineyard;
he destroyed his appointed meeting place.
The LORD has made those in Zion forget both the festivals and the Sabbaths.
In his fierce anger he has spurned both king and priest.

׀ (Zayin)

<sup>7</sup> The Lord rejected his altar and abhorred his temple.
He handed over to the enemy
her palace walls;
the enemy shouted in the LORD's temple as if it were a feast day.

׀ (Khet)

<sup>8</sup> The LORD was determined to tear down Daughter Zion's wall.
He prepared to knock it down;
he did not withdraw his hand from destroying.
He made the ramparts and fortified walls lament;
together they mourned their ruin.

׀ (Tet)

<sup>9</sup> Her city gates have fallen to the ground;
he smashed to bits the bars that lock her gates.
Her king and princes were taken into exile;
there is no more guidance available.
As for her prophets,
they no longer receive a vision from the LORD.

׀ (Yod)

<sup>10</sup> The elders of Daughter Zion sit on the ground in silence.
They have thrown dirt on their heads;
They have dressed in sackcloth.
Jerusalem's young women stare down at the ground.

׀ (Kaf)

<sup>11</sup> My eyes are worn out from weeping;
my stomach is in knots.
My heart is poured out on the ground due to the destruction of my helpless people; children and infants faint
in the town squares.

׀ (Lamed)

12 Children say to their mothers,
“Where are food and drink?”
They faint like a wounded warrior in the city squares.
They die slowly
in their mothers’ arms.

𐤇 (Mem)

13 With what can I equate you?
To what can I compare you, O Daughter Jerusalem?
To what can I liken you so that I might comfort you, O Virgin Daughter Zion?
Your wound is as deep as the sea.
Who can heal you?

𐤊 (Nun)

14 Your prophets saw visions for you that were worthless lies.
They failed to expose your sin
so as to restore your fortunes.
They saw oracles for you
that were worthless lies.

𐤌 (Samek)

15 All who passed by on the road clapped their hands to mock you.
They sneered and shook their heads at Daughter Jerusalem.
“Ha! Is this the city they called ‘The perfection of beauty, the source of joy of the whole earth!’?”

𐤎 (Pe)

16 All your enemies
gloated over you.
They sneered and gnashed their teeth;
they said, “We have destroyed her!
Ha! We have waited a long time for this day.
We have lived to see it!”

𐤏 (Ayin)

17 The LORD has done what he planned; he has fulfilled his promise that he threatened long ago:
He has overthrown you without mercy and has enabled the enemy to gloat over you;
he has exalted your adversaries’ power.

𐤑 (Tsade)

18 Cry out from your heart to the Lord,
O wall of Daughter Zion!
Make your tears flow like a river all day and all night long!
Do not rest;
do not let your tears stop!

𐤒 (Qof)

<sup>19</sup> Get up! Cry out in the night when the night watches start!
Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord!
Lift up your hands to him
for your children's lives;
they are fainting
at every street corner.

Jerusalem Speaks:

𐤓 (Resh)

<sup>20</sup> Look, O LORD | strong="H5027"! Consider!
Whom have you ever afflicted like this?
Should women eat their offspring, their healthy infants?
Should priest and prophet be killed in the Lord's sanctuary?

𐤔 (Sin/Shin)

<sup>21</sup> The young boys and old men lie dead on the ground in the streets.
My young women and my young men have fallen by the sword.
You killed them when you were angry;
you slaughtered them without mercy.

𐤕 (Tav)

<sup>22</sup> As if it were a feast day, you call enemies to terrify me on every side.
On the day of the Lord's anger no one escaped or survived.
My enemy has finished off
those healthy infants whom I bore and raised.

3

𐤁 (Alef) | strong="H0589"

<sup>1</sup> I am the man who has experienced affliction from the rod of his wrath.
<sup>2</sup> He drove me into captivity and made me walk in darkness and not light.
<sup>3</sup> He repeatedly attacks me, he turns his hand against me all day long.

𐤂 (Bet)

<sup>4</sup> He has made my mortal skin waste away;
he has broken my bones.
<sup>5</sup> He has besieged and surrounded me with bitter hardship.
<sup>6</sup> He has made me reside in deepest darkness like those who died long ago.

𐤃 (Gimel)

<sup>7</sup> He has walled me in so that I cannot get out;
he has weighted me down with heavy prison chains.
<sup>8</sup> Also, when I cry out desperately for help, he has shut out my prayer.
<sup>9</sup> He has blocked every road I take with a wall of hewn stones;
he has made every path impassable.

𐤃 (Dalet)

<sup>10</sup> To me he is like a bear lying in ambush, like a hidden lion stalking its prey.
<sup>11</sup> He has obstructed my paths and torn me to pieces;
he has made me desolate.
<sup>12</sup> He drew his bow and made me the target for his arrow.

𐤅 (He)

<sup>13</sup> He shot his arrows into my heart.
<sup>14</sup> I have become the laughingstock of all people, their mocking song all day long.
<sup>15</sup> He has given me my fill of bitter herbs and made me drunk with bitterness.

𐤆 (Vav)

<sup>16</sup> He ground my teeth in gravel;
he trampled me in the dust.
<sup>17</sup> I am deprived of peace;
I have forgotten what happiness is.
<sup>18</sup> So I said, "My endurance has expired;
I have lost all hope of deliverance from the LORD."

𐤇 (Zayin)

<sup>19</sup> Remember my impoverished and homeless condition, which is a bitter poison.
<sup>20</sup> I continually think about this,
and I am depressed.
<sup>21</sup> But this I call to mind;
therefore I have hope:

𐤈 (Khet)

<sup>22</sup> The LORD's loyal kindness never ceases; his compassions never end.
<sup>23</sup> They are fresh every morning;
your faithfulness is abundant!
<sup>24</sup> "My portion is the Lord," I have said to myself, so I will put my hope in him.

𐤉 (Tet)

<sup>25</sup> The LORD is good to those who trust in him, to the one who seeks him.
<sup>26</sup> It is good to wait patiently for deliverance from the LORD.
<sup>27</sup> It is good for a man to bear the yoke while he is young.

𐤊 (Yod)

<sup>28</sup> Let a person sit alone in silence, when the LORD is disciplining him.
<sup>29</sup> Let him bury his face in the dust;
perhaps there is hope.
<sup>30</sup> Let him offer his cheek to the one who hits him; let him have his fill of insults.

כ (Kaf)

<sup>31</sup> For the Lord will not reject us forever.
<sup>32</sup> Though he causes us grief, he then has compassion on us according to the abundance of his loyal kindness.
<sup>33</sup> For he is not predisposed to afflict or to grieve people.

ל (Lamed)

<sup>34</sup> To crush underfoot all the earth's prisoners, <sup>35</sup> to deprive a person of his rights in the presence of the Most High, <sup>36</sup> to defraud a person in a lawsuit –
the Lord does not approve of such things!

מ (Mem)

<sup>37</sup> Whose command was ever fulfilled unless the Lord decreed it?
<sup>38</sup> Is it not from the mouth of the Most High that everything comes – both calamity and blessing?
<sup>39</sup> Why should any living person complain when punished for his sins?

נ (Nun)

<sup>40</sup> Let us carefully examine our ways, and let us return to the LORD.
<sup>41</sup> Let us lift up our hearts and our hands to God in heaven: <sup>42</sup> "We have blatantly rebelled;
you have not forgiven."

ס (Samek)

<sup>43</sup> You shrouded yourself with anger and then pursued us;
you killed without mercy.
<sup>44</sup> You shrouded yourself with a cloud so that no prayer can get through.
<sup>45</sup> You make us like filthy scum in the estimation of the nations.

פ (Pe)

<sup>46</sup> All our enemies have gloated over us; <sup>47</sup> Panic and pitfall have come upon us, devastation and destruction.
<sup>48</sup> Streams of tears flow from my eyes because my people are destroyed.

צ (Ayin)

<sup>49</sup> Tears flow from my eyes and will not stop;

there will be no break <sup>50</sup>until the LORD looks down from heaven and sees what has happened.
<sup>51</sup>What my eyes see grieves me – all the suffering of the daughters in my city.

צ (Tsade)

<sup>52</sup>For no good reason my enemies hunted me down like a bird.
<sup>53</sup>They shut me up in a pit and threw stones at me.
<sup>54</sup>The waters closed over my head;
I thought I was about to die.

ק (Qof)

<sup>55</sup>I have called on your name, O LORD, from the deepest pit.
<sup>56</sup>You heard my plea:
“Do not close your ears to my cry for relief!”
<sup>57</sup>You came near on the day I called to you;
you said, “Do not fear!”

ר (Resh)

<sup>58</sup>O Lord, you championed my cause, you redeemed my life.
<sup>59</sup>You have seen the wrong done to me, O LORD; pronounce judgment on my behalf!
<sup>60</sup>You have seen all their vengeance,
all their plots against me.

ש (Sin/Shin)

<sup>61</sup>You have heard their taunts, O LORD, all their plots against me.
<sup>62</sup>My assailants revile and conspire against me all day long.
<sup>63</sup>Watch them from morning to evening;
I am the object of their mocking songs.

ט (Tav)

<sup>64</sup>Pay them back what they deserve, O LORD, according to what they have done.
<sup>65</sup>Give them a distraught heart;
may your curse be on them!
<sup>66</sup>Pursue them in anger and eradicate them from under the LORD’s heaven.

4

א (Alef)

<sup>1</sup>Alas! Gold has lost its luster; pure gold loses value.
Jewels are scattered on every street corner.

ב (Bet)

<sup>2</sup>The precious sons of Zion were worth their weight in gold – Alas! – but now they are treated like broken clay pots, made by a potter.

ג (Gimel)

<sup>3</sup> Even the jackals nurse their young at their breast,
but my people are cruel,
like ostriches in the desert.

ד (Dalet)

<sup>4</sup> The infant's tongue sticks to the roof of its mouth due to thirst;
little children beg for bread,
but no one gives them even a morsel.

ה (He)

<sup>5</sup> Those who once feasted on delicacies are now starving to death in the streets.
Those who grew up wearing expensive clothes are now dying amid garbage.

ו (Vav)

<sup>6</sup> The punishment of my people exceeded that of of Sodom, which was overthrown in a moment with no one to help her.

ז (Zayin)

<sup>7</sup> Her consecrated ones were brighter than snow, whiter than milk;
their bodies more ruddy than corals, their hair like lapis lazuli.

ח (Khet)

<sup>8</sup> Now their appearance is darker than soot;
they are not recognized in the streets.
Their skin has shriveled on their bones;
it is dried up, like tree bark.

ט (Tet)

<sup>9</sup> Those who died by the sword are better off than those who die of hunger,
those who waste away,
struck down from lack of food.

י (Yod)

<sup>10</sup> The hands of tenderhearted women cooked their own children, who became their food,
when my people were destroyed.

כ (Kaf)

<sup>11</sup> The LORD fully vented his wrath;
he poured out his fierce anger.
He started a fire in Zion;
it consumed her foundations.

ל (Lamed)

12 Neither the kings of the earth nor the people of the lands ever thought that enemy or foe would enter the gates of Jerusalem.

מ (Mem)

13 But it happened due to the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests, who poured out in her midst
the blood of the righteous.

נ (Nun)

14 They wander blindly through the streets, defiled by the blood they shed, while no one dares to touch their garments.

ס (Samek)

15 People cry to them, "Turn away! You are unclean!
Turn away! Turn away! Don't touch us!"
So they have fled and wander about;
but the nations say, "They may not stay here any longer."

פ (Pe)

16 The LORD himself has scattered them;
he no longer watches over them.
They did not honor the priests;
they did not show favor to the elders.

The People of Jerusalem Lament:

ע (Ayin)

17 Our eyes continually failed us as we looked in vain for help.
From our watchtowers we watched for a nation that could not rescue us.

צ (Tsade)

18 Our enemies hunted us down at every step so that we could not walk about in our streets.
Our end drew near, our days were numbered,
for our end had come!

ק (Qof)

19 Those who pursued us were swifter than eagles in the sky.
They chased us over the mountains;
they ambushed us in the wilderness.

ר (Resh)

20 Our very life breath – the LORD's anointed king – was caught in their traps, of whom we thought,
"Under his protection we will survive among the nations."

The Prophet Speaks:

𐤔 (Sin/Shin)

<sup>21</sup> Rejoice and be glad for now, O people of Edom, who reside in the land of Uz.
But the cup of judgment will pass to you also;
you will get drunk and take off your clothes.

𐤏 (Tav)

<sup>22</sup> O people of Zion, your punishment will come to an end; he will not prolong your exile.
But, O people of Edom, he will punish your sin and reveal your offenses!

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, reflect on what has happened to us; consider and look at our disgrace.
<sup>2</sup> Our inheritance is turned over to strangers; foreigners now occupy our homes.
<sup>3</sup> We have become fatherless orphans;
our mothers have become widows.
<sup>4</sup> We must pay money for our own water;
we must buy our own wood at a steep price.
<sup>5</sup> We are pursued – they are breathing down our necks;
we are weary and have no rest.
<sup>6</sup> We have submitted to Egypt and Assyria in order to buy food to eat.
<sup>7</sup> Our forefathers sinned and are dead, but we suffer their punishment.
<sup>8</sup> Slaves rule over us;
there is no one to rescue us from their power.
<sup>9</sup> At the risk of our lives we get our food because robbers lurk in the countryside.
<sup>10</sup> Our skin is hot as an oven due to a fever from hunger.
<sup>11</sup> They raped women in Zion, virgins in the towns of Judah.
<sup>12</sup> Princes were hung by their hands;
elders were mistreated.
<sup>13</sup> The young men perform menial labor;
boys stagger from their labor.
<sup>14</sup> The elders are gone from the city gate;
the young men have stopped playing their music.
<sup>15</sup> Our hearts no longer have any joy;
our dancing is turned to mourning.
<sup>16</sup> The crown has fallen from our head;
woe to us, for we have sinned!
<sup>17</sup> Because of this, our hearts are sick;
because of these things, we can hardly see through our tears.
<sup>18</sup> For wild animals are prowling over Mount Zion, which lies desolate.
<sup>19</sup> But you, O LORD | strong="H3069", reign forever;
your throne endures from generation to generation.
<sup>20</sup> Why do you keep on forgetting us?

Why do you forsake us so long?

<sup>21</sup> Bring us back to yourself, O LORD, so that we may return to you; renew our life as in days before,

<sup>22</sup> unless you have utterly rejected us and are angry with us beyond measure.

Ezekiel

A Vision of God's Glory

<sup>1</sup> In the thirtieth year, on the fifth day of the fourth month, while I was among the exiles at the Kebar River, the heavens opened and I saw a divine vision.

<sup>2</sup> (On the fifth day of the month – it was the fifth year of King Jehoiachin's exile – <sup>3</sup> the word of the LORD came to the priest Ezekiel the son of Buzi, at the Kebar River in the land of the Babylonians. The hand of the LORD came on him there).

<sup>4</sup> As I watched, I noticed a windstorm coming from the north – an enormous cloud, with lightning flashing, such that bright light rimmed it and came from it like glowing amber from the middle of a fire.

<sup>5</sup> In the fire were what looked like four living beings. In their appearance they had human form, <sup>6</sup> but each had four faces and four wings.

<sup>7</sup> Their legs were straight, but the soles of their feet were like calves' feet. They gleamed like polished bronze.

<sup>8</sup> They had human hands under their wings on their four sides. As for the faces and wings of the four of them, <sup>9</sup> their wings touched each other; they did not turn as they moved, but went straight ahead.

<sup>12</sup> Each moved straight ahead – wherever the spirit would go, they would go, without turning as they went.

<sup>13</sup> In the middle of the living beings was something like burning coals of fire or like torches. It moved back and forth among the living beings. It was bright, and lightning was flashing out of the fire.

<sup>14</sup> The living beings moved backward and forward as quickly as flashes of lightning.

<sup>15</sup> Then I looked, and I saw one wheel on the ground beside each of the four beings.

<sup>16</sup> The appearance of the wheels and their construction was like gleaming jasper, and all four wheels looked alike. Their structure was like a wheel within a wheel.

<sup>17</sup> When they moved they would go in any of the four directions they faced without turning as they moved.

<sup>18</sup> Their rims were high and awesome, and the rims of all four wheels were full of eyes all around.

<sup>19</sup> When the living beings moved, the wheels beside them moved; when the living beings rose up from the ground, the wheels rose up too.

<sup>20</sup> Wherever the spirit would go, they would go, and the wheels would rise up beside them because the spirit of the living being was in the wheel.

<sup>21</sup> When the living beings moved, the wheels moved, and when they stopped moving, the wheels stopped. When they rose up from the ground, the wheels rose up from the ground; the wheels rose up beside them because the spirit of the living being was in the wheel.

<sup>23</sup> Under the platform their wings were stretched out, each toward the other. Each of the beings also had two wings covering its body.

<sup>24</sup> When they moved, I heard the sound of their wings – it was like the sound of rushing waters, or the voice of the Almighty, or the tumult of an army. When they stood still, they lowered their wings.

<sup>27</sup> I saw an amber glow like a fire enclosed all around from his waist up. From his waist down I saw something that looked like fire. There was a brilliant light around it, <sup>28</sup> like the appearance of a rainbow in the clouds after the rain. This was the appearance of the surrounding brilliant light; it looked like the glory of the LORD. When I saw it, I threw myself face down, and I heard a voice speaking.

2

<sup>1</sup> He said to me, “Son of man, stand on your feet and I will speak with you.”

<sup>2</sup> As he spoke to me, a wind came into me and stood me on my feet, and I heard the one speaking to me.

<sup>3</sup> He said to me, “Son of man, I am sending you to the house of Israel, to rebellious nations who have rebelled against me; both they and their fathers have revolted against me to this very day.

<sup>4</sup> The people to whom I am sending you are obstinate and hard-hearted, and you must say to them, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says.’

<sup>5</sup> And as for them, whether they listen or not – for they are a rebellious house – they will know that a prophet has been among them.

<sup>6</sup> But you, son of man, do not fear them, and do not fear their words – even though briars and thorns surround you and you live among scorpions – do not fear their words and do not be terrified of the looks they give you, for they are a rebellious house!

<sup>7</sup> You must speak my words to them whether they listen or not, for they are rebellious.

<sup>8</sup> As for you, son of man, listen to what I am saying to you: Do not rebel like that rebellious house! Open your mouth and eat what I am giving you.”

<sup>9</sup> Then I looked and realized a hand was stretched out to me, and in it was a written scroll.

<sup>10</sup> He unrolled it before me, and it had writing on the front and back; written on it were laments, mourning, and woe.

3

<sup>1</sup> He said to me, “Son of man, eat what you see in front of you – eat this scroll – and then go and speak to the house of Israel.”

<sup>2</sup> So I opened my mouth and he fed me the scroll.

<sup>3</sup> He said to me, “Son of man, feed your stomach and fill your belly with this scroll I am giving to you.” So I ate it, and it was sweet like honey in my mouth.

<sup>4</sup> He said to me, “Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak my words to them.

<sup>5</sup> For you are not being sent to a people of unintelligible speech and difficult language, but to the house of Israel –

<sup>6</sup> not to many peoples of unintelligible speech and difficult language, whose words you cannot understand – surely if I had sent you to them, they would listen to you!

<sup>7</sup> But the house of Israel is unwilling to listen to you, because they are not willing to listen to me, for the whole house of Israel is hard-headed and hard-hearted.

<sup>8</sup> “I have made your face adamant to match their faces, and your forehead hard to match their foreheads.

<sup>9</sup> I have made your forehead harder than flint – like diamond! Do not fear them or be terrified of the looks they give you, for they are a rebellious house.”

<sup>10</sup> And he said to me, “Son of man, take all my words that I speak to you to heart and listen carefully.

<sup>11</sup> Go to the exiles, to your fellow countrymen, and speak to them – say to them, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says,’ whether they pay attention or not.”

Ezekiel Before the Exiles

<sup>12</sup> Then a wind lifted me up and I heard a great rumbling sound behind me as the glory of the LORD rose from its place, <sup>13</sup> and the sound of the living beings’ wings brushing against each other, and the sound of the wheels alongside them, a great rumbling sound.

<sup>14</sup> A wind lifted me up and carried me away. I went bitterly, my spirit full of fury, and the hand of the LORD rested powerfully on me.

<sup>15</sup> I came to the exiles at Tel Abib, who lived by the Kebar River. I sat dumbfounded among them there, where they were living, for seven days.

<sup>16</sup> At the end of seven days the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>17</sup> “Son of man, I have appointed you a watchman for the house of Israel. Whenever you hear a word from my mouth, you must give them a warning from me.

<sup>18</sup> When I say to the wicked, “You will certainly die,” and you do not warn him – you do not speak out to warn the wicked to turn from his wicked deed and wicked lifestyle so that he may live – that wicked person will die for his iniquity, but I will hold you accountable for his death.

<sup>19</sup> But as for you, if you warn the wicked and he does not turn from his wicked deed and from his wicked lifestyle, he will die for his iniquity but you will have saved your own life.

<sup>20</sup> “When a righteous person turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, and I set an obstacle before him, he will die. If you have not warned him, he will die for his sin. The righteous deeds he performed will not be considered, but I will hold you accountable for his death.

<sup>21</sup> However, if you warn the righteous person not to sin, and he does not sin, he will certainly live because he was warned, and you will have saved your own life.”

Isolated and Silenced

<sup>22</sup> The hand of the LORD rested on me there, and he said to me, “Get up, go out to the valley, and I will speak with you there.”

<sup>23</sup> So I got up and went out to the valley, and the glory of the LORD was standing there, just like the glory I had seen by the Kebar River, and I threw myself face down.

<sup>24</sup> Then a wind came into me and stood me on my feet. The LORD spoke | strong=“H1696” to me and said, “Go shut yourself in your house.

<sup>25</sup> As for you, son of man, they will put ropes on you and tie you up with them, so you cannot go out among them.

<sup>26</sup> I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth so that you will be silent and unable to reprove them, for they are a rebellious house.

<sup>27</sup> But when I speak with you, I will loosen your tongue and you must say to them, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says.’ Those who listen will listen, but the indifferent will refuse, for they are a rebellious house.

4

<sup>1</sup> “And you, son of man, take a brick and set it in front of you. Inscribe a city on it – Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> Then for your part take an iron frying pan and set it up as an iron wall between you and the city. Set your face toward it. It is to be under siege; you are to besiege it. This is a sign for the house of Israel.

<sup>4</sup> “Also for your part lie on your left side and place the iniquity of the house of Israel on it. For the number of days you lie on your side you will bear their iniquity.

<sup>5</sup> I have determined that the number of the years of their iniquity are to be the number of days for you – 390 days. So bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> “When you have completed these days, then lie down a second time, but on your right side, and bear the iniquity of the house of Judah 40 days – I have assigned one day for each year.

<sup>7</sup> You must turn your face toward the siege of Jerusalem with your arm bared and prophesy against it.

<sup>8</sup> Look here, I will tie you up with ropes, so you cannot turn from one side to the other until you complete the days of your siege.

<sup>9</sup> “As for you, take wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt, put them in a single container, and make food from them for yourself. For the same number of days that you lie on your side – 390 days – you will eat it.

<sup>10</sup> The food you eat will be eight ounces a day by weight; you must eat it at fixed times.

<sup>11</sup> And you must drink water by measure, a pint and a half; you must drink it at fixed times.

<sup>12</sup> And you must eat the food like you would a barley cake. You must bake it in front of them over a fire made with dried human excrement.”

<sup>13</sup> And the LORD said, “This is how the people of Israel will eat their unclean food among the nations where I will banish them.”

<sup>14</sup> And I said, “Ah, sovereign LORD, I have never been ceremonially defiled before. I have never eaten a carcass or an animal torn by wild beasts; from my youth up, unclean meat has never entered my mouth.”

<sup>15</sup> So he said to me, “All right then, I will substitute cow’s manure instead of human excrement. You will cook your food over it.”

<sup>16</sup> Then he said to me, “Son of man, I am about to remove the bread supply in Jerusalem. They will eat their bread ration anxiously, and they will drink their water ration in terror <sup>17</sup> because they will lack bread and water. Each one will be terrified, and they will rot for their iniquity.

5

<sup>1</sup> “As for you, son of man, take a sharp sword and use it as a barber’s razor. Shave off some of the hair from your head and your beard. Then take scales and divide up the hair you cut off.

<sup>2</sup> Burn a third of it in the fire inside the city when the days of your siege are completed. Take a third and slash it with a sword all around the city. Scatter a third to the wind, and I will unleash a sword behind them.

<sup>3</sup> But take a few strands of hair from those and tie them in the ends of your garment.

<sup>4</sup> Again, take more of them and throw them into the fire, and burn them up. From there a fire will spread to all the house of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> Then she defied my regulations and my statutes, becoming more wicked than the nations and the countries around her. Indeed, they have rejected my regulations, and they do not follow my statutes.

<sup>7</sup> “Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: Because you are more arrogant than the nations around you, you have not followed my statutes and have not carried out my regulations. You have not even carried out the regulations of the nations around you!

<sup>8</sup> “Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: I – even I – am against you, and I will execute judgment among you while the nations watch.

<sup>9</sup> I will do to you what I have never done before and will never do again because of all your abominable practices.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore fathers will eat their sons within you, Jerusalem, and sons will eat their fathers. I will execute judgments on you, and I will scatter any survivors to the winds.

<sup>11</sup> “Therefore, as surely as I live, says the sovereign LORD, because you defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable idols and with all your abominable practices, I will withdraw; my eye will not pity you, nor will I spare you.

<sup>12</sup> A third of your people will die of plague or be overcome by the famine within you. A third of your people will fall by the sword surrounding you, and a third I will scatter to the winds. I will unleash a sword behind them.

<sup>13</sup> Then my anger will be fully vented; I will exhaust my rage on them, and I will be appeased. Then they will know that I, the LORD, have spoken in my jealousy when I have fully vented my rage against them.

<sup>14</sup> “I will make you desolate and an object of scorn among the nations around you, in the sight of everyone who passes by.

<sup>15</sup> You will be an object of scorn and taunting, a prime example of destruction among the nations around you when I execute judgments against you in anger and raging fury. I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>16</sup> I will shoot against them deadly, destructive arrows of famine, which I will shoot to destroy you. I will prolong a famine on you and will remove the bread supply.

<sup>17</sup> I will send famine and wild beasts against you and they will take your children from you. Plague and bloodshed will overwhelm you, and I will bring a sword against you. I, the LORD, have spoken!”

6

<sup>3</sup> Say, ‘Mountains of Israel, Hear the word of the sovereign LORD! This is what the sovereign LORD says to the mountains and the hills, to the ravines and the valleys: I am bringing a sword against you, and I will destroy your high places.

<sup>4</sup> Your altars will be ruined and your incense altars will be broken. I will throw down your slain in front of your idols.

<sup>5</sup> I will place the corpses of the people of Israel in front of their idols, and I will scatter your bones around your altars.

<sup>6</sup> In all your dwellings, the cities will be laid waste and the high places ruined so that your altars will be laid waste and ruined, your idols will be shattered and demolished, your incense altars will be broken down, and your works wiped out.

<sup>7</sup> The slain will fall among you and then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> “But I will spare some of you. Some will escape the sword when you are scattered in foreign lands.

<sup>9</sup> Then your survivors will remember me among the nations where they are exiled. They will realize how I was crushed by their unfaithful heart which turned from me and by their eyes which lusted after their idols. They will loathe themselves because of the evil they have done and because of all their abominable practices.

<sup>10</sup> They will know that I am the LORD; my threats to bring this catastrophe on them were not empty.'

<sup>11</sup> "'This is what the sovereign LORD says: Clap your hands, stamp your feet, and say, "Ah!" because of all the evil, abominable practices of the house of Israel, for they will fall by the sword, famine, and pestilence.

<sup>12</sup> The one far away will die by pestilence, the one close by will fall by the sword, and whoever is left and has escaped these will die by famine. I will fully vent my rage against them.

<sup>13</sup> Then you will know that I am the LORD - when their dead lie among their idols around their altars, on every high hill and all the mountaintops, under every green tree and every leafy oak, the places where they have offered fragrant incense to all their idols.

<sup>14</sup> I will stretch out my hand against them and make the land a desolate waste from the wilderness to Riblah, in all the places where they live. Then they will know that I am the LORD!"

7

<sup>2</sup> "You, son of man - this is what the sovereign LORD says to the land of Israel: An end! The end is coming on the four corners of the land!

<sup>3</sup> The end is now upon you, and I will release my anger against you; I will judge you according to your behavior; I will hold you accountable for all your abominable practices.

<sup>4</sup> My eye will not pity you; I will not spare you. For I will hold you responsible for your behavior, and you will suffer the consequences of your abominable practices. Then you will know that I am the LORD!

<sup>6</sup> An end comes - the end comes! It has awakened against you - the end is upon you! Look, it is coming!

<sup>7</sup> Doom is coming upon you who live in the land! The time is coming, the day is near. There are sounds of tumult, not shouts of joy, on the mountains.

<sup>8</sup> Soon now I will pour out my rage on you; I will fully vent my anger against you. I will judge you according to your behavior. I will hold you accountable for all your abominable practices.

<sup>9</sup> My eye will not pity you; I will not spare you. For your behavior I will hold you accountable, and you will suffer the consequences of your abominable practices. Then you will know that it is I, the LORD, who is striking you.

<sup>10</sup> "Look, the day! Look, it is coming! Doom has gone out! The staff has budded, pride has blossomed!

<sup>12</sup> The time has come; the day has struck! The customer should not rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for divine wrath comes against their whole crowd.

<sup>13</sup> The customer will no longer pay the seller while both parties are alive, for the vision against their whole crowd will not be revoked. Each person, for his iniquity, will fail to preserve his life.

<sup>14</sup> "They have blown the trumpet and everyone is ready, but no one goes to battle, because my anger is against their whole crowd.

<sup>15</sup> The sword is outside; pestilence and famine are inside the house. Whoever is in the open field will die by the sword, and famine and pestilence will consume everyone in the city.

<sup>16</sup> Their survivors will escape to the mountains and become like doves of the valleys; all of them will moan – each one for his iniquity.

<sup>17</sup> All of their hands will hang limp; their knees will be wet with urine.

<sup>18</sup> They will wear sackcloth, terror will cover them; shame will be on all their faces, and all of their heads will be shaved bald.

<sup>19</sup> They will discard their silver in the streets, and their gold will be treated like filth. Their silver and gold will not be able to deliver them on the day of the LORD's fury. They will not satisfy their hunger or fill their stomachs because their wealth was the obstacle leading to their iniquity.

<sup>20</sup> They rendered the beauty of his ornaments into pride, and with it they made their abominable images – their detestable idols. Therefore I will render it filthy to them.

<sup>21</sup> I will give it to foreigners as loot, to the world's wicked ones as plunder, and they will desecrate it.

<sup>22</sup> I will turn my face away from them and they will desecrate my treasured place. Vandals will enter it and desecrate it.

<sup>23</sup> (Make the chain, because the land is full of murder and the city is full of violence.)

<sup>24</sup> I will bring the most wicked of the nations and they will take possession of their houses. I will put an end to the arrogance of the strong, and their sanctuaries will be desecrated.

<sup>26</sup> Disaster after disaster will come, and one rumor after another. They will seek a vision from a prophet; priestly instruction will disappear, along with counsel from the elders.

<sup>27</sup> The king will mourn and the prince will be clothed with shuddering; the hands of the people of the land will tremble. Based on their behavior I will deal with them, and by their standard of justice I will judge them. Then they will know that I am the LORD!"

8

<sup>1</sup> In the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth of the month, as I was sitting in my house with the elders of Judah sitting in front of me, the hand of the sovereign LORD seized me.

<sup>2</sup> As I watched, I noticed a form that appeared to be a man. From his waist downward was something like fire, and from his waist upward something like a brightness, like an amber glow.

<sup>3</sup> He stretched out the form of a hand and grabbed me by a lock of hair on my head. Then a wind lifted me up between the earth and sky and brought me to Jerusalem by means of divine visions, to the door of the inner gate which faces north where the statue which provokes to jealousy was located.

<sup>4</sup> Then I perceived that the glory of the God of Israel was there, as in the vision I had seen earlier in the valley.

<sup>5</sup> He said to me, "Son of man, look up toward the north." So I looked up toward the north, and I noticed to the north of the altar gate was this statue of jealousy at the entrance.

<sup>6</sup> He said to me, "Son of man, do you see what they are doing – the great abominations that the people of Israel are practicing here, to drive me far from my sanctuary? But you will see greater abominations than these!"

<sup>7</sup> He brought me to the entrance of the court, and as I watched, I noticed a hole in the wall.

<sup>8</sup> He said to me, "Son of man, dig into the wall." So I dug into the wall and discovered a doorway.

<sup>9</sup> He said to me, "Go in and see the evil abominations they are practicing here."

<sup>10</sup> So I went in and looked. I noticed every figure of creeping thing and beast – detestable images – and every idol of the house of Israel, engraved on the wall all around.

<sup>11</sup> Seventy men from the elders of the house of Israel (with Jaazaniah son of Shaphan standing among them) were standing in front of them, each with a censer in his hand, and fragrant vapors from a cloud of incense were swirling upward.

<sup>12</sup> He said to me, "Do you see, son of man, what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the dark, each in the chamber of his idolatrous images? For they think, 'The LORD | strong="H3069" does not see us! The LORD | strong="H3069" has abandoned the land!' "

<sup>13</sup> He said to me, "You will see them practicing even greater abominations!"

<sup>14</sup> Then he brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the LORD's house. I noticed women sitting there weeping for Tammuz.

<sup>15</sup> He said to me, "Do you see this, son of man? You will see even greater abominations than these!"

<sup>16</sup> Then he brought me to the inner court of the LORD's house. Right there at the entrance to the LORD's temple, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men with their backs to the LORD's temple, facing east – they were worshiping the sun toward the east!

<sup>17</sup> He said to me, "Do you see, son of man? Is it a trivial thing that the house of Judah commits these abominations they are practicing here? For they have filled the land with violence and provoked me to anger still further. Look, they are putting the branch to their nose!"

<sup>18</sup> Therefore I will act with fury! My eye will not pity them nor will I spare them. When they have shouted in my ears, I will not listen to them."

9

<sup>1</sup> Then he shouted in my ears, "Approach, you who are to visit destruction on the city, each with his destructive weapon in his hand!"

<sup>2</sup> Next, I noticed six men coming from the direction of the upper gate which faces north, each with his war club in his hand. Among them was a man dressed in linen with a writing kit at his side. They came and stood beside the bronze altar.

<sup>3</sup> Then the glory of the God of Israel went up from the cherub where it had rested to the threshold of the temple. He called to the man dressed in linen who had the writing kit at his side.

<sup>4</sup> The LORD | strong="H3069" said to him, "Go through the city of Jerusalem and put a mark on the foreheads of the people who moan and groan over all the abominations practiced in it."

<sup>5</sup> While I listened, he said to the others, "Go through the city after him and strike people down; do not let your eye pity nor spare anyone!"

<sup>6</sup> Old men, young men, young women, little children, and women – wipe them out! But do not touch anyone who has the mark. Begin at my sanctuary!" So they began with the elders who were at the front of the temple.

<sup>7</sup> He said to them, "Defile the temple and fill the courtyards with corpses. Go!" So they went out and struck people down throughout the city.

<sup>8</sup> While they were striking them down, I was left alone, and I threw myself face down and cried out, "Ah, sovereign LORD! Will you destroy the entire remnant of Israel when you pour out your fury on Jerusalem?"

<sup>9</sup> He said to me, "The sin of the house of Israel and Judah is extremely great; the land is full of murder, and the city is full of corruption, for they say, 'The LORD has abandoned the land, and the LORD does not see!'

<sup>10</sup> But as for me, my eye will not pity them nor will I spare them; I hereby repay them for what they have done."

<sup>11</sup> Next I noticed the man dressed in linen with the writing kit at his side bringing back word: "I have done just as you commanded me."

<sup>2</sup> The LORD said | strong="H0559" to the man dressed in linen, "Go between the wheelwork underneath the cherubim. Fill your hands with burning coals from among the cherubim and scatter them over the city." He went as I watched.

<sup>3</sup> (The cherubim were standing on the south side of the temple when the man went in, and a cloud filled the inner court.)

<sup>4</sup> Then the glory of the LORD | strong="H3069" arose from the cherub and moved to the threshold of the temple. The temple was filled with the cloud while the court was filled with the brightness of the LORD's | strong="H3069" glory.

<sup>5</sup> The sound of the wings of the cherubim could be heard from the outer court, like the sound of the sovereign God when he speaks.

<sup>6</sup> When the LORD commanded | strong="H6680" the man dressed in linen, "Take fire from within the wheelwork, from among the cherubim," the man went in and stood by one of the wheels.

<sup>9</sup> As I watched, I noticed four wheels by the cherubim, one wheel beside each cherub; the wheels gleamed like jasper.

<sup>10</sup> As for their appearance, all four of them looked the same, something like a wheel within a wheel.

<sup>11</sup> When they moved, they would go in any of the four directions they faced without turning as they moved; in the direction the head would turn they would follow without turning as they moved,

<sup>12</sup> along with their entire bodies, their backs, their hands, and their wings. The wheels of the four of them were full of eyes all around.

<sup>13</sup> As for their wheels, they were called "the wheelwork" as I listened.

<sup>14</sup> Each of the cherubim had four faces: The first was the face of a cherub, the second that of a man, the third that of a lion, and the fourth that of an eagle.

<sup>16</sup> When the cherubim moved, the wheels moved beside them; when the cherubim spread their wings to rise from the ground, the wheels did not move from their side.

<sup>17</sup> When the cherubim stood still, the wheels stood still, and when they rose up, the wheels rose up with them, for the spirit of the living beings was in the wheels.

<sup>18</sup> Then the glory of the LORD moved away from the threshold of the temple and stopped above the cherubim.

<sup>19</sup> The cherubim spread their wings, and they rose up from the earth while I watched (when they went the wheels went alongside them). They stopped at the entrance to the east gate of the LORD's temple as the glory of the God of Israel hovered above them.

<sup>20</sup> These were the living creatures which I saw at the Kebar River underneath the God of Israel; I knew that they were cherubim.

<sup>21</sup> Each had four faces; each had four wings and the form of human hands under the wings.

<sup>22</sup> As for the form of their faces, they were the faces whose appearance I had seen at the Kebar River. Each one moved straight ahead.

11

<sup>1</sup> A wind lifted me up and brought me to the east gate of the Lord's temple that faces the east. There, at the entrance of the gate, I noticed twenty-five men. Among them I saw Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, officials of the people.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD said | strong="H0559" to me, "Son of man, these are the men who plot evil and give wicked advice in this city.

<sup>5</sup> Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon me and said to me, "Say: This is what the LORD says: 'This is what you are thinking, O house of Israel; I know what goes through your minds.

<sup>6</sup> You have killed many people in this city; you have filled its streets with corpses.'

<sup>8</sup> You fear the sword, so the sword I will bring against you,' declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>9</sup> 'But I will take you out of the city. And I will hand you over to foreigners. I will execute judgments on you.

<sup>10</sup> You will die by the sword; I will judge you at the border of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> This city will not be a cooking pot for you, and you will not be meat within it; I will judge you at the border of Israel.

<sup>12</sup> Then you will know that I am the LORD, whose statutes you have not followed and whose regulations you have not carried out. Instead you have behaved according to the regulations of the nations around you!' "

<sup>13</sup> Now, while I was prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died. Then I threw myself face down and cried out with a loud voice, "Alas, sovereign LORD! You are completely wiping out the remnant of Israel!"

<sup>14</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>15</sup> "Son of man, your brothers, your relatives, and the whole house of Israel, all of them are those to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, 'They have gone far away from the LORD; to us this land has been given as a possession.'

<sup>16</sup> "Therefore say: 'This is what the sovereign LORD says: Although I have removed them far away among the nations and have dispersed them among the countries, I have been a little sanctuary for them among the lands where they have gone.'

<sup>17</sup> "Therefore say: 'This is what the sovereign LORD says: When I regather you from the peoples and assemble you from the lands where you have been dispersed, I will give you back the country of Israel.'

<sup>18</sup> "When they return to it, they will remove from it all its detestable things and all its abominations.

<sup>19</sup> I will give them one heart and I will put a new spirit within them; I will remove the hearts of stone from their bodies and I will give them tender hearts, <sup>20</sup> so that they may follow my statutes and observe my regulations and carry them out. Then they will be my people, and I will be their God.

<sup>21</sup> But those whose hearts are devoted to detestable things and abominations, I hereby repay them for what they have done, says the sovereign LORD.”

<sup>22</sup> Then the cherubim spread their wings with their wheels alongside them while the glory of the God of Israel hovered above them.

<sup>23</sup> The glory of the LORD rose up from within the city and stopped over the mountain east of it.

<sup>24</sup> Then a wind lifted me up and carried me to the exiles in Babylonia, in the vision given to me by the Spirit of God.

Then the vision I had seen went up from me.

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, you are living in the midst of a rebellious house. They have eyes to see, but do not see, and ears to hear, but do not hear, because they are a rebellious house.

<sup>3</sup> “Therefore, son of man, pack up your belongings as if for exile. During the day, while they are watching, pretend to go into exile. Go from where you live to another place. Perhaps they will understand, although they are a rebellious house.

<sup>4</sup> Bring out your belongings packed for exile during the day while they are watching. And go out at evening, while they are watching, as if for exile.

<sup>6</sup> While they are watching, raise your baggage onto your shoulder and carry it out in the dark. You must cover your face so that you cannot see the ground because I have made you an object lesson to the house of Israel.”

<sup>7</sup> So I did just as I was commanded. I carried out my belongings packed for exile during the day, and at evening I dug myself a hole through the wall with my hands. I went out in the darkness, carrying my baggage on my shoulder while they watched.

<sup>8</sup> The word of the LORD came to me in the morning:

<sup>9</sup> “Son of man, has not the house of Israel, that rebellious house, said to you, ‘What are you doing?’

<sup>10</sup> Say to them, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: The prince will raise this burden in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel within it.’

<sup>11</sup> Say, ‘I am an object lesson for you. Just as I have done, it will be done to them; they will go into exile and captivity.’

<sup>12</sup> “The prince who is among them will raise his belongings onto his shoulder in darkness, and will go out. He will dig a hole in the wall to leave through. He will cover his face so that he cannot see the land with his eyes.

<sup>13</sup> But I will throw my net over him, and he will be caught in my snare. I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans (but he will not see it), and there he will die.

<sup>14</sup> All his retinue – his attendants and his troops – I will scatter to every wind; I will unleash a sword behind them.

<sup>15</sup> “Then they will know that I am the LORD when I disperse them among the nations and scatter them among foreign countries.

<sup>16</sup> But I will let a small number of them survive the sword, famine, and pestilence, so that they can confess all their abominable practices to the nations where they go. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>17</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>18</sup> “Son of man, eat your bread with trembling, and drink your water with anxious shaking.

<sup>19</sup> Then say to the people of the land, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says about the inhabitants of Jerusalem and of the land of Israel: They will eat their bread with anxiety and drink their water in fright, for their land will be stripped bare of all it contains because of the violence of all who live in it.

<sup>20</sup> The inhabited towns will be left in ruins and the land will be devastated. Then you will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

<sup>22</sup> “Son of man, what is this proverb you have in the land of Israel, ‘The days pass slowly, and every vision fails’?

<sup>23</sup> Therefore tell them, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: I hereby end this proverb; they will not recite it in Israel any longer.’ But say to them, ‘The days are at hand when every vision will be fulfilled.

<sup>24</sup> For there will no longer be any false visions or flattering omens amidst the house of Israel.

<sup>25</sup> For I, the LORD, will speak. Whatever word I speak will be accomplished. It will not be delayed any longer. Indeed in your days, O rebellious house, I will speak the word and accomplish it, declares the sovereign LORD.’ ”

<sup>26</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>27</sup> “Take note, son of man, the house of Israel is saying, ‘The vision that he sees is for distant days; he is prophesying about the far future.’

<sup>28</sup> Therefore say to them, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: None of my words will be delayed any longer! The word I speak will come to pass, declares the sovereign LORD.’ ”

13

<sup>5</sup> You have not gone up in the breaks in the wall, nor repaired a wall for the house of Israel that it would stand strong in the battle on the day of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> They see delusion and their omens are a lie. They say, “the LORD declares,” though the LORD has not sent them; yet they expect their word to be confirmed.

<sup>7</sup> Have you not seen a false vision and announced a lying omen when you say, “the LORD declares,” although I myself never spoke?

<sup>8</sup> “Therefore, this is what the sovereign LORD says: Because you have spoken false words and forecast delusion, look, I am against you, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>9</sup> My hand will be against the prophets who see delusion and announce lying omens. They will not be included in the council of my people, nor be written in the registry of the house of Israel, nor enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the sovereign LORD.

<sup>10</sup> “This is because they have led my people astray saying, “All is well,” when things are not well. When anyone builds a wall without mortar, they coat it with whitewash.

<sup>11</sup> Tell the ones who coat it with whitewash that it will fall. When there is a deluge of rain, hailstones will fall and a violent wind will break out.

<sup>12</sup> When the wall has collapsed, people will ask you, “Where is the whitewash you coated it with?”

<sup>13</sup> “Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: In my rage I will make a violent wind break out. In my anger there will be a deluge of rain and hailstones in destructive fury.

<sup>14</sup> I will break down the wall you coated with whitewash and knock it to the ground so that its foundation is exposed. When it falls you will be destroyed beneath it, and you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> I will vent my rage against the wall, and against those who coated it with whitewash. Then I will say to you, “The wall is no more and those who whitewashed it are no more – <sup>16</sup> those prophets of Israel who would prophesy about Jerusalem and would see visions of peace for it, when there was no peace,” declares the sovereign LORD.’

<sup>17</sup> “As for you, son of man, turn toward the daughters of your people who are prophesying from their imagination. Prophesy against them

<sup>18</sup> and say ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: Woe to those who sew bands on all their wrists and make headbands for heads of every size to entrap people’s lives! Will you entrap my people’s lives, yet preserve your own lives?

<sup>19</sup> You have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and scraps of bread. You have put to death people who should not die and kept alive those who should not live by your lies to my people, who listen to lies!

<sup>20</sup> “Therefore, this is what the sovereign LORD says: Take note that I am against your wristbands with which you entrap people’s lives like birds. I will tear them from your arms and will release the people’s lives, which you hunt like birds.

<sup>21</sup> I will tear off your headbands and rescue my people from your power; they will no longer be prey in your hands. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>22</sup> This is because you have disheartened the righteous person with lies (although I have not grieved him), and because you have encouraged the wicked person not to turn from his evil conduct and preserve his life.

<sup>23</sup> Therefore you will no longer see false visions and practice divination. I will rescue my people from your power, and you will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

14

<sup>3</sup> “Son of man, these men have erected their idols in their hearts and placed the obstacle leading to their iniquity right before their faces. Should I really allow them to seek me?

<sup>4</sup> Therefore speak to them and say to them, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: When any one from the house of Israel erects his idols in his heart and sets the obstacle leading to his iniquity before his face, and then consults a prophet, I the LORD am determined to answer him personally according to the enormity of his idolatry.

<sup>5</sup> I will do this in order to capture the hearts of the house of Israel, who have alienated themselves from me on account of all their idols.’

<sup>6</sup> “Therefore say to the house of Israel, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: Return! Turn from your idols, and turn your faces away from your abominations.

<sup>7</sup> For when anyone from the house of Israel, or the foreigner who lives in Israel, separates himself from me and erects his idols in his heart and sets the obstacle leading to his iniquity before his face, and then consults a prophet to seek something from me, I the LORD am determined to answer him personally.

<sup>8</sup> I will set my face against that person and will make him an object lesson and a byword and will cut him off from among my people. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> “As for the prophet, if he is made a fool by being deceived into speaking a prophetic word – I, the LORD, have made a fool of that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand against him and destroy him from among my people Israel.

<sup>10</sup> They will bear their punishment; the punishment of the one who sought an oracle will be the same as the punishment of the prophet who gave it

<sup>11</sup> so that the house of Israel will no longer go astray from me, nor continue to defile themselves by all their sins. They will be my people and I will be their God, declares the sovereign LORD.’ ”

<sup>12</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>13</sup> “Son of man, suppose a country sins against me by being unfaithful, and I stretch out my hand against it, cut off its bread supply, cause famine to come on it, and kill both people and animals.

<sup>14</sup> Even if these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they would save only their own lives by their righteousness, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>15</sup> “Suppose I were to send wild animals through the land and kill its children, leaving it desolate, without travelers due to the wild animals.

<sup>16</sup> Even if these three men were in it, as surely as I live, declares the sovereign LORD, they could not save their own sons or daughters; they would save only their own lives, and the land would become desolate.

<sup>17</sup> “Or suppose I were to bring a sword against that land and say, ‘Let a sword pass through the land,’ and I were to kill both people and animals.

<sup>18</sup> Even if these three men were in it, as surely as I live, declares the sovereign LORD, they could not save their own sons or daughters – they would save only their own lives.

<sup>19</sup> “Or suppose I were to send a plague into that land, and pour out my rage on it with bloodshed, killing both people and animals.

<sup>20</sup> Even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as surely as I live, declares the sovereign LORD, they could not save their own son or daughter; they would save only their own lives by their righteousness.

<sup>21</sup> “For this is what the sovereign LORD says: How much worse will it be when I send my four terrible judgments – sword, famine, wild animals, and plague – to Jerusalem to kill both people and animals!

<sup>22</sup> Yet some survivors will be left in it, sons and daughters who will be brought out. They will come out to you, and when you see their behavior and their deeds, you will be consoled about the catastrophe I have brought on Jerusalem – for everything I brought on it.

<sup>23</sup> They will console you when you see their behavior and their deeds, because you will know that it was not without reason that I have done everything which I have done in it, declares the sovereign LORD.”

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, of all the woody branches among the trees of the forest, what happens to the wood of the vine?

<sup>3</sup> Can wood be taken from it to make anything useful? Or can anyone make a peg from it to hang things on?

<sup>4</sup> No! It is thrown in the fire for fuel; when the fire has burned up both ends of it and it is charred in the middle, will it be useful for anything?

<sup>5</sup> Indeed! If it was not made into anything useful when it was whole, how much less can it be made into anything when the fire has burned it up and it is charred?

<sup>6</sup> “Therefore, this is what the sovereign LORD says: Like the wood of the vine is among the trees of the forest which I have provided as fuel for the fire – so I will provide the residents of Jerusalem as fuel.

<sup>7</sup> I will set my face against them – although they have escaped from the fire, the fire will still consume them! Then you will know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them.

<sup>3</sup> and say, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says to Jerusalem: Your origin and your birth were in the land of the Canaanites; your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite.

<sup>4</sup> As for your birth, on the day you were born your umbilical cord was not cut, nor were you washed in water; you were certainly not rubbed down with salt, nor wrapped with blankets.

<sup>5</sup> No eye took pity on you to do even one of these things for you to spare you; you were thrown out into the open field because you were detested on the day you were born.

<sup>6</sup> “I passed by you and saw you kicking around helplessly in your blood. I said to you as you lay there in your blood, “Live!” I said to you as you lay there in your blood, “Live!”

<sup>7</sup> I made you plentiful like sprouts in a field; you grew tall and came of age so that you could wear jewelry. Your breasts had formed and your hair had grown, but you were still naked and bare.

<sup>8</sup> “Then I passed by you and watched you, noticing that you had reached the age for love. I spread my cloak over you and covered your nakedness. I swore a solemn oath to you and entered into a marriage covenant with you, declares the sovereign LORD, and you became mine.

<sup>9</sup> “Then I bathed you in water, washed the blood off you, and anointed you with fragrant oil.

<sup>10</sup> I dressed you in embroidered clothing and put fine leather sandals on your feet. I wrapped you with fine linen and covered you with silk.

<sup>11</sup> I adorned you with jewelry. I put bracelets on your hands and a necklace around your neck.

<sup>12</sup> I put a ring in your nose, earrings on your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head.

<sup>13</sup> You were adorned with gold and silver, while your clothing was of fine linen, silk, and embroidery. You ate the finest flour, honey, and olive oil. You became extremely beautiful and attained the position of royalty.

<sup>14</sup> Your fame spread among the nations because of your beauty; your beauty was perfect because of the splendor which I bestowed on you, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>15</sup> “But you trusted in your beauty and capitalized on your fame by becoming a prostitute. You offered your sexual favors to every man who passed by so that your beauty became his.

<sup>16</sup> You took some of your clothing and made for yourself decorated high places; you engaged in prostitution on them. You went to him to become his.

<sup>17</sup> You also took your beautiful jewelry, made of my gold and my silver I had given to you, and made for yourself male images and engaged in prostitution with them.

<sup>18</sup> You took your embroidered clothing and used it to cover them; you offered my olive oil and my incense to them.

<sup>19</sup> As for my food that I gave you – the fine flour, olive oil, and honey I fed you – you placed it before them as a soothing aroma. That is exactly what happened, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>20</sup> “You took your sons and your daughters whom you bore to me and you sacrificed them as food for the idols to eat. As if your prostitution not enough, <sup>21</sup> you slaughtered my children and sacrificed them to the idols.

<sup>22</sup> And with all your abominable practices and prostitution you did not remember the days of your youth when you were naked and bare, kicking around in your blood.

<sup>23</sup> “After all of your evil – “Woe! Woe to you!” declares the sovereign LORD –

<sup>25</sup> At the head of every street you erected your pavilion and you disgraced your beauty when you spread your legs to every passerby and multiplied your promiscuity.

<sup>26</sup> You engaged in prostitution with the Egyptians, your sexually aroused neighbors, multiplying your promiscuity and provoking me to anger.

<sup>27</sup> So see here, I have stretched out my hand against you and cut off your rations. I have delivered you into the power of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who were ashamed by your obscene conduct.

<sup>28</sup> You engaged in prostitution with the Assyrians because your sexual desires were insatiable; you prostituted yourself with them and yet you were still not satisfied.

<sup>29</sup> Then you multiplied your promiscuity to the land of merchants, Babylonia, but you were not satisfied there either.

<sup>30</sup> “How sick is your heart, declares the sovereign LORD, when you perform all of these acts, the deeds of a bold prostitute.

<sup>31</sup> When you built your chamber at the head of every street and put up your pavilion in every public square, you were not like a prostitute, because you scoffed at payment.

<sup>33</sup> All prostitutes receive payment, but instead you give gifts to every one of your lovers. You bribe them to come to you from all around for your sexual favors!

<sup>34</sup> You were different from other prostitutes because no one solicited you. When you gave payment and no payment was given to you, you became the opposite!

<sup>36</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says: Because your lust was poured out and your nakedness was uncovered in your prostitution with your lovers, and because of all your detestable idols, and because of the blood of your children you have given to them,

<sup>37</sup> therefore, take note: I am about to gather all your lovers whom you enjoyed, both all those you loved and all those you hated. I will gather them against you from all around, and I will expose your nakedness to them, and they will see all your nakedness.

<sup>38</sup> I will punish you as an adulteress and murderer deserves. I will avenge your bloody deeds with furious rage.

<sup>39</sup> I will give you into their hands and they will destroy your chambers and tear down your pavilions. They will strip you of your clothing and take your beautiful jewelry and leave you naked and bare.

<sup>40</sup> They will summon a mob who will stone you and hack you in pieces with their swords.

<sup>41</sup> They will burn down your houses and execute judgments on you in front of many women. Thus I will put a stop to your prostitution, and you will no longer give gifts to your clients.

<sup>42</sup> I will exhaust my rage on you, and then my fury will turn from you. I will calm down and no longer be angry.

<sup>43</sup> “Because you did not remember the days of your youth and have enraged me with all these deeds, I hereby repay you for what you have done, declares the sovereign LORD. Have you not engaged in prostitution on top of all your other abominable practices?

<sup>45</sup> You are the daughter of your mother, who detested her husband and her sons, and you are the sister of your sisters who detested their husbands and their sons. Your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite.

<sup>47</sup> Have you not copied their behavior and practiced their abominable deeds? In a short time you became even more depraved in all your conduct than they were!

<sup>48</sup> As surely as I live, declares the sovereign LORD, your sister Sodom and her daughters never behaved as wickedly as you and your daughters have behaved.

<sup>49</sup> “See here – this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: She and her daughters had majesty, abundance of food, and enjoyed carefree ease, but they did not help the poor and needy.

<sup>50</sup> They were haughty and practiced abominable deeds before me. Therefore when I saw it I removed them.

<sup>51</sup> Samaria has not committed half the sins you have; you have done more abominable deeds than they did. You have made your sisters appear righteous with all the abominable things you have done.

<sup>52</sup> So now, bear your disgrace, because you have given your sisters reason to justify their behavior. Because the sins you have committed were more abominable than those of your sisters; they have become more righteous than you. So now, be ashamed and bear the disgrace of making your sisters appear righteous.

<sup>53</sup> “I will restore their fortunes, the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters, and the fortunes of Samaria and her daughters (along with your fortunes among them), <sup>54</sup> so that you may bear your disgrace and be ashamed of all you have done in consoling them.

<sup>55</sup> As for your sisters, Sodom and her daughters will be restored to their former status, Samaria and her daughters will be restored to their former status, and you and your daughters will be restored to your former status.

<sup>56</sup> In your days of majesty, was not Sodom your sister a byword in your mouth, <sup>57</sup> before your evil was exposed? Now you have become an object of scorn to the daughters of Aram and all those around her and to the daughters of the Philistines – those all around you who despise you.

<sup>59</sup> “For this is what the sovereign LORD says: I will deal with you according to what you have done when you despised your oath by breaking your covenant.

<sup>60</sup> Yet I will remember the covenant I made with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish a lasting covenant with you.

<sup>61</sup> Then you will remember your conduct, and be ashamed when you receive your older and younger sisters. I will give them to you as daughters, but not on account of my covenant with you.

<sup>62</sup> I will establish my covenant with you, and then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>63</sup> Then you will remember, be ashamed, and remain silent when I make atonement for all you have done, declares the sovereign LORD.’ ”

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, offer a riddle, and tell a parable to the house of Israel.

“ ‘A great eagle with broad wings, long feathers, with full plumage which was multi-hued, came to Lebanon and took the top of the cedar.

<sup>4</sup> He plucked off its topmost shoot; he brought it to a land of merchants and planted it in a city of traders.

<sup>5</sup> He took one of the seedlings of the land, placed it in a cultivated plot; a shoot by abundant water, like a willow he planted it.

<sup>6</sup> It sprouted and became a vine, spreading low to the ground; its branches turning toward him, its roots were under itself. So it became a vine; it produced shoots and sent out branches.

<sup>7</sup> “‘There was another great eagle with broad wings and thick plumage. Now this vine twisted its roots toward him and sent its branches toward him to be watered from the soil where it was planted.

<sup>8</sup> In a good field, by abundant waters, it was planted to grow branches, bear fruit, and become a beautiful vine.

<sup>9</sup> “‘Say to them: This is what the sovereign LORD says: “ ‘Will it prosper?

Will he not rip out its roots and cause its fruit to rot and wither? All its foliage will wither.

No strong arm or large army will be needed to pull it out by its roots.

<sup>10</sup> Consider! It is planted, but will it prosper?

Will it not wither completely when the east wind blows on it?

Will it not wither in the soil where it sprouted?’ ”

<sup>11</sup> Then the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>12</sup> “Say to the rebellious house of Israel: ‘Don’t you know what these things mean?’ Say: ‘See here, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and took her king and her officials prisoner and brought them to himself in Babylon.

<sup>13</sup> He took one from the royal family, made a treaty with him, and put him under oath. He then took the leaders of the land

<sup>14</sup> so it would be a lowly kingdom which could not rise on its own but must keep its treaty with him in order to stand.

<sup>15</sup> But this one from Israel’s royal family rebelled against the king of Babylon by sending his emissaries to Egypt to obtain horses and a large army. Will he prosper? Will the one doing these things escape? Can he break the covenant and escape?

<sup>16</sup> “‘As surely as I live, declares the sovereign LORD, surely in the city of the king who crowned him, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke – in the middle of Babylon he will die!

<sup>18</sup> He despised the oath by breaking the covenant. Take note – he gave his promise and did all these things – he will not escape!

<sup>19</sup> “Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: As surely as I live, I will certainly repay him for despising my oath and breaking my covenant!

<sup>20</sup> I will throw my net over him and he will be caught in my snare; I will bring him to Babylon and judge him there because of the unfaithfulness he committed against me.

<sup>21</sup> All the choice men among his troops will die by the sword and the survivors will be scattered to every wind. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken!

“ ‘I will take a sprig from the lofty top of the cedar and plant it.

I will pluck from the top one of its tender twigs;

I myself will plant it on a high and lofty mountain.

<sup>23</sup> I will plant it on a high mountain of Israel, and it will raise branches and produce fruit and become a beautiful cedar.

Every bird will live under it;

Every winged creature will live in the shade of its branches.

<sup>24</sup> All the trees of the field will know that I am the LORD.

I make the high tree low; I raise up the low tree.

I make the green tree wither, and I make the dry tree sprout.

I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do it!’ ”

<sup>2</sup> “What do you mean by quoting this proverb concerning the land of Israel,

“‘The fathers eat sour grapes

And the children’s teeth become numb?’

<sup>3</sup> “As surely as I live, declares the sovereign LORD, you will not quote this proverb in Israel anymore!

<sup>4</sup> Indeed! All lives are mine – the life of the father as well as the life of the son is mine. The one who sins will die.

<sup>6</sup> does not eat pagan sacrifices on the mountains or pray to the idols of the house of Israel, does not defile his neighbor’s wife, does not have sexual relations with a woman during her period,

<sup>7</sup> does not oppress anyone, but gives the debtor back whatever was given in pledge, does not commit robbery, but gives his bread to the hungry and clothes the naked,

<sup>8</sup> does not engage in usury or charge interest, but refrains from wrongdoing, promotes true justice between men, <sup>9</sup> and follows my statutes and observes my regulations by carrying them out. That man is righteous; he will certainly live, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>10</sup> “Suppose such a man has a violent son who sheds blood and does any of these things mentioned previously <sup>11</sup> (though the father did not do any of them). He eats pagan sacrifices on the mountains, defiles his neighbor’s wife,

<sup>12</sup> oppresses the poor and the needy, commits robbery, does not give back what was given in pledge, prays to idols, performs abominable acts,

<sup>13</sup> engages in usury and charges interest. Will he live? He will not! Because he has done all these abominable deeds he will certainly die. He will bear the responsibility for his own death.

<sup>14</sup> “But suppose he in turn has a son who notices all the sins his father commits, considers them, and does not follow his father’s example.

<sup>15</sup> He does not eat pagan sacrifices on the mountains, does not pray to the idols of the house of Israel, does not defile his neighbor's wife,

<sup>16</sup> does not oppress anyone or keep what has been given in pledge, does not commit robbery, gives his food to the hungry, and clothes the naked,

<sup>17</sup> refrains from wrongdoing, does not engage in usury or charge interest, carries out my regulations and follows my statutes. He will not die for his father's iniquity; he will surely live.

<sup>18</sup> As for his father, because he practices extortion, robs his brother, and does what is not good among his people, he will die for his iniquity.

<sup>19</sup> "Yet you say, 'Why should the son not suffer for his father's iniquity?' When the son does what is just and right, and observes all my statutes and carries them out, he will surely live.

<sup>20</sup> The person who sins is the one who will die. A son will not suffer for his father's iniquity, and a father will not suffer for his son's iniquity; the righteous person will be judged according to his righteousness, and the wicked person according to his wickedness.

<sup>21</sup> "But if the wicked person turns from all the sin he has committed and observes all my statutes and does what is just and right, he will surely live; he will not die.

<sup>22</sup> None of the sins he has committed will be held against him; because of the righteousness he has done, he will live.

<sup>23</sup> Do I actually delight in the death of the wicked, declares the sovereign LORD? Do I not prefer that he turn from his wicked conduct and live?

<sup>24</sup> "But if a righteous man turns away from his righteousness and practices wrongdoing according to all the abominable practices the wicked carry out, will he live? All his righteous acts will not be remembered; because of the unfaithful acts he has done and the sin he has committed, he will die.

<sup>25</sup> "Yet you say, 'The Lord's conduct is unjust!' Hear, O house of Israel: Is my conduct unjust? Is it not your conduct that is unjust?

<sup>26</sup> When a righteous person turns back from his righteousness and practices wrongdoing, he will die for it; because of the wrongdoing he has done, he will die.

<sup>27</sup> When a wicked person turns from the wickedness he has committed and does what is just and right, he will preserve his life.

<sup>28</sup> Because he considered and turned from all the sins he had done, he will surely live; he will not die.

<sup>29</sup> Yet the house of Israel says, 'The Lord's conduct is unjust!' Is my conduct unjust, O house of Israel? Is it not your conduct that is unjust?

<sup>30</sup> "Therefore I will judge each person according to his conduct, O house of Israel, declares the sovereign LORD. Repent and turn from all your wickedness; then it will not be an obstacle leading to iniquity.

<sup>31</sup> Throw away all your sins you have committed and fashion yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why should you die, O house of Israel?

<sup>32</sup> For I take no delight in the death of anyone, declares the sovereign LORD. Repent and live!

<sup>2</sup> and say:

" 'What a lioness was your mother among the lions!
She lay among young lions; she reared her cubs.

He learned to tear prey; he devoured people.

<sup>4</sup> The nations heard about him; he was trapped in their pit.
They brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt.
<sup>5</sup> “When she realized that she waited in vain, her hope was lost.
She took another of her cubs and made him a young lion.
<sup>6</sup> He walked about among the lions; he became a young lion.
He learned to tear prey; he devoured people.
<sup>7</sup> He broke down their strongholds and devastated their cities.
The land and everything in it was frightened at the sound of his roaring.
<sup>8</sup> The nations – the surrounding regions – attacked him.
They threw their net over him; he was caught in their pit.
<sup>9</sup> They put him in a collar with hooks;
they brought him to the king of Babylon;
they brought him to prison
so that his voice would not be heard any longer on the mountains of Israel.
<sup>10</sup> “Your mother was like a vine in your vineyard, planted by water.
It was fruitful and full of branches because it was well-watered.
<sup>11</sup> Its boughs were strong, fit for rulers’ scepters; it reached up into the clouds.
It stood out because of its height and its many branches.
<sup>12</sup> But it was plucked up in anger; it was thrown down to the ground.
The east wind dried up its fruit; its strong branches broke off and withered –
a fire consumed them.
<sup>13</sup> Now it is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land.
<sup>14</sup> A fire has gone out from its branch; it has consumed its shoot and its fruit.
No strong branch was left in it, nor a scepter to rule.’
This is a lament song, and has become a lament song.”

20

<sup>1</sup> In the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth of the month, some of the elders of Israel came to seek the LORD, and they sat down in front of me.
<sup>2</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:
<sup>3</sup> “Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and tell them: ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: Are you coming to seek me? As surely as I live, I will not allow you to seek me, declares the sovereign LORD.’
<sup>4</sup> “Are you willing to pronounce judgment? Are you willing to pronounce judgment, son of man? Then confront them with the abominable practices of their fathers, <sup>5</sup> and say to them:
“ ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: On the day I chose Israel I swore to the descendants of the house of Jacob and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt. I swore to them, “I am the LORD your God.”
<sup>6</sup> On that day I swore to bring them out of the land of Egypt to a land which I had picked out for them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful of all lands.
<sup>7</sup> I said to them, “Each of you must get rid of the detestable idols you keep before you, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am the LORD your God.”
<sup>8</sup> But they rebelled against me, and refused to listen to me; no one got rid of their detestable idols, nor did they abandon the idols of Egypt. Then I decided to pour out my rage on them and fully vent my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> I acted for the sake of my reputation, so that I would not be profaned before the nations among whom they lived, before whom I revealed myself by bringing them out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup> “So I brought them out of the land of Egypt and led them to the wilderness.

<sup>11</sup> I gave them my statutes and revealed my regulations to them. The one who carries them out will live by them!

<sup>12</sup> I also gave them my Sabbaths as a reminder of our relationship, so that they would know that I, the LORD, sanctify them.

<sup>13</sup> But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness; they did not follow my statutes and they rejected my regulations (the one who obeys them will live by them), and they utterly desecrated my Sabbaths. So I decided to pour out my rage on them in the wilderness and destroy them.

<sup>14</sup> I acted for the sake of my reputation, so that I would not be profaned before the nations in whose sight I had brought them out.

<sup>15</sup> I also swore to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them to the land I had given them – a land flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful of all lands.

<sup>16</sup> I did this because they rejected my regulations, did not follow my statutes, and desecrated my Sabbaths; for their hearts followed their idols.

<sup>17</sup> Yet I had pity on them and did not destroy them, so I did not make an end of them in the wilderness.

<sup>19</sup> I am the LORD your God; follow my statutes, observe my regulations, and carry them out.

<sup>20</sup> Treat my Sabbaths as holy and they will be a reminder of our relationship, and then you will know that I am the LORD your God.”

<sup>21</sup> “But the children rebelled against me, did not follow my statutes, did not observe my regulations by carrying them out (the one who obeys them will live by them), and desecrated my Sabbaths. I decided to pour out my rage on them and fully vent my anger against them in the wilderness.

<sup>22</sup> But I refrained from doing so, and acted instead for the sake of my reputation, so that I would not be profaned before the nations in whose sight I had brought them out.

<sup>23</sup> I also swore to them in the wilderness that I would scatter them among the nations and disperse them throughout the lands.

<sup>24</sup> I did this because they did not observe my regulations, they rejected my statutes, they desecrated my Sabbaths, and their eyes were fixed on their fathers’ idols.

<sup>25</sup> I also gave them decrees which were not good and regulations by which they could not live.

<sup>26</sup> I declared them to be defiled because of their sacrifices – they caused all their first born to pass through the fire – so that I would devastate them, so that they will know that I am the LORD.’

<sup>27</sup> “Therefore, speak to the house of Israel, son of man, and tell them, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: In this way too your fathers blasphemed me when they were unfaithful to me.

<sup>28</sup> I brought them to the land which I swore to give them, but whenever they saw any high hill or leafy tree, they offered their sacrifices there and presented the offerings that provoke me to anger. They offered their soothing aroma there and poured out their drink offerings.

<sup>29</sup> So I said to them, What is this high place you go to?’ ” (So it is called “High Place” to this day.)

<sup>30</sup> “Therefore say to the house of Israel, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: Will you defile yourselves like your fathers and engage in prostitution with detestable idols?’

<sup>31</sup> When you present your sacrifices – when you make your sons pass through the fire – you defile yourselves with all your idols to this very day. Will I allow you to seek me, O house of Israel? As surely as I live, declares the sovereign LORD, I will not allow you to seek me!

<sup>32</sup> “‘What you plan will never happen. You say, “We will be like the nations, like the clans of the lands, who serve gods of wood and stone.”

<sup>33</sup> As surely as I live, declares the sovereign LORD, with a powerful hand and an outstretched arm, and with an outpouring of rage, I will be king over you.

<sup>34</sup> I will bring you out from the nations, and will gather you from the lands where you are scattered, with a powerful hand and an outstretched arm and with an outpouring of rage!

<sup>35</sup> I will bring you into the wilderness of the nations, and there I will enter into judgment with you face to face.

<sup>36</sup> Just as I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgment with you, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>37</sup> I will make you pass under the shepherd’s staff, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant.

<sup>38</sup> I will eliminate from among you the rebels and those who revolt against me. I will bring them out from the land where they have been residing, but they will not come to the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>39</sup> “‘As for you, O house of Israel, this is what the sovereign LORD says: Each of you go and serve your idols, if you will not listen to me. But my holy name will not be profaned again by your sacrifices and your idols.

<sup>40</sup> For there on my holy mountain, the high mountain of Israel, declares the sovereign LORD, all the house of Israel will serve me, all of them in the land. I will accept them there, and there I will seek your contributions and your choice gifts, with all your holy things.

<sup>41</sup> When I bring you out from the nations and gather you from the lands where you are scattered, I will accept you along with your soothing aroma. I will display my holiness among you in the sight of the nations.

<sup>42</sup> Then you will know that I am the LORD when I bring you to the land of Israel, to the land I swore to give to your fathers.

<sup>43</sup> And there you will remember your conduct and all your deeds by which you defiled yourselves. You will despise yourselves because of all the evil deeds you have done.

<sup>44</sup> Then you will know that I am the LORD, when I deal with you for the sake of my reputation and not according to your wicked conduct and corrupt deeds, O house of Israel, declares the sovereign LORD.’ ”

Prophecy Against the South

<sup>45</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>46</sup> “Son of man, turn toward the south, and speak out against the south. Prophecy against the open scrub land of the Negev, <sup>47</sup> and say to the scrub land of the Negev, ‘Hear the word of the LORD: This is what the sovereign LORD says: Look here, I am about to start a fire in you, and it will devour every green tree and every dry tree in you. The flaming fire will not be extinguished, and the whole surface of the ground from the Negev to the north will be scorched by it.

<sup>49</sup> Then I said, “O sovereign LORD! They are saying of me, ‘Does he not simply speak in eloquent figures of speech?’ ”

21

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, turn toward Jerusalem and speak out against the sanctuaries. Prophecy against the land of Israel

<sup>3</sup> and say to them, ‘This is what the LORD says: Look, I am against you. I will draw my sword from its sheath and cut off from you both the righteous and the wicked.

<sup>4</sup> Because I will cut off from you both the righteous and the wicked, my sword will go out from its sheath against everyone from the south to the north.

<sup>5</sup> Then everyone will know that I am the LORD, who drew my sword from its sheath – it will not be sheathed again!’

<sup>6</sup> “And you, son of man, groan with an aching heart and bitterness; groan before their eyes.

<sup>7</sup> When they ask you, ‘Why are you groaning?’ you will reply, ‘Because of the report that has come. Every heart will melt with fear and every hand will be limp; everyone will faint and every knee will be wet with urine.’ Pay attention – it is coming and it will happen, declares the sovereign LORD.”

<sup>8</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>9</sup> “Son of man, prophesy and say: ‘This is what the Lord says:
“ ‘A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also polished.

<sup>10</sup> It is sharpened for slaughter, it is polished to flash like lightning!

“ ‘Should we rejoice in the scepter of my son? No! The sword despises every tree!

<sup>11</sup> “‘He gave it to be polished, to be grasped in the hand – the sword is sharpened, it is polished – giving it into the hand of the executioner.

<sup>12</sup> Cry out and moan, son of man, for it is wielded against my people;
against all the princes of Israel.
They are delivered up to the sword, along with my people.
Therefore, strike your thigh.

<sup>13</sup> “‘For testing will come, and what will happen when the scepter, which the sword despises, is no more? declares the sovereign LORD.’

<sup>14</sup> “And you, son of man, prophesy, and clap your hands together.
Let the sword strike twice, even three times!
It is a sword for slaughter,
a sword for the great slaughter surrounding them.

<sup>15</sup> So hearts melt with fear and many stumble.
At all their gates I have stationed the sword for slaughter.
Ah! It is made to flash, it is drawn for slaughter!

<sup>16</sup> Cut sharply on the right!
Swing to the left,
wherever your edge is appointed to strike.

<sup>17</sup> I too will clap my hands together,
I will exhaust my rage;
I the LORD have spoken.”

<sup>18</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>19</sup> “You, son of man, mark out two routes for the king of Babylon’s sword to take; both of them will originate in a single land. Make a signpost and put it at the beginning of the road leading to the city.

<sup>23</sup> But those in Jerusalem will view it as a false omen. They have sworn solemn oaths, but the king of Babylon will accuse them of violations in order to seize them.

<sup>24</sup> “Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: ‘Because you have brought up your own guilt by uncovering your transgressions and revealing your sins through all your actions, for this reason you will be taken by force.

<sup>25</sup> “‘As for you, profane and wicked prince of Israel, whose day has come, the time of final punishment,

<sup>26</sup> this is what the sovereign LORD says:

Tear off the turban,
take off the crown!
Things must change!

Exalt the lowly,
bring down the proud!

<sup>27</sup> A total ruin I will make it!
It will come to an end

when the one arrives to whom I have assigned judgment.’

<sup>28</sup> “As for you, son of man, prophesy and say, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says concerning the Ammonites and their coming humiliation; say:

“ ‘A sword, a sword drawn for slaughter, polished to consume, to flash like lightning –

<sup>29</sup> while seeing false visions for you and reading lying omens for you – to place that sword on the necks of the profane wicked, whose day has come,
the time of final punishment.

<sup>30</sup> Return it to its sheath!
In the place where you were created, in your native land, I will judge you.

<sup>31</sup> I will pour out my anger on you;
the fire of my fury I will blow on you.
I will hand you over to brutal men, who are skilled in destruction.

<sup>32</sup> You will become fuel for the fire – your blood will stain the middle of the land;
you will no longer be remembered, for I, the LORD, have spoken.’ ”

22

<sup>2</sup> “As for you, son of man, are you willing to pronounce judgment, are you willing to pronounce judgment on the bloody city? Then confront her with all her abominable deeds!

<sup>3</sup> Then say, 'This is what the sovereign LORD says: O city, who spills blood within herself (which brings on her doom), and who makes herself idols (which results in impurity), <sup>4</sup> you are guilty because of the blood you shed and defiled by the idols you made. You have hastened the day of your doom; the end of your years has come. Therefore I will make you an object of scorn to the nations, an object to be mocked by all lands.

<sup>5</sup> Those both near and far from you will mock you, you with your bad reputation, full of turmoil.

<sup>6</sup> "See how each of the princes of Israel living within you has used his authority to shed blood.

<sup>7</sup> They have treated father and mother with contempt within you; they have oppressed the foreigner among you; they have wronged the orphan and the widow within you.

<sup>8</sup> You have despised my holy things and desecrated my Sabbaths!

<sup>9</sup> Slanderous men shed blood within you. Those who live within you eat pagan sacrifices on the mountains; they commit obscene acts among you.

<sup>10</sup> They have sex with their father's wife within you; they violate women during their menstrual period within you.

<sup>12</sup> They take bribes within you to shed blood. You engage in usury and charge interest; you extort money from your neighbors. You have forgotten me, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>13</sup> "See, I strike my hands together at the dishonest profit you have made, and at the bloodshed they have done among you.

<sup>14</sup> Can your heart endure, or can your hands be strong when I deal with you? I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do it!

<sup>15</sup> I will scatter you among the nations and disperse you among various countries; I will remove your impurity from you.

<sup>16</sup> You will be profaned within yourself in the sight of the nations; then you will know that I am the LORD.' "

<sup>17</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>18</sup> "Son of man, the house of Israel has become slag to me. All of them are like bronze, tin, iron, and lead in the furnace; they are the worthless slag of silver.

<sup>19</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: 'Because all of you have become slag, look out! – I am about to gather you in the middle of Jerusalem.

<sup>20</sup> As silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin are gathered in a furnace so that the fire can melt them, so I will gather you in my anger and in my rage. I will deposit you there and melt you.

<sup>21</sup> I will gather you and blow on you with the fire of my fury, and you will be melted in it.

<sup>22</sup> As silver is melted in a furnace, so you will be melted in it, and you will know that I, the LORD, have poured out my anger on you.' "

<sup>23</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>24</sup> "Son of man, say to her: 'You are a land that receives no rain or showers in the day of my anger.'

<sup>25</sup> Her princes within her are like a roaring lion tearing its prey; they have devoured lives. They take away riches and valuable things; they have made many women widows within it.

<sup>26</sup> Her priests abuse my law and have desecrated my holy things. They do not distinguish between the holy and the profane, or recognize any distinction between the unclean and the clean. They ignore my Sabbaths and I am profaned in their midst.

<sup>27</sup> Her officials are like wolves in her midst rending their prey – shedding blood and destroying lives – so they can get dishonest profit.

<sup>28</sup> Her prophets coat their messages with whitewash. They see false visions and announce lying omens for them, saying, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says,’ when the LORD has not spoken.

<sup>29</sup> The people of the land have practiced extortion and committed robbery. They have wronged the poor and needy; they have oppressed the foreigner who lives among them and denied them justice.

<sup>30</sup> “I looked for a man from among them who would repair the wall and stand in the gap before me on behalf of the land, so that I would not destroy it, but I found no one.

<sup>31</sup> So I have poured my anger on them, and destroyed them with the fire of my fury. I hereby repay them for what they have done, declares the sovereign LORD.”

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, there were two women who were daughters of the same mother.

<sup>3</sup> They engaged in prostitution in Egypt; in their youth they engaged in prostitution. Their breasts were squeezed there; lovers fondled their virgin nipples there.

<sup>4</sup> Oholah was the name of the older and Oholibah the name of her younger sister. They became mine, and gave birth to sons and daughters. Oholah is Samaria and Oholibah is Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> “Oholah engaged in prostitution while she was mine. She lusted after her lovers, the Assyrians – warriors

<sup>9</sup> Therefore I handed her over to her lovers, the Assyrians for whom she lusted.

<sup>10</sup> They exposed her nakedness, seized her sons and daughters, and killed her with the sword. She became notorious among women, and they executed judgments against her.

<sup>11</sup> “Her sister Oholibah watched this, but she became more corrupt in her lust than her sister had been, and her acts of prostitution were more numerous than those of her sister.

<sup>12</sup> She lusted after the Assyrians – governors and officials, warriors in full armor, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young men.

<sup>13</sup> I saw that she was defiled; both of them followed the same path.

<sup>14</sup> But she increased her prostitution. She saw men carved on the wall, images of the Chaldeans carved in bright red,

<sup>20</sup> She lusted after their genitals – as large as those of donkeys, and their seminal emission was as strong as that of stallions.

<sup>21</sup> This is how you assessed the obscene conduct of your youth, when the Egyptians fondled your nipples and squeezed your young breasts.

<sup>22</sup> “Therefore, Oholibah, this is what the sovereign LORD says: Look here, I am about to stir up against you the lovers with whom you were disgusted; I will bring them against you from every side:

<sup>23</sup> the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them, desirable young men, all of them governors and officials, officers and nobles, all of them riding on horses.

<sup>24</sup> They will attack you with weapons, chariots, wagons, and with a huge army; they will array themselves against you on every side with large shields, small shields, and helmets. I will assign them the task of judgment; they will punish you according to their laws.

<sup>25</sup> I will direct my jealous anger against you, and they will deal with you in rage. They will cut off your nose and your ears, and your survivors will die by the sword. They will seize your sons and daughters, and your survivors will be consumed by fire.

<sup>26</sup> They will strip your clothes off you and take away your beautiful jewelry.

<sup>27</sup> So I will put an end to your obscene conduct and your prostitution which you have practiced in the land of Egypt. You will not seek their help or remember Egypt anymore.

<sup>28</sup> “For this is what the sovereign LORD says: Look here, I am about to deliver you over to those whom you hate, to those with whom you were disgusted.

<sup>29</sup> They will treat you with hatred, take away all you have labored for, and leave you naked and bare. Your nakedness will be exposed, just as when you engaged in prostitution and obscene conduct.

<sup>30</sup> I will do these things to you because you engaged in prostitution with the nations, polluting yourself with their idols.

<sup>31</sup> You have followed the ways of your sister, so I will place her cup of judgment in your hand.

<sup>32</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says: “You will drink your sister’s deep and wide cup; you will be scorned and derided, for it holds a great deal.

<sup>33</sup> You will be overcome by drunkenness and sorrow. The cup of your sister Samaria is a cup of horror and desolation.

<sup>34</sup> You will drain it dry, gnaw its pieces, and tear out your breasts, for I have spoken, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>35</sup> “Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: Because you have forgotten me and completely disregarded me, you must bear now the punishment for your obscene conduct and prostitution.”

<sup>36</sup> The LORD said to me: “Son of man, are you willing to pronounce judgment on Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare to them their abominable deeds!

<sup>37</sup> For they have committed adultery and blood is on their hands. They have committed adultery with their idols, and their sons, whom they bore to me, they have passed through the fire as food to their idols.

<sup>38</sup> Moreover, they have done this to me: In the very same day they desecrated my sanctuary and profaned my Sabbaths.

<sup>39</sup> On the same day they slaughtered their sons for their idols, they came to my sanctuary to desecrate it. This is what they have done in the middle of my house.

<sup>40</sup> “They even sent for men from far away; when the messenger arrived, those men set out. For them you bathed, painted your eyes, and decorated yourself with jewelry.

<sup>41</sup> You sat on a magnificent couch, with a table arranged in front of it where you placed my incense and my olive oil.

<sup>43</sup> Then I said about the one worn out by adultery, ‘Now they will commit immoral acts with her.’

<sup>46</sup> “For this is what the sovereign LORD says: Bring up an army against them and subject them to terror and plunder.

<sup>47</sup> That army will pelt them with stones and slash them with their swords; they will kill their sons and daughters and burn their houses.

<sup>48</sup> I will put an end to the obscene conduct in the land; all the women will learn a lesson from this and not engage in obscene conduct.

<sup>49</sup> They will repay you for your obscene conduct, and you will be punished for idol worship. Then you will know that I am the sovereign LORD.”

<sup>1</sup> The word of the LORD came to me in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month :

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, write down the name of this day, this very day. The king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem this very day.

<sup>3</sup> Recite a proverb to this rebellious house and say to them, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says:

“ ‘Set on the pot, set it on,
pour water in it too;

<sup>4</sup> add the pieces of meat to it,
every good piece,
the thigh and the shoulder;
fill it with choice bones.

<sup>5</sup> Take the choice bone of the flock, heap up bones under it;
boil rapidly,
and boil its bones in it.

<sup>6</sup> ““Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says:
Woe to the city of bloodshed,
the pot whose rot is in it,
whose rot has not been removed from it!
Empty it piece by piece.

No lot has fallen on it.
<sup>7</sup> For her blood was in it;
she poured it on an exposed rock;
she did not pour it on the ground to cover it up with dust.

<sup>8</sup> To arouse anger, to take vengeance,
I have placed her blood on an exposed rock so that it cannot be covered up.

<sup>9</sup> ““Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says:
Woe to the city of bloodshed!

I will also make the pile high.

<sup>10</sup> Pile up the bones, kindle the fire;
cook the meat well, mix in the spices, let the bones be charred.

<sup>11</sup> Set the empty pot on the coals, until it becomes hot and its copper glows, until its uncleanness melts within it and its rot is consumed.

<sup>12</sup> It has tried my patience;
yet its thick rot is not removed from it.

Subject its rot to the fire!

<sup>13</sup> You mix uncleanness with obscene conduct.
I tried to cleanse you, but you are not clean.
You will not be cleansed from your uncleanness until I have exhausted my anger on you.

<sup>14</sup> “I the LORD have spoken; judgment is coming and I will act! I will not relent, or show pity, or be sorry! I will judge you according to your conduct and your deeds, declares the sovereign LORD.”

Ezekiel's Wife Dies

<sup>16</sup> “Son of man, realize that I am about to take the delight of your eyes away from you with a jolt, but you must not mourn or weep or shed tears.

<sup>17</sup> Groan in silence for the dead, but do not perform mourning rites. Bind on your turban and put your sandals on your feet. Do not cover your lip and do not eat food brought by others.”

<sup>18</sup> So I spoke to the people in the morning, and my wife died in the evening. In the morning I acted just as I was commanded.

<sup>19</sup> Then the people said to me, “Will you not tell us what these things you are doing mean for us?”

<sup>20</sup> So I said to them: “The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>21</sup> Say to the house of Israel, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: Realize I am about to desecrate my sanctuary – the source of your confident pride, the object in which your eyes delight, and your life’s passion. Your very own sons and daughters whom you have left behind will die by the sword.

<sup>22</sup> Then you will do as I have done: You will not cover your lip or eat food brought by others.

<sup>23</sup> Your turbans will be on your heads and your sandals on your feet; you will not mourn or weep, but you will rot for your iniquities and groan among yourselves.

<sup>24</sup> Ezekiel will be an object lesson for you; you will do all that he has done. When it happens, then you will know that I am the sovereign LORD.’

<sup>25</sup> “And you, son of man, this is what will happen on the day I take from them their stronghold – their beautiful source of joy, the object in which their eyes delight, and the main concern of their lives, as well as their sons and daughters:

<sup>26</sup> On that day a fugitive will come to you to report the news.

<sup>27</sup> On that day you will be able to speak again; you will talk with the fugitive and be silent no longer. You will be an object lesson for them, and they will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>3</sup> Say to the Ammonites, 'Hear the word of the sovereign LORD: This is what the sovereign LORD says: You said "Aha!" about my sanctuary when it was desecrated, about the land of Israel when it was made desolate, and about the house of Judah when they went into exile.

<sup>4</sup> So take note, I am about to make you slaves of the tribes of the east. They will make camps among you and pitch their tents among you. They will eat your fruit and drink your milk.

<sup>5</sup> I will make Rabbah a pasture for camels and Ammon a resting place for sheep. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> For this is what the sovereign LORD says: Because you clapped your hands, stamped your feet, and rejoiced with intense scorn over the land of Israel,

<sup>7</sup> take note, I have stretched out my hand against you, and I will hand you over as plunder to the nations. I will cut you off from the peoples and make you perish from the lands. I will destroy you; then you will know that I am the LORD.' "

A Prophecy Against Moab

<sup>8</sup> "This is what the sovereign LORD says: 'Moab and Seir say, "Look, the house of Judah is like all the other nations."

<sup>9</sup> So look, I am about to open up Moab's flank, eliminating the cities, including its frontier cities, the beauty of the land – Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kiriathaim.

<sup>10</sup> I will hand it over, along with the Ammonites, to the tribes of the east, so that the Ammonites will no longer be remembered among the nations.

<sup>11</sup> I will execute judgments against Moab. Then they will know that I am the LORD.' "

A Prophecy Against Edom

<sup>12</sup> "This is what the sovereign LORD says: 'Edom has taken vengeance against the house of Judah; they have made themselves fully culpable by taking vengeance on them.

<sup>13</sup> So this is what the sovereign LORD says: I will stretch out my hand against Edom, and I will kill the people and animals within her, and I will make her desolate; from Teman to Dedan they will die by the sword.

<sup>14</sup> I will exact my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel. They will carry out in Edom my anger and rage; they will experience my vengeance, declares the sovereign LORD.' "

A Prophecy Against Philistia

<sup>16</sup> So this is what the sovereign LORD says: Take note, I am about to stretch out my hand against the Philistines. I will kill the Cherethites and destroy those who remain on the seacoast.

<sup>17</sup> I will exact great vengeance upon them with angry rebukes. Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I exact my vengeance upon them.' "

26

<sup>1</sup> In the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>2</sup> "Son of man, because Tyre has said about Jerusalem, 'Aha, the gateway of the peoples is broken; it has swung open to me. I will become rich, now that she has been destroyed,'

<sup>3</sup> therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: Look, I am against you, O Tyre! I will bring up many nations against you, as the sea brings up its waves.

<sup>4</sup> They will destroy the walls of Tyre and break down her towers. I will scrape her soil from her and make her a bare rock.

<sup>5</sup> She will be a place where fishing nets are spread, surrounded by the sea. For I have spoken, declares the sovereign LORD. She will become plunder for the nations, <sup>6</sup> and her daughters who are in the field will be slaughtered by the sword. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> He will kill your daughters in the field with the sword. He will build a siege wall against you, erect a siege ramp against you, and raise a great shield against you.

<sup>9</sup> He will direct the blows of his battering rams against your walls and tear down your towers with his weapons.

<sup>10</sup> He will cover you with the dust kicked up by his many horses. Your walls will shake from the noise of the horsemen, wheels, and chariots when he enters your gates like those who invade through a city’s broken walls.

<sup>11</sup> With his horses’ hoofs he will trample all your streets. He will kill your people with the sword, and your strong pillars will tumble down to the ground.

<sup>12</sup> They will steal your wealth and loot your merchandise. They will tear down your walls and destroy your luxurious homes. Your stones, your trees, and your soil he will throw into the water.

<sup>13</sup> I will silence the noise of your songs; the sound of your harps will be heard no more.

<sup>14</sup> I will make you a bare rock; you will be a place where fishing nets are spread. You will never be built again, for I, the LORD | strong="H3069", have spoken, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>16</sup> All the princes of the sea will vacate their thrones. They will remove their robes and strip off their embroidered clothes; they will clothe themselves with trembling. They will sit on the ground; they will tremble continually and be shocked at what has happened to you.

<sup>17</sup> They will sing this lament over you:

“ ‘How you have perished – you have vanished from the seas,
O renowned city, once mighty in the sea,
she and her inhabitants, who spread their terror!

<sup>18</sup> Now the coastlands will tremble on the day of your fall;
the coastlands by the sea will be terrified by your passing.’

<sup>19</sup> “For this is what the sovereign LORD says: When I make you desolate like the uninhabited cities, when I bring up the deep over you and the surging waters overwhelm you,

<sup>20</sup> then I will bring you down to bygone people, to be with those who descend to the pit. I will make you live in the lower parts of the earth, among the primeval ruins, with those who descend to the pit, so that you will not be inhabited or stand in the land of the living.

<sup>21</sup> I will bring terrors on you, and you will be no more! Though you are sought after, you will never be found again, declares the sovereign LORD.”

27

“ ‘O Tyre, you have said, “I am perfectly beautiful.”

4

Your borders are in the heart of the seas;
your builders have perfected your beauty.

<sup>5</sup> They crafted all your planks out of fir trees from Senir;
they took a cedar from Lebanon to make your mast.

<sup>6</sup> They made your oars from oaks of Bashan;
they made your deck with cypresses from the Kittean isles.

<sup>7</sup> Fine linen from Egypt, woven with patterns, was used for your sail to serve as your banner;
blue and purple from the coastlands of Elishah was used for your deck's awning.

<sup>8</sup> The leaders of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers; your skilled men, O Tyre, were your captains.

<sup>9</sup> The elders of Gebal and her skilled men were within you, mending cracks;
all the ships of the sea and their mariners were within you to trade for your merchandise.

<sup>10</sup> Men of Persia, Lud, and Put were in your army, men of war.
They hung shield and helmet on you; they gave you your splendor.

<sup>11</sup> The Arvadites joined your army on your walls all around,
and the Gammadites were in your towers.

They hung their quivers on your walls all around;
they perfected your beauty.

<sup>12</sup> "Tarshish was your trade partner because of your abundant wealth; they exchanged silver, iron, tin, and lead for your products.

<sup>15</sup> The Dedanites were your clients. Many coastlands were your customers; they paid you with ivory tusks and ebony.

<sup>16</sup> Edom was your trade partner because of the abundance of your goods; they exchanged turquoise, purple, embroidered work, fine linen, coral, and rubies for your products.

<sup>17</sup> Judah and the land of Israel were your clients; they traded wheat from Minnith, millet, honey, olive oil, and balm for your merchandise.

<sup>18</sup> Damascus was your trade partner because of the abundance of your goods and of all your wealth: wine from Helbon, white wool from Zahar, <sup>19</sup> and casks of wine from Izal they exchanged for your products. Wrought iron, cassia, and sweet cane were among your merchandise.

<sup>21</sup> Arabia and all the princes of Kedar were your trade partners; for lambs, rams, and goats they traded with you.

<sup>22</sup> The merchants of Sheba and Raamah engaged in trade with you; they traded the best kinds of spices along with precious stones and gold for your products.

<sup>25</sup> The ships of Tarshish were the transports for your merchandise.

"So you were filled and weighed down in the heart of the seas.

<sup>26</sup> Your rowers have brought you into surging waters.
The east wind has wrecked you in the heart of the seas.

<sup>27</sup> Your wealth, products, and merchandise, your sailors and captains, your ship's carpenters, your merchants, and all your fighting men within you, along with all your crew who are in you, will fall into the heart of the seas on the day of your downfall.

<sup>29</sup> They will descend from their ships – all who handle the oar, the sailors and all the sea captains – they will stand on the land.

<sup>30</sup> They will lament loudly over you and cry bitterly.

They will throw dust on their heads and roll in the ashes;

<sup>31</sup> they will tear out their hair because of you and put on sackcloth, and they will weep bitterly over you with intense mourning.

<sup>32</sup> As they wail they will lament over you, chanting:

“Who was like Tyre, like a tower in the midst of the sea?”

<sup>33</sup> When your products went out from the seas, you satisfied many peoples;

with the abundance of your wealth and merchandise you enriched the kings of the earth.

<sup>34</sup> Now you are wrecked by the seas, in the depths of the waters;

your merchandise and all your company have sunk along with you.

<sup>35</sup> All the inhabitants of the coastlands are shocked at you, and their kings are horribly afraid – their faces are troubled.

<sup>36</sup> The traders among the peoples hiss at you; you have become a horror, and will be no more.’ ”

28

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, say to the prince of Tyre, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says:

“ ‘Your heart is proud and you said, “I am a god;

I sit in the seat of gods, in the heart of the seas” –

yet you are a man and not a god, though you think you are godlike.

<sup>3</sup> Look, you are wiser than Daniel;

no secret is hidden from you.

<sup>4</sup> By your wisdom and understanding you have gained wealth for yourself;

you have amassed gold and silver in your treasuries.

<sup>5</sup> By your great skill in trade you have increased your wealth, and your heart is proud because of your wealth.

<sup>6</sup> “Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says:

Because you think you are godlike,

<sup>7</sup> I am about to bring foreigners against you, the most terrifying of nations.

They will draw their swords against the grandeur made by your wisdom, and they will defile your splendor.

<sup>8</sup> They will bring you down to the pit, and you will die violently in the heart of the seas.

<sup>9</sup> Will you still say, “I am a god,” before the one who kills you – though you are a man and not a god – when you are in the power of those who wound you?

<sup>10</sup> You will die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of foreigners;

for I have spoken, declares the sovereign LORD.’ ”

<sup>12</sup> “Son of man, sing a lament for the king of Tyre, and say to him, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says:

“ ‘You were the sealer of perfection, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.

<sup>13</sup> You were in Eden, the garden of God.
Every precious stone was your covering,
the ruby, topaz, and emerald,
the chrysolite, onyx, and jasper,
the sapphire, turquoise, and beryl;
your settings and mounts were made of gold.
On the day you were created they were prepared.

<sup>14</sup> I placed you there with an anointed guardian cherub;
you were on the holy mountain of God;
you walked about amidst fiery stones.

<sup>15</sup> You were blameless in your behavior from the day you were created, until sin was discovered in you.

<sup>16</sup> In the abundance of your trade you were filled with violence, and you sinned;
so I defiled you and banished you from the mountain of God – the guardian cherub expelled you from the midst of the stones of fire.

<sup>17</sup> Your heart was proud because of your beauty;
you corrupted your wisdom on account of your splendor.
I threw you down to the ground;
I placed you before kings, that they might see you.

<sup>18</sup> By the multitude of your iniquities, through the sinfulness of your trade, you desecrated your sanctuaries.

So I drew fire out from within you;
it consumed you,
and I turned you to ashes on the earth before the eyes of all who saw you.

<sup>19</sup> All who know you among the peoples are shocked at you;
you have become terrified and will be no more.’ ”

A Prophecy Against Sidon

<sup>20</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

“ ‘Look, I am against you, Sidon, and I will magnify myself in your midst.
Then they will know that I am the LORD
when I execute judgments on her and reveal my sovereign power in her.

<sup>23</sup> I will send a plague into the city and bloodshed into its streets;
the slain will fall within it, by the sword that attacks it from every side.
Then they will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>24</sup> “No longer will Israel suffer from the sharp briers or painful thorns of all who surround and scorn them. Then they will know that I am the sovereign LORD.

<sup>25</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says: When I regather the house of Israel from the peoples where they are dispersed, I will reveal my sovereign power over them in the sight of the nations, and they will live in their land that I gave to my servant Jacob.

<sup>26</sup> They will live securely in it; they will build houses and plant vineyards. They will live securely when I execute my judgments on all those who scorn them and surround them. Then they will know that I am the LORD their God.' ”

29

<sup>1</sup> In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, turn toward Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt.

“ ‘Look, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great monster lying in the midst of its waterways, who has said, “My Nile is my own, I made it for myself.”

<sup>4</sup> I will put hooks in your jaws and stick the fish of your waterways to your scales.
I will haul you up from the midst of your waterways, and all the fish of your waterways will stick to your scales.

<sup>5</sup> I will leave you in the wilderness, you and all the fish of your waterways;
you will fall in the open field and will not be gathered up or collected.
I have given you as food to the beasts of the earth and the birds of the skies.

<sup>6</sup> Then all those living in Egypt will know that I am the LORD because they were a reed staff for the house of Israel;

<sup>7</sup> when they grasped you with their hand, you broke and tore their shoulders, and when they leaned on you, you splintered and caused their legs to be unsteady.

<sup>8</sup> “Therefore, this is what the sovereign LORD says: Look, I am about to bring a sword against you, and I will kill every person and every animal.

<sup>9</sup> The land of Egypt will become a desolate ruin. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

Because he said, “The Nile is mine and I made it,”

<sup>10</sup> I am against you and your waterways. I will turn the land of Egypt into an utter desolate ruin from Migdol to Syene, as far as the border with Ethiopia.

<sup>11</sup> No human foot will pass through it, and no animal’s foot will pass through it; it will be uninhabited for forty years.

<sup>12</sup> I will turn the land of Egypt into a desolation in the midst of desolate lands; for forty years her cities will lie desolate in the midst of ruined cities. I will scatter Egypt among the nations and disperse them among foreign countries.

<sup>13</sup> “For this is what the sovereign LORD says: At the end of forty years I will gather Egypt from the peoples where they were scattered.

<sup>14</sup> I will restore the fortunes of Egypt, and will bring them back to the land of Pathros, to the land of their origin; there they will be an insignificant kingdom.

<sup>15</sup> It will be the most insignificant of the kingdoms; it will never again exalt itself over the nations. I will make them so small that they will not rule over the nations.

<sup>16</sup> It will never again be Israel’s source of confidence, but a reminder of how they sinned by turning to Egypt for help. Then they will know that I am the sovereign LORD.’ ”

<sup>17</sup> In the twenty-seventh year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

Tyre. Every head was rubbed bald and every shoulder rubbed bare; yet he and his army received no wages from Tyre for the work he carried out against it.

<sup>19</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: Look, I am about to give the land of Egypt to King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon. He will carry off her wealth, capture her loot, and seize her plunder; it will be his army's wages.

<sup>20</sup> I have given him the land of Egypt as his compensation for attacking Tyre, because they did it for me, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>21</sup> On that day I will make Israel powerful, and I will give you the right to be heard among them. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

30

<sup>2</sup> "Son of man, prophesy and say, 'This is what the sovereign LORD says:
" 'Wail, "Alas, the day is here!"

<sup>3</sup> For the day is near, the day of the LORD is near;
it will be a day of storm clouds,
it will be a time of judgment for the nations.

<sup>4</sup> A sword will come against Egypt and panic will overtake Ethiopia when the slain fall in Egypt and they carry away her wealth and dismantle her foundations.

<sup>5</sup> Ethiopia, Put, Lud, all the foreigners, Libya, and the people of the covenant land will die by the sword along with them.

<sup>6</sup> "This is what the LORD | strong="H3069" says:
Egypt's supporters will fall;
her confident pride will crumble.
From Migdol to Syene they will die by the sword within her,
declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>7</sup> They will be desolate among desolate lands, and their cities will be among ruined cities.

<sup>8</sup> They will know that I am the LORD when I ignite a fire in Egypt and all her allies are defeated.

<sup>9</sup> On that day messengers will go out from me in ships to frighten overly confident Ethiopia; panic will overtake them on the day of Egypt's doom; for beware – it is coming!

<sup>10</sup> "This is what the sovereign LORD says:
I will put an end to the hordes of Egypt,
by the hand of King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon.

<sup>11</sup> He and his people with him, the most terrifying of the nations, will be brought there to destroy the land.
They will draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with corpses.

<sup>12</sup> I will dry up the waterways and hand the land over to evil men.
I will make the land and everything in it desolate by the hand of foreigners.
I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>13</sup> "This is what the sovereign LORD says:
I will destroy the idols,
and put an end to the gods of Memphis.
There will no longer be a prince from the land of Egypt;

so I will make the land of Egypt fearful.

<sup>14</sup> I will desolate Pathros,
I will ignite a fire in Zoan, and I will execute judgments on Thebes.

<sup>15</sup> I will pour out my anger upon Pelusium, the stronghold of Egypt;
I will cut off the hordes of Thebes.

<sup>16</sup> I will ignite a fire in Egypt;
Syene will writhe in agony,
Thebes will be broken down,
and Memphis will face enemies every day.

<sup>17</sup> The young men of On and of Pi-beseth will die by the sword; and the cities will go into captivity.

<sup>18</sup> In Tahpanhes the day will be dark when I break the yoke of Egypt there.
Her confident pride will cease within her;
a cloud will cover her, and her daughters will go into captivity.

<sup>19</sup> I will execute judgments on Egypt.
Then they will know that I am the LORD.' "

<sup>20</sup> In the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>21</sup> "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt. Look, it has not been bandaged for healing or set with a dressing so that it might become strong enough to grasp a sword.

<sup>22</sup> Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: Look, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and I will break his arms, the strong arm and the broken one, and I will make the sword drop from his hand.

<sup>24</sup> I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and I will place my sword in his hand, but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan like the fatally wounded before the king of Babylon.

<sup>25</sup> I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh will fall limp. Then they will know that I am the LORD when I place my sword in the hand of the king of Babylon and he extends it against the land of Egypt.

<sup>1</sup> In the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>2</sup> "Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and his hordes:

" 'Who are you like in your greatness?

<sup>3</sup> Consider Assyria, a cedar in Lebanon, with beautiful branches, like a forest giving shade,
and extremely tall;
its top reached into the clouds.

<sup>4</sup> The water made it grow; underground springs made it grow tall.
Rivers flowed all around the place it was planted, while smaller channels watered all the trees of the field.

<sup>5</sup> Therefore it grew taller than all the trees of the field; its boughs grew large and its branches grew long, because of the plentiful water in its shoots.

<sup>7</sup> It was beautiful in its loftiness, in the length of its branches; for its roots went down deep to plentiful waters.

<sup>8</sup> The cedars in the garden of God could not eclipse it, nor could the fir trees match its boughs; the plane trees were as nothing compared to its branches; no tree in the garden of God could rival its beauty.

<sup>9</sup> I made it beautiful with its many branches; all the trees of Eden, in the garden of God, envied it.

<sup>10</sup> “Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: Because it was tall in stature, and its top reached into the clouds, and it was proud of its height, <sup>11</sup> I gave it over to the leader of the nations. He has judged it thoroughly, as its sinfulness deserves. I have thrown it out.

<sup>12</sup> Foreigners from the most terrifying nations have cut it down and left it to lie there on the mountains. In all the valleys its branches have fallen, and its boughs lie broken in the ravines of the land. All the peoples of the land have departed from its shade and left it.

<sup>13</sup> On its ruins all the birds of the sky will live, and all the wild animals will walk on its branches.

<sup>14</sup> For this reason no watered trees will grow so tall; their tops will not reach into the clouds, nor will the well-watered ones grow that high. For all of them have been appointed to die in the lower parts of the earth; they will be among mere mortals, with those who descend to the pit.

<sup>15</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says: On the day it went down to Sheol I caused observers to lament. I covered it with the deep and held back its rivers; its plentiful water was restrained. I clothed Lebanon in black for it, and all the trees of the field wilted because of it.

<sup>16</sup> I made the nations shake at the sound of its fall, when I threw it down to Sheol, along with those who descend to the pit. Then all the trees of Eden, the choicest and the best of Lebanon, all that were well-watered, were comforted in the earth below.

<sup>17</sup> Those who lived in its shade, its allies among the nations, also went down with it to Sheol, to those killed by the sword.

<sup>18</sup> Which of the trees of Eden was like you in majesty and loftiness? You will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lower parts of the earth; you will lie among the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword! This is what will happen to Pharaoh and all his hordes, declares the sovereign LORD.’ ”

32

<sup>1</sup> In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, sing a lament for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say to him:
“ ‘You were like a lion among the nations, but you are a monster in the seas;
you thrash about in your streams, stir up the water with your feet,
and muddy your streams.

<sup>3</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says:
“ ‘I will throw my net over you in the assembly of many peoples;
and they will haul you up in my dragnet.
<sup>4</sup> I will leave you on the ground,
I will fling you on the open field,
I will allow all the birds of the sky to settle on you, and I will permit all the wild animals to gorge themselves on you.
<sup>5</sup> I will put your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your maggot-infested carcass.
<sup>6</sup> I will drench the land with the flow of your blood up to the mountains, and the ravines will be full of your blood.
<sup>7</sup> When I extinguish you, I will cover the sky;
I will darken its stars.
I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon will not shine.
<sup>8</sup> I will darken all the lights in the sky over you, and I will darken your land,
declares the sovereign LORD.
<sup>9</sup> I will disturb many peoples, when I bring about your destruction among the nations, among countries you do not know.
<sup>10</sup> I will shock many peoples with you, and their kings will shiver with horror because of you.
When I brandish my sword before them, every moment each one will tremble for his life, on the day of your fall.
<sup>11</sup> “For this is what the sovereign LORD says:
“ ‘The sword of the king of Babylon will attack you.
<sup>12</sup> By the swords of the mighty warriors I will cause your hordes to fall – all of them are the most terrifying among the nations.
They will devastate the pride of Egypt, and all its hordes will be destroyed.
<sup>13</sup> I will destroy all its cattle beside the plentiful waters; and no human foot will disturb the waters again, nor will the hooves of cattle disturb them.
<sup>14</sup> Then I will make their waters calm, and will make their streams flow like olive oil, declares the sovereign LORD.
<sup>15</sup> When I turn the land of Egypt into desolation and the land is destitute of everything that fills it, when I strike all those who live in it,
then they will know that I am the LORD.’
<sup>16</sup> This is a lament; they will chant it.
The daughters of the nations will chant it.
They will chant it over Egypt and over all her hordes,
declares the sovereign LORD.”
<sup>17</sup> In the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:
<sup>18</sup> “Son of man, wail over the horde of Egypt. Bring it down; bring her and the daughters of powerful nations down to the lower parts of the earth, along with those who descend to the pit.

<sup>19</sup> Say to them, 'Whom do you surpass in beauty? Go down and be laid to rest with the uncircumcised!'

<sup>20</sup> They will fall among those killed by the sword. The sword is drawn; they carry her and all her hordes away.

<sup>21</sup> The bravest of the warriors will speak to him from the midst of Sheol along with his allies, saying: 'The uncircumcised have come down; they lie still, killed by the sword.'

<sup>22</sup> "Assyria is there with all her assembly around her grave, all of them struck down by the sword.

<sup>23</sup> Their graves are located in the remote slopes of the pit. Her assembly is around her grave, all of them struck down by the sword, those who spread terror in the land of the living.

<sup>24</sup> "Elam is there with all her hordes around her grave; all of them struck down by the sword. They went down uncircumcised to the lower parts of the earth, those who spread terror in the land of the living. Now they will bear their shame with those who descend to the pit.

<sup>25</sup> Among the dead they have made a bed for her, along with all her hordes around her grave. All of them are uncircumcised, killed by the sword, for their terror had spread in the land of the living. They bear their shame along with those who descend to the pit; they are placed among the dead.

<sup>26</sup> "Meshech-Tubal is there, along with all her hordes around her grave. All of them are uncircumcised, killed by the sword, for they spread their terror in the land of the living.

<sup>27</sup> They do not lie with the fallen warriors of ancient times, who went down to Sheol with their weapons of war, having their swords placed under their heads and their shields on their bones, when the terror of these warriors was in the land of the living.

<sup>28</sup> "But as for you, in the midst of the uncircumcised you will be broken, and you will lie with those killed by the sword.

<sup>29</sup> "Edom is there with her kings and all her princes. Despite their might they are laid with those killed by the sword; they lie with the uncircumcised and those who descend to the pit.

<sup>30</sup> "All the leaders of the north are there, along with all the Sidonians; despite their might they have gone down in shameful terror with the dead. They lie uncircumcised with those killed by the sword, and bear their shame with those who descend to the pit.

<sup>31</sup> "Pharaoh will see them and be consoled over all his hordes who were killed by the sword, Pharaoh and all his army, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>32</sup> Indeed, I terrified him in the land of the living, yet he will lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with those killed by the sword, Pharaoh and all his hordes, declares the sovereign LORD."

33

<sup>2</sup> "Son of man, speak to your people, and say to them, 'Suppose I bring a sword against the land, and the people of the land take one man from their borders and make him their watchman.

<sup>3</sup> He sees the sword coming against the land, blows the trumpet, and warns the people,

<sup>4</sup> but there is one who hears the sound of the trumpet yet does not heed the warning. Then the sword comes and sweeps him away. He will be responsible for his own death.

<sup>5</sup> He heard the sound of the trumpet but did not heed the warning, so he is responsible for himself. If he had heeded the warning, he would have saved his life.

<sup>6</sup> But suppose the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet to warn the people. Then the sword comes and takes one of their lives. He is swept away for his iniquity, but I will hold the watchman accountable for that person's death.'

<sup>7</sup> "As for you, son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel. Whenever you hear a word from my mouth, you must warn them on my behalf.

<sup>8</sup> When I say to the wicked, 'O wicked man, you must certainly die,' and you do not warn the wicked about his behavior, the wicked man will die for his iniquity, but I will hold you accountable for his death.

<sup>9</sup> But if you warn the wicked man to change his behavior, and he refuses to change, he will die for his iniquity, but you have saved your own life.

<sup>10</sup> "And you, son of man, say to the house of Israel, 'This is what you have said: "Our rebellious acts and our sins have caught up with us, and we are wasting away because of them. How then can we live?"'

<sup>11</sup> Say to them, 'As surely as I live, declares the sovereign LORD, I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but prefer that the wicked change his behavior and live. Turn back, turn back from your evil deeds! Why should you die, O house of Israel?'

<sup>12</sup> "And you, son of man, say to your people, 'The righteousness of the righteous will not deliver him if he rebels. As for the wicked, his wickedness will not make him stumble if he turns from it. The righteous will not be able to live by his righteousness if he sins.'

<sup>13</sup> Suppose I tell the righteous that he will certainly live, but he becomes confident in his righteousness and commits iniquity. None of his righteous deeds will be remembered; because of the iniquity he has committed he will die.

<sup>14</sup> Suppose I say to the wicked, 'You must certainly die,' but he turns from his sin and does what is just and right.

<sup>15</sup> He returns what was taken in pledge, pays back what he has stolen, and follows the statutes that give life, committing no iniquity. He will certainly live - he will not die.

<sup>16</sup> None of the sins he has committed will be counted against him. He has done what is just and right; he will certainly live.

<sup>19</sup> When the wicked turns from his sin and does what is just and right, he will live because of it.

<sup>20</sup> Yet you say, 'The behavior of the Lord is not right.' House of Israel, I will judge each of you according to his behavior."

The Fall of Jerusalem

<sup>21</sup> In the twelfth year of our exile, in the tenth month, on the fifth of the month, a refugee came to me from Jerusalem saying, "The city has been defeated!"

<sup>22</sup> Now the hand of the LORD had been on me the evening before the refugee reached me, but the LORD opened my mouth by the time the refugee arrived in the morning; he opened my mouth and I was no longer unable to speak.

<sup>23</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>24</sup> "Son of man, the ones living in these ruins in the land of Israel are saying, 'Abraham was only one man, yet he possessed the land, but we are many; surely the land has been given to us for a possession.'

<sup>25</sup> Therefore say to them, 'This is what the sovereign LORD says: You eat the meat with the blood still in it, pray to your idols, and shed blood. Do you really think you will possess the land?'

<sup>26</sup> You rely on your swords and commit abominable deeds; each of you defiles his neighbor's wife. Will you possess the land?"

<sup>27</sup> "This is what you must say to them, 'This is what the sovereign LORD says: As surely as I live, those living in the ruins will die by the sword, those in the open field I will give to the wild beasts for food, and those who are in the strongholds and caves will die of disease.

<sup>28</sup> I will turn the land into a desolate ruin; her confident pride will come to an end. The mountains of Israel will be so desolate no one will pass through them.

<sup>29</sup> Then they will know that I am the LORD when I turn the land into a desolate ruin because of all the abominable deeds they have committed.'

<sup>30</sup> "But as for you, son of man, your people (who are talking about you by the walls and at the doors of the houses) say to one another, 'Come hear the word that comes from the LORD.'

<sup>31</sup> They come to you in crowds, and they sit in front of you as my people. They hear your words, but do not obey them. For they talk lustfully, and their heart is set on their own advantage.

<sup>32</sup> Realize that to them you are like a sensual song, a beautiful voice and skilled musician. They hear your words, but they do not obey them.

<sup>33</sup> When all this comes true – and it certainly will – then they will know that a prophet was among them."

34

<sup>2</sup> "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel; prophesy, and say to them – to the shepherds: 'This is what the sovereign LORD says: Woe to the shepherds of Israel who have been feeding themselves! Should not shepherds feed the flock?

<sup>3</sup> You eat the fat, you clothe yourselves with the wool, you slaughter the choice animals, but you do not feed the sheep!

<sup>4</sup> You have not strengthened the weak, healed the sick, bandaged the injured, brought back the strays, or sought the lost, but with force and harshness you have ruled over them.

<sup>5</sup> They were scattered because they had no shepherd, and they became food for every wild beast.

<sup>6</sup> My sheep wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill. My sheep were scattered over the entire face of the earth with no one looking or searching for them.

<sup>8</sup> As surely as I live, declares the sovereign LORD, my sheep have become prey and have become food for all the wild beasts. There was no shepherd, and my shepherds did not search for my flock, but fed themselves and did not feed my sheep,

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD:

<sup>10</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says: Look, I am against the shepherds, and I will demand my sheep from their hand. I will no longer let them be shepherds; the shepherds will not feed themselves anymore. I will rescue my sheep from their mouth, so that they will no longer be food for them.

<sup>11</sup> "For this is what the sovereign LORD says: Look, I myself will search for my sheep and seek them out.

<sup>12</sup> As a shepherd seeks out his flock when he is among his scattered sheep, so I will seek out my flock. I will rescue them from all the places where they have been scattered on a cloudy, dark day.

<sup>13</sup> I will bring them out from among the peoples and gather them from foreign countries; I will bring them to their own land. I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the streams and all the inhabited places of the land.

<sup>14</sup> In a good pasture I will feed them; the mountain heights of Israel will be their pasture. There they will lie down in a lush pasture, and they will feed on rich grass on the mountains of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> I myself will feed my sheep and I myself will make them lie down, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>16</sup> I will seek the lost and bring back the strays; I will bandage the injured and strengthen the sick, but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them – with judgment!

<sup>17</sup> “As for you, my sheep, this is what the sovereign LORD says: Look, I am about to judge between one sheep and another, between rams and goats.

<sup>18</sup> Is it not enough for you to feed on the good pasture, that you must trample the rest of your pastures with your feet? When you drink clean water, must you muddy the rest of the water by trampling it with your feet?

<sup>19</sup> As for my sheep, they must eat what you trampled with your feet, and drink what you have muddied with your feet!

<sup>20</sup> “Therefore, this is what the sovereign LORD says to them: Look, I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep.

<sup>21</sup> Because you push with your side and your shoulder, and thrust your horns at all the weak sheep until you scatter them abroad, <sup>22</sup> I will save my sheep; they will no longer be prey. I will judge between one sheep and another.

<sup>23</sup> I will set one shepherd over them, and he will feed them – namely, my servant David. He will feed them and will be their shepherd.

<sup>24</sup> I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David will be prince among them; I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>25</sup> “I will make a covenant of peace with them and will rid the land of wild beasts, so that they can live securely in the wilderness and even sleep in the woods.

<sup>26</sup> I will turn them and the regions around my hill into a blessing. I will make showers come down in their season; they will be showers that bring blessing.

<sup>27</sup> The trees of the field will yield their fruit and the earth will yield its crops. They will live securely on their land; they will know that I am the LORD, when I break the bars of their yoke and rescue them from the hand of those who enslaved them.

<sup>28</sup> They will no longer be prey for the nations and the wild beasts will not devour them. They will live securely and no one will make them afraid.

<sup>29</sup> I will prepare for them a healthy planting. They will no longer be victims of famine in the land and will no longer bear the insults of the nations.

<sup>30</sup> Then they will know that I, the LORD their God, am with them, and that they are my people, the house of Israel, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>31</sup> And you, my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, are my people, and I am your God, declares the sovereign LORD.’ ”

35

“Look, I am against you, Mount Seir;
I will stretch out my hand against you and turn you into a desolate ruin.

<sup>4</sup> I will lay waste your cities;
and you will become desolate.

Then you will know that I am the LORD!

<sup>5</sup> “You have shown unrelenting hostility and poured the people of Israel onto the blades of a sword at the time of their calamity, at the time of their final punishment.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, as surely as I live, declares the sovereign LORD, I will subject you to bloodshed, and bloodshed will pursue you. Since you did not hate bloodshed, bloodshed will pursue you.

<sup>7</sup> I will turn Mount Seir into a desolate ruin; I will cut off from it the one who passes through or returns.

<sup>8</sup> I will fill its mountains with its dead; on your hills and in your valleys and in all your ravines, those killed by the sword will fall.

<sup>9</sup> I will turn you into a perpetual desolation, and your cities will not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> “You said, “These two nations, these two lands will be mine, and we will possess them,” – although the LORD was there –

<sup>11</sup> therefore, as surely as I live, declares the sovereign LORD, I will deal with you according to your anger, and according to your envy, by which you acted spitefully against them. I will reveal myself to them when I judge you.

<sup>12</sup> Then you will know that I, the LORD, have heard all the insults you spoke against the mountains of Israel, saying, “They are desolate, they have been given to us for food.”

<sup>13</sup> You exalted yourselves against me with your speech and hurled many insults against me – I have heard them all!

<sup>14</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says: While the whole earth rejoices, I will turn you into a desolation.

<sup>15</sup> As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel because it was desolate, so will I deal with you – you will be desolate, Mount Seir, and all of Edom – all of it! Then they will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

36

<sup>1</sup> “As for you, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say: ‘O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD!

<sup>2</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says: The enemy has spoken against you, saying “Aha!” and, “The ancient heights have become our property!” ’

<sup>3</sup> So prophesy and say: ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: Surely because they have made you desolate and crushed you from all directions, so that you have become the property of the rest of the nations, and have become the subject of gossip and slander among the people,

<sup>4</sup> therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the sovereign LORD: This is what the sovereign LORD says to the mountains and hills, the ravines and valleys, and to the desolate ruins and the abandoned cities that have become prey and an object of derision to the rest of the nations round about –

<sup>5</sup> therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: Surely I have spoken in the fire of my zeal against the rest of the nations, and against all Edom, who with great joy and utter contempt have made my land their property and prey, because of its pasture.’

<sup>6</sup> “Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains and hills, the ravines and valleys, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: Look, I have spoken in my zeal and in my anger, because you have endured the insults of the nations.

<sup>7</sup> So this is what the sovereign LORD says: I vow that the nations around you will endure insults as well.

<sup>8</sup> “But you, mountains of Israel, will grow your branches, and bear your fruit for my people Israel; for they will arrive soon.

<sup>9</sup> For indeed, I am on your side; I will turn to you, and you will be plowed and planted.

<sup>10</sup> I will multiply your people – the whole house of Israel, all of it. The cities will be populated and the ruins rebuilt.

<sup>11</sup> I will increase the number of people and animals on you; they will increase and be fruitful. I will cause you to be inhabited as in ancient times, and will do more good for you than at the beginning of your history. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> I will lead people, my people Israel, across you; they will possess you and you will become their inheritance. No longer will you bereave them of their children.

<sup>13</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says: Because they are saying to you, “You are a devourer of men, and bereave your nation of children,”

<sup>14</sup> therefore you will no longer devour people and no longer bereave your nation of children, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>15</sup> I will no longer subject you to the nations’ insults; no longer will you bear the shame of the peoples, and no longer will you bereave your nation, declares the sovereign LORD.’ ”

<sup>16</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>17</sup> “Son of man, when the house of Israel was living on their own land, they defiled it by their behavior and their deeds. In my sight their behavior was like the uncleanness of a woman having her monthly period.

<sup>18</sup> So I poured my anger on them because of the blood they shed on the land and because of the idols with which they defiled it.

<sup>19</sup> I scattered them among the nations; they were dispersed throughout foreign countries. In accordance with their behavior and their deeds I judged them.

<sup>20</sup> But when they arrived in the nations where they went, they profaned my holy name. It was said of them, ‘These are the people of the LORD, yet they have departed from his land.’

<sup>21</sup> I was concerned for my holy reputation which the house of Israel profaned among the nations where they went.

<sup>22</sup> “Therefore say to the house of Israel, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: It is not for your sake that I am about to act, O house of Israel, but for the sake of my holy reputation which you profaned among the nations where you went.

<sup>23</sup> I will magnify my great name that has been profaned among the nations, that you have profaned among them. The nations will know that I am the LORD, declares the sovereign LORD, when I magnify myself among you in their sight.

<sup>24</sup> “I will take you from the nations and gather you from all the countries; then I will bring you to your land.

<sup>25</sup> I will sprinkle you with pure water and you will be clean from all your impurities. I will purify you from all your idols.

<sup>26</sup> I will give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit within you. I will remove the heart of stone from your body and give you a heart of flesh.

<sup>27</sup> I will put my Spirit within you; I will take the initiative and you will obey my statutes and carefully observe my regulations.

<sup>28</sup> Then you will live in the land I gave to your fathers; you will be my people, and I will be your God.

<sup>29</sup> I will save you from all your uncleanness. I will call for the grain and multiply it; I will not bring a famine on you.

<sup>30</sup> I will multiply the fruit of the trees and the produce of the fields, so that you will never again suffer the disgrace of famine among the nations.

<sup>31</sup> Then you will remember your evil behavior and your deeds which were not good; you will loathe yourselves on account of your sins and your abominable deeds.

<sup>32</sup> Understand that it is not for your sake I am about to act, declares the sovereign LORD. Be ashamed and embarrassed by your behavior, O house of Israel.

<sup>33</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says: In the day I cleanse you from all your sins, I will populate the cities and the ruins will be rebuilt.

<sup>34</sup> The desolate land will be plowed, instead of being desolate in the sight of everyone who passes by.

<sup>36</sup> Then the nations which remain around you will know that I, the LORD, have rebuilt the ruins and replanted what was desolate. I, the LORD, have spoken – and I will do it!

<sup>37</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says: I will allow the house of Israel to ask me to do this for them: I will multiply their people like sheep.

<sup>38</sup> Like the sheep for offerings, like the sheep of Jerusalem during her appointed feasts, so will the ruined cities be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>1</sup> The hand of the LORD was on me, and he brought me out by the Spirit of the LORD and placed me in the midst of the valley, and it was full of bones.

<sup>2</sup> He made me walk all around among them. I realized there were a great many bones in the valley and they were very dry.

<sup>3</sup> He said to me, “Son of man, can these bones live?” I said to him, “Sovereign Lord, you know.”

<sup>5</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says to these bones: Look, I am about to infuse breath into you and you will live.

<sup>6</sup> I will put tendons on you and muscles over you and will cover you with skin; I will put breath in you and you will live. Then you will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

<sup>7</sup> So I prophesied as I was commanded. There was a sound when I prophesied – I heard a rattling, and the bones came together, bone to bone.

<sup>8</sup> As I watched, I saw tendons on them, then muscles appeared, and skin covered over them from above, but there was no breath in them.

<sup>9</sup> He said to me, “Prophesy to the breath, – prophesy, son of man – and say to the breath: ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe on these corpses so that they may live.’ ”

<sup>10</sup> So I prophesied as I was commanded, and the breath came into them; they lived and stood on their feet, an extremely great army.

<sup>11</sup> Then he said to me, “Son of man, these bones are all the house of Israel. Look, they are saying, ‘Our bones are dry, our hope has perished; we are cut off.’

<sup>12</sup> Therefore prophesy, and tell them, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: Look, I am about to open your graves and will raise you from your graves, my people. I will bring you to the land of Israel.

<sup>13</sup> Then you will know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves and raise you from your graves, my people.

<sup>14</sup> I will place my breath in you and you will live; I will give you rest in your own land. Then you will know that I am the LORD – I have spoken and I will act, declares the LORD.’ ”

<sup>15</sup> The word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>16</sup> “As for you, son of man, take one branch, and write on it, ‘For Judah, and for the Israelites associated with him.’ Then take another branch and write on it, ‘For Joseph, the branch of Ephraim and all the house of Israel associated with him.’

<sup>19</sup> tell them, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: Look, I am about to take the branch of Joseph which is in the hand of Ephraim and the tribes of Israel associated with him, and I will place them on the stick of Judah, and make them into one stick – they will be one in my hand.’

<sup>20</sup> The sticks you write on will be in your hand in front of them.

<sup>21</sup> Then tell them, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: Look, I am about to take the Israelites from among the nations where they have gone. I will gather them from round about and bring them to their land.

<sup>22</sup> I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel, and one king will rule over them all. They will never again be two nations and never again be divided into two kingdoms.

<sup>23</sup> They will not defile themselves with their idols, their detestable things, and all their rebellious deeds. I will save them from all their unfaithfulness by which they sinned. I will purify them; they will become my people and I will become their God.

<sup>24</sup> “My servant David will be king over them; there will be one shepherd for all of them. They will follow my regulations and carefully observe my statutes.

<sup>25</sup> They will live in the land I gave to my servant Jacob, in which your fathers lived; they will live in it – they and their children and their grandchildren forever. David my servant will be prince over them forever.

<sup>26</sup> I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be a perpetual covenant with them. I will establish them, increase their numbers, and place my sanctuary among them forever.

<sup>27</sup> My dwelling place will be with them; I will be their God, and they will be my people.

<sup>28</sup> Then, when my sanctuary is among them forever, the nations will know that I, the LORD, sanctify Israel.’ ”

38

<sup>2</sup> “Son of man, turn toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. Prophecy against him

<sup>3</sup> and say: ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: Look, I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.

<sup>4</sup> I will turn you around, put hooks into your jaws, and bring you out with all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them fully armed, a great company with shields of different types, all of them armed with swords.

<sup>7</sup> “Be ready and stay ready, you and all your companies assembled around you, and be a guard for them.

<sup>8</sup> After many days you will be summoned; in the latter years you will come to a land restored from the ravages of war, with many peoples gathered on the mountains of Israel that had long been in ruins. Its people were brought out from the peoples, and all of them will be living securely.

<sup>9</sup> You will advance; you will come like a storm. You will be like a cloud covering the earth, you, all your troops, and the many other peoples with you.

<sup>10</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says: On that day thoughts will come into your mind, and you will devise an evil plan.

<sup>11</sup> You will say, “I will invade a land of unwallled towns; I will advance against those living quietly in security – all of them living without walls and barred gates –

<sup>12</sup> to loot and plunder, to attack the inhabited ruins and the people gathered from the nations, who are acquiring cattle and goods, who live at the center of the earth.”

<sup>13</sup> Sheba and Dedan and the traders of Tarshish with all its young warriors will say to you, “Have you come to loot? Have you assembled your armies to plunder, to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to haul away a great amount of spoils?”

<sup>14</sup> “Therefore, prophesy, son of man, and say to Gog: ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: On that day when my people Israel are living securely, you will take notice

<sup>15</sup> and come from your place, from the remote parts of the north, you and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and a vast army.

<sup>16</sup> You will advance against my people Israel like a cloud covering the earth. In the latter days I will bring you against my land so that the nations may acknowledge me, when before their eyes I magnify myself through you, O Gog.

<sup>17</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says: Are you the one of whom I spoke in former days by my servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days that I would bring you against them?

<sup>18</sup> On that day, when Gog invades the land of Israel, declares the sovereign LORD, my rage will mount up in my anger.

<sup>19</sup> In my zeal, in the fire of my fury, I declare that on that day there will be a great earthquake in the land of Israel.

<sup>20</sup> The fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, the wild beasts, all the things that creep on the ground, and all people who live on the face of the earth will shake at my presence. The mountains will topple, the cliffs will fall, and every wall will fall to the ground.

<sup>21</sup> I will call for a sword to attack Gog on all my mountains, declares the sovereign LORD; every man’s sword will be against his brother.

<sup>22</sup> I will judge him with plague and bloodshed. I will rain down on him, his troops and the many peoples who are with him a torrential downpour, hailstones, fire, and brimstone.

<sup>23</sup> I will exalt and magnify myself; I will reveal myself before many nations. Then they will know that I am the LORD.’

39

<sup>1</sup> “As for you, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say: ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: Look, I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal!

<sup>2</sup> I will turn you around and drag you along; I will lead you up from the remotest parts of the north and bring you against the mountains of Israel.

<sup>4</sup> You will fall dead on the mountains of Israel, you and all your troops and the people who are with you. I give you as food to every kind of bird and every wild beast.

<sup>5</sup> You will fall dead in the open field; for I have spoken, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>6</sup> I will send fire on Magog and those who live securely in the coastlands; then they will know that I am the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> “I will make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; I will not let my holy name be profaned anymore. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>8</sup> Realize that it is coming and it will be done, declares the sovereign LORD. It is the day I have spoken about.

<sup>9</sup> “Then those who live in the cities of Israel will go out and use the weapons for kindling – the shields, bows and arrows, war clubs and spears – they will burn them for seven years.

<sup>10</sup> They will not need to take wood from the field or cut down trees from the forests, because they will make fires with the weapons. They will take the loot from those who looted them and seize the plunder of those who plundered them, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>11</sup> “On that day I will assign Gog a grave in Israel. It will be the valley of those who travel east of the sea; it will block the way of the travelers. There they will bury Gog and all his horde; they will call it the valley of Hamon-Gog.

<sup>12</sup> For seven months Israel will bury them, in order to cleanse the land.

<sup>13</sup> All the people of the land will bury them, and it will be a memorial for them on the day I magnify myself, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>14</sup> They will designate men to scout continually through the land, burying those who remain on the surface of the ground, in order to cleanse it. They will search for seven full months.

<sup>15</sup> When the scouts survey the land and see a human bone, they will place a sign by it, until those assigned to burial duty have buried it in the valley of Hamon-Gog.

<sup>17</sup> “As for you, son of man, this is what the sovereign LORD says: Tell every kind of bird and every wild beast: ‘Assemble and come! Gather from all around to my slaughter which I am going to make for you, a great slaughter on the mountains of Israel! You will eat flesh and drink blood.

<sup>18</sup> You will eat the flesh of warriors and drink the blood of the princes of the earth – the rams, lambs, goats, and bulls, all of them fattened animals of Bashan.

<sup>19</sup> You will eat fat until you are full, and drink blood until you are drunk, at my slaughter which I have made for you.

<sup>20</sup> You will fill up at my table with horses and charioteers, with warriors and all the soldiers,’ declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>21</sup> “I will display my majesty among the nations. All the nations will witness the judgment I have executed, and the power I have exhibited among them.

<sup>22</sup> Then the house of Israel will know that I am the LORD their God, from that day forward.

<sup>23</sup> The nations will know that the house of Israel went into exile due to their iniquity, for they were unfaithful to me. So I hid my face from them and handed them over to their enemies; all of them died by the sword.

<sup>25</sup> “Therefore this is what the sovereign LORD says: Now I will restore the fortunes of Jacob, and I will have mercy on the entire house of Israel. I will be zealous for my holy name.

<sup>26</sup> They will bear their shame for all their unfaithful acts against me, when they live securely on their land with no one to make them afraid.

<sup>28</sup> Then they will know that I am the LORD their God, because I sent them into exile among the nations, and then gathered them into their own land. I will not leave any of them in exile any longer.

<sup>29</sup> I will no longer hide my face from them, when I pour out my Spirit on the house of Israel, declares the sovereign LORD.”

40

<sup>1</sup> In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was struck down, on this very day, the hand of the LORD was on me, and he brought me there.

<sup>2</sup> By means of divine visions he brought me to the land of Israel and placed me on a very high mountain, and on it was a structure like a city, to the south.

<sup>3</sup> When he brought me there, I saw a man whose appearance was like bronze, with a linen cord and a measuring stick in his hand. He was standing in the gateway.

<sup>4</sup> The man said to me, “Son of man, watch closely, listen carefully, and pay attention to everything I show you, for you have been brought here so that I can show it to you. Tell the house of Israel everything you see.”

<sup>5</sup> I saw a wall all around the outside of the temple. In the man’s hand was a measuring stick  $10\frac{1}{2}$  feet long. He measured the thickness of the wall as  $10\frac{1}{2}$  feet, and its height as  $10\frac{1}{2}$  feet.

<sup>6</sup> Then he went to the gate facing east. He climbed its steps and measured the threshold of the gate as  $10\frac{1}{2}$  feet deep.

<sup>7</sup> The alcoves were  $10\frac{1}{2}$  feet long and  $10\frac{1}{2}$  feet wide; between the alcoves were  $8\frac{3}{4}$  feet. The threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate facing inward was  $10\frac{1}{2}$  feet.

<sup>8</sup> Then he measured the porch of the gate facing inward as  $10\frac{1}{2}$  feet.

<sup>9</sup> He measured the porch of the gate as 14 feet, and its jambs as  $3\frac{1}{2}$  feet; the porch of the gate faced inward.

<sup>10</sup> There were three alcoves on each side of the east gate; the three had the same measurement, and the jambs on either side had the same measurement.

<sup>11</sup> He measured the width of the entrance of the gateway as  $17\frac{1}{2}$  feet, and the length of the gateway as  $22\frac{3}{4}$  feet.

<sup>12</sup> There was a barrier in front of the alcoves,  $1\frac{3}{4}$  feet on either side; the alcoves were  $10\frac{1}{2}$  feet on either side.

<sup>13</sup> He measured the gateway from the roof of one alcove to the roof of the other, a width of  $43\frac{3}{4}$  feet from one entrance to the opposite one.

<sup>14</sup> He measured the porch at 105 feet high; the gateway went all around to the jamb of the courtyard.

<sup>15</sup> From the front of the entrance gate to the porch of the inner gate was  $87\frac{1}{2}$  feet.

<sup>16</sup> There were closed windows toward the alcoves and toward their jambs within the gate all around, and likewise for the porches. There were windows all around the inside, and on each jamb were decorative palm trees.

<sup>17</sup> Then he brought me to the outer court. I saw chambers there, and a pavement made for the court all around; thirty chambers faced the pavement.

<sup>18</sup> The pavement was beside the gates, corresponding to the length of the gates; this was the lower pavement.

<sup>19</sup> Then he measured the width from before the lower gate to the front of the exterior of the inner court as 175 feet on the east and on the north.

<sup>20</sup> He measured the length and width of the gate of the outer court which faces north.

<sup>21</sup> Its alcoves, three on each side, and its jambs and porches had the same measurement as the first gate;  $87\frac{1}{2}$  feet long and  $43\frac{3}{4}$  feet wide.

<sup>22</sup> Its windows, its porches, and its decorative palm trees had the same measurement as the gate which faced east. Seven steps led up to it, and its porch was in front of them.

<sup>23</sup> Opposite the gate on the north and the east was a gate of the inner court; he measured the distance from gate to gate at 175 feet.

<sup>24</sup> Then he led me toward the south. I saw a gate on the south. He measured its jambs and its porches; they had the same dimensions as the others.

<sup>25</sup> There were windows all around it and its porches, like the windows of the others; 87½ feet long and 43¾ feet wide.

<sup>26</sup> There were seven steps going up to it; its porches were in front of them. It had decorative palm trees on its jambs, one on either side.

<sup>27</sup> The inner court had a gate toward the south; he measured it from gate to gate toward the south as 175 feet.

<sup>28</sup> Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate. He measured the south gate; it had the same dimensions as the others.

<sup>29</sup> Its alcoves, its jambs, and its porches had the same dimensions as the others, and there were windows all around it and its porches; its length was 87½ feet and its width 43¾ feet.

<sup>30</sup> There were porches all around, 43¾ feet long and 8¾ feet wide.

<sup>31</sup> Its porches faced the outer court, and decorative palm trees were on its jambs, and its stairway had eight steps.

<sup>32</sup> Then he brought me to the inner court on the east side. He measured the gate; it had the same dimensions as the others.

<sup>33</sup> Its alcoves, its jambs, and its porches had the same dimensions as the others, and there were windows all around it and its porches; its length was 87½ feet and its width 43¾ feet.

<sup>34</sup> Its porches faced the outer court, it had decorative palm trees on its jambs, and its stairway had eight steps.

<sup>35</sup> Then he brought me to the north gate, and he measured it; it had the same dimensions as the others –

<sup>36</sup> its alcoves, its jambs, and its porches. It had windows all around it; its length was 87½ feet and its width 43¾ feet.

<sup>37</sup> Its jambs faced the outer court, and it had decorative palm trees on its jambs, on either side, and its stairway had eight steps.

<sup>38</sup> There was a chamber with its door by the porch of the gate; there they washed the burnt offering.

<sup>39</sup> In the porch of the gate were two tables on either side on which to slaughter the burnt offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering.

<sup>40</sup> On the outside of the porch as one goes up at the entrance of the north gate were two tables, and on the other side of the porch of the gate were two tables.

<sup>41</sup> Four tables were on each side of the gate, eight tables on which the sacrifices were to be slaughtered.

<sup>42</sup> The four tables for the burnt offering were of carved stone, 32 inches long, 32 inches wide, and 21 inches high. They would put the instruments which they used to slaughter the burnt offering and the sacrifice on them.

<sup>43</sup> There were hooks three inches long, fastened in the house all around, and on the tables was the flesh of the offering.

<sup>45</sup> He said to me, “This chamber which faces south is for the priests who keep charge of the temple, <sup>46</sup> and the chamber which faces north is for the priests who keep charge of the altar. These are the descendants of Zadok, from the descendants of Levi, who may approach the LORD to minister to him.”

<sup>47</sup> He measured the court as a square 175 feet long and 175 feet wide; the altar was in front of the temple.

<sup>48</sup> Then he brought me to the porch of the temple and measured the jambs of the porch as  $8\frac{3}{4}$  feet on either side, and the width of the gate was  $24\frac{1}{2}$  feet and the sides were  $5\frac{1}{4}$  feet on each side.

<sup>49</sup> The length of the porch was 35 feet and the width  $19\frac{1}{4}$  feet; steps led up to it, and there were pillars beside the jambs on either side.

41

<sup>1</sup> Then he brought me to the outer sanctuary, and measured the jambs; the jambs were  $10\frac{1}{2}$  feet wide on each side.

<sup>2</sup> The width of the entrance was  $17\frac{1}{2}$  feet, and the sides of the entrance were  $8\frac{3}{4}$  feet on each side. He measured the length of the outer sanctuary as 70 feet, and its width as 35 feet.

<sup>3</sup> Then he went into the inner sanctuary and measured the jambs of the entrance as  $3\frac{1}{2}$  feet, the entrance as  $10\frac{1}{2}$  feet, and the width of the entrance as  $12\frac{1}{4}$  feet

<sup>4</sup> Then he measured its length as 35 feet, and its width as 35 feet, before the outer sanctuary. He said to me, "This is the most holy place."

<sup>5</sup> Then he measured the wall of the temple as  $10\frac{1}{2}$  feet, and the width of the side chambers as 7 feet, all around the temple.

<sup>6</sup> The side chambers were in three stories, one above the other, thirty in each story. There were offsets in the wall all around to serve as supports for the side chambers, so that the supports were not in the wall of the temple.

<sup>7</sup> The side chambers surrounding the temple were wider at each successive story; for the structure surrounding the temple went up story by story all around the temple. For this reason the width of the temple increased as it went up, and one went up from the lowest story to the highest by the way of the middle story.

<sup>8</sup> I saw that the temple had a raised platform all around; the foundations of the side chambers were a full measuring stick of  $10\frac{1}{2}$  feet high.

<sup>9</sup> The width of the outer wall of the side chambers was  $8\frac{3}{4}$  feet, and the open area between the side chambers of the temple

<sup>10</sup> and the chambers of the court was 35 feet in width all around the temple on every side.

<sup>11</sup> There were entrances from the side chambers toward the open area, one entrance toward the north, and another entrance toward the south; the width of the open area was  $8\frac{3}{4}$  feet all around.

<sup>12</sup> The building that was facing the temple courtyard at the west side was  $122\frac{1}{2}$  feet wide; the wall of the building was  $8\frac{3}{4}$  feet all around, and its length  $157\frac{1}{2}$  feet.

<sup>13</sup> Then he measured the temple as 175 feet long, the courtyard of the temple and the building and its walls as 175 feet long,

<sup>14</sup> and also the width of the front of the temple and the courtyard on the east as 175 feet.

<sup>15</sup> Then he measured the length of the building facing the courtyard at the rear of the temple, with its galleries on either side as 175 feet.

The interior of the outer sanctuary and the porch of the court,

<sup>16</sup> as well as the thresholds, narrow windows and galleries all around on three sides facing the threshold were paneled with wood all around, from the ground up to the windows (now the windows were covered),

<sup>17</sup> to the space above the entrance, to the inner room, and on the outside, and on all the walls in the inner room and outside, by measurement.

<sup>18</sup> It was made with cherubim and decorative palm trees, with a palm tree between each cherub. Each cherub had two faces:

<sup>19</sup> a human face toward the palm tree on one side and a lion's face toward the palm tree on the other side. They were carved on the whole temple all around;

<sup>20</sup> from the ground to the area above the entrance, cherubim and decorative palm trees were carved on the wall of the outer sanctuary.

<sup>21</sup> The doorposts of the outer sanctuary were square. In front of the sanctuary one doorpost looked just like the other.

<sup>22</sup> The altar was of wood,  $5\frac{1}{4}$  feet high, with its length  $3\frac{1}{2}$  feet; its corners, its length, and its walls were of wood. He said to me, "This is the table that is before the LORD | strong="H3069"."

<sup>23</sup> The outer sanctuary and the inner sanctuary each had a double door.

<sup>24</sup> Each of the doors had two leaves, two swinging leaves; two leaves for one door and two leaves for the other.

<sup>25</sup> On the doors of the outer sanctuary were carved cherubim and palm trees, like those carved on the walls, and there was a canopy of wood on the front of the outside porch.

<sup>26</sup> There were narrow windows and decorative palm trees on either side of the side walls of the porch; this is what the side chambers of the temple and the canopies were like.

42

<sup>1</sup> Then he led me out to the outer court, toward the north, and brought me to the chamber which was opposite the courtyard and opposite the building on the north.

<sup>2</sup> Its length was 175 feet on the north side, and its width  $87\frac{1}{2}$  feet.

<sup>3</sup> Opposite the 35 feet that belonged to the inner court, and opposite the pavement which belonged to the outer court, gallery faced gallery in the three stories.

<sup>4</sup> In front of the chambers was a walkway on the inner side,  $17\frac{1}{2}$  feet wide at a distance of  $1\frac{3}{4}$  feet, and their entrances were on the north.

<sup>5</sup> Now the upper chambers were narrower, because the galleries took more space from them than from the lower and middle chambers of the building.

<sup>6</sup> For they were in three stories and had no pillars like the pillars of the courts; therefore the upper chambers were set back from the ground more than the lower and upper ones.

<sup>7</sup> As for the outer wall by the side of the chambers, toward the outer court facing the chambers, it was  $87\frac{1}{2}$  feet long.

<sup>8</sup> For the chambers on the outer court were  $87\frac{1}{2}$  feet long, while those facing the temple were 175 feet long.

<sup>9</sup> Below these chambers was a passage on the east side as one enters from the outer court.

<sup>10</sup> At the beginning of the wall of the court toward the south, facing the courtyard and the building, were chambers

<sup>11</sup> with a passage in front of them. They looked like the chambers on the north. Of the same length and width, and all their exits according to their arrangements and entrances

<sup>12</sup> were the chambers which were toward the south. There was an opening at the head of the passage, the passage in front of the corresponding wall toward the east when one enters.

<sup>13</sup> Then he said to me, "The north chambers and the south chambers which face the courtyard are holy chambers where the priests who approach the LORD | strong="H3069" will eat the most holy offerings. There they will place the most holy offerings – the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering, because the place is holy.

<sup>14</sup> When the priests enter, then they will not go out from the sanctuary to the outer court without taking off their garments in which they minister, for these are holy; they will put on other garments, then they will go near the places where the people are.”

<sup>15</sup> Now when he had finished measuring the interior of the temple, he led me out by the gate which faces east and measured all around.

<sup>20</sup> He measured it on all four sides. It had a wall around it, 875 feet long and 875 feet wide, to separate the holy and common places.

43

<sup>2</sup> I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east; the sound was like that of rushing water; and the earth radiated his glory.

<sup>3</sup> It was like the vision I saw when he came to destroy the city, and the vision I saw by the Kebar River. I threw myself face down.

<sup>4</sup> The glory of the LORD came into the temple by way of the gate that faces east.

<sup>5</sup> Then a wind lifted me up and brought me to the inner court; I watched the glory of the LORD filling the temple.

<sup>6</sup> I heard someone speaking to me from the temple, while the man was standing beside me.

<sup>7</sup> He said to me: “Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place for the soles of my feet, where I will live among the people of Israel forever. The house of Israel will no longer profane my holy name, neither they nor their kings, by their spiritual prostitution or by the pillars of their kings set up when they die.

<sup>8</sup> When they placed their threshold by my threshold and their doorpost by my doorpost, with only the wall between me and them, they profaned my holy name by the abominable deeds they committed. So I consumed them in my anger.

<sup>9</sup> Now they must put away their spiritual prostitution and the pillars of their kings far from me, and then I will live among them forever.

<sup>10</sup> “As for you, son of man, describe the temple to the house of Israel, so that they will be ashamed of their sins and measure the pattern.

<sup>11</sup> When they are ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the design of the temple, its pattern, its exits and entrances, and its whole design – all its statutes, its entire design, and all its laws; write it all down in their sight, so that they may observe its entire design and all its statutes and do them.

<sup>12</sup> “This is the law of the temple: The entire area on top of the mountain all around will be most holy. Indeed, this is the law of the temple.

The Altar

<sup>13</sup> “And these are the measurements of the altar: Its base is 1¾ feet high, and 1¾ feet wide, and its border nine inches on its edge. This is to be the height of the altar.

<sup>14</sup> From the base of the ground to the lower edge is 3½ feet, and the width 1¾ feet; and from the smaller ledge to the larger edge, 7 feet, and the width 1¾ feet;

<sup>15</sup> and the altar hearth, 7 feet, and from the altar hearth four horns projecting upward.

<sup>18</sup> Then he said to me: “Son of man, this is what the sovereign LORD says: These are the statutes of the altar: On the day it is built to offer up burnt offerings on it and to sprinkle blood on it, <sup>19</sup> you will give a young bull for a sin offering to the Levitical priests who are descended from Zadok, who approach me to minister to me, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>20</sup> You will take some of its blood, and place it on the four horns of the altar, on the four corners of the ledge, and on the border all around; you will cleanse it and make atonement for it.

<sup>21</sup> You will also take the bull for the sin offering, and it will be burned in the appointed place in the temple, outside the sanctuary.

<sup>22</sup> “On the second day, you will offer a male goat without blemish for a sin offering. They will purify the altar just as they purified it with the bull.

<sup>23</sup> When you have finished purifying it, you will offer an unblemished young bull and an unblemished ram from the flock.

<sup>24</sup> You will present them before the LORD, and the priests will scatter salt on them and offer them up as a burnt offering to the LORD.

<sup>25</sup> “For seven days you will provide every day a goat for a sin offering; a young bull and a ram from the flock, both without blemish, will be provided.

<sup>26</sup> For seven days they will make atonement for the altar and cleanse it, so they will consecrate it.

<sup>27</sup> When the prescribed period is over, on the eighth day and thereafter the priests will offer up on the altar your burnt offerings and your peace offerings; I will accept you, declares the sovereign LORD.”

44

<sup>1</sup> Then he brought me back by way of the outer gate of the sanctuary which faces east, but it was shut.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD said to me: “This gate will be shut; it will not be opened, and no one will enter by it. For the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered by it; therefore it will remain shut.

<sup>3</sup> Only the prince may sit in it to eat a sacrificial meal before the LORD; he will enter by way of the porch of the gate and will go out by the same way.”

<sup>4</sup> Then he brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple. As I watched, I noticed the glory of the LORD filling the LORD’s temple, and I threw myself face down.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD said to me: “Son of man, pay attention, watch closely and listen carefully to everything I tell you concerning all the statutes of the LORD’s house and all its laws. Pay attention to the entrances to the temple with all the exits of the sanctuary.

<sup>6</sup> Say to the rebellious, to the house of Israel, ‘This is what the sovereign LORD says: Enough of all your abominable practices, O house of Israel!

<sup>7</sup> When you bring foreigners, those uncircumcised in heart and in flesh, into my sanctuary, you desecrate it – even my house – when you offer my food, the fat and the blood. You have broken my covenant by all your abominable practices.

<sup>8</sup> You have not kept charge of my holy things, but you have assigned foreigners to keep charge of my sanctuary for you.

<sup>9</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says: No foreigner, who is uncircumcised in heart and flesh among all the foreigners who are among the people of Israel, will enter into my sanctuary.

<sup>10</sup> “But the Levites who went far from me, straying off from me after their idols when Israel went astray, will be responsible for their sin.

<sup>11</sup> Yet they will be ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the temple, and serving the temple. They will slaughter the burnt offerings and the sacrifices for the people, and they will stand before them to minister to them.

<sup>12</sup> Because they used to minister to them before their idols, and became a sinful obstacle to the house of Israel, consequently I have made a vow concerning them, declares the sovereign LORD, that they will be responsible for their sin.

<sup>13</sup> They will not come near me to serve me as priest, nor will they come near any of my holy things, the things which are most sacred. They will bear the shame of the abominable deeds they have committed.

<sup>14</sup> Yet I will appoint them to keep charge of the temple, all of its service and all that will be done in it.

The Levitical Priests

<sup>15</sup> “But the Levitical priests, the descendants of Zadok who kept the charge of my sanctuary when the people of Israel went astray from me, will approach me to minister to me; they will stand before me to offer me the fat and the blood, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>16</sup> They will enter my sanctuary, and approach my table to minister to me; they will keep my charge.

<sup>17</sup> “When they enter the gates of the inner court, they must wear linen garments; they must not have any wool on them when they minister in the inner gates of the court and in the temple.

<sup>18</sup> Linen turbans will be on their heads and linen undergarments will be around their waists; they must not bind themselves with anything that causes sweat.

<sup>19</sup> When they go out to the outer court to the people, they must remove the garments they were ministering in, and place them in the holy chambers; they must put on other garments so that they will not transmit holiness to the people with their garments.

<sup>22</sup> They must not marry a widow or a divorcee, but they may marry a virgin from the house of Israel or a widow who is a priest's widow.

<sup>23</sup> Moreover, they will teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, and show them how to distinguish between the ceremonially unclean and the clean.

<sup>24</sup> “In a controversy they will act as judges; they will judge according to my ordinances. They will keep my laws and my statutes regarding all my appointed festivals and will observe my Sabbaths.

<sup>25</sup> “They must not come near a dead person or they will be defiled; however, for father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister, they may defile themselves.

<sup>26</sup> After a priest has become ceremonially clean, they must count off a period of seven days for him.

<sup>27</sup> On the day he enters the sanctuary, into the inner court to serve in the sanctuary, he must offer his sin offering, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>28</sup> “This will be their inheritance: I am their inheritance, and you must give them no property in Israel; I am their property.

<sup>29</sup> They may eat the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering, and every devoted thing in Israel will be theirs.

<sup>30</sup> The first of all the first fruits and all contributions of any kind will be for the priests; you will also give to the priest the first portion of your dough, so that a blessing may rest on your house.

<sup>31</sup> The priests will not eat any bird or animal that has died a natural death or was torn to pieces by a wild animal.

45

<sup>1</sup> “When you allot the land as an inheritance, you will offer an allotment to the LORD, a holy portion from the land; the length will be eight and a quarter miles and the width three and one-third miles. This entire area will be holy.

<sup>2</sup> Of this area a square 875 feet by 875 feet will be designated for the sanctuary, with 87½ feet set aside for its open space round about.

<sup>3</sup> From this measured area you will measure a length of eight and a quarter miles and a width of three and one-third miles; in it will be the sanctuary, the most holy place.

<sup>4</sup> It will be a holy portion of the land; it will be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary who approach the LORD to minister to him. It will be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary.

<sup>5</sup> An area eight and a quarter miles in length and three and one-third miles in width will be for the Levites, who minister at the temple, as the place for the cities in which they will live.

<sup>6</sup> “Alongside the portion set apart as the holy allotment, you will allot for the city an area one and two-thirds miles wide and eight and a quarter miles long; it will be for the whole house of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> “For the prince there will be land on both sides of the holy allotment and the allotted city, alongside the holy allotment and the allotted city, on the west side and on the east side; it will be comparable in length to one of the portions, from the west border to the east border

<sup>8</sup> of the land. This will be his property in Israel. My princes will no longer oppress my people, but the land will be allotted to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

<sup>9</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says: Enough, you princes of Israel! Put away violence and destruction, and do what is just and right. Put an end to your evictions of my people, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>10</sup> You must use just balances, a just dry measure (an ephah), and a just liquid measure (a bath).

<sup>11</sup> The dry and liquid measures will be the same, the bath will contain a tenth of a homer, and the ephah a tenth of a homer; the homer will be the standard measure.

<sup>12</sup> The shekel will be twenty gerahs. Sixty shekels will be a mina for you.

<sup>13</sup> “This is the offering you must offer: a sixth of an ephah from a homer of wheat; a sixth of an ephah from a homer of barley,

<sup>14</sup> and as the prescribed portion of olive oil, one tenth of a bath from each kor (which is ten baths or a homer, for ten baths make a homer);

<sup>15</sup> and one sheep from each flock of two hundred, from the watered places of Israel, for a grain offering, burnt offering, and peace offering, to make atonement for them, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>16</sup> All the people of the land will contribute to this offering for the prince of Israel.

<sup>17</sup> It will be the duty of the prince to provide the burnt offerings, the grain offering, and the drink offering at festivals, on the new moons and Sabbaths, at all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel; he will provide the sin offering, the grain offering, the burnt offering, and the peace offerings to make atonement for the house of Israel.

<sup>18</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says: In the first month, on the first day of the month, you must take an unblemished young bull and purify the sanctuary.

<sup>19</sup> The priest will take some of the blood of the sin offering and place it on the doorpost of the temple, on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the doorpost of the gate of the inner court.

<sup>20</sup> This is what you must do on the seventh day of the month for anyone who sins inadvertently or through ignorance; so you will make atonement for the temple.

<sup>21</sup> “In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you will celebrate the Passover, and for seven days bread made without yeast will be eaten.

<sup>22</sup> On that day the prince will provide for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering.

<sup>23</sup> And during the seven days of the feast he will provide as a burnt offering to the LORD seven bulls and seven rams, all without blemish, on each of the seven days, and a male goat daily for a sin offering.

<sup>24</sup> He will provide as a grain offering an ephah for each bull, an ephah for each ram, and a gallon of olive oil for each ephah of grain.

<sup>25</sup> In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, at the feast, he will make the same provisions for the sin offering, burnt offering, and grain offering, and for the olive oil, for the seven days.

46

<sup>1</sup> “This is what the sovereign LORD says: The gate of the inner court that faces east will be closed six working days, but on the Sabbath day it will be opened and on the day of the new moon it will be opened.

<sup>2</sup> The prince will enter by way of the porch of the gate from the outside, and will stand by the doorpost of the gate. The priests will provide his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he will bow down at the threshold of the gate and then go out. But the gate will not be closed until evening.

<sup>3</sup> The people of the land will bow down at the entrance of that gate before the LORD on the Sabbaths and on the new moons.

<sup>4</sup> The burnt offering which the prince will offer to the LORD on the Sabbath day will be six unblemished lambs and one unblemished ram.

<sup>5</sup> The grain offering will be an ephah with the ram, and the grain offering with the lambs will be as much as he is able to give, and a gallon of olive oil with an ephah.

<sup>6</sup> On the day of the new moon he will offer an unblemished young bull, and six lambs and a ram, all without blemish.

<sup>7</sup> He will provide a grain offering: an ephah with the bull and an ephah with the ram, and with the lambs as much as he wishes, and a gallon of olive oil with each ephah of grain.

<sup>8</sup> When the prince enters, he will come by way of the porch of the gate and will go out the same way.

<sup>9</sup> “When the people of the land come before the LORD at the appointed feasts, whoever enters by way of the north gate to worship will go out by way of the south gate; whoever enters by way of the south gate will go out by way of the north gate. No one will return by way of the gate they entered but will go out straight ahead.

<sup>10</sup> When they come in, the prince will come in with them, and when they go out, he will go out.

<sup>11</sup> “At the festivals and at the appointed feasts the grain offering will be an ephah with the bull and an ephah with the ram, and with the lambs as much as one is able, and a gallon of olive oil with each ephah of grain.

<sup>12</sup> When the prince provides a freewill offering, a burnt offering, or peace offerings as a voluntary offering to the LORD, the gate facing east will be opened for him, and he will provide his burnt offering and his peace offerings just as he did on the Sabbath. Then he will go out, and the gate will be closed after he goes out.

<sup>13</sup> “You will provide a lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt offering daily to the LORD; morning by morning he will provide it.

<sup>14</sup> And you will provide a grain offering with it morning by morning, a sixth of an ephah, and a third of a gallon of olive oil to moisten the choice flour, as a grain offering to the LORD; this is a perpetual statute.

<sup>15</sup> Thus they will provide the lamb, the grain offering, and the olive oil morning by morning, as a perpetual burnt offering.

<sup>17</sup> But if he gives a gift from his inheritance to one of his servants, it will be his until the year of liberty; then it will revert to the prince. His inheritance will only remain with his sons.

<sup>18</sup> The prince will not take away any of the people’s inheritance by oppressively removing them from their property. He will give his sons an inheritance from his own possessions so that my people will not be scattered, each from his own property.’ ”

<sup>19</sup> Then he brought me through the entrance, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers for the priests which faced north. There I saw a place at the extreme western end.

<sup>20</sup> He said to me, “This is the place where the priests will boil the guilt offering and the sin offering, and where they will bake the grain offering, so that they do not bring them out to the outer court to transmit holiness to the people.”

<sup>21</sup> Then he brought me out to the outer court and led me past the four corners of the court, and I noticed that in every corner of the court there was a court.

<sup>22</sup> In the four corners of the court were small courts, 70 feet in length and 52½ feet in width; the four were all the same size.

<sup>23</sup> There was a row of masonry around each of the four courts, and places for boiling offerings were made under the rows all around.

<sup>24</sup> Then he said to me, “These are the houses for boiling, where the ministers of the temple boil the sacrifices of the people.”

47

<sup>1</sup> Then he brought me back to the entrance of the temple. I noticed that water was flowing from under the threshold of the temple toward the east (for the temple faced east). The water was flowing down from under the right side of the temple, from south of the altar.

<sup>2</sup> He led me out by way of the north gate and brought me around the outside of the outer gate that faces toward the east; I noticed that the water was trickling out from the south side.

<sup>3</sup> When the man went out toward the east with a measuring line in his hand, he measured 1,750 feet, and then he led me through water, which was ankle deep.

<sup>4</sup> Again he measured 1,750 feet and led me through the water, which was now knee deep. Once more he measured 1,750 feet and led me through the water, which was waist deep.

<sup>5</sup> Again he measured 1,750 feet and it was a river I could not cross, for the water had risen; it was deep enough to swim in, a river that could not be crossed.

<sup>6</sup> He said to me, “Son of man, have you seen this?”

Then he led me back to the bank of the river.

<sup>7</sup> When I had returned, I noticed a vast number of trees on the banks of the river, on both sides.

<sup>8</sup> He said to me, “These waters go out toward the eastern region and flow down into the Arabah; when they enter the Dead Sea, where the sea is stagnant, the waters become fresh.

<sup>9</sup> Every living creature which swarms where the river flows will live; there will be many fish, for these waters flow there. It will become fresh and everything will live where the river flows.

<sup>10</sup> Fishermen will stand beside it; from Engedi to En-eglaim they will spread nets. They will catch many kinds of fish, like the fish of the Great Sea.

<sup>11</sup> But its swamps and its marshes will not become fresh; they will remain salty.

<sup>12</sup> On both sides of the river’s banks, every kind of tree will grow for food. Their leaves will not wither nor will their fruit fail, but they will bear fruit every month, because their water source flows from the sanctuary. Their fruit will be for food and their leaves for healing.”

Boundaries for the Land

<sup>13</sup> This is what the sovereign LORD says: “Here are the borders you will observe as you allot the land to the twelve tribes of Israel. (Joseph will have two portions.)

<sup>14</sup> You must divide it equally just as I vowed to give it to your forefathers; this land will be assigned as your inheritance.

<sup>18</sup> On the east side, between Hauran and Damascus, and between Gilead and the land of Israel, will be the Jordan. You will measure from the border to the eastern sea. This is the east side.

<sup>19</sup> On the south side it will run from Tamar to the waters of Meribath Kadesh, the river, to the Great Sea. This is the south side.

<sup>22</sup> You must allot it as an inheritance among yourselves and for the foreigners who reside among you, who have fathered sons among you. You must treat them as native-born among the people of Israel; they will be allotted an inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.

<sup>23</sup> In whatever tribe the foreigner resides, there you will give him his inheritance,” declares the sovereign LORD.

48

<sup>2</sup> Next to the border of Dan, from the east side to the west, Asher will have one portion.

<sup>3</sup> Next to the border of Asher from the east side to the west, Naphtali will have one portion.

<sup>4</sup> Next to the border of Naphtali from the east side to the west, Manasseh will have one portion.

<sup>5</sup> Next to the border of Manasseh from the east side to the west, Ephraim will have one portion.

<sup>6</sup> Next to the border of Ephraim from the east side to the west, Reuben will have one portion.

<sup>7</sup> Next to the border of Reuben from the east side to the west, Judah will have one portion.

<sup>8</sup> “Next to the border of Judah from the east side to the west will be the allotment you must set apart. It is to be eight and a quarter miles wide, and the same length as one of the tribal portions, from the east side to the west; the sanctuary will be in the middle of it.

<sup>9</sup> The allotment you set apart to the LORD will be eight and a quarter miles in length and three and one-third miles in width.

<sup>10</sup> These will be the allotments for the holy portion: for the priests, toward the north eight and a quarter miles in length, toward the west three and one-third miles in width, toward the east three and one-third miles in width, and toward the south eight and a quarter miles in length; the sanctuary of the LORD will be in the middle.

<sup>11</sup> This will be for the priests who are set apart from the descendants of Zadok who kept my charge and did not go astray when the people of Israel strayed off, like the Levites did.

<sup>12</sup> It will be their portion from the allotment of the land, a most holy place, next to the border of the Levites.

<sup>13</sup> “Alongside the border of the priests, the Levites will have an allotment eight and a quarter miles in length and three and one-third miles in width. The whole length will be eight and a quarter miles and the width three and one-third miles.

<sup>14</sup> They must not sell or exchange any of it; they must not transfer this choice portion of land, for it is set apart to the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> “The remainder, one and two-thirds miles in width and eight and a quarter miles in length, will be for common use by the city, for houses and for open space. The city will be in the middle of it;

<sup>16</sup> these will be its measurements: The north side will be one and one-half miles, the south side one and one-half miles, the east side one and one-half miles, and the west side one and one-half miles.

<sup>17</sup> The city will have open spaces: On the north there will be 437½ feet, on the south 437½ feet, on the east 437½ feet, and on the west 437½ feet.

<sup>18</sup> The remainder of the length alongside the holy allotment will be three and one-third miles to the east and three and one-third miles toward the west, and it will be beside the holy allotment. Its produce will be for food for the workers of the city.

<sup>20</sup> The whole allotment will be eight and a quarter miles square, you must set apart the holy allotment with the possession of the city.

<sup>21</sup> “The rest, on both sides of the holy allotment and the property of the city, will belong to the prince. Extending from the eight and a quarter miles of the holy allotment to the east border, and westward from the eight and a quarter miles to the west border, alongside the portions, it will belong to the prince. The holy allotment and the sanctuary of the temple will be in the middle of it.

<sup>22</sup> The property of the Levites and of the city will be in the middle of that which belongs to the prince. The portion between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin will be for the prince.

<sup>24</sup> Next to the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west side, Simeon will have one portion.

<sup>26</sup> Next to the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west side, Zebulun will have one portion.

<sup>27</sup> Next to the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the west side, Gad will have one portion.

<sup>29</sup> This is the land which you will allot to the tribes of Israel, and these are their portions, declares the sovereign LORD.

<sup>30</sup> “These are the exits of the city: On the north side, one and one-half miles by measure, <sup>31</sup> the gates of the city will be named for the tribes of Israel; there will be three gates to the north: one gate for Reuben, one gate for Judah, and one gate for Levi.

<sup>32</sup> On the east side, one and one-half miles in length, there will be three gates: one gate for Joseph, one gate for Benjamin, and one gate for Dan.

<sup>33</sup> On the south side, one and one-half miles by measure, there will be three gates: one gate for Simeon, one gate for Issachar, and one gate for Zebulun.

<sup>34</sup> On the west side, one and one-half miles in length, there will be three gates: one gate for Gad, one gate for Asher, and one gate for Naphtali.

<sup>35</sup> The circumference of the city will be six miles. The name of the city from that day forward will be: ‘The LORD Is There.’ ”

Daniel

Daniel Finds Favor in Babylon

<sup>2</sup> Now the Lord delivered King Jehoiakim of Judah into his power, along with some of the vessels of the temple of God. He brought them to the land of Babylonia to the temple of his god and put the vessels in the treasury of his god.

<sup>3</sup> The king commanded Ashpenaz, who was in charge of his court officials, to choose some of the Israelites who were of royal and noble descent –

<sup>4</sup> young men in whom there was no physical defect and who were handsome, well versed in all kinds of wisdom, well educated and having keen insight, and who were capable of entering the king's royal service – and to teach them the literature and language of the Babylonians.

<sup>5</sup> So the king assigned them a daily ration from his royal delicacies and from the wine he himself drank. They were to be trained for the next three years. At the end of that time they were to enter the king's service.

<sup>7</sup> But the overseer of the court officials renamed them. He gave Daniel the name Belteshazzar, Hananiah he named Shadrach, Mishael he named Meshach, and Azariah he named Abednego.

<sup>8</sup> But Daniel made up his mind that he would not defile himself with the royal delicacies or the royal wine. He therefore asked the overseer of the court officials for permission not to defile himself.

<sup>9</sup> Then God made the overseer of the court officials sympathetic to Daniel.

<sup>10</sup> But he responded to Daniel, "I fear my master the king. He is the one who has decided your food and drink. What would happen if he saw that you looked malnourished in comparison to the other young men your age? If that happened, you would endanger my life with the king!"

<sup>11</sup> Daniel then spoke to the warden whom the overseer of the court officials had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah:

<sup>12</sup> "Please test your servants for ten days by providing us with some vegetables to eat and water to drink.

<sup>14</sup> So the warden agreed to their proposal and tested them for ten days.

<sup>15</sup> At the end of the ten days their appearance was better and their bodies were healthier than all the young men who had been eating the royal delicacies.

<sup>16</sup> So the warden removed the delicacies and the wine from their diet and gave them a diet of vegetables instead.

<sup>17</sup> Now as for these four young men, God endowed them with knowledge and skill in all sorts of literature and wisdom – and Daniel had insight into all kinds of visions and dreams.

<sup>18</sup> When the time appointed by the king arrived, the overseer of the court officials brought them into Nebuchadnezzar's presence.

<sup>19</sup> When the king spoke with them, he did not find among the entire group anyone like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, or Azariah. So they entered the king's service.

<sup>20</sup> In every matter of wisdom and insight the king asked them about, he found them to be ten times better than any of the magicians and astrologers that were in his entire empire.

2

<sup>3</sup> The king told them, "I have had a dream, and I am anxious to understand the dream."

<sup>5</sup> The king replied to the wise men, "My decision is firm. If you do not inform me of both the dream and its interpretation, you will be dismembered and your homes reduced to rubble!

<sup>6</sup> But if you can disclose the dream and its interpretation, you will receive from me gifts, a reward, and considerable honor. So disclose to me the dream and its interpretation!"

<sup>8</sup> The king replied, "I know for sure that you are attempting to gain time, because you see that my decision is firm.

<sup>9</sup> If you don't inform me of the dream, there is only one thing that is going to happen to you. For you have agreed among yourselves to report to me something false and deceitful until such time as things might change. So tell me the dream, and I will have confidence that you can disclose its interpretation."

<sup>10</sup> The wise men replied to the king, "There is no man on earth who is able to disclose the king's secret, for no king, regardless of his position and power, has ever requested such a thing from any magician, astrologer, or wise man.

<sup>11</sup> What the king is asking is too difficult, and no one exists who can disclose it to the king, except for the gods – but they don't live among mortals!"

<sup>12</sup> Because of this the king got furiously angry and gave orders to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

<sup>13</sup> So a decree went out, and the wise men were about to be executed. They also sought Daniel and his friends so that they could be executed.

<sup>14</sup> Then Daniel spoke with prudent counsel to Arioch, who was in charge of the king's executioners and who had gone out to execute the wise men of Babylon.

<sup>15</sup> He inquired of Arioch the king's deputy, "Why is the decree from the king so urgent?" Then Arioch informed Daniel about the matter.

<sup>16</sup> So Daniel went in and requested the king to grant him time, that he might disclose the interpretation to the king.

<sup>17</sup> Then Daniel went to his home and informed his friends Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah of the matter.

<sup>18</sup> He asked them to pray for mercy from the God of heaven concerning this mystery so that he and his friends would not be destroyed along with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

<sup>19</sup> Then in a night vision the mystery was revealed to Daniel. So Daniel praised the God of heaven,

<sup>20</sup> saying,

“Let the name of God be praised forever and ever, for wisdom and power belong to him.

<sup>21</sup> He changes times and seasons, deposing some kings and establishing others.

He gives wisdom to the wise;
he imparts knowledge to those with understanding;
<sup>22</sup> he reveals deep and hidden things.

He knows what is in the darkness, and light resides with him.

<sup>23</sup> O God of my fathers, I acknowledge and glorify you, for you have bestowed wisdom and power on me.
Now you have enabled me to understand what I requested from you.
For you have enabled me to understand the king’s dilemma.”

<sup>24</sup> Then Daniel went in to see Arioch (whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon). He came and said to him, “Don’t destroy the wise men of Babylon! Escort me to the king, and I will disclose the interpretation to him!”

<sup>25</sup> So Arioch quickly ushered Daniel into the king’s presence, saying to him, “I have found a man from the captives of Judah who can make known the interpretation to the king.”

<sup>26</sup> The king then asked Daniel (whose name was also Belteshazzar), “Are you able to make known to me the dream that I saw, as well as its interpretation?”

<sup>27</sup> Daniel replied to the king, “The mystery that the king is asking about is such that no wise men, astrologers, magicians, or diviners can possibly disclose it to the king.

<sup>28</sup> However, there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries, and he has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen in the times to come. The dream and the visions you had while lying on your bed are as follows.

<sup>29</sup> “As for you, O king, while you were in your bed your thoughts turned to future things. The revealer of mysteries has made known to you what will take place.

<sup>30</sup> As for me, this mystery was revealed to me not because I possess more wisdom than any other living person, but so that the king may understand the interpretation and comprehend the thoughts of your mind.

<sup>31</sup> “You, O king, were watching as a great statue – one of impressive size and extraordinary brightness – was standing before you. Its appearance caused alarm.

<sup>32</sup> As for that statue, its head was of fine gold, its chest and arms were of silver, its belly and thighs were of bronze.

<sup>33</sup> Its legs were of iron; its feet were partly of iron and partly of clay.

<sup>34</sup> You were watching as a stone was cut out, but not by human hands. It struck the statue on its iron and clay feet, breaking them in pieces.

<sup>35</sup> Then the iron, clay, bronze, silver, and gold were broken in pieces without distinction and became like chaff from the summer threshing floors that the wind carries away. Not a trace of them could be found. But the stone that struck the statue became a large mountain that filled the entire earth.

<sup>36</sup> This was the dream. Now we will set forth before the king its interpretation.

Daniel Interprets Nebuchadnezzar’s Dream

<sup>37</sup> “You, O king, are the king of kings. The God of heaven has granted you sovereignty, power, strength, and honor.

<sup>38</sup> Wherever human beings, wild animals, and birds of the sky live – he has given them into your power. He has given you authority over them all. You are the head of gold.

<sup>39</sup> Now after you another kingdom will arise, one inferior to yours. Then a third kingdom, one of bronze, will rule in all the earth.

<sup>40</sup> Then there will be a fourth kingdom, one strong like iron. Just like iron breaks in pieces and shatters everything, and as iron breaks in pieces all of these metals, so it will break in pieces and crush the others.

<sup>41</sup> In that you were seeing feet and toes partly of wet clay and partly of iron, so this will be a divided kingdom. Some of the strength of iron will be in it, for you saw iron mixed with wet clay.

<sup>42</sup> In that the toes of the feet were partly of iron and partly of clay, the latter stages of this kingdom will be partly strong and partly fragile.

<sup>43</sup> And in that you saw iron mixed with wet clay, so people will be mixed with one another without adhering to one another, just as iron does not mix with clay.

<sup>44</sup> In the days of those kings the God of heaven will raise up an everlasting kingdom that will not be destroyed and a kingdom that will not be left to another people. It will break in pieces and bring about the demise of all these kingdoms. But it will stand forever.

<sup>45</sup> You saw that a stone was cut from a mountain, but not by human hands; it smashed the iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold into pieces. The great God has made known to the king what will occur in the future. The dream is certain, and its interpretation is reliable."

<sup>46</sup> Then King Nebuchadnezzar bowed down with his face to the ground and paid homage to Daniel. He gave orders to offer sacrifice and incense to him.

<sup>47</sup> The king replied to Daniel, "Certainly your God is a God of gods and Lord of kings and revealer of mysteries, for you were able to reveal this mystery!"

<sup>48</sup> Then the king elevated Daniel to high position and bestowed on him many marvelous gifts. He granted him authority over the entire province of Babylon and made him the main prefect over all the wise men of Babylon.

3

<sup>1</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar had a golden statue made. It was ninety feet tall and nine feet wide. He erected it on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon.

<sup>2</sup> Then King Nebuchadnezzar sent out a summons to assemble the satraps, prefects, governors, counselors, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the other authorities of the province to attend the dedication of the statue that he had erected.

<sup>3</sup> So the satraps, prefects, governors, counselors, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the other provincial authorities assembled for the dedication of the statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had erected. They were standing in front of the statue that Nebuchadnezzar had erected.

<sup>4</sup> Then the herald made a loud proclamation: "To you, O peoples, nations, and language groups, the following command is given:

<sup>5</sup> When you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, trigon, harp, pipes, and all kinds of music, you must bow down and pay homage to the golden statue that King Nebuchadnezzar has erected.

<sup>6</sup> Whoever does not bow down and pay homage will immediately be thrown into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire!"

<sup>7</sup> Therefore when they all heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, trigon, harp, pipes, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, nations, and language groups began bowing down and paying homage to the golden statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had erected.

<sup>8</sup> Now at that time certain Chaldeans came forward and brought malicious accusations against the Jews.

<sup>9</sup> They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, live forever!

<sup>10</sup> You have issued an edict, O king, that everyone must bow down and pay homage to the golden statue when they hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, trigon, harp, pipes, and all kinds of music.

<sup>11</sup> And whoever does not bow down and pay homage must be thrown into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire.

<sup>12</sup> But there are Jewish men whom you appointed over the administration of the province of Babylon – Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego – and these men have not shown proper respect to you, O king. They don't serve your gods and they don't pay homage to the golden statue that you have erected."

<sup>13</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar in a fit of rage demanded that they bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego before him. So they brought them before the king.

<sup>14</sup> Nebuchadnezzar said to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you don't serve my gods and that you don't pay homage to the golden statue that I erected?

<sup>15</sup> Now if you are ready, when you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, trigon, harp, pipes, and all kinds of music, you must bow down and pay homage to the statue that I had made. If you don't pay homage to it, you will immediately be thrown into the midst of the furnace of blazing fire. Now, who is that god who can rescue you from my power?"

<sup>17</sup> If our God whom we are serving exists, he is able to rescue us from the furnace of blazing fire, and he will rescue us, O king, from your power as well.

<sup>18</sup> But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we don't serve your gods, and we will not pay homage to the golden statue that you have erected."

<sup>19</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with rage, and his disposition changed toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He gave orders to heat the furnace seven times hotter than it was normally heated.

<sup>20</sup> He ordered strong soldiers in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and to throw them into the furnace of blazing fire.

<sup>21</sup> So those men were tied up while still wearing their cloaks, trousers, turbans, and other clothes, and were thrown into the furnace of blazing fire.

<sup>22</sup> But since the king's command was so urgent, and the furnace was so excessively hot, the men who escorted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were killed by the leaping flames.

<sup>23</sup> But those three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell into the furnace of blazing fire while still securely bound.

God Delivers His Servants

<sup>24</sup> Then King Nebuchadnezzar was startled and quickly got up. He said to his ministers, "Wasn't it three men that we tied up and threw into the fire?" They replied to the king, "For sure, O king."

<sup>25</sup> He answered, "But I see four men, untied and walking around in the midst of the fire! No harm has come to them! And the appearance of the fourth is like that of a god!"

<sup>26</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar approached the door of the furnace of blazing fire. He called out, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the most high God, come out! Come here!"

Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego emerged from the fire.

<sup>27</sup> Once the satraps, prefects, governors, and ministers of the king had gathered around, they saw that those men were physically unharmed by the fire. The hair of their heads was not singed, nor were their trousers damaged. Not even the smell of fire was to be found on them!

<sup>28</sup> Nebuchadnezzar exclaimed, "Praised be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent forth his angel and has rescued his servants who trusted in him, ignoring the edict of the king and giving up their bodies rather than serve or pay homage to any god other than their God!

<sup>29</sup> I hereby decree that any people, nation, or language group that blasphemes the god of Shadrach, Meshach, or Abednego will be dismembered and his home reduced to rubble! For there exists no other god who can deliver in this way."

4

<sup>2</sup> I am delighted to tell you about the signs and wonders that the most high God has done for me.

<sup>3</sup> "How great are his signs!

How mighty are his wonders!

His kingdom will last forever, and his authority continues from one generation to the next."

Nebuchadnezzar Dreams of a Tree Chopped Down

<sup>4</sup> I, Nebuchadnezzar, was relaxing in my home, living luxuriously in my palace.

<sup>5</sup> I saw a dream that frightened me badly. The things I imagined while lying on my bed – these visions of my mind – were terrifying me.

<sup>6</sup> So I issued an order for all the wise men of Babylon to be brought before me so that they could make known to me the interpretation of the dream.

<sup>7</sup> When the magicians, astrologers, wise men, and diviners entered, I recounted the dream for them. But they were unable to make known its interpretation to me.

<sup>8</sup> Later Daniel entered (whose name is Belteshazzar after the name of my god, and in whom there is a spirit of the holy gods). I recounted the dream for him as well, <sup>9</sup> saying, "Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, in whom I know there to be a spirit of the holy gods and whom no mystery baffles, consider my dream that I saw and set forth its interpretation!

<sup>10</sup> Here are the visions of my mind while I was on my bed.

While I was watching,

there was a tree in the middle of the land.

It was enormously tall.

<sup>11</sup> The tree grew large and strong.

Its top reached far into the sky;

it could be seen from the borders of all the land.

<sup>12</sup> Its foliage was attractive and its fruit plentiful; on it there was food enough for all.

Under it the wild animals used to seek shade, and in its branches the birds of the sky used to nest.

All creatures used to feed themselves from it.

<sup>13</sup> While I was watching in my mind's visions on my bed, a holy sentinel came down from heaven.

<sup>14</sup> He called out loudly as follows:

‘Chop down the tree and lop off its branches!

Strip off its foliage and scatter its fruit!

Let the animals flee from under it and the birds from its branches!

<sup>15</sup> But leave its taproot in the ground, with a band of iron and bronze around it surrounded by the grass of the field.

Let it become damp with the dew of the sky, and let it live with the animals in the grass of the land.

<sup>16</sup> Let his mind be altered from that of a human being, and let an animal’s mind be given to him, and let seven periods of time go by for him.

<sup>17</sup> This announcement is by the decree of the sentinels;

this decision is by the pronouncement of the holy ones,

so that those who are alive may understand that the Most High has authority over human kingdoms, and he bestows them on whomever he wishes.

He establishes over them even the lowliest of human beings.’

<sup>18</sup> “This is the dream that I, King Nebuchadnezzar, saw. Now you, Belteshazzar, declare its interpretation, for none of the wise men in my kingdom are able to make known to me the interpretation. But you can do so, for a spirit of the holy gods is in you.”

Daniel Interprets Nebuchadnezzar’s Dream

<sup>19</sup> Then Daniel (whose name is also Belteshazzar) was upset for a brief time; his thoughts were alarming him. The king said, “Belteshazzar, don’t let the dream and its interpretation alarm you.” But Belteshazzar replied, “Sir, if only the dream were for your enemies and its interpretation applied to your adversaries!

<sup>20</sup> The tree that you saw that grew large and strong, whose top reached to the sky, and which could be seen in all the land,

<sup>21</sup> whose foliage was attractive and its fruit plentiful, and from which there was food available for all, under whose branches wild animals used to live, and in whose branches birds of the sky used to nest –

<sup>22</sup> it is you, O king! For you have become great and strong. Your greatness is such that it reaches to heaven, and your authority to the ends of the earth.

<sup>23</sup> As for the king seeing a holy sentinel coming down from heaven and saying, ‘Chop down the tree and destroy it, but leave its taproot in the ground, with a band of iron and bronze around it, surrounded by the grass of the field. Let it become damp with the dew of the sky, and let it live with the wild animals, until seven periods of time go by for him’

– <sup>24</sup> this is the interpretation, O king! It is the decision of the Most High that this has happened to my lord the king.

<sup>25</sup> You will be driven from human society, and you will live with the wild animals. You will be fed grass like oxen, and you will become damp with the dew of the sky. Seven periods of time will pass by for you, before you understand that the Most High is ruler over human kingdoms and gives them to whomever he wishes.

<sup>26</sup> They said to leave the taproot of the tree, for your kingdom will be restored to you when you come to understand that heaven rules.

<sup>27</sup> Therefore, O king, may my advice be pleasing to you. Break away from your sins by doing what is right, and from your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor. Perhaps your prosperity will be prolonged.”

<sup>31</sup> While these words were still on the king's lips, a voice came down from heaven: "It is hereby announced to you, King Nebuchadnezzar, that your kingdom has been removed from you!

<sup>32</sup> You will be driven from human society, and you will live with the wild animals. You will be fed grass like oxen, and seven periods of time will pass by for you before you understand that the Most High is ruler over human kingdoms and gives them to whomever he wishes."

<sup>33</sup> Now in that very moment this pronouncement about Nebuchadnezzar came true. He was driven from human society, he ate grass like oxen, and his body became damp with the dew of the sky, until his hair became long like an eagle's feathers, and his nails like a bird's claws.

<sup>34</sup> But at the end of the appointed time I, Nebuchadnezzar, looked up toward heaven, and my sanity returned to me.

I extolled the Most High, and I praised and glorified the one who lives forever.

For his authority is an everlasting authority, and his kingdom extends from one generation to the next.

<sup>35</sup> All the inhabitants of the earth are regarded as nothing.

He does as he wishes with the army of heaven and with those who inhabit the earth.

No one slaps his hand and says to him, 'What have you done?'

<sup>36</sup> At that time my sanity returned to me. I was restored to the honor of my kingdom, and my splendor returned to me. My ministers and my nobles were seeking me out, and I was reinstated over my kingdom. I became even greater than before.

<sup>37</sup> Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and exalt and glorify the King of heaven, for all his deeds are right and his ways are just. He is able to bring down those who live in pride.

<sup>2</sup> While under the influence of the wine, Belshazzar issued an order to bring in the gold and silver vessels – the ones that Nebuchadnezzar his father had confiscated from the temple in Jerusalem – so that the king and his nobles, together with his wives and his concubines, could drink from them.

<sup>3</sup> So they brought the gold and silver vessels that had been confiscated from the temple, the house of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his nobles, together with his wives and concubines, drank from them.

<sup>4</sup> As they drank wine, they praised the gods of gold and silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone.

<sup>5</sup> At that very moment the fingers of a human hand appeared and wrote on the plaster of the royal palace wall, opposite the lampstand. The king was watching the back of the hand that was writing.

<sup>6</sup> Then all the color drained from the king's face and he became alarmed. The joints of his hips gave way, and his knees began knocking together.

<sup>7</sup> The king called out loudly to summon the astrologers, wise men, and diviners. The king proclaimed to the wise men of Babylon that anyone who could read this inscription and disclose its interpretation would be clothed in purple and have a golden collar placed on his neck and be third ruler in the kingdom.

<sup>8</sup> So all the king's wise men came in, but they were unable to read the writing or to make known its interpretation to the king.

<sup>9</sup> Then King Belshazzar was very terrified, and he was visibly shaken. His nobles were completely dumbfounded.

<sup>10</sup> Due to the noise caused by the king and his nobles, the queen mother then entered the banquet room. She said, "O king, live forever! Don't be alarmed! Don't be shaken!"

<sup>11</sup> There is a man in your kingdom who has within him a spirit of the holy gods. In the days of your father, he proved to have insight, discernment, and wisdom like that of the gods. King Nebuchadnezzar your father appointed him chief of the magicians, astrologers, wise men, and diviners.

<sup>12</sup> Thus there was found in this man Daniel, whom the king renamed Belteshazzar, an extraordinary spirit, knowledge, and skill to interpret dreams, solve riddles, and decipher knotty problems. Now summon Daniel, and he will disclose the interpretation."

<sup>13</sup> So Daniel was brought in before the king. The king said to Daniel, "Are you that Daniel who is one of the captives of Judah, whom my father the king brought from Judah?"

<sup>14</sup> I have heard about you, how there is a spirit of the gods in you, and how you have insight, discernment, and extraordinary wisdom.

<sup>15</sup> Now the wise men and astrologers were brought before me to read this writing and make known to me its interpretation. But they were unable to disclose the interpretation of the message.

<sup>16</sup> However, I have heard that you are able to provide interpretations and to decipher knotty problems. Now if you are able to read this writing and make known to me its interpretation, you will wear purple and have a golden collar around your neck and be third ruler in the kingdom."

Daniel Interprets the Handwriting on the Wall

<sup>17</sup> But Daniel replied to the king, "Keep your gifts, and give your rewards to someone else! However, I will read the writing for the king and make known its interpretation.

<sup>18</sup> As for you, O king, the most high God bestowed on your father Nebuchadnezzar a kingdom, greatness, honor, and majesty.

<sup>19</sup> Due to the greatness that he bestowed on him, all peoples, nations, and language groups were trembling with fear before him. He killed whom he wished, he spared whom he wished, he exalted whom he wished, and he brought low whom he wished.

<sup>21</sup> He was driven from human society, his mind was changed to that of an animal, he lived with the wild donkeys, he was fed grass like oxen, and his body became damp with the dew of the sky, until he came to understand that the most high God rules over human kingdoms, and he appoints over them whomever he wishes.

<sup>23</sup> Instead, you have exalted yourself against the Lord of heaven. You brought before you the vessels from his temple, and you and your nobles, together with your wives and concubines, drank wine from them. You praised the gods of silver, gold, bronze, iron, wood, and stone – gods that cannot see or hear or comprehend! But you have not glorified the God who has in his control your very breath and all your ways!

<sup>26</sup> This is the interpretation of the words: As for mene – God has numbered your kingdom’s days and brought it to an end.

<sup>27</sup> As for teqel – you are weighed on the balances and found to be lacking.

<sup>29</sup> Then, on Belshazzar’s orders, Daniel was clothed in purple, a golden collar was placed around his neck, and he was proclaimed third ruler in the kingdom.

<sup>30</sup> And in that very night Belshazzar, the Babylonian king, was killed.

<sup>31</sup> So Darius the Mede took control of the kingdom when he was about sixty-two years old.

6

<sup>2</sup> Over them would be three supervisors, one of whom was Daniel. These satraps were accountable to them, so that the king’s interests might not incur damage.

<sup>3</sup> Now this Daniel was distinguishing himself above the other supervisors and the satraps, for he had an extraordinary spirit. In fact, the king intended to appoint him over the entire kingdom.

<sup>4</sup> Consequently the supervisors and satraps were trying to find some pretext against Daniel in connection with administrative matters. But they were unable to find any such damaging evidence, because he was trustworthy and guilty of no negligence or corruption.

<sup>5</sup> So these men concluded, “We won’t find any pretext against this man Daniel unless it is in connection with the law of his God.”

<sup>6</sup> So these supervisors and satraps came by collusion to the king and said to him, “O King Darius, live forever!

<sup>7</sup> To all the supervisors of the kingdom, the prefects, satraps, counselors, and governors it seemed like a good idea for a royal edict to be issued and an interdict to be enforced. For the next thirty days anyone who prays to any god or human other than you, O king, should be thrown into a den of lions.

<sup>8</sup> Now let the king issue a written interdict so that it cannot be altered, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be changed.

<sup>10</sup> When Daniel realized that a written decree had been issued, he entered his home, where the windows in his upper room opened toward Jerusalem. Three times daily he was kneeling and offering prayers and thanks to his God just as he had been accustomed to do previously.

<sup>11</sup> Then those officials who had gone to the king came by collusion and found Daniel praying and asking for help before his God.

<sup>12</sup> So they approached the king and said to him, “Did you not issue an edict to the effect that for the next thirty days anyone who prays to any god or human other than to you, O king, would be thrown into a den of lions?” The king replied, “That is correct, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be changed.”

<sup>13</sup> Then they said to the king, “Daniel, who is one of the captives from Judah, pays no attention to you, O king, or to the edict that you issued. Three times daily he offers his prayer.”

<sup>14</sup> When the king heard this, he was very upset and began thinking about how he might rescue Daniel. Until late afternoon he was struggling to find a way to rescue him.

<sup>15</sup> Then those men came by collusion to the king and said to him, “Recall, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians that no edict or decree that the king issues can be changed.”

<sup>16</sup> So the king gave the order, and Daniel was brought and thrown into a den of lions. The king consoled Daniel by saying, “Your God whom you continually serve will rescue you!”

<sup>17</sup> Then a stone was brought and placed over the opening to the den. The king sealed it with his signet ring and with those of his nobles so that nothing could be changed with regard to Daniel.

<sup>18</sup> Then the king departed to his palace. But he spent the night without eating, and no diversions were brought to him. He was unable to sleep.

God Rescues Daniel from the Lions

<sup>20</sup> As he approached the den, he called out to Daniel in a worried voice, “Daniel, servant of the living God, was your God whom you continually serve able to rescue you from the lions?”

<sup>22</sup> My God sent his angel and closed the lions’ mouths so that they have not harmed me, because I was found to be innocent before him. Nor have I done any harm to you, O king.”

<sup>23</sup> Then the king was delighted and gave an order to haul Daniel up from the den. So Daniel was hauled up out of the den. He had no injury of any kind, because he had trusted in his God.

<sup>24</sup> The king gave another order, and those men who had maliciously accused Daniel were brought and thrown into the lions’ den – they, their children, and their wives. They did not even reach the bottom of the den before the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.

<sup>25</sup> Then King Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and language groups who were living in all the land: “Peace and prosperity!

<sup>26</sup> I have issued an edict that throughout all the dominion of my kingdom people are to revere and fear the God of Daniel.

“For he is the living God;

he endures forever.

His kingdom will not be destroyed;

his authority is forever.

<sup>27</sup> He rescues and delivers and performs signs and wonders in the heavens and on the earth.

He has rescued Daniel from the power of the lions!”

7

<sup>2</sup> Daniel explained: “I was watching in my vision during the night as the four winds of the sky were stirring up the great sea.

<sup>3</sup> Then four large beasts came up from the sea; they were different from one another.

<sup>4</sup> “The first one was like a lion with eagles’ wings. As I watched, its wings were pulled off and it was lifted up from the ground. It was made to stand on two feet like a human being, and a human mind was given to it.

<sup>5</sup> “Then a second beast appeared, like a bear. It was raised up on one side, and there were three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told, ‘Get up and devour much flesh!’

<sup>6</sup> “After these things, as I was watching, another beast like a leopard appeared, with four bird-like wings on its back. This beast had four heads, and ruling authority was given to it.

<sup>7</sup> “After these things, as I was watching in the night visions a fourth beast appeared – one dreadful, terrible, and very strong. It had two large rows of iron teeth. It devoured and crushed, and anything that was left it trampled with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that came before it, and it had ten horns.

<sup>8</sup> “As I was contemplating the horns, another horn – a small one – came up between them, and three of the former horns were torn out by the roots to make room for it. This horn had eyes resembling human eyes and a mouth speaking arrogant things.

<sup>9</sup> “While I was watching, thrones were set up, and the Ancient of Days took his seat.
His attire was white like snow;
the hair of his head was like lamb’s wool.
His throne was ablaze with fire and its wheels were all aflame.
<sup>10</sup> A river of fire was streaming forth and proceeding from his presence.
Many thousands were ministering to him;
Many tens of thousands stood ready to serve him.
The court convened and the books were opened.

<sup>11</sup> “Then I kept on watching because of the arrogant words of the horn that was speaking. I was watching until the beast was killed and its body destroyed and thrown into the flaming fire.

<sup>12</sup> As for the rest of the beasts, their ruling authority had already been removed, though they were permitted to go on living for a time and a season.

<sup>13</sup> I was watching in the night visions,
“And with the clouds of the sky one like a son of man was approaching.
He went up to the Ancient of Days and was escorted before him.

<sup>14</sup> To him was given ruling authority, honor, and sovereignty.
All peoples, nations, and language groups were serving him.
His authority is eternal and will not pass away.
His kingdom will not be destroyed.

An Angel Interprets Daniel’s Vision

<sup>15</sup> “As for me, Daniel, my spirit was distressed, and the visions of my mind were alarming me.

<sup>16</sup> I approached one of those standing nearby and asked him about the meaning of all this. So he spoke with me and revealed to me the interpretation of the vision:

<sup>17</sup> ‘These large beasts, which are four in number, represent four kings who will arise from the earth.

<sup>18</sup> The holy ones of the Most High will receive the kingdom and will take possession of the kingdom forever and ever.’

<sup>19</sup> “Then I wanted to know the meaning of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others. It was very dreadful, with two rows of iron teeth and bronze claws, and it devoured, crushed, and trampled anything that was left with its feet.

<sup>20</sup> I also wanted to know the meaning of the ten horns on its head, and of that other horn which came up and before which three others fell. This was the horn that had eyes and a mouth speaking arrogant things, whose appearance was more formidable than the others.

<sup>21</sup> While I was watching, that horn began to wage war against the holy ones and was defeating them, <sup>22</sup> until the Ancient of Days arrived and judgment was rendered in favor of the holy ones of the Most High. Then the time came for the holy ones to take possession of the kingdom.

‘The fourth beast means that there will be a fourth kingdom on earth that will differ from all the other kingdoms.

It will devour all the earth and will trample and crush it.

<sup>24</sup> The ten horns mean that ten kings will arise from that kingdom.

Another king will arise after them, but he will be different from the earlier ones.
He will humiliate three kings.

<sup>25</sup> He will speak words against the Most High.
He will harass the holy ones of the Most High continually.
His intention will be to change times established by law.
They will be delivered into his hand
For a time, times, and half a time.

<sup>26</sup> But the court will convene, and his ruling authority will be removed – destroyed and abolished forever!

<sup>27</sup> Then the kingdom, authority, and greatness of the kingdoms under all of heaven will be delivered to the people of the holy ones of the Most High.
His kingdom is an eternal kingdom;
all authorities will serve him and obey him.’

<sup>28</sup> “This is the conclusion of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts troubled me greatly, and the color drained from my face. But I kept the matter to myself.”

8

<sup>1</sup> In the third year of King Belshazzar’s reign, a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after the one that had appeared to me previously.

<sup>2</sup> In this vision I saw myself in Susa the citadel, which is located in the province of Elam. In the vision I saw myself at the Ulai Canal.

<sup>3</sup> I looked up and saw a ram with two horns standing at the canal. Its two horns were both long, but one was longer than the other. The longer one was coming up after the shorter one.

<sup>4</sup> I saw that the ram was butting westward, northward, and southward. No animal was able to stand before it, and there was none who could deliver from its power. It did as it pleased and acted arrogantly.

<sup>5</sup> While I was contemplating all this, a male goat was coming from the west over the surface of all the land without touching the ground. This goat had a conspicuous horn between its eyes.

<sup>6</sup> It came to the two-horned ram that I had seen standing beside the canal and rushed against it with raging strength.

<sup>7</sup> I saw it approaching the ram. It went into a fit of rage against the ram and struck it and broke off its two horns. The ram had no ability to resist it. The goat hurled the ram to the ground and trampled it. No one could deliver the ram from its power.

<sup>8</sup> The male goat acted even more arrogantly. But no sooner had the large horn become strong than it was broken, and there arose four conspicuous horns in its place, extending toward the four winds of the sky.

<sup>9</sup> From one of them came a small horn. But it grew to be very big, toward the south and the east and toward the beautiful land.

<sup>10</sup> It grew so big it reached the army of heaven, and it brought about the fall of some of the army and some of the stars to the ground, where it trampled them.

<sup>11</sup> It also acted arrogantly against the Prince of the army, from whom the daily sacrifice was removed and whose sanctuary was thrown down.

<sup>12</sup> The army was given over, along with the daily sacrifice, in the course of his sinful rebellion. It hurled truth to the ground and enjoyed success.

<sup>13</sup> Then I heard a holy one speaking. Another holy one said to the one who was speaking, "To what period of time does the vision pertain – this vision concerning the daily sacrifice and the destructive act of rebellion and the giving over of both the sanctuary and army to be trampled?"

<sup>14</sup> He said to me, "To 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be put right again."

An Angel Interprets Daniel's Vision

<sup>15</sup> While I, Daniel, was watching the vision, I sought to understand it. Now one who appeared to be a man was standing before me.

<sup>16</sup> Then I heard a human voice coming from between the banks of the Ulai. It called out, "Gabriel, enable this person to understand the vision."

<sup>17</sup> So he approached the place where I was standing. As he came, I felt terrified and fell flat on the ground. Then he said to me, "Understand, son of man, that the vision pertains to the time of the end."

<sup>18</sup> As he spoke with me, I fell into a trance with my face to the ground. But he touched me and stood me upright.

<sup>19</sup> Then he said, "I am going to inform you about what will happen in the latter time of wrath, for the vision pertains to the appointed time of the end."

<sup>20</sup> The ram that you saw with the two horns stands for the kings of Media and Persia.

<sup>21</sup> The male goat is the king of Greece, and the large horn between its eyes is the first king.

<sup>22</sup> The horn that was broken and in whose place there arose four others stands for four kingdoms that will arise from his nation, though they will not have his strength.

<sup>23</sup> Toward the end of their rule, when rebellious acts are complete, a rash and deceitful king will arise.

<sup>24</sup> His power will be great, but it will not be by his strength alone. He will cause terrible destruction. He will be successful in what he undertakes. He will destroy powerful people and the people of the holy ones.

<sup>25</sup> By his treachery he will succeed through deceit. He will have an arrogant attitude, and he will destroy many who are unaware of his schemes. He will rise up against the Prince of princes, yet he will be broken apart – but not by human agency.

<sup>26</sup> The vision of the evenings and mornings that was told to you is correct. But you should seal up the vision, for it refers to a time many days from now.”

<sup>27</sup> I, Daniel, was exhausted and sick for days. Then I got up and again carried out the king’s business. But I was astonished at the vision, and there was no one to explain it.

9

<sup>1</sup> In the first year of Darius son of Ahasuerus, who was of Median descent and who had been appointed king over the Babylonian empire –

<sup>2</sup> in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, came to understand from the sacred books that, according to the word of the LORD | strong="H3068" disclosed to the prophet Jeremiah, the years for the fulfilling of the desolation of Jerusalem were seventy in number.

<sup>3</sup> So I turned my attention to the Lord God to implore him by prayer and requests, with fasting, sackcloth, and ashes.

<sup>4</sup> I prayed to the LORD | strong="H3068" my God, confessing in this way:

“O Lord, great and awesome God who is faithful to his covenant with those who love him and keep his commandments, <sup>5</sup> we have sinned! We have done what is wrong and wicked; we have rebelled by turning away from your commandments and standards.

<sup>6</sup> We have not paid attention to your servants the prophets, who spoke by your authority to our kings, our leaders, and our ancestors, and to all the inhabitants of the land as well.

<sup>7</sup> “You are righteous, O Lord, but we are humiliated this day – the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem and all Israel, both near and far away in all the countries in which you have scattered them, because they have behaved unfaithfully toward you.

<sup>8</sup> O LORD | strong="H3068", we have been humiliated – our kings, our leaders, and our ancestors – because we have sinned against you.

<sup>9</sup> Yet the Lord our God is compassionate and forgiving, even though we have rebelled against him.

<sup>10</sup> We have not obeyed the LORD | strong="H3069" our God by living according to his laws that he set before us through his servants the prophets.

<sup>11</sup> “All Israel has broken your law and turned away by not obeying you. Therefore you have poured out on us the judgment solemnly threatened in the law of Moses the servant of God, for we have sinned against you.

<sup>12</sup> He has carried out his threats against us and our rulers who were over us by bringing great calamity on us – what has happened to Jerusalem has never been equaled under all heaven!

<sup>13</sup> Just as it is written in the law of Moses, so all this calamity has come on us. Still we have not tried to pacify the LORD | strong="H3068" our God by turning back from our sin and by seeking wisdom from your reliable moral standards.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD | strong="H3068" was mindful of the calamity, and he brought it on us. For the LORD | strong="H3068" our God is just in all he has done, and we have not obeyed him.

<sup>15</sup> “Now, O Lord our God, who brought your people out of the land of Egypt with great power and made a name for yourself that is remembered to this day – we have sinned and behaved wickedly.

<sup>16</sup> O Lord, according to all your justice, please turn your raging anger away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain. For due to our sins and the iniquities of our ancestors, Jerusalem and your people are mocked by all our neighbors.

<sup>17</sup> “So now, our God, accept the prayer and requests of your servant, and show favor to your devastated sanctuary for your own sake.

<sup>18</sup> Listen attentively, my God, and hear! Open your eyes and look on our desolated ruins and the city called by your name. For it is not because of our own righteous deeds that we are praying to you, but because your compassion is abundant.

<sup>19</sup> O Lord, hear! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, pay attention, and act! Don't delay, for your own sake, O my God! For your city and your people are called by your name."

Gabriel Gives to Daniel a Prophecy of Seventy Weeks

<sup>20</sup> While I was still speaking and praying, confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel and presenting my request before the LORD | strong="H3068" my God concerning his holy mountain –

<sup>21</sup> yes, while I was still praying, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen previously in a vision, was approaching me in my state of extreme weariness, around the time of the evening offering.

<sup>22</sup> He spoke with me, instructing me as follows: "Daniel, I have now come to impart understanding to you.

<sup>23</sup> At the beginning of your requests a message went out, and I have come to convey it to you, for you are of great value in God's sight. Therefore consider the message and understand the vision:

<sup>24</sup> "Seventy weeks have been determined concerning your people and your holy city to put an end to rebellion, to bring sin to completion, to atone for iniquity, to bring in perpetual righteousness, to seal up the prophetic vision, and to anoint a most holy place.

<sup>25</sup> So know and understand: From the issuing of the command to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until an anointed one, a prince arrives, there will be a period of seven weeks and sixty-two weeks. It will again be built, with plaza and moat, but in distressful times.

<sup>26</sup> Now after the sixty-two weeks, an anointed one will be cut off and have nothing. As for the city and the sanctuary, the people of the coming prince will destroy them. But his end will come speedily like a flood. Until the end of the war that has been decreed there will be destruction.

<sup>27</sup> He will confirm a covenant with many for one week. But in the middle of that week he will bring sacrifices and offerings to a halt. On the wing of abominations will come one who destroys, until the decreed end is poured out on the one who destroys."

10

<sup>1</sup> In the third year of King Cyrus of Persia a message was revealed to Daniel (who was also called Belteshazzar). This message was true and concerned a great war. He understood the message and gained insight by the vision.

<sup>2</sup> In those days I, Daniel, was mourning for three whole weeks.

<sup>3</sup> I ate no choice food; no meat or wine came to my lips, nor did I anoint myself with oil until the end of those three weeks.

<sup>4</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of the first month I was beside the great river, the Tigris.

<sup>5</sup> I looked up and saw a man clothed in linen; around his waist was a belt made of gold from Upaz.

<sup>6</sup> His body resembled yellow jasper, and his face had an appearance like lightning. His eyes were like blazing torches; his arms and feet had the gleam of polished bronze. His voice thundered forth like the sound of a large crowd.

<sup>7</sup> Only I, Daniel, saw the vision; the men who were with me did not see it. On the contrary, they were overcome with fright and ran away to hide.

<sup>8</sup> I alone was left to see this great vision. My strength drained from me, and my vigor disappeared; I was without energy.

<sup>9</sup> I listened to his voice, and as I did so I fell into a trance-like sleep with my face to the ground.

<sup>10</sup> Then a hand touched me and set me on my hands and knees.

<sup>11</sup> He said to me, "Daniel, you are of great value. Understand the words that I am about to speak to you. So stand up, for I have now been sent to you." When he said this to me, I stood up shaking.

<sup>12</sup> Then he said to me, "Don't be afraid, Daniel, for from the very first day you applied your mind to understand and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard. I have come in response to your words.

<sup>14</sup> Now I have come to help you understand what will happen to your people in the latter days, for the vision pertains to future days."

<sup>15</sup> While he was saying this to me, I was flat on the ground and unable to speak.

<sup>16</sup> Then one who appeared to be a human being was touching my lips. I opened my mouth and started to speak, saying to the one who was standing before me, "Sir, due to the vision, anxiety has gripped me and I have no strength.

<sup>17</sup> How, sir, am I able to speak with you? My strength is gone, and I am breathless."

<sup>18</sup> Then the one who appeared to be a human being touched me again and strengthened me.

<sup>19</sup> He said to me, "Don't be afraid, you who are valued. Peace be to you! Be strong! Be really strong!" When he spoke to me, I was strengthened. I said, "Sir, you may speak now, for you have given me strength."

<sup>20</sup> He said, "Do you know why I have come to you? Now I am about to return to engage in battle with the prince of Persia. When I go, the prince of Greece is coming.

<sup>21</sup> However, I will first tell you what is written in a dependable book. (There is no one who strengthens me against these princes, except Michael your prince.

11

<sup>1</sup> And in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood to strengthen him and to provide protection for him.)

<sup>2</sup> Now I will tell you the truth.

The Angel Gives a Message to Daniel

"Three more kings will arise for Persia. Then a fourth king will be unusually rich, more so than all who preceded him. When he has amassed power through his riches, he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece.

<sup>3</sup> Then a powerful king will arise, exercising great authority and doing as he pleases.

<sup>4</sup> Shortly after his rise to power, his kingdom will be broken up and distributed toward the four winds of the sky – but not to his posterity or with the authority he exercised, for his kingdom will be uprooted and distributed to others besides these.

<sup>5</sup> “Then the king of the south and one of his subordinates will grow strong. His subordinate will resist him and will rule a kingdom greater than his.

<sup>6</sup> After some years have passed, they will form an alliance. Then the daughter of the king of the south will come to the king of the north to make an agreement, but she will not retain her power, nor will he continue in his strength. She, together with the one who brought her, her child, and her benefactor will all be delivered over at that time.

<sup>7</sup> “There will arise in his place one from her family line who will come against their army and will enter the stronghold of the king of the north and will move against them successfully.

<sup>8</sup> He will also take their gods into captivity to Egypt, along with their cast images and prized utensils of silver and gold. Then he will withdraw for some years from the king of the north.

<sup>9</sup> Then the king of the north will advance against the empire of the king of the south, but will withdraw to his own land.

<sup>11</sup> “Then the king of the south will be enraged and will march out to fight against the king of the north, who will also muster a large army, but that army will be delivered into his hand.

<sup>12</sup> When the army is taken away, the king of the south will become arrogant. He will be responsible for the death of thousands and thousands of people, but he will not continue to prevail.

<sup>14</sup> “In those times many will oppose the king of the south. Those who are violent among your own people will rise up in confirmation of the vision, but they will falter.

<sup>15</sup> Then the king of the north will advance and will build siege mounds and capture a well-fortified city. The forces of the south will not prevail, not even his finest contingents. They will have no strength to prevail.

<sup>16</sup> The one advancing against him will do as he pleases, and no one will be able to stand before him. He will prevail in the beautiful land, and its annihilation will be within his power.

<sup>17</sup> His intention will be to come with the strength of his entire kingdom, and he will form alliances. He will give the king of the south a daughter in marriage in order to destroy the kingdom, but it will not turn out to his advantage.

<sup>18</sup> Then he will turn his attention to the coastal regions and will capture many of them. But a commander will bring his shameful conduct to a halt; in addition, he will make him pay for his shameful conduct.

<sup>19</sup> He will then turn his attention to the fortresses of his own land, but he will stumble and fall, not to be found again.

<sup>20</sup> There will arise after him one who will send out an exactor of tribute to enhance the splendor of the kingdom, but after a few days he will be destroyed, though not in anger or battle.

<sup>21</sup> “Then there will arise in his place a despicable person to whom the royal honor has not been rightfully conferred. He will come on the scene in a time of prosperity and will seize the kingdom through deceit.

<sup>22</sup> Armies will be suddenly swept away in defeat before him; both they and a covenant leader will be destroyed.

<sup>23</sup> After entering into an alliance with him, he will behave treacherously; he will ascend to power with only a small force.

<sup>24</sup> In a time of prosperity for the most productive areas of the province he will come and accomplish what neither his fathers nor their fathers accomplished. He will distribute loot, spoils, and property to his followers, and he will devise plans against fortified cities, but not for long.

<sup>25</sup> He will rouse his strength and enthusiasm against the king of the south with a large army. The king of the south will wage war with a large and very powerful army, but he will not be able to prevail because of the plans devised against him.

<sup>26</sup> Those who share the king's fine food will attempt to destroy him, and his army will be swept away; many will be killed in battle.

<sup>27</sup> These two kings, their minds filled with evil intentions, will trade lies with one another at the same table. But it will not succeed, for there is still an end at the appointed time.

<sup>28</sup> Then the king of the north will return to his own land with much property. His mind will be set against the holy covenant. He will take action, and then return to his own land.

<sup>29</sup> At an appointed time he will again invade the south, but this latter visit will not turn out the way the former one did.

<sup>30</sup> The ships of Kittim will come against him, leaving him disheartened. He will turn back and direct his indignation against the holy covenant. He will return and honor those who forsake the holy covenant.

<sup>31</sup> His forces will rise up and profane the fortified sanctuary, stopping the daily sacrifice. In its place they will set up the abomination that causes desolation.

<sup>32</sup> Then with smooth words he will defile those who have rejected the covenant. But the people who are loyal to their God will act valiantly.

<sup>33</sup> These who are wise among the people will teach the masses. However, they will fall by the sword and by the flame, and they will be imprisoned and plundered for some time.

<sup>34</sup> When they stumble, they will be granted some help. But many will unite with them deceitfully.

<sup>35</sup> Even some of the wise will stumble, resulting in their refinement, purification, and cleansing until the time of the end, for it is still for the appointed time.

<sup>36</sup> "Then the king will do as he pleases. He will exalt and magnify himself above every deity and he will utter presumptuous things against the God of gods. He will succeed until the time of wrath is completed, for what has been decreed must occur.

<sup>37</sup> He will not respect the gods of his fathers – not even the god loved by women. He will not respect any god; he will elevate himself above them all.

<sup>38</sup> What he will honor is a god of fortresses – a god his fathers did not acknowledge he will honor with gold, silver, valuable stones, and treasured commodities.

<sup>39</sup> He will attack mighty fortresses, aided by a foreign deity. To those who recognize him he will grant considerable honor. He will place them in authority over many people, and he will parcel out land for a price.

<sup>40</sup> "At the time of the end the king of the south will attack him. Then the king of the north will storm against him with chariots, horsemen, and a large armada of ships. He will invade lands, passing through them like an overflowing river.

<sup>41</sup> Then he will enter the beautiful land. Many will fall, but these will escape: Edom, Moab, and the Ammonite leadership.

<sup>42</sup> He will extend his power against other lands; the land of Egypt will not escape.

<sup>43</sup> He will have control over the hidden stores of gold and silver, as well as all the treasures of Egypt. Libyans and Ethiopians will submit to him.

<sup>44</sup> But reports will trouble him from the east and north, and he will set out in a tremendous rage to destroy and wipe out many.

<sup>45</sup> He will pitch his royal tents between the seas toward the beautiful holy mountain. But he will come to his end, with no one to help him.

12

the great prince who watches over your people,
will arise.
There will be a time of distress unlike any other from the nation’s beginning up to that time.
But at that time your own people, all those whose names are found written in the book, will escape.

<sup>2</sup> Many of those who sleep in the dusty ground will awake –
some to everlasting life,
and others to shame and everlasting abhorrence.

<sup>3</sup> But the wise will shine like the brightness of the heavenly expanse.
And those bringing many to righteousness will be like the stars forever and ever.

<sup>4</sup> “But you, Daniel, close up these words and seal the book until the time of the end.
Many will dash about, and knowledge will increase.”

<sup>5</sup> I, Daniel, watched as two others stood there, one on each side of the river.

<sup>6</sup> One said to the man clothed in linen who was above the waters of the river, “When will the end of these wondrous events occur?”

<sup>7</sup> Then I heard the man clothed in linen who was over the waters of the river as he raised both his right and left hands to the sky and made an oath by the one who lives forever: “It is for a time, times, and half a time. Then, when the power of the one who shatters the holy people has been exhausted, all these things will be finished.”

<sup>8</sup> I heard, but I did not understand. So I said, “Sir, what will happen after these things?”

<sup>9</sup> He said, “Go, Daniel. For these matters are closed and sealed until the time of the end.

<sup>10</sup> Many will be purified, made clean, and refined, but the wicked will go on being wicked. None of the wicked will understand, though the wise will understand.

<sup>11</sup> From the time that the daily sacrifice is removed and the abomination that causes desolation is set in place, there are 1,290 days.

<sup>13</sup> But you should go your way until the end. You will rest and then at the end of the days you will arise to receive what you have been allotted.”

Hosea

Superscription

<sup>1</sup> This is the word of the LORD which was revealed to Hosea son of Beeri during the time when Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah ruled Judah, and during the time when Jeroboam son of Joash ruled Israel.

Symbols of Sin and Judgment: The Prostitute and Her Children

<sup>2</sup> When the LORD first spoke through Hosea, he said to him, "Go marry a prostitute who will bear illegitimate children conceived through prostitution, because the nation continually commits spiritual prostitution by turning away from the LORD."

<sup>3</sup> So Hosea married Gomer, the daughter of Diblaim. Then she conceived and gave birth to a son for him.

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD said to Hosea, "Name him 'Jezreel,' because in a little while I will punish the dynasty of Jehu on account of the bloodshed in the valley of Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> At that time, I will destroy the military power of Israel in the valley of Jezreel."

<sup>6</sup> She conceived again and gave birth to a daughter. Then the LORD said | strong="H0559" to him, "Name her 'No Pity' (Lo-Ruhamah) because I will no longer have pity on the nation of Israel. For I will certainly not forgive their guilt.

<sup>7</sup> But I will have pity on the nation of Judah. I will deliver them by the LORD their God; I will not deliver them by the warrior's bow, by sword, by military victory, by chariot horses, or by chariots."

<sup>8</sup> When she had weaned 'No Pity' (Lo-Ruhamah) she conceived again and gave birth to another son.

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD said | strong="H0559": "Name him 'Not My People' (Lo-Ammi), because you are not my people and I am not your God."

The Restoration of Israel

<sup>10</sup> However, in the future the number of the people of Israel will be like the sand of the sea which can be neither measured nor numbered. Although it was said to them, "You are not my people," it will be said to them, "You are children of the living God!"

<sup>11</sup> Then the people of Judah and the people of Israel will be gathered together. They will appoint for themselves one leader, and will flourish in the land. Certainly, the day of Jezreel will be great!

2

<sup>1</sup> Then you will call your brother, "My People" (Ammi)! You will call your sister, "Pity" (Ruhamah)!

Idolatrous Israel Will Be Punished Like a Prostitute

<sup>2</sup> Plead earnestly with your mother (for she is not my wife, and I am not her husband), so that she might put an end to her adulterous lifestyle, and turn away from her sexually immoral behavior.

<sup>3</sup> Otherwise, I will strip her naked, and expose her like she was when she was born.
I will turn her land into a wilderness and make her country a parched land, so that I might kill her with thirst.

<sup>4</sup> I will have no pity on her children, because they are children conceived in adultery.

<sup>5</sup> For their mother has committed adultery;
she who conceived them has acted shamefully.
For she said, "I will seek out my lovers;
they are the ones who give me my bread and my water,
my wool, my flax, my olive oil, and my wine.

The Lord's Discipline Will Bring Israel Back

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, I will soon fence her in with thorns;
I will wall her in so that she cannot find her way.
<sup>7</sup> Then she will pursue her lovers, but she will not catch them;
she will seek them, but she will not find them.
Then she will say,
"I will go back to my husband, because I was better off then than I am now."

Agricultural Fertility Withdrawn from Israel

<sup>8</sup> Yet until now she has refused to acknowledge that I was the one who gave her the grain, the new wine, and the olive oil; and that it was I who lavished on her the silver and gold – which they used in worshiping Baal!

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, I will take back my grain during the harvest time and my new wine when it ripens;
I will take away my wool and my flax which I had provided in order to clothe her.

<sup>10</sup> Soon I will expose her lewd nakedness in front of her lovers, and no one will be able to rescue her from me!

<sup>11</sup> I will put an end to all her celebration:

her annual religious festivals, monthly new moon celebrations, and weekly Sabbath festivities –
all her appointed festivals.

<sup>12</sup> I will destroy her vines and fig trees, about which she said, "These are my wages for prostitution that my lovers gave to me!"

I will turn her cultivated vines and fig trees into an uncultivated thicket, so that wild animals will devour them.

<sup>13</sup> "I will punish her for the festival days when she burned incense to the Baal idols;
she adorned herself with earrings and jewelry,
and went after her lovers,
but she forgot me!" says the LORD.

Future Repentance and Restoration of Israel

<sup>14</sup> However, in the future I will allure her;
I will lead her back into the wilderness, and speak tenderly to her.

<sup>15</sup> From there I will give back her vineyards to her, and turn the "Valley of Trouble" into an "Opportunity for Hope."
There she will sing as she did when she was young, when she came up from the land of Egypt.

<sup>16</sup> "At that time," declares the LORD,
"you will call, 'My husband';

you will never again call me, 'My master.'

<sup>17</sup> For I will remove the names of the Baal idols from your lips, so that you will never again utter their names!"

New Covenant Relationship with Repentant Israel

<sup>18</sup> "At that time I will make a covenant for them with the wild animals, the birds of the air, and the creatures that crawl on the ground.

I will abolish the warrior's bow and sword – that is, every weapon of warfare – from the land, and I will allow them to live securely."

<sup>19</sup> I will commit myself to you forever;
I will commit myself to you in righteousness and justice, in steadfast love and tender compassion.

<sup>20</sup> I will commit myself to you in faithfulness;
then you will acknowledge the LORD."

Agricultural Fertility Restored to the Repentant Nation

<sup>21</sup> "At that time, I will willingly respond," declares the LORD.

"I will respond to the sky, and the sky will respond to the ground;

<sup>22</sup> then the ground will respond to the grain, the new wine, and the olive oil;
and they will respond to 'God Plants' (Jezreel)!

<sup>23</sup> Then I will plant her as my own in the land.

I will have pity on 'No Pity' (Lo-Ruhamah).

I will say to 'Not My People' (Lo-Ammi), 'You are my people!'

And he will say, 'You are my God!' "

3

<sup>1</sup> The LORD said to me, "Go, show love to your wife again, even though she loves another man and continually commits adultery. Likewise, the LORD loves the Israelites although they turn to other gods and love to offer raisin cakes to idols."

<sup>2</sup> So I paid fifteen shekels of silver and about seven bushels of barley to purchase her.

<sup>3</sup> Then I told her, "You must live with me many days; you must not commit adultery or have sexual intercourse with another man, and I also will wait for you."

<sup>4</sup> For the Israelites must live many days without a king or prince, without sacrifice or sacred fertility pillar, without ephod or idols.

<sup>5</sup> Afterward, the Israelites will turn and seek the LORD their God and their Davidic king. Then they will submit to the LORD | strong="H3069" in fear and receive his blessings in the future.

<sup>1</sup> Hear the word of the LORD, you Israelites!

For the LORD has a covenant lawsuit against the people of Israel.
For there is neither faithfulness nor loyalty in the land, nor do they acknowledge God.

<sup>2</sup> There is only cursing, lying, murder, stealing, and adultery.
They resort to violence and bloodshed.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore the land will mourn, and all its inhabitants will perish.

The wild animals, the birds of the sky, and even the fish in the sea will perish.

The Lord's Dispute against the Sinful Priesthood

<sup>4</sup> Do not let anyone accuse or contend against anyone else:
for my case is against you priests!

<sup>5</sup> You stumble day and night, and the false prophets stumble with you;
You have destroyed your own people!

<sup>6</sup> You have destroyed my people by failing to acknowledge me!
Because you refuse to acknowledge me,
I will reject you as my priests.
Because you reject the law of your God,
I will reject your descendants.

<sup>7</sup> The more the priests increased in numbers, the more they rebelled against me.
They have turned their glorious calling into a shameful disgrace!

<sup>8</sup> They feed on the sin offerings of my people; their appetites long for their iniquity!

<sup>9</sup> I will deal with the people and priests together:
I will punish them both for their ways,
and I will repay them for their deeds.

<sup>10</sup> They will eat, but not be satisfied;
they will engage in prostitution, but not increase in numbers;
because they have abandoned the LORD
by pursuing other gods.

Judgment of Pagan Idolatry and Cultic Prostitution

<sup>11</sup> Old and new wine take away the understanding of my people.

<sup>12</sup> They consult their wooden idols, and their diviner's staff answers with an oracle.
The wind of prostitution blows them astray;
they commit spiritual adultery against their God.

<sup>13</sup> They sacrifice on the mountaintops, and burn offerings on the hills;
they sacrifice under oak, poplar, and terebinth, because their shade is so pleasant.
As a result, your daughters have become cult prostitutes, and your daughters-in-law commit adultery!

<sup>14</sup> I will not punish your daughters when they commit prostitution, nor your daughters-in-law when they commit adultery.
For the men consort with harlots,
they sacrifice with temple prostitutes.
It is true: "A people that lacks understanding will come to ruin!"

Warning to Judah: Do Not Join in Israel's Apostasy!

<sup>15</sup> Although you, O Israel, commit adultery, do not let Judah become guilty!
Do not journey to Gilgal!
Do not go up to Beth Aven!
Do not swear, "As surely as the LORD | strong="H3069" lives!"

<sup>16</sup> Israel has rebelled like a stubborn heifer!
Soon the LORD will put them out to pasture like a lamb in a broad field!

<sup>17</sup> Ephraim has attached himself to idols;
Do not go near him!

The Shameful Sinners Will Be Brought to Shame

<sup>18</sup> They consume their alcohol, then engage in cult prostitution;
they dearly love their shameful behavior.
<sup>19</sup> A whirlwind has wrapped them in its wings;
they will be brought to shame because of their idolatrous worship.

<sup>1</sup> Hear this, you priests!
Pay attention, you Israelites!
Listen closely, O king!
For judgment is about to overtake you!
For you were like a trap to Mizpah, like a net spread out to catch Tabor.
<sup>2</sup> Those who revolt are knee-deep in slaughter, but I will discipline them all.
<sup>3</sup> I know Ephraim all too well;
the evil of Israel is not hidden from me.
For you have engaged in prostitution, O Ephraim;
Israel has defiled itself.
<sup>4</sup> Their wicked deeds do not allow them to return to their God;
because a spirit of idolatry controls their heart, and they do not acknowledge the LORD.
<sup>5</sup> The arrogance of Israel testifies against it;
Israel and Ephraim will be overthrown because of their iniquity.
Even Judah will be brought down with them.

The Futility of Sacrificial Ritual without Moral Obedience

<sup>6</sup> Although they bring their flocks and herds to seek the favor of the LORD,
They will not find him –
he has withdrawn himself from them!
<sup>7</sup> They have committed treason against the LORD, because they bore illegitimate children.
Soon the new moon festival will devour them and their fields.

The Prophet's Declaration of Judgment

<sup>8</sup> Blow the ram's horn in Gibeah!
Sound the trumpet in Ramah!
Sound the alarm in Beth Aven!
Tremble in fear, O Benjamin!
<sup>9</sup> Ephraim will be ruined in the day of judgment!
What I am declaring to the tribes of Israel will certainly take place!

The Oppressors of the Helpless Will Be Oppressed

<sup>10</sup> The princes of Judah are like those who move boundary markers.
I will pour out my rage on them like a torrential flood!
<sup>11</sup> Ephraim will be oppressed, crushed under judgment, because he was determined to pursue worthless idols.

The Curse of the Incurable Wound

<sup>12</sup> I will be like a moth to Ephraim, like wood rot to the house of Judah.

<sup>13</sup> When Ephraim saw his sickness and Judah saw his wound, then Ephraim turned to Assyria, and begged its great king for help.
But he will not be able to heal you!
He cannot cure your wound!

The Lion Will Carry Israel Off Into Exile

<sup>14</sup> I will be like a lion to Ephraim, like a young lion to the house of Judah.
I myself will tear them to pieces, then I will carry them off, and no one will be able to rescue them!

<sup>15</sup> Then I will return again to my lair until they have suffered their punishment.
Then they will seek me;
in their distress they will earnestly seek me.

<sup>1</sup> “Come on! Let’s return to the LORD!
He himself has torn us to pieces,
but he will heal us!
He has injured us,

but he will bandage our wounds!

<sup>2</sup> He will restore us in a very short time;
he will heal us in a little while,
so that we may live in his presence.

<sup>3</sup> So let us acknowledge him!
Let us seek to acknowledge the LORD!
He will come to our rescue as certainly as the appearance of the dawn, as certainly as the winter rain comes,
as certainly as the spring rain that waters the land.”

Transitory Faithfulness and Imminent Judgment

<sup>4</sup> What am I going to do with you, O Ephraim?
What am I going to do with you, O Judah?
For your faithfulness is as fleeting as the morning mist;
it disappears as quickly as dawn’s dew!

<sup>5</sup> Therefore, I will certainly cut you into pieces at the hands of the prophets;
I will certainly kill you in fulfillment of my oracles of judgment; for my judgment will come forth like the light of the dawn.

<sup>6</sup> For I delight in faithfulness, not simply in sacrifice;
I delight in acknowledging God, not simply in whole burnt offerings.

Indictments Against the Cities of Israel and Judah

<sup>7</sup> At Adam they broke the covenant;
Oh how they were unfaithful to me!

<sup>8</sup> Gilead is a city full of evildoers; its streets are stained with bloody footprints!

<sup>9</sup> The company of priests is like a gang of robbers, lying in ambush to pounce on a victim.

They commit murder on the road to Shechem;
they have done heinous crimes!

<sup>10</sup> I have seen a disgusting thing in the temple of Israel:
there Ephraim practices temple prostitution and Judah defiles itself.

<sup>11</sup> I have appointed a time to reap judgment for you also, O Judah!

If Israel Would Repent of Sin, God Would Relent of Judgment

Whenever I want to restore the fortunes of my people,

<sup>1</sup> whenever I want to heal Israel, the sin of Ephraim is revealed, and the evil deeds of Samaria are exposed.
For they do what is wrong;
thieves break into houses, and gangs rob people out in the streets.

<sup>2</sup> They do not realize that I remember all of their wicked deeds.
Their evil deeds have now surrounded them;
their sinful deeds are always before me.

Political Intrigue and Conspiracy in the Palace

<sup>3</sup> The royal advisers delight the king with their evil schemes, the princes make him glad with their lies.

<sup>4</sup> They are all like bakers, they are like a smoldering oven;
they are like a baker who does not stoke the fire until the kneaded dough is ready for baking.

<sup>5</sup> At the celebration of their king, his princes become inflamed with wine;
they conspire with evildoers.

<sup>6</sup> They approach him, all the while plotting against him.
Their hearts are like an oven;
their anger smolders all night long,
but in the morning it bursts into a flaming fire.

<sup>7</sup> All of them are blazing like an oven;
they devour their rulers.
All of their kings fall – and none of them call on me!

Israel Lacks Discernment and Refuses to Repent

<sup>8</sup> Ephraim has mixed itself like flour among the nations;
Ephraim is like a ruined cake of bread that is scorched on one side.

<sup>9</sup> Foreigners are consuming what his strenuous labor produced, but he does not recognize it!
His head is filled with gray hair,
but he does not realize it!

<sup>10</sup> The arrogance of Israel testifies against him, yet they refuse to return to the LORD their God!
In spite of all this they refuse to seek him!

Israel Turns to Assyria and Egypt for Help

<sup>11</sup> Ephraim has been like a dove, easily deceived and lacking discernment.
They called to Egypt for help;
they turned to Assyria for protection.

<sup>12</sup> I will throw my bird net over them while they are flying,
I will bring them down like birds in the sky;
I will discipline them when I hear them flocking together.

Israel Has Turned Away from the Lord

<sup>13</sup> Woe to them! For they have fled from me!
Destruction to them! For they have rebelled against me!
I want to deliver them,
but they have lied to me.

<sup>14</sup> They do not pray to me, but howl in distress on their beds;
They slash themselves for grain and new wine,
but turn away from me.

<sup>15</sup> Although I trained and strengthened them, they plot evil against me!

they are like an unreliable bow.
Their leaders will fall by the sword because their prayers to Baal have made me angry.
So people will disdain them in the land of Egypt.

8

<sup>1</sup> Sound the alarm!
An eagle looms over the temple of the LORD!
For they have broken their covenant with me,
and have rebelled against my law.

<sup>2</sup> Israel cries out to me,
“My God, we acknowledge you!”

<sup>3</sup> But Israel has rejected what is morally good;
so an enemy will pursue him.

The Political and Cultic Sin of Israel

<sup>4</sup> They enthroned kings without my consent!
They appointed princes without my approval!
They made idols out of their silver and gold,
but they will be destroyed!

<sup>5</sup> O Samaria, he has rejected your calf idol!
My anger burns against them!
They will not survive much longer without being punished, even though they are Israelites!

<sup>6</sup> That idol was made by a workman – it is not God!
The calf idol of Samaria will be broken to bits.

The Fertility Cultists Will Become Infertile

<sup>7</sup> They sow the wind, and so they will reap the whirlwind!
The stalk does not have any standing grain;
it will not produce any flour.
Even if it were to yield grain, foreigners would swallow it all up.

<sup>8</sup> Israel will be swallowed up among the nations;
they will be like a worthless piece of pottery.

The Willful Donkey and the Wanton Harlot

<sup>9</sup> They have gone up to Assyria, like a wild donkey that wanders off.
Ephraim has hired prostitutes as lovers.

<sup>10</sup> Even though they have hired lovers among the nations,
I will soon gather them together for judgment.
Then they will begin to waste away under the oppression of a mighty king.

Sacrifices Ineffective without Moral Obedience

<sup>11</sup> Although Ephraim has built many altars for sin offerings, these have become altars for sinning!

<sup>12</sup> I spelled out my law for him in great detail, but they regard it as something totally unknown to them!

<sup>13</sup> They offer up sacrificial gifts to me, and eat the meat,
but the LORD | strong="H3069" does not accept their sacrifices.
Soon he will remember their wrongdoing,
he will punish their sins,
and they will return to Egypt.

<sup>14</sup> Israel has forgotten his Maker and built royal palaces, and Judah has built many fortified cities.
But I will send fire on their cities;
it will consume their royal citadels.

9

<sup>1</sup> O Israel, do not rejoice jubilantly like the nations, for you are unfaithful to your God.
You love to receive a prostitute's wages on all the floors where you thresh your grain.

<sup>2</sup> Threshing floors and wine vats will not feed the people, and new wine only deceives them.

Assyrian Exile Will Reverse the Egyptian Exodus

<sup>3</sup> They will not remain in the LORD's | strong="H3069" land.
Ephraim will return to Egypt;
they will eat ritually unclean food in Assyria.

<sup>4</sup> They will not pour out drink offerings of wine to the LORD;
they will not please him with their sacrifices.
Their sacrifices will be like bread eaten while in mourning;
all those who eat them will make themselves ritually unclean.
For their bread will be only to satisfy their appetite;
it will not come into the temple of the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> So what will you do on the festival day, on the festival days of the LORD?

No Escape for the Israelites This Time!

<sup>6</sup> Look! Even if they flee from the destruction, Egypt will take hold of them, and Memphis will bury them.

The weeds will inherit the silver they treasure – thorn bushes will occupy their homes.
<sup>7</sup> The time of judgment is about to arrive!
The time of retribution is imminent!
Let Israel know!

Israel Rejects Hosea's Prophetic Exhortations

The prophet is considered a fool – the inspired man is viewed as a madman – because of the multitude of your sins and your intense animosity.
<sup>8</sup> The prophet is a watchman over Ephraim on behalf of God, yet traps are laid for him along all of his paths;
animosity rages against him in the land of his God.

The Best of Times, the Worst of Times

<sup>9</sup> They have sunk deep into corruption as in the days of Gibeah.
He will remember their wrongdoing.
He will repay them for their sins.
<sup>10</sup> When I found Israel, it was like finding grapes in the wilderness.
I viewed your ancestors like an early fig on a fig tree in its first season.
Then they came to Baal-Peor and they dedicated themselves to shame – they became as detestable as what they loved.

The Fertility Worshipers Will Become Infertile

<sup>11</sup> Ephraim will be like a bird;
what they value will fly away.
They will not bear children – they will not enjoy pregnancy – they will not even conceive!
<sup>12</sup> Even if they raise their children,
I will take away every last one of them.
Woe to them!
For I will turn away from them.
<sup>13</sup> Just as lion cubs are born predators, so Ephraim will bear his sons for slaughter.
<sup>14</sup> Give them, O LORD – what will you give them?
Give them wombs that miscarry, and breasts that cannot nurse!
<sup>15</sup> Because of all their evil in Gilgal,
I hate them there.
On account of their evil deeds,
I will drive them out of my land.
I will no longer love them;
all their rulers are rebels.
<sup>16</sup> Ephraim will be struck down – their root will be dried up;
they will not yield any fruit.
Even if they do bear children,
I will kill their precious offspring.

<sup>17</sup> My God will reject them, for they have not obeyed him;
so they will be fugitives among the nations.

10

<sup>1</sup> Israel was a fertile vine that yielded fruit.
As his fruit multiplied,
he multiplied altars to Baal.
As his land prospered,
they adorned the fertility pillars.

<sup>2</sup> Their heart is slipping;
soon they will be punished for their guilt.
The LORD will break | strong="H6202" their altars;
he will completely destroy their fertility pillars.

The Lord Will Punish Israel by Removing Its Kings

<sup>3</sup> Very soon they will say, "We have no king since we did not fear the LORD.
But what can a king do for us anyway?"

<sup>4</sup> They utter empty words, taking false oaths and making empty agreements.
Therefore legal disputes sprout up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of a plowed field.

The Calf Idol and Idolaters of Samaria Will Be Exiled

<sup>5</sup> The inhabitants of Samaria will lament over the calf idol of Beth Aven.
Its people will mourn over it;
its idolatrous priests will wail over it, because its splendor will be taken from them into exile.

<sup>6</sup> Even the calf idol will be carried to Assyria, as tribute for the great king.
Ephraim will be disgraced;
Israel will be put to shame because of its wooden idol.

<sup>7</sup> Samaria and its king will be carried off like a twig on the surface of the waters.

<sup>8</sup> The high places of the "House of Wickedness" will be destroyed;
it is the place where Israel sins.
Thorns and thistles will grow up over its altars.
Then they will say to the mountains, "Cover us!"
and to the hills, "Fall on us!"

Failure to Learn from the Sin and Judgment of Gibeah

<sup>9</sup> O Israel, you have sinned since the time of Gibeah, and there you have remained.

Did not war overtake the evildoers in Gibeah?

<sup>10</sup> When I please, I will discipline them;
I will gather nations together to attack them,
to bind them in chains for their two sins.

Fertility Imagery: Plowing, Sowing, and Reaping

<sup>11</sup> Ephraim was a well-trained heifer who loved to thresh grain;
I myself put a fine yoke on her neck.
I will harness Ephraim.

Let Judah plow!
Let Jacob break up the unplowed ground for himself!

<sup>12</sup> Sow righteousness for yourselves, reap unfailing love.
Break up the unplowed ground for yourselves,
for it is time to seek the LORD | strong="H3069", until he comes and showers deliverance on you.

<sup>13</sup> But you have plowed wickedness;
you have reaped injustice;
you have eaten the fruit of deception.
Because you have depended on your chariots;
you have relied on your many warriors.

Bethel Will Be Destroyed Like Beth Arbel

<sup>14</sup> The roar of battle will rise against your people;
all your fortresses will be devastated, just as Shalman devastated Beth Arbel on the day of battle, when mothers were dashed to the ground with their children.

<sup>15</sup> So will it happen to you, O Bethel, because of your great wickedness!
When that day dawns,
the king of Israel will be destroyed.

11

<sup>1</sup> When Israel was a young man, I loved him like a son, and I summoned my son out of Egypt.

<sup>2</sup> But the more I summoned them, the farther they departed from me.
They sacrificed to the Baal idols and burned incense to images.

<sup>3</sup> Yet it was I who led Ephraim,
I took them by the arm;
but they did not acknowledge that I had healed them.

<sup>4</sup> I led them with leather cords, with leather ropes;
I lifted the yoke from their neck,
and gently fed them.

<sup>5</sup> They will return to Egypt!
Assyria will rule over them because they refuse to repent!

<sup>6</sup> A sword will flash in their cities, it will destroy the bars of their city gates, and will devour them in their fortresses.

<sup>7</sup> My people are obsessed with turning away from me;
they call to Baal, but he will never exalt them!

The Divine Dilemma: Judgment or Mercy?

<sup>8</sup> How can I give you up, O Ephraim?
How can I surrender you, O Israel?
How can I treat you like Admah?
How can I make you like Zeboiim?

I have had a change of heart!
 All my tender compassions are aroused!
<sup>9</sup> I cannot carry out my fierce anger!
 I cannot totally destroy Ephraim!
 Because I am God, and not man – the Holy One among you –
 I will not come in wrath!

God Will Restore the Exiles to Israel

<sup>10</sup> He will roar like a lion, and they will follow the LORD;
 when he roars,
 his children will come trembling from the west.
<sup>11</sup> They will return in fear and trembling like birds from Egypt,
 like doves from Assyria, and I will settle them in their homes,” declares the LORD.

God's Lawsuit against Israel: Breach of Covenant

<sup>12</sup> Ephraim has surrounded me with lies;
 the house of Israel has surrounded me with deceit.
 But Judah still roams about with God;
 he remains faithful to the Holy One.

12

<sup>1</sup> Ephraim continually feeds on the wind;
 he chases the east wind all day;
 he multiplies lies and violence.
 They make treaties with Assyria, and send olive oil as tribute to Egypt.
<sup>2</sup> The LORD | strong="H3069" also has a covenant lawsuit against Judah;
 he will punish Jacob according to his ways and repay him according to his deeds.

Israel Must Return to the God of Jacob

<sup>3</sup> In the womb he attacked his brother;
 in his manly vigor he struggled with God.
<sup>4</sup> He struggled with an angel and prevailed;
 he wept and begged for his favor.
 He found God at Bethel, and there he spoke with him!
<sup>5</sup> As for the LORD God Almighty, the LORD is the name by which he is remembered!
<sup>6</sup> But you must return to your God, by maintaining love and justice, and by waiting for your God to return to you.

The Lord Refutes Israel's False Claim of Innocence

<sup>7</sup> The businessmen love to cheat; they use dishonest scales.
<sup>8</sup> Ephraim boasts, “I am very rich!
 I have become wealthy!
 In all that I have done to gain my wealth, no one can accuse me of any offense that is actually sinful.”
<sup>9</sup> “I am the LORD your God who brought you out of Egypt;

I will make you live in tents again as in the days of old.

<sup>10</sup> I spoke to the prophets;
I myself revealed many visions;
I spoke in parables through the prophets.”

<sup>11</sup> Is there idolatry in Gilead?
Certainly its inhabitants will come to nothing!
Do they sacrifice bulls in Gilgal?
Surely their altars will be like stones heaped up on a plowed field!

Jacob in Aram, Israel in Egypt, and Ephraim in Trouble

<sup>12</sup> Jacob fled to the country of Aram, then Israel worked to acquire a wife;
he tended sheep to pay for her.

<sup>13</sup> The LORD brought Israel out of Egypt by a prophet, and due to a prophet Israel was preserved alive.

<sup>14</sup> But Ephraim bitterly provoked him to anger;
so he will hold him accountable for the blood he has shed, his Lord will repay him for the contempt he has shown.

13

he was exalted in Israel,
but he became guilty by worshiping Baal and died.

<sup>2</sup> Even now they persist in sin!
They make metal images for themselves, idols that they skillfully fashion from their own silver;
all of them are nothing but the work of craftsmen!
There is a saying about them:

“Those who sacrifice to the calf idol are calf kissers!”

<sup>3</sup> Therefore they will disappear like the morning mist, like early morning dew that evaporates, like chaff that is blown away from a threshing floor, like smoke that disappears through an open window.

Well-Fed Israel Will Be Fed to Wild Animals

<sup>4</sup> But I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt.
Therefore, you must not acknowledge any God but me;
except me there is no Savior.

<sup>5</sup> I cared for you in the wilderness, in the dry desert where no water was.

<sup>6</sup> When they were fed, they became satisfied;
when they were satisfied, they became proud;
as a result, they forgot me!

<sup>7</sup> So I will pounce on them like a lion;
like a leopard I will lurk by the path.

<sup>8</sup> I will attack them like a bear robbed of her cubs –
I will rip open their chests.
I will devour them there like a lion – like a wild animal would tear them apart.

Israel's King Unable to Deliver the Nation

<sup>9</sup> I will destroy you, O Israel!

Who is there to help you?

<sup>10</sup> Where then is your king, that he may save you in all your cities?
Where are your rulers for whom you asked, saying,
“Give me a king and princes”?

<sup>11</sup> I granted you a king in my anger, and I will take him away in my wrath!

Israel's Punishment Will Not Be Withheld Much Longer

<sup>12</sup> The punishment of Ephraim has been decreed; his punishment is being stored up for the future.

<sup>13</sup> The labor pains of a woman will overtake him, but the baby will lack wisdom;
when the time arrives,
he will not come out of the womb!

The Lord Will Not Relent from the Threatened Judgment

<sup>14</sup> Will I deliver them from the power of Sheol? No, I will not!
Will I redeem them from death? No, I will not!
O Death, bring on your plagues!
O Sheol, bring on your destruction!
My eyes will not show any compassion!

The Capital of the Northern Empire Will Be Destroyed

<sup>15</sup> Even though he flourishes like a reed plant, a scorching east wind will come,
a wind from the LORD rising up from the desert.
As a result, his spring will dry up;
his well will become dry.
That wind will spoil all his delightful foods in the containers in his storehouse.

<sup>16</sup> Samaria will be held guilty, because she rebelled against her God.
They will fall by the sword, their infants will be dashed to the ground – their pregnant women will be ripped open.

<sup>1</sup> Return, O Israel, to the LORD your God, for your sin has been your downfall!
<sup>2</sup> Return to the LORD and repent!
Say to him: “Completely forgive our iniquity; accept our penitential prayer;
that we may offer the praise of our lips as sacrificial bulls.
<sup>3</sup> Assyria cannot save us;
we will not ride warhorses.
We will never again say, ‘Our gods’ to what our own hands have made.
For only you will show compassion to Orphan Israel!”

Divine Promise to Relent from Judgment and to Restore Blessings

<sup>4</sup> “I will heal their waywardness and love them freely, for my anger will turn away from them.

<sup>5</sup> I will be like the dew to Israel;
he will blossom like a lily,
he will send down his roots like a cedar of Lebanon.

<sup>6</sup> His young shoots will grow;
his splendor will be like an olive tree,
his fragrance like a cedar of Lebanon.

<sup>7</sup> People will reside again in his shade;
they will plant and harvest grain in abundance.
They will blossom like a vine, and his fame will be like the wine from Lebanon.

<sup>8</sup> O Ephraim, I do not want to have anything to do with idols anymore!
I will answer him and care for him.
I am like a luxuriant cypress tree;
your fruitfulness comes from me!

Concluding Exhortation

<sup>9</sup> Who is wise?
Let him discern these things!
Who is discerning?
Let him understand them!
For the ways of the LORD | strong="H3069" are right;
the godly walk in them,
but in them the rebellious stumble.

Joel

Introduction

<sup>1</sup> This is the LORD's message that was given to Joel the son of Pethuel:

A Locust Plague Foreshadows the Day of the Lord

<sup>2</sup> Listen to this, you elders; pay attention, all inhabitants of the land.
Has anything like this ever happened in your whole life or in the lifetime of your ancestors?

<sup>3</sup> Tell your children about it, have your children tell their children, and their children the following generation.

<sup>4</sup> What the gazam-locust left the 'arbeh-locust | strong="H1501" consumed,
what the 'arbeh-locust left the yeleq-locust consumed, and what the yeleq-locust left the hasil-locust consumed!

Wail, all you wine drinkers, because the sweet wine has been taken away from you.

<sup>6</sup> For a nation has invaded our land.
There are so many of them they are too numerous to count.
Their teeth are like those of a lion;
they tear apart their prey like a lioness.

<sup>7</sup> They have destroyed our vines;
they have turned our fig trees into mere splinters.
They have completely stripped off the bark and thrown them aside;
the twigs are stripped bare.

A Call to Lament

<sup>8</sup> Wail like a young virgin clothed in sackcloth, lamenting the death of her husband-to-be.

<sup>9</sup> No one brings grain offerings or drink offerings to the temple of the LORD anymore.
So the priests, those who serve the LORD, are in mourning.

<sup>10</sup> The crops of the fields have been destroyed.
The ground is in mourning because the grain has perished.
The fresh wine has dried up;
the olive oil languishes.

<sup>11</sup> Be distressed, farmers;
wail, vinedressers, over the wheat and the barley.
For the harvest of the field has perished.

<sup>12</sup> The vine has dried up;
the fig tree languishes –
the pomegranate, date, and apple as well.
In fact, all the trees of the field have dried up.
Indeed, the joy of the people has dried up!

<sup>13</sup> Get dressed and lament, you priests!
Wail, you who minister at the altar!
Come, spend the night in sackcloth, you servants of my God, because no one brings grain offerings or drink offerings to the temple of your God anymore.

<sup>14</sup> Announce a holy fast;

proclaim a sacred assembly.

Gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land to the temple of the LORD your God, and cry out to the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> How awful that day will be!

For the day of the LORD is near;

it will come as destruction from the Divine Destroyer.

<sup>16</sup> Our food has been cut off right before our eyes!

There is no longer any joy or gladness in the temple of our God!

<sup>17</sup> The grains of seed have shriveled beneath their shovels.

Storehouses have been decimated and granaries have been torn down, for the grain has dried up.

The herds of livestock wander around in confusion because they have no pasture.

Even the flocks of sheep are suffering.

<sup>19</sup> To you, O LORD, I call out for help, for fire has burned up the grassy pastures, flames have razed all the trees in the fields.

<sup>20</sup> Even the wild animals cry out to you;

for the river beds have dried up;

fire has destroyed the grassy pastures.

sound the alarm signal on my holy mountain!

Let all the inhabitants of the land shake with fear, for the day of the LORD is about to come.

Indeed, it is near!

<sup>2</sup> It will be a day of dreadful darkness, a day of foreboding storm clouds, like blackness spread over the mountains.

It is a huge and powerful army –

there has never been anything like it ever before, and there will not be anything like it for many generations to come!

<sup>3</sup> Like fire they devour everything in their path;

a flame blazes behind them.

The land looks like the Garden of Eden before them, but behind them there is only a desolate wilderness – for nothing escapes them!

<sup>4</sup> They look like horses;

they charge ahead like war horses.

<sup>5</sup> They sound like chariots rumbling over mountain tops, like the crackling of blazing fire consuming stubble, like the noise of a mighty army being drawn up for battle.

<sup>6</sup> People writhe in fear when they see them.

All of their faces turn pale with fright.

<sup>7</sup> They charge like warriors;

they scale walls like soldiers.
Each one proceeds on his course;
they do not alter their path.
<sup>8</sup> They do not jostle one another;
each of them marches straight ahead.
They burst through the city defenses and do not break ranks.
<sup>9</sup> They rush into the city;
they scale its walls.
They climb up into the houses;
they go in through the windows like a thief.
<sup>10</sup> The earth quakes before them;
the sky reverberates.
The sun and the moon grow dark;
the stars refuse to shine.
<sup>11</sup> The voice of the LORD | strong="H3069" thunders as he leads his army.
Indeed, his warriors are innumerable;
Surely his command is carried out!
Yes, the day of the LORD | strong="H3069" is awesome and very terrifying – who can survive it?

An Appeal for Repentance

<sup>12</sup> “Yet even now,” the LORD says, “return to me with all your heart – with fasting, weeping, and mourning.
Tear your hearts,
not just your garments!”
<sup>13</sup> Return to the LORD your God, for he is merciful and compassionate, slow to anger and boundless in loyal love – often relenting from calamitous punishment.
<sup>14</sup> Who knows?
Perhaps he will be compassionate and grant a reprieve, and leave blessing in his wake – a meal offering and a drink offering for you to offer to the LORD your God!
<sup>15</sup> Blow the trumpet in Zion.
Announce a holy fast;
proclaim a sacred assembly!
<sup>16</sup> Gather the people;
sanctify an assembly!
Gather the elders;
gather the children and the nursing infants.
Let the bridegroom come out from his bedroom and the bride from her private quarters.
<sup>17</sup> Let the priests, those who serve the LORD, weep from the vestibule all the way back to the altar.
Let them say, “Have pity, O LORD, on your people;
please do not turn over your inheritance to be mocked, to become a proverb among the nations.
Why should it be said among the peoples,
“Where is their God?”

The LORD's Response

<sup>18</sup> Then the LORD became zealous for his land;
he had compassion on his people.

<sup>19</sup> The LORD responded to his people, “Look! I am about to restore your grain as well as fresh wine and olive oil.
You will be fully satisfied.

I will never again make you an object of mockery among the nations.

<sup>20</sup> I will remove the one from the north far from you.

I will drive him out to a dry and desolate place.

Those in front will be driven eastward into the Dead Sea, and those in back westward into the Mediterranean Sea.
His stench will rise up as a foul smell.”

Indeed, the LORD has accomplished | strong="H6213" great things.

<sup>21</sup> Do not fear, my land!

Rejoice and be glad,
because the LORD has accomplished great things!

<sup>22</sup> Do not fear, wild animals!

For the pastures of the wilderness are again green with grass.

Indeed, the trees bear their fruit;
the fig tree and the vine yield to their fullest.

Be glad because of what the LORD your God has done!

For he has given to you the early rains as vindication.

He has sent to you the rains – both the early and the late rains as formerly.

<sup>24</sup> The threshing floors are full of grain;
the vats overflow with fresh wine and olive oil.

<sup>25</sup> I will make up for the years that the ‘arbeh-locust consumed your crops – the yeleq-locust, the hasil-locust, and the gazam-locust – my great army that I sent against you.

<sup>26</sup> You will have plenty to eat, and your hunger will be fully satisfied;
you will praise the name of the LORD your God, who has acted wondrously in your behalf.
My people will never again be put to shame.

<sup>27</sup> You will be convinced that I am in the midst of Israel.
I am the LORD your God; there is no other.
My people will never again be put to shame.

An Outpouring of the Spirit

<sup>28</sup> After all of this
I will pour out my Spirit on all kinds of people.
Your sons and daughters will prophesy.
Your elderly will have revelatory dreams;
your young men will see prophetic visions.

<sup>29</sup> Even on male and female servants
I will pour out my Spirit in those days.

<sup>30</sup> I will produce portents both in the sky and on the earth – blood, fire, and columns of smoke.

<sup>31</sup> The sunlight will be turned to darkness and the moon to the color of blood, before the day of the LORD comes – that great and terrible day!

<sup>32</sup> It will so happen that everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be delivered.
For on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be those who survive, just as the LORD has promised;
the remnant will be those whom the LORD will call.

3

<sup>1</sup> For look! In those days and at that time
I will return the exiles to Judah and Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> Then I will gather all the nations, and bring them down to the valley of Jehoshaphat.
I will enter into judgment against them there concerning my people Israel who are my inheritance, whom they scattered among the nations.

They partitioned my land,

<sup>3</sup> and they cast lots for my people.

They traded a boy for a prostitute;
they sold a little girl for wine so they could drink.

<sup>4</sup> Why are you doing these things to me, Tyre and Sidon?

Are you trying to get even with me, land of Philistia?

I will very quickly repay you for what you have done!

<sup>5</sup> For you took my silver and my gold and brought my precious valuables to your own palaces.

<sup>6</sup> You sold Judeans and Jerusalemites to the Greeks, removing them far from their own country.

<sup>7</sup> Look! I am rousing them from that place to which you sold them.

I will repay you for what you have done!

<sup>8</sup> I will sell your sons and daughters to the people of Judah.

They will sell them to the Sabeans, a nation far away.

Indeed, the LORD has spoken!

Judgment in the Valley of Jehoshaphat

<sup>9</sup> Proclaim this among the nations:

“Prepare for a holy war!

Call out the warriors!

Let all these fighting men approach and attack!

<sup>10</sup> Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning hooks into spears!

Let the weak say, ‘I too am a warrior!’

<sup>11</sup> Lend your aid and come,

all you surrounding nations, and gather yourselves to that place.”

Bring down, O LORD, your warriors!

<sup>12</sup> Let the nations be roused and let them go up to the valley of Jehoshaphat, for there I will sit in judgment on all the surrounding nations.

<sup>13</sup> Rush forth with the sickle, for the harvest is ripe!

Come, stomp the grapes, for the winepress is full!

The vats overflow.

Indeed, their evil is great!

<sup>14</sup> Crowds, great crowds are in the valley of decision, for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision!

<sup>15</sup> The sun and moon are darkened;
the stars withhold their brightness.

<sup>16</sup> The LORD roars from Zion;
from Jerusalem his voice bellows out.
The heavens and the earth shake.
But the LORD is a refuge for his people;
he is a stronghold for the citizens of Israel.

The LORD's Presence in Zion

<sup>17</sup> You will be convinced that I the LORD am your God, dwelling on Zion, my holy mountain.

Jerusalem will be holy – conquering armies will no longer pass through it.

<sup>18</sup> On that day the mountains will drip with sweet wine, and the hills will flow with milk.

All the dry stream beds of Judah will flow with water.
A spring will flow out from the temple of the LORD, watering the Valley of Acacia Trees.

<sup>19</sup> Egypt will be desolate and Edom will be a desolate wilderness, because of the violence they did to the people of Judah, in whose land they shed innocent blood.

<sup>20</sup> But Judah will reside securely forever, and Jerusalem will be secure from one generation to the next.

<sup>21</sup> I will avenge their blood which I had not previously acquitted.
It is the LORD who dwells in Zion!

Amos

Introduction

<sup>1</sup> The following is a record of what Amos prophesied. He was one of the herdsmen from Tekoa. These prophecies about Israel were revealed to him during the time of King Uzziah of Judah and King Jeroboam son of Joash of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

God Will Judge the Surrounding Nations

<sup>2</sup> Amos said:

“The LORD comes roaring out of Zion;
from Jerusalem he comes bellowing!
The shepherds’ pastures wilt;
the summit of Carmel withers.”

<sup>3</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“Because Damascus has committed three crimes – make that four! – I will not revoke my decree of judgment.

They ripped through Gilead like threshing sledges with iron teeth.

<sup>4</sup> So I will set Hazael’s house on fire; fire will consume Ben Hadad’s fortresses.

<sup>5</sup> I will break the bar on the gate of Damascus.

I will remove the ruler from Wicked Valley, the one who holds the royal scepter from Beth Eden.

The people of Aram will be deported to Kir.”

The LORD has spoken!

<sup>6</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“Because Gaza has committed three crimes – make that four! – I will not revoke my decree of judgment.

They deported a whole community and sold them to Edom.

<sup>7</sup> So I will set Gaza’s city wall on fire;

fire will consume her fortresses.

<sup>8</sup> I will remove the ruler from Ashdod, the one who holds the royal scepter from Ashkelon.

I will strike Ekron with my hand;

the rest of the Philistines will also die.”

The sovereign LORD has spoken!

<sup>9</sup> This is what the LORD says:

“Because Tyre has committed three crimes –
make that four! – I will not revoke my decree of judgment.

They sold a whole community to Edom;

they failed to observe a treaty of brotherhood.

<sup>10</sup> So I will set fire to Tyre’s city wall;

fire will consume her fortresses.”

<sup>11</sup> This is what the LORD |strong=“H3069” says:

“Because Edom has committed three crimes –
make that four! – I will not revoke my decree of judgment.

He chased his brother with a sword;

he wiped out his allies.

In his anger he tore them apart without stopping to rest;

in his fury he relentlessly attacked them.

<sup>12</sup> So I will set Teman on fire;
fire will consume Bozrah's fortresses."

<sup>13</sup> This is what the LORD says:

"Because the Ammonites have committed three crimes –
make that four! – I will not revoke my decree of judgment.

They ripped open Gilead's pregnant women so they could expand their territory.

<sup>14</sup> So I will set fire to Rabbah's city wall;
fire will consume her fortresses.

War cries will be heard on the day of battle;
a strong gale will blow on the day of the windstorm.

<sup>15</sup> Ammon's king will be deported;
he and his officials will be carried off together."
The LORD has spoken!

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD says:

"Because Moab has committed three crimes –
make that four! – I will not revoke my decree of judgment.
They burned the bones of Edom's king into lime.

<sup>2</sup> So I will set Moab on fire, and it will consume Kerioth's fortresses.
Moab will perish in the heat of battle amid war cries and the blaring of the ram's horn.

<sup>3</sup> I will remove Moab's leader;
I will kill all Moab's officials with him."
The LORD has spoken!

<sup>4</sup> This is what the LORD | strong="H3069" says:

"Because Judah has committed three covenant transgressions – make that four! – I will not revoke my decree of judgment.

They rejected the LORD's law;
they did not obey his commands.
Their false gods,
to which their fathers were loyal,
led them astray.

<sup>5</sup> So I will set Judah on fire, and it will consume Jerusalem's fortresses."

God Will Judge Israel

<sup>6</sup> This is what the LORD says:

"Because Israel has committed three covenant transgressions – make that four! – I will not revoke my decree of judgment.

They sold the innocent for silver, the needy for a pair of sandals.

<sup>7</sup> They trample on the dirt-covered heads of the poor;
they push the destitute away.

A man and his father go to the same girl;
in this way they show disrespect for my moral purity.

<sup>8</sup> They stretch out on clothing seized as collateral;
they do so right beside every altar!

They drink wine bought with the fines they have levied;
they do so right in the temple of their God!

<sup>9</sup> For Israel's sake I destroyed the Amorites.

They were as tall as cedars and as strong as oaks,

but I destroyed the fruit on their branches and their roots in the ground.

<sup>10</sup> I brought you up from the land of Egypt;

I led you through the wilderness for forty years

so you could take the Amorites' land as your own.

<sup>11</sup> I made some of your sons prophets and some of your young men Nazirites.

Is this not true, you Israelites?"

The LORD is speaking!

<sup>12</sup> "But you made the Nazirites drink wine;

you commanded the prophets, 'Do not prophesy!'

<sup>13</sup> Look! I will press you down, like a cart loaded down with grain presses down.

<sup>14</sup> Fast runners will find no place to hide; strong men will have no strength left;

warriors will not be able to save their lives.

<sup>15</sup> Archers will not hold their ground;

fast runners will not save their lives, nor will those who ride horses.

<sup>16</sup> Bravehearted warriors will run away naked in that day."

The LORD is speaking!

3

<sup>1</sup> Listen, you Israelites, to this message which the LORD is proclaiming against you! This message is for the entire clan I brought up from the land of Egypt:

<sup>2</sup> "I have chosen you alone from all the clans of the earth. Therefore I will punish you for all your sins."

<sup>3</sup> Do two walk together without having met?

<sup>4</sup> Does a lion roar in the woods if he has not cornered his prey?

Does a young lion bellow from his den if he has not caught something?

<sup>5</sup> Does a bird swoop down into a trap on the ground if there is no bait?

Does a trap spring up from the ground unless it has surely caught something?

<sup>6</sup> If an alarm sounds in a city, do people not fear?

If disaster overtakes a city, is the LORD not responsible?

<sup>8</sup> A lion has roared! Who is not afraid?

The sovereign LORD has spoken! Who can refuse to prophesy?

Samaria Will Fall

<sup>9</sup> Make this announcement in the fortresses of Ashdod and in the fortresses in the land of Egypt.

Say this:

"Gather on the hills around Samaria!

Observe the many acts of violence taking place within the city, the oppressive deeds occurring in it."

"They store up the spoils of destructive violence in their fortresses.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore," says the sovereign LORD, "an enemy will encircle the land.

He will take away your power;
your fortresses will be looted.”

“Just as a shepherd salvages from the lion’s mouth a couple of leg bones or a piece of an ear, so the Israelites who live in Samaria will be salvaged.

They will be left with just a corner of a bed, and a part of a couch.”

The sovereign LORD, the God who commands armies, is speaking!

<sup>14</sup> “Certainly when I punish Israel for their covenant transgressions,
I will destroy Bethel’s altars.

The horns of the altar will be cut off and fall to the ground.

<sup>15</sup> I will destroy both the winter and summer houses.

The houses filled with ivory will be ruined, the great houses will be swept away.”

The LORD is speaking!

4

<sup>1</sup> Listen to this message, you cows of Bashan who live on Mount Samaria!

You oppress the poor;

you crush the needy.

You say to your husbands,

“Bring us more to drink!”

<sup>2</sup> The sovereign LORD confirms this oath by his own holy character:

“Certainly the time is approaching when you will be carried away in baskets, every last one of you in fishermen’s pots.

<sup>3</sup> Each of you will go straight through the gaps in the walls;

you will be thrown out toward Harmon.”

The LORD is speaking!

Israel has an Appointment with God

<sup>4</sup> “Go to Bethel and rebel!

At Gilgal rebel some more!

Bring your sacrifices in the morning, your tithes on the third day!

<sup>5</sup> Burn a thank offering of bread made with yeast!

Make a public display of your voluntary offerings!

For you love to do this, you Israelites.”

The sovereign LORD is speaking!

<sup>6</sup> “But surely I gave you no food to eat in any of your cities;

you lacked food everywhere you live.

Still you did not come back to me.”

The LORD is speaking!

<sup>7</sup> “I withheld rain from you three months before the harvest.

I gave rain to one city, but not to another.

One field would get rain, but the field that received no rain dried up.

<sup>8</sup> People from two or three cities staggered into one city to get water, but remained thirsty.

Still you did not come back to me.”

The LORD is speaking!

<sup>9</sup> “I destroyed your crops with blight and disease.

Locusts kept devouring your orchards, vineyards, fig trees, and olive trees.
Still you did not come back to me.”

The LORD is speaking!

<sup>10</sup> “I sent against you a plague like one of the Egyptian plagues.

I killed your young men with the sword, along with the horses you had captured.

I made the stench from the corpses rise up into your nostrils.
Still you did not come back to me.”

The LORD is speaking!

<sup>11</sup> “I overthrew some of you the way God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.
You were like a burning stick snatched from the flames.

Still you did not come back to me.”

The LORD is speaking!

<sup>12</sup> “Therefore this is what I will do to you, Israel.

Because I will do this to you, prepare to meet your God, Israel!

<sup>13</sup> For here he is!

He formed the mountains and created the wind.
He reveals his plans to men.

He turns the dawn into darkness and marches on the heights of the earth.

The LORD, the God who commands armies, is his name!”

5

<sup>1</sup> Listen to this funeral song I am ready to sing about you, family of Israel:

<sup>2</sup> “The virgin Israel has fallen down and will not get up again.

She is abandoned on her own land with no one to help her get up.”

“The city that marches out with a thousand soldiers will have only a hundred left;
the town that marches out with a hundred soldiers will have only ten left for the family of Israel.”

<sup>4</sup> The LORD says this to the family of Israel:

“Seek me so you can live!

Do not visit Gilgal!

Do not journey down to Beer Sheba!

For the people of Gilgal will certainly be carried into exile;
and Bethel will become a place where disaster abounds.”

<sup>6</sup> Seek the LORD | strong="H3069" so you can live!

Otherwise he will break out like fire against Joseph's family;
the fire will consume and no one will be able to quench it and save Bethel.

<sup>7</sup> The Israelites turn justice into bitterness;
they throw what is fair and right to the ground.

<sup>8</sup> (But there is one who made the constellations Pleiades and Orion; he can turn the darkness into morning and daylight into night.

He summons the water of the seas and pours it out on the earth's surface.

The LORD is his name!

<sup>9</sup> He flashes destruction down upon the strong so that destruction overwhelms the fortified places.)

<sup>10</sup> The Israelites hate anyone who arbitrates at the city gate;
they despise anyone who speaks honestly.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, because you make the poor pay taxes on their crops and exact a grain tax from them, you will not live in the houses you built with chiseled stone, nor will you drink the wine from the fine vineyards you planted.

<sup>12</sup> Certainly I am aware of your many rebellious acts and your numerous sins.

You torment the innocent, you take bribes, and you deny justice to the needy at the city gate.

<sup>13</sup> For this reason whoever is smart keeps quiet in such a time, for it is an evil time.

<sup>14</sup> Seek good and not evil so you can live!
Then the LORD, the God who commands armies, just might be with you,
as you claim he is.

<sup>15</sup> Hate what is wrong, love what is right!
Promote justice at the city gate!

Maybe the LORD, the God who commands armies, will have mercy on those who are left from Joseph.

<sup>16</sup> Because of Israel's sins this is what the LORD, the God who commands armies, the sovereign One, says:

"In all the squares there will be wailing,
in all the streets they will mourn the dead.
They will tell the field workers to lament and the professional mourners to wail.

<sup>17</sup> In all the vineyards there will be wailing, for I will pass through your midst," says the LORD.

The Lord Demands Justice

<sup>18</sup> Woe to those who wish for the day of the LORD
Why do you want the LORD's day of judgment to come?
It will bring darkness, not light.

<sup>19</sup> Disaster will be inescapable, as if a man ran from a lion only to meet a bear,
then escaped into a house,
leaned his hand against the wall, and was bitten by a poisonous snake.

<sup>20</sup> Don't you realize the LORD's day of judgment will bring darkness, not light – gloomy blackness, not bright light?

<sup>21</sup> "I absolutely despise your festivals!
I get no pleasure from your religious assemblies!

<sup>22</sup> Even if you offer me burnt and grain offerings, I will not be satisfied;
I will not look with favor on your peace offerings of fattened calves.

<sup>23</sup> Take away from me your noisy songs;
I don't want to hear the music of your stringed instruments.

<sup>24</sup> Justice must flow like torrents of water, righteous actions like a stream that never dries up.

<sup>25</sup> You did not bring me sacrifices and grain offerings during the forty years you spent in the wilderness, family of Israel.

<sup>26</sup> You will pick up your images of Sikkuth, your king, and Kiyyun, your star god, which you made for yourselves, <sup>27</sup> and I will drive you into exile beyond Damascus," says the LORD.

He is called the God who commands armies!

6

<sup>1</sup> Woe to those who live in ease in Zion, to those who feel secure on Mount Samaria. They think of themselves as the elite class of the best nation. The family of Israel looks to them for leadership.

<sup>2</sup> They say to the people:

"Journey over to Calneh and look at it!
Then go from there to Hamath-Rabbah!
Then go down to Gath of the Philistines!
Are they superior to our two kingdoms?
Is their territory larger than yours?"

<sup>3</sup> You refuse to believe a day of disaster will come, but you establish a reign of violence.

<sup>4</sup> They lie around on beds decorated with ivory, and sprawl out on their couches.

They eat lambs from the flock, and calves from the middle of the pen.

Yet they are not concerned over the ruin of Joseph.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore they will now be the first to go into exile, and the religious banquets where they sprawl on couches will end.

The LORD, the God who commands armies, is speaking:

"I despise Jacob's arrogance;

I hate their fortresses.

I will hand over to their enemies the city of Samaria and everything in it."

<sup>10</sup> When their close relatives, the ones who will burn the corpses, pick up their bodies to remove the bones from the house, they will say to anyone who is in the inner rooms of the house, "Is anyone else with you?" He will respond, "Be quiet! Don't invoke the LORD's name!"

He will smash the large house to bits, and the small house into little pieces.

<sup>12</sup> Can horses run on rocky cliffs?

Can one plow the sea with oxen?

Yet you have turned justice into a poisonous plant, and the fruit of righteous actions into a bitter plant.

You say, "Did we not conquer Karnaïm by our own power?"

<sup>14</sup> "Look! I am about to bring a nation against you, family of Israel."

The LORD, the God who commands armies, is speaking.

“They will oppress you all the way from Lebo-Hamath to the Stream of the Arabah.”

7

<sup>1</sup> The sovereign LORD showed me this: I saw him making locusts just as the crops planted late were beginning to sprout. (The crops planted late sprout after the royal harvest. )

<sup>2</sup> When they had completely consumed the earth’s vegetation, I said, “Sovereign LORD, forgive Israel!

How can Jacob survive?

He is too weak!”

<sup>3</sup> The LORD decided not to do this. “It will not happen,” the LORD said.

<sup>4</sup> The sovereign LORD showed me this: I saw the sovereign LORD summoning a shower of fire. It consumed the great deep and devoured the fields.

<sup>5</sup> I said, “Sovereign LORD, stop!

How can Jacob survive?

He is too weak!”

<sup>7</sup> He showed me this: I saw the sovereign One standing by a tin wall holding tin in his hand.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD said to me, “What do you see, Amos?” I said, “Tin.” The sovereign One then said, “Look, I am about to place tin among my people Israel.

I will no longer overlook their sin.

<sup>9</sup> Isaac’s centers of worship will become desolate;

Israel’s holy places will be in ruins.

I will attack Jeroboam’s dynasty with the sword.”

Amos Confronts a Priest

<sup>10</sup> Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent this message to King Jeroboam of Israel: “Amos is conspiring against you in the very heart of the kingdom of Israel! The land cannot endure all his prophecies.

<sup>11</sup> As a matter of fact, Amos is saying this: ‘Jeroboam will die by the sword and Israel will certainly be carried into exile away from its land.’ ”

<sup>12</sup> Amaziah then said to Amos, “Leave, you visionary! Run away to the land of Judah! Earn your living and prophesy there!

<sup>15</sup> Then the LORD took me from tending flocks and gave me this commission, ‘Go! Prophesy to my people Israel!’

<sup>16</sup> So now listen to the LORD’s message! You say, ‘Don’t prophesy against Israel! Don’t preach against the family of Isaac!’

<sup>17</sup> “Therefore this is what the LORD says:

‘Your wife will become a prostitute in the streets and your sons and daughters will die violently.

Your land will be given to others and you will die in a foreign land.

Israel will certainly be carried into exile away from its land.’ ”

8

<sup>2</sup> He said, "What do you see, Amos?" I replied, "A basket of summer fruit." Then the LORD said to me, "The end has come for my people Israel! I will no longer overlook their sins.

<sup>3</sup> The women singing in the temple will wail in that day."

The sovereign LORD is speaking.

"There will be many corpses littered everywhere! Be quiet!"

<sup>4</sup> Listen to this, you who trample the needy, and do away with the destitute in the land.

"When will the new moon festival be over, so we can sell grain?

When will the Sabbath end, so we can open up the grain bins?

We're eager to sell less for a higher price, and to cheat the buyer with rigged scales!

<sup>6</sup> We're eager to trade silver for the poor,
a pair of sandals for the needy!

We want to mix in some chaff with the grain!"

<sup>7</sup> The LORD confirms this oath by the arrogance of Jacob:

"I swear I will never forget all you have done!

<sup>8</sup> Because of this the earth will quake, and all who live in it will mourn.

The whole earth will rise like the River Nile, it will surge upward and then grow calm, like the Nile in Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> In that day," says the sovereign LORD, "I will make the sun set at noon, and make the earth dark in the middle of the day.

<sup>10</sup> I will turn your festivals into funerals, and all your songs into funeral dirges.

I will make everyone wear funeral clothes and cause every head to be shaved bald.

I will make you mourn as if you had lost your only son;
when it ends it will indeed have been a bitter day.

<sup>11</sup> Be certain of this, the time is coming," says the sovereign LORD,
"when I will send a famine through the land – not a shortage of food or water but an end to divine revelation!

<sup>12</sup> People will stagger from sea to sea, and from the north around to the east.

They will wander about looking for a revelation from the LORD, but they will not find any.

<sup>13</sup> In that day your beautiful young women and your young men will faint from thirst.

<sup>14</sup> These are the ones who now take oaths in the name of the sinful idol goddess of Samaria.

They vow, 'As surely as your god lives, O Dan,' or 'As surely as your beloved one lives, O Beer Sheba!'

But they will fall down and not get up again."

9

<sup>1</sup> I saw the sovereign One standing by the altar and he said, "Strike the tops of the support pillars, so the thresholds shake!

Knock them down on the heads of all the people, and I will kill the survivors with the sword.

No one will be able to run away;
no one will be able to escape.

<sup>2</sup> Even if they could dig down into the netherworld, my hand would pull them up from there.

Even if they could climb up to heaven,
I would drag them down from there.

<sup>3</sup> Even if they were to hide on the top of Mount Carmel,
I would hunt them down and take them from there.
Even if they tried to hide from me at the bottom of the sea, from there I would command the Sea Serpent to bite them.

<sup>4</sup> Even when their enemies drive them into captivity, from there I will command the sword to kill them.
I will not let them out of my sight;
they will experience disaster, not prosperity.”

<sup>5</sup> The sovereign LORD who commands armies will do this.
He touches the earth and it dissolves;
all who live on it mourn.
The whole earth rises like the River Nile, and then grows calm like the Nile in Egypt.

<sup>6</sup> He builds the upper rooms of his palace in heaven and sets its foundation supports on the earth.
He summons the water of the sea
and pours it out on the earth’s surface.

The LORD is his name.

<sup>7</sup> “You Israelites are just like the Ethiopians in my sight,” says the LORD.
“Certainly I brought Israel up from the land of Egypt, but I also brought the Philistines from Caphtor and the Arameans from Kir.

<sup>8</sup> Look, the sovereign LORD is watching the sinful nation, and I will destroy it from the face of the earth.
But I will not completely destroy the family of Jacob,” says the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> “For look, I am giving a command and I will shake the family of Israel together with all the nations.
It will resemble a sieve being shaken, when not even a pebble falls to the ground.

<sup>10</sup> All the sinners among my people will die by the sword – the ones who say, ‘Disaster will not come near, it will not confront us.’

The Restoration of the Davidic Dynasty

<sup>11</sup> “In that day I will rebuild the collapsing hut of David.
I will seal its gaps,
repair its ruins,
and restore it to what it was like in days gone by.

<sup>12</sup> As a result they will conquer those left in Edom and all the nations subject to my rule.”
The LORD, who is about to do this, is speaking!

<sup>13</sup> “Be sure of this, the time is coming,” says the LORD, “when the plowman will catch up to the reaper and the one who stomps the grapes will overtake the planter.
Juice will run down the slopes,
it will flow down all the hillsides.

<sup>14</sup> I will bring back my people, Israel;
they will rebuild the cities lying in rubble and settle down.
They will plant vineyards and drink the wine they produce;
they will grow orchards and eat the fruit they produce.

<sup>15</sup> I will plant them on their land and they will never again be uprooted from the land I have given them,” says the LORD | strong="H3069" your God.

Obadiah

God's Judgment on Edom | Edom's Approaching Destruction

<sup>1</sup> The vision that Obadiah saw.

The Lord GOD says this concerning Edom:

God's Judgment on Edom | Edom's Approaching Destruction

We have heard a report from the LORD.

An envoy was sent among the nations, saying,

“Arise! Let us make war against Edom!”

<sup>2</sup> The LORD says, “Look | strong=“H2009”! I will make you a weak nation; you will be greatly despised!

<sup>3</sup> Your presumptuous heart has deceived you – you who reside in the safety of the rocky cliffs, whose home is high in the mountains.

You think to yourself,

‘No one can bring me down to the ground!’

<sup>4</sup> Even if you were to soar high like an eagle, even if you were to make your nest among the stars, I can bring you down even from there!” says the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> “If thieves came to rob you during the night, they would steal only as much as they wanted! If grape pickers came to harvest your vineyards, they would leave some behind for the poor! But you will be totally destroyed!

<sup>6</sup> How the people of Esau will be thoroughly plundered! Their hidden valuables will be ransacked!

<sup>7</sup> All your allies will force you from your homeland! Your treaty partners will deceive you and overpower you. Your trusted friends will set an ambush for you that will take you by surprise!

<sup>9</sup> Your warriors will be shattered, O Teman, so that everyone will be destroyed from Esau’s mountain!

Edom's Treachery Against Judah

<sup>10</sup> “Because you violently slaughtered your relatives, the people of Jacob, shame will cover you, and you will be destroyed forever.

<sup>11</sup> You stood aloof while strangers took his army captive, and foreigners advanced to his gates. When they cast lots over Jerusalem, you behaved as though you were in league with them.

<sup>12</sup> You should not have gloated when your relatives suffered calamity. You should not have rejoiced over the people of Judah when they were destroyed. You should not have boasted when they suffered adversity.

<sup>13</sup> You should not have entered the city of my people when they experienced distress. You should not have joined in gloating over their misfortune when they suffered distress.

You should not have looted their wealth when they endured distress.

<sup>14</sup> You should not have stood at the fork in the road to slaughter those trying to escape.
You should not have captured their refugees when they suffered adversity.

The Coming Day of the Lord

Just as you have done, so it will be done to you.

You will get exactly what your deeds deserve.

<sup>16</sup> For just as you have drunk on my holy mountain, so all the nations will drink continually.
They will drink, and they will gulp down;
they will be as though they had never been.

<sup>17</sup> But on Mount Zion there will be a remnant of those who escape, and it will be a holy place once again.
The descendants of Jacob will conquer those who had conquered them.

<sup>18</sup> The descendants of Jacob will be a fire, and the descendants of Joseph a flame.
The descendants of Esau will be like stubble.
They will burn them up and devour them.
There will not be a single survivor of the descendants of Esau!”
Indeed, the LORD has spoken it.

<sup>19</sup> The people of the Negev will take possession of Esau’s mountain, and the people of the Shephelah will take possession of the land of the Philistines.
They will also take possession of the territory of Ephraim and the territory of Samaria, and the people of Benjamin will take possession of Gilead.

<sup>20</sup> The exiles of this fortress of the people of Israel will take possession of what belongs to the people of Canaan, as far as Zarephath, and the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad will take possession of the towns of the Negev.

<sup>21</sup> Those who have been delivered will go up on Mount Zion in order to rule over Esau’s mountain.
Then the LORD will reign as King!

Jonah

Jonah Tries to Run from the Lord

<sup>3</sup> Instead, Jonah immediately headed off to Tarshish to escape from the commission of the LORD. He traveled to Joppa and found a merchant ship heading to Tarshish. So he paid the fare and went aboard it to go with them to Tarshish far away from the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> But the LORD hurled a powerful wind on the sea. Such a violent tempest arose on the sea that the ship threatened to break up!

<sup>5</sup> The sailors were so afraid that each cried out to his own god and they flung the ship’s cargo overboard to make the ship lighter. Jonah, meanwhile, had gone down into the hold below deck, had lain down, and was sound asleep.

<sup>6</sup> The ship’s captain approached him and said, “What are you doing asleep? Get up! Cry out to your god! Perhaps your god might take notice of us so that we might not die!”

<sup>7</sup> The sailors said to one another, “Come on, let’s cast lots to find out whose fault it is that this disaster has overtaken us.” So they cast lots, and Jonah was singled out.

<sup>8</sup> They said to him, “Tell us, whose fault is it that this disaster has overtaken us? What’s your occupation? Where do you come from? What’s your country? And who are your people?”

<sup>9</sup> He said to them, “I am a Hebrew! And I worship the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land.”

<sup>10</sup> Hearing this, the men became even more afraid and said to him, “What have you done?” (The men said this because they knew that he was trying to escape from the LORD | strong="H3069", because he had previously told them. )

<sup>11</sup> Because the storm was growing worse and worse, they said to him, “What should we do to you to make the sea calm down for us?”

<sup>12</sup> He said to them, “Pick me up and throw me into the sea to make the sea quiet down, because I know it’s my fault you are in this severe storm.”

<sup>13</sup> Instead, they tried to row back to land, but they were not able to do so because the storm kept growing worse and worse.

<sup>14</sup> So they cried out to the LORD, “Oh, please, LORD, don’t let us die on account of this man! Don’t hold us guilty of shedding innocent blood. After all, you, LORD, have done just as you pleased.”

<sup>16</sup> The men feared the LORD greatly, and earnestly vowed to offer lavish sacrifices to the Lord.

<sup>17</sup>

Jonah Prays

The LORD | strong="H3068" sent a huge fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the stomach of the fish three days and three nights.

2

<sup>2</sup> and said,

“I called out to the LORD from my distress, and he answered me;

from the belly of Sheol I cried out for help, and you heard my prayer.

<sup>3</sup> You threw me into the deep waters, into the middle of the sea;
the ocean current engulfed me;
all the mighty waves you sent swept over me.

<sup>4</sup> I thought I had been banished from your sight, that I would never again see your holy temple!

<sup>5</sup> Water engulfed me up to my neck;
the deep ocean surrounded me;
seaweed was wrapped around my head.

<sup>6</sup> I went down to the very bottoms of the mountains;
the gates of the netherworld barred me in forever;
but you brought me up from the Pit, O LORD, my God.

<sup>7</sup> When my life was ebbing away, I called out to the LORD, and my prayer came to your holy temple.

<sup>8</sup> Those who worship worthless idols forfeit the mercy that could be theirs.

<sup>9</sup> But as for me, I promise to offer a sacrifice to you with a public declaration of praise;
I will surely do what I have promised.
Salvation belongs to the LORD!"

<sup>10</sup> Then the LORD commanded the fish and it disgorged Jonah on dry land.

3

<sup>2</sup> "Go immediately to Nineveh, that large city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you."

<sup>3</sup> So Jonah went immediately to Nineveh, as the LORD had said. (Now Nineveh was an enormous city – it required three days to walk through it!)

<sup>4</sup> When Jonah began to enter the city one day's walk, he announced, "At the end of forty days, Nineveh will be overthrown!"

<sup>5</sup> The people of Nineveh believed in God, and they declared a fast and put on sackcloth, from the greatest to the least of them.

<sup>6</sup> When the news reached the king of Nineveh, he got up from his throne, took off his royal robe, put on sackcloth, and sat on ashes.

<sup>7</sup> He issued a proclamation and said, "In Nineveh, by the decree of the king and his nobles: No human or animal, cattle or sheep, is to taste anything; they must not eat and they must not drink water.

<sup>8</sup> Every person and animal must put on sackcloth and must cry earnestly to God, and everyone must turn from their evil way of living and from the violence that they do.

<sup>9</sup> Who knows? Perhaps God might be willing to change his mind and relent and turn from his fierce anger so that we might not die."

<sup>10</sup> When God saw their actions – they turned from their evil way of living! – God relented concerning the judgment he had threatened them with and he did not destroy them.

<sup>2</sup> He prayed to the LORD | strong="H3069" and said, "Oh, LORD, this is just what I thought would happen when I was in my own country. This is what I tried to prevent by attempting to escape to Tarshish! – because I knew that you are gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and abounding in mercy, and one who relents concerning threatened judgment.

<sup>3</sup> So now, LORD, kill me instead, because I would rather die than live!”

<sup>4</sup> The LORD said, “Are you really so very angry?”

<sup>5</sup> Jonah left the city and sat down east of it. He made a shelter for himself there and sat down under it in the shade to see what would happen to the city.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD God appointed a little plant and caused it to grow up over Jonah to be a shade over his head to rescue him from his misery. Now Jonah was very delighted about the little plant.

<sup>7</sup> So God sent a worm at dawn the next day, and it attacked the little plant so that it dried up.

<sup>8</sup> When the sun began to shine, God sent a hot east wind. So the sun beat down on Jonah’s head, and he grew faint. So he despaired of life, and said, “I would rather die than live!”

<sup>9</sup> God said to Jonah, “Are you really so very angry about the little plant?” And he said, “I am as angry as I could possibly be!”

<sup>10</sup> The LORD said, “You were upset about this little plant, something for which you have not worked nor did you do anything to make it grow. It grew up overnight and died the next day.

<sup>11</sup> Should I not be even more concerned about Nineveh, this enormous city? There are more than one hundred twenty thousand people in it who do not know right from wrong, as well as many animals!”

Micah

Introduction

<sup>1</sup> This is the prophetic message that the LORD gave to Micah of Moresheth. He delivered this message during the reigns of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah. The prophecies pertain to Samaria

The Judge is Coming

<sup>2</sup> Listen, all you nations!

Pay attention, all inhabitants of earth!

The sovereign LORD will testify against you;

the LORD | strong="H0136" will accuse you from his majestic palace.

<sup>3</sup> Look, the LORD is coming out of his dwelling place!

He will descend and march on the earth's mountaintops!

<sup>4</sup> The mountains will disintegrate beneath him, and the valleys will be split in two.

The mountains will melt like wax in a fire,
the rocks will slide down like water cascading down a steep slope.

<sup>5</sup> All this is because of Jacob's rebellion and the sins of the nation of Israel.

How has Jacob rebelled, you ask?

Samaria epitomizes their rebellion!

Where are Judah's pagan worship centers, you ask?

They are right in Jerusalem!

<sup>6</sup> "I will turn Samaria into a heap of ruins in an open field – vineyards will be planted there!

I will tumble the rubble of her stone walls down into the valley, and tear down her fortifications to their foundations.

<sup>7</sup> All her carved idols will be smashed to pieces;
all her metal cult statues will be destroyed by fire.

I will make a waste heap of all her images.

Since she gathered the metal as a prostitute collects her wages, the idols will become a prostitute's wages again."

<sup>8</sup> For this reason I will mourn and wail;

I will walk around barefoot and without my outer garments.

I will howl like a wild dog, and screech like an owl.

It has infected Judah;

it has spread to the leadership of my people and has even contaminated Jerusalem!

<sup>10</sup> Don't spread the news in Gath!

Don't shed even a single tear!

In Beth Leaphrah sit in the dust!

<sup>11</sup> Residents of Shaphir, pass by in nakedness and humiliation!

The residents of Zaanan can't leave their city.

Beth Ezel mourns,

"He takes from you what he desires."

though the LORD | strong="H3069" has sent disaster against the city of Jerusalem.

You influenced Daughter Zion to sin, for Israel's rebellious deeds can be traced back to you!
<sup>14</sup> Therefore you will have to say farewell to Moresheth Gath.
The residents of Achzib will be as disappointing as a dried up well to the kings of Israel.
<sup>15</sup> Residents of Mareshah, a conqueror will attack you, the leaders of Israel shall flee to Adullam.
<sup>16</sup> Shave your heads bald as you mourn for the children you love; shave your foreheads as bald as an eagle, for they are taken from you into exile.

2

<sup>1</sup> Those who devise sinful plans are as good as dead, those who dream about doing evil as they lie in bed.
As soon as morning dawns they carry out their plans, because they have the power to do so.
<sup>2</sup> They confiscate the fields they desire, and seize the houses they want.
They defraud people of their homes, and deprive people of the land they have inherited.
<sup>3</sup> Therefore the LORD says this: "Look, I am devising disaster for this nation!
It will be like a yoke from which you cannot free your neck.
You will no longer walk proudly, for it will be a time of catastrophe.
<sup>4</sup> In that day people will sing this taunt song to you – they will mock you with this lament:
'We are completely destroyed;
they sell off the property of my people.
How they remove it from me!
They assign our fields to the conqueror.'
<sup>5</sup> Therefore no one will assign you land in the LORD's community.
<sup>6</sup> 'Don't preach with such impassioned rhetoric,' they say excitedly.
'These prophets should not preach of such things;
we will not be overtaken by humiliation.'
<sup>7</sup> Does the family of Jacob say,
'The LORD's patience can't be exhausted –
he would never do such things'?
To be sure, my commands bring a reward for those who obey them, <sup>8</sup> but you rise up as an enemy against my people.
You steal a robe from a friend, from those who pass by peacefully as if returning from a war.
<sup>9</sup> You wrongly evict widows among my people from their cherished homes.
You defraud their children of their prized inheritance.
<sup>10</sup> But you are the ones who will be forced to leave!
For this land is not secure!
Sin will thoroughly destroy it!
<sup>11</sup> If a lying windbag should come and say,
'I'll promise you blessings of wine and beer,' he would be just the right preacher for these people!

The Lord Will Restore His People

<sup>12</sup> I will certainly gather all of you, O Jacob,
I will certainly assemble those Israelites who remain.
I will bring them together like sheep in a fold, like a flock in the middle of a pasture;
they will be so numerous that they will make a lot of noise.

<sup>13</sup> The one who can break through barriers will lead them out they will break out, pass through the gate, and leave.
Their king will advance before them,
The LORD himself will lead them.

<sup>1</sup> I said,
“Listen, you leaders of Jacob,
you rulers of the nation of Israel!
You ought to know what is just,
<sup>2</sup> yet you hate what is good,
and love what is evil.
You flay my people’s skin and rip the flesh from their bones.

<sup>3</sup> You devour my people’s flesh, strip off their skin,
and crush their bones.
You chop them up like flesh in a pot – like meat in a kettle.

<sup>4</sup> Someday these sinners will cry to the LORD for help, but he will not answer them.
He will hide his face from them at that time, because they have done such wicked deeds.”

<sup>5</sup> This is what the LORD says: “The prophets who mislead my people are as good as dead.

If someone gives them enough to eat,
they offer an oracle of peace.
But if someone does not give them food,
they are ready to declare war on him.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore night will fall, and you will receive no visions;
it will grow dark, and you will no longer be able to read the omens.
The sun will set on these prophets, and the daylight will turn to darkness over their heads.

<sup>7</sup> The prophets will be ashamed;
the omen readers will be humiliated.
All of them will cover their mouths, for they will receive no divine oracles.”

<sup>8</sup> But I am full of the courage that the LORD’s Spirit gives, and have a strong commitment to justice.
This enables me to confront Jacob with its rebellion, and Israel with its sin.

<sup>9</sup> Listen to this, you leaders of the family of Jacob,
you rulers of the nation of Israel!
You hate justice and pervert all that is right.

<sup>10</sup> You build Zion through bloody crimes,

Jerusalem through unjust violence.

<sup>11</sup> Her leaders take bribes when they decide legal cases, her priests proclaim rulings for profit, and her prophets read omens for pay.
Yet they claim to trust the LORD and say,
“The LORD is among us.

Disaster will not overtake us!”

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, because of you, Zion will be plowed up like a field, Jerusalem will become a heap of ruins, and the Temple Mount will become a hill overgrown with brush!

4

<sup>1</sup> In the future the LORD’s Temple Mount will be the most important mountain of all;
it will be more prominent than other hills.

People will stream to it.

<sup>2</sup> Many nations will come, saying,
“Come on! Let’s go up to the LORD’s |strong="H3069" mountain, to the temple of Jacob’s God, so he can teach us his commands and we can live by his laws.”

For Zion will be the source of instruction;
the LORD’s |strong="H3069" teachings will proceed from Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> He will arbitrate between many peoples and settle disputes between many distant nations.
They will beat their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruning hooks.
Nations will not use weapons against other nations,
and they will no longer train for war.

<sup>4</sup> Each will sit under his own grapevine or under his own fig tree without any fear.
The LORD who commands armies has decreed it.

<sup>5</sup> Though all the nations follow their respective gods, we will follow the LORD our God forever.

Restoration Will Follow Crisis

<sup>6</sup> “In that day,” says the LORD, “I will gather the lame, and assemble the outcasts whom I injured.

<sup>7</sup> I will transform the lame into the nucleus of a new nation, and those far off into a mighty nation.
The LORD will reign over them on Mount Zion, from that day forward and forevermore.”

<sup>8</sup> As for you, watchtower for the flock, fortress of Daughter Zion – your former dominion will be restored, the sovereignty that belongs to Daughter Jerusalem.

<sup>9</sup> Jerusalem, why are you now shouting so loudly?
Has your king disappeared?
Has your wise leader been destroyed?
Is this why pain grips you as if you were a woman in labor?

<sup>10</sup> Twist and strain, Daughter Zion, as if you were in labor!
For you will leave the city and live in the open field.

You will go to Babylon,
but there you will be rescued.
There the LORD will deliver you from the power of your enemies.

<sup>11</sup> Many nations have now assembled against you.
They say, "Jerusalem must be desecrated, so we can gloat over Zion!"

<sup>12</sup> But they do not know what the LORD is planning; they do not understand his strategy.
He has gathered them like stalks of grain to be threshed at the threshing floor.

<sup>13</sup> "Get up and thresh, Daughter Zion!
For I will give you iron horns;
I will give you bronze hooves, and you will crush many nations."
You will devote to the LORD the spoils you take from them, and dedicate their wealth to the sovereign Ruler of the whole earth.

5

<sup>1</sup> But now slash yourself, daughter surrounded by soldiers!
We are besieged!
With a scepter they strike Israel's ruler on the side of his face.

A King Will Come and a Remnant Will Prosper

<sup>2</sup> As for you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, seemingly insignificant among the clans of Judah – from you a king will emerge who will rule over Israel on my behalf, one whose origins are in the distant past.

<sup>3</sup> So the LORD will hand | strong="H5414" the people of Israel over to their enemies until the time when the woman in labor gives birth.
Then the rest of the king's countrymen will return to be reunited with the people of Israel.

<sup>4</sup> He will assume his post and shepherd the people by the LORD's strength, by the sovereign authority of the LORD | strong="H3069" his God.
They will live securely, for at that time he will be honored even in the distant regions of the earth.

<sup>5</sup> He will give us peace.
Should the Assyrians try to invade our land and attempt to set foot in our fortresses, we will send against them seven shepherd-rulers, make that eight commanders.

<sup>6</sup> They will rule the land of Assyria with the sword, the land of Nimrod with a drawn sword.
Our king will rescue us from the Assyrians should they attempt to invade our land and try to set foot in our territory.

<sup>7</sup> Those survivors from Jacob will live in the midst of many nations.
They will be like the dew the LORD sends,
like the rain on the grass, that does not hope for men to come or wait around for humans to arrive.

<sup>8</sup> Those survivors from Jacob will live among the nations, in the midst of many peoples.

They will be like a lion among the animals of the forest, like a young lion among the flocks of sheep, which attacks when it passes through;
it rips its prey and there is no one to stop it.

<sup>9</sup> Lift your hand triumphantly against your adversaries;
may all your enemies be destroyed!

The Lord Will Purify His People

<sup>10</sup> “In that day,” says the LORD, “I will destroy your horses from your midst, and smash your chariots.

<sup>11</sup> I will destroy the cities of your land, and tear down all your fortresses.

<sup>12</sup> I will remove the sorcery that you practice, and you will no longer have omen readers living among you.

<sup>13</sup> I will remove your idols and sacred pillars from your midst;
you will no longer worship what your own hands made.

<sup>14</sup> I will uproot your images of Asherah from your midst, and destroy your idols.

<sup>15</sup> I will angrily seek vengeance on the nations that do not obey me.”

<sup>1</sup> Listen to what the LORD says:

“Get up! Defend yourself before the mountains!
Present your case before the hills!”

<sup>2</sup> Hear the LORD’s accusation, you mountains, you enduring foundations of the earth!
For the LORD | strong="H3069" has a case against his people;
he has a dispute with Israel!

<sup>3</sup> “My people, how have I wronged you?
How have I wearied you? Answer me!

<sup>4</sup> In fact, I brought you up from the land of Egypt,
I delivered you from that place of slavery.
I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam to lead you.

<sup>5</sup> My people, recall how King Balak of Moab planned to harm you, how Balaam son of Beor responded to him.
Recall how you journeyed from Shittim to Gilgal, so you might acknowledge that the LORD has treated you fairly.”

<sup>6</sup> With what should I enter the LORD’s presence?
With what should I bow before the sovereign God?
Should I enter his presence with burnt offerings, with year-old calves?

<sup>7</sup> Will the LORD accept a thousand rams, or ten thousand streams of olive oil?
Should I give him my firstborn child as payment for my rebellion, my offspring – my own flesh and blood – for my sin?

<sup>8</sup> He has told you, O man, what is good, and what the LORD really wants from you:

He wants you to promote justice, to be faithful, and to live obediently before your God.

It is wise to respect your authority, O LORD! |strong="H8085"

Listen, O nation, and those assembled in the city!

<sup>10</sup> "I will not overlook, O sinful house, the dishonest gain you have hoarded away, or the smaller-than-standard measure I hate so much.

<sup>11</sup> I do not condone the use of rigged scales, or a bag of deceptive weights.

<sup>12</sup> The city's rich men think nothing of resorting to violence;
her inhabitants lie,
their tongues speak deceptive words.

<sup>13</sup> I will strike you brutally and destroy you because of your sin.

<sup>14</sup> You will eat, but not be satisfied.

Even if you have the strength to overtake some prey,
you will not be able to carry it away;
if you do happen to carry away something,
I will deliver it over to the sword.

<sup>15</sup> You will plant crops, but will not harvest them;
you will squeeze oil from the olives, but you will have no oil to rub on your bodies;
you will squeeze juice from the grapes, but you will have no wine to drink.

<sup>16</sup> You implement the regulations of Omri, and all the practices of Ahab's dynasty;
you follow their policies.

Therefore I will make you an appalling sight,
the city's inhabitants will be taunted derisively, and nations will mock all of you."

7

<sup>1</sup> I am depressed!

Indeed, it is as if the summer fruit has been gathered,
and the grapes have been harvested.

There is no grape cluster to eat,
no fresh figs that I crave so much.

<sup>2</sup> Faithful men have disappeared from the land;
there are no godly men left.

They all wait in ambush so they can shed blood;
they hunt their own brother with a net.

<sup>3</sup> They are determined to be experts at doing evil; government officials and judges take bribes, prominent men make demands,
and they all do what is necessary to satisfy them.

<sup>4</sup> The best of them is like a thorn;
the most godly among them are more dangerous than a row of thorn bushes.

The day you try to avoid by posting watchmen – your appointed time of punishment – is on the way, and then you will experience confusion.

<sup>5</sup> Do not rely on a friend;
do not trust a companion!

Don't even share secrets with the one who lies in your arms!

<sup>6</sup> For a son thinks his father is a fool,
a daughter challenges her mother, and a daughter-in-law her mother-in-law;
a man's enemies are his own servants.

<sup>7</sup> But I will keep watching for the LORD;
I will wait for the God who delivers me.
My God will hear my lament.

Jerusalem Will Be Vindicated

<sup>8</sup> My enemies, do not gloat over me!
Though I have fallen, I will get up.
Though I sit in darkness, the LORD will be my light.

<sup>9</sup> I must endure the LORD's anger, for I have sinned against him.
But then he will defend my cause, and accomplish justice on my behalf.
He will lead me out into the light;
I will experience firsthand his deliverance.
<sup>10</sup> When my enemies see this, they will be covered with shame.
They say to me, "Where is the LORD your God?"
I will gloat over them.

Then they will be trampled down like mud in the streets.
<sup>11</sup> It will be a day for rebuilding your walls;
in that day your boundary will be extended.

A Closing Prayer

<sup>12</sup> In that day people will come to you from Assyria as far as Egypt, from Egypt as far as the Euphrates River, from the seacoasts and the mountains.

<sup>13</sup> The earth will become desolate because of what its inhabitants have done.

<sup>14</sup> Shepherd your people with your shepherd's rod, the flock that belongs to you,
the one that lives alone in a thicket,
in the midst of a pastureland.
Allow them to graze in Bashan and Gilead, as they did in the old days.

<sup>15</sup> "As in the days when you departed from the land of Egypt,
I will show you miraculous deeds."

<sup>16</sup> Nations will see this and be disappointed by all their strength, they will put their hands over their mouths, and act as if they were deaf.

<sup>17</sup> They will lick the dust like a snake, like serpents crawling on the ground.
They will come trembling from their strongholds to the LORD our God;
they will be terrified of you.

<sup>18</sup> There is no other God like you!
You forgive sin
and pardon the rebellion of those who remain among your people.

You do not remain angry forever,
but delight in showing loyal love.
<sup>19</sup> You will once again have mercy on us;
you will conquer our evil deeds;
you will hurl our sins into the depths of the sea.
<sup>20</sup> You will be loyal to Jacob and extend your loyal love to Abraham, which you promised on oath to our ancestors
in ancient times.

Nahum

Introduction

<sup>1</sup> The oracle against Nineveh;
the book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite:

God Takes Vengeance against His Enemies

<sup>2</sup> The LORD | strong="H0410" is a zealous and avenging God;
the LORD | strong="H3069" is avenging and very angry.
The LORD | strong="H3069" takes vengeance against his foes;
he sustains his rage against his enemies.

<sup>3</sup> The LORD is slow to anger but great in power;
the LORD will certainly not allow the wicked to go unpunished.

The Divine Warrior Destroys His Enemies but Protects His People

He marches out in the whirlwind and the raging storm; dark storm clouds billow like dust under his feet.

<sup>4</sup> He shouts a battle cry against the sea and makes it dry up;
he makes all the rivers run dry.

Bashan and Carmel wither;
the blossom of Lebanon withers.

<sup>5</sup> The mountains tremble before him, the hills convulse;
the earth is laid waste before him,
the world and all its inhabitants are laid waste.

<sup>6</sup> No one can withstand his indignation!
No one can resist his fierce anger!
His wrath is poured out like volcanic fire, boulders are broken up as he approaches.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD is good – indeed, he is a fortress in time of distress, and he protects those who seek refuge in him.

<sup>8</sup> But with an overwhelming flood he will make a complete end of Nineveh;
he will drive his enemies into darkness.

Denunciation and Destruction of Nineveh

<sup>9</sup> Whatever you plot against the LORD, he will completely destroy!
Distress will not arise a second time.

<sup>10</sup> Surely they will be totally consumed like entangled thorn bushes, like the drink of drunkards, like very dry stubble.

<sup>11</sup> From you, O Nineveh, one has marched forth who plots evil against the LORD, a wicked military strategist.

Oracle of Deliverance to Judah

<sup>12</sup> This is what the LORD says:
“Even though they are powerful – and what is more, even though their army is numerous – nevertheless, they will be destroyed and trickle away!
Although I afflicted you,

I will afflict you no more.

<sup>13</sup> And now, I will break Assyria's yoke bar from your neck;
I will tear apart the shackles that are on you."

Oracle of Judgment against the King of Nineveh

<sup>14</sup> The LORD has issued a decree against you:

"Your dynasty will come to an end.

I will destroy the idols and images in the temples of your gods.

I will desecrate your grave – because you are accursed!"

Proclamation of the Deliverance of Judah

<sup>15</sup> Look! A herald is running on the mountains!

A messenger is proclaiming deliverance:

"Celebrate your sacred festivals, O Judah!

Fulfill your sacred vows to praise God!

For never again will the wicked Assyrians invade you, they have been completely destroyed."

2

<sup>1</sup> The watchmen of Nineveh shout:

"An enemy who will scatter you is marching out to attack you!"

"Guard the rampart!

Watch the road!

Prepare yourselves for battle!

Muster your mighty strength!"

<sup>2</sup> For the LORD will restore the majesty of Jacob, as well as the majesty of Israel, though their enemies have plundered them and have destroyed their fields.

Prophetic Vision of the Fall of Nineveh

<sup>3</sup> The shields of his warriors are dyed red;
the mighty soldiers are dressed in scarlet garments.

The metal fittings of the chariots shine like fire on the day of battle;

the soldiers brandish their spears.

<sup>4</sup> The chariots race madly through the streets, they rush back and forth in the broad plazas;

they look like lightning bolts,

they dash here and there like flashes of lightning.

<sup>5</sup> The commander orders his officers;

they stumble as they advance;

they rush to the city wall and they set up the covered siege tower.

<sup>6</sup> The sluice gates are opened;

the royal palace is deluged and dissolves.

<sup>7</sup> Nineveh is taken into exile and is led away;

her slave girls moan like doves while they beat their breasts.

<sup>8</sup> Nineveh was like a pool of water throughout her days, but now her people are running away;

she cries out: "Stop! Stop!" – but no one turns back.

<sup>9</sup> Her conquerors cry out:

“Plunder the silver! Plunder the gold!”
There is no end to the treasure;
riches of every kind of precious thing.
<sup>10</sup> Destruction, devastation, and desolation!
Their hearts faint,
their knees tremble,
each stomach churns, each face turns pale!

Taunt against the Once-Mighty Lion

<sup>11</sup> Where now is the den of the lions, the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion, lioness, and lion cub once prowled and no one disturbed them?
<sup>12</sup> The lion tore apart as much prey as his cubs needed and strangled prey to provide food for his lionesses;
he filled his lairs with prey and his dens with torn flesh.

Battle Cry of the Divine Warrior

<sup>13</sup> “I am against you!” declares the LORD who commands armies:
“I will burn your chariots with fire;
the sword will devour your young lions;
you will no longer prey upon the land;
the voices of your messengers will no longer be heard.”

<sup>1</sup> Woe to the city guilty of bloodshed!
She is full of lies;
she is filled with plunder;
she has hoarded her spoil!

Portrayal of the Destruction of Nineveh

<sup>2</sup> The chariot drivers will crack their whips;
the chariot wheels will shake the ground;
the chariot horses will gallop;
the war chariots will bolt forward!
<sup>3</sup> The charioteers will charge ahead;
their swords will flash
and their spears will glimmer!
There will be many people slain;
there will be piles of the dead, and countless casualties –
so many that people will stumble over the corpses.

Taunt against the Harlot City

<sup>4</sup> “Because you have acted like a wanton prostitute – a seductive mistress who practices sorcery, who enslaves nations by her harlotry, and entices peoples by her sorcery –
<sup>5</sup> I am against you,” declares the LORD who commands armies.
“I will strip off your clothes!
I will show your nakedness to the nations and your shame to the kingdoms;
<sup>6</sup> I will pelt you with filth;

I will treat you with contempt;
I will make you a public spectacle.
7 Everyone who sees you will turn away from you in disgust;
they will say, 'Nineveh has been devastated!
Who will lament for her?'
There will be no one to comfort you!"

Nineveh Will Suffer the Same Fate as Thebes

8 You are no more secure than Thebes – she was located on the banks of the Nile;
the waters surrounded her,
her rampart was the sea,
the water was her wall.
9 Cush and Egypt had limitless strength;
Put and the Libyans were among her allies.
10 Yet she went into captivity as an exile;
even her infants were smashed to pieces at the head of every street.
They cast lots for her nobility;
all her dignitaries were bound with chains.
11 You too will act like drunkards;
you will go into hiding;
you too will seek refuge from the enemy.

The Assyrian Defenses Will Fail

12 All your fortifications will be like fig trees with first-ripe fruit:
If they are shaken, their figs will fall into the mouth of the eater!
13 Your warriors will be like women in your midst;
the gates of your land will be wide open to your enemies;
fire will consume the bars of your gates.
14 Draw yourselves water for a siege!
Strengthen your fortifications!
Trample the mud and tread the clay!
Make mud bricks to strengthen your walls!
15 There the fire will consume you;
the sword will cut you down;
it will devour you like the young locust would.

The Assyrian Defenders Will Flee

Multiply yourself like the young locust;
multiply yourself like the flying locust!
16 Increase your merchants more than the stars of heaven!
They are like the young locust which sheds its skin and flies away.
17 Your courtiers are like locusts, your officials are like a swarm of locusts!
They encamp in the walls on a cold day,
yet when the sun rises, they fly away;
and no one knows where they are.

Concluding Dirge

18 Your shepherds are sleeping, O king of Assyria!
Your officers are slumbering!
Your people are scattered like sheep on the mountains and there is no one to regather them!

<sup>19</sup> Your destruction is like an incurable wound;
your demise is like a fatal injury!
All who hear what has happened to you will clap their hands for joy, for no one ever escaped your endless cruelty!

Habakkuk

Habakkuk Complains to the Lord

<sup>2</sup> How long, LORD, must I cry for help?
But you do not listen!
I call out to you, "Violence!"
But you do not intervene!
<sup>3</sup> Why do you force me to witness injustice?
Why do you put up with wrongdoing?
Destruction and violence confront me;
conflict is present and one must endure strife.
<sup>4</sup> For this reason the law lacks power, and justice is never carried out.
Indeed, the wicked intimidate the innocent.
For this reason justice is perverted.

The Lord Reveals Some Startling News

<sup>5</sup> "Look at the nations and pay attention!
You will be shocked and amazed!
For I will do something in your lifetime that you will not believe even though you are forewarned.
<sup>6</sup> Look, I am about to empower the Babylonians, that ruthless and greedy nation.
They sweep across the surface of the earth, seizing dwelling places that do not belong to them.
<sup>7</sup> They are frightening and terrifying;
they decide for themselves what is right.
<sup>8</sup> Their horses are faster than leopards and more alert than wolves in the desert.
Their horses gallop,
their horses come a great distance;
like a vulture they swoop down quickly to devour their prey.
<sup>9</sup> All of them intend to do violence;
every face is determined.
They take prisoners as easily as one scoops up sand.
<sup>10</sup> They mock kings and laugh at rulers.
They laugh at every fortified city;
they build siege ramps and capture them.
<sup>11</sup> They sweep by like the wind and pass on.
But the one who considers himself a god will be held guilty."

Habakkuk Voices Some Concerns

<sup>12</sup> LORD, you have been active from ancient times;
my sovereign God, you are immortal.
LORD | strong="H3069", you have made them your instrument of judgment.
Protector, you have appointed them as your instrument of punishment.
<sup>13</sup> You are too just to tolerate evil;
you are unable to condone wrongdoing.

So why do you put up with such treacherous people?
Why do you say nothing when the wicked devour those more righteous than they are?

<sup>14</sup> You made people like fish in the sea, like animals in the sea that have no ruler.

<sup>15</sup> The Babylonian tyrant pulls them all up with a fishhook;
he hauls them in with his throw net.
When he catches them in his dragnet,
he is very happy.

<sup>16</sup> Because of his success he offers sacrifices to his throw net and burns incense to his dragnet; for because of them he has plenty of food, and more than enough to eat.

<sup>17</sup> Will he then continue to fill and empty his throw net?
Will he always destroy nations and spare none?

I will remain stationed on the city wall.
I will keep watching, so I can see what he says to me and can know how I should answer when he counters my argument.

The Lord Assures Habakkuk

<sup>2</sup> The LORD responded:

“Write down this message! Record it legibly on tablets, so the one who announces it may read it easily.

<sup>3</sup> For the message is a witness to what is decreed;
it gives reliable testimony about how matters will turn out.
Even if the message is not fulfilled right away, wait patiently; for it will certainly come to pass – it will not arrive late.

<sup>4</sup> Look, the one whose desires are not upright will faint from exhaustion, but the person of integrity will live because of his faithfulness.

<sup>5</sup> Indeed, wine will betray the proud, restless man!
His appetite is as big as Sheol's;
like death, he is never satisfied.
He gathers all the nations;
he seizes all peoples.

The Proud Babylonians are as Good as Dead

<sup>6</sup> “But all these nations will someday taunt him and ridicule him with proverbial sayings:
‘The one who accumulates what does not belong to him is as good as dead (How long will this go on?) – he who gets rich by extortion!’

<sup>7</sup> Your creditors will suddenly attack;
those who terrify you will spring into action,
and they will rob you.

<sup>8</sup> Because you robbed many countries, all who are left among the nations will rob you.
You have shed human blood and committed violent acts against lands, cities, and those who live in them.

<sup>9</sup> The one who builds his house by unjust gain is as good as dead.
He does this so he can build his nest way up high and escape the clutches of disaster.

<sup>10</sup> Your schemes will bring shame to your house.

Because you destroyed many nations, you will self-destruct.

<sup>11</sup> For the stones in the walls will cry out, and the wooden rafters will answer back.

<sup>12</sup> The one who builds a city by bloodshed is as good as dead – he who starts a town by unjust deeds.

<sup>13</sup> Be sure of this! The LORD who commands armies has decreed:
The nations' efforts will go up in smoke; their exhausting work will be for nothing.

<sup>14</sup> For recognition of the LORD's sovereign majesty will fill the earth just as the waters fill up the sea.

<sup>15</sup> "You who force your neighbor to drink wine are as good as dead – you who make others intoxicated by forcing them to drink from the bowl of your furious anger,

so you can look at their genitals.

<sup>16</sup> But you will become drunk with shame, not majesty.

Now it is your turn to drink and expose your uncircumcised foreskin!

The cup of wine in the LORD's right hand is coming to you, and disgrace will replace your majestic glory!

<sup>17</sup> For you will pay in full for your violent acts against Lebanon; terrifying judgment will come upon you because of the way you destroyed the wild animals living there.

You have shed human blood
and committed violent acts against lands, cities, and those who live in them.

<sup>18</sup> What good is an idol? Why would a craftsman make it?
What good is a metal image that gives misleading oracles?
Why would its creator place his trust in it and make such mute, worthless things?

<sup>19</sup> The one who says to wood, 'Wake up!' is as good as dead – he who says to speechless stone, 'Awake!'

Can it give reliable guidance?
It is overlaid with gold and silver;
it has no life's breath inside it.

<sup>20</sup> But the LORD is in his majestic palace.
The whole earth is speechless in his presence!"

3

<sup>2</sup> LORD, I have heard the report of what you did;
I am awed, LORD, by what you accomplished.

In our time repeat those deeds;
in our time reveal them again.

But when you cause turmoil, remember to show us mercy!

<sup>3</sup> God comes from Teman, the sovereign one from Mount Paran. Selah.
His splendor covers the skies,
his glory fills the earth.

<sup>4</sup> He is as bright as lightning;
a two-pronged lightning bolt flashes from his hand.
This is the outward display of his power.

<sup>5</sup> Plague goes before him;
pestilence marches right behind him.
<sup>6</sup> He takes his battle position and shakes the earth;
with a mere look he frightens the nations.
The ancient mountains disintegrate;
the primeval hills are flattened.
He travels on the ancient roads.
<sup>7</sup> I see the tents of Cushan overwhelmed by trouble;
the tent curtains of the land of Midian are shaking.
<sup>8</sup> Is the LORD mad at the rivers?
Are you angry with the rivers?
Are you enraged at the sea?
Is this why you climb into your horse-drawn chariots, your victorious chariots?
<sup>9</sup> Your bow is ready for action;
you commission your arrows. Selah.
You cause flash floods on the earth's surface.
<sup>10</sup> When the mountains see you, they shake.
The torrential downpour sweeps through.
The great deep shouts out;
it lifts its hands high.
<sup>11</sup> The sun and moon stand still in their courses;
the flash of your arrows drives them away,
the bright light of your lightning-quick spear.
<sup>12</sup> You furiously stomp on the earth, you angrily trample down the nations.
<sup>13</sup> You march out to deliver your people, to deliver your special servant.
You strike the leader of the wicked nation, laying him open from the lower body to the neck. Selah.
<sup>14</sup> You pierce the heads of his warriors with a spear.
They storm forward to scatter us;
they shout with joy as if they were plundering the poor with no opposition.
<sup>15</sup> But you trample on the sea with your horses, on the surging, raging waters.

Habakkuk Declares His Confidence

<sup>16</sup> I listened and my stomach churned;
the sound made my lips quiver.
My frame went limp, as if my bones were decaying, and I shook as I tried to walk.
I long for the day of distress to come upon the people who attack us.
<sup>17</sup> When the fig tree does not bud, and there are no grapes on the vines;
when the olive trees do not produce, and the fields yield no crops;
when the sheep disappear from the pen,
and there are no cattle in the stalls,
<sup>18</sup> I will rejoice because of the LORD;
I will be happy because of the God who delivers me!
<sup>19</sup> The sovereign LORD is my source of strength.

He gives me the agility of a deer;
he enables me to negotiate the rugged terrain.

(This prayer is for the song leader. It is to be accompanied by stringed instruments.)

Zephaniah

Introduction

<sup>1</sup> This is the prophetic message that the LORD gave to Zephaniah son of Cushi, son of Gedaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah. Zephaniah delivered this message during the reign of King Josiah son of Amon of Judah:

The Lord's Day of Judgment is Approaching

<sup>2</sup> "I will destroy everything from the face of the earth," says the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> "I will destroy people and animals;

I will destroy the birds in the sky and the fish in the sea.

(The idolatrous images of these creatures will be destroyed along with evil people.)

I will remove humanity from the face of the earth," says the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> "I will attack Judah and all who live in Jerusalem.

I will remove from this place every trace of Baal worship, as well as the very memory of the pagan priests.

<sup>5</sup> I will remove those who worship the stars in the sky from their rooftops, those who swear allegiance to the LORD while taking oaths in the name of their 'king,'

<sup>6</sup> and those who turn their backs on the LORD and do not want the LORD's | strong="H3069" help or guidance."

<sup>7</sup> Be silent before the Lord GOD, for the LORD's day of judgment is almost here.

The LORD has prepared a sacrificial meal;

he has ritually purified his guests.

<sup>8</sup> "On the day of the LORD's sacrificial meal,

I will punish the princes and the king's sons, and all who wear foreign styles of clothing.

<sup>9</sup> On that day I will punish all who leap over the threshold, who fill the house of their master with wealth taken by violence and deceit.

<sup>10</sup> On that day," says the LORD,

"a loud cry will go up from the Fish Gate, wailing from the city's newer district, and a loud crash from the hills.

<sup>11</sup> Wail, you who live in the market district, for all the merchants will disappear and those who count money will be removed.

<sup>12</sup> At that time I will search through Jerusalem with lamps.

I will punish the people who are entrenched in their sin, those who think to themselves,

'The LORD neither rewards nor punishes.'

<sup>13</sup> Their wealth will be stolen and their houses ruined!

They will not live in the houses they have built, nor will they drink the wine from the vineyards they have planted.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD's great day of judgment is almost here;

it is approaching very rapidly!

There will be a bitter sound on the LORD's day of judgment;

at that time warriors will cry out in battle.

<sup>15</sup> That day will be a day of God's anger, a day of distress and hardship,
a day of devastation and ruin,
a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and dark skies,

<sup>16</sup> a day of trumpet blasts and battle cries.

Judgment will fall on the fortified cities and the high corner towers.

<sup>17</sup> I will bring distress on the people and they will stumble like blind men, for they have sinned against the LORD.
Their blood will be poured out like dirt;
their flesh will be scattered like manure.

<sup>18</sup> Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD's angry judgment.

The whole earth will be consumed by his fiery wrath.

Indeed, he will bring terrifying destruction on all who live on the earth."

2

<sup>2</sup> before God's decree becomes reality and the day of opportunity disappears like windblown chaff,

before the LORD's raging anger overtakes you – before the day of the LORD's angry judgment overtakes you!

<sup>3</sup> Seek the LORD's favor, all you humble people of the land who have obeyed his commands!

Strive to do what is right! Strive to be humble!

Maybe you will be protected on the day of the LORD's angry judgment.

Judgment on Surrounding Nations

<sup>4</sup> Indeed, Gaza will be deserted and Ashkelon will become a heap of ruins.

Invaders will drive away the people of Ashdod by noon, and Ekron will be overthrown.

<sup>5</sup> Those who live by the sea, the people who came from Crete, are as good as dead.

The LORD has decreed your downfall, Canaan, land of the Philistines:

"I will destroy everyone who lives there!"

<sup>6</sup> The seacoast will be used as pasture lands by the shepherds and as pens for their flocks.

<sup>7</sup> Those who are left from the kingdom of Judah will take possession of it.

By the sea they will graze, in the houses of Ashkelon they will lie down in the evening, for the LORD their God will intervene for them and restore their prosperity.

<sup>8</sup> "I have heard Moab's taunts and the Ammonites' insults.

They taunted my people and verbally harassed those living in Judah.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, as surely as I live," says the LORD who commands armies, the God of Israel,

"be certain that Moab will become like Sodom and the Ammonites like Gomorrah.

They will be overrun by weeds, filled with salt pits,

and permanently desolate.

Those of my people who are left will plunder their belongings;
those who are left in Judah will take possession of their land.”

<sup>10</sup> This is how they will be repaid for their arrogance, for they taunted and verbally harassed the people of the LORD | strong="H3069" who commands armies.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD will terrify them, for he will weaken all the gods of the earth.
All the distant nations will worship the LORD in their own lands | strong="H4725".

<sup>12</sup> “You Ethiopians will also die by my sword!”

<sup>13</sup> The LORD will attack | strong="H5186" the north and destroy Assyria.

He will make Nineveh a heap of ruins;
it will be as barren as the desert.

<sup>14</sup> Flocks and herds will lie down in the middle of it, as well as every kind of wild animal.
Owls will sleep in the tops of its support pillars;
they will hoot through the windows.
Rubble will cover the thresholds;
even the cedar work will be exposed to the elements.

<sup>15</sup> This is how the once-proud city will end up – the city that was so secure.

She thought to herself, “I am unique! No one can compare to me!”
What a heap of ruins she has become, a place where wild animals live!
Everyone who passes by her taunts her and shakes his fist.

the city filled with oppressors is finished!

<sup>2</sup> She is disobedient;
she refuses correction.
She does not trust the LORD;
she does not seek the advice of her God.

<sup>3</sup> Her princes are as fierce as roaring lions;
her rulers are as hungry as wolves in the desert, who completely devour their prey by morning.

<sup>4</sup> Her prophets are proud;
they are deceitful men.
Her priests defile what is holy;
they break God’s laws.

<sup>5</sup> The just LORD resides within her;
he commits no unjust acts.
Every morning he reveals his justice.
At dawn he appears without fail.
Yet the unjust know no shame.

The Lord’s Judgment will Purify

<sup>6</sup> “I destroyed nations; their walled cities are in ruins.
I turned their streets into ruins;
no one passes through them.
Their cities are desolate;

no one lives there.

<sup>7</sup> I thought, 'Certainly you will respect me!

Now you will accept correction!'

If she had done so, her home would not be destroyed by all the punishments I have threatened.

But they eagerly sinned in everything they did.

<sup>8</sup> Therefore you must wait patiently for me," says the LORD,
"for the day when I attack and take plunder.

I have decided to gather nations together and assemble kingdoms,

so I can pour out my fury on them –
all my raging anger.

For the whole earth will be consumed by my fiery anger.

<sup>9</sup> Know for sure that I will then enable the nations to give me acceptable praise.

All of them will invoke the LORD's name when they pray, and will worship him in unison.

<sup>10</sup> From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia, those who pray to me will bring me tribute.

<sup>11</sup> In that day you will not be ashamed of all your rebelliousness against me, for then I will remove from your midst those who proudly boast, and you will never again be arrogant on my holy hill.

<sup>12</sup> I will leave in your midst a humble and meek group of people, and they will find safety in the LORD's presence.

<sup>13</sup> The Israelites who remain will not act deceitfully.

They will not lie,

and a deceitful tongue will not be found in their mouth.

Indeed, they will graze peacefully like sheep and lie down;
no one will terrify them."

<sup>14</sup> Shout for joy, Daughter Zion!

Shout out, Israel!

Be happy and boast with all your heart, Daughter Jerusalem!

<sup>15</sup> The LORD has removed the judgment against you;

he has turned back your enemy.

Israel's king, the LORD, is in your midst!

You no longer need to fear disaster.

<sup>16</sup> On that day they will say to Jerusalem,

"Don't be afraid, Zion!

Your hands must not be paralyzed from panic!

<sup>17</sup> The LORD your God is in your midst;

he is a warrior who can deliver.

He takes great delight in you;

he renews you by his love;

he shouts for joy over you."

<sup>18</sup> "As for those who grieve because they cannot attend the festivals –

I took them away from you;

they became tribute and were a source of shame to you.

<sup>19</sup> Look, at that time I will deal with those who mistreated you.

I will rescue the lame sheep and gather together the scattered sheep.

I will take away their humiliation and make the whole earth admire and respect them.

<sup>20</sup> At that time I will lead you – at the time I gather you together.

Be sure of this! I will make all the nations of the earth respect and admire you when you see me restore you,” says the LORD.

Haggai

Introduction

<sup>1</sup> On the first day of the sixth month of King Darius' second year, the LORD spoke this message through the prophet Haggai to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak:

The Indifference of the People

<sup>2</sup> The LORD who rules over all says this: "These people have said, 'The time for rebuilding the LORD's temple has not yet come.' "

<sup>4</sup> "Is it right for you to live in richly paneled houses while my temple is in ruins?

<sup>5</sup> Here then is what the LORD who rules over all says: 'Think carefully about what you are doing.

<sup>6</sup> You have planted much, but have harvested little. You eat, but are never filled. You drink, but are still thirsty. You put on clothes, but are not warm. Those who earn wages end up with holes in their money bags.' "

The Instruction of the People

<sup>7</sup> "Moreover, the LORD who rules over all says: 'Pay close attention to these things also.

<sup>8</sup> Go up to the hill country and bring back timber to build the temple. Then I will be pleased and honored,' says the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> 'You expected a large harvest, but instead there was little, and when you brought it home it disappeared right away. Why?' asks the LORD | strong="H3069" who rules over all. 'Because my temple remains in ruins, thanks to each of you favoring his own house!

<sup>10</sup> This is why the sky has held back its dew and the earth its produce.

<sup>11</sup> Moreover, I have called for a drought that will affect the fields, the hill country, the grain, new wine, fresh olive oil, and everything that grows from the ground; it also will harm people, animals, and everything they produce.' "

The Response of the People

<sup>12</sup> Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, along with the whole remnant of the people, obeyed the LORD their God. They responded favorably to the message of the prophet Haggai, who spoke just as the LORD their God had instructed him, and the people began to respect the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> Then Haggai, the LORD's messenger, spoke the LORD's word to the people: "I am with you!" says the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> So the LORD energized and encouraged Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, and the whole remnant of the people. They came and worked on the temple of their God, the LORD who rules over all.

2

<sup>1</sup> On the twenty-first day of the seventh month, the LORD spoke again through the prophet Haggai:

<sup>2</sup> "Ask the following questions to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, the high priest Joshua son of Jehozadak, and the remnant of the people:

<sup>3</sup> 'Who among you survivors saw the former splendor of this temple? How does it look to you now? Isn't it nothing by comparison?

<sup>4</sup> Even so, take heart, Zerubbabel,' says the LORD. 'Take heart, Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and all you citizens of the land,' says the LORD, 'and begin to work. For I am with you,' says the LORD who rules over all.

<sup>5</sup> 'Do not fear, because I made a promise to your ancestors when they left Egypt, and my spirit even now testifies to you.'

<sup>6</sup> Moreover, the LORD who rules over all says: 'In just a little while I will once again shake the sky and the earth, the sea and the dry ground.

<sup>7</sup> I will also shake up all the nations, and they will offer their treasures; then I will fill this temple with glory,' says the LORD who rules over all.

<sup>8</sup> 'The silver and gold will be mine,' says the LORD who rules over all.

<sup>9</sup> 'The future splendor of this temple will be greater than that of former times,' the LORD who rules over all declares, 'and in this place I will give peace.' "

The Promised Blessing

<sup>10</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month of Darius' second year, the LORD | strong="H3069" spoke again to the prophet Haggai:

<sup>11</sup> "The LORD who rules over all says, 'Ask the priests about the law.

<sup>12</sup> If someone carries holy meat in a fold of his garment and that fold touches bread, a boiled dish, wine, olive oil, or any other food, will that item become holy?' " The priests answered, "It will not."

<sup>13</sup> Then Haggai asked, "If a person who is ritually unclean because of touching a dead body comes in contact with one of these items, will it become unclean?" The priests answered, "It will be unclean."

<sup>14</sup> Then Haggai responded, " 'The people of this nation are unclean in my sight,' says the LORD. 'And so is all their effort; everything they offer is also unclean.

<sup>15</sup> Now therefore reflect carefully on the recent past, before one stone was laid on another in the LORD's temple.

<sup>16</sup> From that time when one came expecting a heap of twenty measures, there were only ten; when one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty measures from it, there were only twenty.

<sup>17</sup> I struck all the products of your labor with blight, disease, and hail, and yet you brought nothing to me,' says the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> 'Think carefully about the past: from today, the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, to the day work on the temple of the LORD was resumed, think about it.

<sup>19</sup> The seed is still in the storehouse, isn't it? And the vine, fig tree, pomegranate, and olive tree have not produced. Nevertheless, from today on I will bless you.'

Zerubbabel the Chosen One

<sup>20</sup> Then the LORD spoke again to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month:

<sup>21</sup> Tell Zerubbabel governor of Judah: 'I am ready to shake the sky and the earth.

<sup>22</sup> I will overthrow royal thrones and shatter the might of earthly kingdoms. I will overthrow chariots and those who ride them, and horses and their riders will fall as people kill one another.

<sup>23</sup> On that day,' says the LORD who rules over all, 'I will take you, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, my servant,' says the LORD, 'and I will make you like a signet ring, for I have chosen you,' says the LORD who rules over all."

Zechariah

Introduction

<sup>3</sup> Therefore say to the people: The LORD who rules over all says, "Turn to me," says the LORD who rules over all, "and I will turn to you," says the LORD who rules over all.

<sup>4</sup> "Do not be like your ancestors, to whom the former prophets called out, saying, 'The LORD who rules over all says, "Turn now from your evil wickedness," ' but they would by no means obey me," says the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> "As for your ancestors, where are they? And did the prophets live forever?

<sup>6</sup> But have my words and statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, not outlived your fathers? Then they paid attention and confessed, 'The LORD who rules over all has indeed done what he said he would do to us, because of our sinful ways.' "

The Introduction to the Visions

<sup>7</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, the month Shebat, in Darius' second year, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah son of Iddo, as follows:

The Content of the First Vision

<sup>8</sup> I was attentive that night and saw a man seated on a red horse that stood among some myrtle trees in the ravine. Behind him were red, sorrel, and white horses.

The Interpretation of the First Vision

<sup>9</sup> Then I asked one nearby, "What are these, sir?" The angelic messenger who replied to me said, "I will show you what these are."

<sup>10</sup> Then the man standing among the myrtle trees spoke up and said, "These are the ones whom the LORD has sent to walk about on the earth."

<sup>11</sup> The riders then agreed with the angel of the LORD | strong="H3069", who was standing among the myrtle trees, "We have been walking about on the earth, and now everything is at rest and quiet."

<sup>12</sup> The angel of the LORD then asked, "LORD who rules over all, how long before you have compassion on Jerusalem and the other cities of Judah which you have been so angry with for these seventy years?"

<sup>13</sup> The LORD then addressed good, comforting words to the angelic messenger who was speaking to me.

<sup>14</sup> Turning to me, the messenger then said, "Cry out that the LORD who rules over all says, 'I am very much moved for Jerusalem and for Zion.

<sup>15</sup> But I am greatly displeased with the nations that take my grace for granted. I was a little displeased with them, but they have only made things worse for themselves.

The Oracle of Response

<sup>16</sup> "'Therefore,' says the LORD, 'I have become compassionate toward Jerusalem and will rebuild my temple in it,' says the LORD who rules over all. 'Once more a surveyor's measuring line will be stretched out over Jerusalem.'

<sup>17</sup> Speak up again with the message of the LORD who rules over all: 'My cities will once more overflow with prosperity, and once more the LORD will comfort Zion and validate his choice of Jerusalem.' "

Vision Two: The Four Horns

<sup>18</sup> Once again I looked and this time I saw four horns.

<sup>19</sup> So I asked the angelic messenger who spoke with me, "What are these?" He replied, "These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

<sup>21</sup> I asked, "What are these going to do?" He answered, "These horns are the ones that have scattered Judah so that there is no one to be seen. But the blacksmiths have come to terrify Judah's enemies and cut off the horns of the nations that have thrust themselves against the land of Judah in order to scatter its people."

2

<sup>2</sup> I asked, "Where are you going?" He replied, "To measure Jerusalem in order to determine its width and its length."

<sup>3</sup> At this point the angelic messenger who spoke to me went out, and another messenger came to meet him

<sup>4</sup> and said to him, "Hurry, speak to this young man as follows: 'Jerusalem will no longer be enclosed by walls because of the multitude of people and animals there.

<sup>5</sup> But I (the LORD | strong="H3069" says) will be a wall of fire surrounding Jerusalem and the source of glory in her midst.' "

<sup>6</sup> "You there! Flee from the northland!" says the LORD, "for like the four winds of heaven I have scattered you," says the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> For the LORD who rules over all says to me that for his own glory he has sent me to the nations that plundered you – for anyone who touches you touches the pupil of his eye.

<sup>9</sup> "I am about to punish them in such a way," he says, "that they will be looted by their own slaves." Then you will know that the LORD who rules over all has sent me.

<sup>10</sup> "Sing out and be happy, Zion my daughter! For look, I have come; I will settle in your midst," says the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> "Many nations will join themselves to the LORD on the day of salvation, and they will also be my people. Indeed, I will settle in the midst of you all." Then you will know that the LORD who rules over all has sent me to you.

<sup>12</sup> The LORD will take possession of Judah as his portion in the holy land and he will choose Jerusalem once again.

<sup>13</sup> Be silent in the LORD's presence, all people everywhere, for he is being moved to action in his holy dwelling place.

3

<sup>2</sup> The LORD said to Satan, "May the LORD rebuke you, Satan! May the LORD, who has chosen Jerusalem, rebuke you! Isn't this man like a burning stick snatched from the fire?"

<sup>3</sup> Now Joshua was dressed in filthy clothes as he stood there before the angel.

<sup>4</sup> The angel spoke up to those standing all around, "Remove his filthy clothes." Then he said to Joshua, "I have freely forgiven your iniquity and will dress you in fine clothing."

<sup>5</sup> Then I spoke up, "Let a clean turban be put on his head." So they put a clean turban on his head and clothed him, while the angel of the LORD stood nearby.

<sup>7</sup> “The LORD who rules over all says, ‘If you live and work according to my requirements, you will be able to preside over my temple and attend to my courtyards, and I will allow you to come and go among these others who are standing by you.

<sup>8</sup> Listen now, Joshua the high priest, both you and your colleagues who are sitting before you, all of you are a symbol that I am about to introduce my servant, the Branch.

<sup>9</sup> As for the stone I have set before Joshua – on the one stone there are seven eyes. I am about to engrave an inscription on it,’ says the LORD who rules over all, ‘to the effect that I will remove the iniquity of this land in a single day.

<sup>10</sup> In that day,’ says the LORD who rules over all, ‘everyone will invite his friend to fellowship under his vine and under his fig tree.’ ”

4

<sup>1</sup> The angelic messenger who had been speaking with me then returned and woke me, as a person is wakened from sleep.

<sup>2</sup> He asked me, “What do you see?” I replied, “I see a menorah of pure gold with a receptacle at the top and seven lamps, with fourteen pipes going to the lamps.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore he told me, “These signify the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: ‘Not by strength and not by power, but by my Spirit,’ says the LORD who rules over all.”

Oracle of Response

<sup>7</sup> “What are you, you great mountain? Because of Zerubbabel you will become a level plain! And he will bring forth the temple capstone with shoutings of ‘Grace! Grace!’ because of this.”

<sup>8</sup> Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me as follows:

<sup>9</sup> “The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundations of this temple, and his hands will complete it.” Then you will know that the LORD who rules over all has sent me to you.

<sup>10</sup> For who dares make light of small beginnings? These seven eyes will joyfully look on the tin tablet in Zerubbabel’s hand. (These are the eyes of the LORD, which constantly range across the whole earth.)

<sup>12</sup> Before he could reply I asked again, “What are these two extensions of the olive trees, which are emptying out the golden oil through the two golden pipes?”

<sup>14</sup> So he said, “These are the two anointed ones who stand by the Lord of the whole earth.”

5

<sup>2</sup> Someone asked me, “What do you see?” I replied, “I see a flying scroll thirty feet long and fifteen feet wide.”

<sup>3</sup> The speaker went on to say, “This is a curse traveling across the whole earth. For example, according to the curse whoever steals will be removed from the community; or on the other hand (according to the curse) whoever swears falsely will suffer the same fate.”

<sup>4</sup> “I will send it out,” says the LORD | strong="H3069" who rules over all, “and it will enter the house of the thief and of the person who swears falsely in my name. It will land in the middle of his house and destroy both timber and stones.”

Vision Seven: The Ephah

<sup>5</sup> After this the angelic messenger who had been speaking to me went out and said, “Look, see what is leaving.”

<sup>6</sup> I asked, “What is it?” And he replied, “It is a basket for measuring grain that is moving away from here.” Moreover, he said, “This is their ‘eye’ throughout all the earth.”

<sup>8</sup> He then said, “This woman represents wickedness,” and he pushed her down into the basket and placed the lead cover on top.

<sup>9</sup> Then I looked again and saw two women going forth with the wind in their wings (they had wings like those of a stork) and they lifted up the basket between the earth and the sky.

<sup>11</sup> He replied, “To build a temple for her in the land of Babylonia. When it is finished, she will be placed there in her own residence.”

6

<sup>1</sup> Once more I looked, and this time I saw four chariots emerging from between two mountains of bronze.

<sup>4</sup> Then I asked the angelic messenger who was speaking with me, “What are these, sir?”

<sup>5</sup> The messenger replied, “These are the four spirits of heaven that have been presenting themselves before the Lord of all the earth.

<sup>6</sup> The chariot with the black horses is going to the north country and the white ones are going after them, but the spotted ones are going to the south country.

<sup>7</sup> All these strong ones are scattering; they have sought permission to go and walk about over the earth.” The Lord had said, “Go! Walk about over the earth!” So they are doing so.

<sup>8</sup> Then he cried out to me, “Look! The ones going to the northland have brought me peace about the northland.”

A Concluding Oracle

<sup>10</sup> “Choose some people from among the exiles, namely, Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, all of whom have come from Babylon, and when you have done so go to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah.

<sup>11</sup> Then take some silver and gold to make a crown and set it on the head of Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest.

<sup>12</sup> Then say to him, ‘The LORD who rules over all says, “Look – here is the man whose name is Branch, who will sprout up from his place and build the temple of the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> Indeed, he will build the temple of the LORD, and he will be clothed in splendor, sitting as king on his throne. Moreover, there will be a priest with him on his throne and they will see eye to eye on everything.

<sup>14</sup> The crown will then be turned over to Helem, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Hen son of Zephaniah as a memorial in the temple of the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> Then those who are far away will come and build the temple of the LORD so that you may know that the LORD who rules over all has sent me to you. This will all come to pass if you completely obey the voice of the LORD your God.” ’ ”

7

<sup>1</sup> In King Darius' fourth year, on the fourth day of Kislev, the ninth month, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah.

<sup>2</sup> Now the people of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regem-Melech and their companions to seek the LORD's | strong="H3069" favor

<sup>3</sup> by asking both the priests of the temple of the LORD who rules over all and the prophets, "Should we weep in the fifth month, fasting as we have done over the years?"

<sup>4</sup> The word of the LORD who rules over all then came to me, <sup>5</sup> "Speak to all the people and priests of the land as follows: 'When you fasted and lamented in the fifth and seventh months through all these seventy years, did you truly fast for me – for me, indeed?

<sup>6</sup> And now when you eat and drink, are you not doing so for yourselves?' ”

<sup>7</sup> Should you not have obeyed the words that the LORD cried out through the former prophets when Jerusalem was peacefully inhabited and her surrounding cities, the Negev, and the Shephelah were also populated?

<sup>8</sup> Again the word of the LORD came to Zechariah:

<sup>9</sup> "The LORD who rules over all said, 'Exercise true judgment and show brotherhood and compassion to each other.

<sup>10</sup> You must not oppress the widow, the orphan, the foreigner, or the poor, nor should anyone secretly plot evil against his fellow human being.'

<sup>12</sup> Indeed, they made their heart as hard as diamond, so that they could not obey the Torah and the other words the LORD who rules over all had sent by his Spirit through the former prophets. Therefore, the LORD who rules over all had poured out great wrath.

<sup>13</sup> "‘It then came about that just as I cried out, but they would not obey, so they will cry out, but I will not listen,’ the LORD LORD | strong="H3068"who rules over all had said.

<sup>14</sup> 'Rather, I will sweep them away in a storm into all the nations they are not familiar with.' Thus the land had become desolate because of them, with no one crossing through or returning, for they had made the fruitful land a waste.”

<sup>1</sup> Then the word of the LORD who rules over all came to me as follows:

<sup>2</sup> "The LORD who rules over all says, 'I am very much concerned for Zion; indeed, I am so concerned for her that my rage will fall on those who hurt her.'

<sup>3</sup> The Lord says, 'I have returned to Zion and will live within Jerusalem. Now Jerusalem will be called "truthful city," "mountain of the LORD who rules over all," "holy mountain." ’

<sup>4</sup> Moreover, the LORD who rules over all says, 'Old men and women will once more live in the plazas of Jerusalem, each one leaning on a cane because of advanced age.

<sup>5</sup> And the streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing.

<sup>6</sup> And,' says the LORD | strong="H3069" who rules over all, 'though such a thing may seem to be difficult in the opinion of the small community of those days, will it also appear difficult to me?' asks the LORD | strong="H3069" who rules over all.

<sup>7</sup> "The LORD who rules over all asserts, 'I am about to save my people from the lands of the east and the west.

<sup>8</sup> And I will bring them to settle within Jerusalem. They will be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and righteousness.'

<sup>9</sup> "The LORD who rules over all also says, 'Gather strength, you who are listening to these words today from the mouths of the prophets who were there at the founding of the house of the LORD who rules over all, so that the temple might be built.

<sup>10</sup> Before that time there was no compensation for man or animal, nor was there any relief from adversity for those who came and went, because I had pitted everybody – each one – against everyone else.

<sup>11</sup> But I will be different now to this remnant of my people from the way I was in those days,' says the LORD who rules over all,

<sup>12</sup> 'for there will be a peaceful time of sowing, the vine will produce its fruit and the ground its yield, and the skies will rain down dew. Then I will allow the remnant of my people to possess all these things.

<sup>13</sup> And it will come about that just as you (both Judah and Israel) were a curse to the nations, so I will save you and you will be a blessing. Do not be afraid! Instead, be strong!'

<sup>14</sup> "For the LORD who rules over all says, 'As I had planned to hurt you when your fathers made me angry,' says the LORD who rules over all, 'and I was not sorry, <sup>15</sup> so, to the contrary, I have planned in these days to do good to Jerusalem and Judah – do not fear!

<sup>16</sup> These are the things you must do: Speak the truth, each of you, to one another. Practice true and righteous judgment in your courts.

<sup>17</sup> Do not plan evil in your hearts against one another. Do not favor a false oath – these are all things that I hate,' says the LORD."

<sup>18</sup> The word of the LORD who rules over all came to me as follows:

<sup>19</sup> "The LORD who rules over all says, 'The fast of the fourth, fifth, seventh, and tenth months will become joyful and happy, pleasant feasts for the house of Judah, so love truth and peace.'

<sup>20</sup> The LORD who rules over all says, 'It will someday come to pass that people – residents of many cities – will come.

<sup>21</sup> The inhabitants of one will go to another and say, "Let's go up at once to ask the favor of the LORD, to seek the LORD who rules over all. Indeed, I'll go with you." '

<sup>22</sup> Many peoples and powerful nations will come to Jerusalem to seek the LORD who rules over all and to ask his favor.

<sup>23</sup> The LORD who rules over all says, 'In those days ten people from all languages and nations will grasp hold of – indeed, grab – the robe of one Jew and say, "Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you." ' ' "

<sup>1</sup> An oracle of the word of the LORD concerning the land of Hadrach, with its focus on Damascus:

The eyes of all humanity, especially of the tribes of Israel, are toward the LORD, <sup>2</sup> as are those of Hamath also, which adjoins Damascus, and Tyre though they consider themselves to be very wise.

<sup>5</sup> Ashkelon will see and be afraid; Gaza will be in great anguish, as will Ekron, for her hope will have been dried up. Gaza will lose her king, and Ashkelon will no longer be inhabited.

<sup>6</sup> A mongrel people will live in Ashdod, for I will greatly humiliate the Philistines.

<sup>7</sup> I will take away their abominable religious practices; then those who survive will become a community of believers in our God, like a clan in Judah, and Ekron will be like the Jebusites.

<sup>8</sup> Then I will surround my temple to protect it like a guard from anyone crossing back and forth; so no one will cross over against them anymore as an oppressor, for now I myself have seen it.

Shout, daughter of Jerusalem!

Look! Your king is coming to you:

he is legitimate and victorious, humble and riding on a donkey – on a young donkey, the foal of a female donkey.

<sup>10</sup> I will remove the chariot from Ephraim and the warhorse from Jerusalem, and the battle bow will be removed.

Then he will announce peace to the nations.

His dominion will be from sea to sea and from the Euphrates River to the ends of the earth.

<sup>11</sup> Moreover, as for you, because of our covenant relationship secured with blood, I will release your prisoners from the waterless pit.

<sup>12</sup> Return to the stronghold, you prisoners, with hope; today I declare that I will return double what was taken from you.

<sup>13</sup> I will bend Judah as my bow; I will load the bow with Ephraim, my arrow! I will stir up your sons, Zion, against yours, Greece, and I will make you, Zion, like a warrior's sword.

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD will appear above them, and his arrow will shoot forth like lightning; the Lord GOD will blow the trumpet and will sally forth on the southern storm winds.

<sup>15</sup> The LORD |strong="H3069" who rules over all will guard them, and they will prevail and overcome with sling stones. Then they will drink, and will become noisy like drunkards, full like the sacrificial basin or like the corners of the altar.

<sup>16</sup> On that day the LORD their God will deliver them as the flock of his people, for they are the precious stones of a crown sparkling over his land.

<sup>17</sup> How precious and fair! Grain will make the young men flourish and new wine the young women.

10

<sup>1</sup> Ask the LORD |strong="H3069" for rain in the season of the late spring rains – the LORD |strong="H3069" who causes thunderstorms – and he will give everyone showers of rain and green growth in the field.

<sup>2</sup> For the household gods have spoken wickedness, the soothsayers have seen a lie, and as for the dreamers, they have disclosed emptiness and give comfort in vain. Therefore the people set out like sheep and become scattered because they have no shepherd.

<sup>3</sup> I am enraged at the shepherds and will punish the lead-goats.

For the LORD who rules over all has brought blessing to his flock, the house of Judah, and will transform them into his majestic warhorse.

<sup>4</sup> From him will come the cornerstone, the wall peg, the battle bow, and every ruler.

<sup>5</sup> And they will be like warriors trampling the mud of the streets in battle. They will fight, for the LORD will be with them, and will defeat the enemy cavalry.

<sup>6</sup> “I (says the LORD) will strengthen |strong="H1396" the kingdom of Judah and deliver the people of Joseph and will bring them back because of my compassion for them. They will be as though I had never rejected them, for I am the LORD their God and therefore I will hear them.

<sup>7</sup> The Ephraimites will be like warriors and will rejoice as if they had drunk wine. Their children will see it and rejoice; they will celebrate in the things of the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> I will signal for them and gather them, for I have already redeemed them; then they will become as numerous as they were before.

<sup>9</sup> Though I scatter them among the nations, they will remember in far-off places – they and their children will sprout forth and return.

<sup>10</sup> I will bring them back from Egypt and gather them from Assyria. I will bring them to the lands of Gilead and Lebanon, for there will not be enough room for them in their own land.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD will cross the sea of storms and will calm its turbulence. The depths of the Nile will dry up, the pride of Assyria will be humbled, and the domination of Egypt will be no more.

<sup>12</sup> Thus I will strengthen them by my power, and they will walk about in my name,” says the LORD.

11

so that the fire may consume your cedars.

<sup>2</sup> Howl, fir tree, because the cedar has fallen;
the majestic trees have been destroyed.
Howl, oaks of Bashan,
because the impenetrable forest has fallen.

<sup>3</sup> Listen to the howling of shepherds, because their magnificence has been destroyed.
Listen to the roaring of young lions, because the thickets of the Jordan have been devastated.

<sup>4</sup> The LORD my God says this: “Shepherd the flock set aside for slaughter.

<sup>5</sup> Those who buy them slaughter them and are not held guilty; those who sell them say, ‘Blessed be the LORD, for I am rich.’ Their own shepherds have no compassion for them.

<sup>6</sup> Indeed, I will no longer have compassion on the people of the land,” says the LORD, “but instead I will turn every last person over to his neighbor and his king. They will devastate the land, and I will not deliver it from them.”

<sup>7</sup> So I began to shepherd the flock destined for slaughter, the most afflicted of all the flock. Then I took two staffs, calling one “Pleasantness” and the other “Binders,” and I tended the flock.

<sup>8</sup> Next I eradicated the three shepherds in one month, for I ran out of patience with them and, indeed, they detested me as well.

<sup>9</sup> I then said, “I will not shepherd you. What is to die, let it die, and what is to be eradicated, let it be eradicated. As for those who survive, let them eat each other’s flesh!”

<sup>10</sup> Then I took my staff “Pleasantness” and cut it in two to annul my covenant that I had made with all the people.

<sup>11</sup> So it was annulled that very day, and then the most afflicted of the flock who kept faith with me knew that that was the word of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> Then I said to them, “If it seems good to you, pay me my wages, but if not, forget it.” So they weighed out my payment – thirty pieces of silver.

<sup>13</sup> The LORD | strong="H3069" then said to me, "Throw to the potter that exorbitant sum at which they valued me!" So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them to the potter at the temple of the LORD | strong="H3069".

<sup>14</sup> Then I cut the second staff "Binders" in two in order to annul the covenant of brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

<sup>15</sup> Again the LORD said to me, "Take up once more the equipment of a foolish shepherd.

<sup>16</sup> Indeed, I am about to raise up a shepherd in the land who will not take heed to the sheep headed to slaughter, will not seek the scattered, and will not heal the injured. Moreover, he will not nourish the one that is healthy but instead will eat the meat of the fat sheep and tear off their hooves.

<sup>17</sup> Woe to the worthless shepherd who abandons the flock!

May a sword fall on his arm and his right eye!

May his arm wither completely away, and his right eye become completely blind!"

12

<sup>1</sup> The revelation of the word of the LORD concerning Israel: The LORD – he who stretches out the heavens and lays the foundations of the earth, who forms the human spirit within a person – says, <sup>2</sup> "I am about to make Jerusalem a cup that brings dizziness to all the surrounding nations; indeed, Judah will also be included when Jerusalem is besieged.

<sup>3</sup> Moreover, on that day I will make Jerusalem a heavy burden for all the nations, and all who try to carry it will be seriously injured; yet all the peoples of the earth will be assembled against it.

<sup>4</sup> In that day," says the LORD, "I will strike every horse with confusion and its rider with madness. I will pay close attention to the house of Judah, but will strike all the horses of the nations with blindness.

<sup>5</sup> Then the leaders of Judah will say to themselves, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem are a means of strength to us through their God, the LORD who rules over all.'

<sup>6</sup> On that day I will make the leaders of Judah like an igniter among sticks and a burning torch among sheaves, and they will burn up all the surrounding nations right and left. Then the people of Jerusalem will settle once more in their place, the city of Jerusalem.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD also will deliver the homes of Judah first, so that the splendor of the kingship of David and of the people of Jerusalem may not exceed that of Judah.

<sup>8</sup> On that day the LORD himself will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the weakest among them will be like mighty David, and the dynasty of David will be like God, like the angel of the LORD before them.

<sup>9</sup> So on that day I will set out to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem."

<sup>10</sup> "I will pour out on the kingship of David and the population of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and supplication so that they will look to me, the one they have pierced. They will lament for him as one laments for an only son, and there will be a bitter cry for him like the bitter cry for a firstborn.

<sup>11</sup> On that day the lamentation in Jerusalem will be as great as the lamentation at Hadad-Rimmon in the plain of Megiddo.

<sup>12</sup> The land will mourn, clan by clan – the clan of the royal household of David by itself and their wives by themselves; the clan of the family of Nathan by itself and their wives by themselves;

<sup>13</sup> the clan of the descendants of Levi by itself and their wives by themselves; and the clan of the Shimeites by itself and their wives by themselves –

<sup>1</sup> “In that day there will be a fountain opened up for the dynasty of David and the people of Jerusalem to cleanse them from sin and impurity.

<sup>2</sup> And also on that day,” says the LORD who rules over all, “I will remove the names of the idols from the land and they will never again be remembered. Moreover, I will remove the prophets and the unclean spirit from the land.

<sup>3</sup> Then, if anyone prophesies in spite of this, his father and mother to whom he was born will say to him, ‘You cannot live, for you lie in the name of the LORD.’ Then his father and mother to whom he was born will run him through with a sword when he prophesies.

<sup>4</sup> “Therefore, on that day each prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies and will no longer wear the hairy garment of a prophet to deceive the people.

<sup>5</sup> Instead he will say, ‘I am no prophet – indeed, I am a farmer, for a man has made me his indentured servant since my youth.’

<sup>6</sup> Then someone will ask him, ‘What are these wounds on your chest?’ and he will answer, ‘Some that I received in the house of my friends.’

<sup>7</sup> “Awake, sword, against my shepherd, against the man who is my associate,”
says the LORD | strong="H3069" who rules over all.
Strike the shepherd that the flock may be scattered;
I will turn my hand against the insignificant ones.

<sup>8</sup> It will happen in all the land, says the LORD, that two-thirds of the people in it will be cut off and die, but one-third will be left in it.

<sup>9</sup> Then I will bring the remaining third into the fire;
I will refine them like silver is refined and will test them like gold is tested.
They will call on my name and I will answer;
I will say, ‘These are my people,’ and they will say, ‘The LORD is my God.’ ”

14

<sup>1</sup> A day of the LORD is about to come when your possessions will be divided as plunder in your midst.

<sup>2</sup> For I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem to wage war; the city will be taken, its houses plundered, and the women raped. Then half of the city will go into exile, but the remainder of the people will not be taken away.

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD | strong="H3069" will go to battle and fight against those nations, just as he fought battles in ancient days.

<sup>4</sup> On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives which lies to the east of Jerusalem, and the Mount of Olives will be split in half from east to west, leaving a great valley. Half the mountain will move northward and the other half southward.

<sup>5</sup> Then you will escape through my mountain valley, for the mountains will extend to Azal. Indeed, you will flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of King Uzziah of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come with all his holy ones with him.

<sup>6</sup> On that day there will be no light – the sources of light in the heavens will congeal.

<sup>7</sup> It will happen in one day (a day known to the LORD); not in the day or the night, but in the evening there will be light.

<sup>8</sup> Moreover, on that day living waters will flow out from Jerusalem, half of them to the eastern sea and half of them to the western sea; it will happen both in summer and in winter.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD will then be king over all the earth. In that day the LORD will be seen as one with a single name.

<sup>10</sup> All the land will change and become like the Arabah from Geba to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem; and Jerusalem will be raised up and will stay in its own place from the Benjamin Gate to the site of the First Gate and on to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the royal winepresses.

<sup>11</sup> And people will settle there, and there will no longer be the threat of divine extermination – Jerusalem will dwell in security.

<sup>12</sup> But this will be the nature of the plague with which the LORD will strike all the nations that have fought against Jerusalem: Their flesh will decay while they stand on their feet, their eyes will rot away in their sockets, and their tongues will dissolve in their mouths.

<sup>13</sup> On that day there will be great confusion from the LORD among them; they will seize each other and attack one another violently.

<sup>14</sup> Moreover, Judah will fight at Jerusalem, and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered up – gold, silver, and clothing in great abundance.

<sup>15</sup> This is the kind of plague that will devastate horses, mules, camels, donkeys, and all the other animals in those camps.

<sup>16</sup> Then all who survive from all the nations that came to attack Jerusalem will go up annually to worship the King, the LORD who rules over all, and to observe the Feast of Tabernacles.

<sup>17</sup> But if any of the nations anywhere on earth refuse to go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD who rules over all, they will get no rain.

<sup>18</sup> If the Egyptians will not do so, they will get no rain – instead there will be the kind of plague which the LORD inflicts on any nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles.

<sup>19</sup> This will be the punishment of Egypt and of all nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles.

<sup>20</sup> On that day the bells of the horses will bear the inscription “HOLY TO THE LORD.” The cooking pots in the LORD’s temple will be as holy as the bowls in front of the altar.

<sup>21</sup> Every cooking pot in Jerusalem and Judah will become holy in the sight of the LORD who rules over all, so that all who offer sacrifices may come and use some of them to boil their sacrifices in them. On that day there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of the LORD who rules over all.

Malachi

Introduction and God's Election of Israel

“Esau was Jacob’s brother,” the LORD explains, “yet I chose Jacob

<sup>3</sup> and rejected Esau. I turned Esau’s mountains into a deserted wasteland and gave his territory to the wild jackals.”

<sup>4</sup> Edom says, “Though we are devastated, we will once again build the ruined places.” So the LORD who rules over all responds, “They indeed may build, but I will overthrow. They will be known as the land of evil, the people with whom the LORD is permanently displeased.

<sup>5</sup> Your eyes will see it, and then you will say, ‘May the LORD be magnified even beyond the border of Israel!’ ”

The Sacrilege of Priestly Service

<sup>6</sup> “A son naturally honors his father and a slave respects his master. If I am your father, where is my honor? If I am your master, where is my respect? The LORD who rules over all asks you this, you priests who make light of my name! But you reply, ‘How have we made light of your name?’

<sup>7</sup> You are offering improper sacrifices on my altar, yet you ask, ‘How have we offended you?’ By treating the table of the LORD as if it is of no importance!

<sup>8</sup> For when you offer blind animals as a sacrifice, is that not wrong? And when you offer the lame and sick, is that not wrong as well? Indeed, try offering them to your governor! Will he be pleased with you or show you favor?” asks the LORD | strong="H3069" who rules over all.

<sup>9</sup> But now plead for God’s favor that he might be gracious to us. “With this kind of offering in your hands, how can he be pleased with you?” asks the LORD who rules over all.

<sup>10</sup> “I wish that one of you would close the temple doors, so that you no longer would light useless fires on my altar. I am not pleased with you,” says the LORD who rules over all, “and I will no longer accept an offering from you.

<sup>11</sup> For from the east to the west my name will be great among the nations. Incense and pure offerings will be offered in my name everywhere, for my name will be great among the nations,” says the LORD who rules over all.

<sup>12</sup> “But you are profaning it by saying that the table of the Lord is common and its offerings despicable.

<sup>13</sup> You also say, ‘How tiresome it is.’ You turn up your nose at it,” says the LORD who rules over all, “and instead bring what is stolen, lame, or sick. You bring these things for an offering! Should I accept this from you?” asks the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> “There will be harsh condemnation for the hypocrite who has a valuable male animal in his flock but vows and sacrifices something inferior to the Lord. For I am a great king,” says the LORD who rules over all, “and my name is awesome among the nations.”

<sup>2</sup> If you do not listen and take seriously the need to honor my name,” says the LORD who rules over all, “I will send judgment on you and turn your blessings into curses – indeed, I have already done so because you are not taking it to heart.

<sup>3</sup> I am about to discipline your children and will spread offal on your faces, the very offal produced at your festivals, and you will be carried away along with it.

<sup>4</sup> Then you will know that I sent this commandment to you so that my covenant may continue to be with Levi,” says the LORD who rules over all.

<sup>5</sup> “My covenant with him was designed to bring life and peace. I gave its statutes to him to fill him with awe, and he indeed revered me and stood in awe before me.

<sup>6</sup> He taught what was true; sinful words were not found on his lips. He walked with me in peace and integrity, and he turned many people away from sin.

<sup>7</sup> For the lips of a priest should preserve knowledge of sacred things, and people should seek instruction from him because he is the messenger of the LORD who rules over all.

<sup>8</sup> You, however, have turned from the way. You have caused many to violate the law; you have corrupted the covenant with Levi,” says the LORD who rules over all.

<sup>9</sup> “Therefore, I have caused you to be ignored and belittled before all people to the extent to which you are not following after me and are showing partiality in your instruction.”

The Rebellion of the People

<sup>10</sup> Do we not all have one father? Did not one God create us? Why do we betray one another, in this way making light of the covenant of our ancestors?

<sup>11</sup> Judah has become disloyal, and unspeakable sins have been committed in Israel and Jerusalem. For Judah has profaned the holy things that the LORD loves and has turned to a foreign god!

<sup>12</sup> May the LORD | strong="H3069" cut off from the community of Jacob every last person who does this, as well as the person who presents improper offerings to the LORD | strong="H3069" who rules over all!

<sup>13</sup> You also do this: You cover the altar of the LORD with tears as you weep and groan, because he no longer pays any attention to the offering nor accepts it favorably from you.

<sup>14</sup> Yet you ask, “Why?” The LORD is testifying against you on behalf of the wife you married when you were young, to whom you have become unfaithful even though she is your companion and wife by law.

<sup>15</sup> No one who has even a small portion of the Spirit in him does this. What did our ancestor do when seeking a child from God? Be attentive, then, to your own spirit, for one should not be disloyal to the wife he took in his youth.

<sup>16</sup> “I hate divorce,” says the LORD God of Israel, “and the one who is guilty of violence,” says the LORD who rules over all. “Pay attention to your conscience, and do not be unfaithful.”

Resistance to the Lord through Self-deceit

<sup>17</sup> You have wearied the LORD with your words. But you say, “How have we wearied him?” Because you say, “Everyone who does evil is good in the Lord’s opinion, and he delights in them,” or “Where is the God of justice?”

3

<sup>1</sup> “I am about to send my messenger, who will clear the way before me. Indeed, the Lord you are seeking will suddenly come to his temple, and the messenger of the covenant, whom you long for, is certainly coming,” says the LORD who rules over all.

<sup>2</sup> Who can endure the day of his coming? Who can keep standing when he appears? For he will be like a refiner's fire, like a launderer's soap.

<sup>3</sup> He will act like a refiner and purifier of silver and will cleanse the Levites and refine them like gold and silver. Then they will offer the LORD a proper offering.

<sup>4</sup> The offerings of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in former times and years past.

<sup>5</sup> "I will come to you in judgment. I will be quick to testify against those who practice divination, those who commit adultery, those who break promises, and those who exploit workers, widows, and orphans, who refuse to help the immigrant and in this way show they do not fear me," says the LORD who rules over all.

Resistance to the Lord through Selfishness

<sup>6</sup> "Since, I, the LORD, do not go back on my promises, you, sons of Jacob, have not perished.

<sup>7</sup> From the days of your ancestors you have ignored my commandments and have not kept them! Return to me, and I will return to you," says the LORD who rules over all. "But you say, 'How should we return?'

<sup>8</sup> Can a person rob God? You indeed are robbing me, but you say, 'How are we robbing you?' In tithes and contributions!

<sup>9</sup> You are bound for judgment because you are robbing me – this whole nation is guilty.

<sup>10</sup> "Bring the entire tithe into the storehouse so that there may be food in my temple. Test me in this matter," says the LORD who rules over all, "to see if I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you a blessing until there is no room for it all.

<sup>11</sup> Then I will stop the plague from ruining your crops, and the vine will not lose its fruit before harvest," says the LORD who rules over all.

<sup>12</sup> "All nations will call you happy, for you indeed will live in a delightful land," says the LORD who rules over all.

Resistance to the Lord through Self-sufficiency

<sup>13</sup> "You have criticized me sharply," says the LORD, "but you ask, 'How have we criticized you?'

<sup>14</sup> You have said, 'It is useless to serve God. How have we been helped by keeping his requirements and going about like mourners before the LORD | strong="H3069" who rules over all?'

<sup>15</sup> So now we consider the arrogant to be happy; indeed, those who practice evil are successful. In fact, those who challenge God escape! "

<sup>16</sup> Then those who respected the LORD spoke to one another, and the LORD took notice. A scroll was prepared before him in which were recorded the names of those who respected the LORD and honored his name.

<sup>17</sup> "They will belong to me," says the LORD who rules over all, "in the day when I prepare my own special property. I will spare them as a man spares his son who serves him.

<sup>18</sup> Then once more you will see that I make a distinction between the righteous and the wicked, between the one who serves God and the one who does not.

4

<sup>1</sup> "For indeed the day is coming, burning like a furnace, and all the arrogant evildoers will be chaff. The coming day will burn them up," says the LORD | strong="H3069" who rules over all. "It will not leave even a root or branch.

<sup>2</sup> But for you who respect my name, the sun of vindication will rise with healing wings, and you will skip about like calves released from the stall.

<sup>3</sup> You will trample on the wicked, for they will be like ashes under the soles of your feet on the day which I am preparing,” says the LORD who rules over all.

Restoration through the Lord

<sup>4</sup> “Remember the law of my servant Moses, to whom at Horeb I gave rules and regulations for all Israel to obey.

<sup>5</sup> Look, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the great and terrible day of the LORD arrives.

<sup>6</sup> He will encourage fathers and their children to return to me, so that I will not come and strike the earth with judgment.”

Matthew

The Genealogy of Jesus Christ

<sup>1</sup> This is the record of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

<sup>2</sup> Abraham was the father of Isaac, Isaac the father of Jacob, Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers, <sup>3</sup> Judah the father of Perez and Zerah (by Tamar), Perez the father of Hezron, Hezron the father of Ram, <sup>4</sup> Ram the father of Amminadab, Amminadab the father of Nahshon, Nahshon the father of Salmon,

<sup>5</sup> Salmon the father of Boaz (by Rahab), Boaz the father of Obed (by Ruth), Obed the father of Jesse,

David was the father of Solomon (by the wife of Uriah ), <sup>7</sup> Solomon the father of Rehoboam, Rehoboam the father of Abijah, Abijah the father of Asa,

<sup>8</sup> Asa the father of Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat the father of Joram, Joram the father of Uzziah, <sup>9</sup> Uzziah the father of Jotham, Jotham the father of Ahaz, Ahaz the father of Hezekiah, <sup>10</sup> Hezekiah the father of Manasseh, Manasseh the father of Amon, Amon the father of Josiah, <sup>11</sup> and Josiah the father of Jeconiah and his brothers, at the time of the deportation to Babylon.

<sup>12</sup> After the deportation to Babylon, Jeconiah became the father of Shealtiel, Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel, <sup>13</sup> Zerubbabel the father of Abiud, Abiud the father of Eliakim, Eliakim the father of Azor, <sup>14</sup> Azor the father of Zadok, Zadok the father of Achim, Achim the father of Eliud, <sup>15</sup> Eliud the father of Eleazar, Eleazar the father of Matthan, Matthan the father of Jacob, <sup>16</sup> and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, by whom Jesus was born, who is called Christ.

<sup>17</sup> So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations, and from David to the deportation to Babylon, fourteen generations, and from the deportation to Babylon to Christ, fourteen generations.

The Birth of Jesus Christ

<sup>18</sup> Now the birth of Jesus Christ happened this way. While his mother Mary was engaged to Joseph, but before they came together, she was found to be pregnant through the Holy Spirit.

<sup>19</sup> Because Joseph, her husband to be, was a righteous man, and because he did not want to disgrace her, he intended to divorce her privately.

<sup>20</sup> When he had contemplated this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, because the child conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit.

<sup>21</sup> She will give birth to a son and you will name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins."

<sup>22</sup> This all happened so that what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet would be fulfilled:

<sup>23</sup> “ Look! The virgin will conceive and bear a son, and they will call him Emmanuel | strong="G1694", which means “ God with us.”

<sup>24</sup> When Joseph awoke from sleep he did what the angel of the Lord told him. He took his wife, <sup>25</sup> but did not have marital relations with her until she gave birth to a son, whom he named Jesus.

<sup>2</sup> saying, “Where is the one who is born king of the Jews? For we saw his star when it rose and have come to worship him.”

<sup>3</sup> When King Herod heard this he was alarmed, and all Jerusalem with him.

<sup>4</sup> After assembling all the chief priests and experts in the law, he asked them where the Christ was to be born.

<sup>5</sup> “In Bethlehem of Judea,” they said, “for it is written this way by the prophet:

<sup>6</sup> ‘ And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are in no way least among the rulers of Judah, for out of you will come a ruler who will shepherd my people Israel.’ ”

<sup>8</sup> He sent them to Bethlehem and said, “Go and look carefully for the child. When you find him, inform me so that I can go and worship him as well.”

<sup>11</sup> As they came into the house and saw the child with Mary his mother, they bowed down and worshiped him. They opened their treasure boxes and gave him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

<sup>12</sup> After being warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they went back by another route to their own country.

The Escape to Egypt

<sup>13</sup> After they had gone, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, “Get up, take the child and his mother and flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you, for Herod is going to look for the child to kill him.”

<sup>14</sup> Then he got up, took the child and his mother during the night, and went to Egypt.

<sup>15</sup> He stayed there until Herod died. In this way what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet was fulfilled : “I called my Son out of Egypt.”

<sup>16</sup> When Herod saw that he had been tricked by the wise men, he became enraged. He sent men to kill all the children in Bethlehem and throughout the surrounding region from the age of two and under, according to the time he had learned from the wise men.

<sup>17</sup> Then what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled:

<sup>18</sup> “ A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping and loud wailing, Rachel weeping for her children, and she did not want to be comforted, because they were gone.”

The Return to Nazareth

<sup>19</sup> After Herod had died, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt
<sup>20</sup> saying, “Get up, take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who were seeking the child’s life are dead.”

<sup>21</sup> So he got up and took the child and his mother and returned to the land of Israel.

<sup>22</sup> But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. After being warned in a dream, he went to the regions of Galilee.

<sup>23</sup> He came to a town called Nazareth and lived there. Then what had been spoken by the prophets was fulfilled, that Jesus would be called a Nazarene.

3

“The voice of one shouting in the wilderness,

‘Prepare the way for the Lord, make his paths straight.’ ”

<sup>4</sup> Now John wore clothing made from camel’s hair with a leather belt around his waist, and his diet consisted of locusts and wild honey.

<sup>5</sup> Then people from Jerusalem, as well as all Judea and all the region around the Jordan, were going out to him,

<sup>7</sup> But when he saw many Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them, “You offspring of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath?

<sup>8</sup> Therefore produce fruit that proves your repentance,

<sup>9</sup> and don’t think you can say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’ For I tell you that God can raise up children for Abraham from these stones!

<sup>10</sup> Even now the ax is laid at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.

<sup>11</sup> “I baptize you with water, for repentance, but the one coming after me is more powerful than I am – I am not worthy to carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

The Baptism of Jesus

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus came from Galilee to John to be baptized by him in the Jordan River.

<sup>14</sup> But John tried to prevent him, saying, “I need to be baptized by you, and yet you come to me?”

<sup>15</sup> So Jesus replied to him, “Let it happen now, for it is right for us to fulfill all righteousness.” Then John yielded to him.

<sup>16</sup> After Jesus was baptized, just as he was coming up out of the water, the heavens opened and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming on him.

<sup>17</sup> And a voice from heaven said, “This is my one dear Son; in him I take great delight.”

4

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.

<sup>3</sup> The tempter came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become bread.”

<sup>4</sup> But he answered, “It is written, ‘*Man does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God*.*’ ”

<sup>5</sup> Then the devil took him to the holy city, had him stand on the highest point of the temple,

<sup>6</sup> and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down. For it is written, 'He will command his angels concerning you' and 'with their hands they will lift you up, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.' "

<sup>7</sup> Jesus said to him, "Once again it is written: 'You are not to put the Lord your God to the test.' "

<sup>8</sup> Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their grandeur.

<sup>9</sup> And he said to him, "I will give you all these things if you throw yourself to the ground and worship me."

<sup>10</sup> Then Jesus said to him, "Go away, Satan! For it is written: 'You are to worship the Lord your God and serve only him.' "

<sup>11</sup> Then the devil left him, and angels came and began ministering to his needs.

Preaching in Galilee

<sup>12</sup> Now when Jesus heard that John had been imprisoned, he went into Galilee.

<sup>13</sup> While in Galilee, he moved from Nazareth by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, <sup>14</sup> so that what was spoken by Isaiah the prophet would be fulfilled:

<sup>15</sup> "Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the way by the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles -

<sup>16</sup> the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, and on those who sit in the region and shadow of death a light has dawned."

<sup>17</sup> From that time Jesus began to preach this message: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near."

The Call of the Disciples

<sup>18</sup> As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee he saw two brothers, Simon (called Peter) and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea (for they were fishermen).

<sup>19</sup> He said to them, "Follow me, and I will turn you into fishers of people."

<sup>21</sup> Going on from there he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, in a boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets. Then he called them.

Jesus' Healing Ministry

<sup>23</sup> Jesus went throughout all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all kinds of disease and sickness among the people.

<sup>24</sup> So a report about him spread throughout Syria. People brought to him all who suffered with various illnesses and afflictions, those who had seizures, paralytics, and those possessed by demons, and he healed them.

5

<sup>1</sup> When he saw the crowds, he went up the mountain. After he sat down his disciples came to him.

<sup>2</sup> Then he began to teach them by saying:

<sup>5</sup> "Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

<sup>6</sup> "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied.

8 “Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

9 “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called the children of God.

10 “Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to them.

11 “Blessed are you when people insult you and persecute you and say all kinds of evil things about you falsely on account of me.

12 Rejoice and be glad because your reward is great in heaven, for they persecuted the prophets before you in the same way.

Salt and Light

13 “You are the salt of the earth. But if salt loses its flavor, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled on by people.

14 You are the light of the world. A city located on a hill cannot be hidden.

15 People do not light a lamp and put it under a basket but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house.

16 In the same way, let your light shine before people, so that they can see your good deeds and give honor to your Father in heaven.

Fulfillment of the Law and Prophets

17 “Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets. I have not come to abolish these things but to fulfill them.

18 I tell you the truth, until heaven and earth pass away not the smallest letter or stroke of a letter will pass from the law until everything takes place.

19 So anyone who breaks one of the least of these commands and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever obeys them and teaches others to do so will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I tell you, unless your righteousness goes beyond that of the experts in the law and the Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Anger and Murder

21 “You have heard that it was said to an older generation, ‘Do not murder,’ and ‘whoever murders will be subjected to judgment.’

22 But I say to you that anyone who is angry with a brother will be subjected to judgment. And whoever insults a brother will be brought before the council, and whoever says ‘Fool’ will be sent to fiery hell.

23 So then, if you bring your gift to the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you,

24 leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled to your brother and then come and present your gift.

25 Reach agreement quickly with your accuser while on the way to court, or he may hand you over to the judge, and the judge hand you over to the warden, and you will be thrown into prison.

26 I tell you the truth, you will never get out of there until you have paid the last penny!

Adultery

27 “You have heard that it was said, ‘Do not commit adultery.’

28 But I say to you that whoever looks at a woman to desire her has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

29 If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away! It is better to lose one of your members than to have your whole body thrown into hell.

<sup>30</sup> If your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away! It is better to lose one of your members than to have your whole body go into hell.

Divorce

<sup>32</sup> But I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except for immorality, makes her commit adultery, and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

Oaths

<sup>33</sup> “Again, you have heard that it was said to an older generation, ‘ Do not | strong="G3756" break an oath, but fulfill your vows to the Lord break an oath, but fulfill your vows to the Lord.’

<sup>34</sup> But I say to you, do not take oaths at all – not by heaven, because it is the throne of God, <sup>35</sup> not by earth, because it is his footstool, and not by Jerusalem, because it is the city of the great King.

<sup>36</sup> Do not take an oath by your head, because you are not able to make one hair white or black.

<sup>37</sup> Let your word be ‘Yes, yes’ or ‘No, no.’ More than this is from the evil one.

Retaliation

<sup>38</sup> “You have heard that it was said, ‘ An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.’

<sup>39</sup> But I say to you, do not resist the evildoer. But whoever strikes you on the right cheek, turn the other to him as well.

<sup>40</sup> And if someone wants to sue you and to take your tunic, give him your coat also.

<sup>41</sup> And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two.

<sup>42</sup> Give to the one who asks you, and do not reject the one who wants to borrow from you.

Love for Enemies

<sup>43</sup> “You have heard that it was said, ‘ Love your neighbor’ and ‘hate your enemy.’

<sup>44</sup> But I say to you, love your enemy and pray for those who persecute you, <sup>45</sup> so that you may be like your Father in heaven, since he causes the sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous.

<sup>46</sup> For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Even the tax collectors do the same, don’t they?

<sup>47</sup> And if you only greet your brothers, what more do you do? Even the Gentiles do the same, don’t they?

6

<sup>1</sup> “Be careful not to display your righteousness merely to be seen by people. Otherwise you have no reward with your Father in heaven.

<sup>2</sup> Thus whenever you do charitable giving, do not blow a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in synagogues and on streets so that people will praise them. I tell you the truth, they have their reward.

<sup>4</sup> so that your gift may be in secret. And your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you.

Private Prayer

<sup>5</sup> “Whenever you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, because they love to pray while standing in synagogues and on street corners so that people can see them. Truly I say to you, they have their reward.

<sup>6</sup> But whenever you pray, go into your room, close the door, and pray to your Father in secret. And your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you.

<sup>7</sup> When you pray, do not babble repetitiously like the Gentiles, because they think that by their many words they will be heard.

<sup>8</sup> Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him.

<sup>9</sup> So pray this way:

Our Father in heaven, may your name be honored,

<sup>10</sup> may your kingdom come, may your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

<sup>12</sup> and forgive us our debts, as we ourselves have forgiven our debtors.

<sup>13</sup> And do not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

<sup>14</sup> “For if you forgive others their sins, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.

<sup>15</sup> But if you do not forgive others, your Father will not forgive you your sins.

Proper Fasting

<sup>16</sup> “When you fast, do not look sullen like the hypocrites, for they make their faces unattractive so that people will see them fasting. I tell you the truth, they have their reward.

<sup>17</sup> When you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face, <sup>18</sup> so that it will not be obvious to others when you are fasting, but only to your Father who is in secret. And your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you.

Lasting Treasure

<sup>19</sup> “Do not accumulate for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal.

<sup>20</sup> But accumulate for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and thieves do not break in and steal.

<sup>21</sup> For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

<sup>22</sup> “The eye is the lamp of the body. If then your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light.

<sup>23</sup> But if your eye is diseased, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

<sup>24</sup> “No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money.

Do Not Worry

<sup>25</sup> “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Isn’t there more to life than food and more to the body than clothing?

<sup>26</sup> Look at the birds in the sky: They do not sow, or reap, or gather into barns, yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Aren’t you more valuable than they are?

<sup>27</sup> And which of you by worrying can add even one hour to his life?

<sup>28</sup> Why do you worry about clothing? Think about how the flowers of the field grow; they do not work or spin.

<sup>29</sup> Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed like one of these!

<sup>30</sup> And if this is how God clothes the wild grass, which is here today and tomorrow is tossed into the fire to heat the oven, won’t he clothe you even more, you people of little faith?

<sup>31</sup> So then, don't worry saying, 'What will we eat?' or 'What will we drink?' or 'What will we wear?'

<sup>32</sup> For the unconverted pursue these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them.

<sup>33</sup> But above all pursue his kingdom and righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

<sup>34</sup> So then, do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Today has enough trouble of its own.

7

<sup>1</sup> "Do not judge so that you will not be judged.

<sup>2</sup> For by the standard you judge you will be judged, and the measure you use will be the measure you receive.

<sup>3</sup> Why do you see the speck in your brother's eye, but fail to see the beam of wood in your own?

<sup>4</sup> Or how can you say to your brother, 'Let me remove the speck from your eye,' while there is a beam in your own?

<sup>5</sup> You hypocrite! First remove the beam from your own eye, and then you can see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.

<sup>6</sup> Do not give what is holy to dogs or throw your pearls before pigs; otherwise they will trample them under their feet and turn around and tear you to pieces.

Ask, Seek, Knock

<sup>7</sup> "Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened for you.

<sup>8</sup> For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.

<sup>9</sup> Is there anyone among you who, if his son asks for bread, will give him a stone?

<sup>10</sup> Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake?

<sup>11</sup> If you then, although you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good gifts to those who ask him!

<sup>12</sup> In everything, treat others as you would want them to treat you, for this fulfills the law and the prophets.

The Narrow Gate

<sup>13</sup> "Enter through the narrow gate, because the gate is wide and the way is spacious that leads to destruction, and there are many who enter through it.

<sup>14</sup> But the gate is narrow and the way is difficult that leads to life, and there are few who find it.

A Tree and Its Fruit

<sup>15</sup> "Watch out for false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are voracious wolves.

<sup>16</sup> You will recognize them by their fruit. Grapes are not gathered from thorns or figs from thistles, are they?

<sup>17</sup> In the same way, every good tree bears good fruit, but the bad tree bears bad fruit.

<sup>18</sup> A good tree is not able to bear bad fruit, nor a bad tree to bear good fruit.

<sup>19</sup> Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

<sup>20</sup> So then, you will recognize them by their fruit.

Judgment of Pretenders

<sup>21</sup> "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter into the kingdom of heaven – only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven.

<sup>22</sup> On that day, many will say to me, 'Lord, Lord, didn't we prophesy in your name, and in your name cast out demons and do many powerful deeds?'

<sup>23</sup> Then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you. Go away from me, you lawbreakers!'

Hearing and Doing

<sup>24</sup> "Everyone who hears these words of mine and does them is like a wise man who built his house on rock.

<sup>25</sup> The rain fell, the flood came, and the winds beat against that house, but it did not collapse because it had been founded on rock.

<sup>26</sup> Everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them is like a foolish man who built his house on sand.

<sup>27</sup> The rain fell, the flood came, and the winds beat against that house, and it collapsed; it was utterly destroyed!"

<sup>29</sup> because he taught them like one who had authority, not like their experts in the law.

8

<sup>2</sup> And a leper approached, and bowed low before him, saying, "Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean."

<sup>3</sup> He stretched out his hand and touched him saying, "I am willing. Be clean!" Immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

<sup>4</sup> Then Jesus said to him, "See that you do not speak to anyone, but go, show yourself to a priest, and bring the offering that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

Healing the Centurion's Servant

<sup>5</sup> When he entered Capernaum, a centurion came to him asking for help:

<sup>7</sup> Jesus said to him, "I will come and heal him."

<sup>8</sup> But the centurion replied, "Lord, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof. Instead, just say the word and my servant will be healed.

<sup>9</sup> For I too am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I say to this one, 'Go' and he goes, and to another 'Come' and he comes, and to my slave 'Do this' and he does it."

<sup>10</sup> When Jesus heard this he was amazed and said to those who followed him, "I tell you the truth, I have not found such faith in anyone in Israel!

<sup>11</sup> I tell you, many will come from the east and west to share the banquet with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven, <sup>12</sup> but the sons of the kingdom will be thrown out into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus said to the centurion, "Go; just as you believed, it will be done for you." And the servant was healed at that hour.

Healings at Peter's House

<sup>14</sup> Now when Jesus entered Peter's house, he saw his mother-in-law lying down, sick with a fever.

<sup>15</sup> He touched her hand, and the fever left her. Then she got up and began to serve them.

<sup>16</sup> When it was evening, many demon-possessed people were brought to him. He drove out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick.

<sup>17</sup> In this way what was spoken by Isaiah the prophet was fulfilled:

"He took our weaknesses and carried our diseases."

Challenging Professed Followers

<sup>18</sup> Now when Jesus saw a large crowd around him, he gave orders to go to the other side of the lake.

<sup>19</sup> Then an expert in the law came to him and said, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go."

<sup>21</sup> Another of the disciples said to him, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father."

<sup>22</sup> But Jesus said to him, "Follow me, and let the dead bury their own dead."

Stilling of a Storm

<sup>24</sup> And a great storm developed on the sea so that the waves began to swamp the boat. But he was asleep.

<sup>25</sup> So they came and woke him up saying, "Lord, save us! We are about to die!"

<sup>26</sup> But he said to them, "Why are you cowardly, you people of little faith?" Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and it was dead calm.

<sup>27</sup> And the men were amazed and said, "What sort of person is this? Even the winds and the sea obey him!"

Healing the Gadarene Demoniacs

<sup>28</sup> When he came to the other side, to the region of the Gadarenes, two demon-possessed men coming from the tombs met him. They were extremely violent, so that no one was able to pass by that way.

<sup>29</sup> They cried out, "Son of God, leave us alone! Have you come here to torment us before the time?"

<sup>32</sup> And he said, "Go!" So they came out and went into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep slope into the lake and drowned in the water.

<sup>33</sup> The herdsmen ran off, went into the town, and told everything that had happened to the demon-possessed men.

<sup>34</sup> Then the entire town came out to meet Jesus. And when they saw him, they begged him to leave their region.

9

<sup>2</sup> Just then some people brought to him a paralytic lying on a stretcher. When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Have courage, son! Your sins are forgiven."

<sup>4</sup> When Jesus saw their reaction he said, "Why do you respond with evil in your hearts?"

<sup>6</sup> But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" – then he said to the paralytic – "Stand up, take your stretcher, and go home."

<sup>7</sup> And he stood up and went home.

<sup>8</sup> When the crowd saw this, they were afraid and honored God who had given such authority to men.

The Call of Matthew; Eating with Sinners

<sup>9</sup> As Jesus went on from there, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax booth. "Follow me," he said to him. And he got up and followed him.

<sup>10</sup> As Jesus was having a meal in Matthew's house, many tax collectors and sinners came and ate with Jesus and his disciples.

<sup>11</sup> When the Pharisees saw this they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

<sup>12</sup> When Jesus heard this he said, "Those who are healthy don't need a physician, but those who are sick do.

<sup>13</sup> Go and learn what this saying means: 'I want mercy and not sacrifice.' For I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

The Superiority of the New

<sup>14</sup> Then John's disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples don't fast?"

<sup>15</sup> Jesus said to them, "The wedding guests cannot mourn while the bridegroom is with them, can they? But the days are coming when the bridegroom will be taken from them, and then they will fast.

<sup>16</sup> No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, because the patch will pull away from the garment and the tear will be worse.

<sup>17</sup> And no one pours new wine into old wineskins; otherwise the skins burst and the wine is spilled out and the skins are destroyed. Instead they put new wine into new wineskins and both are preserved."

Restoration and Healing

<sup>18</sup> As he was saying these things, a ruler came, bowed low before him, and said, "My daughter has just died, but come and lay your hand on her and she will live."

<sup>21</sup> For she kept saying to herself, "If only I touch his cloak, I will be healed."

<sup>22</sup> But when Jesus turned and saw her he said, "Have courage, daughter! Your faith has made you well." And the woman was healed from that hour.

<sup>23</sup> When Jesus entered the ruler's house and saw the flute players and the disorderly crowd, <sup>24</sup> he said, "Go away, for the girl is not dead but asleep." And they began making fun of him.

<sup>25</sup> But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and gently took her by the hand, and the girl got up.

<sup>26</sup> And the news of this spread throughout that region.

Healing the Blind and Mute

<sup>27</sup> As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed him, shouting, "Have mercy on us, Son of David!"

<sup>28</sup> When he went into the house, the blind men came to him. Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They said to him, "Yes, Lord."

<sup>29</sup> Then he touched their eyes saying, "Let it be done for you according to your faith."

<sup>30</sup> And their eyes were opened. Then Jesus sternly warned them, "See that no one knows about this."

<sup>31</sup> But they went out and spread the news about him throughout that entire region.

<sup>32</sup> As they were going away, a man who could not talk and was demon-possessed was brought to him.

<sup>33</sup> After the demon was cast out, the man who had been mute spoke. The crowds were amazed and said, "Never has anything like this been seen in Israel!"

Workers for the Harvest

<sup>35</sup> Then Jesus went throughout all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and sickness.

<sup>36</sup> When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them because they were bewildered and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

<sup>37</sup> Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few.

10

<sup>1</sup> Jesus called his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits so they could cast them out and heal every kind of disease and sickness.

first, Simon (called Peter), and Andrew his brother; James son of Zebedee and John his brother;

<sup>3</sup> Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus;

<sup>9</sup> Do not take gold, silver, or copper in your belts, <sup>10</sup> no bag for the journey, or an extra tunic, or sandals or staff, for the worker deserves his provisions.

<sup>11</sup> Whenever you enter a town or village, find out who is worthy there and stay with them until you leave.

<sup>12</sup> As you enter the house, give it greetings.

<sup>13</sup> And if the house is worthy, let your peace come on it, but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you.

<sup>14</sup> And if anyone will not welcome you or listen to your message, shake the dust off your feet as you leave that house or that town.

<sup>15</sup> I tell you the truth, it will be more bearable for the region of Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that town!

Persecution of Disciples

<sup>16</sup> "I am sending you out like sheep surrounded by wolves, so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves.

<sup>17</sup> Beware of people, because they will hand you over to councils and flog you in their synagogues.

<sup>18</sup> And you will be brought before governors and kings because of me, as a witness to them and the Gentiles.

<sup>19</sup> Whenever they hand you over for trial, do not worry about how to speak or what to say, for what you should say will be given to you at that time.

<sup>20</sup> For it is not you speaking, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.

<sup>21</sup> "Brother will hand over brother to death, and a father his child. Children will rise against parents and have them put to death.

<sup>22</sup> And you will be hated by everyone because of my name. But the one who endures to the end will be saved.

<sup>23</sup> Whenever they persecute you in one place, flee to another. I tell you the truth, you will not finish going through all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

<sup>25</sup> It is enough for the disciple to become like his teacher, and the slave like his master. If they have called the head of the house ‘Beelzebul,’ how much more will they defame the members of his household!

Fear God, Not Man

<sup>26</sup> “Do not be afraid of them, for nothing is hidden that will not be revealed, and nothing is secret that will not be made known.

<sup>27</sup> What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light, and what is whispered in your ear, proclaim from the housetops.

<sup>28</sup> Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Instead, fear the one who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

<sup>29</sup> Aren’t two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them falls to the ground apart from your Father’s will.

<sup>32</sup> “Whoever, then, acknowledges me before people, I will acknowledge before my Father in heaven.

<sup>33</sup> But whoever denies me before people, I will deny him also before my Father in heaven.

Not Peace, but a Sword

<sup>34</sup> “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace but a sword.

<sup>35</sup> For I have come to set a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law,

<sup>37</sup> “Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

<sup>38</sup> And whoever does not take up his cross and follow me is not worthy of me.

<sup>39</sup> Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life because of me will find it.

Rewards

<sup>40</sup> “Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me.

<sup>41</sup> Whoever receives a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet’s reward. Whoever receives a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive a righteous person’s reward.

<sup>42</sup> And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple, I tell you the truth, he will never lose his reward.”

11

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus had finished instructing his twelve disciples, he went on from there to teach and preach in their towns.

Jesus and John the Baptist

<sup>2</sup> Now when John heard in prison about the deeds Christ had done, he sent his disciples to ask a question:

<sup>3</sup> “Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?”

<sup>7</sup> While they were going away, Jesus began to speak to the crowd about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

<sup>9</sup> What did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet.

<sup>10</sup> This is the one about whom it is written:

who will prepare your way before you.’*

<sup>11</sup> “I tell you the truth, among those born of women, no one has arisen greater than John the Baptist. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he is.

<sup>12</sup> From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has suffered violence, and forceful people lay hold of it.

<sup>13</sup> For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John appeared.

<sup>14</sup> And if you are willing to accept it, he is Elijah, who is to come.

<sup>16</sup> “To what should I compare this generation? They are like children sitting in the marketplaces who call out to one another,

<sup>17</sup> ‘We played the flute for you, yet you did not dance;
we wailed in mourning, yet you did not weep.’

<sup>19</sup> The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, ‘Look at him, a glutton and a drunk, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ But wisdom is vindicated by her deeds.”

Woes on Unrepentant Cities

<sup>20</sup> Then Jesus began to criticize openly the cities in which he had done many of his miracles, because they did not repent.

<sup>21</sup> “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the miracles done in you had been done in Tyre they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

<sup>22</sup> But I tell you, it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you!

<sup>23</sup> And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? No, you will be thrown down to Hades! For if the miracles done among you had been done in Sodom, it would have continued to this day.

<sup>24</sup> But I tell you, it will be more bearable for the region of Sodom on the day of judgment than for you!”

Jesus' Invitation

<sup>25</sup> At that time Jesus said, “I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent, and revealed them to little children.

<sup>26</sup> Yes, Father, for this was your gracious will.

<sup>27</sup> All things have been handed over to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son decides to reveal him.

<sup>28</sup> Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.

<sup>29</sup> Take my yoke on you and learn from me, because I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

<sup>30</sup> For my yoke is easy to bear, and my load is not hard to carry.”

12

<sup>2</sup> But when the Pharisees saw this they said to him, "Look, your disciples are doing what is against the law to do on the Sabbath."

<sup>3</sup> He said to them, "Haven't you read what David did when he and his companions were hungry –

<sup>4</sup> how he entered the house of God and they ate the sacred bread, which was against the law for him or his companions to eat, but only for the priests?

<sup>5</sup> Or have you not read in the law that the priests in the temple desecrate the Sabbath and yet are not guilty?

<sup>10</sup> A man was there who had a withered hand. And they asked Jesus, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?" so that they could accuse him.

<sup>11</sup> He said to them, "Would not any one of you, if he had one sheep that fell into a pit on the Sabbath, take hold of it and lift it out?

<sup>12</sup> How much more valuable is a person than a sheep! So it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath."

<sup>13</sup> Then he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out and it was restored, as healthy as the other.

<sup>14</sup> But the Pharisees went out and plotted against him, as to how they could assassinate him.

God's Special Servant

<sup>15</sup> Now when Jesus learned of this, he went away from there. Great crowds followed him, and he healed them all.

<sup>18</sup> "*Here is my servant whom I have chosen, the one I love, in whom I take great delight.
I will put my Spirit on him, and he will proclaim justice to the nations.*

<sup>19</sup> He will not quarrel or cry out, nor will anyone hear his voice in the streets.

<sup>20</sup> He will not break a bruised reed or extinguish a smoldering wick, until he brings justice to victory.

<sup>21</sup> And in his name the Gentiles will hope."

Jesus and Beelzebul

<sup>22</sup> Then they brought to him a demon-possessed man who was blind and mute. Jesus healed him so that he could speak and see.

<sup>23</sup> All the crowds were amazed and said, "Could this one be the Son of David?"

<sup>24</sup> But when the Pharisees heard this they said, "He does not cast out demons except by the power of Beelzebul, the ruler of demons!"

<sup>25</sup> Now when Jesus realized what they were thinking, he said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is destroyed, and no town or house divided against itself will stand.

<sup>26</sup> So if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand?

<sup>27</sup> And if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? For this reason they will be your judges.

<sup>28</sup> But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has already overtaken you.

<sup>29</sup> How else can someone enter a strong man's house and steal his property, unless he first ties up the strong man? Then he can thoroughly plunder the house.

<sup>30</sup> Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters.

<sup>31</sup> For this reason I tell you, people will be forgiven for every sin and blasphemy, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven.

<sup>32</sup> Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven. But whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come.

Trees and Their Fruit

<sup>33</sup> "Make a tree good and its fruit will be good, or make a tree bad and its fruit will be bad, for a tree is known by its fruit.

<sup>34</sup> Offspring of vipers! How are you able to say anything good, since you are evil? For the mouth speaks from what fills the heart.

<sup>35</sup> The good person brings good things out of his good treasury, and the evil person brings evil things out of his evil treasury.

<sup>36</sup> I tell you that on the day of judgment, people will give an account for every worthless word they speak.

<sup>37</sup> For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

The Sign of Jonah

<sup>38</sup> Then some of the experts in the law along with some Pharisees answered him, "Teacher, we want to see a sign from you."

<sup>39</sup> But he answered them, "An evil and adulterous generation asks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah.

<sup>40</sup> For just as Jonah was in the belly of the huge fish for three days and three nights, so the Son of Man will be in the heart of the earth for three days and three nights.

<sup>42</sup> The queen of the South will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon – and now, something greater than Solomon is here!

The Return of the Unclean Spirit

<sup>43</sup> "When an unclean spirit goes out of a person, it passes through waterless places looking for rest but does not find it.

<sup>44</sup> Then it says, 'I will return to the home I left.' When it returns, it finds the house empty, swept clean, and put in order.

<sup>45</sup> Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they go in and live there, so the last state of that person is worse than the first. It will be that way for this evil generation as well!"

Jesus' True Family

<sup>46</sup> While Jesus was still speaking to the crowds, his mother and brothers came and stood outside, asking to speak to him.

<sup>47</sup> Someone told him, "Look, your mother and your brothers are standing outside wanting to speak to you."

<sup>48</sup> To the one who had said this, Jesus replied, “Who is my mother and who are my brothers?”

<sup>49</sup> And pointing toward his disciples he said, “Here are my mother and my brothers!

<sup>50</sup> For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother.”

13

<sup>1</sup> On that day after Jesus went out of the house, he sat by the lake.

<sup>2</sup> And such a large crowd gathered around him that he got into a boat to sit while the whole crowd stood on the shore.

<sup>3</sup> He told them many things in parables, saying: “Listen! A sower went out to sow.

<sup>4</sup> And as he sowed, some seeds fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured them.

<sup>5</sup> Other seeds fell on rocky ground where they did not have much soil. They sprang up quickly because the soil was not deep.

<sup>6</sup> But when the sun came up, they were scorched, and because they did not have sufficient root, they withered.

<sup>7</sup> Other seeds fell among the thorns, and they grew up and choked them.

<sup>8</sup> But other seeds fell on good soil and produced grain, some a hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty.

<sup>10</sup> Then the disciples came to him and said, “Why do you speak to them in parables?”

<sup>11</sup> He replied, “You have been given the opportunity to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but they have not.

<sup>12</sup> For whoever has will be given more, and will have an abundance. But whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him.

<sup>13</sup> For this reason I speak to them in parables: Although they see they do not see, and although they hear they do not hear nor do they understand.

<sup>14</sup> And concerning them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled that says:

‘ You will listen carefully yet will never understand, you will look closely yet will never comprehend.

<sup>15</sup> For the heart of this people has become dull;

they are hard of hearing,

and they have shut their eyes,

so that they would not see with their eyes

and hear with their ears

and understand with their hearts

and turn, and I would heal them.’

<sup>16</sup> “But your eyes are blessed because they see, and your ears because they hear.

<sup>17</sup> For I tell you the truth, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it.

<sup>19</sup> When anyone hears the word about the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches what was sown in his heart; this is the seed sown along the path.

<sup>20</sup> The seed sown on rocky ground is the person who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy.

<sup>21</sup> But he has no root in himself and does not endure; when trouble or persecution comes because of the word, immediately he falls away.

<sup>22</sup> The seed sown among thorns is the person who hears the word, but worldly cares and the seductiveness of wealth choke the word, so it produces nothing.

<sup>23</sup> But as for the seed sown on good soil, this is the person who hears the word and understands. He bears fruit, yielding a hundred, sixty, or thirty times what was sown.”

The Parable of the Weeds

<sup>25</sup> But while everyone was sleeping, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat and went away.

<sup>26</sup> When the plants sprouted and bore grain, then the weeds also appeared.

<sup>27</sup> So the slaves of the owner came and said to him, ‘Sir, didn’t you sow good seed in your field? Then where did the weeds come from?’

<sup>28</sup> He said, ‘An enemy has done this.’ So the slaves replied, ‘Do you want us to go and gather them?’

<sup>29</sup> But he said, ‘No, since in gathering the weeds you may uproot the wheat with them.

<sup>30</sup> Let both grow together until the harvest. At harvest time I will tell the reapers, “First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles to be burned, but then gather the wheat into my barn.” ’ ”

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

<sup>31</sup> He gave them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his field.

<sup>32</sup> It is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest garden plant and becomes a tree, so that the wild birds come and nest in its branches.”

The Parable of the Yeast

<sup>33</sup> He told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed with three measures of flour until all the dough had risen.”

The Purpose of Parables

<sup>34</sup> Jesus spoke all these things in parables to the crowds; he did not speak to them without a parable.

<sup>35</sup> This fulfilled what was spoken by the prophet:

*“ I will open my mouth in parables,
I will announce what has been hidden from the foundation of the world.”*

Explanation for the Disciples

<sup>36</sup> Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples came to him saying, “Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field.”

<sup>37</sup> He answered, “The one who sowed the good seed is the Son of Man.

<sup>38</sup> The field is the world and the good seed are the people of the kingdom. The weeds are the people of the evil one,

<sup>39</sup> and the enemy who sows them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels.

<sup>40</sup> As the weeds are collected and burned with fire, so it will be at the end of the age.

<sup>41</sup> The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will gather from his kingdom everything that causes sin as well as all lawbreakers.

<sup>42</sup> They will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

<sup>43</sup> Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. The one who has ears had better listen!

Parables on the Kingdom of Heaven

<sup>44</sup> “The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure, hidden in a field, that a person found and hid. Then because of joy he went and sold all that he had and bought that field.

<sup>46</sup> When he found a pearl of great value, he went out and sold everything he had and bought it.

<sup>47</sup> “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was cast into the sea that caught all kinds of fish.

<sup>48</sup> When it was full, they pulled it ashore, sat down, and put the good fish into containers and threw the bad away.

<sup>49</sup> It will be this way at the end of the age. Angels will come and separate the evil from the righteous <sup>50</sup> and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

<sup>52</sup> Then he said to them, “Therefore every expert in the law who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like the owner of a house who brings out of his treasure what is new and old.”

Rejection at Nazareth

<sup>53</sup> Now when Jesus finished these parables, he moved on from there.

<sup>54</sup> Then he came to his hometown and began to teach the people in their synagogue. They were astonished and said, “Where did this man get such wisdom and miraculous powers?”

<sup>57</sup> And so they took offense at him. But Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his own house.”

<sup>58</sup> And he did not do many miracles there because of their unbelief.

14

<sup>2</sup> and he said to his servants, “This is John the Baptist. He has been raised from the dead! And because of this, miraculous powers are at work in him.”

<sup>9</sup> Although it grieved the king, because of his oath and the dinner guests he commanded it to be given.

<sup>10</sup> So he sent and had John beheaded in the prison.

<sup>11</sup> His head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother.

<sup>12</sup> Then John’s disciples came and took the body and buried it and went and told Jesus.

The Feeding of the Five Thousand

<sup>13</sup> Now when Jesus heard this he went away from there privately in a boat to an isolated place. But when the crowd heard about it, they followed him on foot from the towns.

<sup>14</sup> As he got out he saw the large crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.

<sup>15</sup> When evening arrived, his disciples came to him saying, "This is an isolated place and the hour is already late. Send the crowds away so that they can go into the villages and buy food for themselves."

<sup>16</sup> But he replied, "They don't need to go. You give them something to eat."

<sup>17</sup> They said to him, "We have here only five loaves and two fish."

<sup>19</sup> Then he instructed the crowds to sit down on the grass. He took the five loaves and two fish, and looking up to heaven he gave thanks and broke the loaves. He gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds.

<sup>21</sup> Not counting women and children, there were about five thousand men who ate.

Walking on Water

<sup>22</sup> Immediately Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go ahead of him to the other side, while he dispersed the crowds.

<sup>23</sup> And after he sent the crowds away, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone.

<sup>24</sup> Meanwhile the boat, already far from land, was taking a beating from the waves because the wind was against it.

<sup>26</sup> When the disciples saw him walking on the water they were terrified and said, "It's a ghost!" and cried out with fear.

<sup>27</sup> But immediately Jesus spoke to them: "Have courage! It is I. Do not be afraid."

<sup>28</sup> Peter said to him, "Lord, if it is you, order me to come to you on the water."

<sup>29</sup> So he said, "Come." Peter got out of the boat, walked on the water, and came toward Jesus.

<sup>30</sup> But when he saw the strong wind he became afraid. And starting to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!"

<sup>31</sup> Immediately Jesus reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?"

<sup>32</sup> When they went up into the boat, the wind ceased.

<sup>33</sup> Then those who were in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

<sup>35</sup> When the people there recognized him, they sent word into all the surrounding area, and they brought all their sick to him.

<sup>36</sup> They begged him if they could only touch the edge of his cloak, and all who touched it were healed.

15

<sup>1</sup> Then Pharisees and experts in the law came from Jerusalem to Jesus and said,

<sup>3</sup> He answered them, "And why do you disobey the commandment of God because of your tradition?"

<sup>4</sup> For God said, ‘Honor your father and mother’ and ‘Whoever insults his father or mother must be put to death.’

<sup>5</sup> But you say, ‘If someone tells his father or mother, “Whatever help you would have received from me is given to God,”

<sup>6</sup> he does not need to honor his father.’ You have nullified the word of God on account of your tradition.

<sup>7</sup> Hypocrites! Isaiah prophesied correctly about you when he said,

<sup>8</sup> ‘This people honors me with their lips,
but their heart is |strong="G0568" far from me,

<sup>9</sup> and they worship me in vain, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.’ ”

True Defilement

<sup>10</sup> Then he called the crowd to him and said, “Listen and understand.

<sup>11</sup> What defiles a person is not what goes into the mouth; it is what comes out of the mouth that defiles a person.”

<sup>12</sup> Then the disciples came to him and said, “Do you know that when the Pharisees heard this saying they were offended?”

<sup>13</sup> And he replied, “Every plant that my heavenly Father did not plant will be uprooted.

<sup>14</sup> Leave them! They are blind guides. If someone who is blind leads another who is blind, both will fall into a pit.”

<sup>17</sup> Don’t you understand that whatever goes into the mouth enters the stomach and then passes out into the sewer?

<sup>18</sup> But the things that come out of the mouth come from the heart, and these things defile a person.

<sup>19</sup> For out of the heart come evil ideas, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false testimony, slander.

A Canaanite Woman's Faith

<sup>21</sup> After going out from there, Jesus went to the region of Tyre

<sup>22</sup> A Canaanite woman from that area came and cried out, “Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is horribly demon-possessed!”

<sup>23</sup> But he did not answer her a word. Then his disciples came and begged him, “Send her away, because she keeps on crying out after us.”

<sup>24</sup> So he answered, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.”

<sup>25</sup> But she came and bowed down before him and said, “Lord, help me!”

<sup>26</sup> “It is not right to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs,” he said.

<sup>28</sup> Then Jesus answered her, “Woman, your faith is great! Let what you want be done for you.” And her daughter was healed from that hour.

Healing Many Others

<sup>29</sup> When he left there, Jesus went along the Sea of Galilee. Then he went up a mountain, where he sat down.

<sup>30</sup> Then large crowds came to him bringing with them the lame, blind, crippled, mute, and many others. They laid them at his feet, and he healed them.

<sup>31</sup> As a result, the crowd was amazed when they saw the mute speaking, the crippled healthy, the lame walking, and the blind seeing, and they praised the God of Israel.

The Feeding of the Four Thousand

<sup>32</sup> Then Jesus called the disciples and said, "I have compassion on the crowd, because they have already been here with me three days and they have nothing to eat. I don't want to send them away hungry since they may faint on the way."

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said to them, "How many loaves do you have?" They replied, "Seven - and a few small fish."

<sup>36</sup> he took the seven loaves and the fish, and after giving thanks, he broke them and began giving them to the disciples, who then gave them to the crowds.

<sup>39</sup> After sending away the crowd, he got into the boat and went to the region of Magadan.

16

<sup>1</sup> Now when the Pharisees and Sadducees came to test Jesus, they asked him to show them a sign from heaven.

<sup>2</sup> He said, "When evening comes you say, 'It will be fair weather, because the sky is red,'

<sup>3</sup> and in the morning, 'It will be stormy today, because the sky is red and darkening.' You know how to judge correctly the appearance of the sky, but you cannot evaluate the signs of the times.

<sup>4</sup> A wicked and adulterous generation asks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah." Then he left them and went away.

The Yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees

<sup>5</sup> When the disciples went to the other side, they forgot to take bread.

<sup>6</sup> "Watch out," Jesus said to them, "beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees."

<sup>8</sup> When Jesus learned of this, he said, "You who have such little faith! Why are you arguing among yourselves about having no bread?"

<sup>9</sup> Do you still not understand? Don't you remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you took up?

<sup>10</sup> Or the seven loaves for the four thousand and how many baskets you took up?

<sup>11</sup> How could you not understand that I was not speaking to you about bread? But beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees!"

<sup>12</sup> Then they understood that he had not told them to be on guard against the yeast in bread, but against the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Peter's Confession

<sup>13</sup> When Jesus came to the area of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?"

<sup>15</sup> He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

<sup>17</sup> And Jesus answered him, "You are blessed, Simon son of Jonah, because flesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but my Father in heaven!"

<sup>18</sup> And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not overpower it.

<sup>19</sup> I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven, and whatever you release on earth will have been released in heaven."

<sup>20</sup> Then he instructed his disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Christ.

First Prediction of Jesus' Death and Resurrection

<sup>21</sup> From that time on Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things at the hands of the elders, chief priests, and experts in the law, and be killed, and on the third day be raised.

<sup>22</sup> So Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him: "God forbid, Lord! This must not happen to you!"

<sup>23</sup> But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me, because you are not setting your mind on God's interests, but on man's."

<sup>24</sup> Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone wants to become my follower, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.

<sup>25</sup> For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

<sup>26</sup> For what does it benefit a person if he gains the whole world but forfeits his life? Or what can a person give in exchange for his life?

<sup>27</sup> For the Son of Man will come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will reward each person according to what he has done.

<sup>28</sup> I tell you the truth, there are some standing here who will not experience death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

17

<sup>1</sup> Six days later Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John the brother of James, and led them privately up a high mountain.

<sup>4</sup> So Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you want, I will make three shelters – one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

<sup>5</sup> While he was still speaking, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my one dear Son, in whom I take great delight. Listen to him!"

<sup>6</sup> When the disciples heard this, they were overwhelmed with fear and threw themselves down with their faces to the ground.

<sup>7</sup> But Jesus came and touched them. "Get up," he said. "Do not be afraid."

<sup>8</sup> When they looked up, all they saw was Jesus alone.

<sup>9</sup> As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, "Do not tell anyone about the vision until the Son of Man is raised from the dead."

<sup>10</sup> The disciples asked him, "Why then do the experts in the law say that Elijah must come first?"

<sup>11</sup> He answered, "Elijah does indeed come first and will restore all things.

<sup>12</sup> And I tell you that Elijah has already come. Yet they did not recognize him, but did to him whatever they wanted. In the same way, the Son of Man will suffer at their hands."

<sup>13</sup> Then the disciples understood that he was speaking to them about John the Baptist.

The Disciples' Failure to Heal

- <sup>14</sup> When they came to the crowd, a man came to him, knelt before him, <sup>15</sup> and said, "Lord, have mercy on my son, because he has seizures and suffers terribly, for he often falls into the fire and into the water.
<sup>16</sup> I brought him to your disciples, but they were not able to heal him."
<sup>17</sup> Jesus answered, "You unbelieving and perverse generation! How much longer must I be with you? How much longer must I endure you? Bring him here to me."
<sup>18</sup> Then Jesus rebuked the demon and it came out of him, and the boy was healed from that moment.
<sup>19</sup> Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why couldn't we cast it out?"
<sup>20</sup> He told them, "It was because of your little faith. I tell you the truth, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; nothing will be impossible for you."
<sup>21</sup> *

<sup>22</sup> When they gathered together in Galilee, Jesus told them, "The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of men.

<sup>23</sup> They will kill him, and on the third day he will be raised." And they became greatly distressed.

The Temple Tax

- <sup>24</sup> After they arrived in Capernaum, the collectors of the temple tax came to Peter and said, "Your teacher pays the double drachma tax, doesn't he?"
<sup>25</sup> He said, "Yes." When Peter came into the house, Jesus spoke to him first, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do earthly kings collect tolls or taxes – from their sons or from foreigners?"
<sup>26</sup> After he said, "From foreigners," Jesus said to him, "Then the sons are free.
<sup>27</sup> But so that we don't offend them, go to the lake and throw out a hook. Take the first fish that comes up, and when you open its mouth, you will find a four drachma coin. Take that and give it to them for me and you."

18

<sup>1</sup> At that time the disciples came to Jesus saying, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"

- <sup>2</sup> He called a child, had him stand among them, <sup>3</sup> and said, "I tell you the truth, unless you turn around and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven!
<sup>4</sup> Whoever then humbles himself like this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

- <sup>5</sup> And whoever welcomes a child like this in my name welcomes me.
<sup>6</sup> "But if anyone causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him to have a huge millstone hung around his neck and to be drowned in the open sea.
<sup>7</sup> Woe to the world because of stumbling blocks! It is necessary that stumbling blocks come, but woe to the person through whom they come.
<sup>8</sup> If your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life crippled or lame than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into eternal fire.
<sup>9</sup> And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into fiery hell.

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

---

* 17:21 [[EMPTY]]

<sup>10</sup> “See that you do not disdain one of these little ones. For I tell you that their angels in heaven always see the face of my Father in heaven.

<sup>11</sup> *

<sup>12</sup> What do you think? If someone owns a hundred sheep and one of them goes astray, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go look for the one that went astray?

<sup>13</sup> And if he finds it, I tell you the truth, he will rejoice more over it than over the ninety-nine that did not go astray.

<sup>14</sup> In the same way, your Father in heaven is not willing that one of these little ones be lost.

Restoring Christian Relationships

<sup>15</sup> “If your brother sins, go and show him his fault when the two of you are alone. If he listens to you, you have regained your brother.

<sup>16</sup> But if he does not listen, take one or two others with you, so that at the testimony of two or three witnesses every matter may be established.

<sup>17</sup> If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. If he refuses to listen to the church, treat him like a Gentile or a tax collector.

<sup>18</sup> “I tell you the truth, whatever you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven, and whatever you release on earth will have been released in heaven.

<sup>19</sup> Again, I tell you the truth, if two of you on earth agree about whatever you ask, my Father in heaven will do it for you.

<sup>20</sup> For where two or three are assembled in my name, I am there among them.”

<sup>21</sup> Then Peter came to him and said, “Lord, how many times must I forgive my brother who sins against me? As many as seven times?”

<sup>22</sup> Jesus said to him, “Not seven times, I tell you, but seventy-seven times!

The Parable of the Unforgiving Slave

<sup>23</sup> “For this reason, the kingdom of heaven is like a king who wanted to settle accounts with his slaves.

<sup>24</sup> As he began settling his accounts, a man who owed ten thousand talents was brought to him.

<sup>25</sup> Because he was not able to repay it, the lord ordered him to be sold, along with his wife, children, and whatever he possessed, and repayment to be made.

<sup>26</sup> Then the slave threw himself to the ground before him, saying, ‘Be patient with me, and I will repay you everything.’

<sup>27</sup> The lord had compassion on that slave and released him, and forgave him the debt.

<sup>28</sup> After he went out, that same slave found one of his fellow slaves who owed him one hundred silver coins. So he grabbed him by the throat and started to choke him, saying, ‘Pay back what you owe me!’

<sup>29</sup> Then his fellow slave threw himself down and begged him, ‘Be patient with me, and I will repay you.’

<sup>30</sup> But he refused. Instead, he went out and threw him in prison until he repaid the debt.

<sup>31</sup> When his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were very upset and went and told their lord everything that had taken place.

<sup>32</sup> Then his lord called the first slave and said to him, ‘Evil slave! I forgave you all that debt because you begged me!

<sup>33</sup> Should you not have shown mercy to your fellow slave, just as I showed it to you?’

<sup>34</sup> And in anger his lord turned him over to the prison guards to torture him until he repaid all he owed.

* 18:11 [[EMPTY]]

<sup>35</sup> So also my heavenly Father will do to you, if each of you does not forgive your brother from your heart."

19

<sup>3</sup> Then some Pharisees came to him in order to test him. They asked, "Is it lawful to divorce a wife for any cause?"

<sup>4</sup> He answered, "Have you not read that from the beginning the Creator made| strong="G4160" them male and female them male and female,

<sup>5</sup> and said, 'For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and will be united with his wife, and the two will become one flesh?'

<sup>6</sup> So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate."

<sup>7</sup> They said to him, "Why then did Moses command us to give a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her?"

<sup>8</sup> Jesus said to them, "Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because of your hard hearts, but from the beginning it was not this way.

<sup>9</sup> Now I say to you that whoever divorces his wife, except for immorality, and marries another commits adultery."

<sup>10</sup> The disciples said to him, "If this is the case of a husband with a wife, it is better not to marry!"

<sup>11</sup> He said to them, "Not everyone can accept this statement, except those to whom it has been given.

<sup>12</sup> For there are some eunuchs who were that way from birth, and some who were made eunuchs by others, and some who became eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. The one who is able to accept this should accept it."

Jesus and Little Children

<sup>13</sup> Then little children were brought to him for him to lay his hands on them and pray. But the disciples scolded those who brought them.

<sup>14</sup> But Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me and do not try to stop them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

<sup>15</sup> And he placed his hands on them and went on his way.

The Rich Young Man

<sup>16</sup> Now someone came up to him and said, "Teacher, what good thing must I do to gain eternal life?"

<sup>17</sup> He said to him, "Why do you ask me about what is good? There is only one who is good. But if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments."

<sup>18</sup> "Which ones?" he asked. Jesus replied, "Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, <sup>19</sup> honor your father and mother, and love| strong="G0025" your neighbor as yourself your neighbor as yourself."

<sup>20</sup> The young man said to him, "I have wholeheartedly obeyed all these laws. What do I still lack?"

<sup>21</sup> Jesus said to him, "If you wish to be perfect, go sell your possessions and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me."

<sup>22</sup> But when the young man heard this he went away sorrowful, for he was very rich.

<sup>23</sup> Then Jesus said to his disciples, "I tell you the truth, it will be hard for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven!"

<sup>25</sup> The disciples were greatly astonished when they heard this and said, "Then who can be saved?"

<sup>27</sup> Then Peter said to him, "Look, we have left everything to follow you! What then will there be for us?"

<sup>28</sup> Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth: In the age when all things are renewed, when the Son of Man sits on his glorious throne, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel."

<sup>29</sup> And whoever has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or fields for my sake will receive a hundred times as much and will inherit eternal life."

<sup>30</sup> But many who are first will be last, and the last first."

20

<sup>3</sup> When it was about nine o'clock in the morning, he went out again and saw others standing around in the marketplace without work."

<sup>4</sup> He said to them, 'You go into the vineyard too, and I will give you whatever is right.'

<sup>5</sup> So they went. When he went out again about noon and three o'clock that afternoon, he did the same thing."

<sup>6</sup> And about five o'clock that afternoon he went out and found others standing around, and said to them, 'Why are you standing here all day without work?'

<sup>7</sup> They said to him, 'Because no one hired us.' He said to them, 'You go and work in the vineyard too.'

<sup>8</sup> When it was evening the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, 'Call the workers and give the pay starting with the last hired until the first.'

<sup>10</sup> And when those hired first came, they thought they would receive more. But each one also received the standard wage."

<sup>11</sup> When they received it, they began to complain against the landowner,

<sup>12</sup> saying, 'These last fellows worked one hour, and you have made them equal to us who bore the hardship and burning heat of the day.'

<sup>13</sup> And the landowner replied to one of them, 'Friend, I am not treating you unfairly. Didn't you agree with me to work for the standard wage?'

<sup>14</sup> Take what is yours and go. I want to give to this last man the same as I gave to you."

<sup>15</sup> Am I not permitted to do what I want with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?'

<sup>16</sup> So the last will be first, and the first last."

Third Prediction of Jesus' Death and Resurrection

<sup>17</sup> As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve aside privately and said to them on the way,

<sup>18</sup> "Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the experts in the law. They will condemn him to death, <sup>19</sup> and will turn him over to the Gentiles to be mocked and flogged severely and crucified. Yet on the third day, he will be raised."

A Request for James and John

<sup>20</sup> Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came to him with her sons, and kneeling down she asked him for a favor.

<sup>21</sup> He said to her, "What do you want?" She replied, "Permit these two sons of mine to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your kingdom."

<sup>22</sup> Jesus answered, "You don't know what you are asking! Are you able to drink the cup I am about to drink?" They said to him, "We are able."

<sup>23</sup> He told them, "You will drink my cup, but to sit at my right and at my left is not mine to give. Rather, it is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father."

<sup>24</sup> Now when the other ten heard this, they were angry with the two brothers.

<sup>25</sup> But Jesus called them and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those in high positions use their authority over them.

<sup>26</sup> It must not be this way among you! Instead whoever wants to be great among you must be your servant,

<sup>27</sup> and whoever wants to be first among you must be your slave –

<sup>28</sup> just as the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Two Blind Men Healed

<sup>30</sup> Two blind men were sitting by the road. When they heard that Jesus was passing by, they shouted, "Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David!"

<sup>31</sup> The crowd scolded them to get them to be quiet. But they shouted even more loudly, "Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!"

<sup>34</sup> Moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes. Immediately they received their sight and followed him.

21

<sup>1</sup> Now when they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, <sup>2</sup> telling them, "Go to the village ahead of you. Right away you will find a donkey tied there, and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to me.

<sup>3</sup> If anyone says anything to you, you are to say, 'The Lord needs them,' and he will send them at once."

'Look, your king is coming to you,
unassuming and seated on a donkey, and on a colt, the foal of a donkey.' "

<sup>6</sup> So the disciples went and did as Jesus had instructed them.

<sup>7</sup> They brought the donkey and the colt and placed their cloaks on them, and he sat on them.

<sup>9</sup> The crowds that went ahead of him and those following kept shouting, "Hosanna | strong="G5614" to the Son of David! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna | strong="G5614" in the highest!"

<sup>11</sup> And the crowds were saying, “This is the prophet Jesus, from Nazareth in Galilee.”

Cleansing the Temple

<sup>12</sup> Then Jesus entered the temple area and drove out all those who were selling and buying in the temple courts, and turned over the tables of the money changers and the chairs of those selling doves.

<sup>13</sup> And he said to them, “It is written, ‘My house will be called a house of prayer,’ but you are turning it into a den of robbers!”

<sup>14</sup> The blind and lame came to him in the temple courts, and he healed them.

<sup>15</sup> But when the chief priests and the experts in the law saw the wonderful things he did and heard the children crying out in the temple courts, “Hosanna to the Son of David,” they became indignant

<sup>16</sup> and said to him, “Do you hear what they are saying?” Jesus said to them, “Yes. Have you never read, ‘Out of the mouths of children and nursing infants you have prepared praise for yourself?’”

<sup>17</sup> And leaving them, he went out of the city to Bethany and spent the night there.

The Withered Fig Tree

<sup>18</sup> Now early in the morning, as he returned to the city, he was hungry.

<sup>19</sup> After noticing a fig tree by the road he went to it, but found nothing on it except leaves. He said to it, “Never again will there be fruit from you!” And the fig tree withered at once.

<sup>20</sup> When the disciples saw it they were amazed, saying, “How did the fig tree wither so quickly?”

<sup>21</sup> Jesus answered them, “I tell you the truth, if you have faith and do not doubt, not only will you do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, ‘Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,’ it will happen.

<sup>22</sup> And whatever you ask in prayer, if you believe, you will receive.”

The Authority of Jesus

<sup>23</sup> Now after Jesus entered the temple courts, the chief priests and elders of the people came up to him as he was teaching and said, “By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?”

<sup>24</sup> Jesus answered them, “I will also ask you one question. If you answer me then I will also tell you by what authority I do these things.

<sup>25</sup> Where did John’s baptism come from? From heaven or from people?” They discussed this among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say, ‘Then why did you not believe him?’”

<sup>26</sup> But if we say, ‘From people,’ we fear the crowd, for they all consider John to be a prophet.”

<sup>27</sup> So they answered Jesus, “We don’t know.” Then he said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

The Parable of the Two Sons

<sup>28</sup> “What do you think? A man had two sons. He went to the first and said, ‘Son, go and work in the vineyard today.’

<sup>29</sup> The boy answered, ‘I will not.’ But later he had a change of heart and went.

<sup>30</sup> The father went to the other son and said the same thing. This boy answered, ‘I will, sir,’ but did not go.

<sup>31</sup> Which of the two did his father’s will?” They said, “The first.” Jesus said to them, “I tell you the truth, tax collectors and prostitutes will go ahead of you into the kingdom of God!

<sup>32</sup> For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him. But the tax collectors and prostitutes did believe. Although you saw this, you did not later change your minds and believe him.

The Parable of the Tenants

<sup>33</sup> “Listen to another parable: There was a landowner who planted a vineyard. He put a fence around it, dug a pit for its winepress, and built a watchtower. Then he leased it to tenant farmers and went on a journey.

<sup>34</sup> When the harvest time was near, he sent his slaves to the tenants to collect his portion of the crop.

<sup>37</sup> Finally he sent his son to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’

<sup>38</sup> But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, ‘This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him and get his inheritance!’

<sup>39</sup> So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

<sup>40</sup> Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?”

<sup>41</sup> They said to him, “He will utterly destroy those evil men! Then he will lease the vineyard to other tenants who will give him his portion at the harvest.”

<sup>42</sup> Jesus said to them, “Have you never read in the scriptures:

‘The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. This is from the Lord, and it is marvelous in our eyes’?

<sup>43</sup> For this reason I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit.

<sup>44</sup> The one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, and the one on whom it falls will be crushed.”

<sup>45</sup> When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they realized that he was speaking about them.

<sup>46</sup> They wanted to arrest him, but they were afraid of the crowds, because the crowds regarded him as a prophet.

<sup>3</sup> He sent his slaves to summon those who had been invited to the banquet, but they would not come.

<sup>4</sup> Again he sent other slaves, saying, ‘Tell those who have been invited, “Look! The feast I have prepared for you is ready. My oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet.”’

<sup>5</sup> But they were indifferent and went away, one to his farm, another to his business.

<sup>7</sup> The king was furious! He sent his soldiers, and they put those murderers to death and set their city on fire.

<sup>8</sup> Then he said to his slaves, ‘The wedding is ready, but the ones who had been invited were not worthy.

<sup>9</sup> So go into the main streets and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.’

<sup>10</sup> And those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all they found, both bad and good, and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

<sup>11</sup> But when the king came in to see the wedding guests, he saw a man there who was not wearing wedding clothes.

<sup>12</sup> And he said to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without wedding clothes?' But he had nothing to say.

<sup>13</sup> Then the king said to his attendants, 'Tie him up hand and foot and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth!'

<sup>14</sup> For many are called, but few are chosen."

Paying Taxes to Caesar

<sup>15</sup> Then the Pharisees went out and planned together to entrap him with his own words.

<sup>16</sup> They sent to him their disciples along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are truthful, and teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. You do not court anyone's favor because you show no partiality.

<sup>17</sup> Tell us then, what do you think? Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

<sup>18</sup> But Jesus realized their evil intentions and said, "Hypocrites! Why are you testing me?"

<sup>21</sup> They replied, "Caesar's." He said to them, "Then give to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

<sup>22</sup> Now when they heard this they were stunned, and they left him and went away.

Marriage and the Resurrection

<sup>23</sup> The same day Sadducees (who say there is no resurrection) came to him and asked him,

<sup>24</sup> "Teacher, Moses said, 'If a man dies without having children, his brother must marry the widow and father children for his brother.'"

<sup>25</sup> Now there were seven brothers among us. The first one married and died, and since he had no children he left his wife to his brother.

<sup>26</sup> The second did the same, and the third, down to the seventh.

<sup>28</sup> In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife of the seven will she be? For they all had married her."

<sup>29</sup> Jesus answered them, "You are deceived, because you don't know the scriptures or the power of God.

<sup>30</sup> For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.

<sup>31</sup> Now as for the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by God, <sup>32</sup> 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? He is not the God of the dead but of the living!"

<sup>33</sup> When the crowds heard this, they were amazed at his teaching.

The Greatest Commandment

<sup>34</sup> Now when the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they assembled together.

<sup>35</sup> And one of them, an expert in religious law, asked him a question to test him:

<sup>37</sup> Jesus said to him, "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.'"

The Messiah: David's Son and Lord

<sup>41</sup> While the Pharisees were assembled, Jesus asked them a question:

<sup>42</sup> “What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is he?” They said, “The son of David.”

<sup>43</sup> He said to them, “How then does David by the Spirit call him ‘Lord,’ saying,

<sup>44</sup> ‘The Lord said to my lord,

“Sit at my right hand,

until I put your enemies under your feet”’?

<sup>46</sup> No one was able to answer him a word, and from that day on no one dared to question him any longer.

<sup>4</sup> They tie up heavy loads, hard to carry, and put them on men’s shoulders, but they themselves are not willing even to lift a finger to move them.

<sup>5</sup> They do all their deeds to be seen by people, for they make their phylacteries wide and their tassels long.

<sup>6</sup> They love the place of honor at banquets and the best seats in the synagogues

<sup>7</sup> and elaborate greetings in the marketplaces, and to have people call them ‘Rabbi.’

<sup>8</sup> But you are not to be called ‘Rabbi,’ for you have one Teacher and you are all brothers.

<sup>9</sup> And call no one your ‘father’ on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven.

<sup>10</sup> Nor are you to be called ‘teacher,’ for you have one teacher, the Christ.

<sup>11</sup> The greatest among you will be your servant.

<sup>12</sup> And whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.

<sup>13</sup> “But woe to you, experts in the law and you Pharisees, hypocrites! You keep locking people out of the kingdom of heaven! For you neither enter nor permit those trying to enter to enter in.

<sup>14</sup> *

<sup>15</sup> “Woe to you, experts in the law and you Pharisees, hypocrites! You cross land and sea to make one convert, and when you get one, you make him twice as much a child of hell as yourselves!

<sup>17</sup> Blind fools! Which is greater, the gold or the temple that makes the gold sacred?

<sup>18</sup> And, ‘Whoever swears by the altar is bound by nothing. But if anyone swears by the gift on it he is bound by the oath.’

<sup>19</sup> You are blind! For which is greater, the gift or the altar that makes the gift sacred?

<sup>20</sup> So whoever swears by the altar swears by it and by everything on it.

<sup>21</sup> And whoever swears by the temple swears by it and the one who dwells in it.

<sup>22</sup> And whoever swears by heaven swears by the throne of God and the one who sits on it.

<sup>23</sup> “Woe to you, experts in the law and you Pharisees, hypocrites! You give a tenth of mint, dill, and cumin, yet you neglect what is more important in the law – justice, mercy, and faithfulness! You should have done these things without neglecting the others.

* 23:14 [[EMPTY]]

<sup>25</sup> “Woe to you, experts in the law and you Pharisees, hypocrites! You clean the outside of the cup and the dish, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence.

<sup>26</sup> Blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup, so that the outside may become clean too!

<sup>27</sup> “Woe to you, experts in the law and you Pharisees, hypocrites! You are like whitewashed tombs that look beautiful on the outside but inside are full of the bones of the dead and of everything unclean.

<sup>28</sup> In the same way, on the outside you look righteous to people, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

<sup>29</sup> “Woe to you, experts in the law and you Pharisees, hypocrites! You build tombs for the prophets and decorate the graves of the righteous.

<sup>30</sup> And you say, ‘If we had lived in the days of our ancestors, we would not have participated with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.’

<sup>31</sup> By saying this you testify against yourselves that you are descendants of those who murdered the prophets.

<sup>33</sup> You snakes, you offspring of vipers! How will you escape being condemned to hell?

<sup>34</sup> “For this reason I am sending you prophets and wise men and experts in the law, some of whom you will kill and crucify, and some you will flog in your synagogues and pursue from town to town, <sup>35</sup> so that on you will come all the righteous blood shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Barachiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar.

<sup>36</sup> I tell you the truth, this generation will be held responsible for all these things!

Judgment on Israel

<sup>37</sup> “O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those who are sent to you! How often I have longed to gather your children together as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you would have none of it!

<sup>39</sup> For I tell you, you will not see me from now until you say, ‘Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!’ ”

24

<sup>1</sup> Now as Jesus was going out of the temple courts and walking away, his disciples came to show him the temple buildings.

<sup>2</sup> And he said to them, “Do you see all these things? I tell you the truth, not one stone will be left on another. All will be torn down!”

Signs of the End of the Age

<sup>3</sup> As he was sitting on the Mount of Olives, his disciples came to him privately and said, “Tell us, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?”

<sup>5</sup> For many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am the Christ,’ and they will mislead many.

<sup>6</sup> You will hear of wars and rumors of wars. Make sure that you are not alarmed, for this must happen, but the end is still to come.

<sup>7</sup> For nation will rise up in arms against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be famines and earthquakes in various places.

Persecution of Disciples

<sup>9</sup> “Then they will hand you over to be persecuted and will kill you. You will be hated by all the nations because of my name.

<sup>10</sup> Then many will be led into sin, and they will betray one another and hate one another.

<sup>11</sup> And many false prophets will appear and deceive many,

<sup>12</sup> and because lawlessness will increase so much, the love of many will grow cold.

<sup>13</sup> But the person who endures to the end will be saved.

<sup>14</sup> And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached throughout the whole inhabited earth as a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.

The Abomination of Desolation

<sup>15</sup> “So when you see the abomination of desolation – spoken about by Daniel the prophet – standing in the holy place (let the reader understand), <sup>16</sup> then those in Judea must flee to the mountains.

<sup>17</sup> The one on the roof must not come down to take anything out of his house,

<sup>20</sup> Pray that your flight may not be in winter or on a Sabbath.

<sup>21</sup> For then there will be great suffering unlike anything that has happened from the beginning of the world until now, or ever will happen.

<sup>22</sup> And if those days had not been cut short, no one would be saved. But for the sake of the elect those days will be cut short.

<sup>23</sup> Then if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here is the Christ!’ or ‘There he is!’ do not believe him.

<sup>24</sup> For false messiahs and false prophets will appear and perform great signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect.

<sup>26</sup> So then, if someone says to you, ‘Look, he is in the wilderness,’ do not go out, or ‘Look, he is in the inner rooms,’ do not believe him.

<sup>27</sup> For just like the lightning comes from the east and flashes to the west, so the coming of the Son of Man will be.

The Arrival of the Son of Man

<sup>29</sup> “Immediately after the suffering of those days, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of heaven will be shaken.

<sup>30</sup> Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and all the tribes of the earth will mourn. They will see the Son of Man arriving on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

<sup>31</sup> And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet blast, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

The Parable of the Fig Tree

<sup>32</sup> “Learn this parable from the fig tree: Whenever its branch becomes tender and puts out its leaves, you know that summer is near.

<sup>33</sup> So also you, when you see all these things, know that he is near, right at the door.

<sup>34</sup> I tell you the truth, this generation will not pass away until all these things take place.

<sup>35</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

Be Ready!

<sup>36</sup> “But as for that day and hour no one knows it – not even the angels in heaven – except the Father alone.

<sup>37</sup> For just like the days of Noah were, so the coming of the Son of Man will be.

<sup>38</sup> For in those days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day Noah entered the ark.

<sup>39</sup> And they knew nothing until the flood came and took them all away. It will be the same at the coming of the Son of Man.

<sup>40</sup> Then there will be two men in the field; one will be taken and one left.

<sup>41</sup> There will be two women grinding grain with a mill; one will be taken and one left.

<sup>42</sup> “Therefore stay alert, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come.

<sup>43</sup> But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what time of night the thief was coming, he would have been alert and would not have let his house be broken into.

<sup>44</sup> Therefore you also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him.

The Faithful and Wise Slave

<sup>45</sup> “Who then is the faithful and wise slave, whom the master has put in charge of his household, to give the other slaves their food at the proper time?

<sup>47</sup> I tell you the truth, the master will put him in charge of all his possessions.

<sup>48</sup> But if that evil slave should say to himself, ‘My master is staying away a long time,’

<sup>49</sup> and he begins to beat his fellow slaves and to eat and drink with drunkards,

<sup>50</sup> then the master of that slave will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not foresee, <sup>51</sup> and will cut him in two, and assign him a place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

25

<sup>1</sup> “At that time the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom.

<sup>6</sup> But at midnight there was a shout, ‘Look, the bridegroom is here! Come out to meet him.’

<sup>9</sup> ‘No,’ they replied. ‘There won’t be enough for you and for us. Go instead to those who sell oil and buy some for yourselves.’

<sup>10</sup> But while they had gone to buy it, the bridegroom arrived, and those who were ready went inside with him to the wedding banquet. Then the door was shut.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore stay alert, because you do not know the day or the hour.

The Parable of the Talents

<sup>14</sup> “For it is like a man going on a journey, who summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them.

<sup>15</sup> To one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, each according to his ability. Then he went on his journey.

<sup>16</sup> The one who had received five talents went off right away and put his money to work and gained five more.

<sup>18</sup> But the one who had received one talent went out and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master’s money in it.

<sup>19</sup> After a long time, the master of those slaves came and settled his accounts with them.

<sup>20</sup> The one who had received the five talents came and brought five more, saying, ‘Sir, you entrusted me with five talents. See, I have gained five more.’

<sup>21</sup> His master answered, ‘Well done, good and faithful slave! You have been faithful in a few things. I will put you in charge of many things. Enter into the joy of your master.’

<sup>22</sup> The one with the two talents also came and said, ‘Sir, you entrusted two talents to me. See, I have gained two more.’

<sup>23</sup> His master answered, ‘Well done, good and faithful slave! You have been faithful with a few things. I will put you in charge of many things. Enter into the joy of your master.’

<sup>24</sup> Then the one who had received the one talent came and said, ‘Sir, I knew that you were a hard man, harvesting where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed,

<sup>25</sup> so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. See, you have what is yours.’

<sup>26</sup> But his master answered, ‘Evil and lazy slave! So you knew that I harvest where I didn’t sow and gather where I didn’t scatter?

<sup>27</sup> Then you should have deposited my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received my money back with interest!

<sup>28</sup> Therefore take the talent from him and give it to the one who has ten.

<sup>29</sup> For the one who has will be given more, and he will have more than enough. But the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken from him.

<sup>30</sup> And throw that worthless slave into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’

The Judgment

<sup>31</sup> “When the Son of Man comes in his glory and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne.

<sup>32</sup> All the nations will be assembled before him, and he will separate people one from another like a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.

<sup>34</sup> Then the king will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

<sup>35</sup> For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in,

<sup>36</sup> I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.’

<sup>37</sup> Then the righteous will answer him, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink?

<sup>38</sup> When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or naked and clothe you?

<sup>39</sup> When did we see you sick or in prison and visit you?’

<sup>40</sup> And the king will answer them, 'I tell you the truth, just as you did it for one of the least of these brothers or sisters of mine, you did it for me.'

<sup>41</sup> "Then he will say to those on his left, 'Depart from me, you accursed, into the eternal fire that has been prepared for the devil and his angels!'

<sup>42</sup> For I was hungry and you gave me nothing to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink.

<sup>43</sup> I was a stranger and you did not receive me as a guest, naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.'

<sup>44</sup> Then they too will answer, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not give you whatever you needed?'

<sup>45</sup> Then he will answer them, 'I tell you the truth, just as you did not do it for one of the least of these, you did not do it for me.'

26

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus had finished saying all these things, he told his disciples,

<sup>2</sup> "You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified."

<sup>3</sup> Then the chief priests and the elders of the people met together in the palace of the high priest, who was named Caiaphas.

<sup>5</sup> But they said, "Not during the feast, so that there won't be a riot among the people."

Jesus' Anointing

<sup>7</sup> a woman came to him with an alabaster jar of expensive perfumed oil, and she poured it on his head as he was at the table.

<sup>8</sup> When the disciples saw this, they became indignant and said, "Why this waste?

<sup>9</sup> It could have been sold at a high price and the money given to the poor!"

<sup>10</sup> When Jesus learned of this, he said to them, "Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a good service for me.

<sup>11</sup> For you will always have the poor with you, but you will not always have me!

<sup>12</sup> When she poured this oil on my body, she did it to prepare me for burial.

<sup>13</sup> I tell you the truth, wherever this gospel is proclaimed in the whole world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her."

The Plan to Betray Jesus

<sup>14</sup> Then one of the twelve, the one named Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests

<sup>15</sup> and said, "What will you give me to betray him into your hands?" So they set out thirty silver coins for him.

<sup>16</sup> From that time on, Judas began looking for an opportunity to betray him.

The Passover

<sup>17</sup> Now on the first day of the feast of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus and said, "Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?"

<sup>18</sup> He said, "Go into the city to a certain man and tell him, 'The Teacher says, "My time is near. I will observe the Passover with my disciples at your house." ' ' "

<sup>19</sup> So the disciples did as Jesus had instructed them, and they prepared the Passover.

<sup>21</sup> And while they were eating he said, "I tell you the truth, one of you will betray me."

<sup>23</sup> He answered, "The one who has dipped his hand into the bowl with me will betray me.

<sup>24</sup> The Son of Man will go as it is written about him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for him if he had never been born."

<sup>25</sup> Then Judas, the one who would betray him, said, "Surely not I, Rabbi?" Jesus replied, "You have said it yourself."

The Lord's Supper

<sup>26</sup> While they were eating, Jesus took bread, and after giving thanks he broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat, this is my body."

<sup>27</sup> And after taking the cup and giving thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you,

<sup>28</sup> for this is my blood, the blood of the covenant, that is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

<sup>29</sup> I tell you, from now on I will not drink of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom."

<sup>30</sup> After singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

The Prediction of Peter's Denial

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "This night you will all fall away because of me, for it is written:

'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'

<sup>33</sup> Peter said to him, "If they all fall away because of you, I will never fall away!"

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said to him, "I tell you the truth, on this night, before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times."

<sup>35</sup> Peter said to him, "Even if I must die with you, I will never deny you." And all the disciples said the same thing.

Gethsemane

<sup>36</sup> Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to the disciples, "Sit here while I go over there and pray."

<sup>37</sup> He took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and became anguished and distressed.

<sup>38</sup> Then he said to them, "My soul is deeply grieved, even to the point of death. Remain here and stay awake with me."

<sup>39</sup> Going a little farther, he threw himself down with his face to the ground and prayed, "My Father, if possible, let this cup pass from me! Yet not what I will, but what you will."

<sup>40</sup> Then he came to the disciples and found them sleeping. He said to Peter, "So, couldn't you stay awake with me for one hour?

<sup>41</sup> Stay awake and pray that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak."

<sup>42</sup> He went away a second time and prayed, "My Father, if this cup cannot be taken away unless I drink it, your will must be done."

<sup>43</sup> He came again and found them sleeping; they could not keep their eyes open.

<sup>44</sup> So leaving them again, he went away and prayed for the third time, saying the same thing once more.

<sup>45</sup> Then he came to the disciples and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Look, the hour is approaching, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Betrayal and Arrest

<sup>47</sup> While he was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, arrived. With him was a large crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent by the chief priests and elders of the people.

<sup>48</sup> (Now the betrayer had given them a sign, saying, "The one I kiss is the man. Arrest him!")

<sup>49</sup> Immediately he went up to Jesus and said, "Greetings, Rabbi," and kissed him.

<sup>50</sup> Jesus said to him, "Friend, do what you are here to do." Then they came and took hold of Jesus and arrested him.

<sup>52</sup> Then Jesus said to him, "Put your sword back in its place! For all who take hold of the sword will die by the sword.

<sup>53</sup> Or do you think that I cannot call on my Father, and that he would send me more than twelve legions of angels right now?

<sup>54</sup> How then would the scriptures that say it must happen this way be fulfilled?"

<sup>55</sup> At that moment Jesus said to the crowd, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest me like you would an outlaw? Day after day I sat teaching in the temple courts, yet you did not arrest me.

<sup>56</sup> But this has happened so that the scriptures of the prophets would be fulfilled." Then all the disciples left him and fled.

Condemned by the Sanhedrin

<sup>57</sup> Now the ones who had arrested Jesus led him to Caiaphas, the high priest, in whose house the experts in the law and the elders had gathered.

<sup>58</sup> But Peter was following him from a distance, all the way to the high priest's courtyard. After going in, he sat with the guards to see the outcome.

<sup>59</sup> The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were trying to find false testimony against Jesus so that they could put him to death.

<sup>60</sup> But they did not find anything, though many false witnesses came forward. Finally two came forward

<sup>61</sup> and declared, "This man said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and rebuild it in three days.' "

<sup>62</sup> So the high priest stood up and said to him, "Have you no answer? What is this that they are testifying against you?"

<sup>63</sup> But Jesus was silent. The high priest said to him, "I charge you under oath by the living God, tell us if you are the Christ, the Son of God."

<sup>64</sup> Jesus said to him, "You have said it yourself. But I tell you, from now on you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power and coming on the clouds of heaven."

<sup>65</sup> Then the high priest tore his clothes and declared, "He has blasphemed! Why do we still need witnesses? Now you have heard the blasphemy!

<sup>68</sup> saying, "Prophecy for us, you Christ! Who hit you?"

Peter's Denials

<sup>69</sup> Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. A slave girl came to him and said, "You also were with Jesus the Galilean."

<sup>70</sup> But he denied it in front of them all: "I don't know what you're talking about!"

<sup>71</sup> When he went out to the gateway, another slave girl saw him and said to the people there, "This man was with Jesus the Nazarene."

<sup>73</sup> After a little while, those standing there came up to Peter and said, “You really are one of them too – even your accent gives you away!”

<sup>74</sup> At that he began to curse, and he swore with an oath, “I do not know the man!” At that moment a rooster crowed.

<sup>75</sup> Then Peter remembered what Jesus had said: “Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times.” And he went outside and wept bitterly.

27

<sup>1</sup> When it was early in the morning, all the chief priests and the elders of the people plotted against Jesus to execute him.

<sup>2</sup> They tied him up, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate the governor.

Judas' Suicide

<sup>3</sup> Now when Judas, who had betrayed him, saw that Jesus had been condemned, he regretted what he had done and returned the thirty silver coins to the chief priests and the elders,

<sup>4</sup> saying, “I have sinned by betraying innocent blood!” But they said, “What is that to us? You take care of it yourself!”

<sup>5</sup> So Judas threw the silver coins into the temple and left. Then he went out and hanged himself.

<sup>6</sup> The chief priests took the silver and said, “It is not lawful to put this into the temple treasury, since it is blood money.”

<sup>7</sup> After consulting together they bought the Potter's Field with it, as a burial place for foreigners.

<sup>8</sup> For this reason that field has been called the “Field of Blood” to this day.

<sup>9</sup> Then what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled: “They took the thirty silver coins, the price of the one whose price had been set by the people of Israel,

Jesus and Pilate

<sup>11</sup> Then Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?” Jesus said, “You say so.”

<sup>12</sup> But when he was accused by the chief priests and the elders, he did not respond.

<sup>13</sup> Then Pilate said to him, “Don't you hear how many charges they are bringing against you?”

<sup>14</sup> But he did not answer even one accusation, so that the governor was quite amazed.

<sup>15</sup> During the feast the governor was accustomed to release one prisoner to the crowd, whomever they wanted.

<sup>17</sup> So after they had assembled, Pilate said to them, “Whom do you want me to release for you, Jesus Barabbas or Jesus who is called the Christ?”

<sup>18</sup> (For he knew that they had handed him over because of envy.)

<sup>19</sup> As he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent a message to him: “Have nothing to do with that innocent man; I have suffered greatly as a result of a dream about him today.”

<sup>20</sup> But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus killed.

<sup>21</sup> The governor asked them, “Which of the two do you want me to release for you?” And they said, “Barabbas!”

<sup>22</sup> Pilate said to them, “Then what should I do with Jesus who is called the Christ?” They all said, “Crucify him!”

<sup>23</sup> He asked, “Why? What wrong has he done?” But they shouted more insistently, “Crucify him!”

Jesus is Condemned and Mocked

<sup>24</sup> When Pilate saw that he could do nothing, but that instead a riot was starting, he took some water, washed his hands before the crowd and said, “I am innocent of this man’s blood. You take care of it yourselves!”

<sup>26</sup> Then he released Barabbas for them. But after he had Jesus flogged, he handed him over to be crucified.

<sup>27</sup> Then the governor’s soldiers took Jesus into the governor’s residence and gathered the whole cohort around him.

<sup>30</sup> They spat on him and took the staff and struck him repeatedly on the head.

<sup>31</sup> When they had mocked him, they stripped him of the robe and put his own clothes back on him. Then they led him away to crucify him.

The Crucifixion

<sup>32</sup> As they were going out, they found a man from Cyrene named Simon, whom they forced to carry his cross.

<sup>33</sup> They came to a place called Golgotha (which means “Place of the Skull”)

<sup>40</sup> and saying, “You who can destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save yourself! If you are God’s Son, come down from the cross!”

<sup>41</sup> In the same way even the chief priests – together with the experts in the law and elders – were mocking him:

<sup>42</sup> “He saved others, but he cannot save himself! He is the king of Israel! If he comes down now from the cross, we will believe in him!

<sup>43</sup> He trusts in God – let God, if he wants to, deliver him now because he said, ‘I am God’s Son!’”

<sup>44</sup> The robbers who were crucified with him also spoke abusively to him.

Jesus’ Death

<sup>45</sup> Now from noon until three, darkness came over all the land.

<sup>46</sup> At about three o’clock Jesus shouted with a loud voice, “Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?” that is, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?”

<sup>51</sup> Just then the temple curtain was torn in two, from top to bottom. The earth shook and the rocks were split apart.

<sup>52</sup> And tombs were opened, and the bodies of many saints who had died were raised.

<sup>53</sup> (They came out of the tombs after his resurrection and went into the holy city and appeared to many people.)

<sup>54</sup> Now when the centurion and those with him who were guarding Jesus saw the earthquake and what took place, they were extremely terrified and said, "Truly this one was God's Son!"

<sup>55</sup> Many women who had followed Jesus from Galilee and given him support were also there, watching from a distance.

<sup>56</sup> Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

Jesus' Burial

<sup>57</sup> Now when it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who was also a disciple of Jesus.

<sup>58</sup> He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate ordered that it be given to him.

<sup>60</sup> and placed it in his own new tomb that he had cut in the rock. Then he rolled a great stone across the entrance of the tomb and went away.

<sup>61</sup> (Now Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were sitting there, opposite the tomb.)

The Guard at the Tomb

<sup>62</sup> The next day (which is after the day of preparation) the chief priests and the Pharisees assembled before Pilate

<sup>63</sup> and said, "Sir, we remember that while that deceiver was still alive he said, 'After three days I will rise again.'

<sup>64</sup> So give orders to secure the tomb until the third day. Otherwise his disciples may come and steal his body and say to the people, 'He has been raised from the dead,' and the last deception will be worse than the first."

<sup>65</sup> Pilate said to them, "Take a guard of soldiers. Go and make it as secure as you can."

<sup>66</sup> So they went with the soldiers of the guard and made the tomb secure by sealing the stone.

28

<sup>1</sup> Now after the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb.

<sup>2</sup> Suddenly there was a severe earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descending from heaven came and rolled away the stone and sat on it.

<sup>5</sup> But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified.

<sup>6</sup> He is not here, for he has been raised, just as he said. Come and see the place where he was lying.

<sup>7</sup> Then go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has been raised from the dead. He is going ahead of you into Galilee. You will see him there.' Listen, I have told you!"

<sup>9</sup> But Jesus met them, saying, "Greetings!" They came to him, held on to his feet and worshiped him.

<sup>10</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee. They will see me there."

The Guards' Report

<sup>11</sup> While they were going, some of the guard went into the city and told the chief priests everything that had happened.

<sup>12</sup> After they had assembled with the elders and formed a plan, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers,

<sup>13</sup> telling them, "You are to say, 'His disciples came at night and stole his body while we were asleep.'"

<sup>14</sup> If this matter is heard before the governor, we will satisfy him and keep you out of trouble."

<sup>15</sup> So they took the money and did as they were instructed. And this story is told among the Jews to this day.

The Great Commission

<sup>16</sup> So the eleven disciples went to Galilee to the mountain Jesus had designated.

<sup>17</sup> When they saw him, they worshiped him, but some doubted.

<sup>18</sup> Then Jesus came up and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

<sup>19</sup> Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, <sup>20</sup> teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

Mark

The Ministry of John the Baptist

<sup>1</sup> The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

“Look, I am sending my messenger ahead of you,
who will prepare your way,

<sup>3</sup> the voice of one shouting in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way for the Lord,
make his paths straight.’ ”

<sup>4</sup> In the wilderness John the baptizer began preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

<sup>5</sup> People from the whole Judean countryside and all of Jerusalem were going out to him, and he was baptizing them in the Jordan River as they confessed their sins.

<sup>6</sup> John wore a garment made of camel’s hair with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey.

<sup>7</sup> He proclaimed, “One more powerful than I am is coming after me; I am not worthy to bend down and untie the strap of his sandals.

<sup>8</sup> I baptize you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

The Baptism and Temptation of Jesus

<sup>9</sup> Now in those days Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan River.

<sup>10</sup> And just as Jesus was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens splitting apart and the Spirit descending on him like a dove.

<sup>13</sup> He was in the wilderness forty days, enduring temptations from Satan. He was with wild animals, and angels were ministering to his needs.

Preaching in Galilee and the Call of the Disciples

<sup>14</sup> Now after John was imprisoned, Jesus went into Galilee and proclaimed the gospel of God.

<sup>15</sup> He said, “The time is fulfilled and the kingdom of God is near. Repent and believe the gospel!”

<sup>16</sup> As he went along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew, Simon’s brother, casting a net into the sea (for they were fishermen).

<sup>20</sup> Immediately he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men and followed him.

Jesus’ Authority

<sup>21</sup> Then they went to Capernaum. When the Sabbath came, Jesus went into the synagogue and began to teach.

<sup>22</sup> The people there were amazed by his teaching, because he taught them like one who had authority, not like the experts in the law.

<sup>23</sup> Just then there was a man in their synagogue with an unclean spirit, and he cried out,

<sup>24</sup> “Leave us alone, Jesus the Nazarene! Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are – the Holy One of God!”

<sup>27</sup> They were all amazed so that they asked each other, “What is this? A new teaching with authority! He even commands the unclean spirits and they obey him.”

<sup>28</sup> So the news about him spread quickly throughout all the region around Galilee.

Healings at Simon's House

<sup>30</sup> Simon's mother-in-law was lying down, sick with a fever, so they spoke to Jesus at once about her.

<sup>31</sup> He came and raised her up by gently taking her hand. Then the fever left her and she began to serve them.

<sup>32</sup> When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were sick and demon-possessed.

<sup>34</sup> So he healed many who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons. But he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him.

Praying and Preaching

<sup>35</sup> Then Jesus got up early in the morning when it was still very dark, departed, and went out to a deserted place, and there he spent time in prayer.

<sup>38</sup> He replied, “Let us go elsewhere, into the surrounding villages, so that I can preach there too. For that is what I came out here to do.”

<sup>39</sup> So he went into all of Galilee preaching in their synagogues and casting out demons.

Cleansing a Leper

<sup>40</sup> Now a leper came to him and fell to his knees, asking for help. “If you are willing, you can make me clean,” he said.

<sup>44</sup> He told him, “See that you do not say anything to anyone, but go, show yourself to a priest, and bring the offering that Moses commanded for your cleansing, as a testimony to them.”

<sup>45</sup> But as the man went out he began to announce it publicly and spread the story widely, so that Jesus was no longer able to enter any town openly but stayed outside in remote places. Still they kept coming to him from everywhere.

2

<sup>1</sup> Now after some days, when he returned to Capernaum, the news spread that he was at home.

<sup>2</sup> So many gathered that there was no longer any room, not even by the door, and he preached the word to them.

<sup>4</sup> When they were not able to bring him in because of the crowd, they removed the roof above Jesus. Then, after tearing it out, they lowered the stretcher the paralytic was lying on.

<sup>5</sup> When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven."

<sup>6</sup> Now some of the experts in the law were sitting there, turning these things over in their minds:

<sup>7</sup> "Why does this man speak this way? He is blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

<sup>8</sup> Now immediately, when Jesus realized in his spirit that they were contemplating such thoughts, he said to them, "Why are you thinking such things in your hearts?"

<sup>9</sup> Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Stand up, take your stretcher, and walk'?

<sup>10</sup> But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins," – he said to the paralytic –

<sup>12</sup> And immediately the man stood up, took his stretcher, and went out in front of them all. They were all amazed and glorified God, saying, "We have never seen anything like this!"

The Call of Levi; Eating with Sinners

<sup>13</sup> Jesus went out again by the sea. The whole crowd came to him, and he taught them.

<sup>14</sup> As he went along, he saw Levi, the son of Alphaeus, sitting at the tax booth. "Follow me," he said to him. And he got up and followed him.

<sup>15</sup> As Jesus was having a meal in Levi's home, many tax collectors and sinners were eating with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many who followed him.

<sup>16</sup> When the experts in the law and the Pharisees saw that he was eating with sinners and tax collectors, they said to his disciples, "Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

<sup>17</sup> When Jesus heard this he said to them, "Those who are healthy don't need a physician, but those who are sick do. I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

The Superiority of the New

<sup>18</sup> Now John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting. So they came to Jesus and said, "Why do the disciples of John and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples don't fast?"

<sup>19</sup> Jesus said to them, "The wedding guests cannot fast while the bridegroom is with them, can they? As long as they have the bridegroom with them they do not fast.

<sup>20</sup> But the days are coming when the bridegroom will be taken from them, and at that time they will fast.

<sup>22</sup> And no one pours new wine into old wineskins; otherwise, the wine will burst the skins, and both the wine and the skins will be destroyed. Instead new wine is poured into new wineskins."

Lord of the Sabbath

<sup>23</sup> Jesus was going through the grain fields on a Sabbath, and his disciples began to pick some heads of wheat as they made their way.

<sup>24</sup> So the Pharisees said to him, "Look, why are they doing what is against the law on the Sabbath?"

<sup>25</sup> He said to them, "Have you never read what David did when he was in need and he and his companions were hungry –

<sup>26</sup> how he entered the house of God when Abiathar was high priest and ate the sacred bread, which is against the law for any but the priests to eat, and also gave it to his companions?”

<sup>27</sup> Then he said to them, “The Sabbath was made for people, not people for the Sabbath.

3

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus entered the synagogue again, and a man was there who had a withered hand.

<sup>2</sup> They watched Jesus closely to see if he would heal him on the Sabbath, so that they could accuse him.

<sup>3</sup> So he said to the man who had the withered hand, “Stand up among all these people.”

<sup>4</sup> Then he said to them, “Is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath, or evil, to save a life or destroy it?” But they were silent.

<sup>5</sup> After looking around at them in anger, grieved by the hardness of their hearts, he said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out, and his hand was restored.

<sup>6</sup> So the Pharisees went out immediately and began plotting with the Herodians, as to how they could assassinate him.

Crowds by the Sea

<sup>7</sup> Then Jesus went away with his disciples to the sea, and a great multitude from Galilee followed him. And from Judea, <sup>8</sup> Jerusalem, a great multitude came to him when they heard about the things he had done.

<sup>9</sup> Because of the crowd, he told his disciples to have a small boat ready for him so the crowd would not press toward him.

<sup>10</sup> For he had healed many, so that all who were afflicted with diseases pressed toward him in order to touch him.

<sup>11</sup> And whenever the unclean spirits saw him, they fell down before him and cried out, “You are the Son of God.”

<sup>12</sup> But he sternly ordered them not to make him known.

Appointing the Twelve Apostles

<sup>13</sup> Now Jesus went up the mountain and called for those he wanted, and they came to him.

<sup>14</sup> He appointed twelve (whom he named apostles), so that they would be with him and he could send them to preach

<sup>15</sup> and to have authority to cast out demons.

<sup>17</sup> to James and his brother John, the sons of Zebedee, he gave the name Boanerges (that is, “sons of thunder”);

<sup>18</sup> and Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot, <sup>19</sup> and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him.

Jesus and Beelzebul

<sup>20</sup> Now Jesus went home, and a crowd gathered so that they were not able to eat.

<sup>21</sup> When his family heard this they went out to restrain him, for they said, “He is out of his mind.”

<sup>22</sup> The experts in the law who came down from Jerusalem said, “He is possessed by Beelzebul,” and, “By the ruler of demons he casts out demons.”

<sup>23</sup> So he called them and spoke to them in parables: “How can Satan cast out Satan?

<sup>24</sup> If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom will not be able to stand.

<sup>25</sup> If a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand.

<sup>26</sup> And if Satan rises against himself and is divided, he is not able to stand and his end has come.

<sup>27</sup> But no one is able to enter a strong man's house and steal his property unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he can thoroughly plunder his house.

<sup>28</sup> I tell you the truth, people will be forgiven for all sins, even all the blasphemies they utter.

<sup>29</sup> But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven, but is guilty of an eternal sin"

<sup>30</sup> (because they said, "He has an unclean spirit" ).

Jesus' True Family

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus' mother and his brothers came. Standing outside, they sent word to him, to summon him.

<sup>32</sup> A crowd was sitting around him and they said to him, "Look, your mother and your brothers are outside looking for you."

<sup>33</sup> He answered them and said, "Who are my mother and my brothers?"

<sup>34</sup> And looking at those who were sitting around him in a circle, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers!

<sup>35</sup> For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

4

<sup>1</sup> Again he began to teach by the lake. Such a large crowd gathered around him that he got into a boat on the lake and sat there while the whole crowd was on the shore by the lake.

<sup>5</sup> Other seed fell on rocky ground where it did not have much soil. It sprang up at once because the soil was not deep.

<sup>6</sup> When the sun came up it was scorched, and because it did not have sufficient root, it withered.

<sup>7</sup> Other seed fell among the thorns, and they grew up and choked it, and it did not produce grain.

<sup>8</sup> But other seed fell on good soil and produced grain, sprouting and growing; some yielded thirty times as much, some sixty, and some a hundred times."

<sup>9</sup> And he said, "Whoever has ears to hear had better listen!"

The Purpose of Parables

<sup>10</sup> When he was alone, those around him with the twelve asked him about the parables.

<sup>11</sup> He said to them, "The secret of the kingdom of God has been given to you. But to those outside, everything is in parables, <sup>12</sup> so that although they look they may look but not see, and although they hear they may hear but not understand, so they may not repent and be forgiven."

<sup>13</sup> He said to them, "Don't you understand this parable? Then how will you understand any parable?

<sup>15</sup> These are the ones on the path where the word is sown: Whenever they hear, immediately Satan comes and snatches the word that was sown in them.

<sup>16</sup> These are the ones sown on rocky ground: As soon as they hear the word, they receive it with joy.

<sup>17</sup> But they have no root in themselves and do not endure. Then, when trouble or persecution comes because of the word, immediately they fall away.

<sup>18</sup> Others are the ones sown among thorns: They are those who hear the word, <sup>19</sup> but worldly cares, the seductiveness of wealth, and the desire for other things come in and choke the word, and it produces nothing.

<sup>20</sup> But these are the ones sown on good soil: They hear the word and receive it and bear fruit, one thirty times as much, one sixty, and one a hundred."

The Parable of the Lamp

<sup>21</sup> He also said to them, "A lamp isn't brought to be put under a basket or under a bed, is it? Isn't it to be placed on a lampstand?

<sup>22</sup> For nothing is hidden except to be revealed, and nothing concealed except to be brought to light.

<sup>24</sup> And he said to them, "Take care about what you hear. The measure you use will be the measure you receive, and more will be added to you.

<sup>25</sup> For whoever has will be given more, but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him."

The Parable of the Growing Seed

<sup>26</sup> He also said, "The kingdom of God is like someone who spreads seed on the ground.

<sup>27</sup> He goes to sleep and gets up, night and day, and the seed sprouts and grows, though he does not know how.

<sup>28</sup> By itself the soil produces a crop, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head.

<sup>29</sup> And when the grain is ripe, he sends in the sickle because the harvest has come."

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

<sup>30</sup> He also asked, "To what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use to present it?

<sup>31</sup> It is like a mustard seed that when sown in the ground, even though it is the smallest of all the seeds in the ground –

<sup>32</sup> when it is sown, it grows up, becomes the greatest of all garden plants, and grows large branches so that the wild birds can nest in its shade."

The Use of Parables

<sup>33</sup> So with many parables like these, he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear.

<sup>34</sup> He did not speak to them without a parable. But privately he explained everything to his own disciples.

Stilling of a Storm

<sup>35</sup> On that day, when evening came, Jesus said to his disciples, "Let's go across to the other side of the lake."

<sup>36</sup> So after leaving the crowd, they took him along, just as he was, in the boat, and other boats were with him.

<sup>37</sup> Now a great windstorm developed and the waves were breaking into the boat, so that the boat was nearly swamped.

<sup>38</sup> But he was in the stern, sleeping on a cushion. They woke him up and said to him, "Teacher, don't you care that we are about to die?"

<sup>39</sup> So he got up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Be quiet! Calm down!" Then the wind stopped, and it was dead calm.

<sup>40</sup> And he said to them, "Why are you cowardly? Do you still not have faith?"

<sup>41</sup> They were overwhelmed by fear and said to one another, “Who then is this? Even the wind and sea obey him!”

5

<sup>1</sup> So they came to the other side of the lake, to the region of the Gerasenes.

<sup>2</sup> Just as Jesus was getting out of the boat, a man with an unclean spirit came from the tombs and met him.

<sup>3</sup> He lived among the tombs, and no one could bind him anymore, not even with a chain.

<sup>4</sup> For his hands and feet had often been bound with chains and shackles, but he had torn the chains apart and broken the shackles in pieces. No one was strong enough to subdue him.

<sup>5</sup> Each night and every day among the tombs and in the mountains, he would cry out and cut himself with stones.

<sup>6</sup> When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and bowed down before him.

<sup>7</sup> Then he cried out with a loud voice, “Leave me alone, Jesus, Son of the Most High God! I implore you by God – do not torment me!”

<sup>8</sup> (For Jesus had said to him, “Come out of that man, you unclean spirit!”)

<sup>9</sup> Jesus asked him, “What is your name?” And he said, “My name is Legion, for we are many.”

<sup>10</sup> He begged Jesus repeatedly not to send them out of the region.

<sup>13</sup> Jesus gave them permission. So the unclean spirits came out and went into the pigs. Then the herd rushed down the steep slope into the lake, and about two thousand were drowned in the lake.

<sup>14</sup> Now the herdsmen ran off and spread the news in the town and countryside, and the people went out to see what had happened.

<sup>15</sup> They came to Jesus and saw the demon-possessed man sitting there, clothed and in his right mind – the one who had the “Legion” – and they were afraid.

<sup>16</sup> Those who had seen what had happened to the demon-possessed man reported it, and they also told about the pigs.

<sup>18</sup> As he was getting into the boat the man who had been demon-possessed asked if he could go with him.

<sup>19</sup> But Jesus did not permit him to do so. Instead, he said to him, “Go to your home and to your people and tell them what the Lord has done for you, that he had mercy on you.”

<sup>20</sup> So he went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis what Jesus had done for him, and all were amazed.

Restoration and Healing

<sup>21</sup> When Jesus had crossed again in a boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around him, and he was by the sea.

<sup>22</sup> Then one of the synagogue rulers, named Jairus, came up, and when he saw Jesus, he fell at his feet.

<sup>23</sup> He asked him urgently, “My little daughter is near death. Come and lay your hands on her so that she may be healed and live.”

<sup>24</sup> Jesus went with him, and a large crowd followed and pressed around him.

<sup>25</sup> Now a woman was there who had been suffering from a hemorrhage for twelve years.

<sup>26</sup> She had endured a great deal under the care of many doctors and had spent all that she had. Yet instead of getting better, she grew worse.

<sup>27</sup> When she heard about Jesus, she came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak,

<sup>28</sup> for she kept saying, "If only I touch his clothes, I will be healed."

<sup>29</sup> At once the bleeding stopped, and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease.

<sup>30</sup> Jesus knew at once that power had gone out from him. He turned around in the crowd and said, "Who touched my clothes?"

<sup>31</sup> His disciples said to him, "You see the crowd pressing against you and you say, 'Who touched me?' "

<sup>32</sup> But he looked around to see who had done it.

<sup>33</sup> Then the woman, with fear and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before him and told him the whole truth.

<sup>34</sup> He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be healed of your disease."

<sup>35</sup> While he was still speaking, people came from the synagogue ruler's house saying, "Your daughter has died. Why trouble the teacher any longer?"

<sup>38</sup> They came to the house of the synagogue ruler where he saw noisy confusion and people weeping and wailing loudly.

<sup>39</sup> When he entered he said to them, "Why are you distressed and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep."

<sup>40</sup> And they began making fun of him. But he put them all outside and he took the child's father and mother and his own companions and went into the room where the child was.

<sup>41</sup> Then, gently taking the child by the hand, he said to her, "Talitha kum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, get up."

<sup>42</sup> The girl got up at once and began to walk around (she was twelve years old). They were completely astonished at this.

<sup>43</sup> He strictly ordered that no one should know about this, and told them to give her something to eat.

<sup>2</sup> When the Sabbath came, he began to teach in the synagogue. Many who heard him were astonished, saying, "Where did he get these ideas? And what is this wisdom that has been given to him? What are these miracles that are done through his hands?"

<sup>3</sup> Isn't this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James, Joses, Judas, and Simon? And aren't his sisters here with us?" And so they took offense at him.

<sup>4</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown, and among his relatives, and in his own house."

<sup>5</sup> He was not able to do a miracle there, except to lay his hands on a few sick people and heal them.

<sup>6</sup> And he was amazed because of their unbelief. Then he went around among the villages and taught.

Sending Out the Twelve Apostles

<sup>7</sup> Jesus called the twelve and began to send them out two by two. He gave them authority over the unclean spirits.

<sup>8</sup> He instructed them to take nothing for the journey except a staff – no bread, no bag, no money in their belts –

<sup>9</sup> and to put on sandals but not to wear two tunics.

<sup>10</sup> He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the area.

<sup>11</sup> If a place will not welcome you or listen to you, as you go out from there, shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them."

<sup>12</sup> So they went out and preached that all should repent.

<sup>13</sup> They cast out many demons and anointed many sick people with oil and healed them.

The Death of John the Baptist

<sup>14</sup> Now King Herod heard this, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, "John the baptizer has been raised from the dead, and because of this, miraculous powers are at work in him."

<sup>16</sup> But when Herod heard this, he said, "John, whom I beheaded, has been raised!"

<sup>18</sup> For John had repeatedly told Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife."

<sup>19</sup> So Herodias nursed a grudge against him and wanted to kill him. But she could not <sup>20</sup> because Herod stood in awe of John and protected him, since he knew that John was a righteous and holy man. When Herod heard him, he was thoroughly baffled, and yet he liked to listen to John.

<sup>21</sup> But a suitable day came, when Herod gave a banquet on his birthday for his court officials, military commanders, and leaders of Galilee.

<sup>22</sup> When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his dinner guests. The king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you want and I will give it to you."

<sup>23</sup> He swore to her, "Whatever you ask I will give you, up to half my kingdom."

<sup>24</sup> So she went out and said to her mother, "What should I ask for?" Her mother said, "The head of John the baptizer."

<sup>26</sup> Although it grieved the king deeply, he did not want to reject her request because of his oath and his guests.

<sup>27</sup> So the king sent an executioner at once to bring John's head, and he went and beheaded John in prison.

<sup>28</sup> He brought his head on a platter and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother.

<sup>29</sup> When John's disciples heard this, they came and took his body and placed it in a tomb.

The Feeding of the Five Thousand

<sup>30</sup> Then the apostles gathered around Jesus and told him everything they had done and taught.

<sup>31</sup> He said to them, "Come with me privately to an isolated place and rest a while" (for many were coming and going, and there was no time to eat).

<sup>32</sup> So they went away by themselves in a boat to some remote place.

<sup>33</sup> But many saw them leaving and recognized them, and they hurried on foot from all the towns and arrived there ahead of them.

<sup>34</sup> As Jesus came ashore he saw the large crowd and he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he taught them many things.

<sup>35</sup> When it was already late, his disciples came to him and said, “This is an isolated place and it is already very late.

<sup>36</sup> Send them away so that they can go into the surrounding countryside and villages and buy something for themselves to eat.”

<sup>37</sup> But he answered them, “You give them something to eat.” And they said, “Should we go and buy bread for two hundred silver coins and give it to them to eat?”

<sup>38</sup> He said to them, “How many loaves do you have? Go and see.” When they found out, they said, “Five – and two fish.”

<sup>39</sup> Then he directed them all to sit down in groups on the green grass.

<sup>40</sup> So they reclined in groups of hundreds and fifties.

<sup>41</sup> He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke the loaves. He gave them to his disciples to serve the people, and he divided the two fish among them all.

<sup>43</sup> and they picked up the broken pieces and fish that were left over, twelve baskets full.

<sup>44</sup> Now there were five thousand men who ate the bread.

Walking on Water

<sup>45</sup> Immediately Jesus made his disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he dispersed the crowd.

<sup>46</sup> After saying good-bye to them, he went to the mountain to pray.

<sup>47</sup> When evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea and he was alone on the land.

<sup>48</sup> He saw them straining at the oars, because the wind was against them. As the night was ending, he came to them walking on the sea, for he wanted to pass by them.

<sup>49</sup> When they saw him walking on the water they thought he was a ghost. They cried out,

<sup>50</sup> for they all saw him and were terrified. But immediately he spoke to them: “Have courage! It is I. Do not be afraid.”

<sup>51</sup> Then he went up with them into the boat, and the wind ceased. They were completely astonished, <sup>52</sup> because they did not understand about the loaves, but their hearts were hardened.

Healing the Sick

<sup>53</sup> After they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and anchored there.

<sup>55</sup> They ran through that whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever he was rumored to be.

<sup>56</sup> And wherever he would go – into villages, towns, or countryside – they would place the sick in the marketplaces, and would ask him if they could just touch the edge of his cloak, and all who touched it were healed.

7

<sup>2</sup> And they saw that some of Jesus’ disciples ate their bread with unclean hands, that is, unwashed.

<sup>3</sup> (For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they perform a ritual washing, holding fast to the tradition of the elders.

<sup>4</sup> And when they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they wash. They hold fast to many other traditions: the washing of cups, pots, kettles, and dining couches. )

<sup>5</sup> The Pharisees and the experts in the law asked him, “Why do your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with unwashed hands?”

<sup>6</sup> He said to them, “Isaiah prophesied correctly about you hypocrites, as it is written: ‘This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

<sup>7</sup> They worship me in vain, teaching as doctrine the commandments of men.’

<sup>9</sup> He also said to them, “You neatly reject the commandment of God in order to set up your tradition.

<sup>10</sup> For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and your mother,’ and, ‘Whoever insults his father or mother must be put to death.’

<sup>11</sup> But you say that if anyone tells his father or mother, ‘Whatever help you would have received from me is corban’ (that is, a gift for God), <sup>12</sup> then you no longer permit him to do anything for his father or mother.

<sup>13</sup> Thus you nullify the word of God by your tradition that you have handed down. And you do many things like this.”

<sup>14</sup> Then he called the crowd again and said to them, “Listen to me, everyone, and understand.

<sup>15</sup> There is nothing outside of a person that can defile him by going into him. Rather, it is what comes out of a person that defiles him.”

<sup>16</sup> *

<sup>17</sup> Now when Jesus had left the crowd and entered the house, his disciples asked him about the parable.

<sup>18</sup> He said to them, “Are you so foolish? Don’t you understand that whatever goes into a person from outside cannot defile him?

<sup>19</sup> For it does not enter his heart but his stomach, and then goes out into the sewer.” (This means all foods are clean.)

<sup>20</sup> He said, “What comes out of a person defiles him.

A Syrophoenician Woman's Faith

<sup>24</sup> After Jesus left there, he went to the region of Tyre. When he went into a house, he did not want anyone to know, but he was not able to escape notice.

<sup>25</sup> Instead, a woman whose young daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him and came and fell at his feet.

<sup>26</sup> The woman was a Greek, of Syrophoenician origin. She asked him to cast the demon out of her daughter.

<sup>27</sup> He said to her, “Let the children be satisfied first, for it is not right to take the children’s bread and to throw it to the dogs.”

<sup>29</sup> Then he said to her, “Because you said this, you may go. The demon has left your daughter.”

---

* 7:16 [[EMPTY]]

<sup>30</sup> She went home and found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

Healing a Deaf Mute

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus went out again from the region of Tyre to the Sea of Galilee in the region of the Decapolis.

<sup>32</sup> They brought to him a deaf man who had difficulty speaking, and they asked him to place his hands on him.

<sup>34</sup> Then he looked up to heaven and said with a sigh, “Ephphatha” (that is, “Be opened”).

<sup>35</sup> And immediately the man's ears were opened, his tongue loosened, and he spoke plainly.

<sup>36</sup> Jesus ordered them not to tell anything. But as much as he ordered them not to do this, they proclaimed it all the more.

<sup>37</sup> People were completely astounded and said, “He has done everything well. He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak.”

8

<sup>1</sup> In those days there was another large crowd with nothing to eat. So Jesus called his disciples and said to them, <sup>2</sup> “I have compassion on the crowd, because they have already been here with me three days, and they have nothing to eat.

<sup>3</sup> If I send them home hungry, they will faint on the way, and some of them have come from a great distance.”

<sup>6</sup> Then he directed the crowd to sit down on the ground. After he took the seven loaves and gave thanks, he broke them and began giving them to the disciples to serve. So they served the crowd.

<sup>7</sup> They also had a few small fish. After giving thanks for these, he told them to serve these as well.

<sup>9</sup> There were about four thousand who ate. Then he dismissed them.

<sup>10</sup> Immediately he got into a boat with his disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha.

The Demand for a Sign

<sup>11</sup> Then the Pharisees came and began to argue with Jesus, asking for a sign from heaven to test him.

<sup>12</sup> Sighing deeply in his spirit he said, “Why does this generation look for a sign? I tell you the truth, no sign will be given to this generation.”

The Yeast of the Pharisees and Herod

<sup>14</sup> Now they had forgotten to take bread, except for one loaf they had with them in the boat.

<sup>15</sup> And Jesus ordered them, “Watch out! Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod!”

<sup>16</sup> So they began to discuss with one another about having no bread.

<sup>17</sup> When he learned of this, Jesus said to them, “Why are you arguing about having no bread? Do you still not see or understand? Have your hearts been hardened?

<sup>18</sup> Though you have eyes, don’t you see? And though you have ears, can’t you hear? Don’t you remember?

<sup>19</sup> When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of pieces did you pick up?” They replied, “Twelve.”

<sup>20</sup> “When I broke the seven loaves for the four thousand, how many baskets full of pieces did you pick up?” They replied, “Seven.”

<sup>21</sup> Then he said to them, “Do you still not understand?”

A Two-stage Healing

<sup>22</sup> Then they came to Bethsaida. They brought a blind man to Jesus and asked him to touch him.

<sup>23</sup> He took the blind man by the hand and brought him outside of the village. Then he spit on his eyes, placed his hands on his eyes and asked, “Do you see anything?”

<sup>25</sup> Then Jesus placed his hands on the man’s eyes again. And he opened his eyes, his sight was restored, and he saw everything clearly.

Peter’s Confession

<sup>27</sup> Then Jesus and his disciples went to the villages of Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that I am?”

<sup>29</sup> He asked them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter answered him, “You are the Christ.”

<sup>30</sup> Then he warned them not to tell anyone about him.

First Prediction of Jesus’ Death and Resurrection

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and experts in the law, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

<sup>32</sup> He spoke openly about this. So Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him.

<sup>33</sup> But after turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, “Get behind me, Satan. You are not setting your mind on God’s interests, but on man’s.”

Following Jesus

<sup>34</sup> Then Jesus called the crowd, along with his disciples, and said to them, “If anyone wants to become my follower, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.

<sup>35</sup> For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and for the gospel will save it.

<sup>36</sup> For what benefit is it for a person to gain the whole world, yet forfeit his life?

<sup>38</sup> For if anyone is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.”

9

<sup>1</sup> And he said to them, “I tell you the truth, there are some standing here who will not experience death before they see the kingdom of God come with power.”

The Transfiguration

<sup>2</sup> Six days later Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John and led them alone up a high mountain privately. And he was transfigured before them, <sup>3</sup> and his clothes became radiantly white, more so than any launderer in the world could bleach them.

<sup>5</sup> So Peter said to Jesus, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three shelters – one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

<sup>7</sup> Then a cloud overshadowed them, and a voice came from the cloud, “This is my one dear Son. Listen to him!”

<sup>8</sup> Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more except Jesus.

<sup>9</sup> As they were coming down from the mountain, he gave them orders not to tell anyone what they had seen until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

<sup>10</sup> They kept this statement to themselves, discussing what this rising from the dead meant.

<sup>11</sup> Then they asked him, “Why do the experts in the law say that Elijah must come first?”

<sup>12</sup> He said to them, “Elijah does indeed come first, and restores all things. And why is it written that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be despised?”

<sup>13</sup> But I tell you that Elijah has certainly come, and they did to him whatever they wanted, just as it is written about him.”

The Disciples' Failure to Heal

<sup>14</sup> When they came to the disciples, they saw a large crowd around them and experts in the law arguing with them.

<sup>15</sup> When the whole crowd saw him, they were amazed and ran at once and greeted him.

<sup>16</sup> He asked them, “What are you arguing about with them?”

<sup>17</sup> A member of the crowd said to him, “Teacher, I brought you my son, who is possessed by a spirit that makes him mute.

<sup>18</sup> Whenever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams at the mouth, grinds his teeth, and becomes rigid. I asked your disciples to cast it out, but they were not able to do so.”

<sup>19</sup> He answered them, “You unbelieving generation! How much longer must I be with you? How much longer must I endure you? Bring him to me.”

<sup>20</sup> So they brought the boy to him. When the spirit saw him, it immediately threw the boy into a convulsion. He fell on the ground and rolled around, foaming at the mouth.

<sup>21</sup> Jesus asked his father, “How long has this been happening to him?” And he said, “From childhood.

<sup>22</sup> It has often thrown him into fire or water to destroy him. But if you are able to do anything, have compassion on us and help us.”

<sup>23</sup> Then Jesus said to him, “‘If you are able?’ All things are possible for the one who believes.”

<sup>24</sup> Immediately the father of the boy cried out and said, “I believe; help my unbelief!”

<sup>25</sup> Now when Jesus saw that a crowd was quickly gathering, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, “Mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him and never enter him again.”

<sup>26</sup> It shrieked, threw him into terrible convulsions, and came out. The boy looked so much like a corpse that many said, “He is dead!”

<sup>28</sup> Then, after he went into the house, his disciples asked him privately, “Why couldn’t we cast it out?”

<sup>29</sup> He told them, “This kind can come out only by prayer.”

Second Prediction of Jesus’ Death and Resurrection

<sup>30</sup> They went out from there and passed through Galilee. But Jesus did not want anyone to know,

<sup>31</sup> for he was teaching his disciples and telling them, “The Son of Man will be betrayed into the hands of men. They will kill him, and after three days he will rise.”

<sup>32</sup> But they did not understand this statement and were afraid to ask him.

Questions About the Greatest

<sup>33</sup> Then they came to Capernaum. After Jesus was inside the house he asked them, “What were you discussing on the way?”

<sup>34</sup> But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest.

<sup>35</sup> After he sat down, he called the twelve and said to them, “If anyone wants to be first, he must be last of all and servant of all.”

<sup>36</sup> He took a little child and had him stand among them. Taking him in his arms, he said to them,

<sup>37</sup> “Whoever welcomes one of these little children in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me does not welcome me but the one who sent me.”

On Jesus’ Side

<sup>38</sup> John said to him, “Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him because he was not following us.”

<sup>39</sup> But Jesus said, “Do not stop him, because no one who does a miracle in my name will be able soon afterward to say anything bad about me.

<sup>41</sup> For I tell you the truth, whoever gives you a cup of water because you bear Christ’s name will never lose his reward.

<sup>42</sup> “If anyone causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him to have a huge millstone tied around his neck and to be thrown into the sea.

<sup>43</sup> If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off! It is better for you to enter into life crippled than to have two hands and go into hell, to the unquenchable fire.

<sup>44</sup> *

<sup>45</sup> If your foot causes you to sin, cut it off! It is better to enter life lame than to have two feet and be thrown into hell.

<sup>46</sup> †

<sup>47</sup> If your eye causes you to sin, tear it out! It is better to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell, <sup>48</sup> where their worm never dies and the fire is never quenched.

<sup>50</sup> Salt is good, but if it loses its saltiness, how can you make it salty again? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with each other.”

10

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus left that place and went to the region of Judea and beyond the Jordan River. Again crowds gathered to him, and again, as was his custom, he taught them.

<sup>3</sup> He answered them, “What did Moses command you?”

---

* 9:44 [[EMPTY]] † 9:46 [[EMPTY]]

<sup>4</sup> They said, “Moses permitted a man to write a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her.”

<sup>5</sup> But Jesus said to them, “He wrote this commandment for you because of your hard hearts.

<sup>6</sup> But from the beginning of creation he made them male and female*.

<sup>8</sup> and the two will become one flesh. So they are no longer two, but one flesh.

<sup>10</sup> In the house once again, the disciples asked him about this.

<sup>11</sup> So he told them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her.

Jesus and Little Children

<sup>13</sup> Now people were bringing little children to him for him to touch, but the disciples scolded those who brought them.

<sup>14</sup> But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, “Let the little children come to me and do not try to stop them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.

<sup>16</sup> After he took the children in his arms, he placed his hands on them and blessed them.

The Rich Man

<sup>17</sup> Now as Jesus was starting out on his way, someone ran up to him, fell on his knees, and said, “Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

<sup>18</sup> Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone.

<sup>19</sup> You know the commandments: ‘ Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, do not defraud, honor your father and mother.’ ”

<sup>20</sup> The man said to him, “Teacher, I have wholeheartedly obeyed all these laws since my youth.”

<sup>21</sup> As Jesus looked at him, he felt love for him and said, “You lack one thing. Go, sell whatever you have and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

<sup>22</sup> But at this statement, the man looked sad and went away sorrowful, for he was very rich.

<sup>23</sup> Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!”

<sup>24</sup> The disciples were astonished at these words. But again Jesus said to them, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!

<sup>27</sup> Jesus looked at them and replied, “This is impossible for mere humans, but not for God; all things are possible for God.”

<sup>28</sup> Peter began to speak to him, “Look, we have left everything to follow you!”

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said, “I tell you the truth, there is no one who has left home or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for my sake and for the sake of the gospel

<sup>30</sup> who will not receive in this age a hundred times as much – homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, fields, all with persecutions – and in the age to come, eternal life.

Third Prediction of Jesus' Death and Resurrection

<sup>32</sup> They were on the way, going up to Jerusalem. Jesus was going ahead of them, and they were amazed, but those who followed were afraid. He took the twelve aside again and began to tell them what was going to happen to him.

<sup>33</sup> “Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and experts in the law. They will condemn him to death and will turn him over to the Gentiles.

<sup>34</sup> They will mock him, spit on him, flog him severely, and kill him. Yet after three days, he will rise again.”

The Request of James and John

<sup>35</sup> Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to him and said, “Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask.”

<sup>36</sup> He said to them, “What do you want me to do for you?”

<sup>38</sup> But Jesus said to them, “You don’t know what you are asking! Are you able to drink the cup I drink or be baptized with the baptism I experience?”

<sup>39</sup> They said to him, “We are able.” Then Jesus said to them, “You will drink the cup I drink, and you will be baptized with the baptism I experience,

<sup>41</sup> Now when the other ten heard this, they became angry with James and John.

<sup>42</sup> Jesus called them and said to them, “You know that those who are recognized as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those in high positions use their authority over them.

<sup>43</sup> But it is not this way among you. Instead whoever wants to be great among you must be your servant, <sup>44</sup> and whoever wants to be first among you must be the slave of all.

<sup>45</sup> For even the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Healing Blind Bartimaeus

<sup>46</sup> They came to Jericho. As Jesus and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus the son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the road.

<sup>47</sup> When he heard that it was Jesus the Nazarene, he began to shout, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>48</sup> Many scolded him to get him to be quiet, but he shouted all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>49</sup> Jesus stopped and said, “Call him.” So they called the blind man and said to him, “Have courage! Get up! He is calling you.”

<sup>50</sup> He threw off his cloak, jumped up, and came to Jesus.

<sup>51</sup> Then Jesus said to him, “What do you want me to do for you?” The blind man replied, “Rabbi, let me see again.”

<sup>52</sup> Jesus said to him, “Go, your faith has healed you.” Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the road.

11

<sup>2</sup> and said to them, “Go to the village ahead of you. As soon as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here.

<sup>3</sup> If anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord needs it and will send it back here soon.' "

<sup>4</sup> So they went and found a colt tied at a door, outside in the street, and untied it.

<sup>5</sup> Some people standing there said to them, "What are you doing, untying that colt?"

<sup>6</sup> They replied as Jesus had told them, and the bystanders let them go.

<sup>7</sup> Then they brought the colt to Jesus, threw their cloaks on it, and he sat on it.

<sup>8</sup> Many spread their cloaks on the road and others spread branches they had cut in the fields.

<sup>9</sup> Both those who went ahead and those who followed kept shouting, " Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!"*

<sup>10</sup> Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David! Hosanna in the highest!"

<sup>11</sup> Then Jesus entered Jerusalem and went to the temple. And after looking around at everything, he went out to Bethany with the twelve since it was already late.

Cursing of the Fig Tree

<sup>12</sup> Now the next day, as they went out from Bethany, he was hungry.

<sup>13</sup> After noticing in the distance a fig tree with leaves, he went to see if he could find any fruit on it. When he came to it he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs.

<sup>14</sup> He said to it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again." And his disciples heard it.

Cleansing the Temple

<sup>15</sup> Then they came to Jerusalem. Jesus entered the temple area and began to drive out those who were selling and buying in the temple courts. He turned over the tables of the money changers and the chairs of those selling doves, <sup>16</sup> and he would not permit anyone to carry merchandise through the temple courts.

<sup>17</sup> Then he began to teach them and said, "Is it not written: ' My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations'? But you have turned it into a den of robbers!"

<sup>18</sup> The chief priests and the experts in the law heard it and they considered how they could assassinate him, for they feared him, because the whole crowd was amazed by his teaching.

<sup>19</sup> When evening came, Jesus and his disciples went out of the city.

The Withered Fig Tree

<sup>21</sup> Peter remembered and said to him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree you cursed has withered."

<sup>22</sup> Jesus said to them, "Have faith in God.

<sup>23</sup> I tell you the truth, if someone says to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart but believes that what he says will happen, it will be done for him.

<sup>24</sup> For this reason I tell you, whatever you pray and ask for, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.

<sup>25</sup> Whenever you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive him, so that your Father in heaven will also forgive you your sins."

<sup>26</sup> *

<sup>27</sup> They came again to Jerusalem. While Jesus was walking in the temple courts, the chief priests, the experts in the law, and the elders came up to him

<sup>28</sup> and said, "By what authority are you doing these things? Or who gave you this authority to do these things?"

---

* 11:26 [[EMPTY]]

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one question. Answer me and I will tell you by what authority I do these things:

<sup>30</sup> John's baptism – was it from heaven or from people? Answer me."

<sup>31</sup> They discussed with one another, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Then why did you not believe him?'

<sup>32</sup> But if we say, 'From people – ' " (they feared the crowd, for they all considered John to be truly a prophet).

<sup>33</sup> So they answered Jesus, "We don't know." Then Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things."

12

<sup>1</sup> Then he began to speak to them in parables: "A man planted a vineyard. He put a fence around it, dug a pit for its winepress, and built a watchtower. Then he leased it to tenant farmers and went on a journey.

<sup>3</sup> But those tenants seized his slave, beat him, and sent him away empty-handed.

<sup>4</sup> So he sent another slave to them again. This one they struck on the head and treated outrageously.

<sup>5</sup> He sent another, and that one they killed. This happened to many others, some of whom were beaten, others killed.

<sup>6</sup> He had one left, his one dear son. Finally he sent him to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

<sup>7</sup> But those tenants said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him and the inheritance will be ours!'

<sup>8</sup> So they seized him, killed him, and threw his body out of the vineyard.

<sup>9</sup> What then will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy those tenants and give the vineyard to others.

<sup>10</sup> Have you not read this scripture:

'The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

11 This is from the Lord, and it is marvelous in our eyes?'

<sup>12</sup> Now they wanted to arrest him (but they feared the crowd), because they realized that he told this parable against them. So they left him and went away.

Paying Taxes to Caesar

<sup>14</sup> When they came they said to him, "Teacher, we know that you are truthful and do not court anyone's favor, because you show no partiality but teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not? Should we pay or shouldn't we?"

<sup>15</sup> But he saw through their hypocrisy and said to them, "Why are you testing me? Bring me a denarius and let me look at it."

<sup>16</sup> So they brought one, and he said to them, "Whose image is this, and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's."

<sup>17</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "Give to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." And they were utterly amazed at him.

Marriage and the Resurrection

<sup>18</sup> Sadducees (who say there is no resurrection) also came to him and asked him,

<sup>19</sup> “Teacher, Moses wrote for us: ‘ If a man’s brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, that man must marry the widow and father children for his brother.’

<sup>20</sup> There were seven brothers. The first one married, and when he died he had no children.

<sup>21</sup> The second married her and died without any children, and likewise the third.

<sup>24</sup> Jesus said to them, “Aren’t you deceived for this reason, because you don’t know the scriptures or the power of God?”

<sup>25</sup> For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.

<sup>26</sup> Now as for the dead being raised, have you not read in the book of Moses, in the passage about the bush, how God said to him, ‘ I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’?

<sup>27</sup> He is not the God of the dead but of the living. You are badly mistaken!”

The Greatest Commandment

<sup>28</sup> Now one of the experts in the law came and heard them debating. When he saw that Jesus answered them well, he asked him, “Which commandment is the most important of all?”

<sup>30</sup> Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.’

<sup>32</sup> The expert in the law said to him, “That is true, Teacher; you are right to say that he is|strong="G1510" one, and there is no one else besides him.

<sup>33</sup> And to love|strong="G0025" him with all your heart, with all your mind, and with all your strength and to love|strong="G0025" your neighbor as yourself is more important than all burnt offerings and sacrifices.”

<sup>34</sup> When Jesus saw that he had answered thoughtfully, he said to him, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.” Then no one dared any longer to question him.

The Messiah: David’s Son and Lord

<sup>35</sup> While Jesus was teaching in the temple courts, he said, “How is it that the experts in the law say that the Christ is David’s son?

<sup>36</sup> David himself, by the Holy Spirit, said,

‘ The Lord said to my lord,

“ Sit at my right hand,

until I put your enemies under your feet.” ’

<sup>37</sup> If David himself calls him ‘Lord,’ how can he be his son?” And the large crowd was listening to him with delight.

Warnings About Experts in the Law

<sup>38</sup> In his teaching Jesus also said, “Watch out for the experts in the law. They like walking around in long robes and elaborate greetings in the marketplaces, <sup>39</sup> and the best seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at banquets.

<sup>40</sup> They devour widows’ property, and as a show make long prayers. These men will receive a more severe punishment.”

The Widow’s Offering

<sup>41</sup> Then he sat down opposite the offering box, and watched the crowd putting coins into it. Many rich people were throwing in large amounts.

<sup>42</sup> And a poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, worth less than a penny.

<sup>43</sup> He called his disciples and said to them, "I tell you the truth, this poor widow has put more into the offering box than all the others.

<sup>44</sup> For they all gave out of their wealth. But she, out of her poverty, put in what she had to live on, everything she had."

13

<sup>2</sup> Jesus said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left on another. All will be torn down!"

Signs of the End of the Age

<sup>3</sup> So while he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately,

<sup>4</sup> "Tell us, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that all these things are about to take place?"

<sup>5</sup> Jesus began to say to them, "Watch out that no one misleads you.

<sup>6</sup> Many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he,' and they will mislead many.

<sup>7</sup> When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed. These things must happen, but the end is still to come.

<sup>8</sup> For nation will rise up in arms against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines. These are but the beginning of birth pains.

Persecution of Disciples

<sup>9</sup> "You must watch out for yourselves. You will be handed over to councils and beaten in the synagogues. You will stand before governors and kings because of me, as a witness to them.

<sup>11</sup> When they arrest you and hand you over for trial, do not worry about what to speak. But say whatever is given you at that time, for it is not you speaking, but the Holy Spirit.

<sup>12</sup> Brother will hand over brother to death, and a father his child. Children will rise against parents and have them put to death.

<sup>13</sup> You will be hated by everyone because of my name. But the one who endures to the end will be saved.

The Abomination of Desolation

<sup>14</sup> "But when you see the abomination of desolation standing where it should not be (let the reader understand), then those in Judea must flee to the mountains.

<sup>15</sup> The one on the roof must not come down or go inside to take anything out of his house.

<sup>18</sup> Pray that it may not be in winter.

<sup>19</sup> For in those days there will be suffering unlike anything that has happened from the beginning of the creation that God created until now, or ever will happen.

<sup>20</sup> And if the Lord had not cut short those days, no one would be saved. But because of the elect, whom he chose, he has cut them short.

<sup>21</sup> Then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or 'Look, there he is!' do not believe him.

<sup>22</sup> For false messiahs and false prophets will appear and perform signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, the elect.

<sup>23</sup> Be careful! I have told you everything ahead of time.

The Arrival of the Son of Man

<sup>24</sup> "But in those days, after that suffering, the sun will be darkened and the moon will not give its light;

<sup>25</sup> the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.

<sup>26</sup> Then everyone will see the Son of Man arriving in the clouds with great power and glory.

<sup>27</sup> Then he will send angels and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven.

The Parable of the Fig Tree

<sup>28</sup> "Learn this parable from the fig tree: Whenever its branch becomes tender and puts out its leaves, you know that summer is near.

<sup>29</sup> So also you, when you see these things happening, know that he is near, right at the door.

<sup>30</sup> I tell you the truth, this generation will not pass away until all these things take place.

<sup>31</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

Be Ready!

<sup>32</sup> "But as for that day or hour no one knows it – neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son – except the Father.

<sup>33</sup> Watch out! Stay alert! For you do not know when the time will come.

<sup>35</sup> Stay alert, then, because you do not know when the owner of the house will return – whether during evening, at midnight, when the rooster crows, or at dawn –

<sup>36</sup> or else he might find you asleep when he returns suddenly.

14

<sup>1</sup> Two days before the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the chief priests and the experts in the law were trying to find a way to arrest Jesus by stealth and kill him.

<sup>2</sup> For they said, "Not during the feast, so there won't be a riot among the people."

Jesus' Anointing

<sup>3</sup> Now while Jesus was in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper, reclining at the table, a woman came with an alabaster jar of costly aromatic oil from pure nard. After breaking open the jar, she poured it on his head.

<sup>4</sup> But some who were present indignantly said to one another, "Why this waste of expensive ointment?

<sup>5</sup> It could have been sold for more than three hundred silver coins and the money given to the poor!" So they spoke angrily to her.

<sup>6</sup> But Jesus said, "Leave her alone. Why are you bothering her? She has done a good service for me.

<sup>7</sup> For you will always have the poor with you, and you can do good for them whenever you want. But you will not always have me!

<sup>8</sup> She did what she could. She anointed my body beforehand for burial.

<sup>9</sup> I tell you the truth, wherever the gospel is proclaimed in the whole world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her."

The Plan to Betray Jesus

<sup>10</sup> Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Jesus into their hands.

<sup>11</sup> When they heard this, they were delighted and promised to give him money. So Judas began looking for an opportunity to betray him.

The Passover

<sup>12</sup> Now on the first day of the feast of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb is sacrificed, Jesus' disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?"

<sup>13</sup> He sent two of his disciples and told them, "Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him.

<sup>14</sup> Wherever he enters, tell the owner of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"'

<sup>15</sup> He will show you a large room upstairs, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there."

<sup>16</sup> So the disciples left, went into the city, and found things just as he had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

<sup>17</sup> Then, when it was evening, he came to the house with the twelve.

<sup>18</sup> While they were at the table eating, Jesus said, "I tell you the truth, one of you eating with me will betray me."

<sup>20</sup> He said to them, "It is one of the twelve, one who dips his hand with me into the bowl.

<sup>21</sup> For the Son of Man will go as it is written about him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for him if he had never been born."

The Lord's Supper

<sup>22</sup> While they were eating, he took bread, and after giving thanks he broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take it. This is my body."

<sup>23</sup> And after taking the cup and giving thanks, he gave it to them, and they all drank from it.

<sup>24</sup> He said to them, "This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, that is poured out for many.

<sup>25</sup> I tell you the truth, I will no longer drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

The Prediction of Peter's Denial

<sup>27</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "You will all fall away, for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.'"

<sup>28</sup> But after I am raised, I will go ahead of you into Galilee."

<sup>30</sup> Jesus said to him, "I tell you the truth, today – this very night – before a rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times."

<sup>31</sup> But Peter insisted emphatically, "Even if I must die with you, I will never deny you." And all of them said the same thing.

Gethsemane

<sup>32</sup> Then they went to a place called Gethsemane, and Jesus said to his disciples, "Sit here while I pray."

<sup>33</sup> He took Peter, James, and John with him, and became very troubled and distressed.

<sup>34</sup> He said to them, "My soul is deeply grieved, even to the point of death. Remain here and stay alert."

<sup>35</sup> Going a little farther, he threw himself to the ground and prayed that if it were possible the hour would pass from him.

<sup>36</sup> He said, "Abba, Father, all things are possible for you. Take this cup away from me. Yet not what I will, but what you will."

<sup>37</sup> Then he came and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Couldn't you stay awake for one hour?"

<sup>39</sup> He went away again and prayed the same thing.

<sup>40</sup> When he came again he found them sleeping; they could not keep their eyes open. And they did not know what to tell him.

<sup>41</sup> He came a third time and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Enough of that! The hour has come. Look, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Betrayal and Arrest

<sup>43</sup> Right away, while Jesus was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, arrived. With him came a crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent by the chief priests and experts in the law and elders.

<sup>44</sup> (Now the betrayer had given them a sign, saying, "The one I kiss is the man. Arrest him and lead him away under guard.")

<sup>45</sup> When Judas arrived, he went up to Jesus immediately and said, "Rabbi!" and kissed him.

<sup>48</sup> Jesus said to them, "Have you come with swords and clubs to arrest me like you would an outlaw?"

<sup>49</sup> Day after day I was with you, teaching in the temple courts, yet you did not arrest me. But this has happened so that the scriptures would be fulfilled."

<sup>52</sup> but he ran off naked, leaving his linen cloth behind.

Condemned by the Sanhedrin

<sup>53</sup> Then they led Jesus to the high priest, and all the chief priests and elders and experts in the law came together.

<sup>54</sup> And Peter had followed him from a distance, up to the high priest's courtyard. He was sitting with the guards and warming himself by the fire.

<sup>55</sup> The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for evidence against Jesus so that they could put him to death, but they did not find anything.

<sup>58</sup> "We heard him say, 'I will destroy this temple made with hands and in three days build another not made with hands.' "

<sup>60</sup> Then the high priest stood up before them and asked Jesus, "Have you no answer? What is this that they are testifying against you?"

<sup>61</sup> But he was silent and did not answer. Again the high priest questioned him, "Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?"

<sup>62</sup> "I am," said Jesus, "and you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power and coming with the clouds of heaven."

<sup>63</sup> Then the high priest tore his clothes and said, "Why do we still need witnesses?"

<sup>64</sup> You have heard the blasphemy! What is your verdict?" They all condemned him as deserving death.

<sup>65</sup> Then some began to spit on him, and to blindfold him, and to strike him with their fists, saying, "Prophecy!" The guards also took him and beat him.

Peter's Denials

<sup>67</sup> When she saw Peter warming himself, she looked directly at him and said, "You also were with that Nazarene, Jesus."

<sup>68</sup> But he denied it: "I don't even understand what you're talking about!" Then he went out to the gateway, and a rooster crowed.

<sup>69</sup> When the slave girl saw him, she began again to say to the bystanders, "This man is one of them."

<sup>70</sup> But he denied it again. A short time later the bystanders again said to Peter, "You must be one of them, because you are also a Galilean."

<sup>71</sup> Then he began to curse, and he swore with an oath, "I do not know this man you are talking about!"

<sup>72</sup> Immediately a rooster crowed a second time. Then Peter remembered what Jesus had said to him: "Before a rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times." And he broke down and wept.

15

<sup>1</sup> Early in the morning, after forming a plan, the chief priests with the elders and the experts in the law and the whole Sanhedrin tied Jesus up, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate.

<sup>2</sup> So Pilate asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" He replied, "You say so."

<sup>3</sup> Then the chief priests began to accuse him repeatedly.

<sup>4</sup> So Pilate asked him again, "Have you nothing to say? See how many charges they are bringing against you!"

<sup>5</sup> But Jesus made no further reply, so that Pilate was amazed.

Jesus and Barabbas

<sup>6</sup> During the feast it was customary to release one prisoner to the people, whomever they requested.

<sup>8</sup> Then the crowd came up and began to ask Pilate to release a prisoner for them, as was his custom.

<sup>9</sup> So Pilate asked them, "Do you want me to release the king of the Jews for you?"

<sup>10</sup> (For he knew that the chief priests had handed him over because of envy.)

<sup>12</sup> So Pilate spoke to them again, "Then what do you want me to do with the one you call king of the Jews?"

<sup>14</sup> Pilate asked them, “Why? What has he done wrong?” But they shouted more insistently, “Crucify him!”

<sup>15</sup> Because he wanted to satisfy the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas for them. Then, after he had Jesus flogged, he handed him over to be crucified.

Jesus is Mocked

<sup>16</sup> So the soldiers led him into the palace (that is, the governor’s residence) and called together the whole cohort.

<sup>17</sup> They put a purple cloak on him and after braiding a crown of thorns, they put it on him.

<sup>19</sup> Again and again they struck him on the head with a staff and spit on him. Then they knelt down and paid homage to him.

<sup>20</sup> When they had finished mocking him, they stripped him of the purple cloak and put his own clothes back on him. Then they led him away to crucify him.

The Crucifixion

<sup>21</sup> The soldiers forced a passerby to carry his cross, Simon of Cyrene, who was coming in from the country (he was the father of Alexander and Rufus).

<sup>22</sup> They brought Jesus to a place called Golgotha (which is translated, “Place of the Skull”).

<sup>24</sup> Then they crucified him and divided his clothes, throwing dice for them, to decide what each would take.

<sup>28</sup> *

<sup>29</sup> Those who passed by defamed him, shaking their heads and saying, “Aha! You who can destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days,

<sup>31</sup> In the same way even the chief priests – together with the experts in the law – were mocking him among themselves: “He saved others, but he cannot save himself!

<sup>32</sup> Let the Christ, the king of Israel, come down from the cross now, that we may see and believe!” Those who were crucified with him also spoke abusively to him.

Jesus’ Death

<sup>33</sup> Now when it was noon, darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon.

<sup>34</sup> Around three o’clock Jesus cried out with a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?” which means, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?”

<sup>35</sup> When some of the bystanders heard it they said, “Listen, he is calling for Elijah!”

<sup>36</sup> Then someone ran, filled a sponge with sour wine, put it on a stick, and gave it to him to drink, saying, “Leave him alone! Let’s see if Elijah will come to take him down!”

<sup>39</sup> Now when the centurion, who stood in front of him, saw how he died, he said, “Truly this man was God’s Son!”

<sup>40</sup> There were also women, watching from a distance. Among them were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome.

* 15:28 [[EMPTY]]

<sup>41</sup> When he was in Galilee, they had followed him and given him support. Many other women who had come up with him to Jerusalem were there too.

Jesus' Burial

<sup>42</sup> Now when evening had already come, since it was the day of preparation (that is, the day before the Sabbath), <sup>43</sup> Joseph of Arimathea, a highly regarded member of the council, who was himself looking forward to the kingdom of God, went boldly to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

<sup>44</sup> Pilate was surprised that he was already dead. He called the centurion and asked him if he had been dead for some time.

<sup>45</sup> When Pilate was informed by the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.

<sup>46</sup> After Joseph bought a linen cloth and took down the body, he wrapped it in the linen and placed it in a tomb cut out of the rock. Then he rolled a stone across the entrance of the tomb.

<sup>47</sup> Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Jesus saw where the body was placed.

16

<sup>1</sup> When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought aromatic spices so that they might go and anoint him.

<sup>2</sup> And very early on the first day of the week, at sunrise, they went to the tomb.

<sup>3</sup> They had been asking each other, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?"

<sup>4</sup> But when they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had been rolled back.

<sup>5</sup> Then as they went into the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed.

<sup>6</sup> But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. He has been raised! He is not here. Look, there is the place where they laid him.

<sup>7</sup> But go, tell his disciples, even Peter, that he is going ahead of you into Galilee. You will see him there, just as he told you."

<sup>8</sup> Then they went out and ran from the tomb, for terror and bewilderment had seized them. And they said nothing to anyone, because they were afraid.

The Longer Ending of Mark

<sup>9</sup> [[Early on the first day of the week, after he arose, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had driven out seven demons.

<sup>10</sup> She went out and told those who were with him, while they were mourning and weeping.

<sup>11</sup> And when they heard that he was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe.

<sup>12</sup> After this he appeared in a different form to two of them while they were on their way to the country.

<sup>13</sup> They went back and told the rest, but they did not believe them.

<sup>14</sup> Then he appeared to the eleven themselves, while they were eating, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen him resurrected.

<sup>15</sup> He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature.

<sup>16</sup> The one who believes and is baptized will be saved, but the one who does not believe will be condemned.

<sup>17</sup> These signs will accompany those who believe: In my name they will drive out demons; they will speak in new languages;

<sup>18</sup> they will pick up snakes with their hands, and whatever poison they drink will not harm them; they will place their hands on the sick and they will be well.”

<sup>19</sup> After the Lord Jesus had spoken to them, he was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God.

<sup>20</sup> They went out and proclaimed everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the word through the accompanying signs.]]

Luke

Explanatory Preface

<sup>1</sup> Now many have undertaken to compile an account of the things that have been fulfilled among us, <sup>2</sup> like the accounts passed on to us by those who were eyewitnesses and servants of the word from the beginning.

<sup>3</sup> So it seemed good to me as well, because I have followed all things carefully from the beginning, to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus, <sup>4</sup> so that you may know for certain the things you were taught.

Birth Announcement of John the Baptist

<sup>5</sup> During the reign of Herod king of Judea, there lived a priest named Zechariah who belonged to the priestly division of Abijah, and he had a wife named Elizabeth, who was a descendant of Aaron.

<sup>6</sup> They were both righteous in the sight of God, following all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blamelessly.

<sup>7</sup> But they did not have a child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they were both very old.

<sup>8</sup> Now while Zechariah was serving as priest before God when his division was on duty, <sup>9</sup> he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to enter the holy place of the Lord and burn incense.

<sup>10</sup> Now the whole crowd of people were praying outside at the hour of the incense offering.

<sup>12</sup> And Zechariah, visibly shaken when he saw the angel, was seized with fear.

<sup>13</sup> But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, for your prayer has been heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son; you will name him John.

<sup>14</sup> Joy and gladness will come to you, and many will rejoice at his birth, <sup>15</sup> for he will be great in the sight of the Lord. He must never drink wine or strong drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even before his birth.

<sup>16</sup> He will turn many of the people of Israel to the Lord their God.

<sup>17</sup> And he will go as forerunner before the Lord in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers back to their children and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready for the Lord a people prepared for him."

<sup>18</sup> Zechariah said to the angel, "How can I be sure of this? For I am an old man, and my wife is old as well."

<sup>19</sup> The angel answered him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God, and I was sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news.

<sup>20</sup> And now, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time, you will be silent, unable to speak, until the day these things take place."

<sup>21</sup> Now the people were waiting for Zechariah, and they began to wonder why he was delayed in the holy place.

<sup>22</sup> When he came out, he was not able to speak to them. They realized that he had seen a vision in the holy place, because he was making signs to them and remained unable to speak.

<sup>23</sup> When his time of service was over, he went to his home.

<sup>24</sup> After some time his wife Elizabeth became pregnant, and for five months she kept herself in seclusion. She said,

<sup>25</sup> “This is what the Lord has done for me at the time when he has been gracious to me, to take away my disgrace among people.”

Birth Announcement of Jesus the Messiah

<sup>26</sup> In the sixth month of Elizabeth’s pregnancy, the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town of Galilee called Nazareth, <sup>27</sup> to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, a descendant of David, and the virgin’s name was Mary.

<sup>28</sup> The angel came to her and said, “Greetings, favored one, the Lord is with you!”

<sup>29</sup> But she was greatly troubled by his words and began to wonder about the meaning of this greeting.

<sup>30</sup> So the angel said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God!

<sup>31</sup> Listen: You will become pregnant and give birth to a son, and you will name him Jesus.

<sup>32</sup> He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give him the throne of his father David.

<sup>35</sup> The angel replied, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore the child to be born will be holy; he will be called the Son of God.

<sup>36</sup> “And look, your relative Elizabeth has also become pregnant with a son in her old age – although she was called barren, she is now in her sixth month!

<sup>38</sup> So Mary said, “Yes, I am a servant of the Lord; let this happen to me according to your word.” Then the angel departed from her.

Mary and Elizabeth

<sup>39</sup> In those days Mary got up and went hurriedly into the hill country, to a town of Judah,

<sup>41</sup> When Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.

<sup>42</sup> She exclaimed with a loud voice, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the child in your womb!

<sup>43</sup> And who am I that the mother of my Lord should come and visit me?

<sup>44</sup> For the instant the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy.

<sup>45</sup> And blessed is she who believed that what was spoken to her by the Lord would be fulfilled.”

Mary’s Hymn of Praise

<sup>46</sup> And Mary said,

“My soul exalts the Lord,

<sup>47</sup> and my spirit has begun to rejoice in God my Savior, <sup>48</sup> because he has looked upon the humble state of his servant.

For from now on all generations will call me blessed,

<sup>49</sup> because he who is mighty has done great things for me, and holy is his name;

<sup>50</sup> from generation to generation he is merciful to those who fear him.

- 51 He has demonstrated power with his arm; he has scattered those whose pride wells up from the sheer arrogance of their hearts.
52 He has brought down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up those of lowly position;
53 he has filled the hungry with good things, and has sent the rich away empty.
54 He has helped his servant Israel, remembering his mercy, 55 as he promised to our ancestors, to Abraham and to his descendants forever.”
56 So Mary stayed with Elizabeth about three months and then returned to her home.

The Birth of John

- 57 Now the time came for Elizabeth to have her baby, and she gave birth to a son.
58 Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown great mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her.
59 On the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they wanted to name him Zechariah after his father.
60 But his mother replied, “No! He must be named John.”
61 They said to her, “But none of your relatives bears this name.”
62 So they made signs to the baby’s father, inquiring what he wanted to name his son.
63 He asked for a writing tablet and wrote, “His name is John.” And they were all amazed.
64 Immediately Zechariah’s mouth was opened and his tongue released, and he spoke, blessing God.
65 All their neighbors were filled with fear, and throughout the entire hill country of Judea all these things were talked about.
66 All who heard these things kept them in their hearts, saying, “What then will this child be?” For the Lord’s hand was indeed with him.

Zechariah’s Praise and Prediction

- 67 Then his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied, 68 “Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, because he has come to help and has redeemed his people.
69 For he has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David,
70 as he spoke through the mouth of his holy prophets from long ago, 71 that we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all who hate us.
72 He has done this to show mercy to our ancestors, and to remember his holy covenant –
73 the oath that he swore to our ancestor Abraham.
This oath grants
74 that we, being rescued from the hand of our enemies, may serve him without fear,
75 in holiness and righteousness before him for as long as we live.
76 And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most High.
For you will go before the Lord to prepare his ways,
77 to give his people knowledge of salvation through the forgiveness of their sins.
78 Because of our God’s tender mercy the dawn will break upon us from on high 79 to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.”
80 And the child kept growing and becoming strong in spirit, and he was in the wilderness until the day he was revealed to Israel.

2

<sup>4</sup> So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth because he was of the house and family line of David.

<sup>5</sup> He went to be registered with Mary, who was promised in marriage to him, and who was expecting a child.

<sup>6</sup> While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child.

<sup>7</sup> And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

The Shepherds' Visit

<sup>8</sup> Now there were shepherds nearby living out in the field, keeping guard over their flock at night.

<sup>9</sup> An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were absolutely terrified.

<sup>10</sup> But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid! Listen carefully, for I proclaim to you good news that brings great joy to all the people:

<sup>11</sup> Today your Savior is born in the city of David. He is Christ the Lord.

<sup>12</sup> This will be a sign for you: You will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth and lying in a manger."

<sup>13</sup> Suddenly a vast, heavenly army appeared with the angel, praising God and saying,

<sup>14</sup> "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among people with whom he is pleased!"

<sup>15</sup> When the angels left them and went back to heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go over to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, that the Lord has made known to us."

<sup>16</sup> So they hurried off and located Mary and Joseph, and found the baby lying in a manger.

<sup>17</sup> When they saw him, they related what they had been told about this child, <sup>18</sup> and all who heard it were astonished at what the shepherds said.

<sup>19</sup> But Mary treasured up all these words, pondering in her heart what they might mean.

<sup>20</sup> So the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen; everything was just as they had been told.

<sup>21</sup> At the end of eight days, when he was circumcised, he was named Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

Jesus' Presentation at the Temple

<sup>22</sup> Now when the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, Joseph and Mary brought Jesus up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord

<sup>23</sup> (just as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every firstborn male will be set apart to the Lord" ), <sup>24</sup> and to offer a sacrifice according to what is specified in the law of the Lord, a pair | strong="G2201" of doves of doves or | strong="G2228" two young pigeons.

The Prophecy of Simeon

<sup>25</sup> Now there was a man in Jerusalem named Simeon who was righteous and devout, looking for the restoration of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him.

<sup>26</sup> It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

<sup>27</sup> So Simeon, directed by the Spirit, came into the temple courts, and when the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for him what was customary according to the law,

<sup>29</sup> “Now, according to your word, Sovereign Lord, permit your servant to depart in peace.

<sup>30</sup> For my eyes have seen your salvation

<sup>31</sup> that you have prepared in the presence of all peoples:

<sup>32</sup> a light,

for revelation to the Gentiles, and for glory to your people Israel.”

<sup>33</sup> So the child’s father and mother were amazed at what was said about him.

<sup>34</sup> Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, “Listen carefully: This child is destined to be the cause of the falling and rising of many in Israel and to be a sign that will be rejected.

<sup>35</sup> Indeed, as a result of him the thoughts of many hearts will be revealed – and a sword will pierce your own soul as well!”

The Testimony of Anna

<sup>36</sup> There was also a prophetess, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was very old, having been married to her husband for seven years until his death.

<sup>37</sup> She had lived as a widow since then for eighty-four years. She never left the temple, worshiping with fasting and prayer night and day.

<sup>38</sup> At that moment, she came up to them and began to give thanks to God and to speak about the child to all who were waiting for the redemption of Jerusalem.

<sup>39</sup> So when Joseph and Mary had performed everything according to the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth.

<sup>40</sup> And the child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom, and the favor of God was upon him.

Jesus in the Temple

<sup>41</sup> Now Jesus’ parents went to Jerusalem every year for the feast of the Passover.

<sup>42</sup> When he was twelve years old, they went up according to custom.

<sup>43</sup> But when the feast was over, as they were returning home, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. His parents did not know it, <sup>44</sup> but (because they assumed that he was in their group of travelers) they went a day’s journey. Then they began to look for him among their relatives and acquaintances.

<sup>45</sup> When they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him.

<sup>46</sup> After three days they found him in the temple courts, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions.

<sup>47</sup> And all who heard Jesus were astonished at his understanding and his answers.

<sup>48</sup> When his parents saw him, they were overwhelmed. His mother said to him, “Child, why have you treated us like this? Look, your father and I have been looking for you anxiously.”

<sup>49</sup> But he replied, “Why were you looking for me? Didn’t you know that I must be in my Father’s house?”

<sup>50</sup> Yet his parents did not understand the remark he made to them.

<sup>51</sup> Then he went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them. But his mother kept all these things in her heart.

<sup>52</sup> And Jesus increased in wisdom and in stature, and in favor with God and with people.

3

<sup>1</sup> In the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip was tetrarch of the region of Iturea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene, <sup>2</sup> during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John the son of Zechariah in the wilderness.

<sup>3</sup> He went into all the region around the Jordan River, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

<sup>4</sup> As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet,

‘Prepare the way for the Lord,

*make his paths straight*.*

<sup>5</sup> Every valley will be filled,

and every mountain and hill will be brought low,

and the crooked will be made straight,

and the rough ways will be made smooth,

<sup>6</sup> and all humanity will see | strong="G3700" the salvation of God.’ ”

<sup>7</sup> So John said to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, “You offspring of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath?”

<sup>8</sup> Therefore produce fruit that proves your repentance, and don’t begin to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’ For I tell you that God can raise up children for Abraham from these stones!

<sup>11</sup> John answered them, “The person who has two tunics must share with the person who has none, and the person who has food must do likewise.”

<sup>12</sup> Tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they said to him, “Teacher, what should we do?”

<sup>14</sup> Then some soldiers also asked him, “And as for us – what should we do?” He told them, “Take money from no one by violence or by false accusation, and be content with your pay.”

<sup>15</sup> While the people were filled with anticipation and they all wondered whether perhaps John could be the Christ, <sup>16</sup> John answered them all, “I baptize you with water, but one more powerful than I am is coming – I am not worthy to untie the strap of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.

<sup>19</sup> But when John rebuked Herod the tetrarch because of Herodias, his brother’s wife, and because of all the evil deeds that he had done, <sup>20</sup> Herod added this to them all: He locked up John in prison.

The Baptism of Jesus

<sup>21</sup> Now when all the people were baptized, Jesus also was baptized. And while he was praying, the heavens opened,

<sup>22</sup> and the Holy Spirit descended on him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, “You are my one dear Son; in you I take great delight.”

The Genealogy of Jesus

<sup>23</sup> So Jesus, when he began his ministry, was about thirty years old. He was the son (as was supposed) of Joseph, the son of Heli, <sup>24</sup> the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph, <sup>25</sup> the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai, <sup>26</sup> the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Josech, the son of Joda, <sup>27</sup> the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, <sup>28</sup> the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er, <sup>29</sup> the son of Joshua, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, <sup>30</sup> the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonam, the son of Eliakim, <sup>31</sup> the son of Melea, the son of Menna, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David,
<sup>32</sup> the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Sala, the son of Nahshon, <sup>33</sup> the son of Amminadab, the son of Admin, the son of Arni, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah, <sup>34</sup> the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor, <sup>35</sup> the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah, <sup>36</sup> the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech, <sup>37</sup> the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalalel, the son of Kenan, <sup>38</sup> the son of Enosh, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.

4

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan River and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, <sup>2</sup> where for forty days he endured temptations from the devil. He ate nothing during those days, and when they were completed, he was famished.
<sup>3</sup> The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread."
<sup>4</sup> Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'Man does not live by bread alone.' "
<sup>5</sup> Then the devil led him up to a high place and showed him in a flash all the kingdoms of the world.
<sup>6</sup> And he said to him, "To you I will grant this whole realm – and the glory that goes along with it, for it has been relinquished to me, and I can give it to anyone I wish.
<sup>7</sup> So then, if you will worship me, all this will be yours."
<sup>8</sup> Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'You are to worship the Lord your God and serve only him.' "
<sup>9</sup> Then the devil brought him to Jerusalem, had him stand on the highest point of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, <sup>10</sup> for it is written, 'He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you,'
<sup>11</sup> and 'with their hands they will lift you up, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.' "

<sup>12</sup> Jesus answered him, "It is said, 'You are not to put the Lord your God to the test.'"

<sup>13</sup> So when the devil had completed every temptation, he departed from him until a more opportune time.

The Beginning of Jesus' Ministry in Galilee

<sup>14</sup> Then Jesus, in the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and news about him spread throughout the surrounding countryside.

<sup>15</sup> He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by all.

Rejection at Nazareth

<sup>16</sup> Now Jesus came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, <sup>17</sup> and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written,

<sup>18</sup> "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and the regaining of sight to the blind, to set free those who are oppressed,

<sup>19</sup> to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor."

<sup>20</sup> Then he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fixed on him.

<sup>21</sup> Then he began to tell them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled even as you heard it being read."

<sup>22</sup> All were speaking well of him, and were amazed at the gracious words coming out of his mouth. They said, "Isn't this Joseph's son?"

<sup>23</sup> Jesus said to them, "No doubt you will quote to me the proverb, 'Physician, heal yourself!' and say, 'What we have heard that you did in Capernaum, do here in your hometown too.'"

<sup>24</sup> And he added, "I tell you the truth, no prophet is acceptable in his hometown.

<sup>25</sup> But in truth I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in Elijah's days, when the sky was shut up three and a half years, and there was a great famine over all the land.

<sup>26</sup> Yet Elijah was sent to none of them, but only to a woman who was a widow at Zarephath in Sidon.

<sup>27</sup> And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, yet none of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian."

<sup>28</sup> When they heard this, all the people in the synagogue were filled with rage.

<sup>29</sup> They got up, forced him out of the town, and brought him to the brow of the hill on which their town was built, so that they could throw him down the cliff.

<sup>30</sup> But he passed through the crowd and went on his way.

Ministry in Capernaum

<sup>31</sup> So he went down to Capernaum, a town in Galilee, and on the Sabbath he began to teach the people.

<sup>32</sup> They were amazed at his teaching, because he spoke with authority.

<sup>33</sup> Now in the synagogue there was a man who had the spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice,

<sup>34</sup> "Ha! Leave us alone, Jesus the Nazarene! Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are - the Holy One of God."

<sup>35</sup> But Jesus rebuked him: "Silence! Come out of him!" Then, after the demon threw the man down in their midst, he came out of him without hurting him.

<sup>36</sup> They were all amazed and began to say to one another, "What's happening here? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out!"

<sup>37</sup> So the news about him spread into all areas of the region.

<sup>39</sup> So he stood over her, commanded the fever, and it left her. Immediately she got up and began to serve them.

<sup>40</sup> As the sun was setting, all those who had any relatives sick with various diseases brought them to Jesus. He placed his hands on every one of them and healed them.

<sup>41</sup> Demons also came out of many, crying out, "You are the Son of God!" But he rebuked them, and would not allow them to speak, because they knew that he was the Christ.

<sup>42</sup> The next morning Jesus departed and went to a deserted place. Yet the crowds were seeking him, and they came to him and tried to keep him from leaving them.

<sup>43</sup> But Jesus said to them, "I must proclaim the good news of the kingdom of God to the other towns too, for that is what I was sent to do."

5

<sup>1</sup> Now Jesus was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing around him to hear the word of God.

<sup>2</sup> He saw two boats by the lake, but the fishermen had gotten out of them and were washing their nets.

<sup>3</sup> He got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then Jesus sat down and taught the crowds from the boat.

<sup>4</sup> When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and lower your nets for a catch."

<sup>5</sup> Simon answered, "Master, we worked hard all night and caught nothing! But at your word I will lower the nets."

<sup>6</sup> When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets started to tear.

<sup>7</sup> So they motioned to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they were about to sink.

<sup>8</sup> But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!"

<sup>9</sup> For Peter and all who were with him were astonished at the catch of fish that they had taken,

<sup>10</sup> and so were James and John, Zebedee's sons, who were Simon's business partners. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people."

<sup>11</sup> So when they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

Healing a Leper

<sup>12</sup> While Jesus was in one of the towns, a man came to him who was covered with leprosy. When he saw Jesus, he bowed down with his face to the ground and begged him, "Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean."

<sup>13</sup> So he stretched out his hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be clean!" And immediately the leprosy left him.

<sup>14</sup> Then he ordered the man to tell no one, but commanded him, "Go and show yourself to a priest, and bring the offering for your cleansing, as Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

<sup>15</sup> But the news about him spread even more, and large crowds were gathering together to hear him and to be healed of their illnesses.

<sup>16</sup> Yet Jesus himself frequently withdrew to the wilderness and prayed.

Healing and Forgiving a Paralytic

<sup>17</sup> Now on one of those days, while he was teaching, there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting nearby (who had come from every village of Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem), and the power of the Lord was with him to heal.

<sup>18</sup> Just then some men showed up, carrying a paralyzed man on a stretcher. They were trying to bring him in and place him before Jesus.

<sup>19</sup> But since they found no way to carry him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and let him down on the stretcher through the roof tiles right in front of Jesus.

<sup>21</sup> Then the experts in the law and the Pharisees began to think to themselves, "Who is this man who is uttering blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

<sup>22</sup> When Jesus perceived their hostile thoughts, he said to them, "Why are you raising objections within yourselves?"

<sup>24</sup> But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" – he said to the paralyzed man – "I tell you, stand up, take your stretcher and go home."

<sup>25</sup> Immediately he stood up before them, picked up the stretcher he had been lying on, and went home, glorifying God.

<sup>26</sup> Then astonishment seized them all, and they glorified God. They were filled with awe, saying, "We have seen incredible things today."

The Call of Levi; Eating with Sinners

<sup>27</sup> After this, Jesus went out and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax booth. "Follow me," he said to him.

<sup>28</sup> And he got up and followed him, leaving everything behind.

<sup>29</sup> Then Levi gave a great banquet in his house for Jesus, and there was a large crowd of tax collectors and others sitting at the table with them.

<sup>30</sup> But the Pharisees and their experts in the law complained to his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"

<sup>31</sup> Jesus answered them, "Those who are well don't need a physician, but those who are sick do.

<sup>32</sup> I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

The Superiority of the New

<sup>33</sup> Then they said to him, "John's disciples frequently fast and pray, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours continue to eat and drink."

<sup>34</sup> So Jesus said to them, "You cannot make the wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them, can you?"

<sup>35</sup> But those days are coming, and when the bridegroom is taken from them, at that time they will fast."

<sup>36</sup> He also told them a parable: "No one tears a patch from a new garment and sews it on an old garment. If he does, he will have torn the new, and the piece from the new will not match the old.

<sup>37</sup> And no one pours new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the new wine will burst the skins and will be spilled, and the skins will be destroyed.

6

<sup>2</sup> But some of the Pharisees said, "Why are you doing what is against the law on the Sabbath?"

<sup>3</sup> Jesus answered them, "Haven't you read what David did when he and his companions were hungry –

<sup>4</sup> how he entered the house of God, took and ate the sacred bread, which is not lawful for any to eat but the priests alone, and gave it to his companions?"

<sup>5</sup> Then he said to them, "The Son of Man is lord of the Sabbath."

Healing a Withered Hand

<sup>6</sup> On another Sabbath, Jesus entered the synagogue and was teaching. Now a man was there whose right hand was withered.

<sup>7</sup> The experts in the law and the Pharisees watched Jesus closely to see if he would heal on the Sabbath, so that they could find a reason to accuse him.

<sup>8</sup> But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man who had the withered hand, "Get up and stand here." So he rose and stood there.

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "I ask you, is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath or to do evil, to save a life or to destroy it?"

<sup>10</sup> After looking around at them all, he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." The man did so, and his hand was restored.

<sup>11</sup> But they were filled with mindless rage and began debating with one another what they would do to Jesus.

Choosing the Twelve Apostles

<sup>12</sup> Now it was during this time that Jesus went out to the mountain to pray, and he spent all night in prayer to God.

<sup>13</sup> When morning came, he called his disciples and chose twelve of them, whom he also named apostles:

<sup>15</sup> Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Simon who was called the Zealot, <sup>16</sup> Judas the son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

The Sermon on the Plain

<sup>17</sup> Then he came down with them and stood on a level place. And a large number of his disciples had gathered along with a vast multitude from all over Judea, from Jerusalem, They came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases,

<sup>19</sup> The whole crowd was trying to touch him, because power was coming out from him and healing them all.

<sup>20</sup> Then he looked up at his disciples and said:

"Blessed are you who are poor, for the kingdom of God belongs to you.

<sup>21</sup> "Blessed are you who hunger now, for you will be satisfied.

"Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.

<sup>22</sup> "Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you and insult you and reject you as evil on account of the Son of Man!

<sup>23</sup> Rejoice in that day, and jump for joy, because your reward is great in heaven. For their ancestors did the same things to the prophets.

<sup>24</sup> "But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your comfort already.

<sup>25</sup> "Woe to you who are well satisfied with food now, for you will be hungry.

“Woe to you who laugh now, for you will mourn and weep.

<sup>26</sup> “Woe to you when all people speak well of you, for their ancestors did the same things to the false prophets.

<sup>27</sup> “But I say to you who are listening: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, <sup>28</sup> bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you.

<sup>29</sup> To the person who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other as well, and from the person who takes away your coat, do not withhold your tunic either.

<sup>30</sup> Give to everyone who asks you, and do not ask for your possessions back from the person who takes them away.

<sup>31</sup> Treat others in the same way that you would want them to treat you.

<sup>32</sup> “If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.

<sup>33</sup> And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do the same.

<sup>34</sup> And if you lend to those from whom you hope to be repaid, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, so that they may be repaid in full.

<sup>35</sup> But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing back. Then your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, because he is kind to ungrateful and evil people.

Do Not Judge Others

<sup>37</sup> “Do not judge, and you will not be judged; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned; forgive, and you will be forgiven.

<sup>38</sup> Give, and it will be given to you: A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be poured into your lap. For the measure you use will be the measure you receive.”

<sup>39</sup> He also told them a parable: “Someone who is blind cannot lead another who is blind, can he? Won’t they both fall into a pit?

<sup>40</sup> A disciple is not greater than his teacher, but everyone when fully trained will be like his teacher.

<sup>42</sup> How can you say to your brother, ‘Brother, let me remove the speck from your eye,’ while you yourself don’t see the beam in your own? You hypocrite! First remove the beam from your own eye, and then you can see clearly to remove the speck from your brother’s eye.

<sup>43</sup> “For no good tree bears bad fruit, nor again does a bad tree bear good fruit, <sup>44</sup> for each tree is known by its own fruit. For figs are not gathered from thorns, nor are grapes picked from brambles.

<sup>46</sup> “Why do you call me ‘Lord, Lord,’ and don’t do what I tell you?

<sup>47</sup> “Everyone who comes to me and listens to my words and puts them into practice – I will show you what he is like:

<sup>48</sup> He is like a man building a house, who dug down deep, and laid the foundation on bedrock. When a flood came, the river burst against that house but could not shake it, because it had been well built.

<sup>49</sup> But the person who hears and does not put my words into practice is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the river burst against that house, it collapsed immediately, and was utterly destroyed!"

7

<sup>1</sup> After Jesus had finished teaching all this to the people, he entered Capernaum.

<sup>2</sup> A centurion there had a slave who was highly regarded, but who was sick and at the point of death.

<sup>3</sup> When the centurion heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders to him, asking him to come and heal his slave.

<sup>4</sup> When they came to Jesus, they urged him earnestly, "He is worthy to have you do this for him,

<sup>6</sup> So Jesus went with them. When he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to say to him, "Lord, do not trouble yourself, for I am not worthy to have you come under my roof.

<sup>7</sup> That is why I did not presume to come to you. Instead, say the word, and my servant must be healed.

<sup>8</sup> For I too am a man set under authority, with soldiers under me. I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my slave, 'Do this,' and he does it."

<sup>9</sup> When Jesus heard this, he was amazed at him. He turned and said to the crowd that followed him, "I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such faith!"

<sup>10</sup> So when those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the slave well.

Raising a Widow's Son

<sup>11</sup> Soon afterward Jesus went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went with him.

<sup>12</sup> As he approached the town gate, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother (who was a widow), and a large crowd from the town was with her.

<sup>13</sup> When the Lord saw her, he had compassion for her and said to her, "Do not weep."

<sup>14</sup> Then he came up and touched the bier, and those who carried it stood still. He said, "Young man, I say to you, get up!"

<sup>15</sup> So the dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him back to his mother.

<sup>16</sup> Fear seized them all, and they began to glorify God, saying, "A great prophet has appeared among us!" and "God has come to help his people!"

<sup>17</sup> This report about Jesus circulated throughout Judea and all the surrounding country.

Jesus and John the Baptist

<sup>18</sup> John's disciples informed him about all these things. So John called two of his disciples

<sup>19</sup> and sent them to Jesus to ask, "Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?"

<sup>20</sup> When the men came to Jesus, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to you to ask, 'Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?' "

<sup>21</sup> At that very time Jesus cured many people of diseases, sicknesses, and evil spirits, and granted sight to many who were blind.

<sup>22</sup> So he answered them, "Go tell John what you have seen and heard: The blind see, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, the poor have good news proclaimed to them.

<sup>24</sup> When John's messengers had gone, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?"

<sup>27</sup> This is the one about whom it is written, 'Look, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who |strong="G3739" will prepare your way before you.'

<sup>28</sup> I tell you, among those born of women no one is greater than John. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he is."

<sup>29</sup> (Now all the people who heard this, even the tax collectors, acknowledged God's justice, because they had been baptized with John's baptism.)

<sup>31</sup> "To what then should I compare the people of this generation, and what are they like?"

<sup>32</sup> They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling out to one another, 'We played the flute for you, yet you did not dance; we wailed in mourning, yet you did not weep.'

<sup>33</sup> For John the Baptist has come eating no bread and drinking no wine, and you say, 'He has a demon!'

<sup>34</sup> The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Look at him, a glutton and a drunk, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!'

<sup>35</sup> But wisdom is vindicated by all her children."

Jesus' Anointing

<sup>36</sup> Now one of the Pharisees asked Jesus to have dinner with him, so he went into the Pharisee's house and took his place at the table.

<sup>37</sup> Then when a woman of that town, who was a sinner, learned that Jesus was dining at the Pharisee's house, she brought an alabaster jar of perfumed oil.

<sup>39</sup> Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, he would know who and what kind of woman this is who is touching him, that she is a sinner."

<sup>40</sup> So Jesus answered him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." He replied, "Say it, Teacher."

<sup>41</sup> "A certain creditor had two debtors; one owed him five hundred silver coins, and the other fifty.

<sup>43</sup> Simon answered, "I suppose the one who had the bigger debt canceled." Jesus said to him, "You have judged rightly."

<sup>44</sup> Then, turning toward the woman, he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered your house. You gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair.

<sup>45</sup> You gave me no kiss of greeting, but from the time I entered she has not stopped kissing my feet.

<sup>46</sup> You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with perfumed oil.

<sup>47</sup> Therefore I tell you, her sins, which were many, are forgiven, thus she loved much; but the one who is forgiven little loves little."

<sup>49</sup> But those who were at the table with him began to say among themselves, "Who is this, who even forgives sins?"

<sup>50</sup> He said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

8

<sup>1</sup> Some time afterward he went on through towns and villages, preaching and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. The twelve were with him,

<sup>2</sup> and also some women who had been healed of evil spirits and disabilities: Mary (called Magdalene), from whom seven demons had gone out, <sup>3</sup> and Joanna the wife of Cuza (Herod's household manager), Susanna, and many others who provided for them out of their own resources.

The Parable of the Sower

<sup>4</sup> While a large crowd was gathering and people were coming to Jesus from one town after another, he spoke to them in a parable:

<sup>5</sup> "A sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some fell along the path and was trampled on, and the wild birds devoured it.

<sup>6</sup> Other seed fell on rock, and when it came up, it withered because it had no moisture.

<sup>7</sup> Other seed fell among the thorns, and they grew up with it and choked it.

<sup>8</sup> But other seed fell on good soil and grew, and it produced a hundred times as much grain." As he said this, he called out, "The one who has ears to hear had better listen!"

<sup>10</sup> He said, "You have been given the opportunity to know the secrets of the kingdom of God, but for others they are in parables, so that although they see they may not see, and although they hear they may not understand.

<sup>11</sup> "Now the parable means this: The seed is the word of God.

<sup>12</sup> Those along the path are the ones who have heard; then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved.

<sup>13</sup> Those on the rock are the ones who receive the word with joy when they hear it, but they have no root. They believe for a while, but in a time of testing fall away.

<sup>14</sup> As for the seed that fell among thorns, these are the ones who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked by the worries and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not mature.

<sup>15</sup> But as for the seed that landed on good soil, these are the ones who, after hearing the word, cling to it with an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with steadfast endurance.

Showing the Light

<sup>16</sup> "No one lights a lamp and then covers it with a jar or puts it under a bed, but puts it on a lampstand so that those who come in can see the light.

<sup>17</sup> For nothing is hidden that will not be revealed, and nothing concealed that will not be made known and brought to light.

<sup>18</sup> So listen carefully, for whoever has will be given more, but whoever does not have, even what he thinks he has will be taken from him."

Jesus' True Family

<sup>19</sup> Now Jesus' mother and his brothers came to him, but they could not get near him because of the crowd.

<sup>20</sup> So he was told, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you."

<sup>21</sup> But he replied to them, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it."

Stilling of a Storm

<sup>22</sup> One day Jesus got into a boat with his disciples and said to them, "Let's go across to the other side of the lake." So they set out, <sup>23</sup> and as they sailed he fell asleep. Now a violent windstorm came down on the lake, and the boat started filling up with water, and they were in danger.

<sup>24</sup> They came and woke him, saying, "Master, Master, we are about to die!" So he got up and rebuked the wind and the raging waves; they died down, and it was calm.

<sup>25</sup> Then he said to them, "Where is your faith?" But they were afraid and amazed, saying to one another, "Who then is this? He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him!"

Healing of a Demoniac

<sup>26</sup> So they sailed over to the region of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee.

<sup>27</sup> As Jesus stepped ashore, a certain man from the town met him who was possessed by demons. For a long time this man had worn no clothes and had not lived in a house, but among the tombs.

<sup>28</sup> When he saw Jesus, he cried out, fell down before him, and shouted with a loud voice, "Leave me alone, Jesus, Son of the Most High God! I beg you, do not torment me!"

<sup>29</sup> For Jesus had started commanding the evil spirit to come out of the man. (For it had seized him many times, so he would be bound with chains and shackles and kept under guard. But he would break the restraints and be driven by the demon into deserted places.)

<sup>30</sup> Jesus then asked him, "What is your name?" He said, "Legion," because many demons had entered him.

<sup>31</sup> And they began to beg him not to order them to depart into the abyss.

<sup>32</sup> Now a large herd of pigs was feeding there on the hillside, and the demonic spirits begged Jesus to let them go into them. He gave them permission.

<sup>33</sup> So the demons came out of the man and went into the pigs, and the herd of pigs rushed down the steep slope into the lake and drowned.

<sup>34</sup> When the herdsmen saw what had happened, they ran off and spread the news in the town and countryside.

<sup>35</sup> So the people went out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus. They found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at Jesus' feet, clothed and in his right mind, and they were afraid.

<sup>36</sup> Those who had seen it told them how the man who had been demon-possessed had been healed.

<sup>37</sup> Then all the people of the Gerasenes and the surrounding region asked Jesus to leave them alone, for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and left.

<sup>38</sup> The man from whom the demons had gone out begged to go with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying, <sup>39</sup> "Return to your home, and declare what God has done for you." So he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole town what Jesus had done for him.

Restoration and Healing

<sup>40</sup> Now when Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, because they were all waiting for him.

<sup>41</sup> Then a man named Jairus, who was a ruler of the synagogue, came up. Falling at Jesus' feet, he pleaded with him to come to his house, <sup>42</sup> because he had an only daughter, about twelve years old, and she was dying.

As Jesus was on his way, the crowds pressed around him.

<sup>43</sup> Now a woman was there who had been suffering from a hemorrhage for twelve years but could not be healed by anyone.

<sup>44</sup> She came up behind Jesus and touched the edge of his cloak, and at once the bleeding stopped.

<sup>45</sup> Then Jesus asked, "Who was it who touched me?" When they all denied it, Peter said, "Master, the crowds are surrounding you and pressing against you!"

<sup>46</sup> But Jesus said, "Someone touched me, for I know that power has gone out from me."

<sup>47</sup> When the woman saw that she could not escape notice, she came trembling and fell down before him. In the presence of all the people, she explained why she had touched him and how she had been immediately healed.

<sup>48</sup> Then he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace."

<sup>49</sup> While he was still speaking, someone from the synagogue ruler's house came and said, "Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the teacher any longer."

<sup>50</sup> But when Jesus heard this, he told him, "Do not be afraid; just believe, and she will be healed."

<sup>51</sup> Now when he came to the house, Jesus did not let anyone go in with him except Peter, John, and James, and the child's father and mother.

<sup>52</sup> Now they were all wailing and mourning for her, but he said, "Stop your weeping; she is not dead but asleep."

<sup>55</sup> Her spirit returned, and she got up immediately. Then he told them to give her something to eat.

<sup>56</sup> Her parents were astonished, but he ordered them to tell no one what had happened.

9

<sup>1</sup> After Jesus called the twelve together, he gave them power and authority over all demons and to cure diseases, <sup>2</sup> and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal the sick.

<sup>3</sup> He said to them, "Take nothing for your journey – no staff, no bag, no bread, no money, and do not take an extra tunic.

<sup>4</sup> Whatever house you enter, stay there until you leave the area.

<sup>5</sup> Wherever they do not receive you, as you leave that town, shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them."

<sup>6</sup> Then they departed and went throughout the villages, proclaiming the good news and healing people everywhere.

Herod's Confusion about Jesus

<sup>7</sup> Now Herod the tetrarch heard about everything that was happening, and he was thoroughly perplexed, because some people were saying that John had been raised from the dead, <sup>8</sup> while others were saying that Elijah had appeared, and still others that one of the prophets of long ago had risen.

<sup>9</sup> Herod said, "I had John beheaded, but who is this about whom I hear such things?" So Herod wanted to learn about Jesus.

The Feeding of the Five Thousand

<sup>10</sup> When the apostles returned, they told Jesus everything they had done. Then he took them with him and they withdrew privately to a town called Bethsaida.

<sup>11</sup> But when the crowds found out, they followed him. He welcomed them, spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and cured those who needed healing.

<sup>12</sup> Now the day began to draw to a close, so the twelve came and said to Jesus, "Send the crowd away, so they can go into the surrounding villages and countryside and find lodging and food, because we are in an isolated place."

<sup>13</sup> But he said to them, "You give them something to eat." They replied, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish – unless we go and buy food for all these people."

<sup>14</sup> (Now about five thousand men were there.) Then he said to his disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty each."

<sup>15</sup> So they did as Jesus directed, and the people all sat down.

<sup>16</sup> Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven he gave thanks and broke them. He gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd.

<sup>17</sup> They all ate and were satisfied, and what was left over was picked up – twelve baskets of broken pieces.

Peter's Confession

<sup>18</sup> Once when Jesus was praying by himself, and his disciples were nearby, he asked them, "Who do the crowds say that I am?"

<sup>20</sup> Then he said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered, "The Christ of God."

<sup>21</sup> But he forcefully commanded them not to tell this to anyone,

<sup>22</sup> saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and experts in the law, and be killed, and on the third day be raised."

A Call to Discipleship

<sup>23</sup> Then he said to them all, "If anyone wants to become my follower, he must deny himself, take up his cross daily, and follow me.

<sup>24</sup> For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it.

<sup>25</sup> For what does it benefit a person if he gains the whole world but loses or forfeits himself?

<sup>26</sup> For whoever is ashamed of me and my words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of that person when he comes in his glory and in the glory of the Father and of the holy angels.

<sup>27</sup> But I tell you most certainly, there are some standing here who will not experience death before they see the kingdom of God."

The Transfiguration

<sup>28</sup> Now about eight days after these sayings, Jesus took with him Peter, John, and James, and went up the mountain to pray.

<sup>29</sup> As he was praying, the appearance of his face was transformed, and his clothes became very bright, a brilliant white.

<sup>30</sup> Then two men, Moses and Elijah, began talking with him.

<sup>31</sup> They appeared in glorious splendor and spoke about his departure that he was about to carry out at Jerusalem.

<sup>32</sup> Now Peter and those with him were quite sleepy, but as they became fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him.

<sup>33</sup> Then as the men were starting to leave, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three shelters, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah" – not knowing what he was saying.

<sup>34</sup> As he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered the cloud.

<sup>35</sup> Then a voice came from the cloud, saying, “This is my Son, my Chosen One. Listen to him!”

<sup>36</sup> After the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. So they kept silent and told no one at that time anything of what they had seen.

Healing a Boy with an Unclean Spirit

<sup>37</sup> Now on the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a large crowd met him.

<sup>38</sup> Then a man from the crowd cried out, “Teacher, I beg you to look at my son – he is my only child!

<sup>39</sup> A spirit seizes him, and he suddenly screams; it throws him into convulsions and causes him to foam at the mouth. It hardly ever leaves him alone, torturing him severely.

<sup>40</sup> I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they could not do so.”

<sup>42</sup> As the boy was approaching, the demon threw him to the ground and shook him with convulsions. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.

<sup>43</sup> Then they were all astonished at the mighty power of God.

Another Prediction of Jesus’ Suffering

But while the entire crowd was amazed at everything Jesus was doing, he said to his disciples,

<sup>44</sup> “Take these words to heart, for the Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of men.”

<sup>45</sup> But they did not understand this statement; its meaning had been concealed from them, so that they could not grasp it. Yet they were afraid to ask him about this statement.

Concerning the Greatest

<sup>46</sup> Now an argument started among the disciples as to which of them might be the greatest.

<sup>47</sup> But when Jesus discerned their innermost thoughts, he took a child, had him stand by his side,

<sup>48</sup> and said to them, “Whoever welcomes this child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me, for the one who is least among you all is the one who is great.”

On the Right Side

<sup>49</sup> John answered, “Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him because he is not a disciple along with us.”

<sup>50</sup> But Jesus said to him, “Do not stop him, for whoever is not against you is for you.”

Rejection in Samaria

<sup>51</sup> Now when the days drew near for him to be taken up, Jesus set out resolutely to go to Jerusalem.

<sup>52</sup> He sent messengers on ahead of him. As they went along, they entered a Samaritan village to make things ready in advance for him, <sup>53</sup> but the villagers refused to welcome him, because he was determined to go to Jerusalem.

<sup>54</sup> Now when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, “Lord, do you want us to call fire to come down from heaven and consume them?”

<sup>55</sup> But Jesus turned and rebuked them,

<sup>56</sup> and they went on to another village.

Challenging Professed Followers

<sup>57</sup> As they were walking along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go."

<sup>59</sup> Jesus said to another, "Follow me." But he replied, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father."

<sup>60</sup> But Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead, but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God."

<sup>61</sup> Yet another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say goodbye to my family."

<sup>62</sup> Jesus said to him, "No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

10

<sup>1</sup> After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them on ahead of him two by two into every town and place where he himself was about to go.

<sup>2</sup> He said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest."

<sup>6</sup> And if a peace-loving person is there, your peace will remain on him, but if not, it will return to you.

<sup>7</sup> Stay in that same house, eating and drinking what they give you, for the worker deserves his pay. Do not move around from house to house.

<sup>8</sup> Whenever you enter a town and the people welcome you, eat what is set before you.

<sup>9</sup> Heal the sick in that town and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come upon you!'

<sup>10</sup> But whenever you enter a town and the people do not welcome you, go into its streets and say,

<sup>11</sup> 'Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this: The kingdom of God has come.'

<sup>12</sup> I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town!

<sup>13</sup> "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles done in you had been done in Tyre they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

<sup>14</sup> But it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you!

<sup>15</sup> And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? No, you will be thrown down to Hades!

<sup>16</sup> "The one who listens to you listens to me, and the one who rejects you rejects me, and the one who rejects me rejects the one who sent me."

<sup>17</sup> Then the seventy-two returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons submit to us in your name!"

<sup>18</sup> So he said to them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven.

<sup>19</sup> Look, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions and on the full force of the enemy, and nothing will hurt you.

<sup>20</sup> Nevertheless, do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names stand written in heaven."

<sup>21</sup> On that same occasion Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this was your gracious will.

<sup>22</sup> All things have been given to me by my Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, or who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son decides to reveal him."

<sup>23</sup> Then Jesus turned to his disciples and said privately, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see!

<sup>24</sup> For I tell you that many prophets and kings longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it."

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

<sup>25</sup> Now an expert in religious law stood up to test Jesus, saying, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

<sup>26</sup> He said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you understand it?"

<sup>27</sup> The expert answered, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and love your neighbor as yourself."

<sup>28</sup> Jesus said to him, "You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live."

<sup>29</sup> But the expert, wanting to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

<sup>30</sup> Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him up, and went off, leaving him half dead.

<sup>31</sup> Now by chance a priest was going down that road, but when he saw the injured man he passed by on the other side.

<sup>32</sup> So too a Levite, when he came up to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.

<sup>33</sup> But a Samaritan who was traveling came to where the injured man was, and when he saw him, he felt compassion for him.

<sup>34</sup> He went up to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

<sup>35</sup> The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, 'Take care of him, and whatever else you spend, I will repay you when I come back this way.'

<sup>36</sup> Which of these three do you think became a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?"

<sup>37</sup> The expert in religious law said, "The one who showed mercy to him." So Jesus said to him, "Go and do the same."

Jesus and Martha

<sup>38</sup> Now as they went on their way, Jesus entered a certain village where a woman named Martha welcomed him as a guest.

<sup>39</sup> She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he said.

<sup>40</sup> But Martha was distracted with all the preparations she had to make, so she came up to him and said, "Lord, don't you care that my sister has left me to do all the work alone? Tell her to help me."

<sup>41</sup> But the Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and troubled about many things, <sup>42</sup> but one thing is needed. Mary has chosen the best part; it will not be taken away from her."

11

<sup>1</sup> Now Jesus was praying in a certain place. When he stopped, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples."

<sup>2</sup> So he said to them, "When you pray, say:

Father, may your name be honored;
may your kingdom come.

<sup>3</sup> Give us each day our daily bread,

<sup>4</sup> and forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who sins against us.

And do not lead us into temptation.”

<sup>5</sup> Then he said to them, “Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread,

<sup>6</sup> because a friend of mine has stopped here while on a journey, and I have nothing to set before him.’

<sup>7</sup> Then he will reply from inside, ‘Do not bother me. The door is already shut, and my children and I are in bed. I cannot get up and give you anything.’

<sup>8</sup> I tell you, even though the man inside will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, yet because of the first man’s sheer persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs.

<sup>9</sup> “So I tell you: Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you.

<sup>10</sup> For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.

<sup>11</sup> What father among you, if your son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead of a fish?

<sup>12</sup> Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion?

<sup>13</sup> If you then, although you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!”

Jesus and Beelzebul

<sup>14</sup> Now he was casting out a demon that was mute. When the demon had gone out, the man who had been mute began to speak, and the crowds were amazed.

<sup>15</sup> But some of them said, “By the power of Beelzebul, the ruler of demons, he casts out demons.”

<sup>18</sup> So if Satan too is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? I ask you this because you claim that I cast out demons by Beelzebul.

<sup>19</sup> Now if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges.

<sup>20</sup> But if I cast out demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has already overtaken you.

<sup>23</sup> Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters.

Response to Jesus’ Work

<sup>25</sup> When it returns, it finds the house swept clean and put in order.

<sup>26</sup> Then it goes and brings seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they go in and live there, so the last state of that person is worse than the first.”

<sup>27</sup> As he said these things, a woman in the crowd spoke out to him, “Blessed is the womb that bore you and the breasts at which you nursed!”

<sup>28</sup> But he replied, “Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and obey it!”

The Sign of Jonah

<sup>29</sup> As the crowds were increasing, Jesus began to say, “This generation is a wicked generation; it looks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah.

<sup>30</sup> For just as Jonah became a sign to the people of Nineveh, so the Son of Man will be a sign to this generation.

<sup>31</sup> The queen of the South will rise up at the judgment with the people of this generation and condemn them, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon – and now, something greater than Solomon is here!

Internal Light

<sup>33</sup> “No one after lighting a lamp puts it in a hidden place or under a basket, but on a lampstand, so that those who come in can see the light.

<sup>34</sup> Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eye is healthy, your whole body is full of light, but when it is diseased, your body is full of darkness.

<sup>35</sup> Therefore see to it that the light in you is not darkness.

<sup>36</sup> If then your whole body is full of light, with no part in the dark, it will be as full of light as when the light of a lamp shines on you.”

Rebuking the Pharisees and Experts in the Law

<sup>37</sup> As he spoke, a Pharisee invited Jesus to have a meal with him, so he went in and took his place at the table.

<sup>38</sup> The Pharisee was astonished when he saw that Jesus did not first wash his hands before the meal.

<sup>39</sup> But the Lord said to him, “Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and the plate, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness.

<sup>40</sup> You fools! Didn’t the one who made the outside make the inside as well?

<sup>41</sup> But give from your heart to those in need, and then everything will be clean for you.

<sup>42</sup> “But woe to you Pharisees! You give a tenth of your mint, rue, and every herb, yet you neglect justice and love for God! But you should have done these things without neglecting the others.

<sup>43</sup> Woe to you Pharisees! You love the best seats in the synagogues and elaborate greetings in the marketplaces!

<sup>44</sup> Woe to you! You are like unmarked graves, and people walk over them without realizing it!”

<sup>46</sup> But Jesus replied, “Woe to you experts in religious law as well! You load people down with burdens difficult to bear, yet you yourselves refuse to touch the burdens with even one of your fingers!

<sup>47</sup> Woe to you! You build the tombs of the prophets whom your ancestors killed.

<sup>48</sup> So you testify that you approve of the deeds of your ancestors, because they killed the prophets and you build their tombs!

<sup>49</sup> For this reason also the wisdom of God said, ‘I will send them prophets and apostles, some of whom they will kill and persecute,’

<sup>50</sup> so that this generation may be held accountable for the blood of all the prophets that has been shed since the beginning of the world,

<sup>51</sup> from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who was killed between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I tell you, it will be charged against this generation.

<sup>52</sup> Woe to you experts in religious law! You have taken away the key to knowledge! You did not go in yourselves, and you hindered those who were going in."

<sup>53</sup> When he went out from there, the experts in the law and the Pharisees began to oppose him bitterly, and to ask him hostile questions about many things, <sup>54</sup> plotting against him, to catch him in something he might say.

12

Fear God, Not People

<sup>1</sup> Meanwhile, when many thousands of the crowd had gathered so that they were trampling on one another, Jesus began to speak first to his disciples, "Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

<sup>2</sup> Nothing is hidden that will not be revealed, and nothing is secret that will not be made known.

<sup>3</sup> So then whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered in private rooms will be proclaimed from the housetops.

<sup>4</sup> "I tell you, my friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have nothing more they can do.

<sup>5</sup> But I will warn you whom you should fear: Fear the one who, after the killing, has authority to throw you into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear him!

<sup>7</sup> In fact, even the hairs on your head are all numbered. Do not be afraid; you are more valuable than many sparrows.

<sup>8</sup> "I tell you, whoever acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man will also acknowledge before God's angels.

<sup>9</sup> But the one who denies me before men will be denied before God's angels.

<sup>10</sup> And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but the person who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

<sup>11</sup> But when they bring you before the synagogues, the rulers, and the authorities, do not worry about how you should make your defense or what you should say,

<sup>12</sup> for the Holy Spirit will teach you at that moment what you must say."

The Parable of the Rich Landowner

<sup>13</sup> Then someone from the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

<sup>14</sup> But Jesus said to him, "Man, who made me a judge or arbitrator between you two?"

<sup>15</sup> Then he said to them, "Watch out and guard yourself from all types of greed, because one's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions."

<sup>17</sup> so he thought to himself, 'What should I do, for I have nowhere to store my crops?'

<sup>18</sup> Then he said, 'I will do this: I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods.

<sup>19</sup> And I will say to myself, 'You have plenty of goods stored up for many years; relax, eat, drink, celebrate!'

<sup>20</sup> But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life will be demanded back from you, but who will get what you have prepared for yourself?'

21 So it is with the one who stores up riches for himself, but is not rich toward God.”

Exhortation Not to Worry

22 Then Jesus said to his disciples, “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat, or about your body, what you will wear.

23 For there is more to life than food, and more to the body than clothing.

24 Consider the ravens: They do not sow or reap, they have no storeroom or barn, yet God feeds them. How much more valuable are you than the birds!

25 And which of you by worrying can add an hour to his life?

26 So if you cannot do such a very little thing as this, why do you worry about the rest?

27 Consider how the flowers grow; they do not work or spin. Yet I tell you, not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed like one of these!

28 And if this is how God clothes the wild grass, which is here today and tomorrow is tossed into the fire to heat the oven, how much more will he clothe you, you people of little faith!

29 So do not be overly concerned about what you will eat and what you will drink, and do not worry about such things.

30 For all the nations of the world pursue these things, and your Father knows that you need them.

31 Instead, pursue his kingdom, and these things will be given to you as well.

32 “Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father is well pleased to give you the kingdom.

33 Sell your possessions and give to the poor. Provide yourselves purses that do not wear out – a treasure in heaven that never decreases, where no thief approaches and no moth destroys.

34 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Call to Faithful Stewardship

35 “Get dressed for service and keep your lamps burning;

36 be like people waiting for their master to come back from the wedding celebration, so that when he comes and knocks they can immediately open the door for him.

37 Blessed are those slaves whom their master finds alert when he returns! I tell you the truth, he will dress himself to serve, have them take their place at the table, and will come and wait on them!

38 Even if he comes in the second or third watch of the night and finds them alert, blessed are those slaves!

39 But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into.

40 You also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him.”

41 Then Peter said, “Lord, are you telling this parable for us or for everyone?”

42 The Lord replied, “Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom the master puts in charge of his household servants, to give them their allowance of food at the proper time?

43 Blessed is that slave whom his master finds at work when he returns.

44 I tell you the truth, the master will put him in charge of all his possessions.

45 But if that slave should say to himself, ‘My master is delayed in returning,’ and he begins to beat the other slaves, both men and women, and to eat, drink, and get drunk,

46 then the master of that slave will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not foresee, and will cut him in two, and assign him a place with the unfaithful.

47 That servant who knew his master’s will but did not get ready or do what his master asked will receive a severe beating.

<sup>48</sup> But the one who did not know his master's will and did things worthy of punishment will receive a light beating. From everyone who has been given much, much will be required, and from the one who has been entrusted with much, even more will be asked.

Not Peace, but Division

<sup>49</sup> "I have come to bring fire on the earth – and how I wish it were already kindled!

<sup>50</sup> I have a baptism to undergo, and how distressed I am until it is finished!

<sup>51</sup> Do you think I have come to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division!

<sup>52</sup> For from now on there will be five in one household divided, three against two and two against three.

<sup>53</sup> They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law."

Reading the Signs

<sup>54</sup> Jesus also said to the crowds, "When you see a cloud rising in the west, you say at once, 'A rainstorm is coming,' and it does.

<sup>55</sup> And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, 'There will be scorching heat,' and there is.

<sup>56</sup> You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky, but how can you not know how to interpret the present time?

Clear the Debts

<sup>58</sup> As you are going with your accuser before the magistrate, make an effort to settle with him on the way, so that he will not drag you before the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison.

<sup>59</sup> I tell you, you will never get out of there until you have paid the very last cent!"

13

<sup>1</sup> Now there were some present on that occasion who told him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices.

<sup>2</sup> He answered them, "Do you think these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered these things?

<sup>3</sup> No, I tell you! But unless you repent, you will all perish as well!

<sup>4</sup> Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower in Siloam fell on them, do you think they were worse offenders than all the others who live in Jerusalem?

Warning to Israel to Bear Fruit

<sup>6</sup> Then Jesus told this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came looking for fruit on it and found none.

<sup>7</sup> So he said to the worker who tended the vineyard, 'For three years now, I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and each time I inspect it I find none. Cut it down! Why should it continue to deplete the soil?'

<sup>8</sup> But the worker answered him, 'Sir, leave it alone this year too, until I dig around it and put fertilizer on it.

<sup>9</sup> Then if it bears fruit next year, very well, but if not, you can cut it down.' "

Healing on the Sabbath

<sup>10</sup> Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath, <sup>11</sup> and a woman was there who had been disabled by a spirit for eighteen years. She was bent over and could not straighten herself up completely.

<sup>12</sup> When Jesus saw her, he called her to him and said, "Woman, you are freed from your infirmity."

<sup>13</sup> Then he placed his hands on her, and immediately she straightened up and praised God.

<sup>14</sup> But the president of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the crowd, "There are six days on which work should be done! So come and be healed on those days, and not on the Sabbath day."

<sup>15</sup> Then the Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from its stall, and lead it to water?"

<sup>16</sup> Then shouldn't this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be released from this imprisonment on the Sabbath day?"

<sup>17</sup> When he said this all his adversaries were humiliated, but the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things he was doing.

On the Kingdom of God

<sup>18</sup> Thus Jesus asked, "What is the kingdom of God like? To what should I compare it?"

<sup>19</sup> It is like a mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his garden. It grew and became a tree, and the wild birds nested in its branches."

<sup>20</sup> Again he said, "To what should I compare the kingdom of God?"

<sup>21</sup> It is like yeast that a woman took and mixed with three measures of flour until all the dough had risen."

The Narrow Door

<sup>22</sup> Then Jesus traveled throughout towns and villages, teaching and making his way toward Jerusalem.

<sup>23</sup> Someone asked him, "Lord, will only a few be saved?" So he said to them, <sup>24</sup> "Exert every effort to enter through the narrow door, because many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able to.

<sup>25</sup> Once the head of the house gets up and shuts the door, then you will stand outside and start to knock on the door and beg him, 'Lord, let us in!' But he will answer you, 'I don't know where you come from.'

<sup>26</sup> Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.'

<sup>27</sup> But he will reply, 'I don't know where you come from! Go away from me, all you evildoers!'

<sup>28</sup> There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in the kingdom of God but you yourselves thrown out.

<sup>29</sup> Then people will come from east and west, and from north and south, and take their places at the banquet table in the kingdom of God.

<sup>30</sup> But indeed, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last."

Going to Jerusalem

<sup>31</sup> At that time, some Pharisees came up and said to Jesus, "Get away from here, because Herod wants to kill you."

<sup>32</sup> But he said to them, "Go and tell that fox, 'Look, I am casting out demons and performing healings today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will complete my work.

<sup>33</sup> Nevertheless I must go on my way today and tomorrow and the next day, because it is impossible that a prophet should be killed outside Jerusalem.'

<sup>34</sup> O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those who are sent to you! How often I have longed to gather your children together as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you would have none of it!

<sup>35</sup> Look, your house is forsaken! And I tell you, you will not see me until you say, 'Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!' "

14

<sup>3</sup> So Jesus asked the experts in religious law and the Pharisees, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath or not?"

<sup>4</sup> But they remained silent. So Jesus took hold of the man, healed him, and sent him away.

<sup>5</sup> Then he said to them, "Which of you, if you have a son or an ox that has fallen into a well on a Sabbath day, will not immediately pull him out?"

<sup>6</sup> But they could not reply to this.

On Seeking Seats of Honor

<sup>7</sup> Then when Jesus noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, he told them a parable. He said to them, <sup>8</sup> "When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honor, because a person more distinguished than you may have been invited by your host.

<sup>9</sup> So the host who invited both of you will come and say to you, 'Give this man your place.' Then, ashamed, you will begin to move to the least important place.

<sup>10</sup> But when you are invited, go and take the least important place, so that when your host approaches he will say to you, 'Friend, move up here to a better place.' Then you will be honored in the presence of all who share the meal with you.

<sup>11</sup> For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

<sup>12</sup> He said also to the man who had invited him, "When you host a dinner or a banquet, don't invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors so you can be invited by them in return and get repaid.

<sup>13</sup> But when you host an elaborate meal, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind.

<sup>14</sup> Then you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

The Parable of the Great Banquet

<sup>15</sup> When one of those at the meal with Jesus heard this, he said to him, "Blessed is everyone who will feast in the kingdom of God!"

<sup>17</sup> At the time for the banquet he sent his slave to tell those who had been invited, 'Come, because everything is now ready.'

<sup>18</sup> But one after another they all began to make excuses. The first said to him, 'I have bought a field, and I must go out and see it. Please excuse me.'

<sup>19</sup> Another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going out to examine them. Please excuse me.'

<sup>20</sup> Another said, 'I just got married, and I cannot come.'

<sup>21</sup> So the slave came back and reported this to his master. Then the master of the household was furious and said to his slave, 'Go out quickly to the streets and alleys of the city, and bring in the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the lame.'

<sup>22</sup> Then the slave said, 'Sir, what you instructed has been done, and there is still room.'

<sup>23</sup> So the master said to his slave, 'Go out to the highways and country roads and urge people to come in, so that my house will be filled.

<sup>24</sup> For I tell you, not one of those individuals who were invited will taste my banquet!' "

Counting the Cost

<sup>25</sup> Now large crowds were accompanying Jesus, and turning to them he said, <sup>26</sup> “If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother, and wife and children, and brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple.

<sup>27</sup> Whoever does not carry his own cross and follow me cannot be my disciple.

<sup>28</sup> For which of you, wanting to build a tower, doesn’t sit down first and compute the cost to see if he has enough money to complete it?

<sup>29</sup> Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish the tower, all who see it will begin to make fun of him.

<sup>30</sup> They will say, ‘This man began to build and was not able to finish!’

<sup>31</sup> Or what king, going out to confront another king in battle, will not sit down first and determine whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one coming against him with twenty thousand?

<sup>32</sup> If he cannot succeed, he will send a representative while the other is still a long way off and ask for terms of peace.

<sup>33</sup> In the same way therefore not one of you can be my disciple if he does not renounce all his own possessions.

<sup>35</sup> It is of no value for the soil or for the manure pile; it is to be thrown out. The one who has ears to hear had better listen!”

15

<sup>2</sup> But the Pharisees and the experts in the law were complaining, “This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.”

<sup>3</sup> So Jesus told them this parable:

<sup>4</sup> “Which one of you, if he has a hundred sheep and loses one of them, would not leave the ninety-nine in the open pasture and go look for the one that is lost until he finds it?

<sup>5</sup> Then when he has found it, he places it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

<sup>6</sup> Returning home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, telling them, ‘Rejoice with me, because I have found my sheep that was lost.’

<sup>7</sup> I tell you, in the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need to repent.

<sup>8</sup> “Or what woman, if she has ten silver coins and loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search thoroughly until she finds it?

<sup>9</sup> Then when she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.’

<sup>10</sup> In the same way, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of God’s angels over one sinner who repents.”

The Parable of the Compassionate Father

<sup>11</sup> Then Jesus said, “A man had two sons.

<sup>12</sup> The younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me the share of the estate that will belong to me.’ So he divided his assets between them.

<sup>14</sup> Then after he had spent everything, a severe famine took place in that country, and he began to be in need.

<sup>15</sup> So he went and worked for one of the citizens of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed pigs.

<sup>16</sup> He was longing to eat the carob pods the pigs were eating, but no one gave him anything.

<sup>17</sup> But when he came to his senses he said, 'How many of my father's hired workers have food enough to spare, but here I am dying from hunger!

<sup>18</sup> I will get up and go to my father and say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you.

<sup>19</sup> I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired workers." "

<sup>20</sup> So he got up and went to his father. But while he was still a long way from home his father saw him, and his heart went out to him; he ran and hugged his son and kissed him.

<sup>21</sup> Then his son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

<sup>22</sup> But the father said to his slaves, 'Hurry! Bring the best robe, and put it on him! Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet!

<sup>23</sup> Bring the fattened calf and kill it! Let us eat and celebrate, <sup>24</sup> because this son of mine was dead, and is alive again – he was lost and is found!' So they began to celebrate.

<sup>25</sup> "Now his older son was in the field. As he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing.

<sup>26</sup> So he called one of the slaves and asked what was happening.

<sup>27</sup> The slave replied, 'Your brother has returned, and your father has killed the fattened calf because he got his son back safe and sound.'

<sup>28</sup> But the older son became angry and refused to go in. His father came out and appealed to him, <sup>29</sup> but he answered his father, 'Look! These many years I have worked like a slave for you, and I never disobeyed your commands. Yet you never gave me even a goat so that I could celebrate with my friends!

<sup>30</sup> But when this son of yours came back, who has devoured your assets with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him!'

<sup>31</sup> Then the father said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and everything that belongs to me is yours.

<sup>32</sup> It was appropriate to celebrate and be glad, for your brother was dead, and is alive; he was lost and is found.' "

16

<sup>1</sup> Jesus also said to the disciples, "There was a rich man who was informed of accusations that his manager was wasting his assets.

<sup>2</sup> So he called the manager in and said to him, 'What is this I hear about you? Turn in the account of your administration, because you can no longer be my manager.'

<sup>3</sup> Then the manager said to himself, 'What should I do, since my master is taking my position away from me? I'm not strong enough to dig, and I'm too ashamed to beg.

<sup>4</sup> I know what to do so that when I am put out of management, people will welcome me into their homes.'

<sup>5</sup> So he contacted his master's debtors one by one. He asked the first, 'How much do you owe my master?'

<sup>6</sup> The man replied, 'A hundred measures of olive oil.' The manager said to him, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and write fifty.'

<sup>7</sup> Then he said to another, 'And how much do you owe?' The second man replied, 'A hundred measures of wheat.' The manager said to him, 'Take your bill, and write eighty.'

<sup>8</sup> The master commended the dishonest manager because he acted shrewdly. For the people of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their contemporaries than the people of light.

<sup>9</sup> And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by how you use worldly wealth, so that when it runs out you will be welcomed into the eternal homes.

<sup>10</sup> “The one who is faithful in a very little is also faithful in much, and the one who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much.

<sup>11</sup> If then you haven’t been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will entrust you with the true riches?

<sup>12</sup> And if you haven’t been trustworthy with someone else’s property, who will give you your own ?

<sup>13</sup> No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money.”

More Warnings about the Pharisees

<sup>14</sup> The Pharisees (who loved money) heard all this and ridiculed him.

<sup>15</sup> But Jesus said to them, “You are the ones who justify yourselves in men’s eyes, but God knows your hearts. For what is highly prized among men is utterly detestable in God’s sight.

<sup>16</sup> “The law and the prophets were in force until John; since then, the good news of the kingdom of God has been proclaimed, and everyone is urged to enter it.

<sup>17</sup> But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one tiny stroke of a letter in the law to become void.

<sup>18</sup> “Everyone who divorces his wife and marries someone else commits adultery, and the one who marries a woman divorced from her husband commits adultery.

The Rich Man and Lazarus

<sup>19</sup> “There was a rich man who dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day.

<sup>20</sup> But at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus whose body was covered with sores, <sup>21</sup> who longed to eat what fell from the rich man’s table. In addition, the dogs came and licked his sores.

<sup>22</sup> “Now the poor man died and was carried by the angels to Abraham’s side. The rich man also died and was buried.

<sup>23</sup> And in hell, as he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far off with Lazarus at his side.

<sup>24</sup> So he called out, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in anguish in this fire.’

<sup>25</sup> But Abraham said, ‘Child, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things and Lazarus likewise bad things, but now he is comforted here and you are in anguish.

<sup>26</sup> Besides all this, a great chasm has been fixed between us, so that those who want to cross over from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us.’

<sup>27</sup> So the rich man said, ‘Then I beg you, father – send Lazarus to my father’s house

<sup>28</sup> (for I have five brothers) to warn them so that they don’t come into this place of torment.’

<sup>29</sup> But Abraham said, ‘They have Moses and the prophets; they must respond to them.’

<sup>30</sup> Then the rich man said, ‘No, father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.’

<sup>31</sup> He replied to him, ‘If they do not respond to Moses and the prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.’ ”

17

<sup>1</sup> Jesus said to his disciples, “Stumbling blocks are sure to come, but woe to the one through whom they come!

<sup>2</sup> It would be better for him to have a millstone tied around his neck and be thrown into the sea than for him to cause one of these little ones to sin.

<sup>3</sup> Watch yourselves! If your brother sins, rebuke him. If he repents, forgive him.

<sup>4</sup> Even if he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times returns to you saying, 'I repent,' you must forgive him."

<sup>6</sup> So the Lord replied, "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this black mulberry tree, 'Be pulled out by the roots and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

<sup>7</sup> "Would any one of you say to your slave who comes in from the field after plowing or shepherding sheep, 'Come at once and sit down for a meal'?

<sup>8</sup> Won't the master instead say to him, 'Get my dinner ready, and make yourself ready to serve me while I eat and drink. Then you may eat and drink'?

<sup>9</sup> He won't thank the slave because he did what he was told, will he?

<sup>10</sup> So you too, when you have done everything you were commanded to do, should say, 'We are slaves undeserving of special praise; we have only done what was our duty.' "

The Grateful Leper

<sup>11</sup> Now on the way to Jerusalem, Jesus was passing along between Samaria and Galilee.

<sup>12</sup> As he was entering a village, ten men with leprosy met him. They stood at a distance,

<sup>13</sup> raised their voices and said, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us."

<sup>14</sup> When he saw them he said, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went along, they were cleansed.

<sup>15</sup> Then one of them, when he saw he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice.

<sup>16</sup> He fell with his face to the ground at Jesus' feet and thanked him. (Now he was a Samaritan.)

<sup>17</sup> Then Jesus said, "Were not ten cleansed? Where are the other nine?

<sup>18</sup> Was no one found to turn back and give praise to God except this foreigner?"

<sup>19</sup> Then he said to the man, "Get up and go your way. Your faith has made you well."

The Coming of the Kingdom

<sup>20</sup> Now at one point the Pharisees asked Jesus when the kingdom of God was coming, so he answered, "The kingdom of God is not coming with signs to be observed, <sup>21</sup> nor will they say, 'Look, here it is!' or 'There!' For indeed, the kingdom of God is in your midst."

The Coming of the Son of Man

<sup>22</sup> Then he said to the disciples, "The days are coming when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it.

<sup>23</sup> Then people will say to you, 'Look, there he is!' or 'Look, here he is!' Do not go out or chase after them.

<sup>24</sup> For just like the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one side to the other, so will the Son of Man be in his day.

<sup>25</sup> But first he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

<sup>26</sup> Just as it was in the days of Noah, so too it will be in the days of the Son of Man.

<sup>27</sup> People were eating, they were drinking, they were marrying, they were being given in marriage – right up to the day Noah entered the ark. Then the flood came and destroyed them all.

<sup>28</sup> Likewise, just as it was in the days of Lot, people were eating, drinking, buying, selling, planting, building;

<sup>29</sup> but on the day Lot went out from Sodom, fire and sulfur rained down from heaven and destroyed them all.

<sup>30</sup> It will be the same on the day the Son of Man is revealed.

<sup>33</sup> Whoever tries to keep his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life will preserve it.

<sup>34</sup> I tell you, in that night there will be two people in one bed; one will be taken and the other left.

<sup>35</sup> There will be two women grinding grain together; one will be taken and the other left."

<sup>36</sup> *

<sup>37</sup> Then the disciples said to him, "Where, Lord?" He replied to them, "Where the dead body is, there the vultures will gather."

18

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus told them a parable to show them they should always pray and not lose heart.

<sup>2</sup> He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor respected people.

<sup>3</sup> There was also a widow in that city who kept coming to him and saying, 'Give me justice against my adversary.'

<sup>4</sup> For a while he refused, but later on he said to himself, 'Though I neither fear God nor have regard for people,

<sup>5</sup> yet because this widow keeps on bothering me, I will give her justice, or in the end she will wear me out by her unending pleas.' "

<sup>6</sup> And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unrighteous judge says!

<sup>7</sup> Won't God give justice to his chosen ones, who cry out to him day and night? Will he delay long to help them?

<sup>8</sup> I tell you, he will give them justice speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

The Parable of the Pharisee and Tax Collector

<sup>9</sup> Jesus also told this parable to some who were confident that they were righteous and looked down on everyone else.

<sup>10</sup> "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.

<sup>11</sup> The Pharisee stood and prayed about himself like this: 'God, I thank you that I am not like other people: extortionists, unrighteous people, adulterers - or even like this tax collector.

<sup>13</sup> The tax collector, however, stood far off and would not even look up to heaven, but beat his breast and said, 'God, be merciful to me, sinner that I am!'

<sup>14</sup> I tell you that this man went down to his home justified rather than the Pharisee. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted."

Jesus and Little Children

<sup>15</sup> Now people were even bringing their babies to him for him to touch. But when the disciples saw it, they began to scold those who brought them.

<sup>16</sup> But Jesus called for the children, saying, "Let the little children come to me and do not try to stop them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.

* 17:36 [[EMPTY]]

<sup>17</sup> I tell you the truth, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child will never enter it.”

The Wealthy Ruler

<sup>19</sup> Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone.

<sup>20</sup> You know the commandments: ‘Do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not give false testimony, honor your father and mother.’ ”

<sup>22</sup> When Jesus heard this, he said to him, “One thing you still lack. Sell all that you have and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

<sup>23</sup> But when the man heard this he became very sad, for he was extremely wealthy.

<sup>24</sup> When Jesus noticed this, he said, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!

<sup>26</sup> Those who heard this said, “Then who can be saved?”

<sup>29</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “I tell you the truth, there is no one who has left home or wife or brothers or parents or children for the sake of God’s kingdom <sup>30</sup> who will not receive many times more in this age – and in the age to come, eternal life.”

Another Prediction of Jesus’ Passion

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus took the twelve aside and said to them, “Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and everything that is written about the Son of Man by the prophets will be accomplished.

<sup>32</sup> For he will be handed over to the Gentiles; he will be mocked, mistreated, and spat on.

<sup>33</sup> They will flog him severely and kill him. Yet on the third day he will rise again.”

<sup>34</sup> But the twelve understood none of these things. This saying was hidden from them, and they did not grasp what Jesus meant.

Healing a Blind Man

<sup>35</sup> As Jesus approached Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the road begging.

<sup>38</sup> So he called out, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>39</sup> And those who were in front scolded him to get him to be quiet, but he shouted even more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>40</sup> So Jesus stopped and ordered the beggar to be brought to him. When the man came near, Jesus asked him,

<sup>41</sup> “What do you want me to do for you?” He replied, “Lord, let me see again.”

<sup>42</sup> Jesus said to him, “Receive your sight; your faith has healed you.”

<sup>43</sup> And immediately he regained his sight and followed Jesus, praising God. When all the people saw it, they too gave praise to God.

19

<sup>2</sup> Now a man named Zacchaeus was there; he was a chief tax collector and was rich.

<sup>3</sup> He was trying to get a look at Jesus, but being a short man he could not see over the crowd.

<sup>4</sup> So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, because Jesus was going to pass that way.

<sup>5</sup> And when Jesus came to that place, he looked up and said to him, “Zacchaeus, come down quickly, because I must stay at your house today.”

<sup>6</sup> So he came down quickly and welcomed Jesus joyfully.

<sup>7</sup> And when the people saw it, they all complained, “He has gone in to be the guest of a man who is a sinner.”

<sup>8</sup> But Zacchaeus stopped and said to the Lord, “Look, Lord, half of my possessions I now give to the poor, and if I have cheated anyone of anything, I am paying back four times as much!”

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this household, because he too is a son of Abraham!”

<sup>10</sup> For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost.”

The Parable of the Ten Minas

<sup>11</sup> While the people were listening to these things, Jesus proceeded to tell a parable, because he was near to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God was going to appear immediately.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore he said, “A nobleman went to a distant country to receive for himself a kingdom and then return.

<sup>13</sup> And he summoned ten of his slaves, gave them ten minas, and said to them, ‘Do business with these until I come back.’

<sup>14</sup> But his citizens hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, ‘We do not want this man to be king over us!’

<sup>15</sup> When he returned after receiving the kingdom, he summoned these slaves to whom he had given the money. He wanted to know how much they had earned by trading.

<sup>16</sup> So the first one came before him and said, ‘Sir, your mina has made ten minas more.’

<sup>17</sup> And the king said to him, ‘Well done, good slave! Because you have been faithful in a very small matter, you will have authority over ten cities.’

<sup>18</sup> Then the second one came and said, ‘Sir, your mina has made five minas.’

<sup>19</sup> So the king said to him, ‘And you are to be over five cities.’

<sup>20</sup> Then another slave came and said, ‘Sir, here is your mina that I put away for safekeeping in a piece of cloth.

<sup>21</sup> For I was afraid of you, because you are a severe man. You withdraw what you did not deposit and reap what you did not sow.’

<sup>22</sup> The king said to him, ‘I will judge you by your own words, you wicked slave! So you knew, did you, that I was a severe man, withdrawing what I didn’t deposit and reaping what I didn’t sow?’

<sup>23</sup> Why then didn’t you put my money in the bank, so that when I returned I could have collected it with interest?’

<sup>24</sup> And he said to his attendants, ‘Take the mina from him, and give it to the one who has ten.’

<sup>25</sup> But they said to him, ‘Sir, he has ten minas already!’

<sup>26</sup> ‘I tell you that everyone who has will be given more, but from the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away.

<sup>27</sup> But as for these enemies of mine who did not want me to be their king, bring them here and slaughter them in front of me!’ ”

The Triumphal Entry

<sup>28</sup> After Jesus had said this, he continued on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

<sup>29</sup> Now when he approached Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, <sup>30</sup> telling them, "Go to the village ahead of you. When you enter it, you will find a colt tied there that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here.

<sup>31</sup> If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' just say, 'The Lord needs it.' "

<sup>32</sup> So those who were sent ahead found it exactly as he had told them.

<sup>33</sup> As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, "Why are you untying that colt?"

<sup>35</sup> Then they brought it to Jesus, threw their cloaks on the colt, and had Jesus get on it.

<sup>38</sup> " Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"

<sup>39</sup> But some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples."

<sup>40</sup> He answered, "I tell you, if they keep silent, the very stones will cry out!"

Jesus Weeps for Jerusalem under Judgment

<sup>41</sup> Now when Jesus approached and saw the city, he wept over it, <sup>42</sup> saying, "If you had only known on this day, even you, the things that make for peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes.

<sup>43</sup> For the days will come upon you when your enemies will build an embankment against you and surround you and close in on you from every side.

<sup>44</sup> They will demolish you – you and your children within your walls – and they will not leave within you one stone on top of another, because you did not recognize the time of your visitation from God."

Cleansing the Temple

<sup>45</sup> Then Jesus entered the temple courts and began to drive out those who were selling things there,

<sup>46</sup> saying to them, "It is written, ' My house will be a house of prayer,' but you have turned it into a den of robbers!"

<sup>47</sup> Jesus was teaching daily in the temple courts. The chief priests and the experts in the law and the prominent leaders among the people were seeking to assassinate him, <sup>48</sup> but they could not find a way to do it, for all the people hung on his words.

20

<sup>1</sup> Now one day, as Jesus was teaching the people in the temple courts and proclaiming the gospel, the chief priests and the experts in the law with the elders came up

<sup>2</sup> and said to him, "Tell us: By what authority are you doing these things? Or who it is who gave you this authority?"

<sup>3</sup> He answered them, "I will also ask you a question, and you tell me:

<sup>5</sup> So they discussed it with one another, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why did you not believe him?'

<sup>6</sup> But if we say, 'From people,' all the people will stone us, because they are convinced that John was a prophet."

<sup>7</sup> So they replied that they did not know where it came from.

<sup>8</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by whose authority I do these things."

The Parable of the Tenants

<sup>9</sup> Then he began to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard, leased it to tenant farmers, and went on a journey for a long time.

<sup>10</sup> When harvest time came, he sent a slave to the tenants so that they would give him his portion of the crop. However, the tenants beat his slave and sent him away empty-handed.

<sup>11</sup> So he sent another slave. They beat this one too, treated him outrageously, and sent him away empty-handed.

<sup>12</sup> So he sent still a third. They even wounded this one, and threw him out.

<sup>13</sup> Then the owner of the vineyard said, ‘What should I do? I will send my one dear son; perhaps they will respect him.’

<sup>14</sup> But when the tenants saw him, they said to one another, ‘This is the heir; let’s kill him so the inheritance will be ours!’

<sup>15</sup> So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them?

<sup>16</sup> He will come and destroy those tenants and give the vineyard to others.” When the people heard this, they said, “May this never happen!”

<sup>17</sup> But Jesus looked straight at them and said, “Then what is the meaning of that which is written: ‘The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone’?”

<sup>18</sup> Everyone who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, and the one on whom it falls will be crushed.”

<sup>19</sup> Then the experts in the law and the chief priests wanted to arrest him that very hour, because they realized he had told this parable against them. But they were afraid of the people.

Paying Taxes to Caesar

<sup>20</sup> Then they watched him carefully and sent spies who pretended to be sincere. They wanted to take advantage of what he might say so that they could deliver him up to the authority and jurisdiction of the governor.

<sup>21</sup> Thus they asked him, “Teacher, we know that you speak and teach correctly, and show no partiality, but teach the way of God in accordance with the truth.

<sup>23</sup> But Jesus perceived their deceit and said to them,

<sup>25</sup> So he said to them, “Then give to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.”

<sup>26</sup> Thus they were unable in the presence of the people to trap him with his own words. And stunned by his answer, they fell silent.

Marriage and the Resurrection

<sup>27</sup> Now some Sadducees (who contend that there is no resurrection) came to him.

<sup>28</sup> They asked him, “Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies leaving a wife but no children, that man must marry the widow and father children for his brother*.

<sup>29</sup> Now there were seven brothers. The first one married a woman and died without children.

<sup>31</sup> and then the third married her, and in this same way all seven died, leaving no children.

<sup>33</sup> In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For all seven had married her.”

<sup>34</sup> So Jesus said to them, “The people of this age marry and are given in marriage.

<sup>35</sup> But those who are regarded as worthy to share in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage.

<sup>36</sup> In fact, they can no longer die, because they are equal to angels and are sons of God, since they are sons of the resurrection.

<sup>37</sup> But even Moses revealed that the dead are raised in the passage about the bush, where he calls the Lord the God | strong="G2316"of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.

<sup>38</sup> Now he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for all live before him."

<sup>39</sup> Then some of the experts in the law answered, "Teacher, you have spoken well!"

<sup>40</sup> For they did not dare any longer to ask him anything.

The Messiah: David's Son and Lord

<sup>41</sup> But he said to them, "How is it that they say that the Christ is David's son?

<sup>42</sup> For David himself says in the book of Psalms,

'The Lord said to my lord,

"Sit at my right hand,

<sup>43</sup> until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet." '

Jesus Warns the Disciples against Pride

<sup>45</sup> As all the people were listening, Jesus said to his disciples, <sup>46</sup> "Beware of the experts in the law. They like walking around in long robes, and they love elaborate greetings in the marketplaces and the best seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at banquets.

<sup>47</sup> They devour widows' property, and as a show make long prayers. They will receive a more severe punishment."

21

<sup>3</sup> He said, "I tell you the truth, this poor widow has put in more than all of them.

<sup>4</sup> For they all offered their gifts out of their wealth. But she, out of her poverty, put in everything she had to live on."

The Signs of the End of the Age

<sup>5</sup> Now while some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and offerings, Jesus said,

<sup>6</sup> "As for these things that you are gazing at, the days will come when not one stone will be left on another. All will be torn down!"

<sup>7</sup> So they asked him, "Teacher, when will these things happen? And what will be the sign that these things are about to take place?"

<sup>8</sup> He said, "Watch out that you are not misled. For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he,' and, 'The time is near.' Do not follow them!

<sup>9</sup> And when you hear of wars and rebellions, do not be afraid. For these things must happen first, but the end will not come at once."

Persecution of Disciples

<sup>10</sup> Then he said to them, "Nation will rise up in arms against nation, and kingdom against kingdom.

<sup>11</sup> There will be great earthquakes, and famines and plagues in various places, and there will be terrifying sights and great signs from heaven.

<sup>12</sup> But before all this, they will seize you and persecute you, handing you over to the synagogues and prisons. You will be brought before kings and governors because of my name.

<sup>13</sup> This will be a time for you to serve as witnesses.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore be resolved not to rehearse ahead of time how to make your defense.

<sup>15</sup> For I will give you the words along with the wisdom that none of your adversaries will be able to withstand or contradict.

<sup>16</sup> You will be betrayed even by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends, and they will have some of you put to death.

<sup>17</sup> You will be hated by everyone because of my name.

<sup>18</sup> Yet not a hair of your head will perish.

<sup>19</sup> By your endurance you will gain your lives.

The Desolation of Jerusalem

<sup>20</sup> “But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation has come near.

<sup>21</sup> Then those who are in Judea must flee to the mountains. Those who are inside the city must depart. Those who are out in the country must not enter it,

<sup>23</sup> Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing their babies in those days! For there will be great distress on the earth and wrath against this people.

<sup>24</sup> They will fall by the edge of the sword and be led away as captives among all nations. Jerusalem will be trampled down by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

The Arrival of the Son of Man

<sup>25</sup> “And there will be signs in the sun and moon and stars, and on the earth nations will be in distress, anxious over the roaring of the sea and the surging waves.

<sup>26</sup> People will be fainting from fear and from the expectation of what is coming on the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

<sup>27</sup> Then they will see the Son of Man arriving in a cloud with power and great glory.

The Parable of the Fig Tree

<sup>29</sup> Then he told them a parable: “Look at the fig tree and all the other trees.

<sup>30</sup> When they sprout leaves, you see for yourselves and know that summer is now near.

<sup>31</sup> So also you, when you see these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near.

<sup>32</sup> I tell you the truth, this generation will not pass away until all these things take place.

<sup>33</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

Be Ready!

<sup>34</sup> “But be on your guard so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and that day close down upon you suddenly like a trap.

<sup>35</sup> For it will overtake all who live on the face of the whole earth.

<sup>36</sup> But stay alert at all times, praying that you may have strength to escape all these things that must happen, and to stand before the Son of Man.”

<sup>37</sup> So every day Jesus was teaching in the temple courts, but at night he went and stayed on the Mount of Olives.

<sup>38</sup> And all the people came to him early in the morning to listen to him in the temple courts.

22

<sup>2</sup> The chief priests and the experts in the law were trying to find some way to execute Jesus, for they were afraid of the people.

<sup>4</sup> He went away and discussed with the chief priests and officers of the temple guard how he might betray Jesus, handing him over to them.

<sup>5</sup> They were delighted and arranged to give him money.

<sup>6</sup> So Judas agreed and began looking for an opportunity to betray Jesus when no crowd was present.

The Passover

<sup>7</sup> Then the day for the feast of Unleavened Bread came, on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed.

<sup>8</sup> Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us to eat."

<sup>10</sup> He said to them, "Listen, when you have entered the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him into the house that he enters,

<sup>11</sup> and tell the owner of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"'

<sup>12</sup> Then he will show you a large furnished room upstairs. Make preparations there."

<sup>13</sup> So they went and found things just as he had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

The Lord's Supper

<sup>14</sup> Now when the hour came, Jesus took his place at the table and the apostles joined him.

<sup>15</sup> And he said to them, "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.

<sup>16</sup> For I tell you, I will not eat it again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."

<sup>17</sup> Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he said, "Take this and divide it among yourselves.

<sup>18</sup> For I tell you that from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."

<sup>19</sup> Then he took bread, and after giving thanks he broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

<sup>20</sup> And in the same way he took the cup after they had eaten, saying, "This cup that is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood.

A Final Discourse

<sup>21</sup> "But look, the hand of the one who betrays me is with me on the table.

<sup>22</sup> For the Son of Man is to go just as it has been determined, but woe to that man by whom he is betrayed!"

<sup>23</sup> So they began to question one another as to which of them it could possibly be who would do this.

<sup>24</sup> A dispute also started among them over which of them was to be regarded as the greatest.

<sup>25</sup> So Jesus said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those in authority over them are called 'benefactors.'

<sup>26</sup> Not so with you; instead the one who is greatest among you must become like the youngest, and the leader like the one who serves.

<sup>28</sup> “You are the ones who have remained with me in my trials.

<sup>29</sup> Thus I grant to you a kingdom, just as my Father granted to me, <sup>30</sup> that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

<sup>31</sup> “Simon, Simon, pay attention! Satan has demanded to have you all, to sift you like wheat, <sup>32</sup> but I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith may not fail. When you have turned back, strengthen your brothers.”

<sup>33</sup> But Peter said to him, “Lord, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death!”

<sup>34</sup> Jesus replied, “I tell you, Peter, the rooster will not crow today until you have denied three times that you know me.”

<sup>35</sup> Then Jesus said to them, “When I sent you out with no money bag, or traveler’s bag, or sandals, you didn’t lack anything, did you?” They replied, “Nothing.”

<sup>36</sup> He said to them, “But now, the one who has a money bag must take it, and likewise a traveler’s bag too. And the one who has no sword must sell his cloak and buy one.

<sup>37</sup> For I tell you that this scripture must be fulfilled in me, ‘And he was counted with the transgressors.’ For what is written about me is being fulfilled.”

<sup>38</sup> So they said, “Look, Lord, here are two swords.” Then he told them, “It is enough.”

On the Mount of Olives

<sup>39</sup> Then Jesus went out and made his way, as he customarily did, to the Mount of Olives, and the disciples followed him.

<sup>40</sup> When he came to the place, he said to them, “Pray that you will not fall into temptation.”

<sup>41</sup> He went away from them about a stone’s throw, knelt down, and prayed,

<sup>42</sup> “Father, if you are willing, take this cup away from me. Yet not my will but yours be done.”

<sup>44</sup> And in his anguish he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat was like drops of blood falling to the ground.]

<sup>45</sup> When he got up from prayer, he came to the disciples and found them sleeping, exhausted from grief.

<sup>46</sup> So he said to them, “Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray that you will not fall into temptation!”

Betrayal and Arrest

<sup>47</sup> While he was still speaking, suddenly a crowd appeared, and the man named Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them. He walked up to Jesus to kiss him.

<sup>48</sup> But Jesus said to him, “Judas, would you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?”

<sup>49</sup> When those who were around him saw what was about to happen, they said, “Lord, should we use our swords?”

<sup>51</sup> But Jesus said, “Enough of this!” And he touched the man’s ear and healed him.

<sup>52</sup> Then Jesus said to the chief priests, the officers of the temple guard, and the elders who had come out to get him, “Have you come out with swords and clubs like you would against an outlaw?

<sup>53</sup> Day after day when I was with you in the temple courts, you did not arrest me. But this is your hour, and that of the power of darkness!”

Jesus’ Condemnation and Peter’s Denials

<sup>54</sup> Then they arrested Jesus, led him away, and brought him into the high priest's house. But Peter was following at a distance.

<sup>55</sup> When they had made a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat down among them.

<sup>56</sup> Then a slave girl, seeing him as he sat in the firelight, stared at him and said, "This man was with him too!"

<sup>58</sup> Then a little later someone else saw him and said, "You are one of them too." But Peter said, "Man, I am not!"

<sup>59</sup> And after about an hour still another insisted, "Certainly this man was with him, because he too is a Galilean."

<sup>60</sup> But Peter said, "Man, I don't know what you're talking about!" At that moment, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed.

<sup>61</sup> Then the Lord turned and looked straight at Peter, and Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, "Before a rooster crows today, you will deny me three times."

<sup>65</sup> They also said many other things against him, reviling him.

<sup>66</sup> When day came, the council of the elders of the people gathered together, both the chief priests and the experts in the law. Then they led Jesus away to their council

<sup>67</sup> and said, "If you are the Christ, tell us." But he said to them, "If I tell you, you will not believe, <sup>68</sup> and if I ask you, you will not answer.

<sup>69</sup> But from now on the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God."

<sup>70</sup> So they all said, "Are you the Son of God, then?" He answered them, "You say that I am."

<sup>71</sup> Then they said, "Why do we need further testimony? We have heard it ourselves from his own lips!"

23

<sup>2</sup> They began to accuse him, saying, "We found this man subverting our nation, forbidding us to pay the tribute tax to Caesar and claiming that he himself is Christ, a king."

<sup>3</sup> So Pilate asked Jesus, "Are you the king of the Jews?" He replied, "You say so."

<sup>5</sup> But they persisted in saying, "He incites the people by teaching throughout all Judea. It started in Galilee and ended up here!"

Jesus Brought Before Herod

<sup>6</sup> Now when Pilate heard this, he asked whether the man was a Galilean.

<sup>7</sup> When he learned that he was from Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him over to Herod, who also happened to be in Jerusalem at that time.

<sup>8</sup> When Herod saw Jesus, he was very glad, for he had long desired to see him, because he had heard about him and was hoping to see him perform some miraculous sign.

<sup>9</sup> So Herod questioned him at considerable length; Jesus gave him no answer.

<sup>11</sup> Even Herod with his soldiers treated him with contempt and mocked him. Then, dressing him in elegant clothes, Herod sent him back to Pilate.

<sup>12</sup> That very day Herod and Pilate became friends with each other, for prior to this they had been enemies.

Jesus Brought Before the Crowd

<sup>13</sup> Then Pilate called together the chief priests, the rulers, and the people, <sup>14</sup> and said to them, "You brought me this man as one who was misleading the people. When I examined him before you, I did not find this man guilty of anything you accused him of doing.

<sup>15</sup> Neither did Herod, for he sent him back to us. Look, he has done nothing deserving death.

<sup>16</sup> I will therefore have him flogged and release him."

<sup>17</sup> *

<sup>18</sup> But they all shouted out together, "Take this man away! Release Barabbas for us!"

<sup>19</sup> (This was a man who had been thrown into prison for an insurrection started in the city, and for murder.)

<sup>22</sup> A third time he said to them, "Why? What wrong has he done? I have found him guilty of no crime deserving death. I will therefore flog him and release him."

<sup>23</sup> But they were insistent, demanding with loud shouts that he be crucified. And their shouts prevailed.

<sup>24</sup> So Pilate decided that their demand should be granted.

<sup>25</sup> He released the man they asked for, who had been thrown in prison for insurrection and murder. But he handed Jesus over to their will.

The Crucifixion

<sup>26</sup> As they led him away, they seized Simon of Cyrene, who was coming in from the country. They placed the cross on his back and made him carry it behind Jesus.

<sup>27</sup> A great number of the people followed him, among them women who were mourning and wailing for him.

<sup>28</sup> But Jesus turned to them and said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.

<sup>29</sup> For this is certain: The days are coming when they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore children, and the breasts that never nursed!'

<sup>30</sup> Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us!' and to the hills, 'Cover us!'

<sup>31</sup> For if such things are done when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?"

<sup>32</sup> Two other criminals were also led away to be executed with him.

<sup>34</sup> [But Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they don't know what they are doing."] Then they threw dice to divide his clothes.

<sup>35</sup> The people also stood there watching, but the rulers ridiculed him, saying, "He saved others. Let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, his chosen one!"

<sup>36</sup> The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine,

<sup>38</sup> There was also an inscription over him, "This is the king of the Jews."

---

* 23:17 [[EMPTY]]

<sup>39</sup> One of the criminals who was hanging there railed at him, saying, "Aren't you the Christ? Save yourself and us!"

<sup>40</sup> But the other rebuked him, saying, "Don't you fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation?"

<sup>41</sup> And we rightly so, for we are getting what we deserve for what we did, but this man has done nothing wrong."

<sup>42</sup> Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come in your kingdom."

<sup>43</sup> And Jesus said to him, "I tell you the truth, today you will be with me in paradise."

<sup>44</sup> It was now about noon, and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon, <sup>45</sup> because the sun's light failed. The temple curtain was torn in two.

<sup>46</sup> Then Jesus, calling out with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit!" And after he said this he breathed his last.

<sup>47</sup> Now when the centurion saw what had happened, he praised God and said, "Certainly this man was innocent!"

<sup>48</sup> And all the crowds that had assembled for this spectacle, when they saw what had taken place, returned home beating their breasts.

<sup>49</sup> And all those who knew Jesus stood at a distance, and the women who had followed him from Galilee saw these things.

Jesus' Burial

<sup>50</sup> Now there was a man named Joseph who was a member of the council, a good and righteous man.

<sup>51</sup> (He had not consented to their plan and action.) He was from the Judean town of Arimathea, and was looking forward to the kingdom of God.

<sup>52</sup> He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

<sup>53</sup> Then he took it down, wrapped it in a linen cloth, and placed it in a tomb cut out of the rock, where no one had yet been buried.

<sup>54</sup> It was the day of preparation and the Sabbath was beginning.

<sup>55</sup> The women who had accompanied Jesus from Galilee followed, and they saw the tomb and how his body was laid in it.

<sup>56</sup> Then they returned and prepared aromatic spices and perfumes.

On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

24

<sup>1</sup> Now on the first day of the week, at early dawn, the women went to the tomb, taking the aromatic spices they had prepared.

<sup>4</sup> While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men stood beside them in dazzling attire.

<sup>5</sup> The women were terribly frightened and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead?"

<sup>6</sup> He is not here, but has been raised! Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, <sup>7</sup> that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again."

<sup>8</sup> Then the women remembered his words,

<sup>9</sup> and when they returned from the tomb they told all these things to the eleven and to all the rest.

<sup>10</sup> Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told these things to the apostles.

<sup>11</sup> But these words seemed like pure nonsense to them, and they did not believe them.

<sup>12</sup> But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. He bent down and saw only the strips of linen cloth; then he went home, wondering what had happened.

Jesus Walks the Road to Emmaus

<sup>13</sup> Now that very day two of them were on their way to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup> They were talking to each other about all the things that had happened.

<sup>15</sup> While they were talking and debating these things, Jesus himself approached and began to accompany them

<sup>16</sup> (but their eyes were kept from recognizing him).

<sup>17</sup> Then he said to them, "What are these matters you are discussing so intently as you walk along?" And they stood still, looking sad.

<sup>18</sup> Then one of them, named Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who doesn't know the things that have happened there in these days?"

<sup>19</sup> He said to them, "What things?" "The things concerning Jesus the Nazarene," they replied, "a man who, with his powerful deeds and words, proved to be a prophet before God and all the people;

<sup>20</sup> and how our chief priests and rulers handed him over to be condemned to death, and crucified him.

<sup>21</sup> But we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel. Not only this, but it is now the third day since these things happened.

<sup>22</sup> Furthermore, some women of our group amazed us. They were at the tomb early this morning, <sup>23</sup> and when they did not find his body, they came back and said they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive.

<sup>24</sup> Then some of those who were with us went to the tomb, and found it just as the women had said, but they did not see him."

<sup>25</sup> So he said to them, "You foolish people - how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken!

<sup>26</sup> Wasn't it necessary for the Christ to suffer these things and enter into his glory?"

<sup>27</sup> Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things written about himself in all the scriptures.

<sup>28</sup> So they approached the village where they were going. He acted as though he wanted to go farther, <sup>29</sup> but they urged him, "Stay with us, because it is getting toward evening and the day is almost done." So he went in to stay with them.

<sup>30</sup> When he had taken his place at the table with them, he took the bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them.

<sup>31</sup> At this point their eyes were opened and they recognized him. Then he vanished out of their sight.

<sup>32</sup> They said to each other, "Didn't our hearts burn within us while he was speaking with us on the road, while he was explaining the scriptures to us?"

<sup>33</sup> So they got up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem. They found the eleven and those with them gathered together

<sup>34</sup> and saying, "The Lord has really risen, and has appeared to Simon!"

<sup>35</sup> Then they told what had happened on the road, and how they recognized him when he broke the bread.

Jesus Makes a Final Appearance

<sup>36</sup> While they were saying these things, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you."

<sup>37</sup> But they were startled and terrified, thinking they saw a ghost.

<sup>38</sup> Then he said to them, "Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts?"

<sup>39</sup> Look at my hands and my feet; it's me! Touch me and see; a ghost does not have flesh and bones like you see I have."

<sup>40</sup> When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet.

<sup>41</sup> And while they still could not believe it (because of their joy) and were amazed, he said to them, "Do you have anything here to eat?"

<sup>42</sup> So they gave him a piece of broiled fish,

Jesus' Final Commission

<sup>44</sup> Then he said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and the prophets and the psalms must be fulfilled."

<sup>45</sup> Then he opened their minds so they could understand the scriptures,

<sup>46</sup> and said to them, "Thus it stands written that the Christ would suffer and would rise from the dead on the third day, <sup>47</sup> and repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

<sup>49</sup> And look, I am sending you what my Father promised. But stay in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high."

Jesus' Departure

<sup>50</sup> Then Jesus led them out as far as Bethany, and lifting up his hands, he blessed them.

<sup>53</sup> and were continually in the temple courts blessing God.

John

The Prologue to the Gospel

<sup>1</sup> In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was fully God.

<sup>3</sup> All things were created by him, and apart from him not one thing was created that has been created.

<sup>4</sup> In him was life, and the life was the light of mankind.

<sup>7</sup> He came as a witness to testify about the light, so that everyone might believe through him.

<sup>8</sup> He himself was not the light, but he came to testify about the light.

<sup>9</sup> The true light, who gives light to everyone, was coming into the world.

<sup>10</sup> He was in the world, and the world was created by him, but the world did not recognize him.

<sup>11</sup> He came to what was his own, but his own people did not receive him.

<sup>12</sup> But to all who have received him – those who believe in his name – he has given the right to become God's children

<sup>13</sup> – children not born by human parents or by human desire or a husband's decision, but by God.

<sup>14</sup> Now the Word became flesh and took up residence among us. We saw his glory – the glory of the one and only, full of grace and truth, who came from the Father.

<sup>15</sup> John testified about him and shouted out, "This one was the one about whom I said, 'He who comes after me is greater than I am, because he existed before me.' "

<sup>16</sup> For we have all received from his fullness one gracious gift after another.

<sup>17</sup> For the law was given through Moses, but grace and truth came about through Jesus Christ.

<sup>18</sup> No one has ever seen God. The only one, himself God, who is in closest fellowship with the Father, has made God known.

The Testimony of John the Baptist

<sup>19</sup> Now this was John's testimony when the Jewish leaders sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"

<sup>20</sup> He confessed – he did not deny but confessed – "I am not the Christ!"

<sup>21</sup> So they asked him, "Then who are you? Are you Elijah?" He said, "I am not!" "Are you the Prophet?" He answered, "No!"

<sup>22</sup> Then they said to him, "Who are you? Tell us so that we can give an answer to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

<sup>23</sup> John said, "I am the voice of one shouting in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way for the Lord,' as Isaiah the prophet said."

<sup>25</sup> So they asked John, "Why then are you baptizing if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"

<sup>26</sup> John answered them, "I baptize with water. Among you stands one whom you do not recognize,

<sup>29</sup> On the next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Look, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!

<sup>30</sup> This is the one about whom I said, 'After me comes a man who is greater than I am, because he existed before me.'

<sup>31</sup> I did not recognize him, but I came baptizing with water so that he could be revealed to Israel."

<sup>32</sup> Then John testified, "I saw the Spirit descending like a dove from heaven, and it remained on him.

<sup>33</sup> And I did not recognize him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, 'The one on whom you see the Spirit descending and remaining - this is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.'

<sup>38</sup> Jesus turned around and saw them following and said to them, "What do you want?" So they said to him, "Rabbi" (which is translated Teacher), "where are you staying?"

<sup>39</sup> Jesus answered, "Come and you will see." So they came and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day. Now it was about four o'clock in the afternoon.

Andrew's Declaration

<sup>40</sup> Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two disciples who heard what John said and followed Jesus.

<sup>41</sup> He first found his own brother Simon and told him, "We have found the Messiah!" (which is translated Christ).

<sup>42</sup> Andrew brought Simon to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, "You are Simon, the son of John. You will be called Cephas" (which is translated Peter).

The Calling of More Disciples

<sup>43</sup> On the next day Jesus wanted to set out for Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, "Follow me."

<sup>45</sup> Philip found Nathanael and told him, "We have found the one Moses wrote about in the law, and the prophets also wrote about - Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph."

<sup>47</sup> Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him and exclaimed, "Look, a true Israelite in whom there is no deceit!"

<sup>48</sup> Nathanael asked him, "How do you know me?" Jesus replied, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."

<sup>49</sup> Nathanael answered him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God; you are the king of Israel!"

<sup>50</sup> Jesus said to him, "Because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree, do you believe? You will see greater things than these."

<sup>51</sup> He continued, "I tell all of you the solemn truth - you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

2

<sup>1</sup> Now on the third day there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there, <sup>2</sup> and Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding.

<sup>6</sup> Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washing, each holding twenty or thirty gallons.

<sup>7</sup> Jesus told the servants, "Fill the water jars with water." So they filled them up to the very top.

<sup>8</sup> Then he told them, "Now draw some out and take it to the head steward," and they did.

<sup>9</sup> When the head steward tasted the water that had been turned to wine, not knowing where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), he called the bridegroom

<sup>10</sup> and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the cheaper wine when the guests are drunk. You have kept the good wine until now!"

<sup>11</sup> Jesus did this as the first of his miraculous signs, in Cana of Galilee. In this way he revealed his glory, and his disciples believed in him.

Cleansing the Temple

<sup>12</sup> After this he went down to Capernaum with his mother and brothers and his disciples, and they stayed there a few days.

<sup>13</sup> Now the Jewish feast of Passover was near, so Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup>

He found in the temple courts those who were selling oxen and sheep and doves, and the money changers sitting at tables.

<sup>15</sup> So he made a whip of cords and drove them all out of the temple courts, with the sheep and the oxen. He scattered the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables.

<sup>16</sup> To those who sold the doves he said, "Take these things away from here! Do not make my Father's house a marketplace!"

<sup>17</sup> His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will devour me."

<sup>18</sup> So then the Jewish leaders responded, "What sign can you show us, since you are doing these things?"

<sup>19</sup> Jesus replied, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up again."

<sup>20</sup> Then the Jewish leaders said to him, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and are you going to raise it up in three days?"

<sup>21</sup> But Jesus was speaking about the temple of his body.

<sup>22</sup> So after he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the scripture and the saying that Jesus had spoken.

Jesus at the Passover Feast

<sup>23</sup> Now while Jesus was in Jerusalem at the feast of the Passover, many people believed in his name because they saw the miraculous signs he was doing.

<sup>24</sup> But Jesus would not entrust himself to them, because he knew all people.

<sup>25</sup> He did not need anyone to testify about man, for he knew what was in man.

3

<sup>2</sup> came to Jesus at night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God. For no one could perform the miraculous signs that you do unless God is with him."

<sup>3</sup> Jesus replied, "I tell you the solemn truth, unless a person is born from above, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

<sup>4</sup> Nicodemus said to him, "How can a man be born when he is old? He cannot enter his mother's womb and be born a second time, can he?"

<sup>5</sup> Jesus answered, "I tell you the solemn truth, unless a person is born of water and spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God.

<sup>6</sup> What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit.

<sup>7</sup> Do not be amazed that I said to you, 'You must all be born from above.'

<sup>8</sup> The wind blows wherever it will, and you hear the sound it makes, but do not know where it comes from and where it is going. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit."

<sup>10</sup> Jesus answered, "Are you the teacher of Israel and yet you don't understand these things?

<sup>11</sup> I tell you the solemn truth, we speak about what we know and testify about what we have seen, but you people do not accept our testimony.

<sup>12</sup> If I have told you people about earthly things and you don't believe, how will you believe if I tell you about heavenly things?

<sup>13</sup> No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven – the Son of Man.

<sup>14</sup> Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up,

<sup>15</sup> so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life."

<sup>16</sup> For this is the way God loved the world: He gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life.

<sup>17</sup> For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world should be saved through him.

<sup>18</sup> The one who believes in him is not condemned. The one who does not believe has been condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the one and only Son of God.

<sup>19</sup> Now this is the basis for judging: that the light has come into the world and people loved the darkness rather than the light, because their deeds were evil.

<sup>20</sup> For everyone who does evil deeds hates the light and does not come to the light, so that their deeds will not be exposed.

<sup>21</sup> But the one who practices the truth comes to the light, so that it may be plainly evident that his deeds have been done in God.

Further Testimony About Jesus by John the Baptist

<sup>22</sup> After this, Jesus and his disciples came into Judean territory, and there he spent time with them and was baptizing.

<sup>23</sup> John was also baptizing at Aenon near Salim, because water was plentiful there, and people were coming to him and being baptized.

<sup>26</sup> So they came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, the one who was with you on the other side of the Jordan River, about whom you testified – see, he is baptizing, and everyone is flocking to him!"

<sup>28</sup> You yourselves can testify that I said, 'I am not the Christ,' but rather, 'I have been sent before him.'

<sup>29</sup> The one who has the bride is the bridegroom. The friend of the bridegroom, who stands by and listens for him, rejoices greatly when he hears the bridegroom's voice. This then is my joy, and it is complete.

<sup>31</sup> The one who comes from above is superior to all. The one who is from the earth belongs to the earth and speaks about earthly things. The one who comes from heaven is superior to all.

<sup>32</sup> He testifies about what he has seen and heard, but no one accepts his testimony.

<sup>34</sup> For the one whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for he does not give the Spirit sparingly.

<sup>35</sup> The Father loves the Son and has placed all things under his authority.

<sup>36</sup> The one who believes in the Son has eternal life. The one who rejects the Son will not see life, but God's wrath remains on him.

4

<sup>1</sup> Now when Jesus knew that the Pharisees had heard that he was winning and baptizing more disciples than John

Conversation With a Samaritan Woman

<sup>4</sup> But he had to pass through Samaria.

<sup>5</sup> Now he came to a Samaritan town called Sychar, near the plot of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph.

<sup>6</sup> Jacob's well was there, so Jesus, since he was tired from the journey, sat right down beside the well. It was about noon.

<sup>7</sup> A Samaritan woman came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me some water to drink."

<sup>9</sup> So the Samaritan woman said to him, "How can you – a Jew – ask me, a Samaritan woman, for water to drink?" (For Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans.)

<sup>10</sup> Jesus answered her, "If you had known the gift of God and who it is who said to you, 'Give me some water to drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."

<sup>11</sup> "Sir," the woman said to him, "you have no bucket and the well is deep; where then do you get this living water?"

<sup>12</sup> Surely you're not greater than our ancestor Jacob, are you? For he gave us this well and drank from it himself, along with his sons and his livestock."

<sup>13</sup> Jesus replied, "Everyone who drinks some of this water will be thirsty again.

<sup>14</sup> But whoever drinks some of the water that I will give him will never be thirsty again, but the water that I will give him will become in him a fountain of water springing up to eternal life."

<sup>15</sup> The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I will not be thirsty or have to come here to draw water."

<sup>16</sup> He said to her, "Go call your husband and come back here."

<sup>18</sup> for you have had five husbands, and the man you are living with now is not your husband. This you said truthfully!"

<sup>20</sup> Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, and you people say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem.”

<sup>21</sup> Jesus said to her, “Believe me, woman, a time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.

<sup>22</sup> You people worship what you do not know. We worship what we know, because salvation is from the Jews.

<sup>23</sup> But a time is coming – and now is here – when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such people to be his worshipers.

<sup>25</sup> The woman said to him, “I know that Messiah is coming” (the one called Christ); “whenever he comes, he will tell us everything.”

<sup>26</sup> Jesus said to her, “I, the one speaking to you, am he.”

The Disciples Return

<sup>27</sup> Now at that very moment his disciples came back. They were shocked because he was speaking with a woman. However, no one said, “What do you want?” or “Why are you speaking with her?”

<sup>28</sup> Then the woman left her water jar, went off into the town and said to the people,

<sup>29</sup> “Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did. Surely he can’t be the Messiah, can he?”

Workers for the Harvest

<sup>32</sup> But he said to them, “I have food to eat that you know nothing about.”

<sup>33</sup> So the disciples began to say to one another, “No one brought him anything to eat, did they?”

<sup>34</sup> Jesus said to them, “My food is to do the will of the one who sent me and to complete his work.

<sup>35</sup> Don’t you say, ‘There are four more months and then comes the harvest?’ I tell you, look up and see that the fields are already white for harvest!

<sup>36</sup> The one who reaps receives pay and gathers fruit for eternal life, so that the one who sows and the one who reaps can rejoice together.

<sup>38</sup> I sent you to reap what you did not work for; others have labored and you have entered into their labor.”

The Samaritans Respond

<sup>39</sup> Now many Samaritans from that town believed in him because of the report of the woman who testified, “He told me everything I ever did.”

<sup>40</sup> So when the Samaritans came to him, they began asking him to stay with them. He stayed there two days,

<sup>42</sup> They said to the woman, “No longer do we believe because of your words, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this one really is the Savior of the world.”

Onward to Galilee

<sup>43</sup> After the two days he departed from there to Galilee.

<sup>44</sup> (For Jesus himself had testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country.)

<sup>45</sup> So when he came to Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him because they had seen all the things he had done in Jerusalem at the feast (for they themselves had gone to the feast).

Healing the Royal Official’s Son

- <sup>46</sup> Now he came again to Cana there was a certain royal official whose son was sick.
<sup>47</sup> When he heard that Jesus had come back from Judea to Galilee, he went to him and begged him to come down and heal his son, who was about to die.
<sup>48</sup> So Jesus said to him, "Unless you people see signs and wonders you will never believe!"
<sup>49</sup> "Sir," the official said to him, "come down before my child dies."
<sup>50</sup> Jesus told him, "Go home; your son will live." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and set off for home.
<sup>51</sup> While he was on his way down, his slaves met him and told him that his son was going to live.
<sup>52</sup> So he asked them the time when his condition began to improve, and they told him, "Yesterday at one o'clock in the afternoon the fever left him."
<sup>53</sup> Then the father realized that it was the very time Jesus had said to him, "Your son will live," and he himself believed along with his entire household.
<sup>54</sup> Jesus did this as his second miraculous sign when he returned from Judea to Galilee.

5

- <sup>1</sup> After this there was a Jewish feast, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
<sup>2</sup> Now there is in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate a pool called Bethzatha in Aramaic, which has five covered walkways.
<sup>3</sup> A great number of sick, blind, lame, and paralyzed people were lying in these walkways.
<sup>4</sup> *
<sup>5</sup> Now a man was there who had been disabled for thirty-eight years.
<sup>6</sup> When Jesus saw him lying there and when he realized that the man had been disabled a long time already, he said to him, "Do you want to become well?"
<sup>7</sup> The sick man answered him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up. While I am trying to get into the water, someone else goes down there before me."
<sup>8</sup> Jesus said to him, "Stand up! Pick up your mat and walk."
<sup>9</sup> Immediately the man was healed, and he picked up his mat and started walking. (Now that day was a Sabbath.)
<sup>10</sup> So the Jewish leaders said to the man who had been healed, "It is the Sabbath, and you are not permitted to carry your mat."
<sup>11</sup> But he answered them, "The man who made me well said to me, 'Pick up your mat and walk.'"
<sup>12</sup> They asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, 'Pick up your mat and walk'?"
<sup>13</sup> But the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had slipped out, since there was a crowd in that place.
<sup>14</sup> After this Jesus found him at the temple and said to him, "Look, you have become well. Don't sin any more, lest anything worse happen to you."
<sup>15</sup> The man went away and informed the Jewish leaders that Jesus was the one who had made him well.

Responding to Jewish Leaders

- <sup>16</sup> Now because Jesus was doing these things on the Sabbath, the Jewish leaders began persecuting him.
<sup>17</sup> So he told them, "My Father is working until now, and I too am working."

* 5:4 [[EMPTY]]

<sup>18</sup> For this reason the Jewish leaders were trying even harder to kill him, because not only was he breaking the Sabbath, but he was also calling God his own Father, thus making himself equal with God.

<sup>19</sup> So Jesus answered them, "I tell you the solemn truth, the Son can do nothing on his own initiative, but only what he sees the Father doing. For whatever the Father does, the Son does likewise.

<sup>20</sup> For the Father loves the Son and shows him everything he does, and will show him greater deeds than these, so that you will be amazed.

<sup>21</sup> For just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whomever he wishes.

<sup>22</sup> Furthermore, the Father does not judge anyone, but has assigned all judgment to the Son, <sup>23</sup> so that all people will honor the Son just as they honor the Father. The one who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him.

<sup>24</sup> "I tell you the solemn truth, the one who hears my message and believes the one who sent me has eternal life and will not be condemned, but has crossed over from death to life.

<sup>25</sup> I tell you the solemn truth, a time is coming – and is now here – when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live.

<sup>26</sup> For just as the Father has life in himself, thus he has granted the Son to have life in himself, <sup>27</sup> and he has granted the Son authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man.

<sup>28</sup> "Do not be amazed at this, because a time is coming when all who are in the tombs will hear his voice

<sup>29</sup> and will come out – the ones who have done what is good to the resurrection resulting in life, and the ones who have done what is evil to the resurrection resulting in condemnation.

<sup>30</sup> I can do nothing on my own initiative. Just as I hear, I judge, and my judgment is just, because I do not seek my own will, but the will of the one who sent me.

More Testimony About Jesus

<sup>31</sup> "If I testify about myself, my testimony is not true.

<sup>32</sup> There is another who testifies about me, and I know the testimony he testifies about me is true.

<sup>33</sup> You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth.

<sup>34</sup> (I do not accept human testimony, but I say this so that you may be saved.)

<sup>35</sup> He was a lamp that was burning and shining, and you wanted to rejoice greatly for a short time in his light.

<sup>36</sup> "But I have a testimony greater than that from John. For the deeds that the Father has assigned me to complete – the deeds I am now doing – testify about me that the Father has sent me.

<sup>37</sup> And the Father who sent me has himself testified about me. You people have never heard his voice nor seen his form at any time, <sup>38</sup> nor do you have his word residing in you, because you do not believe the one whom he sent.

<sup>39</sup> You study the scriptures thoroughly because you think in them you possess eternal life, and it is these same scriptures that testify about me, <sup>40</sup> but you are not willing to come to me so that you may have life.

<sup>42</sup> but I know you, that you do not have the love of God within you.

<sup>43</sup> I have come in my Father's name, and you do not accept me. If someone else comes in his own name, you will accept him.

<sup>44</sup> How can you believe, if you accept praise from one another and don't seek the praise that comes from the only God?

<sup>45</sup> "Do not suppose that I will accuse you before the Father. The one who accuses you is Moses, in whom you have placed your hope.

<sup>46</sup> If you believed Moses, you would believe me, because he wrote about me.

<sup>47</sup> But if you do not believe what Moses wrote, how will you believe my words?"

6

<sup>1</sup> After this Jesus went away to the other side of the Sea of Galilee (also called the Sea of Tiberias).

<sup>2</sup> A large crowd was following him because they were observing the miraculous signs he was performing on the sick.

<sup>3</sup> So Jesus went on up the mountainside and sat down there with his disciples.

<sup>5</sup> Then Jesus, when he looked up and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, said to Philip, "Where can we buy bread so that these people may eat?"

<sup>6</sup> (Now Jesus said this to test him, for he knew what he was going to do.)

<sup>9</sup> "Here is a boy who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what good are these for so many people?"

<sup>10</sup> Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." (Now there was a lot of grass in that place.) So the men sat down, about five thousand in number.

<sup>11</sup> Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed the bread to those who were seated. He then did the same with the fish, as much as they wanted.

<sup>12</sup> When they were all satisfied, Jesus said to his disciples, "Gather up the broken pieces that are left over, so that nothing is wasted."

<sup>14</sup> Now when the people saw the miraculous sign that Jesus performed, they began to say to one another, "This is certainly the Prophet who is to come into the world."

<sup>15</sup> Then Jesus, because he knew they were going to come and seize him by force to make him king, withdrew again up the mountainside alone.

Walking on Water

<sup>16</sup> Now when evening came, his disciples went down to the lake,

<sup>17</sup> got into a boat, and started to cross the lake to Capernaum. (It had already become dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them.)

<sup>18</sup> By now a strong wind was blowing and the sea was getting rough.

<sup>19</sup> Then, when they had rowed about three or four miles, they caught sight of Jesus walking on the lake, approaching the boat, and they were frightened.

<sup>20</sup> But he said to them, "It is I. Do not be afraid."

<sup>21</sup> Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat came to the land where they had been heading.

<sup>22</sup> The next day the crowd that remained on the other side of the lake realized that only one small boat had been there, and that Jesus had not boarded it with his disciples, but that his disciples had gone away alone.

<sup>23</sup> But some boats from Tiberias came to shore near the place where they had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks.

<sup>24</sup> So when the crowd realized that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into the boats and came to Capernaum looking for Jesus.

Jesus' Discourse About the Bread of Life

<sup>25</sup> When they found him on the other side of the lake, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you get here?"

<sup>26</sup> Jesus replied, "I tell you the solemn truth, you are looking for me not because you saw miraculous signs, but because you ate all the loaves of bread you wanted.

<sup>27</sup> Do not work for the food that disappears, but for the food that remains to eternal life – the food which the Son of Man will give to you. For God the Father has put his seal of approval on him."

<sup>28</sup> So then they said to him, "What must we do to accomplish the deeds God requires?"

<sup>29</sup> Jesus replied, "This is the deed God requires – to believe in the one whom he sent."

<sup>30</sup> So they said to him, "Then what miraculous sign will you perform, so that we may see it and believe you? What will you do?"

<sup>31</sup> Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, just as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.' "

<sup>32</sup> Then Jesus told them, "I tell you the solemn truth, it is not Moses who has given you the bread from heaven, but my Father is giving you the true bread from heaven.

<sup>33</sup> For the bread of God is the one who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

<sup>34</sup> So they said to him, "Sir, give us this bread all the time!"

<sup>35</sup> Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. The one who comes to me will never go hungry, and the one who believes in me will never be thirsty.

<sup>36</sup> But I told you that you have seen me and still do not believe.

<sup>37</sup> Everyone whom the Father gives me will come to me, and the one who comes to me I will never send away.

<sup>38</sup> For I have come down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me.

<sup>39</sup> Now this is the will of the one who sent me – that I should not lose one person of every one he has given me, but raise them all up at the last day.

<sup>40</sup> For this is the will of my Father – for everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him to have eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day."

<sup>41</sup> Then the Jews who were hostile to Jesus began complaining about him because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven,"

<sup>42</sup> and they said, "Isn't this Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, 'I have come down from heaven'?"

<sup>44</sup> No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him, and I will raise him up at the last day.

<sup>45</sup> It is written in the prophets, 'And they will all be taught by God.' Everyone who hears and learns from the Father comes to me.

<sup>47</sup> I tell you the solemn truth, the one who believes has eternal life.

<sup>48</sup> I am the bread of life.

<sup>50</sup> This is the bread that has come down from heaven, so that a person may eat from it and not die.

<sup>51</sup> I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats from this bread he will live forever. The bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh."

<sup>52</sup> Then the Jews who were hostile to Jesus began to argue with one another, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?”

<sup>53</sup> Jesus said to them, “I tell you the solemn truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in yourselves.

<sup>54</sup> The one who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day.

<sup>55</sup> For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.

<sup>56</sup> The one who eats my flesh and drinks my blood resides in me, and I in him.

<sup>57</sup> Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so the one who consumes me will live because of me.

<sup>58</sup> This is the bread that came down from heaven; it is not like the bread your ancestors ate, but then later died. The one who eats this bread will live forever.”

Many Followers Depart

<sup>59</sup> Jesus said these things while he was teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum.

<sup>60</sup> Then many of his disciples, when they heard these things, said, “This is a difficult saying! Who can understand it?”

<sup>61</sup> When Jesus was aware that his disciples were complaining about this, he said to them, “Does this cause you to be offended?”

<sup>62</sup> Then what if you see the Son of Man ascending where he was before?

<sup>63</sup> The Spirit is the one who gives life; human nature is of no help! The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and are life.

<sup>64</sup> But there are some of you who do not believe.” (For Jesus had already known from the beginning who those were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray him.)

<sup>65</sup> So Jesus added, “Because of this I told you that no one can come to me unless the Father has allowed him to come.”

Peter's Confession

<sup>66</sup> After this many of his disciples quit following him and did not accompany him any longer.

<sup>67</sup> So Jesus said to the twelve, “You don’t want to go away too, do you?”

<sup>68</sup> Simon Peter answered him, “Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words of eternal life.

<sup>69</sup> We have come to believe and to know that you are the Holy One of God!”

<sup>71</sup> (Now he said this about Judas son of Simon Iscariot, for Judas, one of the twelve, was going to betray him.)

7

<sup>1</sup> After this Jesus traveled throughout Galilee. He stayed out of Judea because the Jewish leaders wanted to kill him.

<sup>3</sup> So Jesus’ brothers advised him, “Leave here and go to Judea so your disciples may see your miracles that you are performing.

<sup>6</sup> So Jesus replied, “My time has not yet arrived, but you are ready at any opportunity!

<sup>7</sup> The world cannot hate you, but it hates me, because I am testifying about it that its deeds are evil.

<sup>8</sup> You go up to the feast yourselves. I am not going up to this feast because my time has not yet fully arrived.”

<sup>9</sup> When he had said this, he remained in Galilee.

<sup>10</sup> But when his brothers had gone up to the feast, then Jesus himself also went up, not openly but in secret.

<sup>11</sup> So the Jewish leaders were looking for him at the feast, asking, “Where is he?”

<sup>12</sup> There was a lot of grumbling about him among the crowds. Some were saying, “He is a good man,” but others, “He deceives the common people.”

<sup>13</sup> However, no one spoke openly about him for fear of the Jewish leaders.

Teaching in the Temple

<sup>14</sup> When the feast was half over, Jesus went up to the temple courts and began to teach.

<sup>15</sup> Then the Jewish leaders were astonished and said, “How does this man know so much when he has never had formal instruction?”

<sup>16</sup> So Jesus replied, “My teaching is not from me, but from the one who sent me.

<sup>17</sup> If anyone wants to do God’s will, he will know about my teaching, whether it is from God or whether I speak from my own authority.

<sup>18</sup> The person who speaks on his own authority desires to receive honor for himself; the one who desires the honor of the one who sent him is a man of integrity, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

<sup>19</sup> Hasn’t Moses given you the law? Yet not one of you keeps the law! Why do you want to kill me?”

<sup>22</sup> However, because Moses gave you the practice of circumcision (not that it came from Moses, but from the forefathers), you circumcise a male child on the Sabbath.

<sup>23</sup> But if a male child is circumcised on the Sabbath so that the law of Moses is not broken, why are you angry with me because I made a man completely well on the Sabbath?

Questions About Jesus’ Identity

<sup>25</sup> Then some of the residents of Jerusalem began to say, “Isn’t this the man they are trying to kill?”

<sup>26</sup> Yet here he is, speaking publicly, and they are saying nothing to him. Do the rulers really know that this man is the Christ?

<sup>27</sup> But we know where this man comes from. Whenever the Christ comes, no one will know where he comes from.”

<sup>28</sup> Then Jesus, while teaching in the temple courts, cried out, “You both know me and know where I come from! And I have not come on my own initiative, but the one who sent me is true. You do not know him, <sup>29</sup> but I know him, because I have come from him and he sent me.”

<sup>30</sup> So then they tried to seize Jesus, but no one laid a hand on him, because his time had not yet come.

<sup>31</sup> Yet many of the crowd believed in him and said, “Whenever the Christ comes, he won’t perform more miraculous signs than this man did, will he?”

<sup>32</sup> The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these things about Jesus, so the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to arrest him.

<sup>33</sup> Then Jesus said, “I will be with you for only a little while longer, and then I am going to the one who sent me.

<sup>34</sup> You will look for me but will not find me, and where I am you cannot come.”

<sup>35</sup> Then the Jewish leaders said to one another, “Where is he going to go that we cannot find him? He is not going to go to the Jewish people dispersed among the Greeks and teach the Greeks, is he?”

<sup>36</sup> What did he mean by saying, ‘You will look for me but will not find me, and where I am you cannot come’?”

Teaching About the Spirit

<sup>37</sup> On the last day of the feast, the greatest day, Jesus stood up and shouted out, “If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me, and

<sup>38</sup> let the one who believes in me drink. Just as the scripture says, ‘From within him will flow rivers of living water.’ ”

<sup>39</sup> (Now he said this about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were going to receive, for the Spirit had not yet been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.)

Differing Opinions About Jesus

<sup>40</sup> When they heard these words, some of the crowd began to say, “This really is the Prophet!”

<sup>41</sup> Others said, “This is the Christ!” But still others said, “No, for the Christ doesn’t come from Galilee, does he?”

<sup>42</sup> Don’t the scriptures say that the Christ is a descendant of David and comes from Bethlehem, the village where David lived?”

<sup>43</sup> So there was a division in the crowd because of Jesus.

<sup>44</sup> Some of them were wanting to seize him, but no one laid a hand on him.

Lack of Belief

<sup>45</sup> Then the officers returned to the chief priests and Pharisees, who said to them, “Why didn’t you bring him back with you?”

<sup>51</sup> “Our law doesn’t condemn a man unless it first hears from him and learns what he is doing, does it?”

<sup>52</sup> They replied, “You aren’t from Galilee too, are you? Investigate carefully and you will see that no prophet comes from Galilee!”

A Woman Caught in Adultery

<sup>53</sup> [[And each one departed to his own house.

8

<sup>2</sup> Early in the morning he came to the temple courts again. All the people came to him, and he sat down and began to teach them.

<sup>3</sup> The experts in the law and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught committing adultery. They made her stand in front of them

<sup>4</sup> and said to Jesus, “Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of adultery.

<sup>5</sup> In the law Moses commanded us to stone to death such women. What then do you say?”

<sup>6</sup> (Now they were asking this in an attempt to trap him, so that they could bring charges against him.) Jesus bent down and wrote on the ground with his finger.

<sup>7</sup> When they persisted in asking him, he stood up straight and replied, “Whoever among you is guiltless may be the first to throw a stone at her.”

<sup>8</sup> Then he bent over again and wrote on the ground.

<sup>9</sup> Now when they heard this, they began to drift away one at a time, starting with the older ones, until Jesus was left alone with the woman standing before him.

<sup>10</sup> Jesus stood up straight and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you?"

<sup>11</sup> She replied, "No one, Lord." And Jesus said, "I do not condemn you either. Go, and from now on do not sin any more."]]

Jesus as the Light of the World

<sup>12</sup> Then Jesus spoke out again, "I am the light of the world. The one who follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

<sup>13</sup> So the Pharisees objected, "You testify about yourself; your testimony is not true!"

<sup>14</sup> Jesus answered, "Even if I testify about myself, my testimony is true, because I know where I came from and where I am going. But you people do not know where I came from or where I am going.

<sup>16</sup> But if I judge, my evaluation is accurate, because I am not alone when I judge, but I and the Father who sent me do so together.

<sup>17</sup> It is written in your law that the testimony of two men is true.

<sup>18</sup> I testify about myself and the Father who sent me testifies about me."

<sup>19</sup> Then they began asking him, "Who is your father?" Jesus answered, "You do not know either me or my Father. If you knew me you would know my Father too."

<sup>20</sup> (Jesus spoke these words near the offering box while he was teaching in the temple courts. No one seized him because his time had not yet come.)

Where Jesus Came From and Where He is Going

<sup>21</sup> Then Jesus said to them again, "I am going away, and you will look for me but will die in your sin. Where I am going you cannot come."

<sup>22</sup> So the Jewish leaders began to say, "Perhaps he is going to kill himself, because he says, 'Where I am going you cannot come.' "

<sup>23</sup> Jesus replied, "You people are from below; I am from above. You people are from this world; I am not from this world.

<sup>24</sup> Thus I told you that you will die in your sins. For unless you believe that I am he, you will die in your sins."

<sup>25</sup> So they said to him, "Who are you?" Jesus replied, "What I have told you from the beginning.

<sup>26</sup> I have many things to say and to judge about you, but the Father who sent me is truthful, and the things I have heard from him I speak to the world."

<sup>28</sup> Then Jesus said, "When you lift up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am he, and I do nothing on my own initiative, but I speak just what the Father taught me.

<sup>29</sup> And the one who sent me is with me. He has not left me alone, because I always do those things that please him."

<sup>30</sup> While he was saying these things, many people believed in him.

Abraham's Children and the Devil's Children

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus said to those Judeans who had believed him, "If you continue to follow my teaching, you are really my disciples <sup>32</sup> and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."

<sup>33</sup> "We are descendants of Abraham," they replied, "and have never been anyone's slaves! How can you say, 'You will become free'?"

<sup>34</sup> Jesus answered them, "I tell you the solemn truth, everyone who practices sin is a slave of sin.

<sup>35</sup> The slave does not remain in the family forever, but the son remains forever.

<sup>36</sup> So if the son sets you free, you will be really free.

<sup>37</sup> I know that you are Abraham's descendants. But you want to kill me, because my teaching makes no progress among you.

<sup>38</sup> I am telling you the things I have seen while with the Father; as for you, practice the things you have heard from the Father!"

<sup>39</sup> They answered him, "Abraham is our father!" Jesus replied, "If you are Abraham's children, you would be doing the deeds of Abraham.

<sup>40</sup> But now you are trying to kill me, a man who has told you the truth I heard from God. Abraham did not do this!

Then they said to Jesus, "We were not born as a result of immorality! We have only one Father, God himself."

<sup>42</sup> Jesus replied, "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I have come from God and am now here. I have not come on my own initiative, but he sent me.

<sup>43</sup> Why don't you understand what I am saying? It is because you cannot accept my teaching.

<sup>44</sup> You people are from your father the devil, and you want to do what your father desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not uphold the truth, because there is no truth in him. Whenever he lies, he speaks according to his own nature, because he is a liar and the father of lies.

<sup>45</sup> But because I am telling you the truth, you do not believe me.

<sup>46</sup> Who among you can prove me guilty of any sin? If I am telling you the truth, why don't you believe me?

<sup>47</sup> The one who belongs to God listens and responds to God's words. You don't listen and respond, because you don't belong to God."

<sup>48</sup> The Judeans replied, "Aren't we correct in saying that you are a Samaritan and are possessed by a demon?"

<sup>49</sup> Jesus answered, "I am not possessed by a demon, but I honor my Father - and yet you dishonor me.

<sup>50</sup> I am not trying to get praise for myself. There is one who demands it, and he also judges.

<sup>51</sup> I tell you the solemn truth, if anyone obeys my teaching, he will never see death."

<sup>52</sup> Then the Judeans responded, "Now we know you're possessed by a demon! Both Abraham and the prophets died, and yet you say, 'If anyone obeys my teaching, he will never experience death.'

<sup>53</sup> You aren't greater than our father Abraham who died, are you? And the prophets died too! Who do you claim to be?"

<sup>54</sup> Jesus replied, "If I glorify myself, my glory is worthless. The one who glorifies me is my Father, about whom you people say, 'He is our God.'

<sup>55</sup> Yet you do not know him, but I know him. If I were to say that I do not know him, I would be a liar like you. But I do know him, and I obey his teaching.

<sup>56</sup> Your father Abraham was overjoyed to see my day, and he saw it and was glad."

<sup>57</sup> Then the Judeans replied, "You are not yet fifty years old! Have you seen Abraham?"

<sup>58</sup> Jesus said to them, "I tell you the solemn truth, before Abraham came into existence, I am!"

<sup>59</sup> Then they picked up stones to throw at him, but Jesus hid himself and went out from the temple area.

9

<sup>2</sup> His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who committed the sin that caused him to be born blind, this man or his parents?"

<sup>3</sup> Jesus answered, "Neither this man nor his parents sinned, but he was born blind so that the acts of God may be revealed through what happens to him.

<sup>4</sup> We must perform the deeds of the one who sent me as long as it is daytime. Night is coming when no one can work.

<sup>5</sup> As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

<sup>6</sup> Having said this, he spat on the ground and made some mud with the saliva. He smeared the mud on the blind man's eyes <sup>7</sup> and said to him, "Go wash in the pool of Siloam" (which is translated "sent"). So the blind man went away and washed, and came back seeing.

<sup>8</sup> Then the neighbors and the people who had seen him previously as a beggar began saying, "Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?"

<sup>9</sup> Some people said, "This is the man!" while others said, "No, but he looks like him." The man himself kept insisting, "I am the one!"

<sup>10</sup> So they asked him, "How then were you made to see?"

<sup>11</sup> He replied, "The man called Jesus made mud, smeared it on my eyes and told me, 'Go to Siloam and wash.' So I went and washed, and was able to see."

<sup>12</sup> They said to him, "Where is that man?" He replied, "I don't know."

The Pharisees' Reaction to the Healing

<sup>13</sup> They brought the man who used to be blind to the Pharisees.

<sup>14</sup> (Now the day on which Jesus made the mud and caused him to see was a Sabbath.)

<sup>15</sup> So the Pharisees asked him again how he had gained his sight. He replied, "He put mud on my eyes and I washed, and now I am able to see."

<sup>16</sup> Then some of the Pharisees began to say, "This man is not from God, because he does not observe the Sabbath." But others said, "How can a man who is a sinner perform such miraculous signs?" Thus there was a division among them.

<sup>17</sup> So again they asked the man who used to be blind, "What do you say about him, since he caused you to see?" "He is a prophet," the man replied.

<sup>18</sup> Now the Jewish religious leaders refused to believe that he had really been blind and had gained his sight until at last they summoned the parents of the man who had become able to see.

<sup>19</sup> They asked the parents, "Is this your son, whom you say was born blind? Then how does he now see?"

<sup>20</sup> So his parents replied, "We know that this is our son and that he was born blind.

<sup>21</sup> But we do not know how he is now able to see, nor do we know who caused him to see. Ask him, he is a mature adult. He will speak for himself."

<sup>22</sup> (His parents said these things because they were afraid of the Jewish religious leaders. For the Jewish leaders had already agreed that anyone who confessed Jesus to be the Christ would be put out of the synagogue.

<sup>23</sup> For this reason his parents said, "He is a mature adult, ask him.")

<sup>24</sup> Then they summoned the man who used to be blind a second time and said to him, "Promise before God to tell the truth. We know that this man is a sinner."

<sup>25</sup> He replied, "I do not know whether he is a sinner. I do know one thing – that although I was blind, now I can see."

<sup>26</sup> Then they said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he cause you to see?"

<sup>27</sup> He answered, "I told you already and you didn't listen. Why do you want to hear it again? You people don't want to become his disciples too, do you?"

<sup>28</sup> They heaped insults on him, saying, "You are his disciple! We are disciples of Moses!
<sup>29</sup> We know that God has spoken to Moses! We do not know where this man comes from!"
<sup>30</sup> The man replied, "This is a remarkable thing, that you don't know where he comes from, and yet he caused me to see!"
<sup>31</sup> We know that God doesn't listen to sinners, but if anyone is devout and does his will, God listens to him.
<sup>32</sup> Never before has anyone heard of someone causing a man born blind to see.
<sup>34</sup> They replied, "You were born completely in sinfulness, and yet you presume to teach us?"
So they threw him out.

The Man's Response to Jesus

<sup>35</sup> Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, so he found the man and said to him, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?"
<sup>36</sup> The man replied, "And who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?"
<sup>37</sup> Jesus told him, "You have seen him; he is the one speaking with you."
<sup>38</sup> [He said, "Lord, I believe," and he worshiped him.
<sup>39</sup> Jesus said,] "For judgment I have come into this world, so that those who do not see may gain their sight, and the ones who see may become blind."
<sup>40</sup> Some of the Pharisees who were with him heard this and asked him, "We are not blind too, are we?"
<sup>41</sup> Jesus replied, "If you were blind, you would not be guilty of sin, but now because you claim that you can see, your guilt remains."

10

<sup>1</sup> "I tell you the solemn truth, the one who does not enter the sheepfold by the door, but climbs in some other way, is a thief and a robber.
<sup>2</sup> The one who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.
<sup>3</sup> The doorkeeper opens the door for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.
<sup>4</sup> When he has brought all his own sheep out, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they recognize his voice.
<sup>5</sup> They will never follow a stranger, but will run away from him, because they do not recognize the stranger's voice."
<sup>6</sup> Jesus told them this parable, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.
<sup>7</sup> So Jesus said to them again, "I tell you the solemn truth, I am the door for the sheep.
<sup>8</sup> All who came before me were thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them.
<sup>9</sup> I am the door. If anyone enters through me, he will be saved, and will come in and go out, and find pasture.
<sup>10</sup> The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come so that they may have life, and may have it abundantly.
<sup>11</sup> "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.
<sup>12</sup> The hired hand, who is not a shepherd and does not own sheep, sees the wolf coming and abandons the sheep and runs away. So the wolf attacks the sheep and scatters them.
<sup>13</sup> Because he is a hired hand and is not concerned about the sheep, he runs away.
<sup>14</sup> "I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me –

<sup>15</sup> just as the Father knows me and I know the Father – and I lay down my life for the sheep.

<sup>16</sup> I have other sheep that do not come from this sheepfold. I must bring them too, and they will listen to my voice, so that there will be one flock and one shepherd.

<sup>17</sup> This is why the Father loves me – because I lay down my life, so that I may take it back again.

<sup>18</sup> No one takes it away from me, but I lay it down of my own free will. I have the authority to lay it down, and I have the authority to take it back again. This commandment I received from my Father.”

<sup>19</sup> Another sharp division took place among the Jewish people because of these words.

<sup>20</sup> Many of them were saying, “He is possessed by a demon and has lost his mind! Why do you listen to him?”

<sup>21</sup> Others said, “These are not the words of someone possessed by a demon. A demon cannot cause the blind to see, can it?”

Jesus at the Feast of Dedication

<sup>22</sup> Then came the feast of the Dedication in Jerusalem.

<sup>24</sup> The Jewish leaders surrounded him and asked, “How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly.”

<sup>25</sup> Jesus replied, “I told you and you do not believe. The deeds I do in my Father’s name testify about me.

<sup>26</sup> But you refuse to believe because you are not my sheep.

<sup>27</sup> My sheep listen to my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.

<sup>28</sup> I give them eternal life, and they will never perish; no one will snatch them from my hand.

<sup>29</sup> My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can snatch them from my Father’s hand.

<sup>32</sup> Jesus said to them, “I have shown you many good deeds from the Father. For which one of them are you going to stone me?”

<sup>33</sup> The Jewish leaders replied, “We are not going to stone you for a good deed but for blasphemy, because you, a man, are claiming to be God.”

<sup>34</sup> Jesus answered, “Is it not written in your law, ‘I said, you are gods’?”

<sup>35</sup> If those people to whom the word of God came were called ‘gods’ (and the scripture cannot be broken), <sup>36</sup> do you say about the one whom the Father set apart and sent into the world, ‘You are blaspheming,’ because I said, ‘I am the Son of God’?

<sup>37</sup> If I do not perform the deeds of my Father, do not believe me.

<sup>38</sup> But if I do them, even if you do not believe me, believe the deeds, so that you may come to know and understand that I am in the Father and the Father is in me.”

<sup>39</sup> Then they attempted again to seize him, but he escaped their clutches.

<sup>40</sup> Jesus went back across the Jordan River again to the place where John had been baptizing at an earlier time, and he stayed there.

<sup>41</sup> Many came to him and began to say, “John performed no miraculous sign, but everything John said about this man was true!”

<sup>42</sup> And many believed in Jesus there.

11

<sup>4</sup> When Jesus heard this, he said, "This sickness will not lead to death, but to God's glory, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it."

<sup>6</sup> So when he heard that Lazarus was sick, he remained in the place where he was for two more days.

<sup>7</sup> Then after this, he said to his disciples, "Let us go to Judea again."

<sup>8</sup> The disciples replied, "Rabbi, the Jewish leaders were just now trying to stone you to death! Are you going there again?"

<sup>9</sup> Jesus replied, "Are there not twelve hours in a day? If anyone walks around in the daytime, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world.

<sup>10</sup> But if anyone walks around at night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him."

<sup>11</sup> After he said this, he added, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep. But I am going there to awaken him."

<sup>12</sup> Then the disciples replied, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover."

<sup>13</sup> (Now Jesus had been talking about his death, but they thought he had been talking about real sleep.)

<sup>14</sup> Then Jesus told them plainly, "Lazarus has died, <sup>15</sup> and I am glad for your sake that I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him."

<sup>16</sup> So Thomas (called Didymus ) said to his fellow disciples, "Let us go too, so that we may die with him."

Speaking with Martha and Mary

<sup>17</sup> When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had been in the tomb four days already.

<sup>19</sup> so many of the Jewish people of the region had come to Martha and Mary to console them over the loss of their brother.)

<sup>20</sup> So when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet him, but Mary was sitting in the house.

<sup>21</sup> Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.

<sup>22</sup> But even now I know that whatever you ask from God, God will grant you."

<sup>23</sup> Jesus replied, "Your brother will come back to life again."

<sup>24</sup> Martha said, "I know that he will come back to life again in the resurrection at the last day."

<sup>25</sup> Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live even if he dies, <sup>26</sup> and the one who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?"

<sup>27</sup> She replied, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God who comes into the world."

<sup>28</sup> And when she had said this, Martha went and called her sister Mary, saying privately, "The Teacher is here and is asking for you."

<sup>29</sup> So when Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to him.

<sup>30</sup> (Now Jesus had not yet entered the village, but was still in the place where Martha had come out to meet him.)

<sup>31</sup> Then the people who were with Mary in the house consoling her saw her get up quickly and go out. They followed her, because they thought she was going to the tomb to weep there.

<sup>32</sup> Now when Mary came to the place where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."

<sup>33</sup> When Jesus saw her weeping, and the people who had come with her weeping, he was intensely moved in spirit and greatly distressed.

<sup>34</sup> He asked, "Where have you laid him?" They replied, "Lord, come and see."

<sup>36</sup> Thus the people who had come to mourn said, "Look how much he loved him!"

<sup>37</sup> But some of them said, "This is the man who caused the blind man to see! Couldn't he have done something to keep Lazarus from dying?"

Lazarus Raised from the Dead

<sup>38</sup> Jesus, intensely moved again, came to the tomb. (Now it was a cave, and a stone was placed across it.)

<sup>39</sup> Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the deceased, replied, "Lord, by this time the body will have a bad smell, because he has been buried four days."

<sup>40</sup> Jesus responded, "Didn't I tell you that if you believe, you would see the glory of God?"

<sup>41</sup> So they took away the stone. Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you that you have listened to me.

<sup>42</sup> I knew that you always listen to me, but I said this for the sake of the crowd standing around here, that they may believe that you sent me."

<sup>43</sup> When he had said this, he shouted in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!"

<sup>44</sup> The one who had died came out, his feet and hands tied up with strips of cloth, and a cloth wrapped around his face. Jesus said to them, "Unwrap him and let him go."

The Response of the Jewish Leaders

<sup>45</sup> Then many of the people, who had come with Mary and had seen the things Jesus did, believed in him.

<sup>46</sup> But some of them went to the Pharisees and reported to them what Jesus had done.

<sup>47</sup> So the chief priests and the Pharisees called the council together and said, "What are we doing? For this man is performing many miraculous signs.

<sup>48</sup> If we allow him to go on in this way, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away our sanctuary and our nation."

<sup>49</sup> Then one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said, "You know nothing at all!

<sup>50</sup> You do not realize that it is more to your advantage to have one man die for the people than for the whole nation to perish."

<sup>51</sup> (Now he did not say this on his own, but because he was high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus was going to die for the Jewish nation,

<sup>54</sup> Thus Jesus no longer went around publicly among the Judeans, but went away from there to the region near the wilderness, to a town called Ephraim, and stayed there with his disciples.

<sup>55</sup> Now the Jewish feast of Passover was near, and many people went up to Jerusalem from the rural areas before the Passover to cleanse themselves ritually.

<sup>56</sup> Thus they were looking for Jesus, and saying to one another as they stood in the temple courts, "What do you think? That he won't come to the feast?"

<sup>57</sup> (Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that anyone who knew where Jesus was should report it, so that they could arrest him.)

12

<sup>1</sup> Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus lived, whom he had raised from the dead.

<sup>2</sup> So they prepared a dinner for Jesus there. Martha was serving, and Lazarus was among those present at the table with him.

<sup>3</sup> Then Mary took three quarters of a pound of expensive aromatic oil from pure nard and anointed the feet of Jesus. She then wiped his feet dry with her hair. (Now the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfumed oil.)

<sup>5</sup> “Why wasn’t this oil sold for three hundred silver coins and the money given to the poor?”

<sup>6</sup> (Now Judas said this not because he was concerned about the poor, but because he was a thief. As keeper of the money box, he used to steal what was put into it.)

<sup>7</sup> So Jesus said, “Leave her alone. She has kept it for the day of my burial.

<sup>9</sup> Now a large crowd of Judeans learned that Jesus was there, and so they came not only because of him but also to see Lazarus whom he had raised from the dead.

<sup>11</sup> for on account of him many of the Jewish people from Jerusalem were going away and believing in Jesus.

The Triumphal Entry

<sup>12</sup> The next day the large crowd that had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him. They began to shout, “*Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord*!* Blessed is the king of Israel!”

<sup>14</sup> Jesus found a young donkey and sat on it, just as it is written,

<sup>16</sup> (His disciples did not understand these things when they first happened, but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about him and that these things had happened to him.)

<sup>17</sup> So the crowd who had been with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead were continuing to testify about it.

<sup>18</sup> Because they had heard that Jesus had performed this miraculous sign, the crowd went out to meet him.

<sup>19</sup> Thus the Pharisees said to one another, “You see that you can do nothing. Look, the world has run off after him!”

Seekers

<sup>21</sup> So these approached Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and requested, “Sir, we would like to see Jesus.”

<sup>22</sup> Philip went and told Andrew, and they both went and told Jesus.

<sup>23</sup> Jesus replied, “The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

<sup>24</sup> I tell you the solemn truth, unless a kernel of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains by itself alone. But if it dies, it produces much grain.

<sup>25</sup> The one who loves his life destroys it, and the one who hates his life in this world guards it for eternal life.

<sup>26</sup> If anyone wants to serve me, he must follow me, and where I am, my servant will be too. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.

<sup>27</sup> “Now my soul is greatly distressed. And what should I say? ‘Father, deliver me from this hour’? No, but for this very reason I have come to this hour.

<sup>28</sup> Father, glorify your name.” Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.”

<sup>29</sup> The crowd that stood there and heard the voice said that it had thundered. Others said that an angel had spoken to him.

<sup>30</sup> Jesus said, “This voice has not come for my benefit but for yours.

<sup>31</sup> Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out.

<sup>32</sup> And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself.”

<sup>33</sup> (Now he said this to indicate clearly what kind of death he was going to die.)

<sup>34</sup> Then the crowd responded, “We have heard from the law that the Christ will remain forever. How can you say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up’? Who is this Son of Man?”

<sup>35</sup> Jesus replied, “The light is with you for a little while longer. Walk while you have the light, so that the darkness may not overtake you. The one who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going.

<sup>36</sup> While you have the light, believe in the light, so that you may become sons of light.” When Jesus had said these things, he went away and hid himself from them.

The Outcome of Jesus’ Public Ministry Foretold

<sup>37</sup> Although Jesus had performed so many miraculous signs before them, they still refused to believe in him,

<sup>38</sup> so that the word of Isaiah the prophet would be fulfilled. He said, “ Lord | strong="G2962", who has believed our message, and to whom has the arm of the Lord, who has believed our message, and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed | strong="G0601"?"

<sup>39</sup> For this reason they could not believe, because again Isaiah said, <sup>40</sup> “ *He has blinded their eyes and hardened their heart,

so that they would not see with their eyes
and understand with their heart, and turn to me, and I would heal them*.*”

<sup>41</sup> Isaiah said these things because he saw Christ’s glory, and spoke about him.

<sup>42</sup> Nevertheless, even among the rulers many believed in him, but because of the Pharisees they would not confess Jesus to be the Christ, so that they would not be put out of the synagogue.

Jesus’ Final Public Words

<sup>44</sup> But Jesus shouted out, “The one who believes in me does not believe in me, but in the one who sent me, <sup>45</sup> and the one who sees me sees the one who sent me.

<sup>46</sup> I have come as a light into the world, so that everyone who believes in me should not remain in darkness.

<sup>47</sup> If anyone hears my words and does not obey them, I do not judge him. For I have not come to judge the world, but to save the world.

<sup>48</sup> The one who rejects me and does not accept my words has a judge; the word I have spoken will judge him at the last day.

<sup>49</sup> For I have not spoken from my own authority, but the Father himself who sent me has commanded me what I should say and what I should speak.

<sup>50</sup> And I know that his commandment is eternal life. Thus the things I say, I say just as the Father has told me.”

13

<sup>1</sup> Just before the Passover feast, Jesus knew that his time had come to depart from this world to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he now loved them to the very end.

<sup>2</sup> The evening meal was in progress, and the devil had already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, that he should betray Jesus.

<sup>3</sup> Because Jesus knew that the Father had handed all things over to him, and that he had come from God and was going back to God, <sup>4</sup> he got up from the meal, removed his outer clothes, took a towel and tied it around himself.

<sup>5</sup> He poured water into the washbasin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to dry them with the towel he had wrapped around himself.

<sup>6</sup> Then he came to Simon Peter. Peter said to him, “Lord, are you going to wash my feet?”

<sup>7</sup> Jesus replied, “You do not understand what I am doing now, but you will understand after these things.”

<sup>8</sup> Peter said to him, “You will never wash my feet!” Jesus replied, “If I do not wash you, you have no share with me.”

<sup>9</sup> Simon Peter said to him, “Lord, wash not only my feet, but also my hands and my head!”

<sup>10</sup> Jesus replied, “The one who has bathed needs only to wash his feet, but is completely clean. And you disciples are clean, but not every one of you.”

<sup>11</sup> (For Jesus knew the one who was going to betray him. For this reason he said, “Not every one of you is clean.”)

<sup>12</sup> So when Jesus had washed their feet and put his outer clothing back on, he took his place at the table again and said to them, “Do you understand what I have done for you?”

<sup>13</sup> You call me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and do so correctly, for that is what I am.

<sup>14</sup> If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you too ought to wash one another's feet.

<sup>15</sup> For I have given you an example – you should do just as I have done for you.

<sup>16</sup> I tell you the solemn truth, the slave is not greater than his master, nor is the one who is sent as a messenger greater than the one who sent him.

<sup>17</sup> If you understand these things, you will be blessed if you do them.

The Announcement of Jesus' Betrayal

<sup>18</sup> “What I am saying does not refer to all of you. I know the ones I have chosen. But this is to fulfill the scripture, ‘The one who eats |strong="G5176" my bread my bread has turned |strong="G1869" against me.’

<sup>19</sup> I am telling you this now, before it happens, so that when it happens you may believe that I am he.

<sup>20</sup> I tell you the solemn truth, whoever accepts the one I send accepts me, and whoever accepts me accepts the one who sent me.”

<sup>21</sup> When he had said these things, Jesus was greatly distressed in spirit, and testified, “I tell you the solemn truth, one of you will betray me.”

<sup>22</sup> The disciples began to look at one another, worried and perplexed to know which of them he was talking about.

<sup>24</sup> So Simon Peter gestured to this disciple to ask Jesus who it was he was referring to.

<sup>25</sup> Then the disciple whom Jesus loved leaned back against Jesus' chest and asked him, "Lord, who is it?"

<sup>26</sup> Jesus replied, "It is the one to whom I will give this piece of bread after I have dipped it in the dish." Then he dipped the piece of bread in the dish and gave it to Judas Iscariot, Simon's son.

<sup>27</sup> And after Judas took the piece of bread, Satan entered into him. Jesus said to him, "What you are about to do, do quickly."

<sup>29</sup> Some thought that, because Judas had the money box, Jesus was telling him to buy whatever they needed for the feast, or to give something to the poor.)

<sup>30</sup> Judas took the piece of bread and went out immediately. (Now it was night.)

The Prediction of Peter's Denial

<sup>31</sup> When Judas had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man is glorified, and God is glorified in him.

<sup>32</sup> If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and he will glorify him right away.

<sup>33</sup> Children, I am still with you for a little while. You will look for me, and just as I said to the Jewish religious leaders, 'Where I am going you cannot come,' now I tell you the same.

<sup>34</sup> "I give you a new commandment – to love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another.

<sup>35</sup> Everyone will know by this that you are my disciples – if you have love for one another."

<sup>36</sup> Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus replied, "Where I am going, you cannot follow me now, but you will follow later."

<sup>37</sup> Peter said to him, "Lord, why can't I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you!"

<sup>38</sup> Jesus answered, "Will you lay down your life for me? I tell you the solemn truth, the rooster will not crow until you have denied me three times!

14

<sup>1</sup> "Do not let your hearts be distressed. You believe in God; believe also in me.

<sup>2</sup> There are many dwelling places in my Father's house. Otherwise, I would have told you, because I am going away to make ready a place for you.

<sup>3</sup> And if I go and make ready a place for you, I will come again and take you to be with me, so that where I am you may be too.

<sup>5</sup> Thomas said, "Lord, we don't know where you are going. How can we know the way?"

<sup>6</sup> Jesus replied, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

<sup>7</sup> If you have known me, you will know my Father too. And from now on you do know him and have seen him."

<sup>8</sup> Philip said, "Lord, show us the Father, and we will be content."

<sup>9</sup> Jesus replied, "Have I been with you for so long, and you have not known me, Philip? The person who has seen me has seen the Father! How can you say, 'Show us the Father'?"

<sup>10</sup> Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you, I do not speak on my own initiative, but the Father residing in me performs his miraculous deeds.

<sup>11</sup> Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father is in me, but if you do not believe me, believe because of the miraculous deeds themselves.

<sup>12</sup> I tell you the solemn truth, the person who believes in me will perform the miraculous deeds that I am doing, and will perform greater deeds than these, because I am going to the Father.

<sup>13</sup> And I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

<sup>14</sup> If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it.

Teaching on the Holy Spirit

<sup>15</sup> “If you love me, you will obey my commandments.

<sup>16</sup> Then I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you forever –

<sup>17</sup> the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept, because it does not see him or know him. But you know him, because he resides with you and will be in you.

<sup>18</sup> “I will not abandon you as orphans, I will come to you.

<sup>19</sup> In a little while the world will not see me any longer, but you will see me; because I live, you will live too.

<sup>20</sup> You will know at that time that I am in my Father and you are in me and I am in you.

<sup>21</sup> The person who has my commandments and obeys them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and will reveal myself to him.”

<sup>22</sup> “Lord,” Judas (not Judas Iscariot) said, “what has happened that you are going to reveal yourself to us and not to the world?”

<sup>23</sup> Jesus replied, “If anyone loves me, he will obey my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and take up residence with him.

<sup>24</sup> The person who does not love me does not obey my words. And the word you hear is not mine, but the Father’s who sent me.

<sup>26</sup> But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and will cause you to remember everything I said to you.

<sup>27</sup> “Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you; I do not give it to you as the world does. Do not let your hearts be distressed or lacking in courage.

<sup>28</sup> You heard me say to you, ‘I am going away and I am coming back to you.’ If you loved me, you would be glad that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I am.

<sup>29</sup> I have told you now before it happens, so that when it happens you may believe.

<sup>30</sup> I will not speak with you much longer, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has no power over me, <sup>31</sup> but I am doing just what the Father commanded me, so that the world may know that I love the Father. Get up, let us go from here.”

15

<sup>2</sup> He takes away every branch that does not bear fruit in me. He prunes every branch that bears fruit so that it will bear more fruit.

<sup>3</sup> You are clean already because of the word that I have spoken to you.

<sup>4</sup> Remain in me, and I will remain in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it remains in the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me.

<sup>5</sup> “I am the vine; you are the branches. The one who remains in me – and I in him – bears much fruit, because apart from me you can accomplish nothing.

<sup>6</sup> If anyone does not remain in me, he is thrown out like a branch, and dries up; and such branches are gathered up and thrown into the fire, and are burned up.

<sup>7</sup> If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you want, and it will be done for you.

<sup>8</sup> My Father is honored by this, that you bear much fruit and show that you are my disciples.

<sup>9</sup> “Just as the Father has loved me, I have also loved you; remain in my love.

<sup>10</sup> If you obey my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have obeyed my Father’s commandments and remain in his love.

<sup>11</sup> I have told you these things so that my joy may be in you, and your joy may be complete.

<sup>12</sup> My commandment is this – to love one another just as I have loved you.

<sup>13</sup> No one has greater love than this – that one lays down his life for his friends.

<sup>15</sup> I no longer call you slaves, because the slave does not understand what his master is doing. But I have called you friends, because I have revealed to you everything I heard from my Father.

<sup>16</sup> You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that remains, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he will give you.

<sup>17</sup> This I command you – to love one another.

The World’s Hatred

<sup>18</sup> “If the world hates you, be aware that it hated me first.

<sup>19</sup> If you belonged to the world, the world would love you as its own. However, because you do not belong to the world, but I chose you out of the world, for this reason the world hates you.

<sup>20</sup> Remember what I told you, ‘A slave is not greater than his master.’ If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they obeyed my word, they will obey yours too.

<sup>21</sup> But they will do all these things to you on account of my name, because they do not know the one who sent me.

<sup>22</sup> If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not be guilty of sin. But they no longer have any excuse for their sin.

<sup>24</sup> If I had not performed among them the miraculous deeds that no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin. But now they have seen the deeds and have hated both me and my Father.

<sup>25</sup> Now this happened to fulfill the word that is written in their law, ‘They hated me without reason.’

<sup>26</sup> When the Advocate comes, whom I will send you from the Father – the Spirit of truth who goes out from the Father – he will testify about me, <sup>27</sup> and you also will testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.

16

<sup>1</sup> “I have told you all these things so that you will not fall away.

<sup>2</sup> They will put you out of the synagogue, yet a time is coming when the one who kills you will think he is offering service to God.

<sup>3</sup> They will do these things because they have not known the Father or me.

<sup>4</sup> But I have told you these things so that when their time comes, you will remember that I told you about them.

“I did not tell you these things from the beginning because I was with you.

<sup>5</sup> But now I am going to the one who sent me, and not one of you is asking me, ‘Where are you going?’

<sup>6</sup> Instead your hearts are filled with sadness because I have said these things to you.

<sup>7</sup> But I tell you the truth, it is to your advantage that I am going away. For if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you, but if I go, I will send him to you.

<sup>8</sup> And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong concerning sin and righteousness and judgment –

<sup>10</sup> concerning righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer;

<sup>11</sup> and concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned.

<sup>12</sup> “I have many more things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now.

<sup>13</sup> But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth. For he will not speak on his own authority, but will speak whatever he hears, and will tell you what is to come.

<sup>14</sup> He will glorify me, because he will receive from me what is mine and will tell it to you.

<sup>15</sup> Everything that the Father has is mine; that is why I said the Spirit will receive from me what is mine and will tell it to you.

<sup>16</sup> In a little while you will see me no longer; again after a little while, you will see me.”

<sup>17</sup> Then some of his disciples said to one another, “What is the meaning of what he is saying, ‘In a little while you will not see me; again after a little while, you will see me,’ and, ‘because I am going to the Father’?”

<sup>18</sup> So they kept on repeating, “What is the meaning of what he says, ‘In a little while’? We do not understand what he is talking about.”

<sup>19</sup> Jesus could see that they wanted to ask him about these things, so he said to them, “Are you asking each other about this – that I said, ‘In a little while you will not see me; again after a little while, you will see me’?”

<sup>20</sup> I tell you the solemn truth, you will weep and wail, but the world will rejoice; you will be sad, but your sadness will turn into joy.

<sup>21</sup> When a woman gives birth, she has distress because her time has come, but when her child is born, she no longer remembers the suffering because of her joy that a human being has been born into the world.

<sup>22</sup> So also you have sorrow now, but I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you.

<sup>23</sup> At that time you will ask me nothing. I tell you the solemn truth, whatever you ask the Father in my name he will give you.

<sup>24</sup> Until now you have not asked for anything in my name. Ask and you will receive it, so that your joy may be complete.

<sup>25</sup> “I have told you these things in obscure figures of speech; a time is coming when I will no longer speak to you in obscure figures, but will tell you plainly about the Father.

<sup>26</sup> At that time you will ask in my name, and I do not say that I will ask the Father on your behalf.

<sup>27</sup> For the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God.

<sup>28</sup> I came from the Father and entered into the world, but in turn, I am leaving the world and going back to the Father.”

<sup>29</sup> His disciples said, “Look, now you are speaking plainly and not in obscure figures of speech!

<sup>30</sup> Now we know that you know everything and do not need anyone to ask you anything. Because of this we believe that you have come from God.”

<sup>32</sup> Look, a time is coming – and has come – when you will be scattered, each one to his own home, and I will be left alone. Yet I am not alone, because my Father is with me.

<sup>33</sup> I have told you these things so that in me you may have peace. In the world you have trouble and suffering, but take courage – I have conquered the world.”

17

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus had finished saying these things, he looked upward to heaven and said, “Father, the time has come. Glorify your Son, so that your Son may glorify you –

<sup>2</sup> just as you have given him authority over all humanity, so that he may give eternal life to everyone you have given him.

<sup>3</sup> Now this is eternal life – that they know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you sent.

<sup>4</sup> I glorified you on earth by completing the work you gave me to do.

<sup>5</sup> And now, Father, glorify me at your side with the glory I had with you before the world was created.

Jesus Prays for the Disciples

<sup>6</sup> “I have revealed your name to the men you gave me out of the world. They belonged to you, and you gave them to me, and they have obeyed your word.

<sup>7</sup> Now they understand that everything you have given me comes from you, <sup>8</sup> because I have given them the words you have given me. They accepted them and really understand that I came from you, and they believed that you sent me.

<sup>9</sup> I am praying on behalf of them. I am not praying on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those you have given me, because they belong to you.

<sup>10</sup> Everything I have belongs to you, and everything you have belongs to me, and I have been glorified by them.

<sup>11</sup> I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them safe in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one just as we are one.

<sup>12</sup> When I was with them I kept them safe and watched over them in your name that you have given me. Not one of them was lost except the one destined for destruction, so that the scripture could be fulfilled.

<sup>13</sup> But now I am coming to you, and I am saying these things in the world, so they may experience my joy completed in themselves.

<sup>14</sup> I have given them your word, and the world has hated them, because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world.

<sup>15</sup> I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but that you keep them safe from the evil one.

<sup>16</sup> They do not belong to the world just as I do not belong to the world.

<sup>18</sup> Just as you sent me into the world, so I sent them into the world.

<sup>19</sup> And I set myself apart on their behalf, so that they too may be truly set apart.

Jesus Prays for Believers Everywhere

<sup>20</sup> “I am not praying only on their behalf, but also on behalf of those who believe in me through their testimony, <sup>21</sup> that they will all be one, just as you, Father, are in me and I am in you. I pray that they will be in us, so that the world will believe that you sent me.

<sup>22</sup> The glory you gave to me I have given to them, that they may be one just as we are one –

<sup>23</sup> I in them and you in me – that they may be completely one, so that the world will know that you sent me, and you have loved them just as you have loved me.

<sup>24</sup> “Father, I want those you have given me to be with me where I am, so that they can see my glory that you gave me because you loved me before the creation of the world .

<sup>25</sup> Righteous Father, even if the world does not know you, I know you, and these men know that you sent me.

<sup>26</sup> I made known your name to them, and I will continue to make it known, so that the love you have loved me with may be in them, and I may be in them.”

18

<sup>1</sup> When he had said these things, Jesus went out with his disciples across the Kidron Valley. There was an orchard there, and he and his disciples went into it.

<sup>2</sup> (Now Judas, the one who betrayed him, knew the place too, because Jesus had met there many times with his disciples.)

<sup>3</sup> So Judas obtained a squad of soldiers and some officers of the chief priests and Pharisees. They came to the orchard with lanterns and torches and weapons.

<sup>4</sup> Then Jesus, because he knew everything that was going to happen to him, came and asked them, “Who are you looking for?”

<sup>5</sup> They replied, “Jesus the Nazarene.” He told them, “I am he.” (Now Judas, the one who betrayed him, was standing there with them.)

<sup>6</sup> So when Jesus said to them, “I am he,” they retreated and fell to the ground.

<sup>7</sup> Then Jesus asked them again, “Who are you looking for?” And they said, “Jesus the Nazarene.”

<sup>8</sup> Jesus replied, “I told you that I am he. If you are looking for me, let these men go.”

<sup>9</sup> He said this to fulfill the word he had spoken, “I have not lost a single one of those whom you gave me.”

<sup>11</sup> But Jesus said to Peter, “Put your sword back into its sheath! Am I not to drink the cup that the Father has given me?”

Jesus Before Annas

<sup>12</sup> Then the squad of soldiers with their commanding officer and the officers of the Jewish leaders arrested Jesus and tied him up.

<sup>13</sup> They brought him first to Annas, for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year.

<sup>14</sup> (Now it was Caiaphas who had advised the Jewish leaders that it was to their advantage that one man die for the people.)

Peter’s First Denial

<sup>15</sup> Simon Peter and another disciple followed them as they brought Jesus to Annas. (Now the other disciple was acquainted with the high priest, and he went with Jesus into the high priest’s courtyard.)

<sup>16</sup> But Simon Peter was left standing outside by the door. So the other disciple who was acquainted with the high priest came out and spoke to the slave girl who watched the door, and brought Peter inside.

<sup>17</sup> The girl who was the doorkeeper said to Peter, “You’re not one of this man’s disciples too, are you?” He replied, “I am not.”

<sup>18</sup> (Now the slaves and the guards were standing around a charcoal fire they had made, warming themselves because it was cold. Peter also was standing with them, warming himself.)

Jesus Questioned by Annas

<sup>19</sup> While this was happening, the high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching.

<sup>20</sup> Jesus replied, "I have spoken publicly to the world. I always taught in the synagogues and in the temple courts, where all the Jewish people assemble together. I have said nothing in secret.

<sup>21</sup> Why do you ask me? Ask those who heard what I said. They know what I said."

<sup>22</sup> When Jesus had said this, one of the high priest's officers who stood nearby struck him on the face and said, "Is that the way you answer the high priest?"

<sup>23</sup> Jesus replied, "If I have said something wrong, confirm what is wrong. But if I spoke correctly, why strike me?"

<sup>24</sup> Then Annas sent him, still tied up, to Caiaphas the high priest.

Peter's Second and Third Denials

<sup>25</sup> Meanwhile Simon Peter was standing in the courtyard warming himself. They said to him, "You aren't one of his disciples too, are you?" Peter denied it: "I am not!"

<sup>26</sup> One of the high priest's slaves, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, said, "Did I not see you in the orchard with him?"

<sup>27</sup> Then Peter denied it again, and immediately a rooster crowed.

Jesus Brought Before Pilate

<sup>28</sup> Then they brought Jesus from Caiaphas to the Roman governor's residence. (Now it was very early morning.) They did not go into the governor's residence so they would not be ceremonially defiled, but could eat the Passover meal.

<sup>29</sup> So Pilate came outside to them and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?"

<sup>30</sup> They replied, "If this man were not a criminal, we would not have handed him over to you."

<sup>31</sup> Pilate told them, "Take him yourselves and pass judgment on him according to your own law!" The Jewish leaders replied, "We cannot legally put anyone to death."

<sup>32</sup> (This happened to fulfill the word Jesus had spoken when he indicated what kind of death he was going to die. )

Pilate Questions Jesus

<sup>33</sup> So Pilate went back into the governor's residence, summoned Jesus, and asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?"

<sup>34</sup> Jesus replied, "Are you saying this on your own initiative, or have others told you about me?"

<sup>35</sup> Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own people and your chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?"

<sup>36</sup> Jesus replied, "My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my servants would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jewish authorities. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here."

<sup>37</sup> Then Pilate said, "So you are a king!" Jesus replied, "You say that I am a king. For this reason I was born, and for this reason I came into the world - to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

When he had said this he went back outside to the Jewish leaders and announced, "I find no basis for an accusation against him.

<sup>39</sup> But it is your custom that I release one prisoner for you at the Passover. So do you want me to release for you the king of the Jews?"

<sup>40</sup> Then they shouted back, "Not this man, but Barabbas!" (Now Barabbas was a revolutionary. )

<sup>3</sup> They came up to him again and again and said, "Hail, king of the Jews!" And they struck him repeatedly in the face.

<sup>4</sup> Again Pilate went out and said to the Jewish leaders, "Look, I am bringing him out to you, so that you may know that I find no reason for an accusation against him."

<sup>6</sup> When the chief priests and their officers saw him, they shouted out, "Crucify him! Crucify him!" Pilate said, "You take him and crucify him! Certainly I find no reason for an accusation against him!"

<sup>7</sup> The Jewish leaders replied, "We have a law, and according to our law he ought to die, because he claimed to be the Son of God!"

<sup>8</sup> When Pilate heard what they said, he was more afraid than ever, <sup>9</sup> and he went back into the governor's residence and said to Jesus, "Where do you come from?" But Jesus gave him no answer.

<sup>10</sup> So Pilate said, "Do you refuse to speak to me? Don't you know I have the authority to release you, and to crucify you?"

<sup>11</sup> Jesus replied, "You would have no authority over me at all, unless it was given to you from above. Therefore the one who handed me over to you is guilty of greater sin."

<sup>12</sup> From this point on, Pilate tried to release him. But the Jewish leaders shouted out, "If you release this man, you are no friend of Caesar! Everyone who claims to be a king opposes Caesar!"

<sup>13</sup> When Pilate heard these words he brought Jesus outside and sat down on the judgment seat in the place called "The Stone Pavement" (Gabbatha in Aramaic).

<sup>14</sup> (Now it was the day of preparation for the Passover, about noon. ) Pilate said to the Jewish leaders, "Look, here is your king!"

<sup>15</sup> Then they shouted out, "Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!" Pilate asked, "Shall I crucify your king?" The high priests replied, "We have no king except Caesar!"

<sup>16</sup> Then Pilate handed him over to them to be crucified.

The Crucifixion

So they took Jesus,

<sup>17</sup> and carrying his own cross he went out to the place called "The Place of the Skull" (called in Aramaic Golgotha).

<sup>18</sup> There they crucified him along with two others, one on each side, with Jesus in the middle.

<sup>19</sup> Pilate also had a notice written and fastened to the cross, which read: "Jesus the Nazarene, the king of the Jews."

<sup>20</sup> Thus many of the Jewish residents of Jerusalem read this notice, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and the notice was written in Aramaic, Latin, and Greek.

<sup>21</sup> Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The king of the Jews,' but rather, 'This man said, I am king of the Jews.' "

<sup>24</sup> So the soldiers said to one another, "Let's not tear it, but throw dice to see who will get it." This took place to fulfill the scripture that says, "They divided my garments among them, and for my clothing they threw dice." So the soldiers did these things.

<sup>26</sup> So when Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing there, he said to his mother, "Woman, look, here is your son!"

<sup>27</sup> He then said to his disciple, "Look, here is your mother!" From that very time the disciple took her into his own home.

Jesus' Death

<sup>28</sup> After this Jesus, realizing that by this time everything was completed, said (in order to fulfill the scripture), "I am thirsty!"

<sup>29</sup> A jar full of sour wine was there, so they put a sponge soaked in sour wine on a branch of hyssop and lifted it to his mouth.

<sup>30</sup> When he had received the sour wine, Jesus said, "It is completed!" Then he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

<sup>31</sup> Then, because it was the day of preparation, so that the bodies should not stay on the crosses on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was an especially important one), the Jewish leaders asked Pilate to have the victims' legs broken and the bodies taken down.

<sup>32</sup> So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the two men who had been crucified with Jesus, first the one and then the other.

<sup>33</sup> But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs.

<sup>35</sup> And the person who saw it has testified (and his testimony is true, and he knows that he is telling the truth), so that you also may believe.

<sup>36</sup> For these things happened so that the scripture would be fulfilled, "Not a bone of his will be broken."

<sup>37</sup> And again another scripture says, "They will look on the one whom they have pierced."

Jesus' Burial

<sup>38</sup> After this, Joseph of Arimathea, a disciple of Jesus (but secretly, because he feared the Jewish leaders), asked Pilate if he could remove the body of Jesus. Pilate gave him permission, so he went and took the body away.

<sup>39</sup> Nicodemus, the man who had previously come to Jesus at night, accompanied Joseph, carrying a mixture of myrrh and aloes weighing about seventy-five pounds.

<sup>40</sup> Then they took Jesus' body and wrapped it, with the aromatic spices, in strips of linen cloth according to Jewish burial customs.

<sup>41</sup> Now at the place where Jesus was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden was a new tomb where no one had yet been buried.

<sup>42</sup> And so, because it was the Jewish day of preparation and the tomb was nearby, they placed Jesus' body there.

20

<sup>1</sup> Now very early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been moved away from the entrance.

<sup>2</sup> So she went running to Simon Peter and the other disciple whom Jesus loved and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they have put him!"

<sup>3</sup> Then Peter and the other disciple set out to go to the tomb.

<sup>4</sup> The two were running together, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and reached the tomb first.

<sup>5</sup> He bent down and saw the strips of linen cloth lying there, but he did not go in.

<sup>6</sup> Then Simon Peter, who had been following him, arrived and went right into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen cloth lying there, <sup>7</sup> and the face cloth, which had been around Jesus' head, not lying with the strips of linen cloth but rolled up in a place by itself.

<sup>8</sup> Then the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, came in, and he saw and believed.

<sup>9</sup> (For they did not yet understand the scripture that Jesus must rise from the dead.)

Jesus' Appearance to Mary Magdalene

<sup>10</sup> So the disciples went back to their homes.

<sup>11</sup> But Mary stood outside the tomb weeping. As she wept, she bent down and looked into the tomb.

<sup>12</sup> And she saw two angels in white sitting where Jesus' body had been lying, one at the head and one at the feet.

<sup>13</sup> They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" Mary replied, "They have taken my Lord away, and I do not know where they have put him!"

<sup>14</sup> When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?" Because she thought he was the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will take him."

<sup>16</sup> Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned and said to him in Aramaic, "Rabboni" (which means Teacher).

<sup>17</sup> Jesus replied, "Do not touch me, for I have not yet ascended to my Father. Go to my brothers and tell them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.' "

<sup>18</sup> Mary Magdalene came and informed the disciples, "I have seen the Lord!" And she told them what Jesus had said to her.

Jesus' Appearance to the Disciples

<sup>19</sup> On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the disciples had gathered together and locked the doors of the place because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders. Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you."

<sup>20</sup> When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

<sup>21</sup> So Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. Just as the Father has sent me, I also send you."

<sup>22</sup> And after he said this, he breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit.

The Response of Thomas

<sup>25</sup> The other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord!" But he replied, "Unless I see the wounds from the nails in his hands, and put my finger into the wounds from the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will never believe it!"

<sup>26</sup> Eight days later the disciples were again together in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you!"

<sup>27</sup> Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and examine my hands. Extend your hand and put it into my side. Do not continue in your unbelief, but believe."

<sup>28</sup> Thomas replied to him, "My Lord and my God!"

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are the people who have not seen and yet have believed."

<sup>30</sup> Now Jesus performed many other miraculous signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not recorded in this book.

<sup>31</sup> But these are recorded so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

21

<sup>1</sup> After this Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias. Now this is how he did so.

<sup>2</sup> Simon Peter, Thomas (called Didymus), Nathanael (who was from Cana in Galilee), the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples of his were together.

<sup>3</sup> Simon Peter told them, "I am going fishing." "We will go with you," they replied. They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

<sup>4</sup> When it was already very early morning, Jesus stood on the beach, but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus.

<sup>5</sup> So Jesus said to them, "Children, you don't have any fish, do you?" They replied, "No."

<sup>6</sup> He told them, "Throw your net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they threw the net, and were not able to pull it in because of the large number of fish.

<sup>7</sup> Then the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" So Simon Peter, when he heard that it was the Lord, tucked in his outer garment (for he had nothing on underneath it), and plunged into the sea.

<sup>8</sup> Meanwhile the other disciples came with the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from land, only about a hundred yards.

<sup>9</sup> When they got out on the beach, they saw a charcoal fire ready with a fish placed on it, and bread.

<sup>11</sup> So Simon Peter went aboard and pulled the net to shore. It was full of large fish, one hundred fifty-three, but although there were so many, the net was not torn.

<sup>12</sup> "Come, have breakfast," Jesus said. But none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord.

<sup>13</sup> Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish.

<sup>14</sup> This was now the third time Jesus was revealed to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

Peter's Restoration

<sup>15</sup> Then when they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these do?" He replied, "Yes, Lord, you know I love you." Jesus told him, "Feed my lambs."

<sup>16</sup> Jesus said a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" He replied, "Yes, Lord, you know I love you." Jesus told him, "Shepherd my sheep."

<sup>17</sup> Jesus said a third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was distressed that Jesus asked him a third time, "Do you love me?" and said, "Lord, you know everything. You know that I love you." Jesus replied, "Feed my sheep."

<sup>18</sup> I tell you the solemn truth, when you were young, you tied your clothes around you and went wherever you wanted, but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and others will tie you up and bring you where you do not want to go.”

<sup>19</sup> (Now Jesus said this to indicate clearly by what kind of death Peter was going to glorify God.) After he said this, Jesus told Peter, “Follow me.”

Peter and the Disciple Jesus Loved

<sup>20</sup> Peter turned around and saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following them. (This was the disciple who had leaned back against Jesus’ chest at the meal and asked, “Lord, who is the one who is going to betray you?”)

<sup>21</sup> So when Peter saw him, he asked Jesus, “Lord, what about him?”

<sup>22</sup> Jesus replied, “If I want him to live until I come back, what concern is that of yours? You follow me!”

<sup>23</sup> So the saying circulated among the brothers and sisters that this disciple was not going to die. But Jesus did not say to him that he was not going to die, but rather, “If I want him to live until I come back, what concern is that of yours?”

A Final Note

<sup>24</sup> This is the disciple who testifies about these things and has written these things, and we know that his testimony is true.

<sup>25</sup> There are many other things that Jesus did. If every one of them were written down, I suppose the whole world would not have room for the books that would be written.

Acts

Jesus Ascends to Heaven

<sup>1</sup> I wrote the former account, Theophilus, about all that Jesus began to do and teach <sup>2</sup> until the day he was taken up to heaven, after he had given orders by the Holy Spirit to the apostles he had chosen.

<sup>3</sup> To the same apostles also, after his suffering, he presented himself alive with many convincing proofs. He was seen by them over a forty-day period and spoke about matters concerning the kingdom of God.

<sup>4</sup> While he was with them, he declared, "Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait there for what my Father promised, which you heard about from me.

<sup>5</sup> For John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now."

<sup>6</sup> So when they had gathered together, they began to ask him, "Lord, is this the time when you are restoring the kingdom to Israel?"

<sup>7</sup> He told them, "You are not permitted to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority.

<sup>8</sup> But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the farthest parts of the earth."

<sup>9</sup> After he had said this, while they were watching, he was lifted up and a cloud hid him from their sight.

<sup>10</sup> As they were still staring into the sky while he was going, suddenly two men in white clothing stood near them

<sup>11</sup> and said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand here looking up into the sky? This same Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will come back in the same way you saw him go into heaven."

A Replacement for Judas is Chosen

<sup>12</sup> Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mountain called the Mount of Olives (which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey away).

<sup>13</sup> When they had entered Jerusalem, they went to the upstairs room where they were staying. Peter and John, and James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James were there.

<sup>14</sup> All these continued together in prayer with one mind, together with the women, along with Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers.

<sup>15</sup> In those days Peter stood up among the believers (a gathering of about one hundred and twenty people) and said,

<sup>16</sup> "Brothers, the scripture had to be fulfilled that the Holy Spirit foretold through David concerning Judas - who became the guide for those who arrested Jesus -

<sup>17</sup> for he was counted as one of us and received a share in this ministry."

<sup>19</sup> This became known to all who lived in Jerusalem, so that in their own language they called that field Hakeldama, that is, "Field of Blood.")

<sup>20</sup> "For it is written in the book of Psalms, 'Let his house become deserted, and let there be no one to live in it,' and 'Let another take his position of responsibility.'

<sup>21</sup> Thus one of the men who have accompanied us during all the time the Lord Jesus associated with us,
<sup>23</sup> So they proposed two candidates: Joseph called Barsabbas (also called Justus) and Matthias.
<sup>24</sup> Then they prayed, “Lord, you know the hearts of all. Show us which one of these two you have chosen <sup>25</sup> to assume the task of this service and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place.”
<sup>26</sup> Then they cast lots for them, and the one chosen was Matthias; so he was counted with the eleven apostles.

2

<sup>1</sup> Now when the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place.
<sup>2</sup> Suddenly a sound like a violent wind blowing came from heaven and filled the entire house where they were sitting.
<sup>3</sup> And tongues spreading out like a fire appeared to them and came to rest on each one of them.
<sup>4</sup> All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit, and they began to speak in other languages as the Spirit enabled them.
<sup>5</sup> Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven residing in Jerusalem.
<sup>6</sup> When this sound occurred, a crowd gathered and was in confusion, because each one heard them speaking in his own language.
<sup>7</sup> Completely baffled, they said, “Aren’t all these who are speaking Galileans?
<sup>8</sup> And how is it that each one of us hears them in our own native language?
<sup>9</sup> Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and the province of Asia, <sup>10</sup> Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, <sup>11</sup> both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs – we hear them speaking in our own languages about the great deeds God has done!”
<sup>12</sup> All were astounded and greatly confused, saying to one another, “What does this mean?”
<sup>13</sup> But others jeered at the speakers, saying, “They are drunk on new wine!”

Peter's Address on the Day of Pentecost

<sup>14</sup> But Peter stood up with the eleven, raised his voice, and addressed them: “You men of Judea and all you who live in Jerusalem, know this and listen carefully to what I say.
<sup>15</sup> In spite of what you think, these men are not drunk, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning.
<sup>16</sup> But this is what was spoken about through the prophet Joel:
<sup>17</sup> ‘And in the last days it will be,’ God says,
‘that I will pour out my Spirit on all people, and your sons and your daughters will prophesy, and your young men will see visions,
and your old men will dream dreams.
<sup>18</sup> Even on my servants, both men and women,*
I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy.
<sup>19</sup> And I will perform wonders in the sky above* and miraculous signs on the earth below,

blood and fire and clouds of smoke.

<sup>20</sup> The sun will be changed to darkness

and the moon to blood

before the great and glorious day of the Lord comes.

<sup>21</sup> And then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.'

<sup>22</sup> "Men of Israel, listen to these words: Jesus the Nazarene, a man clearly attested to you by God with powerful deeds, wonders, and miraculous signs that God performed among you through him, just as you yourselves know –

<sup>23</sup> this man, who was handed over by the predetermined plan and foreknowledge of God, you executed by nailing him to a cross at the hands of Gentiles.

<sup>24</sup> But God raised him up, having released him from the pains of death, because it was not possible for him to be held in its power.

<sup>25</sup> For David says about him,

'I saw the Lord always in front of me, for he is at my right hand so that I will not be shaken.

<sup>26</sup> *Therefore my heart was glad and my tongue rejoiced;
my body also will live in hope,*

<sup>27</sup> because you will not leave my soul in Hades, nor permit your Holy One to experience decay.

<sup>28</sup> *You have made known to me the paths of life;
you will make me full of joy with your presence.'*

<sup>29</sup> "Brothers, I can speak confidently to you about our forefather David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.

<sup>30</sup> So then, because he was a prophet and knew that God had sworn to him with an oath to seat one of his descendants on his throne,

<sup>31</sup> David by foreseeing this spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that he was neither abandoned to Hades, nor did his body experience decay.

<sup>32</sup> This Jesus God raised up, and we are all witnesses of it.

<sup>33</sup> So then, exalted to the right hand of God, and having received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father, he has poured out what you both see and hear.

<sup>34</sup> For David did not ascend into heaven, but he himself says,

'The Lord said to my lord,

"Sit at my right hand"

<sup>36</sup> Therefore let all the house of Israel know beyond a doubt that God has made this Jesus whom you crucified both Lord and Christ."

The Response to Peter's Address

<sup>37</sup> Now when they heard this, they were acutely distressed and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "What should we do, brothers?"

<sup>38</sup> Peter said to them, "Repent, and each one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

<sup>39</sup> For the promise is for you and your children, and for all who are far away, as many as the Lord our God will call to himself."

<sup>40</sup> With many other words he testified and exhorted them saying, "Save yourselves from this perverse generation!"

<sup>41</sup> So those who accepted his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand people were added.

The Fellowship of the Early Believers

<sup>42</sup> They were devoting themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.

<sup>43</sup> Reverential awe came over everyone, and many wonders and miraculous signs came about by the apostles.

<sup>44</sup> All who believed were together and held everything in common,

<sup>45</sup> and they began selling their property and possessions and distributing the proceeds to everyone, as anyone had need.

<sup>46</sup> Every day they continued to gather together by common consent in the temple courts, breaking bread from house to house, sharing their food with glad and humble hearts, <sup>47</sup> praising God and having the good will of all the people. And the Lord was adding to their number every day those who were being saved.

3

<sup>1</sup> Now Peter and John were going up to the temple at the time for prayer, at three o'clock in the afternoon.

<sup>2</sup> And a man lame from birth was being carried up, who was placed at the temple gate called "the Beautiful Gate" every day so he could beg for money from those going into the temple courts.

<sup>3</sup> When he saw Peter and John about to go into the temple courts, he asked them for money.

<sup>4</sup> Peter looked directly at him (as did John) and said, "Look at us!"

<sup>6</sup> But Peter said, "I have no silver or gold, but what I do have I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, stand up and walk!"

<sup>8</sup> He jumped up, stood and began walking around, and he entered the temple courts with them, walking and leaping and praising God.

<sup>9</sup> All the people saw him walking and praising God, <sup>10</sup> and they recognized him as the man who used to sit and ask for donations at the Beautiful Gate of the temple, and they were filled with astonishment and amazement at what had happened to him.

Peter Addresses the Crowd

<sup>11</sup> While the man was hanging on to Peter and John, all the people, completely astounded, ran together to them in the covered walkway called Solomon's Portico.

<sup>12</sup> When Peter saw this, he declared to the people, "Men of Israel, why are you amazed at this? Why do you stare at us as if we had made this man walk by our own power or piety?"

<sup>13</sup> The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our forefathers, has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate after he had decided to release him.

<sup>14</sup> But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a man who was a murderer be released to you.

<sup>15</sup> You killed the Originator of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this fact we are witnesses!

<sup>16</sup> And on the basis of faith in Jesus' name, his very name has made this man - whom you see and know - strong. The faith that is through Jesus has given him this complete health in the presence of you all.

<sup>17</sup> And now, brothers, I know you acted in ignorance, as your rulers did too.

<sup>18</sup> But the things God foretold long ago through all the prophets – that his Christ would suffer – he has fulfilled in this way.

<sup>19</sup> Therefore repent and turn back so that your sins may be wiped out, <sup>20</sup> so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and so that he may send the Messiah appointed for you – that is, Jesus.

<sup>21</sup> This one heaven must receive until the time all things are restored, which God declared from times long ago through his holy prophets.

<sup>22</sup> Moses said, ‘The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your brothers. You must obey him in everything he tells you*.

<sup>23</sup> Every person who | strong="G3748" does not obey that prophet will be destroyed and thus removed from | strong="G1537" the people.

<sup>24</sup> And all the prophets, from Samuel and those who followed him, have spoken about and announced these days.

<sup>25</sup> You are the sons of the prophets and of the covenant that God made with your ancestors, saying to Abraham, ‘And in your descendants all the nations of the earth will be blessed: *.’

<sup>26</sup> God raised up his servant and sent him first to you, to bless you by turning each one of you from your iniquities.”

4

<sup>1</sup> While Peter and John were speaking to the people, the priests and the commander of the temple guard and the Sadducees came up to them, <sup>2</sup> angry because they were teaching the people and announcing in Jesus the resurrection of the dead.

<sup>3</sup> So they seized them and put them in jail until the next day (for it was already evening).

<sup>4</sup> But many of those who had listened to the message believed, and the number of the men came to about five thousand.

<sup>6</sup> Annas the high priest was there, and Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and others who were members of the high priest’s family.

<sup>7</sup> After making Peter and John stand in their midst, they began to inquire, “By what power or by what name did you do this?”

<sup>8</sup> Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, replied, “Rulers of the people and elders,

<sup>9</sup> if we are being examined today for a good deed done to a sick man – by what means this man was healed –

<sup>10</sup> let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel that by the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, this man stands before you healthy.

<sup>11</sup> This Jesus is the stone | strong="G3037" that was rejected by that was rejected by you, the builders, that has become the cornerstone.

<sup>12</sup> And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among people by which we must be saved.”

<sup>13</sup> When they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and discovered that they were uneducated and ordinary men, they were amazed and recognized these men had been with Jesus.

<sup>14</sup> And because they saw the man who had been healed standing with them, they had nothing to say against this.

<sup>15</sup> But when they had ordered them to go outside the council, they began to confer with one another, <sup>16</sup> saying, "What should we do with these men? For it is plain to all who live in Jerusalem that a notable miraculous sign has come about through them, and we cannot deny it.

<sup>17</sup> But to keep this matter from spreading any further among the people, let us warn them to speak no more to anyone in this name."

<sup>18</sup> And they called them in and ordered them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus.

<sup>19</sup> But Peter and John replied, "Whether it is right before God to obey you rather than God, you decide, <sup>20</sup> for it is impossible for us not to speak about what we have seen and heard."

<sup>21</sup> After threatening them further, they released them, for they could not find how to punish them on account of the people, because they were all praising God for what had happened.

<sup>22</sup> For the man, on whom this miraculous sign of healing had been performed, was over forty years old.

The Followers of Jesus Pray for Boldness

<sup>23</sup> When they were released, Peter and John went to their fellow believers and reported everything the high priests and the elders had said to them.

<sup>24</sup> When they heard this, they raised their voices to God with one mind and said, "Master of all, you who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and everything that is in them,

<sup>25</sup> who said by the Holy Spirit through your servant David our forefather,
' Why do the nations rage, and the peoples plot foolish things?

<sup>26</sup> *The kings of the earth stood together, and the rulers assembled together, against the Lord and against his Christ: *.*

<sup>27</sup> "For indeed both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, assembled together in this city against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed, <sup>28</sup> to do as much as your power and your plan had decided beforehand would happen.

<sup>29</sup> And now, Lord, pay attention to their threats, and grant to your servants to speak your message with great courage,

<sup>30</sup> while you extend your hand to heal, and to bring about miraculous signs and wonders through the name of your holy servant Jesus."

<sup>31</sup> When they had prayed, the place where they were assembled together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak the word of God courageously.

Conditions Among the Early Believers

<sup>32</sup> The group of those who believed were of one heart and mind, and no one said that any of his possessions was his own, but everything was held in common.

<sup>33</sup> With great power the apostles were giving testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was on them all.

<sup>34</sup> For there was no one needy among them, because those who were owners of land or houses were selling them and bringing the proceeds from the sales

<sup>35</sup> and placing them at the apostles' feet. The proceeds were distributed to each, as anyone had need.

<sup>36</sup> So Joseph, a Levite who was a native of Cyprus, called by the apostles Barnabas (which is translated "son of encouragement"), <sup>37</sup> sold a field that belonged to him and brought the money and placed it at the apostles' feet.

<sup>3</sup> But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and keep back for yourself part of the proceeds from the sale of the land?"

<sup>4</sup> Before it was sold, did it not belong to you? And when it was sold, was the money not at your disposal? How have you thought up this deed in your heart? You have not lied to people but to God!"

<sup>5</sup> When Ananias heard these words he collapsed and died, and great fear gripped all who heard about it.

<sup>6</sup> So the young men came, wrapped him up, carried him out, and buried him.

<sup>7</sup> After an interval of about three hours, his wife came in, but she did not know what had happened.

<sup>8</sup> Peter said to her, "Tell me, were the two of you paid this amount for the land?" Sapphira said, "Yes, that much."

<sup>9</sup> Peter then told her, "Why have you agreed together to test the Spirit of the Lord? Look! The feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out!"

<sup>10</sup> At once she collapsed at his feet and died. So when the young men came in, they found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her beside her husband.

<sup>11</sup> Great fear gripped the whole church and all who heard about these things.

The Apostles Perform Miraculous Signs and Wonders

<sup>12</sup> Now many miraculous signs and wonders came about among the people through the hands of the apostles. By common consent they were all meeting together in Solomon's Portico.

<sup>13</sup> None of the rest dared to join them, but the people held them in high honor.

<sup>14</sup> More and more believers in the Lord were added to their number, crowds of both men and women.

<sup>15</sup> Thus they even carried the sick out into the streets, and put them on cots and pallets, so that when Peter came by at least his shadow would fall on some of them.

<sup>16</sup> A crowd of people from the towns around Jerusalem also came together, bringing the sick and those troubled by unclean spirits. They were all being healed.

Further Trouble for the Apostles

<sup>17</sup> Now the high priest rose up, and all those with him (that is, the religious party of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy.

<sup>19</sup> But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the doors of the prison, led them out, and said,

<sup>20</sup> "Go and stand in the temple courts and proclaim to the people all the words of this life."

<sup>21</sup> When they heard this, they entered the temple courts at daybreak and began teaching.

Now when the high priest and those who were with him arrived, they summoned the Sanhedrin – that is, the whole high council of the Israelites – and sent to the jail to have the apostles brought before them.

<sup>22</sup> But the officers who came for them did not find them in the prison, so they returned and reported,

<sup>23</sup> “We found the jail locked securely and the guards standing at the doors, but when we opened them, we found no one inside.”

<sup>24</sup> Now when the commander of the temple guard and the chief priests heard this report, they were greatly puzzled concerning it, wondering what this could be.

<sup>25</sup> But someone came and reported to them, “Look! The men you put in prison are standing in the temple courts and teaching the people!”

<sup>26</sup> Then the commander of the temple guard went with the officers and brought the apostles without the use of force (for they were afraid of being stoned by the people).

<sup>27</sup> When they had brought them, they stood them before the council, and the high priest questioned them,

<sup>28</sup> saying, “We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name. Look, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you intend to bring this man’s blood on us!”

<sup>30</sup> The God of our forefathers raised up Jesus, whom you seized and killed by hanging him on a tree.

<sup>31</sup> God exalted him to his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins.

<sup>32</sup> And we are witnesses of these events, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.”

<sup>33</sup> Now when they heard this, they became furious and wanted to execute them.

<sup>34</sup> But a Pharisee whose name was Gamaliel, a teacher of the law who was respected by all the people, stood up in the council and ordered the men to be put outside for a short time.

<sup>35</sup> Then he said to the council, “Men of Israel, pay close attention to what you are about to do to these men.

<sup>36</sup> For some time ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody, and about four hundred men joined him. He was killed, and all who followed him were dispersed and nothing came of it.

<sup>37</sup> After him Judas the Galilean arose in the days of the census, and incited people to follow him in revolt. He too was killed, and all who followed him were scattered.

<sup>38</sup> So in this case I say to you, stay away from these men and leave them alone, because if this plan or this undertaking originates with people, it will come to nothing, <sup>39</sup> but if it is from God, you will not be able to stop them, or you may even be found fighting against God.” He convinced them, <sup>40</sup> and they summoned the apostles and had them beaten. Then they ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus and released them.

<sup>41</sup> So they left the council rejoicing because they had been considered worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name.

<sup>42</sup> And every day both in the temple courts and from house to house, they did not stop teaching and proclaiming the good news that Jesus was the Christ.

6

<sup>2</sup> So the twelve called the whole group of the disciples together and said, “It is not right for us to neglect the word of God to wait on tables.

<sup>3</sup> But carefully select from among you, brothers, seven men who are well-attested, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may put in charge of this necessary task.

<sup>7</sup> The word of God continued to spread, the number of disciples in Jerusalem increased greatly, and a large group of priests became obedient to the faith.

Stephen is Arrested

<sup>8</sup> Now Stephen, full of grace and power, was performing great wonders and miraculous signs among the people.

<sup>9</sup> But some men from the Synagogue of the Freedmen (as it was called), both Cyrenians and Alexandrians, as well as some from Cilicia and the province of Asia, stood up and argued with Stephen.

<sup>10</sup> Yet they were not able to resist the wisdom and the Spirit with which he spoke.

<sup>11</sup> Then they secretly instigated some men to say, “We have heard this man speaking blasphemous words against Moses and God.”

<sup>12</sup> They incited the people, the elders, and the experts in the law; then they approached Stephen, seized him, and brought him before the council.

<sup>13</sup> They brought forward false witnesses who said, “This man does not stop saying things against this holy place and the law.

<sup>14</sup> For we have heard him saying that Jesus the Nazarene will destroy this place and change the customs that Moses handed down to us.”

<sup>15</sup> All who were sitting in the council looked intently at Stephen and saw his face was like the face of an angel.

7

<sup>2</sup> So he replied, “Brothers and fathers, listen to me. The God of glory appeared to our forefather Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he settled in Haran,

<sup>3</sup> and said to him, ‘Go out from your country and from your relatives, and come to the land I will show you.’

<sup>4</sup> Then he went out from the country of the Chaldeans and settled in Haran. After his father died, God made him move to this country where you now live.

<sup>5</sup> He did not give any of it to him for an inheritance, not even a foot of ground, yet God promised to give it to him as his possession, and to his descendants after him, even though Abraham as yet had no child.

<sup>6</sup> But God spoke as follows: ‘Your descendants will be foreigners in a foreign country, whose citizens will enslave them and mistreat them for four hundred years.

<sup>7</sup> But I will punish the nation they serve as slaves,’ said God, ‘and after these things they will come out of there and worship me in this place.’

<sup>8</sup> Then God gave Abraham the covenant of circumcision, and so he became the father of Isaac and circumcised him when he was eight days old, and Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob of the twelve patriarchs.

<sup>9</sup> The patriarchs, because they were jealous of Joseph, sold him into Egypt. But God was with him, <sup>10</sup> and rescued him from all his troubles, and granted him favor and wisdom in the presence of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, who made him ruler over Egypt and over all his household.

<sup>11</sup> Then a famine occurred throughout Egypt and Canaan, causing great suffering, and our ancestors could not find food.

<sup>12</sup> So when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our ancestors there the first time.

<sup>13</sup> On their second visit Joseph made himself known to his brothers again, and Joseph's family became known to Pharaoh.

<sup>14</sup> So Joseph sent a message and invited his father Jacob and all his relatives to come, seventy-five people in all.

<sup>15</sup> So Jacob went down to Egypt and died there, along with our ancestors, <sup>16</sup> and their bones were later moved to Shechem and placed in the tomb that Abraham had bought for a certain sum of money from the sons of Hamor in Shechem.

<sup>17</sup> "But as the time drew near for God to fulfill the promise he had declared to Abraham, the people increased greatly in number in Egypt,

<sup>19</sup> This was the one who exploited our people and was cruel to our ancestors, forcing them to abandon their infants so they would die.

<sup>20</sup> At that time Moses was born, and he was beautiful to God. For three months he was brought up in his father's house, <sup>21</sup> and when he had been abandoned, Pharaoh's daughter adopted him and brought him up as her own son.

<sup>22</sup> So Moses was trained in all the wisdom of the Egyptians and was powerful in his words and deeds.

<sup>23</sup> But when he was about forty years old, it entered his mind to visit his fellow countrymen the Israelites.

<sup>24</sup> When he saw one of them being hurt unfairly, Moses came to his defense and avenged the person who was mistreated by striking down the Egyptian.

<sup>25</sup> He thought his own people would understand that God was delivering them through him, but they did not understand.

<sup>26</sup> The next day Moses saw two men fighting, and tried to make peace between them, saying, 'Men, you are brothers; why are you hurting one another?'

<sup>27</sup> But the man who was unfairly hurting his neighbor pushed Moses aside, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and judge over us?

<sup>28</sup> You don't want to kill me the way you killed the Egyptian yesterday, do you?

<sup>29</sup> When the man said this, Moses fled and became a foreigner in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons.

<sup>30</sup> "After forty years had passed, an angel appeared to him in the desert of Mount Sinai, in the flame of a burning bush.

<sup>31</sup> When Moses saw it, he was amazed at the sight, and when he approached to investigate, there came the voice of the Lord,

<sup>32</sup> 'I am the God of your forefathers, the God | strong="G2316" of Abraham, Isaac, and | strong="G2532" Jacob.' Moses began to tremble and did not dare to look more closely.

<sup>33</sup> But the Lord said to him, 'Take the sandals off your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy ground.

<sup>34</sup> *I have certainly seen the suffering of my people who are in Egypt and have heard their groaning, and I have come down to rescue them. Now come, I will send you to Egypt*.'*

<sup>35</sup> This same Moses they had rejected, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and judge?' God sent as both ruler and deliverer through the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush.

<sup>36</sup> This man led them out, performing wonders and miraculous signs in the land of Egypt, at the Red Sea, and in the wilderness for forty years.

<sup>37</sup> This is the Moses who said to the Israelites, ‘ God | strong="G2316" will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your brothers will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your brothers.’

<sup>38</sup> This is the man who was in the congregation in the wilderness with the angel who spoke to him at Mount Sinai, and with our ancestors, and he received living oracles to give to you.

<sup>39</sup> Our ancestors were unwilling to obey him, but pushed him aside and turned back to Egypt in their hearts,

<sup>40</sup> saying to Aaron, ‘ Make us gods who will go in front of us, for this Moses, who led us out of the land of Egypt - we do not know what has happened to him!’

<sup>41</sup> At that time they made an idol in the form of a calf, brought a sacrifice to the idol, and began rejoicing in the works of their hands.

<sup>42</sup> But God turned away from them and gave them over to worship the host of heaven, as it is written in the book of the prophets: ‘ It was not to me that you offered slain animals and sacrifices forty years in the wilderness, was it, house of Israel?’

<sup>43</sup> *But you took along the tabernacle of Moloch and the star of the god Rephan, the images you made to worship, but I will deport you beyond Babylon*.*’

<sup>44</sup> Our ancestors had the tabernacle of testimony in the wilderness, just as God who spoke to Moses ordered him to make it according to the design he had seen.

<sup>45</sup> Our ancestors received possession of it and brought it in with Joshua when they dispossessed the nations that God drove out before our ancestors, until the time of David.

<sup>46</sup> He found favor with God and asked that he could find a dwelling place for the house of Jacob.

<sup>48</sup> Yet the Most High does not live in houses made by human hands, as the prophet says,

What kind of house will you build for me, says the Lord, or what is my resting place?

<sup>50</sup> Did my hand not make all these things?

<sup>51</sup> “You stubborn people, with uncircumcised hearts and ears! You are always resisting the Holy Spirit, like your ancestors did!

<sup>52</sup> Which of the prophets did your ancestors not persecute? They killed those who foretold long ago the coming of the Righteous One, whose betrayers and murderers you have now become!

Stephen is Killed

<sup>54</sup> When they heard these things, they became furious and ground their teeth at him.

<sup>55</sup> But Stephen, full of the Holy Spirit, looked intently toward heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God.

<sup>56</sup> “Look!” he said. “I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!”

<sup>58</sup> When they had driven him out of the city, they began to stone him, and the witnesses laid their cloaks at the feet of a young man named Saul.

<sup>60</sup> Then he fell to his knees and cried out with a loud voice, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them!” When he had said this, he died.

8

Saul Begins to Persecute the Church

Now on that day a great persecution began against the church in Jerusalem, and all except the apostles were forced to scatter throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria.

<sup>3</sup> But Saul was trying to destroy the church; entering one house after another, he dragged off both men and women and put them in prison.

Philip Preaches in Samaria

<sup>4</sup> Now those who had been forced to scatter went around proclaiming the good news of the word.

<sup>5</sup> Philip went down to the main city of Samaria and began proclaiming the Christ to them.

<sup>6</sup> The crowds were paying attention with one mind to what Philip said, as they heard and saw the miraculous signs he was performing.

<sup>7</sup> For unclean spirits, crying with loud shrieks, were coming out of many who were possessed, and many paralyzed and lame people were healed.

<sup>8</sup> So there was great joy in that city.

<sup>9</sup> Now in that city was a man named Simon, who had been practicing magic and amazing the people of Samaria, claiming to be someone great.

<sup>10</sup> All the people, from the least to the greatest, paid close attention to him, saying, "This man is the power of God that is called 'Great.'"

<sup>11</sup> And they paid close attention to him because he had amazed them for a long time with his magic.

<sup>12</sup> But when they believed Philip as he was proclaiming the good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they began to be baptized, both men and women.

<sup>13</sup> Even Simon himself believed, and after he was baptized, he stayed close to Philip constantly, and when he saw the signs and great miracles that were occurring, he was amazed.

<sup>14</sup> Now when the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them.

<sup>16</sup> (For the Spirit had not yet come upon any of them, but they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.)

<sup>17</sup> Then Peter and John placed their hands on the Samaritans, and they received the Holy Spirit.

<sup>18</sup> Now Simon, when he saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, offered them money,

<sup>19</sup> saying, "Give me this power too, so that everyone I place my hands on may receive the Holy Spirit."

<sup>20</sup> But Peter said to him, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could acquire God's gift with money!

<sup>22</sup> Therefore repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that he may perhaps forgive you for the intent of your heart.

<sup>24</sup> But Simon replied, "You pray to the Lord for me so that nothing of what you have said may happen to me."

<sup>25</sup> So after Peter and John had solemnly testified and spoken the word of the Lord, they started back to Jerusalem, proclaiming the good news to many Samaritan villages as they went.

Philip and the Ethiopian Eunuch

<sup>26</sup> Then an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Get up and go south on the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is a desert road.)

<sup>27</sup> So he got up and went. There he met an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was in charge of all her treasury. He had come to Jerusalem to worship, <sup>28</sup> and was returning home, sitting in his chariot, reading the prophet Isaiah.

<sup>30</sup> So Philip ran up to it and heard the man reading Isaiah the prophet. He asked him, "Do you understand what you're reading?"

<sup>31</sup> The man replied, "How in the world can I, unless someone guides me?" So he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

<sup>32</sup> Now the passage of scripture the man was reading was this:

*"He was led like a sheep to slaughter, and like a lamb before its shearer is silent,
so he did not open his mouth.*

Who can describe his posterity?

For his life was taken away from the earth."

<sup>34</sup> Then the eunuch said to Philip, "Please tell me, who is the prophet saying this about – himself or someone else?"

<sup>35</sup> So Philip started speaking, and beginning with this scripture proclaimed the good news about Jesus to him.

<sup>36</sup> Now as they were going along the road, they came to some water, and the eunuch said, "Look, there is water! What is to stop me from being baptized?"

<sup>37</sup> *

<sup>38</sup> So he ordered the chariot to stop, and both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and Philip baptized him.

<sup>39</sup> Now when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away, and the eunuch did not see him any more, but went on his way rejoicing.

<sup>40</sup> Philip, however, found himself at Azotus, and as he passed through the area, he proclaimed the good news to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

9

<sup>1</sup> Meanwhile Saul, still breathing out threats to murder the Lord's disciples, went to the high priest

<sup>2</sup> and requested letters from him to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, either men or women, he could bring them as prisoners to Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup> As he was going along, approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him.

<sup>4</sup> He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?"

<sup>5</sup> So he said, "Who are you, Lord?" He replied, "I am Jesus whom you are persecuting!

<sup>6</sup> But stand up and enter the city and you will be told what you must do."

* 8:37 [[EMPTY]]

<sup>7</sup> (Now the men who were traveling with him stood there speechless, because they heard the voice but saw no one.)

<sup>8</sup> So Saul got up from the ground, but although his eyes were open, he could see nothing. Leading him by the hand, his companions brought him into Damascus.

<sup>9</sup> For three days he could not see, and he neither ate nor drank anything.

<sup>10</sup> Now there was a disciple in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias," and he replied, "Here I am, Lord."

<sup>11</sup> Then the Lord told him, "Get up and go to the street called 'Straight,' and at Judas' house look for a man from Tarsus named Saul. For he is praying, <sup>12</sup> and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and place his hands on him so that he may see again."

<sup>13</sup> But Ananias replied, "Lord, I have heard from many people about this man, how much harm he has done to your saints in Jerusalem, <sup>14</sup> and here he has authority from the chief priests to imprison all who call on your name!"

<sup>15</sup> But the Lord said to him, "Go, because this man is my chosen instrument to carry my name before Gentiles and kings and the people of Israel.

<sup>17</sup> So Ananias departed and entered the house, placed his hands on Saul and said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road as you came here, has sent me so that you may see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit."

<sup>18</sup> Immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he could see again. He got up and was baptized, <sup>19</sup> and after taking some food, his strength returned.

For several days he was with the disciples in Damascus,

<sup>20</sup> and immediately he began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, saying, "This man is the Son of God."

<sup>21</sup> All who heard him were amazed and were saying, "Is this not the man who in Jerusalem was ravaging those who call on this name, and who had come here to bring them as prisoners to the chief priests?"

<sup>22</sup> But Saul became more and more capable, and was causing consternation among the Jews who lived in Damascus by proving that Jesus is the Christ.

Saul's Escape from Damascus

<sup>23</sup> Now after some days had passed, the Jews plotted together to kill him, <sup>24</sup> but Saul learned of their plot against him. They were also watching the city gates day and night so that they could kill him.

<sup>25</sup> But his disciples took him at night and let him down through an opening in the wall by lowering him in a basket.

Saul Returns to Jerusalem

<sup>26</sup> When he arrived in Jerusalem, he attempted to associate with the disciples, and they were all afraid of him, because they did not believe that he was a disciple.

<sup>27</sup> But Barnabas took Saul, brought him to the apostles, and related to them how he had seen the Lord on the road, that the Lord had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken out boldly in the name of Jesus.

<sup>28</sup> So he was staying with them, associating openly with them in Jerusalem, speaking out boldly in the name of the Lord.

<sup>29</sup> He was speaking and debating with the Greek-speaking Jews, but they were trying to kill him.

<sup>30</sup> When the brothers found out about this, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him away to Tarsus.

<sup>31</sup> Then the church throughout Judea, Galilee, and Samaria experienced peace and thus was strengthened. Living in the fear of the Lord and in the encouragement of the Holy Spirit, the church increased in numbers.

Peter Heals Aeneas

<sup>32</sup> Now as Peter was traveling around from place to place, he also came down to the saints who lived in Lydda.

<sup>33</sup> He found there a man named Aeneas who had been confined to a mattress for eight years because he was paralyzed.

<sup>34</sup> Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus the Christ heals you. Get up and make your own bed!" And immediately he got up.

<sup>35</sup> All those who lived in Lydda and Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

Peter Raises Dorcas

<sup>36</sup> Now in Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha (which in translation means Dorcas). She was continually doing good deeds and acts of charity.

<sup>37</sup> At that time she became sick and died. When they had washed her body, they placed it in an upstairs room.

<sup>38</sup> Because Lydda was near Joppa, when the disciples heard that Peter was there, they sent two men to him and urged him, "Come to us without delay."

<sup>39</sup> So Peter got up and went with them, and when he arrived they brought him to the upper room. All the widows stood beside him, crying and showing him the tunics and other clothing Dorcas used to make while she was with them.

<sup>40</sup> But Peter sent them all outside, knelt down, and prayed. Turning to the body, he said, "Tabitha, get up." Then she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

10

<sup>2</sup> He was a devout, God-fearing man, as was all his household; he did many acts of charity for the people and prayed to God regularly.

<sup>3</sup> About three o'clock one afternoon he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God who came in and said to him, "Cornelius."

<sup>4</sup> Staring at him and becoming greatly afraid, Cornelius replied, "What is it, Lord?" The angel said to him, "Your prayers and your acts of charity have gone up as a memorial before God.

<sup>5</sup> Now send men to Joppa and summon a man named Simon, who is called Peter.

<sup>6</sup> This man is staying as a guest with a man named Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea."

<sup>7</sup> When the angel who had spoken to him departed, Cornelius called two of his personal servants and a devout soldier from among those who served him, <sup>8</sup> and when he had explained everything to them, he sent them to Joppa.

<sup>9</sup> About noon the next day, while they were on their way and approaching the city, Peter went up on the roof to pray.

<sup>10</sup> He became hungry and wanted to eat, but while they were preparing the meal, a trance came over him.

<sup>11</sup> He saw heaven opened and an object something like a large sheet descending, being let down to earth by its four corners.

<sup>15</sup> The voice spoke to him again, a second time, "What God has made clean, you must not consider ritually unclean!"

<sup>17</sup> Now while Peter was puzzling over what the vision he had seen could signify, the men sent by Cornelius had learned where Simon's house was and approached the gate.

<sup>19</sup> While Peter was still thinking seriously about the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Look! Three men are looking for you.

<sup>20</sup> But get up, go down, and accompany them without hesitation, because I have sent them."

<sup>21</sup> So Peter went down to the men and said, "Here I am, the person you're looking for. Why have you come?"

<sup>22</sup> They said, "Cornelius the centurion, a righteous and God-fearing man, well spoken of by the whole Jewish nation, was directed by a holy angel to summon you to his house and to hear a message from you."

On the next day he got up and set out with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him.

<sup>28</sup> He said to them, "You know that it is unlawful for a Jew to associate with or visit a Gentile, yet God has shown me that I should call no person defiled or ritually unclean.

<sup>29</sup> Therefore when you sent for me, I came without any objection. Now may I ask why you sent for me?"

<sup>30</sup> Cornelius replied, "Four days ago at this very hour, at three o'clock in the afternoon, I was praying in my house, and suddenly a man in shining clothing stood before me

<sup>31</sup> and said, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been heard and your acts of charity have been remembered before God.

<sup>32</sup> Therefore send to Joppa and summon Simon, who is called Peter. This man is staying as a guest in the house of Simon the tanner, by the sea.'

<sup>33</sup> Therefore I sent for you at once, and you were kind enough to come. So now we are all here in the presence of God to listen to everything the Lord has commanded you to say to us."

<sup>34</sup> Then Peter started speaking: "I now truly understand that God does not show favoritism in dealing with people, <sup>35</sup> but in every nation the person who fears him and does what is right is welcomed before him.

<sup>36</sup> You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, proclaiming the good news of peace through Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all) -

<sup>37</sup> you know what happened throughout Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism that John announced:

<sup>38</sup> with respect to Jesus from Nazareth, that God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went around doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, because God was with him.

<sup>39</sup> We are witnesses of all the things he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They killed him by hanging him on a tree,

<sup>40</sup> but God raised him up on the third day and caused him to be seen, <sup>41</sup> not by all the people, but by us, the witnesses God had already chosen, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.

<sup>42</sup> He commanded us to preach to the people and to warn them that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead.

<sup>43</sup> About him all the prophets testify, that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

The Gentiles Receive the Holy Spirit

<sup>44</sup> While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who heard the message.

<sup>45</sup> The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were greatly astonished that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles,

<sup>46</sup> for they heard them speaking in tongues and praising God. Then Peter said,

<sup>47</sup> “No one can withhold the water for these people to be baptized, who have received the Holy Spirit just as we did, can he?”

<sup>48</sup> So he gave orders to have them baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay for several days.

11

<sup>1</sup> Now the apostles and the brothers who were throughout Judea heard that the Gentiles too had accepted the word of God.

<sup>2</sup> So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcised believers took issue with him,

<sup>5</sup> “I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision, an object something like a large sheet descending, being let down from heaven by its four corners, and it came to me.

<sup>6</sup> As I stared I looked into it and saw four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, reptiles, and wild birds.

<sup>7</sup> I also heard a voice saying to me, ‘Get up, Peter; slaughter and eat!’

<sup>8</sup> But I said, ‘Certainly not, Lord, for nothing defiled or ritually unclean has ever entered my mouth!’

<sup>9</sup> But the voice replied a second time from heaven, ‘What God has made clean, you must not consider ritually unclean!’

<sup>10</sup> This happened three times, and then everything was pulled up to heaven again.

<sup>11</sup> At that very moment, three men sent to me from Caesarea approached the house where we were staying.

<sup>12</sup> The Spirit told me to accompany them without hesitation. These six brothers also went with me, and we entered the man’s house.

<sup>13</sup> He informed us how he had seen an angel standing in his house and saying, ‘Send to Joppa and summon Simon, who is called Peter,

<sup>14</sup> who will speak a message to you by which you and your entire household will be saved.’

<sup>15</sup> Then as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them just as he did on us at the beginning.

<sup>16</sup> And I remembered the word of the Lord, as he used to say, 'John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.'

<sup>17</sup> Therefore if God gave them the same gift as he also gave us after believing in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I to hinder God?"

<sup>18</sup> When they heard this, they ceased their objections and praised God, saying, "So then, God has granted the repentance that leads to life even to the Gentiles."

Activity in the Church at Antioch

<sup>19</sup> Now those who had been scattered because of the persecution that took place over Stephen went as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the message to no one but Jews.

<sup>20</sup> But there were some men from Cyprus and Cyrene among them who came to Antioch and began to speak to the Greeks too, proclaiming the good news of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>21</sup> The hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number who believed turned to the Lord.

<sup>22</sup> A report about them came to the attention of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch.

<sup>23</sup> When he came and saw the grace of God, he rejoiced and encouraged them all to remain true to the Lord with devoted hearts, <sup>24</sup> because he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith, and a significant number of people were brought to the Lord.

<sup>26</sup> and when he found him, he brought him to Antioch. So for a whole year Barnabas and Saul met with the church and taught a significant number of people. Now it was in Antioch that the disciples were first called Christians.

Famine Relief for Judea

<sup>28</sup> One of them, named Agabus, got up and predicted by the Spirit that a severe famine was about to come over the whole inhabited world. (This took place during the reign of Claudius.)

<sup>29</sup> So the disciples, each in accordance with his financial ability, decided to send relief to the brothers living in Judea.

<sup>30</sup> They did so, sending their financial aid to the elders by Barnabas and Saul.

12

<sup>3</sup> When he saw that this pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter too. (This took place during the feast of Unleavened Bread.)

<sup>4</sup> When he had seized him, he put him in prison, handing him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him. Herod planned to bring him out for public trial after the Passover.

<sup>5</sup> So Peter was kept in prison, but those in the church were earnestly praying to God for him.

<sup>6</sup> On that very night before Herod was going to bring him out for trial, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, while guards in front of the door were keeping watch over the prison.

<sup>7</sup> Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared, and a light shone in the prison cell. He struck Peter on the side and woke him up, saying, "Get up quickly!" And the chains fell off Peter's wrists.

<sup>8</sup> The angel said to him, "Fasten your belt and put on your sandals." Peter did so. Then the angel said to him, "Put on your cloak and follow me."

<sup>9</sup> Peter went out and followed him; he did not realize that what was happening through the angel was real, but thought he was seeing a vision.

<sup>10</sup> After they had passed the first and second guards, they came to the iron gate leading into the city. It opened for them by itself, and they went outside and walked down one narrow street, when at once the angel left him.

<sup>11</sup> When Peter came to himself, he said, "Now I know for certain that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me from the hand of Herod and from everything the Jewish people were expecting to happen."

<sup>12</sup> When Peter realized this, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John Mark, where many people had gathered together and were praying.

<sup>14</sup> When she recognized Peter's voice, she was so overjoyed she did not open the gate, but ran back in and told them that Peter was standing at the gate.

<sup>15</sup> But they said to her, "You've lost your mind!" But she kept insisting that it was Peter, and they kept saying, "It is his angel!"

<sup>16</sup> Now Peter continued knocking, and when they opened the door and saw him, they were greatly astonished.

<sup>17</sup> He motioned to them with his hand to be quiet and then related how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. He said, "Tell James and the brothers these things," and then he left and went to another place.

<sup>18</sup> At daybreak there was great consternation among the soldiers over what had become of Peter.

<sup>19</sup> When Herod had searched for him and did not find him, he questioned the guards and commanded that they be led away to execution. Then Herod went down from Judea to Caesarea and stayed there.

<sup>20</sup> Now Herod was having an angry quarrel with the people of Tyre. So they joined together and presented themselves before him. And after convincing Blastus, the king's personal assistant, to help them, they asked for peace, because their country's food supply was provided by the king's country.

<sup>21</sup> On a day determined in advance, Herod put on his royal robes, sat down on the judgment seat, and made a speech to them.

<sup>23</sup> Immediately an angel of the Lord struck Herod down because he did not give the glory to God, and he was eaten by worms and died.

<sup>24</sup> But the word of God kept on increasing and multiplying.

<sup>25</sup> So Barnabas and Saul returned to Jerusalem when they had completed their mission, bringing along with them John Mark.

13

<sup>2</sup> While they were serving the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them."

<sup>3</sup> Then, after they had fasted and prayed and placed their hands on them, they sent them off.

Paul and Barnabas Preach in Cyprus

<sup>4</sup> So Barnabas and Saul, sent out by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus.

<sup>5</sup> When they arrived in Salamis, they began to proclaim the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. (Now they also had John as their assistant.)

<sup>6</sup> When they had crossed over the whole island as far as Paphos, they found a magician, a Jewish false prophet named Bar-Jesus, <sup>7</sup> who was with the proconsul Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. The proconsul summoned Barnabas and Saul and wanted to hear the word of God.

<sup>8</sup> But the magician Elymas (for that is the way his name is translated) opposed them, trying to turn the proconsul away from the faith.

<sup>9</sup> But Saul (also known as Paul), filled with the Holy Spirit, stared straight at him

<sup>10</sup> and said, "You who are full of all deceit and all wrongdoing, you son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness – will you not stop making crooked the straight paths of the Lord?"

<sup>11</sup> Now look, the hand of the Lord is against you, and you will be blind, unable to see the sun for a time!" Immediately mistiness and darkness came over him, and he went around seeking people to lead him by the hand.

<sup>12</sup> Then when the proconsul saw what had happened, he believed, because he was greatly astounded at the teaching about the Lord.

Paul and Barnabas at Pisidian Antioch

<sup>13</sup> Then Paul and his companions put out to sea from Paphos and came to Perga in Pamphylia, but John left them and returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>14</sup> Moving on from Perga, they arrived at Pisidian Antioch, and on the Sabbath day they went into the synagogue and sat down.

<sup>15</sup> After the reading from the law and the prophets, the leaders of the synagogue sent them a message, saying, "Brothers, if you have any message of exhortation for the people, speak it."

<sup>16</sup> So Paul stood up, gestured with his hand and said,

"Men of Israel, and you Gentiles who fear God, listen:

<sup>17</sup> The God of this people Israel chose our ancestors and made the people great during their stay as foreigners in the country of Egypt, and with uplifted arm he led them out of it.

<sup>18</sup> For a period of about forty years he put up with them in the wilderness.

<sup>19</sup> After he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave his people their land as an inheritance.

<sup>20</sup> All this took about four hundred fifty years. After this he gave them judges until the time of Samuel the prophet.

<sup>21</sup> Then they asked for a king, and God gave them Saul son of Kish, a man from the tribe of Benjamin, who ruled forty years.

<sup>22</sup> After removing him, God raised up David their king. He testified about him: 'I have found David the son of Jesse to be a man after my heart, who will accomplish everything I want him to do.'

<sup>23</sup> From the descendants of this man God brought to Israel a Savior, Jesus, just as he promised.

<sup>24</sup> Before Jesus arrived, John had proclaimed a baptism for repentance to all the people of Israel.

<sup>25</sup> But while John was completing his mission, he said repeatedly, 'What do you think I am? I am not he. But look, one is coming after me. I am not worthy to untie the sandals on his feet!'

<sup>26</sup> Brothers, descendants of Abraham's family, and those Gentiles among you who fear God, the message of this salvation has been sent to us.

<sup>27</sup> For the people who live in Jerusalem and their rulers did not recognize him, and they fulfilled the sayings of the prophets that are read every Sabbath by condemning him.

<sup>28</sup> Though they found no basis for a death sentence, they asked Pilate to have him executed.

<sup>29</sup> When they had accomplished everything that was written about him, they took him down from the cross and placed him in a tomb.

<sup>30</sup> But God raised him from the dead,

<sup>31</sup> and for many days he appeared to those who had accompanied him from Galilee to Jerusalem. These are now his witnesses to the people.

<sup>32</sup> And we proclaim to you the good news about the promise to our ancestors,

<sup>33</sup> that this promise God has fulfilled to us, their children, by raising Jesus, as also it is written in the second psalm, 'You are my Son; today I have fathered you*.'

<sup>34</sup> But regarding the fact that he has raised Jesus from the dead, never again to be in a state of decay, God has spoken in this way: 'I will give you the holy and trustworthy promises made to David*.'

<sup>35</sup> Therefore he also says in another psalm, 'You will not permit your Holy One to experience decay*.'

<sup>36</sup> For David, after he had served God's purpose in his own generation, died, was buried with his ancestors, and experienced decay, <sup>37</sup> but the one whom God raised up did not experience decay.

<sup>38</sup> Therefore let it be known to you, brothers, that through this one forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you,

<sup>39</sup> and by this one everyone who believes is justified from everything from which the law of Moses could not justify you.

<sup>40</sup> Watch out, then, that what is spoken about by the prophets does not happen to you:

For I am doing a work in your days, a work you would never believe, even if someone tells you.' "

<sup>42</sup> As Paul and Barnabas were going out, the people were urging them to speak about these things on the next Sabbath.

<sup>43</sup> When the meeting of the synagogue had broken up, many of the Jews and God-fearing proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who were speaking with them and were persuading them to continue in the grace of God.

<sup>44</sup> On the next Sabbath almost the whole city assembled together to hear the word of the Lord.

<sup>45</sup> But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy, and they began to contradict what Paul was saying by reviling him.

<sup>46</sup> Both Paul and Barnabas replied courageously, "It was necessary to speak the word of God to you first. Since you reject it and do not consider yourselves worthy of eternal life, we are turning to the Gentiles.

<sup>47</sup> For this is what the Lord has commanded us: 'I have appointed you to be a light for the Gentiles, to bring salvation to the ends of the earth.' "

<sup>48</sup> When the Gentiles heard this, they began to rejoice and praise the word of the Lord, and all who had been appointed for eternal life believed.

<sup>49</sup> So the word of the Lord was spreading through the entire region.

<sup>50</sup> But the Jews incited the God-fearing women of high social standing and the prominent men of the city, stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and threw them out of their region.

<sup>51</sup> So after they shook the dust off their feet in protest against them, they went to Iconium.

14

<sup>1</sup> The same thing happened in Iconium when Paul and Barnabas went into the Jewish synagogue and spoke in such a way that a large group of both Jews and Greeks believed.

<sup>2</sup> But the Jews who refused to believe stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers.

<sup>3</sup> So they stayed there for a considerable time, speaking out courageously for the Lord, who testified to the message of his grace, granting miraculous signs and wonders to be performed through their hands.

<sup>4</sup> But the population of the city was divided; some sided with the Jews, and some with the apostles.

<sup>5</sup> When both the Gentiles and the Jews (together with their rulers) made an attempt to mistreat them and stone them, <sup>6</sup> Paul and Barnabas learned about it and fled to the Lycaonian cities of Lystra and the surrounding region.

Paul and Barnabas at Lystra

<sup>8</sup> In Lystra sat a man who could not use his feet, lame from birth, who had never walked.

<sup>9</sup> This man was listening to Paul as he was speaking. When Paul stared intently at him and saw he had faith to be healed, <sup>10</sup> he said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet." And the man leaped up and began walking.

<sup>11</sup> So when the crowds saw what Paul had done, they shouted in the Lycaonian language, "The gods have come down to us in human form!"

<sup>12</sup> They began to call Barnabas Zeus and Paul Hermes, because he was the chief speaker.

<sup>13</sup> The priest of the temple of Zeus, located just outside the city, brought bulls and garlands to the city gates; he and the crowds wanted to offer sacrifices to them.

<sup>14</sup> But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard about it, they tore their clothes and rushed out into the crowd, shouting,

<sup>15</sup> "Men, why are you doing these things? We too are men, with human natures just like you! We are proclaiming the good news to you, so that you should turn from these worthless things to the living God, who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and everything that is in them.

<sup>16</sup> In past generations he allowed all the nations to go their own ways, <sup>17</sup> yet he did not leave himself without a witness by doing good, by giving you rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, satisfying you with food and your hearts with joy."

<sup>19</sup> But Jews came from Antioch and Iconium, and after winning the crowds over, they stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, presuming him to be dead.

<sup>20</sup> But after the disciples had surrounded him, he got up and went back into the city. On the next day he left with Barnabas for Derbe.

Paul and Barnabas Return to Antioch in Syria

<sup>21</sup> After they had proclaimed the good news in that city and made many disciples, they returned to Lystra,

<sup>22</sup> They strengthened the souls of the disciples and encouraged them to continue in the faith, saying, "We must enter the kingdom of God through many persecutions."

<sup>23</sup> When they had appointed elders for them in the various churches, with prayer and fasting they entrusted them to the protection of the Lord in whom they had believed.

<sup>24</sup> Then they passed through Pisidia and came into Pamphylia, <sup>25</sup> and when they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.

<sup>26</sup> From there they sailed back to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now completed.

<sup>27</sup> When they arrived and gathered the church together, they reported all the things God had done with them, and that he had opened a door of faith for the Gentiles.

<sup>28</sup> So they spent considerable time with the disciples.

15

<sup>1</sup> Now some men came down from Judea and began to teach the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved."

<sup>2</sup> When Paul and Barnabas had a major argument and debate with them, the church appointed Paul and Barnabas and some others from among them to go up to meet with the apostles and elders in Jerusalem about this point of disagreement.

<sup>3</sup> So they were sent on their way by the church, and as they passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, they were relating at length the conversion of the Gentiles and bringing great joy to all the brothers.

<sup>4</sup> When they arrived in Jerusalem, they were received by the church and the apostles and the elders, and they reported all the things God had done with them.

<sup>5</sup> But some from the religious party of the Pharisees who had believed stood up and said, "It is necessary to circumcise the Gentiles and to order them to observe the law of Moses."

<sup>6</sup> Both the apostles and the elders met together to deliberate about this matter.

<sup>7</sup> After there had been much debate, Peter stood up and said to them, "Brothers, you know that some time ago God chose me to preach to the Gentiles so they would hear the message of the gospel and believe.

<sup>8</sup> And God, who knows the heart, has testified to them by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us, <sup>9</sup> and he made no distinction between them and us, cleansing their hearts by faith.

<sup>10</sup> So now why are you putting God to the test by placing on the neck of the disciples a yoke that neither our ancestors nor we have been able to bear?

<sup>11</sup> On the contrary, we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, in the same way as they are."

<sup>12</sup> The whole group kept quiet and listened to Barnabas and Paul while they explained all the miraculous signs and wonders God had done among the Gentiles through them.

<sup>15</sup> The words of the prophets agree with this, as it is written,

<sup>16</sup> 'After this I will return,

*and I will rebuild the fallen tent of David;**

*I will rebuild its ruins and restore it,**

<sup>17</sup> *so that the rest of humanity may seek the Lord,** *namely, all the Gentiles I have called to be my own,' says the Lord,* who makes these things*

<sup>19</sup> “Therefore I conclude that we should not cause extra difficulty for those among the Gentiles who are turning to God, <sup>20</sup> but that we should write them a letter telling them to abstain from things defiled by idols and from sexual immorality and from what has been strangled and from blood.

<sup>21</sup> For Moses has had those who proclaim him in every town from ancient times, because he is read aloud in the synagogues every Sabbath.”

<sup>22</sup> Then the apostles and elders, with the whole church, decided to send men chosen from among them, Judas called Barsabbas and Silas, leaders among the brothers, to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas.

From the apostles and elders, your brothers, to the Gentile brothers and sisters in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia, greetings!

<sup>24</sup> Since we have heard that some have gone out from among us with no orders from us and have confused you, upsetting your minds by what they said,

<sup>25</sup> we have unanimously decided to choose men to send to you along with our dear friends Barnabas and Paul, <sup>26</sup> who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>27</sup> Therefore we are sending Judas and Silas who will tell you these things themselves in person.

<sup>28</sup> For it seemed best to the Holy Spirit and to us not to place any greater burden on you than these necessary rules:

<sup>29</sup> that you abstain from meat that has been sacrificed to idols and from blood and from what has been strangled and from sexual immorality. If you keep yourselves from doing these things, you will do well. Farewell.

<sup>30</sup> So when they were dismissed, they went down to Antioch, and after gathering the entire group together, they delivered the letter.

<sup>31</sup> When they read it aloud, the people rejoiced at its encouragement.

<sup>32</sup> Both Judas and Silas, who were prophets themselves, encouraged and strengthened the brothers with a long speech.

<sup>33</sup> After they had spent some time there, they were sent off in peace by the brothers to those who had sent them.

<sup>34</sup> *

<sup>35</sup> But Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, teaching and proclaiming (along with many others) the word of the Lord.

Paul and Barnabas Part Company

<sup>36</sup> After some days Paul said to Barnabas, “Let’s return and visit the brothers in every town where we proclaimed the word of the Lord to see how they are doing.”

<sup>38</sup> but Paul insisted that they should not take along this one who had left them in Pamphylia and had not accompanied them in the work.

<sup>39</sup> They had a sharp disagreement, so that they parted company. Barnabas took along Mark and sailed away to Cyprus, <sup>40</sup> but Paul chose Silas and set out, commended to the grace of the Lord by the brothers and sisters.

16

<sup>1</sup> He also came to Derbe A disciple named Timothy was there, the son of a Jewish woman who was a believer, but whose father was a Greek.

---

* 15:34 [[EMPTY]]

<sup>3</sup> Paul wanted Timothy to accompany him, and he took him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those places, for they all knew that his father was Greek.

<sup>4</sup> As they went through the towns, they passed on the decrees that had been decided on by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem for the Gentile believers to obey.

Paul's Vision of the Macedonian Man

<sup>6</sup> They went through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, having been prevented by the Holy Spirit from speaking the message in the province of Asia.

<sup>7</sup> When they came to Mysia, they attempted to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not allow them to do this,

<sup>8</sup> so they passed through Mysia and went down to Troas.

<sup>9</sup> A vision appeared to Paul during the night: A Macedonian man was standing there urging him, "Come over to Macedonia and help us!"

<sup>10</sup> After Paul saw the vision, we attempted immediately to go over to Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them.

Arrival at Philippi

<sup>11</sup> We put out to sea from Troas and sailed a straight course to Samothrace, the next day to Neapolis, <sup>12</sup> and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of that district of Macedonia, a Roman colony. We stayed in this city for some days.

<sup>13</sup> On the Sabbath day we went outside the city gate to the side of the river, where we thought there would be a place of prayer, and we sat down and began to speak to the women who had assembled there.

<sup>14</sup> A woman named Lydia, a dealer in purple cloth from the city of Thyatira, a God-fearing woman, listened to us. The Lord opened her heart to respond to what Paul was saying.

<sup>15</sup> After she and her household were baptized, she urged us, "If you consider me to be a believer in the Lord, come and stay in my house." And she persuaded us.

Paul and Silas Are Thrown Into Prison

<sup>16</sup> Now as we were going to the place of prayer, a slave girl met us who had a spirit that enabled her to foretell the future by supernatural means. She brought her owners a great profit by fortune-telling.

<sup>17</sup> She followed behind Paul and us and kept crying out, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who are proclaiming to you the way of salvation."

<sup>18</sup> She continued to do this for many days. But Paul became greatly annoyed, and turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!" And it came out of her at once.

<sup>19</sup> But when her owners saw their hope of profit was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the authorities.

<sup>20</sup> When they had brought them before the magistrates, they said, "These men are throwing our city into confusion. They are Jews <sup>21</sup> and are advocating customs that are not lawful for us to accept or practice, since we are Romans."

<sup>23</sup> After they had beaten them severely, they threw them into prison and commanded the jailer to guard them securely.

<sup>25</sup> About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the rest of the prisoners were listening to them.

<sup>26</sup> Suddenly a great earthquake occurred, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken. Immediately all the doors flew open, and the bonds of all the prisoners came loose.

<sup>27</sup> When the jailer woke up and saw the doors of the prison standing open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, because he assumed the prisoners had escaped.

<sup>30</sup> Then he brought them outside and asked, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

<sup>31</sup> They replied, "Believe in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved, you and your household."

<sup>32</sup> Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him, along with all those who were in his house.

<sup>33</sup> At that hour of the night he took them and washed their wounds; then he and all his family were baptized right away.

<sup>34</sup> The jailer brought them into his house and set food before them, and he rejoiced greatly that he had come to believe in God, together with his entire household.

<sup>37</sup> But Paul said to the police officers, "They had us beaten in public without a proper trial – even though we are Roman citizens – and they threw us in prison. And now they want to send us away secretly? Absolutely not! They themselves must come and escort us out!"

<sup>38</sup> The police officers reported these words to the magistrates. They were frightened when they heard Paul and Silas were Roman citizens <sup>39</sup> and came and apologized to them. After they brought them out, they asked them repeatedly to leave the city.

<sup>40</sup> When they came out of the prison, they entered Lydia's house, and when they saw the brothers, they encouraged them and then departed.

17

<sup>1</sup> After they traveled through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue.

<sup>2</sup> Paul went to the Jews in the synagogue, as he customarily did, and on three Sabbath days he addressed them from the scriptures,

<sup>3</sup> explaining and demonstrating that the Christ had to suffer and to rise from the dead, saying, "This Jesus I am proclaiming to you is the Christ."

<sup>4</sup> Some of them were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, along with a large group of God-fearing Greeks and quite a few prominent women.

<sup>5</sup> But the Jews became jealous, and gathering together some worthless men from the rabble in the marketplace, they formed a mob and set the city in an uproar. They attacked Jason's house, trying to find Paul and Silas to bring them out to the assembly.

<sup>6</sup> When they did not find them, they dragged Jason and some of the brothers before the city officials, screaming, "These people who have stirred up trouble throughout the world have come here too, <sup>7</sup> and Jason has welcomed them as guests! They are all acting against Caesar's decrees, saying there is another king named Jesus!"

<sup>8</sup> They caused confusion among the crowd and the city officials who heard these things.

Paul and Silas at Berea

<sup>10</sup> The brothers sent Paul and Silas off to Berea at once, during the night. When they arrived, they went to the Jewish synagogue.

<sup>11</sup> These Jews were more open-minded than those in Thessalonica, for they eagerly received the message, examining the scriptures carefully every day to see if these things were so.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore many of them believed, along with quite a few prominent Greek women and men.

<sup>13</sup> But when the Jews from Thessalonica heard that Paul had also proclaimed the word of God in Berea, they came there too, inciting and disturbing the crowds.

<sup>14</sup> Then the brothers sent Paul away to the coast at once, but Silas and Timothy remained in Berea.

<sup>15</sup> Those who accompanied Paul escorted him as far as Athens, and after receiving an order for Silas and Timothy to come to him as soon as possible, they left.

Paul at Athens

<sup>16</sup> While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit was greatly upset because he saw the city was full of idols.

<sup>17</sup> So he was addressing the Jews and the God-fearing Gentiles in the synagogue, and in the marketplace every day those who happened to be there.

<sup>18</sup> Also some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers were conversing with him, and some were asking, "What does this foolish babbler want to say?" Others said, "He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign gods." (They said this because he was proclaiming the good news about Jesus and the resurrection.)

<sup>19</sup> So they took Paul and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new teaching is that you are proclaiming?"

<sup>20</sup> For you are bringing some surprising things to our ears, so we want to know what they mean."

<sup>21</sup> (All the Athenians and the foreigners who lived there used to spend their time in nothing else than telling or listening to something new.)

<sup>22</sup> So Paul stood before the Areopagus and said, "Men of Athens, I see that you are very religious in all respects.

<sup>23</sup> For as I went around and observed closely your objects of worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: 'To an unknown god.' Therefore what you worship without knowing it, this I proclaim to you.

<sup>24</sup> The God who made the world and everything in it, who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in temples made by human hands, <sup>25</sup> nor is he served by human hands, as if he needed anything, because he himself gives life and breath and everything to everyone.

<sup>26</sup> From one man he made every nation of the human race to inhabit the entire earth, determining their set times and the fixed limits of the places where they would live, <sup>27</sup> so that they would search for God and perhaps grope around for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us.

<sup>28</sup> For in him we live and move about and exist, as even some of your own poets have said, 'For we too are his offspring.'

<sup>29</sup> So since we are God's offspring, we should not think the deity is like gold or silver or stone, an image made by human skill and imagination.

<sup>30</sup> Therefore, although God has overlooked such times of ignorance, he now commands all people everywhere to repent,

<sup>31</sup> because he has set a day on which he is going to judge the world in righteousness, by a man whom he designated, having provided proof to everyone by raising him from the dead."

<sup>32</sup> Now when they heard about the resurrection from the dead, some began to scoff, but others said, "We will hear you again about this."

<sup>34</sup> But some people joined him and believed. Among them were Dionysius, who was a member of the Areopagus, a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

18

<sup>3</sup> and because he worked at the same trade, he stayed with them and worked with them (for they were tentmakers by trade).

<sup>4</sup> He addressed both Jews and Greeks in the synagogue every Sabbath, attempting to persuade them.

<sup>5</sup> Now when Silas and Timothy arrived from Macedonia, Paul became wholly absorbed with proclaiming the word, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ.

<sup>6</sup> When they opposed him and reviled him, he protested by shaking out his clothes and said to them, "Your blood be on your own heads! I am guiltless! From now on I will go to the Gentiles!"

<sup>7</sup> Then Paul left the synagogue and went to the house of a person named Titius Justus, a Gentile who worshiped God, whose house was next door to the synagogue.

<sup>8</sup> Crispus, the president of the synagogue, believed in the Lord together with his entire household, and many of the Corinthians who heard about it believed and were baptized.

<sup>9</sup> The Lord said to Paul by a vision in the night, "Do not be afraid, but speak and do not be silent, <sup>10</sup> because I am with you, and no one will assault you to harm you, because I have many people in this city."

<sup>11</sup> So he stayed there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

Paul Before the Proconsul Gallio

<sup>13</sup> saying, "This man is persuading people to worship God in a way contrary to the law!"

<sup>14</sup> But just as Paul was about to speak, Gallio said to the Jews, "If it were a matter of some crime or serious piece of villainy, I would have been justified in accepting the complaint of you Jews, <sup>15</sup> but since it concerns points of disagreement about words and names and your own law, settle it yourselves. I will not be a judge of these things!"

<sup>16</sup> Then he had them forced away from the judgment seat.

<sup>17</sup> So they all seized Sosthenes, the president of the synagogue, and began to beat him in front of the judgment seat. Yet none of these things were of any concern to Gallio.

Paul Returns to Antioch in Syria

<sup>18</sup> Paul, after staying many more days in Corinth, said farewell to the brothers and sailed away to Syria accompanied by Priscilla and Aquila. He had his hair cut off at Cenchrea because he had made a vow.

<sup>19</sup> When they reached Ephesus, Paul left Priscilla and Aquila behind there, but he himself went into the synagogue and addressed the Jews.

<sup>20</sup> When they asked him to stay longer, he would not consent,

<sup>21</sup> but said farewell to them and added, "I will come back to you again if God wills." Then he set sail from Ephesus,

Apollos Begins His Ministry

<sup>24</sup> Now a Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, arrived in Ephesus. He was an eloquent speaker, well-versed in the scriptures.

<sup>25</sup> He had been instructed in the way of the Lord, and with great enthusiasm he spoke and taught accurately the facts about Jesus, although he knew only the baptism of John.

<sup>26</sup> He began to speak out fearlessly in the synagogue, but when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained the way of God to him more accurately.

<sup>27</sup> When Apollos wanted to cross over to Achaia, the brothers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples to welcome him. When he arrived, he assisted greatly those who had believed by grace, <sup>28</sup> for he refuted the Jews vigorously in public debate, demonstrating from the scriptures that the Christ was Jesus.

19

<sup>2</sup> and said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" They replied, "No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit."

<sup>3</sup> So Paul said, "Into what then were you baptized?" "Into John's baptism," they replied.

<sup>4</sup> Paul said, "John baptized with a baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, in Jesus."

<sup>5</sup> When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus, <sup>6</sup> and when Paul placed his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they began to speak in tongues and to prophesy.

<sup>7</sup> (Now there were about twelve men in all.)

Paul Continues to Minister at Ephesus

<sup>8</sup> So Paul entered the synagogue and spoke out fearlessly for three months, addressing and convincing them about the kingdom of God.

<sup>9</sup> But when some were stubborn and refused to believe, reviling the Way before the congregation, he left them and took the disciples with him, addressing them every day in the lecture hall of Tyrannus.

<sup>10</sup> This went on for two years, so that all who lived in the province of Asia, both Jews and Greeks, heard the word of the Lord.

The Seven Sons of Sceva

<sup>11</sup> God was performing extraordinary miracles by Paul's hands, <sup>12</sup> so that when even handkerchiefs or aprons that had touched his body were brought to the sick, their diseases left them and the evil spirits went out of them.

<sup>13</sup> But some itinerant Jewish exorcists tried to invoke the name of the Lord Jesus over those who were possessed by evil spirits, saying, “I sternly warn you by Jesus whom Paul preaches.”

<sup>15</sup> But the evil spirit replied to them, “I know about Jesus and I am acquainted with Paul, but who are you?”

<sup>16</sup> Then the man who was possessed by the evil spirit jumped on them and beat them all into submission. He prevailed against them so that they fled from that house naked and wounded.

<sup>17</sup> This became known to all who lived in Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks; fear came over them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was praised.

<sup>18</sup> Many of those who had believed came forward, confessing and making their deeds known.

<sup>19</sup> Large numbers of those who had practiced magic collected their books and burned them up in the presence of everyone. When the value of the books was added up, it was found to total fifty thousand silver coins.

<sup>20</sup> In this way the word of the Lord continued to grow in power and to prevail.

A Riot in Ephesus

<sup>21</sup> Now after all these things had taken place, Paul resolved to go to Jerusalem, passing through Macedonia and Achaia. He said, “After I have been there, I must also see Rome.”

<sup>22</sup> So after sending two of his assistants, Timothy and Erastus, to Macedonia, he himself stayed on for a while in the province of Asia.

<sup>24</sup> For a man named Demetrius, a silversmith who made silver shrines of Artemis, brought a great deal of business to the craftsmen.

<sup>25</sup> He gathered these together, along with the workmen in similar trades, and said, “Men, you know that our prosperity comes from this business.

<sup>26</sup> And you see and hear that this Paul has persuaded and turned away a large crowd, not only in Ephesus but in practically all of the province of Asia, by saying that gods made by hands are not gods at all.

<sup>27</sup> There is danger not only that this business of ours will come into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be regarded as nothing, and she whom all the province of Asia and the world worship will suffer the loss of her greatness.”

<sup>28</sup> When they heard this they became enraged and began to shout, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

<sup>29</sup> The city was filled with the uproar, and the crowd rushed to the theater together, dragging with them Gaius and Aristarchus, the Macedonians who were Paul’s traveling companions.

<sup>30</sup> But when Paul wanted to enter the public assembly, the disciples would not let him.

<sup>31</sup> Even some of the provincial authorities who were his friends sent a message to him, urging him not to venture into the theater.

<sup>32</sup> So then some were shouting one thing, some another, for the assembly was in confusion, and most of them did not know why they had met together.

<sup>33</sup> Some of the crowd concluded it was about Alexander because the Jews had pushed him to the front. Alexander, gesturing with his hand, was wanting to make a defense before the public assembly.

<sup>34</sup> But when they recognized that he was a Jew, they all shouted in unison, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!” for about two hours.

<sup>35</sup> After the city secretary quieted the crowd, he said, “Men of Ephesus, what person is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is the keeper of the temple of the great Artemis and of her image that fell from heaven?

<sup>36</sup> So because these facts are indisputable, you must keep quiet and not do anything reckless.

<sup>37</sup> For you have brought these men here who are neither temple robbers nor blasphemers of our goddess.

<sup>38</sup> If then Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a complaint against someone, the courts are open and there are proconsuls; let them bring charges against one another there.

<sup>39</sup> But if you want anything in addition, it will have to be settled in a legal assembly.

<sup>40</sup> For we are in danger of being charged with rioting today, since there is no cause we can give to explain this disorderly gathering.”

<sup>41</sup> After he had said this, he dismissed the assembly.

20

<sup>2</sup> After he had gone through those regions and spoken many words of encouragement to the believers there, he came to Greece, <sup>3</sup> where he stayed for three months. Because the Jews had made a plot against him as he was intending to sail for Syria, he decided to return through Macedonia.

<sup>4</sup> Paul was accompanied by Sopater son of Pyrrhus from Berea, and Timothy, as well as Tychicus and Trophimus from the province of Asia.

<sup>5</sup> These had gone on ahead and were waiting for us in Troas.

<sup>6</sup> We sailed away from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and within five days we came to the others in Troas, where we stayed for seven days.

<sup>7</sup> On the first day of the week, when we met to break bread, Paul began to speak to the people, and because he intended to leave the next day, he extended his message until midnight.

<sup>8</sup> (Now there were many lamps in the upstairs room where we were meeting.)

<sup>9</sup> A young man named Eutychus, who was sitting in the window, was sinking into a deep sleep while Paul continued to speak for a long time. Fast asleep, he fell down from the third story and was picked up dead.

<sup>10</sup> But Paul went down, threw himself on the young man, put his arms around him, and said, “Do not be distressed, for he is still alive!”

<sup>11</sup> Then Paul went back upstairs, and after he had broken bread and eaten, he talked with them a long time, until dawn. Then he left.

<sup>12</sup> They took the boy home alive and were greatly comforted.

The Voyage to Miletus

<sup>13</sup> We went on ahead to the ship and put out to sea for Assos, intending to take Paul aboard there, for he had arranged it this way. He himself was intending to go there by land.

<sup>14</sup> When he met us in Assos, we took him aboard and went to Mitylene.

<sup>15</sup> We set sail from there, and on the following day we arrived off Chios. The next day we approached Samos, and the day after that we arrived at Miletus.

<sup>16</sup> For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus if possible, by the day of Pentecost.

<sup>17</sup> From Miletus he sent a message to Ephesus, telling the elders of the church to come to him.

<sup>18</sup> When they arrived, he said to them, “You yourselves know how I lived the whole time I was with you, from the first day I set foot in the province of Asia, <sup>19</sup> serving the Lord with all humility and with tears, and with the trials that happened to me because of the plots of the Jews.

<sup>20</sup> You know that I did not hold back from proclaiming to you anything that would be helpful, and from teaching you publicly and from house to house, <sup>21</sup> testifying to both Jews and Greeks about repentance toward God and faith in our Lord Jesus.

<sup>22</sup> And now, compelled by the Spirit, I am going to Jerusalem without knowing what will happen to me there, <sup>23</sup> except that the Holy Spirit warns me in town after town that imprisonment and persecutions are waiting for me.

<sup>24</sup> But I do not consider my life worth anything to myself, so that I may finish my task and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the good news of God's grace.

<sup>25</sup> "And now I know that none of you among whom I went around proclaiming the kingdom will see me again.

<sup>26</sup> Therefore I declare to you today that I am innocent of the blood of you all.

<sup>27</sup> For I did not hold back from announcing to you the whole purpose of God.

<sup>28</sup> Watch out for yourselves and for all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God that he obtained with the blood of his own Son.

<sup>29</sup> I know that after I am gone fierce wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock.

<sup>30</sup> Even from among your own group men will arise, teaching perversions of the truth to draw the disciples away after them.

<sup>31</sup> Therefore be alert, remembering that night and day for three years I did not stop warning each one of you with tears.

<sup>32</sup> And now I entrust you to God and to the message of his grace. This message is able to build you up and give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified.

<sup>33</sup> I have desired no one's silver or gold or clothing.

<sup>34</sup> You yourselves know that these hands of mine provided for my needs and the needs of those who were with me.

<sup>35</sup> By all these things, I have shown you that by working in this way we must help the weak, and remember the words of the Lord Jesus that he himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.' "

<sup>36</sup> When he had said these things, he knelt down with them all and prayed.

<sup>37</sup> They all began to weep loudly, and hugged Paul and kissed him, <sup>38</sup> especially saddened by what he had said, that they were not going to see him again. Then they accompanied him to the ship.

21

<sup>1</sup> After we tore ourselves away from them, we put out to sea, and sailing a straight course, we came to Cos, on the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.

<sup>3</sup> After we sighted Cyprus and left it behind on our port side, we sailed on to Syria and put in at Tyre, because the ship was to unload its cargo there.

<sup>4</sup> After we located the disciples, we stayed there seven days. They repeatedly told Paul through the Spirit not to set foot in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> When our time was over, we left and went on our way. All of them, with their wives and children, accompanied us outside of the city. After kneeling down on the beach and praying, <sup>6</sup> we said farewell to one another. Then we went aboard the ship, and they returned to their own homes.

<sup>7</sup> We continued the voyage from Tyre and arrived at Ptolemais, and when we had greeted the brothers, we stayed with them for one day.

<sup>8</sup> On the next day we left and came to Caesarea, and entered the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him.

<sup>10</sup> While we remained there for a number of days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea.

<sup>11</sup> He came to us, took Paul's belt, tied his own hands and feet with it, and said, "The Holy Spirit says this: 'This is the way the Jews in Jerusalem will tie up the man whose belt this is, and will hand him over to the Gentiles.' "

<sup>12</sup> When we heard this, both we and the local people begged him not to go up to Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> Then Paul replied, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be tied up, but even to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."

<sup>14</sup> Because he could not be persuaded, we said no more except, "The Lord's will be done."

<sup>15</sup> After these days we got ready and started up to Jerusalem.

<sup>16</sup> Some of the disciples from Caesarea came along with us too, and brought us to the house of Mnason of Cyprus, a disciple from the earliest times, with whom we were to stay.

<sup>17</sup> When we arrived in Jerusalem, the brothers welcomed us gladly.

<sup>18</sup> The next day Paul went in with us to see James, and all the elders were there.

<sup>19</sup> When Paul had greeted them, he began to explain in detail what God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

<sup>20</sup> When they heard this, they praised God. Then they said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are who have believed, and they are all ardent observers of the law.

<sup>21</sup> They have been informed about you – that you teach all the Jews now living among the Gentiles to abandon Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children or live according to our customs.

<sup>22</sup> What then should we do? They will no doubt hear that you have come.

<sup>23</sup> So do what we tell you: We have four men who have taken a vow;

<sup>24</sup> take them and purify yourself along with them and pay their expenses, so that they may have their heads shaved. Then everyone will know there is nothing in what they have been told about you, but that you yourself live in conformity with the law.

<sup>25</sup> But regarding the Gentiles who have believed, we have written a letter, having decided that they should avoid meat that has been sacrificed to idols and blood and what has been strangled and sexual immorality."

<sup>26</sup> Then Paul took the men the next day, and after he had purified himself along with them, he went to the temple and gave notice of the completion of the days of purification, when the sacrifice would be offered for each of them.

<sup>27</sup> When the seven days were almost over, the Jews from the province of Asia who had seen him in the temple area stirred up the whole crowd and seized him,

<sup>28</sup> shouting, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches everyone everywhere against our people, our law, and this sanctuary! Furthermore he has brought Greeks into the inner courts of the temple and made this holy place ritually unclean!"

<sup>29</sup> (For they had seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with him previously, and they assumed Paul had brought him into the inner temple courts.)

<sup>30</sup> The whole city was stirred up, and the people rushed together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple courts, and immediately the doors were shut.

<sup>31</sup> While they were trying to kill him, a report was sent up to the commanding officer of the cohort that all Jerusalem was in confusion.

<sup>32</sup> He immediately took soldiers and centurions and ran down to the crowd. When they saw the commanding officer and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

<sup>33</sup> Then the commanding officer came up and arrested him and ordered him to be tied up with two chains; he then asked who he was and what he had done.

<sup>34</sup> But some in the crowd shouted one thing, and others something else, and when the commanding officer was unable to find out the truth because of the disturbance, he ordered Paul to be brought into the barracks.

<sup>35</sup> When he came to the steps, Paul had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the mob,

<sup>37</sup> As Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he said to the commanding officer, "May I say something to you?" The officer replied, "Do you know Greek?"

<sup>38</sup> Then you're not that Egyptian who started a rebellion and led the four thousand men of the 'Assassins' into the wilderness some time ago?"

<sup>39</sup> Paul answered, "I am a Jew from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of an important city. Please allow me to speak to the people."

<sup>40</sup> When the commanding officer had given him permission, Paul stood on the steps and gestured to the people with his hand. When they had become silent, he addressed them in Aramaic,

22

<sup>2</sup> (When they heard that he was addressing them in Aramaic, they became even quieter.) Then Paul said, <sup>3</sup> "I am a Jew, born in Tarsus in Cilicia, but brought up in this city, educated with strictness under Gamaliel according to the law of our ancestors, and was zealous for God just as all of you are today.

<sup>4</sup> I persecuted this Way even to the point of death, tying up both men and women and putting them in prison, <sup>5</sup> as both the high priest and the whole council of elders can testify about me. From them I also received letters to the brothers in Damascus, and I was on my way to make arrests there and bring the prisoners to Jerusalem to be punished.

<sup>6</sup> As I was en route and near Damascus, about noon a very bright light from heaven suddenly flashed around me.

<sup>7</sup> Then I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?'

<sup>8</sup> I answered, 'Who are you, Lord?' He said to me, 'I am Jesus the Nazarene, whom you are persecuting.'

<sup>9</sup> Those who were with me saw the light, but did not understand the voice of the one who was speaking to me.

<sup>10</sup> So I asked, 'What should I do, Lord?' The Lord said to me, 'Get up and go to Damascus; there you will be told about everything that you have been designated to do.'

<sup>11</sup> Since I could not see because of the brilliance of that light, I came to Damascus led by the hand of those who were with me.

<sup>12</sup> A man named Ananias, a devout man according to the law, well spoken of by all the Jews who live there, <sup>13</sup> came to me and stood beside me and said to me, 'Brother Saul, regain your sight!' And at that very moment I looked up and saw him.

<sup>14</sup> Then he said, 'The God of our ancestors has already chosen you to know his will, to see the Righteous One, and to hear a command from his mouth, <sup>15</sup> because you will be his witness to all people of what you have seen and heard.

<sup>16</sup> And now what are you waiting for? Get up, be baptized, and have your sins washed away, calling on his name.'

<sup>17</sup> When I returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple, I fell into a trance

<sup>18</sup> and saw the Lord saying to me, 'Hurry and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not accept your testimony about me.'

<sup>19</sup> I replied, 'Lord, they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat those in the various synagogues who believed in you.

<sup>20</sup> And when the blood of your witness Stephen was shed, I myself was standing nearby, approving, and guarding the cloaks of those who were killing him.'

<sup>21</sup> Then he said to me, 'Go, because I will send you far away to the Gentiles.' "

The Roman Commander Questions Paul

<sup>22</sup> The crowd was listening to him until he said this. Then they raised their voices and shouted, "Away with this man from the earth! For he should not be allowed to live!"

<sup>24</sup> the commanding officer ordered Paul to be brought back into the barracks. He told them to interrogate Paul by beating him with a lash so that he could find out the reason the crowd was shouting at Paul in this way.

<sup>25</sup> When they had stretched him out for the lash, Paul said to the centurion standing nearby, "Is it legal for you to lash a man who is a Roman citizen without a proper trial?"

<sup>26</sup> When the centurion heard this, he went to the commanding officer and reported it, saying, "What are you about to do? For this man is a Roman citizen."

<sup>27</sup> So the commanding officer came and asked Paul, "Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?" He replied, "Yes."

<sup>28</sup> The commanding officer answered, "I acquired this citizenship with a large sum of money." "But I was even born a citizen," Paul replied.

<sup>29</sup> Then those who were about to interrogate him stayed away from him, and the commanding officer was frightened when he realized that Paul was a Roman citizen and that he had had him tied up.

Paul Before the Sanhedrin

<sup>30</sup> The next day, because the commanding officer wanted to know the true reason Paul was being accused by the Jews, he released him and ordered the chief priests and the whole council to assemble. He then brought Paul down and had him stand before them.

23

<sup>1</sup> Paul looked directly at the council and said, "Brothers, I have lived my life with a clear conscience before God to this day."

<sup>2</sup> At that the high priest Ananias ordered those standing near Paul to strike him on the mouth.

<sup>3</sup> Then Paul said to him, "God is going to strike you, you whitewashed wall! Do you sit there judging me according to the law, and in violation of the law you order me to be struck?"

<sup>4</sup> Those standing near him said, "Do you dare insult God's high priest?"

<sup>5</sup> Paul replied, "I did not realize, brothers, that he was the high priest, for it is written, 'You must not speak evil about a ruler of your people.' "

<sup>6</sup> Then when Paul noticed that part of them were Sadducees and the others Pharisees, he shouted out in the council, "Brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees. I am on trial concerning the hope of the resurrection of the dead!"

<sup>7</sup> When he said this, an argument began between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the assembly was divided.

<sup>8</sup> (For the Sadducees say there is no resurrection, or angel, or spirit, but the Pharisees acknowledge them all.)

<sup>9</sup> There was a great commotion, and some experts in the law from the party of the Pharisees stood up and protested strongly, "We find nothing wrong with this man. What if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?"

<sup>10</sup> When the argument became so great the commanding officer feared that they would tear Paul to pieces, he ordered the detachment to go down, take him away from them by force, and bring him into the barracks.

<sup>11</sup> The following night the Lord stood near Paul and said, "Have courage, for just as you have testified about me in Jerusalem, so you must also testify in Rome."

The Plot to Kill Paul

<sup>12</sup> When morning came, the Jews formed a conspiracy and bound themselves with an oath not to eat or drink anything until they had killed Paul.

<sup>13</sup> There were more than forty of them who formed this conspiracy.

<sup>14</sup> They went to the chief priests and the elders and said, "We have bound ourselves with a solemn oath not to partake of anything until we have killed Paul.

<sup>15</sup> So now you and the council request the commanding officer to bring him down to you, as if you were going to determine his case by conducting a more thorough inquiry. We are ready to kill him before he comes near this place."

<sup>16</sup> But when the son of Paul's sister heard about the ambush, he came and entered the barracks and told Paul.

<sup>17</sup> Paul called one of the centurions and said, "Take this young man to the commanding officer, for he has something to report to him."

<sup>18</sup> So the centurion took him and brought him to the commanding officer and said, "The prisoner Paul called me and asked me to bring this young man to you because he has something to tell you."

<sup>19</sup> The commanding officer took him by the hand, withdrew privately, and asked, "What is it that you want to report to me?"

<sup>20</sup> He replied, "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as if they were going to inquire more thoroughly about him.

<sup>21</sup> So do not let them persuade you to do this, because more than forty of them are lying in ambush for him. They have bound themselves with an oath not to eat or drink anything until they have killed him, and now they are ready, waiting for you to agree to their request."

<sup>22</sup> Then the commanding officer sent the young man away, directing him, "Tell no one that you have reported these things to me."

<sup>23</sup> Then he summoned two of the centurions and said, "Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea along with seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen by nine o'clock tonight, <sup>24</sup> and provide mounts for Paul to ride so that he may be brought safely to Felix the governor."

<sup>27</sup> This man was seized by the Jews and they were about to kill him, when I came up with the detachment and rescued him, because I had learned that he was a Roman citizen.

<sup>28</sup> Since I wanted to know what charge they were accusing him of, I brought him down to their council.

<sup>29</sup> I found he was accused with reference to controversial questions about their law, but no charge against him deserved death or imprisonment.

<sup>30</sup> When I was informed there would be a plot against this man, I sent him to you at once, also ordering his accusers to state their charges against him before you.

<sup>31</sup> So the soldiers, in accordance with their orders, took Paul and brought him to Antipatris during the night.

<sup>32</sup> The next day they let the horsemen go on with him, and they returned to the barracks.

<sup>33</sup> When the horsemen came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him.

<sup>34</sup> When the governor had read the letter, he asked what province he was from. When he learned that he was from Cilicia, <sup>35</sup> he said, "I will give you a hearing when your accusers arrive too." Then he ordered that Paul be kept under guard in Herod's palace.

24

<sup>1</sup> After five days the high priest Ananias came down with some elders and an attorney named Tertullus, and they brought formal charges against Paul to the governor.

<sup>2</sup> When Paul had been summoned, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, "We have experienced a lengthy time of peace through your rule, and reforms are being made in this nation through your foresight.

<sup>3</sup> Most excellent Felix, we acknowledge this everywhere and in every way with all gratitude.

<sup>4</sup> But so that I may not delay you any further, I beg you to hear us briefly with your customary graciousness.

<sup>5</sup> For we have found this man to be a troublemaker, one who stirs up riots among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes.

<sup>6</sup> He even tried to desecrate the temple, so we arrested him.

<sup>7</sup> *

<sup>8</sup> When you examine him yourself, you will be able to learn from him about all these things we are accusing him of doing."

<sup>9</sup> The Jews also joined in the verbal attack, claiming that these things were true.

Paul's Defense Before Felix

<sup>10</sup> When the governor gestured for him to speak, Paul replied, "Because I know that you have been a judge over this nation for many years, I confidently make my defense.

<sup>11</sup> As you can verify for yourself, not more than twelve days ago I went up to Jerusalem to worship.

<sup>12</sup> They did not find me arguing with anyone or stirring up a crowd in the temple courts or in the synagogues or throughout the city,

<sup>14</sup> But I confess this to you, that I worship the God of our ancestors according to the Way (which they call a sect), believing everything that is according to the law and that is written in the prophets.

---

* 24:7 [[EMPTY]]

<sup>15</sup> I have a hope in God (a hope that these men themselves accept too) that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.

<sup>16</sup> This is the reason I do my best to always have a clear conscience toward God and toward people.

<sup>17</sup> After several years I came to bring to my people gifts for the poor and to present offerings, <sup>18</sup> which I was doing when they found me in the temple, ritually purified, without a crowd or a disturbance.

<sup>19</sup> But there are some Jews from the province of Asia who should be here before you and bring charges, if they have anything against me.

<sup>20</sup> Or these men here should tell what crime they found me guilty of when I stood before the council,

<sup>21</sup> other than this one thing I shouted out while I stood before them: 'I am on trial before you today concerning the resurrection of the dead.' "

<sup>22</sup> Then Felix, who understood the facts concerning the Way more accurately, adjourned their hearing, saying, "When Lysias the commanding officer comes down, I will decide your case."

<sup>23</sup> He ordered the centurion to guard Paul, but to let him have some freedom, and not to prevent any of his friends from meeting his needs.

Paul Speaks Repeatedly to Felix

<sup>24</sup> Some days later, when Felix arrived with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish, he sent for Paul and heard him speak about faith in Christ Jesus.

<sup>25</sup> While Paul was discussing righteousness, self-control, and the coming judgment, Felix became frightened and said, "Go away for now, and when I have an opportunity, I will send for you."

<sup>26</sup> At the same time he was also hoping that Paul would give him money, and for this reason he sent for Paul as often as possible and talked with him.

<sup>27</sup> After two years had passed, Porcius Festus succeeded Felix, and because he wanted to do the Jews a favor, Felix left Paul in prison.

25

Paul Appeals to Caesar

<sup>2</sup> So the chief priests and the most prominent men of the Jews brought formal charges against Paul to him.

<sup>3</sup> Requesting him to do them a favor against Paul, they urged Festus to summon him to Jerusalem, planning an ambush to kill him along the way.

<sup>4</sup> Then Festus replied that Paul was being kept at Caesarea, and he himself intended to go there shortly.

<sup>5</sup> "So," he said, "let your leaders go down there with me, and if this man has done anything wrong, they may bring charges against him."

<sup>6</sup> After Festus had stayed not more than eight or ten days among them, he went down to Caesarea, and the next day he sat on the judgment seat and ordered Paul to be brought.

<sup>7</sup> When he arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing many serious charges that they were not able to prove.

<sup>8</sup> Paul said in his defense, "I have committed no offense against the Jewish law or against the temple or against Caesar."

<sup>9</sup> But Festus, wanting to do the Jews a favor, asked Paul, “Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and be tried before me there on these charges?”

<sup>10</sup> Paul replied, “I am standing before Caesar’s judgment seat, where I should be tried. I have done nothing wrong to the Jews, as you also know very well.

<sup>11</sup> If then I am in the wrong and have done anything that deserves death, I am not trying to escape dying, but if not one of their charges against me is true, no one can hand me over to them. I appeal to Caesar!”

<sup>12</sup> Then, after conferring with his council, Festus replied, “You have appealed to Caesar; to Caesar you will go!”

Festus Asks King Agrippa for Advice

<sup>13</sup> After several days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at Caesarea to pay their respects to Festus.

<sup>15</sup> When I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me about him, asking for a sentence of condemnation against him.

<sup>16</sup> I answered them that it was not the custom of the Romans to hand over anyone before the accused had met his accusers face to face and had been given an opportunity to make a defense against the accusation.

<sup>17</sup> So after they came back here with me, I did not postpone the case, but the next day I sat on the judgment seat and ordered the man to be brought.

<sup>18</sup> When his accusers stood up, they did not charge him with any of the evil deeds I had suspected.

<sup>19</sup> Rather they had several points of disagreement with him about their own religion and about a man named Jesus who was dead, whom Paul claimed to be alive.

<sup>20</sup> Because I was at a loss how I could investigate these matters, I asked if he were willing to go to Jerusalem and be tried there on these charges.

<sup>21</sup> But when Paul appealed to be kept in custody for the decision of His Majesty the Emperor, I ordered him to be kept under guard until I could send him to Caesar.”

<sup>22</sup> Agrippa said to Festus, “I would also like to hear the man myself.” “Tomorrow,” he replied, “you will hear him.”

Paul Before King Agrippa and Bernice

<sup>23</sup> So the next day Agrippa and Bernice came with great pomp and entered the audience hall, along with the senior military officers and the prominent men of the city. When Festus gave the order, Paul was brought in.

<sup>24</sup> Then Festus said, “King Agrippa, and all you who are present here with us, you see this man about whom the entire Jewish populace petitioned me both in Jerusalem and here, shouting loudly that he ought not to live any longer.

<sup>25</sup> But I found that he had done nothing that deserved death, and when he appealed to His Majesty the Emperor, I decided to send him.

<sup>26</sup> But I have nothing definite to write to my lord about him. Therefore I have brought him before you all, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after this preliminary hearing I may have something to write.

<sup>27</sup> For it seems unreasonable to me to send a prisoner without clearly indicating the charges against him.”

26

<sup>1</sup> So Agrippa said to Paul, “You have permission to speak for yourself.” Then Paul held out his hand and began his defense:

<sup>2</sup> “Regarding all the things I have been accused of by the Jews, King Agrippa, I consider myself fortunate that I am about to make my defense before you today, <sup>3</sup> because you are especially familiar with all the customs and controversial issues of the Jews. Therefore I ask you to listen to me patiently.

<sup>4</sup> Now all the Jews know the way I lived from my youth, spending my life from the beginning among my own people and in Jerusalem.

<sup>5</sup> They know, because they have known me from time past, if they are willing to testify, that according to the strictest party of our religion, I lived as a Pharisee.

<sup>6</sup> And now I stand here on trial because of my hope in the promise made by God to our ancestors, <sup>7</sup> a promise that our twelve tribes hope to attain as they earnestly serve God night and day. Concerning this hope the Jews are accusing me, Your Majesty!

<sup>8</sup> Why do you people think it is unbelievable that God raises the dead?

<sup>9</sup> Of course, I myself was convinced that it was necessary to do many things hostile to the name of Jesus the Nazarene.

<sup>10</sup> And that is what I did in Jerusalem: Not only did I lock up many of the saints in prisons by the authority I received from the chief priests, but I also cast my vote against them when they were sentenced to death.

<sup>11</sup> I punished them often in all the synagogues and tried to force them to blaspheme. Because I was so furiously enraged at them, I went to persecute them even in foreign cities.

<sup>12</sup> “While doing this very thing, as I was going to Damascus with authority and complete power from the chief priests, <sup>13</sup> about noon along the road, Your Majesty, I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining everywhere around me and those traveling with me.

<sup>14</sup> When we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in Aramaic, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? You are hurting yourself by kicking against the goads.’

<sup>15</sup> So I said, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ And the Lord replied, ‘I am Jesus whom you are persecuting.

<sup>16</sup> But get up and stand on your feet, for I have appeared to you for this reason, to designate you in advance as a servant and witness to the things you have seen and to the things in which I will appear to you.

<sup>17</sup> I will rescue you from your own people and from the Gentiles, to whom I am sending you

<sup>18</sup> to open their eyes so that they turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, so that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a share among those who are sanctified by faith in me.’

<sup>20</sup> but I declared to those in Damascus first, and then to those in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, performing deeds consistent with repentance.

<sup>21</sup> For this reason the Jews seized me in the temple courts and were trying to kill me.

<sup>22</sup> I have experienced help from God to this day, and so I stand testifying to both small and great, saying nothing except what the prophets and Moses said was going to happen:

<sup>23</sup> that the Christ was to suffer and be the first to rise from the dead, to proclaim light both to our people and to the Gentiles.”

<sup>24</sup> As Paul was saying these things in his defense, Festus exclaimed loudly, “You have lost your mind, Paul! Your great learning is driving you insane!”

<sup>25</sup> But Paul replied, "I have not lost my mind, most excellent Festus, but am speaking true and rational words.

<sup>26</sup> For the king knows about these things, and I am speaking freely to him, because I cannot believe that any of these things has escaped his notice, for this was not done in a corner.

<sup>28</sup> Agrippa said to Paul, "In such a short time are you persuading me to become a Christian?"

<sup>29</sup> Paul replied, "I pray to God that whether in a short or a long time not only you but also all those who are listening to me today could become such as I am, except for these chains."

<sup>30</sup> So the king got up, and with him the governor and Bernice and those sitting with them,

<sup>31</sup> and as they were leaving they said to one another, "This man is not doing anything deserving death or imprisonment."

<sup>32</sup> Agrippa said to Festus, "This man could have been released if he had not appealed to Caesar."

27

<sup>1</sup> When it was decided we would sail to Italy, they handed over Paul and some other prisoners to a centurion of the Augustan Cohort named Julius.

<sup>2</sup> We went on board a ship from Adramyttium that was about to sail to various ports along the coast of the province of Asia and put out to sea, accompanied by Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica.

<sup>3</sup> The next day we put in at Sidon, and Julius, treating Paul kindly, allowed him to go to his friends so they could provide him with what he needed.

<sup>4</sup> From there we put out to sea and sailed under the lee of Cyprus because the winds were against us.

<sup>5</sup> After we had sailed across the open sea off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we put in at Myra in Lycia.

<sup>6</sup> There the centurion found a ship from Alexandria sailing for Italy, and he put us aboard it.

<sup>7</sup> We sailed slowly for many days and arrived with difficulty off Cnidus. Because the wind prevented us from going any farther, we sailed under the lee of Crete off Salmone.

<sup>8</sup> With difficulty we sailed along the coast of Crete and came to a place called Fair Havens that was near the town of Lasea.

Caught in a Violent Storm

<sup>9</sup> Since considerable time had passed and the voyage was now dangerous because the fast was already over, Paul advised them,

<sup>10</sup> "Men, I can see the voyage is going to end in disaster and great loss not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives."

<sup>11</sup> But the centurion was more convinced by the captain and the ship's owner than by what Paul said.

<sup>12</sup> Because the harbor was not suitable to spend the winter in, the majority decided to put out to sea from there. They hoped that somehow they could reach Phoenix, a harbor of Crete facing southwest and northwest, and spend the winter there.

<sup>13</sup> When a gentle south wind sprang up, they thought they could carry out their purpose, so they weighed anchor and sailed close along the coast of Crete.

<sup>14</sup> Not long after this, a hurricane-force wind called the northeaster blew down from the island.

<sup>15</sup> When the ship was caught in it and could not head into the wind, we gave way to it and were driven along.

<sup>16</sup> As we ran under the lee of a small island called Cauda, we were able with difficulty to get the ship's boat under control.

<sup>17</sup> After the crew had hoisted it aboard, they used supports to undergird the ship. Fearing they would run aground on the Syrtis, they lowered the sea anchor, thus letting themselves be driven along.

<sup>18</sup> The next day, because we were violently battered by the storm, they began throwing the cargo overboard, <sup>19</sup> and on the third day they threw the ship's gear overboard with their own hands.

<sup>20</sup> When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days and a violent storm continued to batter us, we finally abandoned all hope of being saved.

<sup>21</sup> Since many of them had no desire to eat, Paul stood up among them and said, "Men, you should have listened to me and not put out to sea from Crete, thus avoiding this damage and loss.

<sup>22</sup> And now I advise you to keep up your courage, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only the ship will be lost.

<sup>23</sup> For last night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve came to me

<sup>24</sup> and said, 'Do not be afraid, Paul! You must stand before Caesar, and God has graciously granted you the safety of all who are sailing with you.'

<sup>25</sup> Therefore keep up your courage, men, for I have faith in God that it will be just as I have been told.

<sup>27</sup> When the fourteenth night had come, while we were being driven across the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors suspected they were approaching some land.

<sup>28</sup> They took soundings and found the water was twenty fathoms deep; when they had sailed a little farther they took soundings again and found it was fifteen fathoms deep.

<sup>29</sup> Because they were afraid that we would run aground on the rocky coast, they threw out four anchors from the stern and wished for day to appear.

<sup>30</sup> Then when the sailors tried to escape from the ship and were lowering the ship's boat into the sea, pretending that they were going to put out anchors from the bow,

<sup>31</sup> Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men stay with the ship, you cannot be saved."

<sup>32</sup> Then the soldiers cut the ropes of the ship's boat and let it drift away.

<sup>33</sup> As day was about to dawn, Paul urged them all to take some food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day you have been in suspense and have gone without food; you have eaten nothing.

<sup>34</sup> Therefore I urge you to take some food, for this is important for your survival. For not one of you will lose a hair from his head."

<sup>35</sup> After he said this, Paul took bread and gave thanks to God in front of them all, broke it, and began to eat.

<sup>36</sup> So all of them were encouraged and took food themselves.

<sup>37</sup> (We were in all two hundred seventy-six persons on the ship.)

<sup>38</sup> When they had eaten enough to be satisfied, they lightened the ship by throwing the wheat into the sea.

Paul is Shipwrecked

<sup>39</sup> When day came, they did not recognize the land, but they noticed a bay with a beach, where they decided to run the ship aground if they could.

<sup>40</sup> So they slipped the anchors and left them in the sea, at the same time loosening the linkage that bound the steering oars together. Then they hoisted the foresail to the wind and steered toward the beach.

<sup>41</sup> But they encountered a patch of crosscurrents and ran the ship aground; the bow stuck fast and could not be moved, but the stern was being broken up by the force of the waves.

<sup>42</sup> Now the soldiers' plan was to kill the prisoners so that none of them would escape by swimming away.

<sup>43</sup> But the centurion, wanting to save Paul's life, prevented them from carrying out their plan. He ordered those who could swim to jump overboard first and get to land, <sup>44</sup> and the rest were to follow, some on planks and some on pieces of the ship. And in this way all were brought safely to land.

28

<sup>1</sup> After we had safely reached shore, we learned that the island was called Malta.

<sup>2</sup> The local inhabitants showed us extraordinary kindness, for they built a fire and welcomed us all because it had started to rain and was cold.

<sup>3</sup> When Paul had gathered a bundle of brushwood and was putting it on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat and fastened itself on his hand.

<sup>4</sup> When the local people saw the creature hanging from Paul's hand, they said to one another, "No doubt this man is a murderer! Although he has escaped from the sea, Justice herself has not allowed him to live!"

<sup>6</sup> But they were expecting that he was going to swell up or suddenly drop dead. So after they had waited a long time and had seen nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and said he was a god.

<sup>7</sup> Now in the region around that place were fields belonging to the chief official of the island, named Publius, who welcomed us and entertained us hospitably as guests for three days.

<sup>8</sup> The father of Publius lay sick in bed, suffering from fever and dysentery. Paul went in to see him and after praying, placed his hands on him and healed him.

<sup>9</sup> After this had happened, many of the people on the island who were sick also came and were healed.

<sup>10</sup> They also bestowed many honors, and when we were preparing to sail, they gave us all the supplies we needed.

Paul Finally Reaches Rome

<sup>11</sup> After three months we put out to sea in an Alexandrian ship that had wintered at the island and had the "Heavenly Twins" as its figurehead.

<sup>12</sup> We put in at Syracuse and stayed there three days.

<sup>13</sup> From there we cast off and arrived at Rhegium, and after one day a south wind sprang up and on the second day we came to Puteoli.

<sup>14</sup> There we found some brothers and were invited to stay with them seven days. And in this way we came to Rome.

<sup>15</sup> The brothers from there, when they heard about us, came as far as the Forum of Appius and Three Taverns to meet us. When he saw them, Paul thanked God and took courage.

<sup>16</sup> When we entered Rome, Paul was allowed to live by himself, with the soldier who was guarding him.

Paul Addresses the Jewish Community in Rome

<sup>17</sup> After three days Paul called the local Jewish leaders together. When they had assembled, he said to them, "Brothers, although I had done nothing against our people or the customs of our ancestors, from Jerusalem I was handed over as a prisoner to the Romans.

<sup>18</sup> When they had heard my case, they wanted to release me, because there was no basis for a death sentence against me.

<sup>19</sup> But when the Jews objected, I was forced to appeal to Caesar – not that I had some charge to bring against my own people.

<sup>20</sup> So for this reason I have asked to see you and speak with you, for I am bound with this chain because of the hope of Israel.”

<sup>21</sup> They replied, “We have received no letters from Judea about you, nor have any of the brothers come from there and reported or said anything bad about you.

<sup>22</sup> But we would like to hear from you what you think, for regarding this sect we know that people everywhere speak against it.”

<sup>23</sup> They set a day to meet with him, and they came to him where he was staying in even greater numbers. From morning until evening he explained things to them, testifying about the kingdom of God and trying to convince them about Jesus from both the law of Moses and the prophets.

<sup>24</sup> Some were convinced by what he said, but others refused to believe.

<sup>25</sup> So they began to leave, unable to agree among themselves, after Paul made one last statement: “The Holy Spirit spoke rightly to your ancestors through the prophet Isaiah

<sup>26</sup> when he said,
‘ Go to this people and say,
“ You will keep on hearing, but will never understand, and you will keep on looking, but will never perceive.

<sup>27</sup> For the heart of this people has become dull, and their ears are hard of hearing, and they have closed their eyes,
so that they would not see with their eyes
and hear with their ears
and understand with their heart
and turn, and I would heal them.” ’

<sup>28</sup> “Therefore be advised that this salvation from God has been sent to the Gentiles; they will listen!”

<sup>29</sup> *

<sup>30</sup> Paul lived there two whole years in his own rented quarters and welcomed all who came to him, <sup>31</sup> proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with complete boldness and without restriction.

Romans

Salutation

<sup>1</sup> From Paul, a slave of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God.

<sup>4</sup> who was appointed the Son-of-God-in-power according to the Holy Spirit by the resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord.

<sup>5</sup> Through him we have received grace and our apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith among all the Gentiles on behalf of his name.

<sup>6</sup> You also are among them, called to belong to Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup> To all those loved by God in Rome, called to be saints: Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

Paul's Desire to Visit Rome

<sup>8</sup> First of all, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world.

<sup>9</sup> For God, whom I serve in my spirit by preaching the gospel of his Son, is my witness that I continually remember you

<sup>10</sup> and I always ask in my prayers, if perhaps now at last I may succeed in visiting you according to the will of God.

<sup>11</sup> For I long to see you, so that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to strengthen you, <sup>12</sup> that is, that we may be mutually comforted by one another's faith, both yours and mine.

<sup>13</sup> I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that I often intended to come to you (and was prevented until now), so that I may have some fruit even among you, just as I already have among the rest of the Gentiles.

<sup>14</sup> I am a debtor both to the Greeks and to the barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish.

<sup>15</sup> Thus I am eager also to preach the gospel to you who are in Rome.

The Power of the Gospel

<sup>16</sup> For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is God's power for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.

<sup>17</sup> For the righteousness of God is revealed in the gospel from faith to faith, just as it is written, "The righteous by faith will live."

The Condemnation of the Unrighteous

<sup>18</sup> For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of people who suppress the truth by their unrighteousness, <sup>19</sup> because what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has made it plain to them.

<sup>20</sup> For since the creation of the world his invisible attributes – his eternal power and divine nature – have been clearly seen, because they are understood through what has been made. So people are without excuse.

<sup>21</sup> For although they knew God, they did not glorify him as God or give him thanks, but they became futile in their thoughts and their senseless hearts were darkened.

<sup>23</sup> and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for an image resembling mortal human beings or birds or four-footed animals or reptiles.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore God gave them over in the desires of their hearts to impurity, to dishonor their bodies among themselves.

<sup>25</sup> They exchanged the truth of God for a lie and worshiped and served the creation rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen.

<sup>26</sup> For this reason God gave them over to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged the natural sexual relations for unnatural ones, <sup>27</sup> and likewise the men also abandoned natural relations with women and were inflamed in their passions for one another. Men committed shameless acts with men and received in themselves the due penalty for their error.

<sup>28</sup> And just as they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them over to a depraved mind, to do what should not be done.

<sup>29</sup> They are filled with every kind of unrighteousness, wickedness, covetousness, malice. They are rife with envy, murder, strife, deceit, hostility. They are gossips,

<sup>30</sup> slanderers, haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, contrivers of all sorts of evil, disobedient to parents,

<sup>32</sup> Although they fully know God's righteous decree that those who practice such things deserve to die, they not only do them but also approve of those who practice them.

2

<sup>1</sup> Therefore you are without excuse, whoever you are, when you judge someone else. For on whatever grounds you judge another, you condemn yourself, because you who judge practice the same things.

<sup>2</sup> Now we know that God's judgment is in accordance with truth against those who practice such things.

<sup>3</sup> And do you think, whoever you are, when you judge those who practice such things and yet do them yourself, that you will escape God's judgment?

<sup>4</sup> Or do you have contempt for the wealth of his kindness, forbearance, and patience, and yet do not know that God's kindness leads you to repentance?

<sup>5</sup> But because of your stubbornness and your unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath for yourselves in the day of wrath, when God's righteous judgment is revealed!

<sup>6</sup> He will reward each one according to his works:

<sup>7</sup> eternal life to those who by perseverance in good works seek glory and honor and immortality, <sup>8</sup> but wrath and anger to those who live in selfish ambition and do not obey the truth but follow unrighteousness.

<sup>9</sup> There will be affliction and distress on everyone who does evil, on the Jew first and also the Greek, <sup>10</sup> but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, for the Jew first and also the Greek.

<sup>12</sup> For all who have sinned apart from the law will also perish apart from the law, and all who have sinned under the law will be judged by the law.

<sup>13</sup> For it is not those who hear the law who are righteous before God, but those who do the law will be declared righteous.

<sup>14</sup> For whenever the Gentiles, who do not have the law, do by nature the things required by the law, these who do not have the law are a law to themselves.

<sup>15</sup> They show that the work of the law is written in their hearts, as their conscience bears witness and their conflicting thoughts accuse or else defend them, <sup>16</sup> on the day when God will judge the secrets of human hearts, according to my gospel through Christ Jesus.

The Condemnation of the Jew

<sup>17</sup> But if you call yourself a Jew and rely on the law and boast of your relationship to God

<sup>18</sup> and know his will and approve the superior things because you receive instruction from the law,

<sup>19</sup> and if you are convinced that you yourself are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness,

<sup>20</sup> an educator of the senseless, a teacher of little children, because you have in the law the essential features of knowledge and of the truth –

<sup>21</sup> therefore you who teach someone else, do you not teach yourself? You who preach against stealing, do you steal?

<sup>22</sup> You who tell others not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples?

<sup>23</sup> You who boast in the law dishonor God by transgressing the law!

<sup>24</sup> For just as it is written, “ the name of God is being blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you.”

<sup>25</sup> For circumcision has its value if you practice the law, but if you break the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.

<sup>26</sup> Therefore if the uncircumcised man obeys the righteous requirements of the law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision?

<sup>27</sup> And will not the physically uncircumcised man who keeps the law judge you who, despite the written code and circumcision, transgress the law?

<sup>28</sup> For a person is not a Jew who is one outwardly, nor is circumcision something that is outward in the flesh, <sup>29</sup> but someone is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is of the heart by the Spirit and not by the written code. This person’s praise is not from people but from God.

3

<sup>2</sup> Actually, there are many advantages. First of all, the Jews were entrusted with the oracles of God.

<sup>3</sup> What then? If some did not believe, does their unbelief nullify the faithfulness of God?

<sup>4</sup> Absolutely not! Let God be proven true, and every human being shown up as a liar, just as it is written: “ so that you will be justified in your words and will prevail when you are judged.”

<sup>5</sup> But if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what shall we say? The God who inflicts wrath is not unrighteous, is he? (I am speaking in human terms.)

<sup>7</sup> For if by my lie the truth of God enhances his glory, why am I still actually being judged as a sinner?

<sup>8</sup> And why not say, “Let us do evil so that good may come of it”? – as some who slander us allege that we say. (Their condemnation is deserved!)

The Condemnation of the World

<sup>9</sup> What then? Are we better off? Certainly not, for we have already charged that Jews and Greeks alike are all under sin,

<sup>10</sup> just as it is written:

“ There is no one righteous, not even one,
 11 there is no one who understands,
there is no one who seeks God.
 12 All have turned away,
together they have become worthless;
there is no one who shows kindness, not even one.”
 13 Their throats are open graves,
they deceive with their tongues,
the poison of asps is under their lips.”
 14 Their mouths are full of cursing and bitterness.”
 15 Their feet are swift to shed blood,
 16 ruin and misery are in their paths,
 17 and the way of peace they have not known.”
 18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.”

19 Now we know that whatever the law says, it says to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced and the whole world may be held accountable to God.

20 For no one is declared righteous before him by the works of the law, for through the law comes the knowledge of sin.

21 But now apart from the law the righteousness of God (which is attested by the law and the prophets) has been disclosed –

22 namely, the righteousness of God through the faithfulness of Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction, 23 for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.

24 But they are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus.

25 God publicly displayed him at his death as the mercy seat accessible through faith. This was to demonstrate his righteousness, because God in his forbearance had passed over the sins previously committed.

26 This was also to demonstrate his righteousness in the present time, so that he would be just and the justifier of the one who lives because of Jesus’ faithfulness.

27 Where, then, is boasting? It is excluded! By what principle? Of works? No, but by the principle of faith!

28 For we consider that a person is declared righteous by faith apart from the works of the law.

29 Or is God the God of the Jews only? Is he not the God of the Gentiles too? Yes, of the Gentiles too!

30 Since God is one, he will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith.

31 Do we then nullify the law through faith? Absolutely not! Instead we uphold the law.

4

1 What then shall we say that Abraham, our ancestor according to the flesh, has discovered regarding this matter?

2 For if Abraham was declared righteous by the works of the law, he has something to boast about – but not before God.

3 For what does the scripture say? “*Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness*.*”

4 Now to the one who works, his pay is not credited due to grace but due to obligation.

<sup>5</sup> But to the one who does not work, but believes in the one who declares the ungodly righteous, his faith is credited as righteousness.

<sup>6</sup> So even David himself speaks regarding the blessedness of the man to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

<sup>7</sup> “ Blessed | strong="G3107" are those whose | strong="G3739" lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered;

<sup>8</sup> *blessed is the one against whom the Lord will never count sin*.*”

<sup>9</sup> Is this blessedness then for the circumcision or also for the uncircumcision? For we say, “faith was credited to Abraham as righteousness.”

<sup>10</sup> How then was it credited to him? Was he circumcised at the time, or not? No, he was not circumcised but uncircumcised!

<sup>11</sup> And he received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised, so that he would become the father of all those who believe but have never been circumcised, that they too could have righteousness credited to them.

<sup>12</sup> And he is also the father of the circumcised, who are not only circumcised, but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham possessed when he was still uncircumcised.

<sup>13</sup> For the promise to Abraham or to his descendants that he would inherit the world was not fulfilled through the law, but through the righteousness that comes by faith.

<sup>14</sup> For if they become heirs by the law, faith is empty and the promise is nullified.

<sup>15</sup> For the law brings wrath, because where there is no law there is no transgression either.

<sup>16</sup> For this reason it is by faith so that it may be by grace, with the result that the promise may be certain to all the descendants – not only to those who are under the law, but also to those who have the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all

<sup>17</sup> (as it is written, “I have made you the father of many nations”). He is our father in the presence of God whom he believed – the God who makes the dead alive and summons the things that do not yet exist as though they already do.

<sup>18</sup> Against hope Abraham believed in hope with the result that he became the father of many nations according to the pronouncement, “so will your descendants be.”

<sup>19</sup> Without being weak in faith, he considered his own body as dead (because he was about one hundred years old) and the deadness of Sarah’s womb.

<sup>20</sup> He did not waver in unbelief about the promise of God but was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God.

<sup>21</sup> He was fully convinced that what God promised he was also able to do.

<sup>23</sup> But the statement it was credited to him was not written only for Abraham’s sake, <sup>24</sup> but also for our sake, to whom it will be credited, those who believe in the one who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead.

<sup>25</sup> He was given over because of our transgressions and was raised for the sake of our justification.

5

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, since we have been declared righteous by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>2</sup> through whom we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in the hope of God’s glory.

<sup>3</sup> Not only this, but we also rejoice in sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance,

<sup>5</sup> And hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

<sup>6</sup> For while we were still helpless, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly.

<sup>7</sup> (For rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person perhaps someone might possibly dare to die.)

<sup>8</sup> But God demonstrates his own love for us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

<sup>9</sup> Much more then, because we have now been declared righteous by his blood, we will be saved through him from God's wrath.

<sup>10</sup> For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more, since we have been reconciled, will we be saved by his life?

<sup>11</sup> Not only this, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received this reconciliation.

The Amplification of Justification

<sup>12</sup> So then, just as sin entered the world through one man and death through sin, and so death spread to all people because all sinned –

<sup>13</sup> for before the law was given, sin was in the world, but there is no accounting for sin when there is no law.

<sup>14</sup> Yet death reigned from Adam until Moses even over those who did not sin in the same way that Adam (who is a type of the coming one) transgressed.

<sup>15</sup> But the gracious gift is not like the transgression. For if the many died through the transgression of the one man, how much more did the grace of God and the gift by the grace of the one man Jesus Christ multiply to the many!

<sup>16</sup> And the gift is not like the one who sinned. For judgment, resulting from the one transgression, led to condemnation, but the gracious gift from the many failures led to justification.

<sup>17</sup> For if, by the transgression of the one man, death reigned through the one, how much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, Jesus Christ!

<sup>18</sup> Consequently, just as condemnation for all people came through one transgression, so too through the one righteous act came righteousness leading to life for all people.

<sup>19</sup> For just as through the disobedience of the one man many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of one man many will be made righteous.

<sup>20</sup> Now the law came in so that the transgression may increase, but where sin increased, grace multiplied all the more,

<sup>21</sup> so that just as sin reigned in death, so also grace will reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6

<sup>1</sup> What shall we say then? Are we to remain in sin so that grace may increase?

<sup>2</sup> Absolutely not! How can we who died to sin still live in it?

<sup>3</sup> Or do you not know that as many as were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?

<sup>4</sup> Therefore we have been buried with him through baptism into death, in order that just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we too may live a new life.

<sup>5</sup> For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we will certainly also be united in the likeness of his resurrection.

<sup>6</sup> We know that our old man was crucified with him so that the body of sin would no longer dominate us, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin.

<sup>7</sup> (For someone who has died has been freed from sin.)

<sup>8</sup> Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him.

<sup>9</sup> We know that since Christ has been raised from the dead, he is never going to die again; death no longer has mastery over him.

<sup>10</sup> For the death he died, he died to sin once for all, but the life he lives, he lives to God.

<sup>11</sup> So you too consider yourselves dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its desires, <sup>13</sup> and do not present your members to sin as instruments to be used for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who are alive from the dead and your members to God as instruments to be used for righteousness.

<sup>14</sup> For sin will have no mastery over you, because you are not under law but under grace.

The Believer's Enslavement to God's Righteousness

<sup>15</sup> What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? Absolutely not!

<sup>16</sup> Do you not know that if you present yourselves as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one you obey, either of sin resulting in death, or obedience resulting in righteousness?

<sup>17</sup> But thanks be to God that though you were slaves to sin, you obeyed from the heart that pattern of teaching you were entrusted to,

<sup>18</sup> and having been freed from sin, you became enslaved to righteousness.

<sup>19</sup> (I am speaking in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh.)

For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification.

<sup>20</sup> For when you were slaves of sin, you were free with regard to righteousness.

<sup>21</sup> So what benefit did you then reap from those things that you are now ashamed of? For the end of those things is death.

<sup>22</sup> But now, freed from sin and enslaved to God, you have your benefit leading to sanctification, and the end is eternal life.

<sup>23</sup> For the payoff of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7

<sup>1</sup> Or do you not know, brothers and sisters (for I am speaking to those who know the law), that the law is lord over a person as long as he lives?

<sup>2</sup> For a married woman is bound by law to her husband as long as he lives, but if her husband dies, she is released from the law of the marriage.

<sup>3</sup> So then, if she is joined to another man while her husband is alive, she will be called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, she is free from that law, and if she is joined to another man, she is not an adulteress.

<sup>4</sup> So, my brothers and sisters, you also died to the law through the body of Christ, so that you could be joined to another, to the one who was raised from the dead, to bear fruit to God.

<sup>5</sup> For when we were in the flesh, the sinful desires, aroused by the law, were active in the members of our body to bear fruit for death.

<sup>6</sup> But now we have been released from the law, because we have died to what controlled us, so that we may serve in the new life of the Spirit and not under the old written code.

<sup>7</sup> What shall we say then? Is the law sin? Absolutely not! Certainly, I would not have known sin except through the law. For indeed I would not have known what it means to desire something belonging to someone else if the law had not said, "Do not covet."

<sup>8</sup> But sin, seizing the opportunity through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of wrong desires. For apart from the law, sin is dead.

<sup>9</sup> And I was once alive apart from the law, but with the coming of the commandment sin became alive

<sup>10</sup> and I died. So I found that the very commandment that was intended to bring life brought death!

<sup>11</sup> For sin, seizing the opportunity through the commandment, deceived me and through it I died.

<sup>12</sup> So then, the law is holy, and the commandment is holy, righteous, and good.

<sup>13</sup> Did that which is good, then, become death to me? Absolutely not! But sin, so that it would be shown to be sin, produced death in me through what is good, so that through the commandment sin would become utterly sinful.

<sup>14</sup> For we know that the law is spiritual – but I am unspiritual, sold into slavery to sin.

<sup>15</sup> For I don't understand what I am doing. For I do not do what I want – instead, I do what I hate.

<sup>16</sup> But if I do what I don't want, I agree that the law is good.

<sup>17</sup> But now it is no longer me doing it, but sin that lives in me.

<sup>18</sup> For I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my flesh. For I want to do the good, but I cannot do it.

<sup>19</sup> For I do not do the good I want, but I do the very evil I do not want!

<sup>20</sup> Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer me doing it but sin that lives in me.

<sup>21</sup> So, I find the law that when I want to do good, evil is present with me.

<sup>22</sup> For I delight in the law of God in my inner being.

<sup>23</sup> But I see a different law in my members waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that is in my members.

<sup>24</sup> Wretched man that I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death?

<sup>25</sup> Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I serve the law of sin.

8

<sup>2</sup> For the law of the life-giving Spirit in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and death.

<sup>3</sup> For God achieved what the law could not do because it was weakened through the flesh. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and concerning sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, <sup>4</sup> so that the righteous requirement of the law may be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

<sup>5</sup> For those who live according to the flesh have their outlook shaped by the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit have their outlook shaped by the things of the Spirit.

<sup>6</sup> For the outlook of the flesh is death, but the outlook of the Spirit is life and peace, <sup>7</sup> because the outlook of the flesh is hostile to God, for it does not submit to the law of God, nor is it able to do so.

<sup>8</sup> Those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

<sup>9</sup> You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God lives in you. Now if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, this person does not belong to him.

<sup>10</sup> But if Christ is in you, your body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is your life because of righteousness.

<sup>11</sup> Moreover if the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead lives in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will also make your mortal bodies alive through his Spirit who lives in you.

<sup>12</sup> So then, brothers and sisters, we are under obligation, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh

<sup>13</sup> (for if you live according to the flesh, you will die), but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body you will live.

<sup>14</sup> For all who are led by the Spirit of God are the sons of God.

<sup>15</sup> For you did not receive the spirit of slavery leading again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, "Abba, Father."

<sup>16</sup> The Spirit himself bears witness to our spirit that we are God's children.

<sup>17</sup> And if children, then heirs (namely, heirs of God and also fellow heirs with Christ) – if indeed we suffer with him so we may also be glorified with him.

<sup>18</sup> For I consider that our present sufferings cannot even be compared to the glory that will be revealed to us.

<sup>19</sup> For the creation eagerly waits for the revelation of the sons of God.

<sup>20</sup> For the creation was subjected to futility – not willingly but because of God who subjected it – in hope <sup>21</sup> that the creation itself will also be set free from the bondage of decay into the glorious freedom of God's children.

<sup>22</sup> For we know that the whole creation groans and suffers together until now.

<sup>23</sup> Not only this, but we ourselves also, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we eagerly await our adoption, the redemption of our bodies.

<sup>24</sup> For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope, because who hopes for what he sees?

<sup>25</sup> But if we hope for what we do not see, we eagerly wait for it with endurance.

<sup>26</sup> In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness, for we do not know how we should pray, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with inexpressible groanings.

<sup>27</sup> And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes on behalf of the saints according to God's will.

<sup>28</sup> And we know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose, <sup>29</sup> because those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that his Son would be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters.

<sup>30</sup> And those he predestined, he also called; and those he called, he also justified; and those he justified, he also glorified.

<sup>31</sup> What then shall we say about these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?

<sup>32</sup> Indeed, he who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all – how will he not also, along with him, freely give us all things?

<sup>33</sup> Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies.

<sup>34</sup> Who is the one who will condemn? Christ is the one who died (and more than that, he was raised), who is at the right hand of God, and who also is interceding for us.

<sup>35</sup> Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will trouble, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?

<sup>36</sup> As it is written, "For your sake we encounter death all day long; we were considered as sheep to be slaughtered."

<sup>37</sup> No, in all these things we have complete victory through him who loved us!

<sup>38</sup> For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor heavenly rulers, nor things that are present, nor things to come, nor powers, <sup>39</sup> nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in creation will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

9

<sup>1</sup> I am telling the truth in Christ (I am not lying!), for my conscience assures me in the Holy Spirit –

<sup>3</sup> For I could wish that I myself were accursed – cut off from Christ – for the sake of my people, my fellow countrymen, <sup>4</sup> who are Israelites. To them belong the adoption as sons, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the temple worship, and the promises.

<sup>5</sup> To them belong the patriarchs, and from them, by human descent, came the Christ, who is God over all, blessed forever! Amen.

<sup>6</sup> It is not as though the word of God had failed. For not all those who are descended from Israel are truly Israel,

<sup>7</sup> nor are all the children Abraham's true descendants; rather "through Isaac will your descendants be counted."

<sup>8</sup> This means it is not the children of the flesh who are the children of God; rather, the children of promise are counted as descendants.

<sup>9</sup> For this is what the promise declared: "About a year from now I will return and Sarah will have a son."

<sup>10</sup> Not only that, but when Rebekah had conceived children by one man, our ancestor Isaac –

<sup>11</sup> even before they were born or had done anything good or bad (so that God's purpose in election would stand, not by works but by his calling) –

<sup>12</sup> it was said to her, "The older will serve the younger,"

<sup>13</sup> just as it is written: "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."

<sup>14</sup> What shall we say then? Is there injustice with God? Absolutely not!

<sup>15</sup> For he says to Moses: "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."

<sup>16</sup> So then, it does not depend on human desire or exertion, but on God who shows mercy.

<sup>17</sup> For the scripture says to Pharaoh: "For this very purpose I have raised you up, that I may demonstrate my power in you, and that my name may be proclaimed in all the earth."

<sup>18</sup> So then, God has mercy on whom he chooses to have mercy, and he hardens whom he chooses to harden.

<sup>19</sup> You will say to me then, "Why does he still find fault? For who has ever resisted his will?"

<sup>20</sup> But who indeed are you – a mere human being – to talk back to God? Does what is molded say to the molder, "Why have you made me like this?"

<sup>21</sup> Has the potter no right to make from the same lump of clay one vessel for special use and another for ordinary use?

<sup>22</sup> But what if God, willing to demonstrate his wrath and to make known his power, has endured with much patience the objects of wrath prepared for destruction?

<sup>23</sup> And what if he is willing to make known the wealth of his glory on the objects of mercy that he has prepared beforehand for glory –

<sup>24</sup> even us, whom he has called, not only from the Jews but also from the Gentiles?

<sup>25</sup> As he also says in Hosea:

"I will call those who were not my people, 'My people,' and I will call her who was unloved, 'My beloved.'"*

<sup>26</sup> "*And in the very place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,'**" there they will be called 'sons of the living God.' "

<sup>27</sup> And Isaiah cries out on behalf of Israel, "Though the number of the children of Israel are as the sand of the sea, only the remnant will be saved,

<sup>29</sup> Just as Isaiah predicted,

*"If the Lord of armies had not left us descendants,*
we would have become like Sodom, and we would have resembled Gomorrah."*

Israel's Rejection Culpable

<sup>30</sup> What shall we say then? – that the Gentiles who did not pursue righteousness obtained it, that is, a righteousness that is by faith, <sup>31</sup> but Israel even though pursuing a law of righteousness did not attain it.

<sup>32</sup> Why not? Because they pursued it not by faith but (as if it were possible) by works. They stumbled over the stumbling stone,

<sup>33</sup> just as it is written,

"Look, I am laying in Zion a stone that will cause people to stumble and a rock that will make them fall, yet the one who believes in him will not be put to shame."

10

<sup>1</sup> Brothers and sisters, my heart's desire and prayer to God on behalf of my fellow Israelites is for their salvation.

<sup>2</sup> For I can testify that they are zealous for God, but their zeal is not in line with the truth.

<sup>3</sup> For ignoring the righteousness that comes from God, and seeking instead to establish their own righteousness, they did not submit to God's righteousness.

<sup>4</sup> For Christ is the end of the law, with the result that there is righteousness for everyone who believes.

<sup>5</sup> For Moses writes about the righteousness that is by the law: "The one who does these things will live by them."

<sup>6</sup> But the righteousness that is by faith says: "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'" (that is, to bring Christ down)

<sup>7</sup> or "Who will descend into the abyss?" (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead).

<sup>8</sup> But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we preach), <sup>9</sup> because if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

<sup>10</sup> For with the heart one believes and thus has righteousness and with the mouth one confesses and thus has salvation.

<sup>12</sup> For there is no distinction between the Jew and the Greek, for the same Lord is Lord of all, who richly blesses all who call on him.

<sup>13</sup> For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

<sup>14</sup> How are they to call on one they have not believed in? And how are they to believe in one they have not heard of? And how are they to hear without someone preaching to them?

<sup>15</sup> And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, *"How timely is the arrival of those who proclaim the good news*."*

<sup>16</sup> But not all have obeyed the good news, for Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our report?"

<sup>17</sup> Consequently faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the preached word of Christ.

<sup>18</sup> But I ask, have they not heard? Yes, they have: Their voice has gone out to all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world.

<sup>19</sup> But again I ask, didn't Israel understand? First Moses says, "I will make you jealous by those who are not a nation; with a senseless nation I will provoke you to anger."

<sup>20</sup> And Isaiah is even bold enough to say, "I was found by those who did not seek me; I became well known to those who did not ask for me."

<sup>21</sup> But about Israel he says, "All day long I held out my hands to this disobedient and stubborn people!"

11

<sup>1</sup> So I ask, God has not rejected his people, has he? Absolutely not! For I too am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, from the tribe of Benjamin.

<sup>2</sup> God has not rejected his people whom he foreknew! Do you not know what the scripture says about Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel?

<sup>3</sup> "Lord, they have killed your prophets, they have demolished your altars; I alone am left and they are seeking my life!"

<sup>4</sup> But what was the divine response to him? "*I have kept for myself seven thousand people who have not bent the knee to Baal*.*"

<sup>5</sup> So in the same way at the present time there is a remnant chosen by grace.

<sup>6</sup> And if it is by grace, it is no longer by works, otherwise grace would no longer be grace.

<sup>7</sup> What then? Israel failed to obtain what it was diligently seeking, but the elect obtained it. The rest were hardened,

<sup>8</sup> as it is written,
"*God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that would not see and ears that would not hear;
to this very day.*"

<sup>9</sup> And David says,
"*Let their table become a snare and trap,
a stumbling block and a retribution for them;*

<sup>10</sup> *let their eyes be darkened so that they may not see,
and make their backs bend continually.*"

<sup>11</sup> I ask then, they did not stumble into an irrevocable fall, did they? Absolutely not! But by their transgression salvation has come to the Gentiles, to make Israel jealous.

<sup>12</sup> Now if their transgression means riches for the world and their defeat means riches for the Gentiles, how much more will their full restoration bring?

<sup>13</sup> Now I am speaking to you Gentiles. Seeing that I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my ministry, <sup>14</sup> if somehow I could provoke my people to jealousy and save some of them.

<sup>15</sup> For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?

<sup>16</sup> If the first portion of the dough offered is holy, then the whole batch is holy, and if the root is holy, so too are the branches.

<sup>17</sup> Now if some of the branches were broken off, and you, a wild olive shoot, were grafted in among them and participated in the richness of the olive root, <sup>18</sup> do not boast over the branches. But if you boast, remember that you do not support the root, but the root supports you.

<sup>19</sup> Then you will say, "The branches were broken off so that I could be grafted in."

<sup>20</sup> Granted! They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand by faith. Do not be arrogant, but fear!

<sup>21</sup> For if God did not spare the natural branches, perhaps he will not spare you.

<sup>22</sup> Notice therefore the kindness and harshness of God – harshness toward those who have fallen, but God’s kindness toward you, provided you continue in his kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off.

<sup>23</sup> And even they – if they do not continue in their unbelief – will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again.

<sup>24</sup> For if you were cut off from what is by nature a wild olive tree, and grafted, contrary to nature, into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these natural branches be grafted back into their own olive tree?

<sup>25</sup> For I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers and sisters, so that you may not be conceited: A partial hardening has happened to Israel until the full number of the Gentiles has come in.

<sup>26</sup> And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written:

*“The Deliverer will come out of Zion;
he will remove ungodliness from Jacob.*

<sup>27</sup> And this is my covenant with them, when I take away their sins.”

<sup>28</sup> In regard to the gospel they are enemies for your sake, but in regard to election they are dearly loved for the sake of the fathers.

<sup>29</sup> For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable.

<sup>30</sup> Just as you were formerly disobedient to God, but have now received mercy due to their disobedience, <sup>31</sup> so they too have now been disobedient in order that, by the mercy shown to you, they too may now receive mercy.

<sup>32</sup> For God has consigned all people to disobedience so that he may show mercy to them all.

<sup>33</sup> Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and how fathomless his ways!

<sup>34</sup> For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counselor?

<sup>35</sup> Or who has first given to God, that God needs to repay him?

<sup>36</sup> For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory forever! Amen.

12

<sup>1</sup> Therefore I exhort you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a sacrifice – alive, holy, and pleasing to God – which is your reasonable service.

<sup>2</sup> Do not be conformed to this present world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may test and approve what is the will of God – what is good and well-pleasing and perfect.

Conduct in Humility

<sup>3</sup> For by the grace given to me I say to every one of you not to think more highly of yourself than you ought to think, but to think with sober discernment, as God has distributed to each of you a measure of faith.

<sup>4</sup> For just as in one body we have many members, and not all the members serve the same function, <sup>5</sup> so we who are many are one body in Christ, and individually we are members who belong to one another.

<sup>6</sup> And we have different gifts according to the grace given to us. If the gift is prophecy, that individual must use it in proportion to his faith.

<sup>7</sup> If it is service, he must serve; if it is teaching, he must teach;

<sup>8</sup> if it is exhortation, he must exhort; if it is contributing, he must do so with sincerity; if it is leadership, he must do so with diligence; if it is showing mercy, he must do so with cheerfulness.

Conduct in Love

<sup>9</sup> Love must be without hypocrisy. Abhor what is evil, cling to what is good.

<sup>10</sup> Be devoted to one another with mutual love, showing eagerness in honoring one another.

<sup>16</sup> Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty but associate with the lowly. Do not be conceited.

<sup>18</sup> If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all people.

<sup>19</sup> Do not avenge yourselves, dear friends, but give place to God's wrath, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay," says the Lord.

<sup>20</sup> Rather, if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him a drink; for in doing this you will be heaping burning coals on his head.

13

<sup>1</sup> Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except by God's appointment, and the authorities that exist have been instituted by God.

<sup>2</sup> So the person who resists such authority resists the ordinance of God, and those who resist will incur judgment

<sup>3</sup> (for rulers cause no fear for good conduct but for bad). Do you desire not to fear authority? Do good and you will receive its commendation, <sup>4</sup> for it is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be in fear, for it does not bear the sword in vain. It is God's servant to administer retribution on the wrongdoer.

<sup>5</sup> Therefore it is necessary to be in subjection, not only because of the wrath of the authorities but also because of your conscience.

<sup>6</sup> For this reason you also pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants devoted to governing.

<sup>7</sup> Pay everyone what is owed: taxes to whom taxes are due, revenue to whom revenue is due, respect to whom respect is due, honor to whom honor is due.

Exhortation to Love Neighbors

<sup>8</sup> Owe no one anything, except to love one another, for the one who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law.

<sup>9</sup> For the commandments, "Do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not covet," (and if there is any other commandment) are summed up in this, "Love your neighbor as yourself."

<sup>10</sup> Love does no wrong to a neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.

Motivation to Godly Conduct

<sup>11</sup> And do this because we know the time, that it is already the hour for us to awake from sleep, for our salvation is now nearer than when we became believers.

<sup>12</sup> The night has advanced toward dawn; the day is near. So then we must lay aside the works of darkness, and put on the weapons of light.

<sup>13</sup> Let us live decently as in the daytime, not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and sensuality, not in discord and jealousy.

<sup>14</sup> Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh to arouse its desires.

14

<sup>3</sup> The one who eats everything must not despise the one who does not, and the one who abstains must not judge the one who eats everything, for God has accepted him.

<sup>4</sup> Who are you to pass judgment on another's servant? Before his own master he stands or falls. And he will stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

<sup>5</sup> One person regards one day holier than other days, and another regards them all alike. Each must be fully convinced in his own mind.

<sup>6</sup> The one who observes the day does it for the Lord. The one who eats, eats for the Lord because he gives thanks to God, and the one who abstains from eating abstains for the Lord, and he gives thanks to God.

<sup>7</sup> For none of us lives for himself and none dies for himself.

<sup>8</sup> If we live, we live for the Lord; if we die, we die for the Lord. Therefore, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.

<sup>9</sup> For this reason Christ died and returned to life, so that he may be the Lord of both the dead and the living.

<sup>10</sup> But you who eat vegetables only – why do you judge your brother or sister? And you who eat everything – why do you despise your brother or sister? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God.

<sup>11</sup> For it is written, “As I live, says the Lord, every knee will bow to me, and every tongue will give praise to God.”

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, each of us will give an account of himself to God.

Exhortation for the Strong not to Destroy the Weak

<sup>13</sup> Therefore we must not pass judgment on one another, but rather determine never to place an obstacle or a trap before a brother or sister.

<sup>14</sup> I know and am convinced in the Lord Jesus that there is nothing unclean in itself; still, it is unclean to the one who considers it unclean.

<sup>15</sup> For if your brother or sister is distressed because of what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. Do not destroy by your food someone for whom Christ died.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore do not let what you consider good be spoken of as evil.

<sup>17</sup> For the kingdom of God does not consist of food and drink, but righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit.

<sup>18</sup> For the one who serves Christ in this way is pleasing to God and approved by people.

<sup>19</sup> So then, let us pursue what makes for peace and for building up one another.

<sup>20</sup> Do not destroy the work of God for the sake of food. For although all things are clean, it is wrong to cause anyone to stumble by what you eat.

<sup>21</sup> It is good not to eat meat or drink wine or to do anything that causes your brother to stumble.

<sup>22</sup> The faith you have, keep to yourself before God. Blessed is the one who does not judge himself by what he approves.

<sup>23</sup> But the man who doubts is condemned if he eats, because he does not do so from faith, and whatever is not from faith is sin.

15

<sup>1</sup> But we who are strong ought to bear with the failings of the weak, and not just please ourselves.

<sup>3</sup> For even Christ did not please himself, but just as it is written, “The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me.”

<sup>4</sup> For everything that was written in former times was written for our instruction, so that through endurance and through encouragement of the scriptures we may have hope.

<sup>5</sup> Now may the God of endurance and comfort give you unity with one another in accordance with Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup> so that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Exhortation to Mutual Acceptance

<sup>7</sup> Receive one another, then, just as Christ also received you, to God’s glory.

<sup>8</sup> For I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the circumcised on behalf of God’s truth to confirm the promises made to the fathers,

<sup>9</sup> and thus the Gentiles glorify God for his mercy. As it is written, “Because of this I will confess you among the Gentiles, and I will sing praises to your name.”

<sup>12</sup> And again Isaiah says, “The root of Jesse will come, and the one who rises to rule over the Gentiles, in him will the Gentiles hope.”

<sup>13</sup> Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you believe in him, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Paul’s Motivation for Writing the Letter

<sup>14</sup> But I myself am fully convinced about you, my brothers and sisters, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, and able to instruct one another.

<sup>15</sup> But I have written more boldly to you on some points so as to remind you, because of the grace given to me by God

<sup>16</sup> to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles. I serve the gospel of God like a priest, so that the Gentiles may become an acceptable offering, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>17</sup> So I boast in Christ Jesus about the things that pertain to God.

<sup>18</sup> For I will not dare to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me in order to bring about the obedience of the Gentiles, by word and deed, <sup>19</sup> in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of the Spirit of God. So from Jerusalem even as far as Illyricum I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

<sup>20</sup> And in this way I desire to preach where Christ has not been named, so as not to build on another person’s foundation,

<sup>21</sup> but as it is written: “Those who were not told about him will see, and those who have not heard will understand.”

Paul’s Intention of Visiting the Romans

<sup>22</sup> This is the reason I was often hindered from coming to you.

<sup>23</sup> But now there is nothing more to keep me in these regions, and I have for many years desired to come to you

<sup>24</sup> when I go to Spain. For I hope to visit you when I pass through and that you will help me on my journey there, after I have enjoyed your company for a while.

<sup>25</sup> But now I go to Jerusalem to minister to the saints.

<sup>26</sup> For Macedonia and Achaia are pleased to make some contribution for the poor among the saints in Jerusalem.

<sup>27</sup> For they were pleased to do this, and indeed they are indebted to the Jerusalem saints. For if the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual things, they are obligated also to minister to them in material things.

<sup>28</sup> Therefore after I have completed this and have safely delivered this bounty to them, I will set out for Spain by way of you, <sup>29</sup> and I know that when I come to you I will come in the fullness of Christ's blessing.

<sup>30</sup> Now I urge you, brothers and sisters, through our Lord Jesus Christ and through the love of the Spirit, to join fervently with me in prayer to God on my behalf.

<sup>31</sup> Pray that I may be rescued from those who are disobedient in Judea and that my ministry in Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints, <sup>32</sup> so that by God's will I may come to you with joy and be refreshed in your company.

<sup>33</sup> Now may the God of peace be with all of you. Amen.

16

<sup>1</sup> Now I commend to you our sister Phoebe, who is a servant of the church in Cenchrea, <sup>2</sup> so that you may welcome her in the Lord in a way worthy of the saints and provide her with whatever help she may need from you, for she has been a great help to many, including me.

<sup>3</sup> Greet Prisca and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus, <sup>4</sup> who risked their own necks for my life. Not only I, but all the churches of the Gentiles are grateful to them.

<sup>5</sup> Also greet the church in their house. Greet my dear friend Epenetus, who was the first convert to Christ in the province of Asia.

<sup>6</sup> Greet Mary, who has worked very hard for you.

<sup>7</sup> Greet Andronicus and Junia, my compatriots and my fellow prisoners. They are well known to the apostles, and they were in Christ before me.

<sup>8</sup> Greet Ampliatus, my dear friend in the Lord.

<sup>10</sup> Greet Apelles, who is approved in Christ. Greet those who belong to the household of Aristobulus.

<sup>12</sup> Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, laborers in the Lord. Greet my dear friend Persis, who has worked hard in the Lord.

<sup>16</sup> Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ greet you.

<sup>17</sup> Now I urge you, brothers and sisters, to watch out for those who create dissensions and obstacles contrary to the teaching that you learned. Avoid them!

<sup>18</sup> For these are the kind who do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites. By their smooth talk and flattery they deceive the minds of the naive.

<sup>19</sup> Your obedience is known to all and thus I rejoice over you. But I want you to be wise in what is good and innocent in what is evil.

<sup>20</sup> The God of peace will quickly crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you.

<sup>21</sup> Timothy, my fellow worker, greets you; so do Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my compatriots.

<sup>22</sup> I, Tertius, who am writing this letter, greet you in the Lord.

<sup>23</sup> Gaius, who is host to me and to the whole church, greets you. Erastus the city treasurer and our brother Quartus greet you.

<sup>24</sup> *

<sup>25</sup>

Now to him who is able to strengthen you according to my gospel and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery that had been kept secret for long ages,

<sup>26</sup> but now is disclosed, and through the prophetic scriptures has been made known to all the nations, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith –

<sup>27</sup> to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, be glory forever! Amen.

1 Corinthians

Salutation

<sup>1</sup> From Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Sosthenes, our brother, <sup>2</sup> to the church of God that is in Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, and called to be saints, with all those in every place who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours.

<sup>3</sup> Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

Thanksgiving

<sup>4</sup> I always thank my God for you because of the grace of God that was given to you in Christ Jesus.

<sup>5</sup> For you were made rich in every way in him, in all your speech and in every kind of knowledge –

<sup>6</sup> just as the testimony about Christ has been confirmed among you –

<sup>7</sup> so that you do not lack any spiritual gift as you wait for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>8</sup> He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you will be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>9</sup> God is faithful, by whom you were called into fellowship with his son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Divisions in the Church

<sup>10</sup> I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to agree together, to end your divisions, and to be united by the same mind and purpose.

<sup>11</sup> For members of Chloe's household have made it clear to me, my brothers and sisters, that there are quarrels among you.

<sup>12</sup> Now I mean this, that each of you is saying, "I am with Paul," or "I am with Apollos," or "I am with Cephas," or "I am with Christ."

<sup>13</sup> Is Christ divided? Paul wasn't crucified for you, was he? Or were you in fact baptized in the name of Paul?

<sup>14</sup> I thank God that I did not baptize any of you except Crispus and Gaius, <sup>15</sup> so that no one can say that you were baptized in my name!

<sup>16</sup> (I also baptized the household of Stephanus. Otherwise, I do not remember whether I baptized anyone else.)

<sup>17</sup> For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel – and not with clever speech, so that the cross of Christ would not become useless.

The Message of the Cross

<sup>18</sup> For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

<sup>19</sup> For it is written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and I will thwart the cleverness of the intelligent."

<sup>20</sup> Where is the wise man? Where is the expert in the Mosaic law? Where is the debater of this age? Has God not made the wisdom of the world foolish?

<sup>21</sup> For since in the wisdom of God the world by its wisdom did not know God, God was pleased to save those who believe by the foolishness of preaching.

<sup>22</sup> For Jews demand miraculous signs and Greeks ask for wisdom,

<sup>24</sup> But to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God.

<sup>25</sup> For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

<sup>26</sup> Think about the circumstances of your call, brothers and sisters. Not many were wise by human standards, not many were powerful, not many were born to a privileged position.

<sup>27</sup> But God chose what the world thinks foolish to shame the wise, and God chose what the world thinks weak to shame the strong.

<sup>28</sup> God chose what is low and despised in the world, what is regarded as nothing, to set aside what is regarded as something,

<sup>29</sup> so that no one can boast in his presence.

<sup>30</sup> He is the reason you have a relationship with Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption,

<sup>31</sup> so that, as it is written, “Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord.”

2

<sup>1</sup> When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come with superior eloquence or wisdom as I proclaimed the testimony of God.

<sup>2</sup> For I decided to be concerned about nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

<sup>3</sup> And I was with you in weakness and in fear and with much trembling.

<sup>4</sup> My conversation and my preaching were not with persuasive words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, <sup>5</sup> so that your faith would not be based on human wisdom but on the power of God.

Wisdom from God

<sup>6</sup> Now we do speak wisdom among the mature, but not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are perishing.

<sup>7</sup> Instead we speak the wisdom of God, hidden in a mystery, that God determined before the ages for our glory.

<sup>8</sup> None of the rulers of this age understood it. If they had known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

<sup>9</sup> But just as it is written, “Things that no eye has seen, or ear heard, or mind imagined, are the things God has prepared for those who love him.”

<sup>10</sup> God has revealed these to us by the Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God.

<sup>11</sup> For who among men knows the things of a man except the man’s spirit within him? So too, no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God.

<sup>12</sup> Now we have not received the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, so that we may know the things that are freely given to us by God.

<sup>13</sup> And we speak about these things, not with words taught us by human wisdom, but with those taught by the Spirit, explaining spiritual things to spiritual people.

<sup>14</sup> The unbeliever does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him. And he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned.

<sup>16</sup> For who has known the mind of the Lord, so as to advise him? But we have the mind of Christ.

3

<sup>1</sup> So, brothers and sisters, I could not speak to you as spiritual people, but instead as people of the flesh, as infants in Christ.

<sup>2</sup> I fed you milk, not solid food, for you were not yet ready. In fact, you are still not ready, <sup>3</sup> for you are still influenced by the flesh. For since there is still jealousy and dissension among you, are you not influenced by the flesh and behaving like unregenerate people?

<sup>4</sup> For whenever someone says, "I am with Paul," or "I am with Apollos," are you not merely human?

<sup>5</sup> What is Apollos, really? Or what is Paul? Servants through whom you came to believe, and each of us in the ministry the Lord gave us.

<sup>7</sup> So neither the one who plants counts for anything, nor the one who waters, but God who causes the growth.

<sup>8</sup> The one who plants and the one who waters work as one, but each will receive his reward according to his work.

<sup>9</sup> We are coworkers belonging to God. You are God's field, God's building.

<sup>10</sup> According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master-builder I laid a foundation, but someone else builds on it. And each one must be careful how he builds.

<sup>11</sup> For no one can lay any foundation other than what is being laid, which is Jesus Christ.

<sup>12</sup> If anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw, <sup>13</sup> each builder's work will be plainly seen, for the Day will make it clear, because it will be revealed by fire. And the fire will test what kind of work each has done.

<sup>14</sup> If what someone has built survives, he will receive a reward.

<sup>15</sup> If someone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss. He himself will be saved, but only as through fire.

<sup>16</sup> Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit lives in you?

<sup>17</sup> If someone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him. For God's temple is holy, which is what you are.

<sup>18</sup> Guard against self-deception, each of you. If someone among you thinks he is wise in this age, let him become foolish so that he can become wise.

<sup>19</sup> For the wisdom of this age is foolishness with God. As it is written, "He catches the wise in their craftiness."

<sup>20</sup> And again, "The Lord knows that the thoughts of the wise are futile."

<sup>21</sup> So then, no more boasting about mere mortals! For everything belongs to you,

<sup>22</sup> whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future. Everything belongs to you, <sup>23</sup> and you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

4

<sup>3</sup> So for me, it is a minor matter that I am judged by you or by any human court. In fact, I do not even judge myself.

<sup>4</sup> For I am not aware of anything against myself, but I am not acquitted because of this. The one who judges me is the Lord.

<sup>5</sup> So then, do not judge anything before the time. Wait until the Lord comes. He will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the motives of hearts. Then each will receive recognition from God.

<sup>6</sup> I have applied these things to myself and Apollos because of you, brothers and sisters, so that through us you may learn “not to go beyond what is written,” so that none of you will be puffed up in favor of the one against the other.

<sup>7</sup> For who concedes you any superiority? What do you have that you did not receive? And if you received it, why do you boast as though you did not?

<sup>8</sup> Already you are satisfied! Already you are rich! You have become kings without us! I wish you had become kings so that we could reign with you!

<sup>9</sup> For, I think, God has exhibited us apostles last of all, as men condemned to die, because we have become a spectacle to the world, both to angels and to people.

<sup>10</sup> We are fools for Christ, but you are wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are strong! You are distinguished, we are dishonored!

<sup>11</sup> To the present hour we are hungry and thirsty, poorly clothed, brutally treated, and without a roof over our heads.

<sup>12</sup> We do hard work, toiling with our own hands. When we are verbally abused, we respond with a blessing, when persecuted, we endure, <sup>13</sup> when people lie about us, we answer in a friendly manner. We are the world’s dirt and scum, even now.

A Father’s Warning

<sup>14</sup> I am not writing these things to shame you, but to correct you as my dear children.

<sup>15</sup> For though you may have ten thousand guardians in Christ, you do not have many fathers, because I became your father in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

<sup>16</sup> I encourage you, then, be imitators of me.

<sup>17</sup> For this reason, I have sent Timothy to you, who is my dear and faithful son in the Lord. He will remind you of my ways in Christ, as I teach them everywhere in every church.

<sup>18</sup> Some have become arrogant, as if I were not coming to you.

<sup>19</sup> But I will come to you soon, if the Lord is willing, and I will find out not only the talk of these arrogant people, but also their power.

<sup>20</sup> For the kingdom of God is demonstrated not in idle talk but with power.

<sup>21</sup> What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod of discipline or with love and a spirit of gentleness?

5

<sup>1</sup> It is actually reported that sexual immorality exists among you, the kind of immorality that is not permitted even among the Gentiles, so that someone is cohabiting with his father’s wife.

<sup>2</sup> And you are proud! Shouldn’t you have been deeply sorrowful instead and removed the one who did this from among you?

<sup>3</sup> For even though I am absent physically, I am present in spirit. And I have already judged the one who did this, just as though I were present.

<sup>4</sup> When you gather together in the name of our Lord Jesus, and I am with you in spirit, along with the power of our Lord Jesus, <sup>5</sup> turn this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord.

<sup>6</sup> Your boasting is not good. Don’t you know that a little yeast affects the whole batch of dough?

<sup>7</sup> Clean out the old yeast so that you may be a new batch of dough – you are, in fact, without yeast. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed.

<sup>8</sup> So then, let us celebrate the festival, not with the old yeast, the yeast of vice and evil, but with the bread without yeast, the bread of sincerity and truth.

<sup>9</sup> I wrote you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people.

<sup>10</sup> In no way did I mean the immoral people of this world, or the greedy and swindlers and idolaters, since you would then have to go out of the world.

<sup>11</sup> But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who calls himself a Christian who is sexually immoral, or greedy, or an idolater, or verbally abusive, or a drunkard, or a swindler. Do not even eat with such a person.

<sup>12</sup> For what do I have to do with judging those outside? Are you not to judge those inside?

<sup>13</sup> But God will judge those outside. Remove the evil person from among you.

6

<sup>1</sup> When any of you has a legal dispute with another, does he dare go to court before the unrighteous rather than before the saints?

<sup>2</sup> Or do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is to be judged by you, are you not competent to settle trivial suits?

<sup>3</sup> Do you not know that we will judge angels? Why not ordinary matters!

<sup>4</sup> So if you have ordinary lawsuits, do you appoint as judges those who have no standing in the church?

<sup>5</sup> I say this to your shame! Is there no one among you wise enough to settle disputes between fellow Christians?

<sup>7</sup> The fact that you have lawsuits among yourselves demonstrates that you have already been defeated. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated?

<sup>8</sup> But you yourselves wrong and cheat, and you do this to your brothers and sisters!

<sup>9</sup> Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived! The sexually immoral, idolaters, adulterers, passive homosexual partners, practicing homosexuals,

<sup>11</sup> Some of you once lived this way. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

Flee Sexual Immorality

<sup>12</sup> “All things are lawful for me” – but not everything is beneficial. “All things are lawful for me” – but I will not be controlled by anything.

<sup>13</sup> “Food is for the stomach and the stomach is for food, but God will do away with both.” The body is not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.

<sup>14</sup> Now God indeed raised the Lord and he will raise us by his power.

<sup>15</sup> Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Should I take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never!

<sup>16</sup> Or do you not know that anyone who is united with a prostitute is one body with her? For it is said, “The two will become one flesh.”

<sup>18</sup> Flee sexual immorality! “Every sin a person commits is outside of the body” – but the immoral person sins against his own body.

<sup>19</sup> Or do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and you are not your own?

<sup>20</sup> For you were bought at a price. Therefore glorify God with your body.

7

<sup>4</sup> It is not the wife who has the rights to her own body, but the husband. In the same way, it is not the husband who has the rights to his own body, but the wife.

<sup>5</sup> Do not deprive each other, except by mutual agreement for a specified time, so that you may devote yourselves to prayer. Then resume your relationship, so that Satan may not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

<sup>6</sup> I say this as a concession, not as a command.

<sup>7</sup> I wish that everyone was as I am. But each has his own gift from God, one this way, another that.

<sup>8</sup> To the unmarried and widows I say that it is best for them to remain as I am.

<sup>9</sup> But if they do not have self-control, let them get married. For it is better to marry than to burn with sexual desire.

<sup>10</sup> To the married I give this command – not I, but the Lord – a wife should not divorce a husband <sup>11</sup> (but if she does, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband), and a husband should not divorce his wife.

<sup>12</sup> To the rest I say – I, not the Lord – if a brother has a wife who is not a believer and she is happy to live with him, he should not divorce her.

<sup>13</sup> And if a woman has a husband who is not a believer and he is happy to live with her, she should not divorce him.

<sup>14</sup> For the unbelieving husband is sanctified because of the wife, and the unbelieving wife because of her husband. Otherwise your children are unclean, but now they are holy.

<sup>15</sup> But if the unbeliever wants a divorce, let it take place. In these circumstances the brother or sister is not bound. God has called you in peace.

<sup>16</sup> For how do you know, wife, whether you will bring your husband to salvation? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will bring your wife to salvation?

The Circumstances of Your Calling

<sup>17</sup> Nevertheless, as the Lord has assigned to each one, as God has called each person, so must he live. I give this sort of direction in all the churches.

<sup>18</sup> Was anyone called after he had been circumcised? He should not try to undo his circumcision. Was anyone called who is uncircumcised? He should not get circumcised.

<sup>20</sup> Let each one remain in that situation in life in which he was called.

<sup>21</sup> Were you called as a slave? Do not worry about it. But if indeed you are able to be free, make the most of the opportunity.

<sup>22</sup> For the one who was called in the Lord as a slave is the Lord's freedman. In the same way, the one who was called as a free person is Christ's slave.

<sup>24</sup> In whatever situation someone was called, brothers and sisters, let him remain in it with God.

Remaining Unmarried

<sup>25</sup> With regard to the question about people who have never married, I have no command from the Lord, but I give my opinion as one shown mercy by the Lord to be trustworthy.

<sup>26</sup> Because of the impending crisis I think it best for you to remain as you are.

<sup>28</sup> But if you marry, you have not sinned. And if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. But those who marry will face difficult circumstances, and I am trying to spare you such problems.

<sup>29</sup> And I say this, brothers and sisters: The time is short. So then those who have wives should be as those who have none,

<sup>30</sup> those with tears like those not weeping, those who rejoice like those not rejoicing, those who buy like those without possessions,

<sup>31</sup> those who use the world as though they were not using it to the full. For the present shape of this world is passing away.

<sup>32</sup> And I want you to be free from concern. An unmarried man is concerned about the things of the Lord, how to please the Lord.

<sup>33</sup> But a married man is concerned about the things of the world, how to please his wife, <sup>34</sup> and he is divided. An unmarried woman or a virgin is concerned about the things of the Lord, to be holy both in body and spirit. But a married woman is concerned about the things of the world, how to please her husband.

<sup>35</sup> I am saying this for your benefit, not to place a limitation on you, but so that without distraction you may give notable and constant service to the Lord.

<sup>36</sup> If anyone thinks he is acting inappropriately toward his virgin, if she is past the bloom of youth and it seems necessary, he should do what he wishes; he does not sin. Let them marry.

<sup>37</sup> But the man who is firm in his commitment, and is under no necessity but has control over his will, and has decided in his own mind to keep his own virgin, does well.

<sup>38</sup> So then, the one who marries his own virgin does well, but the one who does not, does better.

<sup>39</sup> A wife is bound as long as her husband is living. But if her husband dies, she is free to marry anyone she wishes (only someone in the Lord).

<sup>40</sup> But in my opinion, she will be happier if she remains as she is – and I think that I too have the Spirit of God!

8

<sup>1</sup> With regard to food sacrificed to idols, we know that “we all have knowledge.” Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.

<sup>2</sup> If someone thinks he knows something, he does not yet know to the degree that he needs to know.

<sup>3</sup> But if someone loves God, he is known by God.

<sup>4</sup> With regard then to eating food sacrificed to idols, we know that “an idol in this world is nothing,” and that “there is no God but one.”

<sup>5</sup> If after all there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth (as there are many gods and many lords), <sup>6</sup> yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we live, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we live.

<sup>7</sup> But this knowledge is not shared by all. And some, by being accustomed to idols in former times, eat this food as an idol sacrifice, and their conscience, because it is weak, is defiled.

<sup>8</sup> Now food will not bring us close to God. We are no worse if we do not eat and no better if we do.

<sup>9</sup> But be careful that this liberty of yours does not become a hindrance to the weak.

<sup>10</sup> For if someone weak sees you who possess knowledge dining in an idol's temple, will not his conscience be "strengthened" to eat food offered to idols?

<sup>11</sup> So by your knowledge the weak brother or sister, for whom Christ died, is destroyed.

<sup>12</sup> If you sin against your brothers or sisters in this way and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ.

<sup>13</sup> For this reason, if food causes my brother or sister to sin, I will never eat meat again, so that I may not cause one of them to sin.

9

<sup>1</sup> Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord?

<sup>2</sup> If I am not an apostle to others, at least I am to you, for you are the confirming sign of my apostleship in the Lord.

<sup>3</sup> This is my defense to those who examine me.

<sup>4</sup> Do we not have the right to financial support?

<sup>5</sup> Do we not have the right to the company of a believing wife, like the other apostles and the Lord's brothers and Cephas?

<sup>7</sup> Who ever serves in the army at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat its fruit? Who tends a flock and does not consume its milk?

<sup>8</sup> Am I saying these things only on the basis of common sense, or does the law not say this as well?

<sup>9</sup> For it is written in the law of Moses, "Do not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain." God is not concerned here about oxen, is he?

<sup>10</sup> Or is he not surely speaking for our benefit? It was written for us, because the one plowing and threshing ought to work in hope of enjoying the harvest.

<sup>11</sup> If we sowed spiritual blessings among you, is it too much to reap material things from you?

But we have not made use of this right. Instead we endure everything so that we may not be a hindrance to the gospel of Christ.

<sup>13</sup> Don't you know that those who serve in the temple eat food from the temple, and those who serve at the altar receive a part of the offerings?

<sup>14</sup> In the same way the Lord commanded those who proclaim the gospel to receive their living by the gospel.

<sup>15</sup> But I have not used any of these rights. And I am not writing these things so that something will be done for me. In fact, it would be better for me to die than – no one will deprive me of my reason for boasting!

<sup>16</sup> For if I preach the gospel, I have no reason for boasting, because I am compelled to do this. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel!

<sup>17</sup> For if I do this voluntarily, I have a reward. But if I do it unwillingly, I am entrusted with a responsibility.

<sup>18</sup> What then is my reward? That when I preach the gospel I may offer the gospel free of charge, and so not make full use of my rights in the gospel.

<sup>19</sup> For since I am free from all I can make myself a slave to all, in order to gain even more people.

<sup>20</sup> To the Jews I became like a Jew to gain the Jews. To those under the law I became like one under the law (though I myself am not under the law) to gain those under the law.

<sup>21</sup> To those free from the law I became like one free from the law (though I am not free from God's law but under the law of Christ) to gain those free from the law.

<sup>22</sup> To the weak I became weak in order to gain the weak. I have become all things to all people, so that by all means I may save some.

<sup>23</sup> I do all these things because of the gospel, so that I can be a participant in it.

<sup>24</sup> Do you not know that all the runners in a stadium compete, but only one receives the prize? So run to win.

<sup>25</sup> Each competitor must exercise self-control in everything. They do it to receive a perishable crown, but we an imperishable one.

<sup>26</sup> So I do not run uncertainly or box like one who hits only air.

<sup>27</sup> Instead I subdue my body and make it my slave, so that after preaching to others I myself will not be disqualified.

10

<sup>1</sup> For I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that our fathers were all under the cloud and all passed through the sea,

<sup>2</sup> and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea,

<sup>3</sup> and all ate the same spiritual food,

<sup>4</sup> and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they were all drinking from the spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ.

<sup>5</sup> But God was not pleased with most of them, for they were cut down in the wilderness.

<sup>6</sup> These things happened as examples for us, so that we will not crave evil things as they did.

<sup>7</sup> So do not be idolaters, as some of them were. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play."

<sup>8</sup> And let us not be immoral, as some of them were, and twenty-three thousand died in a single day.

<sup>9</sup> And let us not put Christ to the test, as some of them did, and were destroyed by snakes.

<sup>10</sup> And do not complain, as some of them did, and were killed by the destroying angel.

<sup>11</sup> These things happened to them as examples and were written for our instruction, on whom the ends of the ages have come.

<sup>12</sup> So let the one who thinks he is standing be careful that he does not fall.

<sup>13</sup> No trial has overtaken you that is not faced by others. And God is faithful: He will not let you be tried beyond what you are able to bear, but with the trial will also provide a way out so that you may be able to endure it.

Avoid Idol Feasts

<sup>14</sup> So then, my dear friends, flee from idolatry.

<sup>15</sup> I am speaking to thoughtful people. Consider what I say.

<sup>16</sup> Is not the cup of blessing that we bless a sharing in the blood of Christ? Is not the bread that we break a sharing in the body of Christ?

<sup>17</sup> Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all share the one bread.

<sup>18</sup> Look at the people of Israel. Are not those who eat the sacrifices partners in the altar?

<sup>19</sup> Am I saying that idols or food sacrificed to them amount to anything?

<sup>20</sup> No, I mean that what the pagans sacrifice is to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be partners with demons.

<sup>21</sup> You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot take part in the table of the Lord and the table of demons.

<sup>22</sup> Or are we trying to provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we really stronger than he is?

Live to Glorify God

<sup>23</sup> “Everything is lawful,” but not everything is beneficial. “Everything is lawful,” but not everything builds others up.

<sup>27</sup> If an unbeliever invites you to dinner and you want to go, eat whatever is served without asking questions of conscience.

<sup>28</sup> But if someone says to you, “This is from a sacrifice,” do not eat, because of the one who told you and because of conscience –

<sup>29</sup> I do not mean yours but the other person’s. For why is my freedom being judged by another’s conscience?

<sup>30</sup> If I partake with thankfulness, why am I blamed for the food that I give thanks for?

<sup>31</sup> So whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God.

<sup>32</sup> Do not give offense to Jews or Greeks or to the church of God, <sup>33</sup> just as I also try to please everyone in all things. I do not seek my own benefit, but the benefit of many, so that they may be saved.

11

<sup>1</sup> Be imitators of me, just as I also am of Christ.

Women’s Head Coverings

<sup>2</sup> I praise you because you remember me in everything and maintain the traditions just as I passed them on to you.

<sup>3</sup> But I want you to know that Christ is the head of every man, and the man is the head of a woman, and God is the head of Christ.

<sup>6</sup> For if a woman will not cover her head, she should cut off her hair. But if it is disgraceful for a woman to have her hair cut off or her head shaved, she should cover her head.

<sup>7</sup> For a man should not have his head covered, since he is the image and glory of God. But the woman is the glory of the man.

<sup>8</sup> For man did not come from woman, but woman from man.

<sup>10</sup> For this reason a woman should have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels.

<sup>11</sup> In any case, in the Lord woman is not independent of man, nor is man independent of woman.

<sup>12</sup> For just as woman came from man, so man comes through woman. But all things come from God.

<sup>13</sup> Judge for yourselves: Is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered?

<sup>14</sup> Does not nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a disgrace for him, <sup>15</sup> but if a woman has long hair, it is her glory? For her hair is given to her for a covering.

<sup>16</sup> If anyone intends to quarrel about this, we have no other practice, nor do the churches of God.

The Lord's Supper

<sup>17</sup> Now in giving the following instruction I do not praise you, because you come together not for the better but for the worse.

<sup>18</sup> For in the first place, when you come together as a church I hear there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it.

<sup>19</sup> For there must in fact be divisions among you, so that those of you who are approved may be evident.

<sup>20</sup> Now when you come together at the same place, you are not really eating the Lord's Supper.

<sup>21</sup> For when it is time to eat, everyone proceeds with his own supper. One is hungry and another becomes drunk.

<sup>22</sup> Do you not have houses so that you can eat and drink? Or are you trying to show contempt for the church of God by shaming those who have nothing? What should I say to you? Should I praise you? I will not praise you for this!

<sup>23</sup> For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night in which he was betrayed took bread,

<sup>24</sup> and after he had given thanks he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

<sup>25</sup> In the same way, he also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, every time you drink it, in remembrance of me."

<sup>26</sup> For every time you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

<sup>27</sup> For this reason, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

<sup>28</sup> A person should examine himself first, and in this way let him eat the bread and drink of the cup.

<sup>29</sup> For the one who eats and drinks without careful regard for the body eats and drinks judgment against himself.

<sup>30</sup> That is why many of you are weak and sick, and quite a few are dead.

<sup>31</sup> But if we examined ourselves, we would not be judged.

<sup>32</sup> But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned with the world.

<sup>33</sup> So then, my brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.

<sup>34</sup> If anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, so that when you assemble it does not lead to judgment. I will give directions about other matters when I come.

12

<sup>2</sup> You know that when you were pagans you were often led astray by speechless idols, however you were led.

<sup>3</sup> So I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus is cursed," and no one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>4</sup> Now there are different gifts, but the same Spirit.

<sup>5</sup> And there are different ministries, but the same Lord.

<sup>6</sup> And there are different results, but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.

<sup>7</sup> To each person the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the benefit of all.

<sup>8</sup> For one person is given through the Spirit the message of wisdom, and another the message of knowledge according to the same Spirit,

<sup>9</sup> to another faith by the same Spirit, and to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, <sup>10</sup> to another performance of miracles, to another prophecy, and to another discernment of spirits, to another different kinds of tongues, and to another the interpretation of tongues.

<sup>11</sup> It is one and the same Spirit, distributing as he decides to each person, who produces all these things.

Different Members in One Body

<sup>12</sup> For just as the body is one and yet has many members, and all the members of the body – though many – are one body, so too is Christ.

<sup>13</sup> For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body. Whether Jews or Greeks or slaves or free, we were all made to drink of the one Spirit.

<sup>15</sup> If the foot says, “Since I am not a hand, I am not part of the body,” it does not lose its membership in the body because of that.

<sup>16</sup> And if the ear says, “Since I am not an eye, I am not part of the body,” it does not lose its membership in the body because of that.

<sup>17</sup> If the whole body were an eye, what part would do the hearing? If the whole were an ear, what part would exercise the sense of smell?

<sup>18</sup> But as a matter of fact, God has placed each of the members in the body just as he decided.

<sup>19</sup> If they were all the same member, where would the body be?

<sup>20</sup> So now there are many members, but one body.

<sup>21</sup> The eye cannot say to the hand, “I do not need you,” nor in turn can the head say to the foot, “I do not need you.”

<sup>22</sup> On the contrary, those members that seem to be weaker are essential,

<sup>23</sup> and those members we consider less honorable we clothe with greater honor, and our unpresentable members are clothed with dignity,

<sup>24</sup> but our presentable members do not need this. Instead, God has blended together the body, giving greater honor to the lesser member,

<sup>25</sup> so that there may be no division in the body, but the members may have mutual concern for one another.

<sup>26</sup> If one member suffers, everyone suffers with it. If a member is honored, all rejoice with it.

<sup>27</sup> Now you are Christ’s body, and each of you is a member of it.

<sup>28</sup> And God has placed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, gifts of healing, helps, gifts of leadership, different kinds of tongues.

<sup>29</sup> Not all are apostles, are they? Not all are prophets, are they? Not all are teachers, are they? Not all perform miracles, do they?

<sup>30</sup> Not all have gifts of healing, do they? Not all speak in tongues, do they? Not all interpret, do they?

<sup>31</sup> But you should be eager for the greater gifts.

And now I will show you a way that is beyond comparison.

13

<sup>1</sup> If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but I do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.

<sup>2</sup> And if I have prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith so that I can remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.

<sup>3</sup> If I give away everything I own, and if I give over my body in order to boast, but do not have love, I receive no benefit.

<sup>4</sup> Love is patient, love is kind, it is not envious. Love does not brag, it is not puffed up.

<sup>5</sup> It is not rude, it is not self-serving, it is not easily angered or resentful.

<sup>8</sup> Love never ends. But if there are prophecies, they will be set aside; if there are tongues, they will cease; if there is knowledge, it will be set aside.

<sup>9</sup> For we know in part, and we prophesy in part,

<sup>10</sup> but when what is perfect comes, the partial will be set aside.

<sup>11</sup> When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. But when I became an adult, I set aside childish ways.

<sup>12</sup> For now we see in a mirror indirectly, but then we will see face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, just as I have been fully known.

<sup>13</sup> And now these three remain: faith, hope, and love. But the greatest of these is love.

14

<sup>1</sup> Pursue love and be eager for the spiritual gifts, especially that you may prophesy.

<sup>2</sup> For the one speaking in a tongue does not speak to people but to God, for no one understands; he is speaking mysteries by the Spirit.

<sup>3</sup> But the one who prophesies speaks to people for their strengthening, encouragement, and consolation.

<sup>4</sup> The one who speaks in a tongue builds himself up, but the one who prophesies builds up the church.

<sup>5</sup> I wish you all spoke in tongues, but even more that you would prophesy. The one who prophesies is greater than the one who speaks in tongues, unless he interprets so that the church may be strengthened.

<sup>6</sup> Now, brothers and sisters, if I come to you speaking in tongues, how will I help you unless I speak to you with a revelation or with knowledge or prophecy or teaching?

<sup>7</sup> It is similar for lifeless things that make a sound, like a flute or harp. Unless they make a distinction in the notes, how can what is played on the flute or harp be understood?

<sup>8</sup> If, for example, the trumpet makes an unclear sound, who will get ready for battle?

<sup>9</sup> It is the same for you. If you do not speak clearly with your tongue, how will anyone know what is being said? For you will be speaking into the air.

<sup>10</sup> There are probably many kinds of languages in the world, and none is without meaning.

<sup>11</sup> If then I do not know the meaning of a language, I will be a foreigner to the speaker and the speaker a foreigner to me.

<sup>12</sup> It is the same with you. Since you are eager for manifestations of the Spirit, seek to abound in order to strengthen the church.

<sup>13</sup> So then, one who speaks in a tongue should pray that he may interpret.

<sup>14</sup> If I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unproductive.

<sup>15</sup> What should I do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will also pray with my mind. I will sing praises with my spirit, but I will also sing praises with my mind.

<sup>16</sup> Otherwise, if you are praising God with your spirit, how can someone without the gift say “Amen” to your thanksgiving, since he does not know what you are saying?

<sup>17</sup> For you are certainly giving thanks well, but the other person is not strengthened.

<sup>18</sup> I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you, <sup>19</sup> but in the church I want to speak five words with my mind to instruct others, rather than ten thousand words in a tongue.

<sup>20</sup> Brothers and sisters, do not be children in your thinking. Instead, be infants in evil, but in your thinking be mature.

<sup>21</sup> It is written in the law: “By people with strange tongues and by the lips of strangers I will speak to this people, yet not even in this way will they listen to me,” says the Lord.

<sup>22</sup> So then, tongues are a sign not for believers but for unbelievers. Prophecy, however, is not for unbelievers but for believers.

<sup>23</sup> So if the whole church comes together and all speak in tongues, and unbelievers or uninformed people enter, will they not say that you have lost your minds?

<sup>24</sup> But if all prophesy, and an unbeliever or uninformed person enters, he will be convicted by all, he will be called to account by all.

<sup>25</sup> The secrets of his heart are disclosed, and in this way he will fall down with his face to the ground and worship God, declaring, “God is really among you.”

Church Order

<sup>26</sup> What should you do then, brothers and sisters? When you come together, each one has a song, has a lesson, has a revelation, has a tongue, has an interpretation. Let all these things be done for the strengthening of the church.

<sup>27</sup> If someone speaks in a tongue, it should be two, or at the most three, one after the other, and someone must interpret.

<sup>28</sup> But if there is no interpreter, he should be silent in the church. Let him speak to himself and to God.

<sup>29</sup> Two or three prophets should speak and the others should evaluate what is said.

<sup>30</sup> And if someone sitting down receives a revelation, the person who is speaking should conclude.

<sup>31</sup> For you can all prophesy one after another, so all can learn and be encouraged.

<sup>32</sup> Indeed, the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets, <sup>33</sup> for God is not characterized by disorder but by peace.

As in all the churches of the saints,

<sup>34</sup> the women should be silent in the churches, for they are not permitted to speak. Rather, let them be in submission, as in fact the law says.

<sup>35</sup> If they want to find out about something, they should ask their husbands at home, because it is disgraceful for a woman to speak in church.

<sup>36</sup> Did the word of God begin with you, or did it come to you alone?

<sup>37</sup> If anyone considers himself a prophet or spiritual person, he should acknowledge that what I write to you is the Lord’s command.

<sup>39</sup> So then, brothers and sisters, be eager to prophesy, and do not forbid anyone from speaking in tongues.

<sup>40</sup> And do everything in a decent and orderly manner.

15

<sup>1</sup> Now I want to make clear for you, brothers and sisters, the gospel that I preached to you, that you received and on which you stand, <sup>2</sup> and by which you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message I preached to you – unless you believed in vain.

<sup>3</sup> For I passed on to you as of first importance what I also received – that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures,

<sup>4</sup> and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day according to the scriptures, <sup>5</sup> and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve.

<sup>6</sup> Then he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep.

<sup>7</sup> Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles.

<sup>8</sup> Last of all, as though to one born at the wrong time, he appeared to me also.

<sup>9</sup> For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

<sup>10</sup> But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me has not been in vain. In fact, I worked harder than all of them – yet not I, but the grace of God with me.

<sup>11</sup> Whether then it was I or they, this is the way we preach and this is the way you believed.

No Resurrection?

<sup>12</sup> Now if Christ is being preached as raised from the dead, how can some of you say there is no resurrection of the dead?

<sup>13</sup> But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised.

<sup>14</sup> And if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is futile and your faith is empty.

<sup>15</sup> Also, we are found to be false witnesses about God, because we have testified against God that he raised Christ from the dead, when in reality he did not raise him, if indeed the dead are not raised.

<sup>16</sup> For if the dead are not raised, then not even Christ has been raised.

<sup>17</sup> And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is useless; you are still in your sins.

<sup>18</sup> Furthermore, those who have fallen asleep in Christ have also perished.

<sup>19</sup> For if only in this life we have hope in Christ, we should be pitied more than anyone.

<sup>20</sup> But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.

<sup>21</sup> For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead also came through a man.

<sup>22</sup> For just as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive.

<sup>23</sup> But each in his own order: Christ, the firstfruits; then when Christ comes, those who belong to him.

<sup>24</sup> Then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, when he has brought to an end all rule and all authority and power.

<sup>25</sup> For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.

<sup>27</sup> For he has put| strong="G5293" everything in subjection under his feet everything in subjection under his feet. But when it says “everything” has been put in subjection, it is clear that this does not include the one who put everything in subjection to him.

<sup>28</sup> And when all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him, so that God may be all in all.

<sup>29</sup> Otherwise, what will those do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, then why are they baptized for them?

<sup>31</sup> Every day I am in danger of death! This is as sure as my boasting in you, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>32</sup> If from a human point of view I fought with wild beasts at Ephesus, what did it benefit me? If the dead are not raised, let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.

<sup>34</sup> Sober up as you should, and stop sinning! For some have no knowledge of God – I say this to your shame!

The Resurrection Body

<sup>35</sup> But someone will say, “How are the dead raised? With what kind of body will they come?”

<sup>36</sup> Fool! What you sow will not come to life unless it dies.

<sup>37</sup> And what you sow is not the body that is to be, but a bare seed – perhaps of wheat or something else.

<sup>38</sup> But God gives it a body just as he planned, and to each of the seeds a body of its own.

<sup>39</sup> All flesh is not the same: People have one flesh, animals have another, birds and fish another.

<sup>40</sup> And there are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies. The glory of the heavenly body is one sort and the earthly another.

<sup>41</sup> There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon and another glory of the stars, for star differs from star in glory.

<sup>42</sup> It is the same with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable, what is raised is imperishable.

<sup>43</sup> It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power;

<sup>44</sup> it is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body.

<sup>45</sup> So also it is written, “The first man, Adam, became a living person”; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit.

<sup>46</sup> However, the spiritual did not come first, but the natural, and then the spiritual.

<sup>48</sup> Like the one made of dust, so too are those made of dust, and like the one from heaven, so too those who are heavenly.

<sup>49</sup> And just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, let us also bear the image of the man of heaven.

<sup>50</sup> Now this is what I am saying, brothers and sisters: Flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

<sup>51</sup> Listen, I will tell you a mystery: We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed –

<sup>52</sup> in a moment, in the blinking of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed.

<sup>53</sup> For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality.

<sup>54</sup> Now when this perishable puts on the imperishable, and this mortal puts on immortality, then the saying that is written will happen,

“Death has been swallowed up in victory.”

<sup>55</sup> “Where, O death, is your victory?

Where, O death, is your sting?”

<sup>56</sup> The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.

<sup>57</sup> But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!

<sup>58</sup> So then, dear brothers and sisters, be firm. Do not be moved! Always be outstanding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

16

<sup>1</sup> With regard to the collection for the saints, please follow the directions that I gave to the churches of Galatia:

<sup>2</sup> On the first day of the week, each of you should set aside some income and save it to the extent that God has blessed you, so that a collection will not have to be made when I come.

<sup>3</sup> Then, when I arrive, I will send those whom you approve with letters of explanation to carry your gift to Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup> And if it seems advisable that I should go also, they will go with me.

Paul's Plans to Visit

<sup>5</sup> But I will come to you after I have gone through Macedonia – for I will be going through Macedonia –

<sup>6</sup> and perhaps I will stay with you, or even spend the winter, so that you can send me on my journey, wherever I go.

<sup>7</sup> For I do not want to see you now in passing, since I hope to spend some time with you, if the Lord allows.

<sup>8</sup> But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost, <sup>9</sup> because a door of great opportunity stands wide open for me, but there are many opponents.

<sup>10</sup> Now if Timothy comes, see that he has nothing to fear among you, for he is doing the Lord's work, as I am too.

<sup>11</sup> So then, let no one treat him with contempt. But send him on his way in peace so that he may come to me. For I am expecting him with the brothers.

<sup>12</sup> With regard to our brother Apollos: I strongly encouraged him to visit you with the other brothers, but it was simply not his intention to come now. He will come when he has the opportunity.

Final Challenge and Blessing

<sup>13</sup> Stay alert, stand firm in the faith, show courage, be strong.

<sup>15</sup> Now, brothers and sisters, you know about the household of Stephanus, that as the first converts of Achaia, they devoted themselves to ministry for the saints. I urge you

<sup>16</sup> also to submit to people like this, and to everyone who cooperates in the work and labors hard.

<sup>17</sup> I was glad about the arrival of Stephanus, Fortunatus, and Achaicus because they have supplied the fellowship with you that I lacked.

<sup>18</sup> For they refreshed my spirit and yours. So then, recognize people like this.

<sup>19</sup> The churches in the province of Asia send greetings to you. Aquila and Prisca greet you warmly in the Lord, with the church that meets in their house.

<sup>23</sup> The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you.

2 Corinthians

Salutation

<sup>1</sup> From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the church of God that is in Corinth, with all the saints who are in all Achaia.

<sup>2</sup> Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

Thanksgiving for God's Comfort

<sup>3</sup> Blessed is the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, <sup>4</sup> who comforts us in all our troubles so that we may be able to comfort those experiencing any trouble with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

<sup>5</sup> For just as the sufferings of Christ overflow toward us, so also our comfort through Christ overflows to you.

<sup>6</sup> But if we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; if we are comforted, it is for your comfort that you experience in your patient endurance of the same sufferings that we also suffer.

<sup>7</sup> And our hope for you is steadfast because we know that as you share in our sufferings, so also you will share in our comfort.

<sup>8</sup> For we do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, regarding the affliction that happened to us in the province of Asia, that we were burdened excessively, beyond our strength, so that we despaired even of living.

<sup>9</sup> Indeed we felt as if the sentence of death had been passed against us, so that we would not trust in ourselves but in God who raises the dead.

<sup>10</sup> He delivered us from so great a risk of death, and he will deliver us. We have set our hope on him that he will deliver us yet again, <sup>11</sup> as you also join in helping us by prayer, so that many people may give thanks to God on our behalf for the gracious gift given to us through the help of many.

Paul Defends His Changed Plans

<sup>12</sup> For our reason for confidence is this: the testimony of our conscience, that with pure motives and sincerity which are from God – not by human wisdom but by the grace of God – we conducted ourselves in the world, and all the more toward you.

<sup>13</sup> For we do not write you anything other than what you can read and also understand. But I hope that you will understand completely <sup>14</sup> just as also you have partly understood us, that we are your source of pride just as you also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> And with this confidence I intended to come to you first so that you would get a second opportunity to see us, <sup>16</sup> and through your help to go on into Macedonia and then from Macedonia to come back to you and be helped on our way into Judea by you.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore when I was planning to do this, I did not do so without thinking about what I was doing, did I? Or do I make my plans according to mere human standards so that I would be saying both “Yes, yes” and “No, no” at the same time?

<sup>18</sup> But as God is faithful, our message to you is not “Yes” and “No.”

<sup>19</sup> For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, the one who was proclaimed among you by us – by me and Silvanus and Timothy – was not “Yes” and “No,” but it has always been “Yes” in him.

<sup>20</sup> For every one of God's promises are "Yes" in him; therefore also through him the "Amen" is spoken, to the glory we give to God.

<sup>21</sup> But it is God who establishes us together with you in Christ and who anointed us, <sup>22</sup> who also sealed us and gave us the Spirit in our hearts as a down payment.

Why Paul Postponed His Visit

<sup>23</sup> Now I appeal to God as my witness, that to spare you I did not come again to Corinth.

<sup>24</sup> I do not mean that we rule over your faith, but we are workers with you for your joy, because by faith you stand firm.

2

<sup>1</sup> So I made up my own mind not to pay you another painful visit.

<sup>2</sup> For if I make you sad, who would be left to make me glad but the one I caused to be sad?

<sup>3</sup> And I wrote this very thing to you, so that when I came I would not have sadness from those who ought to make me rejoice, since I am confident in you all that my joy would be yours.

<sup>4</sup> For out of great distress and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears, not to make you sad, but to let you know the love that I have especially for you.

<sup>5</sup> But if anyone has caused sadness, he has not saddened me alone, but to some extent (not to exaggerate) he has saddened all of you as well.

<sup>7</sup> so that now instead you should rather forgive and comfort him. This will keep him from being overwhelmed by excessive grief to the point of despair.

<sup>8</sup> Therefore I urge you to reaffirm your love for him.

<sup>9</sup> For this reason also I wrote you: to test you to see if you are obedient in everything.

<sup>10</sup> If you forgive anyone for anything, I also forgive him – for indeed what I have forgiven (if I have forgiven anything) I did so for you in the presence of Christ, <sup>11</sup> so that we may not be exploited by Satan (for we are not ignorant of his schemes).

<sup>12</sup> Now when I arrived in Troas to proclaim the gospel of Christ, even though the Lord had opened a door of opportunity for me, <sup>13</sup> I had no relief in my spirit, because I did not find my brother Titus there. So I said good-bye to them and set out for Macedonia.

Apostolic Ministry

<sup>14</sup> But thanks be to God who always leads us in triumphal procession in Christ and who makes known through us the fragrance that consists of the knowledge of him in every place.

<sup>15</sup> For we are a sweet aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing –

<sup>16</sup> to the latter an odor from death to death, but to the former a fragrance from life to life. And who is adequate for these things?

<sup>17</sup> For we are not like so many others, hucksters who peddle the word of God for profit, but we are speaking in Christ before God as persons of sincerity, as persons sent from God.

3

<sup>1</sup> Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? We don't need letters of recommendation to you or from you as some other people do, do we?

<sup>2</sup> You yourselves are our letter, written on our hearts, known and read by everyone, <sup>3</sup> revealing that you are a letter of Christ, delivered by us, written not with ink but by the Spirit of the living God, not on stone tablets but on tablets of human hearts.

<sup>4</sup> Now we have such confidence in God through Christ.

<sup>5</sup> Not that we are adequate in ourselves to consider anything as if it were coming from ourselves, but our adequacy is from God, <sup>6</sup> who made us adequate to be servants of a new covenant not based on the letter but on the Spirit, for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

The Greater Glory of the Spirit's Ministry

<sup>7</sup> But if the ministry that produced death – carved in letters on stone tablets – came with glory, so that the Israelites could not keep their eyes fixed on the face of Moses because of the glory of his face (a glory which was made ineffective), <sup>8</sup> how much more glorious will the ministry of the Spirit be?

<sup>9</sup> For if there was glory in the ministry that produced condemnation, how much more does the ministry that produces righteousness excel in glory!

<sup>10</sup> For indeed, what had been glorious now has no glory because of the tremendously greater glory of what replaced it.

<sup>11</sup> For if what was made ineffective came with glory, how much more has what remains come in glory!

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, since we have such a hope, we behave with great boldness, <sup>13</sup> and not like Moses who used to put a veil over his face to keep the Israelites from staring at the result of the glory that was made ineffective.

<sup>14</sup> But their minds were closed. For to this very day, the same veil remains when they hear the old covenant read. It has not been removed because only in Christ is it taken away.

<sup>15</sup> But until this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds,

<sup>17</sup> Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is present, there is freedom.

<sup>18</sup> And we all, with unveiled faces reflecting the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another, which is from the Lord, who is the Spirit.

4

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, since we have this ministry, just as God has shown us mercy, we do not become discouraged.

<sup>2</sup> But we have rejected shameful hidden deeds, not behaving with deceptiveness or distorting the word of God, but by open proclamation of the truth we commend ourselves to everyone's conscience before God.

<sup>3</sup> But even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled only to those who are perishing, <sup>4</sup> among whom the god of this age has blinded the minds of those who do not believe so they would not see the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God.

<sup>5</sup> For we do not proclaim ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake.

<sup>6</sup> For God, who said “Let light shine out of darkness,” is the one who shined in our hearts to give us the light of the glorious knowledge of God in the face of Christ.

An Eternal Weight of Glory

<sup>7</sup> But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that the extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us.

<sup>8</sup> We are experiencing trouble on every side, but are not crushed; we are perplexed, but not driven to despair;

<sup>9</sup> we are persecuted, but not abandoned; we are knocked down, but not destroyed,

<sup>10</sup> always carrying around in our body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be made visible in our body.

<sup>11</sup> For we who are alive are constantly being handed over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may also be made visible in our mortal body.

<sup>12</sup> As a result, death is at work in us, but life is at work in you.

<sup>13</sup> But since we have the same spirit of faith as that shown in what has been written, "I believed; therefore I spoke," we also believe, therefore we also speak.

<sup>14</sup> We do so because we know that the one who raised up Jesus will also raise us up with Jesus and will bring us with you into his presence.

<sup>15</sup> For all these things are for your sake, so that the grace that is including more and more people may cause thanksgiving to increase to the glory of God.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore we do not despair, but even if our physical body is wearing away, our inner person is being renewed day by day.

<sup>17</sup> For our momentary, light suffering is producing for us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison

5

<sup>1</sup> For we know that if our earthly house, the tent we live in, is dismantled, we have a building from God, a house not built by human hands, that is eternal in the heavens.

<sup>2</sup> For in this earthly house we groan, because we desire to put on our heavenly dwelling, <sup>3</sup> if indeed, after we have put on our heavenly house, we will not be found naked.

<sup>4</sup> For we groan while we are in this tent, since we are weighed down, because we do not want to be unclothed, but clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.

<sup>5</sup> Now the one who prepared us for this very purpose is God, who gave us the Spirit as a down payment.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore we are always full of courage, and we know that as long as we are alive here on earth we are absent from the Lord –

<sup>7</sup> for we live by faith, not by sight.

<sup>8</sup> Thus we are full of courage and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord.

<sup>9</sup> So then whether we are alive or away, we make it our ambition to please him.

<sup>10</sup> For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may be paid back according to what he has done while in the body, whether good or evil.

The Message of Reconciliation

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, because we know the fear of the Lord, we try to persuade people, but we are well known to God, and I hope we are well known to your consciences too.

<sup>12</sup> We are not trying to commend ourselves to you again, but are giving you an opportunity to be proud of us, so that you may be able to answer those who take pride in outward appearance and not in what is in the heart.

<sup>13</sup> For if we are out of our minds, it is for God; if we are of sound mind, it is for you.

<sup>14</sup> For the love of Christ controls us, since we have concluded this, that Christ died for all; therefore all have died.

<sup>15</sup> And he died for all so that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised.

<sup>16</sup> So then from now on we acknowledge no one from an outward human point of view. Even though we have known Christ from such a human point of view, now we do not know him in that way any longer.

<sup>17</sup> So then, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; what is old has passed away – look, what is new has come!

<sup>18</sup> And all these things are from God who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and who has given us the ministry of reconciliation.

<sup>19</sup> In other words, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting people's trespasses against them, and he has given us the message of reconciliation.

<sup>20</sup> Therefore we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were making His plea through us. We plead with you on Christ's behalf, "Be reconciled to God!"

<sup>21</sup> God made the one who did not know sin to be sin for us, so that in him we would become the righteousness of God.

6

<sup>1</sup> Now because we are fellow workers, we also urge you not to receive the grace of God in vain.

<sup>2</sup> For he says, "I heard you at the acceptable time, and in the day of salvation I helped you." Look, now is the acceptable time; look, now is the day of salvation!

<sup>3</sup> We do not give anyone an occasion for taking an offense in anything, so that no fault may be found with our ministry.

<sup>4</sup> But as God's servants, we have commended ourselves in every way, with great endurance, in persecutions, in difficulties, in distresses,

<sup>6</sup> by purity, by knowledge, by patience, by benevolence, by the Holy Spirit, by genuine love,

<sup>8</sup> through glory and dishonor, through slander and praise; regarded as impostors, and yet true;

<sup>9</sup> as unknown, and yet well-known; as dying and yet – see! – we continue to live; as those who are scourged and yet not executed;

<sup>10</sup> as sorrowful, but always rejoicing, as poor, but making many rich, as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

<sup>11</sup> We have spoken freely to you, Corinthians; our heart has been opened wide to you.

<sup>12</sup> Our affection for you is not restricted, but you are restricted in your affections for us.

<sup>13</sup> Now as a fair exchange – I speak as to my children – open wide your hearts to us also.

Unequal Partners

<sup>14</sup> Do not become partners with those who do not believe, for what partnership is there between righteousness and lawlessness, or what fellowship does light have with darkness?

<sup>15</sup> And what agreement does Christ have with Beliar? Or what does a believer share in common with an unbeliever?

<sup>16</sup> And what mutual agreement does the temple of God have with idols? For we are the temple of the living God, just as God said, "*I will live in them and will walk among them, and I will be their God, and they will be my people: **"

<sup>17</sup> Therefore "come out from their midst, and be separate," says the Lord, "and touch no unclean thing, and I will welcome you, <sup>18</sup> and I will be a father to you, and you will be my sons and daughters," says the All-Powerful Lord.

7

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, since we have these promises, dear friends, let us cleanse ourselves from everything that could defile the body and the spirit, and thus accomplish holiness out of reverence for God.

<sup>2</sup> Make room for us in your hearts; we have wronged no one, we have ruined no one, we have exploited no one.

<sup>3</sup> I do not say this to condemn you, for I told you before that you are in our hearts so that we die together and live together with you.

A Letter That Caused Sadness

<sup>4</sup> I have great confidence in you; I take great pride on your behalf. I am filled with encouragement; I am overflowing with joy in the midst of all our suffering.

<sup>5</sup> For even when we came into Macedonia, our body had no rest at all, but we were troubled in every way – struggles from the outside, fears from within.

<sup>6</sup> But God, who encourages the downhearted, encouraged us by the arrival of Titus.

<sup>7</sup> We were encouraged not only by his arrival, but also by the encouragement you gave him, as he reported to us your longing, your mourning, your deep concern for me, so that I rejoiced more than ever.

<sup>8</sup> For even if I made you sad by my letter, I do not regret having written it (even though I did regret it, for I see that my letter made you sad, though only for a short time).

<sup>9</sup> Now I rejoice, not because you were made sad, but because you were made sad to the point of repentance. For you were made sad as God intended, so that you were not harmed in any way by us.

<sup>10</sup> For sadness as intended by God produces a repentance that leads to salvation, leaving no regret, but worldly sadness brings about death.

<sup>11</sup> For see what this very thing, this sadness as God intended, has produced in you: what eagerness, what defense of yourselves, what indignation, what alarm, what longing, what deep concern, what punishment! In everything you have proved yourselves to be innocent in this matter.

<sup>12</sup> So then, even though I wrote to you, it was not on account of the one who did wrong, or on account of the one who was wronged, but to reveal to you your eagerness on our behalf before God.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore we have been encouraged. And in addition to our own encouragement, we rejoiced even more at the joy of Titus, because all of you have refreshed his spirit.

<sup>14</sup> For if I have boasted to him about anything concerning you, I have not been embarrassed by you, but just as everything we said to you was true, so our boasting to Titus about you has proved true as well.

<sup>15</sup> And his affection for you is much greater when he remembers the obedience of you all, how you welcomed him with fear and trembling.

<sup>16</sup> I rejoice because in everything I am fully confident in you.

8

<sup>1</sup> Now we make known to you, brothers and sisters, the grace of God given to the churches of Macedonia,

<sup>3</sup> For I testify, they gave according to their means and beyond their means. They did so voluntarily, <sup>4</sup> begging us with great earnestness for the blessing and fellowship of helping the saints.

<sup>5</sup> And they did this not just as we had hoped, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and to us by the will of God.

<sup>6</sup> Thus we urged Titus that, just as he had previously begun this work, so also he should complete this act of kindness for you.

<sup>7</sup> But as you excel in everything – in faith, in speech, in knowledge, and in all eagerness and in the love from us that is in you – make sure that you excel in this act of kindness too.

<sup>8</sup> I am not saying this as a command, but I am testing the genuineness of your love by comparison with the eagerness of others.

<sup>9</sup> For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that although he was rich, he became poor for your sakes, so that you by his poverty could become rich.

<sup>10</sup> So here is my opinion on this matter: It is to your advantage, since you made a good start last year both in your giving and your desire to give,

<sup>11</sup> to finish what you started, so that just as you wanted to do it eagerly, you can also complete it according to your means.

<sup>12</sup> For if the eagerness is present, the gift itself is acceptable according to whatever one has, not according to what he does not have.

<sup>13</sup> For I do not say this so there would be relief for others and suffering for you, but as a matter of equality.

<sup>14</sup> At the present time, your abundance will meet their need, so that one day their abundance may also meet your need, and thus there may be equality,

<sup>15</sup> as it is written: “The one who gathered much did not have too much, and the one who gathered little did not have too little.”

The Mission of Titus

<sup>16</sup> But thanks be to God who put in the heart of Titus the same devotion I have for you, <sup>17</sup> because he not only accepted our request, but since he was very eager, he is coming to you of his own accord.

<sup>18</sup> And we are sending along with him the brother who is praised by all the churches for his work in spreading the gospel.

<sup>19</sup> In addition, this brother has also been chosen by the churches as our traveling companion as we administer this generous gift to the glory of the Lord himself and to show our readiness to help.

<sup>20</sup> We did this as a precaution so that no one should blame us in regard to this generous gift we are administering.

<sup>21</sup> For we are concerned about what is right not only before the Lord but also before men.

<sup>22</sup> And we are sending with them our brother whom we have tested many times and found eager in many matters, but who now is much more eager than ever because of the great confidence he has in you.

<sup>23</sup> If there is any question about Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker among you; if there is any question about our brothers, they are messengers of the churches, a glory to Christ.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore show them openly before the churches the proof of your love and of our pride in you.

9

<sup>1</sup> For it is not necessary for me to write you about this service to the saints, <sup>2</sup> because I know your eagerness to help. I keep boasting to the Macedonians about this eagerness of yours, that Achaia has been ready to give since last year, and your zeal to participate has stirred up most of them.

<sup>3</sup> But I am sending these brothers so that our boasting about you may not be empty in this case, so that you may be ready just as I kept telling them.

<sup>4</sup> For if any of the Macedonians should come with me and find that you are not ready to give, we would be humiliated (not to mention you) by this confidence we had in you.

<sup>5</sup> Therefore I thought it necessary to urge these brothers to go to you in advance and to arrange ahead of time the generous contribution you had promised, so this may be ready as a generous gift and not as something you feel forced to do.

<sup>6</sup> My point is this: The person who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the person who sows generously will also reap generously.

<sup>7</sup> Each one of you should give just as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, because God loves a cheerful giver.

<sup>8</sup> And God is able to make all grace overflow to you so that because you have enough of everything in every way at all times, you will overflow in every good work.

<sup>9</sup> Just as it is written, “He has scattered widely, he has given to the poor; his righteousness remains forever.”

<sup>10</sup> Now God who provides seed for the sower and bread for food will provide and multiply your supply of seed and will cause the harvest of your righteousness to grow.

<sup>11</sup> You will be enriched in every way so that you may be generous on every occasion, which is producing through us thanksgiving to God, <sup>12</sup> because the service of this ministry is not only providing for the needs of the saints but is also overflowing with many thanks to God.

<sup>13</sup> Through the evidence of this service they will glorify God because of your obedience to your confession in the gospel of Christ and the generosity of your sharing with them and with everyone.

<sup>14</sup> And in their prayers on your behalf they long for you because of the extraordinary grace God has shown to you.

<sup>15</sup> Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!

10

<sup>1</sup> Now I, Paul, appeal to you personally by the meekness and gentleness of Christ (I who am meek when present among you, but am full of courage toward you when away!) –

<sup>2</sup> now I ask that when I am present I may not have to be bold with the confidence that (I expect) I will dare to use against some who consider us to be behaving according to human standards.

<sup>3</sup> For though we live as human beings, we do not wage war according to human standards,

<sup>4</sup> for the weapons of our warfare are not human weapons, but are made powerful by God for tearing down strongholds. We tear down arguments

<sup>5</sup> and every arrogant obstacle that is raised up against the knowledge of God, and we take every thought captive to make it obey Christ.

<sup>6</sup> We are also ready to punish every act of disobedience, whenever your obedience is complete.

<sup>7</sup> You are looking at outward appearances. If anyone is confident that he belongs to Christ, he should reflect on this again: Just as he himself belongs to Christ, so too do we.

<sup>8</sup> For if I boast somewhat more about our authority that the Lord gave us for building you up and not for tearing you down, I will not be ashamed of doing so.

<sup>9</sup> I do not want to seem as though I am trying to terrify you with my letters,

<sup>10</sup> because some say, “His letters are weighty and forceful, but his physical presence is weak and his speech is of no account.”

<sup>11</sup> Let such a person consider this: What we say by letters when we are absent, we also are in actions when we are present.

<sup>12</sup> For we would not dare to classify or compare ourselves with some of those who recommend themselves. But when they measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves with themselves, they are without understanding.

<sup>13</sup> But we will not boast beyond certain limits, but will confine our boasting according to the limits of the work to which God has appointed us, that reaches even as far as you.

<sup>14</sup> For we were not overextending ourselves, as though we did not reach as far as you, because we were the first to reach as far as you with the gospel about Christ.

<sup>15</sup> Nor do we boast beyond certain limits in the work done by others, but we hope that as your faith continues to grow, our work may be greatly expanded among you according to our limits, <sup>16</sup> so that we may preach the gospel in the regions that lie beyond you, and not boast of work already done in another person's area.

<sup>17</sup> But the one who boasts | strong="G2744" must boast in the Lord must boast in the Lord.

<sup>18</sup> For it is not the person who commends himself who is approved, but the person the Lord commends.

11

<sup>1</sup> I wish that you would be patient with me in a little foolishness, but indeed you are being patient with me!

<sup>2</sup> For I am jealous for you with godly jealousy, because I promised you in marriage to one husband, to present you as a pure virgin to Christ.

<sup>3</sup> But I am afraid that just as the serpent deceived Eve by his treachery, your minds may be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion to Christ.

<sup>4</sup> For if someone comes and proclaims another Jesus different from the one we proclaimed, or if you receive a different spirit than the one you received, or a different gospel than the one you accepted, you put up with it well enough!

<sup>6</sup> And even if I am unskilled in speaking, yet I am certainly not so in knowledge. Indeed, we have made this plain to you in everything in every way.

<sup>7</sup> Or did I commit a sin by humbling myself so that you could be exalted, because I proclaimed the gospel of God to you free of charge?

<sup>8</sup> I robbed other churches by receiving support from them so that I could serve you!

<sup>9</sup> When I was with you and was in need, I was not a burden to anyone, for the brothers who came from Macedonia fully supplied my needs. I kept myself from being a burden to you in any way, and will continue to do so.

<sup>10</sup> As the truth of Christ is in me, this boasting of mine will not be stopped in the regions of Achaia.

<sup>11</sup> Why? Because I do not love you? God knows I do!

<sup>12</sup> And what I am doing I will continue to do, so that I may eliminate any opportunity for those who want a chance to be regarded as our equals in the things they boast about.

<sup>13</sup> For such people are false apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ.

<sup>14</sup> And no wonder, for even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light.

<sup>15</sup> Therefore it is not surprising his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness, whose end will correspond to their actions.

Paul's Sufferings for Christ

<sup>16</sup> I say again, let no one think that I am a fool. But if you do, then at least accept me as a fool, so that I too may boast a little.

<sup>17</sup> What I am saying with this boastful confidence I do not say the way the Lord would. Instead it is, as it were, foolishness.

<sup>18</sup> Since many are boasting according to human standards, I too will boast.

<sup>19</sup> For since you are so wise, you put up with fools gladly.

<sup>20</sup> For you put up with it if someone makes slaves of you, if someone exploits you, if someone takes advantage of you, if someone behaves arrogantly toward you, if someone strikes you in the face.

<sup>21</sup> (To my disgrace I must say that we were too weak for that!) But whatever anyone else dares to boast about (I am speaking foolishly), I also dare to boast about the same thing.

<sup>22</sup> Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they descendants of Abraham? So am I.

<sup>23</sup> Are they servants of Christ? (I am talking like I am out of my mind!) I am even more so: with much greater labors, with far more imprisonments, with more severe beatings, facing death many times.

<sup>25</sup> Three times I was beaten with a rod. Once I received a stoning. Three times I suffered shipwreck. A night and a day I spent adrift in the open sea.

<sup>26</sup> I have been on journeys many times, in dangers from rivers, in dangers from robbers, in dangers from my own countrymen, in dangers from Gentiles, in dangers in the city, in dangers in the wilderness, in dangers at sea, in dangers from false brothers, <sup>27</sup> in hard work and toil, through many sleepless nights, in hunger and thirst, many times without food, in cold and without enough clothing.

<sup>28</sup> Apart from other things, there is the daily pressure on me of my anxious concern for all the churches.

<sup>29</sup> Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is led into sin, and I do not burn with indignation?

<sup>30</sup> If I must boast, I will boast about the things that show my weakness.

<sup>31</sup> The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, who is blessed forever, knows I am not lying.

<sup>32</sup> In Damascus, the governor under King Aretas was guarding the city of Damascus in order to arrest me, <sup>33</sup> but I was let down in a rope-basket through a window in the city wall, and escaped his hands.

12

<sup>1</sup> It is necessary to go on boasting. Though it is not profitable, I will go on to visions and revelations from the Lord.

<sup>2</sup> I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago (whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows) was caught up to the third heaven.

<sup>3</sup> And I know that this man (whether in the body or apart from the body I do not know, God knows)

<sup>4</sup> was caught up into paradise and heard things too sacred to be put into words, things that a person is not permitted to speak.

<sup>5</sup> On behalf of such an individual I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except about my weaknesses.

<sup>6</sup> For even if I wish to boast, I will not be a fool, for I would be telling the truth, but I refrain from this so that no one may regard me beyond what he sees in me or what he hears from me, <sup>7</sup> even because of the extraordinary character of the revelations. Therefore, so that I would not become arrogant, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, a messenger of Satan to trouble me – so that I would not become arrogant.

<sup>8</sup> I asked the Lord three times about this, that it would depart from me.

<sup>9</sup> But he said to me, "My grace is enough for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." So then, I will boast most gladly about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may reside in me.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore I am content with weaknesses, with insults, with troubles, with persecutions and difficulties for the sake of Christ, for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

The Signs of an Apostle

<sup>11</sup> I have become a fool. You yourselves forced me to do it, for I should have been commended by you. For I lack nothing in comparison to those "super-apostles," even though I am nothing.

<sup>12</sup> Indeed, the signs of an apostle were performed among you with great perseverance by signs and wonders and powerful deeds.

<sup>13</sup> For how were you treated worse than the other churches, except that I myself was not a burden to you? Forgive me this injustice!

<sup>14</sup> Look, for the third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be a burden to you, because I do not want your possessions, but you. For children should not have to save up for their parents, but parents for their children.

<sup>15</sup> Now I will most gladly spend and be spent for your lives! If I love you more, am I to be loved less?

<sup>16</sup> But be that as it may, I have not burdened you. Yet because I was a crafty person, I took you in by deceit!

<sup>17</sup> I have not taken advantage of you through anyone I have sent to you, have I?

<sup>18</sup> I urged Titus to visit you and I sent our brother along with him. Titus did not take advantage of you, did he? Did we not conduct ourselves in the same spirit? Did we not behave in the same way?

<sup>19</sup> Have you been thinking all this time that we have been defending ourselves to you? We are speaking in Christ before God, and everything we do, dear friends, is to build you up.

<sup>20</sup> For I am afraid that somehow when I come I will not find you what I wish, and you will find me not what you wish. I am afraid that somehow there may be quarreling, jealousy, intense anger, selfish ambition, slander, gossip, arrogance, and disorder.

<sup>21</sup> I am afraid that when I come again, my God may humiliate me before you, and I will grieve for many of those who previously sinned and have not repented of the impurity, sexual immorality, and licentiousness that they have practiced.

13

<sup>1</sup> This is the third time I am coming to visit you. By | strong="G1909" the testimony the testimony of two | strong="G1417" or three witnesses every matter will be established.

<sup>2</sup> I said before when I was present the second time and now, though absent, I say again to those who sinned previously and to all the rest, that if I come again, I will not spare anyone, <sup>3</sup> since you are demanding proof that Christ is speaking through me. He is not weak toward you but is powerful among you.

<sup>4</sup> For indeed he was crucified by reason of weakness, but he lives because of God's power. For we also are weak in him, but we will live together with him, because of God's power toward you.

<sup>5</sup> Put yourselves to the test to see if you are in the faith; examine yourselves! Or do you not recognize regarding yourselves that Jesus Christ is in you – unless, indeed, you fail the test!

<sup>6</sup> And I hope that you will realize that we have not failed the test!

<sup>7</sup> Now we pray to God that you may not do anything wrong, not so that we may appear to have passed the test, but so that you may do what is right even if we may appear to have failed the test.

<sup>8</sup> For we cannot do anything against the truth, but only for the sake of the truth.

<sup>9</sup> For we rejoice whenever we are weak, but you are strong. And we pray for this: that you may become fully qualified.

<sup>10</sup> Because of this I am writing these things while absent, so that when I arrive I may not have to deal harshly with you by using my authority – the Lord gave it to me for building up, not for tearing down!

Final Exhortations and Greetings

<sup>11</sup> Finally, brothers and sisters, rejoice, set things right, be encouraged, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

<sup>12</sup> Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you.

<sup>13</sup> The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

<sup>14</sup> *

Galatians

Salutation

- <sup>1</sup> From Paul, an apostle (not from men, nor by human agency, but by Jesus Christ and God the Father who raised him from the dead) <sup>2</sup> and all the brothers with me, to the churches of Galatia.
<sup>3</sup> Grace and peace to you from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>4</sup> who gave himself for our sins to rescue us from this present evil age according to the will of our God and Father, <sup>5</sup> to whom be glory forever and ever! Amen.

Occasion of the Letter

- <sup>6</sup> I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting the one who called you by the grace of Christ and are following a different gospel – <sup>7</sup> not that there really is another gospel, but there are some who are disturbing you and wanting to distort the gospel of Christ.
<sup>8</sup> But even if we (or an angel from heaven) should preach a gospel contrary to the one we preached to you, let him be condemned to hell!
<sup>9</sup> As we have said before, and now I say again, if any one is preaching to you a gospel contrary to what you received, let him be condemned to hell!
<sup>10</sup> Am I now trying to gain the approval of people, or of God? Or am I trying to please people? If I were still trying to please people, I would not be a slave of Christ!

Paul's Vindication of His Apostleship

- <sup>11</sup> Now I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that the gospel I preached is not of human origin.
<sup>12</sup> For I did not receive it or learn it from any human source; instead I received it by a revelation of Jesus Christ.
<sup>13</sup> For you have heard of my former way of life in Judaism, how I was savagely persecuting the church of God and trying to destroy it.
<sup>14</sup> I was advancing in Judaism beyond many of my contemporaries in my nation, and was extremely zealous for the traditions of my ancestors.
<sup>15</sup> But when the one who set me apart from birth and called me by his grace was pleased <sup>16</sup> to reveal his Son in me so that I could preach him among the Gentiles, I did not go to ask advice from any human being,
<sup>17</sup> nor did I go up to Jerusalem to see those who were apostles before me, but right away I departed to Arabia, and then returned to Damascus.
<sup>18</sup> Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas and get information from him, and I stayed with him fifteen days.
<sup>20</sup> I assure you that, before God, I am not lying about what I am writing to you!
<sup>22</sup> But I was personally unknown to the churches of Judea that are in Christ.
<sup>23</sup> They were only hearing, "The one who once persecuted us is now proclaiming the good news of the faith he once tried to destroy."
<sup>24</sup> So they glorified God because of me.

2

<sup>2</sup> I went there because of a revelation and presented to them the gospel that I preach among the Gentiles. But I did so only in a private meeting with the influential people, to make sure that I was not running – or had not run – in vain.

<sup>3</sup> Yet not even Titus, who was with me, was compelled to be circumcised, although he was a Greek.

<sup>4</sup> Now this matter arose because of the false brothers with false pretenses who slipped in unnoticed to spy on our freedom that we have in Christ Jesus, to make us slaves.

<sup>5</sup> But we did not surrender to them even for a moment, in order that the truth of the gospel would remain with you.

<sup>6</sup> But from those who were influential (whatever they were makes no difference to me; God shows no favoritism between people) – those influential leaders added nothing to my message.

<sup>7</sup> On the contrary, when they saw that I was entrusted with the gospel to the uncircumcised just as Peter was to the circumcised

<sup>8</sup> (for he who empowered Peter for his apostleship to the circumcised also empowered me for my apostleship to the Gentiles)

<sup>9</sup> and when James, Cephas, and John, who had a reputation as pillars, recognized the grace that had been given to me, they gave to Barnabas and me the right hand of fellowship, agreeing that we would go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised.

<sup>10</sup> They requested only that we remember the poor, the very thing I also was eager to do.

Paul Rebukes Peter

<sup>11</sup> But when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he had clearly done wrong.

<sup>12</sup> Until certain people came from James, he had been eating with the Gentiles. But when they arrived, he stopped doing this and separated himself because he was afraid of those who were pro-circumcision.

<sup>13</sup> And the rest of the Jews also joined with him in this hypocrisy, so that even Barnabas was led astray with them by their hypocrisy.

<sup>14</sup> But when I saw that they were not behaving consistently with the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas in front of them all, “If you, although you are a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how can you try to force the Gentiles to live like Jews?”

Jews and Gentiles are Justified by Faith

<sup>15</sup> We are Jews by birth and not Gentile sinners,

<sup>16</sup> yet we know that no one is justified by the works of the law but by the faithfulness of Jesus Christ. And we have come to believe in Christ Jesus, so that we may be justified by the faithfulness of Christ and not by the works of the law, because by the works of the law no one will be justified.

<sup>17</sup> But if while seeking to be justified in Christ we ourselves have also been found to be sinners, is Christ then one who encourages sin? Absolutely not!

<sup>18</sup> But if I build up again those things I once destroyed, I demonstrate that I am one who breaks God’s law.

<sup>19</sup> For through the law I died to the law so that I may live to God.

<sup>20</sup> I have been crucified with Christ, and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me. So the life I now live in the body, I live because of the faithfulness of the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

<sup>21</sup> I do not set aside God's grace, because if righteousness could come through the law, then Christ died for nothing!

3

<sup>1</sup> You foolish Galatians! Who has cast a spell on you? Before your eyes Jesus Christ was vividly portrayed as crucified!

<sup>2</sup> The only thing I want to learn from you is this: Did you receive the Spirit by doing the works of the law or by believing what you heard?

<sup>3</sup> Are you so foolish? Although you began with the Spirit, are you now trying to finish by human effort?

<sup>4</sup> Have you suffered so many things for nothing? – if indeed it was for nothing.

<sup>5</sup> Does God then give you the Spirit and work miracles among you by your doing the works of the law or by your believing what you heard?

<sup>6</sup> Just as Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness, <sup>7</sup> so then, understand that those who believe are the sons of Abraham.

<sup>8</sup> And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, proclaimed the gospel to Abraham ahead of time, saying, “*All the nations will be blessed in you*.*”

<sup>9</sup> So then those who believe are blessed along with Abraham the believer.

<sup>10</sup> For all who rely on doing the works of the law are under a curse, because it is written, “Cursed is everyone who does not keep on doing everything written in the book of the law.”

<sup>11</sup> Now it is clear no one is justified before God by the law, because the righteous one will live by faith.

<sup>12</sup> But the law is not based on faith, but the one who does the works of the law will live by them.

<sup>13</sup> Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us (because it is written, “Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree”)

<sup>14</sup> in order that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham would come to the Gentiles, so that we could receive the promise of the Spirit by faith.

Inheritance Comes from Promises and not Law

<sup>15</sup> Brothers and sisters, I offer an example from everyday life: When a covenant has been ratified, even though it is only a human contract, no one can set it aside or add anything to it.

<sup>16</sup> Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his descendant. Scripture does not say, “and to the descendants,” referring to many, but “and to your descendant,” referring to one, who is Christ.

<sup>17</sup> What I am saying is this: The law that came four hundred thirty years later does not cancel a covenant previously ratified by God, so as to invalidate the promise.

<sup>18</sup> For if the inheritance is based on the law, it is no longer based on the promise, but God graciously gave it to Abraham through the promise.

<sup>19</sup> Why then was the law given? It was added because of transgressions, until the arrival of the descendant to whom the promise had been made. It was administered through angels by an intermediary.

<sup>21</sup> Is the law therefore opposed to the promises of God? Absolutely not! For if a law had been given that was able to give life, then righteousness would certainly have come by the law.

<sup>22</sup> But the scripture imprisoned everything and everyone under sin so that the promise could be given – because of the faithfulness of Jesus Christ – to those who believe.

Sons of God Are Heirs of Promise

<sup>23</sup> Now before faith came we were held in custody under the law, being kept as prisoners until the coming faith would be revealed.

<sup>24</sup> Thus the law had become our guardian until Christ, so that we could be declared righteous by faith.

<sup>25</sup> But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian.

<sup>26</sup> For in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God through faith.

<sup>27</sup> For all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ.

<sup>28</sup> There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female – for all of you are one in Christ Jesus.

<sup>29</sup> And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's descendants, heirs according to the promise.

4

<sup>1</sup> Now I mean that the heir, as long as he is a minor, is no different from a slave, though he is the owner of everything.

<sup>2</sup> But he is under guardians and managers until the date set by his father.

<sup>3</sup> So also we, when we were minors, were enslaved under the basic forces of the world.

<sup>4</sup> But when the appropriate time had come, God sent out his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, <sup>5</sup> to redeem those who were under the law, so that we may be adopted as sons with full rights.

<sup>6</sup> And because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, who calls “Abba! Father!”

<sup>7</sup> So you are no longer a slave but a son, and if you are a son, then you are also an heir through God.

Heirs of Promise Are Not to Return to Law

<sup>8</sup> Formerly when you did not know God, you were enslaved to beings that by nature are not gods at all.

<sup>9</sup> But now that you have come to know God (or rather to be known by God), how can you turn back again to the weak and worthless basic forces? Do you want to be enslaved to them all over again?

<sup>10</sup> You are observing religious days and months and seasons and years.

<sup>11</sup> I fear for you that my work for you may have been in vain.

<sup>12</sup> I beg you, brothers and sisters, become like me, because I have become like you. You have done me no wrong!

Personal Appeal of Paul

<sup>13</sup> But you know it was because of a physical illness that I first proclaimed the gospel to you,

<sup>14</sup> and though my physical condition put you to the test, you did not despise or reject me. Instead, you welcomed me as though I were an angel of God, as though I were Christ Jesus himself!

<sup>15</sup> Where then is your sense of happiness now? For I testify about you that if it were possible, you would have pulled out your eyes and given them to me!

<sup>16</sup> So then, have I become your enemy by telling you the truth?

<sup>17</sup> They court you eagerly, but for no good purpose; they want to exclude you, so that you would seek them eagerly.

<sup>18</sup> However, it is good to be sought eagerly for a good purpose at all times, and not only when I am present with you.

<sup>19</sup> My children – I am again undergoing birth pains until Christ is formed in you!

<sup>20</sup> I wish I could be with you now and change my tone of voice, because I am perplexed about you.

An Appeal from Allegory

<sup>21</sup> Tell me, you who want to be under the law, do you not understand the law?

<sup>22</sup> For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave woman and the other by the free woman.

<sup>23</sup> But one, the son by the slave woman, was born by natural descent, while the other, the son by the free woman, was born through the promise.

<sup>27</sup> For it is written:

“Rejoice, O barren woman who does not bear children; break forth and shout, you who have no birth pains, because the children of the desolate woman are more numerous than those of the woman who has a husband.”

<sup>28</sup> But you, brothers and sisters, are children of the promise like Isaac.

<sup>29</sup> But just as at that time the one born by natural descent persecuted the one born according to the Spirit, so it is now.

<sup>30</sup> But what does the scripture say? “Throw out the slave woman and her son, for the son of the slave woman will not share the inheritance with the son” of the free woman.

<sup>31</sup> Therefore, brothers and sisters, we are not children of the slave woman but of the free woman.

5

<sup>1</sup> For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not be subject again to the yoke of slavery.

<sup>2</sup> Listen! I, Paul, tell you that if you let yourselves be circumcised, Christ will be of no benefit to you at all!

<sup>3</sup> And I testify again to every man who lets himself be circumcised that he is obligated to obey the whole law.

<sup>4</sup> You who are trying to be declared righteous by the law have been alienated from Christ; you have fallen away from grace!

<sup>5</sup> For through the Spirit, by faith, we wait expectantly for the hope of righteousness.

<sup>6</sup> For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision carries any weight – the only thing that matters is faith working through love.

<sup>7</sup> You were running well; who prevented you from obeying the truth?

<sup>8</sup> This persuasion does not come from the one who calls you!

<sup>10</sup> I am confident in the Lord that you will accept no other view. But the one who is confusing you will pay the penalty, whoever he may be.

<sup>11</sup> Now, brothers and sisters, if I am still preaching circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the offense of the cross has been removed.

<sup>12</sup> I wish those agitators would go so far as to castrate themselves!

Practice Love

<sup>13</sup> For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity to indulge your flesh, but through love serve one another.

<sup>14</sup> For the whole law can be summed up in a single commandment, namely, “You must love your neighbor as yourself.”

<sup>15</sup> However, if you continually bite and devour one another, beware that you are not consumed by one another.

<sup>16</sup> But I say, live by the Spirit and you will not carry out the desires of the flesh.

<sup>17</sup> For the flesh has desires that are opposed to the Spirit, and the Spirit has desires that are opposed to the flesh, for these are in opposition to each other, so that you cannot do what you want.

<sup>18</sup> But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

<sup>21</sup> envying, murder, drunkenness, carousing, and similar things. I am warning you, as I had warned you before: Those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God!

<sup>22</sup> But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, <sup>23</sup> gentleness, and self-control. Against such things there is no law.

<sup>25</sup> If we live by the Spirit, let us also behave in accordance with the Spirit.

<sup>26</sup> Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, being jealous of one another.

6

<sup>1</sup> Brothers and sisters, if a person is discovered in some sin, you who are spiritual restore such a person in a spirit of gentleness. Pay close attention to yourselves, so that you are not tempted too.

<sup>2</sup> Carry one another's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.

<sup>3</sup> For if anyone thinks he is something when he is nothing, he deceives himself.

<sup>4</sup> Let each one examine his own work. Then he can take pride in himself and not compare himself with someone else.

<sup>6</sup> Now the one who receives instruction in the word must share all good things with the one who teaches it.

<sup>7</sup> Do not be deceived. God will not be made a fool. For a person will reap what he sows, <sup>8</sup> because the person who sows to his own flesh will reap corruption from the flesh, but the one who sows to the Spirit will reap eternal life from the Spirit.

<sup>9</sup> So we must not grow weary in doing good, for in due time we will reap, if we do not give up.

<sup>10</sup> So then, whenever we have an opportunity, let us do good to all people, and especially to those who belong to the family of faith.

Final Instructions and Benediction

<sup>11</sup> See what big letters I make as I write to you with my own hand!

<sup>12</sup> Those who want to make a good showing in external matters are trying to force you to be circumcised. They do so only to avoid being persecuted for the cross of Christ.

<sup>13</sup> For those who are circumcised do not obey the law themselves, but they want you to be circumcised so that they can boast about your flesh.

<sup>14</sup> But may I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

<sup>15</sup> For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything; the only thing that matters is a new creation!

<sup>16</sup> And all who will behave in accordance with this rule, peace and mercy be on them, and on the Israel of God.

<sup>17</sup> From now on let no one cause me trouble, for I bear the marks of Jesus on my body.

<sup>18</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

Ephesians

Salutation

<sup>1</sup> From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, to the saints [in Ephesus], the faithful in Christ Jesus.

<sup>2</sup> Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

Spiritual Blessings in Christ

<sup>3</sup> Blessed is the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms in Christ.

<sup>4</sup> For he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world that we may be holy and unblemished in his sight in love.

<sup>5</sup> He did this by predestining us to adoption as his sons through Jesus Christ, according to the pleasure of his will –

<sup>6</sup> to the praise of the glory of his grace that he has freely bestowed on us in his dearly loved Son.

<sup>7</sup> In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace <sup>8</sup> that he lavished on us in all wisdom and insight.

<sup>9</sup> He did this when he revealed to us the secret of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, <sup>10</sup> toward the administration of the fullness of the times, to head up all things in Christ – the things in heaven and the things on earth.

<sup>11</sup> In Christ we too have been claimed as God's own possession, since we were predestined according to the one purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to the counsel of his will <sup>12</sup> so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, would be to the praise of his glory.

<sup>13</sup> And when you heard the word of truth (the gospel of your salvation) – when you believed in Christ – you were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit, <sup>14</sup> who is the down payment of our inheritance, until the redemption of God's own possession, to the praise of his glory.

Prayer for Wisdom and Revelation

<sup>15</sup> For this reason, because I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints, <sup>16</sup> I do not cease to give thanks for you when I remember you in my prayers.

<sup>17</sup> I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you spiritual wisdom and revelation in your growing knowledge of him,

<sup>18</sup> – since the eyes of your heart have been enlightened – so that you may know what is the hope of his calling, what is the wealth of his glorious inheritance in the saints,

<sup>19</sup> and what is the incomparable greatness of his power toward us who believe, as displayed in the exercise of his immense strength.

<sup>20</sup> This power he exercised in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly realms

<sup>21</sup> far above every rule and authority and power and dominion and every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the one to come.

<sup>22</sup> And God put all things under Christ's feet, and he gave him to the church as head over all things.

<sup>23</sup> Now the church is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

2

<sup>2</sup> in which you formerly lived according to this world's present path, according to the ruler of the kingdom of the air, the ruler of the spirit that is now energizing the sons of disobedience, <sup>3</sup> among whom all of us also formerly lived out our lives in the cravings of our flesh, indulging the desires of the flesh and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath even as the rest...

<sup>4</sup> But God, being rich in mercy, because of his great love with which he loved us,

<sup>5</sup> even though we were dead in transgressions, made us alive together with Christ – by grace you are saved! –

<sup>6</sup> and he raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus, <sup>7</sup> to demonstrate in the coming ages the surpassing wealth of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.

<sup>8</sup> For by grace you are saved through faith, and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God;

<sup>10</sup> For we are his workmanship, having been created in Christ Jesus for good works that God prepared beforehand so we may do them.

New Life Corporately

<sup>11</sup> Therefore remember that formerly you, the Gentiles in the flesh – who are called “uncircumcision” by the so-called “circumcision” that is performed on the body by human hands –

<sup>12</sup> that you were at that time without the Messiah, alienated from the citizenship of Israel and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world.

<sup>13</sup> But now in Christ Jesus you who used to be far away have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

<sup>14</sup> For he is our peace, the one who made both groups into one and who destroyed the middle wall of partition, the hostility,

<sup>15</sup> when he nullified in his flesh the law of commandments in decrees. He did this to create in himself one new man out of two, thus making peace, <sup>16</sup> and to reconcile them both in one body to God through the cross, by which the hostility has been killed.

<sup>17</sup> And he came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near,

<sup>18</sup> so that through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.

<sup>19</sup> So then you are no longer foreigners and noncitizens, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of God's household, <sup>20</sup> because you have been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone.

<sup>21</sup> In him the whole building, being joined together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord, <sup>22</sup> in whom you also are being built together into a dwelling place of God in the Spirit.

3

<sup>1</sup> For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles –

<sup>2</sup> if indeed you have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for you, <sup>3</sup> that by revelation the divine secret was made known to me, as I wrote before briefly.

<sup>4</sup> When reading this, you will be able to understand my insight into this secret of Christ.

<sup>5</sup> Now this secret was not disclosed to people in former generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit, <sup>6</sup> namely, that through the gospel the Gentiles are fellow heirs, fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus.

<sup>7</sup> I became a servant of this gospel according to the gift of God's grace that was given to me by the exercise of his power.

<sup>8</sup> To me – less than the least of all the saints – this grace was given, to proclaim to the Gentiles the unfathomable riches of Christ

<sup>9</sup> and to enlighten everyone about God's secret plan – a secret that has been hidden for ages in God who has created all things.

<sup>10</sup> The purpose of this enlightenment is that through the church the multifaceted wisdom of God should now be disclosed to the rulers and the authorities in the heavenly realms.

<sup>11</sup> This was according to the eternal purpose that he accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord, <sup>12</sup> in whom we have boldness and confident access to God because of Christ's faithfulness.

<sup>13</sup> For this reason I ask you not to lose heart because of what I am suffering for you, which is your glory.

Prayer for Strengthened Love

<sup>14</sup> For this reason I kneel before the Father, <sup>15</sup> from whom every family in heaven and on the earth is named.

<sup>16</sup> I pray that according to the wealth of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inner person,

<sup>17</sup> that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, so that, because you have been rooted and grounded in love,

<sup>18</sup> you may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, <sup>19</sup> and thus to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled up to all the fullness of God.

<sup>20</sup> Now to him who by the power that is working within us is able to do far beyond all that we ask or think,

<sup>21</sup> to him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

4

<sup>1</sup> I, therefore, the prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live worthily of the calling with which you have been called,

<sup>3</sup> making every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

<sup>4</sup> There is one body and one Spirit, just as you too were called to the one hope of your calling,

<sup>6</sup> one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

<sup>7</sup> But to each one of us grace was given according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

<sup>8</sup> Therefore it says, “When he ascended on high he captured captives; he gave gifts to men.”

<sup>9</sup> Now what is the meaning of “he ascended,” except that he also descended to the lower regions, namely, the earth?

<sup>10</sup> He, the very one who descended, is also the one who ascended above all the heavens, in order to fill all things.

<sup>11</sup> It was he who gave some as apostles, some as prophets, some as evangelists, and some as pastors and teachers,

<sup>12</sup> to equip the saints for the work of ministry, that is, to build up the body of Christ, <sup>13</sup> until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God – a mature person, attaining to the measure of Christ’s full stature.

<sup>14</sup> So we are no longer to be children, tossed back and forth by waves and carried about by every wind of teaching by the trickery of people who craftily carry out their deceitful schemes.

<sup>15</sup> But practicing the truth in love, we will in all things grow up into Christ, who is the head.

<sup>16</sup> From him the whole body grows, fitted and held together through every supporting ligament. As each one does its part, the body grows in love.

Live in Holiness

<sup>17</sup> So I say this, and insist in the Lord, that you no longer live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their thinking.

<sup>18</sup> They are darkened in their understanding, being alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them due to the hardness of their hearts.

<sup>19</sup> Because they are callous, they have given themselves over to indecency for the practice of every kind of impurity with greediness.

<sup>20</sup> But you did not learn about Christ like this,

<sup>21</sup> if indeed you heard about him and were taught in him, just as the truth is in Jesus.

<sup>22</sup> You were taught with reference to your former way of life to lay aside the old man who is being corrupted in accordance with deceitful desires,

<sup>23</sup> to be renewed in the spirit of your mind,

<sup>24</sup> and to put on the new man who has been created in God’s image – in righteousness and holiness that comes from truth.

<sup>25</sup> Therefore, having laid aside falsehood, each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members of one another.

<sup>26</sup> Be angry and do not sin; do not let the sun go down on the cause of your anger.

<sup>28</sup> The one who steals must steal no longer; rather he must labor, doing good with his own hands, so that he may have something to share with the one who has need.

<sup>29</sup> You must let no unwholesome word come out of your mouth, but only what is beneficial for the building up of the one in need, that it may give grace to those who hear.

<sup>30</sup> And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

<sup>31</sup> You must put away every kind of bitterness, anger, wrath, quarreling, and evil, slanderous talk.

<sup>32</sup> Instead, be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another, just as God in Christ also forgave you.

5

<sup>2</sup> and live in love, just as Christ also loved us and gave himself for us, a sacrificial and fragrant offering to God.

<sup>3</sup> But among you there must not be either sexual immorality, impurity of any kind, or greed, as these are not fitting for the saints.

<sup>4</sup> Neither should there be vulgar speech, foolish talk, or coarse jesting – all of which are out of character – but rather thanksgiving.

<sup>5</sup> For you can be confident of this one thing: that no person who is immoral, impure, or greedy (such a person is an idolater) has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God.

Live in the Light

<sup>6</sup> Let nobody deceive you with empty words, for because of these things God's wrath comes on the sons of disobedience.

<sup>8</sup> for you were at one time darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of the light –

<sup>9</sup> for the fruit of the light consists in all goodness, righteousness, and truth –

<sup>11</sup> Do not participate in the unfruitful deeds of darkness, but rather expose them.

<sup>12</sup> For the things they do in secret are shameful even to mention.

<sup>13</sup> But all things being exposed by the light are made evident.

<sup>14</sup> For everything made evident is light, and for this reason it says:
“Awake, O sleeper!
Rise from the dead,
and Christ will shine on you!”

Live Wisely

<sup>15</sup> Therefore be very careful how you live – not as unwise but as wise,

<sup>17</sup> For this reason do not be foolish, but be wise by understanding what the Lord's will is.

<sup>18</sup> And do not get drunk with wine, which is debauchery, but be filled by the Spirit,

<sup>19</sup> speaking to one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making music in your hearts to the Lord,

<sup>20</sup> always giving thanks to God the Father for each other in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>21</sup> and submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ.

Exhortations to Households

<sup>22</sup> Wives, submit to your husbands as to the Lord, <sup>23</sup> because the husband is the head of the wife as also Christ is the head of the church – he himself being the savior of the body.

<sup>24</sup> But as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit to their husbands in everything.

<sup>25</sup> Husbands, love your wives just as Christ loved the church and gave himself for her

<sup>26</sup> to sanctify her by cleansing her with the washing of the water by the word, <sup>27</sup> so that he may present the church to himself as glorious – not having a stain or wrinkle, or any such blemish, but holy and blameless.

<sup>28</sup> In the same way husbands ought to love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself.

<sup>29</sup> For no one has ever hated his own body but he feeds it and takes care of it, just as Christ also does the church,

<sup>30</sup> for we are members of his body.

<sup>31</sup> For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and will be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.

<sup>32</sup> This mystery is great – but I am actually speaking with reference to Christ and the church.

<sup>33</sup> Nevertheless, each one of you must also love his own wife as he loves himself, and the wife must respect her husband.

6

<sup>2</sup> “*Honor your father and mother,,**” which is the first commandment accompanied by a promise, namely,

<sup>3</sup> “that it may go well with you and that you will live a long time on the earth.”

<sup>4</sup> Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but raise them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

<sup>5</sup> Slaves, obey your human masters with fear and trembling, in the sincerity of your heart as to Christ, <sup>6</sup> not like those who do their work only when someone is watching – as people-pleasers – but as slaves of Christ doing the will of God from the heart.

<sup>7</sup> Obey with enthusiasm, as though serving the Lord and not people, <sup>8</sup> because you know that each person, whether slave or free, if he does something good, this will be rewarded by the Lord.

<sup>9</sup> Masters, treat your slaves the same way, giving up the use of threats, because you know that both you and they have the same master in heaven, and there is no favoritism with him.

Exhortations for Spiritual Warfare

<sup>10</sup> Finally, be strengthened in the Lord and in the strength of his power.

<sup>11</sup> Clothe yourselves with the full armor of God so that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil.

<sup>12</sup> For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the world rulers of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavens.

<sup>13</sup> For this reason, take up the full armor of God so that you may be able to stand your ground on the evil day, and having done everything, to stand.

<sup>14</sup> Stand firm therefore, by fastening the belt of truth around your waist, by putting on the breastplate of righteousness,

<sup>15</sup> by fitting your feet with the preparation that comes from the good news of peace, <sup>16</sup> and in all of this, by taking up the shield of faith with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one.

<sup>17</sup> And take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

<sup>18</sup> With every prayer and petition, pray at all times in the Spirit, and to this end be alert, with all perseverance and requests for all the saints.

<sup>19</sup> Pray for me also, that I may be given the message when I begin to speak – that I may confidently make known the mystery of the gospel, <sup>20</sup> for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may be able to speak boldly as I ought to speak.

Farewell Comments

<sup>21</sup> Tychicus, my dear brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will make everything known to you, so that you too may know about my circumstances, how I am doing.

<sup>22</sup> I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you may know our circumstances and that he may encourage your hearts.

<sup>23</sup> Peace to the brothers and sisters, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>24</sup> Grace be with all of those who love our Lord Jesus Christ with an undying love.

Philippians

Salutation

<sup>1</sup> From Paul and Timothy, slaves of Christ Jesus, to all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi, with the overseers and deacons.

<sup>2</sup> Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

Prayer for the Church

<sup>3</sup> I thank my God every time I remember you.

<sup>4</sup> I always pray with joy in my every prayer for all of you

<sup>6</sup> For I am sure of this very thing, that the one who began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Christ Jesus.

<sup>7</sup> For it is right for me to think this about all of you, because I have you in my heart, since both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel all of you became partners in God's grace together with me.

<sup>8</sup> For God is my witness that I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus.

<sup>9</sup> And I pray this, that your love may abound even more and more in knowledge and every kind of insight

<sup>10</sup> so that you can decide what is best, and thus be sincere and blameless for the day of Christ, <sup>11</sup> filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ to the glory and praise of God.

Ministry as a Prisoner

<sup>12</sup> I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that my situation has actually turned out to advance the gospel:

<sup>13</sup> The whole imperial guard and everyone else knows that I am in prison for the sake of Christ, <sup>14</sup> and most of the brothers and sisters, having confidence in the Lord because of my imprisonment, now more than ever dare to speak the word fearlessly.

<sup>15</sup> Some, to be sure, are preaching Christ from envy and rivalry, but others from goodwill.

<sup>16</sup> The latter do so from love because they know that I am placed here for the defense of the gospel.

<sup>17</sup> The former proclaim Christ from selfish ambition, not sincerely, because they think they can cause trouble for me in my imprisonment.

<sup>18</sup> What is the result? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is being proclaimed, and in this I rejoice.

Yes, and I will continue to rejoice,

<sup>19</sup> for I know that this will turn out for my deliverance through your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ.

<sup>20</sup> My confident hope is that I will in no way be ashamed but that with complete boldness, even now as always, Christ will be exalted in my body, whether I live or die.

<sup>22</sup> Now if I am to go on living in the body, this will mean productive work for me, yet I don't know which I prefer:

<sup>23</sup> I feel torn between the two, because I have a desire to depart and be with Christ, which is better by far,

<sup>24</sup> but it is more vital for your sake that I remain in the body.

<sup>25</sup> And since I am sure of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for the sake of your progress and joy in the faith, <sup>26</sup> so that what you can be proud of may increase because of me in Christ Jesus, when I come back to you.

<sup>27</sup> Only conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ so that – whether I come and see you or whether I remain absent – I should hear that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind, by contending side by side for the faith of the gospel, <sup>28</sup> and by not being intimidated in any way by your opponents. This is a sign of their destruction, but of your salvation – a sign which is from God.

<sup>29</sup> For it has been granted to you not only to believe in Christ but also to suffer for him, <sup>30</sup> since you are encountering the same conflict that you saw me face and now hear that I am facing.

2

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort provided by love, any fellowship in the Spirit, any affection or mercy,

<sup>2</sup> complete my joy and be of the same mind, by having the same love, being united in spirit, and having one purpose.

<sup>3</sup> Instead of being motivated by selfish ambition or vanity, each of you should, in humility, be moved to treat one another as more important than yourself.

<sup>4</sup> Each of you should be concerned not only about your own interests, but about the interests of others as well.

<sup>5</sup> You should have the same attitude toward one another that Christ Jesus had, who though he existed in the form of God did not regard equality with God as something to be grasped,

<sup>6</sup>

<sup>7</sup> but emptied himself by taking on the form of a slave, by looking like other men,
and by sharing in human nature.

<sup>8</sup> He humbled himself, by becoming obedient to the point of death
– even death on a cross!

<sup>9</sup> As a result God exalted him and gave him the name
that is above every name,

<sup>10</sup> so that at the name of Jesus every knee will bow

– in heaven and on earth and under the earth –

<sup>11</sup> and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father.

Lights in the World

<sup>12</sup> So then, my dear friends, just as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence but even more in my absence, continue working out your salvation with awe and reverence, <sup>13</sup> for the one bringing forth in you both the desire and the effort – for the sake of his good pleasure – is God.

- <sup>14</sup> Do everything without grumbling or arguing, <sup>15</sup> so that you may be blameless and pure, children of God without blemish though you live in a crooked and perverse society, in which you shine as lights in the world
<sup>16</sup> by holding on to the word of life so that on the day of Christ I will have a reason to boast that I did not run in vain nor labor in vain.
<sup>17</sup> But even if I am being poured out like a drink offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I am glad and rejoice together with all of you.
<sup>18</sup> And in the same way you also should be glad and rejoice together with me.

Models for Ministry

- <sup>19</sup> Now I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, so that I too may be encouraged by hearing news about you.
<sup>20</sup> For there is no one here like him who will readily demonstrate his deep concern for you.
<sup>21</sup> Others are busy with their own concerns, not those of Jesus Christ.
<sup>22</sup> But you know his qualifications, that like a son working with his father, he served with me in advancing the gospel.
<sup>23</sup> So I hope to send him as soon as I know more about my situation, <sup>24</sup> though I am confident in the Lord that I too will be coming to see you soon.
<sup>25</sup> But for now I have considered it necessary to send Epaphroditus to you. For he is my brother, coworker and fellow soldier, and your messenger and minister to me in my need.
<sup>26</sup> Indeed, he greatly missed all of you and was distressed because you heard that he had been ill.
<sup>27</sup> In fact he became so ill that he nearly died. But God showed mercy to him – and not to him only, but also to me – so that I would not have grief on top of grief.
<sup>28</sup> Therefore I am all the more eager to send him, so that when you see him again you can rejoice and I can be free from anxiety.
<sup>29</sup> So welcome him in the Lord with great joy, and honor people like him, <sup>30</sup> since it was because of the work of Christ that he almost died. He risked his life so that he could make up for your inability to serve me.

3

- <sup>1</sup> Finally, my brothers and sisters, rejoice in the Lord! To write this again is no trouble to me, and it is a safeguard for you.
<sup>3</sup> For we are the circumcision, the ones who worship by the Spirit of God, exult in Christ Jesus, and do not rely on human credentials <sup>4</sup> – though mine too are significant. If someone thinks he has good reasons to put confidence in human credentials, I have more:
<sup>5</sup> I was circumcised on the eighth day, from the people of Israel and the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews. I lived according to the law as a Pharisee.
<sup>6</sup> In my zeal for God I persecuted the church. According to the righteousness stipulated in the law I was blameless.
<sup>7</sup> But these assets I have come to regard as liabilities because of Christ.
<sup>8</sup> More than that, I now regard all things as liabilities compared to the far greater value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things – indeed, I regard them as dung! – that I may gain Christ, <sup>9</sup> and be found in him, not because I have my own righteousness derived from the law, but because I have the righteousness that comes by way of Christ's faithfulness – a righteousness from God that is in fact based on Christ's faithfulness.

<sup>10</sup> My aim is to know him, to experience the power of his resurrection, to share in his sufferings, and to be like him in his death, <sup>11</sup> and so, somehow, to attain to the resurrection from the dead.

Keep Going Forward

<sup>12</sup> Not that I have already attained this – that is, I have not already been perfected – but I strive to lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus also laid hold of me.

<sup>13</sup> Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself to have attained this. Instead I am single-minded: Forgetting the things that are behind and reaching out for the things that are ahead, <sup>14</sup> with this goal in mind, I strive toward the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> Therefore let those of us who are “perfect” embrace this point of view. If you think otherwise, God will reveal to you the error of your ways.

<sup>16</sup> Nevertheless, let us live up to the standard that we have already attained.

<sup>17</sup> Be imitators of me, brothers and sisters, and watch carefully those who are living this way, just as you have us as an example.

<sup>18</sup> For many live, about whom I have often told you, and now, with tears, I tell you that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ.

<sup>19</sup> Their end is destruction, their god is the belly, they exult in their shame, and they think about earthly things.

<sup>20</sup> But our citizenship is in heaven – and we also await a savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>21</sup> who will transform these humble bodies of ours into the likeness of his glorious body by means of that power by which he is able to subject all things to himself.

4

<sup>1</sup> So then, my brothers and sisters, dear friends whom I long to see, my joy and crown, stand in the Lord in this way, my dear friends!

<sup>2</sup> I appeal to Euodia and to Syntyche to agree in the Lord.

<sup>3</sup> Yes, I say also to you, true companion, help them. They have struggled together in the gospel ministry along with me and Clement and my other coworkers, whose names are in the book of life.

<sup>6</sup> Do not be anxious about anything. Instead, in every situation, through prayer and petition with thanksgiving, tell your requests to God.

<sup>7</sup> And the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

<sup>8</sup> Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is worthy of respect, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if something is excellent or praiseworthy, think about these things.

<sup>9</sup> And what you learned and received and heard and saw in me, do these things. And the God of peace will be with you.

Appreciation for Support

<sup>10</sup> I have great joy in the Lord because now at last you have again expressed your concern for me. (Now I know you were concerned before but had no opportunity to do anything.)

<sup>11</sup> I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content in any circumstance.

<sup>12</sup> I have experienced times of need and times of abundance. In any and every circumstance I have learned the secret of contentment, whether I go satisfied or hungry, have plenty or nothing.

<sup>13</sup> I am able to do all things through the one who strengthens me.

<sup>14</sup> Nevertheless, you did well to share with me in my trouble.

<sup>15</sup> And as you Philippians know, at the beginning of my gospel ministry, when I left Macedonia, no church shared with me in this matter of giving and receiving except you alone.

<sup>16</sup> For even in Thessalonica on more than one occasion you sent something for my need.

<sup>17</sup> I do not say this because I am seeking a gift. Rather, I seek the credit that abounds to your account.

<sup>18</sup> For I have received everything, and I have plenty. I have all I need because I received from Epaphroditus what you sent – a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, very pleasing to God.

<sup>19</sup> And my God will supply your every need according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.

<sup>20</sup> May glory be given to God our Father forever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

<sup>21</sup> Give greetings to all the saints in Christ Jesus. The brothers with me here send greetings.

<sup>22</sup> All the saints greet you, especially those who belong to Caesar's household.

Colossians

Salutation

<sup>1</sup> From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, <sup>2</sup> to the saints, the faithful brothers and sisters in Christ, at Colossae. Grace and peace to you from God our Father!

Paul's Thanksgiving and Prayer for the Church

<sup>3</sup> We always give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, <sup>4</sup> since we heard about your faith in Christ Jesus and the love that you have for all the saints.

<sup>5</sup> Your faith and love have arisen from the hope laid up for you in heaven, which you have heard about in the message of truth, the gospel

<sup>6</sup> that has come to you. Just as in the entire world this gospel is bearing fruit and growing, so it has also been bearing fruit and growing among you from the first day you heard it and understood the grace of God in truth.

<sup>7</sup> You learned the gospel from Epaphras, our dear fellow slave – a faithful minister of Christ on our behalf –

<sup>8</sup> who also told us of your love in the Spirit.

Paul's Prayer for the Growth of the Church

<sup>9</sup> For this reason we also, from the day we heard about you, have not ceased praying for you and asking God to fill you with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding,

<sup>10</sup> so that you may live worthily of the Lord and please him in all respects – bearing fruit in every good deed, growing in the knowledge of God,

<sup>11</sup> being strengthened with all power according to his glorious might for the display of all patience and steadfastness, joyfully

<sup>12</sup> giving thanks to the Father who has qualified you to share in the saints' inheritance in the light.

<sup>13</sup> He delivered us from the power of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of the Son he loves, <sup>14</sup> in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

The Supremacy of Christ

<sup>15</sup> He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation, <sup>16</sup> for all things in heaven and on earth were created by him – all things, whether visible or invisible, whether thrones or dominions, whether principalities or powers – all things were created through him and for him.

<sup>17</sup> He himself is before all things and all things are held together in him.

<sup>18</sup> He is the head of the body, the church, as well as the beginning, the firstborn from among the dead, so that he himself may become first in all things.

<sup>19</sup> For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in the Son <sup>20</sup> and through him to reconcile all things to himself by making peace through the blood of his cross – through him, whether things on earth or things in heaven.

Paul's Goal in Ministry

<sup>21</sup> And you were at one time strangers and enemies in your minds as expressed through your evil deeds,

<sup>22</sup> but now he has reconciled you by his physical body through death to present you holy, without blemish, and blameless before him –

<sup>23</sup> if indeed you remain in the faith, established and firm, without shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard. This gospel has also been preached in all creation under heaven, and I, Paul, have become its servant.

<sup>24</sup> Now I rejoice in my sufferings for you, and I fill up in my physical body – for the sake of his body, the church – what is lacking in the sufferings of Christ.

<sup>25</sup> I became a servant of the church according to the stewardship from God – given to me for you – in order to complete the word of God, <sup>26</sup> that is, the mystery that has been kept hidden from ages and generations, but has now been revealed to his saints.

<sup>27</sup> God wanted to make known to them the glorious riches of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

<sup>28</sup> We proclaim him by instructing and teaching all people with all wisdom so that we may present every person mature in Christ.

<sup>29</sup> Toward this goal I also labor, struggling according to his power that powerfully works in me.

2

<sup>1</sup> For I want you to know how great a struggle I have for you, and for those in Laodicea, and for those who have not met me face to face.

<sup>2</sup> My goal is that their hearts, having been knit together in love, may be encouraged, and that they may have all the riches that assurance brings in their understanding of the knowledge of the mystery of God, namely, Christ,

<sup>4</sup> I say this so that no one will deceive you through arguments that sound reasonable.

<sup>5</sup> For though I am absent from you in body, I am present with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your morale and the firmness of your faith in Christ.

Warnings Against the Adoption of False Philosophies

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live your lives in him, <sup>7</sup> rooted and built up in him and firm in your faith just as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness.

<sup>8</sup> Be careful not to allow anyone to captivate you through an empty, deceitful philosophy that is according to human traditions and the elemental spirits of the world, and not according to Christ.

<sup>9</sup> For in him all the fullness of deity lives in bodily form, <sup>10</sup> and you have been filled in him, who is the head over every ruler and authority.

<sup>11</sup> In him you also were circumcised – not, however, with a circumcision performed by human hands, but by the removal of the fleshly body, that is, through the circumcision done by Christ.

<sup>12</sup> Having been buried with him in baptism, you also have been raised with him through your faith in the power of God who raised him from the dead.

<sup>13</sup> And even though you were dead in your transgressions and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, he nevertheless made you alive with him, having forgiven all your transgressions.

<sup>14</sup> He has destroyed what was against us, a certificate of indebtedness expressed in decrees opposed to us. He has taken it away by nailing it to the cross.

<sup>15</sup> Disarming the rulers and authorities, he has made a public disgrace of them, triumphing over them by the cross.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore do not let anyone judge you with respect to food or drink, or in the matter of a feast, new moon, or Sabbath days –

<sup>17</sup> these are only the shadow of the things to come, but the reality is Christ!

<sup>18</sup> Let no one who delights in humility and the worship of angels pass judgment on you. That person goes on at great lengths about what he has supposedly seen, but he is puffed up with empty notions by his fleshly mind.

<sup>19</sup> He has not held fast to the head from whom the whole body, supported and knit together through its ligaments and sinews, grows with a growth that is from God.

<sup>20</sup> If you have died with Christ to the elemental spirits of the world, why do you submit to them as though you lived in the world?

<sup>22</sup> These are all destined to perish with use, founded as they are on human commands and teachings.

<sup>23</sup> Even though they have the appearance of wisdom with their self-imposed worship and false humility achieved by an unsparing treatment of the body – a wisdom with no true value – they in reality result in fleshly indulgence.

3

<sup>2</sup> Keep thinking about things above, not things on the earth, <sup>3</sup> for you have died and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

<sup>4</sup> When Christ (who is your life) appears, then you too will be revealed in glory with him.

<sup>5</sup> So put to death whatever in your nature belongs to the earth: sexual immorality, impurity, shameful passion, evil desire, and greed which is idolatry.

<sup>6</sup> Because of these things the wrath of God is coming on the sons of disobedience.

<sup>7</sup> You also lived your lives in this way at one time, when you used to live among them.

<sup>8</sup> But now, put off all such things as anger, rage, malice, slander, abusive language from your mouth.

<sup>9</sup> Do not lie to one another since you have put off the old man with its practices

<sup>10</sup> and have been clothed with the new man that is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of the one who created it.

<sup>11</sup> Here there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcised or uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave or free, but Christ is all and in all.

Exhortation to Unity and Love

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, as the elect of God, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with a heart of mercy, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, <sup>13</sup> bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if someone happens to have a complaint against anyone else. Just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also forgive others.

<sup>14</sup> And to all these virtues add love, which is the perfect bond.

<sup>15</sup> Let the peace of Christ be in control in your heart (for you were in fact called as one body to this peace), and be thankful.

<sup>16</sup> Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and exhorting one another with all wisdom, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, all with grace in your hearts to God.

<sup>17</sup> And whatever you do in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Exhortation to Households

- <sup>18</sup> Wives, submit to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.
<sup>19</sup> Husbands, love your wives and do not be embittered against them.
<sup>20</sup> Children, obey your parents in everything, for this is pleasing in the Lord.
<sup>21</sup> Fathers, do not provoke your children, so they will not become disheartened.
<sup>22</sup> Slaves, obey your earthly masters in every respect, not only when they are watching – like those who are strictly people-pleasers – but with a sincere heart, fearing the Lord.
<sup>23</sup> Whatever you are doing, work at it with enthusiasm, as to the Lord and not for people, <sup>24</sup> because you know that you will receive your inheritance from the Lord as the reward. Serve the Lord Christ.
<sup>25</sup> For the one who does wrong will be repaid for his wrong, and there are no exceptions.

4

<sup>1</sup> Masters, treat your slaves with justice and fairness, because you know that you also have a master in heaven.

Exhortation to Pray for the Success of Paul's Mission

- <sup>2</sup> Be devoted to prayer, keeping alert in it with thanksgiving.
<sup>3</sup> At the same time pray for us too, that God may open a door for the message so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ, for which I am in chains.
<sup>4</sup> Pray that I may make it known as I should.
<sup>5</sup> Conduct yourselves with wisdom toward outsiders, making the most of the opportunities.
<sup>6</sup> Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you should answer everyone.

Personal Greetings and Instructions

- <sup>7</sup> Tychicus, a dear brother, faithful minister, and fellow slave in the Lord, will tell you all the news about me.
<sup>8</sup> I sent him to you for this very purpose, that you may know how we are doing and that he may encourage your hearts.
<sup>9</sup> I sent him with Onesimus, the faithful and dear brother, who is one of you. They will tell you about everything here.
<sup>10</sup> Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, sends you greetings, as does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (about whom you received instructions; if he comes to you, welcome him).
<sup>11</sup> And Jesus who is called Justus also sends greetings. In terms of Jewish converts, these are the only fellow workers for the kingdom of God, and they have been a comfort to me.
<sup>12</sup> Epaphras, who is one of you and a slave of Christ, greets you. He is always struggling in prayer on your behalf, so that you may stand mature and fully assured in all the will of God.
<sup>13</sup> For I can testify that he has worked hard for you and for those in Laodicea and Hierapolis.
<sup>14</sup> Our dear friend Luke the physician and Demas greet you.
<sup>15</sup> Give my greetings to the brothers and sisters who are in Laodicea and to Nympha and the church that meets in her house.
<sup>16</sup> And after you have read this letter, have it read to the church of Laodicea. In turn, read the letter from Laodicea as well.
<sup>17</sup> And tell Archippus, "See to it that you complete the ministry you received in the Lord."
<sup>18</sup> I, Paul, write this greeting by my own hand. Remember my chains. Grace be with you.

1 Thessalonians

Salutation

<sup>1</sup> From Paul and Silvanus and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Grace and peace to you!

Thanksgiving for Response to the Gospel

<sup>2</sup> We thank God always for all of you as we mention you constantly in our prayers, <sup>3</sup> because we recall in the presence of our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and endurance of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup> We know, brothers and sisters loved by God, that he has chosen you, <sup>5</sup> in that our gospel did not come to you merely in words, but in power and in the Holy Spirit and with deep conviction (surely you recall the character we displayed when we came among you to help you).

<sup>6</sup> And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, when you received the message with joy that comes from the Holy Spirit, despite great affliction.

<sup>7</sup> As a result you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia.

<sup>8</sup> For from you the message of the Lord has echoed forth not just in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place reports of your faith in God have spread, so that we do not need to say anything.

<sup>9</sup> For people everywhere report how you welcomed us and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God <sup>10</sup> and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus our deliverer from the coming wrath.

2

<sup>1</sup> For you yourselves know, brothers and sisters, about our coming to you – it has not proven to be purposeless.

<sup>2</sup> But although we suffered earlier and were mistreated in Philippi, as you know, we had the courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in spite of much opposition.

<sup>3</sup> For the appeal we make does not come from error or impurity or with deceit, <sup>4</sup> but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we declare it, not to please people but God, who examines our hearts.

<sup>5</sup> For we never appeared with flattering speech, as you know, nor with a pretext for greed – God is our witness –

<sup>6</sup> nor to seek glory from people, either from you or from others,

<sup>7</sup> although we could have imposed our weight as apostles of Christ; instead we became little children among you. Like a nursing mother caring for her own children, <sup>8</sup> with such affection for you we were happy to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own lives, because you had become dear to us.

<sup>9</sup> For you recall, brothers and sisters, our toil and drudgery: By working night and day so as not to impose a burden on any of you, we preached to you the gospel of God.

<sup>10</sup> You are witnesses, and so is God, as to how holy and righteous and blameless our conduct was toward you who believe.

<sup>11</sup> As you know, we treated each one of you as a father treats his own children, <sup>12</sup> exhorting and encouraging you and insisting that you live in a way worthy of God who calls you to his own kingdom and his glory.

<sup>13</sup> And so we too constantly thank God that when you received God's message that you heard from us, you accepted it not as a human message, but as it truly is, God's message, which is at work among you who believe.

<sup>14</sup> For you became imitators, brothers and sisters, of God's churches in Christ Jesus that are in Judea, because you too suffered the same things from your own countrymen as they in fact did from the Jews,

<sup>15</sup> who killed both the Lord Jesus and the prophets and persecuted us severely. They are displeasing to God and are opposed to all people, <sup>16</sup> because they hinder us from speaking to the Gentiles so that they may be saved. Thus they constantly fill up their measure of sins, but wrath has come upon them completely.

Forced Absence from Thessalonica

<sup>17</sup> But when we were separated from you, brothers and sisters, for a short time (in presence, not in affection) we became all the more fervent in our great desire to see you in person.

<sup>18</sup> For we wanted to come to you (I, Paul, in fact tried again and again) but Satan thwarted us.

<sup>19</sup> For who is our hope or joy or crown to boast of before our Lord Jesus at his coming? Is it not of course you?

<sup>20</sup> For you are our glory and joy!

3

<sup>1</sup> So when we could bear it no longer, we decided to stay on in Athens alone.

<sup>2</sup> We sent Timothy, our brother and fellow worker for God in the gospel of Christ, to strengthen you and encourage you about your faith, <sup>3</sup> so that no one would be shaken by these afflictions. For you yourselves know that we are destined for this.

<sup>4</sup> For in fact when we were with you, we were telling you in advance that we would suffer affliction, and so it has happened, as you well know.

<sup>5</sup> So when I could bear it no longer, I sent to find out about your faith, for fear that the tempter somehow tempted you and our toil had proven useless.

<sup>6</sup> But now Timothy has come to us from you and given us the good news of your faith and love and that you always think of us with affection and long to see us just as we also long to see you!

<sup>7</sup> So in all our distress and affliction, we were reassured about you, brothers and sisters, through your faith.

<sup>8</sup> For now we are alive again, if you stand firm in the Lord.

<sup>9</sup> For how can we thank God enough for you, for all the joy we feel because of you before our God?

<sup>10</sup> We pray earnestly night and day to see you in person and make up what may be lacking in your faith.

<sup>11</sup> Now may God our Father himself and our Lord Jesus direct our way to you.

<sup>12</sup> And may the Lord cause you to increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we do for you, <sup>13</sup> so that your hearts are strengthened in holiness to be blameless before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

4

<sup>1</sup> Finally then, brothers and sisters, we ask you and urge you in the Lord Jesus, that as you received instruction from us about how you must live and please God (as you are in fact living) that you do so more and more.

<sup>3</sup> For this is God's will: that you become holy, that you keep away from sexual immorality,

<sup>4</sup> that each of you know how to possess his own body in holiness and honor,

<sup>5</sup> not in lustful passion like the Gentiles who do not know God.

<sup>6</sup> In this matter no one should violate the rights of his brother or take advantage of him, because the Lord is the avenger in all these cases, as we also told you earlier and warned you solemnly.

<sup>7</sup> For God did not call us to impurity but in holiness.

<sup>8</sup> Consequently the one who rejects this is not rejecting human authority but God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you.

<sup>9</sup> Now on the topic of brotherly love you have no need for anyone to write you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another.

<sup>10</sup> And indeed you are practicing it toward all the brothers and sisters in all of Macedonia. But we urge you, brothers and sisters, to do so more and more,

<sup>11</sup> to aspire to lead a quiet life, to attend to your own business, and to work with your hands, as we commanded you.

<sup>12</sup> In this way you will live a decent life before outsiders and not be in need.

The Lord Returns for Believers

<sup>13</sup> Now we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who are asleep, so that you will not grieve like the rest who have no hope.

<sup>14</sup> For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, so also we believe that God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep as Christians.

<sup>15</sup> For we tell you this by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will surely not go ahead of those who have fallen asleep.

<sup>16</sup> For the Lord himself will come down from heaven with a shout of command, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first.

<sup>17</sup> Then we who are alive, who are left, will be suddenly caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will always be with the Lord.

<sup>18</sup> Therefore encourage one another with these words.

5

<sup>1</sup> Now on the topic of times and seasons, brothers and sisters, you have no need for anything to be written to you.

<sup>2</sup> For you know quite well that the day of the Lord will come in the same way as a thief in the night.

<sup>3</sup> Now when they are saying, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction comes on them, like labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they will surely not escape.

<sup>4</sup> But you, brothers and sisters, are not in the darkness for the day to overtake you like a thief would.

<sup>5</sup> For you all are sons of the light and sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of the darkness.

<sup>6</sup> So then we must not sleep as the rest, but must stay alert and sober.

<sup>7</sup> For those who sleep, sleep at night and those who get drunk are drunk at night.

<sup>8</sup> But since we are of the day, we must stay sober by putting on the breastplate of faith and love and as a helmet our hope for salvation.

<sup>9</sup> For God did not destine us for wrath but for gaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>10</sup> He died for us so that whether we are alert or asleep we will come to life together with him.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, just as you are in fact doing.

Final Instructions

<sup>12</sup> Now we ask you, brothers and sisters, to acknowledge those who labor among you and preside over you in the Lord and admonish you, <sup>13</sup> and to esteem them most highly in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves.

<sup>14</sup> And we urge you, brothers and sisters, admonish the undisciplined, comfort the discouraged, help the weak, be patient toward all.

<sup>15</sup> See that no one pays back evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue what is good for one another and for all.

<sup>18</sup> in everything give thanks. For this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

Conclusion

<sup>23</sup> Now may the God of peace himself make you completely holy and may your spirit and soul and body be kept entirely blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>24</sup> He who calls you is trustworthy, and he will in fact do this.

<sup>25</sup> Brothers and sisters, pray for us too.

<sup>27</sup> I call on you solemnly in the Lord to have this letter read to all the brothers and sisters.

<sup>28</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

2 Thessalonians

Salutation

<sup>1</sup> From Paul and Silvanus and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>2</sup> Grace and peace to you from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

Thanksgiving

<sup>3</sup> We ought to thank God always for you, brothers and sisters, and rightly so, because your faith flourishes more and more and the love of each one of you all for one another is ever greater.

<sup>4</sup> As a result we ourselves boast about you in the churches of God for your perseverance and faith in all the persecutions and afflictions you are enduring.

Encouragement in Persecution

<sup>5</sup> This is evidence of God's righteous judgment, to make you worthy of the kingdom of God, for which in fact you are suffering.

<sup>6</sup> For it is right for God to repay with affliction those who afflict you, <sup>7</sup> and to you who are being afflicted to give rest together with us when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels.

<sup>8</sup> With flaming fire he will mete out punishment on those who do not know God and do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus.

<sup>9</sup> They will undergo the penalty of eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his strength, <sup>10</sup> when he comes to be glorified among his saints and admired on that day among all who have believed – and you did in fact believe our testimony.

<sup>11</sup> And in this regard we pray for you always, that our God will make you worthy of his calling and fulfill by his power your every desire for goodness and every work of faith, <sup>12</sup> that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2

<sup>1</sup> Now regarding the arrival of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered to be with him, we ask you, brothers and sisters,

<sup>2</sup> not to be easily shaken from your composure or disturbed by any kind of spirit or message or letter allegedly from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here.

<sup>3</sup> Let no one deceive you in any way. For that day will not arrive until the rebellion comes and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction.

<sup>4</sup> He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, and as a result he takes his seat in God's temple, displaying himself as God.

<sup>5</sup> Surely you recall that I used to tell you these things while I was still with you.

<sup>6</sup> And so you know what holds him back, so that he will be revealed in his own time.

<sup>7</sup> For the hidden power of lawlessness is already at work. However, the one who holds him back will do so until he is taken out of the way, <sup>8</sup> and then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will destroy by the breath of his mouth and wipe out by the manifestation of his arrival.

<sup>9</sup> The arrival of the lawless one will be by Satan's working with all kinds of miracles and signs and false wonders, <sup>10</sup> and with every kind of evil deception directed against those who are perishing, because they found no place in their hearts for the truth so as to be saved.

<sup>11</sup> Consequently God sends on them a deluding influence so that they will believe what is false.

<sup>12</sup> And so all of them who have not believed the truth but have delighted in evil will be condemned.

Call to Stand Firm

<sup>13</sup> But we ought to thank God always for you, brothers and sisters loved by the Lord, because God chose you from the beginning for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and faith in the truth.

<sup>14</sup> He called you to this salvation through our gospel, so that you may possess the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>15</sup> Therefore, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold on to the traditions that we taught you, whether by speech or by letter.

<sup>16</sup> Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and by grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, <sup>17</sup> encourage your hearts and strengthen you in every good thing you do or say.

3

<sup>1</sup> Finally, pray for us, brothers and sisters, that the Lord's message may spread quickly and be honored as in fact it was among you,

<sup>2</sup> and that we may be delivered from perverse and evil people. For not all have faith.

<sup>3</sup> But the Lord is faithful, and he will strengthen you and protect you from the evil one.

<sup>4</sup> And we are confident about you in the Lord that you are both doing – and will do – what we are commanding.

<sup>5</sup> Now may the Lord direct your hearts toward the love of God and the endurance of Christ.

Response to the Undisciplined

<sup>6</sup> But we command you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from any brother who lives an undisciplined life and not according to the tradition they received from us.

<sup>7</sup> For you know yourselves how you must imitate us, because we did not behave without discipline among you, <sup>8</sup> and we did not eat anyone's food without paying. Instead, in toil and drudgery we worked night and day in order not to burden any of you.

<sup>9</sup> It was not because we do not have that right, but to give ourselves as an example for you to imitate.

<sup>10</sup> For even when we were with you, we used to give you this command: "If anyone is not willing to work, neither should he eat."

<sup>11</sup> For we hear that some among you are living an undisciplined life, not doing their own work but meddling in the work of others.

<sup>12</sup> Now such people we command and urge in the Lord Jesus Christ to work quietly and so provide their own food to eat.

<sup>13</sup> But you, brothers and sisters, do not grow weary in doing what is right.

<sup>14</sup> But if anyone does not obey our message through this letter, take note of him and do not associate closely with him, so that he may be ashamed.

<sup>15</sup> Yet do not regard him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

Conclusion

<sup>16</sup> Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times and in every way. The Lord be with you all.

- <sup>17</sup> I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand, which is how I write in every letter.
<sup>18</sup> The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

1 Timothy

Salutation

<sup>1</sup> From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the command of God our Savior and of Christ Jesus our hope, <sup>2</sup> to Timothy, my genuine child in the faith. Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord!

Timothy's Task in Ephesus

<sup>3</sup> As I urged you when I was leaving for Macedonia, stay on in Ephesus to instruct certain people not to spread false teachings, <sup>4</sup> nor to occupy themselves with myths and interminable genealogies. Such things promote useless speculations rather than God's redemptive plan that operates by faith.

<sup>5</sup> But the aim of our instruction is love that comes from a pure heart, a good conscience, and a sincere faith.

<sup>6</sup> Some have strayed from these and turned away to empty discussion.

<sup>7</sup> They want to be teachers of the law, but they do not understand what they are saying or the things they insist on so confidently.

<sup>8</sup> But we know that the law is good if someone uses it legitimately,

<sup>9</sup> realizing that law is not intended for a righteous person, but for lawless and rebellious people, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers, <sup>10</sup> sexually immoral people, practicing homosexuals, kidnappers, liars, perjurers – in fact, for any who live contrary to sound teaching.

<sup>11</sup> This accords with the glorious gospel of the blessed God that was entrusted to me.

<sup>12</sup> I am grateful to the one who has strengthened me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he considered me faithful in putting me into ministry,

<sup>13</sup> even though I was formerly a blasphemer and a persecutor, and an arrogant man. But I was treated with mercy because I acted ignorantly in unbelief, <sup>14</sup> and our Lord's grace was abundant, bringing faith and love in Christ Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> This saying is trustworthy and deserves full acceptance: "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners" – and I am the worst of them!

<sup>16</sup> But here is why I was treated with mercy: so that in me as the worst, Christ Jesus could demonstrate his utmost patience, as an example for those who are going to believe in him for eternal life.

<sup>17</sup> Now to the eternal king, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever! Amen.

<sup>18</sup> I put this charge before you, Timothy my child, in keeping with the prophecies once spoken about you, in order that with such encouragement you may fight the good fight.

<sup>19</sup> To do this you must hold firmly to faith and a good conscience, which some have rejected and so have suffered shipwreck in regard to the faith.

<sup>20</sup> Among these are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I handed over to Satan to be taught not to blaspheme.

2

<sup>1</sup> First of all, then, I urge that requests, prayers, intercessions, and thanks be offered on behalf of all people, <sup>2</sup> even for kings and all who are in authority, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life in all godliness and dignity.

<sup>3</sup> Such prayer for all is good and welcomed before God our Savior, <sup>4</sup> since he wants all people to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth.
<sup>5</sup> For there is one God and one intermediary between God and humanity, Christ Jesus, himself human, <sup>6</sup> who gave himself as a ransom for all, revealing God's purpose at his appointed time.
<sup>7</sup> For this I was appointed a preacher and apostle – I am telling the truth; I am not lying – and a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.
<sup>8</sup> So I want the men to pray in every place, lifting up holy hands without anger or dispute.

Conduct of Women

<sup>9</sup> Likewise the women are to dress in suitable apparel, with modesty and self-control. Their adornment must not be with braided hair and gold or pearls or expensive clothing, <sup>10</sup> but with good deeds, as is proper for women who profess reverence for God.
<sup>12</sup> But I do not allow a woman to teach or exercise authority over a man. She must remain quiet.
<sup>13</sup> For Adam was formed first and then Eve.
<sup>14</sup> And Adam was not deceived, but the woman, because she was fully deceived, fell into transgression.
<sup>15</sup> But she will be delivered through childbearing, if she continues in faith and love and holiness with self-control.

3

<sup>2</sup> The overseer then must be above reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, an able teacher,
<sup>5</sup> But if someone does not know how to manage his own household, how will he care for the church of God?
<sup>6</sup> He must not be a recent convert or he may become arrogant and fall into the punishment that the devil will exact.
<sup>7</sup> And he must be well thought of by those outside the faith, so that he may not fall into disgrace and be caught by the devil's trap.
<sup>8</sup> Deacons likewise must be dignified, not two-faced, not given to excessive drinking, not greedy for gain,
<sup>10</sup> And these also must be tested first and then let them serve as deacons if they are found blameless.
<sup>11</sup> Likewise also their wives must be dignified, not slanderous, temperate, faithful in every respect.
<sup>12</sup> Deacons must be husbands of one wife and good managers of their children and their own households.
<sup>13</sup> For those who have served well as deacons gain a good standing for themselves and great boldness in the faith that is in Christ Jesus.

Conduct in God's Church

<sup>14</sup> I hope to come to you soon, but I am writing these instructions to you

<sup>15</sup> in case I am delayed, to let you know how people ought to conduct themselves in the household of God, because it is the church of the living God, the support and bulwark of the truth.

<sup>16</sup> And we all agree, our religion contains amazing revelation:
He was revealed in the flesh,
vindicated by the Spirit,
seen by angels,
proclaimed among Gentiles,
believed on in the world,
taken up in glory.

4

<sup>1</sup> Now the Spirit explicitly says that in the later times some will desert the faith and occupy themselves with deceiving spirits and demonic teachings,

<sup>3</sup> They will prohibit marriage and require abstinence from foods that God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth.

<sup>4</sup> For every creation of God is good and no food is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving.

<sup>5</sup> For it is sanctified by God's word and by prayer.

<sup>6</sup> By pointing out such things to the brothers and sisters, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, having nourished yourself on the words of the faith and of the good teaching that you have followed.

<sup>8</sup> For "physical exercise has some value, but godliness is valuable in every way. It holds promise for the present life and for the life to come."

<sup>10</sup> In fact this is why we work hard and struggle, because we have set our hope on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of believers.

<sup>12</sup> Let no one look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in your speech, conduct, love, faithfulness, and purity.

<sup>13</sup> Until I come, give attention to the public reading of scripture, to exhortation, to teaching.

<sup>14</sup> Do not neglect the spiritual gift you have, given to you and confirmed by prophetic words when the elders laid hands on you.

<sup>15</sup> Take pains with these things; be absorbed in them, so that everyone will see your progress.

<sup>16</sup> Be conscientious about how you live and what you teach. Persevere in this, because by doing so you will save both yourself and those who listen to you.

5

<sup>1</sup> Do not address an older man harshly but appeal to him as a father. Speak to younger men as brothers,

<sup>4</sup> But if a widow has children or grandchildren, they should first learn to fulfill their duty toward their own household and so repay their parents what is owed them. For this is what pleases God.

<sup>5</sup> But the widow who is truly in need, and completely on her own, has set her hope on God and continues in her pleas and prayers night and day.

<sup>6</sup> But the one who lives for pleasure is dead even while she lives.

<sup>7</sup> Reinforce these commands, so that they will be beyond reproach.

<sup>8</sup> But if someone does not provide for his own, especially his own family, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

<sup>9</sup> No widow should be put on the list unless she is at least sixty years old, was the wife of one husband, <sup>10</sup> and has a reputation for good works: as one who has raised children, practiced hospitality, washed the feet of the saints, helped those in distress – as one who has exhibited all kinds of good works.

<sup>11</sup> But do not accept younger widows on the list, because their passions may lead them away from Christ and they will desire to marry,

<sup>13</sup> And besides that, going around from house to house they learn to be lazy, and they are not only lazy, but also gossips and busybodies, talking about things they should not.

<sup>14</sup> So I want younger women to marry, raise children, and manage a household, in order to give the adversary no opportunity to vilify us.

<sup>15</sup> For some have already wandered away to follow Satan.

<sup>16</sup> If a believing woman has widows in her family, let her help them. The church should not be burdened, so that it may help the widows who are truly in need.

<sup>17</sup> Elders who provide effective leadership must be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who work hard in speaking and teaching.

<sup>18</sup> For the scripture says, “Do not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain,” and, “The worker deserves his pay.”

<sup>19</sup> Do not accept an accusation against an elder unless it can be confirmed by two or three witnesses.

<sup>21</sup> Before God and Christ Jesus and the elect angels, I solemnly charge you to carry out these commands without prejudice or favoritism of any kind.

<sup>22</sup> Do not lay hands on anyone hastily and so identify with the sins of others. Keep yourself pure.

<sup>23</sup> (Stop drinking just water, but use a little wine for your digestion and your frequent illnesses.)

<sup>24</sup> The sins of some people are obvious, going before them into judgment, but for others, they show up later.

<sup>25</sup> Similarly good works are also obvious, and the ones that are not cannot remain hidden.

6

<sup>1</sup> Those who are under the yoke as slaves must regard their own masters as deserving of full respect. This will prevent the name of God and Christian teaching from being discredited.

<sup>2</sup> But those who have believing masters must not show them less respect because they are brothers. Instead they are to serve all the more, because those who benefit from their service are believers and dearly loved.

Summary of Timothy's Duties

Teach them and exhort them about these things.

<sup>3</sup> If someone spreads false teachings and does not agree with sound words (that is, those of our Lord Jesus Christ) and with the teaching that accords with godliness,

<sup>4</sup> he is conceited and understands nothing, but has an unhealthy interest in controversies and verbal disputes. This gives rise to envy, dissension, slanders, evil suspicions,

<sup>7</sup> For we have brought nothing into this world and so we cannot take a single thing out either.

<sup>8</sup> But if we have food and shelter, we will be satisfied with that.

<sup>9</sup> Those who long to be rich, however, stumble into temptation and a trap and many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction.

<sup>10</sup> For the love of money is the root of all evils. Some people in reaching for it have strayed from the faith and stabbed themselves with many pains.

<sup>11</sup> But you, as a person dedicated to God, keep away from all that. Instead pursue righteousness, godliness, faithfulness, love, endurance, and gentleness.

<sup>12</sup> Compete well for the faith and lay hold of that eternal life you were called for and made your good confession for in the presence of many witnesses.

<sup>13</sup> I charge you before God who gives life to all things and Christ Jesus who made his good confession before Pontius Pilate,

<sup>14</sup> to obey this command without fault or failure until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ

<sup>16</sup> He alone possesses immortality and lives in unapproachable light, whom no human has ever seen or is able to see. To him be honor and eternal power! Amen.

<sup>17</sup> Command those who are rich in this world's goods not to be haughty or to set their hope on riches, which are uncertain, but on God who richly provides us with all things for our enjoyment.

<sup>18</sup> Tell them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, to be generous givers, sharing with others.

<sup>19</sup> In this way they will save up a treasure for themselves as a firm foundation for the future and so lay hold of what is truly life.

Conclusion

<sup>20</sup> O Timothy, protect what has been entrusted to you. Avoid the profane chatter and absurdities of so-called “knowledge.”

<sup>21</sup> By professing it, some have strayed from the faith. Grace be with you all.

2 Timothy

Salutation

<sup>1</sup> From Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, to further the promise of life in Christ Jesus, <sup>2</sup> to Timothy, my dear child. Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord!

Thanksgiving and Charge to Timothy

<sup>3</sup> I am thankful to God, whom I have served with a clear conscience as my ancestors did, when I remember you in my prayers as I do constantly night and day.

<sup>4</sup> As I remember your tears, I long to see you, so that I may be filled with joy.

<sup>5</sup> I recall your sincere faith that was alive first in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice, and I am sure is in you.

<sup>6</sup> Because of this I remind you to rekindle God's gift that you possess through the laying on of my hands.

<sup>7</sup> For God did not give us a Spirit of fear but of power and love and self-control.

<sup>8</sup> So do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord or of me, a prisoner for his sake, but by God's power accept your share of suffering for the gospel.

<sup>9</sup> He is the one who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not based on our works but on his own purpose and grace, granted to us in Christ Jesus before time began, <sup>10</sup> but now made visible through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus. He has broken the power of death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel!

<sup>11</sup> For this gospel I was appointed a preacher and apostle and teacher.

<sup>12</sup> Because of this, in fact, I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, because I know the one in whom my faith is set and I am convinced that he is able to protect what has been entrusted to me until that day.

<sup>13</sup> Hold to the standard of sound words that you heard from me and do so with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

<sup>14</sup> Protect that good thing entrusted to you, through the Holy Spirit who lives within us.

<sup>15</sup> You know that everyone in the province of Asia deserted me, including Phygelus and Hermogenes.

<sup>16</sup> May the Lord grant mercy to the family of Onesiphorus, because he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my imprisonment.

<sup>17</sup> But when he arrived in Rome, he eagerly searched for me and found me.

<sup>18</sup> May the Lord grant him to find mercy from the Lord on that day! And you know very well all the ways he served me in Ephesus.

2

<sup>1</sup> So you, my child, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

<sup>2</sup> And entrust what you heard me say in the presence of many others as witnesses to faithful people who will be competent to teach others as well.

<sup>4</sup> No one in military service gets entangled in matters of everyday life; otherwise he will not please the one who recruited him.

<sup>5</sup> Also, if anyone competes as an athlete, he will not be crowned as the winner unless he competes according to the rules.

<sup>7</sup> Think about what I am saying and the Lord will give you understanding of all this.

<sup>8</sup> Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David; such is my gospel, <sup>9</sup> for which I suffer hardship to the point of imprisonment as a criminal, but God's message is not imprisoned!

<sup>10</sup> So I endure all things for the sake of those chosen by God, that they too may obtain salvation in Christ Jesus and its eternal glory.

<sup>11</sup> This saying is trustworthy:

If we died with him, we will also live with him.

<sup>12</sup> If we endure, we will also reign with him.

If we deny him, he will also deny us.

<sup>13</sup> If we are unfaithful, he remains faithful, since he cannot deny himself.

Dealing with False Teachers

<sup>14</sup> Remind people of these things and solemnly charge them before the Lord not to wrangle over words. This is of no benefit; it just brings ruin on those who listen.

<sup>15</sup> Make every effort to present yourself before God as a proven worker who does not need to be ashamed, teaching the message of truth accurately.

<sup>16</sup> But avoid profane chatter, because those occupied with it will stray further and further into ungodliness, <sup>17</sup> and their message will spread its infection like gangrene. Hymenaeus and Philetus are in this group.

<sup>18</sup> They have strayed from the truth by saying that the resurrection has already occurred, and they are undermining some people's faith.

<sup>19</sup> However, God's solid foundation remains standing, bearing this seal: "The Lord knows those who are his,"

and "Everyone who confesses the name of the Lord must turn away from evil."

<sup>20</sup> Now in a wealthy home there are not only gold and silver vessels, but also ones made of wood and of clay, and some are for honorable use, but others for ignoble use.

<sup>21</sup> So if someone cleanses himself of such behavior, he will be a vessel for honorable use, set apart, useful for the Master, prepared for every good work.

<sup>22</sup> But keep away from youthful passions, and pursue righteousness, faithfulness, love, and peace, in company with others who call on the Lord from a pure heart.

<sup>24</sup> And the Lord's slave must not engage in heated disputes but be kind toward all, an apt teacher, patient,

<sup>25</sup> correcting opponents with gentleness. Perhaps God will grant them repentance and then knowledge of the truth

<sup>26</sup> and they will come to their senses and escape the devil's trap where they are held captive to do his will.

3

<sup>1</sup> But understand this, that in the last days difficult times will come.

<sup>2</sup> For people will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy,

<sup>3</sup> unloving, irreconcilable, slanderers, without self-control, savage, opposed to what is good,

<sup>5</sup> They will maintain the outward appearance of religion but will have repudiated its power. So avoid people like these.

<sup>6</sup> For some of these insinuate themselves into households and captivate weak women who are overwhelmed with sins and led along by various passions.

<sup>8</sup> And just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so these people – who have warped minds and are disqualified in the faith – also oppose the truth.

<sup>9</sup> But they will not go much further, for their foolishness will be obvious to everyone, just like it was with Jannes and Jambres.

Continue in What You Have Learned

<sup>10</sup> You, however, have followed my teaching, my way of life, my purpose, my faith, my patience, my love, my endurance, <sup>11</sup> as well as the persecutions and sufferings that happened to me in Antioch, I endured these persecutions and the Lord delivered me from them all.

<sup>12</sup> Now in fact all who want to live godly lives in Christ Jesus will be persecuted.

<sup>13</sup> But evil people and charlatans will go from bad to worse, deceiving others and being deceived themselves.

<sup>14</sup> You, however, must continue in the things you have learned and are confident about. You know who taught you

<sup>15</sup> and how from infancy you have known the holy writings, which are able to give you wisdom for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

<sup>16</sup> Every scripture is inspired by God and useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, <sup>17</sup> that the person dedicated to God may be capable and equipped for every good work.

4

<sup>1</sup> I solemnly charge you before God and Christ Jesus, who is going to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom:

<sup>3</sup> For there will be a time when people will not tolerate sound teaching. Instead, following their own desires, they will accumulate teachers for themselves, because they have an insatiable curiosity to hear new things.

<sup>4</sup> And they will turn away from hearing the truth, but on the other hand they will turn aside to myths.

<sup>5</sup> You, however, be self-controlled in all things, endure hardship, do an evangelist's work, fulfill your ministry.

<sup>6</sup> For I am already being poured out as an offering, and the time for me to depart is at hand.

<sup>7</sup> I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith!

<sup>8</sup> Finally the crown of righteousness is reserved for me. The Lord, the righteous Judge, will award it to me in that day – and not to me only, but also to all who have set their affection on his appearing.

Travel Plans and Concluding Greetings

<sup>9</sup> Make every effort to come to me soon.

<sup>10</sup> For Demas deserted me, since he loved the present age, and he went to Thessalonica. Crescens went to Galatia and Titus to Dalmatia.

<sup>11</sup> Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, because he is a great help to me in ministry.

<sup>13</sup> When you come, bring with you the cloak I left in Troas with Carpas and the scrolls, especially the parchments.

<sup>14</sup> Alexander the coppersmith did me a great deal of harm. The Lord will repay him in keeping with his deeds.

<sup>15</sup> You be on guard against him too, because he vehemently opposed our words.

<sup>16</sup> At my first defense no one appeared in my support; instead they all deserted me – may they not be held accountable for it.

<sup>17</sup> But the Lord stood by me and strengthened me, so that through me the message would be fully proclaimed for all the Gentiles to hear. And so I was delivered from the lion's mouth!

<sup>18</sup> The Lord will deliver me from every evil deed and will bring me safely into his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever! Amen.

<sup>21</sup> Make every effort to come before winter. Greetings to you from Eubulus, Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers and sisters.

<sup>22</sup> The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you.

Titus

Salutation

<sup>1</sup> From Paul, a slave of God and apostle of Jesus Christ, to further the faith of God's chosen ones and the knowledge of the truth that is in keeping with godliness, <sup>2</sup> in hope of eternal life, which God, who does not lie, promised before the ages began.

<sup>3</sup> But now in his own time he has made his message evident through the preaching I was entrusted with according to the command of God our Savior.

<sup>4</sup> To Titus, my genuine son in a common faith. Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior!

Titus' Task on Crete

<sup>5</sup> The reason I left you in Crete was to set in order the remaining matters and to appoint elders in every town, as I directed you.

<sup>6</sup> An elder must be blameless, the husband of one wife, with faithful children who cannot be charged with dissipation or rebellion.

<sup>7</sup> For the overseer must be blameless as one entrusted with God's work, not arrogant, not prone to anger, not a drunkard, not violent, not greedy for gain.

<sup>8</sup> Instead he must be hospitable, devoted to what is good, sensible, upright, devout, and self-controlled.

<sup>9</sup> He must hold firmly to the faithful message as it has been taught, so that he will be able to give exhortation in such healthy teaching and correct those who speak against it.

<sup>10</sup> For there are many rebellious people, idle talkers, and deceivers, especially those with Jewish connections, <sup>11</sup> who must be silenced because they mislead whole families by teaching for dishonest gain what ought not to be taught.

<sup>13</sup> Such testimony is true. For this reason rebuke them sharply that they may be healthy in the faith

<sup>14</sup> and not pay attention to Jewish myths and commands of people who reject the truth.

<sup>15</sup> All is pure to those who are pure. But to those who are corrupt and unbelieving, nothing is pure, but both their minds and consciences are corrupted.

<sup>16</sup> They profess to know God but with their deeds they deny him, since they are detestable, disobedient, and unfit for any good deed.

2

<sup>2</sup> Older men are to be temperate, dignified, self-controlled, sound in faith, in love, and in endurance.

<sup>3</sup> Older women likewise are to exhibit behavior fitting for those who are holy, not slandering, not slaves to excessive drinking, but teaching what is good.

<sup>4</sup> In this way they will train the younger women to love their husbands, to love their children, <sup>5</sup> to be self-controlled, pure, fulfilling their duties at home, kind, being subject to their own husbands, so that the message of God may not be discredited.

<sup>7</sup> showing yourself to be an example of good works in every way. In your teaching show integrity, dignity, <sup>8</sup> and a sound message that cannot be criticized, so that any opponent will be at a loss, because he has nothing evil to say about us.

<sup>9</sup> Slaves are to be subject to their own masters in everything, to do what is wanted and not talk back, <sup>10</sup> not pilfering, but showing all good faith, in order to bring credit to the teaching of God our Savior in everything.

<sup>11</sup> For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all people.

<sup>12</sup> It trains us to reject godless ways and worldly desires and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, <sup>13</sup> as we wait for the happy fulfillment of our hope in the glorious appearing of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

<sup>14</sup> He gave himself for us to set us free from every kind of lawlessness and to purify for himself a people who are truly his, who are eager to do good.

<sup>15</sup> So communicate these things with the sort of exhortation or rebuke that carries full authority. Don't let anyone look down on you.

3

<sup>3</sup> For we too were once foolish, disobedient, misled, enslaved to various passions and desires, spending our lives in evil and envy, hateful and hating one another.

<sup>4</sup> But "when the kindness of God our Savior and his love for mankind appeared,

<sup>5</sup> he saved us not by works of righteousness that we have done but on the basis of his mercy, through the washing of the new birth and the renewing of the Holy Spirit, <sup>6</sup> whom he poured out on us in full measure through Jesus Christ our Savior.

<sup>7</sup> And so, since we have been justified by his grace, we become heirs with the confident expectation of eternal life."

Summary of the Letter

<sup>8</sup> This saying is trustworthy, and I want you to insist on such truths, so that those who have placed their faith in God may be intent on engaging in good works. These things are good and beneficial for all people.

<sup>9</sup> But avoid foolish controversies, genealogies, quarrels, and fights about the law, because they are useless and empty.

<sup>10</sup> Reject a divisive person after one or two warnings.

<sup>11</sup> You know that such a person is twisted by sin and is conscious of it himself.

Final Instructions and Greeting

<sup>12</sup> When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, do your best to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there.

<sup>13</sup> Make every effort to help Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their way; make sure they have what they need.

<sup>14</sup> Here is another way that our people can learn to engage in good works to meet pressing needs and so not be unfruitful.

<sup>15</sup> Everyone with me greets you. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all.

Philemon

Salutation

<sup>1</sup> From Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon, our dear friend and colaborer, <sup>2</sup> to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church that meets in your house.

<sup>3</sup> Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

Thanks for Philemon's Love and Faith

<sup>4</sup> I always thank my God as I remember you in my prayers, <sup>5</sup> because I hear of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints.

<sup>6</sup> I pray that the faith you share with us may deepen your understanding of every blessing that belongs to you in Christ.

<sup>7</sup> I have had great joy and encouragement because of your love, for the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, brother.

Paul's Request for Onesimus

<sup>8</sup> So, although I have quite a lot of confidence in Christ and could command you to do what is proper,

<sup>9</sup> I would rather appeal to you on the basis of love – I, Paul, an old man and even now a prisoner for the sake of Christ Jesus –

<sup>10</sup> I am appealing to you concerning my child, whose spiritual father I have become during my imprisonment, that is, Onesimus, <sup>11</sup> who was formerly useless to you, but is now useful to you and me.

<sup>12</sup> I have sent him (who is my very heart) back to you.

<sup>13</sup> I wanted to keep him so that he could serve me in your place during my imprisonment for the sake of the gospel.

<sup>14</sup> However, without your consent I did not want to do anything, so that your good deed would not be out of compulsion, but from your own willingness.

<sup>15</sup> For perhaps it was for this reason that he was separated from you for a little while, so that you would have him back eternally, <sup>16</sup> no longer as a slave, but more than a slave, as a dear brother. He is especially so to me, and even more so to you now, both humanly speaking and in the Lord.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore if you regard me as a partner, accept him as you would me.

<sup>18</sup> Now if he has defrauded you of anything or owes you anything, charge what he owes to me.

<sup>19</sup> I, Paul, have written this letter with my own hand: I will repay it. I could also mention that you owe me your very self.

<sup>20</sup> Yes, brother, let me have some benefit from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in Christ.

<sup>21</sup> Since I was confident that you would obey, I wrote to you, because I knew that you would do even more than what I am asking you to do.

<sup>22</sup> At the same time also, prepare a place for me to stay, for I hope that through your prayers I will be given back to you.

Concluding Greetings

Hebrews

Introduction: God Has Spoken Fully and Finally in His Son

<sup>1</sup> After God spoke long ago in various portions and in various ways to our ancestors through the prophets, <sup>2</sup> in these last days he has spoken to us in a son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom he created the world.

<sup>3</sup> The Son is the radiance of his glory and the representation of his essence, and he sustains all things by his powerful word, and so when he had accomplished cleansing for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high.

<sup>4</sup> Thus he became so far better than the angels as he has inherited a name superior to theirs.

The Son Is Superior to Angels

<sup>5</sup> For to which of the angels did God ever say, “You are my son! Today I have fathered you”? And in another place he says, “I will be his father and he will be my son.”

<sup>6</sup> But when he again brings his firstborn into the world, he says, “Let all the angels of God worship him!”

<sup>7</sup> And he says of the angels, “He makes his angels spirits and his ministers a flame of fire,”

<sup>8</sup> but of the Son he says,
“Your throne, O God, is forever and ever, and a righteous scepter is the scepter of your kingdom.”

<sup>9</sup> *You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness.
So God, your God, has anointed you over your companions with the oil of rejoicing.*”

<sup>10</sup> And,
“You founded the earth in the beginning, Lord, and the heavens are the works of your hands.”

<sup>11</sup> *They will perish, but you continue.
And they will all grow old like a garment,*

<sup>12</sup> and like a robe you will fold them up and like a garment they will be changed, but you are the same and your years will never run out.”

<sup>13</sup> But to which of the angels has he ever said, “Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet”?

<sup>14</sup> Are they not all ministering spirits, sent out to serve those who will inherit salvation?

2

<sup>1</sup> Therefore we must pay closer attention to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away.

<sup>2</sup> For if the message spoken through angels proved to be so firm that every violation or disobedience received its just penalty,

<sup>3</sup> how will we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? It was first communicated through the Lord and was confirmed to us by those who heard him, <sup>4</sup> while God confirmed their witness with signs and wonders and various miracles and gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to his will.

Exposition of Psalm 8: Jesus and the Destiny of Humanity

<sup>5</sup> For he did not put the world to come, about which we are speaking, under the control of angels.

<sup>6</sup> Instead someone testified somewhere:

“What is man that you think of him or the son of man that you care for him?”

<sup>7</sup> You made him lower than the angels for a little while.

You crowned him with glory and honor.

For when he put all things under his control, he left nothing outside of his control. At present we do not yet see all things under his control, <sup>9</sup> but we see Jesus, who was made lower than the angels for a little while, now crowned with glory and honor because he suffered death, so that by God's grace he would experience death on behalf of everyone.

<sup>10</sup> For it was fitting for him, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

<sup>11</sup> For indeed he who makes holy and those being made holy all have the same origin, and so he is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters,

<sup>12</sup> saying, *“I will proclaim your name to my brothers; in the midst of the assembly I will praise you*.”*

<sup>13</sup> Again he says, “I will be confident in him,” and again, *“Here I am, with the children God has given me*.”*

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, since the children share in flesh and blood, he likewise shared in their humanity, so that through death he could destroy the one who holds the power of death (that is, the devil), <sup>15</sup> and set free those who were held in slavery all their lives by their fear of death.

<sup>16</sup> For surely his concern is not for angels, but he is concerned for Abraham's descendants.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore he had to be made like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he could become a merciful and faithful high priest in things relating to God, to make atonement for the sins of the people.

<sup>18</sup> For since he himself suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

3

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, holy brothers and sisters, partners in a heavenly calling, take note of Jesus, the apostle and high priest whom we confess,

<sup>2</sup> who is faithful to the one who appointed him, as Moses was also in God's house.

<sup>3</sup> For he has come to deserve greater glory than Moses, just as the builder of a house deserves greater honor than the house itself!

<sup>4</sup> For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God.

<sup>5</sup> Now Moses was faithful in all God's house as a servant, to testify to the things that would be spoken.

<sup>6</sup> But Christ is faithful as a son over God's house. We are of his house, if in fact we hold firmly to our confidence and the hope we take pride in.

Exposition of Psalm 95: Hearing God's Word in Faith

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says,

“Oh, that today you would listen as he speaks!”

<sup>8</sup> “Do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, in the day of testing in the wilderness.

<sup>9</sup> “There your fathers tested me and tried me, and they saw my works for forty years.

<sup>10</sup> “Therefore, I became provoked at that generation and said, ‘Their hearts are always wandering and they have not known my ways.’”

11 “ As I swore in my anger, ‘They will never enter my rest!’ ”

12 See to it, brothers and sisters, that none of you has an evil, unbelieving heart that forsakes the living God.

13 But exhort one another each day, as long as it is called “Today,” that none of you may become hardened by sin’s deception.

14 For we have become partners with Christ, if in fact we hold our initial confidence firm until the end.

15 As it says, “ O, that today you would listen as he speaks! Do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion. ”

16 For which ones heard and rebelled? Was it not all who came out of Egypt under Moses’ leadership?

17 And against whom was God provoked for forty years? Was it not those who sinned, whose dead bodies fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom did he swear they would never enter into his rest, except those who were disobedient?

19 So we see that they could not enter because of unbelief.

4

1 Therefore we must be wary that, while the promise of entering his rest remains open, none of you may seem to have come short of it.

2 For we had good news proclaimed to us just as they did. But the message they heard did them no good, since they did not join in with those who heard it in faith.

3 For we who have believed enter that rest, as he has said, “ As I swore in my anger, ‘They will never enter my rest!’ ” And yet God’s works were accomplished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he has spoken somewhere about the seventh day in this way: “ And God rested on the seventh day from all his works, ”

5 but to repeat the text cited earlier: “ They will never enter my rest! ”

6 Therefore it remains for some to enter it, yet those to whom it was previously proclaimed did not enter because of disobedience.

7 So God again ordains a certain day, “Today,” speaking through David after so long a time, as in the words quoted before, “ O, that today you would listen as he speaks! Do not harden your hearts. ”

8 For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken afterward about another day.

9 Consequently a Sabbath rest remains for the people of God.

10 For the one who enters God’s rest has also rested from his works, just as God did from his own works.

11 Thus we must make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by following the same pattern of disobedience.

12 For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any double-edged sword, piercing even to the point of dividing soul from spirit, and joints from marrow; it is able to judge the desires and thoughts of the heart.

13 And no creature is hidden from God, but everything is naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must render an account.

Jesus Our Compassionate High Priest

14 Therefore since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession.

15 For we do not have a high priest incapable of sympathizing with our weaknesses, but one who has been tempted in every way just as we are, yet without sin.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and find grace whenever we need help.

5

<sup>1</sup> For every high priest is taken from among the people and appointed to represent them before God, to offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins.

<sup>2</sup> He is able to deal compassionately with those who are ignorant and erring, since he also is subject to weakness, <sup>3</sup> and for this reason he is obligated to make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people.

<sup>4</sup> And no one assumes this honor on his own initiative, but only when called to it by God, as in fact Aaron was.

<sup>5</sup> So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming high priest, but the one who glorified him was God, who said to him, “You are my Son! Today I have fathered you,”

<sup>6</sup> as also in another place God says, “You are a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek.”

<sup>7</sup> During his earthly life Christ offered both requests and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death and he was heard because of his devotion.

<sup>8</sup> Although he was a son, he learned obedience through the things he suffered.

<sup>9</sup> And by being perfected in this way, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, <sup>10</sup> and he was designated by God as high priest in the order of Melchizedek.

The Need to Move on to Maturity

<sup>11</sup> On this topic we have much to say and it is difficult to explain, since you have become sluggish in hearing.

<sup>12</sup> For though you should in fact be teachers by this time, you need someone to teach you the beginning elements of God’s utterances. You have gone back to needing milk, not solid food.

<sup>13</sup> For everyone who lives on milk is inexperienced in the message of righteousness, because he is an infant.

<sup>14</sup> But solid food is for the mature, whose perceptions are trained by practice to discern both good and evil.

6

<sup>1</sup> Therefore we must progress beyond the elementary instructions about Christ and move on to maturity, not laying this foundation again: repentance from dead works and faith in God, <sup>2</sup> teaching about baptisms, laying on of hands, resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment.

<sup>3</sup> And this is what we intend to do, if God permits.

<sup>4</sup> For it is impossible in the case of those who have once been enlightened, tasted the heavenly gift, become partakers of the Holy Spirit,

<sup>5</sup> tasted the good word of God and the miracles of the coming age, <sup>6</sup> and then have committed apostasy, to renew them again to repentance, since they are crucifying the Son of God for themselves all over again and holding him up to contempt.

<sup>7</sup> For the ground that has soaked up the rain that frequently falls on it and yields useful vegetation for those who tend it receives a blessing from God.

<sup>8</sup> But if it produces thorns and thistles, it is useless and about to be cursed; its fate is to be burned.

<sup>9</sup> But in your case, dear friends, even though we speak like this, we are convinced of better things relating to salvation.

<sup>10</sup> For God is not unjust so as to forget your work and the love you have demonstrated for his name, in having served and continuing to serve the saints.

<sup>11</sup> But we passionately want each of you to demonstrate the same eagerness for the fulfillment of your hope until the end, <sup>12</sup> so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and perseverance inherit the promises.

<sup>13</sup> Now when God made his promise to Abraham, since he could swear by no one greater, he swore by himself,

<sup>14</sup> saying, “Surely I will bless you greatly and multiply your descendants abundantly.”

<sup>15</sup> And so by persevering, Abraham inherited the promise.

<sup>16</sup> For people swear by something greater than themselves, and the oath serves as a confirmation to end all dispute.

<sup>17</sup> In the same way God wanted to demonstrate more clearly to the heirs of the promise that his purpose was unchangeable, and so he intervened with an oath, <sup>18</sup> so that we who have found refuge in him may find strong encouragement to hold fast to the hope set before us through two unchangeable things, since it is impossible for God to lie.

<sup>19</sup> We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, sure and steadfast, which reaches inside behind the curtain, <sup>20</sup> where Jesus our forerunner entered on our behalf, since he became a priest | strong="G0749" forever in the order of Melchizedek forever in the order of Melchizedek.

7

<sup>2</sup> To him also t Abraham | strong="G0011" apportioned a tithe apportioned a tithe of | strong="G0575" everything. His name first means king of righteousness, then king | strong="G0935" of Salem of Salem, that is, king of peace.

<sup>3</sup> Without father, without mother, without genealogy, he has neither beginning of days nor end of life but is like the son of God, and he remains a priest for all time.

<sup>4</sup> But see how great he must be, if Abraham the patriarch gave him a tithe of his plunder.

<sup>5</sup> And those of the sons of Levi who receive the priestly office have authorization according to the law to collect a tithe from the people, that is, from their fellow countrymen, although they too are descendants of Abraham.

<sup>6</sup> But Melchizedek who does not share their ancestry collected a tithe from Abraham and blessed the one who possessed the promise.

<sup>8</sup> and in one case tithes are received by mortal men, while in the other by him who is affirmed to be alive.

<sup>9</sup> And it could be said that Levi himself, who receives tithes, paid a tithe through Abraham.

<sup>10</sup> For he was still in his ancestor Abraham's loins when Melchizedek met him.

Jesus and the Priesthood of Melchizedek

<sup>11</sup> So if perfection had in fact been possible through the Levitical priesthood – for on that basis the people received the law – what further need would there have been for another priest to arise, said to be in the order of Melchizedek and not in Aaron's order?

<sup>12</sup> For when the priesthood changes, a change in the law must come as well.

<sup>13</sup> Yet the one these things are spoken about belongs to a different tribe, and no one from that tribe has ever officiated at the altar.

<sup>14</sup> For it is clear that our Lord is descended from Judah, yet Moses said nothing about priests in connection with that tribe.

<sup>15</sup> And this is even clearer if another priest arises in the likeness of Melchizedek, <sup>16</sup> who has become a priest not by a legal regulation about physical descent but by the power of an indestructible life.

<sup>17</sup> For here is the testimony about him: “ You are a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek.”

<sup>18</sup> On the one hand a former command is set aside because it is weak and useless, <sup>19</sup> for the law made nothing perfect. On the other hand a better hope is introduced, through which we draw near to God.

<sup>20</sup> And since this was not done without a sworn affirmation – for the others have become priests without a sworn affirmation,

<sup>21</sup> but Jesus did so with a sworn affirmation by the one who said to him, “ The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind, ‘You are a priest forever’ ” –

<sup>23</sup> And the others who became priests were numerous, because death prevented them from continuing in office,

<sup>25</sup> So he is able to save completely those who come to God through him, because he always lives to intercede for them.

<sup>26</sup> For it is indeed fitting for us to have such a high priest: holy, innocent, undefiled, separate from sinners, and exalted above the heavens.

<sup>27</sup> He has no need to do every day what those priests do, to offer sacrifices first for their own sins and then for the sins of the people, since he did this in offering himself once for all.

<sup>28</sup> For the law appoints as high priests men subject to weakness, but the word of solemn affirmation that came after the law appoints a son made perfect forever.

8

<sup>1</sup> Now the main point of what we are saying is this: We have such a high priest, one who sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in heaven,

<sup>2</sup> a minister in the sanctuary and the true tabernacle that the Lord, not man, set up.

<sup>3</sup> For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. So this one too had to have something to offer.

<sup>4</sup> Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest, since there are already priests who offer the gifts prescribed by the law.

<sup>5</sup> The place where they serve is a sketch and shadow of the heavenly sanctuary, just as Moses was warned by God as he was about to complete the tabernacle. For he says, “ See that you make everything according to the design shown to you on the mountain.”

<sup>6</sup> But now Jesus has obtained a superior ministry, since the covenant that he mediates is also better and is enacted on better promises.

<sup>7</sup> For if that first covenant had been faultless, no one would have looked for a second one.

<sup>8</sup> But showing its fault, God says to them, “ Look, the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will complete a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.

<sup>9</sup> “ *It will not be like the covenant that I made with their fathers, on the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt, because they did not continue in my covenant and I had no regard for them, says the Lord*.*

- 10 “For this is the covenant that I will establish with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord. I will put my laws in their minds and I will inscribe them on their hearts. And I will be their God and they will be my people.
- 11 “And there will be no need at all for each one to teach his countryman or each one to teach his brother saying, ‘Know the Lord,’ since they will all know me, from the least to the greatest.
- 12 “For I will be merciful toward their evil deeds, and their sins I will remember no longer.”
- 13 When he speaks of a new covenant, he makes the first obsolete. Now what is growing obsolete and aging is about to disappear.

9

- 1 Now the first covenant, in fact, had regulations for worship and its earthly sanctuary.
- 2 For a tent was prepared, the outer one, which contained the lampstand, the table, and the presentation of the loaves; this is called the holy place.
- 3 And after the second curtain there was a tent called the holy of holies.
- 4 It contained the golden altar of incense and the ark of the covenant covered entirely with gold. In this ark were the golden urn containing the manna, Aaron’s rod that budded, and the stone tablets of the covenant.
- 5 And above the ark were the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat. Now is not the time to speak of these things in detail.
- 6 So with these things prepared like this, the priests enter continually into the outer tent as they perform their duties.
- 7 But only the high priest enters once a year into the inner tent, and not without blood that he offers for himself and for the sins of the people committed in ignorance.
- 8 The Holy Spirit is making clear that the way into the holy place had not yet appeared as long as the old tabernacle was standing.
- 9 This was a symbol for the time then present, when gifts and sacrifices were offered that could not perfect the conscience of the worshiper.
- 10 They served only for matters of food and drink and various washings; they are external regulations imposed until the new order came.

Christ’s Service in the Heavenly Sanctuary

- 11 But now Christ has come as the high priest of the good things to come. He passed through the greater and more perfect tent not made with hands, that is, not of this creation,
- 12 and he entered once for all into the most holy place not by the blood of goats and calves but by his own blood, and so he himself secured eternal redemption.
- 13 For if the blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a young cow sprinkled on those who are defiled consecrated them and provided ritual purity,
- 14 how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our consciences from dead works to worship the living God.
- 15 And so he is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the eternal inheritance he has promised, since he died to set them free from the violations committed under the first covenant.
- 16 For where there is a will, the death of the one who made it must be proven.
- 17 For a will takes effect only at death, since it carries no force while the one who made it is alive.
- 18 So even the first covenant was inaugurated with blood.

<sup>19</sup> For when Moses had spoken every command to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and goats with water and scarlet wool and hyssop and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people,

<sup>20</sup> and said, “ This is the blood of the covenant that God has commanded you to keep.”

<sup>21</sup> And both the tabernacle and all the utensils of worship he likewise sprinkled with blood.

<sup>22</sup> Indeed according to the law almost everything was purified with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

<sup>23</sup> So it was necessary for the sketches of the things in heaven to be purified with these sacrifices, but the heavenly things themselves required better sacrifices than these.

<sup>24</sup> For Christ did not enter a sanctuary made with hands – the representation of the true sanctuary – but into heaven itself, and he appears now in God’s presence for us.

<sup>25</sup> And he did not enter to offer himself again and again, the way the high priest enters the sanctuary year after year with blood that is not his own,

<sup>26</sup> for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But now he has appeared once for all at the consummation of the ages to put away sin by his sacrifice.

<sup>27</sup> And just as people are appointed to die once, and then to face judgment, <sup>28</sup> so also, after Christ was offered once to bear the sins of many, to those who eagerly await him he will appear a second time, not to bear sin but to bring salvation.

10

<sup>1</sup> For the law possesses a shadow of the good things to come but not the reality itself, and is therefore completely unable, by the same sacrifices offered continually, year after year, to perfect those who come to worship.

<sup>2</sup> For otherwise would they not have ceased to be offered, since the worshipers would have been purified once for all and so have no further consciousness of sin?

<sup>3</sup> But in those sacrifices there is a reminder of sins year after year.

<sup>5</sup> So when he came into the world, he said,

“ Sacrifice and offering you did not desire, but a body you prepared for me.”

<sup>7</sup> “ *Then I said, ‘Here I am: I have come – it is written of me in the scroll of the book – to do your will, O God*.’*”

<sup>8</sup> When he says above, “ Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sin-offerings you did not desire nor did you take delight in them” (which are offered according to the law), <sup>9</sup> then he says, “ Here I am: I have come to do your will.” He does away with the first to establish the second.

<sup>10</sup> By his will we have been made holy through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

<sup>11</sup> And every priest stands day after day serving and offering the same sacrifices again and again – sacrifices that can never take away sins.

<sup>12</sup> But when this priest had offered one sacrifice for sins for all time, he sat down at the right hand of God,

<sup>14</sup> For by one offering he has perfected for all time those who are made holy.

<sup>15</sup> And the Holy Spirit also witnesses to us, for after saying,

<sup>16</sup> “ This is the covenant that I will establish with them after those days, says the Lord. I will put my laws on their hearts and I will inscribe them on their minds,”

<sup>17</sup> then he says, “ Their sins and their lawless deeds I will remember no longer.”

<sup>18</sup> Now where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.

Drawing Near to God in Enduring Faith

<sup>19</sup> Therefore, brothers and sisters, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus,

<sup>20</sup> by the fresh and living way that he inaugurated for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh,

<sup>21</sup> and since we have a great priest over the house of God, <sup>22</sup> let us draw near with a sincere heart in the assurance that faith brings, because we have had our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed in pure water.

<sup>23</sup> And let us hold unwaveringly to the hope that we confess, for the one who made the promise is trustworthy.

<sup>24</sup> And let us take thought of how to spur one another on to love and good works, <sup>25</sup> not abandoning our own meetings, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging each other, and even more so because you see the day drawing near.

<sup>26</sup> For if we deliberately keep on sinning after receiving the knowledge of the truth, no further sacrifice for sins is left for us, <sup>27</sup> but only a certain fearful expectation of judgment and a fury of fire that will consume God's enemies.

<sup>28</sup> Someone who rejected the law of Moses was put to death without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses.

<sup>29</sup> How much greater punishment do you think that person deserves who has contempt for the Son of God, and profanes the blood of the covenant that made him holy, and insults the Spirit of grace?

<sup>30</sup> For we know the one who said, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay," and again, "The Lord will judge his people."

<sup>31</sup> It is a terrifying thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

<sup>32</sup> But remember the former days when you endured a harsh conflict of suffering after you were enlightened.

<sup>33</sup> At times you were publicly exposed to abuse and afflictions, and at other times you came to share with others who were treated in that way.

<sup>34</sup> For in fact you shared the sufferings of those in prison, and you accepted the confiscation of your belongings with joy, because you knew that you certainly had a better and lasting possession.

<sup>35</sup> So do not throw away your confidence, because it has great reward.

<sup>36</sup> For you need endurance in order to do God's will and so receive what is promised.

<sup>37</sup> For just a little longer and he who is coming will arrive and not delay.

<sup>38</sup> But my righteous one will live by faith, and if he shrinks back, I take no pleasure in him.

<sup>39</sup> But we are not among those who shrink back and thus perish, but are among those who have faith and preserve their souls.

11

<sup>1</sup> Now faith is being sure of what we hope for, being convinced of what we do not see.

<sup>3</sup> By faith we understand that the worlds were set in order at God's command, so that the visible has its origin in the invisible.

<sup>4</sup> By faith Abel offered God a greater sacrifice than Cain, and through his faith he was commended as righteous, because God commended him for his offerings. And through his faith he still speaks, though he is dead.

<sup>5</sup> By faith Enoch was taken up so that he did not see death, and he was not to be found because God took him up. For before his removal he had been commended as having pleased God.

<sup>6</sup> Now without faith it is impossible to please him, for the one who approaches God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

<sup>7</sup> By faith Noah, when he was warned about things not yet seen, with reverent regard constructed an ark for the deliverance of his family. Through faith he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.

<sup>8</sup> By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place he would later receive as an inheritance, and he went out without understanding where he was going.

<sup>9</sup> By faith he lived as a foreigner in the promised land as though it were a foreign country, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, who were fellow heirs of the same promise.

<sup>10</sup> For he was looking forward to the city with firm foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

<sup>11</sup> By faith, even though Sarah herself was barren and he was too old, he received the ability to procreate, because he regarded the one who had given the promise to be trustworthy.

<sup>12</sup> So in fact children were fathered by one man – and this one as good as dead – like the number of stars in the sky and like the innumerable grains of sand on the seashore.

<sup>13</sup> These all died in faith without receiving the things promised, but they saw them in the distance and welcomed them and acknowledged that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth.

<sup>14</sup> For those who speak in such a way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland.

<sup>15</sup> In fact, if they had been thinking of the land that they had left, they would have had opportunity to return.

<sup>16</sup> But as it is, they aspire to a better land, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore, God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.

<sup>17</sup> By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac. He had received the promises, yet he was ready to offer up his only son.

<sup>18</sup> God had told him, “Through Isaac descendants will carry on your name,”

<sup>19</sup> and he reasoned that God could even raise him from the dead, and in a sense he received him back from there.

<sup>20</sup> By faith also Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning the future.

<sup>21</sup> By faith Jacob, as he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph and worshiped | strong="G4352" as he leaned on his staff as he leaned on his staff.

<sup>22</sup> By faith Joseph, at the end of his life, mentioned the exodus of the sons of Israel and gave instructions about his burial.

<sup>23</sup> By faith, when Moses was born, his parents hid him for three months, because they saw the child was beautiful and they were not afraid of the king's edict.

<sup>24</sup> By faith, when he grew up, Moses refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, <sup>25</sup> choosing rather to be ill-treated with the people of God than to enjoy sin's fleeting pleasure.

<sup>26</sup> He regarded abuse suffered for Christ to be greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, for his eyes were fixed on the reward.

<sup>27</sup> By faith he left Egypt without fearing the king's anger, for he persevered as though he could see the one who is invisible.

<sup>28</sup> By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of the blood, so that the one who destroyed the firstborn would not touch them.

<sup>29</sup> By faith they crossed the Red Sea as if on dry ground, but when the Egyptians tried it, they were swallowed up.

<sup>30</sup> By faith the walls of Jericho fell after the people marched around them for seven days.

<sup>31</sup> By faith Rahab the prostitute escaped the destruction of the disobedient, because she welcomed the spies in peace.

<sup>32</sup> And what more shall I say? For time will fail me if I tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets.

<sup>34</sup> quenched raging fire, escaped the edge of the sword, gained strength in weakness, became mighty in battle, put foreign armies to flight, <sup>35</sup> and women received back their dead raised to life. But others were tortured, not accepting release, to obtain resurrection to a better life.

<sup>36</sup> And others experienced mocking and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment.

<sup>37</sup> They were stoned, sawed apart, murdered with the sword; they went about in sheepskins and goatskins; they were destitute, afflicted, ill-treated <sup>38</sup> (the world was not worthy of them); they wandered in deserts and mountains and caves and openings in the earth.

<sup>39</sup> And these all were commended for their faith, yet they did not receive what was promised.

<sup>40</sup> For God had provided something better for us, so that they would be made perfect together with us.

12

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, we must get rid of every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and run with endurance the race set out for us,

<sup>2</sup> keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith. For the joy set out for him he endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God.

<sup>3</sup> Think of him who endured such opposition against himself by sinners, so that you may not grow weary in your souls and give up.

<sup>4</sup> You have not yet resisted to the point of bloodshed in your struggle against sin.

<sup>5</sup> And have you forgotten the exhortation addressed to you as sons?

*"My son, do not scorn the Lord's discipline or give up when he corrects you*."*

<sup>6</sup> "For the Lord disciplines the one he loves and chastises every son he accepts."

<sup>7</sup> Endure your suffering as discipline; God is treating you as sons. For what son is there that a father does not discipline?

<sup>8</sup> But if you do not experience discipline, something all sons have shared in, then you are illegitimate and are not sons.

<sup>9</sup> Besides, we have experienced discipline from our earthly fathers and we respected them; shall we not submit ourselves all the more to the Father of spirits and receive life?

<sup>10</sup> For they disciplined us for a little while as seemed good to them, but he does so for our benefit, that we may share his holiness.

<sup>11</sup> Now all discipline seems painful at the time, not joyful. But later it produces the fruit of peace and righteousness for those trained by it.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, strengthen | strong="G0461" your listless | strong="G3935" hands and your weak knees,

<sup>13</sup> and make | strong="G4160" straight paths for your feet straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be put out of joint but be healed.

Do Not Reject God's Warning

<sup>14</sup> Pursue peace with everyone, and holiness, for without it no one will see the Lord.

<sup>15</sup> See to it that no one comes short of the grace of God, that no one be like a bitter root springing up and causing trouble, and through him many become defiled.

<sup>16</sup> And see to it that no one becomes an immoral or godless person like Esau, who sold his own birthright for a single meal.

<sup>17</sup> For you know that later when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no opportunity for repentance, although he sought the blessing with tears.

<sup>18</sup> For you have not come to something that can be touched, to a burning fire and darkness and gloom and a whirlwind

<sup>19</sup> and the blast of a trumpet and a voice uttering words such that those who heard begged to hear no more.

<sup>20</sup> For they could not bear what was commanded: “If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned.”

<sup>21</sup> In fact, the scene was so terrifying that Moses said, “I shudder with fear.”

<sup>22</sup> But you have come to Mount Zion, the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to myriads of angels, to the assembly

<sup>23</sup> and congregation of the firstborn, who are enrolled in heaven, and to God, the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous, who have been made perfect,

<sup>24</sup> and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks of something better than Abel's does.

<sup>25</sup> Take care not to refuse the one who is speaking! For if they did not escape when they refused the one who warned them on earth, how much less shall we, if we reject the one who warns from heaven?

<sup>26</sup> Then his voice shook the earth, but now he has promised, “I will once more shake not only the earth but heaven too.”

<sup>27</sup> Now this phrase “once more” indicates the removal of what is shaken, that is, of created things, so that what is unshaken may remain.

<sup>28</sup> So since we are receiving an unshakable kingdom, let us give thanks, and through this let us offer worship pleasing to God in devotion and awe.

<sup>3</sup> Remember those in prison as though you were in prison with them, and those ill-treated as though you too felt their torment.

<sup>4</sup> Marriage must be honored among all and the marriage bed kept undefiled, for God will judge sexually immoral people and adulterers.

<sup>5</sup> Your conduct must be free from the love of money and you must be content with what you have, for he has said, “I will never leave you and I will never abandon you.”

<sup>6</sup> So we can say with confidence, “The Lord is my helper, and I will not be afraid. What can man do to me?”

<sup>7</sup> Remember your leaders, who spoke God's message to you; reflect on the outcome of their lives and imitate their faith.

<sup>8</sup> Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever!

<sup>9</sup> Do not be carried away by all sorts of strange teachings. For it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace, not ritual meals, which have never benefited those who participated in them.

<sup>10</sup> We have an altar that those who serve in the tabernacle have no right to eat from.

<sup>11</sup> For the bodies of those animals whose blood the high priest brings into the sanctuary as an offering for sin are burned outside the camp.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, to sanctify the people by his own blood, Jesus also suffered outside the camp.

<sup>13</sup> We must go out to him, then, outside the camp, bearing the abuse he experienced.

<sup>14</sup> For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city that is to come.

<sup>15</sup> Through him then let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of our lips, acknowledging his name.

<sup>16</sup> And do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for God is pleased with such sacrifices.

<sup>17</sup> Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they keep watch over your souls and will give an account for their work. Let them do this with joy and not with complaints, for this would be no advantage for you.

<sup>18</sup> Pray for us, for we are sure that we have a clear conscience and desire to conduct ourselves rightly in every respect.

<sup>19</sup> I especially ask you to pray that I may be restored to you very soon.

Benediction and Conclusion

<sup>20</sup> Now may the God of peace who by the blood of the eternal covenant brought back from the dead the great shepherd of the sheep, our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>21</sup> equip you with every good thing to do his will, working in us what is pleasing before him through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever. Amen.

<sup>22</sup> Now I urge you, brothers and sisters, bear with my message of exhortation, for in fact I have written to you briefly.

<sup>23</sup> You should know that our brother Timothy has been released. If he comes soon, he will be with me when I see you.

<sup>24</sup> Greetings to all your leaders and all the saints. Those from Italy send you greetings.

<sup>25</sup> Grace be with you all.

James

Salutation

<sup>1</sup> From James, a slave of God and the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes dispersed abroad. Greetings!

Joy in Trials

<sup>2</sup> My brothers and sisters, consider it nothing but joy when you fall into all sorts of trials, <sup>3</sup> because you know that the testing of your faith produces endurance.

<sup>4</sup> And let endurance have its perfect effect, so that you will be perfect and complete, not deficient in anything.

<sup>5</sup> But if anyone is deficient in wisdom, he should ask God, who gives to all generously and without reprimand, and it will be given to him.

<sup>6</sup> But he must ask in faith without doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed around by the wind.

<sup>7</sup> For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord, <sup>8</sup> since he is a double-minded individual, unstable in all his ways.

<sup>9</sup> Now the believer of humble means should take pride in his high position.

<sup>10</sup> But the rich person's pride should be in his humiliation, because he will pass away like a wildflower in the meadow.

<sup>11</sup> For the sun rises with its heat and dries up the meadow; the petal of the flower falls off and its beauty is lost forever. So also the rich person in the midst of his pursuits will wither away.

<sup>12</sup> Happy is the one who endures testing, because when he has proven to be genuine, he will receive the crown of life that God promised to those who love him.

<sup>13</sup> Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God," for God cannot be tempted by evil, and he himself tempts no one.

<sup>14</sup> But each one is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desires.

<sup>15</sup> Then when desire conceives, it gives birth to sin, and when sin is full grown, it gives birth to death.

<sup>16</sup> Do not be led astray, my dear brothers and sisters.

<sup>17</sup> All generous giving and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or the slightest hint of change.

<sup>18</sup> By his sovereign plan he gave us birth through the message of truth, that we would be a kind of firstfruits of all he created.

Living Out the Message

<sup>19</sup> Understand this, my dear brothers and sisters! Let every person be quick to listen, slow to speak, slow to anger.

<sup>21</sup> So put away all filth and evil excess and humbly welcome the message implanted within you, which is able to save your souls.

<sup>22</sup> But be sure you live out the message and do not merely listen to it and so deceive yourselves.

<sup>23</sup> For if someone merely listens to the message and does not live it out, he is like someone who gazes at his own face in a mirror.

<sup>24</sup> For he gazes at himself and then goes out and immediately forgets what sort of person he was.

<sup>25</sup> But the one who peers into the perfect law of liberty and fixes his attention there, and does not become a forgetful listener but one who lives it out – he will be blessed in what he does.

<sup>26</sup> If someone thinks he is religious yet does not bridle his tongue, and so deceives his heart, his religion is futile.

<sup>27</sup> Pure and undefiled religion before God the Father is this: to care for orphans and widows in their misfortune and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

2

<sup>1</sup> My brothers and sisters, do not show prejudice if you possess faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>2</sup> For if someone comes into your assembly wearing a gold ring and fine clothing, and a poor person enters in filthy clothes, <sup>3</sup> do you pay attention to the one who is finely dressed and say, “You sit here in a good place,” and to the poor person, “You stand over there,” or “Sit on the floor”?

<sup>4</sup> If so, have you not made distinctions among yourselves and become judges with evil motives?

<sup>5</sup> Listen, my dear brothers and sisters! Did not God choose the poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?

<sup>6</sup> But you have dishonored the poor! Are not the rich oppressing you and dragging you into the courts?

<sup>8</sup> But if you fulfill the royal law as expressed in this scripture, “ You shall love| strong="G0025" your neighbor as yourself your neighbor as yourself,” you are doing well.

<sup>9</sup> But if you show prejudice, you are committing sin and are convicted by the law as violators.

<sup>10</sup> For the one who obeys the whole law but fails in one point has become guilty of all of it.

<sup>11</sup> For he who said, “Do| strong="G3431" not commit adultery,” also said, “Do| strong="G5407" not murder.” Now if you do not commit adultery but do commit murder, you have become a violator of the law.

<sup>12</sup> Speak and act as those who will be judged by a law that gives freedom.

<sup>13</sup> For judgment is merciless for the one who has shown no mercy. But mercy triumphs over judgment.

Faith and Works Together

<sup>14</sup> What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone claims to have faith but does not have works? Can this kind of faith save him?

<sup>15</sup> If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacks daily food, <sup>16</sup> and one of you says to them, “Go in peace, keep warm and eat well,” but you do not give them what the body needs, what good is it?

<sup>17</sup> So also faith, if it does not have works, is dead being by itself.

<sup>18</sup> But someone will say, “You have faith and I have works.” Show me your faith without works and I will show you faith by my works.

<sup>19</sup> You believe that God is one; well and good. Even the demons believe that – and tremble with fear.

<sup>21</sup> Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered Isaac his son on the altar?

<sup>22</sup> You see that his faith was working together with his works and his faith was perfected by works.

<sup>23</sup> And the scripture was fulfilled that says, “Now | strong="G1161" Abraham believed God and it was counted to him for righteousness,” and he was called God's friend.

<sup>24</sup> You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone.

<sup>25</sup> And similarly, was not Rahab the prostitute also justified by works when she welcomed the messengers and sent them out by another way?

<sup>26</sup> For just as the body without the spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead.

3

<sup>1</sup> Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, because you know that we will be judged more strictly.

<sup>2</sup> For we all stumble in many ways. If someone does not stumble in what he says, he is a perfect individual, able to control the entire body as well.

<sup>3</sup> And if we put bits into the mouths of horses to get them to obey us, then we guide their entire bodies.

<sup>4</sup> Look at ships too: Though they are so large and driven by harsh winds, they are steered by a tiny rudder wherever the pilot's inclination directs.

<sup>5</sup> So too the tongue is a small part of the body, yet it has great pretensions. Think how small a flame sets a huge forest ablaze.

<sup>6</sup> And the tongue is a fire! The tongue represents the world of wrongdoing among the parts of our bodies. It pollutes the entire body and sets fire to the course of human existence – and is set on fire by hell.

<sup>7</sup> For every kind of animal, bird, reptile, and sea creature is subdued and has been subdued by humankind.

<sup>8</sup> But no human being can subdue the tongue; it is a restless evil, full of deadly poison.

<sup>9</sup> With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse people made in God's image.

<sup>10</sup> From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. These things should not be so, my brothers and sisters.

<sup>11</sup> A spring does not pour out fresh water and bitter water from the same opening, does it?

<sup>12</sup> Can a fig tree produce olives, my brothers and sisters, or a vine produce figs? Neither can a salt water spring produce fresh water.

True Wisdom

<sup>13</sup> Who is wise and understanding among you? By his good conduct he should show his works done in the gentleness that wisdom brings.

<sup>14</sup> But if you have bitter jealousy and selfishness in your hearts, do not boast and tell lies against the truth.

<sup>16</sup> For where there is jealousy and selfishness, there is disorder and every evil practice.

<sup>17</sup> But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, accommodating, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial, and not hypocritical.

<sup>18</sup> And the fruit that consists of righteousness is planted in peace among those who make peace.

4

<sup>1</sup> Where do the conflicts and where do the quarrels among you come from? Is it not from this, from your passions that battle inside you?

<sup>2</sup> You desire and you do not have; you murder and envy and you cannot obtain; you quarrel and fight. You do not have because you do not ask;

<sup>3</sup> you ask and do not receive because you ask wrongly, so you can spend it on your passions.

<sup>4</sup> Adulterers, do you not know that friendship with the world means hostility toward God? So whoever decides to be the world's friend makes himself God's enemy.

<sup>5</sup> Or do you think the scripture means nothing when it says, "The spirit that God caused to live within us has an envious yearning"?

<sup>6</sup> But he gives greater grace. Therefore it says, "God opposes the proud, but he gives grace to the humble."

<sup>7</sup> So submit to God. But resist the devil and he will flee from you.

<sup>8</sup> Draw near to God and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and make your hearts pure, you double-minded.

<sup>9</sup> Grieve, mourn, and weep. Turn your laughter into mourning and your joy into despair.

<sup>10</sup> Humble yourselves before the Lord and he will exalt you.

<sup>11</sup> Do not speak against one another, brothers and sisters. He who speaks against a fellow believer or judges a fellow believer speaks against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but its judge.

<sup>12</sup> But there is only one who is lawgiver and judge – the one who is able to save and destroy. On the other hand, who are you to judge your neighbor?

<sup>13</sup> Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go into this or that town and spend a year there and do business and make a profit."

<sup>14</sup> You do not know about tomorrow. What is your life like? For you are a puff of smoke that appears for a short time and then vanishes.

<sup>15</sup> You ought to say instead, "If the Lord is willing, then we will live and do this or that."

<sup>16</sup> But as it is, you boast in your arrogance. All such boasting is evil.

<sup>17</sup> So whoever knows what is good to do and does not do it is guilty of sin.

5

<sup>1</sup> Come now, you rich! Weep and cry aloud over the miseries that are coming on you.

<sup>2</sup> Your riches have rotted and your clothing has become moth-eaten.

<sup>3</sup> Your gold and silver have rusted and their rust will be a witness against you. It will consume your flesh like fire. It is in the last days that you have hoarded treasure!

<sup>4</sup> Look, the pay you have held back from the workers who mowed your fields cries out against you, and the cries of the reapers have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts.

<sup>5</sup> You have lived indulgently and luxuriously on the earth. You have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter.

<sup>6</sup> You have condemned and murdered the righteous person, although he does not resist you.

Patience in Suffering

<sup>7</sup> So be patient, brothers and sisters, until the Lord's return. Think of how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the ground and is patient for it until it receives the early and late rains.

<sup>8</sup> You also be patient and strengthen your hearts, for the Lord's return is near.

<sup>9</sup> Do not grumble against one another, brothers and sisters, so that you may not be judged. See, the judge stands before the gates!

<sup>10</sup> As an example of suffering and patience, brothers and sisters, take the prophets who spoke in the Lord's name.

<sup>11</sup> Think of how we regard as blessed those who have endured. You have heard of Job's endurance and you have seen the Lord's purpose, that the Lord is full of compassion and mercy.

<sup>12</sup> And above all, my brothers and sisters, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or by any other oath. But let your “Yes” be yes and your “No” be no, so that you may not fall into judgment.

Prayer for the Sick

<sup>13</sup> Is anyone among you suffering? He should pray. Is anyone in good spirits? He should sing praises.

<sup>14</sup> Is anyone among you ill? He should summon the elders of the church, and they should pray for him and anoint him with oil in the name of the Lord.

<sup>15</sup> And the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick and the Lord will raise him up – and if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven.

<sup>16</sup> So confess your sins to one another and pray for one another so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great effectiveness.

<sup>17</sup> Elijah was a human being like us, and he prayed earnestly that it would not rain and there was no rain on the land for three years and six months!

<sup>18</sup> Then he prayed again, and the sky gave rain and the land sprouted with a harvest.

<sup>19</sup> My brothers and sisters, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and someone turns him back, <sup>20</sup> he should know that the one who turns a sinner back from his wandering path will save that person’s soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

1 Peter

Salutation

<sup>1</sup> From Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those temporarily residing abroad (in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, the province of Asia, and Bithynia) who are chosen <sup>2</sup> according to the foreknowledge of God the Father by being set apart by the Spirit for obedience and for sprinkling with Jesus Christ's blood. May grace and peace be yours in full measure!

New Birth to Joy and Holiness

<sup>3</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he gave us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, <sup>4</sup> that is, into an inheritance imperishable, undefiled, and unfading. It is reserved in heaven for you, <sup>5</sup> who by God's power are protected through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

<sup>6</sup> This brings you great joy, although you may have to suffer for a short time in various trials.

<sup>7</sup> Such trials show the proven character of your faith, which is much more valuable than gold – gold that is tested by fire, even though it is passing away – and will bring praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed.

<sup>8</sup> You have not seen him, but you love him. You do not see him now but you believe in him, and so you rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, <sup>9</sup> because you are attaining the goal of your faith – the salvation of your souls.

<sup>10</sup> Concerning this salvation, the prophets who predicted the grace that would come to you searched and investigated carefully.

<sup>11</sup> They probed into what person or time the Spirit of Christ within them was indicating when he testified beforehand about the sufferings appointed for Christ and his subsequent glory.

<sup>12</sup> They were shown that they were serving not themselves but you, in regard to the things now announced to you through those who proclaimed the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven – things angels long to catch a glimpse of.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore, get your minds ready for action by being fully sober, and set your hope completely on the grace that will be brought to you when Jesus Christ is revealed.

<sup>14</sup> Like obedient children, do not comply with the evil urges you used to follow in your ignorance,

<sup>15</sup> but, like the Holy One who called you, become holy yourselves in all of your conduct,

<sup>16</sup> for it is written, “ You shall be holy, because I am holy.”

<sup>17</sup> And if you address as Father the one who impartially judges according to each one's work, live out the time of your temporary residence here in reverence.

<sup>18</sup> You know that from your empty way of life inherited from your ancestors you were ransomed – not by perishable things like silver or gold, <sup>19</sup> but by precious blood like that of an unblemished and spotless lamb, namely Christ.

<sup>20</sup> He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was manifested in these last times for your sake.

<sup>21</sup> Through him you now trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

<sup>22</sup> You have purified your souls by obeying the truth in order to show sincere mutual love. So love one another earnestly from a pure heart.

<sup>23</sup> You have been born anew, not from perishable but from imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God.

<sup>24</sup> For all flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of the grass;
 the grass withers and the flower falls off,

<sup>25</sup> but the word of the Lord endures forever.

And this is the word that was proclaimed to you.

2

<sup>1</sup> So get rid of all evil and all deceit and hypocrisy and envy and all slander.

<sup>2</sup> And yearn like newborn infants for pure, spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow up to salvation, <sup>3</sup> if you have experienced the Lord's kindness.

A Living Stone, a Chosen People

<sup>4</sup> So as you come to him, a living stone rejected by men but chosen and priceless in God's sight, <sup>5</sup> you yourselves, as living stones, are built up as a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood and to offer spiritual sacrifices that are acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

<sup>6</sup> For it says in scripture, "*Look, I lay in Zion a stone, a chosen and priceless cornerstone, and whoever believes in him will never be put to shame*.*"

<sup>7</sup> So you who believe see his value, but for those who do not believe, the stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone,

<sup>8</sup> and *a stumbling-stone and a rock to trip over**. They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do.

<sup>9</sup> But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of his own, so that you may proclaim the virtues of the one who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

<sup>10</sup> You once were not a people, but now you are God's people. You were shown no mercy, but now you have received mercy.

<sup>11</sup> Dear friends, I urge you as foreigners and exiles to keep away from fleshly desires that do battle against the soul, <sup>12</sup> and maintain good conduct among the non-Christians, so that though they now malign you as wrongdoers, they may see your good deeds and glorify God when he appears.

Submission to Authorities

<sup>13</sup> Be subject to every human institution for the Lord's sake, whether to a king as supreme <sup>14</sup> or to governors as those he commissions to punish wrongdoers and praise those who do good.

<sup>15</sup> For God wants you to silence the ignorance of foolish people by doing good.

<sup>16</sup> Live as free people, not using your freedom as a pretext for evil, but as God's slaves.

<sup>17</sup> Honor all people, love the family of believers, fear God, honor the king.

<sup>18</sup> Slaves, be subject to your masters with all reverence, not only to those who are good and gentle, but also to those who are perverse.

<sup>19</sup> For this finds God's favor, if because of conscience toward God someone endures hardships in suffering unjustly.

<sup>20</sup> For what credit is it if you sin and are mistreated and endure it? But if you do good and suffer and so endure, this finds favor with God.

<sup>21</sup> For to this you were called, since Christ also suffered for you, leaving an example for you to follow in his steps.

<sup>23</sup> When he was maligned, he did not answer back; when he suffered, he threatened no retaliation, but committed himself to God who judges justly.

<sup>24</sup> He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we may cease from sinning and live for righteousness. By his wounds you were healed.

<sup>25</sup> For you were going astray like sheep but now you have turned back to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

3

<sup>1</sup> In the same way, wives, be subject to your own husbands. Then, even if some are disobedient to the word, they will be won over without a word by the way you live,

<sup>3</sup> Let your beauty not be external – the braiding of hair and wearing of gold jewelry or fine clothes –

<sup>4</sup> but the inner person of the heart, the lasting beauty of a gentle and tranquil spirit, which is precious in God's sight.

<sup>5</sup> For in the same way the holy women who hoped in God long ago adorned themselves by being subject to their husbands, <sup>6</sup> like Sarah who obeyed Abraham, calling him lord. You become her children when you do what is good and have no fear in doing so.

<sup>7</sup> Husbands, in the same way, treat your wives with consideration as the weaker partners and show them honor as fellow heirs of the grace of life. In this way nothing will hinder your prayers.

Suffering for Doing Good

<sup>8</sup> Finally, all of you be harmonious, sympathetic, affectionate, compassionate, and humble.

<sup>9</sup> Do not return evil for evil or insult for insult, but instead bless others because you were called to inherit a blessing.

<sup>10</sup> For the one who wants to love life and see good days must keep his tongue from evil and his lips from uttering deceit.

<sup>11</sup> And he must turn away from evil and do good; he must seek peace and pursue it.

<sup>12</sup> For the eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous and his ears are open to their prayer.

But the Lord's face is against those who do evil.

<sup>13</sup> For who is going to harm you if you are devoted to what is good?

<sup>14</sup> But in fact, if you happen to suffer for doing what is right, you are blessed. But do not be terrified of them or be shaken.

<sup>15</sup> But set Christ apart as Lord in your hearts and always be ready to give an answer to anyone who asks about the hope you possess.

<sup>16</sup> Yet do it with courtesy and respect, keeping a good conscience, so that those who slander your good conduct in Christ may be put to shame when they accuse you.

<sup>17</sup> For it is better to suffer for doing good, if God wills it, than for doing evil.

<sup>18</sup>

Because Christ also suffered once for sins,
the just for the unjust,

to bring you to God,
by being put to death in the flesh
but by being made alive in the spirit.

<sup>19</sup> In it he went and preached to the spirits in prison, <sup>20</sup> after they were disobedient long ago when God patiently waited in the days of Noah as an ark was being constructed. In the ark a few, that is eight souls, were delivered through water.

<sup>21</sup> And this prefigured baptism, which now saves you – not the washing off of physical dirt but the pledge of a good conscience to God – through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, <sup>22</sup> who went into heaven and is at the right hand of God with angels and authorities and powers subject to him.

4

<sup>1</sup> So, since Christ suffered in the flesh, you also arm yourselves with the same attitude, because the one who has suffered in the flesh has finished with sin,

<sup>2</sup> in that he spends the rest of his time on earth concerned about the will of God and not human desires.

<sup>3</sup> For the time that has passed was sufficient for you to do what the non-Christians desire. You lived then in debauchery, evil desires, drunkenness, carousing, drinking bouts, and wanton idolatries.

<sup>4</sup> So they are astonished when you do not rush with them into the same flood of wickedness, and they vilify you.

<sup>5</sup> They will face a reckoning before Jesus Christ who stands ready to judge the living and the dead.

<sup>6</sup> Now it was for this very purpose that the gospel was preached to those who are now dead, so that though they were judged in the flesh by human standards they may live spiritually by God's standards.

Service, Suffering, and Judgment

<sup>7</sup> For the culmination of all things is near. So be self-controlled and sober-minded for the sake of prayer.

<sup>8</sup> Above all keep your love for one another fervent, because love covers a multitude of sins.

<sup>10</sup> Just as each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of the varied grace of God.

<sup>11</sup> Whoever speaks, let it be with God's words. Whoever serves, do so with the strength that God supplies, so that in everything God will be glorified through Jesus Christ. To him belong the glory and the power forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>12</sup> Dear friends, do not be astonished that a trial by fire is occurring among you, as though something strange were happening to you.

<sup>13</sup> But rejoice in the degree that you have shared in the sufferings of Christ, so that when his glory is revealed you may also rejoice and be glad.

<sup>14</sup> If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory, who is the Spirit of God, rests on you.

<sup>15</sup> But let none of you suffer as a murderer or thief or criminal or as a troublemaker.

<sup>16</sup> But if you suffer as a Christian, do not be ashamed, but glorify God that you bear such a name.

<sup>17</sup> For it is time for judgment to begin, starting with the house of God. And if it starts with us, what will be the fate of those who are disobedient to the gospel of God?

<sup>18</sup> And if the righteous are barely saved, what will become of the ungodly and sinners?

<sup>19</sup> So then let those who suffer according to the will of God entrust their souls to a faithful Creator as they do good.

5

<sup>1</sup> So as your fellow elder and a witness of Christ's sufferings and as one who shares in the glory that will be revealed, I urge the elders among you:

<sup>2</sup> Give a shepherd's care to God's flock among you, exercising oversight not merely as a duty but willingly under God's direction, not for shameful profit but eagerly.

<sup>3</sup> And do not lord it over those entrusted to you, but be examples to the flock.

<sup>4</sup> Then when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the crown of glory that never fades away.

<sup>5</sup> In the same way, you who are younger, be subject to the elders. And all of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble.

<sup>6</sup> And God will exalt you in due time, if you humble yourselves under his mighty hand <sup>7</sup> by casting all your cares on him because he cares for you.

<sup>8</sup> Be sober and alert. Your enemy the devil, like a roaring lion, is on the prowl looking for someone to devour.

<sup>9</sup> Resist him, strong in your faith, because you know that your brothers and sisters throughout the world are enduring the same kinds of suffering.

<sup>10</sup> And, after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace who called you to his eternal glory in Christ will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you.

<sup>11</sup> To him belongs the power forever. Amen.

Final Greetings

<sup>12</sup> Through Silvanus, whom I know to be a faithful brother, I have written to you briefly, in order to encourage you and testify that this is the true grace of God. Stand fast in it.

<sup>13</sup> The church in Babylon, chosen together with you, greets you, and so does Mark, my son.

<sup>14</sup> Greet one another with a loving kiss. Peace to all of you who are in Christ.

2 Peter

Salutation

<sup>1</sup> From Simeon Peter, a slave and apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who through the righteousness of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ, have been granted a faith just as precious as ours.

<sup>2</sup> May grace and peace be lavished on you as you grow in the rich knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord!

Believers' Salvation and the Work of God

<sup>3</sup> I can pray this because his divine power has bestowed on us everything necessary for life and godliness through the rich knowledge of the one who called us by his own glory and excellence.

<sup>4</sup> Through these things he has bestowed on us his precious and most magnificent promises, so that by means of what was promised you may become partakers of the divine nature, after escaping the worldly corruption that is produced by evil desire.

<sup>5</sup> For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith excellence, to excellence, knowledge;

<sup>6</sup> to knowledge, self-control; to self-control, perseverance; to perseverance, godliness;

<sup>8</sup> For if these things are really yours and are continually increasing, they will keep you from becoming ineffective and unproductive in your pursuit of knowing our Lord Jesus Christ more intimately.

<sup>9</sup> But concerning the one who lacks such things – he is blind. That is to say, he is nearsighted, since he has forgotten about the cleansing of his past sins.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore, brothers and sisters, make every effort to be sure of your calling and election. For by doing this you will never stumble into sin.

<sup>11</sup> For thus an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, will be richly provided for you.

Salvation Based on the Word of God

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, I intend to remind you constantly of these things even though you know them and are well established in the truth that you now have.

<sup>13</sup> Indeed, as long as I am in this tabernacle, I consider it right to stir you up by way of a reminder, <sup>14</sup> since I know that my tabernacle will soon be removed, because our Lord Jesus Christ revealed this to me.

<sup>15</sup> Indeed, I will also make every effort that, after my departure, you have a testimony of these things.

<sup>16</sup> For we did not follow cleverly concocted fables when we made known to you the power and return of our Lord Jesus Christ; no, we were eyewitnesses of his grandeur.

<sup>17</sup> For he received honor and glory from God the Father, when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory: “This is my dear Son, in whom I am delighted.”

<sup>18</sup> When this voice was conveyed from heaven, we ourselves heard it, for we were with him on the holy mountain.

<sup>19</sup> Moreover, we possess the prophetic word as an altogether reliable thing. You do well if you pay attention to this as you would to a light shining in a murky place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

<sup>20</sup> Above all, you do well if you recognize this: No prophecy of scripture ever comes about by the prophet's own imagination, <sup>21</sup> for no prophecy was ever borne of human impulse; rather, men carried along by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

2

<sup>1</sup> But false prophets arose among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you. These false teachers will infiltrate your midst with destructive heresies, even to the point of denying the Master who bought them. As a result, they will bring swift destruction on themselves.

<sup>2</sup> And many will follow their debauched lifestyles. Because of these false teachers, the way of truth will be slandered.

<sup>3</sup> And in their greed they will exploit you with deceptive words. Their condemnation pronounced long ago is not sitting idly by; their destruction is not asleep.

<sup>4</sup> For if God did not spare the angels who sinned, but threw them into hell and locked them up in chains in utter darkness, to be kept until the judgment,

<sup>5</sup> and if he did not spare the ancient world, but did protect Noah, a herald of righteousness, along with seven others, when God brought a flood on an ungodly world,

<sup>6</sup> and if he turned to ashes the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah when he condemned them to destruction, having appointed them to serve as an example to future generations of the ungodly,

<sup>7</sup> and if he rescued Lot, a righteous man in anguish over the debauched lifestyle of lawless men,

<sup>8</sup> (for while he lived among them day after day, that righteous man was tormented in his righteous soul by the lawless deeds he saw and heard )

<sup>9</sup> – if so, then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from their trials, and to reserve the unrighteous for punishment at the day of judgment, <sup>10</sup> especially those who indulge their fleshly desires and who despise authority.

Brazen and insolent, they are not afraid to insult the glorious ones, <sup>11</sup> yet even angels, who are much more powerful, do not bring a slanderous judgment against them before the Lord.

<sup>12</sup> But these men, like irrational animals – creatures of instinct, born to be caught and destroyed – do not understand whom they are insulting, and consequently in their destruction they will be destroyed,

<sup>13</sup> suffering harm as the wages for their harmful ways. By considering it a pleasure to carouse in broad daylight, they are stains and blemishes, indulging in their deceitful pleasures when they feast together with you.

<sup>14</sup> Their eyes, full of adultery, never stop sinning; they entice unstable people. They have trained their hearts for greed, these cursed children!

<sup>15</sup> By forsaking the right path they have gone astray, because they followed the way of Balaam son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness,

<sup>17</sup> These men are waterless springs and mists driven by a storm, for whom the utter depths of darkness have been reserved.

<sup>18</sup> For by speaking high-sounding but empty words they are able to entice, with fleshly desires and with debauchery, people who have just escaped from those who reside in error.

<sup>19</sup> Although these false teachers promise such people freedom, they themselves are enslaved to immorality. For whatever a person succumbs to, to that he is enslaved.

<sup>20</sup> For if after they have escaped the filthy things of the world through the rich knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they again get entangled in them and succumb to them, their last state has become worse for them than their first.

<sup>21</sup> For it would have been better for them never to have known the way of righteousness than, having known it, to turn back from the holy commandment that had been delivered to them.

<sup>22</sup> They are illustrations of this true proverb: “A dog returns to its own vomit,” and “A sow, after washing herself, wallows in the mire.”

3

<sup>1</sup> Dear friends, this is already the second letter I have written you, in which I am trying to stir up your pure mind by way of reminder:

<sup>2</sup> I want you to recall both the predictions foretold by the holy prophets and the commandment of the Lord and Savior through your apostles.

<sup>3</sup> Above all, understand this: In the last days blatant scoffers will come, being propelled by their own evil urges

<sup>4</sup> and saying, “Where is his promised return? For ever since our ancestors died, all things have continued as they were from the beginning of creation.”

<sup>5</sup> For they deliberately suppress this fact, that by the word of God heavens existed long ago and an earth was formed out of water and by means of water.

<sup>6</sup> Through these things the world existing at that time was destroyed when it was deluged with water.

<sup>7</sup> But by the same word the present heavens and earth have been reserved for fire, by being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly.

<sup>8</sup> Now, dear friends, do not let this one thing escape your notice, that a single day is like a thousand years with the Lord and a thousand years are like a single day.

<sup>9</sup> The Lord is not slow concerning his promise, as some regard slowness, but is being patient toward you, because he does not wish for any to perish but for all to come to repentance.

<sup>10</sup> But the day of the Lord will come like a thief; when it comes, the heavens will disappear with a horrific noise, and the celestial bodies will melt away in a blaze, and the earth and every deed done on it will be laid bare.

<sup>11</sup> Since all these things are to melt away in this manner, what sort of people must we be, conducting our lives in holiness and godliness,

<sup>12</sup> while waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God? Because of this day, the heavens will be burned up and dissolve, and the celestial bodies will melt away in a blaze!

<sup>13</sup> But, according to his promise, we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness truly resides.

Exhortation to the Faithful

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, dear friends, since you are waiting for these things, strive to be found at peace, without spot or blemish, when you come into his presence.

<sup>15</sup> And regard the patience of our Lord as salvation, just as also our dear brother Paul wrote to you, according to the wisdom given to him, <sup>16</sup> speaking of these things in all his letters. Some things in these letters are hard to understand, things the ignorant and unstable twist to their own destruction, as they also do to the rest of the scriptures.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore, dear friends, since you have been forewarned, be on your guard that you do not get led astray by the error of these unprincipled men and fall from your firm grasp on the truth.

<sup>18</sup> But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the honor both now and on that eternal day.

1 John

The Prologue to the Letter

<sup>1</sup> This is what we proclaim to you: what was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and our hands have touched (concerning the word of life –

<sup>2</sup> and the life was revealed, and we have seen and testify and announce to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us).

<sup>3</sup> What we have seen and heard we announce to you too, so that you may have fellowship with us (and indeed our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ).

<sup>4</sup> Thus we are writing these things so that our joy may be complete.

God Is Light, So We Must Walk in the Light

<sup>5</sup> Now this is the gospel message we have heard from him and announce to you: God is light, and in him there is no darkness at all.

<sup>6</sup> If we say we have fellowship with him and yet keep on walking in the darkness, we are lying and not practicing the truth.

<sup>7</sup> But if we walk in the light as he himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin.

<sup>8</sup> If we say we do not bear the guilt of sin, we are deceiving ourselves and the truth is not in us.

<sup>9</sup> But if we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous, forgiving us our sins and cleansing us from all unrighteousness.

<sup>10</sup> If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar and his word is not in us.

2

<sup>1</sup> (My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. ) But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous One,

<sup>2</sup> and he himself is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not only for our sins but also for the whole world.

Keeping God's Commandments

<sup>3</sup> Now by this we know that we have come to know God: if we keep his commandments.

<sup>4</sup> The one who says "I have come to know God" and yet does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in such a person.

<sup>5</sup> But whoever obeys his word, truly in this person the love of God has been perfected. By this we know that we are in him.

<sup>6</sup> The one who says he resides in God ought himself to walk just as Jesus walked.

<sup>7</sup> Dear friends, I am not writing a new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you have had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word that you have already heard.

<sup>8</sup> On the other hand, I am writing a new commandment to you which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining.

<sup>9</sup> The one who says he is in the light but still hates his fellow Christian is still in the darkness.

<sup>10</sup> The one who loves his fellow Christian resides in the light, and there is no cause for stumbling in him.

<sup>11</sup> But the one who hates his fellow Christian is in the darkness, walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

Words of Reassurance

<sup>12</sup> I am writing to you, little children, that your sins have been forgiven because of his name.

<sup>13</sup> I am writing to you, fathers, that you have known him who has been from the beginning. I am writing to you, young people, that you have conquered the evil one.

<sup>14</sup> I have written to you, children, that you have known the Father. I have written to you, fathers, that you have known him who has been from the beginning. I have written to you, young people, that you are strong, and the word of God resides in you, and you have conquered the evil one.

<sup>15</sup> Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him, <sup>16</sup> because all that is in the world (the desire of the flesh and the desire of the eyes and the arrogance produced by material possessions) is not from the Father, but is from the world.

<sup>17</sup> And the world is passing away with all its desires, but the person who does the will of God remains forever.

Warning About False Teachers

<sup>18</sup> Children, it is the last hour, and just as you heard that the antichrist is coming, so now many antichrists have appeared. We know from this that it is the last hour.

<sup>19</sup> They went out from us, but they did not really belong to us, because if they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us. But they went out from us to demonstrate that all of them do not belong to us.

<sup>20</sup> Nevertheless you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all know.

<sup>21</sup> I have not written to you that you do not know the truth, but that you do know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

<sup>22</sup> Who is the liar but the person who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This one is the antichrist: the person who denies the Father and the Son.

<sup>23</sup> Everyone who denies the Son does not have the Father either. The person who confesses the Son has the Father also.

<sup>24</sup> As for you, what you have heard from the beginning must remain in you. If what you heard from the beginning remains in you, you also will remain in the Son and in the Father.

<sup>25</sup> Now this is the promise that he himself made to us: eternal life.

<sup>26</sup> These things I have written to you about those who are trying to deceive you.

<sup>27</sup> Now as for you, the anointing that you received from him resides in you, and you have no need for anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about all things, it is true and is not a lie. Just as it has taught you, you reside in him.

Children of God

<sup>28</sup> And now, little children, remain in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink away from him in shame when he comes back.

<sup>29</sup> If you know that he is righteous, you also know that everyone who practices righteousness has been fathered by him.

3

<sup>1</sup> (See what sort of love the Father has given to us: that we should be called God's children – and indeed we are! For this reason the world does not know us: because it did not know him.

<sup>2</sup> Dear friends, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet been revealed. We know that whenever it is revealed we will be like him, because we will see him just as he is.

<sup>3</sup> And everyone who has this hope focused on him purifies himself, just as Jesus is pure).

<sup>4</sup> Everyone who practices sin also practices lawlessness; indeed, sin is lawlessness.

<sup>5</sup> And you know that Jesus was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin.

<sup>6</sup> Everyone who resides in him does not sin; everyone who sins has neither seen him nor known him.

<sup>7</sup> Little children, let no one deceive you: The one who practices righteousness is righteous, just as Jesus is righteous.

<sup>8</sup> The one who practices sin is of the devil, because the devil has been sinning from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was revealed: to destroy the works of the devil.

<sup>9</sup> Everyone who has been fathered by God does not practice sin, because God's seed resides in him, and thus he is not able to sin, because he has been fathered by God.

<sup>10</sup> By this the children of God and the children of the devil are revealed: Everyone who does not practice righteousness – the one who does not love his fellow Christian – is not of God.

God Is Love, So We Must Love One Another

<sup>11</sup> For this is the gospel message that you have heard from the beginning: that we should love one another, <sup>12</sup> not like Cain who was of the evil one and brutally murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his deeds were evil, but his brother's were righteous.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore do not be surprised, brothers and sisters, if the world hates you.

<sup>14</sup> We know that we have crossed over from death to life because we love our fellow Christians. The one who does not love remains in death.

<sup>15</sup> Everyone who hates his fellow Christian is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life residing in him.

<sup>16</sup> We have come to know love by this: that Jesus laid down his life for us; thus we ought to lay down our lives for our fellow Christians.

<sup>17</sup> But whoever has the world's possessions and sees his fellow Christian in need and shuts off his compassion against him, how can the love of God reside in such a person?

<sup>18</sup> Little children, let us not love with word or with tongue but in deed and truth.

<sup>19</sup> And by this we will know that we are of the truth and will convince our conscience in his presence, <sup>20</sup> that if our conscience condemns us, that God is greater than our conscience and knows all things.

<sup>21</sup> Dear friends, if our conscience does not condemn us, we have confidence in the presence of God, <sup>22</sup> and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do the things that are pleasing to him.

<sup>23</sup> Now this is his commandment: that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he gave us the commandment.

<sup>24</sup> And the person who keeps his commandments resides in God, and God in him. Now by this we know that God resides in us: by the Spirit he has given us.

4

<sup>1</sup> Dear friends, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to determine if they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

<sup>2</sup> By this you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses Jesus as the Christ who has come in the flesh is from God, <sup>3</sup> but every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God, and this is the spirit of the antichrist, which you have heard is coming, and now is already in the world.

<sup>4</sup> You are from God, little children, and have conquered them, because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world.

<sup>5</sup> They are from the world; therefore they speak from the world's perspective and the world listens to them.

<sup>6</sup> We are from God; the person who knows God listens to us, but whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of deceit.

God is Love

<sup>7</sup> Dear friends, let us love one another, because love is from God, and everyone who loves has been fathered by God and knows God.

<sup>8</sup> The person who does not love does not know God, because God is love.

<sup>9</sup> By this the love of God is revealed in us: that God has sent his one and only Son into the world so that we may live through him.

<sup>10</sup> In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins.

<sup>11</sup> Dear friends, if God so loved us, then we also ought to love one another.

<sup>12</sup> No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God resides in us, and his love is perfected in us.

<sup>13</sup> By this we know that we reside in God and he in us: in that he has given us of his Spirit.

<sup>14</sup> And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son to be the Savior of the world.

<sup>15</sup> If anyone confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God resides in him and he in God.

<sup>16</sup> And we have come to know and to believe the love that God has in us. God is love, and the one who resides in love resides in God, and God resides in him.

<sup>17</sup> By this love is perfected with us, so that we may have confidence in the day of judgment, because just as Jesus is, so also are we in this world.

<sup>18</sup> There is no fear in love, but perfect love drives out fear, because fear has to do with punishment. The one who fears punishment has not been perfected in love.

<sup>19</sup> We love because he loved us first.

<sup>20</sup> If anyone says "I love God" and yet hates his fellow Christian, he is a liar, because the one who does not love his fellow Christian whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen.

<sup>21</sup> And the commandment we have from him is this: that the one who loves God should love his fellow Christian too.

5

<sup>1</sup> Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been fathered by God, and everyone who loves the father loves the child fathered by him.

<sup>2</sup> By this we know that we love the children of God: whenever we love God and obey his commandments.

<sup>3</sup> For this is the love of God: that we keep his commandments. And his commandments do not weigh us down, <sup>4</sup> because everyone who has been fathered by God conquers the world.

Testimony About the Son

This is the conquering power that has conquered the world: our faith.

<sup>5</sup> Now who is the person who has conquered the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

<sup>6</sup> Jesus Christ is the one who came by water and blood – not by the water only, but by the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the one who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth.

<sup>7</sup> For there are three that testify, <sup>8</sup> the Spirit and the water and the blood, and these three are in agreement.

<sup>9</sup> If we accept the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater, because this is the testimony of God that he has testified concerning his Son.

<sup>10</sup> (The one who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself; the one who does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has testified concerning his Son.)

<sup>11</sup> And this is the testimony: God has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

<sup>12</sup> The one who has the Son has this eternal life; the one who does not have the Son of God does not have this eternal life.

Assurance of Eternal Life

<sup>13</sup> I have written these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God so that you may know that you have eternal life.

<sup>14</sup> And this is the confidence that we have before him: that whenever we ask anything according to his will, he hears us.

<sup>15</sup> And if we know that he hears us in regard to whatever we ask, then we know that we have the requests that we have asked from him.

<sup>16</sup> If anyone sees his fellow Christian committing a sin not resulting in death, he should ask, and God will grant life to the person who commits a sin not resulting in death. There is a sin resulting in death. I do not say that he should ask about that.

<sup>17</sup> All unrighteousness is sin, but there is sin not resulting in death.

<sup>18</sup> We know that everyone fathered by God does not sin, but God protects the one he has fathered, and the evil one cannot touch him.

<sup>19</sup> We know that we are from God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one.

<sup>20</sup> And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us insight to know him who is true, and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. This one is the true God and eternal life.

<sup>21</sup> Little children, guard yourselves from idols.

2 John

Introduction and Thanksgiving

<sup>1</sup> From the elder, to an elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth (and not I alone, but also all those who know the truth), <sup>2</sup> because of the truth that resides in us and will be with us forever.

<sup>3</sup> Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us from God the Father and from Jesus Christ the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

<sup>4</sup> I rejoiced greatly because I have found some of your children living according to the truth, just as the Father commanded us.

Warning Against False Teachers

<sup>5</sup> But now I ask you, lady (not as if I were writing a new commandment to you, but the one we have had from the beginning), that we love one another.

<sup>6</sup> (Now this is love: that we walk according to his commandments.) This is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning; thus you should walk in it.

<sup>7</sup> For many deceivers have gone out into the world, people who do not confess Jesus as Christ coming in the flesh. This person is the deceiver and the antichrist!

<sup>8</sup> Watch out, so that you do not lose the things we have worked for, but receive a full reward.

<sup>9</sup> Everyone who goes on ahead and does not remain in the teaching of Christ does not have God. The one who remains in this teaching has both the Father and the Son.

<sup>10</sup> If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house and do not give him any greeting, <sup>11</sup> because the person who gives him a greeting shares in his evil deeds.

Conclusion

<sup>12</sup> Though I have many other things to write to you, I do not want to do so with paper and ink, but I hope to come visit you and speak face to face, so that our joy may be complete.

<sup>13</sup> The children of your elect sister greet you.

3 John

Introduction and Thanksgiving

<sup>1</sup> From the elder, to Gaius my dear brother, whom I love in truth.

<sup>2</sup> Dear friend, I pray that all may go well with you and that you may be in good health, just as it is well with your soul.

<sup>3</sup> For I rejoiced greatly when the brothers came and testified to your truth, just as you are living according to the truth.

<sup>4</sup> I have no greater joy than this: to hear that my children are living according to the truth.

The Charge to Gaius

<sup>5</sup> Dear friend, you demonstrate faithfulness by whatever you do for the brothers (even though they are strangers).

<sup>6</sup> They have testified to your love before the church. You will do well to send them on their way in a manner worthy of God.

<sup>7</sup> For they have gone forth on behalf of "The Name," accepting nothing from the pagans.

<sup>8</sup> Therefore we ought to support such people, so that we become coworkers in cooperation with the truth.

Diotrephes the Troublemaker

<sup>9</sup> I wrote something to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, does not acknowledge us.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore, if I come, I will call attention to the deeds he is doing – the bringing of unjustified charges against us with evil words! And not being content with that, he not only refuses to welcome the brothers himself, but hinders the people who want to do so and throws them out of the church!

<sup>11</sup> Dear friend, do not imitate what is bad but what is good. The one who does good is of God; the one who does what is bad has not seen God.

Worthy Demetrius

<sup>12</sup> Demetrius has been testified to by all, even by the truth itself. We also testify to him, and you know that our testimony is true.

Conclusion

<sup>13</sup> I have many things to write to you, but I do not wish to write to you with pen and ink.

<sup>14</sup> But I hope to see you right away, and we will speak face to face. Peace be with you. The friends here greet you. Greet the friends there by name.

Jude

Salutation

<sup>1</sup> From Jude, a slave of Jesus Christ and brother of James, to those who are called, wrapped in the love of God the Father and kept for Jesus Christ.

<sup>2</sup> May mercy, peace, and love be lavished on you!

Condemnation of the False Teachers

<sup>3</sup> Dear friends, although I have been eager to write to you about our common salvation, I now feel compelled instead to write to encourage you to contend earnestly for the faith that was once for all entrusted to the saints.

<sup>4</sup> For certain men have secretly slipped in among you – men who long ago were marked out for the condemnation I am about to describe – ungodly men who have turned the grace of our God into a license for evil and who deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

<sup>5</sup> Now I desire to remind you (even though you have been fully informed of these facts once for all) that Jesus, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, later destroyed those who did not believe.

<sup>6</sup> You also know that the angels who did not keep within their proper domain but abandoned their own place of residence, he has kept in eternal chains in utter darkness, locked up for the judgment of the great Day.

<sup>7</sup> So also Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighboring towns, since they indulged in sexual immorality and pursued unnatural desire in a way similar to these angels, are now displayed as an example by suffering the punishment of eternal fire.

<sup>8</sup> Yet these men, as a result of their dreams, defile the flesh, reject authority, and insult the glorious ones.

<sup>9</sup> But even when Michael the archangel was arguing with the devil and debating with him concerning Moses' body, he did not dare to bring a slanderous judgment, but said, "May the Lord rebuke you!"

<sup>10</sup> But these men do not understand the things they slander, and they are being destroyed by the very things that, like irrational animals, they instinctively comprehend.

<sup>11</sup> Woe to them! For they have traveled down Cain's path, and because of greed have abandoned themselves to Balaam's error; hence, they will certainly perish in Korah's rebellion.

<sup>12</sup> These men are dangerous reefs at your love feasts, feasting without reverence, feeding only themselves. They are waterless clouds, carried along by the winds; autumn trees without fruit – twice dead, uprooted;

<sup>13</sup> wild sea waves, spewing out the foam of their shame; wayward stars for whom the utter depths of eternal darkness have been reserved.

<sup>14</sup> Now Enoch, the seventh in descent beginning with Adam, even prophesied of them, saying, "Look! The Lord is coming with thousands and thousands of his holy ones, <sup>15</sup> to execute judgment on all, and to convict every person of all their thoroughly ungodly deeds that they have committed, and of all the harsh words that ungodly sinners have spoken against him."

<sup>16</sup> These people are grumblers and fault-finders who go wherever their desires lead them, and they give bombastic speeches, enchanting folks for their own gain.

Exhortation to the Faithful

<sup>17</sup> But you, dear friends – recall the predictions foretold by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>18</sup> For they said to you, “In the end time there will come scoffers, propelled by their own ungodly desires.”

<sup>20</sup> But you, dear friends, by building yourselves up in your most holy faith, by praying in the Holy Spirit, <sup>21</sup> maintain yourselves in the love of God, while anticipating the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that brings eternal life.

<sup>22</sup> And have mercy on those who waver;

<sup>23</sup> save others by snatching them out of the fire; have mercy on others, coupled with a fear of God, hating even the clothes stained by the flesh.

Final Blessing

<sup>24</sup> Now to the one who is able to keep you from falling, and to cause you to stand, rejoicing, without blemish before his glorious presence, <sup>25</sup> to the only God our Savior through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, power, and authority, before all time, and now, and for all eternity. Amen.

Revelation

The Prologue

<sup>1</sup> The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his servants what must happen very soon. He made it clear by sending his angel to his servant John,

<sup>2</sup> who then testified to everything that he saw concerning the word of God and the testimony about Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> Blessed is the one who reads the words of this prophecy aloud, and blessed are those who hear and obey the things written in it, because the time is near!

<sup>4</sup> From John, to the seven churches that are in the province of Asia: Grace and peace to you from “he who is,” and who was, and who is still to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne,

<sup>5</sup> and from Jesus Christ – the faithful witness, the firstborn from among the dead, the ruler over the kings of the earth. To the one who loves us and has set us free from our sins at the cost of his own blood

<sup>6</sup> and has appointed us as a kingdom, as priests serving his God and Father – to him be the glory and the power for ever and ever! Amen.

<sup>7</sup> (Look! He is returning with the clouds, and every eye will see him,
even those who pierced him,
and all the tribes on the earth will mourn because of him.
This will certainly come to pass! Amen.)

<sup>8</sup> “I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God – the one who is, and who was, and who is still to come – the All-Powerful!

<sup>9</sup> I, John, your brother and the one who shares with you in the persecution, kingdom, and endurance that are in Jesus, was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony about Jesus.

<sup>10</sup> I was in the Spirit on the Lord’s Day when I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet,

<sup>11</sup> saying: “Write in a book what you see and send it to the seven churches – to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea.”

<sup>12</sup> I turned to see whose voice was speaking to me, and when I did so, I saw seven golden lampstands, <sup>13</sup> and in the midst of the lampstands was one like a son of man. He was dressed in a robe extending down to his feet and he wore a wide golden belt around his chest.

<sup>14</sup> His head and hair were as white as wool, even as white as snow, and his eyes were like a fiery flame.

<sup>15</sup> His feet were like polished bronze refined in a furnace, and his voice was like the roar of many waters.

<sup>16</sup> He held seven stars in his right hand, and a sharp double-edged sword extended out of his mouth. His face shone like the sun shining at full strength.

<sup>17</sup> When I saw him I fell down at his feet as though I were dead, but he placed his right hand on me and said: “Do not be afraid! I am the first and the last,

<sup>18</sup> and the one who lives! I was dead, but look, now I am alive – forever and ever – and I hold the keys of death and of Hades!

<sup>19</sup> Therefore write what you saw, what is, and what will be after these things.

<sup>20</sup> The mystery of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand and the seven golden lampstands is this: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

2

“This is the solemn pronouncement of the one who has a firm grasp on the seven stars in his right hand – the one who walks among the seven golden lampstands:

<sup>2</sup> ‘I know your works as well as your labor and steadfast endurance, and that you cannot tolerate evil. You have even put to the test those who refer to themselves as apostles (but are not), and have discovered that they are false.

<sup>3</sup> I am also aware that you have persisted steadfastly, endured much for the sake of my name, and have not grown weary.

<sup>4</sup> But I have this against you: You have departed from your first love!

<sup>5</sup> Therefore, remember from what high state you have fallen and repent! Do the deeds you did at the first; if not, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place – that is, if you do not repent.

<sup>6</sup> But you do have this going for you: You hate what the Nicolaitans practice – practices I also hate.

<sup>7</sup> The one who has an ear had better hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who conquers, I will permit him to eat from the tree of life that is in the paradise of God.’

To the Church in Smyrna

“This is the solemn pronouncement of the one who is the first and the last, the one who was dead, but came to life:

<sup>9</sup> ‘I know the distress you are suffering and your poverty (but you are rich). I also know the slander against you by those who call themselves Jews and really are not, but are a synagogue of Satan.

<sup>10</sup> Do not be afraid of the things you are about to suffer. The devil is about to have some of you thrown into prison so you may be tested, and you will experience suffering for ten days. Remain faithful even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown that is life itself.

<sup>11</sup> The one who has an ear had better hear what the Spirit says to the churches. The one who conquers will in no way be harmed by the second death.’

To the Church in Pergamum

“This is the solemn pronouncement of the one who has the sharp double-edged sword:

<sup>13</sup> ‘I know where you live – where Satan’s throne is. Yet you continue to cling to my name and you have not denied your faith in me, even in the days of Antipas, my faithful witness, who was killed in your city where Satan lives.

<sup>14</sup> But I have a few things against you: You have some people there who follow the teaching of Balaam, who instructed Balak to put a stumbling block before the people of Israel so they would eat food sacrificed to idols and commit sexual immorality.

<sup>15</sup> In the same way, there are also some among you who follow the teaching of the Nicolaitans.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore, repent! If not, I will come against you quickly and make war against those people with the sword of my mouth.

<sup>17</sup> The one who has an ear had better hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who conquers, I will give him some of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and on that stone will be written a new name that no one can understand except the one who receives it.’

To the Church in Thyatira

“This is the solemn pronouncement of the Son of God, the one who has eyes like a fiery flame and whose feet are like polished bronze:

<sup>19</sup> ‘I know your deeds: your love, faith, service, and steadfast endurance. In fact, your more recent deeds are greater than your earlier ones.

<sup>20</sup> But I have this against you: You tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, and by her teaching deceives my servants to commit sexual immorality and to eat food sacrificed to idols.

<sup>21</sup> I have given her time to repent, but she is not willing to repent of her sexual immorality.

<sup>22</sup> Look! I am throwing her onto a bed of violent illness, and those who commit adultery with her into terrible suffering, unless they repent of her deeds.

<sup>23</sup> Furthermore, I will strike her followers with a deadly disease, and then all the churches will know that I am the one who searches minds and hearts. I will repay each one of you what your deeds deserve.

<sup>24</sup> But to the rest of you in Thyatira, all who do not hold to this teaching (who have not learned the so-called “deep secrets of Satan”), to you I say: I do not put any additional burden on you.

<sup>25</sup> However, hold on to what you have until I come.

<sup>26</sup> And to the one who conquers and who continues in my deeds until the end, I will give him authority over the nations –

<sup>27</sup> *he will rule them with an iron rod** and like clay jars he will break them to pieces, <sup>28</sup> just as I have received the right to rule from my Father – and I will give him the morning star.

<sup>29</sup> The one who has an ear had better hear what the Spirit says to the churches.’

“This is the solemn pronouncement of the one who holds the seven spirits of God and the seven stars: ‘I know your deeds, that you have a reputation that you are alive, but in reality you are dead.

<sup>2</sup> Wake up then, and strengthen what remains that was about to die, because I have not found your deeds complete in the sight of my God.

<sup>3</sup> Therefore, remember what you received and heard, and obey it, and repent. If you do not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will never know at what hour I will come against you.

<sup>4</sup> But you have a few individuals in Sardis who have not stained their clothes, and they will walk with me dressed in white, because they are worthy.

<sup>5</sup> The one who conquers will be dressed like them in white clothing, and I will never erase his name from the book of life, but will declare his name before my Father and before his angels.

To the Church in Philadelphia

“This is the solemn pronouncement of the Holy One, the True One, who holds the key of David, who opens doors no one can shut, and shuts doors no one can open:

<sup>8</sup> ‘I know your deeds. (Look! I have put in front of you an open door that no one can shut.) I know that you have little strength, but you have obeyed my word and have not denied my name.

<sup>9</sup> Listen! I am going to make those people from the synagogue of Satan – who say they are Jews yet are not, but are lying – Look, I will make them come and bow down at your feet and acknowledge that I have loved you.

<sup>10</sup> Because you have kept my admonition to endure steadfastly, I will also keep you from the hour of testing that is about to come on the whole world to test those who live on the earth.

<sup>11</sup> I am coming soon. Hold on to what you have so that no one can take away your crown.

<sup>12</sup> The one who conquers I will make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will never depart from it. I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God (the new Jerusalem that comes down out of heaven from my God), and my new name as well.

<sup>13</sup> The one who has an ear had better hear what the Spirit says to the churches.’

To the Church in Laodicea

“This is the solemn pronouncement of the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the originator of God’s creation:

<sup>15</sup> ‘I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either cold or hot!

<sup>16</sup> So because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I am going to vomit you out of my mouth!

<sup>17</sup> Because you say, “I am rich and have acquired great wealth, and need nothing,” but do not realize that you are wretched, pitiful, poor, blind, and naked, <sup>18</sup> take my advice and buy gold from me refined by fire so you can become rich! Buy from me white clothing so you can be clothed and your shameful nakedness will not be exposed, and buy eye salve to put on your eyes so you can see!

<sup>19</sup> All those I love, I rebuke and discipline. So be earnest and repent!

<sup>20</sup> Listen! I am standing at the door and knocking! If anyone hears my voice and opens the door I will come into his home and share a meal with him, and he with me.

<sup>21</sup> I will grant the one who conquers permission to sit with me on my throne, just as I too conquered and sat down with my Father on his throne.

<sup>22</sup> The one who has an ear had better hear what the Spirit says to the churches.’ ”

4

<sup>1</sup> After these things I looked, and there was a door standing open in heaven! And the first voice I had heard speaking to me like a trumpet said: “Come up here so that I can show you what must happen after these things.”

<sup>2</sup> Immediately I was in the Spirit, and a throne was standing in heaven with someone seated on it!

<sup>3</sup> And the one seated on it was like jasper and carnelian in appearance, and a rainbow looking like it was made of emerald encircled the throne.

<sup>4</sup> In a circle around the throne were twenty-four other thrones, and seated on those thrones were twenty-four elders. They were dressed in white clothing and had golden crowns on their heads.

<sup>5</sup> From the throne came out flashes of lightning and roaring and crashes of thunder. Seven flaming torches, which are the seven spirits of God, were burning in front of the throne

In the middle of the throne and around the throne were four living creatures full of eyes in front and in back.

<sup>7</sup> The first living creature was like a lion, the second creature like an ox, the third creature had a face like a man's, and the fourth creature looked like an eagle flying.

<sup>8</sup> Each one of the four living creatures had six wings and was full of eyes all around and inside. They never rest day or night, saying:

*"Holy Holy Holy is the Lord God, the All-Powerful,
Who was and who is, and who is still to come!"*

<sup>9</sup> And whenever the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to the one who sits on the throne, who lives forever and ever,

<sup>10</sup> the twenty-four elders throw themselves to the ground before the one who sits on the throne and worship the one who lives forever and ever, and they offer their crowns before his throne, saying:

<sup>11</sup> "You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power,
since you created all things, and because of your will they existed and were created!"

5

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw in the right hand of the one who was seated on the throne a scroll written on the front and back and sealed with seven seals.

<sup>2</sup> And I saw a powerful angel proclaiming in a loud voice: "Who is worthy to open the scroll and to break its seals?"

<sup>3</sup> But no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or look into it.

<sup>4</sup> So I began weeping bitterly because no one was found who was worthy to open the scroll or to look into it.

<sup>5</sup> Then one of the elders said to me, "Stop weeping! Look, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the root of David, has conquered; thus he can open the scroll and its seven seals."

<sup>6</sup> Then I saw standing in the middle of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the middle of the elders, a Lamb that appeared to have been killed. He had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth.

<sup>7</sup> Then he came and took the scroll from the right hand of the one who was seated on the throne, <sup>8</sup> and when he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders threw themselves to the ground before the Lamb. Each of them had a harp and golden bowls full of incense (which are the prayers of the saints).

<sup>9</sup> They were singing a new song:

"You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals
because you were killed, and at the cost of your own blood you have purchased for God persons from every tribe, language, people, and nation.

<sup>10</sup> You have appointed them as a kingdom and priests to serve our God, and they will reign on the earth."

<sup>11</sup> Then I looked and heard the voice of many angels in a circle around the throne, as well as the living creatures and the elders. Their number was ten thousand times ten thousand – thousands times thousands –

<sup>12</sup> all of whom were singing in a loud voice:

"Worthy is the lamb who was killed to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and praise!"

<sup>13</sup> Then I heard every creature – in heaven, on earth, under the earth, in the sea, and all that is in them – singing:

“To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be praise, honor, glory, and ruling power forever and ever!”

<sup>14</sup> And the four living creatures were saying “Amen,” and the elders threw themselves to the ground and worshiped.

6

<sup>2</sup> So I looked, and here came a white horse! The one who rode it had a bow, and he was given a crown, and as a conqueror he rode out to conquer.

<sup>3</sup> Then when the Lamb opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, “Come!”

<sup>4</sup> And another horse, fiery red, came out, and the one who rode it was granted permission to take peace from the earth, so that people would butcher one another, and he was given a huge sword.

<sup>5</sup> Then when the Lamb opened the third seal I heard the third living creature saying, “Come!” So I looked, and here came a black horse! The one who rode it had a balance scale in his hand.

<sup>6</sup> Then I heard something like a voice from among the four living creatures saying, “A quart of wheat will cost a day’s pay and three quarts of barley will cost a day’s pay. But do not damage the olive oil and the wine!”

<sup>7</sup> Then when the Lamb opened the fourth seal I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, “Come!”

<sup>8</sup> So I looked and here came a pale green horse! The name of the one who rode it was Death, and Hades followed right behind. They were given authority over a fourth of the earth, to kill its population with the sword, famine, and disease, and by the wild animals of the earth.

<sup>9</sup> Now when the Lamb opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been violently killed because of the word of God and because of the testimony they had given.

<sup>10</sup> They cried out with a loud voice, “How long, Sovereign Master, holy and true, before you judge those who live on the earth and avenge our blood?”

<sup>11</sup> Each of them was given a long white robe and they were told to rest for a little longer, until the full number was reached of both their fellow servants and their brothers who were going to be killed just as they had been.

<sup>12</sup> Then I looked when the Lamb opened the sixth seal, and a huge earthquake took place; the sun became as black as sackcloth made of hair, and the full moon became blood red;

<sup>13</sup> and the stars in the sky fell to the earth like a fig tree dropping its unripe figs when shaken by a fierce wind.

<sup>14</sup> The sky was split apart like a scroll being rolled up, and every mountain and island was moved from its place.

<sup>15</sup> Then the kings of the earth, the very important people, the generals, the rich, the powerful, and everyone, slave and free, hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains.

<sup>16</sup> They said to the mountains and to the rocks, “Fall on us and hide us from the face of the one who is seated on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb, <sup>17</sup> because the great day of their wrath has come, and who is able to withstand it?”

7

<sup>1</sup> After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth so no wind could blow on the earth, on the sea, or on any tree.

<sup>2</sup> Then I saw another angel ascending from the east, who had the seal of the living God. He shouted out with a loud voice to the four angels who had been given permission to damage the earth and the sea:

<sup>3</sup> “Do not damage the earth or the sea or the trees until we have put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.”

<sup>4</sup> Now I heard the number of those who were marked with the seal, one hundred and forty-four thousand, sealed from all the tribes of the people of Israel:

<sup>5</sup> From the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand were sealed, from the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Gad, twelve thousand, <sup>6</sup> from the tribe of Asher, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Naphtali, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Manasseh, twelve thousand, <sup>7</sup> from the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand,
from the tribe of Issachar, twelve thousand, <sup>8</sup> from the tribe of Zebulun, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Joseph, twelve thousand, from the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand were sealed.

<sup>9</sup> After these things I looked, and here was an enormous crowd that no one could count, made up of persons from every nation, tribe, people, and language, standing before the throne and before the Lamb dressed in long white robes, and with palm branches in their hands.

<sup>10</sup> They were shouting out in a loud voice, “Salvation belongs to our God,
to the one seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!”

<sup>11</sup> And all the angels stood there in a circle around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they threw themselves down with their faces to the ground before the throne and worshiped God,

“Amen! Praise and glory, and wisdom and thanksgiving, and honor and power and strength be to our God for ever and ever. Amen!”

<sup>13</sup> Then one of the elders asked me, “These dressed in long white robes – who are they and where have they come from?”

<sup>14</sup> So I said to him, “My lord, you know the answer.” Then he said to me, “These are the ones who have come out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb!

<sup>15</sup> For this reason they are before the throne of God, and they serve him day and night in his temple, and the one seated on the throne will shelter them.

<sup>16</sup> They will never go hungry or be thirsty again, and the sun will not beat down on them, nor any burning heat,

<sup>17</sup> because the Lamb in the middle of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to springs of living water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

8

<sup>1</sup> Now when the Lamb opened the seventh seal there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

<sup>2</sup> Then I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

<sup>3</sup> Another angel holding a golden censer came and was stationed at the altar. A large amount of incense was given to him to offer up, with the prayers of all the saints, on the golden altar that is before the throne.

<sup>4</sup> The smoke coming from the incense, along with the prayers of the saints, ascended before God from the angel's hand.

<sup>5</sup> Then the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it on the earth, and there were crashes of thunder, roaring, flashes of lightning, and an earthquake.

<sup>7</sup> The first angel blew his trumpet, and there was hail and fire mixed with blood, and it was thrown at the earth so that a third of the earth was burned up, a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.

<sup>8</sup> Then the second angel blew his trumpet, and something like a great mountain of burning fire was thrown into the sea. A third of the sea became blood, <sup>9</sup> and a third of the creatures living in the sea died, and a third of the ships were completely destroyed.

<sup>10</sup> Then the third angel blew his trumpet, and a huge star burning like a torch fell from the sky; it landed on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water.

<sup>11</sup> (Now the name of the star is Wormwood.) So a third of the waters became wormwood, and many people died from these waters because they were poisoned.

<sup>12</sup> Then the fourth angel blew his trumpet, and a third of the sun was struck, and a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of them were darkened. And there was no light for a third of the day and for a third of the night likewise.

<sup>13</sup> Then I looked, and I heard an eagle flying directly overhead, proclaiming with a loud voice, "Woe! Woe! Woe to those who live on the earth because of the remaining sounds of the trumpets of the three angels who are about to blow them!"

9

<sup>1</sup> Then the fifth angel blew his trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen from the sky to the earth, and he was given the key to the shaft of the abyss.

<sup>2</sup> He opened the shaft of the abyss and smoke rose out of it like smoke from a giant furnace. The sun and the air were darkened with smoke from the shaft.

<sup>3</sup> Then out of the smoke came locusts onto the earth, and they were given power like that of the scorpions of the earth.

<sup>4</sup> They were told not to damage the grass of the earth, or any green plant or tree, but only those people who did not have the seal of God on their forehead.

<sup>5</sup> The locusts were not given permission to kill them, but only to torture them for five months, and their torture was like that of a scorpion when it stings a person.

<sup>6</sup> In those days people will seek death, but will not be able to find it; they will long to die, but death will flee from them.

<sup>7</sup> Now the locusts looked like horses equipped for battle. On their heads were something like crowns similar to gold, and their faces looked like men's faces.

<sup>9</sup> They had breastplates like iron breastplates, and the sound of their wings was like the noise of many horse-drawn chariots charging into battle.

<sup>10</sup> They have tails and stingers like scorpions, and their ability to injure people for five months is in their tails.

<sup>11</sup> They have as king over them the angel of the abyss, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek, Apollyon.

<sup>12</sup> The first woe has passed, but two woes are still coming after these things!

<sup>13</sup> Then the sixth angel blew his trumpet, and I heard a single voice coming from the horns on the golden altar that is before God,

<sup>14</sup> saying to the sixth angel, the one holding the trumpet, "Set free the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates!"

<sup>15</sup> Then the four angels who had been prepared for this hour, day, month, and year were set free to kill a third of humanity.

<sup>16</sup> The number of soldiers on horseback was two hundred million; I heard their number.

<sup>17</sup> Now this is what the horses and their riders looked like in my vision: The riders had breastplates that were fiery red, dark blue, and sulfurous yellow in color. The heads of the horses looked like lions' heads, and fire, smoke, and sulfur came out of their mouths.

<sup>18</sup> A third of humanity was killed by these three plagues, that is, by the fire, the smoke, and the sulfur that came out of their mouths.

<sup>19</sup> For the power of the horses resides in their mouths and in their tails, because their tails are like snakes, having heads that inflict injuries.

<sup>20</sup> The rest of humanity, who had not been killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands, so that they did not stop worshiping demons and idols made of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood – idols that cannot see or hear or walk about.

<sup>3</sup> Then he shouted in a loud voice like a lion roaring, and when he shouted, the seven thunders sounded their voices.

<sup>4</sup> When the seven thunders spoke, I was preparing to write, but just then I heard a voice from heaven say, "Seal up what the seven thunders spoke and do not write it down."

<sup>5</sup> Then the angel I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand to heaven

<sup>6</sup> and swore by the one who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and what is in it, and the earth and what is in it, and the sea and what is in it, "There will be no more delay!

<sup>7</sup> But in the days when the seventh angel is about to blow his trumpet, the mystery of God is completed, just as he has proclaimed to his servants the prophets."

<sup>8</sup> Then the voice I had heard from heaven began to speak to me again, "Go and take the open scroll in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land."

<sup>9</sup> So I went to the angel and asked him to give me the little scroll. He said to me, "Take the scroll and eat it. It will make your stomach bitter, but it will be as sweet as honey in your mouth."

<sup>10</sup> So I took the little scroll from the angel's hand and ate it, and it did taste as sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I had eaten it, my stomach became bitter.

<sup>11</sup> Then they told me: "You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, languages, and kings."

11

<sup>1</sup> Then a measuring rod like a staff was given to me, and I was told, "Get up and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and the ones who worship there.

<sup>2</sup> But do not measure the outer courtyard of the temple; leave it out, because it has been given to the Gentiles, and they will trample on the holy city for forty-two months.

<sup>3</sup> And I will grant my two witnesses authority to prophesy for 1,260 days, dressed in sackcloth.

<sup>4</sup> (These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth.)

<sup>5</sup> If anyone wants to harm them, fire comes out of their mouths and completely consumes their enemies. If anyone wants to harm them, they must be killed this way.

<sup>6</sup> These two have the power to close up the sky so that it does not rain during the time they are prophesying. They have power to turn the waters to blood and to strike the earth with every kind of plague whenever they want.

<sup>7</sup> When they have completed their testimony, the beast that comes up from the abyss will make war on them and conquer them and kill them.

<sup>8</sup> Their corpses will lie in the street of the great city that is symbolically called Sodom and Egypt, where their Lord was also crucified.

<sup>9</sup> For three and a half days those from every people, tribe, nation, and language will look at their corpses, because they will not permit them to be placed in a tomb.

<sup>10</sup> And those who live on the earth will rejoice over them and celebrate, even sending gifts to each other, because these two prophets had tormented those who live on the earth.

<sup>11</sup> But after three and a half days a breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet, and tremendous fear seized those who were watching them.

<sup>12</sup> Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them: "Come up here!" So the two prophets went up to heaven in a cloud while their enemies stared at them.

<sup>13</sup> Just then a major earthquake took place and a tenth of the city collapsed; seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

<sup>14</sup> The second woe has come and gone; the third is coming quickly.

The Seventh Trumpet

<sup>15</sup> Then the seventh angel blew his trumpet, and there were loud voices in heaven saying:

"The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he will reign for ever and ever."

<sup>16</sup> Then the twenty-four elders who are seated on their thrones before God threw themselves down with their faces to the ground and worshiped God

<sup>17</sup> with these words:
"We give you thanks, Lord God, the All-Powerful, the one who is and who was,
because you have taken your great power and begun to reign.

<sup>18</sup> The nations were enraged, but your wrath has come,
and the time has come for the dead to be judged, and the time has come to give to your servants,

the prophets, their reward,
as well as to the saints and to those who revere your name, both small and great, and the time has come to destroy those who destroy the earth.”

<sup>19</sup> Then the temple of God in heaven was opened and the ark of his covenant was visible within his temple. And there were flashes of lightning, roaring, crashes of thunder, an earthquake, and a great hailstorm.

12

<sup>1</sup> Then a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and with the moon under her feet, and on her head was a crown of twelve stars.

<sup>3</sup> Then another sign appeared in heaven: a huge red dragon that had seven heads and ten horns, and on its heads were seven diadem crowns.

<sup>4</sup> Now the dragon's tail swept away a third of the stars in heaven and hurled them to the earth. Then the dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that he might devour her child as soon as it was born.

<sup>5</sup> So the woman gave birth to a son, a male child, who is going to rule over all the nations with an iron rod. Her child was suddenly caught up to God and to his throne, <sup>6</sup> and she fled into the wilderness where a place had been prepared for her by God, so she could be taken care of for 1,260 days.

War in Heaven

<sup>7</sup> Then war broke out in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought back.

<sup>8</sup> But the dragon was not strong enough to prevail, so there was no longer any place left in heaven for him and his angels.

<sup>9</sup> So that huge dragon – the ancient serpent, the one called the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world – was thrown down to the earth, and his angels along with him.

<sup>10</sup> Then I heard a loud voice in heaven saying,
“The salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the ruling authority of his Christ, have now come,
because the accuser of our brothers and sisters, the one who accuses them day and night before our God, has been thrown down.

<sup>11</sup> But they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives so much that they were afraid to die.

<sup>12</sup> Therefore you heavens rejoice, and all who reside in them!
But woe to the earth and the sea because the devil has come down to you!
He is filled with terrible anger, for he knows that he only has a little time!”

<sup>13</sup> Now when the dragon realized that he had been thrown down to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child.

<sup>14</sup> But the woman was given the two wings of a giant eagle so that she could fly out into the wilderness, to the place God prepared for her, where she is taken care of – away from the presence of the serpent – for a time, times, and half a time.

<sup>15</sup> Then the serpent spouted water like a river out of his mouth after the woman in an attempt to sweep her away by a flood,

<sup>16</sup> but the earth came to her rescue; the ground opened up and swallowed the river that the dragon had spewed from his mouth.

<sup>17</sup> So the dragon became enraged at the woman and went away to make war on the rest of her children, those who keep God's commandments and hold to the testimony about Jesus. And the dragon stood on the sand of the seashore.

13

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw a beast coming up out of the sea. It had ten horns and seven heads, and on its horns were ten diadem crowns, and on its heads a blasphemous name.

<sup>2</sup> Now the beast that I saw was like a leopard, but its feet were like a bear's, and its mouth was like a lion's mouth. The dragon gave the beast his power, his throne, and great authority to rule.

<sup>3</sup> One of the beast's heads appeared to have been killed, but the lethal wound had been healed. And the whole world followed the beast in amazement;

<sup>4</sup> they worshiped the dragon because he had given ruling authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast too, saying: "Who is like the beast?" and "Who is able to make war against him?"

<sup>5</sup> The beast was given a mouth speaking proud words and blasphemies, and he was permitted to exercise ruling authority for forty-two months.

<sup>6</sup> So the beast opened his mouth to blaspheme against God – to blaspheme both his name and his dwelling place, that is, those who dwell in heaven.

<sup>7</sup> The beast was permitted to go to war against the saints and conquer them. He was given ruling authority over every tribe, people, language, and nation, <sup>8</sup> and all those who live on the earth will worship the beast, everyone whose name has not been written since the foundation of the world in the book of life belonging to the Lamb who was killed.

<sup>9</sup> If anyone has an ear, he had better listen!

<sup>10</sup> If anyone is meant for captivity, into captivity he will go.

If anyone is to be killed by the sword, then by the sword he must be killed.

This requires steadfast endurance and faith from the saints.

<sup>11</sup> Then I saw another beast coming up from the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, but was speaking like a dragon.

<sup>12</sup> He exercised all the ruling authority of the first beast on his behalf, and made the earth and those who inhabit it worship the first beast, the one whose lethal wound had been healed.

<sup>13</sup> He performed momentous signs, even making fire come down from heaven in front of people

<sup>14</sup> and, by the signs he was permitted to perform on behalf of the beast, he deceived those who live on the earth. He told those who live on the earth to make an image to the beast who had been wounded by the sword, but still lived.

<sup>15</sup> The second beast was empowered to give life to the image of the first beast so that it could speak, and could cause all those who did not worship the image of the beast to be killed.

<sup>16</sup> He also caused everyone (small and great, rich and poor, free and slave ) to obtain a mark on their right hand or on their forehead.

<sup>17</sup> Thus no one was allowed to buy or sell things unless he bore the mark of the beast – that is, his name or his number.

<sup>18</sup> This calls for wisdom: Let the one who has insight calculate the beast's number, for it is man's number, and his number is 666.

14

<sup>1</sup> Then I looked, and here was the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with him were one hundred and forty-four thousand, who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads.

<sup>2</sup> I also heard a sound coming out of heaven like the sound of many waters and like the sound of loud thunder. Now the sound I heard was like that made by harpists playing their harps, <sup>3</sup> and they were singing a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders. No one was able to learn the song except the one hundred and forty-four thousand who had been redeemed from the earth.

<sup>4</sup> These are the ones who have not defiled themselves with women, for they are virgins. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These were redeemed from humanity as firstfruits to God and to the Lamb, <sup>5</sup> and no lie was found on their lips; they are blameless.

Three Angels and Three Messages

<sup>6</sup> Then I saw another angel flying directly overhead, and he had an eternal gospel to proclaim to those who live on the earth – to every nation, tribe, language, and people.

<sup>7</sup> He declared in a loud voice: "Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has arrived, and worship the one who made heaven and earth, the sea and the springs of water!"

<sup>8</sup> A second angel followed the first, declaring: "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great city! She made all the nations drink of the wine of her immoral passion."

<sup>9</sup> A third angel followed the first two, declaring in a loud voice: "If anyone worships the beast and his image, and takes the mark on his forehead or his hand,

<sup>10</sup> that person will also drink of the wine of God's anger that has been mixed undiluted in the cup of his wrath, and he will be tortured with fire and sulfur in front of the holy angels and in front of the Lamb.

<sup>11</sup> And the smoke from their torture will go up forever and ever, and those who worship the beast and his image will have no rest day or night, along with anyone who receives the mark of his name."

<sup>12</sup> This requires the steadfast endurance of the saints – those who obey God's commandments and hold to their faith in Jesus.

<sup>13</sup> Then I heard a voice from heaven say, "Write this:

'Blessed are the dead, those who die in the Lord from this moment on!'

"Yes," says the Spirit, "so they can rest from their hard work, because their deeds will follow them."

<sup>14</sup> Then I looked, and a white cloud appeared, and seated on the cloud was one like a son of man! He had a golden crown on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand.

<sup>15</sup> Then another angel came out of the temple, shouting in a loud voice to the one seated on the cloud, "Use your sickle and start to reap, because the time to reap has come, since the earth's harvest is ripe!"

<sup>16</sup> So the one seated on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the earth was reaped.

<sup>17</sup> Then another angel came out of the temple in heaven, and he too had a sharp sickle.

<sup>18</sup> Another angel, who was in charge of the fire, came from the altar and called in a loud voice to the angel who had the sharp sickle, "Use your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of grapes off the vine of the earth, because its grapes are now ripe."

<sup>19</sup> So the angel swung his sickle over the earth and gathered the grapes from the vineyard of the earth and tossed them into the great winepress of the wrath of God.

<sup>20</sup> Then the winepress was stomped outside the city, and blood poured out of the winepress up to the height of horses' bridles for a distance of almost two hundred miles.

15

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw another great and astounding sign in heaven: seven angels who have seven final plagues (they are final because in them God's anger is completed).

<sup>2</sup> Then I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who had conquered the beast and his image and the number of his name. They were standing by the sea of glass, holding harps given to them by God.

<sup>3</sup> They sang the song of Moses the servant of God and the song of the Lamb:

"Great and astounding are your deeds,

Lord God, the All-Powerful!

Just and true are your ways,

King over the nations!

<sup>4</sup> Who will not fear you, O Lord, and glorify your name, because you alone are holy?

All nations will come and worship before you for your righteous acts have been revealed."

<sup>5</sup> After these things I looked, and the temple (the tent of the testimony) was opened in heaven, <sup>6</sup> and the seven angels who had the seven plagues came out of the temple, dressed in clean bright linen, wearing wide golden belts around their chests.

<sup>7</sup> Then one of the four living creatures gave the seven angels seven golden bowls filled with the wrath of God who lives forever and ever, <sup>8</sup> and the temple was filled with smoke from God's glory and from his power. Thus no one could enter the temple until the seven plagues from the seven angels were completed.

16

<sup>1</sup> Then I heard a loud voice from the temple declaring to the seven angels: "Go and pour out on the earth the seven bowls containing God's wrath."

<sup>2</sup> So the first angel went and poured out his bowl on the earth. Then ugly and painful sores appeared on the people who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped his image.

<sup>3</sup> Next, the second angel poured out his bowl on the sea and it turned into blood, like that of a corpse, and every living creature that was in the sea died.

<sup>4</sup> Then the third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and the springs of water, and they turned into blood.

<sup>5</sup> Now I heard the angel of the waters saying:

"You are just – the one who is and who was,

the Holy One – because you have passed these judgments,

<sup>6</sup> because they poured out the blood of your saints and prophets, so you have given them blood to drink. They got what they deserved!"

<sup>7</sup> Then I heard the altar reply, "Yes, Lord God, the All-Powerful, your judgments are true and just!"

<sup>8</sup> Then the fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was permitted to scorch people with fire.

<sup>9</sup> Thus people were scorched by the terrible heat, yet they blasphemed the name of God, who has ruling authority over these plagues, and they would not repent and give him glory.

<sup>10</sup> Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast so that darkness covered his kingdom, and people began to bite their tongues because of their pain.

<sup>11</sup> They blasphemed the God of heaven because of their sufferings and because of their sores, but nevertheless they still refused to repent of their deeds.

<sup>12</sup> Then the sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates and dried up its water to prepare the way for the kings from the east.

<sup>13</sup> Then I saw three unclean spirits that looked like frogs coming out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

<sup>14</sup> For they are the spirits of the demons performing signs who go out to the kings of the earth to bring them together for the battle that will take place on the great day of God, the All-Powerful.

Blessed is the one who stays alert and does not lose his clothes so that he will not have to walk around naked and his shameful condition be seen.)

<sup>16</sup> Now the spirits gathered the kings and their armies to the place that is called Armageddon in Hebrew.

<sup>17</sup> Finally the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air and a loud voice came out of the temple from the throne, saying: "It is done!"

<sup>18</sup> Then there were flashes of lightning, roaring, and crashes of thunder, and there was a tremendous earthquake – an earthquake unequaled since humanity has been on the earth, so tremendous was that earthquake.

<sup>19</sup> The great city was split into three parts and the cities of the nations collapsed. So Babylon the great was remembered before God, and was given the cup filled with the wine made of God's furious wrath.

<sup>21</sup> And gigantic hailstones, weighing about a hundred pounds each, fell from heaven on people, but they blasphemed God because of the plague of hail, since it was so horrendous.

17

<sup>1</sup> Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke to me. "Come," he said, "I will show you the condemnation and punishment of the great prostitute who sits on many waters,

<sup>3</sup> So he carried me away in the Spirit to a wilderness, and there I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was full of blasphemous names and had seven heads and ten horns.

<sup>4</sup> Now the woman was dressed in purple and scarlet clothing, and adorned with gold, precious stones, and pearls. She held in her hand a golden cup filled with detestable things and unclean things from her sexual immorality.

<sup>5</sup> On her forehead was written a name, a mystery: "Babylon the Great, the Mother of prostitutes and of the detestable things of the earth."

<sup>6</sup> I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of the saints and the blood of those who testified to Jesus. I was greatly astounded when I saw her.

<sup>7</sup> But the angel said to me, "Why are you astounded? I will interpret for you the mystery of the woman and of the beast with the seven heads and ten horns that carries her.

<sup>8</sup> The beast you saw was, and is not, but is about to come up from the abyss and then go to destruction. The inhabitants of the earth – all those whose names have not been written in the book of life since the foundation of the world – will be astounded when they see that the beast was, and is not, but is to come.

<sup>9</sup> (This requires a mind that has wisdom.) The seven heads are seven mountains the woman sits on. They are also seven kings:

<sup>10</sup> five have fallen; one is, and the other has not yet come, but whenever he does come, he must remain for only a brief time.

<sup>11</sup> The beast that was, and is not, is himself an eighth king and yet is one of the seven, and is going to destruction.

<sup>12</sup> The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but will receive ruling authority as kings with the beast for one hour.

<sup>13</sup> These kings have a single intent, and they will give their power and authority to the beast.

<sup>14</sup> They will make war with the Lamb, but the Lamb will conquer them, because he is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those accompanying the Lamb are the called, chosen, and faithful.”

<sup>15</sup> Then the angel said to me, “The waters you saw (where the prostitute is seated) are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages.

<sup>16</sup> The ten horns that you saw, and the beast – these will hate the prostitute and make her desolate and naked. They will consume her flesh and burn her up with fire.

<sup>17</sup> For God has put into their minds to carry out his purpose by making a decision to give their royal power to the beast until the words of God are fulfilled.

<sup>18</sup> As for the woman you saw, she is the great city that has sovereignty over the kings of the earth.”

18

<sup>1</sup> After these things I saw another angel, who possessed great authority, coming down out of heaven, and the earth was lit up by his radiance.

<sup>2</sup> He shouted with a powerful voice:

“Fallen, fallen, is Babylon the great!

She has become a lair for demons,

a haunt for every unclean spirit,

a haunt for every unclean bird,

a haunt for every unclean and detested beast.

<sup>3</sup> For all the nations have fallen from the wine of her immoral passion, and the kings of the earth have committed sexual immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth have gotten rich from the power of her sensual behavior.”

<sup>4</sup> Then I heard another voice from heaven saying, “Come out of her, my people, so you will not take part in her sins and so you will not receive her plagues, <sup>5</sup> because her sins have piled up all the way to heaven and God has remembered her crimes.

<sup>6</sup> Repay her the same way she repaid others; pay her back double corresponding to her deeds. In the cup she mixed, mix double the amount for her.

<sup>7</sup> As much as she exalted herself and lived in sensual luxury, to this extent give her torment and grief because she said to herself, ‘I rule as queen and am no widow; I will never experience grief!’

<sup>8</sup> For this reason, she will experience her plagues in a single day: disease, mourning, and famine, and she will be burned down with fire, because the Lord God who judges her is powerful!”

<sup>9</sup> Then the kings of the earth who committed immoral acts with her and lived in sensual luxury with her will weep and wail for her when they see the smoke from the fire that burns her up.

<sup>10</sup> They will stand a long way off because they are afraid of her torment, and will say, “Woe, woe, O great city, Babylon the powerful city! For in a single hour your doom has come!”

<sup>11</sup> Then the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn for her because no one buys their cargo any longer –

<sup>12</sup> cargo such as gold, silver, precious stones, pearls, fine linen, purple cloth, silk, scarlet cloth, all sorts of things made of citron wood, all sorts of objects made of ivory, all sorts of things made of expensive wood, bronze, iron and marble,

<sup>13</sup> cinnamon, spice, incense, perfumed ointment, frankincense, wine, olive oil and costly flour, wheat, cattle and sheep, horses and four-wheeled carriages, slaves and human lives.

<sup>14</sup> (The ripe fruit you greatly desired has gone from you, and all your luxury and splendor have gone from you – they will never ever be found again!)

<sup>15</sup> The merchants who sold these things, who got rich from her, will stand a long way off because they are afraid of her torment. They will weep and mourn,

<sup>16</sup> saying, “Woe, woe, O great city – dressed in fine linen, purple and scarlet clothing, and adorned with gold, precious stones, and pearls –

And every ship’s captain, and all who sail along the coast – seamen, and all who make their living from the sea, stood a long way off

<sup>18</sup> and began to shout when they saw the smoke from the fire that burned her up, “Who is like the great city?”

<sup>19</sup> And they threw dust on their heads and were shouting with weeping and mourning, “Woe, Woe, O great city – in which all those who had ships on the sea got rich from her wealth – because in a single hour she has been destroyed!”

<sup>20</sup> (Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you saints and apostles and prophets, for God has pronounced judgment against her on your behalf!)

<sup>21</sup> Then one powerful angel picked up a stone like a huge millstone, threw it into the sea, and said, “With this kind of sudden violent force Babylon the great city will be thrown down and it will never be found again!”

<sup>22</sup> And the sound of the harpists, musicians, flute players, and trumpeters will never be heard in you again. No craftsman who practices any trade will ever be found in you again;

the noise of a mill will never be heard in you again.
<sup>23</sup> Even the light from a lamp will never shine in you again!
The voices of the bridegroom and his bride will never be heard in you again.
For your merchants were the tycoons of the world, because all the nations were deceived by your magic spells!
<sup>24</sup> The blood of the saints and prophets was found in her, along with the blood of all those who had been killed on the earth."

19

<sup>1</sup> After these things I heard what sounded like the loud voice of a vast throng in heaven, saying,
"Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God, <sup>2</sup> because his judgments are true and just.
For he has judged the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her sexual immorality, and has avenged the blood of his servants poured out by her own hands!"
<sup>3</sup> Then a second time the crowd shouted, "Hallelujah!" The smoke rises from her forever and ever.
<sup>4</sup> The twenty-four elders and the four living creatures threw themselves to the ground and worshiped God, who was seated on the throne, saying: "Amen! Hallelujah!"
<sup>5</sup> Then a voice came from the throne, saying:
"Praise our God
all you his servants,
and all you who fear Him,
both the small and the great!"

The Wedding Celebration of the Lamb

<sup>6</sup> Then I heard what sounded like the voice of a vast throng, like the roar of many waters and like loud crashes of thunder. They were shouting:
"Hallelujah!
For the Lord our God, the All-Powerful, reigns!
<sup>7</sup> Let us rejoice and exult and give him glory, because the wedding celebration of the Lamb has come,
and his bride has made herself ready.
<sup>8</sup> She was permitted to be dressed in bright, clean, fine linen" (for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints).
<sup>9</sup> Then the angel said to me, "Write the following: Blessed are those who are invited to the banquet at the wedding celebration of the Lamb!" He also said to me, "These are the true words of God."
<sup>10</sup> So I threw myself down at his feet to worship him, but he said, "Do not do this! I am only a fellow servant with you and your brothers who hold to the testimony about Jesus. Worship God, for the testimony about Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

The Son of God Goes to War

<sup>11</sup> Then I saw heaven opened and here came a white horse! The one riding it was called "Faithful" and "True," and with justice he judges and goes to war.
<sup>12</sup> His eyes are like a fiery flame and there are many diadem crowns on his head. He has a name written that no one knows except himself.

<sup>13</sup> He is dressed in clothing dipped in blood, and he is called the Word of God.

<sup>14</sup> The armies that are in heaven, dressed in white, clean, fine linen, were following him on white horses.

<sup>15</sup> From his mouth extends a sharp sword, so that with it he can strike the nations. He will rule them with an iron rod, and he stomps the winepress of the furious wrath of God, the All-Powerful.

<sup>16</sup> He has a name written on his clothing and on his thigh: "King of kings and Lord of lords."

<sup>17</sup> Then I saw one angel standing in the sun, and he shouted in a loud voice to all the birds flying high in the sky:

"Come, gather around for the great banquet of God, <sup>18</sup> to eat your fill of the flesh of kings,

the flesh of generals,
the flesh of powerful people,
the flesh of horses and those who ride them,
and the flesh of all people, both free and slave, and small and great!"

<sup>19</sup> Then I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies assembled to do battle with the one who rode the horse and with his army.

<sup>20</sup> Now the beast was seized, and along with him the false prophet who had performed the signs on his behalf – signs by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. Both of them were thrown alive into the lake of fire burning with sulfur.

<sup>21</sup> The others were killed by the sword that extended from the mouth of the one who rode the horse, and all the birds gorged themselves with their flesh.

20

<sup>2</sup> He seized the dragon – the ancient serpent, who is the devil and Satan – and tied him up for a thousand years.

<sup>3</sup> The angel then threw him into the abyss and locked and sealed it so that he could not deceive the nations until the one thousand years were finished. (After these things he must be released for a brief period of time.)

<sup>4</sup> Then I saw thrones and seated on them were those who had been given authority to judge. I also saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of the testimony about Jesus and because of the word of God. These had not worshiped the beast or his image and had refused to receive his mark on their forehead or hand. They came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years.

<sup>5</sup> (The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were finished.) This is the first resurrection.

<sup>6</sup> Blessed and holy is the one who takes part in the first resurrection. The second death has no power over them, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and they will reign with him for a thousand years.

Satan's Final Defeat

<sup>7</sup> Now when the thousand years are finished, Satan will be released from his prison

<sup>8</sup> and will go out to deceive the nations at the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to bring them together for the battle. They are as numerous as the grains of sand in the sea.

<sup>9</sup> They went up on the broad plain of the earth and encircled the camp of the saints and the beloved city, but fire came down from heaven and devoured them completely.

<sup>10</sup> And the devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet are too, and they will be tormented there day and night forever and ever.

The Great White Throne

<sup>11</sup> Then I saw a large white throne and the one who was seated on it; the earth and the heaven fled from his presence, and no place was found for them.

<sup>12</sup> And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne. Then books were opened, and another book was opened – the book of life. So the dead were judged by what was written in the books, according to their deeds.

<sup>13</sup> The sea gave up the dead that were in it, and Death and Hades gave up the dead that were in them, and each one was judged according to his deeds.

<sup>14</sup> Then Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death – the lake of fire.

<sup>15</sup> If anyone's name was not found written in the book of life, that person was thrown into the lake of fire.

21

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and earth had ceased to exist, and the sea existed no more.

<sup>2</sup> And I saw the holy city – the new Jerusalem – descending out of heaven from God, made ready like a bride adorned for her husband.

<sup>3</sup> And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying: “Look! The residence of God is among human beings. He will live among them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them.

<sup>4</sup> He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death will not exist any more – or mourning, or crying, or pain, for the former things have ceased to exist.”

<sup>5</sup> And the one seated on the throne said: “Look! I am making all things new!” Then he said to me, “Write it down, because these words are reliable and true.”

<sup>6</sup> He also said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the one who is thirsty I will give water free of charge from the spring of the water of life.

<sup>7</sup> The one who conquers will inherit these things, and I will be his God and he will be my son.

<sup>8</sup> But to the cowards, unbelievers, detestable persons, murderers, the sexually immoral, and those who practice magic spells, idol worshipers, and all those who lie, their place will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur. That is the second death.”

The New Jerusalem Descends

<sup>9</sup> Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven final plagues came and spoke to me, saying, “Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb!”

<sup>10</sup> So he took me away in the Spirit to a huge, majestic mountain and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God.

<sup>11</sup> The city possesses the glory of God; its brilliance is like a precious jewel, like a stone of crystal-clear jasper.

<sup>12</sup> It has a massive, high wall with twelve gates, with twelve angels at the gates, and the names of the twelve tribes of the nation of Israel are written on the gates.

<sup>13</sup> There are three gates on the east side, three gates on the north side, three gates on the south side and three gates on the west side.

<sup>14</sup> The wall of the city has twelve foundations, and on them are the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

<sup>15</sup> The angel who spoke to me had a golden measuring rod with which to measure the city and its foundation stones and wall.

<sup>16</sup> Now the city is laid out as a square, its length and width the same. He measured the city with the measuring rod at fourteen hundred miles (its length and width and height are equal).

<sup>17</sup> He also measured its wall, one hundred forty-four cubits according to human measurement, which is also the angel's.

<sup>18</sup> The city's wall is made of jasper and the city is pure gold, like transparent glass.

<sup>19</sup> The foundations of the city's wall are decorated with every kind of precious stone. The first foundation is jasper, the second sapphire, the third agate, the fourth emerald, <sup>20</sup> the fifth onyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst.

<sup>21</sup> And the twelve gates are twelve pearls – each one of the gates is made from just one pearl! The main street of the city is pure gold, like transparent glass.

<sup>22</sup> Now I saw no temple in the city, because the Lord God – the All-Powerful – and the Lamb are its temple.

<sup>23</sup> The city does not need the sun or the moon to shine on it, because the glory of God lights it up, and its lamp is the Lamb.

<sup>24</sup> The nations will walk by its light and the kings of the earth will bring their grandeur into it.

<sup>25</sup> Its gates will never be closed during the day (and there will be no night there).

<sup>26</sup> They will bring the grandeur and the wealth of the nations into it, <sup>27</sup> but nothing ritually unclean will ever enter into it, nor anyone who does what is detestable or practices falsehood, but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's book of life.

22

<sup>1</sup> Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life – water as clear as crystal – pouring out from the throne of God and of the Lamb,

<sup>2</sup> flowing down the middle of the city's main street. On each side of the river is the tree of life producing twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit every month of the year. Its leaves are for the healing of the nations.

<sup>3</sup> And there will no longer be any curse, and the throne of God and the Lamb will be in the city. His servants will worship him, <sup>4</sup> and they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads.

<sup>5</sup> Night will be no more, and they will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, because the Lord God will shine on them, and they will reign forever and ever.

A Final Reminder

<sup>6</sup> Then the angel said to me, "These words are reliable and true. The Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent his angel to show his servants what must happen soon."

Blessed is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy expressed in this book.)

<sup>8</sup> I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things, and when I heard and saw them, I threw myself down to worship at the feet of the angel who was showing them to me.

<sup>9</sup> But he said to me, "Do not do this! I am a fellow servant with you and with your brothers the prophets, and with those who obey the words of this book. Worship God!"

<sup>10</sup> Then he said to me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy contained in this book, because the time is near.

<sup>11</sup> The evildoer must continue to do evil, and the one who is morally filthy must continue to be filthy. The one who is righteous must continue to act righteously, and the one who is holy must continue to be holy."

<sup>12</sup> (Look! I am coming soon, and my reward is with me to pay each one according to what he has done!

<sup>13</sup> I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last,
the beginning and the end!)

<sup>14</sup> Blessed are those who wash their robes so they can have access to the tree of life and can enter into the city by the gates.

<sup>15</sup> Outside are the dogs and the sorcerers and the sexually immoral, and the murderers, and the idolaters and everyone who loves and practices falsehood!

<sup>16</sup> “I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify to you about these things for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star!”

<sup>17</sup> And the Spirit and the bride say, “Come!” And let the one who hears say: “Come!”
And let the one who is thirsty come; let the one who wants it take the water of life free of charge.

<sup>18</sup> I testify to the one who hears the words of the prophecy contained in this book: If anyone adds to them, God will add to him the plagues described in this book.

<sup>19</sup> And if anyone takes away from the words of this book of prophecy, God will take away his share in the tree of life and in the holy city that are described in this book.

<sup>20</sup> The one who testifies to these things says, “Yes, I am coming soon!” Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!
