

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

¹ The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

² Abraham was the father of Isaac, Isaac was the father of Jacob, Jacob was the father of Judah and his brothers, ³ Judah was the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar, Perez was the father of Hezron, Hezron was the father of Ram, ⁴ Ram was the father of Amminadab, Amminadab was the father of Nahshon, Nahshon was the father of Salmon, ⁵ Salmon was the father of Boaz by Rahab, Boaz was the father of Obed by Ruth, Obed was the father of Jesse, ⁶ and Jesse was the father of David the king.

David *the king was the father of Solomon by the wife of Uriah, ⁷ Solomon was the father of Rehoboam, Rehoboam was the father of Abijah, Abijah was the father of †Asa, ⁸ Asa was the father of Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat was the father of Joram, Joram was the father of Uzziah, ⁹ Uzziah was the father of Jotham, Jotham was the father of Ahaz, Ahaz was the father of Hezekiah, ¹⁰ Hezekiah was the father of Manasseh, Manasseh was the father of ‡Amon, Amon was the father of Josiah, ¹¹ and Josiah was the father of Jechoniah and his brothers, at the time of the Babylonian resettlement.

* 1:6 the king | — CT † 1:7 Asa, Asa | Asaph, Asaph CT

‡ 1:10 Amon, Amon | Amos, Amos CT

¹² After the Babylonian resettlement, Jechoniah was the father of Shealtiel, Shealtiel was the father of Zerubbabel, ¹³ Zerubbabel was the father of Abiud, Abiud was the father of Eliakim, Eliakim was the father of Azor, ¹⁴ Azor was the father of Zadok, Zadok was the father of Achim, Achim was the father of Eliud, ¹⁵ Eliud was the father of Eleazar, Eleazar was the father of Matthan, Matthan was the father of Jacob, ¹⁶ and Jacob was the father of Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

¹⁷ So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations, and from David to the Babylonian resettlement fourteen generations, and from the Babylonian resettlement to the Christ fourteen generations.

¹⁸ Now the birth of Jesus Christ took place in this way. When his mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together, she was found to be with child from the Holy Spirit. ¹⁹ Her husband Joseph, being righteous and not willing to shame her publicly, intended to send her away privately. ²⁰ But as he thought about these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, Son of David, do not be afraid to receive Mary as your wife, for the child that is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. ²¹ She will give birth to a son, and you shall name him Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins." ²² All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had spoken through the prophet:

23 “Behold, the virgin will conceive and give birth to a son,
and they will name him Immanuel”

(which means, “God with us”). 24 When Joseph awoke from his sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him. He took his wife, 25 but knew her not until she had given birth to her firstborn son. And he named him Jesus.

1 After Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men from the east arrived in Jerusalem, 2 saying, “Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we saw his star in the east and have come to worship him.” 3 When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. 4 So he assembled all the chief priests and scribes of the people, and inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. 5 They told him, “In Bethlehem of Judea, for so it is written by the prophet,

6 ‘But you Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah;
for from you will come a ruler who will shepherd my people Israel.’”

7 Then Herod secretly called the wise men and ascertained from them what time the star had appeared. ⁸ He sent them to Bethlehem and said, “Go search diligently for the child, and when you have found him, bring me word so that I too may come and worship him.” ⁹ They listened to the king and went on their way, and behold, the star that they had seen in the east went before them until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. ¹⁰ When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy. ¹¹ As they came into the house and *saw the child with Mary his mother, they fell down and worshiped him. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. ¹² And being warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their own country by another way.

¹³ After they were gone, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, “Rise, take the child and his mother and flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you, for Herod is about to seek the child, to destroy him.” ¹⁴ So Joseph rose, took the child and his mother by night, and departed for Egypt, ¹⁵ where he stayed until the death of Herod. This was to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet: “Out of Egypt I called my son.”

¹⁶ When Herod saw that he had been fooled by the wise men, he was greatly enraged and sent men to kill all the boys in Bethlehem and in its vicinity who were two years old and under, according to the time that he had ascertained from the wise men. ¹⁷ Then what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled:

¹⁸ “A voice was heard in Ramah, †wailing, weeping, and great lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children, and she would not be comforted, because they are no more.”

¹⁹ After Herod died, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, ²⁰ saying, “Rise, take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the life of the child are dead.” ²¹ So Joseph rose, took the child and his mother, and went to the land of Israel. ²² But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea instead of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And being warned in a dream, he withdrew to the district of Galilee ²³ and came and dwelt in a town called Nazareth, so that what had been spoken by the prophets might be fulfilled: “He will be called a Nazarene.”

¹ In those days John the Baptist came preaching in the wilderness of Judea, ² “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has drawn near.” ³ This is the one who was spoken of by Isaiah the prophet, who said,

“The voice of one crying out in the wilderness,

† 2:18 wailing, weeping, 99% | weeping CT 0.7%

‘Prepare the way of the Lord;
make his paths straight.’”

⁷ But when John saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them, “You brood of vipers, who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? ⁸ Produce †fruit consistent with repentance. ⁹ And do not think that you can say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father;’ for I tell you that God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. ¹⁰ Even now the axe is laid at the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that does not produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

¹¹ “I baptize you with water for repentance, but he who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy ‡Spirit. ¹² His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will thoroughly clean out his threshing floor and gather his wheat into the barn, but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire.”

¹³ Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to John, to be baptized by him. ¹⁴ But John tried to prevent him, saying, “I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?” ¹⁵ But Jesus answered him, “Permit it for now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness.” Then John permitted him. ¹⁶ After being baptized, Jesus immediately went up from the water. And behold, the heavens were opened [§]to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. ¹⁷ And behold, a voice from heaven said, “This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.”

¹ Then Jesus was led up into the wilderness by the Spirit to be tempted by the devil. ² After fasting for forty days and forty nights, he was hungry. ³ Then the tempter came up ^{*}to him and said, “If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become bread.” ⁴ But Jesus answered, “It is written,

‘Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.’”

⁵ Then the devil took him to the holy city, set him on the pinnacle of the temple, ⁶ and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written,

| and said to him CT

‘He will command his angels concerning you,’ and,

‘In their hands they will lift you up, so that you do not strike your foot against a stone.’”

⁷ Jesus said to him, “Again it is written, ‘You shall not put the Lord your God to the test.’” ⁸ Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. ⁹ And he said to him, “All these things I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.” ¹⁰ Then Jesus said to him, “†Get behind me, Satan! For it is written,

‘You shall worship the Lord your God, and him only shall you serve.’”

¹¹ Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came and ministered to him.

¹² Now when Jesus heard that John had been put in prison, he withdrew to Galilee. ¹³ And leaving Nazareth, he went and dwelt at Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, ¹⁴ so that what had been spoken by Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled:

¹⁵ “Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles,

¹⁶ the people sitting in darkness have seen a great light, and on those sitting in the region and shadow of death light has dawned.”

¹⁷ From that time Jesus began to preach, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has drawn near.”

¹⁸ As Jesus was walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon (who is called Peter) and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. ¹⁹ Jesus said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.” ²⁰ So they immediately left their nets and followed him. ²¹ Going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets, and he called them. ²² So they immediately left the boat and their father and followed him.

²³ Then Jesus went throughout all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. ²⁴ So the news about him went out into all of Syria, and the people brought him all who were sick with various diseases, those suffering severe pain, the demon-possessed, epileptics, and paralytics. And he healed them. ²⁵ And large crowds followed him from Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and from beyond the Jordan.

¹ When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on the mountain. And when he sat down, his disciples came to him. ² Then he opened his mouth and taught them, saying,

³ “Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

⁴ Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

⁵ Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

⁶ Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

⁷ Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

⁸ Blessed are the pure in heart,
for they will see God.

⁹ Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God.

¹⁰ Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

¹¹ Blessed are you when others reproach you, persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. ¹² Rejoice and be glad, for great is your reward in heaven; for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

¹³ “You are the salt of the earth, but if salt loses its flavor, with what shall it be seasoned? It is no longer fit for anything but to be thrown out and trampled under people's feet.

¹⁷ “Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets. I have not come to abolish them, but to fulfill them. ¹⁸ For truly I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter or stroke of a letter will by any means pass from the law until all is accomplished. ¹⁹ Therefore whoever does away with one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do likewise will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. ²⁰ For I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven.

²¹ “You have heard that it was said to those of old, ‘You shall not murder,’ and, ‘Whoever murders will be subject to judgment.’ ²² But I say to you that everyone who is *rashly angry with his brother will be subject to judgment. Whoever says to his brother, ‘You idiot,’ will be subject to the Sanhedrin. And whoever says, ‘You fool,’ will be subject to the fires of hell. ²³ So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, ²⁴ leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. ²⁵ Make friends with your adversary quickly while you are on the way with him, lest your adversary hand you over to the judge, and the judge †hand you over to the guard, and you be thrown into prison. ²⁶ Truly I say to you, you will certainly not come out of there until you have paid the last penny.

²⁷ “You have heard that it was †said, ‘You shall not commit adultery.’ ²⁸ But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman to lust after her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. ²⁹ So if your right eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away from you. For it is better for you to have one of your members perish, than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. ³⁰ And if your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you. For it is better for you to have one of your members perish, than for your whole body to be thrown into hell.

³³ “Again, you have heard that it was said to those of old, ‘You shall not break an oath, but shall keep your oaths to the Lord.’ ³⁴ But I say to you, do not swear at all, neither by heaven, for it is the throne of God; ³⁵ nor by the earth, for it is the footstool of his feet; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. ³⁶ Neither shall you swear by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. ³⁷ But let your ‘Yes’ be ‘Yes’ and your ‘No’ be ‘No’; for whatever is more than these is from the evil one.

³⁸ “You have heard that it was said, ‘An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.’ ³⁹ But I say to you, do not resist one who is evil. Rather, if anyone slaps you on †the right cheek, turn to him the other also. ⁴⁰ If anyone wants to sue you and take away your tunic, let him have your cloak also. ⁴¹ And if anyone presses you into service for one mile, go with him two. ⁴² Give to him who asks of you, and do not turn away from him who wants to borrow from you.

⁴³ “You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’ ⁴⁴ But I say to you, love your enemies, ‡bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who §mistreat you and persecute you, ⁴⁵ so that you may be sons of your Father in heaven. Truly I say to you, they have received their reward. ³ But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, ⁴ so that your giving may be in secret. if you do not forgive others §their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 “When you fast, do not be gloomy like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces so that they may be seen by others to be fasting. Truly I say to you, they have received their reward.

17 But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, 18 so that you may not be seen by others to be fasting, but by your Father who is in secret. Then your Father who sees in secret will reward *you.

your life, what you will eat †and what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing? ²⁶ Look at the birds of the sky: They do not sow or reap or gather into barns, yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? ²⁷ Which of you by being anxious can add a single moment to your span of life? ²⁸ And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: They do not toil or spin, ²⁹ yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed like one of these. ³⁰ Now if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? ³¹ Therefore do not be anxious, saying, ‘What will we eat?’ or, ‘What will we drink?’ or, ‘What will we wear?’ ³² For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. ³³ But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

³⁴ “Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.

²⁸ When Jesus finished saying these things, the crowds were astonished at his teaching, ²⁹ because he was teaching them as one who had authority, and not as †the scribes.

¹ When Jesus came down from the mountain, large crowds followed him. ² And behold, a leper came and bowed down before him, saying, “Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean.” ³ So Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him, saying, “I am willing; be made clean.” Immediately his leprosy was cleansed. ⁴ Then Jesus said to him, “See that you tell no one, but go show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.”

⁵ When Jesus entered Capernaum, a centurion came to him and pleaded with him, ⁶ saying, “Lord, my servant is lying paralyzed at home, suffering terribly.” ⁷ Jesus said to him, “I will come and heal him.” ⁸ But the centurion replied, “Lord, I am not worthy to have you enter under my roof, but just say the word, and my servant will be healed. ⁹ For I too am a man *under authority, with soldiers under me. So they came out and went into the Šherd of pigs, and behold, the whole herd *of pigs rushed down the steep bank into the sea and died in the water. ³³ Those who had been feeding the pigs then ran off, went into the city, and reported everything, including what had happened to the demon-possessed men. ³⁴ And behold, the whole city went out to meet Jesus. And when they saw him, they begged him to depart from their region.

¹ After getting into *the boat, Jesus went back across the sea and came to his own city. ² And behold, some men brought to him a paralytic lying on a bed. When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, “Take courage, son; your sins are forgiven †you.” ³ And behold, some of the scribes said to themselves, “This man is blaspheming.” ⁴ ‡Perceiving their thoughts, Jesus said, “Why are you thinking evil things in your hearts? ⁵ Which is easier, to say, ‘Your sins are Šforgiven,’ or to say, ‘Rise and walk’? ⁶ But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—then he said to the paralytic—“Rise, pick up your bed, and go to your house.” ⁷ So he rose and went to his house. ⁸ When the crowds saw it, they were *amazed and glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

⁹ As Jesus went on from there, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax booth. Jesus said to him, “Follow me,” so Matthew rose and followed him.

¹⁰ Later, as Jesus reclined at the table in Matthew's house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and reclined with him and his disciples. ¹¹ When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, “Why is your teacher †eating with tax collectors and sinners?” ¹² When Jesus heard this, he said ‡to them, “It is not the healthy who have need of a physician, but the sick. ¹³ Go and learn what this means: ‘I desire mercy and not sacrifice,’ for I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners §to repentance.”

¹⁴ Then the disciples of John came to Jesus and said, “Why do we and the Pharisees *often fast, but your disciples do not fast?” ¹⁵ Jesus said to them, “Can the bridegroom's attendants mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days are coming when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast. ¹⁶ No one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for the patch pulls away from the garment, and a worse tear is made. ¹⁷ Neither do people put new wine into old wineskins. the wineskins are destroyed. But new wine is put into new wineskins, and both are preserved.”

¹⁸ As he said these things to them, behold, a ruler came and bowed down before him, saying, “My daughter has just now died, but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.” ¹⁹ So Jesus rose and followed him, and so did his disciples. ²⁰ And behold, a woman who had suffered from a flow of blood for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his garment. ²¹ For she said to herself, “If only I touch his garment, I will be healed.” ²² But when Jesus turned †around and saw her, he said, “Take courage, daughter; your faith has healed you.” And the woman was healed from that hour. ²³ When Jesus came to the house of the ruler and saw the flute players and the crowd making a commotion, ²⁴ he said ‡to them, “Go away, for the girl is not dead but sleeping.” And they began laughing at him. ²⁵ But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took hold of the girl’s hand, and she arose. ²⁶ And news of this spread throughout that entire region.

²⁷ As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed §him, crying out, “Have mercy on us, Son of David!” ²⁸ When he went into the house, the blind men came to him, and Jesus said to them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?” They said to him, “Yes, Lord.” ²⁹ Then he touched their eyes, saying, “Let it be done for you according to your faith.” ³⁰ And their eyes were opened. Then Jesus sternly warned them, “See that no one knows about this.” ³¹ But they went out and spread the news about him throughout that entire region.

³² As they were going away, behold, a mute man possessed by a demon was brought to Jesus.

³³ When the demon was cast out, the mute man spoke, and the crowds were amazed, saying, “Such a thing has never been seen in Israel.”

³⁴ But the Pharisees said, “By the ruler of demons he casts out demons.”

³⁵ Then Jesus went throughout all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness *among the people.

³⁶ When he saw the crowds, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were †harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. ³⁷ Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few.

³⁸ Therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest.”

⁷ As these men went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? ⁸ What then did you go out to see? ¹ At that time Jesus went through the grain-fields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and eat them. ² When the Pharisees saw this, they said to him, “Behold, your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath.” ³ He said to them, “Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, ^{*}he and those who were with him, ⁴ how he entered the house of God and [†]ate the bread of the Presence, which was not lawful for him or those who were with him to eat, but only for the priests? ⁵ Or have you not read in the law that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath and yet are guiltless? ⁶ But I tell you that [‡]something greater than the temple is here. ⁷ But if you had known what this means: ‘I desire mercy and not sacrifice,’ you would not have condemned the guiltless. ⁸ For the Son of Man is Lord [§]of the Sabbath.”

So then, it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath.” ¹³ Then he said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” So he stretched it out, and it was restored, as sound as the other. ¹⁴ But the Pharisees went out and took counsel against Jesus as to how they might destroy him.

¹⁵ Aware of this, Jesus withdrew from there. †Large crowds followed him, and he healed them all ¹⁶ and warned them not to make him known. ¹⁷ This was to fulfill what had been spoken through Isaiah the prophet:

⁴⁶ While Jesus was still speaking to the crowds, behold, his mother and his brothers stood outside, asking to speak to him. ⁴⁷ § Then someone said to him, “Behold, your mother and your brothers are standing outside, asking to speak to you.” ⁴⁸ But he replied to the one who spoke to him, “Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?” ⁴⁹ And stretching out his hand toward his disciples, he said, “Behold, my mother and my brothers! ⁵⁰ For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother.”

down, while the entire crowd stood on the shore. ³ Then he told them many things in parables, saying, “Behold, the sower went out to sow. ⁴ As he sowed, some seeds fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured them. ⁵ Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and they sprang up immediately because they had no depth of soil. ⁶ But when the sun rose, they were scorched. And because they had no root, they withered away. ⁷ Other seeds fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. ⁸ But other seeds fell on good soil and produced fruit, some a hundred, some sixty, and some thirty times more than what was sown. ⁹ He who has ears †to hear, let him hear.”

¹⁰ Then the disciples came and said to him, “Why do you speak to the people in parables?” ¹¹ Jesus answered ‡them, “To you it has been given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given. ¹² For whoever has will be given more, and he will have an abundance. But whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. ¹³ That is why I speak to them in parables, §because ‘they see but do not perceive, and they hear but do not listen or understand.’ ¹⁴ In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which says, word and understands it, who bears fruit and produces a hundred, sixty, or thirty times more than what was sown.”

²⁴ Jesus presented another parable to them, saying, “The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a person who sowed good seed in his field, ²⁵ but while people were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and then went away. ²⁶ When the plants sprouted and produced grain, the tares also appeared. ²⁷ So the servants of the master of the house came and said to him, ‘Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have tares?’ ²⁸ He said to them, ‘An enemy has done this.’ So the servants said to him, ‘Do you want us to go and gather them up?’ ²⁹ He said, ‘No, lest in gathering the tares you uproot the wheat with them. ³⁰ Let them both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, “Gather the tares first and bind them into bundles to burn them up, but gather the wheat into my barn.”’”

³¹ He presented another parable to them, saying, “The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his field, ³² which is indeed smaller than all the seeds, but when it is grown, it is larger than the garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the sky come and nest in its branches.”

³³ He spoke to them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like leaven that a woman took and mixed into three measures of flour until it had all been leavened.”

³⁴ All these things Jesus spoke to the crowds in parables; he ^{*}did not speak to them without using a parable. ³⁵ This was to fulfill what had been spoken through the prophet:

The angels will come and separate the evil from the righteous ⁵⁰ and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of Steeth.”

⁵¹ Jesus said to them, “Have you understood all these things?” They said to him, “*Yes, Lord.” ⁵² Then he said to them, “Therefore every scribe that has been trained as a disciple for the kingdom of heaven is like a master of a house who brings out of his treasure things new and old.”

Where then did this man get all these things?” ⁵⁷ And they took offense at him. Then Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his own household.” ⁵⁸ And he did not do many miracles there because of their unbelief.

¹ At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the report about Jesus ² and said to his servants, “This is John the Baptist; he has been raised from the dead, and that is why these mighty powers are at work in him.” ³ For Herod had arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife. ⁴ For John had been saying to him, “It is not lawful for you to have her.” ⁵ Although Herod wanted to kill John, he was afraid of the crowd, because they regarded John as a prophet. ⁶ But when Herod's birthday *was celebrated, the daughter of Herodias danced before the guests and pleased Herod. ⁷ So he promised with an oath to give her whatever she might ask. ⁸ Prompted by her mother, she said, “Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptist.”

⁹ The king was grieved, but because of his oaths and his guests, he commanded it to be given ¹⁰ and sent orders to have John beheaded in the prison. ¹¹ John's head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother. ¹² Later, John's disciples came and took his body and buried it. Then they went and brought word to Jesus.

¹³ When Jesus heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat to a desolate place by himself. But the crowds heard about it and followed him on foot from the towns. ¹⁴ And when Jesus went ashore and saw a large crowd, he was moved with compassion for them and healed their sick. ¹⁵ As evening approached, †his disciples came to him and said, “This place is desolate, and the hour is now late. Send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves.” ¹⁶ But Jesus said to them, “They have no need to go away; you give them something to eat.” ¹⁷ They said to him, “We have here only five loaves and two fish.” ¹⁸ He said, “Bring them here to me.” ¹⁹ Then he commanded the crowds to sit down on the grass, and taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven and said the blessing. Then he broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. ²⁰ They all ate and were filled, and the disciples picked up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. ²¹ Now those who had eaten were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

²² Immediately Jesus compelled †the disciples to get into §the boat and go ahead of him to the other side of the sea, while he sent the crowds away. ²³ After sending the crowds away, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone. ²⁴ Meanwhile, the boat was already *in the middle of the sea, being tossed by the waves, for the wind was against them. ²⁵ And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus †went to them, walking on the sea. ²⁶ When the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified and said, “It is a ghost!” And they cried out in fear. ²⁷ But Jesus immediately said to them, “Take courage! It is I; do not be afraid.”

²⁸ In response Peter said †to him, “Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.” ²⁹ So he said, “Come.” Then Peter got down from the boat and walked on the water §to go to Jesus. ³⁰ But when he saw the *strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, “Lord, save me!” ³¹ Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand, took hold of him, and said to him, “O you of little faith, why did you doubt?” ³² And when they had gotten into the boat, the wind ceased. ³³ Then those who were in the boat †came and worshiped him, saying, “Truly you are

³⁴ When they had crossed the sea, they came to †the land of Gennesaret. ³⁵ And when the men of that place recognized Jesus, they sent word into that entire surrounding region, and people brought to him all who were sick. ³⁶ They begged him to let the sick touch even the fringe of his garment, and all who touched it were completely healed.

¹ Then *the scribes and Pharisees from Jerusalem came to Jesus and said, ² “Why do your disciples break the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread.” ³ He answered them, “And why do you break the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition? ⁴ For God †commanded, ‘Honor your father and your mother,’ and, ‘Whoever speaks evil of his father or mother must surely die.’ ⁵ But you say, ‘If anyone says to his father or mother, “Whatever benefit you might have received from me is a gift to God,” †then he certainly need not honor his father §or his mother.’ ⁶ You have nullified the *commandment of God for the sake of your tradition. ⁷ Hypocrites!  a person.” 12 Then †his disciples came and false testimony, and slander. ²⁰ These are what defile a person, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile a person.”

²¹ Then Jesus went away from there and withdrew to the district of Tyre and Sidon. ²² And behold, a Canaanite woman from that region came and cried out †to him, “Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is severely demon-possessed.” ²³ But he did not respond to her at all. So his disciples came to him and urged him, “Send her away, for she is crying out after us.” ²⁴ In response Jesus said, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” ²⁵ But she came and bowed down before him, saying, “Lord, help me.” ²⁶ He replied, “It is not good to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs.” ²⁷ She said, “Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from the table of their masters.” ²⁸ Then Jesus answered her, “O woman, great is your faith; it will be done for you as you wish.” And her daughter was healed from that hour.

²⁹ Departing from there, Jesus went along the Sea of Galilee. Then he went up on the mountain and sat down. ³⁰ Large crowds came to him, having with them the lame, blind, mute, crippled, and many others. They put them at the feet of Jesus, and he healed them. ³¹ So the *crowds were amazed when they saw †the mute speaking, ‡the crippled made well, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. And they glorified the God of Israel.

³² Then Jesus called his disciples over and said, “I have compassion on the crowd because they have stayed with me now for three days and have nothing to eat. I do not want to send them away without having eaten, lest they faint on the way.” ³³ §His disciples said to him, “Where can we get so many loaves in such a desolate place to fill such a large crowd?” ³⁴ Jesus said to them, “How many loaves do you have?” They said, “Seven, and a few small fish.” ³⁵ So he commanded the crowds to sit down on the ground, ³⁶ and taking the seven loaves and the fish, he gave thanks, broke them, and gave them to *his disciples, and the disciples gave them to the †crowd. ³⁷ They all ate and were filled, and the disciples picked up what was left over of the broken pieces, seven baskets full. ³⁸ Besides women and children, there were four thousand men who had eaten. ³⁹ After sending the crowds away, Jesus got into the boat and went to the region of ‡Magdala.

⁵ When §his disciples reached the other side of the sea, they realized that they had forgotten to bring bread. ⁶ Then Jesus said to them, “Watch out and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.” ⁷ So they discussed this among themselves, saying, “He must have said this because we brought no bread.” ⁸ Aware of this, Jesus said *to them, “Why are you discussing among yourselves, O you of little faith, the fact that you †brought no bread? ⁹ Do you not yet understand? that I was not †talking about bread when I told you to beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees?” ¹² Then they understood that he had not told them to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

¹³ Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that §I, the Son of Man, am?” ¹⁴ They said, “Some say John the Baptist, others say Elijah, and others say that you are Jeremiah or one of the prophets.” ¹⁵ He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” ¹⁶ Simon Peter answered, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” ¹⁷ And Jesus answered him, “Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. ¹⁸ And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it. ¹⁹ I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.” ²⁰ Then he *commanded †his disciples to tell no one that he was †Jesus the Christ.

disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things at the hands of the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and that he must be killed and on the third day be raised up. ²² So Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, “God forbid, Lord! This shall certainly not happen to you.” ²³ But he turned around and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me, for you are not thinking about the things of God, but the things of men.”

²⁴ Then Jesus said to his disciples, “If anyone wants to come after me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. ²⁵ For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. ²⁶ For what *does it benefit a person if he gains the whole world but forfeits his soul? ¹ After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John the brother of James, and led them up on a high mountain by themselves. ² There he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun, and his garments became as white as

If you wish, *we will make three shelters here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” ⁵ While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; listen to him!” ⁶ When the disciples heard this, they fell on their faces and were utterly afraid. ⁷ But Jesus came over and touched them, saying, “Rise; do not be afraid.” ⁸ And lifting up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus.

⁹ As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, “Do not tell anyone about the vision you saw until the Son of Man has †risen from the dead.” ¹⁰ Then ‡his disciples asked him, “Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?” ¹¹ Jesus answered §them, “Elijah does indeed come *first, and he will restore all things. ¹² But I tell you that Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but did to him whatever they wished. Even so the Son of Man is about to suffer at their hands.” ¹³ Then the disciples understood that he was speaking to them about John the Baptist.

saying, “Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is an epileptic and †suffers terribly. ¹ In that hour the disciples came to Jesus and said, “Who is greater in the kingdom of heaven?” ² So Jesus called over a little child, placed him among them, ³ and said, “Truly I say to you, unless you change and become like little children, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven. ⁴ Therefore whoever humbles himself like this little child is greater in the kingdom of heaven. ⁵ And whoever receives one little child such as this in my name receives me, ⁶ but if anyone causes one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it would be better for him to have a heavy millstone hung around his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea.

²⁹ As they went out from Jericho, a large crowd followed him. ³⁰ And behold, there were two blind men sitting by the road. When they heard that Jesus was passing by, they cried out, “*Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David!” ³¹ But the crowd rebuked them, telling them to be silent. Yet they cried out even more loudly, “†Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David!” ³² So Jesus stopped, called them over, and said, “What do you want me to do for you?” ³³ They said to him, “Lord, let our eyes be opened.” ³⁴ Moved

¹ When they drew near to Jerusalem and came to *Bethsphage, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples ahead, ² telling them, “Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied there and a colt with it. Untie them and bring them to me. ³ If anyone says anything to you, say, ‘The Lord has need of them.’ And immediately he will send them.” ⁴ Now †all this took place to fulfill what the Lord had spoken through the prophet:

⁵ “Say to the daughter of Zion,

⁶ So the disciples went and did just as Jesus had directed them. ⁷ They brought the donkey and the colt and laid on them their garments, and §Jesus sat on them. ⁸ A very large crowd spread their garments on the road, and others cut down branches from the trees and also spread them on the road. ⁹ The crowds that went ahead of him and those that followed were crying out,

17 And leaving them, he went out of the city to Bethany and spent the night there.

18 Early in the morning, as Jesus was returning to the city, he was hungry. 19 Seeing a lone fig tree by the road, he came to it and found nothing on it but leaves. Then he said to it, "May there never be any fruit from you again." And at once the fig tree withered. 20 When the disciples saw it, they were amazed, saying, "How did the fig tree wither all at once?" 21 Jesus answered them, "Truly I say to you, if you have faith and do not doubt, not only will you do what has been done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, 'Be taken up and thrown into the sea,' it will happen. 22 And if you have faith, you will receive whatever you ask for in prayer."

23 When he entered the temple courts, the chief priests and the elders of the people came up to him as he was teaching and said, "By what authority are you doing these things? And who gave you this authority?" 24 Jesus answered them, "I will also ask you one question. If you tell me the answer, I will also tell you by what authority I am doing these things. 25 Where did John's authority to baptize come from? From heaven or from men?" So they discussed it among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?' 26 But we are afraid of what the crowd might do if we say, 'From men,' for everyone regards John as a prophet." 27 So they answered Jesus, "We do not know." Then he said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

²⁸ “But what do you think? A man had two sons. He went to his first son and said, ‘Son, go work today in ^{*}my vineyard.’ ²⁹ His son answered, ‘I will †not,’ but afterward he changed his mind and went. ³⁰ Then the man went to his ‡second son and said the same thing. ³³ “Listen to another parable: There was a master of a house who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a winepress in it, built a tower, leased it to farmers, and left the country. ³⁴ When the season for fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the farmers to receive his fruit. ³⁵ But the farmers took his servants; they beat one, killed another, and stoned yet another. ³⁶ Again he sent other servants, more than the first. But the farmers treated them in the same way. ³⁷ Last of all, he sent them his son, saying, 'They will have respect for my son.' ³⁸ But when the farmers saw the son, they said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and take possession of his inheritance.' ³⁹ So they took him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. ⁴⁰ Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those farmers?" ⁴¹ They said to him, "He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and lease the vineyard to other farmers who will give him the fruits in their seasons."

⁴² Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures,

'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone;
this was the Lord's doing,
and it is amazing in our eyes?'

⁴³ Therefore I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit. ⁴⁴ He who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but anyone on whom it falls will be crushed."

⁴⁵ When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard Jesus' parables, they knew he was speaking about them. ⁴⁶ Although they were looking for a way to arrest him, they were afraid of the crowds, because the people regarded him as a prophet.

¹ Once again Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying, ² “The kingdom of heaven can be compared to a king who prepared a wedding feast for his son. ³ He sent his servants to call those who had been invited to the wedding feast, but they would not come. ⁴ Again he sent other servants, saying, ‘Tell those who are invited, ‘Behold, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and the fattened cattle have been slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding feast.’’ ⁵ But they paid no attention and went away, one to his own field and another to his business. ⁶ The rest seized his servants, mistreated them, and killed them. ⁷ *When the king heard about it, he was furious. So he sent his armies, who destroyed those murderers and burned down their city. ⁸ Then he said to his servants, ‘The wedding feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy. ⁹ Go therefore to where the roads exit the city and invite to the wedding feast anyone you find.’ ¹⁰ So the servants went out to the roads and gathered together all whom they found, both evil and good, and the wedding feast was filled with guests.

¹¹ “But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw a man there who was not clothed with a wedding garment. ¹² So he said to him, ‘Friend, how did you come in here without a wedding garment?’ But the man was speechless. ¹³ Then the king said to the servants, ‘Bind his †feet and hands, ‡take him away, and throw him into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’ ¹⁴ For many are called, but few are chosen.”

¹⁵ Then the Pharisees went and took counsel as to how they might ensnare Jesus in what he said.

¹⁶ They sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that you are true and teach the way of God in truth and defer to no one, for you do not show partiality.

¹⁷ Tell us then, what do you think? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not?” ¹⁸ But Jesus knew their evil intent and said, “Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? ¹⁹ Show me the coin for the tax.”

So they brought him a denarius. ²⁰ Then he said to them, “Whose image and inscription is this?” ²¹ They said to him, “Caesar's.” So he said to them, “Then render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's.”

²² When they heard this, they were amazed. So they left him and went away.

²³ On that day some Sadducees * (who say there is no resurrection) came to Jesus and asked him,

²⁹ Jesus answered them, “You are in error because you know neither the Scriptures nor the power of God. ³⁰ For in the resurrection people neither marry nor are they given in marriage. Instead, they are like angels ‡of God in heaven. ³¹ But as for the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what God said to you: ³² ‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’? He is not the God of the dead, but of the living.” ³³ And when the crowds heard this, they were astonished at his teaching.

³⁴ Now when the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together. ³⁵ And one of them, a lawyer, asked Jesus a question to test him: ³⁶ “Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the law?” ³⁷ Jesus said to him, “‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.’ ³⁸ This is the §most important and greatest commandment. ³⁹ And a second *is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’

41 While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 “What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is he?” They said to him, “David’s.” 43 He said to them, “How is it then that David, in the Spirit, calls him ‘Lord,’ saying,

¹ When Jesus had finished saying *all these things, he said to his disciples, ² “You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified.”

³ Then the chief †priests, the scribes, and the elders of the people were gathered together in the courtyard of the high priest, whose name was Caiaphas, ⁴ and they plotted together to arrest Jesus by stealth and kill him. ⁵ But they said, “Not during the feast, lest there be a riot among the people.”

⁶ Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, ⁷ a woman came to him with an alabaster jar of very expensive ointment, and she poured it out on his head as he reclined at the table. ⁸ When †his disciples saw it, they were indignant and said, “For what purpose is this waste? ⁹ This †ointment could have been sold for a large sum, and the money could have been given to the poor.” ¹⁰ Aware of this, Jesus said to them, “Why are you causing trouble for this woman? For she has done a good deed to me. ¹¹ You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me. ¹² She has put this ointment on my body to prepare me for burial. ¹³ Truly I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be spoken of as a memorial to her.”

¹⁴ Then one of the twelve, the one called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests ¹⁵ and said, “What are you willing to give me if I deliver him up to you?” So they set out for him thirty pieces of silver. ¹⁶ And from then on he was looking for an opportunity to betray Jesus.

¹⁷ On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and said *to him, “Where do you want us to make preparations for you to eat the Passover?” ¹⁸ He said, “Go into the city to a certain man and say to him,

“The Teacher says, “My time is near. I am going to keep the Passover with you, along with my disciples.””” ¹⁹ So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.

²⁰ When evening came, Jesus was reclining at the table with the †twelve. ²¹ As they were eating, he said, “Truly I say to you, one of you will betray me.” ²² Greatly distressed, they began to say to him one after another, “Surely not I, Lord?” ²³ Jesus answered, “The one who has dipped his hand with me in the dish will betray me. ²⁴ The Son of Man indeed goes just as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born.” ²⁵ Then Judas, who betrayed him, replied, “Surely not I, Rabbi?” Jesus said to him, “You have said it yourself.”

²⁶ As they were eating, Jesus took ‡the bread, and when he had §given thanks, he broke it, gave it to the disciples, and said, “Take and eat this bread; this is my body.” ²⁷ Then he took *the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, “Drink of it, all of you, ²⁸ for this is my blood of the †new covenant, which is poured out for many for the remission of sins. ²⁹ But I tell you, from this point forward I will certainly not drink again from this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it with you anew in the kingdom of my Father.” ³⁰ And after singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

³¹ Then Jesus said to them, “All of you will fall away because of me this night. For it is written, ‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.’ ³² But after I have been raised up, I will go ahead of you to Galilee.” ³³ Peter answered him, “Even if everyone else falls away because of you, I will never fall away.” ³⁴ Jesus said to him, “Truly I say to you that on this night, before a rooster crows, you will deny me three times.” ³⁵ But Peter said to him, “Even if I must die with you, I will certainly not deny you.” And all the disciples said the same thing.

³⁶ Then Jesus went with them to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to the disciples, “Sit here while I go over there and pray.” ³⁷ And taking with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, he began to be sorrowful and distressed. ³⁸ Then Jesus said to them, “My soul is very sorrowful, even to the point of death; stay here and keep watch with me.” ³⁹ And going a little farther, he fell on his face and prayed, “My Father, if possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as you will.” ⁴⁰ Then he came to the disciples and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, “So you could not keep watch with me for one hour? ⁴¹ Keep watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.” ⁴² Again, he went away for a second time and prayed, “My Father, if this †cup cannot pass §from me unless I drink it, may your will be done.” ⁴³ Then he came *and found them sleeping again, for their eyes were heavy. ⁴⁴ So he left †them and went away again and prayed for a third time, saying the same †thing. ⁴⁵ Then he came to §his disciples and said to them, “Sleep on now and take your rest! Behold, the hour has drawn near, and the Son of Man is delivered up into the hands of sinners. ⁴⁶ Rise, let us go. Behold, my betrayer *has drawn near.”

⁴⁷ While he was still speaking, behold, Judas, one of the twelve, came. With him was a large crowd with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests and elders of the people. ⁴⁸ Now his betrayer had given them a sign, saying, “Whomever I kiss, he is the one; arrest him.” ⁴⁹ Immediately he went up to Jesus and said, “Greetings, Rabbi!” And he kissed him. ⁵⁰ Jesus said to him, “Friend, †for what purpose have you come?” Then they came forward, took hold of Jesus, and arrested him. ⁵¹ And behold, one of the men with Jesus stretched out his hand and drew his sword. He struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his ear. ⁵² Then Jesus said to him, “Put your sword back in its place, for all who take the sword will †die by the sword.

⁵³ Or do you think that I cannot call on my §Father right now, and he will provide me with more than twelve legions of angels? ⁵⁴ How then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that say it must happen this way?"

⁵⁵ In that hour Jesus said to the crowds, "Have you come out to arrest me with swords and clubs as you would against a robber? I sat daily *with you, teaching in the temple courts, and you did not arrest me. ⁵⁶ But all this has taken place so that the Scriptures of the prophets would be fulfilled." Then all the disciples left him and fled.

⁵⁷ Now those who had arrested Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. ⁵⁸ But Peter was following him at a distance, coming as far as the courtyard of the high priest. After going inside, he sat with the officers to see the outcome. ⁵⁹ Now the chief †priests, the elders, and the whole Sanhedrin were seeking false testimony against Jesus, so that they could put him to death, ⁶⁰ but they did not find †any. Even though many false witnesses came forward, they did not find any. ⁶¹ But at last two §false said, ‘I am able to destroy the temple of God and build it in three days.’” ⁶² So the high priest stood up and said to him, “Do you make no answer? What are these men testifying against you?” ⁶³ But Jesus was silent. Then the high priest said to him, “I adjure you by the living God to tell us if you are the Christ, the Son of God.” ⁶⁴ Jesus said to him, “You have said it yourself. Nevertheless I say to you, from now on you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power and coming on the clouds of heaven.” ⁶⁵ Then the high priest tore his garments and said, “He has blasphemed! What further need do we have of witnesses? Behold, you have now heard *his blasphemy. ⁶⁶ What do you think?” They answered, “He deserves death.” ⁶⁷ Then they spit in his face and struck him. Others slapped him, ⁶⁸ saying, “Prophecy to us, you Christ! Who is it that struck you?”

⁶⁹ Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard, and a servant girl came to him and said, “You also were with Jesus the Galilean.” ⁷⁰ But he denied it before them all, saying, “I do not know what you are talking about!” ⁷¹ Then he went out to the gateway, and another servant girl saw him and said to those who were there, “This man †also was with Jesus of Nazareth.” ⁷² But again he denied it with an oath: “I do not know the man.” ⁷³ After a little while, those who were standing there came up and said to Peter, “Truly you also are one of them, for even your accent gives you away.” ⁷⁴ Then he began to invoke curses and to swear: “I do not know the man.” And immediately a rooster crowed. ⁷⁵ Then Peter remembered what Jesus had said ‡to him: “Before a rooster crows, you will deny me three times.” And he went out and wept bitterly.

¹ Now when morning came, all the chief priests and the elders *of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death. ² They bound him, led him away, and handed him over to †Pontius Pilate, the governor.

³ When Judas, who had betrayed him, saw that Jesus had been condemned, he regretted what he had done and returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders, ⁴ saying, “I have sinned by betraying ‡innocent blood.” But they said, “What is that to us? See to it yourself.” ⁵ So he threw the pieces of silver into the temple and departed. Then he went away and hanged himself. ⁶ The chief priests took the pieces of silver and said, “It is not lawful to put them into the temple treasury, since they are a price paid for blood.” ⁷ So they took counsel and used the money to buy the potter's field as a burial place for foreigners. ⁸ Therefore that field has been called the Field of Blood to this day. ⁹ Then what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled: “They took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him on whom a price had been set, on whom some of the sons of Israel had set a price, ¹⁰ and they gave them for the potter’s field, as the Lord directed me.”

¹¹ Meanwhile, Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?” Jesus said \S to him, “You have said it yourself.” ¹² But when he was accused by the chief priests and the elders, he made no answer. ¹³ Then Pilate said to him, “Do you not hear all the things they are testifying against you?” ¹⁴ But he gave him no answer, not even to a single charge, so the governor was greatly amazed.

¹⁵ Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to release one prisoner for the crowd, whomever they wanted. ¹⁶ At that time they had a notorious prisoner named *Barabbas. ¹⁷ So when the crowds were gathered together, Pilate said to them, “Whom do you want me to release for you? †Barabbas, or Jesus, who is called Christ?” ¹⁸ (For he knew they had handed Jesus over out of envy.) ¹⁹ While Pilate was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent him this message: “Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered a great deal today in a dream because of him.” ²⁰ But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds to ask for Barabbas to be released and for Jesus to be executed. ²¹ In response the governor said to them, “Which of the two do you want me to release for you?” They said, “Barabbas.” ²² So Pilate said to them, “What then shall I do with Jesus, who is called Christ?” They all said †to him, “Let him be crucified!” ²³ Then the governor said, “Why? What evil has he done?” But they cried out all the more, “Let him be crucified!”

²⁴ When Pilate saw that he was achieving nothing and that a riot was breaking out, he took water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, “I am innocent of the blood of this Srighteous man. See to it yourselves.” ²⁵ All the people answered, “His blood be on us and on our children!” ²⁶ Then he released for them Barabbas, but he scourged Jesus and handed him over to be crucified.

²⁷ Then the governor's soldiers took Jesus with them into the governor's headquarters and gathered against him the entire cohort of soldiers. ²⁸ They stripped him, put a scarlet robe on him, ²⁹ twisted together a crown of thorns, and put it on his head. They put a reed in his right hand, and kneeling before him, they mocked him, saying, “Hail, King of the Jews!” ³⁰ Then they spit on him, took the reed, and beat him repeatedly on his head. ³¹ When they had finished mocking him, they stripped him of the robe and put his own garments back on him. Then they led him away to crucify him.

³² As they went out, they found a Cyrenian man named Simon. They pressed him into service, forcing him to carry Jesus' cross. ³³ When they came to a place called Golgotha (which means, "Place of the Skull"), ³⁴ they gave Jesus *sour wine to drink mixed with gall. But when he tasted it, he refused to drink it.

³⁵ After crucifying him, they divided his garments among themselves by casting †lots. ³⁶ Then they sat down and kept watch over him there. ³⁷ Over his head they placed the written charge against him, which read, "This is Jesus, the King of the Jews." ³⁸ Then two robbers were crucified with him, one on his right and one on his left. ³⁹ Those who passed by reviled him, shaking their heads ⁴⁰ and saying, "You who would destroy the temple and build it in three days, save yourself. If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross!" ⁴¹ In the same way the chief priests ‡also, along with the §scribes, elders, and Pharisees, were mocking him, saying, ⁴² "He saved others, but he cannot save himself. *If he is the king of Israel, let him come down now from the cross, and we †will believe ‡in him. ⁴³ He has put his trust in God; let God deliver him now if he wants him, for he said, 'I am the Son of God.'" ⁴⁴ The robbers who were crucified with him were also reviling him in the same way.

⁴⁵ From the sixth hour until the ninth hour, there was darkness over the whole land. ⁴⁶ And about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, “Eli, Eli, Šlima sabachthani?” that is, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?”

⁴⁷ When some of those standing there heard this, they said, “This man is calling for Elijah.”

⁴⁸ Immediately one of them ran, got a sponge, filled it with sour wine, put it on a reed, and gave it to him to drink. ⁴⁹ But the rest said, “Leave him alone. Let us see if Elijah comes to save *him.”

⁵⁰ Then Jesus cried out again with a loud voice and gave up his spirit. ⁵¹ And behold, the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth was shaken, and the rocks were split.

⁵² The tombs were opened, and the bodies of many saints who had fallen asleep were raised.

⁵³ (They came out of the tombs, and after his resurrection they went into the holy city and appeared to many.) ⁵⁴ Now when the centurion and those who were keeping watch with him over Jesus saw the earthquake and the things that had happened, they became very frightened and said, “Truly this man was the Son of God.”

⁵⁵ Many women who had followed Jesus from Galilee and provided for him †were there looking on from a distance, ⁵⁶ among whom were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and ⁵⁷ When it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea named Joseph, who was himself also a disciple of Jesus. ⁵⁸ He went to Pilate and asked for Jesus' body. So Pilate commanded that the body be given to him. ⁵⁹ Joseph took the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, ⁶⁰ and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn in the rock. Then he rolled a large stone against the entrance of the tomb and went away. ⁶¹ Mary Magdalene was there, and so was the other Mary, sitting across from the tomb.

⁶² The next day (that is, after the day of Preparation), the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered together before Pilate ⁶³ and said, "Sir, we remember that while he was still alive that deceiver said, 'After three days I will rise again.' ⁶⁴ Therefore command that the tomb be secured until the third day, lest [§]his disciples come ^{*}by night, steal him away, and say to the people, 'He has been raised from the dead.' This last deception would be worse than the first." ⁶⁵ Pilate said to them, "You have a guard of soldiers. Go and make it as secure as you know how." ⁶⁶ So they went and secured the tomb by sealing the stone and posting the guard of soldiers.

of the week, Mary Magdalene came to see the tomb along with the other Mary. ² And behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came and rolled away the stone ^{*}from the entrance and sat on it. ³ His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing was as white as snow. ⁴ The guards were so afraid of him that they trembled and became like dead men. ⁵ Then the angel said to the women, “Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who has been crucified. ⁶ He is not here, for he is risen, just as he said. Come see the place where †the Lord lay. ⁷ And now go quickly and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead. And behold, he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him. Listen to what I have told you.” ⁸ So they went ‡out quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. ⁹ §As they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them and said, “Greetings!” So they came up, took hold of his feet, and worshiped him. ¹⁰ Then Jesus said to them, “Do not be afraid; go tell my brothers to go to Galilee, and there they will see me.”

to the soldiers ¹³ and said, “Tell people, ‘His disciples came by night and stole him away while we were sleeping.’ ¹⁴ If this matter is heard before the governor, we will persuade him and keep you free from concern.” ¹⁵ So they took the money and did as they had been instructed. And this story is still being spread among the Jews today.

¹⁶ Meanwhile, the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had directed them to go. ¹⁷ When they saw him, they worshiped him, but some doubted. ¹⁸ Then Jesus came and said to them, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. ¹⁹ *Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you.
