

THE REVELATION TO JOHN

Prologue

¹ The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his servants what must soon take place. He made it known by sending his angel to his servant John, ² who testified to the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ, even to all that he ^{*}saw. ³ Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of this prophecy and keep what is written in it, for the time is near.

Greeting to the Seven Churches

⁴ John to the seven churches in Asia: Grace to you and peace from †God, who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven Spirits who are before his throne, ⁵ and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth.

⁸ “I am the Alpha and the †Omega,” says the Lord §God, “who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.”

John's Vision of Christ

⁹ I, John, your brother and partner in the tribulation, kingdom, and endurance that are *in Christ Jesus, was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus †Christ. ¹⁰ I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice like that of a trumpet, ¹¹ saying, “†Write what you see in a book and send it to the §seven *churches: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea.”

¹² Then I turned †in that direction to see the voice that was speaking to me. And when I turned, I saw seven golden lampstands, ¹³ and in the midst of the †seven lampstands I saw one like a son of man, clothed with a robe reaching

His eyes were like a flame of fire, ¹⁵ his feet were like burnished bronze refined in a furnace, and his voice was like the roar of many waters. ¹⁶ In his right hand he held seven stars, and out of his mouth came a sharp two-edged sword. His face was like the sun shining in its strength.

¹⁷ When I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. But he placed his right hand on me and §said, “Do not be afraid. I am the first and the last, ¹⁸ the living one. I was dead, but behold, I am alive forevermore. *Amen. I have the keys of †Death and Hades. ¹⁹ ‡Therefore write what you have seen, what is now and what will take place after this. ²⁰ This is the mystery of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand and the seven golden lampstands: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven §lampstands are the seven churches.

¹ When the Lamb opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. ² And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

³ Then another angel with a golden censer came and stood at the altar. He was given a large amount of incense to offer with the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar before the throne. ⁴ And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, ascended up to God from the hand of the angel. ⁵ Then the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it to the earth, and there were *peals of thunder, rumblings, flashes of lightning, and an earthquake.

The Seven Trumpets

⁶ Then the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared to sound them.

⁷ The first angel sounded his trumpet, and hail and fire, mixed with blood, were hurled down to the earth. A †third of the earth was burned up, a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.

⁸ The second angel sounded his trumpet, and something like a great †burning mountain was thrown into the sea. A third of the sea became blood, ⁹ a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

¹⁰ The third angel sounded his trumpet, and a great star fell from heaven, burning like a torch. It fell upon a third of the rivers and upon the springs of water. ¹¹ The name of the star is Wormwood, and a third [§]of the waters became bitter like wormwood, and many people died from the water, because it had been made bitter.

¹² The fourth angel sounded his trumpet, and a third of the sun was struck, and a third of the moon and a third of the stars, so that a third of them were darkened. A third of the day was without light, and also a third of the night.

¹³ Then I looked, and I heard an *eagle saying †with a loud voice as it flew directly overhead, “Woe, woe, woe to those who dwell on the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpet from the three angels who are about to sound!”

¹ The fifth angel sounded his trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen from heaven to earth, and the star was given the key to the pit of the abyss. ² *He opened the pit of the abyss, and from the pit rose smoke like the smoke of a †burning furnace. The sun and the air were darkened by the smoke from the pit. ³ Then out of the smoke locusts descended upon the earth, and they were given power like that of the scorpions of the earth. ⁴ They were told not to harm the grass of the earth or any green thing or any tree, but only those who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads. ⁵ They were permitted to torment them for five months, but not to kill them, and their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it stings someone. ⁶ In those days people will seek death but will ‡certainly not find it. They will long to die, but death will flee from them.

⁷ The locusts looked like horses prepared for battle, and on their heads they wore something like §golden crowns; their faces were like human faces. ⁸ They had hair like the hair of women, and their teeth were like the teeth of lions. ⁹ They had breastplates like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the sound of many horses and chariots rushing into battle. ¹⁰ They have tails *and stingers like scorpions, and in their †tails they have the power to harm people for five months. ¹¹ They have as king over them the angel of the abyss. ¹² The first woe has passed. Behold, two woes are still to come after this.

¹³ Then the sixth angel sounded his trumpet, and I heard a single voice from the †four horns of the golden altar before God ¹⁴ saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, “Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates.” ¹⁵ So the four angels who were prepared for this hour, day, month, and year were released to kill a third of mankind.

¹⁶ The number of the troops §on horse was *ten thousand times ten thousand; I heard their number. ¹⁷ Now this is what the horses and their riders looked like in my vision: The riders had breastplates that were fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow. The heads of the horses were like the heads of lions, and out of their mouths came fire, smoke, and sulfur. ¹⁸ By these three †plagues a third of mankind was killed—by the fire, the smoke, and the sulfur that came out of the horses' mouths. ¹⁹ For †the power of the horses is in their mouths §and in their tails, because their tails have heads like serpents, and with them they inflict harm.

The Angel and the Little Scroll

And he said to me, “Take the scroll and eat it. It will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey.” ¹⁰ So I took the †scroll from the angel’s hand and ate it. In my mouth it was as sweet as honey, but when I had eaten it, my stomach turned bitter. ¹¹ Then I was told, “You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, tongues, and kings.”

⁴ These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the †Lord of the earth. ⁵ If anyone wants to harm them, fire comes out of their mouth and devours their enemies. If anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this way. ⁶ These two men have the power to shut the sky, so that no rain will fall during the days of their prophesying. They also have power over the waters to turn them into blood and to strike the earth with every plague as often as they want. ⁷ When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the abyss will wage war against them, and overpower and kill them. ⁸ Their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city, which in a spiritual sense is called Sodom and Egypt, where †their Lord was crucified. ⁹ For three and a half days some from among the peoples, tribes, tongues, and nations will look at their dead bodies and refuse to let them be placed in *a tomb. ¹⁰ And those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them and celebrate and †give each other gifts, because these two prophets had tormented those who dwell on the earth. ¹¹ But after †the three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell upon those who were

Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

¹⁴ The second woe has passed. Behold, the third woe is coming quickly.

The Seventh Trumpet

¹⁵ Then the seventh angel sounded his trumpet, and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, “The †kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he will reign forever and ever.” ¹⁶ And the twenty-four elders, who ‡sit on their thrones before the throne of God, fell on their faces and worshiped God, ¹⁷ saying,

The Woman and the Dragon

¹ Then a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars on her head. ² She was with child and cried out in the pain and agony of giving birth. ³ Then another sign appeared in heaven: behold, a great fiery red dragon with seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems on his heads. ⁴ His tail swept down a third of the stars of heaven and hurled them to the earth. child. ⁵ She gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron, but her child was caught up to God and to his throne.

⁶ And the woman fled into the wilderness, where God had a place prepared for her to be nourished for one thousand two hundred sixty days.

⁷ Then war broke out in heaven; Michael and his angels fought against the dragon. And the dragon fought back, along with his angels. ⁸ But *he did not prevail, and there was no longer any place found for †him in heaven. ⁹ The ‡great dragon was thrown down, the old serpent, who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world. He was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. ¹⁰ Then I heard a loud voice §in heaven saying, “The salvation, power, and kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ, have now come. For the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, he who accuses them day and night before our God. ¹¹ They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony; they did not love their lives so as to shy away from death. ¹² Therefore rejoice, O heavens and you who dwell in them! But woe to *the earth and the sea! For the devil has come down to you with great wrath, because he knows that his time is short.”

He will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb. ¹¹ And the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever. There is no rest day or night for those who worship the beast and his image or for anyone who receives the mark of his name.”

¹² This calls for the endurance of the †saints, those who keep the commandments of God and hold fast to their faith in Jesus.

¹³ Then I heard a voice from heaven †saying, “Write: ‘Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.’ ” “Yes,” says the Spirit, “that they may rest from their labors, †and their works will follow them.”

The Harvest of the Earth

¹⁴ Then I looked, and behold, there was a white cloud, and sitting on the cloud was one like a son of man, with a golden crown on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand. ¹⁵ And another angel came out of *the temple, crying out with a loud voice to him who was sitting on the cloud, “Take your sickle and reap, because the hour †to reap

 16 So he who was sitting on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 Then another angel came out of the temple in heaven; he too had a sharp sickle. 18 And another angel, who had authority over the fire, came out from the altar and called out with a loud †cry to the angel who had the sharp sickle, “Take your sharp sickle and gather the clusters §from the vintage of the earth, for *its grapes are ripe.” 19 So the angel swung his sickle across the earth, gathered the vintage of the earth, and threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. 20 Then the winepress was trodden outside the city, and blood came out of the winepress, as high as a horse's bridle, for one thousand six hundred stadia.

¹⁷ The seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came from the throne of ^{*}the temple of heaven, saying, “It is done!”

¹⁸ Then there were †flashes of lightning, peals of thunder, rumblings, and a great earthquake such as had not occurred since ‡men have been on the earth, so great was the quake. ¹⁹ The great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. God remembered Babylon the great and gave her the cup of the wine of the fury of his wrath. ²⁰ Every island fled, and no mountain could be found. ²¹ And great hailstones, about the weight of a talent, fell on people from heaven, and they blasphemed God for the plague of the hail, because the plague was so severe.

She held in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the filth of †her fornication. ⁵ A mysterious name was written on her forehead: “Babylon the great, the mother of prostitutes and of the abominations of the earth.” ⁶ And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the ‡saints, the blood of the martyrs of Jesus.

When I saw her, I was greatly amazed. ⁷ But the angel said to me, “Why are you so amazed? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast with seven heads and ten horns that carries her. ⁸ The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is about to come up out of the abyss and go to destruction. Yet he is one of the seven and is on his way to destruction. ¹² The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they will receive authority as kings for one hour with the beast. ¹³ These kings have one mind and will give their power and authority to the beast. ¹⁴ They will make war with the Lamb, but the Lamb will conquer them because he is the Lord of lords and King of kings, and those with him are called, chosen, and faithful.”

¹⁵ Then the angel said to me, “The waters you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and tongues. ¹⁶ The †beast and the ten horns you saw will hate the prostitute. They will make her desolate and naked; they will eat her flesh and burn her with fire. ¹⁷ For God has put it into their hearts to carry out his purpose by being of one mind and handing their kingdom over to the beast until the words of God are fulfilled. ¹⁸ As for the woman you saw, she is the great city that has dominion over the kings of the earth.”
