English Preface

'No Tahut na Hihinawas' is a translation of the New Testament into the Hinsaal dialect of New Ireland in Papua New Guinea. The approximately 1400 speakers of this language live on the west coast of south-central New Ireland. Explanations about the introductions to each book, section headings, Old Testament quotations, footnotes and indication of variant readings of manuscripts (by square brackets) are given in the vernacular preface. There is a brief glossary and topical index at the end. Thanks be to God for all of his people who have worked hard, prayed, and given gifts which have made possible this translation.
